NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. (1) After December 30, 1988, no person, association, or organization may enter into a continuing care contract as a provider except pursuant to this chapter.

(2) Prior to offering for sale continuing care contracts, a provider must possess a permit to market contracts or a final certificate of authority, which permit or certificate has been issued by the department pursuant to section 10(4) of this act.

(3) Providers offering continuing care contracts must possess a final certificate of authority issued by the department pursuant to section 10(4) of this act prior to starting construction of new facilities or prior to making existing facilities available for occupancy.

(f) Adoption of such rules as are deemed necessary for the administration of this chapter. In developing initial rules, the department shall seek the advice of representatives of both nonprofit and proprietary retirement communities, organizations, and agencies representing aging consumers including current members of retirement communities, the attorney general's consumer and fair business practices staff, and others as deemed appropriate;

(g) Any other powers expressly conferred or reasonably inferred from provisions of this chapter.

(3) Findings of fact in support of the suspension, limitation, or revocation of a permit or certificate under subsection (2)(e) of this section shall be accompanied by a concise and explicit statement of the underlying facts supporting the findings.

(4) If the department finds good cause to believe that the provider has been guilty of a violation for which revocation could be ordered under subsection (2)(e) of this section, the department may first issue a cease and desist order. If the cease and desist order is not or cannot be effective in remedying the violation, the department may, after notice and hearing, order that the certificate of authority be revoked and surrendered. Such a cease and desist order may be appealed to a court of competent jurisdiction.

(5) The department shall comply with the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW in exercising any power authorized by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Rules and regulations that determine the form of continuing care contracts, and such matters of content as are specified in subsection (4) of this section, shall be promulgated by the department.

(2)(a) No provider shall enter into or renew a continuing care contract after December 30, 1988, unless the contract form has been approved by the department.

(b) The forms of all continuing care contracts in effect on December 30, 1988, shall be submitted to the department, but do not require approval by the department for the duration of their effective periods.

(3) All contracts shall be written in plain English.

(4) All contracts entered into or renewed following December 30, 1988, shall contain at least the following provisions:

(d) Specification of the circumstances under which members will be permitted to remain in the retirement community if unable to pay fees, including any use of benevolent funds and any circumstances under which continuation of services would require the member to use public assistance or medicaid funds;

(e) A statement in a prominent location that a continuing care contract may involve significant financial risk;

(f) Identification of the specific living unit initially contracted for, and description of all provisions governing issues of tenancy including transfers among living units, reoccupancy of units after an illness or other absence, and what will happen, in cases of dual tenancy, if one of the two residents dies, withdraws, is dismissed, or needs to be transferred to a health facility;

(g) Description of all procedures by which a member may be evicted or otherwise required to leave a residence unit, or the contract terminated by the provider. Dismissal and contract termination shall be limited to good cause as defined in rule. Eviction or other retaliation against a member due to complaints against the provider shall be contractually prohibited;

(h) A clear statement of all rights of cancellation by the member;

(i) Description of all refund policies, including those pertaining to situations where the member has canceled the contract during the cooling-off period or probationary period, has withdrawn at a later time, has been dismissed, or has died;

(j) A cooling-off period of not under seven days from the date the continuing care contract is signed, during which time the new member may cancel without cause with a full refund, less reasonable costs determined in accordance with rules adopted by the department.

The provider may require by contract a thirty-day written notice from members requesting cancellation during the probationary period. The contract shall state the date by which notice of cancellation must be received. (2) Waiting list deposit contract forms shall be subject to prior approval by the department. NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The provider shall maintain at the retirement community for inspection by any person, and shall distribute to a prospective member prior to entering into a continuing care or waiting list contract, a document approved by the department pursuant to section 10(4) of this act that discloses the following:

(9) A description of health and financial conditions required to be accepted as a member and to continue membership, including provisions for any changes in these conditions between the date the continuing care contract is executed and the date the member occupies a living unit. (19) Any other information necessary to understand the nature of the agreement and the risks involved in membership.

(20) A list of the regulatory agencies with responsibility over various aspects of retirement community operation, and their areas of responsibility.

(21) A statement on the cover page of the disclosure statement in a prominent location and type face that certification of the retirement community does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement of the retirement community by the department or the commissioner, nor does such certification evidence the accuracy or completeness of the information set forth in the disclosure statement.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. (1) The provider shall annually file with the department, within four months following the end of the provider's fiscal year, unless such time shall be extended by the written consent of the department, an annual disclosure statement which shall contain a statement setting forth, as of the end of such fiscal year, any material changes in the information required by section 8 of this act for initial disclosure.

(2) From the date an annual disclosure statement is filed until the date the next succeeding disclosure form is filed with the department, a copy of the current annual disclosure statement shall be provided to all prospective members prior to the provider accepting part or all of any application or entry fee, or execution of any continuing care contract, whichever first occurs.

(3) In addition to filing the annual disclosure statement, the provider must amend its currently filed disclosure statements at any other time if an amendment is necessary to prevent the initial disclosure statement and annual disclosure statement from containing any material misstatement of fact, or omitting to state a material fact required to be stated therein. The provider may combine the initial and annual disclosure documents into an updated initial disclosure statement subject to approval by the department. Any such amendment or amended disclosure statement must be filed with the department and is subject to all the requirements of this chapter.

(4) Every time a disclosure statement is amended, all members shall be given a summary of the changes and informed of their right to inspect the full document at the retirement community.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. (1) The application for a permit to market contracts shall be filed with the department by the provider on forms prescribed by the department and shall include:

(a) Such actuarial, demographic, financial, and other reasonably related information as the department deems necessary in order to demonstrate the likely financial and actuarial feasibility of the project. Such information shall include:

(i) A feasibility study and financial plan based on marketing analysis, relevant literature, experience of other similar retirement communities, and specific actuarial study which meets requirements to be specified by rule by the department; and

(ii) An actuarial opinion, written and signed by a qualified actuary as defined by the department, which indicates the likely feasibility of the project based on the feasibility study and financial plan referenced in (a)(i) of this subsection and the specimen contract referenced in (c) of this subsection.

(b) An escrow plan which:

(i) Identifies escrow agents;

(ii) Includes a copy of executed escrow agreements;

(iii) States the anticipated application of all escrow funds;

(iv) Safeguards all deposits received from members or prospective members, including initial membership fees;

(v) Identifies conditions under which each escrow shall be released; and

(vi) Complies with all requirements established by rule by the department.

(c) A specimen continuing care contract which meets the requirements of section 6 of this act and is actuarially consistent with the feasibility study referenced in (a)(i) of this subsection.

(d) A specimen waiting list deposit contract which meets the requirements of section 7 of this act.

(e) An initial disclosure statement which meets the requirements of section 8 of this act.

(2) The application for a final certificate of authority shall be filed with the department by the provider on forms prescribed by the department and shall include:

(a) A final feasibility study and financial plan which includes such actuarial, demographic, financial, and other reasonably related information as the department deems necessary in order to reach final approval, based on likely actual membership as indicated by individuals who have paid subscription deposits and/or have signed continuing care contracts.

(b) A final escrow plan and initial disclosure statement with any revisions needed to meet all requirements of subsection (1) (a) and (b) of this section.

(c) The continuing care contract form and waiting list deposit contract form, with any revisions needed to meet all requirements of sections 6 and 7 of this act and, in the case of the continuing care contract, to be actuarially consistent with the final feasibility study referenced in (a) of this subsection.

(3) The department may determine that certain of the requirements of subsections (1)(a) and (2)(a) of this section are inapplicable to specific retirement community projects which have demonstrated that they present minimal actuarial risk. Minimal actuarial risk shall be defined by the department and shall include a project without an initial fee which has minimal future obligations not offset by future revenues.

(4) Upon receipt of a complete application for a permit to market contracts, or a final certificate of authority, in proper form, the department shall, within ten business days, issue a notice of filing to the provider-applicant. Within a period ordinarily not to exceed sixty days of the notice of filing, the department shall enter an order issuing the permit or certificate, or rejecting the application. Grounds for rejection include, but are not limited to, failure to demonstrate financial and actuarial feasibility to the satisfaction of the department or failure to submit the information required by the department under this chapter.

(5) If the department determines that any of the requirements of this act have not been met, the department shall notify the applicant that the application must be corrected in such particulars as designated by the department within a period, not under thirty days, to be established by rule. If the requirements are not met within the time allowed, the department may enter an order rejecting the application which shall include the finding of fact upon which the order is based and which shall not become effective until twenty days after the end of the foregoing thirty-day period.

(6) A retirement community in operation on the effective date of this section must obtain a final certificate of authority, but is exempt from the requirement to obtain a permit to market contracts.

(7) If the department determines that a retirement community in operation on the effective date of this section has financial or actuarial problems which preclude issuance of a final certificate of authority, the department may issue a transitional certificate which specifies a plan of correction and which is good for the period of the remedial actions as specified by the department. The plan of correction shall be developed by the retirement community and requires approval by the department.

(8) If the department determines that the plan of correction has been carried out satisfactorily, the department shall issue a final certificate of authority.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The department shall establish by rule application fees for review of applications under section 10 (1) and (2) of this act, and annual review fees for all retirement communities, not to exceed the reasonable costs of carrying out the department's responsibilities under this chapter. The entire cost of carrying out the department's responsibilities under this chapter shall be covered by these application and review fees. The department may establish by rule different fees for varieties of retirement communities requiring different levels of financial and actuarial oversight.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) Providers shall not commingle donor-restricted funds, including resident benevolent funds and any personal funds held for individual members, with other funds. Donor-restricted funds shall be used only for the purposes specifically stated.

(2) Providers shall at all times secure their future service obligations not offset by future revenues through some combination of:

- (a) Designated reserves;
- (b) Reinsurance, such as stop loss insurance;
- (c) Bonding;
- (d) Escrow accounts;

(e) Contractually mandated purchase by members of group long-term care insurance which has been approved by the commissioner pursuant to section 21 of this act; or

(f) The unencumbered fair market value of the real property on which the retirement community is situated, as determined by the assessor of the county in which such real property is located: PROVIDED, That within ten years of the effective date of this section at least fifty percent of the reserves required by this section are to be in the form of an approved asset as described in (a) through (e) of this subsection.

(3) Providers shall conduct or obtain actuarial review and opinion as necessary pursuant to rules established by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The department shall establish rules to ensure that all refundable waiting list deposits and initial fees, including subscription fees, received by providers are maintained in escrow. These rules shall include conditions for release of escrow funds which distinguish between those funds received prior to completion of construction of facilities, and those funds received after facilities are in operation but prior to the date a member is permitted to occupy a living unit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) Retirement community members have the right to organize a resident council, including the right to collectively represent the concerns of members in dealings with the retirement community administration.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) Retirement communities shall submit copies of all advertising and promotional material to the department. Advance approval of such material by the department is not required. The department shall have the power to order cessation of unfair or deceptive claims.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The legislature declares that the purchase of continuing care contracts and the exercise of rights under such contracts vitally affect the public interest. Any violation of this act is an unfair method of competition and an unfair or deceptive act or practice in the conduct of a trade or commerce, as specifically contemplated by RCW 19.86.020, and is a violation of the consumer protection act, chapter 19.86 RCW. Any person injured as a result of a violation of a provision of this act shall be entitled to maintain an action pursuant to chapter 19.86 RCW against the provider or other person who violated a provision of this act and shall be entitled to all of the rights and remedies afforded by chapter 19.86 RCW. Any successful claimant under this section shall also be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The department shall maintain comparable data on retirement community services, benefits, charges, and financial status for use by consumers. The department may require all providers to submit summary information in a consistent form specified by the department. However, the department may withhold from public inspection information on financial status, or any examination or investigation, for so long as the department deems it advisable to protect the financial stability of the retirement community.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. (1) Nothing contained in this chapter shall alter any other statutory obligation of the department of social and health services, or any rule or regulation promulgated thereunder, including, but not limited to, obligations under the following:

(2) All benefits promised in continuing care contracts must be consistent with state licensing and other regulatory requirements for the facilities and service entities by which these benefits are to be provided.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Criminal penalties:

(1) Any person who, as a provider, wilfully and knowingly violates any provision of this chapter, or any rule or order under this chapter, shall, upon conviction, be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars, or to imprisonment for not more than two years or both, for each violation.

(2) The department may refer such evidence as is available concerning violations of this chapter or of any rule or order hereunder to the attorney general, or the proper county attorney who may, with or without such a reference, institute the appropriate criminal proceedings under this chapter.

(3) Nothing in this chapter limits the power of the state to punish any person for any conduct which constitutes a crime under any other statute.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. (1) Upon request by the department, the commissioner shall provide the department with actuarial and other technical assistance in carrying out the department's responsibilities under this chapter, including, but not limited to, assistance in reviewing submissions by applicants and making recommendations concerning:

(a) Rules necessary to implement this chapter, including rules related to:

(i) Submission of information by providers pursuant to sections 10 (1) and (2), 12 (2) and (3), and 17 of this act; and

(ii) Definition of "minimal actuarial risk" pursuant to section 10(3) of this act;

(b) Whether applications for permits to market contracts, and certificates of authority, submitted under section 10 (1) and (2) of this act, are sufficiently complete and specific to support actuarial analysis, and if not, what deficiencies exist;

(d) The adequacy of reserves and charges, as proposed by a provider, to meet obligations of the retirement community, with respect to the provider's qualifications for a permit to sell continuing care contracts, its qualifications for a certificate of authority, or its continuing operation:

(e) Whether a particular retirement community should undertake a new actuarial financial review pursuant to section 12(3) of this act;

(f) Whether disclosure statements filed by a retirement community pursuant to sections 8 and 9 of this act are consistent with other filings and actuarial findings, with regard to:

(i) Whether there is actuarial need for substantial future price increases;

(ii) Whether professional summaries of actuarial opinions, which have been submitted by the retirement community as part of disclosure statements, are consistent with the full actuarial studies on which they are based; and

(iii) The general nature of future cost-shifting and cross-subsidization among members. Recommendations on this point need not include quantitative analysis of the amounts of such shifts and subsidies;

(g) Whether a specific retirement community presents minimal actuarial risk pursuant to section 10(3) of this act;

(i) Whether assumptions underlying studies and other filings submitted to the department by a retirement community are consistent with generally accepted morbidity and mortality experience of that retirement community's own population or of appropriate comparison populations.

(2) The commissioner shall bill the department no less frequently than annually for the actual costs of providing assistance pursuant to this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. A new chapter is added to Title 48 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Every retirement community shall offer an opportunity to participate in a group long-term care supplementary insurance plan, which has been approved by the commissioner for this purpose, to each member whose continuing care contract has one or more of the following features:

(a) Nursing home care is not a contractual benefit;

(b) Nursing home care is a contractual benefit, but is subject to limitations on duration which are unrelated to medical need;

(c) Nursing home care is a contractual benefit, but the contract specifies a higher fee for members using nursing home care, immediately or after a limited period of coverage at the same fee, than is specified for like members not using nursing home care.

(2) The commissioner shall specify by rule the requirements for group long-term care insurance plans for use as described in subsection (1) of this section. These requirements shall include:

(a) That the plan offer benefits which supplement those of the continuing care contract so that total combined coverage for nursing home care equals or exceeds a level of coverage to be specified by the commissioner in rules. These rules shall include specification of required duration of care, benefit amounts, and any limitations on gate requirements and preexisting condition exclusions which the commissioner deems necessary.

(b) Coordination of benefits to avoid duplication in the group plan of benefits covered by the continuing care contract, by medicare, or by other coverage.

(c) Provisions to ensure that the amount charged to a member for supplemental long-term care insurance shall not exceed the premiums charged by the insurer, as computed at the time the charge to the member is determined.

(3) The commissioner shall have the authority to waive requirements of this section if it is determined that group supplementary long-term care insurance plans meeting the requirements of subsection (2) of this section are not reasonably available for purchase.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. Sections 1 through 20 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. There is appropriated from the general fund to the department of social and health services for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, the sum of ..... dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of this act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5854 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 17, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5941 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the proper handling and disposal of hazardous waste in the state is of paramount importance and necessary to (1) prevent creation of new contaminated hazardous waste sites and to afford the greatest protection to the citizens of the state, and (2) manage wastes in accordance with state priorities established in chapter 70.105 RCW. The legislature further finds that in order to continue receiving federal moneys for cleanup of the state's worst contaminated sites it is in the state's best interest to begin addressing the need for additional capacity for the disposal, treatment, recycling, reduction, and incineration of hazardous wastes in the state. The legislature recognizes that the federal government has given states until October 17, 1989, to develop adequate capacity to handle hazardous waste generated in the state in the next twenty years or risk losing entitlement to federal superfund moneys which would burden the state with enormous cleanup and cleanup administration costs. The legislature further recognizes that additional hazardous wastes will be created in coming years because of an accelerated federal superfund program, a growing state hazardous waste site cleanup effort and recent changes in federal law. In the interest of insuring that federal funds will not be lost and hazardous waste is disposed of in the safest and most environmentally appropriate way, the legislature finds it necessary for the department of ecology to begin addressing the future hazardous waste disposal needs.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. The department of ecology shall identify methods of providing needed hazardous waste capacity. In conducting this task, the agency shall:

(1) Identify the feasibility of disposing of those wastes generated in the state including consideration of types of wastes generated, disposal methods allowed by law, priorities set forth in chapter 70.105 RCW, and the total cost of disposal of Washington wastes;

(2) Identify opportunities to enter into compacts or agreements with other states to handle hazardous waste generated in Washington;

(3) Assess the resources and statutory authority needed to enter into agreements with private contractors to develop hazardous waste management facilities on private and public land;

(4) Identify strategies to expedite permitting of facilities determined to be needed in the state;

(5) Investigate methods used by other states and countries to address hazardous waste disposal issues;

(6) Analyze the feasibility of providing incentives, including financial, for treatment, storage, disposal, recycling, and incineration facility construction; and

(7) Identify other methods to effectively address hazardous waste management capacity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. In identifying ways of providing needed capacity, the department of ecology shall consult with (1) representatives of the waste treatment and disposal industry; (2) representatives from large and small industries that generate toxic metal solutions and residuals, corrosives, inorganic residuals and sludges, cleanup residuals, and other types of waste the agency deems appropriate; and (3) representatives of the environmental community including recycling organizations and public interest groups.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The department of ecology shall base its findings and conclusions on information collected from hazardous waste and moderate-risk waste generators, transporters, and from handlers who reduce, recycle, reuse, store, treat, incinerate, stabilize, and landfill these wastes. The department is hereby authorized to collect this information from such businesses.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The department shall report its conclusions and recommendations to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature by December 15, 1987. The report shall include (1) a recommendation on how the state can best accomplish the requirement to ensure the availability of adequate hazardous waste facilities by October 1989 and (2) a status report of the state and local hazardous waste plans required by chapter 70.105 RCW, including an identification of the assistance the department has provided to local governments in developing these plans.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Nothing in this act shall be construed as interfering with the processing of applications currently underway for siting and constructing of hazardous waste facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 70.105 RCW to read as follows:

The director shall adopt a comprehensive plan for establishing hazardous waste fees. Such plan shall require (1) the department to impose fees, or a method of determining fees, with respect to any notices, reports, permits or applications required to be filed with the department under, or any inspections, reports or studies conducted by the department under, this chapter or rules adopted pursuant to this chapter; (2) all fees charged to be reasonable; and (3) the fees for each type of notice, report, permit, application, inspection, or study to be set at a level or levels which may not generate revenues in excess of the amount of public funds that are used to pay for the particular hazardous waste program to which that type of notice, report, permit, application, inspection or study pertains. The director shall fully implement the plan within ninety days after the effective date of this 1987 act. The director may revise the plan in order to address changed circumstances and shall implement the revised plan as provided therein. All fees collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the hazardous waste control and elimination account. The fees initially established under this 1987 act also shall apply to all permit applications pending before the department at the time the plan is first adopted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 16, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5232 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 3, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 1, chapter 2, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 50.04.020 are each amended to read as follows:

"Base year" with respect to each individual, shall mean either the first four of the last five completed calendar quarters or the last four completed calendar quarters immediately preceding the first day of the individual's benefit year.

For the purposes of establishing a benefit year, the department shall initially use the first four of the last five completed calendar quarters as the base year. If a benefit year is not established using the first four of the last five calendar quarters as the base year, the department shall use the last four completed calendar quarters as the base year.

Computations using the last four completed calendar quarters shall be based on available wage items processed as of the close of business on the day preceding the date of application. Wage items not processed at the time of application shall become available to the claim as they are added to department systems. The department shall not be required to make employer contacts or take other actions that would not be applicable to claims based on the first four of the last five completed calendar quarters.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 1, chapter 33, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 50.04.030 are each amended to read as follows:

"Benefit year" with respect to each individual, means the fifty-two consecutive week period beginning with the first day of the calendar week in which the individual files an application for an initial determination and thereafter the fifty-two consecutive week period beginning with the first day of the calendar week in which the individual next files an application for an initial determination after the expiration of the individual's last preceding benefit year: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the foregoing limitation shall not be deemed to preclude the establishment of a new benefit year under the laws of another state pursuant to any agreement providing for the interstate combining of employment and wages and the interstate payment of benefits nor shall this limitation be deemed to preclude the commissioner from backdating an initial application at the request of the claimant either for the convenience of the department of employment security or for any other reason deemed by the commissioner to be good cause.

An individual's benefit year shall be extended to be fifty-three weeks when at the expiration of fifty-two weeks the establishment of a new benefit year would result in the use of a quarter of wages in the new base year that had been included in the individual's prior base year.

No benefit year will be established unless it is determined that the individual earned wages in "employment" in not less than six hundred eighty hours of the individual's base year: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That a benefit year cannot be established if the base year wages include wages earned prior to the establishment of a prior benefit year unless the individual earned wages in "employment" during the last two quarters of the new base year of not less than six times the weekly benefit amount computed for the individual's new benefit year.

If an individual's prior benefit year was based on the last four completed calendar quarters, a new benefit year shall not be established until the new base year does not include any hours used in the establishment of the prior benefit year.

If the wages of an individual are not based upon a fixed duration of time or if the individual's wages are paid at irregular intervals or in such manner as not to extend regularly over the period of employment, the wages for any week shall be determined in such manner as the commissioner may by regulation prescribe. Such regulation shall, so far as possible, secure results reasonably similar to those which would prevail if the individual were paid his or her wages at regular intervals.

Sec. 3. Section 9, chapter 228, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 65, Laws of 1984 and RCW 50.06.030 are each amended to read as follows:

An application for initial determination made pursuant to this chapter, to be considered timely, must be filed in writing with the employment security department within twenty-six weeks following the week in which the period of temporary total disability commenced. Notice from the department of labor and industries shall satisfy this requirement. The records of the agency supervising the award of compensation shall be conclusive evidence of the fact of temporary disability and the beginning date of such disability. The employment security department shall process and issue an initial determination of entitlement or nonentitlement as the case may be.

For the purpose of this chapter, a special base year is established for an individual consisting of either the first four of the last five completed calendar quarters or the last four completed calendar quarters immediately prior to the first day of the calendar week in which the individual's temporary total disability commenced, and a special individual benefit year is established consisting of the entire period of disability and a fifty-two consecutive week period commencing with the first day of the calendar week immediately following the week or part thereof with respect to which the individual received his final temporary total disability compensation under the applicable industrial insurance or crime victims compensation laws except that no special benefit year shall have a duration in excess of three hundred twelve calendar weeks: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That such special benefit year will not be established unless the criteria contained in RCW 50.04.030 has been met, except that an individual meeting the disability and filing requirements of this chapter and who has an unexpired benefit year established which would overlap the special benefit year provided by this chapter, notwithstanding the provisions in RCW 50.04.030 relating to the establishment of a subsequent benefit year and RCW 50.40.010 relating to waiver of rights, may elect to establish a special benefit year under this chapter: PROVIDED FURTHER, that the unexpired benefit year shall be terminated with the beginning of the special benefit year if the individual elects to establish such special benefit year.

For the purposes of establishing a benefit year, the department shall initially use the first four of the last five completed calendar quarters as the base year. If a benefit year is not established using the first four of the last five calendar quarters as the base year, the department shall use the last four completed calendar quarters as the base year.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "compensation;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and amending RCW 50.04.020, 50.04.030, and 50.06.030."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Smitherman, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5232.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Smitherman, I noticed this bill only got twenty-five votes the last time it was through the Senate. In fact, it passed only by the bare minimum required. Do you feel that the House amendments have allayed some of the concerns that caused this to barely pass the last time it was through here?"

Senator Smitherman: "I really do. When it passed the Senate, it did have a tremendous cost to it, like I said--$800,000 per biennium. That was removed by the House, so that there is virtually no increase in administrative costs and what will happen, instead of it going into effect in such a way that workers can immediately make a draw from the system, there will be some delay now in a worker receiving benefits. I think really the House did a good job in providing for the changes that the Senate objected to when the bill was in its original form and so I again urge your support."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5232 was deferred.

There being no objection, the President advanced the Senate to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING CONFIRMATION OF GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENT

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 17, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5502 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes that a new motor vehicle is a major consumer purchase and that a defective motor vehicle is likely to create hardship for, or may cause injury to, the consumer. The legislature further recognizes that good cooperation and communication between a manufacturer and a new motor vehicle dealer will considerably increase the likelihood that a new motor vehicle will be repaired within a reasonable number of attempts.

It is the intent of the legislature to ensure that the consumer is made aware of his or her rights under this chapter and is not refused information, documents, or service that would otherwise obstruct the exercise of his or her rights.

In enacting these comprehensive measures, it is the intent of the legislature to create the proper blend of private and public remedies necessary to enforce this chapter, such that a manufacturer will be sufficiently induced to take necessary steps to improve quality control at the time of production or provide better warranty service for the new motor vehicles that it sells in this state.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

- (1) "Board" means new motor vehicle arbitration board.
- (2) "Collateral charges" means any sales-related charges including but not limited to sales tax, arbitration service fees, license fees, registration fees, title fees, finance charges, insurance costs, transportation charges, dealer preparation charges, or any other charges for service contracts, undercoating, rustproofing, or factory installed options.
- (3) "Condition" means a general problem that results from a defect or malfunction of one or more parts, or their improper installation by the manufacturer, its agents, or the new motor vehicle dealer.
- (4) "Consumer" means any person who has entered into an agreement or contract for the transfer, lease, or purchase of a new motor vehicle, other than for purposes of resale or sublease, during the duration of the warranty period defined under this section.
- (5) "Court" means the superior court in the county where the consumer resides, except if the consumer does not reside in this state, then the superior court in the county where an arbitration hearing or determination was conducted or made pursuant to this chapter.
- (6) "Incidental costs" means any reasonable expenses incurred by the consumer in connection with the repair of the new motor vehicle, including any towing charges and the costs of obtaining alternative transportation.
- (7) "Manufacturer" means any person engaged in the business of constructing or assembling new motor vehicles or engaged in the business of importing new motor vehicles into the United States for the purpose of selling or distributing new motor vehicles to new motor vehicle dealers.

(8) "New motor vehicle" means any new self-propelled vehicle primarily designed for the transportation of persons or property over the public highways that was leased or purchased in this state and registered in this state, but does not include vehicles purchased or leased by a business as part of a fleet of ten or more vehicles. If the motor vehicle is a motor home, this chapter shall apply to the self-propelled vehicle and chassis, but does not include those portions of the vehicle designated, used, or maintained primarily as a mobile dwelling, office, or commercial space. The term "new motor vehicle" does not include motorcycles or trucks with nineteen thousand pounds or more gross vehicle weight rating. The term "new motor vehicle" includes a demonstrator or lease-purchase vehicle as long as a manufacturer's warranty was issued as a condition of sale.

(9) "New motor vehicle dealer" means a person who holds a dealer agreement with a manufacturer for the sale of new motor vehicles, who is engaged in the business of purchasing, selling, servicing, exchanging, or dealing in new motor vehicles, and who is licensed as a dealer by the state of Washington.

(10) "Nonconformity" means a defect, serious safety defect, or condition that substantially impairs the use, value, or safety of a new motor vehicle, but does not include a defect or condition that is the result of abuse, neglect, or unauthorized modification or alteration of the new motor vehicle.

(11) "Purchase price" means the cash price of the new motor vehicle appearing in the sales agreement or contract, including any allowance for a trade-in vehicle.

(12) "Reasonable offset for use" means an amount directly attributable to use by the consumer before repurchase or replacement by the manufacturer. The reasonable offset for use shall be computed by the number of miles that the vehicle traveled before the manufacturer's acceptance of the vehicle upon repurchase or replacement multiplied by the purchase price, and divided by one hundred thousand.

(13) "Reasonable number of attempts" means the definition provided in section 4 of this act.

(14) "Replacement motor vehicle" means a new motor vehicle that is identical or reasonably equivalent to the motor vehicle to be replaced, as the motor vehicle to be replaced existed at the time of purchase.

(15) "Serious safety defect" means a life-threatening malfunction or nonconformity that impedes the consumer's ability to control or operate the new motor vehicle for ordinary use or reasonable intended purposes or creates a risk of fire or explosion.

(16) "Substantially impair" means to render the new motor vehicle unreliable, or unsafe for ordinary use, or to diminish the resale value of the new motor vehicle below the average resale value for comparable motor vehicles.

(17) "Warranty" means any implied warranty, any written warranty of the manufacturer, or any affirmation of fact or promise made by the manufacturer in connection with the sale of a new motor vehicle that becomes part of the basis of the bargain. The term "warranty" pertains to the obligations of the manufacturer in relation to materials, workmanship, and fitness of a new motor vehicle for ordinary use or reasonably intended purposes throughout the duration of the warranty period as defined under this section.

(18) "Warranty period" means the period ending two years after the date of the original delivery to the consumer of a new motor vehicle, or the first twenty-four thousand miles of operation, whichever occurs first.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. (1) Each new motor vehicle dealer shall provide an owner's manual which shall be published by the manufacturer and include a list of the addresses and phone numbers for its zone or regional offices for this state.

(2) At the time of purchase, the new motor vehicle dealer shall provide the consumer with a written statement that explains the consumer's rights under this chapter. The written statement shall be prepared and supplied by the attorney general and shall contain a toll-free number that the consumer can contact for information regarding the procedures and remedies under this chapter.

(3) For the purposes of this chapter, if a new motor vehicle does not conform to the warranty and the consumer reports the nonconformity during the term of the warranty period or the period of coverage of the applicable manufacturer's written warranty, whichever is less, to the manufacturer, its agent, or the new motor vehicle dealer who sold the new motor vehicle, the manufacturer, its agent, or the new motor vehicle dealer shall make repairs as are necessary to conform the vehicle to the warranty, regardless of whether such repairs are made after the expiration of the warranty period. Any corrections or attempted repairs undertaken by a new motor vehicle dealer under this chapter shall be treated as warranty work and billed by the dealer to the manufacturer in the same manner as other work under the manufacturer's written warranty is billed. For purposes of this subsection, the manufacturer's written warranty shall be at least one year after the date of the original delivery to the consumer of the vehicle or the first twelve thousand miles of operation, whichever occurs first.

(4) Upon request from the consumer, the manufacturer or new motor vehicle dealer shall provide a copy of any report or computer reading compiled by the manufacturer's field or zone representative regarding inspection, diagnosis, or test-drive of the consumer's new motor vehicle, or shall provide a copy of any technical service bulletin issued by the manufacturer regarding the year and model of the consumer's new motor vehicle as it pertains to any material, feature, component, or the performance thereof.

(5) The new motor vehicle dealer shall provide to the consumer each time the consumer's vehicle is returned from being diagnosed or repaired under the warranty, a fully itemized, legible statement or repair order indicating any diagnosis made, and all work performed on the vehicle including but not limited to, a general description of the problem reported by the consumer or an identification of the defect or condition, parts and labor, the date and the odometer reading when the vehicle was submitted for repair, and the date when the vehicle was made available to the consumer.

(6) No manufacturer, its agent, or the new motor vehicle dealer may refuse to diagnose or repair any nonconformity covered by the warranty for the purpose of avoiding liability under this chapter.

(7) For purposes of this chapter, consumers shall have the rights and remedies, including a cause of action, against manufacturers as provided in this chapter.

(8) The warranty period and thirty-day out-of-service period shall be extended by any time that repair services are not available to the consumer as a direct result of a strike, war, invasion, fire, flood, or other natural disaster.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. (1) If the manufacturer, its agent, or the new motor vehicle dealer is unable to conform the new motor vehicle to the warranty by repairing or correcting any nonconformity after a reasonable number of attempts, the manufacturer, within forty calendar days of a consumer's written request shall, at the option of the consumer, replace or repurchase the new motor vehicle.

The replacement motor vehicle shall be identical or reasonably equivalent to the motor vehicle to be replaced. Compensation for a reasonable offset for use shall be paid by the consumer to the manufacturer in the event that the consumer accepts a replacement motor vehicle.

When repurchasing the new motor vehicle, the manufacturer shall refund to the consumer the purchase price, all collateral charges, and incidental costs, less a reasonable offset for use. Refunds shall be made to the consumer and lienholder of record, if any, as his or her interests may appear.

(2) Reasonable number of attempts shall be deemed to have been undertaken by the manufacturer, its agent, or the new motor vehicle dealer to conform the new motor vehicle to the warranty within the warranty period, if: (a) The same serious safety defect has been subject to repair two or more times, at least one of which is during the period of coverage of the applicable manufacturer's written warranty; (b) the same nonconformity has been subject to diagnosis or repair four or more times, at least one of which is during the period of coverage of the applicable manufacturer's written warranty, and the nonconformity continues to exist; or (c) the vehicle is out-of-service by reason of diagnosis or repair of one or more nonconformities for a cumulative total of thirty calendar days, at least fifteen of them during the period of the applicable manufacturer's written warranty. For purposes of this subsection, the manufacturer's written warranty shall be at least one year after the date of the original delivery to the consumer of the vehicle or the first twelve thousand miles of operation, whichever occurs first.

(3) No new motor vehicle dealer may be held liable by the manufacturer for any collateral charges, incidental costs, purchase price refunds, or vehicle replacements. Manufacturers shall not have a cause of action against dealers under this chapter, but may pursue rights and remedies in other proceedings in accordance with the manufacturer-dealer franchise agreement. Consumers shall not have a cause of action against dealers under this chapter, but a violation of any responsibilities imposed upon dealers under this chapter is a per se violation of chapter 19.86 RCW. Consumers may pursue rights and remedies against dealers under any other law, including chapters 46.70 and 46.71 RCW. Manufacturers and consumers may not make dealers parties to arbitration board proceedings under this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. (1) A manufacturer shall be prohibited from reselling any motor vehicle determined or adjudicated as having a serious safety defect unless the serious safety defect has been corrected and the manufacturer warrants upon the resale that the defect has been corrected.

(2) After the replacement or repurchase of a motor vehicle with a nonconformity uncorrected pursuant to this chapter, the manufacturer shall notify the attorney general and the department of licensing, by certified mail, upon receipt of the manufacturer's motor vehicle. If such nonconformity is corrected, the manufacturer shall notify the attorney general and the department of licensing of such correction.

(3) Upon the resale, either at wholesale or retail, or transfer of title of a motor vehicle with an uncorrected nonconformity and which was previously returned after a final determination, adjudication, or settlement under this chapter or under a similar statute of any other state, the manufacturer, its agent, or the new motor vehicle dealer shall execute and deliver to the buyer before sale an instrument in writing setting forth information identifying the nonconformity in a manner to be specified by the attorney general, and the department of licensing shall place on the certificate of title information indicating the vehicle was returned under this chapter.

(4) Upon receipt of the manufacturer's notification under subsection (2) of this section that the nonconformity has been corrected and upon the manufacturer's request and payment of any fees, the department of licensing shall issue a new title with information indicating the vehicle was returned under this chapter and that the nonconformity has been corrected. Upon the resale, either at wholesale or retail, or transfer of title of a motor vehicle for which a new title has been issued under this subsection, the manufacturer shall warrant upon the resale that the nonconformity has been corrected, and the manufacturer, its agent, or the new motor vehicle dealer shall execute and deliver to the buyer before sale an instrument in writing setting forth information identifying the nonconformity and indicating that it has been corrected in a manner to be specified by the attorney general.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Except as provided in section 15 of this act, the attorney general shall contract with one or more private entities to establish new motor vehicle arbitration boards to settle disputes between consumers and manufacturers as provided in this chapter. The entities shall not be affiliated with any manufacturer or new motor vehicle dealer and shall have available the services of persons with automotive technical expertise to assist in resolving disputes under this chapter. Payment to the entities for the arbitration services shall be made from the new motor vehicle arbitration account.

(2) The attorney general shall adopt rules for the uniform conduct of the arbitrations by the boards, which rules shall include but not be limited to the following procedures:

(a) At all arbitration proceedings, the parties are entitled to present oral and written testimony, to present witnesses and evidence relevant to the dispute, to cross-examine witnesses, and to be represented by counsel.

(b) A dealer, or a manufacturer or other party shall produce records and documents requested by a party which the board finds are reasonably related to the dispute. If a dealer, or a manufacturer or other party refuses to comply with the board's determination, a party may request the attorney general to issue a subpoena on behalf of the board. A party may also request the attorney general to issue a subpoena on behalf of the board for the records and documents of other persons.

(c) A party may obtain written affidavits from employees and agents of a dealer, a manufacturer or other party, or from other potential witnesses, and may submit such affidavits for consideration by the board.

(d) Records of the board proceedings shall be open to the public. The hearings shall be open to the public to the extent practicable.

(3) A consumer shall exhaust the new motor vehicle arbitration board remedy or informal dispute resolution settlement procedure under section 14 of this act before filing any superior court action.

(4) The attorney general shall maintain records of each dispute submitted to the new motor vehicle arbitration board, including an index of new motor vehicles by year, make, and model.

(5) The attorney general shall compile aggregate annual statistics for all disputes submitted to, and decided by, the new motor vehicle arbitration board, as well as annual statistics for each manufacturer that include, but shall not be limited to, the number and percent of: (a) Replacement motor vehicle requests; (b) purchase price refund requests; (c) replacement motor vehicles obtained in prehearing settlements; (d) purchase price refunds obtained in prehearing settlements; (e) replacement motor vehicles awarded in arbitration; (f) purchase price refunds awarded in arbitration; (g) board decisions neither complied with during the forty calendar day period nor petitioned for appeal within the thirty calendar day period; (h) board decisions appealed categorized by consumer or manufacturer; (i) the nature of the court decisions and who the prevailing party was; (j) appeals that were held by the court to be brought without good cause; and (k) appeals that were held by the court to be brought solely for the purpose of harassment. The statistical compilations shall be public information.

(6) The attorney general shall submit biennial reports of the information in this section to the senate and house of representatives committees on commerce and labor, with the first report due January 1, 1990.

(7) The attorney general shall adopt rules to implement this chapter. Such rules shall include uniform standards by which the boards shall make determinations under this chapter, including but not limited to rules which provide:

(a) A board shall find that a nonconformity exists if it determines that the consumer's new motor vehicle has a defect, serious safety defect, or condition that substantially impairs the use, value, or safety of the vehicle.

(b) A board shall find that a reasonable number of attempts to repair a nonconformity have been undertaken if: (i) The same serious safety defect has been subject to repair two or more times, at least one of which is during the period of coverage of the applicable manufacturer's written warranty; (ii) the same nonconformity has been subject to diagnosis or repair four or more times, at least one of which is during the period of coverage of the applicable manufacturer's written warranty, and the nonconformity continues to exist; or (iii) the vehicle is out-of-service by reason of diagnosis or repair of one or more nonconformities for a cumulative total of thirty calendar days, at least fifteen of them during the period of the applicable manufacturer's written warranty. For purposes of this subsection, the manufacturer's written warranty shall be at least one year after the date of the original delivery to the consumer of the vehicle or the first twelve thousand miles of operation, whichever occurs first.

(c) A board shall find that a manufacturer has failed to comply with section 4 of this act if it finds that the manufacturer, its agent, or the new motor vehicle dealer has failed to correct a nonconformity after a reasonable number of attempts and the manufacturer has failed, within forty days of the consumer's written request, to repurchase the vehicle or replace the vehicle with a vehicle identical or reasonably equivalent to the vehicle being replaced.

(8) The attorney general shall provide consumers with information regarding the procedures and remedies under this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. (1) A consumer may request arbitration under this chapter by submitting the request to the attorney general. Within ten days after receipt of an arbitration request, the attorney general shall make a reasonable determination of the cause of the request for arbitration and provide necessary information to the consumer regarding the consumer's rights and remedies under this chapter. The attorney general shall assign the dispute to a board, except that if it clearly appears from the materials submitted by the consumer that the dispute is not eligible for arbitration, the attorney general may refuse to assign the dispute and shall explain any required procedures to the consumer.

(2) Manufacturers shall submit to arbitration if such arbitration is requested by the consumer within thirty months from the date of original delivery of the new motor vehicle to the consumer and if the consumer's dispute is deemed eligible for arbitration by the board.

(3) The new motor vehicle arbitration board may reject for arbitration any dispute that it determines to be frivolous, fraudulent, filed in bad faith, res judicata or beyond its authority. Any dispute deemed by the board to be ineligible for arbitration due to insufficient evidence may be reconsidered by the board upon the submission of other information or documents regarding the dispute that would allegedly qualify for relief under this chapter. Following a second review, the board may reject the dispute for arbitration if evidence is still clearly insufficient to qualify the dispute for relief under this chapter. A rejection by the board is subject to review by the attorney general or may be appealed under section 8 of this act.

A decision to reject any dispute for arbitration shall be sent by certified mail to the consumer and the manufacturer, and shall contain a brief explanation as to the reason therefor.

(4) The arbitration board shall award the remedies under section 4 of this act if it finds a nonconformity and that a reasonable number of attempts have been undertaken to correct the nonconformity.

(5) It is an affirmative defense to any claim under this chapter that: (a) The alleged nonconformity does not substantially impair the use, value, or safety of the new motor vehicle; or (b) the alleged nonconformity is the result of abuse, neglect, or unauthorized modifications or alterations of the new motor vehicle.

(6) The board shall have thirty calendar days from the date the board receives the consumer's request for arbitration to hear the dispute. If the board determines that additional information is necessary, the board may continue the arbitration proceeding on a subsequent date within ten calendar days of the initial hearing. The board shall decide the dispute within sixty calendar days from the date the board receives the consumer's request for arbitration.

The decision of the board shall be sent by certified mail to the consumer and the manufacturer, and shall contain a written finding of whether the new motor vehicle meets the standards set forth under this chapter.

(7) The consumer may accept the arbitration board decision or appeal to superior court, pursuant to section 8 of this act. Upon acceptance by the consumer, the arbitration board decision shall become final. The consumer shall send written notification of acceptance to the arbitration board who shall immediately send a copy of the consumer's acceptance to the manufacturer by certified mail, return receipt requested.

(8) Upon receipt of the consumer's acceptance, the manufacturer shall have forty calendar days to comply with the arbitration board decision or thirty calendar days to file a petition of appeal in superior court. At the time the petition of appeal is filed, the manufacturer shall send, by certified mail, a conformed copy of such petition to the attorney general. If the attorney general receives no notice of petition of appeal after forty calendar days, the attorney general shall contact the consumer to verify compliance.

(9) If, at the end of the forty calendar day period, neither compliance with, nor a petition to appeal the board's decision has occurred, the attorney general may impose a fine of one thousand dollars per day until compliance occurs or a maximum penalty of one hundred thousand dollars accrues unless the manufacturer can provide clear and convincing evidence that any delay or failure was beyond its control or was acceptable to the consumer as evidenced by a written statement signed by the consumer. If the manufacturer fails to provide such evidence or fails to pay the fine, the attorney general shall initiate proceedings against the manufacturer for failure to pay any fine that accrues until compliance with the board's decision occurs or the maximum penalty of one hundred thousand dollars results.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. (1) The consumer or the manufacturer may request a trial de novo of the arbitration decision, including a rejection, in superior court.

(2) If the manufacturer appeals, the court may require the manufacturer to post security for the consumer's financial loss due to the passage of time for review.

(3) If the consumer prevails, recovery shall include the monetary value of the award, attorneys' fees and costs incurred in the superior court action, and, if the board awarded the consumer replacement or repurchase of the vehicle and the manufacturer did not comply, continuing damages in the amount of twenty-five dollars per day for all days beyond the forty calendar day period following the manufacturer's receipt of the consumer's acceptance of the board's decision in which the manufacturer did not provide the consumer with the free use of a comparable loaner replacement motor vehicle. If it is determined by the court that the manufacturer acted without good cause in bringing the appeal or brought the appeal solely for the purpose of harassment, the court may triple, but at least shall double, the amount of the total award.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A five-dollar arbitration fee shall be collected by the new motor vehicle dealer from the consumer at completion of sale. The fee shall be forwarded to the department of licensing for deposit in the new motor vehicle arbitration account hereby created in the state treasury. Moneys in the account shall be used for the purposes of this chapter, subject to appropriation.

At the end of each fiscal year, the attorney general shall prepare a report listing the annual revenue generated and the expenses incurred in implementing and operating the arbitration program under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A violation of this chapter shall constitute an unfair or deceptive trade practice affecting the public interest under chapter 19.86 RCW. All public and private remedies provided under that chapter shall be available to enforce this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Any agreement entered into by a consumer for the purchase of a new motor vehicle that waives, limits, or disclaims the rights set forth in sections 2 through 12 of this act shall be void as contrary to public policy. Said rights shall extend to a subsequent transferee of such new motor vehicle.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Nothing in this chapter limits the consumer from pursuing other rights or remedies under any other law.

Sec. 13. Section 5, chapter 240, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.118.050 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be presumed that a reasonable number of attempts have been undertaken to conform a motor vehicle to the applicable express warranties if during the term of such express warranties or during the period of one year following the date of original delivery of the motor vehicle to a buyer: (1) The same nonconformity has been subject to diagnosis or repair four or more times by the manufacturer or its agents; ((or) (2) ((the vehicle is out of service by reason of repair for a cumulative total of more than thirty days since the delivery of the vehicle to the buyer)) a serious safety defect has been subject to repair two or more times, and the defect continues to exist; or (3) the new motor vehicle is out-of-service by reason of diagnosis or repair of one or more nonconformities for a cumulative total of thirty calendar days. The thirty-day period includes each calendar day or portion thereof during which the service shop is open for business, but does not include periods during which repairs cannot be made due to ((conditions beyond the control of the service facility and does not include periods during which the buyer has been provided with a comparable replacement vehicle by the dealer or manufacturer)) reasons specified in section 3(8) of this 1987 act.

This section shall expire December 31, 1988.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) If a manufacturer has established an informal dispute resolution settlement procedure which substantially complies with the applicable provision of Title 15, Code of Federal Regulations Part 703, as from time to time amended, a consumer may choose to first submit a dispute under this chapter to the informal dispute resolution settlement procedure.

