(6) To solicit and accept applications from managed health care systems, as defined in this chapter, for inclusion as eligible basic health care providers under the plan. The board shall endeavor to assure that covered basic health care services are available to any enrollee of the plan from among a selection of two or more participating managed health care systems. In adopting any rules or procedures applicable to managed health care systems and in its dealings with such systems, the board shall consider and make suitable allowance for the need for health care services and the differences in local availability of health care resources, along with other resources, within and among the several areas of the state.

(7) To receive periodic premiums from enrollees, deposit them in the basic health plan operating account, keep records of enrollee status, and authorize periodic payments to managed health care systems on the basis of the number of enrollees participating in the respective managed health care systems.

(8) To accept applications from individuals residing in areas served by the plan, on behalf of themselves and their spouses and dependent children, for enrollment in the Washington basic health plan, to establish appropriate minimum-enrollment periods for enrollees as may be necessary, and to determine, upon application and at least annually thereafter, or at the request of any enrollee, eligibility due to current gross family income for sliding scale premiums. An enrollee who remains current in payment of the sliding-scale premium, as determined by the board under subsection (2) of this section, and whose gross family income has risen above twice the federal poverty level, may continue enrollment unless and until the enrollee's gross family income has remained above twice the poverty level for six consecutive months, by making payment at the unsubsidized rate required for the managed health care system in which he or she may be enrolled. No subsidy may be paid with respect to any enrollee whose current gross family income exceeds twice the federal poverty level or, subject to section 15 of this act, who is a recipient of medical assistance or medical care services under chapter 74.09 RCW. In the event a number of enrollees drop their enrollment for no apparent good cause, the board may establish appropriate rules or requirements that are applicable to such individuals before they will be allowed to re-enroll in the plan.

(9) To require that prospective enrollees who may be eligible for categorically needy medical coverage under RCW 74.09.510 or whose income does not exceed the medically needy income level under RCW 74.09.700 apply for such coverage, but the board shall enroll the individuals in the plan pending the determination of eligibility under chapter 74.09 RCW.

(10) To determine the rate to be paid to each participating managed health care system in return for the provision of covered basic health care services to enrollees in the system. Although the schedule of covered basic health care services will be the same for similar enrollees, the rates negotiated with participating managed health care systems may vary among the systems. In negotiating rates with participating systems, the board shall consider the characteristics of the populations served by the respective systems, economic circumstances of the local area, the need to conserve the resources of the basic health plan trust account, and other factors the board finds relevant.

(11) To monitor the provision of covered services to enrollees by participating managed health care systems in order to assure enrollee access to good quality basic health care, to require periodic data reports concerning the utilization of health care services rendered to enrollees in order to provide adequate information for evaluation, and to inspect the books and records of participating managed health care systems to assure compliance with the purposes of this chapter. In requiring reports from participating managed health care systems, including data on services rendered enrollees, the board shall endeavor to minimize costs, both to the managed health care systems and to the board. The board shall coordinate any such reporting requirements with other state agencies, such as the insurance commissioner and the hospital commission, to minimize duplication of effort.

(12) To monitor the access that state residents have to adequate and necessary health care services, determine the extent of any unmet needs for such services or lack of access that may exist from time to time, and make such reports and recommendations to the legislature as it deems appropriate.

(13) To evaluate the effects this chapter has on private employer-based health care coverage and to take appropriate measures consistent with state and federal statutes that will discourage the reduction of such coverage in the state.

(14) To develop a program of proven preventive health measures and to integrate it into the plan wherever possible and consistent with this chapter.

(15) To provide, consistent with available resources, technical assistance for rural health activities that endeavor to develop needed health care services in rural parts of the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The benefits available under the plan shall be subject to RCW 48.21.200 and shall be excess to the benefits payable under the terms of any insurance policy issued to or on the behalf of an enrollee that provides payments toward medical expenses without a determination of liability for the injury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. On and after July 1, 1988, the board shall accept for enrollment applicants eligible to receive covered basic health care services from the respective managed health care systems which are then participating in the plan. The board shall not allow the total enrollment of those eligible for subsidies to exceed thirty thousand.

Hereafter, total enrollment shall not exceed the number established by the legislature in any act appropriating funds to the board from the trust account.

Before July 1, 1988, the board shall endeavor to secure participation contracts from managed health care systems in discrete geographic areas within at least five congressional districts of the state and in such manner as to allow residents of both urban and rural areas access to enrollment in the plan.

The board shall at all times closely monitor growth patterns of enrollment so as not to exceed that consistent with the orderly development of the plan as a whole, in any area of the state or in any participating managed health care system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Any enrollee whose premium payments to the board are delinquent or who moves his or her residence out of an area served by the plan may be dropped from enrollment status. An enrollee whose premium is the responsibility of the department of social and health services under section 15 of this act may not be dropped solely because of nonpayment by the department. The board shall provide delinquent enrollees with advance written notice of their removal from the plan and shall provide for a hearing under chapters 34.04 and 34.12 RCW for any enrollee who contests the board's decision to drop the enrollee from the plan. Upon removal of an enrollee from the plan, the board shall promptly notify the managed health care system in which the enrollee has been enrolled, and shall not be responsible for payment for health care services provided to the enrollee (including, if applicable, members of the enrollee's family) after the date of notification. A managed health care system may contest the denial of payment for coverage of an enrollee through a hearing under chapters 34.04 and 34.12 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Managed health care systems participating in the plan shall do so by contract with the board and shall provide, directly or by contract with other health care providers, covered basic health care services to each enrollee as long as payments from the board on behalf of the enrollee are current. A participating managed health care system may offer, without additional cost, health care benefits or services not included in the schedule of covered services under the plan. A participating managed health care system shall not give preference in enrollment to enrollees who accept such additional health care benefits or services. Managed health care systems participating in the plan shall not discriminate against any potential or current enrollee based upon health status, sex, race, ethnicity, or religion. The board may receive and act upon complaints from enrollees regarding failure to provide covered services or efforts to obtain payment, other than authorized copayments, for covered services directly from enrollees, but nothing in this chapter empowers the board to impose any sanctions under Title 18 RCW or any other professional or facility licensing statute.

The plan shall allow, at least annually, an opportunity for enrollees to transfer their enrollments among participating managed health care systems serving their respective areas. The board shall establish a period of at least twenty days in a given year when this opportunity is afforded enrollees, and in those areas served by more than one participating managed health care system the board shall endeavor to establish a uniform period for such opportunity. The plan shall allow enrollees to transfer their enrollment to another participating managed health care system at any time upon a showing of good cause for the transfer.

Any contract between a hospital and a participating managed health care system under this chapter is subject to the requirements of RCW 70.39.140(1) regarding negotiated rates.

Prior to negotiating with any managed health care system, the board shall determine, on an actuarially sound basis, the reasonable cost of providing the schedule of basic health care services, expressed in terms of upper and lower limits, and recognizing variations in the cost of providing the services through the various systems and in different areas of the state. In negotiating with managed health care systems for participation in the plan, the board shall adopt a uniform procedure that includes at least the following:

(1) The board shall issue a request for proposals, including standards regarding the quality of services to be provided; financial integrity of the responding systems; and responsiveness to the unmet health care needs of the local communities or populations that may be served;

(2) The board shall then review responsive proposals and may negotiate with respondents to the extent necessary to refine any proposals;

(3) The board may then select one or more systems to provide the covered services within a local area; and

(4) The board may adopt a policy that gives preference to respondents, such as nonprofit community health clinics, that have a history of providing quality health care services to low-income persons.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The department of social and health services shall make periodic payments to the board as an agent for the participating managed health care systems on behalf of any enrollee who is a recipient of medical assistance, medical care-limited casualty program, or medical care services under chapter 74.09 RCW, at the maximum rate allowable for federal matching purposes under Title XIX of the social security act, but not to exceed the rate negotiated by the board with the participating managed health care system for the services covered by the plan, and no premium or copayment may be charged to such an enrollee. Any enrollee on whose behalf the department of social and health services makes payments to the board under this section and chapter 74.09 RCW may continue as an enrollee, making premium payments based on the enrollee's own income as determined under the sliding scale, after eligibility for coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW has ended, as long as the enrollee remains eligible under this chapter. Nothing in this section affects the right of any person eligible for coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW to receive the services offered to other persons under that chapter but not included in the schedule of basic health care services covered by the plan. The board and the department of social and health services shall cooperatively adopt procedures to facilitate the transition of plan enrollees and payments on their behalf between the plan and the programs established under chapter 74.09 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. In addition to the powers and duties specified in sections 8 and 10 of this act, the board has the power to enter into contracts for the following functions and services:

(1) With public or private agencies, to assist the board in its duties to design or revise the schedule of covered basic health care services, and/or to monitor or evaluate the performance of participating managed health care systems.

(2) With public or private agencies, to provide technical or professional assistance to health care providers, particularly public or private nonprofit organizations and providers serving rural areas, who show serious intent and apparent capability to participate in the plan as managed health care systems.

(3) With public or private agencies, including health care service contractors registered under RCW 48.44.015, and doing business in the state, for marketing and administrative services in connection with participation of managed health care systems, enrollment of enrollees, billing and collection services to the board, and other administrative functions ordinarily performed by health care service contractors, other than insurance. Any activities of a health care service contractor pursuant to a contract with the board under this section shall be exempt from the provisions and requirements of Title 48 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The activities and operations of the Washington basic health plan under this chapter, including those of managed health care systems to the extent of their participation in the plan, are exempt from the provisions and requirements of Title 48 RCW, except as provided in section 11 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. A new section is added to chapter 50.20 RCW to read as follows:
The commissioner shall notify any person filing a claim under this chapter who resides in a local area served by the Washington basic health plan of the availability of basic health care coverage to qualified enrollees in the Washington basic health plan under chapter 70.-- RCW (sections 1 through 17 of this act), unless the Washington basic health plan board has notified the commissioner of a closure of enrollment in the area. The commissioner shall maintain a supply of Washington basic health plan enrollment application forms, which shall be provided in reasonably necessary quantities by the board, in each appropriate employment service office for the use of persons wishing to apply for enrollment in the Washington basic health plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. A new section is added to chapter 51.28 RCW to read as follows:

The director shall notify persons receiving time-loss payments under this chapter of the availability of basic health care coverage to qualified enrollees under chapter 70.-- RCW (sections 1 through 17 of this act), unless the Washington basic health plan board has notified the director of closure of enrollment in the plan. The director shall maintain supplies of Washington basic health plan enrollment application forms in all field service offices where the plan is available, which shall be provided in reasonably necessary quantities by the board for the use of persons wishing to apply for enrollment in the Washington basic health plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. A new section is added to chapter 74.04 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall notify any applicant for public assistance who resides in a local area served by the Washington basic health plan and is under sixty-five years of age of the availability of basic health care coverage to qualified enrollees in the Washington basic health plan under chapter 70.-- RCW (sections 1 through 17 of this act), unless the Washington basic health plan board has notified the department of a closure of enrollment in the area. The department shall maintain a supply of Washington basic health plan enrollment application forms, which shall be provided in reasonably necessary quantities by the board, in each appropriate community service office for the use of persons wishing to apply for enrollment in the Washington basic health plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. The Washington basic health plan board shall be appointed and commence operations as promptly as practicable after the effective date of this section. Not later than January 1, 1988, the board shall submit to the legislature a progress report including:

(1) The schedule of covered basic health care services adopted under section 10 of this act;

(2) A descriptive listing of managed health care systems expected to participate in the Washington basic health plan, along with an identification of prospective local areas for initial participation in the plan;

(3) The approximate amount of funds estimated to be on deposit in the basic health plan trust account as of March 31 and June 30, 1988;

(4) A description of the sliding fee schedule for enrollee premium payments and copayments adopted by the board under section 10 of this act;

(5) Any proposals for statutory changes which the board deems necessary to implement the purposes of this chapter; and

(6) Any other information which the board deems appropriate.

Not later than January 1, 1989, the board shall submit to the legislature a further progress report, updating its 1988 report, and covering the same items provided for therein, with projections based upon implementation of the plan to date. Further, the report shall include a description of the performance of the first managed health care systems included as eligible providers as provided in section 12 of this act. The board shall submit an annual report to the legislature by January 1 of each year thereafter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. A new section is added to chapter 74.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department of social and health services shall, to the extent that funds are specifically appropriated for this purpose, provide matching grants on a one-to-one state/local basis to hospitals that are designated by the hospital commission as meeting all of the following criteria:

(a) Providing an amount of charity care equal to or greater than two hundred fifty percent of the state average;

(b) A tertiary care center; and

(c) Providing ten percent of the tertiary care to patients from outside the county in which the hospital is located.

(2) Grants shall be allocated to eligible hospitals based on the hospital's relative amount of charity care.

(3) Local matching funds shall be from a nonrate-setting revenue source as defined by the hospital commission.

(4) The department shall seek matching federal Title XIX medicaid funds pursuant to the "disproportionate share" provisions of the federal social security act. If necessary to obtain federal funds, the department may use the following provision in lieu of those set forth in subsections (1), (2), and (3) of this section: A hospital is eligible for a grant if it is designated by the hospital commission as having medical assistance charges exceeding twenty percent of the hospital's total rate-setting revenue during the preceding calendar year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. Sections 1 through 17 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. A new section is added to chapter 43.131 RCW to read as follows:

The Washington basic health plan board and its powers and duties shall be terminated on June 30, 1992, as provided in section 25 of this act.

Renumber the subsections accordingly.

On page 27, after line 30, insert the following:

The department of social and health services shall conduct an evaluation of the financial viability of those hospitals with a catchment area that is largely rural and, by January 1, 1989, provide the legislature with a report including recommendations or options that might be adopted that would assist such communities in preserving those valuable resources."

Renumber the sections consecutively.

Senator Wojahn moved that the following amendment to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

On page 26, beginning on line 23, strike all material down to and including "year." on page 27, line 30

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Nelson: "Senator McDermott, just to clarify what this section of the measure is purported to do, I would ask you to look at Section 22, line 26 and then lines 27, 28 and 29. This is a two part question. Senator McDermott, it says that these particular monies will be given by the Department of Social and Health Services, quote 'to the extent that funds are specifically appropriated for this purpose.' The first question is, appropriated by whom? Is that intended to be an appropriation by the Legislature or via Social and Health Services under some particular division of that Department? Then, the second question is, have we, at any point, during the budget process thus far, made any specific appropriation that would conform to this section?"

Senator McDermott: "The first part of your question, there has to be an appropriation of money and that is in this bill. There is twenty-three million dollars at the end of the bill, so that money is in the appropriation. The other part of it is--the second part of your question, repeat that again for me."

Senator Nelson: "I think you have answered the second part as well, because what I am trying to figure out is, where the money would be appropriated. If it's to be a part of this measure, or part of the regular budget, then I guess a follow-up question would be, subsequent to the passing of this bill, would it not then require that future Legislatures continue to appropriate and specifically designate money for the purpose of this section?"

Senator McDermott: "If there is going to a further carrying on of this program--it's not something that goes on automatically--it would have to be appropriated in the future, as well."

Senator Nelson: "But, as I understand it, the money is appropriated in this measure to specifically give dollars on a matching basis under Section 22 to the hospitals that would qualify."

Senator McDermott: "That's correct, Senator."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Smitherman: "Senator McDermott, in discussing those criteria that you had for the amount of charity care and so on, are there any hospitals outside the two that you listed that would fall within the range where they would be eligible for funds?"

Senator McDermott: "We looked at the hospitals in the state and the criteria, first of all the two hundred and fifty percent above the state average in charity care; secondly, a tertiary care center and finally, provides ten percent of tertiary care for patients outside the county. So, there are three criteria and to our knowledge that is really only two hospitals at this point and as things get worse, it might surprise us all how many hospitals wind up with two hundred and fifty percent priorities, or two hundred and fifty percent above the state average. The tertiary care question would be a very limited number of hospitals that could ever qualify if that criteria were left in. You are really talking about hospitals that use very high level care--hi tech kinds of medicine that are very expensive. We are talking about $1,000 to $1,500 a day for a bed--those kinds of operations and there are very few in the state."

Senator Smitherman: "Senator McDermott, I was wondering if you could answer another question? Did any hospital contact you and say, 'hey, we specifically want to be included or excluded from this' or anything like that? Was there contact by them saying, 'hey we'd like to be in this bill?'"

Senator McDermott: "This provision was added in the House. It came in the House Bill. Nobody has contacted me since this bill has been in the Senate and asked to be added."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Wojahn to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

The motion by Senator Wojahn failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Sellar, the following amendment to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment was adopted:

On page 6, line 4, after "services" insert "and one member shall have expertise in health care benefit design, as well as the administration of a health care benefits program by private employers."

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, beginning on line 1 of the title, after "health care;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding new sections to chapter 43.131 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 50.20 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 51.28 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 74.04 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 74.09 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 70 RCW; creating new sections; making appropriations; and declaring an emergency."

MOTION

On motion of Senator McDermott, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 477, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Moore: "Senator Zimmerman, what would you consider to be a reasonable length of time to negotiate and work on this type of legislation?"

Senator Zimmerman: "The budget is what we are talking about. Senator McDermott is the best qualified."

Senator Moore: "Senator Zimmerman, I am speaking about the bill that we have before us and to which you alluded."

Senator Zimmerman: "This bill should be part of the total negotiations going on in regard to the budget. It should be part of that total picture. Hopefully, it will be."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 477, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 477, as amended by the Senate, and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 24; nays, 23; absent, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Boltiger, Conner, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Kreidler, McDermott, Moore, Owen, Peterson, Rinehart, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 24.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Deccio, Hayner, Johnson, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Nelson, Newhouse, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Saling, Sellar, von Reichbauer, West, Zimmerman - 23.

Absent: Senators Barr, Kiskaddon - 2.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 477, as amended by the Senate, having failed to receive the constitutional majority, was declared lost.

NOTICE FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Newhouse served notice that he would move to reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 477, as amended by the Senate, failed to pass the Senate.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 498, by Committee on Commerce and Labor (originally sponsored by Representatives Sayan, Patrick, Wang, Winsley, Fisch, Day, Walker, Vekich, R. King and Dellwo)

Changing provisions relating to collective bargaining for fire fighters and emergency medical personnel.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Cantu moved that the following amendment be adopted:
On page 2, line 15, after "employed" insert "on a fulltime basis"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Senator Cantu, under the intent of your amendment, if an individual is working, we'll say, six hours a day on a regular schedule, so they were regularly employed on a regular schedule, but only working six hours a day, thirty hours a week, would they qualify under this wording?"

Senator Cantu: "Yes, Senator Vognild, they would. My intent on fulltime is someone, they don't necessarily have to work eight hours, but they would be a regularly scheduled employee that would be there all the time, so they would be covered."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Cantu.

The motion by Senator Cantu carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Warnke, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 498, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Anderson: "Senator Vognild, I had a call from my city personnel director in Bellingham and I had passed the question on to you and I wanted to know if the people that we take under this bill--the dispatchers--are part of a bargaining unit? Do just the dispatchers then have the binding arbitration in that unit, or does the whole unit become a binding arbitration unit?"

Senator Vognild: "Senator Anderson, I was unable to determine exactly what type of a structure of dispatching that they have. If the dispatchers involved are, in fact, regular employees of the fire department, they would be covered. Now, the only operation that I know of that operates in that manner--if the city through the fire department operates the dispatching center and nobody is there except the dispatchers, yes, they would be. If they are operating a separate dispatching department, if you will, then they would not be regular employees of the fire department. Therefore, none of them would be covered under this. We are only talking about that narrow group who are covered as regular employees of a fire department."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senators Barr and Kiskaddon were excused. The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 498, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Smitherman, Stratton, Talmadge, Tanner, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn - 30.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Deccio, Hayner, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Nelson, Newhouse, Patterson, Sellar, Zimmerman - 17.

Excused: Senators Barr, Kiskaddon - 2.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 498, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Owen, the rules were suspended. Substitute House Bill No. 522 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

MOTION

Senator Hansen moved that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 5159 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Hansen, I haven't checked the amendment, but all they're saying is to up their fares 'a little bit and they still can have a subsidy. What is the fare now on this ferry?"

Senator Hansen: "I guarantee it is as high as any of the fares we have on our state ferries and if you try to crowd them up anymore--their mail there--they have to use it. It's as bad as being on the Island. It's not like the county ferries that you have in your area where they are already getting gas tax money for that purpose, so this is a unique situation. It's a state highway and there are a few other considerations that tie in between Washington and Oregon. I really think they should have a break on that."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Hansen that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 5159 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

(2) A contractor found to have received either overpayments or erroneous payments under a preliminary or final settlement shall refund such payments to the state within thirty days after the date the preliminary or final settlement report is submitted to the contractor, subject to the provisions of subsections (3), (4), and (7) of this section.

(3) Within the cost centers of nursing services and food, all savings resulting from the respective allowable costs being lower than the respective reimbursement rate paid to the contractor during the report period shall be refunded. In computing a preliminary or final settlement, savings in a cost center may be shifted to cover a deficit in another cost center up to the amount of any savings: PROVIDED, That not more than twenty percent of the rate in a cost center may be shifted into that cost center and no shifting may be made into the property cost center: PROVIDED FURTHER, That there shall be no shifting out of nursing services, and savings in food shall be shifted only to cover deficits in the nursing services cost center.

(4) Within the cost centers of administration and operations and property, the contractor shall retain at least fifty percent, but not more than seventy-five percent, of any savings resulting from the respective audited allowable costs being lower than the respective reimbursement rates paid to the contractor during the report period multiplied by the number of authorized medical care client days in which said rates were in effect, except that no savings may be retained if reported costs in the property cost center and the administration and operations cost center exceed audited allowable costs by ten cents or more per patient day. The secretary, by rule and regulation, shall establish the basis for the specific percentages of savings to the contractors. Such rules and regulations may provide for differences in the percentages allowed for each cost center to individual facilities based on performance measures related to administrative efficiency.

(5) All allowances provided by RCW 74.46.530 shall be retained by the contractor. Any industrial insurance dividend or premium discount under RCW 51.16.035 shall be retained by the contractor to the extent that such dividend or premium discount is attributable to the contractor's private patients.

(6) In the event the contractor fails to make repayment in the time provided in subsection (2) of this section, the department shall either:

(a) Deduct the amount of refund due plus assessment of interest, as determined by the secretary, from payment amounts due the contractor; or

(b) In the instance the contract has been terminated, (i) deduct the amount of refund due plus an assessment of interest, determined by the secretary, from any payments due; or (ii) assess the amount due plus interest, as determined by the secretary, on the amount due.

(7) Where the facility is pursuing timely-filed judicial or administrative remedies in good faith regarding settlement issues, the contractor need not refund nor shall the department withhold from the facility current payment amounts the department claims to be due from the facility but which are specifically disputed by the contractor. If the judicial or administrative remedy sought by the facility is not granted after all appeals are exhausted or mutually terminated, the facility shall make payment of such amounts due plus interest accrued from the date of filing of the appeal, as payable on judgments, within sixty days of the date such decision is made.

Sec. 2. Section 43, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 19, chapter 67, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.46.430 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department, as provided by this chapter, will determine prospective cost-related reimbursement rates for services provided to medical care recipients. Each rate so determined shall represent the contractor's maximum compensation within each cost center for each patient day for such medical care recipient.

(2) As required, the department may modify such maximum per patient day rates pursuant to the administrative review provisions of RCW 74.46.780.

(3) Until the effective date of RCW 74.46.510 and 74.46.530, the maximum prospective reimbursement rates for the administration and operations and the property cost centers shall be established based upon a minimum facility occupancy level of eighty-five percent.

(4) On and after the effective date of RCW 74.46.510 and 74.46.530, the maximum prospective reimbursement rates for the administration and operations and the property cost centers and the return on investment allowance shall be established based upon a minimum facility occupancy level of eighty-five percent.

(5) All contractors shall be required to adjust and maintain wages for all employees to a minimum hourly wage established by the legislature in the biennial appropriations act, if the legislature appropriates moneys to fund prospectively the portion of the minimum wage attributable to services to medicaid patients. Prospective rate revisions to fund any minimum wage increases shall be made only on the dates authorized in the appropriation act. A portion of this legislative appropriation shall be used to enhance nonadministrative wages and benefits above the moneys necessary to fund the minimum wage specified in this section. The department in considering reimbursement for legislatively authorized wage enhancements will take into consideration facility wage history over the past three cost report periods.

Sec. 3. Section 46, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 as last amended by section 15, chapter 361, Laws of 1985 and RCW 74.46.460 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each contractor's reimbursement rates will be determined prospectively at least once each calendar year, to be effective July 1st.

(2) Rates may be adjusted as determined by the department to take into account variations ~~((of more than ten percent))~~ in the distribution of patient classifications or changes in patient characteristics from the prior reporting year, program changes required by the department, or changes in staffing levels at a facility required by the department. Rates shall be adjusted by the amount of legislatively authorized enhancements in accordance with RCW 74.46.430(5) and 74.46.470(2). Rates may also be adjusted to cover costs associated with placing a nursing home in receivership which costs are not covered by the rate of the former contractor, including: Compensation of the receiver, reasonable expenses of receivership and transition of control, and costs incurred by the receiver in carrying out court instructions or rectifying deficiencies found. Rates shall be adjusted for any capitalized additions or replacements made as a condition for licensure or certification. Rates shall be adjusted for capitalized improvements done under section 8 of this 1987 act.

(3) Where the contractor participated in the provisions of prospective cost-related reimbursement in effect prior to July 1, 1983, such contractor's prospective rate effective July 1, 1983, will be determined utilizing the contractor's desk-reviewed allowable costs for calendar year 1982.

(4) All prospective reimbursement rates for 1984 and thereafter shall be determined utilizing the prior year's desk-reviewed cost reports.

Sec. 4. Section 47, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 22, chapter 67, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.46.470 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A contractor's reimbursement rates for medical care recipients will be determined utilizing desk-reviewed cost report data within the following cost centers:

~~((1))~~ (a) Nursing services;

~~((2))~~ (b) Food;

~~((3))~~ (c) Administration and operations; and

~~((4))~~ (d) Property.

(2) There shall be an enhancement cost center established to reimburse contractors for specific legislatively authorized enhancements for nonadministrative wages and benefits to ensure that such enhancements are used exclusively for the legislatively authorized purposes. For purposes of settlement, funds appropriated to this cost center shall only be used for expenditures for which the legislative authorization is granted. Such funds may be used only in the following circumstances:

(a) The contractor has increased expenditures for which legislative authorization is granted to at least the highest level paid in any of the last three cost years, plus, beginning July 1, 1987, any percentage inflation adjustment granted each year under RCW 74.46.495; and

(b) All funds shifted from the enhancement cost center are shown to have been expended for legislatively authorized enhancements.

(3) If the contractor does not spend the amount appropriated to this cost center in the legislatively authorized manner, then the amounts not appropriately spent shall be recouped at preliminary or final settlement pursuant to RCW 74.46.160.

(4) For purposes of this section, "nonadministrative wages and benefits" means wages and payroll taxes paid with respect to, and the employer share of the cost of benefits provided to, employees in job classes specified in an appropriation, which may not include administrators, assistant administrators, or administrators in training.

(5) Amounts expended in the enhancement cost center in excess of the minimum wage established under RCW 74.46.430 are subject to all provisions contained in this chapter.

Sec. 5. Section 24, chapter 67, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.46.481 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The nursing services cost center shall include all costs related to the direct provision of nursing and related care, including fringe benefits and payroll taxes for the nursing and related care personnel. For rates effective for state fiscal year 1984, the department shall adopt by administrative rule a definition of "related care" which shall incorporate, but not exceed services reimbursable as of June 30, 1983. For rates effective for state fiscal year 1985, the definition of related care shall include ancillary care.

(2) The department shall adopt by administrative rules a method for establishing a nursing services cost center rate consistent with the principles stated in this section.

(3) Utilizing regression or other statistical technique, the department shall determine a reasonable limit on facility nursing staff taking into account facility patient characteristics. For purposes of this section, facility nursing staff refers to registered nurses, licensed practical nurses and nursing assistants employed by the facility or obtained through temporary labor contract arrangements. Effective January 1, 1988, the hours associated with the training of nursing assistants and the supervision of that training for nursing assistants shall not be included in the calculation of facility nursing staff. In selecting a measure of patient characteristics, the department shall take into account:

(a) The correlation between alternative measures and facility nursing staff; and

(b) The cost of collecting information for and computation of a measure.

If regression is used, the limit shall be set at predicted nursing staff plus 1.75 regression standard errors. If another statistical method is utilized, the limit shall be set at a level corresponding to 1.75 standard errors above predicted staffing computed according to a regression procedure.

(4) No facility shall receive reimbursement for nursing staff levels in excess of the limit, except that, if a facility was reimbursed for a nursing staff level in excess of the limit as of June 30, 1983, the facility may choose to continue to receive its June, 1983 nursing services rate plus any adjustments in rates, such as adjustments for economic trends, made available to all facilities. The reasonableness limit established pursuant to this subsection shall remain in effect for the period July 1, 1983 through June 30, 1985. At that time the department may revise the measure of patient characteristics or method used to establish the limit.

(5) The department shall select an index of cost increase relevant to the nursing and related services cost area. In the absence of a more representative index, the department shall use the medical care component index as maintained by the United States bureau of labor statistics.

(6) If a facility's nursing staff level is below the limit specified in subsection (3) of this section, the department shall determine the percentage increase for all items included in the nursing services cost center between the facility's most recent cost reporting period and the next prior cost reporting period.

(a) If the percentage cost increase for a facility is below the increase in the selected index for the same time period, the facility's reimbursement rate in the nursing services cost center shall equal the facility's cost from the most recent cost reporting period plus any allowance for inflation provided by legislative appropriation.

(b) If the percentage cost increase for a facility exceeds the increase in the selected index, the department shall limit the cost used for setting the facility's rate in the nursing services cost area to a level reflecting the increase in the selected index.

(7) If the facility's nursing staff level exceeds the reasonableness limit established in subsection (3) of this section, the department shall determine the increase for all items included in the nursing services cost center between the facility's most recent cost reporting period and the next prior cost reporting period.

(a) If the percentage cost increase for a facility is below the increase in the index selected pursuant to subsection (5) of this section, the facility's reimbursement rate in the nursing cost center shall equal the facility's cost from the most recent cost reporting period adjusted downward to reflect the limit on nursing staff, plus any allowance for inflation provided by legislative appropriation subject to the provisions of subsection (4) of this section.

(b) If the percentage cost increase for a facility exceeds the increase in the selected index, the department shall limit the cost used for setting the facility's rate in the nursing services cost center to a level reflecting the nursing staff limit and the cost increase limit, subject to the provisions of subsection (4) of this section, plus any allowance for inflation provided by legislative appropriation.

(8) The department is authorized to determine on a systematic basis facilities with unmet patient care service needs. The department may increase the nursing services cost center prospective rate for a facility beyond the level determined in accordance with subsection (6) of this section if the facility's actual and reported nursing staffing is one standard error or more below predicted staffing as determined according to the method selected pursuant to subsection (3) of this section and the facility has unmet patient care service needs: PROVIDED, That prospective rate increases authorized by this subsection shall be funded only from legislative appropriations made for this purpose and the increases shall be conditioned on specified improvements in patient care at such facilities.

(9) The department shall establish a method for identifying patients with exceptional care requirements and a method for establishing or negotiating on a consistent basis rates for such patients.

(10) The department, in consultation with interested parties, shall adopt rules to establish the criteria the department will use in reviewing any requests by a contractor for a prospective rate adjustment to be used to increase the number of nursing staff. These rules shall also specify the time period for submission and review of staffing requests: PROVIDED, That a decision on a staffing request shall not take longer than sixty days from the date the department receives such a complete request. In establishing the criteria, the department may consider, but is not limited to, the following:

(a) Increases in acuity levels of contractors' residents;

(b) Staffing patterns for similar facilities;

(c) Physical plant of contractor; and promulgated by the board, which program must be completed within six months of employment. NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 74.46 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department, in consultation with interested parties, shall adopt rules to establish criteria the department will use in reviewing any request by a contractor for a prospective rate adjustment for a physical plant capital improvement. The rules shall also specify the time periods for submission and review of proposed physical plant capital improvements. In establishing the criteria, the department may consider, but is not limited to, the following:

(a) The remaining functional life of the facility and the length of time since the facility's last significant improvement;

(b) The amount and scope of renovation or remodel to the facility and whether the facility will be able to serve better the needs of its residents;

(c) Whether the proposed improvement improves the quality of the living conditions of the residents;

(d) Whether the proposed improvement might eliminate life safety, building code, or construction standard waivers;

(e) The percentage of public-pay residents in the facility.

(2) Rate adjustments under this section may be provided only if funds are appropriated for this purpose.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The legislature finds that the closure of a nursing home can have devastating effects on residents and, under certain circumstances, courts should consider placing nursing homes in receivership. As receivership has long existed as a remedy to preserve assets subject to litigation and to reorganize troubled affairs, the legislature finds that receivership is to be used to correct problems associated with either the disregard of residents' health, safety, or welfare or with the possible closure of the nursing home for any reason.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A petition to establish a receivership shall allege that one or more of the following conditions exist and that the current operator has demonstrated an inability or unwillingness to take actions necessary to correct the conditions alleged:

(1) The facility is operating without a license;

(2) The facility has not given the department prior written notice of its intent to close and has not made arrangements within thirty days before closure for the orderly transfer of its residents: PROVIDED, That if the facility has given the department prior written notice but the department has not acted with all deliberate speed to transfer the facility's residents, this shall bar the filing of a petition under this section;

(3) An emergency exists that specifically demonstrates an immediate and serious threat of harm to the health, security, or welfare of the facility's residents, including, but not limited to, abandonment of the facility by the owner;

(4) A condition exists in the facility in violation of a licensing statute or regulation that specifically demonstrates an immediate and serious threat of harm to the health, safety, or welfare of the residents of the facility;

(5) The facility demonstrates a pattern and practice of violating chapter 18.51 or 74.42 RCW, or other statutes or regulations adopted by the department designed to safeguard the health, security, or welfare of residents such that the facility has demonstrated a repeated inability to maintain minimum patient care standards; or

(6) The facility demonstrates a pattern or practice of violating a condition level as defined by the federal government under the authority of Title XIX of the social security act.

