YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Nicholson:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Brink submit to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Brink?"

Mr. Brink:

"Yes."

Mr. Nicholson:

"Mr. Brink, is there an optimum figure we can reach on population, or how do you determine the number of judges needed? Do you have one judge per 10,000 in population, or how is it determined?"

Mr. Brink:

"The only figures I have seen, Mr. Nicholson, were not with regard to population but with regard to caseload. There are some areas which have more cases than others on a population basis, such as King county where there is a financial center."

Mr. Nicholson:

"Do you have figures on comparative caseloads?"

Mr. Brink:

"I am sorry that I don't have them at my desk. They were sent by the court administrator and may be available in the Judiciary Committee. They do show a substantial need in King county."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Cecil:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Marsh yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Marsh?"

Mr. Marsh:

"Yes."

Mr. Cecil:

"Are some of the superior court judges in counties neighboring on King and Pierce helping to relieve the load in King and Pierce?"

Mr. Marsh:

"Yes, that is true."

Mr. Cecil:

"This isn't going to result later in the loss of a judgeship in some of the neighboring counties, is it?"

Mr. Marsh:

"No."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Johnston:

"Mr. Speaker, could I ask Mr. Marsh a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Marsh?"

Mr. Marsh:

"Yes."

Mr. Johnston:

"Was this problem in King county brought before the committee when you were considering this bill?"

Mr. Marsh:

"What actually happened was that they had a bill in the Senate to give King county two judges and Pierce county one, and when our bill came over, they simply went ahead with one bill instead of two. They have had the hearings and compiled the statistics over there."

With the consent of the House, Mr. Marsh withdrew his motion that the House do concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed House Bill No. 216.

Mr. Pritchard:

"Thank you, Mr. Canfield. Some of us non-farmers are a little confused. I am not particularly against this bill, but there is something I wish you would clear up. We see in the budget bill almost eight million dollars appropriated for research at the college for agricultural purposes. Isn't it possible for the college to work out of that eight million dollars and take care of these individual items?"

Mr. Canfield:

"I am astonished that you would be confused. I admire the way you handle legislation, and I am sure you would never be confused on a simple bill of this nature. However, this eight million dollar appropriation, I think you are referring to the department of agriculture, includes a number of miscellaneous items which have been carefully screened, and the reason this was not included, and I think your point is valid, is that farmers generally don't seem to have the organization or the legal advice necessary to get these things included in the budget of Washington state university or the department of agriculture. I think your point is valid and I would like to suggest to Mr. Edwards that in the future appropriations of this nature do come through the proper research bodies rather than as extra items."

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

The need to curb vicious gas wars which have economically ruined many independent service station operators is certainly recognized. House Bill No. 141, however, has such broad coverage that it is my opinion that it will be detrimental to all business and the consuming public. House Bills No. 551 and No. 334 would have brought about the end of gas wars without affecting those engaged in other fields of business.

BOB McDUGALL,
12th District.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Mardesich, the House adjourned until 2:00 p. m., Sunday, February 26, 1961.

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

Senate Chamber,

Olympia, Wash., February 24, 1961.

MR. SPEAKER:

The Senate has passed: Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3; also Engrossed Senate Bill No. 182; also Senate Bill No. 184; also Senate Bill No. 207; also Senate Bill No. 223; also

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 288; also
 Senate Bill No. 295; also
 Senate Bill No. 339; also
 Senate Bill No. 344; also
 Engrossed Senate Bill No. 411; also
 Engrossed Senate Bill No. 453, and the same are herewith transmitted.

WARD BOWDEN, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

Senate Chamber,
 Olympia, Wash., February 25, 1961.

MR. SPEAKER:

The Senate has passed: Substitute House Bill No. 31 with the following amendments:

In section 1, page 1, line 21, after "county" strike the period and insert the following: "PROVIDED, That no public health funds or any other funds available to a public hospital district and its hospitals may be expended by them or either of them if discrimination exists in the admission and staff membership of physicians and surgeons by reason of their school of practice."

In line 1 of the title, after "Relating to" strike "tuberculosis control funds" and insert "funds for public hospital districts" and on line 2 after "transfer" and before "surplus" insert "certain", and the same is herewith transmitted.

WARD BOWDEN, Secretary.

Mr. Ackley moved that the House do concur in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 31.

Debate ensued, Representatives Ackley and Day arguing in favor of concurrence with the Senate amendments, and Representatives Lybecker, McFadden, and Adams arguing against concurrence.

Mr. Morphis demanded an oral roll call, and the demand was not sustained.

Further debate ensued, Representatives Perry and Brink arguing in favor of concurrence in the Senate amendments.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Canfield:

"Will Dr. Adams yield to a question, Mr. Speaker?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Dr. Adams?"

Mr. Adams:

"Yes."

Mr. Canfield:

"I don't want to be misunderstood in the question I am going to ask. We have very fine osteopaths in the Yakima valley and our people are well satisfied with the calibre of osteopathic physicians and surgeons in our area. My question is: Could this body, or could the legislature by redefinition of some kind in the statutes, allow anybody to practice without qualifications?"

Mr. Adams:

"I will attempt to answer in this manner. At the moment, I think the supreme court has ruled that when you use the terminology 'physician and surgeon,' it applies to only two groups and those are doctors of medicine and doctors of osteopathy. It would be easy to change the term to 'doctor' which would be quite inclusive. It wouldn't take very much in the way of amendment to make it wide open."

Further debate ensued, Representative Andersen (James A.) arguing against concurrence in the Senate amendments.

Mr. Uhlman demanded a call of the House, and the demand was sustained.

CALL OF THE HOUSE

The Sergeant at Arms was instructed to lock the doors.

The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representatives Anderson (Eric O.), Bozarth, and Morrissey.

On motion of Mr. Brink, the absent members were excused and the House proceeded with business under the call of the House.

Further debate ensued, Representatives Day, Clark, and Klein arguing in favor of concurrence with the Senate amendments, and Representative Goldsworthy arguing against concurrence.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Adams:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Adams:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask a ruling as to whether or not this amendment is germane to this bill since it involves an entirely different subject from the original bill."

The Speaker declared the House to be at ease.

The Speaker called the House to order.

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"The Speaker would like to direct the attention of the members to Rule 36 on 'Motion to be Germane' and Rule 82 on 'Amendments to be Germane.' The latter states:

"A substitute or amendment must relate to the same subject as the original bill, resolution, memorial or constitutional amendment under consideration."

"Rule 36 states:

"No motion or proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color of amendment; and no bill or resolution shall at any time be amended by annexing thereto or incorporating therein any other bill or resolution pending before the house."

"It appears there is a bill similar to the subject matter in the Senate amendments in one of our committees. It is pending there, and therefore it is my opinion that the Senate amendments are not germane and this motion to concur would be out of order. A motion not to concur would be in order, however."

Mr. Adams moved that the House do not concur in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 31 and that the Senate be asked to recede therefrom.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Perry.

Mr. Perry:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise on a point of parliamentary inquiry."

The Speaker:

"State your point of parliamentary inquiry."

Mr. Perry:

"What is the latitude in the phrase, 'before the House'? Is it before the body here assembled or in committee?"

The Speaker:

"The Senate amendments are not germane to the original bill as passed by the House, and I ruled that the amendments are out of order for consideration by the House. I am recognizing the motion by Dr. Adams that the House do not concur."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Burns.

Mr. Burns:

"Mr. Speaker, parliamentary inquiry."

The Speaker:

"State your point of parliamentary inquiry."

Mr. Burns:

"Suppose the motion not to concur is lost. Does that mean we adopt it?"

The Speaker:

"No."

Mr. Burns:

"What would happen?"

The Speaker:

"The bill will just remain here."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Comfort, Mr. Farrington was excused from the call of the House because of ill health.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Canfield.

Mr. Canfield:

"Mr. Speaker, point of parliamentary inquiry."

The Speaker:

"State your point of inquiry."

Mr. Canfield:

"In view of your ruling, are the Senate amendments before this body?"

The Speaker:

"Yes."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Day.

Mr. Day:

"Mr. Speaker, point of parliamentary inquiry."

The Speaker:

"State your point of parliamentary inquiry."

Mr. Day:

"If I understand this properly, if we do not vote 'aye' for this motion we, in effect, kill the bill?"

The Speaker:

"No."

Mr. Day:

"What happens to it then?"

The Speaker:

"Then we would ask the Senate to recede, and if the Senate refuses to recede it would go into conference."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Ahlquist.

Mr. Ahlquist:

"Mr. Speaker, if the Senate recedes from their amendments, then the bill would be in the present form, would it not, without the amendments?"

The Speaker:

"Yes."

Mr. Ahlquist:

"So, if we vote yes on Dr. Adams' motion, it goes back to the Senate, and if they do not recede the bill then would go to conference. Otherwise, the bill stands as is?"

The Speaker:

"Yes."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Ackley.

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Speaker, point of parliamentary inquiry."

The Speaker:

"State your point of parliamentary inquiry."

Mr. Ackley:

"Is the Speaker's ruling on my motion to adopt the Senate amendment based on the question of germaneness, or is it based on Rule 36 that no amendment can be annexed to a bill which incorporates another bill pending before the House?"

The Speaker:

"It is based on germaneness, and it also is on the basis that it incorporates a bill pending before the House. It is a combination of both."

Mr. Ackley:

"One further question. Is it the Speaker's ruling that when we concur with Senate amendments, we are adopting the amendments?"

The Speaker:

"You would be, yes."

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be Mr. Adams' motion that the House do not concur in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 31, and that the Senate be asked to recede therefrom.

The motion was carried.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Schaefer, the House dispensed with further business under the call of the House.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., February 25, 1961.

MR. SPEAKER:

The Senate has passed: House Bill No. 468 with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 6 of the bill insert a new section reading as follows:

"Section 1. Section 14, chapter 176, Laws of 1957 and RCW 77.32.005 are each amended to read as follows:

"For the purposes of this chapter:

"A 'resident' means any citizen of the United States or person who has in good faith declared his intention of becoming a citizen of the United States, and who for at least [six months] ninety days immediately preceding any application for a license has maintained a permanent place of abode within this state [with the intent to permanently reside] and has established by formal evidence his intent to continue his residence within this state.

"An 'alien' means any person who is not a citizen of the United States and has not in good faith declared his intention of becoming a citizen of the United States.

"A 'nonresident' means any person who is neither a 'resident' nor an 'alien' as defined in this section."

Renumber old Section 1 to read "Sec. 2."

In lines 1 and 2 of the title after "to" strike all of the material down to and including "persons" on line 2 and insert "game and game fish; amending section 14, chapter 176, Laws of 1957 and RCW 77.32.005;"; and the same is herewith transmitted.

WARD BOWDEN, Secretary.

Mr. Schaefer moved that the House concur in the Senate amendments to House Bill No. 468.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Moos:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Schaefer yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Schaefer?"

Mr. Schaefer:

"I would be very happy to."

Mr. Moos:

"Representative Schaefer, in the last part of the Senate amendment, referring to aliens, I am not able to understand the meaning of the amendment. Does it mean aliens will be able to come in and stay ninety days and have the same privileges as do the citizens of the United States?"

Mr. Schaefer:

"If they declare their intent to become a citizen and reside here for ninety days, they will fall in the same classification."

Mr. Moos:

"Previously the law read six months?"

Mr. Schaefer:

"That is correct."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Hawley:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order. Aren't we supposed to have a copy of the amendment? I don't have it in my book."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Evans:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order. I would like to have the opportunity to take a look at the amendment. I think that the subject matter is contained in Senate Bill 471. Is Senate Bill No. 471 before us or is the bill still in the Senate?"

With the consent of the House, Mr. Schaefer withdrew his motion that the House do concur in the Senate amendments to House Bill No. 468.

On motion of Mr. Schaefer, further consideration of House Bill No. 468, as amended by the Senate, was deferred until the following day.

It has always been assumed that the definition for the practice of medicine was inclusive, and that he could carry out what procedures he thought were necessary. Doctors have been so licensed from time immemorial. There is nothing unusual in chiropractics that a doctor of medicine couldn't do, if he so desired to do it, but it is very seldom he has occasion to do it."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Clark:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Mr. Pritchard a question."

The Speaker (Mr. Mardesich presiding):

"Mr. Pritchard, will you yield to a question?"

Mr. Pritchard:

"Yes."

Mr. Clark:

"I would like to ask you as a proponent of this measure how these positions are determined. I am not familiar with it."

Mr. Pritchard:

"The city clerk would designate the positions, and then as an incumbent you would file for position 1 or 2, or whatever it might be. If I wanted to run against you, I would file for that same position."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Hawley:

"Would Mr. Pritchard yield to a question, please?"

The Speaker (Mr. Mardesich presiding):

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Pritchard?"

Mr. Pritchard:

"Yes."

Mr. Hawley:

"Mr. Pritchard, this is brand new to me. I am from Seattle, and I wonder who is supporting this? Where does it emanate from in Seattle?"

Mr. Pritchard:

"Mr. Hawley, I served on a subcommittee of the Municipal League. We studied this and came up with a recommendation, and that is where I first got busy on the subject. I cannot say that the city council of Seattle is supporting it, although they have told me they are not opposing it."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Chatalas:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Pritchard yield to another question please?"

The Speaker (Mr. Mardesich presiding):

"Will you yield, Mr. Pritchard?"

Mr. Pritchard:

"Yes, sir."

Mr. Chatalas:

"Mr. Pritchard, I am confused about this and I would like to have you explain it to me. If I lived in West Seattle, could I run for a position, let's say, in the north end?"

Mr. Pritchard:

"Yes. Once again let me say this is not the ward system dividing up the city into sections. It is just the same as the system used for electing superior judges. There are a number of positions and you can file for any one of them."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Miss Wintler:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Mr. Pritchard a question."

The Speaker (Mr. Mardesich presiding):

"Mr. Pritchard, will you yield?"

Mr. Pritchard:

"Yes."

Miss Wintler:

"I wonder what it means when it says the city clerk shall designate the positions to be filled by consecutive number commencing with one. Does the candidate have any right to choose what position he shall run for?"

Mr. Pritchard:

"Miss Wintler, the city clerk lays out the positions by number before anybody files. Then the incumbents can file for any of the numbered positions. The challengers then come and file against the incumbent that they wish to oppose."

Further debate ensued, Miss Wintler speaking against passage of the bill.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Kink:

"Mr. Speaker, would Representative Taylor yield to question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Mardesich presiding):

"Representative Taylor, since you are president of the Association of Washington Cities, I was wondering if the association had taken a stand on this?"

Mr. Taylor:

"No, we have no position on this at all."

"Section .1. Section 14, chapter 176, Laws of 1957 and RCW 77.32.005 are each amended to read as follows:

"For the purposes of this chapter:

"A 'resident' means any citizen of the United States or person who has in good faith declared his intention of becoming a citizen of the United States, and who for at least [six months] ninety days immediately preceding any application for a license has maintained a permanent place of abode within this state [with the intent to permanently reside] and has established by formal evidence his intent to continue his residence within this state.

"An 'alien' means any person who is not a citizen of the United States and has not in good faith declared his intention of becoming a citizen of the United States.

"A 'nonresident' means any person who is neither a 'resident' nor an 'alien' as defined in this section."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Evans.

Mr. Evans:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Evans:

"Mr. Speaker, will you rule, on the same basis as we discussed yesterday, whether this amendment is germane and whether it should be ruled in order? It is the exact subject of a bill that is now in the Senate, not in the House. I wonder if the amendment is germane to the bill as it was originally written."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"The Speaker will rule that this amendment by the Senate to House Bill No. 468 is germane. It is within the broad subject matter of game and game fish, and the licensing and restrictions applicable thereto."

"Mr. Uhlman, under present law, are our cities and counties and fire districts liable for damages done by them in the exercise of their fire protection powers?"

Mr. Uhlman:

"It is my interpretation, Representative Ackley, that agencies operating in a governmental capacity as distinguished from a proprietorship capacity are not liable."

Debate ensued, Representatives Uhlman, Klein, and Witherbee speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Ackley speaking against its adoption.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Marsh:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Ackley yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Ackley, will you yield to a question?"

Mr. Ackley:

"Yes."

Mr. Marsh:

"Mr. Ackley, could you tell us whether we are talking about a municipality running its own firefighting equipment with its own men or a city leasing out facilities or rendering services for hire to some other municipal district?"

Mr. Ackley:

"My understanding is that the Port furnishes its own equipment and men."

Mr. Marsh:

"Then they would be immune?"

Mr. Ackley:

"According to what we were told in the committee when this bill was presented, there was some question in the minds of some insurance lawyers as to whether or not they would be exempt."

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the adoption of Mr. Uhlman's amendment.

The motion was carried, and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Brink, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 114 as amended by the House, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 114 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 81; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 18.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Bernethy, Braun, Burns, Chatalas, Conner, Day, Farrington, Hawley, Henry, Johnston, King, Leland, May, McCormick, Ritner, Testu, Uhlman, Wedekind—18.

Senate Bill No. 114 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Olympia, Wash., February 22, 1961.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, a majority of your Committee on Cities and Counties, to whom was referred House Bill No. 516, relating to municipal officers' conflict of interests, have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass with the following amendments:

On page 2, section 4, line 21, after "or reward" and before "from any" insert "in connection with such contract"

On page 3, section 4, beginning on line 10, after "calendar month" strike the comma and all of the matter down to and including "calendar year" on line 11.

NORMAN B. ACKLEY, Chairman,
RICHARD "DICK" TAYLOR, Vice Chairman.

We concur in this report: Henry Backstrom, C. W. "Red" Beck, Eric D. Braun, Richard "Dick" C. Cecil, A. E. Edwards, Avery Garrett, Gus Lybecker, William J. S. May, Joel M. Pritchard, Walter B. Williams.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Mr. Ackley, the committee amendments were adopted.

Mr. Mardesich moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, section 4, line 22, after "therein" and before the period, insert ", nor shall any municipal officer be an officer, director or controlling owner of any business doing business with a municipality, nor shall any municipal officer solicit business or sell products or services to any firm, company or corporation which is a tenant of or under contract to or affected by tariff matters set by the municipality"

MOTION

Mr. Litchman moved that further consideration of House Bill No. 516 be deferred, and that the bill be ordered to retain its place on Tuesday's calendar for second reading.

Debate ensued, Representatives Litchman and Mardesich arguing in favor of the motion, and Representatives Ackley, Garrett, Cecil, Eldridge, and Hurley arguing against the motion.

The motion was lost on a rising vote.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the adoption of Mr. Mardesich's amendment to page 2.

