CHAPTER 5

[Substitute House Bill No. 77]

DISSOLUTION OF INACTIVE SPECIAL PURPOSE DISTRICTS

AN ACT Relating to the dissolution of inactive special purpose districts existing within the state of Washington; amending section 9, chapter 189, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 1, chapter 127, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 36.93.090; amending section 15, chapter 189, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 10, chapter 220, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 36.93.150; and adding a new chapter to Title 36 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Special purpose district" means every municipal and quasi-municipal corporation other than counties, cities, and towns. Such special purpose districts shall include, but are not limited to, water districts, fire protection districts, port districts, public utility districts, county park and recreation service areas, flood control zone districts, diking districts, drainage improvement districts, and solid waste collection districts, but shall not include industrial development districts created by port districts, and shall not include local improvement districts, utility local improvement districts, and road improvement districts;

(2) "Governing authority" means the commission, council, or other body which directs the affairs of a special purpose district;

(3) "Inactive" means that a special purpose district, other than a public utility district, is characterized by either of the following criteria:

(a) Has not carried out any of the special purposes or functions for which it was formed within the preceding consecutive five-year period; or

(b) No election has been held for the purpose of electing a member of the governing body within the preceding consecutive seven-year period or, in those instances where members of the governing body are appointed and not elected, where no member of the governing body has been appointed within the preceding seven-year period.

A public utility district is inactive when it is characterized by both criteria (a) and (b) of this subsection.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. On or before June 1st of 1980, and on or before June 1st of every year thereafter, each county auditor shall search available records and notify the county legislative authority if any special purpose districts located wholly or partially within the county appear to be inactive. Each county auditor shall also provide in the notifications made in 1982 and thereafter a list of all special purpose districts located wholly or partially within the county which, for three consecutive years before the notification, have failed to file statements with the county auditor as required in section 9 of this act. If the territory of any special purpose district is located within more than one county, the legislative authorities of all other counties within whose boundaries such a special purpose district lies shall also be notified by the county auditor. However, the authority to dissolve such a special purpose district as provided by this chapter shall rest solely with the legislative authority of the county which contains the greatest geographic portion of such special purpose district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) Upon receipt of notice from the county auditor as provided in section 2 of this act, the county legislative authority within whose boundaries all or the greatest portion of such special purpose district lies shall hold one or more public hearings on or before September 1st of the same year to determine whether or not such special purpose district or districts meet either of the criteria for being "inactive" as provided in section 1 of this act: PROVIDED, That if such a special purpose district is a public utility district, the county legislative authority shall determine whether or not the public utility district meets both criteria of being "inactive" as provided in section 1 of this act. In addition, at any time a county legislative authority may hold hearings on the dissolution of any special purpose district that appears to meet the criteria of being "inactive" and dissolve such a district pursuant to the proceedings provided for in sections 3 through 8 of this act.

(2) Notice of such public hearings shall be given by publication at least once each week for not less than three successive weeks in a newspaper that is in general circulation within the boundaries of the special purpose district or districts. Notice of such hearings shall also be mailed to each member of the governing authority of such special purpose districts, if such members are known, and to all persons known to have claims against any of the special purpose districts. Notice of such public hearings shall be posted in at least three conspicuous places within the boundaries of each special purpose district that is a subject of such hearings. Whenever a county legislative authority that is conducting such a public hearing on the dissolution of one or more of a particular kind of special purpose district is aware of the existence of an association of such special purpose districts, it shall also mail notice of the hearing to the association. In addition, whenever a special purpose district that lies in more than one county is a subject of such a public hearing, notice shall also be mailed to the legislative authorities of all other counties within whose boundaries the special purpose district lies. All notices shall state the purpose, time, and place of such hearings, and that all interested persons may appear and be heard.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. After such hearings, the county legislative authority shall make written findings whether each of the special purpose districts that was a subject of the hearings meets each of the criteria of being "inactive." Whenever a special purpose district other than a public utility district has been found to meet a criterion of being inactive, or a public utility district has been found to meet both criteria of being inactive, the county legislative authority shall adopt an ordinance dissolving the special purpose district if it also makes additional written findings detailing why it is in the public interest that the special purpose district be dissolved. Except for the purpose of winding up its affairs as provided by this chapter, a special purpose district that is so dissolved shall cease to exist thirty-one days after adoption of the dissolution ordinance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The action of the county legislative authority dissolving a special purpose district pursuant to section 4 of this act shall be final and conclusive unless within thirty days of the adoption of the ordinance an interested party makes application to a court of competent jurisdiction for a writ of prohibition or writ of mandamus. At the hearing upon such a writ, the applicant shall have the full burden of demonstrating that the particular special purpose district, other than a public utility district, does not meet either of the criteria of being inactive or that it is not in the public interest that the special purpose district be dissolved: PROVIDED, That where the particular special purpose district subject to the dissolution proceedings is a public utility district, the applicant shall have the full burden of demonstrating that the public utility district either does not meet both the criteria of being inactive or that it is not in the public interest to dissolve the public utility district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. For the sole and exclusive purpose of winding up the affairs of a dissolved special purpose district, the county legislative authority, acting as a board of trustees, shall have the same powers and duties as the governing authority of the dissolved special purpose district including the following:

- (1) To exchange, sell, or otherwise dispose of all property, real and personal, of the dissolved special purpose district; and
- (2) To settle all obligations of such special purpose district. Such powers and duties shall commence upon the effective date of dissolution and shall continue thereafter until such time as the affairs of the dissolved special purpose district have been completely wound up.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Any moneys or funds of the dissolved special purpose district and any moneys or funds received by the board of trustees from the sale or other disposition of any property of the dissolved special purpose district shall be used, to the extent necessary, for the payment or settlement of any outstanding obligations of the dissolved special purpose district. Any remaining moneys or funds shall be used to pay the county legislative authority for all costs and expenses incurred in the dissolution and liquidation of the dissolved special purpose district. Thereafter, any remaining moneys, funds, or property shall become that of the county in which the dissolved special purpose district was located: PROVIDED, That if the territory of the dissolved special purpose district was located within more than one county, the remaining moneys, funds, and personal property shall be apportioned and distributed to each county in the proportion that the geographical area of the dissolved special purpose district within the county bears to the total geographical area of the dissolved special purpose district, and any remaining real property or improvements to real property shall be transferred to the county within whose boundaries it lies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. If the proceeds from the sale of any property of the special district together with any moneys or funds of the special purpose district are insufficient to satisfy the outstanding obligations of the special purpose district, the county legislative authority, acting as a board of trustees, shall exercise any and all powers conferred upon it to satisfy such outstanding obligations: PROVIDED, That in no case shall the board of trustees be obligated to satisfy such outstanding obligations from county moneys, funds, or other sources of revenue unless it would have been so obligated before initiation of the dissolution proceedings under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) Every special purpose district shall file a statement with the auditor of each county in which it lies on or before December 31st of every year, beginning in the year 1979. The initial statement filed by each special purpose district shall contain the following information:

(a) The name of the special purpose district and a general description of its location and geographical area within the county and within any other county;

(b) The statutes under which the special purpose district operates;

(c) The name, address, telephone number, and remaining term of office of each member of its governing authority; and

(d) The functions that the special purpose district is then presently performing and the purposes for which it was created.

Subsequent annual statements need only identify the special purpose district and any of the above detailed information that has changed in the last year.

(2) Each county auditor, on or before January 31, 1980, and on or before January 31st each year thereafter, shall forward to the state auditor a summation of the information contained in the statements required to be filed in subsection (1) of this section together with information of each special purpose district located wholly or partially within the county that has been dissolved during the preceding year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The provisions of this chapter to dissolve inactive special purpose districts shall not be exclusive, and shall be in addition to any other method or methods provided by law to dissolve a special purpose district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The enactment of this act shall not have the effect of terminating, or in any way modifying, any liability, civil or criminal, which shall already be in existence at the date this act becomes effective.

Sec. 12. Section 9, chapter 189, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 1, chapter 127, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 36.93.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any of the following described actions are proposed in a county in which a board has been established, the initiators of the action shall file a notice of intention with the board, which may review any such proposed actions pertaining to:

(1) The creation, dissolution, incorporation, disincorporation, consolidation, or change in the boundary of any city, town, or special purpose district, except that a board may not review the dissolution or disincorporation of a special purpose district which was dissolved or disincorporated pursuant to the provisions of sections 1 through 11 of this 1979 act; or

(2) The assumption by any city or town of all or part of the assets, facilities, or indebtedness of a special purpose district which lies partially within such city or town; or

(3) The establishment of or change in the boundaries of a mutual water and sewer system or separate sewer system by a water district pursuant to RCW 57.08.065; or

(4) The extension of permanent water or sewer service outside of its existing corporate boundaries by a city, town, or special purpose district.

Sec. 13. Section 15, chapter 189, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 10, chapter 220, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 36.93.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The board, upon review of any proposed action, shall take such of the following actions as it deems necessary to best carry out the intent of this chapter:

(1) Approval of the proposal as submitted;

(2) Subject to RCW 35.02.170, modification of the proposal by adjusting boundaries to add or delete territory: PROVIDED, That any proposal for annexation by the board shall be subject to RCW 35.21.010 and shall not add additional territory, the amount of which is greater than that included in the original proposal;

(3) Determination of a division of assets and liabilities between two or more governmental units where relevant;

(4) Determination whether, or the extent to which, functions of a special purpose district are to be assumed by an incorporated city or town, metropolitan municipal corporation, or another existing special purpose district; or

(5) Disapproval of the proposal except that the board shall not have jurisdiction to disapprove the dissolution or disincorporation of a special purpose district which is not providing services but shall have jurisdiction over the determination of a division of the assets and liabilities of a dissolved or disincorporated special purpose district: PROVIDED, That a board shall not have jurisdiction over the division of assets and liabilities of a special purpose district that is dissolved or disincorporated pursuant to sections 1 through 11 of this 1979 act.

Unless the board shall disapprove a proposal, it shall be presented under the appropriate statute for approval of a public body and, if required, a vote of the people. A proposal that has been modified shall be presented under the appropriate statute for approval of a public body and if required, a vote of the people. If a proposal after modification does not contain enough signatures of persons within the modified area, as are required by law, then the initiating party, parties or governmental unit has thirty days after the modification decision to secure enough signatures to satisfy the legal requirement. If the signatures cannot be secured then the proposal may be submitted to a vote of the people, as required by law.

When the board, after due proceedings held, disapproves a proposed action, such proposed action shall be unavailable, the proposing agency shall be without power to initiate the same or substantially the same as determined by the board, and any succeeding acts intended to or tending to effectuate that action shall be void, but such action may be reinitiated after a period of twelve months from date of disapproval and shall again be subject to the same consideration.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Sections 1 through 11 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 36 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and to chapter 35A.01 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Where used in this title with reference to procedures established by this title in regard to a change of plan or classification of government, unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context:

(1) "Classify" means a change from a city of the first, second, or third class, or a town, to a code city.

(2) "Classification" means either that portion of the general law under which a city or a town operates under Title 35 RCW as a first, second, or third class city, or town, or otherwise as a code city.

(3) "Organize" means to provide for officers after becoming a code city, under the same general plan of government under which the city operated prior to becoming a code city, pursuant to section 8 of this act.

(4) "Organization" means the general plan of government under which a city operates.

(5) "Plan of government" means either the mayor-council, council-manager, or commission form of government in general, without regard to variations in the number of elective offices or whether officers are elective or appointive.

(6) "Reclassify" means changing from a code city to the classification, if any, held by such a city immediately prior to becoming a code city.

(7) "Reclassification" means changing from city or town operating under Title 35 RCW to a city operating under Title 35A RCW, or vice versa; a change in classification.

(8) "Reorganize" means changing the plan of government under which a city or town operates to a different general plan of government, for which an election of new officers under RCW 35A.02.050 is required. A city or town shall not be deemed to have reorganized simply by increasing or decreasing the number of members of its legislative body.

(9) "Reorganization" means a change in general plan of government where an election of all new officers is required in order to accomplish this change, but an increase or decrease in the number of members of its legislative body shall not be deemed to constitute a reorganization.

Sec. 2. Section 35A.02.010, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.02.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Any incorporated city or town may become a noncharter code city in accordance with, and be governed by, the provisions of this title relating to noncharter code cities and may select one of the plans of government authorized by this title. A city or town adopting and organizing under the optional municipal code shall not be deemed to have reorganized and to have abandoned its existing general plan of government, upon changing classification and becoming a noncharter code city, solely because organizing under a plan of government authorized in this title changes the number of elective offices or changes the terms thereof, or because an office becomes appointive rather than elective, or because that city or town has come under the optional municipal code, or because of any combination of these factors.

Sec. 3. Section 35A.02.020, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.02.020 are each amended to read as follows:

When a petition is filed, signed by qualified electors of an incorporated city or town, in number equal to not less than fifty percent of the votes cast at the last general municipal election, seeking the adoption by the city or town of the classification of noncharter code city, either under its existing authorized plan of government or naming one of the plans of government authorized for noncharter code cities, ~~the ((legislative body of the city or town to which the petition is presented shall direct the))~~ city or town clerk shall promptly proceed to determine the sufficiency of the petition under the rules set forth in RCW 35A.01.040. If the petition is found to be sufficient, the clerk shall file with the legislative body a certificate of sufficiency of the petition. Thereupon the legislative body of such city or town shall, by resolution, declare that the inhabitants of the city or town have decided to adopt the classification of noncharter code city and to be governed under the provisions of this title. If a prayer for reorganization is included in the petition such resolution shall also declare that the inhabitants of the city or town have decided to reorganize under the plan of government specified in the petition. The legislative body shall cause such resolution to be published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation within the city or town not later than ten days after the passage of the resolution. Upon the expiration of the ninetieth day from, but excluding the date of, first publication of the resolution, if no timely and sufficient referendum petition has been filed pursuant to RCW 35A.02.025, as now or hereafter amended, as determined by RCW 35A.29.170, the legislative body at its next regular meeting shall effect the decision of the inhabitants, as expressed in the petition, by passage of an ordinance adopting for the city the classification of noncharter code city, and if the petition also sought governmental reorganization by adoption of one of the plans of government authorized for noncharter code cities involving a different general plan of government from that under which the city is operating, then the legislative body shall provide at that time for such reorganization by ordinance and for election of all new officers pursuant to RCW 35A.02.050, as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 4. Section 35A.02.025, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.02.025 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the filing of a referendum petition in the manner provided in RCW 35A.29.170 signed by qualified electors in number equal to not less than ten percent of the votes cast in the last general municipal election, such resolution as authorized by RCW 35A.02.020 shall be referred to the voters for confirmation or rejection in the next general municipal election if one is to be held within one hundred and eighty days from the date of filing of the referendum petition, or at a special election to be called for that purpose (~~((not less than ninety days nor more than one hundred and eighty days from the date of filing such referendum petition))~~) in accordance with RCW 29.13.020.

Sec. 5. Section 35A.02.030, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.02.030 are each amended to read as follows:

When a majority of the legislative body of an incorporated city or town determines that it would serve the best interests and general welfare of such municipality to change the classification of such city or town to that of noncharter code city, such legislative body may, by resolution, declare its intention to adopt for the city or town the classification of noncharter code city. If the legislative body so determines, such resolution may also contain a declaration of intention to reorganize the municipal government under one of the plans of government authorized in this title, naming such plan; but it shall also be lawful for the legislative body of any incorporated city or town which is governed under a plan of government authorized prior to the time this title takes effect to adopt for the city or town the classification of noncharter code city while retaining the same general plan of government under which such city or town is then operating. Within ten days after the passage of the resolution, the legislative body shall cause it to be published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation within the city or town. Upon the expiration of the ninetieth day from, but excluding the date of first publication of the resolution, if no timely and sufficient referendum petition has been filed pursuant to RCW 35A.02.035, as determined by RCW 35A.29.170, the intent expressed in such resolution shall at the next regular meeting of the legislative body be effected by an ordinance adopting for the city or town the classification of noncharter code city; and, if the resolution includes a declaration of intention to reorganize, the legislative body shall provide at that time for such reorganization by ordinance.

Sec. 6. Section 35A.02.040, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 52, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.02.040 are each amended to read as follows:

When one or more ordinances are passed under RCW 35A.02.020 or ~~((RCW))~~ 35A.02.030, as now or hereafter amended, the clerk of the city or town shall forward to the secretary of state a certified copy of any such ordinance. Upon the filing in the office of the secretary of state of a certified copy of an ordinance adopting the classification of noncharter code city, such city or town shall thereafter be classified as a noncharter code city; except that if there is also filed with the secretary of state a certified copy of an ordinance providing for reorganization of the municipal government of such city or town under a different general plan of government, such reclassification and reorganization shall not be effective until the election ~~((and))~~, qualification, and assumption of office under RCW 35A.02.050 as now or hereafter amended of ~~((the))~~ at least a quorum of all new officers under the plan of government so adopted.

Sec. 7. Section 35A.02.050, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 251, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.02.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The first election of officers where required for reorganization under a different general plan of government newly adopted in ~~((the))~~ a manner provided in RCW 35A.02.020 ~~((or))~~, 35A.02.030, 35A.06.030, or 35A.06.060, as now or hereafter amended, shall be at the next general municipal election if one is to be held more than ninety days but not more than one hundred and eighty days after certification of a reorganization ordinance or resolution, or otherwise at a special election to be held for that purpose ~~((not less than ninety days nor more than one hundred and eighty days from the certification of such ordinance))~~ in accordance with RCW 29.13.020. In the event that the first election of officers as herein provided is to be held at a general municipal election, such election shall be preceded by a primary election pursuant to RCW 29.21.010 and 29.13.070. In the event that the first election of all officers as herein provided is to be held at a special election rather than at a general election, and notwithstanding any provisions of any other law to the contrary, such special election shall be preceded by a primary election ~~((to be held not less than forty-five nor more than sixty days prior to the date of the special election))~~ to be held on a date authorized by RCW 29.13.010, and the persons nominated at that primary election shall be voted upon at the next succeeding special election that is authorized by RCW 29.13.010: PROVIDED, That in the event the ordinances calling for reclassification or reclassification and reorganization under the provisions of Title 35A RCW have been filed with the secretary of state pursuant to RCW 35A.02.040 in an even-numbered year at least ninety days prior to a state general election then the election of new officers shall be concurrent with the state primary and general election and shall be conducted as set forth in chapter 35A.29 RCW ~~((PROVIDED, FURTHER, That if the election of officers as provided in this section is for a period of time less than a specified two-year term or less than a specified~~

~~four-year term, such an election shall not be preceded by a primary election)). Upon reorganization, candidates for all offices shall file or be nominated for and successful candidates shall be elected to specific council positions, and an initial term or office for those elected at a first election of all officers to positions one and two for a five member council, or positions one through three for a seven member council, shall if the election occurs at a general municipal election be only until the second Monday in January first following the next general municipal election two years hence and if the election occurs at a special election, the duration of these initial terms shall be until the second Monday in January in the first even-numbered year that follows the next general municipal election. The duration of the initial term attaching to the remaining councilmanic positions shall be until the second Monday in January two years next thereafter, so that staggered regular four year terms will ultimately result. Any declarations of candidacy for any primary or other election held pursuant to this section shall be filed as provided in RCW 35A.29.110 as now or hereafter amended. ((The terms of the persons holding office at the time of such proceedings shall continue until the new officers are elected and qualified as provided in this 1970 amendatory act, and the ordinances, bylaws and resolutions adopted under the former plan of government, where not in conflict with state law, shall continue in force until repealed or amended by the legislative body of the reorganized noncharter code city:)) The former officers shall, upon the election and qualification of new officers, deliver to the proper officers of the reorganized noncharter code city all books of record, documents and papers in their possession belonging to such municipal corporation before the reorganization thereof. Officers elected at the first election of officers held pursuant to this amendatory act shall assume office as soon as the election returns have been certified.~~

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and to chapter 35A.02 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Where a city elects to become a noncharter code city under one of the optional plans of government provided in Title 35A RCW for code cities which involves the same general plan of government as that under which the city operated prior to the choice and where with the change in classification the number of councilmanic positions in a city remains the same or increases from five to seven, the procedures for the first election of officers which appear in RCW 35A.02.050 shall not be followed. When membership in a city council remains the same or is increased upon becoming a noncharter code city, the terms of incumbent council members shall not be affected. If the number of council members is increased from five to seven, the city council shall, by majority vote, pursuant to RCW 35A.12.050 and 35A.13.020, appoint two persons to serve in these offices until the next municipal general election, at which election one person shall be elected for a two-year term and one person shall be elected for a four-year term.

A first election of all officers upon a change in classification to a non-charter code city is also not required where the change in classification otherwise retains the same general or specific plan of government and where the change in classification results in a decrease in the number of councilmanic positions in a city.

If the membership in a city council is decreased from seven to five members upon adopting the classification of noncharter code city, this decrease in the number of council members shall be determined in the following manner: The council members shall determine by lot which two councilmanic positions shall be eliminated upon the expiration of their terms of office. The terms of the remaining council members shall not be affected.

Sec. 9. Section 35A.02.110, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.02.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The election officials, after counting the ballots, shall make their returns to the county auditor upon forms furnished by him within six hours after the closing of the polls; and on the Monday next succeeding the election or as soon thereafter as the county auditor has received the returns from all the precincts included therein, the county canvassing board shall canvass the returns in such election and shall forthwith certify in duplicate to the city or town clerk the whole number of votes given at the election, the number of votes in favor of reclassification and the number against it, and the number of votes in favor of each plan of government voted upon and the number against it (~~(and the number of votes received by each candidate)~~). The clerk shall lay the certificate of election before the legislative body of the city or town at its next regular meeting after the receipt of such certificate by the clerk, and if it appears that the votes cast for adoption of the classification of noncharter code city and in favor of a plan of government named on the ballot were a majority of the votes cast in such election, the council shall thereupon, by resolution, declare that the inhabitants of the city or town have decided on such reclassification and reorganization under the plan of government approved and direct the clerk to forward to the secretary of state a certified copy of the resolution.

Sec. 10. Section 35A.03.010, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.03.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Any area of a county containing not less than three hundred inhabitants, lying outside the limits of an incorporated city or town, may become incorporated as a noncharter code city under the provisions of this title: PROVIDED, That no area which lies within five air miles of the boundary of any city having a population of fifteen thousand or more shall be incorporated under the provisions of this title unless the limits of the proposed noncharter code city contain (~~(five)~~) three thousand or more inhabitants.

Sec. 11. Section 35A.04.020, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.04.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Any area lying in two or more counties which is not incorporated as a municipal corporation, may become incorporated as a noncharter code city under the provisions of this chapter: PROVIDED, That when any part of the area to be incorporated lies within five air miles of the boundary of any city having a population of fifteen thousand or more no petition under RCW 35.04.030 shall be valid unless the limits of the proposed city contain ~~((five))~~ three thousand or more inhabitants.

Sec. 12. Section 35A.04.070, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 13, chapter 220, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 35A.04.070 are each amended to read as follows:

If upon final hearing the respective boards find that any land within their respective counties has been unjustly or improperly included within or excluded from the proposed corporation, based on the considerations stated in RCW 35A.04.060, the respective boards may change and fix the boundary lines of the portion of the proposed corporation within their respective counties in such a manner as they deem reasonable and just and conducive to the public welfare and convenience: PROVIDED, That when any part of the area to be incorporated lies within five air miles of the boundary of any city having a population of fifteen thousand or more, the area shall not be so decreased that the number of inhabitants therein shall be less than ~~((five))~~ three thousand. No land shall be so included within the boundaries described in the petition unless each board of county commissioners of that county in which the area sought to be included is located first obtains the written assent of a number of qualified voters resident within each area to be included in the proposed corporation equal in number to not less than twenty percent of the votes cast in that area at the last state election. Within five days after the final hearing each board of county commissioners shall, for the area within its respective county, by order establish and define the boundaries of the proposed corporation consistent with RCW 35A.03-.180, determine the number of inhabitants residing therein and affirm the name of the proposed corporation: PROVIDED, That for the action required after the final hearing, the boards may act jointly but in such case a majority of each board must vote favorably on such final action and the order shall be entered in the minutes of each board.

Sec. 13. Section 35A.04.080, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.04.080 are each amended to read as follows:

In determining the number of inhabitants within the boundaries established for the proposed noncharter code city, the population shall be determined as follows:

An actual enumeration shall be made by, or under the direction of, the board of county commissioners of each county in which a portion of the proposed corporation is located, in accordance with practices and policies, and subject to the approval, of the state (~~(census board)~~) office of financial management; and the population so determined shall constitute the official population of the proposed corporation.

Sec. 14. Section 35A.06.030, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 13, chapter 251, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.06.030 are each amended to read as follows:

By use of the resolution for election or petition for election methods described in RCW 35A.06.040, any noncharter code city which has operated for more than six consecutive years under one of the optional plans of government authorized by this title, or for more than a combined total of six consecutive years under a particular plan of government both as a code city and under the same general plan under Title 35 RCW immediately prior to becoming a code city, may abandon such organization and may ~~((either))~~ reorganize and adopt another plan of government authorized for noncharter code cities, but only after having been a noncharter code city for more than one year or a city after operating for more than six consecutive years under a particular plan of government as a noncharter code city or may reclassify and adopt a plan of government authorized by the general law for municipalities of the highest class for which the population of such city qualifies it, or authorized for the class to which such city belonged immediately prior to becoming a noncharter code city, if any: PROVIDED, That these limitations shall not apply to a city seeking to adopt a charter.

In reorganization under a different general plan of government as a noncharter code city, officers shall all be elected as provided in RCW 35A.02.050. When a noncharter code city adopts a plan of government other than those authorized ((for noncharter code cities)) under Title 35A RCW, such city ceases to be governed under this optional municipal code and shall be classified as a city or town of the class selected in the proceeding for adoption of such new plan, with the powers granted to such class under the general law. ((Any city is authorized to adopt any plan of government provided for noncharter code cities any time after one year from the date of becoming a noncharter code city:))

The proposal for abandonment of ~~((the))~~ a plan of government ~~((under which a noncharter code city has operated for more than six years))~~ as authorized in RCW 35A.06.030 and for adoption of the plan named in the resolution or petition shall be voted upon at the next general municipal election if one is to be held within one hundred and eighty days or otherwise at a special election called for that purpose ((not less than ninety days, nor more than one hundred and eighty days after the passage of the resolution or the certification of sufficiency of the petition)) in accordance with RCW 29.13.020. The ballot title and statement of the proposition shall be prepared by the city attorney as provided in RCW 29.27.060 and 35A.29.120, as now or hereafter amended. If the plan proposed in the petition is not a plan authorized for noncharter code cities by this title, the ballot statement shall clearly set forth that adoption of such plan by the voters would require abandonment of the classification of noncharter code city and that government would be under the general law relating to cities of the class specified in the resolution or petition. If the plan proposed in the petition is a plan authorized for noncharter code cities the ballot statement shall clearly set forth that adoption of such plan by the voters would not affect the eligibility of the noncharter code city to be governed under this optional municipal code.

Sec. 16. Section 35A.06.060, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.06.060 are each amended to read as follows:

If a majority of votes cast at the election favor abandonment of the general plan of government under which the noncharter code city is then organized and reorganization under the different general plan proposed in the resolution or petition, the officers to be elected (~~((at the next succeeding general municipal election))~~) shall be those prescribed by the plan of government so adopted, and they shall be elected as provided in RCW 35A.02-.050 if the city is to remain a noncharter code city, or if the city is abandoning optional municipal code status, they shall be elected at the next succeeding general municipal election. Upon the election (~~((and))~~), qualification (~~((of))~~), and assumption of office by such officers the reorganization of the government of such municipality shall be complete and such municipality shall thereafter be governed under such plan. If the plan so adopted is not a plan authorized for noncharter code cities, upon the election (~~((and))~~), qualification (~~((of))~~), and assumption of office by such officers the municipality shall cease to be a noncharter code city governed under the provisions of this optional municipal code and shall revert to the classification selected (~~((at such election))~~) and shall be governed by the general laws relating to municipalities of such class with the powers conferred by law upon municipalities of such class. Such change of classification shall not affect the then existing property rights or liabilities of the municipal corporation.

Sec. 17. Section 35A.11.040, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.11.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislative body of a code city may exercise any of its powers or perform any of its functions including purchasing, and participate in the financing thereof, jointly or in cooperation, as provided for in chapter (~~((239; Laws of 1967 [chapter 39.34 RCW]))~~) 39.34 RCW. The legislative body of a code city shall have power to accept any gift or grant for any public purpose and may carry out any conditions of such gift or grant when not in conflict with state or federal law.

Sec. 18. Section 1, chapter 81, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 35A.11.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The qualified electors or legislative body of a noncharter code city may provide for the exercise in their city of the powers of initiative and referendum, upon electing so to do in the manner provided for changing the classification of a city or town in RCW 35A.02.020, 35A.02.025, 35A.02.030, and 35A.02.035, as now or hereafter amended.

The exercise of such powers may be restricted or abandoned upon electing so to do in the manner provided for abandoning the plan of government of a noncharter code city in RCW 35A.06.030, 35A.06.040, 35A.06.050, and 35A.06.060, as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 19. Section 35A.12.010, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.12.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The government of any noncharter code city or charter code city electing to adopt the mayor-council plan of government authorized by this chapter shall be vested in an elected mayor and an elected council. The council of a noncharter code city having less than twenty-five hundred inhabitants shall consist of five members; when there are twenty-five hundred or more inhabitants, the council shall consist of seven members; PROVIDED, That if the population of a city after having become a code city decreases from twenty-five hundred or more to less than twenty-five hundred, it shall continue to have a seven member council. If, after a city has become a mayor-council code city, its population increases to twenty-five hundred or more inhabitants, the number of councilmanic offices in such a city shall increase from five to seven members. In that event the city council shall, by majority vote, pursuant to RCW 35A.12.050, appoint two persons to serve in these offices until the next municipal general election, at which election one person shall be elected for a two-year term and one person shall be elected for a four-year term. The number of inhabitants shall be determined by the most recent official state or federal census or determination by the state ((~~census board~~)) office of financial management. A charter adopted under the provisions of this title, incorporating the mayor-council plan of government set forth in this chapter, may provide for an uneven number of councilmen not exceeding eleven.

Sec. 20. Section 35A.12.030, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.12.030 are each amended to read as follows:

No person shall be eligible to hold elective office under the mayor-council plan unless ((~~he shall have been~~)) the person is a registered voter of the city at the time of filing his declaration of candidacy and has been a resident of the city for a period of at least one year next preceding his election. Residence and voting within the limits of any territory which has been included in, annexed to, or consolidated with such city is construed to have been residence within the city. A mayor or councilman shall hold within the city government no other public office or employment except as permitted under the provisions of chapter 42.23 RCW.

Sec. 21. Section 35A.12.040, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 52, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.12.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Officers shall be elected at biennial municipal elections to be conducted as provided in chapter 35A.29 RCW. The mayor and the councilmen shall be elected for four year terms and until their successors are elected and qualified; except that at ~~((the))~~ any first election three councilmen in cities having seven councilmen, and two councilmen in cities having five councilmen, shall be elected for two year terms and the remaining councilmen shall be elected for four year terms~~((, and the mayor in office at the time of such election shall continue for another four year term coextensive with the terms for which councilmen elected for four years are elected and there shall be no election as to mayor))~~. At any first election upon reorganization, council members shall be elected as provided in RCW 35A.02.050. Thereafter the requisite number of councilmen shall be elected biennially as the terms of their predecessors expire and shall serve for terms of four years. The positions to be filled on the city council shall be designated by consecutive numbers and shall be dealt with as separate offices for all election purposes, as provided in RCW 35A.29.105. ~~((At the first election in cities having seven councilmen, the candidates elected to positions one, two, and three shall serve for two year terms and the candidates elected to positions four, five, six and seven shall serve for four year terms; at the first election in cities having five councilmen, the candidates elected to positions one and two shall serve for two year terms and the candidates elected to positions three, four, and five shall serve for four year terms. PROVIDED, That))~~ In any city which holds its first election under this title in the calendar year 1970, candidates elected for two year terms shall hold office until their successors are elected and qualified at the general municipal election to be held in November, 1973 and candidates elected for four year terms shall hold office until their successors are elected and qualified at the general municipal election to be held in November, 1975. Election to positions on the council shall be by majority vote from the city at large, unless provision is made by charter or ordinance for election by wards. The city council shall be the judge of the qualifications of its members and determine contested elections of city officers, subject to review by certiorari as provided by law. The mayor and councilmen shall qualify by taking an oath or affirmation of office and as may be provided by law, charter, or ordinance.

Sec. 22. Section 35A.12.100, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.12.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The mayor shall be the chief executive and administrative officer of the city, in charge of all departments and employees, with authority to designate assistants and department heads. The mayor may appoint and remove a chief administrative officer or assistant administrative officer, if so provided by ordinance or charter. He shall see that all laws and ordinances are faithfully enforced and that law and order is maintained in the city, and shall have general supervision of the administration of city government and all city interests. All official bonds and bonds of contractors with the city shall be submitted to the mayor or such person as he may designate for approval or disapproval. He shall see that all contracts and agreements made with the city or for its use and benefit are faithfully kept and performed, and to this end he may cause any legal proceedings to be instituted and prosecuted in the name of the city, subject to approval by majority vote of all members of the council. The mayor shall preside over all meetings of the city council, when present, but shall have a vote only in the case of a tie in the votes of the councilmen with respect to matters other than the passage of any ordinance, grant, or revocation of franchise or license, or any resolution for the payment of money. He shall report to the council concerning the affairs of the city and its financial and other needs, and shall make recommendations for council consideration and action. He shall prepare and submit to the council a proposed budget, as required by chapter 35A.33 RCW. The mayor shall have the power to veto ordinances passed by the council and submitted to him as provided in RCW 35A.12.130 but such veto may be overridden by the vote of a majority of all council members plus one more vote. The mayor shall be the official and ceremonial head of the city and shall represent the city on ceremonial occasions, except that when illness or other duties prevent the mayor's attendance at an official function and no mayor pro tempore has been appointed by the council, a member of the council or some other suitable person may be designated by the mayor to represent the city on such occasion.

Sec. 23. Section 35A.12.110, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.12.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The city council and mayor shall meet regularly, at least once a month, at a place within the corporate limits of the city at such times as may be fixed by ordinance or resolution. Special meetings may be called by the mayor or any three members of the council by written notice delivered to each member of the council at least ~~((twelve))~~ twenty-four hours before the time specified for the proposed meeting. All actions that have heretofore been taken at special council meetings held pursuant to this section, but for which the number of hours of notice given has been at variance with requirements of RCW 42.30.080, are hereby validated. All council meetings shall be open to the public except ((that the council may hold executive sessions from which the public is excluded for purposes other than the final adoption of an ordinance, resolution, rule, regulation, or directive)) as permitted by chapter 42.30 RCW. No ordinance or resolution shall be passed, or contract let or entered into, or bill for the payment of money allowed at any meeting not open to the public, nor at any public meeting the date of which is not fixed by ordinance, resolution, or rule, unless public notice of such meeting has been given by such notice to ~~((the local press, radio, and~~ ~~television, as will be reasonably calculated to inform inhabitants of the city of the meeting))~~ each local newspaper of general circulation and to each local radio or television station, as provided in RCW 42.30.080 as now or hereafter amended. Meetings of the council shall be presided over by the mayor, if present, or otherwise by the mayor pro tempore, or deputy mayor if one has been appointed, or by a member of the council selected by a majority of the council members at such meeting. Appointment of a council member to preside over the meeting shall not in any way abridge his right to vote on matters coming before the council at such meeting. In the absence of the clerk, a deputy clerk or other qualified person appointed by the clerk, the mayor, or the council, may perform the duties of clerk at such meeting. A journal of all proceedings shall be kept, which shall be a public record.

Sec. 24. Section 35A.13.010, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.13.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The councilmen shall be the only elective officers of a code city electing to adopt the council-manager plan of government authorized by this chapter, except where statutes provide for an elective police judge. The council shall appoint an officer whose title shall be "city manager" who shall be the chief executive officer and head of the administrative branch of the city government. The city manager shall be responsible to the council for the proper administration of all affairs of the code city. The council of a non-charter code city having less than twenty-five hundred inhabitants shall consist of five members; when there are twenty-five hundred or more inhabitants the council shall consist of seven members: PROVIDED, That if the population of a city after having become a code city decreases from twenty-five hundred or more to less than twenty-five hundred, it shall continue to have a seven member council. If, after a city has become a council-manager code city its population increases to twenty-five hundred or more inhabitants, the number of councilmanic offices in such a city shall increase from five to seven members. It that event, the city council shall, by majority vote, pursuant to RCW 35A.13.020, appoint two persons to serve in these offices until the next municipal general election, at which election one person shall be elected for a two-year term and one person shall be elected for a four-year term. The number of inhabitants shall be determined by the most recent official state or federal census or determination by the state ((~~census board~~)) office of financial management. A charter adopted under the provisions of this title, incorporating the council-manager plan of government set forth in this chapter may provide for an uneven number of councilmen not exceeding eleven.

Sec. 25. Section 35A.13.040, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.13.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The salaries of the councilmen, including the mayor, shall be fixed by ordinance and may be revised from time to time by ordinance, but any increase or reduction in the compensation attaching to an office shall not become effective until the expiration of the term then being served by the incumbent: PROVIDED, That compensation of councilmen may not be increased or diminished after their election nor may the compensation of the mayor be increased or diminished after the mayor has been chosen by the council.

Until councilmen of a newly-organized council-manager code city may lawfully be paid as provided by salary ordinance, such councilmen shall be entitled to compensation in the same manner and in the same amount as councilmen of such city prior to the adoption of this council-manager plan.

Until a salary ordinance can be passed and become effective as to elective officers of a newly incorporated code city, the first councilmen shall be entitled to compensation as follows: In cities having less than five thousand inhabitants—twenty dollars per meeting for not more than two meetings per month; in cities having more than five thousand but less than fifteen thousand inhabitants—a salary of one hundred and fifty dollars per calendar month; in cities having more than fifteen thousand inhabitants—a salary of four hundred dollars per calendar month. A councilman who is occupying the position of mayor, in addition to his salary as a councilman, shall be entitled, while serving as mayor, to an additional amount per calendar month, or portion thereof, equal to twenty-five percent of the councilmanic salary: PROVIDED, That such interim compensation shall remain in effect only until a salary ordinance is passed and becomes effective as to such officers, and the compensation provided herein shall not be construed as fixing the usual compensation of such officers. Councilmen shall receive reimbursement for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of the duties of their office, or the council by ordinance may provide for a per diem allowance. Procedure for approval of claims for expenses shall be as provided by ordinance.

Sec. 26. Section 35A.13.170, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.13.170 are each amended to read as follows:

All provisions of RCW 35A.12.110, as now or hereafter amended, and 35A.12.120, relating to council meetings, a quorum for transaction of business, rules and voting at council meetings, shall be applicable to code cities organized under this council-manager plan.

Sec. 27. Section 35A.14.220, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 26, chapter 195, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 35A.14.220 are each amended to read as follows:

Annexations under the provisions of RCW 35A.14.295, 35A.14.297, 35A.14.300, and 35A.14.310 shall not be subject to review by the annexation review board: PROVIDED, That in ((class AA, class A and first class countries)) any county in which a boundary review board is established under chapter 36.93 RCW all annexations shall be subject to review except as provided for in RCW 36.93.110. When the area proposed for annexation in a petition or resolution, initiated and filed under any of the methods of initiating annexation authorized by this chapter, is less than fifty acres or less than two million dollars in assessed valuation, review procedures shall not be required as to such annexation proposal, except as provided in chapter 36.93 RCW in those counties with a review board established pursuant to chapter 36.93 RCW: PROVIDED, That when an annexation proposal is initiated by the direct petition method authorized by ~~((section))~~ RCW 35A.14.120, review procedures shall not be required without regard to acreage or assessed valuation, except as provided in chapter 36.93 RCW in those counties with a boundary review board established pursuant to chapter 36.93 RCW.

After approval of the certificate, the office of financial management shall retain the original copy in its files, and transmit the second copy to the department of ~~((highways))~~ transportation and return the third copy to the code city. Such certificates shall be in such form and contain such information as shall be prescribed by the office of financial management. A copy of the complete ordinance containing a legal description and a map showing specifically the boundaries of the annexed territory shall be attached to each of the three copies of the certificate. The certificate shall be signed by the mayor and attested by the city clerk. Upon request, the office of financial management shall furnish certification forms to any code city.

Upon approval of the annexation certificate, the office of financial management shall forward to each state official or department responsible for making allocations or payments to cities or towns, a revised certificate reflecting the increase in population due to such annexation. Upon and after the date of the commencement of the next quarterly period, the population determination indicated in such revised certificate shall be used as the basis for the allocation and payment of state funds to such city or town.

For the purposes of this section, each quarterly period shall commence on the first day of the months of January, April, July, and October. Whenever a revised certificate is forwarded by the office of financial management thirty days or less prior to the commencement of the next quarterly period, the population of the annexed territory shall not be considered until the commencement of the following quarterly period.

The resident population of the annexed territory shall be determined by, or under the direction of, the mayor of the code city. Such population determination shall consist of an actual enumeration of the population which shall be made in accordance with practices and policies, and subject to the approval of the office of financial management. The population shall be determined as of the effective date of annexation as specified in the relevant ordinance.

Until an annexation certificate is filed and approved as provided herein, such annexed territory shall not be considered by the office of financial management in determining the population of such code city.

By ordinance a code city may create a planning agency and provide for its membership, organization, and expenses. The planning agency shall serve in an advisory capacity to the chief administrative officer or the legislative body, or both, as may be provided by ordinance and shall have such other powers and duties as shall be provided by ordinance. If any person or persons on a planning agency concludes that he has a conflict of interest or an

If this occurs, the appointing authority that appoints such a person may appoint a person to serve as an alternate on the agency to serve in his stead in regard to such a matter.

A code city which pursuant to this chapter creates a planning agency and which has twenty-five hundred or more inhabitants, by ordinance, shall create a board of adjustment and provide for its membership, terms of office, organization, jurisdiction. The action of the board of adjustment shall be final and conclusive, unless, within ten days from the date of the action, the original applicant or an adverse party makes application to the superior court for the county in which that city is located for a writ of certiorari, a writ of prohibition, or a writ of mandamus. No member of the board of adjustment shall be a member of the planning agency or the legislative body. Subject to conditions, safeguards, and procedures provided by ordinance, the board of adjustment may be empowered to hear and decide:

(1) Appeals from orders, recommendations, permits, decisions, or determinations made by a code city official in the administration or enforcement of the provisions of this chapter or any ordinances adopted pursuant to it.

(2) Applications for variances from the terms of the zoning ordinance, the official map ordinance or other land-use regulatory ordinances under procedures and conditions prescribed by city ordinance, which among other things shall provide that no application for a variance shall be granted unless the board of adjustment finds:

(a) the variance shall not constitute a grant of special privilege inconsistent with the limitation upon uses of other properties in the vicinity and zone in which the property on behalf of which the application was filed is located; and

(b) that such variance is necessary, because of special circumstances relating to the size, shape, topography, location, or surroundings of the subject property, to provide it with use rights and privileges permitted to other properties in the vicinity and in the zone in which the subject property is located; and

(c) that the granting of such variance will not be materially detrimental to the public welfare or injurious to the property or improvements in the vicinity and zone in which the subject property is situated.

(3) Applications for conditional-use permits, unless such applications are to be heard and decided by the planning agency. A conditional use means a use listed among those classified in any given zone but permitted to locate only after review as herein provided in accordance with standards and criteria set forth in the zoning ordinance.

(4) Such other quasi judicial and administrative determinations as may be delegated by ordinance.

In deciding any of the matters referred to in subsections (1), (2), (3), and (4) of this section, the board of adjustment shall issue a written report giving the reasons for its decision. If a code city provides for a hearing examiner and vests in him the authority to hear and decide the items listed in subdivisions (1), (2), and (3) of this section pursuant to RCW 35A.63.170, then the provisions of this section shall not apply to such a city.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. Section 35A.06.080, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.06.080 are each hereby repealed.

[Senate Bill No. 2925]

SPOKANE EXPO '74 SITE AND FACILITIES—TITLE TRANSFER

AN ACT Relating to state property; and creating new sections.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The Washington state legislature in its forty-second session in the year of 1971 did in its wisdom and for the benefit of the entire state pass legislation which provided for the construction, and the payment thereof of certain buildings which served as the centerpiece of an International Exposition in the city of Spokane in the year of 1974.

The leaders of business throughout the state did most kindly support the citizens and the legislators of Spokane in suggesting a funding source in the form of a surcharge of twenty-five percent on the corporate business license/filing fee. This surtax enabled the state department of general administration to construct the magnificent opera house and convention center which has enabled the city to attract many thousands of tourists who otherwise may never have come to our state.

Following the most successful operation of the International Exposition, which saw five million visitors pass through its gates, with an estimated tax benefit to the state of 9.2 million dollars, the city incurred the obligation of removing the state's exhibit from its space and converting the area to a convention center. The total expenditure of the city of 5.4 million dollars represents 60.6 percent of the construction costs.

The operation of the opera house and convention center was assumed by the city and under the supervision of the sports, entertainment, arts and convention advisory board (SEACAB) and it has attracted an increasing number of patrons each year. Despite the increased usage the revenues fail to meet the operating costs: By one hundred ninety-two thousand dollars in 1975; two hundred ninety-five thousand dollars in 1976; three hundred twenty-eight thousand dollars in 1977; and two hundred ninety-five thousand dollars in 1978. Notwithstanding these recited losses the citizens of Spokane are grateful to the state for the rich heritage of Expo '74 which was made possible by the legislature. The city now seeks title to the opera house and convention center, and the legislature acknowledges that it passes to the city the liability for maintenance and operation of the facility. The surtax on the corporate business license/filing fee remains in effect and the transfer of the ownership provided for in section 2 of this act has no general fund impact.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) The department of general administration is authorized and directed to transfer fee simple ownership of the Expo '74 site and facilities to the city of Spokane, Washington, subject to acceptance by the city. The property to be transferred consists of the opera house, convention center, and grounds, acquired and built under the authority of chapter 43.96B RCW, with the following approximate legal boundaries:

That portion of the southeast quarter of section 18, township 25 N., range 43 E.W.M. in the city and county of Spokane, Washington described as follows: That land bounded by the north line of Spokane Falls Boulevard (formerly Trent Avenue); the east line of Washington Street; a line two hundred eighty feet north of and parallel to the north line of Spokane Falls Boulevard; and the west line of Spokane Falls Court, extended north.

