PREFACE

Numbering system: The number of each section of this code is made up of three parts, in sequence as follows: Number of title; number of chapter within the title; number of section within the chapter. Thus RCW 1.04.020 is Title 1, chapter 4, section 20. The section part of the number (.020) is initially made up of three digits, constitutes a true decimal, and provides a facility for numbering new sections to be inserted between old sections already consecutively numbered, merely by adding one or more digits at the end of the number. In most chapters of the code, sections have been numbered by tens (.010, .020, .030, .040, etc.), leaving nine vacant numbers between original sections so that for a time new sections may be inserted without extension of the section number beyond three digits.

Citation to the Revised Code of Washington: The code should be cited as RCW; see RCW 1.04-.040. An RCW title should be cited Title 7 RCW. An RCW chapter should be cited chapter 7.24 RCW. An RCW section should be cited RCW 7.24.010. Through references should be made as RCW 7.24.010 through 7.24.100. Series of sections should be cited as RCW 7.24.010, 7.24.020, and 7.24.030.

History of the Revised Code of Washington; Source notes. The Revised Code of Washington was adopted by the legislature in 1950; see chapter 1.04 RCW. The original publication (1951) contained material variances from the language and organization of the session laws from which it was derived, including a variety of divisions and combinations of the session law sections. During 1953 through 1959, the Statute Law Committee, in exercise of the powers contained in chapter 1.08 RCW, completed a comprehensive study of these variances and, by means of a series of administrative orders or reenactment bills, restored each title of the code to reflect its session law source, but retaining the general codification scheme originally adopted. An audit trail of this activity has been preserved in the concluding segments of the source note of each section of the code so affected. The legislative source of each section is enclosed in brackets [ ] at the end of the section. Reference to session laws is abbreviated; thus "1891 c 23 § 1; 1854 p 99 § 135" refers to section 1, chapter 23, Laws of 1891 and section 135, page 99, Laws of 1854. "Prior" indicates a break in the statutory chain, usually a repeal and reenactment. "RRS or Rem. Supp.—" indicates the parallel citation in Remington's Revised Code, last published in 1949.

Where, before restoration, a section of this code constituted a consolidation of two or more sections of the session laws, or of sections separately numbered in Remington's, the line of derivation is shown for each component section, with each line of derivation being set off from the others by use of small Roman numerals, "(i)," "(ii)," etc.

Where, before restoration, only a part of a session law section was reflected in a particular RCW section the history note reference is followed by the word "part."

"Formerly" and its correlative form "FORMER PART OF SECTION" followed by an RCW citation preserves the record of original codification.

Double amendments: Some double or other multiple amendments to a section made without reference to each other are set out in the code in smaller (8–point) type. See RCW 1.12.025.

Index: Titles 1 through 91 are indexed in the RCW General Index. Separate indexes are provided for the Rules of Court and the State Constitution.

Sections repealed or decodified; Disposition table: Memorials to RCW sections repealed or decodified are no longer carried in place. They are now tabulated in numerical order in the table entitled "Disposition of former RCW sections."

Codification tables: To convert a session law citation to its RCW number (for Laws of 1951 or later) consult the codification tables. A similar table is included to relate the disposition in RCW of sections of Remington's Revised Statutes.

Errors or omissions: (1) Where an obvious clerical error has been made in the law during the legislative process, the code reviser adds a corrected word, phrase, or punctuation mark in [brackets] for clarity. Such additions do not constitute any part of the law.

(2) Although considerable care has been used in the production of this code, within the limits of available time and facilities it is inevitable that in so large a work that there will be errors, both mechanical and of judgment. As such errors are detected, or are believed to exist in particular sections, by those who use this code, it is requested that a note citing the section involved and the nature of the error be mailed to: Code Reviser, Legislative Building, Olympia, WA 98504, so that correction may be made in a subsequent publication.

The limitation may be different for precincts based upon the method of voting used for such precincts and the number may be less than the number established by law, but in no case may the number exceed that authorized by law.

The county legislative authority of each county in the state hereafter formed shall, at their first session, divide their respective counties into election precincts with two hundred fifty voters or less and establish the boundaries of the precincts. The county auditor shall thereupon designate the voting place for each such precinct. [1986 c 167 § 2; 1980 c 107 § 3. 29.10.125 Challenge of registration—Initiation. Registration of a person as a voter is presumptive evidence of his or her right to vote at any primary or election, general or special. A person's right to vote may be challenged at the polls only by a precinct election officer. A challenge may be made only upon the belief or knowledge of the challenging officer that the voter is unqualified. The challenge must be supported by evidence or testimony given to the county canvassing board under RCW 29.10.127 and may not be based on unsupported allegations or allegations by anonymous third parties. The identity of the challenger, and any third person involved in the challenge, shall be public record and shall be announced at the time the challenge is made.

Challenges initiated by a registered voter must be filed not later than the day before any primary or election, general or special, at the office of the appropriate county auditor. A challenged voter may properly transfer or reregister until three days before the primary or election, general or special, by applying personally to the county auditor. [1987 c 288 § 1; 1983 1st ex.s. c 30 § 2.]

29.10.127 Challenge of registration—Voting by person challenged—Burden of proof, procedures.

When the right of a person has been challenged under RCW 29.10.125 or 29.10.130(2), the challenged person shall be permitted to vote a ballot which shall be placed in a sealed envelope separate from other voted ballots. In precincts where voting machines are used, any person whose right to vote is challenged under RCW 29.10.125 or 29.10.130(2) shall be furnished a paper ballot, which shall be placed in a sealed envelope after being marked. Included with the challenged ballot shall be (1) an affidavit filed under RCW 29.10.130 challenging the person's right to vote or (2) an affidavit signed by the precinct election officer and any third party involved in the officer's challenge and stating the reasons the voter is being challenged. The sealed ballots of challenged voters shall be transmitted at the close of the election to the canvassing board or other authority charged by law with canvassing the returns of the particular primary or election. The county auditor shall notify the challenger and the challenged voter, by certified mail, of the time and place at which the county canvassing board will meet to rule on challenged ballots. If the challenge is made by a precinct election officer under RCW 29.10.125, the officer must appear in person before the board unless he or she has received written authorization from the canvassing board to submit an affidavit supporting the challenge. If the challenging officer has based his or her challenge upon evidence provided by a third party, that third party must appear with the challenging officer before the canvassing board, unless he or she has received written authorization from the canvassing board to submit an affidavit supporting the challenge. If the challenge is filed under RCW 29.10.130, the challenger must either appear in person before the board or submit an affidavit supporting the challenge. The challenging party must prove to the canvassing board by clear and convincing evidence that the challenged voter's registration is improper. If the challenging party fails to meet this burden, the challenged ballot shall be accepted as valid and counted. The canvassing board shall give the challenged voter the opportunity to present testimony, either in person or by affidavit, and evidence to the canvassing board before making their determination. All challenged ballots must be determined no later than the time of canvassing for the particular primary or election. The decision of the canvassing board or other authority charged by law with canvassing the returns shall be final. Challenges of absentee ballots shall be determined according to RCW 29.36.100. [1987 c 288 § 2; 1983 1st ex.s. c 30 § 3.]

29.10.130 Challenge of registration—Affidavit—Administration, notice of challenge. (1) Any registered voter may request that the registration of another voter be canceled if he or she believes that the voter does not meet the requirements of Article VI, section 1 of the state Constitution or that voter no longer maintains a legal voting residence at the address shown on his or her registration record. The challenger shall file with the county auditor a signed affidavit subject to the penalties of perjury, to the effect that to his or her personal knowledge and belief another registered voter does not actually reside at the address as given on his or her registration record or is otherwise not a qualified voter and that the voter in question is not protected by the provisions of Article VI, section 4, of the Constitution of the state of Washington. The person filing the challenge must furnish the address at which the challenged voter actually resides.

(2) Any such challenge of a voter's registration and right to vote made less than thirty days before a primary or election, special or general, shall be administered under RCW 29.10.127. The county auditor shall notify the challenged voter and the precinct election officers in the voter's precinct that a challenge has been filed, provide the name of the challenger, and instruct both the precinct election officers and the voter that, in the event the challenged voter desires to vote at the ensuing primary or election, a challenged ballot will be provided. The voter shall also be informed that the status of his or her registration and the disposition of any challenged ballot will be determined by the county canvassing board in the manner provided by RCW 29.10.127. If the challenged voter does not vote at the ensuing primary or election, the challenge shall be processed in the same manner as challenges made more than thirty days prior to the primary or election under RCW 29.10.140. [1987 c 288 § 3; 1983 1st ex.s. c 30 § 4; 1967 c 225 § 2; 1965 ex.s. c 156 § 2.]

29.10.140 Challenge of registration—Procedural steps before cancellation. All challenges of voter registration under RCW 29.10.130 made thirty days or more before a primary or election, general or special, shall be delivered to the appropriate county auditor who shall notify the challenged voter, by certified mail, that his or her voter registration has been challenged.

The notification shall be mailed to the address at which the challenged voter is registered, any address provided by the challenger under RCW 29.10.130, and to any other address at which the individual whose registration is being challenged is alleged to reside or at which the county auditor would reasonably expect that individual to receive notice of the challenge of his or her voter registration. Included in the notification shall be a request that the challenged voter appear at a hearing to be held within ten days of the mailing of the request, at the place, day, and hour stated, in order to determine the validity of his or her registration. The challenger shall be provided with a copy of this notification and request. If either the challenger or the challenged voter is unable to appear in person, he or she may file a reply by means of an affidavit stating under oath the reasons he or she believes the registration to be invalid or valid.

If both the challenger and the challenged voter file affidavits instead of appearing in person, an evaluation of the affidavits by the county auditor constitutes a hearing for the purposes of this section.

The county auditor shall hold a hearing at which time both parties may present their facts and arguments. After reviewing the facts and arguments, including any evidence submitted by either side, the county auditor shall rule as to the validity or invalidity of the challenged registration. His or her ruling is final subject only to a petition for judicial review by the superior court under chapter 34.04 RCW. If either party, or both parties, fail to appear at the meeting or fail to file an affidavit, the county auditor shall determine the status of the registration based on his or her evaluation of the available facts. [1987 c 288 § 4; 1983 1st ex.s. c 30 § 5; 1971 ex.s. c 202 § 34; 1967 c 225 § 3; 1965 ex.s. c 156 § 3.]

The county auditors and registrars shall have such forms available. Further, a reasonable supply of such forms shall be at each polling place on the day of a primary or election, general or special. [1971 ex.s. c 202 § 35; 1965 ex.s. c 156 § 4.]

29.10.160 Different addresses in precinct list and permanent records—Procedure. After each primary and after each election, special or general, the county auditor shall compare the voter registration record with the signature and address of each voter as it appears in the precinct list of registered voters used at each such primary and each such election. If the address of any voter, as written by the voter, in the precinct list of registered voters does not agree with the address of the voter as stated on his permanent registration records, the registration officer shall enter the new address and precinct name or number on the permanent registration record and notify the voter, by mail, that his registration has been transferred in the manner provided by RCW 29.10.060 as now or hereafter amended: Provided, That if the voter believes that his registration record should not be changed, he shall so notify the county auditor who, in turn, shall promptly arrange for a hearing unless it is manifestly apparent that the voter's reasons are valid for keeping his record unchanged. If a hearing is necessary, any ruling issued by the registration officer shall be final, subject only to a petition for judicial review by the superior court under the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW, as now or hereafter amended. [1975 1st ex.s. c 184 § 3; 1971 ex.s. c 202 § 36; 1965 ex.s. c 156 § 8.]

At each polling place, the precinct election officials shall have at their table a supply of forms for transfer of registration, designed by the secretary of state and supplied by the county auditors. Accompanying such forms there shall be a sign stating "If you do not still reside at the address at which you are presently registered, please complete this form."

A voter completing the transfer form shall vote in the precinct in which he was previously registered. Upon transmittal of the ballots, ballot cards, or voting machine count to the county auditor the precinct election officers shall also deliver the transfer forms to the auditor, who shall, within ninety days mail to each voter requesting a transfer of registration, notice of his current precinct and polling place. [1979 c 96 § 1.]

29.10.180 Inquiries of registration validity—Corrections and cancellations. (1) Whenever any vote-by-mail ballot, notification to voters following reprecincting of the county, notification to voters of selection to serve on jury duty, or initial voter identification card is returned by the postal service as undeliverable, the county auditor shall, in every instance, inquire into the validity of the registration of that voter.

(2) The county auditor shall initiate his or her inquiry by sending, by first-class mail, a written notice to the challenged voter at the address indicated on the voter's permanent registration record. The county auditor shall not request any restriction on the forwarding of such notice by the postal service. The notice shall contain the nature of the inquiry and provide a suitable form for reply. The notice shall also contain a warning that the county auditor must receive a response within sixty days from the date of mailing or the individual's voter registration will be canceled.

(3) The voter, in person or in writing, may state that the information on the permanent voter registration record is correct or may request a change in the information on the permanent registration record no later than the sixtieth day after the date of mailing the inquiry.

(4) Upon the timely receipt of a response signed by the voter, the county auditor shall consider the inquiry satisfied and will make the corrections requested by the voter on the permanent registration record. The county auditor shall cancel the registration of a voter who fails to respond to the notice of inquiry within sixty days after the date of mailing.

(5) The county auditor shall notify the voter whose registration has been canceled by mail as prescribed in RCW 29.10.080. A voter may respond no later than the forty-fifth day after the date of mailing of the notice of cancellation. Upon receipt of the voter response, the auditor shall reinstate the voter. [1987 c 359 § 1.]

29.10.190 Voting after registration canceled. Any voter whose registration has been canceled under RCW 29.10.180 and who, within a period of four years following the date of the cancellation, either applies for an absentee ballot or presents himself or herself at the polling place and offers to vote shall be permitted to vote a challenged ballot. The ballot shall be separated from other ballots and the final disposition of the challenge shall be determined by the county canvassing board in accordance with RCW 29.10.127. The voter shall be permitted to appear in person before the canvassing board and present testimony and evidence supporting his or her right to vote. If the canvassing board determines that the voter's registration was improperly canceled, the ballot shall be counted and the voter's registration shall be reinstated. [1987 c 359 § 2.]

For state partisan offices in any political subdivision voted on solely by electors of a single county, an individual shall be appointed to fill such vacancy by the county central committee in the case of a major political party or by the state central committee or comparable governing body in the case of a minor political party. For other partisan offices, including federal or state-wide offices, an individual shall be appointed to fill such vacancy by the state central committee or comparable governing body of the appropriate political party.

Should such vacancy occur no later than the third Tuesday prior to the state primary or general election concerned and the ballots and voting machine labels have been printed, it shall be mandatory that they be corrected by the appropriate election officers. In making such correction, it shall not be necessary to reprint complete ballots if any other less expensive technique can be used and the resulting correction is reasonably clear.

Should such vacancy occur after the third Tuesday prior to said state primary or general election and time does not exist in which to correct paper ballots (including absentee ballots) or voting machine labels, either in total or in part, then the votes cast or recorded for the person who has died or become disqualified shall be counted for the person who has been named to fill such vacancy.

When the secretary of state is the person with whom the appointment by the major or minor political party is filed, he shall, in certifying candidates or nominations to the various county officers insert the name of the person appointed to fill a vacancy.

In the event that the secretary of state has already sent forth his certificate when the appointment to fill a vacancy is filed with him, he shall forthwith certify to the county auditors of the proper counties the name and place of residence of the person appointed to fill a vacancy, the office for which he is a candidate or nominee, the party he represents and all other pertinent facts pertaining to the vacancy. Candidates' pamphlet: Chapter 29.80 RCW.

Contest, ineligibility to hold office at time declared elected as ground for: RCW 29.65.010.

Notice of primary: RCW 29.27.030.

29.21.010 Primaries in cities, towns, and certain districts. All cities and towns shall hold primary elections irrespective of type or form of government which shall be nonpartisan and held as provided in RCW 29.13.070, as now or hereafter amended. All districts, except those districts which require ownership of property within said districts as a prerequisite to voting, shall hold primary elections which shall be nonpartisan and held as provided in RCW 29.13.070 as now or hereafter amended.

All names of candidates to be voted upon at city, town, and such district primary elections shall be printed upon the official primary ballot alphabetically in groups under the designation of the respective titles of the offices for which they are candidates. The name of the person who receives the greatest number of votes and of the person who receives the next greatest number of votes for each position, shall appear in that order on the city, town, or district general election ballot concerned under the designation for each respective office. In the event there are two or more offices to be filled for the same position, then names of candidates receiving the highest number of votes equal in number to twice the offices to be filled shall appear on the city, town, or district general election ballot so that the voter shall have a choice of two candidates for each position: Provided, That no name of any candidate shall appear on the city, town, or district general election ballot unless said candidate shall receive at least five percent of the total votes cast for that office. The sequence of names of candidates printed on the city, town, or district general election ballot shall be in relation to the number of votes each candidate received at the primary. Names of candidates printed upon the city, town, or district primary and general election ballot need not be rotated.

The purpose of this section is to establish the holding of a primary election, subject to the exemptions as contained in RCW 29.21.015 as now or hereafter amended, as a uniform procedural requirement to the holding of city, town, and district elections and such provisions shall supersede any and all other statutes, whether general or special in nature, having different election requirements. [1977 c 53 § 3; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 120 § 1; 1965 c 123 § 7; 1965 c 9 § 29.21.010. Prior: 1951 c 257 § 7; 1949 c 161 § 3; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 5179-1.]

29.21.015 When no city, town, or district primary required—Procedure. No primary election shall be held for any single position in any city, town, or district, as required by RCW 29.21.010, as now or hereafter amended, if, after the last day allowed for candidates to withdraw, there are no more than two candidates filed for the position to be filled: Provided, That whenever it shall be necessary to hold a primary election for any one such position because of the number of candidates remaining filed, no primary election shall be held for any other position for which no more than two candidates have remained as filed. Insofar as such positions not being subjected to a primary election are concerned, the county auditor shall as soon as possible notify all the candidates so affected. Names of candidates that would have been printed upon the primary ballot, but for the provisions of this section, shall be printed upon the general election ballot alphabetically in groups under the designation of the respective titles of the offices for which they are candidates. [1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 120 § 2; 1965 c 9 § 29.21.015. Prior: 1955 c 101 § 2; 1955 c 4 § 1.]

29.21.017 City councilmember positions numbered as separate offices—Exception—Exclusive method of nominating and electing. Not less than ten days before the time for filing declarations of candidacy for councilmembers in cities or towns operating under the mayor-council or council-manager form of government, except the position of councilmember-at-large assigned a two year term in cities of the third class, the city clerk shall designate the positions to be filled by consecutive number, commencing with one. The positions so designated shall be dealt with as separate offices for all election purposes.

The provisions of this section shall be the exclusive method of nominating and electing councilmembers for all cities and towns the charter provisions of any city notwithstanding. [1981 c 213 § 5; 1965 c 9 § 29.21.017. Prior: 1961 c 109 § 1.]

The officers appointed for the municipal election shall be the officers of the primary election, which shall be held at the same places, so far as practicable, and the polls shall be opened and closed at the same hours as required for the municipal election. 29.30.101 General election ballot—Names qualified to appear. The names of the persons certified as the nominees resulting from a primary election by the secretary of state or the county canvassing board shall be printed on the official ballot prepared for the ensuing election.

No name of any candidate whose nomination at a primary is required by law shall be placed upon the ballot unless it appears upon the certificate of either (1) the secretary of state, or (2) the county canvassing board, or (3) a minor party convention, or (4) of the state or county central committee of a major political party to fill a vacancy on its ticket occasioned by any cause on account of which it is lawfully authorized so to do.

No candidate's name shall appear more than once upon the ballot, unless the name appears once for the office of precinct committee officer, in which case the name may appear not more than twice: Provided, That any candidate who has been nominated by two or more political parties may, upon a written notice filed with the county auditor within three days after the certification of the canvass of the primary, designate the political party under whose title the person desires to have his or her name placed. No .....[ ]"

Each voter shall indicate either "Yes" or "No" on his or her ballot in accordance with the procedures established under this title. [1984 c 131 § 3.]

Purpose—1984 c 131 §§ 3-9: "The purpose of sections 3 through 6 of this act is to clarify requirements necessary for voters to authorize certain local governments to impose regular property tax levies for a series of years. As cogently expressed in Attorney General Opinion, Number 14, Addendum, opinions rendered by the attorney general are advisory only and are merely a "prediction of the outcome if the matter were to be litigated." Nevertheless, confusion has arisen from this erroneous opinion." [1984 c 131 § 2.] "Sections 3 through 9 of this act" consist of the enactment of RCW 29.30.111 and 36.68.525 and the 1984 c 131 amendments to RCW 67.38.130, 84.52.069, 36.69.145, 36.68.480, and 36.68.520.

29.34.085 Single district and precinct on voting devices. No voting device may contain the names of candidates for the offices of United States representative, state senator, state representative, county council, or county commissioner in more than one district or the names of candidates for the office of precinct committee officer in more than one precinct. In all even-year state general elections, voting devices shall be grouped by precinct and physically separated from the voting devices containing ballot pages for other precincts. For all other primaries and elections, in each polling place the voting devices containing ballot pages for candidates from each congressional, legislative, or county council or commissioner district shall be grouped together and physically separated from those devices containing ballot pages for other districts. Each voter shall be directed by the precinct election officers to the correct group of voting devices and an explanation to the voters that separate devices are being used for specific precincts shall be prominently displayed within the polling place. [1987 c 295 § 8; 1983 c 143 § 1.]

29.34.090 Requirements of vote tallying systems for approval. No vote tallying system shall be approved by the secretary of state unless it is constructed so that it is:

(1) Capable of correctly counting votes on ballots or ballot cards on which the proper number of votes have been marked for any office or question or issue that has been voted;

(2) Capable of ignoring the votes marked for any office or question or issue where more than the allowable number of votes have been marked, but shall correctly count the properly voted portions of the ballot or ballot card;

29.34.125 Ballot pages, contents and arrangement—Ballot cards, numbering. (1) On the front of the first ballot page or prominently displayed on each voting device to be used at a general election, there shall be printed instructions directing the voters how to properly record a vote for any candidate and for or against any measure, including write-in votes. After the instructions and before the offices shall be placed the questions of adopting constitutional amendments or any other state measure authorized by law to be submitted to the voters of such election.

(2) All nominations of any party or group of petitioners shall be indicated by the title of such party or petitioners as designated by them in their certificate of nomination or petition, following the name of such candidate, and the name of each nominee shall be placed beside the designation of the office for which he has been nominated.

(3) There shall be an arrow or other notation at the right edge of the ballot page opposite the name of each candidate indicating where the voter is to punch or otherwise mark his ballot card for that candidate.

The names of candidates for president and vice president for each political party shall be grouped together, each group enclosed in brackets with a single arrow or other notation to the right.

(6) All ballot cards for general elections shall be sequentially numbered, but done in such a way to permit removal of such numbers without leaving any identifying marks on the ballot. There shall be no printing on the back of the ballot cards nor any mark thereon to distinguish an individual voter's ballot card from other ballot cards from the same precinct. [1986 c 167 § 13; 1977 ex.s. c 361 § 67.]

[1967 ex.s. c 109 § 24.]

29.34.143 Instructional requirements—Inspectors and judges of elections. Before each primary at which voting devices are to be used, or more frequently as he deems necessary, the county auditor or other election official shall instruct all inspectors and judges of elections who are to serve at that primary or general election in the use of the voting devices and their duties in conjunction with the conduct of that primary or election.

The auditor may waive instructional requirements for inspectors and judges of elections who previously have been granted a certificate of proficiency and who have served as precinct officers for a sufficient length of time to be fully qualified to perform their duties in connection with the voting device: Provided, That any inspectors and judges of elections for whom the instructional requirements are waived may at their discretion take advantage of the instructional program outlined herein. He shall give to each inspector or judge who has received instruction and is qualified to conduct the primary or election with the voting devices, a certificate to that effect. No inspector or judge of election shall serve at any primary or general election at which voting devices are used unless he has received the required instruction and is qualified to perform his duties in connection with voting devices and has received a certificate to that effect from the county auditor or other election official: Provided, That this shall not prevent the appointment of an inspector or judge of election to fill a vacancy in an emergency. [1977 ex.s. c 361 § 69.]

29.34.145 Instructional requirements—Counting center personnel. Before each state primary or general election at which a vote tallying system is to be used, or more frequently as he deems necessary, the county auditor or other election official shall, during the day of the election, instruct all counting center personnel, including political party observers, who are to serve at that primary or election in their duties in connection with the handling and tallying of ballots for that primary or election. No person shall serve as an election worker in the counting center at any primary or election at which a vote tallying system is used unless he has received the required instruction and is qualified to perform his duties in connection with the handling and tallying of ballots for that primary or election. No person shall serve as a political party observer unless he has received the required instruction and is familiar with the operation of the vote tallying system and the procedures to be employed to verify the accuracy of the programming for that vote tallying system. [1977 ex.s. c 361 § 70.]

Effective date—Severability—1977 ex.s. c 361: See notes following RCW 29.01.006.

29.34.153 Counting center, location, direction and observation of proceedings—Technical assistance from private vendors, limitations—Duties of public officials. The county auditor shall determine the location of the counting center for each vote tallying system under his jurisdiction and the number of ballot card precincts assigned to each. Such facility may be located wherever in the judgment of the county auditor best serves the voters.

All proceedings at the counting center shall be under the direction of the county auditor and under the observation of at least two observers, who shall not be from the same political party, appointed by the county chairman of the respective major political party. Such proceedings shall be open to the public, but no persons except those employed and authorized for the purpose shall touch any ballot card or ballot container.

Technical assistance from private vendors to the county auditor shall be limited to advice and assistance in the training of precinct election officers and counting center personnel and the development of instructional materials for use in such training, routine maintenance and repair service on the voting devices and vote tallying systems, and any emergency assistance required due to the mechanical failure of any voting device or vote tallying system. Private vendors may provide the compilation of computer programs and preparation of office and report files according to the specifications established by the county auditor for a specific primary or election. All precinct program cards shall be prepared by the county auditor or the staff of his office. Ballot layout functions are to be performed by the secretary of state for federal offices and state-wide measures and offices, and by the county auditor for all other measures and offices. [1977 ex.s. c 361 § 71.]

stop at each designated polling place and pick up the sealed containers containing the voted ballot cards for delivery to the counting center. There may be as many as two such stops at each polling place, but the first stop may not be made prior to 2:00 p.m. and the second stop may not be made until after the polls have been closed to voting.

The procedure for transporting voted ballot cards from the respective polling places to the counting center or to predesignated collection stations shall include, but not be limited to, the following measures:

(1) On the day of the primary or election in precincts where ballots are cast on voting devices, two precinct election officials, one representing each major political party, shall place all voted ballots in noncombustible, water resistant ballot containers, furnished by the county auditor and properly identified with his mailing address, and seal the containers with prenumbered seals. The precinct election officials of each major political party or representative of each major political party designated by the county auditor to deliver such ballots shall transport the sealed ballot containers to the counting center or to a predesignated collection station in an enclosed vehicle, making certain that all doors and windows thereof other than those windows necessary for adequate ventilation are closed and locked.

(2) At the counting center or the collection stations where the sealed ballot containers are delivered by the designated representatives of the major political parties, the county auditor or his designated representative shall receive the sealed ballot containers with the voted ballot cards enclosed, record the time and date together with each precinct and seal number, and complete signed receipts indicating the time, date, and precinct and seal number of each ballot container received, and give a copy of such receipt to the representatives delivering the ballot containers as such containers are received.

(3) If the ballot containers are delivered to the collection station instead of being delivered directly to the counting center, the county auditor or his designated representative shall transfer such election containers to the counting center in an enclosed vehicle, making certain that all doors and windows thereof other than those windows necessary for adequate ventilation are closed and locked. All ballots being so transferred shall be accompanied by two appointed officials, who shall not be of the same political party, and a representative of the county auditor, who may be one of the appointed officials. [1977 ex.s. c 361 § 72.]

29.34.163 Vote tallying systems—Programming tests. At least three days prior to the day of the primary or general election, all programming for the vote tallying system to be used at that primary or general election shall be tested by the secretary of state or his designee to ascertain that the equipment will correctly count the vote cast for all candidates and on all measures appearing on the ballot at that primary or general election. The tests shall be conducted by processing a preaudited group of ballots prepared by the office of secretary of state, so punched or marked as to record a predetermined number of ballot votes for each candidate and for and against each measure. For each office for which there are two or more candidates and for each issue, the group of test ballots shall include one or more ballots which have votes in excess of the number allowed by law, in order to verify the ability of the vote tallying system to reject such votes. The test shall be designed to verify the capability of the vote tallying system to perform all of the functions that can reasonably be expected to occur during conduct of that particular primary or election, including but not limited to verification of the content of the ballot format for each precinct or polling place, verification of rotation in the program, and verification of major error identification routines in the program of the vote tallying system. If any error is detected, the cause thereof shall be ascertained and corrected, and an errorless count shall be made before the programming is approved and certified.

Such tests shall be observed by at least two observers, who shall not be of the same political party, designated by the county chairmen of the respective county central committees, and shall be open to candidates, the press, and the public. The secretary of state, the county auditor, and the political party observers shall certify that the test has been properly conducted. Copies of such certification shall be retained by the secretary of state and the county auditor. All programming materials and test ballots shall be securely locked in a noncombustible, water resistant container, and sealed until the day of the primary or general election. This test shall be repeated immediately before the start of the official count of ballots in the same manner as set forth above.

The political party observers, upon mutual agreement, may request a precinct, to be selected at random, at the point of check-in, and manually take a total count of ballots and/or a total count for any one office, return that precinct to the counting center, and request a detailed printout. This may be done as many as three times during the official count so that the accuracy of the proceedings can be again verified by the count of the preaudited group of ballots. [1977 ex.s. c 361 § 73.]

29.34.167 Counting ballot cards—Official returns. The ballot cards picked up during the polling hours may subsequently be counted before the polls have closed: Provided, That all such election returns must be held in secrecy in the same manner as the count of paper ballots during polling hours as provided by RCW 29.54.030. Any person revealing any election returns to unauthorized persons prior to the close of the polls shall be subject to the same penalties as provided by RCW 29.54.035.

Upon breaking the seals and opening the containers, all voted ballot cards shall be checked for partially removed chads, whereupon any such partially removed chads shall be entirely removed from the ballot cards. If it is found that any ballot is damaged or defective so that it cannot properly be counted by the vote tallying system, a true duplicate copy shall be made of the damaged ballot in the presence of witnesses and substituted for the damaged ballot. All such damaged ballots shall be kept by the county auditor until sixty days after the primary or election concerned.

The returns printed by the vote tallying system, to which has been added the count of questioned ballots, challenged ballots, write-in votes, and absentee votes, shall constitute the official returns of the primary or election in that county. [1977 ex.s. c 361 § 74.]

Effective date—Severability—1977 ex.s. c 361: See notes following RCW 29.01.006.

Certification of returns in paper ballot and voting machine precincts: RCW 29.54.080.

"Chad" defined: RCW 29.01.006(7).

29.34.170 Guidance manuals. The secretary of state, upon promulgating the rules and regulations necessary for carrying out the purpose of this chapter, shall publish manuals containing the applicable rules and regulations and statutes for the guidance of the county auditor relating to the printing of ballot cards and preparation of the vote tallying systems, for the guidance of precinct election officers serving ballot card precincts, and for the guidance of election officers and operators of tabulating equipment at counting centers.

There shall be no charge for such manuals, and the number to be printed and the distribution thereof shall be determined by the secretary of state. [1977 ex.s. c 361 § 75; 1967 ex.s. c 109 § 32.]

Effective date—Severability—1977 ex.s. c 361: See notes following RCW 29.01.006.

29.34.180 Voting devices and vote tallying systems may be used in all counties. Voting devices and vote tally systems as defined in RCW 29.34.010, may be used in all primaries and elections, general or special, in all counties. [1971 ex.s. c 6 § 2; 1967 ex.s. c 130 § 2.]

Severability—1971 ex.s. c 6: See note following RCW 29.34.080.

29.36.010 When permissible—Application. Any registered voter of the state or any out-of-state voter, overseas voter, or service voter may vote by absentee ballot in any general election, special election, or primary in the manner provided in this chapter. Out-of-state voters, overseas voters, and service voters are authorized to cast the same ballots, including those for special elections, as a registered voter of the state would receive under this chapter.

(1) Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, in RCW 29.36.013, and in RCW 29.36.170, a registered voter or elector desiring to cast an absentee ballot must apply in writing to his or her county auditor no earlier than forty-five days nor later than the day before any election or primary. An application for an absentee ballot made under the authority of any federal statute or regulation shall be considered and given the same effect as an application for an absentee ballot under this chapter.

(2) For any registered voter, an application for an absentee ballot for a primary shall be honored as an application for an absentee ballot for the following general election if the voter so indicates on his or her application. For any out-of-state voter, overseas voter, or service voter, an application for an absentee ballot for a primary election shall also be honored as an application for an absentee ballot for the following general election.

(3) A voter admitted to a hospital no earlier than five days before a primary or election and confined to the hospital on election day may apply by messenger for an absentee ballot on the day of the primary or election if a signed statement from the hospital administrator, or designee, verifying the voter's date of admission and status as a patient in the hospital on the day of the primary or election is attached to the absentee ballot application.

(4) An application for an absentee ballot must be signed by the registered voter or elector. An application for an absentee ballot by a registered voter is not valid unless the voter's signature on the application is substantially the same as that voter's signature on his or her registration record. An application for an absentee ballot shall state the address to which the absentee ballot should be sent. An application for an absentee ballot from an out-of-state voter, overseas voter, or service voter shall state the address of that elector's last residence for voting purposes in the state of Washington and either the application or the oath on the return envelope shall include a declaration of the other qualifications of the applicant as an elector of this state. An application for an absentee ballot from any other voter shall state the address at which that voter is currently registered to vote in the state of Washington or the county auditor shall verify such information from the voter registration records of the county.

(5) An application for an absentee ballot shall be mailed or delivered to the county auditor of the county in which the voter is registered or resides. An absentee ballot application from a registered voter within this state shall be sent directly to the auditor of the county in which the voter is registered. An absentee ballot application from a registered voter who is temporarily outside this state or from an out-of-state voter, overseas voter, or service voter may be sent either to the appropriate county auditor or to the secretary of state, who shall promptly forward the application to the appropriate county auditor. No person, organization, or association may distribute absentee ballot applications within this state that contain any return address other than that of the appropriate county auditor. [1987 c 346 § 9; 1986 c 167 § 14; 1985 c 273 § 1; 1984 c 27 § 1; 1977 ex.s. c 361 § 76; 1974 ex.s. c 35 § 1; 1971 ex.s. c 202 § 37; 1965 c 9 § 29.36.010. Legislative intent—1987 c 346: "By this act the legislature intends to combine and unify the laws and procedures governing absentee voting. These amendments are intended: (1) To clarify and incorporate into a single chapter of the Revised Code of Washington the preexisting statutes under which electors of this state qualify for absentee ballots under state law, federal law, or a combination of both state and federal law, and (2) to insure uniformity in the application, issuance, receipt, and canvassing of these absentee ballots. Nothing in this act is intended to impose any new requirement on the ability of the registered voters or electors of this state to qualify for, receive, or cast absentee ballots in any primary or election." [1987 c 346 § 1.]

Effective date—1987 c 346: "This act shall take effect on January 1, 1988." [1987 c 346 § 25.]

The above two annotations apply to 1987 c 346. For codification of that act, see Codification Tables, Volume 0.

Severability—1986 c 167: See note following RCW 29.01.055.

Effective date—Severability—1977 ex.s. c 361: See notes following RCW 29.01.006.

29.36.013 Ongoing absentee voters—Application—Termination of status. Any disabled voter or any voter over the age of sixty-five may apply, in writing, for status as an ongoing absentee voter. Each such voter shall be granted that status by his or her county auditor and shall automatically receive an absentee ballot for each ensuing election for which he or she is entitled to vote and need not submit a separate application for each election. Ballots received from ongoing absentee voters shall be validated, processed, and tabulated in the same manner as other absentee ballots.

Status as an ongoing absentee voter shall be terminated upon any of the following events:

- (1) The written request of the voter;
- (2) The death or disqualification of the voter;
- (3) The cancellation of the voter's registration record;
- (4) The return of an ongoing absentee ballot as undeliverable; or
- (5) January 1st of each odd-numbered year. [1987 c 346 § 10; 1986 c 22 § 1; 1985 c 273 § 2.]

Legislative intent—Effective date—1987 c 346: See notes following RCW 29.36.010.

29.36.016 Ongoing absentee voters—Notice of termination of status—Renewal. As soon as practical following the first day of January of each odd-numbered year, the county auditor shall notify each ongoing absentee voter of the termination of his or her status as such a voter under RCW 29.36.013(5). Included with this notice shall be a postage prepaid return form permitting any such voter to renew his or her status as an ongoing absentee voter. Upon receipt and signature verification of the renewal form, the county auditor shall continue to provide absentee ballots to such voters, subject to the provisions of RCW 29.36.013. [1985 c 273 § 3.]

29.36.030 Acceptance or rejection of application—Issuance of ballots and other materials. Upon receipt of a signed application for an absentee ballot from a registered voter, the county auditor shall verify the applicant's signature. If the application is complete and correct and the applicant is qualified to vote under federal or state law, the county auditor shall issue an absentee ballot for the primary or election for which the absentee ballot was requested. Otherwise, the county auditor shall notify the applicant of the reason or reasons why the application cannot be accepted.

At each general election in an even-numbered year, each absentee voter shall also be given a separate ballot containing the names of the candidates that have filed for the office of precinct committee officer unless fewer than two candidates have filed for the same political party in the absentee voter's precinct. The ballot shall provide space for writing in the name of additional candidates.

When mailing an absentee ballot to a registered voter temporarily outside the state or to an out-of-state voter, overseas voter, or service voter, the county auditor shall send a copy of the state voters' and candidates' pamphlet with the absentee ballot. The county auditor shall mail all absentee ballots and related material to voters outside the territorial limits of the United States and the District of Columbia under 39 U.S.C. 3406. [1987 c 346 § 11; 1987 c 295 § 9; 1977 ex.s. c 361 § 77; 1974 ex.s. c 73 § 1; 1965 c 9 § 29.36.030. (ii) 1933 ex.s. c 41 § 3, part; 1923 c 58 § 3, part; 1921 c 143 § 3, part; 1917 c 159 § 3, part; 1915 c 189 § 3, part; RRS § 5282, part.]

Reviser's note: This section was amended by 1987 c 295 § 9 and by 1987 c 346 § 11, each without reference to the other. Both amendments are incorporated in the publication of this section pursuant to RCW 1.12.025(2). For rule of construction, see RCW 1.12.025(1).

Legislative intent—Effective date—1987 c 346: See notes following RCW 29.36.010.

Effective date—Severability—1977 ex.s. c 361: See notes following RCW 29.01.006.

29.36.035 Qualifications for delivery of ballot. The delivery of an absentee ballot for any primary or election shall be subject to the following qualifications:

(1) Only the voter, himself, or a member of his family may pick up an absentee ballot at the office of the issuing officer unless the voter is hospitalized on election day and applies by messenger in accordance with RCW 29.36.010 for an absentee ballot on the day of the primary or election. In this latter case, the messenger may pick up the hospitalized voter's absentee ballot.

(2) Except as noted in subsection (1) above, the issuing officer shall mail the absentee ballot directly to each applicant.

(3) No absentee ballot shall be issued on the day of the primary or election concerned, except as provided by RCW 29.36.010, for a voter confined to a hospital on the day of a primary or election. [1984 c 27 § 2; 1965 c 9 § 29.36.035. Prior: 1963 ex.s. c 23 § 4.]

29.36.045 Envelopes and instructions. The county auditor shall send each absentee voter a ballot, a security envelope in which to seal the ballot after voting, a larger envelope in which to return the security envelope, and instructions on how to mark the ballot and how to return it to the county auditor. The larger return envelope shall contain a declaration by the absentee voter reciting his or her qualifications and stating that he or she has not voted in any other jurisdiction at this election, together with a summary of the penalties for any violation of any of the provisions of this chapter. The return envelope shall provide space for the voter to indicate the date on which the ballot was voted and for the voter to sign the oath. A summary of the applicable penalty provisions of this chapter shall be printed on the return envelope immediately adjacent to the space for the voter's signature. The signature of the voter on the return envelope shall affirm and attest to the statements regarding the qualifications of that voter and to the validity of the ballot. For out-of-state voters, overseas voters, and service voters, the signed declaration on the return envelope constitutes the equivalent of a voter registration for the election or primary for which the ballot has been issued. The voter shall be instructed to either return the ballot to the county auditor by whom it was issued or attach sufficient first class postage, if applicable, and mail the ballot to the appropriate county auditor no later than the day of the election or primary for which the ballot was issued. [1987 c 346 § 12.]

Legislative intent—Effective date—1987 c 346: See notes following RCW 29.36.010.

29.36.050 Prohibition against voting in home precinct. A registered voter shall not be allowed to vote in the precinct in which he or she is registered at any election or primary for which that voter has cast an absentee ballot. A registered voter who has requested an absentee ballot for a primary or special or general election but chooses to vote at the voter's precinct polling place in that primary or election shall cast a ballot in the manner prescribed by RCW 29.10.127 for challenged ballots. The canvassing board shall not count the ballot if it finds that the voter has also voted by absentee ballot in that primary or election. [1987 c 346 § 13; 1965 c 9 § 29.36.050. Prior: 1955 c 167 § 6; prior: 1933 ex.s. c 41 § 4; 1921 c 143 § 5; RRS § 5284.]

Legislative intent—Effective date—1987 c 346: See notes following RCW 29.36.010.

29.36.060 Processing of incoming absentee ballots. The opening and subsequent processing of return envelopes for any primary or election may begin on or after the tenth day prior to such primary or election. The opening of the security envelopes and tabulation of absentee ballots shall not commence until after 8:00 o'clock p.m. on the day of the primary or election.

After opening the return envelopes, the county canvassing board shall place all of the ballot envelopes in containers that can be secured with numbered seals. These sealed containers shall be stored in a secure location until after 8:00 o'clock p.m. of the day of the primary or election. Absentee ballots that are to be tabulated on an electronic vote tallying system may be taken from the inner envelopes and all the normal procedural steps may be performed to prepare these ballots for tabulation before sealing the containers.

The canvassing board shall examine the postmark, statement, and signature on each return envelope containing the security envelope and absentee ballot. They shall verify that the voter's signature is the same as that on the original application by that voter. For absentee voters other than out-of-state voters, overseas voters, and service voters, if the postmark is illegible, the date on the return envelope to which the voter attests shall determine the validity, as to the time of voting, of that absentee ballot under this chapter. For out-of-state voters, overseas voters, and service voters, a variation between the signature of the voter on the return envelope and that on the application due to the substitution of initials or the use of common nicknames is permitted so long as the surname and handwriting are clearly the same. [1987 c 346 § 14; 1977 ex.s. c 361 § 78; 1973 c 140 § 1; 1965 c 9 § 29.36.060. Prior: 1963 ex.s. c 23 § 5; 1955 c 167 § 7; 1955 c 50 § 2; prior: 1933 ex.s. c 41 § 5, part; 1921 c 143 § 6, part; 1917 c 159 § 4, part; 1915 c 189 § 4, part; RRS § 5285, part.]

County canvassing board, meeting to process absentee ballots, canvass returns: RCW 29.62.020.

29.36.070 Grouping of absentee ballots. The absentee ballots shall be grouped and counted by congressional and legislative district without regard to precinct.

These returns shall be added to the total of the votes cast at all polling places. [1987 c 346 § 15; 1974 ex.s. c 73 § 2; 1965 c 9 § 29.36.070. Prior: 1955 c 50 § 3; prior: 1933 ex.s. c 41 § 5, part; 1921 c 143 § 6, part; 1917 c 159 § 4, part; 1915 c 189 § 4, part; RRS § 5285, part.]

Legislative intent—Effective date—1987 c 346: See notes following RCW 29.36.010.

29.36.075 Uncontested offices—Ballots not tabulated, exception—Voter credited with voting—Retention of ballots. In counties that do not tabulate absentee ballots on electronic vote tallying systems, canvassing boards may not tabulate or record votes cast by absentee ballots on any uncontested office except write-in votes for the office of precinct committeepersons. In all counties, write-in votes for uncontested precinct committeepersons' races shall be canvassed and included with the official vote count.

Each registered voter casting an absentee ballot shall be credited with voting on his or her voter registration record. Absentee ballots shall be retained for the same length of time and in the same manner as ballots cast at the precinct polling places. [1987 c 346 § 16; 1983 c 136 § 1; 1965 c 9 § 29.36.075. Prior: 1961 c 78 § 1.]

Legislative intent—Effective date—1987 c 346: See notes following RCW 29.36.010.

29.36.097 Record of applications for absentee ballots—Availability. Each county auditor shall maintain in his or her office, open for public inspection, a record of the applications he or she has received for absentee ballots under this chapter.

The information on the applications shall be recorded and lists of this information shall be available no later than twenty-four hours after their receipt.

This information about absentee voters shall be available according to the date of application and by legislative district. It shall include the name of each applicant, the address and precinct in which the voter maintains a voting residence, the date on which an absentee ballot was issued to this voter, if applicable, the type of absentee ballot, and the address to which the ballot was or is to be mailed, if applicable.

The auditor shall make copies of these records available to the public for the actual cost of production or copying. [1987 c 346 § 17; 1973 1st ex.s. c 61 § 1.]

Legislative intent—Effective date—1987 c 346: See notes following RCW 29.36.010.

29.36.100 Challenges. The qualifications of any absentee voter may be challenged at the time the signature on the return envelope is verified and the ballot is processed by the canvassing board. The board has the authority to determine the legality of any absentee ballot challenged under this section. [1987 c 346 § 18; 1965 c 9 § 29.36.100. Prior: 1917 c 159 § 5; 1915 c 189 § 5; RRS § 5286.]

Legislative intent—Effective date—1987 c 346: See notes following RCW 29.36.010.

29.36.120 Election by mail—Small precincts, non-partisan special elections—Notice and application form. At any primary or election, general or special, the county auditor may, in any precinct having fewer than one hundred registered voters at the time of closing of voter registration as provided in RCW 29.07.160, conduct the voting in that precinct by mail ballot. For any precinct having fewer than one hundred registered voters where voting at a primary or a general election is conducted by mail ballot, the county auditor shall, not less than fifteen days prior to the date of that primary or general election, mail or deliver to each registered voter within that precinct a notice that the voting in that precinct will be by mail ballot, an application form for a mail ballot, and a postage prepaid envelope, preaddressed to the issuing officer. A mail ballot shall be issued to each voter who returns a properly executed application to the county auditor no later than the day of that primary or general election. Such application is valid for all subsequent mail ballot elections in that precinct so long as the voter remains qualified to vote.

At any nonpartisan special election not being held in conjunction with a state primary or general election, the county, city, town, or district requesting the election pursuant to RCW 29.13.010 or 29.13.020 may also request that the election be conducted by mail ballot. The county auditor may honor the request or may determine that the election is not to be conducted by mail ballot. The decision of the county auditor in this regard is final.