The department may file a petition in the superior court in the county in which the nursing home is located or in the superior court of Thurston county. The current or former operator or licensee and the owner of the nursing home, if different than the operator or licensee, shall be made a party to the action. The court shall grant the petition if it finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, that one or more of the conditions listed in subsections (1) through (6) of this section exists and, subject to section 11 of this act, that the current operator is unable or unwilling to take actions necessary to correct the conditions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. It shall be a defense to the petition to establish a receivership that the conditions alleged do not in fact exist. It shall not be a defense to the petition to allege that the respondent did not possess knowledge of the alleged condition or could not have been reasonably expected to know about the alleged condition. In a petition that alleges that the health, safety, or welfare of the residents of the facility is at issue, it shall not be a defense to the petition that the respondent had not been afforded a reasonable opportunity to correct the alleged condition.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A petition for receivership shall include the name of the candidate for receiver. The department shall maintain a list of qualified persons to act as receivers, however, no person may be considered to be qualified to be a receiver who:

- (1) Is the owner, licensee, or administrator of the facility;
- (2) Is affiliated with the facility;
- (3) Has a financial interest in the facility; or
- (4) Has owned or operated a nursing home that has been ordered into receivership.

If a receiver is appointed, he or she may be drawn from the list but need not be, but an appointee shall have experience in providing long-term health care and a history of satisfactory operation of a nursing home. Preference may be granted to persons expressing an interest in permanent operation of the facility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Upon receipt of a petition for receivership, the court shall hear the matter within fourteen days. Temporary relief may be obtained under chapter 7.40 RCW and other applicable laws. In all actions arising under sections 10 through 22 of this act, the posting of a certified copy of the summons and petition in a conspicuous place in the nursing home shall constitute service of those documents upon the respondent.

In considering the petition, the court shall consider the following factors, among others:

- (1) The history of the provider, including any prior history of deficiencies and corrective action taken; and
- (2) Whether the circumstances alleged in the petition occurred for reasons that were beyond the control of the facility's current or former operator, licensee, or owner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Upon agreement of the candidate for receiver to the terms of the receivership and any special instructions of the court, the court may appoint that person as receiver of the nursing home if the court determines it is likely that a permanent operator will be found or conditions will be corrected without undue risk of harm to the patients. Appointment of a receiver may be in lieu of or in addition to temporary removal of some or all of the patients in the interests of their health, security, or welfare. A receiver shall be appointed for a term not to exceed six months, but a term may be extended for good cause shown.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The receivership shall terminate:

- (1) At the end of the appointed term;
- (2) When all residents have been transferred and the facility closed;
- (3) When all deficiencies have been eliminated and the facility has been sold or returned to its former owner: PROVIDED, That when a rehabilitated facility is returned to its former owner, the court may impose conditions to assure the continued compliance with chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW, and other applicable laws and regulations; or
- (4) Upon possession and control of the nursing home by a licensed replacement operator.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The receiver shall render to the court an accounting of acts performed and expenditures made during the receivership. Nothing in this section relieves a court-appointed receiver from the responsibility of making all reports and certifications to the department required by law and regulation relating to the receiver's operation of the nursing home, the care of its residents, and participation in the medicaid program, if any.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. If a receiver is appointed, the court shall set reasonable compensation for the receiver to be paid from operating revenues of the nursing home. The receiver shall be liable in his or her personal capacity only for negligent acts, intentional acts, or a breach of a fiduciary duty to either the residents of the facility or the current or former licensee or owner of the facility.

The department may revise the nursing home's medicaid reimbursement rate, consistent with reimbursement principles in chapter 74.46 RCW and rules adopted under that chapter, if revision is necessary to cover the receiver's compensation and other reasonable costs associated with the receivership and transition of control. Rate revision may also be granted if necessary to cover start-up costs and costs of repairs, replacements, and additional staff needed for patient health, security, or welfare. The property return on investment components of the medicaid rate shall be established for the receiver consistent with reimbursement principles in chapter 74.46 RCW. The department may also expedite the issuance of necessary licenses, contracts, and certifications, temporary or otherwise, necessary to carry out the purposes of receivership.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Upon appointment of a receiver, the current or former licensee or operator and managing agent, if any, shall be divested of possession and control of the nursing home in favor of the receiver who shall have full responsibility and authority to continue operation of the home and the care of the residents. The receiver may perform all acts reasonably necessary to carry out the purposes of receivership, including, but not limited to:

- (1) Protecting the health, security, and welfare of the residents;
- (2) Remedying violations of state and federal law and regulations governing the operation of the home;
- (3) Hiring, directing, managing, and discharging all consultants and employees for just cause; discharging the administrator of the nursing home; recognizing collective bargaining agreements; and settling labor disputes;
- (4) Receiving and expending in a prudent manner all revenues and financial resources of the home; and
- (5) Making all repairs and replacements needed for patient health, security, and welfare: PROVIDED, That expenditures for repairs or replacements in excess of five thousand dollars shall require approval of the court which shall expedite approval or disapproval for such expenditure.

Upon order of the court, a receiver may not be required to honor leases, mortgages, secured transactions, or contracts if the rent, price, or rate of interest was not a reasonable rent, price, or rate of interest at the time the contract was entered into or if a material provision of the contract is unreasonable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Upon order of the court, the department shall provide emergency or transitional financial assistance to a receiver not to exceed thirty thousand dollars. The receiver shall file with the court an accounting for any money expended. Any emergency or transitional expenditure shall be recovered from revenue generated by the facility which revenue is not obligated to the operation of the facility. If such funds are not fully recovered at the termination of the receivership, an action to recover such sums may be filed by the department against the former licensee or owner. In lieu of filing an action, the department may file a lien on the facility or on the proceeds of the sale of the facility. Such a lien shall take priority over all other liens except for liens for wages to employees. The owner of the facility shall be entitled to the proceeds of the facility or the sale of the facility to the extent that these exceed the liabilities of the facility, including liabilities to the state, receiver, employees, and contractors, at the termination of the receivership.

Revenues relating to services provided by the current or former licensee, operator, or owner and available operating funds belonging to such licensee, operator, or owner shall be under the control of the receiver. The receiver shall consult the court in cases of extraordinary or questionable debts incurred prior to his or her appointment and shall not have the power to close the home or sell any assets of the home without prior court approval.

Priority shall be given to debts and expenditures directly related to providing care and meeting the needs of patients. Any payment made to the receiver shall discharge the obligation of the payor to the owner of the facility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. If the nursing home is providing care to recipients of state medical assistance, the receiver shall become the medicaid contractor for the duration of the receivership period and shall assume all reporting and other responsibilities required by applicable laws and regulations. The receiver shall be responsible for the refund of medicaid rate payments in excess of costs during the period of the receivership.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. No seizure, foreclosure, or interference with nursing home revenues, supplies, real property, improvements, or equipment may be allowed for the duration of the receivership without prior court approval.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. At least sixty days before the effective date of any change of ownership, change of operating entity, or change of management of a nursing home, the current operating entity shall notify separately and in writing, each resident of the home or the resident's guardian of the proposed change. The notice shall include the identity of the proposed new owner, operating entity, or managing entity and the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of departmental personnel to whom comments regarding the change may be directed. If the proposed new owner, operating entity, or managing entity is a corporation, the notice shall include the names of all officers and the registered agent in the state of Washington. If the proposed new owner, operating entity, or managing entity is a partnership, the notice shall include the names of all general partners. This section shall apply regardless of whether the current operating entity holds a medicaid provider contract with the department and whether the operating entity intends to enter such a contract.

(2) A contractor subject to civil penalty under subsection (1)(a) of this section shall have a reasonable opportunity, not to exceed sixty days from notification of the violation, to correct the violation before being assessed a civil monetary penalty under this section. However, if the department determines that the violation resulted in serious harm to or death of a patient, constitutes a serious threat to patient life, health, or safety, or substantially limits the nursing home's capacity to render adequate care, the violator shall be so notified and a penalty may be assessed without prior opportunity to correct. Each day the violation continues may constitute a separate violation subject to assessment of a separate penalty.

(5) Any civil penalty assessed under this section or chapter 74.46 RCW shall be a nonreimbursable item under chapter 74.46 RCW.

The inspection shall be made without providing advance notice of it. Every inspection may include an inspection of every part of the premises and an examination of all records, methods of administration, the general and special dietary and the stores and methods of supply. Those nursing homes that provide community-based care shall establish and maintain separate and distinct accounting and other essential records for the purpose of appropriately allocating costs of the providing of such care: PROVIDED, That such costs shall not be considered allowable costs for reimbursement purposes under chapter 74.46 RCW. Following such inspection or inspections, written notice of any violation of this law or the rules and regulations promulgated hereunder, shall be given the applicant or licensee and the department. The notice shall describe the reasons for the facility's noncompliance. ~~(The notice shall inform the facility that it must comply with a plan of correction within a specified time, not to exceed sixty days from the date the plan of correction is approved by the department. (a) The relationship of the health services being reviewed to the applicable health plans;

 (b) The need that the population served or to be served by such services has for such services;

(d) The financial feasibility and the probable impact of the proposal on the cost of and charges for providing health services in the community to be served, including findings and recommendations of the Washington state hospital commission in the case of applications submitted by hospitals. An application by a hospital shall be denied if the state hospital commission does not recommend approval, unless the secretary provides the commission with a written statement setting forth the reason or reasons, and citing the applicable subsection or subsections of this section, for approving an application that the commission has determined to be not feasible;

(e) In the case of health services to be provided, (i) the availability of alternative uses of project resources for the provision of other health services, (ii) the extent to which such proposed services will be accessible to all residents of the area to be served, and (iii) the need for and the availability in the community of services and facilities for osteopathic and allopathic physicians and their patients. The department shall consider the application in terms of its impact on existing and proposed institutional training programs for doctors of osteopathy and medicine at the student, internship, and residency training levels;

(f) In the case of a construction project, the costs and methods of the proposed construction, including the cost and methods of energy provision, and the probable impact of the construction project reviewed (i) on the cost of providing health services by the person proposing such construction project and (ii) on the cost and charges to the public of providing health services by other persons;

(3) A certificate of need application of a health maintenance organization or a health care facility which is controlled, directly or indirectly, by a health maintenance organization, shall be approved by the department if the department finds:

(a) Approval of such application is required to meet the needs of the members of the health maintenance organization and of the new members which such organization can reasonably be expected to enroll; and

(b) The health maintenance organization is unable to provide, through services or facilities which can reasonably be expected to be available to the organization, its institutional health services in a reasonable and cost-effective manner which is consistent with the basic method of operation of the organization and which makes such services available on a long-term basis through physicians and other health professionals associated with it.

A health care facility (or any part thereof) or medical equipment with respect to which a certificate of need was issued under this subsection may not be sold or leased and a controlling interest in such facility or equipment or in a lease of such facility or equipment may not be acquired unless the department issues a certificate of need approving the sale, acquisition, or lease.

The conditions may be released if it can be substantiated that the conditions are no longer valid and the release of such conditions would be consistent with the purposes of this chapter.

(b) After considering the recommendation of the state health coordinating council pursuant to (a) of this subsection, the legislature shall, during its session in each odd-numbered year, in the state operating and appropriations act, determine the total need for nursing home beds in the state as of December 30 of the second year following: PROVIDED, That if the legislature does not make the determination the recommendation of the state health coordinating council shall have the same effect as a legislative determination;

(c) By no later than December 30 of each odd-numbered year, the department shall allocate the total need for nursing home beds, as determined under (b) of this subsection, among planning areas, to be specified in the state health plan, in keeping with a nursing home bed allocation method to be specified in the state health plan;

(d) Decisions of the department on nursing home certificate of need applications including applications for use of space within hospitals and other health care facilities as nursing homes, shall be consistent with the area bed allocations developed by the department pursuant to (c) and (e) of this subsection;

(e) The department may at any time reallocate beds among planning areas, in keeping with the bed allocation method to be specified in the state health plan, provided that such reallocations do not have the effect of permitting approval of nursing care bed certificate of need applications in excess of the state-wide need for nursing care beds as last determined under (b) of this subsection.

(6) Criteria adopted for review in accordance with subsection (2) of this section may vary according to the purpose for which the particular review is being conducted or the type of health service reviewed.

~~((6))~~ (7) The department shall specify information to be required for certificate of need applications. Within fifteen days of receipt of the application, the department shall request additional information considered necessary to the application or start the review process. Applicants may decline to submit requested information through written notice to the department, in which case review starts on the date of receipt of the notice. Applications may be denied or limited because of failure to submit required and necessary information.

~~((7))~~ (8) Concurrent review is for the purpose of comparative analysis and evaluation of competing or similar projects in order to determine which of the projects may best meet identified needs. Categories of projects subject to concurrent review include at least new health care facilities, new services, and expansion of existing health care facilities. The department shall specify time periods for the submission of applications for certificates of need subject to concurrent review, which shall not exceed ninety days. Review of concurrent applications shall start fifteen days after the conclusion of the time period for submission of applications subject to concurrent review. Concurrent review periods shall be limited to one hundred fifty days, except as provided for in rules adopted by the department authorizing and limiting amendment during the course of the review, or for an unresolved pivotal issue declared by the department.

~~((8))~~ (9) Review periods for certificate of need applications other than those subject to concurrent review shall be limited to ninety days. Review periods may be extended up to thirty days if needed by a review agency, and for unresolved pivotal issues the department may extend up to an additional thirty days. A review may be extended in any case if the applicant agrees to the extension.

~~((9))~~ (10) The department or a designated regional health council shall conduct a public hearing on a certificate of need application if requested unless the review is expedited or subject to emergency review. The department by rule shall specify the period of time within which a public hearing must be requested and requirements related to public notice of the hearing, procedures, recordkeeping and related matters.

~~((+0))~~ (11) Any applicant denied a certificate of need or whose certificate of need has been suspended or revoked shall be afforded an opportunity for administrative review in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW and a hearing shall be held within one hundred twenty days of a request therefor. An administrative law judge shall review the decision of the secretary's designee and render a proposed decision for consideration by the secretary in accordance with chapter 34.12 RCW or remand the matter to the secretary's designee for further consideration. The secretary's final decision is subject to review by the superior court as provided in chapter 34.04 RCW.

~~((+1))~~ (12) The department may establish procedures and criteria for reconsideration of decisions.

~~((+2))~~ (13) An amended certificate of need shall be required for the following modifications of an approved project:

- (a) A new service;
- (b) An expansion of a service beyond that originally approve;
- (c) An increase in bed capacity;
- (d) A significant reduction in the scope of a project without a commensurate reduction in the cost of the project, or a cost increase (as represented in bids on a construction project or final cost estimates acceptable to the person to whom the certificate of need was issued) if the total of such increases exceeds twelve percent or fifty thousand dollars, whichever is greater, over the maximum capital expenditure approved. The review of reductions or cost increases shall be restricted to the continued conformance of the project with the review criteria pertaining to financial feasibility and cost containment.

~~((+3))~~ (14) An application for a certificate of need for a capital expenditure which is determined by the department to be required to eliminate or prevent imminent safety hazards or correct violations of applicable licensure and accreditation standards shall be approved.

Sec. 30. Section 3, chapter 284, Laws of 1985 and RCW 74.42.055 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) It shall be unlawful for any nursing home which has a medicaid contract with the department:

(a) To require, as a condition of admission, assurance from the patient or any other person that the patient is not eligible for or will not apply for medicaid;

(b) To deny or delay admission or readmission of a person to a nursing home because of his or her status as a medicaid recipient;

(3) Any nursing home which has a medicaid contract with the department shall maintain one list of names of persons seeking admission to the facility, which is ordered by the date of request for admission. This information shall be retained for one year from the month admission was requested.

(4) The department may assess monetary penalties of a civil nature, not to exceed ~~((one))~~ three thousand dollars for each violation of this section.

(5) Because it is a matter of great public importance to protect senior citizens who need medicaid services from discriminatory treatment in obtaining long-term health care, any violation of this section shall be construed for purposes of the application of the consumer protection act, chapter 19.86 RCW, to constitute an unfair or deceptive act or practice or unfair method of competition in the conduct of trade or commerce.

(6) It is not an act of discrimination under this chapter to refuse to admit a patient if admitting that patient would prevent the needs of the other patients residing in that facility from being met at that facility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. The department shall report by December 31, 1987, to the appropriate standing committee of the legislature and the nursing home advisory council on the circumstances and amount of fines imposed under the authority granted in chapter 18.51 RCW.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator Talmadge, on this particular amendment, would those licensing agencies--child care agencies--where they are supposed to check right now and they're required finger printing in their licensing, as well as some of the others that require it, would they still be able to check with the file or would this only be under criminal investigation?"

Senator Talmadge: "It would only be criminal investigations."

Senator Lee: "So, when someone was applying to have a child care home or license, they could not check with the file with the finger prints they are required to have for child care workers?"

Senator Talmadge: "Number one, I am not sure they are required to have finger prints for child care workers. Number two, it's only a question of what you maintain in the data base for purposes of criminal investigation. The theory behind the amendment, as you would keep in that system any arrest material, any conviction material for suspect individuals, but not necessarily anything from a license applicant such as, for example, say a real estate broker. Senator McCaslin has noted a couple times that real estate broker's have to submit finger prints with their applications for a real estate brokers status."

Senator Lee: "I understand and I support the amendment, not to necessarily with your data problem. What I was interested in was, if we are requiring finger prints for certain kinds of licensing and if they can't then check them with the data file that exists, people with criminal records and so on, I don't know what good it does us to take finger prints in the first place?"

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Talmadge and Pullen.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1065, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The intent of sections 4 through 6 and 8 through 10 of this act is to require certain qualifications for candidates for the office of chief of police; chief law enforcement officer; marshal; director of public safety, who in part oversees law enforcement personnel or activities; or constable.

The legislature finds that over the past century the field of law enforcement has become increasingly complex and many new techniques and resources have evolved both socially and technically. In addition the ever-changing requirements of law, both constitutional and statutory provisions protecting the individual and imposing responsibilities and legal liabilities of law enforcement officers and the government of which they represent, require an increased level of training and experience in the field of law enforcement.

The legislature, therefore finds that minimum requirements are reasonable and necessary to seek and hold the offices or office of chief of police, chief law enforcement officer, marshal, director of public safety, or constable and that such requirements are in the public interest.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) A person seeking appointment to the office of chief of police, chief law enforcement officer, marshal, director of public safety, or constable, is ineligible unless that person:

- (a) Is a citizen of the United States of America;
 - (b) Has obtained a high school diploma or general equivalency diploma;
 - (c) Has not been convicted under the laws of this state, another state, or the United States of a felony;
 - (d) Has not been convicted of a gross misdemeanor or any crime involving moral turpitude within five years of the date of application;
 - (e) Has received at least a general discharge under honorable conditions from any branch of the armed services for any military service;

 - (g) The person has been certified as a regular and commissioned enforcement officer through compliance with this state's basic training requirement or equivalency.
- (2) A person seeking appointment to the office of chief of police, chief law enforcement officer, marshal, director of public safety, or constable, shall provide a sworn statement under penalty of perjury to the appointing authority stating that the person meets the requirements of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Before making an appointment in the office of chief of police, chief law enforcement officer, marshal, director of public safety, or constable, the appointing agency shall complete a thorough background investigation of the candidate according to standards set by the Washington association of sheriffs and police chiefs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. In the case of a vacancy in the office of chief of police, chief law enforcement officer, marshal, director of public safety, or constable, all requirements and procedures of sections 4 and 5 of this act shall be followed in filling the vacancy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 4 through 6 of this act are each added to chapter 35.21 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) A person seeking appointment to the office of chief of police, chief law enforcement officer, marshal, director of public safety, or constable, is ineligible unless that person:

- (a) Is a citizen of the United States of America;
- (b) Has obtained a high school diploma or general equivalency diploma;
- (c) Has not been convicted under the laws of this state, another state, or the United States of a felony;

(d) Has not been convicted of a gross misdemeanor or any crime involving moral turpitude within five years of the date of application;

(e) Has received at least a general discharge under honorable conditions from any branch of the armed services for any military service;

(f) Has completed at least two years of regular, uninterrupted, full-time commissioned law enforcement employment involving enforcement responsibilities with a government law enforcement agency; and

(g) The person has been certified as a regular and commissioned enforcement officer through compliance with this state's basic training requirement or equivalency.

(2) A person seeking appointment to the office of chief of police, chief law enforcement officer, marshal, director of public safety, or constable, shall provide a sworn statement under penalty of perjury to the appointing authority stating that the person meets the requirements of this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. Before making an appointment in the office of chief of police, chief law enforcement officer, marshal, director of public safety, or constable, the appointing agency shall complete a thorough background investigation of the candidate according to standards set by the Washington association of sheriffs and police chiefs.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. In the case of a vacancy in the office of chief of police, chief law enforcement officer, marshal, director of public safety, or constable, all requirements and procedures of sections 8 and 9 of this act shall be followed in filling the vacancy.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. Sections 8 through 10 of this act are each added to chapter 35A.21 RCW."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Halsan, on page 3, line 31, it mentions constables. Do we still have constables in any city or county of this state?"

Senator Halsan: "Not to my knowledge. Although, in some of the small towns, it's police chief or the marshal or a variety of terms. I think this covers them all-- whoever is the chief law enforcement officer of the town."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Tanner, this amendment, I assume applies to Chief Davis of the Vancouver Police Department who was accused of harassing a female employee of the Department on the job. Does that mean that he will be protected from any opportunity to remove him, short of going through the civil service process to remove him?"

Senator Tanner: "Well, as a matter of fact, I am not concurring with your description of what he has been accused of, but it does--you are right--disallow the city of Vancouver from immediately firing Chief Leland Davis in Vancouver."

The report shall remain the property of the supervisor and will be furnished to the Washington land bank for its confidential use. Under no circumstances shall the Washington land bank, or any of its directors, officers, or employees disclose or make public in any manner the report or any portion thereof, to any person or organization not connected with the Washington land bank as officer, director, employee, attorney, auditor, or candidate for executive office with the bank.

(5) Examination reports and information obtained by the supervisor and the supervisor's staff in conducting examinations shall not be subject to public disclosure under chapter 42.17 RCW.

(6) In any civil action in which the reports are sought to be discovered or used as evidence, any party may, upon notice to the supervisor, petition the court for an in camera review of the report. The court may permit discovery and introduction of only those portions of the report which are relevant and otherwise unobtainable by the requesting party. This subsection shall not apply to an action brought or defended by the supervisor.

(7) This section shall not apply to investigation reports prepared by the supervisor and the supervisor's staff concerning an application for establishment of the Washington land bank: PROVIDED, That the supervisor may adopt rules making confidential portions of the reports if in the supervisor's opinion the public disclosure of the portions of the report would impair the ability to obtain the information which the supervisor considers necessary to fully evaluate the application.

(8) Every person who violates any provision of this section shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. (1) The supervisor may issue and serve upon the Washington land bank a notice of charges if in the opinion of the supervisor, the Washington land bank:

(a) Is engaging or has engaged in an unsafe or unsound practice in conducting its business;

(b) Is violating or has violated the law, rule, or any condition imposed in writing by the supervisor in connection with the granting of any application or other request by the bank or any written agreement made with the supervisor; or

(c) Is about to do the acts prohibited in (a) or (b) of this subsection when the opinion that the threat exists is based upon reasonable cause.

(2) The notice shall contain a statement of the facts constituting the alleged violation or violations or the practice or practices and shall fix a time and place at which a hearing will be held to determine whether an order to cease and desist should issue against the bank. The hearing shall be set not earlier than ten days nor later than thirty days after service of the notice unless a later date is set by the supervisor at the request of the bank.

Unless the bank shall appear at the hearing by a duly authorized representative it shall be deemed to have consented to the issuance of the cease and desist order. In the event of this consent or if upon the record made at the hearing the supervisor finds that any violation or practice specified in the notice of charges has been established, the supervisor may issue and serve upon the bank an order to cease and desist from the violation or practice. The order may require the bank and its directors, officers, employees, and agents to cease and desist from the violation or practice and may require the bank to take affirmative action to correct the conditions resulting from the violation or practice.

(3) A cease and desist order shall become effective at the expiration of ten days after the service of the order upon the bank except that a cease and desist order issued upon consent shall become effective at the time specified in the order and shall remain effective as provided therein unless it is stayed, modified, terminated, or set aside by action of the supervisor or a reviewing court.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. Whenever the supervisor determines that the acts specified in the foregoing section or their continuation is likely to cause insolvency or substantial dissipation of assets or earnings of the bank, the supervisor may also issue a temporary order requiring the bank to cease and desist from the violation or practice. The order shall become effective upon service on the bank and shall remain effective unless set aside, limited, or suspended by a court in proceedings under section 8 of this act pending the completion of the administrative proceedings under the notice and until such time as the supervisor shall dismiss the charges specified in the notice or until the effective date of a cease and desist order issued against the bank pursuant to section 8 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Within ten days after the bank has been served with a temporary cease and desist order, the bank may apply to the superior court in the county of its principal place of business for an injunction setting aside, limiting, or suspending the order pending the completion of the administrative proceedings pursuant to the notice served. The superior court shall have jurisdiction to issue the injunction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. In the case of a violation or threatened violation of a temporary cease and desist order issued, the supervisor may apply to the superior court of the county of the principal place of business of the bank for an injunction to enforce the order, and the court shall issue an injunction if it determines that there has been a violation or threatened violation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) Any administrative hearing may be held at such place as is designated by the supervisor and shall be conducted in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW. The hearing shall be private unless the supervisor determines that a public hearing is necessary to protect the public interest after fully considering the views of the party afforded the hearing.

Within sixty days after the hearing the supervisor shall render a decision which shall include findings of fact upon which the decision is based and shall issue and serve upon each party to the proceedings an order or orders.

Unless a petition for review is timely filed in the superior court of the county of the principal place of business of the bank and until the record in the proceeding has been filed as therein provided, the supervisor may at any time modify, terminate, or set aside any order upon such notice and in such manner as deemed proper. Upon filing the record, the supervisor may modify, terminate, or set aside any order only with permission of the court.

The judicial review provided in this section for an order shall be exclusive.

(2) Any party to the proceeding or any person required by an order to refrain from any of the violations or practices stated therein may obtain a review of any order served under subsection (1) of this section other than one issued upon consent by filing in the superior court of the county of the principal place of business of the bank within ten days after the date of service of the order a written petition praying that the order of the supervisor be modified, terminated, or set aside. A copy of the petition shall be immediately served upon the supervisor and the supervisor shall then file in the court the record of the proceeding. The court shall have jurisdiction upon the filing of the petition, which jurisdiction shall become exclusive upon the filing of the record to affirm, modify, terminate, or set aside in whole or in part the order of the supervisor except that the supervisor may modify, terminate, or set aside an order with the permission of the court. The judgment and decree of the court shall be final, except that it shall be subject to appellate review under the rules of court.

(3) The commencement of proceedings for judicial review under subsection (2) of this section shall not operate as a stay of any order issued by the supervisor unless specifically ordered by the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The supervisor may serve upon a director, officer, or employee of the Washington land bank a written notice of the supervisor's intention to remove the person from office or to prohibit the person from participation in the conduct of the affairs of the bank whenever:

(1) In the opinion of the supervisor any director, officer, or employee of the bank has committed or engaged in:

- (a) Any violation of law or rule or of a cease and desist order which has become final;
- (b) Any unsafe or unsound practice in connection with the bank; or
- (c) Any act, omission, or practice which constitutes a breach of his fiduciary duty as director, officer, or employee; and

(2) The supervisor determines that:

- (a) The bank has suffered or may suffer substantial financial loss or other damage; or
- (b) The interests of its investors could be seriously prejudiced by reason of the violation or practice or breach of fiduciary duty; and

(c) The violation or practice or breach of fiduciary duty is one involving personal dishonesty, recklessness, or incompetence on the part of the director, officer, or employee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A notice of an intention to remove a director, officer, or employee from office or to prohibit participation in the conduct of the affairs of the bank shall contain a statement of the facts which constitute grounds therefor and shall fix a time and place at which a hearing will be held. The hearing shall be set not earlier than ten days nor later than thirty days after the date of service of the notice unless an earlier or later date is set by the supervisor at the request of the director, officer, or employee for good cause shown or of the attorney general of the state.

Unless the director, officer, or employee appears at the hearing personally or by a duly authorized representative, the person shall be deemed to have consented to the issuance of an order of removal or prohibition or both. In the event of such consent or if upon the record made at the hearing the supervisor finds that any of the grounds specified in the notice have been established, the supervisor may issue such orders of removal from office or prohibition from participation in the conduct of the affairs of the bank as the supervisor may consider appropriate.

Any order shall become effective at the expiration of ten days after service upon the bank and the director, officer, or employee concerned except that an order issued upon consent shall become effective at the time specified in the order.

An order shall remain effective except to the extent it is stayed, modified, terminated, or set aside by the supervisor or a reviewing court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. If at any time because of the removal of one or more directors under this chapter there shall be on the board of directors of the bank less than a quorum of directors, all powers and functions vested in or exercisable by the board shall vest in and be exercisable by the director or directors remaining until such time as there is a quorum on the board of directors. If all of the directors of the bank are removed under this chapter, the supervisor shall appoint persons to serve temporarily as directors until such time as their respective successors take office.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Sections 5 through 17 of this act are each added to chapter 31.30 RCW."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

 (b) Bank regulatory authorities with whom the supervisor has entered into agreements pursuant to RCW 30.04.060(2);

(c) Officials empowered to investigate criminal charges subject to legal process, valid search warrant, or subpoena. If the supervisor furnishes any examination report to officials empowered to investigate criminal charges, the supervisor may only furnish that part of the report which is necessary and pertinent to the investigation, and the supervisor may do this only after notifying the affected bank, trust company, or alien bank and any customer of the bank, trust company, or alien bank who is named in that part of the examination or report ordered to be furnished unless the officials requesting the report first obtain a waiver of the notice requirement from a court of competent jurisdiction for good cause;

(5) Examination reports and information obtained by the supervisor and the supervisor's staff in conducting examinations shall not be subject to public disclosure under chapter 42.17 RCW.

(6) In any civil action in which the reports are sought to be discovered or used as evidence, any party may, upon notice to the supervisor, petition the court for an in camera review of the report. This subsection shall not apply to an action brought or defended by the supervisor.

(7) This section shall not apply to investigation reports prepared by the supervisor and the supervisor's staff concerning an application for a new bank or trust company or an application for a branch of a bank, trust company, or alien bank: PROVIDED, That the supervisor may adopt rules making confidential portions of the reports if in the supervisor's opinion the public disclosure of the portions of the report would impair the ability to obtain the information which the supervisor considers necessary to fully evaluate the application.

(8) Every person who violates any provision of this section shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor."

Remember the remaining section consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator West: "Mr. President, I would like to challenge the scope and object of this amendment. The bill itself addresses boards of directors of banks and bank holding companies. The committee amendment addresses the state land bank. This goes way beyond that in talking about bank acquisitions and is much broader than the original bill or even the committee amendment, so I would challenge it on that basis."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of the amendment by Senators Metcalf and Fleming was deferred.

MOTION

Senator Fleming moved that the following amendment by Senators Fleming and Metcalf be adopted:

On page 6, after line 9, insert the following:

"Sec. 5. Section 3, chapter 246, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 30.04.410 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The supervisor may ~~((file an action in the superior court of the county in which the bank is located to restrain the pending acquisition or control of a bank if he finds after considering the application and within thirty days after its filing any of the following))~~ disapprove the acquisition of a bank or trust company within thirty days after the filing of a complete application pursuant to RCW 30.04.405 or an extended period not exceeding an additional fifteen days if:

((+)) (a) The poor financial condition of any acquiring party might jeopardize the financial stability of the bank or might prejudice the interests of the bank depositors, borrowers, or shareholders;

((#)) (b) The plan or proposal of the acquiring party to liquidate the bank, to sell its assets, to merge it with any person, or to make any other major change in its business or corporate structure or management is not fair and reasonable to the bank's depositors, borrowers, or stockholders or is not in the public interest;

((#)) (c) The banking and business experience and integrity of any acquiring party who would control the operation of the bank indicates that approval would not be in the interest of the bank's depositors, borrowers, or shareholders;

((#)) (d) The information provided by the application is insufficient for the supervisor to make a determination or there has been insufficient time to verify the information provided and conduct an examination of the qualification of the acquiring party; or

((#)) (e) The acquisition would not be in the public interest.

(2) An acquisition may be made prior to expiration of the disapproval period if the supervisor issues written notice of intent not to disapprove the action.

(3) Whenever such a change in control occurs, each party to the transaction shall report promptly to the supervisor any changes or replacement of its chief executive officer or of any director occurring in the next twelve-month period, including in its report a statement of the past and current business and professional affiliations of the new chief executive officer or directors."

Renumber the remaining section accordingly and correct internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator West: "Thank you, Mr. President. I would ask you to rule on the scope and object of this amendment, also. While it might fit the title, it certainly does not fit the original intent of the bill. A citizen looking at that in its original full title wouldn't have a clue that interstate banking would be included in the discussion on this bill. I think it's clearly beyond the object of the original bill and beyond the scope of the original bill. It opens up a new section, a new title, that was not before the committee with this bill and was not even before the committee with the committee amendment, so it doesn't fit this bill."

Debate ensued.

INQUIRY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator West, did you or did you not raise the point of scope and object?"

Senator West: "Mr. President, I raise the scope and object on the points on code revisor draft No. S2698, the amendment Senator Fleming has moved before us."

President Cherberg: "Senator West has raised the point that the proposed amendment changes the scope and object of the bill."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of the amendment by Senators Fleming and Metcalf on page 6, line 9, was deferred.

MOTION

Senator Bottiger moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 6, after line 9, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. ____ Section 3, chapter 145, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as amended by section 100, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 and RCW 43.08.135 are each amended to read as follows:

"(1) The state treasurer shall maintain at all times cash, or demand deposits in qualified public depositories in an amount needed to meet the operational needs of state government: PROVIDED, That the state treasurer shall not be considered in violation of RCW 9A.56.060(1) if he maintains demand accounts in public depositories in an amount less than all treasury warrants issued and outstanding.