(2) Payment or other compensation shall not be required from the city of Spokane as consideration for the transfer under subsection (1) of this section.

Passed the Senate March 22, 1979.

Passed the House April 10, 1979.

Approved by the Governor April 20, 1979.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 20, 1979.

CHAPTER 29

MOTION PICTURE FILMS—EXHIBITION RIGHTS—BIDDING AND NEGOTIATION PROCEDURES

AN ACT Relating to the exhibition of motion pictures; adding a new chapter to Title 19 RCW; and providing penalties.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section. 1. The purpose of this chapter is to establish fair and open procedures for bidding and negotiation for the right to exhibit motion pictures in the state in order to prevent unfair and deceptive acts or practices and unreasonable restraints of trade in the business of motion picture distribution and exhibition within the state; to promote fair and effective competition in that business; and to insure that exhibitors have the opportunity to view a motion picture and know its contents before committing themselves to exhibiting the motion picture in their communities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The definitions contained in this section apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Bid" means a written or oral offer or proposal to buy made by an exhibitor to a distributor in response to an invitation to bid for the license or right to exhibit a motion picture, the license stating the terms under which the exhibitor agrees to exhibit the motion picture.

(2) "Blind bidding" means the exhibitor's bidding or negotiating for, or the exhibitor's offering or agreeing to, terms for the license or right to exhibit a feature motion picture at any time either before the feature motion picture has been trade screened within the state or before the feature motion picture has been otherwise made available for viewing within the state by all exhibitors.

(3) "Blind selling" means the practice whereby a distributor licenses a feature motion picture before the exhibitor is afforded an opportunity to view the feature motion picture by trade screening.

(4) "Buying" or "selling" of the right to exhibit a feature motion picture means the licensing of a theater to show the feature motion picture for a certain number of days for a certain price.

(5) "Distributor" means a person engaged in the business of distributing or supplying more than one feature motion picture per year to exhibitors by rental, sale, licensing, or other agreement.

(6) "Exhibit" or "exhibition" means playing or showing a feature motion picture to the public for an admission charge.

(7) "Exhibitor" means a person in the business of operating one or more theaters in which motion pictures are exhibited to the public.

(8) "Feature motion picture" means a motion picture exceeding sixty minutes in duration.

(9) "Invitation to bid" means a written or oral solicitation or invitation by a distributor to one or more exhibitors to bid or negotiate for the license or right to exhibit a feature motion picture.

(10) "Licensing agreement" means a contract, agreement, understanding, or condition between a distributor and an exhibitor relating to the licensing or exhibition of a feature motion picture by the exhibitor.

(11) "Person" means one or more individuals, firms, partnerships, associations, societies, trusts, organizations, or corporations.

(12) "Run" means the continuous exhibition of a feature motion picture in a defined geographic area for a specified period of time. A "first run" is the first exhibition of the feature motion picture in the defined area; a "second run" is the second exhibition; and "subsequent runs" are subsequent exhibitions after the second run. "Exclusive run" is a run limited to a single theater in a defined geographic area and a "nonexclusive run" is a run in more than one theater in a defined geographic area.

(13) "Theater" means an establishment in which feature motion pictures are regularly exhibited to the public for an admission charge.

(14) "Trade screening" means the exhibition of a feature motion picture, prior to its release for public exhibition by a distributor, in the largest city within the state, which is open to all exhibitors from whom the distributor intends to solicit bids or with whom the distributor intends to negotiate for the license or right to exhibit the feature motion picture.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The buying or selling of the right to exhibit a feature motion picture by blind bidding or blind selling is prohibited within the state.

(2) No bids may be returnable, no negotiations for the exhibition or licensing of a motion picture may take place, and no license agreement or any of its terms may be agreed upon, for the exhibition of a feature motion picture within the state before the feature motion picture has either been trade screened or otherwise made available for viewing by all exhibitors within the state.

(3) A distributor shall provide reasonable and uniform notice of the trade screening of feature motion pictures to those exhibitors within the state from whom bids will be solicited or with whom negotiations will be conducted for the license or right to exhibit the feature motion picture.

(4) A purported waiver of the prohibition in this chapter against blind bidding or blind selling is void and unenforceable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If bids are solicited from exhibitors for the licensing of a feature motion picture within the state, then:

(1) The invitation to bid shall specify: (a) Whether the run for which the bid is being solicited is a first, second, or subsequent run; whether the run is an exclusive or nonexclusive run; and, the geographic area for the run; (b) the names of all exhibitors who are being solicited; (c) the date and hour the invitation to bid expires; and (d) the time, date, and location, including the address, where the bids will be opened, which shall be within the state.

(2) All bids shall be submitted in writing and shall be opened at the same time and in the presence of those exhibitors, or their agents, who submitted bids and who attend the bid opening.

(3) Immediately upon being opened, the bids shall be subject to examination by the exhibitors, or their agents, who submitted bids, and who are present at the opening. Within ten business days after the bids are opened, the distributor shall notify each exhibitor who submitted a bid either the name of the winning bidder or the fact that none of the bids were acceptable.

(4) Once bids are solicited, the distributor shall license the feature motion picture only by bidding and may solicit rebids if none of the submitted bids are acceptable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Any person aggrieved by a violation of this chapter may bring a civil action in superior court to enjoin further violations or to recover the actual damages sustained, or both, together with the costs of the suit. In any such action, the court shall award reasonable attorneys' fees to the prevailing party.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This chapter may be known and cited as the Washington motion picture fair competition act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 1 through 6 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 19 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Passed the House March 29, 1979.

Passed the Senate April 11, 1979.

Approved by the Governor April 23, 1979.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 4, chapter 209, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 7, chapter 120, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 41.26.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system is hereby created for fire fighters and law enforcement officers.

(1) (a) Notwithstanding RCW 41.26.030(8) and except as provided in subsection (1)(b) of this section, all fire fighters and law enforcement officers employed as such on or after March 1, 1970, on a full time fully compensated basis in this state shall be members of the retirement system established by this chapter with respect to all periods of service as such, to the exclusion of any pension system existing under any prior act except as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(b) No fire fighter or law enforcement officer who commences a period of employment on or after July 1, 1979, as a participant under the federal comprehensive employment and training act of 1973 (CETA) (29 U.S.C. Sec. 801 et seq.), as amended, shall be a member of this system during the period of such participation unless, at the commencement of the participation under CETA, the fire fighter or law enforcement officer either:

(i) Has at least five years of service and the full amount of the employee's contributions for such service remains on deposit in the system; or

(ii) Has previously been retired from this system.

(2) Any employee serving as a law enforcement officer or fire fighter on March 1, 1970, who is then making retirement contributions under any prior act shall have his membership transferred to the system established by this chapter as of such date. Upon retirement for service or for disability, or death, of any such employee, his retirement benefits earned under this chapter shall be computed and paid. In addition, his benefits under the prior retirement act to which he was making contributions at the time of this transfer shall be computed as if he had not transferred. For the purpose of such computations, the employee's creditability of service and eligibility for service or disability retirement and survivor and all other benefits shall continue to be as provided in such prior retirement act, as if transfer of membership had not occurred. The excess, if any, of the benefits so computed, giving full value to survivor benefits, over the benefits payable under this chapter shall be paid whether or not the employee has made application under the prior act. If the employee's prior retirement system was the Washington public employees' retirement system, payment of such excess shall be made by that system; if the employee's prior retirement system was the state-wide city employees' retirement system, payment of such excess shall be made by the employer which was the member's employer when his transfer of membership occurred: PROVIDED, That any death in line of duty lump sum benefit payment shall continue to be the obligation of that system as provided in RCW 41.44.210; in the case of all other prior retirement systems, payment of such excess shall be made by the employer which was the member's employer when his transfer of membership occurred.

(3) All funds held by any firemen's or policemen's relief and pension fund shall remain in that fund for the purpose of paying the obligations of the fund. The municipality shall continue to levy the dollar rate as provided in RCW 41.16.060, and this dollar rate shall be used for the purpose of paying the benefits provided in chapters 41.16 and 41.18 RCW. The obligations of chapter 41.20 RCW shall continue to be paid from whatever financial sources the city has been using for this purpose.

(4) Any member transferring from the Washington public employees' retirement system or the state-wide city employees' retirement system shall have transferred from the appropriate fund of the prior system of membership, a sum sufficient to pay into the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system fund the amount of the employees' and employers' contributions plus credited interest in the prior system for all service, as defined in this chapter, from the date of the employee's entrance therein until March 1, 1970. Except as provided for in subsection (2), such transfer of funds shall discharge said state retirement systems from any further obligation to pay benefits to such transferring members with respect to such service.

(5) All unfunded liabilities created by this or any other section of this chapter shall be computed by the actuary in his biennial evaluation. Such computation shall provide for amortization of the unfunded liabilities over a period of not more than forty years from March 1, 1970. The amount thus computed as necessary shall be reported to the governor by the (~~board of the~~) department of retirement systems for inclusion in the budget. The legislature shall make the necessary appropriation to fund the unfunded liability from the state general fund beginning with the 1971-1973 biennium.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 41.26 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Law enforcement officers and fire fighters excluded under RCW 41.26.040(1) during periods of employment as participants under the federal comprehensive employment and training act of 1973 (CETA), as amended, shall receive service credit in the law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system for all service as such during the period of participation under CETA which would have been credited except for RCW 41.26.040(1), provided the following conditions are met:

(a) The person is employed within ninety days of ceasing to be a participant under CETA in a position entitling such person to membership in the law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system; and

(b) The person makes a lump sum payment to the system, within one year of obtaining such membership, of the employee's contributions which would have been required during the period of participation.

(2) If the person meets the conditions specified in this section, the CETA employer shall, within thirty days from the date of completion of the employee's payment, make the employer and state contribution which would have been required during the period of the CETA participation, plus interest on the employee's, employer's, and the state contribution from the date such service began, at a rate determined by the director. No part of the interest shall be credited to the member's account.

Sec. 3. Section 24, chapter 80, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 3, chapter 81, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 41.32.240 are each amended to read as follows:

All teachers employed full time in the public schools shall be members of the system except those who have previously exempted themselves from membership and alien teachers who have been granted a temporary permit to teach as exchange teachers.

No teacher who commences a period of employment on or after July 1, 1979, as a participant under the federal comprehensive employment and training act of 1973 (CETA) (29 U.S.C. Sec. 801 et seq.), as amended, shall be a member of this system during the period of such participation unless, at the commencement of the participation under CETA, the teacher either:

(2) Has previously been retired from this system.

A minimum of ninety days or the equivalent of ninety days of employment during a fiscal year shall be required to establish membership. A teacher shall be considered as employed full time if serving regularly for four-fifths or more of a school day or if assigned to duties which are the equivalent of four-fifths or more of a full time assignment. A teacher who is employed for less than full time service may become a member by filing an application with the retirement system, submitting satisfactory proof of teaching service and making the necessary payment before June 30 of the school year immediately following the one during which the service was rendered. If an exempted teacher desires membership he must file with the ~~((board of trustees))~~ department a written request, duly executed, that his exemption certificate be canceled, present proof of service, and make the necessary payment before June 30 of the school year immediately following the one in which his request for cancellation of the exemption was filed. Any teacher who is still exempt from membership in the teachers' retirement system after July 1, 1965 and chooses not to become a member of the teachers' retirement system may continue his exemption and shall not become a member of the state employees' retirement system while employed as a teacher. All service rendered in this state subsequent to his exemption from membership must be established by proper proof and paid for, with interest at three percent, upon the same basis as he would have paid had he been a member during the period covered by his exemption. Twenty percent of the total amount due must be paid before membership can be established. Payment of the remainder, including interest, must be completed before June 30th of the fourth school year following that in which membership was established. A minimum of five years of membership in the present system and/or the former state fund or a local fund shall be required of a member who was formerly exempt from membership before such member may qualify for a retirement allowance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 41.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(a) The person is employed within ninety days of ceasing to be a participant under CETA in a position entitling such person to membership in the teachers' retirement system; and

(b) The person makes a lump sum payment to the system within one year of obtaining such membership of the employee's contribution which would have been required during the period of participation.

(2) If the person meets the conditions specified in this section, the CETA employer shall, within thirty days from the date of completion of the employee's payment, make the employer contributions which would have been required during the period of the CETA participation, plus interest on the employee's and employer's contribution from the date such service began, at a rate determined by the director. No part of this interest payment shall be credited to the member's account.

Sec. 5. Section 7, chapter 293, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 41.32-.780 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, all teachers who become employed by an employer on or after October 1, 1977, shall be members of the retirement system and shall be governed by the provisions of RCW 41.32.755 through 41.32.825.

The procedure upon the appeal shall be such as the board may prescribe, and its determination shall be certified, filed, and recorded in the same manner as the supervisor's, and shall be final.

Sec. 7. Section 1, chapter 154, Laws of 1917 as last amended by section 1, chapter 111, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 33.44.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Any going building and loan or savings and loan association or society organized under the laws of this state, or under the laws of the United States, may, if its contingent fund regularly accumulated, exclusive of any reserve fund stock, amounts to not less than five thousand dollars and if it has obtained the approval, required by law or regulation, of any federal agencies, including the federal home loan bank board and the federal savings and loan insurance corporation, be converted into a mutual savings bank in the following manner:

(1) The board of directors of such association shall pass a resolution declaring their intention to convert the association into a mutual savings bank and shall apply to the supervisor of banking for leave to submit to the shareholders of the association the question whether the same shall be converted into a mutual savings bank. A duplicate of the application to the supervisor of banking shall be filed with the supervisor of savings and loan associations, except that no such filing shall be required in the case of an association organized under the laws of the United States.

(2) Thereupon the supervisor of banking shall make the same investigation and determine the same questions as he would be required by law to make and determine in case of the submission to him of a certificate of incorporation of a proposed new mutual savings bank, and he shall also determine after conference with the supervisor of savings and loan associations whether by the proposed conversion the business needs and conveniences of the shareholders of such association would be served with facility and safety, except that no such conference shall be pertinent to such investigation or determination in the case of an association organized under the laws of the United States. After the supervisor of banking shall have satisfied himself by such investigation whether it is expedient and desirable to permit the proposed conversion, he shall, within sixty days after the filing of said application, endorse thereon over his official signature the word "granted" or the word "refused", with the date of such endorsement and shall immediately notify the secretary of such association of his decision: PROVIDED, That if the application is granted the supervisor of banking shall require the applicants to enter into such an agreement or undertaking with him as trustee for the depositors with the savings bank to make such contributions in cash to the expense fund of the savings bank as in his judgment will be necessary then and from time to time thereafter to pay the operating expenses of the bank if its earnings should not be sufficient to pay the same in addition to the payment of such dividends as may be declared and credited to depositors from its earnings.

In case of refusal, said board of directors, or a majority thereof, may, within thirty days after receiving the notice of such refusal appeal to a board of appeal composed of the governor or the governor's designee, the attorney general and the supervisor of banking, in the same manner and under the same procedure as that prescribed by law for an appeal to such board from the supervisor of banking's refusal to permit the original organization of a mutual savings bank.

(3) If such application be granted by the supervisor of banking or by the board of appeal, as the case may be, the board of directors of such association shall, within sixty days thereafter, submit the question of the proposed conversion to the shareholders of the association at a special meeting called for that purpose. Notice of such meeting shall be given in the manner prescribed by the bylaws of the association. Such notice shall state the time, place and purpose of the meeting, and that the only question to be voted upon will be, "shall the (naming the association) be converted into a mutual savings bank under the laws of the state of Washington?" The vote on said question shall be by ballot. Any shareholder may vote by proxy or may transmit his ballot by mail if the bylaws provide a method for so doing. If two-thirds or more in number of the shareholders voting on the question vote affirmatively, then the board of directors shall have power, and it shall be their duty, to proceed to convert such association into a mutual savings bank; otherwise, the proposed conversion shall be abandoned and shall not be again submitted to the shareholders within three years from the date of said meeting.

(4) If authority for the proposed conversion has been voted by the shareholders as hereinabove required, the directors shall, within thirty days thereafter, subscribe and acknowledge and file with the supervisor of banking in quadruplicate a certificate of reincorporation, stating:

(a) The name by which the converted corporation is to be known, which name shall include the words "mutual savings bank."

(b) The place where the bank is to be located and its business transacted, naming the city or town and county, which city or town shall be the same as that where the principal place of business of the corporation has theretofore been located.

(c) The name, occupation, residence and post office address of each signer of the certificate.

(d) The amount of the assets of the corporation, the amount of its liabilities and the amount of its contingent fund as of the first day of the then calendar month.

(e) A declaration that each signer will accept the responsibilities and faithfully discharge the duties of a trustee of the savings bank, and is free from all the disqualifications specified in the laws applicable to mutual savings banks.

(5) Upon the filing of said certificate in quadruplicate the supervisor of banking shall, within thirty days thereafter, if satisfied that all the provisions of this chapter have been complied with, issue in quadruplicate an authorization certificate stating that the corporation has complied with all the requirements of law, and that it has authority to transact at the place designated in its certificate of incorporation the business of a mutual savings bank. One of the supervisor's quadruplicate certificates of authorization shall be attached to each of the quadruplicate certificates of reincorporation, and one set of these shall be filed and retained by the supervisor of banking, one set shall be filed in the office of the county auditor of the county in which such bank is located, one set shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state, and one set shall be transmitted to the bank for its files. Upon the receipt from the corporation of the same fees as are required for filing and recording other incorporation certificates or articles the county auditor and secretary of state shall file said certificates in their respective offices and the secretary of state shall record the same; whereupon the conversion of such association shall be deemed complete, and the signers of said reincorporation certificate and their successors shall thereupon become and be a corporation having the powers and being subject to the duties and obligations prescribed by the laws of this state applicable to mutual savings banks, and the time of existence of such corporation shall continue for the period of fifty years from the date of the filing of such certificate, unless sooner terminated pursuant to law.

~~((There is hereby created within the state treasury a special fund to be known as the "general administration construction fund" in which shall be deposited all moneys arising from the sale of such bonds, and all other moneys which may become available for carrying out the purposes of this chapter, provided, that from the moneys arising from the sale of such bonds there may be deposited in the general administration bond redemption fund~~

~~an amount equal to the interest accruing on such bonds during the estimated period of construction of the project for which such bonds are issued and for six months after the completion of such construction:))~~ All such bonds shall be designated as to the project for which they are issued and the proceeds thereof shall be used solely for that project, and for the payment of the expense incurred in the printing, issuance and sale of such bonds and to pay interest on such bonds for the period aforesaid.

The state finance committee is authorized to invest the proceeds from the sale of such bonds in short term securities of the United States government: PROVIDED, That such investment will not impede the orderly progress of the project for which the bonds were issued. Sec. 5. Section 71.02.390, chapter 25, Laws of 1959 and RCW 71.02-.390 are each amended to read as follows:

~~Advance remittances of ((such)) hospitalization charges ((may be held by the department in a suspense account for a period not to exceed ninety days in order to make prompt refunds in cases of overpayment. Sec. 6. Section 72.05.150, chapter 28, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 181, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 72.05.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall have power to acquire, establish, maintain, and operate "minimum security" facilities for the care, custody, education, and treatment of children with less serious behavior problems. Such facilities may include parental schools or homes, farm units, and forest camps. Admission to such minimum security facilities shall be by juvenile court commitment or by transfer as herein otherwise provided. In carrying out the purposes of this section, the department may establish or acquire the use of such facilities by gift, purchase, lease, contract, or other arrangement with existing public entities, and to that end the secretary may execute necessary leases, contracts, or other agreements. In establishing forest camps, the department may contract with other divisions of the state and the federal government; including, but not limited to, the ~~((state division of forestry))~~ department of natural resources, the state parks and recreation commission, the U.S. forest service, and the national park service, on a basis whereby such camps may be made as nearly as possible self-sustaining. Under any such arrangement the contracting agency shall reimburse the department for the value of services which may be rendered by the inmates of a camp ~~((and all such reimbursements shall be credited to a "forest camp revolving~~ fund", which fund is hereby created, and out of which funds may be disbursed towards the cost of operation and maintenance of the camp)).

Sec. 7. Section 3, chapter 63, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 53, Laws of 1975 and RCW 74.13.106 are each amended to read as follows:

All fees paid for adoption services pursuant to RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145 shall be credited to ~~((an adoption support account, hereby created, in))~~ the general fund. Expenses incurred in connection with supporting the adoption of hard to place children shall be paid by warrants drawn against such ~~((account. The secretary may also from time to time transfer to such account from appropriations available to him for care of children in foster homes and child-caring institutions such sums as in his judgment will further the purposes set forth in RCW 74.13.100))~~ appropriations as may be available. The secretary may for such purposes, contract with any public agency or licensed child placing agency and/or adoptive parent and is authorized to accept funds from other sources including federal, private, and other public funding sources to carry out such purposes.

The secretary shall actively seek, where consistent with the policies and programs of the department, and shall make maximum use of, such federal funds as are or may be made available to the department for the purpose of supporting the adoption of hard to place children. The secretary may, if permitted by federal law, deposit federal funds for adoption support, aid to adoptions, or subsidized adoption in the ~~((adoption support account of the))~~ general fund and may use such funds, subject to such limitations as may be imposed by federal or state law, to carry out the program of adoption support authorized by RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145.

~~((The secretary may also deposit in such account and disburse therefrom all gifts and grants from any nonfederal source, including public and private foundations, which may be used for the program of adoption support authorized by RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145.))~~

Sec. 8. Section 4, chapter 63, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.13.109 are each amended to read as follows:

The secretary shall issue rules and regulations to assist in the administration of the program of adoption support authorized by RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145.

Disbursements from the ~~((adoption support account))~~ appropriations available from the general fund shall be made pursuant to such rules and regulations and pursuant to agreements conforming thereto to be made by the secretary with parents for the purpose of supporting the adoption of children in, or likely to be placed in, foster homes or child caring institutions who are found by the secretary to be difficult to place in adoption because of physical or other reasons; including, but not limited to, physical or mental handicap, emotional disturbance, ethnic background, language, race, color, age, or sibling grouping.

Such agreements shall meet the following criteria:

(1) The child whose adoption is to be supported pursuant to such agreement shall be or have been a child hard to place in adoption.

(2) Such agreement must relate to a child who was or is residing in a foster home or child-caring institution or a child who, in the judgment of the secretary, is both eligible for, and likely to be placed in, either a foster home or a child-caring institution.

(3) Such agreement shall provide that adoption support shall not continue beyond the time that the adopted child reaches twenty-one years of age, becomes emancipated, dies, or otherwise ceases to need support, provided that if the secretary shall find that continuing dependency of such child after such child reaches twenty-one years of age warrants the continuation of support pursuant to RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145 the secretary may do so, subject to all the provisions of RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145, including annual review of the amount of such support.

(4) Any prospective parent who is to be a party to such agreement shall be a person who, while having the character, judgment, sense of responsibility, and disposition which make him or her suitable as an adoptive parent of such child, lacks the financial means fully to care for such hard to place child.

Sec. 9. Section 11, chapter 63, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.13.130 are each amended to read as follows:

If the secretary determines that a prospective adoptive parent or parents cannot, because of limited financial means, pay the cost or the full cost of an adoption proceeding for the adoption of a hard to place child who would be eligible for support under RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145, the secretary may authorize the payment from the ~~((adoption support account))~~ appropriations available from the general fund of all or part a reasonable attorney's fee to be determined by the superior court hearing the adoption and court costs. The clerk of the court shall furnish the secretary with a certified copy of the decree of adoption containing the finding as to such attorney's fee.

In evaluating any such prospective parent's ability to pay the secretary may use the same criteria for evaluating ability to pay which are to be used by him in waiving, reducing, or deferring fees pursuant to RCW 74.13.103 plus the burdens likely to be assumed by such parent even after adoption support is provided pursuant to RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145.

Sec. 10. Section 1, chapter 332, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 7, chapter 207, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 76.04.510 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((There is created a general contingency forest fire suppression account which shall be a separate account in the general fund. The account is)) Biennial general fund appropriations to the department of natural resources normally provide funds for the purpose of paying the emergency fire costs and expenses incurred and/or approved by the department in forest fire suppression or in reacting to any potential forest fire situation. When a determination is made that the fire started in the course of or as a result of a participating landowner operation, moneys expended from ~~((this account))~~ such appropriations in the suppression of such fire shall be recovered from the landowner contingency forest fire suppression account. The department shall transmit to the state treasurer for deposit in the general ~~((contingency forest fire suppression account))~~ fund any such moneys ~~((paid out of said account))~~ which are later recovered ~~((and said))~~. Moneys recovered during the biennium in which they are expended may be spent for purposes set forth ~~((herein))~~ in this section during the ~~((current))~~ same biennium, without reappropriation. ~~((Interfund loans to and from this account))~~ Loans between the general fund and the landowner contingency forest fire suppression account are authorized for emergency fire suppression. Such loans shall not exceed the amount appropriated for emergency forest fire suppression costs and shall bear interest at the then current rate of interest as determined by the state treasurer.~~

Sec. 11. Section 8, chapter 207, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 24, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 76.04.515 are each amended to read as follows:

There is created a landowner contingency forest fire suppression account which shall be a separate account in the general fund. This account shall be for the purpose of paying emergency fire costs incurred or approved by the department in the suppression of forest fires. When a determination is made that the fire was started by other than a participating landowner operation, moneys expended from this account in the suppression of such fire shall be recovered from ~~((the general contingency forest))~~ such general fund appropriations as may be available for emergency fire suppression ~~((account))~~ costs. Moneys spent from this account shall be by appropriation. The department shall transmit to the state treasurer for deposit in the landowner contingency forest fire suppression account any moneys paid out of said account which are later recovered, less reasonable costs of recovery, which moneys may be expended for purposes set forth herein during the current biennium, without reappropriation.

This account shall be established and renewed by a special forest fire suppression account assessment paid by participating forest landowners at rates to be established by the department, but not to exceed five cents per acre per year for such period of years as may be necessary to establish and thereafter reestablish a balance in said account of one million dollars. The assessments with respect to forest lands in western and eastern Washington may differ to equitably distribute the assessment based on emergency fire suppression cost experience necessitated by participating landowner operations. Amounts assessed for this account shall be a lien upon the forest lands with respect to which the assessment is made, and may be collected as directed by the department in the same manner as forest patrol assessments. This account shall be held by the state treasurer who is authorized to invest so much of said account as is not necessary to meet current needs. Any interest earned on moneys from said account shall be deposited in and remain a part of the account, and shall be computed as part of the same in determining the balance thereof. Interfund loans to and from this account are authorized at the then current rate of interest as determined by the state treasurer, provided that the effect of the loan is considered for purposes of determining the assessments. Payment of emergency costs from this account shall in no way restrict the right of the department to recover costs pursuant to RCW 76.04.390 as now or hereafter amended, or other laws.

When the department determines that a forest fire was started in the course of or as a result of a participating landowner operation, it shall notify the forest fire advisory board of such determination. Such determination shall be final, unless, within ninety days of such notification, the forest fire advisory board or any interested party, serves a request for a hearing before the department. Such hearing shall constitute a contested case under chapter 34.04 RCW and any appeal therefrom shall be to the superior court of Thurston county.

Sec. 12. Section 9, chapter 233, Laws of 1951 and RCW 76.06.110 are each amended to read as follows:

All moneys collected under the provisions of RCW 76.06.070, together with such moneys as may be ~~((appropriated by the legislature for the purposes of this chapter;))~~ contributed by the federal government or by any owner or agent, shall be deposited ~~((by the supervisor in the forest insect and disease control))~~ in the state general fund ~~((; and the moneys therein hereby are made available to the board))~~ for the purposes of this chapter.

~~((All unexpended balances remaining in said fund shall continue to be available for the purposes of this chapter and shall not revert to the state general fund;))~~

Any additional revenue earmarked for the purposes of this chapter which was not anticipated in the budget adopted by the legislature may be deposited in the general fund and allotted as unanticipated receipts pursuant to RCW 43.79.270 through 43.79.282 as now existing or hereafter amended.

Sec. 13. Section 3, chapter 116, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 1, chapter 12, Laws of 1963 and RCW 76.40.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Before any person may engage in log patrol activities he must have an existing license from the state therefor. Before any license is issued the applicant must apply to the department of natural resources on a form to be prescribed by said department. The application must contain the name and address of the applicant or applicants, the name, type, and size of equipment to be used, and the mailing address of the principal place of business at which address process may be served upon the applicant. Before any license may be issued the applicant must execute and file with said department, to be approved by it, a surety bond running to the state in the sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned that the applicant will comply with all the requirements of the laws of the state governing such activities, and will account for all stray logs taken into possession. Each application shall be accompanied by a remittance of one hundred dollars for each boat or truck to be used or operated in such activities by the licensee or agent. All licenses shall expire on June 30th following the date of issuance. The department shall issue each applicant a license and shall also issue distinctive stickers or other suitable devices for each piece of equipment listed in the application identifying it as engaged in log patrol activities. A fee of four dollars shall be paid for each pair of such stickers or devices used.

(2) All moneys received by the department under this chapter or chapter 76.42 RCW shall be deposited in the general fund.

No order may be entered under RCW 21.20.110 denying or revoking registration without appropriate prior notice to the applicant or registrant (as well as the employer or prospective employer if the applicant or registrant is a ((~~salesman~~)) salesperson or an investment adviser ((~~salesman~~)) salesperson), opportunity for hearing, and written findings of fact and conclusions of law.

Any security for which a registration statement has been filed under the securities act of 1933 or any securities for which filings have been made pursuant to rules and regulations A and A-M pursuant to subsection (b) of Sec. 3 of said securities act in connection with the same offering may be registered by coordination. A registration statement under this section shall contain the following information and be accompanied by the following documents, in addition to payment of the registration fee prescribed in RCW 21.20.340 and, if required under RCW 21.20.330, a consent to service of process meeting the requirements of that section:

Upon failure to receive the required notification and post-effective amendment with respect to the price amendment referred to in RCW 21.20.190, the director may enter a stop order, without notice of hearing, retroactively denying effectiveness to the registration statement or suspending its effectiveness until compliance with RCW 21.20.190, if ~~((he))~~ the director promptly notified the registrant by telephone or telegram (and promptly confirms by letter or telegram when ~~((he))~~ the director notifies by telephone) of the issuance of the order. If the registrant proves compliance with the requirements as to notice and post-effective amendment, the stop order is void as of the time of its entry. The director may by rule or otherwise waive either or both of the conditions specified in RCW 21.20.190(2) and (3). If the federal registration statement or other filing becomes effective before all these conditions are satisfied and they are not waived, the registration statement automatically becomes effective as soon as all the conditions are satisfied. If the registrant advises the director of the date when the federal registration statement or other filing is expected to become effective the director shall promptly advise the registrant by telephone or telegram, at the registrant's expense, whether all the conditions are satisfied and whether ~~((he))~~ the director then contemplates the institution of a proceeding under RCW 21.20.280 and 21.20.300; but this advice by the director does not preclude the institution of such a proceeding at any time.

The director may in his or her discretion mail notice to the registrant in any pending registration in which no action has been taken for nine months immediately prior to the mailing of such notice, advising such registrant that the pending registration will be terminated thirty days from the date of mailing unless on or before said termination date the registrant makes application in writing to the director showing good cause why it should be continued as a pending registration. (3) The security registered or sought to be registered is the subject of a permanent or temporary injunction of any court of competent jurisdiction entered under any other federal or state act applicable to the offering; but (a) the director may not institute a proceeding against an effective registration statement under this clause more than one year from the date of the injunction ~~((relief))~~ relied on, and (b) ~~((he))~~ the director may not enter an order under this clause on the basis of an injunction entered under any other state act unless that order or injunction was based on facts which would currently constitute a ground for a stop order under this section;

(5) The offering has worked or tended to work a fraud upon purchasers or would so operate;

Whenever it appears to the director that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder, ~~((he))~~ the director may in his or her discretion:

(1) Issue an order directing the person to cease and desist from continuing the act or practice: PROVIDED, That reasonable notice of and opportunity for a hearing shall be given: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the director may issue a temporary order pending the hearing which shall remain in effect until ten days after the hearing is held and which shall become final if the person to whom notice is addressed does not request a hearing within fifteen days after the receipt of notice; or

(2) The director may without issuing a cease and desist order, bring an action in any court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin any such acts or practices and to enforce compliance with this chapter or any rule or order hereunder. Upon a proper showing a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or writ of mandamus shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets. The director may not be required to post a bond.

(4) The director may include in any action authorized by subsection (2) of this section a claim for restitution or damages on behalf of the persons injured by the act or practice constituting the subject matter of the action. The court shall have the power to award appropriate relief to such persons, if the court finds that enforcement of the rights of such persons by private civil action, whether by class action or otherwise, would be so burdensome or expensive as to be impractical.

No indictment or information may be returned under this chapter more than five years after the alleged violation.

Sec. 29. Section 41, chapter 282, Laws of 1959 and RCW 21.20.410 are each amended to read as follows:

The director may refer such evidence as may be available concerning violations of this chapter or of any rule or order hereunder to the attorney general or the proper prosecuting attorney, who may in his or her discretion,

(1) Any person, who offers or sells a security in violation of any provisions of RCW 21.20.010 or 21.20.140 through 21.20.230, is liable to the person buying the security from him or her, who may sue either at law or in equity to recover the consideration paid for the security, together with interest at eight percent per annum from the date of payment, costs, and reasonable attorneys' fees, less the amount of any income received on the security, upon the tender of the security, or for damages if he or she no longer owns the security. Damages are the amount that would be recoverable upon a tender less (a) the value of the security when the buyer disposed of it and (b) interest at eight percent per annum from the date of disposition.

(2) Any person who buys a security in violation of the provisions of RCW 21.20.010 is liable to the person selling the security to him or her, who may sue either at law or in equity to recover the security, together with any income received on the security, upon tender of the consideration received, costs, and reasonable attorneys' fees, or if the security cannot be recovered, for damages. Damages are the value of the security when the buyer disposed of it, and any income received on the security, less the consideration received for the security, plus interest at eight percent per annum from the date of disposition, costs, and reasonable attorneys' fees.

(3) Every person who directly or indirectly controls a seller or buyer liable under subsection (1) or (2) above, every partner, officer, director or person who occupies a similar status or performs a similar function of such seller or buyer, every employee of such a seller or buyer who materially aids in the transaction, and every broker-dealer, (~~salesman~~) salesperson, or person exempt under the provisions of RCW 21.20.040 who materially aids in the transaction is also liable jointly and severally with and to the same extent as the seller or buyer, unless such person sustains the burden of proof that he or she did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the existence of the facts by reason of which the liability is alleged to exist. There is contribution as in cases of contract among the several persons so liable.

(4) (a) Every cause of action under this statute survives the death of any person who might have been a plaintiff or defendant.

(b) No person may sue under this section more than three years after the contract of sale for any violation of the provisions of RCW 21.20.140 through 21.20.230, or more than three years after a violation of the provisions of RCW 21.20.010, either was discovered by such person or would have been discovered by him or her in the exercise of reasonable care. No person may sue under this section if the buyer or seller receives a written rescission offer, which has been passed upon by the director before suit and at a time when he or she owned the security, to refund the consideration paid together with interest at eight percent per annum from the date of payment, less the amount of any income received on the security in the case of a buyer, or plus the amount of income received on the security in the case of a seller.

(5) No person who has made or engaged in the performance of any contract in violation of any provision of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder, or who has acquired any purported right under any such contract with knowledge of the facts by reason of which its making or performance was in violation, may base any suit on the contract. Any condition, stipulation, or provision binding any person acquiring any security to waive compliance with any provision of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder is void.

(6) Any tender specified in this section may be made at any time before entry of judgment.

Sec. 31. Section 13, chapter 77, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 21.20.435 are each amended to read as follows:

Proof of failure to comply with the assurance of discontinuance shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this chapter.

Sec. 32. Section 44, chapter 282, Laws of 1959 and RCW 21.20.440 are each amended to read as follows:

A copy of the petition shall be forthwith served upon the director, and thereupon the director shall certify and file in court a copy of the filing, testimony, and other evidence upon which the order was entered. When these have been filed, the court has exclusive jurisdiction to affirm, modify, enforce, or set aside the order, in whole or in part. No objection to the order may be considered by the court unless it was urged before the director or there were reasonable grounds for failure to do so. The findings of the director as to the facts, if supported by substantial evidence, are conclusive. If either party applies to the court for leave to adduce additional evidence, and shows to the satisfaction of the court that the additional evidence is material and that there were reasonable grounds for failure to adduce the evidence in the hearing before the director, the court may order the additional evidence to be taken before the director and to be adduced upon the hearing in such manner and upon such conditions as the court may consider proper. The director may modify his or her findings (~~as the facts;~~) by reason of the additional evidence so taken; and ~~((he))~~ the director shall file any modified or new findings, which if supported by substantial evidence shall be conclusive, and any recommendation for the modification or setting aside of the original order. The commencement of proceedings under this ~~((action-[section]))~~ section does not, unless specifically ordered by the court, operate as a stay of the director's order.

The director may classify securities, persons, and matters within ~~((his))~~ the director's jurisdiction, and prescribe different requirements for different classes. No rule or form, may be made unless the director finds that the action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and consistent with the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of this chapter. In prescribing rules and forms the director may cooperate with the securities administrators of the other states and the securities and exchange commission with a view to effectuating the policy of this statute to achieve maximum uniformity in the form and content of registration statements, applications, and reports wherever practicable. CHAPTER 84

SERVICES—ENVIRONMENTAL RESPONSIBILITY

AN ACT Relating to transportation; facilitating the restoration of transportation services disrupted by the sinking of the Hood Canal bridge; amending section 3, chapter 286, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 182, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 90.58.030; adding a new section to chapter 43.21C RCW; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature finds that high tides and hurricane force winds on February 13, 1979, caused conditions resulting in the catastrophic destruction of the Hood Canal bridge on state route 104, a state highway on the federal-aid system; and, as a consequence, the state of Washington has sustained a sudden and complete failure of a major segment of highway system with a disastrous impact on transportation services between the counties of Washington's Olympic peninsula and the remainder of the state. The governor has by proclamation found that these conditions constitute an emergency. To minimize the economic loss and hardship to residents of the Puget Sound and Olympic peninsula regions, it is the intent of this act to authorize the department of transportation to undertake immediately all necessary actions to restore interim transportation services across Hood Canal and Puget Sound and upon the Kitsap and Olympic peninsulas. The department of transportation is directed to proceed with such actions in an environmentally responsible manner that would meet the substantive objectives of the state environmental policy act and the shorelines management act, and shall consult with the department of ecology in the planning process. The exemptions from the state environmental policy act and the shorelines management act contained in sections 2 and 3 of this 1979 act are intended to approve and ratify the timely actions of the department of transportation taken and to be taken to restore interim transportation services without procedural delays.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 43.21C RCW a new section to read as follows:

Nothing in RCW 43.21C.030(2)(c) shall be construed to require the preparation of a detailed statement or the making of a threshold determination for any decision or any action commenced prior to February 13, 1981 pertaining to the restoration of interim transportation services, as may be necessary as a consequence of the destruction of the Hood Canal bridge, including, but not limited to, improvements to highways, development of park and ride facilities, and development of ferry terminal facilities until a new or reconstructed Hood Canal bridge is open to traffic.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 286, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 182, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 90.58.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(c) "Shorelines of the state" are the total of all "shorelines" and "shorelines of state-wide significance" within the state;

(e) "Shorelines of state-wide significance" means the following shorelines of the state:

(i) The area between the ordinary high water mark and the western boundary of the state from Cape Disappointment on the south to Cape Flattery on the north, including harbors, bays, estuaries, and inlets;

(f) "Wetlands" or "wetland areas" means those lands extending landward for two hundred feet in all directions as measured on a horizontal plane from the ordinary high water mark; floodways and contiguous floodplain areas landward two hundred feet from such floodways; and all marshes, bogs, swamps, and river deltas associated with the streams, lakes, and tidal waters which are subject to the provisions of this chapter; the same to be designated as to location by the department of ecology: PROVIDED, That any county or city may determine that portion of a one-hundred-year-flood plain to be included in its master program as long as such portion includes, as a minimum, the floodway and the adjacent land extending landward two hundred feet therefrom;

(g) "Floodway" means those portions of the area of a river valley lying streamward from the outer limits of a watercourse upon which flood waters are carried during periods of flooding that occur with reasonable regularity, although not necessarily annually, said floodway being identified, under normal condition, by changes in surface soil conditions or changes in types or quality of vegetative ground cover condition. The floodway shall not include those lands that can reasonably be expected to be protected from flood waters by flood control devices maintained by or maintained under license from the federal government, the state, or a political subdivision of the state.

(3) Procedural terms:

(a) "Guidelines" means those standards adopted to implement the policy of this chapter for regulation of use of the shorelines of the state prior to adoption of master programs. Such standards shall also provide criteria to local governments and the department in developing master programs;

A feedlot shall be an enclosure or facility used or capable of being used for feeding livestock hay, grain, silage, or other livestock feed, but shall not include land for growing crops or vegetation for livestock feeding and/or grazing, nor shall it include normal livestock wintering operations;

The permit shall be processed in accordance with this chapter. Following a denial of a permit and the exhaustion of all subsequent appeals, or within six months after the new or reconstructed Hood Canal bridge is open to traffic, whichever occurs later, the department shall remove all dolphins, wingwalls, barges, piers, and similar structures constructed or assembled at the temporary ferry terminals. If a permit is granted, such structures may remain in place.

of the amount of taxes levied for state purposes, to compute the required percent on the assessed value of property in the county, and such state taxes shall be extended on the tax rolls in the proper column: PROVIDED, That the rates so computed shall not be such as to raise a surplus of more than five percent over the total amount required by the state board of equalization.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The office of financial management and the state auditor shall take such steps and transmit to the department of revenue such books and records as may be necessary to accomplish the transfer of duties to the department of revenue under sections 3 through 5 of this act.

Immediately after the last day of each month, the county treasurer shall pay over to the state treasurer the amount collected by him and credited to the various state funds, but every such payment shall be subject to correction for error discovered upon the quarterly settlement next following. The county auditor shall at the same time ascertain and report to the ((~~state auditor~~)) department of revenue in writing the amounts due to the various state funds. If they are not paid to the state treasurer before the twentieth day of the month he shall make a sight draft on the county treasurer for such amount. On the first Mondays of January, April, July, and October, respectively, of each year, the county treasurer shall make full settlement with the county auditor of his receipts and collections for all purposes from the date of the last settlement up to and including the last day of the preceding month. The county auditor shall, on or before the fifteenth day of the month in which such settlement is made, notify the ((~~state auditor~~)) department of revenue of the result of the quarterly settlement with the county treasurer. certified copy of the final judgment or decree canceling, reducing or modifying taxes, or of a certificate from the county treasurer of the cancellation by sale to an irrigation district, or of a certificate from the commissioner of public lands and the county treasurer of the cancellation of public land contracts or leases and nonpayment of taxes thereon, as the case may be, make corresponding entries and corrections on his records of the state's portion of reduced or canceled tax and shall notify the county auditor thereof who shall make like entries and corrections on his tax roll records.

Upon canceling taxes deemed uncollectible, the county commissioners shall notify the county auditor of such action, whereupon the county auditor shall deduct on his records the amount of such uncollectible taxes due the various state funds and shall immediately notify the ((state auditor)) department of revenue of his action and of the reason therefor; which uncollectible tax shall not then nor thereafter be due or owing the various state funds and the necessary corrections shall be made by the county treasurer upon the quarterly settlement next following.

The county auditor shall then notify the ((state auditor)) department of revenue of the taxes due the state from the assessments which did not appear on the assessment list certified by the county board of equalization to the state board of equalization. The county treasurer shall make proper accounting to the county auditor of all sums collected as either advance tax or supplemental or omitted tax, whereupon the county auditor shall notify the ((state auditor)) department of revenue of the amounts due the various state funds according to the levy used in extending such tax and those amounts shall immediately become due and owing to the various state funds, to be paid to the state treasurer in the same manner as taxes extended on the regular tax roll.

AN ACT Relating to public works contracts for cities and towns; amending section 1, chapter 56, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 35.22.620; and amending section 35.23.352, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 1, chapter 41, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 35.23.352; adding a new section to chapter 35A.43 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 35.22 RCW; and adding a new section to chapter 35.23 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 1, chapter 56, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 35.22.620 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any public work or improvement of a first class city shall be done by contract pursuant to public notice and call for competitive bids, whenever the estimated cost of such work or improvement, including the cost of materials, supplies, and equipment will exceed the sum of ten thousand dollars: PROVIDED, That whenever this public work or improvement is for construction of water mains, such sum shall be fifteen thousand dollars. When any emergency shall require the immediate execution of such public work, upon the finding of the existence of such emergency by the authority having power to direct such public work to be done and duly entered of record, publication of description and estimate may be made within seven days after the commencement of the work.

(2) In addition to the procedures of subsection (1) of this section, a first class city may use a small works roster and award contracts under this subsection for contracts of thirty thousand dollars or less.

(a) The city may maintain a small works roster comprised of all contractors who have requested to be on the roster and are, where required by law, properly licensed or registered to perform such work in this state.

(b) Whenever work is done by contract, the estimated cost of which is thirty thousand dollars or less, and the city uses the small works roster, the city shall invite proposals from all appropriate contractors on the small works roster; PROVIDED, That whenever possible, the city shall invite at least one proposal from a minority contractor who shall otherwise qualify under this section. Such invitation shall include an estimate of the scope and nature of the work to be performed, and materials and equipment to be furnished.

(c) When awarding such a contract for work, the estimated cost of which is thirty thousand dollars or less, the city shall award the contract to the contractor submitting the lowest responsible bid.

