Any state party to this compact may accept federal aid for use in connection with an institution or program, the use of which is or may be affected by this compact or any contract pursuant thereto and any inmate in a receiving state pursuant to this compact may participate in any such federally aided program or activity for which the sending and receiving states have made contractual provision; provided that if such program or activity is not part of the customary correctional regimen the express consent of the appropriate official of the sending state shall be required therefor.

ARTICLE VII—Entry Into Force

This compact shall enter into force and become effective and binding upon the states so acting when it has been enacted into law by any two contiguous states from among the states of Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Hawaii, Idaho, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, Utah, Washington and Wyoming. For the purposes of this article, Alaska and Hawaii shall be deemed contiguous to each other; to any and all of the states of California, Oregon and Washington; and to Guam. Thereafter, this compact shall enter into force and become effective and binding as to any other of said states, or any other state contiguous to at least one party state upon similar action by such state. Guam may become party to this compact by taking action similar to that provided for joinder by any other eligible party state and upon the consent of Congress to such joinder. For the purposes of this article, Guam shall be deemed contiguous to Alaska, Hawaii, California, Oregon and Washington.

ARTICLE VIII—Withdrawal and Termination

This compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon a party state until it shall have enacted a statute repealing the same and providing for the sending of formal written notice of withdrawal from the compact to the appropriate officials of all other party states. An actual withdrawal shall not take effect until two years after the notices provided in said statute have been sent. Such withdrawal shall not relieve the withdrawing state from its obligations assumed hereunder prior to the effective date of withdrawal. Before the effective date of withdrawal, a withdrawing state shall remove to its territory, at its own expense, such inmates as it may have confined pursuant to the provisions of this compact.

ARTICLE IX—Other Arrangements Unaffected

Nothing contained in this compact shall be construed to abrogate or impair any agreement or other arrangement which a party state may have with a non-party state for the confinement, rehabilitation or treatment of inmates nor to repeal any other laws of a party state authorizing the making of cooperative institutional arrangements.

ARTICLE X—Construction and Severability

The provisions of this compact shall be liberally construed and shall be severable. If any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any participating state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

72.99.070 Short title. RCW 72.99.070 through 72.99.160 shall be known as the state building construction act. [1957 c 298 § 1.]

Severability—1957 c 298: "If any part of this act shall be held unconstitutional, such invalidity shall not affect any other part. It is hereby declared that had any section, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word as to which this act is declared invalid been eliminated from the act at the time the same was considered, the act would have nevertheless been enacted with such portions eliminated." [1957 c 298 § 11.] This applies to RCW 72.99.070 through 72.99.160.

72.99.080 Definitions. The following terms, whenever used or referred to in RCW 72.99.070 through 72.99.160, shall have the following meanings, excepting in those instances where the context clearly indicates otherwise:

(1) "Agency" shall mean any board, commission, committee, director, or other agency charged with the supervision and control of any department, institution, or agency of the state of Washington.

(2) "Fund" shall mean the special fund created by RCW 72.99.070 through 72.99.160 to be known as the state building construction bond retirement fund.

(3) "Bonds" shall mean the limited obligation bonds issued pursuant to RCW 72.99.070 through 72.99.160 and payable only out of the special fund created herein.

(4) "Project" shall mean the construction, completion, reconstruction, remodeling, rehabilitation, or improvement of any building or other facility and the acquisition of land therefor authorized by the legislature to be financed under the provisions of RCW 72.99.070 through 72.99.160. [1957 c 298 § 2.]

72.99.090 Contracts for construction authorized—Cost limited. The agencies in RCW 72.99.070 through 72.99.160 mentioned are each empowered to contract for the construction of the particular project herein authorized by the legislature to be constructed and financed as in RCW 72.99.070 through 72.99.160 provided. The cost of each of the projects herein authorized shall not exceed the amounts set forth in RCW 72.99.070 through 72.99.160. [1957 c 298 § 3.]

72.99.100 Limited obligation bonds—Form, term, sale, payment, legal investment, etc. For the purpose of providing means for paying the costs of the projects authorized by RCW 72.99.070 through 72.99.160, and to pay costs incident to the issuance and sale of bonds by RCW 72.99.070 through 72.99.160, the state finance committee is authorized to issue and sell limited obligation bonds of the state of Washington. The issuance, sale and retirement of said bonds shall be under the general supervision and control of the state finance committee. The state finance committee may, in its discretion, provide for the issuance of said bonds to be dated, issued and sold from time to time in such amounts as may be necessary to make the payments provided for by RCW 72.99.070 through 72.99.160. Said bonds:

(1) Shall be
(a) Either registered or in coupon form; and
(b) Issued in denominations of not less than one hundred dollars;

(2) Shall state
(a) The date of issue; and
(b) The series of the issue and be consecutively numbered within the series; and

(c) That the bond is payable out of the special fund established for the purposes of RCW 72.99.070 through 72.99.160;

(3) Shall bear interest, payable either annually or semiannually, as the state finance committee may determine, at a rate not to exceed six percent per annum;

(4) Shall be payable solely out of the special fund created for the purposes of RCW 72.99.070 through 72.99.160;

(5) Shall be payable at such times over a period of not to exceed thirty years from date of issuance, in such... manner and at such place or places, and with such reserved rights of prior redemption, as the state finance committee may prescribe to be specified therein;

(6) Shall be signed either manually or with a printed facsimile signature by the governor and the state auditor under the seal of the state and any coupons attached to such bonds shall be signed by the same officers whose signatures thereon may be in printed facsimile.

Any bonds may be registered in the name of the holder on presentation to the state treasurer or at the fiscal agency of the state of Washington in New York, as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest under such regulations as the state treasurer may prescribe. Said bonds shall distinctly state that they shall not be a general obligation of the state of Washington, but shall be payable from that portion of the retail sales tax allocated to said fund in the manner prescribed in RCW 72.99.070 through 72.99.160. Said bonds and the interest thereon shall, so long as any portion thereof shall remain unpaid, constitute a prior charge upon the retail sales tax allocated to the state building construction bond redemption fund herein provided for, subject to and inferior only to the charge thereon created by chapters 229 and 230, Laws of 1949 [RCW 28A.47.130–28A.47.180 and 72.99.010–72.99.060], and shall be payable at such places as the state finance committee shall provide. All bonds issued under the provisions of RCW 72.99.070 through 72.99.160 may be sold in such manner and such amounts and at such times and on such terms and conditions as the state finance committee may prescribe: Provided, That if such bonds are sold to any persons other than the state of Washington they shall be sold at public sale, and it shall be the duty of the state finance committee to cause such sale to be advertised in such manner as it shall deem sufficient. Bonds issued under the provision of RCW 72.99.070 through 72.99.160 shall be legal investment for any of the funds of the state not restricted by any constitutional prohibition. [1957 c 298 § 4.]

State finance committee: Chapter 43.33 RCW.

72.99.110 Deposit of proceeds from bond sale—Appropriation. The money arising from the sale of said bonds shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the state building construction account in the state general fund, and shall be used for the purposes, and by the agencies authorized by RCW 72.99.070 through 72.99.160. For the purpose of carrying out the provision of RCW 72.99.070 through 72.99.160, there is hereby appropriated from the state building construction account the sum of twenty million two hundred and fourteen thousand nine hundred ninety-six dollars, or so much thereof as shall be necessary. [1957 c 298 § 5.]

72.99.120 State building construction bond redemption fund—Purpose, deposits—Priority as to sales tax revenue. There is hereby created in the state treasury a special fund to be known as the state building construction bond redemption fund, which fund shall be exclusively devoted for the retirement of said bonds upon maturity and the payment of interest as it falls due. The state finance committee shall, on or before June 30th of each year, certify to the state treasurer the amount needed in the ensuing twelve months to meet bond retirement and interest requirements, and the state treasurer shall thereupon deposit such amount in said state building construction bond redemption fund from moneys transmitted to the state treasurer by the department of revenue and certified by the department of revenue to be sales tax collections, and such amount certified by the state finance committee to the state treasurer shall be a prior charge against all retail sales tax revenues of the state of Washington, subject to and inferior only to the charges thereon created by chapters 229 and 230, Laws of 1949 [RCW 28A.47.130–28A.47.180 and 72.99.010–72.99.060]. Said bond redemption fund shall be kept segregated from all moneys in the state treasury and shall, while any of such bonds or interest thereon remains unpaid, be available solely for the payment thereof. As a part of the contract of sale of the bonds herein authorized, the state undertakes to continue to levy and collect a tax on retail sales equal to that portion thereof allocated to said fund as provided in RCW 72.99.070 through 72.99.160, and to place the proceeds thereof in the state building construction bond redemption fund and to make said fund available to meet said payments when due until all bonds and the interest thereon authorized under RCW 72.99.070 through 72.99.160 shall have been paid. [1975 1st ex.s. c 278 § 37; 1957 c 298 § 6.]

The bonds authorized to be issued pursuant to the provisions of RCW 72.99.070 through 72.99.160 shall not be general obligations of the state of Washington, but shall be limited obligation bonds payable only from the special fund created for their payment derived from the tax on retail sales as herein provided. The legislature may provide additional means for raising money for the payment of interest and principal of said bonds. RCW 72.99.070 through 72.99.160 shall not be deemed to provide an exclusive method for such payment. The power given to the legislature by this section to provide additional means for raising money is permissive, and shall not in any way be construed as a pledge of the general credit of the state of Washington. [1957 c 298 § 7.]

(4) He must return and reenter the office or position within three months after serving four years or less: Provided, That any period of additional service imposed by law, from which one is unable to obtain orders relieving him from active duty, will not affect his reemployment rights. [1953 c 212 § 5.]

73.16.061 Enforcement of provisions. In case any employer, his successor or successors fails or refuses to comply with the provisions of RCW 73.16.031 through 73.16.061, the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the employer is located shall bring action in the superior court to obtain an order to specifically require such employer to comply with the provisions hereof, and, as an incident thereto, to compensate such person for any loss of wages or benefits suffered by reason of such employer's unlawful act. Such acknowledgment of instruments, attestation of documents, administration of oaths and affirmations, execution of depositions and affidavits, and performance of other notarial acts, heretofore or hereafter made or taken, are hereby declared legal, valid and binding, and to this end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable.

Agency created by power of attorney not revoked by unverified report of death. No agency created by a power of attorney in writing given by a principal who is at the time of execution, or who, after executing such power of attorney, becomes either (1) a member of the armed forces of the United States; or (2) a person serving as a merchant seaman outside the limits of the United States, included within the forty-eight states and the District of Columbia; or (3) a person outside said limits by permission, assignment or direction of any department or official of the United States government, in connection with any activity pertaining to or connected with the prosecution of any war in which the United States is then engaged, shall be revoked or terminated by the death of the principal, as to the agent or other person who, without actual knowledge or actual notice of the death of the principal, shall have acted or shall act, in good faith, under or in reliance upon such power of attorney or agency, and any action so taken, unless otherwise invalid or unenforceable, shall be binding on the heirs, devisees, legatees, or personal representatives of the principal. An affidavit, executed by the attorney in fact or agent, setting forth that the maker of the power of attorney is a member of the armed forces of the United States or within the class of persons described in RCW 73.20.050, and that he has not or had not, at the time of doing any act pursuant to the power of attorney, received actual knowledge or actual notice of the revocation or termination of the power of attorney, by death or otherwise, or notice of any facts indicating the same, shall, in the absence of fraud, be conclusive proof of the nonrevocation or nontermination of the power of attorney at such time. If the exercise of the power requires execution and delivery of any instrument which is recordable under the laws of this state, such affidavit shall likewise be recordable. [1945 c 139 § 2; Rem. Supp. 1945 § 10758–71.]

"Missing in action" report not construed as actual knowledge. construed so as to alter or affect any provision for revocation or termination contained in such power of attor-
ey. [1945 c 139 § 4; Rem. Supp. 1945 § 10758-73.]

73.36.050 Guardian—Appointment—Contents of petition. (1) A petition for the appointment of a guardian may be filed by any relative or friend of the ward or by any person who is authorized by law to file such a petition. If there is no person so authorized or if the person so authorized refuses or fails to file such a petition within thirty days after mailing of notice by the veterans administration to the last known address of the person, if any, indicating the necessity for the same, a petition for appointment may be filed by any resident of this state.

(2) The petition for appointment shall set forth the name, place of residence of the ward, the name and place of residence of the nearest relative, if known, and the fact that the ward is entitled to receive benefits payable by or through the veterans administration and shall set forth the amount of moneys then due and the amount of probable future payments.

(3) The petition shall also set forth the name and address of the person or institution, if any, having actual custody of the ward and the name, personal, and shall state that each is worth the sum of money or other things of value received by or through the veterans administration and shall set forth the amount of moneys then due and the amount of probable future payments.

(4) In the case of a mentally incompetent ward the petition shall show that such ward has been rated incompetent by the veterans administration on examination in accordance with the laws and regulations governing the veterans administration. [1951 c 53 § 5.]

73.36.060 Guardian for minor—Appointment—Prima facie evidence. Where a petition is filed for the appointment of a guardian for a minor, a certificate of the administrator or his authorized representative, setting forth the age of such minor as shown by the records of the veterans administration and the fact that the appointment of a guardian is a condition precedent to the payment of any moneys due the minor by the veterans administration shall be prima facie evidence of the necessity for such appointment. [1951 c 53 § 6.]

73.36.070 Guardian for incompetent—Appointment—Prima facie evidence. Where a petition is filed for the appointment of a guardian for a mentally incompetent ward, a certificate of the administrator or his duly authorized representative, that such person has been rated incompetent by the veterans administration on examination in accordance with the laws and regulations governing such veterans administration and that the appointment of a guardian is a condition precedent to the payment of any moneys due such ward by the veterans administration, shall be prima facie evidence of the necessity for such appointment. 73.36.080 Notice of petition. Upon the filing of a petition for the appointment of a guardian under this chapter, notice shall be given to the ward, to such other persons, and in such manner as is provided by the general law of this state, and also to the veterans administration as provided by this chapter. [1951 c 53 § 8.]

73.36.090 Guardian's bond. (1) Upon the appointment of a guardian, he shall execute and file a bond to be approved by the court in an amount not less than the estimated value of the personal estate and anticipated income of the ward during the ensuing two years, except in cases where banks or trust companies are appointed as guardian and no bond is required by the general state law. The bond shall be in the form and be conditioned as required of guardians appointed under the general guardianship laws of this state. The court may from time to time require the guardian to file an additional bond.

(2) Where a bond is tendered by a guardian with personal sureties, there shall be at least two such sureties and they shall file with the court a certificate under oath which shall describe the property owned, both real and personal, and shall state that each is worth the sum named in the bond as the penalty thereof over and above all his debts and liabilities and the aggregate of other bonds in which he is principal or surety and exclusive of property exempt from execution. The court may require additional security or may require a corporate surety bond, the premium thereon to be paid from the ward's estate. [1951 c 53 § 9.]

Guardianship, generally: Chapters 11.88 and 11.92 RCW.

73.36.100 Accounting by guardian—Copies of all proceedings to be furnished administration—Hearings. (1) Every guardian, who has received or shall receive on account of his ward any money or other thing of value from the veterans administration, at the expiration of two years from date of his appointment, and every two years thereafter on the anniversary date of his appointment, or as more often as the court may require, shall file with the court a full, true and accurate account under oath of all moneys or other things of value received by him, all earnings, interest or profits derived therefrom, and all property acquired therewith and of all disbursements therefrom, and showing the balance thereof in his hands at the date of the account and how invested. Each year when not required to file an account with the court, the guardian shall file an account with the proper office of the veterans administration. If the interim account be not filed with the veterans administration, or, if filed, shall be unsatisfactory, the court shall upon receipt of notice thereof from the veterans administration require the guardian forthwith to file an account which shall be subject in all respects to the next succeeding paragraphs. Any account filed with the veterans administration and approved by the chief attorney thereof may be filed with the court and be approved by the court without hearing, unless a hearing thereon be requested by some party in interest.
(2) The guardian, at the time of filing any account with the court or veterans administration shall exhibit all securities or investments held by him to an officer of the bank or other depository wherein said securities or investments are held for safekeeping or to an authorized representative of the corporation which is surety on his bond, or to the judge or clerk of a court of record in this state, or upon request of the guardian or other interested party, to any other reputable person designated by the court, who shall certify in writing that he has examined the securities or investments and identified them with those described in the account and shall note any omissions or discrepancies. If the depository is the guardian, the certifying officer shall not be the officer verifying the account. The guardian may exhibit the securities or investments to the judge of the court, who shall endorse on the account and copy thereof, a certificate that the securities or investments shown therein as held by the guardian were each in fact exhibited to him and that those exhibited to him were the same as those in the account and noting any omission or discrepancy. The certificate, and the certificate of an official of the bank in which are deposited any funds for which the guardian is accountable, showing the amount on deposit, shall be prepared and signed in duplicate and one of each shall be filed by the guardian with his account.

(3) At the time of filing in the court any account, a certified copy thereof and a signed duplicate of each certificate filed with the court shall be sent by the guardian to the office of the veterans administration having jurisdiction over the area in which such court is located. A duplicate signed copy or a certified copy of any petition, motion or other pleading pertaining to an account, or to any matter other than an account, and which is filed in the guardianship proceedings or in any proceedings for the purpose of removing the disability of minority or mental incapacity, shall be furnished by the persons filing the same to the proper office of the veterans administration. Unless hearing be waived in writing by the attorney of the veterans administration and by all other persons, if any, entitled to notice, the court shall fix a time and place for the hearing on the account, petition, motion or other pleading, not less than fifteen days nor more than sixty days from the date same is filed, unless a different available date be stipulated in writing. Unless waived in writing, written notice of the time and place of hearing shall be given the veterans administration office concerned and to the guardian and any others entitled to notice, not less than fifteen days prior to the date fixed for the hearing. The notice may be given by mail, in which event it shall be deposited in the mails not less than fifteen days prior to said date. The court or clerk thereof, shall mail to said veterans administration office a copy of each order entered in any guardianship proceeding wherein the administrator is an interested party.

(4) If the guardian is accountable for property derived from sources other than the veterans administration, he shall be accountable as is or may be required under the applicable law of this state pertaining to the property of minors or persons of unsound mind who are not beneficiaries of the veterans administration, and as to such other property shall be entitled to the compensation provided by such law. The account for other property may be combined with the account filed in accordance with this section. [1951 c 53 § 10.]

73.36.110 Failure to account—Penalties. If any guardian shall fail to file with the court any account as required by this chapter, or by an order of the court, when any account is due or within thirty days after citation issues and provided by law, or shall fail to furnish the veterans administration a true copy of any account, petition or pleading as required by this chapter, such failure may in the discretion of the court be ground for his removal, in addition to other penalties provided by law. [1951 c 53 § 11.]

73.36.120 Compensation of guardian. Compensation payable to guardians shall be based upon services rendered and shall not exceed five percent of the amount of moneys received during the period covered by the account, except that the court may allow a fee of not exceeding twenty-five dollars per year, as a minimum fee, upon the approval of the chief attorney for the veterans administration. In the event of extraordinary services by any guardian, the court, upon petition and hearing thereon may authorize reasonable additional compensation therefor. A copy of the petition and notice of hearing thereon shall be given the proper office of the veterans administration in the manner provided in the case of hearing on a guardian's account or other pleading. No commission or compensation shall be allowed on the moneys or other assets received from a prior guardian nor upon the amount received from liquidation of loans or other investments. [1951 c 53 § 12.]

73.36.130 Investment of funds—Procedure. Every guardian shall invest the surplus funds of his ward's estate in such securities or property as authorized under the laws of this state but only upon prior order of the court; except that the funds may be invested, without prior court authorization, in direct unconditional interest-bearing obligations of this state or of the United States and in obligations the interest and principal of which are unconditionally guaranteed by the United States. A signed duplicate or certified copy of the petition for authority to invest shall be furnished the proper office of the veterans administration, and notice of hearing thereon shall be given said office as provided in the case of hearing on a guardian's account. [1951 c 53 § 13.]

73.36.140 Use of funds—Procedure. A guardian shall not apply any portion of the income or the estate for the support or maintenance of any person including the ward, the spouse and the minor children of the ward, except upon petition to and prior order of the court after a hearing. A signed duplicate or certified copy of said petition shall be furnished the proper office of the veterans administration and notice of hearing thereon shall be.
given said office as provided in the case of hearing on a guardian's account or other pleading. [1951 c 53 § 14.]

73.36.150 Purchase of real estate—Procedure. (1) The court may authorize the purchase of the entire fee simple title to real estate in this state in which the guardian has no interest, but only as a home for the ward, or to protect his interest, or (if he is not a minor) as a home for his dependent family. Such purchase of real estate shall not be made except upon the entry of an order of the court after hearing upon verified petition. A copy of the petition shall be furnished the proper office of the veterans administration and notice of hearing thereon shall be given said office as provided in the case of hearing on a guardian's account.

(2) Before authorizing such investment the court shall require written evidence of value and of title and of the advisability of acquiring such real estate. Title shall be taken in the ward's name. This section does not limit the right of the guardian on behalf of his ward to bid and to become the purchaser of real estate at a sale thereof pursuant to decree of foreclosure of lien held by or for the ward, or at a trustee's sale, to protect the ward's right in the property so foreclosed or sold; nor does it limit the right of the guardian, if such be necessary to protect the ward's interest and upon prior order of the court in which the guardianship is pending, to agree with cotenants of the ward for a partition in kind, or to purchase from cotenants the entire undivided interests held by them, or to bid and purchase the same at a sale under a partition decree, or to compromise adverse claims of title to the ward's realty. [1951 c 53 § 15.]

73.36.155 Public records—Free copies. When a copy of any public record is required by the veterans administration to be used in determining the eligibility of any person to participate in benefits made available by the veterans administration, the official custodian of such public record shall without charge provide the applicant for such benefits or any person acting on his behalf or the authorized representative of the veterans administration with a certified copy of such record. [1951 c 53 § 16. Formerly RCW 73.04.025.]

73.36.160 Discharge of guardian—Final account. In addition to any other provisions of law relating to judicial restoration and discharge of guardian, a certificate by the veterans administration showing that a minor ward has attained majority, or that an incompetent ward has been rated competent by the veterans administration upon examination in accordance with law shall be prima facie evidence that the ward has attained majority, or has recovered his competency. Upon hearing after notice as provided by this chapter and the determination by the court that the ward has attained majority or has recovered his competency, an order shall be entered to that effect, and the guardian shall file a final account. Upon hearing after notice to the former ward and to the veterans administration as in case of other accounts, upon approval of the final account, and upon delivery to the ward of the assets due him from the guardian, the guardian shall be discharged and his sureties released. [1951 c 53 § 17.]

73.36.165 Commitment to veterans administration or other federal agency. (1) Whenever, in any proceeding under the laws of this state for the commitment of a person alleged to be of unsound mind or otherwise in need of confinement in a hospital or other institution for his proper care, it is determined after such adjudication of the status of such person as may be required by law that commitment to a hospital for mental disease or other institution is necessary for safekeeping or treatment and it appears that such person is eligible for care or treatment by the veterans administration or other agency of the United States government, the court, upon receipt of a certificate from the veterans administration or such other agency showing that facilities are available and that such person is eligible for care or treatment therein, may commit such person to said veterans administration or other agency. The person whose commitment is sought shall be personally served with notice of the pending commitment proceeding in the manner as provided by the law of this state; and nothing in this chapter shall affect his right to appear and be heard in the proceedings. Upon commitment, such person, when admitted to any hospital operated by any such agency within or without this state shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the veterans administration or other agency. The chief officer of any hospital of the veterans administration or institution operated by any other agency of the United States to which the person is so committed shall with respect to such person be vested with the same powers as superintendents of state hospitals for mental diseases within this state with respect to retention of custody, transfer, parole or discharge. Jurisdiction is retained in the committing or other appropriate court of this state at any time to inquire into the mental condition of the person so committed, and to determine the necessity for continuance of his restraint, and all commitments pursuant to this chapter are so conditioned.

(2) The judgment or order of commitment by a court of competent jurisdiction of another state or of the District of Columbia, committing a person to the veterans administration, or other agency of the United States government for care or treatment shall have the same force and effect as to the committed person while in this state as in the jurisdiction in which is situated the court entering the judgment or making the order; and the courts of the committing state, or of the District of Columbia, shall be deemed to have retained jurisdiction of the person so committed for the purpose of inquiring into the mental condition of such person, and of determining the necessity for continuance of his restraint; as is provided in subsection (1) of this section with respect to persons committed by the courts of this state. Consent is hereby given to the application of the law of the committing state or district in respect to the authority of the chief officer of any hospital of the veterans administration, or of any institution operated in this state by any other agency of the United States to retain custody, or transfer, parole or discharge the committed person.

(3) Upon receipt of a certificate of the veterans administration or such other agency of the United States that facilities are available for the care or treatment of any person heretofore committed to any hospital for the insane or other institution for the care or treatment of persons similarly afflicted and that such person is eligible for care or treatment, the superintendent of the institution may cause the transfer of such person to the veterans administration or other agency of the United States for care or treatment. Upon effecting any such transfer, the committing court or proper officer thereof shall be notified thereof by the transferring agency. No person shall be transferred to the veterans administration or other agency of the United States if he be confined pursuant to conviction of any felony or misdemeanor or if he has been acquitted of the charge solely on the ground of insanity, unless prior to transfer the court or other authority originally committing such person shall enter an order for such transfer after appropriate motion and hearing.

Any person transferred as provided in this section shall be deemed to be committed to the veterans administration or other agency of the United States pursuant to the original commitment. [1951 c 53 § 18. Formerly RCW 71.02.700 through 71.02.720.]

73.36.170 Application of chapter to other guardianships of veterans. (5) "Federal-aid assistance"—The specific categories of assistance for which provision is made in any federal law existing or hereafter passed by which payments are made from the federal government to the state in aid or in respect to payment by the state for public assistance rendered to any category of needy persons for which provision for federal funds or aid may from time to time be made, or a federally administered needs-based program.

(6) "General assistance"—Aid to unemployable persons in need who:

(a) Are not eligible to receive federal-aid assistance; and

(b) Are incapacitated from gainful employment by reason of:

(i) Bodily or mental infirmity;

(ii) Participation in an approved drug or alcoholism treatment program; or

(iii) Being sixty-five years of age, or over: Provided, That such incapacity in (b) (i) through (iii) of this subsection, as determined by the department, will last at least sixty days from the date of application, except that persons in approved alcoholism and/or drug programs may be eligible for less than a sixty-day period in accordance with the terms of their treatment plan.

(7) "Applicant"—Any person who has made a request, or on behalf of whom a request has been made, to any county or local office for assistance.

(a) A home, which is defined as real property owned and used by an applicant or recipient as a place of residence, together with a reasonable amount of property surrounding and contiguous thereto, which is used by and useful to the applicant. Whenever a recipient shall cease to use such property for residential purposes, either for himself or his dependents, the property shall be considered as income which can be made available to meet need, and if the recipient or his dependents absolve themselves from the home for a period of ninety consecutive days such absence, unless due to hospitalization or health reasons or a natural disaster, shall raise a rebuttable presumption of abandonment: Provided, That in the opinion of three physicians the recipient will be unable to return to the home during his lifetime, and the home is not occupied by a spouse or dependent children or disabled sons or daughters, such property shall be considered as income which can be made available to meet need.

(b) Household furnishings and personal effects and other personal property having great sentimental value to the applicant or recipient.

(g) If an applicant for or recipient of public assistance possesses property and belongings in excess of the ceiling value, such value shall be used in determining the need of the applicant or recipient, but the department may exempt resources or income when the income and resources are determined necessary to the applicant's or recipient's restoration to independence, to decrease the need for public assistance, or to aid in rehabilitating the applicant or recipient or a dependent of the applicant or recipient.

In formulating rules and regulations pursuant to this chapter the department shall define "earned income" consistent with federal requirements. All resources and income not specifically exempted, and any income or other economic benefit derived from the use of, or appreciation in value of, exempt resources, shall be considered in determining the need of an applicant or recipient of public assistance.

The department is authorized to transfer and make payments of state funds to the secretary of the department of health, education and welfare as required by Public Laws 92–603 and 93–66: Provided, however, That such agreements shall be submitted for review and comment to the social and health services committees of the senate and house of representatives, and shall be subject to authorization and/or ratification by the legislative budget committee.
and such agreements shall not bind the state unless and until such authorization and/or ratification is given. Provided further, however, That if the authorization and ratification is not given, the department of social and health services shall administer the state supplemental program as established in RCW 74.04.620. [1973 2nd ex.s. c 10 § 4.]

74.04.640 Acceptance of referrals for vocational rehabilitation—Reimbursement. Referrals to the state department of social and health services for vocational rehabilitation made in accordance with section 1615 of Title XVI of the Social Security Act, as amended, shall be accepted by the state.

The department shall be reimbursed by the secretary of the department of health, education and welfare for the costs it incurs in providing such vocational rehabilitation services. [1973 2nd ex.s. c 10 § 5.]

74.04.650 Individuals failing to comply with federal requirements. Notwithstanding any other provisions of RCW 74.04.600 through 74.04.650, those individuals who have been receiving supplemental security income assistance and failed to comply with any federal requirements, including those relating to drug abuse and alcoholism treatment and rehabilitation, shall be ineligible for state assistance. 74.04.660 Family emergency assistance program. The department shall establish a consolidated emergency assistance program for families who are not eligible for any federally aided grant assistance provided through other programs. Assistance may be provided in accordance with this section.

(1) Benefits provided under this program shall not be provided for more than two months of assistance in any consecutive twelve-month period.

(3) Benefits under this program shall be provided to alleviate emergent conditions resulting from insufficient income and resources to provide for food, shelter, clothing, medical care, or other necessary items. Benefits shall be provided only in an amount sufficient to cover the cost of the specific need, subject to the limitations established in this section.

(4) In determining eligibility for this program, the department shall consider all cash resources as being available to meet need.

(5) The department shall, by rule, establish assistance standards and eligibility criteria for this program in accordance with this section. Eligibility for this program does not automatically entitle a recipient to medical assistance. Eligibility standards and resource levels for this program shall be stricter than the standards for eligibility and resource levels for the aid to families with dependent children program. [1981 1st ex.s. c 6 § 6.]

Reviser’s note: Subsection (2) of this section was vetoed by the governor. [1981 1st ex.s. c 6.]

74.04.700 Overpayments—Procedures—Hearings. (1) Any person who owes a debt to the state for an overpayment of public assistance obtained as a result of a willfully false statement, or representation, or impersonation, or other fraudulent device, or willful failure to reveal resources or income shall be notified of that debt by either personal service or certified mail, return receipt requested. Personal service, return of the requested receipt, or refusal by the debtor of such notice is proof of notice to the debtor of the debt owed. Service of the notice shall be in the manner prescribed for the service of a summons in a civil action. The notice shall include a statement of the debt owed; a statement that the property of the debtor will be subject to collection action after the debtor terminates from public assistance; a statement that the property will be subject to lien and foreclosure, distraint, seizure and sale, or order to withhold and deliver; and a statement that the net proceeds will be applied to the satisfaction of the overpayment debt. Action to collect the debt by lien and foreclosure, distraint, seizure and sale, or order to withhold and deliver, is lawful after ninety days from the debtor’s termination from public assistance or the receipt of the notice of debt, whichever is later. This does not preclude the department from recovering fraudulent overpayments by deduction from subsequent assistance payments, not exceeding ten percent of each subsequent assistance payment.

(2) Any debtor who alleges defenses to the debt or disputes the stated amount of the debt has the right to request in writing a hearing pursuant to RCW 74.08.070. If no such request is made, the debt will be subject to collection action as authorized under this chapter. If a timely request is made, the execution of collection action on the debt shall be stayed pending the decision of the hearing or termination of the debtor from public assistance, whichever occurs later. The right to an appeal shall be governed by RCW 74.08.070, 74.08.080, and the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW. [1981 c 163 § 1.]

Overpayments and debts due the state: RCW 74.04.300 – 74.04.306.

74.04.710 Overpayments—Orders to withhold property of debtor—Procedures. After service of a notice of debt for an overpayment as defined in RCW 74.04.300 as provided for in this chapter, stating the debt accrued, the secretary may issue to any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision, or department of the state, an order to withhold and deliver property of any kind including, but not restricted to, earnings which are due, owing, or belonging to the debtor, when the secretary has reason to believe that there is in the possession of such person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision, or department of the state property which is due, owing, or belonging to the debtor. The order to withhold and deliver shall state the amount of the debt, and shall state in summary the terms of this section, RCW 7.33.280, chapters 6.12 and 6.16 RCW, 15 U.S.C. 1673, and other state or federal exemption laws applicable generally to debtors. The order to withhold and deliver shall be served in the manner prescribed for the service of a summons in a civil action or by certified mail, return receipt requested. Any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision, or department of the state upon whom service has been made shall answer the order to withhold and deliver within twenty days, exclusive of the day of service, under oath and in writing, and shall make true answers to the matters inquired of therein. The secretary may require further and additional answers to be completed by the person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision, or department of the state. If any such person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision, or department of the state possesses any property which may be subject to the claim of the department of social and health services, such property shall be withheld immediately upon receipt of the order to withhold and deliver and shall, after the twenty-day period, upon demand, be delivered forthwith to the secretary. The secretary shall hold the property in trust for application on the indebtedness involved or for return, without interest, in accordance with final determination of liability or nonliability. In the alternative, there may be furnished to the secretary a good and sufficient bond, satisfactory to the secretary, conditioned upon final determination of liability. Where money is due and owing under any contract of employment, express or implied, or is held by any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision, or department of the state subject to withdrawal by the debtor, such money shall be delivered by remittance payable to the order of the secretary. Delivery to the secretary, subject to the exemptions under RCW 7.33.280, chapters 6.12 and 6.16 RCW, 15 U.S.C. 1673, and other state or federal law applicable generally to debtors, of the money or other property held or claimed satisfies the requirement of the order to withhold and deliver. Delivery to the secretary serves as full acquittance, and the state warrants and represents that it shall defend and hold harmless for such actions persons delivering money or property to the secretary pursuant to this chapter. The state also warrants and represents that it shall defend and hold harmless for such actions persons witholding money or property pursuant to this chapter.

The secretary shall also, on or before the date of service of the order to withhold and deliver, mail or cause to be mailed by certified mail a copy of the order to withhold and deliver to the debtor at the debtor's last known post office address, or, in the alternative, a copy of the order to withhold and deliver shall be served on the debtor in the same manner as a summons in a civil action on or before the date of service of the order or within two days thereafter. The copy of the order shall be mailed or served together with a concise explanation of the right to petition for a hearing on any issue related to the collection. This requirement is not jurisdictional, but, if the copy is not mailed or served as provided in this section, or if any irregularity appears with respect to the mailing or service, the superior court, on its discretion on motion of the debtor promptly made and supported by affidavit showing that the debtor has suffered substantial injury due to the failure to mail the copy, may set aside the order to withhold and deliver and award to the debtor an amount equal to the damages resulting from the secretary's failure to serve on or mail to the debtor the copy. [1981 c 163 § 2.]

74.04.720 Overpayments—Failure to withhold property of debtor. If any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision, or department of the state fails to answer an order to withhold and deliver within the time prescribed in RCW 74.04.710, or fails or refuses to deliver property pursuant to the order, or after actual notice of filing of a lien as provided for in this chapter, pays over, releases, sells, transfers, or conveys real or personal property subject to such lien to or for the benefit of the debtor or any other person, or fails or refuses to surrender upon demand property distrained under RCW 74.04.710, or fails or refuses to honor an assignment of wages presented by the secretary, such person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision, or department of the state is liable to the department in an amount equal to one hundred percent of the value of the debt which is the basis of the lien, order to withhold and deliver, distrain, or assignment of wages, together with costs, interest, and reasonable attorney fees. [1981 c 163 § 3.]

74.04.730 Overpayments—Assignment of earnings. Any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision, or department employing a person owing a debt for overpayment of public assistance received as defined in RCW 74.04.300, shall honor, according to its terms, a duly executed assignment of earnings presented to the employer by the secretary as a plan to satisfy or retire an overpayment debt. This requirement to honor the assignment of earnings is applicable whether the earnings are to be paid presently or in the future and continues in force and effect until released in writing by the secretary. Payment of moneys pursuant to an assignment of earnings presented to the employer by the secretary serves as full acquittance under any contract of employment, and the state warrants and represents it shall defend and hold harmless such action taken pursuant to the assignment of earnings. The secretary is released from liability for improper receipt of moneys under assignment of earnings upon return of any moneys so received. [1981 c 163 § 4.]

74.08.044 Need for personal and special care—Licensing—Rules and regulations. 74.08.055 Verification of applications—Penalty. Each applicant for or recipient of public assistance shall make an application for assistance which shall contain or be verified by a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury. The secretary, by rule and regulation, may require that any other forms filled out by applicants or recipients of public assistance shall contain or be verified by a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury and such declaration shall be in lieu of any oath otherwise required, and each applicant shall be so informed at the time of the signing.

74.08.070 Fair hearing on grievances—Procedure—Transcript provided for judicial review (as amended by 1981 1st ex.s. c 6). An applicant for or recipient of public assistance is not entitled to a fair hearing solely on the basis of a state or federal law which requires grant adjustments for a class of recipients.

The hearing shall be conducted in the county in which the appellant resides, and a tape recording of the testimony shall be made and included in the record, the costs of which shall be borne by the department. A copy of this tape recording shall be provided the appellant if request for same is made in writing by the appellant or his attorney of record.

In the event an appellant feels aggrieved by the decision in a fair hearing provided for in RCW 74.08.070, he shall have the right to a fair hearing to be conducted by the secretary of the department or by an administrative law judge appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW for such purpose. Any appellant who desires a fair hearing shall within ninety days after receiving notice of the decision of the department or an authorized agency of the department, file with the secretary a notice of appeal. The department shall notify the appellant of the time and place of said hearing at least twenty days prior to the date thereof by registered mail or by personal service upon said appellant, unless otherwise agreed by appellant and the department.

It shall be the duty of the department within seventy-five days after receipt of the notice of appeal to notify the appellant of the decision of the secretary: Provided, That any overpayment which the department may be entitled to recover as a result of such decision shall be limited to the amount recoverable up to the sixthtieth day after receipt of the notice of appeal.

If the decision of the secretary is made in favor of the appellant, assistance shall be paid from the date of the denial of the application or forty-five days following the date of application, whichever is sooner; or in the case of a recipient, from the effective date of the initial departmental county office decision. Reviser's note: RCW 74.08.070 was amended twice during the 1981 sessions of the legislature, each without reference to the other. However, the amendment by 1981 c 67 is not effective until July 1, 1982; until then, 1981 1st ex.s. c 6 controls.

Either party may appeal from the decision of the superior court to the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state: Provided, That any filing fee shall be collected of the appellant and no bond shall be required on any appeal under this chapter. In the event that the superior court, the court of appeals, or the supreme court renders a decision in favor of the appellant, said appellant shall be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and costs. The department is hereby authorized to assume responsibility for payment for the funeral and burial of deceased persons dying without assets sufficient to pay for the minimum standard funeral herein provided: Provided, however, That the secretary may furnish funeral assistance for deceased recipients if they leave assets to a surviving spouse and/or to minor children and if the assets are resources permitted to be owned by or available to an eligible applicant or recipient under RCW 74.04-005, and the department shall thereby have a lien against said assets valid for six years from the date of filing with the county auditor and such lien claim shall have preference to all other claims except prior secured creditors. If the assets remain exempt, or if no probate is commenced, the lien shall automatically terminate without further action six years after filing. If the deceased person is survived by a spouse or is a minor child survived by his parent or parents, the department may take into consideration the assets of such surviving spouse, parent, or parents in determining whether or not the department will assume responsibility for the funeral.

The department shall not pay more than cost for a minimum standard service rendered by each vendor. Payments to the funeral director and to the cemetery or crematorium will be made by separate vouchers. The standard of such services and the uniform amounts to be paid shall be determined by the department after giving due consideration to such advice and counsel as it shall obtain from the trade associations of the various vendors and related state departments, agencies, and commissions. In order to comply with federal statutes and regulations pertaining to federal matching funds and to provide for the prompt payment of initial grants and adjusting payments of grants the secretary is authorized to make provisions for the cash payment of assistance by the secretary or county administrators by the establishment of a central operating fund. 74.08.335 Transfers of property to qualify for assistance. Aid to families with dependent children and general assistance shall not be granted to any person who has made an assignment or transfer of property for the purpose of rendering himself eligible for the assistance. There is a rebuttable presumption that a person who has transferred or transfers any real or personal property or any interest in property within two years of the date of application for the assistance without receiving adequate monetary consideration therefor, did so for the purpose of rendering himself eligible for the assistance. Any person who transfers property for the purpose of rendering himself eligible for assistance, or any person who after becoming a recipient transfers any property or any interest in property without the consent of the secretary, shall be ineligible for assistance for a period of time during which the reasonable value of the property so transferred would have been adequate to meet the person's needs under normal conditions of living: Provided, That the secretary is hereby authorized to allow exceptions in cases where undue hardship would result from a denial of assistance. [1980 c 79 § 2; 1979 c 141 § 330; 1959 c 26 § 74.08.335. Prior: 1953 c 174 § 33.]

74.08.338 Real property transfers for inadequate consideration—Recovery of assistance payments.
When the consideration for a deed executed and delivered by a recipient is not paid, or when the consideration does not approximate the fair cash market value of the property, such deed shall be prima facie fraudulent as to the state. The attorney general upon request of the secretary shall file suit to rescind such transaction except as to subsequent bona fide purchasers for value. In the event that it be established by judicial proceedings that a fraudulent conveyance occurred, the value of any public assistance which may have been furnished may be recovered in any proceedings from the recipient or his estate. [1979 c 141 § 331; 1959 c 26 § 74.08.338. Prior: 1953 c 174 § 37.]

74.08.340 No vested rights conferred. All assistance granted under this title shall be deemed to be granted and to be held subject to the provisions of any amending or repealing act that may hereafter be enacted, and no recipient shall have any claim for compensation, or otherwise, by reason of his assistance being affected in any way by such amending or repealing act. [1959 c 26 § 74.08.340. Prior: 1935 c 182 § 21; RRS § 9998–21.]

The state hereby accepts the provisions of that certain act of the congress of the United States entitled, An Act to provide for the general welfare by establishing a system of federal old age benefits, and by enabling the several states to make more adequate provisions for aged persons, blind persons, dependent and crippled children, maternal and child welfare, public health, and the administration of their unemployment compensation laws; to establish a social security board; to raise revenue; and for other purposes, and such other act with like or similar objects as may be enacted. [1959 c 26 § 74.08.380. Prior: 1937 c 156 § 12; 1935 c 182 § 26; RRS § 9998–26.]

74.08.390 Research, projects, to effect savings by restoring self-support—Waiver of public assistance requirements. The department of social and health services may conduct research studies, pilot projects, demonstration projects, surveys and investigations for the purpose of determining methods to achieve savings in public assistance programs by means of restoring individuals to maximum self-support and personal independence and preventing social and physical disablement, and for the accomplishment of any of such purposes may employ consultants or enter into contracts with any agency of the federal, state or local governments, nonprofit corporations, universities or foundations.