(2) After the new motor vehicle arbitration board has been established and is operational and until December 31, 1988, consumers who have a pending case in the informal dispute resolution settlement procedure in this section may choose to transfer the case to be heard before the new motor vehicle arbitration board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. If the attorney general is unable, or will be unable, to contract with private entities to conduct arbitrations under the procedures and standards in this chapter, by January 1, 1988, the attorney general shall establish one or more new motor vehicle arbitration boards. Each such board shall consist of three members appointed by the attorney general, only one of whom may be directly involved in the manufacture, distribution, sale, or service of any motor vehicle. Board members shall be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 and shall be compensated pursuant to RCW 43.03.240.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 82.32 RCW to read as follows:

If a manufacturer makes a refund of sales tax to a consumer upon return of a new motor vehicle under chapter 19.118 RCW, the department shall credit or refund to the manufacturer the amount of the tax refunded, upon receipt of documentation as required by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Sections 2 through 12, 14, and 15 of this act are each added to chapter 19.118 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. By January 1, 1990, the appropriate standing committees of the house of representatives and the senate shall review sections 2 through 12 and 14 through 16 of this act. The committees shall receive input from consumers, manufacturers, dealers, private entities who have established boards, board members, the attorney general, and other interested persons and shall consider, among other issues, the effectiveness of the remedies available to consumers and the role of the attorney general.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Sections 2 through 12 and 14 through 16 of this act shall expire on June 30, 1992, unless extended for an additional fixed period of time. By January 1, 1992, the legislative budget committee shall conduct a review of such provisions under the standards in chapter 43.131 RCW and report to the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. (1) There is appropriated from the new motor vehicle arbitration account to the attorney general for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, the sum of two million dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of this act.

(2) Before January 1, 1988, the attorney general may expend funds appropriated under this section to establish the new motor vehicle arbitration boards.

MOTION

Senator Kreidler moved that the following resolution be adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1987-8646

by Senators Kreidler, Halsan and Rasmussen

WHEREAS, The postmark for the city of Olympia has great historical significance since Olympia is the capital of the state of Washington; and

WHEREAS, The United States postal service is once again considering the possibility of terminating the use of the Olympia postmark; and

WHEREAS, The loss of the Olympia postmark would render Olympia the sole state capital in the United States without its own distinguishing postmark; and

WHEREAS, The preservation of the Olympia postmark in anticipation of our state's Centennial Celebration in 1989 is a fitting acknowledgment of the significance of Olympia, the capital of the state of Washington, to this state and nation; and

WHEREAS, Retaining the Olympia postmark would help achieve the praiseworthy goals of maintaining the identity of the capital of our state, strengthening citizen ties with their local communities, increasing citizen pride in the past and preserving a sense of historical continuity for our children;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate of the state of Washington request the administration to support the interests of the present and future citizens of the state of Washington and preserve the use of the Olympia postmark.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the President of the Senate immediately transmit copies of this resolution to the Honorable Ronald Reagan, President of the United States, the Postmaster General, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and each member of Congress from the state of Washington.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator Kreidler, what would be the post mark for Olympia--Pullman, Seattle, Tacoma? What would be used in place of it?"

Senator Kreidler: "It would be Tacoma. Tacoma has become a large regional center for mail processing. Certainly, it becomes a point with many communities that have lost the ability to have mail postmarked right in their own home community. I think the argument we are making here is certainly one to look at the big picture from the standpoint of what the meaning is for a state capitol and having a postmark from a state capitol, being somewhat different than many other communities and the arguments that they previously had."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of Senate Resolution 1987-8646.

The motion by Senator Kreidler carried and the resolution was adopted.

Senators Kreidler, Rasmussen and Cantu spoke to the resolution.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Stratton, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1987-8660

by Senators Stratton, West, Vogniild, McCaslin, Owen, Barr, Patterson, Saling, Hansen, Newhouse, Benitz, Sellar, Rasmussen and Metcalf

WHEREAS, Since 1895, one hundred and thirty-two federal, state, county, and municipal officers of the peace have offered the ultimate sacrifice by laying down their lives in the course of their duty to protect the citizens of our state; and

WHEREAS, The Law Enforcement Officers Memorial in Spokane will be dedicated on May 16 to honor these brave men and women; and

WHEREAS, A moment of silence dedicated to the memory of these officers will be observed at 11:00 A.M. on the day of dedication; and

WHEREAS, Hundreds of law enforcement officers from around the state will be unable to attend the dedication but will participate by joining in the moment of silence;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the state of Washington, That the Senate joins with the Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Project and officers across the state in honoring these courageous men and women; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Senate encourages the citizens of our state to join in the moment of silence and remember those who have offered their lives for the good of society.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 17, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5483 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 28B.10 RCW to read as follows:

Should any member die, or should the individual separate or be separated from service without leave of absence before attaining age sixty years, or should the individual become a beneficiary, except a beneficiary of an optional retirement allowance as provided by RCW 41.40.185 or 41.40.190, the individual shall thereupon cease to be a member except:

(1) As provided in RCW 41.40.170.

(2) An employee not previously retired who reenters service shall upon completion of six months of continuous service and upon the restoration of all withdrawn contributions with interest as computed by the director, which restoration must be completed within a total period of five years of membership service following the member's first resumption of employment, be returned to the status, either as an original member or new member which the member held at time of separation.

(3) Any member, except an elected official, who reentered service and who failed to restore withdrawn contributions, shall now have from April 4, 1986, through June 30, 1987, to restore the contributions, with interest as determined by the director.

(4) Within the ninety days following the employee's resumption of employment, the employer shall notify the department of the resumption and the department shall then return to the employer a statement of the potential service credit to be restored, the amount of funds required for restoration, and the date when the restoration must be accomplished. The employee shall be given a copy of the statement and shall sign a copy of the statement which signed copy shall be placed in the employee's personnel file.

(5) A member who separates or has separated after having completed at least five years of service shall remain a member during the period of absence from service for the exclusive purpose of receiving a retirement allowance to begin at attainment of age sixty-five, however, such a member may on written notice to the director elect to receive a reduced retirement allowance on or after age sixty which allowance shall be the actuarial equivalent of the sum necessary to pay regular retirement benefits as of age sixty-five: PROVIDED, That if such member should withdraw all or part of the member's accumulated contributions except those additional contributions made pursuant to RCW 41.40.330(2), the individual shall thereupon cease to be a member and this section shall not apply.

(6) (a) The recipient of a retirement allowance who is employed in an eligible position other than under RCW 41.40.120(12) shall be considered to have terminated his or her retirement status and shall immediately become a member of the retirement system with the status of membership the member held as of the date of retirement. Retirement benefits shall be suspended during the period of eligible employment and the individual shall make contributions and receive membership credit. Such a member shall have the right to again retire if eligible in accordance with RCW 41.40.180: PROVIDED, That where any such right to retire is exercised to become effective before the member has rendered two uninterrupted years of service the type of retirement allowance the member had at the time of the member's previous retirement shall be reinstated(~~(-but no additional service credit shall be allowed)~~):

(b) The recipient of a retirement allowance elected to office or appointed to office directly by the governor, and who shall apply for and be accepted in membership as provided in RCW 41.40.120(3) shall be considered to have terminated his or her retirement status and shall become a member of the retirement system with the status of membership the member held as of the date of retirement. Retirement benefits shall be suspended from the date of return to membership until the date when the member again retires and the member shall make contributions and receive membership credit. Such a member shall have the right to again retire if eligible in accordance with RCW 41.40.180: PROVIDED, That where any such right to retire is exercised to become effective before the member has rendered six uninterrupted months of service the type of retirement allowance the member had at the time of the member's previous retirement shall be reinstated, but no additional service credit shall be allowed; AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That if such a recipient of a retirement allowance does not elect to apply for reentry into membership as provided in RCW 41.40.120(3), the member shall be considered to remain in a retirement status and the individual's retirement benefits shall continue without interruption.

(7) Any member who leaves the employment of an employer and enters the employ of a public agency or agencies of the state of Washington, other than those within the jurisdiction of the Washington public employees' retirement system, and who establishes membership in a retirement system or a pension fund operated by such agency or agencies and who shall continue membership therein until attaining age sixty, shall remain a member for the exclusive purpose of receiving a retirement allowance without the limitation found in RCW 41.40.180(1) to begin on attainment of age sixty-five; however, such a member may on written notice to the director elect to receive a reduced retirement allowance on or after age sixty which allowance shall be the actuarial equivalent of the sum necessary to pay regular retirement benefits commencing at age sixty-five; PROVIDED, That if such member should withdraw all or part of the member's accumulated contributions except those additional contributions made pursuant to RCW 41.40.330(2), the individual shall thereupon cease to be a member and this section shall not apply.

(1) Those persons who are dual members on or after July 1, 1988, shall not receive a retirement benefit from any prior system while dual members without the loss of all benefits under this chapter. Retroactive retirement in any prior system will cancel membership in any subsequent systems except as allowed under RCW 41.04.270 and will result in the refund of all employee and employer contributions made to such systems.

(2) If a member has withdrawn contributions from a prior system, the member may restore the contributions, together with interest since the date of withdrawal as determined by the system, and recover the service represented by the contributions. Such restoration must be completed within two years of establishing dual membership or prior to retirement, whichever occurs first.

(3) A member of the retirement system under chapter 41.32 RCW who is serving in office pursuant to Article II or III of the state Constitution may, notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 41.40.120(4), within one year from the effective date of this section make an irrevocable election to become a member of the retirement system under chapter 41.40 RCW. A member who makes this election shall receive service credit under chapter ((41:32) 41.40 RCW for all prior and future periods of employment which are, or otherwise would be, credited under chapter 41.32 RCW. Such a member who established membership under chapter 41.32 RCW prior to June 30, 1977, shall be granted membership under chapter 41.40 RCW as if he or she had been a member of that system prior to June 30, 1977.

All contributions credited to such member under chapter 41.32 RCW for service now to be credited in the retirement system under chapter 41.40 RCW shall be transferred to the system and the member shall not receive any credit nor enjoy any rights under chapter 41.32 RCW for those periods of service.

(4) Any service accrued in one system by the member shall not accrue in any other system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Section 1 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect on July 1, 1987. Section 2 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1988.*

Failure to include this provision does not affect the validity of the dissolution order.

(2) If the dissolution order under which the obligor owes the duty of spousal maintenance or a property division obligation is not in compliance with subsection (1) of this section or if the obligee cannot show that the obligor has approved or received a copy of the court order or decree that complies with subsection (1) of this section, then notice shall be provided to the obligor at least fifteen days before the obligee seeks a mandatory benefits assignment order. The department shall not process the obligor's request for a withdrawal of accumulated contributions sooner than seventy-five days after sending the notice to the obligee.

(3) The department may pay directly to an obligee who has not obtained a mandatory benefits assignment order all or part of the accumulated contributions withdrawn by an obligor if, and only if the dissolution order filed with the department pursuant to subsection (1) of this section includes a provision that states in substantially the following form:

"At such time as ..... (the obligor) requests a withdrawal of accumulated contributions as defined in section 1 of this act, the department of retirement systems shall pay to ..... (the obligee) ..... dollars from such accumulated contributions or ..... percentage of such accumulated contributions (whichever is provided by the court)."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) A petition or motion seeking a mandatory benefits assignment order in an action under section 4 of this act may be filed by an obligee if the obligor is more than fifteen days past due in spousal maintenance or property division obligation payments and the total of such past due payments is equal to or greater than one hundred dollars or if the obligor requests a withdrawal of accumulated contributions from the department of retirement systems. The petition or motion shall include a sworn statement by the obligee, stating the facts authorizing the issuance of the mandatory benefits assignment order, including:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Upon receipt of a petition or motion seeking a mandatory benefits assignment order that complies with section 7 of this act, the court shall issue a mandatory benefits assignment order in as provided in section 10 of this act, including the information required in section 9 (1)(a) or (2)(a) of this act, directed to the department of retirement systems, and commanding the department to answer the order on the forms served with the order that comply with section 12 of this act within twenty days after service of the order upon the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) (a) The mandatory benefits assignment order in section 8 of this act directed at periodic retirement benefits shall include:

(2)(a) A mandatory benefits assignment order in section 8 of this act directed at a withdrawal of accumulated contributions shall include:

(i) The property division interest, if any, of the obligee in the obligor's accumulated contributions, established by the dissolution order, which interest shall be stated as either a dollar amount or a percentage amount in the mandatory benefits assignment order;

(ii) The total amount of the arrearage judgments for spousal maintenance payments or property division payments entered by the court, if any, together with interest, if any; and

(b) With respect to such a mandatory benefits assignment order, the total amount to be withheld from the obligor's withdrawal of accumulated contributions may be up to one hundred percent of the disposable benefits of the obligor.

(3) If an obligor is subject to two or more mandatory benefits assignment orders on account of different obligees and if the nonexempt portion of the obligor's benefits is not sufficient to respond fully to all the mandatory benefits assignment orders, the department shall apportion the obligor's nonexempt disposable benefits among the various obligees in equal shares to the extent permitted by federal law.

(b) The total amount withheld above is subject to the mandatory benefits assignment order, and all other sums may be disbursed to the obligor.

You shall promptly notify the court if and when the obligor is no longer receiving periodic retirement payments from the department of retirement systems.

You shall deliver the withheld benefits to the clerk of the court that issued this mandatory benefits assignment order each month, but the first delivery shall occur no sooner than twenty days after your receipt of this mandatory benefits assignment order.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) The director or the director's designee shall answer an order by sworn affidavit within twenty days after the date of service. The answer shall state whether the obligor receives periodic payments from the department of retirement systems, whether the obligor has requested a withdrawal of accumulated contributions from the department, whether the department will honor the mandatory benefits assignment order and if not, the reasons why, and whether there are other current court or administrative orders on file with the department directing the department to withhold all or a portion of the obligor's benefits.

(2) (a) If any periodic retirement payments are currently payable to the obligor, the funds subject to the mandatory benefits assignment order shall be withheld from the next periodic retirement payment due twenty days or more after receipt of the mandatory benefits assignment order. The withheld amount shall be delivered to the clerk of the court that issued the mandatory benefits assignment order each month, but the first delivery shall occur no sooner than twenty days after receipt of the mandatory benefits assignment order.

(b) The department shall continue to withhold the ordered amount from nonexempt benefits of the obligor until notified by the court that the mandatory benefits assignment order has been modified or terminated. If the department is initially unable to comply, or able to comply only partially, with the withholding obligation, the court's order shall be interpreted to require the department to comply to the greatest extent possible at the earliest possible date. The department shall notify the court of changes in withholding amounts and the reason for the change. When the obligor is no longer eligible to receive funds from one or more public retirement systems the department shall promptly notify the court.

(3)(a) If no periodic retirement payments are currently payable to the obligor but the obligor has requested a withdrawal of accumulated contributions, the funds subject to the mandatory benefits assignment order shall be withheld from the withdrawal payment. The withheld amount shall be delivered to the clerk of the court that issued the mandatory benefits assignment order.

(b) If the department is unable to comply fully with the withholding obligation, the court's order shall be interpreted to require the department to comply to the greatest extent possible.

(4) The department may deduct a processing fee from the remainder of the obligor's funds after withholding under the mandatory benefits assignment order, unless the remainder is exempt under section 9 of this act. The processing fee may not exceed (a) twenty-five dollars for the first disbursement made by the department to the superior court clerk; and (b) six dollars for each subsequent disbursement to the clerk.

(5) A court order for spousal maintenance or a property division obligation governed by sections 1 through 16 or 26 of this act shall have priority over any other assignment or order of execution, garnishment, attachment, levy, or similar legal process authorized under Washington law, except for a mandatory wage assignment for child support under chapter 26.18 RCW, or an order to withhold and deliver under chapter 74.20A RCW.

(6) If the department, without good cause, fails to withhold funds as required by a mandatory benefits assignment order issued under section 8 of this act, the department may be held liable to the obligee for any amounts wrongfully disbursed to the obligor in violation of the mandatory benefits assignment order. However, the department shall under no circumstances be held liable for failing to withhold funds from a withdrawal of accumulated contributions unless the mandatory benefits assignment order was properly served on the department at least thirty days before the department made the withdrawal payment to the obligor. If the department is held liable to an obligee for failing to withhold funds as required by a mandatory benefits assignment order, the department may recover such amounts paid to an obligee by thereafter either withholding such amounts from the available nonexempt benefits of the obligor or filing a legal action against the obligor.

(7) If the department complies with a court order pursuant to sections 1 through 16 of this act, neither the department, its officers, its employees, nor any of the retirement systems listed in RCW 41.50.030 may be liable to the obligor for wrongful withholding.

(8) The department may combine amounts withheld from various obligors into a single payment to the superior court clerk, if the payment includes a listing of the amounts attributable to each obligor and other information as required by the clerk.

(9) The department shall mail to the obligor at the obligor's last known mailing address appearing in the department's files copies of the mandatory benefits assignment order and the department's answer within twenty days after receiving the mandatory benefits assignment order.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. The answer of the department shall be made on forms, served on the director with the mandatory benefits assignment order, substantially as follows:

The obligee shall also include an extra copy of the mandatory benefits assignment order for the department to mail to the obligor. Service on the department shall be in person or by any form of mail requiring a return receipt.

(2) On or before the date of service of the mandatory benefits assignment order on the department, the obligee shall mail or cause to be mailed by certified or registered mail a copy of the mandatory benefits assignment order to the obligor at the obligor's last mailing address known to the obligee; or, in the alternative, a copy of the mandatory benefits assignment order shall be served on the obligor in the same manner as a summons in a civil action on, before, or within two days after the date of service of the order on the department. This requirement is not jurisdictional, but if the copy is not mailed or served as this subsection requires, or if any irregularity appears with respect to the mailing or service, the superior court, in its discretion, may quash the mandatory benefits assignment order, upon motion of the obligor promptly made and supported by an affidavit showing that the obligor has been prejudiced due to the failure to mail or serve the copy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. In a hearing to quash, modify, or terminate the mandatory benefits assignment order, the court may grant relief only upon a showing that the mandatory benefits assignment order causes extreme hardship or substantial injustice. Satisfaction by the obligor of all past due payments subsequent to the issuance of the mandatory benefits assignment order is not grounds to quash, modify, or terminate the mandatory benefits assignment order. If a mandatory benefits assignment order has been in operation for twelve consecutive months and the obligor's spousal maintenance or property division obligation is current, the court may terminate the order upon motion of the obligor unless the obligee can show good cause as to why the mandatory benefits assignment order should remain in effect.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. In any action to enforce a dissolution order by means of a mandatory benefits assignment order pursuant to sections 4 through 14 and 26 of this act, the court may award costs to the prevailing party, including an award for reasonable attorneys' fees consistent with RCW 26.09.140. An obligor shall not be considered a prevailing party under this section unless the obligee has acted in bad faith in connection with the proceeding in question. This section does not authorize an award of attorneys' fees against the department of retirement systems or any of the retirement systems listed in RCW 41.50.030.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Notwithstanding RCW 2.10.180(1), 2.12.090(1), 41.26.180(1), 41.32.590(1), 41.40.380(1), and 43.43.310(1), the department of retirement systems may make direct payments of benefits to a spouse or ex spouse pursuant to court orders or decrees entered before the effective date of this act that complied with all the requirements in RCW 2.10.180(1), 2.12.090(2), 41.26.180(3), 41.32.590(3), 41.40.380(3), 43.43.310(2), and 41.04.310 through 41.04.330, as such requirements existed before the effective date of this section.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 13, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5529 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 120, Laws of 1983 and RCW 39.19.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds that minority and women-owned businesses are significantly under-represented and have been denied equitable competitive opportunities in contracting. It is the intent of this chapter to mitigate societal discrimination and other factors in participating in public works and in providing goods and services and to delineate a policy that an increased level of participation by minority and women-owned and controlled businesses is desirable at all levels of state government. The purpose and intent of this chapter are to provide the maximum practicable opportunity for increased participation by minority and women-owned and controlled businesses in participating in public works and the process by which goods and services are procured by state agencies and educational institutions from the private sector.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 120, Laws of 1983 and RCW 39.19.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Advisory committee" means the advisory committee on minority and women's business enterprises.

(2) "Director" means the director of the office of minority and women's business enterprises.

(3) "Educational institutions" means the state universities, the regional universities, The Evergreen State College, and the community colleges.

(4) "Goals" means annual overall agency goals, expressed as a percentage of dollar volume, for participation by minority and women-owned and controlled businesses and shall not be construed as a minimum goal for any particular contract or for any particular geographical area. It is the intent of this chapter that such overall agency goals shall be achievable and shall be met on a contract-by-contract or class-of-contract basis.

(5) "Goods and/or services" includes professional services and all other goods and services.

(6) "Office" means the office of minority and women's business enterprises.

(7) "Person" includes one or more individuals, partnerships, associations, organizations, corporations, cooperatives, legal representatives, trustees and receivers, or any group of persons.

(8) "Procurement" means the purchase, lease, or rental of any goods or services.

((f)) (9) "Public works" means all work, construction, highway and ferry construction, alteration, repair, or improvement other than ordinary maintenance, which a state agency or educational institution is authorized or required by law to undertake.

((g)) (10) "State agency" includes the state of Washington and all agencies, departments, offices, divisions, boards, commissions, and correctional and other types of institutions.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 120, Laws of 1983 and RCW 39.19.030 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created the office of minority and women's business enterprises. The governor shall appoint a director for the office, subject to confirmation by the senate. The director may employ a deputy director and a confidential secretary, both of which shall be exempt under chapter 41.06 RCW, and such staff as are necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

~~((The office, with the advice and counsel of the advisory committee on minority and women's business enterprises, shall))~~ The office shall consult with the minority and women's business enterprises advisory committee to:

(1) Develop, plan, and implement programs to provide an opportunity for participation by qualified minority and women-owned and controlled businesses in public works and the process by which goods and services are procured by state agencies and educational institutions from the private sector;

(2) Develop a comprehensive plan insuring that qualified minority and women-owned and controlled businesses are provided an opportunity to participate in public contracts for public works and goods and services;

(3) Identify barriers to equal participation by qualified minority and women-owned and controlled businesses in all state agency and educational institution contracts;

(4) Establish annual overall goals for participation by qualified minority and women-owned and controlled businesses for each state agency and educational institution to be administered on a contract-by-contract basis or on a class-of-contracts basis;

(5) Develop and maintain a central minority and women's business enterprise certification list for all state agencies and educational institutions. ~~((Size of business or length of time in business shall not be considered a prerequisite for the certification list))~~ No business is entitled to certification under this chapter unless it meets the definition of small business concern as established by the office. All applications for certification under this chapter shall be sworn under oath:

(6) Develop, implement, and operate a system of monitoring compliance with this chapter;

(7) Adopt rules under chapter 34.04 or 28B.19 RCW, as appropriate, governing: (a) Establishment of agency goals; (b) development and maintenance of a central minority and women's business enterprise certification program, including a definition of "small business concern" which shall be consistent with the small business requirements defined under section 3 of the small business act, 15 U.S.C. If necessary to accomplish this intent, contracts shall be awarded to the next lowest bidder, or all bids may be rejected and new bids obtained, if the lowest bidder does not meet the goals established for a particular contract under this chapter. The dollar value of the total contract used for the calculation of the specific contract goal may be increased or decreased to reflect executed change orders. An apparent low-bidder must be in compliance with the contract provisions required under this chapter as a condition precedent to the granting of a notice of award by any state agency or educational institution.

Sec. 5. Section 8, chapter 120, Laws of 1983 and RCW 39.19.080 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((f))~~ (1) A person, firm, corporation, business, union, or other organization shall not:

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5115 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. It is a privilege granted by the state to operate a motor vehicle upon the highways of this state. The legislature recognizes the threat that uninsured drivers are to the people of the state. In order to alleviate the threat posed by uninsured drivers, it is the intent of the legislature to require that no application for an original motor vehicle license or for renewal or reinstatement of a vehicle license will be approved unless accompanied by evidence of insurance as set forth in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) On and after January 1, 1988, no application for an original motor vehicle license or for renewal or reinstatement of a motor vehicle license may be approved or validated unless the applicant certifies that a motor vehicle insurance policy or a surety bond issued by a company authorized to do business in this state or surplus line coverage under chapter 48.15 RCW is in effect in at least the amounts specified in RCW 46.29.490 on account of any accident in which the vehicle is involved. A certificate of deposit of money or securities, as provided in RCW 46.29.550, or a certificate of self-insurance, as provided in RCW 46.29.630, meets the requirements of this section.

(2) It is unlawful to willfully falsify insurance information submitted to the department pursuant to subsection (1) of this section or section 5 of this act. Violation of this subsection is a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not to exceed one thousand dollars or thirty days imprisonment or both.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) On or after January 1, 1988, it is unlawful to operate a motor vehicle subject to registration under chapter 46.16 RCW in this state unless the vehicle is insured against liability as provided in RCW 46.29.490, by a bond under RCW 46.29.520, by a certificate of deposit under RCW 46.29.550, or by self-insurance under RCW 46.29.630.

(2) Violation of this section is a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars or thirty days imprisonment or both.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. An insurance carrier who issues a policy required by this chapter shall also furnish the policy holder with the carrier's name, the policy number, and the identification number of the vehicle insured under the policy. The policy holder shall transfer this information to the reverse side of the current vehicle registration or otherwise keep this information in written form in the vehicle.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) A law enforcement officer requiring an operator of a motor vehicle subject to registration under chapter 46.16 RCW to produce for inspection a driver's license shall also require the operator to produce the information required by section 4 of this act.

(2) If the operator of the motor vehicle is unable to produce the information as required, the operator shall be charged with a violation of section 3 of this act. If the operator can demonstrate to the court that liability insurance was in effect on the vehicle at the time of the inspection, the charge against the driver shall be reduced to a traffic infraction of failure to show proof of insurance. The infraction is punishable by a fine of not more than fifty dollars.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 1 through 5 of this act do not apply to motor vehicles registered with the Washington utilities and transportation commission as common or contract carriers or to for hire vehicles subject to the provisions of chapter 46.72 RCW.

(1) Certification. A "motor vehicle liability policy" as said term is used in this chapter means an "owner's policy" or an "operator's policy" of liability insurance, certified as provided in RCW 46.29.460 or 46.29.470 as proof of financial responsibility for the future, and issued, except as otherwise provided in RCW 46.29.470, by an insurance carrier duly authorized to transact business in this state, to or for the benefit of the person named in the policy as insured.

(2) Owner's policy. Such owner's policy of liability insurance:

(a) Shall designate by explicit description or by appropriate reference all vehicles with respect to which coverage is to be granted by the policy; and

(b) Shall insure the person named therein and any other person, as insured, using any such vehicle or vehicles with the express or implied permission of such named insured, against loss from the liability imposed by law for damages arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of such vehicle or vehicles within the United States of America or the Dominion of Canada, subject to limits exclusive of interest and costs, with respect to each such vehicle as follows: Twenty-five thousand dollars because of bodily injury to or death of one person in any one accident and, subject to said limit for one person, fifty thousand dollars because of bodily injury to or death of two or more persons in any one accident, and ~~(ten)~~ twenty-five thousand dollars because of injury to or destruction of property of others in any one accident.

(3) Operator's policy. Such operator's policy of liability insurance shall insure the person named as insured therein against loss from the liability imposed upon him by law for damages arising out of the use by him of any motor vehicle not owned by him, within the same territorial limits and subject to the same limits of liability as are set forth above with respect to an owner's policy of liability insurance.

(4) Required statements in policies. Such motor vehicle liability policy shall state the name and address of the named insured, the coverage afforded by the policy, the premium charged therefor, the policy period, and the limits of liability, and shall contain an agreement or be endorsed that insurance is provided under the policy in accordance with the coverage defined in this chapter as respects bodily injury and death or property damage, or both, and is subject to all the provisions of this chapter.

(5) Policy need not insure workers' compensation, etc. Such motor vehicle liability policy need not insure any liability under any workers' compensation law nor any liability on account of bodily injury or death of an employee of the insured while engaged in the employment, other than domestic, of the insured, or while engaged in the operation, maintenance, or repair of any such vehicle nor any liability for damage to property owned by, rented to, in charge of, or transported by the insured.

(6) Provisions incorporated in policy. Every motor vehicle liability policy is subject to the following provisions which need not be contained therein:

(a) The liability of the insurance carrier with respect to the insurance required by this chapter becomes absolute whenever injury or damage covered by said motor vehicle liability policy occurs; said policy may not be canceled or annulled as to such liability by any agreement between the insurance carrier and the insured after the occurrence of the injury or damage; no statement made by the insured or on his behalf and no violation of said policy defeats or voids said policy.

(b) The satisfaction by the insured of a judgment for such injury or damage shall not be a condition precedent to the right or duty of the insurance carrier to make payment on account of such injury or damage.

(c) The insurance carrier may settle any claim covered by the policy, and if such settlement is made in good faith, the amount thereof is deductible from the limits of liability specified in subdivision (b) of subsection (2) of this section.

(d) The policy, the written application therefor, if any, and any rider or endorsement which does not conflict with the provisions of this chapter constitutes the entire contract between the parties.

(7) Excess or additional coverage. Any policy which grants the coverage required for a motor vehicle liability policy may also grant any lawful coverage in excess of or in addition to the coverage specified for a motor vehicle liability policy, and such excess or additional coverage is not subject to the provisions of this chapter. With respect to a policy which grants such excess or additional coverage the term "motor vehicle liability policy" applies only to that part of the coverage which is required by this section.

(8) Reimbursement provision permitted. Any motor vehicle liability policy may provide that the insured shall reimburse the insurance carrier for any payment the insurance carrier would not have been obligated to make under the terms of the policy except for the provisions of this chapter.

(9) Proration of insurance permitted. Any motor vehicle liability policy may provide for the prorating of the insurance thereunder with other valid and collectible insurance.

(10) Multiple policies. The requirements for a motor vehicle liability policy may be fulfilled by the policies of one or more insurance carrier which policies together meet such requirements.

(11) Binders. Any binder issued pending the issuance of a motor vehicle liability policy is deemed to fulfill the requirements for such a policy.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. Sections 1 through 6 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 46 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

Cash deficit of the current fiscal period is defined for purposes of this chapter as the amount by which the aggregate of ~~((expenditures))~~ disbursements charged to a fund will exceed the aggregate of estimated receipts credited to such fund in the current fiscal period, less the extent to which such deficit may have been provided for from available ((reserve funds)) beginning cash surplus.

If, for any applicable fund or account, the estimated ((revenues)) receipts for the next ensuing period plus cash ((surplus shall be)) beginning balances is less than the aggregate of ((appropriations)) estimated disbursements proposed by the governor for the next ensuing fiscal period, the governor shall include in Part I of the budget document ((his)) proposals as to the manner in which the anticipated cash deficit shall be met, whether by an increase in the indebtedness of the state, by the imposition of new taxes, by increases in tax rates or an extension thereof, or in any like manner. The governor may ((provide for)) propose orderly liquidation of the ((currently existing)) anticipated cash deficit over a period of one or more fiscal periods, if, in ((his)) the governor's discretion, such manner of liquidation would best serve the public interest.

Sec. 5. Section 43.88.110, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 4, chapter 215, Laws of 1986 and RCW 43.88.110 are each amended to read as follows:

This section sets forth the expenditure programs and the allotment and reserve procedures to be followed by the executive branch for public funds. Allotments of an appropriation for any fiscal period shall conform to the terms, limits, or conditions of the appropriation.

(1) The director of financial management shall provide all agencies with a complete set of instructions for preparing a statement of proposed expenditures at least thirty days before the beginning of a fiscal period. The set of instructions need not include specific appropriation amounts for the agency.

(2) Within forty-five days after the beginning of the fiscal period or within forty-five days after the governor signs the omnibus biennial appropriations act, whichever is later, all agencies shall submit to the governor a statement of proposed expenditures at such times and in such form as may be required by the governor. If at any time during the fiscal period the governor ((shall ascertain that estimated revenues for the applicable period will be less than the respective appropriations)) projects a cash deficit as defined by RCW 43.88.050, the governor shall make across-the-board reductions in allotments so as to prevent ((the making of expenditures in excess of estimated revenues)) a cash deficit, unless the legislature has directed the liquidation of the cash deficit over one or more fiscal periods. Except for the legislative and judicial branches and other agencies headed by elective officials, the governor shall review the statement of proposed expenditures for reasonableness and conformance with legislative intent. Once the governor approves the statements of proposed expenditures, further revisions shall be made only at the beginning of the second fiscal year and must be initiated by the governor. However, changes in appropriation level authorized by the legislature, changes required by across-the-board reductions mandated by the governor, and changes caused by executive increases to spending authority may require additional revisions. Revisions shall not be made retroactively. Revisions caused by executive increases to spending authority shall not be made after June 30, 1987. However, the governor may assign to a reserve status any portion of an agency appropriation withheld as part of across-the-board reductions made by the governor and any portion of an agency appropriation conditioned on a contingent event by the appropriations act. The governor may remove these amounts from reserve status if the across-the-board reductions are subsequently modified or if the contingent event occurs. The director of financial management shall enter approved statements of proposed expenditures into the state budgeting, accounting, and reporting system within forty-five days after receipt of the proposed statements from the agencies. If an agency or the director of financial management is unable to meet these requirements, the director of financial management shall provide a timely explanation in writing to the legislative fiscal committees.

(3) It is expressly provided that all agencies shall be required to maintain accounting records and to report thereon in the manner prescribed in this chapter and under the regulations issued pursuant to this chapter. Within ninety days of the end of the fiscal year, all agencies shall submit to the director of financial management their final adjustments to close their books for the fiscal year. Prior to submitting fiscal data, written or oral, to committees of the legislature, it is the responsibility of the agency submitting the data to reconcile it with the budget and accounting data reported by the agency to the director of financial management. The director of financial management shall monitor agency expenditures against the approved statement of proposed expenditures and shall provide the legislature with quarterly explanations of major variances.

(4) The director of financial management may exempt certain public funds from the allotment controls established under this chapter if it is not practical or necessary to allot the funds. Allotment control exemptions expire at the end of the fiscal biennium for which they are granted. The director of financial management shall report any exemptions granted under this subsection to the legislative fiscal committees.

Sec. 6. Section 43.88.120, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 10, chapter 138, Laws of 1984 and RCW 43.88.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Each agency engaged in the collection of revenues shall prepare ((statements of revenue collections and estimates)) estimated revenues and estimated receipts for the current and ensuing biennium and shall submit the ~~((statements and))~~ estimates to the director of financial management and the director of revenue at times and in the form specified by the directors, along with any other information which the directors may request.

A copy of such ~~((collection reports and))~~ revenue estimates shall be simultaneously submitted to the economic and revenue forecast work group when required by the office of the economic and revenue forecast council.

Sec. 7. Section 2, chapter 83, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 43.88.260 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It shall be unlawful for any agency head or disbursing officer to incur any cash deficiency and any appointive officer or employee violating the provisions of this section shall be subject to summary removal.

(2) This section does not apply to:

(a) Temporary cash deficiencies resulting from disbursements under an expenditure plan approved under RCW 43.88.110.

(b) Temporary cash deficiencies authorized by the director of financial management for funds and accounts in the state treasury or in the custody of the state treasurer. Each authorization under this subsection (b) shall distinctly specify the fund or account for which a deficiency is authorized, the maximum amount of cash deficiency which may be incurred, and the maximum time period during which the cash deficiency may continue. Each authorization shall expire at the end of each fiscal biennium unless renewed by the director of financial management. The director of financial management shall report each authorization and renewal to the legislative fiscal committees.

(c) Temporary cash deficiencies in funds or accounts which are neither in the state treasury, nor in the custody of the treasurer, if the cash deficiency does not continue past the end of the fiscal biennium.

(3) Nothing in this section permits the expenditure of moneys in excess of an applicable appropriation.

Sec. 8. Section 33, chapter 7, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 85, chapter 57, Laws of 1985 and RCW 82.32.400 are each amended to read as follows:

The revenue accrual account is hereby created in the state treasury. At the close of each fiscal biennium, the state treasurer shall transfer the cash balance in the basic account of the state general fund, other than amounts ~~((reappropriated))~~ restricted for liabilities to be paid in the next fiscal biennium, to this account. Moneys in this account may only be spent after appropriation by statute for the purpose of decreasing the unfunded liability of a state retirement system ~~((or, during the 1983-1985 fiscal biennium, for the purpose of discharging obligations which the legislature determines are correctly chargeable to a prior biennium))~~. All earnings of investments of balances in the revenue accrual account shall be credited to the basic account of the general fund.

Sec. 9. Section 82.32.090, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 23, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 82.32.090 are each amended to read as follows:

If payment of any tax due is not received by the department of revenue by the due date, there shall be assessed a penalty of five percent of the amount of the tax; and if the tax is not received within thirty days after the due date, there shall be assessed a total penalty of ten percent of the amount of the tax; and if the tax is not received within sixty days after the due date, there shall be assessed a total penalty of twenty percent of the amount of the tax. No penalty so added shall be less than two dollars.

~~((If payment of any tax is received within the first ten days of the month next succeeding the month in which the tax is payable, the amount of such payment shall be credited to, and shall be treated for all purposes as having been collected during, the fiscal year which includes the month preceding the month in which such due date falls. Effective June 30, 1985, and thereafter if the payment of any tax is received during the first ten days in July, the amount of such payment shall be credited to, and shall be treated for all purposes as having been collected during, the preceding fiscal year.))~~

If a warrant be issued by the department of revenue for the collection of taxes, increases, and penalties, there shall be added thereto a penalty of five percent of the amount of the tax, but not less than five dollars.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the aggregate of penalties imposed under this chapter for failure to file a return, late payment of any tax, increase, or penalty, or issuance of a warrant shall not exceed twenty-five percent of the tax due, or seven dollars, whichever is greater.

Sec. 10. Section 1, chapter 138, Laws of 1984 as amended by section 2, chapter 112, Laws of 1986 and RCW 82.01.120 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this section and RCW 82.01.125 and 82.01.130, "supervisor" means the economic and revenue forecast supervisor. Approval by an affirmative vote of at least five members of the economic and revenue forecast council is required for any decisions regarding employment of the supervisor. Employment of the supervisor shall terminate after each term of three years, unless the supervisor is reappointed by the director and approved by the economic and revenue forecast council for another three years. The supervisor shall employ staff sufficient to accomplish the purposes of this section.

(2) Four times each year the supervisor shall prepare, subject to the approval of the economic and revenue forecast council under RCW 82.01.130(2):

(b) An unofficial state economic and revenue forecast based on optimistic economic and revenue projections; and

All forecasts shall include both estimated receipts and estimated revenues in conformance with generally accepted accounting principles as provided by RCW 43.88.037.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 16, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5608 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 12, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 16.52.085 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If the county sheriff or other law enforcement officer shall find that said domestic animal has been neglected by its owner, he or she may authorize the removal of the animal to a proper pasture or other suitable place for feeding and restoring to health.

(2) If a law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe a violation of this chapter has occurred, the officer may authorize an examination of an allegedly neglected domestic animal by a veterinarian to determine whether the level of neglect is sufficient to require removal of the animal. This section does not condone illegal entry onto private property.

(3) Any owner whose domestic animal is removed to a suitable place pursuant to this chapter shall be given written notice of the circumstances of the removal and notice of legal remedies available to the owner. In making the decision to remove an animal pursuant to this chapter, the law enforcement officer shall make a good faith effort to contact the animal's owner before removal unless the animal is in a life-threatening condition or unless the officer reasonably believes that the owner would remove the animal from the jurisdiction.

(4) If no criminal case is filed within seventy-two hours of the removal of the animal, the owner may petition the district court of the county where the removal of the animal occurred for the return of the animal. The petition shall be filed with the court, with copies served to the law enforcement agency responsible for removing the animal and to the prosecuting attorney. If a criminal action is filed after the petition is filed but before the animal is returned, the petition shall be joined with the criminal matter.

(5) In a motion or petition for the return of the removed animal before a trial, the burden is on the owner to prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the animal will not suffer future neglect and is not in need of being restored to health.

(6) Any authorized person treating or attempting to restore an animal to health under this chapter shall not be civilly or criminally liable for such action.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 16.52 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The sentence imposed for a violation of this chapter may be deferred or suspended in accordance with RCW 3.66.067 and 3.66.068, however the probationary period shall be two years.

(2) In case of multiple convictions, the sentences shall be consecutive, however the probationary period shall remain two years.

(3) In addition to the penalties imposed by the court, the court shall order the forfeiture of all animals held by law enforcement authorities under the provisions of this chapter if any one of the animals involved dies as a result of a violation of this chapter or if the defendant has a prior conviction under this chapter. In other cases the court may enter an order requiring the owner to forfeit the animal if the court deems the cruel treatment to have been severe and likely to reoccur. If forfeiture is ordered, the owner shall be prohibited from owning or caring for any similar animals for a period of two years. The court may delay its decision on forfeiture under this subsection until the end of the probationary period.

(4) In addition to fines and court costs, the owner, only if convicted or in agreement, shall be liable for reasonable costs incurred pursuant to this chapter by the law enforcement or authorized private or public entities involved with the care of the animals.

(5) If convicted, the owner shall also pay a civil penalty of one hundred dollars to the county to prevent cruelty to animals. These funds shall be used to prosecute offenses under this chapter and to care for forfeited animals pending trial.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 16.52 RCW to read as follows:

This chapter shall not limit the right of a law enforcement officer to destroy an animal that has been seriously injured and would otherwise continue to suffer. Such action shall be undertaken with reasonable prudence and, whenever possible, in consultation with a licensed veterinarian and the owner of the animal.

Law enforcement officers and licensed veterinarians shall be immune from civil and criminal liability for actions taken under this chapter if reasonable prudence is exercised in carrying out the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 4. Section 17, chapter 146, Laws of 1901 and RCW 16.52.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(In RCW 16.52.010 through 16.52.055, 16.52.070 through 16.52.090 and 16.52.100 through 16.52.100) For purposes of this chapter, the singular shall include the plural; the word "animal" shall be held to include every living creature, except man; the words "torture," "torment," and "cruelty," shall be held to include every act, omission, or neglect whereby unnecessary or unjustifiable physical pain or suffering is caused or permitted; PROVIDED, That in no event shall it be considered cruelty, torture, torment, or neglect to transport a dog in the rear area commonly referred to as the bed, of a pick-up truck, nor shall such activity be prohibited by rule or law; and the words "owner" and "person" shall be held to include corporations as well as individuals; (and) the knowledge and acts of agents of and persons employed by corporations in regard to animals transported, owned, or employed by, or in the custody of such corporations, shall be held to be the act and knowledge of such corporations as well as of such agents or employees; and the words "law enforcement officer" shall mean any person who is serving on a full-time, fully compensated basis as a county sheriff or deputy sheriff, including sheriffs or deputy sheriffs serving under a different title pursuant to a county charter, city police officer, town marshal or deputy marshal, or state patrol.

Sec. 5. Section 46.56.070, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.61.660 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as provided in RCW 16.52.010, it shall be unlawful for any person to transport any living animal on the running board, fenders, hood, or other outside part of any vehicle unless suitable harness, cage or enclosure be provided and so attached as to protect such animal from falling or being thrown therefrom. It shall be unlawful for any person to transport any persons upon the running board, fenders, hood or other outside part of any vehicle, except that this provision shall not apply to authorized emergency vehicles.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Nothing in this act shall be construed as expanding or diminishing, in any manner whatsoever, any authority granted officers under RCW 16.52.020 or 16.52.030.

In addition the ever-changing requirements of law, both constitutional and statutory provisions protecting the individual and imposing responsibilities and legal liabilities of law enforcement officers and the government of which they represent, require an increased level of training and experience in the field of law enforcement.

- (g) The person has been certified as a regular and commissioned enforcement officer through compliance with this state's basic training requirement or equivalency.

(2) A person seeking appointment to the office of chief of police or marshal, of a city or town, including a code city, with a population of one thousand or less, is ineligible unless that person conforms with the requirements of subsection (1) (a) through (e) of this section. A person so appointed as chief of police or marshal must successfully complete the state's basic training requirement or equivalency within nine months after such appointment, unless an extension has been granted by the criminal justice training commission.

(3) A person seeking appointment to the office of chief of police or marshal shall provide a sworn statement under penalty of perjury to the appointing authority stating that the person meets the requirements of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Before making an appointment in the office of chief of police or marshal, the appointing agency shall complete a thorough background investigation of the candidate. The Washington association of sheriffs and police chiefs shall develop advisory procedures which may be used by the appointing authority in completing its background investigation of candidates for the office of chief of police or marshal.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. In the case of a vacancy in the office of chief of police or marshal, all requirements and procedures of sections 4 and 5 of this act shall be followed in filling the vacancy.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 14, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5217 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:

(1) Improved health among employees will result in a more productive workforce, better morale, reduced stress, lower injury rates and absenteeism, and improved recruitment and retention rates;

(2) A substantial amount of illness and injury in the work force is preventable because it results from lifestyle decisions;

(3) Illness and injury among state employees can be reduced if employees engage in healthier lifestyles.

The state, as an employer, desires to foster a working environment that promotes the health and well-being of its employees. Therefore, it is the purpose of this act to establish a state employee wellness program. "Wellness program" means those policies, procedures, and activities that promote the health and well-being of state employees and that contribute to a healthful work environment.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 41.04 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The director of the department of personnel, in consultation with applicable state agencies and employee organizations, may develop and administer a voluntary state employee wellness program.

(2) The director may:

(a) Develop and implement state employee wellness policies, procedures, and activities;

(b) Disseminate wellness educational materials to state agencies and employees;

(c) Encourage the establishment of wellness activities in state agencies;

(d) Provide technical assistance and training to agencies conducting wellness activities for their employees;

(e) Develop standards by which agencies sponsoring specific wellness activities may impose a fee to participating employees to help defray the cost of those activities;

(f) Monitor and evaluate the effectiveness of this program, including the collection, analysis, and publication of relevant statistical information; and

(g) Perform other duties and responsibilities as necessary to carry out the purpose of this section.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 16, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUE SENATE BILL NO. 5225 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 196, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.52.010 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the purpose of this chapter to strengthen methods of administering employer-employee relations through the establishment of orderly methods of communication between academic employees and the community college districts by which they are employed.

It is the purpose of this chapter to promote cooperative efforts by prescribing certain rights and obligations of the employees and employers and by establishing orderly procedures governing the relationship between the employees and their employers which procedures are designed to meet the special requirements and needs of public employment in higher education. It is the intent of this chapter to promote activity that includes the elements of open communication and access to information in a timely manner, with reasonable discussion and interpretation of that information. It is the further intent that such activity shall be characterized by mutual respect, integrity, reasonableness, and a desire on the part of the parties to address and resolve the points of concern.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 196, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 12, chapter 296, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28B.52.020 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Employee organization" means any organization which includes as members the academic employees of a community college district and which has as one of its purposes the representation of the employees in their employment relations with the community college district.

(2) "Academic employee" means any teacher, counselor, librarian, or department head, who is employed by any community college district, whether full or part time, with the exception of the chief administrative officer of, and any administrator in, each community college district.

(3) "Administrator" means any person employed either full or part time by the community college district and who performs administrative functions as at least fifty percent or more of his assignments, and has responsibilities to hire, dismiss, or discipline other employees. Administrators shall not be members of the bargaining unit unless a majority of such administrators and a majority of the bargaining unit elect by secret ballot for such inclusion pursuant to rules and regulations as adopted in accordance with RCW 28B.52.080.