(2) The state treasurer may not maintain accounts in a public depository if that public depository or its holding company makes any contribution to a political committee registered under chapter 42.17 RCW. This restriction does not apply if the name of the public depository or its holding company is included in the name of the political committee."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively

POINT OF ORDER

Senator West: "Mr. President, the previous speaker actually makes a very good point and I would join him next year to require truth in advertising and truth in naming of all PACs. We have a little PAC over in my area that's called the Brotherhood and I still don't know who the Brotherhood is, but they gave a lot of money in the campaign and it wasn't for me.

"Mr. President, I would ask that you also rule--I question the scope and object on this amendment. This takes an incredible leap of faith because you have to jump from title thirty clear across to title forty-three to get this one to be included in the bill and I would ask and suggest that this is outside the scope and object."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 476 was deferred.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 341, by Committee on Financial Institutions and Insurance (originally sponsored by Representatives Dellwo, Nutley, Chandler, Silver, Lux, Meyers, P. King, Ferguson, Betzoff, C. Smith and May)

Revising the corporate powers of banks.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the following Committee on Financial Institutions amendments were considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 1, line 25, after "assets" insert "or fifty percent of the net worth, whichever is less."

On page 1, line 25, after "company," insert "For purposes of this subsection, 'net worth' means the aggregate of capital, surplus, undivided profits, and all capital notes and debentures which are subordinate to the interest of depositors."

On page 2, line 9, after "The" strike "supervisor of banking" and insert "~~((supervisor of banking))~~ director of general administration"

On page 2, beginning on line 16, strike "supervisor" and insert "~~((supervisor))~~ director"

On page 2, line 27, after "the" strike "supervisor" and insert "~~((supervisor))~~ director"

On page 2, line 28, after "The" strike "supervisor" and insert "~~((supervisor))~~ director"

On page 2, line 29, after "supervisor of" insert "banking, with the supervisor of"

On page 2, line 36, after "The" strike "supervisor of banking" and insert "~~((supervisor of banking))~~ director"

On page 3, line 2, after "1987." strike everything down to and including "1986." on line 4 and insert "~~((A progress report shall be submitted to the governor and the respective standing committees of the house of representatives and the senate not later than December 1, 1986.))~~"

MOTION

Senator Smitherman moved that the following amendment by Senators Smitherman and Warnke be adopted:

On page 3, after line 6, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. The legislature finds and declares that:

(1) Expansion of small businesses will have a favorable impact on the Washington economy; by creating jobs, increasing competition in the marketplace, and expanding tax revenues. Small business expansion is a major source of new employment opportunities for economically distressed communities, for economically disadvantaged individuals, and for individuals of low and moderate income generally; and

(2) There is an unmet need to provide long-term capital to rapidly growing small businesses whose growth exceeds their ability to generate internal earnings to finance that growth; and

(3) Under traditional standards used by banks many well-operated small businesses cannot provide security adequate to qualify for normal bank loans; and

(4) This problem is especially severe in its effects on economically distressed communities and on economically disadvantaged individuals; and

(5) It is desirable to address this problem by creating an efficient, nonbureaucratic form of state assistance to encourage banks to make many such loans which are not now made; and

(6) Assistance and encouragement of small business development to provide, maintain, and expand employment and tax revenues is an important function of the state; and

(7) The modest state expenditure to encourage such loans will be returned to the people of the state of Washington in the form of increased tax revenues based on business expansion and reduction in the number of unemployed persons.

In order to accomplish these goals, the legislature creates the Washington small business loan program. The intent of the legislature is to provide sufficient incentives to financial institutions and credit unions to make small business loans that would otherwise not be made to worthy small businesses. Further, it is the intent of the legislature to provide incentives which will result in greater availability of small business financing to economically distressed communities and to economically disadvantaged individuals to promote the creation of new employment opportunities and the retention of existing employment in the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. As used in this chapter, the term:

(1) "Lender participant" means such financial institutions and credit unions as are approved by the supervisor to make loans under this chapter.

(2) "Eligible loan" means a loan to a person under the conditions set forth in this chapter.

(3) "Amount of loss" means an amount equal to the unpaid balance of the principal amount, less any amounts realized by perfecting rights under a security agreement, together with such interest as the executive director shall allow, to a maximum of such interest as may be allowed by rule. The amount of loss is subject to the limitations contained in section 14(2)(c) of this act.

(4) "Default" includes only such defaults as have existed for at least ninety days.

(5) "Premium charge" means the percent of the loan which shall be deposited in the small business loan reserve fund by the lender and the borrower on loans made pursuant to this chapter.

(6) "Executive director" means the executive director of the small business loan program.

(7) "Fund" means the small business loan reserve fund.

(8) "State match" means the percent of the loan which shall be deposited in the small business loan reserve fund by the state on loans made pursuant to this chapter.

(9) "Manufacturing" means all activities of a commercial or industrial nature wherein labor or skill is applied, by hand or machinery, to materials so that as a result thereof a new, different, or useful substance or article of tangible personal property is produced for sale or commercial or industrial use and shall include the production or fabrication of specially made or custom made articles. "Manufacturing" also includes computer programming, the production of computer software, and other computer-related services, and the activities performed by research and development laboratories and commercial testing laboratories.

(10) "Traded services" means those commercial and professional services that are developed for sale outside the state.

(11) "Supervisor" means the state supervisor of banking.

(12) "Director" means the director of the department of community development.

(13) "First source hiring agreement" means an agreement requiring a business to interview prospective employees from a list of the unemployed supplied by the employment security department and hire any qualified candidates on the list before hiring any candidates not on the department's list.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. In addition to the powers and duties prescribed under this chapter, the state supervisor of banking may exercise all the powers necessary or convenient for the enforcement of this chapter. The supervisor may adopt such rules as he or she finds necessary or appropriate in carrying out this chapter after consultation with the director and representatives of small businesses and lender participants. The supervisor may examine the loans made under this chapter at any participating bank to ascertain compliance with this chapter and any rules adopted under this chapter, and to ascertain whether a bank is exercising reasonable care and diligence in the making and collection of loans made under this chapter.

An exempt position is hereby created within the department of community development for the executive director of the small business loan program. The executive director shall be appointed by the director of the department of community development and shall serve at the director's pleasure. The director shall delegate to the executive director such duties as the director deems necessary to the administration of the program. The program shall be administered in conjunction with the development loan fund authorized under chapter 43.168 RCW. The director may employ such other employees as may be needed to carry out the powers and duties imposed under this chapter.

The director shall report to the governor and the house ways and means and trade and economic development committees and the senate ways and means and commerce and labor committees by December 1 of each year and shall include in the report the following:

(1) The names of all financial institutions certified to participate in the small business loan program;

(2) The names and locations by county of all borrowers under the program;

- (3) The number of employees by county of all borrowers under the program;
- (4) The total amount of funds lent under the program by county;
- (5) The total amount of funds lent under the program reported separately by categories of uses made by borrowers of the proceeds;
- (6) The amount paid out of the fund for loans in default, by lender, and by county;
- (7) The financial condition of the fund;
- (8) An evaluation of the extent to which the results of the program meet the objectives of the program as defined in section 5 of this act. This evaluation shall include a review of success in meeting criteria listed in section 10(4) of this act;
- (9) The expenditure of funds under section 9 of this act; and
- (10) Such other information as in the director's judgment may be desirable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) The small business loan reserve fund is hereby established in the custody of the state treasurer. The fund shall consist of appropriations made to the fund and any other public or private money received under this chapter. Moneys in the fund may be used only to secure loans made under this chapter. Disbursements from the fund shall be on authorization of the director. The fund is subject to the allotment procedure provided under chapter 43.88 RCW, but no appropriation is required for disbursements.

(2) The state shall not be liable or obligated for any amount exceeding its appropriations to the small business loan reserve fund.

(3) Funds held in the small business loan reserve fund which are attributable to the lender participant's portion of the premium charge shall be accounted for on a lender-by-lender basis and shall include the matching premium charge paid by the borrowers and the state match paid by the state.

(4) Upon authorization by the director, disbursements from the small business loan reserve fund shall be made to financial institutions by the state treasurer in warrants drawn by the controller pursuant to this chapter.

(5) Funds in the small business loan reserve fund shall be invested in time certificates of deposit with lender participants in proportion to each lender participant's participation in the small business loan reserve program. Such funds shall be offered on a right of first refusal to lender participants. Should a lender participant refuse to receive such funds for investment, the funds shall then be offered other lender participants in proportion to their participation in the small business loan reserve program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) All income from funds invested pursuant to section 8 of this act shall be deposited in the small business loan reserve fund, and shall be used exclusively for the support of the small business loan reserve program.

(2) Whenever the director determines that the income from funds invested pursuant to section 8 of this act exceeds amounts necessary to support the small business loan reserve program pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the director may order any excess funds transferred into the general fund, but not to exceed the amount appropriated to the small business loan reserve fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) The supervisor shall certify those financial institutions whose experience, financial capability, and such other criteria as the supervisor may establish under rules adopted under this chapter, qualify them to participate in the small business loan reserve program.

(2) Any financial institution may be disqualified from further participation in the small business loan reserve program on a finding, by the supervisor, as specified by rule, that such institution has violated any provision of this chapter, or any rule adopted under this chapter, or that such institution is insolvent.

(3) A loan made by a lender participant shall be recorded under this section if made to a corporation, partnership, sole proprietorship, cooperative, or other association doing business primarily in Washington, whether nonprofit or organized for profit.

(4) The executive director shall adopt by rule eligibility criteria for loans made under this chapter. Such criteria shall be consistent with the intent of this chapter to assist small businesses with strong potential for growth and job creation and, to that end, such loans shall be primarily devoted to businesses engaging in manufacturing or traded services. Such criteria shall include but shall not be limited to: The potential for benefiting economically distressed communities; the potential for benefiting economically disadvantaged individuals; the potential for benefiting individuals of low and moderate income; the potential for creating new employment opportunities, especially opportunities for stable high wage employment; the potential for retaining existing employment, especially stable high wage employment; the potential for local economic diversification; the impact on the stabilization, modernization, and long-term growth potential of mature industries; and the size and types of businesses which shall be eligible to receive loans which may be based on the standard industrial classification code. Absence of a classification within the standard industrial classification code for a type of business shall not preclude it from being established as an eligible business.

(5) No more than twenty-five percent of the proceeds of any loans made under this chapter may be used by the borrowing business for the payment of existing loans to that business.

(6) Upon default by the borrower on any loan made under this chapter, the executive director may require from the lender a showing as to how the proceeds of the loan were disbursed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Prior to the making of a loan under this chapter, the executive director shall enter into contracts with lender participants and borrowers. In exchange for the state's agreement to place the state match in the small business loan reserve fund, the contracts shall: (1) Obligate the lender participants to adhere to the provisions of this chapter and to make loans, consistent with eligibility criteria established pursuant to this chapter, to small businesses which do not meet standard lender eligibility criteria; and (2) obligate borrowers to enter into first source hiring agreements with the employment security department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The lender and borrower shall negotiate the premium charge for each loan made pursuant to this chapter. Such charge shall be from three percent to seven percent of the loan. The lender and borrower shall contribute an equal amount to the premium charge. The state match made under this chapter shall be equal in amount to the premium charge. When a loan is participated in by two or more lender participants, the premium charge shall be a single rate, applicable to the entire loan. The lender's portion of the premium charge shall be apportioned among the lenders in proportion to each lender's participation in the loan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1)(a) An application to record a loan made under this chapter shall be made by an eligible lender on such form as the executive director may require. The application shall set forth the amount of the loan, its maturity, interest rate, and amortization. In addition, the executive director may require other information relating to job creation.

(b) If, upon application by a lender participant, the executive director finds that the lender has made an eligible loan, the executive director shall cause the loan to be recorded.

(2)(a) The lender shall submit, together with the application under subsection (1) of this section, the following premium charges determined by the lender under section 12 of this act: (i) The percent premium charge payable by the lender; and (ii) the percent premium charge payable by the borrower.

(b) Premium charges collected under this section shall be deposited in the small business loan reserve fund.

(c) Upon recording a loan, the director shall allocate, from appropriated funds, the state match payable by the state in the small business loan reserve fund.

(3) All loans made under this chapter shall be recorded in a register to be maintained by the supervisor. The registration shall set forth the information contained in the application.

(4) At least annually, and more frequently at the direction of the supervisor, a summary of the information contained in the register maintained pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, shall be provided to each lender participant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) Upon default by the borrower on any loan made under this chapter, the lender, if a secured party, shall take steps, and avail itself of such rights and remedies as may be provided for in the security agreement and by virtue of chapter 62A.9 RCW except when, in the determination of the supervisor, special circumstances exist which do not warrant taking such action.

(2)(a) Upon default by the borrower on any loan made under this chapter, the lender shall promptly notify the supervisor and the executive director, and the director shall, if requested, either at that time, or after further collection efforts, pay to the lender the amount of the loss, subject to the limitation contained in (c) of this subsection, sustained by the lender.

(b) In addition to the amount of loss, the lender may claim five hundred dollars for collection expenses incurred in the attempted collection of the loan. Such collection expense shall be a charge against that portion of the small business loan reserve fund attributable to the lender who made the loan, and shall be subject to the limitation contained in (c) of this subsection.

(c) Payments made to a lender pursuant to this section shall not exceed the amount retained in the small business loan reserve fund attributable to the lender who made the loan.

(3) Amounts recovered by a lender's collection efforts subsequent to presenting a claim for loss pursuant to this section shall first be paid into the small business loan reserve fund to the credit of the lender to reimburse the fund for amounts paid to the lender pursuant to subsection (2)(a) of this section.

(4) Nothing in this section may be construed to excuse the lender from exercising reasonable care and diligence in the making and collection of loans under this chapter.

If the supervisor, after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing to an eligible lender, finds that it has substantially failed to exercise such care and diligence required under this section, the supervisor shall disqualify that lender for further loans under this chapter until the supervisor is satisfied that its failure has ceased and finds that there is reasonable assurance that the lender will in the future exercise necessary care and diligence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 42.17 RCW to read as follows:

Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 42.17.260 through 42.17.340, no application to record a loan or the register of loans under chapter 43.— RCW (sections 5 through 14 of this act) may be made available to the public.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Sections 5 through 14 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator West: "Mr. President, it is with great reluctance that I ask you to rule on the scope and object of this amendment. Now, unlike the last three amendments, I am in great sympathy with the intent of Senator Smitherman's amendment to this bill. Looking at the bill, it doesn't fit it at all and we run the risk of hurting the original bill, which is a very important bill and I hope that we can find some place else to put this bill. I would ask that you rule on the scope and object of this amendment."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of the amendment by Senators Smitherman and Warnke was deferred.

MOTION

Senator Bottiger moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 3, after line 4, insert the following:

"Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 145, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as amended by section 100, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 and RCW 43.08.135 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The state treasurer shall maintain at all times cash, or demand deposits in qualified public depositories in an amount needed to meet the operational needs of state government: PROVIDED, That the state treasurer shall not be considered in violation of RCW 9A.56.060(1) if he maintains demand accounts in public depositories in an amount less than all treasury warrants issued and outstanding.

(2) The state treasurer may not maintain accounts in a public depository if that public depository or its holding company makes a contribution to a political committee registered under chapter 42.17 RCW. This restriction does not apply if the name of the public depository or its holding company is included in the name of the political committee."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Newhouse: "A point of order, Mr. President. It appears to me that the amendment is beyond the scope and object of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 341 and should be declared out."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 341 was deferred.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 970, by Committee on Ways and Means/Appropriations (originally sponsored by Representatives Sayan, Taylor, Cole, Padden, Baugher, D. Sommers, Rayburn, Rust, Vekich, Schoon, Barnes, Fisch and Jesernig)

Providing a reimbursement formula for institutions for the mentally retarded.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 970 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator McDermott, I notice that there is a fiscal note on this bill. It sounds like a worthy bill to send some more money to nursing home operators. Could you tell me how much it costs?"

Senator McDermott: "I just called my office and it's about a half million dollars for the next biennium."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 970.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 970 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; excused, 3.

Excused: Senators Peterson, Sellar, Williams - 3.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 970, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Except as provided in RCW 18.27.020 for partnerships and joint ventures, no person who has registered under one name as provided in this chapter shall engage in the business, or act in the capacity of a contractor under any other name unless such name also is registered hereunder. All advertising and all contracts, correspondence, cards, signs, posters, papers, and documents (~~prepared by a contractor~~) which show a contractor's name or address shall show the contractor's name or address as registered hereunder. Any person who is found to be in violation of this section by the director at a hearing held in accordance with the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, shall be required to pay a penalty of not more than ~~(one)~~ five thousand dollars as determined by the director. However, the penalty under this section shall not apply to a violation determined to be an inadvertent error.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 18.27 RCW to read as follows:

When determining a violation of RCW 18.27.100, the director and administrative law judge shall hold responsible the person who purchased the advertising.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 18.27 RCW to read as follows:

(1) If, upon investigation, the director or the director's designee has probable cause to believe that a person holding a registration, an applicant for registration, or an unregistered person acting in the capacity of a contractor who is not otherwise exempted from this chapter, has violated RCW 18.27.100 by unlawfully advertising for work covered by this chapter in an alphabetical or classified directory, the department may issue a citation under chapter 34.04 RCW containing an order of correction. Such order shall require the violator to cease the unlawful advertising.

(2) If the person to whom a citation is issued under subsection (1) of this section notifies the department in writing that he or she contests the citation, the department shall afford an opportunity for a hearing, under chapter 34.04 RCW, within thirty days after receiving the notification.

Sec. 6. Section 4, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 18, chapter 2, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.27.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each applicant shall, at the time of applying for or renewing a certificate of registration, file with the department a surety bond issued by a surety insurer who meets the requirements of chapter 48.28 RCW in a form acceptable to the department running to the state of Washington if a general contractor, in the sum of six thousand dollars; if a specialty contractor, in the sum of four thousand dollars, conditioned that the applicant will pay all persons performing labor, including employee benefits, for the contractor, will pay all taxes and contributions due to the state of Washington, and will pay all persons furnishing labor or material or renting or supplying equipment to the contractor and will pay all amounts that may be adjudged against the contractor by reason of negligent or improper work or breach of contract in the conduct of the contracting business. A change in the name of a business or a change in the type of business entity shall not impair a bond for the purposes of this section so long as one of the original applicants for such bond maintains partial ownership in the business covered by the bond.

(2) Any contractor registered as of the effective date of this 1983 act who maintains such registration in accordance with this chapter shall be in compliance with this chapter until the next annual renewal of the contractor's certificate of registration. At that time, the contractor shall provide a bond, cash deposit, or other security deposit as required by this chapter and comply with all of the other provisions of this chapter before the department shall renew the contractor's certificate of registration.

(3) Any person, firm, or corporation having a claim against the contractor for any of the items referred to in this section may bring suit upon such bond in the superior court of the county in which the work is done or of any county in which jurisdiction of the contractor may be had. The surety issuing the bond shall be named as a party to any suit upon the bond and shall be liable for court costs in the same manner as any other party to the suit. Action upon such bond or deposit shall be commenced by filing the complaint with the clerk of the appropriate superior court within one year from the date of expiration of the certificate of registration in force at the time the claimed labor was performed and benefits accrued, taxes and contributions owing the state of Washington became due, materials and equipment were furnished, or the claimed contract work was completed. Service of process in an action upon such bond shall be exclusively by service upon the department. Three copies of the complaint and a fee of ten dollars to cover the handling costs shall be served by registered or certified mail upon the department at the time suit is started and the department shall maintain a record, available for public inspection, of all suits so commenced. Service is not complete until the department receives the ten-dollar fee and three copies of the complaint. Such service shall constitute service on the registrant and the surety for suit upon the bond and the department shall transmit the complaint or a copy thereof to the registrant at the address listed in his application and to the surety within forty-eight hours after it shall have been received.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, the surety upon the bond shall not be liable in an aggregate amount in excess of the amount named in the bond nor for any monetary penalty assessed pursuant to this chapter for an infraction. The surety upon the bond may, upon notice to the department and the parties, tender to the clerk of the court having jurisdiction of the action an amount equal to the claims thereunder or the amount of the bond less the amount of judgments, if any, previously satisfied therefrom and to the extent of such tender the surety upon the bond shall be exonerated but if the actions commenced and pending at any one time exceed the amount of the bond then unimpaired, claims shall be satisfied from the bond in the following order:

- (a) Labor, including employee benefits;
- (b) Claims for breach of contract by a party to the construction contract;
- (c) Material and equipment;
- (d) Taxes and contributions due the state of Washington;
- (e) Any court costs, interest, and attorney's fees plaintiff may be entitled to recover.

(5) In the event that any final judgment shall impair the liability of the surety upon the bond so furnished that there shall not be in effect a bond undertaking in the full amount prescribed in this section, the department shall suspend the registration of such contractor until the bond liability in the required amount unimpaired by unsatisfied judgment claims shall have been furnished. If such bond becomes fully impaired, a new bond must be furnished at the increased rates prescribed by this section as now or hereafter amended.

(6) In lieu of the surety bond required by this section the contractor may file with the department a deposit consisting of cash or other security acceptable to the department.

(7) Any person having an unsatisfied final judgment against the registrant for any items referred to in this section may execute upon the security held by the department by serving a certified copy of the unsatisfied final judgment by registered or certified mail upon the department within one year of the date of entry of such judgment. Upon the receipt of service of such certified copy the department shall pay or order paid from the deposit, through the registry of the superior court which rendered judgment, towards the amount of the unsatisfied judgment. The priority of payment by the department shall be the order of receipt by the department, but the department shall have no liability for payment in excess of the amount of the deposit.

(8) The director may promulgate rules necessary for the proper administration of the security."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "contractors;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 18.27.020, 18.27.030, 18.27.100, and 18.27.040; and adding new sections to chapter 18.27 RCW."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Talmadge, will this apply to every agency of state government and all institutions?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, it will apply to all executive branch agencies of state government."

Senator Patterson: "Only executive branch agencies?"

Senator Talmadge: "It will not apply, as I understand it, to the judicial branches of government, nor the legislative branch of government on the principle of separation of power. Each of those institutions must adopt their own standards for a conflict of interest and so forth that would apply. I believe we have some standards with respect to personal service contracts in the legislative process, as they do in the judiciary."

Senator Patterson: "I am thinking in terms of transportation."

Senator Talmadge: "The committee or the department?"

Senator Patterson: "The commission--the commission of the--not so much the legislative transportation committee, but the commission itself."

Senator Talmadge: "The commission itself, Senator, would be subject to the provisions of this bill."

Senator Patterson: "That falls under the executive branch of government?"

Senator Talmadge: "It does."

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 121, Laws of 1983 and RCW 58.17.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to:

(1) Cemeteries and other burial plots while used for that purpose;

(2) Divisions of land into lots or tracts each of which is one-one hundred twenty-eighth of a section of land or larger, or five acres or larger if the land is not capable of description as a fraction of a section of land, unless the governing authority of the city, town, or county in which the land is situated shall have adopted a subdivision ordinance requiring plat approval of such divisions: PROVIDED, That for purposes of computing the size of any lot under this item which borders on a street or road, the lot size shall be expanded to include that area which would be bounded by the center line of the road or street and the side lot lines of the lot running perpendicular to such center line;

(3) Divisions made by testamentary provisions, or the laws of descent; shall be filed for record in the county auditor's office on each lot, parcel, or tract created pursuant to the binding site plan: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the binding site plan and all of its requirements shall be legally enforceable on the purchaser or other person acquiring ownership of the lot, parcel, or tract: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That sale or transfer of such a lot, parcel, or tract in violation of the binding site plan, or without obtaining binding site plan approval, shall be considered a violation of chapter 58.17 RCW and shall be restrained by injunctive action and be illegal as provided in chapter 58.17 RCW);

(5) A division for the purpose of lease when no residential structure other than mobile homes or travel trailers are permitted to be placed upon the land when the ((governing body of the)) city, town, or county has approved a binding site plan for the use of the land in accordance with local regulations;

(6) A division made for the purpose of alteration by adjusting boundary lines, between platted or unplatted lots or both, which does not create any additional lot, tract, parcel, site, or division nor create any lot, tract, parcel, site, or division which contains insufficient area and dimension to meet minimum requirements for width and area for a building site; and

(7) A division which is made by subjecting a portion of a parcel or tract of land to chapter 64.32 RCW if a city, town, or county has approved a binding site plan for all of such land.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 58.17 RCW to read as follows:

A city, town, or county may adopt by ordinance procedures for the divisions of land by use of a binding site plan as an alternative to the procedures required by this chapter. The ordinance shall be limited and only apply to one or more of the following: (1) The use of a binding site plan to divisions for sale or lease of commercially or industrially zoned property as provided in RCW 58.17.040(4); (2) divisions of property for lease as provided for in RCW 58.17.040(5); and (3) divisions of property as provided for in RCW 58.17.040(7). Such ordinance may apply the same or different requirements and procedures to each of the three types of divisions and shall provide for the alteration or vacation of the binding site plan, and may provide for the administrative approval of the binding site plan.

The ordinance shall provide that after approval of the general binding site plan for industrial or commercial divisions subject to a binding site plan, the approval for improvements and finalization of specific individual commercial or industrial lots shall be done by administrative approval.

The binding site plan, after approval, and/or when specific lots are administratively approved, shall be filed with the county auditor with a record of survey. Lots, parcels, or tracts created through the binding site plan procedure shall be legal lots of record. The number of lots, tracts, parcels, sites, or divisions shall not exceed the number of lots allowed by the local zoning ordinances.

All provisions, conditions, and requirements of the binding site plan shall be legally enforceable on the purchaser or any other person acquiring a lease or other ownership interest of any lot, parcel, or tract created pursuant to the binding site plan.

Any sale, transfer, or lease of any lot, tract, or parcel created pursuant to the binding site plan, that does not conform to the requirements of the binding site plan or without binding site plan approval, shall be considered a violation of chapter 58.17 RCW and shall be restrained by injunctive action and be illegal as provided in chapter 58.17 RCW."

Ordinances requiring surveys may permit short plat approval before commencement of the survey, contingent upon completion of the survey, prior to filing the short plat. POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Saling, what I am struggling with, with respect to this amendment, in the policy we are attempting to generate here, would you be supportive of a similar policy if it were to apply to port commissioners or community college presidents?"

Senator Saling: "I think it would be certainly appropriate for community college board of directors, because that is the way it is for them now. Port districts, I understand, are operated in a different manner. They are an organization that tries to create some economic development for the area in which they operate and I think that's fine for those. For a school board member, it is a voluntary position. People who are interested in school boards--who would want to serve and give of their time, the same as a service club--a person who wants to join a service club and provide some service for the community, that's the purpose of the school boards and service clubs. Port districts are a different thing. I do, however, agree with you, Senator Talmadge, that community college boards of trustees should be operated in the same manner that I am suggesting here."

Senator Talmadge: "I think my question was for community college presidents or, perhaps, even citizen legislators."

Senator Saling: "Well, Senator Talmadge, a community college president would be equal in service and in task to a school superintendent--that is a paid administrative position. Now, we are talking about school boards who are elected to that position, or community college trustees who are appointed by the Governor for the same function, to determine policy."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Saling and Bailey.

The motion by Senator Saling failed and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the rules were suspended, Second Substitute House Bill No. 163, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Gaspard, I think you understand our school system as well as anyone on the floor. Would you identify local funds, if you do not pass levies that could be utilized to pay the compensation referred to in this bill? My problem is the question that was just raised by Senator Bailey and I think through question and answer we ought to be able to advise our school boards as to where they get the money in the event they don't pass the local levies."

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Patterson, the bill as it is now worded says, 'from local money' which the interpretation would be from excess levy money if approved by the voters. I would also interpret that to mean any type of gifts of money, fund raisers specifically for that purpose, would also qualify. Just let me add one other thing, Senator Patterson, I was not particularly a fan of this bill at the very beginning until I did a little bit of research and found out that all of our community college boards are in the category of receiving compensation of up to $4,800 a year, which this would do. All of our four year institution boards of trustees, having the same benefit--the State Board for Community Colleges, the HEC Board. When I looked, the group that was left out was the local school boards and that's why I decided to support the bill."

Senator Patterson: "Senator, I am trying to have us identify through this dialogue for those districts that do not pass special levies and there are forty-three of them, as I understand it, in the state of Washington that do not have special levies--excess levy monies. What I am trying to do is see that they have an equal opportunity to address this bill. What would be a source of money other than contributions? You know, not very many people contribute and I just want to have those school districts that do not have special levies understand from us where we think they can find local monies for the purpose of compensating their school directors?"

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Patterson, as I mentioned before, with the local levies, gifts, grants, local fund raising activities. Beyond that, I don't know what would be included, because what we are trying to exclude is basic education money."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senator Metcalf was excused.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Warnke, I took a look, I guess, at the committee amendment. As I understood it, the original bill that came to us from the House said that on a written contract of any amount or written bid of any amount that this disclosure statement was required. The committee amendment says that if it's a contract or bid of one thousand dollars or more, the disclosure statement is required. For the small householder--the consumer who is impacted by this situation, what protection do they have? Isn't this disclosure statement that which was designed to protect the small householder from problems with the contractor?"

Senator Warnke: "The protections are still there under the law. The only difference would be that the contractor does not disclose with a disclosure statement at the time of the bid for those bids that are under $1,000. The protections of the Department are still there to file the liens."

(2) An employee cooperative shall issue a class of voting stock designated as "membership shares." Each member shall own only one membership share, and only members may own these shares.

(3) Membership shares shall be issued for a fee as determined from time to time by the directors. RCW 23A.08.140 and 23A.08.200 do not apply to such membership shares.

Members of an employee cooperative shall have all the rights and responsibilities of stockholders of a corporation organized under Title 23A RCW, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. (1) No capital stock other than membership shares shall be given voting power in an employee cooperative, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, or in the articles of incorporation.

(2) The power to amend or repeal bylaws of an employee cooperative shall be in the members only.

(3) Except as otherwise permitted by RCW 23A.16.030, no capital stock other than membership shares shall be permitted to vote on any amendment to the articles of incorporation.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. (1) The net earnings or losses of an employee cooperative shall be apportioned and distributed at the times and in the manner as the articles of incorporation or bylaws shall specify. Net earnings declared as patronage allocations with respect to a period of time, and paid or credited to members, shall be apportioned among the members in accordance with the ratio which each member's patronage during the period involved bears to total patronage by all members during that period.

(2) The apportionment, distribution, and payment of net earnings required by subsection (1) of this section may be in cash, credits, written notices of allocation, or capital stock issued by the employee cooperative.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. (1) Any employee cooperative may establish through its articles of incorporation or bylaws a system of internal capital accounts to reflect the book value and to determine the redemption price of membership shares, capital stock, and written notices of allocation.

(2) The articles of incorporation or bylaws of an employee cooperative may permit the periodic redemption of written notices of allocation and capital stock, and must provide for recall and redemption of the membership share upon termination of membership in the cooperative. No redemption shall be made if redemption would result in a violation of RCW 23A.08.020.

(3) The articles of incorporation or bylaws may provide for the employee cooperative to pay or credit interest on the balance in each member's internal capital account.

(4) The articles of incorporation or bylaws may authorize assignment of a portion of retained net earnings and net losses to a collective reserve account. Earnings assigned to the collective reserve account may be used for any and all corporate purposes as determined by the board of directors.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. (1) An internal capital account cooperative is an employee cooperative whose entire net book value is reflected in internal capital accounts, one for each member, and a collective reserve account, and in which no persons other than members own capital stock. In an internal capital account cooperative, each member shall have one and only one vote in any matter requiring voting by stockholders.

(2) An internal capital account cooperative shall credit the paid-in membership fee and additional paid-in capital of a member to the member's internal capital account, and shall also record the apportionment of retained net earnings or net losses to the members in accordance with patronage by appropriately crediting or debiting the internal capital accounts of members. The collective reserve account in an internal capital account cooperative shall reflect any paid-in capital, net losses, and retained net earnings not allocated to individual members.

(3) In an internal capital account cooperative, the balances in all the individual internal capital accounts and collective reserve account, if any, shall be adjusted at the end of each accounting period so that the sum of the balances is equal to the net book value of the employee cooperative.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. (1) When any employee cooperative revokes its election in accordance with section 4 of this act, the articles of amendment shall provide for conversion of membership shares and internal capital accounts or their conversion to securities or other property in a manner consistent with Title 23A RCW.

(2) An employee cooperative that has not revoked its election under this chapter may not consolidate or merge with another corporation other than an employee cooperative. Two or more employee cooperatives may consolidate or merge in accordance with chapter 23A.20 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. Sections 1 through 11 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 23 RCW.

(4) Any transaction between the issuer or other person on whose behalf the offering is made and an underwriter, or among underwriters.

(5) Any transaction in a bond or other evidence of indebtedness secured by a real or chattel mortgage or deed of trust, or by an agreement for the sale of real estate or chattels, if the entire mortgage, deed of trust, or agreement, together with all the bonds or other evidences of indebtedness secured thereby, is offered and sold as a unit.

(12) Any offer (but not a sale) of a security for which registration statements have been filed under both this chapter and the Securities Act of 1933 if no stop order or refusal order is in effect and no public proceeding or examination looking toward such an order is pending under either act.

(14) Any transaction incident to a right of conversion or a statutory or judicially approved reclassification, recapitalization, reorganization, quasi reorganization, stock split, reverse stock split, merger, consolidation, or sale of assets.

(b) Such securities do not constitute the whole or a part of an unsold allotment to or subscription or participation by such broker-dealer as an underwriter of such securities or as a participant in the distribution of such securities by the issuer, by an underwriter or by a person or group of persons in substantial control of the issuer or of the outstanding securities of the class being distributed; and

(c) The security has been lawfully sold and distributed in this state or any other state of the United States under this or any act regulating the sale of such securities.