Sec. 2. Section 35.23.352, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 1, chapter 41, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 35.23.352 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any second or third class city or any town (~~(of the second, third or fourth class)~~) may construct any public work or improvement by contract or day labor without calling for bids therefor whenever the estimated cost of such work or improvement, including cost of materials, supplies and equipment will not exceed the sum of ~~((five))~~ fifteen thousand dollars. Whenever the cost of such public work or improvement, including materials, supplies and equipment, will exceed ~~((five))~~ fifteen thousand dollars, the same shall be done by contract. All such contracts shall be let at public bidding upon posting notice calling for sealed bids upon the work. Such notice thereof shall be posted in a public place in the city or town and by publication in the official newspaper once each week for two consecutive weeks before the date fixed for opening the bids. The notice shall generally state the nature of the work to be done that plans and specifications therefor shall then be on file in the city or town hall for public inspections, and require that bids be sealed and filed with the council or commission within the time specified therein. Each bid shall be accompanied by a bid proposal deposit in the form of a cashier's check, postal money order, or surety bond to the council or commission for a sum of not less than five percent of the amount of the bid, and no bid shall be considered unless accompanied by such bid proposal deposit. If there is no official newspaper the notice shall be published in a newspaper published or of general circulation in the city or town. The ~~((city))~~ council or commission of the city or town shall let the contract to the lowest responsible bidder or shall have power by resolution to reject any or all bids and to make further calls for bids in the same manner as the original call. When the contract is let then all bid proposal deposits shall be returned to the bidders except that of the successful bidder which shall be retained until a contract is entered into and a bond to perform the work furnished, with surety satisfactory to the council or commission, in the full amount of the contract price. If the bidder fails to enter into the contract in accordance with his bid and furnish such bond within ten days from the date at which he is notified that he is the successful bidder, the check or postal money order and the amount thereof shall be forfeited to the council or commission or the council or commission shall recover the amount of the surety bond. If no bid is received on the first call the ~~((city))~~ council or commission may readvertise and make a second call, or may enter into a contract without any further call or may purchase the supplies, material or equipment and perform such work or improvement by day labor.

(2) In addition to the procedures of subsection (1) of this section, a second or third class city or a town may use a small works roster and award contracts under this subsection for contracts of twenty thousand dollars or less.

(a) The city or town may maintain a small works roster comprised of all contractors who have requested to be on the roster and are, where required by law, properly licensed or registered to perform such work in this state.

(b) Whenever work is done by contract, the estimated cost of which is twenty thousand dollars or less, and the city uses the small works roster, the city or town shall invite proposals from all appropriate contractors on the small works roster: PROVIDED, That whenever possible, the city or town shall invite at least one proposal from a minority contractor who shall otherwise qualify under this section. Such invitation shall include an estimate of the scope and nature of the work to be performed, and materials and equipment to be furnished.

(c) When awarding such a contract for work, the estimated cost of which is twenty thousand dollars or less, the city or town shall award the contract to the contractor submitting the lowest responsible bid.

(3) Any purchase of supplies, material, equipment or services other than professional services, except for public work or improvement, where the cost thereof exceeds two thousand dollars shall be made upon call for bids; PROVIDED, That the limitations herein shall not apply to any purchases of materials at auctions conducted by the government of the United States, any agency thereof or by the state of Washington or a political subdivision thereof ((in the same method and under the same conditions as required herein on a call for bids for public work or improvement)).

(4) Bids shall be called annually and at a time and in the manner prescribed by ordinance for the publication in a newspaper published or of general circulation in the city or town of all notices or newspaper publications required by law. The contract shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder.

(5) For advertisement and competitive bidding to be dispensed with as to purchases between two thousand and four thousand dollars, the city legislative authority must authorize by resolution a procedure for securing telephone and/or written quotations from enough vendors to assure establishment of a competitive price and for awarding such contracts for purchase of materials, equipment, or services to the lowest responsible bidder. Immediately after the award is made, the bid quotations obtained shall be recorded and open to public inspection and shall be available by telephone inquiry.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 35A.43 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Procedures for any public work or improvement contracts or purchases for code cities shall be governed by the following statutes, as indicated:

(1) For code cities of twenty thousand population or over, RCW 35.22-.620, as now or hereafter amended, and section 5 of this 1979 act; and

(2) For code cities under twenty thousand population; RCW 35.23.352, as now or hereafter amended, and section 6 of this 1979 act.

 *NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 35.22 RCW a new section to read as follows:

For any public work or improvement of a first class city, municipal work forces may be combined with those of private contractors so long as the dollar value of the city's share does not exceed seven thousand five hundred dollars.

*Sec. 4. was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

* NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 35.23 RCW a new section to read as follows:

For any public work or improvement of a second or third class city or of a town, municipal work forces may be combined with those of private contractors so long as the dollar value of the city's or town's share does not exceed eleven thousand two hundred fifty dollars.

*Sec. 5. was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

Passed the Senate April 17, 1979.

Passed the House April 11, 1979.

Approved by the Governor April 26, 1979, with the exception of Sections 4 and 5 which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1979.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to two sections of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2161 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to public works contracts for cities and towns."

This bill provides cities and towns the needed flexibility to award low valued contracts. It provides for the establishment of small public works contractor rosters, and for second and third class cities and towns it increases from five to fifteen thousand dollars the value of a contract that may be let for public works projects and maintenance without competitive bids.

Sections 4 and 5 would permit the combining of municipal work forces with those of private contractors. These two sections fail to define the "dollar value of the city's or town's share" except in amount. This may create substantial confusion in the future with regard to labor and material costs, and equipment and overhead charges. Although the dollar amount is limited and places a significant constraint on this activity, there is a potential for future problems. There may be difficulties in finding fault, with possible protracted litigation, in the event of an accident during construction or finding of error upon completion of the project. Problems in employee relations could easily develop by having both public and private sector employees working side by side on the same job, because the wages, working hours, holiday schedules and working conditions are considerably different in the two sectors. My intention is to preclude such problems.

With the exceptions of Sections 4 and 5, which I have vetoed, the remainder of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2161 is approved."

AGRICULTURAL COMMODITY MARKETING ORDERS—ANNUAL ASSESSMENT FEE

AN ACT Relating to agriculture; and amending section 15.66.150, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.66.150.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 15.66.150, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.66.150 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby levied, and there shall be collected by each commission, upon each and every unit of any agricultural commodity specified in any marketing order an annual assessment which shall be paid by the producer thereof upon each and every such unit sold, processed, stored or delivered for sale, processing or storage by him. Such assessments shall be expressed as a stated amount of money per unit. The total amount of such annual assessment to be paid by all affected producers of such commodity shall not exceed((:

(1) ~~In the case of wheat, one-half cent per bushel;~~

(2) ~~In the case of all other commodities,))~~ three percent of the total market value of all affected units sold, processed, stored or delivered for sale, processing or storage by all affected producers of such units during the year to which the assessment applies.

Every marketing order shall prescribe the per unit rate of such assessment. Such rate may be at the full amount of, or at any lesser amount than the amount hereinabove limited and may be altered from time to time by amendment of such order. In every such marketing order and amendment the determination of such rate shall be based upon the volume and price of sales of affected units during a period which the director determines to be a representative period. The per unit rate of assessment prescribed in any such order or amendment shall for all purposes and times be deemed to be within the limits of assessment above provided until such time as such order is amended as to such rate. However, at the end of any year, any affected producer may obtain a refund from the commission of any assessment payments made which exceed three percent of the total market value of all of the affected commodity sold, processed, stored or delivered for sale, processing or storage by such producer during the year. Such refund shall be made only upon satisfactory proof given by such producer in accordance with reasonable rules and regulations prescribed by the director. Such market value shall be based upon the average sales price received by such producer during the year from all his bona fide sales or, if such producer did not sell twenty-five percent or more of all of the affected commodity produced by him during the year, such market value shall be determined by the director upon other sales of the affected commodity determined by the director to be representative and comparable. No assessment or rate or amendment thereof shall apply in any order unless and until confirmed by a majority of affected producers participating in a vote taken in the manner by this chapter providing for the election of commission members.

To collect such assessment each order may require:

(1) Stamps to be purchased from the affected commodity commission or other authority stated in such order and attached to the containers, invoices, shipping documents, inspection certificates, releases, or receiving receipts or tickets (said stamps to be canceled immediately upon being attached and the date of cancellation placed thereon).

(2) Payment of producer assessments before the affected units are shipped off the farm or payment of assessments at different or later times, and in such event the order may require any person subject to the assessment to give adequate assurance or security for its payment.

(3) Every affected producer subject to assessment under such order to deposit with the commission in advance an amount based on the estimated number of affected units upon which such person will be subject to such assessment in any one year during which such marketing order is in force, or upon any other basis which the director determines to be reasonable and equitable and specifies in such order, but in no event shall such deposit exceed twenty-five percent of the estimated total annual assessment payable by such person. At the close of such marketing year the sums so deposited shall be adjusted to the total of such assessments payable by such person.

(4) Handlers receiving the affected commodity from the producer, including warehousemen and processors, to collect producer assessments from producers whose production they handle and remit the same to the affected commission. The lending agency for a commodity credit corporation loan to producers shall be deemed a handler for the purpose of this subsection. No affected units shall be transported, carried, shipped, sold, stored or otherwise handled or disposed of until every due and payable assessment herein provided for has been paid and the receipt issued, but no liability hereunder shall attach to common carriers in the regular course of their business.

Passed the House March 21, 1979.

Passed the Senate April 17, 1979.

Approved by the Governor April 27, 1979.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 27, 1979.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 82.32.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 77, chapter 278, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 82.32.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Such registration certificate shall be personal and nontransferable and shall be valid as long as the taxpayer continues in business and pays the tax accrued to the state. In case business is transacted at two or more separate places by one taxpayer, a separate registration certificate for each place at which business is transacted with the public shall be required, but, for such additional certificates no ~~((fee))~~ deposit shall be required. Sec. 3. Section 82.32.340, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 184, chapter 151, Laws of 1979 and RCW 82.32.340 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding the foregoing limitations there shall be refunded or credited to taxpayers engaged in the performance of United States government contracts or subcontracts the amount of any tax paid, measured by that portion of the amounts received from the United States, which taxpayer is required by contract or applicable federal statute to refund or credit to the United States, if claim for such refund is filed by the taxpayer with the department within one year of the date that the amount of the refund or credit due to the United States is finally determined and filed within four years of the date on which the tax was paid: PROVIDED, That no interest shall be allowed on such refund.

Any such refunds shall be made by means of vouchers approved by the department and by the issuance of state warrants drawn upon and payable from such funds as the legislature may provide.

STATE RETIREMENT BENEFICIARIES—MONTHLY BENEFITS

AN ACT Relating to retirement systems; adding a new section to chapter 41.40 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 41.32 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 43.43 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 2.12 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 28B.10 RCW; making appropriations; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 41.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, effective July 1, 1979, no beneficiary receiving a retirement allowance pursuant to this chapter shall receive, as the pension portion of that retirement allowance, less than ten dollars per month for each year of service creditable to the person whose service is the basis of the pension. Portions of a year shall be treated as fractions of a year and the decimal equivalent shall be multiplied by ten dollars. Where the pension payable was adjusted at the time benefit payments to the beneficiary commenced, the minimum pension provided in this section shall be adjusted in a manner consistent with that adjustment.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall not be applicable to those receiving benefits pursuant to RCW 41.40.220(1), 41.44.170(5), or 41.40.610 through 41.40.740.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 41.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, effective July 1, 1979, no beneficiary receiving a retirement allowance pursuant to this chapter shall receive, as the pension portion of that retirement allowance, less than ten dollars per month for each year of service creditable to the person whose service is the basis of the pension. Portions of a year shall be treated as fractions of a year and the decimal equivalent shall be multiplied by ten dollars. Where the pension payable was adjusted at the time benefit payments to the beneficiary commenced, the minimum pension provided in this section shall be adjusted in a manner consistent with that adjustment.

(2) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, effective July 1, 1979, the retirement allowance of each beneficiary who either is receiving benefits pursuant to RCW 41.32.520 or 41.32.550 as of December 31, 1978, or commenced receiving a monthly retirement allowance under this chapter as of a date no later than July 1, 1974, shall be permanently increased by a post-retirement adjustment. This adjustment shall be in lieu of any adjustments provided under RCW 41.32.499(6) as of July 1, 1979, or July 1, 1980, for the affected beneficiaries. Such adjustment shall be calculated as follows:

(a) Retirement allowances to which this subsection and subsection (1) of this section are both applicable shall be determined by first applying subsection (1) and then applying this subsection. The department shall determine the total years of creditable service and the total dollar benefit base accrued as of December 31, 1978, except that this determination shall take into account only those beneficiaries to whom this subsection applies;

(b) The department shall multiply the total benefits determined in (a) of this subsection by six percent and divide the dollar value thus determined by the total service determined in (a) of this subsection. The resultant figure shall then be a post-retirement increase factor which shall be applied as specified in (c) of this subsection;

(c) Each beneficiary to whom this subsection applies shall receive an increase which is the product of the factor determined in (b) of this subsection multiplied by the years of creditable service.

(3) The provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall not be applicable to those receiving benefits pursuant to RCW 41.32.540 or 41.32.760 through 41.32.825.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 43.43 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, effective July 1, 1979, no beneficiary receiving a retirement allowance pursuant to this chapter shall receive less than ten dollars per month for each year of service creditable to the person whose service is the basis of the retirement allowance. Portions of a year shall be treated as fractions of a year and the decimal equivalent shall be multiplied by ten dollars. Where the retirement allowance was adjusted at the time benefit payments to the beneficiary commenced, the minimum retirement allowance provided in this subsection shall be adjusted in a manner consistent with that adjustment. The minimum retirement allowance provided in this subsection shall not be applicable to those receiving benefits pursuant to RCW 43.43.040 or 43.43.270 (3) or (4).

(2) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, effective July 1, 1979, the retirement allowance of each beneficiary who either is receiving benefits pursuant to RCW 43.43.270 as of December 31, 1978, or commenced receiving a monthly retirement allowance under this chapter as of a date no later than July 1, 1974, shall be permanently increased by a post-retirement adjustment. This adjustment shall be in lieu of any adjustments provided under RCW 43.43.260(5) as of July 1, 1979, or July 1, 1980, for the affected beneficiaries, except that in no case shall such adjustment be less than the total of those which would be provided under RCW 43.43.260(5) as of July 1, 1979, and July 1, 1980. Such adjustment shall be calculated as follows:

(a) Retirement allowances to which this subsection and subsection (1) of this section are both applicable shall be determined by first applying subsection (1) and then applying this subsection. The department shall determine the total years of creditable service and the total dollar benefit base accrued as of December 31, 1978, except that this determination shall take into account only those beneficiaries to whom this subsection applies;

(b) The department shall multiply the total benefits determined in (a) of this subsection by six percent and divide the dollar value thus determined by the total service determined in (a) of this subsection. The resultant figure shall then be a post-retirement increase factor which shall be applied as specified in (c) of this subsection;

(c) Each beneficiary to whom this subsection applies shall receive an increase which is the product of the factor determined in (b) of this subsection multiplied by the years of creditable service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 2.12 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, effective July 1, 1979, no person receiving a monthly benefit pursuant to this chapter shall receive a monthly benefit of less than ten dollars per month for each year of service creditable to the person whose service is the basis of the retirement allowance. Portions of a year shall be treated as fractions of a year and the decimal equivalent shall be multiplied by ten dollars. Where the monthly benefit was adjusted at the time benefit payments to the beneficiary commenced, the minimum benefit provided in this section shall be adjusted in a manner consistent with that adjustment.

(2) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, effective July 1, 1979, the monthly benefit of each person who either is receiving benefits pursuant to RCW 2.12.020 or 2.12.030 as of December 31, 1978, or commenced receiving a monthly benefit under this chapter as of a date no later than July 1, 1974, shall be permanently increased by a post-retirement adjustment. This adjustment shall be in lieu of any adjustments provided under RCW 2.12.037 as of July 1, 1979, or July 1, 1980, for the affected persons. Such adjustment shall be calculated as follows:

(a) Monthly benefits to which this subsection and subsection (1) of this section are both applicable shall be determined by first applying subsection (1) and then applying this subsection. The department shall determine the total years of creditable service and the total dollar benefit base accrued as of December 31, 1978, except that this determination shall take into account only those persons to whom this subsection applies;

(b) The department shall multiply the total benefits determined in (a) of this subsection by six percent and divide the dollar value thus determined by the total service determined in (a) of this subsection. The resultant figure shall then be a post-retirement increase factor which shall be applied as specified in (c) of this subsection;

(c) Each person to whom this subsection applies shall receive an increase which is the product of the factor determined in (b) of this subsection multiplied by the years of creditable service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 28B.10 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) For any person receiving a monthly benefit pursuant to a program established under RCW 28B.10.400, the pension portion of such benefit shall be the sum of the following amounts:

(a) One-half of the monthly benefit payable under such program by a life insurance company; and

(b) The monthly equivalent of the supplemental benefit described in RCW 28B.10.400(3).

(2) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, effective July 1, 1979, no person receiving a monthly benefit pursuant to RCW 28B.10.400 shall receive, as the pension portion of that benefit, less than ten dollars per month for each year of service creditable to the person whose service is the basis of the benefit. Portions of a year shall be treated as fractions of a year and the decimal equivalent shall be multiplied by ten dollars. Where the benefit was adjusted at the time benefit payments to the beneficiary commenced, the minimum pension provided in this section shall be adjusted in a manner consistent with that adjustment.

(3) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, effective July 1, 1979, the monthly benefit of each person who commenced receiving a monthly benefit under this chapter as of a date no later than July 1, 1974, shall be permanently increased by a post-retirement adjustment. Such adjustment shall be calculated as follows:

(a) Monthly benefits to which this subsection and subsection (2) of this section are both applicable shall be determined by first applying subsection (2) and then applying this subsection. The department shall determine the total years of creditable service and the total dollar benefit base accrued as of December 31, 1978, except that this determination shall take into account only those persons to whom this subsection applies;

(b) The department shall multiply the total benefits determined in (a) of this subsection by six percent and divide the dollar value thus determined by the total service determined in (a) of this subsection. The resultant figure shall then be a post-retirement increase factor which shall be applied as specified in (c) of this subsection;

(c) Each person to whom this subsection applies shall receive an increase which is the product of the factor determined in (b) of this subsection multiplied by the years of creditable service.

All harbor area leases will stipulate the percentage rate of said values that will be paid as the annual rent during the period until the next reappraisal of the value of the harbor area as established herein: PROVIDED, That the applicant, or lessee, being dissatisfied with the valuation as fixed by the department of natural resources shall have the right of appeal from the findings of the department to a valuation board to be composed of the county commissioners, the county treasurer and the county assessor of the county in which the harbor area is located. Service of the notice may be made by any person qualified to serve a summons in a civil action. A majority of said officers shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of determining the question, and the valuation shall be determined by a majority vote of the members of said board. If a majority of the members of said board participate in said meeting no question shall be made as to any irregularity of the giving of the notices required. The meeting of the board and its deliberations and voting shall be open to the public and any interested parties. Such fine shall be in addition to any other punishment prescribed for such conduct and shall be imposed along with such punishment in the same proceedings. In addition, the food fish involved in the violation shall be forfeited to the state.

Sec. 2. Section 75.28.380, chapter 12, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 5, chapter 171, Laws of 1957 and RCW 75.28.380 are each amended to read as follows:

CHAPTER 105

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE—OFFICIAL RESPONSE

AN ACT Relating to domestic violence; adding a new chapter to Title 10 RCW; creating new sections; and prescribing penalties.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The purpose of this act is to recognize the importance of domestic violence as a serious crime against society and to assure the victim of domestic violence the maximum protection from abuse which the law and those who enforce the law can provide. The legislature finds that the existing criminal statutes are adequate to provide protection for victims of domestic violence. However, previous societal attitudes have been reflected in policies and practices of law enforcement agencies and prosecutors which have resulted in differing treatment of crimes occurring between cohabitants and of the same crimes occurring between strangers. Only recently has public perception of the serious consequences of domestic violence to society and to the victims led to the recognition of the necessity for early intervention by law enforcement agencies. It is the intent of the legislature that the official response to cases of domestic violence shall stress the enforcement of the laws to protect the victim and shall communicate the attitude that violent behavior is not excused or tolerated. Furthermore, it is the intent of the legislature that criminal laws be enforced without regard to whether the persons involved are or were married, cohabiting, or involved in a relationship.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Cohabitant" means a person who is married or who is cohabiting with a person as husband and wife at the present time or at some time in the past. Any person who has one or more children in common with another person, regardless of whether they have been married or lived together at any time, shall be treated as a cohabitant.

(2) "Domestic violence" includes but is not limited to any of the following crimes when committed by one cohabitant against another:

- (a) Assault in the first degree (RCW 9A.36.010);
- (b) Assault in the second degree (RCW 9A.36.020);
- (c) Simple assault (RCW 9A.36.040);
- (d) Reckless endangerment (RCW 9A.36.050);
- (e) Coercion (RCW 9A.36.070);
- (f) Burglary in the first degree (RCW 9A.52.020);
- (g) Burglary in the second degree (RCW 9A.52.030);
- (h) Criminal trespass in the first degree (RCW 9A.52.070);
- (i) Criminal trespass in the second degree (RCW 9A.52.080);
- (j) Malicious mischief in the first degree (RCW 9A.48.070);
- (k) Malicious mischief in the second degree (RCW 9A.48.080);
- (l) Malicious mischief in the third degree (RCW 9A.48.090);
- (m) Kidnapping in the first degree (RCW 9A.40.020);
- (n) Kidnapping in the second degree (RCW 9A.40.030); and

(o) Unlawful imprisonment (RCW 9A.40.040).

(3) "Victim" means a cohabitant who has been subjected to domestic violence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) All training relating to the handling of domestic violence complaints by law enforcement officers shall stress enforcement of criminal laws in domestic situations, availability of community resources, and protection of the victim. Law enforcement agencies and community organizations with expertise in the issue of domestic violence shall cooperate in all aspects of such training.

(2) The primary duty of peace officers, when responding to a domestic violence situation, is to enforce the laws allegedly violated and to protect the complaining party.

(3)(a) When a peace officer responds to a domestic violence call and has probable cause to believe that a crime has been committed, the peace officer may exercise arrest powers with reference to the criteria in RCW 10.31-.100. The officer shall notify the victim of the victim's right to initiate a criminal proceeding in all cases where the officer has not exercised arrest powers or decided to initiate criminal proceedings by citation or otherwise. The parties in such cases shall also be advised of the importance of preserving evidence.

(b) A peace officer responding to a domestic violence call shall take a complete offense report including the officer's disposition of the case.

(4) The peace officer may offer, arrange, or facilitate transportation for the victim to a hospital for treatment of injuries or to a place of safety or shelter.

(5) The law enforcement agency shall forward the offense report to the appropriate prosecutor as soon as practicable, if there is probable cause to believe that an offense has been committed.

(6) Each law enforcement agency shall make as soon as practicable a written record and shall maintain records of all incidents of domestic violence reported to it.

(7) Records kept pursuant to subsections (3) and (6) of this section shall be made identifiable by means of a departmental code for domestic violence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) Because of the serious nature of domestic violence, the court in domestic violence actions:

(a) Shall not dismiss any charge or delay disposition because of concurrent dissolution or other civil proceedings;

(b) Shall not require proof that either party is seeking a dissolution of marriage prior to instigation of criminal proceedings;

(c) Shall waive any requirement that the victim's location be disclosed to any person, other than the attorney of a criminal defendant, upon a showing that there is a possibility of further violence: PROVIDED, That the court may order a criminal defense attorney not to disclose to his client the victim's location; and

(d) Shall identify by any reasonable means on docket sheets those criminal actions arising from acts of domestic violence.

(2) Because of the likelihood of repeated violence directed at those who have been victims of domestic violence in the past, when any defendant charged with a crime involving domestic violence is released from custody before trial on bail or personal recognizance, the court authorizing the release may prohibit the defendant from having any contact with the victim. Wilful violation of a court order issued under this section is a misdemeanor. The written order releasing the defendant shall contain the court's directives and shall bear the legend: Violation of this order is a criminal offense under chapter 9A RCW and is also subject to civil contempt proceedings. A certified copy of such order shall be provided to the victim.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. When a defendant is found guilty of a crime and a condition of the sentence restricts the defendant's ability to have contact with the victim, such condition shall be recorded and a written certified copy of that order shall be provided to the victim.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The public attorney responsible for making the decision whether or not to prosecute shall advise the victim of that decision within five days, and, prior to making that decision shall advise the victim, upon the victim's request, of the status of the case. Notification to the victim that charges will not be filed shall include a description of the procedures available to the victim in that jurisdiction to initiate a criminal proceeding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A peace officer shall not be held liable in any civil action for an arrest based on probable cause, enforcement in good faith of a court order, or any other action or omission in good faith under this chapter arising from an alleged incident of domestic violence brought by any party to the incident.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 2 through 7 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 10 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Passed the House April 19, 1979.

Passed the Senate April 11, 1979.

Approved by the Governor April 30, 1979.

CHAPTER 110

[Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2197]

MILL TAILINGS LICENSING AND PERPETUAL CARE ACT OF 1979

AN ACT Relating to energy and utilities; adding a new chapter to Title 70 RCW; and prescribing an effective date.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature finds that:

(1) The milling of uranium and thorium creates potential hazards to the health of the citizens of the state of Washington in that potentially hazardous radioactive isotopes, decay products of uranium and thorium, naturally occurring in relatively dispersed geologic formations, are brought to one location on the surface and pulverized in the process of mining and milling uranium and thorium.

(2) These radioactive isotopes, in addition to creating a field of gamma radiation in the vicinity of the tailings area, also exude potentially hazardous radioactive gas and particulates into the atmosphere from the tailings areas, and contaminate the milling facilities, thereby creating hazards which will be present for many generations.

(3) The public health and welfare of the citizens demands that the state assure that the public health be protected by requiring that: (a) prior to the termination of any radioactive materials license, all milling facilities and associated tailings piles will be decommissioned in such a manner as to bring the potential public health hazard to a minimum; and (b) such environmental radiation monitoring as is necessary to verify the status of decommissioned facilities will be conducted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires a different meaning, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Department" means the department of social and health services.

(2) "Secretary" means the secretary of social and health services.

(3) "Site" means the restricted area as defined by the United States nuclear regulatory commission.

(4) "Tailings" means the residue remaining after extraction of uranium or thorium from the ore whether or not the residue is left in piles, but shall not include ore bodies nor ore stock piles.

(5) "License" means a radioactive materials license issued under chapter 70.98 RCW and the rules adopted under chapter 70.98 RCW.

(6) "Termination of license" means the cancellation of the license after permanent cessation of operations. Temporary interruptions or suspensions of production due to economic or other conditions are not a permanent cessation of operations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) Any person who proposes to operate a uranium or thorium mill within the state of Washington after January 1, 1980, shall obtain a license from the department to mill thorium and uranium. The period of the license shall be determined by the secretary and shall be initially valid for not more than two years and renewable thereafter for periods of not more than five years. No license may be granted unless:

(a) The owner or operator of the mill submits to the department a plan for reclamation and disposal of tailings and for decommissioning the site that conforms to the criteria and standards then in effect for the protection of the public safety and health; and

(b) The owner of the mill agrees to transfer or revert to the appropriate state or federal agency upon termination of the license all lands, buildings, and grounds, and any interests therein, necessary to fulfill the purposes of this chapter except where the lands are held in trust for or are owned by any Indian tribe.

(2) Any person operating a uranium or thorium mill on the effective date of this act shall, at the time of application for renewal of his license to mill thorium or uranium, comply with the following conditions for continued operation of the mill:

(a) The owner or operator of the mill shall submit to the department a plan for reclamation and disposal of tailings and for decommissioning the site that conforms to the criteria and standards then in effect for the protection of the public safety and health; and

(b) The owner of the mill shall agree to transfer or revert to the appropriate state or federal agency upon termination of the license all lands, buildings, and grounds, and any interests therein, necessary to fulfill the purposes of this chapter except where the lands are held in trust for or are owned by any Indian tribe.

(3) The department shall, after public notice and opportunity for written comment, hold a public hearing to consider the adequacy of the proposed plan to protect the safety and health of the public required by subsections (1) and (2) of this section. The proceedings shall be recorded and transcribed. The public hearing shall provide the opportunity for cross-examination by both the department and the person proposing the plan required under this section. The department shall make a written determination as to the licensing of the mill which is based upon the findings included in the determination and upon the evidence presented during the public comment period. The determination is subject to judicial review. If a declaration of nonsignificance is issued for a license renewal application under rules adopted under chapter 43.21C RCW, the public hearing is not required.

(4) The department shall set a schedule of license and amendment fees predicated on the cost of reviewing the license application and of monitoring for compliance with the conditions of the license. A permit for construction of a uranium or thorium mill may be granted by the secretary prior to licensing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The secretary or his representative shall monitor the operations of the mill for compliance with the conditions of the license by the owner or operator. The mill owner or operator shall be responsible for compliance, both during the lifetime of the facility and at shutdown, including but not limited to such requirements as fencing and posting the site; contouring, covering, and stabilizing the pile; and for decommissioning the facility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. On a quarterly basis on and after January 1, 1980, there shall be levied and the department shall collect a charge of five cents per pound on each pound of uranium or thorium compound milled out of the raw ore. The total charges collected from a licensee shall not exceed one million dollars. All moneys paid to the department from these charges shall be deposited in a special security fund in the treasury of the state of Washington to be known as the "radiation perpetual maintenance fund". This security fund shall be used by the department when a licensee has ceased to operate and the site may still contain, or have associated with the site at which the licensed activity was conducted in spite of full compliance with section 3 of this act, radioactive material which will require further maintenance, surveillance, or other care. If, with respect to a licensee, the department determines that the estimated total of these charges will be less than or greater than that required to defray the estimated cost of administration of this responsibility, the department may prescribe such an increased or decreased charge as is considered necessary for this purpose, but in any case such charge may not exceed one million dollars. If, at termination of the license, the department determines that by the applicable standards and practices then in effect, the charges which have been collected from the licensee and earnings generated therefrom are in excess of the amount required to defray the cost of this responsibility, the department may refund the excess portion to the licensee.

Moneys in the radiation perpetual maintenance fund shall be invested by the state finance committee in the manner as other state moneys.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. In order to provide for the proper care and surveillance of sites under section 5 of this act, the state may acquire by gift or transfer from any government agency, corporation, partnership, or person, all lands, buildings, and grounds necessary to fulfill the purposes of this chapter. Any such gift or transfer shall be subject to approval by the department. In exercising the authority of this section, the department shall take into consideration the status of the ownership of the land and interests therein and the ability of the licensee to transfer title and custody thereof to the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Recognizing the uncertainty of the existence of a person or corporation in perpetuity, and recognizing that ultimate responsibility to protect the public health and safety must be reposed in a solvent government, without regard to the existence of any particular agency or department thereof, all lands, buildings, and grounds acquired by the state under section 6 of this act shall be owned in fee simple by the state and dedicated in perpetuity to the purposes stated in section 6 of this act. All radioactive material received at a site and located therein at the time of acquisition of ownership by the state shall become the property of the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. If a person licensed by any governmental agency other than the state or if any other governmental agency desires to transfer a site to the state for the purpose of administering or providing perpetual care, a lump sum payment shall be made to the radiation perpetual maintenance fund. The amount of the deposit shall be determined by the department taking into consideration the factors stated in section 5 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Each licensee under this chapter, as a condition of his license, shall submit to whatever reasonable on-site inspections and on-site monitoring as required in order for the department to carry out its responsibilities and duties under this chapter. Such on-site inspections and monitoring shall be conducted without the necessity of any further approval or any permit or warrant therefor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The secretary or the secretary's duly authorized representative shall require the posting of a bond by licensees to be used exclusively to provide funds in the event of abandonment, default, or other inability of the licensee to meet the requirements of the department. The secretary may establish bonding requirements by classes of licensees and by range of monetary amounts. In establishing these requirements, the secretary shall consider the potential for contamination, injury, cost of disposal, and reclamation of the property.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A bond shall be accepted by the department if it is a bond issued by a fidelity or surety company admitted to do business in the state of Washington, a personal bond secured by such collateral as the secretary deems satisfactory, or a cash bond.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. All bonds forfeited shall be paid to the department for deposit in the radiation perpetual maintenance fund. All moneys in this fund may only be expended by the department as necessary for the protection of the public health and safety and shall not be used for normal operating expenses of the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. All state, local, or other governmental agencies, or subdivisions thereof, are exempt from the bonding requirements of this chapter. The secretary may by rule exempt classes of licensees from the bonding requirements of this chapter when the secretary finds that the exemption will not result in a significant risk to the public health and safety.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. This chapter is cumulative and not exclusive, and no part of this chapter shall be construed to repeal any existing law specifically enacted for the protection of the public health and safety.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. This chapter may be known as the "Mill Tailings Licensing and Perpetual Care Act of 1979".

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Sections 1 through 15 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. This act shall take effect on January 1, 1980.

Passed the Senate April 24, 1979.

Passed the House April 12, 1979.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 18.72 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The board may adopt regulations requiring any person, including, but not limited to, corporations, hospitals, organizations, and federal, state, or local governmental agencies, to report to the board any: Conviction, determination, or finding that a licensed physician has committed unprofessional conduct as defined by RCW 18.72.030 as now or hereafter amended, or to report information which indicates that a licensed physician may not be able to practice medicine with reasonable skill and safety to patients as the result of any mental or physical condition.

(2) The contents of any report file shall be confidential and exempt from public disclosure pursuant to chapter 42.17 RCW, except that it may be reviewed (a) by the licensee involved or his counsel or authorized representative who may submit any additional exculpatory or explanatory statements or other information, which statements or other information shall be included in the file, or (b) by a representative of the medical disciplinary board, or investigator thereof, who has been assigned to review the activities of a licensed physician.

(3) Upon a determination that a report is without merit, the board's records may be purged of information relating to the report.

(4) If any person contumaciously refuses to furnish a required report, the board may petition the superior court of any county in which said person resides or is found, and said court shall issue to such person an order to furnish the required report. Any failure to obey such order shall be punished by the court as a civil contempt may be punished.

(5) Every individual, medical association, medical society, hospital, medical service bureau, health insurance carrier or agent, professional liability insurance carrier, professional standards review organization, and agency of the federal, state, or local government shall be immune from civil liability, whether direct or derivative, for providing information to the board subsequent to the regulations outlined in [sub]section (1) of this section, or

Sec. 16. Section 3, chapter 61, Laws of 1975 and RCW 18.72.275 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In the event that a physician is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be mentally incompetent or mentally ill, such physician shall automatically have his or her license suspended by the board upon the entry of such judgment, regardless of the pendency of an appeal.

(2) If it appears to the ~~((disciplinary))~~ board that there is reasonable cause to believe that a physician who has not been judicially determined to be mentally incompetent or mentally ill is unable to practice medicine with reasonable skill and safety to patients by reason of illness, drunkenness, excessive use of drugs, narcotics, chemicals, or any other type of material or as a result of any mental or physical condition, a complaint in the name of the board shall be served upon such physician ~~((for a hearing))~~ and notice shall be given the physician that a hearing will be held on the sole issue of the capacity of the physician to adequately conduct his or her practice. A physician affected under this ~~((paragraph))~~ section shall at reasonable intervals be afforded an opportunity to demonstrate that he or she can resume the competent practice of medicine with reasonable skill and safety to patients.

(4) For the purpose of this ~~((subsection (2)))~~ section, every physician licensed under this chapter who shall accept the privilege to practice medicine in this state shall by so practicing or by the making and filing of annual registration to practice medicine in this state, be deemed to have given his or her consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when directed in writing by the board and further to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examining physicians' testimony or examination reports on the ground that the same constitute ((a)) privileged communications.

(5) In any proceeding under this ((subsection (2))) section, neither the record of proceedings nor the orders entered by the board shall be used against a physician in any other proceeding.

(1) The ((state highway)) transportation commission is hereby directed to conduct periodic analyses of the entire state highway system, report thereon to the legislature biennially and based thereon, to subdivide, classify, and subclassify according to their function and importance all designated state highways and those added from time to time and periodically review and revise the classifications(~~(, except those highways designated as~~ ~~part of the national system of interstate and defense highways,))~~ into the following three functional classes:

(a) The "principal arterial system" shall consist of a connected network of rural arterial routes with appropriate extensions into and through urban areas, including all routes designated as part of the interstate system, which serve corridor movements having travel characteristics indicative of substantial state-wide and interstate travel;

(c) The "collector system" shall consist of routes which primarily serve the more important intercounty, intracounty, and intraurban travel corridors, collect traffic from the system of local access roads and convey it to the arterial system, and on which, regardless of traffic volume, the predominant travel distances are shorter than on arterial routes.

(2) Those state highways which perform no arterial or collector function, which serve only local access functions, and which lack essential state highway characteristics shall be designated "local access" highways.

(3) In making the functional classification the ~~((highway))~~ transportation commission shall adopt and give consideration to criteria consistent with this section and federal regulations relating to the functional classification of highways, including but not limited to the following:

The program and plan shall be based upon the improvement needs for state highways as determined by the department from time to time.

With such reasonable deviations as may be required to effectively utilize the ~~((available))~~ estimated funds and to adjust to unanticipated delays in programmed projects, the ~~((department))~~ commission shall allocate the estimated ~~((available))~~ funds among the following described categories of highway improvements, so as to carry out the ~~((department's highway planning))~~ commission's program objectives ~~((within a fourteen year advance planning period))~~:

(2) Category B shall consist of improvements for the continued development of the interstate system to be funded with federal aid at the regular interstate rate under federal law and regulations.

(3) Category C shall consist of the development of major transportation improvements (other than improvements to the interstate system to be funded with federal aid at the regular interstate rate under federal law and regulations) including designated but unconstructed highways which are vital to the state-wide transportation network.

- (b) The need to provide adequate funding for category A improvements to protect the state's investment in its existing highway system; and
- (c) The continuity of future highway development of all categories of improvements with those previously programmed.

(2) The commission in preparing the ~~((long range))~~ comprehensive six-year program and financial plan shall establish ~~((graduated rates of development of category A improvements according to functional class importance))~~ program objectives for each of the highway categories, A, B, and C.

Sec. 4. Section 4, chapter 173, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 15, chapter 235, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 47.05.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) The ~~((highway construction program for the ensuing six years))~~ commission shall first allocate to category A improvements as a whole((; and then to each of the five functional classes of state highways, that percentage of)) the estimated ((available)) construction funds as will be necessary to accomplish the commission's ((long range plan)) program objectives for category A highway improvements throughout the state. The commission shall then apportion the ((available)) allocated category A construction funds((, according to functional class,)) among the several ((highway)) transportation districts ((in the proportion that)) considering the ((estimated remaining category A)) improvement needs ((for each functional class of highway within)) of each ((highway)) district ((bears to the total of such estimated needs for each functional class remaining unsatisfied throughout the state)) in relation to such needs in all districts.

(3) The commission shall next allocate to category B improvements ~~((for the ensuing six years,))~~ the estimated ((available)) federal aid interstate funds and state matching funds as necessary to accomplish the commission's ((long range plan)) program objectives for category B highway improvements throughout the state.

(4) The commission shall then allocate to category C improvements ~~((for the ensuing six years,))~~ the remaining estimated ((available)) construction funds to accomplish ~~((to the extent possible))~~ the commission's ((long range plan)) program objectives for category C highway improvements throughout the state.

agreement, or state and federal laws and regulations, (c) as may be required to coordinate with federal, local, or other state agency construction projects, (d) to take advantage of some substantial financial benefit that may be available, (e) for continuity of route development, or (f) because of changed financial or physical conditions of an unforeseen or emergent nature. The commission shall maintain in its files information sufficient to show the extent to which the commission has departed from the established priority of projects.

The approval of the legislative body shall be a condition precedent to further proceedings upon the petition. The costs of conducting the election called for in the petition shall be a charge against the city concerned.

Sec. 3. Section 35A.14.030, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 6, chapter 251, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.14.030 are each amended to read as follows:

If either or both propositions were approved by the electors, the ~~((board of county commissioners))~~ county legislative authority shall enter a finding to that effect on its minutes, a certified copy of which shall be forthwith transmitted to and filed with the clerk of the city to which annexation is proposed, together with a certified abstract of the vote showing the whole number who voted at the election, the number of votes cast for annexation and the number cast against annexation or for annexation and adoption of the proposed zoning regulation and the number cast against annexation and adoption of the proposed zoning regulation, as the case may be, and if a proposition for assumption of all or any portion of indebtedness was submitted to the electorate, the abstract shall include the number of votes cast for assumption of indebtedness and the number of votes cast against assumption of indebtedness, together with a statement of the total number of votes cast in such territory at the last preceding general election.

Upon filing of the certified copy of the finding of the ~~((board of county commissioners))~~ county legislative authority, the clerk shall transmit it to the legislative body of the city at the next regular meeting or as soon thereafter as practicable. If only a proposition relating to annexation or to annexation and adoption of a proposed zoning regulation was submitted to the voters and such proposition was approved, the legislative body shall adopt an ordinance providing for the annexation or adopt ordinances providing for the annexation and adoption of a proposed zoning regulation, as the case may be. If a proposition for annexation or for annexation and adoption of a proposed zoning regulation, and a proposition for assumption of all or any portion of indebtedness were both submitted, and both were approved, the legislative body shall adopt an ordinance providing for the annexation or for annexation and adoption of the proposed zoning regulation, including the assumption of the portion of indebtedness that was approved by the voters. If both propositions were submitted and only the annexation or the annexation and adoption of the proposed zoning regulation was approved, the legislative body may adopt an ordinance providing for the annexation or adopt ordinances providing for the annexation and adoption of the proposed zoning regulation, as the case may be, or the legislative body may refuse to annex when a proposal for assumption of the portion of indebtedness has been disapproved by the voters.

The legislative body shall set a date, not later than sixty days after the filing of the request, for a meeting with the initiating

If the legislative body has required the assumption of all or any portion of city indebtedness by the area annexed or the adoption of a proposed zoning regulation, these facts, together with a quotation of the minute entry of such requirement, or requirements, shall also be set forth in the petition.

Sec. 9. Section 35A.14.150, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.14.150 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the date fixed in the ordinance of annexation the area annexed shall become part of the city. Sec. 59. Section 1, chapter 1, Laws of 1969 as last amended by section 151, chapter 158, Laws of 1979 and RCW 46.20.308 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who operates a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state shall be deemed to have given consent, subject to the provisions of RCW 46.61.506, to a chemical test or tests of his breath or blood for the purpose of determining the alcoholic content of his blood if arrested for any offense where, at the time of the arrest, the arresting officer has reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. The test or tests shall be administered at the direction of a law enforcement officer having reasonable grounds to believe the person to have been driving or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. Such officer shall inform the person of his right to refuse the test, and of his right to have additional tests administered by any qualified person of his choosing as provided in RCW 46.61.506. The officer shall warn the driver that his privilege to drive will be revoked or denied if he refuses to submit to the test. Unless the person to be tested is unconscious, the chemical test administered shall be of his breath only: PROVIDED, That if an individual is under arrest for the crime of negligent homicide by motor vehicle as provided in RCW 46-.61.520, or if an individual is under arrest for the crime of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs as provided in RCW 46-.61.506, which arrest results from an accident in which another person has been injured and there is a reasonable likelihood that such other person may die as a result of injuries sustained in the accident, a breath or blood test may be administered without the consent of the individual so arrested. In such circumstances, the provisions of subsections (2) through (6) of this section shall not apply.

(2) Any person who is dead, unconscious, or who is otherwise in a condition rendering him incapable of refusal, shall be deemed not to have withdrawn the consent provided by subsection (1) of this section and the test or tests may be administered, subject to the provisions of RCW 46.61.506.

(3) If, following his arrest, the person arrested refuses upon the request of a law enforcement officer to submit to a chemical test of his breath, after being informed that his refusal will result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive, no test shall be given. The department of licensing, upon the receipt of a sworn report of the law enforcement officer that he had reasonable grounds to believe the arrested person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor and that the person had refused to submit to the test upon the request of the law enforcement officer after being informed that such refusal would result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive, shall revoke his license or permit to drive or any nonresident operating privilege. If the person is a resident without a license or permit to operate a motor vehicle in this state, the department shall deny to the person the issuance of a license or permit for a period of six months after the date of the alleged violation, subject to review as hereinafter provided.

(4) Upon revoking the license or permit to drive or the nonresident operating privilege of any person, or upon determining that the issuance of a license or permit shall be denied to the person, as hereinbefore in this section directed, the department shall immediately notify the person involved in writing by personal service or by registered or certified mail of its decision and the grounds therefor, and of his right to a hearing, specifying the steps he must take to obtain a hearing. The person upon receiving such notice may, in writing and within ten days therefrom request a formal hearing. Upon receipt of such request, the department shall afford him an opportunity for a hearing as provided in RCW 46.20.329 and 46.20.332. The scope of such hearing for the purposes of this section shall cover the issues of whether a law enforcement officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, whether the person was placed under arrest and whether he refused to submit to the test upon request of the officer after having been informed that such refusal would result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive. The department shall order that the revocation or determination that there should be a denial of issuance either be rescinded or sustained. Any decision by the department revoking a person's driving privilege shall be stayed and shall not take effect while a formal hearing is pending as herein provided or during the pendency of a subsequent appeal to superior court: PROVIDED, That this stay shall be effective only so long as there is no conviction for a moving violation or no finding that the person has committed a traffic infraction which is a moving violation during pendency of the hearing and appeal.

(5) If the revocation or determination that there should be a denial of issuance is sustained after such a hearing, the person whose license, privilege, or permit is so affected shall have the right to file a petition in the superior court of the county wherein he resides, or, if a nonresident of this state, where the charge arose, to review the final order of revocation or denial by the department in the manner provided in RCW 46.20.334.

(6) When it has been finally determined under the procedures of this section that a nonresident's privilege to operate a motor vehicle in this state has been revoked, the department shall give information in writing of the action taken to the motor vehicle administrator of the state of the person's residence and of any state in which he has a license.

Sec. 60. Section 27, chapter 121, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 36, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.20.311 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department shall not suspend a driver's license or privilege to drive a motor vehicle on the public highways for a fixed period of more than one year, except as permitted under RCW 46.20.342. Whenever the license of any person is suspended by reason of a conviction, a finding that a traffic infraction has been committed, or pursuant to RCW 46.20.291, such suspension shall remain in effect and the department shall not issue to such person any new or renewal of license until such person shall pay a reinstatement fee of ten dollars and shall give and thereafter maintain proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW.

(2) Any person whose license or privilege to drive a motor vehicle on the public highways has been revoked shall not be entitled to have such license or privilege renewed or restored unless the revocation was for a cause which has been removed, except that after the expiration of six months in cases of revocation for refusal to submit to a chemical test under the provisions of RCW 46.20.308 as now or hereafter amended, and in all other revocation cases after the expiration of one year from the date on which the revoked license was surrendered to and received by the department, such person may make application for a new license as provided by law together with an additional fee in the amount of ten dollars, but the department shall not then issue a new license unless it is satisfied after investigation of the driving ability of such person that it will be safe to grant the privilege of driving a motor vehicle on the public highways, and until such person shall give and thereafter maintain proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW.