(4) "Commission" means the public employment relations commission.

(5) "Unfair labor practice" means any unfair labor practice listed in section 11 of this 1987 act.

(6) "Union security provision" means a provision in a collective bargaining agreement under which some or all employees in the bargaining unit may be required, as a condition of continued employment on or after the thirtieth day following the beginning of such employment or the effective date of the provision, whichever is later, to become a member of the exclusive bargaining representative or pay an agency fee equal to the periodic dues and initiation fees uniformly required as a condition of acquiring or retaining membership in the exclusive bargaining representative.

(7) "Exclusive bargaining representative" means any employee organization which has:

(a) Been certified or recognized under this chapter as the representative of the employees in an appropriate collective bargaining unit; or

(b) Before the effective date of this section, been certified or recognized under a predecessor statute as the representative of the employees in a bargaining unit which continues to be appropriate under this chapter.

(8) "Collective bargaining" and "bargaining" mean the performance of the mutual obligation of the representatives of the employer and the exclusive bargaining representative to meet at reasonable times to bargain in good faith in an effort to reach agreement with respect to wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment, such as procedures related to nonretention, dismissal, denial of tenure, and reduction in force. Prior law, practice, or interpretation shall be neither restrictive, expansive, nor determinative with respect to the scope of bargaining. A written contract incorporating any agreements reached shall be executed if requested by either party. The obligation to bargain does not compel either party to agree to a proposal or to make a concession.

In the event of a dispute between an employer and an exclusive bargaining representative over the matters that are terms and conditions of employment, the commission shall decide which items are mandatory subjects for bargaining.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 196, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 205, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28B.52.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Representatives of an employee organization, which organization shall by secret ballot have won a majority in an election to represent the academic employees within its community college district, shall have the right ~~(to after using established administrative channels, to meet, confer and negotiate with the board of trustees of the community college district or its delegated representative(s) to communicate the considered professional judgment of the academic staff prior to the final adoption by the board of proposed community college district policies relating to, but not limited to, curriculum, textbook selection, in-service training, student teaching programs, personnel, hiring and assignment practices, leaves of absence, salaries and salary schedules and noninstructional duties))~~ to bargain as defined in RCW 28B.52.020(8).

Sec. 4. Section 4, chapter 205, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28B.52.035 are each amended to read as follows:

At the conclusion of any negotiation processes as provided for in RCW 28B.52.030, any matter upon which the parties have reached agreement shall be reduced to writing and acted upon in a regular or special meeting of the boards of trustees, and become part of the official proceedings of said board meeting. Provisions of written contracts relating to salary increases shall not exceed the amount or percentage established by the legislature in the appropriations act and allocated to the board of trustees by the state board for community college education. The length of ((terms within)) term of any such agreement shall be for not more than three fiscal years. Any provisions of these agreements pertaining to salary increases will not be binding upon future actions of the legislature. If any provision of a salary increase is changed by subsequent modification of the appropriations act by the legislature, both parties shall immediately enter into collective bargaining for the sole purpose of arriving at a mutually agreed upon replacement for the modified provision.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 28B.52 RCW to read as follows:

Employees have the right to self-organization, to form, join, or assist employee organizations, to bargain collectively through representatives of their own choosing, and also have the right to refrain from any or all of these activities except to the extent that employees may be required to make payments to an exclusive bargaining representative or charitable organization under a union security provision authorized in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 28B.52 RCW to read as follows:

A board of trustees or an employee organization that enters into a negotiated agreement under RCW 28B.52.030 may include in the agreement procedures for binding arbitration of the disputes arising about the interpretation or application of the agreement including but not limited to nonretention, dismissal, denial of tenure, and reduction in force.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 28B.52 RCW to read as follows:

Except as otherwise expressly provided in this chapter, this chapter shall not be construed to deny or otherwise abridge any rights, privileges, or benefits granted by law to employees. This chapter shall not be construed to interfere with the responsibilities and rights of the board of trustees as specified by federal and state law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 28B.52 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Upon filing with the employer the voluntary written authorization of a bargaining unit employee under this chapter, the employee organization which is the exclusive bargaining representative of the bargaining unit shall have the right to have deducted from the salary of the bargaining unit employee the periodic dues and initiation fees uniformly required as a condition of acquiring or retaining membership in the exclusive bargaining representative. Such employee authorization shall not be irrevocable for a period of more than one year. Such dues and fees shall be deducted from the pay of all employees who have given authorization for such deduction, and shall be transmitted by the employer to the employee organization or to the depository designated by the employee organization.

(2) A collective bargaining agreement may include union security provisions, but not a closed shop. If an agency shop or other union security provision is agreed to, the employer shall enforce any such provision by deductions from the salary of bargaining unit employees affected thereby and shall transmit such funds to the employee organization or to the depository designated by the employee organization.

(3) An employee who is covered by a union security provision and who asserts a right of nonassociation based on bona fide religious tenets or teachings of a church or religious body of which such employee is a member shall pay to a nonreligious charity or other charitable organization an amount of money equivalent to the periodic dues and initiation fees uniformly required as a condition of acquiring or retaining membership in the exclusive bargaining representative. The charity shall be agreed upon by the employee and the employee organization to which such employee would otherwise pay the dues and fees. The employee shall furnish written proof that such payments have been made. If the employee and the employee organization do not reach agreement on such matter, the commission shall designate the charitable organization.

Sec. 9. Section 5, chapter 196, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 13, chapter 296, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28B.52.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Nothing in this section prohibits an employer and an employee organization from agreeing to substitute, at their own expense, some other impasse procedure or other means of resolving matters considered under this chapter.

(3) The expressing of any views, arguments, or opinion, or the dissemination thereof to the public, whether in written, printed, graphic, or visual form, shall not constitute or be evidence of an unfair labor practice under this chapter, if such expression contains no threat of reprisal or force or promise of benefit.

Sec. 12. Section 6, chapter 205, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28B.52.200 are each amended to read as follows:

Nothing in chapter 28B.52 RCW as now or hereafter amended shall compel either party to agree to a proposal or to make a concession, nor shall any provision in chapter 28B.52 RCW as now or hereafter amended be construed as limiting or precluding the exercise by each community college board of trustees of any powers or duties authorized or provided to it by law unless such exercise is contrary to the terms and conditions of any lawful negotiated agreement, except that other than to extend the terms of a previous contract, a board of trustees shall not take unilateral action on any unresolved issue under negotiation, unless the parties have first participated in good faith mediation or some other procedure as authorized by RCW 28B.52.060 to seek resolution of the issue.

MOTION

Senator Gaspard moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5225.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Gaspard, with the way the House has amended the bill, all the right that the employees have is the right to get together and talk. Is that right? They can't negotiate on salary; they can't have a strike; they can get together and talk. Is that what's left in the bill?"

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Rasmussen, the current law for the community colleges is what is called 'a meet and confer' which is interpreted in different ways by the local districts, whether it is a formal process or whether it is a very informal process to meet over a cup of coffee. This establishes more of a formal process so that everybody will know what the rules are to abide by and when there is a dispute, whether it be on the management side or faculty side, it brings in the Superior Court to resolve that dispute."

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Gaspard, one more question, does this require compulsory membership? The dues I understand are about $400 to $500 a year. I have had complaints from some of the members of the community colleges that they did not want to pay that $400 to $500 a year dues, because they felt they would not get a salary increase large enough to cover it. Now, the question is, does this require compulsory membership in the union? This is one of the things they were objecting to."

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Rasmussen, the dues, as is allowed in current law, if they disagreed with the organization, those dues that are not part of the necessity of bargaining can be donated to charity causes."

Senator Rasmussen: "It is a compulsory membership then? It's not your intent to have compulsory membership, Senator Gaspard?"

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Rasmussen, I believe in current law that if there is a reason, for religious beliefs or whatever, you can have an exemption from belonging to the organization."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, Mr. President, I think it is as I remember it. Does anyone here on the floor know if this requirement is compulsory or at the present time, if it's voluntary? I have had some complaints from some of the instructors. I would hope that somebody could answer that."

REMARKS BY SENATOR SALING

Senator Saling: "Mr. President, I believe that it does require one who teaches at a community college to either pay the dues to the association or pay the same amount of money to a charitable organization. If one does have a teaching job, they either have to do one or the other. Now, there are some who say that it is a negotiable item. I believe now it is a negotiable item, but this bill would make it mandatory."

REMARKS BY SENATOR PULLEN

Senator Pullen: "In answer to Senator Rasmussen's question, you will find your answer on page 3, Senator Rasmussen, of the House amendment. Page 3, subsection (6), line 16, provides for a union security provision. The provision there would be that members, employees in a bargaining unit, have to, as a condition of continuing employment on or after the thirtieth day following the beginning of such employment, must become a member of the exclusive bargaining representatives. In other words, it does not provide for an agency shop, but it actually does provide for a union shop which is a compulsory union membership as a condition of employment. So, that would be the answer to your question and the answer is, yes, it provides for a union shop provision."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WARNKE

Senator Warnke: "Thank you, Mr. President and members of the Senate. First of all, Senator Rasmussen, to become an exclusive bargaining agent for a community college, a majority of the employees have to sign cards and pledge their membership to the bargaining agent in order to be recognized as a collective bargaining agent for that particular school or community college. Secondly, whatever agency shop provision that is negotiated or maintenance of membership clause that is in the contract, must be negotiated with the district and that also must be voted on by the employees, so I think to say that it is mandatory--the employees get two shots as to whether or not there is going to be union security in their contract."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GASPARD

Senator Gaspard: "Mr. President, members of the Senate, Senator Pullen was reading from the definition section, but he has to read further into the bill to understand this is what would be called an agency shop. If you look at page 8, beginning on line 31, it mentions that a collective bargaining agreement may include union security provisions, but not a closed shop."

REMARKS BY SENATOR PULLEN

Senator Pullen: "I don't think Senator Gaspard understands the difference between a closed shop, a union shop and an agency shop. In an agency shop, you don't become a member of a union, but you have to pay dues equal to the union dues. With a union shop, you have to join the union and pay those union dues. A closed shop is illegal. A closed shop is illegal under federal law, so it doesn't really make any difference to say in the bill that a closed shop is prohibited. That's already prohibited."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Vognild demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Gaspard that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5225.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5225 by the following vote: Yeas, 32; nays, 17.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Deccio, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, McCaslin, Metcalf, Newhouse, Patterson, Pullen, Saling, Sellar, Zimmerman - 17.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 15, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5801 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the employment of fire fighters exposes them to smoke, fumes, and toxic or chemical substances. The legislature recognizes that fire fighters as a class have a higher rate of respiratory disease than the general public. The legislature therefore finds that respiratory disease should be presumed to be occupationally related for industrial insurance purposes for fire fighters.

The legislature also finds that fire fighters and law enforcement officers are required to respond to emergencies in a rapid manner to save lives, reduce property damage, and protect the public. As a result, these officers are often subject to extreme mental and physical stress and life-threatening circumstances during the course of their employment. The legislature therefore finds that the judicial doctrine requiring unusual exertion for compensation in heart attack injuries should be abrogated for these workers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) In the case of fire fighters as defined in RCW 41.26.030(4)(a), (b), and (c) who are covered under Title 51 RCW, there shall exist a prima facie presumption that respiratory disease is an occupational disease under RCW 51.08.140. This presumption of occupational disease may be rebutted by a preponderance of the evidence controverting the presumption. Controverting evidence may include, but is not limited to, use of tobacco products, physical fitness and weight, lifestyle, hereditary factors, and exposure from other employment or nonemployment activities.

(2) The presumption established in subsection (1) of this section shall be extended to an applicable member following termination of service for a period of three calendar months for each year of requisite service, but may not extend more than sixty months following the last date of employment.

Sec. 3. Section 51.08.100, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.08.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) "Injury" means a sudden and tangible happening, of a traumatic nature, producing an immediate or prompt result, and occurring from without, and such physical conditions as result therefrom.

(2) In the case of fire fighters as defined in RCW 41.26.030(4)(a), (b), and (c) who are covered under Title 51 RCW, and law enforcement officers as defined in RCW 41.26.030(3) who are covered under Title 51 RCW, for the purpose of heart attacks the definition of "injury" shall be construed without regard to whether the member's exertion was usual or unusual.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. Sections 1 and 2 of this act are each added to chapter 51.32 RCW."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 16, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5570 with the following amendments:

On page 1, beginning on line 5 strike everything through "act." on page 3, line 8 and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds:

(1) Solid wastes generated in the state are to be managed in the following order of descending priority: (a) Waste reduction; (b) recycling; (c) treatment; (d) energy recovery or incineration; (e) solidification/stabilization; and (f) landfill.

(2) Special incinerator ash residues from the incineration of municipal solid waste that would otherwise be regulated as hazardous wastes need a separate regulatory scheme in order to (a) ease the permitting and reporting requirements of chapter 70.105 RCW, the state hazardous waste management act, and (b) supplement the environmental protection provisions of chapter 70.95 RCW, the state solid waste management act.

(3) Raw garbage poses significant environmental and public health risks. Municipal solid waste incineration constitutes a higher waste management priority than the land disposal of untreated municipal solid waste due to its reduction of waste volumes and environmental health risks.

It is therefore the purpose of this chapter to establish management requirements for special incinerator ash that otherwise would be regulated as hazardous waste under chapter 70.105 RCW, the hazardous waste management act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Department" means the department of ecology.

(2) "Director" means the director of the department of ecology or the director's designee.

(3) "Dispose" or "disposal" means the treatment, utilization, processing, or final deposit of special incineration ash.

(4) "Generate" means any act or process which produces special incinerator ash or which first causes special incinerator ash to become subject to regulation.

(5) "Management" means the handling, storage, collection, transportation, and disposal of special incinerator ash.

(6) "Person" means any person, firm, association, county, public or municipal or private corporation, agency, or other entity whatsoever.

(7) "Facility" means all structures, other appurtenances, improvements, and land used for recycling, storing, treating, or disposing of special incinerator ash.

(8) "Special incinerator ash" means ash residues resulting from the operation of incinerator or energy recovery facilities managing municipal solid waste, including solid waste from residential, commercial, and industrial establishments, if the ash residues (a) would otherwise be regulated as hazardous wastes under chapter 70.105 RCW; and (b) are not regulated as a hazardous waste under the federal resource conservation and recovery act, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 6901 et seq.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) Prior to managing special incinerator ash, persons who generate special incinerator ash shall develop plans for managing the special incinerator ash. These plans shall:

(a) Identify procedures for all aspects relating to the management of the special incinerator ash that are necessary to protect employees, human health, and the environment;

(b) Identify alternatives for managing solid waste prior to incineration for the purpose of (i) reducing the toxicity of the special incinerator ash; and (ii) reducing the quantity of the special incinerator ash;

(c) Establish a process for submittal of an annual report to the department disclosing the results of a testing program to identify the toxic properties of the special incinerator ash as necessary to ensure that the procedures established in the plans submitted pursuant to this chapter are adequate to protect employees, human health, and the environment; and

(d) Comply with the rules established by the department in accordance with this section.

(2) Prior to managing any special incinerator ash, any person required to develop a plan pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall submit the plan to the department for review and approval. Prior to approving a plan, the department shall find that the plan complies with the provisions of this chapter, including any rules adopted under this chapter. Approval may be conditioned upon additional requirements necessary to protect employees, human health, and the environment, including special management requirements, waste segregation, or treatment techniques such as neutralization, detoxification, and solidification/stabilization.

(3) The department shall give notice of receipt of a proposed plan to interested persons and the public and shall accept public comment for a minimum of thirty days. The department shall approve, approve with conditions, or reject the plan submitted pursuant to this section within ninety days of submittal.

(4) Prior to accepting any special incinerator ash for disposal, persons owning or operating facilities for the disposal of the incinerator ash shall apply to the department for a permit. The department shall issue a permit if the disposal will provide adequate protection of human health and the environment. Prior to issuance of any permit, the department shall find that the facility meets the requirements of chapter 70.95 RCW and any rules adopted under this chapter. The department may place conditions on the permit to include additional requirements necessary to protect employees, human health, and the environment, including special management requirements, waste segregation, or treatment techniques such as neutralization, detoxification, and solidification/stabilization.

(5) The department shall give notice of its receipt of a permit application to interested persons and the public and shall accept public comment for a minimum of thirty days. The department shall issue, issue with conditions, or deny the permit within ninety days of submittal.

(6) The department shall adopt rules to implement the provisions of this chapter. The rules shall (a) establish minimum requirements for the management of special incinerator ash as necessary to protect employees, human health, and the environment, (b) clearly define the elements of the plans required by this chapter, and (c) require special incinerator ash to be disposed at facilities that are operating in compliance with this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) Any person who violates any provision of a department regulation or regulatory order relating to the management of special incinerator ash shall incur in addition to any other penalty provided by law, a penalty in an amount up to ten thousand dollars a day for every such violation. Each and every such violation shall be a separate and distinct offense. If case of continuing violation, every day's continuance shall be a separate and distinct violation. Every person who, through an act of commission or omission, procures, aids, or abets in the violation shall be considered to have violated the provisions of this section and shall be subject to the penalty herein provided.

(2) The penalty provided for in this section shall be imposed by a notice in writing, either by certified mail with return receipt requested or by personal service, to the person incurring the same from the department, describing the violation with reasonable particularity. Within fifteen days after the notice is received, the person incurring the penalty may apply in writing to the department for the remission or mitigation of such penalty. Upon receipt of the application, the department may remit or mitigate the penalty upon whatever terms the department in its discretion deems proper, giving consideration to the degree of hazard associated with the violation, provided the department deems such remission or mitigation to be in the best interests of carrying out the purposes of this chapter. The department shall have authority to ascertain the facts regarding all such applications in such reasonable manner and under such rules as it may deem proper.

(3) Any penalty imposed by this section shall become due and payable thirty days after receipt of a notice imposing the same unless application for remission or mitigation is made or petition for review by the hearings board is filed. When such an application for remission or mitigation is made, any penalty incurred pursuant to this section shall become due and payable thirty days after receipt of notice setting forth the disposition of such application.

(4) If the amount of any penalty is not paid to the department within thirty days after it becomes due and payable, the attorney general, upon the request of the director, shall bring an action in the name of the state of Washington in the superior court of Thurston county, or any county in which such violator may do business, to recover such penalty. In all such actions, the procedure and rules of evidence shall be the same as an ordinary civil action except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. Whenever a person violates any provision of this chapter or any permit or regulation the department may issue an order appropriate under the circumstances to assure compliance with the chapter, permit, or regulation. Such an order must be served personally or by registered mail upon any person to whom it is directed.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. The department, with the assistance of the attorney general, may bring any appropriate action at law or in equity, including action for injunctive relief as may be necessary to enforce the provisions of this chapter or any permit or regulation issued thereunder.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. Any person found guilty of wilfully violating, without sufficient cause, any of the provisions of this chapter, or permit or order issued pursuant to this chapter is guilty of a gross misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of up to ten thousand dollars and costs of prosecution, or by imprisonment for up to one year, or by both. Each day of violation may be deemed a separate violation.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. Any person aggrieved by an action taken under this chapter, or the failure of another to take an action under this chapter when required to do so, may bring an appropriate action in law or equity to the pollution control hearings board pursuant to the provisions of chapter 43.21B RCW, except that such action shall be expedited by the board to the maximum extent possible. In any appeal of the board's decision, the court may award reasonable costs and attorneys' fees to the prevailing party.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 70.105 RCW to read as follows:

This chapter does not apply to special incinerator ash regulated under chapter 70.— (sections 1 through 8, 11, and 12 of this act) except that, for purposes of RCW 4.22.070(3)(a), special incinerator ash shall be considered hazardous waste.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. The department shall submit draft rules required by section 3 of this act to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature for review by January 1, 1988. Final rules shall be adopted by April 1, 1988.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. This chapter shall be known as the special incinerator ash disposal act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. Sections 1 through 10 of this act shall not apply to municipal solid waste incinerators that are in operation on the effective date of this section until a special incinerator waste disposal permit is issued in the county where the municipal solid waste incinerator is located, or July 1, 1989, whichever is sooner.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. Sections 1 through 8, 11, and 12 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "residues"; strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new section to chapter 70.105 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 70 RCW; creating new sections; prescribing penalties; and declaring an emergency."

On page 3, after line 8, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. (1) The Washington state legislature finds that the state faces a solid waste disposal crisis. The siting of new landfills, the location and design of new solid waste incinerators, the disposal of ash residue, and compliance with the priorities of the solid waste management act and the hazardous waste management act require that an effort be made by the state to ensure that local governments and private industry have adequate technical information, and that programs are developed to accomplish the statutory waste management priorities.

(2) A comprehensive evaluation of preferred solid waste management programs shall be undertaken by the joint select committee for preferred solid waste management. The committee shall consist of four members of the house of representatives appointed by the speaker of the house and four members of the senate appointed by the president of the senate. The committee shall involve representatives of organizations representing cities, counties, the public, the waste management industry, waste haulers, and the private recycling industry. The committee shall report its findings and recommendations to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature by January 1, 1988.

(3) The department of ecology may provide the committee with specific recommendations on waste management programs from studies the department has undertaken as required by RCW 70.95.263.

(4) The committee shall attempt to determine the reasons why higher rates of waste reduction and recycling have not been achieved in the state and develop recommendations on how to achieve higher rates.

(5) The committee's recommendations shall include (a) specific programs for waste reduction, recycling, incineration, and landfills, (b) specific goals for solid waste management, and (c) specific responsibilities for state government, local government, and the private sectors to accomplish the committee's recommendations. The committee shall also recommend specific legislation and rule-making requirements to accomplish the committee's findings.

(6) The joint select committee for preferred solid waste management shall cease to exist on July 1, 1988.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Renumber the remaining section consecutively..

MOTION

Senator Kreidler moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5570.

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bender, Senator Tanner was excused.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Kreidler, several years ago we established a list of priorities or a set of priorities for the handling of waste--landfills, recycling, that kind of thing. Does this bill in any way, shape or form, alter the priority list for dealing with waste, as the Legislature established it several years ago?"

Senator Kreidler: "Senator Talmadge, I know of your interest in that particular priority scheme, because I believe it was an amendment of yours that established that several years ago where waste reduction--recycling--would precede incineration. No, this bill in no way will infringe on that waste priority scheme."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Barr: "Senator Bluechel, you referred to all of the people involved and I assume that included the Spokane people who are first on line for an activity of this sort. Did this have their concurrence also?"

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Barr, I did not hear directly from the Spokane people, but they were aware of the problem. I think there was no one who wasn't aware of the problem and they did work, to my knowledge--all of the involved people--and I can't say whether it was Spokane or not--worked extensively with the House to develop the draft that we have before us."

Senator Barr: "Senator Bluechel, you said that they rewrote the bill and you said they concurred. Would you care to explain just a little bit to us, seeing how we don't know for sure if the Spokane people were involved, of the changes--how it would affect the disposition of that ash?"

Senator Bluechel: "In essence, the bill that left the Senate was very clean and straight forward and had limited--let's call it interference from the Department of Ecology. Under the revised bill, the Department of Ecology is empowered to do considerably more regulation of the disposal of the ash than they would have been able to do under the bill as it passed the Senate."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Bluechel, I hope the residents and the groups concerned about Cedar Hills were also consulted on the new draft. Were the Cedar Hills' activists in anyway consulted on this?"

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Pullen, I can't answer that question, but I would say that the Cedar Hills' activists would be more pleased with the House version which we are about to pass, than the Senate version which originally passed."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Saling: "Senator Kreidler, in looking at one of the comments in our green sheet here it says, 'provides incinerator ash with an exemption under the Tort Reform Act to allow the imposition of joint and several liability.' Would you explain to me what that amendment would do?"

Senator Kreidler: "It's actually duplicative, because the bill that we passed last year dealing with tort reform, exempted hazardous and solid waste from the Tort Reform Act from the standpoint of joint and several. This just reiterates that as it would apply to a separate chapter now established for special waste. In other words, you have a situation now where solid waste, which would be your regular garbage, and hazardous waste, which would be your more dangerous types of waste, would be exempted from joint and several. That was specifically addressed in the tort reform bill. This just says for this new chapter, that would be established for special waste and that same exemption would apply, so you essentially don't allow it to be removed from joint and several."

Senator Saling: "In other words, if the Spokane incinerator, when it's going and the Department of Ecology tests the ash and decides it is hazardous, the city would be exempt from the joint and several liability laws?"

Senator Kreidler: "No, it would be the opposite. They would still be under it."

Senator Saling: "They would still be liable?"

Senator Kreidler: "Yes, that's right."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: "Senator Bottiger, we've been told that the fly ash is extremely hazardous and the bottom ash is hazardous. Now, if they are taken out of the joint and several liability under the Tort Reform Act, how many people would that involve if there was a lawsuit from say, cancer victims or something like that from it—the incineration process?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, you start with a presumption which I do not agree with. The people who have talked to me and the ones who have the education and the background to cause me to believe them, I can't say that people haven't told me that this stuff is hazardous, but the ones that seem to know what they are talking about have clearly said the bottom ash is not hazardous. It would be a very good material to use in concrete roads. It's very adhesive and it compacts. The fly ash may or may not be and there is a big dispute as to whether it is hazardous. You will find some experts who will tell you that it depends on how hot the furnace was that created the fly ash as to whether or not it's hazardous. The incinerator could be operated in such a way to create a fly ash that is hazardous, but hopefully they won't do that.

"Now, as I understand it, if an incinerator deposited its fly ash in a single repository and nobody else contributed, they and they alone would be liable if it turned out that the fly ash was hazardous. If they went together and pooled and created one repository for the fly ash, which I think is probably what will happen, then all of the people who put it in are jointly and severally liable if we, the tax payers, have to come back later and clean it up."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Lee, is there anything that prohibits incineration at the present time over there in King County?"

Senator Lee: "No, there is nothing that prohibits incineration. One of the interesting things about this, Senator Rasmussen, is that when I first moved to King County in about 1953, my father-in-law and Phyllis Lamphere, whom some of you know, were members of a committee that was appointed by the then Mayor, Dorm Braman, to study what should be done about garbage. That was before they opened these two landfills out in my district and they recommended, at that point in time, that it be incinerated--that an incinerator be built--but they turned it down because it was cheaper to take and dump it. It would have cost them a little more to build that incinerator. Well, of course, now they are rueing the day that they didn't pay attention to their experts. I think it's about time we do pay attention to the experts."

Senator Rasmussen: "Can I ask a further question? In the event you do build an incineration plant and in the event it is proved that the ash from that plant is all right to dump where ever you want to, we don't need this law."

Senator Lee: "The reason for the need for the law, in my opinion, is that at the present time we do not have any state regulations for how that fly ash shall be handled and I do think we need some close control over what happens to that ash, where it's put, monitoring and so on. We didn't do that kind of monitoring of our landfills and we certainly should do it for the concentrated material that is left from the incineration."

Senator Rasmussen: "From my service on the Puget Sound Air Pollution Control, I thought that they had the control of the fly ash and the particulars submitted and that the Department of Ecology had the control of toxic waste if it's going to be taken from one county to another. They can do that now. Can they not?"

Senator Lee: "If you are going to hold it within the county and particularly, when taking it across county lines, it presently only takes an inter-local agreement to do it. Let me direct the issue of fly ash. Fly ash, at the present time, because we don't want it to go into the air, is collected in scrubbers and various kinds of mechanical devices and something has to be done with it. In addition of course, even at very high temperatures and high rates of burning, there is some residue ash that is left and we do need to do something with that, that is safe. So, no matter which county you live in, which town you might move to, you know that it's being monitored and that we have a state law in place that says that it shall be monitored and be handled safely. We don't have that law in at this point in time."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, the general pollution control laws would control that, I would think."

Senator Lee: "Not the specifics as far as monitoring is concerned. The controls, at the present time, only take effect after a problem comes about, but they don't have the kind of control that we need to prevent the problem from happening."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, I am pretty sure that the Department of Ecology has to issue a permit for dumping what ever it is."

Senator Lee: "They have the ability to issue the permit, or not issue the permit, but they don't have the monitoring ability that I think they need."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Kreidler that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5570.

The motion by Senator Kreidler carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5570.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5570, as amended by the House.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Bottiger, as a sponsor of the bill would you clarify where the ash residues from waste-to-energy facilities would be disposed of under the provisions of this bill?"

Senator Bottiger: "Ash residues determined to be hazardous under federal standards would have to go to an approved hazardous waste site. Incidentally, those are currently in Oregon and will be full in three years. Then it would be Texas or Illinois. Otherwise, the ash residues would be disposed of in local landfills meeting the strict environmental requirements of the new minimum functional standards which include the use of liners, leachate collection, and underground water monitoring. However, the Department of Ecology would have the authority to impose additional requirements for disposal of ash in such landfills if it is necessary to protect human health or the environment."

Senator Bluechel: "Would fly ash and bottom ash be required to be handled separately?"

Senator Bottiger: "The legislation provides flexibility to handle the various ash products together, which is the current EPA approved and preferred method. However, the Department of Ecology would have the authority to restrict this practice if it were found necessary to protect human health or the environment."

Senator Bluechel: "Is it the intent of the Legislature that the recycling study called for in this bill shall set the parameters for rules and regulations on how to jointly meet the state's priorities for recycling, waste reduction and waste incineration?"

Senator Bottiger: "Yes, that is our intent that the Joint Select Committee created in this bill shall thoroughly study the questions of recycling methods, markets and techniques. Additionally, they are to look at the technical and policy issues surrounding waste reduction methods, other than recycling, and the questions relating to recycling and waste incineration. The Department of Ecology shall provide technical assistance to the Joint Select Committee and subsequently promulgate rules and regulations on the relationship of incineration and recycling based on the findings and recommendations contained in the Joint Select Committee's final report to the Legislature."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 14, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5380 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 96, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 306, Laws of 1986 and RCW 41.32.485 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, effective July 1, ~~((1986))~~ 1987, as a cost-of-living adjustment, no beneficiary receiving a retirement allowance pursuant to this chapter shall receive, as the pension portion of that retirement allowance, less than thirteen dollars and fifty cents per month for each year of service creditable to the person whose service is the basis of the pension. Portions of a year shall be treated as fractions of a year and the decimal equivalent shall be multiplied by thirteen dollars and fifty cents. Where the pension payable was adjusted at the time benefit payments to the beneficiary commenced, the minimum pension provided in this section shall be adjusted in a manner consistent with that adjustment.

(2) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, effective July 1, 1979, the retirement allowance of each beneficiary who either is receiving benefits pursuant to RCW 41.32.520 or 41.32.550 as of December 31, 1978, or commenced receiving a monthly retirement allowance under this chapter as of a date no later than July 1, 1974, shall be permanently increased by a post-retirement adjustment. This adjustment shall be in lieu of any adjustments provided under RCW 41.32.499(6) as of July 1, 1979, or July 1, 1980, for the affected beneficiaries. Such adjustment shall be calculated as follows:

(a) Retirement allowances to which this subsection and subsection (1) of this section are both applicable shall be determined by first applying subsection (1) and then applying this subsection. The department shall determine the total years of creditable service and the total dollar benefit base accrued as of December 31, 1978, except that this determination shall take into account only those beneficiaries to whom this subsection applies;

(b) The department shall multiply the total benefits determined in (a) of this subsection by six percent and divide the dollar value thus determined by the total service determined in (a) of this subsection. The resultant figure shall then be a post-retirement increase factor which shall be applied as specified in (c) of this subsection;

(c) Each beneficiary to whom this subsection applies shall receive an increase which is the product of the factor determined in (b) of this subsection multiplied by the years of creditable service.

(3) The provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall not be applicable to those receiving benefits pursuant to RCW 41.32.540 or 41.32.760 through 41.32.825.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 96, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 306, Laws of 1986 and RCW 41.40.198 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, effective July 1, (~~1986~~) 1987, as a cost-of-living adjustment, no beneficiary receiving a retirement allowance pursuant to this chapter shall receive, as the pension portion of that retirement allowance, less than thirteen dollars and fifty cents per month for each year of service creditable to the person whose service is the basis of the pension. Portions of a year shall be treated as fractions of a year and the decimal equivalent shall be multiplied by thirteen dollars and fifty cents. Where the pension payable was adjusted at the time benefit payments to the beneficiary commenced, the minimum pension provided in this section shall be adjusted in a manner consistent with that adjustment.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall not be applicable to those receiving benefits pursuant to RCW 41.40.220(1), 41.44.170(5), or 41.40.610 through 41.40.740. For persons who served as elected officials and whose accumulated employee contributions and credited interest was less than seven hundred fifty dollars at the time of retirement, the minimum benefit under subsection (1) of this section shall be ten dollars per month for each year of creditable service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 41.32 RCW to read as follows:

Beginning July 1, 1988, and every year thereafter, the department shall determine the following information for the minimum retirement allowance provided by RCW 41.32.485(1):

(1) The dollar amount of the minimum retirement allowance as of July 1, 1988;

(2) The index for the 1986 calendar year, to be known as "index A";

(3) The index for the calendar year prior to the date of determination, to be known as "index B"; and

(4) The ratio obtained when index B is divided by index A.

The value of the ratio obtained shall be the annual adjustment to the minimum retirement allowance and shall be applied beginning with the July payment. In no event, however, shall the annual adjustment:

(a) Produce a retirement allowance which is lower than the minimum retirement allowance as of July 1, 1987;

(b) Exceed three percent in the initial annual adjustment; or

(c) Differ from the previous year's annual adjustment by more than three percent.

For the purposes of this section, "index" means, for any calendar year, that year's average consumer price index—Seattle, Washington area for urban wage earners and clerical workers, all items, compiled by the bureau of labor statistics, United States department of labor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 41.40 RCW to read as follows:

Beginning July 1, 1988, and every year thereafter, the department shall determine the following information for the minimum retirement allowance provided by RCW 41.40.198(1):

(1) The dollar amount of the minimum retirement allowance as of July 1, 1988;

(2) The index for the 1986 calendar year, to be known as "index A";

(3) The index for the calendar year prior to the date of determination, to be known as "index B"; and

(4) The ratio obtained when index B is divided by index A.

The value of the ratio obtained shall be the annual adjustment to the minimum retirement allowance and shall be applied beginning with the July payment. In no event, however, shall the annual adjustment:

(a) Produce a retirement allowance which is lower than the minimum retirement allowance as of July 1, 1987;

(b) Exceed three percent in the initial annual adjustment; or

(c) Differ from the previous year's annual adjustment by more than three percent.

April 22, 1987

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the measure as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 1, chapter 197, Laws of 1986 and RCW 18.27.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every contractor shall register with the department.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 3, chapter 153, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.27.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Sec. 3. Section 10, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 1, chapter 68, Laws of 1980 and RCW 18.27.100 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as provided in RCW 18.27.020 for partnerships and joint ventures, no person who has registered under one name as provided in this chapter shall engage in the business, or act in the capacity of a contractor under any other name unless such name also is registered hereunder. All advertising and all contracts, correspondence, cards, signs, posters, papers, and documents (~~prepared by a contractor~~) which show a contractor's name or address shall show the contractor's name or address as registered hereunder. The alphabetized listing of contractors appearing in the advertising section of telephone books or other directories and all advertising (~~prepared by a contractor~~), including by airwave transmission, which shows or announces the contractor's name or address shall show or announce the contractor's current registration number: PROVIDED, That signs on motor vehicles subject to RCW 46.16.010 and on-premise signs shall not constitute advertising as provided in this section. All materials (~~prepared by a contractor and~~) used to directly solicit business from retail customers who are not businesses shall show the contractor's current registration number. No contractor shall advertise that he is bonded and insured because of the bond required to be filed and sufficiency of insurance as provided in this chapter. A contractor shall not falsify a registration number and use it in connection with any solicitation or identification as a contractor. All individual contractors and all partners, associates, agents, salesmen, solicitors, officers, and employees of contractors shall use their true names and addresses at all times while engaged in the business or capacity of a contractor or activities related thereto. Any person who is found to be in violation of this section by the director at a hearing held in accordance with the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, shall be required to pay a penalty of not more than ((one)) five thousand dollars as determined by the director. However, the penalty under this section shall not apply to a violation determined to be an inadvertent error.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 18.27 RCW to read as follows:

When determining a violation of RCW 18.27.100, the director and administrative law judge shall hold responsible the person who purchased the advertising.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 18.27 RCW to read as follows:

(1) If, upon investigation, the director or the director's designee has probable cause to believe that a person holding a registration, an applicant for registration, or an unregistered person acting in the capacity of a contractor who is not otherwise exempted from this chapter, has violated RCW 18.27.100 by unlawfully advertising for work covered by this chapter in an alphabetical or classified directory, the department may issue a citation under chapter 34.04 RCW containing an order of correction. Such order shall require the violator to cease the unlawful advertising.

(2) If the person to whom a citation is issued under subsection (1) of this section notifies the department in writing that he or she contests the citation, the department shall afford an opportunity for a hearing, under chapter 34.04 RCW, within thirty days after receiving the notification.

Sec. 6. Section 4, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 18, chapter 2, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.27.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each applicant shall, at the time of applying for or renewing a certificate of registration, file with the department a surety bond issued by a surety insurer who meets the requirements of chapter 48.28 RCW in a form acceptable to the department running to the state of Washington if a general contractor, in the sum of six thousand dollars; if a specialty contractor, in the sum of four thousand dollars, conditioned that the applicant will pay all persons performing labor, including employee benefits, for the contractor, will pay all taxes and contributions due to the state of Washington, and will pay all persons furnishing labor or material or renting or supplying equipment to the contractor and will pay all amounts that may be adjudged against the contractor by reason of negligent or improper work or breach of contract in the conduct of the contracting business. A change in the name of a business or a change in the type of business entity shall not impair a bond for the purposes of this section so long as one of the original applicants for such bond maintains partial ownership in the business covered by the bond.

(2) Any contractor registered as of the effective date of this 1983 act who maintains such registration in accordance with this chapter shall be in compliance with this chapter until the next annual renewal of the contractor's certificate of registration. At that time, the contractor shall provide a bond, cash deposit, or other security deposit as required by this chapter and comply with all of the other provisions of this chapter before the department shall renew the contractor's certificate of registration.

(3) Any person, firm, or corporation having a claim against the contractor for any of the items referred to in this section may bring suit upon such bond in the superior court of the county in which the work is done or of any county in which jurisdiction of the contractor may be had. The surety issuing the bond shall be named as a party to any suit upon the bond. Action upon such bond or deposit shall be commenced by filing the complaint with the clerk of the appropriate superior court within one year from the date of expiration of the certificate of registration in force at the time the claimed labor was performed and benefits accrued, taxes and contributions owing the state of Washington became due, materials and equipment were furnished, or the claimed contract work was completed. Service of process in an action upon such bond shall be exclusively by service upon the department. Three copies of the complaint and a fee of ten dollars to cover the handling costs shall be served by registered or certified mail upon the department at the time suit is started and the department shall maintain a record, available for public inspection, of all suits so commenced. Service is not complete until the department receives the ten-dollar fee and three copies of the complaint. Such service shall constitute service on the registrant and the surety for suit upon the bond and the department shall transmit the complaint or a copy thereof to the registrant at the address listed in his application and to the surety within forty-eight hours after it shall have been received.

(4) The surety upon the bond shall not be liable in an aggregate amount in excess of the amount named in the bond nor for any monetary penalty assessed pursuant to this chapter for an infraction. The surety upon the bond may, upon notice to the department and the parties, tender to the clerk of the court having jurisdiction of the action an amount equal to the claims thereunder or the amount of the bond less the amount of judgments, if any, previously satisfied therefrom and to the extent of such tender the surety upon the bond shall be exonerated but if the actions commenced and pending at any one time exceed the amount of the bond then unimpaired, claims shall be satisfied from the bond in the following order:

- (a) Labor, including employee benefits;
- (b) Claims for breach of contract by a party to the construction contract;
- (c) Material and equipment;
- (d) Taxes and contributions due the state of Washington;
- (e) Any court costs, interest, and attorney's fees plaintiff may be entitled to recover.

(5) In the event that any final judgment shall impair the liability of the surety upon the bond so furnished that there shall not be in effect a bond undertaking in the full amount prescribed in this section, the department shall suspend the registration of such contractor until the bond liability in the required amount unimpaired by unsatisfied judgment claims shall have been furnished. If such bond becomes fully impaired, a new bond must be furnished at the increased rates prescribed by this section as now or hereafter amended.

(6) In lieu of the surety bond required by this section the contractor may file with the department a deposit consisting of cash or other security acceptable to the department.

(7) Any person having an unsatisfied final judgment against the registrant for any items referred to in this section may execute upon the security held by the department by serving a certified copy of the unsatisfied final judgment by registered or certified mail upon the department within one year of the date of entry of such judgment. Upon the receipt of service of such certified copy the department shall pay or order paid from the deposit, through the registry of the superior court which rendered judgment, towards the amount of the unsatisfied judgment. The priority of payment by the department shall be the order of receipt by the department, but the department shall have no liability for payment in excess of the amount of the deposit.

(8) The director may promulgate rules necessary for the proper administration of the security."

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 611, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Representatives Scott, S. Wilson, P. King, Hankins, Zellinsky, Allen, R. King, Day, Haugen, May, Hargrove, Cantwell, J. Williams, Sprengle, Jesernig and Miller)

Providing funds to offset the impact of the Navy home port in Everett.

The bill was read the second time.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talmadge: "A point of order, Mr. President. Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 611 is a bill that I do not believe pertains to the issues that are within the ambient of the cut-off by the House and the Senate. The question that I have, Mr.

President, is Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 611 still within the parameters of the cut-off resolution which says it must deal with matters pertaining to the budget? I don't believe Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 611 is referenced in any of the various versions of the budget now pending before the Legislature."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 611 was deferred.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 758, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Representatives Sutherland, Belcher, McMullen and P. King) (by request of Governor Gardner)

Establishing the department of wildlife.

The bill was read the second time.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I would like to raise the question as to whether Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 758 is properly before the Senate at this time. The reason being that, in the old days we used to hook a little appropriation on to all the bills and that kept them alive beyond the cut-off date. This bill, of course, has been in existence for a long time and it could have been passed prior to the cut-off. Now, the fact that it includes $8,000,000 instead of $800,000 or $80 would have no bearing on it. It's a bill that should not be here at the cut-off, because we have the budget bill which takes care of budget-related issues. Somebody has put an appropriation on here to make it seem like it's alive. Would the President rule on that—whether it matters if it is $8, $80 or $8,000,000 as far as keeping the bill alive?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The bill must implement the budget, Senator. The President will have to take this under consideration."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, further consideration of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 758 was deferred.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate resume consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 527 and the pending motion by Senator McDermott that the Senate do not adopt the Committee on Ways and Means amendment, as amended, on reconsideration, deferred earlier today.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Newhouse: "Mr. President, a point of order. My point of order is that I believe there is an amendment on the desk that must be considered before we vote on final disposition of the bill."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "There is an amendment on the desk, Senator."

MOTION

At 2:08 p.m. on motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 3:40 p.m. by President Cherberg.

Debate ensued.

MOTION

Senator Kreidler moved that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 527 be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stratton: "Senator Kreidler, since we've had this striking amendment on our desk, we have received--I only have a few of them that I can hold up--these numbers of amendments. Can you tell me why those have not been offered?"

Senator Kreidler: "Senator Stratton, I would say that the reason they have not been offered is because we have been carrying on a debate at the current time on the striking amendment that was offered. I trust that the amendments can still be offered. Obviously, there is going to be a parliamentary maneuver that would certainly keep them from being ones that could be added to the bill."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Kreidler, do you recall a certain day--the last Ways and Means Committee meeting where there were two hundred and fifty people waiting to testify? Rasmussen wasn't there, because he would have been there three minutes late. Do you recall that Ways and Means meeting?"

Senator Kreidler: "Yes, Senator, I recall that Ways and Means meeting and the fact is that I had some amendments I chose not to offer at the time, but if I had chosen to offer them, they would have been duly considered and been a part of the record of that particular hearing as it would have been for any other member, but no one rose to offer their amendments and, therefore, it was not a hearing where amendments were heard."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Rasmussen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Kreidler to refer Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 527 to the Committee on Ways and Means.

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Your point of order is well taken, Senator Newhouse."

MOTION

Senator Vognild moved that Rule No. 133 of Reed's Parliamentary Rules be suspended to allow amendments to be heard to the amendment by Senators Owen, McDonald, Stratton and Cantu to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Rule No. 133 reads: Amendment to the Amendment. - In case the amendment offered, while satisfactory in its design does not in the opinion of a member exactly meet the case, he is at liberty to propose an amendment to the amendment. Here, however, the process must end, for there must somewhere be a limit or confusion would ensue. The general judgment of assemblies has settled upon the limitation of amendments to the second degree. If the amendment to the amendment is not satisfactory to the assembly it can be voted down, and then a new amendment to the amendment will be in order, which in its turn can be rejected, and so on until the assembly is satisfied. (See Sec. 149)

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Newhouse: "Mr. President, would that be a suspension of the rules--the motion by Senator Vognild?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Not actually, it would take a two-thirds vote."
Further debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Newhouse: "Mr. President, I believe on a suspension of the rules that this motion is one of a speaker on each side for short remarks."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President has always permitted one speaker from each side to speak rather than limit the amount. It would be out of order to recognize you, Senator Kreidler."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Vognild to suspend Reed's Rule 133.

The motion by Senator Vognild failed.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I can't ever recall whether we suspended Reed's Rules."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "I can't either, Senator."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Owen, McDonald, Stratton and Cantu to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: SHB 116

Modifying procedures for administrative approval of plats.

April 23, 1987

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the measure as follows:

On page 5, after line 11, strike all material down to and including line 24 on page 6 and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 58.17 RCW to read as follows:

Whenever any person is interested in the vacation of any subdivision or portion thereof, or any area designated or dedicated for public use, that person shall file an application for vacation with the legislative authority of the city, town, or county in which the subdivision is located. The application shall set forth the reasons for vacation and shall contain signatures of all parties having an ownership interest in that portion of the subdivision subject to vacation. If the subdivision is subject to restrictive covenants which were filed at the time of the approval of the subdivision, and the application for vacation would result in the violation of a covenant, the application shall contain an agreement signed by all parties subject to the covenants providing that the parties agree to terminate or alter the relevant covenants to accomplish the purpose of the vacation of the subdivision or portion thereof.

When the vacation application is specifically for a county road or city or town street, the procedures for road vacation or street vacation in chapter 36.87 or 35.79 RCW shall be utilized for the road or street vacation. When the application is for the vacation of the plat together with the roads and/or streets, the procedure for vacation in this section shall be used, but vacations of streets may not be made that are prohibited under RCW 35.79.030, and vacations of roads may not be made that are prohibited under RCW 36.87.130.

The legislative authority of the city, town, or county shall give notice as provided in RCW 58.17.080 and 58.17.090 and shall conduct a public hearing on the application for a vacation and may approve or deny the application for vacation of the subdivision after determining the public use and interest to be served by the vacation of the subdivision. If any portion of the land contained in the subdivision was dedicated to the public for public use or benefit, such land, if not deeded to the city, town, or county, shall be deeded to the city, town, or county unless the legislative authority shall set forth findings that the public use would not be served in retaining title to those lands.

