added to the cooling liquid, in the cooling system of internal combustion engines to prevent freezing of the cooling liquid or to lower its freezing point; and (2) "person" shall include individuals, partnerships, corporations, companies and associations. "Person."

SEC. 2. An anti-freeze shall be deemed to be adulterated: (1) If it consists in whole or in part of any substance which will render it injurious to the cooling system of an internal combustion engine or will make the operation of the engine dangerous to the user; or (2) if its strength, quality, or purity falls below the standard of strength, quality, or purity under which it is sold. Adulterated.

SEC. 3. An anti-freeze shall be deemed to be misbranded: (1) If its labeling is false or misleading in any particular; or (2) if in package form it does not bear a label containing the name and place of business of the manufacturer or distributor and an accurate statement of the quantity of the contents in terms of weight or measure on the outside of the package. Misbranded.

SEC. 4. Before any anti-freeze shall be sold, offered for sale, or held with intent to sell within this state, a sample thereof must be inspected annually by the Department of Agriculture. Upon application of the manufacturer or distributor and the payment of a fee of twenty dollars for each brand of anti-freeze submitted, the Department shall inspect the anti-freeze submitted. If the anti-freeze is not adulterated or misbranded, if it meets the standards of the Department, and is not in violation of this act, the Department shall give the applicant a written permit authorizing the sale of such anti-freeze in this state for the calendar year in which the inspection fee is paid. It shall be unlawful to keep with intent to sell, to offer to sell or to sell adulterated or Inspection by Department of Agriculture.

Unlawful to sell without license.

misbranded anti-freeze or any anti-freeze for which a license shall not previously have been obtained.

Enforcement
of act by Department of Agriculture.

SEC. 5. The Department of Agriculture shall enforce the provisions of this act by inspections, chemical analyses, or any other appropriate methods. All samples for inspection or analysis shall be taken from stocks in the state or intended for sale in the state. The Department through its agents may call upon the manufacturer or distributor applying for an inspection of an anti-freeze to supply such samples thereof for analysis. The Department, through its agents, shall have free access by legal means during business hours to all places of business, buildings, vehicles, cars, and vessels used in the manufacture, transportation, sale, or storage of any anti-freeze, and it may open by legal means any box, carton, parcel, or package, containing or supposed to contain any anti-freeze and may take therefrom samples for analysis.

Rules and regulations.

SEC. 6. The Department of Agriculture shall have authority to promulgate such rules and regulations as are necessary to promptly and effectively enforce the provisions of this act. The Department may at its discretion establish minimum requirements and standards of quality for anti-freeze.

List of brands and trademarks
inspected.

SEC. 7. The Department of Agriculture may furnish upon request a list of the brands and trademarks of anti-freeze inspected by the Department during the calendar year which have been found to be in accord with this act.

Advertising
of antifreeze.

SEC. 8. No advertising literature relating to any anti-freeze sold or to be sold in this state shall contain any statement that the anti-freeze advertised for sale has been approved by the Department of Agriculture; but if any anti-freeze has been inspected by the Department and found to meet the standards of the Department and not to be in violation of this act such statement may be contained in any advertisement literature whenever such brand or trademark of anti-freeze is being advertised for sale.

SEC. 9. It shall be the duty of the Prosecuting Attorneys of the several counties to institute criminal proceedings against any person or persons having violated any provisions of this act, or any rule or regulation of the Department of Agriculture hereunder promulgated.

Prosecution
for violations of act.

SEC. 10. All fees provided for in this act shall be collected by the Director of the Department of Agriculture and remitted to the State Treasurer.