Pursuant to this authority the department may waive the enforcement of specific statutory requirements, regulations, and standards in one or more counties or on a state-wide basis by formal order of the secretary. The order establishing the waiver shall provide alternative methods and procedures of administration, shall not be in conflict with the basic purposes, coverage, or benefits provided by law, shall not be general in scope but shall apply only for the duration of such a project and shall not take effect unless the secretary of health, education and welfare of the United States has agreed, for the same project, to waive the public assistance plan requirements relative to state-wide uniformity. [1979 c 141 § 332; 1969 ex.s. c 173 § 7; 1963 c 228 § 17.]

74.08.530 Homemaker-home health, chore, and personal and household services—Legislative finding, intent. The legislature finds that it is desirable to provide a coordinated and comprehensive program of in-home services for certain citizens in order that such persons may remain in their own homes, obtain employment if possible, and maintain a closer contact with the community. Such a program will seek to prevent mental and psychological deterioration which our citizens might otherwise experience. The legislature intends that the services will be provided in a fashion which promotes independent living. [1980 c 137 § 1; 1973 1st ex.s. c 51 § 1.]

74.08.541 Chore services—Defined—Eligibility—Limits. "Chore services," as used in this chapter, means services in performing light work and household and other personal tasks which eligible persons are unable to do for themselves because of frailty or handicapping conditions.

Persons eligible for services at no cost are adult recipients of supplemental security income and/or state supplementation and other individuals having income equal to or less than thirty percent of the state median income and resources less than a level determined by the department, and whose level of need for chore services and risk of being placed in a residential care facility have been determined by the department. Individuals determined by the department to be eligible for adult protective services are eligible to receive emergency chore services without regard to income if the services are essential to, and a subordinate part of, the adult protective services plan. Emergency chore services under adult protective services shall be provided only until the emergent situation has stabilized, not to exceed ninety days.

Those persons whose income is between thirty and forty percent of the state median income and whose level of need for chore services and risk of being placed in a residential care facility has been determined by the department are eligible for a reduced level of service based on need and income level to be applied in these cases. Persons whose resources exceed the level determined by the department are not eligible for any reduced level service.

The department is authorized to provide chore services on a case-by-case basis to severely handicapped persons in need of attendant care whose income exceeds the criteria established in this section. Services may be provided for this purpose only to the extent necessary to allow the individual to remain in his or her own home, and no services may be authorized for more than ninety days at any one time: Provided, That the department may not extend authorization for chore services to more than thirty persons at any one time whose income exceeds fifty-seven percent of the state median income.

For clients whose chore services are authorized on an hourly basis, the department shall establish a monthly lid on chore service hours, which shall be allocated to the department's community service offices. This lid shall be established at a level set by the department. The department shall also establish a monthly rate lid to apply to clients whose chore services are authorized on a monthly rate basis. [1981 1st ex.s. c 6 § 17.]

Reviser's note: RCW 74.08.541 succeeds RCW 74.08.540 in accordance with the following: "For the purposes of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3636, section 17 of this act constitutes the continuation of RCW 74.08.540." 74.08.545 Chore services—Legislative intent—Departmental duties. It is the intent of the legislature that chore services be provided to eligible persons within the limits of funds appropriated for that purpose. Therefore, the department shall provide services only to those persons identified as at risk of being placed in a residential care facility in the absence of such services. Chore services shall be provided only to the extent necessary to maintain a safe and healthful living environment. In determining an individual's eligibility for chore services, the department shall consider the following:

(1) The kind of services needed;
(2) The degree of service need, and the extent to which an individual is dependent upon such services to remain in his or her home or return to his or her home;
(3) The availability of personal or community resources which may be utilized to meet the individual's need; and
(4) Such other factors as the department considers necessary to insure service is provided to those persons whose chore service needs cannot be met by relatives, friends, nonprofit organizations, or other persons.

In determining the level of services to be provided under this chapter, the department shall utilize a client review questionnaire designed to determine both the degree and level of service need and the individual's risk of institutionalization if such needs are not met by this chapter. [1981 1st ex.s. c 6 § 16.]

To this end, the department shall establish appropriate rules and regulations designed to determine eligibility for employment under this section, as well as regulations designed to notify persons receiving such grants of eligibility for such employment. The department shall further establish a system of compensation to persons employed under the provisions of this section which provides that any grants they receive under chapter 74.08 RCW or chapter 74.12 RCW shall be diminished by such percentage of the compensation received under this section as the department shall establish by rules and regulations. The department shall establish a sliding scale fee schedule for such disabled persons, taking into consideration the person's ability to pay and work expenses.

74.12.010 Definitions. For the purposes of the administration of aid to families with dependent children assistance, the term "dependent child" means any child in need under the age of eighteen years who has been deprived of parental support or care by reason of the death, continued absence from the home, or physical or mental incapacity of the parent, and who is with his father, mother, grandmother, grandfather, brother, sister, stepfather, stepmother, stepbrother, stepsister, uncle, aunt, first cousin, nephew, or niece, in a place of residence maintained by one or more of such relatives as his or their homes. The term a "dependent child" shall, notwithstanding the foregoing, also include a child who would meet such requirements except for his removal from the home of a relative specified above as a result of a judicial determination that continuation therein would be contrary to the welfare of such child, for whose placement and care the state department of social and health services or the county office is responsible, and who has been placed in a licensed or approved child care institution or foster home as a result of such determination and who: (1) Was receiving an aid to families with dependent children grant for the month in which court proceedings leading to such determination were initiated; or (2) would have received aid to families with dependent children for such month if application had been made therefor; or (3) in the case of a child who had been living with a specified relative within six months prior to the month in which such proceedings were initiated, would have received aid to families with dependent children for such month if in such month he had been living with such a relative and application had been made therefor, as authorized by the Social Security Act.

"Aid to families with dependent children" means money payments, services, and remedial care with respect to a dependent child or dependent children and the needy parent or relative with whom the child lives and may include the spouse of such relative if living with him and if such relative is the child's parent and the child is a dependent child by reason of the physical or mental incapacity of a parent or stepparent liable under this chapter for the support of such child. [1981 1st ex.s. c 6 § 23; 1981 c 8 § 21; 1979 c 141 § 350; 1973 2nd ex.s. c 31 § 1; 1969 ex.s. c 173 § 13; 1965 ex.s. c 37 § 1; 1963 c 228 § 18; 1961 c 265 § 1; 1959 c 26 § 74.12.010. Prior: 1957 c 63 § 10; 1953 c 174 § 24; 1941 c 242 § 1; 1937 c 114 § 1; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 9992-101.]

74.12.030 Eligibility. In addition to meeting the eligibility requirements of RCW 74.08.025, as now or hereafter amended, an applicant for aid to families with dependent children must be a needy child who is a resident of the state of Washington. [1971 ex.s. c 169 § 6; 1963 c 228 § 19; 1959 c 26 § 74.12.030. Prior: 1953 c 174 § 23; 1941 c 242 § 2; 1937 c 114 § 4; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 9992-104.]

74.12.240 Services provided to help attain maximum self-support and independence of parents and relatives. The department is authorized to provide such social and related services as are reasonably necessary to encourage the care of dependent children in their own homes or in the homes of relatives, to help maintain and strengthen family life and to help such parents or relatives to attain maximum self-support and personal independence consistent with the maintenance of continuing parental care and protection. In the provision of such services, maximum utilization of other agencies providing similar or related services shall be effected. [1959 c 26 § 74.12- .240. Prior: 1957 c 63 § 8.]

74.12.250 Payment of grant to another—Limited guardianship. If the department, after investigation, finds that any recipient of funds under an aid to families with dependent children grant is not utilizing the grant adequately for the needs of the child or children or is otherwise dissipating such grant, or is unable to manage adequately the funds paid on behalf of said child and that to continue said payments to him would be contrary to the welfare of the child, the department may make such payments to another individual who is interested in or concerned with the welfare of such child and relative: Provided, That the department shall provide such counseling and other services as are available and necessary to develop greater ability on the part of the relative to manage funds in such manner as to protect the welfare of the family. Periodic review of each case shall be made by the department to determine if said relative is able to resume management of the assistance grant. If after a reasonable period of time the payments to the relative cannot be resumed, the department may request the attorney general to file a petition in the superior court for the appointment of a guardian for the child or children. Such petition shall set forth the facts warranting such appointment. Notice of the hearing on such petition shall be served upon the recipient and the department not less than ten days before the date set for such hearing. Such petition may be filed with the clerk of superior court and all process issued and served without payment of costs. If upon the hearing of such petition the court is satisfied that it is for the best interest of the child or children, and all parties concerned, that a guardian be appointed, he shall order the appointment, and may require the guardian to render to the court a detailed itemized account of expenditures of such assistance payments at such time as the court may deem advisable.

It is the intention of this section that the guardianship herein provided for shall be a special and limited guardianship solely for the purpose of safeguarding the assistance grants made to dependent children. Such guardianship shall terminate upon the termination of such assistance grant, or sooner on order of the court, upon good cause shown. [1963 c 228 § 21; 1961 c 206 § 1.]

74.12.260 Persons to whom grants shall be made—Proof of use for benefit of children. Aid to families with dependent children grants shall be made to persons specified in RCW 74.12.010 as amended or such others as the federal department of health, education and welfare shall recognize for the sole purposes of giving benefits to the children whose needs are included in the grant paid to such persons. The recipient of each aid to families with dependent children's grant shall be and hereby is required to present reasonable proof to the department of social and health services as often as may be required by the department that all funds received in the form of an aid to families with dependent child grant for the children represented in the grant are being spent for the benefit of the children. [1979 c 141 § 351; 1963 c 228 § 22.]

74.12.270 Protective payments subject to fair hearing and appeal procedure. The decision of the department that there is need for a protective payment because of the relative's inability to manage the assistance payment shall be subject to the provisions of RCW 74.08.070 and RCW 74.08.080. [1963 c 228 § 23.]

74.12.280 Rules and regulations for coordination of services. The department is hereby authorized to promulgate rules and regulations which will provide for coordination between the services provided pursuant to *RCW 74.12.130 and the services provided under the aid to families with dependent children program in order to provide welfare and related services which will best promote the welfare of such children and their families and conform with the provisions of Public Law 87-543 (HR 10606). [1963 c 228 § 24.]

*Reviser's note: "RCW 74.12.130" referred to above was repealed by 1965 c 30 § 5. For later enactment concerning child welfare services, see chapter 74.13 RCW.

74.12.290 Evaluation of suitability of home. The department of social and health services shall, during the initial and any subsequent determination of eligibility, evaluate the suitability of the home in which the dependent child lives, consideration to be given to physical care and supervision provided in the home; social, educational, and the moral atmosphere of the home as compared with the standards of the community; the child's physical and mental health and emotional security, special needs occasioned by the child's physical handicaps or illnesses, if any; the extent to which desirable factors outweigh the undesirable in the home; and the apparent possibility for improving undesirable conditions in the home. [1979 c 141 § 352; 1963 c 228 § 25.]

74.12.300 Grant during period required to eliminate undesirable conditions. If the home in which the child lives is found to be unsuitable, but there is reason to believe that elimination of the undesirable conditions can be effected, and the child is otherwise eligible for aid, a grant shall be initiated or continued for such time as the state department of social and health services and the family require to remedy the conditions. [1979 c 141 § 353; 1963 c 228 § 26.]

74.12.310 Placement of child with other relatives. When intensive efforts over a reasonable period have failed to improve the home conditions, the department shall determine if any other relatives specified by the social security act are maintaining a suitable home and are willing to take the care and custody of the child in their home. Upon an affirmative finding the department shall, if the parents or relatives with whom the child is living consent, take the necessary steps for placement of the child with such other relatives, but if the parents or relatives with whom the child lives refuse their consent to the placement then the department shall file a petition in the juvenile court for a decree adjudging the home unsuitable and placing the dependent child with such other relatives. [1963 c 228 § 27.]

74.12.320 Placement of child pursuant to chapter 13.04 RCW. If a diligent search reveals no other relatives as specified in the social security act maintaining a suitable home and willing to take custody of the child, then the department may file a petition in the appropriate juvenile court for placement of the child pursuant to the provisions of chapter 13.04 RCW. [1963 c 228 § 28.]

74.12.330 Assistance not to be denied for want of relative or court order. Notwithstanding the provisions of this chapter a child otherwise eligible for aid shall not be denied such assistance where a relative as specified in the social security act is unavailable or refuses to accept custody and the juvenile court fails to enter an order removing the child from the custody of the parent, relative or guardian then having custody. [1963 c 228 § 29.]

74.12.340 Day care. The department is authorized to promulgate rules and regulations governing the provision of day care as a part of child welfare services when the secretary determines that a need exists for such day care and that it is in the best interests of the child, the parents, or the custodial parent and in determining the need for such day care priority shall be given to geographical areas having the greatest need for such care and to members of low income groups in the population: Provided, That where the family is financially able to pay part or all of the costs of such care, fees shall be imposed and paid according to the financial ability of the family. [1973 1st ex.s. c 154 § 111; 1963 c 228 § 30.]

Child welfare services: Chapter 74.13 RCW.

74.12.350 Department may promulgate rules to allow child's income to be set aside for future needs. The department of social and health services is hereby authorized to promulgate rules and regulations in conformity with the provisions of Public Law 87–543 to allow all or any portion of a dependent child's earned or other income to be set aside for the identifiable future needs of the dependent child which will make possible the realization of the child's maximum potential as an independent and useful citizen. [1979 c 141 § 354; 1963 c 226 § 1.]

The department may set rules and regulations establishing additional procedures for dealing with severely disruptive children on the premises, which procedures are consistent with the federal juvenile justice and delinquency prevention act of 1974 and regulations and clarifying instructions promulgated thereunder. Nothing in this section shall prohibit a center from referring any child who, as the result of a mental or emotional disorder, or intoxication by alcohol or other drugs, is suicidal, seriously assaultive or seriously destructive toward others, or otherwise similarly evidences an immediate need for emergency medical evaluation and possible care, to a community mental health center pursuant to RCW 72.23.070 or to a mental health professional pursuant to chapter 71.05 RCW whenever such action is deemed appropriate and consistent with law.

(1) A child taken into custody and taken to a crisis residential center established pursuant to RCW 74.13.032(2) may, if the center is unable to provide appropriate treatment, supervision, and structure to the child, be taken at department expense to another crisis residential center or the nearest regional crisis residential center. Placement in both centers shall not exceed seventy-two hours from the point of intake as provided in RCW 13.32A.130.
(2) A child taken into custody and taken to a crisis residential center established by this chapter may be placed physically by the department or the department's designee and, at departmental expense and approval, in a secure juvenile detention facility operated by the county in which the center is located for a maximum of forty-eight hours, including Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, if the person in charge of the crisis residential center finds that the child is seriously assaultive or seriously destructive towards others and the center is unable to provide appropriate supervision and structure. Any child who takes unauthorized leave from the center, if the person in charge of the center cannot provide supervision and structure adequate to ensure that the child will not again take unauthorized leave, may be taken to a secure juvenile detention facility subject to the provisions of this section: Provided, That juveniles placed in such a facility pursuant to this section may not, to the extent possible, come in contact with alleged or convicted juvenile or adult offenders.

(3) Any child placed in secure detention pursuant to this section shall, during the period of confinement, be provided with appropriate treatment by the department or the department's designee, which shall include the services defined in RCW 74.13.033(2). If the child placed in secure detention is not returned home or if an alternative living arrangement agreeable to the parent and the child is not made within twenty-four hours after the child's admission, the child shall be taken at the department's expense to a crisis residential center. Placement in the crisis residential center or centers plus placement in juvenile detention shall not exceed seventy-two hours from the point of intake as provided in RCW 13.32A.130.

The secretary or his designees or delegates shall be the custodian without compensation of such moneys and other funds of any person which may come into the possession of the secretary during the period such person is placed with the department of social and health services pursuant to chapter 74.13 RCW. As such custodian, the secretary shall have authority to disburse moneys from the person's funds for the following purposes only and subject to the following limitations:

(1) The secretary may disburse any of the funds belonging to such person for such personal needs of such person as the secretary may deem proper and necessary.

(2) The secretary may apply such funds against the amount of public assistance otherwise payable to such person. This includes applying, as reimbursement, any benefits, payments, funds, or accrual paid to or on behalf of said person from any source against the amount of public assistance expended on behalf of said person during the period for which the benefits, payments, funds or accruals were paid.

(3) All funds held by the secretary as custodian may be deposited in a single fund, the receipts and expenditures therefrom to be accurately accounted for by him on an individual basis. Whenever, the funds belonging to any one person exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, the secretary may deposit said funds in a savings and loan association account on behalf of that particular person.

(4) When the conditions of placement no longer exist and public assistance is no longer being provided for such person, upon a showing of legal competency and proper authority, the secretary shall deliver to such person, or the parent, person, or agency legally responsible for such person, all funds belonging to the person remaining in his possession as custodian, together with a full and final accounting of all receipts and expenditures made therefrom.

(5) The appointment of a guardian for the estate of such person shall terminate the secretary's authority as custodian of said funds upon receipt by the secretary of a certified copy of letters of guardianship. ADOPTION SUPPORT DEMONSTRATION ACT OF 1971

74.13.100 State policy enunciated. It is the policy of this state to enable the secretary to charge fees for certain services to adoptive parents who are able to pay for such services.

It is, however, also the policy of this state that the secretary of the department of social and health services shall be liberal in waiving, reducing, or deferring payment of any such fee to the end that adoptions shall be encouraged in cases where prospective adoptive parents lack means.

It is the policy of this state to encourage, within the limits of available funds, the adoption of certain hard to place children in order to make it possible for children living in, or likely to be placed in, foster homes or institutions to benefit from the stability and security of permanent homes in which such children can receive continuous parental care, guidance, protection, and love and to reduce the number of such children who must be placed or remain in foster homes or institutions until they become adults.

It is also the policy of this state to try, by means of the program of adoption support authorized in RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145, to reduce the total cost to the state of foster home and institutional care. [1971 ex.s. c 63 § 1.]

74.13.103 Prospective adoptive parent's fee for cost of adoption services. When a child proposed for adoption is placed with a prospective adoptive parent the department may charge such parent a fee in payment or part payment of such adoptive parent's part of the cost of the adoption services rendered and to be rendered by the department.

In charging such fees the department shall treat a husband and wife as a single prospective adoptive parent.

Each such fee shall be fixed according to a sliding scale based on the ability to pay of the prospective adoptive parent or parents.

Such fee scale shall be annually fixed by the secretary after considering the recommendations of the committee designated by the secretary to advise him on child welfare and pursuant to the regulations to be issued by the secretary in accordance with the provisions of Title 34 RCW.

The secretary may waive, defer, or provide for payment in installments without interest of, any such fee whenever in his judgment payment or immediate payment would cause economic hardship to such adoptive parent or parents. [1981 Ed.]
Nothing in this section shall require the payment of a fee to the state of Washington in a case in which an adoption results from independent placement or placement by a licensed child-placing agency. [1971 ex.s. c 63 § 2.]

74.13.106 Disposition of Fees—Use—Federal funds—Gifts and grants. All fees paid for adoption services pursuant to RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145 shall be credited to the general fund. Expenses incurred in connection with supporting the adoption of hard to place children shall be paid by warrants drawn against such appropriations as may be available. The secretary may for such purposes, contract with any public agency or licensed child placing agency and/or adoptive parent and is authorized to accept funds from other sources including federal, private, and other public funding sources to carry out such purposes.

The secretary shall actively seek, where consistent with the policies and programs of the department, and shall make maximum use of, such federal funds as are or may be made available to the department for the purpose of supporting the adoption of hard to place children. The secretary may, if permitted by federal law, deposit federal funds for adoption support, aid to adoption, or subsidized adoption in the general fund and may use such funds, subject to such limitations as may be imposed by federal or state law, to carry out the program of adoption support authorized by RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145. [1979 ex.s. c 67 § 7; 1975 c 53 § 1; 1973 c 61 § 1; 1971 ex.s. c 63 § 3.] 74.13.109 Rules and regulations—Agreements for disbursements from appropriations available from the general fund, criteria. The secretary shall issue rules and regulations to assist in the administration of the program of adoption support authorized by RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145.

Disbursements from the appropriations available from the general fund shall be made pursuant to such rules and regulations and pursuant to agreements conforming thereto to be made by the secretary with parents for the purpose of supporting the adoption of children in, or likely to be placed in, foster homes or child caring institutions who are found by the secretary to be difficult to place in adoption because of physical or other reasons; including, but not limited to, physical or mental handicap, emotional disturbance, ethnic background, language, race, color, age, or sibling grouping.

Such agreements shall meet the following criteria:

(1) The child whose adoption is to be supported pursuant to such agreement shall be or have been a child hard to place in adoption.

(2) Such agreement must relate to a child who was or is residing in a foster home or child-caring institution or a child who, in the judgment of the secretary, is both eligible for, and likely to be placed in, either a foster home or a child-caring institution.

(3) Such agreement shall provide that adoption support shall not continue beyond the time that the adopted child reaches twenty-one years of age, becomes emancipated, dies, or otherwise ceases to need support, provided that if the secretary shall find that continuing dependency of such child after such child reaches twenty-one years of age warrants the continuation of support pursuant to RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145 the secretary may do so, subject to all the provisions of RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145, including annual review of the amount of such support.

(4) Any prospective parent who is to be a party to such agreement shall be a person who, while having the character, judgment, sense of responsibility, and disposition which make him or her suitable as an adoptive parent of such child, lacks the financial means fully to care for such hard to place child. [1979 ex.s. c 67 § 8; 1971 ex.s. c 63 § 4.]

74.13.112 Factors determining payments or adjustment in standards. The factors to be considered by the secretary in setting the amount of any payment or payments to be made pursuant to RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145 and in adjusting standards hereunder shall include: The size of the family including the adoptive child, the usual living expenses of the family, the special needs of any family member including education needs, the family income, the family resources and plan for savings, the medical and hospitalization needs of the family, the family's means of purchasing or otherwise receiving such care, and any other expenses likely to be needed by the child to be adopted.

The amounts paid for the support of a child pursuant to RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145 may vary from family to family and from year to year. Due to changes in economic circumstances or the needs of the child such payments may be discontinued and later resumed.

Payments under RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145 may be continued by the secretary subject to review as provided for herein, if such parent or parents having such child in their custody establish their residence in another state or a foreign jurisdiction.

In fixing the standards to govern the amount and character of payments to be made for the support of adopted children pursuant to RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145 and before issuing rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145, the secretary shall consider the comments and recommendations of the committee designated by the secretary to advise him with respect to child welfare. [1971 ex.s. c 63 § 5.]

74.13.115 Both continuing payments and lump sum payments authorized. To carry out the program authorized by RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145, the secretary may make continuing payments or lump sum payments of adoption support. In lieu of continuing payments, or in addition to them, the secretary may make one or more specific lump sum payments for... or on behalf of a hard to place child either to the adoptive parents or directly to other persons to assist in correcting any condition causing such child to be hard to place for adoption.

After determination by the secretary of the amount of a payment or the initial amount of continuing payments, the prospective parent or parents who desire such support shall sign an agreement with the secretary providing for the payment, in the manner and at the time or times prescribed in regulations to be issued by him subject to the provisions of RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145, of the amount or amounts of support so determined.

Payments shall be subject to review as provided in RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145. [1971 ex.s. c 63 § 6.]

74.13.118 Review of support payments

At least annually the secretary shall review the need of any adoptive parent or parents receiving continuing support pursuant to RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145, or the need of any parent who is to receive more than one lump sum payment where such payments are to be spaced more than one year apart. Such review shall be made not later than the anniversary date of the adoption support agreement.

At the time of such annual review and at other times during the year when changed conditions, including variations in medical opinions, prognosis and costs, are deemed by the secretary to warrant such action, appropriate adjustments in payments shall be made based upon changes in the needs of the child, in the adoptive parents' income, resources, and expenses for the care of such child or other members of the family, including medical and/or hospitalization expense not otherwise covered by or subject to reimbursement from insurance or other sources of financial assistance.

Any parent who is a party to such an agreement may at any time in writing request, for reasons set forth in such request, a review of the amount of any payment or the level of continuing payments. Such review shall be begun not later than thirty days from the receipt of such request. Any adjustment may be made retroactive to the date such request was received by the secretary. If such request is not acted on within thirty days after it has been received by the secretary, such parent may invoke his rights under the hearing provisions set forth in RCW 74.13.127. [1971 ex.s. c 63 § 7.]

74.13.121 Copy of adoptive parent's federal income tax return to be filed——Additional financial information

So long as any adoptive parent is receiving support pursuant to RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145 he shall, not later than two weeks after it is filed with the United States government, file with the secretary a copy of his federal income tax return. Such return and any information thereon shall be marked by the secretary "confidential", shall be used by the secretary solely for the purposes of RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145, and shall not be revealed to any other person, institution or agency, public or private, including agencies of the United States government, other than a superior court, judge or commissioner before whom a petition for adoption of a child being supported or to be supported pursuant to RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145 is then pending.

In carrying on the review process authorized by RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145 the secretary may require the adoptive parent or parents to disclose such additional financial information, not privileged, as may enable him to make determinations and adjustments in support to the end that the purposes and policies of this state expressed in RCW 74.13.100 may be carried out, provided that no adoptive parent or parents shall be obliged, by virtue of this section, to sign any agreement or other writing waiving any constitutional right or privilege nor to admit to his or her home any agent, employee, or official of any department of this state, or of the United States government.

Such information shall be marked "confidential" by the secretary, shall be used by him solely for the purposes of RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145, and shall not be revealed to any other persons, institution, or agency, public or private, including agencies of the United States government other than a superior court judge or commission before whom a petition for adoption of a child being supported or to be supported pursuant to RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145 is then pending. [1971 ex.s. c 63 § 8.]

74.13.124 Agreements as contracts within state and federal Constitutions——State's continuing obligation

An agreement for adoption support made pursuant to RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145, although subject to review and adjustment as provided for herein, shall, as to the standard used by the secretary in making such review or reviews and any such adjustment, constitutes a contract within the meaning of section 10, Article I of the United States Constitution and section 23, Article I of the state Constitution. For that reason once such an agreement has been made any review of and adjustment under such agreement shall as to the standards used by the secretary, be made only subject to the provisions of RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145 and such rules and regulations relating thereto as they exist on the date of the initial determination in connection with such agreement or such more generous standard or parts of such standard as may hereafter be provided for by law or regulation. Once made such an agreement shall constitute a solemn undertaking by the state of Washington with such adoptive parent or parents. The termination of the effective period of RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145 or a decision by the state or federal government to discontinue or reduce general appropriations made available for the purposes to be served by RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145, shall not affect the state's specific continuing obligations to support such adoptions, subject to such annual review and adjustment for all such agreements as have theretofore been entered into by the state.
The purpose of this section is to assure any such parent that, upon his consenting to assume the burdens of adopting a hard to place child, the state will not in future so act by way of general reduction of appropriations for the program authorized by RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145 or ratable reductions, to impair the trust and confidence necessarily reposed by such parent in the state as a condition of such parent taking upon himself the obligations of parenthood of a difficult to place child.

Should the secretary and any such adoptive parent differ as to whether any standard or part of a standard adopted by the secretary after the date of an initial agreement, which standard or part is used by the secretary in making any review and adjustment, is more generous than the standard in effect as of the date of the initial determination with respect to such agreement such adoptive parent may invoke his rights, including all rights of appeal under the fair hearing provisions, available to him under RCW 74.13.127. [1971 ex.s. c 63 § 9.]

74.13.127 Voluntary amendments to agreements—Procedure when adoptive parent dissents—Appeal. Voluntary amendments of any support agreement entered into pursuant to RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145 may be made at any time. In proposing any such amending action which relates to the amount or level of a payment or payments, the secretary shall, as provided in RCW 74.13.124, use either the standard which existed as of the date of the initial determination with respect to such agreement or any subsequent standard or parts of such standard which both parties to such agreement agree is more generous than those in effect as of the date of such initial agreement.

The secretary shall seek voluntary amendment of any such agreement before invoking the additional procedures provided for in this section.

Whenever the secretary, having found an adoptive parent declines to agree to a voluntary amendment, wishes to enter an order increasing or decreasing the level of a payment or payments for the support of an adoptive child under RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145, he shall notify the adoptive parent of the action the secretary proposed to take in writing by certified mail or personal service stating the grounds upon which the secretary proposes such action.

Within thirty days from the receipt of such notice the adoptive parent or parents may serve upon the official of the department sending such notice a written request for hearing. Service of a request for hearing shall be made by certified mail. Upon receiving a request for hearing, such officer shall fix a hearing date, which date shall be not later than thirty-five days from the receipt by him of such request for hearing. The matter shall be heard on such date or on such date to which the matter is continued by agreement of the parties. Such official shall also notify the committee designated by the secretary to advise him on child welfare of the filing of such request not less than twenty-five days before the hearing date. If the adoptive parent agrees, a member of such committee may attend the hearing.

If no request for hearing is made within the time specified, the proposed action shall be taken and the proposed action shall be deemed amended accordingly.

It shall be the duty of the secretary within thirty days after the date of the hearing to notify the appellant of the decision.

The secretary shall promulgate and publish rules governing the conduct of such hearings, including provision for confidentiality.

In all other respects such proceedings shall be conducted by the department pursuant to RCW 74.08.070 and regulations issued pursuant thereto. The adoptive parent shall have a right of appeal as provided in RCW 74.08.080. If the decision of the secretary or the superior court is made in favor of the appellant, adoption support shall be paid from the effective date of the action or decision appealed from.

Except as otherwise specifically provided for in this section the rules adopted by the secretary and the manner of carrying on the proceedings shall be in accord with the provisions of Title 34 RCW. [1971 ex.s. c 63 § 10.]

74.13.130 Attorney's fee in adoption proceeding. If the secretary determines that a prospective adoptive parent or parents cannot, because of limited financial means, pay the cost or the full cost of an adoption proceeding for the adoption of a hard to place child who would be eligible for support under RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145, the secretary may authorize the payment from the appropriations available from the general fund of all or part a reasonable attorney's fee to be determined by the superior court hearing the adoption and court costs. The clerk of the court shall furnish the secretary with a certified copy of the decree of adoption containing the finding as to such attorney's fee.

In evaluating any such prospective parent's ability to pay the secretary may use the same criteria for evaluating ability to pay which are to be used by him in waiving, reducing, or deferring fees pursuant to RCW 74.13.103 plus the burdens likely to be assumed by such parent even after adoption support is provided pursuant to RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145. [1979 ex.s. c 67 § 9; 1971 ex.s. c 63 § 11.]

74.13.133 Records—Confidentiality. The secretary shall keep such general records as are needed to evaluate the effectiveness of the program of adoption support authorized by RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145 in encouraging and effectuating the adoption of hard to place children. In so doing the secretary shall, however, maintain the confidentiality required by law with respect to particular adoptions. [1971 ex.s. c 63 § 13.]
74.13.136 Recommendations for support of the adoption of certain children. Any child-caring agency or person having a child in foster care or institutional care and wishing to recommend to the secretary support of the adoption of such child as provided for in RCW 26.32-.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145 may do so, and may include in its or his recommendation advice as to the appropriate level of support and any other information likely to assist the secretary in carrying out the functions vested in the secretary by RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145. Such agency may, but is not required to, be retained by the secretary to make the required preplacement study of the prospective adoptive parent or parents. [1971 ex.s. c 63 § 14.]

74.13.139 "Secretary" and "department" defined. As used in RCW 26.32.115 and 74.13.100 through 74.13.145 the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Secretary" means the secretary of the department of social and health services or his designee.

(2) "Department" means the department of social and health services. [1971 ex. s. c 63 § 15.]

74.13.200 Demonstration project for protection, care, and treatment of children who risk abuse or neglect. The department of social and health services shall conduct a two-year demonstration project for the purpose of contracting with an existing day care center to provide for the protection, care, and treatment of children who are at risk of being abused or neglected. The children who shall be served by this project shall range in age from birth to twenty-four months. The client population served shall not exceed thirty children at any one time. [1979 ex.s. c 248 § 1.]

74.13.210 Project day care center—Definition. For the purposes of RCW 74.13.200 through 74.13.230 "day care center" means an agency, other than a residence, which regularly provides care for children for any part of the twenty-four hour day. No day care center shall be located in a private family residence unless that portion of the residence to which the children have access is used exclusively for the children during the hours the center is in operation or is separate from the usual living quarters of the family. [1979 ex.s. c 248 § 2.]

74.13.220 Project services. The services provided through this project shall include:

(1) Transportation to and from the child's home;

(2) Daily monitoring of the child's physical and emotional condition;

(3) Developmentally oriented programs designed to meet the unique needs of each child in order to overcome the effects of parental abuse or neglect;

74.13.900 Severability—1965 c 30. If any provision of this chapter, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the chapter, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1965 c 30 § 6.]

Aid to dependent children: Chapter 74.12 RCW.

74.20.010 Purpose—Legislative intent—Chapter to be liberally construed. It is the responsibility of the state of Washington through the state department of social and health services to conserve the expenditure of public assistance funds, whenever possible, in order that such funds shall not be expended if there are private funds available or which can be made available by judicial process or otherwise to partially or completely meet the financial needs of the children of this state. The failure of parents to provide adequate financial support and care for their children is a major cause of financial dependency and a contributing cause of social delinquency.

The purpose of this chapter is to provide the state of Washington, through the department of social and health services, a more effective and efficient way to effect the support of dependent children by the person or persons who, under the law, are primarily responsible for such support and to lighten the heavy burden of the taxpayer, who in many instances is paying toward the support of dependent children while those persons primarily responsible are avoiding their obligations. It is the intention of the legislature that the powers delegated to the said department in this chapter be liberally construed to the end that persons legally responsible for the care and support of children within the state be required to assume their legal obligations in order to reduce the financial cost to the state of Washington in providing public assistance funds for the care of children. It is the intention of the legislature that the department provide sufficient staff to carry out the purposes of this chapter, chapter 74.20A RCW, the abandonment and nonsupport statutes, and any applicable federal support enforcement statute administered by the department. It is also the intention of the legislature that the staff responsible for support enforcement be encouraged to conduct their support enforcement duties with fairness, courtesy, and the highest professional standards. [1979 ex.s. c 171 § 24; 1979 c 141 § 364; 1963 c 206 § 1; 1959 c 322 § 2.]

74.20.020 Definitions. For the purposes of this chapter a dependent child shall mean a child who is in financial need as determined by the department pursuant to Title 74 RCW. [1963 c 206 § 2; 1959 c 322 § 3.]

74.20.040 Duty of department to enforce child support—Support enforcement services. Whenever the department of social and health services receives an application for public assistance on behalf of a child and it shall appear to the satisfaction of the department that said child has been abandoned by its parents or that the child and one parent have been abandoned by the other parent or that the parent or other person who has a responsibility for the care, support, or maintenance of such child has failed or neglected to give proper care or support to such child, the department shall take appropriate action under the provisions of this chapter, the abandonment or nonsupport statutes, or other appropriate statutes of this state to insure that such parent or other person responsible shall pay for the care, support, or maintenance of said dependent child.

The secretary may accept applications for support enforcement services on behalf of persons who are not recipients of public assistance and may take action as he deems appropriate to establish or enforce support obligations against persons owing a duty to pay support. Action may be taken under the provisions of chapter 74.20 RCW, the abandonment or nonsupport statutes, or other appropriate statutes of this state, including but not limited to remedies established in chapter 74.20A RCW, to establish and enforce said support obligations. The secretary may establish by regulation, such reasonable standards as he deems necessary to limit applications for support enforcement services. Said standards shall take into account the income, property, or other resources already available to support said person for whom a support obligation exists.

The secretary may charge a fee to compensate the department for services rendered in establishment of or enforcement of support obligations. This fee shall be agreed on in writing with the custodian or guardian of the person for whom a support obligation is owed, or that person if no custodian or guardian exists and shall be limited to not more than ten percent of any support money collected as a result of action taken by the secretary. The secretary shall by regulation establish reasonable fees for support enforcement services and said schedule of fees shall be made available to all applicants for support enforcement services. The secretary may, on showing of necessity, waive or defer any such fee. [1973 1st ex.s. c 183 § 1; 1971 ex.s. c 213 § 1; 1963 c 206 § 3; 1959 c 322 § 5.]

74.20.060 Cooperation by person having custody of child—Penalty. Any person having the care, custody or control of any dependent child or children who shall fail or refuse to cooperate with the department of social and health services, any prosecuting attorney or the attorney general in the course of administration of provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [1979 c 141 § 365; 1959 c 322 § 7.]

74.20.101 Payment of support moneys to support enforcement and collections unit—Notice—Effects of noncompliance. Whenever, as a result of any action, support money is paid by the person or persons responsible for support, such payment shall be paid through the support enforcement and collections unit of the state department of social and health services upon written notice by the department to the responsible person or to the clerk of the court, if appropriate, that the children for whom a support obligation exists are receiving public assistance or that the support debt has been assigned to the department.

After service on a responsible parent of a notice under this section or RCW 74.20A.040 or 74.20A.055, payment of moneys or in-kind providings for the support of the responsible parent's children which are not paid to the department shall not be credited against or set-off against any obligation to provide support which has been assigned to the department, whether the obligation has been determined by court order, or pursuant to RCW 74.20A.055, or is unliquidated. [1979 ex.s. c 171 § 13; 1973 1st ex.s. c 183 § 2; 1969 ex.s. c 173 § 16.]

74.20.160 Department may disclose information to internal revenue department. Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 74.04.060, upon approval of the department of health, education and welfare of the federal government, the department of social and health services may disclose to and keep the internal revenue department of the treasury of the United States advised of the names of all persons who are under legal obligation to support any dependent child or children and who are not doing so, to the end that the internal revenue department may have available to it the names of such persons for review in connection with income tax returns and claims of dependencies made by persons filing income tax returns. [1979 c 141 § 366; 1963 c 206 § 5; 1959 c 322 § 17.]

74.20.210 Attorney general may act under Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act pursuant to agreement with prosecuting attorney. The prosecuting attorney of any county except class AA counties may enter into an agreement with the attorney general whereby the duty to initiate petitions for support authorized under the provisions of chapter 26.21 RCW as it is now or hereafter amended (Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act) in cases where the petitioner has applied for or is receiving public assistance on behalf of a dependent child or children shall become the duty of the attorney general. Any such agreement may also provide that the attorney general has the duty to represent the petitioner in intercounty proceedings within the state initiated by the attorney general which involve a petition received from another county. Upon the execution of such agreement, the attorney general shall be empowered to exercise any and all powers of the prosecuting attorney in connection with said petitions. [1969 ex.s. c 173 § 14; 1963 c 206 § 6.]

74.20.220 Powers of department through the attorney general. In order to carry out its responsibilities imposed under this chapter, the state department of social and health services, through the attorney general, is hereby authorized to:

(1) Represent a dependent child or dependent children on whose behalf public assistance is being provided in obtaining any support order necessary to provide for his or their needs or to enforce any such order previously entered.

(2) Appear as a friend of the court in divorce and separate maintenance suits, or proceedings supplemental thereto, when either or both of the parties thereto are receiving public assistance, for the purpose of advising the court as to the financial interest of the state of Washington therein.

(3) Appear on behalf of the custodial parent of a dependent child or children on whose behalf public assistance is being provided, when so requested by such parent, for the purpose of assisting such parent in securing a modification of a divorce or separate maintenance decree wherein no support, or inadequate support, was given for such child or children: Provided, That the attorney general shall be authorized to so appear only where it appears to the satisfaction of the court that the parent is without funds to employ private counsel. If the parent does not request such assistance, or refuses it when offered, the attorney general may nevertheless appear as a friend of the court at any supplemental proceeding, and may advise the court of such facts as will show the financial interest of the state of Washington therein; but the attorney general shall not otherwise participate in the proceeding.

(4) If public assistance has been applied for or granted on behalf of a child of parents who are divorced or legally separated, the attorney general may apply to the superior court in such action for an order directing either parent or both to show cause:

(a) Why an order of support for the child should not be entered, or

(b) Why the amount of support previously ordered should not be increased, or

(c) Why the parent should not be held in contempt for his failure to comply with any order of support previously entered.

(5) Initiate any civil proceedings deemed necessary by the department to secure reimbursement from the parent or parents of minor dependent children for all moneys expended by the state in providing assistance or services to said children. [1979 c 141 § 367; 1973 1st ex.s. c 154 § 112; 1969 ex.s. c 173 § 15; 1963 c 206 § 7.]

74.20.230 Petition for support order by married parent with minor or legally adopted children who are receiving public assistance. Any married parent with minor children, natural or legally adopted children who is receiving public assistance may apply to the superior court of the county in which such parent resides or in which the spouse may be found for an order upon such spouse, if such spouse is the natural or adoptive mother or father of such children, to provide for such spouse's support and the support of such spouse's minor children by filing in such county a petition setting forth the facts and circumstances upon which such spouse relies for such order. If it appears to the satisfaction of the court that such parent is without funds to employ counsel, the state department of social and health services through the attorney general may file such petition on behalf of such parent. If satisfied that a just cause exists, the court shall direct that a citation issue to the other spouse requiring such spouse to appear at a time set by the court to show cause why an order of support should not be entered in the matter. [1973 1st ex.s. c 154 § 113; 1963 c 206 § 8.]

74.20.240 Petition for support order by married parent with minor or legally adopted children who are receiving public assistance—Order—Powers of court. (1) After the hearing of the petition for an order of support the court shall make an order granting or denying it and fixing, if allowed, the terms and amount of the support. (2) The court has the same power to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of testimony as in actions and suits, to make such decree or orders as are equitable in view of the circumstances of both parties and to punish violations thereof as other contempts are punished. [1963 c 206 § 9.]

74.20.250 Petition for support order by married parent with minor or legally adopted children who are receiving public assistance—Waiver of filing fees. The court may, upon satisfactory showing that the petitioner is without funds to pay the filing fee, order that the petition and other papers be filed without payment of the fee. [1963 c 206 § 10.]

74.20.260 Financial statements by parent whose absence is basis of application for public assistance. Any parent in the state whose absence is the basis upon which an application is filed for public assistance on behalf of a child shall be required to complete a statement, under oath, of his current monthly income, his total income over the past twelve months, the number of dependents for whom he is providing support, the amount he is contributing regularly toward the support of all children for whom application for such assistance is made, his current monthly living expenses and such other information as is pertinent to determining his ability to support his children. Such statement shall be provided upon demand made by the state department of social and health services or attorney general, and if assistance based upon such application is granted on behalf of such child, additional statements shall be filed annually thereafter with the state department of social and health services until such time as the child is no longer receiving such assistance. Failure to comply with this section shall constitute a misdemeanor. [1979 c 141 § 368; 1963 c 206 § 11.]

74.20.270 Scale of suggested minimum contributions. The state department of social and health services shall establish a scale of suggested minimum contributions to assist counties and courts in determining the amount that a parent should be expected to contribute toward the support of his child under this chapter. The scale shall include consideration of gross income, shall authorize an expense deduction for determining net income, shall designate other available resources to be considered, and shall specify the circumstances which should be considered in reducing such contributions on the basis of hardship.

The state department of social and health services shall accept and compile any pertinent and reliable information from any available source in order to establish such minimum scale of suggested contributions, and copies of the scale shall be made available to courts, county offices, prosecuting attorneys and, upon request, to any other state or county officer or agency engaged in the administration or enforcement of this chapter in any manner and attorneys admitted to practice in the state of Washington.

It is intended that the use of the scale formulated pursuant to this section be optional, and that no county, court, officer or agency be required to use said scale unless they so desire. [1979 c 141 § 369; 1963 c 206 § 12.]