Debate ensued, Representatives Mardesich and Litchman speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Ackley:

"I think Mr. Litchman is not addressing himself to the amendment which concerns page 2. He is seeking to read some lines on page 3."

The Speaker:

"Mr. Ackley, it is in this instance quite hard to determine how narrowly he can confine his remarks. In cases of this kind, the Speaker has held in the past that it is permissible to enter into the broad aspects of the main subject. You may continue, Mr. Litchman."

Mr. Litchman continued his remarks.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Garrett:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like Mr. Litchman to qualify further what he is reading to the members of the House. I don't think he is reading the bill we are talking about. I would like him to identify it further and get permission to read it into the record."

Mr. Litchman:

"For purposes of the record, Representative Garrett, this was handed to me by Mr. Biesen, who, I assume, was being truthful when he told me this was the bill that was prepared and dropped in the hopper, and that was intended to be dropped in the hopper."

Mr. Litchman completed his remarks. Further debate ensued, Representatives Garrett, Ackley, and Perry speaking against adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Mardesich and Litchman speaking in favor of its adoption.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Cecil:

"Mr. Speaker, would Representative Mardesich yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Mardesich?"

Mr. Mardesich:

"Yes."

Mr. Cecil:

"Mr. Mardesich, doesn't this amendment you have pertain to the same subject matter as House Bill No. 357?"

Mr. Mardesich:

"I don't know offhand what is in the bill to which you refer."

Mr. Cecil:

"You are one of the sponsors of the bill and I believe you have it in the book right on your desk."

Mr. Mardesich:

"Oh, yes. That is a bill that goes quite a bit beyond this amendment. I don't insist that the amendment is needed here, but I do say there is something wrong with a bill that allows, if you want to be specific, port commissioners to make contracts with themselves."

Mr. Schaefer demanded the previous question, and the demand was not sustained.

Further debate ensued, Representatives Eldridge and Brink speaking against adoption of the amendment, and Representative Sawyer speaking for its adoption.

Mr. Mardesich demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of Mr. Mardesich's amendment to page 2, and the amendment was not adopted, by the following vote: Yeas, 14; nays, 77; absent or not voting, 8.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Conner, Gallagher, Johnston, King, Klein, Litchman, Mardesich, McCormick, Nicholson, O'Donnell, Poff, Sawyer, Smith, Testu—14.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Ackley, Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Avey, Backstrom, Beck, Beierlein, Bergh, Bernethy, Bigley, Bozarth, Braun, Brink, Brouillet, Burtch, Canfield, Cecil, Clark, Comfort, Copeland, Day, DeJarnatt, Edwards, Eldridge, England, Epton, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Garrett, Gleason, Goldmark, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Harris, Hawley, Henry, Holmes, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Jueling, Kink, Kirk, Leibold, Leland, Lewis, Lybecker, Mahaffey, Marsh, May, McDougall, McElroy, McFadden, Metcalf, Meyers, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Newschwander, O'Connell, Olsen, Pence, Perry, Pritchard, Rickdall, Schaefer, Siler, Swayze, Taylor, Uhlman, Williams, Wintler, Witherbee, Mr. Speaker—77.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Burns, Campbell, Chatalas, Farrington, Ritner, Shropshire, Wang, Wedekind—8.

Mr. Mardesich moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, section 4, line 11, after "year" strike the colon and the remainder of section 4 and insert a period.

Debate ensued, Representative Mardesich speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Ackley, Adams, and Pritchard speaking against its adoption.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Litchman:

"Mr. Speaker I wonder if Mr. Ackley would yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Ackley?"

Mr. Ackley:

"Yes."

Mr. Litchman:

"Mr. Ackley, will you tell me what the situation is in the Seattle Port, the City of Seattle, and the County of King pertaining to the county commissioners or any other municipality, and especially the Port, regarding bidding? In other words, is everything subject to bid or can the port commissioners go out and lease or contract without competitive bidding up to certain values?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Litchman, it appears these questions have no relation to this particular amendment we are discussing."

Further debate ensued, Representative Litchman speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Evans.

"Mr. Speaker, I have a question for Mr. Litchman."

The Speaker:

"Mr. Litchman, will you yield to a question?"

Mr. Litchman:

"If I can."

Mr. Evans:

"Mr. Litchman, you suggested that people read the act more carefully. You said that nowhere in the act, except in a limited sense, was there any penalty. I suggest you might read new section 6 and tell me if that is a penalty that might apply under this act?"

Mr. Litchman:

"Mr. Evans, it may. It may, sir, but it doesn't mean it necessarily would, and furthermore I don't see that a three hundred dollar fine would deter a person from conflict of interest."

Further debate ensued, Representative Evans speaking against adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Nicholson demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the adoption of the amendment by Mr. Mardesich to page 4.

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted.

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Mr. Klein, I understand you have an amendment here to the section involved in Mr. Mardesich's last amendment. The amendment would now be out of order in accordance with Reed's Rule 147, which states that when a motion to strike out a paragraph is decided in the negative, it is equivalent to adoption of the words of the paragraph by the assembly."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Evans, the rules were suspended and Mr. Klein was allowed to introduce his amendment to page 3, section 4.

Mr. Klein moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, section 4, subsection (5), line 18, after "shall find" and before "that all terms" insert "and the court finds"

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Canfield:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Mr. Klein would yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Klein, will you yield to a question?"

Mr. Klein:

"Yes."

Mr. Canfield:

"What will it mean to have a court finding? Will the court have to have a trial or hearing and then make a finding?"

Mr. Klein:

"It simply means, Mr. Canfield, that it is not going to be delegated solely to the appraiser's finding. The court is going to ask them for their opinion and then pass on their opinion. This is what is done regularly in many proceedings."

The motion was carried, and the amendment by Mr. Klein was adopted.

Mr. Mardesich moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 4, section 5, line 3, strike all of subsection (3) and renumber subsection (4) accordingly.

Debate ensued, Representatives Mardesich and Litchman speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Ackley speaking against its adoption.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Burtch:

"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Mr. Evans would yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Evans?"

Mr. Evans:

"Yes."

Mr. Burtch:

"Mr. Evans, I noticed you referred to section 6, which is the penalty section. Are there any other criminal or civil liabilities or penalties which might be imposed by law?"

Mr. Evans:

"I suppose it depends on what he did. If he committed any crime that was punishable under other sections, I imagine he would be subject to penalty."

Mr. Burtch:

"Would you object to adding to this section a penalty of forfeiture of office?"

Mr. Evans:

"I think you would have to talk to the sponsors about that. They are the ones who wrote this bill."

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the adoption of the amendment by Mr. Mardesich to page 4.

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Litchman moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 5, section 7, line 2, after "of this" and before "by" strike "section" and insert "act"

Debate ensued, Representative Litchman speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Ackley speaking against its adoption.

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Mr. Burtch, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 4, section 6, line 17, after the period following "by law" add a new paragraph to read as follows:

"In addition to all other penalties, civil or criminal, the violation by any officer of the provisions of this act shall work a forfeiture of his office."

House Bill No. 516 was ordered engrossed.

On motion of Mr. Ackley, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 516 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued, Representatives Garrett, Eldridge, and McFadden speaking in favor of passage of the bill, and Representative Litchman speaking against its passage.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 516, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 77; nays, 5; absent or not voting, 17.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Klein, Litchman, Mardesich, McElroy, Testu—5.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Braun, Burns, Chatalas, Conner, Farrington, Gleason, Henry, Johnston, King, Mahaffey, Meyers, Olsen, Poff, Rickdall, Smith, Williams, Witherbee—17.

Engrossed House Bill No. 516, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

The House resumed consideration of House Bill No. 206 on second reading.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, a majority of your Committee on Highways, to whom was referred House Bill No. 206, modifying law as to motor operators' records and creating motor vehicle records revolving fund, have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass with the following amendments:

Mr. Klein:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Beierlein yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Beierlein, would you yield to a question?"

Mr. Beierlein:

"Yes."

Mr. Klein:

"Referring you to page 2 of the bill, lines 15 through 20, to me the language is very clear, but I want to know if it is the intention of the proponents of this bill to provide this information. I realize this may sound like a foolish question, but the same language has been in there for a long time, and I have never been able to get the director of licenses to comply with this section."

Mr. Beierlein:

"Mr. Klein, the language, of course, is very clear. I can't imagine how the director could avoid giving these things when the law clearly states that it shall be done."

Mr. Ahlquist:

"In reading these provisions that persons on this program are to be paid the prevailing wages and that the employing body shall furnish necessary transportation, clothing, tools, and equipment, the question that strikes me is this: Are these people then automatically covered by state industrial insurance in case of accident while they are being transported? What are the provisions in this act to protect whom against whom?"

Mrs. Hurley:

"My understanding is that all fees charged by the department of labor and industries, if the work comes under that department at all, will be paid by the state or the city or the county, and as far as their being required to furnish protective clothing and things like that, under the requirements of the department of labor and industries, the state, county, or city would be required to furnish that protective clothing."

Debate ensued, Representative Litchman speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Morrissey:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Morrissey:

"I see we are beyond the fiftieth day and under Rule 35, no member may speak more than three minutes. Mr. Litchman has gone beyond that."

The Speaker:

"Your point is well taken."

Mr. Schaefer offered to relinquish his time to Mr. Litchman.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Gorton:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Gorton:

"The House rules do not permit a gentleman to yield his time. Mr. Litchman can't go on without the permission of the House."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"The Speaker is going to recognize the motion to grant additional time to Mr. Litchman; although I would like to make this comment, that in the past the House has been somewhat liberal in the interpretation of this rule. As you know, we have permitted one person to yield his time to another under certain circumstances. However, I recognize the fact that we are now in the fifty-first day and some limitation must be made relative to debate."

MOTION

Mr. Schaefer moved that Mr. Litchman, as one of the sponsors of the bill, be allowed an additional six minutes in which to present his arguments with respect to his amendment to House Bill No. 391.

POINT OF INFORMATION

The Speaker recognized Mr. Andersen.

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of information. I didn't understand the exact verbiage of Mr. Schaefer's motion. Do I understand this motion extends equal liberality to both sides of this particular issue or are you talking about extending time to Mr. Litchman only?"

The Speaker:

"The motion is with respect to Mr. Litchman only."

On motion of Mr. Andersen (James A.), Mr. Schaefer's motion was amended to permit additional time to Mr. Litchman and to any others speaking on the bill.

The motion by Mr. Schaefer, as amended, was carried.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Pritchard:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order. Mr. Litchman is not speaking on the amendment. He is speaking on the bill."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"If you will review Reed's Rule 216, Relevancy in Debate, it states that it is often hard to make a distinction on an amendment. Sometimes the amendment involves, more or less, the main question. In this instance, he would have rather broad leeway and could, perhaps, discuss the main question."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Copeland:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order. The amendment as read indicates that nothing in this act would apply to a number of organizations which rate or endorse. This would throw the entire act in conflict as we have amended the act by a committee amendment in section 1, line 4, which the body has already adopted. To accept this amendment would be in violation of several of Reed's rules relative to action of a body being undone by a later action, and I would suggest that this amendment would be out of order."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"In reply to your point of order, Mr. Copeland, I would like to refer you to section 161 of Reed's Rules relative to incompatibility or inconsistency. An amendment may be inconsistent or incompatible with words in the bill, but that is for the assembly to decide, not the presiding officer. I am going to rule the amendment is in order, as far as I personally am concerned. It is up to the House to decide."

"Yes."

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to question, Mr. Brink?"

Mr. Brink:

"Yes, Mr. Hood."

Mr. Hood:

"Mr. Brink, I have had some conflicting testimony on this concerning the local charitable agencies. At first I heard that the charitable agencies, under the one-year limitation, were suffering terrific hardship in maintaining people who came under that limitation, and would like to see the three-year provision. Now I get word that the three-year provision will cause undue hardship. Could you give me your opinion of the answer to this problem?"

Mr. Brink:

"Well, I really can't say how to answer their problem, but I can give you the very firm estimate by the department of public assistance that the three out of four year residence requirement, as against one year, will save $2,240,000. There are going to be some people who stay in the state who are ineligible, despite the fact that the department has taken the position that they will pay transportation back to the state from which they came so that they will be eligible there. We can maintain them for the emergency period of ninety days."

Further debate ensued, Representative Brink speaking against the adoption of the amendment.

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Mr. Brink, I believe I will have to enforce Rule 35 or we are not going to get through much legislation during the closing days of the session. Rule 35, as you are aware, limits the number of times a person may speak, without the consent of the House, to once on a question and then for three minutes."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Hood:

"Mr. Speaker, I asked Mr. Brink a question which was not answered."

Mr. Smith:

"May I answer that question, Mr. Speaker?"

The Speaker:

"You may."

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Hood, it could materially affect the charitable agencies. This amendment was put in at the request of the charitable agencies. I want to make that clear."

Further debate ensued, Representative Ackley speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Johnston demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Smith demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was not sustained.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the adoption of Mr. Smith's amendment to section 1, line 6.

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Smith:

"To accommodate Mr. Evans, I will try to touch briefly on the old and new sections. We met with the apartment operators and real estate board last night and made a new amendment pertaining to this. The real estate brokers have reneged on their part of the agreement. The apartment operators had not reneged earlier, but in the last few minutes, word has been relayed to me from the real estate board that they have reneged. "When the voters of a city or town, or the corporate authorities thereof, have adopted a proposition for any public utility and either no general indebtedness has been authorized or the corporate authorities do not desire to incur a general indebtedness, and when the corporate authorities are authorized to exercise any of the powers conferred by this chapter without submitting the proposition to a vote, the corporate authorities may create a special fund for the sole purpose of defraying the cost of the public utility or addition, betterment, or extension thereto, into which special fund they may obligate and bind the city or town to set aside and pay a fixed proportion of the gross revenues of the utility, or any fixed amount out of and not exceeding a fixed proportion of such revenues, or a fixed amount without regard to any fixed proportion, and issue and sell bonds or warrants bearing interest not exceeding six percent per year, payable semiannually, executed in such manner and payable at such times and places as the corporate authorities shall determine, but the bonds or warrants and the interest thereon shall be payable only out of the special fund. Such bonds shall be negotiable instruments within the meaning of the negotiable instruments law, Title 62, notwithstanding same are made payable out of a particular fund contrary to the provisions of RCW 62.01.003.

[Rates shall be maintained adequate to service such bonds and to maintain the utility in sound financial condition.] The corporate authorities shall fix rates sufficient to produce revenues adequate to service such indebtedness, and with other moneys appropriated therefor to operate the system and to allow for capital improvements or reserves necessary to maintain the utility in a sound operating condition.

"The bonds or warrants and interest thereon issued against any such fund shall be a valid claim of the holder thereof only as against the special fund and its fixed proportion or amount of the revenue pledged thereto, and shall not constitute an indebtedness of the city or town within the meaning of constitutional provisions and limitations. Each bond or warrant shall state upon its face that it is payable from a special fund, naming it and the ordinances creating it. The bonds and warrants shall be sold in such manner as the corporate authorities shall deem for the best interest of the city or town, and they may provide in any contract for the construction and acquirement of the proposed improvement that payment therefor shall be made only in such bonds and warrants at par value thereof.

"When a special fund is created and any such obligation is issued against it, a fixed proportion, or a fixed amount out of and not exceeding such fixed proportion, or a fixed amount without regard to any fixed proportion, of revenue shall be set aside and paid into such fund as provided in the ordinance creating it, and in case the city or town fails to thus set aside and pay such fixed proportion or amount, the holder of any bond or warrant against the fund may bring action against the city or town and compel such setting aside and payment: Provided, That whenever the corporate authorities of any such city or town shall so provide by ordinance then all such bonds thereafter issued shall be on a parity, without regard to date of issuance or authorization and without preference or priority of right or lien with respect to participation of special funds in amounts from gross revenues for payment thereof.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. This act shall supersede the provisions of any charter of any city of the first class inconsistent herewith.

"The council of any city may pass such general ordinances as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this act.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

In line 5 of the title after "improvements" strike the period and insert "; and amending section 4, chapter 150, Laws of 1909, as last amended by section 1, chapter 231, Laws of 1953."

"Mr. Evans, in an area like Bremerton where the shipyard is the chief industry, or Seattle where Boeing would be the chief beneficiary, would the bus line be asking the small outlying properties to support it?"

Mr. Evans:

"The intent of the bill is that in case a local improvement district and assessment district is established, you have to show a benefit to the property which exceeds the assessment you are going to make against the property. The largest portion of the assessment would be against the business and commercial establishments; the smaller portion would necessarily be against the individual property owners."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Perry:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask a question of Mr. Evans."

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Evans?"

Mr. Evans:

"Yes."

Mr. Perry:

"Mr. Nicholson brought up an interesting point. If the Boeing properties they lease from the United States government were involved, what would be the tax situation?"

Mr. Evans:

"Well, this is set up exactly like any local improvement district and local assessment district. If the properties were exempt, for instance, under a local improvement paving district, they would necessarily have to be exempt under this. I believe this offers a method for the city to assess business property downtown, and the property owners to a certain extent who will be served by the transit system, in order to improve the transit system. You may have some exemptions which can't be helped."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Beierlein:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Mr. Evans a question."

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Evans?"

Mr. Evans:

"Yes."

Mr. Beierlein:

"Mr. Evans, before the assessment is made, is it necessary to get the consent of the property owners, as you do on an L.I.D.?"

Mr. Evans:

"All the provisions of other local improvement districts apply."

Resolution by Representatives King, Hawley, Mahaffey, Rickdall, Metcalf, Hood, Wang, Bernethy, Wedekind, Ritner, Taylor, Kink, and Bergh:

WHEREAS, The Governors of Washington, Oregon and Idaho, in recognition of the serious depletion of the fishery resources of the Pacific Northwest, met jointly in Boise, Idaho, on February 6, 1961, and agreed to take steps to remedy this situation and to urge Congress to enact legislation to safeguard the fish runs on the Salmon River in Idaho, the most valuable fish producing stream in the entire Columbia River system, which can be accomplished by preventing any further obstacles to Salmon River fish in their migration to and from the Pacific Ocean, similar to the objectives of Senate Bill No. 323 and House Bill No. 3589 of the 87th Congress;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the House of Representatives, That we urge the Congress of the United States to enact legislation creating a fish sanctuary of the Salmon River by prohibiting the construction of dams thereon and restricting the height of dams below its mouth on the Snake River to a height no greater than the highest of those dams presently constructed or authorized in that stretch of river, that is, a dam having no more than one hundred feet of hydraulic head;

Be It Further Resolved, That the Clerk of the House of Representatives immediately send copies of this Resolution to the Honorable John F. #### MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Smith, having voted on the prevailing side, moved that the House do now reconsider the vote by which the committee amendment to page 7, section 7, line 2, was not adopted.

