Changing provisions relating to state employee incentives.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Halsan moved that the following Committee on Governmental Operations amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 142, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 54, Laws of 1983 and RCW 41.60.010 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Board" means the productivity board.

(2) "Employee suggestion program" means the program developed by the board under RCW 41.60.020.

(3) "State employees" means employees in state agencies ((subject to chapter 41.06 or 28B.16 RCW)) and institutions of higher education except for elected officials, directors of such agencies and institutions, and their confidential secretaries and administrative assistants and others specifically ruled ineligible by the rules of the productivity board.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 167, Laws of 1982 as last amended by section 1, chapter 114, Laws of 1985 and RCW 41.60.015 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created the productivity board. The board shall administer the employee suggestion program under this chapter and shall review applications for teamwork incentive pay for state employees under RCW 41.60.100, 41.60.110, and 41.60.120.

(2) The board shall be composed of:

(a) The secretary of state who shall act as chairperson;

(b) The director of personnel appointed under the provisions of RCW 41.06.130 or the director's designee;

(c) The director of financial management or the director's designee;

(d) The personnel director appointed under the provisions of RCW 28B.16.060 or the director's designee; ~~((and))~~

(e) The director of general administration or the director's designee;

(f) Three persons with experience in administering incentives such as those used by industry, with the governor, lieutenant governor, and speaker of the house of representatives each appointing one person. The governor's appointee shall be a representative of an employee organization certified as an exclusive representative of at least one bargaining unit of classified employees, but no one organization may be represented for two consecutive terms;

(g) One person representing state agencies and institutions with employees subject to chapter 41.06 RCW, and one person representing those subject to chapter 28B.16 RCW, both to be appointed by the governor; and

(h) In addition, the governor and board chairperson may jointly appoint persons to the board on an ad hoc basis. Ad hoc members shall serve in an advisory capacity and shall not have the right to vote.

~~((These))~~ Members under subsection (2) (f) and (g) of this section shall be appointed to serve three-year terms.

Members of the board ~~((shall))~~ appointed pursuant to subsection (2)(f) of this section may be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240. Any board member who is not a state employee may be reimbursed for travel expenses under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

Sec. 3. Section 9, chapter 167, Laws of 1982 as amended by section 2, chapter 114, Laws of 1985 and RCW 41.60.041 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Cash awards for suggestions generating net savings to the state shall be ten percent of the net savings.

(2) No award may be granted in excess of ten thousand dollars.

(3) If the suggestion is significantly modified when implemented, the percentage specified in subsection (1) of this section may be decreased at the option of the board.

(4) The board shall establish guidelines for making cash awards for suggestions for which benefits to the state are intangible or for which benefits cannot be calculated. In cases where cost avoidances are identified, the board shall establish guidelines in consultation with the state personnel board and the higher education personnel board which allow agencies to grant leave in lieu of cash awards.

(5) Funds for the awards shall be drawn from the appropriation of the agency benefiting from the employee's suggestion. If the suggestion reduces costs to a nonappropriated fund or reduces costs paid without appropriation from a nonappropriated portion of an appropriated fund, an award may be paid from the benefiting fund or account without appropriation.

(6) Awards and fees for suggestions which generate new or additional money for the general fund may be drawn from the general fund by joint approval of the productivity board and the director of financial management.

(7) In addition to the amount awarded, the agency shall transfer ten percent of the savings to the ~~((department of personnel for deposit in the))~~ department of personnel service fund. Moneys so transferred shall be used exclusively for the operations of the productivity board or as an offset to any amount appropriated to the productivity board for administrative expenses from another revenue source, other than that provided under RCW 41.60.120. ~~((Any moneys remaining unexpended at the end of the fiscal biennium shall revert to the original fund source.))~~

The productivity board at least annually shall review amounts transferred to the department of personnel service fund under this section and may reduce the percentage of savings to be transferred or temporarily suspend transfer if cash receipts exceed needs for program administration.

Sec. 4. Section 5, chapter 142, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 114, Laws of 1985 and RCW 41.60.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature ~~((may augment the revenue transferred to))~~ shall appropriate from the department of personnel service fund ~~((under RCW 41.60.041(5) and 41.60.120 with an appropriation. Such appropriation shall be used exclusively))~~ for the payment of administrative costs of the productivity board.

Sec. 5. Section 2, chapter 167, Laws of 1982 as amended by section 4, chapter 114, Laws of 1985 and RCW 41.60.100 are each amended to read as follows:

With the exception of the legislative and judicial branches, any organizational unit of any agency of state government having an identifiable budget or having its financial records maintained according to an accounting system which identifies the expenditures and receipts properly attributable to that unit may apply to the board for selection as a candidate for the award of teamwork incentive pay to its employees. The application shall be submitted prior to the beginning of any year and shall have the approval of the head of the agency within which the unit is located.

Applications shall be in the form specified by the board and contain such information as the board may require, including but not limited to those evaluation components developed by the applying unit which will provide quantitative measures of program output and performance.

The board shall evaluate the applications submitted. From those proposals which are considered to be reasonable and practical and which are found to include developed performance indicators which lend themselves to a judgment of success or failure, the board shall select the units to participate in the teamwork incentive pay program.

~~((Persons who are exempt from civil service under RCW 41.06.070 (5) and (9) may not participate in the employee incentive pay program.))~~

Sec. 6. Section 3, chapter 167, Laws of 1982 as amended by section 5, chapter 114, Laws of 1985 and RCW 41.60.110 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) To qualify for the award of teamwork incentive pay to its employees, a unit selected shall demonstrate to the satisfaction of the board that it has operated during the year of participation at a lower cost with either an increase in the level of services rendered or with no decrease in the level of services rendered.

(a) A unit completing its first year of participation shall compare costs during that year of participation to (i) the fiscal year expenditures for the year immediately preceding the first year of participation, or (ii) an average derived from the unit's historical data, or (iii) engineered standards used in conjunction with an average derived from the unit's historical data;

(b) A unit participating in the teamwork incentive pay program for more than one year shall compare its costs during the current year of participation with its costs for the immediately preceding year; and

(c) For the purposes of this section, a unit's historical data shall be restricted to data generated during the period of three years or less immediately preceding the unit's first year of participation in the teamwork incentive pay program.

(2) The board shall satisfy itself from documentation submitted by the organizational unit that the claimed cost of operation is real and not merely apparent and that it is not, in whole or in part, the result of:

(a) Chance;

(b) A lowering of the quality of the service rendered;

(c) Nonrecurrence of expenditures which were single outlay, or one-time expenditures, in the preceding year;

(d) Stockpiling inventories in the immediately preceding year so as to reduce requirements in the eligible year;

(e) Substitution of federal funds, other receipts, or nonstate funds for state appropriations;

(f) Unreasonable postponement of payments of accounts payable until the year immediately following the eligible year;

(g) Shifting of expenses to another unit of government; or

(h) Any other practice, event, or device which the board decides has caused a distortion which makes it falsely appear that a savings or increase in level of services has occurred.

(3) The board shall consider as legitimate savings those reductions in expenditures made possible by such items as the following:

(a) Reductions in overtime;

(b) Elimination of consultant fees;

(c) Less temporary help;

(d) Improved systems and procedures;

(e) Better deployment and utilization of personnel;

(f) Elimination of unnecessary travel;

(g) Elimination of unnecessary printing and mailing;

(h) Elimination of unnecessary payments for items such as advertising;

(i) Elimination of waste, duplication, and operations of doubtful value;

(j) Improved space utilization; and

(k) Any other items (~~considered~~) determined by the board (~~as representing true savings~~) to represent cost savings.

Sec. 7. Section 4, chapter 167, Laws of 1982 as amended by section 6, chapter 114, Laws of 1985 and RCW 41.60.120 are each amended to read as follows:

At the conclusion of the eligible year, the board shall compare the expenditures for that year of each unit selected against the expenditures of that unit for the immediately preceding year or expenditures determined in accordance with RCW 41.60.110(1) (a) and (b) and, after making such adjustments as in the board's judgment are required to eliminate distortions, shall determine the amount, if any, that the unit has reduced the unit's cost of operations or increased its level of services in the eligible year. Adjustments to eliminate distortions may include any legislative increases in employee compensation and inflationary increases in the cost of services, materials, and supplies. If the board also determines that in the board's judgment a unit qualifies for an award, the board shall award to the employees of that unit a sum equal to twenty-five percent of the amount determined to be the savings to the state for the level of services rendered. The amount awarded shall be divided and distributed in equal shares to the employees of the unit, except that employees who worked for that unit less than the twelve months of the year shall receive only a pro rata share based on the fraction of the year worked for that unit. Funds for this teamwork incentive pay shall be drawn from the agency in which the unit is located.

In addition to the amount awarded, the agency shall transfer ten percent of the savings to ~~((the department of personnel for deposit in))~~ the department of personnel service fund. Moneys so transferred shall be used exclusively for the operations of the productivity board or as an offset to any amount appropriated to the productivity board for administrative expenses from another revenue source, other than that provided under RCW 41.60.120. ~~((Any moneys remaining unexpended at the end of the fiscal biennium shall revert to the original fund source.))~~ The productivity board at least annually shall review amounts transferred to the department of personnel service fund under this section and may reduce the percentage of savings to be transferred or temporarily suspend transfer if cash receipts exceed needs for program administration.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 41.60 RCW to read as follows:

No award may be made under this chapter to any elected state official or state agency director. No monetary award may be made to persons exempt from the state civil service law under RCW 41.06.070 (5) or (9).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The legislative budget committee shall undertake a cost-benefit analysis of employee incentive programs under chapter 41.60 RCW in 1990. A report of the findings and any conclusions and recommendations derived from this analysis shall be submitted to the appropriate standing committees of the house of representatives and the senate in January, 1991.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Section 15, chapter 167, Laws of 1982 and RCW 43.131.255 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1987, except section 10 of this act which shall take effect immediately."

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following amendment to the Committee on Governmental Operations amendment was adopted:

On page 4, line 12 of the committee amendment after "identified," strike all of the material down to and including "awards;" on line 17 and insert "the state personnel board and the higher education personnel board in consultation with the productivity board shall adopt rules which allow agencies and institutions of higher education to grant leave in lieu of cash awards."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Governmental Operations amendment, as amended.

The motion by Senator Halsan carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Halsan, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "programs;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 41.60.010, 41.60.015, 41.60.041, 41.60.050, 41.60.100, 41.60.110, and 41.60.120; adding a new section to chapter 41.60 RCW; creating a new section; repealing RCW 43.131.225; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency."

On motion of Senator Halsan, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 91, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Talmadge, in reading your amendment that we just adopted, I was wondering how it would work in an institution of higher learning where you would authorize, in lieu of a cash payment which is what I understand—a leave—from the standpoint of replacement of a faculty member, which probably these are the people who would come with some of the major recommendations, how that would work as far as a replacement for someone who is in a teaching and research capacity—if you granted him the leave, in lieu of cash?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, I am not certain how that exactly works. The way the bill was written, however, it appeared to say that when you granted this leave in lieu of a cash award, that that was the function of the productivity board to do. That was not the intention of the committee, not the intention of the productivity board, because leave policy has always been exclusively the province of the personnel board. All my amendment was designed to do, without regard to how that would work, is to make clear that it's the personnel board, in consultation with the productivity board, that would adopt rules to accomplish this policy. I make no judgments about the policy itself, just to clarify who has the responsibility for doing it."

Senator Patterson: "Then, it would really be up to the personnel board of each institution of higher learning to determine what the policy would be if the faculty member chose to take a leave and in most cases, as you know, the leave that they have, there is part payment during that leave period? The extent and the length of the leave is also whether or not the cash would offset the cost of replacement of a faculty member. This is a nice idea is what I am trying to say and yet, there are some major difficulties in implementing it when it would come to a top faculty member who was teaching and doing research--"

Senator Talmadge: "This was simply a request from the productivity board where a state employee, faculty member or classified staff in higher education had come up with an idea that generated cost savings to the state--and that's what the productivity board is designed to do. The productivity board wanted to be able to grant that person a cash award, which is the traditional way of doing it--or additional leave. I make no judgments about that in this amendment. I just wanted to make it clear that we are not giving to the productivity board the responsibility for setting leave policies, that we should keep that with the personnel boards."

Senator Patterson: "Then, your comment indicates that we are dealing only with classified employees. Is that correct?"

Senator Talmadge: "My understanding is that it's most likely that where we would see the savings would be with the classified employees, but I am not certain. Maybe Senator Halsan knows this, but I assume it applies to all higher educational employees."

Senator Patterson: "That was the question. Whether it includes faculty as well as classified employees. Senator Halsan, would you yield?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR HALSAN

Senator Halsan: "Thank you, my understanding of it is, if the employees are, in fact, covered by a higher education personnel board, they would be covered. But, a close reading of this would show you that, in fact, what the amendment and what the language of the bill, as it exists, is asking to be done is that the two boards--the personnel board and the HEP board, in consultation with the productivity board, would adopt rules which would allow this to be done--not mandate that it be done. The rules--what they are intended to do is to outline situations where the burden is on the agency to implement--that the cash award would be done in lieu of that. It's permissive, rather than mandatory."

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALMADGE

Senator Talmadge: "Briefly, to clarify, I am advised by staff that it covers only classified employees, so that saves us all that colloquy."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Bill No. 91, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of House Bill No. 91, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; absent, 1.

On page 1, line 21, following "services" and before the period, insert ": PROVIDED, That no child three years of age or younger shall be transported under the provisions of this 1987 act unless accompanied by a parent or guardian"

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 452, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Bill No. 452, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of House Bill No. 452, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 27; nays, 22.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Bauer, Bender, Bottiger, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McDermott, Moore, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Rinehart, Smitherman, Talmadge, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 27.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Hansen, Hayner, McCasin, McDonald, Metcalf, Nelson, Newhouse, Pullen, Rasmussen, Saling, Sellar, Stratton, Tanner, Vogtild, West - 22.

HOUSE BILL NO. 452, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 274, by Committee on Human Services (originally sponsored by Representatives Brekke, Braddock and P. King) (by request of Department of Social and Health Services)

Changing provisions relating to how department of social and health services recovers overpayments of benefits to recipients and vendors.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Wojahn moved that the following Committee on Human Services and Corrections amendment be adopted through subsection (b) and that subsection (c) not be adopted:

On page 11, beginning on line 24, after "(1)" strike the remainder of the subsection and insert:

"The department is authorized to recover the cost of medical care provided to a recipient who was sixty-five years or older, upon the recipient's death except:

(a) Where there is a surviving spouse; or

(b) Where there is a surviving child under 21 years of age or blind or disabled as defined in the state plan under Title XIX of the social security act; or

(c) To the extent of the first fifty thousand dollars of the estate value at the time of death, where there are surviving children other than as defined above, and not to exceed thirty-five percent of the remainder."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Wojahn, they have what they call reverse mortgages or equity or whatever, where, let's assume they have a home and an average home will--most of them run $50,000 $60,000, up to $80,000 or $90,000--and that person would require some assistance, medical and otherwise. With this lien on the home, it will be more difficult for them to go in and get a reverse mortgage. In fact, it would probably be impossible wouldn't it, if they wanted to get enough money out of their home to live on? They have very low social security or whatever they have and not enough to live on, but they can go in and borrow some money on the home for living expenses up to a certain percentage. What would the lien do to this person?"

Senator Wojahn: "Well, it would do nothing, because the surviving spouse has just died and there is nobody left."

Senator Rasmussen: "I understand, but the lien will be on it for the medical assistance prior to the person dying."

Senator Wojahn: "And only for that amount that the lien was on for public assistance. The rest of the home would be available to the surviving heirs."

Senator Rasmussen: "I am not talking about surviving heirs. I am talking about the difficulty in going in and getting eating money out of your home--the reverse mortgage part."

Senator Wojahn: "Well, I suspect that if there was a lien on it and the family had not expended all of the money of the lien and there were still available funds in there, then the state could come in and take the portion that they needed if there was money available."

Senator Rasmussen: "Maybe I ought to direct that question to Senator Talmadge. This is rather a legal question. Thank you, Senator Wojahn."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Newhouse: "Mr. President, I rise to a point of order. I think it would be better if Senator Wojahn would handle the committee amendment with an amendment to the committee amendment and then the thing would properly be before us."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Your point is well taken, Senator Newhouse."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Wojahn, and there being no objection, the motion to adopt the Committee on Human Services and Corrections amendment without subsection (c) was withdrawn.

Senator Wojahn moved that the Committee on Human Services and Corrections amendment on page 11, beginning on line 24, including subsections (a,b,c) be adopted.

Senator Wojahn moved that the following amendment to the Committee on Human Services amendment be adopted:

On line 19, after "act" strike everything down to and including "remainder" on line 26 (all of subsection c)

MOTION

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rinehart, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1987-8648

by Senators Rinehart, Gaspard, Saling, Rasmussen, Metcalf, Kiskaddon, Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Sellar, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vognlid, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn and Zimmerman; Lieutenant Governor, John A. Cherberg; Secretary of the Senate, Sid Snyder; Assistant Secretary of the Senate, Bill Gleason; Sergeant at Arms, Orlando Scarpelli

WHEREAS, Dr. John Terrey has dedicated nearly four decades to the advancement and enhancement of public education in the state of Washington; and

WHEREAS, Dr. John Terrey has toiled valiantly in the educational vineyards for the past nine years as executive director of the nation's seventh largest public community college system; and

WHEREAS, Dr. John Terrey has devoted his career to preserving access to public higher education for more than two million seven-hundred thousand Washington community college students during his eighteen-year tenure at the State Board for Community College Education; and

WHEREAS, Dr. John Terrey is widely known as a leader among leaders, as an educational idealist who has transformed his dreams for public education into expanded opportunities for serving the students of yesterday and the students of tomorrow be they returning veterans, displaced homemakers, small business owners, dislocated workers, adult illiterates, new immigrants or members of underrepresented minority groups; and

WHEREAS, Dr. John Terrey has illuminated legislative deliberations for nearly twenty years with his candor, his humor, and his erudite and precise powers of persuasion; and

WHEREAS, Dr. John Terrey is retiring as executive director of the State Board for Community College Education on June 30, 1987;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the state of Washington that the members of the Senate on behalf of the citizens of this state express their enduring appreciation, infinite admiration and eternal gratitude to Dr. John Terrey for his idealism, his courage, his vision, his leadership and his innumerable and invaluable contributions to the past, the present and the future students of public higher education in the state of Washington; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be presented personally, formally and enthusiastically to Dr. John Terrey and his wife, Elizabeth, on this 15th day of April, 1987 by members of the Washington State Senate.

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President introduced Dr. and Mrs. John Terrey who were seated with him on the rostrum.

Remarks of welcome and congratulations were offered to Dr. and Mrs. Terrey from many of the Senators.

With permission of the Senate, business was suspended to permit Dr. Terrey to address the Senate with the following remarks:

REMARKS BY DR. JOHN TERREY

Dr. Terrey: "I very sincerely thank each and every one of you. It's a great moment to be here. I tried to get here on my own when I met Mr. President. I would only say of him that if one ever wishes to define a gentleman, you can do it through deductive reasoning by simply observing this man and what you see, would be a gentleman.

"I am going to refrain from individual comments, because I will leave people out and I would feel very bad about that. I want to acknowledge, however, the point that Senator Rasmussen made about Liz, my wife--very deserving. She is a very prudent woman. She came here today with fear and trepidation about what would happen if the Resolution didn't pass. Fortunately, it did. I also wish to observe that she has provided me a great deal of advice over the years. Some of it applies to me and I think, equally, it applies to you. One day I was philosophizing to her that we love a person for his weaknesses. His strengths are self supporting. She digested that for awhile and finally the light came and she said, 'You know John, you must be one of the most loved people in the world.'

"This body, I'd say in my professional life, I have great respect and great love for two institutions, obviously, for the community colleges and the other for this Legislature. Both of them, at times, have been frustrating, discouraging. What I like is behind the doors that you knock on, the campaign efforts you make, all the sacrifices you make to get here--there is a dream--you people entertain a dream. You want, through your work, for this world to be a better place. That's what really motivates you, in my mind. The community colleges, in my mind, have the same past here. I don't think there is any institution of education across this country, in this century, that has done more to extend opportunities for people than have the community colleges--people who never dared to dream that they would have an opportunity.

"In view, the community colleges have had a long journey together from 1941 when Governor Arthur B. Langley signed the first piece of legislation to this day. We have worked together in a common effort and where you have been at your best and where we have been at our best, is when we concentrate on those activities which will uplift the human spirit. That, I think, has been one of the great consequences of our joint efforts. The secret is that there is a dream and there is a reality and there's disparity between the two and we must not lower the dream. We must energize ourselves to move that reality closer to realizing what the dream may be. The fact that it will never be in total is acceptable, because as the poet, Robert Browning said, 'A man's reach should exceed his grasp or what's a heaven for?' We go at it day by day and I admire you people for the work which you do.

"I will conclude with an observation, going back to 1951 to the opening speech that General MacArthur made for a joint session of the Congress when he started out with these words, 'I stand here on this rostrum with a sense of deep humility and great pride, humility in the wake of those great American architects who have stood here before me and pride in the reflection that this whole legislative debate represents the purist form of human liberty yet devised.' Thank you very much."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, the remarks by Dr. Terrey will be spread upon the journal.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President appointed Senators Metcalf, Gaspard, Saling, McDermott, McDonald, Rasmussen, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Rinehart and McCaslin to escort Dr. and Mrs. John Terrey from the Senate Chambers.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 767, by Committee on Health Care (originally sponsored by Representatives Niemi and P. King)

Regulating respiratory care practitioners.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Wojahn, the following Committee on Human Services and Corrections amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that it is necessary to regulate the practice of respiratory care at the level of certification in order to protect the public health and safety. The settings for these services may include, health facilities licensed in this state, clinics, home health agencies, physicians' offices, and public or community health services. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to require that individual or group policies or contracts of an insurance carrier, health care service contractor, or health maintenance organization provide benefits or coverage for services and supplies provided by a person certified under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Advisory committee" means the Washington state advisory respiratory care committee.

(2) "Department" means the department of licensing.

(3) "Director" means the director of licensing or the director's designee.

(4) "Respiratory care practitioner" means an individual certified under this chapter.

(5) "Physician" means an individual licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW.

(6) "Rural hospital" means a hospital located anywhere in the state except the following areas:

(a) The entire counties of Snohomish (including Camano Island), King, Kitsap, Pierce, Thurston, Clark, and Spokane;

(b) Areas within a twenty-mile radius of an urban area with a population exceeding thirty thousand persons; and

(c) Those cities or city-clusters located in rural counties but which for all practical purposes are urban. These areas are Bellingham, Aberdeen-Hoquiam, Longview-Kelso, Wenatchee, Yakima, Sunnyside, Richland-Kennewick-Pasco, and Walla Walla.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. An entity or person shall not employ or contract with persons engaging in respiratory care as respiratory care practitioners that have not received a certificate to practice respiratory care in the state. Rural hospitals are exempt from this chapter. Nothing in this chapter prohibits or restricts:

(1) The practice of a profession by individuals who are licensed under other laws of this state who are performing services within their authorized scope of practice, which may overlap the services provided by respiratory care practitioners;

(2) The practice of respiratory care by an individual employed by the government of the United States while the individual is engaged in the performance of duties prescribed for him or her by the laws and regulations of the United States;

(3) The practice of respiratory care by a person pursuing a supervised course of study leading to a degree or certificate in respiratory care as a part of an accredited and approved educational program, if the person is designated by a title which clearly indicates his or her status as a student or trainee, or otherwise as a student;

(4) The use of the title "respiratory care practitioner" by registered nurses authorized under chapter 18.88 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A respiratory care practitioner is a person who adopts or uses any title or any description of services which incorporates one or more of the following terms or designations: (1) RT, (2) RCP, (3) respiratory care practitioner, (4) respiratory therapist, (5) respiratory technician, (6) inhalation therapist, or (7) any other words, abbreviation, or insignia indicating that he or she is a respiratory care practitioner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A respiratory care practitioner certified under this chapter is employed in the treatment, management, diagnostic testing, rehabilitation, and care of patients with deficiencies and abnormalities which affect the cardiopulmonary system and associated aspects of other systems, and is under the direct order and under the qualified medical direction of a physician. The practice of respiratory care includes, but is not limited to:

(1) The use and administration of medical gases, exclusive of general anesthesia;

(2) The use of air and oxygen administering apparatus;

(3) The use of humidification and aerosols;

(4) The administration of prescribed pharmacologic agents related to respiratory care;

(5) The use of mechanical or physiological ventilatory support;

(6) Postural drainage, chest percussion, and vibration;

(7) Bronchopulmonary hygiene;

(8) Cardiopulmonary resuscitation as it pertains to establishing airways and external cardiac compression;

(9) The maintenance of natural and artificial airways and insertion, without cutting tissues, of artificial airways, as ordered by the attending physician;

(10) Diagnostic and monitoring techniques such as the measurement of cardiorespiratory volumes, pressures, and flows; and

(11) The drawing and analyzing of arterial, capillary, and mixed venous blood specimens as ordered by the attending physician or an advanced registered nurse practitioner as authorized by the board of nursing under chapter 18.88 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) In addition to any other authority provided by law, the director, in consultation with the advisory committee, may:

(a) Adopt rules, in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW, necessary to implement this chapter;

(b) Set all certification, examination, and renewal fees in accordance with RCW 43.24.086;

(c) Establish forms and procedures necessary to administer this chapter;

(d) Issue a certificate to any applicant who has met the education, training, and examination requirements for certification;

(e) Hire clerical, administrative, and investigative staff as needed to implement this chapter and hire individuals certified under this chapter to serve as examiners for any practical examinations;

(f) Approve those schools from which graduation will be accepted as proof of an applicant's eligibility to take the certification examination;

(g) Prepare, grade, and administer, or determine the nature of, and supervise the grading and administration of, examinations for applicants for certification;

(h) Determine whether alternative methods of training are equivalent to formal education and establish forms, procedures, and criteria for evaluation of an applicant's alternative training to determine the applicant's eligibility to take the examination;

(i) Determine which states have legal credentialing requirements equivalent to those of this state and issue certificates to individuals legally credentialed in those states without examination; and

(j) Define and approve any experience requirement for certification.

(2) The provisions of chapter 18.130 RCW shall govern the issuance and denial of certificates, uncertified practice, and the disciplining of persons certified under this chapter. The director shall be the disciplining authority under this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. The director shall keep an official record of all proceedings, a part of which record shall consist of a register of all applicants for certification under this chapter, with the result of each application.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. (1) There is created a state respiratory care advisory committee consisting of five members appointed by the director. Three members of the advisory committee shall be respiratory care practitioners who are certified under this chapter. The initial members, however, may be appointed to the advisory committee if they meet all the requirements for certification under this chapter and have been engaged in the practice of respiratory care for at least five years. One member of the advisory committee shall be an individual representing the public who is unaffiliated with the profession. One member of the advisory committee shall be a physician, who is a pulmonary specialist. Each member shall hold office for a term of four years, except that any member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of the term for which his or her predecessor was appointed shall be appointed for the remainder of such term and the terms of office of the members first taking office shall expire, as designated at the time of appointment, one at the end of the first year, one at the end of the second year, one at the end of the third year, and two at the end of the fourth year after the date of appointment. Thereafter all appointments shall be for four years. Any advisory committee member may be removed for just cause. The director may appoint a new member to fill any vacancy on the advisory committee for the remainder of the unexpired term. No advisory committee member may serve more than two consecutive terms, whether full or partial.

(2) Advisory committee members shall be entitled to be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240, and to be reimbursed for travel expenses under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(3) The advisory committee shall have the authority to elect annually a chairperson and vice-chairperson to direct the meetings of the advisory committee. The advisory committee shall meet at least once each year, and may hold additional meetings as called by the director or the chairperson. Three members of the advisory committee constitute a quorum.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. The director, members of the advisory committee, or individuals acting on their behalf are immune from suit in any civil action based on any certification or disciplinary proceedings, or other official acts performed in the course of their duties.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. The director shall issue a certificate to any applicant who demonstrates to the director's satisfaction that the following requirements have been met:

(1) Graduation from a school approved by the director or successful completion of alternate training which meets the criteria established by the director;

(2) Successful completion of an examination administered or approved by the director;

(3) Successful completion of any experience requirement established by the director;

(4) Good moral character.

In addition, applicants shall be subject to the grounds for denial or issuance of a conditional certificate under chapter 18.130 RCW.

A person who meets the qualifications to be admitted to the examination for certification as a respiratory care practitioner may practice as a respiratory care practitioner under the supervision of a respiratory care practitioner certified under this chapter between the date of filing an application for certification and the announcement of the results of the next succeeding examination for certification if that person applies for and takes the first examination for which he or she is eligible.

The director shall establish by rule what constitutes adequate proof of meeting the criteria.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. The director shall approve only those persons who have achieved the minimum level of competency as defined by the director. The director shall establish by rule the standards and procedures for approval of alternate training and shall have the authority to contract with individuals or organizations having expertise in the profession, or in education, to assist in evaluating those applying for approval. The standards and procedures set shall apply equally to schools and training within the United States and those in foreign jurisdictions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) The date and location of the examination shall be established by the director. Applicants who have been found by the director to meet the other requirements for certification shall be scheduled for the next examination following the filing of the application. However, the applicant shall not be scheduled for any examination taking place sooner than sixty days after the application is filed.

(2) The director shall examine each applicant, by means determined most effective, on subjects appropriate to the scope of practice. Such examinations shall be limited to the purpose of determining whether the applicant possesses the minimum skill and knowledge necessary to practice competently, and shall meet generally accepted standards of fairness and validity for certification examinations.

(3) All examinations shall be conducted by the director, and all grading of the examinations shall be under fair and wholly impartial methods.

(4) Any applicant who fails to make the required grade in the first examination is entitled to take up to three subsequent examinations, upon the prepayment of a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 for each subsequent examination. Upon failure of four examinations, the director may invalidate the original application and require such remedial education as is deemed necessary.

(5) The director may approve an examination prepared and administered by a private testing agency or association of credentialing boards for use by an applicant in meeting the certification requirement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Applications for certification shall be submitted on forms provided by the director. The director may require any information and documentation which reasonably relates to the need to determine whether the applicant meets the criteria for certification provided in this chapter and chapter 18.130 RCW. All applications shall be accompanied by a fee determined by the director under RCW 43.24.086.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) The director shall waive the examination and grant a certificate to a person engaged in the profession of respiratory care in this state on the effective date of this section, if the director determines the person meets commonly accepted standards of education and experience for the profession and has previously achieved an acceptable grade on an approved examination administered by a private testing agency or respiratory care association as established by rule of the director.

(2) If an individual is engaged in the practice of respiratory care on the effective date of this section but has not achieved an acceptable grade on an approved examination administered by a private testing agency, the individual may apply to the director for examination. This section shall only apply to those individuals who file an application within one year of the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The director shall establish by rule the requirements and fees for renewal of certificates. Failure to renew shall invalidate the certificate and all privileges granted by the certificate. In the event a certificate has lapsed for a period longer than three years, the certified respiratory care practitioner shall demonstrate competence to the satisfaction of the director by continuing education or under the other standards determined by the director.

Sec. 16. Section 3, chapter 117, Laws of 1985 and section 28, chapter 326, Laws of 1985 and RCW 18.120.020 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

The definitions contained in this section shall apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Applicant group" includes any health professional group or organization, any individual, or any other interested party which proposes that any health professional group not presently regulated be regulated or which proposes to substantially increase the scope of practice of the profession.

(2) "Certificate" and "certification" mean a voluntary process by which a statutory regulatory entity grants recognition to an individual who (a) has met certain prerequisite qualifications specified by that regulatory entity, and (b) may assume or use "certified" in the title or designation to perform prescribed health professional tasks.

(3) "Grandfather clause" means a provision in a regulatory statute applicable to practitioners actively engaged in the regulated health profession prior to the effective date of the regulatory statute which exempts the practitioners from meeting the prerequisite qualifications set forth in the regulatory statute to perform prescribed occupational tasks.

(4) "Health professions" means and includes the following health and health-related licensed or regulated professions and occupations: Podiatry under chapter 18.22 RCW; chiropractic under chapters 18.25 and 18.26 RCW; dental hygiene under chapter 18.29 RCW; dentistry under chapter 18.32 RCW; dispensing opticians under chapter 18.34 RCW; hearing aids under chapter 18.35 RCW; drugless healing under chapter 18.36 RCW; embalming and funeral directing under chapter 18.39 RCW; midwifery under chapter 18.50 RCW; nursing home administration under chapter 18.52 RCW; optometry under chapters 18.53 and 18.54 RCW; ophthalmologists under chapter 18.55 RCW; osteopathy and osteopathic medicine and surgery under chapters 18.57 and 18.57A RCW; pharmacy under chapters 18.64 and 18.64A RCW; medicine under chapters 18.71, 18.71A, and 18.72 RCW; emergency medicine under chapter 18.73 RCW; physical therapy under chapter 18.74 RCW; practical nurses under chapter 18.78 RCW; psychologists under chapter 18.83 RCW; registered nurses under chapter 18.88 RCW; occupational therapists licensed pursuant to chapter 18.59 RCW; respiratory care practitioners certified under chapter 18.-- RCW (sections 1 through 15 of this 1987 act); veterinarians and animal technicians under chapter 18.92 RCW; health care assistants under chapter 18.135 RCW; massage practitioners under chapter 18.108 RCW; and acupuncturists certified under chapter 18.06 RCW.

(5) "Inspection" means the periodic examination of practitioners by a state agency in order to ascertain whether the practitioners' occupation is being carried out in a fashion consistent with the public health, safety, and welfare.

(6) "Legislative committees of reference" means the standing legislative committees designated by the respective rules committees of the senate and house of representatives to consider proposed legislation to regulate health professions not previously regulated.

(7) "License", "licensing", and "licensure" mean permission to engage in a health profession which would otherwise be unlawful in the state in the absence of the permission. A license is granted to those individuals who meet prerequisite qualifications to perform prescribed health professional tasks and for the use of a particular title.

(8) "Professional license" means an individual, nontransferable authorization to carry on a health activity based on qualifications which include: (a) Graduation from an accredited or approved program, and (b) acceptable performance on a qualifying examination or series of examinations.

(9) "Practitioner" means an individual who (a) has achieved knowledge and skill by practice, and (b) is actively engaged in a specified health profession.

(10) "Public member" means an individual who is not, and never was, a member of the health profession being regulated or the spouse of a member, or an individual who does not have and never has had a material financial interest in either the rendering of the health professional service being regulated or an activity directly related to the profession being regulated.

(11) "Registration" means the formal notification which, prior to rendering services, a practitioner shall submit to a state agency setting forth the name and address of the practitioner; the location, nature and operation of the health activity to be practiced; and, if required by the regulatory entity, a description of the service to be provided.

(12) "Regulatory entity" means any board, commission, agency, division, or other unit or subunit of state government which regulates one or more professions, occupations, industries, businesses, or other endeavors in this state.

(13) "State agency" includes every state office, department, board, commission, regulatory entity, and agency of the state, and, where provided by law, programs and activities involving less than the full responsibility of a state agency.

Sec. 17. Section 4, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 as amended by section 29, chapter 326, Laws of 1985 and by section 3, chapter 259, Laws of 1986 and RCW 18.130.040 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) This chapter applies only to the director and the boards having jurisdiction in relation to the professions licensed under the chapters specified in this section. This chapter does not apply to any business or profession not licensed under the chapters specified in this section.

(2) (a) The director has authority under this chapter in relation to the following professions:

(i) Dispensing opticians licensed under chapter 18.34 RCW;

(ii) Drugless healers licensed under chapter 18.36 RCW;

(iii) Midwives licensed under chapter 18.50 RCW;

(iv) Ocularists licensed under chapter 18.55 RCW;

(v) Massage operators and businesses licensed under chapter 18.108 RCW;

(vi) Dental hygienists licensed under chapter 18.29 RCW; ~~(and)~~

(vii) Acupuncturists certified under chapter 18.106 RCW; ~~and~~

(viii) Respiratory care practitioners certified under chapter 18.-- RCW (sections 1 through 15 of this 1987 act).

(b) The boards having authority under this chapter are as follows:

(i) The podiatry board as established in chapter 18.22 RCW;

(ii) The chiropractic disciplinary board as established in chapter 18.26 RCW governing licenses issued under chapter 18.25 RCW;

(iii) The dental disciplinary board as established in chapter 18.32 RCW;

(iv) The board of funeral directors and embalmers as established in chapter 18.39 RCW;

(v) The optometry board as established in chapter 18.54 RCW governing licenses issued under chapter 18.53 RCW;

(vi) The board of osteopathic medicine and surgery as established in chapter 18.57 RCW governing licenses issued under chapters 18.57 and 18.57A RCW;

(vii) The medical disciplinary board as established in chapter 18.72 RCW governing licenses and registrations issued under chapters 18.71 and 18.71A RCW;

- (viii) The board of physical therapy as established in chapter 18.74 RCW;
- (ix) The board of occupational therapy practice as established in chapter 18.59 RCW;
- (x) The board of practical nursing as established in chapter 18.78 RCW;
- (xi) The board of nursing as established in chapter 18.88 RCW; and
- (xii) The veterinary board of governors as established in chapter 18.92 RCW.

(3) In addition to the authority to discipline license holders, the disciplining authority has the authority to grant or deny licenses based on the conditions and criteria established in this chapter and the chapters specified in subsection (2) of this section. However, the board of chiropractic examiners has authority over issuance and denial of licenses provided for in chapter 18.25 RCW, the board of dental examiners has authority over issuance and denial of licenses provided for in RCW 18.32.040, and the board of medical examiners has authority over issuance and denial of licenses and registrations provided for in chapters 18.71 and 18.71A RCW. This chapter also governs any investigation, hearing, or proceeding relating to denial of licensure or issuance of a license conditioned on the applicant's compliance with an order entered pursuant to RCW 18.130.160 by the disciplining authority.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Sections 1 through 15 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 18 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. There is appropriated from the health professions account in the state general fund to the department of licensing for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, the sum of one hundred sixty-one thousand eight hundred forty-five dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. Section 4 of this act shall take effect September 15, 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On motion of Senator Wojahn, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "care;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "reenacting and amending RCW 18.120.020 and 18.130.040; adding a new chapter to Title 18 RCW; making an appropriation; and providing an effective date."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Wojahn, the rules were suspended. Substitute House Bill No. 767, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator Wojahn, I notice in the summary that it mentions the numbers of individuals who are exempt. In other words, to provide this kind of care without having that formal certification. It mentions United States government employees which, I presume, are people in the military bases and veterans homes and so on. Any students enrolled in an approved education program, nurses, are allowed to use the title respiratory care practitioner, but it also mentions, 'exemptions for practitioners listed under other laws.' I wonder if you might help me out and tell me who some of those individuals may be who can practice this without certification?"

Senator Wojahn: "Well, anybody that is in the health care profession--a doctor, a nurse--anyone who is presently licensed in a health care profession that would be related to respiratory care. In the government hospitals, they would, under federal law, not state law and consequently, like the veteran's hospital and I presume that they probably will register to certify, but they don't have to."

Senator Lee: "I just wondered if this included things like chiropractors and osteopaths?"

Senator Wojahn: "No, I don't believe so. I don't think they would be deemed as respiratory."

Senator Lee: "Because they do have, particularly osteopaths, do have their own hospitals. So, this would prevent a doctor of osteopathy from giving this kind of care?"

Senator Wojahn: "Well, I don't think--a doctor or a medical doctor or a doctor of osteopathy, I don't consider the care practitioner in the same area as these people, but I assume they could use this--anyone who is presently licensed in an accredited type hospital or with a license that permits them to practice medicine."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 767, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 767, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 33; nays, 13; absent, 1; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Bauer, Bender, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Deccio, DeJamatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hayner, Johnson, Kreidler, McDonald, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Peterson, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 33.

Voting nay: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Craswell, Hansen, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, Metcalf, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Zimmerman - 13.

Absent: Senator West - 1.

Excused: Senators Barr, McDermott - 2.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 767, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 844, by Committee on State Government (originally sponsored by Representatives Belcher, H. Sommers, Holm, Hankins, Lewis, Unsoeld, Peery, Miller, Sayan, Sprenkle, K. Wilson, Locke, Madsen, Hargrove, Rasmussen, Sutherland, Fisher, R. King, Walk, Nelson, Todd, Ebersole, P. King, Brooks, D. Sommers, Allen, Lux, Heavey, Scott, Cole, Pruitt, Wang, Dellwo, Basich and B. Williams)

Authorizing a dependent care plan for state employees.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Halsan, the following Committee on Governmental Operations amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The state of Washington may enter into salary reduction agreements with employees pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. Sec. 125 for the purpose of making it possible for employees to select on a "before-tax basis" certain taxable and non-taxable benefits pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Sec. 125. The purpose of the salary reduction plan established in this chapter is to attract and retain individuals in governmental service by permitting them to enter into agreements with the state to provide for benefits pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Sec. 129.

(2) Nothing in the salary reduction plan constitutes an employment agreement between the participant and the state, and nothing contained in the participant's salary reduction agreement, the plan, or sections 2 through 10 of this act gives a participant any right to be retained in state employment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 3 through 8 of this act.

(1) "Salary reduction plan" means a plan whereby state employees and officers may agree to a reduction of salary which reduction will allow the employee to participate in benefits offered pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Sec. 125.

(2) "Committee" means the committee for deferred compensation.

(3) "Salary" means a state employee's or officer's monthly salary or wages.

(4) "Dependent care program" means the program for the care of dependents pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Sec. 129 financed from funds deposited in the salary reduction account in the state treasury for the purpose of holding and disbursing the funds deposited under the auspices of the salary reduction plan.

(5) "Participant" means an individual who fulfills the eligibility and enrollment requirements under the salary reduction plan.

(6) "Plan year" means the time period established by the committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The committee shall have responsibility for the formulation and adoption of a plan and policies and procedures designed to guide, direct, and administer the salary reduction plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) A plan document describing the salary reduction plan shall be adopted and administered by the committee. The committee shall represent the state in all matters concerning the administration of the plan. The state through the committee, may engage the services of a professional consultant or administrator on a contractual basis to serve as an agent to assist the committee in carrying out the purposes of sections 1 through 10 of this act.

(2) The committee shall formulate and establish policies and procedures for the administration of the salary reduction plan that are consistent with existing state law, the internal revenue code, and the regulations adopted by the internal revenue service as they may apply to the benefits offered to participants under the plan.

(3) The funds held by the state for the dependent care program shall be deposited in the salary reduction account in the state treasury. Any interest in excess of the amount used to defray the cost of administering the salary reduction plan shall become a part of the general fund as shall unclaimed moneys remaining in the salary reduction account at the end of a plan year. The committee may assess each participant a fee for administering the salary reduction plan. In addition to moneys for initial costs, moneys shall be appropriated from the general fund for any expense relating to the administration of the salary reduction plan. The appropriation may be funded from an amount equivalent to actually realized savings experienced due to reductions in employer contributions required under the social security act, from other similar savings, from interest earned from the salary reduction account credited to the general fund, from any unclaimed moneys in the salary reduction account at the end of the plan year, and from fees charged to the participants.

(4) Every action taken by the committee in administering sections 1 through 10 of this act shall be presumed to be a fair and reasonable exercise of the authority vested in or the duties imposed upon it. The committee shall be presumed to have exercised reasonable care, diligence, and prudence and to have acted impartially as to all persons interested unless the contrary be proved by clear and convincing affirmative evidence.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. (1) Elected officials and all permanent officers and employees of the state are eligible to participate in the salary reduction plan and reduce their salary by agreement with the committee. The committee may adopt rules to permit participation in the plan by temporary employees of the state.

(2) Persons eligible under subsection (1) of this section may enter into salary reduction agreements with the state.

(3)(a) In the initial year of the salary reduction plan, an eligible person may become a participant after the adoption of the plan and before its effective date by agreeing to have a portion of his or her gross salary reduced and deposited into a dependent care account to be used for reimbursement of expenses covered by the plan.

(b) After the initial year of the salary reduction plan, an eligible person may become a participant for a full plan year, with annual benefit selection for each new plan year made before the beginning of the plan year, as determined by the committee, or upon becoming eligible.

(c) Once an eligible person elects to participate and determines the amount his or her salary shall be reduced and the benefit for which the funds are to be used during the plan year, the agreement shall be irrevocable and may not be amended during the plan year except as provided in (d) of this subsection. Prior to making an election to participate in the salary reduction plan, the eligible person shall be informed in writing of all the benefits and reductions that will occur as a result of such election.

(d) The committee shall provide in the salary reduction plan that a participant may enroll, terminate, or change his or her election after the plan year has begun if there is a significant change in a participant's status, as provided by 26 U.S.C. Sec. 125 and the regulations adopted under that section.

(4) The committee shall establish as part of the salary reduction plan the procedures for and effect of withdrawal from the plan by reason of retirement, death, leave of absence, or termination of employment. To the extent possible under federal law, the committee shall protect participants from forfeiture of rights under the plan.

(5) Any salary reduced under the salary reduction plan shall continue to be included as regular compensation for the purpose of computing the state retirement and pension benefits earned by the employee.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. The salary reduction account is established in the state treasury. All fees paid to reimburse participants or service providers pursuant to the provisions of sections 1 through 10 of this act shall be paid from the salary reduction account.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. (1) The committee shall keep or cause to be kept full and adequate accounts and records of the assets, obligations, transactions, and affairs of a salary reduction plan created under section 4 of this act.

(2) The committee shall file an annual report of the financial condition, transactions, and affairs of the salary reduction plan under the committee's jurisdiction. A copy of the annual report shall be filed with the speaker of the house of representatives, the president of the senate, the governor, and the state auditor.

(3) Members of the committee shall be deemed to stand in a fiduciary relationship to the employees participating in the salary reduction plan and shall discharge their duties in good faith and with that diligence, care, and skill which ordinary prudent persons would exercise under similar circumstances in like positions.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. (1) The state may terminate the salary reduction plan at the end of the plan year or upon notification of federal action affecting the status of the plan.

(2) The committee may amend the salary reduction plan at any time if the amendment does not affect the rights of the participants to receive eligible reimbursement from the participants' dependent care accounts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The committee shall adopt rules to implement sections 3 through 8 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Sections 1 through 9 of this act shall be construed to effectuate the purposes of 26 U.S.C. Sec. 125.

Sec. 11. Section 1, chapter 274, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 23, chapter 57, Laws of 1985 and RCW 41.04.260 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created a committee for deferred compensation to be composed of five members appointed by the governor, one of whom shall be a representative of an employee association or union certified as an exclusive representative of at least one bargaining unit of classified employees, one who shall be a representative of either a credit union, savings and loan association, mutual savings bank or bank, one who possesses expertise in the area of insurance or investment of public funds, one who shall be the state attorney general or his designee, and one additional member selected by the governor. The committee shall serve without compensation but shall receive travel expenses as provided for in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended.

(2) The deferred compensation revolving fund is hereby created in the state treasury. All expenses of the committee including staffing and administrative expenses shall be paid out of the deferred compensation revolving fund.

The amount of compensation deferred by employees under agreements entered into under the authority contained in RCW 41.04.250 shall be paid into the revolving fund and shall be sufficient to cover costs of administration and staffing in addition to such other amounts as determined by this committee. The revolving fund shall be used to carry out the purposes of RCW 41.04.250. All eligible state employees shall be given the opportunity to participate in agreements entered into by the committee under RCW 41.04.250. State agencies shall cooperate with the committee in providing employees with the opportunity to participate. Any county, municipality, or other subdivision of the state may elect to participate in any agreements entered into by the committee under RCW 41.04.250, including the making of payments therefrom to the employees participating in a deferred compensation plan upon their separation from state or other qualifying service. Accordingly, the revolving fund shall be considered to be a public pension or retirement fund within the meaning of Article XXIX, section 1 of the state Constitution, for the purpose of determining eligible investments and deposits of the moneys therein. All moneys in the revolving fund, all property and rights purchased therewith, and all income attributable thereto, shall remain (until made available to the participating employee or other beneficiary) solely the money, property, and rights of the state and participating counties, municipalities and subdivisions (without being restricted to the provision of benefits under the plan) subject only to the claims of the state's and participating jurisdictions' general creditors. Participating jurisdictions shall each retain property rights separately.

(3) The state investment board, at the request of the deferred compensation committee, is authorized to invest moneys in the deferred compensation revolving fund in accordance with RCW 43.84.150. Except as provided in RCW 43.33A.160, one hundred percent of all earnings from these investments shall accrue directly to the deferred compensation revolving fund. The earnings on any surplus balances in the deferred compensation revolving fund shall be credited to the deferred compensation fund, notwithstanding RCW 43.84.090.

(4) In addition to the duties specified in this section and RCW 41.04.250, the deferred compensation committee shall administer the salary reduction plan established in sections 1 through 10 of this 1987 act.

(5) The deferred compensation committee shall keep or cause to be kept full and adequate accounts and records of the assets, obligations, transactions, and affairs of any deferred compensation plans created under RCW 41.04.250 through 41.04.260.

The deferred compensation committee shall file an annual report of the financial condition, transactions, and affairs of the deferred compensation plans under the committee's jurisdiction. A copy of the annual report shall be filed with the speaker of the house of representatives, the president of the senate, the governor, and the state auditor.

~~((6))~~ (6) Members of the deferred compensation committee shall be deemed to stand in a fiduciary relationship to the employees participating in the deferred compensation plans created under RCW 41.04.250 through 41.04.260 and shall discharge the duties of their respective positions in good faith and with that diligence, care, and skill which ordinary prudent persons would exercise under similar circumstances in like positions.

~~((7))~~ (7) The committee may adopt rules necessary to carry out the purposes of RCW 41.04.250 and 41.04.260.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Sections 1 through 10 of this act are each added to chapter 41.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On motion of Senator Halsan, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "care;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 41.04.260; and adding new sections to chapter 41.04 RCW."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hansen, the following Committee on Transportation amendment was adopted:

On page 1, beginning on line 13, strike all material through "designs." on page 2, line 29 and insert the following:

"Sec. 2, Section 8, chapter 255, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 175, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 35.58.273 are each amended to read as follows:

((On or after July 1, 1971:)) Any municipality within a class AA county, or within a class A county contiguous to a class AA county, or within a second class county contiguous to a class A county that is contiguous to a class AA county is authorized to levy and collect a special excise tax not exceeding ninety-nine one-hundredths of one percent on the fair market value of every motor vehicle owned by a resident of such municipality for the privilege of using such motor vehicle provided that in no event shall the tax be less than one dollar and, subject to RCW 82.44.150 (5) and (6), the amount of such tax shall be credited against the amount of the excise tax levied by the state under RCW 82.44.020. Any other municipality is authorized to levy and collect a special excise tax not exceeding one percent on the fair market value of every motor vehicle owned by a resident of such municipality for the privilege of using such motor vehicle provided that in no event shall the tax be less than one dollar and, subject to RCW 82.44.150(5) and (6), the amount of such tax shall be credited against the amount of the excise tax levied by the state under RCW 82.44.020: PROVIDED, That before utilization of any excise tax moneys collected under authorization of this section for acquisition of right of way or construction of a mass transit facility on a separate right of way the municipality shall adopt rules affording the public an opportunity for "corridor public hearings" and "design public hearings" as herein defined, which rule shall provide in detail the procedures necessary for public participation in the following instances: (a) prior to adoption of location and design plans having a substantial social, economic or environmental effect upon the locality upon which they are to be constructed or (b) on such mass rapid transit systems operating on a separate right of way whenever a substantial change is proposed relating to location or design in the adopted plan. In adopting rules the municipality shall adhere to the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act.

A "corridor public hearing" is a public hearing that: (a) is held before the municipality is committed to a specific mass transit route proposal, and before a route location is established; (b) is held to afford an opportunity for participation by those interested in the determination of the need for, and the location of, the mass rapid transit system; (c) provides a public forum that affords a full opportunity for presenting views on the mass rapid transit system route location, and the social, economic and environmental effects on that location and alternate locations: PROVIDED, That such hearing shall not be deemed to be necessary before adoption of an overall mass rapid transit system plan by a vote of the electorate of the municipality.

A "design public hearing" is a public hearing that: (a) is held after the location is established but before the design is adopted; and (b) is held to afford an opportunity for participation by those interested in the determination of major design features of the mass rapid transit system; and (c) provides a public forum to afford a full opportunity for presenting views on the mass rapid transit system design, and the social, economic, environmental effects of that design and alternate designs."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hansen, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 1034, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Hansen, after they build up this pool of money, what are they going to do with it?"

Senator Hansen: "Well, they are talking about mass transit systems. Other places have rail systems. They park their cars, they try to move people in and out of the metropolitan areas, not all by automobile and I think that's what it's all about. In the future, in further development of our urban areas, it's going to be necessary that we have some other ways of commuting beside the automobile."

Senator Rasmussen: "One further question, Senator Hansen. You are a full-timer around here. After they build up a pool of money, they never have any problem figuring out how to spend it. Is that true?"

Senator Hansen: "They never have yet."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1034, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1034, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; nays, 8; absent, 1; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Rinehart, Sellar, Smitherman, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 39.

Voting nay: Senators Bottiger, Craswell, McCaslin, Pullen, Rasmussen, Saling, Stratton, Tanner - 8.

Absent: Senator McDonald - 1.

Excused: Senator McDermott - 1.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1034, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1035, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1098, by Committee on Natural Resources (originally sponsored by Representatives Haugen, S. Wilson, Jacobsen and Beck)

Requiring an agreement with the federal government for the exchange of certain tidelands on the Olympic peninsula.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Owen, the following Committee on Natural Resources amendments were considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 1, line 6, after "exchange" strike "all but the mineral rights on"

On page 1, after line 13, insert a new paragraph as follows:

"If the state parks and recreation commission and the federal government enter into an agreement to exchange Keystone Spit for state-owned tidelands included in the seashore conservation area, the department of natural resources shall transfer to the state parks and recreation commission quit claim deed title to the tidelands to be exchanged."

On page 1, line 23, after "Washington" insert "and shall further state that the national park service agrees to consult with the state parks and recreation commission regarding the adoption of any rules or changes in management policies and agrees to endeavor to accommodate the state's interests"

On motion of Senator Owen, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1098, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Metcalf, under the proposed bill, what happens to the mineral rights of the state-owned land on this?"

Senator Metcalf: "It is my understanding, Senator Patterson, that the mineral rights are included in the trade and are traded to the federal government."

Senator Patterson: "So, the federal government will have how many miles of mineral rights on the shores over on the ocean?"

Senator Metcalf: "It is about something over fifty miles on the tidelands. Now, you understand that the tidelands are from high tide to low tide, but the narrow strip--some places less wide than this room and in other places wider, but it's over fifty miles long."

Senator Patterson: "But if they have rights to that, then who has the authority to authorize any opportunity for determining whether or not there might be some oil, or what have you, in that particular strip of land? Would that then be under the jurisdiction of the federal government?"

Senator Metcalf: "I am going to--if I am wrong on my answer I'll ask Senator Owen to correct me--but I believe that it would be in the jurisdiction of the federal government. Now, the state has control of all the lands seaward for the next three miles of this tideland, but the federal government would have the tidelands and the uplands."

Senator Patterson: "Are any of the lands adjacent to Indian land in that area?"

Senator Metcalf: "I am not certain on that. I don't know. Perhaps Senator Conner or Senator Owen can answer that for sure. I think some are, but I am not sure."

Senator Patterson: "Senator Conner nods his head as though there is adjacent Indian land that would be in-shore from the tideland. Would that be Indian land?"

Senator Metcalf: "Right, in some areas--in some of that fifty miles, as I understand it."

Further debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1098, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1098, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 8; absent, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Owen, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Sailing, Sellar, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West, Williams - 40.

Voting nay: Senators Bottiger, Conner, Fleming, Newhouse, Patterson, Warnke, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 8.

Absent: Senator Hansen - 1.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1098, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

The President Pro Tempore introduced the following winners of the Martin Luther King essay contest, and their teachers, guests of Senator George Fleming, who were seated in the gallery: Dammian Tucker and teacher, Mrs. Carey Nyman; Heather Ebbs and teacher, Debbie Strong; Sati Mookherjee and teacher, Lalani Dend.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, a point of personal privilege. As one of the co-chairmen, along with Senator Smitherman, of the Martin Luther King celebration committee, I, personally, would like to congratulate these young people. Dr. Brouillet has done quite a job with his staff in making the celebration of Dr. Martin Luther King something to behold. These young people are expressing and it gives these young people an opportunity to realize what Dr. King stood for and what his life was all about. It also gives them time to reflect on what he stood for and what this great country of ours is all about, so I'd just like to say thank you to those young people and thank Dr. Brouillet for the job he is doing.

"At the same time, I'd like to say some credit should also be given to Mr. Dammian Tucker, who is from Senator Rasmussen's district, Debbie Strong is from Senator Johnson's district and Lalani Dend is from Senator Anderson's district and I'd just like to recognize those Senators that these young people are from their districts and I congratulate them again."

There being no objection, the President Pro Tempore reverted the Senate to the fifth order of business.

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING

SB 6073 by Senators Fleming, Sellar, Bottiger and Hayner

AN ACT Relating to state leases; adding new sections to chapter 43.82; and declaring an emergency.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 6073 was advanced to second reading and placed on the second reading calendar.

MOTION

At 2:35 p.m., on motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate was declared to be at ease. The Senate was called to order at 4:13 p.m. by President Cherberg.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the third order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

April 15, 1987

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I have the honor to advise you that on April 15, 1987, Governor Gardner approved the following Senate Bill entitled:

Substitute Senate Bill No. 5045
Relating to elections.

Sincerely,
TERRY SEBRING, Legal Counsel to the Governor

There being no objection, the President advanced the Senate to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 7, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5072 with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 19 after "hazardous" strike "waste and insert "constituents"

On page 1, after line 21, insert the following:

"Sec. 2. Section 8, chapter 101, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 172, Laws of 1983 and RCW 70.105.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every person who fails to comply with any provision of this chapter or of the rules adopted thereunder shall be subjected to a penalty in an amount of not more than ~~((ten))~~ twenty-five thousand dollars per day for every such violation. Each and every such violation shall be a separate and distinct offense. In case of continuing violation, every day's continuance shall be a separate and distinct violation. Every person who, through an act of commission or omission, procures, aids, or abets in the violation shall be considered to have violated the provisions of this section and shall be subject to the penalty herein provided.

(2) The penalty provided for in this section shall be imposed by a notice in writing, either by certified mail with return receipt requested or by personal service, to the person incurring the same from the department, describing the violation with reasonable particularity. Within fifteen days after the notice is received, the person incurring the penalty may apply in writing to the department for the remission or mitigation of such penalty. Upon receipt of the application, the department may remit or mitigate the penalty upon whatever terms the department in its discretion deems proper, giving consideration to the degree of hazard associated with the violation, provided the department deems such remission or mitigation to be in the best interests of carrying out the purposes of this chapter. The department of ecology shall have authority to ascertain the facts regarding all such applications in such reasonable manner and under such rules as it may deem proper. Any penalty imposed by the provisions of this section shall be subject to review by the pollution control hearings board in accordance with chapter 43.21B RCW.

(3) Any penalty imposed by this section shall become due and payable thirty days after receipt of a notice imposing the same unless application for remission or mitigation is made or petition for review by the hearings board is filed. When such an application for remission or mitigation is made, any penalty incurred pursuant to this section shall become due and payable thirty days after receipt of notice setting forth the disposition of such application. Any penalty resulting from a decision of the hearings board shall become due and payable thirty days after receipt of the notice setting forth the decision.

(4) If the amount of any penalty is not paid to the department of ecology within thirty days after it becomes due and payable, the attorney general, upon the request of the director, shall bring an action in the name of the state of Washington in the superior court of Thurston county, or of any county in which such violator may do business, to recover such penalty. In all such actions, the procedure and rules of evidence shall be the same as an ordinary civil action except as otherwise in this chapter provided.

Sec. 3. Section 9, chapter 101, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 237, Laws of 1984 and RCW 70.105.090 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to the penalties imposed pursuant to RCW 70.105.080, any person who violates any provision of this chapter, or of the rules implementing this chapter, and any person who knowingly aids or abets another in conducting any violation of any provisions of this chapter, or of the rules implementing this chapter, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than ~~((ten))~~ twenty-five thousand dollars, and/or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, for each separate violation. Each and every such violation shall be a separate and distinct offense. In case of continuing violation, every day's continuance shall be a separate and distinct offense.

Sec. 4. Section 4, chapter 172, Laws of 1983 and RCW 70.105.095 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever on the basis on any information the department determines that a person has violated or is about to violate any provision of this chapter, the department may issue an order requiring compliance either immediately or within a specified period of time. The order shall be delivered by registered mail or personally to the person against whom the order is directed.

(2) Any person who fails to take corrective action as specified in a compliance order shall be liable for a civil penalty of not more than ~~(ten)~~ twenty-five thousand dollars for each day of continued noncompliance. In addition, the department may suspend or revoke any permits and/or certificates issued under the provisions of this chapter to a person who fails to comply with an order directed against him.

(3) Any order shall become final unless, no later than thirty days after the order is served, the person or persons named in the order request a public hearing. The request shall be delivered either by registered mail or personally to the department. Upon receiving a request for a hearing, the department shall promptly conduct a public hearing to consider testimony and new information regarding the order. The department may, at its discretion, either modify the order or maintain it unchanged. The order shall become effective immediately after the department reaches a final decision, unless the department modifies the order to specify another compliance date.

(4) Any person directly affected by a compliance order or by any decision of the department regarding a compliance order may appeal the order or decision to the pollution control hearings board in accordance with chapter 43.21B RCW."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "70.105.145" insert ", 70.105.080, 70.105.090, and 70.105.095".

and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Kreidler, the Senate refused to concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 5072 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 9, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5150 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Actuary" means the state actuary as established under chapter 44.44 RCW.

(2) "Base salary" means salaries or wages earned by a member of a system during a payroll period for personal services and includes wages and salaries deferred under provisions established pursuant to sections 403(b), 414(h), and 457 of the United States internal revenue code, but shall exclude overtime payments, nonmoney maintenance compensation, and lump sum payments for deferred annual sick leave, unused accumulated vacation, unused accumulated annual leave, any form of severance pay, any bonus for voluntary retirement, any other form of leave, or any similar lump sum payment.

(3) "Average compensation" means, respectively, "final compensation" as defined in RCW 41.28.010 and 41.44.030(14), "average final compensation" as defined in RCW 41.32.010 and 41.40.010, "average earnable compensation" as used in RCW 41.32.498, and "average final salary" as defined in RCW 43.43.120.

(4) "Service retirement allowance" means, respectively, "retirement allowance" as used or defined in RCW 41.28.130, 41.32.010, 41.40.010, 41.44.030(22), and 43.43.260.

(5) "Current system average final compensation" means that compensation or average compensation used in the service retirement benefit calculation of the current system with compensation being either that earned in the current system or the base salary earned in a prior system, whichever produces the greater benefit.

(6) "Prior system average final compensation" means the compensation or average compensation used in the service retirement benefit calculation of the prior system, with compensation being either that earned in the prior system or the base salary earned in any system in which dual membership is held, whichever produces the greater benefit.

(7) "Compensation" means, respectively, "compensation earnable" as defined in RCW 41.28.010, "earnable compensation" as defined in RCW 41.32.010, "compensation earnable" as defined in RCW 41.40.010, "compensation earnable" as defined in RCW 41.44.030, and "average final salary" as used in RCW 43.43.120(15).

(8) "Current system" means the system in which a member is currently making contributions and accruing service credit.

(9) "Department" means the department of retirement systems.

(10) "Director" means the director of retirement systems.

(11) "Dual member" means a person who (a) is or becomes a member of a system on or after July 1, 1988, (b) has been a member of one or more other systems, and (c) has never been retired for service from a retirement system and is not receiving a disability retirement or disability leave benefit from a prior system.

(12) "Prior system" means a system in which a person had previous membership but is no longer making member contributions.

(13) "Service" means the same as it may be defined in each respective system. For the purposes of section 3 of this act, military service granted under RCW 41.40.170(3) or 43.43.260 may only be based on service accrued under chapter 41.40 or 43.43 RCW, respectively.

(14) "System" means the retirement systems established under chapters 41.28, 41.32, 41.40, 41.44, and 43.43 RCW. The inclusion of an individual first class city system is subject to the procedure set forth in section 6 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) Those persons who are dual members on or after July 1, 1988, shall not receive a retirement benefit from any prior system while dual members without the loss of all benefits under this chapter. Retroactive retirement in any prior system will cancel membership in any subsequent systems except as allowed under RCW 41.04.270 and will result in the refund of all employee and employer contributions made to such systems.

(2) If a member has withdrawn contributions from a prior system, the member may restore the contributions, together with interest since the date of withdrawal as determined by the system, and recover the service represented by the contributions. Such restoration must be completed within two years of establishing dual membership or prior to retirement, whichever occurs first.

(3) A member of the retirement system under chapter 41.32 RCW who is serving in office pursuant to Article II or III of the state Constitution may, notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 41.40.120(4), within one year from the effective date of this section make an irrevocable election to become a member of the retirement system under chapter 41.40 RCW. A member who makes this election shall receive service credit under chapter 41.32 RCW for all prior and future periods of employment which are, or otherwise would be, credited under chapter 41.32 RCW. Such a member who established membership under chapter 41.32 RCW prior to June 30, 1977, shall be granted membership under chapter 41.40 RCW as if he or she had been a member of that system prior to June 30, 1977.

All contributions credited to such member under chapter 41.32 RCW for service now to be credited in the retirement system under chapter 41.40 RCW shall be transferred to the system and the member shall not receive any credit nor enjoy any rights under chapter 41.32 RCW for those periods of service.

(4) Any service accrued in one system by the member shall not accrue in any other system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) As used in this section, the percentage factor to be used in calculating a benefit under chapter 41.28 RCW shall be determined using only the service earned in a retirement system created under that chapter.

(2) The service retirement allowances to be paid to a dual member upon retiring from the current system because of service shall be the sum of:

(a) The service retirement allowance received under the current system as a result of multiplying the current system average final compensation by the percentage factor of the current system and the service earned under the current system; and

(b) The sum of the respective service retirement allowances received under prior systems as a result of multiplying each prior system's average final compensation by the percentage factor of that prior system and the service earned under that prior system.

(3) Eligibility to receive a service benefit under this chapter shall be based on (a) the criteria of any system in which dual membership is held, and (b) the dual member's combined systems' service. The service retirement allowances from a system which, but for this chapter, would not be allowed to be paid at this date based on the dual member's age shall be either actuarially adjusted from the earliest age upon which the combined service would have made such dual member eligible in that system, or the dual member may choose to defer the benefit until fully eligible.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The retirement allowances calculated under section 3 of this act shall be paid separately by each respective current and prior system. Any deductions from such separate payments shall be according to the provisions of the respective systems.

(2) Postretirement adjustments, if any, shall be applied by the respective systems based on the payments made under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) If a dual member dies in service in any system, the surviving spouse shall receive the same benefit from each system that would have been received if the member were active in the system at the time of death based on service actually established in that system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A person who was eligible to establish membership under RCW 41.40.120(3) prior to October 1, 1977, but failed to do so by that date, is authorized to elect to do so as if such election had been made prior to that date. Such an election must be made not later than June 30, 1988, and all other terms and conditions of RCW 41.40.120(3) shall apply.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. A system authorized under chapter 41.28 RCW may petition the legislature for coverage under the provisions of this chapter by the adoption of a resolution by majority vote of those elected or appointed to the legislative body of the respective first class city. This resolution may not be adopted until a public hearing has been held on the proposed entry into coverage under this chapter. If adopted, the resolution shall be transmitted prior to January 1, 1988, to the director and to the joint committee on pension policy created in chapter ... (HB 358), Laws of 1987. The system shall be included only after the legislature enacts legislation specifically including the system under the coverage of this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. The benefit granted by this chapter shall not result in a total benefit less than would have been received absent such benefit. The total sum of the retirement allowances received under this chapter shall not exceed the smallest amount the dual member would receive if all the service had been rendered in any one system.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. The benefits provided under sections 1 through 7 of this act are not provided to employees as a matter of contractual right and the legislature retains the right to alter or abolish these benefits at any time prior to a member's retirement.

Sec. 9. Section 1, chapter 105, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 29, Laws of 1980 and RCW 41.04.270 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any ~~((other))~~ provision of ~~((law))~~ chapter 2.10, 2.12, 41.26, 41.28, 41.32, 41.40, or 43.43 RCW to the contrary, on and after March 19, 1976, any member or former member who ~~((+))~~ (a) receives a retirement allowance earned by said former member as deferred compensation from any public retirement system authorized by the general laws of this state, or ~~((2))~~ (b) is eligible to receive a retirement allowance from any public retirement system listed in RCW 41.50.030, but chooses not to apply, or ~~((3))~~ (c) is the beneficiary of a disability allowance from any public retirement system listed in RCW 41.50.030 shall be estopped from becoming a member of or accruing any contractual rights whatsoever in any other public retirement system listed in RCW 41.50.030: PROVIDED, That (a) and (b) of this subsection ~~((s-+))~~ and (2) of this section) shall not apply to persons who have accumulated less than fifteen years service credit in any such system.

(2) Nothing in this section is intended to apply to (a) any retirement system except those listed in RCW 41.50.030 and ~~((the retirement systems of first class cities))~~ chapter 41.28 RCW, or (b) a dual member as defined in section 1 of this 1987 act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. Sections 1 through 8 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 41 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11: (1) Section 5 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect on July 1, 1987.

(2) The remainder of this act shall take effect on July 1, 1988."

On page 1, beginning on line 2 of the title, after "benefits:" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 41.04.270; adding a new chapter to Title 41 RCW; declaring an emergency; and providing effective dates."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the following Committee on Education amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 28A.04.120, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 149, Laws of 1986 and by section 86, chapter 266, Laws of 1986 and RCW 28A.04.120 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

In addition to any other powers and duties as provided by law, the state board of education shall:

(1) Approve the program of courses leading to teacher, school administrator, and school specialized personnel certification offered by all institutions of higher education within the state which may be accredited and whose graduates may become entitled to receive such certification.

(2) Investigate the character of the work required to be performed as a condition of entrance to and graduation from any institution of higher education in this state relative to such certification as provided for in subsection (1) above, and prepare a list of accredited institutions of higher education of this and other states whose graduates may be awarded such certificates.

(3) (a) The state board of education shall adopt rules to allow a teacher certification candidate to fulfill, in part, teacher preparation program requirements through work experience as a noncertificated teacher's aide in a public school or private school meeting the requirements of RCW 28A.02.201. The rules shall include, but are not limited to, limitations based upon the recency of the teacher preparation candidate's teacher aide work experience, and limitations based on the amount of work experience that may apply toward teacher preparation program requirements under this chapter.

(b) The state board of education shall require that at the time of the individual's enrollment in a teacher preparation program, the supervising teacher and the building principal shall jointly provide to the teacher preparation program of the higher education institution at which the teacher candidate is enrolled, a written assessment of the performance of the teacher candidate. The assessment shall contain such information as determined by the state board of education and shall include: Evidence that at least fifty percent of the candidate's work as a noncertificated teacher's aide was involved in instructional activities with children under the supervision of a certificated teacher and that the candidate worked a minimum of six hundred thirty hours for one school year; the type of work performed by the candidate; and a recommendation of whether the candidate's work experience as a noncertificated teacher's aide should be substituted for teacher preparation program requirements. In compliance with such rules as may be established by the state board of education under this section, the teacher preparation programs of the higher education institution where the candidate is enrolled shall make the final determination as to what teacher preparation program requirements may be fulfilled by teacher aide work experience.

(4) Supervise the issuance of such certificates as provided for in subsection (1) above and specify the types and kinds of certificates necessary for the several departments of the common schools by rule or regulation in accordance with RCW 28A.70.005.

~~((4))~~ (5) Accredite, subject to such accreditation standards and procedures as may be established by the state board of education, all schools that apply for accreditation, and approve, subject to the provisions of RCW 28A.02.201, private schools carrying out a program for any or all of the grades one through twelve: PROVIDED, That no public or private schools shall be placed upon the list of accredited schools so long as secret societies are knowingly allowed to exist among its students by school officials: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the state board may elect to require all or certain classifications of the public schools to conduct and participate in such pre-accreditation examination and evaluation processes as may now or hereafter be established by the board.

~~((5))~~ (6) Make rules and regulations governing the establishment in any existing nonhigh school district of any secondary program or any new grades in grades nine through twelve. Before any such program or any new grades are established the district must obtain prior approval of the state board.

~~((6))~~ (7) Prepare such outline of study for the common schools as the board shall deem necessary, and prescribe such rules for the general government of the common schools, as shall seek to secure regularity of attendance, prevent truancy, secure efficiency, and promote the true interest of the common schools.

~~((7))~~ (8) Prepare with the assistance of the superintendent of public instruction a uniform series of questions, with the proper answers thereto for use in the correcting thereof, to be used in the examination of persons, as this code may direct, and prescribe rules and regulations for conducting any such examinations.

~~((8))~~ (9) Continuously reevaluate courses and adopt and enforce regulations within the common schools so as to meet the educational needs of students and articulate with the institutions of higher education and unify the work of the public school system.

((#)) (10) Carry out board powers and duties relating to the organization and reorganization of school districts under chapter 28A.57 RCW.

((#)) (11) By rule or regulation promulgated upon the advice of the director of community development, through the director of fire protection, provide for instruction of pupils in the public and private schools carrying out a K through 12 program, or any part thereof, so that in case of sudden emergency they shall be able to leave their particular school building in the shortest possible time or take such other steps as the particular emergency demands, and without confusion or panic; such rules and regulations shall be published and distributed to certificated personnel throughout the state whose duties shall include a familiarization therewith as well as the means of implementation thereof at their particular school.

((#)) (12) Hear and decide appeals as otherwise provided by law.

The state board of education is given the authority to promulgate information and rules dealing with the prevention of child abuse for purposes of curriculum use in the common schools."

MOTIONS

Senator Tanner moved that the following Committee on Transportation amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1, Section 4, chapter 232, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 8, chapter 113, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.37.530 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It is unlawful:

(a) For any person to operate a motorcycle or motor-driven cycle not equipped with mirrors on the left and right sides of the motorcycle which shall be so located as to give the driver a complete view of the highway for a distance of at least two hundred feet to the rear of the motorcycle or motor-driven cycle: PROVIDED, That mirrors shall not be required on any motorcycle or motor-driven cycle over twenty-five years old originally manufactured without mirrors and which has been restored to its original condition and which is being ridden to or from or otherwise in conjunction with an antique or classic motorcycle contest, show, or other such assemblage: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no mirror is required on any motorcycle manufactured prior to January 1, 1931;

(b) For any person to operate a motorcycle or motor-driven cycle which does not have a windshield unless wearing glasses, goggles, or a face shield of a type conforming to rules adopted by the state commission on equipment;

(c) For any person under the age of twelve years to operate or ride upon a motorcycle or motor-driven cycle on a state highway, county road, or city street unless wearing upon his or her head a protective helmet of a type conforming to rules adopted by the commission on equipment. The helmet must be equipped with either a neck or chin strap which shall be fastened securely while the motorcycle or motor-driven cycle is in motion;

(d) For any person to transport a child under the age of five on a motorcycle or motor-driven cycle;

(e) For any person to sell or offer for sale a motorcycle helmet which does not meet the requirements established by the state commission on equipment.

(2) The state commission on equipment is hereby authorized and empowered to adopt and amend rules, pursuant to the administrative procedure act, concerning the standards and procedures for conformance of rules adopted for glasses, goggles, face shields, and protective helmets.

Sec. 2. Section 50, chapter 145, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 8, chapter 1, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. and RCW 46.20.505 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person applying for a special endorsement or a new category of endorsement of a driver's license authorizing such person to drive a motorcycle or a motor-driven cycle shall pay a motorcycle examination fee which is not refundable. The director of licensing shall prescribe the examination fee at an amount equal to the cost of administering such examination, but in no event more than ~~((four))~~ six dollars for the initial or new category examination nor more than ~~((two))~~ four dollars for a subsequent renewal examination. ~~((Two))~~ Four dollars of the initial or new category examination fee and ~~((two))~~ four dollars of any subsequent fee for a renewal shall be deposited in the motorcycle safety education account of the highway safety fund.

Sec. 3. Section 5, chapter 77, Laws of 1982 and RCW 46.20.520 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The director of licensing shall use moneys designated for the motorcycle safety education account of the highway safety fund to implement by July 1, 1983, a voluntary motorcycle operator training and education program. The director may contract with a vocational-technical institute, school district, educational service district, community college, college, university, county, city, town, and other public and private entities to implement this program.

(2) There is created a motorcycle safety education advisory ~~((committee))~~ board to assist the director of licensing in the development of a motorcycle operator training education program. The ~~((committee))~~ board shall monitor this program following implementation and report to the director of licensing as necessary with recommendations including, but not limited to, administration, application, and substance of the motorcycle operator training and education program.

The ~~((committee))~~ board shall consist of five members appointed by the director of licensing. Three members of the ~~((committee))~~ board, one of whom shall be appointed ~~((chairman))~~ chairperson, shall be ~~((active motorcycle riders))~~ members of nonprofit motorcycle organizations which actively support and promote motorcycle safety education. One member shall be a currently employed Washington state patrol motorcycle officer with at least five years experience and at least one year cumulative experience as a motorcycle officer. One member shall be a member of the public. The term of appointment shall be ((determined by the director)) two years. The ((committee)) board shall meet at the call of the director, but not less than two times annually and not less than five times during its term of appointment, and shall receive no compensation for ((their)) services but shall be reimbursed ((their)) for travel expenses while engaged in business of the ((committee)) board in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended.

(3) The ~~((director of licensing))~~ board shall submit a proposed motorcycle operator training and education program to the director and to the legislative transportation committee for review and approval on or before ~~((April 1, 1983))~~ January 1, 1988.

(4) The director shall administer the program submitted by the board in the absence of approval by the transportation committee.

(5) The priorities of the program shall be in the following order of priority:

(a) Public awareness of motorcycle safety.

(b) Motorcycle safety education in a vocational-technical institute, educational service district, school district, community college, college, university, county, city, town, and other public or private educational program.

(c) Classroom and on-cycle training.

(d) Improved motorcycle operator testing."

Senator Bottiger moved that the following amendment to the Committee on Transportation amendment be adopted:

On page 2, strike lines 7 through 19 and insert:

"(c) For any person to operate or ride upon a motorcycle or motor-driven cycle on a state highway, county road, or city street unless wearing upon his or her head a protective helmet of a type conforming to rules adopted by the commission on equipment. The helmet must be equipped with either a neck or chin strap which shall be fastened securely while the motorcycle or motor-driven cycle is in motion."

Debate ensued.

Senator Bottiger demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senator Bottiger on page 2, lines 7 through 19, to the Committee on Transportation amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Bottiger failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 23; nays, 24; absent, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Decchio, Gaspard, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, McDermott, McDonald, Moore, Nelson, Owen, Peterson, Rinehart, Saling, Talmadge, von Reichbauer, West, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 23.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Craswell, DeJarnatt, Garrett, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, McCaslin, Metcalf, Newhouse, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Sellar, Smitherman, Stratton, Tanner, Vognild, Warnke, Williams - 24.

Absent: Senators Fleming, Lee - 2.

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the following amendment to the Committee on Transportation amendment be adopted:

On page 6, line 4, after "testing," insert:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Any person seeking damages for an accident arising out of their operation of a motorcycle or motor-driven cycle shall be guilty of negligence per se if such person was not wearing a protective helmet of a type conforming to rules adopted by the commission on equipment."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Halsan: "Senator Talmadge, I am shocked that you are taking a step backward in tort reform that was enacted last year regarding the elimination of negligence, per se. I did have kind of a question in regards to what your intent is on this particular bill or amendment. The way that I read it, and I am just a country lawyer with a sole practitioner firm, it says 'Any person seeking damages for an accident arising out of the operation of a motorcycle, or motor driven cycle, shall be guilty of negligence, per se, if such person were not wearing a protective helmet of the type conforming to the rules adopted by the commission on equipment.' Now, if I am driving through town in my pickup truck and some dumb motorcyclist without a helmet on, popped out and drives through a stop sign and is coming up in front of me such as that I have to swerve and hit a tree and injure myself and I am involved in an accident arising out of the operation of a motorcycle. Should I have been wearing a helmet in my pickup truck?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Halsan, first whenever Senator Halsan says he is just a poor country lawyer, I always grab for my wallet because I know my pocket is about to be picked the same way Sam Ervin used to do in the United States Senate. The answer is no. It pertains solely to the person who is operating the motorcycle--the individual who is operating the motorcycle and then seeks damages arising out of the accident--would be guilty of negligence, per se. You note, there is no specific percentage stated. It is simply negligence as a matter of law and the jury determines how much of a percentage is attributable to the operator of the truck, in your example, and the operator of the motorcycle, in that example.

"I would note also with respect to tort reform that what we intended to do so specifically in that statute, and I know you are interested in that issue, Senator Halsan, in some great detail, was to provide that the Legislature would say when someone was going to be guilty of negligence, per se, for violating a standard and when they were not. This is the first instance where we have had the opportunity to say with specificity when someone was guilty of, in this case, comparable fault, per se."

Senator Halsan: "Except in the case of the fire smoke detectors and electrical wiring, but if, in fact, it was the operation of the motorcycle by the person who, in fact, is seeking damages, perhaps it should say that in the amendment."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Rasmussen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senator Lee was excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senator Talmadge to the Committee on Transportation amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Talmadge failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 16; nays, 31; absent, 1; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bottiger, Fleming, Johnson, Kreidler, McCaslin, McDermott, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Owen, Peterson, Rinehart, Talmadge, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 16.

Voting nay: Senators Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Kiskaddon, McDonald, Newhouse, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Saling, Smitherman, Stratton, Tanner, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams - 31.

Absent: Senator Sellar - 1.

Excused: Senator Lee - 1.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Transportation amendment.

The Committee on Transportation amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Hansen, the following title amendment was adopted:

On line 1 of the title, after "helmets;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and amending RCW 46.37.530, 46.20.505, and 46.20.520."

On motion of Senator Hansen, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 161, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 161, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 161, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 36; nays, 9; absent, 3; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Bauer, Bender, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kreidler, McCaslin, Moore, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 36.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Benitz, Bottiger, Craswell, Halsan, Metcalf, Nelson, Pullen, West - 9.

Absent: Senators Kiskaddon, McDermott, McDonald - 3.

Excused: Senator Lee - 1.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 161, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 755, by Committee on Health Care (originally sponsored by Representatives Braddock, Brooks, Niemi and P. King) (by request of Department of Corrections)

Revising provisions relating to community corrections.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Wojahn moved that the following amendment by Senators Wojahn and Hayner be adopted:

On page 1, after line 21, strike all material through "appropriations." on page 2, line 27 and insert:

"(1) A county may establish a community corrections board which shall consist of nine members. The county legislative authority shall appoint four members to the board, two of whom shall be from the private sector. The secretary shall appoint one member to the board. In addition, the county prosecutor and county sheriff, or their designees, a judge of the county superior court selected by the county superior court judges, and a county district court judge, selected by the county district court judges, shall be members of the board.

(2) If a combination of counties establishes a community corrections board, an intergovernmental agreement shall establish the composition and powers of the board, not to exceed the authority granted in this section.

(3) The community corrections board shall develop a community corrections plan for the county. Upon request, the department may provide technical assistance in developing the plan. The plan shall describe the existing correctional resources, goals, objectives, needs, and problems for local and state correctional services in the county. The plan shall review ways to maximize resources and reduce duplication of services. Areas to be addressed in the plan include, but are not limited to: Voluntary services for offenders, which include employment, substance and alcohol abuse services, housing and mental health services; ways to share administrative costs between local and state government; and the development of alternatives to partial and total confinement.

(4) The secretary shall adopt rules for the submittal and review of all plans. Representatives from other state and local agencies and organizations shall participate in the review process. Initiatives that reduce the duplication of services or maximize the use of existing resources shall be given priority."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Wojahn and Hayner.

The motion by Senator Wojahn carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Halsan moved that the following amendment by Senators Halsan, Nelson and Talmadge be adopted:

On page 3, after line 22, insert the following:

"Sec. 5. Section 3, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 17, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Commission" means the sentencing guidelines commission.

(2) "Community corrections officer" means an employee of the department who is responsible for carrying out specific duties in supervision of sentenced offenders and monitoring of sentence conditions.

(3) "Community custody" is that portion of an offender's community placement that represents the amount of early release time an offender earns in partial or total confinement.

(4) "Community placement" is a department of corrections program designed to intensely monitor offenders convicted of any sex offense or offense categorized as seriousness level VII or greater under RCW 9.94A.320, following transfer from partial or total confinement. Community placement may consist of entirely community custody, entirely postrelease supervision, or a combination of the two depending on the amount of early release time an offender earns in partial or total confinement. Community placement shall not exceed one year following transfer from partial or total confinement to community custody or direct placement upon postrelease supervision from partial or total confinement. However, community custody may exceed one year in the case of a sex offender who completes his or her treatment program under RCW 9.94A.120(7)(b) before the expiration of the term of confinement.

(5) "Community service" means compulsory service, without compensation, performed for the benefit of the community by the offender. For purposes of the interstate compact for out of state supervision of parolees and probationers, RCW 9.95.270, community supervision is the functional equivalent of probation and should be considered the same as probation by other states.

((4)) (6) "Community supervision" means a period of time during which a convicted offender is subject to crime-related prohibitions and other sentence conditions imposed pursuant to this chapter by a court. For first-time offenders, the supervision may include crime-related prohibitions and other conditions imposed pursuant to RCW 9.94A.120(5).

(7) "Conditional release" is an unsupervised one-year period following transfer from community placement for offenders convicted of an offense categorized as seriousness level VII or greater under RCW 9.94A.320 and following an offender's release from total or partial confinement with the department of corrections in all other cases. An offender who is only sentenced to a term of confinement in the county jail does not receive conditional release following their release from jail or any community supervision that may be imposed. During conditional release the conditions under RCW 9.94A.120(8)(d) apply.

Conditional release is not a department of corrections program and the department of corrections has no role, duty or obligation to supervise or in any way control offenders on this status. Violations, if any, may be adjudicated by the courts, upon petition of the prosecuting attorney, pursuant to section 12 of this 1987 act.

((5)) (8) "Confinement" means total or partial confinement as defined in this section.

((6)) (9) "Conviction" means an adjudication of guilt pursuant to Titles 10 or 13 RCW and includes a verdict of guilty, a finding of guilty, and acceptance of a plea of guilty.

((7)) (10) "Crime-related prohibition" means an order of a court prohibiting conduct that directly relates to the circumstances of the crime for which the offender has been convicted, and shall not be construed to mean orders directing an offender affirmatively to participate in rehabilitative programs or to otherwise perform affirmative conduct.

((8)) (11) (a) "Criminal history" means the list of a defendant's prior convictions, whether in this state, in federal court, or elsewhere. The history shall include, where known, for each conviction (i) whether the defendant has been placed on probation and the length and terms thereof; and (ii) whether the defendant has been incarcerated and the length of incarceration.

(b) "Criminal history" includes a defendant's prior convictions in juvenile court if: (i) The conviction was for an offense which is a felony and is criminal history as defined in RCW 13.40.020(6)(a); (ii) the defendant was fifteen years of age or older at the time the offense was committed; and (iii) with respect to prior juvenile class B and C felonies, the defendant was less than twenty-three years of age at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

((9)) (12) "Department" means the department of corrections.

((10)) (13) "Determinate sentence" means a sentence that states with exactitude the number of actual years, months, or days of total confinement, of partial confinement, of community supervision, the number of actual hours or days of community service work, or dollars or terms of a fine or restitution. The fact that an offender through "earned early release" can reduce the actual period of confinement shall not affect the classification of the sentence as a determinate sentence.

((11)) (14) "Drug offense" means any felony violation of chapter 69.50 RCW except possession of a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.401(d)) or forged prescription for a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.403).

((12)) (15) "Escape" means escape in the first degree (RCW 9A.76.110), escape in the second degree (RCW 9A.76.120), wilful failure to return from furlough (RCW 72.66.060), or wilful failure to return from work release (RCW 72.65.070).

((13)) (16) "Felony traffic offense" means vehicular homicide (RCW 46.61.520), vehicular assault (RCW 46.61.522), or felony hit-and-run injury-accident (RCW 46.52.020(4)).

((14)) (17) "Fines" means the requirement that the offender pay a specific sum of money over a specific period of time to the court.

((15)) (18) (a) "First-time offender" means any person who is convicted of a felony not classified as a violent offense or a sex offense under this chapter, and except as provided in (b) of this subsection, who previously has never been convicted of a felony in this state, federal court, or another state, and who has never participated in a program of deferred prosecution for a felony offense.

(b) For purposes of (a) of this subsection, a juvenile adjudication for an offense committed before the age of fifteen years is not a previous felony conviction.

((16)) (19) "Nonviolent offense" means an offense which is not a violent offense.

((17)) (20) "Offender" means a person who has committed a felony established by state law and is eighteen years of age or older or is less than eighteen years of age but whose case has been transferred by the appropriate juvenile court to a criminal court pursuant to RCW 13.40.110. Throughout this chapter, the terms "offender" and "defendant" are used interchangeably.

((18)) (21) "Partial confinement" means confinement for no more than one year in a facility or institution operated or utilized under contract by the state or any other unit of government, for a substantial portion of each day with the balance of the day spent in the community.

(22) "Postrelease supervision" is that portion of an offender's community placement in excess of the amount of early release time an offender has earned in partial or total confinement which has been served in community custody. Community custody and postrelease supervision shall not exceed one year in the aggregate from the offender's release from partial or total confinement.

((19)) (23) "Restitution" means the requirement that the offender pay a specific sum of money over a specific period of time to the court as payment of damages. The sum may include both public and private costs. The imposition of a restitution order does not preclude civil redress.

((20)) (24) "Serious traffic offense" means driving while intoxicated (RCW 46.61.502), actual physical control while intoxicated (RCW 46.61.504), reckless driving (RCW 46.61.500), or hit-and-run an attended vehicle (RCW 46.52.020(5)).

((21)) (25) "Serious violent offense" is a subcategory of violent offense and means murder in the first degree, murder in the second degree, assault in the first degree, kidnapping in the first degree, or rape in the first degree, or an attempt, criminal solicitation, or criminal conspiracy to commit one of these felonies.

((22)) (26) "Sentence range" means the sentencing court's discretionary range in imposing a nonappealable sentence.

~~((23))~~ (27) "Sex offense" means a felony that is a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020 or 9.68A.090 or that is, under chapter 9A.28 RCW, a criminal attempt, criminal solicitation, or criminal conspiracy to commit such crimes.

~~((24))~~ (28) "Total confinement" means confinement inside the physical boundaries of a facility or institution operated or utilized under contract by the state or any other unit of government for twenty-four hours a day, or pursuant to RCW 72.64.050 and 72.64.060.

~~((25))~~ (29) "Victim" means any person who has sustained physical or financial injury to person or property as a direct result of the crime charged.

~~((26))~~ (30) "Violent offense" means:

(a) Any of the following felonies, as now existing or hereafter amended: Any felony defined under any law as a class A felony or an attempt to commit a class A felony, criminal solicitation of or criminal conspiracy to commit a class A felony, manslaughter in the first degree, manslaughter in the second degree, indecent liberties if committed by forcible compulsion, rape in the second degree, kidnapping in the second degree, arson in the second degree, assault in the second degree, extortion in the first degree, robbery in the second degree, vehicular homicide, and vehicular assault;

(b) Any conviction for a felony offense in effect at any time prior to July 1, 1976, that is comparable to a felony classified as a violent offense in (a) of this subsection ~~((26)(a) of this section~~); and

(c) Any federal or out-of-state conviction for an offense that under the laws of this state would be a felony classified as a violent offense under (a) or (b) of this subsection ~~((26)(a) or (b) of this section~~).

Sec. 6. Section 12, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 20, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and by section 4, chapter 301, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.120 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this section.

(1) Except as authorized in subsections (2), (5), and (7) of this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range for the offense.

(2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(3) Whenever a sentence outside the standard range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard range shall be a determinate sentence.

(4) An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years. An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than three years, and shall not be eligible for furlough, work release or other authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility during such minimum three year term except for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility. The foregoing minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) In sentencing a first-time offender the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(a) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(b) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense;

(c) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;

(d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;

(e) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer; or

(f) Pay a fine and/or accomplish some community service work.

(6) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or a fine. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(7) (a) When an offender is convicted of a sex offense other than a violation of RCW 9A.44.040 or RCW 9A.44.050 and has no prior convictions for a sex offense or any other felony sexual offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

After receipt of the reports, the court shall then determine whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative. If the court determines that both the offender and the community will benefit from use of this provision, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range and, if this sentence is less than six years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and place the offender on community supervision for up to two years. As a condition of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense, crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (ii) Undergo available outpatient sex offender treatment for up to two years, or inpatient sex offender treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment;
- (iii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (iv) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (v) Pay a fine, accomplish some community service work, or any combination thereof; or
- (vi) Make recoupment to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime.

If the offender violates these sentence conditions the court may revoke the suspension and order execution of the sentence. All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(b) When an offender (~~is convicted of~~) commits any felony sexual offense on or after July 1, 1987, and is sentenced ((on or after July 1, 1987:)) to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, request the department of corrections to evaluate whether the offender is amenable to treatment and the department may place the offender in a treatment program within a correctional facility operated by the department.

If the offender completes the treatment program before the expiration of his term of confinement, the department of corrections may request the court to convert the balance of confinement to community ~~((supervision and to place conditions on the offender including crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:~~

- ~~(i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;~~
- ~~(ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;~~
- ~~(iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;~~
- ~~(iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment))~~ custody with the same conditions as placed on the offender by the court at the original imposition of sentence pursuant to subsection (8)(b) of this section.

If the offender violates any of the terms of community ~~((supervision))~~ custody, the ((court)) ~~department may order the offender to serve ((out the balance of his community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections))~~ a maximum of sixty days for each violation in partial or total confinement not to exceed the total period of community placement.

Nothing in (b) of this subsection shall confer eligibility for such programs for offenders convicted and sentenced for a sexual offense committed prior to July 1, 1987.

After June 30, 1993, (b) of this subsection shall cease to have effect.

~~((c) Whenever a court sentences a person convicted of a sex offense committed after July 1, 1986, to a term of confinement of more than one year, including a sentence under (b) of this subsection, the court may also order, in addition to the other terms of the sentence, that the offender, upon release from confinement, serve up to two years of community supervision. The conditions of supervision shall be limited to:~~

- ~~(i) Crime-related provisions;~~
- ~~(ii) A requirement that the offender report to a community corrections officer at regular intervals; and~~
- ~~(iii) A requirement to remain within or without stated geographical boundaries;~~

The length and conditions of supervision shall be set by the court at the time of sentencing. However, within thirty days prior to release from confinement and throughout the period of supervision, the length and conditions of supervision may be modified by the sentencing court, upon motion of the department of corrections, the offender, or the prosecuting attorney. The period of supervision shall be tolled during any time the offender is in confinement for any reason. In no case may the period of supervision, in combination with the other terms of the offender's sentence, exceed the statutory maximum term for the offender's crime, as set forth in RCW 9A.20.021.

If the offender violates any condition of supervision, the sentencing court, after a hearing conducted in the same manner as provided for in RCW 9.94A.200, may order the offender to be confined for up to sixty days in the county jail at state expense from funds provided for this purpose to the department of corrections. Reimbursement rates for such purposes shall be established based on a formula determined by the office of financial management and reestablished each even-numbered year. An offender may be held in jail at state expense pending the hearing, and any time served while awaiting the hearing shall be credited against confinement imposed for a violation. Even after the period of supervision has expired, an offender may be confined for a violation occurring during the period of supervision. The court shall retain jurisdiction for the purpose of holding the violation hearing and imposing a sanction:)

(8)(a) When a court sentences a person to a term of total confinement to the custody of the department of corrections for a sex offense or an offense categorized as seriousness level VII or greater under RCW 9.94A.320, committed on or after July 1, 1987, the court shall order that the offender shall be transferred from confinement to community custody when the offender is eligible for community custody status in lieu of earned early release time pursuant to RCW 9.94A.150(1), as computed by the department of corrections. An offender shall be released from community custody after serving the total sentence imposed by the court or one year, whichever is less, and shall thereafter be placed on postrelease supervision for the balance of the offender's community placement. Following completion of community placement, if any, the offender shall be placed on one year of conditional release.

(b) When a court sentences a person to a term of total confinement to the custody of the department of corrections for a sex offense or an offense categorized as seriousness level VII or greater under RCW 9.94A.320, committed on or after July 1, 1987, unless a condition is waived by the court, the sentence shall include, in addition to the other terms of the sentence, the following conditions regarding the community custody program of the department of corrections:

(i) The offender shall report to and be available for contact with the assigned community corrections officer as directed;

(ii) The offender shall work at department of corrections-approved education, employment, and/or community service;

(iii) The offender shall not consume or possess controlled substances; and

(iv) The offender shall pay community custody fees as determined by the department of corrections.

(c) The court may also order any of the following special conditions:

(i) The offender shall remain within, or outside of, a specified geographical boundary;

(ii) The offender shall not have direct or indirect contact with the victim of the crime or a specified class of individuals;

(iii) The offender shall participate in treatment or counseling services;

(iv) The offender shall not consume alcohol;

(v) The residence location and living arrangements of a sex offender shall be subject to the prior approval of the department of corrections; or

(vi) The offender shall comply with any crime-related prohibitions.

(d) Those offenders sentenced to the department of corrections for an offense other than a sex offense or an offense categorized as less than seriousness level VII under RCW 9.94A.320, committed on or after July 1, 1987, shall receive conditional release one year following release from total or partial confinement.

(e) An offender on conditional release following a period of community placement shall be subject only to the conditions specified by (c) (i) and (iii) of this subsection. An offender on conditional release who has not been on community placement shall not be subject to conditions under this subsection, but shall only be subject to an enhancement of the offender's score under RCW 9.94A.330 for any new felonies committed during the period of conditional release.

(f) Within thirty days prior to release from confinement and throughout the period of community placement, the conditions of supervision may be modified by the sentencing court, upon motion of the offender or the prosecuting attorney.

(9) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

((9)) (10) If a sentence imposed includes a fine or restitution, the sentence shall specify a reasonable manner and time in which the fine or restitution shall be paid. In any sentence under this chapter the court may also require the offender to make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary (a) to pay court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required, (b) to make recoupment of the cost of defense attorney's fees if counsel is provided at public expense, (c) to contribute to a county or interlocal drug fund, and (d) to make such other payments as provided by law. All monetary payments shall be ordered paid by no later than ten years after the date of the ((judgment of conviction)) sentence. The offender's compliance with payment of monetary obligations shall be supervised by the department. The rate of payment shall be determined by the court or, in the absence of a rate determined by the court, the rate shall be set by the department.

An offender's default in the payment of restitution, fines, and other monetary obligations imposed under this chapter, or any installment thereof, may be collected by any means authorized by law for the enforcement of a judgment. Judgments for monetary obligations under this chapter are and may be made liens upon the property of the offender in the same manner and with like effect as judgments in civil actions.

~~((+0))~~ (11) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(1), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW.

~~((+1))~~ (12) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, restitution, or fines shall be under the supervision of the secretary of the department of corrections or such person as the secretary may designate and shall follow implicitly the instructions of the secretary including reporting as directed to a community corrections officer, remaining within prescribed geographical boundaries, and notifying the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment.

~~((+2))~~ (13) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

~~((+3))~~ (14) A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400(1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, and may be appealed by the defendant or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210(2) through (6).

~~((+4))~~ (15) The court shall order restitution whenever the offender is convicted of a felony that results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property, whether the offender is sentenced to confinement or placed under community supervision, unless extraordinary circumstances exist that make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment. The court shall set forth the extraordinary circumstances in the record if it does not order restitution.

Sec. 7. Section 15, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 8, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.150 are each amended to read as follows:

No person serving a sentence imposed pursuant to this chapter shall leave the confines of the correctional facility or be released prior to the expiration of the sentence except as follows:

(1) Except for persons convicted of a sex offense or an offense categorized as seriousness level VII or greater under RCW 9.94A.320, the terms of the sentence may be reduced by earned early release time in accordance with procedures developed and promulgated by the department. The earned early release time shall be for good behavior and good performance, as determined by the department. In no case shall the aggregate earned early release time exceed one-third of the sentence. Persons convicted of a sex offense or an offense categorized as seriousness level VII or greater under RCW 9.94A.320 may become eligible for community custody in lieu of earned early release time in accordance with the program developed and promulgated by the department;

(2) When a person convicted of a sex offense or an offense categorized as seriousness level VII or greater under RCW 9.94A.320 is eligible for transfer to community custody status in lieu of earned early release time pursuant to RCW 9.94A.150(1), as computed by the department of corrections, the offender shall be transferred from confinement to community custody.

(3) An offender may leave a correctional facility pursuant to an authorized furlough or leave of absence. In addition, offenders may leave a correctional facility when in the custody of a corrections officer or officers;

~~((3))~~ (4) The governor, upon recommendation from the clemency and pardons board, may grant an extraordinary release for reasons of serious health problems, senility, advanced age, extraordinary meritorious acts, or other extraordinary circumstances;

~~((4))~~ ~~if the sentence of confinement is in excess of twelve months but not in excess of three years;~~ (5) No more than the final ~~((three))~~ six months of the sentence may be served in partial confinement designed to aid the qualified offender, as determined by the department of corrections, in finding work and reestablishing him or herself in the community ~~((if the sentence of confinement is in excess of three years, no more than the final six months of the sentence may be served in such partial confinement));~~

~~((5))~~ (6) The governor may pardon any offender;

~~((6))~~ (7) The department of corrections may release an offender from confinement any time within ten days before a release date calculated under this section; and

~~((7))~~ (8) An offender may leave a correctional facility prior to completion of his sentence if the sentence has been reduced as provided in RCW 9.94A.160.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 9.94A RCW to read as follows:

If an offender violates any condition or requirement of community custody, the department may impose sanctions. If an offender is accused of violating any condition or requirement of community custody, he or she is entitled to a hearing before sanctions may be imposed. The department shall promulgate rules governing such hearing procedures and sanctions. Detention of an offender pursuant to section 5 of this act shall not be considered a sanction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 9.94A RCW to read as follows:

(1) The secretary may issue warrants for the arrest of any offender who violates a condition of community custody. The arrest warrants shall authorize any law enforcement or peace officer or community corrections officer of this state or any other state where such offender may be located, to arrest the offender and place him or her in total confinement pending return to confinement in a state correctional institution. The department shall compensate the local jurisdiction at the office of financial management's adjudicated rate, in accordance with RCW 70.48.440. A community corrections officer, if he or she has reasonable cause to believe an offender in community custody has violated a condition of community custody, may suspend the person's community custody status and arrest or cause the arrest and detention in total confinement of the offender in a state facility, pending the determination of the secretary as to whether the violation has occurred. The community corrections officer shall report to the secretary all facts and circumstances and the reasons for the action of suspending community custody status.

(2) Inmates, as defined in RCW 72.09.020, who have been transferred to community custody and who are detained in a local correctional facility are the financial responsibility of the department of corrections. The community custody inmate shall be removed from the local correctional facility not later than eight days, excluding weekends and holidays, following admittance to the local correctional facility and notification that the inmate is available for movement to a state correctional institution. However, if good cause is shown, the department may negotiate with local correctional authorities for an additional period of detention.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 72.09 RCW to read as follows:

An offender in community custody who willfully fails to report to the assigned community corrections officer at the time specified by the department of corrections shall be deemed an escapee and fugitive from justice, and upon conviction shall be guilty of a class C felony under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

Sec. 11. Section 7, chapter 136, Laws of 1981 and RCW 72.09.020 are each amended to read as follows:

For purposes of this chapter, "inmate" means any person committed to the custody of the department, including but not limited to persons residing in a correctional institution or facility and persons released on furlough ((or)), work release, or community custody.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 9.94A RCW to read as follows:

If the offender violates any condition of postrelease supervision or conditional release following community placement, a hearing may be conducted in the same manner as provided in RCW 9.94A.200. Jurisdiction shall be with the court of the county in which the offender was sentenced. However, the court may order a change of venue to the offender's county of residence or where the violation occurred, for the purpose of holding a violation hearing. The district courts shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the superior courts after a certified copy of the judgment and sentence is filed.

After the hearing, the court may order the offender to be confined for up to sixty days in the county jail, the first thirty of which shall be at state expense from funds provided for this purpose to the department of corrections, and the second thirty of which, together with costs of indigent defense, shall be at county expense. Reasonable reimbursement rates for such purposes shall be established based on a formula determined by the office of financial management and reestablished each even-numbered year. An offender may be held in jail at state expense pending the hearing, and any time served while awaiting the hearing shall be credited against confinement imposed for a violation. Even after the period of supervision or conditions has expired, an offender may be confined for a violation occurring during the period of supervision or conditions if the petition to revoke is filed within the period of supervision or seven days thereafter. The court shall retain jurisdiction for the purpose of holding the violation hearing and imposing a sanction.

Sec. 13. Section 17, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.94A.170 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A term of confinement ordered in a sentence pursuant to this chapter shall be tolled by any period of time during which the offender has absented him or herself from supervision without the prior approval of the entity in whose custody the offender has been placed.

(2) The period of community placement shall be tolled during any period of time the offender is in confinement for any reason. However, if an offender is detained pursuant to section 9 of this 1987 act and is later found not to have violated a condition or requirement of community placement, time spent in total confinement due to such detention shall not toll the period of community placement. The period of community placement shall be tolled by any period of time during which the offender has absented himself or herself from monitoring without prior approval of the entity under whose supervision the offender has been placed. For the period of a sentence during which an offender is placed in community placement, the date for the tolling of the sentence shall be established by the department of corrections.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. A new section is added to chapter 72.09 RCW to read as follows:

The state of Washington, the department, community corrections officers, their staff, and volunteers who assist community corrections officers in the community placement program are not liable for civil damages resulting from any act or omission in the rendering of community placement monitoring activities, other than acts or omissions constituting gross negligence or willful or wanton misconduct. For purposes of this section, "volunteers" is defined according to RCW 51.12.035.

Sec. 15. Section 20, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 12, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.200 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If an offender violates any condition or requirement of a sentence, the court may modify its order of judgment and sentence and impose further punishment in accordance with this section.

(2) If an offender fails to comply with any of the requirements or conditions of a sentence the following provisions apply:

(a) The court, upon the motion of the state, or upon its own motion, shall require the offender to show cause why the offender should not be punished for the noncompliance. The court may issue a summons or a warrant of arrest for the offender's appearance:

(b) The state has the burden of showing noncompliance by a preponderance of the evidence. If the court finds that the violation has occurred, it may order the offender to be confined for a period not to exceed sixty days for each violation, and may convert a term of partial confinement to total confinement. Any time served in confinement awaiting a hearing on noncompliance shall be credited against any confinement order by the court; and

(c) If the court finds that the violation was not willful, the court may modify its previous order regarding payment of fines or other monetary payments and regarding community service obligations.

(3) Nothing in this section prohibits the filing of escape charges if appropriate.

Sec. 16. Section 7, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 25, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.360 are each amended to read as follows:

The offender score is measured on the horizontal axis of the sentencing grid. The offender score rules, partially summarized in Table 3, RCW 9.94A.330, are as follows:

The offender score is the sum of points accrued under subsections (1) through ~~((+4))~~ (15) of this section rounded down to the nearest whole number.

(1) A prior conviction is a conviction which exists before the date of sentencing for the offense for which the offender score is being computed. Convictions entered or sentenced on the same date as the conviction for which the offender score is being computed shall be deemed "other current offenses" within the meaning of RCW 9.94A.400.

(2) Except as provided in subsections (3) and (13) of this section, class A prior felony convictions shall always be included in the offender score. Class B prior felony convictions shall not be included in the offender score, if since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent ten consecutive years in the community without being convicted of any felonies. Class C prior felony convictions shall not be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent five consecutive years in the community without being convicted of any felonies. Serious traffic convictions shall not be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender spent five years in the community without being convicted of any serious traffic or felony traffic offenses. This subsection applies to both adult and juvenile prior convictions. Out-of-state convictions for offenses shall be classified according to the comparable offense definitions and sentences provided by Washington law.

(3) Include class A juvenile felonies only if the offender was 15 or older at the time the juvenile offense was committed. Include class B and C juvenile felony convictions only if the offender was 15 or older at the time the juvenile offense was committed and the offender was less than 23 at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

(4) Score prior convictions for felony anticipatory offenses (attempts, criminal solicitations, and criminal conspiracies) the same as if they were convictions for completed offenses.

(5) In the case of multiple prior convictions, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all convictions separately, except:

(a) Prior adult offenses which were found, under RCW 9.94A.400(1)(a), to encompass the same criminal conduct, shall be counted as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score. The current sentencing court shall determine with respect to other prior adult offenses for which sentences were served concurrently whether those offenses shall be counted as one offense or as separate offenses, and if the court finds that they shall be counted as one offense, then the offense that yields the highest offender score shall be used;

(b) Juvenile prior convictions entered or sentenced on the same date shall count as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score; and one offense, and count all juvenile convictions entered on the same date as one offense. Use the conviction for the offense that yields the highest offender score.

(6) If the present conviction is one of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy, count each prior conviction as if the present conviction were for a completed offense.

(7) If the present conviction is for a nonviolent offense and not covered by subsection (11), (12), or (13) of this section, count one point for each adult prior felony conviction and one point for each juvenile prior violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each juvenile prior nonviolent felony conviction.

(8) If the present conviction is for a violent offense and not covered in subsection (9), (10), (11), or (12) of this section, count two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent felony conviction, one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

(9) If the present conviction is for Murder 1 or 2, Assault 1, Kidnaping 1, or Rape 1, count three points for prior adult and juvenile convictions for crimes in these categories, two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent conviction (not already counted), one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

(10) If the present conviction is for Burglary 1, count prior convictions as in subsection (8) of this section; however count two points for each prior adult Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each prior juvenile Burglary 2 conviction.

(11) If the present conviction is for a felony traffic offense count two points for each adult or juvenile prior conviction for Vehicular Homicide; count one point for each adult, and 1/2 point for each juvenile, prior conviction for each other felony offense or serious traffic offense.

(12) If the present conviction is for a drug offense count two points for each adult prior felony drug offense conviction and one point for each juvenile drug offense. All other adult and juvenile felonies are scored as in subsection (8) of this section if the current drug offense is violent, or as in subsection (7) of this section if the current drug offense is nonviolent.

(13) If the present conviction is for escape (Escape 1, RCW 9A.76.110; Escape 2, RCW 9A.76.120; Willful Failure to Return from Furlough, RCW 72.66.060; and Willful Failure to Return from Work Release, RCW 72.65.070), count only prior escape convictions in the offender score. Count adult prior escape convictions as one point and juvenile prior escape convictions as 1/2 point.

(14) If the present conviction is for Burglary 2, count priors as in subsection (7) of this section; however, count two points for each adult and juvenile prior Burglary 1 conviction, two points for each adult prior Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each juvenile prior Burglary 2 conviction.

(15) If the present conviction is for an offense committed while the offender was under community placement or conditional release pursuant to this chapter, count one point.

Sec. 17, Section 4, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 24, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.330 are each amended to read as follows:

Revising provisions relating to the Yakima river basin enhancement project.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Hansen moved that the following Committee on Agriculture amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 3, chapter 316, Laws of 1986 (unmodified) is amended to read as follows:

(1) The director of the department of ecology shall:

((+)) (a) Continue to participate with the federal government in its studies of the Yakima enhancement project and of options for future development of the second half of the Columbia Basin project;

((+)) (b) Vigorously represent the state's interest in said studies, particularly as they relate to protection of existing water rights and resolution of conflicts in the adjudication of the Yakima river within the framework of state water rights law and propose means of resolving the conflict that minimize adverse effects on the various existing uses;

((+)) (c) As a cooperative federal and nonfederal effort, work with members of the congressional delegation to identify and advance, subject to the limitations in subsection (2) of this section, for federal authorization elements of the Yakima enhancement project which: Have general public support and acceptable cost-sharing arrangements, meet study objectives, and otherwise have potential for early implementation; and

((+)) (d) In developing acceptable cost-sharing arrangements, request federal recognition of state credit for expenditures of moneys from Washington state utility ratepayers.

(2) While the state and federal governments develop and implement the various phases of the Yakima enhancement project, the policy of the state shall be to require that any new water project or modification of an existing water project that creates a new demand for surface water from the Yakima river system include as a part of that project or modification a supply of water to meet the demand created. Any permit or other authorization required for the project that must be issued by an agency of the state shall include this requirement for water as one of its conditions. For the purposes of this subsection, water supplied by proposals to raise the reservoir elevation of Lake Cle Elum by three feet shall not be considered such a supply of water. For the purposes of this section, the phrase "water projects" includes, but is not limited to, fish passage or protective facilities.

(3) Nothing contained in subsection (2) of this section shall limit any individual or entity from entering into any interim operating agreement, including but not limited to those that may be permitted by chapter 90.54 RCW, for the construction of any new water project or modification of an existing water project pending the completion of facilities which create the additional water required for the operation of such new or modified water project.

(4) The provisions of this section, including but not limited to the interim operating agreements recognized under subsection (3) of this section, shall not interfere with or impact the availability of water necessary to fulfill existing water rights, and the specific elements, uses, or methods of acquisition of those rights recognized under state water right laws.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. Section 1 of this act is added to chapter 43.21A RCW."

Senator Hansen moved that the following amendments to the Committee on Agriculture amendment be considered simultaneously and adopted:

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senator McDonald was excused.

President Pro Tempore Rasmussen assumed the chair.

Further debate on Substitute House Bill No. 48, as amended by the Senate, ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Owen: "Senator Talmadge, is Section 9, subsection (3), subsection (b), intended to prevent parents from having equal time with their children, or long term residential arrangements with each parent on an alternating basis?"

Senator Talmadge: "No, Senator, Section 9, subsection (3), subsection (b), acknowledges that the parents will have equal time with the children in many cases. This section requires additional protection for children if the parents chose to achieve equal time by moving the children frequently back and forth between the parents' households for brief periods of time. This type of pingpong provision, for a couple days with one parent and a couple of days with the other as a regular schedule can be harmful for children and should be done sparingly. That is the purpose of this section--not to limit the parents' time with the child."

Further debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 48, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 48, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 31; nays, 16; excused, 2.

- (28) Massage operators licensed under chapter 18.108 RCW; and
- (29) Health care assistants licensed under chapter 18.135 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 70.160 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Residents of nursing homes are excluded from this chapter to the extent that nursing home administrators allow smoking in a resident's room or in a designated area.

(2) Patients in hospitals are excluded from this chapter to the extent that their physician and hospital administration allow smoking by the patient in a hospital room or a designated area.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 70.160 RCW to read as follows:

No school district board of directors may allow any student to smoke or otherwise use tobacco or tobacco products on the grounds of any common school, whether inside or outside a building.

Sec. 5. Section 7, chapter 236, Laws of 1985 and RCW 70.160.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person intentionally violating this chapter by smoking in a public place not designated as a smoking area or any person removing, defacing, or destroying a sign required by this chapter is subject to a civil fine of up to one hundred dollars. Local law enforcement agencies shall enforce this section by issuing a notice of infraction to be assessed in the same manner as traffic infractions. The provisions contained in chapter 46.63 RCW for the disposition of traffic infractions apply to the disposition of infractions for violation of this subsection except as follows:

(a) The provisions in chapter 46.63 RCW relating to the provision of records to the department of licensing in accordance with RCW 46.20.270 are not applicable to this chapter; and

(b) The provisions in chapter 46.63 RCW relating to the imposition of sanctions against a person's driver's license or vehicle license are not applicable to this chapter.

The form for the notice of infraction for a violation of this subsection shall be prescribed by rule of the supreme court.

(2) When violations of RCW 70.160.040 ((or)), 70.160.050, section 2 of this act, or section 4 of this act occur, a warning shall first be given to the owner or other person in charge. Any subsequent violation is subject to a civil fine of up to one hundred dollars. Each day upon which a violation occurs or is permitted to continue constitutes a separate violation.

(3) Local fire departments or fire districts shall enforce RCW 70.160.040 ((or)), 70.160.050, and section 4 of this act regarding the duties of owners or persons in control of public places, and local health departments shall enforce RCW 70.160.040 ((or)), 70.160.050, or section 2 of this act regarding the duties of owners of health care facilities or restaurants by either of the following actions:

- (a) Serving notice requiring the correction of any violation; or

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, I raise a point of order. The chairman of the committee has convinced me that the committee amendment expands the scope and object of the bill."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 264 was deferred.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 325, by Committee on Education (originally sponsored by Representatives Ebersole, Betrozoff and Walk)

Providing for curriculum based assessment for bilingual education programs and programs for those with learning disabilities.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the following Committee on Education amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 28A.03 RCW to read as follows:

By July 1, 1989, the superintendent of public instruction shall complete a study and, as may be necessary, adopt rules providing for the appropriate use of curriculum-based assessment procedures as a component of assessment procedures provided by chapter 28A.13 RCW. School districts may use curriculum-based assessment procedures as measures for developing academic early intervention programs and curriculum planning: PROVIDED, That the use of curriculum-based assessment procedures shall not deny a student the right to an assessment to determine eligibility or participation in learning disabilities programs as provided by chapter 28A.13 RCW."

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "disabled" strike the remainder of the title and insert "programs; and adding a new section to chapter 28A.03 RCW."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 325, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 325, as amended by the Senate.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 646, by Committee on Human Services (originally sponsored by Representatives Brekke, Winsley, H. Sommers, R. King, Leonard and Sanders) (by request of Department of Social and Health Services)

Establishing an alcoholism and drug addiction treatment and shelter program.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Wojahn moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. This chapter may be cited as the alcoholism and drug addiction treatment and support act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. The legislature finds:

(1) There is a need for reevaluation of state policies and programs regarding indigent alcoholics and drug addicts;

(2) The practice of providing a cash grant may be causing rapid caseload growth and attracting transients to the state;

(3) Many chronic public inebriates have been recycled through county detoxification centers repeatedly without apparent improvement;

(4) The assumption that all individuals will recover through treatment has not been substantiated;

(5) The state must modify its policies and programs for alcoholics and drug addicts and redirect its resources in the interests of these individuals, the community, and the taxpayers;

(6) Treatment resources should be focused on persons willing to commit to rehabilitation; and

(7) Shelter assistance is an essential service necessary to prevent homelessness and meet the basic needs of indigent alcoholics and drug addicts.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. Persons who are incapacitated from gainful employment due to alcoholism or drug addiction and who meet the eligibility requirements as established by rule by the department are eligible for special substance abuse programs as provided under this chapter. Eligible alcoholics and drug addicts shall have their needs addressed by the programs offered by the department of social and health services under this chapter and chapters 69.54 and 70.96A RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A program of treatment and shelter for alcoholics and drug addicts who meet the eligibility requirements is established within the department of social and health services. The eligibility requirements for the treatment and shelter program shall be the same as the eligibility requirements for the general assistance program as set forth in RCW 74.04.005. However, persons who are unemployable solely due to alcohol or drug addiction shall be eligible for services under this chapter, to the extent of available funds, instead of the general assistance—unemployable program. This program shall consist of:

(1) Client assessment services;

(2) A treatment program for alcoholics and drug addicts;

(3) A shelter program for indigent alcoholics and drug addicts;

(4) Assistance in making application for enrollment in the federal supplemental security income program under the social security administration act; and

(5) Medical care services as defined in RCW 74.09.010.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The department shall provide client assessment, treatment, and support services. The assessment services shall include diagnostic evaluation and arranging for admission into treatment or supported living programs.

(2) The department shall assist clients in making application for supplemental security benefits and in obtaining the necessary documentation required by the federal social security administration for such benefits.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The department shall provide alcohol and drug treatment services within available funds for indigent persons eligible under this chapter who are incapacitated from gainful employment due to drug or alcohol abuse or addiction. The treatment services may include but are not limited to:

(a) Intensive inpatient treatment services;

(b) Recovery house treatment;

(c) Outpatient treatment and counseling, including assistance in obtaining employment, and including a living allowance while undergoing outpatient treatment. The living allowance shall be administered on the clients' behalf by the outpatient treatment facility or other social service agency designated by the department. The department is authorized to pay the facility a fee for administering this allowance.

(2) No individual may receive treatment services under this section for more than six months in any two-year period: PROVIDED, That the department may approve additional treatment and/or living allowance as an exception.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The department shall establish a shelter assistance program to ensure the availability of shelter for persons eligible under this chapter. The department may contract with counties and cities for such shelter services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) If a county elects to establish a multipurpose diagnostic center or detention center, the alcoholism and drug addiction assessment service under section 5 of this act may be integrated into the services provided by such a center.

(2) The center may be financed from funds made available by the department for alcoholism and drug addiction assessments under this chapter and funds contained in the department's budget for detoxification, involuntary detention, and involuntary treatment under chapters 70.96A and 71.05 RCW. The center may be operated by the county or pursuant to contract between the county and a qualified organization.

Sec. 9. Section 1, chapter 6, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 335, Laws of 1985 and RCW 74.04.005 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this title, unless the context indicates otherwise, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Public assistance" or "assistance"—Public aid to persons in need thereof for any cause, including services, medical care, assistance grants, disbursing orders, work relief, general assistance and federal-aid assistance.

(2) "Department"—The department of social and health services.

(3) "County or local office"—The administrative office for one or more counties or designated service areas.

(4) "Director" or "secretary" means the secretary of social and health services.

(5) "Federal-aid assistance"—The specific categories of assistance for which provision is made in any federal law existing or hereafter passed by which payments are made from the federal government to the state in aid or in respect to payment by the state for public assistance rendered to any category of needy persons for which provision for federal funds or aid may from time to time be made, or a federally administered needs-based program.

(6) (a) "General assistance"—Aid to persons in need who:

(i) Are not eligible to receive federal-aid assistance, other than food stamps and medical assistance; however, an individual who refuses or fails to cooperate in obtaining federal-aid assistance, without good cause, is not eligible for general assistance: ((and))

(ii) Are either:

(A) Pregnant: PROVIDED, That need is based on the current income and resource requirements of the federal aid to families with dependent children program: PROVIDED FURTHER, That during any period in which an aid for dependent children employable program is not in operation, only those pregnant women who are categorically eligible for medicaid are eligible for general assistance; or

(B) Incapacitated from gainful employment by reason of bodily or mental infirmity that will likely continue for a minimum of sixty days as determined by the department: (~~PROVIDED: That persons in approved alcoholism or drug programs may be eligible for less than a sixty-day period in accordance with their plans~~), Persons who are unemployable due to alcohol or drug addiction are not eligible for general assistance. Persons receiving general assistance on the effective date of this 1987 section or becoming eligible for such assistance thereafter, due to an alcohol or drug-related incapacity, shall be referred to appropriate assessment, treatment, shelter, or supplemental security income referral services as authorized under chapter 74.—RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1987 act). Referrals shall be made at the time of application or at the time of eligibility review. Alcoholic and drug addicted clients who are receiving general assistance on the effective date of this 1987 section may remain on general assistance if they otherwise retain their eligibility until they are assessed for services under chapter 74.--RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1987 act). This subsection (6)(a)(i)(B) shall not be construed to prohibit the department from granting general assistance benefits to alcoholics and drug addicts who are incapacitated due to other physical or mental conditions that meet the eligibility criteria for the general assistance program:

(iii) Are citizens or aliens lawfully admitted for permanent residence or otherwise residing in the United States under color of law; and

(iv) Have furnished the department their social security account number. If the social security account number cannot be furnished because it has not been issued or is not known, an application for a number shall be made prior to authorization of assistance, and the social security number shall be provided to the department upon receipt.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (6)(a)(i) ~~(and)~~, (ii), and (c) of this section, general assistance shall be provided to the following recipients of federal-aid assistance:

(i) Recipients of supplemental security income whose need, as defined in this section, is not met by such supplemental security income grant because of separation from a spouse; or

(ii) To the extent authorized by the legislature in the biennial appropriations act, to recipients of aid to families with dependent children whose needs are not being met because of a temporary reduction in monthly income below the entitled benefit payment level caused by loss or reduction of wages or unemployment compensation benefits or some other unforeseen circumstances. The amount of general assistance authorized shall not exceed the difference between the entitled benefit payment level and the amount of income actually received.

(c) General assistance shall be provided only to persons who are not members of assistance units receiving federal aid assistance, except as provided in subsection (6)(a)(ii)(A) and (b) of this section, and will accept available services which can reasonably be expected to enable the person to work or reduce the need for assistance unless there is good cause to refuse. Failure to accept such services shall result in termination until the person agrees to cooperate in accepting such services and subject to the following maximum periods of ineligibility after reapplication:

(i) First failure: One week;

(ii) Second failure within six months: One month;

(iii) Third and subsequent failure within one year: Two months.

(d) The department shall adopt by rule medical criteria for general assistance eligibility to ensure that eligibility decisions are consistent with statutory requirements and are based on clear, objective medical information.

(e) The process implementing the medical criteria shall involve consideration of opinions of the treating or consulting physicians or health care professionals regarding incapacity, and any eligibility decision which rejects uncontroverted medical opinion must set forth clear and convincing reasons for doing so.

(f) Recipients of general assistance who remain otherwise eligible shall not have their benefits terminated absent a clear showing of material improvement in their medical or mental condition or specific error in the prior determination that found the recipient eligible by reason of incapacitation.

(7) "Applicant"—Any person who has made a request, or on behalf of whom a request has been made, to any county or local office for assistance.

(8) "Recipient"—Any person receiving assistance and in addition those dependents whose needs are included in the recipient's assistance.

(9) "Standards of assistance"—The level of income required by an applicant or recipient to maintain a level of living specified by the department.

(10) "Resource"—Any asset, tangible or intangible, owned by or available to the applicant at the time of application, which can be applied toward meeting the applicant's need, either directly or by conversion into money or its equivalent: PROVIDED, That an applicant may retain the following described resources and not be ineligible for public assistance because of such resources.

(a) A home, which is defined as real property owned and used by an applicant or recipient as a place of residence, together with a reasonable amount of property surrounding and contiguous thereto, which is used by and useful to the applicant. Whenever a recipient shall cease to use such property for residential purposes, either for himself or his dependents, the property shall be considered as a resource which can be made available to meet need, and if the recipient or his dependents absent themselves from the home for a period of ninety consecutive days such absence, unless due to hospitalization or health reasons or a natural disaster, shall raise a rebuttable presumption of abandonment: PROVIDED, That if in the opinion of three physicians the recipient will be unable to return to the home during his lifetime, and the home is not occupied by a spouse or dependent children or disabled sons or daughters, such property shall be considered as a resource which can be made available to meet need.

(b) Household furnishings and personal effects and other personal property having great sentimental value to the applicant or recipient, as limited by the department consistent with limitations on resources and exemptions for federal aid assistance.

(c) A motor vehicle, other than a motor home, used and useful having an equity value not to exceed one thousand five hundred dollars.

(d) All other resources, including any excess of values exempted, not to exceed one thousand dollars or other limit as set by the department, to be consistent with limitations on resources and exemptions necessary for federal aid assistance.

(e) Applicants for or recipients of general assistance may retain the following described resources in addition to exemption for a motor vehicle or home and not be ineligible for public assistance because of such resources:

(i) Household furnishings, personal effects, and other personal property having great sentimental value to the applicant or recipient;

(ii) Term and burial insurance for use of the applicant or recipient;

(iii) Life insurance having a cash surrender value not exceeding one thousand five hundred dollars; and

(iv) Cash, marketable securities, and any excess of values above one thousand five hundred dollars equity in a vehicle and above one thousand five hundred dollars in cash surrender value of life insurance, not exceeding one thousand five hundred dollars for a single person or two thousand two hundred fifty dollars for a family unit of two or more. The one thousand dollar limit in subsection (10)(d) of this section does not apply to recipients of or applicants for general assistance.

(f) If an applicant for or recipient of public assistance possesses property and belongings in excess of the ceiling value, such value shall be used in determining the need of the applicant or recipient, except that: (i) The department may exempt resources or income when the income and resources are determined necessary to the applicant's or recipient's restoration to independence, to decrease the need for public assistance, or to aid in rehabilitating the applicant or recipient or a dependent of the applicant or recipient; and (ii) the department may provide grant assistance to persons who are otherwise ineligible because of excess real property owned by such persons when they are making a good faith effort to dispose of that property, but the recipient must sign an agreement to dispose of the property and repay assistance payments made to the date of disposition of the property which would not have been made had the disposal occurred at the beginning of the period for which the payments of such assistance were made. In no event shall such amount due the state exceed the net proceeds otherwise available to the recipient from the disposition, unless after nine months from the date of the agreement the property has not been sold, or if the recipient's eligibility for financial assistance ceases for any other reason. In these two instances the entire amount of assistance paid during this period will be treated as an overpayment and a debt due the state, and may be recovered pursuant to RCW 74.04.700.

(11) "Income"—(a) All appreciable gains in real or personal property (cash or kind) or other assets, which are received by or become available for use and enjoyment by an applicant or recipient during the month of application or after applying for or receiving public assistance: PROVIDED, That the department may by rule and regulation exempt income received by an applicant for or recipient of public assistance which can be used by him to decrease his need for public assistance or to aid in rehabilitating him or his dependents, but such exemption shall not, unless otherwise provided in this title, exceed the exemptions of resources granted under this chapter to an applicant for public assistance: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in determining the amount of assistance to which an applicant or recipient of aid to families with dependent children is entitled, the department is hereby authorized to disregard as a resource or income the earned income exemptions consistent with federal requirements: PROVIDED FURTHER, The department may permit the above exemption of earnings of a child to be retained by such child to cover the cost of special future identifiable needs even though the total exceeds the exemptions or resources granted to applicants and recipients of public assistance, but consistent with federal requirements. In formulating rules and regulations pursuant to this chapter, the department shall define income and resources and the availability thereof, consistent with federal requirements. All resources and income not specifically exempted, and any income or other economic benefit derived from the use of, or appreciation in value of, exempt resources, shall be considered in determining the need of an applicant or recipient of public assistance.

(b) If, under applicable federal requirements, the state has the option of considering property in the form of lump sum compensatory awards or related settlements received by an applicant or recipient as income or as a resource, the department shall consider such property to be a resource.

(12) "Need"—The difference between the applicant's or recipient's standards of assistance for himself and the dependent members of his family, as measured by the standards of the department, and value of all nonexempt resources and nonexempt income received by or available to the applicant or recipient and the dependent members of his family.

(13) In the construction of words and phrases used in this title, the singular number shall include the plural, the masculine gender shall include both the feminine and neuter genders and the present tense shall include the past and future tenses, unless the context thereof shall clearly indicate to the contrary.

Sec. 10. Section 74.08.280, chapter 26, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 328, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 74.08.280 are each amended to read as follows:

If any person receiving public assistance ~~((is, on the testimony of reputable witnesses, found incapable of taking))~~ has demonstrated an inability to care ((of himself)) for oneself or ((his)) for money, the ((secretary)) department may direct the payment of the installments of public assistance to any responsible person, social service agency, or corporation or to a legally appointed guardian for his benefit((--PROVIDED, That)). The state may contract with persons, social service agencies, or corporations approved by the department to provide protective payee services for a fixed amount per recipient receiving protective payee services to cover administrative costs. The department may by rule specify a fee to cover administrative costs. Such fee shall not be withheld from a recipient's grant.

If the state requires the appointment of a guardian for this purpose, the department shall pay all costs and reasonable fees as fixed by the court.

Sec. 11. Section 74.09.010, chapter 26, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 18, chapter 6, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.09.010 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

- (1) "Department" means the department of social and health services.
- (2) "Secretary" means the secretary of social and health services.
- (3) "Internal management" means the administration of medical assistance, medical care services, and the limited casualty program.
- (4) "Medical assistance" means the federal aid medical care program provided to categorically needy persons as defined under Title XIX of the federal social security act.
- (5) "Medical care services" means the limited scope of care financed by state funds and provided to general assistance recipients, and recipients of alcohol and drug addiction services provided under chapter 74.-- RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1987 act).
- (6) "Limited casualty program" means the medical care program provided to medically needy persons as defined under Title XIX of the federal social security act, and to medically indigent persons who are without income or resources sufficient to secure necessary medical services.
- (7) "Nursing home" means nursing home as defined in RCW 18.51.010.