74.20.280 Central unit for information and administration—Cooperation enjoined—Availability of records. The department is authorized and directed to establish a central unit to serve as a registry for the receipt of information, for answering interstate inquiries concerning deserting parents, to coordinate and supervise departmental activities in relation to deserting parents and to assure effective cooperation with law enforcement agencies.

To effectuate the purposes of this section, the secretary may request from state, county and local agencies all information and assistance as authorized by this chapter. All state, county and city agencies, officers and employees shall cooperate in the location of parents who have abandoned or deserted, or are failing to support, children receiving public assistance and shall on request supply the state department of social and health services with all information on hand relative to the location, income and property of such parents, notwithstanding any provision of law making such information confidential.

Any records established pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be available only to the attorney general, prosecuting attorneys, and courts having jurisdiction in support and/or abandonment proceedings or actions, or agencies in other states engaged in the enforcement of support of minor children as authorized by 74.20.300 Department exempt from fees relating to paternity or support. No filing or recording fees, court fees, or fees for making copies of documents shall be required from the state department of social and health services by any county clerk, county auditor, or other county officer for the filing of any actions or documents necessary to establish paternity or enforce or collect support moneys.

Filing fees shall also not be required of any prosecuting attorney or the attorney general for action to establish paternity or enforce or collect support moneys. [1979 ex.s. c 171 § 1; 1973 1st ex.s. c 183 § 3; 1963 c 206 § 15.]

Severability—1979 ex.s. c 171: "If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected." [1979 ex.s. c 171 § 28.]

74.20.310 Guardian not required in actions brought on behalf of state, child, or mother. The provisions of RCW 26.26.090 requiring appointment of a general guardian or guardian ad litem to represent the child in an action brought to determine the parent and child relationship do not apply to actions brought under chapter 26.26 RCW if:

(1) The action is brought by the attorney general on behalf of the department of social and health services, the child, or the natural mother; or

(2) The action is brought by any prosecuting attorney on behalf of the state, the child, or the natural mother when referral has been made to the prosecuting attorney by the department of social and health services requesting such action.

The court, on its own motion or on motion of a party, may appoint a guardian ad litem when necessary. [1979 ex.s. c 171 § 15.]

74.20.320 Custodian to remit support moneys when department has support obligation—Noncompliance, effect of, action authorized. Whenever a custodian of children, or other person, receives support moneys paid to them which moneys are paid in whole or in part in satisfaction of a support obligation which has been assigned to the department pursuant to 42 U.S.C. Sec. 602(A)(26)(a) or RCW 74.20.330 or to which the department is owed a debt pursuant to RCW 74.20A.030, the moneys shall be remitted to the department within eight days of receipt by the custodian or other person. If not so remitted the custodian or other person shall be indebted to the department as a support debt in an amount equal to the amount of the support money received and not remitted.

By not paying over the moneys to the department, a custodial parent or other person is deemed, without the necessity of signing any document, to have made an irrevocable assignment to the department of any support delinquency owed which is not already assigned to the department or to any support delinquency which may accrue in the future in an amount equal to the amount of support money retained. The department may utilize the collection procedures in chapter 74.20A RCW to collect the assigned delinquency to effect recoupment and satisfaction of the debt incurred by reason of the failure of the custodial parent or other person to remit.

The department is also authorized to make a set-off to effect satisfaction of the debt by deduction from support moneys in its possession or in the possession of any clerk of the court or other forwarding agent which are paid to the custodial parent or other person for the satisfaction of any support delinquency. Nothing in this section authorizes the department to make set-off as to current support paid during the month for which the payment is due and owing. [1979 ex.s. c 171 § 17.]

74.20.330 Payment of public assistance deemed assignment to department of rights to support—Department's options, limitations, duties. (1) Whenever public assistance is paid under this title, each applicant or recipient is deemed to have made assignment to the department of any rights to support from any other person the applicant or recipient may have in his or her own behalf or in behalf of any other family member for whom the applicant or recipient is applying for or receiving public assistance, including any rights which have accrued at the time the assignment is made. Payment of public assistance under this chapter operates as an assignment by operation of law.

(2) The department may, during the four months following the last month in which public assistance was paid, and thereafter if a nonassistance application for support enforcement services has been made under RCW 74.20.040, pay the family, from collections made on the delinquent support assigned, an amount equal to the monthly amount required by either the superior court order for support or the administrative order entered under RCW 74.20A.055. Nothing in this section shall be construed to permit the department to make such payments for months in which no collections have been made on the delinquent support assigned, nor is the department permitted to make payments for the support of one person from collections on the delinquent support assigned by a different person. The department has, upon making any such payment, by operation of law an additional assignment of the unpaid obligation owed for the month in which the payment is made. The department shall take action to collect the unpaid obligation to reimburse itself and/or the federal government for the payment made. [1979 ex.s. c 171 § 22.]

74.20.340 Employees' case workload standards—Reports to legislative committees. The department shall develop workload standards for each employee classification involved in support enforcement activities for each category of support enforcement cases. The department shall submit the workload standards and a preliminary forecast of the level of staffing required to meet the workload standards to the senate ways and means committee and the house of representatives revenue and appropriations committees six months before the regular legislative sessions and whenever this information is requested by the senate ways and means committee and the house of representatives revenue and appropriations committees. [1979 ex.s. c 171 § 25.]

74.20.350 Costs and attorneys' fees. In order to facilitate and ensure compliance with Title IV-D of the federal social security act, now existing or hereafter amended, wherein the state is required to undertake to establish paternity of such children as are born out of wedlock, the secretary of social and health services may pay the reasonable and proper fees of attorneys admitted to practice before the courts of this state, who are engaged in private practice for the purpose of maintaining custody of natural parent, and the child's representative or guardian ad litem, and shall not in any manner be, or be construed to be, in representation of the department of social and health services or the state of Washington, such representation being restricted to that provided pursuant to chapters 26.26 RCW on behalf of such children, to the end that parent and child relationships be determined and financial support obligations be established by superior court order. The secretary or the secretary's designee shall make the determination in each case as to which cases shall be referred for representation by such private attorneys. The secretary may advance, pay, or reimburse for payment of, such reasonable costs as may be attendant to an action under chapter 26.26 RCW. The representation by a private attorney shall be on behalf of the subject child, the custodial natural parent, and the child's personal representative or guardian ad litem, and shall not in any manner be, or be construed to be, in representation of the department of social and health services or the state of Washington, such representation being restricted to that provided pursuant to chapters 43.10 and 36.27 RCW. [1979 ex.s. c 171 § 19.]

Severability—1979 ex.s. c 171: See note following RCW 74.20.300.

74.20A.010 Purpose—Remedies additional. Common law and statutory procedures governing the remedies for enforcement of support for financially dependent minor children by responsible parents have not proven sufficiently effective or efficient to cope with the increasing incidence of financial dependency. The increasing workload of courts, prosecuting attorneys, and the attorney general has made such remedies uncertain, slow and inadequate, thereby resulting in a growing burden on the financial resources of the state, which is constrained to provide public assistance grants for basic maintenance requirements when parents fail to meet their primary obligations. The state of Washington, therefore, exercising its police and sovereign power, declares that the common law and statutory remedies pertaining to family desertion and nonsupport of minor dependent children shall be augmented by additional remedies directed to the real and personal property resources of the responsible parents. In order to render resources more immediately available to meet the needs of minor children, it is the legislative intent that the remedies herein provided are in addition to, and not in lieu of, existing law. It is declared to be the public policy of this state that this chapter be construed and administered to the end that children shall be maintained from the resources of responsible parents, thereby relieving, at least in part, the burden presently borne by the general citizenry through welfare programs. [1971 ex.s. c 164 § 1.]

74.20A.020 Definitions. Unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context, the following words and phrases as hereinafter used in this chapter shall have the following meanings:

Severability—1979 ex.s. c 171: See note following RCW 74.20.300.

74.20A.030 Department subrogated to rights for support—No collection from parents on public assistance or those with developmentally disabled children. The department shall be subrogated to the right of any dependent child or children or person having the care, custody, and control of said child or children, if public assistance money is paid to or for the benefit of the child, to prosecute or maintain any support action or execute any administrative remedy existing under the laws of the state of Washington to obtain reimbursement of moneys expended, based on the support obligation of the responsible parent established by a superior court order or RCW 26.16.205.

No collection shall be made from a parent or other person who is the recipient of public assistance moneys while such person or persons are in such status.

No collection action shall be taken against parents of children eligible for admission to, or children who have been released from, a state school for the developmentally disabled as defined by chapter 72.33 RCW. [1979 ex.s. c 171 § 4; 1979 c 141 § 371; 1973 1st ex.s. c 183 § 4; 1971 ex.s. c 164 § 3.]

Severability—1979 ex.s. c 171: See note following RCW 74.20.300.

74.20A.040 Notice of support debt based upon subrogation to or assignment of judgment—Service or mailing—Contents—Action on, when. The secretary may issue a notice of a support debt accrued and/or accruing based upon subrogation to or assignment of the judgment created by a superior court order. Said notice may be served upon the debtor in the manner prescribed for the service of a summons in a civil action or be mailed to the debtor at his last known address by certified mail, return receipt requested, demanding payment within twenty days of the date of receipt. Said notice of debt shall include a statement of the support debt accrued and/or accruing, computable on the amount required to be paid under any superior court order to which the department is subrogated or has an assigned interest; a statement that the property of the debtor is subject to collection action; a statement that the property is subject to lien and foreclosure, distraint, seizure and sale, or order to withhold and deliver; and a statement that the net proceeds will be applied to the satisfaction of the support debt. Action to collect said subrogated or assigned support debt by lien and foreclosure, or distraint, seizure and sale, or order to withhold and deliver shall be lawful after twenty days from the date of service upon the debtor or twenty days from the receipt or refusal by the debtor of said notice of debt. [1979 ex.s. c 183 § 5; 1971 ex.s. c 164 § 4.]

74.20A.055 Notice and finding of financial responsibility of responsible parent—Service—Hearing—Decisions—"Need" defined. (1) The secretary may, in the absence of a superior court order, serve on the responsible parent or parents a notice and finding of financial responsibility requiring a responsible parent or parents to appear and show cause in a hearing held by the department why the finding of responsibility and/or the amount thereof is incorrect, should not be finally ordered, but should be rescinded or modified. This notice and finding shall relate to the support debt accrued and/or accruing under this chapter and/or RCW 26.16.205, including periodic payments to be made in the future for such period of time as the child or children of said responsible parent or parents are in need. Said hearing shall be held pursuant to RCW 74.20A.055, chapter 34.04 RCW, and the rules and regulations of the department, which shall provide for a fair hearing.

(2) The notice and finding of financial responsibility shall be served in the same manner prescribed for the service of a summons in a civil action or may be served on the responsible parent by certified mail, return receipt requested. The receipt shall be prima facie evidence of service. The notice shall be served upon the debtor within sixty days from the date the state assumes responsibility for the support of the dependent child or children on whose behalf support is sought. If the notice [Title 74 RCW—p 54]
is not served within sixty days from such date, the department shall lose the right to reimbursement of payments made after the sixty-day period and before the date of notification: Provided, That if the department exercises reasonable efforts to locate the debtor and is unable to do so the entire sixty-day period is tolled until such time as the debtor can be located. Any responsible parent who objects to all or any part of the notice and finding shall have the right for not more than twenty days from the date of service to request in writing a hearing, which request shall be served upon the department by registered or certified mail or personally. If no such request is made, the notice and finding of responsibility shall become final and the debt created therein shall be subject to collection action as authorized under this chapter. If a timely request is made, the execution of notice and finding of responsibility shall be stayed pending the decision on such hearing. If no timely written request for a hearing has previously been made, the responsible parent may petition the secretary or the secretary's designee at any time for a hearing as provided for in this section upon a showing of good cause for the failure to make a timely request for hearing. The filing of the petition for a hearing after the twenty-day period shall not affect any collection action previously taken under this chapter. The granting of a request for the hearing shall operate as a stay on any future collection action, pending the final decision of the secretary or the secretary's designee on the hearing. Moneys withheld as a result of collection action in effect at the time of the granting of the request for the hearing shall be delivered to the department and shall be held in trust by the department pending the final order of the secretary or during the pendency of any appeal to the courts made under chapter 34.04 RCW. The department may petition the hearing examiner to set temporary current and future support to be paid beginning with the month in which the petition for an untimely hearing is granted. The hearing examiner shall order payment of temporary current and future support if appropriate in an amount determined pursuant to the scale of suggested minimum contributions adopted under RCW 74.20.270. In the event the responsible parent does not make payment of the temporary current and future support as ordered by the hearing examiner, the department may take collection action pursuant to chapter 74.20A RCW during the pendency of the hearing or thereafter to collect any amounts owing under the order. Temporary current and future support paid, or collected, during the pendency of the hearing or appeal shall be disbursed to the custodial parent or as otherwise appropriate when received by the department. If the final decision of the department, or of the courts on appeal, is that the department has collected from the responsible parent other than temporary current or future support, an amount greater than such parent's past support debt, the department shall promptly refund any such excess amount to such parent.

(3) Hearings may be held in the county of residence or other place convenient to the responsible parent. Any such hearing shall be a "contested case" as defined in RCW 34.04.010. The notice and finding of financial responsibility shall set forth the amount the department has determined the responsible parent owes, the support debt accrued and/or accruing, and periodic payments to be made in the future for such period of time as the child or children of the responsible parent are in need, all computable on the basis of the need alleged. The notice and finding shall also include a statement of the name of the recipient or custodian and the name of the child or children for whom need is alleged; and/or a statement of the amount of periodic future support payments as to which financial responsibility is alleged.

(4) The notice and finding shall include a statement that the responsible parent may object to all or any part of the notice and finding, and request a hearing to show cause why said responsible parent should not be determined to be liable for any or all of the debt, past and future.

The notice and finding shall include a statement that, if the responsible parent fails in timely fashion to request a hearing, the support debt and payments stated in the notice and finding, including periodic support payments in the future, shall be assessed and determined and ordered by the department and that this debt shall be subject to collection action; a statement that the property of the debtor, without further advance notice or hearing, will be subject to lien and foreclosure, distraint, seizure and sale, or order to withhold and deliver to satisfy the debt.

(5) If a hearing is requested, it shall be promptly scheduled, in no more than thirty days. The hearing, including a hearing on prospective modification, shall be conducted by a duly qualified hearing examiner appointed for that purpose.

After evidence has been presented at hearings conducted by the hearing examiner, the hearing examiner shall enter an initial decision and order which shall be in writing and shall contain findings and conclusions as to each contested issue of fact and law, as well as the order based thereon. The hearing examiner shall file the original of the initial decision and order, signed by the hearing examiner, with the secretary or the secretary's designee. Copies of the initial decision and order shall be mailed by the hearing examiner to the department and to the appellant by certified mail to the last known address of each party. Within thirty days of filing, either the appellant or the department may file with the secretary or the secretary's designee a written petition for review of the initial decision and order. The petition for review shall set forth in detail the basis for the requested review and shall be mailed by the petitioning party to the other party by certified or registered mail to the last known address of the party.

The petition shall be based on any of the following causes materially affecting the substantial rights of the petitioner:

(a) Irregularity in the proceedings of the hearing examiner or adverse party, or any order of the hearing examiner, or abuse of discretion, by which the moving party was prevented from having a fair hearing;

(b) Misconduct of the prevailing party;

(c) Accident or surprise which ordinary prudence could not have guarded against;

(d) Newly discovered evidence, material for the party making the application, which the party could not with reasonable diligence have discovered and produced at the hearing;

(e) That there is no evidence or reasonable inference from the evidence to justify the decision, or that it is contrary to law;

(f) Error in mathematical computation;

(g) Error in law occurring at the hearing and objected to at the time by the party making the application;

(h) That the moving party is unable to perform according to the terms of the order without further clarification;

(i) That substantial justice has not been done;

(j) Fraud or misstatement of facts by any witness, which materially affects the debt;

(k) Clerical mistakes in the decision arising from oversight or omission; or

(l) That the decision and order entered because the responsible parent failed to appear at the hearing should be vacated and the matter be remanded for a hearing upon showing of the grounds enumerated in RCW 4.72.010 or superior court civil rule 60.

In the event no petition for review is made as provided in this subsection by any party, the initial decision and order of the hearing examiner is final as of the date of filing and becomes the decision and order of the secretary. No appeal may be taken therefrom to the courts and the debt created is subject to collection action as authorized by this chapter.

After the receipt of a petition for review, the secretary or the secretary's designee shall consider the initial decision and order, the petition or petitions for review, the record or any part thereof, and such additional evidence and argument as the secretary or the secretary's designee may in his or her discretion allow. The secretary or the secretary's designee may remand the proceedings to the hearing examiner for additional evidence or argument. The secretary or the secretary's designee may deny review of the initial decision and order and thereupon deny the petition or petitions at which time the initial decision and order shall be final as of the date of the denial and all parties shall forthwith be notified, in writing, of the denial, by certified mail to the last known address of the parties. Unless the petition is denied, the secretary or the secretary's designee shall review the initial decision and order and shall make the final decision and order of the department. The final decision and order shall be in writing and shall contain findings of fact and conclusions of law as to each contested issue of fact and law. A copy of the decision and order, including the findings and conclusions, shall be mailed to each party to the appeal by certified mail to the last known address of the party. The decision and order shall authorize collection action, as appropriate, under this chapter.

(6) The hearing examiner in his or her initial decision, or the secretary or the secretary's designee in review of the initial decision, shall determine the past liability and responsibility, if any, of the alleged responsible parent and shall also determine the amount of periodic payments to be made in the future, which amount is not limited by the amount of any public assistance payment made to or for the benefit of the child. In making these determinations, the hearing examiner, and the secretary or the secretary's designee, shall include in his or her considerations:

(a) All earnings and income resources of the responsible parent, including real and personal property;

(b) The earnings potential of the responsible parent;

(c) The reasonable necessities of the responsible parent;

(d) The ability of the responsible parent to borrow;

(e) The needs of the child for whom the support is sought;

(f) The amount of assistance which would be paid to the child under the full standard of need of the state's public assistance plan;

(g) The existence of other dependents; and

(h) That the child, for whom support is sought, benefits from the income and resources of the responsible parent on an equitable basis in comparison with any other minor children of the responsible parent.

If the responsible parent fails to appear at the hearing, upon a showing of valid service, the hearing examiner shall enter an initial decision and order declaring the support debt and payment provisions stated in the notice and finding of financial responsibility to be assessed and determined and subject to collection action. Within thirty days of entry of said decision and order, the responsible parent may petition the secretary or the secretary's designee to vacate said decision and order upon a showing of any of the grounds enumerated in RCW 4.72.010 or superior court civil rule 60.

(7) The final decision entered pursuant to this section shall be entered as a decision and order and shall limit the support debt to the amounts stated in said decision: Provided, That said decision establishing liability and/or future periodic support payments shall be superseded upon entry of a superior court order for support to the extent the superior court order is inconsistent with the hearing order or decision: Provided further, That in the absence of a superior court order, either the responsible parent or the department may petition the secretary or his designee for issuance of an order to appear and show cause based on a showing of good cause and material change of circumstances, to require the other party to appear and show cause why the decision previously entered should not be prospectively modified. Said order to appear and show cause together with a copy of the petition and affidavit upon which the order is based shall be served in the manner of a summons in a civil action or by certified mail, return receipt requested, on the other party by the petitioning party. A hearing shall be set not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days from the date of service, unless extended for good cause shown. Prospective modification may be ordered, but only upon a showing of good cause and material change of circumstances. The decision and order for prospective modification entered by the hearing examiner shall be an initial decision subject to review by the secretary or the secretary's designee as provided for in this section.

(8) The hearing examiner, in making the initial decision and the secretary or the secretary's designee in the final decision determining liability and/or future periodic support payments, shall consider the standards promulgated pursuant to RCW 74.20.270 and any standards for determination of support payments used by the superior court of the county of residence of the responsible parent.

(9) Debts determined pursuant to this section, accrued and not paid, are subject to collection action under this chapter without further necessity of action by the hearing examiner, or the secretary or secretary's designee.

(10) "Need" as used in this section shall mean the necessary costs of food, clothing, shelter, and medical attendance for the support of a dependent child or children. The amount determined by reference to the schedule of suggested minimum contributions adopted under RCW 74.20.270, based on the earnings, resources, and property of the alleged responsible parent, shall be a rebuttable presumption of the alleged responsible parent's ability to pay and the need of the family: Provided, That such responsible parent shall be presumed to have no ability to pay child support under this chapter from any income received from aid to families with dependent children, supplemental security income, or continuing general assistance. [1979 ex.s. c 171 § 12; 1973 1st ex.s. c 183 § 25.]

74.20A.060 Assertion of lien—Effect. Twenty-one days after receipt or refusal of notice of debt under provisions of RCW 74.20A.040, or twenty-one days after service of notice and finding of financial responsibility, or as otherwise appropriate under RCW 74.20A.055, or as appropriate under RCW 74.20A.270 a lien may be asserted by the secretary upon the real or personal property of the debtor. The claim of the department for a support debt, not paid when due, shall be a lien against all property of the debtor with priority of a secured creditor. This lien shall be separate and apart from, and in addition to, any other lien created by, or provided for, in this title. The lien shall attach to all real and personal property of the debtor on the date of filing of such statement with the county auditor of the county in which such property is located. A lien against earnings shall attach and be effective subject to service requirements of RCW 74.20A.070 upon filing with the county auditor of the county in which the employer does business or maintains an office or agent for the purpose of doing business.

Whenever a support lien has been filed and there is in the possession of any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state having notice of said lien any property which may be subject to the support lien, such property shall not be paid over, released, sold, transferred, encumbered or conveyed, except as provided for by the exemptions contained in RCW 74.20A.090 and 74.20A.130, unless a written release or waiver signed by the secretary has been delivered to said person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state or unless a determination has been made in a fair hearing pursuant to RCW 74.20A.055 or by a superior court ordering release of said support lien on the basis that no debt exists or that the debt has been satisfied. [1979 ex.s. c 171 § 5; 1973 1st ex.s. c 183 § 7; 1971 ex.s. c 164 § 6.]

74.20A.070 Service of lien. The secretary may at any time after filing of a support lien serve a copy of said lien upon any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state in possession of earnings, or deposits or balances held in any bank account of any nature which are due, owing, or belonging to said debtor. Said support lien shall be served upon the person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state either in the manner prescribed for the service of summons in a civil action or by certified mail, return receipt requested. No lien filed under RCW 74.20A.060 shall have any effect against earnings or bank deposits or balances unless it states the amount of the support debt accrued and unless service upon said person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state in possession of earnings or bank accounts, deposits or balances is accomplished pursuant to this section. [1973 1st ex.s. c 183 § 8; 1971 ex.s. c 164 § 7.]

Civil procedure—Commencement of actions: Chapter 4.28 RCW.

74.20A.080 Order to withhold and deliver—Issue and service—Contents—Effect—Delivery of property—Bond to release—Copy of order to be mailed or served. After service of a notice of debt as provided for in RCW 74.20A.040 stating a support debt accrued and/or accruing based upon subrogation to or assignment of the amount required to be paid under any superior court order or twenty-one days after service of the notice and finding of financial responsibility or as otherwise appropriate under RCW 74.20A.055, or as appropriate under RCW 74.20A.270, the secretary is hereby authorized to issue to any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state, an order to withhold and deliver property of any kind including, but not restricted to, earnings which are due, owing, or belonging to the debtor, when the secretary has reason to believe that there is in the possession of such person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state property which is due, owing, or belonging to said debtor. The order to withhold and deliver shall state the amount of the support debt accrued, and shall state in summary the terms of RCW 74.20A.090 and 74.20A.100. The order to withhold and deliver shall be served in the manner prescribed for the service of a summons in a civil action or by certified mail, return receipt requested. Any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state upon whom service has been made is hereby required to answer said order to withhold and deliver within twenty days, exclusive of the day of service, under oath and in writing, and shall make true answers to the matters inquired of therein. The secretary may require further and additional answers to be completed by the person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state. In the event there is in the possession of any such person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state any property which may be subject to the claim of the department of social and health services, such property shall be withheld immediately upon receipt of the order to withhold and deliver and shall, after the twenty day period, upon demand, be delivered forthwith to the secretary. The secretary shall hold said property in trust for application on the indebtedness in the claim of the department of social and health services, and shall defend and hold harmless for such actions persons withholding money or property pursuant to this chapter. The state also warrants and represents that it shall defend and hold harmless for such actions persons withholding money or property pursuant to this chapter. The foregoing is subject to the exemptions contained in RCW 74.20A.090.

The secretary shall also, on or before the date of service of the order to withhold and deliver, mail or cause to be mailed by certified mail a copy of the order to withhold and deliver to the debtor at the debtor’s last known post office address, or, in the alternative, a copy of the order to withhold and deliver shall be served on the debtor in the same manner as a summons in a civil action on or before the date of service of the order or within two days thereafter. The copy of the order shall be mailed or served together with a concise explanation of the right to petition for a hearing. This requirement is not jurisdictional, but, if the copy is not mailed or served as in this section provided, or if any irregularity appears with respect to the mailing or service, the superior court, in its discretion on motion of the debtor promptly made and supported by affidavit showing that the debtor has suffered substantial injury due to the failure to mail the copy, may set aside the order to withhold and deliver and award to the debtor an amount equal to the damages resulting from the secretary’s failure to serve on or mail to the debtor the copy. [1979 ex.s. c 171 § 10; 1973 1st ex.s. c 183 § 9; 1971 ex.s. c 164 § 8.]

74.20A.090 Certain amount of earnings exempt from lien or order—"Earnings" and "disposable earnings" defined. Whenever a support lien or order to withhold and deliver is served upon any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state asserting a support debt against earnings and there is in the possession of such person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision, or department of the state, any such earnings, RCW 73.33.280 shall not apply, but fifty percent of the disposable earnings shall be exempt and may be disbursed to the debtor whether such earnings are paid, or to be paid weekly, monthly, or at other intervals and whether there be due the debtor earnings for one week or for a longer period. The lien or order to withhold and deliver shall continue to operate and require said person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision, or department of the state to withhold the nonexempt portion of earnings at each succeeding earnings disbursement interval until the entire amount of the support debt stated in the lien or order to withhold and deliver has been withheld. As used in this chapter, the term "earnings" means compensation paid or payable for personal services, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise, and, notwithstanding any other provision of law making such payments exempt from garnishment, attachment, or other process to satisfy support obligation, specifically includes periodic payments pursuant to pension or retirement programs, or insurance policies of any type, but does not include payments made under Title 50 or 74 RCW. Earnings shall specifically include all gain derived from capital, from labor, or from both combined, not including profit gained through sale or conversion of capital assets. The term "disposable earnings" means that part of the earnings of any individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of any amount required by law to be withheld. [1979 ex.s. c 171 § 10; 1973 1st ex.s. c 183 § 10; 1971 ex.s. c 164 § 9.]

Severability—1979 ex.s. c 171: See note following RCW 74.20.300.

74.20A.100 Civil liability upon failure to comply with order or lien. Should any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state fail to make answer to an order to withhold and deliver within the time prescribed herein; or fail or refuse to deliver property pursuant to said order; or after actual notice of filing of a support lien, pay over, release, sell, transfer, or convey real or personal property subject to a support lien to or for the benefit of the debtor or any other person; or fail or refuse to surrender upon demand property distrained under RCW 74.20A.130 or fail or refuse to honor an assignment of wages presented by the secretary, said person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state shall be liable to the department in an amount equal to one hundred percent of the value of the debt which is the basis of the lien, order to withhold and deliver, distraint, or assignment of wages, together with costs, interest, and reasonable attorney fees. [1973 1st ex.s. c 183 § 11; 1971 ex.s. c 164 § 10.]

74.20A.110 Release of excess to debtor. Whenever any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state has in its possession earnings, deposits, accounts, or balances in excess of the amount of the debt claimed by the department, such person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state may, without liability under this chapter, release said excess to the debtor. [1979 ex.s. c 171 § 7; 1971 ex.s. c 164 § 11.]

74.20A.120 Banks, savings and loan associations, service effective only as to branch office served. In the case of a bank, bank association, mutual savings bank, or savings and loan association maintaining branch offices, service of a lien or order to withhold and deliver or any other notice or document authorized by this chapter shall only be effective as to the accounts, credits, or other personal property of the debtor in the particular branch upon which service is made. [1971 ex.s. c 164 § 12.]

74.20A.130 Distraint, seizure and sale of property subject to liens under RCW 74.20A.060, procedure. Whenever a support lien has been filed pursuant to RCW 74.20A.060, the secretary may collect the support debt stated in said lien by the distraint, seizure, and sale of the property subject to said lien. The secretary shall give notice to the debtor and any person known to have or claim an interest therein of the general description of the property to be sold and the time and place of sale of said property. Said notice shall be given to such persons by certified mail, return receipt requested or by service in the manner prescribed for the service of a summons in a civil action. A notice specifying the property to be sold shall be posted in at least two public places in the county wherein the distraint has been made. The time of sale shall not be less than ten nor more than twenty days from the date of posting of such notices. Said sale shall be conducted by the secretary, who shall proceed to sell such property by parcel or by lot at a public auction, and who may set a minimum reasonable price to include the expenses of making a levy and of advertising the sale, and if the amount bid for such property at the sale is not equal to the price so fixed, the secretary may declare such property to be purchased by the department for such price, or may conduct another sale of such property pursuant to the provisions of this section. In the event of sale, the debtor’s account shall be credited with the amount for which the property has been sold. Property acquired by the department as herein prescribed may be sold by the secretary at public or private sale, and the amount realized shall be placed in the state general fund to the credit of the department of social and health services. In all cases of sale, as aforesaid, the secretary shall issue a bill of sale or a deed to the purchaser and said bill of sale or deed shall be prima facie evidence of the right of the secretary to make such sale and conclusive evidence of the regularity of his proceeding in making the sale, and shall transfer to the purchaser all right, title, and interest of the debtor in said property. The proceeds of any such sale, except in those cases wherein the property has been acquired by the department, shall be first applied by the secretary to reimbursement of the costs of distraint and sale, and thereafter in satisfaction of the delinquent account. Any excess which shall thereafter remain in the hands of the secretary shall be refunded to the debtor. Sums so refundable to a debtor may be subject to seizure or distraint by any taxing authority of the state or its political subdivisions or by the secretary for new sums due and owing subsequent to the subject proceeding. Except as specifically provided in this chapter, there shall be exempt from distraint, seizure, and sale under this chapter such property as is exempt therefrom under the laws of this state. [1973 1st ex.s. c 183 § 12; 1971 ex.s. c 164 § 13.]

74.20A.140 Action for foreclosure of support lien—Satisfaction. Whenever a support lien has been filed, an action in foreclosure of lien upon real or personal property may be brought in the superior court of the county where real or personal property is or was located and the lien was filed and judgment shall be rendered in favor of the department for the amount due, with costs, and the court shall allow, as part of the costs, the moneys paid for making and filing the claim of lien, and a reasonable attorney’s fee, and the court shall order any property upon which any lien provided for by this chapter is established, to be sold by the sheriff of the proper county to satisfy the lien and costs. The payment of the lien debt, costs and reasonable attorney fees, at any time before sale, shall satisfy the judgment of foreclosure. Where the net proceeds of sale upon application to the court are judgment over for any deficiency remaining unsatisfied and further levy and sales upon other property of the judgment debtor may be made under the same execution. In all sales contemplated under this section, advertising of notice shall only be necessary for two weeks in a newspaper published in the county where said property is located, and if there be no newspaper therein, then in the most convenient newspaper having a circulation in such county. Remedies provided herein are alternatives to remedies provided for in other sections of this chapter. [1973 1st ex.s. c 183 § 13; 1971 ex.s. c 164 § 14.]

74.20A.150 Satisfaction of lien after foreclosure proceedings instituted—Redemption. Any person owning real property, or any interest in real property, against which a support lien has been filed and foreclosure instituted, shall have the right to pay the amount due, together with expenses of the proceedings and reasonable attorney fees to the secretary and upon such payment the secretary shall restore said property to him.
and all further proceedings in the said foreclosure action shall cease. Said person shall also have the right within two hundred forty days after sale of property foreclosed under RCW 74.20A.140 to redeem said property by making payment to the purchaser in the amount paid by the purchaser plus interest thereon at the rate of six percent per annum. [1973 1st ex.s. c 183 § 14; 1971 ex.s. c 164 § 15.]

74.20A.160 Secretary may set debt payment schedule, release funds in certain hardship cases. With respect to any arrearages on a support debt assessed under RCW 74.20A.040, 74.20A.055, or 74.20A.270, the secretary may at any time consistent with the income, earning capacity and resources of the debtor, set or reset a level and schedule of payments to be paid upon the debt. The secretary may, upon petition of the debtor providing sufficient evidence of hardship, after consideration of the standards established in RCW 74.20.270, release or refund moneys taken pursuant to RCW 74.20A.080 to provide for the reasonable necessities of the responsible parent or parents and minor children in the home of the responsible parent. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the secretary to take any action which would require collection of less than the obligation for current support required under a superior court order or an administrative order or to take any action which would result in a bar of collection of arrearages from the debtor by reason of the statute of limitations. [1979 ex.s. c 171 § 8; 1971 ex.s. c 164 § 16.]

74.20A.170 Secretary may release lien or order or return seized property—Effect. The secretary may at any time release a support lien, or order to withhold and deliver, on all or part of the property of the debtor, or return seized property without liability, if assurance of payment is deemed adequate by the secretary, or if said action will facilitate the collection of the debt, but said release or return shall not operate to prevent future action to collect from the same or other property. [1973 1st ex.s. c 183 § 15; 1971 ex.s. c 164 § 17.]

74.20A.180 Secretary may make demand, file and serve liens, when payments appear in jeopardy. If the secretary finds that the collection of any support debt based upon subrogation to or assignment of the amount of support ordered by any superior court order is in jeopardy, he may make demand under RCW 74.20A.040 for immediate payment of the support debt, and upon failure or refusal immediately to pay said support debt, he may file and serve liens pursuant to RCW 74.20A.060 and 74.20A.070, without regard to the twenty day period provided for in RCW 74.20A.040: Provided, That no further action under RCW 74.20A.080, 74.20A.130 and 74.20A.140 may be taken until the notice requirements of RCW 74.20A.040 are met. [1973 1st ex.s. c 183 § 16; 1971 ex.s. c 164 § 18.]

74.20A.190 Interest on debts due—Waiver. Interest of six percent per annum on any support debt due and owing to the department under RCW 74.20A.030 may be collected by the secretary. No provision of this chapter shall be construed to require the secretary to maintain interest balance due accounts and said interest may be waived by the secretary, if said waiver would facilitate the collection of the debt. [1973 1st ex.s. c 183 § 17; 1971 ex.s. c 164 § 19.]

74.20A.200 Judicial relief after administrative remedies exhausted. Any person against whose property a support lien has been filed or an order to withhold and deliver has been served pursuant to this chapter may apply for relief to the superior court of the county wherein the property is located on the basis that no support debt is due and owing. It is the intent of this chapter that jurisdictional and constitutional issues, if any, shall be subject to review, but that administrative remedies be exhausted prior to judicial review. [1979 ex.s. c 171 § 9; 1973 1st ex.s. c 183 § 18; 1971 ex.s. c 164 § 20.]

74.20A.220 Charging off child support debts as uncollectible—Compromise—Waiver of any bar to collection. Any support debt due the department from a responsible parent which the secretary deems uncollectible may be transferred from accounts receivable to a suspense account and cease to be accounted as an asset: Provided, That at any time after six years from the date a support debt was incurred, the secretary may charge off as uncollectible any support debt upon which the secretary finds there is no available, practical, or lawful means by which said debt may be collected. The department may accept offers of compromise of disputed claims or may grant partial or total charge-off of support arrears owed to the department up to the total amount of public assistance paid to or for the benefit of the persons for whom the support obligation was incurred. The department shall adopt rules as to the considerations to be made in the granting or denial of partial or total charge-off and offers of compromise of disputed claims of debt for support arrears. The responsible parent owing a support debt may execute a written extension or waiver of any statute, including but not limited to RCW 4.56.210, which may bar or impair the collection of the debt and the extension or waiver shall be effective according to its terms. [1979 ex.s. c 171 § 16; 1973 1st ex.s. c 183 § 20; 1971 ex.s. c 164 § 22.]

Severability—1979 ex.s. c 171: See note following RCW 74.20.300.

74.20A.230 Employee debtor rights protected—Limitation. No employer shall discharge an employee for reason that an assignment of earnings has been presented in settlement of a support debt or that a support lien or order to withhold and deliver has been served against said employee's earnings: Provided, That this provision shall not apply if more than three support liens or orders to withhold and deliver are served upon the same employer within any period of twelve consecutive months. [1973 1st ex.s. c 183 § 21; 1971 ex.s. c 164 § 23.]

74.20A.240 Assignment of earnings to be honored—Effect. Any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state employing a person owing a support debt or obligation, shall honor, according to its terms, a duly executed assignment of earnings presented by the secretary as a plan to satisfy or retire a support debt or obligation. This requirement to honor the assignment of earnings and the assignment of earnings itself shall be applicable whether said earnings are to be paid presently or in the future and shall continue in force and effect until released in writing by the secretary. Payment of moneys pursuant to an assignment of earnings presented by the secretary shall serve as full acquittance under any contract of employment, and the state warrants and represents it shall defend and hold harmless such action taken pursuant to said assignment of earnings. The secretary shall be released from liability for improper receipt of moneys under an assignment of earnings upon return of any moneys so received. [1973 1st ex.s. c 183 § 22; 1971 ex.s. c 164 § 24.]

74.20A.250 Receipt of public assistance for a child deemed as appointment of secretary to act as attorney, endorse drafts. By accepting public assistance, the recipient is deemed, without the necessity of signing any document, to have appointed the secretary as his or her true and lawful attorney in fact to act in his or her name, place, and stead to perform the specific act of endorsing any and all drafts, checks, money orders or other negotiable instruments representing support payments which are received on behalf of said child or children as reimbursement for the public assistance moneys previously paid to said recipient. [1979 ex.s. c 171 § 20; 1973 1st ex.s. c 183 § 23; 1971 ex.s. c 164 § 25.]

74.20A.260 Industrial insurance disability compensation payments subject to lien and order to withhold and deliver. One hundred percent of the temporary total disability payments and permanent total disability compensation to a workman allocated by RCW 51.32.090 and 51.32.060 respectively to the spouse and children of a workman, and forty percent of the net proceeds of payments to a workman for permanent partial disability under RCW 51.32.080 shall not be classified as "earnings" but shall be subject to lien or order to withhold and deliver and said lien or order to withhold and deliver shall continue to operate and require any political subdivision or department of the state to withhold the above stated portions at each subsequent disbursement or receipt interval until the entire amount of the support debt stated in the lien or order to withhold and deliver has been withheld. [1973 1st ex.s. c 183 § 24.]

74.20A.270 Department claim for support moneys—Service—Answer—Hearing and review—Moneys not subject to claim. The secretary may issue a notice of support debt to any person, firm, corporation, association or political subdivision of the state of Washington or any officer or agent thereof who is in possession of support moneys, or who has had support moneys in his or her possession at some time in the past, which support moneys were or are claimed by the department as the property of the department by assignment, subrogation, or by operation of law or legal process under chapter 74.20A RCW, if the support moneys have not been remitted to the department as required by law.

The notice shall describe the claim of the department, stating the legal basis for the claim and shall provide sufficient detail to enable the person, firm, corporation, association or political subdivision or officer or agent thereof upon whom service is made to identify the support moneys in issue. The notice may also make inquiry as to relevant facts necessary to the resolution of the issue.

The notice may be served by certified mail, return receipt requested, or in the manner of a summons in a civil action. Upon service of the notice all moneys not yet disbursed or spent or like moneys to be received in the future are deemed to be impounded and shall be held in trust pending answer to the notice and any hearing which is requested.

The notice shall be answered under oath and in writing within twenty days of the date of service, which answer shall include true answers to the matters inquired of in the notice. The notice shall also either acknowledge the department's right to the moneys or request an administrative hearing to determine the rights to ownership of the support moneys in issue. The hearing shall be held pursuant to this section, chapter 34.04 RCW, and the rules of the department and shall be a contested case as provided for in chapter 34.04 RCW. The burden of proof to establish ownership of the support moneys claimed, including but not limited to moneys not yet disbursed or spent, is on the department.

If no answer is made within the twenty days, the department's claim shall be assessed and determined and subject to collection action as a support debt pursuant to chapter 74.20A RCW. Any such debtor may, at any time within one year from the date of service of the notice of support debt, petition the secretary or the secretary's designee for a hearing upon a showing of any of the grounds enumerated in RCW 4.72.010 or superior court civil rule 60. A copy of the petition shall also be served on the department. The filing of the petition shall not stay any collection action being taken, but the debtor may petition the secretary or the secretary's designee for an order staying collection action pending final decision of the secretary or the secretary's designee or the courts on any appeal made pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW. Any moneys held and/or taken by collection action prior to the date of any such stay and any support moneys claimed by the department, including moneys to be received in the future to which the department may have a claim, shall be held in trust pending final decision and appeal, if any, to be disbursed in accordance with the final decision. The secretary or the secretary's designee shall condition the stay to provide for the trust.

If the hearing is granted it shall be an administrative hearing limited to the determination of the ownership of the moneys claimed in the notice of debt. The right to the hearing is conditioned upon holding of any funds not yet disbursed or expended or to be received in the future in trust pending the final order in these proceedings or during any appeal made to the courts. The secretary or the secretary's designee shall enter an appropriate order providing for the terms of the trust.

The hearing shall be a contested case as provided for in chapter 34.04 RCW and shall be held pursuant to this section, chapter 34.04 RCW, and the rules of the department. The hearing shall be promptly scheduled within thirty days from the date of receipt of the answer by the department. The hearing shall be conducted by a duly qualified hearing examiner appointed for that purpose. Hearings may be held in the county of residence of the debtor or other place convenient to the debtor.

If the debtor fails to appear at the hearing, the hearing examiner shall, upon showing of valid service, enter an initial decision and order declaring the amount of support moneys, as claimed in the notice, to be assessed and determined and subject to collection action. Within thirty days of entry of the decision and order the debtor may petition the secretary or the secretary's designee to vacate the decision and order upon a showing of any of the grounds enumerated in RCW 4.72.010 or superior court civil rule 60.

The hearing and review process shall be as provided for in RCW 74.20A.055.

If, at any time, the superior court enters judgment for an amount of debt at variance with the amount determined by the final order in these proceedings, the judgment shall supersede the final order in these proceedings. Any debt determined by the superior court in excess of the amount determined by the final order in these proceedings shall be the property of the department as assigned under 42 U.S.C. 602(A)(26)(a), RCW 74.20.040, 74.20A.250, 74.20.320, or 74.20.330. The department may, despite any final order in these proceedings, take action pursuant to chapters 74.20 or 74.20A RCW to obtain such a judgment or to collect moneys determined by such a judgment to be due and owing.

If public assistance moneys have been paid to a parent for the benefit of that parent's minor dependent children, debt under this chapter shall not be incurred by nor at any time be collected from that parent because of that payment of assistance. Nothing in this section prohibits or limits the department from acting pursuant to RCW 74.20.320 and this section to assess a debt against a recipient or ex-recipient for receipt to which a recipient or ex-recipient is entitled. The department may not take collection action during such period of time as the public assistance recipient remains in that status. Payments not credited against the department's debt pursuant to RCW 74.20.101 may not be assessed or collected under this section. [1979 ex.s. c 171 § 18.]