In no instance shall any special election be conducted by mail ballot in any precinct with more than one hundred registered voters if candidates for partisan office are to be voted upon.

For all special elections not being held in conjunction with a state primary or state general election where voting is conducted by mail ballot, the county auditor shall, not less than fifteen days prior to the date of such election, mail or deliver to each registered voter a mail ballot and an envelope, preaddressed to the issuing officer. [1983 1st ex.s. c 71 § 1; 1974 ex.s. c 35 § 2; 1967 ex.s. c 109 § 6.]

29.36.122 Special election by mail—Sending ballots to voters. For any special election conducted by mail, the county auditor shall send a mail ballot with a return identification envelope to each registered voter of the district in which the special election is being conducted not sooner than the twenty-fifth day before the date of the election and not later than the fifteenth day before the date of the election. The envelope in which the ballot is mailed shall be clearly marked "Do Not Forward – Return to Sender – Return Postage Guaranteed." [1983 1st ex.s. c 71 § 2.]

29.36.124 Election by mail—Replacement ballots—Deposit of ballots. (1) If a county auditor conducts an election by mail, the county auditor shall designate the county auditor's office or a central location

The places designated under this section shall be open on the date of the election for a period of thirteen hours, beginning at 7:00 a.m. and ending at 8:00 p.m.

(2) A registered voter may obtain a replacement ballot as provided in this subsection if the ballot is destroyed, spoiled, lost, or not received by the voter. Except as otherwise provided in RCW 29.36.120 and 29.36.122 through 29.36.126 and 29.36.139, such mail ballots shall be issued and canvassed in the same manner as absentee ballots issued pursuant to the request of the voter. The county auditor shall verify the signature of each voter on the return identification envelope with the signature on the voter's registration record. If the county auditor determines that a registered voter to whom a replacement ballot has been issued has voted more than once, the county auditor shall not count any ballot cast by that voter. The county auditor must notify both the county prosecuting attorney and the state attorney general of every instance in which a voter has voted more than once.

(2) Any mail ballot may be challenged in the same manner as an absentee ballot. [1983 1st ex.s. c 71 § 6.]

One copy thereof shall then be placed in an envelope and sealed to become part of the returns. During the canvassing and announcing of the vote, the counter compartment shall remain open, and opportunity shall be given any person lawfully present to examine the counters to determine the correctness of the vote as announced: Provided, That where voting machines equipped with printed election returns mechanism are used, during the canvassing the printed returns sheets shall be available for public inspection and opportunity shall be given any person lawfully present to examine the returns sheets to ascertain the record of votes cast. 29.62.010 Manner of canvassing election returns—
Generally. Every official body or officer upon whom is imposed the duty of canvassing the returns of any primary or election shall:

(1) Prepare and certify a statement separately setting forth for each office the returns as to which it or he is required by law to canvass, and the vote each candidate received therefor;

(2) If required to canvass returns from a primary, prepare and certify a statement separately setting forth each office the returns as to which it or he is required by law to canvass, and the member of each political party participating therein who received the highest number of votes for each office: Provided, That if there is more than one position to be filled for the same office the number of candidates of each political party participating therein equaling the number of positions to be filled who received the highest number of votes shall be listed as the nominees;

(3) If, at a partisan primary, two or more candidates of the same party are tied for the same office, determine the tie then and there by lot;

(4) If, at a nonpartisan or judicial primary, two or more candidates have received an equal number of votes and such number is barely sufficient for nomination, but as a consequence, the number of persons so nominated exceeds twice the number of positions to be filled, determine the tie then and there by lot so as to reduce the field of candidates to the proper number.

(5) After each election, prepare and certify a statement separately setting forth each office the returns as to which it or he is required by law to canvass, and the person who received the highest number of votes for each office: Provided, That if there is more than one position to be filled for the same office, the number of persons equaling the number of positions to be filled who receive the highest number of votes shall be listed as having been elected. [1965 c 9 § 29.62.010. Prior: 1961 c 130 § 10; prior: (i) 1907 c 209 § 24, part; RRS § 5201, part. (ii) Code 1881 § 3096, part; 1866 p 6 § 2, part; 1865 p 39 § 7, part; RRS § 5343, part.]

29.62.020 County canvassing board—Meeting to process absentee ballots, canvass returns. No later than the tenth day after a special election or primary and no later than the fifteenth day after a general election, the county auditor shall convene the county canvassing board to process the absentee ballots and canvass the votes cast at that primary or election. On the tenth day after a special election or a primary and on the fifteenth day after a general election, the canvassing board shall complete the canvass and certify the results. All properly and timely voted absentee ballots which have been received on or before the date on which the primary or election is certified shall be included in the canvass. Meetings of the county canvassing board are public meetings under chapter 42.30 RCW. The county canvassing board shall consist of the county auditor, the chairman of the county legislative authority, and the prosecuting attorney or designated representatives of those officials.

At the request of any caucus of the state legislature, the county auditor shall transmit copies of all unofficial returns of state and legislative primaries or elections prepared by or for the county canvassing board to either the secretary of the senate or the chief clerk of the house. Absentee ballots, canvassing: RCW 29.36.060.

29.62.030 Special canvass for county auditor. If the primary or election is one at which the county auditor is to be nominated or elected, canvass of the returns for that office shall be made by the other two members of the board; if the two disagree, the returns for that office shall be canvassed by the presiding judge of the superior court of the county. [1965 c 9 § 29.62.030. Prior: 1957 c 195 § 16; prior: (i) Code 1881 § 3098; 1865 p 39 § 8;

29.62.040 County canvassing board—Canvassing procedure—Penalty. The county canvassing board at any meeting for canvassing the returns of a primary or election shall proceed as follows:

(1) The chairman of the board of county commissioners shall administer the following oath to the county auditor:

"I do solemnly swear that the primary (or election) returns of the several precincts included in the primary (or election) last held in ----- (here name the county or any other governmental unit not larger than a county if the election was held for it) have been in no wise altered by additions or erasures and that they are the same as when they were deposited in my office, so help me God." This oath, the signature and certificate must be in writing and filed with the papers pertaining to the election;

(2) The county auditor with the assistance of the other members of the canvassing board shall proceed to count the vote of the precincts, precinct by precinct;

(3) Neither the tally books and sheets, the poll lists nor the certificate returned for any primary or election from any precinct shall be rejected for want of form or substance if it can be satisfactorily understood;

(4) File a certificate of their canvass signed by all the members with the county auditor;

(5) If there is a vacancy in the county canvassing board, the remaining members of the board shall choose one of the other county officers to act during the canvass;

(6) Failure to return the total votes counted, if they can be ascertained with reasonable certainty shall be a misdemeanor. [1965 c 9 § 29.62.040. Prior: 1957 c 195 § 17; prior: (i) 1919 c 163 § 21, part; Code 1881 § 3095, part; 1868 p 20 § 1, part; 1865 p 39 § 6, part; RRS § 5340, part. (ii) 1893 c 112 § 2; RRS § 5342. (iii) 1903 c 85 § 1, part; Code 1881 § 3094, part; 1865 p 38 § 4, part; RRS § 5339, part.]

29.62.050 Recanvass of machine votes—Authorized—Procedure. Whenever the board authorized to canvass the returns finds, in its discretion, that there is an apparent discrepancy or an inconsistency in the primary or election returns such board may order that recanvass of the voting machines be made of all, or of any number less than all, of the precincts of the county, and said recanvass may, in the discretion of said board, be made as to all, or as to any number less than all, of the candidates or measures voted upon. In conducting such recanvass said board, or any duly authorized representative or employee of the board, may open the counter compartment of any voting machine without unlocking the machine against voting and recheck the vote cast thereon. If in the course of such recanvass the board determines that there is an error in the return of any precinct said board shall summon the inspector and judges of the precinct and the inspector and judges shall correct such error by making notation thereof in the poll book and shall initial such notation: Provided, That in the event that the election officials do not appear, or fail or refuse to make the correction as indicated, the canvassing board shall correct such error in the poll book and initial such correction. [1965 c 9 § 29.62.050. Prior: 1951 c 193 § 1; 1917 c 7 § 1, part; 1913 c 58 § 15, part; RRS § 5315, part.]

Each political party may send two representatives to be present at the recanvass. After the recanvass shall have been made the voting machines shall be immediately reclosed and the counter compartments relocked. [1965 c 9 § 29.62.060. Prior: 1951 c 193 § 2; 1917 c 7 § 1, part; 1913 c 58 § 15, part; RRS § 5315, part.]

29.62.070 Recanvass of machine votes—Procedure to test counting mechanism—Statement. If upon such recanvass, it should be found that the original canvass of the returns has been correctly made from the machine, and that the discrepancy still remains unaccounted for, the canvassing board, with the assistance of the custodian shall in the presence of such said inspector and judges of election and the authorized representatives of the several political parties or organizations who are attendant, make a record of the number or other designating mark on the seal, and the number on the protective counter and unlock the voting and counting mechanism of said machine and proceed to thoroughly examine and test the machine to determine and reveal the true cause or causes, if any, of the discrepancy in the returns from said machine. Before being tested the counter shall be set at "000," after which each counter shall be operated at least one hundred times. After the completion of said examination and test, the custodian shall then and there prepare a statement in writing giving in detail the result thereof and said statement shall be witnessed by the persons present and shall be filed with the county auditor or other election officer. [1965 c 9 § 29.62.070. Prior: 1951 c 193 § 3; 1917 c 7 § 1, part; 1913 c 58 § 15, part; RRS § 5315, part.]

highest and equal number of votes to attend at the appropriate office at the time to be appointed by said official, who shall then and there proceed publicly to decide by lot which of the persons so having an equal number of votes shall be declared duly elected, and the said official shall make out and deliver to the person thus duly declared elected a certificate of his election as hereinbefore provided. [1965 c 9 § 29.62.080. Prior: 1961 c 130 § 13; prior: (i) Code 1881 § 3097; 1866 p 7 § 3; RRS § 5344. (ii) Code 1881 § 3104; 1865 p 41 § 15; RRS § 5349.]

29.62.130 Canvass of vote on state-wide measures. The votes on proposed amendments to the state Constitution, recommendations for the calling of constitutional conventions and other questions submitted to the people shall be counted, canvassed and returned by the regular precinct election officers and by the county auditors and canvassing boards in the manner provided by law for counting, canvassing and returning votes for candidates for state offices. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state in the presence of the governor, within thirty days after any such election, to canvass the votes upon each question and certify to the governor the result thereof, and the governor shall forthwith issue his proclamation giving the whole number of votes cast in the state for and against such measure and declaring the result: Provided, That if the vote cast upon an initiative or referendum measure is equal to less than one-third of the total vote cast at the election, the governor shall proclaim the measure to have failed for that reason. [1965 c 9 § 29.62.130. Prior: (i) 1913 c 138 § 30; RRS § 5426. (ii) 1917 c 23 § 1; RRS § 5341.]

29.64.010 Application for recount, generally—Requirements for—Application of chapter. An officer of a political party or any person for whom votes were cast in a primary who was not declared nominated may file a written application for a recount of the votes or a portion of the votes cast at that primary for all persons for whom votes were cast for nomination to that office.

An officer of a political party or any person for whom votes were cast at any election may file a written application for a recount of the votes or a portion of the votes cast at that election for all candidates for election to that office.

Any group of five or more registered voters may file a written application for a recount of the votes or a portion of the votes cast upon any question or issue. They shall designate one of the members of the group as chairman and shall indicate the voting residence of each member of the group.

An application for a recount of the votes cast for a state or local office or on a ballot measure in a jurisdiction that is entirely within one county shall be filed with the county auditor of that county. An application for a recount of the votes cast for a federal office or for any state office or on a ballot measure in a jurisdiction that is not entirely within a single county shall be filed with the secretary of state.

An application for a recount in a jurisdiction using a vote tally system shall specify whether the recount shall be done manually or by the vote tally system. A recount done by the vote tally system shall use separate and distinct programming from that used in the original count, and shall also provide for a separate and distinct test of the logic and accuracy of that program.

An application for a recount shall be filed within three days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, after the county canvassing board or secretary of state has declared the official results of the primary or election for the office or issue for which the recount is requested.

This chapter applies to the recounting of votes cast by paper ballots, to the recheck of votes recorded on voting machines, and to the recounting of votes recorded on ballot cards and counted by a vote tally system. [1987 c 54 § 3; 1977 ex.s. c 361 § 98; 1965 c 9 § 29.64.010. Prior: 1963 ex.s. c 25 § 1; 1961 c 50 § 1; 1955 c 215 § 1.]

Effective date—Severability—1977 ex.s. c 361: See notes following RCW 29.01.006.

29.64.015 Mandatory recount. If the official canvass of all of the returns for any office at any primary or election reveals that the difference in the number of votes cast for a candidate apparently nominated or elected to any office and the number of votes cast for the closest apparently defeated opponent is not more than one-half of one percent of the total number of votes cast for both candidates, the county canvassing board shall conduct, or the secretary of state shall direct the appropriate county canvassing boards to conduct, a recount of all votes cast on that position. A mandatory recount shall be conducted in the manner provided by RCW 29.64.020, 29.64.030, and 29.64.040. No cost of a mandatory recount may be charged to any candidate. [1987 c 54 § 4; 1965 c 9 § 29.64.015. Prior: 1963 ex.s. c 25 § 2.]

29.64.020 Deposit of fees—Notice of time and place of recount—Public proceeding. An application for a recount shall state the office for which a recount is requested and whether the request is for all or only a portion of the votes cast in that jurisdiction of that office. The person filing an application shall, at the same time, deposit with the county canvassing board or secretary of state, in cash or by certified check, a sum equal to five cents for each ballot cast in the jurisdiction or portion of the jurisdiction for which the recount is requested as security for the payment of any costs of conducting the recount. These charges shall be determined by the county canvassing board or boards under RCW 29.64.060.

Promptly after the filing of an application for a recount or the receipt of a request from the secretary of state to conduct a recount, the county canvassing board shall determine a time and a place or places at which the recount will be conducted. This time shall be less than five days after the day upon which the application was filed with or the request from the secretary of state was received by the county canvassing board. The county auditor shall mail a notice of the time and place of the recount to the applicant and, if the recount involves an office, to any person for whom votes were cast for that office. The notice shall be mailed by certified mail not less than two days before the date of the recount. Each person entitled to receive notice of the recount may attend, witness the recount, and be accompanied by counsel.

Proceedings of the canvassing board are public under chapter 42.30 RCW. Subject to reasonable and equitable guidelines adopted by the canvassing board, all interested persons may attend and witness a recount. [1987 c 54 § 5; 1977 ex.s. c 361 § 99; 1965 c 9 § 29.64.020. Prior: 1961 c 50 § 2; 1955 c 215 § 2.]

Effective date—Severability—1977 ex.s. c 361: See notes following RCW 29.01.006.

29.64.030 Recounting the ballots—Request to stop. At the time and place fixed for making a recount of paper ballots, the canvassing board or their duly authorized representatives, in the presence of all witnesses who may be in attendance, shall open the sealed containers containing the ballots to be recounted, and shall recount them. Ballots shall be handled only by the members of the canvassing board, their duly authorized representatives or by the clerk or other employees of the board. Witnesses shall be permitted to see the ballots but they shall not be permitted to touch them, and the canvassing board shall not permit the counting or tabulation of votes shown on the ballots for any nomination, or for election to any office or position, or upon any question or proposition, other than the votes shown on such ballots for the nomination, election, or question or proposition concerning which a recount of ballots was applied for.

At the time and place fixed for making a recheck of the votes cast on voting machines the canvassing board or their duly authorized representatives in the presence of all witnesses who may be in attendance, shall open the voting machines to be rechecked, and shall recheck them. Witnesses shall be permitted to watch the recheck of the voting machines, and the canvassing board shall not permit the rechecking of votes for any nomination, or for election to any office or position, or upon any question or proposition, other than the votes shown on such voting machines for the nomination, election, or question or proposition concerning which a recount of voting machines was applied for.

At any time before the ballots from all of the precincts listed in the application for the recount have been recounted, the applicant may file with the board a written request to stop the recount and not recount the ballots from the precincts so listed and which have not been recounted prior to the time of such request: Provided, That this provision shall not apply to a recount when a recount is being made of any regular or special district election whereat the precincts were consolidated and as a result thereof the application for a recount embraced all ballots cast at such election.

If, upon such request, the board finds that the results of the votes in the precincts recounted, if substituted for the results of the votes in such precincts as shown in the abstract of the votes in such precincts, would not cause the applicant, if a person for whom votes were cast for nomination or election, to be declared nominated or elected or if an election upon a question or proposition would not cause a result contrary to the result thereof as declared prior to such recount, it shall grant such request and shall not recount the ballots of the precincts listed in the application for recount which have not been recounted prior to such time. If the board finds otherwise, it may deny such request and shall continue to recount ballots until the ballots from all of the precincts listed in the application for recount have been recounted: Provided, That if such request is denied it may be renewed from time to time. Upon any such renewal the board shall consider and act upon the request in the same manner as provided in this section in connection with an original request. [1965 c 9 § 29.64.030. Prior: 1961 c 50 § 3; 1955 c 215 § 3.]

29.64.040 Amended abstracts and declarations. Upon completion of the recount of the ballots, or upon stopping the recount prior to such time, the canvassing board shall promptly prepare and certify an amended abstract showing the votes cast in each precinct in which the nomination, election, or question or proposition was submitted to the electors, which amended abstract shall embody the votes of the precincts, the ballots of which were recounted, as shown by such recount. Copies of such certified amended abstracts shall be mailed to such other boards or election officials as required in the case of the original abstract which such amended abstract amends.

If the nomination, election, or question or proposition concerning which such recount was made was submitted only to the electors within a county, the board shall make an amended declaration of the result of such election in the same manner required in the making of its original declaration of the result of such election.

If the nomination, election, or question or proposition concerning which a recount was made was submitted to the electors of more than one county, the secretary of state shall canvass all amended abstracts received from the canvassing board of each county in which a recount was made, and shall make an amended declaration of the results of such election in the same manner required in the making of his original declaration of the results of such election. [1965 c 9 § 29.64.040. Prior: 1955 c 215 § 4.]

29.64.050 Further recount where partial recount changes results. If a person was declared nominated as a candidate for election to an office or elected to an office or position and if it subsequently appears by the amended declaration of the results of such election made following a recount of votes cast in such election that such person was not so nominated or elected, such person may, within three days after the date of such amended declaration of the results of such election, file an application with the appropriate canvassing board for a recount of the votes cast at such primary or election for such nomination or election in any precinct, the ballots of which have not been recounted.

If, following a recount of votes cast at an election, regular or special, upon any question or proposition, the amended declaration of the results of such election shows the result of such election to be contrary to the result thereof as declared in the original declaration of the results thereof, any group of five or more registered voters which has filed a statement with the board as provided in RCW 29.64.020 may, within three days after the date of the amended declaration, file an application with the board for a recount of the votes cast at such election upon such question or proposition in any precinct, the votes of which have not been recounted.

RCW 29.64.010, 29.64.020 and 29.64.030 are applicable to any application provided for in this section and to the recount had pursuant thereto. [1965 c 9 § 29.64-.050. Prior: 1955 c 215 § 5.]

29.64.060 Expenses of recount—Charges. The charges for making a recount of votes of precincts listed in an application for recount filed with the board of elections shall be fixed by the board and shall include all expenses incurred by such board because of such application other than the regular operating expenses which the board would have incurred if the application had not been filed.

The total amount of charges so fixed divided by the number of precincts listed in such application, the votes of which were recounted, shall be the charge per precinct for the recount of the votes of the precincts listed in such application, the votes of which were recounted:

Provided, That the charges per precinct so fixed shall not be more than the actual cost.

Such charge shall be deducted by the board from the money deposited with the board by the applicant for the recount at the time of filing his application, and the balance of the money so deposited shall be returned to such applicant unless the costs of the recount were higher than the deposit, in which case the applicant shall be required to pay the difference: Provided, That no such charges shall be deducted by the board from the money deposited for a recount of votes cast for a nomination or for an election to an office or position in any precinct, if upon the completion of a recount the applicant is declared nominated or elected, or if upon completion of a recount concerning a question or proposition, the result of such election is declared to be opposite to the original declaration of the result of such election. All moneys deposited with the board by an applicant not returned to him shall be paid by such board into the general fund of the political subdivision concerned. [1977 ex.s. c 361 § 100; 1965 c 9 § 29.64.060. Prior: 1955 c 215 § 6.]

Effective date—Severability—1977 ex.s. c 361: See notes following RCW 29.01.006.

29.64.070 Rules and regulations. The secretary of state, as chief election officer, shall make rules and regulations, not inconsistent with this chapter, to facilitate and clarify any procedures contained herein. [1965 c 9 § 29.64.070. Prior: 1955 c 215 § 7.]

Rule-making procedures: Chapter 34.04 RCW.

(1) For misconduct on the part of any member of any precinct election board involved therein;

(2) Because the person whose right is being contested was not at the time he was declared elected eligible to that office;

(3) Because the person whose right is being contested was previous to the election convicted of a felony by a court of competent jurisdiction, his conviction not having been reversed nor his civil rights restored after the conviction;

(4) Because the person whose right is being contested gave a bribe or reward to a voter or to an inspector or judge of election for the purpose of procuring his election, or offered to do so;

(5) On account of illegal votes.

(a) Illegal votes include but are not limited to the following:

(i) More than one vote cast by a single voter;

29.65.020 Affidavit of error or omission—Time for filing—Contents—Witnesses. An affidavit of an elector with respect to RCW 29.04.030(6) must be filed with the appropriate court no later than ten days following the issuance of a certificate of election and shall set forth specifically:

(1) The name of the contestant and that he is a registered voter in the county, district or precinct, as the case may be, in which the office is to be exercised;

(2) The name of the person whose right is being contested;

(3) The office;

(4) The particular causes of the contest.

No statement of contest shall be dismissed for want of form if the particular causes of contest are alleged with sufficient certainty. The person charged with the error or omission shall be given the opportunity to call any witness, including the candidate to whom he has issued or intends to issue the certificate of election. [1977 ex.s. c 361 § 102; 1965 c 9 § 29.65.020. Prior: (i) Code 1881 § 3110; 1865 p 43 § 6; RRS § 5371. (ii) Code 1881 § 3112; 1865 p 44 § 8; RRS § 5373.]

Effective date—Severability—1977 ex.s. c 361: See notes following RCW 29.01.006.

29.65.040 Hearing date—Issuance of citation—Service. Upon such affidavit being filed, it shall be the duty of the clerk to inform the judge of the appropriate court, who may give notice, and order a session of the court to be held at the usual place of holding said court, on some day to be named by him, not less than ten nor more than twenty days from the date of such notice, to hear and determine such contested election: Provided, That if no session be called for the purpose, such contest shall be determined at the first regular session of court after such statement is filed.

The clerk of the court shall also at the time issue a citation for the person charged with the error or omission, to appear at the time and place specified in the notice, which citation shall be delivered to the sheriff and be served upon the party in person; or if he cannot be found, by leaving a copy thereof at the house where he last resided. [1977 ex.s. c 361 § 103; 1965 c 9 § 29.65.040. Prior: (i) Code 1881 § 3113; 1865 p 44 § 9; RRS § 5374. (ii) Code 1881 § 3114; 1865 p 45 § 10; RRS § 5375.]

The court shall meet at the time and place designated to determine such contested election by the rules of law and evidence governing the determination of questions of law and fact, so far as the same may be applicable, and may dismiss the proceedings if the statement of the cause or causes of contest is insufficient, or for want of prosecution. After hearing the proofs and allegations of the parties, the court shall pronounce judgment in the premises, either confirming or annulling and setting aside such election, according to the law and right of the case.

If in any such case it shall appear that another person than the one returned has the highest number of legal votes, said court shall declare such person duly elected. [1965 c 9 § 29.65.050. Prior: (i) Code 1881 § 3115; 1865 p 45 § 11; RRS § 5376. (ii) Code 1881 § 3116; 1865 p 45 § 12; RRS § 5377. (iii) Code 1881 § 3117; 1865 p 45 § 13; RRS § 5378. If such election is annulled and set aside, judgment for costs shall be rendered against the party charged with the error or omission and in favor of the party alleging the same. [1977 ex.s. c 361 § 104; 1965 c 9 § 29.65.055. Prior: (i) Code 1881 § 3119; 1865 p 45 § 15; RRS § 5379; formerly RCW 29.65.050, part. Effective date—Severability—1977 ex.s. c 361: See notes following RCW 29.01.006.

29.65.060 Misconduct of board—Irregularity must be material to result. No irregularity or improper conduct in the proceedings of any election board or any member thereof shall amount to such malconduct as to annul or set aside any election unless the irregularity or improper conduct was such as to procure the person whose right to the office may be contested, to be declared duly elected although he did not receive the highest number of legal votes. [1965 c 9 § 29.65.060. Prior: Code 1881 § 3106; 1865 p 43 § 2; RRS § 5367.]

29.65.070 Misconduct of board—Number of votes affected—Enough to change result. When any election for an office exercised in and for a county is contested on account of any malconduct on the part of any election board, or any member thereof, the election shall not be annulled and set aside upon any proof thereof, unless the rejection of the vote of such precinct or precincts will change the result as to such office in the remaining vote of the county. [1965 c 9 § 29.65.070. Prior: Code 1881 § 3107; 1865 p 43 § 3; RRS § 5368.]

29.65.080 Illegal votes—Allegation of in statement of contest. When the reception of illegal votes is alleged as a cause of contest, it shall be sufficient to state generally that illegal votes were cast, which, if given to the person whose election is contested in the specified precinct or precincts, will, if taken from him, reduce the number of his legal votes below the number of legal votes given to some other person for the same office. [1965 c 9 § 29.65.080. Prior: Code 1881 § 3111, part; 1865 p 44 § 7, part; RRS § 5372, part.]

29.65.090 Illegal votes—List required for testimony. No testimony shall be received as to any illegal votes unless the party contesting the election delivers to the opposite party, at least three days before trial, a written list of the number of illegal votes and by whom given, which he intends to prove on such trial. No testimony shall be received as to any illegal votes, except as to such as are specified in the list. [1965 c 9 § 29.65.090. Prior: Code 1881 § 3111, part; 1865 p 44 § 7, part; RRS § 5372, part.]

29.65.100 Illegal votes—Number of votes affected—Enough to change result. No election shall be set aside on account of illegal votes, unless it appears that an amount of illegal votes has been given to the person whose right is being contested, which, if taken from him, would reduce the number of his legal votes below the number of votes given to some other person for the same office, after deducting therefrom the illegal votes which may be shown to have been given to such other person. [1965 c 9 § 29.65.100. Prior: Code 1881 § 3108; 1865 p 43 § 4; RRS § 5369.]

29.65.120 Nullification of election certificate—When effective. If an election is set aside by the judgment of the superior court and if no appeal is taken therefrom within ten days, the certificate issued shall be thereby rendered void. [1965 c 9 § 29.65.120. Prior: Code 1881 § 3123, part; 1865 p 46 § 19, part; RRS § 5382, part.]

Sections

29.70.100 Redistricting by counties, municipal corporations, and special purpose districts.

29.70.100 Redistricting by counties, municipal corporations, and special purpose districts. (1) It is the responsibility of each county, municipal corporation, and special purpose district with a governing body comprised of internal director, council, or commissioner districts not based on statutorily required land ownership criteria to periodically redistrict its governmental unit, based on population information from the most recent federal decennial census.

(2) Within forty-five days after receipt of federal decennial census information applicable to a specific local area, the commission established in RCW 44.05.030 shall forward the census information to each municipal corporation, county, and district charged with redistricting under this section.

(3) No later than eight months after its receipt of federal decennial census data, the governing body of the municipal corporation, county, or district shall prepare a plan for redistricting its internal or director districts.

(4) The plan shall be consistent with the following criteria:

(a) Each internal director, council, or commissioner district shall be as nearly equal in population as possible to each and every other such district comprising the municipal corporation, county, or special purpose district.

(b) Each district shall be as compact as possible.

(c) Each district shall consist of geographically contiguous area.

(d) Population data may not be used for purposes of favoring or disfavoring any racial group or political party.

(e) To the extent feasible and if not inconsistent with the basic enabling legislation for the municipal corporation, county, or district, the district boundaries shall coincide with existing recognized natural boundaries and shall, to the extent possible, preserve existing communities of related and mutual interest.

(5) During the adoption of its plan, the municipal corporation, county, or district shall ensure that full and reasonable public notice of its actions is provided. The municipal corporation, county, or district shall hold at least one public hearing on the redistricting plan at least one week before adoption of the plan.

(6)(a) Any registered voter residing in an area affected by the redistricting plan may request review of the adopted local plan by the superior court of the county in which he or she resides, within forty-five days of the plan's adoption. Any request for review must specify the reason or reasons alleged why the local plan is not consistent with the applicable redistricting criteria. The municipal corporation, county, or district may be joined as respondent. The superior court shall thereupon review the challenged plan for compliance with the applicable redistricting criteria set out in subsection (4) of this section.

(b) If the superior court finds the plan to be consistent with the requirements of this section, the plan shall take effect immediately.

(c) If the superior court determines the plan does not meet the requirements of this section, in whole or in part, it shall remand the plan for further or corrective action within a specified and reasonable time period.

(d) If the superior court finds that any request for review is frivolous or has been filed solely for purposes of harassment or delay, it may impose appropriate sanctions on the party requesting review, including payment of attorneys' fees and costs to the respondent municipal corporation, county, or district. [1984 c 13 § 4; 1983 c 16 § 15; 1982 c 2 § 27.]

Legislative finding—1973 c 122: "The legislature finds that the initiative process reserving to the people the power to propose bills, laws and to enact or reject the same at the polls, independent of the legislature, is finding increased popularity with citizens of our state. The exercise of this power concomitant with the power of the legislature requires coordination to avoid the duplication and confusion of laws. This legislation is enacted especially to facilitate the operation of the initiative process." [1973 c 122 § 1.]

29.79.020 Time for filing various types. Initiative measures proposed to be submitted to the people must be filed with the secretary of state within ten months prior to the election at which they are to be submitted, and the petitions therefor must be filed with the secretary of state not less than four months before the next general state-wide election.

The statement may be distinct from the legislative title of the measure, and shall give a true and impartial statement of the purpose of the measure. Neither the statement nor the summary may intentionally be an argument, nor likely to create prejudice, either for or against the measure. Such concise statement shall constitute the ballot title. The ballot title formulated by the attorney general shall be the ballot title of the measure unless changed on appeal. When practicable, the question posed by the ballot title shall be written in such a way that an affirmative answer to such question and an affirmative vote on the measure would result in a change in then current law, and a negative answer to the question and a negative vote on the measure would result in no change to then current law. A copy of the petition on appeal together with a notice that an appeal has been taken shall be served upon the secretary of state, upon the attorney general, and upon the person proposing the measure if the appeal is initiated by someone other than that person. Upon the filing of the petition on appeal or at the time to which the hearing may be adjourned by consent of the appellant, the court shall accord first priority to examining the proposed measure, the title or summary prepared by the attorney general, and the objections to that title or summary, may hear arguments, and shall, within five days, render its decision and file with the secretary of state a certified copy of such ballot title or summary as it determines will meet the requirements of RCW 29-.27.060 and 29.79.040. In case of such refusal, the secretary of state shall endorse on the petition the word "submitted" and the date, and retain the petition pending appeal.

If none of the grounds for refusal exists, the secretary of state must accept and file the petition. [1982 c 116 § 13; 1965 c 9 § 29.79.150. Prior: (i) 1913 c 138 § 11, part; RRS § 5407, part. (ii) 1913 c 138 § 12, part; RRS § 5408, part.]

29.79.160 Petitions—Review of refusal to accept and file. If the secretary of state refuses to file an initiative or referendum petition when submitted to him for filing, the persons submitting it for filing may, within ten days after his refusal, apply to the superior court of Thurston county for a citation requiring the secretary of state to bring the petitions before the court, and for a writ of mandate to compel him to file it. The application shall take precedence over other cases and matters and shall be speedily heard and determined.

If the court issues the citation, and determines that the petition is legal in form and apparently contains the requisite number of signatures and was submitted for filing within the time prescribed in the Constitution, it shall issue its mandate requiring the secretary of state to file it in his office as of the date of submission for filing.

The decision of the superior court granting a writ of mandate shall be final. [1965 c 9 § 29.79.160. Prior: 1913 c 138 § 13, part; RRS § 5409, part.]

Initiative, referendum, time for filing: State Constitution Art. 2 § 1 (a) and (d) (Amendment 7).

29.79.170 Petitions—Review—Appeal from superior court's refusal to issue mandate. The decision of the superior court refusing to grant a writ of mandate, may be reviewed by the supreme court on a writ of certiorari sued out within five days after the decision of the superior court. The review shall be considered an emergency matter of public concern, and shall be heard and determined with all convenient speed, and if the supreme court decides that the petitions are legal in form and apparently contain the requisite number of signatures of legal voters, and were filed within the time prescribed in the Constitution, it shall issue its mandate directing the secretary of state to file the petition in his office as of the date of submission. [1965 c 9 § 29.79.170. Prior: 1913 c 138 § 13, part; RRS § 5409, part.]

Rules of court: Writ procedure superseded by RAP 2.1(b), 2.2, 18.22.

29.79.180 Petitions—Destruction on final refusal. If no appeal is taken from the refusal of the secretary of state to file a petition within the time prescribed, or if an appeal is taken and the secretary of state is not required to file the petition by the mandate of either the superior or the supreme court, the secretary of state shall destroy it. [1965 c 9 § 29.79.180. Prior: 1913 c 138 § 13, part; RRS § 5409, part.]

29.79.190 Petitions—Consolidation into volumes. If the secretary of state accepts and files an initiative or referendum petition upon its being submitted for filing or if he or she is required to file it by the court, he or she shall, in the presence of the person submitting such petition for filing if he or she desires to be present, arrange and assemble the sheets containing the signatures into such volumes as will be most convenient for verification and canvassing and shall consecutively number the volumes and stamp the date of filing on each volume. [1982 c 116 § 14; 1965 c 9 § 29.79.190. Prior: 1913 c 138 § 14; RRS § 5410.]

29.79.200 Petitions—Verification and canvass of signatures, observers—Statistical sampling—Initiatives to legislature, certification of. Upon the filing of an initiative or referendum petition, the secretary of state shall proceed to verify and canvass the names of the legal voters on the petition. The verification and canvass of signatures on the petition may be observed by persons representing the advocates and opponents of the proposed measure so long as they make no record of the names, addresses, or other information on the petitions or related records during the verification process except upon the order of the superior court of Thurston county. The secretary of state may limit the number of observers to not less than two on each side, if in his or her opinion, a greater number would cause undue delay or disruption of the verification process. Any such limitation shall apply equally to both sides. The secretary of state may use any statistical sampling techniques for this verification and canvass which have been adopted by rule as provided by chapter 34.04 RCW. No petition will be rejected on the basis of any statistical method employed, and no petition will be accepted on the basis of any statistical method employed if such method indicates that the petition contains less than one hundred ten percent of the requisite number of signatures of legal voters. If the secretary of state finds the same name signed to more than one petition, he or she shall reject all but the first such valid signature. For an initiative to the legislature, the secretary of state shall transmit a certified copy of the proposed measure to the legislature at the opening of its session and, as soon as the signatures on the petition have been verified and canvassed, the secretary of state shall send to the legislature a certificate of the facts relating to the filing, verification, and canvass of the petition. [1982 c 116 § 15; 1977 ex.s. c 361 § 105; 1969 ex.s. c 107 § 1; 1965 c 9 § 29.79.200. Prior: 1933 c 144 § 1; 1913 c 138 § 15; RRS § 5411.]

29.79.210 Petitions to legislature—Count of signatures—Review. Any citizen dissatisfied with the determination of the secretary of state that an initiative or referendum petition contains or does not contain the requisite number of signatures of legal voters may, within five days after such determination, apply to the superior court of Thurston county for a citation requiring the secretary of state to submit the petition to said court for examination, and for a writ of mandate compelling the certification of the measure and petition, or for an injunction to prevent the certification thereof to the legislature, as the case may be. Such application and all proceedings had thereunder shall take precedence over other cases and shall be speedily heard and determined.

The decision of the superior court granting or refusing to grant the writ of mandate or injunction may be reviewed by the supreme court on a writ of certiorari sued out within five days after the decision of the superior court, and if the supreme court decides that a writ of mandate or injunction, as the case may be, should issue, it shall issue the writ directed to the secretary of state; otherwise, it shall dismiss the proceedings. The clerk of the supreme court shall forthwith notify the secretary of state of the decision of the supreme court. [1965 c 9 § 29.79.210. Prior: 1913 c 138 § 17; RRS § 5413.]

[1965 c 9 § 29.79.270. Prior: 1913 c 138 § 21; RRS § 5417.]

29.79.280 Substitute for rejected initiative treated as referendum bill. If the legislature, having rejected a measure submitted to it by initiative petition, proposes a different measure dealing with the same subject, the secretary of state shall give that measure the same number as that borne by the initiative measure followed by the letter "B." Such measure so designated as "Alternative Measure No. ----- B," together with the ballot title thereof, when ascertained, shall be certified by the secretary of state to the county auditors for printing on the ballots for submission to the voters for their approval or rejection in like manner as initiative measures for submission to the people are certified. [1965 c 9 § 29.79.280. Prior: 1913 c 138 § 22, part; RRS § 5418, part.]

29.79.310 Form of ballot. Except in the case of alternative voting on a measure initiated by petition, for which a substitute has been passed by the legislature, each measure submitted to the people for approval or rejection shall be so printed on the ballot, under the proper heading, that a voter can, by making one choice, express his or her approval or rejection of such measure. ### 29.82.010 Initiating recall proceedings—Statement—Contents—Verification—Definitions.

Whenever any legal voter of the state or of any political subdivision thereof, either individually or on behalf of an organization, desires to demand the recall and discharge of any elective public officer of the state or of such political subdivision, as the case may be, under the provisions of sections 33 and 34 of Article 1 of the Constitution, he or they shall prepare a typewritten charge, reciting that such officer, naming him or her and giving the title of his office, has committed an act or acts of malfeasance, or an act or acts of misfeasance while in office, or has violated his oath of office, or has been guilty of any two or more of the acts specified in the Constitution as grounds for recall. The charge shall state the act or acts complained of in concise language, give a detailed description including the approximate date, location, and nature of each act complained of, be signed by the person or persons making the charge, give their respective post office addresses, and be verified under oath that he or they believe the charge or charges to be true and have knowledge of the alleged facts upon which the stated grounds for recall are based.

(a) Additionally, "misfeasance" in office means the performance of a duty in an improper manner; and

(b) Additionally, "malfeasance" in office means the commission of an unlawful act;

(2) "Violation of the oath of office" means the wilful neglect or failure by an elective public officer to perform faithfully a duty imposed by law. [1984 c 170 § 1; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 47 § 1; 1965 c 9 § 29.82.010. Prior: 1913 c 146 § 1; RRS § 5350. Former part of section: 1913 c 146 § 2; RRS § 5351, now codified in RCW 29.82.015.]

Severability—1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 47: "If any provision of this amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected." [1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 47 § 3.]

29.82.015 Petition—Where filed. Any person making a charge shall file it with the elections officer whose duty it is to receive and file a declaration of candidacy for the office concerning the incumbent of which the recall is to be demanded. The officer with whom the charge is filed shall promptly (1) serve a copy of the charge upon the officer whose recall is demanded, and (2) certify and transmit the charge to the preparer of the ballot synopsis provided in RCW 29.82.021. The manner of service shall be the same as for the commencement of a civil action in superior court. [1984 c 170 § 2; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 47 § 2; 1965 c 9 § 29.82.015. Prior: 1913

Severability—1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 47: See note following RCW 29.82.010.

29.82.021 Ballot synopsis. (1) Within fifteen days after receiving a charge, the officer specified below shall formulate a ballot synopsis of the charge of not more than two hundred words.

(a) If the recall is demanded of an elected public officer whose political jurisdiction encompasses an area in more than one county, the attorney general shall be the preparer, except if the recall is demanded of the attorney general, the chief justice of the supreme court shall be the preparer.

(b) If the recall is demanded of an elected public officer whose political jurisdiction lies wholly in one county, the prosecuting attorney shall be the preparer, except that if the prosecuting attorney is the officer whose recall is demanded, the attorney general shall be the preparer.

(2) The synopsis shall set forth the name of the person charged, the title of his office, and a concise statement of the elements of the charge. Upon completion of the ballot synopsis, the preparer shall certify and transmit the exact language of the ballot synopsis to the persons filing the charge and the officer subject to recall. The preparer shall additionally certify and transmit the charges and the ballot synopsis to the superior court of the county in which the officer subject to recall resides and shall petition the superior court to approve the synopsis and to determine the sufficiency of the charges. [1984 c 170 § 3.]

29.82.023 Determination by superior court—Correction of ballot synopsis. Within fifteen days after receiving the petition, the superior court shall have conducted a hearing on and shall have determined, without cost to any party, (1) whether or not the acts stated in the charge satisfy the criteria for which a recall petition may be filed, and (2) the adequacy of the ballot synopsis. The clerk of the superior court shall notify the person subject to recall and the person demanding recall of the hearing date. Both persons may appear with counsel. The court may hear arguments as to the sufficiency of the charges and the adequacy of the ballot synopsis. The court shall not consider the truth of the charges, but only their sufficiency. An appeal of a sufficiency decision shall be filed in the supreme court as specified by RCW 29.82.160. The superior court shall correct any ballot synopsis it deems inadequate. Any decision regarding the ballot synopsis by the superior court is final. The court shall certify and transmit the ballot synopsis to the officer subject to recall, the person demanding the recall, and either the secretary of state or the county auditor, as appropriate. [1984 c 170 § 4.]

29.82.025 Filing supporting signatures—Time limitations. (1) The sponsors of a recall demanded of any public officer shall stop circulation and file all petitions with the appropriate elections officer not less than six

If the decision of the superior court regarding the sufficiency of the charges is not appealed, the one hundred eighty or two hundred seventy day period for the circulation of signatures begins on the sixteenth day following the decision of the superior court. If the decision of the superior court regarding the sufficiency of the charges is appealed, the one hundred eighty or two hundred seventy day period for the circulation of signatures begins on the day following the issuance of the decision by the supreme court. [1984 c 170 § 5; 1971 ex.s. c 205 § 2.]

Severability—1971 ex.s. c 205: "If any provision of this 1971 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected." [1971 ex.s. c 205 § 6.]

29.82.040 Petition—Size. Each recall petition at the time of circulating, signing and filing with the officer with whom it is to be filed, shall consist of not more than five sheets with numbered lines for not more than twenty signatures on each sheet, with the prescribed warning, title and form of petition on each sheet, and a full, true and correct copy of the original statement of the charges against the officer referred to therein, printed on sheets of paper of like size and quality as the petition, firmly fastened together. [1965 c 9 § 29.82.040. Prior: 1913 c 146 § 6; RRS § 5355.]

29.82.060 Number of signatures required. When the person, committee, or organization demanding the recall of a public officer has secured sufficient signatures upon the recall petition he or it may submit the same to the officer with whom the charge was filed for filing in his office. The number of signatures required shall be as follows:

(1) In the case of a state officer, an officer of a city of the first class, a member of a school board in a city of the first class, or a county officer of a county of the first, second or third class—signatures of legal voters equal to twenty-five percent of the total number of votes cast for all candidates for the office to which the officer whose recall is demanded was elected at the preceding election.

(2) In the case of an officer of any political subdivision, city, town, township, precinct, or school district other than those mentioned in subdivision (1), and in the case of a state senator or representative—signatures of legal voters equal to thirty-five percent of the total number of votes cast for all candidates for the office to which the officer whose recall is demanded was elected at the preceding election. [1965 c 9 § 29.82.060. Prior: 1913 c 146 § 8, part; RRS § 5357, part.]

29.82.090 Verification and canvass of signatures—Procedure—Statistical sampling. (1) Upon the filing of a recall petition, the elections officer shall proceed to verify and canvass the names of legal voters on the petition.

(2) The verification and canvass of signatures on the petition may be observed by persons representing the advocates and opponents of the proposed recall so long as they make no record of the names, addresses, or other information on the petitions or related records during the verification process except upon the order of the superior court. The elections officer may limit the number of observers to not fewer than two on each side, if in his or her opinion a greater number would cause undue delay or disruption of the verification process. Any such limitation shall apply equally to both sides. If the elections officer finds the same name signed to more than one petition, he or she shall reject all but the first such valid signature.

(3) Where the recall of a state-wide elected official is sought, the secretary of state may use any statistical sampling techniques for verification and canvassing which have been adopted by rule for canvassing initiative petitions under RCW 29.79.200. No petition will be rejected on the basis of any statistical method employed. No petition will be accepted on the basis of any statistical method employed if such method indicates that the petition contains less than the number of signatures of legal voters required by Article I, section 33 (Amendment 8) of the state Constitution. [1984 c 170 § 7; 1977 ex.s. c 361 § 107; 1965 c 9 § 29.82.090. Prior: 1913 c 146 § 9, part; RRS § 5358, part.]

29.82.100 Fixing date for recall election—Notice. If, at the conclusion of the verification and canvass, it is found that a petition for recall bears the required number of signatures of certified legal voters, the officer with whom the petition is filed shall promptly certify the petitions as sufficient and fix a date for the special election to determine whether or not the officer charged shall be recalled and discharged from office. The special election shall be held not less than forty-five nor more than sixty days from the certification and, whenever possible, on one of the dates provided in RCW 29.13.020, but no recall election may be held between the date of the primary and the date of the general election in any calendar year. Notice shall be given in the manner as required by law for special elections in the state or in the political subdivision, as the case may be. [1984 c 170 § 8; 1977 ex.s. c 361 § 108; 1971 ex.s. c 205 § 5; 1965 c 9 § 29.82.100. Prior: 1913 c 146 § 9, part; RRS § 5358, part.]

29.82.105 Response to petition charges. When a date for a special recall election is set the certifying officer shall serve a notice of the date of the election to the officer whose recall is demanded and the person demanding recall. The manner of service shall be the same as for the commencement of a civil action in superior court. After having been served a notice of the date of the election and the ballot synopsis, the officer whose recall is demanded may submit to the certifying officer a response, not to exceed two hundred fifty words in length, to the charge contained in the ballot synopsis. Such response shall be submitted by the seventh consecutive day after service of the notice. The certifying officer shall promptly send a copy of the response to the person who filed the petition. [1984 c 170 § 9; 1980 c 42 § 1.]

29.82.110 Destruction of insufficient recall petition. If it is found that the recall petition does not contain the requisite number of signatures of certified legal voters, the officer shall so notify the persons filing the petition, and at the expiration of thirty days from the conclusion of the count he shall destroy the petitions unless prevented therefrom by the injunction or mandate of a court. [1965 c 9 § 29.82.110. Prior: 1913 c 146 § 9, part; RRS § 5358, part.]