The motion was carried.

RECONSIDERATION

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the adoption of the committee amendment to page 7, section 7, line 2.

Mr. Smith moved the adoption of the committee amendment to page 7, section 7, adding three new subsections following subsection (6).

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Evans:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Smith yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Smith?"

Mr. Smith:

"Yes."

Mr. Evans:

"Since we adopted the previous amendment exempting owners of housing comprising ten units or less, would this amendment prohibit a real estate broker with whom the listing was made from carrying out the wishes of the owner?"

Mr. Smith:

"No, he would be just the agent of the owner in that case."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Burtch:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Smith yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Smith?"

Mr. Smith:

"Yes."

Mr. Burtch:

"I am a little bit in the same quandary as Representative Evans. It seems to me those two sections are in conflict."

Mr. Smith:

"Perhaps I could yield to Mr. Gorton on this question."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Gorton.

Mr. Gorton:

"Mr. Speaker, I think this can be cleared up, and this is not speaking either for or against the amendment, but the answer to both Mr. Evans and Mr. Burtch is this: The total effect of these amendments is that a person who owns an apartment of less than ten units can discriminate under this act, but a real estate agent who takes as a listing an apartment with less than ten units cannot discriminate, even though the owner himself could. I think this should be clear to the people here."

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the adoption of the committee amendment to page 7, section 7, adding three new subsections after subsection (6).

The motion was carried, and the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Smith, the committee amendment to page 8 was adopted.

"Mr. Speaker, with the permission of the House, I would like to have Mr. Ackley's proposed amendment read for information, because it would affect the vote on this amendment."

The Speaker (Mr. Goldmark presiding):

"If there is no objection, the Clerk will read Mr. Ackley's amendment for information."

The Clerk read a proposed amendment by Mr. Ackley, as follows:

On page 2, section 1, line 2, after "work stoppage," and before "and is" insert "is not himself on strike"

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Evans:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Witherbee yield to a question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Goldmark presiding):

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Witherbee?"

Mr. Witherbee:

"Yes."

Mr. Evans:

"Can either you or Mr. Ackley give me a description of what constitutes a striker? In other words, if a small group goes out on strike and sets up a picket line and the other workmen refuse to cross the picket line, are they strikers under this act?"

Mr. Witherbee:

"Of course, under federal law you are not required to cross a picket line if you fear for life or limb. If people did not cross the picket line and stayed out, I assume there would be a chance they could draw unemployment compensation under this act?"

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Adams:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Mr. Witherbee why Mr. Ackley's amendment has any bearing on the one we are considering now."

The Speaker (Mr. Goldmark presiding):

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Witherbee?"

Mr. Witherbee:

"To answer Dr. Adams to the best of my ability, as I read this act, if a union voted legally to go out on strike, and after three or four weeks a man decided to leave the company and look for a new job, he would be ineligible for unemployment compensation if he did not find work. Mr. Ackley's amendment only pertains to a person not actively participating in the strike, and if a person is out of work on account of the strike, he should not be penalized nine weeks."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Gorton:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Mr. Ackley a question."

The Speaker (Mr. Goldmark presiding):

"Mr. Ackley, will you yield to a question?"

Mr. Ackley:

"Yes."

Mr. Gorton:

"Mr. Ackley, isn't the situation your amendment covers already the law under the first part of the section which we are not amending?"

Mr. Ackley:

"If I thought it were, I wouldn't have put in my amendment, but as I read this, it didn't seem to me that was the correct interpretation, because the new words at the bottom of page 1 say this section will not apply under certain conditions."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Smith and Adams speaking in favor of adoption of the committee amendment.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the adoption of the committee amendment.

The motion was carried, and the amendment was adopted.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

I intended to vote "yea" on Senate Bill No. 119 but accidentally pushed the button in the wrong direction.

ELMER C. HUNTLEY,
9th District.

The purpose of this bill is to help conserve the great sport fish, the steelhead. We fully agree with this purpose.

The means which this bill uses to effectuate this purpose, however, are dishonorable and in flat contravention of our ancient treaties with the Indians relative to their fishing rights.

We are not in agreement with this breach, both of faith and of contract, and therefore regrettably voted no on this bill.

41st District.
DONALD W. MOOS,

Mr. Marsh:

"Yes."

Mr. Uhlman:

"Mr. Marsh, beginning on line 15, it states that after the entry of judgment, if either party fails to fulfill the terms and conditions, the statute of limitations shall not apply. Could not the party making the motion to vacate the judgment cause the vacation by his own failure to fulfill one of the terms?"

Mr. Marsh:

"That is the thing I am concerned about. It isn't intended that way. This was the best we could do at this time and I think the bill should be passed to show we are not allowing the statute of limitations to be used to permit fraud."

Mr. Uhlman:

"One other question. As I read this, any judgment in the State of Washington could be vacated if either party failed to fulfill the terms. The person in the wrong could fulfill the terms with knowledge that later on he could move to vacate the judgment."

Mr. Marsh:

"There would be no way to set aside a judgment that was secured by fraud."

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Perry:

"I would like the Speaker to rule on the germaneness of that amendment."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"I am going to rule that this is up to the House to determine. It may be incompatible or inconsistent, but it appears, according to Reed's, that the House should decide questions of this nature; and not the presiding officer."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Brink:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Brink:

"Reed's Rule No. 147 states that when a motion to strike out is negatively decided, it is equivalent to adoption of the words in the paragraph by the assembly. I believe this is an attempt to make an insertion of the same material which Mr. Marsh tried to strike out."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Copeland:

"Mr. Speaker, I believe if you will look closely at the memorial, you will see that Mr. Marsh's amendment tried to strike only part of the paragraph, because the construction of the memorial is such that there are no periods between the clauses and it is one, total paragraph down to and including the last line on line 30. So I think this amendment is entirely valid."

With the consent of the House, Mr. Canfield withdrew his amendment to page 1, line 25.

Mr. Canfield moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, line 1, after "areas" strike the balance of lines 1 and 2, and insert "but which loss is more than compensated for by increased business and job opportunities in growing, new population centers, such as those represented by the sponsors of this memorial, and "

Those voting nay were: Representatives Ackley, Avey, Backstrom, Beck, Beierlein, Bernethy, Bigley, Bozarth, Brink, Brouillet, Burns, Burtch, Campbell, Cecil, Chatalas, Day, Edwards, England, Epton, Folsom, Garrett, Gleason, Hawley, Henry, Holmes, King, Kirk, Klein, Leibold, Litchman, May, McCormick, McFadden, Morphis, Newschwander, Nicholson, O'Connell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Perry, Poff, Ritner, Sawyer, Schaefer, Testu, Uhlman, Wedekind, Wintler, Witherbee, Mr. Speaker—50.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Braun, Conner, Farrington, Gallagher, Goldmark, Hurley, Mardesich, Meyers, Smith—9.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

On the motion to rerefer Senate Joint Memorial No. 21 to the Committee on Aviation and Transportation, I must have pushed the button the wrong way as I intended to vote "nay" and wish the Journal to so indicate.

ERIC O. ANDERSON,
21st District.

"That qualified electors residing within a joint school district shall vote on the office of school director of their district and on the office of county board of education of the county to which the district belongs, even though they reside outside that county.

"Whenever a joint school district lies partially within either a class AA or class A county and a county of lower class and the jurisdiction of the election rests with the clerk of such district, the elections, (whether general or special), shall be handled in the following manner:

"(1) There shall be at least one polling place in each county.

"(2) At least twenty days prior to the elections concerned, the county auditor at such class AA or class A county shall certify in writing to the clerk of the school district the number and location of the polling places established by him for such regular or special elections together with the number of ballots needed for such polling places. Upon receipt of such certification, the clerk of the school district shall furnish the required number of ballots no later than the fifth day prior to said elections.

"It is the intention of this section that the qualified electors of a joint school district shall vote for school directors of their district and members of the county board of education concerned with their school district and shall not be forced to go to different polling places on the same day when other elections are being held."

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. This act shall take effect on July 1, 1961."

On motion of Mr. Ackley, the following amendment to the amendment was adopted:

Amend the amendment by Representative Epton which begins on page 1, section 1, and on page 1, section 1, line 1 of subsection (7) of the mimeographed amendment, after "person who" and before "performs" insert "for compensation"

The Speaker (Mr. Eldridge presiding) stated the question before the House to be the adoption of Mrs. Epton's amendment as amended.

Debate ensued, Representatives Epton and Johnston speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment as amended.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mrs. Epton yield to a question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Eldridge presiding):

"Will you yield to a question, Mrs. Epton?"

Mrs. Epton:

"Yes."

Mr. Smith:

"How does this bill affect the television repairman who works at it part time? He has another job and works at it maybe two or three hours in the evening?"

Mrs. Epton:

"If he has a one-man shop and maintains it in his own home, he would qualify under this act as a technician, not as a service dealer."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Brink:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mrs. Epton yield to a question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Eldridge presiding):

"Will Mrs. Epton yield?"

Mrs. Epton:

"Yes."

Mr. Brink:

"In subsection (7) on page 1, I don't understand the wording 'anyone who operates a one-man shop in counties of the fifth class or lower.' Why is it worded in that fashion?"

Mrs. Epton:

"As I said, this is a compromise bill, which is an understatement. It seems that some of the smaller localities have no real problem. They do like they do in Montana, take the laws in their own hands. The man who services the television may be the town druggist or groceryman. This will take care of the small operator who has a little business and can't maintain a full-time operation. That is why it was put in."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Hawley:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mrs. Epton yield to a question, please?"

The Speaker (Mr. Eldridge presiding):

"Will Mrs. Epton yield to a question?"

Mrs. Epton:

"Yes."

Mr. Hawley:

"Is it possible that the city of Seattle or King county could have a licensing bill and control this problem?"

Mrs. Epton:

"They could, yes, but the problem is that the major part of the population is no longer confined within city limits. Licensing under city ordinance just doesn't solve the problem in the suburban areas."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Canfield:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mrs. Epton yield to a question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Eldridge presiding):

"Will Mrs. Epton yield to a question?"

Mrs. Epton:

"Yes."

Mr. Canfield:

"This bill came up in the past session, did it not?"

Mrs. Epton:

"Mr. Canfield, I think it is fair to say that bill wasn't even similar to the bill now before you."

Mr. Canfield:

"My question proceeds a little further. I think there was an amendment put on then restricting this to metropolitan areas. In our area of Yakima county, there seems to be no necessity for such a measure and I have heard from nobody in our area who favors this legislation. I would like to have your comment on that. Is this a problem in Spokane county or King county, or is it a state problem?"

Mrs. Epton:

"I think, in general, it is a state problem. As I said, the small areas deal with fraud slightly differently, and it is the large metropolitan areas who are most in need of this type of legislation."

Mr. Canfield:

"One more question. Would you be able, generally, to restrict this to areas that need this type of legislation?"

Mrs. Epton:

"I don't think there is anything more restrictive that could be put into it. I feel we can't limit it very much more or it won't be effective at all, Mr. Canfield."

Debate ensued, Representatives Adams, Shropshire, Morrissey, and Klein speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment as amended.

On motion of Mr. Brink, the following amendment to the amendment was adopted:

Amend the amendment by Representative Epton which begins on page 1, section 1, and on page 1, section 1, beginning on line 3 of subsection (7) of the mimeographed amendment, after "service shop" strike "in counties of the fifth class or lower"

The Speaker (Mr. Eldridge presiding) stated the question before the House to be the adoption of Mrs. Epton's amendment as amended.

The motion was carried, and the amendment as amended was adopted.

On motion of Mrs. Epton, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

In line 1 of the title, after the word "service" strike "and the licensing, regulation and supervision thereof" and in line 3 of the title, after "penalties" and before the period insert "and an effective date"

Substitute House Bill No. 139 was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules and Order for third reading.

SPEAKER'S PRIVILEGE

The Speaker (Mr. Eldridge presiding) observed in the south gallery sixty members of the 37th District Democratic Club and their president, Mrs. Marjorie King, and asked them to stand and be recognized.

House Bill No. 592, by Representative Wedekind:

On motion of Mr. Evans, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, section 1, beginning on line 23, after "That the authority may" strike the remainder of the section and insert "[accept and continue leases and contracts for a period of ten years without advertisement or bid, if such leases or contracts were in effect or entered into at the time of the purchase of the Puget Sound ferry system, and any leases or contracts so made are hereby validated.] extend for successive five year periods without advertisement or bid the lease of any tenant under lease at the time of the purchase of the Puget Sound ferry system for the space presently occupied, or other space: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the authority may grant or extend leases or contracts for a period not to exceed twenty years, but only after public advertisement for bids as may be prescribed by the authority, where such grants or extensions are made in connection with the construction of an improved terminal facility or the acquisition of property for the Puget Sound ferry system, whether by purchase or lease or otherwise."

The Speaker:

Mr. Andersen:

"The amendment is in the first line of the bill. If any person makes an arrest on a felony charge, whether with a warrant or without a warrant, then all of the provisions of the act would apply."

"What do you do when a person has a few Stingers and is picked up and they don't book him, just hang on to him?"

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Nicholson:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Bergh yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Bergh?"

Mr. Bergh:

"Yes."

Mr. Nicholson:

"There are two different matters involved here, the merits of the bill and the question of appropriation. Now, if there is to be a line item appropriation, no matter how small, the Appropriations subcommittee should have an opportunity to take a look at it. I would like to have that point cleared up."

Mr. Bergh:

"I believe I can speak for the ten sponsors of this bill, myself included. We have amendments before this House to strike all appropriations on House Bill No. 591. Debate ensued, Representative Bergh speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Goldmark speaking against its adoption.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. Poff:

"Mr. Speaker, point of information. Isn't it true that the Senate must confirm appointments by the Governor to any board or commission?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Mr. Goldmark, we have a problem here. Your amendment would strike some of the terminology included in the amendment that was just adopted. Reed's Rule 209 states in part: 'If, for example, words are inserted by amendment, they can not be afterward stricken out, because being put in implies of itself that the assembly does not want them stricken out.' It appears that if your amendment is to be in order, the House will have to reconsider the prior amendment by Mr. Bergh which has been adopted."

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Goldmark moved that the House do now reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Mr. Bergh to page 1, section 2, had been adopted.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

I voted against House Bill No. 591 because I felt that the unlimited powers allowed in section 4, subsection (6) could be subject to abuse and that the council might develop into another Canwell committee.

NORMAN B. ACKLEY,
31st District.

This bill puts the official stamp of the state of Washington on a council that is not controlled by the legislature by appropriation funds or specific grant of authority. The powers granted are too vague, and I further question the constitutionality of the act, particularly in view of Amendment 11 to the Washington State Constitution requiring money under management of the state to be appropriated by law. I had offered an amendment which would have cured this latter objection, but the House refused it. I further feel that although the approach is positive rather than negative, which is to be commended, that it will still be within the judgment of the council members. The success or failure of the vaguely stated objects depends entirely upon the membership of the council—their judgment, motives, ability, and, I am afraid, their ability to resist the demands of the contributors to the council who are the sole financial supporters. Finally, I do not see the need for such an act. I have not seen and am not aware of any lack of appreciation of our fundamental rights or responsibilities, unless it be an inability of many to fully recognize individual rights or rights of minority groups. This all, however, can be accomplished without setting up an official state agency to draft literature or prescribe an educational format. The bill and its amendments were hastily considered, and the House, I feel, acted without its usual deliberative wisdom.

DANIEL BRINK,
35th District.

My negative vote on House Bill No. 591 was premised solely on my belief that the government should not be allowed to exert its all-pervading influence in this important endeavor. If we lived in a society sufficiently enlightened in the traditions of democracy and the great heritage of this nation and state, the call for government action in this field would not be heard. The great weakness in our present day political thinking appears to be the constant resort to government for the solution of all "ills." This measure, I fear, arises out of the same weakness its proponents, in their most dedicated fashion, seek to cure.

PAT COMFORT,
26th District.

The purpose behind this bill is excellent, to promote democracy. To turn the matter over, however, to a group of citizens without control over their appropriations and without control over their activities is a mistake. Thought control is an interference with the rights of free speech. To allow an agency of the government to "control our thoughts" might, upon later reflection, turn out to be a very bad piece of legislation.

MARK LITCHMAN, JR.,
45th District.

I do not feel that this is a proper way to develop and promote our type of government.

ROBERT M. SCHAEFER,
49th District.

The Speaker called upon Mr. Mardesich to preside.

RESOLUTIONS

Resolution by Mr. Chatalas:

WHEREAS, Citizens of the Seattle area and King County as well as throughout the entire state were saddened yesterday upon receipt of news of the death of retired Superior Court Judge, Hugh C. Todd; and

WHEREAS, Judge Todd rendered meritorious service in the halls of this Chamber representing the splendid people from Whitman County during the 1909 and 1911 sessions of the Legislature, being everlastingly remembered as the "Boy Orator of the Palouse"; and

WHEREAS, Judge Todd was one of those few outstanding legal minds in this state being admitted to the practice of law without benefit of a formal law school degree; and

WHEREAS, Judge Todd, after admission to the bar, moved his residence to Seattle and became not only prominent in his professional field, but a colorful and beloved personality, akin to the young, energetic, invigorating city that is Seattle; and

WHEREAS, Judge Todd who received his judgeship by appointment of Governor Clarence Martin in the early thirties, was the embodiment of goodness and justice in a Superior Court judge, serving ably and with quiet distinction; and

WHEREAS, Judge Todd gave freely of himself to the civil and cultural improvements of any community in which he found himself a part;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That this House of Representatives express its sincerest sympathy to members of the family of Judge Hugh C. Todd and set forth in this resolution its great admiration of, and its deepest appreciation for, the many fine things Judge Todd did for his fellow men, whether here in this House Chamber, in the courts of this state, or in his daily gratuitous services for those around him, be they stranger or friend.

On motion of Mr. Chatalas, the resolution was adopted.

Resolution by Representatives King, Campbell, and Gorton:

WHEREAS, The present laws and procedures for the settlement of claims against the State of Washington are in need of improvement and simplification;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the House of Representatives, That the Legislative Budget Committee make studies relating to the present laws and procedures for the settlement of claims against the State of Washington and provide the next regularly convening legislature with recommendations for improving and simplifying the procedures for the payment of claims and the appropriations necessary to cover the cost of each general classification of claim.