74.20A.280 Department to respect privacy of recipients. While discharging its responsibilities to enforce the support obligations of responsible parents, the department shall respect the right of privacy of recipients of public assistance and of other persons. Any inquiry about sexual activity shall be limited to that necessary to resolve a genuine dispute about the parentage of a child. When a custodial mother has informed the department that a particular man is the father of her child, the department shall make no further inquiry into her personal life unless the man so identified has denied that he is the father of such child. [1979 ex.s. c 171 § 23.]

74.20A.290 Person requesting hearing must advise department of current address. Whenever any person requests an administrative hearing under RCW 74.20A.055 or 74.20A.270, after the department has notified the person of the requirements of this section, it shall be the responsibility of the person to notify the department of the person's mailing address at the time the request for hearing is made and also to notify the department of any subsequent change of mailing address during the pendency of the action and any appeal made therefrom to the courts. Whenever the person has a duty under this section to advise the department of the person's mailing address, mailing by the department by certified mail to the person's last known address constitutes service as required by chapters 74.20A and 34.04 RCW. [1979 ex.s. c 171 § 21.]

Severability—1979 ex.s. c 171: See note following RCW 74.20.300.

74.20A.900 Severability—Alternative when method of notification held invalid. If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this chapter are severable.

If any method of notification provided for in this chapter is held invalid, service as provided for by the laws of the state of Washington for service of process in a civil action shall be substituted for the method held invalid. [1971 ex.s. c 164 § 27.]

Civil procedure—Commencement of actions: Chapter 4.28 RCW.

74.20A.910 Savings clause. The repeal of RCW 74.20A.050 and the amendment of RCW 74.20A.030 and 74.20A.250 by this 1979 act is not intended to affect any existing or accrued right, any action or proceeding already taken or instituted, any administrative action already taken, or any rule, regulation, or order already promulgated. The repeal and amendments are not intended to revive any law heretofore repealed. [1979 ex.s. c 171 § 27.]

74.23.005 Compliance with federal act. The legislature hereby expresses its intention to comply with the requirements under the federal social security act, as amended, creating a work incentive program for recipients of aid to families with dependent children. [1969 c 15 § 1.]

74.23.010 Purpose. The purpose of this chapter is to establish a program utilizing all available manpower services, including those authorized under other provisions of law, under which individuals receiving aid to families with dependent children will be furnished incentives, opportunities, and necessary services in order to secure for such individuals (1) employment in the regular economy, (2) institutional and work experience training likely to lead to regular employment, and (3) participation in special work projects for those individuals for whom a job in the regular economy cannot be found, thus restoring the families of such individuals to independence and useful roles in their communities. It is expected that the individuals participating in the program established under this chapter will acquire a sense of dignity, self-worth, and confidence which will flow from being recognized as a wage-earning member of society and that the example of a working adult in these families will have beneficial effects on the children in such families. [1969 c 15 § 2.]

74.23.020 Departments authorized to participate in and administer program consistent with federal law. The employment security department and the department of social and health services are hereby authorized to participate in and administer the work incentive program for recipients of public assistance consistent with the

The department of social and health services will supplement any earnings so received by payments to the extent that such payments, when added to the earnings, will equal the amount of assistance he would otherwise qualify for under aid to families with dependent children had he not participated in the project, plus twenty percent of his earnings from the project. [1979 c 141 § 379; 1969 c 15 § 8.]

[1969 c 15 § 9.]

74.23.090 Good cause for refusal to participate in training or a special work project under program. 74.26.050 Contracts for services—Supervision.
74.26.060 Program costs—Liability of insurers.

74.26.010 Legislative intent. In recognition of the fact that there is a small population of children with multiple disabilities and specific and continuing medical needs now being served in high–daily–cost hospitals that could be more appropriately and cost–efficiently served in alternative residential alternatives, it is the intent of the legislature to establish a controlled program to develop and review an alternative service delivery system for certain multiply handicapped children who have continuing intensive medical needs but who are not required to continue in residence in a hospital setting. [1980 c 106 § 1.]

74.26.020 Eligibility criteria. (1) To be eligible for services under this alternative program, a person must meet all the following criteria:
(a) The individual must be under twenty–two years of age;
(b) The individual must be under the care of a physician and such physician must diagnose the child's condition as sufficiently serious to warrant eligibility;
(c) The individual must be presently residing in, or in immediate jeopardy of residing in, a hospital or other residential medical facility for the purpose of receiving intensive support medical services; and
(d) The individual must fall within one of the four functional/medical definitional categories listed in subsection (2) of this section.
(2) Functional/medical definitional categories:
(a) Respiratory impaired; with acquired or congenital defect of the oropharynx, trachea, bronchial tree, or lung requiring continuing dependency on a respiratory assistive device in order to allow the disease process to heal or the individual to grow to a sufficient size to live as a normal person;
(b) Respiratory with multiple physical impairments; with acquired or congenital defects of the central nervous system or multiple organ systems requiring continued dependency on a respiratory assistive device and/or other medical, surgical, and physical therapy treatments in order to allow the disease process to heal or the individual to gain sufficient size to permit surgical correction of the defect or the individual to grow large and strong enough and acquire sufficient skills in self–care to allow survival in a nonmedical/therapy intensive environment;
(c) Multiply physically impaired; with congenital or acquired defects of multiple systems and at least some central nervous system impairment that causes loss of urine and stool sphincter control as well as paralysis or loss or reduction of two or more extremities, forcing the individual to be dependent on a wheelchair or other total body mobility device, also requiring medical, surgical, and physical therapy intervention in order to allow the individual to grow to a size that permits surgical correction of the defects or allows the individual to grow large and strong enough and acquire sufficient skills in self–care to allow survival in a nonmedical/therapy intensive environment;
(d) Static encephalopathies; with severe brain insults of acquired or congenital origin causing the individual to be medically diagnosed as totally dependent for all bodily and social functions except cardiorespiratory so that the individual requires continuous long–term daily medical/nursing care. [1980 c 106 § 2.]

74.26.030 Program plan for services—Local agency support. (1) A written individual program plan shall be developed for each child served under this controlled program by the division of developmental disabilities in cooperation with the child's parents or if available, legal guardians, and under the supervision of the child's primary health care provider.

The services to be available as required by the child's individual needs shall include: (a) Nursing care, including registered and licensed practical nurses, and properly trained nurse's aides; (b) physicians, including surgeons, general and family practitioners, and specialists in the child's particular diagnosis on either a referral, consultive, or on-going treatment basis; (c) respiratory therapists and devices; (d) dental care of both routine and emergent nature; (e) on-going nutritional consultation from a trained professional; (f) communication disorder therapy; (g) physical and occupational habilitation and rehabilitation therapy and devices; (h) special and regular education; (i) recreation therapy; (j) psychological counseling; and (k) transportation.

(3) A portion of these required services can be provided from state and local agencies having primary responsibility for such services, but the ultimate responsibility for ensuring and coordinating the delivery of all necessary services shall rest with the division of developmental disabilities. [1980 c 106 § 3.]

74.26.040 Administrative responsibility—Regulations. The department of social and health services, division of developmental disabilities, shall bear all administrative responsibility for the effective and rapid implementation of this controlled program. The division shall promulgate regulations within sixty days after June 12, 1980, to provide minimum standards and qualifications for the following program elements:

(1) Residential services;
(2) Medical services;
(3) Day program;
(4) Facility requirements and accessibility for all buildings in which the program is to be conducted;

The division of developmental disabilities shall implement this controlled program through a "request-for-proposal" method and subsequent contracts for services with any local, county, or state agency demonstrating a probable ability to meet the program's goals. The proposals must demonstrate an ability to provide or insure the provision of all services set forth in RCW 74.26.030 if necessary for the children covered by the proposals.

The division of developmental disabilities shall thoroughly supervise, review, and audit fiscal and program performance for the individuals served under this control program. A comparison of all costs incurred by all public agencies for each individual prior to the implementation of this program and all costs incurred after one year under this program shall be made and reported back to the legislature in the 1982 session. [1980 c 106 § 5.]

74.26.060 Program costs—Liability of insurers. This program or any components necessary to the child shall be available to eligible children at no cost to their parents provided that any medical insurance benefits available to the child for his/her medical condition shall remain liable for payment for his/her cost of care. [1980 c 106 § 6.]

SENIOR CITIZENS SERVICES ACT

74.38.010 Legislative recognition—Public policy. The legislature recognizes the need for the development and expansion of alternative services and forms of care for senior citizens. Such services should be designed to restore individuals to, or maintain them at, the level of independent living they are capable of attaining. These alternative services and forms of care should be designed to both complement the present forms of institutional care and create a system whereby appropriate services can be rendered according to the care needs of an individual. The provision of service should continue until the client is able to function independently, moves to an institution, moves from the state, dies, or withdraws from the program.

Therefore, it shall be the policy of this state to develop, expand, or maintain those programs which provide an alternative to institutional care when that form of care is premature, unnecessary, or inappropriate. [1977 ex.s. c 321 § 1, 1975–76 2nd ex.s. c 131 § 1.]

Termination—1977 ex.s. c 321: "The provisions of this 1977 amendatory act shall terminate on June 30, 1979, unless otherwise provided by law." [1977 ex.s. c 321 § 7.]

*Reviser's note: this 1977 amendatory act consists of RCW 74.36.070 and the 1977 amendments to RCW 74.38.010, 74.38.020; 74.38.040, and 74.38.050. The termination instruction, 1977 ex.s. c 321 § 7, was repealed by 1979 ex.s. c 147 § 2, which took effect July 1, 1979.

(1) The necessary and ordinary one–time ex­penses directly incident to the preparation of a newly constructed or purchased building by a contractor for operation as a licensed facility shall be allowable costs. These expenses shall be limited to start–up and organi­zational costs incurred prior to the admission of the first patient.

(2) Start–up costs shall include, but not be limited to, administrative and nursing salaries, utility costs, taxes, insurance, repairs and maintenance, and training; ex­cept, that they shall exclude expenditures for capital as­sets. These costs will be allowable in the administration and operations cost center if they are amortized over a period of not less than sixty months beginning with the month in which the first patient is admitted for care. [1980 c 177 § 23.]

74.46.240 Education and training. (Effective July 1, 1984.) (1) Necessary and ordinary expenses of on–the–job training and in–service training required for em­employee orientation and certification training directly re­lated to the performance of duties assigned will be allowable costs.

(2) Necessary and ordinary expenses of recreational and social activity training conducted by the contractor for volunteers will be allowable costs. [1980 c 177 § 24.]

Effective dates—1980 c 177: See RCW 74.46.901.

74.46.250 Owner or relative—Compensation. (Ef­fective July 1, 1984.) (1) Total compensation of an owner or relative of an owner shall be limited to ordi­nary compensation for necessary services actually performed.
(a) Compensation is ordinary if it is the amount usu­ally paid for comparable services in a comparable facil­ity to an unrelated employee, and does not exceed limits set out in this chapter.
(b) A service is necessary if it is related to patient care and would have had to be performed by another person if the owner or relative had not done it.

(2) The contractor, in maintaining customary time records adequate for audit, shall include such records for owners and relatives who receive compensation. [1980 c 177 § 25.]

Effective dates—1980 c 177: See RCW 74.46.901.

   (i) Seventy–nine; and
   (ii) One hundred fifty–nine; shall be established by the department on a calendar year basis. The maximum compensation of these three categories of facilities may be adjusted in subsequent calendar years by the department through rule and regulation.
(b) The compensation of a licensed assistant adminis­trator for a facility having eighty or more beds shall not exceed seventy–five percent of the compensation received by the licensed administrator of the facility.

Nursing Home Auditing, Reimbursement

74.46.270 Disclosure and approval of cost allocation. (1) The contractor shall disclose to the department:
(a) The nature and purpose of all costs which represent allocations of joint facility costs; and
(b) The methodology of the allocation utilized.

(2) Such disclosure shall be made not later than September 30, 1980, for the following year and not later than September 30th for each year thereafter; except that a new contractor shall submit the first year's disclosure together with the submissions required by RCW 74.46.670.

(3) The department shall approve such methodology not later than December 31, 1980, and not later than December 31st for each year thereafter. Such approval shall include, but not be limited to, the assurance that:
(a) The services involved are necessary and nonduplicative; and
(b) Costs are allocated in accordance with benefits received from the resources represented by those costs.

(4) An approved methodology may be revised or amended subject to approval as provided in subsection (3) of this section and rules and regulations adopted by the department. [1980 c 177 § 27.]

Effective dates—1980 c 177: See RCW 74.46.901.

74.46.280 Management fees, agreements. (Effective July 1, 1984.) (1) Management fees will be allowed only if:
(a) A written management agreement both creates a principal/agent relationship between the contractor and the manager, and sets forth the items, services, and activities to be provided by the manager; and
(b) Documentation demonstrates that the services contracted for were actually delivered.

(2) To be allowable, fees must be for necessary, nonduplicative services. Allowable fees for general management services, including the portion of a management fee which is not allocated to specific services such as accounting, are limited to
(a) the maximum allowable compensation under RCW 74.46.260 of the licensed administrator and, if the facility has at least eighty beds, of an assistant administrator, less
(b) actual compensation received by the licensed administrator and by the assistant administrator and administrator—in—training, if any.

In computing maximum allowable compensation under RCW 74.46.260 for a facility with at least eighty beds, include the maximum compensation of an assistant administrator even if an assistant administrator is not employed.

(3) A management fee paid to or for the benefit of a related organization will be allowable to the extent it does not exceed the lower of:
(a) The limits set out in subsection (2) of this section; or
(b) The lower of the actual cost to the related organization of providing necessary services related to patient care under the agreement, or the cost of comparable services purchased elsewhere. Where costs to the related organization represent joint facility costs, the measurement of such costs shall comply with RCW 74.46.270.

(4) A copy of the agreement must be received by the department at least sixty days before it is to become effective. A copy of any amendment to a management agreement must also be received by the department at least thirty days in advance of the date it is to become effective.

(5) Central office costs for general management services, including the portion of a management expense which is not allocated to specific services, such as accounting, shall be subject to the management fee limits determined in subsections (2) and (3) of this section. [1980 c 177 § 28.]

Effective dates—1980 c 177: See RCW 74.46.901.

74.46.290 Expense for construction interest. (Effective July 1, 1984.) (1) Interest expense and loan origination fees relating to construction of a facility incurred during the period of construction shall be capitalized and amortized over the life of the facility pursuant to RCW 74.46.360. The period of construction shall extend from the date of the construction loan to the date the facility is put into service for patient care.

(2) For the purposes of this chapter, the period provided for in subsection (1) of this section shall not exceed the project certificate of need time period pursuant to RCW 70.38.125. [1980 c 177 § 29.]

Effective dates—1980 c 177: See RCW 74.46.901.

74.46.300 Operating leases of office equipment. (Effective July 1, 1984.) Rental or lease costs under arm's-length operating leases of office equipment shall be allowable to the extent the cost is necessary and ordinary. [1980 c 177 § 30.]

Effective dates—1980 c 177: See RCW 74.46.901.

74.46.310 Capitalization. (Effective July 1, 1984.) The following costs shall be capitalized:
(1) Expenses for facilities or equipment with historical cost in excess of five hundred dollars per unit and a useful life of more than one year from the date of purchase; and
(2) Expenses for equipment with historical cost of five hundred dollars or less per unit if either:
(a) The item was acquired in a group purchase where the total cost exceeded five hundred dollars; or
(b) The item was part of the initial stock of the facility.

(3) Dollar limits in this section may be adjusted for economic trends and conditions by the department as established by rule and regulation. [1980 c 177 § 31.]

Effective dates—1980 c 177: See RCW 74.46.901.

74.46.330 Depreciable assets. (Effective July 1, 1984.) Tangible assets of the following types in which a contractor has an interest through ownership or leasing are subject to depreciation:

(1) Building – the basic structure or shell and additions thereto;

(2) Building fixed equipment – attachments to buildings, including, but not limited to, wiring, electrical fixtures, plumbing, elevators, heating system, and air conditioning system. The general characteristics of this equipment are:

(a) Affixed to the building and not subject to transfer; and

(b) A fairly long life, but shorter than the life of the building to which affixed;

(3) Major movable equipment including, but not limited to, beds, wheelchairs, desks, and x-ray machines. The general characteristics of this equipment are:

(a) A relatively fixed location in the building;

(b) Capable of being moved as distinguished from building equipment;

(c) A unit cost sufficient to justify ledger control;

(d) Sufficient size and identity to make control feasible by means of identification tags; and

(e) A minimum life greater than one year;

(4) Minor equipment including, but not limited to, waste baskets, bed pans, syringes, catheters, silverware, mops, and buckets which are properly capitalized. No depreciation shall be taken on items which are not properly capitalized as directed in RCW 74.46.310. The general characteristics of minor equipment are:

(a) In general, no fixed location and subject to use by various departments;

(b) Small in size and unit cost;

(c) Subject to inventory control;

(d) Large number in use; and

(e) Generally, a useful life of one to three years;

(5) Land improvements including, but not limited to, paving, tunnels, underpasses, on-site sewer and water lines, parking lots, shrubbery, fences, and walls where replacement is the responsibility of the contractor; and

(6) Leasehold improvements – betterments and additions made by the lessee to the leased property, which become the property of the lessor after the expiration of the lease. [1980 c 177 § 33.]

Effective dates—1980 c 177: See RCW 74.46.901.

74.46.340 Land, improvements—Depreciation. (Effective July 1, 1984.) Land is not depreciable. The cost of land includes but is not limited to, off-site sewer and water lines, public utility charges necessary to service the land, governmental assessments for street paving and sewers, the cost of permanent roadways and grading of a nondepreciable nature, and the cost of curbs and sidewalks, replacement of which is not the responsibility of the contractor. [1980 c 177 § 34.]

Effective dates—1980 c 177: See RCW 74.46.901.

74.46.350 Methods of depreciation. (Effective July 1, 1984.) (1) Buildings, land improvements, and fixed equipment shall be depreciated using the straight-line method of depreciation. Major-minor equipment shall be depreciated using either the straight-line method, the sum-of-the-years’ digits method, or declining balance method not to exceed one hundred fifty percent of the straight line rate. Contractors who have elected to take either the sum-of-the-years’ digits method or the declining balance method of depreciation on major-minor equipment may change to the straight-line method without permission of the department.

(2) The annual provision for depreciation shall be reduced by the portion allocable to use of the asset for purposes which are neither necessary nor related to patient care.

(3) No further depreciation shall be claimed after an asset has been fully depreciated unless a new depreciation base is established pursuant to RCW 74.46.360. [1980 c 177 § 35.]

Effective dates—1980 c 177: See RCW 74.46.901.

74.46.360 Depreciation base. (Effective July 1, 1984.) (1) The depreciation base shall be the historical cost of the contractor or lessor, when the assets are leased by the contractor, in acquiring the asset in an arm’s-length transaction and preparing it for use, less goodwill, and less accumulated depreciation which has been incurred during periods that the assets have been used in or as a facility by the contractor, such accumulated depreciation to be measured in accordance with subsections (2), (3), and (4) of this section and RCW 74.46.350 and 74.46.370. If the department challenges the historical cost of an asset, or if the contractor cannot or will not provide the historical costs, the department will have the department of general administration, through an appraisal procedure, determine the fair market value of the assets at the time of purchase. The depreciation base of the assets will not exceed such fair market value.

(2) The historical cost of donated assets, or of assets received through testate or intestate distribution, shall be the lesser of:

(a) Fair market value at the date of donation or death; or

(b) The historical cost base of the owner last contracting with the department, if any.

(3) Estimated salvage value of acquired, donated, or inherited assets shall be deducted from historical cost where the straight-line or sum-of-the-years' digits method of depreciation is used.

(4) (a) Where depreciable assets are acquired that were used in the medical care program subsequent to January 1, 1980, the depreciation base of the assets will not exceed the net book value which did exist or would have existed had the assets continued in use under the previous contract with the department; except that depreciation shall not be assumed to accumulate during periods when the assets were not in use in or as a facility.

(b) Subparagraph (4)(a) of this section shall not apply to the most recent arm's-length acquisition if it occurs at least ten years after the ownership of the assets has been previously transferred in an arm's-length transaction nor to the first arm's-length acquisition that occurs after January 1, 1980, for facilities participating in the medical care program prior to January 1, 1980. The new depreciation base for such acquisitions shall not exceed the fair market value of the assets as determined by the department of general administration through an appraisal procedure. A determination by the department of general administration of fair market value shall be final unless the procedure used to make such determination is shown to be arbitrary and capricious.

(c) Where depreciable assets are acquired from a related organization, the contractor's depreciation base shall not exceed the base the related organization had or would have had under a contract with the department.

(d) Where the depreciable asset is a donation or distribution between related organizations, the base shall be the lesser of (i) fair market value, less salvage value, or (ii) the depreciation base the related organization had or would have had for the asset under a contract with the department.

Effective dates—1980 c 177: See RCW 74.46.901.

74.46.370 Lives of assets. (Effective July 1, 1984.) (1) Except for new buildings, the contractor shall use lives which reflect the estimated actual useful life of the asset and which shall be no shorter than guideline lives as established by the department. The shortest life which may be used for new buildings is thirty years. Lives shall be measured from the date on which the assets were first used in the medical care program or from the date of the most recent arm's-length acquisition of the asset, whichever is more recent. In cases where RCW 74.46.360(4)(a) does apply, the shortest life that may be used for buildings is the remaining useful life under the prior contract. In all cases, lives shall be extended to reflect periods, if any, when assets were not used in or as a facility.

(2) Building improvements shall be depreciated over the remaining useful life of the building, as modified by the improvement.

(3) Improvements to leased property which are the responsibility of the contractor under the terms of the lease shall be depreciated over the useful life of the improvement.

(4) A contractor may change the estimate of an asset's useful life to a longer life for purposes of depreciation. [1980 c 177 § 37.]

Effective dates—1980 c 177: See RCW 74.46.901.

74.46.380 Disposal of depreciable assets—Inactive status. (Effective July 1, 1984.) (1) Where depreciable assets are disposed of through sale, trade-in, scrapping, exchange, theft, wrecking, or fire or other casualty, depreciation shall no longer be taken on the assets. No further depreciation shall be taken on permanently abandoned assets.

(2) Where an asset has been retired from active use but is being held for stand-by or emergency service, and the department has determined that it is needed and can be effectively used in the future, depreciation may be taken. [1980 c 177 § 38.]

Effective dates—1980 c 177: See RCW 74.46.901.

74.46.390 Gains and losses upon replacement of depreciable assets. (Effective July 1, 1984.) If the retired asset is replaced, the gain or loss shall be applied against or added to the cost of the replacement asset, provided that a loss will only be so applied if the contractor has made a reasonable effort to recover at least the outstanding book value of the asset. [1980 c 177 § 39.]

Effective dates—1980 c 177: See RCW 74.46.901.

74.46.400 Temporary contract labor. (Effective July 1, 1984.) Costs for the purchased services of temporary contract labor shall be allowable only to the extent they do not exceed the average of the usual and customary rate for the wages and benefits of the facility's comparable permanent staff, as reimbursed pursuant to RCW 74.46.480 and 74.46.500. [1980 c 177 § 40.]

Effective dates—1980 c 177: See RCW 74.46.901.

74.46.410 Unallowable costs. (Effective July 1, 1984.) (1) Costs will be unallowable if they are not documented, necessary, ordinary, and related to the provision of care services to authorized patients.

(2) Unallowable costs include, but are not limited to, the following:

(a) Costs of items or services not covered by the medical care program. Costs of such items or services will be unallowable even if they are indirectly reimbursed by the department as the result of an authorized reduction in patient contribution;

(b) Costs of services and items provided to recipients which are covered by the department's medical care program but not included in care services established by the department under *this act;

(c) Costs associated with a capital expenditure subject to section 1122 approval (part 100, Title 42 C.F.R.) if the department found it was not consistent with applicable standards, criteria, or plans. If the department was not given timely notice of a proposed capital expenditure, all associated costs will be unallowable up to the date they are determined to be reimbursable under applicable federal regulations;

PART E RATE–SETTING

74.46.420 Principles of rate–setting. (Effective July 1, 1984.) The following principles are inherent in RCW 74.46.430 through 74.46.590:

(1) Reimbursement rates will be set prospectively on a per patient day basis;

(2) Rates will be established not lower than the level which is reasonably expected to be adequate to reimburse in full the actual, allowable costs of a facility which is economically and efficiently operated and to provide care which meets the needs of a medical care recipient in compliance with applicable standards; and

(3) The rates so established will take into account economic conditions and trends during the period to be covered by such rates. [1980 c 177 § 42.]

Effective dates—1980 c 177: See RCW 74.46.901.

74.46.430 Prospective reimbursement rates. (Effective July 1, 1984.) (1) The department, as provided by this chapter, will determine prospective cost–related reimbursement rates for services provided to medical care recipients. Each rate so determined shall represent the contractor's maximum compensation within each cost center for each patient day for such medical care recipient.

(2) As required, the department may modify such maximum per patient day rates pursuant to the administrative review provisions of RCW 74.46.780.

(3) The maximum prospective reimbursement rates for the administration and operations and the property cost centers and the return on investment allowance shall be established based upon a minimum facility occupancy level of eighty–five percent. [1980 c 177 § 43.]

Effective dates—1980 c 177: See RCW 74.46.901.
74.46.440 Limitation of services subject to cost reimbursement. (Effective July 1, 1984.) Only those services which are authorized for a facility pursuant to the medical care program shall be reimbursed under this chapter. [1980 c 177 § 44.]

Effective dates—1980 c 177: See RCW 74.46.901.

74.46.450 Reimbursement rate for new contractor. (Effective July 1, 1984.) (1) Prospective reimbursement rates for a new contractor will be established within sixty days following receipt by the department of the properly completed project budget required by RCW 74.46.670. Such reimbursement rates will become effective as of the effective date of the contract.

(2) Such reimbursement rates will be based on the contractor's projected cost of operations through December 31st of the year the contract becomes effective, and on costs and payment rates of the prior contractor, if any, and/or of other contractors in comparable circumstances.

(3) If a properly completed budget is not received at least sixty days prior to the effective date of the contract, the department will establish preliminary rates based on the other factors specified in subsection (2) of this section. These preliminary rates will remain in effect until a determination is made pursuant to RCW 74.46.460. [1980 c 177 § 45.]

74.46.460 Rate determination or adjustment—When—Basis. (Effective July 1, 1984.) (1) Each contractor's reimbursement rates will be determined prospectively at least once each calendar year, to be effective July 1st.

(2) Rates may be adjusted as determined by the department to take into account variations of more than ten percent in the distribution of patient classifications from the prior reporting year, program changes, economic trends and conditions, and/or administrative review provided by RCW 74.46.780 and shall be adjusted for any capitalized additions or replacements made as a condition for licensure or certification.

(3) Where the contractor participated in the provisions of prospective cost-related reimbursement in effect prior to July 1, 1984, such contractor's prospective rate effective July 1, 1984, will be determined utilizing his reported allowable costs for calendar year 1983.

(4) All prospective reimbursement rates for 1985 and thereafter shall be determined utilizing the prior year's audited cost reports. [1981 1st ex.s. c 2 § 5; 1980 c 177 § 46.]

Severability—Effective dates—1981 1st ex.s. c 2: See notes following RCW 74.09.610.

Effective dates—1980 c 177: See RCW 74.46.901.

Conflicts with federal requirements and this section: See RCW 74.46.850.

74.46.470 Cost centers. (Effective July 1, 1984.) A contractor's reimbursement rates for medical care recipients will be determined utilizing audited cost report data within the following cost centers:

(1) Nursing services;
(2) Food;
(3) Administration and operations; and
(4) Property. [1980 c 177 § 47.]

Effective dates—1980 c 177: See RCW 74.46.901.

74.46.480 Nursing services cost center reimbursement rate. (Effective July 1, 1984.) (1) The nursing services cost center shall include all costs related to the direct provision of nursing care and ancillary care including fringe benefits and payroll taxes for the nursing care and ancillary service personnel, and direct care supplies.

(2) For rate-setting purposes, the department shall determine standard hours for each classification established by the department pursuant to *section 86 of this act. Such standard hours shall be the sum of the hours for nursing assistants, licensed practical nurses, and registered nurses.

(3) The standard base rate per classification shall be the sum of the products of at least ninety percent of the prevailing wages for the categories of nursing assistant, licensed practical nurse, and registered nurse, expressed as an hourly rate, based upon the state-wide salary survey conducted pursuant to RCW 41.06.160, multiplied by the respective components of the standard hours as determined in subsection (2) of this section.

(4) The nursing services cost center rate, excluding the special care rate provided by subsection (5) of this section, for each facility, shall be:

(a) The sum of the standard base rate per classification determined in subsection (3) of this section multiplied by the total patient days for the facility within each classification for the prior year, divided by the total patient days for the prior year for the facility, less special care patient days,

(b) Plus a factor to be determined annually by the department for the facility for fringe benefits, payroll taxes, ancillary care and direct care supplies; except that, the factor shall reflect the level of employee benefits, provided or agreed to, payroll taxes assessed, and/or ancillary services provided within each facility.

(5) Where the standard hours for rate setting purposes in subsection (2) of this section do not reflect the exceptional custodial or nursing care required for a patient, the department, upon verification of such exceptional custodial or nursing care, will negotiate a special rate for exceptional care for such patient. Such special rate will:

(a) Include the factors described in subparagraph (2)(b) of this section; and

(b) Be reimbursed to the facility independently of the nursing services cost center rate provided by subsection (4) of this section. [1980 c 177 § 48.]

*Reviser's note: For section 86, see note following RCW 74.42.610.

Effective dates—1980 c 177: See RCW 74.46.901.

74.46.490 Food cost center reimbursement rate. (Effective July 1, 1984.) (1) The food cost center shall include all costs for bulk and raw food and beverages purchased for the dietary needs of medical care recipients.

(1981 Ed.)
(2) The food cost reimbursement rate for each facility shall be computed as follows:

FR = \frac{TFC}{TPD} \times 1.15,

FR = \text{the facility food cost center reimbursement rate;}

TFC = \text{the total of all reporting facilities' food cost center costs; and}

TPD = \text{the total patient days for the prior year of all reporting facilities.}

(3) Unless extended by law for an additional period of time, on and after July 1, 1986, the food cost reimbursement rate for each facility shall be computed as follows:

FR = \frac{TFC}{TPD},

The property cost center rate for each facility shall be adjusted to

\text{the total patient days for a facility for the prior period. If a capitalized addition or retirement of an asset will result in a different licensed bed capacity during the ensuing period, the prior period total patient days used in computing the property cost center rate shall be adjusted to anticipated patient day level.}

When a certificate of need for a new facility is requested, the department, in reaching its decision, shall take into consideration per-bed land and building construction costs for the facility which shall not exceed a maximum to be established by the secretary. [1980 c 177 § 51.]

74.46.520 Adjustment of cost center rates. (Effective July 1, 1984.) The rates determined in RCW 74.46.480 through 74.46.510 shall be adjusted by the department utilizing appropriate indices or other measures of economic trends and conditions projected for the ensuing year. [1980 c 177 § 52.]

74.46.530 Return on investment allowance—Review. (Effective July 1, 1984.) (1) The department shall first establish a total state-wide return on investment pool for use in determining individual facility return on investment allowances.

(a) In establishing the total state-wide return on investment pool the department shall determine the sum of net invested funds as of the end of the most recent reporting period of all facilities participating in the medical care program.

(b) In computing the portion of net invested funds representing the net book value of tangible fixed assets, the same assets, depreciation bases, lives, and methods referred to in RCW 74.46.330, 74.46.350, 74.46.360, and 74.46.370, including owned and leased assets, shall be utilized, except that the capitalized cost of land upon which the facility is located and such other contiguous land which is reasonable and necessary for use in the regular course of providing patient care shall also be included. In the case of leased facilities where the net invested funds are unknown or the contractor is unable to provide necessary information to determine net invested funds, the secretary shall have the authority to determine an amount for net invested funds based on an appraisal conducted according to RCW 74.46.360(1).

(c) The sum of net invested funds shall then be multiplied by 1.4 times the average of the rates of interest on special issues of public debt obligations issued to the federal hospital insurance trust fund for the last completed calendar quarter prior to rate-setting to establish the total state-wide return on investment pool.

(2) The department shall establish for individual facilities return on investment allowances composed of two parts: A financing allowance and a variable return allowance.

(a) The financing allowance shall be determined by multiplying the net invested funds of each facility by

\text{center, as provided in RCW 74.46.180, by the total patient days for the facility in the prior period. If a capitalized addition or retirement of an asset will result in a different licensed bed capacity during the ensuing period, the prior period total patient days used in computing the property cost center rate shall be adjusted to anticipated patient day level.}

When a certificate of need for a new facility is requested, the department, in reaching its decision, shall take into consideration per-bed land and building construction costs for the facility which shall not exceed a maximum to be established by the secretary. [1980 c 177 § 51.]

74.46.530 Return on investment allowance—Review. (Effective July 1, 1984.) (1) The department shall first establish a total state-wide return on investment pool for use in determining individual facility return on investment allowances.

(a) In establishing the total state-wide return on investment pool the department shall determine the sum of net invested funds as of the end of the most recent reporting period of all facilities participating in the medical care program.

(b) In computing the portion of net invested funds representing the net book value of tangible fixed assets, the same assets, depreciation bases, lives, and methods referred to in RCW 74.46.330, 74.46.350, 74.46.360, and 74.46.370, including owned and leased assets, shall be utilized, except that the capitalized cost of land upon which the facility is located and such other contiguous land which is reasonable and necessary for use in the regular course of providing patient care shall also be included. In the case of leased facilities where the net invested funds are unknown or the contractor is unable to provide necessary information to determine net invested funds, the secretary shall have the authority to determine an amount for net invested funds based on an appraisal conducted according to RCW 74.46.360(1).

(c) The sum of net invested funds shall then be multiplied by 1.4 times the average of the rates of interest on special issues of public debt obligations issued to the federal hospital insurance trust fund for the last completed calendar quarter prior to rate-setting to establish the total state-wide return on investment pool.

(2) The department shall establish for individual facilities return on investment allowances composed of two parts: A financing allowance and a variable return allowance.

(a) The financing allowance shall be determined by multiplying the net invested funds of each facility by
1.07 times the average of the rates of interest on special issues of public debt obligations issued to the federal hospital insurance trust fund for the last completed quarter prior to rate-setting, and dividing by the contractor's total patient days. If a capitalized addition or retirement of an asset will result in a different licensed bed capacity during the ensuing period, the prior period total patient days used in computing the financing and variable return allowances shall be adjusted to the anticipated patient day level.

(b) In determining the variable return allowance:

(i) The department will first rank all facilities in numerical order from highest to lowest according to their average per diem allowable costs for the sum of the administration and operations and property cost centers for the previous reimbursement period.

(ii) The department shall then compute the variable return allowance by multiplying the appropriate percentage amounts, which shall not be less than one percent and not greater than five percent, by the total prospective rate for each facility, as determined in RCW 74.46.450 through 74.46.510. The percentage amounts will be based on groupings of facilities according to the rankings as established in subparagraph (2)(b)(i) of this section. Those groups of facilities with lower per diem costs shall receive higher percentage amounts than those with higher per diem costs.

(iii) Such percentage amounts shall be calculated so that the variable return allowance plus the financing allowance times the total patient days for each facility, when summed for all facilities, shall be as close in amount to the total state-wide return on investment pool and individual facility return on investment allowances as follows: Net invested funds for each nonprofit facility shall be multiplied by one minus the ratio of equity funds to the net invested funds of all nonprofit facilities.

(iv) Such percentage amounts calculated pursuant to subparagraph (2)(b)(i) of this section shall be no less than the percentage amounts as calculated pursuant to this subsection on July 1, 1984.

(c) The sum of the financing allowance and the variable return allowance shall be the return on investment for each facility, and shall be added to the prospective rates of each contractor as determined in RCW 74.46.450 through 74.46.510.

(d) In the case of a facility which was leased by the contractor as of January 1, 1980, in an arm's-length agreement, which continues to be leased under the same lease agreement, and for which the annualized lease payment, plus any interest and depreciation expenses associated with contractor-owned assets, for the period covered by the prospective rates, divided by the contractor's total patient days, minus the property cost center determined according to RCW 74.46.510, is more than the return on investment allowance determined according to RCW 74.46.530(2)(c), the following shall apply:

(i) The financing allowance shall be recomputed substituting the fair market value of the assets as of January 1, 1982, as determined by the department of general administration through an appraisal procedure, for the net book value of the assets in determining net invested funds for the facility. A determination by the department of general administration of fair market value shall be final unless the procedure used to make such determination is shown to be arbitrary and capricious.

(ii) The sum of the financing allowance computed under subparagraph (2)(d)(i) of this section and the variable allowance shall be compared to the annualized lease payment, plus any interest and depreciation expenses associated with contractor-owned assets, for the period covered by the prospective rates, divided by the contractor's total patient days, minus the property cost center rate determined according to RCW 74.46.510. The lesser of the two amounts shall be called the alternate return on investment allowance.

(iii) The return on investment allowance determined according to RCW 74.46.530(2)(c) or the alternate return on investment allowance, whichever is greater, shall be the return on investment allowance for the facility and shall be added to the prospective rates of the contractor as determined in RCW 74.46.450 through 74.46.510.

(3) In the event that the department of health, education and welfare disallows the application of the return on investment allowances to nonprofit facilities, the department shall modify the measurements of net invested funds used for computing both total state-wide return on investment pool and individual facility return on investment allowances as follows: Net invested funds for each nonprofit facility shall be multiplied by one minus the ratio of equity funds to the net invested funds of all nonprofit facilities.

(4) Each biennium, beginning in 1984, the secretary shall review the adequacy of return on investment allowances in relation to anticipated requirements for maintaining, reducing, or expanding nursing care capacity. The secretary shall report the results of such review to the legislature and make recommendations for adjustments in the return on investment rates utilized in this section, if appropriate. [1955 c 276 § 4.]

75.12.200 Conservation of salmon resources in Pacific Ocean—Preamble. The state has a vital interest in the salmon resources of the Pacific Ocean both within and beyond the territorial limits of the state, in that a large number of such salmon spawn in its fresh water streams, migrate to the waters of the Pacific Ocean and, in response to their anadromous cycle, return to the fresh water streams to spawn.

Expansion of fishing for salmon by the use of nets in waters of the eastern Pacific Ocean, which has occurred in the past year, will result in a substantial depletion of salmon originating within the state because the salmon runs are intercepted before they separate to move in toward the rivers of their origin. Oregon, California and Canada, through their respective fisheries agencies, have likewise expressed a deep concern over this problem since portions of such salmon originate within their respective jurisdictions. Short of absolute prohibition, it appears to be presently impracticable to regulate salmon net fishing in such waters of the Pacific Ocean by any known scientific fisheries management techniques in order to insure adequate salmon escapement to the three Pacific Coast states and Canada, the reason being that salmon stocks and races are so commingled in such Pacific Ocean waters that they are indistinguishable as to origin until they enter the harbors, bays, straits and estuaries of the respective jurisdictions.

Canada, through its authorized officials, has proposed to prohibit its nationals from net fishing for salmon in Pacific Ocean waters provided the United States or the three Pacific Coast states apply such appropriate conservation measures to their respective citizens. Inasmuch as there is presently no congressional legislation prohibiting such fishing, and inasmuch as authorized officials of the state department of the United States have expressed a desire to have the states act in this area, the Pacific Marine Fisheries Commission has proposed and recommended appropriate legislation to the three Pacific Coast states to insure the survival of their valuable salmon resources. [1957 c 108 § 2.]

Pacific Marine Fisheries Commission: RCW 75.40.030 (Article III). Preservation of salmon resources: Chapter 75.18 RCW.

75.12.210 Conservation of salmon resources in Pacific Ocean—Net fishing for salmon in certain Pacific Ocean waters unlawful. It shall be unlawful for any person to fish for or take, by the use of any type of net, any salmon within the waters of the Pacific Ocean, over which the state has jurisdiction, lying westerly of the following described line: Commencing at the point of intersection of the international boundary line in the Strait of Juan de Fuca and a line drawn between the lighthouse on Tatoosh Island in Clallam County, Washington, and Bonilla Point on Vancouver Island; thence southerly along a line projected therefrom to the lighthouse on Tatoosh Island; thence southerly along a line projected therefrom to the most westerly point of Cape Flattery; thence southerly along the state shoreline of the Pacific Ocean, crossing any river mouths at their most westerly points of land, to Point Brown at the entrance to Grays Harbor; thence southerly along a line projected therefrom to Point Chehalis Light on Point Chehalis; thence southerly from Point Chehalis along the state shoreline of the Pacific Ocean to Cape Shoalwater Light at the entrance to Willapa Bay; thence southerly along a line projected therefrom to Leadbetter Point; thence southerly along the state shoreline of the Pacific Ocean to the inshore end of the North jetty at the entrance to the Columbia River; thence southerly along a line projected therefrom to the knuckle of the South jetty at the entrance to said river. Such laws or regulations shall be considered to be in effect upon receipt by the secretary of state of this state a certificate from each of the respective secretaries of state of Oregon, California, and Alaska setting forth copies of such laws or regulations and the date of their enactment. In any prosecution under this section, proof of the existence of such laws or regulations shall be made by filing copies of such certificates, certified by the director to be true copies, with the court. In any such prosecution, if written demand for proof of the existence of such laws or regulations is not made by the defendant prior to commencement of trial, he shall be deemed to have waived his right to make such demand, and thereafter such laws or regulations shall be presumed to exist. Such laws or regulations shall be considered to be in effect upon receipt by the secretary of state of this state a certificate from each of the respective secretaries of state of Oregon, California and Alaska setting forth copies of such laws or regulations and the date of their enactment. In any prosecution under this section, proof of the existence of such laws or regulations shall be made by filing copies of such certificates, certified by the director to be true copies, with the court. In any such prosecution, if written demand for proof of the existence of such laws or regulations is not made by the defendant prior to commencement of trial, he shall be deemed to have waived his right to make such demand, and thereafter such laws or regulations shall be presumed to exist. Such laws or regulations shall be considered to be in effect upon receipt by the secretary of state of this state of a certificate from each of the respective secretaries of state of Oregon and California, and, on behalf of Canada, from the Department of State of the United States setting forth copies of such laws or regulations and the date of their enactment. In any prosecution under RCW 75.12.200 through 75.12.270, proof of the existence of such laws or regulations may be made by filing copies of such certificates, certified by the director to be true copies, with the court. In any such prosecution, if written demand for proof of the existence of such laws or regulations is not made by the defendant prior to commencement of trial, he shall be deemed to have waived his right to make such demand, and thereafter such laws or regulations shall be presumed to exist. [1957 c 108 § 8.]