29.82.120 Fraudulent names—Record of. The officer making the canvass of a recall petition shall keep a record of all names appearing thereon which are not certified to be legal voters of the state or of the political subdivision, as the case may be, and of all names appearing more than once thereon, and he shall report the same to the prosecuting attorneys of the respective counties where such names appear to have been signed, to the end that prosecutions may be had for such violation of this chapter. [1965 c 9 § 29.82.120. Prior: 1913 c 146 § 10; RRS § 5359.]

The proper election officer shall provide for the holding of recall elections and the necessary places and officers, ballot boxes, ballots, poll books, voting machines, supplies, and returns as are required by law for holding general elections. The ballots at any recall election shall contain a full, true, and correct copy of the ballot synopsis of the charge, the officer's response to the charge if such has been filed, and shall be so arranged that any voter can, by making one cross (X) express his desire to have the officer charged recalled from his office, or retained therein. Substantially the following form shall be a compliance with the provisions of this section:

RECALL BALLOT

FOR the recall of (here insert the name of the officer) .....

29.82.140 Ascertaining the result—When recall effective. The votes on a recall election shall be counted, canvassed, and the results certified in the manner provided by law for counting, canvassing, and certifying the results of an election for the office from which the officer is being recalled: Provided, That if the officer whose recall is demanded is the officer to whom, under the law, returns of elections are made, such returns shall be made to the officer with whom the charge is filed, and who called the special election; and in case of an election for the recall of a state officer, the county canvassing boards of the various counties shall canvass and return the result of such election to the officer calling such special election. If a majority of all votes cast at the recall election is for the recall of the officer charged, he shall thereupon be recalled and discharged from his office, and the office shall thereupon become and be vacant. [1977 ex.s. c 361 § 109; 1965 c 9 § 29.82.140. Prior: 1913 c 146 § 12; RRS § 5361.]

The supreme court has like original jurisdiction in relation to state officers and revisory jurisdiction over the decisions of the superior courts. The proposed articles of incorporation shall state:

- (1) The name of such bank or trust company.
- (2) The city, village or locality and county where the head office of such corporation is to be located.
- (3) The nature of its business, whether that of a commercial bank, or a trust company.
- (4) The amount of its capital stock, which shall be divided into shares of a par or no par value as may be provided in the articles of incorporation.

(5) The names and places of residence and mailing addresses of the persons who as directors are to manage the corporation until the first annual meeting of its stockholders.

(6) If there is to be preferred or special classes of stock, a statement of preferences, voting rights, if any, limitations and relative rights in respect of the shares of each class; or a statement that the shares of each class shall have the attributes as shall be determined by the bank's board of directors from time to time with the approval of the supervisor.

(7) Any provision granting the shareholders the preemptive right to acquire additional shares of the bank and any provision granting shareholders the right to cumulate their votes.

(8) Any provision, not inconsistent with law, which the incorporators elect to set forth in the articles of incorporation for the regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation, including any provision restricting the transfer of shares and any provision which under this title is required or permitted to be set forth in the bylaws.

(9) Any provision the incorporators elect to so set forth, not inconsistent with law or the purposes for which the bank is organized, or any provision limiting any of the powers granted in this title.

It shall not be necessary to set forth in the articles of incorporation any of the corporate powers granted in this title. The articles of incorporation shall be signed by all of the incorporators and acknowledged before an officer to take acknowledgments. (ii) 1929 c 174 § 1; 1923 c 115 § 4; 1917 c 80 § 21; RRS § 3228.]

30.08.030 Investigation. When the notice of intention to organize and proposed articles of incorporation complying with the foregoing requirements have been received by the supervisor, together with the fees required by law, he shall ascertain from the best source of information at his command and by such investigation as he may deem necessary, whether the character, responsibility and general fitness of the persons named in such articles are such as to command confidence and warrant belief that the business of the proposed bank or trust company will be honestly and efficiently conducted in accordance with the intent and purpose of this title, whether the resources in the neighborhood of such place and in the surrounding country afford a reasonable promise of adequate support for the proposed bank and whether the proposed bank or trust company is being formed for other than the legitimate objects covered by this title. [1973 1st ex.s. c 104 § 5; 1955 c 33 § 30.08.030. Prior: 1929 c 72 § 3, part; 1923 c 115 § 5, part; 1917 c 80 § 22, part; RRS § 3229, part.]

30.08.040 Notice to file articles—Articles approved or refused—Hearing. After the supervisor shall have satisfied himself of the above facts, and, within six months of the date the notice of intention to organize has been received in his office, he shall notify the incorporators to file executed and acknowledged articles of incorporation with him in triplicate. Unless the supervisor otherwise consents in writing, such articles shall be in the same form and shall contain the same information as the proposed articles and shall be filed with him within ten days of such notice. Within thirty days after the receipt of such articles of incorporation, he shall endorse upon each of the triplicates thereof, over his official signature, the word "approved," or the word "refused," with the date of such endorsement. In case of refusal he shall forthwith return one of the triplicates, so endorsed, together with a statement explaining the reason for refusal to the person from whom the articles were received, which refusal shall be conclusive, unless the incorporators, within ten days of the issuance of such notice of refusal, shall request a hearing pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW, as now or hereafter amended. Upon receipt from the proposed incorporators of the same fees as are required for filing and recording other articles of incorporation the secretary of state shall file such articles and record the same. Upon the filing of articles of incorporation approved as aforesaid by the supervisor, with the secretary of state, all persons named therein and their successors shall become and be a corporation, which shall have the powers and be subject to the duties and obligations prescribed by this title, and whose existence shall continue from the date of the filing of such articles until terminated pursuant to law; but such corporation shall not transact any business except as is necessarily preliminary to its organization until it has received a certificate of authority as provided herein. Severability—1981 c 302: See note following RCW 19.76.100.

30.08.060 Certificate of authority—Issuance—Contents. Before any bank or trust company shall be authorized to do business, and within ninety days after approval of the articles of incorporation or such other time as the supervisor may allow, it shall furnish proof satisfactory to the supervisor that such corporation has a paid-in capital in the amount determined by the supervisor, that the requisite surplus or reserve fund has been accumulated or paid in cash, and that it has in good faith complied with all the requirements of law and fulfilled all the conditions precedent to commencing business imposed by this title. If so satisfied, and within thirty days after receipt of such proof, the supervisor shall issue under his hand and official seal, in triplicate, a certificate of authority for such corporation. The certificate shall state that the corporation therein named has complied with the requirements of law, that it is authorized to transact the business of a bank or trust company, or both, as the case may be: Provided, however, That the supervisor may make his issuance of the certificate to a bank or trust company authorized to accept deposits, conditional upon the granting of deposit insurance by the federal deposit insurance corporation, and in such event, shall set out such condition in a written notice which shall be delivered to the corporation.

One of the triplicate certificates shall be transmitted by the supervisor to the corporation and one of the other two shall be filed by the supervisor in the office of the secretary of state and shall be attached to said articles of incorporation: Provided, however, That if the issuance of the certificate is made conditional upon the granting of deposit insurance by the federal deposit insurance corporation, the supervisor shall not transmit or file the certificate until such condition is satisfied. [1986 c 279 § 20; 1981 c 302 § 17; 1973 1st ex.s. c 104 § 7; 1955 c 33 § 30.08.060. Prior: 1929 c 72 § 3, part; 1923 c 115 § 5, part; 1917 c 80 § 22, part; RRS § 3229, part.]

30.08.070 Failure to commence business—Effect—Extension of time. Every corporation heretofore or hereafter authorized by the laws of this state to do business as a bank or trust company, which corporation shall have failed to organize and commence business within six months after certificate of authority to commence business has been issued by the supervisor, shall forfeit its rights and privileges as such corporation, which fact the supervisor shall certify to the secretary of state, and such certificate of forfeiture shall be filed and recorded in the office of the secretary of state in the same manner as the certificate of authority: Provided, That the supervisor may, upon showing of cause satisfactory to him, issue an order under his hand and seal extending for not more than three months the time within which such organization may be effected and business commenced, such order to be transmitted to the office of the secretary of state and filed and recorded therein. [1986 c 279 § 21; 1981 c 302 § 18; 1955 c 33 § 30.08.070. Prior: 1931 c 9 § 1, RRS § 3229-1; 1915 c 175 § 41, RRS § 3370.]

Severability—1981 c 302: See note following RCW 19.76.100.

30.08.080 Extension of existence—Application—Investigation—Order—Appeal—Winding up for failure to continue existence. At any time not less than one year prior to the expiration of the time of the existence of any bank, trust company or mutual savings bank, it may by written application to the supervisor, signed and verified by a majority of its directors and approved in writing by the owners of not less than two-thirds of its capital stock, apply to the supervisor for leave to file amended articles of incorporation, extending its time of existence. Prior to acting upon such application, the supervisor shall make such investigation of the applicant as he deems necessary. If he determines that the applicant is in sound condition, that it is conducting its business in a safe manner and in compliance with law and that no reason exists why it should not be permitted to continue, he shall issue to the applicant a certificate authorizing it to file amended articles of incorporation extending the time of its existence until such time as it be dissolved by the act of its shareholders owning not less than two-thirds of its stock, or until its certificate of authority becomes revoked or forfeited by reason of violation of law, or until its affairs be taken over by the supervisor for legal cause and finally wound up by him. Otherwise he shall notify the applicant that he refuses to grant such certificate. The applicant may appeal from such refusal in the same manner as in the case of a refusal to grant an original certificate of authority. Otherwise the determination of the supervisor shall be conclusive.

Upon receiving a certificate, as hereinabove provided, the applicant may file amended articles of incorporation, extending the time of its existence for the term authorized, to which shall be attached a copy of the certificate of the supervisor. Such articles shall be filed in the same manner and upon payment of the same fees as for original articles of incorporation.

Should any bank, trust company or mutual savings bank fail to continue its existence in the manner herein provided and be not previously dissolved, the supervisor shall at the end of its original term of existence immediately take possession thereof and wind up the same in the same manner as in the case of insolvency. [1961 c 280 § 1; 1955 c 33 § 30.08.080. Prior: 1943 c 148 § 1; 1917 c 80 § 27; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 3234.]

30.08.082 Authority to issue preferred or special classes of stock. (1) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law and if so authorized by its articles of incorporation or amendments thereto made in the manner provided in the case of a capital increase, any bank or trust company may, pursuant to action taken by its board of directors from time to time with the approval of the supervisor, issue shares of preferred or special classes of stock with the attributes and in such amounts and with such par value, if any, as shall be determined by the board of directors from time to time with the approval of the supervisor. No increase of preferred stock shall be valid until the amount thereof shall have been subscribed and actually paid in and a certificate of increase is received from the supervisor.

(2) If provided in its articles of incorporation, a bank or trust company may issue shares of preferred or special classes having any one or several of the following provisions:

(a) Subjecting the shares to the right of the bank or trust company to repurchase or retire any such shares at the price fixed by the articles of incorporation for the repurchase or retirement thereof;

(b) Entitling the holders thereof to cumulative, non-cumulative, or partially cumulative dividends;

(c) Having preference over any other class or classes of shares as to the payment of dividends;

(d) Having preference in the assets of the bank or trust company over any other class or classes of shares upon the voluntary or involuntary liquidation of the bank or trust company;

(e) Having voting or nonvoting rights; and

(f) Being convertible into shares of any other class or into shares of any series of the same or any other class, except a class having prior or superior rights and preferences as to dividends or distribution of assets upon liquidation. [1986 c 279 § 22; 1981 c 89 § 4.]

Severability—1981 c 89: See note following RCW 30.04.180.

30.08.083 Authority to divide classes into series—Rights and preferences—Filing of statement. (1) If the articles of incorporation shall expressly vest authority in the board of directors, then, to the extent that the articles of incorporation shall not have established series, and fixed and determined the variations in the relative rights and preferences as between series, the board of directors have authority to divide any or all of the classes into series and, within the limitation set forth in this section and in the articles of incorporation, fix and determine the relative rights and preferences of the shares of any series so established.

(2) In order for the board of directors to establish a series, where authority to do so is contained in the articles of incorporation, the board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the designation of the series and fixing and determining the relative rights and preferences thereof, or so much thereof as is not fixed and determined by the articles of incorporation.

(3) Prior to the issue of any shares of a series established by resolution adopted by the board of directors, the corporation shall file and execute in the manner provided in this section a statement setting forth:

(a) The name of the bank;

(b) A copy of the resolution establishing and designating the series, and fixing and determining the relative rights and preferences thereof;

(c) The date of adoption of such resolution; and

(d) That the resolution was duly adopted by the board of directors.

(4) The statement shall be executed in triplicate by the bank by one of its officers and shall be delivered to the supervisor. If the supervisor finds that the statement conforms to law, the supervisor shall, when all fees have been paid as provided in this title:

(a) Endorse on each of the triplicate originals the word "Filed," and the effective date of the filing thereof;

(b) File two of the originals; and

(c) Return the other original to the bank or its representative.

(5) Upon the filing of the statement by the supervisor with the secretary of state, the resolution establishing and designating the series and fixing and determining the relative rights and preferences thereof shall become effective and shall constitute an amendment of the articles of incorporation. [1986 c 279 § 23.]

30.08.084 Rights of holders of preferred or special classes of stock—Preference in dividends and liquidation. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, whether relating to restriction upon the payment of dividends upon capital stock or otherwise, the holders of shares of preferred or special classes of stock shall be entitled to receive such dividends on the purchase price received by the bank or trust company for such stock as may be provided by the articles of incorporation or by the board of directors of the bank or trust company with the approval of the supervisor.

No dividends shall be declared or paid on common stock until cumulative dividends, if any, on the shares of preferred or special classes of stock shall have been paid in full; and, if the supervisor takes possession of a bank or trust company for purposes of liquidation, no payments shall be made to the holders of the common stock until the holders of the shares of preferred or special classes of stock shall have been paid in full such amount as may be provided under the terms of said shares plus all accumulated dividends, if any. [1986 c 279 § 24; 1981 c 89 § 5.]

Severability—1981 c 89: See note following RCW 30.04.180.

30.08.086 Determination of capital impairment when capital consists of preferred stock. If any part of the capital of a bank and trust company consists of preferred stock, the determination of whether or not the capital of such bank is impaired and the amount of such impairment shall be based on the value of its stock as established at the time it was issued, or its par value, if any, even though the amount which the holders of such preferred stock shall be entitled to receive in the event of retirement or liquidation shall be in excess of the originally established value or the par value of such preferred stock. [1986 c 279 § 25; 1981 c 89 § 6.]

Severability—1981 c 89: See note following RCW 30.04.180.

30.08.087 Authorized but unissued shares of capital stock—Issuance—Consideration. Any bank or trust company may provide in its articles of incorporation or amendments thereto for authorized but unissued shares of its capital stock. The shares may be issued for such consideration as shall be established by the board from time to time but for not less than the par value, if any, and all consideration received therefor shall be allocated to the capital stock or surplus of the corporation. [1986 c 279 § 26; 1979 c 106 § 1; 1965 c 140 § 1.]

30.08.088 Authorized but unissued shares of capital stock—When shares become part of capital stock—Notice of proposed issuance—Approval. The authorized but unissued shares shall not become a part of the capital stock until they have been issued and paid for.

Prior to the issuance of authorized but unissued stock, the bank shall notify the supervisor of the proposed issuance and the consideration to be received therefor and receive the supervisor's approval thereof, except that such notification and such approval shall not be required if the authorized but unissued stock is issued to employees of the bank pursuant to approved stock option, stock purchase, stock bonus or other similar plans approved by the supervisor. [1986 c 279 § 27; 1979 c 106 § 2; 1965 c 140 § 2.]

30.08.090 Amendment of articles—Procedure. Any bank or trust company may amend its articles of incorporation, in any manner not inconsistent with the provisions of this title, by a vote of the stockholders representing two-thirds of each class of shares entitled to vote under the terms of the shares at any regular meeting, or special meeting duly called for that purpose in the manner prescribed by its bylaws. A certificate of the fact and the terms of the amendment shall be executed by a majority of the directors and filed as required herein for articles of incorporation. No amendment shall be made whereby a bank becomes a trust company unless such bank shall first receive permission from the supervisor. [1987 c 420 § 3; 1986 c 279 § 28; 1965 c 140 § 3; 1955 c 33 § 30.08.090. Prior: 1923 c 115 § 7; 1917 c 80 § 26; RRS § 3233.]

30.08.092 Increase or decrease of capital stock authorized—Authorized but unissued stock—Statements of condition—Certification. A bank or trust company may increase or decrease its capital stock by amendment to its articles of incorporation. No issuance of capital stock shall be valid, until the amount thereof shall have been actually paid in and a certificate of increase is received from the supervisor. No reduction of the capital stock shall be made to an amount less than is required for capital by the supervisor.

Banks having authorized but unissued stock shall disclose on all statements of condition the amount of authorized stock, and the amount of issued and paid-in stock, as certified by the supervisor. The supervisor shall certify to each bank having authorized but unissued stock the amount of its issued and paid-in capital stock, and this amount shall be used in all statements of condition and in computing the capital of the bank for purposes of determining loan or investment limits until a new certificate is issued by the supervisor. In cases where a bank issued authorized but unissued stock as permitted by this title, a new certificate need not be requested upon each stock issue. However, if the bank so requests and the supervisor approves, a certificate of issued and paid-in capital stock shall be issued by the supervisor. A new certificate must be requested at such time as any increase of paid-in capital stock represents five percent of the authorized capital stock and at such time as there is no remaining authorized but unissued stock. [1987 c 420 § 4.]

30.08.095 Schedule of fees to be established. The supervisor shall collect in advance fees for the following services:

For filing merger agreement and attendant investigation;

For filing application to relocate main office or branch and attendant investigation;

For issuing a certificate of increase or decrease of capital stock;

For issuing each certificate of authority;

The supervisor shall establish the amount of the fee for each of the above transactions, and for other services rendered by the division of banking by rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW, as now or hereafter amended.

Every bank or trust company shall also pay to the secretary of state for filing any instrument with him or her the same fees as are required of general corporations for filing corresponding instruments, and also the same license fees as are required of general corporations. Directors shall be elected by the stockholders and hold office for such term as is specified in the articles of incorporation, not exceeding three years, and until their successors are elected and have qualified. In the first instance the directors shall be those named in the articles of incorporation and afterwards, those elected at the annual meeting of the stockholders to be held at least once each year on a day to be specified by the bank's or trust company's bylaws. Shareholders may not cumulate their votes unless the articles of incorporation specifically so provide. If for any cause no election is held at that time, it may be held at an adjourned meeting or at a subsequent meeting called for that purpose in the manner prescribed by the corporation's bylaws. The directors shall meet at least once each quarter and whenever required by the supervisor. A majority of the then serving board of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. At all stockholders' meetings, each share shall be entitled to one vote, unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise. Any stockholder may vote in person or by written proxy.

Immediately upon election, each director shall take, subscribe, swear to, and file with the supervisor an oath that he will, so far as the duty devolves upon him, diligently and honestly administer the affairs of such corporation and will not knowingly violate or willingly permit to be violated any provision of law applicable to such corporation. Vacancies in the board of directors shall be filled by the board. [1987 c 420 § 1; 1986 c 279 § 30; 1982 c 196 § 8; 1981 c 89 § 3; 1975 c 35 § 1; 1969 c 136 § 8; 1957 c 190 § 1; 1955 c 33 § 30.12.010. Prior: 1947 c 129 § 1; 1917 c 80 § 30; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 3237.]

Severability—1982 c 196: See note following RCW 30.04.550.

Severability—1981 c 89: See note following RCW 30.04.180.

30.12.020 Meetings, where held—Corporate records. All meetings of the stockholders of any bank or trust company, except organization meetings, and meetings held with the consent of all stockholders, must be held in the county in which the head office or any branch of the corporation is located. Meetings of the directors of any bank or trust company may be held either within or without this state. Every such corporation shall keep records in which shall be recorded the names and residences of the stockholders thereof, the number of shares held by each, and also the transfers of stock, showing the time when made, the number of shares and by whom transferred. In all actions, suits and proceedings, said records shall be prima facie proof of the facts shown therein. All of the corporate books, including the certificate book, stockholders' ledger and minute book or a copy thereof shall be kept at the corporation's principal place of business. Any books, record, and minutes may be in written form or any other form capable of being converted to written form within a reasonable time. [1986 c 279 § 31; 1969 c 136 § 9; 1955 c 33 § 30.12.020. Prior: 1927 c 179 § 1; 1917 c 80 § 31; RRS § 3238.]

30.12.025 Rights of shareholder to examine and make extracts of records—Penalty—Financial statements. Any person who has been a shareholder of record at least six months immediately preceding his or her demand or who is the holder of record of at least five percent of all the outstanding shares of a bank or trust company, upon written demand stating the purpose thereof, has the right to examine, in person, or by agent or attorney, at any reasonable time or times, for any proper purpose, the bank or trust company's minutes of the proceedings of its shareholders, its shareholder records, and its existing publicly available records. The person is entitled to make extracts therefrom, except that the person is not entitled to view or make extracts of any portion of minutes that refer or relate to information which is confidential.

Any officer or agent who, or a bank or trust company that, refuses to allow any such shareholder or his or her agent or attorney, to examine and make extracts from its minutes of the proceedings of its shareholders, record of shareholders, or existing publicly available books and records, for any proper purpose, shall be liable to the shareholder for actual damages or other remedy afforded the shareholder by law.

It is a defense to any action for penalties under this section that the person suing therefor has, within two years: (1) Sold or offered for sale any list of shareholders for shares of such bank or trust company or any other bank or trust company; (2) aided or abetted any person in procuring any list of shareholders for any such purpose; (3) improperly used any information secured through any prior examination of existing publicly available books and records, or minutes, or record of shareholders of such bank or trust company or any other bank or trust company; or (4) not acted in good faith or for a proper purpose in making his or her demand.

Nothing in this section impairs the power of any court of competent jurisdiction, upon proof by a shareholder of proper purpose, irrespective of the period of time during which the shareholder has been a shareholder of record, and irrespective of the number of shares held by him or her, to compel the production for examination by the shareholder of the existing publicly available books and records, minutes, and record of shareholders of a bank or trust company.

Upon the written request of any shareholder of a bank or trust company, the bank or trust company shall mail to the shareholder its most recent financial statements showing in reasonable detail its assets and liabilities and the results of its operations. As used in this section, "shareholder" includes the holder of voting trust certificates for shares. [1986 c 279 § 32.]

30.12.030 Fidelity bonds—Casualty insurance. (1) Except as otherwise permitted by the supervisor under specified terms and conditions, the board of directors of each bank and trust company shall direct and require good and sufficient surety company fidelity bonds issued by a company authorized to engage in the insurance business in the state of Washington on all active officers and employees, whether or not they draw salary or compensation, which bonds shall provide for indemnity to such bank or trust company, on account of any losses sustained by it as the result of any dishonest, fraudulent or criminal act or omission committed or omitted by them acting independently or in collusion or combination with any person or persons. Such bonds may be individual, schedule or blanket form, and the premiums therefor shall be paid by the bank or trust company.

(2) The said directors shall also direct and require suitable insurance protection to the bank or trust company against burglary, robbery, theft and other similar insurance hazards to which the bank or trust company may be exposed in the operations of its business on the premises or elsewhere.

The said directors shall be responsible for prescribing at least once in each year the amount or penal sum of such bonds or policies and the sureties or underwriters thereon, after giving due consideration to all known elements and factors constituting such risk or hazard. Such action shall be recorded in the minutes of the board of directors. [1986 c 279 § 33; 1955 c 33 § 30.12.030.

Prior: 1947 c 132 § 1; 1927 c 224 § 1; 1917 c 80 § 32; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 3239.]

(b) The interests of its depositors could be seriously prejudiced by reason of the violation or practice or breach of fiduciary duty; and

(c) The violation or practice or breach of fiduciary duty is one involving personal dishonesty, recklessness, or incompetence on the part of the director, officer, or employee. [1977 ex.s. c 178 § 5; 1955 c 33 § 30.12.040. Prior: 1933 c 42 § 1; 1917 c 80 § 10; RRS § 3217.]

The hearing shall be set not earlier than ten days nor later than thirty days after the date of service of the notice unless an earlier or later date is set by the supervisor at the request of the director, officer, or employee for good cause shown or of the attorney general of the state.

Unless the director, officer, or employee appears at the hearing personally or by a duly authorized representative, the person shall be deemed to have consented to the issuance of an order of removal or prohibition or both. In the event of such consent or if upon the record made at the hearing the supervisor finds that any of the grounds specified in the notice have been established, the supervisor may issue such orders of removal from office or prohibition from participation in the conduct of the affairs of the bank or trust company as the supervisor may consider appropriate.

Any order shall become effective at the expiration of ten days after service upon the bank and the director, officer, or employee concerned except that an order issued upon consent shall become effective at the time specified in the order.

An order shall remain effective except to the extent it is stayed, modified, terminated, or set aside by the supervisor or a reviewing court. [1977 ex.s. c 178 § 6.]

Any bank or trust company shall be permitted to make loans to any officer of such corporation, or to purchase, discount or acquire, as security or otherwise, the obligation or debt of any officer to any other person: Provided, That the total value of the loans made and obligation acquired for any one officer shall not exceed such amount as shall be prescribed by the supervisor of banking pursuant to regulations adopted in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW, as now or hereafter amended: And provided further, That no such loan shall be made, or obligation acquired, in excess of five percent of a bank's capital and unimpaired surplus or twenty-five thousand dollars, whichever is larger, unless a resolution authorizing the same shall be adopted by a vote of a majority of the board of directors of such corporation prior to the making of such loan or discount, and such vote and resolution shall be entered in the corporate minutes. In no event shall the loan or obligation acquired exceed five hundred thousand dollars in the aggregate without prior approval by a majority of the corporation's board of directors. No loan in excess of five percent of a bank's capital and unimpaired surplus or twenty-five thousand dollars, whichever is larger, shall be made by any bank or trust company to any director of such corporation nor shall the note or obligation in excess of five percent of a bank's capital and unimpaired surplus or twenty-five thousand dollars, whichever is larger, of such director be discounted by any such corporation, or by any officer or employee thereof in its behalf, unless a resolution authorizing the same shall be adopted by a vote of a majority of the entire board of directors of such corporation exclusive of the vote of such interested director, and such vote and resolution shall be entered in the corporate minutes. In no event may the loan or obligation acquired exceed five hundred thousand dollars in the aggregate without prior approval by a majority of the corporation's board of directors.

30.12.070 Unsafe loans and discounts to directors.

The supervisor may at any time, if in his judgment excessive, unsafe or improvident loans are being made or are likely to be made by a bank or trust company to any of its directors, or to any corporation, copartnership or association of which such director is a stockholder, member, co-owner, or in which such director is financially interested, or like discounts of the notes or obligations of any such director, corporation, copartnership or association are being made or are likely to be made, require such bank or trust company to submit to him for approval all proposed loans to, or discounts of the note or obligation of, any such director, corporation, copartnership or association, and thereafter such proposed loans and discounts shall be reported upon such forms and with such information concerning the desirability and safety of such loans or discounts and of the responsibility and financial condition of the person, corporation, copartnership or association to whom such loan is to be made or whose note or obligation is to be discounted and of the amount and value of any collateral that may be offered as security therefor, as the supervisor may require, and no such loan or discount shall be made without his written approval thereon. ### 30.12.090 False entries, statements, etc.—Penalty.

Every person who shall knowingly subscribe to or make or cause to be made any false statement or false entry in the books of any bank or trust company or shall knowingly subscribe to or exhibit any false or fictitious paper or security, instrument or paper, with the intent to deceive any person authorized to examine into the affairs of any bank or trust company or shall make, state or publish any false statement of the amount of the assets or liabilities of any bank or trust company shall be guilty

30.12.100 Destroying or secreting records—Penalty. Every officer, director or employee or agent of any bank or trust company who, for the purpose of concealing any fact or suppressing any evidence against himself, or against any other person, abstracts, removes, mutilates, destroys or secretes any paper, book or record of any bank or trust company, or of the supervisor, or of anyone connected with his office, shall be guilty of a felony. [1955 c 33 § 30.12.100. Prior: 1917 c 80 § 56; RRS § 3264.]

30.12.110 Commission, etc., for procuring loan—Penalty. No officer, director, agent, employee or stockholder of any bank or trust company shall, directly or indirectly, receive a bonus, commission, compensation, remuneration, gift, speculative interest or gratuity of any kind from any person, firm or corporation other than the bank or as allowed by RCW 30.12.115 for granting, procuring or endeavoring to procure, for any person, firm or corporation, any loan by or out of the funds of such bank or trust company or the purchase or sale of any securities or property for or on account of such bank or trust company or for granting or procuring permission for any person, firm or corporation to overdraw any account with such bank or trust company. Any person violating this section shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor. [1986 c 279 § 35; 1955 c 33 § 30.12.110. Prior: 1919 c 209 § 20; RRS § 3290.]

30.12.115 Transactions in which director or officer has an interest. (1) If a transaction is fair to a corporation at the time it is authorized, approved, or ratified, the fact that a director or an officer had a direct or indirect interest in the transaction is not grounds for either invalidating the transaction or imposing liability on the director or officer.

(2) In any proceeding seeking to invalidate a transaction with the corporation in which a director or an officer had a direct or indirect interest in a transaction with the corporation, the person asserting the validity of the transaction has the burden of proving fairness unless:

(a) The material facts of the transaction and the director's or officer's interest was disclosed or known to the board of directors, or a committee of the board, and the board or committee authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction; or

(b) The material facts of the transaction and the director's or officer's interest was disclosed or known to the shareholders entitled to vote, and they authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction.

(3) For purposes of this section, a director or an officer of a corporation has an indirect interest in a transaction with the corporation if:

(a) Another entity in which the director or officer has a material financial interest, or in which such person is a general partner, is a party to the transaction; or

(b) Another entity of which the director or officer is a director, officer, or trustee is a party to the transaction, and the transaction is or should be considered by the board of directors of the corporation.

(4) For purposes of subsection (3)(a) of this section, a transaction is authorized, approved, or ratified only if it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors on the board of directors or on the committee who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction. If a majority of the directors who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction vote to authorize, approve, or ratify the transaction, a quorum is present for the purpose of taking action under this section. The presence of, or a vote cast by, a director with a direct or indirect interest in the transaction does not affect the validity of any action taken under subsection (3)(a) of this section if the transaction is otherwise authorized, approved, or ratified as provided in that subsection.

(5) For purposes of subsection (3)(b) of this section, a transaction is authorized, approved, or ratified only if it receives the vote of a majority of shares entitled to be counted under this subsection. All outstanding shares entitled to vote under this title or the articles of incorporation are entitled to be counted under this subsection except shares owned by or voted under the control of a director or an officer who has a direct or indirect interest in the transaction. Shares owned by or voted under the control of an entity described in subsection (3)(a) of this section shall not be counted to determine whether shareholders have authorized, approved, or ratified a transaction for purposes of subsection (3)(b) of this section. The vote of the shares owned by or voted under the control of a director or an officer who has a direct or indirect interest in the transaction and shares owned by or voted under the control of an entity described in subsection (3)(a) of this section, however, shall be counted in determining whether the transaction is approved under other sections of this title and for purposes of determining a quorum. [1986 c 279 § 36.]

30.12.120 Loans to officers or employees from trust funds—Penalty. No corporation doing a trust business shall make any loan to any officer, or employee from its trust funds, nor shall it permit any officer, or employee to become indebted to it in any way out of its trust funds. Every officer, director, or employee of any such corporation, who knowingly violates any provision of this section, or who aids or abets any other person in any such violation, shall be guilty of a felony. [1955 c 33 § 30.12.120. Prior: 1917 c 80 § 53; RRS § 3260.]

30.12.130 Trust company as legal representative—Oath by officer. When any trust company shall be appointed executor, administrator, or trustee of any estate or guardian of the estate of any infant or other incompetent, it shall be lawful for any duly authorized officer of such corporation to take and subscribe for such corporation any and all oaths or affirmations required of such an appointee. [1955 c 33 § 30.12.130. Prior: 1917 c 80 § 50; RRS § 3257.]

30.12.180 Levy of assessments. Whenever the supervisor shall notify the board of directors of a bank or trust company to levy an assessment upon the stock of such corporation and the holders of two-thirds of the stock shall consent thereto, such board shall, within ten days from the issuance of such notice, adopt a resolution for the levy of such assessment, and shall immediately upon the adoption of such resolution serve notice upon each stockholder, personally or by mail, at his last known address, to pay such assessment; and that if the same be not paid within twenty days from the date of the issuance of such notice, his stock will be subject to sale and all amounts previously paid thereon shall be subject to forfeiture. If any stockholder fail within said twenty days to pay the assessment as provided in this section, it shall be the duty of the board of directors to cause a sufficient amount of the capital stock of such stockholder to be sold to make good the deficiency. The sale shall be held at such time and place as shall be designated by the board of directors and shall be either public or private, as the board shall deem best. At any time after the expiration of sixty days from the expiration of said twenty-day period the supervisor may require any stock upon which the assessment remains unpaid to be canceled and deducted from the capital of the corporation. If such cancellation shall reduce the capital of the corporation below the minimum required by this title or its articles of incorporation the capital shall, within thirty days thereafter be increased to the required amount by original subscription, in default of which the supervisor may take possession of such corporation in the manner provided by law in case of insolvency. [1955 c 33 § 30.12.180. Prior: 1923 c 115 § 8; 1917 c 80 § 34; RRS § 3241.]

30.12.205 Stock purchase options—Incentive bonus contracts, stock purchase or bonus plans, and profit sharing plans. Subject to any restrictions in its articles of incorporation and in accordance with and subject to the provisions of RCW 30.08.088, the board of directors of a bank or trust company may grant options entitling the holders thereof to purchase from the corporation shares of any class of its stock. The instrument evidencing the option shall state the terms upon which, the time within which, and the price at which such shares may be purchased from the corporation upon the exercise of such option. If any such options are granted by contract, or are to be granted pursuant to a plan, to officers or employees of the bank or trust company, then the contract or the plan shall require the approval, within twelve months of its approval by the board of directors, of the holders of a majority of its voting capital stock. Subsequent amendments to any such contract or plan which do not change the price or duration of any option, the maximum number of shares which may be subject to options, or the class of employees eligible for options may be made by the board of directors without further shareholder approval.

30.22.010 Short title. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the financial institution individual account deposit act. [1981 c 192 § 1.]

30.22.020 Purposes. The purposes of this chapter are:

(1) To provide a consistent law applicable to all financial institutions authorized to accept deposits from individuals with respect to payments by the institutions to individuals claiming rights to the deposited funds; and

(2) To qualify and simplify the law concerning the respective ownership interests of individuals to funds held on deposit by financial institutions, both as to the relationship between the individual depositors and beneficiaries of an account, and to the financial institution–depositor–beneficiary relationships; and

(3) To simplify and make consistent the law pertaining to payments by financial institutions of deposited funds both before and after the death of a depositor or depositors, including provisions for the validity and effect of certain nontestamentary transfers of deposits upon the death of one or more depositors. [1981 c 192 § 2.]

30.22.030 Construction. When construing sections and provisions of this chapter, the sections and provisions shall:

(1) Be liberally construed and applied to promote the purposes of the chapter; and

(2) Be considered part of a general act which is intended as unified coverage of the subject matter, and no part of the chapter shall be deemed impliedly repealed by subsequent legislation if such construction can be reasonably avoided; and

(3) Not be held invalid because of the invalidity of other sections or provisions of the chapter as long as the section or provision in question can be given effect without regard to the invalid section or provision, and to this end the sections and provisions of this chapter are declared to be severable; and

(4) Not be construed by reference to section or subsection headings as used in the chapter since these do not constitute any part of the law; and

(5) Not be deemed to alter the community or separate property nature of any funds held on deposit by a financial institution or any individual's community or separate property rights thereto, and a depositor's community and/or separate property rights to funds on deposit shall not be affected by the form of the account; and

(6) Not be construed as authorizing or extending the authority of any financial institution to accept deposits or to permit a financial institution to accept deposits from such persons or entities or upon such terms as would contravene any other applicable federal or state law. [1981 c 192 § 3.]

30.22.040 Definitions. Unless the context of this chapter otherwise requires, the terms contained in this section have the meanings indicated.

(1) "Account" means a contract of deposit between a depositor or depositors and a financial institution; the term includes a checking account, savings account, certificate of deposit, savings certificate, share account, savings bond, and other like arrangements.

(2) "Actual knowledge" means written notice to a manager of a branch of a financial institution, or an officer of the financial institution in the course of his employment at the branch, pertaining to funds held on deposit in an account maintained by the branch received within a period of time which affords the financial institution a reasonable opportunity to act upon the knowledge.

(3) "Individual" means a human being; "person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, limited partnership, joint venture, trust, or other entity recognized by law to have separate legal powers.

(4) "Agent" means a person designated by a depositor or depositors in a contract of deposit or other document to have the authority to deposit and to make payments from an account in the name of the depositor or depositors.

(5) "Agency account" means an account to which funds may be deposited and from which payments may be made by an agent designated by a depositor. In the event there is more than one depositor named on an account, each depositor may designate the same or a different agent for the purpose of depositing to or making payments of funds from a depositor's account.

(6) "Single account" means an account in the name of one depositor only.

(7) "Joint account without right of survivorship" means an account in the name of two or more depositors and which contains no provision that the funds of a deceased depositor become the property of the surviving depositor or depositors.

(8) "Joint account with right of survivorship" means an account in the name of two or more depositors and which provides that the funds of a deceased depositor become the property of one or more of the surviving depositors.

(9) "Trust and P.O.D. accounts" means accounts payable on request to a depositor during the depositor's lifetime, and upon the depositor's death to one or more designated beneficiaries, or which are payable to two or more depositors during their lifetimes, and upon the death of all depositors to one or more designated beneficiaries. The term "trust account" does not include deposits by trustees or other fiduciaries where the trust or fiduciary relationship is established other than by a contract of deposit with a financial institution.

(10) "Trust or P.O.D. account beneficiary" means a person or persons, other than a codepositor, who has or have been designated by a depositor or depositors to receive the depositor's funds remaining in an account upon the death of a depositor or all depositors.

(11) "Depositor", when utilized in determining the rights of individuals to funds in an account, means an individual who owns the funds. When utilized in determining the rights of a financial institution to make or withhold payment, and/or to take any other action with regard to funds held under a contract of deposit, "depositor" means the individual or individuals who have the current right to payment of funds held under the contract of deposit without regard to the actual rights of ownership thereof by these individuals. A trust or P.O.D. account beneficiary becomes a depositor only when the account becomes payable to the beneficiary by reason of having survived the depositor or depositors named on the account, depending upon the provisions of the contract of deposit.

(12) "Financial institution" means a bank, trust company, mutual savings bank, savings and loan association, or credit union authorized to do business and accept deposits in this state under state or federal law.

(13) "Depositor's funds" or "funds of a depositor" means the amount of all deposits belonging to or made for the benefit of a depositor, less all withdrawals of the funds by the depositor or by others for the depositor's benefit, plus the depositor's prorated share of any interest or dividends included in the current balance of the account and any proceeds of deposit life insurance added to the account by reason of the death of a depositor.

(14) "Payment(s)" of sums on deposit includes withdrawal, payment by check or other directive of a depositor or his agent, any pledge of sums on deposit by a depositor or his agent, any set-off or reduction or other disposition of all or part of an account balance, and any payments to any person under RCW 30.22.120, 30.22.140, 30.22.150, 30.22.160, 30.22.170, 30.22.180, 30.22.190, 30.22.200, and 30.22.220.

(15) "Proof of death" means a certified or authenticated copy of a death certificate, or photostatic copy thereof, purporting to be issued by an official or agency of the jurisdiction where the death purportedly occurred, or a certified or authenticated copy of a record or report of a governmental agency, domestic or foreign, that a person is dead. In either case, the proofs constitute prima facie proof of the fact, place, date, and time of death, and identity of the decedent and the status of the dates, circumstances, and places disclosed by the record or report.

(16) "Request" means a request for withdrawal, or a check or order for payment, which complies with all conditions of the account, including special requirements concerning necessary signatures and regulations of the financial institution; but if the financial institution conditions withdrawal or payment on advance notice, for purposes of this chapter the request for withdrawal or payment is treated as immediately effective and a notice of intent to withdraw is treated as a request for withdrawal.

(17) "Withdrawal" means payment to a person pursuant to check or other directive of a depositor. [1981 c 192 § 4.]

Powers of attorney or agent in probate and trust banking transactions: RCW 11.94.030.

30.22.050 Types of accounts which financial institution may establish. The types of accounts in which funds may be deposited with a financial institution include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (1) A single account;
- (2) A joint account without right of survivorship;
- (3) A joint account with right of survivorship;
- (4) An agency account;
- (5) A trust or P.O.D. account; and
- (6) Any compatible combination of the foregoing.

In each case, the type of account shall be determined by the terms of the contract of deposit between the depositor and the financial institution. The financial institution shall describe to a potential depositor the various types of accounts available. [1981 c 192 § 5.]

30.22.060 Requirements of contract of deposit. The contract of deposit shall be in writing and signed by all individuals who have a current right to payment of funds from an account. The designation of an agent, or trust or P.O.D. account beneficiary by a depositor of a joint account without right of survivorship, or the designation of an agent by a depositor of a joint account with right of survivorship or by a depositor of a trust or P.O.D. account does not require the signature of a codepositor. A financial institution may insert such additional terms and conditions in a contract of deposit as it deems appropriate. [1981 c 192 § 6.]

30.22.070 Accounts of minors and incompetents. A minor or incompetent may enter into a valid and enforceable contract of deposit with the financial institution and any account in the name of a minor or incompetent shall, in the absence of clear and convincing evidence of a different intention at the time it is created, be held for the exclusive right and benefit of the minor or incompetent free from the control of all other persons. [1981 c 192 § 7.]

30.22.080 Accounts of married persons. A financial institution may enter into a contract of deposit without regard to whether the depositor is married and without regard as to whether the funds on deposit are the community or separate property of the depositor. [1981 c 192 § 8.]

30.22.090 Ownership of funds during lifetime of depositor. Subject to community property rights, during the lifetime of a depositor, or the joint lifetimes of depositors:

- (1) Funds on deposit in a single account belong to the depositor.
- (2) Funds on deposit in a joint account without right of survivorship and in a joint account with right of survivorship belong to the depositors in proportion to the net funds owned by each depositor on deposit in the account, unless the contract of deposit provides otherwise or there is clear and convincing evidence of a contrary intent at the time the account was created.

(3) Funds on deposit in a trust or P.O.D. account belong to the depositor and not to the trust or P.O.D. account beneficiary or beneficiaries; if two or more depositors are named on the trust or P.O.D. account, their rights of ownership to the funds on deposit in the account are governed by subsection (2) of this section.

(4) Ownership of funds on deposit in an agency account shall be determined in accordance with subsections (1), (2), and (3) of this section depending upon whether the principal is a depositor on a single account, joint account, joint account with right of survivorship, or trust or P.O.D. account. [1981 c 192 § 9.]

30.22.100 Ownership of funds after death of a depositor. Subject to community property rights and subject to the terms and provisions of any community property agreement, upon the death of a depositor:

(1) Funds which remain on deposit in a single account belong to the depositor's estate.

(2) Funds belonging to a deceased depositor which remain on deposit in a joint account without right of survivorship belong to the depositor's estate, unless the depositor has also designated a trust or P.O.D. account beneficiary of the depositor's interest in the account.

(3) Funds belonging to a deceased depositor which remain on deposit in a joint account with right of survivorship belong to the surviving depositors unless there is clear and convincing evidence of a contrary intent at the time the account was created. If there is more than one individual having right of survivorship, the funds belong equally to the surviving depositors unless the contract of deposit otherwise provides. If there is more than one surviving depositor, the rights of survivorship shall continue between the surviving depositors.

(4) Funds remaining on deposit in a trust or P.O.D. account belong to the trust or P.O.D. account beneficiary designated by the deceased depositor unless the account has also been designated as a joint account with right of survivorship, in which event the funds remaining on deposit in the account do not belong to the trust or P.O.D. account beneficiary until the death of the last surviving depositor and the rights of the surviving depositors shall be determined by subsection (3) of this section. If the deceased depositor has designated more than one trust or P.O.D. account beneficiary, and more than one of the beneficiaries survive the depositor, the funds belong equally to the surviving beneficiaries unless the depositor has specifically designated a different method of distribution in the contract of deposit; if two or more beneficiaries survive, there is no right of survivorship as between them unless the terms of the account or deposit agreement expressly provide for rights of survivorship between the beneficiaries.

(5) Upon the death of a depositor of an agency account, the agency shall terminate and any funds remaining on deposit belonging to the deceased depositor shall become the property of the depositor's estate or such other persons who may be entitled thereto, depending upon whether the account was a single account, joint account, joint account with right of survivorship, or a trust or P.O.D. account.

Any transfers to surviving depositors or to trust or P.O.D. account beneficiaries pursuant to the terms of this section are declared to be effective by reason of the provisions of the account contracts involved and this chapter and are not to be considered as testamentary dispositions. The rights of survivorship and of trust and P.O.D. account beneficiaries arise from the express terms of the contract of deposit and cannot, under any circumstances, be changed by the will of a depositor. [1981 c 192 § 10.]

30.22.110 Controversies between owners. RCW 30.22.090 and 30.22.100 are intended to establish ownership of funds on deposit in the accounts stated, as between depositors and/or trust or P.O.D. account beneficiaries, and the provisions thereof are relevant only as to controversies between such persons and their creditors, and other successors, and have no bearing on the power of any person to receive payment of funds maintained in the accounts or the right of a financial institution to make payments to any person as provided by the terms of the contract of deposit. [1981 c 192 § 11.]

30.22.120 Right to rely on form of account—Discharge of financial institutions. In making payments of funds deposited in an account, a financial institution may rely conclusively and entirely upon the form of the account and the terms of the contract of deposit at the time the payments are made. A financial institution is not required to inquire as to either the source or the ownership of any funds received for deposit to an account, or to the proposed application of any payments made from an account. Unless a financial institution has actual knowledge of the existence of dispute between depositors, beneficiaries, or other persons claiming an interest in funds deposited in an account, all payments made by a financial institution from an account at the request of any depositor to the account and/or the agent of any depositor to the account in accordance with this section and RCW 30.22.140, 30.22.150, 30.22.160, 30.22.170, 30.22.180, 30.22.190, 30.22.200, and 30.22.220 shall constitute a complete release and discharge of the financial institution from all claims for the amounts so paid regardless of whether or not the payment is consistent with the actual ownership of the funds deposited in an account by a depositor and/or the actual ownership of the funds as between depositors and/or the beneficiaries of P.O.D. and trust accounts, and/or their heirs, successors, personal representatives, and assigns. [1981 c 192 § 12.]

30.22.130 Rights as between individuals preserved. The protection accorded to financial institutions under RCW 30.22.120, 30.22.140, 30.22.150, 30.22.160, 30.22.170, 30.22.180, 30.22.190, 30.22.200, 30.22.210, and 30.22.220 shall have no bearing on the actual rights of ownership to deposited funds by a depositor, and/or between depositors, and/or by and between beneficiaries of trust and P.O.D. accounts, and their heirs, successors, personal representatives, and assigns. [1981 c 192 § 13.]