On motion of Mr. King, the resolution was adopted.

Resolution by Representatives Uhlman, Burns, Backstrom, and England:

WHEREAS, There are multitudinous special interests and groups represented by a host of paid lobbyists; and

WHEREAS, Each of these special-interest groups represented by their lobbyists are interested solely in furthering the cause of their own interests and care nothing for the public welfare when it conflicts with their own interests; and

WHEREAS, There is evidenced a dire need for someone to represent the many and divergent interests of the little people and consumers of the State of Washington;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the Legislative Council be instructed and directed to investigate the feasibility and possibility of establishing a five-man commission to be known as the "public lobbyist" to secure for the public of the State of Washington whatever is fair.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., March 2, 1961.

MR. SPEAKER:

The Senate insists on its position regarding its amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 31 and asks the House to concur, and said bill together with the Senate amendments thereto are herewith transmitted.

WARD BOWDEN, Secretary.

Mr. Day moved that the House recede from its position and that the House do concur in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 31.

MOTION

Mr. Adams moved that further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 31 be deferred until Sunday, March 5.

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Representative Adams, it appears that if you wish to argue against Mr. Day's motion to recede you have that privilege, but at the present time we must first dispose of the motion by Mr. Day."

With the consent of the House, Mr. Adams withdrew his motion.

Debate ensued, Representative Day arguing in favor of the motion to recede, and Representative Adams arguing against the motion.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Evans:

"Mr. Speaker, point of inquiry."

The Speaker:

"State your point of inquiry."

Mr. Evans:

"Mr. Speaker, if this motion was voted down, would a motion to insist on our position and call for a conference be in order?"

The Speaker:

"If this motion is voted down, it appears our next motion would be to adhere."

Mr. Evans:

"Reed's Rule 252 states that if the originating house desires to continue its rejection of an amendment, it may make a motion to insist and ask for a conference."

The Speaker:

"The reason I stated our motion would be to adhere is that the Senate has insisted. It doesn't make a great deal of difference whether you insist or adhere. The other house could grant a conference, or we could ask for a conference."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Adams:

"Would it be in order to make a motion now that we ask for a conference?"

The Speaker:

"You first would have to determine the disposition of the motion to recede. If that motion is lost, you can then either insist or adhere and ask for a conference."

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the motion that the House recede from its position and concur in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 31.

Debate ensued, Representatives Perry and Clark speaking in favor of the motion, and Representatives Gorton and Andersen (James A.), speaking against the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Evans:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order, Mr. Evans."

Mr. Evans:

"In looking through the bills now before the House, I think this amendment of the Senate basically attaches House Bill No. 393 which is now before us onto Substitute House Bill No. 31. I think in that respect it is out of order."

The Speaker:

"I have previously ruled on the germaneness of the amendment. The Senate has insisted on its position. It is now up to the House to determine its position."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Ahlquist, McFadden, Lybecker, and Eldridge speaking against the motion, and Representatives Witherbee and Klein speaking in favor of the motion.

Mr. Litchman demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the motion that the House recede from its position and concur in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 31, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays 54; absent or not voting, 1.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ackley, Anderson (Eric O.), Avey, Beierlein, Bergh, Bernethy, Bigley, Brink, Brouillet, Burtch, Campbell, Chatalas, Clark, Conner, Day, Edwards, England, Gallagher, Garrett, Henry, Holmes, Hurley, King, Kink, Klein, Litchman, Mardesich, Marsh, McCormick, McElroy, Meyers, O'Connell, O'Donnell, Perry, Poff, Ritner, Sawyer, Schaefer, Smith, Taylor, Testu, Uhlman, Wedekind, Witherbee—44.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Backstrom, Beck, Bozarth, Braun, Canfield, Cecil, Comfort, Copeland, DeJarnatt, Eldridge, Epton, Evans, Farrington, Flanagan, Folsom, Gleason, Goldmark, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Harris, Hawley, Hood, Huntley, Johnston, Jueling, Kirk, Leibold, Leland, Lewis, Lybecker, Mahaffey, May, McDougall, McFadden, Metcalf, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Newschwander, Nicholson, Olsen, Pence, Pritchard, Rickdall, Shropshire, Siler, Swayze, Wang, Williams, Wintler, Mr. Speaker—54.

RESOLUTIONS

Resolution by Representatives Testu, Mahaffey, Schaefer, Klein, Brink, Goldmark, Litchman, Uhlman, DeJarnatt, Nicholson, Campbell, England, Brouillet, and Smith:

WHEREAS, The experience of many able and learned men in the field of criminology and penology has resulted in their conviction that capital punishment should be abolished, not merely because it seems to them well-nigh as evil as the crimes it punishes, but for the practical reason that its value as a deterrent to murder and other so-called capital crimes has not been demonstrated; and

WHEREAS, People of equal intelligence appear to hold diametrically opposite views on the subject of the death penalty, this being a subject not only of statewide concern, but of national concern, having international implications as has been demonstrated in such cases within the past year; and

WHEREAS, Thousands of citizens of this state believe the time has come for a broad and comprehensive study on the subject of capital punishment, having in hand before the making of substantive changes in legislation the broadest possible knowledge of conclusions of experts in the fields of penology and criminology as well as views of leaders of other categories of our society;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the House of Representatives that the legislative council carry out a thorough and comprehensive study on the problem of capital punishment as outlined in this resolution; and

Be It Further Resolved, That the legislative council report its findings and submit such corrective legislation as deemed necessary to the next regularly convening legislature, but not later than the third Monday in January, 1963; and

Be It Further Resolved, That the clerk of the House of Representatives transmit a copy of this resolution to the legislative council.

On motion of Mrs. Testu, the resolution was adopted.

Resolution by Representatives Cecil, Schaefer, Wintler, DeJarnatt, Lybecker, Leibold, Henry, Copeland, Marsh, Ahlquist, Klein, King, and Bernethy:

WHEREAS, Senate Joint Resolution No. 40 of the Senate of the United States sponsored by Senators Magnuson; Case of South Dakota; Church, Dworshak, Hruska, Jackson, Long of Missouri; Mansfield, Metcalf, Morse, Mundt, Neuberger and Symington is now being considered by the United States Senate Committee on Public Works; and

WHEREAS, Senate Joint Resolution No. 40 would develop a plan for a system of highways to be known as the Lewis and Clark National Tourway which shall extend from St. Louis, Missouri, along the general route of the Lewis and Clark Expedition; and

WHEREAS, The proposed Lewis and Clark National Tourway would pass through the State of Washington entering at Clarkston and thence to the Tri-City area, and along the north bank of the Columbia River to the Pacific Ocean; and

WHEREAS, This Tourway would contribute to the recreational and historical resources of the State of Washington and to the potential development of such resources for use in esthetic and cultural enjoyment, and historical interpretation for the benefit of the touring public of all of the United States;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the House of Representatives of the State of Washington commend Senators Magnuson and Jackson and the other Senators for their sponsorship of Senate Joint Resolution No. 40, and petition the Congress and the President of the United States to speedily enact Senate Joint Resolution No. 40 into law; and

Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted to the President of the United States, the President of the Senate of the United States, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, to each member of the Congress of the United States from the State of Washington, and to the secretaries of State of the States of Missouri, Iowa, Nebraska, South Dakota, North Dakota, Montana, Idaho and Oregon.

On motion of Mr. Cecil, the resolution was adopted.

SPEAKER'S PRIVILEGE

The Speaker:

"At this time, the Speaker would like to appoint Mr. Smith and Mr. Day as a special committee to escort a very distinguished visitor to a place on the rostrum beside the Speaker, the Honorable Warren G. Magnuson."

(Applause.)

The special committee conducted Senator Magnuson to the rostrum. (Applause.)

The Speaker:

"It is my great honor and privilege to present to you a former member of the House of Representatives from the 37th District, United States Senator Warren Magnuson."

Senator Magnuson:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker and members of the House. Ladies and gentlemen, I want to say at the outset that I deeply appreciate the invitation to come here this morning. It is good to come back from whence I came. I sat down there in Sam Smith's seat some twenty-seven years ago.

"I suspect from just the few minutes that I have been here this morning that the problems of the members of the House haven't changed a great deal; and, in fact, they seem to be even more complex than what we had in that hectic session of 1933.

"I just came from Washington yesterday and of course I bring greetings to you from my distinguished colleague, Senator Jackson, but more in particular to this body a warm 'hello' from your former member, Julia Butler Hansen. She is doing fine. She is busy. She enjoys her work. I am sure she misses you all here, because she has told me so, but I am glad to have her back in Washington, because approximately twenty years of legislative experience in this body stands her in great stead, enabling her to become a really sound legislator for her district in this state.

"I am not here today to give any advice to legislators. You get enough of that as it is, and I think for the last fifty-four days you have been getting plenty of it. I suppose it is the kind of advice that you take that counts in the longrun. I have been a legislator for practically all of my political life, and I am always reminded of a prayer which I think stands legislators in good stead. 'Oh God, let me change what I think can be changed and let me let go what I think cannot be changed, but above all, give me the wit and wisdom to discern between the two.' I have always thought that was a good prayer for any legislator.

"We in Washington have had a busy beginning of the session, as you probably have read in the press or heard over the air. Things are moving swiftly, but the interdependence of what state legislatures, now in session in most all parts of the country, are doing to what is done in Washington is still just as great as ever. You are part of a chain of events in a democracy that affects, of course, not only our country, but the whole world. I think that is true this time more than ever. What you do here has a chain reaction that affects not only what Congress does, but probably the hopes of free men, millions of them everywhere. Legislatures are the showcases of democracy, as we succeed or fail, we succeed or fail in the greatest objective, the greatest human enterprise of all time, and should any of us not do the very best kind of job in a troubled world today, I am sure that the dignity, freedom, and the moral fiber of men everywhere will be affected.

"I would think that now, more than ever, a great deal of objectivity would be called for, that probably we would have to rise more than ever above any personal prejudice. We will probably have to decide—I know I have learned this after many years—not only to respect the opinion of the members of our own party, but to respect also the opinion of the members of the opposition party, both Republicans and Democrats, because the great two-party system of our country has been our political lifeblood. I learned that a long time ago. I think more than ever that is called for today. More than ever we have to look at pieces of legislation and ask ourselves not, 'Is this good only for me?'; not, 'Is this only good for a certain group?'; not, 'Is this only good for the political party?'; but, 'Is this good for the whole state of Washington?'; 'Is this good for the United States?'; 'Is this good for the great work in which we are now engaged to make democracy work all over the world?'

"What we do in congress in the next few weeks will affect a great deal what you need to do here, or what you need not do in three broad fields that cause a great deal of your problem—the field of education, the field of public highways, and the field of social legislation—which are interdependent between the states and the federal government. I can only report to you that I am sure that this session of the Congress will pass a federal aid to education bill much along the lines you have been reading about. That, in turn, will affect your deliberations on your education problem in the state of Washington. The highway program will be beefed up, particularly the interstate program. I hope to pass Senate Resolution No. 40 which was just read here, but that is a designation of highways. In these three fields, as well as many other fields—the field of housing, the field of fisheries, and others—you are going to see a great deal of action in the Congress of the United States this session. In the fields of public works, natural resources, reclamation, irrigation, and other such things that mean so much to the western United States, the Pacific Northwest, and this state, I can assure you that, with the help of this state legislature and the people of the state, we are going to make progress and preserve some of our priceless resources for future generations.

"I know how hard legislators work. I know what devotion they put into their work. I know that you have many, many things that you must do, and that you devote a great deal of time, much more time than people think you do, to these problems. I know, too, that you have to specialize sometimes in a particular field of endeavor, and I suppose we all must learn to respect the opinion of others in that regard. Surely none of us can know about all the things I see on your desks here today. So we take the advice of one another. But we have a great objective, all of us in legislative bodies. We are on trial. I have often thought because we have political controversies, that need not turn into a political vendetta. That is why objectivity is one of the keynotes, I think, in legislative processes.

"I say, I know how hard you work. I am always a great reformer of legislative bodies. I always think I know how to change them. I don't think you give yourselves enough help. I think you ought to have an assistant that works most of the time, because your job won't be through here when you adjourn sine die. Maybe it used to be, but it isn't in this day any more. I don't know that you should not consider sometimes, when we have these terrific fiscal problems in both the federal government and the states, particularly the state of Washington, that probably you might, as all other parliamentary bodies do in the world except us in the United States, divide yourselves into a legislative session first in which you pass the bills, and then come back, when you know what the obligations are, and look at the fiscal responsibility involved. I think maybe the right hand might know what the left hand is doing, so that you could do a much more effective job.

"It is good to be home again. I never cease to get a thrill when I come into this building. I know how much work you have in front of you. I wish you well. I want to assure you of the cooperation of the Congress of the United States in our common problem. Thank you so much."

(Applause.)

The Speaker:

"Senator Magnuson, in behalf of the House of Representatives, I want to express to you our appreciation for your very fine remarks. You have certainly touched upon the core, not only of our problems, but of the problems of many legislatures. Certainly, yours are comments from a man well experienced in legislative matters. Thank you very much."

The special committee escorted Senator Magnuson from the rostrum.

RESOLUTION

Resolution by Mr. Nicholson:

WHEREAS, United States Senator Warren G. Magnuson is today our honored and invited guest in the House of Representatives, and

WHEREAS, Senator Magnuson has given many years of diligent and devoted service to the people of the State of Washington, and

WHEREAS, Senator Magnuson has always been most helpful to the legislature in meeting the leading problems of the day by a concerted cooperation to whatever extent possible between the state legislature and the national congress,

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That we, the members of the House of Representatives here assembled, do thank Senator Magnuson for his unselfish efforts and wish him many more years of service to the state and nation.

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Johnston.

Mr. Johnston:

"Yes, as I read it. The department of labor and industries has a small portion dealing with extrahazardous employment, and the other half of the bill is left under the board of discrimination. All that part dealing with the question of age being unfair practice is left to the discrimination board."

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

My vote against House Bill No. 22 was a protest against the increased powers it grants to the discrimination board. I believe, in the best interest of the citizens of the state and the peace and harmony with which we should all live together, the elected representatives of the people should prevent the expansion of the authority of this governmental agency.

Many of us come down here and toil away at passing legislation, and I think we have an interest in the management of the government and the laws of the state. "Essentially, I think that is true."

"Mr. Andersen, don't you think the seven members of the salary advisory commission could adequately and properly consider the salary of the state printer?"

Mr. Andersen:

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Eldridge:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Copeland yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Copeland?"

Mr. Copeland:

"Yes, I will."

Mr. Eldridge:

"Mr. Copeland, in our area the farmers who grow peas and strawberries have formed a voluntary organization for the purpose of negotiating with the packers. If this can be done in one commodity crop, couldn't it be done in another without legislation?"

Mr. Copeland:

"Yes, it could be done under certain conditions. Let me say this: The reason your area has gone into a voluntary organization is that the situation became so aggravated the growers took it upon themselves to form such an organization. The machinery contained in Substitute House Bill No. 490 does not go beyond the bounds of voluntary organization. It only provides that other commodity groups can so constitute themselves in a similar fashion. I congratulate your people for taking this step on a voluntary basis."

Further debate ensued, Representative Pritchard speaking against passage of the bill, and Representative Campbell speaking for its passage.

Mr. Schaefer demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

"Yes, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Canfield:

"The port district would have the power to establish a processing plant. Ordinarily, the port districts lease them out to private industry. In the main, they are concerned with the fishing industry where they have processing or freezing plants. I don't know of any that actually operate their own plants. They would have the power to do so or to lease them out, either way."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Comfort:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Ackley submit to a further question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Mardesich presiding):

"Will Mr. Ackley yield?"

Mr. Comfort:

"Mr. Ackley, under this bill would a port district have the power to condemn a privately operated facility for freezing or processing goods or perishable commodities and then sell it to a new operator?"

Mr. Ackley:

"I don't believe that it would. It may be that under this technical language that is a possibility. I know that there is a Senate amendment that specifically prohibits the acquisition of the belt line railway operation. I know that the port districts are not interested in taking over private facilities, but just in expanding their own port facilities as needed by the people who use the port facilities."

THIRD READING OF BILLS

The House resumed consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 212 on third reading.

On motion of Mr. Litchman, the absent members were excused and the House proceeded with business under the call of the House.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be Engrossed Senate Bill No. 212 on final passage.

Mr. Litchman demanded the previous question, and the demand was not sustained.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Lewis yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Lewis?"

Mr. Lewis:

"Yes, I will."

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Lewis, when is the state planning to buy the property needed for expansion?"

Mr. Lewis:

"Well, I indicated that this was a fifty-year plan. However, I hope I didn't lead you astray, Mr. Smith. We are intending to buy this property as it becomes available. Many people have indicated they would like to sell. We plan to buy this property as the money becomes available and the people desire to sell. We don't intend to start condemning but, rather, to obtain the property in an orderly manner as soon as possible."

Further debate ensued, Representatives Hurley and Pritchard speaking against passage of the bill, and Representative Wintler speaking for its passage.

Mr. Schaefer demanded the previous question, and the demand was not sustained.

Further debate ensued, Representative Lewis speaking in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Litchman:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Litchman:

"I call attention to Rule 35 which pertains not only to the three-minute limitation of debate but also to members speaking twice beyond the fiftieth day. I have no objection to Mr. Lewis speaking twice or over three minutes, but we have many bills on the calendar and other members would like to have their particular bills considered. If someone wishes to make a motion to allow him to speak twice, perhaps it will be decided in his favor."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Your point is well taken. Rule 35 states that no member shall speak more than once on the same question without the consent of the House."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Harris:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Lewis yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Lewis, will you yield to a question?"

Mr. Lewis:

"Yes."

Mr. Harris:

"Mr. Lewis, is it your opinion that this expansion of the campus is necessary?"

Mr. Lewis:

"I think this will answer the questions posed by Mr. Pritchard and Mrs. Hurley. I would like to suggest that possibly Mr. Pritchard has run into this problem in his own home, as I have. I have been married to a lovely, young lady and we have been blessed with children, and lo and behold, despite the fact we don't want to move, we are going to have to. We have to expand. This is the problem we are faced with at home, and I would like to suggest this is the problem here. Neither the health nor fisheries departments have moved down here to the state buildings. We need space for them. We need space for the 60,000 square feet that is being rented at the present time here in Olympia. We also have 50,000 to 60,000 square feet being utilized in Seattle, and under the law these offices must come down here. Space is necessary. I urge that you vote to support this bill."