Sec. 12. Section 19, chapter 6, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 5, Laws of 1985 and RCW 74.09.035 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) To the extent of available funds, medical care services may be provided to recipients of general assistance, and recipients of alcohol and drug addiction services provided under chapter 84.-- RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1987 act), in accordance with medical eligibility requirements established by the department.

(2) Determination of the amount, scope, and duration of medical care services shall be limited to coverage as defined by the department, except that adult dental, and routine foot care shall not be included unless there is a specific appropriation for these services.

(3) The department shall establish standards of assistance and resource and income exemptions, which may include deductibles and co-insurance provisions. In addition, the department may include a prohibition against the voluntary assignment of property or cash for the purpose of qualifying for assistance.

(4) Residents of skilled nursing homes, intermediate care facilities, and intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded who are eligible for medical care services shall be provided medical services to the same extent as provided to those persons eligible under the medical assistance program.

(5) Payments made by the department under this program shall be the limit of expenditures for medical care services solely from state funds.

(6) Eligibility for medical care services shall commence with the date of certification for general assistance or the date of eligibility for alcohol and drug addiction services provided under chapter 74.-- RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1987 act).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 1 through 8 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 74 RCW.*

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the following amendment by Senators Talmadge, Newhouse, Halsan and Nelson to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

On page 20, after line 15 of the amendment, insert the following:

The legislature recognizes that ~~((alcoholism))~~ chemical dependency is a disease and, as such, warrants the same attention from the health care industry as other similarly serious diseases warrant; the legislature further recognizes that ~~((only very infrequently do))~~ health insurance contracts and contracts for health care services include inconsistent provisions providing benefits for the treatment of ((alcoholism)) chemical dependency. In order to assist the many citizens of this state who suffer from the disease of ~~((alcoholism))~~ chemical dependency, and who are presently effectively precluded from obtaining ~~((any))~~ adequate coverage for medical assistance under the terms of their health insurance contract or health care service contract, the legislature hereby declares that provisions providing benefits for the treatment of ~~((alcoholism))~~ chemical dependency shall be included in new contracts and that ~~((this 1974 act is))~~ this section, RCW 48.21.180, 48.21.190, 48.44.240, 48.46.350, and sections 16, 18, and 20 of this 1987 act are necessary for the protection of the public health and safety. Nothing in this section, RCW 48.21.180, 48.21.190, 48.44.240, 48.46.350, and sections 16, 18, and 20 of this 1987 act shall be construed to relieve any person of any civil or criminal liability for any act or omission that is the result of a chemical dependency or to grant any person with a chemical dependency any special right, privilege, or status under the law against discrimination, chapter 49.60 RCW.

Sec. 15. Section 3, chapter 119, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 48.21.180 are each amended to read as follows:

Each group disability insurance contract which is ~~((issued;))~~ delivered or issued for delivery or renewed, on or after January 1, ((1975)) 1988, and which insures for hospital or medical care shall contain provisions providing benefits for the treatment of ((alcoholism)) chemical dependency rendered to the insured by an ((alcoholic)) alcoholism or drug treatment facility which is an "approved treatment facility" under RCW 69.54.030 or 70.96A.020(2).

NEW SECTION, Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 48.21 RCW to read as follows:

For the purposes of RCW 48.21.160 and 48.21.180 "chemical dependency" means an illness characterized by a physiological or psychological dependency, or both, on a controlled substance regulated under chapter 69.50 RCW and/or alcoholic beverages. It is further characterized by a frequent or intense pattern of pathological use to the extent the user exhibits a loss of self-control over the amount and circumstances of use; develops symptoms of tolerance or physiological and/or psychological withdrawal if use of the controlled substance or alcoholic beverage is reduced or discontinued; and the user's health is substantially impaired or endangered or his or her social or economic function is substantially disrupted.

Sec. 17. Section 4, chapter 119, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as amended by section 14, chapter 266, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 48.44.240 are each amended to read as follows:

Each group contract for health care services which is ~~((entered into;))~~ delivered or issued for delivery or renewed, on or after ((September 8, 1975 between a health care service contractor and the person or persons to receive such care)) January 1, 1988, shall contain provisions providing benefits for the treatment of ((alcoholism)) chemical dependency rendered to ((such person or)) covered persons by an ((alcoholic)) alcoholism or drug treatment facility which is an "approved treatment facility" under RCW 69.54.030 or 70.96A.020(2).

NEW SECTION, Sec. 18. A new section is added to chapter 48.44 RCW to read as follows:

For the purposes of RCW 48.44.240, "chemical dependency" means an illness characterized by a physiological or psychological dependency, or both, on a controlled substance regulated under chapter 69.50 RCW and/or alcoholic beverages. It is further characterized by a frequent or intense pattern of pathological use to the extent the user exhibits a loss of self-control over the amount and circumstances of use; develops symptoms of tolerance or physiological and/or psychological withdrawal if use of the controlled substance or alcoholic beverage is reduced or discontinued; and the user's health is substantially impaired or endangered or his or her social or economic function is substantially disrupted.

Sec. 19. Section 13, chapter 106, Laws of 1983 and RCW 48.46.350 are each amended to read as follows:

Each group agreement for health care services ~~((between a health maintenance organization and the person or persons to receive such care under the group agreement))~~ that is delivered or issued for delivery or renewed on or after January 1, 1988, shall contain provisions providing benefits for the treatment of ((alcoholism)) chemical dependency rendered to ((such person or)) covered persons by an ((alcoholic)) alcoholism or drug treatment facility which is an "approved treatment facility" under RCW 69.54.030 or 70.96A.020(2); PROVIDED, That this section does not apply to any agreement written as supplemental coverage to any federal or state programs of health care including, but not limited to, Title XVIII health insurance for the aged (commonly referred to as Medicare, Parts A&B), and amendments thereto. Treatment shall be covered under the chemical dependency coverage if treatment is rendered by the health maintenance organization or if the health maintenance organization refers the enrolled participant or the enrolled participant's dependents to a physician licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW or to a qualified counselor employed by an approved treatment facility described in RCW 70.96A.020(2). In all cases, a health maintenance organization shall retain the right to diagnose the presence of chemical dependency and select the modality of treatment that best serves the interest of the health maintenance organization's enrolled participant, or the enrolled participant's covered dependent.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 20. A new section is added to chapter 48.46 RCW to read as follows:

For the purposes of RCW 48.46.350, "chemical dependency" means an illness characterized by a physiological or psychological dependency, or both, on a controlled substance regulated under chapter 69.50 RCW and/or alcoholic beverages. It is further characterized by a frequent or intense pattern of pathological use to the extent the user exhibits a loss of self-control over the amount and circumstances of use; develops symptoms of tolerance or physiological and/or psychological withdrawal if use of the controlled substance or alcoholic beverage is reduced or discontinued; and the user's health is substantially impaired or endangered or his or her social or economic function is substantially disrupted.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 21. Section 2, chapter 119, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 48.21.170 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 22. By September 1, 1987, the insurance commissioner shall adopt rules governing benefits for treatment of chemical dependency under medical plans issued under chapters 48.21, 48.44, and 48.46 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 23. Sections 14 through 21 of this act shall take effect on January 1, 1988."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "Senator Talmadge, if we enact this amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 646, will we create a new mandated benefit for treatment of dependency on a controlled substance?"

Senator Talmadge: "No, Senator Newhouse, this amendment does not create a new mandated benefit, but expands that benefit that already exists to drugs. Existing law mandates coverage for the treatment of alcoholism. This amendment recognizes that many persons are dependent on both alcohol and drugs. Sections 14 through 20 of Substitute House Bill No. 646 redefine the present mandate, eliminates the stacking of benefits and provides that both alcoholism and drug dependency benefits will be coordinated. The existing regulations defined in the minimum insurance coverage should apply with the expanded benefit."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator West: "Mr. President, a point of order. I believe that this amendment expands the scope and object of this bill. The basic bill deals with the GAU program and this deals with an insurance program, so it is obviously beyond the scope of the bill."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 646 was deferred.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 770, by Representatives Ebersole, Berozoff, Pruitt, Walker, Valle, Rasmussen, Belcher, Schmidt, Rust, Unsoeld, Holland, Patrick, P. King, Winsley, Schoon, Holm, Todd and Spanel

Changing common school curriculum requirements to include science with an emphasis on the environment.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 770 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Bill No. 770.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of House Bill No. 770 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 3; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Haisan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, McDermott, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 43.

Voting nay: Senators Craswell, McCaslin, Metcalf - 3.

Excused: Senators Lee, McDonald, Rinehart - 3.

HOUSE BILL NO. 770, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

President Cherberg assumed the chair.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 786, by Committee on Education (originally sponsored by Representatives Pruitt, L. Smith, Ebersole, Walker, Spanel, Rasmussen, Sprengle, Holm, Peery, Todd, Holland, Winsley, Ferguson, May, Unsoeld and Silver)

Providing for the encouragement and measurement of innovative programs by school districts.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Gaspard moved that the following Committee on Education amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes its obligation to the taxpayers of the state of Washington to ensure efficiency and accountability in the common school system established under Article IX, section 1 of the state Constitution. The legislature further recognizes the importance and value of continually seeking ways in which to shape provisions of state statutes and regulations to enhance the development of local educational delivery systems characterized by diversity and centered around students' individual educational needs and learning styles.

The legislature finds that an appropriate next step in exploring ways to grant districts greater flexibility and control over the development of the process and content of local educational programs, while honoring legal requirements and respecting citizens' demands for accountability, is to investigate the development and field testing of the use of educational outcomes and measures of educational outcomes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 1 through 10 of this act.

(1) "Goals" or "state goals" means the goals adopted by the state board of education relating to those skills considered to be important for students to develop and acquire through the common school system, and in particular shall include goals addressing the following:

(a) Basic academic skills, including higher order thinking skills and subject matter knowledge;

(b) Vocational skills, including an understanding about the importance of personal economic responsibility;

(c) Communication and citizenship skills; and

(d) Personal growth and development skills.

(2) "Educational outcomes" means expected levels of student performance and achievement to meet identified state goals.

(3) "Indicators" means factors that may bear a relationship to student capabilities and that can be used to help assess students' progress toward achieving identified educational outcomes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The superintendent of public instruction shall establish a temporary committee on the assessment and accountability of educational outcomes.

(2) The committee shall be composed of:

(a) The superintendent of public instruction who shall serve as the chair of the committee;

(b) A member of the state board of education other than the superintendent of public instruction;

(c) One member representing the office of the governor and appointed by the governor;

(d) Three teachers, one each representing elementary schools, middle or junior high schools, and senior high schools;

(e) Three principals, one each representing elementary schools, middle or junior high schools, and senior high schools;

(f) Two school directors, one each representing a first class school district and a second class school district;

(g) Two superintendents, one each representing a first class school district and a second class school district;

(h) One member representing educational service districts;

(i) One member representing business;

- (j) One member representing labor;
- (k) One member representing vocational education;
- (l) One member representing citizens;
- (m) One member representing parents;
- (n) One member representing students; and

(o) Four legislators. The speaker of the house of representatives shall appoint one member from each caucus of the house of representatives. The president of the senate shall appoint one member from each caucus of the senate.

(3) All committee members shall be determined within thirty days of the effective date of this section.

(4) Legislative members of the temporary committee shall be reimbursed for travel expenses under RCW 44.04.120. Nonlegislative members shall be reimbursed for travel expenses under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The temporary committee established under section 3 of this act shall have the following responsibilities:

(1) To develop by December 1, 1988, educational outcomes for the state goals defined under section 2 of this act. The committee may develop educational outcomes for each of the grade levels kindergarten through grade twelve or for groupings of grade levels, or both, or for particular age levels or age groups, or both.

(2) To develop by December 1, 1988, measures of educational outcomes.

In developing these measures the committee is encouraged both to study various means of assessing a school's or school district's progress in achieving the state goals defined under section 2 of this act and to prepare an analysis of the validity, reliability, and effectiveness of various indicators of the educational outcomes. Indicators may include but are not limited to: Student achievement; attendance and dropout rates; instructional effectiveness; perceptions of school; school environment; student characteristics including socioeconomic backgrounds; and the effective application of resources.

The measures shall assess the educational outcomes on a district-wide basis and should permit building-by-building comparisons. To the extent possible, the measures shall be developed to use at least the state-wide fourth, eighth, and tenth grade tests established under RCW 28A.03.360(2), (3), and (4), the state eleventh grade test established under RCW 28A.03.360(5), and, if appropriate, the Washington life skills test established under RCW 28A.03.370. The measures should also, to the extent possible, permit districts to incorporate them into any local second grade testing program encouraged pursuant to RCW 28A.03.360(1).

(3) The committee may, at its discretion, study the relationship between current provisions of state statutes and regulations and the educational outcomes developed under subsection (1) of this section, and the educational, fiscal and legal impacts upon achieving the educational outcomes by waiving for schools or school districts, on a voluntary or involuntary and temporary or permanent basis, existing provisions of state statutes and regulations, including but not limited to: Compulsory courses and graduation requirements under chapter 28A.05 RCW; program hour offerings under RCW 28A.58.754(2); teacher contact hours under RCW 28A.41.140; the ratio of students per classroom teacher under RCW 28A.41.130; student learning objectives under RCW 28A.58.090; and the length of the school year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The superintendent of public instruction shall report by January 1, 1989, to the education committees of the house of representatives and the senate on the educational outcomes and related measures developed by the temporary committee pursuant to section 4 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The superintendent of public instruction may accept, receive, and administer such gifts, grants, and contributions as may be expressly provided from public or private sources for the purpose of supporting the work of the temporary committee on the assessment and accountability of educational outcomes as required under section 4 of this act.

(2) The educational outcomes assessment account is hereby established in the custody of the state treasurer. The superintendent of public instruction shall deposit in the account all moneys received under this section. Moneys in the account may be spent only for the purpose of supporting the work of the temporary committee on the assessment and accountability of educational outcomes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) The superintendent of public instruction may select up to ten school districts, from among districts interested and submitting written grant applications, to field test the educational outcomes and related measures developed pursuant to section 4 of this act.

(2) The superintendent shall select the school districts by June 30, 1989, and the field tests shall begin with the 1989-90 school year and conclude at the end of the 1992-93 school year.

(3) Each selected school district shall submit annually to the superintendent of public instruction a report on its field test project.

(4) The superintendent of public instruction shall report to the legislature by January 1, 1994, on the results of the field tests of the educational outcomes and related measures. The report shall include a recommendation on whether the outcomes and related measures should be implemented on a state-wide basis. The report shall also include, if the educational outcomes and related measures are judged to be beneficial, a recommendation on whether selected provisions of state statutes or regulations should be amended or repealed if such action would enhance the benefits of the educational outcomes and related measures.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules as necessary to carry out the purposes of sections 2 through 7 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. No provision of this act may prohibit a school district from incorporating the educational outcomes and related measures as part of a schools for the twenty-first century pilot project.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Teachers are encouraged to apply for funds under the state grant program for school improvement and research projects to develop innovative ways in which to achieve the educational outcomes and to meet both state goals and building-level goals identified under the state required school self-study process.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) Section 3 of this act shall expire December 2, 1988.

(2) Sections 1, 2 and 4 through 6 of this act shall expire June 30, 1989.

(3) Sections 7 through 10 of this act shall expire January 2, 1994.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The sum of forty-nine thousand five hundred dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, from the general fund to the superintendent of public instruction for the purposes of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the following amendment to the Committee on Education amendment was adopted:

On page 4, line 13 of the committee amendment after "within" strike "thirty" and insert "sixty"

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Education amendment, as amended.

The motion by Senator Gaspard carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the rules were suspended. Substitute House Bill No. 786, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Anderson: "Senator Gaspard, perhaps with the many education bills before us this session, you could explain a little bit to the members who haven't heard all of them as thoroughly as you have. Could you explain the difference between this bill and the Governor's 21st Century School request for the pilot projects to do innovative things. The titles seem to be very similar. This one encourages the measurement of innovative programs by districts. How does that differ from the other Governor's request bill that we had before us?"

Senator Gaspard: "Yes, Senator Anderson, the bill that you are referring to is the Governor's request bill under the title of House Bill No. 456. That will probably be taken up—excuse me, I take that back, the bill you are referring to has passed this Senate and has also passed the House and I think we are in some bit of disagreement, but not on the Schools of the 21st Century. The Schools of the 21st Century really permits the restructuring of local education systems in developing pilot projects and specific waivers that apply now to school districts. This is patterned after the Mountlake experience and other school districts that have looked at ways of providing more staff into the classroom, for example, and have asked for waivers from contact hours and program offerings. In other words, we are looking for some experimental programs.

"In the bill that's before us, we've asked the advisory committee and the State Board of Education to develop and field test some educational outcomes. In other words, to develop a means to assess how well, for example, the current system is working and there are no waivers asked in this bill. It is just a different way of looking at education and trying to say, what do we expect of the education system other than, possibly, the grades that we give the students, or the advancement from grade to grade."

Senator Anderson: "May I continue? Senator Gaspard, in the committee amendment that we just adopted, I read in the bill report that the committee may, at its discretion, study the impact upon achieving education outcomes by waiving certain provisions among them, graduation requirements, program offerings, contact hours. What this sounds like is the exact same things that you mentioned in the 21st Century Bill."

Senator Gaspard: "Yes, but in this bill the difference is that these programs may be waived at the discretion of the State Board of Education. They are authorized, but they are not required to, and we've asked the advisory board to advise the State Board whether or not to make these types of recommendations. Under the Schools of the 21st Century, the whole program is dependent on granting of waivers. That program--the Schools of the 21st Century cannot operate without waivers being granted. The impact and what the objectives are, are different."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 786, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 786, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 33; nays, 13; absent, 1; excused, 2.

Yoting yea: Senators Bailey, Bauer, Bender, Bluechel, Bottiger, Conner, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wofahn - 33.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Barr, Benitz, Cantu, Craswell, Deccio, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Patterson, Stratton, Tanner, Zimmerman - 13.

Absent: Senator McDermott - 1.

Excused: Senators Lee, Rinehart - 2.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 786, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bender, Senators McDermott and Moore were excused.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 816, by Representatives Cole, Patrick and P. King

Changing provisions relating to county sheriff civil service systems.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Garrett moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, after line 18, insert the following:

"Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 95, Laws of 1963 and RCW 41.14.100 are each amended to read as follows:

An applicant for a position of any kind under civil service ((:)) must be ~~((a citizen of the United States, who can))~~ able to read and write the English language. An alien shall be permitted to be an applicant if he or she subscribes to an oath or affirmation in writing as follows: I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution and laws of the state of Washington; that I do not advocate the overthrow, destruction, or alteration of the Constitutional form of government of the United States or of the state of Washington or any political subdivision of either of them."

Remember the remaining section consecutively

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Garrett, is there any provision that would require he was only able to remain in that status for a short period of time? If we pass this, would that mean that any alien, any where in the state would be able to apply for a like position--remain in that status even though they never became a citizen?"

Senator Garrett: "Well, there is no restriction that they would have to ever become a citizen, but if they became a deputy sheriff they would certainly have to be a pretty upright and outstanding individual. That would be a friendly amendment. Senator Deccio, if you would like to put something like that in it."

Senator Deccio: "Well, that would take a little time to do it. I guess where I am coming from on this one is, my father came here many, many years ago and he was not able to read or write very well, because he left the old country at a very young age and they had indenture systems in those days and he never had a chance to go to school. Consequently, my father who was a successful farmer and never spent a day in jail for anything, never broke the law or whatever, always paid his bills, never got on public assistance, but was never able to vote because he could not pass the test to become a citizen. I guess that's always stuck with me and that may not bother you in your area, but over in our area where we have almost a third of Yakima County that are aliens--not a third, I am probably exaggerating--but it's probably at least twenty or twenty-five percent that would be eligible under this law that you want to take care of one person. My father was very frustrated by the fact that he could never vote and now we are saying that an illegal alien can take a position of public trust and never have to become an American citizen. I guess I know what you want to do, but I'll just have to vote against it."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Garrett.

The motion by Senator Garrett carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Garrett, the following title amendment was adopted:
On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "41.14.010" insert "and 41.14.100"

On motion of Senator Halsan, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 816, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Garrett, I probably should have responded to your offer before and I would like to respond to that offer now that we move the bill back to second reading and work up some language which would require such a person to attain citizenship within a short period of time. Otherwise, I think I will have to vote against the bill."

Senator Garrett: "Well, in the interest of time, Senator Deccio, I think maybe we should just vote on the bill."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Bill No. 816, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of House Bill No. 816, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 25; nays, 18; absent, 2; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Conner, Craswell, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, McCaslin, McDonald, Owen, Peterson, Rasmussen, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 25.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Benitz, Bottiger, Cantu, Deccio, Hayner, Johnson, Nelson, Newhouse, Patterson, Pullen, Saling, Sellar, Vogt, von Reichbauer, West, Zimmerman - 18.

Absent: Senators Bender, Metcalf - 2.

Excused: Senators Lee, McDermott, Moore, Rinehart - 4.

HOUSE BILL NO. 816, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

President Pro Tempore Rasmussen assumed the chair.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1124, by Representatives Day, Vekich, Schoon, McMullen, B. Williams, Jesernig, P. King, Ferguson and Holm

Revising provisions on industrial development corporations.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Halsan moved that the following amendment by Senators Halsan and Anderson be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the unavailability of capital to viable firms that do not meet current commercial bank or venture capital criteria for loans or equity investments can have a devastating impact on the state's economic development efforts. Without reasonable access to financing, talented and aggressive entrepreneurs are cut out of the economic system and the overall economy of the state suffers.

The process of job creation and economic development requires readily available capital for small and young companies that are the major source of innovations and new jobs. To ensure the availability of capital to entrepreneurs in Washington state, the legislature hereby eliminates unnecessary restrictions which have discouraged the formation of industrial development corporations under current law and adds incentives to encourage the formation of such corporations.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 and RCW 31.24.010 are each amended to read as follows:

((As used in this chapter, the following words and phrases, unless differently defined or described, shall have the meanings and references as follows)) Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter:

(1) Corporation means a Washington business and industrial development corporation created under this chapter.

(2) Financial institution means any banking corporation or trust company, national banking association, savings and loan association, insurance company or related corporation, partnership, foundation, or other institution engaged primarily in lending or investing funds.

(3) ((Member means any financial institution authorized to do business within this state which shall undertake to lend money to a corporation created under this chapter, upon its call; and in accordance with the provisions of this chapter:

(4))) Board of directors means the board of directors of the corporation created under this chapter.

((((5))) (4) Loan limit means for any ((member)) financial institution, the maximum amount permitted to be outstanding at one time on loans made by such ((member)) financial institution to the corporation, as determined under the provisions of this chapter.

(5) Business means an individual, proprietorship, joint venture, partnership, trust, business trust, syndicate, association, joint stock company, cooperative, corporation, or any other organization operating in this state, and paying more than fifty percent of its contributions or payments for the purposes of unemployment insurance to this state.

(6) Associate means, if used with respect to a corporation:

(a) A controlling person, director, officer, agent, or advisor of that corporation.

(b) A director, officer, or partner of a person referred to in (a) of this subsection.

(c) A person who controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with a person referred to in (a) of this subsection directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries.

(d) Any close relative of any person referred to in (a) of this subsection.

(e) A person of which a person referred to in (a) through (d) of this subsection is a director or officer.

(f) A person in which a person referred to in (a) through (d) of this subsection, or any combination of those persons acting in concert, owns or controls, directly or indirectly, a twenty percent or greater equity interest.

For the purposes of this subsection (6)(f), a person who is in a relationship referred to in this subsection within six months before or after a corporation provides financing assistance shall be considered to be in that relationship as of the date that corporation provides that financing assistance.

If a corporation, in order to protect its interests, designates a person to serve as a director of, officer of, or in any capacity in the management of a business to which that corporation provides financing assistance, that person shall not, on that account, be considered to have a relationship with that business. This exception does not apply if the person has, directly or indirectly, any other financial interest in the business or if the person, at any time before the corporation provides the financing assistance, served as a director of, officer of, or in any other capacity in the management of the business for a period of thirty days or more.

(7) Close relative means a parent, child, sibling, spouse, father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-law, brother-in-law, daughter-in-law, or sister-in-law.

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 1, chapter 16, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 31.24.020 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Fifteen))~~ Seven or more persons, a majority of whom shall be residents of this state, who may desire to create ~~((an))~~ a business and industrial development corporation under the provisions of this chapter, for the purpose of promoting, developing and advancing the prosperity and economic welfare of the state and, to that end, to exercise the powers and privileges hereinafter provided, may be incorporated by filing in the office of the secretary of state, as hereinafter provided, articles of incorporation. The articles of incorporation shall contain:

(1) The name of the corporation, which shall include the words "Development Corporation of Washington."

(2) The location of the principal office of the corporation, but such corporation may have offices in such other places within the state as may be fixed by the board of directors.

~~(3) The purposes for which the corporation is founded, which shall be to ((promote, stimulate, develop and advance the business prosperity and economic welfare of Washington and its citizens; to encourage and assist through loans, investments or other business transactions in the location of new business and industry in this state and to rehabilitate and assist existing business and industry; to stimulate and assist in the expansion of all kinds of business activity which will tend to promote the business development and maintain the economic stability of this state, provide maximum opportunities for employment, encourage thrift, and improve the standard of living of citizens of this state; similarly, to cooperate and act in conjunction with other organizations, public or private, in the promotion and advancement of industrial, commercial, agricultural and recreational developments in this state; and to provide financing for the promotion, development, and conduct of all kinds of business activity in this state)) provide financing and management assistance to businesses operating primarily in Washington state to increase job opportunities for Washington citizens and the prosperity of the state.~~

(4) The names and post office addresses of the members of the first board of directors, who, unless otherwise provided by the articles of incorporation or the bylaws, shall hold office for the first year of existence of the corporation or until their successors are elected and have qualified.

(5) Any provision which the incorporators may choose to insert for the regulation of the business and for the conduct of the affairs of the corporation and any provision creating, dividing, limiting and regulating the powers of the corporation, the directors, stockholders or any class of the stockholders, including, but not limited to a list of the officers, and provisions governing the issuance of stock certificates to replace lost or destroyed certificates.

(6) The amount of authorized capital stock and the number of shares into which it is divided, the par value of each share and the amount of capital with which it will commence business and, if there is more than one class of stock, a description of the different classes; the names and post office addresses of the subscribers of stock and the number of shares subscribed by each. The aggregate of the subscription shall be the minimum amount of capital with which the corporation shall commence business which shall not be less than ~~((fifty thousand))~~ one million dollars, except as otherwise provided in this chapter. The articles of incorporation may also contain any provision consistent with the laws of this state for the regulation of the affairs of the corporation.

(7) The articles of incorporation shall be in writing, subscribed by not less than five natural persons competent to contract and acknowledged by each of the subscribers before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments and filed in the office of the secretary of state for approval. A duplicate copy so subscribed and acknowledged may also be filed.

(8) The articles of incorporation shall recite that the corporation is organized under the provisions of this chapter.

The secretary of state shall not approve articles of incorporation for a corporation organized under this chapter until ~~((a total of at least ten national banks, state banks, savings banks, industrial savings banks, federal savings and loan associations, domestic building and loan associations, or insurance companies authorized to do business within this state, or any combination thereof, have agreed in writing to become members of said corporation; and said written agreement shall be filed with the secretary of state with the articles of incorporation and the filing of same shall be a condition precedent to the approval of the articles of incorporation by the secretary of state))~~ the state supervisor of banking has certified the corporation as eligible to operate as a business and industrial development corporation under this chapter. A corporation shall be certified by the supervisor of banking as eligible to operate under this chapter upon meeting the following conditions:

(a) The corporation has paid a one thousand dollar certification fee to the state supervisor of banking;

(b) The corporation has submitted a business plan which includes at least three years of detailed financial projections and other relevant information;

(c) The corporation has provided information about the character and competence of each director and officer of the corporation; and

(d) The supervisor finds that the corporation will be run competently, will have a net worth and lendable funds sufficient to provide financing assistance, and that the directors and officers of the corporation have agreed to comply with the terms of this chapter. In making the finding under this subsection, the supervisor shall:

(1) Consult with the director of trade and economic development and the director of community development; and

(2) Require proof that the corporation will have a minimum net worth of one million dollars and an additional one million dollars in lendable funds or an enforceable pledge for one million dollars in lendable funds before providing financing assistance unless the supervisor finds that special circumstances render lesser amounts adequate for the corporation to meet the intent of this chapter and operate according to its business plan.

Whenever the articles of incorporation shall have been filed in the office of the secretary of state and approved by ~~((him))~~ the secretary and all taxes, fees and charges, have been paid, as required by law, the subscribers, their successors and assigns shall constitute a corporation, and said corporation shall then be authorized to commence business, and stock thereof to the extent herein or hereafter duly authorized may from time to time be issued.

The business of a corporation shall be to provide financing and management assistance to businesses operating primarily in Washington state. In furtherance of its ~~((purposes))~~ business and in addition to the powers now or hereafter conferred on business corporations by the provisions of Title 23A RCW, ~~((the))~~ each corporation shall, subject to the restrictions and limitations herein contained, have the following powers:

(1) To elect, appoint and employ officers, agents and employees; to make contracts and incur liabilities for any of the purposes of the corporation ~~((PROVIDED: That the corporation shall not incur any secondary liability by way of guaranty or endorsement of the obligations of any person, firm, corporation, joint stock company, association or trust, or in any other manner)).~~

(2) To borrow money ~~((from its members and the small business administration and any other similar federal agency;))~~ for any of the purposes of the corporation; to issue therefor its bonds, debentures, notes or other evidence of indebtedness, whether secured or unsecured, and to secure the same by mortgage, pledge, deed of trust or other lien on its property, franchises, rights and privileges of every kind and nature or any part thereof or interest therein, without securing stockholder ~~((or member))~~ approval ~~((PROVIDED: That no loan to the corporation shall be secured in any manner unless all outstanding loans to the corporation shall be secured equally and ratably in proportion to the unpaid balance of such loans and in the same manner)).~~

(3) To make loans to any person, firm, corporation, joint-stock company, association or trust, and to establish and regulate the terms and conditions with respect to any such loans and the charges for interest and service connected therewith ~~((PROVIDED: That the corporation shall not approve any application for a loan unless and until the person applying for said loan shall show that he has applied for the loan through ordinary banking channels and that the loan has been refused by at least one bank or other financial institution)).~~

(4) To purchase, receive, hold, lease, or otherwise acquire, and to sell, convey, transfer, lease or otherwise dispose of real and personal property, together with such rights and privileges as may be incidental and appurtenant thereto and the use thereof, ~~((including, but not restricted to, any))~~ if the real or personal property is for the corporation's use in operating its business, or if the real or personal property is acquired by the corporation from time to time in the satisfaction of debts or enforcement of obligations.

(5) ~~((To acquire the good will, business, rights, real and personal property, and other assets, or any part thereof, or interest therein, of any persons, firms, corporations, joint-stock companies, associations or trusts, and to assume, undertake, or pay the obligations, debts and liabilities of any such person, firm, corporation, joint stock company, association or trust; to acquire improved or unimproved real estate for the purpose of constructing industrial plants or other business establishments thereon or for the purpose of disposing of such real estate to others for the construction of industrial plants or other business establishments; and to acquire, construct or reconstruct, alter, repair, maintain, operate, sell, convey, transfer, lease, or otherwise dispose of industrial plants or business establishments;))~~ To determine the form and the terms and conditions for financing assistance provided by the corporation to a business including, but not limited to forms such as loans; purchase of debt instruments; straight equity investments, such as purchase of common stock or preferred stock; debt with equity features such as warrants to purchase stock, convertible debentures, or receipt of a percent of net income or sales; royalty based financing; guaranteeing of debt; or leasing of property. A corporation may purchase securities of a business either directly or indirectly through an underwriter. A corporation may participate in the program of the small business administration pursuant to section 7(a) of the small business act, (Public Law 85-536, 15 U.S.C. Sec. 636(a)), or any other government program for which the corporation is eligible and which has as its function the provision or facilitation of financing or management assistance to businesses. If a corporation participates in a program referred to in this section, the corporation shall comply with the requirements of that program. Financing assistance provided by a corporation to a business shall be for the business purposes of that business.

~~(6) (To acquire, subscribe for, own, hold, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose of the stock, shares, bonds, debentures, notes or other securities and evidences of interest in, or indebtedness of, any person, firm, corporation, joint stock company, association or trust, and while the owner or holder thereof to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote thereon;) To provide management assistance to a business which may encompass both management or technical advice and management or technical services. Management assistance provided by a corporation to a business shall be for the business purposes of that business.~~

(7) To mortgage, pledge, or otherwise encumber any property, right or things of value, acquired pursuant to the powers contained in subsection~~(s)~~ (4)~~(c)~~ or (5)~~(c or (6))~~ of this section, as security for the payment of any part of the purchase price thereof.

(8) To cooperate with and avail itself of the facilities of the United States department of commerce, the department of trade and economic development, the department of community development, and any other similar state or federal governmental agencies; and to cooperate with and assist, and otherwise encourage organizations in the various communities of the state in the promotion, assistance and development of the business prosperity and economic welfare of such communities or of this state or of any part thereof.

(9) To make donations for charitable educational, research, or similar purposes.

(10) To do all acts and things necessary or convenient to carry out the powers expressly granted in this chapter.

Sec. 5. Section 4, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 and RCW 31.24.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any rule or any provision of any general or special law or any provision in their respective charters, agreements of association, articles of organization or trust indentures:

~~((+)) Any person including all domestic corporations organized for the purpose of carrying on business within this state and further including without implied limitation public utility companies and insurance companies, and foreign corporations licensed to do business within this state, and all financial institutions as defined herein, and all trustees, are hereby authorized to acquire, purchase, hold, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose of any bonds, securities or other evidences of indebtedness created by, or the shares of the capital stock of, the corporation, and while owners of said stock to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote thereon, all without the approval of any regulatory authority of the state except as otherwise provided in this chapter~~((--PROVIDED, That a financial institution which does not become a member of the corporation shall not be permitted to acquire any shares of the capital stock of the corporation;~~~~

~~(2) All financial institutions are hereby authorized to become members of the corporation and to make loans to the corporation as provided herein; and~~

~~(3) Each financial institution which becomes a member of the corporation is hereby authorized to acquire, purchase, hold, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose of, any bonds, securities or other evidences of indebtedness created by, or the shares of the capital stock of, the corporation, and while owners of said stock, to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote thereon, all without the approval of any regulatory authority of the state. PROVIDED, That the amount of the capital stock of the corporation which may be acquired by any member pursuant to the authority granted herein shall not exceed ten percent of the loan limit of such member).~~

The amount of capital stock of the corporation which any ~~((member))~~ financial institution is authorized to acquire pursuant to the authority granted herein is in addition to the amount of capital stock in corporations which such ~~((member))~~ financial institution may otherwise be authorized to acquire.

Sec. 6. Section 5, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 2, chapter 16, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 31.24.050 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Any financial institution may request membership in the corporation by making application to the board of directors on such form and in such manner as said board of directors may require, and membership shall become effective upon acceptance of such application by said board.))~~

Each ~~((member of the corporation shall))~~ financial institution which has agreed to make loans to the corporation as and when called upon by it to do so on such terms and other conditions as shall be approved from time to time by the board of directors, ~~((subject to the following conditions:~~

~~(1) All loan limits shall be established at the thousand dollar amount nearest to the amount computed in accordance with the provisions of this section;~~

~~(2) No loan to the corporation shall be made if immediately thereafter the total amount of the obligations of the corporation would exceed fifteen times the amount then paid in on the outstanding capital stock of the corporation;~~

~~(3)) shall do so if the total amount outstanding on loans to the corporation made by any ((member)) financial institution at any time, when added to the amount of the investment in the capital stock of the corporation then held by such ((member, shall)) financial institution, does not exceed(:~~

~~(a) Thirty percent of the total amount then outstanding on loans to the corporation by all members, including in said total amount outstanding, amounts validly called for loan but not yet loaned:~~

~~(b)) the following limit, to be determined ((as of the time such member becomes a member)) on the basis of the audited balance sheet of ((such member)) the financial institution at the close of its fiscal year immediately preceding its ((application for membership)) loan to or purchase of stock in the corporation, or thereafter on the basis of the preceding fiscal year, or in the case of an insurance company, its last annual statement to the state insurance commissioner; or thereafter on the basis of its last annual statement to the insurance commissioner(;;); Two and one-half percent of the capital and surplus of commercial banks and trust companies; one-half of one percent of the total outstanding loans made by savings and loan associations, and building and loan associations; two and one-half percent of the capital and unassigned surplus of stock insurance companies, except fire insurance companies; two and one-half percent of the unassigned surplus of mutual insurance companies, except fire insurance companies; one-tenth of one percent of the assets of fire insurance companies; and such limits as may be approved by the board of directors of the corporation for other financial institutions.~~

~~((4) Subject to subsection (3)(a) of this section, each call made by the corporation shall be prorated among the members of the corporation in substantially the same proportion that the adjusted loan limit of each member bears to the aggregate of the adjusted loan limits of all members. The adjusted loan limit of a member shall be the amount of such member's loan limit, reduced by the balance of outstanding loans made by such member to the corporation and the investment in capital stock of the corporation held by such member at the time of such call:~~

~~(5) All loans to the corporation by members shall be evidenced by bonds, debentures, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness of the corporation, which shall be freely transferable at all times, and which shall bear interest at a rate of not less than one-quarter of one percent in excess of the rate of interest determined by the board of directors to be the prime rate prevailing at the date of issuance thereof on unsecured commercial loans:))~~

Sec. 7. Section 7, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 and RCW 31.24.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The stockholders ~~((and the members))~~ of the corporation shall have the following powers of the corporation:

(1) To determine the number of and elect directors as provided in RCW 31.24.090;

(2) To make, amend and repeal bylaws;

(3) To amend this charter as provided in RCW 31.24.080;

(4) To dissolve the corporation as provided in RCW 31.24.150;

(5) To do all things necessary or desirable to secure aid, assistance, loans and other financing from any financial institutions, and from any agency established under the small business investment act of 1958, public law 85-699, 85th congress, or other similar federal laws now or hereafter enacted.

(6) To exercise such other of the powers of the corporation consistent with this chapter as may be conferred on the stockholders ~~((and the members))~~ by the bylaws.

As to all matters requiring action by the stockholders ~~((and the members))~~ of the corporation, said stockholders ~~((and said members))~~ shall vote separately thereon by classes, and, except as otherwise herein provided, such matters shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes to which the stockholders present or represented at the meeting shall be entitled ~~((and the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes to which the members present or represented at the meeting shall be entitled)).~~

~~((Each))~~ Stockholders shall have one vote, in person or by proxy, for each share of capital stock held ~~((by him, and each member shall have one vote, in person or by proxy, except that any member having a loan limit of more than one thousand dollars shall have one additional vote, in person or by proxy, for each additional one thousand dollars which such member is authorized to have outstanding on loans to the corporation at any one time as determined under subsection (3)(b) of RCW 31.24.050)).~~

The articles of incorporation may be amended by the votes of the stockholders ~~((and the members of the corporation)),~~ voting separately by classes, and such amendments shall require approval by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the votes to which the stockholders ~~((shall be entitled and two-thirds of the votes to which the members))~~ shall be entitled: PROVIDED, That no amendment of the articles of incorporation which is inconsistent with the general purposes expressed herein or which authorizes any additional class of capital stock to be issued, or which eliminates or curtails the right of the state supervisor of banking to examine the corporation or the obligation of the corporation to make reports as provided in RCW 31.24.120, shall be made (~~(--PROVIDED, FURTHER, That no amendment of the articles of incorporation which increases the obligation of a member to make loans to the corporation, or makes any change in the principal amount, interest rate, maturity date, or in the security or credit position of an outstanding loan of a member to the corporation, or affects a member's right to withdraw from membership as provided herein, or affects a member's voting rights as provided herein, shall be made without the consent of each membership affected by such amendment))~~).

Within thirty days after any meeting at which an amendment of the articles of incorporation has been adopted, articles of amendment signed and sworn to by the president, treasurer, and a majority of the directors, setting forth such amendment and due adoption thereof, shall be submitted to the secretary of state, who shall examine them and if ~~(he)~~ the secretary finds that they conform to the requirements of this chapter, shall so certify and endorse his or her approval thereon. Thereupon, the articles of amendment shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state and no such amendment shall take effect until such articles of amendment shall have been filed as aforesaid.

Sec. 9. Section 9, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 3, chapter 16, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 31.24.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed and conducted by a board of directors, a president, a vice president, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers and such agents as the corporation by its bylaws shall authorize. The board of directors shall consist of such number, not less than ~~((eleven))~~ seven nor more than twenty-one, as shall be determined in the first instance by the incorporators and thereafter annually by ~~((the members and))~~ the stockholders of the corporation. The board of directors may exercise all the powers of the corporation except such as are conferred by law or by the bylaws of the corporation upon the stockholders ~~((or members))~~ and shall choose and appoint all the agents and officers of the corporation and fill all vacancies except vacancies in the office of director which shall be filled as hereinafter provided. The board of directors shall be elected in the first instance by the incorporators and thereafter at the annual meeting, the day and month of which shall be established by the bylaws of the corporations, or, if no annual meeting shall be held in the year of incorporation, then within ninety days after the approval of the articles of incorporation at a special meeting as hereinafter provided. ~~((At each annual meeting, or at each special meeting held as provided in this section, the members of the corporation shall elect two-thirds of the board of directors and the stockholders shall elect the remaining directors.))~~ The directors shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the corporation or special meeting held in lieu of the annual meeting after the election and until their successors are elected and qualified unless sooner removed in accordance with the provisions of the bylaws. Any vacancy in the office of a director ~~((elected by the members shall be filled by the directors elected by the members, and any vacancy in the office of a director elected by the stockholders))~~ shall be filled by the directors ~~((elected by the stockholders))~~.

Directors and officers shall not be responsible for losses unless the same shall have been occasioned by the wilful misconduct of such directors and officers.

Sec. 10. Section 10, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 and RCW 31.24.100 are each amended to read as follows:

Each year the corporation shall set apart as earned surplus not less than ten percent of its net earnings for the preceding fiscal year until such surplus shall be equal in value to ~~((one-half))~~ one-quarter of the amount paid in on the capital stock then outstanding. Whenever the amount of surplus established herein shall become impaired, it shall be built up again to the required amount in the manner provided for its original accumulation. Net earnings and surplus shall be determined by the board of directors, after providing for such reserves as said directors deem desirable, and the determination of the directors made in good faith shall be conclusive on all persons.

Sec. 11. Section 12, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 and RCW 31.24.120 are each amended to read as follows:

The corporation shall be examined at least once annually by the state supervisor of banking and shall make quarterly reports of its condition ~~((not less than annually))~~ to said state supervisor of banking and more frequently upon call of the state supervisor of banking, who in turn shall make copies of such reports available to the state insurance commissioner and the governor; and the corporation shall also furnish such other information as may from time to time be required by the state supervisor of banking and secretary of state. The corporation shall pay the actual cost of said examinations. The state supervisor of banking shall exercise the same power and authority over corporations organized under this chapter as is now exercised over banks and trust companies by the provisions of the Title 30 RCW, where the provisions of Title 30 RCW are not in conflict with this chapter. In adopting rules to govern examinations and reports of corporations operating under this chapter, the supervisor of banking shall consult with the director of trade and economic development and the director of community development. In regulating corporations under this chapter, the supervisor of banking shall not consider the risk of a provision of financing assistance to a business unless the supervisor determines that the risk is so great compared with the realistically expected return as to constitute gross mismanagement.

The state supervisor of banking shall publish annually and provide to the senate and house commerce and labor committees and ways and means committees information on the impact of this chapter in promoting economic development in Washington. At the minimum, the information shall include aggregate statistics on each of the following:

(1) The number and locations of corporations operating under this chapter;
(2) The number of instances and dollar amount of financing and management assistance given by corporations operating under this chapter to:

(a) All individual businesses assisted;

(b) Types of businesses classified using the standard industrial classification manual;

(c) Minority and women-owned businesses; and

(d) Businesses located in areas of high unemployment;

(3) The number of jobs created or retained by:

(a) All individual businesses assisted;

(b) Types of businesses classified using the standard industrial classification manual;

(c) Minority and women-owned businesses; and

(d) Businesses located in areas of high unemployment;

(4) The percentage of each business's total contributions or payments for unemployment insurance made to the state of Washington.

Sec. 12. Section 13, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 and RCW 31.24.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The first meeting of the corporation shall be called by a notice signed by three or more of the incorporators, stating the time, place and purpose of the meeting, a copy of which notice shall be mailed, or delivered, to each incorporator at least five days before the day appointed for the meeting. Said first meeting may be held without such notice upon agreement in writing to that effect signed by all the incorporators. There shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting a copy of said notice or of such unanimous agreement of the incorporators.

At such first meeting, the incorporators shall organize by the choice, by ballot, of a temporary clerk; by the adoption of bylaws, by the election by ballot of directors; and by action upon such other matters within the powers of the corporation as the incorporators may see fit. The temporary clerk shall be sworn and shall make and attest a record of the proceedings. ((~~Fem~~)) Five of the incorporators shall be a quorum for the transaction of business.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. (1) The director of trade and economic development is authorized to provide technical assistance and advice to persons forming corporations under this chapter. In addition, the director may contract with corporations organized under this chapter. Each contract shall specify that the money received under the contract shall be used to provide management assistance, which may include management and technical advice and services and other technical support, to businesses receiving financing from the contracting corporation. No more than five corporations may contract with the department under this section at any time. No corporation may receive more than a total of two hundred fifty thousand dollars under this section.

(2) To qualify for a contract under this section, a corporation shall agree that at least one-half of the corporation's loans and investments will be to businesses that have agreed to enter first-source hiring agreements with the employment security department. These agreements shall require the businesses to interview prospective employees from a list supplied by the employment security department and hire any qualified candidates on the list before hiring any candidates not on the department's list.

(3) The department shall give priority in contracting to business and industrial development corporations which invest in distressed areas as defined in RCW 82.60.020(3) and may make allowances for any increased expenses which may attend providing management assistance in distressed areas. At least one of the first three contracts shall be reserved for a corporation which agrees to make at least one-half of its loans and investments to businesses operating in distressed areas.

(4) The director of trade and economic development shall adopt rules to carry out this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. (1) The employment security department shall enter into first-source hiring agreements with businesses securing financing assistance from corporations operating under this chapter upon the request of such businesses or corporations. The first-source hiring agreements shall require the business to:

(a) Provide a job description for each position;

(b) Provide a description of the skills each position requires;

(c) Provide a salary range for each position.

(2) The first-source hiring agreements shall require the employment security department to provide a list of candidates who have expressed interest in the available position and who meet the skill requirements of the position.

Sec. 15. Section 14, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 and RCW 31.24.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, the period of duration of the corporation shall be perpetual, subject, however, to the right of the stockholders (~~and the members~~) to dissolve the corporation prior to the expiration of said period as provided in RCW 31.24.150.

Sec. 16. Section 15, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 52, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 and RCW 31.24.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The corporation may upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the votes to which the stockholders shall be entitled (~~and two-thirds of the votes to which the member shall be entitled~~) dissolve said corporation as provided by Title 23A RCW, insofar as Title 23A RCW is not in conflict with the provisions of this chapter. Upon any dissolution of the corporation, none of the corporation's assets shall be distributed to the stockholders until all sums due the (~~members~~) ~~creditors of the corporation (as creditors thereof)~~ have been paid in full.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. A new section is added to chapter 82.04 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In computing tax for each of the fiscal years beginning July 1, 1987, and ending June 30, 1992, a credit may be claimed against the tax payable for the fiscal year under this chapter by any person investing in a business and industrial development corporation organized under chapter 31.24 RCW. The annual credit shall be the amount invested for the fiscal year by that person in such corporations multiplied by the percentage applicable for that fiscal year as follows:

FISCAL YEAR	AMOUNT INVESTED
1988	25%
1989	20%
1990	15%
1991	10%
1993	0%

(2) The amount of the annual credit allowed to a taxpayer under this section shall not exceed the amount of tax due under this chapter for the fiscal year: PROVIDED, That the total of the credits allowed for the fiscal year under this section and sections 18 and 19 of this act shall not exceed the applicable percentage of the amount invested for that fiscal year by the taxpayer. Credit is not allowed under this section against taxes accruing before July 1, 1987. To receive a credit under this section, a taxpayer shall apply to the department of revenue on such forms as the department may prescribe.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. A new section is added to chapter 82.16 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In computing tax for each of the fiscal years beginning July 1, 1987, and ending June 30, 1992, a credit may be claimed against the tax payable for the fiscal year under this chapter by any person investing in a business and industrial development corporation organized under chapter 31.24 RCW. The annual credit shall be the amount invested for the fiscal year by that person in such corporations multiplied by the percentage applicable for that fiscal year as follows:

FISCAL YEAR	AMOUNT INVESTED
1988	25%
1989	20%
1990	15%
1991	10%
1993	0%

(2) The amount of the annual credit allowed to a taxpayer under this section shall not exceed the amount of tax due under this chapter for the fiscal year: PROVIDED, That the total of the credits allowed for the fiscal year under this section and sections 17 and 19 of this act shall not exceed the applicable percentage of the amount invested for that fiscal year by the taxpayer. Credit is not allowed under this section against taxes accruing before July 1, 1987. To receive a credit under this section, a taxpayer shall apply to the department of revenue on such forms as the department may prescribe.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. A new section is added to chapter 48.14 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In computing tax for each of the fiscal years beginning July 1, 1987, and ending June 30, 1992, a credit may be claimed against the tax payable for the fiscal year under this chapter by any person investing in a business and industrial development corporation organized under chapter 31.24 RCW. The annual credit shall be the amount invested for the fiscal year by that person in such corporations multiplied by the percentage applicable for that fiscal year as follows:

FISCAL YEAR	AMOUNT INVESTED
1988	25%
1989	20%
1990	15%
1991	10%
1993	0%

(2) The amount of the annual credit allowed to a taxpayer under this section shall not exceed the amount of tax due under this chapter for the fiscal year: PROVIDED, That the total of the credits allowed for the fiscal year under this section and sections 17 and 18 of this act shall not exceed the applicable percentage of the amount invested for that fiscal year by the taxpayer. Credit is not allowed under this section against taxes accruing before July 1, 1987. To receive a credit under this section, a taxpayer shall apply to the department of revenue on such forms as the department may prescribe.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. (1) A corporation shall not provide, directly or indirectly, financing assistance to:

(a) An associate of the corporation;

(b) Discharge, or to free other money for use in discharging, in whole or in part, an obligation to an associate of that corporation. This section does not apply to a transaction effected by an associate of a corporation in the normal course of that associate's business involving a line of credit or short-term financing assistance.

(c) A business to which an associate of that corporation provides financing assistance, either contemporaneously with, or within one year before or after, the providing of financing assistance by the corporation, if the terms on which the corporation provides financing assistance are less favorable to the corporation than the terms on which the associate provides financing assistance to the business. If the financing assistance provided by the associate of the corporation is of a different kind from the financing assistance provided by the corporation, the burden shall be on the corporation to prove that the terms on which the corporation provided financing assistance were at least as favorable to the corporation as the terms on which the associate provided financing assistance to the business.

This subsection (1)(c) does not apply to any of the following:

(i) If the associate is a controlling person of the corporation and is also the only shareholder of the corporation;

(ii) If the associate is a subsidiary of the corporation; or

(iii) A transaction effected by an associate of a corporation in the normal course of that associate's business involving a line of credit or short-term financing assistance.

(2) For the purposes of this section and section 21 of this act:

(a) "Person" means an individual, proprietorship, joint venture, partnership, trust, business trust, syndicate, association, joint stock company, corporation, cooperative, government, agency of a government, or any other organization. If used with respect to acquiring control of or controlling a specified person, person includes a combination of two or more persons acting in concert;

(b) "Control" means, if used with respect to a specified person, the power to direct or cause the direction of, directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, the management and policies of that specified person, whether through the ownership of voting securities; by contract, other than a commercial contract for goods or nonmanagement services; or otherwise. A natural person shall not be considered to control a person solely on account of being a director, officer, or employee of that person. A person who, directly or indirectly, owns of record or beneficially holds with power to vote, or holds proxies with discretionary authority to vote, twenty percent or more of the then outstanding voting securities issued by a corporation shall be rebuttably presumed to control that corporation; and

(c) "Controlling person" means, if used with respect to a specified person, a person who controls that specified person, directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. An associate of a corporation shall not receive, directly or indirectly, from a person to whom that corporation provides financing assistance, compensation in connection with the providing of that financing assistance or anything of value for procuring, influencing, or attempting to procure or influence the corporation's action with respect to the providing of the financing assistance. This section does not apply to the receipt of fees by an associate of a corporation for bona fide closing services performed by that associate if all of the following are true:

(1) The associate, with the consent and knowledge of the person to whom the financing assistance is provided, is designated by the corporation to perform the services;

(2) The services are appropriate and necessary in the circumstances;

(3) The fees for the services are approved as reasonable by the corporation; and

(4) The fees for the services are collected by the corporation on behalf of the associate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. Section 6, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 and RCW 31.24.060 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. Sections 13, 14, 20, and 21 of this act are each added to chapter 31.24 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. This chapter may be known and cited as the city and county seed capital pool act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. The legislature finds that the diversification of the state's economy and the creation of new employment opportunities will be enhanced by the development of locally responsive and accountable sources of capital for new enterprises and for new product development. The difference between state economies which provide adequate high-quality employment opportunities for citizens and those which do not is in part a function of the rate of creation of new enterprises and of their ability to sustain themselves. The availability of capital to finance new business enterprises and new product development is a critical factor in increasing the number of successful new enterprises created in the state and thus the ability of the state economy to create employment opportunities. The state has a history of promoting economic health and growth through the creation of development entities which are created locally and which are accountable to local citizens. The state finds it a public purpose to authorize the creation of local seed capital pools by city and county governments, financed by citizen contributions, which may provide capital to new enterprises and which may finance new product development in counties in the state.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 26. As used in this chapter, the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Eligible enterprise" means a small business that is or proposes to be engaged in research and development, in commercial product development, in manufacturing, technology, or the production of goods and services with high potential for expansion and trade outside the state's borders.

(2) "Qualified security" means any note, stock, treasury stock bond, debenture, evidence of indebtedness, certificate of interest or participation in any profit-sharing agreement, preorganization certificate or subscription, transferable share, investment contract, certificate of deposit for a security, certificate of interest or participation in a patent or application therefor, or in royalty or other payments under such a patent or application, or, in general, any interest or instrument commonly known as a "security" or any certificate for, receipt for, guarantee of, or option, warrant, or right to subscribe to or purchase any of the foregoing.

(3) "Seed capital" means financing that is provided for the initial development, refinement, testing, marketing, and commercialization of a product, service, or process to an enterprise with a high potential for long-term commercial sales and that is provided before any substantial commercial sales have been made by the enterprise of the product or service being developed.

(4) "Small business" means any business that has fewer than fifty full-time employees or its equivalent.

(5) "Public utility" means a public entity which provides water and/or sewer service.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 27. A city or county may create a local seed capital pool to provide funds in the form of loans or equity participation to finance new enterprises and product development by entrepreneurs, corporations, partnerships, or joint ventures located in the city or county. The local seed capital pool shall be governed by a board of directors consisting of seven members appointed by the legislative authority of the city or county. Members of the board of directors shall be citizens of the city or county with expertise in small business, new business development, and business finance and shall include members of the general public. The legislative authorities of two or more contiguous counties may, pursuant to chapter 39.34 RCW, combine to form a multicounty seed capital pool. If a local seed capital pool is created by both a county and a city within the county, only one pool shall operate and it shall be by interlocal agreement pursuant to chapter 39.34 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 28. A local seed capital pool shall provide funds by purchasing qualified securities of eligible enterprises. A local seed capital pool may not acquire more than forty-five percent of the stated capital of any eligible enterprise, and no seed capital funds may be used for real estate investments.

The legislative authority of the city or county shall provide, by ordinance or resolution, procedures for the determination of which enterprises qualify as eligible and may grant any powers to the board of directors as may be necessary for it to carry out its duties.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 29. Upon request of the legislative authority of a city or county in which a seed capital pool has been created and the board of directors of the local seed capital pool, each public utility providing water distribution services and each public utility providing sewerage collection services in the city or county shall include in its billings to a utility consumer printed materials which provide the consumer the opportunity to indicate his or her assent to donate a monthly sum of no less than one dollar to finance the local seed capital pool. The materials shall allow the local utility consumer the opportunity to denote the amount of funds to be donated each month to the local seed capital pool. If a consumer indicates that donations should be made on a monthly basis to a local seed capital pool, the utility shall add such sums to its periodic billings for services and shall pass such funds as are collected as a result to the local seed capital pool. A public utility may charge the local seed capital pool the cost it has incurred in collecting and processing donations to the local seed capital pool.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 30. Sections 24 through 29 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 36 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 31. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

Debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Halsan and Anderson.

The motion by Senator Halsan carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

Senator Halsan moved that the following title amendment be adopted:

On motion of Senator Warnke, the rules were suspended. Engrossed House Bill No. 1124, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1124, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1124, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 1; absent, 1; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Rasmussen, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 43.

Voting nay: Senator Pullen - 1.

Absent: Senator Bender - 1.

Excused: Senators Lee, McDermott, Moore, Rinehart - 4.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1124, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

President Cherberg assumed the chair.

NOTICE FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator McDonald served notice that he would move to reconsider the vote by which House Bill No. 816, as amended by the Senate, passed the Senate earlier today.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1156, by Committee on Trade and Economic Development (originally sponsored by Representatives Vekich, Schoon and Cantwell)

Revising distressed area requirements in the community revitalization team program and the development loan fund program.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Warnke, the following Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 229, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.165.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires to the contrary, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Department" means the department of community development.

(2) "Director" means the director of the department.

(3) "Distressed area" means: (a) A county that has an unemployment rate that is twenty percent above the state-wide average for the previous three years; or (b) a community or area that has experienced sudden and severe or long-term and severe loss of employment, or erosion of its economic base due to decline of its dominant industries; or (c) an area within a county which area: (i) is composed of contiguous census tracts; (ii) has a minimum population of five thousand persons; (iii) has at least seventy percent of its families and unrelated individuals with incomes below eighty percent of the county's median income for families and unrelated individuals; and (iv) has an unemployment rate which is at least forty percent higher than the county's unemployment rate. For purposes of this definition, "families and unrelated individuals" has the same meaning that is ascribed to that term by the federal department of housing and urban development in its regulations authorizing action grants for economic development and neighborhood revitalization projects.

(4) "Economic development revolving loan funds" means a local, not-for-profit or governmentally sponsored business loan program.

(5) "Team" means the community revitalization team.

~~((5))~~ (6) "Technical assistance" includes, but is not limited to, assistance with strategic planning, market research, business plan development review, organization and management development, accounting and legal services, grant and loan packaging, and other assistance which may be expected to contribute to the redevelopment and economic well-being of a distressed area.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 164, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.168.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Committee" means the Washington state development loan fund committee.

(2) "Department" means the department of community development.

(3) "Director" means the director of the department of community development.

(4) "Distressed area" means: (a) A county which has an unemployment rate which is twenty percent above the state average for the immediately previous three years; or (b) ~~((a))~~ ~~an area within a county, which area: (i) is composed of contiguous census tracts; (ii) has a minimum population of five thousand persons; (iii) has at least seventy percent of its families and unrelated individuals with incomes below eighty percent of the county's median income for families and unrelated individuals; and (iv) has an unemployment rate which is at least forty percent higher than the county's unemployment rate. For purposes of this definition, "families and unrelated individuals" has the same meaning that is ascribed to that term by the federal department of housing and urban development in its regulations authorizing action grants for economic development and neighborhood revitalization projects.~~

(5) "Fund" means the Washington state development loan fund.

(6) "Local development organization" means a nonprofit organization which is organized to operate within ~~((a distressed))~~ an area, demonstrates a commitment to a long-standing effort for an economic development program, and makes a demonstrable effort to assist in the employment of unemployed or underemployed residents in ~~((a distressed))~~ an area.

(7) "Project" means the establishment of a new or expanded business in ~~((a distressed))~~ an area which when completed will provide employment opportunities. "Project" also means the retention of an existing business in ~~((a distressed))~~ an area which when completed will provide employment opportunities.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 164, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.168.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to the restrictions contained in this chapter, the committee is authorized to approve applications of local governments for federal community development block grant funds which the local governments would use to make loans to finance business projects within ~~((distressed areas))~~ their jurisdictions. Applications approved by the committee under this chapter shall conform to applicable federal requirements.

Sec. 4. Section 5, chapter 164, Laws of 1985 as amended by section 2, chapter 204, Laws of 1986 and RCW 43.168.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The committee may only approve an application providing a loan for a project which the committee finds:

(a) ~~((is located within a distressed area and may reasonably be expected to increase employment or maintain))~~ Will result in the creation of employment opportunities or the maintenance of threatened employment:

(b) Has been approved by the director as conforming to federal rules and regulations governing the spending of federal community development block grant funds;

(c) Will be of public benefit and for a public purpose, and that the benefits, including increased or maintained employment, improved standard of living, and the employment of disadvantaged workers, will primarily accrue to residents of the ~~((distressed))~~ area;

(d) Will probably be successful;

(e) Would probably not be completed without the loan because other capital or financing at feasible terms is unavailable or the return on investment is inadequate.

(2) The committee may not approve an application if it fails to provide for adequate reporting or disclosure of financial data to the committee. The committee may require an annual or other periodic audit of the project books.

(3) The committee may require that the project be managed in whole or in part by a local development organization and may prescribe a management fee to be paid to such organization by the recipient of the loan or grant.

(4) (a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, the committee shall not approve any application which would result in a loan or grant in excess of three hundred fifty thousand dollars.

(b) The committee may approve an application which results in a loan or grant of up to seven hundred thousand dollars if the application has been approved by the director.

(5) The committee shall fix the terms and rates pertaining to its loans.

(6) Should there be more demand for loans than funds available for lending, the committee shall provide loans for those projects which will lead to the greatest amount of employment or benefit to a community. In determining the "greatest amount of employment or benefit" the committee shall also consider the employment which would be saved by its loan.

(7) To the extent permitted under federal law the committee shall require applicants to provide for the transfer of all payments of principal and interest on loans to the Washington state development loan fund created under this chapter. Under circumstances where the federal law does not permit the committee to require such transfer, the committee shall give priority to applications where the applicants on their own volition make commitments to provide for the transfer.

(8) The committee shall not approve any application to finance or help finance a shopping mall.

(9) The committee shall make at least eighty percent of the appropriated funds available to projects located in distressed areas, and may make up to twenty percent available to projects located in areas not designated as distressed. The committee shall not make funds available to projects located in areas not designated as distressed if the fund's net worth is less than seven million one hundred thousand dollars.

(10) If an objection is raised to a project on the basis of unfair business competition, the committee shall evaluate the potential impact of a project on similar businesses located in the local market area. A grant may be denied by the committee if a project is not likely to result in a net increase in employment within a local market area.

Sec. 5. Section 7, chapter 164, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.168.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The committee shall receive and approve applications on a quarterly basis for each fiscal year. Department staff shall process and assist in the preparation of applications. Each application shall show in detail the nature of the project, the types and numbers of jobs to be created, wages to be paid to new employees, and methods to hire unemployed persons from the ((distressed)) area. Each application shall contain a credit analysis of the business to receive the loan. The chairperson of the committee may convene the committee on short notice to respond to applications of a serious or immediate nature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 43.168 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The committee shall develop guidelines for development loan funds to be used to fund existing economic development revolving loan funds. Consideration shall be given to the selection process for grantees, loan quality criteria, legal and regulatory issues, and ways to minimize duplication between development loan funds and local economic development revolving loan funds.

(2) If it appears that all of the funds appropriated to the development loan fund for a biennium will not be fully granted to local governments within that biennium, the committee may make available up to twenty percent of the eighty percent of the funds available to projects in distressed areas under RCW 43.168.050(9) for grants to local governments to assist existing economic development revolving loan funds in distressed areas. The grants to local governments shall be utilized to make loans to businesses that meet the specifications for loans under this chapter. The local governments shall, to the extent permitted under federal law, agree to convey to the development loan fund the principal and interest payments from existing loans that the local governments have made through their revolving loan funds. Under circumstances where the federal law does not permit the committee to require such transfer, the committee shall give priority to applications where the applicants on their own volition make commitments to provide for the transfer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 43.168 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The committee shall develop performance standards for judging the effectiveness of the program. Such standards shall include, to the extent possible, examining the effectiveness of grants in regard to:

- (a) Job creation for individuals of low and moderate income;
- (b) Retention of existing employment;
- (c) The creation of new employment opportunities;
- (d) The diversification of the economic base of local communities;
- (e) The establishment of employee cooperatives;
- (f) The provision of assistance in cases of employee buy-outs of firms to prevent the loss of existing employment;

existing employment:

(g) The degree of risk assumed by the development loan fund, with emphasis on loans which did not receive financing from commercial lenders, but which are considered financially sound.

(2) The committee shall report to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature on the development of performance standards by January 1, 1988.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On motion of Senator Warnke, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "program;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 43.165.010, 43.168.020, 43.168.040, 43.168.050, and 43.168.070; adding new sections to chapter 43.168 RCW; and declaring an emergency."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Warnke, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1156, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Warnke, I heard someplace today that Pacific County has filed for bankruptcy or Chapter 11 or 13 or whatever. Have you heard anything about that?"

Senator Warnke: "No, Senator, I have not."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, would this fund be able to move in there and help the county?"

Senator Warnke: "It may well help the county, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, this block grant--if federal funds are available to help a distressed area--"

Senator Warnke: "Yes, it would. This is a distressed area."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1156, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1156, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; absent, 1; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vognd, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 44.

Absent: Senator Bender - 1.

Excused: Senators Lee, McDermott, Moore, Rinehart - 4.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1156, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 755 and the pending amendment by Senators Halsan, Talmadge and Nelson on page 3, line 22, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Hayner, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 755 is a measure permitting counties to establish community corrections boards, requiring counties to develop community correction plans, permitting the Department of Corrections to contract with counties for community services as part of the community corrections plan and requiring the Department to establish a statewide base level of correctional services.

"The amendment proposed by Senators Halsan, Talmadge and Nelson requires offenders committed to prison for sex offenses and other very serious crimes, to serve one year on 'community placement supervision' made up of a period of community custody and a period of 'post release supervision.'

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment by Senators Halsan, Talmadge and Nelson was ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Wojahn, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 755, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 755, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 755, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; absent, 1; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vogtild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 44.

Absent: Senator Bender - 1.

Excused: Senators Lee, McDermott, Moore, Rinehart - 4.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 755, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 646 and the pending amendment by Senators Talmadge, Halsan, Newhouse and Nelson on page 20, line 15 to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator West, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 646 is a measure establishing an alcohol and drug addiction treatment and shelter program for general assistance unemployable recipients.

"The amendment to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment proposed by Senators Talmadge, Halsan, Newhouse and Nelson requires group medical plans to provide coverage for the treatment of chemical dependency.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment by Senators Talmadge, Halsan, Newhouse and Nelson to the committee amendment was ruled out of order.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

The Committee on Ways and Means amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Wojahn, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, beginning on line 2 of the title, after "assistance—unemployable;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 74.04.005, 74.08.280, 74.09.010, and 74.09.035; and adding a new chapter to Title 74 RCW."

On motion of Senator Wojahn, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 646, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 646, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 646, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; absent, 1; excused, 4.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator McDermott, I've kind of forgotten. Could you tell me, if I have a television dish out there--a satellite--and I paid two or three thousand dollars and my neighbors have a television improvement district and by that reason, they have their own dish that serves maybe four or five, or ten homes, am I going to have to pay into that improvement district even though I have my own dish?"

Senator McDermott: "If you are not connected to a television improvement district, you will not have to pay."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, I am probably within the area of the television improvement district."

Senator McDermott: "My understanding, Senator Rasmussen, is that if you are not connected to the district and to the television dish, you will not have to pay."

Senator Rasmussen: "I don't read it that way. I am not asking Senator Bottiger, but Senator McDermott is."

Senator McDermott: "We don't have very many dishes in the forty-third district."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, television improvement districts are located in extremely rural areas where the community goes together and gets a transceiver and puts it on a hill where it can serve the area. They assess the cost of that by how many television sets you have. The argument in the past has been, that if I went out and bought a satellite, then I should be exempt from paying my share, because I wasn't on the transceiver, I was on my own dish. It makes it extremely difficult for these areas to operate if people can start opting out by buying dishes and not paying the assessment. It's a proposed solution to the problem. You can vote either way. It's your conscience, but if somebody has gone to the expense of putting up a transceiver on the top of the hill presuming they were going to have, say in the Eniat Valley of four hundred people, paying into it and fifty opted out of it to go with their own dish receiver, then the others have to pay more and more."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 772, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 772, as amended by the Senate, and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 24; nays, 22; absent, 1; excused, 2.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Williams, the following Committee on Energy and Utilities amendment was adopted:

On page 1, strike everything after line 7, and insert the following:

"WHEREAS, For forty years, nuclear defense waste has been accumulating at the federal reservation at Hanford, Washington; and

WHEREAS, The United States Department of Energy has identified more than four hundred thousand cubic yards of transuranic, tank, and high-level radioactive waste at the Hanford Reservation; and

WHEREAS, The United States Department of Energy has identified more than sixty thousand cubic yards of additional wastes to be generated at the Hanford Reservation in the next twelve years; and

WHEREAS, A draft report of the United States Department of Energy has identified at least three hundred thirty sites on the Hanford Reservation which include both chemical and radioactive wastes (mixed wastes); and

WHEREAS, Until these materials are properly cleaned up they constitute a threat to the future health and safety of the people of the entire Pacific Northwest, as well as those living near and working on the Hanford Reservation; and

WHEREAS, The Northwest Citizens Forum on Defense Waste and the Washington State Nuclear Waste Board have studied this problem and have reviewed the Draft Environmental Impact Statement produced by the Department of Energy on the defense waste cleanup; and

WHEREAS, Through separate public meetings conducted by the Washington State Nuclear Waste Board and the Department of Energy the citizens of the Pacific Northwest have had an opportunity to express their feelings and concerns on the Defense Waste Cleanup issue; and

WHEREAS, The Northwest Citizens Forum has issued a report which recommends funding options for clean-up of the defense wastes to ensure the protection of the environment; and

WHEREAS, The Washington State Nuclear Waste Board has urged timely clean-up of the existing defense wastes and has offered to take a leadership role in developing a regional consensus on funding priorities and clean-up; and

WHEREAS, The estimated costs of cleaning up radioactive and mixed wastes could exceed seventeen billion dollars;

NOW, THEREFORE, Your Memorialists respectfully pray that Congress aggressively pursue the cleanup and safe disposal of radioactive defense wastes and mixed waste at the Hanford Reservation by appropriating sufficient funds to carry out the Northwest Citizens Forum's recommendation to clean up defense wastes at Hanford, and by seriously examining proposals for a Defense Waste Trust fund.

BE IT RESOLVED, That copies of this Memorial be immediately transmitted to the Honorable Ronald Reagan, President of the United States, the United States Department of Energy, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and each member of Congress."

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 70.146 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department of ecology may enter into contracts with local jurisdictions which provide for extended grant payments under which eligible costs may be paid on an advanced or deferred basis.

(2) Extended grant payments shall be in equal annual payments, the total of which does not exceed, on a net present value basis, fifty percent of the total eligible cost of the project incurred at the time of design and construction. The duration of such extended grant payments shall be for a period not to exceed twenty years. The total of federal and state grant moneys received for the eligible costs of the project shall not exceed fifty percent of the eligible costs.

(3) Any moneys appropriated by the legislature from the water quality account shall be first used by the department of ecology to satisfy the conditions of the extended grant payment contracts."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 450 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; excused, 1.

Voting yeas: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vogndild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 48.

Excused: Senator Craswell - 1.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 450, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 418, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Representatives Armstrong, Schmidt, Holm, Brekke, Sutherland, Locke, Winsley and Todd) (by request of Department of Social and Health Services)

Establishing a child support schedule commission.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Talmadge moved that the following Committee on Judiciary amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) A child support schedule commission is established. The commission shall recommend a child support schedule and propose changes in the schedule to the legislature no later than November 1, 1987.

(2) The commission shall be composed of the secretary of social and health services or the secretary's designee and nine other members. Seven members shall be appointed by the governor as follows: (a) A superior court judge; (b) a representative from the state bar association; (c) an attorney representing indigent persons in Washington; (d) two other persons who have demonstrated an interest or expertise in the study of economic data or child support issues; and (e) two public members who represent the affected populations. Two members shall be the administrator for the courts or his or her designee and the attorney general or his or her designee. In making the appointments, the governor shall seek the recommendations of the association of superior court judges in respect to the member who is a superior court judge; and of the state bar association in respect to the state bar association and indigent attorney representatives.

(3) The secretary of social and health services or the secretary's designee shall serve as chairman of the commission.

(4) The secretary shall serve on the commission during the secretary's tenure as secretary of social and health services. In the event of a vacancy, the appointing authority shall designate a new member to complete the remainder of the unexpired term.

(5) Commission members shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(6) The office of support enforcement shall provide clerical and other support to the commission to enable it to perform its functions.

(7) The commission shall invite public participation and input, particularly from persons who are affected by child support orders.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) The child support schedule commission shall propose a child support schedule to the legislature no later than November 1, 1987.

(2) The commission shall set the child support schedule and recommended revisions based upon:

(a) Updated economic data which accurately reflects family spending and child rearing costs for families of different sizes and income levels in the state of Washington;

(b) Appropriate adjustments for significant changes in child rearing costs at different age levels;

(c) The need for funding of the child's primary residence by a payment which is sufficient to meet the basic needs of the child;

(d) Provisions for health care coverage and, when needed, child care payments; and

(e) The support amount shall be based on the child's age, the parent's combined income, and the family size. Family size shall mean all children for whom support is to be established.

(3) The commission shall establish standards for applying the child support schedule. Included in these standards shall be:

(a) The type, net or gross, and sources of income on which support amounts shall be based;

(b) Provisions for taking into account the voluntary unemployment or underemployment of one or both parents or if the income of a parent is not known;

(c) Provisions for taking into account a parent whose income varies; and

(d) Provisions for taking into account the differing cost of living in the various counties in this state.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. The superior court in each judicial district shall adopt a child support schedule by August 1, 1987.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. This act shall expire July 1, 1988.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following amendments by Senators Owen and Nelson to the Committee on Judiciary amendment were considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 1, line 26 of the committee amendment, after "issues" insert "one of which shall be as non-custodial parent"

On page 1, line 28 of the committee amendment, after "populations" insert "one of which shall be a non-custodial parent"

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Judiciary amendment, as amended.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the Committee on Judiciary amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "support," strike the remainder of the title and insert "creating new sections; providing an expiration date; and declaring an emergency."

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 418, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Kiskaddon: "Senator Talmadge, I notice in the Senate amendment that there is a specific prohibition against asking an employer or employee whether he has a support order. If that is removed, then would that mean that every employer would be asking everyone looking for a job, 'do you owe child support?' Do you think that could make a difference as to whether someone could get a job or not?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, I don't think that is this one. This is Substitute House Bill No. 418 which is the Child Support Commission."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 418, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 418, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 35; nays, 10; absent, 3; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Moore, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Stratton, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 35.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Benitz, Hansen, Hayner, Newhouse, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Tanner - 10.

Absent: Senators Fleming, McDermott, Nelson - 3.

Excused: Senator Craswell - 1.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 418, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 420, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Representatives Appelwick, Armstrong, Valle, Brekke, Holm, Sutherland, Locke and Winsley) (by request of Department of Social and Health Services)

Creating the Washington state support registry.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Talmadge moved that the following Committee on Judiciary amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes the financial impact on custodial parents and children when child support is not received on time, or in the correct amount. The legislature also recognizes the burden placed upon the responsible parent and the second family when enforcement action must be taken to collect delinquent support.

It is the intent of the legislature to create a central Washington state support registry to improve the recordkeeping of support obligations and payments, thereby providing protection for both parties, and reducing the burden on employers by creating a single standardized process through which support payments are deducted from earnings.

It is also the intent of the legislature that child support payments be made through mandatory wage assignment or payroll deduction if the responsible parent becomes delinquent in making support payments under a court or administrative order for support.

To that end, it is the intent of the legislature to interpret all existing statutes and processes to give effect to, and to implement, one central registry for recording and distributing support payments in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) The definitions contained in RCW 74.20A.020 shall be incorporated into and made a part of this chapter.

(2) "Support order" means a superior court order or administrative order, as defined in RCW 74.20A.020.

(3) "Earnings" means compensation paid or payable for personal services, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise, and, notwithstanding any other provision of law making the payments exempt from garnishment, attachment, or other process to satisfy support obligations, specifically includes periodic payments pursuant to pension or retirement programs, or insurance policies of any type, but does not include payments made under Title 50 RCW, except as provided in RCW 50.40.020 and 50.40.050, or Title 74 RCW. Earnings shall specifically include all gain from capital, from labor, or from both combined, not including profit gained through sale or conversion of capital assets.

(4) "Disposable earnings" means that part of the earnings of an individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of an amount required by law to be withheld.

(5) "Employer" means any person or entity who pays or owes earnings in employment as defined in Title 50 RCW to the responsible parent including but not limited to the United States government, or any state or local unit of government.

(6) "Employee" means a person in employment as defined in Title 50 RCW to whom an employer is paying, owes or anticipates paying earnings as a result of services performed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is created a Washington state support registry within the office of support enforcement as the agency designated in Washington state to administer the child support program under Title IV-D of the federal social security act. The registry shall:

(1) Account for and disburse all support payments received by the registry;

(2) Maintain the necessary records including, but not limited to, information on support orders, support debts, the date and amount of support due; the date and amount of payments; and the names, social security numbers, and addresses of the parties;

(3) Develop procedures for providing information to the parties regarding action taken by, and support payments collected and distributed by the registry;

(4) The secretary of social and health services shall adopt rules for the maintenance and retention of records of support payments and for the archiving and destruction of such records when the support obligation terminates or is satisfied. When a support obligation established under court order entered in a superior court of this state has been satisfied, a satisfaction of judgment form shall be prepared by the registry and filed with the clerk of the court in which the order was entered.

The child support registry shall distribute all moneys received in compliance with 42 U.S.C. Sec. 657. When a responsible parent has more than one support obligation, or a support debt is owed to more than one party, moneys received will be distributed between the parties proportionally, based upon the amount of the support obligation and/or support debt owed.

If the Washington state support registry distributes a support payment to a person in error, the registry may obtain restitution by means of a set-off against future payments received on behalf of the person receiving the erroneous payment, or may act according to RCW 74.20A-.270 as deemed appropriate. Any set-off against future support payments shall be limited to amounts collected on the support debt and up to ten percent of amounts collected as current support.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The legislature recognizes that, in order for the support registry to operate in an effective and efficient manner and to ensure that delinquent child support payments will be enforced and collected promptly, especially when the responsible parent is employed and earning regular wages, current employment information must be available to the registry. The legislature also recognizes that the current employer reporting requirements to the department of employment security are not sufficient to facilitate the efforts of the registry to operate effectively and efficiently and collect delinquent payments promptly. Finally, the legislature recognizes that it may not be reasonable to create several different employer reporting systems because of the burdens that would be imposed on employers, especially small businesses. Therefore, the legislature directs the secretary of social and health services and the commissioner of employment security to work with business and employer groups to devise a single reporting process which will meet the needs of both departments and which will provide for prompt and timely employer reporting. The secretary and the commissioner shall prepare and submit a joint report to the judiciary and commerce and labor committees of the house of representatives and the senate by November 1, 1987. The report shall describe the progress that has been made in devising a new reporting system and shall include any recommendations for legislative action that have been agreed upon by the departments and the business and employer groups.

(2) If the report concludes that it is not possible or beneficial to devise a single employer reporting process for both departments, the secretary of social and health services may adopt rules which establish an employer reporting process for employment reports to the support registry. These rules shall include exemptions from the reporting requirement for employees employed for less than two months duration, whether they are full-time or part-time employees or employed on a sporadic basis, employees who earn less than three hundred dollars per month, and other appropriate exemptions. The rules shall also provide for simple methods for employers to use in reporting information to the registry which shall include mailing a copy of the W-4 form, calling a toll-free telephone number maintained by the registry, or by other authorized means. The reporting process established by rule shall be designed to provide for up-to-date employment reports without imposing undue burdens on employers and small businesses.

(3) The secretary and the commissioner shall prepare and submit a report to the judiciary and commerce and labor committees of the house of representatives and the senate by January 25, 1989. This report shall describe the system or systems in effect at that time for employer reporting, identify any problems with the system or systems, include an assessment of the costs associated with the system or systems and the benefits derived from the information reported, if these costs and benefits can be quantified and identified, and include recommendations for legislative action if appropriate.

(4) The registry shall retain the information for a particular employee only if the registry is responsible for establishing, enforcing, or collecting a support obligation or debt of the employee. If the employee does not owe such an obligation or a debt, the registry shall not create a record regarding the employee and the information contained in the notice shall be promptly destroyed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The superior court shall include in all superior court orders which establish or modify a support obligation, a provision which orders and directs the responsible parent to make all support payments to the Washington state support registry, or the person entitled to receive the payments if the parties agree to an alternate payment plan and the court finds that the alternate payment plan includes reasonable assurances that payments will be made in a regular and timely manner. The superior court shall also include a statement that a notice of payroll deduction may be issued or other income withholding action under chapter 26.18 RCW or chapter 74.20A RCW may be taken, without further notice to the responsible parent, if a support payment is more than fifteen days past due in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month. If the court approves an alternate payment plan, the order shall include a statement that the order may be submitted to the Washington state support registry for enforcement if a support payment is more than fifteen days past due in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month.

(2) The office of administrative hearings and the department of social and health services shall require that all support obligations established as administrative orders include a provision which orders and directs that the responsible parent shall make all support payments to the Washington state support registry. All administrative orders shall also state that a notice of payroll deduction may be issued, without further notice to the responsible parent, if a support payment is more than fifteen days past due in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month.

(3) If the support order does not include the provision ordering and directing that all payments be made to the Washington state support registry and a statement that a notice of payroll deduction may be issued if a support payment is past due, the office of support enforcement may serve a notice on the responsible parent stating such requirements and authorizations. Service may be by personal service or any form of mail requiring a return receipt.

(4) Every support order shall state:

(a) That payment shall be made to the Washington state support registry or in accordance with the alternate payment plan approved by the court;

(b) That a notice of payroll deduction may be issued or other income withholding action under chapter 26.18 RCW or chapter 74.20A RCW may be taken, without further notice to the responsible parent, if a support payment is more than fifteen days past due in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month;

(c) The income of the parties, if known, or that their income is unknown and the income upon which the support award is based;

(d) The support award as a sum certain amount;

(e) The specific day or date on which the support payment is due;

(f) The social security number, residence address, and name of employer of the responsible parent;

(g) The social security number and residence address of the custodial parent;

(h) The names, dates of birth, and social security numbers, if any, of the dependent children; and

(i) That the parties are to notify the Washington state support registry of any change in residence address.

(5) The superior court clerk, the office of administrative hearings, and the department of social and health services shall, within five days of entry, forward to the Washington state support registry, a true and correct copy of all superior court orders or administrative orders establishing or modifying a support obligation which provide that support payments shall be made to the support registry. If a superior court order entered prior to the effective date of this section directs the responsible parent to make support payments to the clerk, the clerk shall send a true and correct copy of the support order and the payment record to the registry for enforcement action when the clerk identifies that a payment is more than fifteen days past due. The office of support enforcement shall reimburse the clerk for the reasonable costs of copying and sending copies of court orders to the registry at the reimbursement rate provided in Title IV-D of the social security act.

(6) Receipt of a support order by the registry or other action under this section on behalf of a person or persons who are not recipients of public assistance is deemed to be a request for support enforcement services under RCW 74.20A.040.

(7) After the responsible parent has been ordered or notified to make payments to the Washington state support registry in accordance with subsection (1), (2), or (3) of this section, the responsible parent shall be fully responsible for making all payments to the Washington state support registry and shall be subject to payroll deduction or other income withholding action. The responsible parent shall not be entitled to credit against a support obligation for any payments made to a person or agency other than to the Washington state support registry. A civil action may be brought by the payor to recover payments made to persons or agencies who have received and retained support moneys paid contrary to the provisions of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) If a support payment is more than fifteen days past due in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month, the office of support enforcement is authorized to serve a notice of payroll deduction upon an employer for child support obligations in compliance with section 5 (1), (2), or (3) of this act. Service shall be by personal service or by any form of mail requiring a return receipt.

(2) Service of a notice of payroll deduction upon an employer requires an employer to immediately make a mandatory payroll deduction from the responsible parent/employee's unpaid disposable earnings. The employer shall thereafter deduct each pay period the amount stated in the notice divided by the number of pay periods per month. The payroll deduction each pay period shall not exceed fifty percent of the responsible parent/employee's disposable earnings.

(3) A notice of payroll deduction for support shall have priority over any wage assignment or garnishment.

(4) The notice of payroll deduction shall be in writing and include:

(a) The name and social security number of the employee;

(b) The amount to be deducted from the responsible parent's disposable earnings each month, or alternate amounts and frequencies as may be necessary to facilitate processing of the payroll deduction by the employer;

(c) A statement that the total amount withheld shall not exceed fifty percent of the responsible parent's disposable earnings; and

(d) The address to which the payments are to be mailed or delivered.

(5) An informational copy of the notice of payroll deduction shall be mailed to the last known address of the responsible parent by regular mail.

(6) An employer who receives a notice of payroll deduction shall make immediate deductions from the employee's unpaid disposable earnings and remit proper amounts to the Washington state support registry on each date the employee is due to be paid.

(7) An employer, upon whom a notice of payroll deduction is served, shall make an answer to the Washington state support registry within twenty days after the date of service. The answer shall confirm compliance and institution of the payroll deduction or explain the circumstances if no payroll deduction is in effect. The answer shall also state whether the responsible parent is employed by or receives earnings from the employer, whether the employer anticipates paying earnings and the amount of earnings. If the responsible parent is no longer employed, or receiving earnings from the employer, the answer shall state the present employer's name and address, if known.

(8) The employer may deduct a processing fee from the remainder of the employee's earnings after withholding under the notice of payroll deduction, even if the remainder is exempt under RCW 26.18.090. The processing fee may not exceed: (a) Ten dollars for the first disbursement made by the employer to the Washington state support registry; and (b) one dollar for each subsequent disbursement to the registry.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) The employer may combine amounts withheld from the earnings of more than one employee in a single payment to the Washington state support registry, listing separately the amount of the payment which is attributable to each individual employee.

(2) No employer who complies with a notice of payroll deduction under this chapter shall be civilly liable to the employee for complying with a notice of payroll deduction under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The responsible parent subject to a payroll deduction pursuant to sections 1 through 12 of this act, may file a motion in superior court to quash, modify, or terminate the payroll deduction. The court may grant relief only upon a showing that the payroll deduction causes extreme hardship or substantial injustice or that the responsible parent was not more than fifteen days past due in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month when the notice of payroll deduction was served on the employer. Satisfaction by the obligor of all past due payments subsequent to the issuance of the notice of payroll deduction is not grounds to quash, modify, or terminate the notice of payroll deduction. If a notice of payroll deduction has been in operation for twelve consecutive months and the obligor's support obligation is current, upon motion of the obligor, the court may order the Washington state support registry to terminate the payroll deduction, unless the obligee can show good cause as to why the payroll deduction should remain in effect.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. No employer shall discipline or discharge an employee or refuse to hire a person by reason of an action authorized in this chapter. If an employer disciplines, discriminates against, or discharges an employee or refuses to hire a person in violation of this section, the employee or person shall have a cause of action against the employer. The employer shall be liable for double the amount of lost wages and any other damages suffered as a result of the violation and for costs and reasonable attorney fees, and shall be subject to a civil penalty of not more than two thousand five hundred dollars for each violation. The employer may also be ordered to hire, rehire, or reinstate the aggrieved individual.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) The employer shall be liable to the Washington state support registry for one hundred percent of the amount of the support debt, or the amount of support moneys which should have been withheld from the employee's earnings, whichever is the lesser amount, if the employer:

(a) Fails or refuses, after being served with a notice of payroll deduction, to deduct and promptly remit from unpaid earnings the amounts of money required in the notice; or

(b) Fails or refuses to submit an answer to the notice of payroll deduction after being served.

(2) Liability may be established in superior court or may be established pursuant to RCW 74.20A.270. Awards in superior court and in actions pursuant to RCW 74.20A.270 shall include costs, interest under RCW 19.52.020 and 4.56.110, and reasonable attorney fees and staff costs as a part of the award. Debts established pursuant to this section may be collected pursuant to chapter 74.20A RCW utilizing any of the remedies contained in that chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The department shall establish, by regulation, a process that may be utilized when a support order does not state the obligation to pay current and future support as a fixed dollar amount, or if there is a dispute about the amount of the support debt owed under a support order. This process is authorized in order to facilitate enforcement of the support order, and is intended to implement and effectuate the terms of the order rather than to modify those terms.

The process shall provide for a notice to be served on the responsible parent by personal service or any form of mailing requiring a return receipt. The notice shall contain an initial finding of the amount of current and future support that should be paid and/or the amount of the support debt owed under the support order. A copy of the notice of hearing shall be mailed to the person to whom support is payable under the support order.

The notice shall direct the responsible parent to appear and show cause at a hearing held by the department why the amount of current and future support to be paid and/or the amount of the support debt is incorrect and should not be ordered. The notice shall provide that the responsible parent has twenty days from the date of the service of the notice to request an administrative hearing or initiate an action in superior court. If the responsible parent does not request a hearing or initiate an action in superior court, the amount of current and future support and/or the amount of the support debt stated in the notice shall be subject to collection action.

If the responsible parent does not initiate such an action in superior court, and serve notice of the action on the department within the twenty-day period, the responsible parent shall be deemed to have made an election of remedies and shall be required to exhaust administrative remedies under this chapter with judicial review available as provided for in RCW 34.04.130.

The administrative hearing shall be a contested hearing under chapter 34.04 RCW and shall be conducted in accordance with the rules and regulations adopted by the department and the office of administrative hearings. A copy of the notice of hearing shall be mailed to the person to whom support is payable under the support order.

An administrative order entered in accordance with this section shall state the basis, rationale, or formula upon which the amounts established in the order were based. The amount of current and future support and/or the amount of the support debt determined under this section shall be subject to collection under this chapter and other applicable state statutes.

The regulation shall also provide for an annual review of the support order if either the office of support enforcement or the responsible parent requests such a review.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) Any information or records concerning individuals who owe a support obligation or for whom support enforcement services are being provided which are obtained or maintained by the Washington state support registry, the office of support enforcement, or under chapter 74.20 RCW shall be private and confidential and shall only be subject to public disclosure as provided in this section.

(2) The secretary of the department of social and health services shall adopt rules which specify the individuals or agencies to whom this information and these records may be disclosed, the purposes for which the information may be disclosed, and the procedures to obtain the information or records. The rules adopted under this section shall provide for disclosure of the information and records, under appropriate circumstances, which shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) When authorized or required by federal statute or regulation governing the support enforcement program;

(b) To the person the subject of the records or information, unless the information is exempt from disclosure under RCW 42.17.310;

(c) To government agencies, whether state, local, or federal, and including law enforcement agencies, prosecuting agencies, and the executive branch, if the records or information are needed for child support enforcement purposes;

(d) To the parties in a judicial or formal administrative proceeding upon a specific written finding by the presiding officer that the need for the information outweighs any reason for maintaining the privacy and confidentiality of the information or records;

(e) To private persons or organizations if the disclosure is necessary to permit private contracting parties to assist in the management and operation of the department;

(f) Disclosure of address and employment information to the parties to a court order for support for purposes relating to the enforcement or modification of the order;

(g) Disclosure of information or records when necessary to the efficient administration of the support enforcement program or to the performance of functions and responsibilities of the support registry and the office of support enforcement as set forth in state and federal statutes; or

(h) Disclosure of the information or records when authorized under RCW 74.04.060.

(3) Prior to disclosing address information to a party to a child custody order, a notice shall be mailed, if appropriate under the circumstances, to the last known address of the party whose address has been requested. The notice shall advise the party that a request for disclosure has been made and will be complied with unless the department receives a copy of a court order which enjoins the disclosure of the information or restricts or limits the requesting party's right to contact or visit the other party or the child.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed as limiting or restricting the effect of RCW 42.17.260(5). Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the disclosure of information and records if all details identifying an individual are deleted or the individual consents to the disclosure.

(5) It shall be unlawful for any person or agency in violation of this section to solicit, publish, disclose, receive, make use of, or to authorize, knowingly permit, participate in or acquiesce in the use of any lists of names for commercial or political purposes or the use of any information for purposes other than those purposes specified in this section. A violation of this section shall be a gross misdemeanor as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW.

Sec. 13. Section 15, chapter 298, Laws of 1981 and RCW 13.32A.175 are each amended to read as follows:

In any proceeding in which the court approves an alternative residential placement, the court shall inquire into the ability of parents to contribute to the child's support. If the court finds that the parents are able to contribute to the support of the child, the court shall order them to make such support payments as the court deems equitable. The court may enforce such an order by execution or in any way in which a court of equity may enforce its orders. However, payments shall not be required of a parent who has both opposed the placement and continuously sought reconciliation with, and the return of, the child. All orders entered in a proceeding approving alternative residential placement shall be in compliance with the provisions of section 5 of this 1987 act.

Sec. 14. Section 8, chapter 160, Laws of 1913 as last amended by section 8, chapter 195, Laws of 1981 and RCW 13.34.160 are each amended to read as follows:

In any case in which the court shall find the child dependent, it may in the same or subsequent proceeding upon the parent or parents, guardian, or other person having custody of said child, being duly summoned or voluntarily appearing, proceed to inquire into the ability of such persons or person able to support the child or contribute ~~((to its support, and if the court shall find such person or persons able to support the child or contribute))~~ thereto, the court may enter such order or decree as shall be according to equity in the premises, and may enforce the same by execution, or in any way in which a court of equity may enforce its decrees. All child support orders entered pursuant to this chapter shall be in compliance with the provisions of section 5 of this 1987 act.

Sec. 15. Section 12, chapter 157, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 45, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 26.09.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The court ~~((may, upon its own motion or upon motion of either party;))~~ shall order support ~~((or))~~ and maintenance payments to be made to ~~((:~~

~~((a) The person entitled to receive the payments; or~~

~~((b) The department of social and health services pursuant to chapters 74.20 and 74.20A RCW; or~~

~~((c) The clerk of court as trustee for remittance to the person entitled to receive the payments))~~ the Washington state support registry, or the person entitled to receive the payments under an alternate payment plan approved by the court as provided in section 5 of this 1987 act.

(2) Maintenance payments, when ordered in an action where there is no dependent child, may be ordered to be paid to the person entitled to receive the payments, or the clerk of the court as trustee for remittance to the persons entitled to receive the payments. If maintenance payments are made to the clerk of court ~~((:~~

~~((a))),~~ the clerk shall maintain records listing the amount of payments, the date when payments are required to be made, and the names and addresses of the parties affected by the order ~~((and))~~.

~~((b)))~~ (3) The parties affected by the order shall inform the ~~((clerk of the court))~~ registry through which the payments are ordered to be paid of any change of address or of other conditions that may affect the administration of the order.

Sec. 16. Section 21, chapter 260, Laws of 1984 as amended by section 1, chapter 138, Laws of 1986 and RCW 26.09.135 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((+))~~ Every court order or decree establishing a child support obligation shall ~~((state:~~

~~((a) That if a support payment is more than fifteen days past due in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month, the obligee of the support payments may seek a mandatory wage assignment under chapter 26.18 RCW without prior notice to the obligor;~~

~~((b) The income of the parties, if known, or that their income is unknown, or the anticipated income upon which the support award is based;~~

~~((c) The support award as a fixed dollar sum or the formula by which the calculation of support is made;~~

~~((d) The specific day or date on which the support payment is due;~~

~~((e) The social security numbers, if known, of the obligor and obligee of the support payments; and~~

~~((f) Which party has or parties have custody of each child for whom an order of support is entered.~~

~~((2) Failure to comply with subsection (1) of this section does not affect the validity of the support order))~~ be entered in compliance with the provisions of section 5 of this 1987 act.

Sec. 17. Section 2, chapter 260, Laws of 1984 and RCW 26.18.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Dependent child" means any child for whom a support order has been established or for whom a duty of support is owed.

(2) "Duty of support" means the duty to provide for the needs of a dependent child, which may include necessary food, clothing, shelter, education, and health care. The duty includes any obligation to make monetary payments, to pay expenses, including spousal maintenance, or to reimburse another person or an agency for the cost of necessary support furnished a dependent child. The duty may be imposed by court order, by operation of law, or otherwise.

(3) "Obligee" means the custodian of a dependent child, or person or agency, to whom a duty of support is owed, or the person or agency to whom the right to receive or collect support has been assigned.

(4) "Obligor" means the person owing a duty of support.

(5) "Support order" means any judgment, decree, or order of support issued by the superior court or authorized agency of the state of Washington; or a judgment, decree, or other order of support issued by a court or agency of competent jurisdiction in another state or country, which has been registered or otherwise made enforceable in this state.

(6) "Employer" includes the United States government, a state or local unit of government, and any person or entity who pays or owes earnings to the obligor.

(7) "Earnings" means compensation paid or payable for personal services, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise, and, notwithstanding any other provision of law making the payments exempt from garnishment, attachment, or other process to satisfy support obligations, specifically includes periodic payments pursuant to pension or retirement programs, or insurance policies of any type, but does not include payments made under Title 50 RCW, except as provided in RCW 50.40.020 and 50.40.050, or Title 74 RCW.

(8) "Disposable earnings" means that part of the earnings of an individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of any amount required by law to be withheld.

Sec. 18. Section 7, chapter 260, Laws of 1984 and RCW 26.18.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A petition or motion seeking a mandatory wage assignment in an action under RCW 26.18.040 may be filed by an obligee if the obligor is more than fifteen days past due in child support payments in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month. The petition or motion shall include a sworn statement by the obligee, stating the facts authorizing the issuance of the wage assignment order, including:

(a) That the obligor, stating his or her name and residence, is more than fifteen days past due in child support payments in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month;

(b) A description of the terms of the support order requiring payment of support, and the amount past due;

(c) The name and address of the obligor's employer;

(d) That notice by personal service or any form of mail requiring a return receipt, has been provided to the obligor (~~as required by RCW 26.18.060~~) at least fifteen days prior to the obligee seeking a mandatory wage assignment, unless the order for support states that the obligee may seek a mandatory wage assignment without notice to the obligor; and

(e) In cases not filed by the state, whether the obligee has received public assistance from any source and, if the obligee has received public assistance, that the department of social and health services has been notified in writing of the pending action.

(2) If the court in which a mandatory wage assignment is sought does not already have a copy of the support order in the court file, then the obligee shall attach a copy of the support order to the petition or motion seeking the wage assignment.

Sec. 19. Section 8, chapter 260, Laws of 1984 and RCW 26.18.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon receipt of a petition or motion seeking a mandatory wage assignment that complies with RCW 26.18.070, the court shall issue a wage assignment order, as provided in RCW 26.18.100 and including the information required in RCW 26.18.090(1), directed to the employer, and commanding the employer to answer the order on the forms served with the order that comply with RCW 26.18.120 within twenty days after service of the order upon the employer.

(2) The clerk of the court shall forward a copy of the mandatory wage assignment order, a true and correct copy of the support orders in the court file, and a statement containing the obligee's address and social security number shall be forwarded to the Washington state support registry within five days of the entry of the order.

Sec. 20. Section 10, chapter 260, Laws of 1984 and RCW 26.18.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The wage assignment order shall be substantially in the following form:

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF

.....
Obligee ..... No. ....
vs. ....
..... WAGE ASSIGNMENT
Obligor ..... ORDER

.....
 Employer
 THE STATE OF WASHINGTON TO: .....

Employer

AND TO: .....

Obligor

The above-named obligee claims that the above-named obligor is more than fifteen days past due in child support payments in an amount equal to or greater than the child support payable for one month. The amount of the accrued child support debt as of this date is ..... dollars, the amount of arrearage payments specified in the support order (if applicable) is ..... dollars per ..... and the amount of the current and continuing support obligation under the support order is ..... dollars per .....

You are hereby commanded to answer this order by filling in the attached form according to the instructions, and you must mail or deliver the original of the answer to the court, one copy to the Washington state support registry, one copy to the obligee or obligee's attorney, and one copy to the obligor within twenty days after service of this wage assignment order upon you.

If you possess any earnings due and owing to the obligor, then you shall do as follows:

(1) Withhold from the obligor's earnings each month, or from each regular earnings disbursement, the lesser of:

- (a) The sum of the accrued support debt and the current support obligation;
- (b) The sum of the specified arrearage payment amount and the current support obligation; or
- (c) Fifty percent of the disposable earnings of the obligor.

(2) The total amount withheld above is subject to the wage assignment order, and all other sums may be disbursed to the obligor.

You shall continue to withhold the ordered amounts from nonexempt earnings of the obligor until notified by the court that the wage assignment has been modified or terminated. You shall promptly notify the court and the Washington state support registry if and when the employee is no longer employed by you.

You shall deliver the withheld earnings to the (~~clerk of the court that issued this wage assignment order~~) Washington state support registry at each regular pay interval, but the first delivery shall occur no sooner than twenty days after your receipt of this wage assignment order.

You shall deliver a copy of this order to the obligor as soon as is reasonably possible. This wage assignment order has priority over any other wage assignment or garnishment, except for another wage assignment or garnishment for child support, or order to withhold or deliver under chapter 74.20A RCW.

WHETHER OR NOT YOU OWE ANYTHING TO THE OBLIGOR, YOUR FAILURE TO ANSWER AS REQUIRED MAY MAKE YOU LIABLE FOR OBLIGOR'S CLAIMED SUPPORT DEBT TO THE OBLIGEE OR SUBJECT TO CONTEMPT OF COURT.

NOTICE TO OBLIGOR: YOU HAVE A RIGHT TO REQUEST A HEARING IN THE SUPERIOR COURT THAT ISSUED THIS WAGE ASSIGNMENT ORDER, TO REQUEST THAT THE COURT QUASH, MODIFY, OR TERMINATE THE WAGE ASSIGNMENT ORDER.

DATED THIS ... day of ..., 19 .....

 Judge/Court Commissioner

Sec. 21, Section 11, chapter 260, Laws of 1984 and RCW 26.18.110 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An employer upon whom service of a wage assignment order has been made shall answer the order by sworn affidavit within twenty days after the date of service. The answer shall state whether the obligor is employed by or receives earnings from the employer, whether the employer will honor the wage assignment order, and whether there are multiple child support attachments against the obligor.

(2) If the employer possesses any earnings due and owing to the obligor, the earnings subject to the wage assignment order shall be withheld immediately upon receipt of the wage assignment order. The withheld earnings shall be delivered to the (~~clerk of the court that issued the wage assignment order~~) Washington state support registry at each regular pay interval, but the first delivery shall occur no sooner than twenty days after receipt of the wage assignment order.

(3) The employer shall continue to withhold the ordered amounts from nonexempt earnings of the obligor until notified by the court that the wage assignment has been modified or terminated. The employer shall promptly notify the (~~court~~) Washington state support registry when the employee is no longer employed.

(4) The employer may deduct a processing fee from the remainder of the employee's earnings after withholding under the wage assignment order, even if the remainder is exempt under RCW 26.18.090. The processing fee may not exceed (a) ten dollars for the first disbursement made by the employer to the ~~((superior court clerk))~~ Washington state support registry; and (b) one dollar for each subsequent disbursement to the clerk.

(5) An order for wage assignment for support entered under this chapter shall have priority over any other wage assignment or garnishment, except for another wage assignment or garnishment for child support, or order to withhold and deliver under chapter 74.20A RCW.

(6) An employer who fails to withhold earnings as required by a wage assignment issued under this chapter may be held liable for the amounts disbursed to the obligor in violation of the wage assignment order, and may be found by the court to be in contempt of court and may be punished as provided by law.

(7) No employer who complies with a wage assignment issued under this chapter may be liable to the employee for wrongful withholding.

(8) No employer may discharge, discipline, or refuse to hire an employee because of the entry or service of a wage assignment issued and executed under this chapter. A person who violates this subsection may be found by the court to be in contempt of court and may be punished as provided by law.

(9) An employer may combine amounts withheld from various employees into a single payment to the ~~((superior court clerk))~~ Washington state support registry, if the payment includes a listing of the amounts attributable to each employee and other information as required by the ~~((clerk))~~ registry.

(10) An employer shall deliver a copy of the wage assignment order to the obligor as soon as is reasonably possible.

Sec. 22. Section 13, chapter 260, Laws of 1984 and RCW 26.18.130 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Service of the wage assignment order on the employer is invalid unless it is served with ~~((four))~~ five answer forms in substantial conformance with RCW 26.18.120, together with stamped envelopes addressed to, respectively, the clerk of the court where the order was issued, the Washington state support registry, the obligee's attorney or the obligee, and the obligor. The obligee shall also include an extra copy of the wage assignment order for the employer to deliver to the obligor. Service on the employer shall be in person or by any form of mail requiring a return receipt.

(2) On or before the date of service of the wage assignment order on the employer, the obligee shall mail or cause to be mailed by certified mail a copy of the wage assignment order to the obligor at the obligor's last known post office address; or, in the alternative, a copy of the wage assignment order shall be served on the obligor in the same manner as a summons in a civil action on, before, or within two days after the date of service of the order on the employer. This requirement is not jurisdictional, but if the copy is not mailed or served as this subsection provides, or if any irregularity appears with respect to the mailing or service, the superior court, in its discretion, may quash the wage assignment order, upon motion of the obligor promptly made and supported by an affidavit showing that the obligor has suffered substantial injury due to the failure to mail or serve the copy.

Sec. 23. Section 22, chapter 260, Laws of 1984 as amended by section 2, chapter 138, Laws of 1986 and RCW 26.21.125 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((t))~~ Every court order or decree establishing a child support obligation shall ~~((state:~~

~~(a) That if a support payment is more than fifteen days past due in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month, the obligee of the support payments may seek a mandatory wage assignment under chapter 26.18 RCW without prior notice to the obligor;~~

~~(b) The income of the parties, if known, or that their income is unknown, or the anticipated income upon which the support award is based;~~

~~(c) The support award as a fixed dollar sum or the formula by which the calculation of support is made;~~

~~(d) The specific day or date on which the support payment is due;~~

~~(e) The social security numbers, if known, of the obligor and obligee of the support payments; and~~

~~(f) Which party has or parties have custody of each child for whom an order of support is entered;~~

~~(2) Failure to comply with subsection (1) of this section does not affect the validity of the support order)) be entered in compliance with section 5 of this 1987 act.~~

Sec. 24. Section 15, chapter 196, Laws of 1951 as amended by section 21, chapter 45, Laws of 1963 and RCW 26.21.140 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to the foregoing powers, the court of this state when acting as the responding state has the power to subject the respondent to such terms and conditions as the court may deem proper to assure compliance with its orders and in particular:

(1) To require the respondent to furnish recognizance in the form of a cash deposit or bond of such character and in such amount as the court may deem proper to assure payment of any amount required to be paid by the respondent;

(2) To require the respondent to make payments at specified intervals to the ~~((clerk of the court))~~ Washington state support registry and to report personally to ~~((such clerk))~~ the Washington state support registry at such times as may be deemed necessary;

(3) To punish the respondent who shall violate any order of the court to the same extent as is provided by law for contempt of the court in any other suit or proceeding cognizable by the court.

Sec. 25. Section 16, chapter 196, Laws of 1951 as amended by section 22, chapter 45, Laws of 1963 and RCW 26.21.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The court of this state when acting as a responding state shall have the following duties which ~~((may))~~ shall be carried out through the ~~((clerk of the court))~~ Washington state support registry:

(1) Upon the receipt of a payment made by the respondent pursuant to any order of the court or otherwise, to transmit the same forthwith to the court of the initiating state, and

(2) Upon request to furnish to the court of the initiating state a certified statement of all payments made by the respondent.

Sec. 26. Section 17, chapter 196, Laws of 1951 as amended by section 23, chapter 45, Laws of 1963 and RCW 26.21.160 are each amended to read as follows:

The court of this state when acting as an initiating state shall have the duty which ~~((may))~~ shall be carried out through the ~~((clerk of the court))~~ Washington state support registry to receive and disburse forthwith all payments made by the respondent or transmitted by the court of the responding state.

Sec. 27. Section 23, chapter 260, Laws of 1984 as amended by section 3, chapter 138, Laws of 1986 and RCW 26.26.132 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((H))~~ Every court order or decree establishing a child support obligation shall ~~((state: .~~

~~(a) That if a support payment is more than fifteen days past due in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month, the obligee of the support payments may seek a mandatory wage assignment under chapter 26.18 RCW without prior notice to the obligor;~~

~~(b) The income of the parties, if known, or that their income is unknown, or the anticipated income upon which the support award is based;~~

~~(c) The support award as a fixed dollar sum or the formula by which the calculation of support is made;~~

~~(d) The specific day or date on which the support payment is due;~~

~~(e) The social security numbers, if known, of the obligor and obligee of the support payments; and~~

~~(f) Which party has or parties have custody of each child for whom an order of support is entered;~~

~~(2) Failure to comply with subsection (1) of this section does not affect the validity of the support order)) be entered in compliance with section 5 of this 1987 act.~~

Sec. 28. Section 16, chapter 42, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 26.26.150 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If existence of the father and child relationship is declared, or paternity or a duty of support has been acknowledged or adjudicated under this chapter or under prior law, the obligation of the father may be enforced in the same or other proceedings by the mother, the child, the state of Washington, the public authority that has furnished or may furnish the reasonable expenses of pregnancy, confinement, education, support, or funeral, or by any other person, including a private agency, to the extent he has furnished or is furnishing these expenses.

(2) The court ~~((may))~~ shall order support payments to be made to the ~~((department of social and health services pursuant to chapters 74.20 and 74.20A RCW, to a parent, the clerk of the court, or a person, corporation, or agency designated to administer them for the benefit of the child under the supervision of the court))~~ Washington state support registry, or the person entitled to receive the payments under an alternate payment plan approved by the court as provided in section 5 of this 1987 act.

(3) All remedies for the enforcement of judgments apply.

Sec. 29. Section 74.04.060, chapter 26, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 32, chapter 41, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.04.060 are each amended to read as follows:

For the protection of applicants and recipients, the department and the county offices and their respective officers and employees are prohibited, except as hereinafter provided, from disclosing the contents of any records, files, papers and communications, except for purposes directly connected with the administration of the programs of this title. In any judicial proceeding, except such proceeding as is directly concerned with the administration of these programs, such records, files, papers and communications, and their contents, shall be deemed privileged communications and except for the right of any individual to inquire of the office whether a named individual is a recipient of welfare assistance and such person shall be entitled to an affirmative or negative answer. However, upon written request of a parent who has been awarded visitation rights in an action for divorce or separation or any parent with legal custody of the child, the department shall disclose to him or her the ~~((current))~~ last known address and location of his or her natural or adopted children. The secretary shall adopt rules which establish procedures for disclosing the address of the children and providing, when appropriate, for prior notice to the custodian of the children. The notice shall state that a request for disclosure has been received and will be complied with by the department unless the department receives a copy of a court order which enjoins the disclosure of the information or restricts or limits the requesting party's right to contact or visit the other party or the child. Information supplied to a parent by the department shall be used only for purposes directly related to the enforcement of the visitation and custody provisions of the court order of separation or decree of divorce. No parent shall disclose such information to any other person except for the purpose of enforcing visitation provisions of the said order or decree.

The county offices shall maintain monthly at their offices a report showing the names and addresses of all recipients in the county receiving public assistance under this title, together with the amount paid to each during the preceding month.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to duly designated representatives of approved private welfare agencies, public officials, members of legislative interim committees and advisory committees when performing duties directly connected with the administration of this title, such as regulation and investigation directly connected therewith: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That any information so obtained by such persons or groups shall be treated with such degree of confidentiality as is required by the federal social security law.

It shall be unlawful, except as provided in this section, for any person, body, association, firm, corporation or other agency to solicit, publish, disclose, receive, make use of, or to authorize, knowingly permit, participate in or acquiesce in the use of any lists or names for commercial or political purposes of any nature. The violation of this section shall be a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 30. Section 16, chapter 173, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 13, chapter 171, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20.101 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever, as a result of any action, support money is paid by the person or persons responsible for support, such payment shall be paid through the ~~((support enforcement and collections unit of the state department of social and health services))~~ Washington state support registry if the support order contains a provision directing the responsible parent to make support payments through the registry or upon written notice by the ((department)) office of support enforcement to the responsible ((person)) parent or to the clerk of the court, if appropriate, that ~~((the children for whom a support obligation exists are receiving public assistance or that the support debt has been assigned to the department))~~ all future support payments must be made through the registry.

After service on a responsible parent of a notice under this section or RCW 74.20A.040 or 74.20A.055, payment of moneys ~~((or in-kind providings))~~ for the support of the responsible parent's children which are not paid to the ~~((department))~~ Washington state support registry shall not be credited against or set-off against any obligation to provide support which has been assigned to the department, whether the obligation has been determined by court order, or pursuant to RCW 74.20A.055, or is unliquidated.

Sec. 31. Section 3, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 5, chapter 276, Laws of 1985 and RCW 74.20A.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall be subrogated to the right of any dependent child or children or person having the care, custody, and control of said child or children, if public assistance money is paid to or for the benefit of the child, to prosecute or maintain any support action or execute any administrative remedy existing under the laws of the state of Washington to obtain reimbursement of moneys expended, based on the support obligation of the responsible parent established by a superior court order or RCW 74.20A.055. Distribution of any support moneys shall be made in accordance with 42 U.S.C. Sec. 657.

~~((No))~~ Public assistance moneys shall be exempt from collection ((shall be made from a parent or other person who is the recipient of public assistance moneys while such person or persons are in such status)) action under this chapter except as provided in RCW 74.20A.270.

No collection action shall be taken against parents of children eligible for admission to, or children who have been released from, a state school for the developmentally disabled as defined by chapter 72.33 RCW.

The department may initiate, continue, maintain, or execute action to establish, enforce, and collect a support obligation, including establishing paternity and performing related services, under this chapter and chapter 74.20 RCW, or through the attorney general or prosecuting attorney under chapter 26.09, 26.18, 26.20, 26.21, or 26.26 RCW or other appropriate statutes or the common law of this state, for a period not to exceed three months from the month following the month in which the family or any member thereof ceases to receive public assistance and thereafter if a nonassistance request for support enforcement services has been made under RCW 74.20.040.

Sec. 32. Section 13, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 12, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever a support lien has been filed pursuant to RCW 74.20A.060, the secretary may collect the support debt stated in said lien by the distraint, seizure, and sale of the property subject to said lien. Not less than ten days prior to the date of sale, the secretary shall ((give notice)) cause a copy of the notice of sale to be transmitted by regular mail and by any form of mailing requiring a return receipt to the debtor and any person known to have or claim an interest ((therein of the general description of the property to be sold and the time and place of sale of said)) in the property. Said notice shall ((be given to such persons by certified mail, return receipt requested or by service in the manner prescribed for the service of a summons in a civil action)) contain a general description of the property to be sold and the time, date, and place of the sale. ((A)) The notice ((specifying the property to be sold)) of sale shall be posted in at least two public places in the county wherein the distraint has been made. The time of sale shall not be less than ten nor more than twenty days from the date of posting of such notices. Said sale shall be conducted by the secretary, who shall proceed to sell such property by parcel or by lot at a public auction, and who may set a minimum reasonable price to include the expenses of making a levy and of advertising the sale, and if the amount bid for such property at the sale is not equal to the price so fixed, the secretary may declare such property to be purchased by the department for such price, or may conduct another sale of such property pursuant to the provisions of this section. In the event of sale, the debtor's account shall be credited with the amount for which the property has been sold. Property acquired by the department as herein prescribed may be sold by the secretary at public or private sale, and the amount realized shall be placed in the state general fund to the credit of the department of social and health services. In all cases of sale, as aforesaid, the secretary shall issue a bill of sale or a deed to the purchaser and said bill of sale or deed shall be prima facie evidence of the right of the secretary to make such sale and conclusive evidence of the regularity of his proceeding in making the sale, and shall transfer to the purchaser all right, title, and interest of the debtor in said property. The proceeds of any such sale, except in those cases wherein the property has been acquired by the department, shall be first applied by the secretary to reimbursement of the costs of distraint and sale, and thereafter in satisfaction of the delinquent account. Any excess which shall thereafter remain in the hands of the secretary shall be refunded to the debtor. Sums so refundable to a debtor may be subject to seizure or distraint by any taxing authority of the state or its political subdivisions or by the secretary for new sums due and owing subsequent to the subject proceeding. Except as specifically provided in this chapter, there shall be exempt from distraint, seizure, and sale under this chapter such property as is exempt therefrom under the laws of this state.

Sec. 33. Section 19, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 17, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.190 are each amended to read as follows:

The secretary may assess and collect interest of six percent per annum on any support debt due and owing to the department under RCW 74.20A.030 ((may be collected by the secretary)) or which the department has been authorized to enforce and collect under RCW 74.20.040 at the maximum rate permitted under RCW 19.52.020. No provision of this chapter shall be construed to require the secretary to maintain interest balance due accounts and said interest may be waived by the secretary, if said waiver would facilitate the collection of the debt.

Sec. 34. Section 24, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.260 are each amended to read as follows:

((One hundred percent of the temporary total)) Disability payments ((and permanent total disability compensation to a workman allocated by RCW 51.32.090 and 51.32.060 respectively to the spouse and children of a workman, and forty percent of the net proceeds of payments to a workman for permanent partial disability under RCW 51.32.060)) made pursuant to Title 51 RCW shall ((not)) be classified as ((<sup>(2)</sup>)) earnings (((-) but shall be subject to lien or order to withhold and deliver and said lien or order to withhold and deliver shall continue to operate and require any political subdivision or department of the state to withhold the above stated portions at each subsequent disbursement or receipt interval until the entire amount of the support debt stated in the lien or order to withhold and deliver has been withheld)) and shall be subject to collection action by the office for support enforcement under this chapter and all other applicable state statutes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. Sections 1 through 12 of this act shall constitute a new chapter under Title 26 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 13, chapter 157, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 26.09.130; and
- (2) Section 6, chapter 260, Laws of 1984 and RCW 26.18.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. Sections 1 through 3 and 5 through 36 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1988.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 38. Section 4 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 9, line 28, after "disciplines" strike ", discriminates against,"

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Judiciary amendment, as amended.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Kiskaddon: "Senator Talmadge, my concern really is that somebody would end up not being able to get a job, because they had to say that, 'You know, I am being required to pay child support.' So, with this Section 9 who is it that, actually, would make sure, or who would you appeal to and how would this work, so that it would not turn out to be someone losing a job?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, my understanding is that it would be the Department of Employment Security where you have these unfair labor practices kinds of situations, that the Department of Employment Security would be available to assist in redressing the circumstances for the prospective employee who was affected. That's my understanding."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Judiciary amendment, as amended.

The Committee on Judiciary amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "relations;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 13.32A.175, 13.34.160, 26.09.120, 26.09.135, 26.18.020, 26.18.070, 26.18.080, 26.18.100, 26.18.110, 26.18.130, 26.21.125, 26.21.140, 26.21.150, 26.21.160, 26.26.132, 26.26.150, 74.04.060, 74.20.101, 74.20A.030, 74.20A.130, 74.20A.190, and 74.20A.260; adding a new chapter to Title 26 RCW; repealing RCW 26.09.130 and 26.18.060; prescribing penalties; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency."

Creating Washington state efficiency study commission.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Talmadge moved that the following amendment by Senators Talmadge, McDermott, Halsan, Owen, Tanner and Zimmerman be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. (1) There is hereby created a temporary commission to be known as the Washington state commission for efficiency and accountability in government, hereafter referred to as the commission.

(2) The commission shall consist of fourteen members as follows:

(a) Six members appointed by the governor including but not limited to representatives from private sector business and industry, labor unions, and public interest organizations;

(b) Three members appointed jointly by the president of the senate and speaker of the house including but not limited to representatives from private sector business and industry, labor unions, and public interest organizations;

(c) One representative from each of the four legislative caucuses to be appointed by the president of the senate and the speaker of the house; and

(d) The governor shall be a member and the chair of the commission.

The vice-chair shall be selected by the commission.

(3) Nonlegislative members shall be reimbursed for travel expenses for attending meetings of the commission as provided for in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. Legislative members shall be reimbursed for travel expenses for attending meetings of the commission as provided for in RCW 44.04.120.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. The commission shall develop recommendations for legislative and executive consideration that will:

- (1) Increase the efficiency and effectiveness of state government programs and reduce costs;
- (2) Enhance executive accountability and the organizational soundness of state government;
- (3) Enhance legislative oversight and program accountability; and
- (4) Improve managerial competence and workforce productivity.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. To carry out the provisions of section 2 of this act, the commission shall:

(1) Prepare a list of selected programs funded by the state that will be subject to review by the commission. The list shall include programs that have a major fiscal impact on the state and where the commission determines that operational and organizational improvements are feasible. The reviews shall concentrate on identifying improvements that will result in increased program efficiency and effectiveness and reduced costs, greater accountability to the general public, increased information and data relative to governmental expenditures, and increased managerial competence and workforce productivity.

(2) Develop a four-year plan for the orderly review of each program identified under subsection (1) of this section. The plan shall contain a timetable for the completion of each program review and an estimate of the resources needed to carry out the reviews. The plan shall be updated annually.

(3) Secure private sector financial and other support for the conduct of the reviews.

(4) Establish the scope of program reviews, select review teams and direct those teams to conduct the program reviews identified by the commission. The review teams shall report to the commission their findings and recommendations for organizational and operational improvements.

(5) Decide upon recommendations for executive action or legislation necessary to implement the operational or organizational improvements developed by program review teams.

(6) Submit the following reports to the legislature:

(a) By December 31, 1987, a four-year plan required by subsection (2) of this section;

(b) Upon completion of each program review, its recommendations for operational and organizational improvements for the program reviewed. The report shall include estimates of savings which may result from recommended legislative or executive action.

(c) By December 31, 1988, a report summarizing recommendations of the commission for legislative and executive actions to accomplish operational and organizational improvements identified in completed program reviews and any executive action initiated as a result of findings of a program review. Thereafter, the commission shall report to the legislature annually, no later than December 31, on its progress toward completing the four-year review plan and on its recommendations for operational and organizational improvements in state government.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. (1) It is the intent of the legislature that the program review activities of the commission be funded, to the extent practicable, by contributions received from the private sector. The office of financial management and the legislature shall provide staff as required by the commission for developing the plan for proper reviews and undertaking such reviews. To the extent permitted by law, all agencies of the state shall cooperate fully with the commission in carrying out its duties under this act.

(2) The commission may receive and expend gifts, grants, and endowments from private sources to carry out the purposes of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. The commission may contract for such services as are necessary to supplement the staff as provided in section 4 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. This act shall expire December 31, 1991."

Senator Zimmerman moved that the following amendment to the amendment be adopted:

On page 4, line 35, strike "office of financial management" and insert "legislative evaluation and accountability program committee"

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Zimmerman to the amendment by Senators Talmadge, McDermott, Halsan, Owen, Tanner and Zimmerman.

The motion by Senator Zimmerman failed and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1129, by Committee on Local Government (originally sponsored by Representatives Cooper, Haugen, Spanel, Sutherland, Nealey, Hine, Madsen, Peery, Ferguson, Nutley, Rayburn, P. King and Holm)

Changing provisions relating to the investment of public funds.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator McDermott moved that the following Committee on Governmental Operations amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 36.29.020, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 7, chapter 177, Laws of 1984 and RCW 36.29.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The county treasurer shall keep all moneys belonging to the state, or to any county, in his or her own possession until disbursed according to law. The county treasurer shall not place the same in the possession of any person to be used for any purpose; nor shall he or she loan or in any manner use or permit any person to use the same; but it shall be lawful for a county treasurer to deposit any such moneys in any regularly designated qualified public depository. Any municipal corporation may by action of its governing body authorize any of its funds which are not required for immediate expenditure, and which are in the custody of the county treasurer or other municipal corporation treasurer, to be invested or deposited by such treasurer in ~~((savings or time accounts in designated qualified public depositories or in certificates, notes, or bonds of the United States, or other obligations of the United States or its agencies, or of any corporation wholly owned by the government of the United States; in bankers' acceptances purchased on the secondary market, in federal home loan bank notes and bonds, federal land bank bonds and federal national mortgage association notes, debentures and guaranteed certificates of participation, or the obligations of any other government sponsored corporation whose obligations are or may become eligible as collateral for advances to~~

~~member banks as determined by the board of governors of the federal reserve system or deposit such funds or any portion thereof in investment deposits as defined in RCW 39.58.010 secured by collateral in accordance with the provisions of chapter 39.58 RCW)) investments or deposits authorized under RCW 43.84.080 and chapter 39.58 RCW in which the state treasurer may invest or deposit public moneys: PROVIDED, Five percent of the interest or earnings, with an annual maximum of fifty dollars, on any transactions authorized by each resolution of the governing body shall be paid as an investment service fee to the office of the county treasurer or other municipal corporation treasurer when the interest or earnings become available to the governing body: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if such investment service fee amounts to five dollars or less the county treasurer or other municipal corporation treasurer may waive such fee.~~

Whenever the funds of any municipal corporation which are not required for immediate expenditure are in the custody or control of the county treasurer, and the governing body of such municipal corporation has not taken any action pertaining to the investment of any such funds, the county finance committee shall direct the county treasurer to invest or deposit, to the maximum prudent extent, such funds or any portion thereof in savings or time accounts in designated qualified public depositories or in ~~((certificates, notes, or bonds of the United States, or other obligations of the United States or its agencies, or of any corporation wholly owned by the government of the United States, in bankers' acceptances purchased on the secondary market, in federal home loan bank notes and bonds, federal land bank bonds and federal national mortgage association notes, debentures and guaranteed certificates of participation, or the obligations of any other government sponsored corporation whose obligations are or may become eligible as collateral for advances to member banks as determined by the board of governors of the federal reserve system or deposit such funds or any portion thereof in investment deposits as defined in RCW 39.58.010 secured by collateral in accordance with the provisions of chapter 39.58 RCW)) investments or deposits authorized under RCW 43.84.080 and chapter 39.58 RCW in which the state treasurer may invest or deposit state moneys: PROVIDED, That the county treasurer shall have the power to select the specific qualified financial institution in which said funds may be invested. The interest or other earnings from such investments or deposits shall be deposited in the current expense fund of the county and may be used for general county purposes. The investment or deposit and disposition of the interest or other earnings therefrom authorized by this paragraph shall not apply to such funds as may be prohibited by the state Constitution from being so invested or deposited.~~

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 36.29 RCW to read as follows:

The county treasurer may deduct the amounts necessary to reimburse the treasurer's office for the actual expenses the office incurs and to repay any county funds appropriated and expended for the initial administrative costs of establishing a county investment pool provided in RCW 36.29.022. Any credits or payments to political subdivisions shall be calculated and made in a manner which equitably reflects the differing amounts of the political subdivision's respective deposits in the county investment pool and the differing periods of time for which the amounts were placed in the county investment pool."

Senator McDermott moved that the following amendments by Senators McDermott and Zimmerman to the Committee on Governmental Operations amendment be considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 1, line 28, after "which" insert "are available in its treasury for expenditure but"

On page 1, beginning on line 29, strike ", and which are in the custody of the county treasurer or other municipal corporation treasurer" and insert "~~((and which are in the custody of the county treasurer or other municipal corporation treasurer))~~"

On page 1, line 33, strike "or deposited by such treasurer" and insert "~~((by such treasurer)) or deposited~~"

On page 4, line 28, after "deposited," insert "All amounts distributed and disbursed under RCW 84.56.230 and 84.56.280 shall be without interest."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Williams: "Senator McDermott, does this, in fact, then over turn a court decision?"

Senator McDermott: "Senator Williams, this clarifying language is consistent with past and current practices and reaffirms that the Legislature has always intended that interest income be retained by the counties as compensation for their assessment and tax collection responsibilities."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Bottiger, you are aware of that Seattle case where there is going to be quite--several thousand dollars in interest, quite a large sum--would legislation passed now after the first court decision, be retroactive, so it would affect that decision?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, I don't know. I don't know the case. I don't know the facts and I am sorry, I would not be able to give you an adequate answer to that question."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Halsan, you are aware of the recent court case where Seattle is going to recover interest from the county? Passing a law like this, would it be retroactive or would that case stand even though it's going to appeal?"

Senator Halsan: "I apologize, Senator Rasmussen, I was on the telephone when you asked the question. I would have to look through the book on that one."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, we are on the point of passing a law now and my question was, after the court has decided, would it have a retroactive effect if we pass the law?"

Senator Halsan: "Under general principles, laws are not retroactive unless specifically stated to be so. I am sure Senator Bottiger could respond to that as well."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, he didn't know either."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1129 was deferred.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bender, Senator Wojahn was excused.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 47, by Committee on Ways and Means/Appropriations (originally sponsored by Representatives May, Ferguson, Haugen, Schoon, Nutley, Jacobsen and Walker)

Including persons employed as public safety officers in the LEOFF retirement system.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 10, following line 28, insert the following:

"Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 257, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 21, chapter 294, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 41.26.046 are each amended to read as follows:

By July 31, 1971, the retirement board shall adopt minimum medical and health standards for membership coverage into the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system act. In adopting such standards the retirement board shall consider existing standards recommended by the international association of chiefs of police and the international association of fire fighters, and shall adopt equal or higher standards, together with appropriate standards and procedures to insure uniform compliance with this chapter. The standards when adopted shall be published and distributed to each employer, and each employer shall adopt certification procedures and such other procedures as are required to insure that no law enforcement officer or fire fighter receives membership coverage unless and until he has actually met minimum medical and health standards: PROVIDED, That an elected sheriff or an appointed chief of police ((or)), fire chief, or director of public safety shall not be required to meet the age standard. The retirement board may amend the minimum medical and health standards as experience indicates, even if the standards as so amended are lower or less rigid than those recommended by the international associations mentioned above. The cost of the medical examination contemplated by this section is to be paid by the employer."

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "41.26.030" insert "and 41.26.046"

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 396, by Representatives Cantwell, Walk, K. Wilson, Meyers, Heavey, P. King and Todd Authorizing counties and cities to establish transportation benefit districts.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bender, the following Committee on Transportation amendments were considered simultaneously and not adopted:

On page 1, line 26, after "section" strike "6, chapter _____ (HB 394)" and insert "7, chapter _____ (SHB 1037)"

On page 2, line 12, after "section" strike "6, chapter _____ (HB 394)" and insert "7, chapter _____ (SHB 1037)"

On page 7, line 1, after "chapter _____" strike "(HB 397)" and insert "(SB 5732)"

On motion of Senator Bender, the following amendments were considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 1, line 26, after "that", strike all material through "1987" on line 27 and insert "is (1) consistent with state, regional, and local transportation plans, (2) necessitated by existing or reasonably foreseeable congestion levels attributable to economic growth, and (3) partially funded by local government or private developer contributions, or a combination of such contributions"

On page 2, line 11, after "that", strike all material through "1987" on line 12 and insert "is (1) consistent with state, regional, and local transportation plans, (2) necessitated by existing or reasonably foreseeable congestion levels attributable to economic growth, and (3) partially funded by local government or private developer contributions, or a combination of such contributions"

On motion of Senator Bender, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 7, line 1, after "chapter ....." strike "(HB 397)" and insert "(SB 5732)"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bender, the rules were suspended. Engrossed House Bill No. 396, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Bender, does this bill contain the powers of eminent domain? Do the people have a chance--the voters have a chance to approve it? You said the voters would have approval of all this."

Senator Bender: "My understanding is that it still has the power of eminent domain in there--the local government has."

Senator Rasmussen: "Yes, and this is using the power of eminent domain for jointly working with developers?"