30.22.140 Payment of funds to a depositor. Payments of funds on deposit in a single account may be made by a financial institution to or for the depositor regardless of whether the depositor is, in fact, the actual owner of the funds. Payments of funds on deposit in an account having two or more depositors may be made by a financial institution to or for any one or more of the depositors named on the account without regard to the actual ownership of the funds by or between the depositors, and without regard to whether any other depositor or depositors so named are deceased or incompetent at the time the payments are made. [1981 c 192 § 14.]

30.22.150 Payment to minors and incompetents. Financial institutions may make payments of funds on deposit in an account established by a depositor who is a minor or incompetent without regard to whether it has actual knowledge of the minority or incompetency of the depositor unless the branch of the financial institution at which the account is maintained has received written notice to withhold payment to the minor or incompetent by the guardian of his estate and had a reasonable opportunity to act upon the notice. [1981 c 192 § 15.]

30.22.160 Payment to trust and P.O.D. account beneficiaries. Financial institutions may pay any funds remaining on deposit in an account to a trust or P.O.D. account beneficiary or beneficiaries when the financial institution has received proofs of death of all depositors to the account who pursuant to the terms of the contract of deposit were required to predecease the beneficiary. If there is more than one trust or P.O.D. account beneficiary, financial institutions shall not, unless the contract of deposit otherwise provides, pay to any one such beneficiary more than that amount which is obtained by dividing the total of the funds on deposit in the account by the number of trust or P.O.D. account beneficiaries. [1981 c 192 § 16.]

30.22.170 Payment to agents of depositors. Any funds on deposit in an account may be paid by a financial institution to or upon the order of any agent of any depositor. The contract of deposit or other document creating such agency may provide, in accordance with chapter 11.94 RCW, that any such agent's powers to receive payments and make withdrawals from an account continues in spite of, or arises by virtue of, the incompetency of a depositor, in which event the agent's powers to make payments and withdrawals from an account on behalf of a depositor is not affected by the incompetency of a depositor. Except as provided in this section, the authority of an agent to receive payments or make withdrawals from an account terminates with the death or incompetency of the agent's principal: Provided, That a financial institution is not liable for any payment or withdrawal made to or by an agent for a deceased or incompetent depositor unless the financial institution making the payment or permitting the withdrawal had actual knowledge of the incompetency or death at the time payment was made. [1981 c 192 § 17.]

30.22.180 Payment to personal representatives. Financial institutions may pay any funds remaining on deposit in an account which belongs to a deceased depositor to the personal representative of the depositor's estate under any of the following circumstances:

(1) When the decedent was the depositor on a single account; or

(2) When the decedent was a depositor on a joint account without right of survivorship or the only surviving depositor on a joint account with right of survivorship, and has not designated a trust or P.O.D. account beneficiary of the decedent's interest, and the financial institution has received the proofs of death necessary to establish the deaths of the other depositors named on the account; or

(3) When the decedent was a beneficiary of a P.O.D. or trust account and the financial institution has received proofs of death of the beneficiary and all depositors to the account who, pursuant to the terms of the contract of deposit, were required to predecease the beneficiary; or

(4) When consent to the payment has been given in writing by all depositors and beneficiaries of the account; or

(5) When so ordered or directed by a superior court of the state or other court having jurisdiction over the matter. [1981 c 192 § 18.]

30.22.190 Payment to heirs and creditors of a deceased depositor. In each case, where it is provided in RCW 30.22.180 that a financial institution may make payment of funds deposited in an account to the personal representative of the estate of a deceased depositor or beneficiary, the financial institution may make payment of the funds to the following persons under the circumstances provided:

(1) In those instances where the deceased depositor left a surviving spouse, and the deceased depositor and the surviving spouse shall have executed a community property agreement which by its terms would include funds of the deceased depositor remaining in the account, a financial institution may make payment of all funds in the name of the deceased spouse to the surviving spouse upon receipt of a certified copy of the community property agreement as recorded in the office of a county auditor of the state and an affidavit of the surviving spouse that the community property agreement was validly executed and in full force and effect upon the death of the depositor.

(2) In those instances where the balance of the funds in the name of a deceased depositor does not exceed two thousand five hundred dollars, payment of the decedent's funds remaining in the account may be made to the surviving spouse, next of kin, funeral director, or other creditor who may appear to be entitled thereto upon receipt of proof of death and an affidavit to the effect that no personal representative has been appointed for the deceased depositor's estate. As a condition to the payment, a financial institution may require such waivers, indemnity, receipts, and acquittance and additional proofs as it may consider proper.

(3) In those instances where the balance of the funds in the name of a deceased depositor does not exceed ten thousand dollars, to the person entitled thereto when presented by an affidavit which meets the requirements of chapter 11.62 RCW.

A person receiving a payment from a financial institution pursuant to subsections (2) and (3) of this section is answerable and accountable therefor to any personal representative of the deceased depositor's estate wherever and whenever appointed. [1981 c 192 § 19.]

30.22.200 Payment to foreign personal representative. In each case where it is provided in this chapter that payment may be made to the personal representative of the estate of a deceased depositor or trust or P.O.D. account beneficiary, financial institutions may make payment of the funds on deposit in a deceased depositor's or beneficiary's account to the personal representative of the decedent's estate appointed under the laws of any other state or territory or country after:

(1) At least ninety days have elapsed since the date of the deceased depositor's death; and

(2) Upon receipt of the following:

(a) Proof of death of the deceased depositor or beneficiary;

(b) Proof of the appointment and continuing authority of the personal representative requesting payment; and

(c) The personal representative's, or its agent's, affidavit to the effect that to the best of his or her knowledge no personal representative has been or will be appointed under the laws of this state; and

(d) Receipt of an inheritance tax release from the department of revenue. However, if a personal representative of the deceased depositor's or beneficiary's estate is appointed and qualified as such under the laws of this state, and delivers proof of the appointment and qualification to the office or branch of the financial institution in which the deposit is maintained prior to the transmissions of the sums on deposit to the foreign personal representative, then the funds shall be paid to the personal representative of the deceased depositor's or beneficiary's estate who has been appointed and qualified in this state. [1981 c 192 § 20.]

30.22.210 Authority to withhold payment. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be deemed to require any financial institution to make any payment from an account to a depositor, or any trust or P.O.D. account beneficiary, or any other person claiming an interest in any funds deposited in the account, if the financial institution has actual knowledge of the existence of a dispute between the depositors, beneficiaries, or other persons concerning their respective rights of ownerships to the funds contained in, or proposed to be withdrawn, or previously withdrawn from the account, or in the event the financial institution is otherwise uncertain as to who is entitled to the funds pursuant to the contract of deposit. In any such case, the financial institution may, without liability, notify, in writing, all depositors, beneficiaries, or other persons claiming an interest in the account of either its uncertainty as to who is entitled to the distributions or the existence of any dispute, and may also, without liability, refuse to disburse any funds contained in the account to any depositor, and/or trust or P.O.D. account beneficiary thereof, and/or other persons claiming an interest therein, until such time as either:

(1) All such depositors and/or beneficiaries have consented, in writing, to the requested payment; or

(2) The payment is authorized or directed by a court of proper jurisdiction. [1981 c 192 § 21.]

30.22.220 Adverse claim bond. Notwithstanding RCW 30.22.210, a financial institution may, without liability, pay or permit withdrawal of any funds on deposit in an account to a depositor and/or agent of a depositor and/or trust or P.O.D. account beneficiary, and/or other person claiming an interest therein, even when the financial institution has actual knowledge of the existence of the dispute, if the adverse claimant shall execute to the financial institution, in form and with security acceptable to it, a bond in an amount which is double either the amount of the deposit or the adverse claim, whichever is the lesser, indemnifying the financial institution from any and all liability, loss, damage, costs, and expenses, for and on account of the payment of the adverse claim or the dishonor of the check or other order of the person in whose name the deposit stands on the books of the financial institution: Provided, That where the person in whose name the deposit stands is a fiduciary for the adverse claimant, and the facts constituting such relationship, and also the facts showing reasonable cause of belief on the part of the claimant that the fiduciary is about to misappropriate the deposit, are made to appear by the affidavit of the claimant, the financial institution shall, without liability, refuse to deliver the property for a period of not more than five business days from the date that the financial institution receives the adverse claimant's affidavit, without liability for the sufficiency or truth of the facts alleged in the affidavit, after which time the claim shall be treated as any other claim under this section. [1981 c 192 § 22.]

30.42.010 Purpose. The purpose of this chapter is to establish a legal and regulatory framework for operation by alien banks in the state of Washington that will:

(1) Create a financial climate which will benefit the economy of the state of Washington;

(2) Provide a well regulated and supervised financial system to assist the movement of foreign capital into Washington state for the support and diversification of the local industrial base;

(3) Assist the development of the economy of the state of Washington without disrupting business relationships of state and federal financial institutions. [1973 1st ex.s. c 53 § 1.]

30.42.020 Definitions. For the purposes of this chapter, the following terms shall be defined as follows:

(1) "Alien bank" means a bank organized under the laws of a foreign country and having its principal place of business in that country, the majority of the beneficial ownership and control of which is vested in citizens of countries other than the United States of America.

(2) "Office" means a branch or agency of an alien bank carrying on business in this state pursuant to this chapter.

(3) "Branch" means an office of an alien bank that is exercising the powers authorized by RCW 30.42.105, 30.42.115, and 30.42.155.

(4) "Agency" means an office of an alien bank that is exercising the powers authorized by RCW 30.42.180.

(5) "Bureau" means an alien bank's operation in this state exercising the powers authorized by RCW 30.42.230.

(6) "Supervisor" means the supervisor of banking of the state of Washington. [1983 c 3 § 48; 1973 1st ex.s. c 53 § 2.]

30.42.030 Authorization and compliance with chapter required. An alien bank shall not establish and operate an office or bureau in this state unless it is authorized to do so by the supervisor and unless it first complies with all of the provisions of this chapter and then only to the extent expressly permitted by this chapter. [1973 1st ex.s. c 53 § 3.]

30.42.040 More than one office prohibited. An alien bank shall not be permitted to have more than one office in this state. [1973 1st ex.s. c 53 § 4.]

30.42.050 Acquisition or serving on board of directors or trustees of other financial institutions prohibited. An alien bank shall not take over or acquire an existing federal or state-chartered bank, trust company, mutual savings bank, savings and loan association, or credit union or any branch of any such bank, trust company, mutual savings bank, savings and loan association, or credit union in this state; nor shall any designee, officer, agent or employee of an alien bank serve on the board of directors of any federal or state bank, trust company, savings and loan association, or credit union, or the board of trustees of a mutual savings bank. [1973 1st ex.s. c 53 § 5.]

30.42.060 Conditions to be met before opening office in state. An alien bank shall not hereafter open an office in this state until it has met the following conditions:

(1) It has filed with the supervisor an application in such form and containing such information as shall be prescribed by the supervisor.

(2) It has designated the supervisor by a duly executed instrument in writing, its agent, upon whom process in any action or proceeding arising out of a transaction with the Washington office may be served. Such service shall have the same force and effect as if the alien bank were a Washington corporation and had been lawfully served with process within the state. The supervisor shall forward by mail, postage prepaid, a copy of every process served upon him under the provisions of this subdivision, addressed to the manager or agent of such bank at its office in this state.

(3) It has allocated and assigned to its office within this state paid-in capital of not less than two hundred thousand dollars or such larger amounts as the supervisor in his discretion may require.

(4) It has filed with the supervisor a letter from its chief executive officer guaranteeing that the alien bank's entire capital and surplus is and shall be available for all liabilities and obligations of its office doing business in this state.

(5) It has paid the fees required by law and established by the supervisor pursuant to RCW 30.08.095.

(6) It has received from the supervisor his certificate authorizing the transaction of business in conformity with this chapter. [1973 1st ex.s. c 53 § 6.]

30.42.070 Allocated paid-in capital—Requirements. The capital allocated as required in RCW 30.42.060(3) shall be maintained within this state at all times in cash or in supervisor approved interest bearing bonds, notes, debentures, or other obligations: (1) Of the United States or of any agency or instrumentality thereof, or guaranteed by the United States; or (2) of this state, or of a city, county, town, or other municipal corporation, or instrumentality of this state or guaranteed by this state, or such other assets as the supervisor may approve. Such capital shall be deposited with a bank qualified to do business in and having its principal place of business within this state, or in a national bank qualified to engage in banking in this state. Such bank shall issue a written receipt addressed and delivered to the supervisor reciting that such deposit is being held for the sole benefit of the United States domiciled creditors of such alien bank's Washington office and that the same is subject to his order without offset for the payment of such creditors. For the purposes of this section, the term "creditor" shall not include any other offices, branches, subsidiaries, or affiliates of such alien bank. Subject to the approval of the supervisor, reasonable arrangements may be made for substitution of securities. So long as it shall continue business in this state in conformance with this chapter and shall remain solvent, such alien bank shall be permitted to collect all interest and/or income from the assets constituting such allocated capital.

Should any securities so depreciate in market value and/or quality as to reduce the deposit below the amount required, additional money or securities shall be deposited promptly in amounts sufficient to meet such requirements. The supervisor may make an investigation of the market value and of the quality of any security deposited at the time such security is presented for deposit or at any time thereafter. The supervisor may make such charge as may be reasonable and proper for such investigation. [1982 c 95 § 1; 1979 c 106 § 6; 1973 1st ex.s. c 53 § 7.]

Effective date—1982 c 95: "This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1982." [1982 c 95 § 9.]

30.42.080 Separate assets—Books and records—Priority as to assets. Every alien bank maintaining an office in this state shall keep the assets of its Washington office entirely separate and apart from the assets of its other operations as though the Washington office was conducted as a separate and distinct entity. Every such alien bank shall keep separate books of account and records for its Washington office and shall observe with respect to such office the applicable requirements of this chapter and the applicable rules and regulations of the supervisor. The United States domiciled creditors of such alien bank's Washington office shall be entitled to priority with respect to the assets of its Washington office before such assets may be used or applied for the benefit of its other creditors or transferred to its general business. [1973 1st ex.s. c 53 § 8.]

30.42.090 Approval of application—Criteria—Reciprocity. The supervisor may give or withhold his approval of an application by an alien bank to establish an office in this state at his discretion. His decision shall be based on the information submitted to his office in the application required by RCW 30.42.060 and such additional investigation as the supervisor deems necessary or appropriate. Prior to granting approval to said application, he shall have ascertained to his satisfaction that all of the following are true:

(1) the proposed location offers a reasonable promise of adequate support for the proposed office;

(2) the proposed office is not being formed for other than legitimate objects;

(3) the proposed officers of the proposed office have sufficient banking experience and ability to afford reasonable promise of successful operation;

(4) the reputation and financial standing of the alien bank is such as to command the confidence and warrant belief that the business of the proposed office will be conducted honestly and efficiently in accordance with the intent and purpose of this chapter, as set forth in RCW 30.42.010;

(5) the principal purpose of establishing such office shall be within the intent of this chapter.

The supervisor shall not grant an application for an office of an alien bank unless the law of the foreign country under which laws the alien bank is organized permits a bank with its principal place of business in this state to establish in that foreign country a branch, agency or similar operation. [1973 1st ex.s. c 53 § 9.]

30.42.100 Notice of approval—Filing—Time period for commencing business. If the supervisor approves the application, he shall notify the alien bank of his approval and shall file certified copies of its charter, certificate or other authorization to do business with the secretary of state. Upon such filing, the supervisor shall issue a certificate of authority stating that the alien bank is authorized to conduct business through a branch or agency in this state at the place designated in accordance with this chapter. Each such certificate shall be conspicuously displayed at all times in the place of business specified therein.

The office of the alien bank must commence business within six months after the issuance of the supervisor's certificate: Provided, That the supervisor for good cause shown may extend such period for an additional time not to exceed three months. [1985 c 305 § 7; 1973 1st ex.s. c 53 § 10.]

30.42.105 Power to make loans and to guarantee obligations. An approved branch of an alien bank shall have the same power to make loans and guarantee obligations as a state bank chartered pursuant to Title 30 RCW: Provided, however, That the base for computing the applicable loan limitation shall be the entire capital and surplus of the alien bank. The supervisor may adopt rules and regulations limiting the amount of loans to full-time employees of the branch. [1982 c 95 § 4.]

Effective date—1982 c 95: See note following RCW 30.42.070.

30.42.115 Solicitation and acceptance of deposits. (1) Any branch of an alien bank that received approval of its branch application pursuant to RCW 30.42.090, or that had filed its branch application pursuant to RCW 30.42.060, on or before July 27, 1978, and any approved branch of an alien bank that has designated Washington as its home state pursuant to section 5 of the International Banking Act of 1978, shall have the same power to solicit and accept deposits as a state bank chartered pursuant to Title 30 RCW, except that acceptance of initial deposits of less than one hundred thousand dollars shall be limited to deposits of the following:

(a) Any business entity, including any corporation, partnership, association, or trust, that engages in commercial activity for profit: Provided, That there shall be excluded from this category any such business entity that is organized under the laws of any state or the United States, is majority-owned by United States citizens or residents, and has total assets, including assets of majority owned subsidiaries, of less than one million five hundred thousand dollars as of the date of the initial deposit;

(b) Any governmental unit, including the United States government, any state government, any foreign government and any political subdivision or agency of the foregoing;

(c) Any international organization which is composed of two or more nations;

(d) Any draft, check, or similar instrument for the transmission of funds issued by the branch;

(e) Any depositor who is not a citizen of the United States and who is not a resident of the United States at the time of the initial deposit;

(f) Any depositor who established a deposit account on or before July 1, 1982, and who has continuously maintained the deposit account since that date: Provided, That this subparagraph (f) of this subsection shall be effective only until July 1, 1985;

(g) Any other person: Provided, That the amount of deposits under this subparagraph (g) of this subsection may not exceed four percent of the average of the branch's deposits for the last thirty days of the most recent calendar quarter, excluding deposits in the branch of other offices, branches, agencies, or wholly owned subsidiaries of the alien bank.

(2) As used in subsection (1) of this section, "initial deposit" means the first deposit transaction between a depositor and the branch. Different deposit accounts that are held by a depositor in the same right and capacity may be added together for purposes of determining the dollar amount of that depositor's initial deposit.

(3) Approved branches of alien banks, other than those described in subsection (1) of this section, may solicit and accept deposits only from foreign governments and their agencies and instrumentalities, persons, or entities conducting business principally at their offices or establishments abroad, and such other deposits that:

(a) Are to be transmitted abroad;

(b) Consist of collateral or funds to be used for payment of obligations to the branch;

(c) Consist of the proceeds of collections abroad that are to be used to pay for exported or imported goods or for other costs of exporting or importing or that are to be periodically transferred to the depositor's account at another financial institution;

(d) Consist of the proceeds of extensions of credit by the branch; or

(e) Represent compensation to the branch for extensions of credit or services to the customer.

(4) A branch may accept deposits, subject to the limitations set forth in subsections (1) and (3) of this section, only upon the same terms and conditions (including nature and extent of such deposits, withdrawal, and the payment of interest thereon) that banks organized under the laws of this state which are members of the Federal Reserve System may accept such deposits. Any branch that is not subject to reserve requirements under regulations of the Federal Reserve Board shall maintain deposit reserves in this state, pursuant to rules adopted by the supervisor, to the same extent they must be maintained by banks organized under the laws of this state which are members of the Federal Reserve System. [1985 c 305 § 8; 1982 c 95 § 6.]

Effective date—1982 c 95: See note following RCW 30.42.070.

30.42.120 Requirements for accepting deposits or transacting business. A branch shall not commence to transact in this state the business of accepting deposits or transact such business thereafter unless it has met the following requirements:

(1) It has obtained federal deposit insurance corporation insurance covering its eligible deposit liabilities within this state, or in lieu thereof, made arrangements satisfactory to the supervisor for maintenance within this state of additional capital equal to not less than five percent of its deposit liabilities, computed on the basis of the average daily net deposit balances covering semi-monthly periods as prescribed by the supervisor pursuant to *RCW 30.04.090. Such additional capital shall be deposited in the manner provided in RCW 30.42.070.

(2) It holds in this state currency, bonds, notes, debentures, drafts, bills of exchange, or other evidences of indebtedness or other obligations payable in the United States or in United States funds or, with the approval of the supervisor, in funds freely convertible into United States funds or such other assets as are approved by the supervisor, in an amount not less than one hundred percent of the aggregate amount of liabilities of such alien bank payable at or through its office in this state. When calculating the value of the assets so held, credit shall be given for the amounts deposited pursuant to RCW 30.42.060(3) and 30.42.120(1), but there shall be excluded all amounts due from the head office and any other branch, agency, or other office or wholly-owned subsidiary of the bank, except those amounts due from such offices or subsidiaries located within the United States and payable in United States dollars.

(3) If deposits are not insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation, then that fact shall be disclosed to all depositors pursuant to rules and regulations of the supervisor.

(4) If the branch conducts an international banking facility, the deposits of which are exempt from reserve requirements of the federal reserve banking system, the liabilities of that facility shall be excluded from the deposit and other liabilities of the branch for the purposes of subsection (1) of this section. [1982 c 95 § 2; 1975 1st ex.s. c 285 § 2; 1973 1st ex.s. c 53 § 12.]

*Reviser's note: RCW 30.04.090 was repealed by 1981 c 89 § 7.

Effective date—1982 c 95: See note following RCW 30.42.070.

30.42.130 Taking possession by supervisor—Reasons—Disposition of deposits—Claims—Priorities. The supervisor may take possession of the office of an alien bank for the reasons stated and in the manner provided in chapter 30.44 RCW. Upon the supervisor taking such possession of a branch, no deposit liabilities of which are insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation, the amounts deposited pursuant to RCW 30.42.120(1) shall thereupon become the property of the supervisor, free and clear of any and all liens and other claims, and shall be held by him in trust for the United States domiciled depositors of the office in this state of such alien bank. Upon obtaining the approval of the superior court of Thurston county, the supervisor shall reduce such deposited capital to cash and as soon as practicable distribute it to such depositors.

If sufficient cash is available, such distribution shall be in equal amounts to each such depositor: Provided, That no such depositor receives more than the amount of his deposit or an amount equal to the maximum amount insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation, whichever is less. If sufficient cash is not available, such distribution shall be on a pro rata basis to each such depositor: Provided, That no such depositor receives more than the maximum amount insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation. If any cash remains after such distribution, it shall be distributed pro rata to those depositors whose deposits have not been paid in full: Provided, That no depositor receives more than the amount of his deposit. For purposes of this section, the term "depositor" shall not include any other offices, subsidiaries or affiliates of such alien bank.

The term "deposit" as used in this section shall mean the unpaid balance of money or its equivalent received or held by the branch in the usual course of its business and for which it has given or is obligated to give credit, either conditionally or unconditionally to a demand, time or savings account, or which is evidenced by its certificate of deposit, or a check or draft drawn against a deposit account and certified by the branch, or a letter of credit or traveler's checks on which the branch is primarily liable.

Claims of depositors and creditors shall be made and disposed of in the manner provided in chapter 30.44 RCW in the event of insolvency or inability of the bank to pay its creditors in this state. The capital deposit of the bank shall be available for claims of depositors and creditors. The claims of depositors and creditors shall be paid from the capital deposit in the following order or priority:

- (1) Claims of depositors not paid from the amounts deposited pursuant to RCW 30.42.120(1);
- (2) Claims of Washington domiciled creditors;
- (3) Other creditors domiciled in the United States; and
- (4) Creditors domiciled in foreign countries.

The supervisor shall proceed in accordance with and have all the powers granted by chapter 30.44 RCW. [1973 1st ex.s. c 53 § 13.]

30.42.140 Investigations—Examinations. The supervisor, deputy supervisor, or a bank examiner, without previous notice, shall visit the office of an alien bank doing business in this state pursuant to this chapter at least once in each year, and more often if necessary, for the purpose of making a full investigation into the condition of such office, and for that purpose they are hereby empowered to administer oaths and to examine under oath any director or member of its governing body, officer, employee, or agent of such alien bank or office. The supervisor shall make such other full or partial examination as he deems necessary. The supervisor shall collect, from each alien bank for each examination of the conditions of its office in this state, the estimated actual cost of such examination. 30.43.010 Definitions. As used in this chapter the term "financial institution" means any bank or trust company established in this state pursuant to Title 12, United States Code, chapter 2, or Title 30 RCW, any mutual savings bank established in this state pursuant to Title 32 RCW, any savings and loan association established in this state pursuant to Title 12, United States Code, chapter 12, or Title 33 RCW, and any credit union established in this state pursuant to Title 12, United States Code, chapter 14 or chapters 31.12 and 31.13 RCW.

As used in this chapter, the term "supervisor" means, if applicable to banks, trust companies, or mutual savings banks, the supervisor of banking and, if applicable to savings and loan associations and credit unions, the supervisor of savings and loan associations, or the National Credit Union Administration in the case of federally chartered credit unions.

As used in this chapter, the term "satellite facility" means an unmanned facility at which transactions, including, but not being limited to account transfers, payments, and instructions for deposits and withdrawals may be conducted and which is not a part of a branch or main office of the financial institution: Provided, That such a facility shall not be construed to be the establishment of a branch: Provided further, That an unmanned facility which is connected to a dispenser of goods or services and that originates or communicates funds transfer instructions for the payment of such goods or services shall not be a "satellite facility." [1986 c 279 § 45; 1979 c 137 § 1; 1974 ex.s. c 166 § 1.]

Severability—1979 c 137: "If any provision of this amendatory act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected." [1979 c 137 § 5.]

30.43.020 Satellite facilities authorized. A financial institution may, subject to the conditions hereof, and with the approval of the appropriate supervisor, provide satellite facilities in addition to its main office and such branches as are authorized by law. The supervisor's approval shall be conditioned on a finding that the public convenience will be served by the proposed satellite facility. A satellite facility may be located anywhere within the state of Washington and, subject to RCW 30.43.045, may be located anywhere outside the state of Washington. [1981 c 83 § 1; 1974 ex.s. c 166 § 2.]

30.43.030 Availability of facility to other commercial banks—Sharing with mutual savings banks, savings and loan associations or credit unions. As a condition to the operation of or the use of any satellite facility in this state, a commercial bank which desires to operate or have its customers able to utilize a satellite facility must agree that such satellite facility will be available for use by customers of any other commercial bank or commercial banks upon the request of said bank or banks to share its use and the agreement of said bank or banks to share all costs in connection with its installation and operation. The owner of the satellite facility, whether a commercial bank or another person (but not a mutual savings bank or savings and loan association or credit union), shall make the satellite facility available for other commercial banks' use on a nondiscriminatory basis, conditioned upon payment of a reasonable proportion of all costs in connection with the satellite facility.

A commercial bank may share a facility with one or more mutual savings banks, one or more savings and loan associations or one or more credit unions. [1979 c 137 § 2; 1974 ex.s. c 166 § 3.]

Severability—1979 c 137: See note following RCW 30.43.010.

30.43.040 Sharing of savings and loan association, mutual savings bank, or credit union facility with other financial institutions. Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 30.43.030, any savings and loan association or mutual savings bank or credit union may agree to share the use of any satellite facility it owns, operates, or uses or which is owned by any entity owned by one or more savings and loan associations or mutual savings banks or credit unions, with any one or more financial institutions, and sharing with one or more commercial banks shall not require sharing with, or making the facility available for use by the customers of, any other commercial bank. [1979 c 137 § 3; 1974 ex.s. c 166 § 4.]

Severability—1979 c 137: See note following RCW 30.43.010.

30.43.045 Satellite facilities outside the state—Availability of satellite facilities within the state for certain financial institutions without offices in the state—

Approval. Subject to the approval of the appropriate supervisor, a financial institution may operate or use satellite facilities located outside the state of Washington, and, subject to the approval of the appropriate supervisor, satellite facilities located within the state of Washington may be made available to banks, trust companies, mutual savings banks, savings and loan associations, and credit unions which do not have offices in this state.

The supervisor's approval shall be conditioned on a finding that the public convenience will be served by the proposed use or operation of the satellite facility. The supervisor shall not grant approval for the use or operation of satellite facilities by banks, trust companies, mutual savings banks, savings and loan associations, and credit unions which do not have offices in this state unless like facilities located in the jurisdiction in which these institutions are organized are made available on a reciprocal basis for the benefit of financial institutions which have offices in this state.

The supervisor's approval of the use or operation of satellite facilities located within the state of Washington by banks, trust companies, mutual savings banks, savings and loan associations, and credit unions which do not have offices in this state is not approval or authority to conduct or transact any other business in this state by these banks, trust companies, mutual savings banks, savings and loan associations, and credit unions which is not otherwise permitted by the laws of this state. [1981 c 83 § 2.]

30.43.050 Antitrust laws—Construction of chapter. If, but for this chapter, any action by any one or more commercial banks, mutual savings banks, savings and loan associations, or credit unions would be in violation of any of the laws of this state or the United States commonly referred to as the antitrust laws, then this chapter shall be construed so as to permit or require only such action as shall not be in violation of such laws. [1979 c 137 § 4; 1974 ex.s. c 166 § 5.]

Severability—1979 c 137: See note following RCW 30.43.010.

30.44.010 Delinquencies, notice to correct—Possession may be taken. Whenever it shall in any manner appear to the supervisor that any bank or trust company has violated any provision of law or is conducting its business in an unsafe manner or that it refuses to submit its books, papers, or concerns to lawful inspection or that any director or officer thereof refuses to submit to examination on oath touching its concerns, or that it has failed to carry out any authorized order or direction of an examiner, the supervisor may give notice to the bank or trust company so offending or delinquent or whose director or officer is thus offending or delinquent to correct such offense or delinquency and if such bank or trust company fails to comply with the terms of such notice within thirty days from the date of its issuance or within such further time as said supervisor may allow, then the supervisor may take possession of such bank or trust company as in case of insolvency. [1955 c 33 § 30.44.010. Prior: 1917 c 80 § 59; 1915 c 98 § 1; RRS § 3266.]

30.44.020 Supervisor may order levy of assessment. Whenever it shall in any manner appear to the supervisor of banking that any offense or delinquency referred to in RCW 30.44.010 renders a bank or trust company in an unsound or unsafe condition to continue its business or that its capital or surplus is reduced or impaired below the amount required by its articles of incorporation or by this title, or that it has suspended payment of its obligations or is insolvent, said supervisor may notify such bank or trust company to levy an assessment on its stock or otherwise to make good such impairment or offense or other delinquency within such time and in such manner as he may specify or if he deems necessary he may take possession thereof without notice.

The board of directors of any such bank or trust company, with the consent of the holders of record of two-thirds of the capital stock expressed either in writing or by vote at a stockholders' meeting called for that purpose, shall have power and authority to levy such assessment upon the stockholders pro rata and to forfeit the stock upon which any such assessment is not paid, in the manner prescribed in RCW 30.12.180. [1955 c 33 § 30.44.020. Prior: 1923 c 115 § 9; 1917 c 80 § 60; RRS § 3267.]

Levy of assessments: RCW 30.12.180.

30.44.030 Supervisor's right to take possession may be contested. Within ten days after the supervisor takes possession thereof, a bank or trust company may serve a notice upon the supervisor to appear before the superior court of the county wherein such corporation is located and at a time to be fixed by said court, which shall not be less than five nor more than fifteen days from the date of the service of such notice, to show cause why such corporation should not be restored to the possession of its assets. Upon the return day of such notice, or such further day as the matter may be continued to, the court shall summarily hear said cause and shall dismiss the same, if it be found that possession was taken by the supervisor in good faith and for cause, but if it find that no cause existed for the taking possession of such corporation, it shall require the supervisor to restore such bank or trust company to possession of its assets and enjoin him from further interference therewith without cause. [1955 c 33 § 30.44.030. Prior: 1917 c 80 § 68; RRS § 3275.]

30.44.040 Notice of taking possession. Upon taking possession of any bank or trust company, the supervisor shall forthwith give written notice thereof to all persons having possession of any assets of such corporation. No person knowing of the taking of such possession by the supervisor shall have a lien or charge for any payment thereafter advanced or clearance thereafter made or liability thereafter incurred against any of the assets of such corporation. [1955 c 33 § 30.44.040. Prior: 1917 c 80 § 61; 1915 c 98 § 2; RRS § 3268.]

30.44.050 Powers and duties of supervisor. Upon taking possession of any bank or trust company, the supervisor shall proceed to collect the assets thereof and to preserve, administer and liquidate the business and assets of such corporation. With the approval of the superior court of the county in which such corporation is located, he may sell, compound or compromise bad or doubtful debts, and upon such terms as the court shall direct borrow, mortgage, pledge or sell all or any part of the real estate and personal property of such corporation. He shall deliver to each purchaser or lender an appropriate deed, mortgage, agreement of pledge or other instrument of title or security. If real estate is situated outside of said county, a certified copy of the orders authorizing and confirming the sale or mortgage thereof shall be filed for record in the office of the auditor of the county in which such property is situated. He may appoint special deputy supervisors and other necessary agents to assist in the administration and liquidation of such corporation, a certificate of such appointment to be filed with the clerk of the county in which such corporation is located. He shall require each special deputy to give a surety company bond, conditioned as he shall provide, the premium of which shall be paid out of the assets of such corporation. He may also employ an attorney for legal assistance in such administration and liquidation. [1955 c 33 § 30.44.050. Prior: 1933 c 42 § 25; 1917 c 80 § 62; 1915 c 98 § 3; RRS § 3269.]

30.44.060 Notice to creditors—Claims. The supervisor shall publish once a week for four consecutive weeks in a newspaper which he shall select, a notice requiring all persons having claims against such corporation to make proof thereof at the place therein specified not later than ninety days from the date of the first publication of said notice, which date shall be therein stated. He shall mail similar notices to all persons whose names appear as creditors upon the books of the corporation. He may approve or reject any claims, but shall serve notice of rejection upon the claimant by mail or personally. An affidavit of service of such notice shall be prima facie evidence thereof. No action shall be brought on any claim after three months from the date of service of notice of rejection.

Claims of depositors may be presented after the expiration of the time fixed in the notice, and, if approved, shall be entitled to their proportion of prior dividends, if there be funds sufficient therefor, and shall share in the distribution of the remaining assets.

After the expiration of the time fixed in the notice the supervisor shall have no power to accept any claim except the claim of a depositor, and all claims except the claims of depositors shall be barred. [1955 c 33 § 30.44.060. Prior: 1923 c 115 § 10; 1917 c 80 § 63; 1915 c 98 § 4; RRS § 3270.]

30.44.070 Inventory—List of claims. Upon taking possession of such corporation, the supervisor shall make an inventory of the assets in duplicate and file one in his office and one in the office of the county clerk. Upon the expiration of the time fixed for the presentation of claims, he shall make a duplicate list of claims presented, segregating those approved and those rejected, to be filed as aforesaid. He shall also make and file a supplemental list of claims at least fifteen days before the declaration of any dividend, and in any event at least every six months. [1955 c 33 § 30.44.070. Prior: 1917 c 80 § 65; 1915 c 98 § 6; RRS § 3272.]

30.44.090 Dividends. At any time after the expiration of the date fixed for the presentation of claims, the supervisor, subject to the approval of the court, may declare one or more dividends out of the funds remaining in his hands after the payment of expenses. [1955 c 33 § 30.44.090. Prior: 1917 c 80 § 66; 1915 c 98 § 7; RRS § 3273.]

30.44.100 Receiver prohibited except in emergency. No receiver shall be appointed by any court for any bank or trust company nor shall any assignment of any bank or trust company for the benefit of creditors be valid, excepting only that a court otherwise having jurisdiction may in case of imminent necessity appoint a temporary receiver to take possession of and preserve the assets of such corporation. Immediately upon any such appointment, the clerk of such court shall notify the supervisor by telegraph and mail of such appointment and the supervisor shall forthwith take possession of such bank or trust company, as in case of insolvency, and such temporary receiver shall upon demand of the supervisor surrender up to him such possession and all assets which shall have come into the hands of such receiver. The supervisor shall in due course pay such receiver out of the assets of such corporation such amount as the court shall allow. [1955 c 33 § 30.44.100. Prior: 1917 c 80 § 69; 1915 c 98 § 9; RRS § 3276.]

30.44.110 Preferences prohibited—Penalty. Every transfer of its property or assets by any bank or trust company in this state, made in contemplation of insolvency, or after it shall have become insolvent, with a view to the preference of one creditor over another, or to prevent the equal distribution of its property and assets among its creditors, shall be void. Every director, officer or employee making any such transfer shall be guilty of a felony. [1955 c 33 § 30.44.110. Prior: 1917 c 80 § 55; RRS § 3262.]

30.44.120 Receiving deposits when insolvent—Penalty. An officer, director or employee of any bank or trust company who shall fraudulently receive for it any deposit, knowing that such bank or trust company is insolvent, shall be guilty of a felony. [1955 c 33 § 30.44.120. Prior: 1933 c 42 § 26; 1917 c 80 § 81; RRS § 3288.]

30.44.130 Expense of liquidation. All expenses incurred by the supervisor in taking possession, administering and winding up any such corporation, including the expenses of deputies and other assistants and reasonable fees for any attorney who may be employed by him in connection therewith, and the reasonable compensation of any special deputy placed in charge of such corporation shall be a first charge upon the assets thereof. Such charges shall be fixed by the supervisor, subject to the approval of the court. [1955 c 33 § 30.44.130. Prior: 1917 c 80 § 64; 1915 c 98 § 5; RRS § 3271.]

30.44.140 Liquidation after claims are paid. When all proper claims of depositors and creditors (not including stockholders) have been paid, as well as all expenses of administration and liquidation and proper provision has been made for unclaimed or unpaid deposits and dividends, and assets still remain in his hands, the supervisor shall call a meeting of the stockholders of such corporation, giving thirty days' notice thereof, by one publication in a newspaper published in the county where such corporation is located. At such meeting, each share shall entitle the holder thereof to a vote in person or by proxy. A vote by ballot shall be taken to determine whether the supervisor shall wind up the affairs of such corporation or the stockholders appoint an agent to do so. The supervisor, if so required, shall wind up such corporation and distribute its assets to those entitled thereto. If the appointment of an agent is determined upon, the stockholders shall forthwith select such agent by ballot. Such agent shall file a bond to the state of Washington in such amount and so conditioned as the supervisor shall require. Thereupon the supervisor shall transfer to such agent the assets of such corporation then remaining in his hands, and be relieved from further responsibility in reference to such corporation. Such agent shall convert the assets of such corporation into cash and distribute the same to the parties thereunto entitled, subject to the supervision of the court. In case of his death, removal or refusal to act, the stockholders may select a successor with like powers. [1955 c 33 § 30.44-.140. Prior: 1917 c 80 § 70; RRS § 3277.]

30.44.150 Unclaimed dividends—Disposition. Any dividends to depositors or other creditors of such bank or trust company remaining uncalled for and unpaid in the hands of the supervisor for six months after order of final distribution, shall be deposited in a bank or trust company to his credit, in trust for the benefit of the persons entitled thereto and subject to the supervision of the court shall be paid by him to them upon receipt of satisfactory evidence of their right thereto.

All moneys so deposited remaining unclaimed for five years after deposit shall escheat to the state for the benefit of the permanent school fund and shall be paid by the supervisor into the state treasury. It shall not be necessary to have the escheat adjudged in a suit or action. [1955 c 33 § 30.44.150. Prior: 1923 c 115 § 11; 1917 c 80 § 71; RRS § 3278.]

30.44.160 Voluntary closing—Notice. Any bank or trust company may place itself under the control of the supervisor to be liquidated as herein provided by posting a notice on its door as follows: "This bank (trust company) is in the hands of the State Supervisor of Banking."

Immediately upon the posting of such notice, the officers of such corporation shall notify the supervisor thereof by telegraph and mail. The posting of such notice or the taking possession of any bank or trust company by the supervisor shall be sufficient to place all of its assets and property of every nature in his possession and bar all attachment proceedings. [1955 c 33 § 30.44-.160. Prior: 1917 c 80 § 72; RRS § 3279.]

30.44.170 Voluntary liquidation—Notice to creditors. Any bank or trust company may, upon receipt of written permission from the supervisor, go into voluntary liquidation by a vote of its stockholders owning two-thirds of its capital stock. When such liquidation is authorized, the directors of such corporation shall publish in a newspaper published in the place where such corporation is located, once a week for four consecutive weeks, a notice requiring creditors of such corporation to present their claims against it for payment. [1955 c 33 § 30.44.170. Prior: 1917 c 80 § 74; RRS § 3281.]

30.44.180 Unclaimed dividends on voluntary liquidation. Whenever any bank or trust company shall voluntarily liquidate, any dividends to depositors or other creditors of such bank or trust company remaining uncalled for and unpaid at the conclusion of the liquidation shall be transmitted to the supervisor and shall be deposited by him in a bank or trust company to his credit in trust for the benefit of the persons entitled thereto, and shall be paid by him to them upon receipt of satisfactory evidence of their right thereto.

All moneys so deposited remaining unclaimed for five years after deposit shall escheat to the state for the benefit of the permanent school fund and shall be paid by the supervisor into the state treasury. It shall not be necessary to have the escheat adjudged in a suit or action. [1955 c 33 § 30.44.180. Prior: 1947 c 148 § 1; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 3281-1.]

30.44.190 Disposition of unclaimed personal property. Whenever any bank or trust company shall be liquidated, voluntarily or involuntarily, and shall retain in its possession at the conclusion of the liquidation, uncalled for and unclaimed personal property left with it for safekeeping, such property shall, in the presence of at least one witness, be inventoried by the liquidating agent and sealed in separate packages, each package plainly marked with the name and last known address of the person in whose name the property stands on the books of the bank or trust company. If the property is in safe deposit boxes, such boxes shall be opened by the liquidating agent in the presence of at least one witness, and the property inventoried, sealed in packages and marked as above required. All the packages shall be transmitted to the supervisor, together with certificates signed by the liquidating agent and witness or witnesses, listing separately the property standing in the name of any one person on the books of the bank or trust company, together with the date of inventory, and name and last known address of the person in whose name the property stands. [1955 c 33 § 30.44.190. Prior: 1947 c 148 § 2; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 3281-2.]

30.44.200 Duty of supervisor—Notice to owner. Upon receiving possession of the packages, the supervisor shall cause them to be opened in the presence of at least one witness, the property reinventoried, and the packages resealed, and held for safekeeping. The liquidated bank, its directors, officers, and shareholders, and the liquidating agent shall thereupon be relieved of responsibility and liability for the property so delivered to and received by the supervisor. The supervisor shall send immediately to each person in whose name the property stood on the books of the liquidated bank or trust company, at his last known address, in a securely closed, postpaid and registered letter, a notice that the property listed will be held in his name for a period of not less than two years. At any time after the mailing of such notice, and before the expiration of two years, such person may require the delivery of the property so held, by properly identifying himself and offering evidence of his right thereto, to the satisfaction of the supervisor. [1955 c 33 § 30.44.200. Prior: 1947 c 148 § 3; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 3281-3.]

30.44.210 Final notice after two years—Sale. After the expiration of two years from the time of mailing the notice, the supervisor shall mail in a securely closed postpaid registered letter, addressed to the person at his last known address, a final notice stating that two years have elapsed since the sending of the notice referred to in RCW 30.44.200, and that the supervisor will sell all the property or articles of value set out in the notice, at a specified time and place, not less than thirty days after the time of mailing the final notice. Unless the person shall, on or before the day mentioned, claim the property, identify himself and offer evidence of his right thereto, to the satisfaction of the supervisor, the supervisor may sell all the property or articles of value listed in the notice, at public auction, at the time and place stated in the final notice: Provided, That a notice of the time and place of sale has been published once within ten days prior to the sale in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the sale is held. Any such property held by the supervisor, the owner of which is not known, may be sold at public auction after it has been held by the supervisor for two years, provided, that a notice of the time and place of sale has been published once within ten days prior to the sale in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the sale is held. [1985 c 469 § 15; 1955 c 33 § 30.44.210. Prior: 1947 c 148 § 4; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 3281-4.]

30.44.220 Disposition of proceeds—Escheat. The proceeds of such sale shall be deposited by the supervisor in a bank or trust company to his credit, in trust for the benefit of the person entitled thereto, and shall be paid by him to such person upon receipt of satisfactory evidence of his right thereto.

All moneys so deposited remaining unclaimed for five years after deposit shall escheat to the state for the benefit of the permanent school fund and shall be paid by the supervisor into the state treasury. It shall not be necessary to have the escheat adjudged in a suit or action. [1955 c 33 § 30.44.220. Prior: 1947 c 148 § 5; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 3281-5.]

30.44.230 Procedure as to papers, documents, etc. Whenever the personal property held by a liquidated bank or trust company shall consist either wholly or in part, of documents, letters, or other papers of a private nature, such documents, letters, or papers shall not be sold, but shall be retained by the supervisor for a period of five years, and, unless sooner claimed by the owner, may be thereafter destroyed in the presence of the supervisor and at least one other witness. [1955 c 33 § 30.44.230. Prior: 1947 c 148 § 6; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 3281-6.]

30.44.240 Transfer of assets and liabilities to another bank or trust company. A bank or trust company may for the purpose of voluntary liquidation transfer its assets and liabilities to another bank or trust company, by a vote, or with the written consent of the stockholders of record owning two-thirds of its capital stock, but only with the written consent of the supervisor and upon such terms and conditions as he may prescribe. Upon any such transfer being made, or upon the liquidation of any such corporation for any cause whatever or upon its being no longer engaged in the business of a bank or trust company, the supervisor shall terminate its certificate of authority, which shall not thereafter be revived or renewed. When the certificate of authority of any such corporation shall have been revoked, it shall forthwith collect and distribute its remaining assets, and when that is done the supervisor shall certify the fact to the secretary of state, whereupon the corporation shall cease to exist and the secretary of state shall note that fact upon his records. [1955 c 33 § 30.44.240. Prior: 1953 c 236 § 1; 1923 c 115 § 12; 1919 c 209 § 17; 1917 c 80 § 75; RRS § 3282.]

30.44.250 Reopening. Whenever the supervisor has taken possession of a bank or trust company for any cause, he may wind up such corporation and cancel its certificate of authority, unless enjoined from so doing, as herein provided. Or if at any time within ninety days after taking possession, he shall determine that all impairment and delinquencies have been made good, and that it is safe and expedient for such corporation to reopen, he may permit such corporation to reopen upon such terms and conditions as he shall prescribe. Before being permitted to reopen, every such corporation shall pay all of the expenses of the supervisor, as herein elsewhere defined. [1955 c 33 § 30.44.250. Prior: 1917 c 80 § 73; RRS § 3280.]