Prohibiting professional strikebreaking.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., March 3, 1961.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, a majority of your Committee on Labor, to whom was referred Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 247, prohibiting professional strikebreaking, have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass with the following amendment:

In section 2, line 17 of the engrossed bill, being section 2, line 15 of the printed bill, after "of a" and before "misdemeanor" insert "gross" which was stricken by the Senate amendment by Senator Freise

AVERY GARRETT, Chairman,
WILLIAM J. S. MAY, Vice Chairman.

We concur in this report: Daniel Brink, Sid Flanagan, Slade Gorton, Helmut L. Jueling, Drennan "Mac" McElroy, Donald W. Moos, Ann T. O'Donnell, Samuel J. Smith, Walter B. Williams, C. G. Witherbee.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Comfort:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Garrett yield to a question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Mardesich presiding):

"Will Mr. Garrett yield to a question?"

Mr. Garrett:

"I yield."

Mr. Comfort:

"I notice in the Senate amendment to this bill a reference to it being a misdemeanor to bring in outside labor for employment in a business owned by a person, firm, or corporation involved in a labor strike or lockout. Do you believe this would somehow involve an individual who owns a business that is struck and who has an interest in some other business? Would this keep him from bringing in outside help to the other business? Was this the intent of the bill?"

Mr. Garrett:

"There was no intent in that direction. The intent here is to cover the labor contractor or somebody in that particular business of contracting for and importing people for pickets and strikebreakers. That is the individual we are after."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Evans:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Garrett yield to a question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Mardesich presiding):

"Will Mr. Garrett yield to a question?"

Mr. Garrett:

"Yes."

Mr. Evans:

"It is my understanding that if a business is being struck, the owner or proprietor still can hire from wherever he wants to in order to fill his work force, but it will be unlawful for someone else to hire people for him? Is that correct?"

Mr. Garrett:

"That is my understanding."

Mr. Evans:

"One other question. How about an owner of a company who went to a regularly set up employment agency and they happened to have somebody available from another state? Would this apply?"

Mr. Garrett:

"No. The act doesn't apply to the Washington employment office and I don't believe it would apply to any legitimate employment office, Mr. Evans."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Hood:

"Will Mr. Garrett yield to another question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Mardesich presiding):

"Will Mr. Garrett yield to a question?"

Mr. Garrett:

"Yes."

Mr. Hood:

"Will this apply to farmers?"

Mr. Garrett:

"I don't believe it does, Mr. Hood. There is a difference of opinion here. Mr. Marsh has pointed out the bill refers to an industry and, although you would have to get a lawyer to make an interpretation of this, I don't believe a farm operation is considered an industry."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Canfield:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Garrett yield to a question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Mardesich presiding):

"Will Mr. Garrett yield to a question?"

Mr. Garrett:

"Yes."

Mr. Canfield:

"Supposing a certain ranch happened to be struck and supposing another rancher offered to help, in an emergency, to harvest his crop. Would he be in violation of this act?"

Mr. Garrett:

"No, I would say not. This only applies to out-of-state help."

Mr. Evans:

"I don't think they would have to come over. I sent several bills down to be drafted by the statute law committee, and on the first day of the session I was able to pick them up and drop them in the hopper. The Speaker (Mr. Goldmark presiding) recognized Mr. Braun.

Mr. Braun:

"Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, the Golden Delicious apples being placed on your desks this afternoon for your eating pleasure are presented by the apple industry of the state in appreciation for all the good legislation you have passed with regards to agriculture."

The resolution was read the second time in full.

Mr. Morrissey moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, beginning on line 24, after "state]" strike all of the matter down to and including "of the election" on page 2, line 1, and insert "throughout the state during the four weeks next preceding the election in such manner and by such means as the legislature shall deem appropriate to give the people ample notice thereof"

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Speaker, would Representative Holmes yield to a question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Goldmark presiding):

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Holmes?"

Mr. Holmes:

"Reluctantly."

Mr. Ackley:

"Mr. Holmes, as I read the resolution, it says that they have to publish this at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state. I don't know how many official legal newspapers there are in King county alone. I am wondering how many newspapers this will have to be published in, and what the increased cost will be, and what the reason for this is."

Mr. Holmes:

"Representative Ackley, the point is that at the present time I believe we have published over a thousand newspapers in the state. The reason for the bill we passed this morning and this particular resolution is to reduce the cost. What we did was define what a legal newspaper is in order to reduce the number of publications necessary and to save the state money."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Comfort:

"Mr. Speaker, would Representative Morrissey submit to a question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Goldmark presiding):

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Morrissey?"

Mr. Morrissey:

"Yes."

Mr. Comfort:

"In light of the matter raised by Mr. Ackley, with which I fully concur, is it your opinion this difficulty will be solved by your amendment?"

Mr. Morrissey:

"I think that is the overall purpose of the amendment. It will be up to the legislature to decide which media shall be used and how much money will be spent."

The Speaker (Mr. Goldmark presiding) stated the question before the House to be the adoption of the amendment by Mr. Morrissey.

The motion was carried, and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Brink, the rules were suspended, Senate Joint Resolution No. 25 as amended by the House, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Senate Joint Resolution No. 25 as amended by the House, and the resolution passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 82; nays, 3; absent or not voting, 14.

Mrs. Swayze:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Ackley yield to a question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Goldmark presiding):

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Ackley?"

Mr. Ackley:

"Yes."

Mrs. Swayze:

"I understood you to say this already was required in class AA, or class A, or first class counties. If this is true, why is it new material and underlined?"

Mr. Ackley:

"The bill is designed to make it discretionary with the smaller counties to establish county purchasing departments, and down in the first proviso, it restates the language of the present law to make it mandatory for class AA, class A, and first class counties. Apparently the bill drafters found it easier to write the bill in this way."

WHEREAS, Our present program of federal allotments to federally impacted school districts has proven to be sound in theory; and

WHEREAS, These payments are "lieu of taxes" arising from federal activities; and

WHEREAS, In actual practice it has been a reasonable solution to the impact of federal activity upon local school districts; and

WHEREAS, The proposal for a fifty percent cut without an immediate and corresponding cut in the federal tax take would mean an immediate financial loss of damaging proportions to the school districts involved;

Now, Therefore, The House of Representatives of the Thirty-seventh Legislature of the State of Washington urges the President of the United States to reconsider his position and fully support the present program for allocations to federally impacted areas.

On motion of Mr. Metcalf, the resolution was adopted.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Eldridge:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Williams yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Williams?"

Mr. Williams:

"Yes."

Mr. Eldridge:

"Mr. Williams, how many dairy farmers do you have in your legislative district?"

Mr. Williams:

"I have about 60,000 consumers in my district."

Mr. Schaefer demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The motion was lost, and the amendment was not adopted.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 336 was passed to Committee on Rules and Order for third reading.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 340, by Senators Rasmussen and Morgan:

Regulating animal slaughter.

The bill was read the second time by sections and passed to Committee on Rules and Order for third reading.

Senate Bill No. 371, by Senators Thompson and Riley:

Authorizing special license plates for use of consul or other representative of foreign governments.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Mr. Litchman, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 371 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 371, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 77; nays, 12; absent or not voting, 10.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ackley, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Avey, Backstrom, Beck, Beierlein, Bergh, Bernethy, Bigley, Bozarth, Braun, Brink, Brouillet, Burns, Burtch, Canfield, Cecil, Chatalas, Clark, Conner, Copeland, Day, DeJarnatt, Edwards, Eldridge, Epton, Folsom, Gallagher, Garrett, Gleason, Goldmark, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Harris, Hawley, Henry, Holmes, Hood, Johnston, King, Kink, Kirk, Klein, Leibold, Leland, Litchman, Lybecker, Mahaffey, Mardesich, Marsh, May, McCormick, McDougall, McElroy, McFadden, Meyers, Morphis, Morrissey, Nicholson, O'Connell, O'Donnell, Olsen, Pence, Poff, Pritchard, Ritner, Sawyer, Schaefer, Siler, Testu, Uhlman, Wang, Wedekind, Wintler, Mr. Speaker—77.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Adams, Evans, Flanagan, Huntley, Hurley, Jueling, Lewis, Metcalf, Newschwander, Perry, Swayze, Williams—12.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Campbell, Comfort, England, Farrington, Moos, Rickdall, Shropshire, Smith, Taylor, Witherbee—10.

Senate Bill No. 371, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Senate Bill No. 382, by Senators Herrmann, Connor, DeGarmo, and Thompson: Relating to state liquor control board.

MOTION

Mr. Litchman moved that the reading clerk read the last line only of Senate Bill No. 382.

The motion was put, and on a rising vote the vote was 44 yeas and 43 nays.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Evans:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Evans:

"I believe the motion by Mr. Litchman requires a suspension of rules. I refer you to Rule 77."

Mr. Litchman demanded a call of the House, and the demand was sustained.

CALL OF THE HOUSE

The Sergeant at Arms was instructed to lock the doors.

The Clerk called the roll, and all members were present except Representatives Farrington, Goldmark, and Klein.

Mr. Copeland moved that the absent members be excused and the House proceed with business under the call of the House.

The motion was carried on a rising vote.

Mr. Goldmark and Mr. Klein appeared at the bar of the House.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be Senate Bill No. 382 on second reading.

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"In regard to the point of order raised by Mr. Evans, Rule 77 states that the bill shall be read on three separate days. Referring to Rule 80, this rule states that the bill shall be read in full. In order to suspend that rule, it will require a two-thirds vote of all present. The motion of Mr. Litchman did not have a two-thirds majority, so the Clerk will read the bill."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Copeland.

Mr. Copeland:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Copeland:

"Would your ruling change in any way, shape, or form the way amendments are to be offered, since the bill will be read section by section? This bill contains only two sections. Therefore, would all amendments offered to section 1 have to be considered before we could advance to section 2 or before any new sections are added?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"The Speaker will rule that if the bill is read by sections, after the first section is read, the amendments will be offered to that section, and thereafter the following sections will be read and amendments will be offered and received after each section."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Copeland.

Mr. Copeland:

"Mr. Speaker, one other clarifying point. It will then be up to the Chief Clerk to sort out any amendments that may be on the desk and put them in at the time the proper section is read. Is that correct?"

The Speaker:

"It should be the duty of the Chief Clerk to keep the amendments in order, and a matter of cooperation by the members in not cluttering up the desk so that we can maintain a semblance of order in the presentation of amendments. It requires the cooperation of both."

The reading clerk read section 1 of Senate Bill No. 382.

Mr. Pritchard moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, line 14, after "1949.]" strike all the underlined material down to and including "1961." on line 17 and insert "Members of the board shall be appointed by the governor. Any member of the board appointed after January 15, 1961 shall hold office for a period of six years from January 15 in the year in which his predecessor's term expired. The members of the board appointed prior to January 15, 1961 shall hold office until the expiration of their respective terms."

Mr. Schaefer demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Sawyer:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Pritchard yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Pritchard?"

Mr. Pritchard:

"Yes."

Mr. Sawyer:

"Mr. Pritchard, are you telling this House you are for a six-year term?"

Mr. Pritchard:

"Well, I think six-year terms are better than what is now written in the bill. I think this is an improvement. We will start step by step."

Debate ensued, Representatives Pritchard, Moos, and Canfield speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Cecil speaking against its adoption.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Adams:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Cecil yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Cecil?"

Mr. Cecil:

"Yes."

Mr. Adams:

"Mr. Cecil, you made a good talk. Can you give me any good reasons why the Board should be changed at this time?"

Mr. Cecil:

"I don't think that is a matter of discussion at this time, Dr. Adams."

Further debate ensued, Representative Metcalf speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Litchman moved the adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Mr. Pritchard:

In Mr. Pritchard's amendment, strike all of the underlined material and insert the following:

"Immediately after this 1961 act takes effect the governor shall appoint three members to hold office for two years, four years, and six years, respectively. The terms of such members shall commence on January 15, 1961. Each of the members of the board appointed hereunder shall hold office until his successor is appointed and qualified. Upon the expiration of the term of any of the three members of the board appointed as aforesaid, each succeeding member of the board shall be appointed and hold office for the term of [nine] five years. In case of a vacancy, it shall be filled by appointment by the governor for the unexpired portion of the term in which said vacancy occurs. No vacancy in the membership of the board shall impair the right of the remaining member or members to act, except as herein otherwise provided: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That not more than two members shall be appointed from one major political party.

"(2) The principal office of the board shall be at the state capital, and it may establish such other offices as it may deem necessary.

"(3) Any member of the board may be removed for inefficiency, malfeasance, or misfeasance in office, upon specific written charges filed by the governor, who shall transmit such written charges to the member accused and to the chief justice of the supreme court. The chief justice shall thereupon designate a tribunal composed of three judges of the superior court to hear and adjudicate the charges. Such tribunal shall fix the time of the hearing, which shall be public, and the procedure for the hearing, and the decision of such tribunal shall be final and not subject to review by the supreme court. Removal of any member of the board by the tribunal shall disqualify such member for reappointment.

"(4) Each member of the board shall devote his entire time to the duties of his office and no member of the board shall hold any other public office. Before entering upon the duties of his office, each of said members of the board shall enter into a surety bond executed by a surety company authorized to do business in this state, payable to the state of Washington, to be approved by the governor in the penal sum of fifty thousand dollars conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties, and shall take and subscribe to the oath of office prescribed for elective state officers, which oath and bond shall be filed with the secretary of state. The premium for said bond shall be paid by the board."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Evans:

Mr. Evans:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Evans:

"Mr. Speaker, under Reed's Rule 144, 'Motion to Strike Out and Insert, etc., Which Relates to Whole Paragraph,' it states clearly: 'Whenever a motion to strike out a paragraph and insert another is made, the friends of each paragraph have a right to amend so as to make it acceptable.' Then you can choose between the two. Further, it says in Reed's 149: 'Amendments to amendments are the same in character and classification as original amendments.' If this is going to be a method to keep the body from discussing the remainder of the section and amend it or look at amendments, I think you will have to rule that this is in direct violation of Reed's 144 and 149."

The Speaker:

"Our big problem here is this question of friends of the paragraph. Are we friends or are we not? It appears in this instance that friendship has ceased for the time being. I am thoroughly cognizant of friends working out an agreement to perfect an amendment, but here you have a combination of an amendment by Mr. Pritchard to strike out and insert together with an amendment to Mr. Pritchard's amendment."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Evans:

"I think that the amendment to the amendment takes the same form and substance as the original amendment. This amendment by Mr. Litchman would prohibit any further amendment to entire section 1."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Gorton.

Mr. Gorton:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Gorton:

"Mr. Speaker, I think that even more relevant to the inquiry here is that Mr. Litchman's assumed amendment to the amendment is not such, and I cite you Reed's 132 and 133. There are three ways of amending. The first is by inserting words, which, of course, Mr. Litchman is not doing. The second is by striking words; and the third by striking words and inserting others. Mr. Litchman is going far beyond Mr. Pritchard's amendment. Mr. Litchman cannot properly present an amendment which goes beyond the words of Mr. Pritchard's amendment and which actually goes back to the main question."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"The Speaker will rule that Mr. Litchman's amendment goes somewhat beyond the scope of Mr. Pritchard's amendment and is therefore out of order."

Mr. Litchman's amendment to the amendment by Mr. Pritchard was ruled out of order.

Mr. Litchman moved the adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Mr. Pritchard:

Strike all of the underscored matter in the amendment by Mr. Pritchard to page 1, section 1, and substitute the following: "Immediately after this 1961 act takes effect the governor shall appoint three members to hold office for two years, four years, and six years, respectively. The terms of such members shall commence on January 15, 1961."

Mr. Schaefer demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

Debate ensued, Representatives Litchman and Brink arguing in favor of adoption of the amendment to the amendment, and Representative Pritchard arguing against its adoption.

MOTION

Mr. Evans moved that Senate Bill No. 382 be referred to the Committee on Medicine, Dentistry, and Drugs.

Mr. Litchman demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

Debate ensued, Representative Ritner speaking against the motion, and Representatives Evans and Johnston speaking in favor of the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Brink:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Brink:

"The motion is to refer the bill to Medicine, Dentistry, and Drugs. I let Mr. Evans and Mr. Ritner ramble, but I don't think that gives anyone a license to violate Reed's Rule 216."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Mr. Johnston, you are limited to citing reasons why we should submit this bill to committee. Of course, the committee you are attempting to submit it to has nothing to do with the subject matter, but Reed's Rule 216 on relevancy of debate does say you should hold your remarks to the subject matter. This is one of those odd motions that is made and you should actually limit your remarks to why this bill should be referred to the committee."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Copeland:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Copeland:

"My memory takes me back to sometime ago when we had a similar type of motion before us to recommit, and I believe it was the Speaker's ruling at that time that this opens the entire subject matter for full debate of the entire proposition before the body."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"I might refresh your memory, if you like. If you will read Reed's Section 216, it states in part: 'To discuss an amendment involves more or less the main question, as does also a motion to commit; yet discussion of the main question in its relations to an amendment and in its relations to a motion to commit are very different from a discussion of the main question pure and simple.' You are not supposed to open up the main question pure and simple on a motion to commit. Go ahead to the best of your judgment, Mr. Johnston."

Further debate ensued, Representative Johnston completing his remarks, Representatives Day and Litchman arguing against the motion, and Representatives Adams and Gorton arguing in favor of the motion.

Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question, and the demand was not sustained.

Further debate ensued, Representative Copeland speaking in favor of the motion.

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to refer Senate Bill No. 382 to the Committee on Medicine, Dentistry, and Drugs, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 48; nays, 50; absent or not voting, 1.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Beck, Bigley, Braun, Canfield, Clark, Comfort, Copeland, DeJarnatt, Eldridge, England, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Harris, Hawley, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Jueling, Kirk, Leland, Lewis, Lybecker, Mahaffey, May, McDougall, Metcalf, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Newschwander, Nicholson, O'Connell, Pence, Perry, Pritchard, Rickdall, Shropshire, Siler, Swayze, Wang, Williams, Wintler—48.

Those absent or not voting were: Representative Farrington—1.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the adoption of the amendment by Mr. Litchman to the amendment by Mr. Pritchard.

Debate ensued, Representatives Morphis and Moos speaking against adoption of the amendment to the amendment.