75.12.270 Conservation of salmon resources in Pacific Ocean—Construction of RCW 75.12.200 through 75.12.270. Nothing in RCW 75.12.200 through 75.12.270 shall be construed to restrict or impair the authority of the director, consistent with and pursuant to the provisions of this title, to promulgate such regulations as he may deem necessary to administer RCW 75.12.200 through 75.12.270 and to effectuate its purposes, to administer and effectuate all other acts relating to food fish or shellfish, or to regulate or prohibit salmon net fishing in waters not covered under RCW 75.12.200 through 75.12.270; nor shall anything herein be construed to restrict or impair the authority of the director to authorize the use of nets for the taking of salmon in waters of the Pacific Ocean for purposes of scientific investigation, or to promulgate regulations he may deem necessary under the provisions of the Pacific Marine Fisheries Compact. [1957 c 108 § 9.]

75.12.280 Monofilament gill net webbing for catching salmon unlawful. It shall be unlawful for any person to install, use, operate, or maintain within any waters of the state any monofilament gill net webbing of any description for the purpose of catching salmon, and it shall be unlawful to take salmon by any such means or with such gear. [1959 c 309 § 26.]

1. The salmon shall be taken while fishing on the charter boat;

4. The deckhand shall be licensed as provided in RCW 75.28.690 and shall have the license in possession whenever salmon roe is sold. [1981 c 227 § 1.]

75.12.300 Legislative finding—Salmon fishing by Wanapum (Sokulk) Indians. The legislature finds that the Sokulks Indians, otherwise known as the Wanapum band of Indians, have made a significant effort to maintain their traditional tribal culture, including the activity of taking salmon for ceremonial and subsistence purposes. The legislature further finds that previously the state has encouraged ceremonial and subsistence fishing by the Wanapums by chapter 210, Laws of 1939 and other permission. Therefore, the intent of the legislature in enacting RCW 75.12.310 is to recognize the cultural importance of salmon fishing to only the Wanapum Indians by authorizing these people a ceremonial and subsistence fishery, while also preserving the state's ability to conserve and manage the salmon resource. [1981 c 251 § 1.]

75.12.310 Salmon fishing by Wanapum (Sokulk) Indians. The department is authorized to issue permits to members of the Wanapum band of Indians to take salmon for ceremonial and subsistence purposes. The department shall establish the areas in which the permits are valid and shall regulate the times for and manner of taking the salmon. Provided, That nothing in RCW 75.12.300 and 75.12.310 shall be construed to create a right to fish for commercial purposes. [1981 c 251 § 2.]

75.12.650 "Angling" or "personal use" gear prohibited for commercial salmon fishing. "Angling" or "personal use" gear, in accordance with the provisions of RCW 75.04.070, RCW 75.04.080, RCW 75.04.100 and under the authority set forth in RCW 75.08.080, is prohibited for commercial salmon fishing. [1969 ex.s. c 23 § 1.]

Effective date—1969 ex.s. c 23: "The provisions of this act shall become effective January 1, 1970." [1969 ex.s. c 23 § 2.] This applies to RCW 75.12.650.

75.18.005 Preamble. The state of Washington has a major and substantial interest in the fisheries and fishing industry within its boundaries and a special interest in its salmon resources. Salmon within the waters of the state, including its coastal waters and offshore waters contiguous thereto, constitute a commercial asset and a vital food resource in which the state of Washington has a special interest, in that such salmon spawn in the fresh water streams of the state of Washington, migrate to the sea and, in response to their anadromous cycle, return to the fresh water streams of Washington, from which they originate, to spawn and die. Serious conditions and hazards detrimental to the preservation of this salmon supply have arisen and are now present, both in the fresh water streams of the state of Washington and in the salt waters of bays, inlets, canals, coves, sounds and estuaries, and in its coastal waters and offshore waters contiguous thereto, as a result of the extensive catching and taking of silver and chinook salmon within the described waters in such quantities as substantially to deplete the spawning and the source of existing and future salmon supplies and resources.

The preservation of the salmon industry and the salmon resources of the state of Washington is vital to the state's economy, and effective measures and remedies are necessary to prevent loss of such salmon resources due to the taking of immature fish and salmon present in the state's coastal and offshore waters, from which waters such salmon migrate, feed and return to the streams of this state to spawn.

It has proven impossible in seeking to regulate catching and taking of such salmon to distinguish between salmon taken from waters of the Pacific Ocean over which the state has jurisdiction and those taken outside the limits of the state's jurisdiction and brought within the boundaries of the state.

Research by the department of fisheries of the state has established that silver and chinook salmon found in the waters of district No. 2 and the Columbia River district, as herein defined, are substantially mature salmon. The silver and chinook salmon found during certain periods within the waters of district No. 1, herein defined, are for the most part immature salmon. The taking of which would prevent the return of an adequate number of such salmon to the spawning grounds in the streams of the state and risk the destruction or substantial depletions of the state's salmon resources, and would constitute an irreparable economic waste. [1955 c 12 § 75.18.005. Prior: 1953 c 147 § 1.]

75.18.010 Fishery districts created. The following fishery districts are hereby created:

It shall be unlawful for any person in the state of Washington engaged in the business of canning, packing, processing, freezing, salting, smoking, kippering, preserving in ice, or otherwise involved in dealing in or curing any food fish or shellfish, or in wholesale selling of food fish or shellfish for commercial purposes, to have in his possession any silver salmon (Oncorhynchus kisutch) caught or taken during the period from the first day of November of any year to the fifteenth day of June of the following year from the waters of the Pacific Ocean or district No. 1. [1955 c 12 § 75.18.060. Prior: 1953 c 147 § 7.]

The fee for said permit shall be two hundred dollars for the vessel and operator, such permit to be effective during the calendar year in which issued: Provided, That persons operating fishing vessels licensed under RCW 75.28.085 may apply the delivery permit fee of ten dollars against the fees outlined hereinafore except those holding a valid troll license are exempt from said fees: Provided further, That if it appears to the director of fisheries, after investigation, that the operation of such vessel under such permit tends to result in the impairment, depletion, or destruction of the salmon resource and supply of this state and in bringing into this state salmon products prohibited by law, in that event, the director under such regulations and terms as he may prescribe, may revoke said permit to use and operate such boat in the waters of this state, and in the event of the revocation of such permit, the further operation of such vessel as hereinafore set forth shall then be unlawful. 75.18.100 Salmon enhancement facilities program—Purpose—Intent. The long range economic development goals for the state of Washington shall include the restoration of salmon runs to provide an increased supply of this valuable renewable resource for the benefit of commercial and recreational users and the economic well-being of the state. For the purpose of providing funds for the planning, acquisition, construction, improvement, and operation of salmon enhancement facilities within the state it is the intent of the legislature that the revenues received from fees from the issuance of vessel delivery permits, charter boat licenses, trolling gear licenses, gill net gear licenses, purse seine gear licenses, reef net gear licenses, anadromous salmon angling licenses and all moneys received from all privilege fees and fish sales taxes collected on fresh or frozen salmon or parts thereof be utilized to fund such costs.

The salmon enhancement program funded by commercial and recreational fishing fees and taxes shall be for the express benefit of all persons whose fishing activities fall under the management authority of the Washington department of fisheries and who actively participate in the funding of the enhancement costs through the fees and taxes set forth in chapters 75.28 and 82.27 RCW or through other adequate funding methods. 75.18.110 Salmon enhancement facilities program—Requirements and factors to be considered—Salmon advisory council, expiration date. (1) The department shall not acquire, construct, or substantially improve any salmon enhancement facility unless the requirements of this section are met.

(a) The productivity of any salmon propagation facility is very dependent on water quantity and quality. Since there is a limited number of water sources which meet the critical needs of a facility it is imperative that these sources are acquired. Therefore, site acquisitions and preliminary design shall be considered by the department as generally having priority over project development.

(b) Prior to expending any moneys for the construction and development of any particular salmon propagation facility, except for site acquisition and preliminary design, the department shall, with the advice of the advisory council created in subsection (2) of this section, give consideration to the following factors with respect to that facility:

(i) The department's management authority over propagated salmon;

(ii) The level of expected Canadian interception on the propagated salmon and whether this would be acceptable;

(iii) Whether an acceptable agreement has been reached on the status of treaty Indian salmon harvest; and

(iv) Whether there can be a maximum harvest of propagated salmon with a tolerable impact on other salmonid stocks, both natural and artificial, and on their environment. The department shall consult on this matter with the department of game.

(2) To aid and advise the department in the performance of its functions as specified by this section with regard to the salmon enhancement program, a salmon advisory council is hereby created. The advisory council shall consist of thirteen members appointed by the governor; the director of the department of fisheries, who shall be chairman; the director of the department of game, or the director's designee; one member of the senate to be appointed by the president of the senate; and one member of the house of representatives to be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The council shall advise the director with regard to the considerations listed in subsection (1)(b) of this section and any other factors the council deems relevant with respect to the proposed facility.

Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments. Except for the director of the department of game and legislative members, members shall receive reimbursement through the department of fisheries for travel expenses incurred in the performance of their duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended.

The director of the department of game, or the director's designee, shall receive reimbursement through the department of game for travel expenses incurred in the performance of his or her duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended. The legislative members shall be deemed engaged in legislative business while in attendance upon the business of the council and shall be limited to such allowances therefor as otherwise provided in RCW 44.04.120 as now existing or hereafter amended.

75.20.120 Columbia River fish sanctuary—"Person" defined.

75.20.010 Columbia River fish sanctuary—Established. All streams and rivers tributary to the Columbia River downstream from McNary Dam are hereby reserved as an anadromous fish sanctuary against undue industrial encroachment for the preservation and development of the food and game fish resources of said river system and to that end there shall not be constructed thereon any dam of a height greater than twenty-five feet that may be located within the migration range of any anadromous fish as jointly determined by the director of fisheries and the director of game, nor shall waters of the Cowlitz River or its tributaries or of the other streams within the sanctuary area be diverted for any purpose other than fisheries in such quantities that will reduce the respective stream flows below the annual average low flow, as delineated in existing or future United States Geological Survey reports: Provided, That when the flow of any of the streams referred to in this section is below the annual average, as delineated in existing or future United States Geological Survey reports, water may be diverted for use, subject to legal appropriation, upon the concurrent order of the director of fisheries and director of game. [1955 c 12 § 75.20.010. Prior: 1949 c 9 § 1; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 5944-2.]

75.20.020 Columbia River fish sanctuary—Acquisition and abatement of dams—Water rights—Condemnation actions. The director of fisheries and the director of game, shall acquire and abate any dam or other obstruction, or acquire any water right which may have become vested on any streams or rivers tributary to the Columbia River downstream from McNary Dam which may be in conflict with the provisions of RCW 75.20.010. Any condemnation action necessary under the provisions of this section shall be instituted under the provisions of chapter 120, Laws of 1947, and in the manner provided for the acquisition of property for public use of the state. [1955 c 12 § 75.20.020. Prior: 1949 c 9 § 2; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 5944-3.]

75.20.030 Columbia River fish sanctuary—Rivers not included in sanctuary. The provisions of RCW 75.20.010 and 75.20.020 shall not apply to the waters of the North Fork of the Lewis River, nor the White Salmon River (Big White Salmon River). [1955 c 12 § 75.20.030. Prior: 1949 c 9 § 3; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 5944-4.]

75.20.040 Fish guards required—Penalty for failure. Every ditch, channel, canal or waterpipe used for conducting water from any lake, river or stream, for irrigation, manufacturing, domestic or other purposes, shall be provided at its entrance or intake with a fish guard so as to prevent the passage of fish into such ditch, channel or waterpipe and subject to the approval of the director, which shall be constantly maintained at all times when water is taken or admitted into such ditch, channel, canal or waterpipe: Provided, That such fish guards and screens shall be installed at such places and times as shall be prescribed by the director upon thirty days' notice to the owner or owners of any such water conduit. Every owner, manager, agent or person in charge of such ditch, channel, canal, or waterpipe who shall fail to comply with the provisions of this section is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Each day the end of the ditch, channel, canal or waterpipe is not equipped with this covering as provided shall constitute a separate offense. If within thirty days after notice to equip any such ditch, channel, canal, or waterpipe such person shall fail to do so, the director is hereby authorized to take possession of the same in the name of the state of Washington, and to close the same to the entrance of any water until such time as the ditch shall be properly equipped, and the expense incident thereto shall constitute a lien upon the ditch, channel, canal, or waterpipe and upon the real and personal property of the person owning the same. Notice of such lien shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county auditor in the county in which such action is taken. [1955 c 12 § 75.20.040. Prior: 1949 c 112 § 45; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 5780-319.]

75.20.050 Water flow to be maintained—May refuse permit to divert water. It is hereby declared to be the policy of this state that a flow of water sufficient to support game fish and food fish populations be maintained at all times in the streams of this state. The supervisor of hydraulics shall give the director of fisheries and the director of game notice of each application for a permit to divert water, or other hydraulic permit of any nature, and the director of fisheries and director of game shall have thirty days after receiving such notice in which to state their objections to the application, and the permit shall not be issued until such thirty days period has elapsed.

The supervisor of hydraulics may refuse to issue any permit to divert water, or any hydraulic permit of any nature, if, in the opinion of the director of fisheries or director of game, such permit might result in lowering the flow of water in any stream below the flow necessary to adequately support food fish and game fish populations in the stream.

The provisions of this section shall in no way affect existing water rights. [1955 c 12 § 75.20.050. Prior: 1949 c 112 § 46; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 5780–320.]

75.20.060 Fishways required in dams, obstructions—Remedies for failure.
Every dam or other obstruction across or in any stream shall be provided with a durable and efficient fishway, which shall be maintained in a practical and effective condition in such place, form and capacity as the director may approve, for which plans and specification shall be furnished by the director upon application to him, and which shall be kept open, unobstructed and supplied with a sufficient quantity of water to freely admit the passage of fish through the same. Every owner, manager, agent or person in charge of such dam or obstruction who shall fail to comply with the provisions of this section is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

If any person or government agency fails to construct and maintain such fish ladder or fishway or to remove such dam or obstruction in a manner satisfactory to the director, then within thirty days after written notice thereof has been served upon the owner, his agent, or the person in charge thereof, the director may construct a suitable fish ladder or fishway, or remove such dam or obstruction, and the actual cost in case of construction of fishway thereof shall constitute a lien upon the dam and upon all the personal property of the person or government agency owning the same. Notice of such lien shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county auditor of the county in which such dam or obstruction is situated. Such lien may be foreclosed in any action brought in the name of the state.

If any person or government agency fails to make any such fishway or remove such dam or obstruction in a manner satisfactory to the director, then within thirty days after written notice thereof has been served on the owner, his agent, or the person in charge, such dam or obstruction shall thereby become a public nuisance and the director may take possession thereof in his own name or in the name of the state and destroy it and no liability shall attach for such destruction. [1955 c 12 § 75.20.060. Prior: 1949 c 112 § 47; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 5780–321.]

75.20.061 Director may modify, etc., inadequate fishways and protective devices.
In the event any fish passage facility or fish protective device as set forth in RCW 75.20.040 and 75.20.060 which have been in existence or are existing at the time of enactment of this act, is determined by the director to be inadequate for the purposes for which it was intended; the director in addition to other authority granted in this chapter may in his discretion, remove, relocate, reconstruct, or modify said device, without cost for materials and labor to the owner or owners thereof: Provided, That the director may not materially modify the amount of flow of water through the facility or device. Thereafter such fish passage facility or fish protective device shall be maintained at the expense of the person or governmental agency owning said obstruction or water diversion in accordance with RCW 75.20.040 and 75.20.060. [1963 c 153 § 1.]

75.20.070 Unlawful to fish in or interfere with fishways, screens, etc.
It shall be unlawful for any person to fish for, take, injure, kill, or molest any fish in any fishway or fish ladder, fish screens, or other protective devices, or to interfere in any manner whatsoever with the proper operation of any fishway, fish ladder, fish screens, or other protective devices. [1955 c 12 § 75.20.070. Prior: 1949 c 112 § 39; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 5780–313.]

75.20.080 Unlawful to interfere with or damage fish ladders, guards, etc., or fish traps.
It shall be unlawful for any person to break open, open, unlock, damage, interfere with, injure, or destroy any fish ladder, fish guard, screen, fish stop, fish protective device, bypass, or part thereof, or any fish trap operated by the department. [1955 c 12 § 75.20.080. Prior: 1949 c 112 § 50; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 5780–324.]

75.20.090 If fishway is impractical, fish hatcheries may be provided in lieu.
In the event that any person or government agency desires to construct or maintain a dam or other hydraulic work in any of the streams of this state of a type making a fish ladder or fishway thereover impracticable, in the opinion of the director, then such person or government agency, before any construction work shall commence on such dam or other hydraulic work shall at the option of the director (1) convey to the state a site or sites of a size and dimensions satisfactory to the director, at such place as may be selected by the director, and erect thereon a fish hatchery or fish hatcheries, rearing ponds and other buildings according to plans and specifications to be furnished by said person or government agency subject to the approval of the director and enter into an agreement with director secured by good and sufficient bond, to furnish all water and lights, without expense, and necessary sums of money to operate and maintain said hatchery or hatcheries and rearing ponds or (2) enter into an agreement with the director secured by good and sufficient bond to pay to the state such initial money and make such annual payments of additional money to the state as the director may determine are necessary to expand, maintain, and operate additional facilities at existing hatcheries within a reasonable distance of such dam or other hydraulic work to compensate for the damages sustained by the erection of any such dam or other hydraulic work. Any decision of the director hereunder shall be subject to review in the superior court of the state for Thurston county.

Any person or government agency who fails to comply with the provisions of this section is guilty of a gross misdemeanor and each day that such person or government agency carries on construction work on such dam or hydraulic work or operates any such dam or hydraulic work without complying with the provisions of this section constitutes a separate offense. [1955 c 12 § 75.20-.090. Prior: 1949 c 112 § 48; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 5780-322.]

75.20.100 Hydraulic projects or other work—Plans and specifications—Approval—Failure to follow or carry out approval conditions—Penalty—Emergencies. In the event that any person or government agency desires to construct any form of hydraulic project or other work that will use, divert, obstruct, or change the natural flow or bed of any river or stream or that will utilize any of the waters of the state or materials from the stream beds, such person or government agency shall submit to the department of fisheries and the department of game full plans and specifications of the proposed construction or work, complete plans and specifications for the proper protection of fish life in connection therewith, the approximate date when such construction or work is to commence, and shall secure the written approval of the director of fisheries and the director of game as to the adequacy of the means outlined for the protection of fish life in connection therewith and as to the propriety of the proposed construction or work and time thereof in relation to fish life, before commencing construction or work thereon. The director of fisheries and the director of game shall designate and authorize certain employees of their respective departments to act in place of themselves by signing written approvals for such designations and authorizations. If any person or government agency commences construction on any such works or projects without first providing plans and specifications subject to the approval of the director of fisheries and the director of game for the proper protection of fish life in connection therewith and without first having obtained written approval of the director of fisheries and the director of game as to the adequacy of such plans and specifications submitted for the protection of fish life, or if any person or government agency fails to follow or carry out any of the requirements or conditions as are made a part of such approval, he is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. If any such person or government agency be convicted of violating any of the provisions of this section and continues construction or work without complying with the provisions hereof, such works or projects are hereby declared a public nuisance and shall be subject to abatement as such. For the purposes of this section, "bed" shall mean that portion of a river or stream and the shorelands within the ordinary high water lines.

Provided, That in case of an emergency arising from weather or stream flow conditions the department of fisheries or department of game, through their authorized representatives, shall issue immediately upon request oral permits to a riparian owner or lessee for removing any obstructions, repairing existing structures, restoring stream banks, or to protect property threatened by the stream without the necessity of submitting prepared plans and specifications or obtaining a written permit prior to commencing work. Conditions of an oral permit shall be reduced to writing within thirty days and complied with as provided for in this section. [1975 1st ex.s. c 29 § 1; 1967 c 48 § 1; 1955 c 12 § 75.20.100. Prior: 1949 c 112 § 49; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 5780-323.]

75.20.110 Columbia River fish sanctuary—1960 act. For the purpose of conserving the state's fishery resources the powers of any person authorized to construct or operate dams or to appropriate water in the state are hereby limited in that no such person shall construct, complete or operate, either for himself or as an agent or independent contractor for another, any dam or other obstruction over twenty-five feet high on any tributary stream of the Columbia River downstream from McNary Dam, including the Cowlitz River and its tributaries, within the migration range of anadromous fish as jointly determined by the directors of fisheries and game, except the north fork of the Lewis River and the White Salmon River (Big White Salmon River), nor shall any such person obtain or use a federal license for such purpose; nor shall any such person divert any water from any such stream in such quantities that will reduce the respective stream flows below the annual average low flow as set forth in existing or future United States Geological reports: Provided, That when the flow is below such annual average low flow, then such person may divert water, subject to legal appropriation, only upon the concurrent order of the directors of fisheries and game. [1961 c 4 § 1; Initiative Measure to the Legislature No. 25.]

Severability—1961 c 4: "If any section or provision or part thereof of this act shall be held unconstitutional or for any other reason invalid, the invalidity of such section, provision or part thereof shall not affect the validity of the remaining sections, provisions or parts thereof which are not judged to be invalid or unconstitutional." [1961 c 4 § 3; Initiative Measure to the Legislature No. 25.] This applies to RCW 75.20.110 and 75.20.120.

Reserves to be productive, self-maintaining—Furnish shellfish stock—Development—Harvesting for personal use, when. It is hereby declared to be the policy of the state to improve the oyster reserves of the state to the end that all may finally become productive, and to have these reserves yield a revenue sufficient for their maintenance and betterment. In fixing the price at which oysters and other shellfish shall be sold from the reserves, the director shall take into consideration such policy. It is further declared to be the policy of the state to maintain the oyster reserves for the purpose of furnishing a supply of shellfish to growers and processors and for the stocking of public beaches: Provided, That shellfish may be harvested for personal use as prescribed by the director.

The director shall protect all reserves, reseed, replant, issue cultch permits and do such other things as in his judgment are necessary for their care and protection. [1969 ex.s.c.91 §1; 1955 c 12 § 75.24.060. Prior: 1949 c 112 § 56; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 5780–403.]

Sale of shellfish from reserves. The director shall have the power to determine whether oysters and other shellfish from the oyster reserves of the state shall be sold by the bushel at a price set by the director or whether certain quantities or all of such oysters and other shellfish should be sold for cash at public auction or by sealed bids in such amounts as the director shall from time to time determine.

To maintain the permanency of local communities and industries, the prospects of fulfillment of contract requirement, and to restrain monopolistic controls endangering competition in the industry, the director shall have the power to determine the number of bushels which shall be sold to any person, firm, or corporation; and when sold at public auction, the right to reject any and all bids.
The director shall have the power to determine the time, place, and manner of holding the auctions and sales provided for in this section. [1955 c 12 § 75.24.070. Prior: 1949 c 112 § 57; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 5780-404.]

These shall be called "infested shellfish areas." No person shall transplant any shellfish within such restricted areas nor transport any shellfish, or any material, or organism, or boats, scows, or other equipment used in taking, handling, or processing shellfish into or out of such restricted areas without first having obtained a permit from the director. [1955 c 12 § 75.24.080. Prior: 1949 c 112 § 59; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 5780-406.]

[1955 c 212 § 7; 1955 c 12 § 75.24.090. Prior: 1949 c 112 § 61; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 5780-408.]

75.24.100 Geoduck clams, harvesting for commercial purposes—License—Gear—Director may impose limitations—Compliance with federal law—OSH A. (1) The director of fisheries may at his discretion and with the approval of the commissioner of public lands issue licenses for the harvesting of geoduck clams for commercial purposes from specific tracts of beds of navigable waters of the state of Washington where harvest rights have been granted by the department of natural resources except that he may not authorize harvesting for commercial purposes on bottoms which are shallower than eighteen feet below mean lower low water (o.o. ft.), or which lie in an area bounded by the line of ordinary high tide (mean high tide) and a line two hundred yards seaward from and parallel to said line of ordinary high tide. If the director shall determine that the numbers of units of gear are sufficient to harvest the known available crop and that additional units of gear might prove damaging to the resource or its habitat, he may suspend the issuance of such additional licenses for the balance of any given year or until he determines there is need for additional units of gear to achieve a sustained harvest. All harvesting shall be done with hand held, manually operated water jet or suction device guided and controlled from under water by scuba or other diver. The director shall also determine from time to time the effect of each type or unit of gear upon the geoduck population or the substrate they inhabit and he may require modification of the gear or cessation of its use if he determines that it is being operated in a wasteful or destructive manner or that its operation tends to cause permanent damage to the bottom or adjacent shellfish populations.

(2) Any person, including the person's agents or representatives, who is issued or currently holds a license under subsection (1) of this section shall comply with all applicable commercial diving safety standards and regulations promulgated and implemented by the federal occupational safety and health administration established under the federal occupational safety and health act of 1970 as such law exists on May 8, 1979 (84 Stat. 1590 et seq.; 29 U.S.C. Sec. 651 et seq.). Violations of these safety standards and regulations shall be deemed to be violations of this subsection: Provided, That for the purposes of this section and RCW 79.01.570 all persons who dive for geoducks are deemed to be "employees" as defined by the federal occupational safety and health act. Violations of this subsection are grounds for suspension or cancellation of the license upon ten days written notice to the licensee and following a hearing on the matter. In no event shall a license be suspended or canceled if the violation has been corrected within ten days. If there is a substantial probability that a particular violation of the commercial diving standards could result in death or serious physical harm to any person engaged in harvesting geoduck clams, the license shall be suspended immediately until the violation causing the probability of death or serious physical harm has been corrected: Provided further, That for the purposes of this subsection, if the licensee is the holder of a tract license and contracts with another entity for the harvesting of geoducks, the license shall not be suspended or canceled if the licensee terminates its business relationship with such entity until compliance with this subsection is secured. [1979 ex.s. c 141 § 1; 1969 ex.s. c 253 § 1.]

Liberal construction—1969 ex.s. c 253: "The provisions of this act shall be liberally construed." [1969 ex.s. c 253 § 5.] This refers to RCW 75.24.100, 75.28.280, 75.28.281 and 75.28.287. Sev erability—1969 ex.s. c 253: "If any provisions of this 1969 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected." 75.25.100 Effective date—1979 ex.s. c 243.

75.25.010 Legislative intent. The legislature, recog nizing that the digging of razor clams, Siliqua patula, is a major recreational asset to the state, declares that it is the policy of the state to improve recreational razor clam digging for residents of the state. The legislature finds that clam wastage and violation of daily bag limits by some clam diggers has made effective clam resource conservation extremely difficult. It is the intent of the legislature to provide a razor clam license program that will be an aid to effective management and conservation of the razor clam resource. It is also the intent of the legislature to provide a source of funds that can be used to defray the expenses of added enforcement, enhancement, research, and educational programs related to raazor clams. [1979 ex.s. c 243 § 1.]

75.25.020 License required. It is unlawful for any person to take, dig for, or have in his or her possession any razor clam that is taken for personal use from the clam beds of this state without first having obtained and having in his or her possession a razor-clamming license as provided in RCW 75.25.030. [1979 ex.s. c 243 § 2.]

75.25.030 Licenses—Agent's fee—Rules. Raazor-clamming licenses shall be issued by or under the authority of the director of fisheries. The director may authorize license dealers to issue the licenses and charge an agent's fee of not more than fifty cents in addition to the license fee.

The director shall adopt appropriate rules for the issuance of razor-clamming licenses and for the collection, payment, and handling of license fees and agent's fees. [1979 ex.s. c 243 § 3.]

75.25.040 License fees. (1) The fees for razor-clamming licenses are:
(a) For an annual resident license, two dollars and fifty cents; and
(b) For an annual nonresident license, ten dollars.
(2) Any resident sixty-five years of age or older or under sixteen years of age shall be issued, upon making an affidavit to such effect and upon payment of the dealer fee established in RCW 75.25.030, a personal use razor clam license at no cost.
(3) For the purposes of this chapter, "resident" means a person who, for at least thirty days immediately preceding application for a license, has maintained a permanent place of abode within this state and has established, by formal evidence, an intent to continue residence within this state. All other persons are nonresidents.
(4) License fees received from the issuance of razor-clamming licenses shall be paid into the general fund and shall be subject to legislative appropriation until the cumulative total subject to legislative appropriation equals the appropriation under *section 11 of this act or so much of that appropriation as is actually used. Any excess over the amount appropriated or used shall be credited to the department of fisheries and shall be ex-expanded on the development or operation of programs beneficial to razor clam harvesting. [1980 c 81 § 1; 1979
ex.s. c 243 § 4.]

*Reviser's note: Section 11 of this act, chapter 243, Laws of 1979
ex.s., is an appropriation section and is not codified.

1980." [1980 c 81 § 3.]

75.25.050 Licenses—Exhibiting—Enforcement. (1) Razor-clamming licenses are nontransferable. A person digging for razor clams or having razor clams in his or her possession that are taken for personal use from the clam beds of this state shall, upon demand of any fisheries patrol officer, fisheries inspector, deputy fishesries inspector, game protector, or law enforcement officer within their respective jurisdictions, exhibit his or her license and write his or her name for the purpose of comparison with the signature on the license. Failure to exhibit the license or write the name upon demand shall be prima facie evidence that the person has no license or is not the person named on the license in the person's possession.
(2) The razor-clamming license shall be attached to an outer garment or be otherwise visible on the person of the licensee. [1979 ex.s. c 243 § 5.]

75.25.060 Penalty for violations. A person who vilates RCW 75.25.020 or 75.25.050 or the rules adopted by the director under RCW 75.25.030 or who knowingly falsifies any information required for the issuance of a razor-clamming license is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall incur the penalties set forth in RCW 9A.20.020(3), as now or hereafter amended. [1979 ex.s. c 243 § 6.]

75.25.070 Annual report to the legislature. The department shall report annually prior to December 31 to the legislature on the number of licenses sold, revenues received, the results of the programs initiated under this chapter, and the status of the resource to enable the legislature to determine if the provisions of this chapter have proved beneficial to the utilization and conservation of the resource. [1979 ex.s. c 243 § 7.]

75.25.080 Digging clams for disabled persons. It shall be lawful to dig the personal-use daily bag limit of razor clams for another person if that person has in possession a physical disability permit approved by the director. [1980 c 81 § 2.]

Effective date—1980 c 81: See note following RCW 75.25.040.

75.25.900 Severability—1979 ex.s. c 243. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1979 ex.s. c 243 § 10.]

75.25.910 Effective date—1979 ex.s. c 243. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1979. [1979 ex.s. c 243 § 9.]

Reviser's note: This act consists of RCW 75.25.010, 75.25.020, 75-25.030, 75.25.040, 75.25.050, 75.25.060, 75.25.070, 75.25.900 and Legislative findings—1980 c 133: "The legislature finds that a significant commercial crab fishery is developing within Puget Sound. The legislature further finds that the crab fishery in Puget Sound represents a separate and distinct fishery from that of the coastal waters and is limited in quantity and is in need of conservation. The potential for depletion of the crab stocks in these waters is increasing, particularly as crab fishing becomes an attractive alternative to fishermen facing increasing restrictions on commercial salmon fishing.

The legislature finds that the number of commercial fishermen engaged in crab fishing has steadily increased. This factor, combined with advances in fishing and marketing techniques, has resulted in strong pressures on the supply of crab, unnecessary waste of an important natural resource, and economic loss to the citizens of the state.

The legislature finds that increased regulation of commercial crab fishing is necessary to preserve and efficiently manage the commercial crab fishery in the waters of Puget Sound." [1980 c 133 § 1.]

75.28.275 Licenses to take crab—Requirements, limitations. Commercial crab licenses issued under RCW 75.28.274 endorsed for the Puget Sound licensing district shall be limited to those vessels which:

(a) Held a commercial shellfish pot license issued between January 1, 1975, and December 31, 1979, or had transferred to the vessel such a license;

(b) Have not transferred the license to another vessel;

(c) Can establish, by means of shellfish receiving documents issued by the department, that one thousand pounds of crab were caught and landed in the Puget Sound licensing district under the license during any one year in that period; and

(d) Held, and have not transferred, a shellfish pot license during 1980.

(2) In addition to the requirements of subsection (1) of this section, after January 1, 1982, commercial crab licenses endorsed for the Puget Sound licensing district may be issued only to vessels which held a commercial crab license during the previous year or had transferred to the vessel such a license. Where the failure to obtain the license during the previous year was the result of a license suspension or revocation by the department, the vessel may qualify for a license by establishing that the vessel held such a license during the last year in which it was eligible.

(3) The issuance of commercial crab licenses for areas other than the Puget Sound licensing district is not restricted by this section.

(4) License endorsements issued under this section are not transferable from one owner to another owner, except from parent to child or upon the death of the owner, before July 1, 1982. [1980 c 133 § 4.]

The members shall serve at the discretion of the director and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060, as now existing or hereafter amended.

The director may adopt rules concerning the operation of the review boards. [1980 c 133 § 5.]

75.28.277 Crab license decisions—Review, appeal. A person aggrieved by a decision of the department under RCW 75.28.274 or 75.28.275 may request administrative review either as a contested case under chapter 34.04 RCW or under the informal review procedure provided by this section.

In an informal hearing before a board of review, the rules of evidence do not apply. A record of the proceeding shall be kept as provided in chapter 34.04 RCW. After hearing the case, the board of review shall notify in writing both the director and the initiating party as to whether the board agrees or disagrees with the decision of the department, together with the reasons for the board's findings. Upon receipt of the board's findings, the director may either uphold or reverse the department's actions.
A person aggrieved by a final decision of the director is entitled to judicial review under chapter 34.04 RCW. If the final decision of the director results in the issuance of a commercial crab license, any person holding a commercial crab license is entitled to judicial review under chapter 34.04 RCW.

Nothing in this section may be construed to impose liability on members of the board of review for their actions under this section. [1980 c 133 § 6.]

The fee for said license is fifteen dollars per annum, and shall be paid for each and every year in which clams are removed from the clam farm for purposes of sale. A separate license is required for each clam farm being operated within each of the following clam districts; northern Puget Sound district, southern Puget Sound district, Grays Harbor district, and Willapa Harbor district; said districts are to include the waters, beds, shores, beaches, and tidelands of, northern Puget Sound, southern Puget Sound, Grays Harbor, and Willapa Harbor, respectively, as geographically defined by the director of fisheries under appropriate regulations. 75.28.375 Certain license fees double for nonresidents. The fees for all licenses prescribed in *this act shall be double for nonresidents of the state. [1971 ex.s. c 283 § 12.]

(1) In addition to license fees required to accompany license applications for wholesale dealers licenses, the director may require certain applicants, as specified in this section, to file a surety bond in the amount of two thousand dollars, issued by a surety insurer who meets the requirements of chapter 48.28 RCW in a form acceptable to the director running to the state of Washington, guaranteeing the payment of catch and privilege fees. Such bond shall be required of any applicant from outside the state of Washington and any applicant who has not held a Washington wholesale dealers license for the preceding three years.

(2) In lieu of the surety bond that may be required under subsection (1) of this section, the applicant may file with the director a property bond, or a deposit, consisting of cash or other security acceptable to the department, equal to the amount of the surety bond. The director shall file all such deposits with the state treasurer until such time as they are returned or applied to outstanding fees. [1975-76 2nd ex.s. c 40 § 3.]

75.28.380 Forfeiture of license for violations. Upon conviction of any person of a violation of any provision of this title, or rule or regulation of the director, the judge or justice of the peace may, in addition to the penalty imposed by law, forfeit the license of such person: Provided, That upon conviction of any person of a violation of any statute or regulation prescribing the length, depth or construction of fishing gear, or upon subsequent conviction in any five-year period of any person of any violation of any other provisions of this title or rule or regulation of the director, the forfeiture of such license shall be mandatory, and the license shall remain forfeited pending any appeal. An unvacated forfeiture of bail or collateral deposited to secure the defendant's appearance in court, the payment of a fine, a plea of guilty, or a finding of guilt on a violation of this title is equivalent to a conviction regardless of whether the imposition of sentence is deferred or the penalty is suspended. [1979 ex.s. c 99 § 3.]

75.28.390 Commercial herring fishing—Legislative finding. The legislature finds that a significant commercial herring fishing industry is presently developing in the state of Washington under the careful guidance of the department of fisheries. The legislature further finds that the stocks of herring within the waters of this state are limited in extent and are in need of strict preservation. [1973 1st ex.s. c 173 § 1.]

75.28.400 Commercial herring fishing—Additional finding—Purpose. In addition, the legislature finds that the number of commercial fishermen engaged in fishing for herring has steadily increased. This factor, combined with advances made in fishing and marketing techniques, has resulted in strong pressures on the supply of herring, unnecessary waste in one of Washington's valuable resources, and economic loss to the citizens of this state. Therefore, it is the purpose of RCW 75.28.390 through 75.28.430 to establish reasonable procedures for controlling the extent of commercial herring fishing. [1973 1st ex.s. c 173 § 2.]

75.28.410 Commercial herring fishing—Validation of licenses required. After April 25, 1973, only those persons who have obtained a validated license to fish for herring issued by the department of fisheries of the state of Washington shall engage in the commercial taking or catching of herring. department shall limit the number of licenses validated under RCW 75.28.410 to those individuals who held valid commercial fishing licenses and can prove that they landed herring as documented by a Washington department of fisheries landing ticket for that type of fishing gear during the period (1) January 1, 1971, season by the department only upon a showing that the stocks of herring will not be jeopardized by the granting of such additional licenses. The individual validation to 75.28.430 Commercial herring fishing—Elimination of units as alternative measure. If subsequent court action requires that additional validated licenses must be permitted for the 1973 season and if such increases in a particular gear result in placing an excessive strain on herring stocks, the department shall reduce the number of validated licenses for such gear by eliminating units with the shortest history of landings as established and documented by Washington department of fisheries' landing tickets for the herring fishery. If two or more units have a similar history of landings, then such reduction for those vessels shall be by lot. [1973 1st ex.s. c 173 § 5.]

75.28.440 Commercial herring fishing—Advisory committeee—Hardship cases. On and after February 16, 1974 the director of the department of fisheries shall appoint three persons broadly representative of the com­ cial herring fishery to function as an advisory committee to the department for the purpose of defining hardship cases as such cases relate to denials of com­ cial herring licenses under this chapter. The committee shall hold meetings and hearings and take such testimony as it deems necessary to carry out the duty imposed on it by this section. Upon making its final decision on the meaning of a hardship case and communicating the same in writing to the director the committee shall be dissolved. The director, upon receipt of the committee's findings, may promulgate the committee's definition of a hardship case as a rule and regulation of the department after complying with the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW, the administrative procedure act. [1974 ex.s. c 104 § 2.]

75.28.450 Limitation upon salmon licenses and delivery permits—Intention. The legislature finds that the protection, welfare, and economic good of the commercial salmon fishing industry is of paramount importance to the people of this state. Scientific advancement has increased the efficiency of salmon fishing gear. There presently exists an overabundance of commercial salmon fishing gear in our state waters which causes great pressure on the salmon fishery resource. This situation re­ results in great economic waste to the state and prohibits conservation programs from achieving their goals. The public welfare requires that the number of commercial salmon fishing licenses and vessel delivery permits issued by the state be limited to insure that sound conservation programs can be scientifically carried out. It is the intention of the legislature to preserve this valuable natural resource so that our food supplies from such resource can continue to meet the ever increasing demands placed on it by the people of this state. [1974 ex.s. c 184 § 1.]

Severability—1974 ex.s. c 184: 'If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.' [1974 ex.s. c 184 § 11.]

75.28.455 Limitation upon salmon licenses and delivery permits—Program to limit commercial salmon vessels—Qualifications for licensing. On and after May 6, 1974, the department of fisheries of the state of Washington shall initiate a program to limit the number of commercial salmon vessels for each type of fishing gear and area.

(1) Except for vessels coming under the provisions of RCW 75.28.460, no commercial salmon fishing license or vessel delivery permit shall be issued to a vessel unless that vessel (a) was issued or had transferred to it a valid Washington state commercial salmon fishing license or vessel delivery permit during the previous calendar year, or during the last calendar year in which the vessel was legally eligible for licenses if the vessel's licenses were suspended or revoked during the calendar year or years previous to the year for which the licenses are being sought; (b) has not subsequently transferred the license or permit to another vessel; and (c) can prove by means of a valid fish receiving document that food fish were cought and landed by such vessel in this state or in another state during the previous calendar year, or during the last calendar year in which the vessel was legally eligible for licenses if the vessel's licenses were suspended or revoked during the calendar year or years previous to the year for which the licenses are being sought.

(2) The director may waive the landing requirement of subsection (1)(c) of this section if (a) the vessel to which an otherwise valid license is transferred has not had the opportunity to have caught and landed salmon and (b) the intent of the commercial salmon vessel limitation program established under this section is not violated.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to be contrary to the provisions of Title 75 RCW or any regulation promulgated thereunder. All such licenses or vessel delivery permits shall be transferable. [1979 c 135 § 1; 1977 ex.s. c 230 § 1; 1977 ex.s. c 106 § 7; 1974 ex.s. c 184 § 2.]

Severability—1977 ex.s. c 106: See note following RCW 75.30.010.
Severability—1974 ex.s. c 184: See note following RCW 75.28.450.

75.28.460 Limitation upon salmon licenses and delivery permits—Salmon caught outside state waters—Single delivery permit—Fee. Any commercial salmon fishing vessel not qualified for a commercial salmon fishing license or vessel delivery permit under RCW 75.28.455 and wishing to land salmon caught outside the territorial waters of the state of Washington shall be able to obtain a single delivery vessel delivery permit. The fee for such permit shall be one hundred dollars. [1977 ex.s. c 327 § 4; 1974 ex.s. c 184 § 3.]

Severability—Effective date—1977 ex.s. c 327: See notes following RCW 75.18.100.
Severability—1974 ex.s. c 184: See note following RCW 75.28.450.

75.28.465 Limitation upon salmon licenses and delivery permits—Vessels under construction. In addition to the commercial salmon fishing licenses and vessel delivery permits issued pursuant to RCW 75.28.455 the department shall issue the required license to any commercial fishing vessel which is under construction or purchased in good faith between April 16, 1973, and May 6, 1974. [1974 ex.s. c 184 § 4.]

Severability—1974 ex.s. c 184: See note following RCW 75.28.450.

75.28.470 Limitation upon salmon licenses and delivery permits—Licensing of charter fishing vessels. Charter fishing vessels may be licensed for commercial trolling during the salmon trolling season if the director finds that the charter industry in this state is suffering economic hardship due to a national or state fuel crisis. [1974 ex.s. c 184 § 6.]

Severability—1974 ex.s. c 184: See note following RCW 75.28.450.

75.28.475 Limitation upon salmon licenses and delivery permits—Advisory boards of review—Travel expenses. The director shall appoint three man advisory boards of review to hear cases as provided for in RCW 75.28.480. The members of such a review board shall be from the commercial salmon fishing industry, shall serve without pay, and shall serve at the discretion of the director of the department of fisheries. The members of such a review board shall be reimbursed for travel expenses pursuant to RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended for each day or major portion thereof spent in the performance of their duty. The director shall promulgate regulations concerning the operation of such review boards in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW. [1975–76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 171; 1974 ex.s. c 184 § 7.]

Severability—1974 ex.s. c 184: See note following RCW 75.28.450.

75.28.480 Limitation upon salmon licenses and delivery permits—Appeal to board of review—Hearing—Procedure. Any person aggrieved by a decision of the department pursuant to RCW 75.28.455 through 75.28.475 may voluntarily request that a board of review be impaneled to hear his case. Such a hearing before a board shall be informal and the rules of evidence shall not be applicable to the proceedings and a record shall be kept thereof as provided by chapter 34.04 RCW. After the presentation of a case such a review board shall inform in writing both the director and the initiating party of whether or not the board agrees or disagrees with the department’s decision and the reasons for such agreement or disagreement. Upon receipt of the board’s findings the director, at his discretion, may either uphold or reverse the department’s action.