30.44.260 Destruction of records after liquidation. Where any files, records, documents, books of account or other papers have been taken over and are in the possession of the supervisor in connection with the liquidation of any insolvent banks or trust companies under the laws of this state, the supervisor may, in his discretion at any time after the expiration of one year from the declaration of the final dividend, or from the date when such liquidation has been entirely completed, destroy any of the files, records, documents, books of account or other papers which may appear to the supervisor to be obsolete or unnecessary for future reference as part of the liquidation and files of his office. [1955 c 33 § 30.44.260. Prior: 1925 ex.s. c 55 § 1; RRS § 3277-1.]

30.44.270 Federal deposit insurance corporation as receiver or liquidator—Appointment—Powers and duties. The federal deposit insurance corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to be and act without bond as receiver or liquidator of any bank or trust company the deposits in which are to any extent insured by that corporation and which shall have been closed on account of inability to meet the demands of its depositors. In the event of such closing, the supervisor of banking may appoint the federal deposit insurance corporation as receiver or liquidator of such bank or trust company. If the corporation accepts such appointment, it shall have and possess all the powers and privileges provided by the laws of this state with respect to a liquidator of a bank or trust company, its depositors and other creditors, and be subject to all the duties of such liquidator, except insofar as such powers, privileges, or duties are in conflict with the provisions of the federal deposit insurance act, as now or hereafter amended. [1973 1st ex.s. c 54 § 1.]

30.44.280 Payment or acquisition of deposit liabilities by federal deposit insurance corporation—Not hindered by judicial review—Liability. The pendency of any proceedings for judicial review of the supervisor's actions in taking possession and control of a bank or trust company and its assets for the purpose of liquidation shall not operate to defer, delay, impede, or prevent the payment or acquisition by the federal deposit insurance corporation of the deposit liabilities of the bank or trust company which are insured by the corporation. During the pendency of any proceedings for judicial review, the supervisor of banking shall make available to the federal deposit insurance corporation such facilities in or of the bank or trust company and such books, records, and other relevant data of the bank or trust company as may be necessary or appropriate to enable the corporation to pay out or to acquire the insured deposit liabilities of the bank or trust company. The federal deposit insurance corporation and its directors, officers, agents, and employees, the supervisor of banking, and his agents and employees shall be free from liability to the bank or trust company, its directors, stockholders, and creditors for or on account of any action taken in connection herewith. [1973 1st ex.s. c 54 § 2.]

30.46.010 Definitions. For the purposes of this chapter the following terms shall be defined as follows:

(1) "Unsafe condition" shall mean and include, but not be limited to, any one or more of the following circumstances:

(a) If a bank's capital is impaired or impairment of capital is threatened;

(b) If a bank violates the provisions of Title 30 RCW or any other law or regulation applicable to banks;

(c) If a bank conducts a fraudulent or questionable practice in the conduct of its business that endangers the bank's reputation or threatens its solvency;

(d) If a bank conducts its business in an unsafe or unauthorized manner;

(e) If a bank violates any conditions of its charter or any agreement entered with the supervisor; or

(f) If a bank fails to carry out any authorized order or direction of the bank examiner or the supervisor.

(2) "Exceeded its powers" shall mean and include, but not be limited to the following circumstances:

(a) If a bank has refused to permit examination of its books, papers, accounts, records, or affairs by the supervisor, his deputy or duly commissioned examiners; or

(b) If a bank has neglected or refused to observe an order of the supervisor to make good, within the time prescribed, any impairment of its capital.

(3) "Consent" includes and means a written agreement by the bank to either supervisory direction or conservatorship under this chapter. [1975 1st ex.s. c 87 § 1.]

30.46.020 Grounds for determining need for supervisory direction—Abatement of determination—Supervisory direction, procedure—Conservator. If upon examination or at any other time it appears to the supervisor that any bank is in an unsafe condition and its condition is such as to render the continuance of its business hazardous to the public or to its depositors and creditors, or if such bank appears to have exceeded its powers or has failed to comply with the law, or if such bank gives its consent, then the supervisor shall upon his determination (1) notify the bank of his determination, and (2) furnish to the bank a written list of the supervisory requirements to abate his determination, and (3) if the supervisor makes further determination to directly supervise, he shall notify the bank that it is under the supervisory direction of the supervisor and that the supervisor is invoking the provisions of this chapter. If placed under supervisory direction the bank shall comply with the lawful requirements of the supervisor within such time as provided in the notice of the supervisor, subject however, to the provisions of this chapter. If the bank fails to comply within such time the supervisor may appoint a conservator as hereafter provided. [1975 1st ex.s. c 87 § 2.]

30.46.030 Supervisory direction—Appointment of representative to supervise—Restrictions on operations. During the period of supervisory direction the supervisor may appoint a representative to supervise such bank and may provide that the bank may not do any of the following during the period of supervisory direction, without the prior approval of the supervisor or the appointed representative.

- (1) Dispose of, convey or encumber any of the assets;
- (2) Withdraw any of its bank accounts;
- (3) Lend any of its funds;
- (4) Invest any of its funds;
- (5) Transfer any of its property; or
- (6) Incur any debt, obligation, or liability. [1975 1st ex.s. c 87 § 3.]

30.46.040 Conservator—Appointment—Grounds—Powers, duties, and functions. After the period of supervisory direction specified by the supervisor for compliance, if he determines that such bank has failed to comply with the lawful requirements imposed, upon due notice and hearing or by consent of the bank, the supervisor may appoint a conservator, who shall immediately take charge of such bank and all of its property, books, records, and effects. The conservator shall conduct the business of the bank and take such steps toward the removal of the causes and conditions which have necessitated such order, as the supervisor may direct. During the pendency of the conservatorship the conservator shall make such reports to the supervisor from time to time as may be required by the supervisor, and shall be empowered to take all necessary measures to preserve, protect, and recover any assets or property of such bank, including claims or causes of actions belonging to or which may be asserted by such bank, and to deal with the same in his own name as conservator, and shall be empowered to file, prosecute, and defend any suit and suits which have been filed or which may thereafter be filed by or against such bank which are deemed by the conservator to be necessary to protect all of the interested parties for a property affected thereby. The supervisor, or any newly appointed deputy, may be appointed to serve as conservator. If the supervisor, however, is satisfied that such bank is not in condition to continue business in the interest of its depositors or creditors under the conservator as above provided, the supervisor may proceed with appropriate remedies provided by other provisions of this title. [1975 1st ex.s. c 87 § 4.]

30.46.050 Costs as charge against bank's assets. All costs incident to supervisory direction and the conservatorship shall be fixed and determined by the supervisor and shall be a charge against the assets of the bank to be allowed and paid as the supervisor may determine. [1975 1st ex.s. c 87 § 5.]

30.46.060 Request for review of action—Stay of action—Orders subject to review. During the period of the supervisory direction and during the period of conservatorship, the bank may request the supervisor to review an action taken or proposed to be taken by the representative or conservator; specifying wherein the action complained of is believed not to be in the best interest of the bank, and such request shall stay the action specified pending review of such action by the supervisor. Any order entered by the supervisor appointing a representative and providing that the bank shall not do certain acts as provided in RCW 30.46.030 and 30.46-.040, any order entered by the supervisor appointing a conservator, and any order by the supervisor following the review of an action of the representative or conservator as herein above provided shall be subject to review in accordance with the administrative procedure act of the state of Washington. [1975 1st ex.s. c 87 § 6.]

30.46.070 Suits against bank or conservator, where brought—Suits by conservator. Any suit filed against a bank or its conservator, after the entrance of an order by the supervisor placing such bank in conservatorship and while such order is in effect, shall be brought in the superior court of Thurston county and not elsewhere. The conservator appointed hereunder for such bank may file suit in any superior court or other court of competent jurisdiction against any person for the purpose of preserving, protecting, or recovering any asset or property of such bank including claims or causes of action belonging to or which may be asserted by such bank. [1975 1st ex.s. c 87 § 7.]

30.46.080 Duration of conservator's term—Rehabilitated banks—Management. The conservator shall serve for such time as is necessary to accomplish the purposes of the conservatorship as intended by this chapter. If rehabilitated, the rehabilitated bank shall be returned to management or new managements under such conditions as are reasonable and necessary to prevent recurrence of the condition which occasioned the conservatorship. [1975 1st ex.s. c 87 § 8.]

30.46.090 Authority of supervisor. If the supervisor determines to act under authority of this chapter, the sequence of his acts and proceedings shall be as set forth in this chapter. However, it is the purpose and substance of this chapter to authorize administrative discretion—to allow the supervisor administrative discretion in the event of unsound banking operations—and in furtherance of that purpose the supervisor is hereby authorized to proceed with regulation either under this chapter or under any other applicable provisions of law or under this chapter in connection with other law, either as such law is now existing or is hereinafter enacted, and it is so provided. [1975 1st ex.s. c 87 § 9.]

30.46.100 Rules and regulations. The supervisor is empowered to adopt and promulgate such reasonable rules and regulations as may be necessary for the implementation of this chapter and its purposes. [1975 1st ex.s. c 87 § 10.]

30.49.010 Definitions. As used in this chapter:

"Merging bank" means a party to a merger;

"Converting bank" means a bank converting from a state to a national bank, or the reverse;

"Merger" includes consolidation;

"Resulting bank" means the bank resulting from a merger or conversion.

Wherever reference is made to a vote of stockholders or a vote of classes of stockholders it shall mean only a vote of those entitled to vote under the terms of such shares. [1986 c 279 § 43; 1955 c 33 § 30.49.010. Prior: 1953 c 234 § 1.]

30.49.020 State bank to resulting national bank—Laws applicable—Vote required—Termination of franchise. This section is applicable where there is to be a resulting national bank.

Nothing in the law of this state shall restrict the right of a state bank to merge with or convert into a resulting national bank. The action to be taken by such merging or converting state bank and its rights and liabilities and those of its shareholders shall be the same as those prescribed at the time of the action for national banks merging with or converting into a resulting state bank by the law of the United States, and not by the law of this state, except that a vote of the holders of two-thirds of each class of voting stock of a state bank shall be required for the merger or conversion, and that on conversion by a state into a national bank the rights of dissenting stockholders shall be those specified in RCW 30.49.090.

Upon the completion of the merger or conversion, the franchise of any merging or converting state bank shall automatically terminate. [1955 c 33 § 30.49.020. Prior: 1953 c 234 § 2.]

30.49.030 State or national bank to resulting state bank—Law applicable to nationals. This section is applicable where there is to be a resulting state bank.

Upon approval by the supervisor of banking, state or national banks may be merged to result in a state bank, or a national bank may convert into a state bank as hereafter prescribed, except that the action by a national bank shall be taken in the manner prescribed by and shall be subject to limitations and requirements imposed by the law of the United States which shall also govern the rights of its dissenting shareholders. [1955 c 33 § 30.49.030. Prior: 1953 c 234 § 3.]

30.49.040 Merger to resulting state bank—Exception—Agreement, contents, approval, amendment. This section is applicable where there is to be a resulting state bank, except in the case of reorganization and exchange as authorized by this title.

(1) The board of directors of each merging state bank shall, by a majority of the entire board, approve a merger agreement which shall contain:

(a) The name of each merging state or national bank and location of each office;

(b) With respect to the resulting state bank, (i) the name and location of the principal and other offices; (ii) the name and mailing address of each director to serve until the next annual meeting of the stockholders; (iii) the name and mailing address of each officer; (iv) the amount of capital, the number of shares and the par value, if any, of each share; and (v) the amendments to its charters and bylaws;

(c) Provisions governing the exchange of shares of the merging state or national banks for such consideration as has been agreed to in the merger agreement;

(d) A statement that the agreement is subject to approval by the supervisor of banking and the stockholders of each merging state or national bank;

(e) Provisions governing the manner of disposing of the shares of the resulting state bank if such shares are to be issued in the transaction and are not taken by dissenting shareholders of merging state or national banks;

(f) Such other provisions as the supervisor of banking requires to discharge his or her duties with respect to the merger;

(2) After approval by the board of directors of each merging state bank, the merger agreement shall be submitted to the supervisor of banking for approval, together with certified copies of the authorizing resolutions of each board of directors showing approval by a majority of the entire board and evidence of proper action by the board of directors of any merging national bank;

(3) Within sixty days after receipt by the supervisor of banking of the papers specified in subsection (2) of this section, the supervisor of banking shall approve or disapprove of the merger agreement, and if no action is taken, the agreement shall be deemed approved. The supervisor of banking shall approve the agreement if it appears that:

(a) The resulting state bank meets the requirements of state law as to the formation of a new state bank;

(b) The agreement provides an adequate capital structure including surplus in relation to the deposit liabilities of the resulting state bank and its other activities which are to continue or are to be undertaken;

(c) The agreement is fair;

(d) The merger is not contrary to the public interest.

If the supervisor of banking disapproves an agreement, he or she shall state his or her objections and give an opportunity to the merging state or national banks to amend the merger agreement to obviate such objections. [1986 c 279 § 49; 1982 c 196 § 9; 1955 c 33 § 30.49-.040. Prior: 1953 c 234 § 4.]

Severability—1982 c 196: See note following RCW 30.04.550.

Reorganization as subsidiary of bank holding company: RCW 30.04-.550 through 30.04.570.

30.49.050 Merger to resulting state bank—Stockholders' vote—Notice of meeting—Waiver of notice. To be effective, a merger which is to result in a state bank must be approved by the stockholders of each merging state bank by a vote of two-thirds of the outstanding voting stock of each class at a meeting called to consider such action, which vote shall constitute the adoption of the charter and bylaws of the resulting state bank, including the amendments in the merger agreement.

Unless waived in writing, notice of the meeting of stockholders shall be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the place where the principal office of each merging state bank is located, at least once each week for four successive weeks, and by mail, at least fifteen days before the date of the meeting, to each stockholder of record of each merging state bank at his address on the books of his bank; no notice of publication need be given if written waivers are received from the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of each class of stock. The notice shall state that dissenting stockholders will be entitled to payment of the value of only those shares which are voted against approval of the plan. [1955 c 33 § 30.49.050. Prior: 1953 c 234 § 5.]

30.49.060 Merger to resulting state bank—Effective date—Termination of charters—Certificate of merger. A merger which is to result in a state bank shall, unless a later date is specified in the agreement, become effective after the filing with and upon the approval of the supervisor of banking of the executed agreement together with copies of the resolutions of the stockholders of each merging state or national bank approving it, certified by the bank's president or a vice president and a secretary. The charters of the merging banks, other than the resulting bank, shall thereupon automatically terminate.

The supervisor of banking shall thereupon issue to the resulting state bank a certificate of merger specifying the name of each merging state or national bank and the name of the resulting state bank. Such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the merger and of the correctness of all proceedings therefor in all courts and places, and may be recorded in any office for the recording of deeds to evidence the new name in which the property of the merging state or national bank is held. [1955 c 33 § 30.49.060. Prior: 1953 c 234 § 6.]

30.49.070 Conversion of national to state bank—Requirements—Procedure. Except as provided in RCW 30.49.100, a national bank located in this state which follows the procedure prescribed by the laws of the United States to convert into a state bank shall be granted a state charter by the supervisor of banking if he finds that the bank meets the standards as to location of offices, capital structures, and business experience and character of officers and directors for the incorporation of a state bank.

The national bank may apply for such charter by filing with the supervisor of banking a certificate signed by its president and cashier and by a majority of the entire board of directors, setting forth the corporate action taken in compliance with the provisions of the laws of the United States governing the conversion of a national to a state bank, and the articles of incorporation, approved by the stockholders, for the government of the bank as a state bank. [1955 c 33 § 30.49.070. Prior: 1953 c 234 § 7.]

30.49.080 Resulting bank as same business and corporate entity—Use of name of merging, converting bank. A resulting state or national bank shall be the same business and corporate entity as each merging state or national bank or as the converting state or national bank with all property, rights, powers and duties of each merging state or national bank or the converting state or national bank, except as affected by the state law in the case of a resulting state bank or the federal law in the case of a resulting national bank, and by the charter and bylaws of the resulting state or national bank.

A resulting state or national bank shall have the right to use the name of any merging state or national bank or of the converting bank whenever it can do any act under such name more conveniently.

Any reference to a merging or converting state or national bank in any writing, whether executed or taking effect before or after the merger or conversion, shall be deemed a reference to the resulting state or national bank if not inconsistent with the other provisions of such writing. [1955 c 33 § 30.49.080. Prior: 1953 c 234 § 8.]

30.49.090 Rights of dissenting shareholder—Appraisal—Amount due as debt. The owner of shares of a state bank which were voted against a merger to result in a state bank, or against the conversion of a state bank into a national bank, shall be entitled to receive their value in cash, if and when the merger or conversion becomes effective, upon written demand made to the resulting state or national bank at any time within thirty days after the effective date of the merger or conversion, accompanied by the surrender of the stock certificates. The value of such shares shall be determined, as of the date of the shareholders' meeting approving the merger or conversion, by three appraisers, one to be selected by the owners of two-thirds of the dissenting shares, one by the board of directors of the resulting state or national bank, and the third by the two so chosen. The valuation agreed upon by any two appraisers shall govern. If the appraisal is not completed within ninety days after the merger or conversion becomes effective, the supervisor of banking shall cause an appraisal to be made.

The expenses of appraisal shall be paid by the resulting state bank.

The resulting state or national bank may fix an amount which it considers to be not more than the fair market value of the shares of a merging or the converting bank at the time of the stockholders' meeting approving the merger or conversion, which it will pay dissenting shareholders of the bank entitled to payment in cash. The amount due under such accepted offer or under the appraisal shall constitute a debt of the resulting state or national bank. [1955 c 33 § 30.49.090. Prior: 1953 c 234 § 9.]

30.49.100 Provision for successors to fiduciary positions. Where a resulting state bank is not to exercise trust powers, the supervisor of banking shall not approve a merger or conversion until satisfied that adequate provision has been made for successors to fiduciary positions held by the merging state or national banks or the converting state or national bank. [1955 c 33 § 30.49.100. Prior: 1953 c 234 § 10.]

30.49.110 Assets, business—Time for conformance with state law. If a merging or converting state or national bank has assets which do not conform to the requirements of state law for the resulting state bank or carries on business activities which are not permitted for the resulting state bank, the supervisor of banking may permit a reasonable time to conform with state law. [1955 c 33 § 30.49.110. Prior: 1953 c 234 § 11.]

30.49.120 Resulting state bank—Valuation of certain assets limited. Without approval by the supervisor of banking no asset shall be carried on the books of the resulting state bank at a valuation higher than that on the books of the merging or converting state or national bank at the time of its last examination by a state or national bank examiner before the effective date of the merger or conversion. [1955 c 33 § 30.49.120. Prior: 1953 c 234 § 12.]

30.49.130 Severability—1955 c 33. If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of the chapter are declared to be severable. The invalidity of any provision as to a national bank or as to the stockholders of a national bank shall not affect its validity as to a state bank or as to the stockholders of a state bank. [1955 c 33 § 30.49.130. Prior: 1953 c 234 § 13.]

30.56.090	New bank may be authorized.
30.56.100	Chapter designated "bank stabilization act".

30.56.010 "Bank" and "directors" defined. In this chapter the word "bank" includes savings banks, mutual savings banks, and trust companies, and "directors" shall include trustees. [1955 c 33 § 30.56.010. Prior: 1933 c 49 § 2; RRS § 3293-2.]

30.56.020 Postponement of payments on deposits—Order—Posting. The supervisor of banking is hereby empowered, upon the written application of the directors of a bank, if in his judgment the circumstances warrant it, to authorize a bank to postpone, for a period of ninety days and for such further period or periods as he may deem expedient, the payment of such proportions or amounts of the demands of its depositors from time to time as he may deem necessary. The period or periods of postponement and the proportions or amounts of the demands to be deferred shall be determined by him according to the ability of the bank to pay withdrawals. By the regulations prescribed for deferred payments, the supervisor may classify accounts and limit payments to depositors of the several classes differently. The supervisor's orders, regulations and directions shall be in writing and be filed in his office, and copies thereof shall be delivered to the bank and be forthwith posted in a conspicuous place in the banking room. [1955 c 33 § 30.56.020. Prior: 1933 c 49 § 2; RRS § 3293-2.]

30.56.030 Business during postponement. During postponement of payments the bank shall remain open for business and be in charge of its officers, but shall not make any loans, investments or expenditures except such as the supervisor will approve as necessary to conserve its assets and pay the cost of operation. The bank's failure during a period of postponement to repay deposits existing at the commencement of the period, shall not authorize or require the supervisor to take charge of or liquidate the bank, nor constitute ground for the appointment of a receiver. [1955 c 33 § 30.56.030. Prior: 1933 c 49 § 3; RRS § 3293-3.]

30.56.040 Deposits received during postponement. Deposits received during a period of postponement and for sixty days thereafter shall be kept separate from other assets of the bank, shall not draw interest, shall not be loaned or invested except by depositing with reserve banks or investing in liquid securities approved by the supervisor, and shall be withdrawable upon demand. If during a postponement of payments, or at the expiration thereof, the supervisor shall take charge of the bank for liquidation, deposits made during the period of postponement shall be deemed trust funds and be repaid to the depositors forthwith. [1955 c 33 § 30.56.040. Prior: 1933 c 49 § 4; RRS § 3293-4.]

may propose a plan for its reorganization, if in his judgment it would be for the best interests of the bank's creditors and of the community which the bank serves. The plan may contemplate such temporary ratable reductions of the demands of depositors and other creditors as would leave its reserve adequate and its capital and surplus unimpaired after the charging off of bad and doubtful debts; and also may contemplate a postponement of payments as in a case falling within RCW 30.56.020. The plan shall be fully described in a writing, the original of which shall be filed in the office of the supervisor and several copies of which shall be furnished the bank, where one or more copies shall be kept available for inspection by stockholders, depositors and other creditors. [1955 c 33 § 30.56.050. Prior: 1933 c 49 § 5; RRS § 3293-5.]

30.56.060 Approval of plan—Unsecured claims. If, within ninety days after the filing of the plan, creditors having unsecured demands against the bank aggregating not less than three-fourths of the amount of the unsecured demands of all its creditors, approved the plan, the supervisor shall have power to declare the plan to be in effect. Thereupon the unsecured demands of creditors shall be ratably reduced according to the plan and appropriate debits shall be made in the books. The right of a secured creditor to enforce his security shall not be affected by the operation of the plan, but the amount of any deficiency to which he may be entitled shall be reduced as unsecured demands were reduced. If the plan contemplates a temporary postponement of payments, RCW 30.56.020, 30.56.030 and 30.56.040 shall be applicable, and the bank shall comply therewith and conduct its affairs accordingly. [1955 c 33 § 30.56.060. Prior: 1933 c 49 § 6; RRS § 3293-6.]

30.56.070 No dividends until reductions paid. A bank for which such a plan has been put into effect shall not declare or pay a dividend or distribute any of its assets among stockholders until there shall have been set aside for and credited ratably to the creditors whose demands were reduced an amount equal to the aggregate of the reductions. [1955 c 33 § 30.56.070. Prior: 1933 c 49 § 7; RRS 3293-7.]

30.56.080 Failure to pay in excess of plan, effect. The failure of a bank operating under such a plan to pay to a creditor at any time a sum greater than the plan then requires, shall not constitute a default nor authorize or require the supervisor to take charge of or liquidate the bank nor entitle the creditor to maintain an action against the bank. [1955 c 33 § 30.56.080. Prior: 1933 c 49 § 8; RRS 3293-8.]

30.56.090 New bank may be authorized. If the net assets of a bank operating under such a plan are sufficient to provide the capital and surplus of a newly organized bank in the same place, the supervisor, under such reasonable conditions as he shall prescribe, may approve the incorporation of a new bank and permit it to take over the assets and business and assume the liabilities of the existing bank. [1955 c 33 § 30.56.090. Prior: 1933 c 49 § 9; RRS § 3293-9.]

30.56.100 Chapter designated "bank stabilization act". This chapter shall be known as the bank stabilization act. [1955 c 33 § 30.56.100. Prior: 1933 c 49 § 1; RRS § 3293-1.]

30.60.010 Examinations—Investigation and assessment of performance record in meeting community credit needs. (1) In conducting an examination of a bank chartered under Title 30 RCW, the supervisor of banking, deputy supervisor, or examiner shall investigate and assess the record of performance of the bank in meeting the credit needs of the bank's entire community, including low and moderate-income neighborhoods. The supervisor shall accept, in lieu of an investigation or part of an investigation required by this section, any report or document that the bank is required to prepare or file with one or more federal agencies by the act of Congress entitled the "Community Reinvestment Act of 1977" and the regulations promulgated in accordance with that act, to the extent such reports or documents assist the supervisor in making an assessment based upon the factors outlined in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) In making an investigation required under subsection (1) of this section, the supervisor shall consider, independent of any federal determination, the following factors in assessing the bank's record of performance:

(a) Activities conducted by the institution to ascertain credit needs of its community, including the extent of the institution's efforts to communicate with members of its community regarding the credit services being provided by the institution;

(b) The extent of the institution's marketing and special credit related programs to make members of the community aware of the credit services offered by the institution;

(c) The extent of participation by the institution's board of directors in formulating the institution's policies and reviewing its performance with respect to the purposes of the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977;

(d) Any practices intended to discourage applications for types of credit set forth in the institution's community reinvestment act statement(s);

(e) The geographic distribution of the institution's credit extensions, credit applications, and credit denials;

(f) Evidence of prohibited discriminatory or other illegal credit practices;

(g) The institution's record of opening and closing of offices and providing services at offices;

(h) The institution's participation, including investments, in local community development projects;

(i) The institution's origination of residential mortgage loans, housing rehabilitation loans, home improvement loans, and small business or small farm loans within its community, or the purchase of such loans originated in its community;

(j) The institution's participation in governmentally insured, guaranteed, or subsidized loan programs for housing, small businesses, or small farms;

(k) The institution's ability to meet various community credit needs based on its financial condition, size, legal impediments, local economic condition, and other factors;

(l) Other factors that, in the judgment of the supervisor, reasonably bear upon the extent to which an institution is helping to meet the credit needs of its entire community.

(3) The supervisor shall include as part of the examination report, a summary of the results of the assessment required under subsection (1) of this section and shall assign annually to each bank a numerical community reinvestment rating based on a one through five scoring system. Such numerical scores shall represent performance assessments as follows:

- |                               |   |
|-------------------------------|---|
| (a) Excellent performance:    | 1 |
| (b) Good performance:         | 2 |
| (c) Satisfactory performance: | 3 |
| (d) Inadequate performance:   | 4 |
| (e) Poor performance:         | 5 |

[1985 c 329 § 2.]

Legislative intent—1985 c 329: "The legislature believes that commercial banks and savings banks doing business in Washington state have a responsibility to meet the credit needs of the businesses and communities of Washington state, consistent with safe and sound business practices and the free exercise of management discretion.

This act is intended to provide the supervisor of banking and the supervisor of savings and loan associations with the information necessary to enable the supervisors to better determine whether commercial banks, savings banks, and savings and loan associations are meeting the convenience and needs of the public.

This act is further intended to condition the approval of any application by a commercial bank, savings bank, or savings and loan association for a new branch or satellite facility, for an acquisition, merger, conversion, or purchase of assets of another institution not required for solvency reasons, or for the exercise of any new power upon proof that the applicant is satisfactorily meeting the convenience and needs of its community or communities." [1985 c 329 § 1.] "This act" consists of the enactment of RCW 30.04.212, 30.04.214, 30.60.010, 30.60.020, 30.60.030, 30.60.900, 30.60.901, 32.40.010, 32.40.020, and 32.40.030 and this section and the 1985 c 329 amendment to RCW 30.04.210.

30.60.020 Approval and disapproval of applications—Consideration of performance record in meeting community credit needs. Whenever the supervisor of banking must approve or disapprove of an application for a new branch or satellite facility; for a purchase of assets, a merger, an acquisition or a conversion not required for solvency reasons; or for authority to engage in a business activity, the supervisor shall consider, among other factors, the record of performance of the applicant in helping to meet the credit needs of the applicant's entire community, including low and moderate-income neighborhoods. Assessment of an applicant's record of performance may be the basis for denying an application. [1985 c 329 § 3.]

30.60.030 Adoption of rules. The supervisor of banking shall adopt all rules necessary to implement *sections 2 through 6 of this act by January 1, 1986. [1985 c 329 § 7.]

*Reviser's note: "Sections 2 through 6 of this act" consist of the enactment of RCW 30.60.010, 30.60.020, 30.04.212, and 30.04.214 and the 1985 c 329 amendment to RCW 30.04.210.

30.60.900 Severability—1985 c 329. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1985 c 329 § 11.]

30.60.901 Effective date—1985 c 329. This act shall take effect on January 1, 1986, but the supervisor of banking and the supervisor of savings and loans may immediately take such steps as are necessary to ensure that this act is implemented on its effective date. [1985 c 329 § 13.]

31.04.060 Capital to be paid in cash. Before the articles of incorporation of any corporation, incorporated under the provisions of this chapter, are filed, there must be paid in cash for the benefit of the corporation to a treasurer selected by the subscribers, not less than twenty-five percent of the amount of the capital stock. Not less than one-twelfth of the balance of the capital stock shall be paid in cash to the corporation within thirty days from the date of incorporation and each thirty days thereafter until fully paid. No corporation organized hereunder shall expend for a plan of operation, organization expense and the sale of its capital stock an amount in excess of ten percent of the paid-in capital stock. chapter. When so satisfied and within ninety days after the date upon which such proposed articles of incorporation were filed with him for examination, but in no case after the expiration of that period, the supervisor of banking shall issue under his hand and official seal, in triplicate, a certificate of authority for such corporation. The certificate shall state that the corporation therein named has complied with the requirements of law, that it is authorized to transact at the place designated in its articles of incorporation, the business of an industrial loan company. (2) Any industrial loan company may increase or decrease its capital stock or otherwise amend its articles of incorporation, in any manner not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, by a vote of the stockholders representing two-thirds of its capital at any regular meeting, or special meeting called for that purpose in the manner prescribed by its bylaws: Provided, That notice of a meeting to increase or decrease capital stock shall first be published once a week for four weekly issues in a newspaper published in the place in which such corporation is located, or if there be no newspaper published in such place, then in some newspaper published in the same county. The notice shall state the purpose of the meeting, the amount of the present capital of the industrial loan company and the proposed new capital. A certificate of the fact and the terms of the amendment shall be executed by a majority of the directors and filed as required herein for articles of incorporation. No increase of capital stock shall be valid until twenty-five percent of the amount thereof shall have been subscribed and actually paid in and a certificate of increase received from the supervisor of banking. Not less than one-twelfth of the balance of the authorized increase shall be paid in cash to the corporation within thirty days from the date the increase is authorized, and each thirty days thereafter until fully paid. No reduction of the capital stock shall be made to an amount less than is required for capital, nor be valid, nor warrant the cancellation of stock certificates until such reduction has been approved by said supervisor of banking. [1941 c 19 § 2; 1939 c 95 § 3; 1925 ex.s. c 186 § 3; 1923 c 172 § 7; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 3862-7.]

31.04.090 Corporate powers. Every corporation under the provisions of this chapter shall have power:

(1) To lend money and to deduct interest therefor in advance at the rate of ten percent per annum, or less; however, for any loan with a term in excess of two years, interest may be calculated by the simple interest method at a rate which does not exceed twenty-five percent per annum.

(2) To agree with the borrower for the payment of an aggregate amount for expenses incurred and services rendered in connection with the investigation of the character and circumstances of the borrower and the security offered in connection with his loan, and for servicing and maintaining the said loan and security, which amount shall not in any event exceed an initial charge of two dollars on a loan under one hundred dollars or a maximum of two percent of any loan of one hundred dollars or more, and which initial charge may be deducted from said loan in advance, and a charge of fifty cents per month to be collected monthly during the actual period that said loan or any part thereof remain unpaid.

(3) To require the borrower to purchase simultaneously with the loan transaction, or otherwise, and pledge as security therefor, an investment certificate of the character described in subsection (4) of this section, in an amount equal to the amount of the note. No additional charge shall be made except to reimburse the corporation for money actually expended to any public officer for filing and recording any instrument securing such loan or in connection therewith. No charge shall be collected unless a loan shall have been made, except for reasonable fees properly incurred in connection with appraisal of security offered by a potential borrower. In connection with appraisal of property, the borrower may select a qualified appraiser subject to approval of lender. The borrower shall not be obligated to pay the appraisal fee if the loan application is rejected.

Interest and usury in general: Chapter 19.52 RCW.

31.04.095 Open-end loans. (1) As used in this section, "open-end loan" means an agreement between an industrial loan company and a borrower which expressly states that the loan is made in accordance with this chapter and which provides that:

(a) The company may permit the borrower to obtain advances of money from the company from time to time, or the company may advance money on behalf of the borrower from time to time as directed by the borrower;

(b) The amount of each advance and permitted charges and costs are debited to the borrower's account, and payments and other credits are credited to the same account;

(c) The charges are computed on the unpaid principal balance, or balances, of the account from time to time; and

(d) The borrower has the privilege of paying the account in full at any time or, if the account is not in default, in monthly installments of fixed or determinable amounts as provided in the agreement.

(2) Interest charges on any open-end loan shall not exceed twenty-five percent per annum. Such charges are computed in each billing cycle by any of the following methods:

(a) By converting the annual rate to a daily rate, and multiplying the daily rate by the daily unpaid principal balance of the account, in which case each daily rate is determined by dividing the annual rate by three hundred sixty-five;

(b) By multiplying a monthly rate by the average daily unpaid principal balance of the account in the billing cycle, in which case the monthly rate is one-twelfth of the annual rate, and the average daily unpaid principal balance is the sum of the amount unpaid each day during the cycle divided by the number of days in the cycle; or

(c) By converting the annual rate to a daily rate, and multiplying the daily rate by the average daily unpaid principal balance of the account in the billing cycle, in which case the daily rate is determined by dividing the annual rate by three hundred sixty-five, and the average daily unpaid principal balance is the sum of the amount unpaid each day during the cycle divided by the number of days in the cycle.

For all of the above methods of computation, the billing cycle shall be monthly, and the unpaid principal balance on any day shall be determined by adding to the balance unpaid, as of the beginning of that day, all advances and other permissible amounts charged to the borrower, and deducting all payments and other credits made or received that day. A billing cycle shall be considered monthly if the closing date of the cycle is the same date each month, or does not vary by more than four days from such date.

(3) In addition to the charges permitted under subsection (2) of this section, the industrial loan company may contract for and receive an annual fee, payable each year in advance, for the privilege of opening and maintaining an open-end loan account. The corporation may also contract for and receive on an open-end loan any additional charge permitted by this chapter on other loans, subject to the conditions and restrictions otherwise pertaining to those charges, with the following variations:

(a) If credit life or disability insurance is provided, and if the insured dies or becomes disabled when there is an outstanding open-end loan indebtedness, the insurance shall be sufficient to pay the total balance of the loan due on the date of the borrower's death in the case of credit life insurance, or all minimum payments which become due on the loan during the covered period of disability in the case of credit disability insurance. The additional charge for credit life insurance or credit disability insurance shall be calculated in each billing cycle by applying the current monthly premium rate for such insurance, as such rate may be determined by the insurance commissioner, to the unpaid balances in the borrower's account, using either of the methods specified in subsection (2) of this section for the calculation of interest;

(b) No credit life or disability insurance written in connection with an open-end loan shall be canceled by the lender because of delinquency of the borrower in the making of the required minimum payments on the loan, unless one or more of such payments is past due for a period of ninety days or more; and the lender shall advance to the insurer the amounts required to keep the insurance in force during such period, which amounts may be debited to the borrower's account.

(4) A security interest in real or personal property may be taken to secure an open-end loan. Any such security interest may be retained until the open-end account is terminated, provided that it shall be promptly released if there has been no outstanding balance in the account for twelve months, and the borrower either does not have, or surrenders, the unilateral right to create a new outstanding balance, or if the account is terminated at the borrower's request and paid in full.

(5) The industrial loan company may from time to time increase the rate of interest being charged on the unpaid principal balance of the borrower's open-end loans, if the industrial loan company mails or delivers written notice of the change to the borrower at least thirty days prior to the effective date of the increase, unless the increase has been earlier agreed to by the borrower; however, the borrower may choose to terminate the open-end loan account, and the industrial loan company will allow the borrower to repay, under the existing open-end loan account terms, the unpaid balance incurred prior to the effective date of the increase, unless the borrower incurs additional debt on or after that date or otherwise agrees to the increase.

(6) A copy of the open-end loan agreement shall be delivered by the industrial loan company to the borrower at the time the open-end account is opened. The agreement shall contain the name and address of the industrial loan company, and of the principal borrower, and shall contain such specific disclosures as may be required by Regulation Z promulgated by the board of governors of the federal reserve system under the Federal Consumer Credit Protection Act.

(7) Except in the case of an account which the industrial loan company deems to be uncollectible, or with respect to which delinquency collection procedures have been instituted, the company shall deliver to the borrower, or any one thereof, at the end of each billing cycle in which there is an outstanding balance of more than one dollar in the account, or with respect to which interest is imposed, a periodic statement in the form required by Regulation Z promulgated by the board of governors of the federal reserve system under the Federal Consumer Credit Protection Act.

(8) The supervisor of banking may adopt such rules as are necessary to conform with changes in Regulation Z. [1985 c 74 § 3.]

Such bond shall be conditioned that said obligor as licensee hereunder will faithfully conform to and abide by the provisions of this chapter and of all general rules and regulations lawfully made by the supervisor hereunder and will pay to the state and any such person or persons any and all moneys that may become due and owing to the state from such obligor under and by virtue of the provisions of this chapter. [1979 c 18 § 5; 1977 ex.s. c 150 § 2; 1959 c 212 § 2; 1941 c 208 § 3; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8371-3. Formerly RCW 31.08.030 and 31.08.040.]

31.08.050 Investigation and action on application. Upon the filing of such application and the payment of such fees and the approval of such bond the supervisor shall investigate the facts and if he shall find that the financial responsibility, experience, character, and general fitness of the applicant, and of the members thereof if the applicant be a copartnership or association, and of the officers and directors thereof if the applicant be a corporation, are such as to command the confidence of the community and to warrant belief that the business will be operated honestly, fairly, and efficiently within the purposes of this chapter, and that allowing such applicant to engage in business, will promote the convenience and advantage of the community in which the business of the applicant is to be conducted, and that the applicant has available for the operation of such business at the specified location liquid assets of at least fifty thousand dollars, (the foregoing facts being conditions precedent to the issuance of a license under this chapter), he shall thereupon issue and deliver a license to the applicant to make loans in accordance with the provisions of this chapter at the location specified in the said application, which license shall remain in full force and effect until it is surrendered by the licensee or revoked or suspended as hereinafter provided; if the supervisor shall not so find he shall not issue such license and he shall notify the applicant of the denial and return to the applicant the bond and sum paid by the applicant as a license fee, retaining the two hundred and fifty dollars investigation fee to cover the costs of investigating the application. The supervisor shall approve or deny every application for license hereunder within sixty days from the filing thereof with the said fees and the said approved bond.

If the application is denied, the supervisor shall within twenty days thereafter file with the division of banking of the department of general administration his order of denial together with his findings with respect thereto and the reasons supporting the order, and forthwith serve upon the applicant a copy thereof, from which order the applicant may request a hearing and appeal pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW. [1977 ex.s. c 150 § 3; 1941 c 208 § 4; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8371-4.]

31.08.060 License—Contents—Posting. Such license shall state the address at which the business is to be conducted and shall state fully the name of the licensee, and if the licensee is a copartnership or association, the names of the members thereof, and if a corporation, the date and place of its incorporation. Such license shall be kept conspicuously posted in the place of business of the licensee and shall not be transferable or assignable. [1941 c 208 § 5; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8371-5.]

31.08.070 Additional bond. If the supervisor shall find at any time that the bond is insecure, depleted, exhausted, or otherwise doubtful, an additional bond of the character specified in RCW 31.08.030, to be approved by him, in the sum of not more than two thousand five hundred dollars, shall be filed by the licensee within ten days after written demand upon the licensee by the supervisor.

Every licensee shall maintain at all times assets of at least fifty thousand dollars for each licensed place of business either in liquid form available for the operation of or actually used in the conduct of such business at the location specified in the license. [1979 c 18 § 6; 1977 ex.s. c 150 § 4; 1941 c 208 § 6; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8371-6.]

31.08.080 License required for each place of business. Not more than one place of business shall be maintained under the same license, but the supervisor may issue more than one license to the same licensee upon compliance with all the provisions of this chapter governing an original issuance of a license, for each such new license.

Whenever a licensee shall wish to change his place of business to a street address other than that designated in his license he shall give written notice thereof to the supervisor and shall pay to the supervisor an investigation fee of one hundred dollars. Upon receipt of such notice and fee the supervisor shall investigate the facts, and, if he shall find that allowing such licensee to engage in business in such new location will promote the convenience and advantage of the community in which the licensee desires to conduct his business, he shall attach to the license in writing his approval of the change and the date thereof, which shall be authority for the operation of such business under such license at such new location. If the supervisor shall not so find he shall deny the licensee permission so to change the location of his place of business, in the manner specified and subject to the provisions contained in the last paragraph of RCW 31.08.050. [1977 ex.s. c 150 § 5; 1941 c 208 § 7; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8371-7.]

31.08.090 Annual license fee and bond. Every licensee shall, for each license held by him, on or before the twentieth day of each December, pay to the supervisor the sum of one hundred dollars as an annual license fee and shall at the same time file with the supervisor a bond to be approved by the supervisor in the same amount and of the same character as required by RCW 31.08.030. [1977 ex.s. c 150 § 6; 1941 c 208 § 8; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8371-8.]

31.08.100 Revocation, suspension, or surrender of license—Reinstatement—Effect. The supervisor shall, upon ten days' written notice to the licensee stating the contemplated action and in general the grounds therefor, and upon reasonable opportunity to be heard, revoke any license issued hereunder if he shall find that:

(1) The licensee has failed to pay the annual license fee or to maintain in effect the bond or bonds required under the provisions of this chapter or to comply with any specific order or demand of the supervisor lawfully made and directed to the licensee pursuant to and within the authority of this chapter; or that

(2) The licensee, either knowingly or without the exercise of due care to prevent the same, has violated any provisions of this chapter or any general rule or regulation lawfully made by the supervisor under and within the authority of this chapter; or that

(3) Any fact or condition exists which, if it had existed at the time of the original application for such license, clearly would have warranted the supervisor in refusing originally to issue such license.

The supervisor may, upon five days' written notice and after a hearing, suspend any license for a period not exceeding thirty days, pending investigation.

The supervisor may revoke or suspend only the particular license with respect to which grounds for revocation or suspension may occur or exist, or, if he shall find that such grounds for revocation or suspension are of general application to all offices, or to more than one office, operated by such licensee, he shall revoke or suspend all of the licenses issued to said licensee or such licenses as such grounds apply to, as the case may be.

Any licensee may surrender any license by delivering to the supervisor written notice that he thereby surrenders such license, but such surrender shall not affect such licensee's civil or criminal liability for acts committed prior to such surrender.

No revocation or suspension or surrender of any license shall impair or affect the obligation of any preexisting lawful contract between the licensee and any borrower.

Every license issued hereunder shall remain in force and effect until the same shall have been surrendered, revoked, or suspended in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, but the supervisor shall have authority on his own initiative to reinstate suspended licenses or to issue new licenses to a licensee whose license or licenses shall have been revoked if no fact or condition then exists which clearly would have warranted the supervisor in refusing originally to issue such license under this chapter.

Whenever the supervisor shall revoke or suspend a license issued pursuant to this chapter, he shall forthwith file with the division of banking of the department of finance, budget and business his order of revocation or suspension together with his finding with respect thereto and the reasons supporting the order, and forthwith serve upon the licensee a copy thereof, from which order the applicant may appeal as provided in RCW 31.08.260. [1941 c 208 § 9; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8371-9. Formerly RCW 31.08.100, 31.08.110 and 31.08.120.]

Reviser's note: The powers and duties of the division of banking of the department of finance, budget and business devolved upon the department of general administration. See note following RCW 31.08.010.

31.08.130 Examinations—Cost. For the purpose of discovering violations of this chapter or securing information lawfully required by him hereunder, the supervisor may at any time, either personally or by a person or persons duly designated by him, investigate the loans and business and examine the books, accounts, records, and files used therein, of every licensee and of every person who shall be engaged in the business described in RCW 31.08.020, whether such person shall act or claim to act as principal or agent, or under or without the authority of this chapter. For that purpose the supervisor and his duly designated representatives shall have free access to the offices and places of business, books, accounts, papers, records, files, safes, and vaults of all such persons. The supervisor and all persons duly designated by him shall have authority to require the attendance of and to examine under oath all persons whomsoever whose testimony he may require relative to such loans or such business or to the subject matter of any examination, investigation or hearing. The supervisor shall make such an examination of the affairs, business, office, and records of each licensee at least once each year. The actual cost of every examination shall be paid to the supervisor by every licensee so examined: Provided, however, That the actual cost of examining each licensed place of business shall not exceed the sum of two hundred fifty dollars annually. [1959 c 212 § 3; 1941 c 208 § 10; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8371-10.]

31.08.140 Records—Annual report. The licensee shall keep and use in his business such books, accounts, and records as will enable the supervisor to determine whether such licensee is complying with the provisions of this chapter and with the rules and regulations lawfully made by the supervisor hereunder, to which books, accounts, and records the supervisor shall have free access. Every licensee shall preserve such books, accounts and records, including cards used in the card system, if any, for at least two years after making the final entry on any loan recorded therein.

Each licensee shall annually on or before the first day of March file a report with the supervisor giving such relevant information as he reasonably may require concerning the business and operations during the preceding calendar year of each licensed place of business conducted by such licensee within the state. Such report shall be made under oath and shall be in the form prescribed by the supervisor, who shall make and publish annually an analysis and recapitulation of such reports. [1941 c 208 § 11; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8371-11.]

31.08.150 Prohibited acts. No licensee or other person shall advertise, print, display, publish, distribute, broadcast, or televise or cause or permit to be advertised, printed, displayed, published, distributed, broadcast, or televised in any manner whatsoever any false, misleading, or deceptive statement or representation with regard to the rates, terms, or conditions for the lending of money, credit, goods, or things in action in the amount or of the value of two thousand five hundred dollars or less. The supervisor may order any licensee to desist from any conduct which he shall find to be a violation of the foregoing provisions.

The supervisor may require that rates of charge, if stated by a licensee, be stated fully and clearly in such manner as he may deem necessary to prevent misunderstanding thereof by prospective borrowers.

No licensee shall conduct the business of making loans under this chapter within any office, room, or place of business in which any other business is solicited or transacted, or in association or conjunction therewith, if the supervisor shall find, after five days' written notice and after a hearing that the solicitation or transaction of such other business conceals evasion of this chapter by the licensee or is of such nature that such solicitation or transaction would facilitate evasion of this chapter or of the general rules and regulations lawfully made hereunder, and shall order such licensee in writing to desist from such conduct.

No licensee shall conduct, or advertise such business or make any loan provided for by this chapter under any other name or at any other place of business than that named in a license issued under this chapter.