Title to the vacated property shall vest with the rightful owner as shown in the county records. If the vacated land is land that was dedicated to the public, for public use other than a road or street, and the legislative authority has found that retaining title to the land is not in the public interest, title thereto shall vest with the person or persons owning the property on each side thereof, as determined by the legislative authority. When the road or street that is to be vacated was contained wholly within the subdivision and is part of the boundary of the subdivision, title to the vacated road or street shall vest with the owner or owners of property contained within the vacated subdivision.

This section shall not be construed as applying to the vacation of any plat of state granted-tide or shore lands.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 58.17 RCW to read as follows:

When any person is interested in the alteration of any subdivision or the altering of any portion thereof, except as provided in RCW 58.17.040(6), that person shall submit an application to request the alteration to the legislative authority of the city, town, or county where the subdivision is located. The application shall contain the signatures of the majority of those persons having an ownership interest of lots, tracts, parcels, sites, or divisions in the subject subdivision or portion to be altered. If the subdivision is subject to restrictive covenants which were filed at the time of the approval of the subdivision, and the application for alteration would result in the violation of a covenant, the application shall contain an agreement signed by all parties subject to the covenants providing that the parties agree to terminate or alter the relevant covenants to accomplish the purpose of the alteration of the subdivision or portion thereof.

Upon receipt of an application for alteration, the legislative body shall provide notice of the application to all owners of property within the subdivision, and as provided for in RCW 58.17.080 and 58.17.090. The notice shall either establish a date for a public hearing or provide that a hearing may be requested by a person receiving notice within fourteen days of receipt of the notice.

The legislative body shall determine the public use and interest in the proposed alteration and may deny or approve the application for alteration. If any land within the alteration is part of an assessment district, any outstanding assessments shall be equitably divided and levied against the remaining lots, parcels, or tracts, or be levied equitably on the lots resulting from the alteration. If any land within the alteration contains a dedication to the general use of persons residing within the subdivision, such land may be altered and divided equitably between the adjacent properties.

After approval of the alteration, the legislative body shall order the applicant to produce a revised drawing of the approved alteration of the final plat or short plat, which after signature of the legislative authority, shall be filed with the county auditor to become the lawful plat of the property.

This section shall not be construed as applying to the alteration or replatting of any plat of state-granted tide or shore lands.

Sec. 5. Section 6, chapter 271, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 134, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 58.17.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislative body of a city, town, or county shall adopt regulations and procedures, and appoint administrative personnel for the summary approval of short plats and short subdivisions ~~(or revision thereof)~~ or alteration or vacation thereof. When an alteration or vacation involves a public dedication, the alteration or vacation shall be processed as provided in section 3 or 4 of this 1987 act. Such regulations shall be adopted by ordinance and may contain wholly different requirements than those governing the approval of preliminary and final plats of subdivisions and may require surveys and monumentations and shall require filing of a short plat, or alteration or vacation thereof, for record in the office of the county auditor: PROVIDED, That such regulations must contain a requirement that land in short subdivisions may not be further divided in any manner within a period of five years without the filing of a final plat: PROVIDED FURTHER, That such regulations are not required to contain a penalty clause as provided in RCW 36.32.120 and may provide for wholly injunctive relief.

An ordinance requiring a survey shall require that the survey be completed and filed with the application for approval of the short subdivision.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 58.17 RCW to read as follows:

Whenever a survey of a proposed subdivision or short subdivision reveals a discrepancy, the discrepancy shall be noted on the face of the final plat or short plat. Any discrepancy shall be disclosed in a title report prepared by a title insurer and issued after the filing of the final plat or short plat. As used in this section, "discrepancy" means: (1) A boundary hiatus; (2) an overlapping boundary; or (3) a physical appurtenance, which indicates encroachment, lines of possession, or conflict of title.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 58.17 RCW to read as follows:

Any hearing required by section 3 or 4 of this act or RCW 58.17.060 may be administered by a hearings examiner as provided in RCW 58.17.330.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (2) Section 2, page 27, Laws of 1857, section 2, page 432, Laws of 1862, section 2, page 410, Laws of 1869, section 2334, Code of 1881 and RCW 58.11.020;

On motion of Senator Smitherman, the Report of the Conference Committee on Substitute House Bill No. 364 was adopted and the committee was granted the powers of Free Conference.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: EHB 435

Revising provisions on inactive real estate licenses.

April 23, 1987

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the measure as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 8, chapter 370, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 162, Laws of 1985 and RCW 18.85.215 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any license issued under this chapter and not otherwise revoked shall be deemed "inactive" at any time it is delivered to the director. Until reissued under this chapter, the holder of an inactive license shall be deemed to be unlicensed.

(2) An inactive license may be renewed on the same terms and conditions as an active license, and failure to renew shall result in cancellation in the same manner as an active license.

(3) An inactive license may be placed in an active status upon completion of an application as provided by the director and upon compliance with this chapter and the rules adopted pursuant thereto. If a holder has an inactive license for more than three years, the holder must show proof of successfully completing a thirty clock hour course in real estate within one year prior to the application for active status. Holders employed by the state and conducting real estate transactions on behalf of the state are exempt from this course requirement.

(4) The provisions of this chapter relating to the denial, suspension, and revocation of a license shall be applicable to an inactive license as well as an active license, except that when proceedings to suspend or revoke an inactive license have been initiated, the license shall remain inactive until the proceedings have been completed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 18.85 RCW to read as follows:

No person licensed under this chapter who is employed by the state and who is conducting real estate transactions on behalf of the state may hold an active license under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The legislature recognizes the value of an analytical review, removed from the political process, of proposals for regulation of professions not currently regulated and of proposals for increased regulation of professions, such as real estate, which the legislature already regulates. The legislature further finds that policies and standards set out for regulation of the health professions have equal applicability to other professions. To further the goal of governmental regulation only as necessary to protect the public interest and to promote economic development through employment, the legislature expands the scope of chapter 18.120 RCW to apply to business professions. The legislature intends that the reviews of proposed business profession regulation be conducted by the department of licensing's policy and research rather than regulatory staff and that the reviews be conducted and recommendations made in an impartial manner. Further, the legislature intends that the department of licensing provide sufficient staffing to conduct the reviews. Sections 3 through 7 of this act shall not be construed as affecting the application of standards for health professions under chapter 18.120 RCW prior to the effective date of this section.

Sec. 4. Section 1, chapter 168, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.120.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The purpose of this chapter is to establish guidelines for the regulation of both business and health professions not licensed or regulated prior to ((July 24, 1983)) the effective date of this 1987 section, and those licensed or regulated business or health professions which seek legislation to substantially increase their scope of practice or the level of regulation of the profession: PROVIDED, That the provisions of this chapter are not intended and shall not be construed to: (a) Apply to any regulatory entity created prior to ((July 24, 1983)) the effective date of this 1987 section, except as provided in this chapter; (b) affect the powers and responsibilities of the superintendent of public instruction or state board of education under RCW 28A.04.120 and 28A.70.005; (c) apply to or interfere in any way with the practice of religion or to any kind of treatment by prayer; ~~((and))~~ (d) apply to any remedial or technical amendments to any statutes which licensed or regulated activity before ~~((July 24, 1983))~~ the effective date of this 1987 section; and (e) apply to proposals relating solely to continuing education. The legislature believes that all individuals should be permitted to enter into a ~~((health))~~ profession unless there is an overwhelming need for the state to protect the interests of the public by restricting entry into the profession. Where such a need is identified, the regulation adopted by the state should be set at the least restrictive level consistent with the public interest to be protected.

(2) It is the intent of this chapter that no regulation shall ~~((after July 24, 1983))~~ be imposed upon any ~~((health))~~ profession except for the exclusive purpose of protecting the public interest. All bills introduced in the legislature to regulate a ~~((health))~~ profession for the first time should be reviewed according to the following criteria. A ~~((health))~~ profession should be regulated by the state only when:

(a) Unregulated practice can clearly harm or endanger the health, safety, or welfare of the public, and the potential for the harm is easily recognizable and not remote or dependent upon tenuous argument;

(b) The public needs and can reasonably be expected to benefit from an assurance of initial and continuing professional ability; and

(c) The public cannot be effectively protected by other means in a more cost-beneficial manner.

(3) After evaluating the criteria in subsection (2) of this section and considering governmental and societal costs and benefits, if the legislature finds that it is necessary to regulate a ~~((health))~~ profession not previously regulated by law, the least restrictive alternative method of regulation should be implemented, consistent with the public interest and this section:

(a) Where existing common law and statutory civil actions and criminal prohibitions are not sufficient to eradicate existing harm, the regulation should provide for stricter civil actions and criminal prosecutions;

(b) Where a service is being performed for individuals involving a hazard to the public health, safety, or welfare, the regulation should impose inspection requirements and enable an appropriate state agency to enforce violations by injunctive relief in court, including, but not limited to, regulation of the business activity providing the service rather than the employees of the business;

(c) Where the threat to the public health, safety, or economic well-being is relatively small as a result of the operation of the ~~((health))~~ profession, the regulation should implement a system of registration;

(d) Where the consumer may have a substantial basis for relying on the services of a practitioner, the regulation should implement a system of certification; or

(e) Where apparent that adequate regulation cannot be achieved by means other than licensing, the regulation should implement a system of licensing.

Sec. 5. Section 3, chapter 117, Laws of 1985 as amended by section 28, chapter 326, Laws of 1985 and RCW 18.120.020 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(3) "Certificate" and "certification" mean a voluntary process by which a statutory regulatory entity grants recognition to an individual who (a) has met certain prerequisite qualifications specified by that regulatory entity, and (b) may assume or use "certified" in the title or designation to perform prescribed ~~((health))~~ professional tasks.

~~((3))~~ (4) "Grandfather clause" means a provision in a regulatory statute applicable to practitioners actively engaged in the regulated ~~((health))~~ profession prior to the effective date of the regulatory statute which exempts the practitioners from meeting the prerequisite qualifications set forth in the regulatory statute to perform prescribed occupational tasks.

((f6)) (7) "Legislative committees of reference" means the standing legislative committees designated by the respective rules committees of the senate and house of representatives to consider proposed legislation to regulate business or health professions not previously regulated.

((f7)) (8) "License", "licensing", and "licensure" mean permission to engage in a business or health profession which would otherwise be unlawful in the state in the absence of the permission. A license is granted to those individuals who meet prerequisite qualifications to perform prescribed business or health professional tasks and for the use of a particular title.

((f11)) (12) "Registration" means the formal notification which, prior to rendering services, a practitioner shall submit to a state agency setting forth the name and address of the practitioner; the location, nature and operation of the ~~((health))~~ activity to be practiced; and, if required by the regulatory entity, a description of the service to be provided.

((f12)) (13) "Regulatory entity" means any board, commission, agency, division, or other unit or subunit of state government which regulates one or more professions, occupations, industries, businesses, or other endeavors in this state.

((f13)) (14) "State agency" includes every state office, department, board, commission, regulatory entity, and agency of the state, and, where provided by law, programs and activities involving less than the full responsibility of a state agency.

Sec. 6, Section 3, chapter 168, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.120.030 are each amended to read as follows:

After ~~((July 24, 1983))~~ the effective date of this 1987 section, if appropriate, applicant groups shall explain each of the following factors to the extent requested by the legislative committees of reference:

(1) A definition of the problem and why regulation is necessary:

(a) The nature of the potential harm to the public if the ~~((health))~~ profession is not regulated, and the extent to which there is a threat to public health and safety;

(b) The extent to which consumers need and will benefit from a method of regulation identifying competent practitioners, indicating typical employers, if any, of practitioners in the ~~((health))~~ profession; and

(c) The extent of autonomy a practitioner has, as indicated by:

(i) The extent to which the ~~((health))~~ profession calls for independent judgment and the extent of skill or experience required in making the independent judgment; and

(ii) The extent to which practitioners are supervised;

(2) The efforts made to address the problem:

(a) Voluntary efforts, if any, by members of the ~~((health))~~ profession to:

(i) Establish a code of ethics; or

(ii) Help resolve disputes between ~~((health))~~ practitioners and consumers; and

(b) Recourse to and the extent of use of applicable law and whether it could be strengthened to control the problem;

(3) The alternatives considered:

(a) Regulation of business employers or practitioners rather than employee practitioners;

(b) Regulation of the program or service rather than the individual practitioners;

(c) Registration of all practitioners;

(d) Certification of all practitioners;

(e) Other alternatives;

(f) Why the use of the alternatives specified in this subsection would not be adequate to protect the public interest; and

(g) Why licensing would serve to protect the public interest;

(4) The benefit to the public if regulation is granted:

(a) The extent to which the incidence of specific problems present in the unregulated ((health)) profession can reasonably be expected to be reduced by regulation;

(b) Whether the public can identify qualified practitioners;

(c) The extent to which the public can be confident that qualified practitioners are competent:

(i) Whether the proposed regulatory entity would be a board composed of members of the profession and public members, or a state agency, or both, and, if appropriate, their respective responsibilities in administering the system of registration, certification, or licensure, including the composition of the board and the number of public members, if any; the powers and duties of the board or state agency regarding examinations and for cause revocation, suspension, and nonrenewal of registrations, certificates, or licenses; the promulgation of rules and canons of ethics; the conduct of inspections; the receipt of complaints and disciplinary action taken against practitioners; and how fees would be levied and collected to cover the expenses of administering and operating the regulatory system;

(ii) If there is a grandfather clause, whether such practitioners will be required to meet the prerequisite qualifications established by the regulatory entity at a later date;

(iii) The nature of the standards proposed for registration, certification, or licensure as compared with the standards of other jurisdictions;

(iv) Whether the regulatory entity would be authorized to enter into reciprocity agreements with other jurisdictions; and

(v) The nature and duration of any training including, but not limited to, whether the training includes a substantial amount of supervised field experience; whether training programs exist in this state; if there will be an experience requirement; whether the experience must be acquired under a registered, certificated, or licensed practitioner; whether there are alternative routes of entry or methods of meeting the prerequisite qualifications; whether all applicants will be required to pass an examination; and, if an examination is required, by whom it will be developed and how the costs of development will be met;

(d) Assurance of the public that practitioners have maintained their competence:

(i) Whether the registration, certification, or licensure will carry an expiration date; and

(ii) Whether renewal will be based only upon payment of a fee, or whether renewal will involve reexamination, peer review, or other enforcement;

(5) The extent to which regulation might harm the public:

(a) The extent to which regulation will restrict entry into the ((health)) profession:

(i) Whether the proposed standards are more restrictive than necessary to insure safe and effective performance; and

(ii) Whether the proposed legislation requires registered, certificated, or licensed practitioners in other jurisdictions who migrate to this state to qualify in the same manner as state applicants for registration, certification, and licensure when the other jurisdiction has substantially equivalent requirements for registration, certification, or licensure as those in this state; and

(b) Whether there are similar professions to that of the applicant group which should be included in, or portions of the applicant group which should be excluded from, the proposed legislation;

(6) The maintenance of standards:

(a) Whether effective quality assurance standards exist in the ((health)) profession, such as legal requirements associated with specific programs that define or enforce standards, or a code of ethics; and

(b) How the proposed legislation will assure quality:

(i) The extent to which a code of ethics, if any, will be adopted; and

(ii) The grounds for suspension or revocation of registration, certification, or licensure;

(7) A description of the group proposed for regulation, including a list of associations, organizations, and other groups representing the practitioners in this state, an estimate of the number of practitioners in each group, and whether the groups represent different levels of practice; and

(8) The expected costs of regulation:

(a) The impact registration, certification, or licensure will have on the costs of the services to the public; and

(b) The cost to the state and to the general public of implementing the proposed legislation.

Sec. 7. Section 59, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.120.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Applicant groups shall submit a written report explaining the factors enumerated in RCW 18.120.030 to the legislative committees of reference(;;). In addition, applicant groups with health professions proposals shall submit copies of ((which shall be sent)) the written report to the state health coordinating council and the department of licensing for review and comment. The state health coordinating council, in addition to the duties specified in RCW 70.38.065, shall make recommendations based on the report submitted by applicant groups to the extent requested by the legislative committees. Applicant groups, other than state agencies created prior to the effective date of this 1987 section, with business professions proposals shall submit copies of their written report to the department of licensing for review and comment. The department of licensing shall make recommendations based on the report to the extent requested by the legislative committees.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. There is appropriated from the general fund to the department of licensing for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, the sum of eighty-four thousand three hundred seventy-two dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of sections 3 through 7 of this act.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: SHB 773

Allowing county auditors to investigate and cancel invalid voter registration.

April 22, 1987

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the measure as follows:

That the Senate amendments to page 1, line 19, and page 2, line 7, be adopted; and the bill be further amended as follows:

On page 1, line 24, strike "forty-fifth" and insert "sixtieth"

On page 2, line 1, strike "forty-five" and insert "sixty"

On page 2, after line 21, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. The intent and purpose of this chapter is to facilitate and encourage voter participation in elections in the state of Washington by enhancing voter registration through an additional means of voter registration known as registration by mail. This process is not meant to replace registration before a registrar but is an alternative to registration in person.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "By mail" means delivery of voter registration information by mail or by personal delivery, courier, or any other method of delivery.

(2) "Register" or "registration" refers to delivery by mail.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. The county auditor shall conduct voter registration within the county pursuant to this chapter. The provisions of this title, particularly RCW 29.04.080 and chapters 29.07 and 29.10 RCW, shall apply to this chapter and to registration by mail.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. (1) A qualified person may register to vote by delivering by mail or otherwise a completed registration form to the county auditor for the county in which the person resides.

(2) If a person mails or delivers a registration form to a county auditor other than the county auditor for the county in which the person resides, the form shall be immediately forwarded to the proper county auditor.

(3) Registration of a qualified person becomes effective when an accurate and complete registration form is received by the auditor, for the county in which the person resides, no later than thirty days prior to the next succeeding general, special, or primary election.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The county auditor shall distribute forms by which a person may register to vote and cancel any previous registration in this state. The county auditor shall keep a supply of voter registration forms in his or her office at all times for political parties and others interested in assisting in voter registration, and shall make every effort to make these forms generally available to the public. The county auditor shall provide voter registration forms to city and town clerks, state offices, schools, and fire stations. After the initial distribution of voter registration forms to a given location, a representative designated by the official in charge of that location shall notify the county auditor of the need for additional voter registration supplies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. In addition to the information required on the registration form as set out in RCW 29.07.070, when registering to vote by mail under this chapter, the person registering to vote shall provide the following information on the form for registering by mail:

(1) His or her driver's license number from a valid Washington state driver's license;

(2) If the applicant does not have a valid Washington state driver's license, then the applicant shall provide a valid Washington state identicaid number;

(3) If the applicant does not have a valid Washington state driver's license or a valid Washington state identicaid number, then the applicant shall provide his or her valid social security number.

If the applicant does not provide the information required in subsection (1), (2), or (3) of this section, the county auditor shall not process the form until the information is provided.

After providing the information concerning his or her qualifications, the applicant shall sign a statement in the following form: "I, the undersigned, declare that the facts set forth relating to my qualifications as a voter are true. I further declare that I am a citizen of the United States, that I am not presently denied my civil rights as a result of being convicted of an infamous crime, that I will have lived in this state, county, and precinct thirty days immediately preceding the next election at which I offer to vote, and that I will be at least eighteen years of age at the time of voting."

The applicant shall also sign his or her name upon a separate portion of the voter registration card, to be designated as an initiative signature card. On the initiative signature card portion, the county auditor shall provide the applicant's precinct name or number and the applicant shall provide his or her surname, given name or names, the name of the state, county, city or town in which the applicant resides, and the applicant's mailing address.

The voter registration form shall provide, in a conspicuous place, the following warning: "Any person who knowingly supplies false information on this voter registration form or who knowingly makes a false declaration as to his or her qualifications for registration is guilty of a class C felony punishable by confinement in a state correctional institution for five years, or by a fine in an amount fixed by the court of ten thousand dollars, or by both such confinement and fine."

Notwithstanding any other judgment which may be entered by the court, every individual found guilty of an offense as described in this section shall be sentenced to a minimum of forty-eight consecutive hours in an appropriate county jail facility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Any county auditor or elections official who registers or aids the registration of any person whom the auditor or elections official knows is not eligible by law to become a registered voter is guilty of a class B felony under RCW 9A.20.021.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A person qualified to vote who wishes to register to vote, but who cannot provide the information required under section 8 of this act, may register in person under chapter 29.07 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. On receipt of an application for voter registration under this chapter, the county auditor shall review the application to determine whether the information supplied is complete and correct. If it is not, then the auditor within five days of receipt of the application shall send notice of the deficiency to the applicant. If the information is complete and correct, then the applicant shall be considered "registered" as of the date the complete and correct application was received by the auditor; and the auditor shall: (1) Enter on the registrant's voter record the appropriate precinct identification, taxing district identification, and date of registration, and (2) no later than fifteen days following the receipt of such application, send to the applicant, by first class mail, a voter registration card identifying the registrant's precinct and containing such other information as may be required by the secretary of state. The postal service shall be instructed not to forward a voter registration card to any other address and to return to the auditor any card which is not deliverable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) Any qualified elector temporarily residing outside the county of his or her permanent residence but within the state of Washington, may send or have delivered a completed registration by mail form to the auditor of the county in which he or she is temporarily residing. The auditor promptly shall transmit the form to the county auditor of the county where the applicant permanently resides. The county auditor of the applicant's place of permanent residence shall immediately process the form in the manner provided in this chapter.

(2) As an alternative to the provisions in subsection (1) of this section, the elector may register by mail directly with the county auditor of the county of his or her permanent residence.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. The secretary of state shall adopt an application form for registering by mail. The form shall be compatible with the forms prescribed under RCW 29.07.140, and shall be designed so that an applicant will not be required to provide the same information, other than his or her signature, more than once. The form shall also contain instructions on its use, a notification of filing deadlines, a warning to the applicant of the penalty for knowingly supplying false information, and space for the county auditor to enter the voter's precinct identification, taxing district identification, and registration number.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. The secretary of state shall furnish registration forms necessary to carry out the registration of voters as provided by this chapter without cost to the respective counties. The secretary of state shall develop the forms in consultation with the county auditors.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. Except as provided otherwise in sections 8 and 9 of this act, violations of this chapter shall be prosecuted pursuant to RCW 29.85.190, 29.85.200, or any other applicable sections of chapter 29.85 RCW.

Sec. 16. Section 35A.29.030, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.29.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The city clerk shall be the registrar of voters in all code city precincts. In the case of code city precincts lying partly within and partly without the code city limits, the voters within and those without the city limits shall be registered in separate registration files. The city clerk shall take an oath as required by RCW 29.07.050 and shall perform his duties as registrar as provided in chapters 29.07 and 29.10 RCW. Expense of registration shall be paid or apportioned as provided in RCW 29.07.030 (~~and registration officers of code cities shall receive compensation; fees, and expenses as provided in RCW 29.07.040~~).

NEW SECTION, Sec. 17. Sections 3 through 15 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 29 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 18. Section 29.07.040, chapter 9, Laws of 1965, section 6, chapter 202, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 29.07.040 are each repealed."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "registration," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 35A.29.030; adding new sections to chapter 29.10 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 29 RCW; repealing RCW 29.07.040; and prescribing penalties."

MINORITY REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: SHB 773

Allowing county auditors to investigate and cancel invalid voter registration.

April 22, 1987

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

That the Report of the Conference Committee not be adopted.

Signed by: Senator Pullen.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I would like to raise the question of scope and object on Substitute House Bill No. 773. The reason for that is that the original bill was a simple little bill to allow the county auditors to purge their election lists of registered voters and what they are proposing to do is to add a completely separate bill which would add voting by mail or registering by mail. It's diametrically opposite the purpose of the original bill and doesn't fit the scope and object at all. I would urge the President to rule on that."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Halsan: "Mr. President, a point of order. I am not begrudging Senator Rasmussen the scope and object challenge that he did, but as a matter of fact, there has been no motion yet to adopt the Report of the Conference Committee and grant the powers of Free Conference, so the actual language is not before us."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Rasmussen, I am afraid you are going to have to wait until Senator Halsan, or someone else makes the motion."

MOTION

Senator Halsan moved that the Report of the Conference Committee on Substitute House Bill No. 773 be adopted and the committee be granted the powers of Free Conference.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: "I would renew my point of order on scope and object."
Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 773 was deferred.

Further debate on Substitute House Bill No. 773 ensued.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: ESHB 743

Revising community economic revitalization board statutes.

April 23, 1987

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we recommend the following:

On page 5, line 7, after "account" insert "and may be expended without further appropriation"

On page 5, line 8, after "from" insert "other moneys in"

On page 30, line 7, strike all of NEW SECTION, Sec. 27.

Renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Sellar: "Senator McDermott, are those numbers in equal amounts, because you know there is some support on this side of the aisle--the part that is in the budget that will fund the health care plans at the level that you have requested?"

Senator McDermott: "Yes, the numbers are exactly the same."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator McDermott, you didn't explain very clearly when you moved to adopt all of the amendments. I presume--you are striking Section 27--appropriating from the general fund, but in addition they had the Department of Social and Health--had $3,000,000 for the administration of it. You are striking Section 27, but Section 22 in there says, 'the Department of Social and Health Services shall, in effect, administer the plan.' Could you explain? You are turning this money over to the appointees of the plan to handle without any further supervision by Social and Health Services. I would like a little more explanation."

Senator McDermott: "There are two pieces to what you are talking about, Senator Rasmussen. There is $3,000,000 that was voted for--that you voted for yesterday in the budget, that goes to Childrens' Orthopedic Hospital and Harborview Hospital because of the criteria which are set up in terms of their uncompensated care. There is an additional $23,000,000 appropriated to the basic health plan which will be held until the last year of the biennium to be spent in a program that is going to be designed and approved by the Legislature in the next session of the Legislature."

Senator Rasmussen: "One of your amendments, Senator McDermott, says 'may be expended right away without further appropriation.' Could you explain that? Here's the bill if you want to look at it. I was just checking the amendment. I have it marked in the bill there--your first amendment on page 5, line 7--'after accounts, and may be expended without further appropriation.' That I don't understand when you are telling me that the plan will have to be approved by the next Legislature and in effect, you are telling me they can spend the money without further appropriation. That's on page 5, line 7."

MOTION

On motion of Senator McDermott, further consideration of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 477 was deferred.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the sixth order of business.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 611, deferred on second reading April 23, 1987.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In response to the point of order raised by Senator Talmadge, the President believes that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 611 includes $10.4 million in general fund money which is included in Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 527, the Omnibus Appropriations Act.

"The President, therefore, finds that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 611 is necessary to implement the budget and is properly before the Senate. The point of order is not well taken."

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 611 was ruled to be properly before the Senate.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator McDermott, the bill carries an emergency clause. I heard quite a lot of talk yesterday about the budget and that there wouldn't be any money available—that was passed here. The budget that was passed here takes care of this? Is that correct?"

Senator McDermott: "That's correct."

Senator Rasmussen: "It must be a pretty good budget then. You have been working on this for years, Senator McDermott."

Senator McDermott: "With stopped clock, he's right, twice a day and I think in the budget in the same way."

Senator Rasmussen: "The bill contains an emergency clause—the $23,000,000 will be deposited immediately in the trust account in the Treasurer's office? Is that correct?"

Senator McDermott: "Senator Rasmussen, this plan does not go into effect until July 1, 1988. The money is reserved so that it can be used for the plan and it will not be spent until July 1, 1988, when the plan is developed and actually implemented."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 13, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5081 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes that:

(1) Interest in outdoor recreation has been steadily increasing, and that the facilities that now exist are inadequate to meet the growing demands of the people of Washington and the out-of-state tourist trade;

(2) The state is becoming a popular winter recreation area and has not fully developed its winter tourism industry adequately to respond to the increasing demand, as has been successfully done in the mountain states, Idaho, and British Columbia;

(3) The state of Washington presently has a flourishing winter recreation industry which adds more than twenty-five thousand new skiers each year. Far greater potential exists for year-round resort development which should include an emphasis on all winter recreation activities. Expansion of the winter recreation industry will attract tourist trade from other states and countries and will have a substantial positive impact on both the state and national economies; and

(4) The economic well-being of the state will be improved upon the introduction of new industry to provide employment, income to the state, and revenue for government.

The legislature recognizes the need to identify areas appropriate for recreational development on state lands or on federal lands which can be exchanged for state lands under state and federal laws.

Therefore, the legislature hereby establishes the Washington state winter recreation commission which shall be composed as follows: Two members of the senate appointed by the president of the senate, including one member from each caucus; two members of the house of representatives appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives, including one member from each caucus; one representative to be appointed by the governor from each of the following state departments: The parks and recreation commission, department of trade and economic development, and department of natural resources; two representatives of industry appointed by the governor; two representatives of the environmental community appointed by the governor; one representative of cities appointed by the governor; and one representative of counties appointed by the governor. The commission shall choose one of its legislative members as chair.

Commission members and legislative staff shall be reimbursed for travel expenses under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. Members of the legislature serving on the commission shall be reimbursed for travel expenses under RCW 44.04.120.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The Washington state winter recreation commission shall:

(1) Study and identify potential sites for new winter recreation development, with consideration of the availability and suitability of the land, local interests, environmental impact, and established roads and transportation access.

(2) Facilitate trades of land for existing or new winter recreation areas with the federal government, the United States Department of Agriculture, the United States Forest Service, the United States Bureau of Land Management, and other agencies which could be involved in exchanges of land.

(3) Recommend the supervisory management structure at the state level which would oversee the lease, maintenance, and development of lands for recreational projects.

(4) Utilize legislative staff assistance which shall be provided by the appropriate legislative committees and conduct such studies as are necessary for the performance of its duties. State agencies may assign to the commission such personnel as are necessary to assist the commission in the performance of its duties.

(5) Consult with federal and state agencies and representatives of science, industry, agriculture, labor, conservation organizations, state and local governments, concerned citizens, and other groups.

(6) Hold such public hearings as are necessary to insure early, meaningful, and continuous public input and involvement in the commission's work.

(7) Propose changes in state law and rules of state agencies, if considered necessary, to carry out the purpose of this chapter.

(8) Establish advisory committees to advise the commission in the performance of its duties. The membership of the advisory committees shall be balanced in terms of the points of view and interests represented. Members of the advisory committees shall serve without compensation of any sort.

(9) Submit a biennial report to the legislature beginning in 1989 on the progress of the commission.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. The commission created under section 1 of this act shall be considered a continuation of the prior commission, and members of the prior commission shall continue to be members of the new commission except that the legislative membership of the commission shall be subject to reappointment.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. The legislature recognizes that winter recreational activities are part of the folk tradition of the state of Washington. Winter recreational activities serve to turn the darkness of a northwest winter into the dawn of renewed vitality. As the winter snows dissolve into the torrents of spring, the Columbia river is nourished. The Columbia river is the pride of the northwest and the unifying geographic element of the state. In order to celebrate the river which ties the winter recreation playground of snowcapped mountains and the Yakima, Snake, and the Klickitat rivers to the ocean so blue, the legislature declares that the official state folk song is "Roll On Columbia, Roll On," composed by Woody Guthrie.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 1.20 RCW to read as follows: "Roll On Columbia, Roll On," composed by Woody Guthrie, is hereby designated as the official folk song of the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 1, chapter 27, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess., section 68, chapter 466, Laws of 1985 and RCW 67.34.010;

(2) Section 2, chapter 27, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 67.34.020;

(3) Section 3, chapter 27, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 67.34.900; and

(4) Section 4, chapter 27, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 67.34.905.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. Sections 1 and 2 of this act are each added to chapter 67.34 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "recreation;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new section to chapter 1.20 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 67.34 RCW; creating new sections; repealing RCW 67.34.010, 67.34.020, 67.34.900, and 67.34.905; and declaring an emergency."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Vognild moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5081.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I would like to raise scope and object. That amendment adds 'Roll On Columbia' to winter recreation--'Roll On Columbia' separately or on its own probably can achieve publicity, but it should not be attached to this particular bill. I think it exceeds the scope and object of the bill."

Debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Rasmussen, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5081 is a measure reestablishing the Winter Recreation Commission.

"The amendments proposed by the House of Representatives establish 'Roll On Columbia, Roll On' as the official state folk song.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments do change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendments by the House of Representatives to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5081 were ruled out of order.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bottiger, and there being no objection, the motion by Senator Vognild to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5081 was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5081 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 16, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5632 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that an important and effective means of improving the educational performance of many students with special needs is to improve the general education program. The legislature also finds that there is a continuum of educational program needs among students with learning problems or poor academic performance. The legislature wants to encourage school districts to serve students with special needs within the regular classroom. Therefore, the legislature intends to replace the remediation program with a broader range of program options, without reducing special instructional programs when those services are both necessary and appropriate. The legislature intends to enhance the ability of basic education teachers to identify and address learning problems within the regular classroom. The legislature further intends to stimulate development by local school districts of innovative and effective means of serving students with special needs. The goal is to increase the achievement of students with special needs in a shorter period of time using processes that are more timely, appropriate and effective in producing better outcomes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is hereby created a state-wide program designed to enhance educational opportunities for public school students who are deficient in basic skills achievement. This program shall be known as the learning assistance program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 1 through 11 of this act.

(1) "Basic skills" means reading, mathematics, and language arts as well as readiness activities associated with such skills.

(2) "Placement testing" means the administration of objective measures by a school district for the purposes of diagnosing the basic skills achievement levels, determining the basic skills areas of greatest need, and establishing the learning assistance needs of individual students in conformance with instructions established by the superintendent of public instruction for such purposes.

(3) "Approved program" means a program conducted pursuant to a plan submitted by a district and approved by the superintendent of public instruction under section 4 of this act.

(4) "Participating student" means a student in kindergarten through grade nine who scores below grade level in basic skills, as determined by placement testing, and who is identified under section 5 of this act to receive additional services or support under an approved program.

(5) "Basic skills tests" means state-wide tests at the fourth and eighth grade levels established pursuant to RCW 28A.03.360.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Each school district which applies for state funds distributed pursuant to section 7 of this act shall conduct a needs assessment and, on the basis of its findings, shall develop a plan for the use of these funds. Districts are encouraged to place special emphasis on addressing the needs of students in the early grades. The needs assessment and plan shall be updated at least biennially, and shall be determined in consultation with an advisory committee including but not limited to members of the following groups: Parents, including parents of students served by the program; teachers; principals; administrators; and school directors.

The district shall submit a biennial application specifying this plan to the office of the superintendent of public instruction for approval. Plans shall include:

(1) The means which the district will use to identify participating students to receive additional services or support under the proposed program;

(2) The specific services or activities which the funds will be used to support, and their estimated costs;

(3) A plan for annual evaluation of the program by the district, based on performance objectives related to basic skills achievement of participating students, and a plan for reporting the results of this evaluation to the superintendent of public instruction;

(4) Procedures for recordkeeping or other program documentation as may be required by the superintendent of public instruction; and

(5) The approval of the local school district board of directors.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Identification of participating students for an approved program of learning assistance shall be determined in each district through the implementation of the findings of the district's needs assessment and through placement testing. School districts are encouraged to coordinate the use of funds from federal, state, and local sources in serving students who are below grade level in basic skills, and to make efficient use of these resources in meeting the needs of students with the greatest academic deficits.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Services or activities which may be supported under an approved program of learning assistance shall include but not be limited to:

(1) Consultant teachers to assist classroom teachers in meeting the needs of participating students;

(2) Instructional support staff to assist classroom teachers in meeting the needs of participating students;

(3) In-service training for classroom teachers in the identification of learning problems or in instructional methods for teaching students with learning problems;

(4) Special instructional programs for participating students, of sufficient size, scope, and quality to address the needs of these students and to give reasonable promise of substantial progress towards meeting their educational objectives.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Each school district which has established an approved program shall be eligible, as determined by the superintendent of public instruction, for state funds made available for the purposes of such programs. The superintendent of public instruction shall make use of data derived from the basic skills tests in determining the amount of funds for which a district may be eligible. Funds shall be distributed according to the district's total full-time equivalent enrollment in kindergarten through grade nine and the percentage of the district's students taking the basic skills tests who scored in the lowest quartile as compared with national norms. In making this calculation, the superintendent of public instruction may use an average over the immediately preceding five or fewer years of the district's percentage scoring in the lowest quartile. The superintendent of public instruction shall also deduct the number of students at these age levels who are identified as specific learning disabled and are generating state funds for special education programs conducted pursuant to chapter 28A.13 RCW, in distributing state funds for learning assistance. The distribution formula in this section is for allocation purposes only.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. In order to insure that school districts are meeting the requirements of an approved program, the superintendent of public instruction shall monitor such programs no less than once every three years. The results of the evaluations required by section 4 of this act shall be transmitted to the superintendent of public instruction annually. Individual student records shall be maintained at the school district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The superintendent of public instruction shall promulgate rules pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW which he or she deems necessary to implement sections 1 through 8 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 1, chapter 149, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28A.41.400;

(2) Section 2, chapter 149, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28A.41.402;

(3) Section 3, chapter 149, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28A.41.404;

(4) Section 4, chapter 149, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28A.41.406;

(5) Section 5, chapter 149, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28A.41.408;

(6) Section 6, chapter 149, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28A.41.410; and

(7) Section 8, chapter 149, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28A.41.414.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 1 through 9 of this act are each added to Title 28A RCW."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "program;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding new sections to Title 28A RCW; and repealing RCW 28A.41.400, 28A.41.402, 28A.41.404, 28A.41.406, 28A.41.408, 28A.41.410, and 28A.41.414."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

Senator Bauer moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5632.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Bauer that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5632.

The motion by Senator Bauer carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5632.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5632, as amended by the House.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Gaspard, I am seeking a little information, admitting there are parts of this program that I do not understand, but I would like to have some clarification. When we put into the basic allocation for certified teachers, we increased the number from K-3 in the budget that we just passed, is that your understanding or does it go beyond that?"

Senator Gaspard: "The question is in the budget that you passed last night--whether or not you had additional certificated staff?"

Senator Patterson: "From K-3 or above? Was it K-3?"

Senator Gaspard: "Current law for K-3 is fifty-one certificated staff per one thousand students and the budget you passed last night provided for fifty-four certificated staff per one thousand students."

Senator Patterson: "Now, was it your understanding--it was my understanding, that it would be directed into the lower grades?"

Senator Gaspard: "Yes, that is my understanding that it is directed specifically to the K-12 program. But, please keep one thing in mind when we look at class size in the state of Washington, and I have repeated this over and over again and I know you are probably tired of hearing it, we are forty-eighth in all the states in our class size.

"In the program that we had put before in House Bill No. 455, which is on our calendar here, is to get the fifty-five certificated staff per one thousand students in all K-12 by the school year 1993. If we were to do that by 1993, we would be twenty percent below the national average of class size of what it is right now, so I think what I am trying to explain, Senator Patterson, although we are making improvements with the budget you passed last night, I wish we could go further. There is still going to be a need for helping children that are slower than others or having a more difficult time grasping the basic rudiments. If you could get those children to understand the programs, the reading assignments, the math assignments, early enough, hopefully those problems will not carry forward into the upper grades."

Senator Patterson: "So, we put that into the Basic Education Act and now it will become basic education--that formula?"

Senator Gaspard: "Well, actually it's not part of the Basic Education Act. It's categorical. It's interpreted to be that if the state is going to have in its statute a program, the state has to follow with its financial commitment that those programs will be funded."

Senator Patterson: "Is that the same with the remedial assistance program that we are talking about here? Is that part of the Basic Education Act and a requirement that we expend dollars for that?"

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Patterson, remediation is not part of the Basic Education Act. It can be considered to be--"

Senator Patterson: "In other words, I am trying to find out if we break a law if we do not pass this?"

Senator Gaspard: "Current law is remediation for grades two through six. This will improve the law to provide for remediation for children in kindergarten through the ninth grade. In the past budgets that we have considered, we have had funds available to go beyond current law, to go up to ninth grade."

Senator Patterson: "But we do have dollars in here from two thru six? Is that what you said? Under current law, we have provided dollars for remediation for grades two through six?"

Senator Gaspard: "The current budget has provided remediation funds in grades two through nine."

Senator Patterson: "Through nine? Thank you, Senator Gaspard."

Senator Gaspard: "Statute only requires two through six."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Anderson: "Senator Bauer, currently we have in statute remediation for grades two through six. I started looking at this bill in front of us and now we are going to start remediating children at a kindergarten level. I want to know what background--what statistics--we have that children coming into kindergarten need remediation?"

Senator Bauer: "Thank you, Senator Anderson. There are a lot of statistics about children enrolling in the first grade who are already behind their peers. That's one of the reasons that the Governor and others have advocated and hosts of studies have advocated early intervention--early childhood education, pre-school education, headstart education. The federal government launched on to a major project in Headstart recognizing that children at risk, for all of the reasons--economic, social, psychological, political and all. There are many children who start off not on the starting line; they are way behind their peers on the starting line. When a classroom with twenty-five to thirty children in the first grade, as you know Senator Anderson, with children sufficiently behind, so that the basic curriculum that you offer is just above their level of comprehension, it isn't long before they start losing right away. So, a one-on-one situation, whether it be parents or whatever else, is very, very necessary as you would, I think, admit. So, yes there is a need for first grade remediation. There is a need for pre-first grade remediation and there is plenty of evidence on that, Senator Anderson."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

Senator Newhouse moved that the Senate refuse to recede from its amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 454 and asks the House to concur therein.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Bottiger, I know you are a man of your word and you never go back on your commitments. It seems to me that you mentioned you made a commitment to get the bill out of Rules. It seems to me that your partner in that commitment was Senator Hayner. Has she given you permission to go back on your word on your commitment?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, just as I made a mistake in what I heard said about the negotiations and the status of the budget, I was very careful and what I said in Rules was that I agreed to support the division on the floor of the Senate for the first time--that we would agree to the split on the amendment--agree to the Senate amendment--to split these two boards out. I didn't agree on the concurrences."

Senator Rasmussen: "I didn't hear that, and I was down in Rules, that you were only going to give it one vote. I thought it was good faith and I know you don't like people unless they keep their word and when you give a commitment to a certain person like Senator Hayner, I feel you should keep that commitment. My commitments don't go that far, but I think that if a person that makes a pledge, he should follow through and I know if Senator Hayner did that, she would."

Senator Rasmussen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the positive motion by Senator Vognild that the Senate recede from its amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 454.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion to recede from the amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 454 failed by the following vote: Yeas, 24; nays, 25.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 10, Laws of 1979 as last amended by section 47, chapter 466, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.17.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Such officers, except the secretary of transportation ~~((and the director of game))~~, shall be appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate, and hold office at the pleasure of the governor: PROVIDED, That the director of wildlife shall be appointed according to the provisions of RCW 77.04.080. NEW SECTION, Sec. 100. There is a clear need for an in-depth analysis of the best possible structure of the department of game to be certain that hunting and fishing opportunities and the management and protection of nongame wildlife species are maximized. The blue ribbon wildlife task force is hereby created to be composed of the following twelve members: Two members appointed by the game commission, two members appointed by the governor, one nonlegislative member appointed by each major caucus of the senate and house of representatives, and one nonvoting ex officio legislator appointed from each major caucus of the senate and house of representatives. ## MOTION

On motion of Senator Metcalf, further consideration of the amendments to the committee amendment were deferred.

MOTION

On page 40, line 33, strike "sixty-five years of age or older"

On page 40, line 35, strike "who has been a resident for five years may receive upon application a state hunting and fishing license free of charge." and insert "~~((who has been a resident for five years may receive upon application a state hunting and fishing license free of charge;))~~ whose service connected disabilities have been established as permanent in nature by the veterans administration and are rated from thirty to one hundred percent disabled as determined by the veterans administration shall receive upon application a permanent fishing and hunting license without charge.

Disabled veterans making application for a free fishing and hunting license shall provide the department with a copy of documents verifying the disability from the veterans administration.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator Bender, you had said that thirty percent disability was missing a limb, now is that like the digit of a finger or a toe? Senator Sellar was just informing me about a fellow he knows with a twenty-eight percent disability and that is simply a plastic knee cap that gives him trouble once in a while, but isn't any worse than some of the people out here who have football injuries."

Senator Bender: "My understanding in talking with the Department, it is the loss of an arm or leg. I am not sure that is the total arm, but it was a pretty substantial loss of a limb."

Senator Lee: "I don't know if there is anybody here who knows that, because when you say, 'loss of a limb' you cover a lot of territory. Amputation to the shoulder is one thing, but amputation to the second joint of your finger is something else. So, you don't really know?"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Bender, your first amendment on page 40, line 33, strikes sixty-five years of age or older. As I read that line, a person sixty-five years of age or older who is an honorably discharged veteran of the United States Armed Forces having a service connected disability--you are striking that sixty-five. Is that necessary? This would give all veterans that have a disability and there are many who are not up to the thirty or fifty percent, this would disallow them from having a free license?"

Senator Bender: "The intent of the amendment is to allow any veteran that has a thirty percent disability or more to be granted a free fishing and hunting license. That is the intent of the amendment. I don't have the actual bill before me right now."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the question was divided, and to first consider the second amendment by Senator Bender.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the second amendment by Senator Bender on page 40, line 35, to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

MOTION

Senator Stratton moved that the following amendment by Senators Stratton, Patterson, Metcalf and Rasmussen to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

On page 49, line 24, strike all material in NEW SECTION, Sec. 101.
Renumber the remaining sections accordingly

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Stratton, Patterson, Metcalf and Rasmussen to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

The motion by Senator Stratton carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Tanner, the following amendment to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment was adopted:

On page 49, after line 31, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 102. The legislature recognizes the need to mitigate the effects of sedimentary build-up and resultant damage to fish population in the Toutle river resulting from the Mt. St. Helens eruption. The state has entered into a contractual agreement with the United States army corps of engineers designed to minimize fish habitat disruption created by the sediment retention structure on the Toutle river, under which the corps has agreed to construct a fish collection facility at the sediment retention structure site conditional upon the state assuming the maintenance and operation costs of the facility. The department of game shall operate and maintain the fish collection facility on the Toutle river."

Renumber the remaining section accordingly

MOTION

Senator Pullen moved that the following amendment by Senators Pullen, Metcalf and Rasmussen to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

On page 49, beginning on line 32, strike all of NEW SECTION, Sec. 102.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Pullen, is it your opinion that this is in the bill to deliberately deny the people the right to a referendum?"

Senator Pullen: "Senator Rasmussen, I think all of the Senators on this floor are very honorable Senators and I don't know any Senator who would want to deny the people the right to referendum. That's why I am sure this amendment which will allow the people the right to referendum will be adopted."

Senator Rasmussen: "Could I ask you one more question? Why would this need an emergency clause?"

Senator Pullen: "I can't answer that. Perhaps the proponents of the measure could answer that. But, in looking into it, I cannot find any reason for an emergency clause to be on there other than the fact that some people want it to go into effect as soon as possible."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Metcalf, do you read this inclusion in the law--the proposed law here--that it was purposely put there to deny the people the right of a referendum?"