Sec. 61. Section 36, chapter 121, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 29, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 46.20.329 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon receiving a request for a formal hearing as provided in RCW 46.20.328, the department shall fix a time and place for hearing as early as may be arranged in the county where the applicant or licensee resides, and shall give ten days' notice of the hearing to the applicant or licensee, except that the hearing may be set for a different place with the concurrence of the applicant or licensee and the period of notice may be waived.

Any decision by the department suspending or revoking a person's driving privilege shall be stayed and shall not take effect while a formal hearing is pending as herein provided or during the pendency of a subsequent appeal to superior court: PROVIDED, That this stay shall be effective only so long as there is no conviction of a moving violation or a finding that the person has committed a traffic infraction which is a moving violation during pendency of hearing and appeal: PROVIDED FURTHER, That nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting the department from seeking an order setting aside the stay during the pendency of such appeal in those cases where the action of the department is based upon physical or mental incapacity, or a failure to successfully complete an examination required by this chapter.

A formal hearing shall be conducted by the director or by a referee or hearing board appointed by him from officers or employees of the department. Such referee or hearing board may be authorized by the director to make final determinations regarding the issuance, denial, or suspension, or revocation of a license.

Upon the third such conviction therefor, he shall be punished by imprisonment for one year. There may also be imposed in connection with each such conviction a fine of not more than five hundred dollars.

(2) The department upon receiving a record of conviction of any person or upon receiving an order by any juvenile court or any duly authorized court officer of the conviction of any juvenile under this section upon a charge of driving a vehicle while the license of such person is under suspension shall extend the period of such suspension for an additional like period and if the conviction was upon a charge of driving while a license was revoked the department shall not issue a new license for an additional period of one year from and after the date such person would otherwise have been entitled to apply for a new license.

It is a traffic infraction for any person (~~((operating))~~) to operate a vehicle on the public highways of this state, or (~~((selling))~~) to sell a vehicle for use on the public highways of this state, which is equipped with a tire or tires in violation of the provisions of this section or the rules and regulations promulgated by the state commission on equipment hereunder (~~((shall be guilty of a misdemeanor))~~): PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That if the violation relates to items (1) to (7) inclusive of this section then the condition or defect must be such that it can be detected by a visual inspection of tires mounted on vehicles, including visual comparison with simple measuring gauges.

Sec. 74. Section 46.44.047, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 11, chapter 64, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 46.44-.047 are each amended to read as follows:

Such additional allowances shall be permitted by a special permit to be issued by the (~~((state highway commission))~~) department of transportation valid only on state primary or secondary highways authorized by the (~~((state highway commission))~~) department and under such rules, regulations, terms, and conditions prescribed by the (~~((state highway commission))~~) department. The fee for such special permit shall be fifty dollars for a twelve-month period beginning and ending on April 1st of each calendar year. Permits may be issued at any time, but if issued after July 1st of any year the fee shall be thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents. If issued on or after October 1st the fee shall be twenty-five dollars, and if issued on or after January 1st the fee shall be twelve dollars and fifty cents. A copy of such special permit covering the vehicle involved shall be carried in the cab of the vehicle at all times. Upon the third (~~((conviction))~~) offense within the duration of the permit for violation of the terms and conditions of the special permit, the special permit shall be canceled. The vehicle covered by such canceled special permit shall not be eligible for a new special permit until thirty days after the cancellation of the special permit issued to said vehicle. The fee for such renewal shall be at the same rate as set forth in this section which covers the original issuance of such special permit. Each special permit shall be assigned to a three-axle truck tractor in combination with a two-axle pole trailer. When the (~~((highway commission))~~) department issues a duplicate permit to replace a lost or destroyed permit and where the (~~(highway commission)~~) department transfers a permit, a fee of five dollars shall be charged for each such duplicate issued or each such transfer.

All fees collected hereinabove shall be deposited with the state treasurer and credited to the motor vehicle fund.

Permits involving city streets or county roads or using city streets or county roads to reach or leave state highways, authorized for permit by the (~~(state highway)~~) department may be issued by the city or county or counties involved. A fee of five dollars for such city or county permit may be assessed by the city or by the (~~(board of)~~) county (~~(commissioners)~~) legislative authority which shall be deposited in the city or county road fund. The special permit provided for herein shall be known as a "log tolerance permit" and shall designate the route or routes to be used, which shall first be approved by the city or county engineer involved. Authorization of additional route or routes may be made at the discretion of the city or county by amending the original permit or by issuing a new permit. Said permits shall be issued on a yearly basis expiring on March 31st of each calendar year. Any person, firm, or corporation who uses any city street or county road for the purpose of transporting logs with weights authorized by state highway log tolerance permits, to reach or leave a state highway route, without first obtaining a city or county permit when required by the city or (~~(board of)~~) the county (~~(commissioners)~~) legislative authority shall be subject to the penalties prescribed by RCW 46.44.105. For the purpose of determining gross weight the actual scale weight taken by the officer shall be prima facie evidence of such total gross weight. In the event the gross weight is in excess of the weight permitted by law, the officer may, within his discretion, permit the operator to proceed with his vehicles in combination.

The chief of the state patrol, with the advice of the (~~(state highway commission)~~) department, may make reasonable rules and regulations to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of this section.

Sec. 75. Section 23, chapter 64, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 46.44.105 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (~~(Any person violating)~~) Violation of any of the provisions of RCW 46.44.042, 46.44.047, 46.44.090, 46.44.091, 46.44.095, and 46.44.041, or (~~(who fails)~~) failure to obtain a permit as provided by RCW 46.44.090 and 46.44.095, or (~~(misrepresents)~~) misrepresentation of the size or weight of any load or (~~(does not)~~) failure to follow the requirements and conditions of a permit issued hereunder (~~(shall be guilty of a misdemeanor)~~) is a traffic infraction, and upon the first (~~(conviction)~~) finding thereof shall be (~~(fined)~~) assessed a basic (~~(fine)~~) penalty of not less than fifty dollars; and upon second (~~(conviction)~~) finding thereof shall be (~~(fined)~~) assessed a basic (~~(fine)~~) penalty of not less than seventy-five dollars; and upon a third or subsequent ~~((conviction))~~ finding shall be ~~((fined))~~ assessed a basic ~~((fine))~~ penalty of not less than one hundred dollars.

(2) In addition to the ~~((fines levied))~~ penalties imposed in subsection (1) of this section any person violating RCW 46.44.042, 46.44.047, 46.44.090, 46.44.091, 46.44.095, or 46.44.041 shall be ~~((fined))~~ assessed three cents for each pound of excess weight: PROVIDED, That upon a first violation in any calendar year, the court may suspend the ~~((fine))~~ penalty for five hundred pounds of excess weight for each axle on any vehicle or combination of vehicles, not to exceed a two thousand pound suspension. In no case shall the basic ~~((fine levied))~~ penalty assessed in subsection (1) of this section be suspended.

(3) Whenever any vehicle or combination of vehicles is involved in two violations of RCW 46.44.042, 46.44.047, 46.44.090, 46.44.091, 46.44.095, or 46.44.041 during any twelve month period, the court may suspend the certificate of license registration of the vehicle or combination of vehicles for not less than thirty days. Upon a third or succeeding violation in any twelve month period, the court shall suspend the certificate of license registration for not less than thirty days. ~~((For purposes of this section, bail forfeiture shall be given the same effect as a conviction.))~~ Whenever the certificate of license registration is suspended, the court shall secure such certificate and immediately forward the same to the director with information concerning the suspension.

(4) Any person ~~((convicted of violating))~~ found to have violated any posted limitations of a highway or section of highway shall be ~~((fined))~~ assessed a monetary penalty of not less than one hundred and fifty dollars, and the court shall in addition thereto upon second violation within a twelve month period involving the same power unit, suspend the certificate of license registration for not less than thirty days.

(5) Any police officer is authorized to require the driver of any vehicle or combination of vehicles to stop and submit to a weighing either by means of a portable or stationary scale and may require that such vehicle be driven to the nearest public scale. Whenever a police officer, upon weighing a vehicle and load, determines that the weight is unlawful, such officer may require the driver to stop the vehicle in a suitable location and remain standing until such portion of the load is removed as may be necessary to reduce the gross weight of the vehicle to such limit as permitted by law.

Any vehicle whose driver or owner represents that the vehicle is disabled or otherwise unable to proceed to a weighing location shall have its load sealed or otherwise marked by any police officer. The owner or driver shall be directed that upon completion of repairs, the vehicle shall submit to weighing with the load and markings and/or seal intact and undisturbed. Failure to report for weighing, appearing for weighing with the seal broken or the markings disturbed, or removal of any cargo prior to weighing shall be unlawful. Any person so convicted shall be fined five hundred dollars, and in addition the certificate of license registration shall be suspended for not less than thirty days.

(6) Any other provision of law to the contrary notwithstanding, justice courts having venue shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the superior courts for the imposition of any penalties authorized under this section.

(7) For the purpose of determining additional (~~fin~~) penalties as provided by subsection (2) of this section, "excess weight" shall mean the poundage in excess of the maximum gross weight prescribed by RCW 46.44.042 and 46.44.041 plus the weights allowed by RCW 46.44.047, 46.44.091, and 46.44.095.

(8) The basic (~~fine~~) penalty provided in subsection (1) of this section shall be distributed as prescribed in RCW 46.68.050: PROVIDED, That all fees, fines, forfeitures, and penalties collected or assessed by a justice court because of the violation of a state law shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW as it now exists or is later amended. For the purpose of computing the basic (~~fin~~) penalties and additional (~~fin~~) penalties to be imposed under the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section the convictions shall be on the same vehicle or combination of vehicles within a twelve month period under the same ownership.

(9) The additional (~~fine~~) penalty for excess poundage provided in subsection (2) of this section shall be transmitted by the court to the county treasurer and by him transmitted to the state treasurer for deposit in the motor vehicle fund: PROVIDED, That all fees, fines, forfeitures, and penalties collected or assessed by a justice court because of the violation of a state law shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW as it now exists or is later amended. It shall then be allocated annually on or before June 30th of each year in the amounts prescribed in RCW 46.68.100 as now or hereafter amended.

(10) Any state patrol officer or any weight control officer who shall find any person operating a vehicle or a combination of vehicles in violation of the conditions of a permit issued under RCW 46.44.037, 46.44.090, and 46.44.095 may confiscate such permit and forward the same to the state highway commission which may return it to the permittee or revoke, cancel, or suspend it without refund. The state highway commission shall keep a record of all action taken upon permits so confiscated, and if a permit shall be returned to the permittee the action taken by the commission shall be endorsed thereon. Any permittee whose permit is suspended or revoked may upon request receive a hearing before the commission or person designated by the commission. The commission after such hearing may reinstate any permit or revise its previous action.

Every permit issued as provided for in this chapter shall be carried in the vehicle or combination of vehicles to which it refers and shall be open to inspection by any law enforcement officer or authorized agent of any authority granting such a permit.

Upon the third (~~(conviction)~~) finding within a calendar year (~~(for)~~) of a violation of the requirements and conditions of a permit issued under RCW 46.44.095 as now or hereafter amended, the permit shall be canceled, and the canceled permit shall be immediately transmitted by the court or the arresting officer to the department of (~~(highways, and for the purposes of this section bail forfeiture shall be considered to be a conviction)~~) transportation. The vehicle covered by such canceled permit shall not be eligible for a new permit for a period of thirty days.

(11) For the purposes of determining gross weights the actual scale weight taken by the arresting officer shall be prima facie evidence of such total gross weight.

The chief of the state patrol, with the advice of the (~~(state highway commission)~~) department, may adopt reasonable rules to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of this section.

The other part shall include all other accidents (~~and~~), convictions, and findings that the person has committed a traffic infraction. Such records shall be for the confidential use of the director and

Such case records shall not be offered as evidence in any court except in case appeal is taken from the order of director, suspending, revoking, canceling, or refusing vehicle driver's license. It shall be the duty of the director to tabulate and analyze vehicle driver's case records and to suspend, revoke, cancel, or refuse any vehicle driver's license to any person when it is deemed from facts contained in the case record of such person that it is for the best interest of public safety that such person be denied the privilege of operating a motor vehicle. Whenever the director may order the vehicle driver's license of any such person suspended, revoked, or canceled, or shall refuse the issuance of vehicle driver's license, such suspension, revocation, cancellation, or refusal shall be final and effective unless appeal from the decision of the director shall be taken as provided by law.

his income therefrom. The abstract provided to the insurance company shall also exclude any information pertaining to law enforcement officers or fire fighters as defined in RCW 41.26.030, or any member of the Washington state patrol, while driving official vehicles in the performance of occupational duty during an emergency situation if the chief of the officer's or fire fighter's department certifies on the accident report that the actions of the officer or fire fighter were reasonable under the circumstances as they existed at the time of the accident.

The director shall collect for each such abstract the sum of one dollar fifty cents which shall be deposited in the highway safety fund.

Any insurance company or its agent receiving such certified abstract shall use it exclusively for its own underwriting purposes and shall not divulge any of the information therein contained to a third party: PROVIDED, That no policy of insurance shall be canceled on the basis of such information unless the policyholder was determined to be at fault: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no insurance company or its agent for underwriting purposes relating to the operation of commercial motor vehicles shall use any information contained in the abstract relative to any person's operation of motor vehicles while not engaged in such employment.

GEODUCK HARVESTING—LICENSING—LEASES—SAFETY STANDARDS

AN ACT Relating to shellfish; amending section 1, chapter 253, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 75.24.100; amending section 6, chapter 309, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 6, chapter 283, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 75.28.087; amending section 75.28.280, chapter 12, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 3, chapter 253, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 75.28.280; amending section 4, chapter 253, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 75.28.287; adding new sections to chapter 75.28 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 79.01 RCW; prescribing penalties; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 1, chapter 253, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 75.24.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The director of fisheries may at his discretion and with the approval of the commissioner of public lands issue licenses for the harvesting of geoduck clams for commercial purposes from ~~((leased))~~ specific tracts of beds of navigable waters of the state of Washington for which harvest rights have been granted by the department of natural resources except that he may not authorize harvesting for commercial purposes on bottoms which are shallower than ~~((ten))~~ eighteen feet below mean lower low water (o.o. ft.), or which lie in an area bounded by the line of ordinary high tide (mean high tide) and a line ~~((one-quarter mile))~~ two hundred yards seaward from and parallel to said line of ordinary high tide. If the director shall determine that the numbers of units of gear are sufficient to harvest the known available crop and that additional units of gear might prove damaging to the resource or its habitat, he may suspend the issuance of such additional licenses for the balance of any given year or until he determines there is need for additional units of gear to achieve a sustained harvest. All harvesting shall be done with hand held, manually operated water jet or suction device guided and controlled from under water by scuba or other diver. The director shall also determine from time to time the effect of each type or unit of gear upon the geoduck population or the substrate they inhabit and he may require modification of the gear or cessation of its use if he determines that it is being operated in a wasteful or destructive manner or that its operation tends to cause permanent damage to the bottom or adjacent shellfish populations.

(2) Any person, including the person's agents or representatives, who is issued or currently holds a license under subsection (1) of this section shall comply with all applicable commercial diving safety standards and regulations promulgated and implemented by the federal occupational safety and health administration established under the federal occupational safety and health act of 1970 as such law exists on the effective date of this act (84 Stat. 1590 et seq.; 29 U.S.C. Sec. 651 et seq.). Violations of these safety standards and regulations shall be deemed to be violations of this subsection: PROVIDED, That for the purposes of this section and section 8 of this 1979 act all persons who dive for geoducks are deemed to be "employees" as defined by the federal occupational safety and health act. Violations of this subsection are grounds for suspension or cancellation of the license upon ten days written notice to the licensee and following a hearing on the matter. In no event shall a license be suspended or canceled if the violation has been corrected within ten days. If there is a substantial probability that a particular violation of the commercial diving standards could result in death or serious physical harm to any person engaged in harvesting geoduck clams, the license shall be suspended immediately until the violation causing the probability of death or serious physical harm has been corrected: PROVIDED FURTHER, That for the purposes of this subsection, if the licensee is the holder of a tract license and contracts with another entity for the harvesting of geoducks, the license shall not be suspended or canceled if the licensee terminates its business relationship with such entity until compliance with this subsection is secured.

Sec. 2. Section 6, chapter 309, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 6, chapter 283, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 75.28.087 are each amended to read as follows:

Every owner of a commercial fishing vessel shall obtain an annual commercial fishing license, not otherwise provided for in this chapter, for the taking of food fish and shellfish within the state of Washington: PROVIDED, That holders of commercial salmon fishing licenses as set forth in this chapter may retain incidently caught food fish other than salmon, and: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That licensed oyster (~~and~~) farmers, clam farmers, geoduck harvesters, and clam harvesters are not subject to this section. The fees for commercial fishing licenses required in this section shall be in the amounts set forth in this chapter prescribed by the type gear employed in the taking of food fish and shellfish.

Sec. 3. Section 75.28.280, chapter 12, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 3, chapter 253, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 75.28.280 are each amended to read as follows:

A license is required for each and every clam farm of one or more tracts of land being operated for commercial purposes on privately owned or leased tidelands and on leased beds of navigable waters in the state, except that a license under this section is not required for subtidal geoduck harvest tracts for which the required harvest rights and licenses have been obtained pursuant to other provisions of law. The fee for said license is fifteen dollars per annum, and shall be paid for each and every year in which clams are removed from the clam farm for purposes of sale. A separate license is required for each clam farm being operated within each of the following clam districts; northern Puget Sound district, southern Puget Sound district,

Grays Harbor district, and Willapa Harbor district; said districts are to include the waters, beds, shores, beaches, and tidelands of, northern Puget Sound, southern Puget Sound, Grays Harbor, and Willapa Harbor, respectively, as geographically defined by the director of fisheries under appropriate regulations.

Sec. 4. Section 4, chapter 253, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 75.28-.287 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((A license is required for gear in which the harvesting head is directly guided or controlled by hand, the fee for which license shall be one hundred dollars per annum))~~ (1) A geoduck tract license is required for each subtidal geoduck tract for which harvest rights have been granted by the department of natural resources for the commercial harvest of geoducks. The fee is one hundred dollars per annum.

(2) Every diver engaged in the commercial harvest of geoduck or other clams shall obtain a nonassignable personal commercial fishing license. The fee is fifty dollars per annum.

(3) A license is required for each and every mechanical and/or hydraulic device operated for the purpose of taking clams other than geoduck clams for commercial purposes from tidelands and beds of navigable waters of the state of Washington, the fee for which license shall be three hundred dollars per annum.

Evidence of issuance of the licenses required by this section shall be prominently displayed by numbers, codes, or symbols upon the vessel used in geoduck or clam harvesting activities before engaging in the harvesting activities in a manner prescribed by the director of fisheries in rules promulgated under chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 75.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department of natural resources shall designate the areas of aquatic lands owned by the state of Washington which will be available for geoduck harvesting by licensed geoduck harvesters in accordance with RCW 79.01.124.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 75.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

It is unlawful for any person to harvest clams or geoducks or to utilize any vessel with commercial hand held geoduck harvesting gear on any aquatic lands designated under section 5 of this 1979 act without first obtaining the licenses required by RCW 75.24.100 as now or hereafter amended and 75.28.287 as now or hereafter amended. Use or the mere presence of the gear in the water outside the licensed tract is prima facie evidence of a violation of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 75.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) In addition to the penalties prescribed in RCW 75.08.260 and 75.28.380, the director of fisheries may revoke all geoduck personal commercial fishing licenses or geoduck tract licenses or both held by a person if within any five-year period after the effective date of this 1979 act:

(a) That person is convicted or has an unvacated bail forfeiture for two or more violations of the geoduck licensing or harvesting provisions of this title; or

(b) The department of fisheries receives a report from the department of natural resources of two or more violations by the person of the lease or harvesting agreement under chapters 79.01 or 79.20 RCW where the department of natural resources suspended or canceled the lease or harvesting agreement under section 8 of this 1979 act.

The director of fisheries shall not issue any geoduck personal commercial fishing license or geoduck tract license for a period of one year after the revocation to a person who has had a license revoked under this section except as provided under subsection (3) of this section.

(2) If, within any five-year period after the effective date of this 1979 act, any holder of a tract license permits any person to harvest geoducks on that tract, each violation by that person of the geoduck licensing or harvesting provisions of this title resulting in: (a) Either conviction or unvacated forfeiture of bail; or (b) a suspension or cancellation of the lease or harvesting agreement by the department of natural resources under section 8 of this 1979 act; shall be imputed to the holder of a tract license for the purpose of computing the number of the tract holder's violations under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) Appeals from revocations under this section shall be taken pursuant to the judicial review provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW. If the revocation of a license is determined to be invalid, the department of fisheries shall reissue a license or licenses to that person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 79.01 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The department of natural resources may enter into leases or harvesting agreements for the harvesting of geoducks. The department of natural resources may place terms and conditions in the leases or harvesting agreements as the department deems necessary. The department of natural resources may enforce the provisions of any lease or harvesting agreement by suspending or canceling the lease or harvesting agreement or through any other means contained in the lease or harvesting agreement. The department of natural resources may cancel any lease or harvesting agreement upon receiving a report from the department of fisheries of the person's second violation of the geoduck licensing or harvesting provisions under Title 75 RCW. Any lessee may terminate a lease entered into pursuant to this subsection if actions of a governmental agency, beyond the control of the lessee, its agents or its employees, prohibit harvesting, for a period exceeding thirty days, during the term of the harvesting agreement. Upon termination of the lease, the lessee shall be reimbursed by the lessor for the cost paid on the lease less the value of the harvest already accomplished by the lessee on the leasehold.

(2) After the effective date of this act, all leases of state lands or harvesting agreements under this title for the purpose of harvesting geoduck clams shall require the lessee and the lessee's agent or representatives to comply with all applicable commercial diving safety standards and regulations promulgated and implemented by the federal occupational safety and health administration established under the federal occupational safety and health act of 1970 as such law exists on the effect date of this act (84 stat. 1590 et seq.; 29 U.S.C. sec. 651 et seq.): PROVIDED, That for the purposes of this section and RCW 75.24.100 as now or hereafter amended all persons who dive for geoducks are deemed to be employees as defined by the federal occupational safety and health act. All leases shall provide that failure to comply with these standards is cause for suspension or cancellation of the lease: PROVIDED FURTHER, That for the purposes of this subsection if the lessee is the holder of a tract license and contracts with another entity for the harvesting of geoducks, the lease shall not be suspended or canceled if the lessee terminates its business relationship with such entity until compliance with the subsection is secured.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Such delegation shall not eliminate a party's right of appeal to the commission. The executive director, with such assistance as may be provided by the attorney general and such additional legal assistance consistent with chapter 43.10 RCW, shall have authority on behalf of the commission, ~~((in matters concerning the investigation of charges and issuance of complaints under this chapter))~~ when necessary to carry out or enforce any action or decision of the commission, to petition any court of competent jurisdiction for an order requiring compliance with the action or decision.

(2) Section 6, chapter 288, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 41.59.050.

Passed the House April 25, 1979.

Passed the Senate April 19, 1979.

Approved by the Governor May 8, 1979 with the exception of section 1 which is vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State May 8, 1979.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to one section House Bill Number 923 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to public employee's collective bargaining;"

Section 1 contains a proviso that will allow the Senate to reject gubernatorial appointments to the commission by inaction.

When making an appointment the Governor is committed publicly. If the law is to require confirmation by the Senate, then its members should also go on record as either confirming or rejecting the appointment. To permit the Senate to refuse an appointment by neglect is not in the interest of the public, the appointee, or the Governor. Open government requires that the public have the right to know who is opposed to an appointment and their reasons. The appointment proviso in Section 1 is contrary to this objective.

Additional compelling reasons are of a pragmatic nature. The Public Employment Relations Commission is a quasi-judicial administrative agency which is involved in the timely response to labor disputes. The state cannot afford the possibility that this crisis-responsive agency be incapacitated by Senate inaction on two or more members of the Commission. Under such circumstances it would increase the difficulty of finding qualified and acceptable persons willing to have their names submitted.

With the exception of Section 1, which I have vetoed, the remainder of House Bill Number 923 is approved."

WORKERS' COMPENSATION—REDUCTIONS BASED ON RECEIPT OF FEDERAL BENEFITS—OVERPAYMENT RECOVERY

AN ACT Relating to reductions in workers' compensation based on receipt of federal benefits; amending section 3, chapter 286, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 19, chapter 323, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.32.220; adding a new section to chapter 51.32 RCW; creating a new section; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 3, chapter 286, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 19, chapter 323, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.32.220 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For persons under the age of sixty-two receiving compensation for temporary or permanent total disability pursuant to the provisions of chapter 51.32 RCW, such compensation shall be reduced by an amount equal to the benefits payable under the federal old-age, survivors and disability insurance act as now or hereafter amended not to exceed the amount of the reduction established pursuant to 42 USC 424a. However, such reduction shall not apply when the combined compensation provided pursuant to chapter 51.32 RCW and the federal old-age, survivors and disability insurance act is less than the total benefits to which the federal reduction would apply, pursuant to 42 USC 424a. Where any person described in this section refuses to authorize the release of information concerning the amount of benefits payable under said federal act the department's estimate of said amount shall be deemed to be correct unless and until the actual amount is established and no adjustment shall be made for any period of time covered by any such refusal.

(2) Any reduction under subsection (1) of this section shall be effective the month following the month in which the department or self-insurer is notified by the federal social security administration that the person is receiving disability benefits under the federal old-age, survivors and disability insurance act: PROVIDED, That in the event of an overpayment of benefits the department or self-insurer may not recover more than the overpayments for the six months immediately preceding the date the department or self-insurer notifies the worker that an overpayment has occurred: PROVIDED FURTHER, That upon determining that there has been an overpayment, the department or self-insurer shall immediately notify the person who received the overpayment that he or she shall be required to make repayment pursuant to this act.

(3) Recovery of any overpayment must be taken from future monthly temporary or permanent total disability benefits provided by this title and may not exceed twenty-five percent of the monthly amount due from the department or self-insurer or one-sixth of the total overpayment, whichever is the lesser.

(4) No reduction may be made unless the worker receives notice of the reduction prior to the month in which the reduction is made.

(5) In no event shall the reduction reduce total benefits to less than the greater amount the worker may be entitled to under this title or the federal old-age, survivors and disability insurance act.

(6) The director, pursuant to rules adopted in accordance with the procedures provided in the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, may exercise his discretion to waive, in whole or in part, the amount of any overpayment where the recovery would be against equity and good conscience.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 51.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, any overpayments previously recovered under the provisions of RCW 51.32.220 as now or hereafter amended shall be limited to six months' overpayments. Where greater recovery has already been made, the director, in his discretion, may make restitution in those cases where an extraordinary hardship has been created.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This 1979 act applies to all cases in which notification of the first reduction in compensation pursuant to RCW 51.32.220 is mailed after the effective date of this 1979 act, regardless of when the basis, authority, or cause for such reduction may have arisen. To such extent, this 1979 act applies retrospectively, but in all other respects it applies prospectively.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If any provision of this 1979 act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 5, chapter 1, Laws of 1959 and RCW 41.14.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Immediately after appointment the commission shall organize by electing one of its members chairman and shall hold regular meetings at least once a month, and such additional meetings as may be required for the proper discharge of its duties.

It shall appoint a chief examiner who shall also serve as secretary of the commission and such assistants as may be necessary. The chief examiner shall keep the records for the commission, preserve all reports made to it, superintend and keep a record of all examinations held under its direction, and perform such other duties as the commission may prescribe.

The chief examiner shall be appointed as a result of competitive examination, which examination ~~((may be either original and))~~ must be open to all properly qualified citizens of the county ~~((, or promotional and limited to persons already in the service of the county sheriff's office))~~: PROVIDED, That no appointee of the commission, either as chief examiner or as an assistant to the chief examiner, shall be an employee of the sheriff's department. The chief examiner may be subject to suspension, reduction, or discharge in the same manner and subject to the same limitations as are provided in the case of members of the classified service.

Sec 2. Section 6, chapter 1, Laws of 1959 and RCW 41.14.060 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be the duty of the civil service commission:

(1) To make suitable rules and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions hereof. Such rules and regulations shall provide in detail the manner in which examinations may be held, and appointments, promotions, reallocations, transfers, reinstatements, demotions, suspensions, and discharges shall be made, and may also provide for any other matters connected with the general subject of personnel administration, and which may be considered desirable to further carry out the general purposes of this chapter, or which may be found to be in the interest of good personnel administration. The rules and regulations and any amendments thereof shall be printed, mimeographed, or multigraphed for free public distribution. Such rules and regulations may be changed from time to time.

(2) To give practical tests which shall consist only of subjects which will fairly determine the capacity of persons examined to perform duties of the position to which appointment is to be made. Such tests may include tests of physical fitness or manual skill or both.

(3) To make investigations concerning and report upon all matters touching the enforcement and effect of the provisions of this chapter, and the rules and regulations prescribed hereunder; to inspect all departments, offices, places, positions, and employments affected by this chapter, and ascertain whether this chapter and all such rules and regulations are being obeyed. Such investigations may be made by the commission or by any commissioner designated by the commission for that purpose. Not only must these investigations be made by the commission as aforesaid, but the commission must make like investigation on petition of a citizen, duly verified, stating that irregularities or abuses exist, or setting forth in concise language, in writing, the necessity for such investigation. In the course of such investigation the commission or designated commissioner, or chief examiner, may administer oaths, subpoena and require the attendance of witnesses and the production by them of books, papers, documents, and accounts appertaining to the investigation and also cause the deposition of witnesses residing within or without the state to be taken in the manner prescribed by law for like depositions in civil actions in the superior court; and the oaths administered and the subpoenas issued hereunder shall have the same force and effect as the oaths administered and subpoenas issued by a superior court judge in his judicial capacity; and the failure of any person so subpoenaed to comply with the provisions of this section shall be deemed a violation of this chapter, and punishable as such.

(4) To conduct hearings and investigations in accordance with this chapter and by the rules of practice and procedure adopted by the commission, and in the conduct thereof neither the commission, nor designated commissioner shall be bound by technical rules of evidence. No informality in any proceedings or hearing, or in the manner of taking testimony before the commission or designated commissioner, shall invalidate any order, decision, rule, or regulation made, approved, or confirmed by the commission: PROVIDED, That no order, decision, rule, or regulation made by any designated commissioner conducting any hearing or investigation alone shall be of any force or effect whatsoever unless and until concurred in by at least one of the other two members.

(5) To hear and determine appeals or complaints respecting the allocation of positions, the rejection of an examinee, and such other matters as may be referred to the commission.

(6) To provide for, formulate, and hold competitive tests to determine the relative qualifications of persons who seek employment in any class or position and as a result thereof establish eligible lists for the various classes of positions, and provide that persons laid off, or who have accepted voluntary demotion in lieu of layoff, because of curtailment of expenditures, reduction in force, and for like causes, head the list in the order of their seniority, to the end that they shall be the first to be reemployed or reinstated in their former job class.

(7) To certify to the appointing authority, when a vacant position is to be filled, on written request, the names of the three persons highest on the eligible list for the class. If there is no such list, to authorize a provisional or temporary appointment list for such class. Such temporary provisional appointment shall not continue for a period longer than four months; nor shall any person receive more than one provisional appointment or serve more than four months as provisional appointee in any one fiscal year.

(8) To keep such records as may be necessary for the proper administration of this chapter.

The unclassified position appointments authorized by this section must include selections from the following positions up to the limit of the number of positions authorized: Undersheriff, inspector, chief criminal deputy, chief civil deputy, jail superintendent, and administrative assistant or administrative secretary. The initial selection of specific positions to be exempt shall be made by the sheriff, who shall notify the civil service commission of his selection. Each health systems agency shall have as its primary responsibility the provision of effective health planning for its health service area and the promotion of the development within the area of health services, manpower, and facilities which meet identified needs, reduce documented inefficiencies, and implement the health plans of the agencies which shall include all classes of health care practitioners. To meet its primary responsibility, a health systems agency shall carry out such functions as are prescribed for health systems agencies in Public Law 93-641, including but not limited to the following functions:

(1) Assemble and analyze data concerning: The status and its determinants of the health of the residents of its health service area; the status of the health care delivery system in the area and the use of that system by the residents of the area; the effect which the area's health care delivery system has on the health of the residents of the area; the number, type, and location of the area's health resources including health services, manpower, and facilities; the patterns of utilization of the area's health resources; and the environmental and occupational exposure factors affecting immediate and long-term health conditions;

(2) Establish, annually review, and amend as necessary a health systems plan;

(3) Establish, annually review, and amend as necessary an annual implementation plan which describes objectives which will achieve the goals of the health systems plan and priorities among the objectives;

(4) Develop and publish specific plans and projects for achieving the objectives of the annual implementation plan;

(5) Review and make recommendations to the department respecting the need for new institutional health services proposed to be offered or developed in the health service area of such health systems agency;

(6) Review on a periodic basis, at least every five years, all institutional health services offered in the health service area of the agency and make recommendations to the department respecting the appropriateness of such services in the area;

(7) Recommend annually to the department projects for the modernization, construction, and conversion of medical facilities in the agency's health service area—which projects will achieve the health systems plan and annual implementation plan of the health systems agency and the priorities among such projects; and

(8) Seek the assistance of individuals and public and private entities in the health service area, to the extent practicable, in implementing the health systems plan and annual implementation plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Public accessibility to records shall be accorded by health systems agencies pursuant to Public Law 93-641 and RCW 42.17.250 through 42.17.340. A health systems agency shall be considered a "public agency" for the sole purpose of complying with the "Open Public Meetings Act of 1971", chapter 42.30 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) The department is authorized and directed to implement the certificate of need program in this state pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

(2) There shall be a state certificate of need program which is consistent with the provisions of Public Law 93-641.

(3) No person shall offer or develop a new institutional health service, or undertake expenditures in preparation for such offering or development, unless a certificate of need authorizing such new institutional health services has been issued.

(4) New institutional health services subject to review under this chapter shall include:

(a) The construction, development, or other establishment of a new health care facility or health maintenance organization;

(b) Any expenditure by or on behalf of a health care facility or health maintenance organization in excess of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars which under generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied is a capital expenditure, excluding expenditures for site acquisition, acquisition of existing acute care health facilities, health maintenance organizations, or expenditures solely for the termination or reduction of beds or of a health service;

(c) A change in bed capacity of a health care facility or health maintenance organization which increases the total number of licensed beds or redistributes beds among facility and service categories of acute care, skilled nursing, intermediate care, and boarding home care if the bed redistribution is to be effective for a period in excess of six months;

(d) Any new health services which are offered in or through a health care facility or health maintenance organization, and which were not offered on a regular basis by, in, or through such health care facility or health maintenance organization within the twelve-month period prior to the time such services would be offered; and

(e) Any expenditure by or on behalf of a health care facility or health maintenance organization in excess of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars made in preparation for the offering or development of a new institutional service and any arrangement or commitment made for financing the offering or development of the new institutional health service. Expenditures of preparation for the offering of a new institutional health service shall include expenditures for architectural designs, plans, working drawings, and specifications. The department may issue certificates of need permitting predevelopment expenditures only, without authorizing the development or offering of new institutional health services with respect to which such predevelopment expenditures are made.

(5) No person may divide a project in order to avoid review requirements under any of the thresholds specified in this section.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, prior to October 1, 1980, new institutional health services of health maintenance organizations shall include only those services which are provided in or through a health care facility owned, operated, or otherwise utilized by the health maintenance organization.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) Certificates of need shall be issued, denied, suspended, or revoked by the secretary of the department, or his designee, in accord with the provisions of this chapter and rules and regulations proposed by the department and adopted by the board of health pursuant to this chapter. Rules and regulations shall establish review procedures and criteria for the certificate of need program.

(2) Criteria for the review of certificate of need applications shall include but not be limited to consideration of the following:

(a) The relationship of the health services being reviewed to the applicable health plans;

(b) The relationship of services reviewed to the long-range development plan, if any, of the persons providing or proposing such services;

(c) The need that the population served or to be served by such services has for such services;

(d) The availability of less costly or more effective alternative methods of providing such services;

(e) The immediate and the long-range financial feasibility of the proposal as well as the probable impact of the proposal on the cost of and charges for providing health services by the persons proposing the new institutional health service, including findings and recommendations of the Washington state hospital commission in the case of applications submitted by hospitals;

(f) The relationship of the services proposed to be provided to the existing health care system of the area in which such services are proposed to be provided;

(g) The availability of resources including health manpower, management personnel, and funds for capital and operating needs for the provision of the services and the availability of alternative uses of such resources for the provision of other health services;

(h) The relationship, including the organizational relationship, of the health services proposed to be provided to ancillary and support services;

(i) Special needs and circumstances of those entities which provide a substantial portion of their services or resources, or both, to individuals not residing in the health service areas in which the entities are located or in adjacent health service areas;

(j) The special needs and circumstances of health maintenance organizations and the enrolled participants for whom the health maintenance organization has a contractual obligation to serve or may reasonably be expected to serve in the future. In order to permit health maintenance organizations to plan on the basis of enrolled participants rather than a geographical service area, health maintenance organization projects shall be evaluated on the basis of cost-effectiveness to the enrolled participants of the health maintenance organization: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That consideration of a new institutional health service proposed by a health maintenance organization shall also address the availability and cost of obtaining the proposed new institutional health services from the existing providers in the area;

(k) The special needs and circumstances of biomedical and behavioral research projects which are designed to meet a national need and for which local conditions offer special advantages;

(l) In the case of a construction project, the costs and methods of the proposed construction, including the cost and methods of energy provision, and the probable impact of the construction project reviewed on the cost of providing health services by the person proposing such construction project; and

(m) The special needs and circumstances of osteopathic hospitals and nonallopathic services.

(3) When a hospital has developed a long-range health facility plan, pursuant to section 14 of this act, and the proposed new institutional health service is consistent with such plan, an expedited review process shall be instituted by the department as it has been done since the enactment of chapter 70.38 RCW in 1971.

(4) The department in making its final decision may issue a conditional certificate of need if it finds that the project is justified only under specific circumstances. The conditions may be released if it can be substantiated that the conditions are no longer valid and the release of such conditions would be consistent with the purposes of this chapter.

(5) Criteria adopted for review in accordance with subsection (2) of this section may vary according to the purpose for which the particular review is being conducted or the type of health service reviewed.

(6) Any applicant denied a certificate of need or whose certificate of need has been suspended or revoked shall be afforded an opportunity for administrative review in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW and a hearing shall be held within one hundred twenty days of a request therefor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) A certificate of need shall be valid for two years: PROVIDED, That one six-month extension may be made if it can be substantiated that substantial and continuing progress toward commencement of the project has been made as defined by regulations to be adopted pursuant to this chapter.

(2) A project for which a certificate of need has been issued shall be commenced during the validity period for the certificate of need.

(3) The department, in cooperation with the health systems agencies established in the state under the provision of Public Law 93-641, and the hospital commission, in the case of hospital projects, shall monitor the costs and components of approved projects to assure conformance with certificates of need that have been issued. Rules and regulations adopted shall specify when changes in the cost or components of a project require reevaluation of the project. The department may require applicants to submit periodic progress reports on approved projects or other information as may be necessary to effectuate its monitoring responsibilities.

(4) The secretary of the department, in the case of a new health facility, shall not issue any license, and the insurance commissioner, in the case of a new health maintenance organization, shall not issue any certificate of registration, unless and until a prior certificate of need shall have been issued by the department for the offering or development of such new health facility or new health maintenance organization respectively.

(5) Any person who offers or develops a new institutional health service without first being granted a certificate of need by the secretary of the department shall be liable to the state in an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars a day for each day of such unauthorized offering or development. Such amounts of money shall be recoverable in an action brought by the attorney general on behalf of the state in the superior court of any county in which the unauthorized offering or development occurred. Any amounts of money so recovered by the attorney general shall be deposited in the state general fund.

(6) The department may bring any action to enjoin a violation or the threatened violation of the provisions of this chapter or any rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter, or may bring any legal proceeding authorized by law, including but not limited to the special proceedings authorized in Title 7 RCW, in the superior court in the county in which such violation occurs or is about to occur, or in the superior court of Thurston county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) The secretary of the department shall have authority to:

(a) Provide when needed temporary or intermittent services of experts or consultants or organizations thereof, by contract, when such services are to be performed on a part time or fee-for-service basis; and

(b) Make or cause to be made such on-site surveys of health care or medical facilities as may be necessary to the development of the state health plan and state medical facilities plan and the administration of the certificate of need program.

(2) Upon recommendation of the department the board of health shall have authority to:

(a) Promulgate and enforce rules and regulations under which providers doing business with the state shall submit to the department such data related to health and health care as the department finds necessary to the performance of its functions under this chapter;

(b) Promulgate rules and regulations pertaining to the maintenance and operation of medical facilities which receive federal assistance under the provisions of Title XVI;

(c) Promulgate rules and regulations in implementation of the provisions of this chapter, including the establishment of procedures for public hearings for predecisions and post-decisions on applications for certificate of need.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) Long-range health facility plans shall be filed with the appropriate health systems agency effective January 1, 1984. In order to ensure a streamlined planning process with the minimum of duplication, a common form for such plan shall be developed by the department, in cooperation with the health systems agencies and the Washington state hospital commission, which shall also be utilized as the three-year capital expenditure plan required by the hospital commission.

(2) The health systems agency shall review all such health facility plans in its area, identify any significant inconsistencies with the health systems plan for that area, and assist hospitals to cooperatively resolve inconsistencies among their plans and the health systems plan.

(3) An expedited certificate of need review shall be conducted by the department when:

(a) Long-range health facility plans have been developed in accordance with the requirements of this section; and

(b) When an application for a certificate of need has been found to be consistent with the applicant's long-range health facility plan and the applicable health systems plan, annual implementation plan, state health plan, and state medical facilities plan; and

(c) When there has not been a significant change, since the long-range health facility plan was approved, in existing health facilities of the same type or in the need for such health facilities and services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The enactment of this chapter shall not have the effect of terminating, or in any way modifying the validity of any certificate of need which shall already have been issued prior to the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. In any case where the provisions of this chapter may directly conflict with provisions of Public Law 93-641 or any amendments thereto, or regulations promulgated thereunder, the provisions of Public Law 93-641 shall supersede and be paramount.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Sections 1 through 16 of this act shall be added to chapter 70.38 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. (1) Sections 10, 11, 12, and 21 shall take effect on January 1, 1980.

(2) Any certificate of need application which was submitted and declared complete, but upon which final action had not been taken prior to January 1, 1980, shall be reviewed and action taken based on chapter 70.38 RCW, as in effect prior to the effective date of this 1979 act, and the regulations adopted thereunder.

MOTOR VEHICLE EMISSION CONTROL

AN ACT Relating to motor vehicle emission control; adding new sections to chapter 46.16 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 70 RCW; prescribing penalties; providing an effective date; and providing an expiration date.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

- (1) "Department" means the department of ecology.
- (2) "Director" means the director of the department of ecology.
- (3) "Fleet" means a group of twenty-five or more motor vehicles owned or leased concurrently by one person.
- (4) "Motor vehicle" means any self-propelled vehicle required to be licensed pursuant to chapter 46.16 RCW.

(5) "Motor vehicle dealer" means a motor vehicle dealer, as defined in RCW 46.70.011, that is licensed pursuant to chapter 46.70 RCW.

(6) "Person" means an individual, firm, public or private corporation, association, partnership, political subdivision of the state, municipality, or governmental agency.

(7) The terms "air contaminant," "air pollution," "air quality standard," "ambient air," "emission," and "emission standard" have the meanings given them in RCW 70.94.030.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) The department shall conduct the following programs in a manner that will enhance the successful implementation of the air pollution control system established for motor vehicles by this chapter:

(a) A voluntary motor vehicle emissions inspection program;

(b) A public educational program regarding the health effects of air pollution emitted by motor vehicles; the purpose, operation, and effect of emission control devices and systems; and the effect that proper maintenance of motor vehicle engines has on fuel economy and air pollution emission; and

(c) A public notification program identifying the geographic areas of the state that are designated as being noncompliance areas and emission contributing areas and describing the requirements imposed under this chapter for those areas.

(2) (a) The department, the superintendent of public instruction, and the state board for community college education shall develop cooperatively, after consultation with automotive trades joint apprenticeship committees approved in accordance with RCW 49.04.040, a program for granting certificates of instruction to persons who successfully complete a course of study, under general requirements established by the director, in the maintenance of motor vehicle engines, the use of engine and exhaust analysis equipment, and the repair and maintenance of emission control devices.

(b) The department shall make available to the public a list of those persons who have received certificates of instruction under subsection (2)(a) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The director shall adopt motor vehicle emission standards. The standards adopted shall ensure that no less than seventy percent of the vehicles tested annually comply with the standards on the first inspection conducted for the vehicles under this chapter each year. The standards shall be adopted as rules in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW.

(2) The director shall adopt rules for conducting emission tests for motor vehicles.

(3) The director shall adopt air quality standards for air contaminants from the emissions of motor vehicles. The standards shall be adopted as rules and may not be more stringent than those established for the contaminants by the United States environmental protection agency as in effect on the effective date of this act to implement the federal clean air act.

(4) The director shall adopt, by rule, criteria for calibrating emission testing equipment, including, but not limited to, those identifying standard calibration gas mixtures.

(5) The director shall require that the electronic equipment utilized to test emissions at any station established pursuant to section 4(5) of this act or authorized pursuant to section 8 or 9 of this act be properly calibrated.

The department shall examine frequently the calibration of the emission testing equipment used at such stations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The director shall designate a geographic area as being a "noncompliance area" for motor vehicle emissions if:

(a) Prior to December 31, 1982, analysis of the data recorded at the monitoring sites indicates that an air quality standard established pursuant to this chapter will probably be exceeded after December 31, 1982; or

(b) On or after December 31, 1982, the department's analysis of the data recorded at the monitoring sites indicates that such a standard will probably be exceeded, and if the department determines that the primary source of the contaminant being monitored at the sites is motor vehicle emissions: PROVIDED, That the department's analysis may not be based upon data recorded at an air monitoring site for less than one year.

(2) The department shall analyze information regarding the motor vehicle traffic in a noncompliance area to determine the smallest land area, which shall include the noncompliance area, within whose boundaries are registered motor vehicles that contribute significantly to the violation of motor vehicle related air quality standards in the noncompliance area. The director shall declare such an area to be an emission contributing area.

(3) In establishing the external boundaries of an emission contributing area, the director shall utilize the boundaries established for zip code service areas by the United States postal service.