No licensee shall take any confession of judgment or any power of attorney to confess judgment. No licensee shall take any note, promise to pay, or other obligation signed by the borrower that does not accurately disclose the actual amount of the loan, the time for which it is made, and the agreed rate of charge, nor any instrument in which blanks are left to be filled in after the proceeds of the loan are delivered. When charges are precomputed, as permitted by subsection (3) of RCW 31.08.160, the note shall disclose the amount of the precomputed charge. [1977 ex.s. c 150 § 7; 1959 c 212 § 4; 1941 c 208 § 12; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8371-12.]

31.08.160 Rates and charges—Splitting loans prohibited. (1) Every licensee hereunder may lend any sum of money not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars in amount and may charge, contract for, and receive thereon charges at a rate not exceeding two and one-half percent per month on that part of the unpaid principal balance of any loan not in excess of five hundred dollars, one and one-half percent per month on that part of the unpaid principal balance of any loan in excess of five hundred dollars and not in excess of one thousand dollars, and one percent per month on any remainder of such unpaid principal balance.

(2) Charges on loans made under this chapter shall not be paid, deducted, discounted, or received in advance, or compounded, but the rate of charge authorized by this section may be precomputed as provided in subsection (3) of this section. Charges on loans made under this chapter, except as permitted by subsection (3) hereof, (a) shall be computed and paid only as a percentage per month of the unpaid principal balance or portions thereof, and (b) shall be so expressed in every obligation signed by the borrower. For the purpose of this section a month shall be that period of time from any date in a month to the corresponding date in the next month and if there is no such corresponding date then to the last day of the next month; and a day shall be considered one-thirtieth of a month when computation is made for a fraction of a month.

(3) When the loan contract requires repayment in substantially equal and consecutive monthly installments of principal and charges combined, the charges may be precomputed at the monthly rate on scheduled unpaid principal balances according to the terms of the contract and added to the principal of the loan. Every payment may be applied to the combined total of principal and precomputed charge until the contract is fully paid. The acceptance or payment of charges on loans made under the provisions of this subsection shall not be deemed to constitute payment, deduction, or receipt thereof in advance nor compounding under subsection (2) above. Such precomputed charge shall be subject to the following adjustments:

(a) The portion of the precomputed charge applicable to any particular monthly installment period shall bear the same ratio to the total precomputed charge, excluding any adjustment made under paragraph (f) of this subsection, as the balance scheduled to be outstanding during that monthly period bears to the sum of all monthly balances scheduled originally by the contract of loan.

(b) If the loan contract is prepaid in full by cash, a new loan, refinancing, or otherwise before the final installment date, the portion of the precomputed charge applicable to the full installment periods following the installment date nearest the date of such prepayment shall be rebated. In computing any required rebate, any prepayment made on or before the fifteenth day following an installment date shall be deemed to have been made on the installment date preceding such prepayment. If prepayment in full occurs before the first installment date an additional rebate of one-thirtieth of the portion of the precomputed charge applicable to a first installment period of one month shall be made for each day from the date of such prepayment to the first scheduled installment date. If judgment is obtained before the final installment date, the contract balance shall be reduced by the rebate of precomputed charge which would be required for prepayment in full as of the date judgment is obtained.

(c) If the payment date of all wholly unpaid installments on which no default charge has been collected is deferred one or more full months and the contract so provides, the licensee may charge and collect a deferment charge. Such deferment charge shall not exceed the portion of the precomputed charge applicable under the original contract of loan to the first month of the deferment period multiplied by the number of months in said period. The deferment period is the month or months in which no scheduled payment has been made or in which no payment is to be required by reason of the deferment. In computing any default charge, or required rebate, the portion of the precomputed charge applicable to each deferred balance and installment period following the deferment period and prior to the deferred maturity shall remain the same as that applicable to such balances and periods under the original contract of loan. Such charge may be collected at the time of deferment or at any time thereafter. If a loan is prepaid in full during a deferment period, the borrower shall receive, in addition to the rebate required under paragraph (b) of this subsection, a rebate of that portion of the deferment charge applicable to any unexpired months of the deferment period.

(d) If the payment in full of any scheduled installment is in default more than seven days and the contract so provides, the licensee may charge and collect a default charge not exceeding five percent of the unpaid amount of the installment or five dollars, whichever is less. Said charge may not be collected more than once for the same default and may be collected when such default occurs or any time thereafter. If such default charge is deducted from any payment received after default occurs and such deduction results in the default of a subsequent installment, no charge may be made for the resulting default.

(e) If two or more full installments are in default for one full month or more at any installment date and if the contract so provides, the licensee may reduce the contract balance by the rebate which would be required for prepayment in full on such installment date. Thereafter, charges may be received at the agreed rate computed on actual unpaid balances of the contract for the time outstanding until the contract is fully paid. Charges so collected shall be in lieu of any deferment or default charges which otherwise would accrue on the contract after such installment date.

(f) A licensee and borrower may agree that the first installment due date may be not more than fifteen days more than one month and the amount of such installment may be increased by one-thirtieth of the portion of the precomputed charge applicable to a first installment of one month for each extra day.

(4) No licensee shall induce or permit any borrower to split up or divide any loan, nor induce or permit any person, nor any husband or wife jointly or severally, to become obligated, directly or contingently or both, under more than one contract of loan at the same time, for the purpose or with the result of obtaining a higher rate of charge than would otherwise be permitted by this section. If part or all of the consideration for a loan contract is the unpaid principal balance of a prior loan with the same licensee, then the principal amount payable under such loan contract shall not include any unpaid charges on the prior loan, except charges which have accrued within sixty days before the making of such loan contract and may include the balance of a precomputed contract which remains after giving the rebate required by subsection (3) hereof.

(5) No licensee shall directly or indirectly charge, contract for, or receive any charges or fees except charges authorized by this chapter, the reasonable actual costs paid by the licensee to foreclose, repossess or otherwise realize on the security, reasonable attorney fees and court costs incurred by the licensee and the lawful fees, if any, actually and necessarily paid out by the licensee to any public officer for the transferring of title or for filing, recording, or releasing in any public office, any instrument securing the loan, which fees may be collected when the loan is made, or at any time thereafter. If any payment on a loan is made by check and payment of that check is refused because there was no account or due to insufficient funds, the licensee may contract for and receive a charge in an amount authorized under rule by the supervisor of banking. A bona fide error in the calculation of charges or in the recording of such charges in any statement or receipt delivered to the borrower or in the licensee's records shall not be deemed to be a violation of this chapter if the licensee corrects the error. [1983 c 227 § 1; 1979 c 18 § 3; 1977 ex.s. c 150 § 8; 1959 c 212 § 5; 1941 c 208 § 13; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8371-13.]

Interest and usury in general: Chapter 19.52 RCW.

31.08.170 Statement to borrower—Receipts—Advance payments—Cancellation and release of obligations—Borrower's statement. It shall be the duty of every licensee to:

(1) Deliver to the borrower or anyone thereof, if several, at the time any loan is made under this chapter, a statement showing in clear and distinct terms the amount financed, the date of the loan, the agreed schedule of payments, the nature of the security, if any, for the loan, the name and address of the licensee, and the finance charges. The licensee shall provide to the borrower at the time the loan is made a copy of RCW 31.08.160.

(2) Give to the party making any payment a plain and complete receipt for each payment made on account of any such loan at the time such payment is made, or a periodic statement at least once each forty-five days showing such payment, specifying the amount applied to charges and the amount, if any, applied to principal, and stating the unpaid principal balance, if any, of such loan; a receipt shall be given at the time any cash payment is made: Provided, That if the charges were precomputed the receipt or statement need not be itemized, and no receipt or statement shall be required where payment is made by check or money order and the full amount of such check or money order is applied to the loan: Provided further, That when a default or deferment charge is collected, a receipt or statement shall be given showing the amount applied to the loan and the amount applied to the default or deferment charge;

(3) Permit payment to be made in advance in any amount on any such loan at any time during regular business hours, but the licensee may apply such payment first to all charges at the agreed rate up to the date of such payment: Provided, That when charges are precomputed such payment shall be equal to one or more full scheduled installments;

(4) Upon payment of the loan in full, mark indelibly every obligation signed by the borrower with the word "paid" or "canceled" and release any mortgage and restore all notes and collateral which no longer secures a loan and to which the borrower may be lawfully entitled: Provided, however, That in case any such document or obligation is in custodia legis these requirements shall not be applicable; and

(5) Obtain from the borrower prior to making the loan a statement signed by the borrower setting forth the borrower's then current financial condition and describing the penalties and defenses resulting from giving false financial information, all on a form approved by the supervisor. A copy of the statement shall be delivered to the borrower when the loan is made. [1983 c 227 § 2; 1959 c 212 § 6; 1941 c 208 § 14; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8371-14.]

31.08.173 Limitation on term of contract. No contract made by a licensee under this chapter shall provide for a final maturity more than forty-eight and one-half months from the date of making such contract. [1977 ex.s. c 150 § 9; 1959 c 212 § 10.]

31.08.175 Insurance in connection with loans. (1) No licensee shall require the purchasing of property insurance from the licensee or any employee, affiliate, or associate of the licensee or from any agent, broker, or insurance company designated by the licensee as a condition precedent to the making of a loan nor shall any licensee decline existing insurance which meets or exceeds the standards set forth in this section.

The licensee may require a borrower to insure tangible property offered as security for a loan hereunder against any substantial risk of loss, damage, or destruction for an amount not to exceed the reasonable value of the property insured or the amount of the loan and for the customary term approximating the term of the loan contract: Provided, That no licensee hereunder may require such insurance on loans in an amount less than three hundred dollars. It shall be optional with the borrower to obtain such insurance in an amount greater than the amount of the loan or for a longer term. The premium for such insurance shall not exceed that fixed by current applicable manual of a recognized standard insurance rating bureau and such insurance shall be written by or through a duly licensed insurance agent or broker.

(2) A licensee may insure the life of one borrower, but only one of them if there are two or more obligors, for the unpaid principal balance scheduled to be outstanding; and regardless of the the premium paid by the licensee, the licensee may charge not more than sixty cents per one hundred dollars per year computed on the original principal amount of the loan, excluding charges for the loan, when the loan contract requires substantially equal and consecutive monthly installments of principal and charges combined, and such charge may be in the same proportions for different payment schedules, maturities, and principal amounts: Provided, however, That if both husband and wife sign an obligation to repay the loan, each may be an insured borrower hereunder and a single identifiable insurance charge may be made by the licensee for the two jointly under a plan whereby both lives are insured but a death benefit is paid only upon the death of the spouse dying first. For such joint spouse coverage, the licensee may charge not more than one dollar per one hundred dollars per year computed on the same basis as herein prescribed for life insurance on one borrower. Such charge may be deducted from the principal of the loan when the loan is made. Only one such charge may be made in connection with any loan contract irrespective of the number of obligors, and only one obligor need be insured. If the insured obligor dies during the term of the loan contract, the insurance must pay the principal balance of the loan outstanding on the day of his death without any exception or reservation. The insurance shall be in force as soon as the loan is made. If the loan contract is prepaid in full by cash, a new loan, renewal, refinancing, or otherwise, a portion of such life insurance charge shall be rebated according to the method established in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (3) of RCW 31.08.160. When charges for the loan are precomputed in accordance with subsection (3) of RCW 31.08.160, any required rebate and any permitted deferment charge may be computed on the combined total of the precomputed charge and the life insurance charge.

(3) A licensee may insure against the disability of the borrower, but only one of them if there are two or more obligors, pursuant to chapter 48.34 RCW, and may deduct from the principal of the loan and retain an amount equal to the premium lawfully charged by the insurance company.

(4) If a borrower procures any insurance by or through a licensee, the statement required by RCW 31.08.170 shall disclose the cost to the borrower and the type of insurance, and the licensee shall cause to be delivered to the borrower a copy of the policy, certificate, or other evidence thereof within a reasonable time.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, any gain or advantage in any form whatsoever to the licensee or to any employee, affiliate, or associate of the licensee from any insurance or its sale or provision shall not be deemed to be additional or further interest, consideration, charges, or fee in connection with such loan.

Nothing in this section shall be deemed to alter, amend or repeal any provision of the insurance code.

No insurance shall be required, requested, sold, or offered for sale in connection with any loan made under this chapter, except as and to the extent authorized by this section. [1979 c 18 § 4; 1975 1st ex.s. c 266 § 1; 1959 c 212 § 11.]

Severability—1975 1st ex.s. c 266: "If any provision of this 1975 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected." [1975 1st ex.s. c 266 § 21.]

31.08.180 Loans in excess of two thousand five hundred dollars—Restrictions. No licensee shall directly or indirectly charge, contract for, or receive any interest, discount, or consideration greater than the lender would be permitted by law to charge if he were not a licensee hereunder upon the loan, use, or forbearance of money, goods, or things in action, or upon the loan, use, or sale of credit, of the amount or value of more than two thousand five hundred dollars, exclusive of charges permitted by RCW 31.08.160. [1977 ex.s. c 150 § 10; 1959 c 212 § 7; 1941 c 208 § 15; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8371-15.]

31.08.190 Assignment of earnings as loan. The payment of two thousand five hundred dollars or less in money, credit, goods, or things in action, as consideration for any sale or assignment of, or order for, the payment of wages, salary, commissions, or other compensation for services, whether earned or to be earned, shall for the purpose of regulation under this chapter be deemed a loan secured by such assignment, and the amount by which such assigned compensation retained by the assignee at the completion of the transaction exceeds the total amount of such consideration actually paid by the assignee to the assignor shall for the purpose of regulation under this chapter be deemed interest or charges upon such loan. Such transaction shall be governed by and subject to the provisions of this chapter. [1977 ex.s. c 150 § 11; 1959 c 212 § 8; 1941 c 208 § 16; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8371-16.]

31.08.200 Chapter governs interest rates. No person except as authorized by this chapter shall directly or indirectly charge, contract for, or receive any interest, discount, or consideration greater than the lender would be permitted by law to charge if he were not a licensee hereunder upon the loan, use, or forbearance of money, goods, or things in action, or upon the loan, use, or sale of credit of the amount or value of two thousand five hundred dollars or less.

The foregoing prohibition shall apply to any person who by any device, subterfuge, or pretense whatsoever shall charge, contract for, or receive greater interest, consideration, or charges than is authorized by this chapter for any such loan, use, or forbearance of money, goods, or things in action or for any such loan, use, or sale of credit.

Interest rates for small loans as described in RCW 31.08.160 are hereby declared to be the maximum rates permissible under the public policy of the state of Washington. With respect to any loan of the amount or value of two thousand five hundred dollars or less for which a greater rate of interest, consideration, or charges than is permitted by RCW 31.08.160 has been charged, contracted for, or received, the lender or his successor in interest shall not be entitled to collect or receive in this state: (1) any principal, interest, consideration or charges whatsoever if any part of the loan transaction occurred in this state; or (2) any interest, consideration or charges in excess of that stated in RCW 31.08.160 if no part of the loan transaction occurred in this state. [1977 ex.s. c 150 § 12; 1967 c 180 § 1; 1959 c 212 § 9; 1941 c 208 § 17; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8371-17.]

Severability—1967 c 180: "If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provisions to other persons or circumstances is not affected." [1967 c 180 § 16.]

Prior transactions—1967 c 180: "The provisions of this 1967 amendatory act shall not apply to transactions entered into prior to the effective date hereof." [1967 c 180 § 17.]

31.08.210 Criminal acts—Penalty. Any person and the several members, officers, directors, agents, and employees thereof, who shall violate or participate in the violation of any of the provisions of RCW 31.08.020, 31.08.150, 31.08.160, 31.08.170, or 31.08.200, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Any contract or loan not invalid for any other reason, in the making or collection of which any act shall have been done which constitutes a gross misdemeanor under this section shall be void and the lender shall have no right to collect or receive any principal, interest, or charges whatsoever. [1941 c 208 § 18; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8371-18.]

31.08.220 Excepted activities. This chapter shall not apply to any person doing business under and as permitted by any law of this state or of the United States relating to banks, savings banks, trust companies, savings and loan or building and loan associations, industrial loan companies or credit unions, nor to any pawnbroking business lawfully transacted under and as permitted by any law of this state regulating pawnbrokers, nor to any loan of credit made pursuant to a credit card plan including but not restricted to plans having all of the following characteristics:

(1) Where credit cards are issued pursuant to a plan whereby the organization issuing such cards shall be enabled to acquire those certain obligations which its members in good standing incur with those persons with whom the organization has entered into agreements setting forth said plan, and where the obligations are incurred pursuant to such agreements; or whereby the organization issuing such cards shall be enabled to extend credit to its members;

(2) Any fee for such credit cards is designed to cover only the administrative costs of the plan and does not exceed twenty-five dollars per year;

(3) Any charges, discounts, or fees resulting from the acquisition of such charges shall be paid to the organization issuing said credit cards (or to such other organizations as may be authorized by the issuing organization) by the persons, corporations or associations with whom the organization has entered into such written agreements. [1971 ex.s. c 37 § 1; 1941 c 208 § 19; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8371-19.]

31.08.230 Rules and regulations. The supervisor is hereby authorized and empowered to make general rules and regulations and specific orders, demands, and findings for the enforcement of this chapter, in addition hereto and not inconsistent herewith.

Copies of all general rules and regulations shall be mailed to every licensee by the supervisor on or before their respective effective dates and copies of all general rules and regulations and of all specific orders and demands shall be kept in a permanent, indexed book in the department [division] of banking, and shall be public records. [1941 c 208 § 20; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8371-20.]

31.08.250 Effect of repeal or amendment. This chapter or any part thereof may be modified, amended, or repealed so as to effect a cancellation or alteration of any license or right of a licensee hereunder: Provided, That such cancellation or alteration shall not impair or affect the obligation of any preexisting lawful contract between any licensee and any borrower. [1941 c 208 § 22; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8371-22.]

31.08.260 Appeals. Whenever the supervisor shall deny an application for a license or shall revoke or suspend a license issued pursuant to this chapter, or shall issue any specific order or demand, then such applicant or licensee thereby affected may, within thirty days from the date of service of notice as provided for in this chapter, appeal to the superior court of the state of Washington for Thurston county. The appeal shall be perfected by serving a copy of the notice of appeal upon the supervisor and by filing it, together with proof of service, with the clerk of the superior court of Thurston county. Whereupon the supervisor shall, within fifteen days after filing of such notice of appeal, make and certify a transcript of the evidence and of all the records and papers on file in his office relating to the order appealed from, and the supervisor shall forthwith file the same in the office of the clerk of said superior court. The reasonable costs of preparing such transcript shall be assessed by the court as part of the costs. A trial shall be had in said superior court de novo. The applicant or licensee, as the case may be, shall be deemed the plaintiff and the state of Washington the defendant. Each party shall be entitled to subpoena witnesses and produce evidence to sustain or reverse the findings and order or demand of the supervisor. During the pendency of any appeal from the order of revocation or suspension of a license, the order of revocation theretofore entered by the supervisor shall be stayed and any other order or demand appealed from may be stayed in the discretion of the court. Either party may appeal from the judgment of said superior court to the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state of Washington as in other civil actions. In order to carry out such investigation the supervisor shall have the power to subpoena witnesses and records, to administer oaths and examine persons under oath. He shall thereupon submit his findings to the next session of the legislature, and make such recommendations, and submit bills or amendments which in his opinion will correct any such abuses. It shall also be his duty to make findings regarding interest rates to be charged the public and to determine from these findings the lowest possible interest rate which should be legally charged which would be consistent with fairness to the consumer finance business and the public. [1979 c 18 § 1; 1941 c 208 § 24; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8371-24.]

(2) "Branch" means any office, other than the principal place of business, maintained by a credit union for the purpose of providing services directly to its members. "Branch" does not include a facility that is limited to an electronic funds transferring machine that can be operated without the assistance of an employee of a credit union.

(3) "Credit union" means a credit union organized and operating under this chapter.

(4) "Employees" means the principal operating officer and other operating personnel of a credit union.

(5) "Federal credit union" means a credit union organized and operating under the laws of the United States.

(6) "Officers" means the officers of the board of a credit union who are elected under RCW 31.12.265.

(7) "Shares" and "deposits" are synonymous and interchangeable. Shares and deposits of a credit union shall be subject to such terms and conditions as established by the board of the credit union.

31.12.015 Declaration of policy. A credit union is a cooperative society organized for the purposes of promoting thrift among its members and creating a source of credit for them at fair and reasonable rates of interest. The supervisor is the state's credit union regulatory authority whose purpose is to protect the members' financial interests, the integrity of credit unions as cooperative institutions, and the interests of the general public, and to ensure that state-chartered credit unions remain viable and competitive in this state. [1984 c 31 § 3.]

31.12.025 Use of words in name. (1) A credit union shall include in its name the words "credit union."

(2) No person, partnership, association, corporation, or other organization may transact business or engage in any other activity under a name or title containing the words "credit union" unless it is:

(a) A credit union;

(b) An organization comprised of corporations organized under this chapter or under federal credit union laws;

(c) A sole proprietorship, partnership, or corporation that is primarily in the business of managing one or more credit unions; or

(d) An organization specifically authorized under the laws of this state or under federal law to use the words "credit union" in its name. [1984 c 31 § 4.]

31.12.035 Application for permission to organize—Approval. Seven or more persons who reside in this state may apply to the supervisor for permission to organize a credit union. The supervisor shall approve the application if it is in compliance with this chapter. [1984 c 31 § 5.]

31.12.045 Limitation on membership. (1) Membership in a credit union shall be limited to groups having a common bond of occupation or association, or to groups within a well-defined neighborhood, community, or rural district. The supervisor may adopt rules: (a) Reasonably defining "common bond"; and (b) setting forth standards for the approval of charters.

(2) The supervisor may approve the inclusion within the field of membership of a credit union a group having a separate common bond if the supervisor determines that the group is not of sufficient size or resources to support a viable credit union of its own. [1984 c 31 § 6.]

31.12.055 Manner of organizing—Articles of incorporation—Submission to supervisor. (1) Persons applying for the organization of a credit union shall execute articles of incorporation stating:

(a) The initial name of the proposed credit union and its location;

(b) That the duration of the credit union is perpetual;

(c) That the purpose of the credit union is to engage in the business of a credit union and any other lawful activities permitted to a credit union by applicable laws and rules;

(d) The number of its directors, which shall not be less than five nor greater than fifteen, and the names, occupations, and addresses of the persons who are to serve as the initial directors;

(e) The names, occupations, and addresses of the subscribers to the articles of incorporation, and a statement of the number of shares which each has agreed to take; and

(f) The initial par value of the shares of the credit union.

(2) Applicants shall submit the articles of incorporation in triplicate to the supervisor. [1984 c 31 § 7.]

31.12.065 Bylaws—Submission to supervisor. (1) Persons applying for the organization of a credit union shall adopt bylaws that are consistent with this chapter and that prescribe the manner in which the business of the credit union shall be conducted. The bylaws shall include:

(a) The name of the credit union;

(b) The purposes of the credit union;

(c) The qualifications for membership in the credit union, including the minimum number of shares, if any, required for membership status, and the standards and procedures for expelling a member who has failed to maintain the minimum number of shares;

(d) The number of directors and supervisory committee members, and the length of terms they serve;

(e) The frequency of regular meetings of the board and the supervisory committee, and the manner in which members of the board or supervisory committee are to be notified of meetings;

(f) The powers and duties of the officers elected by the board;

(g) The timing of the annual meeting and the manner in which members are to be notified of membership meetings, including special membership meetings;

(h) The number of members constituting a quorum at a membership meeting; and

(i) Other matters considered appropriate by the applicants to be included in the bylaws.

(2) Applicants shall submit the bylaws in duplicate to the supervisor. [1984 c 31 § 8.]

31.12.075 Approval, refusal of proposed credit union—Appeal. (1) When articles of incorporation and bylaws complying with the requirements of RCW 31.12.055 and 31.12.065 have been filed with the supervisor, the supervisor shall:

(a) Determine whether the articles of incorporation and bylaws are consistent with the purposes and requirements of this chapter; and

(b) Determine the feasibility of the credit union, taking into account surrounding facts and circumstances pertaining to a successful operation of a credit union.

The supervisor may establish by rule, as a prerequisite to approval of a proposed credit union, specific criteria consistent with the purposes and policies of this chapter.

(2) If the supervisor is satisfied with the determinations made under subsection (1)(a) and (b) of this section, the supervisor shall endorse each of the articles of incorporation "approved" and indicate the date the approval is granted, and return two sets of articles and one set of bylaws to the applicants.

(3) If the supervisor is not satisfied with the determinations made under subsection (1)(a) and (b) of this section, the supervisor shall endorse each of the articles of incorporation "refused," indicate the date of and reasons for the refusal, and return two copies of the articles of incorporation with one copy of the bylaws to the person from whom they were received. The supervisor shall at the time of returning the copies of the articles of incorporation and bylaws also provide notice to the applicant of the applicant's right to appeal the refusal under chapter 34.04 RCW. The refusal is conclusive unless the applicant requests a hearing under chapter 34.04 RCW.

(4) The supervisor shall accept or refuse the articles of incorporation within sixty days of receipt. [1984 c 31 § 9.]

31.12.085 Filing upon approval—Fee—Notice to supervisor—Authority to commence business. (1) Upon the approval of the supervisor under RCW 31.12.075(2), the applicants shall file a copy of the articles of incorporation with the secretary of state. Upon receipt of the approved articles of incorporation and a five dollar filing fee to be provided by the applicants, the secretary of state shall file and record the articles of incorporation. The applicants shall in writing promptly notify the supervisor of the exact date of the filing.

(2) Upon the filing and recording of the approved articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, the persons named in the articles of incorporation and their successors may operate as a credit union, which shall have the powers and be subject to the duties and obligations of this chapter. A credit union shall not conduct business until the articles have been recorded by the secretary of state.

(3) A credit union shall organize and begin business within six months of the date that its articles of incorporation are filed and recorded with the secretary of state or its charter shall become void, unless the supervisor for cause grants an extension of the six-month period. The supervisor shall not grant a single extension exceeding three months, but may grant as many extensions to a credit union as circumstances require. [1984 c 31 § 10.]

31.12.095 Articles of incorporation and bylaws—Forms to be supplied. In order to simplify the organization of credit unions the supervisor shall cause to be prepared forms of articles of incorporation and bylaws consistent with this chapter and, upon written application of seven residents of this state, shall supply to the applicants, at no cost, blank forms of the suggested articles of incorporation and bylaws. [1984 c 31 § 11.]

31.12.105 Amendment to articles of incorporation—Approval. The articles of incorporation of a credit union may be amended, with the approval of the supervisor, by a resolution of the board. Amendments to the articles of incorporation shall be filed with the supervisor and the secretary of state. [1984 c 31 § 12.]

31.12.115 Amendment to bylaws—Approval. (1) Subject to the approval of the supervisor under subsection (2) of this section, the bylaws of a credit union may be amended by the board of directors at any regular meeting or at a special meeting called for that purpose. An amendment of the bylaws requires the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the total members of the board. At least seven days before a meeting at which an amendment to the bylaws is to be voted upon, a copy of the proposed amendment, together with a written notice of the meeting as provided in the bylaws, shall be served upon each member of the board either personally or by mail to the director's last known post office address.

(2) An amendment to the bylaws of a credit union shall not become operative until it has been approved by the supervisor. The supervisor shall approve or disapprove an amendment within thirty days of receipt. [1984 c 31 § 13.]

31.12.125 Powers. A credit union may:

(1) Issue shares to and receive deposits from its members as provided in this chapter and the bylaws of the credit union;

(3) Pay dividends or interest to its members;

(4) Impose reasonable charges for the services it provides to its members;

(5) Impose financing charges and reasonable late charges in the event of default on loans in accordance with the bylaws of the credit union and recover reasonable costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees incurred both before and after judgment, incurred in the collection of sums due it if provided for in the note or agreement signed by the borrower;

(6) Acquire, lease, hold, assign, pledge, hypothecate, sell, or otherwise dispose of a possessory interest in personal property and, with the prior written permission of the supervisor, in real property, so long as the property is necessary or incidental to the operation of the credit union. The written permission of the supervisor is not required for the acquisition and disposition of property through the collection of loans secured by the property;

(7) Deposit and invest funds in excess of the amount approved for loans to members as provided in this chapter;

(8) Borrow money, up to a maximum of fifty percent of its paid-in and unimpaired capital and surplus;

(9) Discount or sell any of its assets, or purchase any or all of the assets of another credit union. A credit union may not discount or sell more than ten percent of its assets without the prior written approval of the supervisor;

(10) Accept deposits of deferred compensation of its members under the terms and conditions of RCW 28A-.58.740 and 41.04.250(2);

(11) Act as fiscal agent for and receive payments on shares and deposits from the federal government or this state, and any agency or political subdivision thereof;

(12) Engage in activities and programs as requested by the federal government, this state, and any political subdivision thereof, when the activities or programs are not inconsistent with this chapter;

(13) Hold membership in other credit unions organized under this chapter or other laws and in associations controlled by or fostering the interests of credit unions, including a central liquidity facility organized under state or federal law; and

31.12.136 Additional powers—Powers conferred on federal credit union—Authority of supervisor—Adoption of power by resolution of board. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a credit union may exercise any of the powers or authority conferred as of July 26, 1987, upon a federal credit union doing business in this state.

(2) In addition to the powers conferred under subsection (1) of this section, the supervisor may by rule authorize credit unions to exercise any of the powers conferred at the time of the adoption of the rule upon a federal credit union doing business in this state if the supervisor finds that the exercise of power serves the convenience and advantage of depositors and borrowers of state-chartered credit unions, and maintains the fairness of competition and parity between state-chartered credit unions and federal-chartered credit unions.

(3) Before exercising a power under subsection (1) or (2) of this section, the board of a credit union shall adopt a resolution identifying and formally adopting that power. [1987 c 338 § 1; 1984 c 31 § 15.]

31.12.145 Membership. A credit union may admit to membership those persons qualified for membership as set forth in its bylaws upon the payment of a membership fee, if any, or the purchase of one or more shares, as provided in the bylaws. A fraternal organization, partnership, or corporation having a usual place of business in this state and comprised principally of persons who are eligible for membership in the credit union may become a member of the credit union. [1984 c 31 § 16.]

31.12.155 Minors. Shares may be issued in the name of a minor and the shares may, in the discretion of the board, be withdrawn by the minor or by the minor's parent or guardian. A minor under age eighteen does not have the right to vote as a member. [1984 c 31 § 17.]

31.12.165 Service charge for dormant accounts. A credit union may impose a reasonable service charge for the processing of accounts that remain dormant for a period of time specified by the board. [1984 c 31 § 18.]

31.12.185 Regular meetings—Voting rights. (1) The regular membership meeting of a credit union shall be held annually, at such time and place as the bylaws prescribe, and shall be conducted according to the customary rules of parliamentary procedure.

(2) Notice of regular meetings of a credit union shall be given as provided in the bylaws of the credit union.

(3) No member may have more than one vote regardless of the number of shares held by the member. A fraternal organization, voluntary association, partnership, or corporation having a membership in a credit union may cast one vote by its authorized agent, who shall be an officer of the organization, association, partnership, or corporation. Voting by mail ballot may be authorized by the board as prescribed in the bylaws. [1987 c 338 § 2; 1984 c 31 § 20.]

31.12.195 Special meetings—Report of results—Voting by mail ballot. (1) A special meeting of a credit union may be called by a majority of the board, a majority vote of the supervisory committee, or upon written application of at least ten percent or two thousand, whichever is less, of the voting members of a credit union. A request for a special meeting of a credit union shall be in writing and shall state specifically the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. If the special meeting is being called for the removal of a director the notice shall state the name of the director whose removal is sought.

(2) Upon receipt of a request for a special meeting, the secretary of the credit union shall designate the time and place at which the special meeting will be held. The designated place of the meeting shall be a reasonable location within the county in which the principal office of the credit union is located. The designated time of the meeting shall be no sooner than twenty nor later than thirty days after the request is received by the secretary. The secretary shall within ten days of receipt of the request give notice of the meeting, including the purpose for which the meeting is called, as provided in the bylaws. A wilful violation of this section constitutes a violation of this chapter and constitutes grounds sufficient for the suspension and removal of the secretary under RCW 31.12.575.

(3) Except as provided in this subsection, the chairman or president of the board shall preside over special meetings. If the purpose of the special meeting includes the proposed removal of the chairman or president from the board, the next highest ranking officer of the board whose removal is not sought shall preside over the special meeting. If the removal of all of the officers of the board is sought, the chairman of the supervisory committee shall preside over the special meeting. After every special meeting, the chairman of the supervisory committee shall report to the supervisor the results of the special meeting and whether the special meeting was conducted in a fair manner in accordance with the bylaws of the credit union and with customary rules of parliamentary procedure.

(4) Voting by mail ballot on issues to be presented at a special meeting is prohibited except with regard to mergers under RCW 31.12.695. Voting by mail ballot on a merger under RCW 31.12.695 may be authorized by the board in accordance with rules established by the supervisor. [1987 c 338 § 3; 1984 c 31 § 21.]

31.12.435 Investment in real property or leasehold interests for own use. (1) A credit union may invest a reasonable amount of its funds in real property or leasehold interests for its own use in conducting business if:

(a) The aggregate of its regular reserve and its undivided earnings equals five percent of the total of its share accounts;

(b) The board approves the investment in real property for its own use in conducting business by a two-thirds majority vote of the total number of directors;

(c) The total investment in the property does not exceed seven and one-half percent of the aggregate of its share and deposit accounts; and

(d) The supervisor approves of the investment in writing.

(2) The supervisor may waive the restrictions of this section. The restrictions of this section do not affect investments existing as of July 1, 1984. [1984 c 31 § 45.]

(2) (a) If a credit union has been in operation for four or more years and has assets of at least five hundred thousand dollars it shall reserve ten percent of gross income until the regular reserve equals four percent of outstanding loans and then shall reserve five percent of gross income until the regular reserve equals six percent of outstanding loans.

(b) If a credit union has been in operation for less than four years or has assets of less than five hundred thousand dollars, it shall reserve ten percent of gross income until the regular reserve equals seven and one-half percent of outstanding loans and then shall reserve five percent of gross income until the regular reserve equals ten percent of outstanding loans.

(c) The supervisor may authorize a credit union falling under subsection (2)(b) of this section to follow the reserving requirements for credit unions falling under subsection (2)(a) of this section.

(d) In computing outstanding loans for purposes of reserving, a credit union may exclude loans secured by shares and loans insured or guaranteed by the federal government or the government of this state to the extent of the security, insurance, or guarantee.

(3) When the regular reserve falls below the percentage of outstanding loans required under subsection (2) of this section, a credit union shall replenish the regular reserve by again reserving a portion of gross income as set forth in subsection (2) of this section.

(4) The regular reserve and the investments thereof shall be held to meet contingencies or losses in the business of the credit union and shall not be distributed to its members except in the case of dissolution or with the permission of the supervisor. [1984 c 31 § 46.]

31.12.455 Alternative reserve requirement—Approval. A credit union may with the approval of the supervisor, in lieu of complying with the requirements of RCW 31.12.445, comply with the reserve requirements and regulations of the national credit union administration. [1984 c 31 § 47.]

31.12.465 Liquidity reserve. The supervisor may, if deemed necessary, require a credit union to establish a liquidity reserve of up to five percent of unimpaired capital. The liquidity reserve shall be in cash or investments with maturities of one year or less. [1984 c 31 § 48.]

31.12.475 Special reserve fund. The supervisor may require a credit union to charge-off or set-up a special reserve fund for such delinquent loans or other assets as in the supervisor's opinion require such action. [1984 c 31 § 49.]

31.12.485 Dividends. (1) At each annual, semiannual, quarterly, or monthly period the board may declare a dividend from net earnings. The dividends shall be paid on all eligible shares outstanding at the time of declaration and may be paid to members on shares withdrawn during the period. Shares which became paid-up during the dividend period shall be entitled only to a proportional part of the dividend in accordance with a formula adopted by the board.

(2) Dividends may be declared from the earnings which remain after the deduction of expenses, interest on deposits, and the amounts required for regular, liquidity, and special reserve, or the dividends may be declared in whole or in part from the undivided earnings that remain from preceding periods.

(3) A member shall be given the option to receive declared dividends either by cash payment or by a credit to the member's account in either shares or deposits. [1984 c 31 § 50.]

31.12.495 Distribution of surplus earnings. A credit union may distribute surplus earnings to borrowers as an interest refund ratably in proportion to interest paid by the borrowers. [1984 c 31 § 51.]

31.12.506 Limitation on expenditures—Waiver. (1) Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, a credit union shall not pay or become liable to pay as salaries, fees, wages, or other compensation to officers, directors, agents, attorneys, and employees and for rent, advertising, and all other operating expenses, sums of money in excess of ten percent of the average amount of assets of the credit union during the prior twelve months.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section notwithstanding, a credit union shall not be limited in its expenditures to a sum less than six hundred dollars in a calendar year.

(3) The supervisor may waive the restrictions of subsection (1) of this section if, in the supervisor's opinion: (a) Circumstances warrant a waiver, and (b) waiver will not jeopardize the financial condition of the credit union. [1984 c 31 § 52.]

31.12.516 Powers of supervisor. The powers of supervision and examination of credit unions are vested in the supervisor. The supervisor shall require each credit union to conduct business in compliance with this chapter and other laws that apply to credit unions, and has the power to commence and prosecute actions and proceedings, to enjoin violations, and to collect sums due the state of Washington from a credit union authorized to conduct business under this chapter. [1984 c 31 § 53.]

31.12.526 Authority of out-of-state credit union to operate in this state—Conditions. (1) A credit union organized and qualified as a credit union in another state which has not had its authority to operate in another state suspended or revoked may operate as a credit union under this chapter if:

(a) The supervisor has approved an application to do business in this state;

(b) A credit union organized under the laws of this state is permitted to do business in the state in which the credit union is organized;

(c) The interest rate charged by the credit union on loans made to members residing in this state does not exceed the maximum interest rate permitted in the state in which the credit union is organized, or exceed the maximum interest rate which a credit union organized in this state is permitted to charge on similar loans, whichever is lower;

(d) The credit union has secured surety bond and fidelity bond coverages satisfactory to the supervisor;

(e) The credit union has secured for the share accounts of its members insurance or other surety satisfactory to the supervisor;

(f) The credit union submits to the supervisor an annual audit or examination report of its most recently completed fiscal year; and

(g) The credit union complies with all other provisions of this chapter and rules adopted by the supervisor.

(2) The supervisor shall disapprove an application filed under this section or, upon reasonable notice and an opportunity for hearing, suspend or revoke the approval of an application, if the supervisor finds that the standards of organization, operation, and regulation of the credit union do not reasonably conform with the standards under this chapter or that at least fifty percent of the members of the credit union are, or are reasonably expected to be, residents of this state. In considering the standards of organization, operation, and regulation of the credit union, the supervisor may consider the laws and regulations of the state in which the credit union is organized. A decision under this subsection may be appealed under chapter 34.04 RCW.

(3) In implementing this section, the supervisor may cooperate with the administrators of the credit union laws in other states and may share with the administrators the information received in the administration of this chapter.

(4) The supervisor shall adopt rules for the periodic examination and investigation of the affairs of an out-of-state credit union operating in this state. The costs of examination and supervision shall be fully borne by the out-of-state credit union. [1984 c 31 § 54.]

31.12.535 Rule-making authority. The supervisor may adopt such rules as are reasonable or necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter. Chapter 34.04 RCW shall wherever applicable govern the rights, remedies, and procedures respecting the administration of this chapter. [1984 c 31 § 55.]

31.12.545 Examinations and investigations—Reports—Communications. (1) The supervisor shall make an examination and full investigation into the affairs of each credit union at least once every eighteen months, unless the supervisor determines with respect to a credit union that a less frequent examination schedule will satisfactorily protect the financial stability of the credit union and will satisfactorily assure compliance with the provisions of this chapter. The actual cost of examination and supervision shall be paid by the credit union examined. The supervisor may waive all or a portion of the examination costs payable by the credit union, in light of the time and expense of the examination and the ability of the credit union to pay the costs. The examination costs with respect to the first examination of a credit union with assets under two hundred thousand dollars shall not be payable by that credit union.

(2) The supervisor may accept in lieu of an examination under subsection (1) of this section the report of an examiner authorized to examine a credit union under the laws of the United States or another state or the report of an accountant, satisfactory to the supervisor, who has made and submitted a report of the condition of the affairs of a credit union and, if approved, the report shall have the same force and effect as an examination under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) Communications from the supervisor to the board of a credit union regarding an examination or report shall be read before the board at its first meeting following the receipt of the communication and the fact that the communication was read before the board shall be noted in the minutes of the meeting. The board shall promptly respond to the supervisor either by stating that steps have been taken to comply with the communication or by stating that the board objects to the communication and stating the reasons for the objection. [1984 c 31 § 56.]

31.12.555 Investigations of credit union service organizations. The supervisor may investigate the affairs of a credit union service organization in which a credit union has an interest. A person or an entity that is not a credit union that has an interest in a credit union service organization in which a credit union has an interest is deemed to have consented to the investigation. For the purposes of this section and RCW 31.12.565, a sole proprietorship, partnership, or corporation that is primarily in the business of managing one or more credit unions shall be considered to be a credit union service organization. [1984 c 31 § 57.]

31.12.565 Examination reports and information confidential—Exceptions—Penalty. (1) Examination reports and information obtained by the supervisor's staff in conducting examinations of credit unions and credit union service organizations are confidential and privileged information and not subject to public disclosure under chapter 42.17 RCW.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, the supervisor may furnish examination reports prepared by the supervisor's office to:

(a) Federal agencies empowered to examine state-chartered credit unions;

(b) Officials empowered to investigate criminal charges. The supervisor may furnish only that part of the report which is necessary and pertinent to the investigation, and only after notifying the affected credit union and members of the credit union who are named in that part of the examination report that the report is being furnished to the officials, unless the officials requesting the report obtain a waiver of the notice requirement for good cause from a court of competent jurisdiction;

(c) The examined credit union, solely for its confidential use;

(d) The attorney general in his role as legal advisor to the supervisor;

(e) Prospective merger partners or liquidating agents of a distressed credit union;

(f) Credit union administrators in other states regarding an out-of-state chartered credit union doing business in this state under this chapter, or regarding a credit union chartered under this chapter doing business in another state;

(g) Accounting firms under contract with the credit union;

(h) Companies that have bonded the credit union to the extent that information is relevant to the renewal of the bond coverage or to a claim under the bond coverage; or

(i) Companies, associations, or agencies insuring or guaranteeing the shares of or deposits in the credit union.

(3) Examination reports furnished under subsection (2) of this section remain the property of the supervisor's office and no person, agency, or authority to whom reports are furnished or any officer, director, or employee thereof may disclose or make public the reports or information contained in the reports except in published statistical information that does not disclose the affairs of an individual or corporation, except that nothing prevents the use in a criminal prosecution of reports furnished under subsection (2)(b) of this section.

(4) In a civil action in which the reports are sought to be discovered or used as evidence, a party upon notice to the supervisor, may petition the court for an in-camera review of the reports. The court may permit discovery and introduction of only those portions of the report which are relevant and otherwise unobtainable by the requesting party. This subsection does not apply to an action brought or defended by the supervisor.

(5) This section does not apply to investigation reports prepared by the supervisor and the supervisor's staff concerning an application for a new credit union or a notice of intent to establish a branch of a credit union, except that the supervisor may adopt rules making confidential portions of the reports if in the supervisor's opinion the public disclosure of that portion of the report would impair the ability to obtain information the supervisor considers necessary to fully evaluate the application.

(6) Any person who knowingly violates a provision of this section is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. [1984 c 31 § 58.]

31.12.575 Suspension of director or principal operating officer by supervisor—Notice—Order of suspension—Removal. (1) The supervisor may suspend a director or the principal operating officer of a credit union if, in the opinion of the supervisor, the director or principal operating officer is dishonest, inefficient, incompetent, is wilfully disobeying orders of the supervisor, or is in any way violating this chapter or the bylaws of the credit union. The supervisor shall give prompt notice of and the reasons for the suspension to the board of the affected credit union.

(2) Unless the supervisor specifically provides otherwise in the order of suspension, an order of suspension shall take effect immediately. The suspended person shall be prohibited from all aspects of the operation of the credit union. The suspended person shall be barred from the credit union premises and shall surrender the possession of all property and records of the credit union. A person who knowingly violates an order of suspension or who knowingly aids in the violation of an order of suspension shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(3) Upon receipt of the notice of suspension, the board shall within twenty days call a meeting of its members to consider the causes of the suspension. The board shall give at least seven days' notice of the time and place of the meeting to the supervisor unless the supervisor agrees to accept shorter notice. If the board finds the supervisor's objection to be well-founded, the board shall remove the suspended person immediately.

(4) If the board fails to remove the suspended person as provided in subsection (3) of this section, the supervisor may remove that person after reasonable notice and an opportunity to be heard under chapter 34.04 RCW. The suspension shall remain in effect for twenty days after the board meeting at which the board considers the suspension, during which time the supervisor may call a hearing under this subsection. If the supervisor calls a hearing, the suspension shall remain in effect until the time of the hearing. [1984 c 31 § 59.]

31.12.585 Prohibited acts—Notice of charges—Hearing—Cease and desist order. (1) The supervisor may issue and serve upon a credit union a notice of charges if in the opinion of the supervisor the credit union:

(a) Is engaging or has engaged in an unsafe or unsound practice in conducting the business of the credit union;

(b) Is violating or has violated a material provision of any law, rule, or any condition imposed in writing by the supervisor in connection with the granting of any application or other request by the credit union or any written agreement made with the supervisor; or

(c) Is about to do the acts prohibited in (a) or (b) of this subsection if the opinion that the threat exists is based upon reasonable cause.

(2) The notice shall contain a statement of the facts constituting the alleged violation or the practice and shall fix a time and place at which a hearing will be held to determine whether an order to cease and desist should issue against the credit union. The hearing shall be set not earlier than ten days nor later than thirty days after service of the notice unless a later date is set by the supervisor at the request of the credit union.

Unless the credit union appears at the hearing by a duly authorized representative, it shall be deemed to have consented to the issuance of the cease and desist order. In the event of this consent or if upon the record made at the hearing the supervisor finds that any violation or practice specified in the notice of charges has been established, the supervisor may issue and serve upon the credit union an order to cease and desist from the violation or practice. The order may require the credit union and its directors, officers, employees, and agents to cease and desist from the violation or practice and may require the credit union to take affirmative action to correct the conditions resulting from the violation or practice.

(3) A cease and desist order shall become effective at the expiration of ten days after the service of the order upon the credit union concerned except that a cease and desist order issued upon consent shall become effective at the time specified in the order and shall remain effective as provided therein unless it is stayed, modified, terminated, or set aside by action of the supervisor or a reviewing court. [1984 c 31 § 60.]

