

(5) Upon receiving satisfactory evidence that with respect to any such referendum the conditions specified in subsection (4) of this section and section 218(d) (3) of the social security act have been met, the governor shall so certify to the secretary of health, education, and welfare.

Sec. 2. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing institutions and shall take effect immediately. Emergency.

Passed the House January 24, 1967.

Passed the Senate January 31, 1967.

Approved by the Governor February 7, 1967.

CHAPTER 6.

[House Bill No. 57.]

APPRENTICESHIP COUNCIL.

AN ACT relating to the apprenticeship council; increasing reimbursements for members; and amending section 1, chapter 231, Laws of 1941 as amended by section 1, chapter 114, Laws of 1961 and RCW 49.04.010.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 1, chapter 231, Laws of 1941 as amended by section 1, chapter 114, Laws of 1961 and RCW 49.04.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The director of labor and industries shall appoint an apprenticeship council, composed of three representatives each from employer and employee organizations, respectively. The terms of office of the members of the apprenticeship council first appointed by the director of labor and industries shall be as follows: One representative each of employers and employees shall be appointed for one year, two years, and three years, respectively. Thereafter, each member shall be appointed for a term of three years. Each member shall hold office until his successor is appointed and has qualified and any vacancy shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired portion of the term. The state official who has been designated by the state board for vocational education as being in charge of trade and industrial education and the state official who has immediate charge of the state public employment service shall ex officio be members of said council, without vote. Each member of the council, not otherwise compensated by public moneys, shall be reimbursed for transportation and expenses and shall be paid not more than twenty-five dollars for each day spent in attendance at meetings of the council. The apprenticeship council with the consent of employee and employer groups shall: (1) Establish standards for apprenticeship agreements in conformity with the provisions of this chapter; (2) issue such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the intent and purposes of this chapter; and (3) perform such other duties as are hereinafter imposed. Not less than once a year the apprenticeship council shall make a report through the director of labor and industries on November 1, of its activities and findings to the legislature which shall be made available to the public.

RCW 49.04.010 amended.

Labor regulations. Apprenticeship council, creation, composition, terms, expenses, duties.

Labor regulations. Apprenticeship council, creation, composition, terms, expenses, duties.

Passed the House January 16, 1967.

Passed the Senate February 2, 1967.

Approved by the Governor February 9, 1967.