Nothing in this section shall be construed: (1) to impair an aggrieved person’s right to proceed under chapter 34.04 RCW; or (2) to impose any liability on members of a review board for their actions pursuant to this section. [1974 ex.s. c 184 § 9.]

75.28.500 Program to purchase fishing vessels, gear, licenses and permits—Finding and intent. The legislature finds that the protection, welfare, and economic well-being of the commercial fishing industry is important to the people of this state. There presently exists an overabundance of commercial fishing gear in our state waters which causes great pressure on the fishing resources. This results in great economic waste to the state and prohibits conservation and harvesting programs from achieving their goals. This adverse situation has been compounded by the federal court decisions, United States of America et al. v. State of Washington et al., Civil No. 9213, United States District Court for the Western District of Washington; February 12, 1974, and Sohappy v. Smith, 302 F. Supp. 899 (D. Oregon, 1969), as amended, affirmed, and remanded 529 F. 2d 570 (9th Cir., 1976). As a result, large numbers of commercial fishermen face personal economic hardship, and the state commercial fishing industry is confronted with economic difficulty. The public welfare requires that the state have the authority to purchase commercial fishing vessels, licenses, gear, and permits offered for sale, as appropriate, in a manner which will provide relief to the individual vessel owner, and which will effect a reduction in the amount of commercial fishing gear in use in the state so as to insure increased economic opportunity for those persons in the industry and to ensure that sound scientific conservation and harvesting programs can be carried out. It is the intention of the legislature to provide relief to commercial fishermen adversely affected... by the current economic situation in the state fishery and to preserve this valuable state industry and these natural resources. [1977 ex.s. c 230 § 2; 1975 1st ex.s. c 183 § 2.]

Loan assistance program for commercial fishermen: Chapter 75.44 RCW.

State of Washington et al., Civil No. 9213, United States District Court for Western District of Washington, February 12, 1974, and in Sohappy v. Smith, 302 F. Supp. 899 (D. Oregon, 1969), as amended, affirmed, and remanded 529 F. 2d 570 (9th Cir., 1976), or any area in which fishing rights are affected by court decision in a manner consistent with the above-mentioned decisions;

The department is authorized to purchase commercial fishing vessels and appurtenant gear, and the current commercial fishing licenses and delivery permits and charter boat licenses issued by the state of Washington if the vessel, licensee, or permit holder:

(1) Was licensed to fish or deliver fish during 1974, 1975, 1976, or 1977 within the case areas; and

The department shall not purchase any vessel without also purchasing all current Washington commercial fishing licenses and delivery permits and charter boat licenses issued to such vessel or its owner: Provided, That the department is authorized to purchase current licenses and delivery permits in the absence of the purchase of a vessel. [1979 ex.s. c 43 § 1; 1977 ex.s. c 230 § 4; 1975 1st ex.s. c 183 § 4.]

The director may commence suit or be sued on any such instrument in any state court of record or United States district court having jurisdiction. [1979 ex.s. c 43 § 2; 1975 1st ex.s. c 183 § 6.]

Upon conviction of any person of a violation of any provision of RCW 75.28.500 through 75.28.540, or rule or regulation of the director, the judge or justice of the peace may, in addition to the penalty imposed by law, provide for the forfeiture of the vessel and licenses and/or permits to the state of Washington. With recognition of the efforts of the department of fisheries and of those regulations presently existing for the protection and perpetuation of existing herring stocks in RCW 75.28.390 through 75.28.440, the legislature finds that the existing opportunity to engage in the herring harvest is not equitable.

There is hereby created a five member Herring Fleet Opportunity Board to be appointed by the governor within thirty days after June 12, 1980, for terms ending at the conclusion of the 1983 session of the legislature, consisting of two purse seine operators who do not harvest herring in Washington state, two gillnet operators who do not harvest herring in Washington state, and one Washington department of fisheries representative familiar with the herring resource, for the purpose of creating a more equitable harvesting system. Chapter 75.30

SALMON CHARTER BOAT LICENSING LIMITATIONS

Sections
75.30.010 Legislative findings.
75.30.020 Moratorium on issuance of licenses—Renewals—Transfers.
75.30.040 Duty of department to evaluate and recommend phase II approach.
75.30.050 Advisory board of review.
75.30.060 Hearings.
75.30.070 Anglers' permits.
75.30.080 Anglers' permits/boat size schedule.
75.30.090 Maximum number of anglers—Penalty.
75.30.100 Anglers limited—Permits transferred.

75.30.010 Legislative findings. The legislature finds that the wise management and economic health of the state's salmon fishery are of continued importance to the people of the state and to the economy of the state as a whole. The legislature finds that charter boats licensed by the state for use by the state's charter boat fishing industry have increased in quantity. The legislature finds that limitations on the number of licensed charter boats will tend to improve the management of the charter boat fishery and the economic health of the charter boat industry. The state therefore must use its authority to regulate the number of licensed boats in use by the state's charter boat industry in a manner provided in this chapter so that management and economic health of the salmon fishery may be improved. [1977 ex.s. c 106 § 1.]

Severability—1977 ex.s. c 106: "If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected." [1977 ex.s. c 106 § 10.]

75.30.020 Moratorium on issuance of licenses—Renewals—Transfers. For the purposes of this chapter, the term "charter boat" shall refer only to those charter boats from which salmon are taken. On and after May 28, 1977, the department shall initiate a moratorium on the issuance of charter boat licenses by issuing such licenses only to those boats whose owners can prove by means of good and sufficient documentary evidence that the boat was licensed pursuant to RCW 75.28.095 between January 1, 1974, and January 1, 1977. No charter boat shall be entitled to more than one charter boat license.

Such boats shall be entitled to receive and renew the charter boat license for each year. A charter boat license for which no application is made to the department or which is not renewed in any year automatically expires and shall not be renewed further.

Nothing herein shall be construed to be contrary to the provisions of Title 75 RCW or any rule promulgated thereunder. All such charter boat licenses shall be transferable. [1981 c 202 § 1; 1979 c 101 § 7; 1977 ex.s. c 106 § 2.]

After the presentation of a case each review board shall inform the director and the initiating party in writing concerning whether or not the review board recommends that the charter boat license be issued and the reason for such recommendation. Upon receipt of the review board's findings the director...
may order such relief as the director deems appropriate under the circumstances.

Nothing in this section shall be construed: (1) To impair an aggrieved person's right to proceed under chapter 34.04 RCW; or (2) to impose any liability on members of a review board for their action pursuant to this section. [1977 ex.s. c 106 § 6.]

Effective date—1979 c 101: "This act shall take effect on January 1, 1980." [1979 c 101 § 10.]

Intent—1979 c 101: "The legislature finds that wise management of the state's salmon fishery is essential to the well-being of the state. The legislature recognizes that further restrictions on salmon fishing in the charter salmon industry are necessary and that a limitation on the number of persons fishing is preferable to reductions in the fishing season or daily bag limits, or increases in size limits." [1979 c 101 § 1.] 75.30.070. Members of the crew may fish from the boat only to the extent that the number of anglers specified in the angler permit exceeds the number of noncrews passengers on the boat at that time.

Effective date—Intent—1979 c 101: See notes following RCW 75.30.070.

(2) Angler permits issued under RCW 75.30.070 are fully transferable. A charter boat possessing an angler permit may transfer all or a portion of the permit to another charter boat. The holder of such a permit, after complying with subsection (3) of this section, may use, and renew, the permit, even though the use of the permit will allow the charter boat to exceed the initial number of anglers established in RCW 75.30.080.

(3) When an angler permit is transferred, the department shall be notified, and the department shall issue a new angler permit certificate. If the original permit holder retains a portion of the permit, the department shall issue a new angler permit certificate reflecting the decrease in authorized angler capacity. The department shall collect a fee of ten dollars for each certificate issued under this subsection. [1979 c 101 § 5.]

75.40.030 Pacific Marine Fisheries Compact—Provisions. Should congress, by virtue of the authority vested in it under Article I, section 10, of the Constitution of the United States, providing for compacts and agreements between the states, ratify The Pacific Marine Fisheries Compact after the enactment of this compact by the states of Alaska, California, Idaho, Oregon and Washington, then, and in that event, there shall exist between the contracting states a definite compact and agreement, the purport of which shall be substantially as follows:

THE PACIFIC MARINE FISHERIES COMPACT

The contracting states do hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE I.

The purposes of this compact are and shall be to promote the better utilization of fisheries, marine, shell and anadromous, which are of mutual concern, and to develop a joint program of protection and prevention of physical waste of such fisheries in all of those areas of the Pacific Ocean and adjacent waters over which the compacting states jointly or separately now have or may hereafter acquire jurisdiction.

Nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to authorize the compacting states or any of them to limit the production of fish or fish products for the purpose of establishing or fixing the prices thereof or creating and perpetuating a monopoly.

ARTICLE II.

This agreement shall become operative immediately as to those states executing it whenever the compacting states have executed it in the form that is in accordance with the laws of the executing states and the congress has given its consent.

ARTICLE III.

Each state joining herein shall appoint, as determined by state statutes, one or more representatives to a commission hereby constituted and designated as The Pacific Marine Fisheries Commission, of whom one shall be the administrative or other officer of the agency of such state charged with the conservation of the fisheries resources to which this compact pertains. This commission shall be a body with the powers and duties set forth herein.

The term of each commissioner of The Pacific Marine Fisheries Commission shall be four years. A commissioner shall hold office until his successor shall be appointed and qualified but such successor's term shall expire four years from legal date of expiration of the term of his predecessor. Vacancies occurring in the office of such commissioner from any reason or cause shall be filled for the unexpired term, or a commissioner may be removed from office, as provided by the statutes of the state concerned. Each commissioner may delegate in writing from time to time to a deputy the power to be present and participate, including voting as his representative or substitute, at any meeting of or hearing by or other proceeding of the commission.

Voting powers under this compact shall be limited to one vote for each state regardless of the number of representatives.

ARTICLE IV.

The duty of the said commission shall be to make inquiry and ascertain from time to time such methods, practices, circumstances and conditions as may be disclosed for bringing about the conservation and the prevention of the depletion and physical waste of the fisheries, marine, shell, and anadromous in all of those areas of the Pacific Ocean over which the states signatory to this compact jointly or separately now have or may hereafter acquire jurisdiction. The commission shall have power to recommend the coordination of the exercise of the police powers of the several states within their respective jurisdictions and said conservation zones to promote the preservation of those fisheries and their protection against overfishing, waste, depletion or any abuse whatsoever and to assure a continuing yield from the fisheries resources of the signatory parties hereto.

To that end the commission shall draft and, after consultation with the advisory committee hereinafter authorized, recommend to the governors and legislative branches of the various signatory states hereto legislation dealing with the conservation of the marine, shell and anadromous fisheries in all of those areas of the Pacific Ocean and adjacent waters over which the signatory states jointly or separately now have or may hereafter acquire jurisdiction. The commission shall, more than one month prior to any regular meeting of the legislative branch in any state signatory hereto, present to the governor of such state its recommendations relating to enactments by the legislative branch of that state in furthering the intents and purposes of this compact.

The commission shall consult with and advise the pertinent administrative agencies in the signatory states with regard to problems connected with the fisheries and recommend the adoption of such regulations as it deems advisable and which lie within the jurisdiction of such agencies.

The commission shall have power to recommend to the states signatory hereto the stocking of the waters of such states with marine, shell, or anadromous fish and fish eggs or joint stocking by some or all of such states and when two or more of the said states shall jointly stock waters the commission shall act as the coordinating agency for such stocking.

ARTICLE V.

The commission shall elect from its number a chairman and a vice chairman and shall appoint and at its pleasure, remove or discharge such officers and employees as may be required to carry the provisions of this compact into effect and shall fix and determine their duties, qualifications and compensation. Said commission shall adopt rules and regulations for the conduct of its business. It may establish and maintain one or more offices for the transaction of its business and may meet at any time or place within the territorial limits of the signatory states but must meet at least once a year.

ARTICLE VI.

No action shall be taken by the commission except by the affirmative vote of a majority of the whole number of compacting states represented at any meeting. No recommendation shall be made by the commission in regard to any species of fish except by the vote of a ma-Jority of the compacting states which have an interest in such species.

ARTICLE VII.

The fisheries research agencies of the signatory states shall act in collaboration as the official research agency of The Pacific Marine Fisheries Commission.

An advisory committee to be representative of the commercial fishermen, commercial fishing industry and such other interests of each state as the commission deems advisable shall be established by the commission as soon as practicable for the purpose of advising the commission upon such recommendations as it may desire to make.

ARTICLE VIII.

Nothing in this compact shall be construed to limit the powers of any state or to repeal or prevent the enactment of any legislation or the enforcement of any requirement by any state imposing additional conditions and restrictions to conserve its fisheries.

ARTICLE IX.

Continued absence of representation or of any representative on the commission from any state party hereto, shall be brought to the attention of the governor thereof.

ARTICLE X.

The states agree to make available annual funds for the support of the commission on the following basis:

Eighty percent of the annual budget shall be shared equally by those member states having as a boundary the Pacific Ocean; not less than five percent of the annual budget shall be contributed by any other member state; the balance of the annual budget shall be shared by those member states, having as a boundary the Pacific Ocean, in proportion to the primary market value of the products of their commercial fisheries on the basis of the latest five-year catch records.

The annual contribution of each member state shall be figured to the nearest one hundred dollars.

This amended article shall become effective upon its enactment by the states of Alaska, California, Idaho, Oregon, and Washington and upon ratification by congress by virtue of the authority vested in it under Article
I, section 10 of the Constitution of the United States.

ARTICLE XI.

This compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon each state until renounced by it. Renunci-tion of this compact must be preceded by sending six months' notice in writing of intention to withdraw from the compact to the other parties hereto.

ARTICLE XII.

The states of Alaska or Hawaii, or any state having rivers or streams tributary to the Pacific Ocean may become a contracting state by enactment of The Pacific Marine Fisheries Compact. Upon admission of any new state to the compact, the purposes of the compact and the duties of the commission shall extend to the development of joint programs for the conservation, protection and prevention of physical waste of fisheries in which the contracting states are mutually concerned and to all waters of the newly admitted state necessary to develop such programs.

75.44.010 Legislative finding and intent. The legislature finds that the economic health and stability of the commercial fishing industry is of paramount importance to the people of this state. The recent federal court decision, United States of America et al v. State of Washington et al, Civil No. 9213, United States District Court for the Western District of Washington, February 12, 1974, together with department of fisheries compliance therewith, have had an adverse impact on this economic health and stability. The public welfare requires that the state have the authority to transmit federal funds in the form of loans to eligible productive commercial fishermen.

Retaining productive commercial fishermen in the state's fishery will enhance productivity by the fishing industry, will improve economic opportunity for those fishermen dependent upon the resource as a source of income, and will contribute to sound conservation and harvesting programs affecting this important state fishery resource. It is the intention of the legislature to provide assistance to productive commercial fishermen who are adversely affected by the current economic situation in the state's commercial fishery. [1975 1st ex.s. c 152 § 1.] 75.44.020 Definitions. As used in this chapter the terms in this section shall have the meanings indicated unless the context indicates otherwise.

(1) "Case area" shall have the meaning as defined in United States of America, et al v. State of Washington, et al, Civil No. 9213, United States District Court for the Western District of Washington, February 12, 1974, which is: "That portion of the State of Washington west of the Cascade Mountains and north of the Columbia River drainage area, and includes the American portion of the Puget Sound watershed, the watersheds of the Olympic Peninsula north of the Grays Harbor watershed, and the offshore waters adjacent to those areas". The director is authorized to modify the definition of "case area" to correspond to any subsequent definition included in a relevant decision of the same court, or in appellate review thereof, or where fishing rights are affected by some other court decision in a manner consistent with the above–mentioned decision.

(2) "Department" means the department of general administration.

(3) "Director" means the director of the department of general administration. [1975 1st ex.s. c 152 § 3.]

75.44.030 Authority to make loans—Eligibility. The department is empowered to make loans which the department determines to be necessary and appropriate to commercial fishermen. To be eligible a commercial fisherman shall:

(1) Own a commercial fishing vessel;

(2) Have been licensed to fish or deliver fish in 1974 in the case area;

The forester shall enforce all laws for the preservation of the forests within the state, investigate the origin of all forest fires, and vigorously prosecute all violators of this act.

The forester may, with the approval of the board, publish for free distribution, information pertaining to forestry, and to forest products, which he may consider of benefit to the people of the state.

The forester shall furnish notices calling attention to the dangers from forest fires, and to the penalties for the violation of this act; such notices to be posted in conspicuous places by the wardens or rangers in all timbered districts along roads and trails, streams and lakes, frequented by tourists, campers, hunters and fishermen, and in other visited regions.

The forester shall, subject to the approval of the board, prepare all necessary printed forms for use of wardens and rangers, in connection with the granting of applications for permits to burn; for the appointment of wardens and rangers, and any and all forms or blanks required or desirable, and shall supply each warden and ranger with such forms and blanks.

The forester shall become familiar with the location and the areas of all state timbered and cut-over lands, and shall prepare maps of each of the timbered counties showing the state land therein, and in all ways that are practical and feasible protect such lands from the dangers of fire, trespass, and the illegal cutting of timber, reporting from time to time direct to the board such information as may be of benefit to the state in the care and protection of its timber.

It shall be the duty of the forester to institute inquiry into the extent, kind, value and condition of all timber lands within the state; the amount of acres, and the value of the timber that is cut and removed each year, to determine what state lands are chiefly valuable for growing timber; the extent to which timber lands are being destroyed by fire; and also to examine into the production, quality and quantity of second growth timber, with a view to ascertaining conditions for reforestation. 76.04.060 Wardens—Appointment—Duties—Compensation. The state supervisor of forestry shall, subject to the approval of the director of the department of conservation and development, have power to appoint within any region or district in this state where there is timber requiring protection, one or more wardens for all or any portion of the period during which the said supervisor deems that forest fire dangers exist.

The said supervisor may, subject to the approval of the said director, and at such times and in such localities as he deems the public welfare demands, employ one or more wardens whose duty it shall be to examine deforested lands of the state, and ascertain if such lands are chiefly valuable for agriculture, or if they are chiefly valuable for timber growing, with a view to reforestation. The said wardens, shall, under the direction of the said supervisor engage in the discovery of inflammable materials, and cause, or assist in the burning of such material at such times as the burning can be done with a minimum of danger to adjacent timber, or other property. The said wardens, under the direction of the said supervisor, shall report any trespass and illegal cutting upon state timber lands, coming to his notice, and report the same to the state land commissioner.

The said supervisor shall have power to temporarily suspend any warden or ranger who may be incompetent or unwilling to discharge properly the duties of his office, and to appoint his successor temporarily, until his action shall be passed upon by the said director.

The wardens shall make their headquarters at such place as the said supervisor shall determine, and upon request of said supervisor to the county commissioners of any county, such wardens shall be furnished with suitably equipped office quarters in the county court house, said quarters to be designated by said county commissioners.

The authority of the wardens respecting the prevention, suppression and control of forest fires, summoning, impressing or employing help, or making arrests for the violation of this act, may extend to any part of the state.

The salaries and necessary expenses of all wardens, together with all wages and expenses incurred for help and assistance in forest fire protection shall be fixed by the said director, the wages and salaries to be based on but not to exceed going wages and salaries for similar work.

All accounts of the wardens shall be submitted to the said supervisor, as well as all bills for forest fire protection authorized by the wardens.

All wardens and rangers shall render reports to the said supervisor on such blanks or forms, or in such manner, and at such times as may be ordered, giving a summary of how employed, the area of county visited, expenses incurred, and such other information as may be called for by the said supervisor. [1937 c 97 § 1; 1923 c 184 § 2; 1921 c 102 § 1; 1911 c 125 § 5; RRS § 5785. Prior: 1905 c 164 § 5.]

76.04.070 Further duties of wardens. Each warden shall be at all times under the direction and control of the supervisor of forestry, and shall perform such other duties at such times and places as he may direct.

It shall be the duty of wardens to post over the forest areas notices of warning giving the date of the closed season as provided for in RCW 76.04.150, and copies of all such laws and rules as they may be directed to post by the supervisor of forestry.

They shall investigate all fires and report all of a serious or threatening character to the supervisor of forestry immediately. They shall patrol their districts; visit all parts of roads and trails, and frequented places and camps as far as possible, warn campers or other users of fire, see that all locomotives are provided with spark arresters, and with adequate devices for preventing the escape of fire or live coals from ash pans and fire boxes, in accordance with the law; extinguish small or smouldering fires, and set back-fires to control fires; summon, impress and employ help in controlling fires, and see that all laws for the protection of forests are enforced, and arrest and cause to be prosecuted all offenders. [1933 c 68 § 1; 1911 c 125 § 6; RRS § 5786. Prior: 1905 c 164 § 6.]

76.04.080 Rangers—Appointment—Ex officio. All state land cruisers, game wardens, road supervisors and state highway patrolmen, when approved by the state supervisor of forestry, and all rangers and assistant rangers of the United States forest service, when recommended by their forest supervisors, and commissioned by the state supervisor of forestry shall be ex officio rangers.

Timber cruisers and citizens of the state advantageously located may, at the discretion of the said supervisor, be appointed rangers and vested with the powers and duties of wardens.

Rangers shall receive no compensation for their services except when employed in cooperation with the state and under the provisions of this act, and shall not create any indebtedness, or incur any liability on behalf of the state: Provided, That rangers actually engaged in extinguishing, or preventing the spread of fire in brush, slashings, choppings, timber or elsewhere that may endanger timber or other property, shall when their accounts for such service have been approved by the fire wardens in authority, be entitled to receive compensation for such services at a rate to be fixed by the director of the department of conservation and development. 76.04.090 Duty of prosecuting attorney—Magistrate—Penalties. Whenever an arrest shall have been made for a violation of any of the provisions of this act or whenever information of such violation shall have been lodged with him, the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the criminal act was committed, shall prosecute the offender or offenders, with all diligence and energy. If any prosecuting attorney shall fail to comply with the provisions of this section, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, and by imprisonment of not less than thirty days, nor more than one year in the county jail. The penalties of this section shall apply to any magistrate, with proper authority, who refuses or neglects to cause

76.04.100 Service of notices. Any notice required by *this or other acts to be served by a forest officer shall be sufficient if a written or printed copy thereof is delivered, mailed or telegraphed by a forest officer to the person to receive notice or to his responsible agent, or, in case the name or address of such person or agent is unknown to the officers and cannot be obtained by reasonable diligence, by posting such copy in a conspicuous place upon the premises concerned by this notice. 76.04.110 Arrests without warrant. The forester, his assistants, wardens, rangers, and all police officers are hereby empowered to make arrests without warrant of persons violating *this act. [1911 c 125 § 19; RRS § 5799.]

Reviser's note: *(1) "this act", see note following RCW 76.04.050. (2) "forester", see note following RCW 76.04.020.

76.04.120 Rules and regulations—Penalty for violations. Any person who shall willfully violate any of the orders, rules or regulations made by the department in accordance with the authority granted by the provisions of chapter 76.04 RCW for the protection of forests from fires, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [1979 ex.s. c 8 § 2; 1923 c 184 § 11, part; RRS § 5811–1.]

76.04.130 Disposition of fines. All fines collected under *this act shall be paid into the county treasury of the county in which the offense was committed: Provided, That all fees, fines, forfeitures and penalties collected or assessed by a justice court because of the violation of a state law shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW as now exists or is later amended. [1969 ex.s. c 199 § 32; 1911 c 125 § 21; RRS § 5801.]

*Reviser's note: *"this act", see note following RCW 76.04.050. Disposition of fines generally: Chapter 10.82 RCW.

76.04.140 Regions of extra fire hazard—Designation—Penalty. When, in the opinion of the director, any forest region is particularly exposed to fire danger, he may designate such region, defining the boundaries thereof by legal subdivisions or watercourses, watersheds, mountain ranges, or other natural monuments, as a region of extra fire hazard, and he shall promulgate rules and regulations for the protection thereof. All such rules and regulations shall be promulgated by publication in such newspapers of general circulation in the counties wherein such region is situated and for such length of time as the director may determine. When in the opinion of the director it becomes necessary to close the area to entry, posters carrying the wording Region of extra fire hazard—CLOSED TO ENTRY—except as provided by RCW 76.04.140 and indicating the beginning and ending dates of such closures shall be posted on the public highways entering such regions. The rules and regulations shall be in force from the time specified therein: Provided, That when in the opinion of the director such forest region continues to be exposed to fire danger, or ceases to be so exposed, the director may extend, suspend, or terminate the closure as previously promulgated by proclamation so declaring.

This chapter shall not, however, authorize the director to prohibit the conduct of industrial operations, public work, or access of permanent residents to their own property within the closed area: Provided, That no one legally entering the region of extra fire hazard will be permitted to use the area for recreational purposes which are prohibited to the general public under the terms of this section.

Anyone violating any such rules and regulations or order closing any forest region shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [1957 c 111 § 4; 1953 c 24 § 1; 1925 ex.s. c 43 § 1; RRS § 5782–1.]

76.04.150 Closed season—Permits. Except in certain areas designated by the department of natural resources, or as permitted under rules and regulations promulgated by the department of natural resources, no one shall burn any inflammable material within any county in this state in which there is a warden or ranger during the period beginning the fifteenth day of March, and ending on the fifteenth day of October in each year in western Washington, or during the period beginning the fifteenth day of April and ending on the fifteenth day of October in eastern Washington, unless a different date for such beginning and ending is fixed by order of the department of natural resources, after a finding that such different dates are necessary for the protection of life and property, or air quality standards, without first obtaining permission in writing from the department of natural resources, any authorized employee thereof, or a warden, or ranger, and afterwards complying with the terms of said permit. However, if such fire is contained in a suitable device sufficient, in the opinion of the department of natural resources to prevent the fire from spreading, and such device complies with air pollution requirements as provided under chapter 70.94 RCW, said written permission will not be necessary under RCW 76.04.150 and 76.04.170.

The department of natural resources or authorized employees thereof, or any warden or ranger, may refuse, revoke, or postpone the use of permits to burn when such act is clearly necessary for the safety of adjacent property. They may also refuse, suspend, or revoke a permit authorized under this section when necessary in their judgment to prevent air pollution as provided for in chapter 70.94 RCW.

A person violating this section shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than five hundred dollars or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding thirty days. Permission for burning shall be given only upon compliance with such rules and regulations as the department of natural resources shall prescribe, which shall be only such as the department of natural resources deems necessary for the protection of life or property, and air quality. [1971 ex.s. c 233 § 1; 1965 c 82 § 1; 1953 c 24 § 2; 1951 c 58 § 2; 1945 c 11 § 1; 1925 ex.s. c 43 § 3; 1921 c 102 § 2; 1911 c 125 § 8; Rem. Supp. 1945 § 5788. Prior: 1905 c 164 § 8; 1903 c 114 §§ 6, 7.]

76.04.170 Burning waste forest material—Permit. Anyone desiring to dispose of the refuse or waste forest material on or from forest lands, to reduce the potential danger of loss of life or property by burning during the period beginning the fifteenth day of March, and ending on the fifteenth day of October in each year in western Washington, or during the period beginning the fifteenth day of April and ending on the fifteenth day of October in eastern Washington, unless different dates for such beginning and ending are fixed by order of the department of natural resources after a finding that such different dates are necessary for the protection of life and property, or air quality, may make application to the department of natural resources, authorized employees thereof, or to any warden or ranger, for a permit so to do. The application shall state the location and extent of the area sought to be burned over, and by whom the burning is to be done. Upon receipt of an application the department of natural resources may inspect, or cause to be inspected the area described in the application and if satisfied that all requirements relating to fire fighting equipment, the work to be done or precautions to be taken before commencing such burning, have been complied with and that no unreasonable danger will result, and that the burning will be done at a time and in a manner so as to minimize reduction in air quality, the department of natural resources shall issue a permit.

The department of natural resources, authorized employees thereof, warden, or ranger may impose reasonable conditions in such permits for the protection of life, property, or air quality, and may suspend or revoke such permits when conditions warrant. A permit shall be effective only under the conditions and for the period stated therein. Compliance with the terms of the permit shall create a presumption of due care with respect to the starting and control of such fire. [1971 ex.s. c 233 § 2; 1955 c 142 § 1; 1929 c 207 § 1; 1927 c 223 § 1; RRS § 5788–1. Prior: 1905 c 164 § 8.]

Severability—1955 c 142: "If any section or part of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other sections or parts of this act or the application thereof, if it can be given effect without the invalid provision, and to this end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable and independent of any other provision of law." [1955 c 142 § 15. This applies to RCW 76.04.170, 76.04.210, 76.04.223–76.04.230, 76.04.250–76.04.270, 76.04.320 and 76.04.360.]

Burning permit within fire protection districts: RCW 52.28.010.

Burning permits for abating or prevention of forest fire hazards: RCW 70.94.660–70.94.700.

76.04.180 Supervised burning—Fire fighting—Employment—Penalty for refusing assistance. No one shall burn any forest material or the waste or debris resulting from logging or land clearing operations until such work shall have been done in and around the slashing or chopping and/or the area proposed to be burned over to prevent the spread of fire therefrom as shall be required to be done by the state supervisor of forestry, or any warden or ranger. The said supervisor or any warden or ranger may require the cutting of such dry snags, stumps and dead trees within the area to be burned, which in his judgment constitute a menace or are likely to further the spread of fire therefrom.

When any person shall have obtained permission from the said supervisor, warden or ranger, to burn any slashings made for the purpose of clearing land, the warden may, at his discretion, furnish him with a man to supervise and control the burning, who shall represent and act for such warden, and shall have all the power and authority of a warden while engaged in such service, including the right to revoke such permit, if in his opinion the burning authorized would endanger any valuable timber or other property. Such a man shall serve only until such time as the party burning may be able to keep the fire under control himself.

The said supervisor and wardens are hereby authorized and empowered to employ a sufficient number of men to extinguish or prevent the spreading of any fires that may be in danger of destroying any valuable timber or other property of the state. The said supervisor, or any warden by special authority of the said supervisor, may provide needed tools and supplies, and transportation when necessary for men so employed.

Every man so employed, and also the representative of the warden supervising the burning, shall be entitled to compensation at a rate to be fixed by the director of the department of conservation and development, and the warden shall issue a certificate to each man so employed showing the number of hours worked by him and the amounts due to him, upon which, after approval by said supervisor, the men shall be entitled to receive payment from the state.

Any person refusing to render assistance when called upon by any warden, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars. [1971 ex.s. c 207 § 13; 1929 c 207 § 3; 1923 c 184 § 5; 1917 c 33 § 2; 1911 c 125 § 9; RRS § 5789.]

Construction—1971 ex.s. c 207: See note following RCW 76.04.010.

76.04.190 Closure of forest operation—Penalty. When in the opinion of the supervisor, weather conditions arise which present an extreme fire hazard, whereby life and property may be endangered by spreading forest fires, he may issue an order shutting down all logging, land clearing, or other industrial operations which may cause a forest fire to start, and such shutdown shall be for the periods and regions, designated in the order. During all such shutdowns, all persons are excluded from logging operating areas and areas of logging slashings, except those persons present in the interest of fire protection for the period of the shutdown ordered by the state supervisor of forestry, or his authorized deputies.

Anyone violating any such order shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars for each violation, or by imprisonment for not less than thirty days in the county jail. Each day's violation shall constitute a separate offense. [1957 c 111 § 5; 1951 2nd ex.s. c 18 § 1; 1937 c 152 § 3; RRS § 5789-1.]

76.04.200 Suspension of burning permits and hunting privileges. In times and localities of unusual fire danger, the governor, with the advice of the forester, may suspend any or all permits or privileges authorized by RCW 76.04.150, and may prohibit absolutely the use of fire therein mentioned.

Whenever during an open season for the hunting of any kind of game within this state, it shall appear to the governor that by reason of extreme drought, the use of firearms or fire by hunters is liable to cause forest fires, he may by proclamation suspend the open season and make it a closed season for the shooting of wild birds or animals of any kind, for such time as he may designate, and during the time so designated all provisions of law relating to closed seasons for game shall be enforced. [1911 c 125 § 10; RRS § 5790.]

Reviser's note: The powers and duties of the governor referred to herein have devolved upon the department of natural resources through a chain of statutes as follows: (1) 1921 c 7 §§ 1, 68; (2) 1957 c 87 §§ 3, 7, 8.

76.04.210 Penalties for setting fires or removing notices. Any person who wilfully or needlessly defaces or removes any warning notice posted under the requirements of this chapter shall upon conviction be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for each offense, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding thirty days.

Any person who upon any land sets any fire, except at the proper places on camping grounds which have been prepared and designated as such by the supervisor or which have been approved by the supervisor, which fire shall spread and damage or destroy property of any kind not his own, or who starts any fire, except in a stove, upon any designated camp ground and, upon leaving the ground, fails to extinguish the fire, shall upon conviction be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than five hundred dollars. If the fire is set or left with intent to destroy property not his own, he shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars or imprisonment in the county jail for not less than one month nor more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

During the period beginning the fifteenth day of March, and ending on the fifteenth day of October in each year in western Washington, or between the fifteenth day of April and the fifteenth day of October in eastern Washington, unless different dates for such beginning and ending are fixed by order of the supervisor of forestry after a finding that such different dates are necessary for the protection of life and property, any person who without a written permit kindles a fire, in or dangerously near any forest material, except at the proper places on camping grounds as described above, or who is a party to kindling such fire, or who by throwing away any lighted cigar, cigarette, matches, or by use of firearms, or in any other manner starts a fire in forest materials, and who fails immediately to extinguish it, shall upon conviction, be fined not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding two months. Nothing in this section shall absolve any person from liability on account of negligence.

The supervisor shall designate and prepare or approve such camping grounds as he may determine for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this section. [1955 c 142 § 2; 1925 ex.s. c 43 § 4; 1921 c 102 § 3; 1911 c 125 § 11; RRS § 5791. Prior: 1905 c 164 § 9; 1903 c 114 § 10.]

76.04.220 Wilful or negligent fires—Fire fighting—Refusal to aid—Penalty. Every person who shall wilfully or negligently set, or fail to carefully guard or extinguish any fire, whether on his own land or the land of another, whereby the timber or property of another shall be endangered, or who shall fail to respond to any lawful summons to aid in guarding or extinguishing any fire, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [1909 c 249 § 271; RRS § 2523.]

Reviser's note: Caption for 1909 c 249 § 271 reads: "Sec. 271. Negligent fires."

76.04.222 Certain snags to be felled currently with logging. Standing dead trees constitute a substantial deterrent to effective fire control action in forest areas, but are also an important and essential habitat for many species of wildlife. To insure continued existence of these wildlife species and continued forest growth while minimizing the risk of destruction by conflagration, only certain snags must be felled currently with the logging. The department shall promulgate rules and regulations relating to effective fire control action to require that only certain snags be felled, taking into consideration the need to protect the wildlife habitat. [1979 ex.s. c 8 § 1; 1951 c 13 § 1.]

76.04.240 Burning mill wood waste—Arresters. It shall be unlawful for any one manufacturing lumber or shingles, or other forest products, to destroy wood waste material by burning the same at or near any mill situated within one-quarter of one mile of any forest material, without properly confining the place of said burning and without further safeguarding the surrounding property against danger from said burning by such additional devices as the forester may require.

It shall be unlawful for anyone to destroy any wood waste material by fire within any burner or destructor operated at or near any mill, and situated within one-quarter of one mile of any forest material, or to operate any power producing plant using in connection therewith any smokestack, chimney, or other spark emitting outlet, without installing and maintaining on such burner, or from forest products or forest debris of any kind, in than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars for than thirty days in the county jail. [1911 c 125 § 13; RRS § 5793.]

76.04.242 Dumping mill waste, forest debris—Prohibited—Penalty. No person shall dump mill waste from forest products or forest debris of any kind, in quantities that the department of natural resources declares to constitute a forest fire hazard, on or threatening forest lands located in this state, without first obtaining a written permit issued by the department of natural resources on such terms and conditions determined by the department pursuant to rules and regulations enacted to protect forest lands from fire. Said permits must be obtained in addition to any and all other permits required by law. Any person who dumps such mill waste, or forest debris without a required permit, or in violation of a permit shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be subject to a fine of not less than two hundred fifty dollars and not more than one thousand dollars, and may further be required to remove all materials dumped in violation of this act. [1971 ex.s. c 134 § 3.]

RCW 76.04.273 and the 1971 amendment to RCW 76.04.251.

76.04.245 Blasting fuse regulations—Penalty. It shall be unlawful to use fuse for blasting on any area of logging slash or area of actual logging operation for the period of June fifteenth to October fifteenth. This period may be extended by the supervisor if hazardous weather conditions warrant. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Upon issuance of a written permit by the supervisor or warden or ranger, fuse may be used during the closed season under the conditions specified in the permit.
[1953 c 24 § 8.]

76.04.251 Steam, internal combustion or electric engines and other spark emitting equipment regulated.
It shall be unlawful for anyone to operate during the closed season as defined in RCW 76.04.252, any steam, internal combustion, or electric engines, or any other spark emitting equipment or devices on any forest land or in any place where, in the opinion of the department, within reason, fire could be communicated to forest land, without first complying with the requirements as may be established by the department by rule or regulation pursuant to *this 1973 amendatory act.

The department of natural resources is authorized to promulgate rules and regulations relating to forest fire prevention and suppression preparedness, including the type, number, location and condition of fire equipment;
the provision of water or other fire suppression agent, spark arresters, watchmen and/or patrols; the felling of snags; the clearing of flammable material from proximity to ignition sources; and the curtailment of operations during periods of critical fire danger. The department may further provide for reasonable reductions of requirements so promulgated where operating conditions including, but not limited to, location or weather, would justify the same. [1973 1st ex.s. c 24 § 1; 1971 ex.s. c 134 § 1; 1965 ex.s. c 12 § 2.]

consists of amendments to RCW 76.04.251, 76.04.270, 76.04.385 and 76.04.515 and the repeal of RCW 76.04.253-76.04.260 and 76.04.320.

Sections added—1965 ex.s. c 12: "There is added to chapter 76.04
RCW new sections to read as set forth in sections 2 through 8 of this

Wardens and rangers shall report any lack of sufficient spark arresters, and any lack of adequate devices for preventing the escape of fire and live coals, as provided in this act, to the forester, and to the prosecuting attorney of their county, and the superior court of that county where suit is first instituted, shall have jurisdiction of the offense. 76.04.310 Disposal of forest debris—Permission to allow trees to fall on another's land. Everyone clearing land or clearing right of way for railroad, public highway, private road, ditch, dike, pipe or wire line, or for any other transmission, or transportation utility right of way, shall pile and burn or dispose of by other satisfactory means, all forest debris cut thereon, as rapidly as the clearing or cutting progresses, or at such other times as the department may specify, and if during the closed season, in compliance with the law requiring burning permits.

No one clearing any land or right of way, or in cutting or logging timber for any purpose, shall fell, or permit to be felled, any trees so that they may fall on to land owned by another without first obtaining permission from such owner in addition to complying with the terms of this section for the disposal of refuse. All the terms of this section and other forest laws of the state shall be observed in all clearings of right of way or other land on behalf of the state itself or any county thereof, either directly or by contract; and, unless unavoidable emergency prevents, provision shall be made by all officials directing such work for withholding a sufficient portion of the payment therefor until the disposal is completed, to insure the completion of the disposal in compliance with this section. [1971 ex.s. c 207 § 2; 1959 c 151 § 3; 1917 c 33 § 3; 1911 c 125 § 16; RRS § 5796.]

76.04.340 Destruction of forests—Penalty. Any person or persons who shall wilfully and deliberately set fire to any forest within the state, or in any place from which fire may be communicated to any such forest, or who shall accidentally set fire to any such forest, or to any place from which fire may be communicated to any such forest, and shall not extinguish the same or use every effort to that end, or who shall build any fire for lawful purposes or otherwise in or near any such forest, and through carelessness or neglect shall permit said fire to extend to and burn through such forest, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction before a court of competent jurisdiction shall be punishable by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [1923 c 184 § 9; RRS § 5803.]

76.04.350 Owners to protect forests. Every owner of forest land in the state of Washington shall furnish or provide therefor, during the season of the year when there is danger of forest fires, adequate protection against the spread of fire thereon or therefrom which shall meet with the approval of the department of natural resources. [1977 ex.s. c 102 § 3; 1941 c 168 § 2; 1917 c 105 § 1; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 5804.]

76.04.360  Forest patrol assessments—Lien—Supervisor's bond. If any owner of forest land neglects or fails to provide adequate fire protection therefor as required by RCW 76.04.350, the department shall provide such protection therefor, notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 76.04.515, at a cost to the owner of not to exceed twenty cents an acre per year on lands west of the summit of the Cascade mountains and sixteen cents an acre per year on lands east of the summit of the Cascade mountains.

For the purpose of chapter 76.04 RCW, the supervisor may divide the forest lands of the state, or any part thereof, into districts, for patrol and assessment purposes, may classify lands according to the character of timber prevailing, and the fire hazard existing, and place unprotected lands under the administration of the proper district. Such cost must be justified by a showing of budgets on demand of twenty-five owners of forest land in the county concerned at public hearing. Any amounts paid or contracted to be paid by the supervisor of the department of natural resources for this purpose from any funds at his disposal shall be a lien upon the property patrolled and protected, and unless reimbursed by the owner within ten days after October 1st of the year in which they were incurred, on which date the supervisor of the department of natural resources shall be prepared to make statement thereof upon request to any forest owner whose own protection has not been previously approved by him as adequate, shall be reported by the supervisor of the department of natural resources to the assessor of the county in which the property is situated who shall extend the amounts upon the tax rolls covering the property, or the county assessor shall upon authorization from the supervisor of the department of natural resources levy the forest patrol assessment against the amounts of unimproved land as shown in each ownership on the county assessor's records and the assessor may then segregate on his records to provide that the improved land and improvements thereon carry the millage levy designed to support the rural fire protection districts as provided for in chapter 52.04 RCW.

The amounts assessed shall be collected at the time, in the same manner, by the same procedure, and with the same penalties attached that the next general state and county taxes on the same property are collected, except that errors in assessments may be corrected at any time by the supervisor of the department of natural resources certifying them to the treasurer of the county in which the land involved is situated. Upon the collection of such assessments the county treasurer shall transmit them to the supervisor of the department of natural resources to be applied against expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this section.

The supervisor of the department of natural resources shall add to the assessment a sum not to exceed one cent per acre, to cover the necessary and reasonable administrative costs incurred by the department in the enforcement of these provisions. He may also expend any sums collected from owners of forest lands or received from any other source for necessary administrative costs in connection with the enforcement of RCW 76.04.370.

When land against which forest patrol assessments are outstanding is acquired for delinquent taxes and sold at public auction, the state shall have a prior lien on the proceeds of sale over and above the amount necessary to satisfy the county's delinquent tax judgment, and the county treasurer in case the proceeds of sale exceed the amount of the delinquent tax judgment shall forthwith remit to the supervisor of the department of natural resources the amount of the outstanding patrol assessments.

