

CHAPTER 121.

[H. B. 42.]

INTEREST ON INTERSTATE BRIDGE BONDS.

AN ACT providing for and authorizing the payment of interest on bonds issued by counties for the purpose of constructing bridges between this state and adjoining states.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. Whenever any county of this state shall have issued negotiable bonds of the county for the purpose of constructing, or aiding in the construction of any bridge between such county and an adjoining state, under the provisions of chapter 56 of the Laws of 1913, and the money derived from the sale of such bonds shall exceed the proportionate cost of the construction of such bridge, chargeable to such county, and the board of county commissioners of such county shall have failed, or shall in any year fail to levy an annual tax to pay the interest on said bonds whenever the same becomes due and there shall be in the county treasury of said county moneys derived from the sale of said bonds in excess of the proportionate cost of the construction of such bridge, chargeable to such county, sufficient to pay the interest due on any of such bonds, the county auditor of such county is hereby authorized and empowered when authorized so to do by an order of the board of county commissioners of any such county, to draw his warrant upon the county treasurer for the purpose of paying such interest and the county treasurer for the purpose of paying such interest [and the county treasurer] is hereby authorized and empowered to pay such warrant out of any such excess funds in his hands derived from the sale of such bonds.

Payment