Senator Bender: "No, what happens is the people who are controlling these benefit districts are your local government officials, not the developers."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, the whole purpose of the bill is to go in and work with developers."

Senator Bender: "The purpose of the bill is to allow the private sector to work with local government and state government to try to improve the problems that are created by economic growth. This is one aspect in terms of creating these transportation benefit districts and then allowing the voters to levy on themselves, if they so decide through the ballot process, to levy either a type of LID or whatever they decide to do in terms of trying to finance these local projects around the state."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 396, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 396, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 29; nays, 19; excused, 1.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 630, by Committee on Transportation (originally sponsored by Representatives Zellinsky, Schmidt, Gallagher and Haugen)

Revising certain pilotage requirements.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Bender moved that the following Committee on Transportation amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 18, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 1, chapter 207, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 88.16.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board of pilotage commissioners of the state of Washington is hereby created and shall consist of the assistant secretary of marine transportation of the department of transportation of the state of Washington, or the assistant secretary's designee who shall be an employee of the ((department of transportation)) marine division, who shall be chairperson, and six members appointed by the governor and confirmed by the senate. Each of said appointed commissioners shall be appointed for a term of four years from the date of said member's commission. No person shall be eligible for appointment to said board unless that person is at the time of appointment eighteen years of age or over and a citizen of the United States and of the state of Washington. Two of said appointed commissioners shall be pilots licensed under this chapter and actively engaged in piloting upon the waters covered by this chapter for at least three years immediately preceding the time of appointment and while serving on the board. One pilot shall be from the Puget Sound pilotage district and one shall be from the

Grays Harbor pilotage district. Two of said appointed commissioners shall be actively engaged in the ownership, operation, or management of deep sea cargo and/or passenger carrying vessels for at least three years immediately preceding the time of appointment and while serving on the board. One of said shipping commissioners shall be a representative of American and one of foreign shipping. The remaining commissioners shall be persons interested in and concerned with pilotage, maritime safety, and marine affairs, with broad experience related to the maritime industry exclusive of experience as either a state licensed pilot or as a shipping representative.

~~(2) ((Pilotage commissioners holding commissions on September 21, 1977, shall continue to hold their office subject to reappointment by the governor and confirmation by the senate. The appointed commissioners shall continue to hold office for the period for which they are appointed and until their successors are appointed and qualified, except that the governor when first appointing commissioners after September 21, 1977, shall appoint the pilot representatives to terms of two and three years respectively, the shipping representatives to terms of two and three years respectively, and the remaining commissioners to terms of three and four years respectively.))~~ Any vacancy in an appointed position on the board shall be filled by the governor for the remainder of the unexpired term, subject to confirmation by the senate.

(3) Four members of the board shall constitute a quorum. At least one pilot, one shipping representative, and one public member must be present at every meeting. All commissioners and the chairperson shall have a vote.

Sec. 2. Section 14, chapter 18, Laws of 1935 as amended by section 9, chapter 15, Laws of 1967 and RCW 88.16.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Any member of the board shall have power to administer oaths in any matter before the board for consideration or inquiry and to issue subpoenas requiring witnesses to appear before the board. Such subpoenas shall be signed by a member of the board and issued in the name of the state of Washington and be served and returned, and mileage and witness fees shall be paid in like manner and effect as in a civil action. A witness wilfully disobeying such subpoena served upon ~~(him)~~ the witness shall be proceeded against upon complaint of the board to the attorney general or the prosecuting attorney of the county where ~~(his)~~ the attendance of the witness was demanded as for a contempt of the authority of the superior court of said county.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 18, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 2, chapter 207, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 88.16.050 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall apply to the pilotage districts of this state as defined in this section.

(1) "Puget Sound pilotage district", whenever used in this chapter, shall be construed to mean and include all the waters of the state of Washington inside the international boundary line between the state of Washington, the United States and the province of British Columbia, Canada and east of one hundred twenty-three degrees twenty-four minutes west longitude.

(2) "Grays Harbor pilotage district" shall include all inland waters, channels, waterways, and navigable tributaries within Grays Harbor and Willapa Harbor. The boundary line between Grays Harbor and Willapa Harbor and the high seas shall be ~~((a line drawn from Grays Harbor bar range rear light to Grays Harbor entrance lighted whistle buoy two; then to Grays Harbor light))~~ defined by the board.

Sec. 4. Section 6, chapter 18, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 13, chapter 337, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 88.16.120 are each amended to read as follows:

No pilot shall charge, collect or receive and no person, firm, corporation or association shall pay for pilotage or other services performed hereunder any greater, less or different amount, directly or indirectly, than the rates or charges herein established or which may be hereafter fixed by the board pursuant to this chapter. Any pilot, person, firm, corporation or association violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished pursuant to RCW 88.16.150 as now or hereafter amended, said prosecution to be conducted by the attorney general or the prosecuting attorney of any county wherein the offense or any part thereof was committed.

Sec. 5. Section 10, chapter 18, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 8, chapter 337, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 88.16.150 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In all cases where no other penalty is prescribed in this chapter, any violation of this chapter or of any rule or regulation of the board shall be punished as a gross misdemeanor, and all violations may be prosecuted in any court of competent jurisdiction in any county where the offense or any part thereof was committed. In any case where the offense was committed upon a ship, boat or vessel, and there is doubt as to the proper county, the same may be prosecuted in any county through any part of which the ship, boat or vessel passed, during the trip upon which the offense was committed. All fines collected for any violation of this chapter or any rule or regulation of the board shall within thirty days be paid by the official collecting the same to the state treasurer and shall be credited to the pilotage account: PROVIDED, That all fees, fines, forfeitures and penalties collected or assessed by a justice court because of the violation of a state law shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW as now exists or is later amended.

(2) Notwithstanding any other penalty imposed by this section, any person who shall violate the provisions of this chapter, shall be liable to a maximum civil penalty of five thousand dollars. The board may request the attorney general or the prosecuting attorney of the county in which any violation of this chapter occurs to bring an action for imposing the civil penalties provided for in this subsection.

Moneys collected from civil penalties shall be deposited in the pilotage account.

(3) Any master of a vessel who shall knowingly fail to inform the pilot dispatched to said vessel or any agent, owner, or operator, who shall knowingly fail to inform the pilot dispatcher, or any dispatcher who shall knowingly fail to inform the pilot actually dispatched to said vessel of any special directions mandated by the coast guard captain of the port under authority of the Ports and Waterways Safety Act of 1972, as amended, for the handling of such vessel shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 88.16 RCW to read as follows:

Any steamship company or agent may submit a request in writing to the board that a particular pilot not be assigned to pilot that company's vessels. The request shall be based on specific safety concerns of the steamship company or agent.

The board shall notify interested persons and hold a hearing on that request, and either approve or disapprove the request. If the request is approved, the board shall notify the affected pilot and give the pilot a specific list of vessels for which that pilot shall not provide pilotage services."

Senator Bottiger moved that the following amendment to the Committee on Transportation amendment be adopted:

On page 2, beginning on line 24, after "affairs," strike all material down to and including "representative." on line 28 and insert "~~((with broad experience related to the maritime industry exclusive of experience as either a state licensed pilot or as a shipping representative)) and shall not have been a state licensed pilot or an employee of a company which owns or operates deep sea cargo or passenger carrying vessels for ten years preceding the appointment and shall not have any direct financial interest related to pilotage or with a company which owns or operates deep sea cargo or passenger carrying vessels.~~"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Bottiger, I have a suspicion as to what this amendment is calculated to do. Is it your intention to affect the present makeup of the Board of Pilotage?"

Senator Bottiger: "It is not my intention. The current Board of Pilotage fits and there is a citizen member. The next appointment that would come up would be a citizen member. All of the current members sitting meet the requirements as the bill is reported out of committee."

Senator Talmadge: "I am talking about your amendment, Senator Bottiger. Is it your understanding your amendment would not disenfranchise any present member of the Board?"

Senator Bottiger: "That is my intention, that it not disenfranchise any member of the Board."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Senator Bottiger, is there any member of the Board that is not yet confirmed?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, I am not trying to get at any of the current members. As the new appointments come up--one side is the shippers and one side is the pilots, this is where they negotiate the rates and this is where the fees are charged and the agreements are made. I would like to have the tie breaker really represent neither side. Now, I've agreed to ten years past experience, but it is not my intent to get at Mr. Soriano or anyone else who I object to, because they didn't fit the cycle in the past."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Bottiger to the Committee on Transportation amendment.

The motion by Senator Bottiger carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator DeJarnatt moved that the following amendment by Senators DeJarnatt, Owen, Hansen, Bauer, Pullen, Benitz and Stratton to the Committee on Transportation amendment be adopted:

On page 7, line 23, after "misdemeanor," strike everything down to and including "services." on page 8, line 5

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators DeJarnatt, Owen, Hansen, Bauer, Pullen, Benitz and Stratton to the Committee on Transportation amendment.

The motion by Senator DeJarnatt failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Transportation amendment, as amended.

The motion by Senator Bender carried, and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bender, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 630, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 630, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 630, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 2; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, Metcalf, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vogndild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Zimmerman - 46.

Voting nay: Senators Moore, Pullen - 2.

Excused: Senator Wojahn - 1.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 630, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 698, by Representatives Nutley, Ferguson, Madsen and S. Wilson

Authorizing collection by county treasurers of various local government charges.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Tanner moved that the following amendment by Senators Tanner, Zimmerman and Bottiger be adopted:

On page 1, after line 18, insert the following:

Real or personal property owned by a nonprofit organization, association, or corporation in connection with the operation of a public assembly hall or meeting place is exempt from taxation. The area exempt under this section includes the building or buildings, the land under the buildings, and an additional area necessary for parking, not exceeding a total of one acre: PROVIDED, That for property essentially unimproved except for restroom facilities and structures on such property which has been used primarily for annual community celebration events for at least ten years, such exempt property shall not exceed twenty-nine acres.

To qualify for this exemption the property must be used exclusively for public gatherings and be available to all organizations or persons desiring to use the property, but the owner may impose conditions and restrictions which are necessary for the safekeeping of the property and promote the purposes of this exemption. Membership shall not be a prerequisite for the use of the property.

The use of the property for pecuniary gain or to promote business activities, except fund raising activities conducted by a nonprofit organization and except annual community celebration events if the proceeds of the events are used exclusively for the purposes for which the nonprofit organization, association, or corporation is organized, nullifies the exemption otherwise available for the property for the assessment year. The exemption is not nullified by the collection of rent or donations if the amount is reasonable and does not exceed maintenance and operation expenses created by the user.

The department of revenue shall narrowly construe this exemption and shall annually report to the legislature the names of organizations receiving such property tax exemptions.

Sec. 3. Section 7, chapter 40, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. as last amended by section 7, chapter 220, Laws of 1984 and RCW 84.36.805 are each amended to read as follows:

In order to be exempt pursuant to RCW 84.36.030, 84.36.035, 84.36.037, 84.36.040, 84.36.045, 84.36.047, 84.36.050, 84.36.060, 84.36.350, and 84.36.480, the nonprofit organizations, associations or corporations shall satisfy the following conditions:

(1) The property is used exclusively for the actual operation of the activity for which exemption is granted and does not exceed an amount reasonably necessary for that purpose, except:

(a) The loan or rental of the property does not subject the property to tax if:

(i) Except for the exemption under RCW 84.36.037, the rents and donations received for the use of the portion of the property are reasonable and do not exceed the maintenance and operation expenses attributable to the portion of the property loaned or rented; and

(ii) Except for the exemption under RCW 84.36.037, the property would be exempt from tax if owned by the organization to which it is loaned or rented;

(2) The property is irrevocably dedicated to the purpose for which exemption has been granted, and on the liquidation, dissolution, or abandonment by said organization, association, or corporation, said property will not inure directly or indirectly to the benefit of any shareholder or individual, except a nonprofit organization, association, or corporation which too would be entitled to property tax exemption: PROVIDED, That the provision of this subsection shall not apply to those qualified for exemption pursuant to RCW 84.36.040 if the property used for the purpose stated is either leased or rented;

(3) The facilities and services are available to all regardless of race, color, national origin or ancestry;

(4) The organization, association, or corporation is duly licensed or certified where such licensing or certification is required by law or regulation;

(5) Property sold to organizations, associations, or corporations with an option to be repurchased by the seller shall not qualify for exempt status;

(6) The director of the department of revenue shall have access to its books in order to determine whether such organization, association, or corporation is exempt from taxes within the intent of RCW 84.36.030, 84.36.035, 84.36.037, 84.36.040, 84.36.045, 84.36.047, 84.36.050, 84.36.060, 84.36.350, and 84.36.480.*

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Tanner, Zimmerman and Bottiger.

The motion by Senator Tanner carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Halsan, the following title amendment was adopted:

On motion of Senator Halsan, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 698, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Bill No. 698, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of House Bill No. 698, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; excused, 1.

Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Zimmerman - 48.

Excused: Senator Wojahn - 1.

HOUSE BILL NO. 698, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 83, by Committee on Transportation (originally sponsored by Representatives Baugher, Prince, Grant, Lewis, Scott, Ballard, J. Williams, Jacobsen, S. Wilson, Lux, Basich, Patrick, Walk, Gallagher, Zellinsky, Haugen, Schmidt, Betzoff, Day, Braddock, McMullen, Spanel, Rayburn, Holm, Heavey, Jesernig, P. King, Fisch, Taylor, Fuhrman, Ferguson, Bumgarner, McLean, Walker, D. Sommers, Schoon, May, Miller, Rasmussen, Winsley, Nealey, Silver, C. Smith and Unsoeld)

Including on a driver's record only accidents in which the driver was at fault.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Smitherman moved that the following Committee on Transportation amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 6, chapter 169, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 1, chapter 369, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 46.29.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter, requiring deposit of security and suspensions for failure to deposit security, subject to certain exemptions, shall apply to the driver and owner of any vehicle of a type subject to registration under the motor vehicle laws of this state which is in any manner involved in an accident within this state, which accident has resulted in bodily injury or death of any person or damage to the property of any one person (~~of three hundred dollars or more~~) to an apparent extent equal to or greater than the minimum amount established by rule adopted by the director. The director shall adopt rules establishing the property damage threshold at which the provisions of this chapter apply with respect to the deposit of security and suspensions for failure to deposit security. Beginning October 1, 1987, the property damage threshold shall be five hundred dollars. The thresholds shall be revised when necessary, but not more frequently than every two years. The revisions shall only be for the purpose of recognizing economic changes as reflected by an inflationary index recommended by the office of financial management. The revisions shall be guided by the change in the index for the time period since the last revision and by the threshold established by the chief of the Washington state patrol for the filing of accident reports as provided in RCW 46.52.030.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 11, Laws of 1979 as last amended by section 1, chapter 30, Laws of 1981 and RCW 46.52.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The driver of any vehicle involved in an accident resulting in injury to or death of any person or damage to the property of any one person to an apparent extent (~~of three hundred dollars or more~~) equal to or greater than the minimum amount established by rule adopted by the chief of the Washington state patrol in accordance with subsection (5) of this section, shall, within twenty-four hours after such accident, make a written report of such accident to the chief of police of the city or town if such accident occurred within an incorporated city or town or the county sheriff or state patrol if such accident occurred outside incorporated cities and towns. Nothing in this subsection prohibits accident reports from being filed by drivers where damage to property is less than the minimum amount.

(2) ~~(If such accident was not investigated by a law enforcement officer.)~~ The original of such report shall be immediately forwarded by the authority receiving such report to the chief of the Washington state patrol at Olympia, Washington, and the second copy of such report to be forwarded to the department of licensing at Olympia, Washington.

(3) ~~(If such accident was investigated by a law enforcement officer, the original of each driver's report required by subsection (1) of this section shall be retained by the local law enforcement agency where the accident occurred, and the second copy shall be forwarded to the department of licensing at Olympia, Washington.~~

(4)) Any law enforcement officer who investigates an accident for which a driver's report is required under subsection (1) of this section shall submit an investigator's report as required by RCW 46.52.070.

~~((5))~~ (4) The chief of the Washington state patrol may require any driver of any vehicle involved in an accident, of which report must be made as provided in this section, to file supplemental reports whenever the original report in his opinion is insufficient, and may likewise require witnesses of any such accident to render reports. For this purpose, the chief of the Washington state patrol shall prepare and, upon request, supply to any police department, coroner, sheriff, and any other suitable agency or individual, sample forms of accident reports required hereunder, which reports shall be upon a form devised by the chief of the Washington state patrol and shall call for sufficiently detailed information to disclose all material facts with reference to the accident to be reported thereon, including the location, the cause, the conditions then existing, and the persons and vehicles involved, personal injury or death, if any, the amounts of property damage claimed, the total number of vehicles involved, whether the vehicles were legally parked, legally standing, or moving, and whether such vehicles were occupied at the time of the accident. Every required accident report shall be made on a form prescribed by the chief of the Washington state patrol and each authority charged with the duty of receiving such reports shall provide sufficient report forms in compliance with the form devised. The report forms shall be designated so as to provide that a copy may be retained by the reporting person.

(5) The chief of the Washington state patrol shall adopt rules establishing the accident-reporting threshold for property damage accidents. Beginning October 1, 1987, the accident-reporting threshold for property damage accidents shall be five hundred dollars. The accident-reporting threshold for property damage accidents shall be revised when necessary, but not more frequently than every two years. The revisions shall only be for the purpose of recognizing economic changes as reflected by an inflationary index recommended by the office of financial management. The revisions shall be guided by the change in the index for the time period since the last revision.

Sec. 3. Section 46.52.120, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 99, Laws of 1984 and RCW 46.52.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The director shall keep a case record on every motor vehicle driver licensed under the laws of this state, together with information on each driver, showing all the convictions and findings of traffic infractions certified by the courts, together with an index cross-reference record of each accident reported relating to such individual with a brief statement of the cause of the accident. The chief of the Washington state patrol shall furnish the index cross-reference record to the director, with reference to each driver involved in the reported accidents.

(2) The case record shall be maintained in two parts.

(a) One part shall be the employment driving record of the person. This part shall include all motor vehicle accidents in which the person is involved while the person is driving a ((commercial)) motor vehicle as an employee of another or an owner-operator, all convictions of the person for violation of the motor vehicle laws while the person is driving a ((commercial)) motor vehicle as an employee of another or an owner-operator, and all findings that the person has committed a traffic infraction while the person is driving a ((commercial)) motor vehicle as an employee of another or an owner-operator. The same reports shall be entered when the person is a law enforcement officer or fire fighter as defined in RCW 41.26.030, or a state patrol officer, and is driving an official police, state patrol, or fire department vehicle in the course of their official duties.

(b) The other part shall include all other accidents, convictions, and findings that the person has committed a traffic infraction.

(3) Such records shall be for the confidential use of the director and the chief of the Washington state patrol and for such police officers or other cognizant public officials as may be designated by law. Such case records shall not be offered as evidence in any court except in case appeal is taken from the order of the director, suspending, revoking, canceling, or refusing a vehicle driver's license.

(4) The director shall tabulate and analyze vehicle driver's case records and suspend, revoke, cancel, or refuse a vehicle driver's license to a person when it is deemed from facts contained in the case record of such person that it is for the best interest of public safety that such person be denied the privilege of operating a motor vehicle. Whenever the director orders the vehicle driver's license of any such person suspended, revoked, or canceled, or refuses the issuance of a vehicle driver's license, such suspension, revocation, cancellation, or refusal is final and effective unless appeal from the decision of the director is taken as provided by law."

On motion of Senator Smitherman, the following amendment to the Committee on Transportation amendment was adopted:

On page 7, after line 31, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 46.20 RCW to read as follows:

The department may provide a method to distinguish the driver's license of a person who is under the age of twenty-one from the driver's license of a person who is twenty-one years of age or older.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 8, chapter 167, Laws of 1967, section 42, chapter 292, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.20.011;

(2) Section 46.20.102, chapter 12, Laws of 1961, section 12, chapter 121, Laws of 1965 ex. sess., section 2, chapter 167, Laws of 1967, section 5, chapter 61, Laws of 1979 and RCW 46.20.102; and Changing apportionment provisions for funds in the urban arterial trust account.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bender, the following Committee on Transportation amendment was adopted:

On page 3, after line 25, insert the following:

"Sec. 2. Section 6, chapter 171, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 126, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 47.26.450 are each amended to read as follows:

At the time the urban arterial board reviews the six-year program of each county and city each even-numbered year, it shall consider and shall approve for inclusion in its recommended budget, as required by RCW 47.26.440, the portion of the urban arterial construction program scheduled to be performed during the biennial period beginning the following July 1st. Subject to the appropriations actually approved by the legislature, the board shall as soon as feasible approve urban arterial trust account funds to be spent during the ensuing biennium for preliminary proposals in priority sequence as established pursuant to RCW 47.26.240. In the case of projects whose total cost exceeds one million dollars as reflected in the six-year program, the agency with jurisdiction shall furnish to the board a value engineering study performed by an interagency team approved by the board, to determine whether the proposed improvement provides a cost-effective solution for the project before the board may approve urban arterial trust funds for either the preliminary or construction phase of the project. The board may authorize a variance from the value engineering study upon a determination that the study is not warranted. The board may also require a value engineering study for a project whose total cost is less than one million dollars upon a determination by the board that the study is warranted.

The board shall authorize urban arterial trust account funds for the construction project portion of a project previously authorized for a preliminary proposal in the sequence in which the preliminary proposal has been completed and the construction project is to be placed under contract. At such time the board may reserve urban arterial trust account funds for expenditure in future years as may be necessary for completion of preliminary proposals and construction projects to be commenced in the ensuing biennium.

The urban arterial board may, within the constraints of available urban arterial trust funds, consider additional projects for authorization upon a clear and conclusive showing by the submitting local government that the proposed project is of an emergent nature and that its need was unable to be anticipated at the time the six-year program of the local government was developed. Such proposed projects shall be evaluated on the basis of the priority rating factors specified in RCW 47.26.220."

On motion of Senator Bender, the following title amendment was adopted:
On line 2 of the title, after "47.26.190" and before the period, insert "and 47.26.450"

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of House Bill No. 1205 and the pending amendment by Senator West on page 1, line 34, to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Bender, the President finds that House Bill No. 1205 is a measure providing for extended grant payments from the water quality account which are not to exceed fifty percent for eligible water pollution control projects.

"The amendment proposed by Senator West to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment provides for appropriations from the water quality account to be fifty percent matching grants for sole-source aquifer protection projects.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does not change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The amendment by Senator West to the committee amendment was ruled in order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of House Bill No. 1205 was deferred.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bender, Senator Rinehart was excused.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate commenced consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 413.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 413, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Representatives Crane, Armstrong and P. King)

Providing additional grounds for the modification of child support.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following Committee on Judiciary amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 17, chapter 157, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 26.09.170 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (7) of RCW 26.09.070, the provisions of any decree respecting maintenance or support may be modified only as to installments accruing subsequent to the motion for modification and, except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, only upon a showing of a substantial change of circumstances. The provisions as to property disposition may not be revoked or modified, unless the court finds the existence of conditions that justify the reopening of a judgment under the laws of this state.

(2) Unless otherwise agreed in writing or expressly provided in the decree the obligation to pay future maintenance is terminated upon the death of either party or the remarriage of the party receiving maintenance.

(3) Unless otherwise agreed in writing or expressly provided in the decree, provisions for the support of a child are terminated by emancipation of the child or by the death of the parent obligated to support the child.

(4) An order of child support may be modified one year or more after it has been entered without showing a substantial change of circumstances:

(a) If the order in practice works a severe economic hardship on either party or the child;

(b) If a party requests an adjustment in an order for child support which was based on guidelines which determined the amount of support according to the child's age, and the child is no longer in the age category on which the current support amount was based;

(c) If a child is still in high school, upon a finding that there is a need to extend support beyond the eighteenth birthday to complete high school; or

(d) To add an automatic adjustment of support provision consistent with RCW 26.09.100.

(5) An obligor's voluntary unemployment or voluntary underemployment, by itself, is not a substantial change of circumstances.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 26.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A proceeding for the modification of an order of child support shall commence with the filing of a petition and a supporting financial affidavit. The petition and affidavit shall be in substantially the form prescribed by the administrator for the courts. There shall be a fee of twenty dollars for the filing of a petition for modification of dissolution.

(2) The petitioner shall serve upon the other party the summons, a copy of the petition and affidavit, and a blank copy of a financial affidavit in the form prescribed by the administrator for the courts. If the modification proceeding is the first action filed in this state, service shall be made by personal service. If the decree to be modified was entered in this state, service shall be by personal service or by any form of mail requiring a return receipt. If the support obligation has been assigned to the state pursuant to RCW 74.20.330 and notice has been filed with the court, the summons, petition, and affidavit shall also be served on the office of support enforcement. Proof of service shall be filed with the court.

(3) The responding party's answer and completed financial affidavit shall be served and the answer filed within twenty days after service of the petition or sixty days if served out of state. The responding party's failure to file an answer within the time required shall result in entry of a default judgment for the petitioner.

(4) At any time after responsive pleadings are filed, either party may schedule the matter for hearing.

(5) Unless both parties stipulate to arbitration or the presiding judge authorizes oral testimony pursuant to subsection (6) of this section, a petition for modification of an order of child support shall be heard by the court on affidavits only.

(6) A party seeking authority to present oral testimony on the petition to modify a support order shall file an appropriate motion not later than ten days after the time of notice of hearing. Affidavits and exhibits setting forth the reasons oral testimony is necessary to a just adjudication of the issues shall accompany the petition. The affidavits and exhibits must demonstrate the extraordinary features of the case. Factors which may be considered include, but are not limited to: (a) Substantial questions of credibility on a major issue; (b) insufficient or inconsistent discovery materials not correctable by further discovery; or (c) particularly complex circumstances requiring expert testimony.

(7) The administrator for the courts shall develop and prepare, in consultation with interested persons, model forms or notices for the use of the procedure provided by this section, including a notice advising of the right of a party to proceed with or without benefit of counsel.

Sec. 3. Section 10, chapter 157, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 26.09.100 are each amended to read as follows:

In a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, declaration of invalidity, maintenance, or child support, after considering all relevant factors but without regard to marital misconduct, the court may order either or both parents owing a duty of support to any child of the marriage dependent upon either or both spouses to pay an amount reasonable or necessary for his support. The court may require annual adjustments of support based upon changes in a party's income or the child's needs, or based upon changes in an index or schedule.

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "orders;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 26.09.170 and 26.09.100; and adding a new section to chapter 26.09 RCW."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 413, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 413, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 413, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Decchio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vogtild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Zimmerman - 47.

Excused: Senators Rinehart, Wojahn - 2.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 413, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of House Bill No. 1205 and the pending amendment by Senator West on page 1, line 34, to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment, ruled in order earlier today.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator West to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

The amendment by Senator West to the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Anderson moved that the following amendment by Senators Anderson and Conner to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

On page 1, after line 34 insert the following:

Sec. 2. Section 8, chapter 3, laws of 1986 and RCW 70.146.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The department of ecology ((may)) shall provide for a phased in compliance schedule for secondary treatment which addresses local factors that may impede compliance with secondary treatment requirements of the federal clean water act. Compliance schedules may be extended up to December 31, 1995.

In determining the length of time to be granted for compliance, the department shall consider the ((criteria specified in the federal clean water act)) following:

(1) The quality of receiving waters and any potential impact on public health;
 (2) The amount of grant or loan moneys available to assist the public body in the planning, design, acquisition, construction, and improvement of water pollution control facilities and related activities;

(3) The cost to ratepayers if they had to finance water pollution control facilities and activities without state assistance; and

(4) The economic condition of the county or city, or if it is another public body under consideration, the economic condition of the city or county in which the public body is located.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, I raise the point of order that the amendment by Senators Anderson and Conner expands the scope and object of House Bill No. 1205. House Bill No. 1205 started out as a consent calendar bill. The amendment by Senator Anderson deals with compliance schedules for compliance with secondary treatment. It deals with the issue of quality of the receiving waters into which pollutants would be discharged. I think it clearly expands the scope and object of the bill that dealt with the allocation of money from a water quality account."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of House Bill No. 1205 was deferred.

President Pro Tempore Rasmussen assumed the chair.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate commenced consideration of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 456.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 456, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Representatives Spanel, Ebersole, Dellwo, Zellinsky, P. King, Wang, Holm, Valle, Haugen, Cole, Appelwick, O'Brien, Pruitt, Hine, Locke, Winsley, Rayburn, Unsoeld, Rasmussen, K. Wilson, Sprenkle, R. King, McMullen and Miller) (by request of Governor Gardner)

Establishing programs to enhance students' ability to learn.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Gaspard moved that the following Committee on Education amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The long-term social, community welfare, and economic interests of the state will be served by an investment in our children. Conclusive studies and experiences show that providing children with certain developmental experiences and effective parental guidance can greatly improve their performance in school as well as increase the likelihood of their success as adults. National studies have also confirmed that special attention to, and educational assistance for, children and their school environment is the most effective way in which to meet the state's social and economic goals.

The legislature intends to enhance the readiness to learn of certain children and students by: Providing for an expansion of the state early childhood education and assistance program for children from low-income families and establishing an adult literacy program for certain parents; assisting school districts to establish elementary counseling programs; instituting a program to address learning problems due to drug and alcohol use and abuse; and establishing a program directed at students who leave school before graduation.

The legislature intends further to establish programs that will allow for parental, business, and community involvement in assisting the school systems throughout the state to enhance the ability of children to learn.

PART I
READINESS TO LEARN

Sec. 101. Section 6, chapter 418, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28A.34A.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall adopt rules under chapter 34.04 RCW for the establishment of the preschool program, not later than six months after the effective date of this act. Federal head start program criteria, including set aside provisions for the children of seasonal and migrant farmworkers and native American populations living either on or off reservation, to the extent practicable, shall be considered as guidelines for the state preschool early childhood assistance program.

The department in developing rules for the preschool program shall consult with the advisory committee, and shall consider such factors as coordination with existing head start and other preschool programs, the preparation necessary for instructors, qualifications of instructors, adequate space and equipment, and special transportation needs. The rules shall specifically require the preschool programs to provide for parental involvement at a level not less than that provided under the federal head start program criteria.

Sec. 102. Section 9, chapter 418, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28A.34A.090 are each amended to read as follows:

For the ~~((duration))~~ purposes of this ~~((act))~~ chapter, the department may award state support under RCW 28A.34A.010 through 28A.34A.070 to increase the numbers of eligible children assisted by the federal or state-supported preschool programs in this state by up to five thousand additional children. Priority shall be given to groups in those geographical areas which include a high percentage of families qualifying under the federal "at risk" criteria. The overall program funding level shall be based on an average grant ~~((of no more than two thousand seven hundred dollars))~~ per child ~~((to cover all))~~ consistent with state appropriations made for program costs: PROVIDED, That programs addressing special needs of selected groups or communities shall be recognized in the department's rules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 103. Section 15, chapter 418, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28A.34A.902 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 104. (1) Parents can be the most effective teachers for their children. Providing illiterate or semilliterate parents with opportunities to acquire basic skills and child development knowledge will enhance their ability to assist and support their children in the learning process, and will enhance children's learning experiences in the formal education environment by providing children with the motivation and positive home environment which contribute to enhanced academic performance.

(2) Sections 105 through 109 of this act may be known and cited as project even start.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 105. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definition in this section shall apply throughout sections 106 through 109 of this act.

"Parent" or "parents" means a parent who has less than an eighth grade ability in one or more of the basic skill areas of reading, language arts, or mathematics, as measured by a standardized test, and who has a child or children enrolled in: (1) The state early childhood education and assistance program; (2) a federal head start program; (3) a state or federally funded elementary school basic skills program serving students who have scored below the national average on a standardized test in one or more of the basic skill areas of reading, language arts, or mathematics; or (4) a cooperative nursery school at a community college or vocational technical institute.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 106. (1) The superintendent of public instruction, in consultation with the department of community development, the department of social and health services, the state board for community college education, and community-based, nonprofit providers of adult literacy services, shall develop an adult literacy program to serve eligible parents as defined under section 105 of this act. The program shall give priority to serving parents with children who have not yet enrolled in school or are in grades kindergarten through three.

(2) In addition to providing basic skills instruction to eligible parents, the program may include other program components which may include transportation, child care, and such other directly necessary activities as may be necessary to accomplish the purposes of sections 105 through 109 of this act.

(3) Parents who elect to participate in training or work programs, as a condition of receiving public assistance, shall have the hours spent in parent participation programs, conducted as part of a federal head start program, or the state early childhood education and assistance program under chapter 28A.34A RCW, or parent literacy programs under sections 105 through 109 of this act, counted toward the fulfillment of their work and training obligation for the receipt of public assistance.

(4) State funds as may be appropriated for project even start shall be used solely to expand and complement, but not supplant, federal funds for adult literacy programs.

(5) The superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules as necessary to carry out the purposes of sections 105 through 109 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 107. The superintendent of public instruction is authorized and directed, whenever possible, to fund or cooperatively work with existing adult literacy programs and parenting related programs offered through the common school and community college systems, vocational-technical institutes, or community-based, nonprofit organizations to provide services for eligible parents before developing and funding new adult literacy programs to carry out the purposes of project even start.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 108. The superintendent of public instruction shall evaluate and submit to the legislature by January 15, 1988, a report on the effectiveness of project even start. The initial report shall include, if appropriate, recommendations relating to the expansion of project even start. The superintendent shall submit a report to the legislature on project even start every two years after the initial report.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 109. The superintendent of public instruction, through the state clearinghouse for education information, shall collect and disseminate to all school districts and other interested parties information about effective parent literacy programs under project even start.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 110. Sections 105 through 109 of this act are each added to Title 28A RCW.

PART II
THE SCHOOL ENVIRONMENT

NEW SECTION. Sec. 201. A student's ability to learn can be affected by a number of factors, including but not limited to: Parental involvement and support, child abuse and neglect, poverty, family transiency, drug and alcohol abuse, poor nutrition, peer influence, and other factors. Such factors can manifest themselves in forms such as absenteeism and truancy from school, drug and alcohol abuse, delinquency, and dropping out. The legislature finds that the provision of counseling services at the elementary level will enhance the state's commitment to providing comprehensive early childhood education programs and services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 202. (1) The superintendent of public instruction may grant funds to school districts, from funds appropriated for the purposes of this section, to help districts establish elementary school counseling programs. Grants provided under this section shall be distributed as follows:

(a) For each elementary school building with over three hundred students, one counselor shall be provided; and

(b) For each elementary school building with three hundred or fewer students, one half-time counselor shall be provided.

(2) School districts may enter into cooperative agreements or contract for the provision of counseling services in elementary schools with the appropriate educational service district, or with qualified individuals meeting the requirements of chapter 18.83 RCW, or with a local provider of health care services meeting the requirements of chapter 71.24 RCW: PROVIDED, That when school districts contract for services or enter into cooperative arrangements to provide services, the service provider shall spend the majority of the total time contracted for within the school building or buildings for which services are being provided to assure that the service provider is knowledgeable of the unique nature of the individual school and the families and children served by the school.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 203. (1) The superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules as necessary relating to grant application requirements and to the selection of school districts to receive grant awards to carry out the purposes of section 201 of this act.

(2) The rules shall permit school districts to submit a joint application for the purpose of establishing a cooperative elementary counseling program.

(3) The superintendent of public instruction may appoint an advisory committee composed of persons representing, including but not limited to: School directors, school district administrators, elementary building principals, elementary teachers, elementary school counselors, parents, and community mental health professionals to advise the superintendent of the development of grant application requirements and criteria relating to the selection of districts and the award of grant funds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 204. Sections 202 and 203 of this act are each added to Title 28A RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 205. The citizens of the state of Washington recognize the serious impact of alcohol and drug abuse on a student's self-concept and on the ability of students to learn. Therefore, the substance abuse awareness program is established: (1) To aid students in the development of skills that will assist them in making informed decisions concerning the use of drugs and alcohol; (2) to contribute to the development and support of a drug-free educational environment; and (3) to help school districts in the development of comprehensive drug and alcohol policies leading to the implementation of drug and alcohol programs that contain prevention, intervention, and aftercare components.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 206. The superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules to implement this section and sections 207 through 211 of this act and shall distribute to school districts on a grant basis, from moneys appropriated for the purposes of this section and sections 207 through 211 of this act, funds for the development and implementation of educational and disciplinary policies leading to the implementation of prevention, intervention, and aftercare activities regarding the use and abuse of drugs and alcohol. The following program areas may be funded through moneys made available for this section and sections 207 through 211 of this act, including but not limited to:

- (1) Comprehensive program development;
- (2) Prevention programs;
- (3) Elementary identification and intervention programs;
- (4) Secondary identification and intervention programs;
- (5) School drug and alcohol core team development and training;
- (6) Development of referral and preassessment procedures;
- (7) Aftercare;
- (8) Drug and alcohol specialist;
- (9) Staff, parent, student, and community training; and

(10) Coordination with law enforcement, community service providers, other school districts, educational service districts, and drug and alcohol treatment facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 207. (1) School districts interested in implementing a substance abuse awareness program shall file an application for state funds with the superintendent of public instruction. The application shall include the following:

(a) A letter of commitment from the board of directors to adopt a comprehensive written policy on drugs and alcohol, and a proposed substance abuse awareness program and implementation plan, within six months of receipt of state funding. The comprehensive policy and program shall address the issues of prevention, intervention, aftercare, and disciplinary policies, and shall emphasize cooperation and coordination of services among public and private agencies, including law enforcement agencies. If the district's board of directors has already adopted a comprehensive policy and plan, the district shall submit a copy of the comprehensive policy and plan;

(b) A letter of commitment from the board of directors to appoint a school and community substance abuse advisory committee if such a committee has not been established. The advisory committee shall include representatives of at least the following: The school district instructional staff, students, parents, state and local government law enforcement personnel, and the county coordinator of alcohol and drug treatment, or his or her designee, or a representative of other treatment service providers. If the district has already established an advisory committee but its membership does not include members representing any of the groups identified in this subsection, the board of directors shall appoint an additional member or members, if necessary, accordingly. The advisory committee shall work to help coordinate school district programs and services with programs and services available within the community and thereby contribute toward the development of a continuum of prevention, intervention, and after care services within the total community and to avoid the duplication of services; and

(c) A copy of the district's assessment of the scope of the problem of drug and alcohol abuse within the district, as such use and abuse by individuals affects the learning environment in each school.

(2) The district shall demonstrate its plan to provide local matching funds of an amount equal to at least twenty percent of the state funds that the district is eligible to receive. Matching funds may be funds received from federal programs, other funds available to the district, or in-kind contributions; PROVIDED, That in-kind contributions shall be not more than one-half of the minimum matching funds required.

(3) The district shall provide an outline of procedures for evaluating the effectiveness of the district's substance abuse awareness program.

(4) Joint applications and programs may be undertaken by school districts. Districts which elect to participate in a joint program may file a joint application and establish a joint school and community substance abuse advisory committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 208. School districts may apply on an annual basis to the superintendent of public instruction for continued funding of a local substance abuse awareness program meeting the provisions of sections 206 through 211 of this act and shall submit an application that includes: (1) Verification of the adoption of comprehensive district policies; (2) proposed changes to the district's substance abuse awareness program, where necessary; (3) proposed areas of expenditures; (4) the district's plan to provide matching funds of an amount to equal at least twenty percent of the state funds for which the district is eligible; (5) a plan for program evaluation; and (6) a report evaluating the effectiveness of the previously funded program one year after the program is implemented, including all the information required in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 209. The superintendent of public instruction shall appoint a substance abuse advisory committee comprised of: Representatives of certificated and noncertificated staff; administrators; parents; students; school directors; the bureau of alcohol and substance abuse within the department of social and health services; the traffic safety commission; and county coordinators of alcohol and drug treatment. The committee shall advise the superintendent on matters of local program development, coordination, and evaluation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 210. The superintendent of public instruction, through the state clearinghouse for education information, shall collect and disseminate to all school districts and other interested parties information about effective substance abuse programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 211. If any part of sections 206 through 210 of this act is found to be in conflict with federal requirements which are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state, the conflicting part of sections 206 through 210 of this act is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of the conflict and with respect to the agencies directly affected, and such finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of sections 206 through 210 of this act in its application to the agencies concerned. The rules under sections 206 through 210 of this act shall meet federal requirements which are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 212. Sections 206 through 211 of this act are added to Title 28A RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 213. (1) To encourage youth who are considering dropping out of school to remain in school, or youth who have dropped out of school to return to school, it is the intent of the legislature to aid in the planning and implementation of educational programs for such youth. Furthermore, in recognition that effective assistance at the elementary school level will likely reduce the need for dropout intervention at the secondary level, the legislature intends to encourage early identification of and assistance to students not succeeding in school in the elementary grades.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 214. (1) The superintendent of public instruction is authorized and shall grant funds to selected school districts to assist in the development of student motivation, retention, and retrieval programs for youth who are at risk of dropping out of school or who have dropped out of school. The purpose of the state assistance for such school district programs is to provide districts the necessary start-up money which will encourage the development by districts or cooperatives of districts of integrated programs for students who are at risk of dropping out of school or who have dropped out of school.

(2) Funds as may be appropriated for the purposes of this section and sections 215 through 219 of this act shall be distributed to qualifying school districts for initial planning, development, and implementation of educational programs designed to motivate, retain, and retrieve students.

(3) Funds shall be distributed among qualifying school districts on a per pupil basis. To determine the per pupil allocation, the total appropriation for this program shall be divided by the total student population of all qualifying districts as determined on October 1, 1987. The resulting dollar amount shall be multiplied by the total student population of each qualifying school district to determine the maximum grant that each qualifying school district is eligible to receive. No district may receive more than is necessary for planning and implementation activities outlined in the district's grant application.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 215. (1) In distributing grant funds, the superintendent of public instruction shall first award funds to each school district with a dropout rate which, as determined by the superintendent of public instruction, is over time in the top twenty-five percent of all districts' dropout rates. The superintendent shall give priority consideration among such qualifying districts to granting funds to those districts where no student motivation, retention, and retrieval programs currently exist.

(2) The superintendent may grant funds to a cooperative of districts which may include one district, or more, whose dropout rate is not in the top twenty-five percent of all districts' dropout rates.

(3) The sum of all grants awarded pursuant to sections 214 through 219 of this act for a particular biennium shall not exceed the amount appropriated by the legislature for such purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 216. (1) A district which receives planning funds before the effective date of this section may receive program development or implementation funds.

(2) A district or cooperative of districts shall be eligible to receive program implementation funds once every two years. Funds from each subsequent application by a district or cooperative of districts, however, shall be used to expand the dropout program to additional grades or another school or to initiate a new dropout program. Grants shall not be used to supplant funds of an existing program. The superintendent shall give priority to the effectiveness of district plans and implementation programs before granting additional awards to a school district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 217. The superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules to carry out the purposes of sections 214 through 219 of this act. The rules adopted by the superintendent of public instruction shall include but not be limited to:

(1) Providing for an annual evaluation of the effectiveness of the program;

(2) Requiring that no less than twenty percent of the moneys from the program implementation grant be used for identification and intervention programs in elementary and middle schools;

(3) Establishing procedures allowing school districts to claim basic education allocation funds for students attending a program conducted under sections 214 through 219 of this act outside the regular school-year calendar, to the extent such attendance is in lieu of attendance within the regular school-year calendar; and

(4) Evaluating the number of children within an applicant district who fail to complete their elementary and secondary education with priority going to districts with dropout rates over time in the top twenty-five percent of all districts' dropout rates.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 218. The governor and superintendent of public instruction shall jointly appoint the governor's school dropout prevention task force, cochaired by the governor and the superintendent. The purpose of the task force shall be to make the public aware of the high number of Washington youth who drop out of school, the lifelong economic impact of the decision to drop out, and to encourage all segments of the community to devise new strategies to encourage youth to remain in school.

The task force shall be made up of respected representatives from business, sports, education, the media, students, the legislature, and other sectors of the community. The task force shall promote staying in school through public exposure of the problem and encouraging all sectors of the community to become involved in addressing this serious problem.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 219. The superintendent of public instruction, through the state clearinghouse for education information, shall collect and disseminate to all school districts and other interested parties information about effective student motivation, retention, and retrieval programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 220. The legislature recognizes that educational clinics provide a necessary and effective service for students who have dropped out of common school programs. Educational clinics have demonstrated success in preparing such youth for productive roles in society and are an integral part of the state's program to address the needs of students who have dropped out of school. The superintendent of public instruction shall distribute funds, consistent with legislative appropriations, allocated specifically for educational clinics in accord with chapter 28A.97 RCW. The legislature encourages school districts to explore cooperation with educational clinics.

Sec. 221. Section 14, chapter 278, Laws of 1984 and RCW 28A.16.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Commencing with the 1987-1988 school year, supplementary funds as may be provided by the state for this program, in accordance with RCW 28A.41.162, shall be categorical funding on an excess cost basis based upon a per student amount no less than two percent but not to exceed three percent of any district's full-time equivalent enrollment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 222. Section 21, chapter 278, Laws of 1984 and RCW 28A.03.380 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 223. Sections 214 through 220 of this act are each added to Title 28A RCW.

PART III COMMUNITY SCHOOL SUPPORT

NEW SECTION. Sec. 301. The legislature finds that citizen involvement in the education of the children of this state is of the utmost importance to the continued vitality of the state. By encouraging and establishing school involvement programs, the legislature intends to create a climate of awareness and support for the educational development of our state's future citizens. The legislature finds that by providing time for employees to become involved with school-age children the welfare of every person in this state will be promoted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 302. A new section is added to chapter 28A.58 RCW to read as follows:

School districts are encouraged to develop school involvement programs in addition to the policies on parents' access to classrooms and school activities required under RCW 28A.58.053. As part of the school involvement program, school districts' policies and plans should be designed to encourage and accommodate the participation in school activities by persons interested and involved with school-age children. The plans should include encouraging classroom observations, parent-teacher consultations, participation in special programs, school volunteer activities, and participation in policy-making and advisory groups at both the district and building levels.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 303. A new section is added to chapter 28A.58 RCW to read as follows:

School districts are encouraged to provide information to local businesses, organizations, and governmental agencies about their school involvement programs under section 302 of this act. School districts are encouraged to seek suggestions from local businesses, organizations, and governmental agencies about implementing their school involvement programs. School districts may enter into agreements with private businesses and organizations and state and local governmental agencies to facilitate employee participation in the local program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 304. A new section is added to Title 28A RCW to read as follows:

Employers in this state are encouraged to consider adjustments to the work schedules of individual employees, who are parents of children attending schools in the community, to allow these employees periodic opportunities throughout the school year to visit their children's schools, during the school day, in order to promote and support greater parental involvement with local school districts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 305. A new section is added to chapter 28A.58 RCW to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction, through the state clearinghouse for education information, shall collect and disseminate to all school districts and other interested parties information about effective school involvement programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 306. A new section is added to chapter 41.04 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Any employee of the state of Washington may participate in school involvement programs established pursuant section 302 of this act for up to twenty hours during any calendar year during the regular hours of their employment without any loss in salary, seniority, retirement, or other benefits: PROVIDED, That the employee's absence from his or her job, due to participation in a local school district school involvement program, does not require someone else having to perform the employee's work-related responsibilities.

(2) The twenty hours of leave for school involvement, or so much thereof as may be used, shall be deducted from accrued sick leave. If the employee has no accrued sick leave, the employee may not participate in the program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 307. A new section is added to chapter 41.06 RCW to read as follows:

The state personnel board shall adopt rules to carry out its duties under section 306 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 308. A new section is added to chapter 28B.16 RCW to read as follows:

The higher education personnel board and related boards, as provided under RCW 28B.16.080, shall adopt rules to carry out their duties under section 306 of this act.

Sec. 309. Section 7, chapter 55, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 82.12.0284 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply in respect to the use of ~~((computers, computer components, computer accessories, or computer software))~~ tangible personal property or services irrevocably donated to and accepted by any public or private nonprofit school or college, as defined under chapter 84.36 RCW, in this state. ~~(For purposes of this section, "computer" means a data processor that can perform substantial computation, including numerous arithmetic or logic operations, without intervention by a human operator during the run) for direct instructional purposes.~~

On motion of Senator Kiskaddon, the following amendment to the Committee on Education amendment was adopted:

On page 7, after line 27, insert the following

NEW SECTION. Sec. 111. (1) The superintendent of public instruction is directed to establish a voluntary, grant-based, parents as first teachers program to provide parents of children up to age three with information and guidance to increase parental confidence and involvement in the educational and social development of their children, and to establish positive home and school partnerships before children enter school to better help children, parents, and school personnel prepare for the children's first public school experiences.

(2) This program shall be a voluntary enrichment program and shall be offered only as funds are available and shall not be part of the basic program of education which must be fully funded by the legislature under Article IX, section 1 of the state Constitution.

(3) The superintendent of public instruction may accept, receive, and administer, from public or private sources, such gifts, grants, and contributions as may be expressly provided to support the parents as first teachers program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 112. The parents as first teachers program shall provide for resource materials on home learning activities, private and group educational guidance, individual and group learning experiences for the parent and child, and other appropriate activities to enable parents to improve learning in the home, understand the relationship between developmental stages and behavior, and monitor their children's growth and development relating to:

- (1) Understanding and use of language;
- (2) Perception through sight and hearing;
- (3) Motor development and hand-eye coordination; and
- (4) Health, physical development, and emotional, social, and mental development.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 113. (1) The superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules as necessary to carry out the purposes of sections 111 and 112 of this act.

(2) The superintendent of public instruction shall submit biennially, by January 15, a report to the legislature on the parents as first teachers program.

(3) The superintendent of public instruction, through the state clearinghouse for education information, shall collect and disseminate to all school districts and other interested parties information about the parents as first teachers program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 114. The superintendent of public instruction, the director of community development, and the secretary of social and health services shall jointly develop and submit to the legislature not later than January 15, 1990, a plan that includes the following elements:

(1) One or more options for integrating the parents as first teachers program established under sections 111 through 113 of this act, the early childhood education and assistance program established under chapter 28A.34A RCW, project even start established under sections 104 through 108 of this act, the governor's proposed family independence program, and other state programs as may be appropriate, and including a recommendation on which state agency should be the lead agency in administering an integrated, comprehensive early childhood development assistance program;

(2) A suggested timetable for phasing-in or otherwise implementing an integrated, comprehensive early childhood development assistance program;

(3) Suggested options and cost estimates for phasing-in an expansion of the programs under subsection (1) of this section as component elements of an integrated, comprehensive early childhood development assistance program; and

(4) Other recommendations as may be appropriate.

This section shall expire January 16, 1990.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 115. Sections 111 through 113 of this act are each added to Title 28A RCW."

MOTION

Senator Rinehart moved that the following amendment by Senators Rinehart, Gaspard, Pullen and Bailey to the Committee on Education amendment be adopted:

On page 22, following line 14 of the committee amendment insert a new section to read as follows:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 222. A new section is added to chapter 28A.58 RCW to read as follows:

(1) School districts are hereby authorized to contract with the University of Washington for the education of eligible, academically highly capable high school students at such early entrance or transition schools as are now or hereafter established and maintained by the university.

(2) School districts may authorize the superintendent of public instruction to allocate all or a portion of the state basic education allocation monies, state categorical monies and federal monies generated by a student attending a University of Washington early entrance or transition school pursuant to this section directly to the university: PROVIDED, That such state monies shall be expended exclusively for instruction and related activities necessary for students to fulfill the high school graduation requirements established by their school district of enrollment.

(3) The superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW implementing subsection (2) of this section."

Renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stratton: "Senator Rinehart, does this apply only to smart kids who want to attend the University of Washington or is this state-wide? Would it apply to other colleges, too, across the state?"

Senator Rinehart: "There is only one program. It is a unique program that received national recognition that allows students who qualify in the same category as entering freshman, so this is the only program that exists, but, indeed, students come state-wide. It isn't a local program in that sense, but students do come state-wide."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Gaspard, Pullen and Bailey to the Committee on Education amendment.

The motion by Senator Rinehart carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Gaspard moved that the following amendment to the Committee on Education amendment be adopted:

On page 22, after line 20, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 224. (1) The superintendent of public instruction is authorized to award grants on a per pupil basis to up to twenty school districts for the 1987-88 and 1988-89 school years to be used by the selected districts only for: Elementary counselling programs; substance abuse awareness and prevention programs; student motivation, retention, and retrieval programs; programs for highly capable students; and school involvement programs.

(2) New or existing programs enhanced by the funds provided to districts by a grant under this section and sections 225 through 229 of this act shall not become a part of the state's basic education obligation as set forth by the Constitution.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 225. The board of directors of each school district selected to participate in the pilot program under sections 224 through 229 of this act may establish an advisory committee to develop a series of recommendations for the expenditure of the grant dollars to be submitted to the local school board for approval.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 226. Stipends may be awarded to certificated or classified staff who assume extra duties under sections 224 through 229 of this act. Such stipends shall not be considered compensation for the purposes of salary lid compliance under RCW 28A.58.095.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 227. School districts may enter into cooperative agreements to provide educational enhancements through the sharing of grant funds and may submit a joint application for grant funds to the superintendent of public instruction.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 228. The superintendent of public instruction shall, no later than January 31, 1990, make a comprehensive final report to the legislature on the use of the local district grants and the educational benefits derived therefrom.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 229. The superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules as necessary to implement sections 224 through 228 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 230. Sections 224 through 229 of this act shall expire February 1, 1990.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 231. Sections 224 through 229 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Kiskaddon: "Senator Gaspard, I don't see anything in here on the funding level for the block grant approach. Can you tell me what the funding is?"

Senator Gaspard: "Yes, Senator Kiskaddon, there is not a specific appropriation for this. However, when we were trying to work a fiscal note on it which we had in the Senate Bill, it was anticipated to be about an additional million dollars to the bill that is before us in order to operate the block grant pilot project."

Senator Bottiger demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senator Gaspard to the Committee on Education amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Gaspard carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 25; nays, 24.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Bottiger, Conner, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Kreidler, McDermott, Moore, Owen, Peterson, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 25.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Deccio, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Nelson, Newhouse, Patterson, Pullen, Saling, Sellar, von Reichbauer, West, Zimmerman - 24.

MOTION

Senator Moore moved that the following amendment by Senators Moore, Rinehart, Pullen, Wojahn, Stratton, Lee, Kiskaddon, McDonald and Gaspard to the Committee on Education amendment be adopted:

On page 26, after line 29, insert the following:

"PART IV

MENTAL SPORTS

NEW SECTION, Sec. 401. The creation of an advisory committee within the office of the superintendent of public instruction to promote competition and research in mental sports such as chess, checkers, bridge, go, scholastic olympiads, and others will provide many benefits to the people of the state. Such an advisory committee will benefit the public by:

- (1) Enhancing the cognitive skills of students;
- (2) Promoting education, competition, and research in mental sports in the common schools and institutions of higher education of the state, as well as among the general public; and
- (3) Promoting tourism and economic development through the hosting of regional, national, and international tournaments in mental sports.

The legislature finds that mental sports promote intellectual development and offer the ultimate combination of art, science, and sport. The legislature also finds that while mental sports are best promoted through private sources, schools, and local units of government, the advisory committee can serve as a valuable catalyst to help achieve such promotion.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 402. As used in this chapter:

- (1) "Mental sports" includes chess, checkers, go, bridge, scholastic olympiads, and other nongambling games.
- (2) "Committee" or "advisory committee" means the mental sports competition and research advisory committee.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 403. (1) There is established the mental sports competition and research advisory committee within the office of the superintendent of public instruction. The committee consists of five persons appointed by the superintendent of public instruction. In making the appointments, the superintendent of public instruction shall select one person who is primarily a chess player, one person who is primarily a bridge player, one person who has experience promoting scholastic olympiads, and one person who is primarily a go player.

(2) The members of the committee shall serve terms of four years. However, in making the initial appointments, the superintendent of public instruction may provide for staggered terms. Vacancies shall be filled by appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term.

(3) Members of the committee shall not be compensated but shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(4) The committee may adopt such rules as may be necessary in the administration of this chapter. The rules shall be adopted under chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 404. The committee shall to the maximum extent feasible rely on volunteer labor. The superintendent of public instruction shall provide staff support if necessary.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 405. The committee may solicit, accept, and expend such gifts, grants, and endowments from public and private sources as may be made available to the committee.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 406. (1) The committee may promote and sponsor tournaments in any mental sport. Entry fees and prize funds may be set by the committee with a view toward maximizing public participation and raising revenue for the committee and promotional activities of the committee.

(2) The committee may sponsor exhibitions, lectures, and tournament participation by visiting mental sports masters.

(3) In conducting mental sports tournaments and events, the committee shall consult with and seek the cooperation of local and national mental sports clubs and federations.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 407. By January 9, 1989, the mental sports competition and research advisory committee shall submit to the legislature and the superintendent of public instruction a report that includes:

(1) A summary of the committee's achievements;

(2) Recommendations on enhancing the status of mental sports within the common schools;

(3) Recommendations on promoting tournaments for the benefit of the general public; and

(4) Recommendations regarding possible future state financial support of the committee.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 408. Sections 401 through 407 of this act shall expire July 1, 1989.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 409. Sections 401 through 407 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 67 RCW.

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

Debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Moore, Rinehart, Pullen, Wojahn, Stratton, Lee, Kiskaddon, McDonald and Gaspard to the Committee on Education amendment.

The motion by Senator Moore carried and the amendment to the Committee on Education amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Nelson moved that the following amendment to the Committee on Education amendment be adopted:

On page 26, after line 29, insert the following new section:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 310. If specific funding for this act, referencing this act by bill number, is not provided by the legislature by July 1, 1987, this act shall be null and void."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

Debate ensued.

Senator Vognild demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senator Nelson to the Committee on Education amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Nelson failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 24; nays, 25.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Deccio, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Nelson, Newhouse, Patterson, Pullen, Saling, Sellar, von Reichbauer, West, Zimmerman - 24.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Bender, Bottiger, Conner, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Kreidler, McDermott, Moore, Owen, Peterson, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 25.

MOTION

Senator Bailey moved that the following amendment by Senators Bailey, Nelson, Craswell, Saling, Barr, Zimmerman, Sellar, Benitz and Anderson to the Committee on Education amendment be adopted:

On page 1, beginning on line 27 of the amendment, strike everything through "act." on page 26, line 8 of the amendment and insert "Providing additional dollars distributed directly to the school districts. It is the intent of the legislature, through this chapter, to provide local school districts the flexibility to meet individual needs with a minimum of direction from the legislature as to what those needs may be.

The purpose of this chapter is to provide a grant, in addition to the district's basic education allocation, to each school district based on full-time equivalent student enrollment to meet the educational needs of each district.

This chapter shall be known as the local education enhancement and accountability act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. School districts shall be eligible to receive a grant in addition to their basic education allocation. This additional grant shall be distributed to local school districts from the superintendent of public instruction on the basis of full-time equivalent students. For districts enrolling not more than one hundred average annual full-time equivalent students, except as otherwise specified, and for small school plants within any school district, which small plants have been judged to be remote and necessary by the state board of education, the grant shall be distributed as follows:

(1) For grades K-6, for districts enrolling not more than sixty average full-time equivalent students, the grant shall be based on sixty full-time equivalent students;

(2) For grades 7 and 8, for districts enrolling not more than twenty average full-time equivalent students, the grant shall be based on twenty full-time equivalent students; and

(3) For districts that have high schools with sixty or fewer full-time equivalent students, the grant shall be based on sixty full-time equivalent students.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Beginning with the 1987-88 school year, and for each subsequent school year, each school district shall receive, in addition to the basic education allocation, a grant of no less than seventy-five dollars per full-time equivalent student, to be used as provided in section 10 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) Each school board shall establish an advisory committee consisting of the chairman of the school board or a school board member appointed by the chairman who shall chair the advisory committee, the superintendent of the local district, not more than two principals from schools located in the district elected by principals in the district, two teachers from schools located in the district elected by the teachers in the district, and not less than seven nor more than fifteen citizens representing a cross-section of schools throughout the district nominated by locally recognized adult associations and selected by local school boards. To the extent possible, principals and teachers selected to serve on the advisory board shall be representative of the mix of schools within the district. Local district boards may use existing advisory committees for the purposes of this chapter, so long as the advisory committee is representative of administrators, teachers, and citizens.

(2) The advisory committee shall develop a series of recommendations for the expenditure of the grant dollars to be submitted to the local school board for approval.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Each advisory committee shall be responsible for:

(1) Assessing the needs of the schools within the district;

(2) Assigning priority to addressing the identified needs;

(3) Preparing a comprehensive two-year plan to address the priority needs identified by the committee within the grant funding limitations;

(4) Developing an evaluation methodology to assess specifically how the expenditure of the grants demonstrate a direct educational benefit to the pupils within the district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Each advisory committee shall submit its plan to the local school board for approval. Upon approval the local board shall submit the initial plan to the superintendent of public instruction in detail no later than December 1, 1987, and by December 1 of subsequent years for those years' plans. Districts may request technical assistance from their local educational service district to prepare their plans.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. New or existing programs enhanced by the funds provided to districts by a grant under this chapter shall not become a part of the state's basic education obligation as set forth by the Constitution.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Funding appropriated and plans developed by advisory committees shall not be subject to collective bargaining.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. No school district board of directors may grant salary and compensation increases from a grant under this chapter in excess of the amount and or percentage as may be provided for employees as set forth in the state operating appropriations act in effect at the time the compensation is payable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Local district grants may be used to fund any or all of the following activities if endorsed by the local advisory committee and approved by the local school district board:

(1) Innovative programs to increase the adult-pupil ratio without increasing the number of certificated staff, including but not limited to:

(a) Providing stipends to competent retired teachers to return them to the classroom as "team teachers" or classroom assistants;

(b) Providing stipends to teachers' aides;

(c) Providing incentives to administrators who spend a portion of their work day in the classroom team teaching or providing classroom assistance;

- (d) Providing recognition to citizen volunteers who assist in the classroom;
- (e) Providing training programs for classroom assistants, including volunteers; and
- (f) Purchasing equipment that directly relates to classroom instruction or assists the teacher in minimizing time away from teaching.

(2) Dropout prevention and retrieval programs, including, but not limited to:

(a) Curriculum development;

(b) Public and private sector partnerships in expanding offerings in programs such as "Choices" and the "Registry" program;

(c) Alternative learning program development;

(d) Enhancement of vocational, career, college, and pupil advisory programs;

(e) Elementary school advisory programs;

(f) Mentor pupil programs such as "Natural Helpers"; and

(g) Curriculum materials and equipment purchases.

(3) Drug and alcohol abuse programs, including, but not limited to:

(a) In-service staff training programs for the identification of students at-risk; and

(b) Community services networking to direct students who are substance abusers to appropriate treatment facilities.

(4) Early childhood programs, including but not limited to:

(a) A parents as first teachers program that provides for resource materials on home learning activities, private and group educational guidance, individual and group learning experiences for the parent and child, and other appropriate activities to enable parents to improve learning in the home, understand the relationship between developmental stages and behavior, and monitor their children's growth and development relating to understanding and use of language; perception through sight and hearing; motor development and hand-eye coordination; and health, physical development, and emotional, social, and mental development;

(b) Nutritional programs;

(c) Parental participation programs; and

(d) Child day-care programs.

(5) In-service training programs for staff development including, but not limited to:

(a) Funding speakers or group leaders to deliver in-service training to staff;

(b) Program materials and equipment;

(c) Tuition, registration fees, and associated fees for attendance at seminars, workshops, or courses that directly relate to enhancing adult training for classroom duties; and

(d) Travel reimbursement directly related to in-service training.

(6) Programs that develop and promote logical reasoning and improved analytical skills.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Stipends may be awarded under RCW 28A.58.093 to certificated or classified staff who assume extra duties that specifically relate to any activities included in section 10 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Small or rural districts may enter into cooperative agreements to provide educational enhancements through the sharing of grant funds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The superintendent of public instruction shall make a comprehensive report to the legislature on the use of the local district grants and the educational benefits derived therefrom by January 31 of every odd-numbered year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Sections 1 through 13 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 28A RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The sum of one hundred ten million dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, from the general fund to the superintendent of public instruction for the purposes of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Sections 1 through 13 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Debate ensued.

MOTIONS

Senator Gaspard moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 28A.47.060, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.47.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The state board of education shall have the power and it shall be its duty (1) to prescribe rules and regulations governing the administration, control, terms, conditions, and disbursements of allotments to school districts to assist them in providing school plant facilities but such rules shall be consistent with and may be subject to ratification under section 5 of this 1987 act; (2) to approve allotments to districts that apply for state assistance in conformance with this chapter whenever the board deems such action advisable and in so doing to give due consideration to the findings, reports, and recommendations of the superintendent of public instruction pertaining thereto; (3) to authorize the payment of approved allotments by warrant of the state treasurer; and (4) in the event that the amount of state assistance applied for exceeds the funds available for such assistance during any biennium, to make allotments on the basis of the urgency of need for school facilities in the districts that apply for assistance and/or to prorate allotments among such districts in conformity with procedures and regulations applicable thereto which shall be established by the state board.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 244, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 18, chapter 154, Laws of 1980 and RCW 28A.47.801 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Funds appropriated to the state board of education from the common school construction fund shall be allotted by the state board of education in accordance with student enrollment as computed for the purposes of RCW 28A.41.140 and the provisions of RCW 28A.47.800 through 28A.47.811 (-PROVIDED, That), in calculating allotments other than for modernization or replacement of facilities, the state board shall not recognize facility needs created solely by the redesignation of facilities' grade level spans during the five years before the proposed allotment, unless the state board finds that these needs cannot feasibly be met through modernization or replacement.

(2) No allotment shall be made to a school district ((for the purpose aforesaid)) until such district has provided matching funds equal to or greater than the difference between the total approved project cost and the amount of state assistance to the district for financing the project computed pursuant to RCW 28A.47.803, with the following exceptions:

(a) The state board may waive the matching requirement for districts which have provided funds for school building construction purposes through the authorization of bonds or through the authorization of excess tax levies or both in an amount equivalent to two and one-half percent of the value of its taxable property, as defined in RCW 39.36.015(~~or such lesser amount as may be required by the state board of education. PROVIDED FURTHER That~~)).

(b) No such matching funds shall be required as a condition to the allotment of funds for the purpose of making major or minor structural changes to existing school facilities in order to bring such facilities into compliance with the handicapped access requirements of section 504 of the federal rehabilitation act of 1973 (29 U.S.C. Sec. 706) and rules implementing the act.

(3) The state board of education shall prescribe and make effective such rules and regulations as are necessary to equate insofar as possible the efforts made by school districts to provide capital funds by the means aforesaid.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 244, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 98, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28A.47.803 are each amended to read as follows:

Allocations to school districts of state funds provided by RCW 28A.47.800 through 28A.47.811 shall be made by the state board of education and the amount of state assistance to a school district in financing a school plant project shall be determined in the following manner:

(1) ~~((The boards of directors of the districts shall determine the total cost of the proposed project, which cost may include the cost of acquiring and preparing the site, the cost of constructing the building or of acquiring a building and preparing the same for school use, the cost of necessary equipment, taxes chargeable to the project, necessary architects' fees, and a reasonable amount for contingencies and for other necessary incidental expenses. PROVIDED: That the total cost of the project shall be subject to review and approval by the state board of education.))~~ The state board of education shall annually adopt a construction cost index which is based upon recent regional trends in these costs. Construction expenditures included in the approved cost of a project shall be limited to seventy-five dollars and ten cents per square foot, adjusted by the percentage change in this construction cost index since July 1, 1986. In addition, as determined by the state board, the approved cost of the project may also include: (a) Costs of necessary equipment; (b) architectural and engineering services; and (c) mandatory tests, inspections, and other reports or studies. Nothing in this section shall be construed as limiting additional expenditures from other sources by school districts for capital projects.

(2) The state matching percentage for a school district shall be computed by the following formula:

The ratio of the school district's adjusted valuation per full time equivalent pupil divided by the ratio of the total state adjusted valuation per full time pupil shall be subtracted from three, and then the result of the foregoing shall be divided by three plus (the ratio of the school district's adjusted valuation per full time equivalent pupil divided by the ratio of the total state adjusted valuation per full time pupil).

PROVIDED, That in the event the percentage of state assistance to any school district based on the above formula is less than twenty percent and such school district is otherwise eligible for state assistance under RCW 28A.47.800 through 28A.47.811, the state board of education may establish for such district a percentage of state assistance not in excess of twenty percent of the approved cost of the project, if the state board finds that such additional assistance is necessary to provide minimum facilities for housing the pupils of the district.

(3) In addition to the computed percent of state assistance developed in (2) above, a school district shall be entitled to additional percentage points determined by the average percentage of growth for the past three years. One percent shall be added to the computed percent of state assistance for each percent of growth, with a maximum of twenty percent.

(4) The approved cost of the project determined in the manner herein prescribed times the percentage of state assistance derived as provided for herein shall be the amount of state assistance to the district for the financing of the project: PROVIDED, That need therefor has been established to the satisfaction of the state board of education: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That additional state assistance may be allowed if it is found by the state board of education that such assistance is necessary in order to meet (a) a school housing emergency resulting from the destruction of a school building by fire, the condemnation of a school building by properly constituted authorities, a sudden excessive and clearly foreseeable future increase in school population, or other conditions similarly emergent in nature; or (b) a special school housing burden imposed by virtue of the admission of nonresident students into educational programs established, maintained and operated in conformity with the requirements of law; or (c) ~~((a deficiency in the capital funds of the district resulting from financing, subsequent to April 1, 1969, and without benefit of the state assistance provided by prior state assistance programs;~~

~~the construction of a needed school building project or projects approved in conformity with the requirements of such programs, after having first applied for and been denied state assistance because of the inadequacy of state funds available for the purpose, or (d) a condition created by the fact that an excessive number of students live in state owned housing, or (e)) a need for the construction of a school building to provide for improved ((school district organization or)) racial balance, or ((f)) (d) facility needs created by school district consolidation or by the establishment of an interdistrict cooperative program when the state board has found that the interdistrict program will provide opportunities for services that would otherwise not be feasible or would be substantially more expensive when provided by each district individually, or (e) conditions similar to those defined under (a), (b), ((f;)) or (d) ((and (e) hereinafter)) of this subsection creating a like emergency.~~

Sec. 4. Section 6, chapter 244, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 56, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.47.805 are each amended to read as follows:

If a school district which has qualified for an allotment of state funds under the provisions of RCW 28A.47.800 through 28A.47.811 for school building construction is found by the state board of education to ~~((have a school housing emergency requiring an allotment of state funds in excess of the amount allocable))~~ qualify for additional state assistance under RCW 28A.47.803(4), an additional allotment may be made to such district: PROVIDED, That the total amount allotted shall not exceed ninety percent of the ~~((total))~~ approved cost of the ~~((approved))~~ project ~~((which may include the cost of the site and equipment))~~. At any time thereafter when the state board of education finds that the financial position of such school district has improved through an increase in its taxable valuation or through retirement of bonded indebtedness or through a reduction in school housing requirements, or for any combination of these reasons, the amount of such additional allotment, or any part of such amount as the state board of education determines, shall be deducted, under terms and conditions prescribed by the board, from any state school building construction funds which might otherwise be provided to such district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 28A.47 RCW to read as follows:

No rule adopted after January 1, 1987, by the state board of education which impacts on the state funding of common school construction or modernization projects shall be effective until such rule has been expressly ratified by the legislature in a subsequent capital appropriations bill. This section shall apply only to new or revised rules which increase or may potentially increase the number of projects eligible for state assistance or the amount of state assistance for which a district is eligible.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 28A.47 RCW to read as follows:

No school district with unhoused students needs may be eligible for the state matching funds for the construction of school plant facilities if the school district contiguous to the school district applying for the state matching percentage has vacant school plant facilities within a reasonable distance adequate to meet its needs or a portion of its needs as defined by the superintendent of public instruction and state board of education.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 84.52 RCW to read as follows:

There is hereby levied an additional state property tax for school construction, at a rate of thirty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation adjusted to the state equalized value in accordance with the indicated ratio fixed by the state department of revenue, for collection in each year beginning with calendar year 1988 and ending with calendar year 2002. Ten percent of the proceeds of this levy in calendar years 1988 through 1992 shall be deposited as principal in the permanent common school fund. Forty percent of the proceeds of this levy in calendar years 1993 through 1997 shall be deposited as principal in the permanent common school fund. Ninety percent of the proceeds of this levy in calendar years 1998 through 2002 shall be deposited as principal in the permanent common school fund. Remaining proceeds of this levy shall be deposited in the common school construction fund for financing the construction of facilities for the common schools.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 84.55 RCW to read as follows:

This chapter does not apply to the levy under section 7 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Sections 7 and 8 of this act apply to taxes levied for collection in 1988, and thereafter.

Sec. 10. Section 13, chapter 288, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 88, chapter 195, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.04.140 are each amended to read as follows:

The term "regular property taxes" and the term "regular property tax levy" shall mean a property tax levy by or for a taxing district which levy is subject to the aggregate limitation set forth in RCW 84.52.043 and RCW 84.52.050, as now or hereafter amended, or which is imposed by or for a port district or a public utility district, or which is imposed under section 7 of this 1987 act.

Sec. 11. Section 134, chapter 195, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.52.043 are each amended to read as follows:

Within and subject to the limitations imposed by RCW 84.52.050 as amended, the regular ad valorem tax levies upon real and personal property by the taxing districts hereafter named shall be as follows: The levy by the state shall not exceed three dollars and sixty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value adjusted to the state equalized value in accordance with the indicated ratio fixed by the state department of revenue to be used exclusively for the support of the common schools; the levy by any county shall not exceed one dollar and eighty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value; the levy for any road district shall not exceed two dollars and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value; and the levy by or for any city or town shall not exceed three dollars and thirty-seven and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value: PROVIDED FURTHER, That counties of the fifth class and under are hereby authorized to levy from one dollar and eighty cents to two dollars and forty-seven and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value for general county purposes and from one dollar and fifty-seven and one-half cents to two dollars and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value for county road purposes if the total levy for both purposes does not exceed four dollars and five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value: PROVIDED FURTHER, That counties of the fourth and the ninth class are hereby authorized to levy two dollars and two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value until such time as the junior taxing agencies are utilizing all the dollar rates available to them: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the total property tax levy authorized by law without a vote of the people shall not exceed nine dollars and fifteen cents per thousand dollars of assessed value. Levies at the rates provided by existing law by or for any port or public utility district shall not be included in the limitation set forth by this proviso.

Nothing herein shall prevent levies at the rates provided by existing law by or for any port or power district.

Nothing in this section shall prevent the levy under section 7 of this 1987 act.

It is the intent of the legislature that the provisions of this section shall supersede all conflicting provisions of law including section 24, chapter 299, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and section 8, chapter 124, Laws of 1972 ex. sess.

Sec. 12, Section 1, chapter 2, Laws of 1973 as amended by section 1, chapter 194, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.52.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as hereinafter provided, the aggregate of all tax levies upon real and personal property by the state and all taxing districts, now existing or hereafter created, shall not in any year exceed one percentum of the true and fair value of such property in money: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That nothing herein shall prevent levies at the rates now provided by law by or for any port or public utility district, nor prevent the levy under section 7 of this 1987 act. The term "taxing district" for the purposes of this section shall mean any political subdivision, municipal corporation, district, or other governmental agency authorized by law to levy, or have levied for it, ad valorem taxes on property, other than a port or public utility district. Such aggregate limitation or any specific limitation imposed by law in conformity therewith may be exceeded only as authorized by law and in conformity with the provisions of Article VII, section 2(a), (b), or (c) of the Constitution of the state of Washington.

Nothing herein contained shall prohibit the legislature from allocating or reallocating the authority to levy taxes between the taxing districts of the state and its political subdivisions in a manner which complies with the aggregate tax limitation set forth in this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. The department of revenue shall take all steps necessary so that the taxes may be levied in 1987 for collection in 1988.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. Sections 1 through 12 of this act shall take effect December 10, 1987, if the proposed amendments to Article IX, section 3 and Article VII, section 2 of the state Constitution providing funding for capital purposes for schools (House Joint Resolution No. 4220) and the proposed amendments in sections 7, 8, and 9 of this act are validly submitted to and are approved and ratified by the voters at a general election held in November 1987. If the proposed amendments are not so approved and ratified, sections 1 through 13 of this act shall be null and void in their entirety.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. Sections 7, 8, and 9 of this act shall be submitted to the people for their adoption and ratification, or rejection, at the next succeeding general election to be held in this state, in accordance with Article II, section 1 of the state Constitution, as amended, and the laws adopted to facilitate the operation thereof.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 16. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

Senator Bluechel moved that the following amendment by Senators Bluechel, Pullen and McDonald to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

MOTION

Senator West moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, line 18, after "elected" insert "from and shall represent one-half of the senatorial district."

Debate ensued.

Senator Rasmussen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senator West on page 1, line 18.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator West failed and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 21; nays, 28.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Benitz, Craswell, DeJarnatt, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Lee, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Stratton, von Reichbauer, West, Williams, Zimmerman - 21.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Bender, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Deccio, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Kreidler, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, Owen, Peterson, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Talmadge, Tanner, Vognild, Warnke, Wojahn - 28.

MOTION

Senator Pullen moved that the following amendments be considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 2, line 11 strike "six" and insert "eight"

On page 2, line 11, after "years," strike "~~((one-half))~~ with as near to one-third" and insert "one-half"

On page 2, line 12, after "every" strike "two" and insert "~~((two))~~ four" and adjust the affected language in lines 17 through 28 accordingly

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendments by Senator Pullen on page 2, lines 11 and 12.

The motion by Senator Pullen failed and the amendments were not adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Halsan, the rules were suspended, House Joint Resolution No. 4212 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Nelson: "Senator Halsan, since this went through your committee, I would like to get the interpretation that you might be able to provide since you remarked about it during one of the amendments. On page 2, beginning on line 2, the sentence reads, 'Persons elected to the House of Representatives shall serve four year terms unless they resign or seek other legislative office.' Senator Halsan, could you perhaps answer the question that if, in fact, a member of the House were now going to file for the position of Senator from the same legislative district on the last week of filing, that at that time, that member of the House would have to resign since he or she has made a commitment to seek another legislative office, or does it mean that you would wait until after the election in order to determine that the office that they held will be vacated?"

Senator Halsan: "The stated intent by Representative Fisher and Representative Sim Wilson who came over and testified before the committee was that a House member, because their term was extended to four years, and not two years, would have to resign their seat in order to seek a Senate seat."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Joint Resolution No. 4212.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of House Joint Resolution No. 4212 and the resolution, having received the necessary two-thirds majority, passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 33; nays, 16.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Bluechel, Bottiger, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Peterson, Rinehart, Sellar, Smitherman, Talmadge, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 33.

Voting nay: Senators Benitz, Cantu, Halsan, Kreidler, McDonald, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Saling, Stratton, Tanner, von Reichbauer, West, Zimmerman - 16.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 4212, having received the constitutional two-thirds majority, was declared passed.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 454, by Committee on State Government (originally sponsored by Representatives Cooper, H. Sommers, B. Williams and Unsoeld) (by request of Governor Gardner)

Revising various boards and commissions.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Halsan moved that the following Committee on Governmental Operations amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*PART I

BOARD OF ELECTRICAL EXAMINERS AND ELECTRICAL ADVISORY BOARD

Sec. 101. Section 1, chapter 206, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 1, chapter 156, Laws of 1986 and RCW 19.28.005 are each amended to read as follows:

The definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Administrator" means a person designated by an electrical contractor to supervise electrical work and electricians in accordance with the rules adopted under this chapter.

(2) "~~(Advisory)~~ Board" means the electrical ~~(advisory)~~ board under RCW 19.28.065.

(3) "~~Board of electrical examiners~~" means the board of electrical examiners under RCW 19.28.123.

(4) "Chapter" means chapter 19.28 RCW.

(5) (4) "Department" means the department of labor and industries.

(6) (5) "Director" means the director of the department or the director's designee.

(7) (6) "Electrical construction trade" includes but is not limited to installing or maintaining electrical wires and equipment that are used for light, heat, or power and installing and maintaining remote control, signaling, power limited, or communication circuits or systems.

(8) (7) "Electrical contractor" means a person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity that offers to undertake, undertakes, submits a bid for, or does the work of installing or maintaining wires or equipment that convey electrical current.

(9) (8) "Equipment" means any equipment or apparatus that directly uses, conducts, or is operated by electricity but does not mean plug-in household appliances.

(10) (9) "Journeyman electrician" means a person who has been issued a journeyman electrician certificate of competency by the department.

(11) (10) "Specialty electrician" means a person who has been issued a specialty electrician certificate of competency by the department.

Sec. 102. Section 3, chapter 206, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.28.015 are each amended to read as follows:

Disputes arising under RCW 19.28.010(2) regarding whether the city or town's electrical rules, regulations, or ordinances are equal to the rules adopted by the department shall be resolved by arbitration. The department shall appoint two members of the ~~(advisory)~~ board to serve on the arbitration panel, and the city or town shall appoint two persons to serve on the arbitration panel. These four persons shall choose a fifth person to serve. If the four persons cannot agree on a fifth person, the presiding judge of the superior court of the county in which the city or town is located shall choose a fifth person. A decision of the arbitration panel may be appealed to the superior court of the county in which the city or town is located within thirty days after the date the panel issues its final decision.

Sec. 103. Section 10, chapter 169, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 3, chapter 156, Laws of 1986 and RCW 19.28.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Prior to January 1st of each year, the director shall obtain an authentic copy of the national electrical code as approved by the American Standards Association, and an authentic copy of any applicable regulations and standards of the Underwriters' Laboratories, Inc., or other electrical product testing laboratory which is accredited by the department prescribing rules, regulations, and standards for electrical materials, devices, appliances, and equipment, including any modifications and changes that have been made during the previous year in the rules, regulations, and standards. The department, after consulting with the ~~(advisory)~~ board and receiving the board's recommendations, shall adopt reasonable rules in furtherance of safety to life and property. All rules shall be kept on file by the department. Compliance with the rules shall be prima facie evidence of compliance with this chapter. The department upon request shall deliver to all persons, firms, partnerships, corporations, or other entities licensed under this chapter a copy of the rules.

There is hereby created an electrical ~~((advisory))~~ board, consisting of ~~((seven))~~ nine members to be appointed by the governor with the advice of the director of labor and industries as herein provided. It shall be the purpose and function of the board to advise the director on all matters pertaining to the enforcement of this chapter including, but not limited to standards of electrical installation, minimum inspection procedures, and the adoption of rules and regulations pertaining to the electrical inspection division: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That no rules or regulations shall be amended or repealed until the ~~((electrical advisory))~~ board has first had an opportunity to consider any proposed amendments or repeals and had an opportunity to make recommendations to the director relative thereto. The members of the ~~((electrical advisory))~~ board shall be selected and appointed as follows: One member shall be an employee or officer of a corporation or public agency generating or distributing electric power; ~~((one))~~ two members shall be ~~((an))~~ employees or officers of a corporation or firm engaged in the business of making electrical installations; one member shall be an employee, or officer, or representative of a corporation or firm engaged in the business of manufacturing or distributing electrical materials, equipment, or devices; one member shall be a person not related to the electrical industry to represent the public; ~~((one))~~ three members shall be ~~((a))~~ recognized electricians; one member shall be a licensed professional engineer qualified to do business in the state of Washington~~((:)), ((and one member shall be the state chief electrical inspector. Each of the members except the public member and the chief electrical inspector shall be appointed by the governor from among a list of individuals nominated by nonprofit organizations or associations representing individuals, corporations, or firms engaged in the business classification from which such member shall be selected.))~~ The regular term of each member shall be four years: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, The original board shall be appointed on the effective date of this 1987 section for the following terms: The first term of the member representing a corporation or public agency generating or distributing electric power shall serve four years; ~~((the))~~ one member representing ~~((the))~~ an installer of electrical equipment or appliances shall serve three years; the member representing a manufacturer or distributor of electrical equipment or devices shall serve three years; the member representing the public and one member representing an installer of electrical equipment or appliances shall serve two years; the three members selected as ((the)) recognized electricians shall serve for terms of one, two, and three years, respectively; the member selected as the licensed professional electrical engineer shall serve for one year. Thereafter, the governor shall appoint or reappoint board members for terms of four years and to fill vacancies created by the completion of the terms of the original members. The governor shall also fill vacancies caused by death, resignation, or otherwise for the unexpired term of such members by appointing their successors from the same business classification. The same procedure shall be followed in making such subsequent appointments as is provided for the original appointments. The board, at its first meeting shall elect one of its members to serve as chairman. Any person acting as the chief electrical inspector shall serve as secretary of the board during his tenure as chief state inspector. Meetings of the board shall be called at the discretion of the director of labor and industries. Each member of the board shall receive compensation in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 which shall be paid out of the electrical license fund, upon vouchers approved by the director of labor and industries.

Sec. 105. Section 1, chapter 30, Laws of 1969 as last amended by section 156, Laws of 1986 and RCW 19.28.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It is unlawful for any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity to engage in, conduct, or carry on the business of installing or maintaining wires or equipment to convey electric current, or installing or maintaining equipment to be operated by electric current as it pertains to the electrical industry, without having an unrevoked, unsuspended, and unexpired electrical contractor license, issued by the department in accordance with this chapter. All electrical contractor licenses expire twenty-four calendar months following the day of their issue. The department may issue an electrical contractor license for a period of less than twenty-four months only for the purpose of equalizing the number of electrical contractor licenses which expire each month. Application for an electrical contractor license shall be made in writing to the department, accompanied by the required fee. The application shall state the name and address of the applicant; in case of firms or partnerships, the names of the individuals composing the firm or partnership; in case of corporations, the names of the managing officials thereof; the location of the place of business of the applicant and the name under which the business is conducted; and whether a general or specialty electrical contractor license is sought and, if the latter, the type of specialty. Electrical contractor specialties include, but are not limited to: Residential, domestic appliances, pump and irrigation, limited energy system, signs, nonresidential maintenance, and a combination specialty. A general electrical contractor license shall grant to the holder the right to engage in, conduct, or carry on the business of installing or maintaining wires or equipment to carry electric current, and installing or maintaining equipment, or installing or maintaining material to fasten or insulate such wires or equipment to be operated by electric current, in the state of Washington. A specialty electrical contractor license shall grant to the holder a limited right to engage in, conduct, or carry on the business of installing or maintaining wires or equipment to carry electrical current, and installing or maintaining equipment; or installing or maintaining material to fasten or insulate such wires or equipment to be operated by electric current in the state of Washington as expressly allowed by the license.

(2) The application for a contractor license shall be accompanied by a bond in the sum of four thousand dollars with the state of Washington named as obligee in the bond, with good and sufficient surety, to be approved by the department. The bond shall at all times be kept in full force and effect, and any cancellation or revocation thereof, or withdrawal of the surety therefrom, suspends the license issued to the principal until a new bond has been filed and approved as provided in this section. Upon approval of a bond, the department shall on the next business day deposit the fee accompanying the application in the electrical license fund and shall file the bond in the office. The department shall upon request furnish to any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity a certified copy of the bond upon the payment of a fee that the department shall set by rule. The fee shall cover but not exceed the cost of furnishing the certified copy. The bond shall be conditioned that in any installation or maintenance of wires or equipment to convey electrical current, and equipment to be operated by electrical current, the principal will comply with the provisions of this chapter and with any electrical ordinance, building code, or regulation of a city or town adopted pursuant to RCW 19.28.010(2) that is in effect at the time of entering into a contract. The bond shall be conditioned further that the principal will pay for all labor, including employee benefits, and material furnished or used upon the work, taxes and contributions to the state of Washington, and all damages that may be sustained by any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity due to a failure of the principal to make the installation or maintenance in accordance with this chapter or any applicable ordinance, building code, or regulation of a city or town adopted pursuant to RCW 19.28.010(2). In lieu of the surety bond required by this section the license applicant may file with the department a cash deposit or other negotiable security acceptable to the department. If the license applicant has filed a cash deposit, the department shall deposit the funds in a special trust savings account in a commercial bank, mutual savings bank, or savings and loan association and shall pay annually to the depositor the interest derived from the account.

(3) The department shall issue general or specialty electrical contractor licenses to applicants meeting all of the requirements of this chapter. The provisions of this chapter relating to the licensing of any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity including the requirement of a bond with the state of Washington named as obligee therein and the collection of a fee therefor, are exclusive, and no political subdivision of the state of Washington may require or issue any licenses or bonds or charge any fee for the same or a similar purpose. No person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity holding more than one specialty contractor license under this chapter may be required to pay an annual fee for more than one such license or to post more than one four thousand dollar bond, equivalent cash deposit, or other negotiable security.

(4) To obtain a general or specialty electrical contractor license the applicant must designate an individual who currently possesses an administrator's certificate as a general electrical contractor administrator or as a specialty electrical contractor administrator in the specialty for which application has been made. Administrator certificate specialties include but are not limited to: Residential, domestic, appliance, pump and irrigation, limited energy system, signs, nonresidential maintenance, and combination specialty. To obtain an administrator's certificate an individual must pass an examination as set forth in RCW 19.28.123 unless the applicant was a licensed electrical contractor at any time during 1974. Applicants who were electrical contractors licensed by the state of Washington at any time during 1974 are entitled to receive a general electrical contractor administrator's certificate without examination if the applicants apply prior to January 1, 1984. The board (~~of electrical examiners~~) shall certify to the department the names of all persons who are entitled to either a general or specialty electrical contractor administrator's certificate.

Sec. 106. Section 2, chapter 188, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 6, chapter 156, Laws of 1986 and RCW 19.28.123 are each amended to read as follows:

(~~There is hereby created a board of electrical examiners consisting of nine members to be appointed by the governor.~~) It shall be the purpose and function of (~~this~~) the board to establish in addition to a general electrical contractors' license, such classifications of specialty electrical contractors' licenses as it deems appropriate with regard to individual sections pertaining to state adopted codes in chapter 19.28 RCW. In addition, it shall be the purpose and function of (~~this~~) the board to establish and administer written examinations for general electrical contractors' qualifying certificates and the various specialty electrical contractors' qualifying certificates. Examinations shall be designed to reasonably insure that general and specialty electrical contractor's qualifying certificate holders are competent to engage in and supervise the work covered by this statute and their respective licenses. The examinations shall include questions from the following categories to assure proper safety and protection for the general public: (1) Safety, (2) state electrical code, and (3) electrical theory. The department with the consent of the board (~~of electrical examiners~~) shall be permitted to enter into a contract with a professional testing agency to develop, administer, and score these examinations. It shall be the further purpose and function of ~~(this)~~ the board to advise the director as to the need of additional electrical inspectors and compliance officers to be utilized by the director on either a full-time or part-time employment basis and to carry out the duties enumerated in RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620 as well as generally advise the department on all matters relative to RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620. ~~(Meetings of the board shall be held quarterly on the first Monday of February, May, August, and November of each year. Each member of the board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240, and each member shall also receive travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.650 and 43.03.660, which shall be paid out of the electrical license fund, upon vouchers approved by the director of labor and industries.)~~

Sec. 107. Section 4, chapter 188, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 7, chapter 156, Laws of 1986 and RCW 19.28.125 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each applicant for an electrical contractor's license, other than an individual, shall designate a supervisory employee or member of the firm to take the required administrator's examination. Effective July 1, 1987, a supervisory employee designated as the administrator shall be a full-time supervisory employee. This person shall be designated as administrator under the license. No person may qualify as administrator for more than one contractor. If the relationship of the administrator with the electrical contractor is terminated, the contractor's license is void within ninety days unless another administrator is qualified by the board (~~of electrical examiners~~). However, if the administrator dies, the contractor's license is void within one hundred eighty days unless another administrator is qualified by the board (~~of electrical examiners~~). A certificate issued under this section is valid for two years from the nearest birth-date of the administrator, unless revoked or suspended, and further is nontransferable. The certificate may be renewed for a two-year period without examination by appropriate application unless the certificate has been revoked, suspended, or not renewed within ninety days after the expiration date. If the certificate is not renewed before the expiration date, the individual shall pay twice the usual fee. An individual holding more than one administrator's certificate under this chapter shall not be required to pay annual fees for more than one certificate. A person may take the administrator's test as many times as necessary without limit.

(2) The administrator shall:

(a) Be a member of the firm or a supervisory employee and shall be available during working hours to carry out the duties of an administrator under this section;

(b) Ensure that all electrical work complies with the electrical installation laws and rules of the state;

(c) Ensure that the proper electrical safety procedures are used;

(d) Ensure that all electrical labels, permits, and licenses required to perform electrical work are used;

(e) See that corrective notices issued by an inspecting authority are complied with; and

(f) Notify the department in writing within ten days if the administrator terminates the relationship with the electrical contractor.

(3) The department shall not by rule change the administrator's duties under subsection (2) of this section.

Sec. 108. Section 8, chapter 169, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 7, chapter 206, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.28.210 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall cause an inspector to inspect all wiring, appliances, devices, and equipment to which this chapter applies. Nothing contained in this chapter may be construed as providing any authority for any subdivision of government to adopt by ordinance any provisions contained or provided for in this chapter except those pertaining to cities and towns pursuant to RCW 19.28.010(2). Upon request, electrical inspections will be made by the department within forty-eight hours, excluding holidays, Saturdays, and Sundays. If, upon written request, the electrical inspector fails to make an electrical inspection within twenty-four hours, the serving utility may immediately connect electrical power to the installation if the necessary electrical work permit is displayed. Whenever the installation of any wiring, device, appliance, or equipment is not in accordance with this chapter, or is in such a condition as to be dangerous to life or property, the person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity owning, using, or operating it shall be notified by the department and shall within fifteen days, or such further reasonable time as may upon request be granted, make such repairs and changes as are required to remove the danger to life or property and to make it conform to this chapter. The director, through the inspector, is hereby empowered to disconnect or order the discontinuance of electrical service to conductors or equipment that are found to be in a dangerous or unsafe condition and not in accordance with this chapter. Upon making a disconnection the inspector shall attach a notice stating that the conductors have been found dangerous to life or property and are not in accordance with this chapter. It is unlawful for any person to reconnect such defective conductors or equipment without the approval of the department, and until the conductors and equipment have been placed in a safe and secure condition, and in a condition that complies with this chapter. The director, through the electrical inspector, has the right during reasonable hours to enter into and upon any building or premises in the discharge of his or her official duties for the purpose of making any inspection or test of the installation of new construction or altered electrical wiring, electrical devices, equipment, or material contained in or on the buildings or premises. No electrical wiring or equipment subject to this chapter may be concealed until it has been approved by the inspector making the inspection. Persons, firms, partnerships, corporations, or other entities making electrical installations shall obtain inspection and approval from an authorized representative of the department as required by this chapter before requesting the electric utility to connect to the installations. Electric utilities may connect to the installations if approval is clearly indicated by certification of the electrical work permit required to be affixed to each installation or by equivalent means, except that increased or relocated services may be reconnected immediately at the discretion of the utility before approval if an electrical work permit is displayed. The permits shall be furnished upon payment of the fee to the department. The director, ~~((subject to the recommendations and approval))~~ with the advice of the ~~((advisory))~~ board, shall set by rule a schedule of license and electrical work permit fees that will cover the costs of administration and enforcement of this chapter. The rules shall be adopted in accordance with the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW. No fee may be charged for plug-in mobile homes, recreational vehicles, or portable appliances.

Sec. 109. Section 2, chapter 169, Laws of 1935 as amended by section 9, chapter 206, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.28.260 are each amended to read as follows:

It is unlawful for any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity to install or maintain any electrical wiring, appliances, devices, or equipment not in accordance with this chapter. In cases where the interpretation and application of the installation or maintenance standards prescribed in this chapter is in dispute or in doubt, the ~~((advisory))~~ board shall, upon application of any interested person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity, determine the methods of installation or maintenance or the materials, devices, appliances, or equipment to be used in the particular case submitted for its decision.

Sec. 110. Section 13, chapter 169, Laws of 1935 as amended by section 10, chapter 206, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.28.300 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity desiring a decision of the ~~((advisory))~~ board pursuant to RCW 19.28.260 shall, in writing, notify the director of such desire and shall accompany the notice with a certified check payable to the department in the sum of two hundred dollars. The notice shall specify the ruling or interpretation desired and the contention of the person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity as to the proper interpretation or application on the question on which a decision is desired. If the ~~((advisory))~~ board determines that the contention of the applicant for a decision was proper, the two hundred dollars shall be returned to the applicant; otherwise it shall be used in paying the expenses and per diem of the members of the ~~((advisory))~~ board in connection with the matter. Any portion of the two hundred dollars not used in paying the per diem and expenses of the board in the case shall be paid into the electrical license fund.

Sec. 111. Section 7, chapter 169, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 10, chapter 156, Laws of 1986 and RCW 19.28.310 are each amended to read as follows:

The department has the power, in case of continued noncompliance with the provisions of this chapter, to revoke or suspend for such a period as it determines, any electrical contractor license or electrical contractor administrator certificate issued under this chapter. The department shall notify the holder of the license or certificate of the revocation or suspension by certified mail. A revocation or suspension is effective fifteen days after the holder receives the notice. Any revocation or suspension is subject to review by an appeal to the board ~~((of electrical examiners))~~. The filing of an appeal stays the effect of a revocation or suspension until the board ~~((of electrical examiners))~~ makes its decision. The appeal shall be filed within fifteen days after notice of the revocation or suspension is given by certified mail sent to the address of the holder of the license or certificate as shown on the application for the license or certificate, and shall be effected by filing a written notice of appeal with the department, accompanied by a certified check for two hundred dollars, which shall be returned to the holder of the license or certificate if the decision of the department is not sustained by the board. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW. If the board sustains the decision of the department, the two hundred dollars shall be applied by the department to the payment of the per diem and expenses of the members of the board incurred in the matter, and any balance remaining after payment of per diem and expenses shall be paid into the electrical license fund.

Sec. 112. Section 18, chapter 169, Laws of 1935 as amended by section 1, chapter 67, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 19.28.330 are each amended to read as follows:

All sums received from licenses, permit fees, or other sources, herein shall be paid to the state treasurer and placed in a special fund designated as the "electrical license fund," and by him paid out upon vouchers duly and regularly issued therefor and approved by the director of labor and industries or the director's designee following determination by the board ~~((of electrical examiners))~~ that the sums are necessary to accomplish the intent of chapter 19.28

RCW. The treasurer shall keep an accurate record of payments into, or receipts of, said fund, and of all disbursements therefrom.

Sec. 113. Section 14, chapter 169, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 11, chapter 156, Laws of 1986 and RCW 19.28.350 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity violating any of the provisions of RCW 19.28.010 through ~~((19.28.360))~~ 19.28.360 shall be assessed a penalty of not less than fifty dollars or more than ten thousand dollars. The department shall set by rule a schedule of penalties for violating RCW 19.28.010 through ~~((19.28.360))~~ 19.28.360. The department shall notify the person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity violating any of the provisions of RCW 19.28.010 through ~~((19.28.360))~~ 19.28.360 of the amount of the penalty and of the specific violation by certified mail, return receipt requested, sent to the last known address of the assessed party. Any penalty is subject to review by an appeal to the board ~~((of electrical examiners))~~. The filing of an appeal stays the effect of the penalty until the board ~~((of electrical examiners))~~ makes its decision. The appeal shall be filed within fifteen days after notice of the penalty is given to the assessed party by certified mail, return receipt requested, sent to the last known address of the assessed party and shall be made by filing a written notice of appeal with the department. The notice shall be accompanied by a certified check for two hundred dollars, which shall be returned to the assessed party if the decision of the department is not sustained by the board. If the board sustains the decision of the department, the two hundred dollars shall be applied by the department to the payment of the per diem and expenses of the members of the board incurred in the matter, and any balance remaining after payment of per diem and expenses shall be paid into the electrical license fund. The hearing and review procedures shall be conducted in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW. The board ~~((of electrical examiners))~~ shall assign its hearings to an administrative law judge to conduct the hearing and issue a proposed decision and order. The board shall be allowed a minimum of twenty days to review a proposed decision and shall issue its decision no later than the next regularly scheduled board meeting.

Sec. 114. Section 4, chapter 30, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 14, chapter 206, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.28.530 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon receipt of the application, the department shall review the application and determine whether the applicant is eligible to take an examination for the journeyman or specialty certificate of competency. To be eligible to take the examination for a journeyman certificate the applicant must have worked in the electrical construction trade for a minimum of four years employed full time, of which two years shall be in industrial or commercial electrical installation under the supervision of a journeyman electrician certified under this chapter and not more than a total of two years in all specialties under the supervision of a journeyman electrician certified under this chapter or an appropriate specialty electrician certified under this chapter or have successfully completed an apprenticeship program approved under chapter 49.04 RCW for the electrical construction trade. To be eligible to take the examination to become a specialty electrician the applicant shall have worked in that specialty of the electrical construction trade, under the supervision of a journeyman electrician certified under this chapter or an appropriate specialty electrician certified under this chapter, for a minimum of two years employed full time, or have successfully completed an approved apprenticeship program under chapter 49.04 RCW for the applicant's specialty in the electrical construction trade. Before January 1, 1984, applicants for nonresidential maintenance specialty licenses are eligible to become nonresidential maintenance specialists upon certification to the department that they have the equivalent of two years full-time experience in that specialty field. Persons applying before January 1, 1984, for a journeyman certificate are eligible to take the examination to become journeymen until July 1, 1984, upon certification to the department that they have the equivalent of five years full-time experience in nonresidential maintenance, of which two years shall be in industrial electrical installation. Any applicant who has successfully completed a two-year technical school program in the electrical construction trade in a school that is approved by the commission for vocational education may substitute up to two years of the technical school program for two years of work experience under a journeyman electrician. The applicant shall obtain the additional two years of work experience required in industrial or commercial electrical installation prior to the beginning, or after the completion, of the technical school program. Any applicant who has received training in the electrical construction trade in the armed service of the United States may be eligible to take the examination for the certificate of competency. Any applicant who is a graduate of a trade school program in the electrical construction trade that was established during 1946 is eligible to take the examination for the certificate of competency. No other requirement for eligibility may be imposed.

(2) The department shall establish reasonable rules for the examinations to be given applicants for certificates of competency. In establishing the rules, the department shall consult with the board ~~((of electrical examiners))~~. Upon determination that the applicant is eligible to take the examination, the department shall so notify the applicant, indicating the time and place for taking the examination.

Sec. 115. Section 5, chapter 30, Laws of 1980 as last amended by section 13, chapter 156, Laws of 1986 and RCW 19.28.540 are each amended to read as follows:

The department, in coordination with the board (~~(of electrical examiners)~~), shall prepare an examination to be administered to applicants for journeyman and specialty certificates of competency. The examination shall be constructed to determine:

(1) Whether the applicant possesses varied general knowledge of the technical information and practical procedures that are identified with the status of journeyman electrician or specialty electrician; and

(2) Whether the applicant is sufficiently familiar with the applicable electrical codes and the rules of the department pertaining to electrical installations and electricians.

The department shall, at least four times annually, administer the examination to persons eligible to take it under RCW 19.28.530. A person may take the journeyman or specialty test as many times as necessary without limit. All applicants shall, before taking the examination, pay to the department an examination fee. The department shall set the fee by rule. The fee shall cover but not exceed the costs of preparing and administering the examination.

The department shall certify the results of the examination upon such terms and after such a period of time as the department, in cooperation with the board (~~(of electrical examiners)~~), deems necessary and proper.

(3) The department upon the consent of the board (~~(of electrical examiners)~~) may enter into a contract with a professional testing agency to develop, administer, and score journeyman and/or specialty electrician certification examinations.

Sec. 116. Section 9, chapter 30, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 18, chapter 206, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.28.580 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department may revoke any certificate of competency upon the following grounds:

(a) The certificate was obtained through error or fraud;

(b) The holder thereof is judged to be incompetent to work in the electrical construction trade as a journeyman electrician or specialty electrician;

(c) The holder thereof has violated any of the provisions of RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620 or any rule adopted under this chapter.

(2) Before any certificate of competency shall be revoked, the holder shall be given written notice of the department's intention to do so, mailed by registered mail, return receipt requested, to the holder's last known address. The notice shall enumerate the allegations against the holder, and shall give the holder the opportunity to request a hearing before the board (~~(of electrical examiners)~~). At the hearing, the department and the holder may produce witnesses and give testimony. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW. The board shall render its decision based upon the testimony and evidence presented, and shall notify the parties immediately upon reaching its decision. A majority of the board shall be necessary to render a decision.

Sec. 117. Section 13, chapter 30, Laws of 1980 as last amended by section 17, chapter 156, Laws of 1986 and RCW 19.28.620 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It is unlawful for any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity to employ an individual for purposes of RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620 who has not been issued a certificate of competency or a training certificate. It is unlawful for any individual to engage in the electrical construction trade or to maintain or install any electrical equipment or conductors without having in his or her possession a certificate of competency or a training certificate under RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620. Any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity found in violation of RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620 shall be assessed a penalty of not less than fifty dollars or more than five hundred dollars. The department shall set by rule a schedule of penalties for violating RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620. An appeal may be made to the board (~~(of electrical examiners)~~) as is provided in RCW 19.28.350. The appeal shall be filed within fifteen days after the notice of the penalty is given to the assessed party by certified mail, return receipt requested, sent to the last known address of the assessed party and shall be made by filing a written notice of appeal with the department. Any equipment maintained or installed by any person who does not possess a certificate of competency under RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620 shall not receive an electrical work permit and electrical service shall not be connected or maintained to operate the equipment. Each day that a person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity violates the provisions of RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620 is a separate violation.

(2) A civil penalty shall be collected in a civil action brought by the attorney general in the county wherein the alleged violation arose at the request of the department if any of the provisions of RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620 or any rules promulgated under RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620 are violated.

PART II WORK-STUDY ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Sec. 201. Section 5, chapter 177, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as amended by section 59, chapter 370, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28B.12.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The higher education coordinating board shall disburse college work-study funds (~~(after consideration of recommendations of a panel convened by the higher education coordinating~~ ~~board, and composed of representatives of~~). In performing its duties under this section, the board shall consult eligible institutions and post-secondary education advisory and governing bodies. ~~((Said commission))~~ The board shall establish criteria ~~((for the panel))~~ designed to achieve such distribution of assistance under this chapter among students attending eligible institutions as will most effectively carry out the purposes of this chapter.

Sec. 202. Section 6, chapter 177, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as amended by section 60, chapter 370, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28B.12.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The higher education coordinating board shall adopt rules and regulations as may be necessary or appropriate for effecting the provisions of this chapter, and not in conflict with this chapter, in accordance with the provisions of chapter 28B.19 RCW, the state higher education administrative procedure act. Such rules and regulations shall ~~((be promulgated upon consideration of advice from a panel composed of representatives of institutional financial aid officers, a representative of employee organizations having membership in the classified service of the state's institutions of higher education, and will))~~ include provisions designed to make employment under such work-study program reasonably available, to the extent of available funds, to all eligible students in eligible post-secondary institutions in need thereof. Such rules and regulations shall include:

(1) Providing work under the college work-study program which will not result in the displacement of employed workers or impair existing contracts for services.

(2) Furnishing work only to a student who:

(a) Is capable, in the opinion of the eligible institution, of maintaining good standing in such course of study while employed under the program covered by the agreement; and

(b) Has been accepted for enrollment as at least a half-time student at the eligible institution or, in the case of a student already enrolled in and attending the eligible institution, is in good standing and in at least half-time attendance there either as an undergraduate, graduate or professional student; and

(c) Is not pursuing a degree in theology.

(3) Placing priority on the securing of work opportunities for students who are residents of the state of Washington as defined in RCW 28B.15.011 through 28B.15.014.

(4) Provisions to assure that in the state institutions of higher education utilization of this student work-study program:

(a) Shall only supplement and not supplant classified positions under jurisdiction of chapter 28B.16 RCW;

(b) That all positions established which are comparable shall be identified to a job classification under the higher education personnel board's classification plan and shall receive equal compensation;

(c) Shall not take place in any manner that would replace classified positions reduced due to lack of funds or work; and

(d) That work study positions shall only be established at entry level positions of the classified service.

PART III HIGHER EDUCATION COORDINATING BOARD

Sec. 301. Section 14, chapter 370, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28B.80.430 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall employ a director and may delegate agency management to the director. The director shall serve at the pleasure of the board, shall be the executive officer of the board, and shall, under the board's supervision, administer the provisions of this chapter. The executive director shall, with the approval of the board: (1) Employ necessary deputy and assistant directors and other exempt staff under chapter 28B.16 RCW who shall serve at his or her pleasure on such terms and conditions as he or she determines and (2) subject to the provisions of chapter 28B.16 RCW, appoint and employ such other employees as may be required for the proper discharge of the functions of the board. The executive director shall exercise such additional powers, other than rulemaking, as may be delegated by the board by resolution. In fulfilling the duties under this chapter, the board shall make extensive use of those state agencies with responsibility for implementing and supporting postsecondary education plans and policies including but not limited to appropriate legislative groups, the postsecondary education institutions, the office of financial management, the commission for vocational education, and the state board for community college education. Outside consulting and service agencies may also be employed. The board may compensate these groups and consultants in appropriate ways.

PART IV STATE BOARD FOR THE CERTIFICATION OF LIBRARIANS

Sec. 401. Section 2, chapter 5, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 1, chapter 79, Laws of 1986 and RCW 27.04.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The state library commission:

(1) May make such rules under chapter 34.04 RCW as may be deemed necessary and proper to carry out the purposes of this chapter;

(2) Shall set general policy direction pursuant to the provisions of this chapter;

(3) Shall appoint a state librarian who shall serve at the pleasure of the commission;

(4) Shall adopt a recommended budget and submit it to the governor;

(5) Shall have authority to contract with any agency of the state of Washington for the purpose of providing library materials, supplies, and equipment and employing assistants as needed for the development, growth, and operation of any library facilities or services of such agency;

(6) Shall have authority to contract with any public library in the state for that library to render library service to the blind and/or physically handicapped throughout the state. The state library commission shall have authority to compensate such public library for the cost of the service it renders under such contract;

(7) May adopt rules under chapter 34.04 RCW for the allocation of any grants of state, federal, or private funds for library purposes;

(8) Shall have authority to accept and to expend in accordance with the terms thereof any grant of federal or private funds which may become available to the state for library purposes. For the purpose of qualifying to receive such grants, the state library commission is authorized to make such applications and reports as may be required by the federal government or appropriate private entity as a condition thereto;

(9) Shall have the authority to provide for the sale of library material in accordance with RCW 27.12.305; and

(10) Shall (~~pay expenses of the state board for certification of librarians under RCW 27.06-.045~~) have authority to establish rules and regulations for, and prescribe and hold examinations to test, the qualifications of those seeking certificates as librarians.

(a) The commission shall grant librarians' certificates without examination to applicants who are graduates of library schools accredited by the American library association for general library training, and shall grant certificates to other applicants when it has satisfied itself by examination that the applicant has attainments and abilities equivalent to those of a library school graduate and is qualified to carry on library work ably and efficiently.

(b) The commission shall require a fee of not less than one dollar nor greater than that required to recover the costs associated with the application to be paid by each applicant for a librarian's certificate. Money paid as fees shall be deposited with the state treasurer.

(c) A library serving a community having over four thousand population shall not have in its employ, in the position of librarian or in any other full-time professional library position, a person who does not hold a librarian's certificate issued by the commission or its predecessor.

(d) A full-time professional library position, as intended by this subsection, is one that requires, in the opinion of the commission, a knowledge of books and of library technique equivalent to that required for graduation from an accredited library school.

(e) The provisions of this subsection apply to every library serving a community having over four thousand population and to every library operated by the state or under its authority, including libraries of institutions of higher learning; PROVIDED, That nothing in this subsection applies to the state law library or to county law libraries.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 402. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 11, chapter 119, Laws of 1935, section 12, chapter 106, Laws of 1973, section 59, chapter 287, Laws of 1984 and RCW 27.08.010; and

"Authorized emergency vehicle" means any vehicle of any fire department, police department, sheriff's office, coroner, prosecuting attorney, Washington state patrol, ambulance service, public or private, which need not be classified, registered or authorized by the state ((~~commission on equipment~~)) patrol, or any other vehicle authorized in writing by the state ((~~commission on equipment~~)) patrol.

Sec. 702. Section 1, chapter 213, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.04.304 are each amended to read as follows:

"Moped" means any two-wheeled or three-wheeled device having fully operative pedals for propulsion by human power and a motor with a cylinder displacement not exceeding fifty cubic centimeters which produces no more than two gross brake horsepower (developed by a prime mover, as measured by a brake applied to the driving shaft) and is capable of propelling the device at a maximum speed of not more than thirty miles per hour on level ground, and the wheels of which are at least sixteen inches in diameter.

The state ((~~commission on equipment~~)) patrol may approve of and define as a "moped" a vehicle which fails to meet these specific criteria, but which is essentially similar in performance and application to vehicles which do meet these specific criteria.

Sec. 703. Section 1, chapter 200, Laws of 1983 and RCW 46.04.710 are each amended to read as follows:

"Wheelchair conveyance" means any vehicle specially manufactured or designed for the transportation of a physically or medically impaired wheelchair-bound person. The vehicle may be a separate vehicle used in lieu of a wheelchair or a separate vehicle used for transporting the impaired person while occupying a wheelchair. The vehicle shall be equipped with a propulsion device capable of propelling the vehicle within a speed range established by the ((~~commission on equipment~~)) state patrol. The ((~~commission~~)) state patrol may approve and define as a wheelchair conveyance, a vehicle that fails to meet these specific criteria but is essentially similar in performance and application to vehicles that do meet these specific criteria.

Sec. 704. Section 46.16.240, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 10, chapter 170, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 46.16.240 are each amended to read as follows:

The vehicle license number plates shall be attached conspicuously at the front and rear of each vehicle for which the same are issued and in such a manner that they can be plainly seen and read at all times: PROVIDED, That if only one license number plate is legally issued for any vehicle such plate shall be conspicuously attached to the rear of such vehicle. Each vehicle license number plate shall be placed or hung in a horizontal position at a distance of not less than one foot nor more than four feet from the ground and shall be kept clean so as to be plainly seen and read at all times: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That in cases where the body construction of the vehicle is such that compliance with this section is impossible, permission to deviate therefrom may be granted by the state ((~~commission on equipment~~)) patrol. It shall be unlawful to display upon the front or rear of any vehicle, vehicle license number plate or plates other than those furnished by the director for such vehicle or to display upon any vehicle any vehicle license number plate or plates which have been in any manner changed, altered, disfigured or have become illegible. It shall be unlawful for any person to operate any vehicle unless there shall be displayed thereon valid vehicle license number plates attached as herein provided.

Sec. 705. Section 46.32.060, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 5, chapter 123, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.32.060 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any person to operate or move, or for any owner to cause or permit to be operated or moved upon any public highway, any vehicle or combination of vehicles, which is not at all times equipped in the manner required by this title, or the equipment of which is not in a proper condition and adjustment as required by this title or rules adopted by the chief of the Washington state patrol.

Any vehicle operating upon the public highways of this state and at any time found to be defective in equipment in such a manner that it may be considered unsafe shall be an unlawful vehicle and may be prevented from further operation until such equipment defect is corrected and any peace officer is empowered to impound such vehicle until the same has been placed in a condition satisfactory to vehicle inspection. The necessary cost of impounding any such unlawful vehicle and any cost for the storage and keeping thereof shall be paid by the owner thereof. The impounding of any such vehicle shall be in addition to any penalties for such unlawful operation.

The provisions of this section shall not be construed to prevent the operation of any such defective vehicle to a place for correction of equipment defect in the manner directed by any peace officer or representative of the state ((~~commission on equipment~~)) patrol.

Sec. 706. Section 46.37.005, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 165, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.37.005 are each amended to read as follows:

(There is constituted a state commission on equipment which shall consist of the director of the department of licensing, the chief of the Washington state patrol, and the secretary of transportation. Each official may designate an administrative staff person to serve as the official's designee on the commission. For purposes of continuity this designee shall, where possible, be one individual. The chief of the Washington state patrol or his designee shall act as the chairman of the state commission on equipment. He shall appoint either the director of licensing or the secretary of transportation or their respective designees to serve as vice-chairman in his absence. The chairman or the designated vice-chairman must be present at each meeting of the commission. The chief shall appoint a person under his supervision to act as secretary of the state commission on equipment who shall be responsible for the issuance of rules and regulations adopted by the commission, for the issuance of certificates of approval for vehicle equipment requiring approval and letters of appointment to tow operators, and for the administration of such other business of the commission on equipment as the commission shall specify.)

In addition to those powers and duties elsewhere granted (~~by the provisions of this title the state commission on equipment~~), ~~the chief of the Washington state patrol~~ shall have the power and the duty to adopt, apply, and enforce such reasonable rules and regulations (1) relating to proper types of vehicles or combinations thereof for hauling passengers, commodities, freight, and supplies, (2) relating to vehicle equipment, and (3) relating to the enforcement of the provisions of this title with regard to vehicle equipment, as may be deemed necessary for the public welfare and safety in addition to but not inconsistent with the provisions of this title.

The (~~state commission on equipment~~) ~~chief of the Washington state patrol~~ is authorized to adopt by regulation, federal standards relating to motor vehicles and vehicle equipment, issued pursuant to the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1966, or any amendment to said act, notwithstanding any provision in Title 46 RCW inconsistent with such standards. Federal standards adopted pursuant to this section shall be applicable only to vehicles manufactured in a model year following the adoption of such standards.

Sec. 707. Section 46.37.010, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 69, chapter 136, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.37.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It is a traffic infraction for any person to drive or move or for the owner to cause or knowingly permit to be driven or moved on any highway any vehicle or combination of vehicles which is in such unsafe condition as to endanger any person, or which does not contain those parts or is not at all times equipped with such lamps and other equipment in proper condition and adjustment as required in this chapter or in regulations issued by the (~~state commission on equipment~~) ~~chief of the Washington state patrol~~, or which is equipped in any manner in violation of this chapter or the (~~commission's~~) ~~state patrol's~~ regulations, or for any person to do any act forbidden or fail to perform any act required under this chapter or the (~~commission's~~) ~~state patrol's~~ regulations.

(2) Nothing contained in this chapter or the (~~commission's~~) ~~state patrol's~~ regulations shall be construed to prohibit the use of additional parts and accessories on any vehicle not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter or the (~~commission's~~) ~~state patrol's~~ regulations.

(3) The provisions of the chapter and the (~~commission's~~) ~~state patrol's~~ regulations with respect to equipment on vehicles shall not apply to implements of husbandry, road machinery, road rollers, or farm tractors except as herein made applicable.

(4) No owner or operator of a farm tractor, self-propelled unit of farm equipment, or implement of husbandry shall be guilty of a crime or subject to penalty for violation of RCW 46.37.160 as now or hereafter amended unless such violation occurs on a public highway.

(5) It is a traffic infraction for any person to sell or offer for sale vehicle equipment which is required to be approved by the (~~commission on equipment~~) ~~state patrol~~ as prescribed in RCW 46.37.005 unless it has been approved by the state (~~commission on equipment~~) ~~patrol~~.

(6) The provisions of this chapter with respect to equipment required on vehicles shall not apply to motorcycles or motor-driven cycles except as herein made applicable.

Sec. 708. Section 46.37.160, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 14, chapter 355, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 46.37.160 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every farm tractor and every self-propelled unit of farm equipment or implement of husbandry manufactured or assembled after January 1, 1970, shall be equipped with vehicular hazard warning lights of the type described in RCW 46.37.215 visible from a distance of not less than one thousand feet to the front and rear in normal sunlight, which shall be displayed whenever any such vehicle is operated upon a highway.

(2) Every self-propelled unit of farm equipment or implement of husbandry manufactured or assembled after January 1, 1970, shall at all times, and every other motor vehicle shall at times mentioned in RCW 46.37.020, be equipped with lamps and reflectors as follows:

(a) At least two headlamps meeting the requirements of RCW 46.37.220, 46.37.240, or 46.37.260;

(b) At least one red lamp visible when lighted from a distance of not less than one thousand feet to the rear mounted as far to the left of center of vehicle as practicable;

(c) At least two red reflectors visible from all distances within six hundred to one hundred feet to the rear when directly in front of lawful lower beams of headlamps.

(3) Every combination of farm tractor and towed farm equipment or towed implement of husbandry shall at all times mentioned in RCW 46.37.020 be equipped with lamps and reflectors as follows:

(a) The farm tractor element of every such combination shall be equipped as required in subsections (1) and (2) of this section;

(b) The towed unit of farm equipment or implement of husbandry element of such combination shall be equipped on the rear with two red lamps visible when lighted from a distance of not less than one thousand feet to the rear, and two red reflectors visible to the rear from all distances within six hundred feet to one hundred feet to the rear when directly in front of lawful upper beams of head lamps. One reflector shall be so positioned to indicate, as nearly as practicable, the extreme left projection of the towed unit;

(c) If the towed unit or its load obscures either of the vehicle hazard warning lights on the tractor, the towed unit shall be equipped with vehicle hazard warning lights described in subsection (1) of this section.

(4) The two red lamps and the two red reflectors required in the foregoing subsections of this section on a self-propelled unit of farm equipment or implement of husbandry or combination of farm tractor and towed farm equipment shall be so positioned as to show from the rear as nearly as practicable the extreme width of the vehicle or combination carrying them: PROVIDED, That if all other requirements are met, reflective tape or paint may be used in lieu of reflectors required by subsection (3) of this section.

(5) After January 1, 1970, every farm tractor and every self-propelled unit of farm equipment or implement of husbandry designed for operation at speeds not in excess of twenty-five miles per hour shall at all times be equipped with a slow moving vehicle emblem mounted on the rear except as provided in subsection (6) of this section.

(6) After January 1, 1970, every combination of farm tractor and towed farm equipment or towed implement of husbandry normally operating at speeds not in excess of twenty-five miles per hour shall at all times be equipped with a slow moving vehicle emblem as follows:

(a) Where the towed unit is sufficiently large to obscure the slow moving vehicle emblem on the farm tractor, the towed unit shall be equipped with a slow moving vehicle emblem. In such cases, the towing vehicle need not display the emblem;

(b) Where the slow moving vehicle emblem on the farm tractor unit is not obscured by the towed unit, then either or both may be equipped with the required emblem but it shall be sufficient if either has it.

(7) The emblem required by subsections (5) and (6) of this section shall comply with current standards and specifications as promulgated by the ~~((state commission on equipment))~~ Washington state patrol.

Sec. 709. Section 46.37.185, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 3, chapter 92, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.37.185 are each amended to read as follows:

Firemen, when approved by the chief of their respective service, shall be authorized to use a green light on the front of their private cars when on emergency duty only. Such green light shall be visible for a distance of two hundred feet under normal atmospheric conditions and shall be of a type and mounting approved by the ~~((commission on equipment))~~ Washington state patrol. The use of the green light shall only be for the purpose of identification and the operator of a vehicle so equipped shall not be entitled to any of the privileges provided in RCW 46.61.035 for the operators of authorized emergency vehicles.

Sec. 710. Section 46.37.190, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 331, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.37.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every authorized emergency vehicle shall, in addition to any other equipment and distinctive marking required by this chapter, be equipped with at least one lamp capable of displaying a red light visible from at least five hundred feet in normal sunlight and a siren capable of giving an audible signal.

(2) Every school bus and private carrier bus shall, in addition to any other equipment and distinctive markings required by this chapter, be equipped with a "stop" signal upon a background not less than fourteen by eighteen inches displaying the word "stop" in letters of distinctly contrasting colors not less than eight inches high, and shall further be equipped with signal lamps mounted as high and as widely spaced laterally as practicable, which shall be capable of displaying to the front two alternately flashing red lights located at the same level and to the rear two alternately flashing red lights located at the same level and these lights shall have sufficient intensity to be visible at five hundred feet in normal sunlight.

(3) Vehicles operated by public agencies whose law enforcement duties include the authority to stop and detain motor vehicles on the public highways of the state may be equipped with a siren and lights of a color and type designated by the ~~((commission on equipment))~~ state patrol for that purpose. The ~~((commission))~~ state patrol may prohibit the use of these sirens and lights on vehicles other than the vehicles described in this subsection.

(4) The lights described in this section shall not be mounted nor used on any vehicle other than a school bus, a private carrier bus, or an authorized emergency or law enforcement vehicle. Optical strobe light devices shall not be installed or used on any vehicle other than an emergency vehicle authorized by the ~~((Washington state commission on equipment))~~ state patrol or a publicly-owned law enforcement or emergency vehicle. An "optical strobe light device" means a strobe light device which emits an optical signal at a specific frequency to a traffic control light enabling the vehicle in which the strobe light device is used to obtain the right of way at intersections.

(5) The use of the signal equipment described herein shall impose upon drivers of other vehicles the obligation to yield right of way and stop as prescribed in RCW 46.61.210, 46.61.370, and 46.61.350.

Sec. 711. Section 46.37.194, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.37.194 are each amended to read as follows:

The state (~~((commission on equipment))~~) patrol may make rules and regulations relating to authorized emergency vehicles and shall test and approve sirens and emergency vehicle lamps to be used on such vehicles.

Sec. 712. Section 46.37.210, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 18, chapter 355, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 46.37.210 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any motor vehicle may be equipped with not more than two side cowl or fender lamps which shall emit an amber or white light without glare.

(2) Any motor vehicle may be equipped with not more than one running-board courtesy lamp on each side thereof which shall emit a white or amber light without glare.

(3) Any motor vehicle may be equipped with one or more back-up lamps either separately or in combination with other lamps, but any such back-up lamp or lamps shall not be lighted when the motor vehicle is in forward motion.

(4) Any vehicle may be equipped with one or more side marker lamps, and any such lamp may be flashed in conjunction with turn or vehicular hazard warning signals. Side marker lamps located toward the front of a vehicle shall be amber, and side marker lamps located toward the rear shall be red.

(5) Any vehicle eighty inches or more in over-all width, if not otherwise required by RCW 46.37.090, may be equipped with not more than three identification lamps showing to the front which shall emit an amber light without glare and not more than three identification lamps showing to the rear which shall emit a red light without glare. Such lamps shall be mounted as specified in RCW 46.37.090(~~((6))~~(7)).

(6) (a) Every motor vehicle, trailer, semitrailer, truck tractor, and pole trailer used in the state of Washington may be equipped with an auxiliary lighting system consisting of:

(i) One green light to be activated when the accelerator of the motor vehicle is depressed;

(ii) Not more than two amber lights to be activated when the motor vehicle is moving forward, or standing and idling, but is not under the power of the engine.

(b) Such auxiliary system shall not interfere with the operation of vehicle stop lamps or turn signals, as required by RCW 46.37.070. Such system, however, may operate in conjunction with such stop lamps or turn signals.

(c) Only one color of the system may be illuminated at any one time, and at all times either the green light, or amber light or lights shall be illuminated when the stop lamps of the vehicle are not illuminated.

(d) The green light, and the amber light or lights, when illuminated shall be plainly visible at a distance of one thousand feet to the rear.

(e) Only one such system may be mounted on a motor vehicle, trailer, semitrailer, truck tractor, or pole trailer; and such system shall be rear mounted in a horizontal fashion, at a height of not more than seventy-two inches, nor less than twenty inches, as provided by RCW 46.37.050.

(f) On a combination of vehicles, only the lights of the rearmost vehicle need actually be seen and distinguished as provided in subparagraph (d) of this subsection.

(g) Each manufacturer's model of such a system as described in this subsection shall be approved by the (~~((commission on equipment))~~) state patrol as provided for in RCW 46.37.005 and 46.37.320, before it may be sold or offered for sale in the state of Washington.

Sec. 713. Section 46.37.280, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 24, chapter 355, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 46.37.280 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) During the times specified in RCW 46.37.020, any lighted lamp or illuminating device upon a motor vehicle, other than head lamps, spot lamps, auxiliary lamps, flashing turn signals, emergency vehicle warning lamps, warning lamps authorized by the state (~~((commission on equipment))~~) patrol and school bus warning lamps, which projects a beam of light of an intensity greater than three hundred candlepower shall be so directed that no part of the high intensity portion of the beam will strike the level of the roadway on which the vehicle stands at a distance of more than seventy-five feet from the vehicle.

(2) Except as required in RCW 46.37.190 no person shall drive or move any vehicle or equipment upon any highway with any lamp or device thereon displaying a red light visible from directly in front of the center thereof.

(3) Flashing lights are prohibited except as required in RCW 46.37.190, 46.37.200, 46.37.210, 46.37.215, and 46.37.300, and warning lamps authorized by the state (~~((commission on equipment))~~) patrol.

Sec. 714. Section 46.37.290, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 45, Laws of 1977 and RCW 46.37.290 are each amended to read as follows:

The (~~state commission on equipment~~) chief of the Washington state patrol is authorized to adopt standards and specifications applicable to lighting equipment on and special warning devices to be carried by school buses and private carrier buses consistent with the provisions of this chapter, but supplemental thereto. Such standards and specifications shall correlate with and, so far as possible, conform to the specifications then current as approved by the society of automotive engineers.

Sec. 715. Section 46.37.300, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 20, chapter 154, Laws of 1963 and RCW 46.37.300 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The state (~~commission on equipment~~) patrol shall adopt standards and specifications applicable to head lamps, clearance lamps, identification and other lamps on snow-removal and other highway maintenance and service equipment when operated on the highways of this state in lieu of the lamps otherwise required on motor vehicles by this chapter. Such standards and specifications may permit the use of flashing lights for purposes of identification on snow-removal and other highway maintenance and service equipment when in service upon the highways. The standards and specifications for lamps referred to in this section shall correlate with and, so far as possible, conform with those approved by the American association of state highway officials.

(2) It shall be unlawful to operate any snow-removal and other highway maintenance and service equipment on any highway unless the lamps thereon comply with and are lighted when and as required by the standards and specifications adopted as provided in this section.

Sec. 716. Section 46.37.310, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 113, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.37.310 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No person may have for sale, sell, or offer for sale for use upon or as a part of the equipment of a motor vehicle, trailer, or semitrailer, or use upon any such vehicle any head lamp, auxiliary or fog lamp, rear lamp, signal lamp, or reflector, which reflector is required under this chapter, or parts of any of the foregoing which tend to change the original design or performance, unless of a type which has been submitted to the state (~~commission on equipment~~) patrol and conforming to rules adopted by it.

(2) No person may have for sale, sell, or offer for sale for use upon or as a part of the equipment of a motor vehicle, trailer, or semitrailer any lamp or device mentioned in this section conforming to rules adopted by the state (~~commission on equipment~~) patrol unless such lamp or device bears thereon the trademark or name under which it is approved so as to be legible when installed.

(3) No person may use upon any motor vehicle, trailer, or semitrailer any lamps mentioned in this section unless the lamps are mounted, adjusted, and aimed in accordance with instructions of the state (~~commission on equipment~~) patrol.

Sec. 717. Section 2, chapter 113, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.37.320 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The (~~state commission on equipment~~) chief of the state patrol is hereby authorized to adopt and enforce rules establishing standards and specifications governing the performance of lighting devices and their installation, adjustment, and aiming, when in use on motor vehicles, and other safety equipment, components, or assemblies of a type for which regulation is required in this chapter or in rules adopted by the (~~commission~~) state patrol. Such rules shall correlate with and, so far as practicable, conform to federal motor vehicle safety standards adopted pursuant to the national traffic and motor vehicle safety act of 1966 (15 U.S.C. Sec. 1381 et seq.) covering the same aspect of performance, or in the absence of such federal standards, to the then current standards and specifications of the society of automotive engineers applicable to such equipment: PROVIDED, That the sale, installation, and use of any headlamp meeting the standards of either the society of automotive engineers or the United Nations agreement concerning motor vehicle equipment and parts done at Geneva on March 20, 1958, or as amended and adopted by the Canadian standards association (CSA standard D106.2), as amended, shall be lawful in this state.

(2) Every manufacturer who sells or offers for sale lighting devices or other safety equipment subject to requirements established by the (~~commission~~) state patrol shall, if the lighting device or safety equipment is not in conformance with applicable federal motor vehicle safety standards, provide for submission of such lighting device or safety equipment to any recognized organization or agency such as, but not limited to, the American national standards institute, the society of automotive engineers, or the American association of motor vehicle administrators, as the agent of the (~~commission~~) state patrol. Issuance of a certificate of compliance for any lighting device or item of safety equipment by that agent is deemed to comply with the standards set forth by the (~~commission on equipment~~) state patrol. Such certificate shall be issued by the agent of the state before sale of the product within the state.