All public bodies owning or administering forest lands shall pay the forest patrol assessments provided in this section and the special forest fire suppression account assessments under RCW 76.04.515. The forest patrol assessments and special forest fire suppression account assessments shall be payable by public bodies from any available funds within thirty days following receipt of the written notice from the department which is given after October 1st of the year in which the protection was provided. Unpaid assessments shall not be a lien against the publicly owned land but shall constitute a debt by the public body to the department and shall be subject to interest charges in the same amount as other unpaid forest patrol assessments.

A public body, having failed to previously pay forest patrol assessments required of it by this section, which fails to suppress a fire on or originating from forest lands owned or administered by it shall be liable for the costs of suppression incurred by the department or its agent and shall not be entitled to reimbursement of any costs incurred by the public body in the suppression activities.

The supervisor of the department of natural resources shall furnish the surety company bond under RCW 43.30.170(6), conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties and for a faithful accounting for all sums received and expended thereunder, which bond shall be approved by the attorney general. [1981 c 171 § 1; 1977 ex.s. c 102 § 1. Effective date—Increased assessments payable in 1982 and thereafter—1981 c 171: "This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, shall take effect immediately, and the assessments provided for in section 1 of this amendatory act shall be payable in 1982 and thereafter." [1981 c 171 § 2.] This act was signed by the governor and filed on May 14, 1981, and "section 1 of this amendatory act" refers to the amendments to RCW 76.04.360.

76.04.370 Additional fire hazards—Extreme fire hazard areas—Abatement, isolation or reduction—Summary action—Recovery of costs. Any land in the state covered wholly or in part by forest debris and which by reason of such condition is likely to further the spread of fire and thereby endanger life or property, shall constitute an additional fire hazard, and the owner thereof and/or the person responsible for its existence shall take reasonable measures to reduce the danger of fire spreading from the area and may abate such hazard by burning or other satisfactory means.

Notwithstanding the above, the department shall promulgate rules and regulations defining areas of extreme fire hazard including but not limited to high risk areas such as where life or buildings may be endangered, areas adjacent to public highways, and areas of frequent public use and the owner and/or person responsible shall abate such hazard; and in addition the department may define other conditions of extreme fire hazard with a high potential for fire spreading to lands in other ownerships and may, under rules and regulations adopted after consultation with the advisory board, prescribe additional measures that shall be taken by the owner and/or person responsible to isolate and/or reduce such hazard.

If the owner or person responsible for the existence of such extreme hazard or for the existence of forest debris subject to RCW 76.04.310 as now or hereafter amended, refuses, neglects, or fails to abate, isolate or reduce the same, the department may summarily cause it to be abated, isolated, or reduced as required in this act and twice the actual cost thereof may be recovered from the owner or person responsible therefor. Such costs shall include all salaries and expenses of men and equipment incurred therein, including those of the department. All such costs shall also be a lien upon the land enforceable in the same manner with the same effect as a mechanic's lien. The summary action may be taken only after ten days' notice in writing, which shall include a suggested method of abatement and estimated cost thereof, has been given to the owner or reputed owner of the land on which such hazard or forest debris subject to RCW 76.04.310 as now or hereafter amended exists, either by personal service or by registered or certified letter addressed to him at his last known place of residence. 76.04.385 Reimbursement for costs of suppression action. Any person, firm, or corporation, public or private, obligated to take suppression action on any forest fire shall, under the provisions of this section, be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable costs incurred thereby, subject to the following:

1. If the fire is started in the course of or as a result of a land clearing, right of way clearing, or landowner's operation, the person, firm, or corporation conducting such operation shall supply at his expense the manpower and equipment under his control and reasonably available until midnight on the day on which the fire started, after which time he shall supply, at his expense, only the manpower and equipment which were within a one-half mile radius of the point of origin of such fire, but in any case never less than five men and one suitable bulldozer, or other equipment accepted by the department as equivalent, unless, in the opinion of the department, less is needed for the purpose of suppressing the same. If he has no men or equipment within said one-half mile he shall pay to the department the equivalent of the minimum requirement. If after midnight of the day on which the fire started, additional manpower and equipment are necessary, in the opinion of the department, he shall supply the manpower and equipment under his control outside such one-half mile radius, if reasonably available, but he shall be reimbursed for such manpower and equipment as provided herein;

(2) Where a fire, which occurred in the course of or as a result of a land clearing, right of way clearing, or landowners operation, and which fire had previously been suppressed, rekindles, the operator shall be required to supply at his expense the same manpower and equipment which were required of him at the time of the original fire.

(3) Claims for reimbursement shall be submitted within a reasonable time to the department which shall, upon verifying the amounts therein and the necessity thereof, authorize payment at such rates as established by the department for wages and equipment rental;

(4) No reimbursement provided herein shall be allowed to a person, firm, or corporation negligently responsible for the starting or existence of any fire for which costs may be recoverable by the department pursuant to law.

Reimbursement of emergency fire costs incurred or approved by the department in suppressing a forest fire may be paid from the appropriate contingency account as provided therein. Such payment shall be without restriction to the right of the department to recover costs pursuant to the provisions of RCW 76.04.390 as now or hereafter amended or other laws but any such recovery by the department shall be returned into the account from which it was spent, less reasonable costs of collection. [1971 1st ex.s. c 24 § 3; 1971 ex.s. c 207 § 5.]

76.04.395 Permitting spread of fire—Penalty. Any person who shall negligently suffer fire originating on his own property to spread to the property of another shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. [1923 c 184 § 11, part; RRS § 5806–2. Formerly RCW 9.40.090.]

76.04.400 Cooperative protection. When any responsible protective agency or agencies composed of timber owners other than the state shall agree to undertake systematic forest protection in cooperation therewith and such cooperation shall appear more advantageous to the state than the maintenance of the independent system provided elsewhere by law, the *state forester may, with the approval of the *state board of forest commissioners, designate suitable areas to be official cooperative districts and substitute thereto whenever necessary, in place of the county wardens elsewhere provided by law, such district wardens, with such district headquarters and duties, as may be agreed upon by him and by the cooperating agencies to render such cooperation most effective. He may also cooperate in the compensation of such wardens, or in the payment of other expenses for the prevention and control of fire in such official fire districts, to such extent as the board of forest commissioners may deem equitable on behalf of the state, and claim for such payments shall be approved and paid in the manner prescribed for claims outside such cooperative districts. [1917 c 105 § 5; RRS § 5808.]

Any private corporation organized and existing under the laws of this state, or organized under the laws of any other state and legally qualified to transact business in this state, may, where its articles of incorporation or charter so provide, contract with the state supervisor of forestry for the purposes provided for in RCW 76.04-.410. [1933 c 45 § 2; RRS § 5817–2.]

76.04.430 Articles of incorporation—Requirements. Before any such private corporation shall be qualified to enter into any such contract, there shall be incorporated into the articles of incorporation or charter of such corporation a provision limiting the dividends which are by law payable to the stockholders thereof and such corporation shall, out of its earnings or earned surplus, and in a manner satisfactory to the state supervisor of forestry, provide for the annual setting apart of a fund or funds to discharge any contract entered into between such corporation and the said state supervisor of forestry relating to said matters. [1933 c 45 § 3; RRS § 5817–3.]

*Reviser’s note: The "cooperative farm forestry act" was repealed August 25, 1950 (repeal effective June 30, 1951) by the "cooperative forest management act", chapter 781, public law 729, 64 Stat. 473 (Title 16 U.S.C.A. §§ 568c, 568d).

76.04.510 State funds—Loans—Recovery of funds from the landowner contingency fire suppression account. Biennial general fund appropriations to the department of natural resources normally provide funds for the purpose of paying the emergency fire costs and expenses incurred and/or approved by the department in forest fire suppression or in reacting to any potential forest fire situation. When a determination is made that the fire started in the course of or as a result of a participating landowner operation, moneys expended from such appropriations in the suppression of such fire shall be recovered from the landowner contingency forest fire suppression account. The department shall transmit to the state treasurer for deposit in the general fund any such moneys which are later recovered. Moneys recovered during the biennium in which they are expended may be spent for purposes set forth in this section during the same biennium, without reappropriation. Loans between the general fund and the landowner contingency forest fire suppression account are authorized for emergency fire suppression. Such loans shall not exceed the amount appropriated for emergency forest fire suppression costs and shall bear interest at the then current rate of interest as determined by the state treasurer. 76.04.515 Landowner contingency forest fire suppression account. There is created a landowner contingency forest fire suppression account which shall be a separate account in the general fund. This account shall be for the purpose of paying emergency fire costs incurred or approved by the department in the suppression of forest fires. When a determination is made that the fire was started by other than a participating landowner operation, moneys expended from this account in the suppression of such fire shall be recovered from such general fund appropriations as may be available for emergency fire suppression costs. Moneys spent from this account shall be by appropriation. The department shall transmit to the state treasurer for deposit in the landowner contingency forest fire suppression account any moneys paid out of said account which are later recovered, less reasonable costs of recovery, which moneys may be expended for purposes set forth herein during the current biennium, without reappropriation.

This account shall be established and renewed by a special forest fire suppression account assessment paid by participating forest landowners at rates to be established by the department, but not to exceed ten cents per acre per year for such period of years as may be necessary to establish and thereafter reestablish a balance in said account of two million dollars. The assessments with respect to forest lands in western and eastern Washington may differ to equitably distribute the assessment based on emergency fire suppression cost experience necessitated by participating landowner operations. Amounts assessed for this account shall be a lien upon the forest lands with respect to which the assessment is made, and may be collected as directed by the department in the same manner as forest patrol assessments. This account shall be held by the state treasurer who is authorized to invest so much of said account as is not necessary to meet current needs. Any interest earned on moneys from said account shall be deposited in and remain a part of the account, and shall be computed as part of the same in determining the balance thereof. Interfund loans to and from this account are authorized at the then current rate of interest as determined by the state treasurer, provided that the effect of the loan is considered for purposes of determining the assessments. Payment of emergency costs from this account shall in no way restrict the right of the department to recover costs pursuant to RCW 76.04.390 as now or hereafter amended, or other laws.

When the department determines that a forest fire was started in the course of or as a result of a participating landowner operation, it shall notify the forest fire advisory board of such determination. Such determination shall be final, unless, within ninety days of such notification, the forest fire advisory board or any interested party, serves a request for a hearing before the department. Such hearing shall constitute a contested case under chapter 34.04 RCW and any appeal therefrom shall be to the superior court of Thurston county. [1981 c 28 § 1; 1979 ex.s. c 67 § 11; 1973 1st ex.s. c 24 § 4; 1971 ex.s. c 207 § 8.]

76.04.520 Forest fire advisory board. There is hereby created a forest fire advisory board, consisting of seven members who shall represent private and public forest landowners and other interested segments of the public. The members shall be appointed by the commissioner of public lands and shall serve at his pleasure, without compensation.

The duties of the forest fire advisory board shall be strictly advisory and shall include, but not necessarily be limited to, reviewing forest fire prevention and suppression policies of the department; monitoring expenditures from and recoveries for the landowner contingency forest fire suppression account; recommending appropriate assessments and allocations for establishment and replenishment of said account based upon the proportionate expenditures necessitated by participating landowner operations in western and eastern Washington; recommending to the department appropriate rules and regulations or amendments to existing rules and regulations affecting the protection of forest lands from fire, including reasonable alternative means or procedures for the abatement, isolation, or reduction of forest fire hazards. Except where an emergency exists, all rules and regulations as to the above shall be promulgated by the department after consultation with the forest fire advisory board. [1979 c 49 § 2; 1971 ex.s. c 207 § 9.]

Reviser's note: The powers and duties of certain agencies mentioned in this chapter have devolved upon the department of natural resources; see note following Title 76 RCW digest.

76.06.010 Forest insects and tree diseases are public nuisance. Forest insects and forest tree diseases which threaten the permanent timber production of the forest areas of the state of Washington are hereby declared to be a public nuisance. [1951 c 233 § 1.]

76.06.020 Definitions. As used in this chapter:
"Supervisor" means the supervisor of forestry;
"Board" means the state forest board;
"Owner" means and includes individuals, partnerships, corporations and associations;
"Agent" means the recognized legal representative, representatives, agent or agents for any owner;
"Timber land" means any land on which there is a sufficient number of trees, standing or down, to constitute, in the judgment of the board, a forest insect or forest disease breeding ground of a nature to constitute a menace, injurious and dangerous to permanent forest growth in the district under consideration. [1951 c 233 § 2.]

76.06.040 Owner must control pests and diseases. Every owner of timber lands, or his agent, shall make every reasonable effort to control, destroy and eradicate such forest insect pests and forest tree diseases which threaten the existence of any stand of timber or provide for the same to be done on timber lands owned by him or under his control. In the event he fails, neglects, or is unable to accomplish such control, the action may be performed as provided for in this chapter. [1951 c 233 § 4.]

76.06.050 Infestation control district—Creation—Notice to owners. Whenever the supervisor finds timber lands threatened by infestations of forest insects or forest tree diseases, and if he finds that such infestation is of such character as to threaten destruction of timber stands, the supervisor shall with the approval of the board declare and certify an infestation control district and fix and declare the boundaries thereof, so as to definitely describe such district. Said district may include timber lands threatened by the infestation as well as those timber lands already infested.

Thereafter the supervisor shall at once serve written notice to all owners of timber lands or their agents within the said district to proceed under the provisions of this chapter without delay to control, destroy and eradicate the said forest insect pests or forest tree diseases as provided herein. The said notice may be made by personal service, or by mail addressed to the last known place or address of such owner or agent. Said notice shall list and describe the method or methods of action that will be acceptable to the board if the owner or agent elects to control, destroy and eradicate said insects or diseases on his own property.

Said notice when published for five consecutive days in at least one daily newspaper or in two consecutive issues of a weekly newspaper, either paper having a general circulation in said district will serve as the written notice to owners of noncommercial timber lands. [1961 c 72 § 1; 1951 c 233 § 5.]

76.06.060 State shall control pests and diseases if owner fails. If the owner or agent so notified shall fail, refuse, neglect or is unable to comply with the requirements of said notice, within a period of thirty days after the date thereof, it shall be the duty of the supervisor or his agents, using such funds as have been, or hereafter may be, made available to proceed with the control, eradication and destruction of such forest pests or forest tree diseases with or without the cooperation of the owner involved in a manner approved by the forest board. [1951 c 233 § 6.]

76.06.070 Lien for costs of control—Collection. Upon the completion of the work directed, authorized and performed under the provisions of this chapter, the supervisor shall prepare a verified statement of the expenses necessarily incurred in performing the work of controlling, eradicating and destroying said forest insects or forest tree diseases. The balance of such expenses after deducting such amounts as may be contributed to the control costs by the state, by the federal government, or by any other agencies, companies, corporations or individuals, shall be a lien to be prorated per acre upon the property, or properties involved: Provided, That the amount of said lien shall not exceed twenty-five percent of the total costs incurred on such owner's lands including necessary buffer strips. Said lien shall be reported by the supervisor to the county assessor of the county in which said lands are situated, and shall be levied and collected with the next taxes on such lands in the same manner and with the same interest, penalty and cost charges as apply to ad valorem property taxes in this state: Provided further, Such report and levy shall be made only on commercial timber lands. The assessor shall extend the amounts on the assessment roll in a separate column, and the procedure provided by law for the collection of taxes and delinquent taxes shall be applicable thereto, and, upon the collection thereof, the county treasurer shall repay the same to the supervisor to be applied to the expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this chapter. [1951 c 233 § 7.]

76.06.080 Owner complying with notice is exempt. Every owner, and all owners or representatives, who upon receiving notice as provided in RCW 76.06.050, shall proceed and continue in good faith to control, eradicate and destroy said forest insects and forest tree diseases in accordance with standards established by the supervisor shall be exempt from the provisions hereof as to the lands upon which he or they are so proceeding. [1951 c 233 § 11.]

76.06.090 Dissolution of infestation control district. Whenever the board shall determine that insect control work within the designated district of infestation is no longer necessary or feasible, said board by resolution may dissolve said district. [1951 c 233 § 12.]

76.06.110 Deposit of moneys in general fund—Allotment as unanticipated receipts. All moneys collected under the provisions of RCW 76.06.070, together with such moneys as may be contributed by the federal government or by any owner or agent, shall be deposited in the state general fund for the purposes of this chapter.

Any additional revenue earmarked for the purposes of this chapter which was not anticipated in the budget

76.09.010 Legislative finding and declaration. (1) The legislature hereby finds and declares that the forest land resources are among the most valuable of all resources in the state; that a viable forest products industry is of prime importance to the state's economy; that it is in the public interest for public and private commercial forest lands to be managed consistent with sound policies of natural resource protection; that coincident with maintenance of a viable forest products industry, it is important to afford protection to forest soils, fisheries, wildlife, water quantity and quality, air quality, recreation, and scenic beauty.

(2) The legislature further finds and declares it to be in the public interest of this state to create and maintain through the adoption of this chapter a comprehensive state-wide system of laws and forest practices regulations which will achieve the following purposes and policies:

(a) Afford protection to, promote, foster and encourage timber growth, and require such minimum reforestation of commercial tree species on forest lands as will reasonably utilize the timber growing capacity of the soil following current timber harvest;

(b) Afford protection to forest soils and public resources by utilizing all reasonable methods of technology in conducting forest practices;

(c) Recognize both the public and private interest in the profitable growing and harvesting of timber;

(d) Promote efficiency by permitting maximum operating freedom consistent with the other purposes and policies stated herein;

(e) Provide for regulation of forest practices so as to avoid unnecessary duplication in such regulation;

(f) Provide for interagency input and intergovernmental coordination and cooperation;

(g) Achieve compliance with all applicable requirements of federal and state law with respect to nonpoint sources of water pollution from forest practices; and

Forest Practices

76.09.040  Forest practices regulations—Promulgation—Review of proposed regulations—Hearings—Adoption. (1) Where necessary to accomplish the purposes and policies stated in RCW 76.09.010, and to implement the provisions of this chapter, the board shall promulgate forest practices regulations establishing minimum standards for forest practices and setting forth necessary administrative provisions, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW and in accordance with the procedures enumerated in this section and RCW 76.09.200. Forest practices regulations pertaining to water quality protection shall be promulgated individually by the board and by the department of ecology after they have reached agreement with respect thereto. All other forest practices regulations shall be promulgated by the board.

Forest practices regulations shall be administered and enforced by the department except as otherwise provided in this chapter. Such regulations shall be promulgated and administered so as to give consideration to all purposes and policies set forth in RCW 76.09.010.

(2) The board shall prepare proposed forest practices regulations. In addition to any forest practices regulations relating to water quality protection proposed by the board, the department of ecology shall prepare proposed forest practices regulations relating to water quality protection.

Prior to initiating the rule making process, the proposed regulations shall be submitted for review and comments to the department of fisheries, the department of game, and to the counties of the state. After receipt of the proposed forest practices regulations, the departments of fisheries and game and the counties of the state shall have thirty days in which to review and submit comments to the board, and to the department of ecology with respect to its proposed regulations relating to water quality protection. After the expiration of such thirty day period the board and the department of ecology shall jointly hold one or more hearings on the proposed regulations pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW. At such hearing(s) any county may propose specific forest practices regulations relating to problems existing within such county. The board and the department of ecology may adopt such proposals if they find the proposals are consistent with the purposes and policies of this chapter. [1974 ex.s. c 137 § 4.]

76.09.050  Rules establishing classes of forest practices—Applications for classes of forest practices—Approval or disapproval—Notifications—Procedures—Appeals—Waiver. (1) The board shall establish by rule which forest practices shall be included within each of the following classes:

Class I: Minimal or specific forest practices that have no direct potential for damaging a public resource that may be conducted without submitting an application or a notification;

Class II: Forest practices which have a less than ordinary potential for damaging a public resource that may be conducted without submitting an application and may begin five calendar days, or such lesser time as the department may determine, after written notification by the operator, in the manner, content, and form as prescribed by the department, is received by the department. Class II shall not include forest practices:

(a) On lands platted after January 1, 1960, or being converted to another use;

(b) Which require approvals under the provisions of the hydraulics act, RCW 75.20.100;

(c) Within "shorelines of the state" as defined in RCW 90.58.030; or

(d) Excluded from Class II by the board;

Class III: Forest practices other than those contained in Class I, II, or IV. A Class III application must be approved or disapproved by the department within fourteen calendar days from the date the department receives the application;

Class IV: Forest practices other than those contained in Class I or II: (a) On lands platted after January 1, 1960, (b) on lands being converted to another use, (c) on lands which, pursuant to RCW 76.09.070 as now or hereafter amended, are not to be reforested because of the likelihood of future conversion to urban development, and/or (d) which have a potential for a substantial impact on the environment and therefore require an evaluation by the department as to whether or not a detailed statement must be prepared pursuant to the state environmental policy act, chapter 43.21C RCW. Such evaluation shall be made within ten days from the date the department receives the application: Provided, That nothing herein shall be construed to prevent any local or regional governmental entity from determining that a detailed statement must be prepared for an action pursuant to a Class IV forest practice taken by that governmental entity concerning the land on which forest practices will be conducted. A Class IV application must be approved or disapproved by the department within thirty calendar days from the date the department receives the application, unless the department determines that a detailed statement must be made, in which case the application must be approved or disapproved by the department within sixty calendar days from the date the department receives the application, unless the commissioner of public lands, through the promulgation of a formal order, determines that the process cannot be completed within such period.

Forest practices under Classes I, II, and III are exempt from the requirements for preparation of a detailed statement under the state environmental policy act.

(2) No Class II, Class III, or Class IV forest practice shall be commenced or continued after January 1, 1975, unless the department has received a notification with regard to a Class II forest practice or approved an application with regard to a Class III or Class IV forest practice containing all information required by RCW 76.09.060 as now or hereafter amended: Provided, That any person commencing a forest practice during 1974 may continue such forest practice until April 1, 1975, if such person has submitted an application to the department prior to January 1, 1975: Provided, further, That in the event forest practices regulations necessary for the scheduled implementation of this chapter and RCW 90.48.420 have not been adopted in time to meet such schedules, the department shall have the authority to regulate forest practices and approve applications on such terms and conditions consistent with this chapter and RCW 90.48.420 and the purposes and policies of RCW 76.09.010 until applicable forest practices regulations are in effect.

(3) If a notification or application is delivered in person to the department by the operator or his agent, the department shall immediately provide a dated receipt thereof. In all other cases, the department shall immediately mail a dated receipt to the operator.

(4) Forest practices shall be conducted in accordance with the forest practices regulations, orders and directives as authorized by this chapter or the forest practices regulations, and the terms and conditions of any approved applications.

(5) The department of natural resources shall notify the applicant in writing of either its approval of the application or its disapproval of the application and the specific manner in which the application fails to comply with the provisions of this section or with the forest practices regulations. Except as provided otherwise in this section, if the department fails to either approve or disapprove an application or any portion thereof within the applicable time limit, the application shall be deemed approved and the operation may be commenced: Provided, That this provision shall not apply to applications which are neither approved nor disapproved pursuant to the provisions of subsection (7) of this section: Provided, further, That if seasonal field conditions prevent the department from being able to properly evaluate the application, the department may issue an approval conditional upon further review within sixty days: Provided, further, That the department shall have until April 1, 1975, to approve or disapprove an application involving forest practices allowed to continue to April 1, 1975, under the provisions of subsection (2) of this section. Upon receipt of any notification or any satisfactorily completed application the department shall in any event no later than two business days after such receipt transmit a copy to the departments of ecology, game, and fisheries, and to the county in which the forest practice is to be commenced. Any comments by such agencies shall be directed to the department of natural resources.

(6) If the county believes that an application is inconsistent with this chapter, the forest practices regulations, or any local authority consistent with RCW 76.09.240 as now or hereafter amended, it may so notify the department and the applicant, specifying its objections.

(7) The department shall not approve portions of applications to which a county objects if:

(a) The department receives written notice from the county of such objections within fourteen business days from the time of transmittal of the application to the county, or one day before the department acts on the application, whichever is later; and

(b) The objections relate to lands either:

(i) Platted after January 1, 1960; or

(ii) Being converted to another use.

The department shall either disapprove those portions of such application or appeal the county objections to the appeals board. If the objections related to subparagraphs (b) (i) and (ii) of this subsection are based on local authority consistent with RCW 76.09.240 as now or hereafter amended, the department shall disapprove the application until such time as the county consents to its approval or such disapproval is reversed on appeal. The applicant shall be a party to all department appeals of county objections. Unless the county either consents or has waived its rights under this subsection, the department shall not approve portions of an application affecting such lands until the minimum time for county objections has expired.

(8) In addition to any rights under the above paragraph, the county may appeal any department approval of an application with respect to any lands within its jurisdiction. The appeals board may suspend the department's approval in whole or in part pending such appeal where there exists potential for immediate and material damage to a public resource.

(9) Appeals under this section shall be made to the appeals board in the manner and time provided in RCW 76.09.220(9). In such appeals there shall be no presumption of correctness of either the county or the department position.

(10) The department shall, within four business days notify the county of all notifications, approvals, and disapprovals of an application affecting lands within the county, except to the extent the county has waived its right to such notice.

(11) A county may waive in whole or in part its rights under this section, and may withdraw or modify any such waiver, at any time by written notice to the department. [1975 1st ex.s. c 200 § 2; 1974 ex.s. c 137 § 5.]

76.09.060 Applications for forest practices—Form—Contents—Conversion of forest land to other use—New applications—Approval—Emergencies.

(1) The department shall prescribe the form and contents of the notification and application. The forest practices regulations shall specify by whom and under what conditions the notification and application shall be signed. The application or notification shall be delivered in person or sent by certified mail to the department. The information required may include, but shall not be limited to:

(a) Name and address of the forest land owner, timber owner, and operator;

(b) Description of the proposed forest practice or practices to be conducted;

(c) Legal description of the land on which the forest practices are to be conducted;

(d) Planimetric and topographic maps showing location and size of all lakes and streams and other public waters in and immediately adjacent to the operating area and showing all existing and proposed roads and major tractor roads;
(e) Description of the silvicultural, harvesting, or other forest practice methods to be used, including the type of equipment to be used and materials to be applied;

(f) Proposed plan for reforestation and for any revegetation necessary to reduce erosion potential from roadsides and yarding roads, as required by the forest practices regulations;

(g) Soil, geological, and hydrological data with respect to forest practices;

(h) The expected dates of commencement and completion of all forest practices specified in the application;

(i) Provisions for continuing maintenance of roads and other construction or other measures necessary to afford protection to public resources; and

(j) An affirmation that the statements contained in the notification or application are true.

(2) At the option of the applicant, the application or notification may be submitted to cover a single forest practice or any number of forest practices within reasonable geographic or political boundaries as specified by the department. Long range plans may be submitted to the department for review and consultation.

(3) The application shall indicate whether any land covered by the application will be or is intended to be converted or is intended to be converted to a use other than commercial timber production within three years after completion of the forest practices described in it. (a) If the application states that any such land will be or is intended to be so converted:

(i) The reforestation requirements of this chapter and of the forest practices regulations shall not apply if the land is in fact so converted unless applicable alternatives or limitations are provided in forest practices regulations issued under RCW 76.09.070 as now or hereafter amended;

(ii) Completion of such forest practice operations shall be deemed conversion of the lands to another use for purposes of chapters 84.28, 84.33, and 84.34 RCW unless the conversion is to a use permitted under a current use tax agreement permitted under chapter 84.34 RCW;

(iii) The forest practices described in the application are subject to applicable county, city and regional governmental authority permitted under RCW 76.09.240 as now or hereafter amended as well as the forest practices regulations.

(b) If the application does not state that any land covered by the application will be or is intended to be so converted:

(i) For six years after the date of the application the county or city and regional governmental entities may deny any or all applications for permits or approvals, including building permits and subdivision approvals, relating to nonforestry uses of land subject to the application;

(ii) Failure to comply with the reforestation requirements contained in any final order or decision shall constitute a removal from classification under the provisions of RCW 84.28.065, a removal of designation under the provisions of RCW 84.33.140, and a change of use under the provisions of RCW 84.34.080, and, if applicable, shall subject such lands to the payments and/or penalties resulting from such removals or changes; and

(iii) Conversion to a use other than commercial timber operations within three years after completion of the forest practices without the consent of the county or municipality shall constitute a violation of each of the county, municipal and regional authorities to which the forest practice operations would have been subject if the application had so stated.

(c) The application shall be either signed by the land owner or accompanied by a statement signed by the land owner indicating his intent with respect to conversion and acknowledging that he is familiar with the effects of this subsection.

(4) Whenever an approved application authorizes a forest practice which, because of soil condition, proximity to a water course or other unusual factor, has a potential for causing material damage to a public resource, as determined by the department, the applicant shall, when requested on the approved application, notify the department two days before the commencement of actual operations.

(5) Before the operator commences any forest practice in a manner or to an extent significantly different from that described in a previously approved application or notification, there shall be submitted to the department a new application or notification form in the manner set forth in this section.

(6) The notification to or the approval given by the department to an application to conduct a forest practice shall be effective for a term of one year from the date of approval or notification and shall not be renewed unless a new application is filed and approved or a new notification has been filed.

(7) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, no prior application or notification shall be required for any emergency forest practice necessitated by fire, flood, windstorm, earthquake, or other emergency as defined by the board, but the operator shall submit an application or notification, whichever is applicable, to the department within forty-eight hours after commencement of such practice. [1975 1st ex.s. c 200 § 3; 1974 ex.s. c 137 § 6.]

76.09.070  Reforestation—Requirements—Procedures. After the completion of a logging operation, satisfactory reforestation as defined by the rules and regulations promulgated by the board shall be completed within three years: Provided, That a longer period may be authorized if seed or seedlings are not available: Provided further, That a period of up to five years may be allowed where a natural regeneration plan is approved by the department. Upon the completion of a reforestation operation a report on such operation shall be filed with the department of natural resources. Within twelve months of receipt of such a report the department shall inspect the reforestation operation, and shall determine either that the reforestation operation has been properly completed or that further reforestation and inspection is necessary.

The forest practices regulations may provide alternatives to or limitations on the applicability of reforestation requirements with respect to forest lands being converted in whole or in part to another use which is compatible with timber growing. The forest practices regulations may identify classifications and/or areas of forest land that have the likelihood of future conversion to urban development within a ten year period. The reforestation requirements may be modified or eliminated on such lands: Provided, That such identification and/or such conversion to urban development must be consistent with any local or regional land use plans or ordinances. [1975 1st ex.s. c 200 § 4; 1974 ex.s. c 137 § 7.]

76.09.080 Stop work orders—Grounds—Contents—Procedure—Appeals. (1) The department shall have the authority to serve upon an operator a stop work order which shall be a final order of the department if:

(a) There is any violation of the provisions of this chapter or the forest practices regulations; or

(b) There is a deviation from the approved application; or

(c) Immediate action is necessary to prevent continuation of or to avoid material damage to a public resource.

(2) The stop work order shall set forth:

(a) The specific nature, extent, and time of the violation, deviation, damage, or potential damage;

(b) An order to stop all work connected with the violation, deviation, damage, or potential damage;

(c) The specific course of action needed to correct such violation or deviation or to prevent damage and to correct and/or compensate for damage to public resources which has resulted from any violation, unauthorized deviation, or wilful or negligent disregard for potential damage to a public resource; and/or those courses of action necessary to prevent continuing damage to public resources where the damage is resulting from the forest practice activities but has not resulted from any violation, unauthorized deviation, or negligence; and

The department shall immediately file a copy of such order with the appeals board and mail a copy thereof to the timber owner and forest land owner at the addresses shown on the application. The operator, timber owner, or forest land owner may commence an appeal to the appeals board within fifteen days after service upon the operator. Such notice to comply shall become a final order of the department: Provided, That no direct appeal to the appeals board will be allowed from such final order. Such operator shall undertake the course of action so ordered by the department unless, within fifteen days after the date of service of such notice to comply, the operator, forest land owner, or timber owner, shall request the department in writing to schedule a hearing. If so requested, the department shall schedule a hearing on a date not more than twenty days after receiving such request. Within ten days after such hearing, the department shall issue a final order either withdrawing its notice to comply or clearly setting forth the specific course of action to be followed by such operator. Such operator shall undertake the course of action so ordered by the department unless within thirty days after the date of such final order, the operator, forest land owner, or timber owner appeals such final order to the appeals board. No person shall be under any obligation under this section to prevent, correct, or compensate for any damage to public resources which occurs more than one year after the date of completion of the forest practices operations involved exclusive of reforestation, unless such forest practices were not conducted in accordance with forest practices rules and regulations: Provided, That this provision shall not relieve the forest land owner from any obligation to comply with forest practices rules and regulations pertaining to providing continuing road maintenance. No action to recover damages shall be taken under this section more than two years after the date the damage involved occurs. [1975 1st ex.s. c 200 § 6; 1974 ex.s. c 137 § 9.]
76.09.100  Failure to comply with water quality protection—Department of ecology authorized to petition appeals board—Action on petition. If the department of ecology determines that a person has failed to comply with the forest practices regulations relating to water quality protection, and that the department of natural resources has not issued a stop work order or notice to comply, the department of ecology shall inform the department thereof. If the department of natural resources fails to take authorized enforcement action within twenty-four hours under RCW 76.09.080, 76.09.090, 76.09.120, or 76.09.130, the department of ecology may petition to the chairman of the appeals board, who shall, within forty-eight hours, either deny the petition or direct the department of natural resources to immediately issue a stop work order or notice to comply, or to impose a penalty. No civil or criminal penalties shall be imposed for past actions or omissions if such actions or omissions were conducted pursuant to an approval or directive of the department of natural resources. [1975 1st ex.s. c 200 § 3; 1974 ex.s. c 137 § 10.]

76.09.110  Final orders or final decisions binding upon all parties. Unless declared invalid on appeal, a final order of the department or a final decision of the appeals board shall be binding upon all parties. [1974 ex.s. c 137 § 11.]

76.09.120  Failure of owner to take required course of action—Notice of cost—Department authorized to complete course of action—Liability of owner for costs—Lien. If such operator, timber owner, or forest land owner fails within thirty days after such notice is given to undertake such course of action, or having undertaken such course of action fails to complete it within a reasonable time, the department may expend any funds available to undertake and complete such course of action and such operator, timber owner, and forest land owner shall be jointly and severally liable for the actual, direct cost thereof, but in no case more than the amount set forth in the notice from the department. If not paid within sixty days after the department completes such course of action and notifies such forest land owner in writing of the amount due, such amount shall become a lien on such forest land and the department may collect such amount in the same manner provided in chapter 60.04 RCW for mechanics' liens. [1974 ex.s. c 137 § 12.]

76.09.130  Failure to obey stop work order—Departmental action authorized—Liability of owner or operator for costs. When the operator has failed to obey a stop work order issued under the provisions of RCW 76.09.080 the department may take immediate action to prevent continuation of or avoid material damage to public resources. If a final order or decision fixes liability with the operator, timber owner, or forest land owner, they shall be jointly and severally liable for such emergency costs which may be collected in the manner provided for in RCW 76.09.120. [1974 ex.s. c 137 § 13.]

76.09.140  Enforcement. (1) The department of natural resources, through the attorney general, may take any necessary action to enforce any final order or final decision, or to enjoin any forest practices by any person for a one year period after such person has failed to comply with a final order or a final decision.

(2) A county may bring injunctive, declaratory, or other actions for enforcement for forest practice activities within its jurisdiction in the superior court as provided by law against the department, the forest land owner, timber owner or operator to enforce the forest practice regulations or any final order of the department, or the appeals board: Provided, That no civil or criminal penalties shall be imposed for past actions or omissions if such actions or omissions were conducted pursuant to an approval or directive of the department of natural resources: And provided further, That such actions shall not be commenced unless the department fails to take appropriate action after ten days written notice to the department by the county of a violation of the forest practices regulations or final orders of the department or the appeals board. [1975 1st ex.s. c 200 § 8; 1974 ex.s. c 137 § 14.]

76.09.150  Inspection—Right of entry. The department shall make inspections of forest lands, before, during and after the conducting of forest practices as necessary for the purpose of insuring compliance with this chapter and the forest practice regulations and to insure that no material damage occurs to the natural resources of this state as a result of such practices.

Any duly authorized representative of the department shall have the right to enter upon forest land at any reasonable time to enforce the provisions of this chapter and the forest practices regulations. [1974 ex.s. c 137 § 15.]

76.09.160  Right of entry by department of ecology. Any duly authorized representative of the department of ecology shall have the right to enter upon forest land at any reasonable time to administer the provisions of this chapter and RCW 90.48.420. [1974 ex.s. c 137 § 16.]

Each and every such violation shall be a separate and distinct offense. In case of a failure to comply with a notice pursuant to RCW 76.09.090 as now or hereafter amended or a stop work order, every day's continuance shall be a separate and distinct violation. Every person who through an act of commission or omission procures, aids or abets in the violation shall be considered to have violated the provisions of this section and shall be subject to the penalty herein provided for:

Provided, That no penalty shall be imposed under this section upon any governmental official, an employee of any governmental department, agency, or entity, or a member of any board or advisory committee created by this chapter for any act or omission in his duties in the administration of this chapter or of any regulation promulgated thereunder.

The penalty herein provided for shall be imposed by a notice in writing, either by certified mail with return receipt requested or by personal service, to the person incurring the same from the department of na tural resources describing the violation with reasonable par-ticularity. Within fifteen days after the notice is received, the person incurring the penalty may apply in writing to the department for the remission or mitigation of such penalty. Upon receipt of the application, that department may remit or mitigate the penalty upon whatever terms that department in its discretion deems proper, provided the department deems such remission or mitigation to be in the best interests of carrying out the purposes of this chapter. The department of natural resources shall have authority to ascertain the facts regarding all such applications in such reasonable manner and under such regulations as it may deem proper.

Any person incurring any penalty hereunder may appeal the same to the forest practices appeals board.

Such appeals shall be filed within thirty days of receipt of notice imposing any penalty unless an application for remission or mitigation is made to the department. When such an application for remission or mitigation is made, such appeals shall be filed within thirty days of receipt of notice from the department setting forth the disposition of the application.

Any penalty imposed hereunder shall become due and payable thirty days after receipt of a notice imposing the same unless application for remission or mitigation is made or an appeal is filed. When such an application for remission or mitigation is made, any penalty incurred hereunder shall become due and payable thirty days after receipt of notice setting forth the disposition of such application unless an appeal is filed from such disposition. Whenever an appeal of any penalty incurred here-derunder is filed, the penalty shall become due and payable only upon completion of all review proceedings and the issuance of a final decision confirming the penalty in whole or in part.

If the amount of any penalty is not paid to the department within thirty days after it becomes due and payable, the attorney general, upon the request of the department, shall bring an action in the name of the state of Washington in the superior court of Thurston county or of any county in which such violator may do business, to recover such penalty. In all such actions the procedure and rules of evidence shall be the same as an ordinary civil action except as otherwise in this chapter provided. [1975 1st ex.s. c 200 § 9; 1974 ex.s. c 137 § 17.]

76.09.180 Disposition of moneys received as penalties, reimbursement for damages. All penalties received or recovered by state agency action for violations as prescribed in RCW 76.09.170 shall be deposited in the state general fund. All such penalties recovered as a result of local government action shall be deposited in the local government general fund. Any funds recovered as reimbursement for damages pursuant to RCW 76.09.080 and 76.09.090 shall be transferred to that agency with jurisdiction over the public resource damaged, including but not limited to political subdivisions, the department of game, the department of fisheries, the department of ecology, the department of natural resources, or any other department that may be so designated: Provided, That nothing herein shall be construed to affect the provisions of RCW 90.48.142. [1974 ex.s. c 137 § 18.]

76.09.190 Additional penalty, gross misdemeanor. In addition to the penalties imposed pursuant to RCW 76-
.09.170, any person who conducts any forest practice or knowingly aids or abets another in conducting any forest practice in violation of any provisions of RCW 76.09.010 through 76.09.280 or 90.48.420, or of the regulations implementing RCW 76.09.010 through 76.09.280 or 90-
.48.420, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment for a term of not more than one year or by both fine and imprisonment for each sep-

137 § 19.]

forest practices regulations—Procedure. (1) On or be-governor shall appoint, with the approval of the board, the forest practices advisory committee to consist of the following members: A designated representative of the college of forest resources of the University of Washington, a designated representative of the depart-conservation districts, a designated representative of the department of fisheries, and a designated representative of the department of game; three representatives of primembers of the public at large selected for staggered three year terms who have no direct financial interest other than wages in the forest products industry. The advisory committee shall select a chairman from among its members whose vote shall be counted twice in case of a tie vote.

(2) The advisory committee shall hold hearings and take testimony and, on or before August 1, 1974, shall prepare proposed forest practices regulations and submit them to the board. The forest practices regulations shall be applicable state-wide to the extent practicable but shall establish not less than two or more than five forest regions within the state to which different regulations may be applicable, reflecting variations in such factors as timber and soil types and climatic conditions. To assist in the initial preparation of proposed forest practices regulations for different forest regions, the chairman of the advisory committee shall establish regional committees to assist the advisory committee. Such regional committees shall be composed of nine members, four of whom are private forest land owners regularly engaged in forest practices.

(4) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to preclude submission of proposed forest practices regulations by any other persons or to eliminate any procedures set forth in chapter 34.04 RCW for adoption, repeal, or modification of rules. [1974 ex.s. c 137 § 20.]

Reviser's note: Hiatus in subsection numbering results from veto of subsection (3).

76.09.210 Forest practices appeals board—Creation—Membership—Terms—Vacancies—Removal. (1) There is hereby created within the environmental hearings office under RCW 43.21B.005 the forest practices appeals board of the state of Washington.

(4) Any member may be removed for inefficiency, malfeasance or misfeasance in office, upon specific written charges filed by the governor, who shall transmit such written charges to the member accused and to the chief justice of the supreme court. The chief justice shall thereupon designate a tribunal composed of three judges of the superior court to hear and adjudicate the charges. Such tribunal shall fix the time of the hearing, which shall be public, and the procedure for the hearing, and the decision of such tribunal shall be final and not subject to review by the supreme court. Removal of any member by the tribunal shall disqualify such member for reappointment.

(5) Each member of the appeals board:

The appeals board shall perform all the powers and duties granted to it in this chapter or as otherwise provided by law.

Concurrently with the filing of any request for review with the board as provided in this section, the requestor shall file a copy of his request with the department and the attorney general. The attorney general may intervene to protect the public interest and insure that the provisions of this chapter are complied with.

(b) The review proceedings authorized in subparagraph (a) of this subsection are subject to the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW pertaining to procedures in contested cases. [1979 c 47 § 7; 1975-76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 174; 1975 1st ex.s. c 200 § 10; 1974 c 137 § 22.]

(2) In all appeals the appeals board shall have all powers relating to administration of oaths, issuance of subpoenas, and taking of depositions but such powers shall be exercised in conformity with chapter 34.04 RCW.

(3) In all appeals involving formal hearing the appeals board, and each member thereof, shall be subject to all duties imposed upon and shall have all powers granted to, an agency by those provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW relating to contested cases.

Reservation of state land for reforestation after timber removed: RCW 79.01.164.