Senator Metcalf: "Senator Rasmussen, my answer to that is that there can be, in my estimation, no other purpose except to deny the people the right of referendum. If you look at the bill, there is nothing in this bill that has to happen that quickly. There is no possible need that I see for an emergency clause, other than to deny the people the right of referendum."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I need some expert parliamentary advise. It's my understanding that if this bill were to carry an appropriation--and it also carries an appointment of a director by the Governor--that any section of the law could have a referendum on it and not the whole law. That is my understanding of the way that it works. If I like part of a law, but I don't like all of it, I can have a referendum on that part. Is that correct, Mr. President?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "I think you should direct your question to one of the legal beagles."

REMARKS BY SENATOR PULLEN

Senator Pullen: "Just to answer Senator Rasmussen's question. Article 2, Section 1 of the state Constitution, subsection (b), states, 'The second power reserved by the people is the referendum and it may be ordered on any act, bill, law or any parts thereof passed by the Legislature.' If I might briefly respond to Senator Owen. I would just simply indicate that if planning is the concern, the planning can begin immediately. In other words, the fact that the bill would take effect in the normal way provided by the Constitution, ninety days after the Legislature adjourns, doesn't preclude planning during that time frame. In fact, that is the whole reason for having a ninety day implementation date as provided by the Constitution to allow people to plan for the implementation of laws in an orderly fashion, so the planning can go on immediately, whether there is an emergency clause or the ordinary ninety day deferred implementation period. I think that makes all the more reason why we should vote to strike the emergency clause and to allow for orderly planning by all effected people and to also guarantee the people the right to a petition referendum."

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: HB 698

Authorizing collection by county treasurers of various local government charges.

April 23, 1987

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the measure as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 84.56 RCW to read as follows:

A local government authorized both to impose and to collect any special assessments, excise taxes, or rates or charges may contract with the county treasurer or treasurers within which the local government is located to collect the special assessments, excise taxes, rates, or charges. If such a contract is entered into, notice of the special assessments, excise taxes, or rates or charges due may be included on the notice of property taxes due, may be included on a separate notice that is mailed with the notice of property taxes due, or may be sent separately from the notice of property taxes due. County treasurers may impose an annual fee for collecting special assessments, excise taxes, or rates or charges not to exceed one percent of the dollar value of special assessments, excise taxes, or rates or charges collected.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 141, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.36.037 are each amended to read as follows:

Real or personal property owned by a nonprofit organization, association, or corporation in connection with the operation of a public assembly hall or meeting place is exempt from taxation. The area exempt under this section includes the building or buildings, the land under the buildings, and an additional area necessary for parking, not exceeding a total of one acre:

PROVIDED, That for property essentially unimproved except for restroom facilities and structures on such property which has been used primarily for annual community celebration events for at least ten years, such exempt property shall not exceed twenty-nine acres.

To qualify for this exemption the property must be used exclusively for public gatherings and be available to all organizations or persons desiring to use the property, but the owner may impose conditions and restrictions which are necessary for the safekeeping of the property and promote the purposes of this exemption. Membership shall not be a prerequisite for the use of the property.

The use of the property for pecuniary gain or to promote business activities, except fund raising activities conducted by a nonprofit organization and except annual community celebration events if the proceeds of the events are used exclusively for the purposes for which the nonprofit organization, association, or corporation is organized, nullifies the exemption otherwise available for the property for the assessment year. The exemption is not nullified by the collection of rent or donations if the amount is reasonable and does not exceed maintenance and operation expenses created by the user.

The department of revenue shall narrowly construe this exemption and shall annually report to the legislature the names of organizations receiving such property tax exemptions.

Sec. 3. Section 7, chapter 40, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. as last amended by section 7, chapter 220, Laws of 1984 and RCW 84.36.805 are each amended to read as follows:

In order to be exempt pursuant to RCW 84.36.030, 84.36.035, 84.36.037, 84.36.040, 84.36.045, 84.36.047, 84.36.050, 84.36.060, 84.36.350, and 84.36.480, the nonprofit organizations, associations or corporations shall satisfy the following conditions:

(1) The property is used exclusively for the actual operation of the activity for which exemption is granted and does not exceed an amount reasonably necessary for that purpose, except:

(a) The loan or rental of the property does not subject the property to tax if:

(i) Except for the exemption under RCW 84.36.037, the rents and donations received for the use of the portion of the property are reasonable and do not exceed the maintenance and operation expenses attributable to the portion of the property loaned or rented; and

(ii) Except for the exemption under RCW 84.36.037, the property would be exempt from tax if owned by the organization to which it is loaned or rented;

(b) The use of the property for fund-raising activities does not subject the property to tax if the fund-raising activities are consistent with the purposes for which the exemption is granted;

(2) The property is irrevocably dedicated to the purpose for which exemption has been granted, and on the liquidation, dissolution, or abandonment by said organization, association, or corporation, said property will not inure directly or indirectly to the benefit of any shareholder or individual, except a nonprofit organization, association, or corporation which too would be entitled to property tax exemption: PROVIDED, That the provision of this subsection shall not apply to those qualified for exemption pursuant to RCW 84.36.040 if the property used for the purpose stated is either leased or rented;

(3) The facilities and services are available to all regardless of race, color, national origin or ancestry;

(4) The organization, association, or corporation is duly licensed or certified where such licensing or certification is required by law or regulation;

(5) Property sold to organizations, associations, or corporations with an option to be repurchased by the seller shall not qualify for exempt status;

(6) The director of the department of revenue shall have access to its books in order to determine whether such organization, association, or corporation is exempt from taxes within the intent of RCW 84.36.030, 84.36.035, 84.36.037, 84.36.040, 84.36.045, 84.36.047, 84.36.050, 84.36.060, 84.36.350, and 84.36.480.

Sec. 4. Section 84.56.230, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 43, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.56.230 are each amended to read as follows:

On the first day of each month the county treasurer shall distribute pro rata, according to the rate of levy for each fund, the amount collected as consolidated tax during the preceding month, and shall certify the same to the county auditor: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the county treasurer, at his option, may distribute the total amount of such taxes collected according to the ratio that the levy of taxes made for each taxing district in the county bears to such total amount collected. On or before the tenth day of each month the county treasurer shall turn over to the respective city treasurers the cities' pro rata share of all taxes collected for the previous month and take receipts therefor in duplicate, and shall certify to the city comptroller or other accounting officer of each such city the amount of such taxes so collected and turned over, and shall deliver with such certificate one copy of the receipt of the city treasurer therefor. All taxes shall be distributed and disbursed under this section and RCW 84.56.280 without interest.

Sec. 5. Section 36.29.020, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 7, chapter 177, Laws of 1984 and RCW 36.29.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The county treasurer shall keep all moneys belonging to the state, or to any county, in his or her own possession until disbursed according to law. The county treasurer shall not place the same in the possession of any person to be used for any purpose; nor shall he or she loan or in any manner use or permit any person to use the same; but it shall be lawful for a county treasurer to deposit any such moneys in any regularly designated qualified public depository. Any municipal corporation may by action of its governing body authorize any of its funds which are available in its treasury for expenditure but are not required for immediate expenditure, ((and which are in the custody of the county treasurer or other municipal corporation treasurer:)) to be invested or deposited by such treasurer in ((savings or time accounts in designated qualified public depositories or in certificates, notes, or bonds of the United States, or other obligations of the United States or its agencies, or of any corporation wholly owned by the government of the United States, in bankers' acceptances purchased on the secondary market, in federal home loan bank notes and bonds, federal land bank bonds and federal national mortgage association notes, debentures and guaranteed certificates of participation, or the obligations of any other government sponsored corporation whose obligations are or may become eligible as collateral for advances to member banks as determined by the board of governors of the federal reserve system or deposit such funds or any portion thereof in investment deposits as defined in RCW 39.58.010 secured by collateral in accordance with the provisions of chapter 39.58 RCW)) investments or deposits authorized under RCW 43.84.080 and chapter 39.58 RCW in which the state treasurer may invest or deposit public moneys: PROVIDED, Five percent of the interest or earnings, with an annual maximum of fifty dollars, on any transactions authorized by each resolution of the governing body shall be paid as an investment service fee to the office of the county treasurer or other municipal corporation treasurer when the interest or earnings become available to the governing body: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if such investment service fee amounts to five dollars or less the county treasurer or other municipal corporation treasurer may waive such fee.

(2) Whenever the funds of any municipal corporation which are not required for immediate expenditure are in the custody or control of the county treasurer, and the governing body of such municipal corporation has not taken any action pertaining to the investment of any such funds, the county finance committee shall direct the county treasurer to invest or deposit, to the maximum prudent extent, such funds or any portion thereof, as well as any other funds in the county treasury, in ((savings or time accounts in designated qualified public depositories or in certificates, notes, or bonds of the United States, or other obligations of the United States or its agencies, or of any corporation wholly owned by the government of the United States, in bankers' acceptances purchased on the secondary market, in federal home loan bank notes and bonds, federal land bank bonds and federal national mortgage association notes, debentures and guaranteed certificates of participation, or the obligations of any other government sponsored corporation whose obligations are or may become eligible as collateral for advances to member banks as determined by the board of governors of the federal reserve system or deposit such funds or any portion thereof in investment deposits as defined in RCW 39.58.010 secured by collateral in accordance with the provisions of chapter 39.58 RCW)) investments or deposits authorized under RCW 43.84.080 and chapter 39.58 RCW in which the state treasurer may invest or deposit state moneys: PROVIDED, That the county treasurer shall have the power to select the specific qualified financial institution in which said funds may be invested. The interest or other earnings from such investments or deposits shall be deposited in the current expense fund of the county and may be used for general county purposes. The investment or deposit and disposition of the interest or other earnings therefrom authorized by this paragraph shall not apply to such funds as may be prohibited by the state Constitution from being so invested or deposited.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 36.29 RCW to read as follows:

The county treasurer may deduct the amounts necessary to reimburse the treasurer's office for the actual expenses the office incurs and to repay any county funds appropriated and expended for the initial administrative costs of establishing a county investment pool provided in RCW 36.29.022. Any credits or payments to political subdivisions shall be calculated and made in a manner which equitably reflects the differing amounts of the political subdivision's respective deposits in the county investment pool and the differing periods of time for which the amounts were placed in the county investment pool."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "treasurers;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 84.36.037, 84.36.805, 84.56.230, and 36.29.020; adding a new section to chapter 84.56 RCW; and adding a new section to chapter 36.29 RCW."

MOTION

Senator Halsan moved that the Report of the Conference Committee on House Bill No. 698 be adopted and the committee be granted the powers of Free Conference.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Garrett: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I want to challenge the scope and object of the proposed conference report. Mr. President, I would like to call your attention to Article 2, Section 19 and Article 2, Section 37 of the Constitution, as well as, Rule 8 of the 1987-88 Rules. They all refer to the subject matter of what legislation on a bill or conference report does--has got to be in compliance with the title. You will notice that the title of this bill--698--is an act relating to collection by county treasurers and adding a new section.

"Now, what the bill was intended to do was to allow cities to enter into contracts with the county treasurer to collect special assessments or any other fees that they have. The conference report proposes to take up the matter of meeting places that are exempt from taxation and so it goes into the properties and what kind can be exempt from taxation. It also goes into another matter that we tried to put in House Bill No. 1129 which says, 'all taxes distributed shall be disbursed without any interest.' So, there are nine additional pages, Mr. President, and I would certainly request you to look at these very carefully as to scope and object."

Debate ensued.

There being no objection, the President deferred further consideration of House Bill No. 698.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

Relating to fiscal matters.

The bill was read the second time.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I would like to raise the point of order that I can't see where Senate Bill No. 5901 is properly before this body. It doesn't implement the budget and that's the only excuse for something like a bill to come up at this late date. I think it's very clearly out of order with our cut-off rules."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, further consideration of Senate Bill No. 5901 was deferred.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 831, by Representatives Leonard, Madsen and Hankins

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Rasmussen, the President finds that Senate Bill No. 5901 is a measure expanding the borrowing power of the Washington State Convention and Trade Center, increasing the leasing capacity of the convention center board, directing the Joint Select Committee on the Convention Center to consider alternative governance systems and appropriating $63,040,000 to the convention center board from the state convention center account.

"The President further finds that House Bill No. 527, the budget, does include an appropriation for the convention center. However, Senate Bill No. 5901 is not referenced in that appropriation, nor is it necessary to implement that appropriation.

"The President does not believe that Senate Bill No. 5901 is necessary to implement the budget as provided in Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8402, the cut-off resolution. Therefore, Senate Bill No. 5901 is not properly before the Senate and the point of order is well taken."

SENATE BILL NO. 5901 was ruled out of order.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 831, deferred on second reading earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Metcalf, the President finds that Engrossed House Bill No. 831 is a measure increasing the percentage of the gross receipts from exotic races which the Horse Racing Commission may retain and adding four nonvoting legislative members to the commission.

"The President further finds that Engrossed House Bill No. 831 is referenced in House Bill No. 527, the budget, and is necessary to implement the budget as provided by Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8402, the cut-off resolution. Therefore, Engrossed House Bill No. 831 is properly before the Senate and the point of order is not well taken."

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 831 was ruled to be properly before the Senate.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: EHB 435

Revising provisions on inactive real estate licenses.

April 23, 1987

Mr. President:

MOTION

Senator Vognild moved that the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed House Bill No. 435 be adopted.

Engrossed House Bill No. 435 revises the provisions on inactive real estate licenses. If you look on page 7, Mr. President, we are talking about business professions and in that section they cover business professions from architects, cosmetologists, plumbers and other items, therefore, I think that exceeds the scope and object."

Further debate ensued.

There being no objection, the President deferred further consideration of the Report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed House Bill No. 435.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5071, deferred April 24, 1987, after the Senate granted the request of the House for a conference thereon.

MOTION

Senator Bottiger moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5978 with the exception of subsection (3) of the amendment on page 1, line 7, and asks the House to recede therefrom.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Cantu: "Senator Bottiger, I am sorry I did not have time to discuss this with you prior to now. But, I had a question on the effective date. Admittedly, I do not have the background as to how long it might take for people to exhaust their supplies and I am wondering by moving it up, are we going to cause some undue hardship or increase the cost because people are going to have to dump some of the material. I am wondering whether we should stay with the original Senate date, rather than accepting the House date?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, the House date--I haven't discussed that issue specifically with them, but, in effect, we are giving them a year to dispose of the stock. I guess what amounts to, dispose of the stock on hand. This is an extremely hazardous material. I don't readily jump through the environmental hoop, but the material that I've looked at and what it does to estuaries and to marine life, this is really potent stuff. We are saying they have another year to pollute the Sound and I'm not sure I want to give them much longer than that."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator Bottiger, why would the Department of Agriculture be the enforcing agent?"

Senator Bottiger: "Because it's a pesticide and all of the pesticide laws are delegated to the Department of Agriculture."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Bottiger to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5978, with the exception of subsection (3) of the amendment on page 1, line 7, and asks the House to recede therefrom.

The motion by Senator Bottiger carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5978 with the exception of subsection (3) of the amendment on page 1, line 7, and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MOTION

Senator Bender moved that the Senate do recede from its amendment to House Bill No. 279.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hayner: "Senator Bender, this extension of time from ten days to sixty days, was that requested by the Department? Was it because of an administrative problem that they have?"

Senator Bender: "This was a Department request, yes. They felt that the ten day period was too short and there is another law on the books, too, that had a sixty day time period and they wanted to make this in concurrence with that sixty day time period."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Bender, the conflict that Senator McCaslin was referring to was the arbitrarily changing--not by anybody in the Legislature I've come to find out--the forty-five days notice was changed to twenty days. We corrected it back to the forty-five days and that has not been disturbed? Is that your understanding?"

Senator Bender: "You are correct."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Bender that the Senate recede from its amendment to House Bill No. 279.

The motion by Senator Bender failed.

MOTION

Senator Vognild moved that the Senate insist on its position regarding the amendment to House Bill No. 279 and asks the House to concur therein.

vehicle provided that in no event shall the tax be less than one dollar and, subject to RCW 82.44.150 (5) and (6), the amount of such tax shall be credited against the amount of the excise tax levied by the state under RCW 82.44.020. Any other municipality is authorized to levy and collect a special excise tax not exceeding one percent on the fair market value of every motor vehicle owned by a resident of such municipality for the privilege of using such motor vehicle provided that in no event shall the tax be less than one dollar and, subject to RCW 82.44.150(5) and (6), the amount of such tax shall be credited against the amount of the excise tax levied by the state under RCW 82.44.020: PROVIDED, That before utilization of any excise tax moneys collected under authorization of this section for acquisition of right of way or construction of a mass transit facility on a separate right of way the municipality shall adopt rules affording the public an opportunity for "corridor public hearings" and "design public hearings" as herein defined, which rule shall provide in detail the procedures necessary for public participation in the following instances: (a) prior to adoption of location and design plans having a substantial social, economic or environmental effect upon the locality upon which they are to be constructed or (b) on such mass rapid transit systems operating on a separate right of way whenever a substantial change is proposed relating to location or design in the adopted plan. In adopting rules the municipality shall adhere to the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act.

A "corridor public hearing" is a public hearing that: (a) is held before the municipality is committed to a specific mass transit route proposal, and before a route location is established; (b) is held to afford an opportunity for participation by those interested in the determination of the need for, and the location of, the mass rapid transit system; (c) provides a public forum that affords a full opportunity for presenting views on the mass rapid transit system route location, and the social, economic and environmental effects on that location and alternate locations: PROVIDED, That such hearing shall not be deemed to be necessary before adoption of an overall mass rapid transit system plan by a vote of the electorate of the municipality.

Sec. 3. Section 1, chapter 87, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as last amended by section 13, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and by section 20, chapter 49, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 82.44.150 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) The director of licensing shall on the twenty-fifth day of February, May, August, and November of each year, commencing with November, 1971, advise the state treasurer of the total amount of motor vehicle excise taxes remitted to the department of licensing during the preceding calendar quarter ending on the last day of March, June, September, and December, respectively, except for those payable under RCW 82.44.020(5)(c) and 82.44.030, ~~((and 82.44.070))~~ from motor vehicle owners residing within each municipality which has levied a tax under RCW 35.58.273, which amount of excise taxes shall be determined by the director as follows:

The total amount of motor vehicle excise taxes remitted to the department, except those payable under RCW 82.44.020(5)(c) and 82.44.030, ~~((and 82.44.070))~~ from each county shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the population of the municipality residing in such county, and the denominator of which is the total population of the county in which such municipality or portion thereof is located. The product of this computation shall be the amount of excise taxes from motor vehicle owners residing within such municipality or portion thereof. Where the municipality levying a tax under RCW 35.58.273 is located in more than one county, the above computation shall be made by county, and the combined products shall provide the total amount of motor vehicle excise taxes from motor vehicle owners residing in the municipality as a whole. Population figures required for these computations shall be supplied to the director by the office of financial management, who shall adjust the fraction annually.

(2) On the first day of the months of January, April, July, and October of each year, the state treasurer based upon information provided by the department of licensing shall make the following apportionment and distribution of motor vehicle excise taxes deposited in the general fund except taxes collected under RCW 82.44.020(5). A sum equal to seventeen percent thereof shall be paid to cities and towns in the proportions and for the purposes hereinafter set forth: a sum equal to two percent of all motor vehicle excise tax receipts, except taxes collected under RCW 82.44.020(5), shall be allocable to the county sales and use tax equalization account under RCW 82.14.200; a sum equal to four and two-tenths percent of the special excise tax levied under RCW 35.58.273 by those municipalities authorized to levy a special excise tax at a rate not exceeding ninety-six one-hundredths of one percent on the fair market value of every motor vehicle owned by a resident of such municipality shall be deposited in the rail development account established in section 1 of this 1987 act; and a sum equal to seventy percent of all motor vehicle excise tax receipts shall be allocable to the state school equalization fund and credited and transferred each year in the following order of priority:

(a) The amount required and certified by the state finance committee each year as being necessary for payment of principal of and interest on bonds authorized by RCW 28A.47.760 through 28A.47.774 in the ensuing twelve months and any additional amounts required by the covenants of such bonds shall be transferred from the state school equalization fund to the 1963 public school building bond retirement fund.

(b) Any remaining amounts in the state school equalization fund from the motor vehicle excise taxes not required for debt service on the above bond issues shall be transferred and credited to the general fund.

(3) The amount payable to cities and towns shall be apportioned among the several cities and towns within the state according to the following formula:

(a) Sixty-five percent of the sum specified in subsection (2) of this section to be paid to cities and towns shall be apportioned ratably on the basis of population as last determined by the office of financial management.

(b) Thirty-five percent of the sum specified in subsection (2) of this section to be paid to cities and towns shall be apportioned to cities and towns under RCW 82.14.210.

(4) When so apportioned, the amount payable to each such city and town shall be transmitted to the city treasurer thereof, and shall be utilized by such city or town for the purposes of police and fire protection and the preservation of the public health therein, and not otherwise. In case it be adjudged that revenue derived from the excise tax imposed by this chapter cannot lawfully be apportioned or distributed to cities or towns, all moneys directed by this section to be apportioned and distributed to cities and towns shall be credited and transferred to the state general fund.

(5) On the first day of the months of January, April, July, and October of each year, the state treasurer, based upon information provided by the department of licensing, shall remit motor vehicle excise tax revenues imposed and collected under RCW 35.58.273 as follows:

(a) The amount required to be remitted by the state treasurer to the treasurer of any municipality levying the tax shall not exceed in any calendar year the amount of locally-generated tax revenues, excluding the excise tax imposed under RCW 35.58.273 for the purposes of this section, which shall have been budgeted by the municipality to be collected in such calendar year for any public transportation purposes including but not limited to operating costs, capital costs, and debt service on general obligation or revenue bonds issued for these purposes; and

(b) In no event may the amount remitted in a single calendar quarter exceed the amount collected on behalf of the municipality under RCW 35.58.273 during the calendar quarter next preceding the immediately preceding quarter.

(6) At the close of each calendar year accounting period, but not later than April 1, each municipality that has received motor vehicle excise taxes under subsection (5) of this section shall transmit to the director of licensing and the state auditor a written report showing by source the previous year's budgeted tax revenues for public transportation purposes as compared to actual collections. Any municipality that has not submitted the report by April 1 shall cease to be eligible to receive motor vehicle excise taxes under subsection (5) of this section until the report is received by the director of licensing. If a municipality has received more or less money under subsection (5) of this section for the period covered by the report than it is entitled to receive by reason of its locally-generated collected tax revenues, the director of licensing shall, during the next ensuing quarter that the municipality is eligible to receive motor vehicle excise tax funds, increase or decrease the amount to be remitted in an amount equal to the difference between the locally-generated budgeted tax revenues and the locally-generated collected tax revenues. In no event may the amount remitted for a calendar year exceed the amount collected on behalf of the municipality under RCW 35.58.273 during that same calendar year. At the time of the next fiscal audit of each municipality, the state auditor shall verify the accuracy of the report submitted and notify the director of licensing of any discrepancies.

(7) The motor vehicle excise taxes imposed under RCW 35.58.273 and required to be remitted under this section shall be remitted without legislative appropriation.

(8) Any municipality levying and collecting a tax under RCW 35.58.273 which does not have an operating, public transit system or a contract for public transportation services in effect within one year from the initial effective date of the tax shall return to the state treasurer all motor vehicle excise taxes received under subsection (5) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1987."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, strike everything after "account;" and insert "amending RCW 35.58.273; reenacting and amending RCW 82.44.150; adding a new section to Title 47 RCW; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency."

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: SB 5380

Providing cost-of-living adjustment of retirement benefits.

April 24, 1987

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the measure as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 96, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 306, Laws of 1986 and RCW 41.32.485 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, effective July 1, (~~1986~~) 1987, as a cost-of-living adjustment, no beneficiary receiving a retirement allowance pursuant to this chapter shall receive, as the pension portion of that retirement allowance, less than thirteen dollars and fifty cents per month for each year of service creditable to the person whose service is the basis of the pension. Portions of a year shall be treated as fractions of a year and the decimal equivalent shall be multiplied by thirteen dollars and fifty cents. Where the pension payable was adjusted at the time benefit payments to the beneficiary commenced, the minimum pension provided in this section shall be adjusted in a manner consistent with that adjustment.

(2) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, effective July 1, 1979, the retirement allowance of each beneficiary who either is receiving benefits pursuant to RCW 41.32.520 or 41.32.550 as of December 31, 1978, or commenced receiving a monthly retirement allowance under this chapter as of a date no later than July 1, 1974, shall be permanently increased by a post-retirement adjustment. This adjustment shall be in lieu of any adjustments provided under RCW 41.32.499(6) as of July 1, 1979, or July 1, 1980, for the affected beneficiaries. Such adjustment shall be calculated as follows:

(a) Retirement allowances to which this subsection and subsection (1) of this section are both applicable shall be determined by first applying subsection (1) and then applying this subsection. The department shall determine the total years of creditable service and the total dollar benefit base accrued as of December 31, 1978, except that this determination shall take into account only those beneficiaries to whom this subsection applies:

(b) The department shall multiply the total benefits determined in (a) of this subsection by six percent and divide the dollar value thus determined by the total service determined in (a) of this subsection. The resultant figure shall then be a post-retirement increase factor which shall be applied as specified in (c) of this subsection:

(c) Each beneficiary to whom this subsection applies shall receive an increase which is the product of the factor determined in (b) of this subsection multiplied by the years of creditable service.

(3) The provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall not be applicable to those receiving benefits pursuant to RCW 41.32.540 or 41.32.760 through 41.32.825.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 96, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 306, Laws of 1986 and RCW 41.40.198 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, effective July 1, (~~1986~~) 1987, as a cost-of-living adjustment, no beneficiary receiving a retirement allowance pursuant to this chapter shall receive, as the pension portion of that retirement allowance, less than thirteen dollars and fifty cents per month for each year of service creditable to the person whose service is the basis of the pension. Portions of a year shall be treated as fractions of a year and the decimal equivalent shall be multiplied by thirteen dollars and fifty cents. Where the pension payable was adjusted at the time benefit payments to the beneficiary commenced, the minimum pension provided in this section shall be adjusted in a manner consistent with that adjustment.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall not be applicable to those receiving benefits pursuant to RCW 41.40.220(1), 41.44.170(5), or 41.40.610 through 41.40.740. For persons who served as elected officials and whose accumulated employee contributions and credited interest was less than seven hundred fifty dollars at the time of retirement, the minimum benefit under subsection (1) of this section shall be ten dollars per month for each year of creditable service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 41.32 RCW to read as follows:

Beginning July 1, 1988, and every year thereafter, the department shall determine the following information for the minimum retirement allowance provided by RCW 41.32.485(1):

- (1) The dollar amount of the minimum retirement allowance as of July 1, 1988;
- (2) The index for the 1986 calendar year, to be known as "index A";
- (3) The index for the calendar year prior to the date of determination, to be known as "index B"; and
- (4) The ratio obtained when index B is divided by index A.

The value of the ratio obtained shall be the annual adjustment to the minimum retirement allowance and shall be applied beginning with the July payment. In no event, however, shall the annual adjustment:

- (a) Produce a retirement allowance which is lower than the minimum retirement allowance as of July 1, 1987;
- (b) Exceed three percent in the initial annual adjustment; or
- (c) Differ from the previous year's annual adjustment by more than three percent.

For the purposes of this section, "index" means, for any calendar year, that year's average consumer price index—Seattle, Washington area for urban wage earners and clerical workers, all items, compiled by the bureau of labor statistics, United States department of labor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 41.40 RCW to read as follows:

Beginning July 1, 1988, and every year thereafter, the department shall determine the following information for the minimum retirement allowance provided by RCW 41.40.198(1):

- (1) The dollar amount of the minimum retirement allowance as of July 1, 1988;
- (2) The index for the 1986 calendar year, to be known as "index A";
- (3) The index for the calendar year prior to the date of determination, to be known as "index B"; and
- (4) The ratio obtained when index B is divided by index A.

The value of the ratio obtained shall be the annual adjustment to the minimum retirement allowance and shall be applied beginning with the July payment. In no event, however, shall the annual adjustment:

- (a) Produce a retirement allowance which is lower than the minimum retirement allowance as of July 1, 1987;
- (b) Exceed three percent in the initial annual adjustment; or
- (c) Differ from the previous year's annual adjustment by more than three percent.

Persons who served as elected officials and whose accumulated employee contributions and credited interest were less than seven hundred fifty dollars at the time of retirement shall not receive the benefit provided by this section.

For the purposes of this section, "index" means, for any calendar year, that year's average consumer price index—Seattle, Washington area for urban wage earners and clerical workers, all items, compiled by the bureau of labor statistics, United States department of labor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The legislature reserves the right to amend or repeal sections 3 and 4 of this act in the future and no member or retiree has a contractual right to receive any cost-of-living adjustments not granted prior to that time.

Sec. 6. Section 6, chapter 151, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 3, chapter 32, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 41.32.4931 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~((Any former member of the teachers' retirement system or a former fund who is receiving a retirement allowance for service or disability on July 1, 1967, shall upon application approved by the board of trustees of the retirement system receive a pension of five dollars and fifty cents per month for each year of creditable service established with the retirement system. PROVIDED: That such former members who were retired pursuant to option 2 or option 3 of RCW 41.32.530 shall upon like application receive a pension which is actuarially equivalent under said option to the benefits provided in this section. PROVIDED FURTHER: That))~~ The benefits provided under subsection (2) of this section shall be available only to former members who have reached age sixty-five or are disabled for further public school service and are not receiving federal old age, survivors or disability benefit payments (social security) and are not able to qualify for such benefits ~~(; PROVIDED FURTHER: That anyone qualifying for benefits pursuant to this section shall not receive a smaller pension than he was receiving prior to July 1, 1967)).~~

(2) ~~Effective ((the first day of the month following the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act)) July 1, 1987, former members who ((have qualified for and have been granted benefits under)) receive the minimum retirement allowance provided by RCW 41.32.485(1) and who meet the requirements of subsection (1) of this section shall receive an additional special pension of ((three)) ten dollars per month per year of service credit. ((Such special pension shall be in addition to the minimum pension provided by RCW 41.32.497 and the cost-of-living increases provided under section 9, chapter 189, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess., RCW 41.32.499.))~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is appropriated two hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, from the general fund for the teachers' retirement fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, for the purposes of section 6 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. #### REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: SB 5550

Revising provisions relating to sexual offenders.

April 24, 1987

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we recommend the following:

That the House floor amendment by Representative Cooper on page 5, line 19, be adopted:

The House floor amendment by Representative Cooper on page 4, line 28, be rejected.

Signed by: Senators Talmadge, Nelson, Moore; Representatives Cooper, Armstrong, Padden.

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the Report of the Conference Committee on Senate Bill No. 5550 be adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Talmadge, the sexual psychopaths they are taking out of Western State and transferring, they are probably going where?"

Senator Talmadge: "Probably either the Penitentiary at Walla Walla where they have a special offenders unit, or possibly to Shelton."

Senator Rasmussen: "They are not going to put them up in the new prison?"

Senator Talmadge: "I don't know. I think probably for the most part, they will go to those two existing facilities, but that would be up to the Department of Corrections, Senator Rasmussen."

Senator Rasmussen: "Can I ask you a further question? I don't know if you know the answer. We recently had a series of rapes in Pierce County. One of the people was released from Western State--I imagine he will pay dearly for that in the future--but apparently the program there is not doing the job. This fellow said he did everything they suggested, so he could get out. Are we transferring the same training program along with the prisoners?"

Senator Talmadge: "That would be up to the Department of Corrections, Senator. There are some individuals who are convicted of less serious sex offenses for which the treatment program in a stringent environment like the correction institution, might benefit from that program. For some of the more serious rapist and other sex offenders, the Legislative Budget Committee audit of two years ago suggested that service of time in prison and service of time in the treatment program really didn't make much difference as to whether they went out and reoffended. So, the feeling was that perhaps they should simply serve the time in the institution for that reason."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well if they get in with the right group over in Walla Walla, they will get some training."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Talmadge to adopt the Report of the Conference Committee on Senate Bill No. 5550.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the Senate adopted the Report of the Conference Committee on Senate Bill No. 5550.

SECOND REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: HB 698

Authorizing collection by county treasurers of various local government charges.

April 25, 1987

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the measure as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 84.56 RCW to read as follows:

A local government authorized both to impose and to collect any special assessments, excise taxes, or rates or charges may contract with the county treasurer or treasurers within which the local government is located to collect the special assessments, excise taxes, rates, or charges. If such a contract is entered into, notice of the special assessments, excise taxes, or rates or charges due may be included on the notice of property taxes due, may be included on a separate notice that is mailed with the notice of property taxes due, or may be sent separately from the notice of property taxes due. County treasurers may impose an annual fee for collecting special assessments, excise taxes, or rates or charges not to exceed one percent of the dollar value of special assessments, excise taxes, or rates or charges collected.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 141, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.36.037 are each amended to read as follows:

Real or personal property owned by a nonprofit organization, association, or corporation in connection with the operation of a public assembly hall or meeting place is exempt from taxation. The area exempt under this section includes the building or buildings, the land under the buildings, and an additional area necessary for parking, not exceeding a total of one acre: PROVIDED, That for property essentially unimproved except for restroom facilities and structures on such property which has been used primarily for annual community celebration events for at least ten years, such exempt property shall not exceed twenty-nine acres.

To qualify for this exemption the property must be used exclusively for public gatherings and be available to all organizations or persons desiring to use the property, but the owner may impose conditions and restrictions which are necessary for the safekeeping of the property and promote the purposes of this exemption. Membership shall not be a prerequisite for the use of the property.

The use of the property for pecuniary gain or to promote business activities, except fund raising activities conducted by a nonprofit organization and except annual community celebration events if the proceeds of the events are used exclusively for the purposes for which the nonprofit organization, association, or corporation is organized, nullifies the exemption otherwise available for the property for the assessment year. The exemption is not nullified by the collection of rent or donations if the amount is reasonable and does not exceed maintenance and operation expenses created by the user.

The department of revenue shall narrowly construe this exemption and shall annually report to the legislature the names of organizations receiving such property tax exemptions.

Sec. 3. Section 7, chapter 40, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. as last amended by section 7, chapter 220, Laws of 1984 and RCW 84.36.805 are each amended to read as follows:

In order to be exempt pursuant to RCW 84.36.030, 84.36.035, 84.36.037, 84.36.040, 84.36.045, 84.36.047, 84.36.050, 84.36.060, 84.36.350, and 84.36.480, the nonprofit organizations, associations or corporations shall satisfy the following conditions:

(1) The property is used exclusively for the actual operation of the activity for which exemption is granted and does not exceed an amount reasonably necessary for that purpose, except:

(a) The loan or rental of the property does not subject the property to tax if:

(i) Except for the exemption under RCW 84.36.037, the rents and donations received for the use of the portion of the property are reasonable and do not exceed the maintenance and operation expenses attributable to the portion of the property loaned or rented; and

(ii) Except for the exemption under RCW 84.36.037, the property would be exempt from tax if owned by the organization to which it is loaned or rented;

(b) The use of the property for fund-raising activities does not subject the property to tax if the fund-raising activities are consistent with the purposes for which the exemption is granted;

(2) The property is irrevocably dedicated to the purpose for which exemption has been granted, and on the liquidation, dissolution, or abandonment by said organization, association, or corporation, said property will not inure directly or indirectly to the benefit of any shareholder or individual, except a nonprofit organization, association, or corporation which too would be entitled to property tax exemption: PROVIDED, That the provision of this subsection shall not apply to those qualified for exemption pursuant to RCW 84.36.040 if the property used for the purpose stated is either leased or rented;

(3) The facilities and services are available to all regardless of race, color, national origin or ancestry;

(4) The organization, association, or corporation is duly licensed or certified where such licensing or certification is required by law or regulation;

(5) Property sold to organizations, associations, or corporations with an option to be repurchased by the seller shall not qualify for exempt status;

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: E2SSB 5441

Authorizing establishment of local reemployment centers.

April 25, 1987

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the bill as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds and declares that:

(1) The number of unemployment compensation claimants in the state who have exhausted their benefits has more than doubled in the past seven years;

(2) Many of the unemployed have emotional, medical, and financial problems as a direct result of their unemployment;

(3) Many communities in this state have inadequate and poorly coordinated resources and programs to assist the unemployed in coping with problems that are associated with unemployment;

(4) The lack of coordinated and effective services for the unemployed seriously hampers their ability to conduct an effective work search and may have the effect of prolonging their unemployment; and

(5) A locally-based worker assistance program will result in long-term savings to the state and local communities by providing the unemployed with accessible rapid intervention services and by preventing economic hardships.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. It is the intent of the legislature to assist in the creation of pilot local reemployment centers which would increase the capacity of local communities to aid their unemployed. The pilot centers are intended to supplement but not supplant the efforts of the local job service centers of the employment security department. The legislature intends that the reemployment centers established by this chapter shall give first priority to those unemployed persons who have been unemployed a minimum of fifteen weeks.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. (1) The department of community development shall issue requests for proposals to nonprofit agencies or to local government agencies to serve as the local reemployment centers under this chapter. The requests for proposals shall authorize the selected agencies to receive state funds as authorized by law for a two-year period.

(2) The department shall issue requests for proposals for three centers. One center shall be located in Eastern Washington, one center shall be located in King county, and one center shall be located in Western Washington outside King county.

(3) The department shall establish standards to govern the selection of the reemployment centers. At a minimum, each local reemployment center shall raise matching funds in an amount equal to any state grant.

(4) Each local reemployment center designated by the department pursuant to this section shall share equally in any funding provided in an appropriations act for the purposes of sections 1 through 7 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. The local reemployment centers shall provide direct or referral services to the unemployed. To avoid duplication of existing services, preference shall be given to providing services by referral where appropriate programs are reasonably available to the unemployed. The referrals shall be made to agencies which provide any of the following services:

- (1) Reemployment assistance;
- (2) Medical services;
- (3) Social services including marital counseling;
- (4) Psychotherapy;
- (5) Mortgage foreclosure and utilities problems counseling;
- (6) Drug and alcohol abuse services;
- (7) Credit counseling; and

(8) Other services as deemed appropriate.

The local reemployment centers shall demonstrate the utilization of the services of volunteers to maximize the effectiveness of the centers' programs, and outreach efforts to encourage the unemployed to seek assistance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The employment security department and the department of social and health services shall each locate one or more workers on a full or part-time basis at each local reemployment center if locating the employees within the center will increase the effectiveness of coordinating the services offered to unemployed workers by the agencies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The department of community development shall require each local center that receives state funds under this chapter to submit semiannual reports to the department documenting the effectiveness of the center's activities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The referrals and services provided by the centers shall be confidential. Reporting and recordkeeping necessary to file the required reports with the department of community development shall be conducted in a manner which will maintain the confidentiality of the client-provider relationship.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) The employment security department shall implement a reemployment bonus demonstration project to provide reemployment incentives for qualified unemployment compensation claimants if federal or private funding is available. The reemployment bonus demonstration project shall provide for the payment of lump sum amounts to qualified unemployment compensation claimants who return to work within the time limits established by the department and who retain employment for a four-month period. For the purposes of this subsection, a qualified unemployment compensation claimant is one who accepts the employment security department's invitation to participate in the reemployment bonus demonstration project and who subsequently fulfills the enrollment requirements established by the department for participation in the project.

(2) The employment security department shall submit a report to the governor and to the commerce and labor committees of the house of representatives and the senate prior to the start of the 1989 legislative session, assessing the effectiveness of the reemployment bonus demonstration project.

(3) The reemployment bonus demonstration project shall cease to exist on June 30, 1989, unless extended by law for an additional fixed period of time.

Sec. 9. Section 31, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 7, chapter 276, Laws of 1986 and by section 25, chapter 299, Laws of 1986 and RCW 42.17.310 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) The following are exempt from public inspection and copying:

(a) Personal information in any files maintained for students in public schools, patients or clients of public institutions or public health agencies, welfare recipients, prisoners, probationers, or parolees.

(b) Personal information in files maintained for employees, appointees, or elected officials of any public agency to the extent that disclosure would violate their right to privacy.

(c) Information required of any taxpayer in connection with the assessment or collection of any tax if the disclosure of the information to other persons would (i) be prohibited to such persons by RCW 82.32.330 or (ii) violate the taxpayer's right to privacy or result in unfair competitive disadvantage to the taxpayer.

(d) Specific intelligence information and specific investigative records compiled by investigative, law enforcement, and penology agencies, and state agencies vested with the responsibility to discipline members of any profession, the nondisclosure of which is essential to effective law enforcement or for the protection of any person's right to privacy.

(e) Information revealing the identity of persons who file complaints with investigative, law enforcement, or penology agencies, other than the public disclosure commission, if disclosure would endanger any person's life, physical safety, or property: PROVIDED, That if at the time the complaint is filed the complainant indicates a desire for disclosure or nondisclosure, such desire shall govern: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That all complaints filed with the public disclosure commission about any elected official or candidate for public office must be made in writing and signed by the complainant under oath.

(f) Test questions, scoring keys, and other examination data used to administer a license, employment, or academic examination.

(g) Except as provided by chapter 8.26 RCW, the contents of real estate appraisals, made for or by any agency relative to the acquisition or sale of property, until the project or prospective sale is abandoned or until such time as all of the property has been acquired or the property to which the sale appraisal relates is sold, but in no event shall disclosure be denied for more than three years after the appraisal.

(h) Valuable formulæ, designs, drawings, and research data obtained by any agency within five years of the request for disclosure when disclosure would produce private gain and public loss.

(i) Preliminary drafts, notes, recommendations, and intra-agency memorandums in which opinions are expressed or policies formulated or recommended except that a specific record shall not be exempt when publicly cited by an agency in connection with any agency action.

(j) Records which are relevant to a controversy to which an agency is a party but which records would not be available to another party under the rules of pretrial discovery for causes pending in the superior courts.

(k) Records, maps, or other information identifying the location of archaeological sites in order to avoid the looting or depredation of such sites.

(l) Any library record, the primary purpose of which is to maintain control of library materials, or to gain access to information, which discloses or could be used to disclose the identity of a library user.

(m) Financial information supplied by or on behalf of a person, firm, or corporation for the purpose of qualifying to submit a bid or proposal for (a) a ferry system construction or repair contract as required by RCW 47.60.680 through 47.60.750 or (b) highway construction or improvement as required by RCW 47.28.070.

(n) Railroad company contracts filed with the utilities and transportation commission under RCW 81.34.070, except that the summaries of the contracts are open to public inspection and copying as otherwise provided by this chapter.

(o) Financial and commercial information and records supplied by private persons pertaining to export services provided pursuant to chapter 53.31 RCW.

(p) Financial disclosures filed by private vocational schools under chapter 28C.10 RCW.

(q) Records of local reemployment centers established under chapter 50.-- RCW (sections 1 through 7 of this 1987 act) if such records identify individual clients.

(2) Except for information described in subsection (1)(c)(i) of this section and confidential income data exempted from public inspection pursuant to RCW 84.40.020, the exemptions of this section are inapplicable to the extent that information, the disclosure of which would violate personal privacy or vital governmental interests, can be deleted from the specific records sought. No exemption may be construed to permit the nondisclosure of statistical information not descriptive of any readily identifiable person or persons.

(3) Inspection or copying of any specific records exempt under the provisions of this section may be permitted if the superior court in the county in which the record is maintained finds, after a hearing with notice thereof to every person in interest and the agency, that the exemption of such records is clearly unnecessary to protect any individual's right of privacy or any vital governmental function.

(4) Agency responses refusing, in whole or in part, inspection of any public record shall include a statement of the specific exemption authorizing the withholding of the record (or part) and a brief explanation of how the exemption applies to the record withheld.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The department of community development shall submit a report to the governor and to the commerce and labor committees of the house of representatives and the senate prior to the start of the 1989 legislative session. The report shall assess the effectiveness of the local reemployment centers in delivering services and in creating cost savings to the participating workers, communities, and the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 1 through 7 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 50 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Sections 1 through 7 of this act shall expire on March 15, 1989, unless extended by law for an additional fixed period of time.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "centers;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "reenacting and amending RCW 42.17.310; adding a new chapter to Title 50 RCW; creating a new section; and providing an expiration date."

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: SHB 738

Transferring functions of corrections standards board to other state agencies.

April 24, 1987

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Free Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we recommend that the measure be amended as proposed under the request for Free Conference and that the bill do pass as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

(See Report of Conference Committee on Substitute House Bill No. 738, read in earlier today.)

Signed by: Senators Wojahn, Anderson, Tanner; Representatives Sommers, Perry, Hankins.

MOTION

Senator Wojahn moved that the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Substitute House Bill No. 738 be adopted.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Wojahn, I am looking at the Free Conference Committee amendment on page 11, line 19--'after 1988, insert, cities and towns shall adopt the standards after considering guidelines established collectively by the cities and towns of the state--counties shall adopt the standards after considering the guidelines establishing collectively by the counties of the state.' I am not sure exactly what that means. Is there a mechanism for the cities and towns and counties to make a collective judgment? Are the cities, towns and counties then bound by that collective judgment?"

Senator Wojahn: "I would assume that the lobby group or whoever has charge of the counties and cities and there is a lobby group--the Association of Washington Counties and the Association of Washington Cities--I think it's very bad policy myself. However, if we don't adopt this, it will sunset immediately. This will at least give them a chance to come to meet together and to form some kind of conclusion on how to handle it."

Senator Pullen: "Senator Wojahn, I am also wondering if there is a technical flaw in that particular amendment. Could you take a look at the second clause, the one that appears after the semi-colon. It doesn't read parallel to the first clause. In fact, the second clause says, 'counties shall adopt the standards after considering guidelines establishing collectively by the counties of the state.' I am wondering if that word 'establishing' is supposed to be 'established?'"

Senator Wojahn: "I think it was supposed to be. It looks to me like it should be because it isn't good grammar the way it is."

Senator Pullen: "It's not only not good grammar, it just doesn't read right. I am wondering if that particular flaw is so egregious that we can assume it's some sort of typographical error? I see the Secretary of the Senate nodding affirmatively. Maybe if we are really absolutely sure that it is a typographical error—I don't think we have the authority to correct a serious grammatical or typographical error made by a Free Conference Report—but I would sure hate for that to go into law reading like that."

Senator Wojahn: "That's what we use the word 'sic' for, Senator Pullen. That is a typographical error, I am sure. Again, I would remind the body that if we do not extend it now, it will sunset immediately."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Wojahn to adopt the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Substitute House Bill No. 738.

The motion by Senator Wojahn carried and the Senate adopted the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Substitute House Bill No. 738.

SECOND REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: EHB 435

Revising provisions on inactive real estate licenses.

April 25, 1987

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the measure as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1, Section 8, chapter 370, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 162, Laws of 1985 and RCW 18.85.215 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any license issued under this chapter and not otherwise revoked shall be deemed "inactive" at any time it is delivered to the director. Until reissued under this chapter, the holder of an inactive license shall be deemed to be unlicensed.

(2) An inactive license may be renewed on the same terms and conditions as an active license, and failure to renew shall result in cancellation in the same manner as an active license.