The director shall designate areas as being noncompliance areas or emission contributing areas, and shall establish the boundaries of such areas, by rule. Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW, a rule which would designate such an area or establish or modify the boundary of such an area may not be adopted until it has been submitted to the standing committees on ecology of the house of representatives and the senate for review and approval: PROVIDED, That the standing committees shall take into account alternative plans for traffic re-routing and traffic bans that may have been prepared by local municipal corporations for the purpose of satisfying federal emission guidelines.

(4) The department shall administer an emission inspection system for all motor vehicles registered within the boundaries of each such emission contributing area.

(5) The director shall authorize, by contract, one or more individuals, firms, private corporations, associations or partnerships to establish and operate inspection stations for conducting the vehicle emission tests authorized by this chapter: PROVIDED, That no person engaged in the inspection of motor vehicles pursuant to subsection (5) of this section shall perform for compensation repairs on any vehicles. No public body may establish or operate such contracted inspection stations. Any such contract shall be let in accordance with the procedures established for competitive bids in chapter 43.19 RCW.

(6) The provisions of subsection (5) of this section apply to inspections conducted pursuant to this section. Those provisions also apply to inspections conducted pursuant to section 2(1)(a) of this act except when the inspections are conducted for the following purposes:

- (a) Auditing;
- (b) Contractor evaluation;
- (c) Collection of data for establishing calibration and performance standards;
- (d) Public information and education; and
- (e) Providing a voluntary inspection program if sufficient contractors may not be obtained for the program at a reasonable cost by January 1, 1981.

(7) The fee to be charged for emission inspections conducted pursuant to this section shall be established by the director by rule. The inspection fee shall be a standard fee applicable state-wide and shall be no greater than ten dollars.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The director shall review annually the air quality and forecasted air quality of each area in the state designated as a "noncompliance area" for motor vehicle emissions.

(2) If the director determines that:

(a) The air quality standards for contaminants derived from motor vehicle emissions are no longer being violated in the "noncompliance area"; and

(b) Those standards would not be violated in the "noncompliance area" if the emission inspection system established in the emission contributing area for the "noncompliance area" in accordance with section 4(4) of this act were discontinued and the requirements of section 11 of this act no longer applied to the area, the area shall no longer be designated as a "noncompliance area" for motor vehicle emissions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Any person whose motor vehicle is inspected at an inspection station authorized by the director pursuant to section 4(5) of this act shall receive the results of the inspection test. If the inspected vehicle's emissions comply with the standards established by the director, the person shall receive a dated certificate of compliance and shall pay an inspection fee at the time of inspection.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Any person:

(1) Whose motor vehicle is tested pursuant to section 6 of this act and fails to comply with the emission standards established for the vehicle;

(2) Who, following such a test, expends more than fifty dollars for repairs and/or parts solely devoted to meeting the emission standards; and

(3) Whose vehicle is inspected again but again fails, may be issued a certificate of acceptance by the department. To receive the certificate, the person must document the expenditure and the purpose of the expenditure to the satisfaction of the department and must pay the inspection fee established under section 4(7) of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The director may authorize an owner or lessee of a fleet of motor vehicles, or the owner's or lessee's agent, to inspect the vehicles in the fleet and issue certificates of compliance for the vehicles in the fleet if the director determines that: (1) The director's emission and inspection standards will be complied with; and (2) certificates will be issued only to vehicles in the fleet and only when appropriate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The director may authorize a motor vehicle dealer, selling used motor vehicles, to inspect the vehicles owned and being offered for sale by that dealer and issue certificates of compliance for the vehicles if the director determines that: The director's emission and inspection standards will be complied with; and certificates will be issued only when appropriate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The department shall investigate complaints received regarding the operation of emission testing stations and shall require corrections or modifications in those operations when deemed necessary.

The department shall also review complaints received regarding the maintenance or repairs secured by owners of motor vehicles for the purpose of complying with the requirements of this chapter. When possible, the department shall assist such owners in determining the merits of the complaints.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 46.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Neither the department of licensing nor its agents may issue or renew a motor vehicle license for any vehicle registered in an emission contributing area, as that area is established under section 4 of this act, unless the application for issuance or renewal is: (a) Accompanied by a valid certificate of compliance issued pursuant to section 6, 8, or 9 of this act or a valid certificate of acceptance issued pursuant to section 7 of this act; or (b) exempted from this requirement pursuant to subsection (2) of this section.

The certificates must have a date of validation which is within ninety days of the date of application for the vehicle license or license renewal.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply to license applications for:

(a) New motor vehicles whose equitable or legal title has never been transferred to a person who in good faith purchases the vehicle for purposes other than resale;

(b) Motor vehicles fifteen years old or older;

(c) Motor vehicles that use propulsion units powered exclusively by electricity;

(d) Motorcycles as defined in RCW 46.04.330 and motor-driven cycles as defined in RCW 46.04.332;

(e) Motor vehicles powered by diesel engines;

(f) Farm vehicles as defined in RCW 46.04.181; or

(g) Motor vehicles exempted by the director of the department of ecology.

The provisions of subparagraph (a) of this subsection may not be construed as exempting from the provisions of subsection (1) of this section applications for the renewal of licenses for motor vehicles that are or have been leased.

(3) The department of licensing shall mail to each owner of a vehicle registered within an emission contributing area a notice regarding the boundaries of the area and restrictions established under this section that apply to vehicles registered in such areas. The information for the notice shall be supplied to the department of licensing by the department of ecology. Such a notice shall be mailed to the owner ninety days prior to the expiration date of the owner's motor vehicle license.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Certificates of compliance and acceptance constitute official forms. False statements made thereon or made to secure such certificates are punishable pursuant to RCW 9A.72.040 and the certificates shall bear notice to that effect.

Certificates of compliance and certificates of acceptance may be issued only in the manner authorized by sections 6, 7, 8, and 9 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The director of the department of ecology shall adopt rules implementing and enforcing sections 1 through 10, section 11 (2)(g) and section 12 of this act in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW. Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW, any rule implementing and enforcing section 1 through 10, section 11 (2)(g), and section 12 of this act may not be adopted until it has been submitted to the standing committees on ecology of the house of representatives and senate for review and approval.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The authority granted by this chapter to the director and the department for controlling vehicle emissions is supplementary to the department's authority to control air pollution pursuant to chapter 70.94 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 46.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The director of the department of licensing shall adopt rules implementing and enforcing section 11, except for section 11 (2)(g), of this act in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Section 11 of this act shall take effect on January 1, 1982. reasonably necessary. The consent may be withdrawn at any time before the decree of termination is issued.

(2) If a petition seeking involuntary termination of a parent and child relationship has been filed, and the parent fails to respond after notification pursuant to sections 5, 8, and 10 of this act, the failure to respond constitutes consent to termination on the part of the parent involved.

(3) If a petition seeking involuntary termination of a parent and child relationship has been filed and the parent, against whom termination is sought, timely appears and contests the termination, the petition shall be treated as a petition for dependency and proceedings shall be held pursuant to RCW 13.34.180, except in the following cases:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. An action to terminate the parent and child relationship of an alleged father may also be commenced under this chapter as follows:

The petition shall indicate the approximate date and location of conception and the expected date of birth. It shall further allege that a particular person is the father of her expected child and shall request the court to notify the alleged father of his right to file a claim of paternity under chapter 26.26 RCW. The petition may allege that one of two or more men is the father, where circumstances warrant. On the filing of the petition, the court shall issue a notice of the petition and intent to release custody or consent to adoption, which notice shall be served upon the alleged father by any officer or person authorized to serve process of the court. Proof of personal service shall be filed with the court, or if personal service cannot be made, proof of service by publication under section 8(4) of this act shall be filed with the court.

(2) A notice of the petition and intent to release custody and consent to adoption shall:

(a) Indicate the approximate date and location of conception of the child and the expected date of birth;

(b) Inform the alleged father of his right under chapter 26.26 RCW to file a claim of paternity before the birth of the child, or to file a notice of intent to claim paternity directly as a responsive pleading in the cause of action commenced by the mother's petition under this section;

(c) Inform the alleged father of the rights to which his filing of a claim of paternity will entitle him under chapter 26.26 RCW; and

(d) Inform the alleged father, where the petition and notice under subsection (1) of this section is filed and served more than thirty days prior to birth, that his failure to file a claim of paternity before the expected date of birth of the child shall constitute a waiver of his right to receive the notice to which he would otherwise be entitled under section 8 of this act and shall result in termination of his rights and responsibilities with regard to the child.

(3) Proof of service of the petition and notice of intent to release custody and consent to adoption, or the alleged father's verified acknowledgement of his intent to release custody and consent to adoption, shall be filed with the court if the notice was given to the alleged father.

It shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney to handle delinquency cases under Title [chapter] 13.24 RCW and it shall be the duty of the attorney general to handle dependency cases under Title [chapter] 13.24 RCW. It shall be the duty of the attorney general in contested cases brought by the department to present the evidence supporting any petition alleging dependency or seeking the termination of a parent and child relationship or any contested case filed under section 3 (2) of this act or approving or disapproving alternative residential placement: PROVIDED, That in class 1 through 9 counties the attorney general may contract with the prosecuting attorney of the county to perform said duties of the attorney general.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If the termination proceeding is contested pursuant to section 12 of this act, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the child. In all other termination proceedings, the court may, in its discretion, appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the child. In termination proceedings in which either parent is a minor, the court shall appoint an unrelated and independent guardian ad litem for the minor parent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) Within thirty days after the filing of any petition under this chapter, the court shall set a time and place for a hearing and shall cause notice of the hearing to be given to the petitioner, the parents of the child, any father whose paternity of a child born out of wedlock has been established in a judicial proceeding to which he was a party before the filing of a termination petition, any guardian of the person of the child, any person having legal custody of the child, and any guardian ad litem of any party. The hearing shall not be held until after the birth of the child.

(2) Notice of hearing shall also be served upon any alleged father unless notice is waived under section 5 of this act.

(3) Notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition, verified by the petitioner, the petitioner's agent or attorney, or the court clerk, shall be served on the persons named in this section at least five days before the hearing.

(4) If personal service on the parent or any alleged father, either within or without this state, cannot be effected, notice shall be given (a) by registered mail, mailed at least twenty days before the hearing to the person's last known address; and (b) by publication at least twenty days before the hearing. Publication shall be in a newspaper of general circulation likely to give notice in the city or town of the last known address of the parent, whether within or without this state, or, if no address is known or this publication is not feasible, in the city or town where the termination petition has been filed.

(5) Notice and appearance may be waived by a parent or an alleged father before the court or in a writing attested to by two or more credible witnesses who are at least eighteen years of age and subscribe their names thereto in the presence of the person executing the waiver. The waiver shall be acknowledged before a notary public and shall contain the current address of the parent or alleged father. The face of the waiver shall contain language explaining the meaning and consequences of the waiver and the meaning and consequences of termination of the parent and child relationship. A parent who has executed a waiver shall not be required to appear.

(6) If a person entitled to notice is known to the petitioner to be unable to read or understand English, all notices, if practicable, shall be given in that person's native language or through an interpreter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. All petitions under this chapter shall be heard by the court without a jury. Proceedings of hearings shall be recorded. The general public shall be excluded and only those persons shall be admitted whose presence is requested by any person entitled to notice under this chapter or whom the judge finds to have a direct interest in the case or in the work of the court. Persons so admitted shall not disclose any information obtained at the hearing which would identify the individual child or parent involved. The court may require the presence of witnesses deemed necessary to the disposition of the petition, including persons making any report, study, or examination which is before the court if those persons are reasonably available, but a parent who has executed a waiver under section 8(5) of this act need not appear at the hearing. If the court finds that it is in the child's best interest, the child may be excluded from the hearing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. If the natural father's identity is unknown to the petitioner, at the hearing pursuant to a petition the court shall inquire concerning the identity of the father, but may not compel disclosure by the mother. If, after inquiry, the identity of the natural father remains unknown, the court shall order notice to be given by publication under section 8(4) of this act if this notice has not previously been given. The notice shall include the mother's name and the date and place of birth of the child. If notice under section 8(4) of this act has not been given before the hearing, the hearing shall be continued for at least thirty but no more than forty-five days.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. If the alleged father was served with a notice of the petition and intent to release or consent under section 5 of this act at least thirty days before the expected date of birth specified in the notice, and if the alleged father failed to file an intent to claim paternity under section 5 of this act before the expected date of birth of the child, the court shall permanently terminate the alleged father's paternal rights and responsibilities with regard to the child.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If the alleged father appears and contests the termination of his parental rights and responsibilities by filing a claim under chapter 26.26 RCW, the court shall take the following action:

(1) If the alleged father has failed, without good cause for the failure, to establish any relationship with the child, and did not provide any support or care for the mother during pregnancy or for either the mother or child after the child's birth, until notice of hearing was served upon him, the court shall terminate his rights to the child.

(2) If the alleged father has, before notice of the hearing was served upon him, established any relationship with the child, or has provided any support or care for the mother during pregnancy, or for either the mother or child after the child's birth, the rights of the alleged father shall not be terminated except as otherwise provided by this chapter.

(3) The court shall inform the alleged father of the right to representation by legal counsel at all stages of the termination proceeding. The court shall appoint counsel to represent any indigent party requesting counsel. A waiver of counsel is not effective unless the court has first explained to the party the nature and meaning of the petition seeking termination of the parent and child relationship.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. In the case of a petition filed by a parent and joined by the petitioner's spouse seeking termination with respect to the other parent, and such other parent appears and contests the termination, the court shall determine whether such parent has deserted or abandoned the child under circumstances showing a wilful substantial lack of regard for parental obligations. If the court makes such a finding, it shall terminate his rights to the child.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) An order terminating the parent and child relationship divests the parent and the child of all legal rights, powers, privileges, immunities, duties, and obligations with respect to each other, except the right of the child to inherit from the parent.

(2) The parent and child relationship may be terminated with respect to one parent without affecting the legal relationship between the child and the other parent.

(3) The parent whose relationship with the child has been terminated is not thereafter entitled to notice of proceedings for the adoption of the child by another, nor has the parent any right to contest the adoption or otherwise to participate in the proceedings unless an appeal from the termination order is pending or otherwise ordered by the court.

(4) No order or decree entered under this chapter shall disentitle a child to any benefit due the child from any third person, agency, state, or the United States; nor shall any action under this chapter affect any rights and benefits that a native American child derives from the child's descent from a member of an Indian tribe or band.

Sec. 15. Section 3, chapter 291, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 26, chapter 42, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 26.32.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Written consent to ~~((such))~~ adoption must be filed ~~((prior to a hearing on))~~ with the petition for adoption, as follows:

(1) By the person to be adopted, if such person is fourteen years of age or older, but the filing of such consent shall not obviate the necessity of securing any other consent herein required;

~~(2) ((If the person to be adopted is a minor, then by each of his living parents, except as provided in RCW 26.32.040 and 26.32.050 as now or hereafter amended;~~

~~((4))~~ (3) If the person to be adopted is a minor and has been permanently committed upon due notice to his parents by any court of general jurisdiction to an approved agency, then by such approved agency ~~((, in which event neither notice to nor consent by its parents in the adoption proceeding shall be necessary. PROVIDED, That if the approved agency refuses to consent to the adoption, the court, in its discretion, may order that such consent be dispensed with))~~.

Sec. 16. Section 6, chapter 291, Laws of 1955 and RCW 26.32.060 are each amended to read as follows:

An adoption proceeding shall be instituted by filing a petition in the superior court of the proper county. Such petition may be filed under the same cause number as the termination proceeding regarding the child, where a filing fee has been paid. The petition shall contain allegations as to all requisite facts, including the new name, if any, to be given the child, the qualifications, religion and race of the adopter, and the race and tribal affiliation, if any, of the child, the religion of the child, if any, and if the child's religion is unknown, then the petition shall state unknown, and shall be signed and verified under oath by the proposed adopter. If the petition is by one spouse to adopt a child of the other spouse, it shall be approved under oath by such other spouse. Where an agency under RCW 13.34.210, 26.32.010, or 26.32.200 is entitled to custody of the child, the petition must be accompanied by the consent of the agency unless the consent is waived by the court. In the case of an adoption petition not involving an agency, no other adoption petition may be filed until a final determination is made on the original petition unless additional filings are permitted by the court upon a showing of good cause.

Sec. 17. Section 3, chapter 172, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 26.32.210 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No petition for the adoption of a minor shall be granted unless a preplacement report and petitioner's sworn statement that he has caused to be filed all reports known to him on preplacement studies made of petitioner are on file with the court except as provided in RCW 26.32.270(2).

(2) ~~((No order of relinquishment as to a minor whom petitioner seeks to adopt shall be granted unless:~~

~~(a) A preplacement report and petitioner's sworn statement that he has caused to be filed all reports known to him on preplacement studies made of petitioner are on file with the court prior to the hearing on the order of relinquishment; or~~

~~(b) The order of relinquishment provides that the minor is to be relinquished to the custody of an agency.))~~ The child shall not be relocated into the home of the prospective adoptive parents before the completion of the preplacement report under RCW 26.32.230.

Sec. 18. Section 1, chapter 49, Laws of 1903 as last amended by section 34, chapter 42, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 26.37.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Any benevolent or charitable society incorporated and licensed under the laws of this state for the purpose of receiving, caring for or placing out for adoption, or improving the condition of orphan, homeless, neglected or abused minor children of this state shall have authority to receive, control, and dispose of children under eighteen years of age ~~((under the following provisions:~~

~~(2) In case of death or legal incapacity of a father or his abandonment or neglect to provide for his family, the mother shall have authority to make such surrender, and in case of the death or legal incapacity of a mother, or~~

(3) In all cases where the person or persons legally authorized to make such surrender are not known, any judge of superior court may cause a notice of hearing to be published in any newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the county, and if he deems it best for such orphan, homeless, neglected or abused child, he may surrender it to any benevolent or charitable society incorporated under the laws of Washington and having for its object the care of such children:

(7) "Support moneys" means any moneys paid to satisfy a support obligation whether denominated as child support, spouse support, alimony, maintenance, or any other such moneys intended to satisfy an obligation for support of any person or satisfaction in whole or in part of arrears or delinquency on such an obligation.

Sec. 4. Section 3, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.030 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Except as provided in this section and in section 27 of this 1973 amendatory act, any payment of public assistance money made to or for the benefit of any dependent child or children creates a debt due and owing to the department by the natural or adoptive parent or parents who are responsible for support of such children in an amount equal to the amount of public assistance money so paid. PROVIDED, That where there has been a superior court order, the debt shall be limited to the amount provided for by said order. The department shall have the right to petition the appropriate superior court for modification of a superior court order on the same grounds as a party to said cause. Where a child has been placed in foster care, and a written agreement for payment of support has been entered into by the responsible parent or parents and the department, the debt shall be limited to the amount provided for in said agreement. PROVIDED, That if a court order for support is or has been entered, the provisions of said order shall prevail over the agreement. The department shall adopt rules and regulations, based on ability to pay, with respect to the level of support to be provided for in such agreements, or modifications of such agreements based on changed circumstances:))~~

The department shall be subrogated to the right of ~~((said))~~ any dependent child or children or person having the care, custody, and control of said child or children, if public assistance money is paid to or for the benefit of the child, to prosecute or maintain any support action or execute any administrative remedy existing under the laws of the state of Washington to obtain reimbursement of moneys ((thus)) expended, based on the support obligation of the responsible parent established by a superior court order or RCW 26.16.205. ((If a superior court order enters judgment for an amount of support to be paid by an obligor parent, the department shall be subrogated to the debt created by such order, and said money judgment shall be deemed to be in favor of the department. This subrogation shall specifically be applicable to temporary spouse support orders, family maintenance orders and alimony orders up to the amount paid by the department in public assistance moneys to or for the benefit of a dependent child or children but allocated to the benefit of said children on the basis of providing necessities for the caretaker of said children:

Debt under this section shall not be incurred by nor at any time be collected)) No collection shall be made from a parent or other person who is the recipient of public assistance moneys ((for the benefit of minor dependent children for the period)) while such person or persons are in such status.

No collection action shall be taken against parents of children eligible for admission to, or children who have been released from, a state school for the developmentally disabled as defined by chapter 72.33 RCW.

Sec. 5. Section 6, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 7, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Twenty-one days after receipt or refusal of notice of debt under provisions of RCW 74.20A.040, or twenty-one days after service of notice ((of debt)) and finding of financial responsibility, or as otherwise appropriate under ((the provisions of RCW 74.20A.050)) RCW 74.20A.055, or as appropriate under ((the provisions of section 27 of this 1973 amendatory)) section 18 of this 1979 act a lien may be asserted by the secretary upon the real or personal property of the debtor. The claim of the department for a support debt, not paid when due, shall be a lien against all property of the debtor with priority of a secured creditor. This lien shall be separate and apart from, and in addition to, any other lien created by, or provided for, in this title. The lien shall attach to all real and personal property of the debtor on the date of filing of such statement with the county auditor of the county in which such property is located. A lien against earnings shall attach and be effective subject to service requirements of RCW 74.20A.070 upon filing with the county auditor of the county in which the employer does business or maintains an office or agent for the purpose of doing business.

Whenever a support lien has been filed and there is in the possession of any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state having notice of said lien any property which may be subject to the support lien, such property shall not be paid over, released, sold, transferred, encumbered or conveyed, except as provided for by the exemptions contained in RCW 74.20A.090 and 74.20A.130, unless a written release or waiver signed by the secretary has been delivered to said person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state or unless a determination has been made in a fair hearing pursuant to RCW (~~74.20A.050~~) 74.20A.055 or by a superior court ordering release of said support lien on the basis that no debt exists or that the debt has been satisfied.

Sec. 6. Section 8, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 9, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.080 are each amended to read as follows:

After service of a notice of debt as provided for in RCW 74.20A.040 stating a support debt accrued and/or accruing based upon subrogation to or assignment of the amount required to be paid under any superior court order or (~~whenever a support lien has been filed pursuant to RCW 74.20A.060~~) twenty-one days after service of the notice and finding of financial responsibility or as otherwise appropriate under RCW 74.20A.055, or as appropriate under section 18 of this 1979 act, the secretary is hereby authorized to issue to any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state, an order to withhold and deliver property of any kind including, but not restricted to, earnings which are due, owing, or belonging to the debtor, when the secretary has reason to believe that there is in the possession of such person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state property which is due, owing, or belonging to said debtor. The order to withhold and deliver (~~which shall also be served upon the debtor,~~) shall state the amount of the support debt accrued, and shall state in summary the terms of RCW 74.20A.090 and 74.20A.100. The order to withhold and deliver shall be served in the manner prescribed for the service of a summons in a civil action or by certified mail, return receipt requested. Any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state upon whom service has been made is hereby required to answer said order to withhold and deliver within twenty days, exclusive of the day of service, under oath and in writing, and shall make true answers to the matters inquired of therein. The secretary may require further and additional answers to be completed by the person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state. In the event there is in the possession of any such person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state any property which may be subject to the claim of the department of social and health services, such property shall be withheld immediately upon receipt of the order to withhold and deliver and shall, after the twenty day period, upon demand, be delivered forthwith to the secretary. The secretary shall hold said property in trust for application on the indebtedness involved or for return, without interest, in accordance with final determination of liability or nonliability. In the alternative, there may be furnished to the secretary a good and sufficient bond, satisfactory to the secretary, conditioned upon final determination of liability. Where money is due and owing under any contract of employment, express or implied, or is held by any person, firm, corporation, or association, political subdivision or department of the state subject to withdrawal by the debtor, such money shall be delivered by remittance payable to the order of the secretary. Delivery to the secretary of the money or other property held or claimed shall satisfy the requirement of the order to withhold and deliver. Delivery to the secretary shall serve as full acquittance and the state warrants and represents that it shall defend and hold harmless for such actions persons delivering money or property to the secretary pursuant to this chapter. The state also warrants and represents that it shall defend and hold harmless for such actions persons withholding money or property pursuant to this chapter. The foregoing is subject to the exemptions contained in RCW 74.20A.090 (~~and 74.20A.130~~).

The secretary shall also, on or before the date of service of the order to withhold and deliver, mail or cause to be mailed by certified mail a copy of the order to withhold and deliver to the debtor at the debtor's last known post office address, or, in the alternative, a copy of the order to withhold and deliver shall be served on the debtor in the same manner as a summons in a civil action on or before the date of service of the order or within two days thereafter. The copy of the order shall be mailed or served together with a concise explanation of the right to petition for a hearing. This requirement is not jurisdictional, but, if the copy is not mailed or served as in this section provided, or if any irregularity appears with respect to the mailing or service, the superior court, in its discretion on motion of the debtor promptly made and supported by affidavit showing that the debtor has suffered substantial injury due to the failure to mail the copy, may set aside the order to withhold and deliver and award to the debtor an amount equal to the damages resulting from the secretary's failure to serve on or mail to the debtor the copy.

Sec. 7. Section 11, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state has in its possession earnings, deposits, accounts, or balances in excess of the amount of the debt claimed by the department (~~plus one hundred dollars~~), such person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state may, without liability under this chapter, release said excess to the debtor.

Sec. 8. Section 16, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.160 are each amended to read as follows:

With respect to any arrearages on a support debt assessed under RCW 74.20A.040, 74.20A.055, or section 18 of this 1979 act, the secretary may at any time consistent with the income, earning capacity and resources of the debtor, set or reset a level and schedule of payments to be paid upon the debt. The secretary may, upon petition of the debtor providing sufficient evidence of hardship, after consideration of the standards established in RCW 74.20.270, release or refund moneys taken pursuant to RCW 74.20A.080 to provide for the reasonable necessities of the responsible parent or parents and minor children in the home of the responsible parent. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the secretary to take any action which would require collection of less than the obligation for current support required under a superior court order or an administrative order or to take any action which would result in a bar of collection of arrearages from the debtor by reason of the statute of limitations.

Sec. 9. Section 20, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 18, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.200 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person against whose property a support lien has been filed or an order to withhold and deliver has been served pursuant to this chapter may apply for relief to the superior court of the county wherein the property is located on the basis that no support debt is due and owing(~~(-PROVIDED; That judicial relief shall not be granted except as provided for in RCW 74.08.080 whenever a fair hearing has been requested pursuant to RCW 74.20A.050. Liens filed during pendency of fair hearing or court review shall be reviewed pursuant to RCW 74.08.080)~~). It is the intent of this chapter that jurisdictional and constitutional issues, if any, shall be subject to review, but that administrative remedies be exhausted prior to judicial review.

Sec. 10. Section 9, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 10, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever a support lien or order to withhold and deliver is served upon any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state asserting a support debt against earnings and there is in the possession of such person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision, or department of the state, any such earnings, RCW 7.33.280 shall not apply, but fifty percent of the disposable earnings shall be exempt and may be disbursed to the debtor whether such earnings are paid, or to be paid weekly, monthly, or at other ~~((regular))~~ intervals and whether there be due the debtor earnings for one week or for a longer period. The lien or order to withhold and deliver shall continue to operate and require said person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision, or department of the state to withhold the nonexempt portion of earnings at each succeeding earnings disbursement interval until the entire amount of the support debt stated in the lien or order to withhold and deliver has been withheld. As used in this chapter, the term "earnings" means compensation paid or payable for personal services, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise, and, notwithstanding any other provision of law making such payments exempt from garnishment, attachment, or other process to satisfy support obligation, specifically includes periodic payments pursuant to pension or retirement programs, or insurance policies of any type, but does not include payments ((by any department or division of the state based upon inability to work or obtain employment)) made under Title 50 or 74 RCW. Earnings shall specifically include all gain derived from capital, from labor, or from both combined, not including profit gained through sale or conversion of capital assets. The term "disposable earnings" means that part of the earnings of any individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of any amount ((be)) required by law to be withheld.

Sec. 11. Section 1, chapter 30, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 41, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.32.040 are each amended to read as follows:

No money paid or payable under this title shall, except as provided for in RCW ((74.20A.090 and 74.20A.100)) 74.20A.260, prior to the issuance and delivery of the check or warrant therefor, be capable of being assigned, charged, or ever be taken in execution or attached or garnished, nor shall the same pass, or be paid, to any other person by operation of law, or by any form of voluntary assignment, or power of attorney. Any such assignment or charge shall be void: PROVIDED, That if any worker suffers a permanent partial injury, and dies from some other cause than the accident which produced such injury before he or she shall have received payment of his or her award for such permanent partial injury, or if any worker suffers any other injury before he or she shall have received payment of any monthly installment covering any period of time prior to his or her death, the amount of such permanent partial award, or of such monthly payment or both, shall be paid to the surviving spouse, or to the child or children if there is no surviving spouse: PROVIDED FURTHER, That, if any worker suffers an injury and dies therefrom before he or she shall have received payment of any monthly installment covering time loss for any period of time prior to his or her death, the amount of such monthly payment shall be paid to the surviving spouse, or to the child or children if there is no surviving spouse: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any application for compensation under the foregoing provisos of this section shall be filed with the department or self-insuring employer within one year of the date of death: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the injured worker resided in the United States as long as three years prior to the date of injury, such payment shall not be made to any surviving spouse or child who was at the time of the injury a nonresident of the United States: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any worker receiving benefits under this title who is subsequently confined in, or who subsequently becomes eligible therefor while confined in any institution under conviction and sentence shall have all payments of such compensation canceled during the period of confinement but after discharge from the institution payment of benefits thereafter due shall be paid if such worker would, but for the provisions of this proviso, otherwise be entitled thereto: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if any prisoner is injured in the course of his or her employment while participating in a work or training release program authorized by chapter 72.65 RCW and is subject to the provisions of this title, he or she shall be entitled to payments under this title subject to the requirements of chapter 72.65 RCW unless his or her participation in such program has been canceled, or unless he or she is returned to a state correctional institution, as defined in RCW 72.65.010(3), as a result of revocation of parole or new sentence: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if such incarcerated worker has during such confinement period, any beneficiaries, they shall be paid directly the monthly benefits which would have been paid to him or her for himself or herself and his or her beneficiaries had he or she not been so confined. Any lump sum benefits to which the worker would otherwise be entitled but for the provisions of these provisos shall be paid on a monthly basis to his or her beneficiaries.

Sec. 12. Section 25, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.055 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((As an alternative to the hearing and appeal procedures provided in RCW 74.20A.050,))~~ (1) The secretary may, in the absence of a superior court order, serve on the responsible parent or parents a notice and finding of financial responsibility requiring a responsible parent or parents to appear and show cause in a hearing held by the department why the finding of responsibility and/or the amount thereof is incorrect, should not be finally ordered, but should be rescinded or modified. This notice and finding shall relate to the support debt accrued and/or accruing under this chapter and/or RCW 26.16.205, including periodic payments to be made in the future for such period of time as the child or children of said responsible parent or parents are in need. Said hearing shall be held pursuant to ~~((this 1973 amendatory act))~~ RCW 74.20A.055, chapter 34.04 RCW, and the rules and regulations of the department, which shall provide for a fair hearing.

(2) The notice and finding of financial responsibility shall be served in the same manner prescribed for the service of a summons in a civil action or may be served on the responsible parent by certified mail, return receipt requested. The receipt shall be prima facie evidence of service. The notice shall be served upon the debtor within sixty days from the date the state assumes responsibility for the support of the dependent child or children on whose behalf support is sought. If the notice is not served within sixty days from such date, the department shall lose the right to reimbursement of payments made after the sixty-day period and before the date of notification: PROVIDED, That if the department exercises reasonable efforts to locate the debtor and is unable to do so the entire sixty-day period is tolled until such time as the debtor can be located. Any responsible parent who objects to all or any part of the notice and finding shall have the right for not more than twenty days from the date of service to request in writing a hearing, which request shall be served upon the ((secretary or his designee)) department by registered or certified mail or personally. If no such request is made, the notice and finding of responsibility shall become final and the debt created therein shall be subject to collection action as authorized under this chapter. If a timely request is made, the execution of notice and finding of responsibility shall be stayed pending the decision on such hearing((, or any direct appeal to the courts from that decision)). If no timely written request for a hearing has previously been made, the responsible parent may petition the secretary or the secretary's designee at any time for a hearing as provided for in this section upon a showing of good cause for the failure to make a timely request for hearing. The filing of the petition for a hearing after the twenty-day period shall not affect any collection action previously taken under this chapter. The granting of a request for the hearing shall operate as a stay on any future collection action, pending the final decision of the secretary or the secretary's designee on the hearing. Moneys withheld as a result of collection action in effect at the time of the granting of the request for the hearing shall be delivered to the department and shall be held in trust by the department pending the final order of the secretary or during the pendency of any appeal to the courts made under chapter 34.04 RCW. The department may petition the hearing examiner to set temporary current and future support to be paid beginning with the month in which the petition for an untimely hearing is granted. The hearing examiner shall order payment of temporary current and future support if appropriate in an amount determined pursuant to the scale of suggested minimum contributions adopted under RCW 74.20.270. In the event the responsible parent does not make payment of the temporary current and future support as ordered by the hearing examiner, the department may take collection action pursuant to chapter 74.20A RCW during the pendency of the hearing or thereafter to collect any amounts owing under the order. Temporary current and future support paid, or collected, during the pendency of the hearing or appeal shall be disbursed to the custodial parent or as otherwise appropriate when received by the department. If the final decision of the department, or of the courts on appeal, is that the department has collected from the responsible parent other than temporary current or future support, an amount greater than such parent's past support debt, the department shall promptly refund any such excess amount to such parent.

(3) Hearings may be held in the county of residence or other place convenient to the responsible parent. Any such hearing shall be a "contested case" as defined in RCW 34.04.010. The notice and finding of financial responsibility shall set forth the amount the department has determined the responsible parent owes, the support debt accrued and/or accruing, and(~~;~~ as appropriate, the amount to be paid thereon each month)) periodic payments to be made in the future for such period of time as the child or children of the responsible parent are in need, all computable on the basis of the ((amount of the monthly public assistance payment previously paid, or)) need alleged((, and the ability of the responsible parent to pay all, or any portion of the amount so paid and/or being paid and/or to be paid)). The notice and finding shall also include a statement of the name of the recipient or custodian and the name of the child or children for whom ~~((assistance is being paid or))~~ need is alleged; and/or a statement of the amount of periodic future support payments as to which financial responsibility is ~~((found))~~ alleged.

(4) The notice and finding shall include a statement that the responsible parent may object to all or any part of the notice and finding, and request a hearing to show cause why said responsible parent should not be determined to be liable for any or all of the debt, past and future(~~(, determined, and the amount to be paid thereon))~~).

The notice and finding shall ~~((also))~~ include a statement that, if the responsible parent fails in timely fashion to request a hearing ~~((that))~~, the support debt and payments stated in the notice and finding, including periodic support payments in the future, shall be assessed and determined and ordered by the department and that this debt shall be subject to collection action; a statement that the property of the debtor, without further advance notice or hearing, will be subject to lien and foreclosure, distraint, seizure and sale, or order to withhold and deliver to satisfy the debt.

(5) If a hearing is requested, it shall be promptly scheduled, in no more than thirty days. The hearing, including a hearing on prospective modification, shall be conducted by a duly qualified hearing examiner appointed for that purpose.

After evidence has been presented at hearings conducted by the hearing examiner, the hearing examiner shall enter an initial decision and order which shall be in writing and shall contain findings and conclusions as to each contested issue of fact and law, as well as the order based thereon. The hearing examiner shall file the original of the initial decision and order, signed by the hearing examiner, with the secretary or the secretary's designee. Copies of the initial decision and order shall be mailed by the hearing examiner to the department and to the appellant by certified mail to the last known address of each party. Within thirty days of filing, either the appellant or the department may file with the secretary or the secretary's designee a written petition for review of the initial decision and order. The petition for review shall set forth in detail the basis for the requested review and shall be mailed by the petitioning party to the other party by certified or registered mail to the last known address of the party.

The petition shall be based on any of the following causes materially affecting the substantial rights of the petitioner:

(a) Irregularity in the proceedings of the hearing examiner or adverse party, or any order of the hearing examiner, or abuse of discretion, by which the moving party was prevented from having a fair hearing;

(b) Misconduct of the prevailing party;

(c) Accident or surprise which ordinary prudence could not have guarded against;

(d) Newly discovered evidence, material for the party making the application, which the party could not with reasonable diligence have discovered and produced at the hearing;

(e) That there is no evidence or reasonable inference from the evidence to justify the decision, or that it is contrary to law;

(f) Error in mathematical computation;

(g) Error in law occurring at the hearing and objected to at the time by the party making the application;

(h) That the moving party is unable to perform according to the terms of the order without further clarification;

(i) That substantial justice has not been done;

(j) Fraud or misstatement of facts by any witness, which materially affects the debt;

(k) Clerical mistakes in the decision arising from oversight or omission; or

(l) That the decision and order entered because the responsible parent failed to appear at the hearing should be vacated and the matter be remanded for a hearing upon showing of the grounds enumerated in RCW 4.72.010 or superior court civil rule 60.

In the event no petition for review is made as provided in this subsection by any party, the initial decision and order of the hearing examiner is final as of the date of filing and becomes the decision and order of the secretary. No appeal may be taken therefrom to the courts and the debt created is subject to collection action as authorized by this chapter.

After the receipt of a petition for review, the secretary or the secretary's designee shall consider the initial decision and order, the petition or petitions for review, the record or any part thereof, and such additional evidence and argument as the secretary or the secretary's designee may in his or her discretion allow. The secretary or the secretary's designee may remand the proceedings to the hearing examiner for additional evidence or argument. The secretary or the secretary's designee may deny review of the initial decision and order and thereupon deny the petition or petitions at which time the initial decision and order shall be final as of the date of the denial and all parties shall forthwith be notified, in writing, of the denial, by certified mail to the last known address of the parties. Unless the petition is denied, the secretary or the secretary's designee shall review the initial decision and order and shall make the final decision and order of the department. The final decision and order shall be in writing and shall contain findings of fact and conclusions of law as to each contested issue of fact and law. A copy of the decision and order, including the findings and conclusions, shall be mailed to each party to the appeal by certified mail to the last known address of the party. The decision and order shall authorize collection action, as appropriate, under this chapter.

(6) The hearing examiner in his or her initial decision, or the secretary or the secretary's designee in review of the initial decision, shall determine the past liability and responsibility, if any, of the alleged responsible parent ((under RCW 74.20A.030,)) and shall also determine the amount of periodic payments to be made ((to satisfy past, present or future liability under RCW 74.20A.030 and/or 26.16.205)) in the future, which amount is not limited by the amount of any public assistance payment made to or for the benefit of the child. In making these determinations, the hearing examiner, and the secretary or the secretary's designee, shall include in his or her considerations ((1) the necessities and requirements of the child or children, exclusive of any income of the custodian of said child or children, (2) the amount of support debt claimed, (3) the public policy and intent of the legislature to require that children be maintained from the resources of responsible parents thereby relieving to the greatest extent possible the burden borne by the general citizenry through welfare programs, and (4) the abilities and resources of the responsible parent));

(a) All earnings and income resources of the responsible parent, including real and personal property;

(b) The earnings potential of the responsible parent;

(c) The reasonable necessities of the responsible parent;

(d) The ability of the responsible parent to borrow;

(e) The needs of the child for whom the support is sought;

(f) The amount of assistance which would be paid to the child under the full standard of need of the state's public assistance plan;

(g) The existence of other dependents; and

(h) That the child, for whom support is sought, benefits from the income and resources of the responsible parent on an equitable basis in comparison with any other minor children of the responsible parent.

If the responsible parent fails to appear at the hearing, upon a showing of valid service, the hearing examiner shall enter an initial decision and order declaring the support debt and payment provisions stated in the notice and finding of financial responsibility to be assessed and determined and subject to collection action. Within ~~((fifteen))~~ thirty days of entry of said decision and order, the responsible parent may petition the ~~((department))~~ secretary or the secretary's designee to vacate said decision and order upon a showing of any of the grounds enumerated in RCW 4.72.010 or superior court civil rule 60.

(7) The ~~((hearing examiner shall, within twenty days of the hearing, enter findings, conclusions and a))~~ final decision ~~((determining liability and responsibility and/or future periodic support payments. The determination of the hearing examiner))~~ entered pursuant to this section shall be entered as a decision and order and shall limit the support debt ~~((under RCW 74.20A.030))~~ to the amounts stated in said decision: PROVIDED, That said decision establishing liability and/or future periodic support payments shall be superseded upon entry of a superior court order for support to the extent the superior court order is inconsistent with the hearing order or decision: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in the absence of a superior court order, either the responsible parent or the department may petition the secretary or his designee for issuance of an order to appear and show cause based on a showing of good cause and material change of circumstances, to require the other party to appear and show cause why the decision previously entered should not be prospectively modified. Said order to appear and show cause together with a copy of the petition and affidavit upon which the order is based shall be served in the manner of a summons in a civil action or by certified mail, return receipt requested, on the other party by the petitioning party. A hearing shall be set not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days from the date of service, unless extended for good cause shown. Prospective modification may be ordered, but only upon a showing of good cause and material change of circumstances. The decision and order for prospective modification entered by the hearing examiner shall be an initial decision subject to review by the secretary or the secretary's designee as provided for in this section.

(8) The ~~((department, in its original determinations, and the))~~ hearing examiner, in making ~~((determinations based on objections to original determinations or on petitions to modify))~~ the initial decision and the secretary or the secretary's designee in the final decision determining liability and/or future periodic support payments, shall consider the standards promulgated pursuant to RCW 74.20.270 and any standards for determination of support payments used by the superior court of the county of residence of the responsible parent.

(9) Debts determined pursuant to this section, accrued and not paid, are subject to collection action under this chapter without further necessity of action by the hearing examiner, or the secretary or secretary's designee.

(10) "Need" as used in this section shall mean the necessary costs of food, clothing, shelter, and medical attendance for the support of a dependent child or children. The amount determined by reference to the schedule of suggested minimum contributions adopted under RCW 74.20.270, based on the earnings, resources, and property of the alleged responsible parent, shall be a rebuttable presumption of the alleged responsible parent's ability to pay and the need of the family: PROVIDED, That such responsible parent shall be presumed to have no ability to pay child support under this chapter from any income received from aid to families with dependent children, supplemental security income, or continuing general assistance.

Sec. 13. Section 16, chapter 173, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20.101 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever, as a result of any action, support money is paid by the person or persons responsible for support, such payment shall be paid through the support enforcement and collections unit of the state department of social and health services upon written notice by the department to the responsible person or to the clerk of the court, if appropriate, that the children for whom a support obligation exists are receiving public assistance or that the support debt has been assigned to the department.

After service on a responsible parent of a notice under this section or RCW 74.20A.040 or 74.20A.055, payment of moneys or in-kind providings for the support of the responsible parent's children which are not paid to the department shall not be credited against or set-off against any obligation to provide support which has been assigned to the department, whether the obligation has been determined by court order, or pursuant to RCW 74.20A.055, or is unliquidated.

Sec. 14. Section 74.09.180, chapter 26, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 1, chapter 306, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 74.09.180 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to recipients whose personal injuries are occasioned by negligence or wrong of another: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the secretary of the department of social and health services may, in his discretion, furnish assistance, under the provisions of this chapter, for the results of injuries to or illness of a recipient, and the department of social and health services shall thereby be subrogated to the recipient's right of recovery therefor to the extent of the value of the assistance furnished by the department of social and health services: PROVIDED FURTHER, That to the end of securing reimbursement of any assistance furnished to such a recipient, the department of social and health services may, as a nonexclusive legal remedy, assert and enforce a lien upon any claim, right of action, and/or money, including any claim for benefits arising from an insurance program, to which such recipient is entitled (a) against any tortfeasor and/or insurer of such tortfeasor, or (b) any contract of insurance, purchased by the recipient or any other person, providing coverage to such recipient for said injuries, any illness, dental costs, costs incident to birth, or any other coverage for purposes of or costs for which the department provides assistance or meets all or part of the cost of care to a vendor, to the extent of the assistance furnished by said department to the recipient. If a recovery shall be made and the subrogation or lien is satisfied either in full or in part as a result of an independent action initiated by or on behalf of a recipient to recover the personal injuries against any tortfeasor or insurer, then and in that event the amount repaid to the state of Washington as a result of said action, whether concluded by entry of a judgment or compromise and settlement, shall bear its proportionate share of attorney's fees and costs incurred by the injured recipient or his widow, children, or dependents, as the case may be, to the extent that such attorney's fees and costs are approved by the court in which the action is initiated, and upon notice to the department which shall have the right to be heard on the matter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 74.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The provisions of RCW 26.26.090 requiring appointment of a general guardian or guardian ad litem to represent the child in an action brought to determine the parent and child relationship do not apply to actions brought under chapter 26.26 RCW if:

(1) The action is brought by the attorney general on behalf of the department of social and health services, the child, or the natural mother; or

(2) The action is brought by any prosecuting attorney on behalf of the state, the child, or the natural mother when referral has been made to the prosecuting attorney by the department of social and health services requesting such action.

The court, on its own motion or on motion of a party, may appoint a guardian ad litem when necessary.

Sec. 16. Section 22, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 20, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.220 are each amended to read as follows:

Any support debt due the department from a responsible parent which the secretary deems uncollectible may be transferred from accounts receivable to a suspense account and cease to be accounted as an asset: PROVIDED, That at any time after six years from the date a support debt was incurred, the secretary may charge off as uncollectible any support debt upon which the secretary finds there is no available, practical, or lawful means by which said debt may be collected(~~(-PROVIDED FURTHER, That no proceedings or action under the provisions of this chapter may be begun after expiration of said six year period to institute collection of a support debt. Nothing herein shall be construed to render invalid or nonactionable a support lien filed prior to the expiration of said six year period or an assignment of earnings or order to withhold and deliver executed prior to the expiration of said six year period))~~).

The department may accept offers of compromise of disputed claims or may grant partial or total charge-off of support arrears owed to the department up to the total amount of public assistance paid to or for the benefit of the persons for whom the support obligation was incurred. The department shall adopt rules as to the considerations to be made in the granting or denial of partial or total charge-off and offers of compromise of disputed claims of debt for support arrears.

The responsible parent owing a support debt may execute a written extension or waiver of any statute, including but not limited to RCW 4.56-.210, which may bar or impair the collection of the debt and the extension or waiver shall be effective according to its terms.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to chapter 74.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Whenever a custodian of children, or other person, receives support moneys paid to them which moneys are paid in whole or in part in satisfaction of a support obligation which has been assigned to the department pursuant to 42 U.S.C. Sec. 602(A)(26)(a) or section 22 of this act or to which the department is owed a debt pursuant to RCW 74.20A.030, the moneys shall be remitted to the department within eight days of receipt by the custodian or other person. If not so remitted the custodian or other person shall be indebted to the department as a support debt in an amount equal to the amount of the support money received and not remitted.