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment by Mr. Litchman to the amendment by Mr. Pritchard, and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 47; nays, 51; absent or not voting, 1.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ackley, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Eric O.), Avey, Beierlein, Bergh, Bernethy, Bozarth, Brink, Brouillet, Burns, Burtch, Campbell, Chatalas, Conner, Day, Edwards, Epton, Gallagher, Garrett, Gleason, Goldmark, Henry, Holmes, King, Kink, Klein, Leibold, Litchman, Mardesich, Marsh, McCormick, McFadden, Meyers, O'Donnell, Olsen, Poff, Ritner, Sawyer, Schaefer, Smith, Taylor, Testu, Uhlman, Wedekind, Witherbee, Mr. Speaker—47.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Backstrom, Beck, Bigley, Braun, Canfield, Cecil, Clark, Comfort, Copeland, DeJarnatt, Eldridge, England, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Harris, Hawley, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Juelling, Kirk, Leland, Lewis, Lybecker, Mahaffey, May, McDougall, McElroy, Metcalf, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Newschwander, Nicholson, O'Connell, Pence, Perry, Pritchard, Rickdall, Shropshire, Siler, Swayze, Wang, Williams, Wintler—51.

Those absent or not voting were: Representative Farrington—1.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the adoption of the amendment by Mr. Pritchard.

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment by Mr. Pritchard, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 48; nays, 50; absent or not voting, 1.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Beck, Bigley, Braun, Canfield, Clark, Comfort, DeJarnatt, Eldridge, England, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Harris, Hawley, Hood, Huntley, Hurley, Johnston, Juelling, Kirk, Leland, Lewis, Lybecker, Mahaffey, May, McDougall, McElroy, Metcalf, Moos, Morphis, Newschwander, Nicholson, O'Connell, Pence, Perry, Poff, Pritchard, Rickdall, Shropshire, Siler, Swayze, Wang, Williams, Wintler—48.

Those absent or not voting were: Representative Farrington—1.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Copeland, having voted on the prevailing side, moved that the House do now reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Mr. Pritchard failed to pass the House.

MOTION

Mr. Litchman moved that the motion to reconsider be laid on the table.

Mr. Schaefer demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Copeland:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Copeland:

"Mr. Speaker, I believe the motion to reconsider is privileged and the motion to lay on the table subsidiary, and my motion has rank over Mr. Litchman's."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Mr. Copeland, I refer you to Reed's 206 which deals with the procedure used in the United States House of Representatives with reference to motions to lay on the table. They have also been recognized in this House as being in order."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Copeland:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Copeland:

"I wasn't aware that our House was under the rules of Washington, D. C. Our House rules on page 331 make quite clear which are privileged motions. A motion to reconsider is privileged and a motion to lay on the table is subsidiary."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"The precedent has been established in this House. It was established again just the other day. There have been many occasions in the past when this procedure has been followed in the House of Representatives of the state of Washington. I am going to rule the motion is in order."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Perry:

Mr. Perry:

"Mr. Speaker, parliamentary inquiry. What would be the result if this motion to table carried?"

The Speaker:

"It would just table the motion to reconsider."

Mr. Perry:

"I believe the motion takes the subject matter with it."

The Speaker:

"In this case, it does not."

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the motion by Mr. Litchman to table the motion to reconsider the vote by which Mr. Pritchard's amendment had failed to pass the House.

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to table the motion to reconsider, and the motion to table was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 48; nays, 50; absent or not voting, 1.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ackley, Anderson (Eric O.), Avey, Backstrom, Beierlein, Bergh, Bernethy, Bozarth, Brink, Brouillet, Burtch, Campbell, Cecil, Chatalas, Conner, Day, DeJarnatt, Edwards, Epton, Gallagher, Garrett, Gleason, Goldmark, Henry, Holmes, Huntley, King, Kink, Klein, Leibold, Litchman, Mardesich, Marsh, McCormick, McFadden, Meyers, O'Donnell, Olsen, Poff, Ritner, Sawyer, Schaefer, Smith, Taylor, Uhlman, Wedekind, Witherbee, Mr. Speaker—48.

Those voting nay were Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Beck, Bigley, Braun, Burns, Canfield, Clark, Comfort, Copeland, Eldridge, England, Evans, Flanagan, Folsom, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Harris, Hawley, Hood, Hurley, Johnston, Jueling, Kirk, Leland, Lewis, Lybecker, Mahaffey, May, McDougall, McElroy, Metcalf, Moos, Morphis, Morrissey, Newschwander, Nicholson, O'Connell, Pence, Perry, Pritchard, Rickdall, Shropshire, Siler, Swayze, Testu, Wang, Williams, Wintler—50.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

Senate Chamber,
Olympia, Wash., March 7, 1961.

MR. SPEAKER:

The Senate refuses to concur in the House Amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 111 and asks the House to recede therefrom, and said bill together with the House Amendments thereto are herewith transmitted.

WARD BOWDEN, Secretary.

Mr. Campbell moved that the House refuse to recede from its amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 111 and ask the Senate for a conference thereon.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

The Speaker recognized Mr. Comfort.

Mr. Comfort:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Campbell yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Campbell?"

Mr. Campbell:

"Yes, I would."

Mr. Comfort:

"Mr. Campbell, do you recall that when Senate Bill No. 111 was under discussion by this group, Mr. Juelling asked you a question as to whether or not the bill would prevent a municipality or small town from having their own part-time justice of the peace? I believe you answered him that Senate Bill No. 111 would not prevent that. Is that correct?"

Mr. Campbell:

"Well, I think we have a misunderstanding on the terms. I think it was a municipal court, and chapter 5 does permit any incorporated town to have a municipal court."

Mr. Comfort:

"Now, getting to the main question, is it not true that under Senate Bill No. 111 this same town with its own municipal court would have to have one of the regularly elected justices of the peace for its judge, not their own designated justice of the peace?"

Mr. Campbell:

"That is correct."

The motion by Mr. Campbell that the House refuse to recede from its amendments and ask the Senate for a conference on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 111 was carried.

Mr. Litchman demanded a call of the House, and the demand was sustained.

CALL OF THE HOUSE

The Sergeant at Arms was instructed to lock the doors.

The Clerk called the roll, and all members were present.

On motion of Mr. Litchman, the House proceeded with business under the call of the House.

SECOND READING OF BILLS

The House resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 382 on second reading.

Senate Bill No. 382, by Senators Herrmann, Connor, DeGarmo, and Thompson:

Relating to state liquor control board.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the motion by Mr. Copeland to reconsider the vote by which the following amendment by Mr. Pritchard failed to pass the House:

On page 1, section 1, line 14, after "1949.]" strike all the underlined material down to and including "1961." on line 17 and insert "*Members of the board shall be appointed by the governor. Any member of the board appointed after January 15, 1961 shall hold office for a period of six years from January 15 in the year in which his predecessor's term expired. Sec. 6. It shall be unlawful for any corporation to acquire, directly or indirectly, the whole or any part of the stock or assets of another corporation where the effect of such acquisition may be to substantially lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in any line of commerce.

"This section shall not apply to corporations purchasing such stock solely for investment and not using the same by voting or otherwise to bring about, or in attempting to bring about, the substantial lessening of competition. Nor shall anything contained in this section prevent a corporation from causing the formation of subsidiary corporations for the actual carrying on of their immediate lawful business, or the natural and legitimate branches or extensions thereof, or from owning and holding all or a part of the stock of such subsidiary corporations, when the effect of such formation is not to substantially lessen competition.

"In addition to any other remedy provided by this act, the superior court may order any corporation to divest itself of the stock or assets held contrary to this section, in the manner and within the time fixed by said order.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The labor of a human being is not a commodity or article of commerce. Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to forbid the existence and operation of labor, agricultural, or horticultural organizations, instituted for the purposes of mutual help, and not having capital stock or conducted for profit, or to forbid or restrain individual members of such organizations from lawfully carrying out the legitimate objects thereof.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The attorney general may bring an action in the name of the state against any person to restrain and prevent the doing of any act herein prohibited or declared to be unlawful.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Any person who is injured in his business or property by a violation of sections 3, 4, 5, or 6 of this act, or any person so injured because he refuses to accede to a proposal for an arrangement which, if consummated, would be in violation of sections 3, 4, 5, or 6 of this act, may bring a civil action in the superior court to enjoin further violations, to recover the actual damages sustained by him together with the costs of the suit, including a reasonable attorney's fee, and the court may in its discretion, increase the award of damages to an amount not to exceed three times the actual damages sustained. For the purpose of this section 'person' shall include the counties, municipalities, and all political subdivisions of this state.

"Whenever the state of Washington is injured by reason of a violation of sections 3, 4, 5, or 6 of this act, it may sue therefor in the superior court to recover the actual damages sustained by it and to recover the costs of the suit including a reasonable attorney's fee.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. In the enforcement of this act, the attorney general may accept an assurance of discontinuance of any act or practice deemed in violation of this act, from any person engaging in, or who has engaged in, such act or practice. Any such assurance shall be in writing and be filed with and subject to the approval of the superior court of the county in which the alleged violator resides or has his principal place of business, or in Thurston County.

"Such assurance of discontinuance shall not be considered an admission of a violation for any purpose.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) Whenever the attorney general believes that any person may be in possession, custody, or control of any original or copy of any book, record, report, memorandum, paper, communication, tabulation, map, chart, photograph, mechanical transcription, or other tangible document or recording, wherever situate, which he believes to be relevant to the subject matter of an investigation of a possible violation of sections 3, 4, 5, or 6 of this act, he may, prior to the institution of a civil proceeding thereon, execute in writing and cause to be served upon such a person, a civil investigative demand requiring such person to produce such documentary material and permit inspection and copying: Provided, That this section shall not be applicable to criminal prosecutions.

"(2) Each such demand shall:

"(a) State the statute and section or sections thereof, the alleged violation of which is under investigation, and the general subject matter of the investigation;

"(b) Describe the class or classes of documentary material to be produced thereunder with reasonable specificity so as fairly to indicate the material demanded;

"(c) Prescribe a return date within which the documentary material is to be produced; and

"(d) Identify the members of the attorney general's staff to whom such documentary material is to be made available for inspection and copying.

"(3) No such demand shall:

"(a) Contain any requirement which would be unreasonable or improper if contained in a subpoena duces tecum issued by a court of this state; or

"(b) Require the disclosure of any documentary material which would be privileged, or which for any other reason would not be required by a subpoena duces tecum issued by a court of this state.

"(4) Service of any such demand may be made by:

"(a) Delivering a duly executed copy thereof to the person to be served, or, if such person is not a natural person, to any officer of the person to be served; or

"(b) Delivering a duly executed copy thereof to the principal place of business in this state of the person to be served; or

"(c) Mailing by registered or certified mail a duly executed copy thereof addressed to the person to be served at the principal place of business in this state, or, if said person has no place of business in this state, to his principal office or place of business.

"(5) Documentary material demanded pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be produced for inspection and copying during normal business hours at the principal office or place of business of the person served, or at such other times and places as may be agreed upon by the person served and the attorney general.

"(6) No documentary material produced pursuant to a demand, or copies thereof, shall, unless otherwise ordered by a superior court for good cause shown, be produced for inspection or copying by, nor shall the contents thereof be disclosed to, other than an authorized employee of the attorney general, without the consent of the person who produced such material: Provided, That, under such reasonable terms and conditions as the attorney general shall prescribe, the copies of such documentary material shall be available for inspection and copying by the person who produced such material or any duly authorized representative of such person. The attorney general or any assistant attorney general may use such copies of documentary material as he determines necessary in the enforcement of this act, including presentation before any court: Provided, That any such material which contains trade secrets shall not be presented except with the approval of the court in which action is pending after adequate notice to the person furnishing such material.

"(7) At any time before the return date specified in the demand, or within twenty days after the demand has been served, whichever period is shorter, a petition to extend the return date for, or to modify or set aside a demand issued pursuant to subsection (1), stating good cause, may be filed in the superior court for Thurston County, or in such other county where the parties reside. A petition, by the person on whom the demand is served, stating good cause, to require the attorney general or any person to perform any duty imposed by the provisions of this section, and all other petitions in connection with a demand, may be filed in the superior court for Thurston County, or in the county where the parties reside.

"(8) A person upon whom a demand is served pursuant to the provisions of this section shall comply with the terms thereof unless otherwise provided by an order of court issued under subsection (7) hereof. Any person who, with intent to avoid, evade, or prevent compliance, in whole or in part, with any civil investigative demand under this section, removes from any place, conceals, withholds, or destroys, mutilates, alters, or by any other means falsifies any documentary material in the possession, custody, or control of any person which is the subject of any demand duly served upon any person shall be guilty of an offense against the state, and shall be subject, upon conviction, to a fine not to exceed five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of not more than one year, or both.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Any action to enforce a claim for damages under section 9 shall be forever barred unless commenced within four years after the cause of action accrues: Provided, That whenever any action is brought by the attorney general for a violation of sections 3, 4, 5, or 6, except actions for the recovery of a civil penalty for violation of an injunction or actions under section 9, the running of the foregoing statute of limitations, with respect to every private right of action for damages under section 9 which is based in whole or part on any matter complained of in said action by the attorney general, shall be suspended during the pendency thereof.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A final judgment or decree rendered in any action brought under section 8 by the state of Washington to the effect that a defendant has violated sections 3, 4, 5, or 6 shall be prima facie evidence against such defendant in any action brought by any party against such defendant under section 9 of this act as to all matters which said judgment or decree would be an estoppel as between the parties thereto: Provided, That this section shall not apply to consent judgments or decrees where the court makes no finding of illegality.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Every person who shall violate sections 3 or 4 of this act or the terms of any injunction issued as in this act provided, shall forfeit and pay a civil penalty of not more than twenty-five thousand dollars.

"For the purpose of this section the superior court issuing any injunction shall retain jurisdiction, and the cause shall be continued, and in such cases the attorney general acting in the name of the state may petition for the recovery of civil penalties.

"With respect to violations of sections 3 and 4, the attorney general, acting in the name of the state, may seek recovery of such penalties in a civil action.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Upon petition by the attorney general, the court may, in its discretion, order the dissolution, or suspension or forfeiture of franchise, of any corporation which shall violate sections 3 or 4 of this act or the terms of any injunction issued as in this act provided.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Personal service of any process in an action under this act may be made upon any person outside the state if such person has engaged in conduct in violation of this act which has had the impact in this state which this act reprehends. Such persons shall be deemed to have thereby submitted themselves to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state within the meaning of RCW 4.28.180 and 4.28.185.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Nothing in this act shall apply to actions or transactions otherwise permitted, prohibited or regulated under laws administered by the insurance commissioner of this state, the Washington public service commission, the federal power commission or any other regulatory body or officer acting under statutory authority of this state or the United States.

"RCW 9.01.090 shall not be applicable to the terms of this act and no penalty or remedy shall result from a violation of this act except as expressly provided herein.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. If any provision of this act is declared unconstitutional, or the applicability thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the constitutionality of the remainder of the act and the applicability thereof to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. This act shall be known and designated as the 'Consumer Protection Act.'

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. The legislature hereby declares that the purpose of this act is to complement the body of federal law governing restraints of trade, unfair competition and unfair, deceptive, and fraudulent acts or practices in order to protect the public and foster fair and honest competition. It is the intent of the legislature that, in construing this act, the courts be guided by the interpretation given by the federal courts to the various federal statutes dealing with the same or similar matters and that in deciding whether conduct restrains or monopolizes trade or commerce or may substantially lessen competition, determination of the relevant market or effective area of competition shall not be limited by the boundaries of the state of Washington. To this end this act shall be liberally construed that its beneficial purposes may be served.

"It is, however, the intent of the legislature that this act shall not be construed to prohibit acts or practices which are reasonable in relation to the development and preservation of business or which are not injurious to the public interest, nor shall this act be construed to repeal by implication the Fair Trade Act contained in chapter 19.89 RCW."

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Marsh?"

Mr. Marsh:

"Yes."

Mr. Brink:

"It is my opinion that under the ordinary procedures if the situation which Mr. Andersen and Mr. Johnston brought up occurred, the defendant could move for a change of venue. Would you agree?"

Mr. Marsh:

"I think that is true."

Mr. Nicholson demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Andersen:

"I would like to make the closing debate in behalf of my amendment."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"It appears, Mr. Andersen, if you will read Rule 40, that on the final passage of the bill the chairman of the committee or one of the sponsors of the bill would have the right to close the debate. Otherwise, you are prohibited."

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the adoption of the amendment by Mr. Andersen to page 2 of the committee amendment.

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment by Mr. Andersen to page 2 of the committee amendment, and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 54; absent or not voting, 2.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Adams:

"Mr. Speaker, I have a question I would like to ask Mr. Andersen."

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Andersen?"

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"Yes."

Mr. Adams:

"It is my understanding that an individual is required to sign an agreement of discontinuance under this act. I want to raise this question: After that he can't go back and defend himself on the previous action and it is really considered as a matter of guilt on the first act. Is that correct?"

Mr. Andersen:

"That was the case in the original act. That is why I say that the committee amendment is better than the original act. Under the amendment, the assurance of discontinuance is not considered an admission of violation. That has been cleared up by the committee—for the benefit of the act, I might say."

Debate ensued, Representatives Andersen and Comfort speaking in favor of adoption of the amendment to the amendment, and Representatives Marsh and Nicholson speaking against its adoption.

"The other day, Mr. Lewis, you supported a bill for capitol buildings involving many millions. I wonder what has happened in the meantime that you have become so much interested in economy?"

Mr. Lewis:

"In trying to answer your question, Mr. Hawley, I think we are talking about two entirely different subjects. The other day we were talking about permanent government installations which will be necessary. Here we are talking about putting three million dollars into an operation which is not in itself entirely permanent but which is desirable, and I am merely suggesting that we attempt to meet the wishes of Century 21 more than halfway; to be specific, to meet two-thirds of their desires."

Further debate ensued, Representative Olsen speaking against adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Schaefer demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Schaefer demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Ackley:

"No. The library exclusion, which is in the present law, relates to public libraries, state libraries, city libraries, county libraries, municipal libraries, but not to private libraries."

Mr. Kink:

"If I opened my home and said it was a public library, would it be covered?"

"I think that is taken care of here in the wording of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 148. You will find he must have knowledge of the contents thereof. He may sell a book, but if he can show he doesn't have knowledge of the contents thereof, he wouldn't be guilty."

"State your point of order."

Mr. Copeland:

"According to House Rule 9, it seems that the Committee on Rules and Order shall have charge of the daily calendar of the House and shall direct the Chief Clerk as to the order in which the business is transacted. It appears to me you would need a suspension of the rules for this motion."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"It has always been the ruling of the Speaker, and custom has established that you can move within one rule by a majority of those present. You are not suspending the rule as such; you are moving within a rule. The motion is in order."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Evans:

"I recollect the Speaker's ruling on that point, but hasn't that always been moving within an order of business rather than trying to shift the calendar around?"