~~(16) (Any transactions by a mutual or cooperative association issuing to its patrons any receipt, written notice, certificate of indebtedness, or stock for a patronage dividend, or for contributions to capital by such patrons in the association if any such receipt, written notice, or certificate made pursuant to this paragraph is nontransferable except in the case of death or by operation of law and so states conspicuously on its face:~~

~~(17))~~ Any transaction effected in accordance with any rule adopted by the director establishing a limited offering exemption which furthers objectives of compatibility with federal exemptions and uniformity among the states, provided that in adopting any such rule the director may require that no commission or other remuneration be paid or given to any person, directly or indirectly, for effecting sales unless the person is registered under this chapter as a broker-dealer or salesperson.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The intent of the legislature in amending RCW 21.20.320 is to except from chapter 21.20 RCW membership shares in cooperatives that are organized under cooperative principles. The securities division of the department of licensing shall retain its authority to investigate organizations purporting to be cooperatives to ensure that such organizations are

The panel shall consist of representatives of educational institutions; local, regional, and national cooperative and employee-ownership organizations; employee-owned cooperatives; firms with employee stock ownership plans; and associate development organizations.

(3) The department shall maintain a list of firms and individuals with expertise in the field of employee ownership and utilize such firms and individuals, as appropriate, in delivering and coordinating the delivery of technical, managerial, and educational services. In addition, the department shall work with and rely on the services of the department of trade and economic development, the employment security department, and state institutions of higher education to promote employee ownership.

(4) The department shall report to the governor, the trade and economic development committee of the house of representatives, the commerce and labor committee of the senate, and the ways and means committees of each house by December 1 of 1988, and each year thereafter, on the accomplishments of the employee-ownership program. POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wojahn: "Yes, wherever possible, Indian children will be placed in foster homes with the ethnic minority of their own race and they are not licensed."

Senator Newhouse: "The only regulation is by the tribe?"

Senator Wojahn: "The regulation will be under the federal act, so there would be no need to license the homes according to the Department of Social and Health Services."

Senator Wojahn: "The Indian tribe?"

Senator Deccio: "That the tribe would have the responsibility--"

Senator Wojahn: "They would have the responsibility for the placement of the children. It comes under the federal act which does supercede the state act, but we should modify our act to follow the federal act and we can lose federal funds if we do not do that."

MOTION

On page 2, after line 15, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. It is the intent of the legislature to foster cooperation between citizens of this state and state agencies in the efforts to control agricultural nonpoint source pollution problems. This cooperation shall be in the form of a system to refer complaints of nonpoint source pollution occurring on agricultural lands to a neutral entity which will work closely with the person conducting the agricultural activity in an effort to resolve the pollution problem. The focus of this system shall be to encourage the implementation of agricultural best management practices, to cooperate to achieve compliance with nonpoint pollution standards, and to avoid confrontation.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. The department of ecology shall promulgate regulations to implement sections 2 through 7 of this act. These regulations shall: (1) Delineate the role of the conservation districts in determining whether water pollution is originating from nonpoint agricultural sources; (2) establish criteria for determining when nonpoint agricultural pollution has been resolved; (3) establish criteria for determining when a pollution control emergency exists with regard to nonpoint source water pollution from agricultural lands; (4) delineate the responsibilities of the conservation districts and the department in identifying and responding to emergencies; and (5) incorporate the definition of nonpoint pollution established in section 208 of the federal water pollution control act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. At the request of a conservation district, the department of ecology shall enter into a contract or memorandum of understanding with such conservation district to fund the activities of the district required by sections 2 through 7 of this act. The department may use federal water pollution control moneys, consistent with federal law, to provide a portion of the funding required to implement sections 2 through 7 of this act. If the resolution of a nonpoint pollution problem pursuant to sections 2 through 7 of this act involves a project eligible for funding under chapter 70.146 RCW, the district shall apply to the conservation commission for a grant to carry out such project with funds distributed to the conservation commission under chapter 70.146 RCW. Moneys to implement sections 2 through 7 of this act shall be distributed only to districts which have entered into a contract or memorandum of understanding with the department of ecology. Moneys to implement sections 2 through 7 of this act shall be distributed at the beginning of each fiscal year and shall be based on a formula developed by the department of ecology to estimate the activities to be required of the district during the fiscal year.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. (1) Complaints received by the department of ecology regarding nonpoint source water pollution from agricultural lands shall be referred to the conservation district office in the jurisdiction where the land is located. The conservation district shall contact the person conducting agricultural activities on the land in question. Following consultation with the person and an assessment of agricultural activities being conducted on the land, the conservation district shall determine if a nonpoint source pollution problem exists.

Following the consultation, the conservation district shall provide a written report of its findings to the person. The report shall be retained in the conservation district office, and all identifying information shall be held confidentially. The conservation district shall inform the department of ecology that contact with the responsible party has been made.

(2) In the event measurable water pollution is attributable to agricultural activities, the conservation district shall offer assistance to the person in the form of information, education, technical assistance, and, if available, cost share and other incentives. The conservation district support may include the development of a cooperative farm plan, employing the wastewater management planning process referenced in section 208 of the 1972 federal water pollution control act, P.L. 92-500, or equivalent measures. The person has the option of accepting all or part of the assistance offered by the conservation district, or choosing to solve the pollution problem on his or her own.

(3) If a person accepts the assistance of the conservation district or chooses otherwise, a period of six months shall be allowed for the development of a plan described in subsection (2) of this section. Following the development of the plan, a period of up to eighteen months shall be allowed for implementation. Provisions shall be made for an extension of the deadline in the event the schedule is disrupted due to weather conditions, cropping or harvesting responsibilities, or other events or conditions beyond the person's control, or to correct an error in estimating the time required for completion.

(4) In the event that any conservation district chooses not to participate in the provisions of sections 2 through 7 of this act, the department of ecology shall retain its authority and shall be the primary contact with persons conducting agricultural activities consistent with the intent of sections 2 through 7 of this act.

(5) If a conservation district determines that it cannot continue to participate on any referred complaint, the conservation district shall rerefer the complaint back to the department of ecology for action consistent with the intent of sections 2 through 7 of this act.

(6) If a previously referred nonpoint pollution complaint recurs, or if an emergency exists as defined pursuant to section 3 of this act, and the landowner has refused to cooperate with the conservation district or make a good faith effort to solve the nonpoint agricultural pollution problem on his or her own, the conservation district or the department of ecology shall immediately notify the person that failure to take immediate corrective action may result in enforcement action by the department of ecology, which may include a resource damage assessment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The department of ecology shall not collect natural resource damage assessments authorized in RCW 90.48.142 for damages arising from agricultural nonpoint source pollution if the individual causing the resource damage is making a good faith effort to develop or implement a plan pursuant to sections 2 through 7 of this act and if the individual is employing best management practices described in appropriate state water quality management plans pursuant to section 208 of the federal water pollution control act, P.L. 95-217.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 2 through 5 of this act shall be administered by the department of ecology with the advice and consent of the state conservation commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 2 through 7 of this act are each added to chapter 90.48 RCW."

Senator Patterson: "Senator Halsan, this is a case where if you are found guilty of the violation of the accident, you are at fault or what?"

Senator Halsan: "Under the financial responsibility law that we are dealing with right in this particular thing, you have an accident and you do not have insurance, the person submits the accident report to the Department of Licensing and your license is suspended unless you post, effectively, a bond that might cover the damages to the other person if they ever recover against you in court. You don't have to pay the other person right up front, although that would relieve you of the responsibility as well, but you do have to post security in order to protect that person, should they eventually prevail."

Senator Patterson: "At the time of the accident, a judgment has not been returned against you as to whether or not it is your fault. Is that correct?"

Senator Halsan: "That is correct and that's--"

Senator Patterson: "That you are supposed to have liability insurance regardless of whether you are at fault?"

Senator Halsan: "That's correct."

Senator Patterson: "So, this gives you twenty days to provide the security in the case you did not have insurance?"

Senator Halsan: "That is correct. You may eventually be found not to have been at fault in the accident, in which case you get the security back."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Talmadge, I am sorry I haven't been following this, but as I understand it you are changing the House version from sixty to twenty days?"

Senator Talmadge: "That's right."

Senator Deccio: "May I ask what the rationale is for reducing that from sixty to twenty?"

Senator Talmadge: "At present, Senator Deccio, the time period is ten days. If you are involved in an accident and you don't have insurance or other kind of financial coverage--a bond or some other assets posted--if that takes place, then there is a notification made and you have ten days in which to get insurance or post a bond or whatever. As I understand it, the Department of Licensing has been saying they can't simply turn these things around in a ten day time period and they asked us to extend that to sixty.

"But, it seems to me that these people have demonstrated once already that they are not responsible drivers; that they are driving without insurance or other kind of protection for others on the road. A twenty day time period seems to be more appropriate. It gives the Department more time to do what they need to do, but it does give us, I think, a little more protection from these people who are driving without insurance."

Senator Deccio: "Well, I guess, this is the filing of proof of financial responsibility immediately after the accident or after the SR 22 filing that is required when the license is going to be reinstated? Which period of time are you talking about?"

Senator Talmadge: "I believe it's the time period from the filing--from mailing of the notice."

Senator Deccio: "To the state?"

Senator Talmadge: "To the driver."

Senator Deccio: "Of the accident?"

Senator Talmadge: "Yes."

Senator Deccio: "Well, I guess the reason I am asking this is because if you are going to wait until the end of the reinstatement period, if the license has been suspended, you can't get insurance in twenty days. If it goes through the pool, it takes at least three weeks before they even determine who is going to be assigned the insurance. I think that twenty days would really not be adequate. I guess I would have to oppose the amendment based on that fact."

Senator Talmadge: "The only problem we have is if we have people driving without any kind of financial responsibility for a period of sixty days after an event at which they have demonstrated their financial irresponsibility. I have a concern about that time period being so delayed. I think the time is sufficient."

Senator Deccio: "Well, that's why I asked the question. If you are talking about just after the accident and not if you are being convicted--had your license revoked. You're not talking about a reinstatement period? You're talking about after the accident?"

Senator Talmadge: "The bill says, at present, Senator Deccio, 'In the event that any person required to give proof of financial responsibility under the law, to give such proof within--such and such a time period--after the Department has sent notice as hereinbefore provided the Department shall suspend and so forth,' so it's after the notice has been issued by the Department of Licensing to the person, that they are subject to having their license suspended if they fail to do it. I think that is the SR 22, period. It's not the accident, but the notice at the time which the time period begins."

Senator Deccio: "Well, again, I think you have me confused. I don't want to drag this on, but you've got one period that you have to file evidence of financial responsibility after the accident and then if your license has been revoked, then after the revocation period you have to file proof of financial responsibility before you can get your license back. That's the period you are talking about? Well, okay then, if it's before the accident or immediately after the accident, I would go along with the amendment."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, before we all get confused, when you get in a traffic accident, you fill out an accident report form. In that form, there is a question, 'Do you have insurance?' And, if you put down 'none' or if you put down 'Allstate,' the Department checks and if you're not insured by Allstate, then they send out a notice and they give you an opportunity for a hearing to show them why the accident was not your fault and the best thing you can use for evidence is the police officer's report which will indicate whether he thought it was your fault or not.

"If he thought it was your fault, or could have been your fault, you are going to lose at that hearing. Then they send you a notice. You then have a period of time to go down and do two things--post a bond for the accident you had and post proof of insurance for the future. That's the SR 22 form you are talking about. No insurance company is going to sell you a policy to cover an accident you've already had. You're going to have to go down and post a bond, or cash, or something in what the patrol officer thought was the estimated value of the damage that was done and if there has been a personal injury, then there is usually a filing by the injured party as to what that bond would be."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Talmadge.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

Senator Vognil moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature declares that:

(1) Marketing is a dynamic and changing part of Washington agriculture and a vital element in expanding the state economy.

(2) The sale in the state and export to other states and abroad of wine made in the state contribute substantial benefits to the economy of the state, provide a large number of jobs and sizeable tax revenues, and have an important stabilizing effect on prices received by agricultural producers. Development of exports of these commodities abroad will contribute favorably to the balance of trade of the United States and of the state. The sale and export are therefore affected with the public interest.

(3) The production of wine grapes in the state is a new and important segment of Washington agriculture which has potential for greater contribution to the economy of the state if it undergoes healthy development.

(4) The general welfare of the people of the state will be served by healthy development of the activities of growing and processing wine grapes, which development will improve the tax bases of local communities in which agricultural land and processing facilities are located, and obviate the need for state and federal funding of local services. The industries are therefore affected with the public interest.

(5) Creation of a commission for the public purpose of administering the revenue of the commission under RCW 66.24.210(3) for the enhancement of production of wine grapes and wine and the marketing of Washington wine will materially advance the industries of growing and processing wine grapes and thereby the interests of the citizens of the state.

Except as provided in section 10(2) of this act, the commission shall be composed of eleven voting members, five voting members shall be growers, five voting members shall be wine producers, and one voting member shall be a wine wholesaler licensed under RCW 66.24.200. Of the grower members, at least one shall be a person who does not have over fifty acres of vinifera grapes in production, at least one shall be a person who has over one hundred acres of vinifera grapes in production, and two may be persons who produce and sell their own wine. Of the wine producer members, at least one shall be a person producing not more than twenty-five thousand gallons of wine annually, at least one shall be a person producing over one million gallons of wine annually, and at least two shall be persons who produce wine from their own grapes. In addition, at least one member shall be a wine producer located in western Washington and at least two members shall be wine producers located in eastern Washington.

(2) In addition to the voting members identified in subsection (1) of this section, the commission shall have one nonvoting member who is a wine producer in this state whose principal wine or wines are produced from fruit other than vinifera grapes.

(3) Except as provided in section 10(2) of this act, seven voting members of the commission constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business of the commission.

(4) Each voting member of the commission shall be a citizen and resident of this state and over the age of twenty-one years. Each must be or must have been engaged in that phase of the grower or wine producer industry that he or she is appointed to represent, and must during his or her term of office derive a substantial portion of income therefrom, or have a substantial investment in the growing of vinifera grapes or the production of wine from vinifera grapes as an owner, lessee, partner, or a stockholder owning at least ten percent of the voting stock in a corporation engaged in the growing of vinifera grapes or wine production from vinifera grapes; or the manager or executive officer of such a corporation. These qualifications apply throughout each member's term of office.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The appointive voting positions on the commission shall be designated as follows: The wine producers shall be designated positions one, two, three, four, and five; the growers shall be designated positions six, seven, eight, nine, and ten; and the at large shall be position eleven. The nonvoting member shall be designated position number twelve. The member designated as filling position one shall be a person producing over one million gallons of wine annually. The member designated as position one shall be the sole representative, directly or indirectly, of the producer eligible to hold position one and in no event shall that producer directly or indirectly control more than fifty percent of the votes of the commission.

Except as provided in section 10(2) of this act, the regular terms of office shall be three years from the date of appointment and until their successors are appointed. However, the first terms of the members appointed upon the effective date of this section shall be as follows: Positions one, six, and eleven shall terminate July 1, 1990; positions two, four, seven, and nine shall terminate July 1, 1989; and positions three, five, eight, and ten shall terminate July 1, 1988. The term of the initial nonvoting member shall terminate July 1, 1990.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The director shall appoint the members of the commission. In making such appointments of the voting members, the director shall take into consideration recommendations made by the growers' association and the wine institute as the persons recommended for appointment as members of the commission. In appointing persons to the commission, the director shall seek to ensure as nearly as possible a balanced representation on the commission which would reflect the composition of the growers and wine producers throughout the state as to number of acres cultivated and amount of wine produced.

The appointment shall be carried out immediately subsequent to the effective date of this section and members so appointed as set forth in this chapter shall serve for the periods set forth for the original members of the commission under section 4 of this act.

In the event a position on the commission becomes vacant due to resignation, disqualification, death, or for any other reason, the unexpired term of the position shall immediately be filled by appointment by the director.

Each member of the commission shall be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Obligations incurred by the commission and liabilities or claims against the commission shall be enforced only against the assets of the commission in the same manner as if it were a corporation and no liability for the debts or actions of the commission shall exist against either the state of Washington or any subdivision or instrumentality thereof or against any member, officer, employee, or agent of the commission in his or her individual capacity. The members of the commission, including employees of the commission, shall not be held responsible individually or any way whatsoever to any person for errors in judgment, mistakes, or other acts, either of commission or omission, as principal, agent, person, or employees, except for their own individual acts of dishonesty or crime. No such person or employee shall be held responsible individually for any act or omission of any other members of the commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The powers and duties of the commission include:

(1) To elect a chairman and such officers as the commission deems advisable. The officers shall include a treasurer who is responsible for all receipts and disbursements by the commission and the faithful discharge of whose duties shall be guaranteed by a bond at the sole expense of the commission. The commission shall adopt rules for its own governance, which shall provide for the holding of an annual meeting for the election of officers and transaction of other business and for such other meetings as the commission may direct;

(2) To do all things reasonably necessary to effect the purposes of this chapter. However, the commission shall have no legislative power;

(3) At the pleasure of the commission, to employ and discharge managers, secretaries, agents, attorneys, and employees and to engage the services of independent contractors as the commission deems necessary, to prescribe their duties, and to fix their compensation;

(4) To receive donations of wine from wineries for promotional purposes;

(5) To engage directly or indirectly in the promotion of Washington wine, including without limitation the acquisition in any lawful manner and the dissemination without charge of wine, which dissemination shall not be deemed a sale for any purpose and in which dissemination the commission shall not be deemed a wine producer, supplier, or manufacturer of any kind or the clerk, servant, or agent of a producer, supplier, or manufacturer of any kind. Such dissemination shall be for agricultural development or trade promotion, which may include promotional hosting and shall in the good faith judgment of the commission be in aid of the marketing, advertising, or sale of wine, or of research related to such marketing, advertising, or sale;

(6) To acquire and transfer personal and real property, establish offices, incur expense, enter into contracts (including contracts for creation and printing of promotional literature, which contracts shall not be subject to chapter 43.78 RCW, but which shall be cancelable by the commission unless performed under conditions of employment which substantially conform to the laws of this state and the rules of the department of labor and industries). The commission may create such debt and other liabilities as may be reasonable for proper discharge of its duties under this chapter;

(7) To maintain such account or accounts with one or more qualified public depositaries as the commission may direct, to cause moneys to be deposited therein, and to expend moneys for purposes authorized by this chapter by drafts made by the commission upon such institutions or by other means:

(8) To cause to be kept and annually closed, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, accurate records of all receipts, disbursements, and other financial transactions, available for audit by the state auditor;

(9) To create and maintain a list of producers and to disseminate information among and solicit the opinions of producers with respect to the discharge of the duties of the commission, directly or by arrangement with trade associations or other instrumentalities;

(10) To employ, designate as agent, act in concert with, and enter into contracts with any person, council, commission or other entity for the purpose of promoting the general welfare of the vinifera grape industry and particularly for the purpose of assisting in the sale and distribution of Washington wine in domestic and foreign commerce, expending moneys as it may deem necessary or advisable for such purpose and for the purpose of paying its proportionate share of the cost of any program providing direct or indirect assistance to the sale and distribution of Washington wine in domestic or foreign commerce, employing and paying for vendors of professional services of all kinds; and

(11) To sue and be sued as a commission, without individual liability for acts of the commission within the scope of the powers conferred upon it by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The commission shall create, provide for, and conduct a comprehensive and extensive research, promotional, and educational campaign as crop, sales, and market conditions reasonably require. It shall investigate and ascertain the needs of producers, conditions of markets, and degree of public awareness of products, and take into account the information adduced thereby in the discharge of its duties under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The commission shall adopt as major objectives of its research, promotional, and educational campaign such goals as will serve the needs of producers, which may include, without limitation, efforts to:

(1) Establish Washington wine as a major factor in markets everywhere;

(2) Promote Washington wineries as tourist attractions;

(3) Encourage favorable reporting of Washington wine and wineries in the press throughout the world;

(4) Establish the state in markets everywhere as a major source of premium wine;

(5) Encourage favorable legislative and regulatory treatment of Washington wine in markets everywhere;

(6) Foster economic conditions favorable to investment in the production of vinifera grapes and Washington wine;

(7) Advance knowledge and practice of production of wine grapes in this state;

(8) Discover and develop new and improved vines for the reliable and economical production of wine grapes in the state; and

(9) Advance knowledge and practice of the processing of wine grapes in the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, the vote of each of the voting members of the commission shall be weighted as provided by this subsection for the transaction of any of the business of the commission. The total voting strength of the entire voting membership of the commission shall be eleven votes. The vote of position one shall be equal to the lesser of the following: Five and one-half votes; or eleven votes times the percentage of the wine produced in the state that is produced by the person filling position one. The percentage shall be based upon the amount of wine produced in the previous calendar year and shall be rounded to the nearest ten percent. The remaining votes of the membership of the commission shall be divided equally among the remaining members of the commission.

(2) In the event the assessment described in section 13(1)(b) of this act is not effective on July 1, 1989, the positions designated for growers cease to exist. In such an event, the commission shall be composed of six voting members and one nonvoting member. The nonvoting member shall be position seven. Four voting members of the commission constitute a quorum for the modified commission. Of the six votes of the entire voting membership of the modified commission, the vote of position one shall be the lesser of the following: Three votes; or six votes times the percentage of the wine produced in the state that is produced by the person filling position one. The percentage shall be based upon the amount of wine produced in the previous calendar year and shall be rounded to the nearest ten percent. The remaining votes of the membership of the commission shall be divided equally among the remaining members of the commission.

(3) In the event that the percentage of wine produced by the producer represented by position one falls below twenty-five percent of the wine produced in this state, the weighted voting mechanism provided for in subsections(1) and (2) of this section shall cease to be effective. In that case, the voting shall be based on one vote per position.

Sec. 11. Section 24-A added to chapter 62, Laws of 1933 ex. sess. by section 3, chapter 158, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 10, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 66.24.210 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby imposed upon all wines sold to wine wholesalers and the Washington state liquor control board, within the state a tax at the rate of twenty and one-fourth cents per liter: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That wine sold or shipped in bulk from one winery to another winery shall not be subject to such tax. The tax provided for in this section may, if so prescribed by the board, be collected by means of stamps to be furnished by the board, or by direct payments based on wine purchased by wine wholesalers. Every person purchasing wine under the provisions of this section shall on or before the twentieth day of each month report to the board all purchases during the preceding calendar month in such manner and upon such forms as may be prescribed by the board, and with such report shall pay the tax due from the purchases covered by such report unless the same has previously been paid. Any such purchaser of wine whose applicable tax payment is not postmarked by the twentieth day following the month of purchase will be assessed a penalty at the rate of two percent a month or fraction thereof. If this tax be collected by means of stamps, every such person shall procure from the board revenue stamps representing the tax in such form as the board shall prescribe and shall affix the same to the package or container in such manner and in such denomination as required by the board and shall cancel the same prior to the delivery of the package or container containing the wine to the purchaser. If the tax is not collected by means of stamps, the board may require that every such person shall execute to and file with the board a bond to be approved by the board, in such amount as the board may fix, securing the payment of the tax. If any such person fails to pay the tax when due, the board may forthwith suspend or cancel the license until all taxes are paid.

(2) An additional tax is imposed equal to the rate specified in RCW 82.02.030 multiplied by the tax payable under subsection (1) of this section. All revenues collected during any month from this additional tax shall be transferred to the state general fund by the twenty-fifth day of the following month.

(3) An additional tax is imposed on wines subject to tax under subsection (1) of this section, at the rate of one-fourth of one cent per liter for wine sold after June 30, 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 66.08 RCW to read as follows:

To provide for the operation of the wine commission prior to its first quarterly disbursement, the liquor control board shall, on the effective date of this section, disburse one hundred ten thousand dollars to the wine commission. However, such disbursement shall be repaid to the liquor control board by a reduction from the quarterly disbursements to the wine commission under RCW 66.24.210 of twenty-seven thousand five hundred dollars each quarter until such amount is repaid. These funds shall be used to establish the Washington wine commission and the other purposes delineated in chapter 15.-- RCW (sections 1 through 10 this act).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 66.12 RCW to read as follows:

(1) To provide for permanent funding of the wine commission after July 1, 1989, agricultural commodity assessments shall be levied by the board on wine producers and growers as follows:

(a) Beginning on July 1, 1989, the assessment on wine producers shall be two cents per gallon on sales of packaged Washington wines.

(b) Beginning on July 1, 1989, the assessment on growers, on sales of Washington vinifera wine grapes, shall be levied at a rate sufficient to raise an amount equal to the amount raised under subsection (1)(a) of this section. The method of calculation and collection of the grower assessment shall be determined under legislation enacted during the 1988 session of the legislature.

(c) After July 1, 1993, assessment rates under subsection (1)(a) of this section may be changed pursuant to a referendum conducted by the Washington wine commission and approved by a majority vote of wine producers. The weight of each producer's vote shall be equal to the percentage of that producer's share of Washington vinifera wine production in the prior year.

(d) After July 1, 1993, assessment amounts under subsection (1)(b) of this section may be changed pursuant to a referendum conducted by the Washington wine commission and approved by a majority vote of grape growers. The weight of each grower's vote shall be equal to the percentage of that grower's share of Washington vinifera grape sales in the prior year.

(2) Assessments collected under this section shall be disbursed quarterly to the Washington wine commission for use in carrying out the purposes of chapter 15.-- RCW (sections 1 through 10 of this act).

(3) Prior to July 1, 1996, a referendum shall be conducted to determine whether to continue the Washington wine commission as representing both wine producers and grape growers. The voting shall not be weighted. The wine producers shall vote whether to continue the commission's coverage of wineries and wine production. The grape producers shall vote whether to continue the commission's coverage of issues pertaining to grape growing. If a majority of both wine and grape producers favor the continuation of the commission, the assessments shall continue as provided in subsection (2) (b) and (d) of this section. If only one group of producers favors the continuation, the assessments shall only be levied on the group which favored the continuation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. A new section is added to chapter 66.12 RCW to read as follows:

The Washington wine commission created under section 3 of this act may purchase or receive donations of Washington wine from wineries and may use such wine for promotional purposes. No license, permit, or bond is required of the Washington wine commission under this title for promotional activities conducted under chapter 15.— RCW (sections 1 through 10 of this act).

(2) Section 10 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1989.*

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following amendment to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment was adopted:

On page 17, after "1987," on line 14 of the committee amendment, insert "All revenues collected under this subsection (3) shall be disbursed quarterly to the Washington wine commission for use in carrying out the purposes of chapter 15.— RCW (sections 1 through 10 of this 1987 act)."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Ways and Means amendment, as amended.

The motion by Senator Vognild carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "commission;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 66.24.210, 66.28.040, and 15.04.200; adding a new chapter to Title 15 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 66.08 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 66.12 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 66.44 RCW; creating a new section; providing effective dates; and declaring an emergency."

On motion of Senator McDermott, the rules were suspended, Second Substitute House Bill No. 569, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Senator Benitz, what is the weighted voting? Is that done in any of the agricultural commissions around and what is the weighted voting and the purpose of it? I am a little nervous about the larger getting more of a vote."

Senator Benitz: "The bill was changed from its original form to where no one winery can have fifty percent or more of the vote. For a winery to have a weighted vote of more than fifty percent--that has been changed. A large winery would have to go with a couple of small wineries to have that majority. The weighted vote has been changed. It does not exist so that one winery could control--no way."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Smitherman: "Senator Benitz, I was just wondering. I received a little notice here discussing a party that is to be held this afternoon--a wine tasting party. I was wondering if this has been timed so that it went along with this particular bill?"

Senator Benitz: "Senator, I intended to respond to that issue on a note of personal privilege as soon as this bill is over with, especially if the vote is quite affirmative."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, Senator Moore was excused.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Second Substitute House Bill No. 569, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 5; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smitherman, Stratton, Tanner, Vogt, Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn - 43.

Voting nay: Senators Craswell, Kreidler, Metcalf, Talmadge, Zimmerman - 5.

Excused: Senator Moore - 1.

SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 569, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Benitz: "Mr. President, I request a point of personal privilege. I wish to thank all of you for the vote. I think we are on our way. In response to Senator Smitherman, if the time can be worked out to where the time is available this evening by the time we quit, and if it isn't too late, I invite you to the area of Senators Hayner and Sellar offices. We will taste one German wine to get a comparison and then several Washington premium wines--and I think you will enjoy them. We will have some cheese from the Yakima Valley from Senator Newhouse to kind of help the taste of the wine along. You are most welcome upon adjournment this afternoon. If we can't do it this afternoon, we'll do it the first time we can."

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the fourth order of business.

(1) The board shall have power on its own motion or, in its discretion, upon the written request of any interested party, to investigate the performance of pilotage services subject to this chapter and to issue a reprimand, impose a fine against a pilot in an amount not to exceed five thousand dollars ~~((and))~~, suspend, withhold, or revoke the license of any pilot, or any combination of the above, for misconduct, incompetency, inattention to duty, intoxication, or failure to perform his duties under this chapter, or violation of any of the rules or regulations provided by the board for the government of pilots. The board may partially or totally stay any disciplinary action authorized in this subsection and subsection (2) of this section. The board shall have the power to require that a pilot satisfactorily complete a specific course of training or treatment.

(2) In all instances where a pilot licensed under this chapter performs pilot services on a vessel exempt under RCW 88.16.070, the board may on its own motion, or in its discretion upon the written request of any interested party, investigate whether the services were performed in a professional manner consistent with sound maritime practices. ~~((If the board finds that the pilotage services were performed in a negligent manner so as to endanger life, limb, or property, the board shall impose a fine of not more than five thousand dollars upon the offending pilot.))~~ If the board finds that the pilotage services were performed in a manner that constitutes an act of incompetence, misconduct, or negligence so as to endanger life, limb, or property, or violated or failed to comply with state laws or regulations intended to promote marine safety or to protect navigable waters, the board may issue a reprimand, impose a fine against a pilot in an amount not to exceed five thousand dollars, suspend, withhold, or revoke the state pilot license, or any combination of the above. The board shall have the power to require that a pilot satisfactorily complete a specific course of training or treatment.

(3) The board shall implement a system of specified disciplinary actions or corrective actions, including training or treatment, that will be taken when a state licensed pilot in a specified period of time has had multiple disciplinary actions taken against the pilot's license pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) of this section. In developing these disciplinary or corrective actions, the board shall take into account the cause of the disciplinary action and the pilot's previous record.

(4) When the board determines that reasonable cause exists to issue a reprimand, impose a fine ((or)), suspend, revoke, or withhold any pilot's license or require training or treatment under subsection (1) or (2) of this section, it shall forthwith prepare and personally serve upon such pilot a notice advising him of the board's intended action, the specific grounds therefor, and the right to request a hearing to challenge the board's action. No appeal may be taken after the expiration of thirty days after the date of final decision. Any case so certified to the superior court shall be tried de novo and after certification of the record to said superior court the proceedings shall be had as in a civil action. Moneys collected from fines under this section shall be deposited in the pilotage account.

(5) The board shall have the power, on an emergency basis, to temporarily suspend a state pilot's license: (a) When a pilot has been involved in any vessel accident where there has been major property damage, loss of life, or loss of a vessel, or (b) where there is a reasonable cause to believe that a pilot has diminished mental capacity or is under the influence of drugs, alcohol, or other substances, when in the opinion of the board, such an accident or physical or mental impairment would significantly diminish that pilot's ability to carry out pilotage duties and that the public health, safety, and welfare requires such emergency action. The board shall make a determination within seventy-two hours whether to continue the suspension. The board shall develop rules for exercising this authority including procedures for the chairperson or vice-chairperson of the board to temporarily order such suspensions, emergency meetings of the board to consider such suspensions, the length of suspension, opportunities for hearings, and an appeal process. The board shall develop rules under chapter 34.04 RCW.

(25) "Victim" means any person who has sustained physical or financial injury to person or property as a direct result of the crime charged.

(26) "Violent offense" means:

(a) Any of the following felonies, as now existing or hereafter amended: Any felony defined under any law as a class A felony or an attempt to commit a class A felony, criminal solicitation or criminal conspiracy to commit a class A felony, manslaughter in the first degree, manslaughter in the second degree, indecent liberties if committed by forcible compulsion, rape in the second degree, kidnapping in the second degree, arson in the second degree, assault in the second degree, extortion in the first degree, robbery in the second degree, (vehicular homicide, and) vehicular assault, and vehicular homicide, when proximately caused by the driving of any vehicle by any person while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug as defined by RCW 46.61.502, or by the operation of any vehicle in a reckless manner;

(b) Any conviction for a felony offense in effect at any time prior to July 1, 1976, that is comparable to a felony classified as a violent offense in subsection (26)(a) of this section; and

(c) Any federal or out-of-state conviction for an offense that under the laws of this state would be a felony classified as a violent offense under subsection (26) (a) or (b) of this section.

(27) "Work release" means a program of partial confinement available to offenders who are employed or engaged as a student in a regular course of study at school. Participation in work release shall be conditioned upon the offender attending work or school at regularly defined hours and abiding by the rules of the work release facility.

Sec. 2. Section 12, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 20, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and by section 4, chapter 301, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.120 are each re-enacted and amended to read as follows:

When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this section.

(1) Except as authorized in subsections (2), (5), and (7) of this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range for the offense.

(2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(3) Whenever a sentence outside the standard range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard range shall be a determinate sentence.

(4) An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years. An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than three years, and shall not be eligible for furlough, work release or other authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility during such minimum three year term except for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility. The foregoing minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) In sentencing a first-time offender the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (a) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
 - (b) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense;
 - (c) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;
 - (d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
 - (e) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer; or
 - (f) Pay a fine and/or accomplish some community service work.
- (6) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or a fine. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(7) (a) When an offender is convicted of a sex offense other than a violation of RCW 9A.44-.040 or RCW 9A.44.050 and has no prior convictions for a sex offense or any other felony sexual offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

After receipt of the reports, the court shall then determine whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative. If the court determines that both the offender and the community will benefit from use of this provision, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range and, if this sentence is less than six years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and place the offender on community supervision for up to two years. As a condition of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense, crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (ii) Undergo available outpatient sex offender treatment for up to two years, or inpatient sex offender treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment;
- (iii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (iv) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (v) Pay a fine, accomplish some community service work, or any combination thereof; or
- (vi) Make recoupment to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime.

If the offender violates these sentence conditions the court may revoke the suspension and order execution of the sentence. All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(b) When an offender is convicted of any felony sexual offense and is sentenced on or after July 1, 1987, to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, request the department of corrections to evaluate whether the offender is amenable to treatment and the department may place the offender in a treatment program within a correctional facility operated by the department.