By not paying over the moneys to the department, a custodial parent or other person is deemed, without the necessity of signing any document, to have made an irrevocable assignment to the department of any support delinquency owed which is not already assigned to the department or to any support delinquency which may accrue in the future in an amount equal to the amount of support money retained. The department may utilize the collection procedures in chapter 74.20A RCW to collect the assigned delinquency to effect recoupment and satisfaction of the debt incurred by reason of the failure of the custodial parent or other person to remit. The department is also authorized to make a set-off to effect satisfaction of the debt by deduction from support moneys in its possession or in the possession of any clerk of the court or other forwarding agent which are paid to the custodial parent or other person for the satisfaction of any support delinquency. Nothing in this section authorizes the department to make set-off as to current support paid during the month for which the payment is due and owing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. There is added to chapter 74.20A RCW a new section to read as follows:

The secretary may issue a notice of support debt to any person, firm, corporation, association or political subdivision of the state of Washington or any officer or agent thereof who is in possession of support moneys, or who has had support moneys in his or her possession at some time in the past, which support moneys were or are claimed by the department as the property of the department by assignment, subrogation, or by operation of law or legal process under chapter 74.20A RCW, if the support moneys have not been remitted to the department as required by law.

The notice shall describe the claim of the department, stating the legal basis for the claim and shall provide sufficient detail to enable the person, firm, corporation, association or political subdivision or officer or agent thereof upon whom service is made to identify the support moneys in issue. The notice may also make inquiry as to relevant facts necessary to the resolution of the issue.

The notice may be served by certified mail, return receipt requested, or in the manner of a summons in a civil action. Upon service of the notice all moneys not yet disbursed or spent or like moneys to be received in the future are deemed to be impounded and shall be held in trust pending answer to the notice and any hearing which is requested.

The notice shall be answered under oath and in writing within twenty days of the date of service, which answer shall include true answers to the matters inquired of in the notice. The notice shall also either acknowledge the department's right to the moneys or request an administrative hearing to determine the rights to ownership of the support moneys in issue. The hearing shall be held pursuant to this section, chapter 34.04 RCW, and the rules of the department and shall be a contested case as provided for in chapter 34.04 RCW. The burden of proof to establish ownership of the support moneys claimed, including but not limited to moneys not yet disbursed or spent, is on the department.

If no answer is made within the twenty days, the department's claim shall be assessed and determined and subject to collection action as a support debt pursuant to chapter 74.20A RCW. Any such debtor may, at any time within one year from the date of service of the notice of support debt, petition the secretary or the secretary's designee for a hearing upon a showing of any of the grounds enumerated in RCW 4.72.010 or superior court civil rule 60. A copy of the petition shall also be served on the department. The filing of the petition shall not stay any collection action being taken, but the debtor may petition the secretary or the secretary's designee for an order staying collection action pending final decision of the secretary or the secretary's designee or the courts on any appeal made pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW. Any moneys held and/or taken by collection action prior to the date of any such stay and any support moneys claimed by the department, including moneys to be received in the future to which the department may have a claim, shall be held in trust pending final decision and appeal, if any, to be disbursed in accordance with the final decision. The secretary or the secretary's designee shall condition the stay to provide for the trust.

If the hearing is granted it shall be an administrative hearing limited to the determination of the ownership of the moneys claimed in the notice of debt. The right to the hearing is conditioned upon holding of any funds not yet disbursed or expended or to be received in the future in trust pending the final order in these proceedings or during any appeal made to the courts.

The secretary or the secretary's designee shall enter an appropriate order providing for the terms of the trust.

The hearing shall be a contested case as provided for in chapter 34.04 RCW and shall be held pursuant to this section, chapter 34.04 RCW, and the rules of the department. The hearing shall be promptly scheduled within thirty days from the date of receipt of the answer by the department. The hearing shall be conducted by a duly qualified hearing examiner appointed for that purpose. Hearings may be held in the county of residence of the debtor or other place convenient to the debtor.

If the debtor fails to appear at the hearing, the hearing examiner shall, upon showing of valid service, enter an initial decision and order declaring the amount of support moneys, as claimed in the notice, to be assessed and determined and subject to collection action. Within thirty days of entry of the decision and order the debtor may petition the secretary or the secretary's designee to vacate the decision and order upon a showing of any of the grounds enumerated in RCW 4.72.010 or superior court civil rule 60.

The hearing and review process shall be as provided for in RCW 74.20A.055.

If, at any time, the superior court enters judgment for an amount of debt at variance with the amount determined by the final order in these proceedings, the judgment shall supersede the final order in these proceedings. Any debt determined by the superior court in excess of the amount determined by the final order in these proceedings shall be the property of the department as assigned under 42 U.S.C. 602(A)(26)(a), RCW 74.20-.040, 74.20A.250, or sections 17 or 22 of this act. The department may, despite any final order in these proceedings, take action pursuant to chapters 74.20 or 74.20A RCW to obtain such a judgment or to collect moneys determined by such a judgment to be due and owing.

If public assistance moneys have been paid to a parent for the benefit of that parent's minor dependent children, debt under this chapter shall not be incurred by nor at any time be collected from that parent because of that payment of assistance. Nothing in this section prohibits or limits the department from acting pursuant to section 17 of this act and this section to assess a debt against a recipient or ex-recipient for receipt of support moneys paid in satisfaction of the debt assigned under section 22 of this act which have been assigned to the department but were received by a recipient or ex-recipient from another responsible parent and not remitted to the department. The department may not take collection action during such period of time as the public assistance recipient remains in that status. Payments not credited against the department's debt pursuant to RCW 74.20.101 may not be assessed or collected under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. There is added to chapter 74.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In order to facilitate and ensure compliance with Title IV-D of the federal social security act, now existing or hereafter amended, wherein the state is required to undertake to establish paternity of such children as are born out of wedlock, the secretary of social and health services may pay the reasonable and proper fees of attorneys admitted to practice before the courts of this state, who are engaged in private practice for the purpose of maintaining actions under chapter 26.26 RCW on behalf of such children, to the end that parent and child relationships be determined and financial support obligations be established by superior court order. The secretary or the secretary's designee shall make the determination in each case as to which cases shall be referred for representation by such private attorneys. The secretary may advance, pay, or reimburse for payment of, such reasonable costs as may be attendant to an action under chapter 26.26 RCW. The representation by a private attorney shall be only on behalf of the subject child, the custodial natural parent, and the child's personal representative or guardian ad litem, and shall not in any manner be, or be construed to be, in representation of the department of social and health services or the state of Washington, such representation being restricted to that provided pursuant to chapters 43.10 and 36.27 RCW.

Sec. 20. Section 25, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 23, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.250 are each amended to read as follows:

By accepting public assistance (~~((for or on behalf of a child or children, the recipient shall be deemed to have made assignment to the department of any and all right, title, and interest in any support obligation owed to or for said child or children up to the amount of public assistance money paid for or on behalf of said child or children for such term of time as such public assistance moneys are paid.))~~), the recipient ((shall also be)) is deemed, without the necessity of signing any document, to have appointed the secretary as his or her true and lawful attorney in fact to act in his or her name, place, and stead to perform the specific act of endorsing any and all drafts, checks, money orders or other negotiable instruments representing support payments which are received on behalf of said child or children as reimbursement for the public assistance moneys previously paid to said recipient.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. There is added to chapter 74.20A RCW a new section to read as follows:

Whenever any person requests an administrative hearing under RCW 74.20A.055 or section 18 of this act, after the department has notified the person of the requirements of this section, it shall be the responsibility of the person to notify the department of the person's mailing address at the time the request for hearing is made and also to notify the department of any subsequent change of mailing address during the pendency of the action and any appeal made therefrom to the courts. Whenever the person has a duty under this section to advise the department of the person's mailing address, mailing by the department by certified mail to the person's last known address constitutes service as required by chapters 74.20A and 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. There is added to chapter 74.20 RCW a new section to read as follows.

(1) Whenever public assistance is paid under this title, each applicant or recipient is deemed to have made assignment to the department of any rights to support from any other person the applicant or recipient may have in his or her own behalf or in behalf of any other family member for whom the applicant or recipient is applying for or receiving public assistance, including any rights which have accrued at the time the assignment is made. Payment of public assistance under this chapter operates as an assignment by operation of law.

(2) The department may, during the four months following the last month in which public assistance was paid, and thereafter if a nonassistance application for support enforcement services has been made under RCW 74.20.040, pay the family, from collections made on the delinquent support assigned, an amount equal to the monthly amount required by either the superior court order for support or the administrative order entered under RCW 74.20A.055. Nothing in this section shall be construed to permit the department to make such payments for months in which no collections have been made on the delinquent support assigned, nor is the department permitted to make payments for the support of one person from collections on the delinquent support assigned by a different person. The department has, upon making any such payment, by operation of law an additional assignment of the unpaid obligation owed for the month in which the payment is made. The department shall take action to collect the unpaid obligation to reimburse itself and/or the federal government for the payment made.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. There is added to chapter 74.20A RCW a new section to read as follows:

While discharging its responsibilities to enforce the support obligations of responsible parents, the department shall respect the right of privacy of recipients of public assistance and of other persons. Any inquiry about sexual activity shall be limited to that necessary to resolve a genuine dispute about the parentage of a child. When a custodial mother has informed the department that a particular man is the father of her child, the department shall make no further inquiry into her personal life unless the man so identified has denied that he is the father of such child.

Sec. 24. Section 2, chapter 322, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 364, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 74.20.010 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the responsibility of the state of Washington through the state department of social and health services to conserve the expenditure of public assistance funds, whenever possible, in order that such funds shall not be expended if there are private funds available or which can be made available by judicial process or otherwise to partially or completely meet the financial needs of the children of this state. The failure of parents to provide adequate financial support and care for their children is a major cause of financial dependency and a contributing cause of social delinquency.

The purpose of this chapter is to provide the state of Washington, through the department of social and health services, a more effective and efficient way to effect the support of dependent children by the person or persons who, under the law, are primarily responsible for such support and to lighten the heavy burden of the taxpayer, who in many instances is paying toward the support of dependent children while those persons primarily responsible are avoiding their obligations. It is the intention of the legislature that the powers delegated to the said department in this chapter be liberally construed to the end that persons legally responsible for the care and support of children within the state be required to assume their legal obligations in order to reduce the financial cost to the state of Washington in providing public assistance funds for the care of children. It is the intention of the legislature that the department provide sufficient staff to carry out the purposes of this chapter, chapter 74.20A RCW, the abandonment and nonsupport statutes, and any applicable federal support enforcement statute administered by the department. It is also the intent of the legislature that the staff responsible for support enforcement be encouraged to conduct their support enforcement duties with fairness, courtesy, and the highest professional standards.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. There is added to chapter 74.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department shall develop workload standards for each employee classification involved in support enforcement activities for each category of support enforcement cases. The department shall submit the workload standards and a preliminary forecast of the level of staffing required to meet the workload standards to the senate ways and means committee and the house of representatives revenue and appropriations committees six months before the regular legislative sessions and whenever this information is requested by the senate ways and means committee and the house of representatives revenue and appropriations committees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 5, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess., section 6, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.050; and
- (2) Section 27, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. (uncodified).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. The repeal of RCW 74.20A.050 and the amendment of RCW 74.20A.030 and 74.20A.250 by this 1979 act is not intended to affect any existing or accrued right, any action or proceeding already taken or instituted, any administrative action already taken, or any rule, regulation, or order already promulgated. The repeal and amendments are not intended to revive any law heretofore repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Passed the House April 25, 1979.

Passed the Senate April 19, 1979.

AN ACT Relating to the powers and duties of the state board of education; and amending section 28A.04.120, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 92, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 28A.04.120; and amending section 28A.58.101, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 97, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 28A.58.101.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 28A.04.120, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 92, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 28A.04.120 are each amended to read as follows:

If any of the revenue from any tax or surcharge authorized by this or any other chapter shall have been pledged to secure the payment of any bonds as herein authorized, then as long as that pledge shall be in effect the legislature shall not withdraw the authority to levy and collect the tax. Any municipality is authorized to pledge for the payment or security of the principal of and interest on any bonds issued for authorized public transportation purposes all or any portion of any taxes authorized to be levied by the issuer, including, but not limited to, the local sales and use tax authorized pursuant to RCW 82.14.045 (~~and section 6 of this 1975 amendatory act~~), as now or hereafter amended(~~(, and)~~). On or after July 1, 1971, any municipality is authorized to levy and collect a special excise tax not exceeding one percent on the fair market value of every motor vehicle owned by a resident of such municipality for the privilege of using such motor vehicle provided that in no event shall the tax be less than one dollar and, subject to (~~the provisions of subsection (2) of~~) RCW 82.44.150(5) and (6), the amount of such tax shall be credited against the amount of the excise tax levied by the state under RCW 82.44-.020: PROVIDED, That before utilization of any excise tax moneys collected under authorization of this section for acquisition of right of way or construction of a mass transit facility on a separate right of way the municipality shall adopt rules affording the public an opportunity for "corridor public hearings" and "design public hearings" as herein defined, which rule shall provide in detail the procedures necessary for public participation in the following instances: (a) prior to adoption of location and design plans having a substantial social, economic or environmental effect upon the locality upon which they are to be constructed or (b) on such mass rapid transit systems operating on a separate right of way whenever a substantial change is proposed relating to location or design in the adopted plan. In adopting rules the municipality shall adhere to the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act.

A "corridor public hearing" is a public hearing that: (a) is held before the municipality is committed to a specific mass transit route proposal, and before a route location is established; (b) is held to afford an opportunity for participation by those interested in the determination of the need for, and the location of, the mass rapid transit system; (c) provides a public forum that affords a full opportunity for presenting views on the mass rapid transit system route location, and the social, economic and environmental effects on that location and alternate locations: PROVIDED, That such hearing shall not be deemed to be necessary before adoption of an overall mass rapid transit system plan by a vote of the electorate of the municipality.

The total amount of motor vehicle excise taxes remitted to the department, except those payable under RCW 82.44.030 and 82.44.070, from each county shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the population of the municipality residing in such county, and the denominator of which is the total population of the county in which such municipality or portion thereof is located. The product of this computation shall be the amount of excise taxes from motor vehicle owners residing within such municipality or portion thereof. Where the municipality levying a tax under RCW 35.58.273 is located in more than one county, the above computation shall be made by county, and the combined products shall provide the total amount of motor vehicle excise taxes from motor vehicle owners residing in the municipality as a whole. Population figures required for these computations shall be supplied to the director by the office of ~~((program planning and fiscal))~~ financial management, who shall adjust the fraction annually.

(2) On the first day of the months of January, April, July, and October of each year, the state treasurer based upon information provided by the department of ~~((motor vehicles))~~ licensing shall make the following apportionment and distribution of motor vehicle excise taxes deposited in the general fund. (b) Any remaining amounts in the state school equalization fund from the motor vehicle excise taxes not required for debt service on the above bond issues shall be transferred and credited to the general fund.

(3) The amount payable to cities and towns shall be apportioned among the several cities and towns within the state ratably, on the basis of the population as last determined by the board.

(4) When so apportioned, the amount payable to each such city and town shall be transmitted to the city treasurer thereof, and shall be utilized by such city or town for the purposes of police and fire protection and the preservation of the public health therein, and not otherwise. In case it be adjudged that revenue derived from the excise tax imposed by this chapter cannot lawfully be apportioned or distributed to cities or towns, all moneys directed by this section to be apportioned and distributed to cities and towns shall be credited and transferred to the state general fund.

~~(5) ((The amount required to remit to a municipality the proceeds of the tax authorized under RCW 35.58.273 shall be remitted to the municipality levying such tax. The amount required to be remitted by the state treasurer to the treasurer of any municipality levying such tax shall not exceed in any one calendar year the amount of locally generated tax revenues other than the excise tax imposed under RCW 35.58.273, which shall have been budgeted by such municipality to be collected in such year for any public transportation purposes including but not limited to operating costs, capital costs and debt service on general obligation or revenue bonds issued for such purposes.~~

~~This section shall expire on June 30, 1981.))~~ On the first day of the months of January, April, July, and October of each year, the state treasurer, based upon information provided by the department of licensing, shall remit motor vehicle excise tax revenues imposed and collected under RCW 35.58.273 as follows:

(b) In no event may the amount remitted in a single calendar quarter exceed the amount collected on behalf of the municipality under RCW 35.58.273 during the calendar quarter next preceding the immediately preceding quarter.

(6) At the close of each calendar year accounting period, but not later than April 1, each municipality that has received motor vehicle excise taxes under subsection (5) of this section shall transmit to the director of licensing and the state auditor a written report showing by source the previous year's budgeted tax revenues for public transportation purposes as compared to actual collections. Any municipality that has not submitted the report by April 1 shall cease to be eligible to receive motor vehicle excise taxes under subsection (5) of this section until the report is received by the director of licensing. If a municipality has received more or less money under subsection (5) of this section for the period covered by the report than it is entitled to receive by reason of its locally-generated collected tax revenues, the director of licensing shall, during the next ensuing quarter that the municipality is eligible to receive motor vehicle excise tax funds, increase or decrease the amount to be remitted in an amount equal to the difference between the locally-generated budgeted tax revenues and the locally-generated collected tax revenues. In no event may the amount remitted for a calendar year exceed the amount collected on behalf of the municipality under RCW 35.58.273 during that same calendar year. At the time of the next fiscal audit of each municipality, the state auditor shall verify the accuracy of the report submitted and notify the director of licensing of any discrepancies.

Unless the person to be tested is unconscious, the chemical test administered shall be of his breath only: PROVIDED, That if an individual is under arrest for the crime of negligent homicide by motor vehicle as provided in RCW 46.61.520, or if an individual is under arrest for the crime of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs as provided in ((RCW 46.61.506)) section 1 of this 1979 act, which arrest results from an accident in which another person has been injured and there is a reasonable likelihood that such other person may die as a result of injuries sustained in the accident, a breath or blood test may be administered without the consent of the individual so arrested. In such circumstances, the provisions of subsections (2) through (6) of this section shall not apply.

(2) Any person who is dead, unconscious or who is otherwise in a condition rendering him incapable of refusal, shall be deemed not to have withdrawn the consent provided by subsection (1) of this section and the test or tests may be administered, subject to the provisions of RCW 46.61.506.

(3) If, following his arrest, the person arrested refuses upon the request of a law enforcement officer to submit to a chemical test of his breath, after being informed that his refusal will result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive, no test shall be given. The department of licensing, upon the receipt of a sworn report of the law enforcement officer that he had reasonable grounds to believe the arrested person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor and that the person had refused to submit to the test upon the request of the law enforcement officer after being informed that such refusal would result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive, shall revoke his license or permit to drive or any nonresident operating privilege. If the person is a resident without a license or permit to operate a motor vehicle in this state, the department

The department shall order that the revocation or determination that there should be a denial of issuance either be rescinded or sustained. Any decision by the department revoking a person's driving privilege shall be stayed and shall not take effect while a formal hearing is pending as herein provided or during the pendency of a subsequent appeal to superior court: PROVIDED, That this stay shall be effective only so long as there is no conviction for a moving violation during pendency of the hearing and appeal.

AN ACT Relating to the employment security department records; and amending section 6, chapter 153, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 50.13.060; and adding new sections to chapter 49.44 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 6, chapter 153, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 50.13.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Governmental agencies, including law enforcement agencies, prosecuting agencies, and the executive branch, whether state, local, or federal shall have access to information or records deemed private and confidential under this chapter if the information or records are needed by the agency for official purposes and:

(a) The agency submits an application in writing to the employment security department for the records or information containing a statement of the official purposes for which the information or records are needed and specific identification of the records or information sought from the department; and

(b) The director, commissioner, chief executive, or other official of the agency has verified the need for the specific information in writing either on the application or on a separate document; and

(c) The agency requesting access has served a copy of the application for records or information on the individual or employing unit whose records or information are sought and has provided the department with proof of service. Service shall be made in a manner which conforms to the civil rules for superior court. The requesting agency shall include with the copy of the application a statement to the effect that the individual or employing unit may contact the public records officer of the employment security department to state any objections to the release of the records or information. The employment security department shall not act upon the application of the requesting agency until at least five days after service on the concerned individual or employing unit. The employment security department shall consider any objections raised by the concerned individual or employing unit in deciding whether the requesting agency needs the information or records for official purposes.

(2) The requirements of subsections (1) and (7) of this section shall not apply to the state legislative branch. The state legislature shall have access to information or records deemed private and confidential under this chapter, if the legislature or a legislative committee finds that the information or records are necessary and for official purposes. If the employment security department does not make information or records available as provided in this subsection, the legislature may exercise its authority granted by chapter 44.16 RCW.

(3) In cases of emergency the governmental agency requesting access shall not be required to formally comply with the provisions of subsection (1) of this section at the time of the request if the procedures required by subsection (1) of this section are complied with by the requesting agency following the receipt of any records or information deemed private and confidential under this chapter. An emergency is defined as a situation in which irreparable harm or damage could occur if records or information are not released immediately.

(4) The requirements of subsection (1)(c) of this section shall not apply to governmental agencies where the procedures would frustrate the investigation of possible violations of criminal laws.

(5) Governmental agencies (~~may~~) shall have access to certain records or information, (~~strictly~~) limited to such items as names, addresses, social security numbers, and general information about benefit entitlement or employer information possessed by the department, for comparison purposes with records or information possessed by the requesting agency to detect improper or fraudulent claims, or to determine potential tax liability or employer compliance with registration and licensing requirements. In those cases the governmental agency shall not be required to comply with subsection (1)(c) of this section, but the remainder of that section must be satisfied.

(6) Disclosure to governmental agencies of information or records obtained by the employment security department from the federal government shall be governed by any applicable federal law or any agreement between the federal government and the employment security department where so required by federal law. When federal law does not apply to the records or information state law shall control.

(7) The disclosure of any records or information by a governmental agency which has obtained the records or information under this section is prohibited unless the disclosure is directly connected to the official purpose for which the records or information were obtained.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 49.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) A provision in an employment agreement which provides that an employee shall assign or offer to assign any of the employee's rights in an invention to the employer does not apply to an invention for which no equipment, supplies, facilities, or trade secret information of the employer was used and which was developed entirely on the employee's own time, unless (a) the invention relates (i) directly to the business of the employer, or (ii) to the employer's actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development, or (b) the invention results from any work performed by the employee for the employer. Any provision which purports to apply to such an invention is to that extent against the public policy of this state and is to that extent void and unenforceable.

(2) An employer shall not require a provision made void and unenforceable by subsection (1) of this section as a condition of employment or continuing employment.

(3) If an employment agreement entered into after the effective date of this act contains a provision requiring the employee to assign any of the employee's rights in any invention to the employer, the employer must also, at the time the agreement is made, provide a written notification to the employee that the agreement does not apply to an invention for which no equipment, supplies, facility, or trade secret information of the employer was used and which was developed entirely on the employee's own time, unless (a) the invention relates (i) directly to the business of the employer, or (ii) to the employer's actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development, or (b) the invention results from any work performed by the employee for the employer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 49.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Even though the employee meets the burden of proving the conditions specified in section 2 of this act, the employee shall, at the time of employment or thereafter, disclose all inventions being developed by the employee, for the purpose of determining employer or employee rights. The employer or the employee may disclose such inventions to the Department of Employment Security, and the department shall maintain a record of such disclosures for a minimum period of five years.

(1) An "abandoned vehicle" for the purposes of this chapter shall mean any vehicle left within the limits of any highway or upon the property of another without the consent of the owner of such property for a period of twenty-four hours(;) or longer, except that a vehicle shall not be considered abandoned if its owner or operator is unable to remove it from the place where it is located and so notifies law enforcement officials and requests assistance.

(2) An "abandoned (~~automobile~~) vehicle hulk" for the purposes of this chapter shall mean the abandoned remnant or remains of a motor vehicle which is inoperative and cannot be made mechanically operative without the addition of vital parts or mechanisms and the application of a substantial amount of labor to effect repairs.

A registered owner who has complied with the requirements of RCW 46.52.104 in the transfer of ownership of the vehicle or hulk shall be relieved of liability under this section and under section 4 of this 1979 act.

~~Any appointment may be canceled by the director upon evidence that the appointed tow truck operator is not complying with all laws, rules and regulations relative to the handling and disposition of abandoned motor vehicles:))~~

(1) Any registered disposer as defined in this chapter who engages in removing, storing, or disposing of vehicles, abandoned vehicles, or abandoned vehicle hulks without having first applied for and received a registration certificate from the department of licensing authorizing him to engage in such activities is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(2) Application for an abandoned vehicle disposer registration shall be made on forms furnished by the department of licensing and shall be signed by the applicant or his agent and shall include the following information:

Such bonds shall be approved as to form by the attorney general and conditioned that such registered disposer shall conduct his business in conformity with the provisions of this chapter pertaining to vehicles, abandoned vehicles, or abandoned vehicle hulks, and to compensate any person, company, or the state for failure to comply with this chapter, or for fraud, negligence, or misrepresentation in the handling of these vehicles. Injured parties shall have the right to institute an action for recovery against the registered disposer and the surety upon the bond. Successive recoveries against the bond shall be permitted but the aggregate liability of the surety to all persons shall in no event exceed the amount of the bond. Upon exhaustion of the penalty of the bond or cancellation of the bond by the surety, the registration of the disposer shall automatically be canceled.

(4) (a) Each original application shall be accompanied by a fee of five dollars. If the application is approved the department shall forward the fee to the state treasurer for deposit in the motor vehicle fund. The department shall forward a license to the registered disposer which shall be prominently displayed to signify that he is authorized to do business as a registered disposer.

(b) A license issued to a registered disposer shall remain in force until suspended, revoked, canceled for bond expiration, or canceled for insurance expiration.

(c) Whenever a registered disposer has had a bond or insurance canceled, a license suspended or revoked, or has ceased to do business, the license shall be immediately surrendered to the department.

(5) Each registered disposer shall carry insurance in such amount proportional to the size of the registered disposer's business as the department may by rule require to protect against vehicle damage, including but not limited to fire and theft, from the time a vehicle comes into his custody until it is sold or reclaimed. Each registered disposer shall also carry at least fifty thousand dollars of liability insurance for property damage or bodily injury.

(6) The director may by order suspend or revoke the license for any registration as a registered disposer if he finds that the registrant has not complied with or is not complying with any law, rule, or regulation relative to the handling or disposition of vehicles, abandoned vehicles, or abandoned vehicle hulks, or has been adjudged guilty of violating any such law, rule, or regulation. For the purpose of this section, the term adjudged guilty means, in addition to a final conviction in either a state or municipal court, an unvacated forfeiture of bail or collateral deposited to secure a defendant's appearance in court, the payment of a fine, a plea of guilty, or a finding of guilt regardless of whether the imposition of sentence is deferred or the penalty is suspended.

(7) Any ~~((tow truck operator))~~ registered disposer under contract to a city or county for the impounding of vehicles shall comply with such administrative regulations relative to the handling and disposing of vehicles as may be promulgated by such city or county and as hereinafter set forth.

Sec. 11. Section 46.52.110, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 166, chapter ... (House Bill No. 849), Laws of 1979 and RCW 46.52.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Such information shall be provided by the chief of the Washington state patrol for the use of the director of licensing as will permit the director to check the motor or serial number set forth in any application for certificate of ownership or certificate of license registration against such "stolen vehicle index" and no such certificates shall be issued upon any vehicle recorded as stolen and the director shall immediately inform the chief of the Washington state patrol of any application upon any such vehicle.

It shall be the duty of the sheriff of every county, the chief of police or chief police officer of each incorporated city and town, members of the Washington state patrol and constables to report to the chief of the Washington state patrol all vehicles or ~~((automobile))~~ vehicle hulks found abandoned on a public highway or at any other place and the same shall thereafter, at the direction of such law enforcement officer, be ~~((placed in~~

However the lien does not apply to personal property in or upon the vehicle which personal property is not permanently attached to or is not an integral part of the vehicle. The registered disposer shall also have a claim against the last registered owner of ~~((such))~~ the vehicle or hulk for services provided in the towing and storage of the ~~((same))~~ vehicle or hulk, not to exceed the sum of ~~((one))~~ two hundred dollars, unless the removal is determined to be invalid. A registered owner who has complied with RCW 46.52.104 in the transfer of ownership of the vehicle or hulk shall be relieved of liability under this section.

(2) Within ~~((five days))~~ twenty-four hours after receiving custody of ~~((such abandoned))~~ the vehicle or ~~((automobile))~~ hulk from the law enforcement officer, the ~~((tow truck operator))~~ registered disposer shall give notice of his custody to the department of licensing and the ~~((chief of the))~~ Washington state patrol ~~((and))~~. The notice shall not be sent if the registered owner has regained possession of the vehicle pursuant to section 5 of this 1979 act. If the vehicle is sold pursuant to this chapter, a copy of the notice with proof of mailing shall be retained in the registered disposer's files and available for inspection for a period of three years from the date of sale.~~

(4) The failure of the registered disposer to comply with the time limits provided in this chapter shall limit the accumulation of storage charges to five days except where delay is unavoidable. The providing of incorrect or incomplete identifying information to the department in the abandoned vehicle report shall be considered a failure to comply with these time limits if correct information is available.

Such ~~((abandoned))~~ vehicle or ~~((automobile))~~ hulk shall be sold at such auction to the highest bidder. The proceeds of such sale, after deducting the towing and storage charges due the ~~((tow truck operator))~~ registered disposer, including the cost of sale, which shall be computed as in a public auction sale of personal property by the sheriff, shall be certified one-half to the county treasurer of the county in which the vehicle is located to be credited to the county current expense fund, and one-half to the state treasurer to be credited to the highway safety fund. If the amount bid at the

STATE ROUTE 90—COMPLETION CONSTRUCTION BOND ISSUE—APPROPRIATION

AN ACT Relating to state highway bonds; adding new sections to chapter 47.10 RCW; making appropriations; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. In order to provide funds for the location, design, right of way, and construction of selected interstate highway improvements, there shall be issued and sold upon the request of the Washington state transportation commission, a total of one hundred million dollars of general obligation bonds of the state of Washington to pay the state's share of costs for completion of state route 90 (state route 5 to state route 405) and other related state highway projects eligible for regular federal interstate funding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Upon request being made by the transportation commission, the state finance committee shall supervise and provide for the issuance, sale, and retirement of the bonds authorized by section 1 of this 1979 act in accordance with the provisions of chapter 39.42 RCW. The amount of such bonds issued and sold under the provisions of sections 1 through 9 of this 1979 act in any biennium may not exceed the amount of a specific appropriation therefor. Such bonds may be sold from time to time in such amounts as may be necessary for the orderly progress of the state highway improvements specified in section 1 of this 1979 act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The proceeds from the sale of the bonds authorized by section 1 of this 1979 act shall be deposited in the motor vehicle fund and such proceeds shall be available only for the purposes enumerated in section 1 of this 1979 act, for the payment of bond anticipation notes, if any, and for the payment of the expense incurred in the drafting, printing, issuance, and sale of such bonds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Bonds issued under the provisions of section 1 of this 1979 act shall distinctly state that they are a general obligation of the state of Washington, shall pledge the full faith and credit of the state to the payment of the principal thereof and the interest thereon, and shall contain an unconditional promise to pay such principal and interest as the same shall become due. The principal of and interest on such bonds shall be first payable in the manner provided in sections 1 through 9 of this 1979 act from the proceeds of the state excise taxes on motor vehicle and special fuels imposed by chapters 82.36, 82.37, and 82.38 RCW. Proceeds of such excise taxes are hereby pledged to the payment of any bonds and the interest thereon issued under the provisions of sections 1 through 9 of this 1979 act, and the legislature hereby agrees to continue to impose the same excise taxes on motor vehicle and special fuels in amounts sufficient to pay, when due, the principal and interest on all bonds issued under the provisions of sections 1 through 9 of this 1979 act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Any funds required to repay the bonds authorized by section 1 of this 1979 act or the interest thereon when due shall be taken from that portion of the motor vehicle fund which results from the imposition of excise taxes on motor vehicle and special fuels and which is distributed to the state for expenditure pursuant to RCW 46.68.130 and shall never constitute a charge against any allocations of such funds to counties, cities, and towns unless and until the amount of the motor vehicle fund arising from the excise taxes on motor vehicle and special fuels and available for state highway purposes proves insufficient to meet the requirements for bond retirement or interest on any such bonds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. At least one year prior to the date any interest is due and payable on such bonds or before the maturity date of such bonds, the state finance committee shall estimate, subject to the provisions of section 5 of this 1979 act, the percentage of the receipts in money of the motor vehicle fund resulting from collection of excise taxes on motor vehicle and special fuels, for each month of the year which shall be required to meet interest or bond payments when due and shall notify the treasurer of such estimated requirement. The state treasurer shall thereafter from time to time each month as such funds are paid into the motor vehicle fund, transfer such percentage of the monthly receipts from excise taxes on motor vehicle and special fuels of the motor vehicle fund to the highway bond retirement fund heretofore created in the state treasury, which funds shall be available solely for payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds when due. If in any month it shall appear that the estimated percentage of moneys so made is insufficient to meet the requirements for payment of the principal thereof or interest thereon, the treasurer shall notify the state finance committee forthwith, and such committee shall adjust its estimates so that all requirements for the interest on and principal of all bonds issued shall be fully met at all times.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Whenever the percentage of the motor vehicle fund arising from excise taxes on motor vehicle and special fuels payable into the highway bond retirement fund shall prove more than is required for the payment of interest on bonds when due, or current retirement of bonds, any excess may, in the discretion of the state finance committee, be available for the prior redemption of any bonds pursuant to applicable bond covenants or remain available in the fund to reduce requirements upon the fuel excise tax portion of the motor vehicle fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The bonds authorized in sections 1 through 9 of this 1979 act constitute a legal investment for all state funds or for funds under state control and all funds of municipal corporations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Except as otherwise provided by statute, general obligation bonds issued under authority of legislation enacted during the 45th session of the legislature and thereafter and which pledge motor vehicle and special fuel excise taxes for the payment of principal and interest thereon shall be an equal charge against the revenues from such motor vehicle and special fuel excise taxes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is hereby appropriated from the motor vehicle fund to the department of transportation for the biennium ending June 30, 1981, the sum of ten million dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the provisions of section 1 of this 1979 act: PROVIDED, That the money available for expenditure under this appropriation may not exceed the amount of money derived from the sale of ten million dollars of bonds authorized by section 1 of this 1979 act and deposited to the credit of the motor vehicle fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 1 through 9 of this 1979 act shall be added to chapter 47.10 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If any provision of this 1979 act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. This 1979 act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

The remainder of such fifty percent shall be credited in equal amounts to the commission, the department of natural resources, and the department of game and shall be expended on the development or operation of snowmobile facilities, but not on the acquisition thereof. The commission, the department of natural resources and the department of game shall, not later than July 15 of each year, prepare and submit to the Washington state parks and recreation commission an annual report which shall indicate the purposes for which such amounts were expended)) The remainder of such funds each year shall be remitted to the state treasurer to be deposited in the snowmobile account of the general fund and shall be appropriated only to the commission to be expended for snowmobile purposes. Such purposes may include but not necessarily be limited to the administration, acquisition, development, operation, and maintenance of snowmobile facilities and development and implementation of snowmobile safety, enforcement, and education programs.

(3) Nothing in this section is intended to discourage any public agency in this state from developing and implementing snowmobile programs. The commission is authorized to make grants to public agencies and to contract with any public or private agency or person for the purpose of developing and implementing snowmobile programs, provided that the programs are not inconsistent with the rules adopted by the commission.

Moneys in the snowmobile account which are not needed to meet the expenses and obligations of the commission for snowmobile programs shall be invested in a manner as provided by law and any interest earned thereon shall be considered moneys in the snowmobile account to be used for the purposes specified in this chapter.

Sec. 9. was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

Sec. 10. Section 9, chapter 29, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 5, chapter 181, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.10.090 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any person to operate any snowmobile:

(1) At a rate of speed greater than reasonable and prudent under the existing conditions.

(2) While under the influence of intoxicating liquor or narcotics or habit forming drugs.

(3) In a manner so as to endanger the person or property of another.

(4) Without a lighted headlight and taillight between the hours of dusk and dawn, or when otherwise required for the safety of others.

(5) Without an adequate braking device which may be operated either by hand or foot.

(6) Without an adequate and operating muffling device which shall effectively blend the exhaust and motor noise in such a manner so as to preclude excessive or unusual noise, and, (a) on snowmobiles manufactured on or before January 4, 1973, which shall effectively limit such noise at a level of eighty-six decibels, or below, on the "A" scale at fifty feet, and (b) on snowmobiles manufactured after January 4, 1973, which shall effectively

~~((maintain))~~ limit such noise at a level of eighty-two decibels, or below, on the "A" scale at ~~((one hundred))~~ fifty feet, and (c) on snowmobiles manufactured after January 1, 1975, which shall effectively limit such noise at a level of seventy-eight decibels, or below, as measured on the "A" scale at a distance of fifty feet, under testing procedures as established by the ~~((Washington state patrol))~~ department of ecology; except snowmobiles used in organized racing events in an area designated for that purpose may use a bypass or cutout device. This section shall not affect the power of the department of ecology to adopt noise performance standards for snowmobiles. Noise performance standards adopted or to be adopted by the department of ecology shall be in addition to the standards contained in this section, but the department's standards shall supersede this section to the extent of any inconsistency.

(7) Upon the paved portion or upon the shoulder or inside bank or slope of any public roadway or highway, or upon the median of any divided highway, except as provided in RCW 46.10.100 and 46.10.110.

Sec. 11. Section 13, chapter 29, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.10.130 are each amended to read as follows:

No person shall operate a snowmobile in such a way as to endanger human life, or to run down or harass deer, elk, or any ~~((other))~~ wildlife, or any domestic animal, nor shall he carry any loaded weapon upon, nor hunt from, any snowmobile. Sec. 12. Section 15, chapter 29, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 181, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.10.150 are each amended to read as follows:

From time to time, but at least once each biennium, the director shall request the state treasurer to refund from the motor vehicle fund amounts which have been determined to be a tax on snowmobile fuel, and the treasurer shall refund such amounts, less the cost of making the determination under RCW 46.10.170, and place them in the snowmobile account in the general fund~~((; twenty-five percent of such amounts shall be credited to the commission and shall be expended by it for snow removal operations at other than developed recreational facilities; seventy-five percent of such amounts shall be credited as follows: Forty percent of such seventy-five percent to the general fund to be subject to legislative appropriation until the cumulative totals of such amounts subject to legislative appropriation under this section and under RCW 46.10.080(4) as now or hereafter amended shall equal forty thousand dollars, or shall equal so much of the~~ ~~appropriation under RCW 46.10.081 as is actually used if the entire appropriation of forty thousand dollars is not used. The remainder of such seventy-five percent shall be credited in equal amounts, to the commission, department of natural resources, and the department of game, and shall be expended for the development and/or operation, but not acquisition, of snowmobile facilities).~~

Sec. 13. Section 17, chapter 29, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.10.170 are each amended to read as follows:

From time, to time, but at least once each four years, the department shall determine the amount or proportion of moneys paid to it as motor vehicle fuel tax which is tax on snowmobile fuel. Such determination may be made in any manner which is, in the judgment of the director, reasonable, but the manner used to make such determination shall be reported at the end of each four year period to the legislature. To offset the actual cost of making such determination the treasurer shall retain in, and the department is authorized to expend from, the motor vehicle fund(~~(, the sum of twenty thousand dollars in the first biennium after August 9, 1971, and ten thousand dollars in each succeeding biennium)~~) a sum equal to such actual cost.

Sec. 14. Section 19, chapter 29, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 6, chapter 181, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.10.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) In addition to the penalties provided in subsection (1) of this section, the operator and/or the owner of any snowmobile used with the permission of the owner shall be liable for three times the amount of any damage to trees, shrubs, growing crops, or other property injured as the result of travel by such snowmobile over the property involved.

Sec. 15. Section 5, chapter 128, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.10.210 are each amended to read as follows:

With the exception of the registration and licensing provisions, this chapter shall be administered by the Washington state parks and recreation commission. The department shall consult with the commission prior to adopting rules to carry out its duties under this chapter. After consultation with the committee, the commission shall adopt such rules as may be necessary to carry out its duties under this chapter. Nothing in this chapter is intended to discourage experimental or pilot programs which could enhance snowmobile safety or recreational snowmobiling.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. There is hereby appropriated from the snowmobile account of the general fund four hundred ninety-five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for the purposes of RCW 46.10.080 as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 23, chapter 29, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. (uncodified); and
- (2) Section 7, chapter 181, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.10.081.

Passed the House April 27, 1979.

Passed the Senate April 24, 1979.

Approved by the Governor May 14, 1979, with the exception of Section 9 which is vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State May 14, 1979.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to one section, Substitute House Bill 1281 entitled:

"An Act Relating to Snowmobiles; amending section 1, chapter 29, Laws of 1971, Ex. Session, as amended by section 131, chapter . . . (HB 849), Laws of 1971 and RCW 46.10.010; . . ."

Section 7 creates the "Snowmobile Account" within the General Fund and Section 9 provides that the unused money shall be "invested in a manner as provided by law" and that all interest earnings "shall be considered moneys in the snowmobile account." At present, there are 71 accounts in the State General Fund, only eight of which receive interest earnings on their balances. In all other instances, account earnings are credited to the State's basic General Fund. To credit interest to the newly-created snowmobile account would be to directly contradict past policy concerning funds administered by the State Treasurer and would encourage other encroachments on the revenue derived from these sources to the State General Fund.

With the exception of Section 9 which I have vetoed, the remainder of Substitute House Bill 1281 is approved."

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 28A.57.312, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 5, chapter 43, Laws of 1975 and RCW 28A.57.312 are each amended to read as follows:

The governing board of a school district shall be known as the board of directors of the district.

Unless otherwise specifically provided, as in RCW 29.13.060, members of a board of directors shall be elected by ballot by the registered voters of the school district and shall hold office for a term of four years and until their successors are elected and qualified. Terms of school directors shall be staggered, and insofar as possible, not more than a majority of one shall be elected to full terms at any regular election. In case a member or members of a board of directors are to be elected to fill an unexpired term or terms, the ballot shall specify the term for which each such member is to be elected.

Except for a school district of the first class having (~~an enrollment of fifty thousand pupils~~) within its boundaries a city with a population of four hundred thousand people or more in class AA counties, which shall have a board of directors of seven members, the board of directors of every school district of the first class or school district of the second class shall consist of five members.

Sec. 2. Section 28A.57.342, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 8, chapter 43, Laws of 1975 and RCW 28A.57.342 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever an election shall be held for the purpose of securing the approval of the voters for the formation of a new school district other than a school district of the first class having (~~an enrollment of fifty thousand pupils~~) within its boundaries a city with a population of four hundred thousand people or more in class AA counties, if requested by one of the boards of directors of the school districts affected, there shall also be submitted to the voters at the same election a proposition to authorize the county committee to divide the school district, if formed, into directors' districts. Such director districts in second class districts, if approved, shall not become effective until the regular school election following the next regular school election at which time a new board of directors shall be elected as provided in RCW 28A.57.328, as now or hereafter amended. Such director districts in first class districts, if approved, shall not become effective until the next regular school election at which time a new board of directors shall be elected as provided in RCW 28A.57.355, 28A.57.356, and 28A.57.357, as now or hereafter amended. Each of the five directors shall be elected from among the residents of the respective director district by the electors of the entire school district.

Sec. 3. Section 28A.57.344, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 9, chapter 43, Laws of 1975 and RCW 28A.57.344 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of directors of every school district other than a school district of the first class having ~~((an enrollment of fifty thousand pupils))~~ within its boundaries a city with a population of four hundred thousand people or more in class AA counties which is not divided into directors' districts may submit to the voters at any regular school district election a proposition to authorize the county committee to divide the district into directors' districts. If a majority of the votes cast on the proposition shall be affirmative, the county committee shall proceed to divide the district into directors' districts. Such director districts, if approved, shall not become effective until the next regular school election when a new five member board of directors shall be elected, one from each of five director districts from among the residents of the respective director district by the electors of the entire district, two for a term of two years and three for a term of four years, unless such district elects its directors for six years, in which case, one for a term of two years, two for a term of four years, and two for a term of six years.

Upon the establishment of a new school district of the first class as provided for in RCW 28A.57.342, as now or hereafter amended, containing more than one former first class district, the directors of the largest former first class district and three directors representative of the other former first class districts selected by a majority of the board members of the former first class districts and two directors representative of former second class districts selected by a majority of the board members of former second class districts shall meet at the call of the educational service district superintendent and shall constitute the board of directors of the new district. Vacancies once such a board has been reconstituted shall not be filled unless the number of remaining board members is less than seven, and such vacancies shall be filled in the manner otherwise provided by law.

Each board of directors so constituted shall proceed at once to organize in the manner prescribed by law and thereafter shall have all of the powers and authority conferred by law upon boards of first class districts until the next regular school election and until their successors are elected and qualified. At such election other than districts electing directors for six-year terms as provided in RCW 29.13.060, as now or hereafter amended, five directors shall be elected either at large or by director districts, as the case may be, two for a term of two years and three for a term of four years. Sec. 5. Section 8, chapter 15, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 28A.57.358 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the establishment of a new school district of the first class having (~~an enrollment of fifty thousand pupils~~) within its boundaries a city with a population of four hundred thousand people or more in class AA counties, the directors of the largest former first class district and three directors representative of the other former first class districts selected by a majority of the board members of the former first class districts and two directors representative of former second class districts selected by a majority of the board members of former second class districts shall meet at the call of the educational service district superintendent and shall constitute the board of directors of the new district. Each board of directors so constituted shall proceed at once to organize in the manner prescribed by law and thereafter shall have all the powers and duties conferred by law upon boards of first class districts, until the next regular school election and until their successors are elected and qualified. Such duties shall include establishment of new director districts as provided for in RCW 28A.57.425, as now or hereafter amended. At the next regular school election seven directors shall be elected by director districts, two for a term of two years, two for a term of four years and three for a term of six years. Thereafter their terms shall be as provided in (~~RCW 29.13.060~~) section 10 of this amendatory act.