(3) An inactive license may be placed in an active status upon completion of an application as provided by the director and upon compliance with this chapter and the rules adopted pursuant thereto. If a holder has an inactive license for more than three years, the holder must show proof of successfully completing a thirty clock hour course in real estate within one year prior to the application for active status.  Holders employed by the state and conducting real estate transactions on behalf of the state are exempt from this course requirement.

(4) The provisions of this chapter relating to the denial, suspension, and revocation of a license shall be applicable to an inactive license as well as an active license, except that when proceedings to suspend or revoke an inactive license have been initiated, the license shall remain inactive until the proceedings have been completed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 18.85 RCW to read as follows:

No person licensed under this chapter who is employed by the state and who is conducting real estate transactions on behalf of the state may hold an active license under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The legislature recognizes the value of an analytical review, removed from the political process, of proposals for increased regulation of real estate and other business professions which the legislature already regulates, as well as of proposals for regulation of professions not currently regulated. The legislature further finds that policies and standards set out for regulation of the health professions in chapter 18.120 RCW have equal applicability to other professions. To further the goal of governmental regulation only as necessary to protect the public interest and to promote economic development through employment, the legislature expands the scope of chapter 18.120 RCW to apply to business professions. The legislature intends that the reviews of proposed business profession regulation be conducted by the department of licensing's policy and research rather than regulatory staff and that the reviews be conducted and recommendations made in an impartial manner. Further, the legislature intends that the department of licensing provide sufficient staffing to conduct the reviews.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The purpose of sections 5 through 7 of this act is to establish guidelines for the regulation of the real estate profession and other business professions which may seek legislation to substantially increase their scope of practice or the level of regulation of the profession, and for the regulation of business professions not licensed or regulated on the effective date of this section: PROVIDED, That the provisions of this chapter are not intended and shall not be construed to: (a) Apply to any regulatory entity created prior to the effective date of this section, except as provided in this chapter; (b) affect the powers and responsibilities of the superintendent of public instruction or state board of education under RCW 28A.04-.120 and 28A.70.005; (c) apply to or interfere in any way with the practice of religion or to any kind of treatment by prayer; (d) apply to any remedial or technical amendments to any statutes which licensed or regulated activity before the effective date of this section; and (e) apply to proposals relating solely to continuing education. The legislature believes that all individuals should be permitted to enter into a business profession unless there is an overwhelming need for the state to protect the interests of the public by restricting entry into the profession. Where such a need is identified, the regulation adopted by the state should be set at the least restrictive level consistent with the public interest to be protected.

(2) It is the intent of this chapter that no regulation shall be imposed upon any business profession except for the exclusive purpose of protecting the public interest. All bills introduced in the legislature to regulate a business profession for the first time should be reviewed according to the following criteria. A business profession should be regulated by the state only when:

(a) Unregulated practice can clearly harm or endanger the health, safety, or welfare of the public, and the potential for the harm is easily recognizable and not remote or dependent upon tenuous argument;

(b) The public needs and can reasonably be expected to benefit from an assurance of initial and continuing professional ability; and

(c) The public cannot be effectively protected by other means in a more cost-beneficial manner.

(3) After evaluating the criteria in subsection (2) of this section and considering governmental and societal costs and benefits, if the legislature finds that it is necessary to regulate a business profession not previously regulated by law, the least restrictive alternative method of regulation should be implemented, consistent with the public interest and this section:

(a) Where existing common law and statutory civil actions and criminal prohibitions are not sufficient to eradicate existing harm, the regulation should provide for stricter civil actions and criminal prosecutions;

(b) Where a service is being performed for individuals involving a hazard to the public health, safety, or welfare, the regulation should impose inspection requirements and enable an appropriate state agency to enforce violations by injunctive relief in court, including, but not limited to, regulation of the business activity providing the service rather than the employees of the business;

(c) Where the threat to the public health, safety, or economic well-being is relatively small as a result of the operation of the business profession, the regulation should implement a system of registration;

(d) Where the consumer may have a substantial basis for relying on the services of a practitioner, the regulation should implement a system of certification; or

(e) Where apparent that adequate regulation cannot be achieved by means other than licensing, the regulation should implement a system of licensing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The definitions contained in this section shall apply throughout sections 4 through 7 of this act unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Applicant group" includes any business professional group or organization, any individual, or any other interested party which proposes that any business professional group not presently regulated be regulated or which proposes legislation to substantially increase the scope of practice or the level of regulation of the profession.

(2) "Business professions" means those business occupations or professions which are not health professions under chapter 18.120 RCW and includes, in addition to real estate brokers and salespersons under chapter 18.85 RCW, the following professions and occupations: Accountancy under chapter 18.04 RCW; architects under chapter 18.08 RCW; auctioneering under chapter 18.11 RCW; cosmetologists, barbers, and manicurists under chapter 18.16 RCW; contractors under chapter 18.27 RCW; debt adjusting under chapter 18.28 RCW; engineers and surveyors under chapter 18.43 RCW; escrow agents under chapter 18.44 RCW; landscape architects under chapter 18.96 RCW; water well construction under chapter 18.104 RCW; plumbers under chapter 18.106 RCW; and art dealers under chapter 18.110 RCW.

(3) "Certificate" and "certification" mean a voluntary process by which a statutory regulatory entity grants recognition to an individual who (a) has met certain prerequisite qualifications specified by that regulatory entity, and (b) may assume or use "certified" in the title or designation to perform prescribed professional tasks.

(4) "Grandfather clause" means a provision in a regulatory statute applicable to practitioners actively engaged in the regulated profession prior to the effective date of the regulatory statute which exempts the practitioners from meeting the prerequisite qualifications set forth in the regulatory statute to perform prescribed occupational tasks.

(5) "Inspection" means the periodic examination of practitioners by a state agency in order to ascertain whether the practitioners' occupation is being carried out in a fashion consistent with the public health, safety, and welfare.

(6) "Legislative committees of reference" means the standing legislative committees designated by the respective rules committees of the senate and house of representatives to consider proposed legislation to regulate business professions not previously regulated.

(7) "License", "licensing", and "licensure" mean permission to engage in a business profession which would otherwise be unlawful in the state in the absence of the permission. A license is granted to those individuals who meet prerequisite qualifications to perform prescribed professional tasks and for the use of a particular title.

(8) "Professional license" means an individual, nontransferable authorization to carry on an activity based on qualifications which include: (a) Graduation from an accredited or approved program, and (b) acceptable performance on a qualifying examination or series of examinations.

(9) "Practitioner" means an individual who (a) has achieved knowledge and skill by practice, and (b) is actively engaged in a specified business profession.

(10) "Public member" means an individual who is not, and never was, a member of the business profession being regulated or the spouse of a member, or an individual who does not have and never has had a material financial interest in either the rendering of the business' professional service being regulated or an activity directly related to the profession being regulated.

(11) "Registration" means the formal notification which, prior to rendering services, a practitioner shall submit to a state agency setting forth the name and address of the practitioner; the location, nature and operation of the business activity to be practiced; and, if required by the regulatory entity, a description of the service to be provided.

(12) "Regulatory entity" means any board, commission, agency, division, or other unit or subunit of state government which regulates one or more professions, occupations, industries, businesses, or other endeavors in this state.

(13) "State agency" includes every state office, department, board, commission, regulatory entity, and agency of the state, and, where provided by law, programs and activities involving less than the full responsibility of a state agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. After the effective date of this section, if appropriate, applicant groups shall explain each of the following factors to the extent requested by the legislative committees of reference:

(1) A definition of the problem and why regulation is necessary:

(a) The nature of the potential harm to the public if the business profession is not regulated, and the extent to which there is a threat to public health and safety;

(b) The extent to which consumers need and will benefit from a method of regulation identifying competent practitioners, indicating typical employers, if any, of practitioners in the profession; and

(c) The extent of autonomy a practitioner has, as indicated by:

(i) The extent to which the profession calls for independent judgment and the extent of skill or experience required in making the independent judgment; and

(ii) The extent to which practitioners are supervised;

(2) The efforts made to address the problem:

(a) Voluntary efforts, if any, by members of the profession to:

(i) Establish a code of ethics; or

(ii) Help resolve disputes between practitioners and consumers; and

(b) Recourse to and the extent of use of applicable law and whether it could be strengthened to control the problem;

(3) The alternatives considered:

(a) Regulation of business employers or practitioners rather than employee practitioners;

(b) Regulation of the program or service rather than the individual practitioners;

(c) Registration of all practitioners;

(d) Certification of all practitioners;

(e) Other alternatives;

(f) Why the use of the alternatives specified in this subsection would not be adequate to protect the public interest; and

(g) Why licensing would serve to protect the public interest;

(4) The benefit to the public if regulation is granted:

(a) The extent to which the incidence of specific problems present in the unregulated profession can reasonably be expected to be reduced by regulation;

(b) Whether the public can identify qualified practitioners;

(c) The extent to which the public can be confident that qualified practitioners are competent:

(i) Whether the proposed regulatory entity would be a board composed of members of the profession and public members, or a state agency, or both, and, if appropriate, their respective responsibilities in administering the system of registration, certification, or licensure, including the composition of the board and the number of public members, if any; the powers and duties of the board or state agency regarding examinations and for cause revocation, suspension, and nonrenewal of registrations, certificates, or licenses; the promulgation of rules and canons of ethics; the conduct of inspections; the receipt of complaints and disciplinary action taken against practitioners; and how fees would be levied and collected to cover the expenses of administering and operating the regulatory system;

(ii) If there is a grandfather clause, whether such practitioners will be required to meet the prerequisite qualifications established by the regulatory entity at a later date;

(iii) The nature of the standards proposed for registration, certification, or licensure as compared with the standards of other jurisdictions;

(iv) Whether the regulatory entity would be authorized to enter into reciprocity agreements with other jurisdictions; and

(v) The nature and duration of any training including, but not limited to, whether the training includes a substantial amount of supervised field experience; whether training programs exist in this state; if there will be an experience requirement; whether the experience must be acquired under a registered, certificated, or licensed practitioner; whether there are alternative routes of entry or methods of meeting the prerequisite qualifications; whether all applicants will be required to pass an examination; and, if an examination is required, by whom it will be developed and how the costs of development will be met:

(d) Assurance of the public that practitioners have maintained their competence:

(i) Whether the registration, certification, or licensure will carry an expiration date; and

(ii) Whether renewal will be based only upon payment of a fee, or whether renewal will involve reexamination, peer review, or other enforcement;

(5) The extent to which regulation might harm the public:

(a) The extent to which regulation will restrict entry into the profession:

(i) Whether the proposed standards are more restrictive than necessary to insure safe and effective performance; and

(ii) Whether the proposed legislation requires registered, certificated, or licensed practitioners in other jurisdictions who migrate to this state to qualify in the same manner as state applicants for registration, certification, and licensure when the other jurisdiction has substantially equivalent requirements for registration, certification, or licensure as those in this state; and

(b) Whether there are similar professions to that of the applicant group which should be included in, or portions of the applicant group which should be excluded from, the proposed legislation;

(6) The maintenance of standards:

(a) Whether effective quality assurance standards exist in the profession, such as legal requirements associated with specific programs that define or enforce standards, or a code of ethics; and

(b) How the proposed legislation will assure quality:

(i) The extent to which a code of ethics, if any, will be adopted; and

(ii) The grounds for suspension or revocation of registration, certification, or licensure;

(7) A description of the group proposed for regulation, including a list of associations, organizations, and other groups representing the practitioners in this state, an estimate of the number of practitioners in each group, and whether the groups represent different levels of practice; and

(8) The expected costs of regulation:

(a) The impact registration, certification, or licensure will have on the costs of the services to the public; and

(b) The cost to the state and to the general public of implementing the proposed legislation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Applicant groups shall submit a written report explaining the factors enumerated in section 6 of this act to the legislative committees of reference. Applicant groups, other than state agencies created prior to the effective date of this section, shall submit copies of their written report to the department of licensing for review and comment. The department of licensing shall make recommendations based on the report to the extent requested by the legislative committees.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: SB 5172

Revising provisions relating to victims and witnesses of crimes.

April 25, 1987

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the measure as follows:

The House amendment by Representative McMullen on page 4, after line 3, be adopted with the following change:

On page 1 of the amendment, line 21, after "43.08.250." insert "Moneys deposited under this section shall be used to compensate victims of crimes through the crime victims compensation fund."

The Senate Bill be further amended as follows:

On page 7, after line 16, insert the following:

"Sec. 5. Section 2, chapter 122, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 11, chapter 443, Laws of 1985 and RCW 7.68.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The following words and phrases as used in this chapter have the meanings set forth in this section unless the context otherwise requires.

(1) "Department" means the department of labor and industries.

(2) "Criminal act" means an act committed or attempted in this state which is punishable as a felony or gross misdemeanor under the laws of this state, except as follows:

(a) The operation of a motor vehicle, motorcycle, train, boat, or aircraft in violation of law does not constitute a "criminal act" unless:

(i) The injury or death was intentionally inflicted;

(ii) The operation thereof was part of the commission of another non-vehicular criminal act as defined in this section; or

(iii) The death or injury was the result of the operation of a motor vehicle after July 24, 1983, and a ((conviction)) preponderance of the evidence establishes that the death was the result of vehicular homicide under RCW 46.61.520, or a conviction of vehicular assault under RCW 46.61.522, has been obtained: PROVIDED, That in cases where a probable criminal defendant has died in perpetration of vehicular assault or, because of physical or mental infirmity or disability the perpetrator is incapable of standing trial for vehicular assault, the department may, by a preponderance of the evidence, establish that a vehicular assault had been committed and authorize benefits;

(b) Neither an acquittal in a criminal prosecution nor the absence of any such prosecution is admissible in any claim or proceeding under this chapter as evidence of the noncriminal character of the acts giving rise to such claim or proceeding, except as provided for in subsection (2)(a)(iii) of this section:

(c) Evidence of a criminal conviction arising from acts which are the basis for a claim or proceeding under this chapter is admissible in such claim or proceeding for the limited purpose of proving the criminal character of the acts; and

(d) Acts which, but for the insanity or mental irresponsibility of the perpetrator, would constitute criminal conduct are deemed to be criminal conduct within the meaning of this chapter.

(3) "Victim" means a person who suffers bodily injury or death as a proximate result of a criminal act of another person, the victim's own good faith and reasonable effort to prevent a criminal act, or his good faith effort to apprehend a person reasonably suspected of engaging in a criminal act. For the purposes of receiving benefits pursuant to this chapter, "victim" is interchangeable with "employee" or "workman" as defined in chapter 51.08 RCW as now or hereafter amended.

(4) "Child," "accredited school," "dependent," "beneficiary," "average monthly wage," "director," "injury," "invalid," "permanent partial disability," and "permanent total disability" have the meanings assigned to them in chapter 51.08 RCW as now or hereafter amended.

(5) "Gainfully employed" means engaging on a regular and continuous basis in a lawful activity from which a person derives a livelihood.

(6) "Private insurance" means any source of recompense provided by contract available as a result of the claimed injury or death at the time of such injury or death, or which becomes available any time thereafter.

(7) "Public insurance" means any source of recompense provided by statute, state or federal, available as a result of the claimed injury or death at the time of such injury or death, or which becomes available any time thereafter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The 1987 amendments to RCW 7.68.020 by section 5 of this act apply only to vehicular assault under RCW 46.61.522 or vehicular homicide under RCW 46.61.520 that occurs after the effective date of this section.

Senator Hansen: "No, not apply only to those districts. I didn't say that. The whole account--but it will be funded through the Metro systems of these counties that have the big Metro systems."

Senator Patterson: "What is the difference between the way the bill was originally passed?"

Senator Hansen: "I think they put it into a separate account and that was more or less funded from the Transportation Committee. Now, this one puts it underneath the Metro--that will be there with this light rail account and they will be using it. So, it will be part of the Metro system."

Senator Patterson: "One other question, Senator. Does this have any affect on the abandoned railroads all over the state?"

Senator Hansen: "At this time, I don't think they are looking at that part of it. The next bill that we have up, I think is the one that pertains to the abandoned railroads that we are getting into in eastern Washington."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Hansen to adopt the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed House Bill No. 1034.

The motion by Senator Hansen carried and the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed House Bill No. 1034 was adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1034, as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE (CORRECTED REPORT)

RE: SHB 542

Prohibiting placement of traps on private property without permission.

April 24, 1987

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Free Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we recommend that the measure be amended as proposed under the request for Free Conference and that the bill do pass as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

(See Report of Conference Committee on Substitute House Bill No. 542, read in on April 25, 1987.)

Signed by: Senators Owen, Cantu, DeJarnatt; Representatives Sutherland, Meyers, Amondson.

MOTION

Senator Owen moved that the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Substitute House Bill No. 542 be adopted.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Cantu, why did you take out the word 'written'?"

Senator Cantu: "Senator Pullen, there were a couple of reasons. One is that some members in the House felt that we should take it out, but in consultation with attorneys, the feeling was that two things would happen. Many of the very large, large landowners--the timber companies and people who hold lands in trust simply would not be available to provide that 'written.' Also, the question of liability came up. When you have written permission, it places a different burden on the property owners and there was concern that the written permission might give them a greater degree of exposure of liability charges without the word in there."

Senator Pullen: "Well, how are you going to resolve the problem if there is a dispute? In other words, suppose the trapper contends that he did have permission. In what way can the trapper prove that he had gotten it, or if a homeowner's dog ends up with a leg caught in a trap and the homeowner feels that he or she has been victimized by a trapper who didn't get permission, how is the homeowner now protected?"

Senator Cantu: "Senator Pullen, again, this is part of the reason for the language changes to make it consistent with trespassing laws. Two or three years ago, the trespassing laws were changed. Originally, it used to be the burden of proof was on the property owner to prove that a person was trespassing. The laws were changed; the burden is now upon the trespasser to prove that, indeed, they did have permission. So, the burden of proof is on the people trespassing, rather than the landowners."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Kiskaddon: "Senator Cantu, I have two reports on my desk. One labelled 4:45 p.m. and one labelled 6:30 p.m. On the one labelled 4:45 p.m., there are amendments on page 1, line 19, line 26, page 2, line 9, and page 4, line 6, and continues on to the next page. The second report only has an amendment on page 2, line 9, and it looks like the first part of the amendment on page 4, line 6. What is the report that we are actually adopting?"

Senator Cantu: "The reason we have the shorter version is that the front page of the original handout had part of the page missing and the intent was to reproduce the front page which had all of this complete. The longer version on the back side is a correct version because earlier, on the top part, there was a change made to the bill that would allow a trapper to use an identification number as well as their name and address, so the version that you have before you is on the back side—is the long version. On the front side is the one that doesn't have the half-page missing that occurred in the reproduction."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Owen to adopt the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Substitute House Bill No. 542.

The motion by Senator Owen carried and the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Substitute House Bill No. 542 was adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 542, as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 542, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McDonald, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vognilid, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 47.

Excused: Senators McCaslin, McDermott - 2.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: ESHB 1035

Creating the rail development commission.

April 24, 1987

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Free Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we recommend that the measure be amended as proposed under the request for Free Conference and that the bill do pass as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

(See Report of Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1035, read in on April 25, 1987.)

Signed by: Senators Hansen, Barr, Bender; Representatives Walk, Fisher, Schmidt.

MOTION

Senator Bender moved that the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1035 be adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Bender, we are establishing another commission. Does this have a sunset date on it?"

Senator Bender: "It states the date when they are supposed to report--by December 1, 1987. There is no sunset, as I can see, on this commission."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Patterson, we have the Legislative Transportation Committee self-funded out of--not self-funded, but it takes a portion--well it has its own funds out of the transportation budget. That has how many members--fourteen from each House?"

Senator Patterson: "There is one less in the Senate. The House has more members."

Senator Rasmussen: "I was wondering, was any consideration given to having this Transportation Committee from both Houses study the problem independently of setting up another commission?"

Senator Patterson: "Well, Senator, we have had, as I recall, no less than three studies of the LTC on this issue. The last one was about two and a half years ago and we expended about $150,000 for a high speed rail transit from the Vancouver/Portland area to the border in Canada and on into Canada. We took a look at that report and found that that was pretty extensive and very costly to do on the present track system that exists. This study is going to be trying to address the movement of traffic within the I-5 corridor primarily where the gridlock and all of the other difficulties of an expanding area is coming upon us.

"We felt, first of all, you have to devise a mechanism for funding such a proposal. The first bill we considered, under the questioning of Senator Hansen, provided that the Metro system would be the agency that would start developing the dollars to do it. The other proposal would have been a cost factor for the whole state of Washington. I am suggesting this commission will concentrate its efforts in this gridlock area. I think it's worthwhile. Someday we are going to have to address this issue and I think that this commission should come up with some good ideas that we might be able to adopt. The other one, we could not, but those studies will all be included in their study as to what the costs were."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Bender to adopt the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1035.

The motion by Senator Bender carried and the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1035 was adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1035, as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1035, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 6; excused, 2.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 16, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 6053 with the following amendments:

On page 2, after line 27, insert the following:

*Sec. 3. Section 11, chapter 282, Laws of 1971 as last amended by section 1, chapter 46, Laws of 1982 and RCW 28A.21.086 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to other powers and duties as provided by law, every educational service district board shall:

(1) Comply with rules or regulations of the state board of education and the superintendent of public instruction.

(2) If the district board deems necessary, establish and operate for the schools within the boundaries of the educational service district a depository and distribution center for films, tapes, charts, maps, and other instructional material as recommended by the school district superintendents within the service area of the educational service district: PROVIDED, That the district may also provide the services of the depository and distribution center to private schools within the district so long as such private schools pay such fees that reflect actual costs for services and the use of instructional materials as may be established by the educational service district board.

(3) Establish cooperative service programs for school districts within the educational service district and joint purchasing programs for schools within the educational service district pursuant to RCW 28A.58.107(3), as now or hereafter amended: PROVIDED, That on matters relating to cooperative service programs the board and superintendent of the educational service district shall seek the prior advice of the superintendents of local school districts within the educational service district.

(4) Establish direct student service programs for school districts within the educational service district including pupil transportation. However, for the provision of state-funded pupil transportation for special education cooperatives programs for special education conducted under chapter 28A.13 RCW, the educational service district, with the consent of the participating school districts, shall be entitled to receive directly state apportionment funds for that purpose: PROVIDED, That the board of directors and superintendent of a local school district request the educational service district to perform said service or services: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the educational service district board of directors and superintendents agree to provide the requested services: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the provisions of chapter 39.34 RCW are strictly adhered to.

Sec. 4. Section 6, chapter 265, Laws of 1981 and RCW 28A.41.540 are each amended to read as follows:

The superintendent shall determine the vehicle acquisition allocation in the following manner:

(1) By May 1st of each year, the superintendent shall develop preliminary categories of student transportation vehicles to ensure adequate student transportation fleets for districts. The superintendent shall take into consideration the types of vehicles purchased by individual school districts in the state. The categories shall include, but not be limited to, variables such as vehicle capacity, type of chassis, type of fuel, engine and body type, special equipment, and life of vehicle. The categories shall be developed in conjunction with the local districts and shall be applicable to the following school year. The categories shall be designed to produce minimum long-range operating costs, including costs of equipment and all costs incurred in operating the vehicles. Each category description shall include the estimated state-determined purchase price, which shall be based on the actual costs of the vehicles purchased for that comparable category in the state during the preceding twelve months and the anticipated market price for the next school fiscal year. By June 15th of each year, the superintendent shall notify districts of the preliminary vehicle categories and state-determined purchase price for the ensuing school year. By October 15th of each year, the superintendent shall finalize the categories and the associated state-determined purchase price and shall notify districts of any changes. While it is the responsibility of each district to select each student transportation vehicle to be purchased by the district, each district shall be paid a sum based only on the amount of the state-determined purchase price and inflation as recognized by the reimbursement schedule established in this section as set by the superintendent for the category of vehicle purchased.

(2) The superintendent shall develop a reimbursement schedule to pay districts for the cost of student transportation vehicles purchased after September 1, 1982. The accumulated value of the payments and the potential investment return thereon shall be designed to be equal to the replacement value of the vehicle less its salvage value at the end of its anticipated lifetime. The superintendent shall revise at least annually the reimbursement payments based on the current and anticipated future cost of comparable categories of transportation equipment. Reimbursements to school districts for approved transportation equipment shall be placed in a separate vehicle transportation fund established for each school district under RCW 28A.58.428. However, educational service districts providing student transportation services pursuant to RCW 28A.21.086(4) and receiving moneys generated pursuant to this section shall establish and maintain a separate vehicle transportation account in the educational service district's general expense fund for the purposes and subject to the conditions under RCW 28A.58.428 and 28A.58.430.

(3) To the extent possible, districts shall operate vehicles acquired under this section not less than the number of years or useful lifetime now, or hereafter, assigned to the class of vehicles by the superintendent. School districts shall properly maintain the transportation equipment acquired under the provisions of this section, in accordance with rules established by the office of the superintendent of public instruction. If a district fails to follow generally accepted standards of maintenance and operation, the superintendent of public instruction shall penalize the district by deducting from future reimbursements under this section an amount equal to the original cost of the vehicle multiplied by the fraction of the useful lifetime or miles the vehicle failed to operate.

(4) The superintendent shall annually develop a depreciation schedule to recognize the cost of depreciation to districts contracting with private carriers for student transportation. Payments on this schedule shall be a straight line depreciation based on the original cost of the appropriate category of vehicle."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, strike "and" and insert a comma

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Gaspard moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 6053.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Gaspard, I voted no on this originally and that's neither here nor there, but on this Educational Service District, is this limited to the one in Vancouver that wanted this or is this state wide for the Educational Service District?"

Senator Gaspard: "Yes, Senator Rasmussen, this would not be limited to the ESD in Vancouver, it would be available to all ESDs in the state of Washington and the school districts if they choose to combine their resources and operate a transportation system for the handicapped children."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, this provides that ESDs can directly receive state appropriated funds for that purpose?"

Senator Gaspard: "That would be true only if the local school districts agree to that."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Senator Bauer, this includes more than just transportation? This is all services or just transportation for the ESDs?"

Senator Bauer: "This is a transportation co-op--authorizing a transportation co-op. School districts now may enter into agreements among each other, between each other in the form of an ESD, in the form of a co-op, now to do specific things. As a matter of fact, in my ESD, because most of those little school districts out there can't afford a special education teacher--maybe a teacher of the blind or deaf or whatever--they will have one teacher out of the ESD and collectively, they finance that teacher. It's not an additional bunch of money, necessarily. In this case, they may get the funding from the SPI or support for the funding like any other school district would, but what it is, is collective permission or agreement among all of them to focus in on that transportation to make it less costly and more available. So, that's what the target is here."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Gaspard that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 6053.

The motion by Senator Gaspard carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 6053.

Senator McDermott moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5996.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Saling: "Senator McDermott, would you explain what the amendment actually says as far as the governance of what this new vocational program is?"

Senator McDermott: "Senator Saling, the House of Representatives changed the governance which we had put under the common schools--Seattle Public Schools--and put it under the sixth community college district giving the community college board the right to appoint an administrative board for the voc-tech center."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator McDermott, do we have any other system like that in the state, where the community college board of trustees appoints an independent board and then they in turn--I thought the Governor wanted to appoint everybody--these people are going to appoint the directors?"

Senator McDermott: "Senator Rasmussen, right now operating in Snohomish county is a situation exactly just like this. The Everett Community College Board has a contract with the Applied Technology Center which is run on the campus of Everett Community College. The board makes all the relevant decisions. The board appointed by the community college board makes all the relevant decisions, submits them to the community college board, they approve them and that's the end of it. This system has been tried up there and has been working now for about eighteen months and it's really interesting to hear the people on the other side suddenly get exercised at something like that--John Fluke, Jim Thorpe of Washington Natural Gas--I could name a half dozen other business people who have been involved in that who think it's a good idea. Suddenly, they think that it's not good in Seattle when it's good in south Snohomish county."

Signed by: Senators Talmadge, Halsan; Representatives Locke, Armstrong, Padden.

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the Report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5546 be adopted and the committee be granted the powers of Free Conference.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Nelson: "Senator Talmadge, when does Section 3 of the Act take effect?"

Senator Talmadge: "The effective date of that Act would be July 1, 1988. If we did not do anything this time, it would become effective July 1, 1987, and we wanted to avoid that. We wanted to try to work the entire change in the laws relating to assault at the same time in July, 1988."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Talmadge, I am terribly concerned about the definition of 'substantial bodily harm,' because we have added a new word 'substantial pain' and then when I go to the definition of 'substantial pain,' I find that it means serious physical pain extending for a period of time long enough to cause considerable suffering and those words are very vague and quite troublesome to me. The Senate version was, I thought, more precise because it related to relieving that serious pain through medication which I think would be much clearer language. Is it the intent to look over very carefully during this delayed implementation period, the problems surrounding the definition of 'substantial bodily harm' and 'substantial pain?' I hope that's the case because I am very worried about blurring the difference between 'substantial bodily harm' and 'bodily harm.' With this new definition, I am afraid we've blurred the difference so much that we are going to be creating all kinds of mischief."

Senator Talmadge: "The answer to the question about whether we are going to look at that definition is, yes. The reason we get into this difficulty is the whole area of assault law. Assault and battery that came to us from the English common law, is very difficult to translate into modern circumstances. Technically, under English common law if somebody touched you without approval, that was an assault. Under modern circumstances, that is obviously not an assault and shouldn't be. The circumstances we are trying to deal with are the extent to which the painful contact exists and how long it will exist.

"The prosecutors recommended to us the language that's in this draft, rather than the Senate language. It was their feeling that the language that is here, subjective though it might be, is more constitutionally defensible than the language that was in the Senate Bill. We are going to continue to look at that for the very reasons we have been troubled with out here on the floor. The intention is to develop a standard, subjective though it may be, that is at least as precise as we can draw it so that we don't run into problems of avoidance or being vague."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, a parliamentary inquiry. My sheet says we are going to adopt the Conference Report and grant Free Conference."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Adopt the Conference Report and grant the powers of Free Conference."

Senator Rasmussen: "I have a parliamentary inquiry in that respect. If we grant the powers of Free Conference at 3:15, then it takes twenty-four hours. Does it have to lay on the desk for twenty-four hours?"

President Cherberg: "It would be twenty-four hours from the time when it was put it on the Secretary's desk."

Senator Rasmussen: "We are granting the powers of Free Conference now, Mr. President, or we will. I think the rules say that we have to have twenty-four hours from the time we grant the powers of Free Conference. I might say I am not concerned with this bill; I am concerned with what might come along later."

President Cherberg: "The Secretary says it takes twenty-four hours from the time it was placed on the Secretary's desk, so that is what the President believes."

Senator Rasmussen: "I don't know where the Secretary's desk is; I am not acquainted too well with that. But, I think the rules say that it has to lay on his desk for twenty-four hours. We are granting it now at 3:15, that would be 3:15 tomorrow."

President Cherberg: "This was distributed at 7:30 p.m. on the twenty-fifth day of the month."

Senator Rasmussen: "I would agree with the President. That is what I have on my note here, but they didn't have the powers of Free Conference at that time."

President Cherberg: "They don't have it yet either, Senator. The rules don't require it."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, just so we can clarify this before we get into the waning hours of the session. Does that mean we cannot grant the powers of Free Conference for twenty-four hours from the time that the report is time stamped? I have been seeing all of our reports having a time indicated at the top of the report. Is it the interpretation of the rules that we cannot grant the powers of Free Conference for twenty-four hours after that time stamp?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The powers of Free Conference can be adopted prior to this time."

Senator Pullen: "Well, does the twenty-four hour rule relate to when we may vote on the measure?"

President Cherberg: "The President refers you to Rule 11, page 64, about half-way down the second paragraph."

Senator Pullen: "As I read the rule, we can grant the powers of Free Conference, but we may not consider the measure until twenty-four hours have elapsed."

President Cherberg: "That means that you couldn't vote on it until 7:30 this evening. Maybe you would want to utilize all the time you could have or you can grant the powers of Free Conference now. Would you like them? That's what it says right here."

Senator Pullen: "No, Mr. President, I was just trying to clarify the rules."

President Cherberg: "We are playing by the rules, Senator."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Talmadge to adopt the Report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5546 and to grant the powers of Free Conference.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the Report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Senate House Bill No. 5546 was adopted and the committee was granted the powers of Free Conference.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: E2SHB 758

Establishing the department of wildlife.

April 25, 1987

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the bill as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Washington's fish and wildlife resources are the responsibility of all residents of the state. We all benefit economically, recreationally, and aesthetically from these resources. Recognizing the state's changing environment, the legislature intends to continue to provide opportunities for the people to appreciate wildlife in its native habitat. However, the wildlife management in the state of Washington shall not cause a reduction of recreational opportunity for hunting and fishing activities. The paramount responsibility of the department remains to preserve, protect, and perpetuate all wildlife species. Adequate funding for proper management, now and for future generations, is the responsibility of everyone.

The intent of the legislature is: (1) To allow the governor to select the director of wildlife; (2) to retain the authority of the wildlife commission to establish the goals and objectives of the department; (3) to insure a high level of public involvement in the decision-making process; (4) to provide effective communications among the commission, the governor, the legislature, and the public; (5) to expand the scope of appropriate funding for the management, conservation, and enhancement of wildlife; (6) to not increase the cost of license, tag, stamp, permit, and punchcard fees prior to January 1, 1990; and (7) for the commission to carry out any other responsibilities prescribed by the legislature in this title.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 10, Laws of 1979 as last amended by section 47, chapter 466, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.17.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Such officers, except the secretary of transportation ~~((and the director of game))~~, shall be appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate, and hold office at the pleasure of the governor: PROVIDED, That the director of wildlife shall be appointed according to the provisions of RCW 77.04.080. For the purposes of this section, "emergency" means an unforeseen circumstance beyond the control of the landowner or tenant that presents a real and immediate threat to crops, domestic animals, fowl, or other property.

Alternatively, when sufficient time for the issuance of a permit by the director is not available, verbal permission may be given by the appropriate ((game)) department regional administrator to owners or tenants of real property to trap or kill on that property any deer, elk, or protected wildlife which is damaging crops, domestic animals, fowl, or other property. For purposes of this section, "crop" means an agricultural or horticultural product growing or harvested and includes wild shrubs and range land vegetation on privately owned cattle ranching lands. On such lands, the land owner or lessee may declare an emergency when the department ((of game)) has not responded within forty-eight hours after having been contacted by the land owner or lessee regarding crop damage by wild animals or wild birds. However, the department shall not allow claims for damage to wild shrubs or range land vegetation on such lands.

Deer and elk shall not be killed under the authority of this section on privately owned cattle ranching lands that were closed to public hunting during the previous hunting season, except for land closures which are coordinated with the department to protect property and livestock.

The department shall work closely with landowners and tenants suffering game damage problems to control damage without killing the animals when practical, to increase the harvest of damage-causing animals in hunting seasons, or to kill the animals when no other practical means of damage control is feasible.

The notice shall contain the name of an arbitrator. Within ten days of receiving the notice, the person served shall serve the name of an arbitrator personally or by registered mail upon the other party. The two arbitrators, within seven days of the naming of the second arbitrator, shall select a third arbitrator who shall not be an employee of the department or member of the commission. If the two arbitrators cannot agree upon a third arbitrator, either party may petition the superior court in the county in which the claim arose to select the third arbitrator. Upon receiving the petition, the court shall appoint a third arbitrator. Filing fees or court costs arising from the petition shall be shared equally by the claimant and the department.

(3) The award of the arbitrators is advisory only and shall be filed with the department within ninety days following the naming of the third arbitrator. Payment shall not be made by the ((commission)) director until the arbitrators have made their advisory award.

There is hereby created the trust land purchase account in the state treasury. Any revenues accruing to this account shall be used for the purchase of the property described in RCW 43.51.270(3)(a), to include all reasonable costs of acquisition, and a fee interest or such other interest in state trust lands presently used for park purposes as the state parks and recreation commission shall determine and to reimburse the state parks and recreation commission for the cost of collecting such fees beginning with the 1973-75 fiscal biennium. Any funds remaining in the account shall be used for the renovation and redevelopment of state park structures and facilities to extend the original life expectancy or correct damage to the environment of state parks and for the maintenance and operation of state parks in the 1981-83 biennium. Thereafter, the funds shall not be used for such purposes until the money in the account satisfies the payment required to be made in the contract for sale of lands in RCW 43.51.270(2), the acquisition of the property described in RCW 43.51.270(3)(a), those amounts necessary to pay for the remaining trust assets of timber situated on the lands described in RCW 43.51.270(2), and for the acquisition of the property described in RCW 43.51.270(3) (b), (c), (d), and (e) and 43.51.270(4) on a schedule satisfactory to the board of natural resources. Payments may be delayed for property described in RCW 43.51.270(3) (b), (c), (d), and (e) until the existing contract for purchase of lands in RCW 43.51.270(2) has been paid off. Payments for the property in RCW 43.51.270(4) may be delayed until contracts for purchase of lands and timber described in RCW 43.51.270 (2) and (3) have been paid off. Payments from the account for those parcels included in RCW 43.51.270(4) shall be established on a schedule which is mutually acceptable to the board of natural resources and the parks and recreation commission. All earnings of investments of balances in the trust land purchase account shall be credited to the general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 43.51 RCW to read as follows:

The parks and recreation commission and the department of natural resources may periodically conduct a joint review of trust lands managed by the department to identify those parcels which may be appropriate for transfer to the commission for public recreation purposes."

MOTION

MOTION

Senator Halsan moved that the following amendment by Senators Halsan, Talmadge, Smitherman, Nelson and Moore be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 3, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 17, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Commission" means the sentencing guidelines commission.

(2) "Community corrections officer" means an employee of the department who is responsible for carrying out specific duties in supervision of sentenced offenders and monitoring of sentence conditions.

(3) "Community custody" is that portion of an offender's community placement that represents the amount of early release time an offender earns in partial or total confinement.

(4) "Community placement" is a department of corrections program designed to intensify monitor offenders convicted of any sex offense or offense categorized as seriousness level VII or greater under RCW 9.94A.320, following transfer from partial or total confinement. Community placement may consist of entirely community custody, entirely postrelease supervision, or a combination of the two depending on the amount of early release time an offender earns in partial or total confinement. Community placement shall not exceed one year following transfer from partial or total confinement to community custody or direct placement upon postrelease supervision from partial or total confinement. However, community custody may exceed one year in the case of a sex offender who completes his or her treatment program under RCW 9.94A.120(7)(b) before the expiration of the term of confinement.

(5) "Community service" means compulsory service, without compensation, performed for the benefit of the community by the offender. For purposes of the interstate compact for out of state supervision of parolees and probationers, RCW 9.95.270, community supervision is the functional equivalent of probation and should be considered the same as probation by other states.

((4)) (6) "Community supervision" means a period of time during which a convicted offender is subject to crime-related prohibitions and other sentence conditions imposed pursuant to this chapter by a court. For first-time offenders, the supervision may include crime-related prohibitions and other conditions imposed pursuant to RCW 9.94A.120(5).

(7) "Conditional release" is an unsupervised one-year period following transfer from community placement for offenders convicted of an offense categorized as seriousness level VII or greater under RCW 9.94A.320 and following an offender's release from total or partial confinement with the department of corrections in all other cases. An offender who is only sentenced to a term of confinement in the county jail does not receive conditional release following their release from jail or any community supervision that may be imposed. During conditional release the conditions under RCW 9.94A.120(8)(d) apply.

Conditional release is not a department of corrections program and the department of corrections has no role, duty or obligation to supervise or in any way control offenders on this status. Violations, if any, may be adjudicated by the courts, upon petition of the prosecuting attorney, pursuant to section 8 of this act.

((5)) (8) "Confinement" means total or partial confinement as defined in this section.

((6)) (9) "Conviction" means an adjudication of guilt pursuant to Titles 10 or 13 RCW and includes a verdict of guilty, a finding of guilty, and acceptance of a plea of guilty.

((7)) (10) "Crime-related prohibition" means an order of a court prohibiting conduct that directly relates to the circumstances of the crime for which the offender has been convicted, and shall not be construed to mean orders directing an offender affirmatively to participate in rehabilitative programs or to otherwise perform affirmative conduct.

((8)) (11) (a) "Criminal history" means the list of a defendant's prior convictions, whether in this state, in federal court, or elsewhere. The history shall include, where known, for each conviction (i) whether the defendant has been placed on probation and the length and terms thereof; and (ii) whether the defendant has been incarcerated and the length of incarceration.

(b) "Criminal history" includes a defendant's prior convictions in juvenile court if: (i) The conviction was for an offense which is a felony and is criminal history as defined in RCW 13.40.020(6)(a); (ii) the defendant was fifteen years of age or older at the time the offense was committed; and (iii) with respect to prior juvenile class B and C felonies, the defendant was less than twenty-three years of age at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

((9)) (12) "Department" means the department of corrections.

((10)) (13) "Determinate sentence" means a sentence that states with exactitude the number of actual years, months, or days of total confinement, of partial confinement, of community supervision, the number of actual hours or days of community service work, or dollars or terms of a fine or restitution. The fact that an offender through "earned early release" can reduce the actual period of confinement shall not affect the classification of the sentence as a determinate sentence.

((11)) (14) "Drug offense" means any felony violation of chapter 69.50 RCW except possession of a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.401(d)) or forged prescription for a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.403).

((12)) (15) "Escape" means escape in the first degree (RCW 9A.76.110), escape in the second degree (RCW 9A.76.120), willful failure to return from furlough (RCW 72.66.060), or willful failure to return from work release (RCW 72.65.070).

((13)) (16) "Felony traffic offense" means vehicular homicide (RCW 46.61.520), vehicular assault (RCW 46.61.522), or felony hit-and-run injury-accident (RCW 46.52.020(4)).

((14)) (17) "Fines" means the requirement that the offender pay a specific sum of money over a specific period of time to the court.

((15)) (18) (a) "First-time offender" means any person who is convicted of a felony not classified as a violent offense or a sex offense under this chapter, and except as provided in (b) of this subsection, who previously has never been convicted of a felony in this state, federal court, or another state, and who has never participated in a program of deferred prosecution for a felony offense.

(b) For purposes of (a) of this subsection, a juvenile adjudication for an offense committed before the age of fifteen years is not a previous felony conviction.

((16)) (19) "Nonviolent offense" means an offense which is not a violent offense.

((17)) (20) "Offender" means a person who has committed a felony established by state law and is eighteen years of age or older or is less than eighteen years of age but whose case has been transferred by the appropriate juvenile court to a criminal court pursuant to RCW 13.40.110. Throughout this chapter, the terms "offender" and "defendant" are used interchangeably.

((18)) (21) "Partial confinement" means confinement for no more than one year in a facility or institution operated or utilized under contract by the state or any other unit of government, for a substantial portion of each day with the balance of the day spent in the community.

(22) "Postrelease supervision" is that portion of an offender's community placement in excess of the amount of early release time an offender has earned in partial or total confinement which has been served in community custody. Community custody and postrelease supervision shall not exceed one year in the aggregate from the offender's release from partial or total confinement.

((19)) (23) "Restitution" means the requirement that the offender pay a specific sum of money over a specific period of time to the court as payment of damages. The sum may include both public and private costs. The imposition of a restitution order does not preclude civil redress.

((20)) (24) "Serious traffic offense" means driving while intoxicated (RCW 46.61.502), actual physical control while intoxicated (RCW 46.61.504), reckless driving (RCW 46.61.500), or hit-and-run an attended vehicle (RCW 46.52.020(5)).

((21)) (25) "Serious violent offense" is a subcategory of violent offense and means murder in the first degree, murder in the second degree, assault in the first degree, kidnapping in the first degree, or rape in the first degree, or an attempt, criminal solicitation, or criminal conspiracy to commit one of these felonies.

((22)) (26) "Sentence range" means the sentencing court's discretionary range in imposing a nonappealable sentence.

((23)) (27) "Sex offense" means a felony that is a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020 or 9.68A.090 or that is, under chapter 9A.28 RCW, a criminal attempt, criminal solicitation, or criminal conspiracy to commit such crimes.

((24)) (28) "Total confinement" means confinement inside the physical boundaries of a facility or institution operated or utilized under contract by the state or any other unit of government for twenty-four hours a day, or pursuant to RCW 72.64.050 and 72.64.060.

((25)) (29) "Victim" means any person who has sustained physical or financial injury to person or property as a direct result of the crime charged.

((26)) (30) "Violent offense" means:

(a) Any of the following felonies, as now existing or hereafter amended: Any felony defined under any law as a class A felony or an attempt to commit a class A felony, criminal solicitation or criminal conspiracy to commit a class A felony, manslaughter in the first degree, manslaughter in the second degree, indecent liberties if committed by forcible compulsion, rape in the second degree, kidnapping in the second degree, arson in the second degree, assault in the second degree, extortion in the first degree, robbery in the second degree, vehicular homicide, and vehicular assault;

(b) Any conviction for a felony offense in effect at any time prior to July 1, 1976, that is comparable to a felony classified as a violent offense in (a) of this subsection ((26)(a) of this section)); and

(c) Any federal or out-of-state conviction for an offense that under the laws of this state would be a felony classified as a violent offense under (a) or (b) of this subsection ((26)(a) or (b) of this section)).

Sec. 2. Section 12, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 20, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and by section 4, chapter 301, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.120 are each re-enacted and amended to read as follows:

When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this section.

(1) Except as authorized in subsections (2), (5), and (7) of this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range for the offense.

(2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(3) Whenever a sentence outside the standard range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard range shall be a determinate sentence.

(4) An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years. An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than three years, and shall not be eligible for furlough, work release or other authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility during such minimum three year term except for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility. The foregoing minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) In sentencing a first-time offender the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(a) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(b) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense;

(c) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;

(d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;

(e) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer; or

(f) Pay a fine and/or accomplish some community service work.

(6) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or a fine. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(7) (a) When an offender is convicted of a sex offense other than a violation of RCW 9A.44.040 or RCW 9A.44.050 and has no prior convictions for a sex offense or any other felony sexual offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

After receipt of the reports, the court shall then determine whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative. If the court determines that both the offender and the community will benefit from use of this provision, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range and, if this sentence is less than six years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and place the offender on community supervision for up to two years. As a condition of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense, crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (ii) Undergo available outpatient sex offender treatment for up to two years, or inpatient sex offender treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment;
- (iii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer ~~((of))~~ prior to any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (iv) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (v) Pay a fine, accomplish some community service work, or any combination thereof;

~~((or))~~
(vi) Make recoupment to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime; or

(vii) Refrain from committing violent offenses, offenses involving a deadly weapon, and any felony violation of the uniform controlled substances act.

If the offender violates these sentence conditions the court may revoke the suspension and order execution of the sentence. All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(b) When an offender ~~((is convicted of))~~ commits any felony sexual offense on or after July 1, 1987, and is sentenced ((on or after July 1, 1987;)) to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, request the department of corrections to evaluate whether the offender is amenable to treatment and the department may place the offender in a treatment program within a correctional facility operated by the department.

If the offender completes the treatment program before the expiration of his term of confinement, the department of corrections may request the court to convert the balance of confinement to community ~~((supervision and to place conditions on the offender including crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:~~

- ~~(i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;~~
- ~~(ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;~~
- ~~(iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;~~
- ~~(iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment;))~~ custody with the same conditions as placed on the offender by the court at the original imposition of sentence pursuant to subsection (8)(b) of this section.