If the offender completes the treatment program before the expiration of his term of confinement, the department of corrections may request the court to convert the balance of confinement to community supervision and to place conditions on the offender including crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment.

If the offender violates any of the terms of his community supervision, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of his community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections.

Nothing in (b) of this subsection shall confer eligibility for such programs for offenders convicted and sentenced prior to July 1, 1987.

After June 30, 1993, (b) of this subsection shall cease to have effect.

(c) Whenever a court sentences a person convicted of a sex offense committed after July 1, 1986, to a term of confinement of more than one year, including a sentence under (b) of this subsection, the court may also order, in addition to the other terms of the sentence, that the offender, upon release from confinement, serve up to two years of community supervision. The conditions of supervision shall be limited to:

(i) Crime-related provisions;

(ii) A requirement that the offender report to a community corrections officer at regular intervals; and

(iii) A requirement to remain within or without stated geographical boundaries.

The length and conditions of supervision shall be set by the court at the time of sentencing. However, within thirty days prior to release from confinement and throughout the period of supervision, the length and conditions of supervision may be modified by the sentencing court, upon motion of the department of corrections, the offender, or the prosecuting attorney. The period of supervision shall be tolled during any time the offender is in confinement for any reason. In no case may the period of supervision, in combination with the other terms of the offender's sentence, exceed the statutory maximum term for the offender's crime, as set forth in RCW 9A.20.021.

If the offender violates any condition of supervision, the sentencing court, after a hearing conducted in the same manner as provided for in RCW 9.94A.200, may order the offender to be confined for up to sixty days in the county jail at state expense from funds provided for this purpose to the department of corrections. Reimbursement rates for such purposes shall be established based on a formula determined by the office of financial management and reestablished each even-numbered year. An offender may be held in jail at state expense pending the hearing, and any time served while awaiting the hearing shall be credited against confinement imposed for a violation. Even after the period of supervision has expired, an offender may be confined for a violation occurring during the period of supervision. The court shall retain jurisdiction for the purpose of holding the violation hearing and imposing a sanction.

(8) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

(9) If a sentence imposed includes a fine or restitution, the sentence shall specify a reasonable manner and time in which the fine or restitution shall be paid. In any sentence under this chapter the court may also require the offender to make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary (a) to pay court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required, (b) to make recoupment of the cost of defense attorney's fees if counsel is provided at public expense, (c) to contribute to a county or interlocal drug fund, and (d) to make such other payments as provided by law. All monetary payments shall be ordered paid by no later than ten years after the date of the judgment of conviction.

(10) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(1), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW.

(11) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, restitution, or fines shall be under the supervision of the secretary of the department of corrections or such person as the secretary may designate and shall follow implicitly the instructions of the secretary including reporting as directed to a community corrections officer, remaining within prescribed geographical boundaries, and notifying the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment.

(12) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

(13) A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400(1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, and may be appealed by the defendant or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210(2) through (6).

(14) The court shall order restitution whenever the offender is convicted of a felony that results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property, whether the offender is sentenced to confinement or placed under community supervision, unless extraordinary circumstances exist that make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment. The court shall set forth the extraordinary circumstances in the record if it does not order restitution.

(15) As a part of any sentence, the court may impose and enforce an order that relates directly to the circumstances of the crime for which the offender has been convicted, prohibiting the offender from having any contact with other specified individuals or a specific class of individuals for a period not to exceed the maximum allowable sentence for the crime, regardless of the expiration of the offender's term of community supervision.

(16) In any sentence of partial confinement, the court may require the defendant to serve the partial confinement in work release.

Sec. 3, Section 18, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.94A.180 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An offender sentenced to a term of partial confinement shall be confined in the facility for at least eight hours per day. The offender shall be required as a condition of partial confinement to report to the facility at designated times. An offender may be required to comply with crime-related prohibitions during the period of partial confinement.

(2) An offender in a county jail ordered to serve all or part of a term of less than one year in work release who violates the rules of the work release facility or fails to remain employed, or enrolled in school may be transferred to the appropriate county detention facility without further court order but shall, upon request, be notified of the right to request an administrative hearing on the issue of whether or not the offender failed to comply with the order and relevant conditions. Pending such hearing, or in the absence of a request for the hearing, the offender shall serve the remainder of the term of confinement as total confinement. This subsection shall not affect transfer or placement of offenders committed to the state department of corrections.

Sec. 4, Section 7, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 25, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.360 are each amended to read as follows:

The offender score is measured on the horizontal axis of the sentencing grid. The offender score rules, partially summarized in Table 3, RCW 9.94A.330, are as follows:

The offender score is the sum of points accrued under ~~((subsections (1) through (14) of))~~ this section rounded down to the nearest whole number.

(1) A prior conviction is a conviction which exists before the date of sentencing for the offense for which the offender score is being computed. Convictions entered or sentenced on the same date as the conviction for which the offender score is being computed shall be deemed "other current offenses" within the meaning of RCW 9.94A.400.

(2) Except as provided in subsection(s) ~~(3) ((and (13)))~~ of this section, class A prior felony convictions shall always be included in the offender score. Class B prior felony convictions shall not be included in the offender score, if since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent ten consecutive years in the community without being convicted of any felonies. Class C prior felony convictions shall not be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent five consecutive years in the community without being convicted of any felonies. Serious traffic convictions shall not be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender spent five years in the community without being convicted of any serious traffic or felony traffic offenses. This subsection applies to both adult and juvenile prior convictions. Out-of-state convictions for offenses shall be classified according to the comparable offense definitions and sentences provided by Washington law.

(3) Include class A juvenile felonies only if the offender was 15 or older at the time the juvenile offense was committed. Include class B and C juvenile felony convictions only if the offender was 15 or older at the time the juvenile offense was committed and the offender was less than 23 at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

(4) Score prior convictions for felony anticipatory offenses (attempts, criminal solicitations, and criminal conspiracies) the same as if they were convictions for completed offenses.

(5) In the case of multiple prior convictions, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all convictions separately, except:

(a) Prior adult offenses which were found, under RCW 9.94A.400(1)(a), to encompass the same criminal conduct, shall be counted as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score. The current sentencing court shall determine with respect to other prior adult offenses for which sentences were served concurrently whether those offenses shall be counted as one offense or as separate offenses, and if the court finds that they shall be counted as one offense, then the offense that yields the highest offender score shall be used;

(b) Juvenile prior convictions entered or sentenced on the same date shall count as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score; and

(c) In the case of multiple prior convictions for offenses committed before July 1, 1986, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all adult convictions served concurrently as one offense, and count all juvenile convictions entered on the same date as one offense. Use the conviction for the offense that yields the highest offender score.

(6) If the present conviction is one of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy, count each prior conviction as if the present conviction were for a completed offense.

(7) If the present conviction is for a nonviolent offense and not covered by subsection (11)(c) or (12)(-or-(13)) of this section, count one point for each adult prior felony conviction and one point for each juvenile prior violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each juvenile prior nonviolent felony conviction.

(8) If the present conviction is for a violent offense and not covered in subsection (9), (10), (11), or (12) of this section, count two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent felony conviction, one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

(9) If the present conviction is for Murder 1 or 2, Assault 1, Kidnaping 1, or Rape 1, count three points for prior adult and juvenile convictions for crimes in these categories, two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent conviction (not already counted), one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

(10) If the present conviction is for Burglary 1, count prior convictions as in subsection (8) of this section; however count two points for each prior adult Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each prior juvenile Burglary 2 conviction.

(11) If the present conviction is for a felony traffic offense count two points for each adult or juvenile prior conviction for Vehicular Homicide; count one point for each adult, and 1/2 point for each juvenile, prior conviction for each other felony offense or serious traffic offense.

(12) If the present conviction is for a drug offense count two points for each adult prior felony drug offense conviction and one point for each juvenile drug offense. All other adult and juvenile felonies are scored as in subsection (8) of this section if the current drug offense is violent, or as in subsection (7) of this section if the current drug offense is nonviolent.

(13) If the present conviction is for ~~((escape (Escape 1, RCW 9A.76.110; Escape 2, RCW 9A.76.120); Willful Failure to Return from Furlough, RCW 72.65.060(-and); or Willful Failure to Return from Work Release, RCW 72.65.070(3))~~), count only prior escape convictions in the offender score. Count adult prior escape convictions as one point and juvenile prior escape convictions as 1/2 point.

(14) If the present conviction is for Escape 1, RCW 9A.76.110, or Escape 2, RCW 9A.76.120, count adult prior convictions as one point and juvenile prior convictions as 1/2 point.

(15) If the present conviction is for Burglary 2, count priors as in subsection (7) of this section; however, count two points for each adult and juvenile prior Burglary 1 conviction, two points for each adult prior Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each juvenile prior Burglary 2 conviction.

Sec. 5. Section 11, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 28, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.400 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, whenever a person is to be sentenced for two or more current offenses, the sentence range for each current offense shall be determined by using all other current and prior convictions as if they were prior convictions for the purpose of the offender score: PROVIDED, That if the court enters a finding that some or all of the current offenses encompass the same criminal conduct then those current offenses shall be counted as one crime and the offender shall be sentenced for the current offense with the highest offender score. Sentences imposed under this subsection shall be served concurrently. Consecutive sentences may only be imposed under the exceptional sentence provisions of RCW 9.94A.120 and 9.94A.390(2)(e) or any other provision of RCW 9.94A.390.

(b) Whenever a person is convicted of three or more serious violent offenses, as defined in RCW 9.94A.330, arising from separate and distinct criminal conduct, the sentence range for the offense with the highest seriousness level under RCW 9.94A.320 shall be determined using the offender's criminal history in the offender score and the sentence range for other serious violent offenses shall be determined by using an offender score of zero. The sentence range for any offenses that are not serious violent offenses shall be determined according to (a) of this subsection. All sentences imposed under (b) of this subsection shall be served consecutively to each other and concurrently with sentences imposed under (a) of this subsection.

(2) Whenever a person while under sentence of felony commits another felony and is sentenced to another term of imprisonment, the latter term shall not begin until expiration of all prior terms.

(3) Subject to subsections (1) and (2) of this section, whenever a person is sentenced for a felony that was committed while the person was not under sentence of a felony, the sentence shall run concurrently with any felony sentence which has been imposed by any court in this or another state or by a federal court subsequent to the commission of the crime being sentenced unless the court pronouncing the current sentence expressly orders that they be served consecutively.

(4) Whenever any person granted probation under RCW 9.95.210 or 9.92.060, or both, has the probationary sentence revoked and a prison sentence imposed, that sentence shall run consecutively to any sentence imposed pursuant to this chapter, unless the court pronouncing the subsequent sentence expressly orders that they be served concurrently.

(5) However, in the case of consecutive sentences, all periods of total confinement shall be served before any partial confinement, community service, community supervision, or any other requirement or conditions of any of the sentences.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 9A.32 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A person is guilty of homicide by abuse if, under circumstances manifesting an extreme indifference to human life, the person causes the death of a child or person under sixteen years of age, a developmentally disabled person, or a dependent adult, and the person has previously engaged in a pattern or practice of assault or torture of said child, person under sixteen years of age, developmentally disabled person, or dependent person.

(2) As used in this section, "dependent adult" means a person who, because of physical or mental disability, or because of extreme advanced age, is dependent upon another person to provide the basic necessities of life.

(3) Homicide by abuse is a class A felony.

Sec. 7. Section 9A.32.010, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 10, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9A.32.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Homicide is the killing of a human being by the act, procurement or omission of another, death occurring within three years and a day, and is either (1) murder, (2) homicide by abuse, (3) manslaughter, ((3)) (4) excusable homicide, or ((4)) (5) justifiable homicide.

Sec. 8. Section 3, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 23, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.320 are each amended to read as follows:

On motion of Senator Halsan, the following amendment by Senators Halsan, Talmadge, Nelson and Newhouse to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment was adopted:

On page 37, line 22, after "(RCW 69.50.401(d))" insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The legislature finds that many minor offenses that are established as misdemeanors are obsolete or can be more appropriately punished by the imposition of civil fines. The legislature finds that some misdemeanors should be decriminalized to allow resources of the legal system, such as judges, prosecutors, juries, and jails, to be used to punish serious criminal behavior, since acts characterized as criminal behavior have a tremendous fiscal impact on the legal system.

The establishment of a system of civil infractions is a more expeditious and less expensive method of disposing of minor offenses and will decrease the cost and workload of the courts of limited jurisdiction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A task force on civil infractions is established. The membership of the task force is as follows: (1) Two members of the senate committee on judiciary selected by the chairman, one from each of the two major political parties; (2) two members of the house of representatives' committee on judiciary selected by the chairman, one from each of the two major political parties; (3) one person representing prosecuting attorneys selected by the Washington association of prosecuting attorneys; (4) one person representing municipal attorneys selected by the Washington state association of municipal attorneys; (5) one person representing cities selected by the association of Washington cities; (6) one person representing counties selected by the Washington state association of counties; (7) one person representing law enforcement selected by the Washington association of sheriffs and police chiefs; (8) one person representing the courts of limited jurisdiction selected by the Washington state magistrates' association; (9) one person representing misdemeanor corrections officers selected by the Washington state misdemeanor corrections officers' association; (10) one person representing defense attorneys selected by the Washington defender association; and (11) one person representing court administrators selected by the Washington state association of court administrators.

Members of the task force shall select the chairperson. The staff of the house and senate judiciary committees shall serve as the staff for the task force. Members of the task force shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 44.04.120, 43.03.050, and 43.03.060, respectively.

This section shall expire July 1, 1989.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The task force shall study the various crimes designated as misdemeanors and gross misdemeanors in this state and determine if the offense should be classified as a civil infraction under this chapter or if the penalty for the offense should be eliminated or otherwise modified. In making these determinations, the task force shall consider the following: (1) The existing and predicted workload of the courts of limited jurisdiction; (2) the fiscal impact on the court system of characterizing certain behavior as criminal, including the cost of appointed counsel for indigents, jury trials, and jail facilities; (3) using resources of the legal system, such as judges, prosecutors, and juries, to punish minor offenses; (4) the willingness of prosecutors and judges to apply the sanctions of incarceration; (5) stigmas attached to persons convicted of violating criminal statutes; (6) the cost and benefits of implementing an alternative system for effectively and efficiently handling minor offenses; and (7) any other relevant factors affecting the classification.

The task force shall report its findings and recommendations to the legislature no later than June 30, 1989.

This section shall expire July 1, 1989.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) All violations of state law, local law, ordinance, regulation, or resolution designated as civil infractions may be heard and determined by a district court, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(2) Any municipal court has the authority to hear and determine pursuant to this chapter civil infractions that are established by municipal ordinance and that are committed within the jurisdiction of the municipality.

(3) Any city or town with a municipal court under chapter 3.50 RCW may contract with the county to have civil infractions that are established by city or town ordinance and that are committed within the city or town adjudicated by a district court.

(4) District court commissioners have the authority to hear and determine civil infractions pursuant to this chapter.

(5) Nothing in this chapter prevents any city, town, or county from hearing and determining civil infractions pursuant to its own system established by ordinance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Notwithstanding any other provision of law governing service of process in civil cases, a court of limited jurisdiction having jurisdiction over an alleged civil infraction may issue process anywhere within the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. All judges and court commissioners adjudicating civil infractions shall complete such training requirements as are promulgated by the supreme court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. As used in this chapter, "enforcement officer" means a person authorized to enforce the provisions of the title or ordinance in which the civil infraction is established.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. (1) A civil infraction proceeding is initiated by the issuance, service, and filing of a notice of civil infraction.

(2) A notice of civil infraction may be issued by an enforcement officer when the civil infraction occurs in the officer's presence.

(3) A court may issue a notice of civil infraction if an enforcement officer files with the court a written statement that the civil infraction was committed in the officer's presence or that the officer has reasonable cause to believe that a civil infraction was committed.

(4) Service of a notice of civil infraction issued under subsection (2) or (3) of this section shall be as provided by court rule. Until such a rule is adopted, service shall be as provided in JTIR 2.2(c)(1) and (3), as applicable.

(5) A notice of infraction shall be filed with a court having jurisdiction within forty-eight hours of issuance, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. A notice of infraction not filed within the time limits prescribed in this section may be dismissed without prejudice.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. A person who is to receive a notice of civil infraction under section 16 of this act is required to identify himself or herself to the enforcement officer by giving his or her name, address, and date of birth. Upon the request of the officer, the person shall produce reasonable identification, including a driver's license or identicaid.

A person who is unable or unwilling to reasonably identify himself or herself to an enforcement officer may be detained for a period of time not longer than is reasonably necessary to identify the person for purposes of issuing a civil infraction.

Each agency authorized to issue civil infractions shall adopt rules on identification and detention of persons committing civil infractions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. (1) A notice of civil infraction represents a determination that a civil infraction has been committed. The determination is final unless contested as provided in this chapter.

(2) The form for the notice of civil infraction shall be prescribed by rule of the supreme court and shall include the following:

(a) A statement that the notice represents a determination that a civil infraction has been committed by the person named in the notice and that the determination is final unless contested as provided in this chapter;

(b) A statement that a civil infraction is a noncriminal offense for which imprisonment may not be imposed as a sanction;

(c) A statement of the specific civil infraction for which the notice was issued;

(d) A statement of the monetary penalty established for the civil infraction;

(e) A statement of the options provided in this chapter for responding to the notice and the procedures necessary to exercise these options;

(f) A statement that at any hearing to contest the determination the state has the burden of proving, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the civil infraction was committed and that the person may subpoena witnesses including the enforcement officer who issued the notice of civil infraction;

(g) A statement that at any hearing requested for the purpose of explaining mitigating circumstances surrounding the commission of the civil infraction, the person will be deemed to have committed the civil infraction and may not subpoena witnesses;

(h) A statement that the person must respond to the notice as provided in this chapter within fifteen days;

(i) A statement that failure to respond to the notice or a failure to appear at a hearing requested for the purpose of contesting the determination or for the purpose of explaining mitigating circumstances will result in a default judgment against the person in the amount of the penalty and that this failure may be referred to the prosecuting attorney for criminal prosecution for failure to respond or appear;

(j) A statement, which the person shall sign, that the person promises to respond to the notice of civil infraction in one of the ways provided in this chapter;

(k) A statement that failure to respond to a notice of civil infraction as promised or to appear at a requested hearing is a misdemeanor and may be punished by a fine or imprisonment in jail.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. (1) Any person who receives a notice of civil infraction shall respond to such notice as provided in this section within fifteen days of the date of the notice.

(2) If the person determined to have committed the civil infraction does not contest the determination, the person shall respond by completing the appropriate portion of the notice of civil infraction and submitting it, either by mail or in person, to the court specified on the notice.

A check or money order in the amount of the penalty prescribed for the civil infraction must be submitted with the response. The clerk of a court may accept cash in payment for an infraction. When a response which does not contest the determination is received, an appropriate order shall be entered in the court's records.

(3) If the person determined to have committed the civil infraction wishes to contest the determination, the person shall respond by completing the portion of the notice of civil infraction requesting a hearing and submitting it, either by mail or in person, to the court specified on the notice. The court shall notify the person in writing of the time, place, and date of the hearing, and that date shall not be earlier than seven days nor more than ninety days from the date of the notice of hearing, except by agreement.

(4) If the person determined to have committed the civil infraction does not contest the determination but wishes to explain mitigating circumstances surrounding the infraction, the person shall respond by completing the portion of the notice of civil infraction requesting a hearing for that purpose and submitting it, either by mail or in person, to the court specified on the notice. The court shall notify the person in writing of the time, place, and date of the hearing, and that date shall not be earlier than seven days nor more than ninety days from the date of the notice of hearing, except by agreement.

(5) The court shall enter a default judgment assessing the monetary penalty prescribed for the civil infraction and may notify the prosecuting attorney of the failure to respond to the notice of civil infraction or to appear at a requested hearing if any person issued a notice of civil infraction:

(a) Fails to respond to the notice of civil infraction as provided in subsection (2) of this section; or

(b) Fails to appear at a hearing requested pursuant to subsection (3) or (4) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. (1) Procedures for the conduct of all hearings provided in this chapter may be established by rule of the supreme court.

(2) Any person subject to proceedings under this chapter may be represented by counsel.

(3) The attorney representing the state, county, city, or town may appear in any proceedings under this chapter but need not appear, notwithstanding any statute or rule of court to the contrary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. (1) A hearing held for the purpose of contesting the determination that a civil infraction has been committed shall be without a jury and shall be recorded in the manner provided for in courts of limited jurisdiction.

(2) The court may consider the notice of civil infraction and any other written report made under oath submitted by the enforcement officer who issued the notice or whose written statement was the basis for the issuance of the notice in lieu of the officer's personal appearance at the hearing. The person named in the notice may request the court for issuance of subpoena of witnesses, including the enforcement officer who issued the notice, and has the right to present evidence and examine witnesses present in court.

(3) The burden of proof is upon the state to establish the commission of the civil infraction by a preponderance of the evidence.

(4) After consideration of the evidence and argument, the court shall determine whether the civil infraction was committed. Where it has not been established that the civil infraction was committed, an order dismissing the notice shall be entered in the court's records. Where it has been established that the civil infraction was committed, an appropriate order shall be entered in the court's records.

(5) An appeal from the court's determination or order shall be to the superior court in the manner provided by the Rules for Appeal of Decisions of Courts of Limited Jurisdiction. The decision of the superior court is subject only to discretionary review pursuant to the Rules of Appellate Procedure.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. (1) A hearing held for the purpose of allowing a person to explain mitigating circumstances surrounding the commission of a civil infraction shall be an informal proceeding. The person may not subpoena witnesses. The determination that a civil infraction has been committed may not be contested at a hearing held for the purpose of explaining mitigating circumstances.

(2) After the court has heard the explanation of the circumstances surrounding the commission of the civil infraction, an appropriate order shall be entered in the court's records.

(3) There is no appeal from the court's determination or order.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. (1) A person found to have committed a civil infraction shall be assessed a monetary penalty.

(a) The maximum penalty and the default amount for a class 1 civil infraction shall be two hundred fifty dollars, not including statutory assessments;

(b) The maximum penalty and the default amount for a class 2 civil infraction shall be one hundred twenty-five dollars, not including statutory assessments;

(c) The maximum penalty and the default amount for a class 3 civil infraction shall be fifty dollars, not including statutory assessments; and

(d) The maximum penalty and the default amount for a class 4 civil infraction shall be twenty-five dollars, not including statutory assessments.

(2) The supreme court shall prescribe by rule the conditions under which local courts may exercise discretion in assessing fines for civil infractions.

(3) Whenever a monetary penalty is imposed by a court under this chapter it is immediately payable. If the person is unable to pay at that time the court may grant an extension of the period in which the penalty may be paid. If the penalty is not paid on or before the time established for payment, the court may proceed to collect the penalty in the same manner as other civil judgments and may notify the prosecuting authority of the failure to pay.

(4) The court may also order a person found to have committed a civil infraction to make restitution.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 24. (1) An order entered after the receipt of a response which does not contest the determination, or after it has been established at a hearing that the civil infraction was committed, or after a hearing for the purpose of explaining mitigating circumstances is civil in nature.

(2) The court may waive, reduce, or suspend the monetary penalty prescribed for the civil infraction. If the court determines that a person has insufficient funds to pay the monetary penalty, the court may order performance of a number of hours of community service in lieu of a monetary penalty, at the rate of the then state minimum wage per hour.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 25. Each party to a civil infraction case is responsible for costs incurred by that party, but the court may assess witness fees against a nonprevailing respondent. Attorney fees may be awarded to either party in a civil infraction case.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 26. Every law enforcement agency in this state or other agency authorized to issue notices of civil infractions shall provide in appropriate form notices of civil infractions which shall be issued in books with notices in quadruplicate and meeting the requirements of this section.

The chief administrative officer of every such agency shall be responsible for the issuance of such books and shall maintain a record of every such book and each notice contained therein issued to individual members or employees of the agency and shall require and retain a receipt for every book so issued.

Every law enforcement officer or other person upon issuing a notice of civil infraction to an alleged perpetrator of a civil infraction under the laws of this state or of any ordinance of any city or town shall deposit the original or a copy of such notice of civil infraction with a court having competent jurisdiction over the civil infraction, as provided in section 16 of this act.

Upon the deposit of the original or a copy of such notice of civil infraction with a court having competent jurisdiction over the civil infraction, the original or copy may be disposed of only as provided in this chapter.

It is official misconduct for any law enforcement officer or other officer or public employee to dispose of a notice of civil infraction or copies thereof or of the record of the issuance of the same in a manner other than as required in this section.

The chief administrative officer of every law enforcement agency or other agency authorized to issue notices of civil infractions shall require the return to him or her of a copy of every notice issued by a person under his or her supervision to an alleged perpetrator of a civil infraction under any law or ordinance and of all copies of every notice which has been spoiled or upon which any entry has been made and not issued to an alleged perpetrator.

Such chief administrative officer shall also maintain or cause to be maintained in connection with every notice issued by a person under his or her supervision a record of the disposition of the charge by the court in which the original or copy of the notice was deposited.

Any person who cancels or solicits the cancellation of any notice of civil infraction, in any manner other than as provided in this section, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Every record of notices required in this section shall be audited monthly by the appropriate fiscal officer of the government agency to which the law enforcement agency or other agency authorized to issue notices of civil infractions is responsible.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 27. (1) A person who fails to sign a notice of civil infraction is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 15. Section 8, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 26, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.370 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The intersection of the column defined by the offender score and the row defined by the offense seriousness score determines the presumptive sentencing range (see RCW 9.94A.310, Table 1)). The additional time for deadly weapon findings shall be added to the entire presumptive sentence range. The court may impose any sentence within the range that it deems appropriate. All presumptive sentence ranges are expressed in terms of total confinement.

(2) In determining any sentence, the trial court may rely on no more information than is admitted by the plea agreement, or admitted, acknowledged, or proved in a trial or at the time of sentencing. Acknowledgement includes not objecting to information stated in the pre-sentence reports. Where the defendant disputes material facts, the court must either not consider the fact or grant an evidentiary hearing on the point. The facts shall be deemed proved at the hearing by a preponderance of the evidence. Facts that establish the elements of a more serious crime or additional crimes may not be used to go outside the presumptive sentence range except upon stipulation or when specifically provided for in RCW 9.94A.390(2) (c) ~~((and))~~; (d), and (e).

Sec. 16. Section 10, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 27, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.390 are each amended to read as follows:

If the sentencing court finds that an exceptional sentence outside the standard range should be imposed in accordance with RCW 9.94A.120(2), the sentence is subject to review only as provided for in RCW 9.94A.210(4).

The following are illustrative factors which the court may consider in the exercise of its discretion to impose an exceptional sentence. The following are illustrative only and are not intended to be exclusive reasons for exceptional sentences.

(1) Mitigating Circumstances

(a) To a significant degree, the victim was an initiator, willing participant, aggressor, or provoker of the incident.

(b) Before detection, the defendant compensated, or made a good faith effort to compensate, the victim of the criminal conduct for any damage or injury sustained.

(c) The defendant committed the crime under duress, coercion, threat, or compulsion insufficient to constitute a complete defense but which significantly affected his or her conduct.

(d) The defendant, with no apparent predisposition to do so, was induced by others to participate in the crime.

(e) The defendant's capacity to appreciate the wrongfulness of his conduct or to conform his conduct to the requirements of the law, was significantly impaired (voluntary use of drugs or alcohol is excluded).

(f) The offense was principally accomplished by another person and the defendant manifested extreme caution or sincere concern for the safety or well-being of the victim.

(g) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly excessive in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.

(2) Aggravating Circumstances

(a) The defendant's conduct during the commission of the current offense manifested deliberate cruelty to the victim.

(b) The defendant knew or should have known that the victim of the current offense was particularly vulnerable or incapable of resistance due to extreme youth, advanced age, disability, or ill health.

(c) The current offense was a major economic offense or series of offenses, so identified by a consideration of any of the following factors:

(i) The current offense involved multiple victims or multiple incidents per victim;

(ii) The current offense involved attempted or actual monetary loss substantially greater than typical for the offense;

(iii) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time;

(iv) The defendant used his or her position of trust, confidence, or fiduciary responsibility to facilitate the commission of the current offense.

(d) The current offense was a major violation of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act, chapter 69.50 RCW (VUCSA), related to trafficking in controlled substances, which was more onerous than the typical offense of its statutory definition: The presence of ANY of the following may identify a current offense as a major VUCSA:

(i) The current offense involved at least three separate transactions in which controlled substances were sold, transferred, or possessed with intent to do so; or

(ii) The current offense involved an attempted or actual sale or transfer of controlled substances in quantities substantially larger than for personal use; or

(iii) The current offense involved the manufacture of controlled substances for use by other parties; or

(iv) The circumstances of the current offense reveal the offender to have occupied a high position in the drug distribution hierarchy; or

(v) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time or involved a broad geographic area of disbursement; or

(vi) The offender used his or her position or status to facilitate the commission of the current offense, including positions of trust, confidence or fiduciary responsibility (e.g., pharmacist, physician, or other medical professional); or

(e) The offense was part of an ongoing pattern of sexual abuse of the same victim under the age of eighteen years manifested by multiple incidents over a prolonged period of time; or

(f) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly too lenient in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.

Sec. 17. Section 15, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 30, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.440 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Decision not to prosecute.

STANDARD: A prosecuting attorney may decline to prosecute, even though technically sufficient evidence to prosecute exists, in situations where prosecution would serve no public purpose, would defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question or would result in decreased respect for the law.

GUIDELINE/COMMENTARY:

Examples

The following are examples of reasons not to prosecute which could satisfy the standard.

(a) Contrary to Legislative Intent - It may be proper to decline to charge where the application of criminal sanctions would be clearly contrary to the intent of the legislature in enacting the particular statute.

(b) Antiquated Statute - It may be proper to decline to charge where the statute in question is antiquated in that:

- (i) It has not been enforced for many years; and
- (ii) Most members of society act as if it were no longer in existence; and
- (iii) It serves no deterrent or protective purpose in today's society; and
- (iv) The statute has not been recently reconsidered by the legislature.

This reason is not to be construed as the basis for declining cases because the law in question is unpopular or because it is difficult to enforce.

(c) De Minimus Violation - It may be proper to decline to charge where the violation of law is only technical or insubstantial and where no public interest or deterrent purpose would be served by prosecution.

(d) Confinement on Other Charges - It may be proper to decline to charge because the accused has been sentenced on another charge to a lengthy period of confinement; and

(i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional direct or collateral punishment;

(ii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which is not particularly aggravated; and

(iii) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any significant deterrent purpose.

(e) Pending Conviction on Another Charge - It may be proper to decline to charge because the accused is facing a pending prosecution in the same or another county; and

(i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional direct or collateral punishment;

(ii) Conviction in the pending prosecution is imminent;

(iii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which is not particularly aggravated; and

(iv) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any significant deterrent purpose.

(f) High Disproportionate Cost of Prosecution - It may be proper to decline to charge where the cost of locating or transporting, or the burden on, prosecution witnesses is highly disproportionate to the importance of prosecuting the offense in question. This reason should be limited to minor cases and should not be relied upon in serious cases.

(g) Improper Motives of Complainant - It may be proper to decline charges because the motives of the complainant are improper and prosecution would serve no public purpose, would defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question or would result in decreased respect for the law.

(h) Immunity - It may be proper to decline to charge where immunity is to be given to an accused in order to prosecute another where the accused's information or testimony will reasonably lead to the conviction of others who are responsible for more serious criminal conduct or who represent a greater danger to the public interest.

(i) Victim Request - It may be proper to decline to charge because the victim requests that no criminal charges be filed and the case involves the following crimes or situations:

(i) Assault cases where the victim has suffered little or no injury;

(ii) Crimes against property, not involving violence, where no major loss was suffered;

(iii) Where doing so would not jeopardize the safety of society.

Care should be taken to insure that the victim's request is freely made and is not the product of threats or pressure by the accused.

The presence of these factors may also justify the decision to dismiss a prosecution which has been commenced.

Notification

The prosecutor is encouraged to notify the victim, when practical, and the law enforcement personnel, of the decision not to prosecute.

(2) Decision to prosecute.

STANDARD:

Crimes against persons will be filed if sufficient admissible evidence exists, which, when considered with the most plausible, reasonably foreseeable defense that could be raised under the evidence, would justify conviction by a reasonable and objective fact-finder.

Crimes against property/other crimes will be filed if the admissible evidence is of such convincing force as to make it probable that a reasonable and objective fact-finder would convict after hearing all the admissible evidence and the most plausible defense that could be raised.

See table below for the crimes within these categories.

 Selection of Charges/Degree of Charge

(1) The prosecutor should file charges which adequately describe the nature of defendant's conduct. Other offenses may be charged only if they are necessary to ensure that the charges:

- (a) Will significantly enhance the strength of the state's case at trial; or
- (b) Will result in restitution to all victims.
- (2) The prosecutor should not overcharge to obtain a guilty plea. Overcharging includes:
 - (a) Charging a higher degree;
 - (b) Charging additional counts.

This standard is intended to direct prosecutors to charge those crimes which demonstrate the nature and seriousness of a defendant's criminal conduct, but to decline to charge crimes which are not necessary to such an indication. Crimes which do not merge as a matter of law, but which arise from the same course of conduct, do not all have to be charged.

GUIDELINES/COMMENTARY:

Police Investigation

A prosecuting attorney is dependent upon law enforcement agencies to conduct the necessary factual investigation which must precede the decision to prosecute. The prosecuting attorney shall ensure that a thorough factual investigation has been conducted before a decision to prosecute is made. In ordinary circumstances the investigation should include the following:

- (1) The interviewing of all material witnesses, together with the obtaining of written statements whenever possible;
- (2) The completion of necessary laboratory tests; and
- (3) The obtaining, in accordance with constitutional requirements, of the suspect's version of the events.

If the initial investigation is incomplete, a prosecuting attorney should insist upon further investigation before a decision to prosecute is made, and specify what the investigation needs to include.