(3) The (~~commission~~) state patrol may at any time request from the manufacturer a copy of the test data showing proof of compliance of any device with the requirements established by the (~~commission~~) state patrol and additional evidence that due care was exercised in maintaining compliance during production. If the manufacturer fails to provide such proof of compliance within sixty days of notice from the ~~((commission))~~ state patrol, the ~~((commission))~~ state patrol may prohibit the sale of the device in this state until acceptable proof of compliance is received by the ~~((commission))~~ state patrol.

(4) The ~~((commission))~~ state patrol or its agent may purchase any lighting device or other safety equipment, component, or assembly subject to this chapter or rules adopted by the ~~((commission))~~ state patrol under this chapter, for purposes of testing or retesting the equipment as to its compliance with applicable standards or specifications.

Sec. 718. Section 46.37.330, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 26, chapter 355, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 46.37.330 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the state ~~((commission-on-equipment))~~ patrol has reason to believe that an approved device does not comply with the requirements of this chapter or regulations issued by the state ~~((commission-on-equipment))~~ patrol, it may, after giving thirty days' previous notice to the person holding the certificate of approval for such device in this state, conduct a hearing upon the question of compliance of said approved device. After said hearing the state ~~((commission-on-equipment))~~ patrol shall determine whether said approved device meets the requirements of this chapter and regulations issued by the ~~((commission))~~ state patrol. If said device does not meet the requirements of this chapter or the ~~((commission's))~~ state patrol's regulations it shall give notice to the one to whom the certificate of approval has been issued of the ~~((commission's))~~ state patrol's intention to suspend or revoke the certificate of approval for such device in this state.

(2) If at the expiration of ninety days after such notice the person holding the certificate of approval for such device has failed to satisfy the state ~~((commission-on-equipment))~~ patrol that said approved device as thereafter to be sold or offered for sale meets the requirements of this chapter or the ~~((commission's))~~ state patrol's regulations, the state ~~((commission-on-equipment))~~ patrol shall suspend or revoke the approval issued therefor and shall require the withdrawal of all such devices from the market and may require that all said devices sold since the notification be replaced with devices that do comply.

(3) When a certificate of approval has been suspended or revoked pursuant to this chapter or regulations by the state ~~((commission-on-equipment))~~ patrol, the device shall not be again approved unless and until it has been submitted for reapproval and it has been demonstrated, in the same manner as in an application for an original approval, that the device fully meets the requirements of this chapter or regulations issued by the state ~~((commission-on-equipment))~~ patrol. The state ~~((commission-on-equipment))~~ patrol may require that all previously approved items are being effectively recalled and removed from the market as a condition of reapproval.

Sec. 719. Section 24, chapter 154, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 29, chapter 355, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 46.37.365 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The term "hydraulic brake fluid" as used in this section shall mean the liquid medium through which force is transmitted to the brakes in the hydraulic brake system of a vehicle.

(2) Hydraulic brake fluid shall be distributed and serviced with due regard for the safety of the occupants of the vehicle and the public.

(3) The ~~((state-commission-on-equipment))~~ chief of the Washington state patrol shall, in compliance with the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW, the administrative procedure act, which govern the adoption of rules, adopt and enforce regulations for the administration of this section and shall adopt and publish standards and specifications for hydraulic brake fluid which shall correlate with, and so far as practicable conform to, the then current standards and specifications of the society of automotive engineers applicable to such fluid.

(4) No person shall distribute, have for sale, offer for sale, or sell any hydraulic brake fluid unless it complies with the requirements of this section and the standard specifications adopted by the state ~~((commission-on-equipment))~~ patrol. No person shall service any vehicle with brake fluid unless it complies with the requirements of this section and the standards and specifications adopted by the state ~~((commission-on-equipment))~~ patrol.

(5) Subsections (3) and (4) of this section shall not apply to petroleum base fluids in vehicles with brake systems designed to use them.

Sec. 720. Section 46.37.380, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 3, chapter 113, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.37.380 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every motor vehicle when operated upon a highway shall be equipped with a horn in good working order and capable of emitting sound audible under normal conditions from a distance of not less than two hundred feet, but no horn or other warning device may emit an unreasonably loud or harsh sound or a whistle. The driver of a motor vehicle shall when reasonably necessary to insure safe operation give audible warning with his horn but shall not otherwise use such horn when upon a highway.

(2) No vehicle may be equipped with nor may any person use upon a vehicle any siren, whistle, or bell, except as otherwise permitted in this section.

(3) It is permissible for any vehicle to be equipped with a theft alarm signal device so long as it is so arranged that it cannot be used by the driver as an ordinary warning signal. Such a theft alarm signal device may use a whistle, bell, horn, or other audible signal but shall not use a siren.

(4) Any authorized emergency vehicle may be equipped with a siren, whistle, or bell capable of emitting sound audible under normal conditions from a distance of not less than five hundred feet and of a type conforming to rules adopted by the state (~~commission on equipment~~) patrol, but the siren shall not be used except when the vehicle is operated in response to an emergency call or in the immediate pursuit of an actual or suspected violator of the law, in which latter events the driver of the vehicle shall sound the siren when reasonably necessary to warn pedestrians and other drivers of its approach.

Sec. 721. Section 46.37.420, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 4, chapter 113, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.37.420 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It is unlawful to operate a vehicle upon the public highways of this state unless it is completely equipped with pneumatic rubber tires.

(2) No tire on a vehicle moved on a highway may have on its periphery any block, flange, cleat, or spike or any other protuberance of any material other than rubber which projects beyond the tread of the traction surface of the tire, except that it is permissible to use farm machinery with tires having protuberances that will not injure the highway, and except also that it is permissible to use tire chains or metal studs imbedded within the tire of reasonable proportions and of a type conforming to rules adopted by the state (~~commission on equipment~~) patrol, upon any vehicle when required for safety because of snow, ice, or other conditions tending to cause a vehicle to skid. It is unlawful to use metal studs imbedded within the tire between April 1st and November 1st. The state department of transportation may, from time to time, determine additional periods in which the use of tires with metal studs imbedded therein is lawful.

(3) The state department of transportation and local authorities in their respective jurisdictions may issue special permits authorizing the operation upon a highway of traction engines or tractors having movable tracks with transverse corrugations upon the periphery of the movable tracks or farm tractors or other farm machinery, the operation of which upon a highway would otherwise be prohibited under this section.

(4) Tires with metal studs imbedded therein may be used between November 1st and April 1st upon school buses and fire department vehicles, any law or regulation to the contrary notwithstanding.

Sec. 722. Section 3, chapter 77, Laws of 1971 as last amended by section 73, chapter 136, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.37.425 are each amended to read as follows:

No person shall drive or move or cause to be driven or moved any vehicle, the tires of which have contact with the driving surface of the road, subject to registration in this state, upon the public highways of this state unless such vehicle is equipped with tires in safe operating condition in accordance with requirements established by this section or by the state (~~commission on equipment~~) patrol.

The state (~~commission on equipment~~) patrol shall promulgate rules and regulations setting forth requirements of safe operating condition of tires capable of being employed by a law enforcement officer by visual inspection of tires mounted on vehicles including visual comparison with simple measuring gauges. These rules shall include effects of tread wear and depth of tread.

A tire shall be considered unsafe if it has:

(1) Any ply or cord exposed either to the naked eye or when cuts or abrasions on the tire are probed; or

(2) Any bump, bulge, or knot, affecting the tire structure; or

(3) Any break repaired with a boot; or

(4) A tread depth of less than 2/32 of an inch measured in any two major tread grooves at three locations equally spaced around the circumference of the tire, or for those tires with tread wear indicators, a tire shall be considered unsafe if it is worn to the point that the tread wear indicators contact the road in any two major tread grooves at three locations equally spaced around the circumference of the tire; or

(5) A legend which indicates the tire is not intended for use on public highways such as, "not for highway use" or "for racing purposes only"; or

(6) Such condition as may be reasonably demonstrated to render it unsafe; or

(7) If not matched in tire size designation, construction, and profile to the other tire and/or tires on the same axle.

No person, firm, or corporation shall sell any vehicle for use on the public highways of this state unless the vehicle is equipped with tires that are in compliance with the provisions of this section. If the tires are found to be in violation of the provisions of this section, the person, firm, or corporation selling the vehicle shall cause such tires to be removed from the vehicle and shall equip the vehicle with tires that are in compliance with the provisions of this section.

It is a traffic infraction for any person to operate a vehicle on the public highways of this state, or to sell a vehicle for use on the public highways of this state, which is equipped with a tire or tires in violation of the provisions of this section or the rules and regulations promulgated by the state (~~commission on equipment~~) patrol hereunder: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That if the violation relates to items (1) to (7) inclusive of this section then the condition or defect must be such that it can be detected by a visual inspection of tires mounted on vehicles, including visual comparison with simple measuring gauges.

Sec. 723. Section 46.37.430, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 5, chapter 113, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.37.430 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No person may sell any new motor vehicle as specified in this title, nor may any new motor vehicle as specified in this title be registered unless such vehicle is equipped with safety glazing material of a type approved by the state (~~(commission on equipment)~~ patrol) wherever glazing material is used in doors, windows, and windshields. The foregoing provisions apply to all passenger-type motor vehicles, including passenger buses and school buses, but in respect to trucks, including truck tractors, the requirements as to safety glazing material (~~(applies apply)~~) apply to all glazing material used in doors, windows, and windshields in the drivers' compartments of such vehicles except as provided by subsection (4) of this section.

(2) The term "safety glazing materials" means glazing materials so constructed, treated, or combined with other materials as to reduce substantially, in comparison with ordinary sheet glass or plate glass, the likelihood of injury to persons by objects from exterior sources or by these safety glazing materials when they may be cracked or broken.

(3) The director of licensing shall not register any motor vehicle which is subject to the provisions of this section unless it is equipped with an approved type of safety glazing material, and he shall suspend the registration of any motor vehicle so subject to this section which he finds is not so equipped until it is made to conform to the requirements of this section.

(4) No person may sell or offer for sale, nor may any person operate a motor vehicle registered in this state which is equipped with, any camper manufactured after May 23, 1969, unless such camper is equipped with safety glazing material of a type conforming to rules adopted by the state (~~(commission on equipment)~~ patrol) wherever glazing materials are used in outside windows and doors.

(5) No tinting or coloring material that reduces light transmittance to any degree, unless it meets standards for such material adopted by the state (~~(commission on equipment)~~ patrol), may be applied to the surface of the safety glazing material in a motor vehicle in any of the following locations:

- (a) Windshields.
- (b) Windows to the immediate right and left of the driver including windwings or.
- (c) Rearmost windows if used for driving visibility by means of an interior rear-view mirror.

The standards adopted by the (~~(commission)~~ state patrol) shall permit a greater degree of light reduction on a vehicle operated by or carrying as a passenger a person who possesses written verification from a licensed physician that the operator or passenger must be protected from exposure to sunlight for physical or medical reasons.

Nothing in this subsection prohibits the use of shaded or heat-absorbing safety glazing material in which the shading or heat-absorbing characteristics have been applied at the time of manufacture of the safety glazing material and which meet the standards of the state (~~(commission on equipment)~~ patrol) for such safety glazing materials.

(6) The standards used for approval of safety glazing materials by the state (~~(commission on equipment)~~ patrol) shall conform as closely as possible to the standards for safety glazing materials for motor vehicles promulgated by the United States of America Standards Institute in effect at the time of manufacture of the safety glazing material.

Sec. 724. Section 46.37.440, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 6, chapter 113, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.37.440 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No person may operate any motor truck, passenger bus, truck tractor, motor home, or travel trailer over eighty inches in overall width upon any highway outside the corporate limits of municipalities at any time unless there is carried in such vehicle the following equipment except as provided in subsection (2) of this section:

(a) At least three flares or three red electric lanterns or three portable red emergency reflectors, each of which shall be capable of being seen and distinguished at a distance of not less than six hundred feet under normal atmospheric conditions at nighttime.

No flare, fusee, electric lantern, or cloth warning flag may be used for the purpose of compliance with this section unless such equipment is of a type which has been submitted to the state (~~(commission on equipment)~~ patrol) and conforms to rules adopted by it. No portable reflector unit may be used for the purpose of compliance with the requirements of this section unless it is so designed and constructed as to be capable of reflecting red light clearly visible from all distances within six hundred feet to one hundred feet under normal atmospheric conditions at night when directly in front of lawful upper beams of head lamps, and unless it is of a type which has been submitted to the state (~~(commission on equipment)~~ patrol) and conforms to rules adopted by it:

(b) At least three red-burning fusees unless red electric lanterns or red portable emergency reflectors are carried;

(c) At least two red-cloth flags, not less than twelve inches square, with standards to support such flags.

(2) No person may operate at the time and under conditions stated in subsection (1) of this section any motor vehicle used for the transportation of explosives, any cargo tank truck used for the transportation of flammable liquids or compressed gases or liquefied gases, or any motor vehicle using compressed gas as a fuel unless there is carried in such vehicle three red electric lanterns or three portable red emergency reflectors meeting the requirements of subsection (1) of this section, and there shall not be carried in any said vehicle any flares, fuseses, or signal produced by flame.

Sec. 725. Section 46.37.450, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 119, Laws of 1984 and RCW 46.37.450 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever any motor truck, passenger bus, truck tractor over eighty inches in overall width, trailer, semitrailer, or pole trailer is disabled upon the traveled portion of any highway or the shoulder thereof outside any municipality at any time when lighted lamps are required on vehicles, the driver of such vehicle shall display the following warning devices upon the highway during the time the vehicle is so disabled on the highway except as provided in subsection (2) of this section:

(a) A lighted fusee, a lighted red electric lantern, or a portable red emergency reflector shall be immediately placed at the traffic side of the vehicle in the direction of the nearest approaching traffic.

(b) As soon thereafter as possible but in any event within the burning period of the fusee (fifteen minutes), the driver shall place three liquid-burning flares (pot torches), three lighted red electric lanterns, or three portable red emergency reflectors on the traveled portion of the highway in the following order:

(i) One, approximately one hundred feet from the disabled vehicle in the center of the lane occupied by such vehicle and toward traffic approaching in that lane.

(ii) One, approximately one hundred feet in the opposite direction from the disabled vehicle and in the center of the traffic lane occupied by such vehicle.

(iii) One at the traffic side of the disabled vehicle not less than ten feet rearward or forward thereof in the direction of the nearest approaching traffic. If a lighted red electric lantern or a red portable emergency reflector has been placed at the traffic side of the vehicle in accordance with subdivision (a) of this subsection, it may be used for this purpose.

(2) Whenever any vehicle referred to in this section is disabled within five hundred feet of a curve, hillcrest, or other obstruction to view, the warning signal in that direction shall be so placed as to afford ample warning to other users of the highway, but in no case less than five hundred feet from the disabled vehicle.

(3) Whenever any vehicle of a type referred to in this section is disabled upon any roadway of a divided highway during the time that lights are required, the appropriate warning devices prescribed in subsections (1) and (5) of this section shall be placed as follows:

One at a distance of approximately two hundred feet from the vehicle in the center of the lane occupied by the stopped vehicle and in the direction of traffic approaching in that lane; one at a distance of approximately one hundred feet from the vehicle, in the center of the lane occupied by the vehicle and in the direction of traffic approaching in that lane; and one at the traffic side of the vehicle and approximately ten feet from the vehicle in the direction of the nearest approaching traffic.

(4) Whenever any vehicle of a type referred to in this section is disabled upon the traveled portion of a highway or the shoulder thereof outside any municipality at any time when the display of fuseses, flares, red electric lanterns, or portable red emergency reflectors is not required, the driver of the vehicle shall display two red flags upon the roadway in the lane of traffic occupied by the disabled vehicle, one at a distance of approximately one hundred feet in advance of the vehicle, and one at a distance of approximately one hundred feet to the rear of the vehicle.

(5) Whenever any motor vehicle used in the transportation of explosives or any cargo tank truck used for the transportation of any flammable liquid or compressed flammable gas, or any motor vehicle using compressed gas as a fuel, is disabled upon a highway of this state at any time or place mentioned in subsection (1) of this section, the driver of such vehicle shall immediately display the following warning devices: One red electric lantern or portable red emergency reflector placed on the roadway at the traffic side of the vehicle, and two red electric lanterns or portable red reflectors, one placed approximately one hundred feet to the front and one placed approximately one hundred feet to the rear of this disabled vehicle in the center of the traffic lane occupied by such vehicle. Flares, fuseses, or signals produced by flame shall not be used as warning devices for disabled vehicles of the type mentioned in this subsection.

(6) Whenever any vehicle, other than those described in subsection (1) of this section, is disabled upon the traveled portion of any highway or shoulder thereof outside any municipality at any time when lights are required on vehicles, the state patrol or the county sheriff shall, upon discovery of the disabled vehicle, place a reflectorized warning device on or near the vehicle. The warning device and its placement shall be in accordance with rules adopted by the ~~((commission on equipment))~~ state patrol. Neither the standards for, placement or use of, nor the lack of placement or use of a warning device under this subsection gives rise to any civil liability on the part of the state of Washington, the state patrol, any county, or any law enforcement agency or officer.

(7) The flares, fuseses, red electric lanterns, portable red emergency reflectors, and flags to be displayed as required in this section shall conform with the requirements of RCW 46.37.440 applicable thereto.

Sec. 726. Section 46.37.470, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.37.470 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The term "air-conditioning equipment" as used or referred to in this section shall mean mechanical vapor compression refrigeration equipment which is used to cool the driver's or passenger compartment of any motor vehicle.

(2) Such equipment shall be manufactured, installed and maintained with due regard for the safety of the occupants of the vehicle and the public and shall not contain any refrigerant which is toxic to persons or which is flammable.

(3) The state (~~(commission on equipment)~~) patrol may adopt and enforce safety requirements, regulations and specifications consistent with the requirements of this section applicable to such equipment which shall correlate with and, so far as possible, conform to the current recommended practice or standard applicable to such equipment approved by the society of automotive engineers.

(4) No person shall have for sale, offer for sale, sell or equip any motor vehicle with any such equipment unless it complies with the requirements of this section.

(5) No person shall operate on any highway any motor vehicle equipped with any air-conditioning equipment unless said equipment complies with the requirements of this section.

Sec. 727. Section 46.37.490, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.37.490 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful to operate any vehicle upon the public highways of this state without having the load thereon securely fastened and protected by safety chains or other device. The (~~(state commission on equipment)~~) chief of the Washington state patrol is hereby authorized to adopt and enforce reasonable rules and regulations as to what shall constitute adequate and safe chains or other devices for the fastening and protection of loads upon vehicles.

Sec. 728. Section 1, chapter 215, Laws of 1983 and RCW 46.37.505 are each amended to read as follows:

(~~By October 1, 1983;~~) The state (~~(commission on equipment)~~) patrol shall adopt standards for the performance, design, and installation of passenger restraint systems for children less than five years old and shall approve those systems which meet its standards.

Sec. 729. Section 1, chapter 117, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 7, chapter 113, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.37.510 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No person may sell any automobile manufactured or assembled after January 1, 1964, nor may any owner cause such vehicle to be registered thereafter under the provisions of chapter 46.12 RCW unless such motor car or automobile is equipped with automobile seat belts installed for use on the front seats thereof which are of a type and installed in a manner conforming to rules adopted by the state (~~(commission on equipment)~~) patrol. Where registration is for transfer from an out-of-state license, the applicant shall be informed of this section by the issuing agent and has thirty days to comply. The state (~~(commission on equipment)~~) patrol shall adopt and enforce standards as to what constitutes adequate and safe seat belts and for the fastening and installation of them. Such standards shall not be below those specified as minimum requirements by the Society of Automotive Engineers on June 13, 1963.

(2) Every passenger car manufactured or assembled after January 1, 1965, shall be equipped with at least two lap-type safety belt assemblies for use in the front seating positions.

(3) Every passenger car manufactured or assembled after January 1, 1968, shall be equipped with a lap-type safety belt assembly for each permanent passenger seating position. This requirement shall not apply to police vehicles.

(4) Every passenger car manufactured or assembled after January 1, 1968, shall be equipped with at least two shoulder harness-type safety belt assemblies for use in the front seating positions.

(5) The (~~(commission on equipment)~~) state patrol shall excuse specified types of motor vehicles or seating positions within any motor vehicle from the requirements imposed by subsections (1), (2), and (3) of this section when compliance would be impractical.

(6) No person may distribute, have for sale, offer for sale, or sell any safety belt or shoulder harness for use in motor vehicles unless it meets current minimum standards and specifications conforming to rules adopted by the (~~(commission)~~) state patrol or the United States department of transportation.

Sec. 730. Section 61, chapter 170, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 91, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.37.520 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any person to lease for hire or permit the use of any vehicle with soft tires commonly used upon the beach and referred to as a dune buggy unless such vehicle has been inspected by and approved by the state (~~(commission on equipment)~~) patrol, which (~~(commission)~~) may charge a reasonable fee therefor to go into the motor vehicle fund.

Sec. 731. Section 51, chapter 355, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 158, chapter 158, Laws of 1979 and RCW 46.37.529 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The state (~~((commission on equipment))~~ patrol) is authorized to require an inspection of the braking system on any motor-driven cycle and to disapprove any such braking system on a vehicle which it finds will not comply with the performance ability standard set forth in RCW 46.37.351, or which in its opinion is equipped with a braking system that is not so designed or constructed as to ensure reasonable and reliable performance in actual use.

(2) The director of licensing may refuse to register or may suspend or revoke the registration of any vehicle referred to in this section when the state (~~((commission on equipment))~~ patrol) determines that the braking system thereon does not comply with the provisions of this section.

(3) No person shall operate on any highway any vehicle referred to in this section in the event the state (~~((commission on equipment))~~ patrol) has disapproved the braking system upon such vehicle.

Sec. 732. Section 4, chapter 232, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 8, chapter 113, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.37.530 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It is unlawful:

(a) For any person to operate a motorcycle or motor-driven cycle not equipped with mirrors on the left and right sides of the motorcycle which shall be so located as to give the driver a complete view of the highway for a distance of at least two hundred feet to the rear of the motorcycle or motor-driven cycle: PROVIDED, That mirrors shall not be required on any motorcycle or motor-driven cycle over twenty-five years old originally manufactured without mirrors and which has been restored to its original condition and which is being ridden to or from or otherwise in conjunction with an antique or classic motorcycle contest, show, or other such assemblage: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no mirror is required on any motorcycle manufactured prior to January 1, 1931:

(b) For any person to operate a motorcycle or motor-driven cycle which does not have a windshield unless wearing glasses, goggles, or a face shield of a type conforming to rules adopted by the state (~~((commission on equipment))~~ patrol):

(c) For any person to sell or offer for sale a motorcycle helmet which does not meet the requirements established by the state (~~((commission on equipment))~~ patrol).

(2) The state (~~((commission on equipment))~~ patrol) is hereby authorized and empowered to adopt and amend rules, pursuant to the administrative procedure act, concerning the standards and procedures for conformance of rules adopted for glasses, goggles, face shields, and protective helmets.

Sec. 733. Section 10, chapter 232, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 9, chapter 113, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.37.535 are each amended to read as follows:

It is unlawful for any person to rent out motorcycles unless he also has on hand for rent helmets of a type conforming to rules adopted by the (~~((commission on equipment))~~ state patrol).

Sec. 734. Section 4, chapter 200, Laws of 1983 and RCW 46.37.610 are each amended to read as follows:

The (~~((commission on equipment))~~ state patrol) shall adopt rules for wheelchair conveyance safety standards. Operation of a wheelchair conveyance that is in violation of these standards is a traffic infraction.

Sec. 735. Section 2, chapter 204, Laws of 1963 and RCW 46.38.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds that:

(1) The public safety necessitates the continuous development, modernization and implementation of standards and requirements of law relating to vehicle equipment, in accordance with expert knowledge and opinion.

(2) The public safety further requires that such standards and requirements be uniform from jurisdiction to jurisdiction, except to the extent that specific and compelling evidence supports variation.

(3) The state (~~((commission on equipment))~~ patrol), acting upon recommendations of the vehicle equipment safety commission and pursuant to the vehicle equipment safety compact provides a just, equitable and orderly means of promoting the public safety in the manner and within the scope contemplated by this chapter.

Sec. 736. Section 3, chapter 204, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 57, chapter 145, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.38.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Pursuant to Article V(e) of the vehicle equipment safety compact it is the intention of this state and it is hereby provided that any rule, regulation, or code issued by the vehicle equipment safety commission in accordance with Article V of the compact shall take effect when issued in accordance with the administrative procedure act by the state (~~((commission on equipment))~~ patrol).

Sec. 737. Section 4, chapter 204, Laws of 1963 and RCW 46.38.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The commissioner of this state on the vehicle equipment safety commission shall be appointed by the (~~((members of the state commission on equipment))~~ chief of the state patrol) to serve at (~~((their))~~ the chief's) pleasure. The (~~((members of the state commission on equipment))~~ chief of the state patrol) chief of the state patrol may also designate an alternate commissioner to serve whenever the commissioner of this state is unable to participate on the vehicle equipment safety commission. Subject to the provisions of the compact and bylaws of the vehicle equipment safety commission, the authority and responsibilities of such alternate shall be as determined by the (~~state commission on equipment~~) chief of the state patrol.

Sec. 738. Section 6, chapter 204, Laws of 1963 and RCW 46.38.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Filing of documents as required by Article III(f) of the compact shall be with the (~~secretary of the state commission on equipment~~) chief of the state patrol. Any and all notices required by commission bylaws to be given pursuant to Article III(f) of the compact shall be given to the commissioner of this state, his alternate, if any, and the (~~secretary of the state commission on equipment~~) chief of the state patrol.

Sec. 739. Section 1, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.55.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The definitions set forth in this section apply throughout this chapter:

- (1) "Abandoned vehicle" means a vehicle that a registered tow truck operator has impounded and held in his possession for ninety-six consecutive hours.
- (2) "Abandoned vehicle report" means the document prescribed by the state that the towing operator forwards to the department after a vehicle has become abandoned.
- (3) (~~"Commission" means the state commission on equipment established under RCW 46.37.065;~~

(4)) "Impound" means to take and hold a vehicle in legal custody. There are two types of impounds--public and private.

(a) "Public impound" means that the vehicle has been impounded at the direction of a law enforcement officer or other public official having jurisdiction over the public property upon which the vehicle was located.

(b) "Private impound" means that the vehicle has been impounded at the direction of a person having control or possession of the private property upon which the vehicle was located.

(~~(5)~~) (4) "Junk vehicle" means a motor vehicle certified under RCW 46.55.230 as meeting all the following requirements:

- (a) Is three years old or older;
- (b) Is extensively damaged, such damage including but not limited to any of the following: A broken window or windshield or missing wheels, tires, motor, or transmission;
- (c) Is apparently inoperable;
- (d) Is without a valid, current registration plate;
- (e) Has a fair market value equal only to the value of the scrap in it.

(~~(6)~~) (5) "Registered tow truck operator" or "operator" means any person who engages in the impounding, transporting, or storage of unauthorized vehicles or the disposal of abandoned vehicles.

(~~(7)~~) (6) "Residential property" means property that has no more than four living units located on it.

(~~(8)~~) (7) "Tow truck" means a motor vehicle that is equipped for and used in the business of towing vehicles with equipment as approved by the (~~(commission)~~) state patrol.

(~~(9)~~) (8) "Tow truck number" means the number issued by the department to tow trucks used by a registered tow truck operator in the state of Washington.

(~~(10)~~) (9) "Tow truck permit" means the permit issued annually by the department that has the classification of service the tow truck may provide stamped upon it.

(~~(11)~~) (10) "Tow truck service" means the transporting upon the public streets and highways of this state of unauthorized vehicles, together with personal effects and cargo, by a tow truck of a registered operator.

(~~(12)~~) (11) "Unauthorized vehicle" means a vehicle that is subject to impoundment after being left unattended in one of the following public or private locations for the indicated period of time:

Subject to removal after:

- (a) Public locations:
  - (i) Constituting a traffic hazard as defined in RCW 46.61.565 ..... Immediately
  - (ii) On a highway and tagged as described in RCW 46.52.170 ..... 24 hours
  - (iii) In a publicly owned or controlled parking facility, properly posted under RCW 46.55.070 ..... Immediately
- (b) Private locations:
  - (i) On residential property ..... Immediately
  - (ii) On private, nonresidential property, properly posted under RCW 46.55.070 ..... Immediately

(iii) On private, nonresidential property, not posted ..... 24 hours

Sec. 740. Section 5, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.55.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Tow trucks shall be classified by towing capabilities, and shall meet or exceed all equipment standards set by the ~~((commission on equipment))~~ state patrol for the type of tow trucks to be used by an operator.

(2) All tow trucks shall display the firm's name, city of address, and telephone number. This information shall be painted on or permanently affixed to both sides of the vehicle in accordance with rules adopted by the department.

(3) Before a tow truck is put into tow truck service, or when the reinspection of a tow truck is necessary, the district commander of the state patrol shall designate a location and time for the inspection to be conducted. When practicable, the inspection or reinspection shall be made within three business days following the request by the operator.

(4) Failure to comply with any requirement of this section or rules adopted under it is a traffic infraction.

Sec. 741. Section 17, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.55.170 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All law enforcement agencies or local licensing agencies that receive complaints involving registered tow truck operators shall forward the complaints, along with any supporting documents including all results from local investigations, to the department.

(2) Complaints involving deficiencies of equipment shall be forwarded by the department to the state ~~((commission on equipment))~~ patrol.

Sec. 742. Section 18, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.55.180 are each amended to read as follows:

The director or the ~~((commission))~~ chief of the state patrol may use a hearing officer or administrative law judge for presiding over a hearing regarding infractions by registered tow truck operators of this chapter, chapter 46.37 RCW, or rules adopted thereunder.

Sec. 743. Section 2, chapter 167, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.563 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, the following terms shall have the following meanings unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) ~~((“Commission” means the state commission on equipment as defined in RCW 46.37.005; (2) “Person” means an individual, firm, partnership, corporation, company, association, or their lessees, trustees, or receivers;~~

~~((3))~~ (2) "Highway" means the entire width between the boundary lines of every way publicly maintained when any part thereof is open to the use of the public for purposes of vehicular travel;

~~((4))~~ (3) "Towing operator" means every person who engages in the towing of vehicles and motor vehicles on a highway by means of equipment affixed to a specially constructed tow truck complying with the equipment specifications and standards promulgated by the ~~((commission))~~ state patrol; and

~~((5))~~ (4) "Tow truck" means a specially constructed and equipped motor vehicle for towing vehicles and not otherwise used in transporting goods for compensation.

Sec. 744. Section 5, chapter 167, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 22, chapter 178, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.567 are each amended to read as follows:

The Washington state patrol, under its authority to remove vehicles from the highway, may remove the vehicles directly, through towing operators appointed by the ~~((commission))~~ state patrol and called on a rotational or other basis, through contracts with towing operators, or by a combination of these methods. When removal is to be accomplished through a towing operator on a noncontractual basis, the ~~((commission))~~ state patrol may appoint any towing operator for this purpose upon the application of the operator. Each appointment shall be contingent upon the submission of an application to the ~~((commission))~~ state patrol and the making of subsequent reports in such form and frequency and compliance with such standards of equipment, performance, pricing, and practices as may be required by rule of the ~~((commission))~~ state patrol.

An appointment may be rescinded by the ~~((commission at the request of the Washington))~~ state patrol upon evidence that the appointed towing operator is not complying with the laws or rules relating to the removal and storage of vehicles from the highway. The costs of removal and storage of vehicles under this section shall be paid by the owner or driver of the vehicle and shall be a lien upon the vehicle until paid, unless the removal is determined to be invalid.

Rules promulgated under this section shall be binding only upon those towing operators appointed by the ~~((commission))~~ state patrol for the purpose of performing towing services at the request of the Washington state patrol. Any person aggrieved by a decision of the ~~((commission))~~ state patrol made under this section may appeal the decision under chapter 34.04 RCW.

Sec. 745. Section 2, chapter 215, Laws of 1983 and RCW 46.61.687 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) After December 31, 1983, the parent or legal guardian of a child less than five years old, when the parent or legal guardian is operating anywhere in the state his or her own motor vehicle registered under chapter 46.16 RCW, in which the child is a passenger, shall have the child properly secured in a manner approved by the state (~~commission on equipment~~) patrol. Even though a separate child passenger restraint device is considered the ideal method of protection, a properly adjusted and fastened, federally approved seat belt is deemed sufficient to meet the requirements of this section for children one through four years of age.

(2) During the period from January 1, 1984, to July 1, 1984, a person violating subsection (1) of this section may be issued a written warning of the violation. After July 1, 1984, a person violating subsection (1) of this section may be issued a notice of traffic infraction under chapter 46.63 RCW. If the person to whom the notice was issued presents proof of acquisition of an approved child passenger restraint system within seven days to the jurisdiction issuing the notice, the jurisdiction shall dismiss the notice of traffic infraction. If the person fails to present proof of acquisition within the time required, he or she is subject to a penalty assessment of not less than thirty dollars.

(3) Failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall not constitute negligence by a parent or legal guardian; nor shall failure to use a child restraint system be admissible as evidence of negligence in any civil action.

Sec. 746. Section 85, chapter 155, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 39, chapter 62, Laws of 1975 and RCW 46.61.780 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every bicycle when in use during the hours of darkness as defined in RCW 46.37.020 shall be equipped with a lamp on the front which shall emit a white light visible from a distance of at least five hundred feet to the front and with a red reflector on the rear of a type approved by the state (~~commission on equipment~~) patrol which shall be visible from all distances from one hundred feet to six hundred feet to the rear when directly in front of lawful lower beams of head lamps on a motor vehicle. A lamp emitting a red light visible from a distance of five hundred feet to the rear may be used in addition to the red reflector.

(2) Every bicycle shall be equipped with a brake which will enable the operator to make the braked wheels skid on dry, level, clean pavement.

Sec. 747. Section 2, chapter 7, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 203, chapter 7, Laws of 1984 and RCW 47.36.250 are each amended to read as follows:

If the department or its delegate determines at any time for any part of the public highway system that the unsafe conditions of the roadway require particular tires, tire chains, or traction equipment in addition to or beyond the ordinary pneumatic rubber tires, the department may establish the following recommendations or requirements with respect to the use of such equipment for all persons using such public highway:

(1) Dangerous road conditions, chains or other approved traction devices recommended.

(2) Dangerous road conditions, chains or other approved traction devices required.

(3) Dangerous road conditions, chains required.

Any equipment that may be required by this section shall be approved by the state (~~commission on equipment~~) patrol as authorized under RCW 46.37.420.

The department shall place and maintain signs and other traffic control devices on the public highways that indicate the tire, tire chain, or traction equipment recommendation or requirement determined under this section. Such signs or traffic control devices shall in no event prohibit the use of studded tires from November 1st to April 1st, but when the department determines that chains are required and that no other traction equipment will suffice, the requirement is applicable to all types of tires including studded tires. The signs or traffic control devices may specify different recommendations or requirements for four wheel drive vehicles in gear.

Failure to obey a requirement indicated by a sign or other traffic control device placed or maintained under this section is a misdemeanor.

Sec. 748. Section 47.52.120, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 149, Laws of 1985 and RCW 47.52.120 are each amended to read as follows:

After the opening of any limited access highway facility, it shall be unlawful for any person (1) to drive a vehicle over, upon, or across any curb, central dividing section, or other separation or dividing line on limited access facilities; (2) to make a left turn or semicircular or U-turn except through an opening provided for that purpose in the dividing curb section, separation, or line; (3) to drive any vehicle except in the proper lane provided for that purpose and in the proper direction and to the right of the central dividing curb, separation section, or line; (4) to drive any vehicle into the limited access facility from a local service road except through an opening provided for that purpose in the dividing curb, dividing section, or dividing line which separates such service road from the limited access facility proper; (5) to stop or park any vehicle or equipment within the right of way of such facility, including the shoulders thereof, except at points specially provided therefor, and to make only such use of such specially provided stopping or parking points as is permitted by the designation thereof; PROVIDED, That this subsection shall not apply to authorized emergency vehicles, law enforcement vehicles, assistance vans, or to vehicles stopped for emergency causes or equipment failures;

(6) to travel to or from such facility at any point other than a point designated by the establishing authority as an approach to the facility or to use an approach to such facility for any use in excess of that specified by the establishing authority. For the purposes of this section, an assistance van is a vehicle rendering aid free of charge to vehicles with equipment or fuel problems. The ~~((commission on equipment))~~ state patrol shall establish by rule additional standards and operating procedures, as needed, for assistance vans.

Any person who violates any of the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon arrest and conviction therefor shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the city or county jail for not less than five days nor more than ninety days, or by both fine and imprisonment. Nothing contained in this section prevents the highway authority from proceeding to enforce the prohibitions or limitations of access to such facilities by injunction or as otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 749. Section 7, chapter 183, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 70.107.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Any rule adopted under this chapter relating to the operation of motor vehicles on public highways shall be administered according to testing and inspection procedures adopted by rule by the state ~~((commission on equipment))~~ patrol. Violation of any motor vehicle performance standard adopted pursuant to this chapter shall be a misdemeanor, enforced by such authorities and in such manner as violations of chapter 46.37 RCW. Violations subject to the provisions of this section shall be exempt from the provisions of RCW 70.107.050.

PART VIII
BOARD OF EXAMINERS FOR WATER AND WASTEWATER OPERATOR CERTIFICATION

NEW SECTION. Sec. 801. A new section is added to chapter 70.95B RCW to read as follows:

The director shall designate representatives of certified wastewater treatment plant operators, sewer districts, and employers of certified wastewater treatment plant operators. The director shall consult with these representatives and with the department of social and health services in developing, amending, and evaluating the wastewater certification exams, reviewing reciprocity requests, conducting revocation hearings, and developing rules and regulations.

In order to achieve additional consultation, the director may create a committee or committees of interested parties. The director may authorize customary reimbursement or allowance for travel expenses for those serving on such a committee or committees while they are engaged in the committee's business, in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 802. A new section is added to chapter 70.119 RCW to read as follows:

The secretary shall designate representatives of certified waterworks operators, water districts, and employers of certified waterworks operators. The secretary shall consult with representatives of these groups and with the department of ecology in developing, amending, and evaluating the waterworks certification exams, reviewing reciprocity requests, conducting revocation hearings, and developing rules and regulations.

In order to achieve additional consultation, the secretary may create a committee or committees of interested parties. The secretary may authorize customary reimbursement or allowance for travel expenses for those serving on such a committee or committees while they are engaged in the committee's business, in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

Sec. 803. Section 2, chapter 139, Laws of 1973 and RCW 70.95B.020 are each amended to read as follows:

((5)) (4) "Waste treatment plant" means a facility used in the collection, transmission, storage, pumping, treatment or discharge of any liquid or waterborne waste, whether of domestic origin or a combination of domestic, commercial or industrial waste, and which by its design requires the presence of an operator for its operation. It shall not include any facility used exclusively by a single family residence nor septic tanks with subsoil absorption nor industrial wastewater works.

((6)) (5) "Operator" means an individual employed or appointed by any county, sewer district, municipality, public or private corporation, company, institution, person, or the state of Washington who is designated by the employing or appointing officials as the person on-site in responsible charge of the actual operation of a waste treatment plant.

((7)) (6) "Nationally recognized association of certification authorities" shall mean that organization which serves as an information center for certification activities, recommends minimum standards and guidelines for classification of potable water treatment plants, water distribution systems and wastewater facilities and certification of operators, facilitates reciprocity between state programs and assists authorities in establishing new certification programs and updating existing ones.

Sec. 804. Section 4, chapter 139, Laws of 1973 and RCW 70.95B.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The director ~~(- with the approval of the board;)~~ shall adopt and enforce such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the administration of this chapter. The rules and regulations shall include, but not be limited to, provisions for the qualification and certification of operators for different classifications of waste treatment plants.

Sec. 805. Section 7, chapter 139, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 106, chapter 287, Laws of 1984 and RCW 70.95B.070 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter, a board of examiners for wastewater operator certification shall be appointed. This board may serve in a common capacity for the certification of both water and wastewater plant and system operators. One member shall be named from the department of ecology, by its director to serve at his pleasure, and one member from the department of social and health services by its secretary, to serve at his pleasure, and one member who is required to employ a certified operator and who holds the position of city manager, city engineer, director of public works, superintendent of utilities, or an equivalent position who will be appointed by the governor. The governor shall also appoint two members who are operators holding a certificate of at least the second highest operator classification for wastewater plant operators established by regulation of the director, and if authorized in a water supply system operator certification act, two members who are operators holding a certificate of at least the second highest classification for water works operators established pursuant to such act.~~

~~The employer representative shall be appointed for an initial one-year term and the operators for initial terms of two and three years respectively. Thereafter, the members appointed by the governor shall serve for a three-year period. Vacancies shall be filled for the remainder for an unexpired term by the appointing authorities.~~

~~This board shall assist in the development of)~~ The director of the department of ecology shall develop rules and regulations, shall prepare, administer, and evaluate examinations of operator competency as required in this chapter, and shall ~~(recommend the issuance or revocation of)~~ issue and revoke certificates. The ~~(board)~~ director shall determine when and where the examinations shall be held. The examination shall be held at least three times annually.

~~((Each member appointed by the governor shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses while engaged in the business of the board as prescribed in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.))~~

Sec. 806. Section 10, chapter 139, Laws of 1973 and RCW 70.95B.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The director may ~~(- with the recommendation of the board and after a hearing before the same;)~~ revoke a certificate found to have been obtained by fraud or deceit, or for gross negligence in the operation of a waste treatment plant, or for violating the requirements of this chapter or any lawful rule, order or regulation of the department. No person whose certificate is revoked under this section shall be eligible to apply for a certificate for one year from the effective date of this final order or revocation.

Sec. 807. Section 13, chapter 139, Laws of 1973 and RCW 70.95B.130 are each amended to read as follows:

On or after July 1, 1973, certification of operators by any state which, as determined by the director, accepts certifications made or certification requirements deemed satisfied pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, shall be accorded reciprocal treatment and shall be recognized as valid and sufficient within the purview of this chapter, if in the judgment of the director the certification requirements of such state are substantially equivalent to the requirements of this chapter or any rules or regulations promulgated hereunder.

In making determinations pursuant to this section, the director ~~((shall consult with the board and))~~ may consider any generally applicable criteria and guidelines developed by the nationally recognized association of certification authorities.

Sec. 808. Section 2, chapter 99, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 292, Laws of 1983 and RCW 70.119.020 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((f6))~~ (5) "Certified operator" means an individual employed or appointed by any county, water district, municipality, public or private corporation, company, institution, person, or the state of Washington who is designated by the employing or appointing officials as the person responsible for active daily technical operation.

~~((f7))~~ (6) "Public water supply system" means any water supply system intended or used for human consumption or other domestic uses, including source, treatment, storage, transmission and distribution facilities where water is furnished to any community or group of individuals, or is made available to the public for human consumption or domestic use, but excluding all water supply systems serving one single family residence.

~~((f8))~~ (7) "Purification plant" means that portion of a public water supply system which treats or improves the physical, chemical or bacteriological quality of the system's water to bring the water into compliance with state board of health standards.

~~((f9))~~ (8) "Secretary" means the secretary of the department of social and health services. Sec. 809, Section 5, chapter 99, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 292, Laws of 1983 and RCW 70.119.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The secretary shall adopt ~~((with the approval of the board))~~ such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the administration of this chapter and shall enforce such rules and regulations. The rules and regulations shall include provisions establishing minimum qualifications and procedures for the certification of operators, criteria for determining the kind and nature of continuing educational requirements for renewal of certification under RCW 70.119.100(2), and provisions for classifying water purification plants and distribution systems.

Rules and regulations adopted under the provisions of this section shall be adopted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW.

Sec. 810, Section 8, chapter 99, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 6, chapter 292, Laws of 1983 and RCW 70.119.080 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter, the membership of the water and wastewater operator certification board of examiners established under RCW 70.95B.070 shall, pursuant to RCW 70.95B.070:~~

~~(1) Be expanded to include two waterworks operators;~~

~~(2) Serve in a common capacity for the certification of both water and wastewater plant and system operators; and~~

~~(3) Be expanded to include one commissioner from a water district and one commissioner from a sewer district operating under Title 56 or 57 RCW.~~

~~In addition to the powers and duties in RCW 70.95B.070, the board shall assist in the development of rules and regulations implementing this chapter.)~~ The secretary shall prepare, administer and evaluate examinations of operator competency as required in this chapter, and shall ~~((recommend the issuance or revocation of))~~ issue and revoke certificates. The ~~((board))~~ secretary shall determine where and when the examinations shall be held. Such examinations shall be held at least three times annually.

Sec. 811, Section 11, chapter 99, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 9, chapter 292, Laws of 1983 and RCW 70.119.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The secretary may ~~((with the recommendation of the board and after hearing before the same))~~ revoke a certificate found to have been obtained by fraud or deceit; or for gross negligence in the operation of a purification plant or distribution system; or for an intentional violation of the requirements of this chapter or any lawful rules, order, or regulation of the department. No person whose certificate is revoked under this section shall be eligible to apply for a certificate for six months from the effective date of the final order of revocation.

Sec. 812, Section 14, chapter 99, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 70.119.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Operators certified by any state under provisions that, in the judgment of the secretary, are substantially equivalent to the requirements of this chapter and any rules and regulations promulgated hereunder, may be issued, upon application, a certificate without examination.

In making determinations pursuant to this section, the secretary ~~((shall consult with the board and))~~ may consider any generally applicable criteria and guidelines developed by a nationally recognized association of certification authorities.

PART IX

FOREST PRACTICES ADVISORY COMMITTEE

NEW SECTION. Sec. 901, Section 20, chapter 137, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 76.09.200 are each repealed.

PART X
COMMUNITY COLLEGE BOARDS OF TRUSTEES

Sec. 1001. Section 28B.50.100, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 224, Laws of 1983 and RCW 28B.50.100 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created a community college board of trustees for each community college district as set forth in this chapter. Each community college board of trustees shall be composed of five trustees, who shall be appointed by the governor for terms commencing October 1st of the year in which appointed. In making such appointments the governor shall give consideration to geographical exigencies, and the interests of labor, industry, agriculture, the professions and ethnic groups.

The successors of the trustees initially appointed shall be appointed by the governor to serve for a term of five years except that any person appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of any term shall be appointed only for the remainder of the term. Each member shall serve until a successor is appointed and qualified.

Every trustee shall be a resident and qualified elector of the community college district. No trustee may be an employee of the community college system, a member of the board of directors of any school district, or a member of the governing board of any public or private educational institution (~~or an elected officer or member of the legislative authority of any municipal corporation~~).

Each board of trustees shall organize itself by electing a chairman from its members. The board shall adopt a seal and may adopt such bylaws, rules and regulations as it deems necessary for its own government. Three members of the board shall constitute a quorum, but a lesser number may adjourn from time to time and may compel the attendance of absent members in such manner as prescribed in its bylaws, rules, or regulations. The district president, or if there be none, the president of the community college, shall serve as, or may designate another person to serve as, the secretary of the board, who shall not be deemed to be a member of the board.

Members of the boards of trustees may be removed for misconduct or malfeasance in office in the manner provided by RCW 28B.10.500.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1002. Section 1001 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

PART XI
WINTER RECREATION
ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Sec. 1101. Section 8, chapter 209, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 47, Laws of 1986 and RCW 43.51.340 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is created a winter recreation advisory committee to advise the parks and recreation commission in the administration of this chapter and to assist and advise the commission in the development of winter recreation facilities and programs.

(2) The committee shall consist of:

(a) Six representatives of the nonsnowmobiling winter recreation public appointed by the commission, including a resident of each of the six geographical areas of this state where nonsnowmobiling winter recreation activity occurs, as defined by the commission.

(b) Three representatives of the snowmobiling public appointed by the commission.

(c) One representative of the department of natural resources, one representative of the department of game, and one representative of the Washington state association of counties, each of whom shall be appointed by the director of the particular department or association.

(3) The terms of the members appointed under subsection (2) (a) and (b) of this section shall begin on October 1 of the year of appointment and shall be for three years or until a successor is appointed, except in the case of appointments to fill vacancies for the remainder of the unexpired term: PROVIDED, That the first of these members shall be appointed for terms as follows: Three members shall be appointed for one year, three members shall be appointed for two years, and three members shall be appointed for three years.

(4) Members of the committee (~~(appointed under subsection (2) (a) and (b) of this section)~~) shall be reimbursed from the winter recreational program account created by RCW 43.51.310 for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now or hereafter amended.

(5) The committee shall meet at times and places it determines not less than twice each year and additionally as required by the committee chairman or by majority vote of the committee. The chairman of the committee shall be chosen under rules adopted by the committee. The committee shall adopt any other rules necessary to govern its proceedings.

(6) The director of parks and recreation or the director's designee shall serve as secretary to the committee and shall be a nonvoting member.

(7) The winter recreation advisory committee and its powers and duties shall terminate on June 30, 1991.

PART XII
SNOWMOBILE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Sec. 1201. Section 2, chapter 182, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 16, Laws of 1986 and by section 9, chapter 270, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.10.220 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) There is created in the Washington state parks and recreation commission a snowmobile advisory committee to advise the commission regarding the administration of this chapter.

(2) The purpose of the committee is to assist and advise the commission in the planned development of snowmobile facilities and programs.

(3) The committee shall consist of:

(a) Six interested snowmobilers, appointed by the commission; each such member shall be a resident of one of the six geographical areas throughout this state where snowmobile activity occurs, as defined by the commission;

(b) Three representatives of the nonsnowmobiling public, appointed by the commission; and

(c) One representative of the department of natural resources, one representative of the department of game, and one representative of the Washington state association of counties; each of whom shall be appointed by the director of such department or association.

(4) Terms of the members appointed under (3)(a) and (b) of this section shall commence on October 1st of the year of appointment and shall be for three years or until a successor is appointed, except in the case of appointments to fill vacancies which shall be for the remainder of the unexpired term: PROVIDED, That the first such members shall be appointed for terms as follows: Three members shall be appointed for one year, three members shall be appointed for two years, and three members shall be appointed for three years.

(5) Members of the committee (~~appointed under (3)(a) and (b) of this section~~) shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now or hereafter amended. Expenditures under this subsection shall be from the snowmobile account created by RCW 46.10.075.

(6) The committee may meet at times and places fixed by the committee. The committee shall meet not less than twice each year and additionally as required by the committee chairman or by majority vote of the committee. One of the meetings shall be coincident with a meeting of the commission at which the committee shall provide a report to the commission. The chairman of the committee shall be chosen under rules adopted by the committee from those members appointed under (3)(a) and (b) of this section.

(7) The Washington state parks and recreation commission shall serve as recording secretary to the committee. A representative of the department of licensing shall serve as an ex officio member of the committee and shall be notified of all meetings of the committee. The recording secretary and the ex officio member shall be nonvoting members.

(8) The committee shall adopt rules to govern its proceedings.

PART XIII
FOREST PRACTICES BOARD

Sec. 1301. Section 3, chapter 137, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 70, chapter 466, Laws of 1985 and RCW 76.09.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created the forest practices board of the state of Washington as an agency of state government consisting of members as follows:

(a) The commissioner of public lands or his designee;

(b) The director of the department of trade and economic development or his designee;

(c) The director of the department of agriculture or his designee;

(d) The director of the department of ecology or his designee;

(e) An elected member of a county legislative authority appointed by the governor: PROVIDED, That such member's service on the board shall be conditioned on his continued service as an elected county official; and

(f) Six members of the general public appointed by the governor, one of whom shall be an owner of not more than five hundred acres of forest land, and one of whom shall be an independent logging contractor.

(2) The members of the initial board appointed by the governor shall be appointed so that the term of one member shall expire December 31, 1975, the term of one member shall expire December 31, 1976, the term of one member shall expire December 31, 1977, the terms of two members shall expire December 31, 1978, and the terms of two members shall expire December 31, 1979. Thereafter, each member shall be appointed for a term of four years. Vacancies on the board shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointments. Each member of the board shall continue in office until his successor is appointed and qualified. The commissioner of public lands or his designee shall be the chairman of the board.

(3) The board shall meet at such times and places as shall be designated by the chairman or upon the written request of the majority of the board. The principal office of the board shall be at the state capital.

(4) Members of the board, except public employees and elected officials, shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 ~~((and in addition they))~~. Each member shall be entitled to reimbursement for travel expenses incurred in the performance of their duties as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(5) The board may employ such clerical help and staff pursuant to chapter 41.06 RCW as is necessary to carry out its duties.

PART XIV

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1401. This act shall not be construed as affecting any existing right acquired or liability or obligation incurred under the sections amended or repealed in this act or under any rule, regulation, or order adopted under those sections, nor as affecting any proceeding instituted under those sections. The rules of the agencies abolished by this act shall continue in force until acted upon by the succeeding agency and shall be enforced by the succeeding agency. If there is no succeeding agency, the rules shall terminate.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1402. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the following amendment to the Committee on Governmental Operations amendment be adopted:

On page 1, after line 4 of the amendment, insert the following:

"PART I

LAW REVISION COMMISSION

NEW SECTION, Sec. 101. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 1, chapter 183, Laws of 1982 and RCW 1.30.010;
- (2) Section 2, chapter 183, Laws of 1982 and RCW 1.30.020;
- (3) Section 3, chapter 183, Laws of 1982 and RCW 1.30.030;
- (4) Section 4, chapter 183, Laws of 1982 and RCW 1.30.040;
- (5) Section 5, chapter 183, Laws of 1982 and RCW 1.30.050;
- (6) Section 9, chapter 183, Laws of 1982 and RCW 1.30.060; and
- (7) Section 10, chapter 183, Laws of 1982 and RCW 41.06.083."

Renumber the remaining parts and sections, and correct any internal references accordingly.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Deccio: "Mr. President, I would like to challenge the scope and object of the Senate amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 454. I see some language in here that really bothers me on page 21, line 3, giving additional powers to the Executive Director of the HEP Board. This is a board that is just newly created and we have real problems with agencies that exceed the legislative intent and we spell it out in language that says, 'The Executive Director shall exercise such additional powers, other than rule making as may be delegated by the board by resolution.' I think what really bothers me, and I think it ought to bother other people on this floor, there is no other way to do this. I only wanted to challenge this language, but I understand from talking to the Secretary, that I had to challenge the scope and object of the entire bill and I hate to do that, but I had no other choice."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "Do I understand that he is challenging the committee amendment?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "It's my understanding, Senator."
Further debate ensued.

Cherberg; Secretary of the Senate, Sid Snyder; Assistant Secretary of the Senate, Bill Gleason; Sergeant At Arms, Orlando Scarpelli

WHEREAS, The Washington State Legislature, each year since 1981, has recognized and selected senior students from the public and private high schools in the state of Washington for their academic achievements, leadership abilities, as well as service to their communities; and

WHEREAS, Three senior students are selected from each of the state's forty-nine legislative districts by a distinguished panel of educators; and

WHEREAS, The one hundred and forty-seven students who have been selected as Washington Scholars in 1987 have proven their abilities as outstanding students, leaders and citizens; and

WHEREAS, The families of these one hundred and forty-seven students have nurtured and supported the growth and development of their children in order that they may become responsible, contributing members of our society; and

WHEREAS, The academic growth of these students has been encouraged and supported by many dedicated educators in the schools of Washington State; and

WHEREAS, These selected students receive a two-year waiver of tuition and fees based upon their ability to maintain a 3.5 grade point average at Washington's public four-year colleges and universities; and

WHEREAS, The citizenry of the state of Washington is enriched by the presence of these talented and committed young people;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That these one hundred and forty-seven Washington Scholars be recognized for their diligence and dedication to their academic and community responsibilities; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That these Washington Scholars and their families be congratulated on achieving this noteworthy accomplishment; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate immediately transmit copies of this resolution to all of the one hundred and forty-seven academic scholars, three from each of the forty-nine legislative districts.

Senators Gaspard, Hayner, Bailey, Rasmussen, Zimmerman and Sellar spoke to the resolution.

Creating a governor's commission on children.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following Committee on Human Services and Corrections amendment was not adopted:

On page 2, line 16, after "attendance" strike "or contribution"

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following amendment by Senators Talmadge, Wojahn and Kiskaddon was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) There is established the governor's commission on children, referred to in this chapter as the commission, to be composed of eight legislators, two appointed by each caucus of the senate and house of representatives, and seven lay members, to be appointed by the governor. The chair of the commission shall rotate annually among the legislative members of the majority parties in the senate and house of representatives. The first chair shall be elected by a majority vote of the commission.

(2) The commission shall have the following functions:

(a) To develop a long-term children's services strategy for the development of an effective, comprehensive coordinated children's services delivery system that will meet the needs of children in the state. The objective of the strategy shall be to (i) define existing service needs of children in Washington state, utilizing existing studies and data sources where appropriate, (ii) identify the kinds of services needed by children and families to meet a minimum standard and level of physical and mental health and safety, (iii) identify the current level of services available and gaps or overlapping services, and (iv) make recommendations to implement an effective comprehensive service delivery system. The commission shall submit an initial strategy to the appropriate committees of the legislature by October 1, 1988;

(b) In formulating the long-term children's services strategy, the commission shall seek input from providers with expertise in children's mental health, health care including prenatal care, adolescent drug and alcohol treatment, education including early childhood education, nonprofit funding sources, child abuse and neglect, child care, dependency, delinquency and the juvenile justice system, family support services, and representatives from minority communities including the migrant worker community, the black community, the native American community, and the Asian community. The commission shall also consult with the governor, the director of revenue, the office of financial management, the director of community development, the superintendent of public instruction, and the secretary of the department of social and health services;

(c) To consult with the Washington council for the prevention of child abuse and neglect regarding the creation of a state-wide data-base clearinghouse. The commission shall report to the appropriate legislative committees regarding the need for and feasibility of a state-wide clearinghouse. If the commission recommends the creation of a clearinghouse, the report shall include alternative designs for a data-base clearinghouse, estimated costs related to both the startup and maintenance of a clearinghouse, potential housing sites for the clearinghouse and placements for terminal links, and funding sources for the clearinghouse;

(3) The strategy under subsection (2)(a) of this section shall include consideration of:

(a) The identification of ways to reduce overlapping services and to fill in service gaps through shared service provisions;

(b) Methods to increase the effectiveness, participation, and communication among city, county, state, private nonprofit, and private for profit funding sources in defining and funding the service delivery system; and

(c) The identification and recommendation of state funding priorities for prevention and early intervention activities to meet the needs of children and families;

(4) A final report outlining the long-term children's services strategy and recommendations shall be submitted to the appropriate committees of the legislature by January 10, 1989.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. The commission shall be dissolved and this chapter shall expire on January 30, 1989, unless significant need for its continuation is demonstrated and the legislature acts to extend its operation.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. Sections 1 and 2 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1987."

On motion of Senator Wojahn, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "children;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new chapter to Title 43 RCW; providing an expiration date; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency."

*PART XIV

ADVISORY COMMITTEE TO THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AND HEALTH SERVICES

Sec. 1401, Section 13, chapter 189, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 259, Laws of 1984 and RCW 43.20A.370 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created a state advisory committee to the department of social and health services which shall serve in an advisory capacity to the secretary of the department of social and health services. The committee shall be composed of not less than nine nor more than ~~((fifteen))~~ twenty members, to be appointed by the governor, who shall appoint a chairman, who shall serve as such at the governor's pleasure. In selecting members of the committee, the governor shall provide for a reasonable age, sex, ~~((and))~~ ethnic, and geographic balance from throughout the state. A broad range of interests, including business owners, professions, labor, local government, and consumers should be considered for membership. ~~((A representative from each of the regional advisory committees established under RCW 43.20A.360 shall serve as a member of the state advisory committee.))~~ The members of the committee shall serve ~~((four))~~ three years ~~((except the terms of the regional advisory committee representatives shall be for a duration specified by the secretary not to exceed four years to facilitate their participation))~~. Appointments to fill a vacant unexpired term shall be only for the remainder of the unexpired term for which the vacancy occurs. No member shall serve more than two consecutive full terms. An unexpired term is considered a full term when one-half or more of the regular term is served. A member of the state advisory committee with two unexcused absences in a twelve-month period shall be deemed to have vacated the position held on the state advisory committee.

Sec. 1402, Section 14, chapter 189, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 259, Laws of 1984 and RCW 43.20A.375 are each amended to read as follows:

The state advisory committee shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) To serve in an advisory capacity to the secretary on all matters pertaining to the department of social and health services.

(2) To acquaint themselves fully with the operations of the department and periodically recommend such changes to the secretary as they deem advisable.

(3) To ~~((biennially))~~ review and make recommendations as to the continued operation, possible consolidation, or elimination of department advisory committees ~~((other than those provided for))~~ including those required by federal law or specifically created by statute. The review shall include review of the statement of purpose for each advisory committee and the time frames during which the committee is accountable to achieve its stated purposes. The state advisory committee shall conduct the review ~~((using the criteria specified in RCW 43.131-070 and other appropriate criteria))~~ and report to the appropriate legislative committees no later than January 1, 1989.

(4) To encourage public awareness and understanding of the department of social and health services and the department's programs and services.

~~((4))~~ (5) To develop agendas to foster periodic meetings with and communication between representatives of program-specific advisory committees ~~((other than those provided for by federal law)).~~

(6) To encourage each regional advisory committee established under RCW 43.20A.360 to send a representative to regular state advisory committee meetings to foster communication between the regional advisory committees and: (a) The state advisory committee, and (b) headquarters of the department.

Renumber the remaining parts and sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Garrett: "Senator Kreidler, I am not so sure that the expression, 'slipped through the cracks in the Rules Committee'—if I know just the total definition of that. Does that mean that the bill never got pulled or it was pulled and it didn't have the votes, or what does 'slipped through the cracks mean'?"

Senator Kreidler: "I think Senator Fleming wants to answer that question for you."

Senator Garrett: "Well, I would prefer an answer from you, but if you want to pass it to Senator Fleming, then I might—but, I would prefer your answer."

Senator Kreidler: "It is not my bill. My understanding is that, and I don't serve on Rules, but my understanding was that it 'slipped through the cracks,' so if you want an answer from somebody who serves on the committee--"

Senator Garrett: "I am on the committee. I just wanted to know what the observers—you know, what everybody thought when a bill 'slipped through the cracks.' I just wanted to know. I know what the members of the Rules Committee think. Thank you, Senator Kreidler."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FLEMING

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, members of the body. Senator Garrett, this is one of those bills—as you know, we get down there and we have so many on our list and this is one of those real innocuous bills that just did not get pulled. We ran out of time. Had we gone back to Rules another time, I would have made an attempt to pull the bill. It's not a very controversial bill. It's a very important bill and it really encourages voluntarism and communication, so I hope you will support it."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Kreidler demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Kreidler, Deccio and Fleming to the Committee on Governmental Operations amendment.

The motion by Senator Kreidler failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

MOTION

Senator Bender moved that the following amendment by Senators Bender, Warnke and Owen to the Committee on Governmental Operations amendment be adopted:

Beginning on page 1, after line 5, strike all the material down to and including "violated." on page 18, line 33 and insert the following:

BOARD OF ELECTRICAL EXAMINERS

"Sec. 101. Section 2, chapter 188, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 6, chapter 156, Laws of 1986 and RCW 19.28.123 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created a board of electrical examiners consisting of nine members to be appointed by the governor. The members of the board shall be selected and appointed as follows: One member shall be an employee or officer of a corporation or public agency generating or distributing electric power; two members shall be employees or officers of a corporation or firm engaged in the business of making electrical installations; one member shall be an employee, or officer, or representative of a corporation or firm engaged in the business of manufacturing or distributing electrical materials, equipment, or devices; one member shall be a person not related to the electrical industry to represent the public; three members shall be recognized electricians; and one member shall be a licensed professional engineer qualified to do business in the state of Washington. The regular term of each member shall be four years. Members initially appointed after the effective date of this section shall be appointed for the following terms: The member representing a corporation or public agency generating or distributing electric power shall serve four years; one member representing an installer of electrical equipment or appliances shall serve three years; the member representing a manufacturer or distributor of electrical equipment or devices shall serve three years; the member representing the public and one member representing an installer of electrical equipment or appliances shall serve two years; the three members selected as recognized electricians shall serve for one, two, and three years respectively; the member selected as the licensed professional electrical engineer shall serve for one year. Thereafter, the governor shall appoint or reappoint board members for terms of four years and to fill vacancies created by the completion of the terms of the original members. The governor shall also fill vacancies caused by death, resignation, or otherwise for the unexpired term of such members by appointing their successors from the same business classification. The same procedure shall be followed in making such subsequent appointments as is provided for the original appointments. The terms of office of persons serving as members of the board prior to the effective date of this section shall terminate on the effective date of this section. It shall be the purpose and function of this board to establish in addition to a general electrical contractors' license, such classifications of specialty electrical contractors' licenses as it deems appropriate with regard to individual sections pertaining to state adopted codes in chapter 19.28 RCW. In addition, it shall be the purpose and function of this board to establish and administer written examinations for general electrical contractors' qualifying certificates and the various specialty electrical contractors' qualifying certificates. Examinations shall be designed to reasonably insure that general and specialty electrical contractor's qualifying certificate holders are competent to engage in and supervise the work covered by this statute and their respective licenses. The examinations shall include questions from the following categories to assure proper safety and protection for the general public: (1) Safety, (2) state electrical code, and (3) electrical theory. The department with the consent of the board of electrical examiners shall be permitted to enter into a contract with a professional testing agency to develop, administer, and score these examinations. It shall be the further purpose and function of this board to advise the director as to the need of additional electrical inspectors and compliance officers to be utilized by the director on either a full-time or part-time employment basis and to carry out the duties enumerated in RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620 as well as generally advise the department on all matters relative to RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620. Meetings of the board shall be held quarterly on the first Monday of February, May, August, and November of each year. Each member of the board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240, and each member shall also receive travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060, which shall be paid out of the electrical license fund, upon vouchers approved by the director of labor and industries."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Zimmerman: "Mr. President, a point of order. I am trying to reconcile the Bottiger amendment with the Bender amendment. I thought that the Bottiger amendment had stricken the board from the bill--striking everything--page 18--and then page 75. The measure having already been taken out of the bill, how can you be modifying it, I guess is my concern. In other words, the point of the Bottiger amendment was to take this element out of the bill and I guess I can't see now how we can be modifying or attempting to change the makeup of the board. The board is not in the bill. That was the decision that the body had already made."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, speaking to the point of order. Senator, that simply is not so. The amendment that you sponsored, to which I spoke so eloquently--in favor of it--voted for it--simply deleted those two sections. Senator Bender is putting the sections back in, not deleting either boards of commissions, just changing the makeup on one of them."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Newhouse: "It would seem the body has the right to perfect before striking and has proceeded with a striking amendment. Therefore, this amendment would appear to be out of order."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Newhouse's remarks and points are well taken. The amendment is out of order, not timely."

The amendment by Senators Bender, Warnke and Owen to the Committee on Governmental Operations amendment was ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 454 was deferred.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, a point of order. We are about to undertake a violation of the long standing Senate Rule that prohibits members from making speeches about guests. If we fall into that trap, we will be here all day long, every day, adding a little bit to the President's introductions. I would just suggest that the members remember that today at 5:00 o'clock, all the bills that we don't get done, die."

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 274 and the pending amendment by Senator Wojahn on line 19 (all of subsection c), to the Committee on Human Services and Corrections amendment on page 11, line 24, deferred April 15, 1987.

Debate on the amendment by Senator Wojahn to the Committee on Human Services and Corrections amendment ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Wojahn to the Committee on Human Services and Corrections amendment.

The motion by Senator Wojahn failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Human Services and Correction amendment on page 11, line 24.

The Committee on Human Services and Corrections amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the following amendment by Senator Talmadge and Rasmussen be adopted:

On page 11, after line 21, strike all of NEW SECTION, Sec. 13.

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Talmadge and Rasmussen.

The motion by Senator Talmadge failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Wojahn, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 274, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 274, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 274, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 8; absent, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Vognild, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 40.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Conner, Rasmussen, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, von Reichbauer, Warnke - 8.

Absent: Senator West - 1.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 274, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 171, by Representatives Sayan, Jacobsen, Grant, Sprenkle, Todd and Basich

Requiring governmental entities contracting to community college services to pay authorized salary increases.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the following Committee on Education amendment was adopted:

On page 4, after line 33, insert the following:

"Sec. 2. Section 28B.50.100, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 224, Laws of 1983 and RCW 28B.50.100 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created a community college board of trustees for each community college district as set forth in this chapter. Each community college board of trustees shall be composed of five trustees, who shall be appointed by the governor for terms commencing October 1st of the year in which appointed. In making such appointments the governor shall give consideration to geographical exigencies, and the interests of labor, industry, agriculture, the professions and ethnic groups.

The successors of the trustees initially appointed shall be appointed by the governor to serve for a term of five years except that any person appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of any term shall be appointed only for the remainder of the term. Each member shall serve until a successor is appointed and qualified.

Every trustee shall be a resident and qualified elector of the community college district. No trustee may be an employee of the community college system, a member of the board of directors of any school district, or a member of the governing board of any public or private educational institution(~~(-or an elected officer or member of the legislative authority of any municipal corporation)).~~)

Each board of trustees shall organize itself by electing a chairman from its members. The board shall adopt a seal and may adopt such bylaws, rules and regulations as it deems necessary for its own government. Three members of the board shall constitute a quorum, but a lesser number may adjourn from time to time and may compel the attendance of absent members in such manner as prescribed in its bylaws, rules, or regulations. The district president, or if there be none, the president of the community college, shall serve as, or may designate another person to serve as, the secretary of the board, who shall not be deemed to be a member of the board.

Members of the boards of trustees may be removed for misconduct or malfeasance in office in the manner provided by RCW 28B.10.500."

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "28B.50.140" insert "and 28B.50.100"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 171, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Gaspard, when community colleges make arrangements with companies to provide certain services, it's my understanding they do it on a fixed price basis. In other words, for number of services, it costs $10,000 or $5,000 for a certain period of time. How does this bill affect that type of contracting out for services where both parties want to provide these services--one party wants to receive them and the other party wants to sell their services?"

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Bluechel, I don't think it will affect any current contracts, but when they do negotiate for new contracts, then when the Legislature passes increases for faculty salaries, these increases have not been passed out to those individuals who are involved in the contracts--they were contracted out to either private entities or other governmental entities. As I mentioned, the correctional institutions are one example and it's an example that has been brought to us. Then when the Legislature makes that decision, the community colleges are authorized to have that increase in the terms of the agreement."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Saling, I understand the public agency section of this, my concern was with a private agency. Suppose you had a hi-tech plant that had contracted with a community college for $10,000 for certain services to be performed and that there was a pay raise by the Legislature in between, how would this pay raise be passed through if the $10,000 was a fixed contract from a private entity? That's the area that I am questioning, not the public to public."

Senator Saling: "Senator Bluechel, it is extremely rare to have a contract with a private organization for any length of time, usually beyond one quarter. Sometimes you will have a contract for one year, but a contract in the amount of the dollars you are talking about, is extremely rare. I would think that, however, under the terms of this law, my interpretation would be that they would have to pay the increase."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Metcalf, Senator Zimmerman was excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Bill No. 171, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of House Bill No. 171, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 6; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bottiger, Conner, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, Moore, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn - 42.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Metcalf, Nelson - 6.

Excused: Senator Zimmerman - 1.

HOUSE BILL NO. 171, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 609, by Committee on Environmental Affairs (originally sponsored by Representatives Kremen, Spanel, Braddock, Zellinsky, May, McMullen, Allon, Hine, Schmidt, Basich, Vekich, Hargrove, Beck, Miller, Fisch, S. Wilson, Taylor, Winsley, Walker, Betrozoff, J. Williams, B. Williams, Brough, Holm, Haugen, Jesernig and Sanders)

Requiring department of ecology to look at local factors in phased in compliance schedules for secondary water treatment.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Kreidler moved that the following Committee on Parks and Ecology amendment be adopted:

On page 2, line 14, after, "1995, insert "Such schedules shall require that a reserve account or similar fund be provided to carry out the schedules established under this section. Compliance schedules allowed under this section shall include specified time periods for achieving various phases of the project. At the end of each significant time period, the local government shall report to the department on its progress in complying with the provisions of this act."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Kreidler, in a situation such as Pacific County where they don't have enough money to run the government, do you still want them to build up a reserve fund for secondary treatment?"

Senator Kreidler: "To the best of my knowledge, there is no problem with Pacific County. They are already in compliance with the secondary treatment requirement, so there wouldn't be any concern on their part. The concerns that are being raised right now are only several communities, all of which are located on the greater Puget Sound."

Senator Rasmussen: "I was only using that as a figure of speech, because it would be like taking and putting a reserve aside to buy an automobile when your kids were starving. I am not so sure this is a good amendment and I'm going to vote against it."

Senator Kreidler: "Well, Senator Rasmussen, I might point out that this is an amendment that was worked out with local governments that would be so affected and they found this to be a procedure that they were going to comply with and it was just a little insurance policy for us in state government. It seems like a reasonable policy."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Parks and Ecology amendment.

The motion by Senator Kreidler carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Bluechel moved that the following amendment by Senators Bluechel and Stratton be adopted:

On page 2, after line 28, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 70.146 RCW to read as follows:

In determining compliance schedules for the greatest reasonable reduction of combined sewer overflows, the department of ecology shall consider the amount of grant or loan moneys available to assist local governments in the planning, design, acquisition, construction, and improvement of combined sewer overflow control facilities. The department shall not require the construction of any combined sewer overflow control facilities until such time as grant or loan moneys become available for such construction."

Renumber the sections consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Kreidler: "Mr. President, a point of order. I would raise the question of scope and object on this amendment. The scope certainly seems to be here, but the object of the bill does not include combined sewer overflow which the amendment speaks to. I would request an opinion as to whether it meets the scope and object."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Talmadge suggested that all the upcoming amendments be ruled on scope and object.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Nelson: "Mr. President, I rise to a point of order. An amendment is only subject to a point of order or as being asked for scope and object after it has been placed before the body, not before. There is no movement as of yet to place that amendment and I think the scope and object request by my good friend and colleague, Senator Talmadge, is out of order."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Your point is well taken, Senator Nelson."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of the amendment by Senators Bluechel and Stratton was deferred.

MOTION

Senator Anderson moved that the following amendment by Senators Anderson, Nelson, Metcalf, Conner and Vognild be adopted:

On page 2, line 13, after "act." insert "The director may recommend that requirements for secondary sewage treatment of wastewater be waived by the United States environmental protection agency in accordance with the waiver provisions of the federal clean water act provided that the wastewater is from a public facility that discharges into marine waters (which include Puget Sound), the quality of the receiving water will not be adversely affected, the discharger has established a system for monitoring the impact of the discharge on the quality of the receiving water, and the discharger meets all the remaining criteria of the clean water act."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Kreidler: "Mr. President, a point of order. I would ask for a ruling on this amendment, in addition to the one that was previously offered. This particular amendment deals with waivers and this is not the object of the the bill before us at this time, so I would certainly urge you to find the object of this bill to be violated."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 609 was deferred.

MOTION

At 12:08 p.m., on motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate recessed until 1:15 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 1:15 by President Cherberg.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senator Hayner was excused.

SECOND READING
CONFIRMATION OF GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENT

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, Gubernatorial Appointment No. 9109, Barbara Granlund, as a member of the Sentencing Guidelines Commission, was confirmed.

APPOINTMENT OF BARBARA GRANLUND

The Secretary called the roll. The appointment was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 31; absent, 17; excused, 1.

Voting yeas: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Bender, Benitz, Bottiger, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, McCaslin, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Stratton, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 31.

Absent: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Fleming, Lee, McDermott, McDonald, Metcalf, Owen, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Tanner, West - 17.

Excused: Senator Hayner - 1.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the fourth order of business.

SECOND READING
 CONFIRMATION OF GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENT

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, Gubernatorial Appointment No. 9113, John J. Ripple, as a member of the Sentencing Guidelines Commission, was confirmed.

APPOINTMENT OF JOHN J. RIPPLE

The Secretary called the roll. The appointment was confirmed by the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; absent, 9; excused, 1.

Voting yeas: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, McCaslin, McDonald, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vogt, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 39.

Absent: Senators Barr, Bauer, Conner, Craswell, Fleming, Lee, McDermott, Metcalf, West - 9.
Excused: Senator Hayner - 1.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of House Bill No. 1205 and the pending amendment by Senators Anderson and Conner on page 1, line 34, to the Committee on Ways and Means striking amendment, deferred April 16, 1987.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Talmadge, the President finds that House Bill No. 1205 is a measure providing for the distribution of funds from the water quality account for water pollution control facilities.

"The amendment to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment proposed by Senators Anderson and Conner requires the Department of Ecology to allow phased in compliance schedules for secondary treatment extended to December 31, 1995.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment to the committee amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment by Senators Anderson and Conner to the committee amendment was ruled out of order.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Ways and Means amendment, as amended.

The Committee on Ways and Means amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, the following title amendment was adopted:

"On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "payments;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and adding a new section to chapter 70.146 RCW."

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senators Barr, Lee, Metcalf and West were excused.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1205, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Bill No. 1205, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of House Bill No. 1205, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 1; absent, 3; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, McCaslin, McDonald, Moore, Nelson, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 41.

Voting nay: Senator Newhouse - 1.

Absent: Senators Conner, Fleming, McDermott - 3.

Excused: Senators Barr, Lee, Metcalf, West - 4.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1205, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 454 and the pending Committee on Governmental Operations striking amendment, as amended, deferred earlier today.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Governmental Operations amendment, as amended.

The Committee on Governmental Operations amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, the following title amendments were considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "commissions;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 19.28.005, 19.28.015, 19.28.060, 19.28.065, 19.28.120, 19.28.123, 19.28.125, 19.28.210, 19.28.260, 19.28.300, 19.28.310, 19.28.330, 19.28.350, 19.28.530, 19.28.540, 19.28.580, 19.28.620, 28B.12.050, 28B.12.060, 28B.80.430, 27.04.030, 43.21F.025, 43.21F.065, 43.22.420, 46.04.040, 46.04.304, 46.04.710, 46.16.240, 46.32.060, 46.37.005, 46.37.010, 46.37.160, 46.37.185, 46.37.190, 46.37.194, 46.37.210, 46.37.280, 46.37.290, 46.37.300, 46.37.310, 46.37.320, 46.37.330, 46.37.365, 46.37.380, 46.37.420, 46.37.425, 46.37.430, 46.37.440, 46.37.450, 46.37.470, 46.37.490, 46.37.505, 46.37.510, 46.37.520, 46.37.529, 46.37.530, 46.37.535, 46.37.610, 46.38.020, 46.38.030, 46.38.040, 46.38.060, 46.55.010, 46.55.050, 46.55.170, 46.55.180, 46.61.563, 46.61.567, 46.61.687, 46.61.780, 47.36.250, 47.52.120, 70.107.070, 70.95B.020, 70.95B.040, 70.95B.070, 70.95B.100, 70.95B.130, 70.119.020, 70.119.050, 70.119.080, 70.119.110, 70.119.140, 28B.50.100, 43.51.340, and 76.09.030; reenacting and amending RCW 46.10.220; adding a new section to chapter 70.95B RCW; adding a new section to chapter 70.119 RCW; creating a new section; repealing RCW 27.08.010, 27.08.045, 43.21F.085, 43.22.475, and 76.09.200; and declaring an emergency."

On page 76, beginning on line 13, strike all material down to and including "70.119 RCW;" on line 14

On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 454, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 454, as amended by the Senate.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bender, Senators Conner and Fleming were excused.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 454, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 4; absent, 1; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Barr, Brauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McDonald, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 42.

Absent: Senator McDermott - 1.

Excused: Senators Conner, Fleming - 2.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 454, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1228, by Representatives Armstrong, McMullen and P. King

Changing provisions relating to criminal penalties for, criminal sentences for, education regarding, and treatment for alcohol and substance abuse.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following amendment by Senators Talmadge, Newhouse and West was adopted:

On page 16, line 32, after "RCW," insert "These rules shall recognize that many persons are dependent on both alcohol and drugs; they shall prohibit the stacking of benefits and shall require that benefits for chemical dependency be equivalent to benefits previously required for alcoholism."

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1228, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Bill No. 1228, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of House Bill No. 1228, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; absent, 1; excused, 2.

Voting nay: Senator West - 1.

Absent: Senators Hansen, Hayner, Vognild - 3.

MOTION

Senator Bottiger moved that the rules be suspended and Senate Rule No. 52 be suspended for the remainder of this calendar day.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Senate Rule No. 52 reads 'No amendment to the budget or supplemental budget, not incorporated in the bill as reported by the Ways and Means Committee, shall be adopted except by the affirmative vote of sixty percent of the Senators elected.'

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, Rule No. 52 has been roundly criticized of late. It provides that an amendment to an appropriation bill can only be amended on the floor by a sixty percent vote of the Senators elected. We have been told time and time again that there is no reason to offer amendments, since it would take a super majority. Well, late this afternoon we will be working, hopefully, on a budget and I wouldn't want to have anybody inhibited from offering an amendment to either reduce the budget or increase the budget or whatever. We can all come out and get votes on the amendments that we would like to have and they will pass if they have the majority of the Senators present."

MOTION

Senator Newhouse moved that the rules be suspended and the motion by Senator Bottiger be amended to 'for the remainder of the session.'

Debate ensued.

Senator Newhouse demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, this being a rule change, does it require a twenty-four hour notice other than a two-thirds vote to suspend the rules?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: You can suspend the rules with a two-thirds vote at any time, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, I just wanted to know because if we are going to go into a charade, I wanted to have a chance to go home and change my clothes and get my dress clothes on."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Newhouse to amend the motion by Senator Bottiger to suspend the rules and that Rule No. 52 be suspended for the remainder of the session.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Newhouse to amend the motion by Senator Bottiger carried by the following vote: Yeas, 25; nays, 24;

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Deccio, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Nelson, Newhouse, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Saling, Sellar, von Reichbauer, West, Zimmerman - 25.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Bender, Bottiger, Conner, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Kreidler, McDermott, Moore, Owen, Peterson, Rinehart, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vogndild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 24.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, a point of order. Is this motion properly before the Senate insofar as we are not at the ninth order of business?"

Debate ensued.

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes the motion is in order."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Bottiger to suspend the rules, as amended by Senator Newhouse.

The motion by Senator Bottiger to suspend Rule No. 52, as amended by Senator Newhouse, carried.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1129 and the pending amendments by Senators McDermott and Zimmerman on page 1, lines 28, 29, and 33, and page 4, line 28, to the Committee on Governmental Operations amendment, deferred April 16, 1987.

Debate ensued on the amendments to the Committee on Governmental Operations amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Garrett: "Mr. President, I would like to challenge the scope and object of the McDermott and Zimmerman amendment--both amendments. Mr. President, I wanted to call your attention, particularly, to the amendment on page 4, line 28, of the committee amendment, which after deposited it says, 'insert all amounts distributed and disbursed under and shall be without interest.' Now, this amendment--the bill itself relates to investment and this is an amendment to the tax code, Mr. President. I believe that under the interpretation that that would be outside the scope and object of the bill. I respectfully request your ruling."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1129 was deferred.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 609 and the pending amendment by Senators Bluechel and Stratton on page 2, line 28, and the pending amendment by Senators Anderson, Nelson, Metcalf, Conner and Vognild on page 2, line 13, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Kreidler, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 609 is a measure requiring the Department of Ecology to look at local factors and allow phased in compliance schedules for secondary treatment.

"The amendment proposed by Senators Bluechel and Stratton requires the Department of Ecology to consider financial factors when considering compliance schedules for combined sewer overflow control facilities.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment by Senators Bluechel and Stratton was ruled out of order.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Kreidler, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 609 is a measure requiring the Department of Ecology to look at local factors and allow phased in compliance schedules for secondary treatment.

"The amendment proposed by Senators Anderson, Nelson, Metcalf, Conner and Vognild authorizes waivers for secondary treatment under certain circumstances.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment by Senators Anderson, Nelson, Metcalf, Conner and Vognild was ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 609 was deferred.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 451, by Committee on State Government (originally sponsored by Representatives H. Sommers, B. Williams, Winsley and Miller) (by request of Governor Gardner)

Creating the office of educational services.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Gaspard moved that the following Committee on Education amendment not be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. (1) The state board for vocational education is hereby created with the primary purpose of coordinating state policy related to vocational education.

(2) The board shall consist of nine members as follows:

(a) The executive director of the state board for community college education, or the executive director's designee;

(b) The superintendent of public instruction or the superintendent's designee;

(c) The commissioner of the department of employment security or the commissioner's designee; and

(d) The following six persons appointed by the governor who shall serve five-year terms, but the initial terms shall be staggered as determined by the governor:

(i) Two representatives of labor who shall be appointed from a list of at least five names submitted by one or more state-wide labor organizations;

(ii) Two representatives of business who shall be appointed from a list of at least five names submitted by one or more state-wide business organizations; and

(iii) Two persons knowledgeable about vocational education.

(3) The chairperson of the board shall be a citizen member chosen by a majority of its members.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The board shall meet at the call of the chair, but not less than four times each year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Members of the board shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The state board for vocational education may employ an executive director and such other personnel as may be necessary to carry out the board's duties. The executive director serves at the pleasure of the state board which shall set the director's salary and evaluate the director's performance. The board shall keep its professional and clerical staff to the minimum number of persons necessary to fulfill its duties under section 5 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The state board for vocational education shall have the following powers and duties related to vocational education:

(1) To act as the state liaison with the federal government to ensure that federal requirements are met;

(2) To act as the sole state agency for the receipt and allocation to the office of the superintendent of public instruction and the state board for community college education of federal vocational education funds;

(3) To adopt the comprehensive state plan for vocational education as submitted under section 6(3) of this act;

(4) To review the performance under the state plan and submit a biennial report to the governor and the legislature;

(5) To perform those nondelegable activities required by the Carl D. Perkins vocational education act of 1984 except that all responsibilities, other than those stated in this section, involving administration, operation, or supervision are hereby delegated to the superintendent of public instruction and the state board for community college education;

(6) To work cooperatively with the employment security department to enhance and update the state's occupational information system and the state's career information system;

(7) To approve job skills program grant awards;

(8) To approve grant expenditures under the job training and partnership act;

(9) To select the recipients of the Washington award for vocational excellence;

(10) To approve staffing and budget requirements in accordance with sections 4 and 24 of this act and subsection (5) of this section;

(11) To make recommendations to the governor, the legislature, and other agencies and organizations pertaining to vocational education and job training; and

(12) To adopt rules necessary to carry out the board's duties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The supervision and delivery of vocational education services in the public schools and community colleges shall remain the responsibility of the superintendent of public instruction and the state board for community college education. They shall have the following powers and duties respecting vocational education programs in their respective jurisdictions:

(1) To establish separate administrative divisions for vocational education in each agency to carry out the duties and functions provided by state and federal law;

(2) To establish an interagency memorandum of agreement specifying cooperative working relationships between the two agencies;

(3) To jointly develop a comprehensive state plan for state and federally funded vocational education as provided in section 13(15) of this act and submit the plan to the state board for vocational education for approval;

(4) To establish, maintain, and operate a consistent and reliable vocational education data system which shall be accessible to the state board for vocational education;

(5) To allocate and distribute within their respective education systems all state and federal funds made available under state and federal law for secondary and postsecondary vocational education purposes;

(6) To establish procedures, standards, and evaluative measures for periodic performance evaluations, including the effectiveness of vocational education programs operated within their respective systems;

(7) To monitor the vocational education programs of their respective systems for compliance with the state plan and applicable rules;

(8) To serve as liaison among the common schools, community colleges, and the state board for vocational education;

(9) To perform assignments requested by the state board for vocational education;

(10) To supervise and administer the daily implementation of all elements of the state plan and other operational vocational education functions including, but not limited to, program planning and approval, curriculum development, inservice training, student leadership, vocational certification, program improvement, and research activities;

(11) To adopt rules necessary to implement their respective powers and duties, including rules by the superintendent of public instruction authorizing the financial maintenance and program operations of the existing common school vocational technical institutes.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. Funds necessary for the execution of the board's duties shall be provided from funds paid pursuant to Public Law 98-524 and supplementary funds as appropriated by the legislature. The board may receive such gifts, grants, and endowments from public or private sources as may be made from time to time, in trust or otherwise, for the use and benefit of the purposes of the board and expend the same or any income therefrom according to the terms of the gifts, grants, or endowments.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. The state of Washington hereby accepts all the provisions and benefits of an act passed by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, entitled "An act to provide for the promotion of vocational education, to provide for cooperation with the states in the promotion of such education in agriculture and the trades and industries; to provide for cooperation with the states in the preparation of teachers of vocational subjects; and to appropriate money and regulate its expenditure", approved February 23, 1917; and of an act of congress entitled "An act to provide for the further development of vocational education in the several states and territories," approved June 8, 1936, and the Vocational Education Act of 1946 and supplemental vocational education acts including but not limited to Public Law 88-210 and Public Law 98-524, the Carl D. Perkins vocational education act of 1984, as amended.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. The state treasurer is hereby designated and appointed custodian of all moneys received by the state from the appropriations made by the said acts of congress as provided for in section 8 of this act and is authorized to receive and to provide for the proper custody of the same and to make disbursements therefrom in the manner provided in said acts and for the purposes therein specified. The treasurer shall also, upon the order of the appropriate agency in accordance with the provisions of those state acts relating to the promotion of vocational education, pay out any moneys appropriated by the state of Washington for the purpose of carrying out the provisions thereof relating to vocational education.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. For the purposes of this chapter, vocational schools or classes may be established (1) as all day schools or classes giving instruction in vocational subjects; (2) as part time schools or classes giving instruction in vocational subjects; and (3) as evening school classes giving instruction supplemental to the daily employment.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. The state board of education may authorize the school districts to offer vocational education programs in the elementary and secondary schools and the state board of education shall adopt rules to implement such programs and shall also adopt such rules for programs authorized by RCW 28A.58.245.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. (1) Each local education agency or community college district offering vocational educational preparatory programs shall establish local advisory committees to provide that agency or district with advice on current job needs and on the courses necessary to meet these needs.

(2) The local program committees shall:

(a) Participate in the determination of program goals;

(b) Review and evaluate program curricula, equipment, and effectiveness;

(c) Include representatives of business and labor who reflect the local industry in the community; and

(d) Actively consult with other representatives of business, industry, labor, and agriculture.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Applicant" means an educational institution which has made application for a job skills grant under RCW 28C.04.420 through 28C.04.480.

(2) "Board" means the state board for vocational education.

(3) "Business and industry" means a private corporation, institution, firm, person, group, or association concerned with commerce, trades, manufacturing, or the provision of services within the state, or a public or nonprofit hospital licensed by the department of social and health services.

(4) "Educational institution" means a public secondary or postsecondary institution or an independent institution within the state authorized by law to provide a program of skills training or education beyond the secondary school level. Any educational institution receiving a job skills grant under RCW 28C.04.420 through 28C.04.480 shall be free of sectarian control or influence as set forth in Article IX, section 4 of the state Constitution.

(5) "Equipment" means tangible personal property which will further the objectives of the supported program and for which a definite value and evidence in support of the value have been provided by the donor.

(6) "Executive director" means the executive director of the state board for vocational education.

(7) "Financial support" means any thing of value which is contributed by business and industry to an educational institution which is reasonably calculated to support directly the development and expansion of a particular program under RCW 28C.04.420 through 28C.04.480 and represents an addition to any financial support previously or customarily provided to such educational institutions by the donor. "Financial support" includes, but is not limited to, funds, equipment, facilities, faculty, and scholarships for matriculating students and trainees.

(8) "Industrial arts" and "practical arts" mean general education centered around the industrial and technical aspects of current living, offering orientation in and appreciation for production, consumption, and recreation through actual experiences with materials and goods and also providing exploratory experiences which are helpful in the choice of a vocation.

(9) "Job market area" means the geographic area for recruitment and placement of job entrants, usually determined by each industry or by a collective bargaining agreement.

(10) "Job skills grant" means funding that is provided to an educational institution by the office for the development or significant expansion of a program under RCW 28C.04.420 through 28C.04.480.

(11) "Job skills program" means a program of skills training or education separate from and in addition to existing vocational education programs and which:

(a) Provides short-term training which has been designated for specific industries;

(b) Provides training for prospective employees before a new plant opens or when existing industry expands;

(c) Includes training and retraining for workers already employed by an existing industry or business where necessary to avoid dislocation or where upgrading of existing employees would create new vacancies for unemployed persons;

(d) Serves areas with high concentrations of economically disadvantaged persons and high unemployment;

(e) Serves areas with new and growing industries;

(f) Serves areas where there is a shortage of skilled labor to meet job demands; or

(g) Promotes the location of new industry in areas affected by economic dislocation.

(12) "Occupational exploration" includes prevocational education and means a series of educational experiences designed to: (a) Assist individuals in developing their understanding of, appreciation for, aptitudes for, and abilities in recognized occupations; (b) develop an attitude of respect toward work and pride in workmanship; and (c) provide knowledge and experience to assist in the choice of an occupational program.

(13) "Postsecondary education system" means those educational courses and programs, not within the jurisdiction of the superintendent of public instruction, being offered beyond secondary education by institutions of higher education in the state of Washington which includes academic, vocational, technical or professional training traditionally leading to an associate, baccalaureate, or higher degree or a certificate of achievement.

(14) "Secondary education system" means those educational courses and programs, within the jurisdiction of the superintendent of public instruction, being offered in the common schools of the state of Washington in the grades 7 through 12, or any part thereof, which are traditionally provided for the purpose of granting a recognized certificate of completion or a high school diploma: PROVIDED, That notwithstanding the provisions of this chapter and RCW 28B.50.140(1), existing vocational-technical institutes operating within the secondary school system shall continue to function within the common school system.

(15) "State plan" or "plan" means the Washington state plan for vocational education, adopted as outlined under this chapter. This plan shall be a single comprehensive plan and shall meet the requirements of this chapter and the requirements of Public Law 98-524 as amended, and other state, federal, congressional, and administrative directives pertaining to vocational education. However, standards of, rules for, and supervision of indentured apprenticeship in the apprenticeable crafts shall continue to be governed by the director of labor and industries and the state apprenticeship council under chapter 49.04 RCW.

(16) "Technical assistance" means professional and any other assistance provided by business and industry to an educational institution, which is reasonably calculated to support directly the development and expansion of a particular program and which represents an addition to any technical assistance previously or customarily provided to the educational institutions by the donor.

(17) "Vocational education" means a planned series of learning experiences, the specific objective of which is to prepare persons to enter, continue in, or upgrade themselves in gainful employment in recognized occupations, including consumer education and homemaking, home and family life programs, and volunteer fire fighting training, which are not designated as professional or requiring a baccalaureate or higher degree.

(18) "Vocational-technical institute" means a specialized area nongraded vocational education facility established and operated for the purpose of offering comprehensive courses primarily oriented to the job market area in vocational education for persons sixteen years of age and older without regard to residence, under laws, and rules pertaining to the maintenance, operation, and capital funding of vocational-technical institutes. Service areas for common school vocational-technical institutes shall be defined specifically by the office, recognizing areas traditionally served.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Children of any person who was a Washington domiciliary and who has been determined by the federal government to be a prisoner of war or missing in action in Southeast Asia, including Korea shall be admitted to any public vocational-technical school within the state without the necessity of paying any registration fees or tuition fees if such child meets such other educational qualifications as such vocational-technical school shall deem reasonable and necessary under the circumstances. Affected institutions shall in their preparation of future budgets include costs resultant from such registration fee or tuition loss for reimbursement from appropriations of state funds. Applicants for free tuition shall provide institutional administrative personnel with documentation of their rights under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is hereby created a state council on vocational education, hereinafter referred to as the "council," for so long as a state council is required by federal law or regulation as a condition for receipt of federal funds, consisting of not less than thirteen members appointed by the governor, without regard to the civil service laws, for terms of three years. The initial members of the council shall be the members of the state advisory council on vocational education as it existed immediately prior to the effective date of this section, who shall serve the remainder of their unexpired terms.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. (1) The composition and duties of the state council on vocational education shall be in accordance with federal law. As terms expire, the governor shall make an appointment necessary to fill any vacancy.

(2) The council shall meet at least four times a year at the call of the chair, who shall be selected by vote of the members.

(3) Members of the council shall receive their travel expenses while engaged in the business of the council in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(4) Funds necessary for the execution of the council's duties shall be provided from funds paid pursuant to Public Law 98-524 and supplementary funds as appropriated by the legislature. The council may receive such gifts, grants, and endowments from public or private sources as may be made from time to time, in trust or otherwise, for the use and benefit of the purposes of the council and expend the same or any income therefrom according to the terms of the gifts, grants, or endowments.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The duties of the council shall be in accordance with federal law. The council shall obtain the services of an executive director and confidential secretary to such director, both of whom shall be exempt from the provisions of chapter 41.06 RCW, and such professional, technical, and clerical personnel as may be deemed necessary to enable it to carry out its functions under this section and to contract for such services as may be necessary to enable them to carry out their evaluation functions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. All reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, papers, or written material in the possession of the commission for vocational education pertaining to the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be delivered to the custody of the state board for vocational education, the state board for community college education, or the superintendent of public instruction, as applicable. All cabinets, furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property employed by the commission for vocational education in carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be made available to the applicable agencies. All funds, credits, or other assets held in connection with the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be assigned to the applicable agencies.

Any appropriations made to the commission for vocational education for carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall, on the effective date of this section, be transferred and credited to the applicable agencies.

Whenever any question arises as to the transfer of any personnel, funds, books, documents, records, papers, files, equipment, or other tangible property used or held in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties and functions transferred, the director of financial management shall make a determination as to the proper allocation and certify the same to the state agencies concerned.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Employees of the commission for vocational education, except the director and deputy director, engaged in performing the powers, functions, and duties transferred to the state board for vocational education, the state board for community college education, or the superintendent of public instruction, as applicable, are transferred to the jurisdiction of the applicable agencies in accordance with the personnel study provided in section 24 of this act. All employees classified under chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service law, are assigned to the applicable agencies to perform their usual duties upon the same terms as formerly, without any loss of rights, subject to any action that may be appropriate thereafter in accordance with the laws and rules governing state civil service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. All rules and all pending business before the commission for vocational education pertaining to the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be continued and acted upon by the state board for vocational education, the state board for community college education, or the superintendent of public instruction, as applicable. All existing contracts and obligations shall remain in full force and shall be performed by the applicable agencies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. The transfer of the powers, duties, functions, and personnel of the commission for vocational education shall not affect the validity of any act performed by such employee prior to the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. If apportionments of budgeted funds are required because of the transfers directed by sections 18 through 21 of this act, the director of financial management shall certify the apportionments to the agencies affected, the state auditor, and the state treasurer. Each of these shall make the appropriate transfer and adjustments in funds and appropriation accounts and equipment records in accordance with the certification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. Nothing contained in sections 18 through 22 of this act may be construed to alter any existing collective bargaining unit or the provisions of any existing collective bargaining agreement until the agreement has expired or until the bargaining unit has been modified by action of the personnel board as provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. The director of financial management, in consultation with the department of personnel and the higher education personnel board, shall conduct an analysis of staffing needs and necessary personnel classifications for the state board for vocational education. Until the study is completed, the state board for vocational education shall not fill any vacancies without approval of the director of financial management. The study required under this section shall be completed no later than sixty days after the effective date of this section.

Sec. 25. Section 4, chapter 21, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28C.04.420 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((commission)) board~~ may, subject to appropriation from the legislature or from funds made available from any other public or private source and pursuant to rules adopted by the ~~((commission)) board~~, provide job skills grants to educational institutions. The job skills grants shall be used exclusively for programs which are consistent with the job skills program. A job skills grant may be awarded only after:

(1) Receipt of an application from an educational institution which contains a proposal for a program of skills training and education, including a description of the program, the type of skills training or education to be provided, a statement of the total cost of the program and a breakdown of the costs associated with equipment, personnel, facilities, and materials, a statement of the employment needs for the program and evidence in support thereof, demonstrates that the program does not unnecessarily duplicate existing programs in the area and is provided at a reasonable cost, a statement of the technical assistance and financial support for the program received or to be received from business and industry, and such other information as the ~~((commission)) state board for community college education~~ requests; and

(2) The ~~((commission)) state board for community college education~~, based on the application submitted by the educational institution and such additional investigation as the staff of the ~~((commission)) state for community college education~~ shall make, finds that:

(a) The program is within the scope of the job skills program under this chapter and may reasonably be expected to succeed and thereby increase employment within the state;

(b) Provision has been made to use any available alternative funding from local, state, and federal sources;

(c) The job skills grant will only be used to cover the costs associated with the program;

(d) The program will not unnecessarily duplicate existing programs and could not be provided by another educational institution more effectively or efficiently;

(e) The program involves an area of skills training and education for which there is a demonstrable need;

(f) The applicant has made provisions for the use of existing federal and state resources for student financial assistance;

(g) The job skills grant is essential to the success of the program as the resources of the applicant are inadequate to attract the technical assistance and financial support necessary for the program from business and industry;

(h) The commitment of financial support from business and industry shall be equal to or greater than the amount of the requested job skills grant;

(i) Binding commitments have been made to the ~~((commission)) state board for community college education~~ by the applicant for adequate reporting of information and data regarding the program to the ~~((commission)) state board for community college education~~, particularly information concerning the recruitment and employment of trainees and students, and including a requirement for an annual or other periodic audit of the books of the applicant directly related to the program, and for such control on the part of the ~~((commission)) state board for community college education~~ as it considers prudent over the management of the program, so as to protect the use of public funds, including, in the discretion of the ~~((commission)) state board for community college education~~ and without limitation, right of access to financial and other records of the applicant directly related to the programs;

(j) Provision has been made by the applicant to work, in cooperation with the employment security department, to identify and screen potential trainees and that provision has been made by the applicant of persons who are victims of economic dislocation and persons from minority and economically disadvantaged groups to participate in the program; and

(k) Binding commitments have been made to the ~~((commission))~~ state board for community college education by the applicant for compliance with the monitoring and evaluation rules of the ~~((commission))~~ state board for community college education.

Sec. 26. Section 5, chapter 21, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28C.04.430 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon approval by the board of a job skills grant application ~~((by the commission, the commission)), the board~~ shall immediately provide notification of its decision to the employment security department and to the state board for community college education. The notification shall include the following information regarding the supported program: The trade, occupation, or profession with which the program is concerned; a description of the curriculum, the requirements for participation, and the procedures for making application; the duration of the program; a description of support services available to participants in the program; and any other information relevant to encouraging and facilitating the participation in the program of those in economic need. Grant awards shall be announced by the state board for vocational education.

Sec. 27. Section 6, chapter 21, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 40, chapter 466, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28C.04.440 are each amended to read as follows:

The department of trade and economic development or its successor ~~((and)), the employment security department, and the office of the superintendent of public instruction~~ shall each enter into an interagency agreement with the ~~((commission on vocational education))~~ state board for community college education to establish cooperative working arrangements for the purposes of RCW 28C.04.410 through 28C.04.480.

Sec. 28. Section 8, chapter 21, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 41, chapter 466, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28C.04.460 are each amended to read as follows:

The department of trade and economic development or its successor shall for the purposes of RCW 28C.04.410 through 28C.04.480:

(1) Work cooperatively with the ~~((commission on vocational education))~~ state board for community college education to market the job skills program to business and economic development agencies and other firms;

(2) Recruit industries from outside the state to participate in the job skills training program; and

(3) Refer business and industry interested in developing a job skills training program to the ~~((commission on vocational education))~~ state board for community college education.

Sec. 29. Section 9, chapter 21, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28C.04.470 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((commission))~~ state board for vocational education shall annually submit a complete and detailed report of ~~((the commission's))~~ all activities affecting the job skills program under RCW 28C.04.410 through 28C.04.480 within ninety days after the end of the fiscal year to the chief clerk of the house of representatives, to the secretary of the senate, and to the governor. The annual report shall include, but not be limited to, descriptions of all programs funded, and evaluation of the performance of each program, a summary of the public moneys expended, and the demographic and economic characteristics of the individuals trained, educated, and employed, including, in particular, the number of minority and economically disadvantaged individuals.

Sec. 30. Section 3, chapter 267, Laws of 1984 and RCW 28C.04.530 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The ~~((commission for vocational education))~~ office of the superintendent of public instruction shall have the responsibility for the development and administration of the Washington award for vocational excellence program. The ~~((commission))~~ office of the superintendent of public instruction shall develop the program in consultation with other state agencies and private organizations having interest and responsibility in vocational education, including but not limited to: The state board for community college education, the office of the superintendent of public instruction, a voluntary professional association of vocational educators, and representatives from business, labor, and industry.

(2) The ~~((commission))~~ office of the superintendent of public instruction shall establish a planning committee to develop the criteria for screening and selecting the students who will receive the award. This criteria shall include but not be limited to the following characteristics: Proficiency in their chosen fields, attendance, attitude, character, leadership, and civic contributions.

Sec. 31. Section 4, chapter 267, Laws of 1984 and RCW 28C.04.535 are each amended to read as follows:

The Washington award for vocational excellence shall be granted annually. The ~~((commission))~~ state board for vocational education shall notify the students receiving the award, their vocational instructors, local chambers of commerce, the legislators of their respective districts, and the governor, after final selections have been made. The ~~((commission))~~ board, in conjunction with the governor's office, shall prepare appropriate certificates to be presented to the selected students. Awards shall be presented in public ceremonies at times and places determined by the ~~((commission))~~ board in cooperation with the office of the governor.

Sec. 32. Section 5, chapter 267, Laws of 1984 and RCW 28C.04.540 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((commission))~~ office of the superintendent of public instruction may accept any and all donations, grants, bequests, and devices, conditional or otherwise, or money, property, service, or other things of value which may be received from any federal, state, or local agency, any institution, person, firm, or corporation, public and private, to be held, used, or applied for the purposes of the Washington award for vocational excellence program. The ~~((commission))~~ office of the superintendent of public instruction shall encourage maximum participation from business, labor, and community groups. The ~~((commission))~~ office of the superintendent of public instruction shall also coordinate, where feasible, the contribution activities of the various participants.

~~((The commission shall not make expenditures from funds collected under this section until February 15, 1985.))~~

Sec. 33. Section 8, chapter 267, Laws of 1984 and RCW 28C.04.550 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((The Washington award for vocational excellence shall be effective commencing with the 1984-85 academic year. The commission for vocational education shall report on the program to the legislature and to the governor by January 15, 1985. The report shall include a description of the program, a copy of any rules implementing the program, a list of the participants, and the commission's recommendations for any additional statutory changes needed to improve the program.~~

~~Thereafter, the commission))~~ The state board for vocational education shall report on the results and effectiveness of ~~((this award))~~ the Washington award for vocational excellence program to the legislature and the governor on or before January 15 of each odd-numbered year. The ~~((1987))~~ 1989 report shall include an evaluation of the effects of expanding the tuition and fee waiver period from one to two years.

Sec. 34. Section 2, chapter 299, Laws of 1986 and RCW 28C.10.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Agency" means the ~~((commission for vocational education or its successor))~~ state board for vocational education.

(2) "Agent" means a person owning an interest in, employed by, or representing for remuneration a private vocational school within or without this state, who enrolls or personally attempts to secure the enrollment in a private vocational school of a resident of this state, offers to award educational credentials for remuneration on behalf of a private vocational school, or holds himself or herself out to residents of this state as representing a private vocational school for any of these purposes.

(3) "Degree" means any designation, appellation, letters, or words including but not limited to "associate," "bachelor," "master," "doctor," or "fellow" which signify or purport to signify satisfactory completion of an academic program of study beyond the secondary school level.

(4) "Education" includes but is not limited to, any class, course, or program of training, instruction, or study.

(5) "Educational credentials" means degrees, diplomas, certificates, transcripts, reports, documents, or letters of designation, marks, appellations, series of letters, numbers, or words which signify or appear to signify enrollment, attendance, progress, or satisfactory completion of the requirements or prerequisites for any educational program.

(6) "Entity" includes, but is not limited to, a person, company, firm, society, association, partnership, corporation, or trust.

(7) "Private vocational school" means any entity offering postsecondary education in any form or manner for the purpose of instructing, training, or preparing persons for any vocation or profession.

(8) "To grant" includes to award, issue, sell, confer, bestow, or give.

(9) "To offer" includes, in addition to its usual meanings, to advertise or publicize. "To offer" also means to solicit or encourage any person, directly or indirectly, to perform the act described.

(10) "To operate" means to establish, keep, or maintain any facility or location where, from, or through which education is offered or educational credentials are offered or granted to residents of this state; and includes contracting for the performance of any such act.

Sec. 35. Section 7, chapter 175, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 465, Laws of 1985 and RCW 18.106.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department shall issue a certificate of competency to all applicants who have passed the examination and have paid the fee for the certificate. The certificate shall bear the date of issuance, and shall expire on the birthdate of the holder immediately following the date of issuance. The certificate shall be renewable every other year, upon application, on or before the birthdate of the holder. A renewal fee shall be assessed for each certificate. If a person fails to renew the certificate by the renewal date, he or she must pay a doubled fee. If the person does not renew the certificate within ninety days of the renewal date, he or she must retake the examination and pay the examination fee.

The certificate of competency and the temporary permit provided for in this chapter grant the holder the right to engage in the work of plumbing as a journeyman plumber or specialty plumber in accordance with their provisions throughout the state and within any of its political subdivisions on any job or any employment without additional proof of competency or any other license or permit or fee to engage in the work. This section does not preclude employees from adhering to a union security clause in any employment where such a requirement exists.

(2) A person who is indentured in an apprenticeship program approved under chapter 49.04 RCW for the plumbing construction trade or who is learning the plumbing construction trade may work in the plumbing construction trade if supervised by a certified journeyman plumber or a certified specialty plumber in that plumber's specialty. All apprentices and individuals learning the plumbing construction trade shall obtain a plumbing training certificate from the department. The certificate shall authorize the holder to learn the plumbing construction trade while under the direct supervision of a journeyman plumber or a specialty plumber working in his or her specialty. The holder of the plumbing training certificate shall renew the certificate annually. At the time of renewal, the holder shall provide the department with an accurate list of the holder's employers in the plumbing construction industry for the previous year and the number of hours worked for each employer. An annual fee shall be charged for the issuance or renewal of the certificate. The department shall set the fee by rule. The fee shall cover but not exceed the cost of administering and enforcing the trainee certification and supervision requirements of this chapter. Apprentices and individuals learning the plumbing construction trade shall have their plumbing training certificates in their possession at all times that they are performing plumbing work. They shall show their certificates to an authorized representative of the department at the representative's request.

(3) Any person who has been issued a plumbing training certificate under this chapter may work if that person is under supervision. Supervision shall consist of a person being on the same job site and under the control of either a journeyman plumber or an appropriate specialty plumber who has an applicable certificate of competency issued under this chapter. Either a journeyman plumber or an appropriate specialty plumber shall be on the same job site as the noncertified individual for a minimum of seventy-five percent of each working day unless otherwise provided in this chapter. The ratio of noncertified individuals to certified journeymen or specialty plumbers working on a job site shall be: (a) From July 28, 1985, through June 30, 1988, not more than three noncertified plumbers working on any one job site for every certified journeyman or specialty plumber; (b) effective July 1, 1988, not more than two noncertified plumbers working on any one job site for every certified specialty plumber or journeyman plumber working as a specialty plumber; and (c) effective July 1, 1988, not more than one noncertified plumber working on any one job site for every certified journeyman plumber working as a journeyman plumber.

An individual who has a current training certificate and who has successfully completed or is currently enrolled in an approved apprenticeship program or in a technical school program in the plumbing construction trade in a school approved by the (~~commission for vocational education~~) office of the superintendent of public instruction or the state board for community college education, may work without direct on-site supervision during the last six months of meeting the practical experience requirements of this chapter.

Sec. 36. Section 2, chapter 30, chapter 1980 as amended by section 13, chapter 206, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.28.510 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No person may engage in the electrical construction trade without having a current journeyman electrician certificate of competency or a current specialty electrician certificate of competency issued by the department in accordance with this chapter. Electrician certificate of competency specialties include, but are not limited to: Residential, domestic appliances, pump and irrigation, limited energy system, signs, and nonresidential maintenance.

(2) A person who is indentured in an apprenticeship program approved under chapter 49.04 RCW for the electrical construction trade or who is learning the electrical construction trade may work in the electrical construction trade if supervised by a certified journeyman electrician or a certified specialty electrician in that electrician's specialty. All apprentices and individuals learning the electrical construction trade shall obtain an electrical training certificate from the department. The certificate shall authorize the holder to learn the electrical construction trade while under the direct supervision of a journeyman electrician or a specialty electrician working in his or her specialty. The holder of the electrical training certificate shall renew the certificate annually. At the time of renewal, the holder shall provide the department with an accurate list of the holder's employers in the electrical construction industry for the previous year and the number of hours worked for each employer. An annual fee shall be charged for the issuance or renewal of the certificate. The department shall set the fee by rule. The fee shall cover but not exceed the cost of administering and enforcing the trainee certification and supervision requirements of this chapter. Apprentices and individuals learning the electrical construction trade shall have their electrical training certificates in their possession at all times that they are performing electrical work. They shall show their certificates to an authorized representative of the department at the representative's request.

(3) Any person who has been issued an electrical training certificate under this chapter may work if that person is under supervision. Supervision shall consist of a person being on the same job site and under the control of either a journeyman electrician or an appropriate specialty electrician who has an applicable certificate of competency issued under this chapter. Either a journeyman electrician or an appropriate specialty electrician shall be on the same job site as the noncertified individual for a minimum of seventy-five percent of each working day unless otherwise provided in this chapter. The ratio of noncertified individuals to certified journeymen or specialty electricians working on a job site shall be:

(a) From September 1, 1979, through December 31, 1982, not more than three noncertified electricians working on any one job site for every certified journeyman or specialty electrician;

(b) Effective January 1, 1983, not more than two noncertified individuals working on any one job site for every specialty electrician or journeyman electrician working as a specialty electrician;

(c) Effective January 1, 1983, not more than than one noncertified individual working on any one job site for every certified journeyman electrician.

The ratio requirements do not apply to a trade school program in the electrical construction trade established during 1946.

An individual who has a current training certificate and who has successfully completed or is currently enrolled in an approved apprenticeship program or in a technical school program in the electrical construction trade in a school approved by the (~~commission for vocational education~~) office of the superintendent of public instruction or the state board for community college education, may work without direct on-site supervision during the last six months of meeting the practical experience requirements of this chapter.

Sec. 37. Section 4, chapter 30, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 14, chapter 206, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.28.530 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon receipt of the application, the department shall review the application and determine whether the applicant is eligible to take an examination for the journeyman or specialty certificate of competency. To be eligible to take the examination for a journeyman certificate the applicant must have worked in the electrical construction trade for a minimum of four years employed full time, of which two years shall be in industrial or commercial electrical installation under the supervision of a journeyman electrician certified under this chapter and not more than a total of two years in all specialties under the supervision of a journeyman electrician certified under this chapter or an appropriate specialty electrician certified under this chapter or have successfully completed an apprenticeship program approved under chapter 49.04 RCW for the electrical construction trade. To be eligible to take the examination to become a specialty electrician the applicant shall have worked in that specialty of the electrical construction trade, under the supervision of a journeyman electrician certified under this chapter or an appropriate specialty electrician certified under this chapter, for a minimum of two years employed full time, or have successfully completed an approved apprenticeship program under chapter 49.04 RCW for the applicant's specialty in the electrical construction trade. Before January 1, 1984, applicants for nonresidential maintenance specialty licenses are eligible to become nonresidential maintenance specialists upon certification to the department that they have the equivalent of two years full-time experience in that specialty field. Persons applying before January 1, 1984, for a journeyman certificate are eligible to take the examination to become journeymen until July 1, 1984, upon certification to the department that they have the equivalent of five years full-time experience in nonresidential maintenance, of which two years shall be in industrial electrical installation. Any applicant who has successfully completed a two-year technical school program in the electrical construction trade in a school that is approved by the (~~commission for vocational education~~) office of the superintendent of public instruction or the state board for community college education may substitute up to two years of the technical school program for two years of work experience under a journeyman electrician. The applicant shall obtain the additional two years of work experience required in industrial or commercial electrical installation prior to the beginning, or after the completion, of the technical school program. Any applicant who has received training in the electrical construction trade in the armed service of the United States may be eligible to take the examination for the certificate of competency. Any applicant who is a graduate of a trade school program in the electrical construction trade that was established during 1946 is eligible to take the examination for the certificate of competency. No other requirement for eligibility may be imposed.

(2) The department shall establish reasonable rules for the examinations to be given applicants for certificates of competency. In establishing the rules, the department shall consult with the board of electrical examiners. Upon determination that the applicant is eligible to take the examination, the department shall so notify the applicant, indicating the time and place for taking the examination.

Sec. 38. Section 14, chapter 370, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28B.80.430 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall employ a director and may delegate agency management to the director. The director shall serve at the pleasure of the board, shall be the executive officer of the board, and shall, under the board's supervision, administer the provisions of this chapter. The executive director shall, with the approval of the board: (1) Employ necessary deputy and assistant directors and other exempt staff under chapter 28B.16 RCW who shall serve at his or her pleasure on such terms and conditions as he or she determines and (2) subject to the provisions of chapter 28B.16 RCW, appoint and employ such other employees as may be required for the proper discharge of the functions of the board. The executive director shall exercise such additional powers, other than rulemaking, as may be delegated by the board by resolution. In fulfilling the duties under this chapter, the board shall make extensive use of those state agencies with responsibility for implementing and supporting postsecondary education plans and policies including but not limited to appropriate legislative groups, the postsecondary education institutions, the office of financial management, the ~~((commission for vocational education))~~ state board for vocational education, and the state board for community college education. Outside consulting and service agencies may also be employed. The board may compensate these groups and consultants in appropriate ways.

Sec. 39. Section 20, chapter 87, Laws of 1980 as last amended by section 9, chapter 155, Laws of 1986 and RCW 43.03.028 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created a state committee on agency officials' salaries to consist of seven members, or their designees, as follows: The president of the University of Puget Sound; the chairperson of the council of presidents of the state's four-year institutions of higher education; the chairperson of the State Personnel Board; the president of the Association of Washington Business; the president of the Pacific Northwest Personnel Managers' Association; the president of the Washington State Bar Association; and the president of the Washington State Labor Council. If any of the titles or positions mentioned in this subsection are changed or abolished, any person occupying an equivalent or like position shall be qualified for appointment by the governor to membership upon the committee.

(2) The committee shall study the duties and salaries of the directors of the several departments and the members of the several boards and commissions of state government, who are subject to appointment by the governor or whose salaries are fixed by the governor, and of the chief executive officers of the following agencies of state government:

The arts commission; the human rights commission; the board of accountancy; the board of pharmacy; the capitol historical association and museum; the eastern Washington historical society; the Washington state historical society; the interagency committee for outdoor recreation; the criminal justice training commission; the department of personnel; the state finance committee; the state library; the traffic safety commission; the horse racing commission; the ~~((commission for))~~ state board for vocational education (~~(-the advisory council on vocational education))~~); the public disclosure commission; the hospital commission; the state conservation commission; the commission on Mexican-American affairs; the commission on Asian-American affairs; the state board for volunteer firemen; the urban arterial board; the data processing authority; the public employees relations commission; the forest practices appeals board; and the energy facilities site evaluation council.

The committee shall report to the governor or the chairperson of the appropriate salary fixing authority at least once in each fiscal biennium on such date as the governor may designate, but not later than seventy-five days prior to the convening of each regular session of the legislature during an odd-numbered year, its recommendations for the salaries to be fixed for each position.

(3) Committee members shall be reimbursed by the department of personnel for travel expenses under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

Sec. 40. Section 3, chapter 43, Laws of 1982 as last amended by section 66, chapter 466, Laws of 1985 and RCW 50.38.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The employment security department shall consult with the following agencies prior to the issuance of the state occupational forecast:

- (1) Office of financial management;
- (2) Department of trade and economic development;
- (3) Department of labor and industries;
- (4) State board for community college education;
- (5) Superintendent of public instruction;
- (6) Department of social and health services;
- (7) Department of community development;
- (8) ~~((Commission))~~ State board for vocational education; and
- (9) Other state and local agencies as deemed appropriate by the commissioner of the employment security department.

These agencies shall cooperate with the employment security department, submitting information relevant to the generation of occupational forecasts.

Sec. 41. Section 3, chapter 77, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 224, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 51.08.012 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this title, "accredited school" means a school or course of instruction which is:

(1) Approved by the state superintendent of public instruction, the state board of education, or the state board for community college education (~~or the state division of vocational education of the coordinating council for occupational education~~); or

(2) Regulated or licensed as to course content by any agency of the state or under any occupational licensing act of the state, or recognized by the apprenticeship council under an agreement registered with the apprenticeship council pursuant to chapter 49.04 RCW.

Sec. 42. Section 4, chapter 179, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.100.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction, after consulting with the department of labor and industries, (~~and the division of vocational education~~) shall prepare and circulate to each public and private educational institution in this state (~~within six months of the date of passage of this chapter~~), and update when necessary, a manual containing instructions and recommendations for the guidance of such institutions in implementing the eye safety provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 43. Section 1, chapter 231, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 97, chapter 287, Laws of 1984 and RCW 49.04.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The director of labor and industries shall appoint an apprenticeship council, composed of three representatives each from employer and employee organizations, respectively. The terms of office of the members of the apprenticeship council first appointed by the director of labor and industries shall be as follows: One representative each of employers and employees shall be appointed for one year, two years, and three years, respectively. Thereafter, each member shall be appointed for a term of three years. The governor shall appoint a public member to the apprenticeship council for a three-year term. The appointment of the public member is subject to confirmation by the senate. Each member shall hold office until his successor is appointed and has qualified and any vacancy shall be filled by appointment to the unexpired portion of the term. The state official who has been designated by the (~~commission for vocational education~~) superintendent of public instruction as being in charge of trade and industrial education and the state official who has immediate charge of the state public employment service shall ex officio be members of said council, without vote. Each member of the council, not otherwise compensated by public moneys, shall be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 and shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240. The apprenticeship council with the consent of employee and employer groups shall: (1) Establish standards for apprenticeship agreements in conformity with the provisions of this chapter; (2) issue such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the intent and purposes of this chapter, including a procedure to resolve an impasse should a tie vote of the council occur; and (3) perform such other duties as are hereinafter imposed. Not less than once a year the apprenticeship council shall make a report to the director of labor and industries of its activities and findings which shall be available to the public.

Sec. 44. Section 2, chapter 231, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 2, chapter 37, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 49.04.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to the confirmation of the state apprenticeship council by a majority vote, the director of labor and industries shall appoint and depute an assistant director to be known as the supervisor of apprenticeship. Under the supervision of the director of labor and industries and with the advice and guidance of the apprenticeship council, the supervisor shall: (1) Encourage and promote the making of apprenticeship agreements conforming to the standards established by or in accordance with this chapter, and in harmony with the policies of the United States department of labor; (2) act as secretary of the apprenticeship council and of state joint apprenticeship committees; (3) when so authorized by the apprenticeship council, register such apprenticeship agreements as are in the best interests of the apprentice and conform to the standards established by or in accordance with this chapter; (4) keep a record of apprenticeship agreements and upon performance thereof issue certificates of completion of apprenticeship; (5) terminate or cancel any apprenticeship agreements in accordance with the provisions of such agreements; and who (6) may act to bring about the settlement of differences arising out of the apprenticeship agreement where such differences cannot be adjusted locally or in accordance with the established trade procedure.

Related and supplemental instruction for apprentices, coordination of instruction with job experiences, and the selection and training of teachers and coordinators for such instruction shall be the responsibility of the (~~commission for vocational education and its~~) superintendent of public instruction and the local recognized (~~agency~~) agencies for vocational education. The director of labor and industries is authorized to appoint such other personnel as may be necessary to aid the apprenticeship council and the supervisor of apprenticeship in the execution of their functions under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 47. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 48. Sections 1 through 17 of this act are each added to chapter 28C.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 49. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1987."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Gaspard that the Committee on Education amendment not be adopted.

The motion by Senator Gaspard carried and the committee amendment was not adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the following amendment by Senators Gaspard, Bailey, Fleming and Benitz was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The state board for vocational education is hereby created with the primary purpose of coordinating state policy related to vocational education.

(2) The board shall consist of nine members as follows:

(a) The executive director of the state board for community college education, or the executive director's designee;

(b) The superintendent of public instruction or the superintendent's designee;

(c) The commissioner of the department of employment security or the commissioner's designee; and

(d) The following six persons appointed by the governor who shall serve five-year terms, but the initial terms shall be staggered as determined by the governor:

(i) Two representatives of labor who shall be appointed from a list of at least five names submitted by one or more state-wide labor organizations;

(ii) Two representatives of business who shall be appointed from a list of at least five names submitted by one or more state-wide business organizations;

(iii) One representative of agriculture who shall be appointed from a list of at least three names submitted by one or more state-wide agricultural organizations; and

(iv) One representative of community-based organizations.

(3) In making such appointments the governor shall be cognizant of the desirability of appointing persons who also represent the interests of minorities and women.

(4) The chairperson of the board shall be a citizen member chosen by a majority of its members.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The board shall meet at the call of the chair, but not less than four times each year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Members of the board shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The state board for vocational education may employ an executive director and such other personnel as may be necessary to carry out the board's duties. The executive director serves at the pleasure of the state board which shall set the director's salary and evaluate the director's performance. The board shall keep its professional and clerical staff to the minimum number of persons necessary to fulfill its duties under section 5 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The state board for vocational education shall have the following powers and duties related to vocational education:

(1) To act as the state liaison with the federal government to ensure that federal requirements are met;

(2) To act as the sole state agency for the receipt and allocation to the office of the superintendent of public instruction and the state board for community college education of federal vocational education funds;

(3) To adopt the comprehensive state plan for vocational education as submitted under section 6(3) of this act;

(4) To review the performance under the state plan and submit a biennial report to the governor and the legislature;

(5) To perform those activities required by the Carl D. Perkins vocational education act of 1984, except that the governor, or his or her designee, the superintendent of public instruction, and the executive director of the state board for community college education shall jointly determine which of the functions, as allowed by federal law, shall be delegated to the superintendent of public instruction and the state board for community college education. The governor is hereby authorized to transfer such functions from the state board for vocational education to the superintendent of public instruction and the state board for community college education or other eligible state education agencies. Such transfers shall be completed by November 30, 1987. Every effort shall be made to ensure that there is no duplication in the functions, programs, and services performed by the state board for vocational education and those performed by the superintendent of public instruction and the state board for community college education;

(6) To coordinate the development of a comprehensive vocational education data system in conjunction with the superintendent of public instruction and the state board for community college education using information collected by the public education systems under section 6(4) of this act and other necessary information available from public and private agencies and organizations;

(7) To coordinate the development of evaluative measures for periodic performance evaluations and state plan compliance monitoring conducted by the superintendent of public instruction and the state board for community college education under section 6(7) of this act;

(8) To work cooperatively with the employment security department to enhance and update the state's occupational information system and the state's career information system;

(9) To act as the adjudicator of any disputes arising regarding vocational education;

(10) To approve job skills program grant awards;

(11) To select the recipients of the Washington award for vocational excellence;

(12) To enforce the provisions of chapter 28C.10 RCW regulating private vocational schools;

(13) To approve the director's budget and staffing proposals for the state board of vocational education;

(14) To make recommendations to the governor, the legislature, and other agencies and organizations pertaining to vocational education and job training; and

(15) To adopt rules necessary to carry out the board's duties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The supervision and delivery of vocational education services in the public schools and community colleges shall remain the responsibility of the superintendent of public instruction and the state board for community college education. They shall have the following powers and duties respecting vocational education programs in their respective jurisdictions:

(1) To establish separate administrative divisions for vocational education in each agency to carry out the duties and functions provided by state and federal law;

(2) To establish an interagency memorandum of agreement specifying cooperative working relationships between the two agencies;

(3) To jointly develop a comprehensive state plan for state and federally funded vocational education as provided in section 13(15) of this act. The state board for vocational education, business groups, labor groups, and other interested parties shall be consulted by the superintendent of public instruction and the state board for community college education for recommendations during the development of the plan. The plan shall:

(a) Address state and local goals and objectives;

(b) Contain biennial objectives and budget priorities;

(c) Include priorities for expenditure of federal vocational education funds by the state;

(d) Address state-wide economic and employment needs;

(e) Contain an assessment of how these needs are being and should be met;

(f) Outline priorities among the needs and the specific resources necessary to meet them;

(g) Include recommendations for improving vocational education;

(h) Include procedures for reviewing and approving new programs proposed by public institutions;

(i) Include procedures for adjudicating disputes;

(j) Contain provisions for evaluating programs including job placement information;

(k) Include procedures for evaluating the effectiveness of input from local advisory committees;

(l) Include procedures for assuring coordination among public and private secondary and postsecondary schools;

(m) Provide for periodic updating of the plan; and

(n) Be submitted to the state board for vocational education for approval;

(4) To establish, maintain, and operate a consistent and reliable vocational education data system which shall be accessible to the state board for vocational education;

(5) To allocate and distribute within their respective education systems all state and federal funds made available to their respective systems under state and federal law for secondary and postsecondary vocational education purposes;

(6) To establish procedures, standards, and evaluative measures for periodic performance evaluations, including the effectiveness of vocational education programs operated within their respective systems;

(7) To monitor the vocational education programs of their respective systems for compliance with the state plan and applicable rules;

(8) To serve as liaison among the common schools, community colleges, and the state board for vocational education;

(9) To perform assignments requested by the state board for vocational education;

(10) To supervise and administer the daily implementation of all elements of the state plan and other operational vocational education functions including, but not limited to, program planning and approval, curriculum development, inservice training, student leadership, vocational certification, program improvement, and research activities;

(11) To adopt rules necessary to implement their respective powers and duties, including rules by the superintendent of public instruction authorizing the financial maintenance and program operations of the existing common school vocational technical institutes.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. Funds necessary for the execution of the board's duties shall be provided from funds paid pursuant to Public Law 98-524 and supplementary funds as appropriated by the legislature. The board may receive such gifts, grants, and endowments from public or private sources as may be made from time to time, in trust or otherwise, for the use and benefit of the purposes of the board and expend the same or any income therefrom according to the terms of the gifts, grants, or endowments.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. The state of Washington hereby accepts all the provisions and benefits of an act passed by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, entitled "An act to provide for the promotion of vocational education, to provide for cooperation with the states in the promotion of such education in agriculture and the trades and industries; to provide for cooperation with the states in the preparation of teachers of vocational subjects; and to appropriate money and regulate its expenditure", approved February 23, 1917; and of an act of congress entitled "An act to provide for the further development of vocational education in the several states and territories," approved June 8, 1936, and the Vocational Education Act of 1946 and supplemental vocational education acts including but not limited to Public Law 88-210 and Public Law 98-524, the Carl D. Perkins vocational education act of 1984, as amended.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. The state treasurer is hereby designated and appointed custodian of all moneys received by the state from the appropriations made by the said acts of congress as provided for in section 8 of this act and is authorized to receive and to provide for the proper custody of the same and to make disbursements therefrom in the manner provided in said acts and for the purposes therein specified. The treasurer shall also, upon the order of the appropriate agency in accordance with the provisions of those state acts relating to the promotion of vocational education, pay out any moneys appropriated by the state of Washington for the purpose of carrying out the provisions thereof relating to vocational education.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. For the purposes of this chapter, vocational schools or classes may be established (1) as all day schools or classes giving instruction in vocational subjects; (2) as part time schools or classes giving instruction in vocational subjects; and (3) as evening school classes giving instruction supplemental to the daily employment.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. The state board of education may authorize the school districts to offer vocational education programs in the elementary and secondary schools and the state board of education shall adopt rules to implement such programs and shall also adopt such rules for programs authorized by RCW 28A.58.245.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. (1) Each local education agency or community college district offering vocational educational preparatory programs shall establish local advisory committees to provide that agency or district with advice on current job needs and on the courses necessary to meet these needs.