31.12.595 Temporary cease and desist order. If the supervisor determines that the act specified in RCW 31.12.585 is likely to cause insolvency or substantial dissipation of assets or earnings of the credit union or to otherwise seriously prejudice the interests of its depositors, members, or shareholders, the supervisor may issue a temporary order requiring the credit union to cease and desist from the violation or practice. The order shall become effective upon service on the credit union and shall remain effective unless set aside, limited, or suspended by a court in proceedings under RCW 31.12.605

pending the completion of the administrative proceedings under the notice and until the supervisor dismisses the charges specified in the notice or until the effective date of a cease and desist order issued against the credit union under RCW 31.12.585. [1984 c 31 § 61.]

31.12.605 Injunction setting aside, limiting, or suspending temporary cease and desist order. Within ten days after a credit union has been served with a temporary cease and desist order, the credit union may apply to the superior court in the county of its principal place of business for an injunction setting aside, limiting, or suspending the order pending the completion of the administrative proceedings under RCW 31.12.585. The superior court shall have jurisdiction to issue the injunction. [1984 c 31 § 62.]

31.12.615 Injunction to enforce temporary cease and desist order. In the case of a violation or threatened violation of a temporary cease and desist order issued under RCW 31.12.595, the supervisor may apply to the superior court of the county of the principal place of business of the credit union for an injunction to enforce the order, and the court shall issue an injunction if it determines that there has been a violation or threatened violation. [1984 c 31 § 63.]

31.12.625 Administrative hearing—Decision—Orders. (1) An administrative hearing provided in RCW 31.12.585 shall be conducted in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW. The hearing shall be private unless the supervisor determines that a public hearing is necessary to protect the public interest after fully considering the views of the party afforded the hearing.

(2) Within sixty days after the hearing, the supervisor shall render a decision which shall include findings of fact upon which the decision is based and the supervisor shall issue and serve upon each party to the proceeding an order or orders consistent with RCW 31.12.585. [1984 c 31 § 64.]

31.12.635 Prohibited acts—Penalty. (1) It is unlawful for a person to perform any of the following acts:

(a) To knowingly subscribe to, make, or cause to be made a false statement or entry in the books of a credit union;

(b) To knowingly make a false statement or entry in a report required to be made to the supervisor; or

(c) To knowingly exhibit a false or fictitious paper, instrument, or security to a person authorized to examine a credit union.

(2) A violation of this section is a class C felony under chapter 9A.20 RCW. [1984 c 31 § 65.]

31.12.645 Prohibited acts of officer, director, agent, or employee—Penalty. Unless otherwise provided by law, it is a misdemeanor for an officer, director, agent, or employee of a credit union to knowingly violate or consent to the violation of this chapter. [1984 c 31 § 66.]

31.12.655 Authority of supervisor to call special meeting of board. The supervisor may request a special meeting of the board of a credit union if the supervisor believes that a special meeting is necessary for the welfare of the credit union or the purposes of this chapter. The supervisor's request for a special meeting shall be made in writing to the secretary of the board and the request shall be handled in the same manner as a call for a special meeting under RCW 31.12.195. The supervisor may require the attendance of all of the directors of the board at the special meeting, and an absence of a director unexcused by the supervisor constitutes a violation of this chapter. [1984 c 31 § 67.]

31.12.665 Authority of supervisor to attend meetings of the board. (1) The supervisor may attend a regular or special meeting of the board of a credit union if the supervisor believes that attendance at the meeting is necessary for the welfare of the credit union or the purposes of this chapter or if the board has requested the supervisor's attendance. The supervisor shall provide reasonable notice to the board before attending a meeting.

(2) A communication from the supervisor to the board shall upon the request of the supervisor be read to the board at its next meeting and the fact that the communication was read shall be noted in the minutes. [1984 c 31 § 68.]

31.12.675 Insolvency—Suspension or revocation of articles—Placement in involuntary liquidation—Appointment of liquidating agent—Notice—Procedure—Effect. (1) The articles of incorporation of a credit union may be suspended or revoked, the credit union placed in involuntary liquidation, and a liquidating agent appointed upon a finding by the supervisor that the credit union is insolvent.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the supervisor, before suspending or revoking the articles of incorporation of a credit union and placing the credit union in liquidation, shall issue and serve notice on the credit union concerned of the intention to suspend or revoke the articles and an order directing the credit union to show cause why its articles of incorporation should not be suspended or revoked, in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW.

(3) If the supervisor finds that the credit union is insolvent and the credit union fails to adequately show cause, the articles of incorporation shall be suspended or revoked and the credit union placed in involuntary liquidation. The supervisor shall serve on the credit union an order directing the suspension or revocation and an order directing the involuntary liquidation and appointment of a liquidating agent under RCW 31.12.685, and a statement of the findings on which the order is based.

(4) The suspension or revocation shall be immediate and complete. Once the articles of incorporation are suspended or revoked, the credit union shall cease conducting business. The credit union may not accept any payment on shares or deposits, may not grant or pay out any new or previously approved loans, may not invest any of its assets, and may not declare or pay out any previously declared dividends. The liquidating agent of a credit union whose articles have been suspended or revoked may accept payments on loans previously paid out and may accept income from investments already made. [1984 c 31 § 69.]

31.12.685 Order directing involuntary liquidation—Designation of liquidating agent—Procedure.

(1) The supervisor shall designate the liquidating agent in the order directing the involuntary liquidation of the credit union under RCW 31.12.675. On receipt of the order placing the credit union in involuntary liquidation, the officers and directors of the credit union concerned shall deliver to the liquidating agent possession and control of all books, records, assets, and property of the credit union.

(2) The liquidating agent shall proceed to convert the assets to cash, collect all debts due to the credit union and wind up its affairs in accordance with the instructions and procedures issued by the supervisor. If a liquidating agent agrees to absorb and serve the membership of a distressed credit union the supervisor may approve a pooling of assets and liabilities rather than a distribution of assets.

(3) The liquidating agent shall cause to be published notice of liquidation once a week for three consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the principal place of business of the liquidating credit union is located. The notice of liquidation shall inform creditors of the liquidating credit union how to make a claim upon the liquidating agent and that if a claim is not made upon the liquidating agent within thirty days of the last date of publication the creditor's claim shall be barred. The liquidating agent shall provide personal notice of liquidation to the creditors of record informing them that if they fail to make a claim upon the liquidating agent within thirty days of the service of the notice, the creditor's claim shall be barred. If a creditor fails to make a claim upon the liquidating agent within the times required to be specified in the notices of liquidation the creditor's claim shall be barred. All contingent liabilities of the liquidated credit union shall be discharged upon the supervisor's order to liquidate the credit union. The liquidating agent shall, upon completion, certify to the supervisor that the distribution or pooling of assets of the credit union is complete. [1984 c 31 § 70.]

31.12.695 Mergers. (1) For purposes of this section the merging credit union is the credit union whose charter ceases to exist upon merging with the continuing credit union. The continuing credit union is the credit union whose charter continues upon merging with the merging credit union.

(2) A credit union may be merged with another credit union with the approval of the supervisor and in accordance with requirements the supervisor may prescribe. The merger shall be approved by two-thirds majority vote of the board of each credit union and two-thirds majority vote of those members of the merging credit union voting on the merger at a special membership meeting called by the merging credit union board or by mail ballot as provided in RCW 31.12.195(4). The requirement of approval by the members of the merging credit union may be waived if in the supervisor's opinion the merging credit union is in imminent danger of insolvency.

(3) The property, rights, and interests of the merging credit union transfer to and vest in the continuing credit union without deed, endorsement, or instrument of transfer, although instruments of transfer may be used if their use is deemed appropriate. The debts and obligations of the merging credit union that are known or reasonably should be known are assumed by the continuing credit union. The continuing credit union shall cause to be published notice of merger once a week for three consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the principal place of business of the merging credit union is located. The notice of merger shall inform creditors of the merging credit union how to make a claim on the continuing credit union and that if a claim is not made upon the continuing credit union within thirty days of the last date of publication creditors' claims that are not known by the continuing credit union may be barred. Unless a claim is filed as requested by the notice, or unless the debt or obligation is known or reasonably should be known by the continuing credit union, the debts and obligations of the merging credit union are discharged. Upon merger the charter of the merging credit union ceases to exist. [1987 c 338 § 8; 1984 c 31 § 71.]

31.12.705 Conversion of state to federal credit union.

(1) A credit union chartered under the laws of this state may convert itself into a federal credit union chartered under the laws of the United States as authorized by the federal credit union act. The conversion shall be approved by two-thirds majority vote of the members present at any regular or special membership meeting called for that purpose by the board. The meeting shall be held within thirty days of being called and the secretary shall notify the members and the supervisor of the meeting and its purpose as provided by the bylaws at least twenty days prior to the meeting.

(2) If the conversion is approved by the members a copy of the resolution certified by the board shall be filed with the supervisor within ten days of approval. The board may effect the conversion from a state-chartered credit union to a federal-chartered credit union upon terms agreed by the board and the proper federal authorities as provided by federal laws, rules, and regulations.

(3) A certified copy of the federal credit union charter or authorization issued to the credit union by the proper federal authority shall be filed in the supervisor's office and thereupon the state-chartered credit union ceases to exist except for the purpose of winding up its affairs and prosecuting or defending any litigation by or against the state-chartered credit union. For all other purposes the credit union is converted into a federal-chartered credit union and the state-chartered credit union may execute, acknowledge, and deliver to the successor federal credit union the instruments of transfer, conveyance, and assignment that are necessary or desirable to complete the conversion, and the property, tangible or intangible, and all rights, titles, and interests that are agreed to by the board and the proper federal authorities.

(4) Procedures, similar to those contained in subsections (1) through (3) of this section, prescribed by the supervisor shall be followed when a credit union chartered under the laws of this state merges with or converts to a credit union chartered under the laws of another state. [1984 c 31 § 72.]

31.12.715 Conversion of federal to state credit union.

(1) A federal credit union located and conducting business in this state which becomes inoperative because of a change in the laws under which it is chartered or which is authorized to dissolve or convert to a state-chartered credit union in accordance with federal law may convert into a state-chartered credit union.

(2) The board of the federal credit union shall file with the supervisor proposed articles of incorporation and proposed bylaws, as provided by this chapter for organizing a new state-chartered credit union. If approved by the supervisor the federal-chartered credit union shall become a state-chartered credit union under the laws of this state and the assets and liabilities of the credit union vest in and become the property of the successor state-chartered credit union subject to all existing liabilities against the federal-chartered credit union. Shareholders and members of the federal credit union may become shareholders and members of the successor state-chartered credit union.

(3) Procedures, similar to those contained in subsections (1) and (2) of this section, prescribed by the supervisor shall be followed when a credit union chartered under the laws of another state wishes to merge with or convert to a credit union chartered under the laws of this state. [1984 c 31 § 73.]

31.12.720 Satellite facilities. See chapter 30.43 RCW.

31.12.725 Liquidation—Disposition of unclaimed funds. (1) At a meeting specially called for the purpose of liquidation, upon the recommendation of at least two-thirds of the total members of the board of a credit union, the members of a credit union may by a two-thirds vote of the members present elect to liquidate the credit union.

(2) Upon a vote to liquidate under subsection (1) of this section, a committee of three shall be elected to liquidate the assets of the credit union. The committee shall act under the direction of the supervisor and may be reasonably compensated by the board of the credit union. Each share of the credit union shall be entitled to its proportionate part of the assets in liquidation after all deposits and debts have been paid. The assets of the liquidating credit union shall not be subject to contingent liabilities. Upon distribution of the assets, the credit union shall cease to exist except for the purpose of discharging existing liabilities and obligations.

(3) Funds representing unclaimed dividends in liquidation and remaining in the hands of the liquidating committee for six months after the date of the final dividend shall be deposited, together with all the books and papers of the credit union, with the supervisor. The supervisor may one year after receipt destroy such records, books, and papers as, in the supervisor's judgment, are obsolete or unnecessary for future reference. The funds may be deposited in one or more trust companies, mutual savings banks, savings and loan associations, or national or state banks to the credit of the supervisor in trust for the members of the liquidating credit union entitled to the funds. The supervisor may pay to a person entitled to it that person's portion of the funds upon the receipt of satisfactory evidence that the person is entitled to a portion of the funds. In case of doubt or of conflicting claims, the supervisor may require an order of the superior court of the county in which the credit union was located authorizing and directing the payment of the funds. The supervisor may apply the interest earned by the funds toward defraying the expenses incurred in the holding and paying of the funds. Five years after the receipt of the funds, the funds still remaining with the supervisor shall be escheated to the state. [1984 c 31 § 74.]

Uniform unclaimed property act: Chapter 63.29 RCW.

31.12.735 Taxation of credit unions. Neither a credit union nor its members may be taxed upon its shares and deposits as property. A credit union shall be taxable upon its real property and tangible personal property, and every credit union shall be termed a mutual institution for savings and neither it nor its property may be taxable under any law which exempts savings banks or institutions for savings from taxation. For all purposes of taxation, the assets represented by the regular reserve and other reserves, other than reserves for expenses and losses of a credit union, shall be deemed its only permanent capital, and in computing any tax, whether it be property, income, or excise, appropriate adjustment shall be made to give effect to the mutual nature of such credit union. [1984 c 31 § 75.]

31.12.902 Short title. This chapter may be known and cited as the "Washington State Credit Union Act." [1984 c 31 § 76.]

31.12.903 Application of chapter to credit unions operating on July 1, 1984. Credit unions organized and operating under the laws of this state as of July 1, 1984, may continue to operate after July 1, 1984, and need not comply with the requirements of organization under RCW 31.12.055 through 31.12.085. The activities of such credit unions conducted after July 1, 1984, shall be governed by the provisions of this chapter. [1984 c 31 § 77.]

31.12.904 Severability—1984 c 31. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1984 c 31 § 80.]

31.12.905 Effective date—1984 c 31. This act shall take effect on July 1, 1984. The supervisor of savings and loans may immediately take such steps as are necessary to ensure that this act is implemented on its effective date. [1984 c 31 § 81.]

31.12A.005 Purpose. The purpose of this chapter is to provide funds arising from assessments upon member credit unions chartered by the state of Washington (1) to guarantee payment, to the extent herein provided, to credit union shareholders of the amount of loss to their share and deposit accounts in a liquidating member credit union, and (2) to provide other services to promote the stability of state-chartered credit unions. In the judgment of the legislature, the foregoing purposes not being capable of accomplishment by a corporation created under general laws, the creation of the nonprofit association hereinafter in this chapter described is deemed essential for the protection of the general welfare. [1982 c 67 § 1; 1975 1st ex.s. c 80 § 2.]

Severability—1980 c 41: See note following RCW 11.62.030.

31.12A.020 Guaranty association created. There is hereby created a nonprofit unincorporated legal entity to be known as the Washington credit union share guaranty association, which shall be comprised of state-chartered credit unions in the state of Washington and governed by a board of directors as in RCW 31.12A.060 provided. [1975 1st ex.s. c 80 § 4.]

31.12A.030 Powers of the association. The association shall have power:

(1) To use a seal, to contract, to sue and be sued;

(2) To make bylaws for conduct of its affairs, not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter;

(3) To lend and to borrow money, and require and give security;

(4) To receive, collect, and enforce by legal proceedings, if necessary, payment of all assessments for which any member may be liable under this chapter, and payment of any other debt or obligation due the association;

(5) To invest and reinvest its funds in investments permitted for credit unions in RCW 31.12.425, provided such investments do not exceed a maximum maturity of one year;

(6) To acquire, hold, convey, dispose of and otherwise engage in transactions involving or affecting real and personal property of all kinds;

(7) To assess each member an amount not exceeding that permitted in RCW 31.12A.050 for liquidations to cover the expense of operation of the association, as established in the bylaws, and for such other proper purposes of the association;

(8) To enter into contracts of insurance or reinsurance, insuring in whole or in part its contractual guaranties to its member credit unions and other insurance or bonding contracts necessary or advisable in the conduct of its business; and

(9) To carry out the applicable provisions of this chapter. [1985 c 7 § 99; 1982 c 67 § 3; 1975 1st ex.s. c 80 § 5.]

31.12A.040 Membership—Association operative date. (1) Every credit union meeting the following qualifications is eligible for membership in the association:

(a) Must be in business as a duly authorized credit union.

(b) Must be operating in compliance with applicable laws and the rules and regulations of the supervisor.

(c) Must not be in the process of liquidation, either voluntary or involuntary.

(2) Prior to the operative date stated in subsection (3) of this section, application for membership shall be made by the credit union in writing to the association on forms designed and furnished by the association, and filed with the secretary. An application fee, as fixed in the bylaws, payable to the order of the association, shall accompany each such application. If the application is found to be:

(a) Complete, and the applicant qualified for membership: The association shall issue and deliver to the applicant a certificate of membership in appropriate form.

(b) Incomplete: The association shall require the applicant to refile said application in its entirety within thirty days.

(c) Not qualified: The association shall notify said applicant within thirty days of filing: Provided, That said applicant will be allowed to meet qualification standards under conditions as provided in the bylaws of the association.

(3) The initial membership of the association shall be comprised of all those credit unions qualified under subsection (1) of this section by the supervisor within sixty days after September 1, 1975, with final ratification by the initial board of directors subject to full compliance of all qualifications for membership within one hundred twenty days after September 1, 1975.

(4) Membership in either this association or the federal share insurance program under the national credit union administration shall be mandatory. [1982 c 67 § 4; 1975 1st ex.s. c 80 § 6.]

31.12A.050 Funding—Investments—Termination. (1) Funding of the association shall be by transfers to a share guaranty association contingency reserve as follows:

(a) Credit unions approved by the supervisor and ratified by the board for membership subsequent to those initial members shall establish a share guaranty association contingency reserve by transferring from their guaranty fund an amount equal to one-half of one percent of the total guaranteeable outstanding share and deposit balances as of the date of membership. When one member credit union is merged into another member credit union, the continuing credit union shall include in its share guaranty contingency reserve the share guaranty contingency reserve of the merged credit union. A nonmember credit union merging with a member credit union must transfer into the share guaranty contingency reserve of the continuing credit union an amount equal to one-half of one percent of the total guaranteeable outstanding share and deposit balances of the nonmember credit union as of the effective date of the merger, as determined by the supervisor.

(b) On the first business day of each year, member credit unions shall make a transfer of an amount sufficient to adjust the contingency reserve to a level of one-half of one percent of the guaranteeable outstanding share and deposit balances as of December 31st of the previous year. If the member's guaranteeable outstanding share and deposit balances decrease from the previous year, any excess which may then appear in the contingency reserve may be transferred to the guaranty fund.

(c) The board may require one additional transfer during the calendar year of an amount not to exceed one-half of one percent of the guaranteeable outstanding share and deposit balances as of December 31st of the previous year. Credit unions which have merged during the year and credit unions which have joined during the year will be subject to the one additional transfer, even if that required transfer occurred before ratification of the joining member or the merger of the two credit unions. The transfer will be based on the guaranteeable share and deposit balances of those credit unions as of the following dates:

(i) For new members, the balances as of the date of membership;

(ii) For members that merge, the sum of the balances as of December 31st of the previous year;

(iii) For a nonmember merging with a member, the sum of the member's balances as of December 31st of the previous year, and of the nonmember's balances as of the effective date of the merger.

(2) Sums specified in subsection (1) of this section may be offset from the statutory transfer requirement to the guaranty fund and shall be retained in the credit union share guaranty contingency reserve as an integral part of its guaranty fund until such time and if necessary to be drawn for the purposes set forth in this chapter.

(3) Members' share guaranty association contingency reserve funds shall be invested in investments as permitted in the bylaws of the association.

(4) The board, in concurrence with the supervisor, may also suspend or diminish the transfer in any given period after reaching a normal operating sufficiency as provided in the bylaws.

(5) Membership in this association may be terminated upon approval by a majority of the credit union members responding to such a proposal and subject further to acceptance by the national credit union administration of continued share insurance coverage under the national credit union administration share insurance program.

Notice of such intentions shall be in writing to the association's board of directors at least twelve months prior to such contemplated action: Provided, That in the event that the credit union board has voted to recommend to the membership liquidation, conversion from state to federal credit union charter, or merger with or conversion to a credit union organized under the laws of another state, the liquidating, converting, or merging member will notify the association in writing within seven days after the credit union board has taken such action. Share guarantee coverage through the association will terminate with the effective date of the new charter or completion of the liquidation or merger as determined by the supervisor.

(6) Except for a credit union merging with a member credit union, any credit union terminating membership in the association shall be assessed its pro rata share of the difference, if any, between the association's current liability for contracted guarantees and the amount from previous assessments currently held for contracted guarantees by the association. Such difference shall be determined by the supervisor at the time the membership is terminated. If the amount of the assessment exceeds the amount of the actual obligation when finalized, the excess shall be refunded in the same proportion as paid. [1983 c 48 § 2; 1982 c 67 § 5; 1980 c 41 § 12; 1975 1st ex.s. c 80 § 7.]

Severability—1980 c 41: See note following RCW 11.62.030.

31.12A.060 Management. (1) The affairs and operations of the association shall be managed and conducted by a board of directors and officers.

(2) The board shall consist of not more than five directors, as provided by the bylaws. Directors shall be elected by members for terms, as fixed by the bylaws, of not more than three years. The board shall have power to fill vacancies occurring during the interim between annual meetings and until an election is held at the next annual meeting, to fill that portion of the unexpired term.

(3) The officers shall be elected by the board, and shall be a chairman of the board, a vice chairman, a secretary and a treasurer. The offices of secretary and treasurer may be held by the same person. The officers shall have the usual and customary powers and responsibilities of the respective offices, as fixed by the bylaws.

(4) The directors shall be compensated only to the extent of actual out-of-pocket travel and meeting expenses as provided in the bylaws. [1982 c 67 § 6; 1975 1st ex.s. c 80 § 8.]

31.12A.070 First meeting of members and board of directors. (1) Within thirty days after the operative date of this chapter, the supervisor shall call a first meeting of the initial members of the association for the purpose of electing directors and shall give written notice of the time and place of such meeting. The meeting shall be held within sixty days after such operative date, at a place in this state selected by the supervisor and of convenience to members. The supervisor shall preside at the meeting.

(2) The initial board of directors shall meet within thirty days after the first meeting of members, to elect officers, consider bylaws, and transact such other business relating to the association as may properly come before it. [1975 1st ex.s. c 80 § 9.]

31.12A.080 Bylaws. (1) The first bylaws of the association shall be as adopted by its initial board, and the board shall so adopt bylaws within three months after the association has become operative. All bylaws, and amendments thereof, shall be promptly filed with, and are subject to the approval of, the supervisor, and shall be approved if found by the supervisor to be reasonable, and fair and equitable to the association and its members. Among the customary, useful, and desirable provisions the bylaws shall provide:

(a) For the date and place of holding the annual meeting of members.

(b) Procedure for holding of special meetings.

(c) For voting privilege.

(d) For quorum requirements.

(e) For qualifications of directors, for procedures for nomination, election and removal of directors; and number, term and compensation of directors.

(f) For the bonding of any individual who may be expected to handle funds for the association.

(g) Qualifications for membership.

(h) Duties of officers.

(i) Application fees and assessment fees.

(j) Fines, if any.

(k) Coverage loss limits.

(l) Powers and duties of the board.

(m) Types of investments, liquidity, and normal operating sufficiency.

(n) Such other regulations as may be deemed necessary.

(2) After adoption of initial bylaws by the board, the bylaws shall be subject to amendments only by vote of the members. The secretary-treasurer of the association shall promptly file all bylaws and amendments with the supervisor. No bylaws or amendments thereto, except the adoption of initial bylaws, shall be effective until approved by the supervisor as hereinabove in this section provided. [1975 1st ex.s. c 80 § 10.]

31.12A.090 Liquidation of members—Assessment.

(1) In the event a member of the association is placed in liquidation, either voluntary or involuntary, the supervisor or his representative shall determine as soon as is reasonably possible the probable assessment, if any, resulting therefrom to its shareholders. If an assessment seems to be indicated, the supervisor or his representative shall promptly inform the association in writing of the probable amount of such assessment. In determining the probable assessment for the liquidating member, charges, if any, for services of the supervisor or his representative, or his staff, as well as accrued but unpaid interest or dividends on share accounts, shall not be deemed liabilities of the liquidating credit union; and, with the consent of the association, all illiquid holdings (furniture, fixtures and other personal property) of the liquidating member, at the fair recoverable value thereof, as determined by the supervisor or his representative, may be excluded as assets. In determining the assessment as to a particular share account, the supervisor or his representative shall first deduct the amount of any accrued and currently payable obligation of the shareholder to the liquidating credit union.

(2) Within thirty days after receipt by the association of the foregoing information, the board shall notify the remaining members of the association of the aggregate amount required to make good the probable net loss to share accounts, subject to the following conditions:

(a) The amount of loss to be made good to any shareholder shall not be less than provided by the national credit union administration share insurance program, with authority vested in the association to increase the coverage.

(b) To the amount of the assessment as otherwise determined pursuant to this section, the board may add such amount as it may deem to be reasonably necessary to cover its clerical, mailing and other expense connected with the assessment and distribution of the proceeds thereof to shareholders of the liquidating credit union, not to exceed actual costs of such mailing and clerical services.

(c) The amount of the assessment shall be prorated among the assessed members against their share guaranty contingency reserve: Provided, That members shall not be liable for any amount of assessment exceeding their share guaranty contingency reserve or for any assessments exceeding those permitted in RCW 31.12A-.050 as now or hereafter amended.

(d) That a plan for an orderly and expeditious liquidation be presented to the board of directors for their consideration and approval. In cases where a central or other eligible credit union is authorized to act as liquidator or liquidating agent, the association would provide an indemnity against loss to such authorized credit union.

(3) In case of liquidation the board shall cause written notice to each member only if a potential assessment is indicated and the probable amount of such contingency as it relates to a percentage of their total share guaranty contingency reserve. The actual assessment shall be paid by members upon completion of liquidation or sooner, as determined by the board of directors. In all cases the total reserve structure of a liquidating credit union, including its share guaranty contingency reserve, shall be utilized in concluding the liquidation. [1982 c 67 § 7; 1975 1st ex.s. c 80 § 11.]

31.12A.100 Payment to shareholders—Subrogation. (1) Upon collection in full of the amount assessed against members as provided for in RCW 31.12A.090, or other provision satisfactory to the board, the association shall conclude the liquidation subject to acceptance by the supervisor.

(2) If illiquid holdings of the liquidating member have not been included as assets in determining net loss to share accounts, as provided for in RCW 31.12A.090(1), the association shall be subrogated to all rights of shareholders with respect to such holdings and to the extent of the value thereof so excluded and reflected in the assessment of association members; and the officers of the liquidating member or other persons having authority with respect thereto shall execute such conveyances, assignments, or other documents as may be requested by the association to facilitate recovery by the association in due course of the amount of its interest in such assets or so much thereof as may in fact be recoverable. The association shall have the right to bring and maintain suit or other action in its own name for the enforcement of any right of the insolvent member or its shareholders with respect to any such asset. [1975 1st ex.s. c 80 § 12.]

31.12A.110 Disposition of amounts recovered. Amounts recovered by the association pursuant to its right of subrogation as provided in RCW 31.12A.100(2) shall be refunded pro rata to those members who paid assessments out of which right of subrogation arose. [1975 1st ex.s. c 80 § 13.]

31.12A.120 Reports—Recommendations—Examination. (1) Within sixty days after expiration of each calendar year, the association shall render a report in writing of its financial affairs and transactions for the year, and of its financial condition at year-end. The association shall furnish a copy of the report to each member and to the supervisor.

(2) The financial affairs of the association shall be subject to examination by the supervisor at such intervals as he may deem advisable in relation to the extent of the association's activities. The cost of examination shall be borne by the association. In lieu of his own examination, the supervisor may accept the report of any competent accountant, satisfactory to the supervisor. [1975 1st ex.s. c 80 § 14.]

31.12A.130 Taxation. The association shall be exempt from all taxes and fees now or hereafter imposed by the state of Washington or any county, municipality, or local authority or subdivision; except that any real property owned by the association shall be subject to taxation to the same extent according to its value as other real property is taxed. [1975 1st ex.s. c 80 § 15.]

31.12A.140 Immunity. There shall be no separate and individual liability on the part of and no cause of action of any nature shall arise against any member insurer, agents or employees of the association, the board of directors, or the supervisor or his representatives, for any action taken by them in the performance of their powers and duties under this chapter. [1975 1st ex.s. c 80 § 16.]

31.12A.900 Short title. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Washington credit union share guaranty association act. [1975 1st ex.s. c 80 § 17.]

31.12A.910 Construction—1975 1st ex.s. c 80. This chapter shall be liberally construed to effect the purpose stated in RCW 31.12A.005, which shall constitute an aid and guide to interpretation. [1975 1st ex.s. c 80 § 18.]

31.12A.930 Effective date—1975 1st ex.s. c 80. This act shall become effective on September 1, 1975. [1975 1st ex.s. c 80 § 21.]

31.12A.940 Severability—1975 1st ex.s. c 80. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part of this act shall for any reason be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder thereof but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment has been rendered. [1975 1st ex.s. c 80 § 20.]

Each loan by the association to its members shall be evidenced by the negotiable promissory note of the member borrower in an amount exceeding the credit extended to such member by ten percent, with interest at a rate fixed by the association and maturing at least fifteen days prior to the maturity of the crop credit notes herein provided for, which note shall be secured by a negotiable warehouse receipt covering said standard agricultural product; a policy of insurance against loss by fire, and a certificate of inspection by the proper authority of the state of Washington as to the quality and variety of the farm product offered as such security. All such crops so offered as security for such loans must be free and clear of all incumbrances, except inspection, warehouse and insurance charges accruing against same: Provided, That when the standard crop used as the basis of credit is wheat, seventy-five percent of the fair market value may be loaned thereon and no certificate of inspection thereof shall be required. (1) All loan limits shall be established at the thousand dollar amount nearest to the amount computed in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(2) No loan to the corporation shall be made if immediately thereafter the total amount of the obligations of the corporation would exceed fifteen times the amount then paid in on the outstanding capital stock of the corporation.

The adjusted loan limit of a member shall be the amount of such member's loan limit, reduced by the balance of outstanding loans made by such member to the corporation and the investment in capital stock of the corporation held by such member at the time of such call.

(5) All loans to the corporation by members shall be evidenced by bonds, debentures, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness of the corporation, which shall be freely transferable at all times, and which shall bear interest at a rate of not less than one-quarter of one percent in excess of the rate of interest determined by the board of directors to be the prime rate prevailing at the date of issuance thereof on unsecured commercial loans. proof of publication of such report shall be filed with the supervisor within forty days from such date. Every special report shall be filed with the supervisor within such time as shall be specified in the notice therefor.

Failure of the Washington land bank to file any report, required to be filed as aforesaid within the time herein specified, shall be subject to a penalty of fifty dollars per day for each day's delay. A civil action for the recovery of any such penalty may be brought by the attorney general in the name of the state. [1987 c 420 § 7.]

31.30.180 Application, investigation, and examination fees. The supervisor shall collect from the Washington land bank for application and investigations and for each examination of its condition a fee as set by applicable regulation of the division of banking. [1987 c 420 § 8.]

31.30.190 Confidentiality of examination reports and information—Exceptions—Penalty. (1) All examination reports and all information obtained by the supervisor and the supervisor's staff in conducting examinations of the Washington land bank is confidential and privileged information and shall not be made public or otherwise disclosed to any person, firm, corporation, agency, association, governmental body, or other entity.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section notwithstanding, the supervisor may furnish all or any part of examination reports prepared by the supervisor's office to:

(a) Officials empowered to investigate criminal charges subject to legal process, valid search warrant, or subpoena. If the supervisor furnishes any examination report to officials empowered to investigate criminal charges, the supervisor may only furnish that part of the report which is necessary and pertinent to the investigation, and the supervisor may do this only after notifying the Washington land bank and any customer of the Washington land bank who is named in that part of the examination or report ordered to be furnished unless the officials requesting the report first obtain a waiver of the notice requirement from a court of competent jurisdiction for good cause;

(b) The Washington land bank;

(c) The attorney general in his or her role as legal advisor to the supervisor;

(d) A person or organization officially connected with the Washington land bank as officer, director, attorney, auditor, or independent attorney or independent auditor.

(3) All examination reports furnished under subsections (2) and (4) of this section shall remain the property of the division of banking, and be confidential and no person, agency, or authority to whom reports are furnished or any officer, director, or employee thereof shall disclose or make public any of the reports or any information contained therein except in published statistical material that does not disclose the affairs of any individual or corporation: Provided, That nothing herein shall prevent the use in a criminal prosecution of reports furnished under subsection (2) of this section.

(4) The examination report made by the division of banking is designed for use in the supervision of the Washington land bank. The report shall remain the property of the supervisor and will be furnished to the Washington land bank for its confidential use. Under no circumstances shall the Washington land bank, or any of its directors, officers, or employees disclose or make public in any manner the report or any portion thereof, to any person or organization not connected with the Washington land bank as officer, director, employee, attorney, auditor, or candidate for executive office with the bank.

(5) Examination reports and information obtained by the supervisor and the supervisor's staff in conducting examinations shall not be subject to public disclosure under chapter 42.17 RCW.

(6) In any civil action in which the reports are sought to be discovered or used as evidence, any party may, upon notice to the supervisor, petition the court for an in camera review of the report. The court may permit discovery and introduction of only those portions of the report which are relevant and otherwise unobtainable by the requesting party. This subsection shall not apply to an action brought or defended by the supervisor.

(7) This section shall not apply to investigation reports prepared by the supervisor and the supervisor's staff concerning an application for establishment of the Washington land bank: Provided, That the supervisor may adopt rules making confidential portions of the reports if in the supervisor's opinion the public disclosure of the portions of the report would impair the ability to obtain the information which the supervisor considers necessary to fully evaluate the application.

(8) Every person who violates any provision of this section shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor. [1987 c 420 § 9.]

31.30.200 Violations or unsafe practices—Notice of charges—Contents of notice—Hearing—Cease and desist order. (1) The supervisor may issue and serve upon the Washington land bank a notice of charges if in the opinion of the supervisor, the Washington land bank:

(a) Is engaging or has engaged in an unsafe or unsound practice in conducting its business;

(b) Is violating or has violated the law, rule, or any condition imposed in writing by the supervisor in connection with the granting of any application or other request by the bank or any written agreement made with the supervisor; or

(c) Is about to do the acts prohibited in (a) or (b) of this subsection when the opinion that the threat exists is based upon reasonable cause.

(2) The notice shall contain a statement of the facts constituting the alleged violation or violations or the practice or practices and shall fix a time and place at which a hearing will be held to determine whether an order to cease and desist should issue against the bank. The hearing shall be set not earlier than ten days nor later than thirty days after service of the notice unless a later date is set by the supervisor at the request of the bank.

Unless the bank shall appear at the hearing by a duly authorized representative it shall be deemed to have consented to the issuance of the cease and desist order. In the event of this consent or if upon the record made at the hearing the supervisor finds that any violation or practice specified in the notice of charges has been established, the supervisor may issue and serve upon the bank an order to cease and desist from the violation or practice. The order may require the bank and its directors, officers, employees, and agents to cease and desist from the violation or practice and may require the bank to take affirmative action to correct the conditions resulting from the violation or practice.

(3) A cease and desist order shall become effective at the expiration of ten days after the service of the order upon the bank except that a cease and desist order issued upon consent shall become effective at the time specified in the order and shall remain effective as provided therein unless it is stayed, modified, terminated, or set aside by action of the supervisor or a reviewing court. [1987 c 420 § 10.]

31.30.210 Violations or unsafe practices—Temporary cease and desist order. Whenever the supervisor determines that the acts specified in RCW 31.30.200 or their continuation is likely to cause insolvency or substantial dissipation of assets or earnings of the bank, the supervisor may also issue a temporary order requiring the bank to cease and desist from the violation or practice. The order shall become effective upon service on the bank and shall remain effective unless set aside, limited, or suspended by a court in proceedings under RCW 31.30.180 pending the completion of the administrative proceedings under the notice and until such time as the supervisor shall dismiss the charges specified in the notice or until the effective date of a cease and desist order issued against the bank pursuant to RCW 31.30.180. [1987 c 420 § 11.]

31.30.220 Violations or unsafe practices—Injunction to set aside, limit, or suspend temporary cease and desist order. Within ten days after the bank has been served with a temporary cease and desist order, the bank may apply to the superior court in the county of its principal place of business for an injunction setting aside, limiting, or suspending the order pending the completion of the administrative proceedings pursuant to the notice served. The superior court shall have jurisdiction to issue the injunction. [1987 c 420 § 12.]

31.30.230 Violation of temporary cease and desist order—Injunction to enforce order. In the case of a violation or threatened violation of a temporary cease and desist order issued, the supervisor may apply to the superior court of the county of the principal place of business of the bank for an injunction to enforce the order, and the court shall issue an injunction if it determines that there has been a violation or threatened violation. [1987 c 420 § 13.]

31.30.240 Administrative hearing—Procedure—Order—Judicial review. (1) Any administrative hearing may be held at such place as is designated by the supervisor and shall be conducted in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW. The hearing shall be private unless the supervisor determines that a public hearing is necessary to protect the public interest after fully considering the views of the party afforded the hearing.

Within sixty days after the hearing the supervisor shall render a decision which shall include findings of fact upon which the decision is based and shall issue and serve upon each party to the proceedings an order or orders.

Unless a petition for review is timely filed in the superior court of the county of the principal place of business of the bank and until the record in the proceeding has been filed as therein provided, the supervisor may at any time modify, terminate, or set aside any order upon such notice and in such manner as deemed proper. Upon filing the record, the supervisor may modify, terminate, or set aside any order only with permission of the court.

The judicial review provided in this section for an order shall be exclusive.

(2) Any party to the proceeding or any person required by an order to refrain from any of the violations or practices stated therein may obtain a review of any order served under subsection (1) of this section other than one issued upon consent by filing in the superior court of the county of the principal place of business of the bank within ten days after the date of service of the order a written petition praying that the order of the supervisor be modified, terminated, or set aside. A copy of the petition shall be immediately served upon the supervisor and the supervisor shall then file in the court the record of the proceeding. The court shall have jurisdiction upon the filing of the petition, which jurisdiction shall become exclusive upon the filing of the record to affirm, modify, terminate, or set aside in whole or in part the order of the supervisor except that the supervisor may modify, terminate, or set aside an order with the permission of the court. The judgment and decree of the court shall be final, except that it shall be subject to appellate review under the rules of court.

(3) The commencement of proceedings for judicial review under subsection (2) of this section shall not operate as a stay of any order issued by the supervisor unless specifically ordered by the court. [1987 c 420 § 14.]

31.30.250 Removal of director, officer, or employee or prohibition from participation in conduct of affairs—Grounds—Notice. The supervisor may serve upon a director, officer, or employee of the Washington land bank a written notice of the supervisor's intention to remove the person from office or to prohibit the person from participation in the conduct of the affairs of the bank whenever:

(1) In the opinion of the supervisor any director, officer, or employee of the bank has committed or engaged in:

(a) Any violation of law or rule or of a cease and desist order which has become final;

(b) Any unsafe or unsound practice in connection with the bank; or

(c) Any act, omission, or practice which constitutes a breach of his fiduciary duty as director, officer, or employee; and

(2) The supervisor determines that:

(a) The bank has suffered or may suffer substantial financial loss or other damage; or

(b) The interests of its investors could be seriously prejudiced by reason of the violation or practice or breach of fiduciary duty; and

(c) The violation or practice or breach of fiduciary duty is one involving personal dishonesty, recklessness, or incompetence on the part of the director, officer, or employee. [1987 c 420 § 15.]

31.30.260 Notice of intention to remove or prohibit participation in conduct of affairs—Hearing—Order. A notice of an intention to remove a director, officer, or employee from office or to prohibit participation in the conduct of the affairs of the bank shall contain a statement of the facts which constitute grounds therefor and shall fix a time and place at which a hearing will be held. The hearing shall be set not earlier than ten days nor later than [than] thirty days after the date of service of the notice unless an earlier or later date is set by the supervisor at the request of the director, officer, or employee for good cause shown or of the attorney general of the state.

Unless the director, officer, or employee appears at the hearing personally or by a duly authorized representative, the person shall be deemed to have consented to the issuance of an order of removal or prohibition or both. In the event of such consent or if upon the record made at the hearing the supervisor finds that any of the grounds specified in the notice have been established, the supervisor may issue such orders of removal from office or prohibition from participation in the conduct of the affairs of the bank as the supervisor may consider appropriate.

Any order shall become effective at the expiration of ten days after service upon the bank and the director, officer, or employee concerned except that an order issued upon consent shall become effective at the time specified in the order.

An order shall remain effective except to the extent it is stayed, modified, terminated, or set aside by the supervisor or a reviewing court. [1987 c 420 § 16.]

31.30.270 Removal of directors—Lack of quorum—Temporary directors. If at any time because of the removal of one or more directors under this chapter there shall be on the board of directors of the bank less than a quorum of directors, all powers and functions vested in or exercisable by the board shall vest in and be exercisable by the director or directors remaining until such time as there is a quorum on the board of directors. If all of the directors of the bank are removed under this chapter, the supervisor shall appoint persons to serve temporarily as directors until such time as their respective successors take office. [1987 c 420 § 17.]

31.30.900 Severability—1986 c 284. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1986 c 284 § 16.]

32.04.010 Scope of title. This title shall not be construed as amending or repealing any other law of the state authorizing the incorporation of banks or regulating the same, but shall be deemed to be additional legislation for the sole purpose of authorizing the incorporation and operation of mutual savings banks and mutual savings banks converted under chapter 32.32 RCW to stock form, as herein prescribed. Savings banks incorporated on the stock plan, other than converted mutual savings banks, and other stock banks having savings departments as authorized by RCW 30.20.060, or by any other law of the state heretofore or hereafter enacted, shall not be in any manner affected by the provisions of this title, or any amendment thereto. [1981 c 85 § 105; 1955 c 13 § 32.04.010. Prior: 1915 c 175 § 52; RRS § 3381.]

32.04.020 Definitions. The use of the term "savings bank" in this title refers to mutual savings banks and converted mutual savings banks only.

The use of the words "mutual savings" as part of a name under which business of any kind is or may be transacted by any person, firm, or corporation, except such as were organized and in actual operation on June 9, 1915, or as may be thereafter organized and operated under the requirements of this title is hereby prohibited.

The use of the term "supervisor" in this title refers to the supervisor of banking.

The use of the word "branch" in this title refers to an established manned place of business or manned mobile facility or other manned facility of a savings bank, other than the principal office, at which deposits may be taken. [1985 c 56 § 1; 1981 c 85 § 106; 1955 c 13 § 32-.04.020. Prior: 1915 c 175 § 49; RRS § 3378.]

32.04.022 "Mortgage" includes deed of trust. The word "mortgage" as used in this title includes deed of trust. [1969 c 55 § 13.]

32.04.025 Powers as to horizontal property regimes or condominiums. The words "real estate" and "real property" as used in this title shall include apartments or other portions, however designated, of horizontal property regimes, or a condominium interest in property, as may be created under any laws now in existence or hereafter enacted. A mutual savings bank may do any act necessary or appropriate in connection with its interest in or ownership of any portion of a horizontal property regime or condominium. [1963 c 176 § 10.]

Horizontal property regimes: Chapter 64.32 RCW.

32.04.030 Branches. A savings bank, with the written approval of the supervisor, may establish and operate branches in any place within the state.

A savings bank desiring to establish a branch shall file a written application therefor with the supervisor, who shall approve or disapprove the application.

The supervisor's approval shall be conditioned on a finding that the resources in the market area of the proposed location offer a reasonable promise of adequate support for the proposed branch and that the proposed branch is not being formed for other than the legitimate purposes under this title. A branch shall not be established or permitted if the capital of the savings bank, including paid-in surplus, guaranty fund, and undivided profits, is less than the aggregate paid-in capital which would be required by law as a prerequisite to the establishment and operation of an equal number of branches in like locations by a commercial bank. If the application for a branch is not approved, the savings bank shall have the right to appeal in the same manner and within the same time as provided by RCW 32.08.050 and 32-.08.060. The savings bank when delivering the application to the supervisor shall transmit to the supervisor a check in an amount established by rule to cover the expense of the investigation. A savings bank shall not move any branch more than two miles from its existing location without prior approval of the supervisor. Not less than twenty days prior to the date on which it opens any office at which it will transact business, a mutual savings bank shall give written notice to the supervisor of the location and business hours of this office. No such notice shall become effective until it has been delivered to the office of the supervisor.

The board of trustees of a savings bank, after notice to the supervisor, may discontinue the operation of a branch. The savings bank shall keep the supervisor informed in the matter and shall notify the supervisor of the date operation of the branch is discontinued. [1985 c 56 § 2; 1955 c 80 § 1; 1955 c 13 § 32.04.030. Prior: 1933 c 143 § 1; 1925 ex.s. c 86 § 10; 1915 c 175 § 15; RRS § 3344.]

32.04.040 Changing place of business. Any savings bank may make a written application to the supervisor for leave to change its place of business to another place in the same county. The application shall state the reasons for the proposed change, and shall be signed and acknowledged by a majority of its board of trustees. If the proposed place of business is within the limits of the city or town in which the present place of business of the savings bank is located, the change may be made upon the written approval of the supervisor; if beyond the limits, notice of intention to make the application, signed by two principal officers of the savings bank, shall be published once a week for two successive weeks immediately preceding the application in a newspaper of general circulation in the city of Olympia and shall be published in like manner in a newspaper to be designated by the supervisor, of general circulation in the county in which the present place of business of the bank is located. If the supervisor grants his certificate authorizing the change of location, which in his discretion he may do, the savings bank shall cause the certificate to be published once in each week for two successive weeks in the newspapers in which the notice of application was published. When the requirements of this section have been fully complied with, the savings bank may, upon or after the day specified in the certificate, remove its property and effects to the location designated therein, and thereafter its principal place of business shall be the location so specified; and it shall have all the rights and powers in the new location which it possessed at its former location. [1985 c 469 § 16; 1955 c 13 § 32.04.040. Prior: 1915 c 175 § 48; RRS § 3377.]

32.04.050 Reports. A savings bank shall render to the supervisor, in such form as he shall prescribe, at least three regular reports each year exhibiting its resources and liabilities as of such dates as the supervisor shall designate, which shall be the dates designated by the comptroller of the currency of the United States for reports of national banking associations. Every such report, in a condensed form to be prescribed by the supervisor, shall be published once in a newspaper of general circulation, published in the place where the bank is located. A savings bank shall also make such special reports as the supervisor shall call for. A regular report shall be filed with the supervisor within thirty days and proof of the publication thereof within forty days from the date of the issuance of the call for the report. A special report shall be filed within such time as the supervisor shall indicate in the call therefor. A savings bank that fails to file within the prescribed time any report required by this section or proof of the publication of any report required to be published shall be subject to a penalty to the state of fifty dollars for each day's delay, recoverable by a civil action brought by the attorney general in the name of the state. [1977 ex.s. c 241 § 1; 1955 c 13 § 32.04.050. Prior: 1925 ex.s. c 86 § 13; 1915 c 175 § 39; RRS § 3368a.]