The Speaker:

"I think the same ruling would apply to the order of business. We have ruled, and the practice in the past has been to permit bills to be considered within a reading of bills by a majority."

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the motion that the House immediately consider Engrossed Senate Bill No. 425 on second reading.

The motion was carried on a rising vote.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 425, by Senators Angevine, Dore, Durkan, Greive, Papajani, Kupka, Connor, Morgan, Nunamaker, Gallagher, McCutcheon, Bailey, Hofmeister, Cooney, Knoblauch, DeGarmo, Petrich, and Martin (by executive request):

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., March 7, 1961.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, a majority of your Committee on Labor, to whom was referred Engrossed Senate Bill No. 425, creating a minimum wage and hour act, have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass with the following amendments:

MOTION

"It appears to the Speaker, Mrs. Hurley, that the House has voted to consider Engrossed Senate Bill No. 425. That appears to be the question before the House at this time. After we dispose of this bill, your motion would be in order."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Copeland:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Copeland:

"Well, now, this is a motion that just exactly parallels the one Mr. Litchman made. We reverted to the ninth order of business and the subject matter before the House was the consideration of Senate Bill No. 467. Mr. Litchman's motion was that we now consider Senate Bill No. 425. Mrs. Hurley's motion is to make a special order of business, and it would only follow in logical sequence that this would be an acceptable motion."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"The subject before us is Engrossed Senate Bill No. 425. At this point, motions must pertain to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 425. There is a whole range of motions that can be made, but they must be applicable to this particular bill. After a determination is made on your decision on this bill, Mrs. Hurley's motion would then be in order."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mrs. Hurley.

Mrs. Hurley:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to appeal to you. I have been here long enough to realize that a bill can be passed in seven minutes, and then my special order of business can be taken up. Also, in the past, it seems as though we have discontinued action on a bill to take up a special order of business, so I would appeal to you to reconsider your decision."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"It appears to the Speaker that by a majority vote, the House has moved to immediately consider Engrossed Senate Bill No. 425, and all motions now must be relevant to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 425."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 62. The complaint shall be sworn to before the municipal court judge and shall be filed by him when, from his examination of the complainant and other witnesses, if any, he has reasonable grounds to believe that an offense of which he has jurisdiction has been committed and that the defendant committed it. NEW SECTION. Sec. 63. No oath shall be required when the complaint is made by a county or municipal prosecutor or city attorney and if it contains or be verified by a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 64. The court may permit a complaint to be amended at any time before judgment if no additional or different offense is charged, and if substantial rights of the defendant are not thereby prejudiced.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 65. If, from the examination of the complainant and other witnesses, if any, the court has reasonable ground to believe that an offense has been committed and that the defendant has committed it, a warrant shall issue for the arrest of the defendant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 66. The warrant shall be in writing and in the name of the state, shall be signed by the municipal court judge with the title of his office, and shall state the date when issued and the municipality where issued. It shall describe the offense charged against the defendant. It shall command that the defendant be arrested and brought before the court at a stated place, without unnecessary delay, unless he deposits bail as stated in the warrant and is released for appearance in court on a date certain stated therein.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 67. The warrant shall be directed to all peace officers in the state and shall be executed only by a peace officer. It shall be executed by the arrest of the defendant and may be executed in any county or municipality of the state by any peace officer in the state. The officer need not have the warrant in his possession at the time of arrest, but in that case he shall then inform the defendant of the offense charged and of the fact that a warrant has been issued; and, upon request, shall show the warrant to the defendant as soon as possible.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 68. The officer executing a warrant shall forthwith make return thereof to the court issuing it. Any unexecuted warrants shall be returned to the municipal court by whom issued and may be cancelled by him. While a complaint is pending, a warrant returned unexecuted and not cancelled, or a duplicate thereof, may be delivered by the municipal court to a peace officer for execution or service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 69. An officer making an arrest under a warrant shall take the arrested person without unnecessary delay and, in any event, within twenty-four hours, exclusive of nonjudicial days, before the municipal court or admit him to bail as commanded in the warrant. Any person making an arrest without a warrant shall take the arrested person without unnecessary delay and, in any event within forty-eight hours, exclusive of nonjudicial days, before the municipal court in the municipality in which the arrest is made. When a person is arrested without a warrant and brought before the municipal court, a complaint shall be filed forthwith.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 70. Judges of the municipal court may accept money as bail for the appearance of persons charged with bailable offenses. The amount of bail or recognizance in each case shall be determined by the court in its discretion and may, from time to time, be increased or decreased as circumstances may justify.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 71. A person required or permitted to give bail may execute a bond conditioned upon his appearance at all stages of the proceedings until final determination of the cause, unless otherwise ordered by the court. One or more sureties may be required; cash may be accepted; and, in proper cases, no security need be required. Bail given on appeal shall be deposited with the clerk of the court from which the appeal is taken.

No bond shall be approved unless the surety thereon shall be financially responsible. The municipal court judge shall approve all bonds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 73. When a person arrested either under warrant or without a warrant is brought before the court, he shall then be informed of the charge against him, advised of his constitutional rights and he shall be arraigned then or within a reasonable time set by the court. The arraignment shall be conducted in open court and shall consist of stating to him the substance of the charge and calling on him to plead thereto. The defendant shall be given a copy of the complaint if he requests the same. Defendants who are jointly charged may be arraigned separately or together in the discretion of the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 74. The defendant may plead guilty; not guilty, and a former conviction or acquittal of the offense charged, which may be pleaded with or without a plea of not guilty. The court may refuse to accept a plea of guilty, and shall not accept a plea without first determining that the plea is made voluntarily with understanding of the nature of the charge. If a defendant refuses to plead, or if the court refuses to accept a plea of guilty, the court shall enter a plea of not guilty. The court may strike out a plea of guilty and enter a plea of not guilty, if it deems such action necessary in the interest of justice.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 75. The municipal court may, in its discretion grant continuances for good cause shown. If a continuance is granted, the cost thereof shall abide the event of the prosecution in all cases. If a continuance is granted, the court may recognize the defendant and the witnesses to appear from time to time, in the same manner as is provided in other criminal examinations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 76. If the complaint is for a crime within the jurisdiction of the court, and the defendant pleads guilty, the court shall sentence him upon a proper showing of a prima facie case against him.

If the defendant pleads not guilty or pleads a former conviction or acquittal of the offense charged, the court shall hear and determine the cause, and either acquit or convict and punish.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 77. In all trials for offenses in municipal court, a jury trial shall be allowed only in offenses involving the revocation or suspension of a driver's license or other gross misdemeanor. No change of venue shall be taken from the municipal court, and the defendant shall not be entitled to file an affidavit of prejudice against any judge of the municipal court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 79. In all cases of conviction, unless otherwise provided in this act, where a jail sentence is given to the defendant, execution shall issue accordingly and where the judgment of the court is that the defendant pay a fine and costs, he may be committed to jail to be placed at hard labor until the judgment is paid in full, but the defendant shall not be imprisoned for a longer aggregate time than one day for each six dollars of fine and costs.

A defendant who has been committed shall be discharged upon the payment for such part of the fine and costs as remains unpaid after deducting from the whole amount any previous payment, and six dollars for every day he has been imprisoned upon commitment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 80. If a corporation is convicted of any offense, the court may give judgment thereon and may cause the judgment to be enforced in the same manner as a judgment in a civil action.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 81. After a conviction, the court may defer sentencing the defendant and place him on probation and prescribe the conditions thereof, but in no case shall it extend for more than one year from the date of conviction. During the time of the deferral, the court may, for good cause shown, permit a defendant to withdraw his plea of guilty, permit him to enter a plea of not guilty, and dismiss the charges against him.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82. For a period not to exceed one year after imposition of sentence, the court shall have continuing jurisdiction and authority to suspend the execution of all or any part of its sentence upon stated terms, including installment payment of fines.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 83. Upon the revocation of the deferral or suspension, the court shall impose the sentence previously suspended or any unexecuted portion thereof. In no case shall the court impose a sentence greater than the original sentence, with credit given for time served and money paid on fine and costs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 87. The appeal shall be to the superior court of the county in which the municipal court is located. Upon dismissal of the appeal for failure of the appellant to proceed diligently with the appeal and as herein required, or for any other cause, the judgment of the lower court shall be enforced by the municipal judge. If, at the time of the dismissal, cash deposit or appeal bond as hereinafter required has been furnished and is in the custody of the superior court, the same shall be returned to the lower court after any deduction therefrom for costs allowed by law. Upon voluntary dismissal by the city or verdict of not guilty cash bail shall be returned to the party posting the same. The municipal court shall have power to forfeit the cash bail or appeal bond and issue execution thereon for breach of any condition under which it is furnished.

Whenever the transcript is filed in the superior court and any cash bail or bail bond has been filed with the lower court, the judge thereof shall transfer the same to the superior court in which the appeal is pending, there to be held pending disposition of the appeal; and shall also deliver to the court any exhibits introduced into evidence in the trial before the lower court, which exhibits, subject to the proper rulings of the appellant court, may be offered in evidence if the trial is had in the superior court; otherwise, to be returned to the custody of the lower court judge.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 90. In the superior court the trial shall be de novo, subject to the right of the respondent to file an amended complaint therein. The defendant in the superior court may have a trial by jury. Mr. Mardesich called upon Representatives Hood, Brink, Henry, and Chatalas to escort the Honorable John L. O'Brien and Mrs. O'Brien to the rostrum.

Mr. Mardesich:

"I would like to introduce Mr. Beierlein, who has a few words to say and who will make a presentation to Speaker and Mrs. O'Brien."

Mr. Beierlein:

"Mr. Assistant Speaker Pro Tem, Speaker and Mrs. O'Brien, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I am sure that you did not choose the best speaker for this occasion today, but I am willing and consider it a great honor. I have never before had the opportunity to speak into the Speaker's microphone that I remember. This is somewhat of a historical occasion in several other ways as well.

"Well, Mr. Speaker and Mrs. O'Brien, I have the honor today to perform a little service here, as others have done before while I have sat in my seat and watched. The time is near when we will hear the motion made to adjourn the thirty-seventh legislative session sine die, and it will all seem like a dream, these last sixty days. For me, they have gone by very fast. I have gone through this about twelve times, or will have by the time we adjourn tonight, and it always seems like a dream, the sixty days go so fast.

"During the time we are here, we wrestle with many problems. We have so many, many things to take up each moment of our time. We think they are earth-shaking problems, and we sometimes get angry at one another. We dislike the rulings the Speaker makes and forget our best manners, but through it all we attempt to do what we think is right in our own consciences, all of us, Democrats and Republicans alike. We serve our constituents in the way we think our constituents would want.

"During this time, there is a man on this rostrum who has to put up with us, a man who has a duty to perform to see that this House is conducted in an orderly way, a man who has to be fair and honest in his decisions, and that is John O'Brien. I am sure you will all agree with me, now, the battle is over—there are times when you probably disagreed with his rulings—but I don't think there is anyone here who will not agree his rulings were intended to be fair and impartial.

"He has unusual human qualities. I sit in the second seat over there, and I can tell from the expression of his face when he is saddened and when he has disappointments. I know about what he is going to say. I am sure that all the other things we consider so important and earth-shaking will end. They are already beginning to disappear, and in another day or so, when you get back home, they will become infinitesimal. But one thing remains, the lasting bond of friendship we have created. That lasts a long, long time.

"John O'Brien's management of this House is to me the outstanding thing of the session. I now have the honor, and indeed it is a great privilege, to present to the Speaker, Mr. O'Brien, and to Mrs. O'Brien this scroll inscribed with the names of all the members of the House. I mentioned that this was a historical occasion. John O'Brien is the only man in the history of the state of Washington who has held this position as Speaker four times in succession. It gives me a great deal of pleasure, Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien, to present this scroll and gift as a token of our esteem."

Mr. Mardesich:

"At this time, I would like to present Mrs. Gleason, who will present, for the members of the House, a gift to Speaker Pro Tem, Jeanette Testu."

Mrs. Gleason:

"Jeanette, our Speaker Pro Tem, it gives me great pleasure to give you this gift in behalf of all of your colleagues in the House. You shall always be remembered for your years of faithful, loyal service to the people of your district as well as the state of Washington, and especially for your warm friendliness, consideration and kindness for other members of the House, and perhaps especially the freshmen. As I know myself when I was a freshman, I would have been very discouraged many times if it had not been for your kindness. I am sure I can say on behalf of all the members of the House that we appreciate your services here very much."

Mrs. Testu:

"Thank you, Marian. I don't deserve all this. I haven't done any more this year than I ever did before. I think I have worked hard each time, except this time I have been grandmother to the freshmen and that was a real job. They won't be freshmen after tomorrow. I am sorry about that. I want to tell you how very much I appreciate your kindness. Thank you."

Mr. Mardesich:

"I would now like to introduce Mr. Bernethy, who has a few words to say and a presentation to make to Representative Wedekind."

Mr. Bernethy:

"Mrs. O'Brien, Speaker John, Assistant Pro Tem, ladies and gentlemen of the House, it gives me great pleasure to present this plaque to my good friend, Max Wedekind, with whom I have had the pleasure of working for many sessions, and even out of session, I have worked with him. He has done a marvelous job as caucus chairman. It gives me great pleasure to present this plaque. We are also presenting him with a gavel, so he can have one in each hand."

Mr. Wedekind:

"I don't have as much to say as usual. I won't say more than thanks to everyone."

Mr. Mardesich:

"I would like now to present Mr. Copeland."

Mr. Copeland:

"Mr. Assistant Speaker Pro Tem, Mrs. O'Brien, Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House it is a privilege for me today to present to Don Eldridge, in behalf of the Republican members, a scroll in which we extend to him our thanks for his devoted service as our caucus chairman. With this scroll goes our heartfelt thanks and I understand we also have a gavel for Don, one that is equipped it is said, with a mallet that is as hard as his head and with as much hair."

Mr. Eldridge:

"Mr. Speaker, Mrs. O'Brien, my colleagues on the rostrum, members of the House, I just want to say that I thank my Republican colleagues for the wonderful cooperation they have given me during this session, and to you on the other side of the aisle, I want to compliment you on being great adversaries."

Mr. Mardesich:

"At this time, I am going to take this opportunity to call upon the Speaker, Mr. John O'Brien, to say a few words to the House."

The Speaker:

"I was going to start by calling you all fellow legislators, but perhaps I should preface my remarks by saying 'Friends.' We are all friends, and I think that is the way it should be. Mrs. O'Brien and I thank you very much for this gift.

"I know this session has been rather unique in many phases. It started out being very challenging and interesting, and it continued right on through until 12:00 o'clock today as being a real session of challenge; but I think because of it we are a little bit better off. It taxes all of our abilities to the utmost to work with people who are tremendously interested in the problems of our state.

"I know on occasion some of you people have disagreed with me, but the position of Speaker is rather difficult at times. I have tried to be fair and impartial, and I sincerely believe we all have one common objective—that is to do the best possible job for the people of our state no matter to what party we belong.

"I have enjoyed the session very much. I think Mr. Beierlein's remark that it has passed rather swiftly holds true for many of us—there were so many crises. Every day there has been a different crisis. That seems to have accelerated our session. I am sorry in a way that it is coming to an end, because I feel we have developed a real bond of friendship. Regardless of whether you happen to be a Democrat or a Republican, I feel that we are all Americans first, last, and always, and that we are here to represent the people of our respective districts to the best of our ability.

"Again, in behalf of Mrs. O'Brien and myself, I wish to thank you very much. I can assure you that it has been very enjoyable to be your presiding officer. I am sorry that my decisions have not always been agreeable to everyone, but I can say that when I had to make decisions, I have made them from the heart. I felt at the time, and will always feel, that that is the way it has to be. I know that we have had a good session. We have worked hard and we don't have to apologize to anyone. I am sorry the regular session is coming to an end.

"Again, thank you very much."

Mr. Mardesich:

"I would like to call upon the Speaker, Mr. O'Brien, to make another presentation at this time, if he would."

The Speaker:

"Assistant Speaker Pro Tem, Mr. Mardesich, and Mr. Sawyer, I would like to present to each of you a gift from all of us."

Mr. Mardesich:

"I will open this before I make a comment. It says it is a 37,000 carat gold gavel. It is about a quarter of an inch long. Thank you."

Mr. Sawyer:

"I think mine is just a trifle smaller. Thank you."

Mr. Mardesich called upon the respective committees to escort the Speaker, Mrs. O'Brien, and members of the House from the rostrum.

The Speaker resumed the Chair.

"On or after January 1, [1962] 1964, all vehicles as defined in RCW 46.04.670, except motor trucks, truck tractors, trailers, semitrailers, motor buses and bus trailers, taxicabs, motor bicycles, motorcycles, electric vehicles, armored cars, wreckers, tow cars, dealer vehicles, and vehicles owned by the state or political subdivisions thereof, the United States and branches thereof, and consuls of foreign countries, shall be registered for a period of twelve consecutive calendar months. There are established twelve registration periods, each of which shall start on the first day of each calendar month of the year and shall end on the last day of the twelfth month from date of beginning. "Sec. 11. Section 4, chapter 231, Laws of 1957 and RCW 41.40.361 are each amended to read as follows:

"(1) For the purpose of this section, the 'fundable employer liability' at any date shall be the present value of "(a) all future pension benefits payable in respect of all members in the retirement system at that date, and

"(b) all future benefits in respect of beneficiaries then receiving retirement allowances or pensions.

"(2) The contributions by the employer for benefits under the retirement system shall consist of the sum of a percentage of the compensation of members to be known as the 'normal contribution', a percentage of such compensation to be known as the 'unfunded liability contribution' and in the case of employers admitted to the retirement system after April 1, 1949, a percentage of such compensation to be known as the 'additional contribution.' The rates of such contributions shall be determined by the retirement board on the basis of assets and liabilities as shown by actuarial valuation: PROVIDED, That as to state employers the total combined contributions of the normal contribution and unfunded liability contribution shall not exceed a total combined percentage rate of six percent for each employer unless authorized by the legislature.

"(3) After the completion of each actuarial valuation subsequent to the first actuarial valuation of June 30, 1953, the retirement board shall determine the normal contribution rate and such contribution rate shall become effective in the ensuing biennium. Until the unfunded liability contribution shall have been discontinued, such normal contribution rate shall be computed to be sufficient, when applied to the present value of the future compensation of the average new member entering the system, to provide for the payment of all prospective pension benefits in respect of such member. After the unfunded liability contributions have been discontinued, such normal contribution rate shall be determined as the uniform and constant percentage of the prospective compensation of all members of the retirement system at the date of such valuation which is equivalent to the excess of the fundable employer liability over the amount of funds currently standing to the credit of the benefit account fund.