(2) The local program committees shall:

(a) Participate in the determination of program goals;

(b) Review and evaluate program curricula, equipment, and effectiveness;

(c) Include representatives of business and labor who reflect the local industry in the community; and

(d) Actively consult with other representatives of business, industry, labor, and agriculture.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Applicant" means an educational institution which has made application for a job skills grant under RCW 28C.04.420 through 28C.04.480.

(2) "Board" means the state board for vocational education.

(3) "Business and industry" means a private corporation, institution, firm, person, group, or association concerned with commerce, trades, manufacturing, or the provision of services within the state, or a public or nonprofit hospital licensed by the department of social and health services.

(4) "Educational institution" means a public secondary or postsecondary institution or an independent institution within the state authorized by law to provide a program of skills training or education beyond the secondary school level. Any educational institution receiving a job skills grant under RCW 28C.04.420 through 28C.04.480 shall be free of sectarian control or influence as set forth in Article IX, section 4 of the state Constitution.

(5) "Equipment" means tangible personal property which will further the objectives of the supported program and for which a definite value and evidence in support of the value have been provided by the donor.

(6) "Executive director" means the executive director of the state board for vocational education.

(7) "Financial support" means any thing of value which is contributed by business and industry to an educational institution which is reasonably calculated to support directly the development and expansion of a particular program under RCW 28C.04.420 through 28C.04.480 and represents an addition to any financial support previously or customarily provided to such educational institutions by the donor. "Financial support" includes, but is not limited to, funds, equipment, facilities, faculty, and scholarships for matriculating students and trainees.

(8) "Industrial arts" and "practical arts" mean general education centered around the industrial and technical aspects of current living, offering orientation in and appreciation for production, consumption, and recreation through actual experiences with materials and goods and also providing exploratory experiences which are helpful in the choice of a vocation.

(9) "Job market area" means the geographic area for recruitment and placement of job entrants, usually determined by each industry or by a collective bargaining agreement.

(10) "Job skills grant" means funding that is provided to an educational institution by the office for the development or significant expansion of a program under RCW 28C.04.420 through 28C.04.480.

(11) "Job skills program" means a program of skills training or education separate from and in addition to existing vocational education programs and which:

(a) Provides short-term training which has been designated for specific industries;

(b) Provides training for prospective employees before a new plant opens or when existing industry expands;

(c) Includes training and retraining for workers already employed by an existing industry or business where necessary to avoid dislocation or where upgrading of existing employees would create new vacancies for unemployed persons;

(d) Serves areas with high concentrations of economically disadvantaged persons and high unemployment;

(e) Serves areas with new and growing industries;

(f) Serves areas where there is a shortage of skilled labor to meet job demands; or

(g) Promotes the location of new industry in areas affected by economic dislocation.

(12) "Occupational exploration" includes prevocational education and means a series of educational experiences designed to: (a) Assist individuals in developing their understanding of, appreciation for, aptitudes for, and abilities in recognized occupations; (b) develop an attitude of respect toward work and pride in workmanship; and (c) provide knowledge and experience to assist in the choice of an occupational program.

(13) "Postsecondary education system" means those educational courses and programs, not within the jurisdiction of the superintendent of public instruction, being offered beyond secondary education by institutions of higher education in the state of Washington which includes academic, vocational, technical or professional training traditionally leading to an associate, baccalaureate, or higher degree or a certificate of achievement.

(14) "Secondary education system" means those educational courses and programs, within the jurisdiction of the superintendent of public instruction, being offered in the common schools of the state of Washington in the grades 7 through 12, or any part thereof, which are traditionally provided for the purpose of granting a recognized certificate of completion or a high school diploma: PROVIDED, That notwithstanding the provisions of this chapter and RCW 28B.50.140(1), existing vocational-technical institutes operating within the secondary school system shall continue to function within the common school system.

(15) "State plan" or "plan" means the Washington state plan for vocational education, adopted as outlined under this chapter. This plan shall be a single comprehensive plan and shall meet the requirements of this chapter and the requirements of Public Law 98-524 as amended, and other state, federal, congressional, and administrative directives pertaining to vocational education. However, standards of, rules for, and supervision of indentured apprenticeship in the apprenticeable crafts shall continue to be governed by the director of labor and industries and the state apprenticeship council under chapter 49.04 RCW.

(16) "Technical assistance" means professional and any other assistance provided by business and industry to an educational institution, which is reasonably calculated to support directly the development and expansion of a particular program and which represents an addition to any technical assistance previously or customarily provided to the educational institutions by the donor.

(17) "Vocational education" means a planned series of learning experiences, the specific objective of which is to prepare persons to enter, continue in, or upgrade themselves in gainful employment in recognized occupations, including consumer education and homemaking, home and family life programs, and volunteer fire fighting training, which are not designated as professional or requiring a baccalaureate or higher degree.

(18) "Vocational-technical institute" means a specialized area nongraded vocational education facility established and operated for the purpose of offering comprehensive courses primarily oriented to the job market area in vocational education for persons sixteen years of age and older without regard to residence, under laws, and rules pertaining to the maintenance, operation, and capital funding of vocational-technical institutes. Service areas for common school vocational-technical institutes shall be defined specifically by the office, recognizing areas traditionally served.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Children of any person who was a Washington domiciliary and who has been determined by the federal government to be a prisoner of war or missing in action in Southeast Asia, including Korea shall be admitted to any public vocational-technical school within the state without the necessity of paying any registration fees or tuition fees if such child meets such other educational qualifications as such vocational-technical school shall deem reasonable and necessary under the circumstances. Affected institutions shall in their preparation of future budgets include costs resultant from such registration fee or tuition loss for reimbursement from appropriations of state funds. Applicants for free tuition shall provide institutional administrative personnel with documentation of their rights under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is hereby created a state council on vocational education, hereinafter referred to as the "council," for so long as a state council is required by federal law or regulation as a condition for receipt of federal funds, consisting of not less than thirteen members appointed by the governor, without regard to the civil service laws, for terms of three years. The initial members of the council shall be the members of the state advisory council on vocational education as it existed immediately prior to the effective date of this section, who shall serve the remainder of their unexpired terms.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. (1) The composition and duties of the state council on vocational education shall be in accordance with federal law. As terms expire, the governor shall make an appointment necessary to fill any vacancy.

(2) The council shall meet at least four times a year at the call of the chair, who shall be selected by vote of the members.

(3) Members of the council shall receive their travel expenses while engaged in the business of the council in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(4) Funds necessary for the execution of the council's duties shall be provided from funds paid pursuant to Public Law 98-524 and supplementary funds as appropriated by the legislature. The council may receive such gifts, grants, and endowments from public or private sources as may be made from time to time, in trust or otherwise, for the use and benefit of the purposes of the council and expend the same or any income therefrom according to the terms of the gifts, grants, or endowments.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The duties of the council shall be in accordance with federal law. The council shall obtain the services of an executive director and confidential secretary to such director, both of whom shall be exempt from the provisions of chapter 41.06 RCW, and such professional, technical, and clerical personnel as may be deemed necessary to enable it to carry out its functions under this section and to contract for such services as may be necessary to enable them to carry out their evaluation functions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. All reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, papers, or written material in the possession of the commission for vocational education pertaining to the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be delivered to the custody of the state board for vocational education, the state board for community college education, or the superintendent of public instruction, as applicable. All cabinets, furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property employed by the commission for vocational education in carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be made available to the applicable agencies. All funds, credits, or other assets held in connection with the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be assigned to the applicable agencies.

Any appropriations made to the commission for vocational education for carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall, on the effective date of this section, be transferred and credited to the applicable agencies.

Whenever any question arises as to the transfer of any personnel, funds, books, documents, records, papers, files, equipment, or other tangible property used or held in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties and functions transferred, the director of financial management shall make a determination as to the proper allocation and certify the same to the state agencies concerned.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Employees of the commission for vocational education, except the director and deputy director, engaged in performing the powers, functions, and duties transferred to the state board for vocational education, the state board for community college education, or the superintendent of public instruction, as applicable, are transferred to the jurisdiction of the applicable agencies in accordance with the personnel study provided in section 24 of this act. All employees classified under chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service law, are assigned to the applicable agencies to perform their usual duties upon the same terms as formerly, without any loss of rights, subject to any action that may be appropriate thereafter in accordance with the laws and rules governing state civil service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. All rules and all pending business before the commission for vocational education pertaining to the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be continued and acted upon by the state board for vocational education, the state board for community college education, or the superintendent of public instruction, as applicable. All existing contracts and obligations shall remain in full force and shall be performed by the applicable agencies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. The transfer of the powers, duties, functions, and personnel of the commission for vocational education shall not affect the validity of any act performed by such employee prior to the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. If apportionments of budgeted funds are required because of the transfers directed by sections 18 through 21 of this act, the director of financial management shall certify the apportionments to the agencies affected, the state auditor, and the state treasurer. Each of these shall make the appropriate transfer and adjustments in funds and appropriation accounts and equipment records in accordance with the certification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. Nothing contained in sections 18 through 22 of this act may be construed to alter any existing collective bargaining unit or the provisions of any existing collective bargaining agreement until the agreement has expired or until the bargaining unit has been modified by action of the personnel board as provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. The director of financial management, in consultation with the department of personnel and the higher education personnel board, shall conduct an analysis of staffing needs and necessary personnel classifications for the state board for vocational education. Until the study is completed, the state board for vocational education shall not fill any vacancies without approval of the director of financial management. The study required under this section shall be completed no later than sixty days after the effective date of this section.

Sec. 25. Section 4, chapter 21, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28C.04.420 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((commission)) board~~ may, subject to appropriation from the legislature or from funds made available from any other public or private source and pursuant to rules adopted by the ~~((commission)) board~~, provide job skills grants to educational institutions. The job skills grants shall be used exclusively for programs which are consistent with the job skills program. A job skills grant may be awarded only after:

(1) Receipt of an application from an educational institution which contains a proposal for a program of skills training and education, including a description of the program, the type of skills training or education to be provided, a statement of the total cost of the program and a breakdown of the costs associated with equipment, personnel, facilities, and materials, a statement of the employment needs for the program and evidence in support thereof, demonstrates that the program does not unnecessarily duplicate existing programs in the area and is provided at a reasonable cost, a statement of the technical assistance and financial support for the program received or to be received from business and industry, and such other information as the ~~((commission)) state board for community college education~~ requests; and

(2) The ~~((commission)) state board for community college education~~, based on the application submitted by the educational institution and such additional investigation as the staff of the ~~((commission)) state board for community college education~~ shall make, finds that:

(a) The program is within the scope of the job skills program under this chapter and may reasonably be expected to succeed and thereby increase employment within the state;

(b) Provision has been made to use any available alternative funding from local, state, and federal sources;

(c) The job skills grant will only be used to cover the costs associated with the program;

(d) The program will not unnecessarily duplicate existing programs and could not be provided by another educational institution more effectively or efficiently;

(e) The program involves an area of skills training and education for which there is a demonstrable need;

(f) The applicant has made provisions for the use of existing federal and state resources for student financial assistance;

(g) The job skills grant is essential to the success of the program as the resources of the applicant are inadequate to attract the technical assistance and financial support necessary for the program from business and industry;

(h) The commitment of financial support from business and industry shall be equal to or greater than the amount of the requested job skills grant;

(i) Binding commitments have been made to the ~~((commission)) state board for community college education~~ by the applicant for adequate reporting of information and data regarding the program to the ~~((commission)) state board for community college education~~, particularly information concerning the recruitment and employment of trainees and students, and including a requirement for an annual or other periodic audit of the books of the applicant directly related to the program, and for such control on the part of the ~~((commission)) state board for community college education~~ as it considers prudent over the management of the program, so as to protect the use of public funds, including, in the discretion of the ~~((commission)) state board for community college education~~ and without limitation, right of access to financial and other records of the applicant directly related to the programs;

(j) Provision has been made by the applicant to work, in cooperation with the employment security department, to identify and screen potential trainees and that provision has been made by the applicant of persons who are victims of economic dislocation and persons from minority and economically disadvantaged groups to participate in the program; and

(k) Binding commitments have been made to the ~~((commission)) state board for community college education~~ by the applicant for compliance with the monitoring and evaluation rules of the ~~((commission)) state board for community college education~~.

Sec. 26. Section 5, chapter 21, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28C.04.430 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon approval by the board of a job skills grant application (~~by the commission; the commission~~), the board shall immediately provide notification of its decision to the employment security department and to the state board for community college education. The notification shall include the following information regarding the supported program: The trade, occupation, or profession with which the program is concerned; a description of the curriculum, the requirements for participation, and the procedures for making application; the duration of the program; a description of support services available to participants in the program; and any other information relevant to encouraging and facilitating the participation in the program of those in economic need. Grant awards shall be announced by the state board for vocational education.

Sec. 27. Section 6, chapter 21, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 40, chapter 466, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28C.04.440 are each amended to read as follows:

The department of trade and economic development or its successor (~~and~~), the employment security department, and the office of the superintendent of public instruction shall each enter into an interagency agreement with the (~~commission on vocational education~~) state board for community college education to establish cooperative working arrangements for the purposes of RCW 28C.04.410 through 28C.04.480.

Sec. 28. Section 8, chapter 21, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 41, chapter 466, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28C.04.460 are each amended to read as follows:

The department of trade and economic development or its successor shall for the purposes of RCW 28C.04.410 through 28C.04.480:

(1) Work cooperatively with the (~~commission on vocational education~~) state board for community college education to market the job skills program to business and economic development agencies and other firms;

(2) Recruit industries from outside the state to participate in the job skills training program; and

(3) Refer business and industry interested in developing a job skills training program to the (~~commission on vocational education~~) state board for community college education.

Sec. 29. Section 9, chapter 21, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28C.04.470 are each amended to read as follows:

The (~~commission~~) state board for vocational education shall annually submit a complete and detailed report of (~~the commission's~~) all activities affecting the job skills program under RCW 28C.04.410 through 28C.04.480 within ninety days after the end of the fiscal year to the chief clerk of the house of representatives, to the secretary of the senate, and to the governor. The annual report shall include, but not be limited to, descriptions of all programs funded, and evaluation of the performance of each program, a summary of the public moneys expended, and the demographic and economic characteristics of the individuals trained, educated, and employed, including, in particular, the number of minority and economically disadvantaged individuals.

Sec. 30. Section 3, chapter 267, Laws of 1984 and RCW 28C.04.530 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The (~~commission for vocational education~~) office of the superintendent of public instruction shall have the responsibility for the development and administration of the Washington award for vocational excellence program. The (~~commission~~) office of the superintendent of public instruction shall develop the program in consultation with other state agencies and private organizations having interest and responsibility in vocational education, including but not limited to: The state board for community college education, the office of the superintendent of public instruction, a voluntary professional association of vocational educators, and representatives from business, labor, and industry.

(2) The (~~commission~~) office of the superintendent of public instruction shall establish a planning committee to develop the criteria for screening and selecting the students who will receive the award. This criteria shall include but not be limited to the following characteristics: Proficiency in their chosen fields, attendance, attitude, character, leadership, and civic contributions.

Sec. 31. Section 4, chapter 267, Laws of 1984 and RCW 28C.04.535 are each amended to read as follows:

The Washington award for vocational excellence shall be granted annually. The (~~commission~~) state board for vocational education shall notify the students receiving the award, their vocational instructors, local chambers of commerce, the legislators of their respective districts, and the governor, after final selections have been made. The (~~commission~~) board, in conjunction with the governor's office, shall prepare appropriate certificates to be presented to the selected students. Awards shall be presented in public ceremonies at times and places determined by the (~~commission~~) board in cooperation with the office of the governor.

Sec. 32. Section 5, chapter 267, Laws of 1984 and RCW 28C.04.540 are each amended to read as follows:

The (~~commission~~) office of the superintendent of public instruction may accept any and all donations, grants, bequests, and devices, conditional or otherwise, or money, property, service, or other things of value which may be received from any federal, state, or local agency, any institution, person, firm, or corporation, public and private, to be held, used, or applied for the purposes of the Washington award for vocational excellence program. The ~~((commission))~~ office of the superintendent of public instruction shall encourage maximum participation from business, labor, and community groups. The ~~((commission))~~ office of the superintendent of public instruction shall also coordinate, where feasible, the contribution activities of the various participants.

~~((The commission shall not make expenditures from funds collected under this section until February 15, 1985.))~~

Sec. 33. Section 8, chapter 267, Laws of 1984 and RCW 28C.04.550 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((The Washington award for vocational excellence shall be effective commencing with the 1984-85 academic year. The commission for vocational education shall report on the program to the legislature and to the governor by January 15, 1985. The report shall include a description of the program, a copy of any rules implementing the program, a list of the participants, and the commission's recommendations for any additional statutory changes needed to improve the program.))~~

~~Thereafter, the commission))~~ The state board for vocational education shall report on the results and effectiveness of ~~((this award))~~ the Washington award for vocational excellence program to the legislature and the governor on or before January 15 of each odd-numbered year. The ~~((1987))~~ 1989 report shall include an evaluation of the effects of expanding the tuition and fee waiver period from one to two years.

Sec. 34. Section 2, chapter 299, Laws of 1986 and RCW 28C.10.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Agency" means the ~~((commission for vocational education or its successor))~~ state board for vocational education.

(2) "Agent" means a person owning an interest in, employed by, or representing for remuneration a private vocational school within or without this state, who enrolls or personally attempts to secure the enrollment in a private vocational school of a resident of this state, offers to award educational credentials for remuneration on behalf of a private vocational school, or holds himself or herself out to residents of this state as representing a private vocational school for any of these purposes.

(3) "Degree" means any designation, appellation, letters, or words including but not limited to "associate," "bachelor," "master," "doctor," or "fellow" which signify or purport to signify satisfactory completion of an academic program of study beyond the secondary school level.

(4) "Education" includes but is not limited to, any class, course, or program of training, instruction, or study.

(5) "Educational credentials" means degrees, diplomas, certificates, transcripts, reports, documents, or letters of designation, marks, appellations, series of letters, numbers, or words which signify or appear to signify enrollment, attendance, progress, or satisfactory completion of the requirements or prerequisites for any educational program.

(6) "Entity" includes, but is not limited to, a person, company, firm, society, association, partnership, corporation, or trust.

(7) "Private vocational school" means any entity offering postsecondary education in any form or manner for the purpose of instructing, training, or preparing persons for any vocation or profession.

(8) "To grant" includes to award, issue, sell, confer, bestow, or give.

(9) "To offer" includes, in addition to its usual meanings, to advertise or publicize. "To offer" also means to solicit or encourage any person, directly or indirectly, to perform the act described.

(10) "To operate" means to establish, keep, or maintain any facility or location where, from, or through which education is offered or educational credentials are offered or granted to residents of this state, and includes contracting for the performance of any such act.

Sec. 35. Section 7, chapter 175, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 465, Laws of 1985 and RCW 18.106.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department shall issue a certificate of competency to all applicants who have passed the examination and have paid the fee for the certificate. The certificate shall bear the date of issuance, and shall expire on the birthdate of the holder immediately following the date of issuance. The certificate shall be renewable every other year, upon application, on or before the birthdate of the holder. A renewal fee shall be assessed for each certificate. If a person fails to renew the certificate by the renewal date, he or she must pay a doubled fee. If the person does not renew the certificate within ninety days of the renewal date, he or she must retake the examination and pay the examination fee.

The certificate of competency and the temporary permit provided for in this chapter grant the holder the right to engage in the work of plumbing as a journeyman plumber or specialty plumber in accordance with their provisions throughout the state and within any of its political subdivisions on any job or any employment without additional proof of competency or any other license or permit or fee to engage in the work. This section does not preclude employees from adhering to a union security clause in any employment where such a requirement exists.

(2) A person who is indentured in an apprenticeship program approved under chapter 49.04 RCW for the plumbing construction trade or who is learning the plumbing construction trade may work in the plumbing construction trade if supervised by a certified journeyman plumber or a certified specialty plumber in that plumber's specialty. All apprentices and individuals learning the plumbing construction trade shall obtain a plumbing training certificate from the department. The certificate shall authorize the holder to learn the plumbing construction trade while under the direct supervision of a journeyman plumber or a specialty plumber working in his or her specialty. The holder of the plumbing training certificate shall renew the certificate annually. At the time of renewal, the holder shall provide the department with an accurate list of the holder's employers in the plumbing construction industry for the previous year and the number of hours worked for each employer. An annual fee shall be charged for the issuance or renewal of the certificate. The department shall set the fee by rule. The fee shall cover but not exceed the cost of administering and enforcing the trainee certification and supervision requirements of this chapter. Apprentices and individuals learning the plumbing construction trade shall have their plumbing training certificates in their possession at all times that they are performing plumbing work. They shall show their certificates to an authorized representative of the department at the representative's request.

(3) Any person who has been issued a plumbing training certificate under this chapter may work if that person is under supervision. Supervision shall consist of a person being on the same job site and under the control of either a journeyman plumber or an appropriate specialty plumber who has an applicable certificate of competency issued under this chapter. Either a journeyman plumber or an appropriate specialty plumber shall be on the same job site as the noncertified individual for a minimum of seventy-five percent of each working day unless otherwise provided in this chapter. The ratio of noncertified individuals to certified journeymen or specialty plumbers working on a job site shall be: (a) From July 28, 1985, through June 30, 1988, not more than three noncertified plumbers working on any one job site for every certified journeyman or specialty plumber; (b) effective July 1, 1988, not more than two noncertified plumbers working on any one job site for every certified specialty plumber or journeyman plumber working as a specialty plumber; and (c) effective July 1, 1988, not more than one noncertified plumber working on any one job site for every certified journeyman plumber working as a journeyman plumber.

An individual who has a current training certificate and who has successfully completed or is currently enrolled in an approved apprenticeship program or in a technical school program in the plumbing construction trade in a school approved by the (~~commission for vocational education~~) appropriate joint apprenticeship training committee, may work without direct on-site supervision during the last six months of meeting the practical experience requirements of this chapter.

Sec. 36. Section 2, chapter 30, chapter 1980 as amended by section 13, chapter 206, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.28.510 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No person may engage in the electrical construction trade without having a current journeyman electrician certificate of competency or a current specialty electrician certificate of competency issued by the department in accordance with this chapter. Electrician certificate of competency specialties include, but are not limited to: Residential, domestic appliances, pump and irrigation, limited energy system, signs, and nonresidential maintenance.

(2) A person who is indentured in an apprenticeship program approved under chapter 49.04 RCW for the electrical construction trade or who is learning the electrical construction trade may work in the electrical construction trade if supervised by a certified journeyman electrician or a certified specialty electrician in that electrician's specialty. All apprentices and individuals learning the electrical construction trade shall obtain an electrical training certificate from the department. The certificate shall authorize the holder to learn the electrical construction trade while under the direct supervision of a journeyman electrician or a specialty electrician working in his or her specialty. The holder of the electrical training certificate shall renew the certificate annually. At the time of renewal, the holder shall provide the department with an accurate list of the holder's employers in the electrical construction industry for the previous year and the number of hours worked for each employer. An annual fee shall be charged for the issuance or renewal of the certificate. The department shall set the fee by rule. The fee shall cover but not exceed the cost of administering and enforcing the trainee certification and supervision requirements of this chapter. Apprentices and individuals learning the electrical construction trade shall have their electrical training certificates in their possession at all times that they are performing electrical work. They shall show their certificates to an authorized representative of the department at the representative's request.

(3) Any person who has been issued an electrical training certificate under this chapter may work if that person is under supervision. Supervision shall consist of a person being on the same job site and under the control of either a journeyman electrician or an appropriate specialty electrician who has an applicable certificate of competency issued under this chapter. Either a journeyman electrician or an appropriate specialty electrician shall be on the same job site as the noncertified individual for a minimum of seventy-five percent of each working day unless otherwise provided in this chapter. The ratio of noncertified individuals to certified journeymen or specialty electricians working on a job site shall be:

(a) From September 1, 1979, through December 31, 1982, not more than three noncertified electricians working on any one job site for every certified journeyman or specialty electrician;

(b) Effective January 1, 1983, not more than two noncertified individuals working on any one job site for every specialty electrician or journeyman electrician working as a specialty electrician;

(c) Effective January 1, 1983, not more than one noncertified individual working on any one job site for every certified journeyman electrician.

The ratio requirements do not apply to a trade school program in the electrical construction trade established during 1946.

An individual who has a current training certificate and who has successfully completed or is currently enrolled in an approved apprenticeship program or in a technical school program in the electrical construction trade in a school approved by the (~~commission for vocational education~~) appropriate joint apprenticeship training committee, may work without direct on-site supervision during the last six months of meeting the practical experience requirements of this chapter.

Sec. 37, Section 4, chapter 30, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 14, chapter 206, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.28.530 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon receipt of the application, the department shall review the application and determine whether the applicant is eligible to take an examination for the journeyman or specialty certificate of competency. To be eligible to take the examination for a journeyman certificate the applicant must have worked in the electrical construction trade for a minimum of four years employed full time, of which two years shall be in industrial or commercial electrical installation under the supervision of a journeyman electrician certified under this chapter and not more than a total of two years in all specialties under the supervision of a journeyman electrician certified under this chapter or an appropriate specialty electrician certified under this chapter or have successfully completed an apprenticeship program approved under chapter 49.04 RCW for the electrical construction trade. To be eligible to take the examination to become a specialty electrician the applicant shall have worked in that specialty of the electrical construction trade, under the supervision of a journeyman electrician certified under this chapter or an appropriate specialty electrician certified under this chapter, for a minimum of two years employed full time, or have successfully completed an approved apprenticeship program under chapter 49.04 RCW for the applicant's specialty in the electrical construction trade. Before January 1, 1984, applicants for nonresidential maintenance specialty licenses are eligible to become nonresidential maintenance specialists upon certification to the department that they have the equivalent of two years full-time experience in that specialty field. Persons applying before January 1, 1984, for a journeyman certificate are eligible to take the examination to become journeymen until July 1, 1984, upon certification to the department that they have the equivalent of five years full-time experience in nonresidential maintenance, of which two years shall be in industrial electrical installation. Any applicant who has successfully completed a two-year technical school program in the electrical construction trade in a school that is approved by the (~~commission for vocational education~~) appropriate joint apprenticeship training committee may substitute up to two years of the technical school program for two years of work experience under a journeyman electrician. The applicant shall obtain the additional two years of work experience required in industrial or commercial electrical installation prior to the beginning, or after the completion, of the technical school program. Any applicant who has received training in the electrical construction trade in the armed service of the United States may be eligible to take the examination for the certificate of competency. Any applicant who is a graduate of a trade school program in the electrical construction trade that was established during 1946 is eligible to take the examination for the certificate of competency. No other requirement for eligibility may be imposed.

(2) The department shall establish reasonable rules for the examinations to be given applicants for certificates of competency. In establishing the rules, the department shall consult with the board of electrical examiners. Upon determination that the applicant is eligible to take the examination, the department shall so notify the applicant, indicating the time and place for taking the examination.

Sec. 38, Section 14, chapter 370, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28B.80.430 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall employ a director and may delegate agency management to the director. The director shall serve at the pleasure of the board, shall be the executive officer of the board, and shall, under the board's supervision, administer the provisions of this chapter. The executive director shall, with the approval of the board: (1) Employ necessary deputy and assistant directors and other exempt staff under chapter 28B.16 RCW who shall serve at his or her pleasure on such terms and conditions as he or she determines and (2) subject to the provisions of chapter 28B.16 RCW, appoint and employ such other employees as may be required for the proper discharge of the functions of the board. The executive director shall exercise such additional powers, other than rulemaking, as may be delegated by the board by resolution. In fulfilling the duties under this chapter, the board shall make extensive use of those state agencies with responsibility for implementing and supporting postsecondary education plans and policies including but not limited to appropriate legislative groups, the postsecondary education institutions, the office of financial management, the ~~((commission for vocational education))~~ state board for vocational education, and the state board for community college education. Outside consulting and service agencies may also be employed. The board may compensate these groups and consultants in appropriate ways.

Sec. 39. Section 20, chapter 87, Laws of 1980 as last amended by section 9, chapter 155, Laws of 1986 and RCW 43.03.028 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created a state committee on agency officials' salaries to consist of seven members, or their designees, as follows: The president of the University of Puget Sound; the chairperson of the council of presidents of the state's four-year institutions of higher education; the chairperson of the State Personnel Board; the president of the Association of Washington Business; the president of the Pacific Northwest Personnel Managers' Association; the president of the Washington State Bar Association; and the president of the Washington State Labor Council. If any of the titles or positions mentioned in this subsection are changed or abolished, any person occupying an equivalent or like position shall be qualified for appointment by the governor to membership upon the committee.

(2) The committee shall study the duties and salaries of the directors of the several departments and the members of the several boards and commissions of state government, who are subject to appointment by the governor or whose salaries are fixed by the governor, and of the chief executive officers of the following agencies of state government:

The arts commission; the human rights commission; the board of accountancy; the board of pharmacy; the capitol historical association and museum; the eastern Washington historical society; the Washington state historical society; the interagency committee for outdoor recreation; the criminal justice training commission; the department of personnel; the state finance committee; the state library; the traffic safety commission; the horse racing commission; the ~~((commission for))~~ state board for vocational education~~((the advisory council on vocational education))~~; the public disclosure commission; the hospital commission; the state conservation commission; the commission on Mexican-American affairs; the commission on Asian-American affairs; the state board for volunteer firemen; the urban arterial board; the data processing authority; the public employees relations commission; the forest practices appeals board; and the energy facilities site evaluation council.

The committee shall report to the governor or the chairperson of the appropriate salary fixing authority at least once in each fiscal biennium on such date as the governor may designate, but not later than seventy-five days prior to the convening of each regular session of the legislature during an odd-numbered year, its recommendations for the salaries to be fixed for each position.

(3) Committee members shall be reimbursed by the department of personnel for travel expenses under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

Sec. 40. Section 3, chapter 43, Laws of 1982 as last amended by section 66, chapter 466, Laws of 1985 and RCW 50.38.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The employment security department shall consult with the following agencies prior to the issuance of the state occupational forecast:

- (1) Office of financial management;
- (2) Department of trade and economic development;
- (3) Department of labor and industries;
- (4) State board for community college education;
- (5) Superintendent of public instruction;
- (6) Department of social and health services;
- (7) Department of community development;
- (8) ~~((Commission))~~ State board for vocational education; and
- (9) Other state and local agencies as deemed appropriate by the commissioner of the employment security department.

These agencies shall cooperate with the employment security department, submitting information relevant to the generation of occupational forecasts.

Sec. 41. Section 3, chapter 77, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 224, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 51.08.012 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this title, "accredited school" means a school or course of instruction which is:

(1) Approved by the state superintendent of public instruction, the state board of education, or the state board for community college education~~((or the state division of vocational education of the coordinating council for occupational education))~~; or

(2) Regulated or licensed as to course content by any agency of the state or under any occupational licensing act of the state, or recognized by the apprenticeship council under an agreement registered with the apprenticeship council pursuant to chapter 49.04 RCW.

Sec. 42. Section 4, chapter 179, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.100.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction, after consulting with the department of labor and industries, ~~((and the division of vocational education))~~ shall prepare and circulate to each public and private educational institution in this state ~~((within six months of the date of passage of this chapter)), and update when necessary,~~ a manual containing instructions and recommendations for the guidance of such institutions in implementing the eye safety provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 43. Section 1, chapter 231, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 97, chapter 287, Laws of 1984 and RCW 49.04.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The director of labor and industries shall appoint an apprenticeship council, composed of three representatives each from employer and employee organizations, respectively. The terms of office of the members of the apprenticeship council first appointed by the director of labor and industries shall be as follows: One representative each of employers and employees shall be appointed for one year, two years, and three years, respectively. Thereafter, each member shall be appointed for a term of three years. The governor shall appoint a public member to the apprenticeship council for a three-year term. The appointment of the public member is subject to confirmation by the senate. Each member shall hold office until his successor is appointed and has qualified and any vacancy shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired portion of the term. The state official who has been designated by the ~~((commission for vocational education))~~ superintendent of public instruction as being in charge of trade and industrial education and the state official who has immediate charge of the state public employment service shall ex officio be members of said council, without vote. Each member of the council, not otherwise compensated by public moneys, shall be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 and shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240. The apprenticeship council with the consent of employee and employer groups shall: (1) Establish standards for apprenticeship agreements in conformity with the provisions of this chapter; (2) issue such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the intent and purposes of this chapter, including a procedure to resolve an impasse should a tie vote of the council occur; and (3) perform such other duties as are hereinafter imposed. Not less than once a year the apprenticeship council shall make a report to the director of labor and industries of its activities and findings which shall be available to the public.

Sec. 44. Section 2, chapter 231, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 2, chapter 37, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 49.04.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to the confirmation of the state apprenticeship council by a majority vote, the director of labor and industries shall appoint and deputize an assistant director to be known as the supervisor of apprenticeship. Under the supervision of the director of labor and industries and with the advice and guidance of the apprenticeship council, the supervisor shall: (1) Encourage and promote the making of apprenticeship agreements conforming to the standards established by or in accordance with this chapter, and in harmony with the policies of the United States department of labor; (2) act as secretary of the apprenticeship council and of state joint apprenticeship committees; (3) when so authorized by the apprenticeship council, register such apprenticeship agreements as are in the best interests of the apprentice and conform to the standards established by or in accordance with this chapter; (4) keep a record of apprenticeship agreements and upon performance thereof issue certificates of completion of apprenticeship; (5) terminate or cancel any apprenticeship agreements in accordance with the provisions of such agreements; and who (6) may act to bring about the settlement of differences arising out of the apprenticeship agreement where such differences cannot be adjusted locally or in accordance with the established trade procedure.

Related and supplemental instruction for apprentices, coordination of instruction with job experiences, and the selection and training of teachers and coordinators for such instruction shall be the responsibility of the ~~((commission for vocational education and its))~~ superintendent of public instruction and the local recognized ~~((agency))~~ agencies for vocational education. The director of labor and industries is authorized to appoint such other personnel as may be necessary to aid the apprenticeship council and the supervisor of apprenticeship in the execution of their functions under this chapter.

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "services;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 28C.04.420, 28C.04.430, 28C.04.440, 28C.04.460, 28C.04.470, 28C.04.530, 28C.04.535, 28C.04.540, 28C.04.550, 28C.10.020, 18.106.070, 19.28.510, 19.28.530, 28B.80.430, 43.03.028, 50.38.030, 51.08.012, 70.100.040, 49.04.010, 49.04.030, and 43.131.288; adding new sections to chapter 28C.04 RCW; creating new sections; repealing RCW 28C.04.410; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency."

MOTION

Senator Gaspard moved that the rules be suspended and Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 451, as amended by the Senate, be advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill be placed on final passage.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Tanner: "Mr. President, I had an amendment on the bar on page 13, line 35, that I did not get a chance to move."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Tanner, Senator Gaspard moved to not adopt the committee amendment and that motion carried. Your amendment was directed to the committee amendment that was knocked out."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Gaspard to advance Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 451, as amended by the Senate, to third reading and final passage.

The motion by Senator Gaspard carried and Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 451, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading and final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 451, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 451, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 5; absent, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hayner, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Peterson, Pullen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Zimmerman - 43.

Voting nay: Senators Bottiger, Johnson, Patterson, Rasmussen, Wojahn - 5.

Absent: Senator Hansen - 1.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 451, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 400, deferred April 15, 1987.

MOTION

Senator Vognild moved that the following amendment by Senators Metcalf and Tanner be adopted:

On page 11, after line 18, insert the following:

"Sec. 5. Section 51.32.160, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 4, chapter 59, Laws of 1986 and RCW 51.32.160 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If aggravation, diminution, or termination of disability takes place or ~~((be))~~ is discovered after the rate of compensation ~~((shall have))~~ has been established or compensation terminated, in any case the director, through ~~((and by means of))~~ the division of industrial insurance, may, upon the application of the beneficiary, made within ~~((seven years after the establishment or termination of such compensation, or upon his own motion))~~ five years from the date the first closing order becomes final, readjust for further application the rate of compensation in accordance with the rules in this section provided for the same, or in a proper case terminate the payment: PROVIDED, That the time limitation of this ~~((section))~~ subsection shall be ten years in claims involving loss of vision or function of the eyes.

(2) If compensation has been readjusted within the five-year period as provided in subsection (1) of this section, then within five years after the order first readjusting the compensation has become final, the director may, upon application of the beneficiary, again readjust the rate of compensation or, in a proper case, terminate the payment.

(3) The director may, at any time, upon his or her own motion, make the readjustments provided in this section.

(4) If a worker receiving a pension for total disability returns to gainful employment for wages, the director may suspend or terminate the rate of compensation established for the disability without producing medical evidence that shows that a diminution of the disability has occurred.

(5) No act done or ordered to be done by the director, or the department prior to the signing and filing in the matter of a written order for such readjustment shall be ground for such readjustment."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Metcalf and Tanner.

The motion by Senator Vognild carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Tanner, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 17, after line 16, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 51.32 RCW to read as follows: Notwithstanding RCW 51.32.040, whenever, pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement, a self-insured employer pays a worker or his or her beneficiaries disability benefits from a sickness and accident fund maintained by the employer, and it is subsequently determined that the worker or beneficiary is entitled to those benefits under this title, the employer may withhold amounts from benefits payable under this title sufficient to reimburse its sickness and accident fund for payments made to the worker or beneficiary from such fund; PROVIDED, That the reimbursement is authorized by the collective bargaining agreement."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 400 was deferred.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 692, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Representatives Niemi, Locke, Jacobsen, Leonard, Sanders, P. King, May, Brough, L. Smith and Sprengle)

Changing opium dens to houses where controlled substances are made or used in moral nuisance statute.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Talmadge moved that the following Committee on Judiciary amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. Every building or unit within a building used for the purpose of unlawfully manufacturing, delivering, selling, storing, or giving away any controlled substance as defined in chapter 69.50 RCW, legend drug as defined in chapter 69.41 RCW, or imitation controlled substances as defined in chapter 69.52 RCW, and every building or unit within a building wherein or upon which such acts take place, is a nuisance which shall be enjoined, abated, and prevented, whether it is a public or private nuisance.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. Any complaint filed under this chapter shall be verified or accompanied by affidavit.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. Upon a sufficient showing on a motion for a temporary restraining order or a preliminary injunction, the court shall grant such preliminary equitable relief as is necessary to prevent the continuance or recurrence of the nuisance pending final resolution of the matter on the merits.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. No temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction may issue under this chapter except upon the giving of security by the applicant, in such sum as the court deems proper, for the payment of such costs and damages as may be incurred or suffered by any party who is found to have been wrongfully restrained or enjoined. No security may be required of the state of Washington, municipal corporations, or political subdivisions of the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. An action under this chapter shall have precedence over all other actions, except prior matters of the same character, criminal proceedings, election contests, hearings on temporary restraining orders and injunctions, and actions to forfeit vehicles used in violation of the uniform controlled substances act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. (1) If the complaint under this chapter is filed by a citizen, it shall not be dismissed by the citizen for want of prosecution except upon a sworn statement made by the citizen and the citizen's attorney, if the citizen has one, setting forth the reasons why the action should be dismissed, and by dismissal ordered by the court.

(2) In case of failure to prosecute the action with reasonable diligence, or at the request of the plaintiff, the court, in its discretion, may substitute any other citizen consenting thereto for the plaintiff.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If the existence of the nuisance is established in the action, an order of abatement shall be entered as part of the final judgment in the case. Plaintiff's costs in the action, including those of abatement, are a lien upon the building or unit within a building, except as provided in section 11 of this act. The lien is enforceable and collectible by execution issued by order of the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. An intentional or wilful violation of a restraining order, preliminary injunction, or order of abatement under this chapter is punishable as a contempt of court by a fine of not less than two hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment for not less than one nor more than six months, or by both.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Any final order of abatement issued under this chapter shall:

(1) Direct the removal of all items subject to seizure and forfeiture pursuant to RCW 69.50.505 from the building or unit within a building, and direct their disposition pursuant to the forfeiture provisions of RCW 69.50.505;

(2) Provide for the immediate closure of the building or unit within a building against its use for any purpose, and for keeping it closed for a period of one year unless released sooner as provided in this chapter; and

(3) State that while the order of abatement remains in effect the building or unit within a building shall remain in the custody of the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. In all actions brought under this chapter, the proceeds and all moneys forfeited pursuant to the forfeiture provisions of RCW 69.50.505 shall be applied as follows:

(1) First, to the fees and costs of the removal and sale;

(2) Second, to the allowances and costs of closing and keeping closed the building or unit within a building;

(3) Third, to the payment of the plaintiff's costs in the action; and

(4) Fourth, the balance, if any, to the owner of the property.

If the proceeds of the sale of items subject to seizure and forfeiture do not fully discharge all of the costs, fees, and allowances, the building or unit within a building shall then also be sold under execution issued upon the order of the court, and the proceeds of the sale shall be applied in like manner.

No building or unit within a building may be sold pursuant to this section unless the court finds and concludes that the owner of the building or place had actual or constructive knowledge or notice of the existence of the nuisance, however, this shall not be construed as limiting or prohibiting the entry of any final order of abatement providing for the immediate closure of the building or unit within a building pursuant to this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) If the court finds and concludes that the owner of the building or unit within a building had no actual or constructive knowledge of the existence of the nuisance, has not been guilty of any contempt of court in the proceedings, will immediately abate any such nuisance that may exist at the building or unit within a building and prevent it from being a nuisance within a period of one year thereafter, the court shall, if satisfied of the owner's good faith, order the building or unit within a building to be delivered to the owner, and the order of abatement cancelled so far as it may relate to the property.

(2) The release of property under this chapter does not release it from any judgment, lien, penalty or liability to which it may be subject, except as provided in subsection (1) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Whenever the owner of a building or unit within a building upon which the act or acts constituting the contempt have been committed, or the owner of any interest therein, has been guilty of a contempt of court, and fined in any proceedings under this chapter, the fine is a lien upon the building or unit within a building to the extent of his or her interest in it. The lien is enforceable and collectible by execution issued by order of the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The abatement of a nuisance under this chapter does not prejudice the right of any person to recover damages for its past existence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Sections 1 through 13 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 69 RCW."

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following amendment by Senators Talmadge, Nelson, Newhouse and Halsan to the Committee on Judiciary amendment was adopted:

On page 6, after line 33 of the amendment, insert the following:

"Sec. 15. Section 3, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 17, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Commission" means the sentencing guidelines commission.

(2) "Community corrections officer" means an employee of the department who is responsible for carrying out specific duties in supervision of sentenced offenders and monitoring of sentence conditions.

(3) "Community service" means compulsory service, without compensation, performed for the benefit of the community by the offender. For purposes of the interstate compact for out of state supervision of parolees and probationers, RCW 9.95.270, community supervision is the functional equivalent of probation and should be considered the same as probation by other states.

(4) "Community supervision" means a period of time during which a convicted offender is subject to crime-related prohibitions and other sentence conditions imposed pursuant to this chapter by a court. For first-time offenders, the supervision may include crime-related prohibitions and other conditions imposed pursuant to RCW 9.94A.120(5).

(5) "Confinement" means total or partial confinement as defined in this section.

(6) "Conviction" means an adjudication of guilt pursuant to Titles 10 or 13 RCW and includes a verdict of guilty, a finding of guilty, and acceptance of a plea of guilty.

(7) "Crime-related prohibition" means an order of a court prohibiting conduct that directly relates to the circumstances of the crime for which the offender has been convicted, and shall not be construed to mean orders directing an offender affirmatively to participate in rehabilitative programs or to otherwise perform affirmative conduct.

(8) (a) "Criminal history" means the list of a defendant's prior convictions, whether in this state, in federal court, or elsewhere. The history shall include, where known, for each conviction (i) whether the defendant has been placed on probation and the length and terms thereof; and (ii) whether the defendant has been incarcerated and the length of incarceration.

(b) "Criminal history" includes a defendant's prior convictions in juvenile court if: (i) The conviction was for an offense which is a felony and is criminal history as defined in RCW 13.40.020(6)(a); (ii) the defendant was fifteen years of age or older at the time the offense was committed; and (iii) with respect to prior juvenile class B and C felonies, the defendant was less than twenty-three years of age at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

(9) "Department" means the department of corrections.

(10) "Determinate sentence" means a sentence that states with exactitude the number of actual years, months, or days of total confinement, of partial confinement, of community supervision, the number of actual hours or days of community service work, or dollars or terms of a fine or restitution. The fact that an offender through "earned early release" can reduce the actual period of confinement shall not affect the classification of the sentence as a determinate sentence.

(11) "Drug offense" means any felony violation of chapter 69.50 RCW except possession of a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.401(d)) or forged prescription for a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.403).

(12) "Escape" means escape in the first degree (RCW 9A.76.110), escape in the second degree (RCW 9A.76.120), wilful failure to return from furlough (RCW 72.66.060), or wilful failure to return from work release (RCW 72.65.070).

(13) "Felony traffic offense" means vehicular homicide (RCW 46.61.520), vehicular assault (RCW 46.61.522), or felony hit-and-run injury-accident (RCW 46.52.020(4)).

(14) "Fines" means the requirement that the offender pay a specific sum of money over a specific period of time to the court.

(15)(a) "First-time offender" means any person who is convicted of a felony (i) not classified as a violent offense or a sex offense under this chapter, or (ii) that is not the manufacture, delivery, or possession with intent to manufacture or deliver a controlled substance classified in schedule I or II that is a narcotic drug, and except as provided in (b) of this subsection, who previously has never been convicted of a felony in this state, federal court, or another state, and who has never participated in a program of deferred prosecution for a felony offense.

(b) For purposes of (a) of this subsection, a juvenile adjudication for an offense committed before the age of fifteen years is not a previous felony conviction.

(16) "Nonviolent offense" means an offense which is not a violent offense.

(17) "Offender" means a person who has committed a felony established by state law and is eighteen years of age or older or is less than eighteen years of age but whose case has been transferred by the appropriate juvenile court to a criminal court pursuant to RCW 13.40.110. Throughout this chapter, the terms "offender" and "defendant" are used interchangeably.

(18) "Partial confinement" means confinement for no more than one year in a facility or institution operated or utilized under contract by the state or any the state or any other unit of government, for a substantial portion of each day with the balance of the day spent in the community.

(19) "Restitution" means the requirement that the offender pay a specific sum of money over a specific period of time to the court as payment of damages. The sum may include both public and private costs. The imposition of a restitution order does not preclude civil redress.

(20) "Serious traffic offense" means driving while intoxicated (RCW 46.61.502), actual physical control while intoxicated (RCW 46.61.504), reckless driving (RCW 46.61.500), or hit-and-run an attended vehicle (RCW 46.52.020(5)).

(21) "Serious violent offense" is a subcategory of violent offense and means murder in the first degree, murder in the second degree, assault in the first degree, kidnapping in the first degree, or rape in the first degree, or an attempt, criminal solicitation, or criminal conspiracy to commit one of these felonies.

(22) "Sentence range" means the sentencing court's discretionary range in imposing a nonappealable sentence.

(23) "Sex offense" means a felony that is a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64-.020 or 9.68A.090 or that is, under chapter 9A.28 RCW, a criminal attempt, criminal solicitation, or criminal conspiracy to commit such crimes.

(24) "Total confinement" means confinement inside the physical boundaries of a facility or institution operated or utilized under contract by the state or any other unit of government for twenty-four hours a day, or pursuant to RCW 72.64.050 and 72.64.060.

(25) "Victim" means any person who has sustained physical or financial injury to person or property as a direct result of the crime charged.

(26) "Violent offense" means:

(a) Any of the following felonies, as now existing or hereafter amended: Any felony defined under any law as a class A felony or an attempt to commit a class A felony, criminal solicitation of or criminal conspiracy to commit a class A felony, manslaughter in the first degree, manslaughter in the second degree, indecent liberties if committed by forcible compulsion, rape in the second degree, kidnapping in the second degree, arson in the second degree, assault in the second degree, extortion in the first degree, robbery in the second degree, vehicular homicide, and vehicular assault;

(b) Any conviction for a felony offense in effect at any time prior to July 1, 1976, that is comparable to a felony classified as a violent offense in subsection (26)(a) of this section; and

(c) Any federal or out-of-state conviction for an offense that under the laws of this state would be a felony classified as a violent offense under subsection (26) (a) or (b) of this section."

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the following amendment to the Committee on Judiciary amendment be adopted:

On page 6, after line 33 of the amendment, insert the following:

"Sec. 15. Section 1, chapter 93, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 260, Laws of 1985 and by section 1, chapter 38, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.73.030 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, it shall be unlawful for any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or the state of Washington, its agencies, and political subdivisions to intercept, or record any:

(a) Private communication transmitted by telephone, telegraph, radio, or other device between two or more individuals between points within or without the state by any device electronic or otherwise designed to record and/or transmit said communication regardless how such device is powered or actuated, without first obtaining the consent of all the participants in the communication;

(b) Private conversation, by any device electronic or otherwise designed to record or transmit such conversation regardless how the device is powered or actuated without first obtaining the consent of all the persons engaged in the conversation.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, ~~((wire))~~ communications or conversations (a) of an emergency nature, such as the reporting of a fire, medical emergency, crime, or disaster, ~~((or))~~ (b) which convey threats of extortion, blackmail, bodily harm, or other unlawful requests or demands, ~~((or))~~ (c) which occur anonymously or repeatedly or at an extremely inconvenient hour, or (d) which relate to communications by a hostage holder or barricaded person as defined in RCW 70.85.100, whether or not conversation ensues, may be recorded with the consent of one party to the conversation.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, communications or conversations which occur in person and face-to-face and concern the unlawful manufacture, delivery, sale, or possession with intent to manufacture, deliver, or sell, controlled substances as defined in chapter 69.50 RCW, or legend drugs as defined in chapter 69.41 RCW, or imitation controlled substances as defined in chapter 69.52 RCW, may be transmitted in accordance with section 17 of this 1987 act with the consent of one party to the conversation.

(4) Where consent by all parties is needed pursuant to this chapter, consent shall be considered obtained whenever one party has announced to all other parties engaged in the communication or conversation, in any reasonably effective manner, that such communication or conversation is about to be recorded or transmitted: PROVIDED, That if the conversation is to be recorded that said announcement shall also be recorded.

~~((4))~~ (5) An employee of any regularly published newspaper, magazine, wire service, radio station, or television station acting in the course of bona fide news gathering duties on a full time or contractual or part time basis, shall be deemed to have consent to record and divulge communications or conversations otherwise prohibited by this chapter if the consent is expressly given or if the recording or transmitting device is readily apparent or obvious to the speakers. Withdrawal of the consent after the communication has been made shall not prohibit any such employee of a newspaper, magazine, wire service, or radio or television station from divulging the communication or conversation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 9.73 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Any information obtained in violation of RCW 9.73.030 or pursuant to an order issued under the provisions of RCW 9.73.040 shall be inadmissible in any civil or criminal case in all courts of general or limited jurisdiction in this state, except:

(a) For the limited purpose of allowing any person who did not consent to the recording to impeach a witness in any case;

(b) With the permission of the person whose communication or conversation was recorded without his or her knowledge; or

(c) In a criminal action in which the defendant is charged with a crime, the commission of which would jeopardize national security.

(2) Nothing in this section, however, bars the admission of testimony of a participant in the communication or conversation unaided by information obtained in violation of RCW 9.73.030.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. A new section is added to chapter 9.73 RCW to read as follows:

The exception provided for in RCW 9.73.030(3) is subject to the following restriction:

Before a conversation or communication is transmitted, a law enforcement agency director or his or her designee above the rank of first line supervisor shall complete a written authorization showing: (1) The date and time the authorization is given; (2) the persons, including the consenting party, expected to participate in the conversation or communication, if known; (3) the expected date, location, and approximate time of the conversation or communication; and (4) that a reasonable suspicion exists that a crime identified in RCW 9.73.030(3) was, is being, or is about to be committed by a party expected to participate in the conversation or communication.

Sec. 18. Section 6, chapter 93, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 9.73.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who shall violate RCW 9.73.030 or section 17 of this 1987 act shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Before the 1988 legislative session, the senate and house of representatives judiciary committees shall conduct a review of chapter 9.73 RCW. The objective of the review is to determine how best to address the needs of law enforcement and public safety and the citizens' expectations of privacy with respect to the interception, transmission, or recording of private communications, and to consider other changes to the statute, particularly in view of technological changes in the field of communications.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. Section 3, chapter 93, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 9.73.050 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Williams: "Mr. President, I would like to raise the issue of scope and object on the amendment. As the chairman indicated, the underlying bill basically deals with civil or moral nuisances and our statutes relating to that. The amendment expands the scope and object by delving into the privacy act statutes and introduces the subject of electronic surveillance. I think that substantially enlarges the scope and object of the bill."

Further debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, a point of parliamentary inquiry. Did Senator Williams challenge scope and object on the amendment to the amendment or was it on the amendment, as amended?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President understood it to be the amendment to the amendment."

Senator Pullen: "In looking over the bill and in looking over both the amendment to the amendment and the amendment, they do appear to be out of scope and object to me. But, I guess I am looking at Rule No. 65, which says 'no amendment to any bill shall be allowed which shall change the scope and object of the bill.' Senator Williams has raised the point of order on the amendment to the amendment and that, of course, is not an amendment to the bill. This raises certain questions. In other words, does his particular scope and object question, is it taking the whole amendment, as amended, up to this point with it, if it should be ruled on scope and object? I think those are some questions that need to be resolved."

President Cherberg: "The President assures you it will only be the amendment to the amendment. If scope and object is ruled in the affirmative, it would be that amendment."

Senator Pullen: "Then, if Senator Williams' point of order should not be well taken and Senator Talmadge's amendment to the amendment should be ruled not out of scope and object, would Senator Williams then be in order to challenge the entire amendment, as amended, with regard to scope and object when it comes time to vote on that particular issue?"

President Cherberg: "It is possible. It would be his privilege to try."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 692 was deferred.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 400, deferred earlier today.

MOTION

Senator Tanner moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 17, after line 16, insert the following:

"Sec. 10. Section 11, chapter 14, Laws of 1980 and RCW 51.32.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Any worker entitled to receive any benefits or claiming such under this title shall, if requested by the department or self-insurer, submit himself or herself for medical examination, at a time and from time to time, at a place reasonably convenient for the worker and as may be provided by the rules of the department. If the worker refuses to submit to medical examination, or obstructs the same, or, if any injured worker shall persist in unsanitary or injurious practices which tend to imperil or retard his or her recovery, or shall refuse to submit to such medical or surgical treatment as is reasonably essential to his or her recovery or refuse or obstruct evaluation or examination for the purpose of vocational rehabilitation or does not cooperate in reasonable efforts at such rehabilitation, the department, with notice to the worker, or the self-insurer ((upon approval by the department)), with notice to the worker and the department may suspend any further action on any claim of such worker so long as such refusal, obstruction, noncooperation, or practice continues and reduce, suspend, or deny any compensation for such period: PROVIDED, That the department or the self-insurer shall not suspend any further action on any claim of a worker or reduce, suspend, or deny any compensation if a worker has good cause for refusing to submit to or to obstruct any examination, evaluation, treatment or practice requested by the department or the self-insurer, or required under this section. When a self-insured employer reduces, suspends or denies any compensation under this section, the self-insurer shall enter a written order, communicated to the worker and the department's self-insurance section. The order shall contain the following statement clearly set forth in bold face type: "This order constitutes notification that your compensation benefits are being reduced, suspended or denied for failure to cooperate in accordance with RCW 51.32.110. If, for any reason, you disagree with this determination, you may protest in writing to the Department of Labor and Industries, Self-Insurance Section, within sixty days of the date you received this order." In the event the department receives such a protest, the department shall investigate and review the claim evidence and enter a determinative order as provided for in RCW 51.52.050: PROVIDED, That the worker must be advised in writing by the self-insurer of the consequences for failure to cooperate prior to the effective date of the reduction, suspension or denial of compensation and be allowed a reasonable time for compliance: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the department determines that the self-insurer has improperly reduced, suspended or denied benefits as they became due or such reduction, suspension or denial is not in compliance with this section then, upon order of the department, the self-insurer shall pay to the worker an additional amount equal to the greater of five hundred dollars or the amount of the benefits otherwise due. If the worker necessarily incurs traveling expenses in attending ((~~for~~) examination ((pursuant to the request of the department)), such traveling expenses shall be repaid to him or her out of the accident fund upon proper voucher and audit or shall be repaid by the self-insurer, as the case may be.

If the medical examination required by this section causes the worker to be absent from his or her work without pay he or she shall be paid for such time lost in accordance with the schedule of payments provided in RCW 51.32.090 as amended.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 51.32 RCW to read as follows:

Whenever an application for benefits is filed that requires a determination of whether benefits shall be paid pursuant to the reopening of an accepted claim under RCW 51.32.160 or by allowance of a claim for new injury or occupational disease, the department shall make the determination in a single order. Pending entry of the order, benefits shall be paid promptly pursuant to this title by either the department or the self-insurer, as the case may be, as determined by the department.

If, upon final determination, the entity that paid benefits under this title is determined to be not responsible for payment of the benefits, such entity shall be reimbursed by the responsible entity for all amounts paid. If neither the department nor a self-insurer is determined to be responsible for the benefits, the recipient of benefits shall repay the entity having paid the benefits and recoupment may be made from any future payments due the recipient on any claim with the state fund or self-insurer, as the case may be. The director may exercise his or her discretion to waive, in whole or in part, the amount of any such repayments where the recovery would be against equity and good conscience."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Tanner.

The motion by Senator Tanner carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Warnke, the following title amendments were considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 1, line 2, after ".090," insert "51.32.160."

On page 1, line 4 of the title, after "51.32.090;" insert "adding a new section to chapter 51.32 RCW;"

On page 1, line 4 of the title, after "51.32.090;" insert "amending RCW 51.32.110; and adding a new section to chapter 51.32 RCW."

On motion of Senator Warnke the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 400, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 400, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 400, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 8.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Cantu, Conner, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalfe, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Rasmussen, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 41.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Bluechel, Bottiger, Craswell, Hansen, McDermott, Pullen, Rinehart - 8.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 400, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 877, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Representatives Armstrong, Hargrove, Crane, Appelwick, Prince, Brough, Scott, L. Smith, Wang, Heavey, Meyers, Cooper, Wineberry and Jesernig)

Specifying period for which prejudgment interest shall be payable.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following Committee on Judiciary amendments were considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 1, line 12, after "RCW 19.52.010" insert ", 82.32.060"

On page 2, line 13, after "judgment" insert ", other than judgments entered pursuant to RCW 82.32.060."

Senator Newhouse moved that the following amendment by Senators Newhouse and Owen be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 4, chapter 136, Laws of 1895 as last amended by section 1, chapter 147, Laws of 1983 and RCW 4.56.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Interest on judgments shall accrue as follows:

(1) Judgments founded on written contracts, providing for the payment of interest until paid at a specified rate, shall bear interest at the rate specified in the contracts: PROVIDED, That said interest rate is set forth in the judgment.

(2) Except as provided under subsection (1) of this section, judgments shall bear interest from the date of entry at the ~~((maximum))~~ treasury rate ~~((permitted under RCW 19.52.020))~~ on the date of entry thereof: PROVIDED, That in any case where a court is directed on review to enter judgment on a verdict or in any case where a judgment entered on a verdict is wholly or partly affirmed on review, interest on the judgment or on that portion of the judgment affirmed shall date back to and shall accrue from the date the verdict was rendered.

(3) In addition to the interest allowed under subsection (2) of this section, the court shall add prejudgment interest to any portion of a judgment constituting past economic damages. Prejudgment interest shall accrue from the date that the cause of action was filed or the date any past economic damage was actually incurred, whichever date is later, to the date of entry of judgment. The rate of interest shall be the treasury rate on the date of filing. Prejudgment interest under this subsection shall not be applied as follows:

(a) If any portion of an amount represented by a judgment is paid to a judgment creditor prior to the entry of the judgment, then prejudgment interest shall accrue on that paid portion of the judgment from the date the cause of action was filed or the date any past economic damage was actually incurred, whichever date is later, to the date of payment;

(b) If the cause of action is continued at the judgment creditor's request, then prejudgment interest shall not be applied during the period of the continuance; and

(c) If interest on a judgment is calculated under RCW 19.52.010 or 82.32.060, prejudgment interest shall not be applied.

(4) For the purposes of this section: (a) "Treasury rate" means the equivalent coupon issue yield (as published by the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco) of the average bill rate for twenty-six week treasury bills as determined at the first bill market auction conducted during the calendar month immediately preceding the date of entry of the judgment; and (b) "economic damages" shall be as defined in RCW 4.56.250.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 4.56 RCW to read as follows:

An attorney shall not receive as compensation any portion of the interest awarded pursuant to RCW 4.56.110(3).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Section 1 of this act applies to any judgment entered after November 1, 1987."

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the following amendment to the amendment be adopted:

On page 1, line 23, after "at the" strike everything through "applied," on page 2, line 36 of the amendment and insert "maximum rate permitted under RCW 19.52.020 on the date of entry thereof: PROVIDED, That in any case where a court is directed on review to enter judgment on a verdict or in any case where a judgment entered on a verdict is wholly or partly affirmed on review, interest on the judgment or on that portion of the judgment affirmed shall date back to and shall accrue from the date the verdict was rendered.

(3) In addition to the interest allowed under subsection (2) of this section, the court shall add prejudgment interest to a judgment. Prejudgment interest shall accrue from the date that the cause of action was filed or the date the damage was actually incurred, whichever date is later, to the date of entry of judgment. The rate of interest shall be the treasury rate on the date of filing. Prejudgment interest under this subsection shall not be applied as follows:

(a) If any portion of an amount represented by a judgment is paid to a judgment creditor prior to the entry of the judgment, then prejudgment interest shall accrue on that paid portion of the judgment from the date the cause of action was filed or the date any such portion was actually incurred, whichever date is later, to the date of payment;

(b) If the cause of action is continued at the judgment creditor's request, then prejudgment interest shall not be applied during the period of the continuance;

(c) If any portion of a judgment is found to be future damages, then no prejudgment interest shall accrue on that portion of the judgment;

(d) If the judgment debtor has made a written settlement offer that is not accepted by the judgment creditor within thirty days, or prior to trial, whichever occurs first, and the settlement offer is not less than seventy-five percent of the judgment amount, then prejudgment interest after the date of service of the settlement offer shall only be calculated on that portion of the judgment which exceeds the settlement offer; and

(e) If prejudgment interest on a portion of a judgment is calculated under RCW 19.52.010 or 82.32.060, prejudgment interest pursuant to this section shall not be applied on such portion of the judgment."

Debate ensued.

Senator Bottiger demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senator Talmadge to the amendment by Senators Newhouse and Owen.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Talmadge failed and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 22; nays, 26; absent, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Bottiger, Conner, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Kreidler, McDermott, Moore, Peterson, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 22.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Deccio, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Saling, Sellar, von Reichbauer, West, Zimmerman - 26.

Absent: Senator DeJarnatt - 1.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, is that an amendment to the amendment or an amendment to the bill?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "An amendment to the amendment."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, I raise the point of order that the amendment by Senator Newhouse expands the scope and object of the bill. If the President will examine the bill, all through the bill the reference is to interest paid prior to judgment. Senator Newhouse has expanded the scope and object and changed it, rather than expand it, to interest paid after a judgment has been entered. I, therefore, believe it expands the scope and object."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 877 was deferred.

President Pro Tempore Rasmussen assumed the chair.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 554, by Committee on Constitution, Elections and Ethics (originally sponsored by Representatives Fisher, Miller, Fisch, Day, Allen, Pruitt, P. The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Zimmerman moved that the following amendments by Senators Zimmerman, McCaslin, Metcalf, Sellar and Hayner be considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 1, line 24, after "or" strike "otherwise" and insert "in person"

On page 1, line 26, after "or" insert "personally"

On page 2, after line 2, insert a new subsection as follows:

"(3) Registration of a qualified person becomes effective when an accurate and complete registration form is received by the auditor, for the county in which the person resides, no later than thirty days prior to the next succeeding general, special or primary election, weekends and state holidays excepted."

On page 2, line 11 after "schools" strike all the material through "county" on line 13 and insert "and fire stations"

On page 2, line 29, after "identocard," insert "The county auditor shall not process a registration mail form prior to verifying the number provided by the applicant pursuant to this section. The method of verification must be noted by the auditor on the form returned by the applicant and all such forms shall be subject to public inspection and copying at a cost not to exceed the actual costs of reproduction."

On page 3, line 6, after "vote," insert "that I currently reside at _____ (street or rural route and city or town)"

On page 3 line 14, strike "post office" and insert "mailing"

On page 3, line 22 after "fine," insert "Notwithstanding any other judgment which may be entered by the court, every individual found guilty of an offense as described in this section shall be sentenced to a minimum of forty-eight consecutive hours in an appropriate county jail facility."

On page 3, line 30, after "correct" insert "and that the identifying number required in section 6 of this 1987 act has been verified as accurate"

On page 4, line 9, after "deliverable" insert "and all such cards shall be retained and available for public inspection and copying for a period of two years"

On page 4, line 12, after "or" strike "have delivered" and insert "personally deliver"

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognil, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 554 was deferred.

Authorizing excise tax deferrals on machinery, equipment, and other personal property used in the production or casting of aluminum.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Tanner, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 321 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 321.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 321 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 49.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vogt, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 49.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 321, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 823, by Representatives Wineberry, Grimm, Nelson, Allen, Locke, Hargrove, Heavey, Jacobsen, Niemi, Brislaw, Appelwick, Walker, O'Brien, Holland, Belcher, Brekke, Crane, Dellwo and Todd Requiring divestiture of investments in firms doing business with countries with apartheid policies.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Pullen moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, after line 15, insert the following:

"(2) Other countries, including but not limited to certain communist countries, practice apartheid and have consistently and oppressively violated human rights."

Renumber the remaining subsections consecutively

Debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Pullen.

The motion by Senator Pullen carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Pullen moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 4, line 14, after "race" strike all material down to and including "Namibia" on line 15 and insert ", ethnicity, or creed. This definition specifically includes the policies of South Africa and Namibia and may include the policies of other dictatorial countries, including but not limited to communist countries"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDermott: "Senator Pullen, as I read that, it looks like it covers Northern Ireland. Is that your understanding?"

Senator Pullen: "Senator McDermott, that would not be my decision to make. That decision would be made pursuant to the terms of the other amendments in the bill by the Board of Trustees, the Board of Regents and the other groups who will be making the divestment decision."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Pullen.

The motion by Senator Pullen carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Pullen moved that the following amendments be considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 4, line 25, after "1," strike "1988" and insert "1989"

On page 4, line 26, after "1," strike "1991" and insert "1992"
 On page 4, line 33, after "1," strike "1991" and insert "1992"

Absent: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Conner - 3.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, a point of parliamentary inquiry. When we recessed shortly after 5:00 o'clock which was our cut-off deadline, we were dealing with House Bill No. 823, the divestiture bill. Under prior Presidential rulings, if we were working on a bill at the cut-off deadline, we can continue on that one bill. I want to make sure that by taking up this particular vote at this time, we are not forgetting."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "We will take it up after this, Senator."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate commenced consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 527.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 527, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Representatives Locke, Silver, Grimm and Holland) (by request of Governor Gardner)

Adopting the 1987-89 omnibus appropriations act.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator McDermott moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) A budget is hereby adopted and, subject to the provisions set forth in the following sections, the several amounts specified in the following sections, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to accomplish the purposes designated, are hereby appropriated and authorized to be incurred for salaries, wages, and other expenses of the agencies and offices of the state and for other specified purposes for the fiscal biennium beginning July 1, 1987, and ending June 30, 1989, except as otherwise provided, out of the several funds of the state hereinafter named.

(2) Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this act.

(a) "Fiscal year 1988" or "FY 1988" means the fiscal year ending June 30, 1988.

(b) "Fiscal year 1989" or "FY 1989" means the fiscal year ending June 30, 1989.

(c) "Provided solely" means the specified amount may be spent only for the specified purpose. Unless otherwise specifically authorized in this act, any portion of an amount provided solely for a specified purpose which is unnecessary to fulfill the specified purpose shall revert.

(d) "Revert" or "lapse" means the amount shall return to an unappropriated status.

(e) "FTE" means full time equivalent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) No funds appropriated in this act or otherwise available to any executive branch agency shall be expended for any costs incident to the employment of, or contracting for the services of, any personnel whose function is public relations or government relations, unless expressly authorized by the director of financial management. By December 20, 1987, the director shall submit to the legislature a report covering all such employment and contract services, including at least the total costs for the services, the identity of the persons performing the services, and the agencies for which the services were or are performed. The director shall also include whatever recommendations the director deems appropriate.

(2) No funds appropriated by this act or otherwise available to any executive branch agency shall be expended for any costs incident to the production or the publication of any magazine or brochure unless expressly authorized by the director of financial management. By December 20, 1985, the director shall submit to the legislature a report covering all such publications, including at least the total costs for the production, publication, and distribution, including staff resources, of each such publication. The director shall also include whatever recommendations that may be deemed appropriate for each publication.

PART I

GENERAL GOVERNMENT

NEW SECTION. Sec. 101. FOR THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

General Fund Appropriation .....	$	44,349,000

The case managers shall be mental health professionals, or shall be supervised by mental health professionals as defined in RCW 71.05.020(11). Kitsap mental health services shall participate in the state and county client tracking system required by RCW 71.24.035(4)(h) and 71.24.045(6). Kitsap mental health services shall provide quarterly reports to the committees on ways and means of the senate and house of representatives describing the numbers and characteristics of clients served and the resulting diversions from psychiatric hospitals and evaluation and treatment facilities. In addition, the department shall present an annual report to the same legislative committees by January 1, 1988, and January 1, 1989, indicating progress made toward meeting the long-term residential bed needs of Kitsap county.

(c) The mental health division, in conjunction with county officials and other affected parties, shall develop a fair and equitable formula for distributing involuntary treatment act administration funding to counties. The formula shall incorporate workload estimates, factors relevant to impacts on administrative costs of state psychiatric hospitals and any other relevant factors, defined in a common and consistent manner for state-wide application, required to reflect actual county administration costs. The mental health division shall present the proposed formula to the ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives by November 15, 1987. Implementation of the formula may take effect immediately after legislative review but no later than January 1, 1988. Of the funding provided in this section for involuntary treatment act administration, $3,400,000 is placed in reserve status pending legislative review of the new formula. No county allocation of funds for fiscal year 1988 may be less than its fiscal year 1987 allocation. Counties shall continue to fund current maintenance of effort funding levels during the ensuing biennium.

(d) $6,250,000, of which $5,000,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, is provided solely for a state-wide pilot demonstration project as provided for in Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5074. These funds include 2 percent for costs of administration for participating counties. The plan for the pilot project shall be developed by the department in cooperation with interested counties, mental health providers, and other interested members of the community and legislative staff shall be submitted to the legislature by September 1, 1987. The plan shall include specific criteria for inclusion in the project for counties choosing to participate and shall meet the conditions set forth in Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5074. The plan shall provide for evaluation of the effects of case management on the treatment of involuntarily committed persons. The evaluation shall incorporate experimental control groups and use a system of random selection for identifying persons to receive the case management services. Evaluation support of no more than $125,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is from the emergency and technical assistance funds provided for in RCW 71.24.155. The plan shall assure that case management services are administered in a manner which recognizes client needs within the availability of funds provided in this subsection (d). If Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5074 is not enacted by June 30, 1987, the amount provided in this subsection shall be provided solely for case management services for persons ordered to a fourteen-day less restrictive treatment setting as provided for in RCW 71.05.240.

(e) $500,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for Pierce county for community mental health services to address loss of operations grants and impact of persons released from the state psychiatric hospital who do not return to the county in which they were originally detained.

(f) Grants to counties for community mental health programs shall total not less than $81,689,000 under RCW 71.24.155.

(g) $1,000,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for the support of involuntary treatment act administration.

(2) INSTITUTIONAL SERVICES

General Fund Appropriation—State	$	150,411,000
General Fund Appropriation—Federal	$	7,948,000
Total Appropriation	$	158,359,000

The appropriations in this subsection are subject to the following conditions and limitations: The department shall prepare a transition plan for moving clients served by the program for adaptive living at Western state hospital into community residential facilities beginning on July 1, 1988. The transition plan shall include a list of qualified vendors and an appropriate amount of funding to be transferred from Western state hospital to cover the cost of establishing and operating community residential treatment beds. It is the intent of the legislature to provide community residential services in local noninstitutional settings. No other community residential programs may be established on the grounds of state mental institutions.

(3) PROGRAM SUPPORT

General Fund Appropriation—State	$	3,477,000
General Fund Appropriation—Federal	$	1,341,000
Total Appropriation	$	4,818,000

The appropriations in this subsection are subject to the following conditions and limitations: $78,600 from the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for allocations to non-profit agencies advocating for the mentally ill. Such funds are for providing technical assistance to state agencies, mental health education programs, outreach and family support, self-help support groups, and patient advocacy.

(4) PROGRAM SUPPORT

General Fund Appropriation—State	$	3,991,000
General Fund Appropriation—Federal	$	479,000
Total Appropriation	$	4,470,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations: If Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 221 is enacted before June 30, 1987, the department is authorized to expend the proceeds of the telecommunication devices for the deaf excise tax established under the bill for the distribution and maintenance of telecommunication devices, signal devices, and amplifying accessories to hearing-impaired persons as provided in the bill.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 207. FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AND HEALTH SERVICES—LONG-TERM CARE SERVICES

General Fund Appropriation—State	$	334,036,000
General Fund Appropriation—Federal	$	333,836,000
Total Appropriation	$	667,872,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) The department shall provide an integrated system of long-term care services which will allow for the most efficient, equitable, and appropriate use of available resources. The department shall endeavor to provide these services in the least restrictive and most cost-effective manner appropriate for individual clients.

(2) Adult services vendor rates shall be increased by 2.0 percent on September 1, 1987, and 4.0 percent on September 1, 1988.

(3) Department-contracted chore services shall provide for and assure payment of compensation for staff of no less than $4.76 per hour beginning September 1, 1987, and $5.15 per hour beginning September 1, 1988. Department reimbursement to clients for attendant care and services provided by the community options program entry system shall provide for and assure payment of a monthly rate equivalent to $4.76 per hour for full time employment beginning September 1, 1987, and $5.15 per hour for full time employment beginning September 1, 1988. If Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1006 is enacted before June 30, 1987, department-contracted nursing homes shall provide for and assure payment of compensation for staff of no less than $4.76 per hour beginning January 1, 1988, and $5.15 per hour beginning January 1, 1989. $1,400,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely to enhance other nonadministrative wages and benefits as specified in Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1006. If the bill is not enacted by June 30, 1987, this amount shall lapse.

(4) Grant payment standards shall be increased by 2.0 percent on September 1, 1987, and 4.0 percent on September 1, 1988, for adult residential care clients.

(5) Nursing home rates shall be adjusted for inflation under RCW 74.46.495 by 3 percent on July 1, 1987, and 3 percent on July 1, 1988.

(6) $1,000,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for the expansion of the respite care demonstration project.

(7) At least 7 percent of the amount allotted for the senior citizens services act in each fiscal year shall be used for programs that utilize volunteer workers for the provision of chore services to persons whose need for chore services is not being met by the chore services program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 208. FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AND HEALTH SERVICES—INCOME ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

General Fund Appropriation—State .....	$ 494,565,000
General Fund Appropriation—Federal .....	$ 447,473,000
Total Appropriation .....	$ 942,038,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) Vendor rates shall be increased by 2.0 percent on September 1, 1987, and 4.0 percent on September 1, 1988.

(2) The department shall continue the aid to families with dependent children program for two-parent families through June 30, 1989.

(3) The department shall adopt by rule medical criteria for general assistance eligibility to ensure that eligibility decisions are consistent with statutory requirements and are based on clear, objective medical information.

(a) The process implementing such medical criteria shall involve consideration of opinions of the treating or consulting physicians or health care professionals regarding incapacity, and any eligibility decision which rejects uncontradicted medical opinion must set forth clear and convincing reasons for doing so.

(b) Recipients of general assistance who remain otherwise eligible shall not have their benefits terminated absent a clear showing of material improvement in their medical or mental condition or specific error in the prior determination that found the recipient eligible by reason of incapacitation.

(4) If Substitute House Bill No. 646 is enacted by June 30, 1987, the department shall report to the appropriate committees of the legislature by January 5, 1988, on implementation of the alcohol and drug addiction treatment and shelter act. The report shall include at least the following information:

(a) The number of persons receiving client assessment services, including the number receiving assistance in the application process for supplemental security income benefits;

(b) The number of persons receiving treatment services, including the number receiving inpatient and outpatient treatment, and the number receiving a living allowance while undergoing outpatient treatment;

(c) The number of persons receiving shelter services and the type of shelter services provided;

(d) The number of applicants for general assistance payments referred to the program and the number of recipients of general assistance transferred to the program; and

(e) An assessment of the need to revise projected funding levels of $2,700,000 for client assessment services, $11,378,000 for treatment services, and $10,487,000 for shelter services.

(5) If Substitute House Bill No. 646 is enacted by June 30, 1987, the department shall have authority to provide services, including protective payee services, in lieu of cash grants, to clients eligible for the alcohol and drug addiction treatment and shelter program.

(6) It is the continuing intention of the legislature that payment levels in the aid to families with dependent children, general assistance, and refugee assistance programs contain an energy allowance to offset the costs of energy and that such allowance be excluded from consideration as income for the purpose of determining eligibility and benefit levels of the food stamp program to the maximum extent such exclusion is authorized under federal law and RCW 74.08.046. To this end, up to $150,000,000 is so designated for exemptions of the following amounts:

Family size:	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8 or more
--------------	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	-----------

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $108,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is transferred within the office of constituent relations for an additional 2 FTE staff for the office of the long-term care ombudsman.

(2) The department shall contract with the Washington state institute for public policy with $652,000 of the general fund—state appropriation for a study over time of individual public assistance recipients and of individuals at risk of becoming eligible for or enrolling on public assistance.

(3) $348,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for continuing study of characteristics of public assistance recipients and evaluation of the family independence program.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 214. FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AND HEALTH SERVICES—COMMUNITY SERVICES ADMINISTRATION PROGRAM

General Fund Appropriation—State .....	$	158,797,000
General Fund Appropriation—Federal .....	$	174,230,000
General Fund Appropriation—Local .....	$	705,000
Total Appropriation .....	$	333,732,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $498,000 of the general fund—state appropriation and $471,000 of the general fund—federal appropriation are provided solely for administrative costs associated with the provision of medical assistance to categorically needy pregnant women and, on a phased-in basis, children up to five years of age whose household income does not exceed 100 percent of the federal poverty level, whose incomes do not exceed reasonable standards established by the department, and whose coverage qualifies for federal financial participation under Title XIX of the federal social security act.

(2) $4,922,000, of which $2,461,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, is provided solely to increase services for participants in the opportunities program.

(3) $69,000 of the general fund—state appropriation and $70,000 of the general fund—federal appropriation are provided solely for discharge planning case management for clients in nursing homes, congregate care facilities, and adult family homes.

(4) $708,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for establishing a supplemental security income referral pilot program as provided for in Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 665. If the bill is not enacted by June 30, 1987, the amount provided in this subsection shall lapse.

Total Appropriation .....	$	180,817,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $3,576,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for grants to public and private nonprofit organizations to operate food banks, food distribution centers, and emergency shelters.

(2) $100,000 of the general fund—state appropriation may be used for increased department administrative staff if the department receives federal grants in excess of $1,000,000 under U.S. House of Representatives resolution 558. If the department does not receive grants of at least $1,000,000, the amount provided in this subsection shall lapse.

(3) $12,534,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for early childhood education and assistance programs under Substitute Senate Bill No. 5476 or Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 456. These moneys shall be used to provide services to at least 2,000 children. If neither bill is enacted by June 30, 1987, the amount provided in this subsection shall lapse.

(4) $173,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for study of the uses, structure, and operation of a state-wide video telecommunications network. The department shall submit a report to the house of representatives and senate by January 1, 1989, recommending a plan for using video telecommunications in state government and assessing the potential of a state-wide public affairs satellite/cable television network broadcasting programs on state government to Washington state citizens. The department shall consult with the house of representatives and senate energy and utilities committees and with the telecommunications division of the department of general administration for technical assistance in preparing this report.

(5) $750,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for grants to public broadcast companies that are licensed in Washington and qualify to receive grants from the federal corporation for public broadcasting under Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5285. If the bill is not enacted by June 30, 1987, the amount provided in this subsection shall lapse.

(6) The department shall review the needs of low-income migrant and seasonal workers. To the extent that funds are available, the legislature encourages the department to give special attention to low-income migrant and seasonal workers.

(7) $100,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely to implement Substitute House Bill No. 430. If the bill is not enacted by June 30, 1987, the amount provided in this subsection shall lapse.

Appropriation—Federal	$	6,798,000
Unemployment Compensation Administration Fund Appropriation—Federal	$	110,569,000
Employment Service Administration Account Appropriation—Federal	$	2,334,000
Total Appropriation	$	290,031,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) The department shall submit a plan to the commerce and labor committees of the senate and house of representatives by January 15, 1988, regarding continuation of services provided at its satellite office at 2106 Second Avenue, Seattle. The plan shall identify any proposed changes to the service level in effect on July 1, 1988, and methods of assuring reasonable access to a full array of services for area clients.

(2) The department shall produce local area labor market information packages for the state's economically distressed counties.

(3) The department shall produce an annual state economic report to the legislature and the governor that includes but is not limited to:

(a) Identification and analysis of industries in the United States, Washington state, and local labor markets with high levels of seasonal, cyclical, and structural unemployment;

(b) The industries and local labor markets with plant closures and mass lay-offs and the number of affected workers;

(c) An analysis of the major causes of plant closures and mass lay-offs;

(d) The number of dislocated workers and persons who have exhausted their unemployment benefits, classified by industry, occupation, and local labor markets;

(e) The experience of the unemployed in their efforts to become reemployed. This should include research conducted on the continuous wage and benefit history;

(f) Five-year industry and occupational employment projections; and

(g) Annual and hourly average wage rates by industry and occupation.

(4) The department shall establish a counter-cyclical employment program.

(a) This program shall provide employment for unemployed forest product workers. "Forest products industries" means industries within the standard industrial classification code numbers 8, 24, and 26. The program shall operate, on a pilot basis in two locations in Washington state, with preference given to distressed areas in the state.

(b) Eligibility for employment under the counter-cyclical employment program shall occur only upon exhaustion of unemployment insurance benefits received upon termination of employment in the Washington forest products industry and eligibility shall be limited to only those persons who are either currently unemployed, employed part time, or whose employment in the Washington forest products industry was terminated within the previous year. No one shall be employed by the program for longer than six months in a two-year period, except as to administrative and supervisory employees.

(c) The program shall begin after completion of two consecutive quarters of below-average employment in forest products industries in Washington state and shall cease sixty days after the completion of two consecutive quarters of above-average timber products employment in Washington state. If, on the effective date of this act, forest products employment in the state has been below average for two consecutive quarters, the program shall begin immediately. In order to determine average forest products employment, the department shall calculate the trend of forest products employment in Washington state by the number of forest products employees, as reported by the department, during the fifteen years prior to the date the calculation is made. "Average forest products employment" means the level of employment indicated by this trend line.

(d) Employment under the counter-cyclical employment program shall consist of activities which enhance the value of state, county, and local government lands and waters and associated improvements, with priority given to enhancing state lands and waters. Eligible activities shall include, but are not limited to, thinning, slash removal, reforestation, fire suppression, trail maintenance, maintenance of recreational facilities, dike repair, tourist facilities, stream enhancement, water quality enhancement, irrigation repair, and the building of shellfish beds.

(e) Employees under the counter-cyclical employment program, except administrative employees, shall not be considered state employees for the purposes of existing provisions of law with respect to hours of work, sick leave and civil service. Employees under the program shall receive the same medical and dental benefits and holiday and vacation benefits as state employees. Compensation for employees under the counter-cyclical employment program shall be at least eight dollars per hour of employment, except as to administrative and supervisory personnel. Employment under the program shall not result in the displacement or partial displacement, such as reduction of hours of nonovertime work, wages, or other employment benefits, of currently employed workers, including but not limited to state civil service employees, or of currently or normally contracted services. The services of counter-cyclical employment members are exempt from unemployment compensation coverage under RCW 50.44.040 and the members shall be so advised by the department.

(f) The department shall administer the program in consultation with the state natural resource agencies. The employment security department may enter into contracts and agreements with state agencies and private and public individuals and organizations to carry out the program.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 503. FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—FOR GENERAL APPORTIONMENT (BASIC EDUCATION)

General Fund Appropriation ..... $ 3,781,730,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $367,646,000 is provided solely for the remaining months of the 1986-87 school year.

(2) Allocations for certificated staff salaries for the 1987-88 and 1988-89 school years shall be determined by multiplying each district's average basic education certificated instructional and administrative salaries as determined under section 504(2) of this act by the districts' formula-generated staff units as follows:

(a) On the basis of average annual full time equivalent enrollments, excluding hand-capped full time equivalent enrollment as recognized for funding purposes under section 505 of this act, and excluding full time equivalent enrollment otherwise recognized for certificated staff unit allocations under (d) through (l) of this subsection:

(i) Forty-six certificated instructional staff units for each one thousand full time equivalent kindergarten through twelfth grade students.

(ii) Four certificated administrative staff units for each one thousand full time equivalent kindergarten through twelfth grade students.

(b) Five certificated instructional staff units for each average annual one thousand full time equivalent kindergarten through third grade students, excluding handicapped full time equivalent enrollment as calculated under section 505 of this act, and excluding full time equivalent enrollment otherwise recognized for certificated staff unit allocations in subsections (d) through (i) of this section. $61,324,000 of the appropriation provided in this section shall be used solely to increase the certificated instructional staff allocation from forty-seven to fifty-one certificated instructional staff units per one thousand full time equivalent kindergarten through third grade students beginning with the 1987-88 school year. These funds shall be considered levy reduction funds as defined in House Bill No. 455 or Substitute Senate Bill No. 5909. For all districts for which these funds are not designated as levy reduction funds, these funds are intended solely to increase instructional staff in grades kindergarten through third grade.

(c) For school districts with a minimum enrollment of 250 full time equivalent students, whose full time equivalent student enrollment count in a given month exceeds the first of the month full time equivalent enrollment count by 5 percent, an additional state allocation of 110 percent of the pro rata share that such district would have generated had such additional full time equivalent students been included in the normal enrollment count for that particular month.

(d) 0.92 certificated instructional staff units and 0.08 certificated administrative staff units for each seventeen and one-half full time equivalent students enrolled in a vocational education program approved by the superintendent of public instruction. However, for skill center programs, the ratio shall be 0.92 certificated instructional staff units and 0.08 certificated administrative staff units for each annual average 16.67 full time equivalent students enrolled in an approved vocational education program.

(e) For districts enrolling not more than twenty-five average annual full time equivalent students in kindergarten through grade eight, and for small school plants within any school district which enroll not more than twenty-five average annual full time equivalent kindergarten through eighth grade students and have been judged to be remote and necessary by the state board of education:

(i) For those enrolling no students in grades seven or eight, 1.76 certificated instructional staff units and 0.24 certificated administrative staff units for enrollment of not more than five students, plus one-twentieth of a certificated instructional staff unit for each additional student enrolled; and

(ii) For those enrolling students in either grades seven or eight, 1.68 certificated instructional staff units and 0.32 certificated administrative staff units for enrollment of not more than five students, plus one-tenth of a certificated instructional staff unit for each additional student enrolled.

(f) For districts enrolling more than twenty-five but not more than one hundred average annual full time equivalent students in kindergarten through grade eight, and for small school plants within any school district which enroll more than twenty-five average annual full time equivalent kindergarten through eighth grade students and have been judged to be remote and necessary by the state board of education, in the following cases:

(i) For districts and small school plants with enrollments of up to sixty annual average full time equivalent students in kindergarten through grade six, 2.76 certificated instructional staff units and 0.24 certificated administrative staff units;

(ii) For districts and small school plants with enrollments of up to twenty annual average full time equivalent students in grades seven and eight, 0.92 certificated instructional staff units and 0.08 certificated administrative staff units.

(g) For each nonhigh school district having an enrollment of more than seventy annual average full time equivalent students and less than one hundred eighty students, operating a grades K-8 program or a grades 1-8 program, an additional one-half of a certificated instructional staff unit.

(h) For each nonhigh school district having an enrollment of more than fifty annual average full time equivalent students and less than one hundred eighty students, operating a grades K-6 program or a grades 1-6 program, an additional one-half of a certificated instructional staff unit.

(i) For districts that operate no more than two high schools with enrollments of not more than three hundred average annual full time equivalent students:

(i) For each such high school, nine certificated instructional staff units and one-half of a certificated administrative staff unit for the first sixty annual average full time equivalent students;

(ii) For enrollments in each such high school above sixty annual average full time equivalent students, additional certificated staff units based upon a ratio of 0.8732 certificated instructional staff units and 0.1268 certificated administrative staff units per forty-three and one-half average annual full time equivalent students.

(3) Allocations for classified salaries for the 1987-88 and 1988-89 school years shall be calculated by multiplying each district's average basic education classified salary allocation as determined under section 504(2)(a) of this act by the district's formula-generated classified staff units determined as follows:

(a) One classified staff unit per each three certificated staff units allocated under subsections (2)(a) (i) and (ii), and (d) through (h) of this section.

(b) One classified staff unit for each sixty full time equivalent vocational students enrolled.

(c) For each nonhigh school district with an enrollment of more than fifty annual average full time equivalent students and less than one hundred eighty students, an additional one-half of a classified staff unit.

(4) Fringe benefit allocations shall be calculated at a rate of 19.4 percent in the 1987-88 school year and 19.53 percent in the 1988-89 school year of certificated salary allocations provided under subsection (2) of this section, and a rate of 17.00 percent in the 1987-88 school year and 17.12 percent in the 1988-89 school year of classified salary allocations provided under subsection (3) of this section.

(5) Insurance benefit allocations for the 1987-88 and 1988-89 school years shall be calculated at a rate of $167 per month for the number of certificated staff units determined in subsection (2) of this section and for the number of classified staff units determined in subsection (3) of this section multiplied by 1.152.

(6)(a) For nonemployee related costs with each certificated staff unit allocated under subsections (2) (a) (i) and (ii), (c), and (e) through (i) of this section, there shall be provided a maximum of $6,049 per certificated staff unit in the 1987-88 school year and a maximum of $6,267 per certificated staff unit in the 1988-89 school year.

(b) For nonemployee related costs with each certificated staff unit allocated under subsection (2)(d) of this section, there shall be provided a maximum of $11,526 per certificated staff unit in the 1987-88 school year and a maximum of $11,941 per certificated staff unit in the 1988-89 school year.

(7) Allocations for costs of substitutes for classroom teachers shall be distributed at a maximum rate of $275 per full time equivalent basic education classroom teacher during the 1987-88 and 1988-89 school years.

(8) The superintendent may distribute a maximum of $3,176,000 outside the basic education formula during fiscal years 1988 and 1989 as follows:

(a) For fire protection for school districts located in a fire protection district as now or hereafter established pursuant to chapter 52.04 RCW, a maximum of $342,000 may be expended in fiscal year 1988 and a maximum of $342,000 in fiscal year 1989.

(b) For summer vocational programs at skills centers, a maximum of $1,099,000 may be expended in fiscal year 1988 and a maximum of $1,121,000 may be expended in fiscal year 1989.

(c) A maximum of $272,000 may be expended for school district emergencies.

(9) For the purposes of section 1 of Senate Bill No. 5909 or House Bill No. 455, the increase per full time equivalent student in the state basic education appropriation provided under this section is 4.4 percent between the 1986-87 and 1987-88 school years, and 3.8 percent between the 1987-88 and 1988-89 school years.

(10) As a condition to the allocation of funds to school districts appropriated pursuant to this section, the superintendent shall require school districts to ensure that, during the respective school year, the district has complied with all rules adopted by the superintendent of public instruction to implement RCW 28A.58.095. For any violation of such rules, the superintendent shall withhold an amount equal to the level of violation when applied to the district's respective basic education allocation, unless or until such time as the school district comes into compliance with the rules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 504. FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—SCHOOL DISTRICT EMPLOYEE COMPENSATION

General Fund Appropriation . . . . . $ 147,437,000

For the purposes of section 503 of this act and this section, the following conditions and limitations apply:

(1)(a) "LEAP Document 10A" means the computer tabulation of 1986-87 derived base salaries for basic education certificated instructional staff, 1986-87 average salaries for basic education certificated administrative staff, and 1986-87 average salaries for basic education classified staff, as developed by the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee on April 6, 1987, at 10:00 hours.

(b) "LEAP Document 1" means the computer tabulation of staff mix factors characterizing certificated staff by educational experience and years of service, as developed by the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee on April 20, 1981, at 11:35 hours.

(c) "Incremental fringe benefits" means 18.77 percent in the 1987-88 school year and 18.89 percent in the 1988-89 school year for certificated staff, and 13.47 percent in the 1987-88 school year and 13.59 percent in the 1988-89 school year for classified staff, which percentages shall be the fringe benefit rates applied to the respective salary adjustments provided in this section.

(2) For the purposes of RCW 28A.58.095 and section 503(9) of this act, the following conditions and limitations apply:

(a) Effective September 1, 1987, each school district is authorized to grant salary increases that increase the district's basic education certificated instructional staff derived base salary to no more than the sum of: (i) The district's certificated instructional staff derived base salary as shown on LEAP Document 10A; and (ii) 3 percent of the state-wide certificated instructional staff derived base salary as shown on LEAP Document 10A.

(b) Effective September 1, 1988, each school district is authorized to grant salary increases that increase the district's basic education certificated instructional staff derived base salary to no more than the sum of: (i) The district's certificated instructional staff derived base salary as shown on LEAP Document 10A; (ii) 3 percent of the state-wide certificated instructional staff derived base salary as shown on LEAP Document 10A; and (iii) 3.09 percent of the state-wide certificated instructional staff derived base salary as shown on LEAP Document 10A.

(c) Effective September 1, 1987, each school district is authorized to grant salary increases that increase the district's basic education certificated administrative staff average salary to no more than the sum of: (i) The district's certificated administrative staff average salary as shown on LEAP Document 10A; and (ii) 3 percent of the state-wide certificated administrative staff average salary as shown on LEAP Document 10A.

(d) Effective September 1, 1988, each school district is authorized to grant salary increases that increase the district's basic education certificated administrative staff average salary to no more than the sum of: (i) The district's certificated administrative staff average salary as shown on LEAP Document 10A; (ii) 3 percent of the state-wide certificated administrative staff average salary as shown on LEAP Document 10A; and (iii) 3.09 percent of the state-wide certificated administrative staff average salary as shown on LEAP Document 10A.

(e) Effective September 1, 1987, each school district is authorized to grant salary increases that increase the district's basic education classified staff average salary to no more than the sum of: (i) The district's classified staff average salary as shown on LEAP Document 10A; and (ii) 3 percent of the state-wide classified staff average salary as shown on LEAP Document 10A.

(f) Effective September 1, 1988, each school district is authorized to grant salary increases that increase the district's basic education classified staff average salary to no more than the sum of: (i) The district's classified staff average salary as shown on LEAP Document 10A; (ii) 3 percent of the state-wide classified staff average salary as shown on LEAP Document 10A; and (iii) 3.09 percent of the state-wide classified staff average salary as shown on LEAP Document 10A.

(g) The maximum percentage salary increase in school district programs other than the basic education program shall not exceed the percentage increase authorized pursuant to this section for the district's basic education program.

(h) Insurance benefits are limited by this act to an average monthly rate of: (i) $167 per full time certificated instructional employee; (ii) $167 per full time certificated administrative employee; and (iii) $167 per classified unit. Classified units shall be calculated on the basis of 1,440 hours of work per year, with no individual counted for more than one unit. In accordance with RCW 28A.58.095, this subsection relates to insurance benefit increases granted in either the 1987-88 or 1988-89 school year which would raise the rate per full time equivalent unit over $167 per month.

(i) Increments granted by school districts to certificated instructional staff shall constitute salary increase in the year in which the increments are given by a district to the extent only that the aggregate of increments granted by a district exceeds the aggregate of increments pursuant to LEAP Document 1.

(j) School districts may elect an alternate measure of salary compliance for classified staff by comparing average salaries for the current school year to the imputed classified average salary that was or would have been paid the same staff in the same positions during the prior school year if the districts electing this alternative certify by board resolution that any amount in excess of state-funded salary levels in each year thereafter is solely a district obligation created through local district personnel policies and salary schedule placements, and that the effect shall neither incur nor imply any current or future funding obligation by the state.

(k) For the purposes of this subsection and implementation of RCW 28A.58.095, the following definitions apply:

(i) "Basic education" means those school district programs defined in the accounting manual for public schools in the state of Washington as 01 - Basic Education, 31 - Vocational Secondary, 94 - General Instructional Support, and 94 - General Support Service;

(ii) "Certificated administrative staff" means those certificated staff as defined in RCW 41.59.020(4);

(iii) "Certificated instructional staff" means all other certificated staff not included in RCW 41.59.020(4).

(3)(a) For the purposes of the appropriation in section 503 of this act, each district's average basic education certificated instructional salary allocation shall be the district's derived base salary as shown on LEAP Document 10A, multiplied by the district's prior year staff mix factor for basic education certificated instructional staff calculated using LEAP Document 1.

(b) For the purposes of the appropriation in section 503 of this act, each district's average basic education certificated administrative salary allocation and each district's average basic education classified salary allocation shall be the amounts shown on LEAP Document 10A.

(4)(a) $62,625,000 is provided, effective September 1, 1987, to increase funding for each basic education certificated instructional staff unit allocated under section 503(2) of this act by an amount equal to the district's prior year staff mix factor for basic education certificated instructional staff, determined using LEAP Document 1, multiplied by 3 percent of the state-wide average derived base salary shown on LEAP Document 10A for certificated instructional staff, and for incremental fringe benefits.

(b) $28,930,000 is provided, effective September 1, 1988, to increase funding for each basic education certificated instructional staff unit allocated for the 1988-89 school year under section 503(2) of this act by an amount equal to the district's prior year staff mix factor for basic education certificated instructional staff, determined using LEAP Document 1, multiplied by 3.09 percent of the state-wide average derived base salary shown on LEAP Document 10A for certificated instructional staff, and for incremental fringe benefits.

(c) $22,531,000 is provided, effective September 1, 1987, to increase funding for each basic education certificated administrative and classified staff unit allocated under section 503 (2) and (3) of this act by 3 percent of the respective state-wide average salary shown on LEAP Document 10A, and for incremental fringe benefits.

(d) $10,395,000 is provided, effective September 1, 1988, to increase funding for each basic education certificated administrative and classified staff unit allocated for the 1988-89 school year under section 503 (2) and (3) of this act by 3.09 percent of the respective state-wide average salary shown on LEAP Document 10A, and for incremental fringe benefits.

(5) A maximum of $8,609,000 is provided to implement salary and insurance benefit increases for each school year for state-supported school employees in the following categorical programs: Transitional bilingual instruction, learning assistance, education of highly capable students, vocational technical institutes, and pupil transportation. Moneys provided by this subsection include costs of incremental fringe benefits and shall be distributed by increasing allocation rates for each school year by the amounts specified:

(a) Transitional bilingual instruction: The rates specified in section 507 of this act shall be increased by $16.49 per pupil for the 1987-88 school year and by $33.02 per pupil for the 1988-89 school year.

(b) Learning assistance: The rates specified in section 508 of this act shall be increased by $13.40 per pupil for the 1987-88 school year and by $25.78 per pupil for the 1988-89 school year.

(c) Education of highly capable students: The rates specified in section 509 of this act shall be increased by $9.73 per pupil for the 1987-88 school year and by $19.52 per pupil for the 1988-89 school year.

(d) Vocational technical institutes: The rates for vocational programs specified in section 511 of this act shall be increased by $85.35 per full time equivalent student for the 1987-88 school year, and by $171.59 per full time equivalent student for the 1988-89 school year.

(e) Pupil transportation: The rates provided under section 514 of this act shall be increased by $0.66 per weighted pupil-mile for the 1987-88 school year, and by $1.32 per weighted pupil-mile for the 1988-89 school year.

(6) A maximum of $14,587,228 is provided for salary increases and incremental fringe benefits for state-supported certificated and classified staff allocations in the handicapped program and state-supported staff in institutional education programs and educational service districts. Such moneys shall be distributed to implement a maximum salary increase of 3 percent effective September 1, 1987, and an additional 3.09 percent salary increase effective September 1, 1988.

Total Appropriation .....	$	27,160,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $3,577,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for the remaining months of the 1986–87 school year.

(2) $10,097,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for the 1987–88 school year, distributed as follows:

(a) $4,129,000 is provided solely for programs in state institutions for the handicapped or emotionally disturbed. These moneys may be distributed for that school year at a maximum rate averaged over all of these programs of $10,296 per full time equivalent student.

(b) $2,979,000 is provided solely for programs in state institutions for delinquent youth. These moneys may be distributed for that school year at a maximum rate averaged over all of these programs of $5,407 per full time equivalent student.

(c) $370,000 is provided solely for programs in state group homes for delinquent youth. These moneys may be distributed for that school year at a maximum rate averaged over all of these programs of $3,494 per full time equivalent student.

(d) $564,000 is provided solely for juvenile parole learning center programs. These moneys may be distributed for that school year at a maximum rate averaged over all of these programs of $1,395 per full time equivalent student, and are in addition to moneys allocated for these students through the basic education formula established in section 503 of this act.

(e) $2,055,000 is provided solely for programs in county detention centers. These moneys may be distributed for that school year at a maximum rate averaged over all of these programs of $4,014 per full time equivalent student.

(3) Distribution of state funding for the 1988–89 school year shall be based upon the following overall limitations for that school year including expenditures anticipated for July and August of 1989:

(a) State funding for programs in state institutions for the handicapped or emotionally disturbed may be distributed at a maximum rate averaged over all of these programs of $10,298 per full time equivalent student and a total allocation of no more than $3,735,000 for that school year.

(b) State funding for programs in state institutions for delinquent youth may be distributed at a maximum rate averaged over all of these programs of $5,412 per full time equivalent student and a total allocation of no more than $2,896,000 for that school year.

(c) State funding for programs in state group homes for delinquent youth may be distributed in that school year at a maximum rate averaged over all of these programs of $3,504 per full time equivalent student and a total allocation of no more than $371,000 for that school year.

(d) State funding for juvenile parole learning center programs may be distributed at a maximum rate averaged over all of these programs of $1,387 per full time equivalent student and a total allocation of no more than $560,000 for that school year, excluding funds provided through the basic education formula established in section 503 of this act.

(e) State funding for programs in county detention centers may be distributed at a maximum rate averaged over all of these programs of $4,024 per full time equivalent student and a total allocation of no more than $2,060,000 for that school year.

(4) The superintendent of public instruction may distribute a maximum of $153,000 from the general fund—state appropriation to supplement moneys provided under subsections (1) through (3) of this section, for the purpose of addressing enrollment variations or other program needs.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 507. FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—FOR TRANSITIONAL BILINGUAL PROGRAMS

General Fund Appropriation .....	$	11,446,000
----------------------------------	----	------------

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $1,174,000 is provided solely for the remaining months of the 1986–87 school year.

(2) The superintendent shall distribute funds for the 1987–88 and 1988–89 school years at a rate for each year of $419 per eligible student.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 508. FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—FOR THE LEARNING ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

General Fund Appropriation .....	$	58,291,000
----------------------------------	----	------------

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $3,982,000 is provided solely for the remaining months of the 1986–87 school year.

(2) Funding for school district learning assistance programs serving kindergarten through grade nine shall be distributed during the 1987–88 and 1988–89 school years at a maximum rate of $442 per unit as calculated pursuant to this subsection. The number of units for each school district in each school year shall be the sum of: (a) The number of full time equivalent students enrolled in kindergarten through grade six in the district multiplied by the percentage of the district's students taking the fourth grade basic skills test who scored in the lowest quartile as compared to national norms, and then reduced by the number of students ages eleven and below in the district who are identified as specific learning disabled and are served through programs established pursuant to chapter 28A.13 RCW; and (b) the number of full time equivalent students enrolled in grades seven through nine in the district multiplied by the percentage of the district's students taking the eighth grade basic skills test who scored in the lowest quartile as compared to national norms, and then reduced by the number of students ages twelve through fourteen in the district who are identified as specific learning disabled and are served through programs established pursuant to chapter 28A.13 RCW. For the purposes of allocating funds for the 1987-88 school year, the superintendent shall use the most recent prior five-year average scores on the fourth grade test and the most recent prior three-year average scores on the eighth grade test. For the purposes of allocating funds for the 1988-89 school year, the superintendent shall use the most recent prior five-year average scores on the fourth grade test and the most recent prior four-year average scores on the eighth grade test.

(3) Formula enhancements are provided under this section for the 1987-88 school year which are not attributable to enrollment or workload changes, compensation increases, or inflationary adjustments. For the purposes of section 101 of House Bill No. 455 or Senate Bill No. 5909, an amount equal to $80 per unit determined under subsection (2) of this section for the 1987-88 school year shall be recognized as levy reduction funds. If neither bill is enacted by June 30, 1987, this subsection shall have no force or effect.

(4) If Second Substitute House Bill No. 728 is not enacted by June 30, 1987, $10,427,000 of the appropriation in this section shall lapse, and the rate under subsection (2) of this section shall be $346 per unit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 509. FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—FOR PROGRAMS FOR HIGHLY CAPABLE STUDENTS

General Fund Appropriation . . . . . $ 5,302,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $481,512 is provided solely for distribution to school districts for the remaining months of the 1986-87 school year.

(2) A maximum of $2,464,320 may be expended by school district programs for highly capable students during the 1987-88 school year, distributed at a maximum rate of $339 per student for up to one percent of each district's 1987-88 full time equivalent enrollment.

(3) A maximum of $2,591,784 may be expended in school district programs for highly capable students in the 1988-89 school year, at a maximum rate of $342 per student for up to one percent of each district's 1988-89 full time equivalent enrollment.

(4) A maximum of $340,000 is provided to contract for an approved gifted program to be conducted at Fort Worden state park.

(5) From the appropriation in this section, the superintendent of public instruction shall provide allocations to the University of Washington for tuition costs of needy students enrolled in the early entrance program or transition school for academically gifted children. For the purposes of this subsection, "needy students" means students under seventeen years of age who are enrolled in such programs and who meet financial need criteria which are equivalent to those established under RCW 28B.10.810. The University of Washington shall reduce charges for such students by the amounts received under this subsection.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 510. FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—FOR THE ENUMERATED PURPOSES

PART VI HIGHER EDUCATION

NEW SECTION. Sec. 601. The appropriations in sections 602 through 608 of this act are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) For the purposes of this section and sections 602 through 608 of this act, "institutions of higher education" means the institutions receiving appropriations pursuant to sections 602 through 608 of this act.

(2) Student Quality Standard: During the 1987-89 fiscal biennium, each institution of higher education shall not expend less than the average biennial amount listed in this subsection per full time equivalent student. The amounts include total operating expenses for the institution, less expenditures for plant maintenance and operations, with the exception of Washington State University, where cooperative extension and agriculture research are also excluded from the per student expenditures. This expenditure per student requirement may vary by two percent if the director of financial management certifies that the failure to meet the minimum expenditures per student is attributable to circumstances beyond the control of the institution.

University of Washington .....	$	7,926
Washington State University .....	$	6,586
Central Washington University, Eastern Washington University, The Evergreen State College, and Western Washington University:
The first 3000 FTE Students .....	$	5,985
Each Student over 3000 FTE .....	$	3,960
State Board for Community College Education .....	$	2,837

(3) Each institution of higher education shall report to the 1989 regular session of the legislature the following information:

(a) The number of minority students attending the institution or the community college system and the measures taken by such institution or system during the 1987-89 fiscal biennium to increase the number of minority students and reduce the drop-out rates for minority and other students;

(b) The number of women employed by the institution or system and the actions taken by the institution or system to increase the number of women in managerial and senior-level positions;

(c) Actions taken by the institution or community college system to improve the quality of undergraduate and graduate education programs;

(d) Actions taken by the institution or system to expand or improve educational services off the campus and the process for evaluating the need for educational services in locations away from the campus;

(e) The process for evaluating and accepting students for admission into the institution or the system;

(f) Any process developed by the institution or the system for evaluating student performance;

(g) Program improvement, expansion, and new program initiatives that resulted from the increased level of state financial support provided in this act;

(h) Actions taken by the institution or system to operate programs jointly with another public or private institution;

(i) How the faculty and exempt salary increase funds were distributed among the faculty and staff at each institution and the results of the increased salary levels on faculty and staff recruitment and retention; and

(j) The annual faculty turnover rates experienced by the institution or the system.

The state board for community college education shall collect and report the information required of the community college system under this subsection.

(4) Central Washington University, Eastern Washington University, and Western Washington University shall each collect summer term tuition fees at the same rates established for the regular academic quarter and shall transfer the fees to the state treasury in accordance with RCW 28B.15.031.

(5) The appropriations in sections 602 through 608 of this act provide the following amounts to identify and recruit minority students from junior high and high schools in the state, to foster minority student interest in a college education, to provide support services such as counseling and tutorial assistance, and to improve the retention of such students in higher education through and beyond the baccalaureate level. The amounts are to be administered by the lead administrative minority organization at each of the four-year public institutions. At least $147,000 of the amount appropriated to the University of Washington shall go to increase the efforts of the math, engineering, and science achievement program.

University of Washington	$	522,000
Washington State University	$	225,000
Central Washington University	$	113,000
Eastern Washington University	$	150,000
The Evergreen State College	$	75,000
Western Washington University	$	150,000

(6) The following are the maximum amounts that may be expended at each institution of higher education for continuing the salary increases authorized by section 604 of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5351 from July 1, 1987 through August 31, 1987:

University of Washington	$	492,000
Washington State University	$	245,000
Central Washington University	$	27,000
Eastern Washington University	$	44,000
The Evergreen State College	$	14,000
Western Washington University	$	46,000
State Board for Community College Education	$	354,000

Expenditures under this subsection shall be consistent with all terms and conditions contained in section 604 of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5351, which are hereby incorporated by reference.

(7) The following are maximum amounts which each institution may spend for faculty and exempt staff salary increases and are subject to all the limitations contained in this section. For the purpose of allocating these funds, "faculty" includes all instructional and research faculty, academic deans, and departmental chairpersons. "Exempt staff" includes presidents, chancellors, vice-presidents, administrative deans and professional personnel, librarians and counselors who are exempt from the classified service system, teaching and research assistants, and medical residents.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 714. The appropriations contained in this act are maximum expenditure authorizations. Pursuant to RCW 43.88.037, moneys disbursed from the treasury on the basis of a formalized loan agreement with another governmental entity shall be treated as a loan and are to be recorded as loans receivable and not as expenditures for accounting purposes. To the extent that moneys are disbursed on a loan basis, the corresponding appropriation shall be reduced by the amount of loan moneys disbursed from the treasury during the 1987-89 biennium.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 715. Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 82, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess., the house of representatives, the senate, and the permanent statutory committees shall pay expenses quarterly to the department of general administration facilities and services revolving fund for services rendered by the department for operations, maintenance, and supplies relating to buildings, structures, and facilities utilized by the legislature for the biennium beginning July 1, 1987.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 716. Whenever allocations are made from the governor's emergency fund appropriation to an agency which is financed in whole or in part by other than general fund moneys, the director of financial management may direct the repayment of such allocated amount to the general fund from any balance in the fund or funds which finance the agency. No appropriation shall be necessary to effect such repayment.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 717. In addition to the amounts appropriated in this act for revenue for distribution, bond retirement and interest including ongoing bond registration and transfer charges, transfers, interest on registered warrants, and certificates of indebtedness, there is also appropriated such further amounts as may be required or available for these purposes under any statutory formula or under any proper bond covenant made in accordance with law.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 718. In addition to such other appropriations as are made by this act, there is hereby appropriated to the state finance committee from legally available bond proceeds in the respective construction or building funds and accounts such amounts as are necessary to pay the expenses incurred in the issuance and sale of the subject bonds.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 719. Amounts received by an agency as reimbursements pursuant to RCW 39.34.130 shall be considered as returned loans of materials supplied or services rendered. Such amounts may be expended as a part of the original appropriation of the fund to which it belongs, without further or additional appropriation, subject to conditions and procedures prescribed by the director of financial management, which shall provide for determination of full costs, disclosure of such reimbursements in the governor's budget, maximum interagency usage of data processing equipment and services, and such restrictions as will promote more economical operations of state government without incurring continuing costs beyond those reimbursed.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 720. The appropriations of moneys and the designation of funds and accounts by this and other acts of the 1987 legislature shall be construed in a manner consistent with legislation enacted by the 1985 and 1987 legislatures to conform state funds and accounts with generally accepted accounting principles.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 721. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 722. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1987."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator McDermott, we've been making a number of technical changes, apparently, by computer. I don't know who made them, or where, or what. Somebody had their thumb on something instead of the middle finger or something, and then we cut $3,600,000 off of the daycare by computer, too. I'm beginning to wonder about those computers and from what you are telling me, maybe we better take another day or two and really take a look at the computers and put a little oil on them and see if we can come up with the right figures. I had a lot of confidence going into this. I'm losing it. I certainly don't want to be cutting daycare or cutting chore services. If it's a computer mistake, that's one thing, but if we are going to take it away from somebody who needs it, that's another thing. What I am not sure of, how much can you guarantee me that the computer is correct? Do you know why these mistakes are made or who's making them or what? I know you are playing around with the Republicans, but they are not dumb. It's the computers that are dumb."

Senator McDermott: "Senator Rasmussen, you may know the phrase, 'garbage in, garbage out', is the computer language for that. The fact is that when you rely on computers to make your decisions all kinds of bad things happen. The changes we have made have all been made by staff who have looked at the program, who looked at the numbers and are very sure they are doing what they say they are doing. If you rely on computers, who knows how far you might get off."

Senator Rasmussen: "I am glad you said that Senator McDermott. I have one or two mistakes that I am going to work on later."

Further debate ensued.

Senator McDermott demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendments by Senator McDermott to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator McDermott failed and the amendments to the committee amendment were not adopted by the following vote: Nays, 48; excused, 1.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 48.

Excused: Senator Owen - 1.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following amendment to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment was adopted:

On page 42, line 7, after "(4)" delete "$4,400,000" and insert "$2,400,000"

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following amendments to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment were considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 44, line 4, delete "Liquor Revolving Fund Appropriation ... $406,000"

On page 44, line 5, after "Appropriation..." delete "$19,347,000" and insert "$18,941,000"

On page 44, line 10, after "(2)" delete "The liquor revolving fund appropriation is provided" and insert "The amount received through interagency reimbursement from the liquor control board for the wine commission shall be expanded"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 527 was deferred.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 823 and the pending amendments by Senator Pullen on page 4, lines 25, 26 and 33, on page 5, line 5, on page 11, lines 8 and 15, on page 13, lines 13 and 20, on page 15, lines 8 and 15, on page 19, lines 6 and 13 and on page 23, lines 21 and 28, deferred earlier today.

Debate on the Pullen amendments ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendments by Senator Pullen on page 4, lines 25, 26 and 33, on page 5, line 5, on page 11, lines 8 and 15, on page 13, lines 13 and 20, on page 15, lines 8 and 15, on page 19, lines 6 and 13 and on page 23, lines 21 and 28.

The motion by Senator Pullen carried and the amendments were adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Pullen, the following amendments were considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 5, line 16, after "country" insert "identified as"

On page 7, line 15, after "section," insert "The board of regents shall seek to identify other countries having apartheid policies and shall cease investments and deposits as soon as practicable after such identification."

On page 19, line 19, after "section," insert "The board shall seek to identify other countries having apartheid policies and shall cease investments and deposits as soon as practicable after such identifications."

On page 21, line 26, after "(a)" strike all material down through "(b)" on line 28

On page 21, line 29, after "or" strike "(c)" and insert "(b)"

On page 23, line 34, after "section," insert "The treasurer shall seek to identify other countries having apartheid policies and shall cease investments and deposits as soon as practicable after such identification."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 823, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senator Patterson was excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 823, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 823, as amended by the Senate, and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 23; nays, 23; absent, 1; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Bottiger, Conner, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Johnson, Kreidler, McDermott, Peterson, Pullen, Rinehart, Smitherman, Talmadge, Tanner, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 23.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Deccio, Hayner, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Rasmussen, Saling, Sellar, Stratton, von Reichbauer, West, Zimmerman - 23.

Absent: Senator Newhouse - 1.

Excused: Senators Owen, Patterson - 2.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 823, as amended by the Senate, having failed to receive the constitutional majority, was declared lost.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 6, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5120 with the following amendment:

On page 2, line 15 after "checks" strike ", credit cards".

and the bill and the amendment are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5120 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 13, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5172 with the following amendments:

On page 4, after line 3, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 7.68 RCW to read as follows:

If a defendant has paid restitution pursuant to court order under RCW 9.92.060, 9.95.210, or 9A.20.030 and the victim entitled to restitution cannot be found or has died, the clerk of the court shall deposit with the county treasurer the amount of restitution unable to be paid to the victim. The county treasurer shall monthly transmit the money to the state treasurer for deposit as provided in RCW 43.08.250."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "13.40.190;" insert "adding a new section to chapter 7.68 RCW;"

On page 7, after line 16, insert the following:

"Sec. 5. Section 2, chapter 122, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 11, chapter 443, Laws of 1985 and RCW 7.68.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The following words and phrases as used in this chapter have the meanings set forth in this section unless the context otherwise requires.

(1) "Department" means the department of labor and industries.

(2) "Criminal act" means an act committed or attempted in this state which is punishable as a felony or gross misdemeanor under the laws of this state, except as follows:

(a) The operation of a motor vehicle, motorcycle, train, boat, or aircraft in violation of law does not constitute a "criminal act" unless:

(i) The injury or death was intentionally inflicted;

(ii) The operation thereof was part of the commission of another non-vehicular criminal act as defined in this section; or

(iii) The death or injury was the result of the operation of a motor vehicle after July 24, 1983, and a ((conviction)) preponderance of the evidence establishes that the death or injury was the result of vehicular homicide under RCW 46.61.520 or vehicular assault under RCW 46.61.522((~~has been obtained~~)):

(b) Neither an acquittal in a criminal prosecution nor the absence of any such prosecution is admissible in any claim or proceeding under this chapter as evidence of the noncriminal character of the acts giving rise to such claim or proceeding, except as provided for in subsection (2)(a)(iii) of this section;

(c) Evidence of a criminal conviction arising from acts which are the basis for a claim or proceeding under this chapter is admissible in such claim or proceeding for the limited purpose of proving the criminal character of the acts; and

(d) Acts which, but for the insanity or mental irresponsibility of the perpetrator, would constitute criminal conduct are deemed to be criminal conduct within the meaning of this chapter.

(3) "Victim" means a person who suffers bodily injury or death as a proximate result of a criminal act of another person, the victim's own good faith and reasonable effort to prevent a criminal act, or his good faith effort to apprehend a person reasonably suspected of engaging in a criminal act. For the purposes of receiving benefits pursuant to this chapter, "victim" is interchangeable with "employee" or "workman" as defined in chapter 51.08 RCW as now or hereafter amended.

(4) "Child," "accredited school," "dependent," "beneficiary," "average monthly wage," "director," "injury," "invalid," "permanent partial disability," and "permanent total disability" have the meanings assigned to them in chapter 51.08 RCW as now or hereafter amended.

(5) "Gainfully employed" means engaging on a regular and continuous basis in a lawful activity from which a person derives a livelihood.

(6) "Private insurance" means any source of recompense provided by contract available as a result of the claimed injury or death at the time of such injury or death, or which becomes available any time thereafter.

(7) "Public insurance" means any source of recompense provided by statute, state or federal, available as a result of the claimed injury or death at the time of such injury or death, or which becomes available any time thereafter.

Sec. 6. Section 7, chapter 122, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 15, chapter 443, Laws of 1985 and RCW 7.68.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The right to benefits under this chapter and the amount thereof will be governed insofar as is applicable by the provisions contained in chapter 51.32 RCW as now or hereafter amended except as provided in this section:

(1) The provisions contained in RCW 51.32.015, 51.32.030, 51.32.072, 51.32.073, 51.32.180, 51.32.190, and 51.32.200 as now or hereafter amended are not applicable to this chapter.

(2) Each victim injured as a result of a criminal act, including criminal acts committed between July 1, 1981, and January 1, 1983, or his family or dependents in case of death of the victim, are entitled to benefits in accordance with this chapter, and the rights, duties, responsibilities, limitations, and procedures applicable to a workman as contained in RCW 51.32.010 as now or hereafter amended are applicable to this chapter.

(3) The limitations contained in RCW 51.32.020 as now or hereafter amended are applicable to claims under this chapter. In addition thereto, no person or spouse, child, or dependent of such person is entitled to benefits under this chapter when the injury for which benefits are sought, was:

(a) The result of consent, provocation, or incitement by the victim;

(b) Sustained while the crime victim was engaged in the attempt to commit, or the commission of, a felony; or

(c) Sustained while the victim was confined in any county or city jail, federal jail or prison or in any other federal institution, or any state correctional institution maintained and operated by the department of social and health services or the department of corrections, prior to release from lawful custody; or confined or living in any other institution maintained and operated by the department of social and health services or the department of corrections.

(4) The benefits established upon the death of a workman and contained in RCW 51.32.050 as now or hereafter amended shall be the benefits obtainable under this chapter and provisions relating to payment contained in that section shall equally apply under this chapter: PROVIDED, That benefits for burial expenses shall not exceed the maximum cost used by the department of social and health services for the funeral and burial of a deceased indigent person under chapter 74.08 RCW in any claim: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the criminal act results in the death of a victim who was not gainfully employed at the time of the criminal act, and who was not so employed for at least three consecutive months of the twelve months immediately preceding the criminal act:

(a) Benefits payable to an eligible surviving spouse, where there are no children of the victim at the time of the criminal act who have survived him or where such spouse has legal custody of all of his children, shall be limited to burial expenses and a lump sum payment of seven thousand five hundred dollars without reference to number of children, if any;

(b) Where any such spouse has legal custody of one or more but not all of such children, then such burial expenses shall be paid, and such spouse shall receive a lump sum payment of three thousand seven hundred fifty dollars and any such child or children not in the legal custody of such spouse shall receive a lump sum of three thousand seven hundred fifty dollars to be divided equally among such child or children;

(c) If any such spouse does not have legal custody of any of the children, the burial expenses shall be paid and the spouse shall receive a lump sum payment of up to three thousand seven hundred fifty dollars and any such child or children not in the legal custody of the spouse shall receive a lump sum payment of up to three thousand seven hundred fifty dollars to be divided equally among the child or children;

(d) If no such spouse survives, then such burial expenses shall be paid, and each surviving child of the victim at the time of the criminal act shall receive a lump sum payment of three thousand seven hundred fifty dollars up to a total of two such children and where there are more than two such children the sum of seven thousand five hundred dollars shall be divided equally among such children.

No other benefits may be paid or payable under these circumstances.

(5) The benefits established in RCW 51.32.060 as now or hereafter amended for permanent total disability proximately caused by the criminal act shall be the benefits obtainable under this chapter, and provisions relating to payment contained in that section apply under this chapter: PROVIDED, That if a victim becomes permanently and totally disabled as a proximate result of the criminal act and was not gainfully employed at the time of the criminal act, the victim shall receive monthly during the period of the disability the following percentages, where applicable, of the average monthly wage determined as of the date of the criminal act pursuant to RCW 51.08.018 as now or hereafter amended:

(a) If married at the time of the criminal act, twenty-nine percent of the average monthly wage.

(b) If married with one child at the time of the criminal act, thirty-four percent of the average monthly wage.

(c) If married with two children at the time of the criminal act, thirty-eight percent of the average monthly wage.

(d) If married with three children at the time of the criminal act, forty-one percent of the average monthly wage.

(e) If married with four children at the time of the criminal act, forty-four percent of the average monthly wage.

(f) If married with five or more children at the time of the criminal act, forty-seven percent of the average monthly wage.

(g) If unmarried at the time of the criminal act, twenty-five percent of the average monthly wage.

(h) If unmarried with one child at the time of the criminal act, thirty percent of the average monthly wage.

(i) If unmarried with two children at the time of the criminal act, thirty-four percent of the average monthly wage.

(j) If unmarried with three children at the time of the criminal act, thirty-seven percent of the average monthly wage.

(k) If unmarried with four children at the time of the criminal act, forty percent of the average monthly wage.

(l) If unmarried with five or more children at the time of the criminal act, forty-three percent of the average monthly wage.

(6) The benefits established in RCW 51.32.080 as now or hereafter amended for permanent partial disability shall be the benefits obtainable under this chapter, and provisions relating to payment contained in that section equally apply under this chapter.

(7) The benefits established in RCW 51.32.090 as now or hereafter amended for temporary total disability shall be the benefits obtainable under this chapter, and provisions relating to payment contained in that section apply under this chapter: PROVIDED, That no person is eligible for temporary total disability benefits under this chapter if such person was not gainfully employed at the time of the criminal act, and was not so employed for at least three consecutive months of the twelve months immediately preceding the criminal act.

(8) The benefits established in RCW 51.32.095 as now or hereafter amended for continuation of benefits during vocational rehabilitation shall be benefits obtainable under this chapter, and provisions relating to payment contained in that section apply under this chapter: PROVIDED, That benefits shall not exceed five thousand dollars for any single injury.

(9) The provisions for lump sum payment of benefits upon death or permanent total disability as contained in RCW 51.32.130 as now or hereafter amended apply under this chapter.

(10) The provisions relating to payment of benefits to, for or on behalf of workmen contained in RCW 51.32.040, 51.32.055, 51.32.100, 51.32.110, 51.32.120, 51.32.135, 51.32.140, 51.32.150, 51.32.160, and 51.32.210 as now or hereafter amended are applicable to payment of benefits to, for or on behalf of victims under this chapter.

(11) No person or spouse, child, or dependent of such person is entitled to benefits under this chapter where the person making a claim for such benefits has refused to give reasonable cooperation to state or local law enforcement agencies in their efforts to apprehend and convict the perpetrator(s) of the criminal act which gave rise to the claim.

(12) In addition to other benefits provided under this chapter, victims of sexual assault are entitled to receive appropriate counseling. Fees for such counseling shall be determined by the department in accordance with RCW 51.04.030. Counseling services may include, if determined appropriate by the department, counseling of members of the victim's immediate family, other than the perpetrator of the assault.

(13) Except for medical benefits authorized under RCW 7.68.080, no more than ~~((fifteen))~~ ten thousand dollars ~~((may))~~ shall be granted ~~((as a result of any single injury or death))~~ for permanent partial disability as a result of a single injury, except that benefits may be granted for permanent total disability or death as a result of a single injury up to an amount not to exceed fifteen thousand dollars. An individual whose injury has been previously adjudicated as a permanent partial disability from a single injury and whose same injury is later readjudicated to a permanent total disability may receive additional benefits up to the sum total of fifteen thousand dollars inclusive of benefits previously received under this chapter for that injury.

(14) Notwithstanding other provisions of this chapter and Title 51 RCW, benefits payable for ~~((any one injury or death for loss of earnings, those benefits payable pursuant to subsection (7) of this section, or for loss of future earnings, those benefits payable pursuant to subsection (5) of this section, or for loss of support, those benefits payable pursuant to subsection (4))~~ total temporary disability under subsection (7) of this section, shall be limited to ten thousand dollars.

(15) Any person who is responsible for the victim's injuries, or who would otherwise be unjustly enriched as a result of the victim's injuries, shall not be a beneficiary under this chapter."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "9.94A.142," strike "and" and after "13.40.190" insert ", 7.68.020, and 7.68.070".

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 5172 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 13, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5978 with the following amendments:

On page 1, beginning on line 7, strike all material down through "section." on line 13 and insert:

(1) A person shall not sell, offer to sell, or use in this state any tributyltin-based marine antifouling paint or coating unless a method of using such paint or coating exists that does not result in the release of tributyltin or derivative of organotin into the marine waters of the state.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply to the sale or use in this state of a tributyltin-based marine antifouling paint or coating that is (a) used on aluminum hulls and (b) that has a steady release rate of not more than five micrograms per square centimeter per day.

(3) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply to the use in this state of tributyltin-based marine antifouling paint or coating that is (a) used on a ship that is more than twenty-five meters in length and (b) has a steady release rate of not more than five micrograms per square centimeter per day.

(4) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply to the sale, use, distribution, or possession of a tributyltin-based marine antifouling paint or coating if the paint or coating (a) is in a spray can containing sixteen ounces or less of paint or coating; (b) is commonly referred to as an outboard or lower drive unit paint; and (c) the steady release rate of not more than five micrograms per square centimeter per day.

(5) The department of agriculture shall enforce this section and shall adopt any rules necessary to implement this section.

(6) For purposes of this section "tributyltin-based marine antifouling paint or coating" means a paint, coating, or treatment that contains tributyltin or a triorganotin compound used as a substitute for tributyltin and that is intended to control fouling organisms in a marine environment."

On page 1, line 14, after "effect" strike "January 1, 1989" and insert "April 1, 1988"

On page 1, after line 15, insert a new section to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Section (1) of this act shall only remain in effect until the U.S. environmental protection agency promulgates standards for the use of tributyltin-based marine antifouling paint or coating."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "adding" strike "a" and after "new" strike "section" and insert "sections".

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Kreidler, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5978 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 13, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 6012 with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 6 strike "open and" and insert "~~((open and))~~"

On page 1, after line 12 insert:

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 198, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 267, Laws of 1985 and by section 9, chapter 303, Laws of 1985 and RCW 10.31.100 are each reenacted amended to read as follows:

A police officer having probable cause to believe that a person has committed or is committing a felony shall have the authority to arrest the person without a warrant. A police officer may arrest a person without a warrant for committing a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor only when the offense is committed in the presence of the officer, except as provided in subsections (1) through ~~((5))~~ (6) of this section.

(1) Any police officer having probable cause to believe that a person has committed or is committing a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor, involving physical harm or threats of harm to any person or property or the unlawful taking of property or involving the use or possession of cannabis shall have the authority to arrest the person.

(2) A police officer shall arrest and take into custody, pending release on bail, personal recognizance, or court order, a person without a warrant when the officer has probable cause to believe that:

(a) An order has been issued of which the person has knowledge under RCW 10.99.040(2), 10.99.050, 26.09.060, chapter 26.26 RCW, or chapter 26.50 RCW restraining the person and the person has violated the terms of the order restraining the person from acts or threats of violence or excluding the person from a residence; or

(b) The person is eighteen years or older and within the preceding four hours has assaulted that person's spouse, former spouse, or a person eighteen years or older with whom the person resides or has formerly resided and the officer believes: (i) A felonious assault has occurred; (ii) an assault has occurred which has resulted in bodily injury to the victim, whether the injury is observable by the responding officer or not; or (iii) that any physical action has occurred which was intended to cause another person reasonably to fear imminent serious bodily injury or death. Bodily injury means physical pain, illness, or an impairment of physical condition. When the officer has probable cause to believe that spouses, former spouses, or other persons who reside together or formerly resided together have assaulted each other, the officer is not required to arrest both persons. The officer shall arrest the person whom the officer believes to be the primary physical aggressor. In making this determination, the officer shall make every reasonable effort to consider: (i) The intent to protect victims of domestic violence under RCW 10.99.010; (ii) the comparative extent of injuries inflicted or serious threats creating fear of physical injury; and (iii) the history of domestic violence between the persons involved.

(3) Any police officer having probable cause to believe that a person has committed or is committing a violation of any of the following traffic laws shall have the authority to arrest the person:

(a) RCW 46.52.010, relating to duty on striking an unattended car or other property;

(b) RCW 46.52.020, relating to duty in case of injury to or death of a person or damage to an attended vehicle;

(c) RCW 46.61.500 or 46.61.530, relating to reckless driving or racing of vehicles;

(d) RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504, relating to persons under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs;

(e) RCW 46.20.342, relating to driving a motor vehicle while operator's license is suspended or revoked;

(f) RCW 46.61.525, relating to operating a motor vehicle in a negligent manner.

(4) A law enforcement officer investigating at the scene of a motor vehicle accident may arrest the driver of a motor vehicle involved in the accident if the officer has probable cause to believe that the driver has committed in connection with the accident a violation of any traffic law or regulation.