Vacancies once such a board has been reconstituted shall not be filled unless the number of remaining board members is less than seven, and such vacancies shall be filled in the manner otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 6. Section 9, chapter 131, Laws of 1969 as amended by section 5, chapter 21, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 28A.57.425 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any school ((districts)) district of the first class having ((an enrollment of fifty thousand pupils)) within its boundaries a city with a population of four hundred thousand people or more in class AA counties shall be divided into seven director districts. The boundaries of such director districts shall be established by the members of the school board and approved by the county committee on school district organization, such boundaries to be established so that each such district shall comprise, as nearly as practicable, an equal portion of the population of the school district. Boundaries of such director districts shall be adjusted by the school board and approved by the county committee after each federal decennial census if population change shows the need thereof to comply with the equal population requirement above. No person shall be eligible for the position of school director in any such director district unless such person resides in the particular director district. Residents in the particular director district desiring to be a candidate for school director shall file their declarations of candidacy for such director district and for the position of director in that district and shall be voted upon in the primary election by the registered voters of that particular director district: PROVIDED, That if not more than one person files a declaration of candidacy for the position of school director in any director district, no primary election shall be held in that district, and such candidate's name alone shall appear on the ballot for the director district position at the general election. The name of the person who receives the greatest number of votes and the name of the person who receives the next greatest number of votes at the primary for each director district position shall appear on the general election ballot under such position and shall be voted upon by all the registered voters in the school district. Except as provided in RCW 28A.57.435, as now or hereafter amended, every such director so elected in school districts divided into seven director districts shall serve for a term of ((six)) four years as otherwise provided in ((RCW 29.13.060)) section 10 of this amendatory act.

Sec. 7. Section 10, chapter 131, Laws of 1969 as amended by section 6, chapter 21, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 28A.57.435 are each amended to read as follows:

Appointment of a board member to fill any vacancy existing for a new director district prior to the next regular school election shall be by the school board. Prior to the next regular election in the school district and the filing of declarations of candidacy therefor, the incumbent school board shall designate said director districts by number. Directors appointed to fill vacancies as above provided shall be subject to election, one for a six-year term, and one for a two-year term and thereafter the term of their respective successors shall be for ((six)) four years. The term of office of incumbent members of the board of such district shall not be affected by RCW 28A.57.312, 28A.57.336, 28A.57.425, 28A.57.435, section 10 of this amendatory act, 29.21.180, 29.21.210 and 29.21.230, each as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 8. Section 2, chapter 10, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as amended by section 7, chapter 21, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 29.21.180 are each amended to read as follows:

In such event all candidates concerned shall be notified. Names of candidates that would have been printed upon the primary ballot, but for the provisions of this section, shall be printed upon the general election ballot alphabetically in groups under the designation of the respective titles of the offices for which they are candidates.

[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2852]

IMPASSE PROCEDURES FOR UNIFORMED PERSONNEL

AN ACT Relating to impasse procedures for uniformed personnel; amending section 3, chapter 131, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 1, chapter 14, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 41.56.440; amending section 4, chapter 131, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 2, chapter 14, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 41.56.450; amending section 5, chapter 131, Laws of 1973 and RCW 41.56.460; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 3, chapter 131, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 1, chapter 14, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 41.56.440 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Negotiations between representatives of the public employer and uniformed personnel shall be commenced at least five months prior to the submission of the budget to the legislative body of the public employer. If after a forty-five day period of negotiation between representatives of the public employer and uniformed personnel, an agreement has not been concluded, then an impasse is declared to exist, and either party may voluntarily submit the matters in dispute to mediation, as provided for in RCW 41.56.100. PROVIDED, That this forty-five day time period may be modified by mutual written agreement of the representatives of the public employer and uniformed personnel. If the parties have still not reached agreement after a ten day period of mediation, a fact-finding panel shall be created in the following manner. Each party shall appoint one member within two days; the two appointed members shall then choose a third member within two days who shall act as chairman of the panel. If the two members so appointed cannot agree within two days to the appointment of a third member, either party may request, and the commission shall name a third member who shall be chairman of the fact-finding panel and who may be an employee of the commission. The panel shall begin hearings on the matters in dispute within five days of the formation of the fact-finding panel and shall conclude such hearings and issue findings of fact and recommendations to the parties within thirty days of the date upon which hearings were commenced.~~

~~Reasonable notice of such hearings shall be given to the parties who shall appear and be heard either in person or by counsel or other representative. Hearings shall be informal and the rules of evidence prevailing in judicial proceedings shall not be binding. Minutes of the proceedings shall be taken. Any oral or documentary evidence and other data deemed relevant by the panel may be received in evidence. The panel shall have the power to administer oaths, require the attendance of witnesses, and the production of such books, papers, contracts, agreements, and documents as may be deemed by the panel material to a just determination of the issues in dispute and to issue subpoenas. Costs of each party's appointee shall be paid by the party, and the costs of proceedings otherwise shall be borne by the commission.~~

In making its findings, the fact-finding panel shall be mindful of the legislative purpose enumerated in RCW 41.56.430 and as additional standards of guidelines to aid it in developing its recommendations, it shall take into consideration those factors set forth in RCW 41.56.460.)

Negotiations between a public employer and the bargaining representative in a unit of uniformed personnel shall be commenced at least five months prior to the submission of the budget to the legislative body of the public employer. If no agreement has been reached sixty days after the commencement of such negotiations then, at any time thereafter, either party may declare that an impasse exists and may submit the dispute to the commission for mediation, with or without the concurrence of the other party. The commission shall appoint a mediator, who shall forthwith meet with the representatives of the parties, either jointly or separately, and shall take such other steps as he or she may deem appropriate in order to persuade the parties to resolve their differences and effect an agreement: PROVIDED, That a mediator does not have a power of compulsion.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 131, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 2, chapter 14, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 41.56.450 are each amended to read as follows:

~~(If an agreement has not been reached within forty-five days after mediation and fact-finding has commenced, an arbitration panel shall be created in the following manner: Each party shall submit a list of three persons to the commission, which shall then name one from each list as members to the panel, all within two days: PROVIDED, That this forty-five day time period may be modified by mutual written agreement of the representatives of the public employer and uniformed personnel. The two appointed members shall utilize one of the two following options in the appointment of the third member, who shall act as chairman of the panel: (1) By mutual consent, the two appointed members may jointly request the commission, and the commission shall appoint a third member within two days of such request. Costs of each party's appointee shall be borne by each party respectively; other costs of the arbitration proceedings shall be borne by the commission; or (2) The two appointed members shall choose a third member within two days. The costs of each party's appointee shall be borne by each party respectively, and the costs of the proceedings otherwise shall be shared equally between the parties.~~

~~If the two members so appointed under alternative (2) cannot agree within two days to the appointment of a third member, either party may apply to the superior court of the county where the labor disputes exist and request that the third member of the panel be appointed as provided by RCW 7.04.050. The panel thus composed shall be deemed an agency of the executive director and a state agency for the purposes of *this 1973 amendatory act. The panel shall hold hearings on the matters in dispute within~~ five days after the formation of the arbitration panel and take oral or written testimony:

~~Reasonable notice of such hearings shall be given to the parties who shall appear and be heard either in person or by counsel or other representative. Hearings shall be informal and the rules of evidence prevailing in judicial proceedings shall not be binding. A recording of the proceedings shall be taken. Any oral or documentary evidence and other data deemed relevant by the panel may be received in evidence. The panel shall have the power to administer oaths, require the attendance of witnesses, and the production of such books, papers, contracts, agreements and documents as may be deemed by the panel material to a just determination of the issues in dispute and to issue subpoenas. If any person refuses to obey such subpoena or refuses to be sworn to testify, or any witness, party or attorney of a party is guilty of any contempt while in attendance at any hearing held hereunder, the panel may invoke the jurisdiction of the superior court in the county where a labor dispute exists and such court shall have jurisdiction to issue an appropriate order. Any failure to obey such order may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof.~~

~~The hearing conducted by the panel shall be concluded within twenty days of the time of commencement and, within fifteen days after conclusion of the hearings, the chairman shall make written findings of fact and a written determination of the dispute based upon the issues presented, a copy of which shall be mailed or otherwise delivered to the employees' negotiating agent or its attorney or other designated representative and to the employer or the employer's attorney or designated representative. The decision made by the panel shall be final and binding upon both parties, subject to review by the superior court upon the application of either party solely upon the question of whether the decision of the panel was arbitrary or capricious:))~~

If an agreement has not been reached following a reasonable period of negotiations and mediation, and the executive director, upon the recommendation of the assigned mediator, finds that the parties remain at impasse, then an arbitration panel shall be created to resolve the dispute. Within five days following the issuance of the determination of the executive director, each party shall name one person to serve as its arbitrator on the arbitration panel. The two members so appointed shall meet within five days following the appointment of the later appointed member to attempt to choose a third member to act as the neutral chairman of the arbitration panel. Upon the failure of the arbitrators to select a neutral chairman within five days, the two appointed members shall utilize one of the two following options in the appointment of the third member, who shall act as chairman of the panel: (1) By mutual consent, the two appointed members may jointly request the commission, and the commission shall appoint a third member within two days of such request. Costs of each party's appointee shall be borne by each party respectively; other costs of the arbitration proceedings shall be borne by the commission; or (2) either party may apply to the commission, the federal mediation and conciliation service or the American Arbitration Association to provide a list of five qualified arbitrators from which the neutral chairman shall be chosen. Each party shall pay the fees and expenses of its arbitrator, and the fees and expenses of the neutral chairman shall be shared equally between the parties.

The arbitration panel so constituted shall promptly establish a date, time, and place for a hearing and shall provide reasonable notice thereof to the parties to the dispute, provided, that the requirements of chapter 34.04 RCW do not apply to such notice. A hearing, which shall be informal, shall be held, and each party shall have the opportunity to present evidence and make argument. No member of the arbitration panel may present the case for a party to the proceedings. The rules of evidence prevailing in judicial proceedings may be considered, but are not binding, and any oral testimony or documentary evidence or other data deemed relevant by the chairman of the arbitration panel may be received in evidence. A recording of the proceedings shall be taken. The arbitration panel shall have the power to administer oaths, require the attendance of witnesses, and require the production of such books, papers, contracts, agreements, and documents as may be deemed by the panel to be material to a just determination of the issues in dispute. If any person refuses to obey a subpoena issued by the arbitration panel, or refuses to be sworn or to make an affirmation to testify, or any witness, party, or attorney for a party is guilty of any contempt while in attendance at any hearing held hereunder, the arbitration panel may invoke the jurisdiction of the superior court in the county where the labor dispute exists, and such court shall have jurisdiction to issue an appropriate order. Any failure to obey such order may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof. The hearing conducted by the arbitration panel shall be concluded within twenty-five days following the selection or designation of the neutral chairman of the arbitration panel, unless the parties agree to a longer period.

The neutral chairman shall consult with the other members of the arbitration panel and, within thirty days following the conclusion of the hearing, the neutral chairman shall make written findings of fact and a written determination of the issues in dispute, based on the evidence presented. A copy thereof shall be served on the commission, on each of the other members of the arbitration panel, and on each of the parties to the dispute. That determination shall be final and binding upon both parties, subject to review by the superior court upon the application of either party solely upon the question of whether the decision of the panel was arbitrary or capricious.

Sec. 3. Section 5, chapter 131, Laws of 1973 and RCW 41.56.460 are each amended to read as follows:

In making its determination, the panel shall be mindful of the legislative purpose enumerated in RCW 41.56.430 and as additional standards or guidelines to aid it in reaching a decision, it shall take into consideration the following factors:

- (a) The constitutional and statutory authority of the employer.
- (b) Stipulations of the parties.
- (c) Comparison of the wages, hours and conditions of employment of the uniformed personnel of cities and counties involved in the proceedings with the wages, hours, and conditions of employment of uniformed personnel of cities and counties respectively of similar size on the west coast of the United States.
- (d) The average consumer prices for goods and services, commonly known as the cost of living.
- (e) Changes in any of the foregoing circumstances during the pendency of the proceedings.
- (f) Such other factors, not confined to the foregoing, which are normally or traditionally taken into consideration in the determination of wages, hours and conditions of employment.

~~((g) Findings of fact made by the fact-finder pursuant to RCW 41.56.440.))~~

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature finds that a significant potential exists for the development of the hydroelectric generation capabilities of present and future irrigation systems serving irrigation districts. The legislature also finds that the development of such hydroelectric generation capabilities is beneficial to the present and future electrical needs of the citizens of the state of Washington, furthers a state purpose and policy, and is in the public interest. The legislature further finds that it is necessary to revise and add to the authority of irrigation districts to obtain the most favorable interest rates possible in the financing of irrigation district projects which serve the agricultural community and hydroelectric facilities. It is the intent of the legislature to provide irrigation districts with the authority to develop these hydroelectric generation capabilities in connection with irrigation facilities. Further, it is the intent of the legislature that the development of hydroelectric generation capabilities pursuant to this 1979 act not become the sole purpose or function of irrigation districts in existence on the effective date of this 1979 act, nor become a major function of irrigation districts created after that date. Nothing herein shall authorize an irrigation district to sell electric power or energy to any municipal corporation not engaged in the distribution of electric power or energy.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 138, Laws of 1923 as last amended by section 1, chapter 206, Laws of 1967 and RCW 87.03.015 are each amended to read as follows:

Any irrigation district, operating and maintaining an irrigation system, in addition to other powers conferred by law, shall have authority:

(1) To purchase(;) and sell electric power to the inhabitants of the irrigation district for the purposes of irrigation and domestic use, to acquire, construct, and lease dams, canals, plants, transmission lines, and other power equipment and the necessary property and rights therefor and to operate, improve, repair, and maintain the same, for the generation and transmission of electrical energy(~~(, used in the operation of pumping plants and irrigation systems of the district, and to sell the surplus of any such electrical energy over and above the requirements of the irrigation districts to municipalities, public and private corporations and individuals, on such terms and conditions as the board of directors shall determine))~~ for use in the operation of pumping plants and irrigation systems of the district and for sale to the inhabitants of the irrigation district for the purposes of irrigation and domestic use; and, as a further and separate grant of authority and in furtherance of a state purpose and policy of developing hydroelectric capability in connection with irrigation facilities, to construct, finance, acquire, own, operate, and maintain, alone or jointly with other irrigation districts, boards of control, other municipal or quasi municipal corporations or cooperatives authorized to engage in the business of distributing electricity, or electrical companies subject to the jurisdiction of the utilities and transportation commission, hydroelectric facilities including but not limited to dams, canals, plants, transmission lines, other power equipment, and the necessary property and rights therefor, located within or outside the district, for the purpose of utilizing for the generation of electricity, water power made available by and as a part of the irrigation water storage, conveyance, and distribution facilities, waste ways, and drainage water facilities which serve irrigation districts, and to sell any and all the electric energy generated at any such hydroelectric facilities or the irrigation district's share of such energy, to municipal or quasi municipal corporations and cooperatives authorized to engage in the business of distributing electricity, and electrical companies subject to the jurisdiction of the utilities and transportation commission, or to other irrigation districts, and on such terms and conditions as the board of directors shall determine, and to enter into contracts with other irrigation districts, boards of control, other municipal or quasi municipal corporations and cooperatives authorized to engage in the business of distributing electricity, and electrical companies subject to the jurisdiction of the utilities and transportation commission: PROVIDED, That no contract entered into by ~~((such))~~ the board of directors of any irrigation district for the sale of electrical energy ~~((to continue))~~ from such hydroelectric facility for a period longer than ~~((ten))~~ forty years from the date of commercial operation of such hydroelectric facility shall be binding on the district until ratified by a majority vote of the electors of the district at an election therein, called, held and canvassed for that purpose in the same manner as that provided by law for district bond elections.

(2) To construct, repair, purchase, maintain or lease a system for the sale or lease of water to the owners of irrigated lands within the district for domestic purposes.

(3) To construct, repair, purchase, lease, acquire, operate and maintain a system of drains, sanitary sewers, and sewage disposal or treatment plants as herein provided.

(4) To assume, as principal or guarantor, any indebtedness to the United States under the federal reclamation laws, on account of district lands.

(5) To maintain, repair, construct and reconstruct ditches, laterals, pipe lines and other water conduits used or to be used in carrying water for irrigation of lands located within the boundaries of a city or town or for the domestic use of the residents of a city or town where the owners of land within such city or town shall use such ~~((irrigation))~~ works to carry water to the boundaries of such city or town for irrigation, domestic or other purposes within such city or town, and to charge to such city or town the pro rata proportion of the cost of such maintenance, repair, construction and reconstruction work in proportion to the benefits received by the lands served and located within the boundaries of such city or town, and if such cost is not paid, then and in that event said irrigation district shall have the right to prevent further water deliveries through such ~~((irrigation))~~ works to the lands located within the boundaries of such city or town until such charges have been paid.

(6) To acquire, install and maintain as a part of the irrigation district's water system the necessary water mains and fire hydrants to make water available for fire fighting purposes; and in addition any such irrigation district shall have the authority to repair, operate and maintain such hydrants and mains.

(8) To acquire from a water district wholly within the irrigation district's boundaries, by a conveyance without cost, the water district's water system and to operate the same to provide water for the domestic use of the irrigation district residents. As a part of its acceptance of the conveyance the irrigation district must agree to relieve the water district of responsibility for maintenance and repair of the system. Any such water district is authorized to make such a conveyance if all indebtedness of the water district, except local improvement district bonds, has been paid and the conveyance has been approved by a majority of the water district's electors voting at a general or special election.

This section shall not be construed as in any manner abridging any other powers of an irrigation district conferred by law.

Sec. 3. Section 11, page 677, Laws of 1889-90 as last amended by section 5, chapter 129, Laws of 1921 and RCW 87.03.115 are each amended to read as follows:

All meetings of the directors must be public. A majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and in all matters requiring action by the board there shall be a concurrence of at least a majority of the directors. All records of the board shall be open to the inspection of any electors during business hours. The board shall have the power, and it shall be its duty, to adopt a seal of the district, to manage and conduct the business and affairs of the district, to make and execute all necessary contracts, to employ and appoint such agents, officers and employees as may be necessary and prescribe their duties, and to establish equitable bylaws, rules and regulations for the government and management of the district, and for the equitable distribution of water to the lands within the district, upon the basis of the beneficial use thereof, and generally to perform all such acts as shall be necessary to fully carry out the provisions of this chapter(~~(, including the acquisition, construction and operation and maintenance of drainage works and waste-ways))~~): PROVIDED, That all water, the right to the use of which is acquired by the district under any contract with the United States shall be distributed and apportioned by the district in accordance with the acts of congress, and rules and regulations of the secretary of the interior until full reimbursement has been made to the United States, and in accordance with the provisions of said contract in relation thereto. The bylaws, rules and regulations must be printed in convenient form for distribution in the district. All leases, contracts, or other form of holding any interest in any state or other public lands shall be, and the same are hereby declared to be title to and evidence of title to lands and for all purposes within this act, shall be treated as the private property of the lessee or owner of the contractual or possessory interest: PROVIDED, That nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the title of the state or other public ownership, nor shall any lien for such assessment attach to the fee simple title of the state or other public ownership. The board of directors shall have authority to develop and to sell, lease, or rent the use of: (1) Water ~~((or power))~~ derived from the operation of the district ~~((irrigation or drainage works for delivery to occupants of public or other lands situated within or adjacent to the district, or~~~~

~~to municipal corporations, at such prices and on such terms as it deems best)) water facilities to such municipal and quasi municipal entities, the state of Washington, and state entities and agencies, public and private corporations and individuals located within and outside the boundaries of the district and on such terms and conditions as the board of directors shall determine; and (2) power derived from hydroelectric facilities authorized by RCW 87.03.015(1) as now or hereafter amended, to such municipal or quasi municipal corporations and cooperatives authorized to engage in the business of distributing electricity, electrical companies subject to the jurisdiction of the utilities and transportation commission, and other irrigation districts and on such terms and conditions as the board of directors shall determine: PROVIDED, No water ((or power)) shall be furnished for use outside of said district until all demands and requirements for water ((and power)) for use in said district are furnished and supplied by said district: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That as soon as any public lands situated within the limits of the district shall be acquired by any private person, or held under any title of private ownership, the owner thereof shall be entitled to receive his proportion of water as in case of other land owners, upon payment by him of such sums as shall be determined by the board, and at the time to be fixed by the board, which sums shall be such equitable amount as such lands should pay having regard to placing said lands on the basis of equality with other lands in the district as to benefits received, and giving credit if equitable for any sums paid as water rent by the occupant of said lands prior to the vesting of private ownership, and such lands shall also become subject to all taxes and assessments of the district thereafter imposed.~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 87.03 RCW a new section to read as follows:

For the purpose of developing hydroelectric generation capabilities in connection with irrigation facilities, the board of directors of an irrigation district shall have the power, in accordance with procedures provided in this chapter, to acquire, either by purchase or condemnation, or other legal means, all lands, waters, water rights, and other property located within or outside the boundaries of the district necessary for the construction, use, supply, maintenance, repair, or improvement of hydroelectric facilities to the extent authorized by RCW 87.03.015(1), as now or hereafter amended.

Irrigation districts are prohibited from condemning: (1) Any hydroelectric power plants, hydroelectric power sites, power lines or other power facilities or any lands, water rights, or other property of municipal and quasi municipal corporations, cooperatives authorized to engage in the business of distributing electricity, and electrical companies subject to the jurisdiction of the utilities and transportation commission; and (2) water rights held by private individual landowners where such waters are being put to beneficial use.

Sec. 5. Section 37, page 690, Laws of 1889-90 as last amended by section 7, chapter 171, Laws of 1939 and RCW 87.03.445 are each amended to read as follows:

The cost and expense of purchasing and acquiring property, and construction, reconstruction, extension and betterment of the works and improvements herein provided for, and the expenses incidental thereto, and indebtedness to the United States for district lands assumed by the district, and for the carrying out of the purposes of this chapter, may be paid for by the board of directors out of the funds received from bond sales as well as other district funds.

For the purpose of defraying the costs and expenses of the organization of the district, and of the care, operation, management, maintenance, repair and improvement of the district and its irrigation water, domestic water, ~~((electrical))~~ electric power, drainage, or ~~((telephone system and appliances))~~ sewer facilities or of any portion thereof, or for the payment of any indebtedness due the United States or the state of Washington, or for the payment of district bonds, the board may either fix rates or tolls and charges, and collect the same from all persons for whom district service is made available for irrigation water, domestic water, electric ~~((energy))~~ power, drainage or sewerage, and other purposes, or ~~((they))~~ it may provide for the payment of said costs and expenses by a levy of assessment therefor, or by both said rates or tolls and charges and assessment ~~((; if by the latter method, such levy))~~.

If the assessment method is utilized, the levy of assessments shall be made on the completion and equalization of the assessment roll each year, and the board shall have the same powers and functions for the purpose of said levy as possessed by it in case of levy to pay bonds of the district. The procedure for the collection of assessments by such levy shall in all respects conform with the provisions of this chapter, relating to the collection of assessments for the payment of principal and interest of bonds herein provided for, and shall be made at the same time.

If the rates or tolls and charges method is adopted in whole or in part, the secretary shall deliver to the board of directors, within the time for filing the assessment roll, a schedule containing the names of the ~~((persons to whom the toll is to be charged or to whom the property is assessed, the description))~~ owners or reputed owners, as shown on the rolls of the county treasurer as of the first Tuesday in November of each year such a schedule is filed of the various parcels of land against which rates or tolls and charges are to be levied, the description of each such parcel of land and the amount to be charged against each parcel for irrigation water, domestic water, electric power, drainage, sewerage and other ~~((public uses))~~ district costs and expenses. Said schedule of rates or tolls and charges shall be equalized pursuant to the same notice, in the same manner, at the same time and with the same legal effect as in the case of assessments. Such schedule of rates or tolls and charges for a given year shall be filed with the proper county treasurer within the same time as that provided by law for the filing of the annual assessment roll, and the county treasurer shall collect and receipt for the payment of said rates or tolls and charges and credit them to the proper funds of the district. The board may designate the time and manner of making such collections and shall require the same to be paid in advance of delivery of water and other service ~~((and may accept short term interest bearing notes with or without collateral in their discretion for any portion of such charges. The board may also base such charges upon the quantity of water to be delivered and may fix a minimum charge to be paid by each acre of land within the district which shall represent the delivery of a stated quantity of water in acre feet with the graduated charge for each additional acre-foot of water delivered))~~. All tolls and charges levied shall also at once become and constitute an assessment upon and against the lands for which they are levied, with the same force and effect, and the same manner of enforcement, and with the same rate of interest from date of delinquency, in case of nonpayment, as other district assessments.

As an alternative method of imposing, collecting, and enforcing such rates or tolls and charges, the board may also base such rates or tolls and charges upon the quantity of irrigation water, domestic water, or electric power delivered, or drainage or sewage disposed of, and may fix a minimum rate or toll and charge to be paid by each parcel of land or use within the district for the delivery or disposal of a stated quantity of each such service with a graduated charge for additional quantities of such services delivered or disposed of. If the board elects to utilize this alternative method of imposing, collecting, and enforcing such rates or tolls and charges, there shall be no requirement that the schedule referred to in the preceding paragraph be prepared, be filed with the board of directors by the secretary, be equalized, or be filed with a county treasurer. The board shall enforce collection of such rates or tolls and charges against property to which and its owners to whom the service is available, such rates or tolls and charges being deemed charges against the property to which the service is available. The board may provide by resolution that where such rates or tolls and charges are delinquent for any specified period of time, the district shall certify the delinquencies to the treasurer of the county in which the real property is located, and the charges and any penalties added thereto and interest thereon at the rate not to exceed twelve percent per annum fixed by resolution shall be a lien against the property to which the service was available, subject only to the lien for general taxes. The district may, at any time after such rates or tolls and charges and penalties provided for herein are delinquent for a period of one year, bring suit in foreclosure by civil action in the superior court of the county in which the real property is situated. The court may allow, in addition to the costs and disbursements provided by statute, such attorney's fees as it may adjudge reasonable. The action shall be in rem against the property, and in addition may be brought in the name of the district against an individual, or against all of those who are delinquent, in one action, and the rules of the court shall control as in other civil actions. The board may in the same year use the assessment method for part of the lands in the district and the rates or tolls and charges method for the remaining lands in the district in such proportion as it may deem advisable for the best interest of the district.

~~((All tolls and charges levied shall also at once become and constitute an assessment upon and against the lands for which they are levied, with the same force and effect, and the same manner of enforcement, and with the same rate of interest from date of delinquency, in case of nonpayment, as other district assessments.))~~

The procedures herein provided for the collection and enforcement of rates, tolls and charges also shall be applicable and available to the districts board of directors for the collection and enforcement of charges for water imposed by contract entered into or administered by the district's board of directors.

Sec. 6. Section 2, chapter 31, Laws of 1933 and RCW 87.03.450 are each amended to read as follows:

All income derived from the sale, delivery and distribution of electrical energy, shall be deposited with the county treasurer of the county in which the office of the board of directors of the district is located, and shall be apportioned to such fund or funds of the district authorized by law, as the board of directors shall deem advisable~~((:PROVIDED, That such income, or any part of the same, may, upon a favorable vote of the electors of the district at an election therein called, held and canvassed for that purpose, in the same manner as that provided by law for district bond elections, be pledged, in addition to income from district assessments)), including, but not limited to the payment of district bonds or any portion of the same ((on the face of which the substance of such pledge must be endorsed,))~~ for which such revenues have been pledged and thereafter said income, or such portion thereof so pledged, shall be placed by the county treasurer to the credit of the fund from which said bonds are required to be paid until the same or the portion thereof secured by such pledge are fully paid.

Sec. 7. Section 11, chapter 162, Laws of 1917 as last amended by section 1, chapter 70, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 87.03.485 are each amended to read as follows:

In the event that the said board shall approve said petition, the board shall fix a time and place for the hearing thereof and shall publish a notice once a week for two consecutive weeks preceding the date of such hearing and the last publication shall not be more than seven days before such date and shall mail such a notice on or before the second publication date by first class mail, postage prepaid, to each owner or reputed owner of real property within the proposed local improvement district, as shown on the rolls of the county treasurer as of a date not more than twenty days immediately prior to the date such notice was mailed. Such notice must be published in a newspaper of general circulation in each county in which any portion of the land proposed to be included in such local improvement district lies. Such notice shall state that the lands within said described boundaries are proposed to be organized as a local improvement district, stating generally the nature of the proposed improvement; that bonds for such local improvement district are proposed to be issued as the bonds of the irrigation district, or that a contract is proposed to be entered into between the district and the United States or the state of Washington, or both, that the lands within said local improvement district are to be assessed for such improvement, that such bonds or contract will be a primary obligation of such local improvement district and a general obligation of the irrigation district and stating a time and place of hearing thereon. At the time and place of hearing named in said notice, all persons interested may appear before the board and show cause for or against the formation of the proposed improvement district and the issuance of bonds or the entering into of a contract as aforesaid. Upon the hearing the board shall determine as to the establishment of the proposed local improvement district. Any landowner whose lands can be served or will be benefited by the proposed improvement, may make application to the board at the time of hearing to include such land and the board of directors in such cases shall, at its discretion, include such lands within such district. The board of directors may exclude any land specified in said notice from said district provided, that in the judgment of the board, the inclusion thereof will not be practicable.

As an alternative plan and subject to all of the provisions of this chapter, the board of directors may initiate the organization of a local improvement district as herein provided. To so organize a local improvement district the board shall adopt and record in its minutes a resolution specifying the lands proposed to be included in such local improvement district or by describing the exterior boundaries of such proposed district or by both. Said resolution shall state generally the plan, character and extent of the proposed improvements, that the land proposed to be included in such improvement district will be assessed for such improvements; that coupon bonds of the irrigation district will be issued or a contract entered into as hereinabove in this section provided to meet the cost thereof and that such bonds or contract will be a primary obligation of such local improvement district and a general obligation of the irrigation district. Said resolution shall fix a time and place of hearing thereon and shall state that unless a majority of the holders of title or of evidence of title to lands within the proposed local improvement district file their written protest at or before said hearing, consent to the improvement will be implied.

A notice containing a copy of said resolution must be published once a week for two consecutive weeks preceding the date of such hearing and the last publication shall not be more than seven days before such date, and shall be mailed on or before the second publication date by first class mail, postage prepaid, to each owner or reputed owner of real property within the proposed local improvement district, as shown on the rolls of the county treasurer as of a date not more than twenty days immediately prior to the date such notice was mailed, and the hearing thereon shall not be held in less than twenty days from the adoption of such resolution. Such notice must be published in one newspaper, of general circulation, in each county in which any portion of the land proposed to be included in such local improvement district lies. Said hearing shall be held and all subsequent proceedings conducted in accordance with the provisions of this act relating to the organization of local improvement districts initiated upon petition.

(5) "Transient" means a person who rents a mobile home lot for a period of less than one month.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 279, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 59.20.040 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall regulate and determine legal rights, remedies, and obligations arising from any rental agreement between a landlord and a tenant regarding a mobile home lot and including specified amenities within the mobile home park, whose uses are referred to as a part of the rent structure paid by the tenant. All such rental agreements shall be unenforceable to the extent of any conflict with any provision of this chapter. Chapter 59.12 RCW shall be applicable only in implementation of the provisions of this chapter and not as an alternative remedy to this chapter which shall be exclusive where applicable: PROVIDED, That the provision of RCW 59.12.090, 59.12.100, and 59.12.170 shall not apply to any rental agreement included under the provisions of this chapter. No landlord may offer to a tenant or prospective tenant any rental agreement for a term of one year or more for which the monthly rental is greater, or the terms of payment or other material conditions more burdensome to the tenant, than any month-to-month rental agreement also offered to such tenant or prospective tenant.

A prospective tenant who desires to occupy a mobile home lot for other than a term of one year or more may have the option to be on a month-to-month basis but must waive, in writing, the right to such one year or more term. Except pursuant to such waiver, no landlord shall allow a mobile home to be moved into a mobile home park in this state until a written rental agreement has been signed by the landlord and the tenant and a copy provided for the tenant: PROVIDED, That if the landlord allows the tenant to move a mobile home into a mobile home park without obtaining a written rental agreement for a term of one year or more, or a written waiver of the right to a one-year term or more, the term of the tenancy shall be deemed to be for one year from the date of occupancy of the mobile home lot;

(2) The requirements of subsection (1) of this section shall not apply if:

(a) The mobile home park or part thereof has been acquired or is under imminent threat of condemnation for a public works project, or

If no designation is made of a person to act as agent, then the person to whom rental payments are to be made shall be considered the agent; ~~((and))~~

(e) The terms and conditions under which any deposit or portion thereof may be withheld by the landlord upon termination of the rental agreement if any moneys are paid to the landlord by the tenant as a deposit or as security for performance of the tenant's obligations in a rental agreement;

(f) A listing of those utilities and services which will be provided at the time the rental agreement is executed and will continue to be offered for the term of tenancy and the nature of the fees, if any, to be charged; and

(g) A description of the boundaries of a mobile home lot sufficient to inform the tenant of the exact location of his lot in relation to other tenants' lots.

(2) Any rental agreement executed between the landlord and tenant shall not contain:

(a) Any provision which allows the landlord to charge a fee for guest parking unless a violation of the rules for guest parking occurs: PROVIDED, That a fee may be charged for guest parking which covers an extended period of time as defined in the rental agreement;

(b) Any provision which authorizes the towing or impounding of a vehicle except upon notice to the owner thereof or the tenant whose guest is the owner of said vehicle;

(c) Any provision which allows the landlord to increase the rent or alter the due date for rent payment during the term of the rental agreement: PROVIDED, That a rental agreement may include an escalation clause for a pro rata share of any increase in the mobile home park's real property taxes or utility assessments or charges, over the base taxes or utility assessments or charges of the year in which the rental agreement took effect, if the clause also provides for a pro rata reduction in rent or other charges in the event of a reduction in real property taxes or utility assessments or charges, below the base year;

(d) Any provision by which the tenant agrees to waive or forego rights or remedies under this chapter; ~~((or))~~

(e) Any provision allowing the landlord to charge an "entrance fee" or an "exit fee"; or

(f) Any provision which allows the landlord to charge a fee for guests: PROVIDED, That a landlord may establish rules charging for guests who remain on the premises for more than fifteen days in any sixty-day period.

Sec. 5. Section 7, chapter 279, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 59.20-.070 are each amended to read as follows:

A landlord shall not:

(1) Deny any tenant the right to sell such tenant's mobile home within a park or require the removal of the mobile home from the park solely because of the sale thereof: PROVIDED, That:

(3) Prohibit meetings by tenants of the mobile home park to discuss mobile home living and affairs, conducted at reasonable times and in an orderly manner on the premises, nor penalize any tenant for participation in such activities;

(4) (a) Evict a tenant, terminate a rental agreement, decline to renew a rental agreement, increase rental or other tenant obligations, decrease services, or modify park rules in retaliation for any of the following actions on the part of a tenant taken in good faith:

(i) Filing a complaint with any state, county, or municipal governmental authority relating to any alleged violation by the landlord of an applicable statute, regulation, or ordinance;

(ii) Requesting the landlord to comply with the provision of this chapter or other applicable statute, regulation, or ordinance of the state, county, or municipality;

(iii) Filing suit against the landlord for any reason;

Sec. 6. Section 8, chapter 279, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 59.20-.080 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Tenancy during the term of a rental agreement may be terminated by the landlord only))~~ (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the landlord shall not terminate a tenancy, of whatever duration, except for one or more of the following reasons:

~~((+))~~ (a) Substantial or repeated violation of the rules of the mobile home park as established by the landlord at the inception of the tenancy or as assumed subsequently with the consent of the tenant or for violation of the tenant's duties as provided in section 9 of this act as now or hereafter amended. The tenant shall be given written notice of a fifteen day period in which to comply or vacate: PROVIDED, That in the case of a violation of a "material change" in park rules with respect to pets, tenants with minor children living with them, or recreational facilities, the tenant shall be given written notice of a six month period in which to comply or vacate. In the case of periodic rather than continuous violation, said notice shall specify that the same violation repeated shall result in termination;

~~((2))~~ (b) Nonpayment of rent or other charges specified in the rental agreement, upon five days written notice to pay rent and/or other charges or to vacate;

~~((3))~~ (c) Conviction of the tenant of a crime, commission of which threatens the health, safety, or welfare of the other mobile home park tenants. The tenant shall be given written notice of a fifteen day period in which to vacate;

(d) Failure of the tenant to comply with local ordinances and state laws and regulations relating to mobile homes or mobile home living within a reasonable time after the tenant's receipt of notice of such noncompliance from the appropriate governmental agency;

(e) Change of land use of the mobile home park: PROVIDED, That the landlord shall give the tenants twelve months' notice in advance of the proposed effective date of such change.

(2) A landlord may terminate any tenancy without cause. Such termination shall be effective six months from the date the landlord serves notice of termination upon the tenant or at the end of the current tenancy, whichever is later: PROVIDED, That a landlord may not terminate a tenancy for any reason or basis which is prohibited under RCW 59.20.070(3) or (4), as now or hereafter amended.

(1) Unless otherwise agreed rental agreements shall be for a term of one year. Any rental agreement ~~((for a term of one year and any rental agreement renewed for a six-month term))~~ of whatever duration shall be automatically renewed for an additional six-month term or for the term of the original rental agreement, whichever is shorter unless:

(a) ~~((Otherwise specified in the original written rental agreement))~~ A different specified term is agreed upon; or

(b) The landlord ~~((notifies the tenant in writing three months prior to the expiration of the rental agreement that it will not be renewed or will be renewed only with the changes contained in such notice))~~ serves notice of termination without cause upon the tenant prior to the expiration of the rental agreement: PROVIDED, That under such circumstances, at the expiration of the prior rental agreement the tenant shall be considered a month-to-month tenant upon the same terms as in the prior rental agreement until the tenancy is terminated.

(2) A landlord seeking to increase the rent upon expiration of the term of a rental agreement of any duration shall notify the tenant in writing three months prior to the effective date of any increase in rent: PROVIDED, That if a landlord serves a tenant with notice of a rental increase at the same time or subsequent to serving the tenant with notice of termination without cause, such rental increase shall not become effective until the date the tenant is required to vacate the leased premises pursuant to the notice of termination or three months from the date notice of rental increase is served, whichever is later.

(3) A tenant shall notify the landlord in writing one month prior to the expiration of a rental agreement of an intention not to renew.

~~((2))~~ (4)(a) The tenant may terminate the rental agreement upon thirty days written notice whenever a change in the location of the tenant's employment requires a change in his residence, and shall not be liable for rental following such termination unless after due diligence and reasonable effort the landlord is not able to rent the mobile home lot at a fair rental. If the landlord is not able to rent the lot, the tenant shall remain liable for the rental specified in the rental agreement until the lot is rented or the original term ends;

~~((3))~~ (b) Any tenant who is a member of the armed forces may terminate a rental agreement with less than thirty days notice if he receives reassignment orders which do not allow greater notice.

(6) Respect the privacy of the tenants and shall have no right of entry to a mobile home without the prior written consent of the occupant, except in case of emergency or when the occupant has abandoned the mobile home. Such consent may be revoked in writing by the occupant at any time. The ownership or management shall have a right of entry upon the land upon which a mobile home is situated for maintenance of utilities and protection of the mobile home park at any reasonable time, but not in a manner or at a time which would interfere with the occupant's quiet enjoyment;

(8) Maintain roads within the mobile home park in good condition.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. It shall be the duty of the tenant to pay the rental amount at such times and in such amounts as provided for in the rental agreement or as otherwise provided by law and comply with all obligations imposed upon tenants by applicable provisions of all municipal, county, and state codes, statutes, ordinances and regulations, and in addition the tenant shall:

(1) Keep the mobile home lot which he occupies and uses as clean and sanitary as the conditions of the premises permit;

(2) Properly dispose of all rubbish, garbage, and other organic or flammable waste, in a clean and sanitary manner at reasonable and regular intervals, and assume all costs of extermination and fumigation for infestation caused by the tenant on the tenant's leased premises;

(3) Not intentionally or negligently destroy, deface, damage, impair, or remove any facilities, equipment, furniture, furnishings, fixtures or appliances provided by the landlord, or permit any member of his family, invitee, or licensee, or any person acting under his control to do so; and

(4) Not permit a nuisance or common waste.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) Any notice required by this chapter to be given to a tenant shall be served on behalf of the landlord: (a) By delivering a copy personally to the tenant; or (b) if the tenant is absent from the mobile home, by leaving a copy at the mobile home with some person of suitable age and discretion and by sending a copy through the mail addressed to the tenant's place of residence; or (c) if the tenant is absent from the mobile home and a person of suitable age and discretion cannot be found to leave a copy with, then by affixing a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the mobile home and also sending a copy through the mail addressed to the tenant at the tenant's last known address.

(2) Any notice required by this chapter to be given to the landlord shall be served by the tenant in the same manner as provided for in subsection (1) of this section, or by mail to the landlord at such place as shall be expressly provided in the rental agreement.

(3) The landlord shall state in any notice of eviction required by RCW 59.20.080(1) as now or hereafter amended the specific reason for eviction in a clear and concise manner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. If any moneys are paid to the landlord by the tenant as a deposit or as security for performance of the tenant's obligations in a rental agreement, such rental agreement shall include the terms and conditions under which the deposit or portion thereof may be withheld by the landlord upon termination of the rental agreement. If all or part of the deposit may be withheld to indemnify the landlord for damages to the mobile home lot for which the tenant is responsible, the rental agreement shall so specify.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. All moneys paid to the landlord by the tenant as a deposit as security for performance of the tenant's obligations in a rental agreement shall promptly be deposited by the landlord in a trust account, maintained by the landlord for the purpose of holding such security deposits for tenants of the landlord, in a bank, savings and loan association, mutual savings bank, or licensed escrow agent located in Washington. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the landlord shall be entitled to receipt of interest paid on such trust account deposits. The landlord shall provide the tenant with a written receipt for the deposit and shall provide written notice of the name and address and location of the depository and any subsequent change thereof. If during a tenancy the status of landlord is transferred to another, any sums in the deposit trust account affected by such transfer shall simultaneously be transferred to an equivalent trust account of the successor landlord, and the successor landlord shall promptly notify the tenant of the transfer and of the name, address and location of the new depository. The tenant's claim to any moneys paid under this section shall be prior to that of any creditor of the landlord, including a trustee in bankruptcy or receiver, even if such moneys are commingled.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Within fourteen days after the termination of the rental agreement and vacation of the mobile home lot, the landlord shall give a full and specific statement of the basis for retaining any of the deposit together with the payment of any refund due the tenant under the terms and conditions of the rental agreement. No portion of any deposit shall be withheld on account of wear resulting from ordinary use of the mobile home lot.

The statement shall be delivered to the tenant personally or by mail to the last known address. If the landlord fails to give such statement together with any refund due the tenant within the time limits specified above such landlord shall be liable to the tenant for the full amount of the refund due. In any action brought by the tenant to recover the deposit, the prevailing party shall be entitled to the cost of suit or arbitration including a reasonable attorney's fee.

Nothing in this chapter shall preclude the landlord from proceeding against, and the landlord shall have the right to proceed against a tenant to recover sums exceeding the amount of the tenant's damage or security deposit for damage to the property for which the tenant is responsible together with reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit.

Sec. 14. Section 2, chapter 190, Laws of 1915 as amended by section 1, chapter 138, Laws of 1955 and RCW 19.48.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Every hotel and trailer camp shall keep a record of the arrival and departure of its guests in such a manner that the record will be a permanent one for at least one year from the date of departure: PROVIDED, That this requirement shall not apply with respect to guests of tenants in mobile home parks, as defined in RCW 59.20.030.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Sections 8 through 12 of this 1979 act are each added to chapter 59.20 RCW.

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. This chapter may be known and cited as the floating home landlord-tenant act.

*Sec. 16 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Every duty under this chapter and every act which must be performed as a condition precedent to the exercise of a right or remedy under this chapter imposes an obligation of good faith in its performance or enforcement.

*Sec. 17 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. For the purposes of this chapter:

(1) "Landlord" means the owner of a floating home moorage business and includes the agents of a landlord;

(2) "Floating home site" means a portion of a floating home moorage located over water designated or otherwise made available and intended by the owner as the moorage location of a floating structure, and its accessory buildings, constructed on a float or nonnavigable barge, the primary use of which is intended for the nontransient human habitation use of the occupants of the floating home. A navigable waterborne boat, ship, or vessel, regardless of size or propellant power, is not a floating home within the meaning and definition of floating home or accessory building(s) set forth in this chapter;

(3) "Floating home moorage" means any waterfront or wetland facility for the mooring, anchoring, or other securing of one or more floating homes, and the land and water premises on which the moorage is located, any portion of which is rented or held out for rent to others for the placement of one or more floating homes for the primary purpose of production of rental or moorage fee income to the lessor.

The definition of floating home moorage does not apply to those portions of real properties, waterfront, or wetland facilities used by a landlord for the placement of floating homes for the purpose of service, repair, storage without human habitation, use, or for day-to-day transient human habitation use for periods not to exceed thirty days of continuous duration where the transient day-to-day habitation is related to the purpose of service, repair, storage without human habitation use, or transient use;

(4) "Tenant" means any person, except a transient, who rents a floating home site;

(5) "Transient" means any person who rents a floating home site for a period of less than one month.

*Sec. 18 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. This chapter regulates and determines legal rights, remedies, and obligations arising from any rental agreement between a landlord and a tenant regarding a floating home site. All such rental agreements shall be unenforceable to the extent of any conflict with any provision of this chapter. Chapter 59.12 RCW is applicable only in implementation of this chapter and not as an alternative remedy to this chapter, which shall be exclusive where applicable: PROVIDED, That RCW 59.12.090, 59.12.100, and 59.12.170 do not apply to any rental agreement included under this chapter. RCW 59.18.370 through 59.18.410 are applicable to any action of forcible entry or detainer or unlawful detainer arising from a tenancy under this chapter; and RCW 90.58.050 applies to floating home moorages and sites. Rentals of floating homes themselves are governed by the Residential Landlord-tenant Act, chapter 59.18 RCW.

*Sec. 19 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. (1) On and after September 30, 1979, no landlord may offer a floating home site for rent or moorage fee without offering to the prospective tenant a written rental agreement for a term of not less than one year. A prospective tenant who desires to occupy a floating home site for less than a term of one year or more may have the option to be on a month-to-month oral or written lease basis but must waive, in writing, the right to such one year or more term. Except pursuant to such waiver, no landlord shall allow a floating home to be moved into a floating home moorage in this state until a written rental or moorage fee agreement has been signed by the landlord and the tenant and a copy provided the tenant: PROVIDED, That if the landlord allows the tenant to move his or her floating home into a floating home moorage and a written rental or mortgage fee agreement has not been executed by the parties or the rental agreement or moorage agreement is silent as to the length of the term and no written waiver of the one-year term requirement has been executed, the term will be presumed to be for one year from the date of occupancy of the moorage site.