If the offender violates any of the terms of community ~~((supervision))~~ custody, the ((court)) department may order the offender to serve ~~((out the balance of his community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections))~~ a maximum of sixty days for each violation in partial or total confinement not to exceed the total period of community placement.

Nothing in (b) of this subsection shall confer eligibility for such programs for offenders convicted and sentenced for a sexual offense committed prior to July 1, 1987.

After June 30, 1993, (b) of this subsection shall cease to have effect.

~~((c) Whenever a court sentences a person convicted of a sex offense committed after July 1, 1986, to a term of confinement of more than one year, including a sentence under (b) of this subsection, the court may also order, in addition to the other terms of the sentence, that the offender, upon release from confinement, serve up to two years of community supervision. The conditions of supervision shall be limited to:~~

- ~~(i) Crime-related provisions;~~
- ~~(ii) A requirement that the offender report to a community corrections officer at regular intervals; and~~
- ~~(iii) A requirement to remain within or without stated geographical boundaries;~~

The length and conditions of supervision shall be set by the court at the time of sentencing. However, within thirty days prior to release from confinement and throughout the period of supervision, the length and conditions of supervision may be modified by the sentencing court, upon motion of the department of corrections, the offender, or the prosecuting attorney. The period of supervision shall be tolled during any time the offender is in confinement for any reason. In no case may the period of supervision, in combination with the other terms of the offender's sentence, exceed the statutory maximum term for the offender's crime, as set forth in RCW 9A.20.021.

If the offender violates any condition of supervision, the sentencing court, after a hearing conducted in the same manner as provided for in RCW 9.94A.200, may order the offender to be confined for up to sixty days in the county jail at state expense from funds provided for this purpose to the department of corrections. Reimbursement rates for such purposes shall be established based on a formula determined by the office of financial management and reestablished each even-numbered year. An offender may be held in jail at state expense pending the hearing, and any time served while awaiting the hearing shall be credited against confinement imposed for a violation. Even after the period of supervision has expired, an offender may be confined for a violation occurring during the period of supervision. The court shall retain jurisdiction for the purpose of holding the violation hearing and imposing a sanction:))

(8)(a) When a court sentences a person to a term of total confinement to the custody of the department of corrections for a sex offense, committed on or after July 1, 1987, or an offense categorized as seriousness level VII or greater under RCW 9.94A.320, committed on or after July 1, 1988, the court shall order that the offender shall be transferred from confinement to community custody when the offender is eligible for community custody status in lieu of earned early release time pursuant to RCW 9.94A.150(1), as computed by the department of corrections. An offender shall be released from community custody after serving the total sentence imposed by the court or one year, whichever is less, and shall thereafter be placed on postrelease supervision for the balance of the offender's community placement. Following completion of community placement, if any, the offender shall be placed on one year of conditional release.

(b) When a court sentences a person to a term of total confinement to the custody of the department of corrections for a sex offense, committed on or after July 1, 1987, or an offense categorized as seriousness level VII or greater under RCW 9.94A.320, committed on or after July 1, 1988, unless a condition is waived by the court, the sentence shall include, in addition to the other terms of the sentence, the following conditions regarding the community custody program of the department of corrections:

(i) The offender shall report to and be available for contact with the assigned community corrections officer as directed;

(ii) The offender shall work at department of corrections-approved education, employment, and/or community service;

(iii) The offender shall not consume or possess controlled substances; and

(iv) The offender shall pay community custody fees as determined by the department of corrections.

(c) The court may also order any of the following special conditions:

(i) The offender shall remain within, or outside of, a specified geographical boundary;

(ii) The offender shall not have direct or indirect contact with the victim of the crime or a specified class of individuals;

(iii) The offender shall participate in treatment or counseling services;

(iv) The offender shall not consume alcohol;

(v) The residence location and living arrangements of a sex offender shall be subject to the prior approval of the department of corrections; or

(vi) The offender shall comply with any crime-related prohibitions.

(d) Those offenders sentenced to the department of corrections for an offense other than a sex offense or an offense categorized as less than seriousness level VII under RCW 9.94A.320, committed on or after July 1, 1988, shall receive conditional release one year following release from total or partial confinement.

(e) An offender on conditional release following a period of community placement shall be subject only to the conditions specified by (c) (ii) and (iii) of this subsection. An offender on conditional release who has not been on community placement shall not be subject to conditions under this subsection, but shall only be subject to an enhancement of the offender's score under RCW 9.94A.330 for any new felonies committed during the period of conditional release.

(f) Within thirty days prior to release from confinement and throughout the period of community placement, the conditions of supervision may be modified by the sentencing court, upon motion of the offender or the prosecuting attorney.

(9) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

~~((9))~~ (10) If a sentence imposed includes a fine or restitution, the sentence shall specify a reasonable manner and time in which the fine or restitution shall be paid. In any sentence under this chapter the court may also require the offender to make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary (a) to pay court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required, (b) to make recoupment of the cost of defense attorney's fees if counsel is provided at public expense, (c) to contribute to a county or interlocal drug fund, and (d) to make such other payments as provided by law. All monetary payments shall be ordered paid by no later than ten years after the date of the ~~(judgment of conviction)~~ sentence. The offender's compliance with payment of monetary obligations shall be supervised by the department. The rate of payment shall be determined by the court or, in the absence of a rate determined by the court, the rate shall be set by the department.

An offender's default in the payment of restitution, fines, and other monetary obligations imposed under this chapter, or any installment thereof, may be collected by any means authorized by law for the enforcement of a judgment. Judgments for monetary obligations under this chapter are and may be made liens upon the property of the offender in the same manner and with like effect as judgments in civil actions.

~~((10))~~ (11) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(1), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW.

~~((11))~~ (12) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, ~~(restitution, or fines)~~ or court imposed monetary obligations shall be under the supervision of the secretary of the department of corrections or such person as the secretary may designate and shall follow implicitly the instructions of the secretary ~~(including)~~ related to reporting as directed to a community corrections officer, remaining within prescribed geographical boundaries, ~~(and)~~ notifying the community corrections officer ~~(of)~~ prior to any change in the offender's address or employment, refraining from committing violent offenses, offenses involving a deadly weapon, and any felony violation of the uniform controlled substances act, and such other instructions that allow for the monitoring of court-imposed conditions.

~~((12))~~ (13) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

~~((13))~~ (14) A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400(1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, and may be appealed by the defendant or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210(2) through (6).

~~((14))~~ (15) The court shall order restitution whenever the offender is convicted of a felony that results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property, whether the offender is sentenced to confinement or placed under community supervision, unless extraordinary circumstances exist that make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment. The court shall set forth the extraordinary circumstances in the record if it does not order restitution.

Sec. 3. Section 15, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 8, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.150 are each amended to read as follows:

No person serving a sentence imposed pursuant to this chapter shall leave the confines of the correctional facility or be released prior to the expiration of the sentence except as follows:

(1) Except for persons convicted of a sex offense or an offense categorized as seriousness level VII or greater under RCW 9.94A.320, the terms of the sentence may be reduced by earned early release time in accordance with procedures developed and promulgated by the department. The earned early release time shall be for good behavior and good performance, as determined by the department. In no case shall the aggregate earned early release time exceed one-third of the sentence. Persons convicted of a sex offense or an offense categorized as seriousness level VII or greater under RCW 9.94A.320 may become eligible for community custody in lieu of earned early release time in accordance with the program developed and promulgated by the department:

(2) When a person convicted of a sex offense or an offense categorized as seriousness level VII or greater under RCW 9.94A.320 is eligible for transfer to community custody status in lieu of earned early release time pursuant to RCW 9.94A.150(1), as computed by the department of corrections, the offender shall be transferred from confinement to community custody.

(3) An offender may leave a correctional facility pursuant to an authorized furlough or leave of absence. In addition, offenders may leave a correctional facility when in the custody of a corrections officer or officers:

~~((3))~~ (4) The governor, upon recommendation from the clemency and pardons board, may grant an extraordinary release for reasons of serious health problems, senility, advanced age, extraordinary meritorious acts, or other extraordinary circumstances;

~~((4))~~ (5) No more than the final ~~(three)~~ six months of the sentence may be served in partial years;

confinement designed to aid the qualified offender, as determined by the department of corrections, in finding work and reestablishing him or herself in the community (~~if the sentence of confinement is in excess of three years, no more than the final six months of the sentence may be served in such partial confinement~~);

((5)) (6) The governor may pardon any offender;

((6)) (7) The department of corrections may release an offender from confinement any time within ten days before a release date calculated under this section; and

((7)) (8) An offender may leave a correctional facility prior to completion of his sentence if the sentence has been reduced as provided in RCW 9.94A.160.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 9.94A RCW to read as follows:

If an offender violates any condition or requirement of community custody, the department may impose sanctions. If an offender is accused of violating any condition or requirement of community custody, he or she is entitled to a hearing before sanctions may be imposed. The department shall promulgate rules governing such hearing procedures and sanctions. Detention of an offender pursuant to section 5 of this act shall not be considered a sanction.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 9.94A RCW to read as follows:

(1) The secretary may issue warrants for the arrest of any offender who violates a condition of community custody. The arrest warrants shall authorize any law enforcement or peace officer or community corrections officer of this state or any other state where such offender may be located, to arrest the offender and place him or her in total confinement pending return to confinement in a state correctional institution. The department shall compensate the local jurisdiction at the office of financial management's adjudicated rate, in accordance with RCW 70.48.440. A community corrections officer, if he or she has reasonable cause to believe an offender in community custody has violated a condition of community custody, may suspend the person's community custody status and arrest or cause the arrest and detention in total confinement of the offender in a state facility, pending the determination of the secretary as to whether the violation has occurred. The community corrections officer shall report to the secretary all facts and circumstances and the reasons for the action of suspending community custody status.

(2) Inmates, as defined in RCW 72.09.020, who have been transferred to community custody and who are detained in a local correctional facility are the financial responsibility of the department of corrections. The community custody inmate shall be removed from the local correctional facility not later than eight days, excluding weekends and holidays, following admittance to the local correctional facility and notification that the inmate is available for movement to a state correctional institution. However, if good cause is shown, the department may negotiate with local correctional authorities for an additional period of detention.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 72.09 RCW to read as follows:

An offender in community custody who wilfully fails to report to the assigned community corrections officer at the time specified by the department of corrections shall be deemed an escapee and fugitive from justice, and upon conviction shall be guilty of a class C felony under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

Sec. 7. Section 7, chapter 136, Laws of 1981 and RCW 72.09.020 are each amended to read as follows:

For purposes of this chapter, "inmate" means any person committed to the custody of the department, including but not limited to persons residing in a correctional institution or facility and persons released on furlough ((or)), work release, or community custody.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 9.94A RCW to read as follows:

If the offender violates any condition of postrelease supervision or conditional release following community placement, a hearing may be conducted in the same manner as provided in RCW 9.94A.200. Jurisdiction shall be with the court of the county in which the offender was sentenced. However, the court may order a change of venue to the offender's county of residence or where the violation occurred, for the purpose of holding a violation hearing. The district courts shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the superior courts after a certified copy of the judgment and sentence is filed.

After the hearing, the court may order the offender to be confined for up to sixty days in the county jail, the first thirty of which shall be at state expense from funds provided for this purpose to the department of corrections, and the second thirty of which, together with costs of indigent defense, shall be at county expense. Reasonable reimbursement rates for such purposes shall be established based on a formula determined by the office of financial management and reestablished each even-numbered year. An offender may be held in jail at state expense pending the hearing, and any time served while awaiting the hearing shall be credited against confinement imposed for a violation. Even after the period of supervision or conditions has expired, an offender may be confined for a violation occurring during the period of supervision or conditions if the petition to revoke is filed within the period of supervision or seven days thereafter. The court shall retain jurisdiction for the purpose of holding the violation hearing and imposing a sanction.

Sec. 9. Section 17, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.94A.170 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A term of confinement ordered in a sentence pursuant to this chapter shall be tolled by any period of time during which the offender has absented him or herself from ((supervision) confinement) without the prior approval of the entity in whose custody the offender has been placed.

(2) The period of community placement shall be tolled during any period of time the offender is in confinement for any reason. However, if an offender is detained pursuant to section 5 of this 1987 act and is later found not to have violated a condition or requirement of community placement, time spent in total confinement due to such detention shall not toll the period of community placement. The period of community placement shall be tolled by any period of time during which the offender has absented himself or herself from monitoring without prior approval of the entity under whose supervision the offender has been placed. For the period of a sentence during which an offender is placed in community placement, the date for the tolling of the sentence shall be established by the department of corrections.

(3) For confinement sentences, the date for the tolling of the sentence shall be established by the entity responsible for the confinement. For sentences involving supervision, the date for the tolling of the sentence shall be established by the court, based on reports from the entity responsible for the supervision.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 72.09 RCW to read as follows:

The state of Washington, the department, community corrections officers, their staff, and volunteers who assist community corrections officers in the community placement program are not liable for civil damages resulting from any act or omission in the rendering of community placement monitoring activities, other than acts or omissions constituting gross negligence or willful or wanton misconduct. For purposes of this section, "volunteers" is defined according to RCW 51.12.035.

Sec. 11. Section 20, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 12, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.200 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If an offender violates any condition or requirement of a sentence, the court may modify its order of judgment and sentence and impose further punishment in accordance with this section.

(2) If an offender fails to comply with any of the requirements or conditions of a sentence the following provisions apply:

(a) The court, upon the motion of the state, or upon its own motion, shall require the offender to show cause why the offender should not be punished for the noncompliance. The court may issue a summons or a warrant of arrest for the offender's appearance;

(b) The state has the burden of showing noncompliance by a preponderance of the evidence. If the court finds that the violation has occurred, it may order the offender to be confined for a period not to exceed sixty days for each violation, and may (i) convert a term of partial confinement to total confinement, (ii) convert community service obligation to total or partial confinement, or (iii) convert monetary obligations, except restitution and the crime victim penalty assessment, to community service hours at the rate of the state minimum wage for each hour of community service. Any time served in confinement awaiting a hearing on noncompliance shall be credited against any confinement order by the court. Any confinement served as a violation for committing new offenses shall be credited towards the confinement imposed for the new conviction and shall not exceed sixty days or the term of confinement for the new conviction; and

(c) If the court finds that the violation was not willful, the court may modify its previous order regarding payment of fines or other monetary payments and regarding community service obligations.

(3) Nothing in this section prohibits the filing of escape charges if appropriate.

Sec. 12. Section 7, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 25, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.360 are each amended to read as follows:

The offender score is measured on the horizontal axis of the sentencing grid. The offender score rules, partially summarized in Table 3, RCW 9.94A.330, are as follows:

The offender score is the sum of points accrued under subsections (1) through ~~((14))~~ (15) of this section rounded down to the nearest whole number.

(1) A prior conviction is a conviction which exists before the date of sentencing for the offense for which the offender score is being computed. Convictions entered or sentenced on the same date as the conviction for which the offender score is being computed shall be deemed "other current offenses" within the meaning of RCW 9.94A.400.

(2) Except as provided in subsections (3) and (13) of this section, class A prior felony convictions shall always be included in the offender score. Class B prior felony convictions shall not be included in the offender score, if since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent ten consecutive years in the community without being convicted of any felonies. Class C prior felony convictions shall not be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent five consecutive years in the community without being convicted of any felonies.

Serious traffic convictions shall not be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender spent five years in the community without being convicted of any serious traffic or felony traffic offenses. This subsection applies to both adult and juvenile prior convictions. Out-of-state convictions for offenses shall be classified according to the comparable offense definitions and sentences provided by Washington law.

(3) Include class A juvenile felonies only if the offender was 15 or older at the time the juvenile offense was committed. Include class B and C juvenile felony convictions only if the offender was 15 or older at the time the juvenile offense was committed and the offender was less than 23 at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

(4) Score prior convictions for felony anticipatory offenses (attempts, criminal solicitations, and criminal conspiracies) the same as if they were convictions for completed offenses.

(5) In the case of multiple prior convictions, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all convictions separately, except:

(a) Prior adult offenses which were found, under RCW 9.94A.400(1)(a), to encompass the same criminal conduct, shall be counted as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score. The current sentencing court shall determine with respect to other prior adult offenses for which sentences were served concurrently whether those offenses shall be counted as one offense or as separate offenses, and if the court finds that they shall be counted as one offense, then the offense that yields the highest offender score shall be used;

(b) Juvenile prior convictions entered or sentenced on the same date shall count as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score; and

(c) In the case of multiple prior convictions for offenses committed before July 1, 1986, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all adult convictions served concurrently as one offense, and count all juvenile convictions entered on the same date as one offense. Use the conviction for the offense that yields the highest offender score.

(6) If the present conviction is one of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy, count each prior conviction as if the present conviction were for a completed offense.

(7) If the present conviction is for a nonviolent offense and not covered by subsection (11), (12), or (13) of this section, count one point for each adult prior felony conviction and one point for each juvenile prior violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each juvenile prior nonviolent felony conviction.

(8) If the present conviction is for a violent offense and not covered in subsection (9), (10), (11), or (12) of this section, count two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent felony conviction, one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

(9) If the present conviction is for Murder 1 or 2, Assault 1, Kidnaping 1, or Rape 1, count three points for prior adult and juvenile convictions for crimes in these categories, two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent conviction (not already counted), one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

(10) If the present conviction is for Burglary 1, count prior convictions as in subsection (8) of this section; however count two points for each prior adult Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each prior juvenile Burglary 2 conviction.

(11) If the present conviction is for a felony traffic offense count two points for each adult or juvenile prior conviction for Vehicular Homicide; count one point for each adult, and 1/2 point for each juvenile, prior conviction for each other felony offense or serious traffic offense.

(12) If the present conviction is for a drug offense count two points for each adult prior felony drug offense conviction and one point for each juvenile drug offense. All other adult and juvenile felonies are scored as in subsection (8) of this section if the current drug offense is violent, or as in subsection (7) of this section if the current drug offense is nonviolent.

(13) If the present conviction is for escape (Escape 1, RCW 9A.76.110; Escape 2, RCW 9A.76.120; Willful Failure to Return from Furlough, RCW 72.66.060; and Willful Failure to Return from Work Release, RCW 72.65.070), count only prior escape convictions in the offender score. Count adult prior escape convictions as one point and juvenile prior escape convictions as 1/2 point.

(14) If the present conviction is for Burglary 2, count priors as in subsection (7) of this section; however, count two points for each adult and juvenile prior Burglary 1 conviction, two points for each adult prior Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each juvenile prior Burglary 2 conviction.

(15) If the present conviction is for an offense committed while the offender was under community placement or conditional release pursuant to this chapter, count one point.

Sec. 13. Section 4, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 24, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.330 are each amended to read as follows:

Sec. 14. Section 11, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 34, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Before imposing a sentence upon a defendant, the court shall conduct a sentencing hearing. The sentencing hearing shall be held within forty court days following conviction. Upon the motion of either party for good cause shown, or on its own motion, the court may extend the time period for conducting the sentencing hearing. The court shall order the department to complete a presentence report for the purpose of offender management before imposing a sentence upon a defendant who has been convicted of a felony sex offense. The department shall give priority to presentence investigations for sex offenders. The court shall consider the presentence reports, if any, including any victim impact statement and criminal history, and allow arguments from the prosecutor, the defense counsel, the offender, the victim, the survivor of the victim, or a representative of the victim or survivor, and an investigative law enforcement officer as to the sentence to be imposed. If the court is satisfied by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant has a criminal history, the court shall specify the convictions it has found to exist. All of this information shall be part of the record. Copies of all presentence reports presented to the sentencing court and all written findings of facts and conclusions of law as to sentencing entered by the court shall be sent to the department by the clerk of the court at the conclusion of the sentencing and shall accompany the offender if the offender is committed to the custody of the department. Court clerks shall provide, without charge, certified copies of documents relating to criminal convictions requested by prosecuting attorneys.

Sec. 15. Section 11, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.195 are each amended to read as follows:

If an offender violates any condition or requirement of a sentence, a community corrections officer may arrest or cause the arrest of the offender without a warrant, pending a determination by the court. If there is reasonable cause to believe that an offender has violated a condition or requirement of the sentence, an offender may be required to submit to a search and seizure of the offender's person, residence, automobile, or other personal property. A community corrections officer may also arrest an offender for any crime committed in his or her presence. The facts and circumstances of the conduct of the offender shall be reported by the community corrections officer, with recommendations, to the court.

If a community corrections officer has reasonable cause to believe that an offender has committed a violent offense, an offense involving a deadly weapon, or any felony violation of the uniform controlled substances act, the community corrections officer may arrest and detain or cause the arrest and detention of the offender for up to five working days in order to investigate the facts and circumstances. The department shall compensate the local jurisdiction at the office of financial management's adjudicated rate, in accordance with RCW 70.48.440.

If a community corrections officer arrests or causes the arrest of an offender under this section, the offender shall be confined and detained in the county jail of the county in which the offender was taken into custody, and the sheriff of that county shall receive and keep in the county jail, where room is available, all prisoners delivered to the jail by the community corrections officer, and such offenders shall not be released from custody on bail or personal recognizance, except upon approval of the court, pursuant to a written order.

Sec. 16. Section 9, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 21, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.380 are each amended to read as follows:

For sentences of nonviolent offenders for one year or less, the court shall consider and give priority to available alternatives to total confinement and shall state its reasons if they are not used.

These alternatives include the following sentence conditions that the court may order as substitutes for total confinement: (1) One day of partial confinement or eight hours of community service may be substituted for one day of total confinement; (2) the community service conversion is limited to two hundred forty hours or thirty days. The conversion of total confinement to partial confinement may be applied to all sentences of one year or less, including those for violent offenses. Community service hours must be completed within the period of community supervision or a time period specified by the court, which shall not exceed twenty-four months, pursuant to a schedule determined by the department.

Sec. 17. Section 22, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.383 are each amended to read as follows:

On all sentences of confinement for one year or less the court may impose up to one year of community supervision. ~~(For confinement sentences, unless otherwise ordered by the court, the period of community supervision begins at the date of release from confinement. For non-confinement sentences, the period of community supervision begins at the date of entry of the judgment and sentence.)~~ An offender shall be on community supervision as of the date of sentencing. However, during the time for which the offender is in total or partial confinement pursuant to the sentence or a violation of a sentence, the period of community supervision shall toll.

Sec. 18. Section 11, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 28, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.400 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, whenever a person is to be sentenced for two or more current offenses, the sentence range for each current offense shall be determined by using all other current and prior convictions as if they were prior convictions for the purpose of the offender score: PROVIDED, That if the court enters a finding that some or all of the current offenses encompass the same criminal conduct then those current offenses shall be counted as one crime. Sentences imposed under this subsection shall be served concurrently. Consecutive sentences may only be imposed under the exceptional sentence provisions of RCW 9.94A.120 and 9.94A.390(2)(e) or any other provision of RCW 9.94A.390.

(b) Whenever a person is convicted of three or more serious violent offenses, as defined in RCW 9.94A.330, arising from separate and distinct criminal conduct, the sentence range for the offense with the highest seriousness level under RCW 9.94A.320 shall be determined using the offender's criminal history in the offender score and the sentence range for other serious violent offenses shall be determined by using an offender score of zero. The sentence range for any offenses that are not serious violent offenses shall be determined according to (a) of this subsection. All sentences imposed under (b) of this subsection shall be served consecutively to each other and concurrently with sentences imposed under (a) of this subsection.

(2) Whenever a person while under sentence of felony commits another felony and is sentenced to another term of imprisonment, the latter term shall not begin until expiration of all prior terms.

(3) Subject to subsections (1) and (2) of this section, whenever a person is sentenced for a felony that was committed while the person was not under sentence of a felony, the sentence shall run concurrently with any felony sentence which has been imposed by any court in this or another state or by a federal court subsequent to the commission of the crime being sentenced unless the court pronouncing the current sentence expressly orders that they be served consecutively.

(4) Whenever any person granted probation under RCW 9.95.210 or 9.92.060, or both, has the probationary sentence revoked and a prison sentence imposed, that sentence shall run consecutively to any sentence imposed pursuant to this chapter, unless the court pronouncing the subsequent sentence expressly orders that they be served concurrently.

(5) However, in the case of consecutive sentences, all periods of total confinement shall be served before any partial confinement, community service, community supervision, or any other requirement or conditions of any of the sentences. If two or more sentences that run consecutively include periods of community supervision, the aggregate of the community supervision period shall not exceed twenty-four months.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 19. Increased sanctions authorized by this act are applicable only to those persons committing offenses after the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 20. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1987."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "Senator Halsan, do you have an idea of the fiscal impact of the bill with this amendment?"

Senator Halsan: "Yes, I do. The bill that we passed previously out of the Senate had a fiscal impact of approximately $200,000 during this biennium and approximately $8.3 million over the next six years. This particular proposal is in the neighborhood of about $5,000,000 over six years and about $150,000 for this biennium. Actually, perhaps I misspoke myself, there is also a one year delayed effective date, so that would put it down to about $75,000 this biennium and $4.2 million for the next six years."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Halsan, Talmadge, Smitherman, Nelson and Moore.

The motion by Senator Halsan carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Halsan, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, beginning on line 1 of the title, after "supervision," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 9.94A.030, 9.94A.150, 72.09.020, 9.94A.170, 9.94A.200, 9.94A.360, 9.94A.330, 9.94A.110, 9.94A.195, 9.94A.380, 9.94A.383, and 9.94A.400; reenacting and amending RCW 9.94A.120; adding new sections to chapter 9.94A RCW; adding new sections to chapter 72.09 RCW; creating a new section; prescribing penalties; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Halsan, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5086, under suspension of the rules, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5086, under suspension of the Rules.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5086, under suspension of the Rules, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, Metcalfe, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vognil, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 45.

Excused: Senators Bottiger, Hayner, McDermott, McDonald - 4.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5086, under suspension of the rules, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, may I pose a question of parliamentary inquiry to the President? I would only ask you to take a look at it when the next moment of relaxation comes. I have in my hand here Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 758 with a date on it of April 25, 8:30 p.m. We granted a Conference Committee on this bill for today at approximately 12:15. We granted the powers of Free Conference on this bill at 3:20 p.m. today, but yet the date that we would be going by for the twenty-four hour notice is this and I am wondering if possibly the Clerk's office made a mistake. You can't have a Free Conference Report or a Free Conference until you've appointed a committee and we did not do that until noon today.

"At 3:20 we again asked to have a Free Conference because we couldn't agree and they were appointed at 3:20 p.m. Now, is that the date that we get our twenty-four hours? This is quite a thick bill. I might point out it is a game bill that had numerous amendments. I would not ask you to make a decision at this time, Mr. President, but at the appropriate time I would ask the question again and would hope that we could have an answer. The Secretary's staff is very efficient, but they are very rushed and there are numerous places here--the reason I ask the question is, this is quite controversial."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Vognil: "Mr. President, I raise the point of order that Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 758 is not before this body."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Your point is well taken, Senator."

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: ESSB 5071

Changing provisions relating to dangerous waste.

April 25, 1987

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we recommend the following:

That the House Environmental Affairs Committee amendments be adopted with the exception of the following:

Signed by: Senators Bottiger, Kreidler, Bluechel; Representatives Rust, Jesernig, Walker.

MOTION

Senator Kreidler moved that the Report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5071 be adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Senator Kreidler, I will perhaps ask this question two or three times before this session is over. Is there anything in this Conference Report that relates to the siting of waste facilities in or out of county lines?"

Senator Kreidler: "Absolutely nothing."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Kreidler, is it your understanding that the definition of hazardous waste in Section 1, subsection (15) includes only substances that are composed of both radioactive and hazardous components and does not include substances that are solely radioactive?"

Senator Kreidler: "Senator Bluechel, yes, that is the answer to the question. For a waste to be radioactive--to be included in the definition of hazardous waste--it must include a hazardous or chemical component--it must include those. It may not simply be radioactive without such a component."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Kreidler to adopt the Report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5071.

The motion by Senator Kreidler carried and the Report of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5071 was adopted.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5071, as recommended by the Conference Committee, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 1; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 44.

Voting nay: Senator Garrett - 1.

Excused: Senators Bottiger, Hayner, McDermott, McDonald - 4.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5071, as recommended by the Conference Committee, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PART II

TEACHING AS A PROFESSION

NEW SECTION. Sec. 201. The legislature intends to enhance the education of the state's youth by improving the quality of teaching. The legislature intends to establish a framework for teacher and principal preparation programs and to recognize teaching as a profession.

The legislature finds that the quality of teacher preparation programs is enhanced when a planned, sequenced approach is used that provides for the application of practice to academic course work.

The legislature supports better integration of the elements of teacher preparation programs including knowledge of subject matter, teaching methods, and actual teaching experiences.

The legislature finds that establishing: (1) A teaching internship program; (2) a post-baccalaureate program resulting in a masters degree; (3) stronger requirements for earning principal credentials; and (4) a review of the preparation standards for school principals and educational staff associates are appropriate next steps in enhancing the quality of educational personnel in Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 202. A new section is added to chapter 28A.04 RCW to read as follows:

(1) No person may be admitted to a professional teacher preparation program within Washington state without first demonstrating that he or she is competent in the basic skills required for oral and written communication and computation.

(2) After June 30, 1989, no person shall be admitted to a teacher preparation program who has a combined score of less than the state-wide median score for the prior school year scored by all persons taking the Washington precollege test or who has achieved an equivalent standard score on comparable portions of other standardized tests. The state board of education shall develop criteria and adopt rules for exemptions from this subsection.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 203. A new section is added to chapter 28A.70 RCW to read as follows:

The examination shall test knowledge and competence in subjects including, but not limited to, instructional skills, classroom management, and student behavior and development. The examination shall consist primarily of essay questions. The state board of education shall adopt such rules as may be necessary to implement this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 204. The state board of education shall, no later than January 15, 1990, recommend to the legislature whether all teacher candidates should be required to pass a written subject matter examination. Before making its recommendations, the board shall provide for the administration of sample endorsement subject matter examinations to a sample number of teacher candidates who qualify to receive endorsements on the basis of other criteria. A limited number of endorsement areas shall be selected for sample testing. The results of such tests shall be made available to the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 205. (1) The state board of education shall establish the requirements for a two-year pilot program to enhance the student teaching component of teacher preparation programs to support innovative ways to expand student teaching experiences for prospective teacher candidates and to expand opportunities for student teacher placements in school districts throughout the state. The state board shall adopt necessary rules under chapter 34.04 RCW to carry out this program.

(2) In developing the pilot program requirements, the state board shall include a requirement that each grant application be jointly developed through a process including participation by school building and school district personnel, teacher preparation program personnel, program unit members, and other personnel as appropriate. Primary administration for each grant project shall be the responsibility of one or more of the cooperating grant project participants, as determined by the grant project participants.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 206. As used in sections 205 through 208 of this act, the term "student teaching" includes all field experiences and opportunities for observation, tutoring, micro-teaching, and extended practicums; clinical and laboratory experiences; and internship experiences in educational settings.

is affiliated with a teacher preparation program or programs as a field-based supervisor of student teachers.

(3) In developing the grant proposals, grant requestors are encouraged but not required to consider such models or model components as:

(a) Contracting or otherwise cooperating with an educational service district to base a supervisor or supervisors in the educational service district to supervise student teachers placed into school districts located within the educational service district;

(b) Contracting or otherwise cooperating with a community college district to base a supervisor or supervisors in the community college district to supervise student teachers placed into school districts located within the boundaries of the community college district;

(c) Training cooperating teachers to serve also as the supervisor for participating institutions;

(d) Contractual or other cooperative arrangements between teacher preparation programs to allow one institution to serve a geographic area of the state not normally served by that institution; and

(e) Contractual or other cooperative arrangements between two or more teacher preparation programs to jointly serve a geographic area of the state not normally served by the institutions.

(4) In approving grant applications for funding, the state board of education shall assure that if no more than one grant project is approved such project shall be of a nature as suggested in subsection (3)(a) of this section. The state board shall also give priority consideration to approving grant projects as suggested in subsection (3) (b) and (e) of this section.

(5) The state board of education shall give priority consideration to approving grant applications designed to involve unserved or underserved school districts and shall assure, to the extent possible, that the grant projects approved for funding reflect a geographic sampling of the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 209. The state board of education shall evaluate the pilot projects and submit a report to the legislature not later than January 15, 1990, including findings and recommendations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 210. Sections 205 through 209 of this act shall expire January 16, 1990.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 211. Sections 205 through 209 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

If the major is in early childhood education, elementary education, or special education, the candidate must have at least thirty quarter hours or twenty semester hours in one academic field.

The report shall include a recommendation on whether the major in education under subsection (1) of this section should be eliminated.

(3) The initial certificate shall be valid for two years.

(4) Certificate holders may renew the certificate for a three-year period by providing proof of acceptance and enrollment in an approved masters degree program. A second renewal, for a period of two years, may be granted upon recommendation of the degree-granting institution and if the certificate holder can demonstrate substantial progress toward the completion of the masters degree and that the degree will be completed within the two-year extension period. Under no circumstances may an initial certificate be valid for a period of more than seven years.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 213. A new section is added to chapter 28A.04 RCW to read as follows:

(2) The state board of education shall study the concept of "internship" both as it relates to the programs identified in subsection (1) of this section and as it relates to current state board teacher preparation program approval standards. Based on the study findings the board may develop and recommend to the legislature appropriate standards for a teacher internship as a requirement for initial-level teacher certification. Pursuant to any such standards the board may develop, the board shall indicate if the internship is intended to replace or be in addition to both the board's current teacher preparation program field experience requirements and the state teacher assistance program as it relates to beginning teachers.

The state board shall consider providing for a paid internship and, as necessary, recommend payment options to the legislature.

April 25, 1987

Mr. President:

Signed by: Senators Warnke, Smitherman; Representatives Wang, Sayan, Patrick.

MOTION

Senator Smitherman moved that the Senate adopt the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5441.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Cantu: "Mr. President, I would like to raise the question of scope and object on the report by the committee. The committee report added a Section 8. The bill originally was designed to help the unemployed during work searches by providing a coordinated delivery service which would be authorized by the Department of Community Development establishing pilot programs for local reemployment centers in three areas of the state. The proposed conference committee amendments in Section 8, add an entirely new system administered by the Employment Security Department of cash payments for reemployment incentives. I believe, Mr. President, that this is beyond the literal and philosophical scope and object of the Senate bill."

Debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Cantu, the President finds that Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5441 is a measure authorizing the establishment of local reemployment centers to offer direct employment services and referrals to the unemployed.

"The amendments proposed by the Free Conference Committee authorize the establishment of local reemployment centers to offer direct employment services and referrals to the unemployed and authorizes the implementation of a reemployment bonus demonstration project.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments do change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5441 was referred to the Free Conference Committee.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: ESSB 5479

Providing for the improvement of teachers and schools.

April 25, 1987

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Free Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we recommend that the measure be amended as proposed under the request for Free Conference and that the bill do pass as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

(See Report of Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5479, read in earlier today.)

Signed by: Senators Gaspard, Bailey, Bauer; Representatives Ebersole, Peery, Betrozoff.

MOTION

Senator Gaspard moved that the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5479 be adopted.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, my notes show that the powers of Free Conference were granted at 3:40 p.m. today and that would indicate that we haven't had the powers of Free Conference after only granting them at 3:40 today. That would be out of order with the Senate Rules which require twenty-four hours after the Free Conference Committee Report."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "It's twenty-four hours from the time the report went on the desk, Senator Rasmussen--on the Secretary's desk."

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, if I may, I don't wish to argue with the Secretary. He's smarter than I am, but I don't know how a Report of a Free Conference Committee could go on the Secretary's desk when the Senate itself granted the powers of Free Conference at 3:40 p.m. today. I don't wish to argue with the President, but I was watching the clock and marked it down here on my note paper. Our rules say that a Free Conference Report has to be on our desk, so we may read it--not on the Secretary's desk. He doesn't have time to read all of them."

"This is quite a heavy report. I find it difficult--I know when we give them the powers of Free Conference and I presume then we'll have it laid on our desk and read it after we've granted the powers. If we grant the powers after we get the report here, it's very hard to follow and even if they put a slip of paper on the Secretary's desk--his desk probably looks like mine--he can't really keep up with them. I would like the President's opinion on what the Senate Rules mean in regard to Free Conference. If we grant the powers at 3:40, accounting for the twenty-four hours, we are a long ways from twenty-four hours now and that means you should have time to study the report.

"I raise that as a point of order."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Rasmussen and et al. Rule 11 says that each House shall have twenty-four hours from the time of proper receipt by the Chief Clerk of the House or the Secretary of the Senate to consider reports from a Free Conference Committee. The President rules that it is properly before the body."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Gaspard to adopt the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5479.

The motion by Senator Gaspard carried and the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5479 was adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5479, as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5479, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 37; nays, 9; absent, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Bauer, Bender, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Deccio, DeJarmatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McDermott, McDonald, Nelson, Owen, Peterson, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 37.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 26, 1987

Mr. President:

The House has adopted the Report of the Conference Committee on ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 758 and has granted said committee the powers of Free Conference. The Report of the Free Conference Committee is herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: E2SHB 758

Establishing the department of wildlife.

April 25, 1987

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Free Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we recommend that the measure be amended as proposed under the request for Free Conference and that the bill do pass as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

(See Report of Conference Committee on Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 758, read in earlier today.)

Signed by: Senators DeJarnatt, Owen; Representatives B. Williams, Sutherland, Belcher.

MOTION

Senator Owen moved that the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 758 be adopted.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I raise the point of order that the bill is not properly before us because the Free Conference Committee was only appointed at 12:00 o'clock today. According to our Senate Rules, it is not properly before us."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Rasmussen, the President finds that the Free Conference Committee Report on Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 758 was on the desks of the members prior to the appointment of the Conference Committee or the granting of Free Conference powers. The President believes the Senate must suspend Joint Rule 11, Adoption of Reports, for purposes of considering the Report of the Free Conference Committee. The suspension of Joint Rule 11 requires a two-thirds vote of the members present.

"The point of order by Senator Rasmussen is well taken."

MOTION

Senator Owen moved that Rule 11 of the Joint Rules be suspended in order to consider Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 758.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I would raise the question of scope and object. At this time, in reading the bill--in the short time I had to read it--I noticed that it is making an appropriation and declaring an emergency. I clearly remember this body voting to strike the emergency and the Conference Committee has now come back and put the emergency in. This body did not want the emergency clause in there. It's on the last page, Mr. President, if you care to look at it when you are reviewing the scope motion."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Owen, the Report of the Free Conference Committee contains a lengthy title amendment including the words 'and declaring an emergency.' The striking amendment, however, does not include an emergency clause and was not intended to include an emergency clause. Does this inaccurate title cause a significant problem with the bill?"

Senator Owen: "No, Senator Pullen, there is no problem. The Code Reviser's office informs me that this clerical error will be corrected when the bill is enrolled by deleting the words 'and declaring an emergency', and will make the title comply with the Act. Thank you."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes Senator Rasmussen's point of order is not properly before the Senate until the Senate has determined whether or not the bill can survive after the two-thirds vote to suspend the rules."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Owen to suspend Rule 11 of the Joint Rules in order to consider Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 758.

Senator Rasmussen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Owen to suspend Rule 11 of the Joint Rules.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Owen to suspend the rules, receiving a two-thirds majority, passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 34; nays, 10; absent, 5.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McDonald, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Saling, Smitherman, Stratton, Tanner, Vognild, Warnke, Zimmerman - 34.

Voting nay: Senators McDermott, Metcalf, Moore, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Talmadge, von Reichbauer, Williams, Wojahn - 10.

Absent: Senators Craswell, McCaslin, Peterson, Sellar, West - 5.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I again raise my point of scope and object that the Free Conference Committee Report put something in that they were not supposed to put in because of the action of the Senate previously and by adding an emergency clause. Mr. President, if I may further? I distinctly remember you asking at the passage of every bill--'if there is no objection, the title of the bill shall remain as the title of the act.' The title is in conflict with the body of the bill and the fact that the Secretary says they do correct those things down in the Code Reviser's office--the Code Reviser only has authority to change spelling errors and obvious punctuation, but not the intent of the bill. We've never permitted the Code Reviser to change the intent of a bill. I know I am taking a lot of time, but these are important questions that should be studied."

At 6:27 p.m., the President declared the Senate to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 6:31 p.m. by President Cherberg.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Rasmussen, the President finds that Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 758 is a measure establishing the Department of Wildlife.

"The amendments proposed by the Free Conference Committee also establish the Department of Wildlife. The title states there is an emergency clause which is not found in the substance of the bill. In any event, changes in an effective date do not change the scope and object of a bill.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments do not change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The Report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 758 was ruled in order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senators Lee, McCaslin and West were excused.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Metcalf, in your opinion is this emergency clause being put on here deliberately to forestall a referendum on this piece of legislation?"

Senator Metcalf: "Senator Rasmussen, the emergency clause, in my opinion, was put on deliberately to forestall a referendum, but the emergency clause was taken off in the conference committee. They took off the emergency clause. It's not in the bill. The line does appear in the title only, but it is not in the bill. I saw to that. I was on the committee."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Pullen, this back door attempt to put this emergency clause on, isn't this an attempt to forestall the people from having the right of referendum as backed by the Constitution?"

Senator Pullen: "I believe that the proponents of the bill originally did want an emergency clause on there to forestall a referendum. However, the bill as it came out of the Conference Committee did not have an emergency clause in the text of the bill. It appears that the conferees, erroneously and by mistake, included reference to the declaration of an emergency in the title of the bill. That appears to have been an error and according to the answer by Senator Owen, that will be deleted by the Code Revisor."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Owen, as you know many of us on the committee were quite concerned about Section 102. Section 102 provides for taking effect immediately just by a single section relating to any official or supervisory employees of the Department of Game taking any measures that are retaliatory in retaliation for the employees' support or opposition to any provision of this 1987 Act. My concern is, retaliation in this case, in the event when you slip the money, somebody might lose their job because you don't have enough money to carry on the functions of the new Department of Wildlife. Is that retaliation? What is your interpretation of what this section really does?"

Senator Owen: "Senator Patterson, I wouldn't think that retaliation would be if, in effect, the Department of Game didn't have enough money and someone lost their job. I suppose that if it were a person that lobbied different than what the Director or the Commission wished them to do, in fact, and could make a case that he or she was picked out to be removed, I suppose that could be considered retaliation.

"I would think there would be a variety of different ways that a person could be retaliated against, demotion for whatever reason or removal to a different area, actually laid off or fired, could be an example. But, I guess I couldn't articulate all of the ways that retaliation could take place, but there are, let me just cite to you the concerns of Representative Belcher in discussing this. There are a lot of Department of Game people in this area that are close enough to lobby for or against, quite readily, and in other parts of the state also, but they have expressed a concern, be it real or just perceived, they have expressed that concern and she was very strong in her desire to have this in here, so that those people could have some comfort level in the fact that they could not be retaliated against for lobbying for or against the bill. At least, there would be some effort to avoid retaliation. This body took it out and we argued that. I felt that we argued very diligently for that. In the end, we did not win, but again, it was just part of what I consider a good compromise."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Owen to adopt the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 758.

The motion by Senator Owen carried and the Report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 758 was adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 758, as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 758, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 19; absent, 1; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Bluechel, Bottiger, Conner, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Kreidler, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Saling, Smitherman, Stratton, Tanner, Vognild, Warnke, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 26.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Benitz, Cantu, Craswell, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, McDonald, Metcalf, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Sellar, Talmadge, von Reichbauer, Williams - 19.

Absent: Senator McDermott - 1.

Excused: Senators Lee, McCaslin, West - 3.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 758, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

Senator Gaspard moved that the Conference Committee be relieved of further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 451.

Debate ensued.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: ESCR 8406

Creating joint committee on marine and ocean resources.

April 24, 1987

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Free Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we recommend that the measure be amended as proposed under the request for Free Conference and that the resolution do pass, as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

(See Report of Conference Committee on Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8406, read in on April 25, 1987.)

Signed by: Senators Rasmussen, Metcalf, Stratton; Representatives Haugen, Basich, S. Wilson.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Owen: "Mr. President, I challenge the report on the grounds that it expands the scope and object of the original bill. The original bill was a bill that established the Washington State House of Representatives and Senate committee on ocean resources. What this bill provides for, as it's been amended or proposed to be amended, provides for Washington state to be a member of the Pacific Legislative Fisheries Task Force and appoints members to that. It clearly is way beyond what the original intent of what the bill was to do. The original bill was also there to assess and monitor the affects of the potential oil and gas leases and those types of resources off the coast of Washington."

Debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Owen, the President finds that Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8406 is a measure creating the Joint Committee on Marine and Ocean Resources.

"The amendment proposed by the Free Conference Committee provides for, among other things, Washington representation on the Pacific Fisheries Legislative Task Force.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hayner: "Senator Halsan, would you please explain precisely what is in this bill at this point?"

Senator Halsan: "Senator Hayner, just the original House Bill dealt with the ability of the counties to collect certain fees and assessments for cities. It doesn't have in it at all the interest rate problem that was of concern to Senator Garrett and Senator Williams. What was termed the McDermott amendment to 1129--it doesn't have that in it at all. It doesn't have 1129 and it doesn't have a couple of other Senate bills either. It clarifies the ability of the collection of certain assessments if they're not already collecting them."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Bill No. 698, without the Senate amendments.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

RE: SSB 5854Regulating continuing care retirement communities.

April 25, 1987

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We of your Conference Committee, to whom the above measure was referred, have had the same under consideration and we recommend the following:

On page 1 of the house committee amendment, as amended 4/16/87, beginning on line 7, strike the remainder of the amendment and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "continuing care retirement community act."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislature finds that continuing care retirement communities can provide a valued option in meeting long-term residential, social, and health needs for many of Washington's senior citizens. However, consumers in Washington and nationwide have encountered serious, documented problems in dealing with some retirement communities, generally stemming from long-term financial instability of the community, or insufficient disclosure to consumers. Because existing law does not provide for financial oversight or disclosure, the legislature has determined that any entity offering continuing care contracts should be certified and regulated in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Commissioner" means the insurance commissioner.

(2) "Continuing care contract" means a contract to provide a person, for the duration of such person's life or for a term in excess of one year, shelter along with nursing, medical, health-related, or personal care services, which is conditioned upon the transfer of property, the payment of an entrance fee to the provider of such services, or the payment of periodic charges for the care and service involved. A continuing care contract is not excluded from this definition because the contract is mutually terminable or because shelter and services are not provided at the same location.

(3) "Department" means the department of social and health services.

(4) "Member" means an individual who has signed a continuing care contract with a retirement community.

(5) "Nursing, medical, health-related, or personal care services" includes, but is not limited to, nursing home care, home health services or assistance with activities of daily living.

(6) "Provider" means a retirement community as defined in subsection (7) of this section.

(7) "Retirement community" means a person, association, or organization of any kind which provides, or proposes to provide, shelter and services pursuant to a continuing care contract.

(8) "Shelter" means lodging with or without meals.