(5) Any police officer having probable cause to believe that a person has committed or is committing a violation of RCW 88.02.095 shall have the authority to arrest the person.

(6) Any police officer having probable cause to believe that a person has committed or is committing any act of public indecency, as defined in RCW 9A.88.010, may arrest the person.

(7) Except as specifically provided in subsections (2), (3), and (4) of this section, nothing in this section extends or otherwise affects the powers of arrest prescribed in Title 46 RCW.

~~((7))~~ (8) No police officer may be held criminally or civilly liable for making an arrest pursuant to RCW 10.31.100(2) if the police officer acts in good faith and without malice,

and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 9, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5097 with the following amendments:

On page 7 line 10 after "month," insert "The surcharge collected by the telecommunications companies shall not be construed as gross income or gross receipts for purposes of state, county or municipal public utility taxes."

On page 8, line 12 after "expire" strike "December 31, 1989" and insert "June 30, 1990."

On page 8, after line 12, insert the following:

"Sec. 13, Section 2, chapter 277, Laws of 1986 and RCW 80.36.390 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, "telephone solicitation" means the unsolicited initiation of a telephone call by a commercial or nonprofit company or organization to a residential telephone customer and conversation for the purpose of encouraging a person to purchase property.

goods, or services or soliciting donations of money, property, goods, or services. "Telephone solicitation" does not include:

(a) Calls made in response to a request or inquiry by the called party. This includes calls regarding an item that has been purchased by the called party from the company or organization during a period not longer than twelve months prior to the telephone contact;

(b) Calls made by a not-for-profit organization to its own list of bona fide or active members of the organization;

(c) Calls limited to polling or soliciting the expression of ideas, opinions, or votes; or

(d) Business-to-business contacts.

For purposes of this section, each individual real estate agent or insurance agent who maintains a separate list from other individual real estate or insurance agents shall be treated as a company or organization. For purposes of this section, an organization as defined in RCW 29.01.090 or 29.01.100 and organized pursuant to RCW 29.42.010 shall not be considered a commercial or nonprofit company or organization.

(2) A person making a telephone solicitation must identify him or herself and the company or organization on whose behalf the solicitation is being made and the purpose of the call within the first thirty seconds of the telephone call.

(3) If, at any time during the telephone contact, the called party states or indicates that he or she does not wish to be called again by the company or organization or wants to have his or her name and individual telephone number removed from the telephone lists used by the company or organization making the telephone solicitation, then:

(a) The company or organization shall not make any additional telephone solicitation of the called party at that telephone number within a period of at least one year; and

(b) The company or organization shall not sell or give the called party's name and telephone number to another company or organization: PROVIDED, That the company or organization may return the list, including the called party's name and telephone number, to the company or organization from which it received the list.

(4) A violation of subsection (2) or (3) of this section is punishable by a fine of up to one thousand dollars for each violation.

(5) The attorney general may bring actions to enforce compliance with this section. For the first violation by any company or organization of this section, the attorney general shall notify the company with a letter of warning that the section has been violated.

(6) A person aggrieved by ((a)) repeated violations of this section may bring a civil action in superior court to enjoin future violations, to recover damages, or both. The court shall award damages of at least one hundred dollars for each individual violation of this section. If the aggrieved person prevails in a civil action under this subsection, the court shall award the aggrieved person reasonable attorneys' fees and cost of the suit.

(7) The utilities and transportation commission shall by rule ensure that telecommunications companies inform their residential customers of the provisions of this section. The notification may be made by (a) annual inserts in the billing statements mailed to residential customers, or (b) conspicuous publication of the notice in the consumer information pages of local telephone directories."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "commission;" insert "amending RCW 80.36.390;"

and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 9, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5113 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 48.19 RCW to read as follows:

Due consideration in making rates for motor vehicle insurance shall be given to:

(1) Any anticipated change in losses that may be attributable to the use of seat belts, child restraints, and other lifesaving devices. An exhibit detailing these changes and any credits or discounts resulting from any such changes shall be included in each filing pertaining to private passenger automobile (or motor vehicle) insurance.

(2) Any anticipated change in losses that may be attributable to the use of lights and lighting devices that have been proven effective in increasing the visibility of motor vehicles during daytime or in poor visibility conditions and to the use of rear stop lights that have been proven effective in reducing rear-end collisions. An exhibit detailing these losses and any credits or discounts resulting from any such changes shall be included in each filing pertaining to private passenger automobile (or motor vehicle) insurance."

and the bill and the amendment are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5113, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 9, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5123 with the following amendments:

On page 1, after line 3, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 47.36 RCW to read as follows:

Regional shopping center directional signs shall be erected and maintained on state highway right of way if they meet each of the following criteria:

(1) There shall be at least five hundred thousand square feet of retail floor space available for lease at the regional shopping center;

(2) The regional shopping center shall contain at least three major department stores that are owned by a national or regional retail chain organization;

(3) The shopping center shall be located within one mile of the roadway;

(4) The center shall generate at least nine thousand daily one-way vehicle trips to the center;

(5) There is sufficient space available for installation of the directional sign as specified in the Manual On Uniform Traffic Control Devices;

(6) Supplemental follow-through directional signing is required at key decision points to direct motorists to the shopping center if it is not clearly visible from the point of exit from the main traveled way.

The department shall collect from the regional shopping center a reasonable fee based upon the cost of erection and maintenance of the directional sign."

Renumber the sections following consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

On line 1 of the title, after "control:" strike "and"

On line 2 of the title, after "47.42.047" and before the period, insert "; and adding a new section to chapter 47.36 RCW"

On page 4, after line 3, insert the following:

"Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 80, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 114, Laws of 1986 and RCW 47.42.046 are each amended to read as follows:

The department is authorized to erect and maintain specific information panels within the right of way of the interstate highway system to give the traveling public specific information as to gas, food, or lodging available on a crossroad at or near an interchange. Specific information panels shall include the words "GAS," "FOOD," or "LODGING" and directional information and may contain one or more individual business signs maintained on the panel. Specific information panels are authorized within the corporate limits of cities and towns and areas zoned for commercial or industrial uses at locations where there is adequate distance between interchanges to ensure compliance with the provisions of Title 23 C.F.R. sec. 655.307(a). The erection and maintenance of specific information panels shall conform to the national standards promulgated by the United States secretary of transportation pursuant to sections 131 and 315 of Title 23, United States Code and rules adopted by the state department of transportation. A motorist service business located within one mile of a state highway shall not be permitted to display its name, brand, or trademark on a specific information panel unless its owner has first entered into an agreement with the department limiting the height of its on-premise signs at the site of its service installation to not more than fifteen feet higher than the roof of its main building. The department shall charge reasonable fees for the display of individual business signs to defray the costs of their installation and maintenance. The restriction for on-premise signs shall not apply if the sign is not visible from the highway. The department may, on a case-by-case basis, waive the height restriction when an on-premise sign is visible from the rural interstate system."

Renumber the section following consecutively.

On page 4, line 34, after "highway," insert "The department may, on a case-by-case basis, waive the height restriction when an on-premise sign is visible from the rural primary system and scenic system."

On line 2 of the title, after "47.42.020" insert ", 47.42.046,"

and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Hansen moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5123.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Hansen, are they going to establish by rule and regulation, so that we would have some uniformity in the application of the law? I have no objection to the law if there is a requirement that they establish--so that someone couldn't say, 'well, you know so and so on the Highway Commission and you got your sign raised and I didn't.' That's what I am concerned with."

Senator Hansen: "Senator Rasmussen, the reason they put that case to case basis in there, is that some signs--depending on the contour of the road and the sign--it gives them all an equal chance to compete. You can be ten feet above your building on the location, if your road is up here and the sign is down here. All it's saying is that it's on a case to case basis and they set the criteria that all of the signs will depend on the location--how high that sign can go."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you. We are not going to lose any federal funds then?"

Senator Hansen: "No, we're not going to lose any federal funds."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Hansen that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5123.

The motion by Senator Hansen carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5123.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5123, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5123, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 2; absent, 1; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Smitherman, Stratton, Tanner, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 43.

Voting nay: Senators Bluechel, Talmadge - 2.

Absent: Senator McDermott - 1.

Excused: Senators Kiskaddon, Pullen, Sellar - 3.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5123, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 13, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5143 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1, Section 31, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 7, chapter 276, Laws of 1986 and by section 25, chapter 299, Laws of 1986 and RCW 42.17.310 are each re-enacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) The following are exempt from public inspection and copying:

(a) Personal information in any files maintained for students in public schools, patients or clients of public institutions or public health agencies, welfare recipients, prisoners, probationers, or parolees.

(b) Personal information in files maintained for employees, appointees, or elected officials of any public agency to the extent that disclosure would violate their right to privacy.

(c) Information required of any taxpayer in connection with the assessment or collection of any tax if the disclosure of the information to other persons would (i) be prohibited to such persons by RCW 82.32.330 or (ii) violate the taxpayer's right to privacy or result in unfair competitive disadvantage to the taxpayer.

(d) Specific intelligence information and specific investigative records compiled by investigative, law enforcement, and penology agencies, and state agencies vested with the responsibility to discipline members of any profession, the nondisclosure of which is essential to effective law enforcement or for the protection of any person's right to privacy.

(e) Information revealing the identity of persons who file complaints with investigative, law enforcement, or penology agencies, other than the public disclosure commission, if disclosure would endanger any person's life, physical safety, or property: PROVIDED, That if at the time the complaint is filed the complainant indicates a desire for disclosure or nondisclosure, such desire shall govern: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That all complaints filed with the public disclosure commission about any elected official or candidate for public office must be made in writing and signed by the complainant under oath.

(f) Test questions, scoring keys, and other examination data used to administer a license, employment, or academic examination.

(g) Except as provided by chapter 8.26 RCW, the contents of real estate appraisals, made for or by any agency relative to the acquisition or sale of property, until the project or prospective sale is abandoned or until such time as all of the property has been acquired or the property to which the sale appraisal relates is sold, but in no event shall disclosure be denied for more than three years after the appraisal.

(h) Valuable formulae, designs, drawings, and research data obtained by any agency within five years of the request for disclosure when disclosure would produce private gain and public loss.

(i) Preliminary drafts, notes, recommendations, and intra-agency memorandums in which opinions are expressed or policies formulated or recommended except that a specific record shall not be exempt when publicly cited by an agency in connection with any agency action.

(j) Records which are relevant to a controversy to which an agency is a party but which records would not be available to another party under the rules of pretrial discovery for causes pending in the superior courts.

(k) Records, maps, or other information identifying the location of archaeological sites in order to avoid the looting or depredation of such sites.

(l) Any library record, the primary purpose of which is to maintain control of library materials, or to gain access to information, which discloses or could be used to disclose the identity of a library user.

(m) Financial information supplied by or on behalf of a person, firm, or corporation for the purpose of qualifying to submit a bid or proposal for (a) a ferry system construction or repair contract as required by RCW 47.60.680 through 47.60.750 or (b) highway construction or improvement as required by RCW 47.28.070.

(n) Railroad company contracts filed with the utilities and transportation commission under RCW 81.34.070, except that the summaries of the contracts are open to public inspection and copying as otherwise provided by this chapter.

(o) Financial and commercial information and records supplied by private persons pertaining to export services provided pursuant to chapter 53.31 RCW.

(p) Financial disclosures filed by private vocational schools under chapter 28C.10 RCW.

(q) Except as provided under section 2 of this 1987 act, all applications for public employment, including the names of applicants, resumes, and other related materials submitted with respect to an applicant.

(r) The residential addresses and residential telephone numbers of employees or volunteers of a public agency which are held by the agency in personnel records, employment or volunteer rosters, or mailing lists of employees or volunteers.

(s) The residential addresses and residential telephone numbers of the customers of a public utility contained in the records or lists held by the public utility of which they are customers.

(2) Except for information described in subsection (1)(c)(i) of this section and confidential income data exempted from public inspection pursuant to RCW 84.40.020, the exemptions of this section are inapplicable to the extent that information, the disclosure of which would violate personal privacy or vital governmental interests, can be deleted from the specific records sought. No exemption may be construed to permit the nondisclosure of statistical information not descriptive of any readily identifiable person or persons.

(3) Inspection or copying of any specific records exempt under the provisions of this section may be permitted if the superior court in the county in which the record is maintained finds, after a hearing with notice thereof to every person in interest and the agency, that the exemption of such records is clearly unnecessary to protect any individual's right of privacy or any vital governmental function.

(4) Agency responses refusing, in whole or in part, inspection of any public record shall include a statement of the specific exemption authorizing the withholding of the record (or part) and a brief explanation of how the exemption applies to the record withheld.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 42.17 RCW to read as follows:

All applications and resumes of persons who apply for an executive position with an agency shall be available for public inspection and copying unless the agency: (1) Has adopted a policy requiring the agency's preparation of a list of applicants that includes all applicants who have submitted information in addition to that requested by the public agency in the original application; and (2) makes that list, together with the applications and resumes of the persons on the list, available for public inspection when selected and at least five days before it makes its final selection. The term "executive position" means any position the primary duties of which consist of the management of the public agency by which the person is employed or of a customarily recognized department.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 42.17 RCW to read as follows:

Nothing in RCW 42.17.310(1) (q) through (s) shall affect a positive duty of an agency to disclose or a positive duty to withhold information which duty to disclose or withhold is contained in any other law."

On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "persons;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "reenacting and amending RCW 42.17.310; and adding new sections to chapter 42.17 RCW."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5501 was deferred.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 9, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5561, with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 5, chapter 324, Laws of 1986 and RCW 18.11.085 are each amended to read as follows:

Every individual, before acting as an auctioneer, shall obtain an auctioneer certificate of registration. To be licensed as an auctioneer, an individual shall meet all of the following requirements:

- (1) Be at least eighteen years of age or sponsored by a licensed auctioneer.
- (2) File with the department a completed application on a form prescribed by the director.
- (3) Show that the proper tax registration certificate required by RCW 82.32.030 has been obtained from the department of revenue.
- (4) Pay the auctioneer registration fee required under the agency rules adopted pursuant to this chapter.
- (5) Except as otherwise provided under RCW 18.11.121, file with the department an auctioneer surety bond in the amount and form required by RCW 18.11.121 and the agency rules adopted pursuant to this chapter.
- (6) Have no disqualifications under RCW 18.11.160.

Sec. 2. Section 8, chapter 324, Laws of 1986 and RCW 18.11.121 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in this section, each auctioneer and each auction company shall as a condition to the granting and retention of a license have on file with the department an approved surety bond or other security in lieu of a bond. However, if an auction company is a sole proprietorship or a partnership and has on file with the department a surety bond or other security approved by the director in the amount that would otherwise be required for an auction company to be granted or to retain a license under this section, then no separate bond or bonds shall be required for the sole proprietor or any individual partner to act as an auctioneer for the sole proprietorship or partnership. The bond or other security of an auctioneer shall be in the amount of five thousand dollars.

(2) The bond or other security of an auction company shall be in an amount not less than five thousand dollars and not more than twenty-five thousand dollars. The amount shall be based on the value of the goods and real estate sold at auctions conducted, supervised, arranged, sponsored, or managed by the auction company during the previous calendar year or, for a new auction company, the estimated value of the goods and real estate to be sold at auction during the current calendar year. The director shall establish by rule the procedures to be used for determining the amount of auction company bonds or other security.

(3) In lieu of a surety bond, an auctioneer or auction company may deposit with the department any of the following:

- (a) Savings accounts assigned to the director;
- (b) Certificates of deposit payable to the director;
- (c) Investment certificates or share accounts assigned to the director; or

(d) Any other security acceptable to the director.

All obligations and remedies relating to surety bonds authorized by this section shall apply to deposits filed with the director.

(4) Each bond shall comply with all of the following:

(a) Be executed by the person seeking the license as principal and by a corporate surety licensed to do business in the state;

(b) Be payable to the state;

(c) Be conditioned on compliance with all provisions of this chapter and the agency rules adopted pursuant to this chapter, including payment of any administrative fines assessed against the licensee; and

(d) Remain in effect for one year after expiration, revocation, or suspension of the license.

(5) If any licensee fails or is alleged to have failed to comply with the provisions of this chapter or the agency rules adopted pursuant to this chapter, the director may hold a hearing in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW, determine those persons who are proven claimants under the bond, and, if appropriate, distribute the bond proceeds to the proven claimants. The state or an injured person may also bring an action against the bond in superior court. The liability of the surety shall be only for actual damages and shall not exceed the amount of the bond.

(6) Damages that exceed the amount of the bond may be remedied by actions against the auctioneer or the auction company under RCW 18.11.260 or other available remedies at law.

Sec. 3. Section 20, chapter 324, Laws of 1986 and RCW 18.11.220 are each amended to read as follows:

The client of an auctioneer or auction company has a right to (1) an accounting for any money that the auctioneer or auction company receives from the sale of the client's goods, ~~((and))~~ (2) payment of all money due to the client within twenty-one calendar days unless the parties have mutually agreed in writing to another time of payment, and (3) bring an action against the surety bond or other security filed in lieu of the surety bond for any violation of this chapter or the rules adopted pursuant to this chapter.

Sec. 4. Section 21, chapter 324, Laws of 1986 and RCW 18.11.230 are each amended to read as follows:

Auction proceeds due to ~~((the))~~ a client that are received by the auctioneer or auction company and not paid to the client within twenty-four hours of the sale shall be deposited no later than the next business day by the auctioneer or auction company in a trust account for ~~((the))~~ clients in a bank, savings and loan association, mutual savings bank, or licensed escrow agent located in the state. The auctioneer or auction company shall draw on the trust account only to pay proceeds to ~~((the))~~ clients, or such other persons who are legally entitled to such proceeds, and to obtain the sums due to the auctioneer or auction company for services as set out in the written contract required under RCW 18.11.130. Funds in the trust account shall not be subject to the debt of the auctioneer or auction company and shall not be used for personal reasons or other business reasons.

Sec. 5. Section 6, chapter 324, Laws of 1986 and RCW 18.11.095 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person, before operating an auction company as defined in RCW 18.11.050, shall obtain an auction company certificate of registration.

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, to be licensed as an auction company, a person shall meet all of the following requirements:

~~((+))~~ (a) File with the department a completed application on a form prescribed by the director.

~~((2))~~ (b) Sign a notarized statement included on the application form that all auctioneers hired by the auction company to do business in the state shall be properly registered under this chapter.

~~((3))~~ (c) Show that the proper tax registration certificate required by RCW 82.32.030 has been obtained from the department of revenue.

~~((4))~~ (d) Pay the auction company registration fee required under the agency rules adopted pursuant to this chapter.

~~((5))~~ (e) File with the department an auction company surety bond in the amount and form required by RCW 18.11.121 and the agency rules adopted pursuant to this chapter.

~~((6))~~ (f) Have no disqualifications under RCW 18.11.160.

(2) An auction company shall not be charged a license fee if it is a sole proprietorship or a partnership owned by an auctioneer or auctioneers, each of whom is licensed under this chapter, and if it has in effect a surety bond or bonds or other security approved by the director in the amount that would otherwise be required for an auction company to be granted or to retain a license under RCW 18.11.121."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "auctioneers;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and amending RCW 18.11.085, 18.11.121, 18.11.220, 18.11.230, and 18.11.095."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 9, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5739 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 5, chapter 153, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 1, chapter 70, Laws of 1979 and RCW 18.44.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, at the time of filing an application as an escrow agent, or any renewal or reinstatement thereof, the applicant shall satisfy the director that it has obtained ~~((the following as evidence of financial responsibility:~~

~~(1) A fidelity bond providing coverage in the aggregate amount of two hundred thousand dollars covering each corporate officer, partner, escrow officer, and employee of the applicant engaged in escrow transactions; and~~

~~(2)) an errors and omissions policy issued to the escrow agent providing coverage in the minimum aggregate amount of fifty thousand dollars or, alternatively, cash or securities in the principal amount of fifty thousand dollars deposited in an approved depository on condition that they be available for payment of any claim payable under an equivalent errors and omissions policy in that amount and pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by the department for that purpose.~~

~~((For the purposes of this section, a "fidelity bond" shall mean a primary commercial blanket bond or its equivalent satisfactory to the director and written by an insurer authorized to transact surety business in the state of Washington. Such bond shall provide fidelity coverage for any fraudulent or dishonest acts committed by any one or more of the employees or officers as defined in the bond, acting alone or in collusion with others. Said bond shall be for the sole benefit of the escrow agent and under no circumstances whatsoever shall the bonding company be liable under the bond to any other party. The bond shall name the escrow agent as obligee and shall protect the obligee against the loss of money or other real or personal property belonging to the obligee, or in which the obligee has a pecuniary interest, or for which the obligee is legally liable or held by the obligee in any capacity, whether the obligee is legally liable therefor or not. The bond may be canceled by the insurer upon delivery of thirty days' written notice to the director and to the escrow agent;)) (2) The director may waive the~~ requirement that an applicant meet the requirements of subsection (1) of this section, based on a finding pursuant to the guidelines found in section 6 of this act. A waiver of the requirement to maintain an errors and omissions policy may be granted for a period of one year. A licensed escrow agent who has previously been granted a waiver by the director may petition for a renewal of such waiver by filing written application with the director.

(3) For the purposes of this section, an "errors and omissions policy" shall mean a group or individual insurance policy satisfactory to the director and issued by an insurer authorized to transact insurance business in the state of Washington. Such policy shall provide coverage for unintentional errors and omissions of the escrow agent and its employees, and may be canceled by the insurer upon delivery of (~~thirty days~~) written notice to the director and to the escrow agent in the manner provided in RCW 48.18.290.

(4) Except as provided in RCW 18.44.360 and subsection (2) of this section, (~~the fidelity bond and~~) the errors and omissions policy required by this section shall be kept in full force and effect as a condition precedent to the escrow agent's authority to transact escrow business in this state, and the escrow agent shall supply the director with satisfactory evidence thereof upon request.

Sec. 2. Section 13, chapter 153, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 9, chapter 156, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The revocation, suspension, surrender or expiration of an escrow agent's certificate shall not impair or affect preexisting escrows accepted by the agent prior to such revocation, suspension, surrender or expiration: PROVIDED, That the escrow agent shall within five work days provide written notice to all principals of such preexisting escrows of the agent's loss of registration. The notice shall include as a minimum the reason for the loss of registration, the estimated date for completing the escrow (~~and the condition of the agent's bond and whether it is in effect or whether notice of cancellation has been given~~). The notice shall afford the principals the right to withdraw the escrow without monetary loss.

Sec. 3. Section 30, chapter 156, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.360 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall, within thirty days after the written request of the escrow commission, hold a public hearing to determine whether (~~the fidelity bond and/or~~) the errors and omissions policy specified in RCW 18.44.050 as now or hereafter amended is reasonably available to a substantial number of certificated escrow agents. If the director determines and the insurance commissioner concurs that such (~~bond and/or~~) policy is not reasonably available, the director shall waive the requirements for such (~~bond and/or~~) policy for a (~~fixed~~) period of (~~time not to exceed ninety days after the next regular session of the legislature~~) one year.

Sec. 4. Section 31, chapter 156, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 18.44.370 are each amended to read as follows:

After a written determination by the director, with the consent of the insurance commissioner, that (~~the fidelity bond and/or~~) the errors and omissions policy required under RCW 18.44.050 as now or hereafter amended is cost-prohibitive, or after a determination as provided in RCW 18.44.360 that such (~~bond or~~) policy is not reasonably available, upon the request of an association comprised of certificated escrow agents, the director, with the consent of the insurance commissioner, may authorize such association to organize a mutual corporation pursuant to chapter 24.06 RCW, exempt from the provisions of Title 48 RCW, for the purpose of insuring or self-insuring against claims arising out of escrow transactions, if, in the director's judgment, there is a substantial likelihood that the corporation will operate for the benefit of the public and if the corporation shall have established rules, procedures, and reserves which satisfy the director that it will operate in a financially responsible manner which provides a substantial probability that it shall be able to pay any claims made against the corporation, up to the limits of financial responsibility as provided in RCW 18.44.050, as now or hereafter amended. The director, with the consent of the insurance commissioner, may limit the authority of the corporation to the insuring or self-insuring of claims which would be within the coverage specified in RCW 18.44.050. The director, with the consent of the insurance commissioner, may revoke the authority of the corporation to transact insurance or self-insurance if he determines, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, that the corporation is not acting in a financially responsible manner or for the benefit of the public. (~~Any corporation established pursuant to this section shall cease to exist, except for the payment of incurred claims, ninety days after the next regular session of the legislature unless extended by law for an additional fixed period of time.~~)

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 18.44 RCW to read as follows:

The following criteria will be considered by the director when deciding whether to grant a licensed escrow agent a waiver from the errors and omissions policy requirement under RCW 18.44.050:

- (1) Whether the director has determined pursuant to RCW 18.44.360 that an errors and omissions policy is not reasonably available to a substantial number of licensed escrow agents;
- (2) Whether purchasing an errors and omissions policy would be cost-prohibitive for the licensed escrow agent requesting the exemption;

(3) Whether a licensed escrow agent has wilfully violated the provisions of chapter 18.44 RCW, which violation thereby resulted in the termination of the agent's certificate, or engaged in any other conduct resulting in the termination of the escrow certificate;

(4) Whether a licensed escrow agent has paid claims directly or through an errors and omissions carrier, exclusive of costs and attorney fees, in excess of ten thousand dollars in the calendar year preceding the year for which the waiver is requested;

(5) Whether a licensed escrow agent has paid claims directly or through an errors or omissions insurance carrier, exclusive of costs and attorney fees, totaling in excess of twenty thousand dollars in the three calendar years preceding the calendar year for which the exemption is requested; and

(6) Whether the licensed escrow agent has been convicted of a crime involving honesty or moral turpitude.

These criteria are not intended to be a wholly inclusive list of factors to be applied by the director when considering the merits of a licensed escrow agent's request for a waiver of the required errors and omissions policy.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 18.44 RCW to read as follows:

The director shall, within thirty days following submission of a written petition for waiver of the insurance requirements found in RCW 18.44.050, issue a written determination granting or rejecting an applicant's request for waiver.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 18.44 RCW to read as follows:

Upon granting a waiver of insurance requirements found in RCW 18.44.050, the director shall issue a certificate of waiver, which certificate shall be mailed to the escrow agent who requested the waiver.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 18.44 RCW to read as follows:

Upon determining that a licensed escrow agent is to be denied a waiver of the errors and omissions policy requirements of RCW 18.44.050, the director shall within thirty days of the denial of an escrow agent's request for same, provide to the escrow agent a written explanation of the reasons for the director's decision to deny the requested waiver.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 18.44 RCW to read as follows:

Nothing in RCW 18.44.050 and sections 5 through 8 and 10 of this act shall be construed as prohibiting a person applying for an escrow license from applying for a certificate of waiver of the errors and omissions policy requirement when seeking an escrow license.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 18.44 RCW to read as follows:

A request for a waiver of the required errors and omissions policy may be accomplished under the statute by submitting to the director an affidavit that substantially addresses the following:

REQUEST FOR WAIVER OF ERRORS AND OMISSIONS POLICY

I, _____, residing at _____, City of _____, County of _____, State of Washington, declare the following:

(1) The state escrow commission has determined that an errors and omissions policy is not reasonably available to a substantial number of licensed escrow officers; and

(2) Purchasing an errors and omissions policy is cost-prohibitive at this time; and

(3) I have not engaged in any conduct that resulted in the termination of my escrow certificate; and

(4) I have not paid, directly or through an errors and omissions policy, claims in excess of ten thousand dollars, exclusive of costs and attorneys' fees, during the calendar year preceding submission of this affidavit; and

(5) I have not paid, directly or through an errors and omissions policy, claims, exclusive of costs and attorneys' fees, totaling in excess of twenty thousand dollars in the three calendar years immediately preceding submission of this affidavit; and

(6) I have not been convicted of a crime involving honesty or moral turpitude during the calendar year preceding submission of this application.

THEREFORE, in consideration of the above, I, _____, respectfully request that the director of licensing grant this request for a waiver of the requirement that I purchase and maintain an errors and omissions policy covering my activities as an escrow agent licensed by the state of Washington for the period from _____, 19____, to _____, 19____.

Submitted this day of _____ day of _____, 19____.

(signature)

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Section 6, chapter 153, Laws of 1965 and RCW 18.44.060 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1987."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "escrow;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 18.44.050, 18.44.130, 18.44.360, and 18.44.370; adding new sections to chapter 18.44 RCW; repealing RCW 18.44.060; declaring an emergency; and providing an effective date."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5001 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 15, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5163 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 53, Laws of 1981 and RCW 18.50.005 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter:

(1) "Department" means the department of licensing.

(2) "Director" means the director of licensing.

(3) "Midwife" means a midwife licensed under this chapter.

(4) "Physician" means a physician licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW.

Sec. 2. Section 8, chapter 160, Laws of 1917 as amended by section 5, chapter 53, Laws of 1981 and RCW 18.50.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person shall be regarded as practicing midwifery within the meaning of this chapter who shall render medical aid for a fee or compensation to a woman during prenatal, intrapartum, and postpartum stages or who shall advertise as a midwife by signs, printed cards, or otherwise. Nothing shall be construed in this chapter to prohibit gratuitous services. It shall be the duty of a midwife to consult with a (legally qualified) physician whenever there are significant deviations from normal in either the mother or the infant.

A study shall be conducted by the department of licensing in consultation with the department of social and health services and the midwifery advisory committee to determine maternal and neonatal outcome data by type of practitioner, including an analysis of births attended by nonlicensed practitioners. The study shall also determine the role of nonlicensed practitioners in the provision of maternity services in the state of Washington. The results of the study shall be reported to the legislature in January, 1989.

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 160, Laws of 1917 as last amended by section 24, chapter 299, Laws of 1986 and RCW 18.50.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person seeking to be examined shall present to the director, at least forty-five days before the commencement of the examination, a written application on a form or forms provided by the director setting forth under affidavit such information as the director may require and proof the candidate has received a high school degree or its equivalent; that the candidate is twenty-one years of age or older; that the candidate has received a certificate or diploma from a midwifery program accredited by the director and licensed under chapter 28C.10 RCW, when applicable, or a certificate or diploma in a foreign institution on midwifery of equal requirements conferring the full right to practice midwifery in the country in which it was issued. The diploma must bear the seal of the institution from which the applicant was graduated. Foreign candidates must present with the application a translation of the foreign certificate or diploma made by and under the seal of the consulate of the country in which the certificate or diploma was issued.

(2) The candidate shall meet the following conditions:

(a) Obtaining a minimum period of midwifery training for at least three years including the study of the basic nursing skills that the department shall prescribe by rule. However, if the applicant is a registered nurse under chapter 18.88 RCW, a licensed practical nurse under chapter 18.78 RCW, or has had previous nursing education or practical midwifery experience, the required period of training may be reduced depending upon the extent of the candidate's qualifications as determined under rules adopted by the department. In no case shall the training be reduced to a period of less than two years.

(b) Meeting minimum educational requirements which shall include studying obstetrics; neonatal pediatrics; basic sciences; female reproductive anatomy and physiology; behavioral sciences; childbirth education; community care; obstetrical pharmacology; epidemiology; gynecology; family planning; genetics; embryology; neonatology; the medical and legal aspects of midwifery; nutrition during pregnancy and lactation; breast feeding; nursing skills, including but not limited to injections, administering intravenous fluids, catheterization, and aseptic technique; and such other requirements prescribed by rule.

(c) For a student midwife during training, undertaking the care of not less than fifty women in each of the prenatal, intrapartum, and early postpartum periods, but the same women need not be seen through all three periods. A student midwife may be issued a permit upon the satisfactory completion of the requirements in (a), (b), and (c) of this subsection and the satisfactory completion of the licensure examination required by RCW 18.50.060. The permit permits the student midwife to practice under the supervision of a midwife licensed under this chapter, a physician (~~licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW;~~) or a certified nurse-midwife licensed under the authority of chapter 18.88 RCW. The permit shall expire within one year of issuance and may be extended as provided by rule.

(d) Observing an additional fifty women in the intrapartum period before the candidate qualifies for a license.

The training required under this section shall include training in either hospitals or alternative birth settings or both with particular emphasis on learning the ability to differentiate between low-risk and high-risk pregnancies.

Sec. 4. Section 4, chapter 160, Laws of 1917 as last amended by section 8, chapter 53, Laws of 1981 and RCW 18.50.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The director of licensing is hereby authorized and empowered to execute the provisions of this chapter and shall offer examinations in midwifery at least twice a year at such times and places as the director may select. The examinations shall be written and shall be in the English language.

(2) The director, with the assistance of the midwifery advisory committee, shall develop or approve a licensure examination in the subjects that the director determines are within the scope of and commensurate with the work performed by a licensed midwife. The examination shall be sufficient to test the scientific and practical fitness of candidates to practice midwifery. All application papers shall be deposited with the director and there retained for at least one year, when they may be destroyed.

(3) If the examination is satisfactorily completed, the director shall issue to such candidate a license entitling the candidate to practice midwifery in the state of Washington.

~~((4) A midwife licensed under this chapter may obtain and administer prophylactic ophthalmic medication, postpartum oxytocic and local anesthetic, and may administer such other drugs or medications as prescribed by a licensed physician. A pharmacist who dispenses such drugs to a licensed midwife shall not be liable for any adverse reactions caused by any method of utilization by the midwife.))~~

Sec. 5. Section 3, chapter 53, Laws of 1981 and RCW 18.50.140 are each amended to read as follows:

The midwifery advisory committee is created.

The committee shall be composed of one (~~licensed~~) physician who is a practicing obstetrician; one practicing (~~licensed~~) physician; one certified nurse midwife licensed under chapter 18.88 RCW; three midwives licensed under this chapter; and one public member, who shall have no financial interest in the rendering of health services. The committee may seek other consultants as appropriate, including persons trained in childbirth education and perinatology or neonatology.

The members are appointed by the director and serve at the pleasure of the director but may not serve more than (~~three consecutive~~) five years (~~or more than five years in total~~) consecutively. The terms of office shall be staggered. Members of the committee shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 18.50 RCW to read as follows:

A midwife licensed under this chapter may obtain and administer prophylactic ophthalmic medication, postpartum oxytocic, vitamin K, Rho immune globulin (human), and local anesthetic and may administer such other drugs or medications as prescribed by a physician. A pharmacist who dispenses such drugs to a licensed midwife shall not be liable for any adverse reactions caused by any method of use by the midwife.

The director, after consultation with representatives of the midwife advisory committee, the board of pharmacy, and the board of medical examiners, may issue regulations which authorize licensed midwives to purchase and use legend drugs and devices in addition to the drugs authorized in this chapter.

Sec. 7. Section 12, chapter 168, Laws of 1983 and RCW 43.24.086 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It shall be the policy of the state of Washington that the cost of each professional, occupational or business licensing program be fully borne by the members of that profession, occupation or business. The director of licensing shall from time to time establish the amount of all application fees, license fees, registration fees, examination fees, permit fees, renewal fees, and any other fee associated with licensing or regulation of professions, occupations or businesses administered by the business and professions administration in the department of licensing. In fixing said fees, the director shall set the fees for each such program at a sufficient level to defray the costs of administering that program. All such fees shall be fixed by rule adopted by the director in accordance with the provisions of the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, no fee for any profession with fewer than one hundred active licensees may be increased by more than one hundred dollars or fifty percent, whichever is greater, during any biennium.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 22, chapter 197, Laws of 1983 and RCW 43.131.297; and

(2) Section 48, chapter 197, Laws of 1983 and RCW 43.131.298."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "midwifery;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 18.50.005, 18.50.010, 18.50.040, 18.50.060, 18.50.140, and 43.24.086; adding a new section to chapter 18.50 RCW; and repealing RCW 43.131.297 and 43.131.298."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

Senator Vognild moved that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5163 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Wojahn, that amendment that the House put on would apparently limit fees to not more than $100 increase or fifty percent. I have a list here in my hand where certain fees are proposed to go up from $300 to $2,500--acupuncturists from $500 to $1,900, oculists from $300 to $1,150, podiatrists $100 to $650. These are the Department of Licensing's proposed fees and it would appear to me that that amendment is trying to limit those to a reasonable amount. Why are we not concurring?"

Senator Wojahn: "We are not concurring because some of those are health care amendments and some of them are outside the scope and in another title entirely. I was going to, had I been on my toes, ask that a portion of this bill be scoped, because it is not appropriate. Some of them are not in the health care area. Some of them--one of them, the adjusters are in another area of the code, so it is out of the scope."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, I understand that, but the proposed fees seem outrageous."

Senator Wojahn: "The proposed fees are a list that just came through from the Department of Licensing and they should have brought them to the Legislature, before the Legislature started, a new review of this and some type of amelioration of the problem. They did not do this. Therefore, we've got a group of fees out there that are outrageously high. They didn't bring them in; we couldn't do anything about it until next session or unless we went into special session."

Senator Rasmussen: "If we go into conference, we can do something about it?"

Senator Wojahn: "If we go into conference, we can attempt to do the first part, take out the debt adjusters that shouldn't be in here. We can't change the whole fee structure until the Department gives us a list."

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Wojahn, as I read the House amendment, that puts a lid on it of $100 or fifty percent increase."

Senator Wojahn: "For four different groups, that's all. It puts a lid on ocularists, it puts a lid on midwives, it puts a lid on debt adjusters and one other whose fees are outrageous and have gone up one thousand percent."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Wojahn: "Mr. President, I move that this bill be scoped. Before you rule, I'd like to move that we do not concur."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "That is the motion, Senator."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5163 was deferred.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 14, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5479 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"PART I

NEW SECTION. Sec. 101. (1) A schools for the twenty-first century pilot program is established to foster change in the state common school system. The program will enable educators and parents of selected schools or school districts to restructure certain school operations and to develop model school programs which will improve student performance. The program shall include an evaluation of the projects and be accountable for student progress. The purpose of the program is to determine whether increasing local decision-making authority will produce more effective learning.

(2) The legislature intends to encourage educational creativity, professionalism, and initiative by: (a) Providing schools an opportunity to develop new methods and procedures, through the temporary waiver of certain state statutes or administrative rules, and (b) providing selected public schools or school districts with the technology, services, and staff essential to enhance learning.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 102. The state board of education, with the assistance of the superintendent of public instruction, shall develop a process for schools or school districts to apply to participate in the schools for the twenty-first century pilot program. The board shall review and select projects for grant awards, and monitor and evaluate the schools for the twenty-first century pilot program. The board shall develop criteria to evaluate the need for the waivers of state statutes or administrative rules as identified under section 109 of this act. The state board shall cooperate with the governor's task force on schools for the twenty-first century.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 103. (1) The governor shall appoint a task force on schools for the twenty-first century. The task force shall assist and cooperate with the state board of education in the development of the process, and review and selection of projects under section 102 of this act. The state board is directed, in developing the criteria for waivers, to take into consideration concerns and recommendations of the task force.

(2) The task force of ten people shall be appointed by the governor. Appointed members who are not legislators shall be reimbursed for travel expenses under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. Appointed members who are members of the legislature shall be reimbursed for travel expenses under RCW 44.04.120. Members of the task force shall serve for a period of six years.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 104. The process, review, and selection of projects to be developed in section 102 of this act shall be approved by the state board of education. The governor's task force on schools for the twenty-first century shall recommend projects for approval to the state board of education.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 105. Initial applications to participate in the schools for the twenty-first century pilot program shall be submitted by the school district board of directors to the state board of education not later than March 31, 1988. Subject to available funding, additional applications may be submitted for board consideration by November 1 of subsequent years. Each application shall contain a proposed plan which:

(1) Enumerates specific activities to be carried out as part of the pilot school(s) project;

(2) Commits all parties to work cooperatively during the term of the pilot project;

(3) Includes provisions for certificated school staff, and classified school employees whose primary duties are the daily educational instruction of students, to be employed on supplemental contracts with additional compensation for a minimum of ten additional days beyond the general state funded school year allocations, and staff development time as provided by legislative appropriation, and, notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 28A.58.095(1), district resources may be used to fund the employment of staff beyond the ten additional days for the purposes of the pilot project;

(4) Includes budget plans for the project and additional anticipated sources of funding, including private grants and contributions, if any;

(5) Identifies the technical resources desired, the potential costs of those resources, and the institutions of higher education, educational service districts, or consultants available to provide such services;

(6) Identifies the evaluation and accountability processes to be used to measure school-wide student and project performance, and identifies a model which provides the basis for a staff incentive pay system. Implementation of the staff incentive pay system is not required;

(7) Justifies each request for waiver of specific state statutes or administrative rules during the first two years of the project;

(8) Includes a written statement that school directors and administrators are willing to exempt the pilot school(s) from specifically identified local rules, as needed;

(9) Includes a written statement that the school directors and the local bargaining agents will modify those portions of their local agreements as applicable for the pilot school(s) project; and

(10) Includes written statements of support from the district's board of directors, the district superintendent, the principal and staff of the building requesting to become a pilot school; and statements of support, willingness to participate, or concerns from any interested parent, business, or community organization.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 106. The board and the task force in reviewing project proposals, shall, subject to money being appropriated by the legislature for this purpose, select:

(1) Not more than twenty-one projects during each biennium for the schools for the twenty-first century pilot program;

(2) At least one entire school district if the application is consistent with the requirements under sections 102 and 105 of this act;

(3) Projects which reflect a balance among elementary, junior high or middle schools, and high schools. They should also reflect, as much as possible, a balance among geographical areas and school characteristics and sizes.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 107. (1) The superintendent of public instruction shall administer sections 102 through 114 of this act and is authorized to award grant funding, subject to money being appropriated by the legislature for this purpose for pilot projects selected by the state board of education and the task force under section 106 of this act.

(2) The superintendent of public instruction shall distribute the initial award grants by July 1, 1988. The initial schools for the twenty-first century pilot projects shall commence with the 1988-89 school year.

(3) The twenty-first century pilot school projects may be conducted for up to six years, if funds are so provided. Subject to state board approval and continued state funding, pilot projects initially funded for two years may be extended for a total period not to exceed six years. Future funding shall be conditioned on a positive evaluation of the project.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 108. The superintendent of public instruction may accept, receive, and administer for the purposes of sections 102 through 114 of this act such gifts, grants, and contributions as may be provided from public and private sources for the purposes of sections 102 through 114 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 109. The state board of education, where appropriate, or the superintendent of public instruction, where appropriate, is authorized to grant waivers to pilot project districts from the provisions of statutes or administrative rules relating to: The length of the school year; teacher contact hour requirements; program hour offerings; student to teacher ratios; salary lid compliance requirements; the commingling of funds appropriated by the legislature on a categorical basis for such programs as, but not limited to, highly capable students, transitional bilingual instruction, and learning assistance; and other administrative rules which in the opinion of the state board of education or the opinion of the superintendent of public instruction may need to be waived in order to implement a pilot project proposal.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 110. State rules dealing with public health, safety, and civil rights, including accessibility by the handicapped, shall not be waived. A school district may request the state board of education or the superintendent of public instruction to ask the United States department of education or other federal agencies to waive certain federal regulations necessary to fully implement the proposed pilot project.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 111. The board shall ensure that successful applicant school districts will be afforded resource and special support assistance, as specified in legislative appropriations, in undertaking schools for the twenty-first century pilot program activities. The board shall develop a process that coordinates and facilitates linkages among participating school districts and colleges and universities. Staff from schools or districts selected to participate in the schools for the twenty-first century pilot program shall be given priority consideration for participation in state sponsored staff development programs and summer institutes.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 112. (1) The state board of education may adopt rules under chapter 34.04 RCW as necessary to implement its duties under sections 102 through 114 of this act.

(2) The superintendent of public instruction may adopt rules under chapter 34.04 RCW as necessary to implement the superintendent's duties under sections 102 through 114 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 113. (1) The state board of education shall report to the legislature on the progress of the schools for the twenty-first century pilot program by January 15 of each odd-numbered year, including a recommendation on the number of additional pilot schools which should be authorized and funded. The first report shall be submitted by January 15, 1989.

(2) Each school district selected to participate in the schools for the twenty-first century pilot project shall submit an annual report to the state board of education on the progress of the pilot project as a condition of receipt of continued funding.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 114. The superintendent of public instruction, through the state clearinghouse for education information, shall collect and disseminate to all school districts and other interested parties information about the schools for the twenty-first century pilot projects.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 115. Sections 101 through 114 of this act shall expire June 30, 1994.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 116. Sections 101 through 114 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

PART II

TEACHING AS A PROFESSION

NEW SECTION. Sec. 201. The legislature intends to enhance the education of the state's youth by improving the quality of teaching. The legislature intends to establish a framework for teacher and principal preparation programs and to recognize teaching as a profession.

The legislature finds that the quality of teacher preparation programs is enhanced when a planned, sequenced approach is used that provides for the application of practice to academic course work.

The legislature supports better integration of the elements of teacher preparation programs including knowledge of subject matter, teaching methods, and actual teaching experiences.

The legislature finds that establishing: (1) A teaching internship program; (2) a post-baccalaureate program resulting in a masters degree; (3) stronger requirements for earning principal credentials; and (4) a review of the preparation standards for school principals and educational staff associates are appropriate next steps in enhancing the quality of educational personnel in Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 202. A new section is added to chapter 28A.67 RCW to read as follows:

The state board of education shall develop standards for teacher internship programs. The state board of education shall consult with institutions of higher education offering teacher preparation programs and other groups or organizations having an interest in teacher preparation issues as it develops the standards including provisions for requiring cooperative agreements between public or private institutions of higher education and schools or school districts. The state board of education shall establish internship program requirements for initial and professional teacher certification and coordinate these requirements with the beginning teacher assistance program. The state board of education shall also consider providing for stipends for candidates interning at public schools and the appropriate length of the internship. The standards shall be adopted no later than August 31, 1990.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 203. A new section is added to chapter 28A.04 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The state board of education and the higher education coordinating board shall work cooperatively to develop the standards for the implementation of a post-baccalaureate professional teacher preparation program that results in the acquisition of a masters degree in teaching. The program shall: (a) Build upon the program of courses required for teacher certification as provided by RCW 28A.04.120 (1) and (2); (b) provide for the application of academic theory to classroom practice, and (c) require an internship which meets the standards established in section 202 of this act.

(2) In developing the standards under subsection (1) of this section, the state board of education shall consult with institutions of higher education offering teacher preparation programs, the higher education coordinating board, and other groups or organizations having an interest in teacher preparation issues.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 204. A new section is added to chapter 28A.70 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The state board of education shall implement rules providing that all individuals qualifying for an initial teaching certificate after August 31, 1991, shall possess a baccalaureate degree in the arts, sciences, and/or humanities and have fulfilled the requirement for teacher certification provided by RCW 28A.04.120 (1) and (2).

(2) The initial certificate shall be valid for two years.

(3) Certificate holders may renew the certificate for a three-year period by providing proof of acceptance and enrollment in an approved masters degree program. A second renewal, for a period of two years, may be granted upon recommendation of the degree-granting institution and if the certificate holder can demonstrate substantial progress toward the completion of the masters degree and that the degree will be completed within the two-year extension period. Under no circumstances may an initial certificate be valid for a period of more than seven years.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 205. A new section is added to chapter 28A.70 RCW to read as follows:

The state board of education shall implement rules providing that all teachers performing instructional duties and acquiring professional level certificate status after August 31, 1991, shall possess, as a requirement of continuing status, a masters degree in the arts, sciences, and/or humanities, or a masters degree in teaching as provided for by section 203 of this act. The degree program shall include a teaching internship which meets the standards set forth in sections 202 and 203 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 206. A new section is added to chapter 28A.04 RCW to read as follows:

The state board of education shall review and develop standards which address the minimum professional educational requirements necessary for initial certification for persons entering education from other fields.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 207. A new section is added to chapter 28A.70 RCW to read as follows:

When certification requirements are changed and the effective date for the application of new requirements results in an applicant who has completed the requirements for certification having less time to file and qualify than under the old standard for certification, the applicant shall be allowed to apply and qualify under the old requirements so long as the applicant completes the application process timelines under the old requirements. This section shall apply to all applicants who completed course work for a continuing certificate prior to December 31, 1986.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 208. The state board of education shall review the requirements of preparation programs for school principals and educational staff associates. The results of this review shall be reported to the legislature on or before December 15, 1988, and shall address:

(1) The appropriateness of existing preparation standards as they relate to the needs of persons fulfilling the role of principal or any one of the educational staff associate roles.

(2) Procedures for selection of persons to attend principal preparation programs.

(3) Procedures for recruitment and selection of principal candidates who reflect the racial, ethnic, and gender composition of the school population; and

(4) Provisions for an internship program for principal candidates, the provision of release time equivalent to not less than one academic semester from normal duties for the interns, and the establishment of mentor principals and supervision by faculty from a public or independent institution of higher education.

(5) This section shall expire December 16, 1988.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 209. The state board of education shall monitor the development of studies for establishing a national teacher assessment and certification process and advise the legislature on the applicability of a national teacher assessment and certification process for this state and report to the legislature by January 15, 1990.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 210. The state board of education and the office of the superintendent of public instruction shall review the provisions of the interstate agreement on qualifications of educational personnel under chapter 28A.93 RCW, and advise the governor and the legislature on which interstate reciprocity provisions will require amendment to be consistent with sections 201 through 206 of this act by January 15, 1989.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 211. The superintendent of public instruction shall provide technical assistance to the state board of education in the conduct of the activities described in sections 201 through 212 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 212. The higher education coordinating board and the state board of education shall develop recommended legislation for programs to enhance the master in teaching degree program and report to the legislature by December 1, 1988. Recommendations for programs to be implemented beginning with the 1989 school year shall include but not be limited to:

(1) Graduate scholarships for master in teaching degree candidates, especially minorities, the disadvantaged, and the needy.

(2) Undergraduate work study programs for persons intending to enter a master in teaching program to provide services in the common schools.

This section shall expire December 15, 1988.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 213. A new section is added to Title 28B RCW to read as follows:

The state's public and private institutions of higher education offering teacher preparation programs and school districts are encouraged to explore ways to facilitate faculty exchanges, and other cooperative arrangements, to generate increased awareness and understanding by higher education faculty of the common school teaching experience and increased awareness and understanding by common school faculty of the teacher preparation programs.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 214. A new section is added to chapter 28A.67 RCW to read as follows:

(1) No person may be admitted to a professional teacher preparation program within Washington state without first demonstrating that he or she is competent in the basic skills required for oral and written communication and computation.

(2) For persons applying for the 1988-89 school year and thereafter, if standardized tests approved by the state board of education are used to determine competency, a passing grade shall be not less than the median score for all students taking that test who were admitted in the prior school year to that institution of higher education.

(3) The state board of education shall adopt rules to implement this section. The rules shall provide for equivalent scores on comparable portions of other standardized tests.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 215. A new section is added to chapter 28A.67 RCW to read as follows:

The state board of education shall adopt a uniform state exit examination for teacher certification candidates to be administered at the end of the teacher preparation program. Commencing January 1, 1991, teacher certification candidates completing a teacher preparation program shall be required to pass an exit examination before being granted an initial certificate. The examination shall test knowledge and competence in subjects including, but not limited to, instructional skills, classroom management, and student behavior and development. The examination shall consist primarily of essay questions. The state board of education shall adopt such rules as may be necessary to implement this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 216. A new section is added to chapter 28A.67 RCW to read as follows:

The state board of education shall, no later than January 1, 1990, recommend to the legislature whether all teacher candidates should be required to pass a written subject matter examination. Before making its recommendations, the board shall administer sample endorsement subject matter examinations to a sample number of teacher candidates who qualify to receive endorsements on the basis of other criteria. A limited number of endorsement areas shall be selected for sample testing. The results of such tests shall be made available to the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 217. Sections 202 through 213 of this act shall be known as the professional excellence act of 1987.

PART III
STAFF DEVELOPMENT

Sec. 301. Section 2, chapter 189, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 214, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28A.71.210 are each amended to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction is hereby empowered to administer funds now or hereafter appropriated for the conduct of in-service training programs for public school certificated and classified personnel and to supervise the conduct of such programs. The superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW that provide for the allocation of such funds to public school district or educational service district applicants on such conditions and for such training programs as he or she deems to be in the best interest of the public school system: PROVIDED, That each district requesting such funds shall have:

(1) Conducted a district needs assessment, including plans developed at the building level, to be reviewed and updated at least every two years, of certificated and classified personnel to determine identified strengths and weakness of personnel that would be strengthened by such in-service training program;

(2) Demonstrate that the plans are consistent with the goals of basic education;

(3) Established an in-service training task force and demonstrated to the superintendent of public instruction that the task force has participated in identifying in-service training needs and goals; and

~~((3))~~ (4) Demonstrated to the superintendent of public instruction its intention to implement the recommendations of the needs assessment and thereafter the progress it has made in providing in-service training as identified in the needs assessment.

The task force required by this section shall be composed of representatives from the ranks of administrators, building principals, teachers, classified and support personnel employed by the applicant school district or educational service district, from the public, and from an institution(s) of higher education, in such numbers as shall be established by the school district board of directors or educational service district board of directors.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 302. (1) The superintendent of public instruction shall appoint a temporary task force to: (a) Survey or otherwise identify state and local district requirements on teachers to complete various forms; (b) recommend to school districts ways in which local reporting requirements might be combined and streamlined; and (c) develop ways in which state reporting requirements might be combined and streamlined.

(2) This section shall expire June 30, 1988.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 303. A new section is added to chapter 28A.03 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The superintendent of public instruction, through the state clearinghouse for education information, resources, and research, shall collect and disseminate to all school districts and other interested parties, information about: (a) Existing school or school district model programs designed to enhance students' personal confidence and contribute to increased student performance; and (b) school organizational systems, including the "home room" concept, which tend to provide the structure and time necessary for students and teachers to recognize and appreciate their respective individuality.

(2) Teachers are encouraged to utilize the resources of the office of the superintendent of public instruction, including the clearinghouse, to acquire information about the relationship between personal confidence and student development and performance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 304. (1) Further academic research on the relationship of personal confidence to school performance and on factors which can influence student self-confidence, including class size, is critical to improving the learning environment. The state's public and private institutions of higher education and the Washington state institute for public policy are encouraged to support or undertake research on issues concerning the relationship between personal confidence and student achievement.

(2) Kindergarten through twelfth grade and higher education personnel are encouraged to apply for funds under RCW 28A.67.115 to support projects demonstrating the relationship between improved self-confidence and student performance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 305. Section 4, chapter 422, Laws of 1985 (uncodified) is hereby repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 306. Section 305 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect June 15, 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 307. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "systems;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 28A.71.210; adding a new section to chapter 28A.03 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 28A.04 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 28A.67 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 28A.70 RCW; adding a new section to Title 28B RCW; creating new sections; repealing section 4, chapter 422, Laws of 1985 (uncodified); providing expiration dates; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency."

MOTION

Senator Gaspard moved that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5479 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Senator Gaspard, what is the House position on the master's degree?"

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Metcalf, they have backed away somewhat from the requirement of an initial certificate, but the language still, in my opinion, is very unworkable in the requirement on a master's degree for continuing education."

Senator Metcalf: "Okay, just for my position, I have opposed very vigorously the requirement of a master's degree for teaching because of reasons I've given before. If that were the only part of the thing, I would vigorously disagree with Senator Gaspard. There may be other issues you may want to refuse to concur, but on that one, I think we probably should."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Gaspard that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5479.

The motion by Senator Gaspard carried and the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5479 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 5550 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 14, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5678 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 29, chapter 261, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 198, Laws of 1985 and by section 26, chapter 390, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28B.15.520 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter or chapter 28B.50 RCW as now or hereafter amended (1) boards of trustees of the various community colleges shall waive tuition fees and services and activities fees for students nineteen years of age or older who are eligible for resident tuition and fee rates as defined in RCW 28B.15.012 through 28B.15.015 and who enroll in a course of study or program which will enable them to finish their high school education and obtain a high school diploma or certificate, and (2) the various community college boards may waive the tuition and services and activities fees for children after the age of nineteen years of any law enforcement officer or fire fighter who lost his life or became totally disabled in the line of duty while employed by any public law enforcement agency or full time or volunteer fire department in this state.

(3) Boards of trustees of the various community colleges may waive residency requirements for students enrolled in that community college in a course of study or program which will enable them to finish their high school education and obtain a high school diploma or certificate. The waiver shall be in effect only for those courses which lead to a high school diploma or certificate.

(4) Boards of trustees of the various community colleges may waive the nonresident portion of tuition and fees for students enrolled in the regional education program for deaf students, subject to federal funding of such program. The first thirty-two students eligible for such a waiver will receive the tuition and fee waiver under the authority granted by RCW 28B.15.740 and such waivers shall be credited to the community college system as a whole. Any waivers that may be granted to additional eligible students under the authority of RCW 28B.15.740 will be credited to the college district admitting the students.

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rinehart, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendment to Senate Bill No. 5678 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 14, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5013 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 4, chapter 28, Laws of 1969 as amended by section 1, chapter 254, Laws of 1985 and RCW 35.79.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The hearing on such petition may be held before the legislative authority, or before a committee thereof upon the date fixed by resolution or at the time said hearing may be adjourned to. If the hearing is before such a committee the same shall, following the hearing, report its recommendation on the petition to the legislative authority which may adopt or reject the recommendation. If such hearing be held before such a committee it shall not be necessary to hold a hearing on the petition before such legislative authority. If the legislative authority determines to grant said petition or any part thereof, such city or town shall be authorized and have authority by ordinance to vacate such street, or alley, or any part thereof, and the ordinance may provide that it shall not become effective until the owners of property abutting upon the street or alley, or part thereof so vacated, shall compensate such city or town in an amount which does not exceed one-half the appraised value of the area so vacated, except in the event the subject property or portions thereof were acquired at public expense, compensation may be required in an amount equal to the full appraised value of the vacation: PROVIDED, That such ordinance may provide that the city retain an easement or the right to exercise and grant easements in respect to the vacated land for the construction, repair, and maintenance of public utilities and services(~~(-PROVIDED FURTHER, That no city or town shall be authorized or have authority to vacate such street, or alley, or any parts thereof if any portion thereof abuts on a body of salt or fresh water unless such vacation be sought to enable the city, town, port district or state to acquire the property for port purposes, boat moorage or launching sites, park, viewpoint, recreational, or educational purposes, or other public uses. This proviso shall not apply to industrial zoned property))~~). A certified copy of such ordinance shall be recorded by the clerk of the legislative authority and in the office of the auditor of the county in which the vacated land is located.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 35.79 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A city or town shall not vacate a street or alley if any portion of the street or alley abuts a body of fresh or salt water unless:

(a) The vacation is sought to enable the city or town to acquire the property for port purposes, beach or water access purposes, boat moorage or launching sites, park, public view, recreation, or educational purposes, or other public uses;

(b) The city or town, by resolution of its legislative authority, declares that the street or alley is not presently being used as a street or alley and that the street or alley is not suitable for any of the following purposes: Port, beach or water access, boat moorage, launching sites, park, public view, recreation, or education; or

(c) The vacation is sought to enable a city or town to implement a plan, adopted by resolution or ordinance, that provides comparable or improved public access to the same shoreline area to which the streets or alleys sought to be vacated abut, had the properties included in the plan not been vacated.

(2) Before adopting a resolution vacating a street or alley under subsection (1) (b) of this section, the city or town shall:

(a) Compile an inventory of all rights of way within the city or town that abut the same body of water that is abutted by the street or alley sought to be vacated;

(b) Conduct a study to determine if the street or alley to be vacated is suitable for use by the city or town for any of the following purposes: Port, boat moorage, launching sites, beach or water access, park, public view, recreation, or education;

(c) Hold a public hearing on the proposed vacation in the manner required by this chapter, where in addition to the normal requirements for publishing notice, notice of the public hearing is posted conspicuously on the street or alley sought to be vacated, which posted notice indicates that the area is public access, it is proposed to be vacated, and that anyone objecting to the proposed vacation should attend the public hearing or send a letter to a particular official indicating his or her objection; and

(d) Make a finding that the street or alley sought to be vacated is not suitable for any of the purposes listed under (b) of this subsection, and that the vacation is in the public interest.

(3) No vacation shall be effective until the fair market value has been paid for the street or alley that is vacated. Moneys received from the vacation may be used by the city or town only for acquiring additional beach or water access, acquiring additional public view sites to a body of water, or acquiring additional moorage or launching sites."

On page 1, beginning on line 1 of the title, after "vacations;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 35.79.030; and adding a new section to chapter 35.79 RCW."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 8, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5201, with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. No state employee may ask or receive, directly or indirectly, any compensation, gratuity, or reward, or promise thereof, for performing or for omitting or deferring the performance of any official duty, other than the compensation, costs, or fees provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. No state employee may be beneficially interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract, sale, lease, or purchase that may be made by, through, or under the supervision of the employee, in whole or in part, or accept, directly or indirectly, any compensation, gratuity, or reward from any other person beneficially interested therein.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. No state employee may employ or use any person, money, or property under the employee's official control or direction, or in his or her official custody, for the private benefit or gain of the employee or another.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) No former state employee may at any time subsequent to his or her state employment assist another person, whether or not for compensation, in any transaction involving the state in which the former state employee at any time participated during state employment. This subsection shall not be construed to prohibit any employee or officer of a state employee organization from rendering assistance to state employees in the course of employee organization business.

(2) No former state employee may share in any compensation received by another person for assistance that the former state employee is prohibited from rendering under subsection (1) of this section. This subsection shall not apply to former state employees who were required by statute to have been active members of the state bar association and subject to the code of professional responsibility.

(3) No former state employee may, within a period of one year from the date of termination of state employment, accept employment or receive compensation from any private business if (a) the state employee, during the two years immediately preceding termination of state employment, was engaged in the negotiation or administration on behalf of the state or agency of one or more contracts with that private business and was in a position to make discretionary decisions affecting the outcome of such negotiation or the nature of such administration, (b) such a contract or contracts have a total value of more than ten thousand dollars, and (c) the duties of the employment by the private business or the activities for which the compensation would be received from the private business include fulfilling or implementing, in whole or in part, the provisions of such a contract or contracts or include the supervision or control of actions taken to fulfill or implement, in whole or in part, the provisions of such a contract or contracts. This subsection shall not be construed to prevent a state employee from accepting employment with a state employee organization.

(4) No former state employee may accept an offer of employment or receive compensation from any private business if the state employee knows or has reason to believe that the offer of employment or compensation was intended, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, as compensation or reward for the performance or nonperformance of a duty by the state employee during the course of state employment.

(5) For the purposes of this section, the term "private business" includes any natural person, partnership, association, or corporation of any kind or description that is engaged in business activity in this state or elsewhere. If any natural person, closely associated or related group of natural persons, partnership, or corporation owns or controls two or more businesses, all of the businesses owned or controlled shall be defined as a single private business for the purposes of this section.

(6) This section shall not be construed to prevent a former state employee from rendering assistance to others if the assistance is provided without compensation in any form and is limited to one or more of the following:

(a) Providing the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of state agencies or state employees;

(b) Providing free transportation to another for the purpose of conducting business with a state agency;

(c) Assisting a natural person or nonprofit corporation in obtaining or completing application forms or other forms required by a state agency for the conduct of a state business; or

(d) Providing assistance to the poor and infirm.

(7) The permitted exceptions applicable to state employees under RCW 42.18.180 shall also be applicable to former state employees under this section, subject to conditions or limitations set forth in regulations issued pursuant to RCW 42.18.240.

Sec. 5. Section 23, chapter 234, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 42.18.230 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No person shall give, pay, loan, transfer, or deliver, directly or indirectly, to any other person any thing of economic value believing or having reason to believe that there exist circumstances making the receipt thereof a violation of RCW 42.18.170, 42.18.190, and ~~((42.18.220))~~ section 1 of this 1987 act.

(2) No person shall give, transfer, or deliver, directly or indirectly, to a state employee, any thing of economic value as a gift, gratuity, or favor if either:

(a) Such person would not give the gift, gratuity, or favor but for such employee's office or position with the state; or

(b) Such person is in a status specified in clause (a), (b), or (c) of RCW 42.18.200(2).

Exceptions to this subsection (2) may be made by regulations issued pursuant to RCW 42.18.240 in situations referred to in RCW 42.18.200(3).

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 16, chapter 234, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 42.18.160; and

(2) Section 22, chapter 234, Laws of 1969 ex. sess., section 1, chapter 85, Laws of 1984 and RCW 42.18.220.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. Sections 1 through 4 of this act are each added to chapter 42.18 RCW.

and the bill and the amendment are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 8, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5335, with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 7, chapter 189, Laws of 1967 and RCW 36.93.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The members of each boundary review board shall elect from its members a chairman, vice chairman, and shall employ a nonmember as chief clerk, who shall be the secretary of the board. The board shall determine its own rules and order of business and shall provide by resolution for the time and manner of holding all regular or special meetings(~~(-and)~~): PROVIDED, That all meetings shall be subject to chapter 42.30 RCW. The board shall keep a journal of its proceedings which shall be a public record. A majority of all the members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

The chief clerk of the board shall have the power to administer oaths and affirmations, certify to all official acts, issue subpoenas to any public officer or employee ordering him to testify before the board and produce public records, papers, books or documents. The chief clerk may invoke the aid of any court of competent jurisdiction to carry out such powers.

The board by rule may provide for hearings by panels of members consisting of not less than five board members, the number of hearing panels and members thereof, and for the impartial selection of panel members. A majority of a panel shall constitute a quorum thereof.

At the request of the board, the state attorney general, or at the board's option, the county prosecuting attorney, shall provide counsel for the board.

The planning departments of the county, other counties, and any city, and any state or regional planning agency shall furnish such information to the board at its request as may be reasonably necessary for the performance of its duties.

Each member of the board shall be compensated from the county current expense fund at the rate of twenty-five dollars per day, or a major portion thereof, for time actually devoted to the work of the boundary review board. Each board of county commissioners shall provide such funds as shall be necessary to pay the salaries of the members and staff, and such other expenses as shall be reasonably necessary.

Sec. 2. Section 7, chapter 10, Laws of 1982 as amended by section 28, chapter 281, Laws of 1985 and RCW 36.93.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any of the following described actions are proposed in a county in which a board has been established, the initiators of the action shall file within one hundred eighty days a notice of intention with the board(~~(-which)~~): PROVIDED, That when the initiator is the legislative body of a governmental unit, the notice of intention may be filed immediately following the body's first acceptance or approval of the action. The board may review any such proposed actions pertaining to:

(1) The: (a) Creation, incorporation, or change in the boundary, other than a consolidation, of any city, town, or special purpose district; (b) consolidation of special purpose districts, but not including consolidation of cities and towns; or (c) dissolution or disincorporation of any city, town, or special purpose district, except that a board may not review the dissolution or disincorporation of a special purpose district which was dissolved or disincorporated pursuant to the provisions of chapter 36.96 RCW: PROVIDED, That the change in the boundary of a city or town arising from the annexation of contiguous city or town owned property held for a public purpose shall be exempted from the requirements of this section; or

(2) The assumption by any city or town of all or part of the assets, facilities, or indebtedness of a special purpose district which lies partially within such city or town; or

(3) The establishment of or change in the boundaries of a mutual water and sewer system or separate sewer system by a water district pursuant to RCW 57.08.065 or chapter 57.40 RCW, as now or hereafter amended; or

(4) The establishment of or change in the boundaries of a mutual sewer and water system or separate water system by a sewer district pursuant to RCW 56.20.015 or chapter 56.36 RCW, as now or hereafter amended; or

(5) The extension of permanent water or sewer service outside of its existing corporate boundaries by a city, town, or special purpose district.

Sec. 3. Section 10, chapter 189, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 1, chapter 76, Laws of 1983 and RCW 36.93.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall review and approve, disapprove, or modify any of the actions set forth in RCW 36.93.090 when any of the following shall occur within ~~((sixty))~~ forty-five days of the filing of a notice of intention:

(1) ~~((The chairman or any))~~ Three members of ((the)) a five-member boundary review board or five members of a boundary review board in a class AA county files a request for review: PROVIDED, That the members of the boundary review board shall not be authorized to file a request for review of the following actions:

(a) The incorporation or change in the boundary of any city, town, or special purpose district;

(b) The extension of permanent water service outside of its existing corporate boundaries by a city, town, or special purpose district where such extension is through the installation of water mains of six inches or less in diameter; or

(c) The extension of permanent sewer service outside of its existing corporate boundaries by a city, town, or special purpose district where such extension is through the installation of sewer mains of eight inches or less in diameter;

(2) Any governmental unit affected, or the county within which the area of the proposed action is located, files a request for review of the specific action;

(3) A petition requesting review is filed and is signed by:

(a) Five percent of the registered voters residing within the area which is being considered for the proposed action (as determined by the boundary review board in its discretion subject to immediate review by writ of certiorari to the superior court); or

(b) An owner or owners of property consisting of five percent of the assessed valuation within such area;

(4) The majority of the members of boundary review boards concur with a request for review when a petition requesting the review is filed by five percent of the registered voters who deem themselves affected by the action and reside within one-quarter mile of the proposed action but not within the jurisdiction proposing the action.

If a period of ~~((sixty))~~ forty-five days shall elapse without the board's jurisdiction having been invoked as set forth in this section, the proposed action shall be deemed approved.

If a review of a proposal is requested, the board shall make a finding as prescribed in RCW 36.93.150 within one hundred twenty days after the filing of such a request for review. If this period of one hundred twenty days shall elapse without the board making a finding as prescribed in RCW 36.93.150, the proposal shall be deemed approved unless the board and the person who submitted the proposal agree to an extension of the one hundred twenty day period.

Sec. 4. Section 11, chapter 189, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 42, chapter 195, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 36.93.110 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((In case of annexation to a city or a town:))~~ Where ((the)) an area proposed for annexation is less than ten acres and less than ((eight hundred thousand)) two million dollars in assessed valuation, the chairman of the review board may by written statement declare that review by the board is not necessary for the protection of the interest of the various parties, in which case the board shall not review such annexation.

Sec. 5. Section 12, chapter 189, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 6, chapter 111, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 36.93.120 are each amended to read as follows:

A fee of ~~((twenty-five))~~ fifty dollars shall be paid by all initiators and in addition if the jurisdiction of the review board is invoked pursuant to RCW 36.93.100, the person or entity seeking review, except for the boundary review board itself, shall pay to the county treasurer and place in the county current expense fund the ~~((sum))~~ fee of ~~((one))~~ two hundred dollars.

Sec. 6. Section 13, chapter 189, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 7, chapter 111, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 36.93.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The notice of intention shall contain the following information:

- (1) The nature of the action sought;
- (2) A brief statement of the reasons for the proposed action;
- (3) The legal description of the boundaries proposed to be created, abolished or changed by such action: PROVIDED, That the legal description may be altered, with concurrence of the initiators of the proposed action, if a person designated by the county legislative authority as one who has expertise in legal descriptions makes a determination that the legal description is erroneous; and

(4) A county assessor's map on which the boundaries proposed to be created, abolished or changed by such action are designated: PROVIDED, That at the discretion of the boundary review board a map other than the county assessor's map may be accepted.

Sec. 7. Section 15, chapter 189, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 13, chapter 5, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 36.93.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The board, upon review of any proposed action, shall take such of the following actions as it deems necessary to best carry out the intent of this chapter:

- (1) Approval of the proposal as submitted;
- (2) Subject to RCW 35.02.170, modification of the proposal by adjusting boundaries to add or delete territory: PROVIDED, That any proposal for annexation by the board shall be subject to RCW 35.21.010 and shall not add additional territory, the amount of which is greater than that included in the original proposal; PROVIDED FURTHER, That such modifications shall not interfere with the authority of a city, town, or special purpose district to require or not require preannexation agreements, covenants, or petitions;
- (3) Determination of a division of assets and liabilities between two or more governmental units where relevant;
- (4) Determination whether, or the extent to which, functions of a special purpose district are to be assumed by an incorporated city or town, metropolitan municipal corporation, or another existing special purpose district; or
- (5) Disapproval of the proposal except that the board shall not have jurisdiction to disapprove the dissolution or disincorporation of a special purpose district which is not providing services but shall have jurisdiction over the determination of a division of the assets and liabilities of a dissolved or disincorporated special purpose district: PROVIDED, That a board shall not have jurisdiction over the division of assets and liabilities of a special purpose district that is dissolved or disincorporated pursuant to chapter 36.96 RCW.

Unless the board shall disapprove a proposal, it shall be presented under the appropriate statute for approval of a public body and, if required, a vote of the people. A proposal that has been modified shall be presented under the appropriate statute for approval of a public body and if required, a vote of the people. If a proposal, other than that for a city, town, or special purpose district annexation, after modification does not contain enough signatures of persons within the modified area, as are required by law, then the initiating party, parties or governmental unit has thirty days after the modification decision to secure enough signatures to satisfy the legal requirement. If the signatures cannot be secured then the proposal may be submitted to a vote of the people, as required by law.

The addition or deletion of property by the board shall not invalidate a petition which had previously satisfied the sufficiency of signature provisions of RCW 35.13.130 or 35A.14.120. When the board, after due proceedings held, disapproves a proposed action, such proposed action shall be unavailable, the proposing agency shall be without power to initiate the same or substantially the same as determined by the board, and any succeeding acts intended to or tending to effectuate that action shall be void, but such action may be reinitiated after a period of twelve months from date of disapproval and shall again be subject to the same consideration.

The board shall not modify or deny a proposed action unless there is evidence on the record to support a conclusion that the action is inconsistent with one or more of the objectives under RCW 36.93.180. Every such determination to modify or deny a proposed action shall be made in writing pursuant to a motion, and shall be supported by appropriate written findings and conclusions, based on the record.

Sec. 8. Section 16, chapter 189, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 97, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 36.93.160 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the jurisdiction of the boundary review board has been invoked, the board shall set the date, time and place for a public hearing on the proposal. The board shall give at least thirty days' advance written notice of the date, time and place of the hearing to the governing body of each governmental unit having jurisdiction within the boundaries of the territory proposed to be annexed, formed, incorporated, disincorporated, dissolved or consolidated, or within the boundaries of a special district whose assets and facilities are proposed to be assumed by a city or town, and to the governing body of each city within three miles of the exterior boundaries of such area and to the proponent of such change. Notice shall also be given by publication in any newspaper of general circulation in the area of the proposed boundary change at least three times, the last publication of which shall be not less than five days prior to the date set for the public hearing. Notice shall also be posted in ten public places in the area affected for five days when the area is ten acres or more. When the area affected is less than ten acres, five notices shall be posted in five public places for five days. ~~((If the board after such hearing shall determine to modify the proposal by adding territory, then the board shall set a date, time and place for an additional hearing on the modification, for which notice shall be given as provided in this subsection:))~~ Notice as provided in this subsection shall include any territory which the board has determined to consider adding in accordance with RCW 36.93.150(2).

(2) A verbatim record shall be made of all testimony presented at the hearing and upon request and payment of the reasonable costs thereof, a copy of the transcript of such testimony shall be provided to any person or governmental unit.

(3) The chairman upon majority vote of the board or a panel may direct the chief clerk of the boundary review board to issue subpoenas to any public officer to testify, and to compel the production by him of any records, books, documents, public records or public papers.

(4) Within forty days after the conclusion of the final hearing on the proposal, the board shall file its written decision, setting forth the reasons therefor, with the board of county commissioners and the clerk of each governmental unit directly affected. The written decision shall indicate whether the proposed change is approved, rejected or modified and, if modified, the terms of such modification. The written decision need not include specific data on every factor required to be considered by the board, but shall indicate that all standards were given consideration. Dissenting members of the board shall have the right to have their written dissents included as part of the decision.

(5) Unanimous decisions of the hearing panel or a decision of a majority of the members of the board shall constitute the decision of the board and shall not be appealable to the whole board. Any other decision shall be appealable to the entire board within ten days. Appeals shall be on the record, which shall be furnished by the appellant, but the board may, in its sole discretion, permit the introduction of additional evidence and argument. Decisions shall be final and conclusive unless within ten days from the date of said action a governmental unit affected by the decision or any person owning real property or residing in the area affected by the decision files in the superior court a notice of appeal.

The filing of such notice of appeal within such time limit shall stay the effective date of the decision of the board until such time as the appeal shall have been adjudicated or withdrawn. On appeal the superior court shall not take any evidence other than that contained in the record of the hearing before the board.

(6) The superior court may affirm the decision of the board or remand the case for further proceedings; or it may reverse the decision if any substantial rights may have been prejudiced because the administrative findings, inferences, conclusions, or decisions are:

- (a) In violation of constitutional provisions, or
- (b) In excess of the statutory authority or jurisdiction of the board, or
- (c) Made upon unlawful procedure, or
- (d) Affected by other error of law, or
- (e) Unsupported by material and substantial evidence in view of the entire record as submitted, or
- (f) Arbitrary or capricious.

An aggrieved party may secure a review of any final judgment of the superior court by appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals. Such appeal shall be taken in the manner provided by law for appeals from the superior court in other civil cases."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "boards;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and amending RCW 36.93.070, 36.93.090, 36.93.100, 36.93.110, 36.93.120, 36.93.130, 36.93.150, and 36.93.160."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 14, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5520 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 8, chapter 397, Laws of 1985 and RCW 35.51.040 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of securing the payment of the principal of and interest on an issue of local improvement bonds, notes, warrants, or other short-term obligations, the legislative authority of a municipality may create a reserve fund in an amount not exceeding fifteen percent of the principal amount of the bonds, notes, or warrants issued. The cost of a reserve fund may be included in the cost and expense of any local improvement for assessment against the property in the local improvement district to pay the cost, or any part thereof. The reserve fund may be provided for from the proceeds of the bonds, notes, warrants, or other short-term obligations, from special assessment payments, or from any other money legally available therefor. The legislative authority of a municipality shall provide that after payment of administrative costs a sum in proportion to the ratio between the part of the original assessment against a given lot, tract, or parcel of land in a local improvement district assessed to create a reserve fund, if any, and the total original amount of such assessment, plus a proportionate share of any interest accrued in the reserve fund, shall be credited and applied, respectively, to any nondelinquent portion of the principal of that assessment and any nondelinquent installment interest on that assessment paid by a property owner, but in no event may the principal amount of bonds outstanding exceed the principal amount of assessments outstanding. Whether the payment is made during the thirty-day prepayment period referred to in RCW 35.49.010 and 35.49.020 or thereafter and whenever all or part of a remaining nondelinquent assessment or any nondelinquent installment payment of principal and interest is paid, the reserve fund balance shall be reduced accordingly as each such sum is thus credited and applied to a nondelinquent principal payment and a nondelinquent interest payment. Each payment of a nondelinquent assessment or any nondelinquent installment payment of principal and interest shall be reduced by the amount of the credit. The balance of a reserve fund remaining after payment in full and retirement of all local improvement bonds, notes, warrants, or other short-term obligations secured by such fund shall be transferred to the municipality's guaranty fund.

Where, before the effective date of this section, a municipality established a reserve fund under this section that did not provide for a credit or reimbursement of the money remaining in the reserve fund to the owners of the lots, tracts, or parcels of property subject to the assessments, the balance in the reserve fund shall be distributed, after payment in full and retirement of all local improvement district bonds and other obligations secured by the reserve fund, to those owners of the lots, tracts, or parcels of property subject to the assessments at the time the final installment or assessment payment on the lot, tract, or parcel was made. No owner is eligible to receive reimbursement for a lot, tract, or parcel if a lien on an unpaid assessment, or an installment thereon, that was imposed on such property remains in effect at the time the reimbursement is made or was foreclosed on the property. The amount to be distributed to the owners of each lot, tract, or parcel that is eligible for reimbursement shall be equal to the balance in the reserve fund, multiplied by the assessment imposed on the lot, tract, or parcel, divided by the total of all the assessments on the lots, tracts, or parcels eligible for reimbursement."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "districts," strike the remainder of the title and insert "and amending RCW 35.51.040."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 16, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5439 with the following amendments:

On page 4, after line 20, insert the following:

"Sec. 7. Section 2, chapter 307, Laws of 1986 and RCW 36.37.160 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If requested by a county legislative authority, the department of natural resources shall negotiate a lease, or may negotiate a sale or exchange of lands to the county at fair market value, for any requested portion of the state lands directly adjacent to buildings on the Northern State Hospital site that were transferred to the department under chapter 178, Laws of 1974 ex. sess., if not otherwise prohibited, to the county to use for the purpose of establishing county fairgrounds (~~(-However, the)~~ and a regional destination tourist attraction.

(2) If a portion is to be leased, it shall be contiguous and compact, of an area not to exceed two hundred fifty acres and shall be segregated in such a manner that the remaining portion of these state lands can be efficiently managed by the department. The lease shall be for as long as the county is actually using the land as the site of the county fairgrounds. Notwithstanding chapter 178, Laws of 1974 ex. sess., the department shall charge the county the sum of one thousand dollars per year for the lease of such lands and this sum may be periodically adjusted to compensate the department for any increased costs in administration of the lease. The lease shall contain provisions directing payment of all assessments and authorizing the county to place any improvements on the leased lands if the improvements are consistent with the purposes of county fairs.

(3) If the property is to be sold, any proceeds received by the department from the sale of the property shall be deposited in the park land trust revolving fund, to be utilized by the department of natural resources in the same manner as set forth in RCW 43.51.270(4).

On page 1, on line 2 of the title, after "RCW" insert "36.37.160."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Vognild moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5439.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Owen: "Mr. President, I challenge the House amendments on scope and object."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Owen, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5439 is a measure designating the Department of Natural Resources as the agency responsible for surveys and maps and creating the surveys and maps account in the general fund.

"The amendments proposed by the House of Representatives allow for the sale or exchange of Department of Natural Resources land adjacent to Northern State Hospital, provides for the use of that land and the proceeds from the sale or exchange.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments do change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendments by the House of Representatives were ruled out of order.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, the motion to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5439 was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Owen, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5439 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 16, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has adopted ENGROSSED SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 8406 with the following amendment:

On page 1, line 1, after "WHEREAS," strike the remainder of the resolution and insert the following:

"Sport and commercial fishing on the Pacific Coast plays a vital role in economic development; and

WHEREAS, Management of coastal fisheries involves many user groups, government agencies and individual legislatures, but does not involve a coordinated approach among individual states; and

WHEREAS, Each state's legislature plays an important role in developing state fisheries management policies and that the entire Pacific Coast benefits from fisheries enhancement; and

WHEREAS, There is an obvious need for developing means for protecting and fostering Pacific fishing so as to maximize yield while protecting the resource for future generations; and

WHEREAS, The subjects that require interstate cooperation are many and know no state boundaries;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the state of Washington, the House of Representatives concurring, That the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, joining with the presiding officers of the other jurisdictions shall appoint, respectively, two senators and two representatives to represent Washington on the Pacific Fisheries Legislative Task Force, which shall operate as a clearinghouse for opinions from all the various interests involved in Pacific fishing, and which shall include among its duties the duty to report to the legislatures of the participating jurisdictions and to the state delegations in the United States Congress concerning means of protecting and fostering Pacific fishing in the participating jurisdictions: PROVIDED, That representatives of the state of Washington shall attend no more than four meetings annually; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution shall be sent to the presiding officers of the legislatures of Alaska, California, Idaho, and Oregon."

and the resolution and the amendment are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Vognild moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8406.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Owen: "Mr. President, I challenge the House amendment on the grounds that it expands the scope and object of the bill. What this bill originally did was it created a joint committee on marine and ocean resources to monitor what the federal government was going to do on oil and gas leases and access other uses of the ocean. What the amendment does is that it strikes all of that language and it creates a specific legislative fishery task force. The only connection I can find between the two is, if you travel to California which is one of the states on the ocean, to Washington State to attend the meeting. As far as any connection to the original bill, it has none. Therefore, I feel it is totally beyond the scope and object of the original bill."

Debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Owen, the President finds that Engrossed Senate Concurrent No. 8406 is a measure creating the Joint Committee on Marine and Ocean Resources.

"The amendment proposed by the House of Representatives provides for Washington representation on the Pacific Fisheries Legislative Task Force.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment by the House of Representatives was ruled out of order.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, the motion to concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8406 was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Owen, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8406 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 13, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5846 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 43.51 RCW to read as follows:

Law enforcement authorities, fire departments, or search and rescue units of any city or county government shall provide to the commission a report, prepared by the local government agency regarding any boating accident occurring within their jurisdiction resulting in a death or injury requiring hospitalization. Such report shall be provided to the commission within ten days of the occurrence of the accident. The results of any investigation of the accident conducted by the city or county governmental agency shall be included in the report provided to the commission. At the earliest opportunity, but in no case more than forty-eight hours after becoming aware of an accident, the agency shall notify the commission of the accident. The commission shall have authority to investigate any boating accident. The results of any investigation conducted by the commission shall be made available to the local government for further processing. This provision does not eliminate the requirement for a boating accident report by the operator required under RCW 88.02.080.

The report of a county coroner, or any public official assuming the functions of a coroner, concerning the death of any person resulting from a boating accident, shall be submitted to the commission within one week of completion. Information in such report may be, together with information in other such reports, incorporated into the state boating accident report provided for in RCW 43.51.400(5), and shall be for the confidential usage of governmental agencies as provided in RCW 43.51.402.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 43.51 RCW to read as follows:

There is hereby established a fourteen-member boating safety advisory committee. The purpose of the committee shall be to advise the commission on issues regarding boating safety, including the allocation and expenditure of funds designated for such purposes. Membership shall consist of one representative from each of the following interest areas, organizations, groups, or agencies: United States coast guard (nonvoting); United States coast guard auxiliary; a regional marine trade organization; state or regional boating interests; local sailing interests; a human-powered boating organization; a state-wide sportsmen's organization; United States power squadron; association of Washington cities; Washington state association of counties; Washington state parks and recreation commission (nonvoting); and three members at large.

Representatives shall serve for a period of two years. The committee shall be the successor to the existing boating safety task force which currently advises the commission on boating safety issues. Members of the task force shall continue to serve on the committee until expiration of current terms. Appointments to the committee shall be made by the parks and recreation commission, with the advice of the organization to be represented. Members of the committee may be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 43.51 RCW to read as follows:

The parks and recreation commission is hereby directed to develop and adopt rules establishing a uniform waterway marking system for waters of the state not serviced by such a marking system administered by the federal government. Such system shall be designed to provide for standardized waterway marking buoys, floats, and other waterway marking devices which identify or specify waterway hazards, vessel traffic patterns, and similar information of necessity or use to boaters. Any new or replacement waterway marking buoy, float, or device installed by a unit of local government shall be designed and installed consistent with rules adopted by the parks and recreation commission pursuant to this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 43.51 RCW to read as follows:

The parks and recreation commission shall conduct a study of boating accidents and boating safety services in Washington including a review of how the local option tax for funding of boating safety enforcement is used. Further the parks and recreation commission shall develop recommendations to address identified problems and report these recommendations to the legislature by January 2, 1988.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 43.51 RCW to read as follows:

In order to promote greater boating safety and cooperation between local governments which provide marine patrol and/or boating safety services the commission shall adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary to implement the following program:

(1) Revenues to local government from the provisions of chapter 82.49 RCW shall be distributed in accordance with an interlocal agreement among the county, cities, and towns within the county which provide marine patrol and or boating safety services.

(2) Revenues derived under the provisions of chapter 82.49 RCW shall be equitably distributed among the local governments involved in the interlocal agreement as provided in the agreement or described herein.

(3) The parties to the interlocal agreement must agree that the commission shall resolve all disputes that arise under the agreement including disputes about equitable distribution.

(4) The parties must agree to pay a reasonable fee to the commission, as established by the commission, to cover the cost of administering these interlocal agreements.

(5) No moneys received under chapter 82.49 RCW may be expended except as provided herein."

and the bill and the amendment are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Kreidler moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5846.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Kreidler: "Mr. President, I am taking a look at this bill and I have some concerns about New Section 4 and New Section 5. I am wondering if they would be within the scope and object of the bill, since it doesn't seem to relate to the primary emphasis of the bill that we sent over to the House. I wonder if we could get a scope and object ruling on that and, if you agree that it is out, give me an opportunity to make a motion to do not concur."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Kreidler, the President finds that Substitute Senate Bill No. 5846 is a measure establishing boating safety regulations.

"The amendment proposed by the House of Representatives, among other things, provides a mechanism for distribution from local excise taxes for boating safety enforcement and requires the Parks and Recreation Commission to mediate disputes involving this distribution.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment by the House of Representatives was ruled out of order.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Kreidler, the motion to concur in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5846 was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Kreidler, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5846 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5163 and the pending motion by Senator Vognild that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5163.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Wojahn: "Mr. President, a point of order. I believe the amendments to this bill expand the scope and object. These amendments would make the midwives and several others, not have to pay--if they have fewer than one hundred members, they would not have to pay at the greater rate that has now been assigned to them."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Wojahn, the President finds that Substitute Senate Bill No. 5163 is a measure changing provisions relating to midwives.

"The amendments proposed by the House of Representatives, among other things, prohibit the Department of Licensing from increasing licensing fees for acupuncturists, debt adjusters, midwives and ocularists.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments do change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendments by the House of Representatives were ruled out of order.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Vognild that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5163.

The motion by Senator Vognild carried and the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5163 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 16, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5622 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 399, Laws of 1985 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules to establish and operate a beginning teachers assistance ((pilot)) program ((to operate during the first year after this section takes effect for one hundred mentor teachers and during the second year after this section takes effect for up to one thousand mentor teachers. The results of the program shall be reported to the legislature not later than two and one-half years from the effective date of this section)). For the purposes of this section, the terms "mentor teachers" and "beginning teachers" may include any person possessing any one of the various certificates issued by the superintendent of public instruction under RCW 28A.70.005. The program shall provide for:

(1) Assistance by ((a)) mentor teachers who will provide a source of continuing and sustained support to ((a)) beginning teachers, both in and outside the classroom. ((Mentor teachers shall be selected so as to represent a reasonable distribution throughout all nine educational service districts)) The mentor teachers shall also periodically inform their principals respecting the contents of training sessions and other program activities;

(2) Stipends for mentor teachers which shall not be deemed compensation for the purposes of salary lid compliance under RCW 28A.58.095: PROVIDED, That stipends shall not be subject to the continuing contract provisions of this title ((28A-RCW));

(3) Workshops for the training of mentor and beginning teachers;

(4) The use of substitutes to give ((the)) mentor teachers and beginning teachers opportunities to jointly observe and evaluate teaching situations and to give ((the)) mentor teachers opportunities to observe and assist ((the)) beginning teachers in the classroom: ((and))

(5) ~~((A))~~ Mentor teachers ~~((to be a))~~ who are superior teachers based on ~~((his or her))~~ their evaluations ~~((and to))~~ who hold ~~((a))~~ valid continuing certificates;

(6) Periodic consultation by the superintendent of public instruction or the superintendent's designee with representatives of educational organizations and associations, including educational service districts and public and private institutions of higher education, for the purposes of improving communication and cooperation and program review; and

(7) A report to the legislature describing the results of the program to be delivered not later than December 31, 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Section 1 of this act is added to chapter 28A.67 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 28A.67 RCW to read as follows:

(1) No person may be admitted to a professional teacher preparation program within Washington state without first demonstrating that he or she is competent in the basic skills.

(2) For persons applying for the 1988-89 school year and thereafter, if standardized tests approved by the state board of education are used to determine competency, a passing grade shall be not less than the median score for all students taking that test who were admitted in the prior school year to that institution of higher education.

(3) The state board of education shall adopt rules to implement this section. The rules shall provide for equivalent scores on comparable portions of other standardized tests.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 28A.67 RCW to read as follows:

The state board of education shall adopt a uniform state exit examination for teacher certification candidates to be administered at the end of the teacher preparation program. Commencing January 1, 1991, teacher certification candidates completing a teacher preparation program shall be required to pass an exit examination before being granted an initial certificate. The examination shall test knowledge and competence in subjects including, but not limited to, instructional skills, classroom management, and student behavior and development. The examination shall consist primarily of essay questions. The state board of education shall adopt such rules as may be necessary to implement this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 28A.67 RCW to read as follows:

The state board of education shall, no later than January 1, 1990, recommend to the legislature whether all teacher candidates should be required to pass a written subject matter examination. Before making its recommendations, the board shall administer sample endorsement subject matter examinations to a sample number of teacher candidates who qualify to receive endorsements on the basis of other criteria. A limited number of endorsement areas shall be selected for sample testing. The results of such tests shall be made available to the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect June 15, 1987."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "teachers;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 1, chapter 399, Laws of 1985 (uncodified); adding new sections to chapter 28A.67 RCW; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

Senator Vognild moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5622.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Gaspard: "Mr. President, I wish to challenge the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5622 on the grounds that they expand the scope and object of the bill."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Gaspard, the President finds that Substitute Senate Bill No. 5622 is a measure continuing the beginning teacher's assistance program.

"The amendments proposed by the House of Representatives, among other things, add numerous provisions relating to teacher testing.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments do change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendments by the House of Representatives were ruled out of order.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, the motion to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5622 was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5622 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 16, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5206 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

Sec. 1. Section 3, chapter 125, Laws of 1951 as last amended by section 1, chapter 357, Laws of 1985 and RCW 2.08.061 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be in the county of King no more than ~~((thirty-nine))~~ forty-six judges of the superior court; in the county of Spokane ten judges of the superior court; and in the county of Pierce fifteen judges of the superior court.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 125, Laws of 1951 as last amended by section 2, chapter 357, Laws of 1985 and RCW 2.08.062 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be in the counties of Chelan and Douglas jointly, ~~((two))~~ three judges of the superior court; in the county of Clark six judges of the superior court; in the county of Grays Harbor two judges of the superior court; in the county of Kitsap five judges of the superior court; in the county of Kittitas one judge of the superior court; in the county of Lewis two judges of the superior court.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 259, Laws of 1957 as amended by section 1, chapter 132, Laws of 1981 and RCW 2.56.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The administrator for the courts shall, under the supervision and direction of chief justice:

(1) Examine the administrative methods and systems employed in the offices of the judges, clerks, stenographers, and employees of the courts and make recommendations, through the chief justice, for the improvement of the same;

(2) Examine the state of the dockets of the courts and determine the need for assistance by any court;

(3) Make recommendations to the chief justice relating to the assignment of judges where courts are in need of assistance and carry out the direction of the chief justice as to the assignments of judges to counties and districts where the courts are in need of assistance;

(4) Collect and compile statistical and other data and make reports of the business transacted by the courts and transmit the same to the chief justice to the end that proper action may be taken in respect thereto;

(5) Prepare and submit budget estimates of state appropriations necessary for the maintenance and operation of the judicial system and make recommendations in respect thereto;

(6) Collect statistical and other data and make reports relating to the expenditure of public moneys, state and local, for the maintenance and operation of the judicial system and the offices connected therewith;

(7) Obtain reports from clerks of courts in accordance with law or rules adopted by the supreme court of this state on cases and other judicial business in which action has been delayed beyond periods of time specified by law or rules of court and make report thereof to supreme court of this state;

(8) Act as secretary of the judicial conference referred to in RCW 2.56.060;

(9) Formulate and submit to the judicial council of this state recommendations of policies for the improvement of the judicial system: ~~((and))~~

(10) Submit annually, as of February 1st, to the chief justice and the judicial council, a report of the activities of the administrator's office for the preceding calendar year;

(11) Administer programs and standards for the training and education of judicial personnel;

(12) Examine the need for new superior court and district judge positions under a weighted caseload analysis that takes into account the time required to hear all the cases in a particular court and the amount of time existing judges have available to hear cases in that court. The results of the weighted caseload analysis shall be reviewed by the board for judicial administration and the judicial council, both of which shall make recommendations to the legislature by January 1, 1989. It is the intent of the legislature that weighted caseload analysis become the basis for creating additional district court positions, and recommendations should address that objective; and

(13) Attend to such other matters as may be assigned by the supreme court of this state.

Sec. 4. Section 1, chapter 126, Laws of 1913 as last amended by section 1, chapter 244, Laws of 1957 and RCW 2.32.180 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be and is the duty of each and every superior court judge in counties or judicial districts in the state of Washington having a population of over thirty-five thousand inhabitants to appoint, or said judge may, in any county or judicial district having a population of over twenty-five thousand and less than thirty-five thousand, appoint a stenographic reporter to be attached to the court holden by him who shall have had at least three years' experience as a skilled, practical reporter, or who upon examination shall be able to report and transcribe accurately one hundred and seventy-five words per minute of the judge's charge or two hundred words per minute of testimony each for five consecutive minutes; said test of proficiency, in event of inability to meet qualifications as to length of time of experience, to be given by an examining committee composed of one judge of the superior court and two official reporters of the superior court of the state of Washington, appointed by the president judge of the superior court judges association of the state of Washington; PROVIDED, That a stenographic reporter shall not be required to be appointed for the seven additional judges of the superior court authorized for appointment by section 1 of this 1987 act. The initial judicial appointee shall serve for a period of six years; the two initial reporter appointees shall serve for a period of four years and two years, respectively, from September 1, 1957; thereafter on expiration of the first term of service, each newly appointed member of said examining committee to serve for a period of six years. In the event of death or inability of a member to serve, the president judge shall appoint a reporter or judge, as the case may be, to serve for the balance of the unexpired term of the member whose inability to serve caused such vacancy. The examining committee shall grant certificates to qualified applicants. Administrative and procedural rules and regulations shall be promulgated by said examining committee, subject to approval by the said president judge.

The stenographic reporter upon appointment shall thereupon become an officer of the court and shall be designated and known as the official reporter for the court or judicial district for which he is appointed; PROVIDED, That in no event shall there be appointed more official reporters in any one county or judicial district than there are superior court judges in such county or judicial district; the appointments in each class AA county shall be made by the majority vote of the judges in said county acting en banc; the appointments in class A counties and counties of the first class may be made by each individual judge therein or by the judges in said county acting en banc. Each official reporter so appointed shall hold office during the term of office of the judge or judges appointing him, but may be removed for incompetency, misconduct or neglect of duty, and before entering upon the discharge of his duties shall take an oath to perform faithfully the duties of his office, and file a bond in the sum of two thousand dollars for the faithful discharge of his duties. Such reporter in each court is hereby declared to be a necessary part of the judicial system of the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. Sections 1 and 2 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1988. The additional judicial positions created by sections 1 and 2 of this act in King county and Chelan and Douglas counties shall be effective only if each county through its duly constituted legislative authority documents its approval of any additional positions and its agreement that it will pay out of county funds, without reimbursement from the state, the expenses of such additional judicial positions as provided by statute. The additional expenses include, but are not limited to, expenses incurred for court facilities. The legislative authority of each county may in its discretion phase in any additional judicial positions over a period of time not to extend beyond January 1, 1990.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "judges," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 2.08.061, 2.08.062, 2.56.030, and 2.32.180; and creating a new section."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 14, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5063 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 1 through 6 of this act.

(1) "Applicant" means either:

(a) Any prospective employee who will or may have unsupervised access to children under sixteen years of age or developmentally disabled persons during the course of his or her employment or involvement with the business or organization. However, for school districts and educational service districts, prospective employee includes only noncertificated personnel; or

(b) Any prospective volunteer who will have regularly scheduled unsupervised access to children under sixteen years of age or developmentally disabled persons during the course of his or her employment or involvement with the business or organization under circumstances where such access will or may involve groups of (i) five or fewer children under twelve years of age, (ii) three or fewer children between twelve and sixteen years of age, or (iii) developmentally disabled persons.

(2) "Business or organization" means a business or organization licensed in this state, any agency of the state, or other governmental entity, that educates, trains, treats, supervises, or provides recreation to developmentally disabled persons or children under sixteen years of age, including school districts and educational service districts.

(3) "Civil adjudication" means a specific court finding of sexual abuse or exploitation or physical abuse in a dependency action under RCW 13.34.030(2)(b) or in a domestic relations action under Title 26 RCW. It does not include administrative proceedings. The term "civil adjudication" is further limited to court findings that identify as the perpetrator of the abuse a named individual, over the age of eighteen years, who was a party to the dependency or dissolution proceeding in which the finding was made and who contested the allegation of abuse or exploitation.

(4) "Conviction record" means criminal history record information as defined in RCW 10.97.030 relating to a crime against persons committed by either an adult or a juvenile. It does not include a conviction for an offense that has been the subject of an expungement, pardon, annulment, certificate of rehabilitation, or other equivalent procedure based on a finding of the rehabilitation of the person convicted, or a conviction that has been the subject of a pardon, annulment, or other equivalent procedure based on a finding of innocence. It does include convictions for offenses for which the defendant received a deferred or suspended sentence, unless the record has been expunged according to law.

(5) "Disciplinary board final decision" means any final decision issued by the disciplinary board or the director of the department of licensing for the following business or professions:

- (a) Chiropractic;
- (b) Dentistry;
- (c) Dental hygiene;
- (d) Drugless healing;
- (e) Massage;
- (f) Midwifery;
- (g) Osteopathy;
- (h) Physical therapy;
- (i) Physicians;
- (j) Practical nursing;
- (k) Registered nursing;
- (l) Psychology; and
- (m) Real estate brokers and salesmen.

(6) "Crime against persons" means a conviction of any of the following offenses: Aggravated murder; first or second degree murder; first or second degree kidnaping; first, second, or third degree assault; first, second, or third degree rape; first, second, or third degree statutory rape; first or second degree robbery; first degree arson; first degree burglary; first or second degree manslaughter; first or second degree extortion; indecent liberties; incest; vehicular homicide; first degree promoting prostitution; communication with a minor; unlawful imprisonment; simple assault; sexual exploitation of minors; first or second degree criminal mistreatment; or any of these crimes as they may be renamed in the future.

(7) "Unsupervised" means not in the presence of:

- (a) Another employee or volunteer from the same business or organization as the applicant; or
- (b) Any relative or guardian of any of the children or developmentally disabled persons to which the applicant has access during the course of his or her employment or involvement with the business or organization.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) The legislature finds that businesses and organizations providing services to children or developmentally disabled persons need adequate information to determine which employees or licensees to hire or engage. Therefore, the Washington state patrol criminal identification system may disclose, upon the request of a business or organization as defined in section 1 of this act, a prospective employee's record for convictions of offenses against persons, adjudications of child abuse in a civil action, and disciplinary board final decisions. When necessary, applicants may be employed on a conditional basis pending completion of such a background investigation.

(2) The legislature also finds that the state board of education may request of the Washington state patrol criminal identification system information regarding a certificate applicant's record for convictions under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) The legislature also finds that law enforcement agencies, the office of the attorney general, prosecuting authorities, and the department of social and health services may request this same information to aid in the investigation and prosecution of child and adult abuse cases and to protect children and adults from further incidents of abuse.

(4) The legislature further finds that the department of social and health services, when considering persons for state positions directly responsible for the care, supervision, or treatment of children or the developmentally disabled or when licensing or authorizing such persons or agencies pursuant to its authority under chapter 74.15 RCW, must consider the information listed in subsection (1) of this section. However, when necessary, persons may be employed on a conditional basis pending completion of the background investigation. The state personnel board shall adopt rules to accomplish the purposes of this subsection as it applies to state employees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) A business or organization shall not make an inquiry to the Washington state patrol under section 2 of this act or an equivalent inquiry to a federal law enforcement agency unless the business or organization has notified the applicant who has been offered a position as an employee or volunteer that an inquiry may be made.

(2) A business or organization shall require each applicant to disclose to the business or organization whether the applicant has been:

(a) Convicted of any crime against persons;

(b) Found in any dependency action under RCW 13.34.030(2)(b) to have sexually assaulted or exploited any minor or to have physically abused any minor;

(c) Found by a court in a domestic relations proceeding under Title 26 RCW to have sexually abused or exploited any minor or to have physically abused any minor; or

(d) Found in any disciplinary board final decision to have sexually abused or exploited any minor or to have physically abused any minor.

The disclosure shall be made in writing and signed by the applicant and sworn under penalty of perjury. The disclosure sheet shall specify all crimes against persons as defined in section 1 of this act.

(3) The business or organization shall pay such reasonable fee for the records check as the state patrol may require under section 5 of this act.

(4) The business or organization shall notify the applicant of the state patrol's response within ten days after receipt by the business or organization. The employer shall provide a copy of the response to the applicant and shall notify the applicant of such availability.

(5) The business or organization shall use this record only in making the initial employment or engagement decision. Further dissemination or use of the record is prohibited. A business or organization violating this subsection is subject to a civil action for damages.

(6) An insurance company shall not require a business or organization to request background information on any employee before issuing a policy of insurance.

(7) The business and organization shall be immune from civil liability for failure to request background information on a prospective employee or volunteer unless the failure to do so constitutes gross negligence.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. An individual may contact the state patrol to ascertain whether that same individual has a civil adjudication, disciplinary board final decision, or conviction record. The state patrol shall disclose such information, subject to the fee established under section 5 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. (1) After January 1, 1988, and notwithstanding any provision of RCW 43.43.700 through 43.43.810 to the contrary, the state patrol shall furnish a transcript of the conviction record, disciplinary board final decision, or civil adjudication record pertaining to any person for whom the state patrol or the federal bureau of investigation has a record upon the written request of:

(a) The subject of the inquiry;

(b) Any business or organization for the purpose of conducting evaluations under section 2 of this act;

(c) The department of social and health services;

(d) Any law enforcement agency, prosecuting authority, or the office of the attorney general; or

(e) The department of social and health services for the purpose of meeting responsibilities set forth in chapter 74.15 RCW. However, access to conviction records pursuant to this subsection (1)(e) does not limit or restrict the ability of the department to obtain additional information regarding conviction records and pending charges as set forth in RCW 74.15.030(2)(b).

After processing the request, if the conviction record, disciplinary board final decision, or adjudication record shows no evidence of a crime against persons, an identification declaring the showing of no evidence shall be issued to the applicant by the state patrol and shall be issued within fourteen days of the request. Possession of such identification shall satisfy future background check requirements for the applicant.

(2) The state patrol shall by rule establish fees for disseminating records under this section to recipients identified in subsection (1)(a) and (b) of this section. The state patrol shall also by rule establish fees for disseminating records in the custody of the national crime information center. The fees shall cover, as nearly as practicable, the direct and indirect costs to the state patrol of disseminating the records: PROVIDED, That no fee shall be charged to a nonprofit organization, including school districts and educational service districts, for the records check.

(3) No employee of the state, employee of a business or organization, or the business or organization is liable for defamation, invasion of privacy, negligence, or any other claim in connection with any lawful dissemination of information under sections 1 through 6 of this act or RCW 43.43.760.

(4) Before the effective date of this act, the state patrol shall adopt rules and forms to implement this section and to provide for security and privacy of information disseminated under this section, giving first priority to the criminal justice requirements of this chapter. The rules may include requirements for users, audits of users, and other procedures to prevent use of civil adjudication record information or criminal history record information inconsistent with this chapter.

(5) Nothing in sections 1 through 6 of this act shall authorize an employer to make an inquiry not specifically authorized by this chapter, or be construed to affect the policy of the state declared in chapter 9.96A RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The supreme court shall by rule require the courts of the state to notify the state patrol of any dependency action under RCW 13.34.030(2)(b) or domestic relations action under Title 26 RCW in which the court makes specific findings of physical abuse or sexual abuse or exploitation of a child.

(2) The department of licensing shall notify the state patrol of any disciplinary board final decision that includes specific findings of physical abuse or sexual abuse or exploitation of a child.

(3) When a business or an organization terminates, fires, dismisses, fails to renew the contract, or permits the resignation of an employee because of crimes against persons, and if that employee is employed in a position requiring a certificate or license issued by a licensing agency such as the state board of education, the business or organization shall notify the licensing agency of such termination of employment.

Sec. 7. Section 23, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.94A.230 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every offender who has been discharged under RCW 9.94A.220 may apply to the sentencing court for a vacation of the offender's record of conviction. If the court finds the offender meets the tests prescribed in subsection (2) of this section, the court may clear the record of conviction by: (a) Permitting the offender to withdraw the offender's plea of guilty and to enter a plea of not guilty; or (b) if the offender has been convicted after a plea of not guilty, by the court setting aside the verdict of guilty; and (c) by the court dismissing the information or indictment against the offender.

(2) An offender may not have the record of conviction cleared if: (a) There are any criminal charges against the offender pending in any court of this state or another state, or in any federal court; (b) the offense was a violent offense as defined in RCW 9.94A.030; (c) the offense was a crime against persons as defined in section 1 of this 1987 act; (d) the offender has been convicted of a new crime in this state, another state, or federal court since the date of the offender's discharge under RCW 9.94A.220; ~~((c))~~ (e) the offense is a class B felony and less than ten years have passed since the date the applicant was discharged under RCW 9.94A.220; and ~~((e))~~ (f) the offense was a class C felony and less than five years have passed since the date the applicant was discharged under RCW 9.94A.220.

(3) Once the court vacates a record of conviction under subsection (1) of this section, the fact that the offender has been convicted of the offense shall not be included in the offender's criminal history for purposes of determining a sentence in any subsequent conviction, and the offender shall be released from all penalties and disabilities resulting from the offense. For all purposes, including responding to questions on employment applications, an offender whose conviction has been vacated may state that the offender has never been convicted of that crime. Nothing in this section affects or prevents the use of an offender's prior conviction in a later criminal prosecution.

Sec. 8. Section 28A.70.005, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 92, Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 28A.70.005 are each amended to read as follows:

The state board of education shall establish, publish and enforce rules and regulations determining eligibility for and certification of personnel employed in the common schools of this state, including certification for emergency or temporary, substitute or provisional duty and under such certificates or permits as the board shall deem proper or as otherwise prescribed by law. The rules shall require that the initial application for certification shall require a background check of the applicant through the Washington state patrol criminal identification system at the applicant's expense.

The superintendent of public instruction shall act as the administrator of any such rules and regulations and have the power to issue any certificates or permits and revoke the same in accordance with board rules and regulations.

Sec. 9. Section 1, chapter 152, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as last amended by section 7, chapter 201, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.43.700 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby established within the Washington state patrol a section on identification, child abuse, and criminal history hereafter referred to as the section.

In order to aid the administration of justice the section shall install systems for the identification of individuals, including the fingerprint system and such other systems as the chief deems necessary. The section shall keep a complete record and index of all information received in convenient form for consultation and comparison.

The section shall obtain from whatever source available and file for record the fingerprints, palmprints, photographs, or such other identification data as it deems necessary, of persons who have been or shall hereafter be lawfully arrested and charged with, or convicted of any criminal offense. The section may obtain like information concerning persons arrested for or convicted of crimes under the laws of another state or government.

The section shall also contain like information concerning persons, over the age of eighteen years, who have been found, pursuant to a dependency proceeding under (~~chapter 13.34 RCW in which the person was a party, to have sexually molested, sexually abused, or sexually exploited a child~~) RCW 13.34.030(2)(b) to have physically abused or sexually abused or exploited a child.

Sec. 10. Section 2, chapter 152, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as last amended by section 8, chapter 201, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.43.705 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the receipt of identification data from criminal justice agencies within this state, the section shall immediately cause the files to be examined and upon request shall promptly return to the contributor of such data a transcript of the record of previous arrests and dispositions of the persons described in the data submitted.

Upon application, the section shall furnish to criminal justice agencies, or to the department of social and health services, hereinafter referred to as the "department", a transcript of the criminal offender record information or dependency record information available pertaining to any person of whom the section has a record.

For the purposes of RCW 43.43.700 through 43.43.800 the following words and phrases shall have the following meanings:

"Criminal offender record information" includes, and shall be restricted to identifying data and public record information recorded as the result of an arrest or other initiation of criminal proceedings and the consequent proceedings related thereto. "Criminal offender record information" shall not include intelligence, analytical, or investigative reports and files.

"Criminal justice agencies" are those public agencies within or outside the state which perform, as a principal function, activities directly relating to the apprehension, prosecution, adjudication or rehabilitation of criminal offenders.

"Dependency record information" includes and shall be restricted to identifying data regarding a person, over the age of eighteen, who was a party to a dependency proceeding brought under chapter 13.34 RCW and who has been found, pursuant to such dependency proceeding, to have sexually (~~molested, sexually abused, or sexually exploited~~) abused or exploited or physically abused a child.

~~((Applications for information shall be by a data communications network used exclusively by criminal justice agencies or the department or in writing and information applied for shall be used solely in the due administration of the criminal laws or for the purposes enumerated in RCW 43.43.760(3).))~~

The section may refuse to furnish any information pertaining to the identification or history of any person or persons of whom it has a record, or other information in its files and records, to any applicant if the chief determines that the applicant has previously misused information furnished to such applicant by the section or the chief believes that the applicant will not use the information requested solely for the purpose of due administration of the criminal laws or for the purposes enumerated in RCW 43.43.760(3). The applicant may appeal such determination and denial of information to the advisory council created in RCW 43.43.785 and the council may direct that the section furnish such information to the applicant.

Sec. 11. Section 7, chapter 36, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as last amended by section 87, chapter 266, Laws of 1986 and RCW 43.43.710 are each amended to read as follows:

Information contained in the files and records of the section relative to the commission of any crime by any person shall be considered privileged and shall not be made public or disclosed for any personal purpose or in any civil court proceedings except upon a written order of the judge of a court wherein such civil proceedings are had. All information contained in the files of the section relative to criminal records and personal histories of persons arrested for the commission of a crime shall be available to all criminal justice agencies and, for the sole purpose of investigating the cause of fires under RCW 48.48.060(2) where the cause is suspected to be arson, to the director of community development, through the director of fire protection, upon the filing of an application as provided in RCW 43.43.705.

~~((Dependency record information contained in the files and records of the section shall be considered privileged and shall not be made public. Dependency record information may be disclosed as authorized by this chapter or may be disclosed to the same extent that information regarding dependency proceedings may generally be disclosed, as authorized by applicable laws or court rules.))~~

Although no application for information has been made to the section as provided in RCW 43.43.705, the section may transmit such information in the chief's discretion, to such agencies as are authorized by RCW 43.43.705 to make application for it.

Sec. 12. Section 8, chapter 152, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as amended by section 13, chapter 201, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.43.735 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It shall be the duty of the sheriff or director of public safety of every county, and the chief of police of every city or town, and of every chief officer of other law enforcement agencies duly operating within this state, to cause the photographing and fingerprinting of all persons lawfully arrested for the commission of any criminal offense constituting a felony or gross misdemeanor: PROVIDED, That an exception may be made when the arrest is for a violation punishable as a gross misdemeanor and the arrested person is not taken into custody.

(2) It shall be the right, but not the duty, of the sheriff or director of public safety of every county, and the chief of police of every city or town, and every chief officer of other law enforcement agencies operating within this state to photograph and record the fingerprints of all persons lawfully arrested, or all persons who are the subject of dependency record information.

(3) Such sheriffs, directors of public safety, chiefs of police, and other chief law enforcement officers, may record, in addition to photographs and fingerprints, the palmprints, soleprints, toeprints, or any other identification data of all persons lawfully arrested for the commission of any criminal offense, or all persons who are the subject of dependency record information, when in the discretion of such law enforcement officers it is necessary for proper identification of the arrested person or the investigation of the crime with which he is charged.

(4) It shall be the duty of the department of licensing or the court having jurisdiction over the dependency action to cause the fingerprinting of all persons who are the subject of a disciplinary board final decision or dependency record information ~~((and))~~ or to obtain other necessary identifying information, as specified by the section in rules promulgated pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW to carry out the provisions of this subsection.

(5) The court having jurisdiction over the dependency action may obtain and record, in addition to fingerprints, the photographs, palmprints, soleprints, toeprints, or any other identification data of all persons who are the subject of dependency record information, when in the discretion of the court it is necessary for proper identification of the person.

Sec. 13. Section 9, chapter 152, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as amended by section 14, chapter 201, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.43.740 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as provided in RCW 43.43.755 relating to the fingerprinting of juveniles:

(1) It shall be the duty of the sheriff or director of public safety of every county, and the chief of police of every city or town, and of every chief officer of other law enforcement agencies duly operating within this state to furnish within seventy-two hours from the time of arrest to the section the required sets of fingerprints together with other identifying data as may be prescribed by the chief, of any person lawfully arrested, fingerprinted, and photographed pursuant to RCW 43.43.735.

(2) Law enforcement agencies may retain and file copies of the fingerprints, photographs, and other identifying data and information obtained pursuant to RCW 43.43.735. Said records shall remain in the possession of the law enforcement agency as part of the identification record and are not returnable to the subjects thereof.

(3) It shall be the duty of the court having jurisdiction over the dependency action to furnish dependency record information, obtained pursuant to RCW 43.43.735, to the section within seven days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, from the date that the court enters a finding, pursuant to a dependency action brought under chapter 13.34 RCW, that a person over the age of eighteen, who is a party to the dependency action, has sexually ~~((molested; sexually abused, or sexually exploited))~~ abused or exploited or physically abused a child.

(4) The court having jurisdiction over the dependency action may retain and file copies of the fingerprints, photographs, and other identifying data and information obtained pursuant to RCW 43.43.735. These records shall remain in the possession of the court as part of the identification record and are not returnable to the subjects thereof.

(5) The section shall administer periodic compliance audits for the department of licensing and each court having jurisdiction over dependency actions as defined in chapter 13.32 RCW. Such audits shall ensure that all dependency record information regarding persons over the age of eighteen years has been furnished to the section as required in subsection (3) of this section.

Sec. 14. Section 3, chapter 172, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 5, chapter 188, Laws of 1984 and RCW 74.15.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The secretary shall have the power and it shall be the secretary's duty:

(1) In consultation with the children's services advisory committee, and with the advice and assistance of persons representative of the various type agencies to be licensed, to designate categories of facilities for which separate or different requirements shall be developed as may be appropriate whether because of variations in the ages, sex and other characteristics of persons served, variations in the purposes and services offered or size or structure of the agencies to be licensed hereunder, or because of any other factor relevant thereto;

(2) In consultation with the children's services advisory committee, and with the advice and assistance of persons representative of the various type agencies to be licensed, to adopt and publish minimum requirements for licensing applicable to each of the various categories of agencies to be licensed.

The minimum requirements shall be limited to:

(a) The size and suitability of a facility and the plan of operation for carrying out the purpose for which an applicant seeks a license;

(b) The character, suitability and competence of an agency and other persons associated with an agency directly responsible for the care and treatment of children, expectant mothers or developmentally disabled persons. In consultation with law enforcement personnel, the secretary shall investigate the conviction record or pending charges and dependency record information under chapter 43.43 RCW of each agency and its staff seeking licensure or relicensure. (~~Such investigation shall include an examination of the child abuse and neglect register established under chapter 26.44 RCW on all agencies seeking a license under this chapter.~~) The secretary shall use the information solely for the purpose of determining eligibility for a license and for determining the character, suitability, and competence of those persons or agencies, excluding parents, not required to be licensed who are authorized to care for children, expectant mothers, and developmentally disabled persons (~~and shall safeguard the information in the same manner as the child abuse registry established in RCW 26.44.070~~). Criminal justice agencies shall provide the secretary such information as they may have and that the secretary may require for such purpose:

(c) The number of qualified persons required to render the type of care and treatment for which an agency seeks a license;

(d) The safety, cleanliness, and general adequacy of the premises to provide for the comfort, care and well-being of children, expectant mothers or developmentally disabled persons;

(e) The provision of necessary care, including food, clothing, supervision and discipline; physical, mental and social well-being; and educational, recreational and spiritual opportunities for those served;

(f) The financial ability of an agency to comply with minimum requirements established pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW and RCW 74.13.031; and

(g) The maintenance of records pertaining to the admission, progress, health and discharge of persons served.

(3) To investigate any person, including relatives by blood or marriage except for parents, for character, suitability, and competence in the care and treatment of children, expectant mothers, and developmentally disabled persons prior to authorizing that person to care for children, expectant mothers, and developmentally disabled persons.

(4) To issue, revoke, or deny licenses to agencies pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW and RCW 74.13.031. Licenses shall specify the category of care which an agency is authorized to render and the ages, sex and number of persons to be served;

(5) To prescribe the procedures and the form and contents of reports necessary for the administration of chapter 74.15 RCW and RCW 74.13.031 and to require regular reports from each licensee;

(6) To inspect agencies periodically to determine whether or not there is compliance with chapter 74.15 RCW and RCW 74.13.031 and the requirements adopted hereunder;

(7) To review requirements adopted hereunder at least every two years and to adopt appropriate changes after consultation with the children's services advisory committee; and

(8) To consult with public and private agencies in order to help them improve their methods and facilities for the care of children, expectant mothers and developmentally disabled persons.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Sections 1 through 6 of this act are each added to chapter 43.43 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Section 6, chapter 35, Laws of 1969 ex. sess., section 1, chapter 46, Laws of 1972 ex. sess., section 7, chapter 217, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess., section 29, chapter 80, Laws of 1977 ex. sess., section 4, chapter 164, Laws of 1981, section 6, chapter 97, Laws of 1984, section 3, chapter 269, Laws of 1986 and RCW 26.44.070 are each repealed."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "information," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 9.94A.230, 28A.70.005, 43.43.700, 43.43.705, 43.43.710, 43.43.735, 43.43.740, and 74.15.030; adding new sections to chapter 43.43 RCW; and repealing RCW 26.44.070."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 16, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5074 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 9, chapter 142, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 41, chapter 80, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 71.05.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Persons who are developmentally disabled, impaired by chronic alcoholism or drug abuse, or senile shall not be detained for evaluation and treatment or judicially committed solely by reason of that condition unless such condition causes a person to be gravely disabled or as a result of a mental disorder such condition exists that constitutes a likelihood of serious harm to self or others(~~(- PROVIDED, That a person shall not be subject to the provisions of this chapter if proceedings have been initiated under the provisions of the Washington Uniform Alcoholism and Intoxication Treatment Act, chapter 70.96A RCW)).~~)

Sec. 2. Section 26, chapter 142, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 4, chapter 199, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 71.05.210 are each amended to read as follows:

Each person involuntarily admitted to an evaluation and treatment facility shall, within twenty-four hours of his or her admission, be examined and evaluated by a licensed physician and a mental health professional as defined in this chapter, and shall receive such treatment and care as his or her condition requires including treatment on an outpatient basis for the period that he or she is detained, except that, beginning twenty-four hours prior to a court proceeding, the individual may refuse all but emergency life-saving treatment, and the individual shall be informed at an appropriate time of his or her right to such refusal of treatment. Such person shall be detained up to seventy-two hours, if, in the opinion of the professional person in charge of the facility, or his or her professional designee, the person presents a likelihood of serious harm to himself or herself or others, or is gravely disabled. A person who has been detained for seventy-two hours shall no later than the end of such period be released, unless referred for further care on a voluntary basis, or detained pursuant to court order for further treatment as provided in this chapter.

If, after examination and evaluation, the licensed physician and mental health professional determine that the initial needs of the person would be better served by placement in an alcohol treatment facility, then the person shall be referred to an approved treatment facility defined under RCW 70.96A.020.

An evaluation and treatment center admitting any person pursuant to this chapter whose physical condition reveals the need for hospitalization shall assure that such person is transferred to an appropriate hospital for treatment. Notice of such fact shall be given to the court, the designated attorney, and the designated county mental health professional and the court shall order such continuance in proceedings under this chapter as may be necessary, but in no event may this continuance be more than fourteen days.

Sec. 3. Section 28, chapter 142, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 5, chapter 199, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 71.05.230 are each amended to read as follows:

A person detained for seventy-two hour evaluation and treatment may be detained for not more than fourteen additional days of (~~either~~) involuntary intensive treatment or ninety additional days of a less restrictive alternative to involuntary intensive treatment if the following conditions are met:

(1) The professional staff of the agency or facility providing evaluation services has analyzed the person's condition and finds that said condition is caused by mental disorder and either results in a likelihood of serious harm to the person detained or to others, or results in the detained person being gravely disabled and are prepared to testify those conditions are met; and

(2) The person has been advised of the need for voluntary treatment and the professional staff of the facility has evidence that he or she has not in good faith volunteered; and

(3) The facility providing intensive treatment is certified to provide such treatment by the department of social and health services; and

(4) The professional staff of the agency or facility or the mental health professional designated by the county has filed a petition for fourteen day involuntary detention or a ninety day less restrictive alternative with the court. The petition must be signed either by two physicians or by one physician and a mental health professional who have examined the person. If involuntary detention is sought the petition shall state facts that support the finding that such person, as a result of mental disorder, presents a likelihood of serious harm to others or himself or herself, or is gravely disabled and that there are no less restrictive alternatives to detention in the best interest of such person or others. The petition shall state specifically that less restrictive alternative treatment was considered and specify why treatment less restrictive than detention is not appropriate. If an involuntary less restrictive alternative is sought, the petition shall state facts that support the finding that such person, as a result of mental disorder, presents a likelihood of serious harm to others or himself or herself, or is gravely disabled and shall set forth the less restrictive alternative proposed by the facility; and

(5) A copy of the petition has been served on the detained person, his or her attorney and his or her guardian or conservator, if any, prior to the probable cause hearing; and

(6) The court at the time the petition was filed and before the probable cause hearing has appointed counsel to represent such person if no other counsel has appeared; and

(7) The court has ordered a fourteen day involuntary intensive treatment or a ninety day less restrictive alternative treatment after a probable cause hearing has been held pursuant to RCW 71.05.240; and

(8) At the conclusion of the initial commitment period, the professional staff of the agency or facility or the mental health professional designated by the county may petition for an additional period of either ninety days of less restrictive alternative treatment or ninety days of involuntary intensive treatment as provided in RCW 71.05.290; and

(9) If the hospital or facility designated to provide outpatient treatment is other than the facility providing involuntary treatment, the outpatient facility so designated has agreed to assume such responsibility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The department shall establish a pilot program to assess the impact on expenditures for involuntary treatment by the provision of case management services for all persons who are conditionally released or committed to less restrictive treatment from a state or community hospital.

(2) The pilot program shall be conducted in at least three counties. Participation in the program shall be contingent upon:

(a) Participation in the state and county client tracking system required by RCW 71.24.035(4)(h) and 71.24.045(6);

(b) Recognition of conditionally released persons and persons on a less restrictive placement as acutely mentally ill or chronically mentally ill, as defined in chapter 71.24 RCW;

(c) Agreement to provide the data necessary to evaluate the outcome of the pilot program.

(3) In pilot counties in conjunction with the county mental health coordinator, a community mental health agency shall be appointed by the court in its order to provide case management services for persons who are conditionally released or committed to less restrictive treatment. The community mental health agency shall assign a case manager, who will be responsible for:

(a) Participation with the court in the formulation of the conditions of the less restrictive or conditional release order;

(b) Participation in the development of an individualized treatment plan with the treatment team;

(c) Providing the person assistance with access to housing, financial management, medication management, nutrition, system advocacy, and mental health services;

(d) Monitoring the person who is receiving treatment to ensure that the person abides by the requirements of his or her individualized treatment plan. If, in the opinion of the case manager, substantial deterioration in the person's functioning has occurred, then the case manager shall request the county designated mental health professional to initiate revocation proceedings.

(4) The community mental health agency shall assure that the case manager being assigned is a mental health professional, as defined in RCW 71.05.020(11), or is supervised by a mental health professional.

(5) The plan for the pilot program shall be developed by the department in cooperation with the pilot and other counties, mental health providers, and other interested members of the community and submitted to the legislature within sixty days of the effective date of this section.

(6) The plan shall assure that case management services are administered in a manner which recognizes client needs within availability of funds provided for the plan. The implementation of the plan shall begin on January 1, 1988, and terminate on June 30, 1989.

(7) By January 1, 1989, the legislative budget committee shall submit a report to the legislature on the progress of the pilot program, along with its recommendations.

(8) The department shall adopt those rules necessary to carry out this section.

Sec. 5. Section 29, chapter 142, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 13, chapter 215, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 71.05.240 are each amended to read as follows:

If a petition is filed for fourteen day involuntary treatment or ninety days of less restrictive alternative treatment, the court shall hold a probable cause hearing within seventy-two hours of the initial detention of such person as determined in RCW 71.05.180, as now or hereafter amended. If requested by the detained person or his or her attorney, the hearing may be postponed for a period not to exceed forty-eight hours. The hearing may also be continued subject to the conditions set forth in RCW 71.05.210 or subject to the petitioner's showing of good cause for a period not to exceed twenty-four hours.

At the conclusion of the probable cause hearing, if the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that such person, as the result of mental disorder, presents a likelihood of serious harm to others or himself or herself, or is gravely disabled, and, after considering less restrictive alternatives to involuntary detention and treatment, finds that no such alternatives are in the best interests of such person or others, the court shall order that such person be detained for involuntary treatment not to exceed fourteen days in a facility certified to provide treatment by the department of social and health services. If the court finds that such person, as the result of a mental disorder, presents a likelihood of serious harm to others or himself or herself, or is gravely disabled, but that treatment in a less restrictive setting than detention is in the best interest of such person or others, the court shall order an appropriate less restrictive course of treatment for not to exceed ~~((fourteen))~~ ninety days.

The court shall specifically state to such person and give such person notice in writing that if involuntary treatment beyond the fourteen day period or beyond the ninety days of less restrictive treatment is to be sought, such person will have the right to a full hearing or jury trial as required by RCW 71.05.310.

Sec. 6. Section 30, chapter 142, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 17, chapter 145, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 71.05.250 are each amended to read as follows:

At the probable cause hearing the detained person shall have the following rights in addition to the rights previously specified:

- (1) To present evidence on his or her behalf;
- (2) To cross-examine witnesses who testify against him or her;
- (3) To be proceeded against by the rules of evidence;
- (4) To remain silent;
- (5) To view and copy all petitions and reports in the court file.

The physician-patient privilege or the psychologist-client privilege shall be deemed waived in proceedings under this chapter when a court of competent jurisdiction in its discretion determines that ~~((it is unreasonable for the petitioner seeking fourteen-day involuntary treatment to obtain a sufficient evaluation of the detained person by a psychiatrist or psychologist or other health professional and))~~ such waiver is necessary ~~((in the opinion of the court))~~ to protect either the detained person or the public.

~~((Whenever the physician-patient privilege is deemed waived pursuant to this section, the waiver shall be limited to the introduction of relevant and competent medical records or testimony of an evaluation or treatment facility or its staff, a facility of the department of social and health services or its staff, or a facility certified for ninety-day treatment by the department of social and health services or its staff for the purpose of meeting evaluation requirements contained in chapter 10-77 RCW and chapter 71-12 RCW. PROVIDED HOWEVER, That the physician-patient privilege shall not be waived if the physician specifically identifies himself to the detained person as one who is communicating with that person for treatment only. AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the privilege shall not extend to incident reports involving the detained person.))~~

The waiver of a privilege under this section is limited to records or testimony relevant to evaluation of the detained person for purposes of a proceeding under this chapter. Upon motion by the detained person or on its own motion, the court shall examine a record or testimony sought by a petitioner to determine whether it is within the scope of the waiver.

The record maker shall not be required to testify in order to introduce medical or psychological records of the detained person so long as the requirements of RCW 5.45.020 are met except that portions of the record which contains opinions as to the detained person's mental state must be deleted from such records unless the person making such conclusions is available for cross-examination.

Sec. 7. Section 31, chapter 142, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 18, chapter 145, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 71.05.260 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Involuntary intensive treatment ordered at the time of the probable cause hearing shall be for no more than fourteen days, and shall terminate sooner when, in the opinion of the professional person in charge of the facility or his or her professional designee, (a) the person no longer constitutes a likelihood of serious harm to himself or herself or others, or (b) no longer is gravely disabled, or (c) is prepared to accept voluntary treatment upon referral, or (d) is to remain in the facility providing intensive treatment on a voluntary basis.

(2) A person who has been detained for fourteen days of intensive treatment shall be released at the end of the fourteen days unless one of the following applies: (a) Such person agrees to receive further treatment on a voluntary basis; or (b) such person is a patient to whom RCW 71.05.280 is applicable.

Sec. 8. Section 35, chapter 142, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 7, chapter 199, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 71.05.300 are each amended to read as follows:

The petition for ninety day treatment shall be filed with the clerk of the superior court at least three days before expiration of the fourteen-day period of intensive treatment. At the time of filing such petition, the clerk shall set a time for the person to come before the court on the next judicial day after the day of filing unless such appearance is waived by the person's attorney, and the clerk shall notify the designated county mental health professional. The designated county mental health professional shall immediately notify the person detained, his or her attorney, if any, and his or her guardian or conservator, if any, and the prosecuting attorney, and provide a copy of the petition to such persons as soon as possible.