Exceptions

In certain situations, a prosecuting attorney may authorize filing of a criminal complaint before the investigation is complete if:

- (1) Probable cause exists to believe the suspect is guilty; and
- (2) The suspect presents a danger to the community or is likely to flee if not apprehended; or

- (3) The arrest of the suspect is necessary to complete the investigation of the crime.

In the event that the exception to the standard is applied, the prosecuting attorney shall obtain a commitment from the law enforcement agency involved to complete the investigation in a timely manner. If the subsequent investigation does not produce sufficient evidence to meet the normal charging standard, the complaint should be dismissed.

Investigation Techniques

The prosecutor should be fully advised of the investigatory techniques that were used in the case investigation including:

- (1) Polygraph testing;
- (2) Hypnosis;
- (3) Electronic surveillance;
- (4) Use of informants.

Pre-Filing Discussions with Defendant

Discussions with the defendant or his/her representative regarding the selection or disposition of charges may occur prior to the filing of charges, and potential agreements can be reached.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator Talmadge, I think there are some things in this bill that really do need to be addressed in our sentencing guidelines statutes, but I'm having really a tough time trying to figure out--in all of these different age groups, you have different kinds of crimes depending on how much older the perpetrator is than the victim. It seems to me as though there are some spaces here in between where if a person is at least fourteen, but less than eighteen and the perpetrator has to be at least forty-eight months older than the victim, etc., etc. I am simply using that as an example. My question is, that in cases where the perpetrator is not that much older than the victim, then any of the specificities that are in here, can they be convicted of rape at all? Even the definition of statutory rape, that you have in this section, takes in those age considerations."

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, the problem that you have most often in these kinds of sexual misconduct situations is that rape is generally believed to be a nonconsensual activity, with the exception of statutory rape. The idea of the amendment that you have before you is to treat with, actually, very specifically the circumstances under which sexual misconduct or statutory rape might be present as between an older person and a younger person in the state of Washington.

"This amendment you have before you is an amendment that was worked with some care in the House of Representatives over the interim. It is one that is supported by the Washington Association of Prosecuting Attorneys and is supported by a number of other organizations who have been working with this subject over a period of time. I don't believe that there are any gaps in the age sequence that you see. You'll note, however, that this amendment is one that takes effect July 1, 1988. It's one that we want to put into place; it's one we want to work with. There are some other sexual related offenses that the House took a look at that are not present in this measure that would be part of that interim study by the Senate and the House Judiciary Committees. I think it's a well thought through proposal and does encompass the ages that I know you have a concern about."

Senator Lee: "Well, I appreciate hearing that it will have a delayed implementation date, but the question is--I'll make it a little more specific--what would be the crime as far as rape between individuals who were both between the ages of sixteen and eighteen? In other words, a sixteen year old boy raping a fifteen year old girl?"

Senator Talmadge: "You would not have statutory rape as defined in the statute."

Senator Lee: "What would you have?"

Senator Talmadge: "You would have—you would not have rape of the child in the first degree. You would probably have sexual misconduct with the minor in the second degree under the circumstances that you talked about, although it's not clear a significant relationship would be present. That's one of the crimes that the House was looking at in terms of a crime they termed, 'sexual battery.' They had a lot of questions attached to it and is one of the things we wanted to take a look at with some detail in the interim."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Talmadge, on page 22, New Section 26, it's the repealer section. You have a series of repealers in there. What do they repeal?"

Senator Talmadge: "I believe those are some of the older statutes relating to nonconsensual sexual relations or statutory rape. Senator Bluechel. This measure is designed, as Senator Halsan has pointed out, to clarify some of the more problematic sections with respect to relationships of a sexual nature and the crimes that are associated with them. I believe those are repealers of those older provisions."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Talmadge, I think what's bothering Senator Lee and me is, what's the situation where you have nonconsensual physical battering, including rape and I don't care whether the female is twenty and the male is sixteen, but it's a forceable rape situation?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, in a forceable rape situation, the statutes relating to rape remain in place. What this is attempting to do is to clarify the circumstances of nonconsensual sexual conduct, so to speak, and in the circumstances where forceable rape and violence are involved, the statutes relating to rape continue to apply, regardless of the age of the perpetrator."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Second Substitute House Bill No. 684 was deferred.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 790, by Representatives Crane, Wineberry, P. King and Winsley

Strengthening the laws regulating timeshares.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following Committee on Judiciary amendment was adopted:

On page 3, beginning on line 4, strike all the material down to and including "shall" on line 6 and insert "If the promoter is a corporation or a general partnership, each natural person therein, with a ten percent or greater interest or share in the promoter, shall"

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following Committee on Judiciary amendments were considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 9, beginning on line 3, after "chapter," strike all the material through "state" on line 4

On page 9, line 11, after "timeshares" strike all the material through "developments" on line 12

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 790, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 790, as amended by the Senate.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Rasmussen moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that encouraging outstanding students to enter the teaching profession is of paramount importance to the state of Washington. By creating the future teachers conditional scholarship program, the legislature intends to assist in the effort to recruit as future teachers students who have distinguished themselves through outstanding academic achievement and students who can act as role models for children including those from targeted ethnic minorities. The legislature urges business, industry, and philanthropic community organizations to join with state government in making this program successful.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Conditional scholarship" means a loan that is forgiven in whole or in part if the recipient renders service as a teacher in the public schools of this state.

(2) "Institution of higher education" or "institution" means a college or university in the state of Washington which is accredited by an accrediting association recognized as such by rule of the higher education coordinating board.

(3) "Board" means the higher education coordinating board.

(4) "Eligible student" means a student who is registered for at least ten credit hours or the equivalent, demonstrates achievement of at least a 3.30 grade point average for students entering an institution of higher education directly from high school or maintains at least a 3.00 grade point average or the equivalent for each academic year in an institution of higher education, is a resident student as defined by RCW 28B.15.012 through 28B.15.015, and has a declared intention to complete an approved preparation program leading to initial teacher certification or required for earning an additional endorsement, or a college or university graduate who meets the same credit hour requirements and is seeking an additional teaching endorsement or initial teacher certification.

(5) "Public school" means an elementary school, a middle school, junior high school, or high school within the public school system referred to in Article IX of the state Constitution.

(6) "Forgiven" or "to forgive" or "forgiveness" means to render service as a teacher at a public school in the state of Washington in lieu of monetary repayment.

(7) "Satisfied" means paid-in-full.

(8) "Participant" means an eligible student who has received a conditional scholarship under this chapter.

(9) "Targeted ethnic minority" means a group of Americans with a common ethnic or racial heritage selected by the board for program consideration due to societal concerns such as high dropout rates or low rates of college participation by members of the group.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The future teachers conditional scholarship program is established. The program shall be administered by the higher education coordinating board. In administering the program, the board shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) Select students to receive conditional scholarships, with the assistance of a screening committee composed of teachers and leaders in government, business, and education;

(2) Adopt necessary rules and guidelines;

(3) Publicize the program;

(4) Collect and manage repayments from students who do not meet their teaching obligations under this chapter; and

(5) Solicit and accept grants and donations from public and private sources for the program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The higher education coordinating board shall establish a planning committee to develop criteria for the screening and selection of recipients of the conditional scholarships. These criteria shall emphasize factors demonstrating excellence including but not limited to superior scholastic achievement, leadership ability, community contributions, and an ability to act as a role model for targeted ethnic minority students. These criteria also may include, for approximately half of the recipients, requirements that those recipients meet the definition of "needy student" under RCW 28B.10.802.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The board may award conditional scholarships to eligible students from the funds appropriated to the board for this purpose, or from any private donations, or any other funds given to the board for this program. The amount of the conditional scholarship awarded an individual shall not exceed three thousand dollars per academic year. Students are eligible to receive conditional scholarships for a maximum of five years.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Participants in the conditional scholarship program incur an obligation to repay the conditional scholarship, with interest, unless they teach for ten years in the public schools of the state of Washington, under rules adopted by the board.

(2) The terms of the repayment, including deferral of the interest, shall be consistent with the terms of the federal guaranteed loan program.

(3) The period for repayment shall be ten years, with payments accruing quarterly commencing nine months from the date the participant completes or discontinues the course of study.

(4) The entire principal and interest of each payment shall be forgiven for each payment period in which the participant teaches in a public school until the entire repayment obligation is satisfied or the borrower ceases to teach at a public school in this state. Should the participant cease to teach at a public school in this state before the participant's repayment obligation is completed, payments on the unsatisfied portion of the principal and interest shall begin the next payment period and continue until the remainder of the participant's repayment obligation is satisfied.

(5) The board is responsible for collection of repayments made under this section and shall exercise due diligence in such collection, maintaining all necessary records to insure that maximum repayments are made. Collection and servicing of repayments under this section shall be pursued using the full extent of the law, including wage garnishment if necessary, and shall be performed by entities approved for such servicing by the Washington student loan guaranty association or its successor agency. The board is responsible to forgive all or parts of such repayments under the criteria established in this section and shall maintain all necessary records of forgiven payments.

(6) Receipts from the payment of principal or interest or any other subsidies to which the board as administrator is entitled, which are paid by or on behalf of participants under this section, shall be deposited with the higher education coordinating board and shall be used to cover the costs of granting the conditional scholarships, maintaining necessary records, and making collections under subsection (5) of this section. The board shall maintain accurate records of these costs, and all receipts beyond those necessary to pay such costs shall be used to grant conditional scholarships to eligible students.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. After consulting with the higher education coordinating board, the governor may transfer the administration of this program to another agency with an appropriate educational mission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 1 through 7 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 28B RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. No conditional scholarships shall be granted after June 30, 1994, until the program is reviewed by the legislative budget committee and is reenacted by the legislature.

PART V
ADVERSE CLAIMS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 501. The definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Adverse claimant" means a person, other than the judgment debtor or defendant, who claims title or right to possession of property levied on.

(2) "Levying creditor" means the judgment creditor or plaintiff who obtained the writ of execution or attachment under which levy was made.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 502. An adverse claimant may assert a claim under the procedures provided in this chapter whether the levy was made under a writ of execution or of attachment and whether the writ was issued by a superior court or a district court of this state, but this chapter does not supersede common law or other remedies available to an adverse claimant before or after levy or sale.

Sec. 503. Section 256, page 179, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 1, chapter 40, Law of 1891 and RCW 6.20.010 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((When any other person than the judgment debtor shall claim property levied upon or attached, he may have the right to)) (1) An adverse claimant to property levied upon may demand and receive the ((same)) property from the sheriff ((or other officer making the attachment or)) who made the levy, upon ((his)) making and delivering to the sheriff an affidavit that the property is ((his)) owned by the claimant or that ((he)) the claimant has a right to the immediate possession thereof, stating on oath the value thereof, and giving to the sheriff ((or officer)) a bond, with sureties in double the value of such property((:)). The bond shall be conditioned that ((he)) the claimant will appear in the ((superior court of the county in which the property was seized, within ten days)) court specified in RCW 6.20.030 after the bond is accepted by the sheriff ((or other officer)), and make good ((his title to the same, or that he)) the claim in the affidavit or will return the property or pay its value to the ((said)) sheriff ((or other officer)).~~

~~(2) Without giving a bond, an adverse claimant who delivers to the sheriff an affidavit as described in subsection (1) of this section may, on motion made within seven days after delivering the affidavit, appear in the court specified in RCW 6.20.030, with notice to the sheriff and to the attorney of record for the levying creditor, if any, otherwise to the levying creditor, and set a hearing at which the probable validity of the claim stated in the affidavit can be considered. If the court, after the hearing, finds that the claim is probably valid, it shall direct the sheriff to release the claimed property to the claimant; otherwise, the court shall direct the sheriff to continue to hold the property unless the claimant gives a bond as provided in subsection (1) of this section.~~

Sec. 504. Section 256, page 179, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 5, chapter 8, Laws of 1891 and RCW 6.20.020 are each amended to read as follows:

If the adverse claimant posts a bond and the sheriff ((or other officer)) requires it, the sureties shall justify as in other cases, and in case they do not so justify when required, the sheriff ((or officer)) shall retain the property; if the sheriff ((or officer)) does not require the sureties to justify, he or she shall stand good for their sufficiency. ((He)) The sheriff shall date and indorse ((his)) acceptance upon the bond.

Sec. 505. Section 257, page 179, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 2, chapter 40, Laws of 1891 and RCW 6.20.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((officer)) sheriff shall immediately return the affidavit((:)) of an adverse claimant and the bond and justification, if any, to the office of the clerk of the ((superior)) court that issued the writ, unless the property was seized in another county, then to the clerk of the superior court of the county in which the property was seized or, if the levy was made under a writ of a district court of this state, then to a district court, to be selected by the sheriff, in the county in which the property was seized, and this case shall stand for trial in said court. The adverse claimant shall be the plaintiff, and the sheriff and the levying creditor shall be the defendants. The sheriff or levying creditor or both of them may respond to the affidavit, but no further pleadings are required, and any party may cause the matter to be noted for trial.

Sec. 506. Section 259, page 179, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 354, Code of 1881 and RCW 6.20.050 are each amended to read as follows:

If the claimant makes good ((his)) on all or any part of the claim to title to the property or right to possession, judgment shall be entered for the claimant to the extent the claim has been established. If the claimant has given a bond, the bond shall be canceled((:)) or, if ((he)) the claimant makes good on only a portion ((thereof)) of the claim, a like proportion of the bond shall be canceled((but if he shall)). If the claimant has not given a bond and the sheriff has retained possession of the property, judgment shall be entered in favor of the claimant for return of the property or its value.

If the claimant does not maintain ((his title)) the claim, judgment shall be rendered against ((him and his)) the claimant. If the claimant has retained possession of the property pending trial on the claim, the judgment shall be entered against the claimant and, if the claimant has given a bond, against the sureties for the return of the property or for the value of the property or of the portion of the property for which the claim is not maintained, or for such ((less)) lesser amount as shall not exceed the amount due on the original execution or attachment.

When the judgment is in favor of the sheriff for the entire property, the claimant shall pay the costs; when the claimant recovers all the property, judgment shall be given in favor of the claimant for costs; when the claimant recovers a portion of the property only, the costs shall be apportioned. When the ((plaintiff)) claimant prevails, the costs may be taxed against the ((defendant who was plaintiff in the execution or attachment, or the court may, if it shall be of opinion)) levying creditor or, if the court finds that the sheriff attached or levied upon ((said)) the property without the exercise of due caution, ((adjudge him)) the court may require the sheriff to pay the costs or any portion thereof.

(4) If an entire tract or parcel of land is sold by the acre, it shall not be measured but shall be deemed and taken to contain the number of acres named in the description, and be paid for accordingly; and if the number of acres is not contained in the description, the officer shall declare according to his or her judgment how many acres are contained therein, which shall be deemed and taken to be the true number of acres.

In the latter case, the court shall disallow the motion and direct that the property be resold, in whole or in part, as the case may be, as upon an execution received as of that date.

((3) Upon the return of the execution, the sheriff shall pay the proceeds of sale to the clerk; who shall then apply the same, or so much thereof as may be necessary, in satisfaction of the judgment including interest as provided in the judgment;))

PART IX

PREJUDGMENT GARNISHMENT

NEW SECTION. Sec. 901. Except as limited by RCW 7.33.060, relating to the state and other public entities, and RCW 7.33.350, relating to continuing liens on earnings, the plaintiff at the time of commencing an action, or at any time thereafter before judgment in an action, may obtain a prejudgment writ of garnishment from a superior or district court of this state before which the action is pending on the following grounds:

- (1) If the writ is directed to other than an employer and for a purpose other than garnishing a defendant's earnings as defined in section 1001 of this act, (a) on the ground that an attachment has been issued in accordance with chapter 7.12 RCW, (b) on the ground that the plaintiff sues on a debt that is due and owing and unpaid, or (c) on one or more of the grounds for issuance of attachment stated in RCW 7.12.020 or 7.12.030; or
- (2) If the writ is directed to an employer for the purpose of garnishing earnings of a defendant, on the grounds that the defendant:
 - (a) Is not a resident of this state, or is about to move from this state; or
 - (b) Has concealed himself or herself, absconded, or absented himself or herself so that ordinary process of law cannot be served on him or her; or

(c) Has removed or is about to remove any of his or her property from this state, with intent to delay or defraud his or her creditors.

Sec. 902. Section 3, chapter 264, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 7.33.030 are each amended to read as follows:

In all cases of garnishment before judgment, before the writ shall issue, the plaintiff shall pay the fee described in RCW 7.33.040 and shall execute and file with the clerk a bond with ((two or more good and) sufficient sureties, to be approved by the clerk of the court issuing the writ, payable to the defendant in the suit, in double the amount of the debt claimed therein, conditioned that ((he) the plaintiff will prosecute ((his) the suit without delay and pay all damages and costs that may be adjudged against him or her for wrongfully suing out such garnishment)((- PROVIDED, That nothing in this section shall prohibit a credit agency, or other party contemplating multiple garnishments before judgment, from posting one large bond covering more than one garnishment proceeding)).

NEW SECTION, Sec. 903. In an action on the bond under RCW 7.33.030, if it is shown that the garnishment was wrongfully sued out, the defendant may recover the actual damages sustained and reasonable attorney's fees to be fixed by the court. If it is shown that such garnishment was sued out maliciously, the defendant may also recover exemplary damages, and the defendant need not wait until the principal suit is determined before suing on the bond by counterclaim in the original action or in a separate action.

Sec. 904. Section 34, chapter 264, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 61, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 7.33.340 are each amended to read as follows:

In all actions in which a prejudgment writ of garnishment has been issued by a court and served upon a garnishee, in the event judgment is not entered for the plaintiff on the claim sued upon by plaintiff, and the claim has not voluntarily been settled or otherwise satisfied, the defendant shall have an action for damages against the plaintiff. The defendant's action for damages may be brought by way of a counterclaim in the original action or in a separate action and, in the action the trier of fact, in addition to other actual damages sustained by the defendant, may award ((him)) the defendant reasonable attorney's fees.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 905. The plaintiff or someone on the plaintiff's behalf shall apply for a prejudgment writ of garnishment by affidavit, alleging that the garnishment is not sought and the action is not prosecuted to hinder, delay, or defraud any creditor of the defendant and also alleging that the affiant has reason to believe and does believe the following, together with specific facts on which the affiant's belief in the allegations is based: (1) That the defendant is indebted to the plaintiff (specifying the nature of the claim and the amount of such indebtedness over and above all just credits and offsets); (2) that one or more of the grounds for prejudgment garnishment established in section 901 of this act exists; (3) that the plaintiff has reason to believe, and does believe, that the garnishee, stating the garnishee's name and residence or place of business, is indebted to the defendant in amounts exceeding those exempted from garnishment by any state or federal law, or that the garnishee has possession or control of personal property or effects belonging to the defendant which are not exempted from garnishment by any state or federal law; (4) whether or not the garnishee is the employer of the defendant; and (5) if the action is based on a debt not due, that nothing but time is wanting to fix an absolute indebtedness due from the defendant.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 906. (1) When application is made for a prejudgment writ of garnishment, the court shall issue the writ in substantially the form prescribed in RCW 7.33.050, 7.33.120, and 7.33.110 directing that the garnishee withhold an amount as prescribed in RCW 7.33.090, but, except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the court shall issue the writ only after prior notice to the defendant, given in the manner prescribed in subsections (4) and (5) of this section, with an opportunity for a prior hearing at which the plaintiff shall establish the probable validity of the plaintiff's claim and that there is probable cause to believe that the alleged ground for garnishment exists.

(2) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, the court shall issue the writ without prior notice to the defendant and without an opportunity for a prior hearing only if:

(a) A ground alleged in the plaintiff's affidavit is: (i) A ground appearing in section 901(2)(c) of this act if the writ is to be directed to an employer for the purpose of garnishing the defendant's earnings; or (ii) a ground appearing in RCW 7.12.020 (5) through (7) or in RCW 7.12.030(1) of the attachment chapter; or (iii) if garnishment is necessary to permit the court to acquire jurisdiction over the action, the ground alleged is one appearing in RCW 7.12.020 (1) through (4) or in section 901(2) (a) or (b) of this act; and

(b) The court finds on the basis of specific facts, after an ex parte hearing, that there is probable cause to believe the allegations of the plaintiff's affidavit.

(3) If a writ is issued under subsection (2) of this section without prior notice to the defendant, after service of the writ on the garnishee, the defendant shall be entitled to prompt notice of the garnishment and a right to an early hearing, if requested, at which the plaintiff shall establish the probable validity of the claim sued on and that there is probable cause to believe that the alleged ground for garnishment exists.

(4) When notice and a hearing are required under this section, notice may be given by a show cause order stating the date, time, and place of the hearing. Notice required under this section shall be jurisdictional and, except as provided for published notice in subsection (5) of this section, notice required under this section shall be served in the same manner as a summons in a civil action and shall be served together with (a) copies of plaintiff's affidavit and of the writ, and (b) a copy of the following "Notice of Right to a Hearing" or, if defendant is an individual, a copy of the claim form and the "Notice of Garnishment and of Your Rights" prescribed by section 1014 of this act, in which the following notice is substituted for the first paragraph of said Notice:

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO HEARING

The writ of garnishment served with this Notice has been issued by a Washington court and has been or will be served on the garnishee defendant. It will require the garnishee defendant to withhold payment of money that may be due to you and to withhold other property of yours that the garnishee may hold or control until a lawsuit in which you are a defendant has been decided by the court. Service of this notice of your rights is required by law.

YOU HAVE A RIGHT TO A HEARING. At the hearing, the plaintiff must give evidence that there is probable cause to believe that the statements in the enclosed affidavit are true and also that the claim stated in the lawsuit is probably valid, or else the garnishment will be released.

(5) If service of notice on the defendant must be effected by publication, only the following notice need be published under the caption of the case:

To, Defendant:

A writ of prejudgment garnishment has been issued in the above captioned case, directed to as Garnishee Defendant, commanding the Garnishee to withhold amounts due you or to withhold any of your property in the Garnishee's possession or control for application to any judgment that may be entered for plaintiff in the case.

YOU HAVE A RIGHT TO ASK FOR A HEARING. At the hearing, the plaintiff must give evidence that there is probable cause to believe that the ground for garnishment alleged in an affidavit filed with the court exists and also that the claim stated in the lawsuit is probably valid, or else the garnishment will be released.

If the defendant is an individual, the following paragraph shall be added to the published notice:

YOU MAY ALSO HAVE A RIGHT TO HAVE THE GARNISHMENT RELEASED if amounts or property withheld are exempt under federal or state statutes, for example, bank accounts in which benefits such as Aid to Families with Dependent children (AFDC), Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Social Security, United States pension, Unemployment Compensation, or Veterans' benefits have been deposited or certain personal property described in section 6.16.020 of the Revised Code of Washington.

Any such payment, delivery, sale, or transfer is void to the extent necessary to satisfy the plaintiff's claim and costs for this writ with interest.

((You are hereby commanded)) YOU ARE FURTHER COMMANDED to answer this writ by filing in the attached form according to the instructions ((thereon and you must)) in this writ and in the answer forms and, within twenty days after the service of the writ upon you, to mail or deliver the original of such answer to the court, one copy to the plaintiff or ((his)) the plaintiff's attorney, and one copy to the defendant ((within twenty days after the service of the writ upon you)), in the envelopes provided.

If, at the time this writ was served, you ((owe)) owed the defendant any wages, salary, commission, bonus, or other compensation for personal services or any periodic payments pursuant to a pension or retirement program, ((then you shall do as follows:

(1) For each week of such wages, salary or other compensation for personal services you owe the defendant, deduct twenty-five percent of the disposable earnings of defendant, or the amount by which his disposable earnings exceed dollars for each week, which ever shall be less:

(2) The total amount deducted above is subject to garnishment, and all other sums shall be paid to the defendant on the day you would customarily pay him such wages, salary or other compensation:

(3) Do not make any deduction if the defendant's wages, salary or other compensation does not exceed dollars for each week of such wages, salary or other compensation you owe the defendant. This weekly amount is exempt by law from garnishment and must be paid to the defendant.

Unless directed by the court, do not pay any debt, whether wages subject to this garnishment or any other debt, owed the defendant when this writ was served, or deliver, sell or transfer, or recognize any sale or transfer of, any personal property or effects of the defendant in your possession or control when this writ was served, any such payment, delivery, sale or transfer is void as to so much of the debt, property or shares as are necessary to satisfy plaintiff's claim and costs for this writ with interest)) the defendant is entitled to receive amounts that are exempt from garnishment under federal and state law. You must pay the exempt amounts to the defendant on the day you would customarily pay the compensation or other periodic payment. As more fully explained in the answer, the basic exempt amount is the greater of seventy-five percent of disposable earnings or $ for each week of compensation or other periodic payment due, to be calculated as provided in the answer. However, if this writ carries a statement in the heading that "This garnishment is based on a judgment or court order for child support," the basic exempt amount is forty percent of disposable earnings.

((in the event that)) if you owe ((to)) the defendant a debt payable in money ((and subject to this garnishment)) in excess of the amount set forth in the first paragraph of this ((garnishment)) writ, hold only the amount set forth in ((said)) the first paragraph ((of this garnishment)) and release all additional funds or property to defendant.

YOUR FAILURE TO ANSWER THIS WRIT AS COMMANDED WILL RESULT IN A JUDGMENT BEING ENTERED AGAINST YOU FOR THE FULL AMOUNT OF THE PLAINTIFF'S CLAIM AGAINST THE DEFENDANT WITH ACCRUING INTERESTS AND COSTS WHETHER OR NOT YOU OWE ANYTHING TO THE DEFENDANT((YOUR FAILURE TO ANSWER AS REQUIRED MAY MAKE YOU LIABLE FOR THE DEFENDANT'S CLAIMED DEBT TO THE PLAINTIFF.

NOTICE TO DEFENDANT: THE LAW MAY PROTECT CERTAIN TYPES AND AMOUNTS OF YOUR INCOME AND PROPERTY FROM GARNISHMENT. TO CLAIM SUCH EXEMPTIONS, YOU MUST FILE A SWORN STATEMENT WITH THE COURT WITHIN TWENTY DAYS AFTER THE GARNISHEE ANSWERS THIS WRIT).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1014. (1) The notice required by RCW 7.33.320(1) to be mailed to or served on an individual judgment debtor shall be in the following form, printed or typed in type no smaller than elite type:

NOTICE OF GARNISHMENT AND OF YOUR RIGHTS

A Writ of Garnishment issued by a Washington court has been or will be served on the garnishee named in the attached copy of the writ. After receipt of the writ, the garnishee is required to withhold payment of any money that was due to you and to withhold any other property of yours that the garnishee held or controlled. This notice of your rights is required by law.

YOU HAVE THE FOLLOWING EXEMPTION RIGHTS:

WAGES. If the garnishee is your employer who owes wages or other personal earnings to you, your employer is required to pay amounts to you that are exempt under state and federal laws, as explained in the writ of garnishment. You should receive a copy of your employer's answer, which will show how the exempt amount was calculated. If the garnishment is for child support, the exempt amount paid to you will be forty percent of wages due you, but if you are supporting a spouse or dependent child, you are entitled to claim an additional ten percent as exempt.

BANK ACCOUNTS. If the garnishee is a bank or other institution with which you have an account in which you have deposited benefits such as Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Social Security, veterans' benefits, unemployment compensation, or a United States pension, you may claim the account as fully exempt if you have deposited only such benefit funds in the account. It may be partially exempt even though you have deposited money from other sources in the same account. An exemption is also available under RCW 26.16.200, providing that funds in a community bank account that can be identified as the earnings of a stepparent are exempt from a garnishment on the child support obligation of the parent.

OTHER EXEMPTIONS. If the garnishee holds other property of yours, some or all of it may be exempt under RCW 6.16.020, a Washington statute that exempts up to five hundred dollars of property of your choice (including up to one hundred dollars in cash or in a bank account) and certain property such as household furnishings, tools of trade, and a motor vehicle (all limited by differing dollar values).

HOW TO CLAIM EXEMPTIONS. Fill out the enclosed claim form and mail or deliver it as described in instructions on the claim form. If the plaintiff does not object to your claim, the funds or other property that you have claimed as exempt must be released not later than 10 days after the plaintiff receives your claim form. If the plaintiff objects, the law requires a hearing not later than 14 days after the plaintiff receives your claim form, and notice of the objection and hearing date will be mailed to you at the address that you put on the claim form.

THE LAW ALSO PROVIDES OTHER EXEMPTION RIGHTS. IF NECESSARY, AN ATTORNEY CAN ASSIST YOU TO ASSERT THESE AND OTHER RIGHTS, BUT YOU MUST ACT IMMEDIATELY TO AVOID LOSS OF RIGHTS BY DELAY.

(2) The claim form required by RCW 7.33.320(1) to be mailed to or served on an individual judgment debtor shall be in the following form, printed or typed in type no smaller than elite type:

ANSWER
GARNISHMENT

Garnishee Defendant

At the time of service of the writ of garnishment on the garnishee there was due and owing from the garnishee to the above-named defendant $ (On the reverse side of this answer form, or on an attached page, give an explanation of the dollar amount stated, or give reasons why there is uncertainty about your answer.)

If the above amount or any part of it is for personal earnings (that is, compensation payable for personal services, whether called wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise, and including periodic payments pursuant to a pension or retirement program); Garnishee has deducted from this amount $ which is the exemption to which the defendant is entitled(:

On the reverse side of this answer form, or on a schedule attached hereto, give the following information: (1) An explanation of the dollar amount stated, or reasons why there is uncertainty about your answer, if deemed necessary; (2)), leaving $ that garnishee holds under the writ. The exempt amount is calculated as follows:

Total compensation due defendant	$
LESS deductions for social security and withholding taxes and any other deduction required by law	$
(list separately and identify)	$
Disposable wages	$

If the title of this writ indicates that this is a garnishment under a child support judgment, enter forty percent of disposable wages: $ This amount is exempt and must be paid to the defendant at the regular pay time.

If this is not a garnishment for child support, enter seventy-five percent of disposable wages: $ From the listing in the following paragraph, choose the amount for the relevant pay period and enter that amount: $ (If amounts for more than one pay period are due, multiply the preceding amount by the number of pay periods and/or fraction of pay period for which amounts are due and enter that amount: $) The greater of the amounts entered in this paragraph is the exempt amount and must be paid to the defendant at the regular pay time.

Sec. 1021. Section 24, chapter 264, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 7.33.240 are each amended to read as follows:

If the garnishee files an answer, either the plaintiff ((should)) or the defendant, if not ((be)) satisfied with the answer of the garnishee ((he)), may controvert within twenty days after the filing of the answer, by filing an affidavit in writing signed by ((him)) the controverting party or attorney or agent, stating that ((he)) the affiant has good reason to believe and does believe that the answer of the garnishee is incorrect, stating in what particulars ((he)) the affiant believes the same is incorrect. Copies of the affidavit shall be served on or mailed by first class mail to the garnishee at the address indicated on the answer or, if no address is indicated, at the address to or at which the writ was mailed or served, and to the other party, at the address shown on the writ if the defendant controverts, or at the address to or at which the copy of the writ of garnishment was mailed or served on the defendant if the plaintiff controverts, unless otherwise directed in writing by the defendant or defendant's attorney.

Sec. 1022. Section 26, chapter 264, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 7.33.260 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the expiration of the time for garnishee's response, the matter may be noted by any party for hearing before a commissioner or presiding judge for a determination whether an issue is presented that requires a trial. If a trial is required, it shall be noted as in other cases, but no pleadings shall be necessary on such issue other than the affidavit of the plaintiff, the answer of the garnishee and the reply of the plaintiff or defendant controverting such answer, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

Sec. 1023. Section 29, chapter 264, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 7.33.290 are each amended to read as follows:

~~If the property that is to be sold is subject to a homestead exemption under chapter 6.12 RCW, the court may, upon application for the confirmation of a sale, ((if it has not theretofore fixed an upset price:)) conduct a hearing, establish the value of the property, and, as a condition to confirmation, require that the fair value of the property be credited upon the foreclosure judgment. ((If an upset price has been established, the plaintiff may be required to credit this amount upon the judgment as a condition to confirmation:))~~ If the fair value as found by the court, when applied to the mortgage debt, discharges it, no deficiency judgment shall be granted.

A code city may exercise the power to bring an action or special proceeding at law as authorized by Title 4 RCW, chapters 7.24, 7.25, and 7.33 RCW ~~(sections 1001 through 1035 of this 1987 act)~~, and shall be subject to actions and process of law in accordance with procedures prescribed by law and rules of court.

Sec. 1119. Section 4, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 403, chapter 305, Laws of 1986 and RCW 51.24.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If the injured worker or beneficiary elects to seek damages from the third person, any recovery made shall be distributed as follows:

(a) The costs and reasonable attorneys' fees shall be paid proportionately by the injured worker or beneficiary and the department and/or self-insurer;

(b) The injured worker or beneficiary shall be paid twenty-five percent of the balance of the award: PROVIDED, That in the event of a compromise and settlement by the parties, the injured worker or beneficiary may agree to a sum less than twenty-five percent;

(c) The department and/or self-insurer shall be paid the balance of the recovery made, but only to the extent necessary to reimburse the department and/or self-insurer for compensation and benefits paid;

(1) The department and/or self-insurer shall bear its proportionate share of the costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the worker or beneficiary to the extent of the benefits paid or payable under this title: PROVIDED, That the department or self-insurer may require court approval of costs and attorneys' fees or may petition a court for determination of the reasonableness of costs and attorneys' fees.

(1) The sum representing the department's and/or self-insurer's proportionate share shall not be subject to subsection (1) (d) and (e) of this section.

(d) Any remaining balance shall be paid to the injured worker or beneficiary;

(e) Thereafter no payment shall be made to or on behalf of a worker or beneficiary by the department and/or self-insurer for such injury until the amount of any further compensation and benefits shall equal any such remaining balance. Thereafter, such benefits shall be paid by the department and/or self-insurer to or on behalf of the worker or beneficiary as though no recovery had been made from a third person;

(f) If the employer or a co-employee are determined under RCW 4.22.070 to be at fault, (c) and (e) of this subsection do not apply and benefits shall be paid by the department and/or self-insurer to or on behalf of the worker or beneficiary as though no recovery had been made from a third person.

(2) The recovery made shall be subject to a lien by the department and/or self-insurer for its share under this section.