"(4) After the completion of each actuarial valuation subsequent to the first actuarial valuation of June 30, 1953, the retirement board shall determine the unfunded liability contribution, and such rate shall become effective in the ensuing biennium. The unfunded liability contribution rate shall not be less than that percentage of annual compensation of all members in the retirement system at the date of such subsequent valuation which is equivalent to four percent of the unfunded liability of the system. The unfunded liability shall be determined at such date as the excess of the fundable employer liability over the sum of the present value of the future normal contributions payable in respect of all members in the retirement system at that date, and the amount of all funds currently standing to the credit of the benefit account fund. The unfunded liability contributions shall continue until there remains no unfunded liability.

"(5) Any employer admitted to the retirement system after April 1, 1949, shall make an additional contribution at a rate equal to not less than twenty-five percent of the sum of the normal contribution rate and the unfunded liability contribution rate until such time as the sum of such additional contributions equals the amount of contributions which such employer would have been required to contribute between April 1, 1949, and the date of such employer's admission to the retirement system: Provided, All additional contributions hereunder and under the provisions of RCW 41.40.160(2) must be completed within ten years from the date of the employer's admission.

"Sec. 12. Section 38, chapter 274, Laws of 1947, as amended by section 26, chapter 240, Laws of 1949, and RCW 41.40.370 are each amended to read as follows:

"(1) The retirement board shall ascertain and report to each employer the amount it shall provide for pension benefits for the ensuing biennium or fiscal year whichever is applicable to the said employer's operations. The amount to be so provided shall be computed by applying the rates of contribution as established by RCW [41.40.360] 41.40.361 to an estimate of the total compensation earnable of all the said employer's members during the period for which provision is to be made.

"(2) Beginning April 1, 1949, the amount to be collected as the employer's contribution for pension benefits shall be computed by applying the rates established by RCW [41.40.360] 41.40.361 to the total compensation earnable of employer's members as shown on the current payrolls of the said employer. The retirement board shall bill each said employer at the end of each month for the amount due for that month and the same shall be paid as are its other obligations: Provided, That the retirement board may, at its discretion, establish a system of billing based upon calendar year quarters in which event the said billing shall be at the end of each such quarter and shall be based upon the employer's payrolls for that quarter."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Adams:

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Andersen answer a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Andersen?"

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"Yes."

Mr. Adams:

"I think there is liability insurance which protects against personal liability. Would they now, without this bill, be protected under those policies for such an act?"

Mr. Andersen:

"That is a good question, Dr. Adams. I have been involved in litigation over this type of situation, being on the other side against the insurance company. It is a difficult question, but the court held the insurance does not protect them as the law is right now."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Schaefer:

"Mr. Speaker, would Mr. Andersen yield to another question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Andersen?"

Mr. Andersen (James A.):

"Yes."

Mr. Schaefer:

"Wouldn't you say, Mr. Andersen, that the court's decision might be dependent on the factual situation involved and the policy which was issued? In other words, you might have a different ruling if there were another set of facts or a different type of policy."

Mr. Andersen:

"That is correct."

Debate ensued, Representative Klein speaking in favor of the motion by Mr. Brink to recede from the House amendment to Senate Bill No. 344, and Representatives Mardesich, Bergh, Comfort, and Burtch speaking in favor of the amendment by Mr. Andersen to not recede.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Copeland on a point of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. Copeland:

"Mr. Speaker, will you please explain the difference in the motion to not recede and the motion to recede?"

The Speaker:

"The Senate has asked the House to recede. The motion to recede takes priority. If the House rejects the motion to recede, the next motion would be the motion to insist and to ask for a conference."

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the motion by Mr. Brink that the House recede from its amendment to Senate Bill No. 344. The motion was lost.

"Mr. Speaker, would Mrs. Henry yield to another question?"

The Speaker (Mr. Mardesich presiding):

"Will you yield to a question, Mrs. Henry?"

Mrs. Henry:

"Yes."

Mr. Brink:

"Would this particular amendment make someone guilty of gross misdemeanor if she pulled up on some little back street with a year-old child in the back seat, securely strapped in, and got out to put a letter in the mailbox or to run into the drugstore for some chewing gum?"

Mrs. Henry:

"Mr. Brink, perhaps it would, but I am sure the law, in its justice, would make compensations for such a case."

The Speaker (Mr. Mardesich presiding):

"Would Mr. Brink yield to a question?"

"Supposing a lady did pull up and leave a child in a car with the motor running, and another car came up and bumped it from behind. Because of this act, might their insurance be voided?"

Mr. Brink:

"I really wouldn't be able to say. It has been suggested that we hold this matter over so we can look it over. We don't want to kill the bill."

"I always will to you, Mr. Litchman."

Mr. Litchman:

"Why is it you want to set this over?"

Mr. Pritchard:

"We don't have the amendment before us and I would like a chance to read it over. It is pretty hard to pass on bills when we don't know what we are doing."

Mr. Litchman:

"Is that the only reason, Mr. Pritchard?"

Mr. Pritchard:

"Yes."

Very truly yours,

WARREN A. BISHOP,

Assistant to the Governor.

State of Washington, Executive Department,
Olympia, March 8, 1961.

To the Honorable, The House of Representatives of the State of Washington.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I am transmitting to the Secretary of State without my signature House Bill No. 468 entitled:

"An Act relating to game and game fish; amending section 14, chapter 176, Laws of 1957 and RCW 77.32.005; and amending section 77.32.230, chapter 36, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 2, chapter 245, Laws of 1959 and RCW 77.32.230."

This bill inter alia provides that honorably discharged veterans having a "service connected" disability, who have been residents of this state for five years, shall be given free hunting and fishing licenses. No one has at all times been more mindful than I of our obligations to the veterans of past wars, and I firmly believe that this bill gives to all veterans over 65 years of age who have a service connected disability a privilege to which they are entitled by virtue of their service to this state and to their country.

I am sure that the members of this Legislature are aware of the fact that the Game Department derives all of its funds through the issuance of licenses. We have, in this state, developed some of the best hunting and fishing grounds in the nation, and it is essential that this program receive in the future, adequate finances. If we were to allow all veterans free hunting and fishing licenses, irrespective of service connected disability, we would seriously impair the financial resources available to the Department of Game.

I believe it would have been better if the words "service connected" had been spelled out more clearly so that we would have a clearer test as to who is or is not entitled to such a license.

If the operation of this Act should turn out to be unduly restrictive, it is my recommendation that during the next regular session of the Legislature, this bill be amended so as to safeguard the best interests of all deserving veterans.

For the reasons indicated, I have permitted this bill to become law without my signature.

Very truly yours,
ALBERT D. ROSELLINI,
Governor.

Washington State Grange,
3104 Western Avenue,
Seattle 1, Washington,
March 9, 1961.

The Honorable John L. O'Brien, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Washington State Legislature, Olympia, Washington.

DEAR JOHN:

Yesterday was a historic day in the annals of Agriculture in the State of Washington with the final passage by the Senate of Substitute House Bill 389 and Senate Bill 336 by the House of Representatives.

Substitute House Bill 389 and its passage culminates work by all of Agriculture spearheaded by the Grange since 1947.

We are keenly appreciative and deeply indebted to your leadership and the fine bipartisan support of the Agricultural committees and members of both the House and Senate. We also want to recognize the support of Governor Rosellini and the excellent work of Director of Agriculture Joe Dwyer and his highly qualified staff.

For Substitute House Bill 389 we are further indebted to the fine legal craftsmanship of Thomas McBride. Representative Harry Siler's bipartisan interim committee performed yeoman service. We especially commend our urban legislators for their understanding and appreciation of the needs of Agriculture.

This is not to in anyway overlook the all out contribution of the Agricultural members of the legislature especially Chairman Horace Bozarth in the House and Chairman Dewey Donohue in the Senate. We want to especially acknowledge the special assistance of Cecil Clark and Paul Holmes along with Horace Bozarth as sponsors of Substitute House Bill 389.

Today cigars and candy are being distributed as a small measure of our appreciation of the sincere and dedicated support of those who supported these major measures, Substitute House Bill 389 and Senate Bill 336, as well as the loyal opposition.

Sincerely yours,

A. LARS NELSON, Master,

WHEREAS, Recognition of this vital role has increased over the years and is a constant factor in the lives of our citizens; and

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the House of Representatives, That the Legislature and all the people of the State of Washington do note the observance of National Library Week on April 16-22, 1961, with appropriate recognition of the contribution of the library toward a richer, fuller life.

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGES ON HOUSE BILLS VETOED OR PARTIALLY VETOED

March 21, 1961.

To the Honorable,
The House of Representatives of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State)

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am filing herewith, to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval as to one section, House Bill No. 26 entitled:

“Reorganizing, clearing obsolete matter from juvenile laws.”

House Bill No. 26 is a result of several years' work of numerous public and private agencies. The bill modernizes and improves many sections of our Juvenile Court Act. It also adds several new provisions to the Juvenile Code. I am sincerely convinced that the changes made are on the whole salutary, and that they will result in further improving our handling of juveniles.

Section 9 of House Bill No. 26 provides: 1, that in cases involving change of or deprivation of custody of children a jury trial shall be had; 2, that in addition to the writ of certiorari appeal shall lie in juvenile cases involving custody; and 3, that juveniles charged with violating provisions of the Motor Vehicle Code, or city ordinances pertaining to motor vehicles, shall be tried by a police court, justice court, or superior court, respectively, rather than in Juvenile Court.

Let me say at the outset, that I appreciate the well-intentioned efforts of the members of the Legislature to curb through the provisions of section 9, certain tyrannical tendencies on the part of some of our juvenile courts which have been manifested in a few instances. However, I cannot conscientiously approve of the proffered remedies contained in section 9, because I do not believe it wise to “burn the barn to roast a pig”.

It is my firm conviction that to permit section 9 to become law would constitute a step backward in the administration of justice for juveniles.

From times immemorial, down to the present day, matters concerning the custody of children have always been treated by our system of jurisprudence as being of equitable cognizance. Thus, in divorce cases where custody of children is often determined, no jury trial is allowed. Jury trials in custody cases would often prolong judicial proceedings in situations, where for the benefit of the children involved, speed of decision is of utmost importance. Take, for instance, the several cases of which all of us have become aware during recent years, where it had become necessary to deprive parents of custody forthwith in order that lifesaving medical treatment could be administered to a child. In addition, prolonged delays of decision in juvenile cases would necessarily result in undesirable, prolonged detention of juveniles. Furthermore, there exists a real danger that the publicity, and the formality of a jury trial might leave a child a victim of severe psychological trauma. Finally, jury trials in such cases would add considerably to the cost of administering the juvenile law thereby diverting funds which otherwise would be free to be devoted to the care or rehabilitation of young people.

Some of the reasons advanced against allowing trial by jury in juvenile cases obviously are also applicable to permitting juvenile traffic offenders to be tried in courts other than a juvenile court. In addition I should point out that juvenile courts have developed certain very successful correctional devices for juvenile traffic offenders such as requirements of attending a traffic school and suspension of driver's permit in cases of offenses where the law pertaining to adults would not allow such suspension.

While I believe that there is some real merit in allowing the right of appeal in juvenile cases, it is highly questionable whether I can single out for purposes of veto, that portion of section 9 dealing with the right of appeal.

For the reasons indicated, section 9 is vetoed; the remainder of the bill is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) ALBERT D. ROSELLINI,

Governor.

To the Honorable,

The House of Representatives of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State)

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am filing herewith, to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval as to one section, House Bill No. 57 entitled:

"Creating arts commission."

This bill creates a Washington State Arts Commission consisting of 21 members. During the past two years such a commission existed solely by virtue of executive action. I greatly appreciate the fact that the Legislature has recognized the merits of such a commission by granting it statutory existence. I would like to advise the members of the Legislature that the artists who have served in the past on this commission have done so at great personal sacrifice. They have served the State without receiving a per diem allowance, and without receiving even their actual traveling and other expenses incurred. Their collective wisdom and their recommendations have made all of us aware of the truism that "man does not live by bread alone".

We in the State of Washington are greatly honored and justly proud of the fact that some of the greatest painters and poets and other artists of the nation reside in our State, or have been educated here.

This bill is approved with the exception of section 8 which provides that no funds from the Governor's emergency fund shall be expended in carrying out the provisions of this Act. I would like to call the attention of the members of the Legislature to the fact that only recently, President Kennedy honored one of the great poets of this nation by having him deliver a poem at his inauguration. There may be need to utilize a small sum from my emergency fund for the purpose of supplying to the Arts Commission stationery, stamps, and the services of a part-time secretary. I believe the attitude of some of the Legislators in attempting to prevent me from utilizing a small amount from my emergency fund for the purposes indicated is short-sighted, and betrays a Philistine attitude unbecoming the representatives of a great state. By disallowing me to utilize a very small portion of state funds for the purpose indicated you would in effect put the artists into a position of a second class citizen. This I will not allow.

Let us be ever mindful that in centuries to come, when the labors of statesmen and legislators have become dust and ashes, the creative genius of our artists alone may survive. Let us, therefore, treat them with the respect that is due them by virtue of their creative ability.

For the reasons indicated, section 8 is vetoed. The remainder of the bill is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) ALBERT D. ROSELLINI,
Governor.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval as to an item of one section, House Bill No. 247 entitled:

“Regulating milk and milk products used for animal food.”

At the present time the law requires that milk used for human consumption, or milk intended to be utilized in products used for human consumption, is produced under the most exacting standards of sanitation and care to avoid contamination of milk, milk products, and to prevent epidemics which might be caused through such contamination.

It has come to my attention that milk produced pursuant to lower standards of sanitation and care, and intended solely for the pet animal market, has on occasion been sold for human consumption and for the production of milk products intended for the human market.

The Department of Agriculture prepared the instant Act to avoid the evil of allowing milk proper for the animal market, to be utilized for human consumption. As a result, the health and welfare of our citizens will be protected in the future.

When this bill was considered by the Senate, the following amendment was adopted to section 17 of the Act:

“, and shall not apply to a gift or sale of raw milk by a farmer on his own premises to a person who brings his own container and takes it away.”

This amendment in effect would seriously cripple the laudable purpose of the bill by allowing milk produced for the pet animal market to be sold for human consumption.

For the reasons indicated I veto the amendment made to section 17 of the Act. The remainder of the bill is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) ALBERT D. ROSELLINI,
Governor.

The House of Representatives of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State)

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am filing herewith, to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval as to one section, House Bill No. 248 entitled:

“Relating to judges’ retirement system.”

Section 1 of House Bill No. 248 makes a supreme court justice, or a judge of the superior court, eligible for retirement on a partial pension after 12 years of service, or after having reached the age of 70 years.

Section 2 allows judges after 18 years’ service, 1/18th additional pension for each year served after 18 years up to a maximum of 75% of the salary received by a judge at the time of retirement.

Section 3 permits a widow who has been married for 3 years previous to the judge’s retirement, to receive ½ of the pension of the retired judge. This section also strikes the provision which would have reduced pension benefits payable to a judge’s widow by any amount received by the widow pursuant to O.A.S.I. or other state or Federal law. This section also allows the widow to receive one-half of the pension to which a judge, under this new bill, becomes entitled after having served 12 years on the bench, or after having reached the age of 70 years.

Believing as I do in a strong, independent, and adequately compensated judiciary, I commend the members of the Legislature in having made the improvements outlined in the preceding paragraphs. These improvements will unquestionably result in experienced judges remaining on the bench subsequent to the time when they would be entitled to retire. Thus, the State will benefit by being able to avail itself for a longer period of time, of the experience and wisdom that these judges have acquired after serving on the bench for 18 years. In addition, these provisions will result in economy because it costs less to keep on the bench an experienced judge, than to pay a retirement pension and at the same time replace the retired judge with a new one.

This bill is approved with the exception of section 4 which is vetoed. Section 4 provides that the pension of a retired judge shall be reduced by any amount received under social security. In the first place, I am convinced that section 4 is unconstitutional because the pension rights involved here are contractual in nature and become vested at the time a judge ascends to the bench. Thus the Legislature, with reference to all judges now serving, cannot constitutionally alter the provisions of the existing contract between the State and the members of the judiciary.

Secondly, I recognize that the contribution which the State makes to the judge's pension is really in the nature of compensation for services previously rendered for which full and adequate compensation was not received at the time of the rendition of the service. In order to attract in the future, able practitioners of the bar, it is necessary to provide adequate economic inducements. Many capable lawyers have refused to enter the judicial service because of the financial sacrifice involved. To compensate for these sacrifices, a system of liberal pensions is indispensable. The State of Washington permits all state employees to receive in addition to state retirement benefits, O.A.S.I. benefits. It would be discriminatory against the judges not to allow them to receive these benefits.

Thirdly, the contributions made by the judges to social security are made solely at their own expense. If the judges have elected to avail themselves of O.A.S.I. benefits, and are willing to pay for these benefits out of their own pockets, it would be unfair and discriminatory for you to deprive them of these benefits.

For the reasons indicated, I veto section 4. The remainder of the bill is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) ALBERT D. ROSELLINI,

Governor.

To the Honorable,

The House of Representatives of the State of Washington
(Through the Secretary of State)

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am filing herewith, to be transmitted to the House of Representatives at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval as to sections 1, 2, and 3, House Bill No. 455 entitled:

"Relating to cities and towns."

This Bill as amended would permit, on original incorporation proceedings, cities of the 4th class to include within the area of proposed incorporation, practically unlimited territories within a county. The law dealing with the powers of 4th class cities, was originally passed during the 1889-1890 Legislative session (Chapter 7, section 15, page 141). It provides that cities of the 4th class upon original incorporation, or in annexation proceedings, cannot include more than one square mile of territory. This law likewise prohibits 4th class cities from including more than 20 acres of unplatted lands belonging to any one owner without the consent of such owner.

I am fully aware of the fact that the proponents of sections 1, 2, and 3 of this bill have many excellent arguments in favor why these sections should not be vetoed. Thus I sympathize with the view of the Fife School Districts which takes the position that if the City of Tacoma were to annex the area belonging to the Port of Tacoma, the tax base of the school district would be jeopardized. I also realize that there is some doubt as to whether or not by vetoing sections 1, 2, and 3 of this bill, section 5 thereof, validating previous annexations, can stand.

On the other hand, the Association of Washington Cities has recommended that I veto sections 1, 2, and 3. This Association to my mind is the most authoritative source of information available to me with reference to problems related to cities and towns.