At the time set for appearance the detained person shall be brought before the court, unless such appearance has been waived and the court shall advise him or her of his or her right to be represented by an attorney and of his or her right to a jury trial. If the detained person is not represented by an attorney, or is indigent or is unwilling to retain an attorney, the court shall immediately appoint an attorney to represent him or her. The court shall, if requested, appoint a reasonably available licensed physician, psychologist, or psychiatrist, designated by the detained person to examine and testify on behalf of the detained person.

The court may, if requested, also appoint a professional person as defined in RCW 71.05.020(12) to seek less restrictive alternative courses of treatment and to testify on behalf of the detained person.

The court shall also set a date for a full hearing on the petition as provided in RCW 71.05.310.

Sec. 9. Section 36, chapter 142, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 8, chapter 199, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 71.05.310 are each amended to read as follows:

The court shall conduct a hearing on the petition for ninety day treatment within five judicial days of the first court appearance after the probable cause hearing (~~unless the person named in the petition requests a jury trial, in which case trial shall commence within ten judicial days of the filing of the petition for ninety day treatment. The court may continue the hearing upon the written request of the person named in the petition or his attorney, which continuance shall not exceed ten additional judicial days~~). The court may continue the hearing upon the written request of the person named in the petition or the person's attorney, for good cause shown, which continuance shall not exceed five additional judicial days. If the person named in the petition requests a jury trial, the trial shall commence within ten judicial days of the first court appearance after the probable cause hearing. The burden of proof shall be by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence and shall be upon the petitioner. The person shall be present at such proceeding, which shall in all respects accord with the constitutional guarantees of due process of law and the rules of evidence pursuant to RCW 71.05.250.

During the proceeding, the person named in the petition shall continue to be treated until released by order of the superior court. If no order has been made within thirty days after the filing of the petition, not including extensions of time requested by the detained person or his or her attorney, the detained person shall be released.

Sec. 10. Section 39, chapter 142, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 6, chapter 67, Laws of 1986 and RCW 71.05.340 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) When, in the opinion of the superintendent or the professional person in charge of the hospital or facility providing involuntary treatment, the committed person can be appropriately served by outpatient treatment prior to or at the expiration of the period of commitment, then such outpatient care may be required as a condition for early release for a period which, when added to the inpatient treatment period, shall not exceed the period of commitment. If the hospital or facility designated to provide outpatient treatment is other than the facility providing involuntary treatment, the outpatient facility so designated must agree in writing to assume such responsibility. A copy of the conditions for early release shall be given to the patient, the designated county mental health professional in the county in which the patient is to receive outpatient treatment, and to the court of original commitment.

(b) Before a person committed under grounds set forth in RCW 71.05.280(3) or 71.05.320(2)(c) is conditionally released under (a) of this subsection, the superintendent or professional person in charge of the hospital or facility providing involuntary treatment shall in writing notify the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the criminal charges against the committed person were dismissed, of the decision to conditionally release the person. Notice and a copy of the conditions for early release shall be provided at least thirty days before the person is released from inpatient care. Within twenty days after receiving notice, the prosecuting attorney may petition the court in the county that issued the commitment order to hold a hearing to determine whether the person may be conditionally released and the terms of the conditional release. The prosecuting attorney shall provide a copy of the petition to the superintendent or professional person in charge of the hospital or facility providing involuntary treatment, the attorney, if any, and guardian or conservator of the committed person, and the court of original commitment. If the county in which the committed person is to receive outpatient treatment is the same county in which the criminal charges against the committed person were dismissed, then the court shall, upon the motion of the prosecuting attorney, transfer the proceeding to the court in that county. The court shall conduct a hearing on the petition within ten days of the filing of the petition. The committed person shall have the same rights with respect to notice, hearing, and counsel as for an involuntary treatment proceeding, except as set forth in this subsection and except that there shall be no right to jury trial. The issue to be determined at the hearing is whether or not the person may be conditionally released without substantial danger to other persons, or substantial likelihood of committing felonious acts jeopardizing public safety or security. If the court disapproves of the conditional release, it may do so only on the basis of substantial evidence. Pursuant to the determination of the court upon the hearing, the conditional release of the person shall be approved by the court on the same or modified conditions or the person shall be returned for involuntary treatment on an inpatient basis subject to release at the end of the period for which he or she was committed, or otherwise in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

(2) The hospital or facility designated to provide outpatient care or the secretary may modify the conditions for continued release when such modification is in the best interest of the person. Notification of such changes shall be sent to all persons receiving a copy of the original conditions.

(3) If the hospital or facility designated to provide outpatient care, the designated county mental health professional or the secretary determines that a conditionally released person is failing to adhere to the terms and conditions of his or her release, or that substantial deterioration in the person's functioning has occurred, then, upon notification by the hospital or facility designated to provide outpatient care, or on his or her own motion, the designated county mental health professional or the secretary may order that the conditionally released person be apprehended and taken into custody and temporarily detained in an evaluation and treatment facility in or near the county in which he or she is receiving outpatient treatment until such time, not exceeding five days, as a hearing can be scheduled to determine whether or not the person should be returned to the hospital or facility from which he or she had been conditionally released. The designated county mental health professional or the secretary may modify or rescind such order at any time prior to commencement of the court hearing. The court that originally ordered commitment shall be notified within two judicial days of a person's detention under the provisions of this section, and the designated county mental health professional or the secretary shall file his or her petition and order of apprehension and detention with the court and serve them upon the person detained. His or her attorney, if any, and his or her guardian or conservator, if any, shall receive a copy of such papers as soon as possible. Such person shall have the same rights with respect to notice, hearing, and counsel as for an involuntary treatment proceeding, except as specifically set forth in this section and except that there shall be no right to jury trial. The issues to be determined shall be whether the conditionally released person did or did not adhere to the terms and conditions of his or her release or that substantial deterioration in the person's functioning has occurred; and, if he or she failed to adhere to such terms and conditions, or that substantial deterioration in the person's functioning has occurred, whether the conditions of release should be modified or the person should be returned to the facility. Pursuant to the determination of the court upon such hearing, the conditionally released person shall either continue to be conditionally released on the same or modified conditions or shall be returned for involuntary treatment on an inpatient basis subject to release at the end of the period for which he or she was committed for involuntary treatment, or otherwise in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. Such hearing may be waived by the person and his or her counsel and his or her guardian or conservator, if any, but shall not be waivable unless all such persons agree to waive, and upon such waiver the person may be returned for involuntary treatment or continued on conditional release on the same or modified conditions.

(4) The proceedings set forth in subsection (3) of this section may be initiated by the designated county mental health professional or the secretary on the same basis set forth therein without requiring or ordering the apprehension and detention of the conditionally released person, in which case the court hearing shall take place in not less than ((fifteen)) five days from the date of service of the petition upon the conditionally released person.

Upon expiration of the period of commitment, or when the person is released from outpatient care, notice in writing to the court which committed the person for treatment shall be provided.

(5) The grounds and procedures for revocation of less restrictive alternative treatment shall be the same as those set forth in this section for conditional releases.

(6) In the event of a revocation of a conditional release, the subsequent treatment period may be for no longer than the actual period authorized in the original court order. In the event of a revocation of a less restrictive alternative treatment, the subsequent treatment period may be for no longer than fourteen days.

Sec. 11. Section 294, page 187, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 101, chapter 305, Laws of 1986 and RCW 5.60.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A husband shall not be examined for or against his wife, without the consent of the wife, nor a wife for or against her husband without the consent of the husband; nor can either during marriage or afterward, be without the consent of the other, examined as to any communication made by one to the other during marriage. But this exception shall not apply to a civil action or proceeding by one against the other, nor to a criminal action or proceeding for a crime committed by one against the other, nor to a criminal action or proceeding against a spouse if the marriage occurred subsequent to the filing of formal charges against the defendant, nor to a criminal action or proceeding for a crime committed by said husband or wife against any child of whom said husband or wife is the parent or guardian, nor to a proceeding under chapter 71.05 RCW: PROVIDED, That the spouse of a person sought to be detained under chapter 71.05 RCW may not be compelled to testify and shall be so informed by the court prior to being called as a witness.

(2) An attorney or counselor shall not, without the consent of his or her client, be examined as to any communication made by the client to him or her, or his or her advice given thereon in the course of professional employment.

(3) A ~~((clergyman))~~ member of the clergy or a priest shall not, without the consent of a person making the confession, be examined as to any confession made to him or her in his or her professional character, in the course of discipline enjoined by the church to which he or she belongs.

(4) Subject to the limitations under RCW 71.05.250, a physician or surgeon or osteopathic physician or surgeon shall not, without the consent of his or her patient, be examined in a civil action as to any information acquired in attending such patient, which was necessary to enable him or her to prescribe or act for the patient, except as follows:

(a) In any judicial proceedings regarding a child's injury, neglect, or sexual abuse or the cause thereof; and

(b) Within ninety days of filing an action for personal injuries or wrongful death, the claimant shall elect whether or not to waive the physician-patient privilege. If the claimant does not waive the physician-patient privilege, the claimant may not put his or her mental or physical condition or that of his or her decedent or beneficiaries in issue and may not waive the privilege later in the proceedings. Waiver of the physician-patient privilege for any one physician or condition constitutes a waiver of the privilege as to all physicians or conditions, subject to such limitations as a court may impose pursuant to court rules.

(5) A public officer shall not be examined as a witness as to communications made to him or her in official confidence, when the public interest would suffer by the disclosure.

Sec. 12. Section 11, chapter 305, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 11, chapter 70, Laws of 1965 and RCW 18.83.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Confidential communications between a client and a psychologist shall be privileged against compulsory disclosure to the same extent and subject to the same conditions as confidential communications between attorney and client, but this exception is subject to the limitations under RCW 71.05.250.

Sec. 13. Section 12, chapter 122, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 62, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 70.96A.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An intoxicated person may come voluntarily to an approved treatment facility for treatment. A person who appears to be intoxicated in a public place and to be in need of help, if he or she consents to the proffered help, may be assisted to his or her home, an approved treatment facility or other health facility.

(2) Except for a person who may be apprehended for possible violation of laws not relating to alcoholism or intoxication and except for a person who may be apprehended for possible violation of laws relating to driving or being in physical control of a vehicle while intoxicated and except for a person who may wish to avail himself or herself of the provisions of RCW 46.20.308, a person who appears to be incapacitated by alcohol and who is in a public place or who has threatened, attempted, or inflicted physical harm on another, shall be taken into protective custody by the police or the emergency service patrol and as soon as practicable, but in no event beyond eight hours brought to an approved treatment facility for treatment. If no approved treatment facility is readily available he or she shall be taken to an emergency medical service customarily used for incapacitated persons. The police or the emergency service patrol, in detaining the person and in taking him or her to an approved treatment facility, is taking him or her into protective custody and shall make every reasonable effort to protect his or her health and safety. In taking the person into protective custody, the detaining officer or member of an emergency patrol may take reasonable steps including reasonable force if necessary to protect himself or herself or effect the custody. A taking into protective custody under this section is not an arrest. No entry or other record shall be made to indicate that the person has been arrested or charged with a crime.

(3) A person who comes voluntarily or is brought to an approved treatment facility shall be examined by a qualified person. He or she may then be admitted as a patient or referred to another health facility, which provides emergency medical treatment, where it appears that such treatment may be necessary. The referring approved treatment facility shall arrange for his or her transportation.

(4) A person who is found to be incapacitated by alcohol at the time of his or her admission or to have become incapacitated at any time after his or her admission, may not be detained at the facility ~~((a) once he is no longer incapacitated by alcohol, and (b) if he remains incapacitated by alcohol))~~ for more than ~~((forty-eight))~~ seventy-two hours after admission as a patient, unless a petition is filed under RCW 70.96A.140, as now or hereafter amended: PROVIDED, That the treatment personnel at the facility are authorized to use such reasonable physical restraint as may be necessary to retain a person incapacitated by alcohol at such facility for up to ~~((forty-eight))~~ seventy-two hours from the time of admission. The seventy-two hour periods specified in this section shall be computed by excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. A person may consent to remain in the facility as long as the physician in charge believes appropriate.

(5) A person who is not admitted to an approved treatment facility, is not referred to another health facility, and has no funds, may be taken to his or her home, if any. If he or she has no home, the approved treatment facility shall assist him or her in obtaining shelter.

(6) If a patient is admitted to an approved treatment facility, his or her family or next of kin shall be notified as promptly as possible. If an adult patient who is not incapacitated requests that there be no notification, his or her request shall be respected.

(7) The police, members of the emergency service, or treatment facility personnel, who in good faith act in compliance with this chapter are performing in the course of their official duty and are not criminally or civilly liable therefor.

(8) If the person in charge of the approved treatment facility determines it is for the patient's benefit, the patient shall be encouraged to agree to further diagnosis and appropriate voluntary treatment.

Sec. 14. Section 14, chapter 122, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 129, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 70.96A.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the person in charge of a treatment facility, or his or her designee, receives information alleging that a person is incapacitated as a result of alcoholism, the person in charge, or his or her designee, after investigation and evaluation of the specific facts alleged and of the reliability and credibility of the information, may file a petition for commitment of such person with the superior court or district court. If the person in charge, or his or her designee, finds that the initial needs of such person would be better served by placement within the mental health system, the person shall be referred to an evaluation and treatment facility as defined in RCW 71.05.020. If placement in an alcohol treatment facility is deemed appropriate, the petition shall allege that the person is an alcoholic who is incapacitated by alcohol, or that the person has twice before in the preceding twelve months been admitted for the voluntary treatment for alcoholism pursuant to RCW 70.96A.110 and is in need of a more sustained treatment program, or that the person is an alcoholic who has threatened, attempted, or inflicted physical harm on another and is likely to inflict physical harm on another unless committed. A refusal to undergo treatment does not constitute evidence of lack of judgment as to the need for treatment. The petition shall be accompanied by a certificate of a licensed physician who has examined the person within two days before submission of the petition, unless the person whose commitment is sought has refused to submit to a medical examination, in which case the fact of refusal shall be alleged in the petition. The certificate shall set forth the physician's findings in support of the allegations of the petition. A physician employed by the petitioning facility or the department is not eligible to be the certifying physician.

(2) Upon filing the petition, the court shall fix a date for a hearing no less than ~~((five))~~ three and no more than ~~((ten))~~ seven days after the date the petition was filed unless the person petitioned against is presently being detained by the facility, pursuant to RCW 70.96A.120, as now or hereafter amended, in which case the hearing shall be held within ~~((forty-eight))~~ seventy-two hours of the filing of the petition: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the above specified ~~((forty-eight))~~ seventy-two hours shall be computed by ~~((including))~~ excluding Saturdays ~~((but excluding))~~, Sundays, and holidays: PROVIDED FURTHER, That, the court may, upon motion of the person whose commitment is sought, or upon motion of petitioner with written permission of the person whose commitment is sought, or his or her counsel and, upon good cause shown, extend the date for the hearing. A copy of the petition and of the notice of the hearing, including the date fixed by the court, shall be served by the treatment facility on the person whose commitment is sought, his or her next of kin, a parent or his or her legal guardian if he or she is a minor, and any other person the court believes advisable. A copy of the petition and certificate shall be delivered to each person notified.

(3) At the hearing the court shall hear all relevant testimony, including, if possible, the testimony of at least one licensed physician who has examined the person whose commitment is sought. The person shall be present unless the court believes that his or her presence is likely to be injurious to him or her; in this event the court may deem it appropriate to appoint a guardian ad litem to represent him or her throughout the proceeding. If deemed advisable, the court may examine the person out of courtroom. If the person has refused to be examined by a licensed physician, he or she shall be given an opportunity to be examined by a court appointed licensed physician. If he or she refuses and there is sufficient evidence to believe that the allegations of the petition are true, or if the court believes that more medical evidence is necessary, the court may make a temporary order committing him or her to the department for a period of not more than five days for purposes of a diagnostic examination.

(4) If after hearing all relevant evidence, including the results of any diagnostic examination, the court finds that grounds for involuntary commitment have been established by clear, cogent, and convincing proof, it shall make an order of commitment to an approved treatment facility. It shall not order commitment of a person unless it determines that an approved treatment facility is able to provide adequate and appropriate treatment for him or her and the treatment is likely to be beneficial.

(5) A person committed under this section shall remain in the facility for treatment for a period of thirty days unless sooner discharged. At the end of the thirty day period, he or she shall be discharged automatically unless the facility, before expiration of the period, files a petition for his or her recommitment upon the grounds set forth in subsection (1) of this section for a further period of ninety days unless sooner discharged. If a person has been committed because he or she is an alcoholic likely to inflict physical harm on another, the facility shall apply for recommitment if after examination it is determined that the likelihood still exists.

(6) A person recommitted under subsection (5) of this section who has not been discharged by the facility before the end of the ninety day period shall be discharged at the expiration of that period unless the facility, before expiration of the period, obtains a court order on the grounds set forth in subsection (1) of this section for recommitment for a further period not to exceed ninety days. If a person has been committed because he or she is an alcoholic likely to inflict physical harm on another, the facility shall apply for recommitment if after examination it is determined that the likelihood still exists. Only two recommitment orders under subsections (5) and (6) of this section are permitted.

(7) Upon the filing of a petition for recommitment under subsections (5) or (6) of this section, the court shall fix a date for hearing no less than ~~((five))~~ three and no more than ~~((ten))~~ seven days after the date the petition was filed: PROVIDED, That, the court may, upon motion of the person whose commitment is sought and upon good cause shown, extend the date for the hearing. A copy of the petition and of the notice of hearing, including the date fixed by the court, shall be served by the treatment facility on the person whose commitment is sought, his or her next of kin, the original petitioner under subsection (1) of this section if different from the petitioner for recommitment, one of his or her parents or his or her legal guardian if he or she is a minor, and his or her attorney and any other person the court believes advisable. At the hearing the court shall proceed as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(8) The facility shall provide for adequate and appropriate treatment of a person committed to its custody. A person committed under this section may be transferred from one approved public treatment facility to another if transfer is medically advisable.

(9) A person committed to the custody of a facility for treatment shall be discharged at any time before the end of the period for which he or she has been committed and he or she shall be discharged by order of the court if either of the following conditions are met:

(a) In case of an alcoholic committed on the grounds of likelihood of infliction of physical harm upon another, that he or she is no longer an alcoholic or the likelihood no longer exists; or further treatment will not be likely to bring about significant improvement in the person's condition, or treatment is no longer adequate or appropriate.

(b) In case of an alcoholic committed on the grounds of the need of treatment and incapacity, that the incapacity no longer exists.

(10) The court shall inform the person whose commitment or recommitment is sought of his or her right to contest the application, be represented by counsel at every stage of any proceedings relating to his or her commitment and recommitment, and have counsel appointed by the court or provided by the court, if he or she wants the assistance of counsel and is unable to obtain counsel. If the court believes that the person needs the assistance of counsel, the court shall require, by appointment if necessary, counsel for him or her regardless of his or her wishes. The person shall, if he or she is financially able, bear the costs of such legal service; otherwise such legal service shall be at public expense. The person whose commitment or recommitment is sought shall be informed of his or her right to be examined by a licensed physician of his or her choice. If the person is unable to obtain a licensed physician and requests examination by a physician, the court shall employ a licensed physician.

(11) A person committed under this chapter may at any time seek to be discharged from commitment by writ of habeas corpus in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(12) The venue for proceedings under this section is the county in which person to be committed resides or is present.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 16, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5142 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that serious, personal harassment through repeated invasions of a person's privacy by acts and words showing a pattern of harassment designed to coerce, intimidate, or humiliate the victim is increasing. The legislature further finds that the prevention of such harassment is an important governmental objective. This chapter is intended to provide victims with a speedy and inexpensive method of obtaining civil antiharassment protection orders preventing all further unwanted contact between the victim and the perpetrator.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Unlawful harassment" means a knowing and wilful course of conduct directed at a specific person which seriously alarms, annoys, or harasses such person, and which serves no legitimate or lawful purpose. The course of conduct shall be such as would cause a reasonable person to suffer substantial emotional distress, and shall actually cause substantial emotional distress to the petitioner.

(2) "Course of conduct" means a pattern of conduct composed of a series of acts over a period of time, however short, evidencing a continuity of purpose. Constitutionally protected activity is not included within the meaning of "course of conduct."

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. In determining whether the course of conduct serves any legitimate or lawful purpose, the court should consider whether:

(1) Any current contact between the parties was initiated by the respondent only or was initiated by both parties;

(2) The respondent has been given clear notice that all further contact with the petitioner is unwanted;

(3) The respondent's course of conduct appears designed to alarm, annoy, or harass the petitioner;

(4) The respondent is acting pursuant to any statutory authority, including but not limited to acts which are reasonably necessary to:

(a) Protect property or liberty interests;

(b) Enforce the law; or

(c) Meet specific statutory duties or requirements;

(5) The respondent's course of conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with the petitioner's privacy or the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive living environment for the petitioner;

(6) Contact by the respondent with the petitioner or the petitioner's family has been limited in any manner by any previous court order.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. There shall exist an action known as a petition for an order for protection in cases of unlawful harassment.

(1) A petition for relief shall allege the existence of harassment and shall be accompanied by an affidavit made under oath stating the specific facts and circumstances from which relief is sought.

(2) A petition for relief may be made regardless of whether or not there is a pending lawsuit, complaint, petition, or other action between the parties.

(3) All court clerks' offices shall make available simplified forms and instructional brochures. Any assistance or information provided by clerks under this section does not constitute the practice of law and clerks are not responsible for incorrect information contained in a petition.

(4) No filing fee may be charged for a petition filed in an existing action or under an existing cause number brought under this chapter in the jurisdiction where the relief is sought. Forms and instructional brochures shall be provided free of charge.

(5) A person is not required to post a bond to obtain relief in any proceeding under this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. The administrator for the courts shall develop and prepare, in consultation with interested persons, model forms and instructional brochures required under section 4(3) of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. Persons seeking relief under this chapter may file an application for leave to proceed in forma pauperis on forms supplied by the court. If the court determines that a petitioner lacks the funds to pay the costs of filing, the petitioner shall be granted leave to proceed in forma pauperis and no filing fee or any other court related fees shall be charged by the court to the petitioner for relief sought under this chapter. If the petitioner is granted leave to proceed in forma pauperis, then no fees for service may be charged to the petitioner.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. Upon receipt of the petition, the court shall order a hearing which shall be held not later than fourteen days from the date of the order. Personal service shall be made upon the respondent not less than five court days before the hearing. If timely service cannot be made, the court may set a new hearing date.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. (1) Upon filing a petition for a civil antiharassment protection order under this chapter, the petitioner may obtain an ex parte temporary antiharassment protection order. An ex parte temporary antiharassment protection order may be granted with or without notice upon the filing of an affidavit which, to the satisfaction of the court, shows reasonable proof of unlawful harassment of the petitioner by the respondent and that great or irreparable harm will result to the petitioner if the temporary antiharassment protection order is not granted.

(2) An ex parte temporary antiharassment protection order shall be effective for a fixed period not to exceed fourteen days, but may be reissued. A full hearing, as provided in this chapter, shall be set for not later than fourteen days from the issuance of the temporary order. The respondent shall be personally served with a copy of the ex parte order along with a copy of the petition and notice of the date set for the hearing.

(3) At the hearing, if the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that unlawful harassment exists, a civil antiharassment protection order shall issue prohibiting such unlawful harassment. An order issued under this chapter shall be effective for not more than one year.

At any time within the three months before the expiration of the order, the petitioner may apply for a renewal of the order by filing a new petition under this chapter.

(4) The court, in granting an ex parte temporary antiharassment protection order or a civil antiharassment protection order, shall have broad discretion to grant such relief as the court deems proper, including an order:

- (a) Restraining the respondent from making any attempts to contact the petitioner;
- (b) Restraining the respondent from making any attempts to keep the petitioner under surveillance; and
- (c) Requiring the respondent to stay a stated distance from the petitioner's residence and workplace.

(5) A petitioner may not obtain an ex parte temporary antiharassment protection order against a respondent if the petitioner has previously obtained two such ex parte orders against the same respondent but has failed to obtain the issuance of a civil antiharassment protection order unless good cause for such failure can be shown.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Nothing in this chapter shall preclude either party from representation by private counsel or from appearing on his or her own behalf.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) An order issued under this chapter shall be personally served upon the respondent, except as provided in subsection (5) of this section.

(2) The sheriff of the county or the peace officers of the municipality in which the respondent resides shall serve the respondent personally unless the petitioner elects to have the respondent served by a private party.

(3) If the sheriff or municipal peace officer cannot complete service upon the respondent within ten days, the sheriff or municipal peace officer shall notify the petitioner.

(4) Returns of service under this chapter shall be made in accordance with the applicable court rules.

(5) If an order entered by the court recites that the respondent appeared in person before the court, the necessity for further service is waived and proof of service of that order is not necessary.

(6) Except in cases where the petitioner is granted leave to proceed in forma pauperis, municipal police departments serving documents as required under this chapter may collect the same fees for service and mileage authorized by RCW 36.18.040 to be collected by sheriffs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A copy of an antiharassment protection order granted under this chapter shall be forwarded by the clerk of the court on or before the next judicial day to the appropriate law enforcement agency specified in the order.

Upon receipt of the order, the law enforcement agency shall forthwith enter the order for one year into any computer-based criminal intelligence information system available in this state used by law enforcement agencies to list outstanding warrants. Entry into the law enforcement information system constitutes notice to all law enforcement agencies of the existence of the order. The order is fully enforceable in any county in the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Any wilful disobedience by the respondent of any temporary antiharassment protection order or civil antiharassment protection order issued under this chapter shall subject the respondent to criminal penalties under this chapter. Any respondent who wilfully disobeys the terms of any order issued under this chapter may also, in the court's discretion, be found in contempt of court and subject to penalties under chapter 7.20 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Protection orders authorized under this chapter shall not be issued for any action specifically covered by chapter 10.99 or 26.50 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Nothing in this chapter shall preclude a petitioner's right to utilize other existing civil remedies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The superior courts shall have jurisdiction and cognizance of any civil actions and proceedings brought under this chapter. The municipal and district courts shall have jurisdiction and cognizance of any criminal actions brought under sections 12 and 17 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. For the purposes of this chapter an action may be brought in:

- (1) Any county in which the alleged acts of unlawful harassment occurred;
- (2) Any county where any respondent resides at the time the petition is filed; or
- (3) Any county where a respondent may be served if it is the same county where a respondent resides.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Any respondent who wilfully disobeys any civil antiharassment protection order issued pursuant to this chapter shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Upon application with notice to all parties and after a hearing, the court may modify the terms of an existing order under this chapter. In any situation where an order is terminated or modified before its expiration date, the clerk of the court shall forward on or before the next judicial day a true copy of the modified order or the termination order to the appropriate law enforcement agency specified in the modified order or termination order. Upon receipt of the order, the law enforcement agency shall promptly enter it in the law enforcement information system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to infringe upon any constitutionally protected rights including, but not limited to, freedom of speech and freedom of assembly.

Sec. 20. Section 1, chapter 198, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 267, Laws of 1985 and by section 9, chapter 303, Laws of 1985 and RCW 10.31.100 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

A police officer having probable cause to believe that a person has committed or is committing a felony shall have the authority to arrest the person without a warrant. A police officer may arrest a person without a warrant for committing a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor only when the offense is committed in the presence of the officer, except as provided in subsections (1) through (5) of this section.

(1) Any police officer having probable cause to believe that a person has committed or is committing a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor, involving physical harm or threats of harm to any person or property or the unlawful taking of property or involving the use or possession of cannabis shall have the authority to arrest the person.

(2) A police officer shall arrest and take into custody, pending release on bail, personal recognizance, or court order, a person without a warrant when the officer has probable cause to believe that:

(a) An order has been issued of which the person has knowledge under RCW 10.99.040(2), 10.99.050, 26.09.060, chapter 26.26 RCW, or chapter 26.50 RCW restraining the person and the person has violated the terms of the order restraining the person from acts or threats of violence or excluding the person from a residence; or

(b) The person is eighteen years or older and within the preceding four hours has assaulted that person's spouse, former spouse, or a person eighteen years or older with whom the person resides or has formerly resided and the officer believes: (i) A felonious assault has occurred; (ii) an assault has occurred which has resulted in bodily injury to the victim, whether the injury is observable by the responding officer or not; or (iii) that any physical action has occurred which was intended to cause another person reasonably to fear imminent serious bodily injury or death. Bodily injury means physical pain, illness, or an impairment of physical condition. When the officer has probable cause to believe that spouses, former spouses, or other persons who reside together or formerly resided together have assaulted each other, the officer is not required to arrest both persons. The officer shall arrest the person whom the officer believes to be the primary physical aggressor. In making this determination, the officer shall make every reasonable effort to consider: (i) The intent to protect victims of domestic violence under RCW 10.99.010; (ii) the comparative extent of injuries inflicted or serious threats creating fear of physical injury; and (iii) the history of domestic violence between the persons involved.

(3) Any police officer having probable cause to believe that a person has committed or is committing a violation of any of the following traffic laws shall have the authority to arrest the person:

(a) RCW 46.52.010, relating to duty on striking an unattended car or other property;

(b) RCW 46.52.020, relating to duty in case of injury to or death of a person or damage to an attended vehicle;

(c) RCW 46.61.500 or 46.61.530, relating to reckless driving or racing of vehicles;

(d) RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504, relating to persons under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs;

(e) RCW 46.20.342, relating to driving a motor vehicle while operator's license is suspended or revoked;

(f) RCW 46.61.525, relating to operating a motor vehicle in a negligent manner.

(4) A law enforcement officer investigating at the scene of a motor vehicle accident may arrest the driver of a motor vehicle involved in the accident if the officer has probable cause to believe that the driver has committed in connection with the accident a violation of any traffic law or regulation.

(5) Any police officer having probable cause to believe that a person has committed or is committing a violation of RCW 88.02.095 shall have the authority to arrest the person.

(6) A police officer may arrest and take into custody, pending release on bail, personal recognizance, or court order, a person without a warrant when the officer has probable cause to believe that an order has been issued of which the person has knowledge under chapter 10.-- RCW (sections 1 through 19 of this 1987 act) and the person has violated the terms of that order.

(7) Except as specifically provided in subsections (2), (3), and (4) of this section, nothing in this section extends or otherwise affects the powers of arrest prescribed in Title 46 RCW.

((7)) (8) No police officer may be held criminally or civilly liable for making an arrest pursuant to RCW 10.31.100(2) or (6) if the police officer acts in good faith and without malice.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. Sections 1 through 19 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 10 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "harassment;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "reenacting and amending RCW 10.31.100; adding a new chapter to Title 10 RCW; and prescribing penalties."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 15, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5252 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. It is the intent of the legislature to make child abuse and neglect primary prevention education and training available to children, including preschool age children, parents, school employees, and licensed day care providers.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 28A.03 RCW to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction shall collect and disseminate to school districts information on child abuse and neglect prevention curriculum through the state clearinghouse for education information. The superintendent of public instruction and the departments of social and health services and community development shall share relevant information.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 28A.03 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The office of the superintendent of public instruction shall be the lead agency and shall assist the department of social and health services, the department of community development, and school districts in establishing a coordinated primary prevention program for child abuse and neglect.

(2) In developing the program, consideration shall be given to the following:

(a) Parent, teacher, and children's workshops whose information and training is:

(i) Provided in a clear, age-appropriate, nonthreatening manner, delineating the problem and the range of possible solutions;

(ii) Culturally and linguistically appropriate to the population served;

(iii) Appropriate to the geographic area served; and

(iv) Designed to help counteract common stereotypes about child abuse victims and offenders;

(b) Training for school age children's parents and school staff, which includes:

(i) Physical and behavioral indicators of abuse;

(ii) Crisis counseling techniques;

(iii) Community resources;

(iv) Rights and responsibilities regarding reporting;

(v) School district procedures to facilitate reporting and apprise supervisors and administrators of reports; and

(vi) Caring for a child's needs after a report is made;

(c) Training for licensed day care providers and parents that includes:

(i) Positive child guidance techniques;

(ii) Physical and behavioral indicators of abuse;

(iii) Recognizing and providing safe, quality day care;

(iv) Community resources;

(v) Rights and responsibilities regarding reporting; and

(vi) Caring for the abused or neglected child;

(d) Training for children that includes:

(i) The right of every child to live free of abuse;

(ii) How to disclose incidents of abuse and neglect;

(iii) The availability of support resources and how to obtain help;

(iv) Child safety training and age-appropriate self-defense techniques; and

(v) A period for crisis counseling and reporting immediately following the completion of each children's workshop in a school setting which maximizes the child's privacy and sense of safety.

(3) The primary prevention program established under this section shall be a voluntary program and shall not be part of the basic program of education.

(4) Parents shall be given notice of the primary prevention program and may refuse to have their children participate in the program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

The department of community development shall have primary responsibility for providing child abuse and neglect prevention training to preschool age children participating in the federal head start program or the early childhood education and assistance program established under chapter 28A.34A RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 74.15 RCW to read as follows:

The department of social and health services shall have primary responsibility for providing child abuse and neglect prevention training to parents and licensed child day care providers of preschool age children participating in day care programs meeting the requirements of chapter 74.15 RCW. The department may limit training under this section to trainers' workshops and curriculum development using existing resources.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 28A.58 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Every school district board of directors shall develop a written policy regarding the district's role and responsibility relating to the prevention of child abuse and neglect.

(2) Every school district shall, within the resources available to it: (a) Participate in the primary prevention program established under section 3 of this act; (b) develop and implement its own child abuse and neglect education and prevention program; or (c) continue with an existing local child abuse and neglect education and prevention program."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "education;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding new sections to chapter 28A.03 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 43.63A RCW; adding a new section to chapter 74.15 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 28A.58 RCW; and creating a new section."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5464 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 3.02 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Courts of limited jurisdiction may use collection agencies under chapter 19.16 RCW for purposes of collecting unpaid penalties on infractions, criminal fines, costs, assessments, civil judgments, or forfeitures that have been imposed by the courts. Courts of limited jurisdiction may enter into agreements with one or more attorneys or collection agencies for collection of outstanding penalties, fines, costs, assessments, and forfeitures. These agreements may specify the scope of work, remuneration for services, and other charges deemed appropriate.

(2) Courts of limited jurisdiction may use credit cards for purposes of billing and collecting unpaid penalties, fines, costs, assessments, and forfeitures so imposed. Courts of limited jurisdiction may enter into agreements with one or more financial institutions for the purpose of the collection of penalties, fines, costs, assessments, and forfeitures. The agreements may specify conditions, remuneration for services, and other charges deemed appropriate.

(3) Servicing of delinquencies by collection agencies or by collecting attorneys in which the court retains control of its delinquencies shall not constitute assignment of debt.

(4) For purposes of this section, the term debt shall include penalties, fines, costs, assessments, or forfeitures imposed by the courts.

(5) The court may assess as court costs the moneys paid for remuneration for services or charges paid to collecting attorneys, to collection agencies, or, in the case of credit cards, to financial institutions."

On page 1, beginning on line 1 of the title, after "jurisdiction;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and adding a new section to chapter 3.02 RCW."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 16, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5747 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 21, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 64.04.130 are each amended to read as follows:

A development right, easement, covenant, restriction, or other right, or any interest less than the fee simple, to protect, preserve, maintain, improve, restore, limit the future use of, or conserve for open space purposes, any land or improvement on the land, whether the right or interest be appurtenant or in gross, may be held or acquired by any state agency, federal agency, county, city, town, or metropolitan municipal corporation, nonprofit historic preservation corporation, or nonprofit nature conservancy corporation. Any such right or interest shall constitute and be classified as real property. All instruments for the conveyance thereof shall be substantially in the form required by law for the conveyance of any land or other real property.

As used in this section, "nonprofit nature conservancy corporation" means an organization which qualifies as being tax exempt under 26 U.S.C. section 501(c)(3) (of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended) as it existed on June 25, 1976, and which has as one of its principal purposes the conducting or facilitating of scientific research; the conserving of natural resources, including but not limited to biological resources, for the general public; or the conserving of natural areas including but not limited to wildlife or plant habitat.

As used in this section, "nonprofit historic preservation corporation" means an organization which qualifies as being tax exempt under 26 U.S.C. section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, and which has as one of its principal purposes the conducting or facilitating of historic preservation activities within the state, including conservation or preservation of historic sites, districts, buildings, and artifacts.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 243, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 22, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.210 are each amended to read as follows:

Any county, city, town, ((or)) metropolitan municipal corporation, nonprofit preservation corporation as defined in RCW 64.04.130, or nonprofit nature conservancy corporation or association, as such are defined in RCW 84.34.250, may acquire by purchase, gift, grant, bequest, devise, lease, or otherwise, except by eminent domain, the fee simple or any lesser interest, development right, easement, covenant, or other contractual right necessary to protect, preserve, maintain, improve, restore, limit the future use of, or otherwise conserve, selected open space land, farm and agricultural land, and timber land as such are defined in chapter 84.34 RCW for public use or enjoyment. Among interests that may be so acquired are mineral rights. Any county, city, town, metropolitan municipal corporation, nonprofit historic preservation corporation as defined in RCW 64.04.130, or nonprofit nature conservancy corporation or association, as such are defined in RCW 84.34.250, may acquire such property for the purpose of conveying or leasing the property back to its original owner or other person under such covenants or other contractual arrangements as will limit the future use of the property in accordance with the purposes of this 1971 amendatory act.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 243, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 22, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.220 are each amended to read as follows:

In accordance with the authority granted in RCW 84.34.210, a county, city, town, metropolitan municipal corporation, nonprofit historic preservation corporation as defined in RCW 64.04.130, or nonprofit nature conservancy corporation or association, as such are defined in RCW 84.34.250, may specifically purchase or otherwise acquire, except by eminent domain, rights in perpetuity to future development of any open space land, farm and agricultural land, and timber land which are so designated under the provisions of chapter 84.34 RCW and taxed at current use assessment as provided by that chapter. For the purposes of this 1971 amendatory act, such developmental rights shall be termed "conservation futures". The private owner may retain the right to continue any existing open space use of the land, and to develop any other open space use, but, under the terms of purchase of conservation futures, the county, city, town, metropolitan municipal corporation, nonprofit historic preservation corporation as defined in RCW 64.04.130, or nonprofit nature conservancy corporation or association, as such are defined in RCW 84.34.250, may forbid or restrict building thereon, or may require that improvements cannot be made without county, city, town, metropolitan municipal corporation, nonprofit historic preservation corporation as defined in RCW 64.04.130, or nonprofit nature conservancy corporation or association, as such are defined in RCW 84.34.250, permission. The land may be alienated or sold and used as formerly by the new owner, subject to the terms of the agreement made by the county, city, town, metropolitan municipal corporation, nonprofit historic preservation corporation as defined in RCW 64.04.130, or nonprofit nature conservancy corporation or association, as such are defined in RCW 84.34.250, with the original owner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 64.04 RCW to read as follows:

The criteria for monitoring historical conformance shall not exceed those included in the original donation agreement, unless agreed to in writing between grantor and grantee."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "corporations;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 64.04.130, 84.34.210, and 84.34.220; and adding a new section to chapter 64.04 RCW."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

Senator Williams moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 5747.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Williams, my understanding is that under the terms of the House amendment that nonprofit historic preservation corporations may acquire interest in real property for the conservation of open space, agricultural and timber lands. Is that correct?"

Senator Williams: "As I understand it, they added nonprofit conservation organizations. They are subject to that kind of statute. As I understand it, what the House did is put in historic preservation organizations also, so they are treated—a historic preservation organization is treated much the same as presently conservation organizations are."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Williams that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 5747.

The motion by Senator Williams carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 5747.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Senate Bill No. 5747, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Senate Bill No. 5747, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 5; absent, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McDermott, McDonald, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Patterson, Peterson, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 42.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Barr, McCaslin, Pullen, Rasmussen - 5.

Absent: Senators Owen, Tanner - 2.

SENATE BILL NO. 5747, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 13, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5986 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The College of Ocean and Fishery Sciences at the University of Washington shall conduct a study of the state's method of assessing damages occurring as a result of spills of oil. This study shall include, but not be limited to, an evaluation of Alaska's method of assessing oil spill damages, a survey of other state's damage assessment methods, and development of a recommended damage assessment methodology. Any recommended methodology shall include an analysis of the costs of implementing the recommended changes.

The study shall be conducted in conjunction with a technical advisory committee, hereby created. This committee shall consist of one representative from each of the following agencies, appointed by the executive head of the respective agency: The department of ecology, the department of game, the department of fisheries, the department of natural resources, and the National Oceanographic and Atmospheric Administration.

The results of the study shall be reported to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature by July 1, 1988.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 90.48 RCW to read as follows:

After June 30, 1988, any person or facility conducting ship refueling and bunkering operations, or the lightering of petroleum products, shall have containment and recovery equipment readily available for deployment in the event of the discharge of oil into the waters of the state. All persons conducting refueling, bunkering, or lightering operations shall be trained in the use and deployment of oil spill containment and recovery equipment. After examining existing equipment locations, the methods and conditions of deployment, and accessibility of any federal or other publicly or privately owned and operated containment and recovery equipment or systems, and reviewing federal, state, or local laws, rules, or regulations and ordinances governing refueling, bunkering, or lightering of petroleum products, the department of ecology may adopt rules as necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 38.52 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department of community development, in consultation with appropriate federal agencies, the departments of natural resources, game, fisheries, and ecology, representatives of local government, and any other person the director may deem appropriate, shall develop a model contingency plan, consistent with other plans required for hazardous materials by federal and state law, to serve as a draft plan for local governments which may be incorporated into the state and local emergency management plans.

(2) The model contingency plan shall:

(a) Include specific recommendations for pollution control facilities which are deemed to be most appropriate for the control, collection, storage, treatment, disposal, and recycling of oil and other spilled material and furthering the prevention and mitigation of such pollution;

(b) Include recommendations for the training of local personnel consistent with other training proposed, funded, or required by federal or state laws for hazardous materials;

(c) Suggest cooperative training exercises between the public and private sector consistent with other training proposed, funded, or required by federal or state laws for hazardous materials;

(d) Identify federal and state laws requiring contingency or management plans applicable or related to prevention of pollution, emergency response capabilities, and hazardous waste management, together with a list of funding sources that local governments may use in development of their specific plans;

(e) Promote formal agreements between the department of community development and local entities for effective spill response; and

(f) Develop policies and procedures for the augmentation of emergency services and agency spill response personnel through the use of volunteers: PROVIDED, That no contingency plan may require the use of volunteers by a responding responsible party without that party's consent.

Sec. 4. Section 104, page 94, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 1, page 190, Laws of 1888 and RCW 88.28.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person who shall in any manner obstruct the navigable portion or channel of any bay, harbor, or river or stream, within or bordering upon this state, navigable and generally used for the navigation of vessels, boats, or other watercrafts, or for the floating down of logs, cord wood, fencing posts or rails, shall, on conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not exceeding three hundred dollars: PROVIDED, That the placing of any mill dam or boom across a stream used for floating saw logs, cord wood, fencing posts or rails shall not be construed to be an obstruction to the navigation of such stream, if the same shall be so constructed as to allow the passage of boats, saw logs, cord wood, fencing posts or rails without unreasonable delay;

PROVIDED FURTHER, That the obstruction of navigable waters for the purpose of deploying equipment to contain or clean up a spill of oil or other hazardous material shall not be considered an obstruction."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "spills;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 88.28.050; adding a new section to chapter 38.52 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 90.48 RCW; and creating a new section."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senator Johnson was excused.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 13, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5857 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 2 through 6 of this act.

(1) "Board" means the medical disciplinary board of this state.

(2) "Committee" means a nonprofit corporation formed by physicians who have expertise in the areas of alcoholism, drug abuse, or mental illness and who broadly represent the physicians of the state and that has been designated to perform any or all of the activities set forth in section 2(1) of this act pursuant to rules adopted by the board under chapter 34.04 RCW.

(3) "Impaired" or "impairment" means the presence of the diseases of alcoholism, drug abuse, or mental illness.

(4) "Impaired physician program" means the program for the detection, intervention, and monitoring of impaired physicians established by the board pursuant to section 2(1) of this act.

(5) "Physician" means a person licensed under chapter 18.71 RCW.

(6) "Treatment program" means a plan of care and rehabilitation services provided by those organizations or persons authorized to provide such services to be approved by the board for impaired physicians taking part in the impaired physician program created by section 2 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) The board shall enter into a contract with the committee to implement an impaired physician program. The impaired physician program may include any or all of the following:

(a) Contracting with providers of treatment programs;

- (b) Receiving and evaluating reports of suspected impairment from any source;
  - (c) Intervening in cases of verified impairment;
  - (d) Referring impaired physicians to treatment programs;
  - (e) Monitoring the treatment and rehabilitation of impaired physicians including those ordered by the board;
  - (f) Providing post-treatment monitoring and support of rehabilitative impaired physicians;
- and
- (g) Performing such other activities as agreed upon by the board and the committee.

(2) A contract entered into under subsection (1) of this section shall be financed by a surcharge of up to fifteen dollars on each license renewal or issuance of a new license to be collected by the department of licensing from every physician and surgeon licensed under chapter 18.71 RCW in addition to other license fees and the medical discipline assessment fee established under RCW 18.72.380. These moneys shall be placed in the health professions account to be used solely for the implementation of the impaired physician program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The committee shall develop procedures in consultation with the board for:

- (1) Periodic reporting of statistical information regarding impaired physician activity;
- (2) Periodic disclosure and joint review of such information as the board may deem appropriate regarding reports received, contacts or investigations made, and the disposition of each report: PROVIDED, That the committee shall not disclose any personally identifiable information except as provided in subsections (3) and (4) of this section;
- (3) Immediate reporting to the board of the name and results of any contact or investigation regarding any impaired physician who is believed to constitute an imminent danger to the public;
- (4) Reporting to the board, in a timely fashion, any impaired physician who refuses to cooperate with the committee, refuses to submit to treatment, or whose impairment is not substantially alleviated through treatment, and who, in the opinion of the committee, is unable to practice medicine with reasonable skill and safety. However, impairment, in and of itself, shall not give rise to a presumption of the inability to practice medicine with reasonable skill and safety;
- (5) Informing each participant of the impaired physician program of the program procedures, the responsibilities of program participants, and the possible consequences of noncompliance with the program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If the board has reasonable cause to believe that a physician is impaired, the board shall cause an evaluation of such physician to be conducted by the committee or the committee's designee or the board's designee for the purpose of determining if there is an impairment. The committee or appropriate designee shall report the findings of its evaluation to the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. All committee records pertaining to the impaired physician program shall be kept confidential and are not subject to discovery or subpoena or admissible in any legal proceeding. Such records are not subject to disclosure pursuant to chapter 42.17 RCW. No person in attendance at any meeting of the committee may be required to testify as to any committee discussions or proceedings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. All committee records are not subject to disclosure pursuant to chapter 42.17 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 42.17 RCW to read as follows:
The disclosure requirements of this chapter shall not apply to records of the committee obtained in an action under sections 1 through 7 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 1 through 6 of this act are each added to chapter 18.72 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The sum of five hundred one thousand two hundred dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, from the health professions account to the department of licensing for the purposes of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1987."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "physicians;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding new sections to chapter 18.72 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 42.17 RCW; making an appropriation; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 17, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5008 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 84.56.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 131, Laws of 1984 and RCW 84.56.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The county treasurer shall be the receiver and collector of all taxes extended upon the tax rolls of the county, whether levied for state, county, school, bridge, road, municipal or other purposes, and also of all fines, forfeitures or penalties received by any person or officer for the use of his or her county. All taxes upon real and personal property made payable by the provisions of this title shall be due and payable to the treasurer as aforesaid on or before the thirtieth day of April and shall be delinquent after that date: PROVIDED, That each tax statement shall include a notice that checks for payment of taxes may be made payable to "Treasurer of _____ County" or other appropriate office, but tax statements shall not include any suggestion that checks may be made payable to the name of the individual holding the office of treasurer nor any other individual. PROVIDED FURTHER, That when the total amount of tax on personal property or on any lot, block or tract of real property payable by one person is ten dollars or more, and if one-half of such tax be paid on or before the said thirtieth day of April, the remainder of such tax shall be due and payable on or before the thirty-first day of October following and shall be delinquent after that date: PROVIDED FURTHER, That when the total amount of tax on any lot, block or tract of real property payable by one person is ten dollars or more, and if one-half of such tax be paid after the thirtieth day of April but before the thirty-first day of October, together with the applicable interest and penalty on the full amount of such tax, the remainder of such tax shall be due and payable on or before the thirty-first day of October following and shall be delinquent after that date.

Delinquent taxes under this section are subject to interest at the rate of twelve percent per annum computed on a monthly basis from the date of delinquency until paid. Interest shall be calculated at the rate in effect at the time of payment of the tax, regardless of when the taxes were first delinquent. In addition, delinquent taxes under this section are subject to penalties as follows:

(1) A penalty of three percent shall be assessed on the amount of tax delinquent on May 31st of the year in which the tax is due.

(2) An additional penalty of eight percent shall be assessed on the total amount of tax delinquent on November 30th of the year in which the tax is due.

(3) Penalties under this section shall not be assessed on taxes that were first delinquent prior to 1982.

For purposes of this chapter, "interest" means both interest and penalties.

All collections of interest on delinquent taxes shall be credited to the county current expense fund; but the cost of foreclosure and sale of real property, and the fees and costs of distraint and sale of personal property, for delinquent taxes, shall, when collected, be credited to the operation and maintenance fund of the county treasurer prosecuting the foreclosure or distraint or sale; and shall be used by the county treasurer as a revolving fund to defray the cost of further foreclosure, distraint and sale for delinquent taxes without regard to budget limitations.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. This act shall take effect January 1, 1988.

On page 1, beginning on line 1 of the title, after "payments;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 84.56.020; and providing an effective date."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Halsan, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 5008.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Senate Bill No. 5008, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Senate Bill No. 5008, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; excused, 6.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Talmadge, Tanner, Vogndil, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 43.

Excused: Senators DeJarnatt, Garrett, Johnson, Owen, Stratton, Williams - 6.

SENATE BILL NO. 5008, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 16, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5071 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 101, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 448, Laws of 1985 and RCW 70.105.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The words and phrases defined in this section shall have the meanings indicated when used in this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

- (1) "Department" means the department of ecology.
- (2) "Director" means the director of the department of ecology or his designee.
- (3) "Disposal site" means a geographical site in or upon which hazardous wastes are disposed of in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.
- (4) "Dispose or disposal" means the discarding or abandoning of hazardous wastes or the treatment, decontamination, or recycling of such wastes once they have been discarded or abandoned.
- (5) "Dangerous wastes" means any discarded, useless, unwanted, or abandoned (~~non-radioactive~~) substances, including but not limited to certain pesticides, or any residues or containers of such substances which are disposed of in such quantity or concentration as to pose a substantial present or potential hazard to human health, wildlife, or the environment because such wastes or constituents or combinations of such wastes:
  - (a) Have short-lived, toxic properties that may cause death, injury, or illness or have mutagenic, teratogenic, or carcinogenic properties; or
  - (b) Are corrosive, explosive, flammable, or may generate pressure through decomposition or other means.
- (6) "Extremely hazardous waste" means any dangerous waste which
  - (a) will persist in a hazardous form for several years or more at a disposal site and which in its persistent form
    - (i) presents a significant environmental hazard and may be concentrated by living organisms through a food chain or may affect the genetic make-up of man or wildlife, and
    - (ii) is highly toxic to man or wildlife
  - (b) if disposed of at a disposal site in such quantities as would present an extreme hazard to man or the environment.
- (7) "Person" means any person, firm, association, county, public or municipal or private corporation, agency, or other entity whatsoever.
- (8) "Pesticide" shall have the meaning of the term as defined in RCW 15.58.030 as now or hereafter amended.
- (9) "Solid waste advisory committee" means the same advisory committee as per RCW 70.95.040 through 70.95.070.
- (10) "Designated zone facility" means any facility that requires an interim or final status permit under rules adopted under this chapter and that is not a preempted facility as defined in this section.
- (11) "Facility" means all contiguous land and structures, other appurtenances, and improvements on the land used for recycling, storing, treating, incinerating, or disposing of hazardous waste.
- (12) "Preempted facility" means any facility that includes as a significant part of its activities any of the following operations: (a) Landfill, (b) incineration, (c) land treatment, (d) surface impoundment to be closed as a landfill, or (e) waste pile to be closed as a landfill.
- (13) "Hazardous household substances" means those substances identified by the department as hazardous household substances in the guidelines developed under RCW 70.105.220.
- (14) "Hazardous substances" means any liquid, solid, gas, or sludge, including any material, substance, product, commodity, or waste, regardless of quantity, that exhibits any of the characteristics or criteria of hazardous waste as described in rules adopted under this chapter.
- (15) "Hazardous waste" means and includes all dangerous and extremely hazardous waste, including substances composed of radioactive and hazardous components.
- (16) "Local government" means a city, town, or county.
- (17) "Moderate-risk waste" means (a) any waste that exhibits any of the properties of hazardous waste but is exempt from regulation under this chapter solely because the waste is generated in quantities below the threshold for regulation, and (b) any household wastes which are generated from the disposal of substances identified by the department as hazardous household substances.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 70.105 RCW to read as follows:

The department of ecology may regulate all hazardous wastes, including those composed of both radioactive and hazardous components, to the extent it is not preempted by federal law.

Sec. 3. Section 11, chapter 101, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 237, Laws of 1984 and RCW 70.105.110 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~((With the exception of subsection (2), nothing in this chapter shall apply to any radioactive waste or radioactive material.~~

(2)) Nothing in this chapter shall alter, amend, or supersede the provisions of chapter 80.50 RCW, except that, notwithstanding any provision of chapter 80.50 RCW, regulation of dangerous wastes associated with energy facilities from generation to disposal shall be solely by the department pursuant to chapter 70.105 RCW. In the implementation of said section, the department shall consult and cooperate with the energy facility site evaluation council and, in order to reduce duplication of effort and to provide necessary coordination of monitoring and on-site inspection programs at energy facility sites, any on-site inspection by the department that may be required for the purposes of this chapter shall be performed pursuant to an interagency coordination agreement with the council.

((2)) (2) To facilitate the implementation of this chapter, the energy facility site evaluation council may require certificate holders to remove from their energy facility sites any dangerous wastes, controlled by this chapter, within ninety days of their generation.

Sec. 4. Section 5, chapter 101, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 70.105.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No person shall dispose of designated extremely hazardous wastes at any disposal site in the state other than the disposal site established and approved for such purpose under provisions of this chapter, except when such wastes are going to a processing facility which will result in the waste being reclaimed, treated, detoxified, neutralized, or otherwise processed to remove its harmful properties or characteristics.

(2) Extremely hazardous wastes that contain radioactive components may be disposed at a radioactive waste disposal site that is (a) owned by the United States department of energy or a licensee of the nuclear regulatory commission and (b) permitted by the department and operated in compliance with the provisions of this chapter. However, prior to disposal, or as a part of disposal, all reasonable methods of treatment, detoxification, neutralization, or other waste management methodologies designed to mitigate hazards associated with these wastes shall be employed, as required by applicable federal and state laws and regulations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 70.105 RCW to read as follows:

Nothing in this chapter diminishes the authority of the department of social and health services to regulate the radioactive portion of mixed wastes pursuant to chapter 70.98 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 43.21A RCW to read as follows:

(1) The legislature finds that there are a significant number of federal facilities operating within this state which may contribute to environmental contamination such that public health and the economy of this state could be adversely affected. The legislature further finds that state and federal environmental protection programs have not been consistently applied to or complied with by the federal government such that it is now necessary to undertake a special effort to identify those areas where environmental laws and standards should be applied and take actions to ensure that they are.

(2) The department shall use all available means consistent with federal law to apply and enforce state and federal environmental laws and standards related to hazardous wastes as to all federal facilities operating within this state.

(3) The department shall prepare a written report and submit it to the standing committees on environment and energy of the legislature during January of each year which describes the major federal facilities operating within this state and whether they are in compliance with federal and state environmental laws."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "wastes;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 70.105.010, 70.105.110, and 70.105.050; adding a new section to chapter 43.21A RCW; and adding new sections to chapter 70.105 RCW."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Rasmussen moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5071.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, I would raise the point of order that the House amendments may expand the scope and object of the bill. I have listened carefully to the remarks of Senator Benitz and Senator Kreidler and I think they were both making some excellent points that it does indeed expand the scope and object. They referred to the expansion of scope and object dealing with mixed waste.

They also referred to the expansion of scope and object with regard to the Department of Ecology, so their own arguments convinced me and for that reason, I am raising the question of scope and object."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5071 was deferred.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 17, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5086 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The purpose of this act is to ensure that sex offenders and serious violent offenders continue to be supervised by department of corrections staff when released from total or partial confinement upon reaching their earned early release date. Community custody is designed to provide more effective offender management and to thereby assist in the protection of the public. Community custody is distinct and separate from community supervision.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 17, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Commission" means the sentencing guidelines commission.

(2) "Community corrections officer" means an employee of the department who is responsible for carrying out specific duties in supervision of sentenced offenders and monitoring of sentence conditions.

(3) "Community custody" is a department of corrections program designed to intensely monitor offenders convicted of any sex offense or serious violent offense following transfer from partial or total confinement.

(4) "Community service" means compulsory service, without compensation, performed for the benefit of the community by the offender. For purposes of the interstate compact for out of state supervision of parolees and probationers, RCW 9.95.270, community supervision is the functional equivalent of probation and should be considered the same as probation by other states.

~~((4))~~ (5) "Community supervision" means a period of time during which a convicted offender is subject to crime-related prohibitions and other sentence conditions imposed pursuant to this chapter by a court. For first-time offenders, the supervision may include crime-related prohibitions and other conditions imposed pursuant to RCW 9.94A.120(5).

~~((5))~~ (6) "Confinement" means total or partial confinement as defined in this section.

~~((6))~~ (7) "Conviction" means an adjudication of guilt pursuant to Titles 10 or 13 RCW and includes a verdict of guilty, a finding of guilty, and acceptance of a plea of guilty.

~~((7))~~ (8) "Crime-related prohibition" means an order of a court prohibiting conduct that directly relates to the circumstances of the crime for which the offender has been convicted, and shall not be construed to mean orders directing an offender affirmatively to participate in rehabilitative programs or to otherwise perform affirmative conduct.

~~((8))~~ (9) (a) "Criminal history" means the list of a defendant's prior convictions, whether in this state, in federal court, or elsewhere. The history shall include, where known, for each conviction (i) whether the defendant has been placed on probation and the length and terms thereof; and (ii) whether the defendant has been incarcerated and the length of incarceration.

(b) "Criminal history" includes a defendant's prior convictions in juvenile court if: (i) The conviction was for an offense which is a felony and is criminal history as defined in RCW 13.40.020(6)(a); (ii) the defendant was fifteen years of age or older at the time the offense was committed; and (iii) with respect to prior juvenile class B and C felonies, the defendant was less than twenty-three years of age at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

~~((9))~~ (10) "Department" means the department of corrections.

~~((10))~~ (11) "Determinate sentence" means a sentence that states with exactitude the number of actual years, months, or days of total confinement, of partial confinement, of community supervision, the number of actual hours or days of community service work, or dollars or terms of a fine or restitution. The fact that an offender through "earned early release" can reduce the actual period of confinement shall not affect the classification of the sentence as a determinate sentence.

~~((11))~~ (12) "Drug offense" means any felony violation of chapter 69.50 RCW except possession of a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.401(d)) or forged prescription for a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.403).

((13)) (13) "Escape" means escape in the first degree (RCW 9A.76.110), escape in the second degree (RCW 9A.76.120), wilful failure to return from furlough (RCW 72.66.060), or wilful failure to return from work release (RCW 72.65.070).

((14)) (14) "Felony traffic offense" means vehicular homicide (RCW 46.61.520), vehicular assault (RCW 46.61.522), or felony hit-and-run injury-accident (RCW 46.52.020(4)).

((15)) (15) "Fines" means the requirement that the offender pay a specific sum of money over a specific period of time to the court.

((16)) (16) (a) "First-time offender" means any person who is convicted of a felony not classified as a violent offense or a sex offense under this chapter, and except as provided in (b) of this subsection, who previously has never been convicted of a felony in this state, federal court, or another state, and who has never participated in a program of deferred prosecution for a felony offense.

(b) For purposes of (a) of this subsection, a juvenile adjudication for an offense committed before the age of fifteen years is not a previous felony conviction.

((17)) (17) "Nonviolent offense" means an offense which is not a violent offense.

((18)) (18) "Offender" means a person who has committed a felony established by state law and is eighteen years of age or older or is less than eighteen years of age but whose case has been transferred by the appropriate juvenile court to a criminal court pursuant to RCW 13.40.110. Throughout this chapter, the terms "offender" and "defendant" are used interchangeably.

((19)) (19) "Partial confinement" means confinement for no more than one year in a facility or institution operated or utilized under contract by the state or any the state or any other unit of government, for a substantial portion of each day with the balance of the day spent in the community.

((20)) (20) "Restitution" means the requirement that the offender pay a specific sum of money over a specific period of time to the court as payment of damages. The sum may include both public and private costs. The imposition of a restitution order does not preclude civil redress.

((21)) (21) "Serious traffic offense" means driving while intoxicated (RCW 46.61.502), actual physical control while intoxicated (RCW 46.61.504), reckless driving (RCW 46.61.500), or hit-and-run an attended vehicle (RCW 46.52.020(5)).

((22)) (22) "Serious violent offense" is a subcategory of violent offense and means murder in the first degree, murder in the second degree, assault in the first degree, kidnapping in the first degree, or rape in the first degree, or an attempt, criminal solicitation, or criminal conspiracy to commit one of these felonies.

((23)) (23) "Sentence range" means the sentencing court's discretionary range in imposing a nonappealable sentence.

((24)) (24) "Sex offense" means a felony that is a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020 or 9.68A.090 or that is, under chapter 9A.28 RCW, a criminal attempt, criminal solicitation, or criminal conspiracy to commit such crimes.

((25)) (25) "Total confinement" means confinement inside the physical boundaries of a facility or institution operated or utilized under contract by the state or any other unit of government for twenty-four hours a day, or pursuant to RCW 72.64.050 and 72.64.060.

((26)) (26) "Victim" means any person who has sustained physical or financial injury to person or property as a direct result of the crime charged.

((27)) (27) "Violent offense" means:

(a) Any of the following felonies, as now existing or hereafter amended: Any felony defined under any law as a class A felony or an attempt to commit a class A felony, criminal solicitation or criminal conspiracy to commit a class A felony, manslaughter in the first degree, manslaughter in the second degree, indecent liberties if committed by forcible compulsion, rape in the second degree, kidnapping in the second degree, arson in the second degree, assault in the second degree, extortion in the first degree, robbery in the second degree, vehicular homicide, and vehicular assault;

(b) Any conviction for a felony offense in effect at any time prior to July 1, 1976, that is comparable to a felony classified as a violent offense in subsection ((26)) (27) (a) of this section; and

(c) Any federal or out-of-state conviction for an offense that under the laws of this state would be a felony classified as a violent offense under subsection ((26)) (27) (a) or (b) of this section.

Sec. 3. Section 12, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 20, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and by section 4, chapter 301, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.120 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this section.

(1) Except as authorized in subsections (2), (5), and (7) of this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range for the offense.

(2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(3) Whenever a sentence outside the standard range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard range shall be a determinate sentence.

(4) An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years. An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than three years, and shall not be eligible for furlough, work release or other authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility during such minimum three year term except for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility. The foregoing minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) In sentencing a first-time offender the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(a) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(b) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense;

(c) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;

(d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;

(e) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer; or

(f) Pay a fine and/or accomplish some community service work.

(6) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or a fine. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(7) (a) When an offender is convicted of a sex offense other than a violation of RCW 9A.44-.040 or RCW 9A.44.050 and has no prior convictions for a sex offense or any other felony sexual offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

After receipt of the reports, the court shall then determine whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative. If the court determines that both the offender and the community will benefit from use of this provision, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range and, if this sentence is less than six years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and place the offender on community supervision for up to two years. As a condition of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense, crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(ii) Undergo available outpatient sex offender treatment for up to two years, or inpatient sex offender treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment;

(iii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;

(iv) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;

(v) Pay a fine, accomplish some community service work, or any combination thereof; or

(vi) Make recoupment to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime.

If the offender violates these sentence conditions the court may revoke the suspension and order execution of the sentence. All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(b) When an offender (~~is convicted of~~) commits any felony sexual offense and is sentenced on or after July 1, 1987, and is sentenced to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, request the department of corrections to evaluate whether the offender is amenable to treatment and the department may place the offender in a treatment program within a correctional facility operated by the department.

If the offender completes the treatment program before the expiration of his term of confinement, the department of corrections may request the court to convert the balance of confinement to community ((supervision and to place conditions on the offender including crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment)) custody with the same conditions as placed on the offender by the court at the original imposition of sentence pursuant to subsection (8)(a) of this section.

If the offender violates any of the terms of his community ((supervision)) custody, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of his ((community supervision)) term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections.

Nothing in (b) of this subsection shall confer eligibility for such programs for offenders convicted and sentenced for a sexual offense committed prior to July 1, 1987.

After June 30, 1993, (b) of this subsection shall cease to have effect.

((c) Whenever a court sentences a person convicted of a sex offense committed after July 1, 1986, to a term of confinement of more than one year, including a sentence under (b) of this subsection, the court may also order, in addition to the other terms of the sentence, that the offender, upon release from confinement, serve up to two years of community supervision. The conditions of supervision shall be limited to:

- (i) Crime-related provisions;
- (ii) A requirement that the offender report to a community corrections officer at regular intervals; and
- (iii) A requirement to remain within or without stated geographical boundaries.

The length and conditions of supervision shall be set by the court at the time of sentencing. However, within thirty days prior to release from confinement and throughout the period of supervision, the length and conditions of supervision may be modified by the sentencing court, upon motion of the department of corrections, the offender, or the prosecuting attorney. The period of supervision shall be tolled during any time the offender is in confinement for any reason. In no case may the period of supervision, in combination with the other terms of the offender's sentence, exceed the statutory maximum term for the offender's crime, as set forth in RCW 9A.20.021.

If the offender violates any condition of supervision, the sentencing court, after a hearing conducted in the same manner as provided for in RCW 9.94A.200, may order the offender to be confined for up to sixty days in the county jail at state expense from funds provided for this purpose to the department of corrections. Reimbursement rates for such purposes shall be established based on a formula determined by the office of financial management and reestablished each even-numbered year. An offender may be held in jail at state expense pending the hearing, and any time served while awaiting the hearing shall be credited against confinement imposed for a violation. Even after the period of supervision has expired, an offender may be confined for a violation occurring during the period of supervision. The court shall retain jurisdiction for the purpose of holding the violation hearing and imposing a sanction:))

(8)(a) When a court sentences a person to a term of total confinement to the custody of the department of corrections for a sex offense or a serious violent offense committed on or after July 1, 1987, the court shall order that the offender shall be transferred from confinement to community custody when the offender is eligible for community custody status in lieu of earned early release time pursuant to RCW 9.94A.150(1), as compiled by the department of corrections. An offender shall be released from community custody after serving the total sentence imposed by the court or one year, whichever is less.

(b) When a court sentences a person to a term of total confinement to the custody of the department of corrections for a sex offense or serious violent offense committed on or after July 1, 1987, unless a condition is waived by the court, the sentence shall include, in addition to the other terms of the sentence, the following conditions regarding the community custody program of the department of corrections:

- (i) The offender shall report to and be available for contact with the assigned community corrections officer as directed;
- (ii) The offender shall work at department of corrections-approved education, employment, and/or community service;
- (iii) The offender shall not consume or possess controlled substances; and
- (iv) The offender shall pay community custody fees as determined by the department of corrections.

(c) The court may also order any of the following special community custody conditions:

(i) The offender shall remain within, or outside of, a specified geographical boundary;

(ii) The offender shall not have direct or indirect contact with the victim of the crime;

(iii) The offender shall not consume alcohol;

(iv) The residence location and living arrangements of a sex offender shall be subject to the prior approval of the department of corrections; or

(v) The offender shall comply with any crime-related prohibitions.

(d) The offender shall submit to a search and seizure of the offender's person, residence, automobile, or other personal property.

(9) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

((+9)) (10) If a sentence imposed includes a fine or restitution, the sentence shall specify a reasonable manner and time in which the fine or restitution shall be paid. In any sentence under this chapter the court may also require the offender to make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary (a) to pay court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required, (b) to make recoupment of the cost of defense attorney's fees if counsel is provided at public expense, (c) to contribute to a county or interlocal drug fund, and (d) to make such other payments as provided by law. All monetary payments shall be ordered paid by no later than ten years after the date of the judgment of conviction.

((+10)) (11) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(1), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW.

((+11)) (12) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, restitution, or fines shall be under the supervision of the secretary of the department of corrections or such person as the secretary may designate and shall follow implicitly the instructions of the secretary including reporting as directed to a community corrections officer, remaining within prescribed geographical boundaries, and notifying the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment.

((+12)) (13) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

((+13)) (14) A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400(1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, and may be appealed by the defendant or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210(2) through (6).

((+14)) (15) The court shall order restitution whenever the offender is convicted of a felony that results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property, whether the offender is sentenced to confinement or placed under community supervision, unless extraordinary circumstances exist that make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment. The court shall set forth the extraordinary circumstances in the record if it does not order restitution.

Sec. 4. Section 15, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 8, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.150 are each amended to read as follows:

No person serving a sentence imposed pursuant to this chapter shall leave the confines of the correctional facility or be released prior to the expiration of the sentence except as follows:

(1) Except for sex offenders and serious violent offenders, the terms of the sentence may be reduced by earned early release time in accordance with procedures developed and promulgated by the department. The earned early release time shall be for good behavior and good performance, as determined by the department. In no case shall the aggregate earned early release time exceed one-third of the sentence. Sex offenders and serious violent offenders may become eligible for community custody in lieu of earned early release time in accordance with the program developed and promulgated by the department;

(2) When a sex offender or serious violent offender is eligible for transfer to community custody status in lieu of earned early release time pursuant to RCW 9.94A.150(1), as computed by the department of corrections, the offender shall be transferred from confinement to community custody. A person so transferred shall continue to be considered an inmate for all purposes.

(3) An offender may leave a correctional facility pursuant to an authorized furlough or leave of absence. In addition, offenders may leave a correctional facility when in the custody of a corrections officer or officers;

((+3)) (4) The governor, upon recommendation from the clemency and pardons board, may grant an extraordinary release for reasons of serious health problems, senility, advanced age, extraordinary meritorious acts, or other extraordinary circumstances;

((+4)) (5) If the sentence of confinement is in excess of twelve months but not in excess of three years, no more than the final three months of the sentence may be served in partial confinement designed to aid the offender in finding work and reestablishing him or herself in the community. If the sentence of confinement is in excess of three years, no more than the final six months of the sentence may be served in such partial confinement;

((5)) (6) The governor may pardon any offender;

((6)) (7) The department of corrections may release an offender from confinement any time within ten days before a release date calculated under this section; and

((7)) (8) An offender may leave a correctional facility prior to completion of his sentence if the sentence has been reduced as provided in RCW 9.94A.160.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 9.94A RCW to read as follows:

If an offender violates any condition or requirement of community custody, the department may impose sanctions. If an offender is accused of violating any condition or requirement of community custody, he or she is entitled to a hearing before sanctions may be imposed. The department shall promulgate rules governing such hearing procedures and sanctions. Detention of an offender pursuant to section 6 of this act shall not be considered a sanction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 9.94A RCW to read as follows:

(1) The secretary may issue warrants for the arrest of any offender who violates a condition of community custody. The arrest warrants shall authorize any law enforcement or peace officer or community corrections officer of this state or any other state where such offender may be located, to arrest the offender and place him or her in total confinement pending return to confinement in a state correctional institution. The department shall compensate the local jurisdiction at the office of financial management's adjudicated rate, in accordance with RCW 70.48.440. A community corrections officer, if he or she has reasonable cause to believe an offender in community custody has violated a condition of community custody, may suspend the person's community custody status and arrest or cause the arrest and detention in total confinement of the offender in a state facility, pending the determination of the secretary as to whether the violation has occurred. The community corrections officer shall report to the secretary all facts and circumstances and the reasons for the action of suspending community custody status.

(2) Inmates, as defined in RCW 72.09.020, who have been transferred to community custody and who are detained in a local correctional facility are the financial responsibility of the department of corrections. The community custody inmate shall be removed from the local correctional facility not later than eight days, excluding weekends and holidays, following admittance to the local correctional facility and notification that the inmate is available for movement to a state correctional institution. However, if good cause is shown, the department may negotiate with local correctional authorities for an additional period of detention.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 72.09 RCW to read as follows:

An offender in community custody who wilfully fails to report to the assigned community corrections officer at the time specified by the department of corrections shall be deemed an escapee and fugitive from justice, and upon conviction shall be guilty of a class C felony under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 72.09 RCW to read as follows:

Community corrections officers and volunteers who assist community corrections officers in the community custody program are not liable for civil damages resulting from any act or omission in the rendering of community custody monitoring activities, other than acts or omissions constituting gross negligence or wilful or wanton misconduct. For purposes of this section, "volunteers" is defined according to RCW 51.12.035.

Sec. 9. Section 7, chapter 136, Laws of 1981 and RCW 72.09.020 are each amended to read as follows:

For purposes of this chapter, "inmate" means any person committed to the custody of the department, including but not limited to persons residing in a correctional institution or facility and persons released on furlough ((or)), work release, or community custody.

Sec. 10. Section 17, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.94A.170 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A term of confinement ordered in a sentence pursuant to this chapter shall be tolled by any period of time during which the offender has absented him or herself from supervision without the prior approval of the entity in whose custody the offender has been placed.

(2) The period of community custody shall be tolled during any period of time the offender is in confinement for any reason. However, if an offender is detained pursuant to section 6 of this act and is later found not to have violated a condition or requirement of community custody, time spent in total confinement due to such detention shall not toll the period of community custody. The period of community custody shall be tolled by any period of time during which the offender has absented himself or herself from monitoring without prior approval of the entity under whose supervision the offender has been placed. For the period of a sentence during which an offender is placed in community custody, the date for the tolling of the sentence shall be established by the department of corrections.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1987.*

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 17, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5110 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 54, Laws of 1981 and RCW 28A.58.822 are each amended to read as follows:

There is established by the legislature of the state of Washington the Washington state scholars program. The purposes of this program ((annually)) are to:

(1) Annually provide for the selection of three seniors graduating from high schools, and residing in each legislative district, who have distinguished themselves academically among their peers.

(2) Maximize public awareness of the academic achievement, leadership ability, and community contribution of Washington state public and private high school seniors through appropriate recognition ceremonies and events at both the local and state level.

(3) Provide a listing of the Washington scholars to all Washington state public and private colleges and universities to facilitate communication regarding academic programs and scholarship availability.

(4) Make available a state level mechanism for utilization of private funds for scholarship awards to outstanding high school seniors.

(5) Provide, on written request and with student permission, a listing of the Washington scholars to private scholarship selection committees for notification of scholarship availability.

Sec. 2. Section 17, chapter 278, Laws of 1984 as amended by section 16, chapter 341, Laws of 1985 and by section 68, chapter 370, Laws of 1985 and by section 30, chapter 390, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28B.15.543 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

~~((+))~~ The boards of regents and trustees of the regional universities, state universities, (and) The Evergreen State College, and the community colleges shall waive tuition and service and activities fees for ((two years for)) recipients of the Washington scholars award under RCW 28A.58.820 through 28A.58.830 for undergraduate studies. To qualify for the waiver, recipients shall enter the college or university within three years of high school graduation and maintain a minimum grade point average at the college or university equivalent to 3.50.

~~((2))~~ The higher education coordinating board shall report to the legislature on or before January 15, 1986, on the tuition waivers for the Washington scholars program. The report shall include an evaluation and recommendations on the effect of extending the waivers for a period of four years)) Students shall be eligible for waivers for a maximum of twelve quarters or eight semesters and may transfer among state institutions of higher education during that period and continue to have the tuition and services and activities fees waived by the state institution of higher education that the student attends. Should the student's cumulative grade point average fall below 3.50 during the first three quarters or two semesters, that student may petition the higher education coordinating board which shall have the authority to establish a one semester or two quarter probationary period until such time as the student's grade point average meets required standards. During the probationary period the student is eligible to receive the waiver. The higher education coordinating board shall adopt rules outlining a procedure to be used by award recipients who wish to decline their waiver. If a recipient declines a waiver, the waiver may be used by a nominee from the same legislative district who was not selected to receive the award, under rules adopted by the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The amendments to RCW 28B.15.543 by section 2 of this act shall apply to persons holding the Washington scholars award as of the effective date of this section as well as persons holding the award after the effective date of this section."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "waivers;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 28A.58.822; reenacting and amending RCW 28B.15.543; and creating a new section."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Gaspard moved that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5110 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator Gaspard, was this the measure in which we had said that if they were going to a private institution, that that fee waiver--that we would make that contribution, shall we say, to the private university?"

Senator Gaspard: "If I remember correctly, we did have a measure that indicated not more than--I believe it was approximately one-third of the students--could go to a private university or college and the House changed that, also."

Senator Lee: "That's what I was going to ask, whether the House had removed that because it was something that some of us objected to, even though there were good parts to the bill. I wanted to ask you one other question relating to--you explained very clearly the problem with saying where these youngsters had to live or these young men and young woman had to live. The other portion that you were talking about which is the grade point, what is the difference between these two bills?"

Senator Gaspard: "The legislation that we passed out of this body had a minimum of a 3.3 grade point average. The House has a 3.5."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Gaspard that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5110.

The motion by Senator Gaspard carried and the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5110 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 17, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5124 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 577, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.55.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The definitions set forth in this section apply throughout this chapter:

(1) "Abandoned vehicle" means a vehicle that a registered tow truck operator has impounded and held in his possession for ninety-six consecutive hours.

(2) "Abandoned vehicle report" means the document prescribed by the state that the towing operator forwards to the department after a vehicle has become abandoned.

(3) "Commission" means the state commission on equipment established under RCW 46.37.005.

(4) "Impound" means to take and hold a vehicle in legal custody. There are two types of impounds--public and private.

(a) "Public impound" means that the vehicle has been impounded at the direction of a law enforcement officer or ((~~other~~)) by a public official having jurisdiction over the public property upon which the vehicle was located.

(b) "Private impound" means that the vehicle has been impounded at the direction of a person having control or possession of the private property upon which the vehicle was located.

(5) "Junk vehicle" means a motor vehicle certified under RCW 46.55.230 as meeting all the following requirements:

(a) Is three years old or older;

(b) Is extensively damaged, such damage including but not limited to any of the following: A broken window or windshield or missing wheels, tires, motor, or transmission;

(c) Is apparently inoperable;

(d) Is without a valid, current registration plate;

(e) Has a fair market value equal only to the value of the scrap in it.

(6) "Registered tow truck operator" or "operator" means any person who engages in the impounding, transporting, or storage of unauthorized vehicles or the disposal of abandoned vehicles.

(7) "Residential property" means property that has no more than four living units located on it.

(8) "Tow truck" means a motor vehicle that is equipped for and used in the business of towing vehicles with equipment as approved by the commission.

(9) "Tow truck number" means the number issued by the department to tow trucks used by a registered tow truck operator in the state of Washington.

(10) "Tow truck permit" means the permit issued annually by the department that has the classification of service the tow truck may provide stamped upon it.

(11) "Tow truck service" means the transporting upon the public streets and highways of this state of ((~~unauthorized~~)) vehicles, together with personal effects and cargo, by a tow truck of a registered operator.

(12) "Unauthorized vehicle" means a vehicle that is subject to impoundment after being left unattended in one of the following public or private locations for the indicated period of time:

Subject to removal after:

(a) Public locations:

(i) Constituting a traffic hazard as defined in RCW 46.61.565 ..... Immediately

(ii) On a highway and tagged as described in RCW 46.52.170 ..... 24 hours

(iii) In a publicly owned or controlled parking facility, properly posted under RCW 46.55.070 ..... Immediately

(b) Private locations:

(i) On residential property ..... Immediately

(ii) On private, nonresidential property, properly posted under RCW 46.55.070 ..... Immediately

(iii) On private, nonresidential property, not posted ..... 24 hours

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.55.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Application for licensing as a registered tow truck operator shall be made on forms furnished by the department, shall be accompanied by an inspection certification from the Washington state patrol, shall be signed by the applicant or his agent, and shall include the following information:

(a) The name and address of the person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation under whose name the business is to be conducted;

(b) The names and addresses of all persons having an interest in the business, or if the owner is a corporation, the names and addresses of the officers of the corporation;

(c) The names and addresses of all employees who serve as tow truck drivers;

(d) Proof of minimum insurance required by subsection (3) of this section;

(e) Any other information the department may require; and

(f) A certificate of approval from the chief of police if the applicant's principal place of business is located in a city or town having a population over five thousand persons or, in all other instances, from a member of the Washington state patrol, certifying that:

(i) The applicant has an established place of business at the address shown on the application;

(ii) The place of business has an office area that is accessible to the public without entering the storage area; and

(iii) The place of business has adequate and secure storage facilities, as defined in this chapter and the rules of the department, where vehicles and their contents can be properly stored and protected.

(2) Before issuing a registration certificate to an applicant the department shall require the applicant to file with the department a surety bond in the amount of five thousand dollars running to the state and executed by a surety company authorized to do business in this state. The bond shall be approved as to form by the attorney general and conditioned that the operator shall conduct his business in conformity with the provisions of this chapter pertaining to abandoned or unauthorized vehicles, and to compensate any person, company, or the state for failure to comply with this chapter or the rules adopted hereunder, or for fraud, negligence, or misrepresentation in the handling of these vehicles. Any person injured by the tow truck operator's failure to fully perform duties imposed by this chapter and the rules adopted hereunder, or an ordinance or resolution adopted by a city, town, or county is entitled to recover actual damages, including reasonable attorney's fees against the surety and the tow truck operator. Successive recoveries against the bond shall be permitted, but the aggregate liability of the surety to all persons shall not exceed the amount of the bond. As a condition of authority to do business, the operator shall keep the bond in full force and effect. Failure to maintain the penalty value of the bond or cancellation of the bond by the surety automatically cancels the operator's registration.

(3) Before the department may issue a registration certificate to an applicant, the applicant shall provide proof of minimum insurance requirements of:

(a) (~~Two~~) One hundred (~~fifty~~) thousand dollars for liability for bodily injury or property damage per occurrence; and

(b) (~~One hundred~~) Fifty thousand dollars of legal liability per occurrence, to protect against vehicle damage, including but not limited to fire and theft, from the time a vehicle comes into the custody of an operator until it is redeemed or sold.

(4) The fee for each original registration and annual renewal is one hundred dollars per company, plus fifty dollars per truck. The department shall forward the registration fee to the state treasurer for deposit in the motor vehicle fund.

(5) Upon approval of the application, the department shall issue a registration certificate to the registered operator to be displayed prominently at the operator's place of business.

Sec. 3. Section 6, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.55.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The address that the tow truck operator lists on his or her application shall be the business location of the firm where its files are kept. Each separate business location requires a separate registration under this chapter. The application shall also list all locations of secure areas for vehicle storage and redemption.

(2) At the business locations listed where vehicles may be redeemed, the registered operator shall post in a conspicuous and accessible location:

(a) All pertinent licenses and permits to operate as a registered tow truck operator;

(b) The current towing and storage charges itemized on a form approved by the department;

(c) The vehicle redemption procedure and rights;

(d) Information supplied by the department as to where complaints regarding either equipment or service are to be directed;

(e) Information concerning the acceptance of commercially reasonable tender as defined in RCW 46.55.120(1)(b).

(3) Ten days before the effective date of any change in an operator's fee schedule, the registered tow truck operator shall file the revised fee schedule with the department.

(4) The department shall adopt rules concerning fencing and security requirements of storage areas, which may provide for modifications or exemptions where needed to achieve compliance with local zoning laws.

(5) On any day when the registered tow truck operator holds the towing services open for business, the business office shall remain open with personnel present who are able to release impounded vehicles in accordance with this chapter and the rules adopted under it.

(6) A registered tow truck operator shall maintain personnel who can be contacted twenty-four hours a day to release impounded vehicles within a reasonable time.

(7) Towing contracts with private property owners shall be in written form and state the hours of authorization to impound, the persons empowered to authorize such impounds, and the present charge of a private impound for the classes of tow trucks to be used in such impound, and shall be retained in the files of the registered tow truck operator for three years.

(8) Any fee that is charged for the storage of a vehicle shall be calculated on a twenty-four hour basis, and shall be charged to the nearest half day from the time the vehicle arrived at the secure storage area.

(9) All billing invoices that are provided to the redeemer of the vehicle shall be itemized so that the individual fees are clearly discernable.

Sec. 4. Section 7, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.55.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No person may impound, tow, or otherwise disturb any ~~((motor)) unauthorized~~ vehicle standing on nonresidential private property or in a public parking facility for less than twenty-four hours unless a sign is posted near each entrance and on the property in a clearly conspicuous and visible location to all who park on such property that clearly indicates:

(a) The times a vehicle may be impounded as an unauthorized vehicle; and

(b) The name, telephone number, and address of the towing firm where the vehicle may be redeemed.

(2) The requirements of subsection (1) of this section do not apply to residential property. Any person having charge of such property may have an unauthorized vehicle impounded immediately upon giving written authorization.

(3) The department shall adopt rules relating to the size of the sign required by subsection (1) of this section, its lettering, placement, and the number required.

(4) This section applies to all new signs erected after July 1, 1986. All other signs must meet these requirements by July 1, 1989.

Sec. 5. Section 8, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.55.080 are each amended to read as follows:

If a vehicle is in violation of the time restrictions of RCW 46.55.010(12), it may be impounded by a registered tow truck operator at the direction of a law enforcement officer or other public official with jurisdiction if the vehicle is on public property, or at the direction of the property owner or his agent if it is on private property. A law enforcement officer may also direct the impoundment of a vehicle pursuant to a writ or court order.

The person requesting a private impound or a law enforcement officer or public official requesting a public impound shall provide a signed authorization for the impound at the time and place of the impound to the registered tow truck operator before the operator may proceed with the impound. A registered tow truck operator may not serve as an agent of a property owner for the purposes of signing an impound authorization.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 46.55 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A law enforcement officer discovering an apparently abandoned vehicle shall attach to the vehicle a readily visible notification sticker. The sticker shall contain the following information:

(a) The date and time the sticker was attached;

(b) The identity of the officer;

(c) A statement that if the vehicle is not removed within twenty-four hours from the time the sticker is attached, the vehicle may be taken into custody and stored at the owner's expense; and

(d) The address and telephone number where additional information may be obtained.

(2) If the vehicle has current Washington registration plates, the officer shall check the records to learn the identity of the last owner of record. The officer or his department shall make a reasonable effort to contact the owner by telephone in order to give the owner the information on the notification sticker.

(3) If the vehicle is not removed within twenty-four hours from the time the notification sticker is attached, the law enforcement officer may take custody of the vehicle and provide for the vehicle's removal to a place of safety.

(4) For the purposes of this section a place of safety includes the business location of a registered tow truck operator.

Sec. 7. Section 9, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.55.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All vehicles impounded shall be taken to the nearest storage location that has been inspected and is listed on the application filed with the department.

(2) All vehicles shall be handled and returned in substantially the same condition as they existed before being towed.

(3) All personal belongings and contents in the vehicle shall be kept intact, and shall be returned to the vehicle's owner or agent during normal business hours upon request and presentation of a driver's license or other sufficient identification. Personal belongings shall not be sold at auction to fulfill a lien against the vehicle.

(4) All personal belongings not claimed before the auction shall be turned over to the local law enforcement agency to which the initial notification of impoundment was given. Such personal belongings shall be disposed of pursuant to chapter ~~((63.29))~~ 63.32 or 63.40 RCW.

(5) ~~((After January 1, 1986, all employees who serve as))~~ Tow truck drivers shall have a Washington state driver's license endorsed for vehicle combinations under RCW 46.20.440 or the equivalent issued by another state.

(6) Any person who shows proof of ownership or written authorization from the impounded vehicle's registered or legal owner or the vehicle's insurer may view the vehicle without charge during normal business hours.

Sec. 8. Section 10, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.55.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) At the time of impoundment the registered tow truck operator providing the towing service shall give immediate notification, by telephone or radio, to a law enforcement agency having jurisdiction who shall maintain a log of such reports, unless the impoundment was requested by that law enforcement agency. The initial notice of impoundment shall be followed by a written notice within twenty-four hours.

(2) The operator shall immediately send an abandoned vehicle report to the department for any vehicle in the operator's possession after the ninety-six hour abandonment period. Such report need not be sent when the impoundment is pursuant to a writ, court order, or police hold. The owner notification and abandonment process shall be initiated by the registered tow truck operator immediately following notification by a court or law enforcement officer that the writ, court order, or police hold is no longer in effect.

(3) Following the submittal of an abandoned vehicle report, the department shall provide the registered tow truck operator with owner information within seventy-two hours.

(4) Within fifteen days of the sale of an abandoned vehicle at public auction, the towing operator shall send a copy of the abandoned vehicle report showing the disposition of the abandoned vehicle to the crime information center of the Washington state patrol.

(5) If the operator sends an abandoned vehicle report to the department and the department finds no owner information, an operator may proceed with an inspection of the vehicle to determine whether owner identification is within the vehicle.

Sec. 9. Section 11, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.55.110 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In the case of an unauthorized vehicle impounded from public property, the law enforcement agency or other public official directing the impoundment, or in the case of a vehicle impounded from private property, the impounding towing operator, shall notify the legal and registered owners of the impoundment of the unauthorized vehicle. The notification shall be sent by first-class mail within twenty-four hours after the impoundment to the last known registered and legal owners of the vehicle, as provided by the law enforcement agency. The notification shall include the name of the impounding tow firm, its address, and telephone number. The notice shall also include the location, time of the impound, and by whose authority the vehicle was impounded. The notice shall also include the written notice of the right of redemption and opportunity for a hearing to contest the validity of the impoundment pursuant to RCW 46.55.120.

(2) In the case of an abandoned vehicle, within twenty-four hours after receiving information on the vehicle owners from the department through the abandoned vehicle report, the tow truck operator shall send by certified mail, with return receipt requested, a notice of custody and sale to the legal and registered owners.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 46.55 RCW to read as follows:

A police officer may take custody of a vehicle and provide for its prompt removal to a place of safety under any of the following circumstances:

(1) Whenever a police officer finds a vehicle standing upon the roadway in violation of any of the provisions of RCW 46.61.560, the officer may provide for the removal of the vehicle or require the driver or other person in charge of the vehicle to move the vehicle to a position off the roadway;

(2) Whenever a police officer finds a vehicle unattended upon a highway where the vehicle constitutes an obstruction to traffic or jeopardizes public safety;

(3) Whenever a police officer finds an unattended vehicle at the scene of an accident or when the driver of a vehicle involved in an accident is physically or mentally incapable, or too intoxicated, to decide upon steps to be taken to protect his or her property;

(4) Whenever the driver of a vehicle is arrested and taken into custody by a police officer, and the driver, because of intoxication or otherwise, is mentally incapable of deciding upon steps to be taken to safeguard his or her property;

(5) Whenever a police officer discovers a vehicle that the officer determines to be a stolen vehicle;

(6) Whenever a vehicle without a special license plate, card, or decal indicating that the vehicle is being used to transport a disabled person under RCW 46.16.381 is parked in a stall or space clearly and conspicuously marked under RCW 46.61.581 which space is provided on private property without charge or on public property.

Nothing in this section may derogate from the powers of police officers under the common law. For the purposes of this section, a place of safety may include the business location of a registered tow truck operator.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 46.55 RCW to read as follows:

The Washington state patrol, under its authority to remove vehicles from the highway, may remove the vehicles directly, through towing operators appointed by the state commission on equipment and called on a rotational or other basis, through contracts with towing operators, or by a combination of these methods. When removal is to be accomplished through a towing operator on a noncontractual basis, the commission may appoint any towing operator for this purpose upon the application of the operator. Each appointment shall be contingent upon the submission of an application to the commission and the making of subsequent reports in such form and frequency and compliance with such standards of equipment, performance, pricing, and practices as may be required by rule of the commission.

An appointment may be rescinded by the commission at the request of the Washington state patrol upon evidence that the appointed towing operator is not complying with the laws or rules relating to the removal and storage of vehicles from the highway.

Rules adopted under this section are binding only upon those towing operators appointed by the commission for the purpose of performing towing services at the request of the Washington state patrol. Any person aggrieved by a decision of the commission made under this section may appeal the decision under chapter 34.04 RCW.

Sec. 12. Section 12, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.55.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Vehicles impounded by registered tow truck operators pursuant to RCW (~~46.52-176; 46.61-565~~, or) 46.55.080, section 6, or 10 of this act may be redeemed only under the following circumstances:

(a) Only the legal owner, the registered owner, a person authorized in writing by the registered owner or the vehicle's insurer, or one who has purchased a vehicle from the registered owner~~(:)~~ who produces proof of ownership or written authorization and signs a receipt therefor, may redeem an impounded vehicle.

(b) The vehicle shall be released upon the presentation to any person having custody of the vehicle of commercially reasonable tender sufficient to cover the costs of towing, storage, or other services rendered during the course of towing, removing, impounding, or storing any such ~~(motor)~~ vehicle. Commercially reasonable tender shall include, without limitation, cash, major bank credit cards, or personal checks drawn on in-state banks if accompanied by two pieces of valid identification, one of which may be required by the operator to have a photograph. Any person who stops payment on a personal check, or does not make restitution within ten days from the date a check becomes insufficient due to lack of funds, to a towing firm that has provided a service pursuant to this section or in any other manner defrauds the towing firm in connection with services rendered pursuant to this section shall be liable for damages in the amount of twice the towing and storage fees, plus costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

(2) (a) ~~The ((towing company))~~ registered tow truck operator shall give to each person who seeks to redeem an impounded vehicle written notice of the right of redemption and opportunity for a hearing, which notice shall be accompanied by a form to be used for requesting a hearing, and a copy of the ~~((tow))~~ towing and storage ~~((receipt))~~ invoice. The ~~((towing company))~~ registered tow truck operator shall maintain a record evidenced by the redeeming person's signature that such notification was provided.

(b) Any person seeking to redeem an impounded vehicle under this section has a right to a hearing in the district court for the jurisdiction in which the vehicle was impounded to contest the validity of the impoundment or the amount of towing and storage charges. The district court has jurisdiction to determine the issues involving all impoundments including those authorized by the state or its agents. Any request for a hearing shall be made in writing on the form provided for that purpose and must be received by the district court within ten days of the date the opportunity was provided for in subsection (2)(a) of this section. If the hearing request is not received by the district court within the ten-day period, the right to a hearing is waived and the registered owner is liable for any towing, storage, or other impoundment charges permitted under this chapter. Upon receipt of a timely hearing request, the district court shall proceed to hear and determine the validity of the impoundment.

(3)(a) The district court, within five days after the request for a hearing, shall notify the registered tow truck operator, the person requesting the hearing if not the owner, and the registered and legal owners of the ~~((motor))~~ vehicle and the person or agency authorizing the impound in writing of the hearing date and time.

(b) At the hearing, the person or persons requesting the hearing may produce any relevant evidence to show that the impoundment, towing, or storage fees charged were not proper.

(c) At the conclusion of the hearing, the district court shall determine whether the impoundment was proper, whether the towing or storage fees charged were in compliance with the posted rates, and who is responsible for payment of the ~~((charges))~~ fees.

(d) If the impoundment is found proper, the impoundment, towing, and storage fees as permitted under this chapter together with court costs shall be assessed against the person or persons requesting the hearing, unless the operator did not have a signed and valid impoundment authorization from a private property owner or an authorized agent.

(e) If the impoundment is determined to be invalid, then the registered and legal owners of the vehicle shall bear no impoundment, towing, or storage ~~((costs))~~ fees, and any bond or other security shall be returned or discharged as appropriate, and the person or agency who authorized the impoundment shall be liable for any towing, storage, or other impoundment ~~((charges))~~ fees permitted under this chapter.

(4) Any impounded abandoned vehicle not redeemed within fifteen days of mailing of the notice of custody and sale as required by RCW 46.55.110(2) shall be sold at public auction in accordance with all the provisions and subject to all the conditions of RCW 46.55.130. A vehicle may be redeemed at any time before the start of the auction upon payment of towing and storage ~~((costs))~~ fees.

Sec. 13. Section 13, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.55.130 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If, after the expiration of fifteen days from the date of mailing of notice of custody and sale required in RCW 46.55.110(2) to the registered and legal owners, the vehicle ~~((or truck))~~ remains unclaimed and has not been listed as a stolen vehicle, then the registered ~~((disposer))~~ tow truck operator having custody of the vehicle ~~((or truck))~~ shall conduct a sale of the vehicle at public auction after having first published a notice of the date, place, and time of the auction in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the vehicle is located not less than three days before the date of the auction. The ~~((advertisement))~~ notice shall contain a description of the vehicle including the make, model, year, and license number and a notification that a three-hour public viewing period will be available before the auction. The auction shall be held during daylight hours of a normal business day.

(2) The following procedures are required in any public auction of such abandoned vehicles:

(a) The auction shall be held in such a manner that all persons present are given an equal time and opportunity to bid;

(b) All bidders must be present at the time of auction unless they have submitted to the registered tow truck operator, who may or may not choose to use the preauction bid method, a written bid on a specific vehicle. Written bids may be submitted up to five days before the auction and shall clearly state which vehicle is being bid upon, the amount of the bid, and who is submitting the bid;

(c) The open bid process, including all written bids, shall be used so that everyone knows the dollar value that must be exceeded;

(d) The highest two bids received shall be recorded in written form;

(e) In case the high bidder defaults, the next bidder has the right to purchase the vehicle for the amount of his or her bid;

(f) The registered tow truck operator shall post a copy of the auction procedure at the bidding site. If the bidding site is different from the licensed office location, the operator shall post a clearly visible sign at the office location that describes in detail where the auction will be held. At the bidding site a copy of the newspaper advertisement that lists the vehicles for sale shall be posted;

(g) All surplus moneys derived from the auction after satisfaction of the registered tow truck operator's lien shall be remitted within thirty days to the department for deposit in the state motor vehicle fund. A report identifying the vehicles resulting in any surplus shall accompany the remitted funds. If the director subsequently receives a valid claim from the registered vehicle owner of record within one year from the date of the auction, the surplus moneys shall be remitted to ~~((the registered))~~ such owner;

(h) If an operator receives no bid, or if the operator is the successful bidder at auction, the operator shall, within thirty days sell the ~~((unclaimed abandoned))~~ vehicle to a licensed vehicle wrecker, hulk hauler, or scrap processor by use of the abandoned vehicle report-affidavit of sale, or the operator shall apply for title to the vehicle.

(3) (a) In no case may the accumulation of storage charges exceed fifteen days from the date of receipt of the information by the operator from the department as provided by RCW 46.55.110(2).

(b) The failure of the registered ~~((disposer))~~ tow truck operator to comply with the time limits provided in this chapter limits the accumulation of storage charges to five days except where delay is unavoidable. Providing incorrect or incomplete identifying information to the department in the abandoned vehicle report shall be considered a failure to comply with these time limits if correct information is available.

Sec. 14. Section 14, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.55.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A registered tow truck operator who has a valid and signed impoundment authorization has a lien upon the impounded vehicle for services provided in the towing and storage of the vehicle, unless the impoundment is determined to have been invalid. ~~((However:))~~ The lien does not apply to personal property in or upon the vehicle that is not permanently attached to or is not an integral part of the vehicle. The registered tow truck operator also has a deficiency claim against the ~~((last))~~ registered owner of the vehicle for services provided in the towing and storage of the vehicle not to exceed the sum of three hundred dollars less the amount bid at auction, and for vehicles of over ten thousand pounds gross vehicle weight, the operator has a deficiency claim of one thousand dollars less the amount bid at auction, unless the impound is determined to be invalid. A registered owner who has completed and filed with the department the seller's report as provided for by RCW 46.12.101 is relieved of liability under this section.

(2) Any person who tows, removes, or otherwise disturbs any ~~((motor))~~ vehicle parked, stalled, or otherwise left on privately owned or controlled property, and any person owning or controlling the private property, or either of them, are liable to the owner~~((:;))~~ or operator~~((;-or driver))~~ of a ~~((motor))~~ vehicle, or each of them, for consequential and incidental damages arising from any interference with the ownership or use of the ~~((motor))~~ vehicle which does not comply with the requirements of this chapter.

Sec. 15. Section 15, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.55.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The registered tow truck operator shall keep a transaction file on each vehicle. The transaction file shall contain as a minimum those of the following items that are required at the time the vehicle is redeemed or becomes abandoned and is sold at a public auction:

(1) A signed impoundment authorization as required by RCW 46.55.080;

(2) A record of the twenty-four hour written impound notice to a law enforcement agency;

(3) A copy of the impoundment notification to registered and legal owners, sent within twenty-four hours of impoundment, that advises the owners of the address of the impounding firm, a twenty-four hour telephone number, and the name of the person or agency under whose authority the vehicle was impounded;

(4) A copy of the abandoned vehicle report that was sent to and returned by the department;

(5) A copy and proof of mailing of the notice of custody and sale sent by the registered tow truck operator to the owners advising them they have fifteen days to redeem the vehicle before it is sold at public auction;

(6) A copy of the ~~((advertisement))~~ published notice of public auction;

(7) A copy of the affidavit of sale showing the sales date, purchaser, amount of the lien, and sale price;

(8) A record of the two highest bid offers on the vehicle;

(9) A copy of the notice of opportunity for hearing given to those who redeem vehicles;

(10) An itemized invoice of charges against the vehicle.

The transaction file shall be kept for a minimum of three years.

Sec. 16. Section 17, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.55.170 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All law enforcement agencies or local licensing agencies that receive complaints involving registered tow truck operators shall forward the complaints, along with any supporting documents, including all results from local investigations, to the department.

(2) Complaints involving deficiencies of equipment shall be forwarded by the department to the ~~((state))~~ commission on equipment.

Sec. 17. Section 21, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.55.210 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever it appears to the director that any registered tow truck operator or a person offering towing services has engaged in or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of this chapter or any rule adopted hereunder, the director may issue an order directing the operator or person to cease and desist from continuing the act or practice. Reasonable notice of and opportunity for a hearing shall be given. The director may issue a temporary order pending a hearing~~((:;))~~. The temporary order shall remain in effect until ten days after the hearing is held and shall become final if the person to whom notice is addressed does not request a hearing within fifteen days after the receipt of notice.

Sec. 18. Section 22, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.55.220 are each amended to read as follows:

If an application for a license to conduct business as a registered tow truck operator is filed by any person whose license has previously been canceled for cause by the department, or if the department is of the opinion that the application is not filed in good faith or that the application is filed by some person as a subterfuge for the real person in interest whose license has previously been canceled for cause, the department, after a hearing, of which the applicant has been given twenty days' notice in writing and at which the applicant may appear in person or by counsel and present testimony, may refuse to issue such a person a license to conduct business as a registered tow truck operator.

Sec. 19. Section 23, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.55.230 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any law enforcement officer having jurisdiction or any person authorized by the director may inspect and certify that a vehicle meets the requirements of a junk vehicle. The person making the certification shall record the make and vehicle identification number or license number of the vehicle if available, and shall also describe in detail the damage or missing equipment to verify that the value of the junk vehicle is equivalent only to the value of the scrap in it.

(2) The law enforcement officer or department representative shall provide information on the vehicle's registered and legal owner to the landowner.

(3) Upon receiving information on the vehicle's registered and legal owner, the landowner shall obtain a junk vehicle notification form from the department. The landowner shall send by certified mail, notification to the registered and legal owners shown on the records of the department. The notification shall describe the redemption procedure and the right to contest the sale of a junk vehicle in a district court hearing.

(4) If the vehicle remains unclaimed more than fifteen days after the landowner has mailed notification to the registered and legal owner, the landowner may sign an affidavit of sale to be used as a title document.

(5) If no information on the vehicle's registered and legal owner is found in the records of the department, the landowner shall place a legal notice of custody and sale in a newspaper of general circulation in the county. The newspaper notice shall include (a) the description of the vehicle; (b) the address of the location of the junk vehicle; (c) the date by which the registered or legal owner must redeem the vehicle; and (d) a telephone number where the landowner can be reached. If the vehicle remains unclaimed more than twenty days after publication of the notice, the landowner may sign an affidavit of sale to be used as a title document.

(6) The landowner of the property upon which the junk vehicle is located is entitled to recover from the vehicle's registered owner any costs incurred in the removal of the junk vehicle.

(7) For the purposes of this section, the term "landowner" includes a legal owner of private property, a person with possession or control of private property, or a public official having jurisdiction over public property.

Sec. 20. Section 24, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.55.240 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A city, town, or county that adopts an ordinance or resolution concerning unauthorized, abandoned, or impounded vehicles shall include the applicable provisions of this chapter.

(a) A city, town, or county may, by ordinance, authorize other impound situations that may arise locally upon the public right-of-way or other publicly owned or controlled property.

(b) A city, town, or county may, by ordinance, provide for release of an impounded vehicle by means of a promissory note in lieu of immediate payment, if at the time of redemption the legal or registered owner requests a hearing on the validity of the impoundment. If the municipal ordinance directs the release of an impounded vehicle before the payment of the impoundment charges, the municipality is responsible for the payment of those charges to the registered tow truck operator within thirty days of the hearing date.

(c) The hearing specified in RCW 46.55.120(2) and in this section may be conducted by an administrative hearings officer instead of in the district court. A decision made by an administrative hearing officer may be appealed to the district court for final judgment.

(2) A city, town, or county may adopt an ordinance establishing procedures for the abatement and removal as public nuisances of unauthorized junk (~~(motor)~~) vehicles or parts thereof from private property. Costs of removal may be assessed against the (~~(last)~~) registered owner of the vehicle (~~(or automobile truck)~~) if the identity of the owner can be determined, unless the owner in the transfer of ownership of the vehicle (~~(or automobile truck)~~) has complied with RCW 46.12.101, or the costs may be assessed against the owner of the property on which the vehicle is stored.

(3) Ordinances pertaining to public nuisances shall contain:

(a) A provision requiring notice to the last registered owner of record and the property owner of record that a hearing may be requested and that if no hearing is requested, the vehicle (~~(or automobile truck)~~) will be removed:

(b) A provision requiring that if a request for a hearing is received, a notice giving the time, location, and date of the hearing on the question of abatement and removal of the vehicle or part thereof as a public nuisance shall be mailed, by certified mail, with a five-day return receipt requested, to the owner of the land as shown on the last equalized assessment roll and to the last registered and legal owner of record unless the vehicle is in such condition that identification numbers are not available to determine ownership;

(c) A provision that the ordinance shall not apply to (i) a vehicle or part thereof that is completely enclosed within a building in a lawful manner where it is not visible from the street or other public or private property or (ii) a vehicle or part thereof that is stored or parked in a lawful manner on private property in connection with the business of a licensed dismantler or licensed vehicle dealer and is fenced according to RCW 46.80.130;

(d) A provision that the owner of the land on which the vehicle is located may appear in person at the hearing or present a written statement in time for consideration at the hearing, and deny responsibility for the presence of the vehicle on the land, with his reasons for the denial. If it is determined at the hearing that the vehicle was placed on the land without the consent of the landowner and that he has not subsequently acquiesced in its presence, then the local agency shall not assess costs of administration or removal of the vehicle against the property upon which the vehicle is located or otherwise attempt to collect the cost from the owner;

(e) A provision that after notice has been given of the intent of the city, town, or county to dispose of the vehicle and after a hearing, if requested, has been held, the vehicle or part thereof shall be removed at the request of a law enforcement officer with notice to the Washington state patrol and the department of licensing that the vehicle has been wrecked. The city, town, or county may operate such a disposal site when its governing body determines that commercial channels of disposition are not available or are inadequate, and it may make final disposition of such vehicles or parts, or may transfer such vehicle or parts to another governmental body provided such disposal shall be only as scrap.

(4) A registered disposer under contract to a city or county for the impounding of vehicles shall comply with any administrative regulations adopted by the city or county on the handling and disposing of vehicles.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 21. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 2, chapter 178, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.52.170;
- (2) Section 3, chapter 178, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.52.180;

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 14, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5129 with the following amendments:

On page 1, beginning on line 6, strike all of the material down through "section" on line 11 and insert:

"(1) The transportation commission is authorized to conduct a study, to be paid from Category C funds, to determine the economic and operational feasibility and consistency with federal laws of constructing, entirely or in part with toll-financed revenue bonds, a new parallel bridge and approaches on First Avenue South in Seattle, together with reconstruction of approaches to the existing bridge and connections to existing city street systems as necessary.

(2) If the commission concludes that construction, entirely or in part with toll-financed revenue bonds, of the facilities described in subsection (1) of this section is economically and operationally feasible and consistent with federal law, the commission may:

(a) Issue and sell revenue bonds under the provisions of this chapter for the purpose of constructing the facilities described in subsection (1) of this section; and

(b) Impose and collect tolls on the facilities for the purpose of funding the revenue bonds issued under this section."

Renumber the remaining subsection accordingly.

On page 1, after line 15, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. The city of Seattle is authorized to conduct a study, to be paid for wholly from city funds, to determine the operational feasibility and consistency with federal law of charging tolls on the First Avenue South Bridge on State Route 99. The study is to be conducted in cooperation with the department of transportation. If the city of Seattle and the department of transportation determine that the charging of tolls is feasible and consistent with federal law, then the city is authorized to charge reasonable tolls and to construct, operate and maintain toll collection facilities on the bridge.

The toll collection revenues less the costs of collection shall be placed in a separate account solely for the purpose of financial participation with the state and other local governmental entities in the construction, when commenced by the department of transportation, of a new parallel bridge and approaches on First Avenue South in Seattle, together with reconstruction of approaches to the existing bridge and connections to existing city street systems as necessary. Interest generated by funds within the account shall be credited to that account in their entirety."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Tanner moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 5129.

CALL OF THE SENATE

Senators Bottiger, Vognlid and Peterson demanded a call of the Senate and the demand was sustained.

The Secretary called the roll.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, a point of parliamentary inquiry. I don't believe the motion was ever placed as to whether we should enforce a Call of the Senate. You asked if three members stood in support of the motion and three members did stand. At that point, the roll call was commenced with regard to the attendance. Pursuant to Rule 24, if the Call of the Senate is moved by three Senators and if it is carried by a majority of all present, then the Secretary shall call the roll. But, we never placed the motion as to whether the members present wanted a Call of the Senate and we launched immediately into a roll call of those present and absent."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Your point is well taken, Senator."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be shall a Call of the Senate be ordered.

The demand for the Call of the Senate carried on a rising vote.

The Secretary called the roll and all members were present.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the Senate proceeded under the Call of the Senate.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Tanner that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 5129.

The motion by Senator Tanner carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 5129.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Senate Bill No. 5129, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Senate Bill No. 5129, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 49.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vognlid, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 49.

SENATE BILL NO. 5129, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the President advanced the Senate to the seventh order of business.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 26, as amended by the Senate, on reconsideration, deferred April 15, 1987.

Debate on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 26, as amended by the Senate, on reconsideration, ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 26, as amended by the Senate, on reconsideration.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 26, as amended by the Senate, on reconsideration, and the bill, receiving a 60% majority, passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 30; nays, 19.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Bottiger, Conner, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Kiskaddon, McDermott, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Rasmussen, Saling, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vognlid, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Wojahn - 30.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Garrett, Hayner, Johnson, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Pullen, Rinehart, Sellar, Williams, Zimmerman - 19.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 26, as amended by the Senate, on reconsideration, having received the constitutional 60% majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 6073, by Senators Fleming, Sellar, Bottiger and Hayner

Revising the authority of the state to lease buildings.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Fleming, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 6, after "state," strike everything down through and including "county." on line 7 and insert "to be constructed on the northeast corner of the state of Washington capitol campus located in Olympia on a three block site bounded on the north by 11th avenue, on the east by Jefferson street, on the south by 12th avenue and on the west by Washington street, and"

On motion of Senator Fleming, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, line 26, strike all of "NEW SECTION, Sec. 5." and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. (1) In the procurement of a building pursuant to this chapter, a lease and lease-back agreement requiring a lessee to build on state property shall be made pursuant to a competitive selection procedure providing an equal and open opportunity to qualified parties and upon terms most advantageous to the state. The selection procedure shall take into consideration the qualifications and performance data of the proposed lessee including but not limited to the scope, complexity and nature of the agreement; the ability, capacity, experience and reputation of the prospective lessee; the responsiveness to solicitation requirements; the quality of previous performance; and the compliance with statutes and rules relating to contracts or services. The state shall conduct discussions with at least two proposed lessees regarding anticipated concepts and advisability of alternative methods of accomplishing the agreement. The state shall select from the proposed lessees, based on criteria established by the state, the firm deemed to be the most highly qualified to provide the services required for the project. The state shall then negotiate a contract with the most qualified firm for such lease and lease-back agreement at a price the state determines to be fair and reasonable to the state, with the approval of the legislature or state capitol committee as required by section 1 of this act. In making this determination, the state shall take into account the estimated value of the agreement as well as the scope, complexity and nature of the building.

(2) If the state is unable to negotiate a satisfactory agreement with the firm selected at a price the state determines to be fair and reasonable, negotiations with that firm shall be formally terminated and the state shall select other firms and continue in accordance with subsection (1) of this section until an agreement is reached or the process is terminated."

On motion of Senator Fleming, the following amendments were considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 1, line 7, after "state" strike "capital" and insert "capitol"

On page 3, line 6, after "constitute" strike "a new chapter in Title 79 RCW" and insert "new sections in chapter 43.82 RCW"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Fleming, there is nothing in this legislation that would prevent the state from entering into a contract to build their own buildings? Most of this talks about lease and lease backs."

Senator Fleming: "Senator Rasmussen, this is merely allowing the state to have the capabilities that the cities and counties already have. That is namely, having a piece of property and having a private entrepreneur build on that property and then leasing that to the state. We lease that over a certain period of time with the option of buying the building. The lease or rent applies toward the purchase of the building at the end of a certain period of time."

Senator Rasmussen: "This does not prevent the state from determining if they wish to go ahead and build their own building rather than have some private party build it and lease it back?"

Senator Fleming: "In my understanding, Senator Rasmussen, no. They can do that now. This just gives us another way of financing."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, the reason I asked that question, you know the Legislative Budget Committee said that we are going to spend an extra $10,000,000 on the buildings that are already constructed over what it would cost if we build our own buildings."

Senator Fleming: "Senator Rasmussen, I can't address that because the Legislative Budget Report made various comments and I cannot speak to all of those. All I know is, that this is a way that we can own this building with the least amount of our own money involved. Secondly, it's a way of having flexible creative financing. Thirdly, it's an effort to sort of consolidate many of the office buildings that we are leasing all over the place."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Fleming, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1, after "adding" strike "a new chapter to Title 79" and insert "new sections to chapter 43.82"

On motion of Senator Fleming, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6073 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: "Senator Fleming, this doesn't say what committee that came through--Senate Bill No. 6073. Was that Ways and Means?"

Senator Fleming: "Senator, this was a measure that we came in late with--a measure that, because of not being able to introduce the bill with less than ten days left in the session--that the bill was introduced and we caught it here on the fly."

Senator McCaslin: "Caught in on the fly--was there any public testimony, Senator Fleming?"

Senator Fleming: "This is a question that testimony has been put forth, I guess you would call it public testimony. This concept was approved by the Capital Committee and so forth, so I don't know what kind of testimony they had. This is a question that not necessarily, this session, has had public testimony, but it's a question that has had public testimony year after year. This is no new subject. This is just another way of addressing that."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Fleming, I mean I am not putting you on the spot, but I guess you are the only one I can ask. This whole system of building buildings for the state kind of bothers me, not just because of this bill, but buildings going up all over the state and the Plum Street complex which is about five or six buildings--those buildings going up and I don't ever recall having heard in this body or when I was in the House as to how these things happen. We've got a building in Yakima that was just recently completed--$4,500,000. Of course, the Plum Street project suddenly sprang up and there it was. I guess maybe I've been asleep or something, and if I was, I need to be waked up. Maybe you've got an answer and maybe you haven't. Maybe you are trying to get a handle on something that we've let get away from us."

Senator Fleming: "Senator Deccio, I can't speak to all those things you might have seen or might not have seen. Many of these processes go through the capital budget and all those other kinds of things. This measure indicates that anything that takes place under these circumstances would be approved by the State Capitol Committee and/or the Legislature itself. I hope that by some of the comments that have been made here, that something is happening here that is so much different than many other things that happen. You know and I know not every measure that's in the capital budget or in capital finances--specific items--that individual people get to say yes or no, you know, for the public. They are usually in the budget. You review it and some of them are added on as amendments and that kind of thing there, so I don't want someone to view that we are trying to do something so out of the ordinary. These kinds of things have been done before in the past. This was put forth in the Capitol Committee. They passed on it and made this recommendation to us just a few weeks ago and in order to get the process going and in order not to delay any longer we have to--this was a method that had to take place if we were going to review or consider this type of financing.

"Basically, this is what it's going to do. It will go through a process and approved by the Capitol Committee and the Legislature, so this is not something that hasn't happened before. This is just giving us a way of doing something that the cities and counties already have--on our property."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6073.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6073 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 33; nays, 16.

Voting yea: Senators Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Boitiger, Conner, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, Moore, Nelson, Owen, Peterson, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Talmadge, Vognild, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn - 33.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Cantu, Craswell, Garrett, Metcalf, Newhouse, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Stratton, Tanner, von Reichbauer, Zimmerman - 16.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 6073, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator McCaslin moved to reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6073 passed the Senate.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6073 was deferred.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 10, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed:

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5401 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 112, Laws of 1979 and RCW 70.122.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds that adult persons have the fundamental right to control the decisions relating to the rendering of their own (~~medical~~) health care, including the decision to have life-sustaining (~~procedures~~) treatment withheld or withdrawn in instances of a terminal condition.

The legislature further finds that modern medical technology has made possible the artificial prolongation of human life beyond natural limits.

The legislature further finds that, in the interest of protecting individual autonomy, such (~~prolongation of life~~) postponement of the moment of death for persons with a terminal condition may cause loss of patient dignity, and unnecessary pain and suffering, while providing nothing medically necessary or beneficial to the patient.

The legislature further finds that there exists considerable uncertainty in the medical and legal professions as to the legality of terminating the use or application of life-sustaining (~~procedures~~) treatment where the patient has voluntarily and in sound mind evidenced a desire that such (~~procedures~~) treatment be withheld or withdrawn.

In recognition of the dignity and privacy which patients have a right to expect, the legislature hereby declares that the laws of the state of Washington shall recognize the right of an adult person to make a written directive, commonly known as a living will, instructing such person's physician to withhold or withdraw life-sustaining (~~procedures~~) treatment in the event of a terminal condition.

The legislature further recognizes that a person in a terminal condition may not have executed such a written directive and that therefore there is a need to establish a means of authorizing the withholding or withdrawing of life-sustaining treatment in the absence of a written directive.

The legislature further recognizes that in the absence of controversy, the court is normally not the proper forum in which to make decisions regarding life-sustaining treatment.

To avoid needless suffering and loss of dignity and to avoid treatment that is not desired by a person in a terminal condition, the legislature declares this chapter to be in the interest of the public health and welfare.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 70.122 RCW to read as follows:

This chapter shall not be construed as providing the exclusive means by which individuals, their legal representatives or next of kin as identified in section 5(2) of this act, may make decisions regarding their health treatment nor limiting the means provided by existing case law.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 112, Laws of 1979 and RCW 70.122.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions contained in this section shall apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Attending physician" means the physician selected by, or assigned to, the patient who has primary responsibility for the treatment and care of the patient.

(2) "Directive" means a written document voluntarily executed by the declarer in accordance with the requirements of RCW 70.122.030.

(3) "Health facility" means a hospital as defined in RCW ~~((70.38.020(7) or))~~ 70.41.020(2), a nursing home as defined in RCW ~~((70.38.020(8)))~~ 18.51.010, or a home health agency or hospice agency as defined in RCW 70.126.010.

(4) "Life-sustaining ~~((procedure))~~ treatment" means any medical or surgical ~~((procedure or intervention which utilizes))~~ care that uses mechanical or other artificial means to sustain, restore, or ~~((supplant))~~ replace a vital function, which, when applied to a qualified patient, would serve only to ~~((artificially prolong))~~ postpone the moment of death ~~((and where, in the judgment of the attending physician, death is imminent whether or not such procedures are utilized))~~. "Life-sustaining ~~((procedure))~~ treatment" shall not include the administration of medication or the performance of any medical ~~((procedure))~~ or surgical care deemed necessary solely to alleviate pain.

(5) "Physician" means a person licensed under chapters 18.71 or 18.57 RCW.

(6) "Qualified patient" means a patient diagnosed and certified in writing to be afflicted with a terminal condition by two physicians one of whom shall be the attending physician, who have personally examined the patient. If no family member is involved, three physicians shall diagnose and certify in writing that the patient is afflicted with a terminal condition.

(7) "Terminal condition" means ~~((an incurable))~~ a condition caused by injury, disease, or illness, ~~((which, regardless of the application of life-sustaining procedures, would))~~ that, within reasonable medical judgment, ~~((produce))~~ is incurable and will cause death, and where the application of life-sustaining ~~((procedures))~~ treatment serves only to postpone the moment of death ~~((of the patient))~~; or a condition in which the patient is medically assessed as having no reasonable probability of recovery from a comatose or persistent vegetative state in accordance with accepted standards of medical practice, and life-sustaining treatment is maintaining the patient's life.

(8) "Adult person" means a person ~~((attaining))~~ who has attained the age of majority as defined in RCW 26.28.010 and 26.28.015.

Sec. 4. Section 4, chapter 112, Laws of 1979 and RCW 70.122.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any adult person may execute a directive directing the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining ~~((procedures))~~ treatment in a terminal condition. The directive shall be signed by the declarer in the presence of two witnesses not related to the declarer by blood or marriage and who would not be entitled to any portion of the estate of the declarer upon declarer's decease under any will of the declarer or codicil thereto then existing or, at the time of the directive, by operation of law then existing. In addition, a witness to a directive shall not be the attending physician, an employee of the attending physician or a health facility in which the declarer is a patient, or any person who has a claim against any portion of the estate of the declarer upon declarer's decease at the time of the execution of the directive. The directive, or a copy thereof, shall be made part of the patient's medical records retained by the attending physician, a copy of which shall be forwarded to the health facility upon ~~((the withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures))~~ admission. If a person has been diagnosed as pregnant and that diagnosis is known to the attending physician, then the directive shall have no force and effect during the course of the pregnancy. The directive ~~((shall))~~ may be essentially in the following form, but in addition may include other specific directions:

DIRECTIVE TO PHYSICIANS (LIVING WILL)

Directive made this _____ day of _____ (month, year).

I _____, being of sound mind, willfully, and voluntarily make known my desire that my life shall not be artificially prolonged and that I be permitted to die naturally under the circumstances set forth below, and do hereby declare that:

(a) If at any time I should have an incurable injury, disease, or illness certified to be a terminal condition by two physicians, and where the application of life-sustaining ((procedures)) treatment would serve only to artificially ((prolong)) postpone the moment of my death ((and where my physician determines that my death is imminent whether or not life-sustaining procedures are utilized)), or I am in a terminal condition in which I have been certified by two physicians as having no reasonable probability of recovery from a comatose or persistent vegetative state, I direct that such ((procedures)) treatment be withheld or withdrawn, and that I be permitted to die naturally.

(b) In the absence of my ability to give directions regarding the use of such life-sustaining ((procedures)) treatment, it is my intention that this directive shall be honored by my family and physician(s) as the final expression of my legal right to refuse medical or surgical ((treatment)) care and I accept the consequences ((from)) of such refusal.

(c) If I have been diagnosed as pregnant and that diagnosis is known to my physician, this directive shall have no force or effect during the course of my pregnancy.

(d) I understand the full import of this directive and I am emotionally and mentally competent to make this directive.

(e) I understand that I can add or delete from or otherwise change the wording of this directive before I sign it, and that I may amend or revoke this directive at any time.

Signed _____

City, County, and State of Residence _____

The declarer has been personally known to me and I believe him or her to be of sound mind.

Witness _____

Witness _____

(2) Prior to effectuating a directive the diagnosis of a terminal condition, including a detailed description of the diagnostic criteria used, by two physicians shall be ((verified)) entered in writing, attached to the directive, and made a permanent part of the patient's medical records.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 70.122 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Life-sustaining treatment as defined in RCW 70.122.020 that would otherwise be applied to a qualified patient may be withheld or withdrawn according to subsections (2), (3), and (4) of this section if:

(a) The qualified patient is incapable of expressing his or her wishes as to the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining treatment;

(b) It is determined by the attending physician that the qualified patient has a terminal condition as defined in RCW 70.122.020(7); and

(c) There is certification in writing of such qualified patient's terminal condition by at least one additional physician with relevant qualifications, consulting specifically to assess the terminal condition after having personally examined the patient.

(2) If a qualified patient's condition has been determined to meet the conditions set forth in subsection (1) of this section and no directive has been executed according to RCW 70.122.030, life-sustaining treatment may be withheld or withdrawn upon the direction and under the supervision of the attending physician after the physician has obtained authorization from a member of one of the following classes of persons in the following order of priority:

(a) The appointed guardian of the qualified patient, if any;

(b) The individual, if any, to whom the qualified patient has given a durable power of attorney that encompasses the authority to make health care decisions pursuant to section 13 of this act;

(c) The qualified patient's spouse;

(d) Children of the qualified patient who are at least eighteen years of age;

(e) Parents of the qualified patient;

(f) Adult brother(s) and sister(s) of the qualified patient;

(g) Adult niece(s) and nephew(s) of the qualified patient.

If the physician seeking authority to withhold or withdraw life-sustaining treatment from a qualified patient makes reasonable efforts to locate and secure authorization from a competent person in the first or succeeding class and finds no such person available, authorization may be given by any person in the next class in the order of descending priority. However, no person under this section shall have the power to authorize the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining treatment from a qualified patient, (i) if a person of higher priority under this section has refused to give such authorization, or (ii) if there are two or more individuals in the same class and the decision is not unanimous among all available members of that class.

(3) Before any person described in subsection (2) of this section authorizes the physician to withhold or withdraw life-sustaining treatment from a qualified patient, he or she must first determine in good faith that the qualified patient, if competent, would choose to forego life-sustaining treatment. If such a determination cannot be made, the decision to authorize the physician to withhold or withdraw life-sustaining treatment may be made only after determining that foregoing life-sustaining treatment is in the qualified patient's best interests.

(4) If none of the persons described in subsection (2) of this section are available, then life-sustaining treatment may be withheld or withdrawn from a qualified patient upon the direction and under the supervision of the attending physician only after the attending physician determines in good faith that the conditions set forth in subsections (1) and (3) of this section have been met.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. If any terminally ill hospitalized patient indicates by words, actions or in writing that he or she wishes to die at home in dignity with his or her family and the family concurs, the patient shall be discharged immediately. There shall be no liability for claims arising from such discharge.

Sec. 7. Section 6, chapter 112, Laws of 1979 and RCW 70.122.050 are each amended to read as follows:

No family member or physician or health facility ((which)) that, acting in good faith in accordance with the requirements of this chapter, ((causes the withholding or withdrawal of)) and having documentation by two physicians of a terminal condition or three physicians where no family members are involved, withholds or withdraws life-sustaining ((procedures)) treatment from a qualified patient, shall be subject to civil liability ((therefrom)) unless otherwise negligent. No ((licensed)) health personnel, acting under the direction of a physician, who participates in good faith in the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining ((procedures)) treatment in accordance with the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to any civil liability unless otherwise negligent. No physician, or health facility or its agents, or ((licensed)) health personnel acting under the direction of a physician, who participates in good faith in the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining ((procedures)) treatment in accordance with the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of any criminal act or of unprofessional conduct. No person who acts in good faith in accordance with the requirements of this chapter and participates in a decision to withhold or withdraw life-sustaining treatment from a qualified patient shall be subject to criminal or civil liability.

Sec. 8. Section 7, chapter 112, Laws of 1979 and RCW 70.122.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Prior to ((effectuating a)) the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining ((procedures)) treatment from a qualified patient pursuant to the directive, the attending physician shall make a reasonable effort to determine that the directive complies with RCW 70.122.030 and, if the patient is mentally competent, that the directive and all steps proposed by the attending physician to be undertaken are currently in accord with the desires of the qualified patient.

(2) The directive shall be conclusively presumed, unless revoked, to be the directions of the patient regarding the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining ((procedures)) treatment. No physician, and no ((licensed)) health personnel acting in good faith under the direction of a physician, shall be criminally or civilly liable for failing to effectuate the directive of the qualified patient pursuant to this subsection. ((If the physician refuses to effectuate the directive, such physician shall make a good faith effort to transfer the qualified patient to another physician who will effectuate the directive of the qualified patient:)) Any person or health facility that chooses not to comply with the directive shall immediately take all reasonable steps to transfer care of the qualified patient to another physician, health care provider, or health facility that will effectuate the directive. Any person whose conscience does not allow them to participate in the withholding or withdrawal of life sustaining treatment shall be unconditionally protected for non-negligent acts against any disciplinary action including, but not limited to, licensing, hiring, promotion, health facility privileges, and transfers.

(3) The attending physician or health facility shall inform a patient or patient's surrogate of the existence of any policy or practice which would preclude the honoring of the patient's directive at the time the physician or facility becomes aware of the existence of such a directive.

Sec. 9. Section 8, chapter 112, Laws of 1979 and RCW 70.122.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining ((procedures)) treatment from a qualified patient pursuant to the patient's directive in accordance with the provisions of this chapter shall not, for any purpose, constitute a suicide.

(2) The making of a directive pursuant to RCW 70.122.030 shall not restrict, inhibit, or impair in any manner the sale, procurement, or issuance of any policy of life insurance, nor shall it be deemed to modify the terms of an existing policy of life insurance. No policy of life insurance shall be legally impaired or invalidated in any manner by the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining ((procedures)) treatment from an insured qualified patient, notwithstanding any term of the policy to the contrary.

(3) No physician, health facility, or other health provider, and no health care service plan, insurer issuing disability insurance, self-insured employee welfare benefit plan, or nonprofit hospital service plan, shall require any person to execute a directive as a condition for being insured for, or receiving, health care services.

Sec. 10. Section 10, chapter 112, Laws of 1979 and RCW 70.122.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The act of withholding or withdrawing life-sustaining ((procedures)) treatment from a qualified patient, when done pursuant to a directive described in RCW 70.122.030 ((and which causes the death of the declarer)) or the procedures authorized in this chapter, shall not be construed to be an intervening force or to affect the chain of proximate cause between the conduct of ((~~any person~~)) anyone that placed the declarer in a terminal condition and the death of the declarer.

Sec. 11. Section 9, chapter 112, Laws of 1979 and RCW 70.122.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who willfully conceals, cancels, defaces, obliterates, or damages the directive of another without such declarer's consent shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor. Any person who falsifies or forges the directive of another, or willfully conceals or withholds personal knowledge of a revocation as provided in RCW 70.122.040 with the intent to cause a withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining ((~~procedures~~)) treatment contrary to the wishes of the declarer, and thereby, because of any such act, directly causes life-sustaining ((~~procedures~~)) treatment to be withheld or withdrawn and death to thereby be hastened, shall be subject to prosecution for murder in the first degree as defined in RCW 9A.32.030.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 70.122 RCW to read as follows:

This chapter shall not be construed as requiring a physician, registered nurse, or licensed practical nurse, or a physician's trained mobile technician or paramedic certified pursuant to RCW 18.71.205, or an emergency medical technician certified pursuant to RCW 18.73.110 to provide futile treatment. A physician licensed under chapter 18.71 RCW, an osteopathic physician licensed under chapter 18.57 RCW, or a registered nurse licensed under chapter 18.88 RCW may make the determination and pronouncement of death.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 11.94 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A principal may empower his or her attorney-in-fact to make health care decisions on the principal's behalf, without limiting the powers otherwise granted by this durable power of attorney, by inclusion of the following words, or of other language showing a similar intent: "This durable power of attorney includes but is not limited to authorization: (a) To consent to medical and surgical care and nontreatment; (b) to consent to the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining treatment; (c) to consent to the admission to a medical, nursing, residential, or a similar facility; and (d) to enter into agreements for my care." The principal's physicians, the employees of such physicians, or the owners, administrators, or employees of the health facility in which the principal resides, may not act as attorneys-in-fact for the principal unless related to the principal by marriage or family ties.