76.12.020 Powers of board—Acquisition of land for reforestation—Taxes, cancellation. The board shall have the power to accept gifts and bequests of money or other property, made in its own name, or made in the name of the state, to promote generally the interests of reforestation or for a specific named purpose in connection with reforestation, and to acquire in the name of the state, by purchase or gift, any lands which by reason of their location, topography or geological formation, are chiefly valuable for purpose of developing and growing timber, and to designate such lands and any lands of the same character belonging to the state as state forest lands; and may acquire by gift or purchase any lands of the same character. Said board shall have power to seed, plant and develop forests on any lands, purchased, acquired or designated by it as state forest lands, and shall furnish such care and fire protection for such lands as it shall deem advisable. Upon approval of the board of county commissioners of the county in which said land is located such gift or donation of land may be accepted subject to delinquent general taxes thereon, and upon such acceptance of such gift or donation subject to such taxes, the state forest board shall record the deed of conveyance thereof and file with the assessor and treasurer of the county wherein such land is situated, written notice of acquisition of such land, and that all delinquent general taxes thereon, except state taxes, shall be canceled, and the county treasurer shall thereupon proceed to make such cancellation in the records of his office. Thereafter, such lands shall be held in trust, protected, managed, and administered upon, and the proceeds therefrom disposed of, under RCW 76.12.030. [1937 c 172 § 1; 1929 c 117 § 1; 1923 c 154 § 3; RRS § 5812–3. Prior: 1921 c 169 § 1, part.]

Reviser's note: "board" refers to the state forest board; see note following Title 76 RCW digest.

76.12.030 Deed of county land to board—Disposition of proceeds. If any land acquired by a county through foreclosure of tax liens, or otherwise, comes within the classification of land described in RCW 76.12.020 and can be used as state forest land and if the board deems such land necessary for the purposes of this chapter, the county shall, upon demand by the board, deed such land to the board and the land shall become a part of the state forest lands, and upon such deed being made the commissioner of public lands shall be notified and enter and note it upon the records of his office.

Such land shall be held in trust and administered and protected by the board as other state forest lands. Any moneys derived from the lease of such land or from the sale of forest products, oils, gases, coal, minerals, or fossils therefrom, shall be distributed as follows:

1. The expense incurred by the state for administration, reforestation, and protection, not to exceed twenty-five percent, which rate of percentage shall be determined by the board of natural resources, shall be returned to the forest development account in the state general fund.

2. Any balance remaining shall be paid to the county in which the land is located to be paid, distributed, and prorated, except as hereinafter provided, to the various funds in the same manner as general taxes are paid and distributed during the year of payment: Provided, That any such balance remaining paid to a county of the seventh, eighth, or ninth class shall first be applied to the reduction of any indebtedness existing in the current expense fund of such county during the year of payment. [1971 ex.s. c 224 § 1; 1969 c 110 § 1; 1957 c 167 § 1; 1951 c 91 § 1; 1935 c 126 § 1; 1927 c 288 § 3, part (adding a new section to 1923 c 154 § 3b); RRS § 5812-36.]

Whenever any forest land which shall have been acquired by any county through the foreclosure of tax liens, or otherwise, and which shall have been acquired by the federal government either from said county or from the state holding said lands in trust, and shall be available for reacquisition, the state board of natural resources and the board of county commissioners of any such county are hereby authorized to enter into an agreement for the reacquisition of such lands as state forest lands in trust for such county. Such agreement shall provide for the price and manner of such reacquisition. The state board of natural resources is authorized to provide in such agreement for the advance of funds available to it for such purpose from the forest development account, all or any part of the price for such reacquisition so agreed upon, which advance shall be repaid at such time and in such manner as in said agreement provided, solely from any distribution to be made to said county under the provisions of RCW 76.12.030; that the title to said lands shall be retained by the state free from any trust until the state shall have been fully reimbursed for all funds advanced in connection with such reacquisition; and that in the event of the failure of the county to repay such advance in the manner provided, the said forest lands shall be retained by the state to be administered and/or disposed of in the same manner as other state forest lands free and clear of any trust interest therein by said county. Such county shall make provisions for the reimbursement of the various funds from any moneys derived from such lands so acquired, or any other county trust forest board lands which are distributable in a like manner, for any sums withheld from funds for other areas which would have been distributed thereto from time to time but for such agreement. [1959 c 87 § 1.]

76.12.040 Gifts of county or city land for offices, warehouses, etc. Any county, city or town is authorized and empowered to convey to the state of Washington any lands owned by such county, city or town upon the selection of such lands by the forestry board of the state of Washington and the state forestry board is hereby authorized to select and accept conveyances of lands from such counties, cities or towns, suitable for use by the said forestry board as locations for offices, warehouses and machinery storage buildings in the administration of the forestry laws and lands of the state of Washington: Provided, however, No consideration shall be paid by the state nor by the state forestry board for the conveyance of such lands by such county, city or town. [1937 c 125 § 1; RRS § 5812-3c. FORMER PART OF SECTION: 1937 c 125 § 2 now codified as RCW 76.12.045.]

The state forestry board, through the division of forestry of the department of conservation and development, is authorized to use such lands for the purposes hereinbefore expressed and to improve said lands and build thereon any necessary structures for the purposes hereinbefore expressed and expend in so doing such funds as may be authorized by law therefor. [1937 c 125 § 2; RRS § 5812-3d. Formerly RCW 76.12.040.]

76.12.050 Exchange of lands to consolidate and block up holdings or obtain lands having commercial recreational leasing potential. The board of county commissioners of any county and/or the mayor and city council or city commission of any city or town and/or the board of natural resources shall have authority to exchange, each with the other, or with the federal forest service, the federal government or any proper agency thereof and/or with any private landowner, county land of any character, land owned by municipalities of any character, and land owned by the state under the jurisdiction of the department of natural resources, for real property of equal value for the purpose of consolidating and blocking up the respective land holdings of any county, municipality, the federal government, or the state of Washington or for the purpose of obtaining lands having commercial recreational leasing potential. [1973 1st ex.s. c 50 § 1; 1961 c 77 § 1; 1937 c 77 § 1; RRS § 5812-3e.]

76.12.060 Exchange of lands to consolidate and block up holdings—Agreements and deeds by commissioner. The commissioner of public lands shall, with the advice and approval of the attorney general, execute such agreements, writings, or relinquishments and certify to the governor such deeds as are necessary or proper to complete an exchange as authorized by the

76.12.070 Reconveyance to county in certain cases. Whenever any county shall have acquired by tax foreclosure, or otherwise, lands within the classification of RCW 76.12.020 and shall have thereafter contracted to sell such lands to bona fide purchasers before the same may have been selected as forest lands by the state forest board, and has heretofore deeded or shall hereafter deed because of inadvertence or oversight such lands to the state or to the state forest board to be held under RCW 76.12.030 or any amendment thereof; the state forest board upon being furnished with a certified copy of such contract of sale on file in such county and a certificate of the county treasurer showing said contract to be in good standing in every particular and that all due payments and taxes have been made thereon, and upon receipt of a certified copy of a resolution of the board of county commissioners of such county requesting the reconveyance to the county of such lands, is hereby authorized to reconvey such lands to such county by quitclaim deed executed by the chairman and secretary of said board: Provided, Such reconveyance of lands heretofore acquired by the state or state forest board be made within one year from the taking effect of this act and such reconveyance of lands hereafter so acquired be made within one year from the conveyance thereof to the state or state forest board. [1941 c 84 § 1; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 5812-3g.]

Reviser's note: Effective date of this act [1941 c 84 § 1] was midnight June 11, 1941, see preface 1941 session laws.

76.12.072 Transfer of state forest lands back to county for public park use—Procedure—Reconveyance back when use ceases. Whenever the board of county commissioners of any county shall determine that forest lands, that were acquired from such county by the state pursuant to RCW 76.12.030 and that are under the administration of the department of natural resources, are needed by the county for public park use in accordance with the county and the state outdoor recreation plans, the board of county commissioners may file an application with the board of natural resources for the transfer of such forest lands.

Upon the filing of an application by the board of county commissioners, the department of natural resources shall cause notice of the impending transfer to be given in the manner provided by *RCW 42.32.010. If the department of natural resources determines that the proposed use is in accordance with the state outdoor recreation plan, it shall reconvey said forest lands to the requesting county to have and to hold for so long as the forest lands are developed, maintained, and used for the proposed public park purpose. This reconveyance may contain conditions to allow the department of natural resources to coordinate the management of any adjacent state owned lands with the proposed park activity to encourage maximum multiple use management and may reserve rights of way needed to manage other state owned lands in the area. The application shall be denied if the department of natural resources finds that the proposed use is not in accord with the state outdoor recreation plan. If the land is not, or ceases to be, used for public park purposes the land shall be conveyed back to the department of natural resources upon request of the department. [1969 ex.s. c 47 § 1.]

*Reviser's note: RCW 42.32.010 was repealed by 1971 ex. sess. c 250 § 15. Later enactment, see RCW 42.30.060.

76.12.073 Transfer of state forest lands back to county for public park use—Timber resource management. The timber resources on any such state forest land transferred to the counties under RCW 76.12.072 shall be managed by the department of natural resources to the extent that this is consistent with park purposes and meets with the approval of the board of county commissioners. Whenever the department of natural resources does manage the timber resources of such lands, it will do so in accordance with the general statutes relative to the management of all other state forest lands. [1969 ex.s. c 47 § 2.]

76.12.074 Transfer of state forest lands back to county for public park use—Lands transferred by deed. Under provisions mutually agreeable to the board of county commissioners and the board of natural resources, lands approved for transfer to a county for public park purposes under the provisions of RCW 76.12.072 shall be transferred to the county by deed. [1969 ex.s. c 47 § 3.]

76.12.075 Transfer of state forest lands back to county for public park use—Provisions cumulative and nonexclusive. The provisions of RCW 76.12.072 through 76.12.075 shall be cumulative and nonexclusive and shall not repeal any other related statutory procedure established by law. [1969 ex.s. c 47 § 4.]

76.12.080 Acquisition of forest land—Requisites. Said board shall take such steps as it deems advisable for locating and acquiring lands suitable for state forests and reforestation. No sum in excess of two dollars per acre shall ever be paid or allowed either in cash, bonds or otherwise, for any lands suitable for forest growth, but devoid of such; nor shall any sum in excess of six dollars per acre be paid or allowed either in cash, bonds or otherwise, for any lands adequately restocked with young growth or left in a satisfactory natural condition for natural reforestation and continuous forest production; nor shall any lands ever be acquired by said board except upon the approval of the title by the attorney general and on a conveyance being made to the state of Washington by good and sufficient deed. No forest lands shall be designated, purchased, or acquired by said board unless the area so designated or the area to be acquired shall, in the judgment of the board be of sufficient acreage and so located that it can be economically administered for forest development purposes. Whenever the board acquires or designates an area as forest lands it shall designate such area by a distinctive name or number, e.g., "State forest No. ......", or, "Cascade State Forest". [1923 c 154 § 4; RRS § 5812-4. Prior: 1921 c 169 § 1, part.]

76.12.085 Validation of prior land transfers—Certain lands declared state forest lands. All transfers of lands heretofore made to the state forest board as state forest lands are hereby validated, and all lands heretofore administered by the state forest board as state forest lands are hereby declared to be state forest lands and public lands of the state of Washington. [1953 c 209 § 1.]

76.12.090 Utility bonds. For the purpose of acquiring and paying for lands for state forests and reforestation as herein provided the board may issue utility bonds of the state of Washington, in an amount not to exceed two hundred thousand dollars in principal, during the biennium expiring March 31, 1925, and such other amounts as may hereafter be authorized by the legislature. Said bonds shall bear interest at not to exceed the rate of two percent per annum which shall be payable annually. Said bonds shall never be sold or exchanged at less than par and accrued interest, if any, and shall mature in not less than a period equal to the time necessary to develop a merchantable forest on the lands exchanged for said bonds or purchased with money derived from the sale thereof. Said bonds shall be known as state forest utility bonds. The principal or interest of said bonds shall not be a general obligation of the state, but shall be payable only from the forest development fund hereinafter created. The board may issue said bonds in exchange for lands selected by it in accordance with *this act, or may sell said bonds in such manner as it deems advisable, and with the proceeds purchase and acquire such lands. Any of said bonds issued in exchange and payment for any particular tract of lands may be made a first and prior lien against the particular land for which they are exchanged, and upon failure to pay said bonds and interest thereon according to their terms, the lien of said bonds may be foreclosed by appropriate court action. [1937 c 104 § 1; 1923 c 154 § 5; RRS § 5812-5.]

*Reviser's note: "this act" appears in 1923 c 154 codified as RCW 43.64.010, 43.64.020, 43.12.140, 76.12.020, 76.12.030, 76.12.080, 76.12.090, 76.12.110, 76.12.120, 76.12.140 and 76.12.150.

76.12.100 Bonds—Purchase price of land limited—Retirement of bonds. For the purpose of acquiring, seeding[,] reforestation and administering land for forests and of carrying out the provisions of *chapter 154 of the Laws of 1923, the state forest board is authorized to issue and dispose of utility bonds of the state of Washington in an amount not to exceed one hundred thousand dollars in principal during the biennium expiring March 31, 1951: Provided, however, That no sum in excess of one dollar per acre shall ever be paid or allowed either in cash, bonds, or otherwise, for any lands suitable for forest growth, but devoid of such, nor shall any sum in excess of three dollars per acre be paid or allowed either in cash, bonds, or otherwise, for any lands adequately restocked with young growth.

Any utility bonds issued under the provisions of this section may be retired from time to time, whenever there is sufficient money in the forest development fund, said bonds to be retired at the discretion of the state forest board either in the order of issuance, or by first retiring bonds with the highest rate of interest. [1949 c 80 § 1; 1947 c 66 § 1; 1945 c 13 § 1; 1943 c 123 § 1; 1941 c 43 § 1; 1939 c 106 § 1; 1937 c 104 § 2; 1935 c 126 § 2; 1933 c 117 § 1; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 5812-11.]

*Reviser's note: (1) "chapter 154 of the Laws of 1923" was codified as RCW 43.64.010, 43.64.020, 43.12.140, 76.12.020, 76.12.030, 76.12.080, 76.12.090, 76.12.110, 76.12.120, 76.12.140 and 76.12.150.

(2) The forest development fund was originally created by 1923 c 154 § 6. It was recreated by 1951 c 149 (RCW 76.12.110) and was later abolished and superseded by 1955 c 370 (RCW 43.19.330 through 43.79.334) which created a forest development account in the general fund and transferred thereto all moneys in the forest development fund. RCW 76.12.110 was amended accordingly in 1959.

76.12.110 Forest development account. There is created a forest development account in the state general fund. The state treasurer shall keep an account of all sums deposited therein and expended or withdrawn therefrom. Any sums placed in the account shall be pledged for the purpose of paying interest and principal on the bonds issued by the board, and for the purchase of land for growing timber. Any bonds issued shall constitute a first and prior claim and lien against the account for the payment of principal and interest. No sums for the above purposes shall be withdrawn or paid out of the account except upon approval of the board.

Appropriations may be made by the legislature from the forest development account to the department of natural resources for the purpose of carrying on the activities of the department on state forest lands, lands managed on a sustained yield basis as provided for in RCW 79.68.040, and for reimbursement of expenditures that have been made or may be made from the resource management cost account in the management of state forest lands. [1977 exs. c 159 § 1; 1959 c 314 § 1; 1951 c 149 § 1; 1933 c 118 § 2; 1923 c 154 § 6; RRS § 5812-6.]

76.12.120 Sales and leases of timber, timber land, or products thereon—Disposition of revenue. All land, acquired or designated by the board as state forest land, shall be forever reserved from sale, but the timber and other products thereon may be sold or the land may be leased in the same manner and for the same purposes as is authorized for state granted land if the board finds such sale or lease to be in the best interests of the state and approves the terms and conditions thereof.

All money derived from the sale of timber or other products, or from lease, or from any other source from the land, except where the Constitution of this state or RCW 76.12.030 requires other disposition, shall be disposed of as follows:

(1) Fifty percent shall be placed in the forest development fund.

(2) Fifty percent shall be prorated and distributed to the state general fund, to be dedicated for the benefit of the public schools, and the county in which the land is located according to the relative proportions of tax levies of all taxing districts in the county. The portion to be distributed to the state general fund shall be based on the regular school levy rate under RCW 84.52.065 as now or hereafter amended and the levy rate for any maintenance and operation special school levies. The money distributed to the county shall be paid, distributed, and prorated to the various other funds in the same manner as general taxes are paid and distributed during the year of payment. Any lands acquired by the state under the provisions of *chapter 154, Laws of 1923, or any amendments thereto, shall be logged, protected and cared for in such manner as to insure natural reforestation of such lands, and to that end the state forest board shall have power, and it shall be its duty to make rules and regulations, and amendments thereto, governing logging operations on such areas, and to embody in any contract for the sale of timber on such areas, such conditions as it shall deem advisable, with respect to methods of logging, disposition of slashings, and debris, and protection and promotion of new forests. All such rules and regulations, or amendments thereto, shall be adopted by majority vote of the state forest board by resolution and recorded in the minutes of the board, and shall be promulgated by publication in one issue of a newspaper of general circulation published at the state capitol, and shall take effect and be in force at the time specified therein. Any violation of any such rules and regulations shall be a gross misdemeanor. [1927 c 288 § 3, part (adding a new section to 1923 c 154 § 3a); RRS § 5812-3a. Prior: 1921 c 169 § 2.]

The record shall show the date and from whom said lands were acquired; amount and method of payment therefor; the forest within which said lands are embraced; the legal description of such lands; the amount of money expended, if any, and the date thereof, for seeding, planting, maintenance or care for such lands; the amount, date and source of any income derived from such land; and such other information and data as may be required by the board. Forest Rehabilitation

The term "supervisor" means the supervisor of forestry;

The term "board" means the state forest board;

The term "owner" means and includes individuals, partnerships, corporations, associations, federal land managing agencies, state of Washington, counties, municipalities, and other forest land owners;

"Forest land" means any lands considered best adapted for the growing of trees. [1953 c 74 § 2.]

76.14.020 Yacolt burn designated high hazard area—Rehabilitation required. The Yacolt burn situated in Clark, Skamania, and Cowlitz counties in townships 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7 north, ranges 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 7 1/2 and 8 east is hereby designated a high hazard forest area requiring rehabilitation by the establishment of extensive protection facilities and by the restocking of denuded areas artificially to restore the productivity of the land. [1953 c 74 § 1.]

76.14.030 Administration. This chapter shall be administered by the division of forestry under the guidance and approval of the state forest board. [1953 c 74 § 3.]

76.14.040 Duties of supervisor. The supervisor shall use funds placed at his disposal to map, survey, fell snags, build firebreaks and access roads, increase forest protection activities and do all work deemed necessary to protect forest lands from fire in the rehabilitation zone, and to perform reforestation and do other improvement work on state lands in the rehabilitation zone. [1955 c 171 § 1; 1953 c 74 § 4.]

76.14.050 Firebreaks—Powers of board and supervisor—Grazing lands. The supervisor is authorized to cooperate with owners of land located in the area described in RCW 76.14.020 in establishing firebreaks in their most logical position regardless of land ownership. The board may by gift, purchase, condemnation or otherwise acquire easements for road rights of way and land or interests therein located in the high hazard forest area described in RCW 76.14.020 for any purpose deemed necessary for access for forest protection, reforestation, development and utilization, and for access to state owned lands within the area described in RCW 76.14.020 for all other purposes, and the supervisor shall have authority to regulate the use thereof. When the landowner is using the land for agricultural grazing purposes the state shall maintain gates or adequate cattle guards at each place the road enters upon the private landowner's fenced lands. [1975 1st ex.s. c 101 § 1; 1955 c 171 § 2; 1953 c 74 § 5.]

76.14.051 Firebreaks—Preexisting agreements not altered. Nothing in the provisions of RCW 76.14.050 as now or hereafter amended shall be construed to otherwise alter the terms of any existing agreements heretofore entered into by the state and private parties under the authority of RCW 76.14.050 as now or hereafter amended. [1975 1st ex.s. c 101 § 2.]

76.14.060 Powers and duties of supervisor—Private lands. The supervisor, subject to the guidance and approval of the board, shall have authority to acquire the right by purchase, condemnation or otherwise to cause snags on private land to be felled, slash to be disposed of, and to take such other measures on private land necessary to carry out the objectives of this chapter. [1955 c 171 § 3.]

76.14.070 Powers and duties of supervisor—Expenditure of public funds. The supervisor shall have authority subject to the guidance and approval of the board to expend public money for the purposes and objectives provided in this chapter. [1955 c 171 § 4.]

76.14.080 Fire protection projects—Assessments—Payment. The supervisor, with the guidance and approval of the board, shall develop fire protection projects within the high hazard forest area and shall determine the boundaries thereof in accordance with the lands benefited thereby and shall assess one-sixth of the cost of such projects equally upon all forest lands within the project on an acreage basis. Such assessment shall not, however, exceed twenty-five cents per acre annually nor more than one dollar and fifty cents per acre in the aggregate and shall constitute a lien upon any forest products harvested therefrom. The landowner may by written notice to the supervisor of forestry elect to pay his assessment on a deferred basis at a rate of ten cents per thousand board feet and/or one cent per Christmas tree when these products are harvested from the lands for commercial use until the assessment plus two percent interest from the date of completion of each project has been paid for each acre. Payments under the deferred plan shall be credited by forty acre tracts and shall be first applied to payment of the assessment against the forty acre tract from which the funds were derived and secondly to other forty acre tracts held and designated by the payor. In the event total ownership is less than forty acres then payment shall be applied on an undivided basis to the entire areas as to which the assessment remains unpaid. The landowner who elects to pay on deferred basis may pay any unpaid assessment and interest at any time. [1955 c 171 § 5.]

76.14.090 Fire protection projects—Notice—Hearing. Notice of each project, the estimated assessment per acre and a description of the boundaries thereof shall be given by publication in a local newspaper of general circulation thirty days in advance of commencing work. Any person owning land within the project may within ten days after publication of notice demand a hearing before the supervisor in Olympia and present any reasons why he feels the assessment should not be made upon his land. Thereafter, the supervisor

may change the boundaries of said project to eliminate land from the project which he determines in his discretion will not be benefited by the project. [1955 c 171 § 6.]

76.14.100 Fire protection projects—Collection of assessments. Except when the owner has notified the supervisor in writing that he will make payment on the deferred plan, the assessment shall be collected by the supervisor reporting the same to the county assessor of the county in which the property is situated upon completion of the work in that project and the assessor shall annually extend the amounts upon the tax rolls covering the property, and the amounts shall be collected in the same manner, by the same procedure, and with the same penalties attached as the next general state and county taxes on the same property are collected. Errors in assessments may be corrected at any time by the supervisor by certifying them to the treasurer of the county in which the land involved is situated. Upon the collection of such assessments the county treasurer shall transmit them to the supervisor. Payment on the deferred plan shall be made directly to the supervisor. Such payment must be made by January 31st for any timber or Christmas trees harvested during the previous calendar year and must be accompanied by a statement of the amount of timber or number of Christmas trees harvested and the legal description of the property from which the land involved is situated. Upon the completion of the work in that project and the assessor shall find that a portion of the work in any project, except road building, has been done by private expenditures for fire protection purposes only and that the work was not required by other forestry laws having general application, then the supervisor shall appraise the work on the basis of what it would have cost the state and shall credit the amount of the appraisal toward payment of any sums assessed against lands contained in the project and owned by the person or his predecessors in title making the expenditure. Such appraisal shall be added to the cost of the project for purposes of determining the general assessment. [1955 c 171 § 7.]

76.14.110 Fire protection projects—Credit on assessment for private expenditure. Where the supervisor finds that a portion of the work in any project, except road building, has been done by private expenditures for fire protection purposes only and that the work was not required by other forestry laws having general application, then the supervisor shall appraise the work on the basis of what it would have cost the state and shall credit the amount of the appraisal toward payment of any sums assessed against lands contained in the project and owned by the person or his predecessors in title making the expenditure. Such appraisal shall be added to the cost of the project for purposes of determining the general assessment. [1955 c 171 § 8.]

76.14.120 Landowner's responsibility under other laws. This chapter shall not relieve the landowner of providing adequate fire protection for forest land pursuant to RCW 76.04.360, as amended, or in lieu thereof of paying the fire patrol assessment specified, but shall be deemed as providing solely for extra fire protection needed in the extrahazardous fire area. [1955 c 171 § 9.]

76.14.130 Lands not to be included in project. Projects pursuant to RCW 76.14.080 shall not be developed to include lands outside the following described boundary within the high hazard forest areas: Beginning at a point on the east boundary of section 24, township 4 north, range 4 east 1/4 mile south of the northeast corner; thence west 1/4 mile; south 1/16 mile; west 1/4 mile; north 1/16 mile; west 1/2 mile; south 1/8 mile; west 1/4 mile; south 1/8 mile; west 1/2 mile; south 1/16 mile; west 1/8 mile; south 1/16 mile; west 1/2 mile; south 1/16 mile; west 3/4 mile; north 1/16 mile; west 1/4 mile; north 1/16 mile; west 1/2 mile; north 1/16 mile; west 1/4 mile; north 1/16 mile; west 1 3/4 miles to the west quarter corner of section 19, township 4 north, range 4 east. Reviser's note: The powers and duties of certain agencies mentioned in this chapter have devolved upon the department of natural resources; see note following Title 76 RCW digest.

76.16.010 Acquisition of property interests for access authorized—Maintenance. Whenever the department of natural resources, hereinafter referred to as the department, shall find it to be for the best interests of the state of Washington to acquire any property or use of a road in private ownership to afford access to state timber and other valuable material for the purpose of developing, caring for or selling the same, the acquisition of such property, or use thereof, is hereby declared to be necessary for the public use of the state of Washington, and said department is hereby authorized to acquire such property or the use of such roads by gift, purchase, exchange or condemnation, and subject to all of the terms and conditions of such gift, purchase, exchange or decree of condemnation to maintain such property or roads as part of the department's land management road system. [1963 c 140 § 1; 1945 c 239 § 1; Rem. Supp. 1945 § 5823–30.]

Eminent domain: State Constitution Art. 1 § 16 (Amendment 9); chapter 8.04 RCW.

76.16.020 Condemnation—Duty of attorney general. The attorney general of the state of Washington is hereby required and authorized to condemn said property interests found to be necessary for the public purposes of the state of Washington, as provided in RCW 76.16.010, and upon being furnished with a certified copy of the resolution of the department, describing said property interests found to be necessary for the purposes set forth in RCW 76.16.010, the attorney general shall immediately take steps to acquire said property interests by exercising the state's right of eminent domain under the provisions of chapter 8.04 RCW, and in any condemnation action herein authorized, the resolution so describing the property interests found to be necessary for the purposes set forth above shall, in the absence of a showing of bad faith, arbitrary, capricious or fraudulent action, be conclusive as to the public use and real necessity for the acquisition of said property interests for a public purpose, and said property interests shall be awarded to the state without the necessity of either pleading or proving that the department was unable to agree with the owner or owners of said private property interest for its purchase. Any condemnation action herein authorized shall have precedence over all actions, except criminal actions, and shall be summarily tried and disposed of. [1963 c 140 § 2; 1945 c 239 § 2; Rem. Supp. 1945 § 5823–31.]

76.16.030 Disposal of property interests acquired under this chapter. In the event the department should determine that the property interests acquired under the authority of this chapter are no longer necessary for the purposes for which they were acquired, the department shall dispose of the same in the following manner, when in the discretion of the department it is to the best interests of the state of Washington to do so, except that property purchased with educational funds or held in trust for educational purposes shall be sold only in the same manner as are public lands of the state:

(1) Where the state property necessitating the acquisition of private property interests for access purposes under authority of this chapter is sold or exchanged, said acquired property interests may be sold or exchanged as an appurtenance of said state property when it is determined by the department that sale or exchange of said state property and acquired property interests as one parcel is in the best interests of the state.

(2) If said acquired property interests are not sold or exchanged as provided in the preceding subsection, the department shall notify the person or persons from whom the property interest was acquired, stating that said property interests are to be sold, and that said person or persons shall have the right to purchase the same at the appraised price. Said notice shall be given by registered letter or certified mail, return receipt requested, mailed to the last known address of said person or persons. If the address of said person or persons is unknown, said notice shall be published twice in an official newspaper of general circulation in the county where the lands or a portion thereof is located. The second notice shall be published not less than ten nor more than thirty days after the notice is first published. Said person or persons shall have thirty days after receipt of the registered letter or five days after the last date of publication, as the case may be, to notify the department, in writing, of their intent to purchase the offered property interest. The purchaser shall include with his notice of intention to purchase, cash payment, certified check or money order in an amount not less than one-third of the appraised price. No instrument conveying property interests shall issue from the department until the full price of the property is received by said department. All costs of publication required under this section shall be added to the appraised price and collected by the department upon sale of said property interests.

(3) If said property interests are not sold or exchanged as provided in the preceding subsections, the department shall notify the owners of land abutting said property interests in the same manner as provided in the preceding subsection and their notice of intent to purchase shall be given in the manner and in accordance with the same time limits as are set forth in the preceding subsection (2): Provided, That if more than one abutting owner gives notice of intent to purchase said property interests the department shall apportion them in relation to the lineal footage bordering each side of the property interests to be sold, and apportion the costs to the interested purchasers in relation thereto: Provided further, That no sale is authorized by this section unless the department is satisfied that the amounts to be received from the several purchasers will equal or exceed the appraised price of the entire parcel plus any costs of publishing notices.

(4) If no sale or exchange is consummated as provided in subsections (1), (2) and (3) hereof, the department shall sell said properties in the same manner as public lands of the state of Washington are sold.

(5) Any disposal of property interests authorized by this chapter shall be subject to any existing rights previously granted by the department. [1963 c 140 § 3; 1945 c 239 § 3; Rem. Supp. 1945 § 5823–32.]

76.16.040 Acquisition—Payment—Moneys available to department. The department in acquiring any property interests under the provisions of this chapter, either by purchase or condemnation, is hereby authorized to pay for the same out of any moneys available to the department of natural resources for this purpose. [1963 c 140 § 4; 1945 c 239 § 4; Rem. Supp. 1945 § 5823–33.]

Whenever, by reason of floods or otherwise, the channel of any stream is so changed as to put the stream beyond the limits of the original plat, or any supplemental or additional plat filed pursuant to the provisions of this section, the corporation may file in the office of the supervisor of forestry additional plats or surveys showing the change in the channel and so much of the shore lines of the waters of the state and lands contiguous thereto as are proposed to be appropriated for its purposes by the corporation, which shall vest it with the same rights that it acquired by the filing of the original plat. [1957 c 33 § 1; 1907 c 52 § 1; 1890 p 470 § 2; RRS § 8400.]

Reviser's note: The 1957 amendment of this section transferred the functions of the secretary of state to the supervisor of forestry; however, chapter 38, Laws of 1957 transfers the functions relating to booming companies to the newly created department of natural resources, see chapter 43.30 RCW, particularly RCW 43.30.110, 43.30.070, 43.30.080.

It shall have the right, in consideration of the convenience and security afforded to the public in the handling of logs and timber products, to charge and collect tolls on all logs or other timber products caught within its works and upon the order or request of the owner or owners thereof, and there assorted, boomed, or rafted. The tolls shall not exceed one dollar and fifty cents per thousand feet on logs, spars, or other large timber, and reasonable rates on all other timber products. A corporation operating a boom at the mouth of any river, shall catch and hold, assort, boom, and raft all logs and timber products, except such as may be already in charge of the owner or his agents, without request of the owner, and it shall have the right to charge and collect tolls not to exceed one dollar and fifty cents per thousand feet for such service. The amount of logs or timber is to be board measure, to be ascertained by the usual legal method of scaling. The corporation shall have a lien upon the logs and timber products for the driving, floating, booming, sorting, and rafting thereof, and the right to foreclose such lien as provided in chapter 60.10 RCW and RCW 61.12.162. The corporation shall, as soon as practicable, deliver logs or other timber products caught within its booms, sorted and rafted ready for towing, to the owner thereof, and if required to hold such property for more than thirty days, shall have the right to charge a reasonable rate for such storage for the excess period. 76.28.050 Duty in separating products. It shall be the duty of all said boom corporations, in assorting, to separate the logs, lumber or other timber products into separate booms ready for towing, so that logs or other timber products shall go to the mill or place intended for use or storage in one or more booms: Provided, That in case more than one boom is located on or in the same river or its tributaries, the corporation owning the upper boom or works shall pass free of charge all saw logs or other timber products consigned to the lower boom or booms. [1890 p 472 § 5; RRS § 8403.]

76.28.060 Record of rafts. It shall be the duty of every corporation organized and transacting business under the provisions of this chapter to keep in the office of its secretary, open to public inspection, a book or books in which shall be truly recorded the facts, so far as known, regarding each and every raft by it assorted. Such record shall specify: (1) Names of owners; (2) marks or brands; (3) number of logs in each boom; (4) number of feet in boom; (5) name of steamer receiving possession; (6) date of departure from boom. [1890 p 472 § 7; RRS § 8405.]

76.28.080 Additional liability for failure to assort and deliver. In addition to such damages as are herein provided for any corporation wilfully neglecting to assort and deliver such logs and timber products according to the provisions of this chapter, it shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty percent of the value of such property which it shall have failed to deliver, but no such corporation shall be liable to such damages or penalty if said owner or owners of such logs or timber products shall have failed to furnish the necessary boom sticks
76.28.090  Certain waters declared public highways—Boom companies declared public corporations.  All meandered rivers, meandered sloughs and navigable waters in this state shall be deemed as public highways, and said corporations shall be declared public corporations for the purpose of this chapter; and the improvement of such streams, sloughs and waters shall be deemed and declared a public use and benefit. Such corporation shall have power to acquire, hold, use and transfer all such real and personal property or estate, by lease or purchase, as shall be necessary for carrying on the business of said corporation. Such plat shall be made from the records of the United States Surveyor General or by a competent surveyor, after actual survey.  The corporation may from time to time whenever it desires to extend its operations to portions of streams not embraced in its original plat, or to other streams tributary to the stream or streams described in the original plat, or any portion of such streams, file additional plats in the office of the supervisor of forestry.  Whenever by reason of floods or otherwise, the channel of any stream is so changed as to put the stream beyond the limits of the original plat, or any supplemental or additional plat filed pursuant to the provisions of this section, the corporation may file in the office of the supervisor of forestry supplemental plats showing the change in the channel which shall vest it with the same rights that it acquired by the filing of the original plat.  [1957 c 34 § 1; 1905 c 119 § 1; 1895 c 72 § 3; RRS § 8410.]

Reviser's note: The 1957 amendment of this section transferred the functions of the secretary of state to the supervisor of forestry; however, chapter 38, Laws of 1957 transferred the functions relating to log driving companies to the newly created department of natural resources, see chapter 43.30 RCW, particularly RCW 43.30.110, 43.30.070, 43.30.080.

Such corporation shall have power and is hereby authorized in any of the rivers and streams of this state, or the dividing waters thereof, to remove jams, roots, snags and rocks, improve and straighten the channel, build wing dams and sheer booms, construct dams and gates, or otherwise, for the purpose of storing water with which to produce artificial freshets and for the purpose of holding logs and other timber products and in all ways to improve such streams and rivers for the purposes herein mentioned and contemplated.  Provided, That no such wing dam, sheer boom, dam with gate or otherwise, shall be so constructed, maintained or used as to in any manner obstruct or impede the outlet of such stream:  And provided further, That if any such wing dam, sheer boom, dam with gate or otherwise shall be so constructed, maintained or used as to interfere with the use for any purpose of the waters of any stream so dammed or used, or any of its tributaries, or in any manner to injure or damage any lands adjacent to such stream or its tributaries, compensation for such interference with the use of such water and for any such injury or damage shall be first assessed and determined and the appropriation thereof may be made by the exercise of the power of eminent domain in the manner provided in RCW 76.32-020: Provided, however, That whenever the owners of more than one-half of the land lying alongside or abutting on any stream affected by the tide, proposed to be improved according to this chapter, shall file with the board of county commissioners of the county in which said river is situated a remonstrance against any improvements of so much of the stream as is affected by the tide, it shall then be unlawful for any corporation to take the land or any slough within the territory owned by any such remonstrancers: Provided, That such remonstrance shall be filed with said board within fifteen days from the filing of said plat. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to authorize the taking or damaging of any power plant constructed or being constructed for the creation or utilization of water power. [1905 c 57 § 1; 1897 c 31 § 1; 1895 c 72 § 4; RRS § 8411.]

76.32.050 Duty to drive timber products—Tolls—Liens. After such corporation has entered upon its duties, which shall be within three months of the filing of its maps of location, it shall operate in streams theretofore navigable, upon the request of the owners, and in the case of logs and other timber products which are commingled, or lying in such a position as to obstruct or impede the drive, without such request. When a navigable stream upon which it was not previously practicable to float logs or other timber products is improved by clearing out rocks, straightening the channel, or constructing wing dams and sheers, thereby aiding and assisting the floating of logs and other timber products, the corporation shall be entitled to driving charges on all logs or other timber products placed in the stream without a request to drive them, and in streams not navigable before such improvements were made, it shall without request, sluice, sack, and drive all logs and other timber products of suitable length that may be placed in the stream so improved, or that may be delivered into its ponds.

It shall handle all such logs and other timber products of all persons upon the same terms, without discrimination as to time of sluicing, sacking, and driving.

It shall be entitled to charge and collect reasonable and uniform tolls for such services and improvements, on all logs and other timber products handled, or sheered out of sloughs or off the bars by means of the improvements. Such tolls shall not exceed two dollars per thousand feet, board measure, on logs, spars or other large timber, and reasonable compensation on all other timber products, such charges to be fixed by the board of trustees of the corporation in proportion to the distance the timber is to be driven and the number of dams through which it is necessarily sluiced or sheered. In case the corporation is also engaged in the booming and rafting of logs and other timber so sluiced, sacked, and driven, an additional sum not to exceed one dollar and twenty cents per thousand feet for logs, spars and other large timber, and reasonable compensation on all other timber products may be charged for the booming and rafting.

The amount of such logs and other products shall be determined by the usual method of scaling, and the corporation shall have a lien upon all logs and other timber products handled for sluicing, sacking, and driving, and for booming and rafting to be foreclosed as provided in chapter 60.10 RCW and RCW 61.12.162. 76.32.060 Liability for loss or damage. Any corporation acting under and in accordance with the provisions of this chapter shall be liable to the owner or owners of logs or other timber products for all loss or damage resulting from neglect, carelessness or unnecessary delay on the part of such corporation or its agents. [1895 c 72 § 6; RRS § 8413.]

76.32.070 Rights to cease, when. Should any corporation neglect, for the period of eight months after improving any stream or river, to operate its dams, or to otherwise perform its duties as herein provided, all rights herein conferred to such corporations upon such streams or rivers, or portions thereof, shall cease. [1895 c 72 § 7; RRS § 8414.]

76.32.080 Boom companies may come under chapter. Duly organized boom companies at present operating upon any of the streams or rivers of this state may file amended articles of incorporation to embrace the provisions of this chapter, and, for the purpose of time limitations mentioned in this chapter, the time of filing such amended articles of incorporation shall be deemed to be the time of organization thereof, but failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter shall work forfeiture of the rights of such corporations only so far as the same are subjoined under the provisions of this paragraph. [1895 c 72 § 8; RRS § 8415.]

76.36.020 Forest products and equipment to be marked. Every person who shall put into any of the waters of this state, or ship on any common carrier railroad for the purpose of floating or rafting in any of said waters, any forest products, or use any booming equipment as a part of his operation in securing, rafting or floating forest products, shall have a mark or brand, previously selected by him and registered in the manner hereinafter provided, plainly impressed or cut in a conspicuous place on each stick or piece of forest products so shipped on any common carrier railroad or put into any of said waters and on each piece of booming equipment so used. [1925 ex.s. c 154 § 2; RRS § 8381–2. Prior: 1890 p 110 § 1.]

76.36.030 Registration of marks or brands. Every person selecting a mark or brand, before using it, shall make application for the registration thereof in the office of the supervisor of forestry by depositing in that office an impression burned in a piece of leather of appropriate size, or a drawing thereof, together with, in duplicate a written statement duly signed and verified by him or his agent, containing a description of the mark or brand and declaring that such mark or brand is not, and at the time of its adoption by him was not, in use, to his knowledge, by any other person, and that he has selected it in good faith for marking or branding forest products to be transported on common carrier railroads, or floated or rafted in the waters of this state, or booming equipment to be used by him as a part of his operations in securing, rafting, or floating forest products.

The supervisor of forestry, upon receipt of the application and the fee hereinafter provided, if he finds that the mark or brand is not identical with any other mark or brand registered in his office, or does not so closely resemble one registered therein as to be confounded therewith, shall file in his office the impression or drawing, and one copy of the written statement, and shall register the mark or brand in a book to be provided by him and kept for the purpose and known as the "Forest products brand register," entering therein the name of the owner, character of the mark or brand, date of registration, and such other details as he may see fit to enter therein. He shall return to the applicant the other copy of the written statement, with a certificate attached thereto and signed by him or his deputy to the effect that the mark or brand has been duly registered in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, and that the applicant is the registered owner thereof. The supervisor of forestry, in the event of his refusal to register a mark or brand on account of conflict with, or resemblance to, one already registered, shall immediately give notice of that fact to the applicant, who may select another mark or brand, and apply for its registration in the manner of an original application. [1957 c 36 § 1; 1925 ex.s. c 154 § 3; RRS § 8381–3. Prior: 1890 p 110 §§ 2, 3.]

The assignee, upon the due registration of the assignment, shall be and become the owner of the mark or brand with the full right of exclusive use to the same extent as though he had been the original owner. All forest products having impressed thereupon a registered catch brand shall be presumed to belong to the owner of the registered catch brand, unless there shall be impressed thereupon more than one registered catch brand, in which event they shall be presumed to belong to the owner whose registered catch brand was placed thereupon latest in point of time. [1957 c 36 § 4; 1925 ex.s. c 154 § 6; RRS § 8381–6. Prior: 1890 p 111 § 4.]

Thereafter at least ten days subsequent to the mailing of a detailed sales notice specifying time and place and date of sale to all prospective purchasers requesting such notices such boom company or other agency with reasonable promptness shall offer for sale such stray logs in the open market to the person making the highest offer and from the proceeds pay the log patrol for services performed, a sum which shall not exceed sixty percent of the current selling price of logs of the same grade and type, or fifteen dollars per thousand feet board measure for merchantable logs of number three grade or better, whichever sum is greater, unless written authority for the payment of a higher rate is given in advance by the owner of said stray logs or his agent or unless a different rate is approved by the supervisor of forestry in exceptional cases and on adequate proof of the necessity therefor: Provided, That in the event such stray logs are not of sufficient quantity, or are not located within reasonable proximity to a market conducive to competitive bidding in bringing the highest price therefor, or in the event any raft or small parcel of logs shall contain ten percent by scaled volume or less of stray logs, the said stray logs may be sold by the boom company or other agency approved by the supervisor of forestry pursuant to rules and regulations prescribed for such sales. Upon receipt of such boom sticks, the log patrol, the boom-company, or other approved agency shall notify the owner who shall have sixty days to recover said boom sticks upon payment of such reasonable compensation for its recovery. Upon failure to comply with the demand within forty-eight hours, the owner or his agent or the transportation agency may file with the supervisor of forestry a copy of the demand, together with an affidavit setting forth the particulars in which affiant believes this chapter has been violated, the approximate number of logs involved, the value of the logs, and, if the affiant believes the logs are in the possession of the licensee, the body of water or the county in which affiant believes the logs are located.