(2) The requirements of subsection (1) of this section do not apply if:

(a) The respective floating home moorage or respective part thereof has been acquired or is under imminent threat of condemnation for a public works project;

(b) An employer-employee relationship exists between the landlord and tenant; or

(c) The landlord is a lessee or devisee for term of the floating home moorage and, at the time of the offer to rent or for moorage fee to the prospective tenant, the landlord's tenancy or devise will expire in less than the otherwise one-year term, and there exists no option to extend or renew, in which event the offer to rent to the prospective tenant may be on a written month-to-month tenancy conditioned on the tenant being offered a new written rental agreement by the landlord for a term as provided in subsection (1) of this section if the landlord during any such monthly tenancy acquires or is devised a fee or leasehold interest in the floating home moorage, whereby from the date of the acquisition or devise the landlord's fee or leasehold interest would enable a rental or moorage for a term of not less than one year.

(3) This section applies to any floating home site tenancy in existence prior to September 30, 1979, upon expiration of the term of any oral or written rental agreement governing the tenancy.

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. (1) Any rental agreement executed between the landlord and tenant shall contain:

(a) The terms for the payment of rent, including time, place, and person within the county of the floating home moorage to whom the rent or moorage fee shall be delivered, and any additional charges to be paid by the tenant. Additional charges that occur less frequently than monthly shall be itemized when billed to the tenant;

(b) Reasonable rules for applicable land or water guest parking or guest moorage, which shall be clearly stated;

(c) The rules and regulations of the floating home moorage;

(d) The name and address of the person who is the landlord. If the person does not reside in the county where the floating home moorage is located, there shall also be designated by name and address a person who resides in the county where the floating home moorage is located who is authorized to act as agent for the purposes of service of notice and process. If no designation is so made of a person to act as agent, then the person who is named by the landlord to whom rental payments are to be made or delivered within the county of the moorage shall be considered the agent; and

(e) The terms and conditions under which any deposit or portion thereof may be withheld by the landlord upon termination of the rental agreement if any moneys are paid to the landlord by the tenant as a deposit or as security for performance of the tenant's obligations in the rental agreement.

(2) Any rental agreement executed between the landlord and tenant shall not contain:

(a) Any provision which allows the landlord to charge a fee for guest parking or guest boat moorage unless a violation of the rules for guest parking or boat moorage occurs: PROVIDED, That a fee may be charged for guest parking or boat moorage which covers an extended period of time of twelve hours or more as defined in the rental agreement;

(b) Any provision which authorizes the towing or impounding of a vehicle or boat except upon notice to the owner thereof or the tenant whose guest is the owner or user of the vehicle or boat. "Vehicle" includes an automobile, truck, tractor, whether of the wheel or crawler type, and aircraft;

(c) Any provision which allows the landlord to increase the rent or alter the due date for rent payment during the term of the rental agreement: PROVIDED, That a rental agreement may include an escalation clause for a pro rata share of any increase in the floating home moorage's real property taxes or utility assessments or charges, over the base taxes or utility assessments or charges of the year in which the rental agreement took effect, if the clause also provides for a pro rata reduction in rent or other charges in the event of a reduction in real property taxes or utility assessments or charges, below the base year;

(d) Any provision by which the tenant agrees to waive or forego rights or remedies under this chapter; or

(e) Any provision allowing the landlord to charge an "entrance fee" or an "exit fee."

Sec. 21 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.*

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. A landlord shall not:

(1) Deny any tenant the right to sell the tenant's floating home within a moorage or require the removal of the floating home from the moorage solely because of the sale thereof: PROVIDED, That:

(a) A rental agreement for a fixed term shall be assignable by the tenant to any person to whom the tenant sells or transfers title to the floating home, subject to the approval of the landlord after fifteen days' written notice to the landlord of such intended assignment and the landlord's right to require guarantee of the tenant for the balance of rentals or moorage fees to the end of the assigned term;

(b) The assignee of the rental agreement shall assume all the duties and obligations of the assignor for the remainder of the term of the rental agreement unless, by mutual agreement, a new rental agreement is entered into with the landlord; and

(c) The landlord shall approve or disapprove of the assignment of a rental agreement on the same basis that the landlord approves or disapproves of any new tenant; or

(2) Restrict the tenant's freedom of choice in purchasing goods or services but may reserve the right to approve or disapprove any exterior structural improvements to the floating home or to the floating home moorage site: PROVIDED, That door-to-door solicitation in the floating home moorage may be restricted in the rental agreement.

Sec. 22 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.*

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. Tenancy during the term of a rental agreement may be terminated by the landlord only for one or more the of following reasons:

(1) Substantial or repeated violation of the rules of the floating home moorage as established by the landlord at the inception of the tenancy or as assumed subsequently with the consent of the tenant. The tenant shall be given written notice of a fifteen-day period in which to comply or vacate. In the case of periodic rather than continuous violation, the notice shall specify that the same violation repeated shall result in termination,

(2) Nonpayment of rent or other charges specified in the rental agreement, upon five days written notice to pay rent and/or other charges or to vacate;

(3) Conviction of the tenant of a crime, commission of which has threatened or interfered with the health, safety, or welfare of the other floating home moorage tenants. The tenant shall be given written notice of a fifteen-day period following conviction, whether appealed, in which to vacate;

(4) Failure of the tenant, after receiving written notice of objection from the landlord, to abate a nuisance for which tenant or tenant's household members or guests are responsible in or about tenant's moorage site, causing substantial damage to the moorage property, or substantially interfering with the quiet and peaceful possession, safety, and enjoyment of other tenants and their properties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. (1) Unless otherwise agreed, rental agreements shall be for a term of not less than one year. Any rental agreement for a term of one year and any rental agreement renewed for a six-month term shall be automatically renewed for one additional six-month term unless:*

(a) Otherwise specified in the original written rental agreement; or

(b) The landlord notifies the tenant in writing three months prior to the expiration of the rental agreement or of any rental agreement renewed for a six-month term that it will not be renewed or will be renewed only with the changes contained in the notice.

A tenant shall notify the landlord in writing one month prior to the expiration of a rental agreement of an intention not to renew.

(2) Except as in this chapter provided for payment of rent or moorage fee, the tenant may otherwise terminate the rental agreement upon thirty days written notice whenever a change in the location, of not less than twenty miles ground distance each way from the leased site, of the tenant's employment requires a change in the tenant's residence, and shall not be liable for rental following the termination unless after due diligence and reasonable effort the landlord is not able to rent the floating home site at a fair rental or moorage fee. Unless otherwise defined in the rental agreement, fair rental or moorage fee as used in this subsection may not be less than eighty percent nor more than one hundred percent of the rental or moorage fee specified in the terminated agreement. If the landlord is not able to so rent the site, the tenant shall remain liable for the rental specified in the rental agreement until the site is rented or the original term or renewal thereof ends.

(3) Any tenant who is a member of the armed forces may terminate a rental agreement and payment of rent from date of vacating the site with less than thirty days notice if the tenant receives change of duty station orders which do not allow greater notice.

*Sec. 24 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. Structural or affixed moorage improvements, purchased and installed by a tenant on a floating home site, shall remain the property of the landlord and may not be removed or disposed of by the tenant prior to or at termination of the tenancy unless otherwise agreed to by the landlord: PROVIDED, That a tenant shall leave the floating home site in substantially the same or better condition than upon taking possession.

*Sec. 25 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. In any action arising out of this chapter, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

*Sec. 26 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. Venue for any action arising under this chapter shall be in the district or superior court of the county in which the floating home site is located.

*Sec. 27 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. The provisions of this chapter shall not be construed so as to preempt any local ordinance which is not inconsistent with this chapter.

*Sec. 28 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. Sections 14 through 26 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 59 RCW.

*Sec. 29 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Passed the House April 27, 1979.

Passed the Senate April 16, 1979.

Approved by the Governor May 15, 1979 with the exception of Sections 16-29 which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State May 15, 1979.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to several sections Substitute House Bill No. 1308 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to landlords and tenants;"

I am in support of Sections 1-15 of this act that consist of revisions and additions to the mobile home landlord-tenant act.

Sections 16-29 of Substitute House Bill No. 1308 would establish a floating home landlord-tenant act and is modeled after the 1977 mobile home act. Nearly all of the floating homes covered by the act are in Seattle. There, the demand for moorage sites and the difficulties in obtaining new sites have created a situation that Seattle brought under control by ordinance in 1977. Two major objectives of that ordinance are to protect tenants from exorbitant rent increases and arbitrary evictions. The floating home act portion of Substitute House Bill No. 1308 would preempt certain portions of the Seattle ordinance and would remove the controls on evictions. As a result, tenants with no alternative sites for their homes could be evicted at the termination or conclusion of a rental agreement; this is specifically contrary to the intent of the Seattle ordinance and inappropriate in an act whose purpose is to refine and clarify the rights of both landlords and tenants of mobile homes. Consequently, I think a decision to decontrol this uniquely local situation is an inappropriate action for the state to take. It may be that some redress for the landlord is in order, but if changes need to be made in the Seattle ordinance, they should be undertaken by the City of Seattle.

For the foregoing reasons, I have chosen to veto Sections 16-29 of Substitute House Bill No. 1308. The remainder of the bill is approved."

Sec. 2. Section 35.82.030, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.82.030 are each amended to read as follows:

In each city (as herein defined) and in each county of the state there is hereby created a public body corporate and politic to be known as the "Housing Authority" of the city or county: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That such authority shall not transact any business or exercise its powers hereunder until or unless the governing body of the city or the county, as the case may be, by proper resolution shall declare at any time hereafter that there is need for an authority to function in such city or county. The determination as to whether or not there is such need for an authority to function (1) may be made by the governing body on its own motion or (2) shall be made by the governing body upon the filing of a petition signed by twenty-five residents of the city or county, as the case may be, asserting that there is need for an authority to function in such city or county and requesting that the governing body so declare.

The governing body shall adopt a resolution declaring that there is need for a housing authority in the city or county, as the case may be, if it shall find (1) that insanitary or unsafe inhabited dwelling accommodations exist in such city or county ((or)); (2) that there is a shortage of safe or sanitary dwelling accommodations in such city or county available to persons of low income at rentals they can afford; or (3) that there is a shortage of safe or sanitary dwellings, apartments, mobile home parks, or other living accommodations available for senior citizens. In determining whether dwelling accommodations are unsafe or insanitary said governing body may take into consideration the degree of overcrowding, the percentage of land coverage, the light, air, space and access available to the inhabitants of such dwelling accommodations, the size and arrangement of the rooms, the sanitary facilities, and the extent to which conditions exist in such buildings which endanger life or property by fire or other causes.

In any suit, action or proceeding involving the validity or enforcement of or relating to any contract of the authority, the authority shall be conclusively deemed to have become established and authorized to transact business and exercise its powers hereunder upon proof of the adoption of a resolution by the governing body declaring the need for the authority. Such resolution or resolutions shall be deemed sufficient if it declares that there is such need for an authority and finds in substantially the foregoing terms (no further detail being necessary) that either or both of the above enumerated conditions exist in the city or county, as the case may be. A copy of such resolution duly certified by the clerk shall be admissible in evidence in any suit, action or proceeding.

Sec. 3. Section 35.82.090, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 4, chapter 274, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 35.82.090 are each amended to read as follows:

In the operation and management of rental units which are rented to persons of low income and/or senior citizens in any housing project an authority shall at all times observe the following duties with respect to rentals and tenant selection: (1) it may rent or lease the dwelling accommodations therein to senior citizens or persons of low income and at rentals within the financial reach of such senior citizens or persons of low income; (2) it may rent or lease to a tenant dwelling accommodations consisting of the number of rooms (but no greater number) which it deems necessary to provide safe and sanitary accommodations to the proposed occupants thereof, without overcrowding; and (3) it shall not accept any person as a low income tenant in any housing project designated for persons of low income if the person or persons who would occupy the dwelling accommodations have an annual net income in excess of five times the annual rental of the quarters to be furnished such person or persons, except that in the case of families with three or more minor dependents, such ratio shall not exceed six to one; in computing the rental for this purpose of selecting tenants, there shall be included in the rental the average annual cost (as determined by the authority) to occupants of heat, water, electricity, gas, cooking range and other necessary services or facilities, whether or not the charge for such services and facilities is in fact included in the rental. This income limitation does not apply to housing projects designated for senior citizens.

Nothing contained in this section or RCW 35.82.080 shall be construed as limiting the power of an authority to vest in an obligee the right, in the event of a default by the authority, to take possession of a housing project or cause the appointment of a receiver thereof, free from all the restrictions imposed by this section or RCW 35.82.080.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Passed the Senate May 8, 1979.

Passed the House May 7, 1979.

Approved by the Governor May 17, 1979.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State May 17, 1979.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. This chapter may be cited as the Educational Services Registration Act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. It is the intent of the legislature that a system be established to encourage the fair practice of educational institutions operating in the state of Washington. (1) Requires certain educational institutions to register, submit a statement of organization and file a surety bond on an annual basis.

(2) Requires from registering institutions a statement of compliance with minimum standards concerning the quality of educational services and related activities to protect against substandard, transient, or deceptive educational institutions and practices.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The commission for vocational education with respect to private vocational schools, the council for postsecondary education with respect to degree granting institutions, shall:

(1) Establish more detailed criteria to implement the standards set forth in section 6 of this act;

The institution shall also provide such other material facts concerning the institution and the program as are reasonably likely to affect the decision of the student to enroll in the institution, together with any other disclosures specified by the agency and defined in the agency rules;

(5) Upon satisfactory completion of education or training, the student shall be given appropriate educational credentials by the institution indicating that the course or courses of instruction or study have been satisfactorily completed by the student;

(6) Adequate records shall be maintained by the institution to document student performance and progress;

(9) Consistent with guidelines adopted by the agency, the institution shall establish a fair and equitable cancellation and refund policy that includes provisions for a cooling-off period, and shall not make unilateral changes in scheduled times for course instruction unless provision is made for an equitable refund of tuition and fees; and

(10) The institution shall not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, sex, handicap, or national origin as prohibited by state or federal law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Every educational institution must designate an individual as a "chief administrative officer". It will be the responsibility of the chief administrative officer to insure that the institution complies with the registration and other requirements of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) All educational institutions must initially register with the agency no later than one month prior to the date on which it first offers educational credentials, instruction or services, whichever is sooner: PROVIDED, That institutions which are offering such services at the time of the effective date of this act or which commence such activity within forty-five days after such effective date, shall file their initial registration no later than thirty days after such effective date.

(2) Subsequent to its initial registration an educational institution shall renew its registration annually.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. At the time of its initial registration each educational institution shall pay the agency an initial registration fee of two hundred dollars. At each annual renewal of registration each such institution shall pay a renewal fee of one hundred dollars to the agency. All fees collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the state general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. At the time an educational institution initially registers it shall file with the agency a statement of organization, in a form determined by the agency, which shall include the following information:

(1) Name and address of the institution and a statement of whether it is a "degree-granting institution", "private vocational school" or "dual purpose institution".

(2) Name and address of the owners of the institution, if the institution is incorporated then the names and addresses of the directors and of any shareholders holding more than a ten percent interest shall be listed.

(3) Name and address of the chief administrative officer of the institution and all agents of the institution as defined in section 3 (6) and (7), respectively, of this act.

(4) A copy of each of the materials that the institution is required to supply prospective students prior to enrollment in accordance with section 6(4) of this act.

(5) Any other information which the agency determines to be necessary for adequate public disclosure of the institution.

(6) A signed written statement from the chief administrative officer of the institution attesting to the truth and accuracy of the information provided in the statement of organization and any amendments thereto and pledging that the institution will comply with all of the requirements of this chapter and any rules adopted pursuant to section 5 (1) and (3) of this act.

At the time of each annual renewal the institution shall file an amended statement of organization indicating any changes from the information previously submitted. Additionally, the institution must file an amended statement within thirty days of any change of circumstances which would require amendment of the information provided in subsections (1), (2) or (3) of this section.

All amended statements must be filed with the agency and include a statement as required in subsection (6) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) At the time of its registration each educational institution shall file a surety bond with the agency in a form acceptable to the agency. The bond may be continuous or renewable at the time of annual renewal of registration: PROVIDED, That the bond shall cover the full period during which an institution is registered unless the surety has been released as provided in subsection (4) of this section.

In the event that any final judgment shall impair the liability of the surety upon the bond so furnished that there shall not be in effect a bond undertaking in the full amount prescribed in this section, the agency shall suspend the registration of the institution until the bond liability in the required amount unimpaired by unsatisfied judgment claims shall have been furnished.

(2) The amount of the bond shall be determined by the agency. In fixing the amount the agency shall adopt rules setting bond amounts on a sliding scale based upon the size of the institution, and the maximum amount of the bond required may not exceed seventy-five thousand dollars.

The bond shall be executed by the registering institution as principal and by a surety company authorized to do business in this state as surety. The bond shall run to the state of Washington, for the benefit and protection of any student or enrollee, or, in the case of a minor, his or her parents or guardian, determined to have suffered loss or damage as a result of an act or practice by such institution which is a violation of this chapter or rules adopted under this chapter alleged to have occurred while the bond was in effect or as a result of the institution's failure to meet its obligations to a student or enrollee during the term for which tuition has been paid.

(3) In lieu of the surety bond provided for herein, the institution may furnish, file and deposit with the agency, cash or other negotiable security acceptable to the executive officer of the agency. If the institution has filed a cash deposit, the agency shall deposit such funds in a special trust savings account in a commercial bank, mutual savings bank, or savings and loan association and shall pay annually to the depositor the interest derived from such account. The security deposited with the agency in lieu of the surety bond shall be returned to the institution at the expiration of one year after the institution's registration has expired or been revoked if no legal action has been instituted against the institution or on said security deposit at the expiration of said one year.

Any person having an unsatisfied final judgment against the registrant based on any claims arising under this section may execute upon the security held by the agency by serving a certified copy of the unsatisfied final judgment together with any findings and conclusions by registered or certified mail upon the agency within one year of the date of entry of such judgment. Upon the receipt of service of such certified copy the agency shall pay or order paid from the deposit, through the registry of the superior court which rendered judgment, towards the amount of the unsatisfied judgment. The priority of payment by the agency shall be the order of receipt by the agency of the unsatisfied judgment and claim against the deposit, but the agency shall have no liability for payment in excess of the amount of the deposit.

(4) A surety on a bond may be released by serving written notice thereof to the agency at least thirty-five days prior to the release, but the release shall not discharge or otherwise affect any claim theretofore or thereafter filed by a student or enrollee, or, in the case of a minor, his or her parents or guardian, for loss or damage resulting from any act or practice which is a violation of this chapter or rules adopted under this chapter alleged to have occurred while the bond was in effect, or resulting from the institution's failure to meet its obligations to a student or enrollee during the term for which tuition has been paid.

The agency shall give the institution at least thirty days written notice prior to the release of the surety to the effect that registration will be suspended by operation of law until a sufficient surety bond is filed in the same manner and amount as the bond being terminated.

(5) In addition to all other legal remedies, an action may be brought upon the bond or cash deposit or security in lieu thereof by any beneficiary covered thereunder, in the superior court of Thurston county or the county in which the educational services were offered by the institution: PROVIDED, That the aggregate liability of the surety to all such persons shall in no event exceed the sum of such bond.

An action upon such bond or security shall be commenced by serving and filing of the complaint within one year from the date of the cancellation of the bond or, in the case of a cash deposit or other security deposited in lieu of the surety bond, within one year of the date of expiration or revocation of registration: PROVIDED, That no action shall be maintained upon such bond or such cash deposit or other security for any claim which has been barred by any nonclaim statute or statute of limitations of this state. Two copies of the complaint shall be served by registered or certified mail upon the executive officer of the agency at the time the suit is started. Such service shall constitute service on the surety. The executive officer of the agency shall transmit one of said copies of the complaint served on him to the surety within forty-eight hours after it shall have been received.

The executive officer of the agency shall maintain a record, available for public inspection, of all suits commenced under this chapter upon surety bonds, or the cash or other security deposited in lieu thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. No educational institution nor any of its agents shall instruct or offer to instruct, including advertising or soliciting for such purpose, enroll or offer to enroll, contract or offer to contract with any person for such purpose, or offer or grant any educational credential, or contract with any school to perform any such act in this state whether such institution is located within or without this state unless such institution is registered and in compliance with the requirements set forth in sections 8, 9, 10 and 11 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The agency, after hearing, by order approved and ratified by a majority of the membership of the agency, may suspend or modify any of the registration or other requirements contained in this chapter in a particular case if it finds that literal application of this chapter works a manifestly unreasonable hardship and if it also finds that such suspension or modification will not frustrate the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) A person claiming damage or loss as a result of any act or practice by an educational institution, its agent, or any person which is a violation of this chapter or of the rules adopted under this chapter, may file a complaint with the agency. The complaint shall set forth the alleged violation and shall contain such other information as may be required by the agency. A complaint may also be filed with the agency by the executive officer of the agency or by the attorney general.

(2) The agency shall investigate any complaint and may attempt to bring about a settlement by persuasion and conciliation. The agency may hold a contested case hearing pursuant to the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, in order to determine whether a violation has occurred.

(3) If, upon all the evidence at the hearing, the agency finds that the educational institution, its agent, or any person has engaged in or is engaging in any act or practice which violates this chapter or rules adopted under this chapter, the agency shall issue and cause to be served upon the violator an order requiring it to cease and desist from the act or practice and may impose the penalties provided for in section 15 of this act. If the agency finds that the complainant has suffered loss or damage as a result of the act or practice, it may order full or partial restitution for the damage or loss: PROVIDED, That the complainant is not bound by the agency's determination of restitution and may pursue any other legal remedy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Any person, group, or entity or any owner, officer, agent, or employee of such entity who violates any provision of this chapter shall be subject to a civil penalty of not more than two thousand dollars for each separate violation. Each day on which a violation occurs constitutes a separate violation. Multiple violations on a single day may be considered separate violations. The fine may be imposed by the agency in accordance with the procedures set forth in section 14 of this act, or in any court of competent jurisdiction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Any person, group, or entity or any owner, officer, agent, or employee of such entity who wilfully violates section 8, 9, 10, 11 or 12 of this act shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be punished by a fine of not to exceed one thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for not to exceed one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Each day on which a violation occurs constitutes a separate violation. The criminal sanctions may be imposed by a court of competent jurisdiction in an action brought by the attorney general of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Any educational institution, whether or not situated in or having a place of business in this state, whose personnel or agent instructs or educates or offers to instruct or educate, enrolls or offers to enroll, or contracts or offers to contract to provide instructional or educational services in this state, whether the instruction or services are provided in person or by correspondence to a resident of this state, or whose personnel or agent awards or offers to award any educational credentials to a resident of this state, submits to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state, and submits any such personnel or agent thereto, for the purpose of any cause of action arising from such acts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. The records and accounts pertaining to each period of enrollment of each student shall be kept intact and in good condition by the educational institution for at least three years following the termination of such enrollment period.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. If any educational institution proposes to discontinue its operation, the chief administrative officer of the institution shall file with the agency the original or legible true copies of all such educational records of the institution as may be specified by the agency. The records shall include, but not be limited to, such information as is customarily required by colleges when considering students for transfer or advance study and, as a separate document, the academic record of each former student. In the event it appears to the agency that any such records of an educational institution discontinuing its operations are in danger of being destroyed, secreted, mislaid, or otherwise made unavailable to the agency, the agency may seek a court order to protect and if necessary take possession of the records. The agency shall maintain or cause to be maintained a permanent file of educational records coming into its possession.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. If the person to whom educational services are to be rendered or furnished by an educational institution is a resident of this state at the time any contract relating to payment for such services or any note, instrument, or other evidence of indebtedness relating thereto is entered into, the provisions of section 21 of this act shall govern the rights of the parties to the contract or evidence of indebtedness. In such event, a contract or evidence of indebtedness containing any of the following agreements shall render the contract voidable at the option of the person to whom educational services are to be rendered or furnished:

- (1) That the law of another state shall apply;
- (2) That the maker or any person liable on the contract or evidence of indebtedness consents to the jurisdiction of another state;
- (3) That another person is authorized to confess judgment on the contract or evidence of indebtedness; or
- (4) That fixes venue.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. No note, instrument, or other evidence of indebtedness or contract relating to payment for education or educational services shall be enforceable in the courts of this state by an educational institution or holder of the instrument unless the institution was registered in compliance with the requirements of sections 8, 9, 10 and 11 of this act at the time the note, instrument or other evidence of indebtedness or contract was entered into.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. (1) The attorney general of this state or the prosecuting attorney of any county in which an educational institution or an agent thereof is found may, at the request of the agency or on their own motion, bring any appropriate action or proceeding, including injunctive proceedings under subsection (2) of this section or criminal proceedings under section 16 of this act, in any court of competent jurisdiction for the enforcement of this chapter and the rules adopted under this chapter.

(2) Whenever it appears to the agency that a person, agent, group, or entity is violating, or has been violating this chapter or the rules or orders of the agency, the agency may, on its own motion or on the written complaint of any person and after giving notice to the person, group, or entity affected, file a petition for injunction in the name of the agency in a court of competent jurisdiction in this state against such person, group, or entity for the purpose of enjoining the violation or for an order directing compliance with this chapter and the rules or orders issued under this chapter. It is not necessary that the agency allege or prove that the agency has no adequate remedy at law. The right of injunction provided in this section is in addition to any other legal remedy which the agency has and is in addition to any right of criminal prosecution provided by law. The existence of agency action with respect to alleged violations of this chapter and rules adopted under this chapter does not operate as a bar to an action for injunctive relief under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. A violation of a provision of this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter, shall be considered a violation of RCW 19.86.020, as now or hereafter amended, of the consumer protection act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. The remedies and penalties provided for in this chapter are nonexclusive and cumulative and do not affect any other actions or proceedings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. (1) All reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, papers, or other writings in the possession of the department of licensing pertaining to the regulation of proprietary schools shall be delivered to the custody of the commission for vocational education. All cabinets, furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property employed in the regulation of proprietary schools shall be made available to the commission. All funds, credits, or other assets held in connection with this function shall be assigned to the commission.

(2) Any appropriations made to the department of licensing for the purpose of regulating proprietary schools shall, on the effective date of this act, be transferred and credited to the commission for the purpose of carrying out this act.

(3) Whenever any question arises as to the transfer of any funds, including unexpended balances within any accounts, books, documents, records, papers, files, equipment, or any other tangible property used or held by the department of licensing in regulating proprietary schools, the director of financial management shall make a determination as to the proper allocation and certify the same to the state departments and agencies concerned.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. Sections 1 through 24 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 28B RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. This act shall be effective January 1, 1980.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 47.12 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Whenever the department of transportation determines that any real property owned by the state of Washington and under the jurisdiction of the department is no longer required for highway purposes and that it is in the public interest to do so, the department may, in its discretion, sell the property under RCW 47.12.063 or under subsections (2) through (6) of this section.

(2) Whenever the department determines to sell real property under its jurisdiction at public auction, the department shall first give notice thereof by publication on the same day of the week for two consecutive weeks, with the first publication at least two weeks prior to the date of the auction, in a legal newspaper of general circulation in the area where the property to be sold is located. The notice shall be placed in both the legal notices section and the real estate classified section of the newspaper. The notice shall contain a description of the property, the time and place of the auction, and the terms of the sale. The sale may be for cash or by real estate contract.

(3) The department shall sell the property at the public auction, in accordance with the terms set forth in the notice, to the highest and best bidder providing the bid is equal to or higher than the appraised fair market value of the property.

(4) If no bids are received at the auction or if all bids are rejected, the department may, in its discretion, enter into negotiations for the sale of the property or may list the property with a licensed real estate broker. No property shall be sold by negotiations or through a broker for less than the property's appraised fair market value. Any offer to purchase real property pursuant to this subsection shall be in writing and may be rejected at any time prior to written acceptance by the department.

(5) Before the department shall approve any offer for the purchase of real property having an appraised value of more than ten thousand dollars, pursuant to subsection (4) of this section, the department shall first publish a notice of the proposed sale in a local newspaper of general circulation in the area where the property is located. The notice shall include a description of the property, the selling price, the terms of the sale, including the price and interest rate if sold by real estate contract, and the name and address of the department employee or the real estate broker handling the transaction. The notice shall further state that any person may, within ten days after the publication of the notice, deliver to the designated state employee or real estate broker a written offer to purchase the property for not less than ten percent more than the negotiated sale price, subject to the same terms and conditions. A subsequent offer shall not be considered unless it is accompanied by a deposit of twenty percent of the offer in the form of cash, money order, cashier's check, or certified check payable to the Washington state treasurer, to be forfeited to the state (for deposit in the motor vehicle fund) if the offeror fails to complete the sale if the offeror's offer is accepted. If a subsequent offer is received, the first offeror shall be informed by registered or certified mail sent to the address stated in his offer. The first offeror shall then have ten days, from the date of mailing the notice of the increased offer, in which to file with the designated state employee or real estate broker a higher offer than that of the subsequent offeror. After the expiration of the ten day period, the department shall approve in writing the highest and best offer which the department then has on file.

(6) All moneys received pursuant to this section, less any real estate broker's commissions paid pursuant to RCW 47.12.320, shall be deposited in the motor vehicle fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 47.12 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department of transportation is hereby authorized to enter into an exchange agreement with the owner of real property required for highway purposes to convey to such owner real property, owned by the state and under the department's jurisdiction, as full or part consideration for property to be acquired for highway purposes. Such an exchange agreement may relate back and apply to any exchange of property previously agreed to and partially executed (pursuant to an earlier exchange agreement found to be void for want of a governor's deed as required by prior law), and shall be subject to such agreed terms and conditions as are authorized by RCW 47.12.063(3) as now existing or hereafter amended. Any conveyance from the state of Washington made pursuant to this section shall be by deed executed by the secretary of transportation, which shall be duly acknowledged.

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 177, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 6, chapter 96, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 47.12.290 are each amended to read as follows:

When full payment for real property agreed to be sold as authorized by ~~((RCW 47.12.280))~~ section 1 of this 1979 act has been received, the ~~((director of highways))~~ secretary of transportation shall execute the deed which shall be duly acknowledged and deliver it to the grantee.

Sec. 4. Section 3, chapter 257, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 72, chapter 151, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 47.56.254 are each amended to read as follows:

If the secretary of transportation determines that any real property (including lands, improvements thereon, and any interests or estates) ~~((held by the department))~~ originally acquired for toll facility purposes is no longer required for purposes of the department, the department shall offer it for sale as authorized by RCW ~~((47.56.252 or 47.12.280))~~ 47.12.063 or section 1 of this 1979 act. The department may adopt rules further implementing this section.

Sec. 5. Section 6, chapter 257, Laws of 1961 and RCW 47.56.257 are each amended to read as follows:

Any moneys received pursuant to the provisions of RCW ~~((47.56.252))~~ 47.56.253 through 47.56.256 shall be deposited into the separate and proper trust fund with the state treasurer established for the respective toll facility.

Sec. 6. Section 47.60.130, chapter 13, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 5, chapter 177, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 47.60.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 50.12 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) If an employer fails to file in a timely and complete manner a report required by RCW 50.12.070 as now or hereafter amended or the rules adopted pursuant thereto, the employer shall be subject to a penalty of ten dollars per violation in addition to any other administrative, civil, or criminal sanctions which may apply.

(2) If contributions are not paid on the date on which they are due and payable as prescribed by the commissioner, there shall be assessed a penalty of four percent of the amount of the contributions for the first month or part thereof of delinquency; there shall be assessed a total penalty of nine percent of the amount of the contributions for the second month or part thereof of delinquency; and there shall be assessed a total penalty of nineteen percent of the amount of the contributions for the third month or part thereof of delinquency. No penalty so added shall be less than two dollars. These penalties are in addition to the interest charges assessed under RCW 50.24.040.

(3) Penalties shall not accrue on contributions from an estate in the hands of a receiver, executor, administrator, trustee in bankruptcy, common law assignee, or other liquidating officer subsequent to the date when such receiver, executor, administrator, trustee in bankruptcy, common law assignee, or other liquidating officer qualifies as such, but contributions accruing with respect to employment of persons by a receiver, executor, administrator, trustee in bankruptcy, common law assignee, or other liquidating officer shall become due and shall be subject to penalties in the same manner as contributions due from other employers.

(4) Where adequate information has been furnished to the department and the department has failed to act or has advised the employer of no liability or inability to decide the issue, penalties shall be waived by the commissioner. Penalties may also be waived for good cause if the commissioner determines that the failure to timely file reports or pay contributions was not due to the employer's fault.

(5) Any decision to assess a penalty as provided by this section shall be made by the chief administrative officer of the tax branch.

(6) Nothing in this section shall be construed to deny an employer the right to appeal the assessment of any penalty. Such appeal shall be made in the manner provided in RCW 50.32.030.

(7) This section is applicable to contributions due and payable on wages paid after December 31, 1979, and tax reports which are due for the quarter ending March 31, 1980, and subsequent quarters.

Sec. 2. Section 93, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 9, chapter 158, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 50.24.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The claim of the (~~(unemployment compensation division)~~) employment security department for any contributions, (~~(including)~~) interest (~~(thereon)~~), or penalties not paid when due, shall be a lien prior to all other liens or claims and on a parity with prior tax liens against all property and rights to property, whether real or personal, belonging to the employer. In order to avail itself of the lien hereby created, the (~~(unemployment compensation division)~~) department shall file with any county auditor a statement and claim of lien specifying the amount of delinquent contributions (~~(and)~~), interest, and penalties claimed by the (~~(division)~~) department. From the time of filing for record, the amount required to be paid shall constitute a lien upon all property and rights to property, whether real or personal, in the county, owned by the employer or acquired by him. The lien shall not be valid against any purchaser, holder of a security interest, mechanic's lien, or judgment lien creditor until notice thereof has been filed with the county auditor. This lien shall be separate and apart from, and in addition to, any other lien or claim created by, or provided for in, this title. When any such notice of lien has been so filed, the commissioner may release the same by filing a certificate of release when it shall appear that the amount of delinquent contributions (~~(together with all)~~), interest (~~(thereon)~~), and penalties have been paid, or when such assurance of payment shall be made as the commissioner may deem to be adequate. Any lien filed as provided in this section may also be filed in the office of the secretary of state. Filing in the office of the secretary of state shall be of no effect, however, until the lien or copy thereof shall have been filed with the county auditor in the county where the property is located. When a lien is filed in compliance herewith and with the secretary of state, such filing shall have the same effect as if the lien had been duly filed for record in the office of the auditor in each county of this state. Fees for filing and releasing the lien provided herein may be charged to the employer and may be collected from the employer utilizing the remedies provided in this title for the collection of contributions.

Sec. 3. Section 95, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and RCW 50.24.070 are each amended to read as follows:

At any time after the commissioner shall find that any contributions, (~~(or the)~~) interest (~~(thereon has)~~), or penalties have become delinquent, the commissioner may issue an order and notice of assessment specifying the amount due, which order and notice of assessment shall be served upon the delinquent employer in the manner prescribed for the service of a summons in a civil action, except that if the employer cannot be found within the state, said order and notice will be deemed to be served when mailed to the delinquent employer at his last known address by registered mail.

Sec. 4. Section 96, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and RCW 50.24.080 are each amended to read as follows:

If the commissioner shall have reason to believe that an employer is insolvent or if any reason exists why the collection of any contributions accrued will be jeopardized by delaying collection, he may make an immediate assessment thereof and may proceed to enforce collection immediately, but interest and penalties shall not begin to accrue upon any contributions until the date when such contributions would normally have become delinquent.

Sec. 5. Section 97, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and RCW 50.24.090 are each amended to read as follows:

If the amount of contributions ((or))₂ interest, or penalties assessed by the commissioner by order and notice of assessment provided in this title is not paid within ten days after the service or mailing of the order and notice of assessment, the commissioner or his duly authorized representative may collect the amount stated in said assessment by the distraint, seizure, and sale of the property, goods, chattels, and effects of said delinquent employer. There shall be exempt from distraint and sale under this section such goods and property as are exempt from execution under the laws of this state.

Sec. 6. Section 98, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 20, chapter 214, Laws of 1949 and RCW 50.24.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The commissioner, upon making a distraint, shall seize the property and shall make an inventory of the property distrained, a copy of which shall be mailed to the owner of such property or personally delivered to him, and shall specify the time and place when said property shall be sold. A notice specifying the property to be sold and the time and place of sale shall be posted in at least two public places in the county wherein the seizure has been made. The time of sale shall be not less than ten nor more than twenty days from the date of posting of such notices. Said sale may be adjourned from time to time at the discretion of the commissioner, but not for a time to exceed in all sixty days. Said sale shall be conducted by the commissioner or his authorized representative who shall proceed to sell such property by parcel or by lot at a public auction, and who may set a minimum price to include the expenses of making a levy and of advertising the sale, and if the amount bid for such property at the sale is not equal to the minimum price so fixed, the commissioner or his representative may declare such property to be purchased by the employment security department for such minimum price. In such event the delinquent account shall be credited with the amount for which the property has been sold. Property acquired by the employment security department as herein prescribed may be sold by the commissioner or his representative at public or private sale, and the amount realized shall be placed in the unemployment compensation trust fund.

In all cases of sale, as aforesaid, the commissioner shall issue a bill of sale or a deed to the purchaser and said bill of sale or deed shall be prima facie evidence of the right of the commissioner to make such sale and conclusive evidence of the regularity of his proceeding in making the sale, and shall transfer to the purchaser all right, title, and interest of the delinquent employer in said property. The proceeds of any such sale, except in those cases wherein the property has been acquired by the employment security department, shall be first applied by the commissioner in satisfaction of the delinquent account, and out of any sum received in excess of the amount of delinquent contributions (~~(and)~~), interest, and penalties the administration fund shall be reimbursed for the costs of distraint and sale. Any excess which shall thereafter remain in the hands of the commissioner shall be refunded to the delinquent employer. Sums so refundable to a delinquent employer may be subject to seizure or distraint in the hands of the commissioner by any other taxing authority of the state or its political subdivisions.

Sec. 7. Section 99, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 20, chapter 215, Laws of 1947 and RCW 50.24.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The commissioner is hereby authorized to issue to any person, firm, corporation, political subdivision or department of the state, a notice and order to withhold and deliver property of any kind whatsoever when he has reason to believe that there is in the possession of such person, firm, corporation, political subdivision or department, property which is due, owing, or belonging to any person, firm, or corporation upon whom a notice and order of assessment has been served by the employment security department of the state for unemployment compensation contributions (~~(or)~~), interest, or penalties.

The notice and order to withhold and deliver shall be served by the sheriff of the county wherein the service is made, or by his deputy, or by any duly authorized representative of the commissioner. Any person, firm, corporation, political subdivision or department upon whom service has been made is hereby required to answer the notice within twenty days exclusive of the day of service, under oath and in writing, and shall make true answers to the matters inquired of in the notice.

In the event there is in the possession of any such person, firm, corporation, political subdivision or department, any property which may be subject to the claim of the employment security department of the state, such property shall be delivered forthwith to the commissioner or his duly authorized representative upon demand to be held in trust by the commissioner for application on the indebtedness involved or for return, without interest, in accordance with final determination of liability or nonliability, or in the alternative, there shall be furnished a good and sufficient bond satisfactory to the commissioner conditioned upon final determination of liability.

Should any person, firm or corporation fail to make answer to an order to withhold and deliver within the time prescribed herein, it shall be lawful for the court, after the time to answer such order has expired, to render judgment by default against such person, firm or corporation for the full amount claimed by the commissioner in the notice to withhold and deliver, together with costs.

Sec. 8. Section 15, chapter 228, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 50.24.115 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any order and notice of assessment or jeopardy assessment shall have become final in accordance with the provisions of this title the commissioner may file with the clerk of any county within the state a warrant in the amount of the notice of assessment plus interest and a filing fee of five dollars. The clerk of the county wherein the warrant is filed shall immediately designate a superior court cause number for such warrant, and the clerk shall cause to be entered in the judgment docket under the superior court cause number assigned to the warrant, the name of the employer mentioned in the warrant, the amount of the tax, interest, penalties, and filing fee and the date when such warrant was filed. The aggregate amount of such warrant as docketed shall become a lien upon the title to, and interest in all real and personal property of the employer against whom the warrant is issued, the same as a judgment in a civil case duly docketed in the office of such clerk. Such warrant so docketed shall be sufficient to support the issuance of writs of execution and writs of garnishment in favor of the state in the manner provided by law in the case of civil judgment, wholly or partially unsatisfied. The clerk of the court shall be entitled to a filing fee of five dollars, which shall be added to the amount of the warrant, and charged by the commissioner to the employer or employing unit. A copy of the warrant shall be mailed to the employer or employing unit by certified mail to his last known address within five days of filing with the clerk.

Sec. 9. Section 100, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 5, chapter 266, Laws of 1959 and RCW 50.24.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If after due notice, any employer defaults in any payment of contributions ~~((or))~~, interest ~~((thereon))~~, or penalties, the amount due may be collected by civil action in the name of the state, and the employer adjudged in default shall pay the cost of such action. Any lien created by this title may be foreclosed by decree of the court in any such action. Civil actions brought under this title to collect contributions ~~((or))~~, interest ~~((thereon))~~, or penalties from an employer shall be heard by the court at the earliest possible date and shall be entitled to preference upon the calendar of the court over all other civil actions except petitions for judicial review under this title and cases arising under the industrial insurance laws of this state.

(2) Any employing unit which is not a resident of this state and which exercises the privilege of having one or more individuals perform service for it within this state, and any resident employing unit which exercises that privilege and thereafter removes from this state, shall be deemed thereby to appoint the secretary of state as its agent and attorney for the acceptance of process in any action under this title. In instituting such an action against any such employing unit the commissioner shall cause such process or notice to be filed with the secretary of state and such service shall be sufficient service upon such employing unit, and shall be of the same force and validity as if served upon it personally within this state: PROVIDED, That the commissioner shall forthwith send notice of the service of such process or notice, together with a copy thereof, by registered mail, return receipt requested, to such employing unit at its last known address and such return receipt, the commissioner's affidavit of compliance with the provisions of this section, and a copy of the notice of service shall be appended to the original of the process filed in the court in which such action is pending.

(3) The courts of this state shall in the manner provided in subsections (1) and (2) of this section entertain actions to collect contributions ~~((or))~~, interest ~~((thereon))~~, or penalties for which liability has accrued under the employment security law of any other state or of the federal government.

Sec. 10. Section 15, chapter 3, Laws of 1971 and RCW 50.24.125 are each amended to read as follows:

Delinquent payments in lieu of contributions due the unemployment compensation fund and ~~((the))~~ interest ~~((thereon))~~ and penalties may be recovered from any of the political subdivisions of this state or any instrumentality of a political subdivision of this state by civil action. The governor is authorized to deduct the amount of delinquent payments in lieu of contributions and interest ~~((thereon))~~ and penalties from any moneys payable by the state to said political subdivisions or instrumentalities and pay such moneys to the commissioner for deposit in the appropriate account.

Sec. 11. Section 101, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 10, chapter 158, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 50.24.130 are each amended to read as follows:

No employing unit which contracts with or has under it any contractor or subcontractor who is an employer under the provisions of this title shall make any payment or advance to, or secure any credit for, such contractor or subcontractor or on account of any contract or contracts to which said employing unit is a party unless such contractor or subcontractor has paid contributions, due or to become due for wages paid or to be paid by such contractor or subcontractor for personal services performed pursuant to such contract or subcontract, or has furnished a good and sufficient bond acceptable to the commissioner for payment of contributions, ~~((including))~~ interest, and penalties. Failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall render said employing unit directly liable for such contributions ~~((and))~~, interest, and penalties and the commissioner shall have all of the remedies of collection against said employing unit under the provisions of this title as though the services in question were performed directly for said employing unit.

Sec. 12. Section 102, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and RCW 50.24.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Remedies given to the state under this title for the collection of contributions ~~((and))~~, interest, or penalties shall be cumulative and no action taken by the commissioner or his duly authorized representative, the attorney general, or any other officer shall be construed to be an election on the part of the state or any of its officers to pursue any remedy to the exclusion of any other.

Sec. 13. Section 103, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 19, chapter 8, Laws of 1953 ex. sess. and RCW 50.24.150 are each amended to read as follows:

No later than three years after the date on which any contributions ~~((or))~~, interest, or penalties have been paid, an employer who has paid such contributions ~~((or))~~, interest, or penalties may file with the commissioner a petition in writing for an adjustment thereof in connection with subsequent contribution payments or for a refund thereof when such adjustment cannot be made. If the commissioner upon an ex parte consideration shall determine that such contributions ~~((or))~~, interest, penalties, or portion thereof ~~((;))~~ were erroneously collected, he shall allow such employer to make an adjustment thereof without interest in connection with subsequent contribution payments by him, or if such adjustment cannot be made, the commissioner shall refund said amount without interest from the unemployment compensation fund: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That after June 20, 1953, that refunds of interest on delinquent contributions or penalties shall be paid from the administrative contingency fund upon warrants issued by the treasurer under the direction of the commissioner. For like cause and within the same period, adjustment or refund may be made on the commissioner's own initiative. If the commissioner finds that upon ex parte consideration he cannot readily determine that such adjustment or refund should be allowed, he shall deny such application and notify the employer in writing.

Sec. 14. Section 106, chapter 35, Laws of 1945 and RCW 50.24.180 are each amended to read as follows:

Any employer who shall be delinquent in the payment of contributions ~~((or))~~, interest, or penalties may be enjoined upon the suit of the state of Washington from continuing in business in this state or employing persons herein until the delinquent contributions ~~((and))~~, interest, and penalties shall have been paid, or until the employer shall have furnished a good and sufficient bond in a sum equal to double the amount of contributions ~~((and))~~, interest, and penalties already delinquent, plus such further sum as the court shall deem adequate to protect the ~~((unemployment compensation division))~~ department in the collection of contributions ~~((and))~~, interest, and penalties which will become due from such employer during the next ensuing calendar year, said bond to be conditioned upon payment of all contributions ((~~and~~)), interest, and penalties due and owing within thirty days after the expiration of the next ensuing calendar year or at such earlier date as the court may fix.

Action pursuant to the provisions of this section may be instituted in the superior court of any county of the state wherein the employer resides, has its principal place of business, or where it has anyone performing services for it, whether or not such services constitute employment.

Sec. 15. Section 7, chapter 286, Laws of 1955 and RCW 50.24.190 are each amended to read as follows:

The commissioner shall commence action for the collection of contributions, interest, penalties, and benefit overpayments imposed by this title by assessment or suit within three years after a return is filed or notice of benefit overpayment is served. No proceedings for the collection of such amounts shall be begun after the expiration of such period.