(2) The authorization in subsection (1) of this section to consent to the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining treatment may be exercised only following the unanimous concurrence of the principal's attending physician and at least one other physician, after having personally examined the principal, that the principal has a terminal condition as defined in RCW 70.122.020(7).

(3) The authorization given the attorney-in-fact under this section shall not include the following:

- (a) Therapy or other procedure given for the purpose of inducing convulsion;
- (b) Surgery solely for the purpose of psychosurgery;
- (c) Commitment to or placement in a mental health treatment facility, except pursuant to the provisions of chapter 71.05 RCW;
- (d) Sterilization.

(4) A principal may revoke or terminate the power of his or her attorney-in-fact, and a legal guardian of a principal may revoke or terminate the power of the principal's attorney-in-fact, to make health care decisions on the principal's behalf, without limiting the powers otherwise granted by this durable power of attorney, by providing to the attorney-in-fact written notice which includes the following words, or other language showing a similar intent: "I hereby revoke and terminate the power of my attorney-in-fact to: (a) Consent to medical and surgical care and nontreatment; (b) consent to the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining treatment; (c) consent to the admission to a medical, nursing, residential, or a similar facility; and (d) enter into agreements for my care." A revocation or termination shall become effective upon actual or constructive knowledge, or receipt, of the written revocation or termination notice by the attorney-in-fact.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. A new section is added to chapter 11.94 RCW to read as follows:

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to condone, authorize, or approve mercy killing or euthanasia, or to permit any affirmative or deliberate act or omission to end life other than the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining treatment pursuant to a durable power of attorney for health care so as to permit the natural process of dying.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 11.94 RCW to read as follows:

The durable power of attorney provided for under this chapter shall continue in effect until revoked or terminated by the principal, by a court-appointed guardian, or by court order.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 11.94 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A durable power of attorney executed pursuant to chapter 11.94 RCW before the effective date of this section that specifically authorizes an attorney-in-fact to make decisions relating to the health care of the principal shall be deemed valid, except for the exemptions provided for in section 13(3) of this act.

(2) Nothing in this chapter affects the validity of a decision made under a durable power of attorney executed pursuant to chapter 11.94 RCW before the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. A new section is added to chapter 70.122 RCW to read as follows:

Written directives executed prior to the effective date of this section shall not be affected by chapter ____ Laws of 1987 (sections 1 through 18 of this act) and shall remain in full force and effect until revoked by the declarer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "act," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 70.122.010, 70.122.020, 70.122.030, 70.122.050, 70.122.060, 70.122.070, 70.122.080, and 70.122.090; adding new sections to chapter 11.94 RCW; and adding new sections to chapter 70.122 RCW."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Kreidler moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5401.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hayner: "Senator Kreidler, if a person were judged to be terminally ill or in a terminal condition and not interested in drinking but a swallow or two of water and maybe a teaspoon or two of food, in this version that passed out of the Senate, would it have required that person to have been given intravenous feedings?"

Senator Kreidler: "To the best of my knowledge--it's an extremely vague issue from the standpoint of the language, as it was amended in committee, and I might add that I voted against those amendments in committee and never made any bones about my dislike for those particular amendments, so what I said in the House, I think was consistent with what I certainly said in committee on that particular issue. From the standpoint of the way the bill was worded as it left the House, it specifically said that--excuse me as it left the Senate--the language said that nutrition and hydration had to be provided where it would alleviate pain or something to that effect. The effect was that it through such a cloud over the whole issue of hydration and nutrition that it probably would have mandated, what the seniors very appropriately call, 'a highly sophisticated invasive medical procedure' which hydration and nutrition are when you are talking about nasal gastric tubes and the like.

"The question would be, as I understood the question that you posed to me, Senator Hayner, would be one that, certainly, if a person was able to drink and consume food, there would be absolutely nothing where this act would ever come into application. It would never even have any effect either as the bill passed the Senate, nor as it has now passed the House. The question would be, if there were nasal gastric tubes inserted and were present, at what point in time do you say enough is enough or do you make a decision, at some point, that no, it is not going to require this type of procedure? Currently, under the law that was passed in 1979, there was never any mention made of nutrition or hydration. The only definition that has ever taken place on that particular issue has been one that has developed in case law. Case law that has been based on the interpretation of the privacy of the individual and based on the State Constitution, so I guess in answering your question, I would have to say that the preference here is, obviously, not to try to override case law--to leave it with the current situation where, obviously, it's going to be judged on a case by case basis in a very sensitive fashion between the family and at least two or three physicians."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Kreidler that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5401.

Senator Kreidler demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Kreidler that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill NO. 5401.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Kreidler for concurrence in the House amendments failed by the following vote: Yeas, 21; nays, 28.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Bluechel, Bottiger, Conner, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Kiskaddon, Lee, McDermott, Moore, Peterson, Rinehart, Sellar, Talmadge, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 21.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Benitz, Cantu, Craswell, Deccio, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kreidler, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Saling, Smitherman, Stratton, Tanner, von Reichbauer, West, Zimmerman - 28.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Kreidler moved to reconsider the vote by which the Senate refused to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5401.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes you will have to have immediate reconsideration. Do you wish to reconsider now?"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5401 was deferred.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed:

Senator Vognild moved that the Senate commence consideration of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 455.

MOTION

At 4:09 p.m. on motion of Senator Bottiger, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 5:03 p.m. by President Cherberg.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 14, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5178 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature intends that this chapter, and any rules, regulations, or orders promulgated pursuant hereto, apply to transactions in commodities which constitute commodity contracts or commodity options as defined in this chapter, unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 14, Laws of 1986 and RCW 21.30.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Administrator" means the person designated by the director in accordance with the provisions of RCW 21.20.460.

(2) "Board of trade" means any person or group of persons engaged in buying or selling any commodity or receiving any commodity for sale on consignment, whether such person or group of persons is characterized as a board of trade, exchange, or other form of marketplace.

(3) "Director" means the director of the department of licensing.

(4) "Commodity broker-dealer" means, for the purposes of registration in accordance with this chapter, any person engaged in the business of making offers, sales, or purchases of commodities under commodity contracts or under commodity options.

(5) "Commodity sales representative" means, for the purposes of registration in accordance with this chapter, any person (~~employed by or representing~~) authorized to act and acting for a commodity broker-dealer ((or issuer in making an offer, sale, or purchase of any commodity under any)) in effecting or attempting to effect a transaction in a commodity contract or ((under) commodity option.

(6) "Commodity exchange act" means the act of congress known as the commodity exchange act, as amended, codified at 7 U.S.C. Sec. 1 et seq.

(7) "Commodity futures trading commission" means the independent regulatory agency established by congress to administer the commodity exchange act.

(8) "CFTC rule" means any rule, regulation, or order of the commodity futures trading commission in effect on October 1, 1986, and all subsequent amendments, additions, or other revisions thereto, unless the administrator, within ten days following the effective date of any such amendment, addition, or revision, disallows the application thereof by rule or order.

(9) "Commodity" means, except as otherwise specified by the director by rule or order, any agricultural, grain, or livestock product or by-product, any metal or mineral (including a precious metal set forth in subsection (17) of this section), any gem or gemstone (whether characterized as precious, semiprecious, or otherwise), any fuel (whether liquid, gaseous, or otherwise), any foreign currency, and all other goods, articles, products, or items of any kind. However, the term commodity does not include (a) a numismatic coin whose fair market value is at least fifteen percent higher than the value of the metal it contains, (b) real property or any timber, agricultural, or livestock product grown or raised on real property and offered or sold by the owner or lessee of such real property, or (c) any work of art offered or sold by art dealers, at public auction, or offered or sold through a private sale by the owner thereof.

(10) "Commodity contract" means any account, agreement, or contract for the purchase or sale, primarily for speculation or investment purposes and not for use or consumption by the offeree or purchaser, of one or more commodities, whether for immediate or subsequent delivery or whether delivery is intended by the parties, and whether characterized as a cash contract, deferred shipment or deferred delivery contract, forward contract, futures contract, installment or margin contract, leverage contract, or otherwise. Any commodity contract offered or sold shall, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, be presumed to be offered or sold for speculation or investment purposes. A commodity contract shall not include any contract or agreement which requires, and under which the purchaser receives, within twenty-eight calendar days from the payment in good funds of any portion of the purchase price, physical delivery of the total amount of each commodity to be purchased under the contract or agreement.

(11) "Commodity option" means any account, agreement, or contract giving a party thereto the right to purchase or sell one or more commodities and/or one or more commodity contracts, whether characterized as an option, privilege, indemnity, bid, offer, put, call, advance guaranty, decline guaranty or otherwise, but does not include a commodity option traded on a national securities exchange registered with the United States securities and exchange commission.

(12) "Commodity merchant" means any of the following, as defined or described in the commodity exchange act or by CFTC rule:

- (a) Futures commission merchant;
- (b) Commodity pool operator;
- (c) Commodity trading advisor;
- (d) Introducing broker;
- (e) Leverage transaction merchant;
- (f) An associated person of any of the foregoing;
- (g) Floor broker; and
- (h) Any other person (other than a futures association) required to register with the commodity futures trading commission.

(13) "Financial institution" means a bank, savings institution, or trust company organized under, or supervised pursuant to, the laws of the United States or of any state.

(14) "Offer" or "offer to sell" includes every offer, every attempt to offer to dispose of, or solicitation of an offer to buy, to purchase, or to acquire, for value.

(15) "Sale" or "sell" includes every sale, contract of sale, contract to sell, or disposition, for value.

(16) "Person" means an individual, a corporation, a partnership, an association, a joint-stock company, a trust where the interests of the beneficiaries are evidenced by a security, an unincorporated organization, a government, or a political subdivision of a government, but does not include a contract market designated by the commodity futures trading commission or any clearinghouse thereof or a national securities exchange registered with the United States securities and exchange commission (or any employee, officer, or director of such contract market, clearinghouse, or exchange acting solely in that capacity).

(17) "Precious metal" means:

- (a) Silver, in either coin, bullion, or other form;
- (b) Gold, in either coin, bullion, or other form;
- (c) Platinum, in either coin, bullion, or other form; and
- (d) Such other items as the director may specify by rule or order.

Sec. 3, Section 3, chapter 14, Laws of 1986 and RCW 21.30.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The prohibition in RCW 21.30.020 does not apply to any transaction offered by and in which any of the following persons (or any employee, officer, or director thereof acting solely in that capacity) is the purchaser or seller:

(1) A person registered with the commodity futures trading commission as a futures commission merchant or as a leverage transaction merchant but only as to those activities that require such registration;

(2) A person affiliated with, and whose obligations and liabilities are guaranteed by, a person referred to in subsection (1) or (5) of this section;

(3) A person who is a member of a contract market designated by the commodity futures trading commission (or any clearinghouse thereof);

(4) A financial institution;

(5) A person registered under chapter 21.20 RCW as a securities broker-dealer holding a general securities license whose activities require such registration; ((or))

(6) A person registered as a commodity broker-dealer or commodity sales representative in accordance with this chapter; or

(7) Any person who meets all of the following conditions:

(a) Prior to engaging in any transaction which would otherwise be prohibited under RCW 21.30.020, the person:

(i) Files a claim of exemption on a form prescribed by the director; and

(ii) Files a consent to service of process pursuant to RCW 21.30.190;

(b) The person files a renewal of a claim for exemption not less than every two years on a form prescribed by the director;

(c) The person engages only in those commodity transactions in which the purchaser pays, and the seller receives, one hundred percent of the purchase price in cash or cash equivalent within ten days of the contract of sale;

(d) The person receives no more than twenty-five percent of the total dollar amount of its gross sales of commodities in any fiscal year from commodity contracts or commodity options;

(e) The person's gross profit on all transactions in commodity contracts or commodity options does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars in the fiscal year immediately preceding any year for which the person claims the exemption contained in this subsection, or one million dollars in the two fiscal years immediately preceding any year for which the person claims the exemption.

(f) The person maintains standard property and casualty insurance in an amount sufficient to cover the value of commodities stored for customers.

"Registered," for the purposes of this section, means holding a registration that has not expired, been suspended, or been revoked. The exemptions under this section shall not apply to any transaction or activity which is prohibited by the commodity exchange act or CFTC rule.

Sec. 4. Section 4, chapter 14, Laws of 1986 and RCW 21.30.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The prohibition in RCW 21.30.020 does not apply to the following:

(a) An account, agreement, or transaction within the exclusive jurisdiction of the commodity futures trading commission as granted under the commodity exchange act;

(b) A commodity contract for the purchase of one or more precious metals (~~which requires, and under which the purchaser receives, within seven calendar days from the payment in good funds of any portion of the purchase price, physical delivery of the quantity of the precious metals purchased by such payment. However, for purposes of this paragraph, physical delivery is deemed to have occurred if, within such seven-day period~~) in which, within seven calendar days from the payment in good funds of any portion of the purchase price, the quantity of precious metals purchased by the payment is delivered (whether in specifically segregated or fungible bulk form) into the possession of a depository (other than the seller) which is either (i) a financial institution, (ii) a depository the warehouse receipts of which are recognized for delivery purposes for any commodity on a contract market designated by the commodity futures trading commission, (iii) a storage facility licensed or regulated by the United States or any agency thereof, or (iv) a depository designated by the director, and the depository (or other person which itself qualifies as a depository as aforesaid) issues and the purchaser receives, a certificate, document of title, confirmation, or other instrument evidencing that the quantity of precious metals has been delivered to the depository and is being and will continue to be held by the depository on the purchaser's behalf, free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, other than liens of the purchaser, tax liens, liens agreed to by the purchaser, or liens of the depository for fees and expenses, which have previously been disclosed to the purchaser;

(c) A commodity contract solely between persons engaged in producing, processing, using commercially, or handling as merchants each commodity subject thereto, or any by-products thereof; or

(d) A commodity contract under which the offeree or the purchaser is a person referred to in RCW 21.30.030, a person registered with the federal securities and exchange commission as a broker-dealer, an insurance company, an investment company as defined in the federal investment company act of 1940, or an employee pension and profit sharing or benefit plan (other than a self-employed individual retirement plan, or individual retirement account).

(2) The director may issue rules or orders prescribing the terms and conditions of all transactions and contracts covered by this chapter which are not within the exclusive jurisdiction of the commodity futures trading commission as granted by the commodity exchange act, exempting any person or transaction from any provision of this chapter conditionally or unconditionally and otherwise implementing this chapter for the protection of purchasers and sellers of commodities.

Sec. 5. Section 20, chapter 14, Laws of 1986 and RCW 21.30.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every applicant for registration under this chapter or person filing a claim of exemption under RCW 21.30.030(7) shall file with the administrator in such form as the administrator by rule prescribes, an irrevocable consent appointing the administrator or successor in office to be his or her attorney to receive service of any lawful process in any noncriminal suit, action, or proceeding against the applicant or successor executor or administrator which arises under this chapter or any rule or order hereunder after the consent has been filed, with the same force and validity as if served personally on the person filing the consent. Service may be made by leaving a copy of the process in the office of the administrator, but it is not effective unless (a) the plaintiff, who may be the administrator in a suit, action, or proceeding instituted by the administrator, forthwith sends notice of the service and a copy of the process by registered mail to the defendant or respondent at the last address on file with the administrator, and (b) the plaintiff's affidavit of compliance with this subsection is filed in the case on or before the return day of the process, if any, or within such further time as the court allows.

(2) If a person, including a nonresident of this state, engages in conduct prohibited or made actionable by this chapter or any rule or order of the director, the engaging in the conduct shall constitute the appointment of the administrator as the person's attorney to receive service of any lawful process in a noncriminal proceeding against the person, a successor, or personal representative, which arises out of that conduct and which is brought under this chapter or any rule or order of the director with the same force and validity as if served personally.

Sec. 6. Section 36, chapter 14, Laws of 1986 and RCW 21.30.350 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The administrator may, by order, deny, suspend, or revoke any license or an exemption granted under RCW 21.30.030(7), limit the activities which an applicant or licensed person may perform in this state, conserve any applicant or licensed person, or bar any applicant or licensed person from association with a licensed commodity broker-dealer, if the administrator finds that (a) the order is in the public interest and (b) that the applicant or licensed person or, in the case of a commodity broker-dealer any partner, officer, or director, any person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions, or any person directly or indirectly controlling the commodity broker-dealer:

(I) Has filed an application for licensing with the administrator or the designee of the administrator which, as of its effective date, or as of any date after filing in the case of an order denying effectiveness, was incomplete in any material respect or contained any statement which was, in light of the circumstances under which it was made, false or misleading with respect to any material fact:

(ii) (A) Has violated or failed to comply with a provision of this chapter, a predecessor act, or a rule or order under this chapter or a predecessor act, (B) is the subject of an adjudication or determination within the last five years by a securities agency or administrator or court of competent jurisdiction that the person has wilfully violated the federal securities act of 1933, the securities exchange act of 1934, the investment advisers act of 1940, the investment company act of 1940, or the commodity exchange act, or the securities law of any other state (but only if the acts constituting the violation of that state's law would constitute a violation of this chapter had the acts taken place in this state):

(iii) Has, within the last ten years, pled guilty or nolo contendere to, or been convicted of any crime indicating a lack of fitness to engage in the investment commodities business:

(iv) Is permanently or temporarily enjoined by any court of competent jurisdiction from engaging in, or continuing, any conduct or practice indicating a lack of fitness to engage in the investment commodities business:

(v) Is the subject of an order of the administrator denying, suspending, or revoking the person's license as a commodity or securities broker-dealer, securities salesperson or commodity sales representative, or investment adviser or investment adviser salesperson:

(vi) Is the subject of any of the following orders which are currently effective and which were issued within the last five years:

(A) An order by a securities agency or administrator of another state, Canadian province or territory, or the federal securities and exchange commission, entered after notice and opportunity for hearing, denying, suspending, or revoking the person's license as a commodities or securities broker-dealer, sales representative, or investment adviser, or the substantial equivalent of those terms:

(B) A suspension or expulsion from membership in or association with a self-regulatory organization registered under the securities exchange act of 1934 or the commodity exchange act:

(C) A United States postal service fraud order:

(D) A cease and desist order entered after notice and opportunity for hearing by the administrator or the securities agency or administrator of any other state, Canadian province or territory, the securities and exchange commission, or the commodity futures trading commission:

(E) An order entered by the commodity futures trading commission denying, suspending, or revoking registration under the commodity exchange act:

(vii) Has engaged in any unethical or dishonest conduct or practice in the investment commodities or securities business:

(viii) Is insolvent, either in the sense that liabilities exceed assets, or in the sense that obligations cannot be met as they mature:

(ix) Is not qualified on the basis of such factors as training, experience, and knowledge of the investment commodities business:

(x) Has failed reasonably to supervise sales representatives or employees; or

(xi) Has failed to pay the proper filing fee within thirty days after being notified by the administrator of the deficiency. However, the administrator shall vacate any order under (xi) of this subsection when the deficiency has been corrected.

An order entered under this subsection shall be governed by subsection (2) of this section and RCW 21.30.200 and 21.30.210.

The administrator shall not institute a suspension or revocation proceeding on the basis of a fact or transaction disclosed in the license application unless the proceeding is instituted within the next ninety days following issuance of the license.

(2) If the public interest or the protection of investors so requires, the administrator may, by order, summarily suspend a license or postpone the effective date of a license. Upon the entry of the order, the administrator shall promptly notify the applicant or licensed person, as well as the commodity broker-dealer with whom the person is or will be associated if the applicant or licensed person is a commodity sales representative, that an order has been entered and of the reasons therefore and that within twenty days after the receipt of a written request the matter will be set down for hearing. The provisions of RCW 21.30.200 and 21.30.210 apply with respect to all subsequent proceedings.

(3) If the administrator finds that any applicant or licensed person is no longer in existence or has ceased to do business as a commodity broker-dealer or commodity sales representative or is subject to an adjudication of mental incompetence or to the control of a committee, conservator, or guardian, or cannot be located after reasonable search, the administrator may, by order, cancel the application or license."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "commodities;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 21.30.010, 21.30.030, 21.30.040, 21.30.190, and 21.30.350; and creating a new section."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5178.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5178, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5178, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 49.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 49.

INGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5178, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

On motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate commenced consideration of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 455.

SECOND READING

INGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 455, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Representatives Ebersole, Holm, Peery, Cole, Appelwick, Pruitt, Hine, Locke and Unsoeld) (by request of Governor Gardner)

Enhancing the financing and management of the states' schools.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Gaspard moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds that funding the common schools requires sufficiency, flexibility, stability, and equality, all within broad state guidelines. The legislature intends to establish an enhanced plan for school funding. This plan will increase the state revenue to school districts, while providing a maximum flexibility for local school district expenditure of such revenues. The legislature believes that such increased state revenues should be used in the classroom, preferably for providing certificated teachers to reduce class sizes, but at least for instructional assistance by adults to students.

The legislature also intends to establish the limitation on school districts' maintenance and operation levies at twenty percent of the districts' base revenue, with ten percent to be equalized on a state-wide basis.

The legislature finds that providing for the adoption of a state-wide salary allocation schedule for certificated instructional staff will encourage recruitment and retention of able individuals to the teaching profession, and limit the administrative burden associated with implementing state teacher salary policies.

PART I
FINANCING OUR SCHOOLS

Sec. 101. Section 1, chapter 374, Laws of 1985 and RCW 84.52.0531 are each amended to read as follows:

The maximum dollar amount which may be levied by or for any school district for maintenance and operation support under the provisions of RCW 84.52.053 shall be determined as follows:

(1) For excess levies (~~((in 1985))~~ for collection in ~~((1986 and thereafter:))~~ calendar year 1988, the maximum dollar amount shall be the sum of:

(a) That amount equal to ~~((ten percent of each school))~~ the district's base year levy percentage as defined in subsection (3) of this section multiplied by the district's prior year basic education allocation; plus

(b) That amount equal to ~~((ten percent of each school))~~ the district's base year levy percentage multiplied by the district's prior year state allocation, exclusive of federal funds, for the following programs:

(i) Pupil transportation;

(ii) Handicapped education costs;

(iii) Gifted; and

(iv) Compensatory education, including but not limited to remediation assistance, bilingual education, and urban, rural, racial disadvantaged programs; plus

(c) That amount equal to the sum under (a) and (b) of this subsection improved by the percent increase per full time equivalent student in the state basic education appropriation between the prior school year and the current school year; plus

(d) In the case of nonhigh school districts only, an amount equal to the total estimated amount due by the nonhigh school district to high school districts pursuant to chapter 28A.44 RCW, as now or hereafter amended, for the school year during which collection of the levy is to commence, less the increase in the nonhigh school district's basic education allocation as computed pursuant to subsection ~~((4))~~ (2) of this section due to the inclusion of pupils participating in a program provided for in chapter 28A.44 RCW in such computation.

~~((2) Excess levies authorized under this section or under RCW 84.52.052 shall not be used directly or indirectly to increase the average salary or fringe benefits for certificated or classified personnel in any school district. PROVIDED, That any school district may expend excess levy funds to provide increases in salary and fringe benefits for classified or certificated personnel whose salary and fringe benefits are provided wholly from local school district excess levies in a percentage not to exceed the respective average percentage increases in the salary and fringe benefit levels for classified and certificated employees of the district funded with state appropriated funds. PROVIDED FURTHER, That those contracts which have been negotiated prior to July 1, 1977 by those school districts for such school year shall not be abrogated by this section. "Fringe benefits" for purposes of this subsection shall include:~~

~~(a) Employer retirement contributions, if applicable;~~

~~(b) Health and insurance payments including life, accident, disability, unemployment compensation, and workmen's compensation; and~~

~~(c) Employer social security contributions;~~

~~(3) Any school district whose average base compensation for certificated or classified personnel respectively is below state-wide average base compensation level for certificated or classified personnel during the preceding school year, may collect and expend property taxes authorized by this section, or under RCW 84.52.052, for the purpose of increasing such district's average compensation for certificated or classified personnel as allowed in the latest applicable state operating budget. "Compensation", for purposes of this subsection, shall mean salary plus fringe benefits for classified and certificated personnel of a school district as allowed in the latest applicable state operating budget.~~

~~(4))~~ (2) For the purpose of this section, the basic education allocation shall be determined pursuant to RCW 28A.41.130, 28A.41.140, and 28A.41.145, as now or hereafter amended. PROVIDED, That when determining the basic education allocation under subsections (1) and (5) of this section, ~~((effective September 1, 1979:))~~ nonresident full time equivalent pupils who are participating in a program provided for in chapter 28A.44 RCW or in any other program pursuant to an interdistrict agreement shall be included in the enrollment of the resident district and excluded from the enrollment of the serving district.

~~((Certificated personnel shall include those persons employed by a school district in a teaching, instructional, administrative or supervisory capacity and who hold positions as certificated personnel as defined under RCW 28A.01.130, as now or hereafter amended, and every school district superintendent, and any person hired in any manner to fill a position designated as, or which is in fact, that of deputy superintendent or assistant superintendent. Classified personnel shall include those persons employed by a school district other than certificated personnel as defined in this section in a capacity for which certification is not required.~~

(5) Any district is authorized to exceed the levy limitations imposed by subsection (1) for taxes to be collected during calendar years 1985 through 1993 as follows:

(a)) (3) For excess levies to be collected in calendar year ((s)1986, 1987, and) 1988, a base year levy percentage shall be established, which shall be the district's maximum levy percentage for calendar year 1988 for the purposes of subsection (6) of this section. The base year levy percentage shall be equal to the greater of: ((#)) (a) The district's actual levy percentage for calendar year 1985, ((##)) (b) the average levy percentage for all school district levies in the state in calendar year 1985, or ((###)) (c) the average levy percentage for all school district levies in the educational service district of the district in calendar year 1985.

((#b) The base year levy percentage established in (a) of this subsection shall be reduced in even increments beginning in calendar year 1989. The incremental reduction shall equal one-fifth of the percentage points the base year levy percentage exceeds the amount authorized in subsection (1) of this section.

(c) For excess levies to be collected in calendar year 1993, the maximum dollar amount which may be levied by or for any school district shall not exceed the amount authorized in subsection (1) of this section. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to excess levies to be collected after calendar year 1993:

((b)) (4) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 1989 and thereafter, the maximum dollar amount shall be the total of:

(a) The district's levy base as defined in subsection (5) of this section multiplied by the district's maximum levy percentage as defined in subsection (6) of this section; plus

(b) In the case of nonhigh districts only, an amount equal to the total estimated amount due by the nonhigh school district to high school districts pursuant to chapter 28A.44 RCW for the school year during which collection of the levy is to commence, less the increase in the nonhigh school district's basic education allocation as computed pursuant to subsection (2) of this section due to the inclusion of pupils participating in a program provided for in chapter 28A.44 RCW in such computation; less

(c) The maximum amount of state matching funds under section 102 of this 1987 act for which the district is eligible in that tax collection year.

(5) For levies collected in calendar year 1989 and thereafter, a district's levy base shall be the sum of the district's prior school year allocations of state and federal funds, including allocations for compensation increases, for the following programs and purposes:

(a) General apportionment (basic education);

(b) Secondary vocational education;

(c) Pupil transportation;

(d) Handicapped education;

(e) Education of highly capable students;

(f) Compensatory education, including but not limited to remediation assistance, migrant education, Indian education, and bilingual education;

(g) Food services;

(h) The amount of direct federal grants based on the most recent and verified school year data available to the superintendent of public instruction; and

(i) The sum of (a) through (h) of this subsection improved by the percent increase per full time equivalent student in the state basic education appropriation between the prior school year and the current school year.

((b) For levies to be collected in calendar year 1989 and thereafter, a district's maximum levy percentage shall be determined as follows:

(a) Multiply the district's maximum levy percentage for the prior year or thirty percent, whichever is less, by the district's levy base as determined in subsection (5) of this section;

(b) Reduce the amount in (a) of this subsection by the total amount of any levy reduction funds as defined in subsection (7) of this section which were allocated to the district for the prior school year;

(c) Divide the amount in (b) of this subsection by the district's levy base to compute a new percentage; and

(d) The percentage in (c) of this subsection or twenty percent, whichever is greater, shall be the district's maximum levy percentage for levies collected in that calendar year.

(7) Levy reduction funds shall mean increases in state allocations included within a district's levy base under subsection (5) of this section which are not attributable to enrollment or workload changes, compensation increases, or inflationary adjustments recognized in state allocation formulas. Any other increases in state allocations from the district's allocations for the school year immediately preceding, which are not specifically excluded in this subsection, shall be considered levy reduction funds.

(8) For the purposes of this section, "prior school year" shall mean the most recent school year completed prior to the year in which the levies are to be collected.

(9) For the purposes of this section, "current school year" shall mean the year immediately following the prior school year.

(10) The superintendent of public instruction shall develop rules and regulations and inform school districts of the pertinent data necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 102. A new section is added to chapter 28A.41 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Commencing with taxes assessed in 1988 to be collected in calendar year 1989 and thereafter, in addition to a school district's other general fund allocations, each eligible district shall be provided local effort assistance funds if funds are made specifically available by the legislature to be determined as provided in this section. Such funds are not part of the district's basic education allocation but the legislature intends to appropriate funds as necessary to implement this section.

(2) (a) "Prior tax collection year" shall mean the year immediately preceding the year in which the local effort assistance shall be allocated.

(b) The "state-wide average ten percent levy rate" shall mean ten percent of the total levy bases as defined in RCW 84.52.0531(5) summed for all school districts, and divided by the total assessed valuation for excess levy purposes in the prior tax collection year for all districts as adjusted to one hundred percent by the county indicated ratio established in RCW 84.48.075.

(c) The "ten percent levy rate" of a district shall mean:

(i) Ten percent of the district's levy base as defined in RCW 84.52.0531(5), plus one-half of any amount computed under RCW 84.52.0531(4)(b) in the case of nonhigh school districts; divided by

(ii) The district's assessed valuation for excess levy purposes for the prior tax collection year as adjusted to one hundred percent by the county indicated ratio.

(d) "Eligible districts" shall mean those districts with a ten percent levy rate which exceeds the state-wide average ten percent levy rate.

(3) Allocation of state matching funds to eligible districts for local effort assistance shall be determined as follows:

(a) Funds raised by the district through maintenance and operation levies during that tax collection year shall be matched with state funds using the following ratio of state funds to levy funds: (i) The difference between the district's ten percent levy rate and the state-wide average ten percent levy rate; to (ii) the state-wide average ten percent levy rate.

(b) The maximum amount of state matching funds for which a district may be eligible in any tax collection year shall be ten percent of the district's levy base as defined in RCW 84.52.0531(5), multiplied by the following percentage: (i) The difference between the district's ten percent levy rate and the state-wide average ten percent levy rate; divided by (ii) the district's ten percent levy rate.

(4) Fifty-five percent of local effort assistance funds shall be distributed to qualifying districts during the applicable tax collection year on or before June 30 and forty-five percent shall be distributed on or before December 31 of any year.

Sec. 103. Section 3, chapter 325, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 133, Laws of 1986 and RCW 84.52.053 are each amended to read as follows:

The limitations imposed by RCW 84.52.050 through 84.52.056, and RCW 84.52.043 shall not prevent the levy of additional taxes by school districts, when authorized so to do by the electors of such school district in the manner ~~((set forth in))~~ and for the purposes and number of years allowable under Article VII, section 2(a) of the Constitution of this state, as amended by Amendment ((59)) 79 and as thereafter amended, at a special or general election to be held in the year in which the levy is made or, in the case of a proposition authorizing two-year levies for maintenance and operation support of a school district ~~((including but not limited to levies))~~ or authorizing two-year through six-year levies to support the construction, modernization, or remodeling of school facilities ~~((and levies for the maintenance and operation of schools, for a period exceeding one year)), or both,~~ at a special or general election to be held in the year in which the first annual levy is made: PROVIDED, That once additional tax levies have been authorized for maintenance and operation support of a school district for a two year period, no further additional tax levies for maintenance and operation support of the district for that period may be authorized.

A special election may be called and the time therefor fixed by the board of school directors, by giving notice thereof by publication in the manner provided by law for giving notices of general elections, at which special election the proposition authorizing such excess levy shall be submitted in such form as to enable the voters favoring the proposition to vote "yes" and those opposed thereto to vote "no".

PART II ENHANCING SCHOOL MANAGEMENT

Sec. 201. Section 14, chapter 244, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 5, chapter 349, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28A.41.140 are each amended to read as follows:

The basic education allocation for each annual average full time equivalent student shall be determined in accordance with the following procedures:

(1) The governor shall and the superintendent of public instruction may recommend to the legislature a formula based on a ratio of students to staff for the distribution of a basic education allocation for each annual average full time equivalent student enrolled in a common school. The distribution formula shall have the primary objective of equalizing educational opportunities and shall provide appropriate recognition of the following costs among the various districts within the state:

~~((+)) (a) Certificated instructional staff and their related costs;~~

~~((2)) (b) Certificated administrative staff and their related costs;~~

~~(c) Classified staff and their related costs;~~

~~((3)) (d) Nonsalary costs;~~

~~((4)) (e) Extraordinary costs of remote and necessary schools small school districts, and small high schools, including costs of additional certificated administrative and instructional staff and classified staff; and~~

~~((5)) (f) The attendance of students pursuant to RCW 28A.58.075 and 28A.58.245, each as now or hereafter amended, who do not reside within the servicing school district.~~

~~(2) This formula for distribution of basic education funds shall be reviewed biennially by the superintendent and governor. The recommended formula shall be subject to approval, amendment or rejection by the legislature. ~~((Commencing with the 1980-81 school year, the formula adopted by the legislature shall reflect a ratio of not less than fifty certificated personnel to one thousand annual average full-time equivalent students and one classified person to three certificated personnel.))~~ The formula adopted by the legislature shall be as follows:~~

~~(a) For the 1987-89 biennium:~~

~~(i) For certificated instructional personnel:~~

~~(A) For kindergarten through grade twelve, a ratio of not less than forty-six certificated instructional personnel per one thousand full time equivalent students enrolled in such grades;~~

~~(B) For kindergarten through grade three, not less than five additional certificated personnel per one thousand full time equivalent students enrolled in such grades;~~

~~(ii) For certificated administrative personnel, a ratio of not less than four certificated administrative personnel per one thousand full time equivalent students enrolled in grades kindergarten through twelve;~~

~~(iii) For classified personnel a ratio of not less than sixteen and sixty-seven one-hundredths classified personnel per one thousand full time equivalent students enrolled in grades kindergarten through twelve;~~

~~(b) For the 1989-91 biennium:~~

~~(i) For certificated instructional personnel:~~

~~(A) For kindergarten through grade twelve, a ratio of not less than forty-six certificated instructional personnel per one thousand full time equivalent students enrolled in such grades;~~

~~(B) For kindergarten through grade three, not less than five additional certificated instructional personnel per one thousand full time equivalent students enrolled in such grades;~~

~~(C) For grades four through twelve in the 1989-90 school year, in addition to those under (b)(i)(A) of this subsection, not less than one additional certificated instructional personnel per one thousand full time students enrolled in such grades;~~

~~(D) For grades four through twelve in the 1990-91 school year, in addition to those under (b)(i)(A) of this subsection, not less than two additional certificated instructional personnel per one thousand full time students enrolled in such grades;~~

~~(ii) For certificated administrative personnel, a ratio of not less than four certificated administrative personnel per one thousand full time equivalent students enrolled in grades kindergarten through twelve;~~

~~(iii) For classified personnel a ratio of not less than sixteen and sixty-seven one-hundredths classified personnel per one thousand full time equivalent students enrolled in grades kindergarten through twelve;~~

~~(c) For the 1991-93 biennium:~~

~~(i) For certificated instructional personnel:~~

~~(A) For kindergarten through grade twelve, a ratio of not less than forty-six certificated instructional personnel per one thousand full time equivalent students enrolled in such grades;~~

~~(B) For kindergarten through grade three, not less than five additional certificated instructional personnel per one thousand full time equivalent students enrolled in such grades;~~

~~(C) For grades four through twelve in the 1991-92 school year, in addition to those under (c)(i)(A) of this subsection, not less than three additional certificated instructional personnel per one thousand full time students enrolled in such grades;~~

~~(D) For grades four through twelve in the 1992-93 school year, in addition to those under (c)(i)(A) of this subsection, not less than four additional certificated instructional personnel per one thousand full time students enrolled in such grades;~~

~~(ii) For certificated administrative personnel, a ratio of not less than four certificated administrative personnel per one thousand full time equivalent students enrolled in grades kindergarten through twelve;~~

~~(iii) For classified personnel a ratio of not less than sixteen and sixty-seven one-hundredths classified personnel per one thousand full time equivalent students enrolled in grades kindergarten through twelve;~~

~~(d) For the 1993-95 biennium:~~

~~(i) For certificated instructional personnel a ratio of not less than fifty-one certificated instructional personnel per one thousand full time equivalent students enrolled in grades kindergarten through twelve;~~

(ii) For certificated administrative personnel, a ratio of not less than four certificated administrative personnel per one thousand full time equivalent students enrolled in grades kindergarten through twelve;

(iii) For classified personnel a ratio of not less than sixteen and sixty-seven one-hundredths classified personnel per one thousand full time equivalent students enrolled in grades kindergarten through twelve.

In the event the legislature rejects the distribution formula recommended by the governor, without adopting a new distribution formula, the distribution formula for the previous school year shall remain in effect: PROVIDED, That the distribution formula developed pursuant to this section shall be for state apportionment and equalization purposes only and shall not be construed as mandating specific operational functions of local school districts other than those program requirements identified in RCW 28A.58.754. The enrollment of any district shall be the annual average number of full time equivalent students and part time students as provided in RCW 28A.41.145, as now or hereafter amended, enrolled on the fourth school day following the commencement of the school year and on the first school day of each month; PROVIDED, That for the districts beginning basic education programs before September, the first month enrollment count shall be made on the fourth school day in September. The definition of full time equivalent student shall be determined by rules and regulations of the superintendent of public instruction: PROVIDED, That the definition shall be included as part of the superintendent's biennial budget request: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That any revision of the present definition shall not take effect until approved by the house appropriations committee and the senate ways and means committee: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the office of financial management shall make a monthly review of the superintendent's reported full time equivalent students in the common schools in conjunction with RCW 43.62.050.

(3) (a) Certificated ((staff) instructional personnel shall include those persons employed by a school district ((in a teaching, instructional, educational staff associate, learning resources specialist, administrative or supervisory capacity and who hold positions as certificated employees as defined under RCW 28A.01.130, as now or hereafter amended, and every school district superintendent, and any person hired in any manner to fill a position designated as, or which is in fact, that of deputy superintendent or assistant superintendent)) who are non-supervisory employees within the meaning of RCW 41.59.020(8); PROVIDED, That in exceptional cases, people of unusual competence but without certification may teach students so long as a certificated person exercises general supervision: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the hiring of such noncertificated people shall not occur during a labor dispute and such noncertificated people shall not be hired to replace certificated employees during a labor dispute.

(b) Certificated administrative personnel shall include all those persons who are chief executive officers, chief administrative officers, confidential employees, supervisors, principals, or assistant principals within the meaning of RCW 41.59.020(4).

(4) Each annual average full time equivalent certificated classroom teacher's direct classroom contact hours shall average at least twenty-five hours per week. Direct classroom contact hours shall be exclusive of time required to be spent for preparation, conferences, or any other nonclassroom instruction duties. Up to two hundred minutes per week may be deducted from the twenty-five contact hour requirement, at the discretion of the school district board of directors, to accommodate authorized teacher/parent-guardian conferences, recess, passing time between classes, and informal instructional activity. Implementing rules to be adopted by the state board of education pursuant to RCW 28A.58.754(6) shall provide that compliance with the direct contact hour requirement shall be based upon teachers' normally assigned weekly instructional schedules, as assigned by the district administration. Additional record-keeping by classroom teachers as a means of accounting for contact hours shall not be required. However, upon request from the board of directors of any school district, the provisions relating to direct classroom contact hours for individual teachers in that district may be waived by the state board of education if the waiver is necessary to implement a locally approved plan for educational excellence and the waiver is limited to those individual teachers approved in the local plan for educational excellence. The state board of education shall develop criteria to evaluate the need for the waiver. Granting of the waiver shall depend upon verification that: (a) The students' classroom instructional time will not be reduced; and (b) the teacher's expertise is critical to the success of the local plan for excellence.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 202. A new section is added to chapter 28A.41 RCW to read as follows:

Commencing with the 1987-88 school year, the formula adopted by the legislature pursuant to RCW 28A.41.140 shall include a ratio of one certificated person to sixteen and sixty-seven one-hundredths annual average full time equivalent vocational students in grades nine through twelve enrolled in vocational education programs approved by the superintendent of public instruction: PROVIDED, That any increase in funds generated by the change in the ratio of certificated personnel to annual average full time equivalent vocational students shall be used by local school districts to provide additional support for their local vocational education programs commencing with the 1987-88 school year.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 203. A new section is added to chapter 28A.41 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature shall establish for each school year in the appropriations act a state-wide salary allocation schedule, for allocation purposes only, to be used to distribute funds for basic education certificated instructional staff salaries under RCW 28A.41.140.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 204. A new section is added to chapter 28A.58 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Every school district board of directors shall fix, alter, allow, and order paid salaries and compensation for all district employees in conformance with this section.

(2)(a) The actual average salary paid to basic education certificated instructional staff shall not exceed the district's average basic education certificated instructional staff salary used for the state basic education allocations for that school year as established in the appropriations act.

(b) Any amount by which the average employee fringe benefit contribution for basic education certificated instructional staff for the current school year exceeds the greater of: (i) The amount per employee provided in the state operating appropriations act in effect at the time the compensation is payable; or (ii) the actual amount provided by the school district in the prior school year, shall be included as salary under (a) of this subsection. For purposes of this section, fringe benefits shall not include the following:

(i) Payment for unused leave for illness or injury under RCW 28A.58.096; and

(ii) Employer contributions for old age survivors insurance, workers' compensation, unemployment compensation, and retirement benefits under the Washington state retirement system.

(c) Salary and benefits for certificated instructional staff in programs other than basic education shall be consistent with the salary and benefits paid to certificated instructional staff in the basic education program.

(3) Salaries and benefits for certificated instructional staff may exceed the limitations in subsection (2) of this section only by separate contract for additional time, additional responsibilities, or incentives. Supplemental contracts shall not cause the state to incur any present or future funding obligation. Supplemental contracts shall be subject to the collective bargaining provisions of chapter 41.59 RCW and the provisions of RCW 28A.67.074, shall not exceed one year, and if not renewed shall not constitute adverse change in accordance with RCW 28A.58.450 through 28A.58.515. No district may enter into a supplemental contract under this subsection for the provision of services which are a part of the basic education program required by Article IX, section 3 of the state Constitution.

Sec. 205. Section 3, chapter 16, Laws of 1981 and RCW 41.59.935 are each amended to read as follows:

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to grant employers or employees the right to reach agreements regarding salary or compensation increases in excess of those authorized in accordance with ~~((RCW 28A.58.095))~~ sections 203 and 204 of this 1987 act.

Sec. 206. Section 2, chapter 143, Laws of 1986 and RCW 28A.02.325 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of directors of the school district shall make the final determination as to whether an employee suggestion award will be made and shall determine the nature and extent of the award. The award shall not be a regular or supplemental compensation program for all employees and the suggestion must, in fact, result in actual savings greater than the award amount. Any moneys which may be awarded to an employee as part of an employee suggestion program shall not be considered salary or compensation for the purposes of ~~((RCW 28A.58.095))~~ section 204 of this 1987 act or chapter 41.40 RCW.

Sec. 207. Section 5, chapter 278, Laws of 1984 and RCW 28A.03.425 are each amended to read as follows:

The office of the superintendent of public instruction, in consultation with the state board of education, shall prepare model curriculum programs and/or curriculum guidelines in three subject areas each year. These model curriculum programs or curriculum guidelines shall span all grade levels and shall include statements of expected learning outcomes, content, integration with other subject areas, recommended instructional strategies, and suggested resources.

Certificated employees with expertise in the subject area under consideration shall be chosen by the superintendent of public instruction from each educational service district, from a list of persons suggested by their peers, to work with the staff of the superintendent of public instruction to prepare each model curriculum program or curriculum guidelines. Each participant shall be paid his or her regular salary by his or her district, and travel and per diem expenses by the superintendent of public instruction. The superintendent of public instruction shall make selections of additional experts in the subject area under consideration as are needed to provide technical assistance and to review and comment upon the model curriculum programs and/or curriculum guidelines before publication and shall be paid travel and per diem expenses by the superintendent of public instruction as necessary. The model curriculum programs and curriculum guidelines shall be made available to all districts. Participants developing model curriculum programs and/or curriculum guidelines may be used by school districts to provide training or technical assistance or both. After completion of the original development of model curriculum programs or curriculum guidelines, the office of the superintendent of public instruction shall schedule, at least every five years, a regular review and updating of programs and guidelines in each subject matter area. (~~Any travel and per diem expenses provided to employees involved in the development of model programs or guidelines shall not be considered salary or compensation for purposes of the limitations established in RCW 28A.58.095.~~)

Sec. 208. Section 2, chapter 147, Laws of 1986 and RCW 28A.03.523 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The superintendent of public instruction shall establish an annual award program for excellence in education to recognize teachers, principals, school district superintendents, and school boards for their leadership, contributions, and commitment to education. The program shall recognize annually:

(a) Three teachers from each congressional district of the state. One individual must be an elementary level teacher, one must be a junior high or middle school level teacher, and one must be a secondary level teacher;

(b) Three principals from each congressional district of the state. One individual must be an elementary building principal, one must be a junior high or middle school building principal, and one must be a secondary building principal;

(c) One school district superintendent from the state; and

(d) One school district board of directors from the state.

Not more than three teachers and three principals from each congressional district and one superintendent and one school board from the state may be recognized and receive awards in any school year.

(2) The awards for teachers and principals shall include certificates presented by the governor and the superintendent of public instruction at a public ceremony or ceremonies in appropriate locations.

(3) In addition to certificates under subsection (2) of this section, awards for teachers and principals shall include:

(a) A waiver of tuition and fees under RCW 28B.15.547 and a stipend not to exceed one thousand dollars to cover costs incurred in taking courses for which the tuition and fees have been waived under this subsection and RCW 28B.15.547. The stipend shall not be considered compensation for the purposes of (~~RCW 28A.58.095~~) section 204 of this 1987 act; or

(b) Teachers and principals, at their discretion, may elect to forego the waiver of tuition and fees and the stipend under subsection (3) of this section and apply for a grant not to exceed one thousand dollars, which grant shall be awarded under the provisions of RCW 28A.03.535. Within one year of receiving the award for excellence in education, teachers and principals shall notify the superintendent of public instruction in writing of their decision to apply for a grant or to receive the waiver of tuition and fees and the stipend under subsection (3) of this section.

Sec. 209. Section 2, chapter 399, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28A.58.842 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of directors of any school district may establish a commendable employee service and recognition award program for certificated and classified school employees. The program shall be designed to recognize exemplary service, special achievements, or outstanding contributions by an individual in the performance of his or her duties as an employee of the school district. The board of directors of the school district shall determine the extent and type of any nonmonetary award. The value of any nonmonetary award shall not be deemed salary or compensation for the purposes of (~~RCW 28A.58.095~~) section 204 of this 1987 act or chapter 41.32 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 210. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 7, chapter 349, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28A.58.093;

(2) Section 2, chapter 16, Laws of 1981, section 1, chapter 275, Laws of 1983, section 1, chapter 245, Laws of 1984 and RCW 28A.58.095; and

(3) Section 4, chapter 16, Laws of 1981 and RCW 41.56.960.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 211. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 212. This act shall take effect September 1, 1987.

Senator Tanner moved that the following amendment to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

Beginning on page 10, line 23 of the Senate Ways and Means Committee Amendment, after "NEW SECTION, Sec. 102," strike all material through "year," on page 12, line 32 and insert "(1) Commencing with taxes assessed in calendar year 1988 to be collected in calendar year 1989 and thereafter, in addition to a school district's other general fund allocations, each eligible district shall be provided local effort assistance funds if funds are made specifically available by the legislature to be determined as provided in this section. Such funds are not part of the district's basic education allocation but the legislature intends to appropriate funds as necessary to implement this section.

(2) (a) "Prior tax collection year" shall mean the calendar year immediately preceding the calendar year in which the local effort assistance shall be allocated.

(b) "County indicated ratio" shall mean the ratio established by the department of revenue under RCW 84.48.085.

(c) The "ten percent levy" of a district shall mean ten percent of the district's levy base as defined in RCW 84.52.0531(5), plus one-half of any amount computed under RCW 84.52.0531(4)(b) in the case of nonhigh school districts.

(d) The "state-wide average assessed valuation per pupil" shall mean the total of all districts' assessed valuations for excess levy purposes in the prior tax collection year as adjusted to one hundred percent by the county indicated ratio, divided by the average annual full time equivalent enrollment for all school districts in the prior school year.

(e) The "assessed valuation per pupil" of a district shall mean the district's assessed valuation for excess levy purposes for the prior tax collection year as adjusted to one hundred percent by the county indicated ratio, divided by the average annual full time equivalent students of the district in the prior school year. For the purposes of this calculation, nonresident full time equivalent pupils who are participating in a program provided for in chapter 28A.44 RCW or in any other program pursuant to an interdistrict agreement shall be included in the enrollment of the resident district and excluded from the enrollment of the serving district.

(f) "Eligible districts" shall mean those districts with an assessed valuation per pupil which is less than the state-wide average assessed valuation per pupil.

(3) Allocation of state matching funds to eligible districts for local effort assistance shall be determined as follows:

(a) Funds raised by the district through maintenance and operation levies during that tax collection year shall be matched with state funds using the following ratio of state funds to levy funds: (i) The difference between the state-wide average assessed valuation per pupil and the district's assessed valuation per pupil; to (ii) the district's assessed valuation per pupil.

(b) The maximum amount of state matching funds for which a district may be eligible in any tax collection year shall be a district's ten percent levy, multiplied by the following percentage: The difference between the state-wide average assessed valuation per pupil and the district's assessed valuation per pupil, divided by the state-wide average assessed valuation per pupil.

(4) Fifty-five percent of local effort assistance funds shall be distributed to qualifying districts during the applicable tax collection year on or before June 30 and forty-five percent shall be distributed on or before December 31 of any year."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, I raise the point of order that the Senator is reading from something that we can all read faster than he can talk."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The point is well taken."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Smitherman: "Senator Tanner, I was wondering, did you discuss your particular mechanistic proposition with any of the school directors or school board members or anybody like that in your district or any other district?"

Senator Tanner: "No, I did not."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Tanner to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

Senator Tanner demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senator Tanner to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Tanner failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 19; nays, 30.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Bluechel, Craswell, Deccio, Garrett, Johnson, Lee, McCaslin, Metcalf, Owen, Pullen, Saling, Sellar, Stratton, Tanner, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West - 19.

MOTION

Senator McDonald moved that the following amendment by Senators McDonald and Nelson to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

Beginning on page 1, after line 10, strike all the material down to and including "41.56-.960." on page 31, line 25, and insert the following:

"Sec. 101. Section 1, chapter 374, Laws of 1985 and RCW 84.52.0531 are each amended to read as follows:

The maximum dollar amount which may be levied by or for any school district for maintenance and operation support under the provisions of RCW 84.52.053 shall be determined as follows:

(1) For excess levies (~~in 1985~~), for collection in (~~1986 and thereafter~~); calendar year 1988, the maximum dollar amount shall be the sum of:

(a) That amount equal to ((ten percent of each school)) the district's base year levy percentage as defined in subsection (5) of this section multiplied by the district's prior year basic education allocation; plus

(b) That amount equal to ((ten percent of each school)) the district's base year levy percentage multiplied by the district's prior year state allocation, exclusive of federal funds, for the following programs:

(i) Pupil transportation;

(ii) Handicapped education costs;

(iii) Gifted; and

(iv) Compensatory education, including but not limited to remediation assistance, bilingual education, and urban, rural, racial disadvantaged programs; plus

(c) That amount equal to the sum under (a) and (b) of this subsection improved by the percent increase per full time equivalent student in the state basic education appropriation between the prior school year and the current school year; plus

(d) In the case of nonhigh school districts only, an amount equal to the total estimated amount due by the nonhigh school district to high school districts pursuant to chapter 28A.44

RCW, as now or hereafter amended, for the school year during which collection of the levy is to commence, less the increase in the nonhigh school district's basic education allocation as computed pursuant to subsection (4) of this section due to the inclusion of pupils participating in a program provided for in chapter 28A.44 RCW in such computation.

(2) Excess levies authorized under this section or under RCW 84.52.052 shall not be used directly or indirectly to increase the average salary or fringe benefits for certificated or classified personnel in any school district: PROVIDED, That any school district may expend excess levy funds to provide increases in salary and fringe benefits for classified or certificated personnel whose salary and fringe benefits are provided wholly from local school district excess levies in a percentage not to exceed the respective average percentage increases in the salary and fringe benefit levels for classified and certificated employees of the district funded with state appropriated funds: PROVIDED FURTHER, That those contracts which have been negotiated prior to July 1, 1977 by those school districts for such school year shall not be abrogated by this section. "Fringe benefits" for purposes of this subsection shall include:

- (a) Employer retirement contributions, if applicable;
- (b) Health and insurance payments including life, accident, disability, unemployment compensation, and workmen's compensation; and
- (c) Employer social security contributions.

(3) Any school district whose average base compensation for certificated or classified personnel respectively is below state-wide average base compensation level for certificated or classified personnel during the preceding school year, may collect and expend property taxes authorized by this section, or under RCW 84.52.052, for the purpose of increasing such district's average compensation for certificated or classified personnel as allowed in the latest applicable state operating budget. "Compensation", for purposes of this subsection, shall mean salary plus fringe benefits for classified and certificated personnel of a school district as allowed in the latest applicable state operating budget.

(4) For the purpose of this section, the basic education allocation shall be determined pursuant to RCW 28A.41.130, 28A.41.140, and 28A.41.145, as now or hereafter amended: PROVIDED, That when determining the basic education allocation under subsections (1) and (7) of this section, ~~((effective September 1, 1979;))~~ nonresident full time equivalent pupils who are participating in a program provided for in chapter 28A.44 RCW or in any other program pursuant to an interdistrict agreement shall be included in the enrollment of the resident district and excluded from the enrollment of the serving district.

~~((Certificated personnel shall include those persons employed by a school district in a teaching, instructional, administrative or supervisory capacity and who hold positions as certificated personnel as defined under RCW 28A.01.130, as now or hereafter amended, and every school district superintendent, and any person hired in any manner to fill a position designated as, or which is in fact, that of deputy superintendent or assistant superintendent. Classified personnel shall include those persons employed by a school district other than certificated personnel as defined in this section in a capacity for which certification is not required.~~

~~(5) Any district is authorized to exceed the levy limitations imposed by subsection (1) for taxes to be collected during calendar years 1985 through 1993 as follows:~~

~~(a)) (5) For excess levies to be collected in calendar year((s 1986, 1987, and)) 1988, a base year levy percentage shall be established, which shall be the district's maximum levy percentage for calendar year 1988 for the purposes of subsection (8) of this section. The base year levy percentage shall be equal to the greater of: ((#)) (a) The district's actual levy percentage for calendar year 1985, ((##)) (b) the average levy percentage for all school district levies in the state in calendar year 1985, or ((##)) (c) the average levy percentage for all school district levies in the educational service district of the district in calendar year 1985.~~

~~((#b) The base year levy percentage established in (a) of this subsection shall be reduced in even increments beginning in calendar year 1989. The incremental reduction shall equal one-fifth of the percentage points the base year levy percentage exceeds the amount authorized in subsection (1) of this section.~~

~~(c) For excess levies to be collected in calendar year 1993, the maximum dollar amount which may be levied by or for any school district shall not exceed the amount authorized in subsection (1) of this section. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to excess levies to be collected after calendar year 1993;))~~

~~(6) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 1989 and thereafter, the maximum dollar amount shall be the total of:~~

~~(a) The district's levy base as defined in subsection (7) of this section multiplied by the district's maximum levy percentage as defined in subsection (8) of this section; plus~~

~~(b) In the case of nonhigh districts only, an amount equal to the total estimated amount due by the nonhigh school district to high school districts pursuant to chapter 28A.44 RCW for the school year during which collection of the levy is to commence, less the increase in the nonhigh school district's basic education allocation as computed pursuant to subsection (4) of this section due to the inclusion of pupils participating in a program provided for in chapter 28A.44 RCW in such computation; less~~

(c) The maximum amount of state matching funds under section 102 of this 1987 act for which the district is eligible in that tax collection year.

(7) For levies collected in calendar year 1989 and thereafter, a district's levy base shall be the sum of the district's prior school year allocations of state and federal funds, including allocations for compensation increases, for the following programs and purposes:

(a) General apportionment (basic education);

(b) Secondary vocational education;

(c) Pupil transportation;

(d) Handicapped education;

(e) Education of highly capable students;

(f) Compensatory education, including but not limited to remediation assistance, migrant education, Indian education, and bilingual education;

(g) Food services;

(h) The amount of direct federal grants based on the most recent and verified school year data available to the superintendent of public instruction; and

(i) The sum of (a) through (h) of this subsection improved by the percent increase per full time equivalent student in the state basic education appropriation between the prior school year and the current school year.

(8) For levies to be collected in calendar year 1989 and thereafter, a district's maximum levy percentage shall be determined as follows:

(a) Multiply the district's maximum levy percentage for the prior year or thirty percent, whichever is less, by the district's levy base as determined in subsection (7) of this section;

(b) Reduce the amount in (a) of this subsection by the total amount of any levy reduction funds as defined in subsection (9) of this section which were allocated to the district for the prior school year;

(c) Divide the amount in (b) of this subsection by the district's levy base to compute a new percentage; and

(d) The percentage in (c) of this subsection or twenty percent, whichever is greater, shall be the district's maximum levy percentage for levies collected in that calendar year.

(9) Levy reduction funds shall mean increases in state allocations included within a district's levy base under subsection (7) of this section which are not attributable to enrollment or workload changes, compensation increases, or inflationary adjustments recognized in state allocation formulas. Any other increases in state allocations from the district's allocations for the school year immediately preceding, which are not specifically excluded in this subsection, shall be considered levy reduction funds.

(10) For the purposes of this section, "prior school year" shall mean the most recent school year completed prior to the year in which the levies are to be collected.

(11) For the purposes of this section, "current school year" shall mean the year immediately following the prior school year.

(12) The superintendent of public instruction shall develop rules and regulations and inform school districts of the pertinent data necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 102. A new section is added to chapter 28A.41 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Commencing with taxes assessed in 1988 to be collected in calendar year 1989 and thereafter, in addition to a school district's other general fund allocations, each eligible district shall be provided local effort assistance funds if funds are made specifically available by the legislature to be determined as provided in this section. Such funds are not part of the district's basic education allocation but the legislature intends to appropriate funds as necessary to implement this section.

(2) (a) "Prior tax collection year" shall mean the year immediately preceding the year in which the local effort assistance shall be allocated.

(b) The "state-wide average ten percent levy rate" shall mean ten percent of the total levy bases as defined in RCW 84.52.0531(7) summed for all school districts, and divided by the total assessed valuation for excess levy purposes in the prior tax collection year for all districts as adjusted to one hundred percent by the county indicated ratio established in RCW 84.48.075.

(c) The "ten percent levy rate" of a district shall mean:

(i) Ten percent of the district's levy base as defined in RCW 84.52.0531(7), plus one-half of any amount computed under RCW 84.52.0531(6)(b) in the case of nonhigh school districts; divided by

(ii) The district's assessed valuation for excess levy purposes for the prior tax collection year as adjusted to one hundred percent by the county indicated ratio.

(d) "Eligible districts" shall mean those districts with a ten percent levy rate which exceeds the state-wide average ten percent levy rate.

(3) Allocation of state matching funds to eligible districts for local effort assistance shall be determined as follows:

(a) Funds raised by the district through maintenance and operation levies during that tax collection year shall be matched with state funds using the following ratio of state funds to levy funds: (i) The difference between the district's ten percent levy rate and the state-wide average ten percent levy rate; to (ii) the state-wide average ten percent levy rate.

(b) The maximum amount of state matching funds for which a district may be eligible in any tax collection year shall be ten percent of the district's levy base as defined in RCW 84.52.0531(7), multiplied by the following percentage: (i) The difference between the district's ten percent levy rate and the state-wide average ten percent levy rate; divided by (ii) the district's ten percent levy rate.

(4) Fifty-five percent of local effort assistance funds shall be distributed to qualifying districts during the applicable tax collection year on or before June 30 and forty-five percent shall be distributed on or before December 31 of any year.

Sec. 103, Section 3, chapter 325, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 133, Laws of 1986 and RCW 84.52.053 are each amended to read as follows:

The limitations imposed by RCW 84.52.050 through 84.52.056, and RCW 84.52.043 shall not prevent the levy of additional taxes by school districts, when authorized so to do by the electors of such school district in the manner ~~((set forth in))~~ and for the purposes and number of years allowable under Article VII, section 2(a) of the Constitution of this state, as amended by Amendment ~~((59))~~ 79 and as thereafter amended, at a special or general election to be held in the year in which the levy is made or, in the case of a proposition authorizing two-year levies for maintenance and operation support of a school district ~~((including but not limited to levies))~~ or authorizing two-year through six-year levies to support the construction, modernization, or remodeling of school facilities ~~((and levies for the maintenance and operation of schools, for a period exceeding one year))~~, or both, at a special or general election to be held in the year in which the first annual levy is made: PROVIDED, That once additional tax levies have been authorized for maintenance and operation support of a school district for a two year period, no further additional tax levies for maintenance and operation support of the district for that period may be authorized.

A special election may be called and the time therefor fixed by the board of school directors, by giving notice thereof by publication in the manner provided by law for giving notices of general elections, at which special election the proposition authorizing such excess levy shall be submitted in such form as to enable the voters favoring the proposition to vote "yes" and those opposed thereto to vote "no."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

Debate ensued.

President Pro Tempore Rasmussen assumed the chair.

Further debate ensued.

Senator Bottiger demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senators McDonald and Nelson to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator McDonald failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 24; nays, 25.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Decchio, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Nelson, Newhouse, Patterson, Pullen, Saling, Sellar, von Reichbauer, West, Zimmerman - 24.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Bender, Bottiger, Conner, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Kreidler, McDermott, Moore, Owen, Peterson, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vogniid, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 25.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Ways and Means amendment, as amended.

The Committee on Ways and Means amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "education;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 84.52.0531, 84.52.053, 28A.41.140, 41.59.935, 28A.02.325, 28A.03.425, 28A.03.523, and 28A.58.842; adding new sections to chapter 28A.41 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 28A.58 RCW; creating a new section; repealing RCW 28A.58.093, 28A.58.095, and 41.56.960; and providing an effective date."

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 455, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Barr: "Senator Bauer, in relation to the old House Bill No. 166 issue, explain what this bill did and to what extent does it still deal with the possibility and to what extent of the teachers bargaining for the local levy money? Could you clarify that for me, because this is serious and if it deals with it to the extent that I think it does, it will be a deciding factor as to whether I vote yes or no."

Senator Bauer: "As I understand it--others might want to speak to that--but the Governor's original plan, as you know, was to devise some kind of a fairly heavy criteria for allowing any additional money to be used--of the special levy money to be used for salaries and as we see it in this bill now, as Senator Gaspard just pointed out to me again, that we have in the place of House Bill No. 166, we have where a district may give additional salary--not general salary increases--but for conditions such as time, responsibility and the Governor had initiative and performance. The performance and initiative were negotiated out here, so no teacher is going to get any additional money unless the school district decides that that teacher has performed some additional responsibility or has performed some additional time--a couple days to develop a curriculum or in the case of a head teacher, responsibility. If you are a teacher and you are teaching six periods a day, but you've been made the master teacher and therefore, having to help develop the curriculum and the programs, you will be entitled to work a couple of additional days and maybe get additional dollars for that particular purpose. There are a lot of things that districts do now that grant additional salaries for additional responsibility and time.

"In terms of the classified administrators salaries, those monies will be on the table for bargaining and that, as I understand it, that's a change in current practice. So, in your case, your administrators can decide to take money off the table, from classified or from whatever is driven out there, to hire that extra administrator that you need in your district, because now, the Legislature is going to drive more dollars out there by the fifty-one per thousand or fifty-two per thousand. So, there is more money out there on the table for administrators to deal with, to bargain with and the restrictions on teachers, the certificated staff, is now converted over to this time and responsibility."

Further debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 455, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 455, as amended by the Senate, and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 24; nays, 25.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Bottiger, Conner, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Kreidler, McDermott, Moore, Peterson, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 24.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Deccio, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Saling, Sellar, von Reichbauer, West, Zimmerman - 25.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 455, as amended by the Senate, having failed to receive the constitutional majority, was declared lost.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Owen moved that the Senate reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 455, as amended by the Senate, failed to pass the Senate.

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Rasmussen: "Senator Owen, after the tenth day before the end of the session, you have to move for immediate reconsideration. Is that what your motion is?"

Senator Owen: "Yes, Mr. President."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Owen that the Senate reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 455, as amended by the Senate, failed to pass the Senate.

The motion by Senator Owen carried and the Senate will reconsider Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 455, as amended by the Senate.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 455, as amended by the Senate, on reconsideration, was deferred.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

On motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate commenced consideration of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5659.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 15, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5659 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 31, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 as last amended by section 10, chapter 257, Laws of 1985 and RCW 13.32A.170 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The court shall hold a fact-finding hearing to consider a proper petition and may approve or deny alternative residential placement giving due weight to the intent of the legislature that families (~~absent compelling reasons to the contrary, shall remain together and that parents have the right to place reasonable rules and restrictions upon their children~~) have the right to place reasonable restrictions and rules upon their children, appropriate to the individual child's developmental level. The court may appoint legal counsel and/or a guardian ad litem to represent the child and advise parents of their right to be represented by legal counsel. The court may approve an order stating that the child shall be placed in a residence other than the home of his or her parent only if it is established by a preponderance of the evidence that:

(a) The petition is not capricious;

(b) The petitioner, if a parent or the child, has made a reasonable effort to resolve the conflict;

(c) The conflict which exists cannot be resolved by delivery of services to the family during continued placement of the child in the parental home; and

(d) Reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the child's home and to make it possible for the child to return home.

The court may not grant a petition filed by the child or the department if it is established that the petition is based only upon a dislike of reasonable rules or reasonable discipline established by the parent.

(2) The order approving out-of-home placement shall direct the department to submit a disposition plan for a three-month placement of the child that is designed to reunite the family and resolve the family conflict. Such plan shall delineate any conditions or limitations on parental involvement. In making the order, the court shall further direct the department to make recommendations, as to which agency or person should have physical custody of the child, as to which parental powers should be awarded to such agency or person, and as to parental visitation rights. The court may direct the department to consider the cultural heritage of the child in making its recommendations.

(3) The hearing to consider the recommendations of the department for a three-month disposition plan shall be set no later than fourteen days after the approval of the court of a petition to approve alternative residential placement. Each party shall be notified of the time and place of such disposition hearing.

(4) If the court approves or denies a petition for an alternative residential placement, a written statement of the reasons shall be filed. If the court denies a petition requesting that a child be placed in a residence other than the home of his or her parent, the court shall enter an order requiring the child to remain at or return to the home of his or her parent.

(5) If the court denies the petition, the court shall impress upon the party filing the petition of the legislative intent to restrict the proceedings to situations where a family conflict is so great that it cannot be resolved by the provision of in-home services.

(6) A child who fails to comply with a court order directing that the child remain at or return to the home of his or her parent shall be subject to contempt proceedings, as provided in this chapter, but only if the noncompliance occurs within ninety calendar days after the day of the order.

Sec. 2. Section 30, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 13.34.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature declares that the family unit is a fundamental resource of American life which should be nurtured. Toward the continuance of this principle, the legislature declares that the family unit should remain intact ~~((in the absence of compelling evidence to the contrary))~~ unless a child's right to conditions of basic nurture, health, or safety is jeopardized. When the rights of basic nurture, physical and mental health, and safety of the child and the legal rights of the parents are in conflict, the rights and safety of the child should prevail.

Sec. 3. Section 31, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 311, Laws of 1983 and RCW 13.34.030 are each amended to read as follows:

For purposes of this chapter:

- (1) "Child" and "juvenile" means any individual under the age of eighteen years;
- (2) "Dependent child" means any child:
  - (a) Who has been abandoned; that is, where the child's parent, guardian, or other custodian has evidenced either by statement or conduct, a settled intent to forego, for an extended period, all parental rights or all parental responsibilities despite an ability to do so;
  - (b) Who is abused or neglected as defined in chapter 26.44 RCW by a person legally responsible for the care of the child;
  - (c) Who has no parent, guardian, or custodian ~~((willing and))~~ capable of adequately caring for the child, such that the child is in circumstances which constitute a danger of substantial damage to the child's psychological or physical development; or
  - (d) Who is developmentally disabled, as defined in RCW 71.20.016 and whose parent, guardian, or legal custodian together with the department determines that services appropriate to the child's needs can not be provided in the home. However, (a), (b), and (c) of this subsection may still be applied if other reasons for removal of the child from the home exist.

Sec. 4. Section 34, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 5, chapter 95, Laws of 1984 and by section 3, chapter 188, Laws of 1984 and RCW 13.34.060 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) A child taken into custody pursuant to RCW 13.34.050 or 26.44.050 shall be immediately placed in shelter care. A child taken by a relative of the child in violation of RCW 9A.40.060 or 9A.40.070 shall be placed in shelter care only when permitted under RCW 13.34.055. "Shelter care" means temporary physical care in a facility licensed pursuant to RCW 74.15.030 or in a home not required to be licensed pursuant to that section. Whenever a child is taken into such custody pursuant to this section, the supervising agency may authorize evaluations of the child's physical or emotional condition, routine medical and dental examination and care, and all necessary emergency care. In no case may a child who is taken into custody pursuant to RCW 13.34.055, 13.34.050, or 26.44.050 be detained in a secure detention facility. No child may be held longer than seventy-two hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, after such child is taken into custody unless a court order has been entered for continued shelter care. The child and his or her parent, guardian, or custodian shall be informed that they have a right to a shelter care hearing. The court shall hold a shelter care hearing if one is requested.

(2) The juvenile court counselor assigned to the matter shall make all reasonable efforts to advise the parents, guardian, or legal custodian of the time and place of any shelter care hearing, request that they be present, and inform them of their basic rights as provided in RCW 13.34.090.

(3) At the commencement of the shelter care hearing the court shall advise the parties of their basic rights as provided in RCW 13.34.090 and shall appoint counsel pursuant to RCW 13.34.090 if counsel has not been retained by the parent or guardian and if the parent or guardian is indigent, unless the court finds that the right to counsel has been expressly and voluntarily waived.

(4) The court shall examine the need for shelter care. All parties have the right to present testimony to the court regarding the need or lack of need for shelter care.

(5) The juvenile court probation counselor shall submit a recommendation to the court as to the further need for shelter care, except that such recommendation shall be submitted by the department of social and health services in cases where the petition alleging dependency has been filed by the department of social and health services, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(6) The court shall release a child alleged to be dependent to the care, custody, and control of the child's parent, guardian, or legal custodian unless the court finds there is reasonable cause to believe that:

- (a) Reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the child's home and to make it possible for the child to return home; and
- (b)(i) The child has no parent, guardian, or legal custodian to provide supervision and care for such child; or

(ii) The release of such child would present a serious threat of substantial harm to such child; or

((c)) (iii) The parent, guardian, or custodian to whom the child could be released is alleged to have violated RCW 9A.40.060 or 9A.40.070.

If the court does not release the child to his or her parent, guardian, or legal custodian, the court shall order continued shelter care or order placement with another suitable person, and the court shall set forth its reasons for the order.

(7) An order releasing the child on any conditions specified in this section may at any time be amended, with notice and hearing thereon, so as to return the child to shelter care for failure of the parties to conform to the conditions originally imposed.

(8) A shelter care order issued pursuant to this section may be amended at any time with notice and hearing thereon. The shelter care decision of placement shall be modified only upon a showing of change in circumstances. No child may be detained for longer than thirty days without an order, signed by the judge, authorizing continued shelter care.

Sec. 5. Section 40, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 45, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 and RCW 13.34.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) To aid the court in its decision on disposition, a social study, consisting of a written evaluation of matters relevant to the disposition of the case, shall be made by the person or agency filing the petition. The study shall include all social records and may also include facts relating to the child's cultural heritage, and shall be made available to the court. The court shall consider the social file and social study at the disposition hearing in addition to evidence produced at the fact-finding hearing. At least ten working days before the disposition hearing, the department shall mail to the parent and his or her attorney a copy of the agency's social study and proposed service plan, which shall be in writing or in a form understandable to the parents or custodians. In addition, the department shall provide an opportunity for parents to review and comment on the plan at the community service office. If the parents disagree with the agency's plan or any part thereof, the parents shall submit to the court at least twenty-four hours before the hearing, in writing, or signed oral statement, an alternative plan to correct the problems which led to the finding of dependency. This section shall not interfere with the right of the parents or custodians to submit oral arguments regarding the disposition plan at the hearing.

(2) In addition to the requirements set forth in subsection (1) of this section, a predisposition study to the court in cases of dependency alleged pursuant to RCW 13.34.030(2) (b) or (c) shall contain the following information:

(a) A statement of the specific harm or harms to the child that intervention is designed to alleviate;

(b) A description of the specific programs, for both the parents and child, that are needed in order to prevent serious harm to the child; the reasons why such programs are likely to be useful; the availability of any proposed services; and the agency's overall plan for ensuring that the services will be delivered;

(c) If removal is recommended, a full description of the reasons why the child cannot be protected adequately in the home, including a description of any previous efforts to work with the parents and the child in the home; the in-home treatment programs which have been considered and rejected; and the parents' attitude toward placement of the child;

(d) A statement of the likely harms the child will suffer as a result of removal. This section should include an exploration of the nature of the parent-child attachment and the meaning of separation and loss to both the parents and the child;

(e) A description of the steps that will be taken to minimize harm to the child that may result if separation occurs; and

(f) Behavior that will be expected before determination that supervision of the family or placement is no longer necessary.

Sec. 6. Section 46, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 47, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 and RCW 13.34.180 are each amended to read as follows:

A petition seeking termination of a parent and child relationship may be filed in juvenile court. Such petition shall conform to the requirements of RCW 13.34.040 (~~as now or hereafter amended~~) and shall allege:

(1) That the child has been found to be a dependent child under RCW 13.34.030(2); and

(2) That the court has entered a dispositional order pursuant to RCW 13.34.130; and

(3) That the child has been removed or will, at the time of the hearing, have been removed from the custody of the parent for a period of at least six months pursuant to a finding of dependency under RCW 13.34.030(2); and

(4) That the services ordered under RCW 13.34.130 have been offered or provided and all necessary services, reasonably available, capable of correcting the parental deficiencies within the foreseeable future have been offered or provided; and

(5) That there is little likelihood that conditions will be remedied so that the child can be returned to the parent in the near future; and

(6) That continuation of the parent and child relationship clearly diminishes the child's prospects for early integration into a stable and permanent home;

(7) In lieu of the allegations in subsections (1) through (6) of this section, the petition may allege that the child was found under such circumstances that the ~~((identity and))~~ whereabouts of the child's parent are unknown and no ~~((parent has claimed))~~ person has acknowledged paternity or maternity and requested custody of the child within two months after the child was found.

Sec. 7. Section 47, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 48, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 and RCW 13.34.190 are each amended to read as follows:

After hearings pursuant to RCW 13.34.110, the court may enter an order terminating all parental rights to a child if the court finds that:

(1) (a) The allegations contained in the petition as provided in RCW 13.34.180 ~~((1) through (6))~~ (2), (3), or (4) are established by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence; or (b) ~~((RCW 13.34.180(3) may be waived because the allegations under RCW 13.34.180 (1), (2), (4), (5), and (6) are established beyond a reasonable doubt; or (c))~~ the allegations under RCW 13.34.180 ~~((7) is)~~ (5) are established beyond a reasonable doubt; and

(2) Such an order is in the best interests of the child.

Sec. 8. Section 1, chapter 13, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 1, chapter 97, Laws of 1984 and RCW 26.44.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The Washington state legislature finds and declares: The bond between a child and his or her parent, custodian, or guardian is of paramount importance, and any intervention into the life of a child is also an intervention into the life of the parent, custodian, or guardian; however, instances of nonaccidental injury, neglect, death, sexual abuse and cruelty to children by their parents, custodians or guardians have occurred, and in the instance where a child is deprived of his or her right to conditions of minimal nurture, health, and safety, the state is justified in emergency intervention based upon verified information; and therefore the Washington state legislature hereby provides for the reporting of such cases to the appropriate public authorities. It is the intent of the legislature that, as a result of such reports, protective services shall be made available in an effort to prevent further abuses, and to safeguard the general welfare of such children ~~((PROVIDED, That such)),~~ The protective services shall have as its paramount goal the safety of the child. When the rights of basic nurture, mental and physical health, and safety of the child and the rights of the parents are in conflict, the rights of the child shall prevail. Reports shall be maintained and disseminated with strictest regard for the privacy of the subjects of such reports and so as to safeguard against arbitrary, malicious or erroneous information or actions: PROVIDED FURTHER, That this chapter shall not be construed to authorize interference with child-raising practices, including reasonable parental discipline, which are not proved to be injurious to the child's health, welfare and safety.

Adult dependent persons not able to provide for their own protection through the criminal justice system shall also be afforded the protection offered children through the reporting and investigation requirements mandated in this chapter.

Sec. 9. Section 2, chapter 13, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 2, chapter 97, Laws of 1984 and RCW 26.44.020 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of and as used in this chapter:

(1) "Court" means the superior court of the state of Washington, juvenile department.

(2) "Law enforcement agency" means the police department, the prosecuting attorney, the state patrol, the director of public safety, or the office of the sheriff.

(3) "Practitioner of the healing arts" or "practitioner" means a person licensed by this state to practice podiatry, optometry, chiropractic, nursing, dentistry, osteopathy and surgery, or medicine and surgery or to provide other health services. The term "practitioner" shall include a duly accredited Christian Science practitioner: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That a person who is being furnished Christian Science treatment by a duly accredited Christian Science practitioner shall not be considered, for that reason alone, a neglected person for the purposes of this chapter.

(4) "Institution" means a private or public hospital or any other facility providing medical diagnosis, treatment or care.

(5) "Department" means the state department of social and health services.

(6) "Child" or "children" means any person under the age of eighteen years of age.

(7) "Professional school personnel" shall include, but not be limited to, teachers, counselors, administrators, child care facility personnel, and school nurses.

(8) "Social ~~((worker))~~ service counselor" shall mean anyone engaged in a professional capacity during the regular course of employment in encouraging or promoting the health, welfare, support or education of children, or providing social services to adults or families, including mental health, drug and alcohol treatment, and domestic violence programs, whether in an individual capacity, or as an employee or agent of any public or private organization or institution.

(9) "Psychologist" shall mean any person licensed to practice psychology under chapter 18.83 RCW, whether acting in an individual capacity or as an employee or agent of any public or private organization or institution.

(10) "Pharmacist" shall mean any registered pharmacist under the provisions of chapter 18.64 RCW, whether acting in an individual capacity or as an employee or agent of any public or private organization or institution.

(11) "Clergy" shall mean any regularly licensed or ordained minister, priest or rabbi of any church or religious denomination, whether acting in an individual capacity or as an employee or agent of any public or private organization or institution.

(12) "Child abuse or neglect" shall mean the injury, sexual abuse, sexual exploitation, or negligent treatment or maltreatment of a child by any person under circumstances which indicate that the child's health, welfare, and safety is harmed thereby. An abused child is a child who has been subjected to child abuse or neglect as defined herein: PROVIDED, That this subsection shall not be construed to authorize interference with child-raising practices, including reasonable parental discipline, which are not proved to be injurious to the child's health, welfare, and safety; AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That nothing in this section shall be used to prohibit the reasonable use of corporal punishment as a means of discipline. No parent or guardian shall be deemed abusive or neglectful solely by reason of the parent's or child's blindness, deafness, developmental disability, or other handicap.

(13) "Child protective services section" shall mean the child protective services section of the department.

(14) "Adult dependent persons not able to provide for their own protection through the criminal justice system" shall be defined as those persons over the age of eighteen years who have been found legally incompetent pursuant to chapter 11.88 RCW or found disabled to such a degree pursuant to said chapter, that such protection is indicated: PROVIDED, That no persons reporting injury, abuse, or neglect to an adult dependent person as defined herein shall suffer negative consequences if such a judicial determination of incompetency or disability has not taken place and the person reporting believes in good faith that the adult dependent person has been found legally incompetent pursuant to chapter 11.88 RCW.

(15) "Sexual exploitation" includes: (a) Allowing, permitting, or encouraging a child to engage in prostitution by any person; or (b) allowing, permitting, encouraging, or engaging in the obscene or pornographic photographing, filming, or depicting of a child for commercial purposes as those acts are defined by state law by any person.

(16) "Negligent treatment or maltreatment" means an act or omission which evidences a serious disregard of consequences of such magnitude as to constitute a clear and present danger to the child's health, welfare, and safety.

(17) "Child protective services" means those services provided by the department designed to protect children from child abuse and neglect and safeguard the general welfare of such children and shall include investigations of child abuse and neglect reports, including reports regarding child care centers and family child care homes, and the development, management, and provision of or referral to services to ameliorate conditions which endanger the welfare of children, the coordination of necessary programs and services relevant to the prevention, intervention, and treatment of child abuse and neglect, and services to children to ensure that each child has a permanent home. In determining whether protective services should be provided, the department shall not decline to provide such services solely because of the child's unwillingness or developmental inability to describe the nature and severity of the abuse or neglect.

Sec. 10. Section 3, chapter 13, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 1, chapter 145, Laws of 1986 and RCW 26.44.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When any practitioner, professional school personnel, registered or licensed nurse, social (~~worker~~) service counselor, psychologist, pharmacist, (or) licensed or certified child care providers or their employees, employee of the department, or juvenile probation officer has reasonable cause to believe that a child or adult dependent person has suffered abuse or neglect, he shall report such incident, or cause a report to be made, to the proper law enforcement agency or to the department as provided in RCW 26.44.040. The report shall be made at the first opportunity, but in no case longer than forty-eight hours after there is reasonable cause to believe that the child or adult has suffered abuse or neglect.

(2) Any other person who has reasonable cause to believe that a child or adult dependent person has suffered abuse or neglect may report such incident to the proper law enforcement agency or to the department of social and health services as provided in RCW 26.44.040.

(3) The department, upon receiving a report of an incident of abuse or neglect pursuant to this chapter, involving a child or adult dependent person who has died or has had physical injury or injuries inflicted upon him other than by accidental means or who has been subjected to sexual abuse, shall report such incident in writing to the proper law enforcement agency.

(4) Any law enforcement agency receiving a report of an incident of abuse or neglect pursuant to this chapter, involving a child or adult dependent person who has died or has had physical injury or injuries inflicted upon him other than by accidental means, or who has been subjected to sexual abuse, shall report such incident in writing as provided in RCW 26.44.040 to the proper county prosecutor or city attorney for appropriate action whenever the law enforcement agency's investigation reveals that a crime may have been committed. The law enforcement agency shall also notify the department of all reports received and the law enforcement agency's disposition of them.

(5) Any county prosecutor or city attorney receiving a report under subsection (4) of this section shall notify the victim, any persons the victim requests, and the local office of the department, of the decision to charge or decline to charge a crime, within five days of making the decision.

(6) The department may conduct ongoing case planning and consultation with those persons or agencies required to report under this section and with designated representatives of Washington Indian tribes if the client information exchanged is pertinent to cases currently receiving child protective services or department case services for the developmentally disabled. Upon request, the department shall conduct such planning and consultation with those persons required to report under this section, with consultants designated by the department, if the department determines it is in the best interests of the child or developmentally disabled person. Information considered privileged by statute and not directly related to reports required by this section shall not be divulged without a valid written waiver of the privilege.

(7) Any case referred to the department by a physician licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW on the basis of an expert medical opinion that child abuse, neglect, or sexual assault has occurred and that the child's safety will be seriously endangered if returned home, the department shall file a dependency petition unless a second licensed physician of the parents' choice believes that such expert medical opinion is incorrect. If the parents fail to designate a second physician, the department may make the selection. If a physician finds that a child has suffered abuse or neglect but that such abuse or neglect does not constitute imminent danger to the child's health or safety, and the department agrees with the physician's assessment, the child may be left in the parents' home while the department proceeds with reasonable efforts to remedy parenting deficiencies.

(8) Persons or agencies exchanging information under subsection (6) of this section shall not further disseminate or release the information except as authorized by state or federal statute. Violation of this subsection is a misdemeanor.

(9) Upon receiving reports of abuse or neglect, the department or law enforcement agency may interview children. The interviews may be conducted on school premises, at day-care facilities, at the child's home, or at other suitable locations outside of the presence of parents. Parental notification of the interview shall occur at the earliest possible point in the investigation that will not jeopardize the safety or protection of the child or the course of the investigation. Prior to commencing the interview the department or law enforcement agency shall determine whether the child wishes a third party to be present for the interview and, if so, shall make reasonable efforts to accommodate the child's wishes. Unless the child objects, the department or law enforcement agency shall make reasonable efforts to include a third party in any interview so long as the presence of the third party will not jeopardize the course of the investigation.

(10) Upon receiving a report of incidents, conditions, or circumstances of child abuse and neglect, the department shall have access to all relevant records of the child in the possession of mandated reporters and their employees.

(11) The department shall maintain investigation records and conduct timely and periodic reviews of all cases constituting abuse and neglect. The department shall maintain a log of screened-out nonabusive cases.

(12) The department of social and health services shall, within funds appropriated for this purpose, use a risk assessment tool when investigating child abuse and neglect referrals. The tool shall be used, on a pilot basis, in three local office service areas. The department shall, within funds appropriated for this purpose, offer enhanced community-based services to persons who are determined not to require further state intervention.

The department shall report to the ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives on the use of the tool by December 1, 1988. The report shall include recommendations on the continued use and possible expanded use of the tool.

Sec. 11. Section 8, chapter 217, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 26.44.053 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In any judicial proceeding in which it is alleged that a child has been subjected to child abuse or neglect, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for the child: PROVIDED, That the requirement of a guardian ad litem shall be deemed satisfied if the child is represented by counsel in the proceedings.

(2) At any time prior to or during a hearing in such a case, ~~((when the court finds upon clear, cogent and convincing evidence that an incident of child abuse or neglect has occurred;))~~ the court may, on its own motion, or the motion of the guardian ad litem, or other parties, order the examination by a physician, psychologist or psychiatrist, of any parent or child or other person having custody of the child at the time of the alleged child abuse or neglect, if the court finds such an examination is necessary to the proper determination of the case. The hearing may be continued pending the completion of such examination. The physician, psychologist or psychiatrist conducting such an examination may be required to testify ~~((in the dispositional hearing))~~ concerning the results of such examination and may be asked to give his opinion as to whether the protection of the child requires that he not be returned to the custody of his parents or other persons having custody of him at the time of the alleged child abuse or neglect. Persons so testifying shall be subject to cross-examination as are other witnesses. No ((testimony)) information given at any such examination of the parent or any other person having custody of the child may be used against such person in any subsequent criminal proceedings against such person or custodian concerning the abuse or neglect of the child.

(3) A parent or other person having legal custody of a child alleged to be a child subjected to abuse or neglect shall be a party to any proceeding that may as a practical matter impair or impede such person's interest in custody or control of his or her child.

Sec. 12. Section 6, chapter 35, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 269, Laws of 1986 and RCW 26.44.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall maintain a central registry of reported cases of child abuse or abuse of an adult dependent person and shall adopt such rules and regulations as necessary in carrying out the provisions of this section. Records in the central registry shall be considered confidential and privileged and will not be available except upon court order to any person or agency except (1) law enforcement agencies as defined in this chapter in the course of an investigation of alleged abuse or neglect; (2) protective services workers or juvenile court personnel who are investigating reported incidents of abuse or neglect; (3) department of social and health services personnel who are investigating the character and/or suitability of an agency and other Mr. President:

persons who are applicants for licensure, registration, or certification, or applicants for employment with such an agency or persons, or under contract to or employed by an agency or persons directly responsible for the care and treatment of children, expectant mothers, or adult dependent persons pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW; (4) department of social and health services personnel who are investigating the character, suitability, and competence of persons being considered for employment with the department in positions directly responsible for the supervision, care, or treatment of children or developmentally disabled persons pursuant to chapters 43.20A and 41.06 RCW; (5) department of social and health services personnel who are investigating the character or suitability of any persons with whom children may be placed under the interstate compact on the placement of children, chapter 26.34 RCW; (6) physicians who are treating the child or adult dependent person or family; (7) any child or adult dependent person named in the registry who is alleged to be abused or neglected, or his or her guardian ad litem and/or attorney; (8) a parent, guardian, or other person legally responsible for the welfare and safety of the child or adult dependent person named in the registry; (9) any person engaged in a bona fide research purpose, as determined by the department, according to rules and regulations, provided that information identifying the persons of the registry shall remain privileged; and (10) any individual whose name appears on the registry shall have access to his own records. Those persons or agencies exempted by this section from the confidentiality of the records of the registry shall not further disseminate or release such information so provided to them and shall respect the confidentiality of such information, and any violation of this section shall constitute a misdemeanor.

In accordance with procedures and rules developed by the department, the child protective services section may notify any board of licensing or school administration when a member, licensee, or employee has been reported to the central registry as an adjudicated or admitted perpetrator of child abuse or neglect. The information placed in the central registry or its replacement must be made available to licensing boards and/or school administrations upon request following notification as required by the child protective services section. Unless the victim of the child abuse or neglect, or the victim's parent, guardian, or other person legally responsible for the victim's welfare consents to the disclosure of the victim's name and address, such information shall not be contained in the information provided by the department.

Sec. 13. Section 3, chapter 172, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 5, chapter 188, Laws of 1984 and RCW 74.15.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The secretary shall have the power and it shall be the secretary's duty:

(1) In consultation with the children's services advisory committee, and with the advice and assistance of persons representative of the various type agencies to be licensed, to designate categories of facilities for which separate or different requirements shall be developed as may be appropriate whether because of variations in the ages, sex and other characteristics of persons served, variations in the purposes and services offered or size or structure of the agencies to be licensed hereunder, or because of any other factor relevant thereto;

(2) In consultation with the children's services advisory committee, and with the advice and assistance of persons representative of the various type agencies to be licensed, to adopt and publish minimum requirements for licensing applicable to each of the various categories of agencies to be licensed.

The minimum requirements shall be limited to:

(a) The size and suitability of a facility and the plan of operation for carrying out the purpose for which an applicant seeks a license;

(b) The character, suitability and competence of an agency and other persons associated with an agency directly responsible for the care and treatment of children, expectant mothers or developmentally disabled persons. In consultation with law enforcement personnel, the secretary shall investigate the conviction record or pending charges of each agency and its staff seeking licensure or relicensure. Such investigation shall include an examination of the child abuse and neglect register established under chapter 26.44 RCW on all agencies seeking a license under this chapter. The secretary shall use the information solely for the purpose of determining eligibility for a license and for determining the character, suitability, and competence of those persons or agencies, excluding parents, not required to be licensed who are authorized to care for children, expectant mothers, and developmentally disabled persons, and shall safeguard the information in the same manner as the child abuse registry established in RCW 26.44.070. Criminal justice agencies shall provide the secretary such information as they may have and that the secretary may require for such purpose;

(c) The number of qualified persons required to render the type of care and treatment for which an agency seeks a license;

(d) The safety, cleanliness, and general adequacy of the premises to provide for the comfort, care and well-being of children, expectant mothers or developmentally disabled persons;

(e) The provision of necessary care, including food, clothing, supervision and discipline; physical, mental and social well-being; and educational, recreational and spiritual opportunities for those served;

(f) The financial ability of an agency to comply with minimum requirements established pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW and RCW 74.13.031; and

(g) The maintenance of records pertaining to the admission, progress, health and discharge of persons served((:));

(3) To investigate any person, including relatives by blood or marriage except for parents, for character, suitability, and competence in the care and treatment of children, expectant mothers, and developmentally disabled persons prior to authorizing that person to care for children, expectant mothers, and developmentally disabled persons((:));

(4) On reports of child abuse and neglect, to investigate agencies in accordance with chapter 26.44 RCW, including day care centers and family day care homes, to determine whether the abuse or neglect has occurred, and whether child protective services or referral to a law enforcement agency is appropriate;

(5) To issue, revoke, or deny licenses to agencies pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW and RCW 74.13.031. Licenses shall specify the category of care which an agency is authorized to render and the ages, sex and number of persons to be served;

~~((5))~~ (6) To prescribe the procedures and the form and contents of reports necessary for the administration of chapter 74.15 RCW and RCW 74.13.031 and to require regular reports from each licensee;

~~((6))~~ (7) To inspect agencies periodically to determine whether or not there is compliance with chapter 74.15 RCW and RCW 74.13.031 and the requirements adopted hereunder;

~~((7))~~ (8) To review requirements adopted hereunder at least every two years and to adopt appropriate changes after consultation with the children's services advisory committee; and

~~((8))~~ (9) To consult with public and private agencies in order to help them improve their methods and facilities for the care of children, expectant mothers and developmentally disabled persons.

Sec. 14. Section 6, chapter 172, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 9, chapter 118, Laws of 1982 and RCW 74.15.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The secretary of social and health services shall have the power and it shall be his duty:

In consultation with the children's services advisory committee and with the advice and assistance of persons representative of the various type agencies to be licensed, to develop minimum requirements pertaining to each category of agency established pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW and RCW 74.13.031, necessary to promote the health of all persons residing therein.

The secretary or the city, county, or district health department designated by him shall have the power and the duty:

(1) To make or cause to be made such inspections and investigations of agencies, including investigation of alleged child abuse and neglect in accordance with chapter 26.44 RCW, as may be deemed necessary; and

(2) To issue to applicants for licenses hereunder who comply with the requirements adopted hereunder, a certificate of compliance, a copy of which shall be presented to the department before a license shall be issued, except that a provisional license may be issued as provided in RCW 74.15.120."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "services;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 13.32A.170, 13.34.020, 13.34.030, 13.34.120, 13.34.180, 13.34.190, 26.44.010, 26.44.020, 26.44.030, 26.44.053, 26.44.070, 74.15.030, and 74.15.060; and reenacting and amending RCW 13.34.060."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 16, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5441 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds and declares that:

(1) The number of unemployment compensation claimants in the state who have exhausted their benefits has more than doubled in the past seven years;

(2) Many of the unemployed have emotional, medical, and financial problems as a direct result of their unemployment;

(3) Many communities in this state have inadequate and poorly coordinated resources and programs to assist the unemployed in coping with their problems that are associated with unemployment; and

(4) The lack of coordinated and effective services for the unemployed seriously hampers their ability to conduct an effective work search and may have the effect of prolonging their unemployment.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. It is the intent of the legislature to assist in the creation of pilot local reemployment centers which would increase the capacity of local communities to aid their unemployed. The pilot centers are intended to supplement but not supplant the efforts of the local job service centers of the employment security department. The legislature intends that the reemployment centers established by this chapter shall give first priority to those unemployed persons who have been unemployed a minimum of fifteen weeks.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The department of community development shall issue requests for proposals to nonprofit agencies or to local government agencies to serve as the local reemployment centers under this chapter. The requests for proposals shall authorize the selected agencies to receive funds pursuant to this chapter for a two-year period.

(2) The department shall issue requests for proposals for three centers. One center shall be located in Eastern Washington, one center shall be located in King county, and one center shall be located in Western Washington outside King county.

(3) The department shall establish standards to govern the selection of the reemployment centers. At a minimum, each local reemployment center shall raise matching funds in an amount equal to the state grant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The local reemployment centers shall provide direct or referral services to the unemployed. Referral services shall be provided where appropriate programs are reasonably available to the unemployed to avoid duplication of these services by the centers. The referrals shall be made to agencies which provide any of the following services:

- (1) Reemployment assistance;
- (2) Medical services;
- (3) Social services including marital counseling;
- (4) Psychotherapy;
- (5) Mortgage foreclosure and utilities problems counseling;
- (6) Drug and alcohol abuse services;
- (7) Credit counseling; and
- (8) Other services as deemed appropriate.

The local reemployment centers shall demonstrate the utilization of the services of volunteers to maximize the effectiveness of the centers' programs, and outreach efforts to encourage the unemployed to seek assistance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The employment security department and the department of social and health services shall each locate one or more workers on a full or part-time basis at each local reemployment center in an effort to increase the effectiveness of the local reemployment centers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The department of community development shall require each local center which receives funds under this chapter to submit semiannual reports to the department which document the effectiveness of the center's activities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The referrals and services provided by the centers shall be confidential. Reporting and recordkeeping necessary to file the required reports with the department of community development shall be conducted in a manner which will maintain the confidentiality of the client-provider relationship.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Each local reemployment center designated by the department pursuant to this chapter shall receive ninety thousand dollars per year for a two-year period.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) In one or more of the local reemployment centers established under section 3 of this act, the employment security department shall implement a reemployment bonus demonstration project to provide reemployment incentives for qualified unemployment compensation claimants if federal or private funding is available. The reemployment bonus demonstration project shall provide for the payment of lump sum amounts to qualified unemployment compensation claimants who return to work within the time limits established by the department and who retain employment for a four-month period. For the purposes of this subsection, a qualified unemployment compensation claimant is one who accepts the employment security department's invitation to participate in the reemployment bonus demonstration project and who subsequently fulfills the enrollment requirements established by the department for participation in the project.

(2) The employment security department shall submit a report to the governor and to the commerce and labor committees of the house of representatives and the senate prior to the start of the 1989 legislative session, assessing the effectiveness of the reemployment bonus demonstration project.

(3) The reemployment bonus demonstration project shall cease to exist on June 30, 1989, unless extended by law for an additional fixed period of time.

Sec. 10. Section 31, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 7, chapter 276, Laws of 1986 and by section 25, chapter 299, Laws of 1986 and RCW 42.17.310 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) The following are exempt from public inspection and copying:

(a) Personal information in any files maintained for students in public schools, patients or clients of public institutions or public health agencies, welfare recipients, prisoners, probationers, or parolees.

(b) Personal information in files maintained for employees, appointees, or elected officials of any public agency to the extent that disclosure would violate their right to privacy.

(c) Information required of any taxpayer in connection with the assessment or collection of any tax if the disclosure of the information to other persons would (i) be prohibited to such persons by RCW 82.32.330 or (ii) violate the taxpayer's right to privacy or result in unfair competitive disadvantage to the taxpayer.

(d) Specific intelligence information and specific investigative records compiled by investigative, law enforcement, and penology agencies, and state agencies vested with the responsibility to discipline members of any profession, the nondisclosure of which is essential to effective law enforcement or for the protection of any person's right to privacy.

(e) Information revealing the identity of persons who file complaints with investigative, law enforcement, or penology agencies, other than the public disclosure commission, if disclosure would endanger any person's life, physical safety, or property: PROVIDED, That if at the time the complaint is filed the complainant indicates a desire for disclosure or nondisclosure, such desire shall govern: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That all complaints filed with the public disclosure commission about any elected official or candidate for public office must be made in writing and signed by the complainant under oath.

(f) Test questions, scoring keys, and other examination data used to administer a license, employment, or academic examination.

(g) Except as provided by chapter 8.26 RCW, the contents of real estate appraisals, made for or by any agency relative to the acquisition or sale of property, until the project or prospective sale is abandoned or until such time as all of the property has been acquired or the property to which the sale appraisal relates is sold, but in no event shall disclosure be denied for more than three years after the appraisal.

(h) Valuable formulae, designs, drawings, and research data obtained by any agency within five years of the request for disclosure when disclosure would produce private gain and public loss.

(i) Preliminary drafts, notes, recommendations, and intra-agency memorandums in which opinions are expressed or policies formulated or recommended except that a specific record shall not be exempt when publicly cited by an agency in connection with any agency action.

(j) Records which are relevant to a controversy to which an agency is a party but which records would not be available to another party under the rules of pretrial discovery for causes pending in the superior courts.

(k) Records, maps, or other information identifying the location of archaeological sites in order to avoid the looting or deprecation of such sites.

(l) Any library record, the primary purpose of which is to maintain control of library materials, or to gain access to information, which discloses or could be used to disclose the identity of a library user.

(m) Financial information supplied by or on behalf of a person, firm, or corporation for the purpose of qualifying to submit a bid or proposal for (a) a ferry system construction or repair contract as required by RCW 47.60.680 through 47.60.750 or (b) highway construction or improvement as required by RCW 47.28.070.

(n) Railroad company contracts filed with the utilities and transportation commission under RCW 81.34.070, except that the summaries of the contracts are open to public inspection and copying as otherwise provided by this chapter.

(o) Financial and commercial information and records supplied by private persons pertaining to export services provided pursuant to chapter 53.31 RCW.

(p) Financial disclosures filed by private vocational schools under chapter 28C.10 RCW.

(q) Records of local reemployment centers established under chapter 50.-- RCW (sections 1 through 9 of this 1987 act) if such records identify individual clients.

(2) Except for information described in subsection (1)(c)(i) of this section and confidential income data exempted from public inspection pursuant to RCW 84.40.020, the exemptions of this section are inapplicable to the extent that information, the disclosure of which would violate personal privacy or vital governmental interests, can be deleted from the specific records sought. No exemption may be construed to permit the nondisclosure of statistical information not descriptive of any readily identifiable person or persons.

(3) Inspection or copying of any specific records exempt under the provisions of this section may be permitted if the superior court in the county in which the record is maintained finds, after a hearing with notice thereof to every person in interest and the agency, that the exemption of such records is clearly unnecessary to protect any individual's right of privacy or any vital governmental function.

(4) Agency responses refusing, in whole or in part, inspection of any public record shall include a statement of the specific exemption authorizing the withholding of the record (or part) and a brief explanation of how the exemption applies to the record withheld.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The department of community development shall submit a report to the governor and to the commerce and labor committees of the house of representatives and the senate prior to the start of the 1989 legislative session. The report shall assess the effectiveness of the centers and their service delivery approaches.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Sections 1 through 9 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 50 RCW."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "centers;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "reenacting and amending RCW 42.17.310; adding a new chapter to Title 50 RCW; and creating a new section.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5441 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 16, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5453 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 158, Laws of 1984 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

It is the intent of the legislature to provide for ~~((a demonstration of the possible cost-effectiveness of))~~ both in-home and out-of-home respite care services which are provided by a range of service providers. The respite care services shall:

- (1) Provide relief and support to family or other unpaid caregivers of disabled adults;
- (2) Encourage individuals to provide care for disabled adults at home, and thus offer a viable alternative to institutionalization;
- (3) Ensure that respite care is made generally available on a sliding-fee basis to eligible participants ~~((and caregivers))~~ in the program according to priorities established by the department; ((and))
- (4) Be provided in the least restrictive setting available consistent with the individually assessed needs of the functionally disabled adult; and
- (5) Include services appropriate to the needs of persons caring for individuals with dementing illnesses.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 158, Laws of 1984 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout ~~((sections 1 through 7 of))~~ this ~~((act))~~ chapter.

(1) "Respite care services" means relief care for families or other caregivers of disabled adults, ~~((not exceeding five hundred seventy-six hours in not more than twenty-four days in any twelve-month period for each household))~~ eligibility for which shall be determined by the department by rule. The services provide temporary care or supervision of disabled adults in substitution for the caregiver. The term includes social day care.

(2) "Eligible participant" means an adult (a) who needs substantially continuous care or supervision by reason of his or her functional disability, and (b) who is assessed as requiring institutionalization in the absence of a caregiver assisted by home and community support services, including respite care.

(3) "Caregiver" means a spouse, relative, or friend who has primary responsibility for the care of a functionally disabled adult, who does not receive financial compensation for the care, and who is assessed as being at risk of placing the eligible participant in a long-term care facility if respite care is not available.

(4) "Institutionalization" means placement in a long-term care facility.

(5) "Social day care" means nonmedical services to persons who live with their families, cannot be left unsupervised, and are at risk of being placed in a twenty-four-hour care facility if their families do not receive some relief from constant care.

(6) "Department" means the department of social and health services.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 158, Laws of 1984 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

The department shall administer ~~((sections 1 through 8 of))~~ this ~~((act))~~ chapter and shall establish such rules and standards as the department deems necessary in carrying out ~~((sections 1 through 8 of))~~ this ~~((act))~~ chapter. The department shall not require the development of plans of care or discharge plans by nursing homes providing respite care service under this chapter.

The department shall develop ~~((program))~~ standards for the ~~((demonstration projects))~~ respite program in conjunction with the selected area agencies on aging. The program standards shall serve as the basis for soliciting bids, entering into subcontracts, and developing sliding fee scales to be used in determining the ability of eligible participants ~~((and caregivers))~~ to participate in paying for respite care.

Sec. 4. Section 5, chapter 158, Laws of 1984 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

The department shall ~~((select at least two but not more than three area agencies on aging to conduct one-year respite care demonstration projects ending June 30, 1985. One of the selected area agencies on aging shall be east of the crest of the Cascade range and one shall be west of the crest of the Cascade range))~~ select area agencies on aging to conduct respite care projects until July 1, 1989. The responsibilities of the selected area agencies on aging ((will be responsible for)) shall include but not be limited to: Negotiating rates of payment ((and developing)), administering sliding-fee scales to enable eligible participants ((and caregivers)) to participate in paying for respite care, and arranging for respite care services. Rates of payment to respite care service providers shall not exceed, and may be less than, rates paid by the department to ~~((the same))~~ providers for ~~((other than respite care))~~ the same level of service.

Sec. 5. Section 7, chapter 158, Laws of 1984 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

(1) The area agencies administering respite care ~~((demonstration projects))~~ programs shall:(

(a)) maintain data which indicates demand for respite care, and which includes information on in-home and out-of-home day care and in-home and out-of-home overnight care demand (and

(b) Make a comparison of the relative cost-effectiveness of the several types of respite care with all other programs and services which are intended to forestall institutionalization).

(2) ~~((The department shall conduct a survey of all public assistance patients accepted by long-term care facilities in each participating planning and service area to determine the extent to which each of them availed themselves of services designed to deter institutionalization.~~

(3)) The department shall provide a progress report to the legislature on the respite care ((demonstration projects)) programs authorized in this ((act, not later than January 1, 1985)) chapter. The ((department)) report shall ((report the results of the data collection, cost comparison, and survey as required in this section)) be provided to the legislature not later than thirty days prior to the ((1986)) 1989 legislative session.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Nothing in this chapter creates or provides any individual with an entitlement to services or benefits. It is the intent of the legislature that services under this chapter shall be made available only to the extent of the availability and level of appropriation made by the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 1 through 6 of this act, and sections 1, 6, and 8, chapter 158, Laws of 1984, shall constitute a new chapter in Title 74 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "services;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 2, chapter 158, Laws of 1984 (uncodified); amending section 3, chapter 158, Laws of 1984 (uncodified); amending section 4, chapter 158, Laws of 1984 (uncodified); amending section 5, chapter 158, Laws of 1984 (uncodified); amending section 7, chapter 158, Laws of 1984 (uncodified); creating a new chapter in Title 74 RCW; and declaring an emergency."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5453 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 13, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5463 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the economy of the state of Washington more than that of any other state in the union is dependent on foreign trade, particularly with Pacific Rim countries. If Washington's status as a leading state in international trade is to be maintained and strengthened, students of this state need to be better prepared. The legislature also finds that parents and our public education system can work cooperatively to prepare children as they begin to face complex questions of world order and stability. It is, therefore, the intent of the legislature to provide students with enhanced opportunities to increase their awareness of and understanding about other nations and the relationships of those countries with Washington state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) The superintendent of public instruction shall establish an advisory committee to advise the superintendent on international education issues as such issues relate to the development of model curriculum or curriculum guidelines for grades kindergarten through twelve. The advisory committee shall be of such size as determined by the superintendent of public instruction. The superintendent of public instruction is encouraged to include parents; teachers; administrators; multicultural curriculum specialists; representatives of private enterprise; representatives of foreign trade or policy organizations, representatives of local and state ethnic minority groups, associations, or agencies; and representatives of cultural associations.

(2) The superintendent of public instruction shall establish a working committee to develop international education model curriculum or curriculum guidelines. The working committee shall follow the same procedures as those established by the superintendent of public instruction for the implementation of RCW 28A.03.425. Upon completion, the model curriculum or curriculum guidelines shall be made available for consideration and use by school districts.

(3) In cooperation with the advisory committee, the superintendent of public instruction shall conduct a study of the feasibility of establishing an international education curriculum resource center and submit a report to the legislature including findings and recommendations by January 1, 1988.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) Amounts appropriated by the legislature to implement this chapter shall be used solely for grants to selected school districts for purposes of developing and implementing international education programs. State-level administration and development of such programs shall be conducted using existing staff and resources of the office of the superintendent of public instruction. The grants shall be in such amounts as determined by the superintendent of public instruction. The sum of all grants awarded shall not exceed the amount appropriated by the legislature for such purposes.

(2) The grant program shall center on the use of the international education model curriculum or curriculum guidelines developed in section 2 of this act. Districts may use the international education model curriculum or curriculum guidelines developed under section 2 of this act as a guideline for creating their own model curriculum for participation in the grant program.

(3) School districts may apply singularly or a group of school districts may apply together to participate in the program.

(4) School districts applying for the international education grant program shall submit a plan which includes:

(a) Participation by the school district in both the model curriculum or curriculum guidelines development activities and the grant program activities provided for by this chapter;

(b) The application or intent to conduct a foreign language program including either Japanese or Mandarin Chinese beginning in the ninth grade;

(c) A staff in-service training program addressing the implementation of international education curriculum;

(d) A goal to enlist participation where possible by private enterprise, cultural and ethnic associations, foreign trade or policy organizations, the local community, exchange students and students who have participated in exchange programs, and parents;

(e) Evaluation of the pilot program.

(5) To the extent possible, selected school districts shall represent the various geographical locations, school or school district sizes, and grade levels in the state.

(6) By January 1, 1988, the superintendent of public instruction shall select five school district grantees for the program. The program shall be implemented beginning with the 1988-89 school year.

(7) The program in international education shall be considered a social studies offering for the purpose of RCW 28A.05.060(1).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules under chapter 34.04 RCW to carry out the purposes of sections 1 through 3 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The superintendent of public instruction shall submit a report to the legislature, including its findings and specific recommendations evaluating the progress of the grant program, by January 1, 1991.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 1 through 5 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 28A RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "opportunities;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and adding a new chapter to Title 28A RCW."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

On motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5463 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 16, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5549 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 20, chapter 138, Laws of 1981 and RCW 10.95.200 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the day appointed for the execution of a defendant shall have passed, from any cause whatever, without the execution of such defendant having occurred, ~~((the defendant shall be returned to the trial court from which the death warrant was issued and))~~ the trial court which issued the original death warrant shall issue a new death warrant in accordance with RCW 10.95.160. ~~The defendant's presence before the court is not required. If the defendant is indigent and desires counsel, an attorney shall be appointed by the trial court. Reasonable fees for such court-appointed counsel shall be determined by the supreme court and paid by the state.~~" and the same are herewith transmitted.

On page 1, beginning on line 1 of the title, after "dates;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and amending RCW 10.95.200."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5549 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 16, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5814 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 25, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 4, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.27.090 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall not apply to:

(1) An authorized representative of the United States government, the state of Washington, or any incorporated city, town, county, township, irrigation district, reclamation district, or other municipal or political corporation or subdivision of this state;

(2) Officers of a court when they are acting within the scope of their office;

(3) Public utilities operating under the regulations of the utilities and transportation commission in construction, maintenance, or development work incidental to their own business;

(4) Any construction, repair, or operation incidental to the discovering or producing of petroleum or gas, or the drilling, testing, abandoning, or other operation of any petroleum or gas well or any surface or underground mine or mineral deposit when performed by an owner or lessee;

(5) The sale or installation of any finished products, materials, or articles of merchandise which are not actually fabricated into and do not become a permanent fixed part of a structure;

(6) Any construction, alteration, improvement, or repair of personal property, except this chapter shall apply to all mobile/manufactured housing. A mobile/manufactured home may be installed, set up, or repaired by the registered or legal owner, by a contractor licensed under this chapter, or by a mobile/manufactured home retail dealer or manufacturer licensed under chapter 46.70 RCW who shall warranty service and repairs under chapter 46.70 RCW;

(7) Any construction, alteration, improvement, or repair carried on within the limits and boundaries of any site or reservation under the legal jurisdiction of the federal government;

(8) Any person who only furnished materials, supplies, or equipment without fabricating them into, or consuming them in the performance of, the work of the contractor;

(9) Any work or operation on one undertaking or project by one or more contracts, the aggregate contract price of which for labor and materials and all other items is less than five hundred dollars, such work or operations being considered as of a casual, minor, or inconsequential nature. The exemption prescribed in this subsection does not apply in any instance wherein the work or construction is only a part of a larger or major operation, whether undertaken by the same or a different contractor, or in which a division of the operation is made into contracts of amounts less than five hundred dollars for the purpose of evasion of this chapter or otherwise. The exemption prescribed in this subsection does not apply to a person who advertises or puts out any sign or card or other device which might indicate to the public that he is a contractor, or that he is qualified to engage in the business of contractor;

(10) Any construction or operation incidental to the construction and repair of irrigation and drainage ditches of regularly constituted irrigation districts or reclamation districts; or to farming, dairying, agriculture, viticulture, horticulture, or stock or poultry raising; or to clearing or other work upon land in rural districts for fire prevention purposes; except when any of the above work is performed by a registered contractor;

(11) An owner who contracts for a project with a registered contractor;

(12) Any person working on his own property, whether occupied by him or not, and any person working on his residence, whether owned by him or not but this exemption shall not apply to any person otherwise covered by this chapter who constructs an improvement on his own property with the intention and for the purpose of selling the improved property;

(13) Owners of commercial properties who use their own employees to do maintenance, repair, and alteration work in or upon their own properties;

(14) A licensed architect or civil or professional engineer acting solely in his professional capacity, an electrician licensed under the laws of the state of Washington, or a plumber licensed under the laws of the state of Washington or licensed by a political subdivision of the state of Washington while operating within the boundaries of such political subdivision. The exemption provided in this subsection is applicable only when the licensee is operating within the scope of his license;

(15) Any person who engages in the activities herein regulated as an employee of a registered contractor with wages as his sole compensation or as an employee with wages as his sole compensation;

(16) Contractors on highway projects who have been prequalified as required by chapter 13 of the Laws of 1961, RCW 47.28.070, with the department of transportation to perform highway construction, reconstruction, or maintenance work.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. The legislature finds that setting up and siting mobile/manufactured homes must be done properly for the health, safety, and enjoyment of the occupants. Therefore, when any of the following cause a health and safety risk to the occupants of a mobile/manufactured home, or severely hinder the use and enjoyment of the mobile/manufactured home, a violation of RCW 19.86.020 shall have occurred:

(1) The mobile/manufactured home has been improperly installed by a contractor licensed under chapter 18.27 RCW, or a mobile/manufactured dealer or manufacturer licensed under chapter 46.70 RCW;

(2) A warranty given under chapter 18.27 RCW or chapter 46.70 RCW has not been fulfilled by the person or business giving the warranty; and

(3) A bonding company that issues a bond under chapter 18.27 RCW or chapter 46.70 RCW does not reasonably and professionally investigate and resolve claims made by injured parties.

(1) An "established place of business" requires a permanent, enclosed commercial building located within the state of Washington easily accessible at all reasonable times. An established place of business shall have an improved display area of not less than three thousand square feet in or immediately adjoining the building, or a display area large enough to display six or more vehicles of the type the dealer is licensed to sell, whichever area is larger. The business of a vehicle dealer, including the display and repair of vehicles, may be lawfully carried on at an established place of business in accordance with the terms of all applicable building code, zoning, and other land-use regulatory ordinances. The dealer shall keep the building open to the public so that they may contact the vehicle dealer or the dealer's salespersons at all reasonable times. The books, records, and files necessary to conduct the business shall be kept and maintained at that place. The established place of business shall display an exterior sign with the business name and nature of the business, such as auto sales, permanently affixed to the land or building, with letters clearly visible to the major avenue of traffic. In no event may a room or rooms in a hotel, rooming house, or apartment house building or part of a single or multiple-unit dwelling house be considered an "established place of business" unless the ground floor of such a dwelling is devoted principally to and occupied for commercial purposes and the dealer offices are located on the ground floor. A mobile office or mobile home may be used as an office if it is connected to utilities and is set up in accordance with state law.

(2) If a dealer maintains a place of business at more than one location or under more than one name in this state, he or she shall designate one location as the principal place of business of the firm, one name as the principal name of the firm, and all other locations or names as subagencies. A subagency license is required for each and every subagency; PROVIDED, That the department may grant an exception to the subagency requirement in the specific instance where a licensed new motor vehicle dealer is unable to locate their used vehicle sales facilities adjacent to or at the established place of business. This exception shall be granted and defined under the promulgation of rules consistent with the administrative procedure act.

(3) All vehicle dealers shall maintain ownership or leasehold throughout the license year of the real property from which they do business. The dealer shall provide the department with evidence of ownership or leasehold whenever the ownership changes or the lease is terminated.

(4) A subagency shall comply with all requirements of an established place of business.

(5) A temporary subagency shall meet all local zoning and building codes for the type of merchandising being conducted. The dealer license certificate shall be posted at the location. No other requirements of an established place of business apply to a temporary subagency.

(6) A wholesale vehicle dealer shall have office facilities in a commercial building within this state, and all storage facilities for inventory shall be listed with the department, and shall meet local zoning and land use ordinances. A wholesale vehicle dealer shall maintain a telecommunications system. An exterior sign visible from the nearest street shall identify the business name and the nature of business. A wholesale dealer need not maintain a display area as required in this section. When two or more vehicle dealer businesses share a location, all records, office facilities, and inventory, if any, must be physically segregated and clearly identified.

(7) A retail vehicle dealer shall be open during normal business hours, maintain office and display facilities in a commercially zoned location or in a location complying with all applicable building and land use ordinances, and maintain a business telephone listing in the local directory. When two or more vehicle dealer businesses share a location, all records, office facilities, and inventory shall be physically segregated and clearly identified.

(8) A listing dealer need not have a display area if the dealer does not physically maintain any vehicles for display.

(9) A subagency license is not required for a mobile home dealer to display an on-site display model, a consigned mobile home not relocated from its site, or a repossessed mobile home if sales are handled from a principal place of business or subagency. A mobile home dealer shall identify on-site display models, repossessed mobile homes, and those consigned at their sites with a sign that includes the dealer's name and telephone number.

(10) Every vehicle dealer shall advise the department of the location of each and every place of business of the firm and the name or names under which the firm is doing business at such location or locations. If any name or location is changed, the dealer shall notify the department of such change within ten days. The license issued by the department shall reflect the name and location of the firm and shall be posted in a conspicuous place at that location by the dealer.

(11) A vehicle dealer's license shall upon the death or incapacity of an individual vehicle dealer authorize the personal representative of such dealer, subject to payment of license fees, to continue the business for a period of six months from the date of the death or incapacity.

(12) A dealer who is a mobile home park owner may display and sell mobile homes at the mobile home park without an additional display area. The sale of mobile homes by a dealer at the mobile home park shall not be a violation of local zoning ordinances that prohibit commercial activity in the zone the mobile home park is located if the sale relates to the mobile home park. In this subsection, a mobile home sale relates to a mobile home park if: (a) it is a home presently located in the park owned by the dealer where (i) it is being sold to a new tenant, or (ii) it is a home that has been in the park for at least one year and is being moved to make room for another mobile home; or (b) it is a home presently not located in the park but is being sold to a tenant who will move the home into the park. This subsection does not change or limit any other requirements of this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "homes;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 18.27.090 and 46.70.023; creating a new section; and declaring an emergency."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5825 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 13, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5838 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that there exist in connection with a substantial number of contracts for health studio services certain practices and business methods which have worked undue financial hardship upon some of the citizens of the state and that existing legal remedies are inadequate to correct existing problems in the industry. The legislature declares that it is a matter of public interest that the citizens of our state be assured reasonable protection when contracting for health studio services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter:

- (1) "Business day" means any day except a Sunday or a legal holiday.
- (2) "Buyer" or "member" means a person who purchases health studio services.
- (3) "Health studio" includes any person or entity engaged in the sale of instruction, training, assistance or use of facilities which purport to assist patrons to improve their physical condition or appearance through physical exercise, body building, weight loss, figure development, or any other similar activity. For the purposes of this chapter, "health studio" does not include: (a) Public common schools, private schools approved under RCW 28A.02.201, and public or private institutions of higher education; (b) persons providing professional services within the scope of a person's license under Title 18 RCW; (c) bona fide nonprofit organizations which have been granted tax-exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service, the functions of which as health studios are only incidental to their overall functions and purposes; (d) a person or entity which offers physical exercise, body building, figure development or similar activities as incidental features of a plan of instruction or assistance relating to diet or control of eating habits; and (e) bona fide nonprofit corporations organized under chapter 24.03 RCW which have members and whose members have meaningful voting rights to elect and remove a board of directors which is responsible for the operation of the health club and corporation.
- (4) "Health studio services" means instruction, services, privileges, or rights offered for sale by a health studio. "Health studio services" do not include: (a) instruction or assistance relating to diet or control of eating habits not involving substantial on-site physical exercise, body building, figure development, or any other similar activity; (b) recreational or social programs which either involve no physical exercise or exercise only incidental to the program; or (c) written agreements which entitle a buyer to instruction or the use of existing facilities for a period of ninety days or less.
- (5) "Initiation or membership fee" means a fee paid either in a lump sum or installments on a one-time basis when a person first joins a health studio for the privilege of belonging to the health studio.
- (6) "Special offer or discount" means any offer of health studio services at a reduced price or without charge to a prospective member.
- (7) "Use fees or dues" means fees paid on a regular periodic basis for use of a health studio. This does not preclude prepayment of use fees at the buyer's option.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) Each health studio shall prepare and provide to each prospective buyer a written comprehensive list of all membership plans of health studio services offered for sale by the health studio. The list shall contain a description and the respective price of each membership plan of health studio services offered.

(2) A health studio is prohibited from selling a membership plan of health studio services not included in the list.

(3) A health studio is prohibited from making a special offer or offering a discount unless such special offer or discount is made in writing and available to all prospective members: PROVIDED, That a special offer or discount offered to groups need not be available to all similarly-situated prospective members.

(4) A health studio is prohibited from making any misrepresentation to any prospective buyer or current member regarding qualifications of staff, availability or quality of facilities or services, or results obtained through exercise, body building, figure development, or weight loss programs, or the present or maximum number of customers who may contract to use the facilities or services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A contract for the sale of health studio services shall be in writing. A copy of the contract, as well as the rules of the health studio if not stated in the contract, shall be given to the buyer when the buyer signs the contract.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A contract for health studio services shall include all of the following:

(1) The name and address of the health studio facilities operator;

(2) The date the buyer signed the contract;

(3) A description of the health studio services and general equipment to be provided, or acknowledgement in a conspicuous form that the buyer has received a written description of the health studio services and equipment to be provided. If any of the health studio services or equipment are to be delivered at a planned facility, at a facility under construction, or through substantial improvements to an existing facility, the description shall include a date for completion of the facility, construction, or improvement. Health studio services must begin within twelve months from the date the contract is signed unless the completion of the facility, construction, or improvement is delayed due to war, or fire, flood, or other natural disaster;

(4) A statement of the duration of the contract. No contract for health studio services may require payments or financing by the buyer over a period in excess of thirty-six months from the date of the contract, nor may any contract term be measured by or be for the life of the buyer;

(5) The use fees or dues to be paid by the buyer and if such fees are subject to periodic adjustment. Use fees or dues may not be raised more than once in any calendar year;

(6) A complete statement of the rules of the health studio or an acknowledgement in a conspicuous form that the buyer has received a copy of the rules;

(7) Clauses which notify the buyer of the right to cancel:

(a) If the buyer dies or becomes totally disabled. The contract may require that the disability be confirmed by an examination of a physician agreeable to the buyer and the health studio;

(b) (i) Subject to (b)(ii) of this subsection, if the buyer moves his or her permanent residence to a location more than twenty-five miles from the health studio or an affiliated health studio offering the same or similar services and facilities at no additional expense to the buyer and the buyer cancels after one year from signing the contract if the contract extends for more than one year. The health studio may require reasonable evidence of relocation;

(ii) If at the time of signing the contract requiring payment of an initiation or membership fee the buyer lived more than twenty-five miles from the health studio, the buyer may cancel under (7)(b)(i) of this section only if the buyer moves an additional five miles or more from the health studio.

(c) If a contract extends for more than one year or requires payment of an initiation or membership fee, in which case the buyer may cancel the contract for any reason upon thirty days' written notice to the health studio;

(d) If the health studio facilities are permanently closed and comparable facilities owned and operated by the seller are not made available within a ten-mile radius of the closed facility;

(e) If a facility, construction, or improvement is not completed by the date represented by the contract;

(f) If the contract for health studio services was sold prior to the opening of the facility, the buyer may cancel within the first five business days the facility opens for use of the buyer and the health studio begins to provide the agreed upon health studio services;

(8) Clauses explaining the buyer's right to a refund and relief from future payment obligations after cancellation of the contract;

(9) A provision under a conspicuous caption in capital letters and boldface type stating substantially the following:

*BUYER'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

If you wish to cancel this contract without penalty, you may cancel it by delivering or mailing a written notice to the health studio. The notice must say that you do not wish to be bound by the contract and must be delivered or mailed before midnight of the third business day after you sign this contract. The notice must be mailed to . . . . . (insert name and mailing address of health studio). If you cancel within the three days, the health studio will return to you within thirty days all amounts you have paid.*

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. After receipt of a written notice of cancellation, the health studio shall provide a refund to the buyer within thirty days. The health studio may require the buyer to return any membership card or other materials which evidence membership in the health studio. The buyer is entitled to a refund and relief from future obligations for payments of initiation or membership fees and use fees or dues as follows:

(1) The buyer is entitled to a refund of the unused portion of any prepaid use fees or dues and relief from future obligations to pay use fees or dues concerning use after the date of cancellation.

(2) (a) Subject to (b) of this subsection, if a contract includes a one-time only initiation or membership fee and the buyer cancels pursuant to section 5(7)(a) of this act, the buyer is entitled to a pro rata refund of the fee less a predetermined amount not to exceed one-half of the initial initiation or membership fee if the contract clearly states what percentage of the fee is nonrefundable or refundable.

(b) If a contract includes a one-time only initiation or membership fee and the buyer cancels pursuant to section 5(7)(a) of this act three years or more after the signing of the contract requiring payment of such fee, such fee is nonrefundable.

(3) If a contract includes a one-time only initiation or membership fee and the buyer cancels pursuant to section 5(7) (b) or (c) of this act, the buyer is entitled to a pro rata refund of the fee less a predetermined amount not to exceed one-half of the initial initiation or membership fee unless the contract clearly states that the initiation or membership fee is nonrefundable, and the clause is separately signed by the buyer.

(4) If a contract includes a one-time only initiation or membership fee and the buyer cancels pursuant to section 5(7)(d) of this act, the buyer is entitled to a pro rata refund of the fee.

(5) If a contract includes a one-time only initiation or membership fee and the buyer cancels pursuant to section 5(7) (e) or (f) of this act, the buyer is entitled to a full refund of the fee.

If a buyer is entitled to a pro rata refund under this section, the amount shall be computed by dividing the contract price by the number of weeks in the contract term and multiplying the result by the number of weeks remaining in the contract term.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. (1) All moneys paid to a health studio prior to the opening of the facility shall immediately be deposited in a trust account of a federally insured financial institution located in this state. The trust account shall be designated and maintained for the benefit of health studio members. Moneys maintained in the trust account shall be exempt from execution, attachment, or garnishment. A health studio shall not in any way encumber the corpus of the trust account or commingle any other operating funds with trust account funds. Withdrawals from the trust account shall be made no sooner than thirty days after the opening of the entire facility.

(2) The health studio shall within seven days of the first deposit notify the office of the attorney general in writing, of the name, address, and location of the depository and any subsequent change thereof.

(3) The health studio shall provide the buyer with a written receipt for the money and shall provide written notice of the name, address, and location of the depository and any subsequent change thereof.

(4) The health studio shall maintain a record of each trust account deposit, including the name and address of each member whose funds are being deposited, the amount paid and the date of the deposit. Upon request of the attorney general's office, upon five days' notice, such records shall be produced for inspection.

(5) If prior to the opening of the facility the status of the health studio is transferred to another, any sums in the trust account affected by the transfer shall simultaneously be transferred to an equivalent trust account of the successor, and the successor shall promptly notify the buyer and the office of the attorney general of the transfer and of the name, address, and location of the new depository.

(6) The buyer's claim to any money under this section is prior to that of any creditor of the health studio, including a trustee in bankruptcy or receiver.

(7) After the health studio receives a notice of cancellation of the contract, or if the health studio fails to open a facility at the stated date of completion and if the buyer so requests, then the health studio shall provide a refund within thirty days.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. The requirements of section 7 of this act do not apply to any health studios which, prior to any preopening sales, have provided a bond guaranteeing the completion or opening of any facility for which contracts for health studio services were sold prior to the opening of the facility. The bond shall be drawn upon a surety in the amount of one hundred fifty thousand dollars, running to the state of Washington. An action on the bond may be brought by the office of the attorney general or by any buyer of a contract for health studio services sold prior to the opening of the facility.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. Failure to furnish a bond as required by section 8 of this act or to maintain a trust account as required by section 7 of this act shall constitute a class C felony punishable as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. A health studio shall not request a buyer to waive any provision of this chapter. Any contract for health studio services which does not comply with the provisions of this chapter or in which a buyer waives any provision of this chapter is void and unenforceable as contrary to public policy.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. A violation of this chapter constitutes an unfair or deceptive act or practice and is a per se violation of the consumer protection act, chapter 19.86 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Buyers who prevail in any cause of action under this chapter are entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The provisions of this chapter are cumulative and nonexclusive and do not affect any other remedy available at law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any contracts for health studio services entered into before the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Sections 1 through 14 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 19 RCW."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "studios;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new chapter to Title 19 RCW; and prescribing penalties."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5838 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 16, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5854 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "continuing care retirement community act."

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. The legislature finds that continuing care retirement communities can provide a valued option in meeting long-term residential, social, and health needs for many of Washington's senior citizens. However, consumers in Washington and nationwide have encountered serious, documented problems in dealing with some retirement communities, generally stemming from long-term financial instability of the community, or insufficient disclosure to consumers. Because existing law does not provide for financial oversight or disclosure, the legislature has determined that any entity offering continuing care contracts should be certified and regulated in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

- (1) "Commissioner" means the insurance commissioner.
- (2) "Continuing care contract" means a contract to provide a person, for the duration of such person's life or for a term in excess of one year, shelter along with nursing, medical, health-related, or personal care services, which is conditioned upon the transfer of property, the payment of an entrance fee to the provider of such services, or the payment of periodic charges for the care and service involved. A continuing care contract is not excluded from this definition because the contract is mutually terminable or because shelter and services are not provided at the same location.
- (3) "Department" means the department of social and health services.
- (4) "Member" means an individual who has signed a continuing care contract with a retirement community.
- (5) "Nursing, medical, health-related, or personal care services" includes, but is not limited to, nursing home care, home health services or assistance with activities of daily living.
- (6) "Provider" means a retirement community as defined in subsection (7) of this section.
- (7) "Retirement community" means a person, association, or organization of any kind which provides, or proposes to provide, shelter and services pursuant to a continuing care contract.
- (8) "Shelter" means lodging with or without meals.
- (9) "Waiting list deposit" means a fee, whether refundable or not, which a provider requires of an individual seeking to become a member as a condition of being placed on a waiting list of those seeking a continuing care contract with a provider.