(9) "Waiting list deposit" means a fee, whether refundable or not, which a provider requires of an individual seeking to become a member as a condition of being placed on a waiting list of those seeking a continuing care contract with a provider.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) Waiting list deposits shall be the subject of a separate formal contract between the retirement community and a person seeking to become a member which specifies at least: The amount of the deposit; the amount refundable in the event the application is withdrawn, rejected, or accepted; the maximum time in which a refund will be made; and what interest will be paid on the applicant's funds, if any.

(2) Waiting list deposit contract forms shall be subject to prior approval by the department. On or after December 30, 1988, a contract form used without the prior approval of the department shall render a contract entered into on such unapproved form voidable at the option of the person seeking to become a member.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Retirement community members have the right to organize a resident council, including the right to collectively represent the concerns of members in dealings with the retirement community administration.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The legislature declares that the purchase of continuing care contracts and the exercise of rights under such contracts vitally affect the public interest. Any violation of this act is an unfair method of competition and an unfair or deceptive act or practice in the conduct of a trade or commerce, as specifically contemplated by RCW 19.86.020, and is a violation of the consumer protection act, chapter 19.86 RCW. Any person injured as a result of a violation of a provision of this act shall be entitled to maintain an action pursuant to chapter 19.86 RCW against the provider or other person who violated a provision of this act and shall be entitled to all of the rights and remedies afforded by chapter 19.86 RCW. Any successful claimant under this section shall also be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) Nothing contained in this chapter shall alter any other statutory obligation of the department of social and health services, or any rule or regulation promulgated thereunder, including, but not limited to, obligations under the following:

- (a) Chapter 18.20 RCW (boarding homes);
- (b) Chapter 18.51 RCW (nursing homes);
- (c) Chapter 43.190 RCW (long-term care ombudsman program);
- (d) Chapter 70.38 RCW (health planning and resources development);
- (e) Chapter 70.40 RCW (hospital and medical facilities survey and construction act);
- (f) Chapter 70.41 RCW (hospital licensing and regulation);
- (g) Chapter 70.62 RCW (transient accommodations - licensing - inspections);
- (h) Chapter 70.124 RCW (abuse of patients - nursing homes, state hospitals);
- (i) Chapter 70.126 RCW (home health care and hospice care);
- (j) Chapter 74.34 RCW (abuse of vulnerable adults);
- (k) Chapter 74.42 RCW (nursing homes - resident care, operating standards); and
- (l) Chapter 74.46 RCW (nursing home auditing and cost reimbursement act of 1980).

(2) All benefits promised in continuing care contracts must be consistent with state licensing and other regulatory requirements for the facilities and service entities by which these benefits are to be provided.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 1 through 7 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. This act shall take effect on July 1, 1988."

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of the pending motion by Senator Kreidler to adopt the Report of the Conference Committee on Substitute Senate Bill No. 5854, deferred earlier today.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator Kreidler, does this apply to already existing congregate care centers?"

Senator Kreidler: "Yes, it does, Senator Lee, but as you can see from the report, it applies to them for consumer protection under the Attorney General's office. It also applies for them from the standpoint of an advisory council. I think you'd be hard pressed to find any of the--particularly the non-profit homes that exist in the state of Washington, without already active councils which far exceed any requirements that this would have. Nor would there be any others that we heard any objection to whatsoever. As for the consumer protection, that was something that was in the original bill and was never anything that was contested. It was recognized as something that was reasonable."

Senator Lee: "My second question, what about the situations that have rather unique kinds of contracts, not under the kind of congregate care contracts that we had a number of years ago that brought in the Wesley Gardens and the Judson Parks of this particular state--the Masonic home in particular where they have a very different kind of contractual arrangement. Is this going to be a problem to them?"

Senator Kreidler: "Not at all. Specifically, because the consumer protection just deals with making sure the information is made available, is truthful and doesn't attempt to use fraud--that type of evidentiary requirement. It isn't anything that would have any kind of restriction as to the type of contract. It is only a requirement to make sure that what they do is truthful, is fairly presented and that type of requirement. It is not stipulating any particular aspect to the contract except that what they tell the people has to be what really is."

Senator Lee: "It's a full and truthful disclosure?"

Senator Kreidler: "Absolutely."

Senator Lee: "The third question and the last one. You had intimated from your description that the fee--the charging of a fee was no longer a part of this particular measure. Is that true?"

Senator Kreidler: "That is true, there is no fee, because the requirements in the bill as it stands right now are ones that are not going to put any financial strain on any state agency, whether it be the Insurance Commissioner's Office or the Department of Social and Health Services. It is not making any requirement of them at this time. It is only stipulating, as I pointed out--the Advisory Counsel--and bringing them under consumer protection."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Kreidler, in the bill as it came out of the Senate, there was a requirement that the reserves of the retirement fund be fiscally sound so that the people who paid in advance, $100,000, would have some guarantee that money would be there during their lifetime, or at least the service would be there. Has that been removed?"

Senator Kreidler: "That was removed, Senator, specifically, because of the cost of doing the kind of actuarial studies, both from the standpoint of the Department of Social and Health Services which currently is not involved in that type of actuarial work and the fact that you would also have the requirements of the Insurance Commissioner's office which would have also caused some financial impact. It was because the money, which was a general fund appropriation, was removed by the House, that it was not realistic to think that you could have a pay-as-you-go approach with the existing homes throughout the state, that there would be enough money generated without being a burden on them to allow those particular provisions to go into effect at this time.

"Now, let me assure you, Senator Bottiger, that is going to be part of a very extensive study during the interim so we can find a way to bring about those sorts of requirements, because I think there is general agreement as we've experienced in the past with trust accounts for such things as cemeteries and other types of functions where you need to make sure the trust funds are adequate and not being abused. We need to do something in this area, but we need a little bit more time to perfect that particular language."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Newhouse: "Mr. President, I would raise the question that there is no time of submittal on the Secretary's desk on this. It also appears to be a Free Conference Report travelling under the pretense of being a Conference Report."

At 8:18 p.m., the President declared the Senate to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 8:38 p.m. by President Cherberg.

On page 22, after line 4, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 17. The legislature recognizes that a strong, balanced transportation system is vital to citizens of the state of Washington and its economic growth and social well-being.

The legislature further recognizes that the revenues currently available to the state and to counties and cities for highway, road, and street construction fall far short of the identified need. The 1983 Washington state public works report identified a $1.4 billion shortfall for the period 1984-1988. The gap between identified needs and available revenues continues to increase.

Finally, the legislature recognizes that by 1991 the federal interstate highway funding program is scheduled to terminate. This will likely result in significant shifts in traditional highway funding patterns and a need to adjust state funding formulae.

In order to address serious traffic congestion problems throughout the state on state highways, county roads, and city streets, to meet rural small community road and street needs, and to construct vital, high-cost state highway projects that otherwise will not be funded, the legislature intends to provide additional fuel tax revenues. It is intended that these new revenues be targeted to the most urgently needed construction projects throughout the state, rather than to ongoing maintenance of the existing system. It is further intended that allocation of the new revenues to these construction programs, other than for the high-cost projects, be for only four years' duration. By 1991, this will allow those revenues to be reallocated among the three jurisdictional levels to better reflect the findings of relative need currently being assessed by the road jurisdiction study and to accommodate changes in federal funding expected to occur.

Sec. 18. Section 6, chapter 317, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 27, chapter 49, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 82.36.025 are each amended to read as follows:

The motor vehicle fuel tax rate shall be computed as the sum of the tax rate provided in subsection (1) of this section and the additional tax rates provided in subsections (2) through ~~((4))~~ (5) of this section.

(1) ~~((Except as required in subsection (5) of this section:))~~ A motor vehicle fuel tax rate of ~~((fifteen))~~ seventeen cents per gallon shall apply to the sale, distribution, or use of motor vehicle fuel ~~((from July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984, and a motor vehicle fuel tax rate of seventeen cents per gallon shall apply thereafter)).~~

(2) An additional motor vehicle fuel tax rate of one-third cent per gallon shall apply to the sale, distribution, or use of motor vehicle fuel, and the proceeds from this additional tax rate, reduced by an amount equal to the sum of the payments under RCW 46.68.090 (1) and (2) multiplied by the additional tax rate prescribed by this subsection divided by the motor vehicle fuel tax rate provided in this section, shall be deposited in the rural arterial trust account in the motor vehicle fund for expenditures under RCW 36.79.020.

(3) An additional motor vehicle fuel tax rate of one-third cent per gallon shall apply to the sale, distribution, or use of motor vehicle fuel, and the proceeds from this additional tax rate, reduced by an amount equal to the sum of the payments under RCW 46.68.090 (1) and (2) multiplied by the additional tax rate prescribed by this subsection divided by the motor vehicle fuel tax rate provided in this section, shall be deposited in the urban arterial trust account in the motor vehicle fund.

(4) An additional motor vehicle ~~((full (fuel)))~~ fuel tax rate of one-third cent per gallon shall be applied to the sale, distribution, or use of motor vehicle fuel, and the proceeds from this additional tax rate, reduced by an amount equal to the sum of the payments under RCW 46.68.090 (1) and (2) multiplied by the additional tax rate prescribed by this subsection divided by the motor vehicle fuel tax rate provided in this section, shall be deposited in the motor vehicle fund to be expended for highway purposes of the state as defined in RCW 46.68.130.

(5) ~~((a) Before the start of each fiscal year, the department of licensing shall estimate the total aggregate motor vehicle fuel tax revenues and the total of all other revenues that will accrue to the motor vehicle fund during the fiscal year. The estimated total of all other state revenues to accrue to the motor vehicle fund during the fiscal year shall include those revenues (other than the aggregate motor vehicle fuel tax revenues) which the department of transportation with the concurrence of the office of financial management determines will accrue during the fiscal year, assuming that collections of such revenues for the fiscal year shall be at the same level as during the fiscal year just ended, adjusted however for historic variations in collections according to yearly periods and for projected trends, but shall not include the proceeds of the sale of bonds, reimbursements to the motor vehicle fund for services performed by the department of transportation for others, moneys derived from nonfuel tax sources that are deposited directly in the several accounts within the motor vehicle fund, interest deposited directly in the several accounts within the motor vehicle fund, nor federal funds. The estimated total aggregate motor vehicle fuel tax revenues for the fiscal year shall include those revenues that the department of licensing determines will accrue during the fiscal year, assuming the sale, distribution, and use of motor vehicle fuel and special fuel within the state for the fiscal year will be at the same volume as during the fiscal year last ended, adjusted however for the historic variations in sales, distribution, and use according to yearly periods and for projected trends.~~

~~((b) If the estimated aggregate motor fuel tax revenues plus all other state revenues that will accrue to the motor vehicle fund during a fiscal year as computed in (a) of this subsection exceed the motor vehicle fund revenue limit in the fiscal year as computed in (c) of this subsection, the rate of motor fuel tax provided in subsection (1) of this section shall be reduced by one-half cent increments for the fiscal year only, commencing at the beginning of the fiscal year, as may be necessary to reduce the estimated total revenues for the fiscal year to within the motor vehicle fund revenue limit.~~

for the three calendar years immediately preceding the beginning of the fiscal year for which the limit is being computed. For purposes of computing the motor vehicle fund revenue limit for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1981, the phrase "the previous fiscal year's motor vehicle fund revenue limit" means the motor vehicle fund revenue collected in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1979, multiplied by the average state personal income ratio for the calendar years 1976, 1977, and 1978.

~~(6) The legislative transportation committee shall study and analyze each biennium the financial condition of the motor vehicle fund and accounts thereof with particular emphasis on RCW 82.36.010 and 82.36.025.) An additional motor vehicle fuel tax rate of three and one-third cents per gallon from July 1, 1987, through June 30, 1988, and five cents per gallon from July 1, 1988, shall apply to the sale, distribution, or use of motor vehicle fuel. The proceeds from the additional tax rates under this subsection, reduced by an amount equal to the sum of the payments under RCW 46.68.090 (1) and (2) multiplied by the additional tax rate prescribed by this subsection divided by the motor fuel tax rate provided in this section, shall be deposited in the motor vehicle fund and shall be distributed by the state treasurer according to section 20 of this 1987 act.~~

Sec. 19. Section 46.68.090, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 21, chapter 49, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.68.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Not later than November 1st of each even-numbered year the ~~((urban arterial))~~ transportation improvement board shall prepare and present to the commission ~~((a recommended))~~ an adopted budget for expenditures from the urban arterial trust account and the transportation improvement account during the ensuing biennium. The budget shall contain an estimate of the revenues to be credited to the urban arterial trust account and the transportation improvement account and the amount, if any, of bond proceeds which the board determines should be made available to the urban arterial trust account through the sale of bonds in the ensuing biennium.

The commission shall ~~((review the budget as recommended, revise the budget as it deems proper, and))~~ include the budget for the ~~((urban arterial))~~ transportation improvement board ~~((as revised))~~ as a separate section of the transportation budget which it shall submit to the governor and the legislature at the time of its convening.

Sec. 59. Section 6, chapter 171, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 126, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 47.26.450 are each amended to read as follows:

At the time the ~~((urban arterial))~~ transportation improvement board reviews the six-year program of each county and city each even-numbered year, it shall consider and shall approve for inclusion in its recommended budget, as required by RCW 47.26.440, the portion of the urban arterial construction program scheduled to be performed during the biennial period beginning the following July 1st. Subject to the appropriations actually approved by the legislature, the board shall as soon as feasible approve urban arterial trust account funds to be spent during the ensuing biennium for preliminary proposals in priority sequence as established pursuant to RCW 47.26.240. The board shall authorize urban arterial trust account funds for the construction project portion of a project previously authorized for a preliminary proposal in the sequence in which the preliminary proposal has been completed and the construction project is to be placed under contract. At such time the board may reserve urban arterial trust account funds for expenditure in future years as may be necessary for completion of preliminary proposals and construction projects to be commenced in the ensuing biennium.

The ~~((urban arterial))~~ transportation improvement board may, within the constraints of available urban arterial trust funds, consider additional projects for authorization upon a clear and conclusive showing by the submitting local government that the proposed project is of an emergent nature and that its need was unable to be anticipated at the time the six-year program of the local government was developed. Such proposed projects shall be evaluated on the basis of the priority rating factors specified in RCW 47.26.220.

Sec. 60. Section 7, chapter 171, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 47.26.460 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the board approves ~~((an urban arterial))~~ a project it shall determine the amount of ~~((urban arterial trust account))~~ funds to be allocated for such project. The allocation shall be based upon information contained in the six-year plan submitted by the county or city seeking approval of the project and upon such further investigation as the board deems necessary. The board shall adopt reasonable regulations pursuant to which urban arterial trust account funds allocated to a project may be increased upon a subsequent application of the county or city constructing the project. The regulations adopted by the board shall take into account, but shall not be limited to, the following factors: (1) The financial effect of increasing the original allocation for the project upon other ~~((urban arterial))~~ projects either approved or requested; (2) whether the project for which an additional allocation is requested can be reduced in scope while retaining a usable segment; (3) whether the original cost of the project shown in the applicant's six-year program was based upon reasonable engineering estimates; and (4) whether the requested additional allocation is to pay for an expansion in the scope of work originally approved.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator West: "Mr. President, a point of order. I believe this amendment expands the scope and object of the title. The title does not in any way mention Chapter 47 and this amendment requires a broad expansion to bring in Chapter 47 in many different places. Somebody looking at the title before the committee would have no idea at all that this tax was being contemplated by the committee or by the Legislature and, therefore, I believe it is beyond the scope and object of the title."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of the amendment by Senators Bottiger, Bender and Bluechel was deferred.

President Pro Tempore Rasmussen assumed the chair.

MOTION

Senator Barr moved that the following amendment by Senators Barr, Craswell and Tanner be adopted:

On page 15, after line 2, strike all material down through line 24 on page 20 and insert the following:

"Sec. 11. Section 1, chapter 87, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as last amended by section 13, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and by section 20, chapter 49, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 82.44.150 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) The director of licensing shall on the twenty-fifth day of February, May, August and November of each year, commencing with November, 1971, advise the state treasurer of the total amount of motor vehicle excise taxes remitted to the department of licensing during the preceding calendar quarter ending on the last day of March, June, September and December, respectively, except for those payable under RCW 82.44.020(5), and 82.44.030((-and 82.44.076)), from motor vehicle owners residing within each municipality which has levied a tax under RCW 35.58.273, which amount of excise taxes shall be determined by the director as follows:

The total amount of motor vehicle excise taxes remitted to the department, except those payable under RCW 82.44.020(5), and 82.44.030((-and 82.44.076)), from each county shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the population of the municipality residing in such county, and the denominator of which is the total population of the county in which such municipality or portion thereof is located. The product of this computation shall be the amount of excise taxes from motor vehicle owners residing within such municipality or portion thereof. Where the municipality levying a tax under RCW 35.58.273 is located in more than one county, the above computation shall be made by county, and the combined products shall provide the total amount of motor vehicle excise taxes from motor vehicle owners residing in the municipality as a whole. Population figures required for these computations shall be supplied to the director by the office of financial management, who shall adjust the fraction annually.

(2) On the first day of the months of January, April, July, and October of each year, the state treasurer based upon information provided by the department of licensing shall make the following apportionment and distribution of motor vehicle excise taxes deposited in the general fund except taxes collected under RCW 82.44.020(5). A sum equal to seventeen percent thereof shall be paid to cities and towns in the proportions and for the purposes hereinafter set forth; and a sum equal to two percent of all motor vehicle excise tax receipts, except taxes collected under RCW 82.44.020(5), shall be allocable to the county sales and use tax equalization account under RCW 82.14.200((-and a sum equal to seventy percent of all motor vehicle excise tax receipts, except taxes collected under RCW 82.44.020(5), shall be allocable to the state school equalization fund and credited and transferred each year in the following order of priority:

(a) The amount required and certified by the state finance committee each year as being necessary for payment of principal of and interest on bonds authorized by RCW 28A.47.769 through 28A.47.774 in the ensuing twelve months and any additional amounts required by the

~~covenants of such bonds shall be transferred from the state school equalization fund to the 1963 public school building bond retirement fund.~~

~~(b) Any remaining amounts in the state school equalization fund from the motor vehicle excise taxes not required for debt service on the above bond issues shall be transferred and credited to the general fund).~~

(3) The amount payable to cities and towns shall be apportioned among the several cities and towns within the state according to the following formula:

(a) Sixty-five percent of the sum specified in subsection (2) of this section to be paid to cities and towns shall be apportioned ratably on the basis of population as last determined by the office of financial management.

(b) Thirty-five percent of the sum specified in subsection (2) of this section to be paid to cities and towns shall be apportioned to cities and towns under RCW 82.14.210.

(4) When so apportioned, the amount payable to each such city and town shall be transmitted to the city treasurer thereof, and shall be utilized by such city or town for the purposes of police and fire protection and the preservation of the public health therein, and not otherwise. In case it be adjudged that revenue derived from the excise tax imposed by this chapter cannot lawfully be apportioned or distributed to cities or towns, all moneys directed by this section to be apportioned and distributed to cities and towns shall be credited and transferred to the state general fund.

(5) On the first day of the months of January, April, July, and October of each year, the state treasurer, based upon information provided by the department of licensing, shall remit motor vehicle excise tax revenues imposed and collected under RCW 35.58.273 as follows:

(a) The amount required to be remitted by the state treasurer to the treasurer of any municipality levying the tax shall not exceed in any calendar year the amount of locally-generated tax revenues, excluding the excise tax imposed under RCW 35.58.273 for the purposes of this section, which shall have been budgeted by the municipality to be collected in such calendar year for any public transportation purposes including but not limited to operating costs, capital costs, and debt service on general obligation or revenue bonds issued for these purposes; and

(b) In no event may the amount remitted in a single calendar quarter exceed the amount collected on behalf of the municipality under RCW 35.58.273 during the calendar quarter next preceding the immediately preceding quarter.

(6) At the close of each calendar year accounting period, but not later than April 1, each municipality that has received motor vehicle excise taxes under subsection (5) of this section shall transmit to the director of licensing and the state auditor a written report showing by source the previous year's budgeted tax revenues for public transportation purposes as compared to actual collections. Any municipality that has not submitted the report by April 1 shall cease to be eligible to receive motor vehicle excise taxes under subsection (5) of this section until the report is received by the director of licensing. If a municipality has received more or less money under subsection (5) of this section for the period covered by the report than it is entitled to receive by reason of its locally-generated collected tax revenues, the director of licensing shall, during the next ensuing quarter that the municipality is eligible to receive motor vehicle excise tax funds, increase or decrease the amount to be remitted in an amount equal to the difference between the locally-generated budgeted tax revenues and the locally-generated collected tax revenues. In no event may the amount remitted for a calendar year exceed the amount collected on behalf of the municipality under RCW 35.58.273 during that same calendar year. At the time of the next fiscal audit of each municipality, the state auditor shall verify the accuracy of the report submitted and notify the director of licensing of any discrepancies.

(7) The motor vehicle excise taxes imposed under RCW 35.58.273 and required to be remitted under this section shall be remitted without legislative appropriation.

(8) Any municipality levying and collecting a tax under RCW 35.58.273 which does not have an operating, public transit system or a contract for public transportation services in effect within one year from the initial effective date of the tax shall return to the state treasurer all motor vehicle excise taxes received under subsection (5) of this section.

(9) Ninety-seven percent of any amount collected on behalf of a municipality under RCW 35.58.273 that is not distributed to the municipality under this section shall be transferred to the Puget Sound ferry operations account. The remaining three percent shall be held in the general fund to make adjustments required under RCW 82.44.150(6). Any moneys remaining after the adjustments shall revert to the Puget Sound ferry operations account. If the adjustments required are greater than the reserve amount, the distribution to the Puget Sound ferry operations account in the next ensuing quarter shall be decreased accordingly."

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

Debate ensued.

Senator Talmadge demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senators Barr, Craswell and Tanner.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Barr failed and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 10; nays, 35; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Craswell, Garrett, Hansen, Johnson, Rasmussen, Smitherman, Tanner, von Reichbauer, Williams - 10.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Gaspard, Halsan, Hayner, Kreidler, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Stratton, Talmadge, Vognild, Warnke, West, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 35.

President Cherberg assumed the chair.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of the amendment by Senators Bottiger, Bender and Bluechel, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator West, the President finds that Substitute Senate Bill No. 6016 is a measure increasing vehicle registration fees, increasing drivers license abstract fees, increasing the motor vehicle excise tax for ferry operations, transferring certain motor vehicle excise tax funds to ferry operations and exempting ferry fuel from sales taxes.

"The amendment proposed by Senators Bottiger, Bender and Bluechel raises the motor vehicle fuel tax, provides a distribution formula for the funds raised by the gas tax increase and provides for a transportation improvement board for local interest state transportation projects to replace the urban arterial board.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment by Senators Bottiger, Bender and Bluechel was ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following title amendments were considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 1, line 2 after ".070," strike everything down through and including ".505," on line 3

On page 1, line 4 after "RCW" strike "77.12.201,"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bender, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6016 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 6076, by Senator Peterson

Relating to transportation appropriations.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, Substitute Senate Bill No. 6076 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 6076 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

Senator Nelson moved that the following amendments be considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 5, line 17, strike "$4,007,809" and insert "$4,985,809"

On page 5, line 18, strike "$13,078,507" and insert "$14,203,496"

On page 5, line 19, strike "$17,090,430" and insert "$19,193,419"

On page 5, line 22, after "(1)" strike all material through line 24, and insert "$1,956,000 is provided for the vehicle/driver integration project."

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator West: "Mr. President, Rule 52 states 'no amendment to the budget or supplemental budget not incorporated in the bill shall be adopted except by affirmative vote of 60% of the Senators elected.' There is no designation in the rule about whether we are talking about the operating budget, the capital budget, the transportation budget, or any other budget that might come out before the Senate. My inquiry to the President is, does that rule speak to this amendment also requiring a 60%, or is this a simple majority?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR PULLEN

Senator Pullen: "I think Senator West has raised a very, very interesting question, but I think if the President takes a look at Rule 52, I think the key words are in the clause 'not incorporated in the bill as reported by the Ways and Means Committee.' It would seem to me that implicit in that clause is the fact that we are talking about the general operating budgets and budgets that are funded out of state general funds. Those are measures that would go through the Ways and Means Committee. It would seem to me that if this rule were intended to apply to transportation budgets, then we would have made some reference to the Transportation Committee. Only the Ways and Means Committee is referenced in Rule 52. Therefore, I would submit that the intent behind the rule was that it not apply to transportation budgets."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes that Senator Pullen's opinion is well taken and that the amendments will require a simple majority to be adopted." Senator Nelson demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained. Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Nelson, is the Information Services Division a funded agency? In other words, does it receive an appropriation from the Legislature or is it one of those agencies that receives its funding through fees and charges that it makes to its customers?"

Senator Nelson: "It is in a division of the Department of Licensing that, as you will see on page 5 of the appropriation measure before us, comes out of the multiple appropriations, but, in this case, the motor vehicle fuel fund supports approximately two-thirds of the Department, the highway safety fund is about another three-fifths and then the game fund also contributes to this Department. So, you are looking at the total funding, per se, going into the Department of Licensing. There is no special appropriation for this particular Information Services Division."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendments by Senator Nelson.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Nelson failed and the amendments were not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 20; nays, 25; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Craswell, Garrett, Halsan, Johnson, Kreidler, Moore, Nelson, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Sellar, Talmadge, Tanner, West, Zimmerman - 20.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Gaspard, Hansen, Hayner, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, Newhouse, Owen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Smitherman, Stratton, Vogndil, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 25.

Excused: Senators Deccio, Kiskaddon, Lee, Metcalf - 4.

MOTION

Senator McDermott moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 7, line 8, after ".030" insert ": PROVIDED, That none of the funds in this section may be used for a study of the possible widening of the Portage Bay Bridge"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "Senator McDermott, would the wording of your amendment allow them to double deck the Portage Bay Bridge?"

Senator McDermott: "Senator Newhouse, I have no doubt that the highway department would have the decks ten decks high if they could figure out how to do it. It would be just like the convention center over the freeway. It will have the same kind of clogs, the same kind of engineering problems. You are going through a cut that is very narrow. It's about 150 feet in the air already. There 'ain't no cheap way' to do this and you're talking a billion dollars in that project by the time you are all done for sure."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Senator McDonald, if this amendment is adopted and, of course, I realize you said with the traffic going the other way, it would affect your district, but recognizing the fact that if you stayed over there on that side of the water and worked over there, you wouldn't have to come over and screw up those streets in Seattle. Be that as it may, would you be opposed to a head tax?"

Senator McDonald: "A head tax?"

Senator Fleming: "Well, to help pay for those streets and stuff that you are messing up when you come into Seattle."

Senator McDonald: "There are some who have never seen a tax they didn't like. There are taxes, I guess, that are appropriate and some that are inappropriate. I certainly would join with you in studying any kind of tax that you want to. I may not be one with you when we come out to vote for it."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator McDermott.

The motion by Senator McDermott carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Fleming moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 7, after line 33, insert a new subsection (3) and renumber the remaining subsection accordingly.

"(3) The department shall develop a design plan using federal discretionary funds made available under subsection (2) above to develop a design plan, prior to the completion of the I-90 project, that accommodates access to and from I-90 for those neighborhoods listed in the Washington State Transportation Commission Resolution No. 296; which design is consistent with the existing I-90 design and which can be constructed upon completion of the present I-90 project."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Cantu: "Senator Fleming, I am just trying to understand the amendment, because some of the comments you have made pertain to a study. I could read a design plan to be interpreted to mean a complete design--workings, drawings, specifications--which can be very expensive, usually running from six to ten percent of the total project. I am wondering if the intent is to have a design plan for all of the exits or is it more in light of a study that takes a look at options and access and so on?"

Senator Fleming: "Well, it's a study and design. You take a look at the options and try to come up with the best options and design to make this possible. I will share with you some of the resolutions that were adopted. It says, 'Whereas, planning for proposed access modifications to the I-90 project to accommodate affected central Seattle neighborhoods requires early project analysis, including but not limited to the determination of feasibility of access routes, the identification of alternate access routes; assessment of direct and program costs, public involvement, possible funding sources' and so forth and so on."

Senator Cantu: "Thank you. Then it really is not your intent to have the complete design done--a complete set of design plans? It's more of a study looking at options rather than a complete set of workings, drawings and specifications?"

Senator Fleming: "Well, you are probably the expert, not me. What I am asking for is one, that you study, that you look, that you determine the feasibility. You, hopefully will, at some point in time, do a design. At some point in time, soon after it's completed, make some effort to do the most feasible effort in putting access on to and off of I-90."

Senator Cantu: "Thank you, Senator Fleming. I was not attempting to do anything other than get a clarification so that the Department does not interpret this to mean that they should go ahead now and proceed with a design of all that work. It's come back, look at the option, look at the points where it's reasonable to have ingress and egress off of I-90. I agree with you, you've got to get that traffic out, you've got to get it on as well. I just wanted to make sure that the interpretation was not one of a march out and do the entire project in terms of the design part, but that this is the first step."

Senator Fleming: "Senator, what it also says is that the Department of Transportation is to provide implementation and construction of access modifications, if approved. 'If approved,' Senator, and that's within the resolution."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Fleming.

The motion by Senator Fleming carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator McDonald moved to reconsider the vote by which the amendments by Senator Nelson on page 5, lines 17, 18 and 22 were not adopted earlier today.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6076, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognlid, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6076 was ordered immediately transmitted to the House of Representatives.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 477, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Representatives J. King, Brooks, McMullen, Crane, Appelwick, Brekke, Lux, Locke, Grimm, Wang, Unsoeld, Jacobsen, Moyer, Leonard, Sprengle and Todd)

Enacting the health care access act of 1987.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator McDermott moved that the following amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the health care access act of 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislature reserves the right to amend or repeal all or any part of this chapter at any time and there shall be no vested private right of any kind against such amendment or repeal. All the rights, privileges, or immunities conferred by this chapter or any acts done pursuant thereto shall exist subject to the power of the legislature to amend or repeal this chapter at any time.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The legislature finds that:

(a) A significant percentage of the population of this state does not have reasonably available insurance or other coverage of the costs of necessary basic health care services;

(b) This lack of basic health care coverage is detrimental to the health of the individuals lacking coverage and to the public welfare, and results in substantial expenditures for emergency and remedial health care, often at the expense of health care providers, health care facilities, and all purchasers of health care, including the state; and

(c) The use of managed health care systems has significant potential to reduce the growth of health care costs incurred by the people of this state generally, and by low-income pregnant women who are an especially vulnerable population, along with their children, and who need greater access to managed health care.

(2) The purpose of this chapter is to provide necessary basic health care services in an appropriate setting to working persons and others who lack coverage, at a cost to these persons that does not create barriers to the utilization of necessary health care services. To that end, this chapter establishes a program to be made available to those residents under sixty-five years of age not otherwise eligible for medicare with gross family income at or below two hundred percent of the federal poverty guidelines who share in the cost of receiving basic health care services from a managed health care system.

(3) It is not the intent of this chapter to provide health care services for those persons who are presently covered through private employer-based health plans, nor to replace employer-based health plans. Further, it is the intent of the legislature to expand, wherever possible, the availability of private health care coverage and to discourage the decline of employer-based coverage.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. As used in this chapter:

(1) "Washington basic health plan" or "plan" means the system of enrollment and payment on a prepaid capitated basis for basic health care services, administered by the board through participating managed health care systems, created by this chapter.

(2) "Board" means the Washington basic health plan board.

(3) "Managed health care system" means any health care organization, including health care providers, insurers, health care service contractors, health maintenance organizations, or any combination thereof, that provides directly or by contract basic health care services, as defined by the board and rendered by duly licensed providers, on a prepaid capitated basis to a defined patient population enrolled in the plan and in the managed health care system.

(4) "Enrollee" means an individual, or an individual plus the individual's spouse and/or dependent children, all under the age of sixty-five and not otherwise eligible for medicare, who resides in an area of the state served by a managed health care system participating in the plan, whose gross family income at the time of enrollment does not exceed twice the federal poverty level as adjusted for family size and determined annually by the federal department of health and human services, who chooses to obtain basic health care coverage from a particular managed health care system in return for periodic payments to the board.

(5) "Subsidy" means the difference between the amount of periodic payment the board makes, from funds appropriated from the basic health plan trust account, to a managed health care system on behalf of an enrollee and the amount the board determines to be the enrollee's responsibility under section 10(2) of this act.

(6) "Premium" means a periodic payment, based upon gross family income and determined under section 10(2) of this act, which an enrollee makes to the board as consideration for enrollment in the plan.

(7) "Rate" means the per capita amount, negotiated by the board with and paid to a participating managed health care system, that is based upon the enrollment of enrollees in the plan and in that system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The basic health plan trust account is hereby established in the state treasury. All funds appropriated for this chapter shall be deposited in the basic health plan trust account and may be expended without further appropriation. Disbursements from other moneys in the account shall be made pursuant to appropriation and upon warrants drawn by the Washington basic health plan board. Moneys in the account shall be used exclusively for the purposes of this chapter, including payments to participating managed health care systems on behalf of enrollees in the plan and payment of costs of administering the plan. The earnings on any surplus balances in the basic health plan trust account shall be credited to the account, notwithstanding RCW 43.84.090. After January 1, 1988, the board shall not expend or encumber for an ensuing fiscal period amounts exceeding ninety percent of the amounts anticipated to accrue in the account during the fiscal period.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is created the Washington basic health plan board, which shall be a separate and independent board of the state. The board shall be composed of five members appointed by the governor. The governor shall select one member to serve as chairman. Not more than one member may have any fiduciary obligation to any health care provider or facility or any material financial interest in the provision of health care services and one member shall have expertise in health care benefit design, as well as the administration of a health care benefits program by private employers.

Members of the board shall serve for four-year terms. However, of the members initially appointed after the effective date of this act, two shall be appointed to four-year terms, one to a three-year term, one to a two-year term, and one to a one-year term. Appointments shall require senate confirmation. No member of the board may serve for more than two consecutive terms. A vacancy shall be filled by appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term and the initial appointments and vacancies shall not require senate confirmation until the legislature next convenes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Meetings of the board shall be held as frequently as its duties require. The board shall keep minutes of its meetings and adopt procedures for the governing of its meetings, minutes, and transactions. Three members of the board constitute a quorum, but a vacancy on the board shall not impair its power to act. No action of the board shall be effective unless three members concur therein. The board may, consistent with the procedural requirements of chapter 42.30 RCW, meet in executive session with representatives of prospective or participating managed health care systems to discuss matters of a proprietary or sensitive nature.

The members of the board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.250 and shall be reimbursed for their travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The board shall employ, subject to approval by the governor, a full-time executive director, who shall be the chief administrative officer of the board and shall be subject to its direction. The salary for this office shall be set by the governor pursuant to RCW 43.03.040. The executive director, medical director, and up to five other employees shall be exempt from the civil service law, chapter 41.06 RCW.

The board shall employ such other staff as are necessary to fulfill the responsibilities and duties of the board, such staff to be subject to the civil service law, chapter 41.06 RCW. In addition, the board may contract with third parties for services necessary to carry out its activities where this will promote economy, avoid duplication of effort, and make best use of available expertise. Any such contractor or consultant shall be prohibited from releasing, publishing, or otherwise using any information made available to it under its contractual responsibility without specific permission of the board. The board may call upon other agencies of the state to provide available information as necessary to assist the board in meeting its responsibilities under this chapter, which information shall be supplied as promptly as circumstances permit.

The board may create committees from its membership, and may appoint such technical or other advisory committees as it deems necessary. The board shall appoint a standing technical advisory committee that is representative of health care professionals, health care providers, and those directly involved in the purchase, provision, or delivery of health care services, as well as consumers and those knowledgeable of the ethical issues involved with health care public policy. Individuals appointed to any technical or other advisory committee shall serve without compensation for their services as members, but may be reimbursed for their expenses in the same manner as members of the board.

The board may apply for, receive, and accept grants, gifts, and other payments, including property and service, from any governmental or other public or private entity or person, and may make arrangements as to the use of these receipts, including the undertaking of special studies and other projects relating to health care costs and access to health care.

In the design, organization, and administration of the plan under this chapter, the board shall consider the report of the Washington health care project commission established under chapter 303, Laws of 1986. Nothing in this chapter requires the board to follow any specific recommendation contained in that report except as it may also be included in this chapter or other law.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. The board may promulgate and adopt rules consistent with this chapter to carry out the purposes of this chapter. All rules shall be adopted in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. The board has the following powers and duties:

(1) To design and from time to time revise a schedule of covered basic health care services, including physician services, inpatient and outpatient hospital services, and other services that may be necessary for basic health care, which enrollees in any participating managed health care system under the Washington basic health plan shall be entitled to receive in return for premium payments to the board. The schedule of services shall emphasize proven preventive and primary health care, shall include all services necessary for prenatal, postnatal, and well-child care, and shall include a separate schedule of basic health care services for children, eighteen years of age and younger, for those enrollees who choose to secure basic coverage through the plan only for their dependent children. In designing and revising the schedule of services, the board shall consider the guidelines for assessing health services under the mandated benefits act of 1984, RCW 48.42.080, and such other factors as the board deems appropriate.

(2) To design and implement a structure of periodic premiums due the board from enrollees that is based upon gross family income, giving appropriate consideration to family size as well as the ages of all family members. The enrollment of children shall not require the enrollment of their parent or parents who are eligible for the plan.

(3) To design and implement a structure of nominal copayments due a managed health care system from enrollees. The structure shall discourage inappropriate enrollee utilization of health care services, but shall not be so costly to enrollees as to constitute a barrier to appropriate utilization of necessary health care services.

(4) To limit enrollment of persons who qualify for subsidies so as to prevent an overexpenditure of appropriations for such purposes. Whenever the board finds that there is danger of such an overexpenditure, the board shall close enrollment until the board finds the danger no longer exists.

(5) To adopt a schedule for the orderly development of the delivery of services and availability of the plan to residents of the state, subject to the limitations contained in section 12 of this act.

In the selection of any area of the state for the initial operation of the plan, the board shall take into account the levels and rates of unemployment in different areas of the state, the need to provide basic health care coverage to a population reasonably representative of the portion of the state's population that lacks such coverage, and the need for geographic, demographic, and economic diversity.

Before July 1, 1988, the board shall endeavor to secure participation contracts with managed health care systems in discrete geographic areas within at least five congressional districts.

(6) To solicit and accept applications from managed health care systems, as defined in this chapter, for inclusion as eligible basic health care providers under the plan. The board shall endeavor to assure that covered basic health care services are available to any enrollee of the plan from among a selection of two or more participating managed health care systems. In adopting any rules or procedures applicable to managed health care systems and in its dealings with such systems, the board shall consider and make suitable allowance for the need for health care services and the differences in local availability of health care resources, along with other resources, within and among the several areas of the state.

(7) To receive periodic premiums from enrollees, deposit them in the basic health plan operating account, keep records of enrollee status, and authorize periodic payments to managed health care systems on the basis of the number of enrollees participating in the respective managed health care systems.

(8) To accept applications from individuals residing in areas served by the plan, on behalf of themselves and their spouses and dependent children, for enrollment in the Washington basic health plan, to establish appropriate minimum-enrollment periods for enrollees as may be necessary, and to determine, upon application and at least annually thereafter, or at the request of any enrollee, eligibility due to current gross family income for sliding scale premiums. An enrollee who remains current in payment of the sliding-scale premium, as determined by the board under subsection (2) of this section, and whose gross family income has risen above twice the federal poverty level, may continue enrollment unless and until the enrollee's gross family income has remained above twice the poverty level for six consecutive months, by making payment at the unsubsidized rate required for the managed health care system in which he or she may be enrolled. No subsidy may be paid with respect to any enrollee whose current gross family income exceeds twice the federal poverty level or, subject to section 15 of this act, who is a recipient of medical assistance or medical care services under chapter 74.09 RCW. In the event a number of enrollees drop their enrollment for no apparent good cause, the board may establish appropriate rules or requirements that are applicable to such individuals before they will be allowed to re-enroll in the plan.

(9) To require that prospective enrollees who may be eligible for categorically needy medical coverage under RCW 74.09.510 or whose income does not exceed the medically needy income level under RCW 74.09.700 apply for such coverage, but the board shall enroll the individuals in the plan pending the determination of eligibility under chapter 74.09 RCW.

(10) To determine the rate to be paid to each participating managed health care system in return for the provision of covered basic health care services to enrollees in the system. Although the schedule of covered basic health care services will be the same for similar enrollees, the rates negotiated with participating managed health care systems may vary among the systems. In negotiating rates with participating systems, the board shall consider the characteristics of the populations served by the respective systems, economic circumstances of the local area, the need to conserve the resources of the basic health plan trust account, and other factors the board finds relevant.

(11) To monitor the provision of covered services to enrollees by participating managed health care systems in order to assure enrollee access to good quality basic health care, to require periodic data reports concerning the utilization of health care services rendered to enrollees in order to provide adequate information for evaluation, and to inspect the books and records of participating managed health care systems to assure compliance with the purposes of this chapter. In requiring reports from participating managed health care systems, including data on services rendered enrollees, the board shall endeavor to minimize costs, both to the managed health care systems and to the board. The board shall coordinate any such reporting requirements with other state agencies, such as the insurance commissioner and the hospital commission, to minimize duplication of effort.

(12) To monitor the access that state residents have to adequate and necessary health care services, determine the extent of any unmet needs for such services or lack of access that may exist from time to time, and make such reports and recommendations to the legislature as it deems appropriate.

(13) To evaluate the effects this chapter has on private employer-based health care coverage and to take appropriate measures consistent with state and federal statutes that will discourage the reduction of such coverage in the state.

(14) To develop a program of proven preventive health measures and to integrate it into the plan wherever possible and consistent with this chapter.

(15) To provide, consistent with available resources, technical assistance for rural health activities that endeavor to develop needed health care services in rural parts of the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The benefits available under the plan shall be subject to RCW 48.21.200 and shall be excess to the benefits payable under the terms of any insurance policy issued to or on the behalf of an enrollee that provides payments toward medical expenses without a determination of liability for the injury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. On and after July 1, 1988, the board shall accept for enrollment applicants eligible to receive covered basic health care services from the respective managed health care systems which are then participating in the plan. The board shall not allow the total enrollment of those eligible for subsidies to exceed thirty thousand.

Thereafter, total enrollment shall not exceed the number established by the legislature in any act appropriating funds to the board.

Before July 1, 1988, the board shall endeavor to secure participation contracts from managed health care systems in discrete geographic areas within at least five congressional districts of the state and in such manner as to allow residents of both urban and rural areas access to enrollment in the plan.

The board shall at all times closely monitor growth patterns of enrollment so as not to exceed that consistent with the orderly development of the plan as a whole, in any area of the state or in any participating managed health care system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Any enrollee whose premium payments to the board are delinquent or who moves his or her residence out of an area served by the plan may be dropped from enrollment status. An enrollee whose premium is the responsibility of the department of social and health services under section 15 of this act may not be dropped solely because of nonpayment by the department. The board shall provide delinquent enrollees with advance written notice of their removal from the plan and shall provide for a hearing under chapters 34.04 and 34.12 RCW for any enrollee who contests the board's decision to drop the enrollee from the plan. Upon removal of an enrollee from the plan, the board shall promptly notify the managed health care system in which the enrollee has been enrolled, and shall not be responsible for payment for health care services provided to the enrollee (including, if applicable, members of the enrollee's family) after the date of notification. A managed health care system may contest the denial of payment for coverage of an enrollee through a hearing under chapters 34.04 and 34.12 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Managed health care systems participating in the plan shall do so by contract with the board and shall provide, directly or by contract with other health care providers, covered basic health care services to each enrollee as long as payments from the board on behalf of the enrollee are current. A participating managed health care system may offer, without additional cost, health care benefits or services not included in the schedule of covered services under the plan. A participating managed health care system shall not give preference in enrollment to enrollees who accept such additional health care benefits or services. Managed health care systems participating in the plan shall not discriminate against any potential or current enrollee based upon health status, sex, race, ethnicity, or religion. The board may receive and act upon complaints from enrollees regarding failure to provide covered services or efforts to obtain payment, other than authorized copayments, for covered services directly from enrollees, but nothing in this chapter empowers the board to impose any sanctions under Title 18 RCW or any other professional or facility licensing statute.

The plan shall allow, at least annually, an opportunity for enrollees to transfer their enrollments among participating managed health care systems serving their respective areas. The board shall establish a period of at least twenty days in a given year when this opportunity is afforded enrollees, and in those areas served by more than one participating managed health care system the board shall endeavor to establish a uniform period for such opportunity. The plan shall allow enrollees to transfer their enrollment to another participating managed health care system at any time upon a showing of good cause for the transfer.

Any contract between a hospital and a participating managed health care system under this chapter is subject to the requirements of RCW 70.39.140(1) regarding negotiated rates.

Prior to negotiating with any managed health care system, the board shall determine, on an actuarially sound basis, the reasonable cost of providing the schedule of basic health care services, expressed in terms of upper and lower limits, and recognizing variations in the cost of providing the services through the various systems and in different areas of the state. In negotiating with managed health care systems for participation in the plan, the board shall adopt a uniform procedure that includes at least the following:

(1) The board shall issue a request for proposals, including standards regarding the quality of services to be provided; financial integrity of the responding systems; and responsiveness to the unmet health care needs of the local communities or populations that may be served;

(2) The board shall then review responsive proposals and may negotiate with respondents to the extent necessary to refine any proposals;

(3) The board may then select one or more systems to provide the covered services within a local area; and

(4) The board may adopt a policy that gives preference to respondents, such as nonprofit community health clinics, that have a history of providing quality health care services to low-income persons.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The department of social and health services shall make periodic payments to the board as an agent for the participating managed health care systems on behalf of any enrollee who is a recipient of medical assistance, medical care-limited casualty program, or medical care services under chapter 74.09 RCW, at the maximum rate allowable for federal matching purposes under Title XIX of the social security act, but not to exceed the rate negotiated by the board with the participating managed health care system for the services covered by the plan, and no premium or copayment may be charged to such an enrollee. Any enrollee on whose behalf the department of social and health services makes payments to the board under this section and chapter 74.09 RCW may continue as an enrollee, making premium payments based on the enrollee's own income as determined under the sliding scale, after eligibility for coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW has ended, as long as the enrollee remains eligible under this chapter. Nothing in this section affects the right of any person eligible for coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW to receive the services offered to other persons under that chapter but not included in the schedule of basic health care services covered by the plan. The board and the department of social and health services shall cooperatively adopt procedures to facilitate the transition of plan enrollees and payments on their behalf between the plan and the programs established under chapter 74.09 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. In addition to the powers and duties specified in sections 8 and 10 of this act, the board has the power to enter into contracts for the following functions and services:

(1) With public or private agencies, to assist the board in its duties to design or revise the schedule of covered basic health care services, and/or to monitor or evaluate the performance of participating managed health care systems.

(2) With public or private agencies, to provide technical or professional assistance to health care providers, particularly public or private nonprofit organizations and providers serving rural areas, who show serious intent and apparent capability to participate in the plan as managed health care systems.
