

LAWS OF WASHINGTON

PASSED AT THE

Twenty-Fourth Regular Session

1935

CHAPTER 1.

[INITIATIVE MEASURE NO. 77.]

FISH TRAPS AND FISHING REGULATIONS.

(BALLOT TITLE.)

(AN ACT relating to fishing; prohibiting the use of fish traps or other fixed appliances for catching salmon and certain other fish within the waters of the State of Washington; prohibiting the taking or fishing for salmon and certain other fish within a certain area therein defined and created by any means except by trolling, regulating trolling in such area, and permitting the operation of gill nets therein under certain conditions; providing for open and closed seasons, prohibiting drag seines and limiting the length of gill nets in the Columbia River; prescribing penalties; and repealing all laws in conflict therewith.)

AN ACT relating to the taking and catching of fish; prescribing a district within the State of Washington in the waters of which it is made unlawful to take, catch, or fish for any salmon, by any means except by the use of hook and line, setting forth the boundaries of said district, and for licensing the operation, and for the operation of gill nets by certain persons, firms and corporations holding licenses for the use of such gill nets in 1932 or 1933; providing for commercial fishing at certain times and under certain conditions; limiting the length of gill net and prohibiting drag seines in the Columbia River; prohibiting the construction, installation, use, operation or maintenance of any pound net, fish trap, fish wheel, scow fish wheel, set net, or any fixed appliance for the purpose of catching salmon, salmon trout, trout, or steel head; and to repeal all acts or parts of acts in conflict therewith; and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Washington:

Fishing;
regulation of.

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful to fish for, catch, or take any species of salmon or salmon trout, trout, or steel head, except as hereinafter provided, with any appliance, or by any means whatever, except with hook and line, commonly called angling or trolling, except as hereinafter provided, within the waters of the straits of Juan de Fuca, Puget Sound and waters connected therewith within the State of Washington described as lying to the southerly, easterly and southeasterly of a line described as follows:

CHAPTER 2.

[INITIATIVE MEASURE NO. 94.]

TAXATION: LIMITATION OF TAX LEVIES.

(BALLOT TITLE.)

(AN ACT relating to taxation; limiting the aggregate annual rate of levy on real and personal property for state, county, city or town, school district and road district purposes to forty mills; limiting the levy by the state to two mills to be used exclusively for the support of the University of Washington, Washington State College and the Normal Schools; limiting the levy by counties, cities and towns, school districts and road districts to certain designated maximums; excepting port districts from the operation of the act; and providing that additional levies may be made as therein provided.)

AN ACT relating to the taxation of real and personal property and limiting the aggregate annual rate of levy thereon for state, county, municipal, school district and road district purposes to forty mills.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. Except as hereinafter provided, the aggregate of all tax levies upon real and personal property by the state, county, school district, road district, and city or town shall not in any year exceed forty mills on the dollar of assessed valuation, which assessed valuation shall be fifty per cent of the true and fair value of any such property in money; and the levy by the state shall not exceed two mills to be exclusively for the support of the
