CHAPTER 27.

[S. B. 93.]

INSURANCE RECIPROCITY WITH OTHER STATES.

AN ACT to establish retaliation and reciprocation between this state and others of the United States as regards insurance companies of such respective states.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Insurance reciprocity.

SECTION 1. When, by the laws of any other state, any taxes, fines, penalties, licenses, fees, deposits of money or securities, or other obligations or prohibitions are or would be imposed upon insurance companies of this state, or their agents, greater or more severe or unfavorable than are required by the laws of this state, then the same obligations and prohibitions of whatever kind and extent shall, in like manner for like purposes, be imposed upon all insurance companies of such state, and their agents, doing business or seeking to do business in this state.

Nations included.

Insurance companies of other nations shall, under this section, be held as of the states where they have elected to make their general United States deposits and established their principal United States agencies.

Passed by the Senate February 11, 1909.

Passed by the House February 24, 1909.

Approved March 2, 1909.
