CHAPTER 122.

[S. B. 415.]

SCHOOL DISTRICTS—HANDICAPPED CHILDREN.

AN ACT relating to school districts; providing that school districts may severally or jointly contribute funds for acquiring sites and constructing, equipping and furnishing buildings for special educational aid to handicapped children and amending section 4, chapter 120, Laws of 1943 as last amended by section 1, chapter 135, Laws of 1953, and RCW 28.13.030.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

RCW 28.13.030
amended.

SECTION 1. Section 4, chapter 120, Laws of 1943 as last amended by section 1, chapter 135, Laws of 1953, and RCW 28.13.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Authority of district.

School district officers and teachers shall cooperate with the superintendent of public instruction and with the supervisor, and shall give such aid and special attention to handicapped children as their facilities will permit.

School districts may severally or jointly purchase and own special aid equipment and materials, with the approval of the supervisor, and may pay for the same out of their general fund budgets. School districts may severally or jointly employ special teachers for special aid, with the approval of the supervisor, and may pay their salaries and compensation out of their general fund budgets. School districts may severally or jointly establish and operate residential schools for aid and special attention to handicapped children, with the approval of the supervisor, and may pay for the operation of such residential schools out of their general fund budgets. School districts may make agreements with other school districts for aid and special attention to handicapped children of their districts in the schools and special services of such other districts, with the approval of the supervisor, and may pay for the same out of their general fund budgets, and such payments may include the cost of board and room for such handicapped children while housed in such other districts. Such expenditures may be partially or wholly reimbursed from funds appropriated for that purpose under rules and regulations established by the superintendent of public instruction.

School districts may, with the approval of the supervisor, severally or jointly contribute funds for purchasing sites and constructing, equipping and furnishing buildings in another school district for the purpose of giving special educational aid to handicapped children and may pay for the same out of their building fund budgets.