(3) The department or self-insurer has sole discretion to compromise the amount of its lien. In deciding whether or to what extent to compromise its lien, the department or self-insurer shall consider at least the following:

(a) The likelihood of collection of the award or settlement as may be affected by insurance coverage, solvency, or other factors relating to the third person;

(b) Factual and legal issues of liability as between the injured worker or beneficiary and the third person. Such issues include but are not limited to possible contributory negligence and novel theories of liability; and

(c) Problems of proof faced in obtaining the award or settlement.

(4) In the case of an employer not qualifying as a self-insurer, the department shall make a retroactive adjustment to such employer's experience rating in which the third party claim has been included to reflect that portion of the award or settlement which is reimbursed for compensation and benefits paid and, if the claim is open at the time of recovery, applied against further compensation and benefits to which the injured worker or beneficiary may be entitled.

(5) In an action under this section, the self-insurer may act on behalf and for the benefit of the department to the extent of any compensation and benefits paid or payable from state funds.

(6) It shall be the duty of the person to whom any recovery is paid before distribution under this section to advise the department or self-insurer of the fact and amount of such recovery, the costs and reasonable attorneys' fees associated with the recovery, and to distribute the recovery in compliance with this section.

(7) The distribution of any recovery made by award or settlement of the third party action shall be confirmed by department order, served by registered or certified mail, and shall be subject to chapter 51.52 RCW. In the event the order of distribution becomes final under chapter 51.52 RCW, the director or the director's designee may file with the clerk of any county within the state a warrant in the amount of the sum representing the unpaid lien plus interest accruing from the date the order became final. The clerk of the county in which the warrant is filed shall immediately designate a superior court cause number for such warrant and the clerk shall cause to be entered in the judgment docket under the superior court cause number assigned to the warrant, the name of such worker or beneficiary mentioned in the warrant, the amount of the unpaid lien plus interest accrued and the date when the warrant was filed. The amount of such warrant as docketed shall become a lien upon the title to and interest in all real and personal property of the injured worker or beneficiary against whom the warrant is issued, the same as a judgment in a civil case docketed in the office of such clerk. The sheriff shall then proceed in the same manner and with like effect as prescribed by law with respect to execution or other process issued against rights or property upon judgment in the superior court. Such warrant so docketed shall be sufficient to support the issuance of writs of garnishment in favor of the department in the manner provided by law in the case of judgment, wholly or partially unsatisfied. The clerk of the court shall be entitled to a filing fee of five dollars, which shall be added to the amount of the warrant. A copy of such warrant shall be mailed to the injured worker or beneficiary within three days of filing with the clerk.

(8) The director, or the director's designee, may issue to any person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation, or agency of the state, a notice and order to withhold and deliver property of any kind if he or she has reason to believe that there is in the possession of such person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation, or agency of the state, property which is due, owing, or belonging to any worker or beneficiary upon whom a warrant has been served by the department for payments due to the state fund. The notice and order to withhold and deliver shall be served by the sheriff of the county or by the sheriff's deputy, or by any authorized representatives of the director. Any person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation, or agency of the state upon whom service has been made shall answer the notice within twenty days exclusive of the day of service, under oath and in writing, and shall make true answers to the matters inquired of in the notice and order to withhold and deliver. In the event there is in the possession of the party named and served with such notice and order, any property which may be subject to the claim of the department, such property shall be delivered forthwith to the director or the director's authorized representative upon demand. If the party served and named in the notice and order fails to answer the notice and order within the time prescribed in this section, the court may, after the time to answer such order has expired, render judgment by default against the party named in the notice for the full amount claimed by the director in the notice together with costs. In the event that a notice to withhold and deliver is served upon an employer and the property found to be subject thereto is wages, the employer may assert in the answer to all exemptions provided for by chapter 7.33 RCW (sections 1001 through 1035 of this 1987 act) to which the wage earner may be entitled.

Sec. 1120. Section 35, chapter 43, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as amended by section 11, chapter 9, Laws of 1986 and RCW 51.48.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The director or the director's designee is hereby authorized to issue to any person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, a public corporation, or any agency of the state, a notice and order to withhold and deliver property of any kind whatsoever when he or she has reason to believe that there is in the possession of such person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation, or any agency of the state, property which is or shall become due, owing, or belonging to any employer upon whom a notice of assessment has been served by the department for payments due to the state fund. The effect of a notice and order to withhold and deliver shall be continuous from the date such notice and order to withhold and deliver is first made until the liability out of which such notice and order to withhold and deliver arose is satisfied or becomes unenforceable because of lapse of time. The department shall release the notice and order to withhold and deliver when the liability out of which the notice and order to withhold and deliver arose is satisfied or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time and shall notify the person against whom the notice and order to withhold and deliver was made that such notice and order to withhold and deliver has been released.

The notice and order to withhold and deliver shall be served by the sheriff of the county or by the sheriff's deputy, or by any duly authorized representatives of the director. Any person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation or any agency of the state upon whom service has been made is hereby required to answer the notice within twenty days exclusive of the day of service, under oath and in writing, and shall make true answers to the matters inquired of in the notice and order to withhold and deliver. In the event there is in the possession of the party named and served with a notice and order to withhold and deliver, any property which may be subject to the claim of the department, such property shall be delivered forthwith to the director or the director's duly authorized representative upon service of the notice to withhold and deliver which will be held in trust by the director for application on the employer's indebtedness to the department, or for return without interest, in accordance with a final determination of a petition for review, or in the alternative such party shall furnish a good and sufficient surety bond satisfactory to the director conditioned upon final determination of liability. Should any party served and named in the notice to withhold and deliver fail to make answer to such notice and order to withhold and deliver, within the time prescribed herein, it shall be lawful for the court, after the time to answer such order has expired, to render judgment by default against the party named in the notice to withhold and deliver for the full amount claimed by the director in the notice to withhold and deliver together with costs. In the event that a notice to withhold and deliver is served upon an employer and the property found to be subject thereto is wages, then the employer shall be entitled to assert in the answer to all exemptions provided for by chapter 7.33 RCW (sections 1001 through 1035 of this 1987 act) to which the wage earner may be entitled.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1121. Section 233, page 173, Laws of 1854, section 321, page 65, Laws of 1877, section 306, Code of 1881, section 3, chapter 38, Laws of 1891 and RCW 4.64.040 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1122. Parts I through X of this act shall each constitute a new chapter in Title 6 RCW, and the sections amended in each part of this act shall be recodified in the order they appear in this act. The code reviser shall correct all statutory references to these sections to reflect this recodification."

If the claim of lien affects more than one parcel of real property and is segregated to each parcel, the bond may be segregated the same as in the claim of lien. A separate bond shall be required for each claim of lien. The condition of the bond shall be to guarantee the payment of the judgment entered in any action to recover the amount claimed in a claim of lien, or on the claim asserted in the claim of lien. The effect of recording a bond shall be to release the real property described in the claim of lien from the lien and any action brought to recover the amount claimed. Establishing a mobile home park purchase fund.

MOTIONS

Senator Warnke moved that the following Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds:

(a) That manufactured housing and mobile home parks provide a source of low-cost housing to the low income, elderly, poor and infirmed, without which they could not afford private housing; but rising costs of mobile home park development and operation, as well as turnover in ownership, has resulted in mobile home park living becoming unaffordable to the low income, elderly, poor and infirmed, resulting in increased numbers of homeless persons, and persons who must look to public housing and public programs, increasing the burden on the state to meet the housing needs of its residents;

(b) That state government can play a vital role in addressing the problems confronted by mobile home park residents by providing assistance which makes it possible for mobile home park residents to acquire the mobile home parks in which they reside and convert them to resident ownership; and

(c) That to accomplish this purpose, information and technical support shall be made available through the department of community development.

(2) Therefore, it is the intent of the legislature, in order to maintain low-cost housing in mobile home parks to benefit the low income, elderly, poor and infirmed, to encourage and facilitate the conversion of mobile home parks to resident ownership, to protect low-income mobile home park residents from both physical and economic displacement, to obtain a high level of private financing for mobile home park conversions, and to help establish acceptance for resident-owned mobile home parks in the private market.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. The following definitions shall apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) "Affordable" means that, where feasible, low-income residents should not pay more than thirty percent of their monthly income for housing costs.

(2) "Conversion costs" includes the cost of acquiring the mobile home park, the costs of planning and processing the conversion, the costs of any needed repairs or rehabilitation, and any expenditures required by a government agency or lender for the project.

(3) "Department" means the department of community development.

(4) "Fund" means the mobile home park purchase fund created pursuant to section 4 of this act.

(5) "Housing costs" means the total cost of owning, occupying, and maintaining a mobile home and a lot or space in a mobile home park.

(6) "Individual interest in a mobile home park" means any interest which is fee ownership or a lesser interest which entitles the holder to occupy a lot or space in a mobile home park for a period of not less than either fifteen years or the life of the holder. Individual interests in a mobile home park include, but are not limited to, the following:

(a) Ownership of a lot or space in a mobile home park or subdivision;

(b) A membership or shares in a stock cooperative, or a limited equity housing cooperative; or

(c) Membership in a nonprofit mutual benefit corporation which owns, operates, or owns and operates the mobile home park.

(7) "Low-income resident" means an individual or household who resided in the mobile home park prior to application for a loan pursuant to this chapter and with an annual income at or below eighty percent of the median income for the county of standard metropolitan statistical area of residence. Net worth shall be considered in the calculation of income with the exception of the resident's mobile/manufactured home which is used as their primary residence.

(8) "Low-income spaces" means those spaces in a mobile home park operated by a resident organization which are occupied by low-income residents.

(9) "Mobile home park" means a mobile home park, as defined in RCW 59.20.030(4), or a manufactured home park subdivision as defined by RCW 59.20.030(6) created by the conversion to resident ownership of a mobile home park.

(10) "Resident organization" means a group of mobile home park residents who have formed a nonprofit corporation, cooperative corporation, or other entity or organization for the purpose of acquiring the mobile home park in which they reside and converting the mobile home park to resident ownership. The membership of a resident organization shall include at least two-thirds of the households residing in the mobile home park at the time of application for assistance from the department.

(11) "Resident ownership" means, depending on the context, either the ownership, by a resident organization, as defined in this section, of an interest in a mobile home park which entitles the resident organization to control the operations of the mobile home park for a term of no less than fifteen years, or the ownership of individual interests in a mobile home park, or both.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. Nothing in this chapter shall limit the park owner's right to exert full management and control of a portion of a park retained in the case of a sale of a portion of a mobile home park to a resident organization.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. The mobile home park purchase fund is hereby created and shall be maintained in the office of the treasurer. The purpose of this fund is to provide loans according to the provisions of this chapter and for related administrative costs of the department. The fund shall include appropriations, loan repayments, interest, and any other money from private sources made available to the state for the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. (1) Subject to appropriation, the department may make loans from the fund to resident organizations for the purpose of financing mobile home park conversion costs, as defined in this chapter.

(2) Loans provided pursuant to this section shall be for a term of no more than three years and shall bear interest at a competitive rate set by the department and adjusted by the department when necessary.

(3) Loans granted pursuant to this section shall be for the least amount necessary to enable a resident organization to acquire and convert the mobile home park in which its members reside. However, in no case shall the loan amount exceed fifty percent of the approved conversion costs.

(4) The department shall only make loans to resident organizations of mobile home parks where a significant portion of the residents are low income, elderly, poor or infirmed.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. (1) The department may make loans from the fund to low-income residents of mobile home parks converted to resident ownership or to resident organizations which have converted or plan to convert a mobile home park to resident ownership. The purpose of providing loans pursuant to this section is to reduce the monthly housing costs for low-income residents to an affordable level.

(2) Loans provided pursuant to this section shall be for a term of no more than thirty years and shall bear interest at a competitive rate set by the department.

(3) The department may establish flexible repayment terms for loans provided pursuant to this section if the terms are necessary to reduce monthly housing costs for low-income residents to an affordable level and do not represent an unacceptable risk to the security of the fund.

(4) Loans provided to low-income residents pursuant to this section shall be for the least amount necessary to reduce the borrower's monthly housing costs to an affordable level. However, in no case shall loan amounts exceed fifty percent of the acquisition costs of the individual interests in the mobile home parks. In addition, the total indebtedness upon individual interests may not exceed ninety percent of the value of the interests.

(5) Loans provided to resident organizations pursuant to this section shall be for the least amount necessary to reduce the monthly housing costs of low-income residents to an affordable level. However, in no case shall the loan amounts exceed fifty percent of the conversions costs attributable to the low-income spaces. Funds provided pursuant to this section shall not be used to assist residents who are not low-income, or to reduce monthly housing costs for low-income residents to less than thirty percent of their monthly income.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. In determining the eligibility for, and the amount of, loans pursuant to sections 5 and 6 of this act, the department shall take into consideration, among other factors, all of the following: (1) The reasonableness of the conversion costs relating to repairs, rehabilitation, construction, or other costs; (2) whether or not the project complements the implementation of a local housing program to preserve or increase the supply of housing for persons and families of low or moderate income; (3) whether or not state funds are utilized in the most efficient and effective manner in the furtherance of the goals of this chapter; and (4) any administrative and security factors affecting the department's program operation and administration.

To the extent consistent with requests for assistance, the department shall allocate funds available for the purposes of this chapter throughout the state in accordance with identified housing needs, including seeking to allocate not less than twenty percent to rural areas.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) The department shall adopt regulations for the administration and implementation of this chapter.

(2) The department shall obtain the best available security for loans made pursuant to this chapter. The security may be in the form of a note, deed of trust, assignment of lease, or other form of security on real or personal property which the department determines is adequate to protect the security of the fund and the interests of the state. To the extent applicable, these security documents shall be recorded or referenced in a recorded document in the office of the county auditor of the county in which the mobile home park is located.

(3) The department shall exercise sufficient regulatory control with respect to park operations to assure the accomplishment of the purposes of the program authorized by this chapter.

(4) Before providing financing pursuant to this chapter, the department shall require provision of, and approve, at least the following:

(a) Verification that at least two-thirds of the households residing in the mobile home park support the plan for acquisition and conversion of the park;

(b) Verification that either no park residents will be involuntarily displaced as a result of the park conversion, or the impacts of displacement will be mitigated so as not to impose an unreasonable hardship on the displaced resident or residents;

(c) Verification that the conversion is consistent with local zoning and land use requirements, other applicable state and local laws, and regulations and ordinances;

(d) Projected costs and sources of funds for all conversion activities;

(e) Projected operating budget for the park during and after conversion;

(f) A management plan for the conversion and operation of the park; and

(g) If necessary, a relocation plan, funded by the resident organization, for residents not participating.

(5) The department shall, to the greatest extent feasible, do both of the following:

(a) Require participation by cities and counties in loan applications submitted pursuant to this chapter; and

(b) Contract with private lenders or units of local government to provide program administration and to service loans made pursuant to this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) The department shall provide technical assistance to resident organizations or low-income residents who wish to convert the mobile home park in which they reside to resident ownership or to acquire an individual interest in a mobile home park. Technical assistance provided under this section shall be general in nature and shall not include the final details connected with the sale or conversion of a mobile home park which would require the department to act in a representative capacity, or would require the department to draft documents affecting legal or property rights of the parties.

(2) As part of the general assistance to mobile home resident organizations, park owners, and landlords and tenants, the department shall establish an office of mobile home affairs which will serve as the coordinating office within state government for matters relating to mobile homes or manufactured housing.

This office will provide an ombudsman service to mobile home park owners and mobile home tenants with respect to problems and disputes between park owners and park residents and to provide technical assistance under subsection (1) of this section. The office will keep records of its activities in this area.

This office will also provide an ombudsman service to mobile home park owners and mobile home tenants with respect to accessing governmental services related to health and safety within mobile home parks.

This office will further recommend policies and strategies that will promote the development and utilization of mobile homes or manufactured housing and the conversion of mobile home parks to resident ownership as a means of enhancing the supply of safe, sanitary, low and moderate-income housing within the state, and advise the legislature, executive agencies of state government, and local government entities accordingly.

The office may not consider, evaluate, or develop policies or any means of government controlling the economic return to mobile home park owners resulting from operation of their parks.

(3) The department shall establish the mobile home and manufactured housing affairs advisory committee. The committee shall consist of five members appointed by the director of the department of community development. The committee shall be comprised of one representative of mobile home park tenants, one representative of mobile home park owners, and one representative of the public at large, each of whom shall be knowledgeable and have practical experience with the mobile home landlord tenant act, one representative of mobile home manufacturers and one representative of local governments. Only the representatives of the mobile home park tenants, mobile home park owners, and the public at large shall review and advise the office on issues relating to the mobile home landlord tenant act. The director of the department of community development shall appoint the committee chairperson. The entire committee shall advise the office in implementing the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section. The members of the committee shall not receive compensation or reimbursement for travel expenses.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Within two years of the completion of a sufficient number of mobile home park conversions to allow for meaningful evaluation, the department shall undertake an evaluation of the program established by this chapter, and submit its findings to the legislature. However, in no event shall this report be submitted later than December 31, 1990. This evaluation shall include an examination of the financial, governmental, and institutional constraints on the conversion of mobile home parks; the impact of park conversions upon low-income residents, including those residents who moved from the parks during the conversion process or within one year after conversion; the distribution and average income and assets of residents who have participated; data on loan delinquencies and defaults; the costs of acquiring and converting mobile home parks to resident ownership; and a comparison of different resident ownership structures financed pursuant to this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 1 through 10 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 59 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. This chapter shall remain in effect until July 1, 1991, and as of that date is repealed, unless that date is extended."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "Senator Warnke, I note the creation of a loan fund and the money is to be loaned to mobile home park occupants and so forth. You are rather unclear as to where that money comes from. Can you tell us where they are going to get that money?"

Senator Warnke: "I'll have to look that up and get right back to you. I know it is a revolving fund where we establish the fund first and the fees generated to the tenants will pick up that money and pay back to the DCD, but let me pick it up here and I'll give it to you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Warnke, you mentioned that in the case where a mobile home park location was to be sold, that this would allow the tenants to move in and buy, if they so desire. We had one in Tacoma and the tenants were evicted and it is now part of Tacoma Mall. Is it meant that the tenants will have to buy at the price that the owner wants, or will he have to sell if he doesn't want to sell and does it contain the power of eminent domain?"

Senator Warnke: "It does not contain eminent domain. The tenants must bid at the fair market price, or meet the bid that comes to that owner from some other purchaser."

Senator Rasmussen: "They will have to bid on the open market?"

Senator Warnke: "Absolutely."

Senator Rasmussen: "How big a fund, as Senator Newhouse asked, are we going to have established? I think Senator Newhouse already asked, too, is it coming out of the general fund or out of the air? It is a serious problem and I am just wondering what the details are of how we are going to solve it without the powers of eminent domain?"

Senator Warnke: "Senator Newhouse and Senator Rasmussen, in the bill it says that an appropriation will be made to DCD. Also, they will use private funds, loan repayments, interest and other money from private sources that's made available to the fund, so there will be an appropriation made, but this bill does not contain an appropriation and we would hope that the budget would have some money for DCD and to establish this loan."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Warnke, I heard something else in there that this fund was going to be raised by increased rents to the tenants of mobile parks. That's what their problem is now. Are they going to put an additional charge on each person's rental?"

Senator Warnke: "No, Senator, I did not say that. What I said was, 'repayment loans, interest.' If, from the loan fund, a group of tenants are granted a loan to purchase a park, they will repay that money to the DCD loan, plus interest. The interest then would go to pay off the initial appropriation to the fund established in DCD. It has nothing to do with rent, Senator."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, I raise the point of order that the amendment to the committee amendment expands the scope and object of Substitute House Bill No. 244. The bill is really one calculated to deal with exemptions to public disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act a portion of the Public Disclosure Act. This particular amendment deals with something that is more involved in the political sphere and I believe it expands the scope and object of the bill."

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 419, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Representatives Hargrove, Wineberry, Padden, Brekke, Holm, Patrick, Winsley, Brough, Silver and Moyer) (by request of Department of Social and Health Services)

Providing for administrative determination of paternity.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the following Committee on Judiciary amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The state of Washington through the department of social and health services is required by state and federal statutes to provide paternity establishment services. These statutes require that reasonable efforts to establish paternity be made, if paternity of the child is in question, in all public assistance cases and whenever such services are requested in nonassistance cases.

The increasing number of children being born out of wedlock together with improved awareness of the benefits to the child and society of having paternity established have resulted in a greater demand on the existing judicial paternity establishment system.

Sec. 2. Section 23, chapter 171, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.280 are each amended to read as follows:

While discharging its responsibilities to enforce the support obligations of responsible parents, the department shall respect the right of privacy of recipients of public assistance and of other persons. Any inquiry about sexual activity shall be limited to that necessary to ~~((resolve a genuine dispute about the parentage of a child. When a custodial mother has informed the department that a particular man is the father of her child, the department shall make no further inquiry into her personal life unless the man so identified has denied that he is the father of such child))~~ identify and locate possible fathers and to gather facts needed in the adjudication of parentage.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. The department of social and health services shall augment its present paternity establishment services through the hiring of additional assistant attorneys general, or contracting with prosecutors or private attorneys licensed in the state of Washington in those judicial districts experiencing delay or an accumulation of unserved paternity cases. The employment of private attorneys shall be limited in scope to renewable six-month periods in judicial districts where the prosecutor or the attorney general cannot provide adequate, cost-effective service. The department of social and health services shall provide a written report of the circumstances requiring employment of private attorneys to the judiciary committees of the senate and house of representatives and provide copies of such reports to the office of the attorney general and to the Washington association of prosecuting attorneys.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. The sum of four hundred sixty-seven thousand seven hundred eighty-seven dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the general fund to the department of social and health services for the office of support enforcement for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, to carry out the required paternity establishment services.

Pursuant to RCW 26.26.060(2), the office of support enforcement within the department of social and health services shall utilize this appropriation for ensuring that full paternity services are provided as mandated by federal and state law."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hansen: "Senator Talmadge, I've known a few couples--and I've had them report to me--that ran out of work, couldn't feed their children and couldn't qualify for assistance as long as he was around there, so he would leave and she would get assistance to keep the kids from starving to death and then have the courts turn around and land him in the slammer, because he couldn't pay child support after he left. I think--is this going to answer that problem at all or are you just going to put him in the slammer?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, this is kind of a different issue. The whole area of child support is very controversial. The other three of the four measures dealing with child support are on hold and I think some people want to take a look at those issues and that's something that is perfectly appropriate given the controversy associated with them.

"What we have here is a little bit different problem. When someone comes into the local community service office and says, 'I need aid to families with dependent children, because I have a child and I am without any other means of support'--where there is some opportunity to discover who the father of the child is, the state has an interest in that and pursuing that individual for child support purposes. This simply sets up the process by which you determine who is the father of that child and who must pay child support. This is a much simpler way of doing it and is very consistent with what is being done all over the state and I believe, in fact, your prosecutors over in the central part of the state have been very good about entering into contracts with the Office of Support Enforcement to do this. I, personally, feel there is a greater protection to all of the individuals concerned, if it is done in the Superior Court rather than if it's done on a paper hearing basis in some administrative office."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Judiciary amendment.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

Debate on the committee amendment ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Financial Institutions amendment.

The motion by Senator Moore carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "uninsurable," strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new section to chapter 48.14 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 82.04 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 48 RCW; creating a new section; and declaring an emergency."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 99, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Moore, this bill exempts the premiums of the pool from premium taxes and provides certain deductions and assessments from business and occupation taxes. Do you have any idea if that will impact the general fund or not? No, it won't--yes it will because, the Insurance Commissioner's premium taxes go into the general fund. Do you have any idea what that amount will be?"

Senator Moore: "I think, Senator, that since they are not getting insurance now, that there's no impact, if I understand the question."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, we don't know if they are getting insurance or not."

Senator Moore: "Excuse me, Senator, these people cannot get insurance and that is the reason this is somewhat of an emergency."

Senator Rasmussen: "So, that is your reason you say it will not impact the general fund, because at the present time they are not buying this insurance--it's not available?"

Senator Moore: "That's correct."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Moore, as I understand it, this program is set up for those people who cannot get insurance at the present time. Does that include insurance for AIDS?"

Senator Moore: "This would include anybody that was unable to get insurance. They would be eligible, under the rules the Insurance Commissioner sets up. They would be eligible to be insured."

Senator Bluechel: "How is the cost determined on something like this?"

Senator Moore: "It's going to be eventually determined actuarially. To start with, the premium will probably be one hundred and fifty percent of what the normal premium is."

Senator Bluechel: "It would seem to me that won't even begin to cover some of the problems that people have with very serious diseases, including AIDS or cancer or something like that--that the premium couldn't even start. Is this realistic?"

Senator Moore: "Senator Bluechel, there are a lot of things we do around here that, perhaps, are not totally realistic. We do make some brave, bold, new attempts to solve problems and I trust that this is one and if it isn't perfect, you know we will be back in January to take another look."

President Pro Tempore Rasmussen assumed the chair.

Further debate on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 99, as amended by the Senate, ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Senator McDermott, in our committee, I was one of the ones who signed this bill out and I would have preferred it to go to Ways and Means. The question that Senator Bluechel asked is one that, does this include AIDS and if it does, what are the costs? I think Senator Moore's statement that 'well, we can come back and tune it up next year,' but next year, once we adopt a program, maybe then there are people who would have a legal right to that program and it isn't so easy to come back and fix it up next year. I'd like to know what are the costs that we are talking about here?"

Senator McDermott: "Well, Senator, you asked several questions. Let me talk about a couple of them. First of all, this bill has a six month waiting period in it, so people can't immediately come walking in with a serious illness and immediately get coverage. If people have AIDS, the problems are usually so acute that they are going to be dealt with in a public hospital. Right now, most of the AIDS cases are taken care of at public expense in public hospitals. The costs originally--in fact in the east, the costs now are in the hundreds of thousands of dollars, but in the west we have been treating them at much less than that and it has been done by using a variety of things besides in-hospital care, there have been half-way houses and a variety of other studies in which people can be cared for who have AIDS. AIDS is one hundred percent fatal. When people get it, there hasn't been anybody who has recovered from it and so the situation is really of caring for the dying patient--much like we do in a hospital.

"The costs presently are being paid for by the public, in most instances, because most people's insurance runs out with the cost of this. The people who have been getting it have been young people who are not insured and this is an opportunity for people to actually buy insurance, who know that they have some kind of illness--some kind of chronic disease. I think, in the long run, that it will be much less costly to the public, because it will be including in it the contribution from the patients themselves who bought the insurance. Right now, if they get sick, they wind up in a public hospital and we are paying for it without any contribution from the patient at all. I think, in the long run, this will be a less costly way to go."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Moore, I am just curious. On page 26, it says 'the plan includes and subsection (4) premiums set at one hundred and fifty percent of the standard group rate set for groups up to ten persons.' Does that establish the premium or the rate?"

Senator Moore: "That is a starting point, however, you'll notice that in the legislation it does refer to a board of directors making a final establishment based on their actuarial findings. You know one hundred and fifty percent might be the opening and it may be five hundred percent or maybe it will be fifty percent, but it will be based on some actuarial finding as we progress."

Senator Deccio: "Well, that was what I was getting at and that answers Senator Metcalf's concerns. The pool will set its own experience and set its own rate and could be as high as five hundred percent of the standard for groups of five, if I understand what the legislation does."

Senator Moore: "Exactly right."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 99, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 99, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 4.

(1) Every licensed real estate broker shall keep adequate records of all real estate transactions handled by or through him. The records shall include, but are not limited to, a copy of the earnest money receipt, and an itemization of the broker's receipts and disbursements with each transaction. These records and all other records hereinafter specified shall be open to inspection by the director or his authorized representatives.

(2) Every real estate broker shall also deliver or cause to be delivered to all parties signing the same, at the time of signing, conformed copies of all earnest money receipts, listing agreements and all other like or similar instruments signed by the parties, including the closing statement.

(3) Every real estate broker shall also keep separate real estate fund accounts in a recognized Washington state depository authorized to receive funds in which shall be kept separate and apart and physically segregated from licensee broker's own funds, all funds or moneys of clients which are being held by such licensee broker pending the closing of a real estate sale or transaction, or which have been collected for said client and are being held for disbursement for or to said client and such funds shall be deposited not later than the first banking day following receipt thereof.

(4) Separate accounts comprised of clients' funds required to be maintained under this section, with the exception of property management trust accounts, shall be interest-bearing accounts from which withdrawals or transfers can be made without delay, subject only to the notice period which the depository institution is required to reserve by law or regulation.

(5) Every real estate broker shall maintain a pooled interest-bearing escrow account for deposit of client funds, with the exception of property management trust accounts, which are nominal or short term. As used in this section, a "nominal or short term" deposit is a deposit which, if placed in a separate account, would not produce positive net interest income after payment of bank fees, or other institution fees, and other administrative expenses.

The interest accruing on this account, net of any reasonable transaction costs, shall be paid to the state treasurer for deposit in the Washington housing trust fund created in RCW 43.185.030. An agent may, but shall not be required to, notify the client of the intended use of such funds.

(6) All client funds not deposited in the account specified in subsection (5) of this section shall be deposited in:

(a) A separate interest-bearing trust account for the particular client or client's matter on which the interest will be paid to the client; or

(b) A pooled interest-bearing trust account with subaccounting that will provide for computation of interest earned by each client's funds and the payment thereof to the client.

The department of licensing shall promulgate regulations which will serve as guidelines in the choice of an account specified in subsection (5) of this section or an account specified in this subsection.

(7) For an account created under subsection (5) of this section, an agent shall direct the depository institution to:

(a) Remit interest or dividends, net of any reasonable service charges or fees, on the average monthly balance in the account, or as otherwise computed in accordance with an institution's standard accounting practice, at least quarterly, to the state treasurer for deposit in the housing trust fund created by RCW 43.185.030 and the real estate commission account created by RCW 18.85.220 as directed by section 10 of this 1987 act; and

(b) Transmit to the director of community development a statement showing the name of the person or entity for whom the remittance is spent, the rate of interest applied, and the amount of service charges deducted, if any, and the account balance(s) of the period in which the report is made, with a copy of such statement to be transmitted to the depositing person or firm.

(8) The director shall forward a copy of the reports required by subsection (7) of this section to the department of licensing to aid in the enforcement of the requirements of this section consistent with the normal enforcement and auditing practices of the department of licensing.

(9) This section does not relieve any real estate broker from any obligation with respect to the safekeeping of clients' funds.

(10) Any violation by a real estate broker of any of the provisions of this section, or RCW 18.85.230, shall be grounds for revocation of the licenses issued to the broker.

Sec. 2. Section 11, chapter 298, Laws of 1986 and RCW 43.185.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall have the authority to promulgate rules pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, regarding the grant and loan process, and the substance of eligible projects, consistent with this chapter. NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 43.185 RCW to read as follows:

The director shall promptly appoint a low income housing assistance advisory committee composed of a representative from each of the following groups: Apartment owners, realtors, mortgage lending or servicing institutions, private non-profit housing assistance programs, tenant associations, and public housing assistance programs. The advisory group shall advise the director on housing needs in this state, operational aspects of the grant and loan program or revenue collection programs established by this chapter, and implementation of the policy and goals of this chapter.

Sec. 4. Section 1, chapter 298, Laws of 1986 and RCW 43.185.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds that current economic conditions, federal housing policies and declining resources at the federal, state, and local level adversely affect the ability of low and very low-income persons to obtain safe, decent, and affordable housing.

The legislature further finds that members of over one hundred twenty thousand households live in housing units which are overcrowded, lack plumbing, are otherwise threatening to health and safety, and have rents and utility payments which exceed thirty percent of their income.

The legislature further finds that the homeless, minorities, rural households, and migrant farm workers require housing assistance at a rate which significantly exceeds their proportion of the general population.

such as the mentally ill, recovering alcoholics, frail elderly persons, and single parents. ~~((These services include medical assistance, counseling, chore services, and child care.))~~

The legislature further finds that housing assistance programs in the past have often failed to help those in greatest need.

Not less than thirty percent of such funds used in any given biennium shall be for the benefit of projects located in rural areas as defined in 63 Stat. 432, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1471 et seq.

(2) Activities eligible for assistance include, but are not limited to:

(a) New construction, rehabilitation, or acquisition of low and very low-income housing units;

(b) Rent subsidies in new construction or rehabilitated multifamily units;

~~(c) ((Matching funds for social services directly related to providing housing for special-need tenants in assisted projects;~~

~~((d))~~ Technical assistance, design and finance services and consultation, and administrative costs for eligible nonprofit community or neighborhood-based organizations, so long as said assistance is directed toward construction or rehabilitation of housing;

~~((e))~~ (d) Administrative costs for housing assistance groups or organizations when such grant or loan will substantially increase the recipient's access to housing funds other than those available under this chapter;

~~((f))~~ (e) Shelters and related services for the homeless;

~~((g))~~ (f) Mortgage subsidies for new construction or rehabilitation of eligible multifamily units;

~~((h))~~ (g) Mortgage insurance guarantee or payments for eligible projects; and

~~((i))~~ (h) Acquisition of housing units for the purpose of preservation as low-income or very low-income housing.

Sec. 6. Section 2, chapter 298, Laws of 1986 and RCW 43.185.030 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created a fund in the office of the treasurer known as the Washington housing trust fund. ~~((The treasurer shall serve as the trustee thereof and shall make disbursements therefrom as directed by this chapter.))~~ The housing trust fund shall include revenue from the sources established by this chapter, appropriations by the legislature, private contributions, and all other sources. Eighty percent of the return on the fund in the form of investment income or interest shall be added to the principal of the fund. The remaining twenty percent shall be placed in the general fund.

Sec. 7. Section 19, chapter 7, Laws of 1982 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 67.70.190 are each amended to read as follows:

If no claim is made for the prize within this time, the prize shall be ~~((retained in the state lottery fund for further use as prizes))~~ placed in the housing trust fund established by RCW 43.185.030 and all rights to the prize shall be extinguished.

Sec. 8. Section 24, chapter 7, Laws of 1982 2nd ex. sess. as amended by section 5, chapter 375, Laws of 1985 and RCW 67.70.240 are each amended to read as follows:

The moneys in the state lottery account shall be used only: (1) For the payment of prizes to the holders of winning lottery tickets or shares; (2) for purposes of making deposits into the reserve account created by RCW 67.70.250 and into the lottery administrative account created by RCW 67.70.260; (3) for purposes of making deposits into the state's general fund; (4) for purposes of making deposits into the housing trust fund under the provisions of section 7 of this 1987 act; (5) for the purchase and promotion of lottery games and game-related services; and ~~((6))~~ (6) for the payment of agent compensation.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator McCaslin, my question was, if I come to you and we are in a real estate transaction and you tell me 'well, I don't want any cash, give me a note.' You know, the guy is good for his note; there would be no interest on the note, would there?"

Senator McCaslin: "No, Sir, there would not be."

Senator Rasmussen: "Wouldn't that be a good way of handling it?"

Senator McCaslin: "Well, you could, but notes are as good as the paper they are written on, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, that depends. If I give you a note, I would think it was good."

Senator McCaslin: "Well, I know you and I know you are good for it, Senator. But, others--"

Senator Rasmussen: "But, out of the explanation that Senator Bottiger has given you, he says that if the client wants that interest, he can claim it."

Senator McCaslin: "Not to my knowledge. If one of the real estate attorneys in here would like to get up and dispute that--not to my knowledge."

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Bottiger, he's a real estate attorney."

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Sexual intercourse" (a) has its ordinary meaning and occurs upon any penetration, however slight, and

(b) Also means any penetration of the vagina or anus however slight, by an object, when committed on one person by another, whether such persons are of the same or opposite sex, except when such penetration is accomplished for medically recognized treatment or diagnostic purposes, and

(c) Also means any act of sexual contact between persons involving the sex organs of one person and the mouth or anus of another whether such persons are of the same or opposite sex.

(2) "Married" means one who is legally married to another, but does not include a person who is living separate and apart from his or her spouse and who has filed in an appropriate court for legal separation or for dissolution of his or her marriage.

(3) "Mental incapacity" is that condition existing at the time of the offense which prevents a person from understanding the nature or consequences of the act of sexual intercourse whether that condition is produced by illness, defect, the influence of a substance or from some other cause;

(4) "Physically helpless" means a person who is unconscious or for any other reason is physically unable to communicate unwillingness to an act;

(5) "Forcible compulsion" means physical force which overcomes resistance, or a threat, express or implied, that places a person in fear of death or physical injury to herself or himself or another person, or in fear that she or he or another person will be kidnapped;

(6) "Consent" means that at the time of the act of sexual intercourse there are actual words or conduct indicating freely given agreement to have sexual intercourse;

(7) "Counselor" means an individual, practitioner, therapist, or analyst who engages in the practice of counseling to the public with or without a fee.

Sec. 7, Section 6, chapter 14, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 244, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 9A.44.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person is guilty of rape in the third degree when, under circumstances not constituting rape in the first or second degrees, such person engages in sexual intercourse with another person, not married to the perpetrator:

(a) Where the victim did not consent as defined in RCW 9A.44.010(6), to sexual intercourse with the perpetrator and such lack of consent was clearly expressed by the victim's words or conduct, or

(b) Where there is threat of substantial unlawful harm to property rights of the victim, or

(c) Where the perpetrator gained the consent of the victim through the relationship of serving as a counselor to the victim.

(2) Rape in the third degree is a class C felony."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Halsan: "Senator Craswell, being a criminal practitioner myself, I look at these things rather carefully. When we deal with consent in laws relating to rape, specifically, the one provision that we do have is that if a victim was incapable of consent by reason of being helpless or mentally incapacitated, that's dealing with a person who is being taken advantage of because they are retarded or some other type of helpless situation. In this situation, we have a person who is a counselor and the language that you have on page 2, where the perpetrator has gained the consent of the victim through the relationship of serving as a counselor to the victim, by implication that's stating that the person is incapable of consent because of the counselor relationship, but it doesn't say that. It also doesn't say that at the time the charge was made that the consent needed to be revoked and it also, potentially, could make it so that the prosecutor could charge a count of rape in the third degree if, in fact, a patient did happen to fall in love with her counselor. That isn't your intent is it?"

Senator Craswell: "No, that wasn't the intent, but I think of course, if the person falls in love with a counselor, they are not going to be bringing charges."

Senator Halsan: "They don't bring the charges, the prosecutor does."

Senator Craswell: "I see. I really don't think it would be a problem, but I certainly would consider an amendment if you have a solution to that."

Senator Halsan: "I'd have to sit down and work on writing one."

Senator Craswell: "I would just say that there seems to be a problem out there, because we keep hearing over and over again that the counselor is taking advantage of the counselee and there seems to be nothing that could be done about it."

Senator Halsan: "Perhaps we could put some language that the consent was gained through--I'd have to take a look at it."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Halsan, do you know of any prosecutor that has ever brought a charge unless he has been notified about somebody falling in love with a counselor?"

Senator Halsan: "Well, I don't know about that specifically. That is not in the statute right now, but I have known situations in which charges have been brought that both the victim and the alleged perpetrator have both wanted the prosecutor not to proceed."

Senator Rasmussen: "There are many other major crimes they could be working on, I agree with you. However, I think Senator Craswell's amendment is very clear that if the counselor did engage in sexual efforts with the client, that they would be considered raping in the third degree. I think that's very clear."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Kiskaddon: "Senator Craswell, my concern would be and, hopefully, Senator Halsan will be able to come up with some language, that it could well be that the counselling relationship was the first relationship and then they did fall in love--the counselling stopped, the relationship changed and then the person got angry at some point down stream and said, 'He raped me.' I would see that as a kind of scenario that would make it very difficult to really sort out what was there.

"I've always believed that if we want to have a way of stopping sexual activity with counselors and their clients, that to call it a crime is certainly much better than the registration bill that we passed. I guess what I'd really like--the best alternative would be to teach everybody in this state that if you do have sex with your counselor or your therapist, recognize it's not therapy and it's your business what you do. If there is no force involved, than you are free to choose regardless of your emotional condition--that you clearly know going in that that's not therapy and you chose to engage in some activity, well, then it's your responsibility. So, that would be, for me, the best solution, that if we could work it out in some way that it becomes a crime, that would be much better than believing that the registration bill that we passed will do any good. Senator Craswell, as you very well pointed out, licensed physiologists and psychiatrists have been licensed for years and that has not stopped this particular practice."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Craswell to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

The motion by Senator Craswell carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Wojahn: "Mr. President, a point of inquiry. I don't know which amendment Senator Warnke is offering. I've got three on my desk. One of them is a single sheet that contains the snack foods, one is a more substantial sheet that contains snack foods and fortified wine, and then I've got this third one that just includes fortified wine. Now, which one are we on? Is it the single bill?"

REPLY BY SENATOR WARNKE

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Wojahn: "Mr. President, I would challenge the scope and object of subsection (6) of this amendment which deals with snack foods which does not come under a licensor. This is a licensor title which deals with class S licenses for free trade zones for liquor and does not deal with snack foods."

Debate ensued.

(2) In counties with a population over three hundred thousand, the board shall issue a restricted class F license, authorizing the licensee to sell only table wine, if the board finds upon issuance or renewal of the license that the sale of fortified wine would be against the public interest. Establishing the family independence program.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Wojahn moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. SHORT TITLE. This chapter may be cited as the family independence program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. INTENT. The legislature hereby establishes as state policy the goal of economic independence for employable adults receiving public assistance, through employment, training, and education. The legislature finds that children living in families with incomes below the needs standard have reduced opportunities for physical and intellectual development. A family's economic future is frequently not improved by the current program.

Therefore, in order to break the cycle of poverty and dependence, a family independence program is established. Participating families are to receive benefits under this program at no less than they would otherwise have been entitled to receive.

The legislature finds that the state has a vital interest in ensuring that citizens who are in economic need are provided appropriate financial assistance. It is the intent of the legislature to maintain the existing partnership between state and federal government and that this program remain part of the federal welfare entitlement program. The legislature seeks federal authority for a five-year demonstration project and recognizes that waivers and congressional action may be required to achieve our purpose. The legislature does not seek a block grant approach to welfare.

The legislature recognizes that any program intended to assist new and current public assistance recipients will be more likely to succeed when the state, private sector, and recipients work together.

The legislature also recognizes the value of building on successful programs that utilize the development of networking and mentoring strategies to assist public assistance recipients to gain self-sufficiency. The legislature further encourages public-private cooperation in the areas of job readiness training, education, job training, and work opportunities.

The legislature finds that the goal of economic independence requires increased efforts to assist parents in exercising their children's right to economic support from absent parents.

The legislature recognizes the substantial participation in the workforce of women with preschool children, and the difficulty in reentering employment after long absences.

The legislature further recognizes that public assistance recipients can play a major role in setting their own goals.

The objectives of this chapter are to assure that: The maximum number of recipients of public assistance become independent and self-sufficient through employment, training, and education; financial incentives be available to recipients participating in job readiness, education, training, and work programs; the number of children growing up in poverty be substantially reduced; and unemployable recipients be afforded a basic level of financial and medical assistance consistent with the state's financial capabilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. DEFINITIONS. Unless the context requires to the contrary, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Benchmark standard" is the basic monthly level of cash benefits, established according to family size, which equals the state's payment standard under the aid to families with dependent children program, plus an amount not less than the full cash equivalent of food stamps for which any family of such size would otherwise be eligible.

However, subject to subsection (2) of this section and section 18 of this act, the department may limit family independence program eligibility to exclude those new applicants whose monthly income would render them ineligible for aid to families with dependent children benefits under the payment level in effect at the time of the application. For the purposes of this subsection, a new applicant is a person who has not been a recipient of aid to families with dependent children or an enrollee for ninety days prior to application.

(2) Subject to the availability of funds for family independence program benefits, the department may expand eligibility to authorize family independence program benefits for

(8) The executive committee shall consult with the advisory committee on significant matters before taking action on such matters. (2) The executive committee may mandate the participation of enrollees in education, training, or work activities, subject to the following:

(a) There shall be no mandatory participation of enrollees in education, training, or work activities during the first two years after implementation of this chapter;

(b) The executive committee shall collect and maintain records regarding the number of enrollees awaiting placement in job preparation activities; the number of enrollees who are participating in an education, job training, or other job preparation program; the number of enrollees who are job-ready as defined in this chapter; and the number of enrollees who have obtained placement as defined in this chapter. After the first two years, participation in training, education, or work activities may become mandatory in regions in which the family independence program has been implemented in accordance with this chapter, in which more than fifty percent of the job-ready enrollees obtained placements within three months of the time they became assessed as job-ready, and in which incentive benefit payment levels are set as initially required under section 15 of this act;

(c) If mandatory participation is suspended, it may be suspended by rule on a county or regional basis, but may be retained for a discrete group of enrollees;

(d) When participation in work and training requirements becomes mandatory, the following persons are exempt from the mandatory participation requirement:

(i) One parent with a child under three years of age in the home unless the family has been receiving public assistance for more than three years, in which case the caretaking parent must participate after the child is six months of age;

(ii) New enrollees who are on public assistance for the first time shall not be required to participate in employment, training, or work activities until they have been on public assistance for six months;

(iii) Persons under sixteen years of age or over sixty-four years of age;

(iv) Persons over sixteen years of age who are in high school;

(v) Persons who are incapacitated, temporarily ill, or are needed at home to care for an impaired person;

(vi) A person who is in the third trimester of pregnancy; and

(vii) A person who has not yet been individually notified in writing of the requirement to participate in registration, assessment, work, or training requirements or the expiration of his or her exempt status.

(3) The executive committee may suspend and reinstate, based upon periodic review, the mandatory requirement as affected by the availability of training and job resources.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. TRAINING AND EDUCATION ACTIVITIES. (1) The department of social and health services and the employment security department shall provide education and training opportunities to enrollees when appropriate, pursuant to the employability plan required in section 19 of this act, and shall emphasize efforts which prepare enrollees for long-term unsubsidized employment and economic independence. This shall include opportunities for: (a) Enrollees who seek to pursue basic remedial education, such as completion of general equivalency diploma, adult basic education, and English proficiency training; (b) enrollees who seek vocational or skills training through on-the-job training or enrollment in a skills training or vocational training program, including those programs at a vocational training institute or community college; and (c) enrollees seeking higher education, including community college and four-year college degrees.

(2) The state agencies shall assure that those enrollees who seek to pursue work, training, and education activities, and those enrollees who are required in accordance with this chapter to so participate, receive a realistic assessment of work, training, and education opportunities and the opportunity to mutually participate in developing an individual self-sufficiency plan. The self-sufficiency plan shall take into account the local labor market and wage levels, as well as the individual's skills, work history, abilities, limitations, financial needs, desires, and interests, and shall specify the activities and services required for completion. The self-sufficiency plan is subject to approval by the state agencies. An enrollee may seek a modification of the self-sufficiency plan, or an administrative review if mutual agreement cannot be achieved.

(3) Within available funds, the department shall provide for payment of support services including child care and family independence program benefits at the benefit incentive level for education and training as set forth in section 15 of this act to support appropriate training and education programs of enrollees. When the department has approved the funding of such payments for individual's appropriate training or education plan, such funding shall continue, subject to an annual review, for the duration of the individual's participation in the approved training or education program. The executive committee shall establish by rule criteria for funding of appropriate training and education programs.

(4) When support services are unavailable through existing day-care resources, the department shall make efforts to gain services through private and public agencies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. DUE PROCESS PROCEDURES. The executive committee shall direct the department of social and health services and the employment security department to adopt rules providing due process of law protections to applicants for and recipients of family independence program benefits. The requirements shall confer protections no less than those which the federal statutes and regulations confer on participants in the food stamp, aid to families with dependent children, and work incentive programs. The protections shall include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) The departments shall provide adequate advance written notice to applicants or enrollees of any agency action to deny, award, reduce, terminate, increase, or suspend benefits or to change the manner or form of payment or of any agency action requiring the enrollee to take any action. Adequate notice includes a statement of what action the agency intends to take, the reasons for the intended agency action, the specific rules supporting the action, an explanation of the individual's right to request an administrative fair hearing, how to request one, and the circumstances under which assistance is continued pending such a hearing if requested.

(2) Advance notice must be mailed to enrollees at least ten days prior to the date on which the proposed action would become effective.

(3) An applicant or enrollee aggrieved by an action or decision of the departments, including requiring or denying participation in a work, training, or education activity, has the right to request a fair hearing to be conducted by the office of administrative hearings in accordance with chapters 34.12 and 34.04 RCW. The aggrieved person is entitled to all fair hearing rights provided under RCW 74.08.070 and to the right of judicial review therefrom as provided in RCW 74.08.080.

(4) When an enrollee requests a hearing during the advance notice period, the departments shall not implement the challenged action until a written decision is rendered after a hearing. The advance notice period is the period prior to the effective date of the proposed action or ten days from the date of adequate written notice, whichever is later. Any assistance received pending a hearing or hearing decision may be considered to be an overpayment if the decision is against the enrollee.

(5) Financial, food stamp, and medical assistance shall be furnished to eligible individuals in a timely manner and shall be continued regularly to all eligible individuals until they are found to be ineligible. Applications should be disposed of as soon as possible in accordance with 7 C.F.R. Sec. 273.2 (g) and (i) and 45 C.F.R. Sec. 206.10 and no later than thirty days from the date of application unless good cause applies. Prior to denial or termination of family independence program cash or noncash benefits, each family's eligibility for financial assistance, medical assistance, and food stamp benefits shall be determined.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. NONCASH BENEFITS AND REQUIRED FINANCIAL PARTICIPATION. (1) When an enrollee ceases to receive family independence program cash benefits as a result of increased earnings, the enrollee shall be eligible to receive family independence program noncash child care and medical benefits for a period of one year following the cessation of family independence program cash eligibility.

(2) The executive committee may authorize the department to require financial participation based on income of the enrollee in the cost of the family independence program noncash benefits, but such financial participation requirement shall not exceed twenty-five percent of the cost of the noncash benefit or twenty-five percent of the amount by which the family's income exceeds the maximum income level, whichever is less.

(3) No person may be required to participate in the cost of medical benefits if the person would have been eligible for medicaid benefits at no additional cost under the medically needy income levels or the program requirements in effect as of January 1, 1988.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. LIMITATIONS ON SUBSIDIZED AND UNSUBSIDIZED EMPLOYMENT POSITIONS. (1) Enrollees referred to subsidized and unsubsidized employment positions established pursuant to this chapter shall not be considered employees of the executive committee or the state solely because of their status as enrollees in the family independence program. Enrollees in subsidized and unsubsidized employment positions established pursuant to this chapter shall be considered employees of the agency or employer sponsoring their employment. Enrollees in such subsidized and unsubsidized positions shall receive and enjoy the following protections and benefits of the sponsoring employer including, but not limited to, worker's compensation, old age and survivors health insurance, protections of a collective bargaining agreement, sick leave, retirement, medical benefits, vacation leave, and hours of work, provided that these protections and benefits shall not be created by this subsection if such protections and benefits do not already exist. Enrollees in such subsidized and unsubsidized positions shall also be covered for purpose of unemployment compensation, notwithstanding RCW 50.44.040(5) to the contrary.

(2) Subsidized and unsubsidized positions under this chapter to which enrollees are referred shall not be created as a result of, nor result in, any of the following:

(a) Displacement of currently employed workers or authorized positions, for the purpose of employing enrollees, including partial displacement such as reduction in hours of nonovertime work, wages, or other employment benefits;

(b) The filling of subsidized and unsubsidized positions that would otherwise be a promotional opportunity;

(c) The filling of a subsidized or unsubsidized position before compliance with applicable personnel procedures and collective bargaining agreements, including in the instance of subsidized jobs the written concurrence from any affected union representative organization;

(d) The filling of a subsidized or unsubsidized position created by a reduction in work force or change of employers;

(e) A strike, lockout, or other bona fide labor dispute, or a violation of any existing collective bargaining agreement between employees and employers;

(f) Decertification of any bargaining unit;

(g) Creation of a new classification that has the intent or effect of subverting the intent of this section.

(3) Enrollees in subsidized and unsubsidized employment shall not continue participation at a place of employment that is involved in a strike, lockout, or other bona fide labor dispute.

(4) The employment security department shall establish a dispute-resolution process for resolving disagreements arising from this section or other employment-related sections of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. COMPENSATION FOR ENROLLEES. The executive committee shall direct that no enrollee shall be referred to subsidized or unsubsidized employment in which the enrollee would be paid at a rate less than the highest of the following:

(1) The minimum wage set out in section 6 (a)(1) of the fair labor standards act of 1938, as amended, or as established by state law;

(2) The prevailing rate of pay for persons employed in similar occupations by the same employer;

(3) The minimum entrance rate for inexperienced workers in the same occupation with the employer or, if the occupation is new to the employer, the prevailing entrance rate for the occupation among other employers in the area or community, or the applicable minimum rate required by an applicable bargaining agreement; or

(4) The prevailing rate established in accordance with the Davis-Bacon act, as amended, or the service contract act, as amended, for enrollees working in occupations covered by the applicable acts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. REPORTS AND EVALUATION. (1) By January 1, 1988, the executive committee shall submit to the legislature:

(a) A child-care plan, which may include creative solutions to assist enrollees in making child-care arrangements;

(b) In consultation with the superintendent of public instruction, a plan for assisting high school students who are parents or pregnant to remain in school or complete their high school education;

(c) A plan for motivating those who are discouraged to seek self-sufficiency through work, education, or training;

(d) An employment plan for enrollees; and

(e) A plan for phased-in implementation of the family independence program.

(2) By January 1, 1988, the legislative budget committee, after consultation with the executive committee, shall submit to the legislature:

(a) An evaluation plan satisfactory to the federal government, including a plan for analysis, within available funds, of:

(i) The costs and effectiveness of the family independence program;

(ii) The extent to which education and training opportunities have led to employment and economic independence;

(iii) The extent to which support services have been provided for such education and training opportunities;

(iv) The impact of support services, training opportunities, and employment on the well-being of the children and families of enrollees;

(v) The impact of the family independence program on the labor market opportunities available to nonenrollees;

(vi) The impact of the family independence program on the early childhood education assistance program;

(vii) A comparison of the family independence program enrollees with a sample of aid to families with dependent children recipients entering assistance between July 1, 1987, through June 30, 1988, to determine the characteristics of the caseloads of the family independence program and the aid to families with dependent children program, including demographic characteristics, employment, training, and educational histories, spells on assistance, and reasons for entry onto and exit from assistance;

(viii) Such administrative and operational factors as may be requested by the executive committee;

(ix) A longitudinal study over time of a sample of public assistance recipients or persons at risk of becoming eligible for assistance, to determine the causes of public dependency and the impact of changes in the economy or of public programs on dependency, work, or other relevant behaviors of the sample population.

(3) The legislative budget committee shall cause the evaluation plan to be implemented subject to legislative approval in a manner that will insure the independence of the evaluation through appropriate arrangements, which may include contracts, with objective evaluators. The evaluation plan and all evaluation products shall receive the review and comment of evaluation advisory groups to be convened by the Washington institute of public policy and which include representatives of the executive committee, appropriate legislative committee staffs, persons from the state's higher education institutions, staff members of the department and the employment security department, recipients, and former recipients. The reviews shall consider relevance to state policy and budget concerns, methodological procedure, implementation, and results.

(4) The first report of this evaluation shall be submitted to the legislature no later than November 16, 1988, and annually thereafter, with a final report due no later than November 15, 1993.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. BENCHMARK STANDARD AND INCENTIVE BENEFIT PAYMENTS. (1) The legislature shall determine the benchmark standard for enrollees. The legislature may adjust the benchmark standard periodically. However, the department shall promptly pass on to enrollees any increases in federal food stamp program benefits. The executive committee shall designate what portion of the benchmark standard constitutes a cash payment for food stamp benefits and shall ensure that this designation information is regularly provided to recipients. The portion of the benchmark standard and incentive benefit levels that is designated as the cash payment for food stamp benefits shall be excluded as income to the full extent that food stamps are so excluded by current and subsequently enacted state and federal law.

(2) Enrollees shall receive cash assistance which, when added to other income, provides total income not less than the benchmark standard set by the legislature. Enrollees participating in work, education, or training programs shall receive incentive benefit payments which, when added to other income, provides gross income not less than the levels which shall be initially set as follows:

(a) One hundred five percent of the benchmark standard for enrollees participating in training or education programs;

(b) One hundred five percent of the benchmark standard for teenage parents if they stay in school and progress toward graduation and successfully participate in parenting education approved by the office of the superintendent of public instruction or the department;

(c) One hundred fifteen percent of the benchmark standard for enrollees working half time, but the department may authorize a higher incentive benefit payment level for enrollees working part time; and

(d) One hundred thirty-five percent of the benchmark standard for enrollees working full time.

(3) Family independence program cash benefits shall not be available to meet the needs of enrollees for whom participation in the work and training components of the family independence program is mandatory and who refuse without good cause to participate in such programs. However, medical benefits for such sanctioned individuals and payments on behalf of the other members of the family shall be provided. In such cases, payments to the remaining family members may be in the form of protective payee payments unless, after reasonable efforts, the state is unable to locate an appropriate protective payee, in which case the sanctioned individual can be the payee for the remaining family members. A participant under such sanction is eligible for the full benchmark plus appropriate incentive benefit level once he or she participates.

(4) The department, at the direction of the executive committee, may increase or decrease the incentive benefit payment levels based on the availability of funds.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 16. CURRENT PROGRAM BENEFITS ASSURED. No applicant for or recipient of family independence program benefits shall receive less financial assistance in family independence program benefits than the sum of the aid for families with dependent children cash benefits and the cash equivalent of food stamp benefits the applicant would have received under the program requirements of the federal law and under the benefit levels in place as of January 1, 1988, as adjusted to reflect all increases in the federal food stamp allotments and deductions and in the Washington state payment standard for aid to families with dependent children. Funds provided to the state under Title IV-A of the federal social security act and under the federal food stamp program shall be used first to make payments at one hundred percent of the benchmark level to all enrollees of the family independence program in accordance with the state plan, as well as to all recipients of aid to families with dependent children. Any remaining funds provided by the federal government may be used at the state's discretion for incentive payments and services to either enrollees or recipients of aid to families with dependent children in accordance with the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. NONASSISTANCE FOOD STAMPS. The department shall continue to operate a federal food stamp program for persons who are not receiving family independence program benefits, including applicants awaiting determinations of eligibility for the family independence program.

No group of persons constituting a food stamp household under current food stamp law may receive less in any combination of food stamps and the portion of family independence program benefits designated as the food stamp cash equivalent pursuant to section 13 of this act than the amount for which they would have been eligible in food stamps if the family independence program did not include a cash-out of food stamp benefits.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. DETERMINING FINANCIAL NEED AND TREATMENT OF INCOME. The department shall establish rules for the determination of financial need and the treatment of income of enrollees consistent with this section.

(1) Income and resources shall be reasonably evaluated and cannot be considered available to an applicant or recipient unless actually available.

(2) The following shall be excluded as income in family independence program eligibility and need determinations: The value of medical benefits, child care, higher education benefits, earned income tax credit, income tax refunds, any housing subsidy, energy assistance, the earnings of a child, retroactive family independence program benefits, the child support exempted by 42 U.S.C. Sec. 657(b) or 42 U.S.C. Sec. 602(a)(8)(vi), and any benefit or moneys that any provision of federal law in effect on January 1, 1988, excludes from being considered income for eligibility for aid to families with dependent children or food stamps or other exclusions which Congress may hereafter enact.

(3) The executive committee may direct the department to establish methods for evaluating that portion of income is considered gross income for persons whose income is earned over a longer period of time than the period in which it is received and for measuring the gross income of self-employed persons.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. ENROLLEE PARTICIPATION. (1) All enrollees shall register for assessment to evaluate the appropriateness of work, education, or training options for that individual.

(2) For those enrollees who seek to pursue work, training, and education activities, and for those enrollees who are required in accordance with this chapter to so participate, the state agencies and the enrollee shall jointly develop an employability plan which sets forth the participation activity or sequence of activities and the available supportive services. In some instances, the plan may require additional assessment. The plan is subject to the approval of the state agencies. An enrollee may seek a modification of the employability plan, or an administrative review if mutual agreement cannot be achieved.

(3) Appropriate child care and other social services shall be available to enable an enrollee to participate in work, training, or education activities.

(4) Prior to the determination that a mandatory enrollee has refused to cooperate, efforts must be made at conciliation of the dispute consistent with 45 C.F.R. Sec. 224.63.

(5) The agencies shall adopt rules setting forth criteria that provide good cause for an enrollee's refusal to participate in or accept a specific assignment of proposed work, education, or training activities. The criteria shall include, but need not be limited to, the following:

(a) No suitable child care is available without cost to the enrollee;

(b) The assignment is not within the scope of the enrollee's employability plan;

(c) The assignment would have an adverse effect on the physical or mental health of the enrollee;

(d) The distance of the assignment from the enrollee's home makes participation impracticable;

(e) The assignment would result in a loss of income to the enrollee's family;

(f) Exigent personal or family circumstances would interfere with successful participation in the assignment;

(g) The assignment involves conditions which are in violation of applicable health and safety regulations;

(h) The assignment would interrupt a program in process at the undergraduate or vocational level which is reasonably expected to result in economic self-sufficiency; or

(1) The best interests of a child or children in the family would be served by the parent providing full or part-time care in the home due to the particular personal or family circumstances of the enrollee's family.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 20. IMPLEMENTATION OF PROGRAM. (1) The family independence program shall not be implemented before February 28, 1988, and shall not be implemented until specifically authorized by the legislature. However, upon the effective date of this section, the executive committee shall be appointed and shall carry out those functions necessary to plan for the implementation of the family independence program, including securing federal approval.

(2) The governor shall report to the legislature at least once each quarter of 1987 on the progress of the executive committee's efforts to secure federal approval of the family independence program.

(3)(a) The governor shall seek congressional action on any federal legislation necessary to implement this chapter. The governor shall seek legislation that provides that any program under this chapter shall be a demonstration project which remains within the federal aid to families with dependent children system under Title IV of the federal social security act.

(b) Any agreements with the federal government necessary to implement the family independence program shall provide that any program under this chapter shall be a demonstration project which remains within the federal aid to families with dependent children system under Title IV of the federal social security act. Such agreements shall provide for waivers from the federal aid to families with dependent children system only to the extent necessary to implement this chapter.

(4) If all proposed agreements between the state and federal governments which are necessary to implement the family independence program have been completed before February 1, 1988, a plan outlining such proposed agreements shall be submitted to the legislature no later than February 7, 1988. If all agreements between the state and federal governments necessary to implement the family independence program have not been completed by February 1, 1988, an implementation plan with the proposed agreements shall be submitted to the senate committee on human services and corrections, the house of representatives committee on human services, and the senate and house of representatives committees on ways and means for consideration. Copies of all such proposed agreements and any proposed changes to state statute shall be submitted to the legislature with the plan. The family independence program shall be implemented only after the legislature has approved the implementation plan and authorized the signing and completion of all federal-state agreements.

(5) Any agreements with the federal government pursuant to this chapter shall provide that such agreements may be canceled by the state or federal government upon six months' notice or immediately upon mutual agreement. If the agreements are canceled, those enrollees in the family independence program who are eligible for the aid to families with dependent children, medicaid, and the food stamp programs shall be converted to those programs.

(6) Subject to the approval of the executive committee, the department of social and health services and the employment security department shall enter into an interagency agreement for carrying out appropriate administrative functions and purposes as required with respect to the family independence program to be undertaken in this state.

(7) The family independence program shall be implemented only in counties of the state in which the average unemployment rate is less than twice the state-wide average. The executive committee may phase-in the program on a regional or county-by-county basis. The executive committee shall phase-in implementation in accordance with the plan outlined in section 7(1)(s) of this act after the legislature has approved the plan.

(8) In at least one region, the executive committee shall use a mandatory monthly reporting system in its implementation of the family independence program. After an appropriate period, the executive committee shall evaluate the cost-effectiveness and the effects on recipients and caseloads of the reporting. The executive committee may discontinue the mandatory monthly reporting system if it determines it not to be cost-effective.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. CHILDREN'S PILOT PROJECT. The legislature finds that the protection and positive development of children is paramount to the successful functioning and future of this state.

(1) The purpose of this act is to prevent child abuse and neglect and to promote the delivery of cost-effective child and family services through the establishment of a pilot project in order to guide the state in establishing a comprehensive system of children and family services state-wide by 1990. The department of social and health services shall implement the pilot project.

(2) The goals of the pilot project are:

(a) To demonstrate delivery of a continuum of services for children and families that will maximize problem prevention, early problem intervention and resolution, and family independence while maintaining the physical safety and emotional well-being of the child;

(b) To demonstrate the use of outcome measures to determine the cost-effectiveness of service components and the system as a whole;

(c) To demonstrate that services can be designed to be appropriate, accessible, and sensitive to the needs of all populations within the community, including minority cultures and ethnic groups;

(d) To eliminate fiscal and process barriers where possible in order to increase efficiency in providing services;

(e) To encourage the conceptual development of a continuum of services model to meet the needs of children and families and to maximize and coordinate available federal, state, and local resources;

(f) To involve local communities, schools, private entities, and other state agencies, including the division of mental health of the department of social and health services, in the future assessment and planning of services in an open and formal way; and

Prior to the implementation of local contracts and other agreements, the department shall submit the community participation component of the pilot project implementation plan to a community-based children's services advisory group for review and comment. The advisory group may have been created for the purpose of providing ongoing consultation to the pilot program, or it may be an existing community group which consents to provide ongoing consultation throughout the term of the pilot project. Included shall be the contracting with existing services in the community, such as visiting nurses and other home-based services to provide early preventive and intervention services.

(3) In order to provide services in a continuum: (a) Clients shall enter the system at the least intrusive and most cost-effective level of service appropriate to the needs of the client; (b) client service needs shall be frequently assessed to assure that services continue to be at the least intrusive level appropriate to meet the needs of the client; and (c) guidelines for assessment shall be written and consistently applied throughout the project to assure that service levels may only be skipped under these specific guidelines.

(4) The department of social and health services shall, within funds appropriated for this purpose, use a risk assessment tool when investigating child abuse and neglect referrals. The tool shall be used, on a pilot basis, in three local office service areas. The department shall, within funds appropriated for this purpose, offer community-based services to persons who are determined not to require further state intervention.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. INFORMATION MANAGEMENT SYSTEM. (1) In order to demonstrate the use of outcome measures, the department of social and health services shall:

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Senator Talmadge, how in this bill are we resolving the very, very difficult question of balancing the rights of the family--to have family, as little as possible, disturbed or disturbed unnecessarily and the rights of the child to be free of abuse? How do you have family authority and protect the child and how is that balance achieved here in the best way possible?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Metcalf, in response to the question, some of the more sensitive balancing judgments are contained in Senate Bill No. 5659 which is still over in the House of Representatives. What this bill does that, I think, is very salutary, is to develop the pilot project that we talked about. This was, basically, a bill that had passed the Senate that required a major emphasis on in-home services before the state intervenes to remove a child from the family home. Basically, this is something that has been done in other parts of the United States--Hennepin County, Minneapolis-St. Paul, and has been extraordinarily successful in minimizing state intrusion and keeping down the cost of providing these services.

"Basically, we are looking to models like the home builders program that has been used so successfully around the state. We do the effort in the family home--we try before the state removes the child from the home and that's the policy I think is so critical. We've provided a continuum of services to children so that they get the appropriate least intrusive kinds of services that they need and we provide some training for families in circumstances where there is a family at risk. Certainly, for the CPS case workers, I think if they are more appropriately trained, some of the poor judgments that have been made in times past are not so likely to be true in the future, as we hope. Those are some of the things that I think we have done that--basically the balance--that is a pretty fair one in this bill."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Anderson: "Senator Talmadge, as I look at the striking amendment, I see several familiar measures that I recognize from working on the original policies that we sent over to the House and not having seen the striking amendment before, are there any references to the risk assessment in this one?"

Senator Talmadge: "It's essentially the same one that was in Senate Bill No. 5553--risk assessment on a pilot basis in the three pilot projects--South King County, Spokane and Chehalis."

Further debate ensued.