32.04.060 Expenses of operation limited. No savings bank shall in the course of any fiscal year (which fiscal year shall be deemed to expire on the last day of December in each year) pay or become liable to pay either directly or indirectly for expenses of management and operation more than three percent of its average assets during such year: Provided, That a mutual savings bank with less than five hundred million dollars in deposits may pay or become liable to pay either directly or indirectly for expenses of management and operation up to six percent of its average assets during the year. [1981 c 86 § 1; 1977 ex.s. c 171 § 1; 1955 c 13 § 32.04-.060. Prior: 1915 c 175 § 44; RRS § 3373.]

32.04.070 Certified copies of records as evidence. Copies from the records, books, and accounts of a savings bank shall be competent evidence in all cases, equal with originals thereof, if there is annexed to such copies an affidavit taken before a notary public or clerk of a court under seal, stating that the affiant is the officer of the bank having charge of the original records, and that the copy is true and correct and is full so far as the same relates to the subject matter therein mentioned. [1955 c 13 § 32.04.070. Prior: 1915 c 175 § 47; RRS § 3376.]

32.04.080 Employees' pension plan. A mutual savings bank may provide for pensions for its disabled or superannuated employees and may pay a part or all of the cost of providing such pensions in accordance with a plan adopted by its board of trustees and approved in writing by the supervisor of banking. Whenever the trustees of the bank shall have formulated and adopted a plan providing for such pensions it shall, within ten days thereafter, transmit the same to the supervisor of banking. The supervisor of banking shall thereupon examine such plan and investigate the feasibility and practicability thereof and within thirty days of the receipt thereof by him notify the bank in writing of his approval or rejection of the same. After the approval of the supervisor the mutual savings bank shall be authorized and empowered to put such plan into effect. The board of trustees of a savings bank may set aside from current earnings reserves in such amounts as the board shall deem wise to provide for the payment of future pensions. 32.04.082 Pension benefits—Waiver by bank of offsets attributable to social security. With respect to pension payments or retirement benefits payable by a mutual savings bank to any employee heretofore or hereafter retired, such bank may waive all or any part of any offsets thereto attributable to social security benefits receivable by such employee. [1957 c 80 § 7.]

32.04.085 Pension benefits—Supplementation. Any pension payment or retirement benefits payable by a mutual savings bank to a former officer or employee, or to a person or persons entitled thereto by virtue of service performed by such officer or employee, in the discretion of a majority of all the trustees of such bank, may be supplemented from time to time. Whenever the trustees of the bank shall have formulated and adopted a plan providing for such supplemental payments, within ten days thereafter said trustees shall transmit the same to the supervisor of banking. The supervisor of banking shall thereupon examine such plan and investigate the feasibility and practicability thereof and, within thirty days of the receipt thereof by him, notify the bank in writing of his approval or rejection of the same. After the approval of the supervisor the mutual savings bank shall be authorized and empowered to put such plan into effect. The board of trustees of a savings bank may set aside from current earnings, reserves in such amounts as the board shall deem appropriate to provide for the payments of future supplemental payments. [1971 ex.s. c 222 § 1.]

32.04.220 Examination reports and information—Confidential—Privileged—Penalty. (1) All examination reports and all information obtained by the supervisor and the supervisor's staff in conducting examinations of mutual savings banks is confidential and privileged information and shall not be made public or otherwise disclosed to any person, firm, corporation, agency, association, governmental body, or other entity.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section notwithstanding, the supervisor may furnish examination reports prepared by the supervisor's office to federal agencies empowered to examine mutual savings banks, to the examined mutual savings bank as provided in subsection (4) of this section, and to officials empowered to investigate criminal charges subject to legal process, valid search warrant, or subpoena. If the supervisor furnishes any examination report to officials empowered to investigate criminal charges, the supervisor may only furnish that part of the report which is necessary and pertinent to the investigation, and the supervisor may do this only after notifying the affected mutual savings bank and any customer of the mutual savings bank who is named in that part of the report of the order to furnish the part of the examination report unless the officials requesting the report first obtain a waiver of the notice requirement from a court of competent jurisdiction for good cause.

(3) All examination reports furnished under subsection (2) of this section shall remain the property of the division of banking, and no person, agency, or authority to whom reports are furnished or any officer, director, or employee thereof shall disclose or make public any of the reports or any information contained therein except in published statistical material that does not disclose the affairs of any individual or corporation: Provided, That nothing herein shall prevent the use in a criminal prosecution of reports furnished under subsection (2) of this section.

(4) The examination report made by the division of banking is designed for use in the supervision of the mutual savings bank, and the supervisor may furnish a copy of the report to the mutual savings bank examined. The report shall remain the property of the supervisor and will be furnished to the mutual savings bank solely for its confidential use. Under no circumstances shall the mutual savings bank or any of its trustees, officers, or employees disclose or make public in any manner the report or any portion thereof.

(5) Examination reports and information obtained by the supervisor and the supervisor's staff in conducting examinations shall not be subject to public disclosure under chapter 42.17 RCW.

(6) In any civil action in which the reports are sought to be discovered or used as evidence, any party may, upon notice to the supervisor, petition the court for an in camera review of the report. The court may permit discovery and introduction of only those portions of the report which are relevant and otherwise unobtainable by the requesting party. This subsection shall not apply to an action brought or defended by the supervisor.

(7) This section shall not apply to investigation reports prepared by the supervisor and the supervisor's staff concerning an application for a new mutual savings bank or an application for a branch of a mutual savings bank: Provided, That the supervisor may adopt rules making confidential portions of the reports if in the supervisor's opinion the public disclosure of the portions of the report would impair the ability to obtain the information which the supervisor considers necessary to fully evaluate the application.

(8) Every person who violates any provision of this section shall forfeit the person's office or employment and be guilty of a gross misdemeanor. [1977 ex.s. c 245 § 2.]

Severability—1977 ex.s. c 245: See note following RCW 30.04.075.

32.04.250 Violations or unsafe practices—Notice of charges—Grounds—Contents of notice—Hearing—Cease and desist orders. (1) The supervisor may issue and serve upon a mutual savings bank a notice of charges if in the opinion of the supervisor any mutual savings bank:

(a) Is engaging or has engaged in an unsafe or unsound practice in conducting the business of the mutual savings bank;

(b) Is violating or has violated the law, rule, or any condition imposed in writing by the supervisor in connection with the granting of any application or other request by the mutual savings bank or any written agreement made with the supervisor; or

(c) Is about to do the acts prohibited in (a) or (b) of this subsection when the opinion that the threat exists is based upon reasonable cause.

(2) The notice shall contain a statement of the facts constituting the alleged violation or violations or the practice or practices and shall fix a time and place at which a hearing will be held to determine whether an order to cease and desist should issue against the mutual savings bank. The hearing shall be set not earlier than ten days nor later than thirty days after service of the notice, unless a later date is set by the supervisor at the request of the mutual savings bank.

Unless the mutual savings bank shall appear at the hearing by a duly authorized representative, it shall be deemed to have consented to the issuance of the cease and desist order. In the event of this consent or if upon the record made at the hearing the supervisor finds that any violation or practice specified in the notice of charges has been established, the supervisor may issue and serve upon the mutual savings bank an order to cease and desist from the violation or practice. The order may require the mutual savings bank and its trustees, officers, employees, and agents to cease and desist from the violation or practice and may require the mutual savings bank to take affirmative action to correct the conditions resulting from the violation or practice.

(3) A cease and desist order shall become effective at the expiration of ten days after the service of the order upon the mutual savings bank concerned, except that a cease and desist order issued upon consent shall become effective at the time specified in the order and shall remain effective as provided therein, unless it is stayed, modified, terminated, or set aside by action of the supervisor or a reviewing court. [1979 c 46 § 1.]

Severability—1979 c 46: "If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected." [1979 c 46 § 11.]

32.04.260 Violations or unsafe practices—Temporary cease and desist orders. Whenever the supervisor determines that the acts specified in RCW 32.04.250 or their continuation is likely to cause insolvency or substantial dissipation of assets or earnings of the mutual savings bank or to otherwise seriously prejudice the interest of its depositors, the supervisor may also issue a temporary order requiring the mutual savings bank to cease and desist from the violation or practice. The order shall become effective upon service on the mutual savings bank and, unless set aside, limited, or suspended by a court in proceedings under RCW 32.04.270, shall remain effective pending the completion of the administrative proceedings under the notice and until such time as the supervisor shall dismiss the charges specified in the notice or until the effective date of a cease and desist order issued against the mutual savings bank under RCW 32.04.250. [1979 c 46 § 2.]

Severability—1979 c 46: See note following RCW 32.04.250.

32.04.270 Violations or unsafe practices—Injunction to set aside temporary cease and desist order. Within ten days after a mutual savings bank has been served with a temporary cease and desist order, the mutual savings bank may apply to the superior court in the county of its principal place of business for an injunction setting aside, limiting, or suspending the order pending the completion of the administrative proceedings pursuant to the notice served under RCW 32.04.250.

The superior court shall have jurisdiction to issue the injunction. [1979 c 46 § 3.]

Severability—1979 c 46: See note following RCW 32.04.250.

32.04.280 Violation of temporary cease and desist order—Injunction to enforce order. In the case of a violation or threatened violation of a temporary cease and desist order issued under RCW 32.04.260, the supervisor may apply to the superior court of the county of the principal place of business of the mutual savings bank for an injunction to enforce the order. The court shall issue an injunction if it determines there has been a violation or threatened violation. [1979 c 46 § 4.]

Severability—1979 c 46: See note following RCW 32.04.250.

32.04.290 Administrative hearing provided for in RCW 32.04.250 or 32.16.093—Procedure—Order—Judicial review. (1) Any administrative hearing provided in RCW 32.04.250 or 32.16.093 may be held at such place as is designated by the supervisor and shall be conducted in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW. The hearing shall be private unless the supervisor determines that a public hearing is necessary to protect the public interest after fully considering the views of the party afforded the hearing.

Within sixty days after the hearing, the supervisor shall render a decision which shall include findings of fact upon which the decision is based and shall issue and serve upon each party to the proceeding an order or orders consistent with RCW 32.04.250 or 32.16.093, as the case may be.

Unless a petition for review is timely filed in the superior court of the county of the principal place of business of the affected mutual savings bank under subsection (2) of this section, and until the record in the proceeding has been filed as provided therein, the supervisor may at any time modify, terminate, or set aside any order upon such notice and in such manner as he shall deem proper. Upon filing the record, the supervisor may modify, terminate, or set aside any order only with permission of the court.

The judicial review provided in this section shall be exclusive for orders issued under RCW 32.04.250 and 32.16.093.

(2) Any party to the proceeding or any person required by an order, temporary order, or injunction issued under RCW 32.04.250, 32.04.260, 32.04.280, or 32.16.093 to refrain from any of the violations or practices stated therein may obtain a review of any order served under subsection (1) of this section other than one issued upon consent by filing in the superior court of the county of the principal place of business of the affected mutual savings bank within ten days after the date of service of the order a written petition praying that the order of the supervisor be modified, terminated, or set aside. A copy of the petition shall be immediately served upon the supervisor and the supervisor shall then file in the court the record of the proceeding. The court shall have jurisdiction upon the filing of the petition, which jurisdiction shall become exclusive upon the filing of the record, to affirm, modify, terminate, or set aside in whole or in part the order of the supervisor except that the supervisor may modify, terminate, or set aside an order with the permission of the court. The judgment and decree of the court shall be final, except that it shall be subject to appellate review under the rules of court.

(3) The commencement of proceedings for judicial review under subsection (2) of this section shall not operate as a stay of any order issued by the supervisor unless specifically ordered by the court.

(4) Service of any notice or order required to be served under RCW 32.04.250, 32.04.260, or 32.16.093, or under RCW 32.16.090, as now or hereafter amended, shall be accomplished in the same manner as required for the service of process in civil actions in superior courts of this state. [1979 c 46 § 5.]

Severability—1979 c 46: See note following RCW 32.04.250.

32.04.300 Jurisdiction of courts as to cease and desist orders, orders to remove trustee, officer, or employee, etc. The supervisor may apply to the superior court of the county of the principal place of business of the mutual savings bank affected for the enforcement of any effective and outstanding order issued under RCW 32.04.250 or 32.16.093, and the court shall have jurisdiction to order compliance therewith.

No court shall have jurisdiction to affect by injunction or otherwise the issuance or enforcement of any such order, or to review, modify, suspend, terminate, or set aside any such order, except as provided in RCW 32.04.270, 32.04.280, and 32.04.290. [1979 c 46 § 6.]

Severability—1979 c 46: See note following RCW 32.04.250.

32.08.010 Authority to organize—Incorporators—Certificate. When authorized by the supervisor, as hereinafter provided, not less than nine nor more than thirty persons may form a corporation to be known as a "mutual savings bank." Such persons must be citizens of the United States; at least four-fifths of them must be residents of this state, and at least two-thirds of them must be residents of the county where the bank is to be located and its business transacted. They shall subscribe and acknowledge an incorporation certificate in triplicate which shall specifically state:

(1) The name by which the savings bank is to be known, which name shall include the words "mutual savings bank";

(2) The place where the bank is to be located, and its business transacted, naming the city or town and county;

(3) The name, occupation, residence, and post office address of each incorporator;

(4) The sums which each incorporator will contribute in cash to the initial guaranty fund, and to the expense fund respectively, as provided in RCW 32.08.090 and 32.08.100;

(5) A declaration that each incorporator will accept the responsibilities and faithfully discharge the duties of a trustee of the savings bank, and is free from all the disqualifications specified in RCW 32.16.010. [1955 c 13 § 32.08.010. Prior: 1915 c 175 § 1; 1905 c 129 § 2; RRS § 3313.]

32.08.020 Notice of intention. At the time of executing the incorporation certificate, the proposed incorporators shall sign a notice of intention to organize the mutual savings bank, which shall specify their names, the name of the proposed corporation, and its location as set forth in the incorporation certificate. The original of such notice shall be filed in the office of the supervisor within sixty days after the date of its execution, and a copy thereof shall be published at least once a week for four successive weeks in a newspaper designated by the supervisor, the publication to be commenced within thirty days after such designation. At least fifteen days before the incorporation certificate is submitted to the supervisor for examination, as provided in RCW 32.08.030, a copy of such notice shall be served upon each savings bank doing business in the city or town named in the incorporation certificate, by mailing such copy (postage prepaid) to such bank. [1955 c 13 § 32.08.020. Prior: 1915 c 175 § 2; RRS § 3314.]

32.08.030 Submission of certificate—Proof of service of notice. After the lapse of at least twenty-eight days from the date of the first due publication of the notice of intention to incorporate, and within ten days after the date of the last publication thereof, the incorporation certificate executed in triplicate shall be submitted for examination to the supervisor at his office in Olympia, with affidavits showing due publication and service of the notice of intention to organize prescribed in RCW 32.08.020. [1955 c 13 § 32.08.030. Prior: 1915 c 175 § 3; RRS § 3315.]

32.08.040 Examination and action by supervisor.

When any such certificate has been filed for examination the supervisor shall thereupon ascertain from the best source of information at his command, and by such investigation as he may deem necessary, whether the character, responsibility, and general fitness of the person or persons named in such certificate are such as to command confidence and warrant belief that the business of the proposed bank will be honestly and efficiently conducted in accordance with the intent and purpose of this title, and whether the public convenience and advantage will be promoted by allowing such proposed bank to be incorporated and engage in business, and whether greater convenience and access to a savings bank would be afforded to any considerable number of depositors by opening a mutual savings bank in the place designated, whether the population in the neighborhood of such place, and in the surrounding country, affords a reasonable promise of adequate support for the proposed bank, and whether the contributions to the initial guaranty fund and expense fund have been paid in cash. After the supervisor has satisfied himself by such investigation whether it is expedient and desirable to permit such proposed bank to be incorporated and engage in business, he shall within sixty days after the date of the filing of the certificate for examination indorse upon each of the triplicates thereof over his official signature the word "approved" or the word "refused," with the date of such indorsement. In case of refusal he shall forthwith return one of the triplicates so indorsed to the proposed incorporators from whom the certificate was received. [1955 c 13 § 32.08.040. Prior: 1915 c 175 § 4, part; RRS § 3316, part.]

32.08.050 Appeal from adverse decision. From the supervisor's refusal to issue a certificate of authorization, the applicants or a majority of them, may within thirty days from the date of the filing of the certificate of refusal with the secretary of state, appeal to a board of appeal composed of the governor or the governor's designee, the attorney general and the supervisor of banking by filing in the office of the supervisor a notice that they appeal to such board from his refusal. The procedure upon the appeal shall be such as the board may prescribe, and its determination shall be certified, filed, and recorded in the same manner as the supervisor's, and shall be final. [1979 ex.s. c 57 § 6; 1955 c 13 § 32.08.050. Prior: 1915 c 175 § 4, part; RRS § 3316, part.]

32.08.060 Procedure upon approval. In case of approval, the supervisor shall forthwith give notice thereof to the proposed incorporators, and file one of the duplicate certificates in his own office, and shall transmit the other to the secretary of state. Upon receipt from the proposed incorporators of the same fees as are required for filing and recording other incorporation certificates, the secretary of state shall file the certificate and record the same. Upon the filing of said incorporation certificate in duplicate approved as aforesaid in the offices of the supervisor and the secretary of state, the persons named therein and their successors shall thereupon become and be a corporation, which corporation shall have the powers and be subject to the duties and obligations prescribed in this title and its corporate existence shall be perpetual, unless sooner terminated pursuant to law, but such corporation shall not receive deposits or engage in business until authorized so to do by the supervisor as provided in RCW 32.08.070. [1981 c 302 § 26; 1957 c 80 § 1; 1955 c 13 § 32.08.060. Prior: 1915 c 175 § 4, part; RRS § 3316, part.]

Severability—1981 c 302: See note following RCW 19.76.100.

32.08.061 Extension of period of existence—Procedure. A mutual savings bank may amend its incorporation certificate to extend the period of its corporate existence for a further definite time or perpetually by a resolution adopted by a majority vote of its board of trustees. Duplicate copies of the resolution, subscribed and acknowledged by the president and secretary of such bank, shall be filed in the office of the supervisor within thirty days after its adoption. If the supervisor finds that the resolution conforms to law he shall, within sixty days after the date of the filing thereof, endorse upon each of the duplicates thereof, over his official signature, his approval and forthwith give notice thereof to the bank and shall file one of the certificates in his own office and shall transmit the other to the secretary of state. Upon receipt from the mutual savings bank of the same fees as are required of general corporations for filing corresponding instruments, the secretary of state shall file the resolution and record the same. Upon the filing of said resolution in duplicate, approved as aforesaid in the offices of the supervisor and the secretary of state, the corporate existence of said bank shall continue for the period set forth in said resolution unless sooner terminated pursuant to law. [1981 c 302 § 27; 1963 c 176 § 1; 1957 c 80 § 8.]

Severability—1981 c 302: See note following RCW 19.76.100.

32.08.070 Authorization certificate. Before a mutual savings bank shall be authorized to do any business the supervisor shall be satisfied that the corporation has in good faith complied with all the requirements of law and fulfilled all the conditions precedent to commencing business imposed by this title. If satisfied that the corporation has in good faith complied with all the requirements of law, and fulfilled all the conditions precedent to commencing business imposed by this title, the supervisor shall within six months after the date upon which the proposed organization certificate was filed with him for examination, but in no case after the expiration of that period, issue under his hand and official seal in triplicate an authorization certificate to such corporation. Such authorization certificate shall state that the corporation therein named has complied with all the requirements of law, that it is authorized to transact at the place designated in its certificate of incorporation, the business of a mutual savings bank. One of the triplicate authorization certificates shall be transmitted by the supervisor to the corporation therein named, and the other two authorization certificates shall be filed by the supervisor in the same public offices where the certificate of incorporation is filed, and shall be attached to said incorporation certificate. [1981 c 302 § 28; 1955 c 13 § 32.08.070. Prior: 1915 c 175 § 5; RRS § 3317.]

Severability—1981 c 302: See note following RCW 19.76.100.

32.08.080 Conditions precedent to reception of deposits. Before such corporation shall be authorized to receive deposits or transact business other than the completion of its organization, the supervisor shall be satisfied that:

(1) The incorporators have made the deposit of the initial guaranty fund required by this title;

(2) That the incorporators have made the deposit of the expense fund required by RCW 32.08.090 and if the supervisor shall so require, have entered into the agreement or undertaking with him and have filed the same and the security therefor as prescribed in said section;

(3) That the corporation has transmitted to the supervisor the name, residence, and post office address of each officer of the corporation;

(4) That its certificate of incorporation in triplicate has been filed in the respective public offices designated in this title. [1955 c 13 § 32.08.080. Prior: 1915 c 175 § 6; RRS § 3318.]

32.08.090 Expense fund—Agreement to contribute further—Security. Before any mutual savings bank shall be authorized to do business, its incorporators shall create an expense fund from which the expense of organizing such bank and its operating expenses may be paid, until such time as its earnings are sufficient to pay its operating expenses in addition to such dividends as may be declared and credited to its depositors from its earnings. The incorporators shall deposit to the credit of such savings bank in cash as an expense fund the sum of five thousand dollars. They shall also enter into such an agreement or undertaking with the supervisor as trustee for the depositors with the savings bank as he may require to make such further contributions in cash to the expense fund as may be necessary to pay its operating expenses until such time as it can pay them from its earnings, in addition to such dividends as may be declared and credited to its depositors. Such agreement or undertaking shall fix the maximum liability assumed thereby which shall be a reasonable amount approved by the supervisor and the same shall be secured to his satisfaction, which security in his discretion may be by a surety bond executed by a domestic or foreign corporation authorized to transact within this state the business of surety. The agreement or undertaking and security shall be filed in the office of the supervisor. Such agreement or undertaking and such security need not be made or furnished unless the supervisor shall require the same. The amounts contributed to the expense fund of said savings bank by the incorporators or trustees shall not constitute a liability of the savings bank except as hereinafter provided. [1955 c 13 § 32.08.090. Prior: 1915 c 175 § 8; RRS § 3320.]

32.08.100 Guaranty fund. Before any mutual savings bank shall be authorized to do business, its incorporators shall create a guaranty fund for the protection of its depositors against loss on its investments, whether arising from depreciation in the market value of its securities or otherwise:

(1) Such guaranty fund shall consist of payments in cash made by the original incorporators and of all sums credited thereto from the earnings of the savings bank as hereinafter required.

(2) The incorporators shall deposit to the credit of such savings bank in cash as an initial guaranty fund at least five thousand dollars.

(3) Prior to the liquidation of any such savings bank such guaranty fund shall not be in any manner encroached upon, except for losses and the repayment of contributions made by incorporators or trustees as hereinafter provided, until such fund together with undivided profits exceeds twenty-five percent of the amount due depositors.

(4) The amounts contributed to such guaranty fund by the incorporators or trustees shall not constitute a liability of the savings bank, except as hereinafter provided, and any loss sustained by the savings bank in excess of that portion of the guaranty fund created from earnings may be charged against such contributions pro rata. [1955 c 13 § 32.08.100. Prior: 1915 c 175 § 7; RRS § 3319.]

32.08.110 Guaranty fund—Purpose. The contributions of the incorporators, or trustees of any such savings bank under the provisions of RCW 32.08.100, and the sums credited thereto from its net earnings under the provisions of RCW 32.08.120, shall constitute a guaranty fund for the security of its depositors, and shall be held to meet any contingency or loss in its business from depreciation of its securities or otherwise, and for no other purpose except as provided in RCW 32.08.130, and RCW 32.12.090(5). [1955 c 13 § 32.08.110. Prior: 1915 c 175 § 21; RRS § 3350.]

32.08.115 Guaranty fund—Payment of interest and dividends—Legislative declaration. It is hereby recognized that the savings banks of the state of Washington are affected adversely by the uncertainties and ambiguities in the law relating to guaranty funds. It is the express purpose of the legislature in enacting RCW 32.08.116 to clarify that the law permits payment of interest and dividends from the guaranty funds of savings banks and RCW 32.08.116 shall be liberally construed to that end. [1982 c 5 § 1.]

32.08.116 Guaranty fund—Payment of interest and dividends—When authorized. A savings bank not having net earnings or undivided profits or other surplus may pay interest and dividends from its guaranty fund upon prior written approval of the supervisor, which approval shall not be withheld unless the supervisor has determined that such payments would place the savings bank in an unsafe and unsound condition. [1982 c 5 § 2.]

32.08.120 Guaranty fund—Replenishment—Dividends. (1) If at the close of any dividend period the guaranty fund of a savings bank is less than ten percent of the amount due to depositors, there shall be deducted from its net earnings and credited to its guaranty fund not less than five percent of its net earnings for such period.

(2) The balance of its net earnings for such dividend period, plus any earnings from prior accounting periods not previously disbursed and not reserved for losses or other contingencies or required to be maintained in the guaranty fund, shall be available for dividends.

While the trustees of such savings bank are paying its expenses or any portion thereof, the amounts to be credited to its guaranty fund shall be computed at the same percentage upon the total dividends credited to its depositors instead of upon its net earnings. If the guaranty fund accumulated from earnings equals or exceeds ten percent of the amount due to depositors, the minimum dividend shall be four percent, if the net earnings for such period are sufficient therefor. [1955 c 13 § 32.08-.120. Prior: 1941 c 15 § 4; 1929 c 123 § 3; 1927 c 184 § 6; 1915 c 175 § 24; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 3353.]

32.08.130 Reimbursement fund. When the portion of the guaranty fund created from earnings amounts to not less than five thousand dollars (including in the case of a savings bank converted from a building and loan or savings and loan association or society the amount of the initial guaranty fund), the board of trustees, with the written consent of the supervisor, may establish a reimbursement fund from which to repay contributors to the expense fund and the initial guaranty fund (excepting the initial guaranty fund in the case of a bank converted from a building and loan or savings and loan association or society), and may transfer to the reimbursement fund any unexpended balance of contributions to the expense fund. At the close of each dividend period the trustees may place to the credit of the reimbursement fund not more than one percent of the net earnings of the bank during that period. Payments from the reimbursement fund may be made from time to time in such amounts as the board of trustees shall determine, and shall be made first to the contributors to the expense fund in proportion to their contributions thereto until they shall have been repaid in full, and then shall be made to the contributors to the guaranty fund in proportion to their contributions thereto until they shall have been repaid in full. In case of the liquidation of the savings bank before the contributions to the expense fund and the initial guaranty fund have been fully repaid as above contemplated, any portion of the contributions not needed for the payment of the expenses of liquidation and the payment of depositors in full shall be paid to the contributors to the expense fund in proportion to their contributions thereto until they have been repaid in full, and then shall be paid to the contributors to the guaranty fund in proportion to their contributions thereto until they have been repaid in full. The restrictions, limitations and requirements in Title 30 RCW shall apply to a mutual savings bank exercising the powers granted under this section insofar as the restrictions, limitations, and requirements relate to exercising the powers granted under this section. The incidental trust powers to act as agent in the management of trust property and the transaction of trust business in Title 30 RCW shall apply to a mutual savings bank exercising the powers granted under this section insofar as the incidental powers relate to exercising the powers granted under this section.

Before engaging in trust business, a mutual savings bank shall apply to the supervisor of banking on such form as he shall determine and pay the same fee as required for a state bank to engage in trust business. In considering such application the supervisor shall ascertain from the best source of information at his command and by such investigation as he may deem necessary whether the management and personnel of the mutual savings bank are such as to command confidence and warrant belief that the trust business will be adequately and efficiently conducted in accordance with law, whether the resources in the neighborhood of such place and in the surrounding country afford a reasonable promise of adequate support for the proposed trust business and whether the resources of the mutual savings bank are sufficient to support the conduct of such trust business, and that the mutual savings bank has and maintains, in addition to its guaranty fund, undivided profits against which the depositors have no prior claim in an amount not less than would be required of a state bank or trust company, which undivided profits shall be eligible for investment in the same manner as the guaranty fund of a mutual savings bank. Within sixty days after receipt of such application, the supervisor shall either approve or refuse the same and forthwith return to the mutual savings bank a copy of the application upon which his decision has been endorsed. The supervisor shall not be required to approve or refuse an application until thirty days after any appropriate approval has been obtained from a federal regulatory agency. The applicant shall have the right to appeal from an unfavorable determination in accordance with the procedures of the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, as now or hereafter amended. [1985 c 56 § 4.]

32.08.220 Findings—Purpose. The legislature finds that [the] state of Washington needs investment of funds from out of state and from investors in the state of Washington to keep money for real estate and other forms of financing reasonably available for the needs of Washington citizens. Many innovations have taken place in the last several years to aid in the sale of loans or portions thereof to others including the sale of mortgage passthrough certificates, mortgage backed bonds, participation sales with varying rates, terms or priorities to various participants and the like. As the marketing of such investments continues, further innovations can be expected. It will benefit the state if mutual savings banks subject to the laws of this state have the broadest powers possible commensurate with their safety and soundness to take part in such activities. It is the purpose of RCW 32.08.225 and 32.08.230 to grant a broad power. [1981 c 86 § 11.]

Severability—1981 c 86: See note following RCW 32.04.060.

32.08.225 Sale, purchase, etc., of interest rate exchange agreements, loans, or interests therein. Any mutual savings bank may through any device sell, purchase, exchange, issue evidence of a sale or exchange of, or in any manner deal in any form of sale or exchange of interest rate exchange agreements, loans, or any interest therein including but not being limited to mortgage passthrough issues, mortgage backed bond issues, and loan participations and may purchase a subordinated portion thereof, issue letters of credit to insure against losses on a portion thereof, agree to repurchase all or a portion thereof, guarantee all or a portion of the payments thereof, and without any implied limitation by the foregoing or otherwise, do any and all things necessary or convenient to take part in or effectuate any such sales or exchanges by a mutual savings bank itself or by a subsidiary thereof. [1985 c 56 § 5; 1981 c 86 § 12.]

Severability—1981 c 86: See note following RCW 32.04.060.

32.08.230 Restrictions and requirements by supervisor. Any mutual savings bank engaging in any activity contemplated in RCW 32.08.225, whereby it holds or purchases subordinated securities, issues letters of credit to secure a portion of any sale or issue of loans sold or exchanged, or in any manner acts as a partial guarantor or insurer or repurchaser of any loans sold or exchanged, shall do so only in accordance with such reasonable restrictions and requirements as the supervisor of banking shall require and shall report and carry such transactions on its books and records in such manner as the supervisor shall require. In establishing any requirements and restrictions hereunder, the supervisor shall consider the effect the transaction and the reporting thereof will have on the safety and soundness of the mutual savings bank engaging in it. [1981 c 86 § 13.]

In addition, other deposits which a savings bank may establish include but are not limited to the following:

(1) Deposits in the name of, or on behalf of, a partnership or other form of multiple ownership enterprise.

(2) Deposits in the name of a corporation, society, or unincorporated association.

(3) Deposits maintained by a person, society, or corporation as administrator, executor, guardian, or trustee under a will or trust agreement.

Every such bank may limit the aggregate amount which an individual or any corporation or society may have to his or its credit to such sum as such bank may deem expedient to receive; and may in its discretion refuse to receive a deposit, or may at any time return all or any part of any deposits or require the withdrawal of any dividends or interest. Any account in excess of one hundred thousand dollars may only be accepted or held in accordance with such regulations as the supervisor may establish. [1981 c 192 § 27; 1967 c 145 § 1; 1961 c 80 § 1; 1959 c 41 § 2; 1957 c 80 § 4; 1955 c 13 § 32.12.010. Effective date—1981 c 192: See RCW 30.22.900.

32.12.020 Repayment of deposits and dividends. The sums deposited with any savings bank, together with any dividends or interest credited thereto, shall be repaid to the depositors thereof respectively, or to their legal representatives, after demand in such manner, and at such times, and under such regulations, as the board of trustees shall prescribe, subject to the provisions of this section and chapter 30.22 RCW. Such regulations shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the room where the business of such savings bank shall be transacted, and shall be available to depositors upon request. All such rules and regulations, and all amendments thereto, from time to time in effect, shall be binding upon all depositors.

(1) Such bank may at any time by a resolution of its board of trustees require a notice of not more than six months before repaying deposits, in which event no deposit shall be due or payable until the required notice of intention to withdraw the same shall have been personally given by the depositor: Provided, That such bank at its option may pay any deposit or deposits before the expiration of such notice. But no bank shall agree with its depositors or any of them in advance to waive the requirement of notice as herein provided: Provided, That the bank may create a special class of depositors who shall be entitled to receive their deposits upon demand.

(2) Except as provided in subdivisions (3), (4), and (5) of this section the savings bank shall not pay any dividend, or interest, or deposit, or portion thereof, or any check drawn upon it by a depositor unless the certificate of deposit is produced or bears a legend stating it may be paid without production, or the passbook of the depositor is produced and the proper entry is made therein, at the time of the payment.

(3) The board of trustees of any such bank may by its bylaws provide for making payments in cases of loss of passbook or certificate of deposit, or other exceptional cases where the passbooks or certificates of deposit cannot be produced without loss or serious inconvenience to depositors, the right to make such payments to cease when so directed by the supervisor upon his being satisfied that such right is being improperly exercised by any such bank; but payments may be made at any time upon the judgment or order of a court.

(4) The board of trustees of any such bank may by its bylaws provide for making payments to depositors at their request, of dividends or interest payable on any deposit, without requiring the production of the passbook or certificate of deposit of the depositor, and any payment made in accordance with any such request and the receipt or acquittance of the one to whom such payment is made shall be a valid and sufficient release and discharge to such savings bank for all payments made on account of such request prior to receipt by such savings bank of notice in writing not to pay such sums in accordance with the terms of such request.

(5) The issuance of a passbook or certificate of deposit may be omitted for any account if an adequate record thereof is maintained, in lieu of a passbook or certificate of deposit, on which shall be entered deposits, withdrawals, and interest credited: Provided, That in any event a passbook shall be issued upon the request of any passbook account depositor. [1985 c 56 § 6; 1983 c 3 § 53; 1981 c 192 § 28; 1974 ex.s. c 117 § 40; 1969 c 55 § 2; 1967 c 145 § 2; 1963 c 176 § 3; 1961 c 80 § 2; 1959 c 41 § 3; 1955 c 13 § 32.12.020. 32.12.025 Withdrawals by savings bank's drafts in accordance with depositor's instructions authorized. Subject to the provisions of RCW 32.12.020(1), a savings bank may, on instructions from a depositor, effect withdrawals from a savings account by the savings bank's drafts payable to parties and on terms as so instructed; to the extent of the subjection of accounts to such withdrawal instruction, such accounts may be specifically classified under RCW 32.12.090(2) and ineligible to receive interest or eligible only for limited interest. [1967 c 145 § 3.]

32.12.050 Accounting—Entry of assets, real estate, securities, etc. (1) No savings bank shall by any system of accounting, or any device of bookkeeping, directly or indirectly, enter any of its assets upon its books in the name of any other individual, partnership, unincorporated association, or corporation, or under any title or designation that is not in accordance with the actual facts.

(2) The bonds, notes, mortgages, or other interest bearing obligations purchased or acquired by a savings bank, shall not be entered on its books at more than the actual cost thereof, and shall not thereafter be carried upon its books for a longer period than until the next declaration of dividends, or in any event for more than one year, at a valuation exceeding their present cost as determined by amortization, that is, by deducting from the cost of any such security purchased for a sum in excess of the amount payable thereon at maturity and charging to "profit and loss" a sufficient sum to bring it to par at maturity, or adding to the cost of any such security purchased at less than the amount payable thereon at maturity and crediting to "profit and loss" a sufficient sum to bring it to par at maturity.

(3) No such bank shall enter, or at any time carry on its books, the real estate and the building or buildings thereon used by it as its place of business at a valuation exceeding their actual cost to the bank.

(4) Every such bank shall conform its methods of keeping its books and records to such orders in respect thereof as shall have been made and promulgated by the supervisor. Any officer, agent, or employee of any savings bank who refuses or neglects to obey any such order shall be punished as hereinafter provided.

(5) Real estate acquired by a savings bank, other than that acquired for use as a place of business, may be entered on the books of the bank at the actual cost thereof but shall not be carried beyond the current dividend period at an amount in excess of the amount of the debt in protection of which such real estate was acquired, plus the cost of any improvements thereto.

An appraisal shall be made by a qualified person of every such parcel of real estate within six months from the date of conveyance. If the value at which such real estate is carried on the books is in excess of the value found on appraisal the book value shall, at the end of the dividend period during which such appraisal was made, be reduced to an amount not in excess of such appraised value.

(6) No such bank shall enter or carry on its books any asset which has been disallowed by the supervisor or the trustees of such bank, or any debt owing to it which has remained due without prosecution and upon which no interest has been paid for more than one year, or on which a judgment has been recovered which has remained unsatisfied for more than two years, unless the supervisor upon application by such savings bank has fixed a valuation at which such debt may be carried as an asset, or unless such debt is secured by first mortgage upon real estate, in which latter case it may be carried at the actual cash value of such real estate as determined by written appraisal signed by two or more persons appointed by the board of trustees and filed with it.

(7) Notwithstanding the prohibitions of this section, a savings bank may maintain its books and records and may enter and carry on its books any asset or liability at any valuation in accordance with any accounting rules promulgated or adopted by the federal deposit insurance corporation or the financial accounting standards board or the supervisor of banking. [1985 c 56 § 7; 1983 c 44 § 1; 1955 c 13 § 32.12.050. Prior: 1941 c 15 § 1; 1915 c 175 § 16; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 3345.]

32.12.060 Bad debts—Uncollected judgments. Any debt due a savings bank on which interest is one year or more past due and unpaid, unless such debt is well secured and in course of collection by legal process or probate proceedings, shall be considered a bad debt, and shall be charged off of the books of such bank. A judgment held by a savings bank shall not be considered an asset of the corporation after two years from the date of its rendition, unless with the written permission of the supervisor specifying an additional period: Provided, That time consumed by any appeal shall be excluded. [1955 c 13 § 32.12.060. Prior: 1931 c 132 § 1; RRS § 3354a.]

32.12.070 Computation of earnings. (1) Gross current operating earnings. Every savings bank shall close its books, for the purpose of computing its net earnings, at the end of any period for which a dividend is to be paid, and in no event less frequently than semiannually. To determine the amount of gross earnings of a savings bank during any dividend period the following items may be included:

(a) All earnings actually received during such period, less interest accrued and uncollected included in the last previous calculation of earnings;

(b) Interest accrued and uncollected upon debts owing to it secured by authorized collateral, upon which there has been no default for more than one year, and upon corporate bonds, or other interest bearing obligations owned by it upon which there is no default;

(c) The sums added to the cost of securities purchased for less than par as a result of amortization;

(d) Any profits actually received during such period from the sale of securities, real estate or other property owned by it;

(e) Such other items as the supervisor, in his discretion and upon his written consent, may permit to be included.

(2) Net current earnings. To determine the amount of its net earnings for each dividend period the following items shall be deducted from gross earnings:

(a) All expenses paid or incurred, both ordinary and extraordinary, in the transaction of its business, the collection of its debts and the management of its affairs, less expenses incurred and interest accrued upon its debts deducted at the last previous calculation of net earnings for dividend purposes;

(b) Interest paid or accrued and unpaid upon debts owing by it;

(c) The amounts deducted through amortization from the cost of bonds or other interest bearing obligations purchased above par in order to bring them to par at maturity;

(d) Contributions to any corporation or any community chest fund or foundation organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual and no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation. The total contributions for any calendar year shall not exceed a sum equal to one-half of one percent of the net earnings of such savings bank for the preceding calendar year.

The balance thus obtained shall constitute the net earnings of the savings bank for such period.

(3) Earnings paid by a savings bank on deposits may be referred to as "dividends" or as "interest". [1955 c 80 § 3; 1955 c 13 § 32.12.070. Prior: 1953 c 238 § 2; 1941 c 15 § 3; 1915 c 175 § 23; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 3352.]

32.12.080 Misleading advertisement of surplus or guaranty fund. No savings bank shall put forth any sign or notice or publish or circulate any advertisement or advertising literature upon which or in which it is stated that such savings bank has a surplus or guaranty fund other than as determined in the manner prescribed by law. [1955 c 13 § 32.12.080. Prior: 1929 c 123 § 5; 1915 c 175 § 27; RRS § 3356.]

32.12.090 Interest—Rate—Extra dividend—Notice of changed rate. (1) Every savings bank shall regulate the rate of interest upon the amounts to the credit of depositors therewith, in such manner that depositors shall receive as nearly as may be all the earnings of the bank after transferring the amount required by RCW 32.08.120 and such further amounts as its trustees may deem it expedient and for the security of the depositors to transfer to the guaranty fund, which to the amount of ten percent of the amount due its depositors the trustees shall gradually accumulate and hold. Such trustees may also deduct from its net earnings, and carry as reserves for losses, or other contingencies, or as undivided profits, such additional sums as they may deem wise.

(2) Every savings bank may classify its depositors according to the character, amount, regularity, or duration of their dealings with the savings bank, and may regulate the interest in such manner that each depositor shall receive the same ratable portion of interest as all others of his class.

(3) Unimpaired contributions to the initial guaranty fund and to the expense fund, made by the incorporators or trustees of a savings bank, shall be entitled to have dividends apportioned thereon, which may be credited and paid to such incorporators or trustees.

Whenever the guaranty fund of any savings bank is sufficiently large to permit the return of such contributions, the contributors may receive interest thereon not theretofore credited or paid at the same rate paid to depositors.

(4) A savings bank shall not:

(a) Declare, credit or pay any interest except as authorized by a vote of a majority of the board of trustees duly entered upon its minutes, whereon shall be recorded by ayes and noes the vote of each trustee;

(b) Pay any interest other than the regular quarterly or semiannual interest, or the interest on savings certificates of deposit, or the extra dividends prescribed elsewhere in this title: Provided, That such bank may pay interest not less often than annually on the anniversary dates of accounts separately classified for this purpose: Provided, further, That such bank may pay interest monthly at the rate or rates last authorized by a majority vote of the board of trustees duly entered in its minutes whereon shall be recorded by ayes and noes the vote of each trustee;

(c) Declare, credit or pay interest on any amount to the credit of a depositor for a longer period than the same has been credited: Provided, That deposits made not later than the tenth day of any month (unless the tenth day is not a business day, in which case it may be the next succeeding business day), or withdrawn upon one of the last three business days of the month ending any quarterly or semiannual interest period, may have interest paid upon them for the whole of the period or month when they were so deposited or withdrawn: Provided further, That if the bylaws so provide, accounts closed between interest periods may be credited with interest at the rate determined by its board of trustees, computing from the last interest period to the date when closed.

- (3) Mortgages upon leasehold estates; and
- (4) Notes secured by pledges or assignments of first mortgages or real estate contracts.

The limitation of this section shall not apply to GNMA certificates, mortgage backed bonds, mortgage passthrough certificates or other similar securities purchased or held by the bank. [1981 c 86 § 8; 1977 ex.s. c 104 § 7; 1969 c 55 § 10; 1963 c 176 § 19.]

Severability—1981 c 86: See note following RCW 32.04.060.

32.20.415 Limitation on certain secured and unsecured loans. In addition to all other investments and loans authorized for mutual savings banks in this state, a mutual savings bank may invest not more than twenty percent of its funds in secured or unsecured loans on such terms and conditions as the bank may determine. [1981 c 86 § 15.]

Severability—1981 c 86: See note following RCW 32.04.060.

32.20.430 Loans to banks or trust companies. A mutual savings bank may invest its funds in loans to banks or trust companies which mature on the next business day following the day of making such loan. The loans may be evidenced by any writing or ledger entries deemed adequate by the mutual savings bank and may be secured or unsecured. The loans made hereunder are payable on the same basis as are regular deposits in such banks, and therefore the transactions may be characterized for accounting and statement purposes and carried on the books of the mutual savings bank as either a deposit with or a loan to the bank. [1971 ex.s. c 222 § 3.]

Severability—1971 ex.s. c 222: See note following RCW 32.04.085.

32.20.440 Purchase of United States securities from banks or trust companies. A mutual savings bank may invest its funds in the purchase of United States government securities from a bank or trust company, subject to the selling bank's or trust company's agreement to repurchase such securities on the business day next following their purchase by the mutual savings bank. The securities may be purchased at par, or at a premium or discount, as the mutual savings bank may agree, and may be characterized for accounting and statement purposes and carried on the books of the mutual savings bank as such securities to the extent of their market value, and as due from such banks or trust companies to the extent that the repurchase price agreed to be paid exceeds such market value. [1971 ex.s. c 222 § 4.]

Severability—1971 ex.s. c 222: See note following RCW 32.04.085.

32.20.450 Low-cost housing—Legislative finding. The legislature finds there is a shortage of adequate housing in a suitable environment in many parts of this state for people of modest means, which shortage adversely affects the public in general and the mutual savings banks of this state and their depositors. The legislature further finds that the making of loans or investments to alleviate this problem which may provide a less than market rate of return and entail a higher degree of risk than might otherwise be acceptable, will benefit this state, the banks, and their depositors. [1973 1st ex.s. c 31 § 1.]

Construction—1973 1st ex.s. c 31: See RCW 32.20.500.

32.20.460 Low-cost housing—Factory built housing—Mobile homes. In addition to the portions of its funds permitted to be invested in real estate loans under RCW 32.20.410, a mutual savings bank may invest not to exceed fifteen percent of its funds in loans and investments as follows:

(1) Loans for the rehabilitation, remodeling, or expansion of existing housing.

(2) Loans in connection with, or participation in:

(a) Housing programs of any agency of federal, state, or local government; and

(b) Housing programs of any nonprofit, union, community, public, or quasi-public corporation or entity.

Such housing must be made available to all without regard to race, creed, sex, color, or national origin.

(3) Loans for purchasing or constructing factory built housing, including but not limited to mobile homes. The bank shall determine the amount, security, and repayment basis which it considers prudent for the loans.

(4) In mobile home chattel paper which finances the acquisition of inventory by a mobile home dealer if the inventory is to be held for sale in the ordinary course of business by the mobile home dealer, the monetary obligation evidenced by such chattel paper is the obligation of the mobile home dealer and the amount thereof does not exceed the amount allowed to be loaned on such mobile homes under subsection (3) of this section. [1981 c 86 § 9; 1977 ex.s. c 104 § 9; 1973 1st ex.s. c 31 § 2.]

Severability—1981 c 86: See note following RCW 32.04.060.

Construction—1973 1st ex.s. c 31: See RCW 32.20.500.

32.20.470 Improvement of private land for public parks and recreation areas. Subject to the limits hereinafter set forth, a mutual savings bank may expend its funds for the improvement for public use of privately owned land as parks or recreation areas, including but not limited to "vest pocket" parks, provided that the owner of such land will:

(1) Permit public use thereof for a period of at least eighteen months or for such longer period and subject to such other requirements as the bank may impose; and

(2) At or before the end of public use, permit the removal of all such improvements which in the bank's judgment reasonably may be accomplished.

As used in this section, "public use" means use without regard to race, creed, sex, color, or national origin. The amount expended hereunder and under RCW 32.12.070(2)(d) in any calendar year shall not exceed one-half of one percent of the net earnings of bank for the preceding year. [1973 1st ex.s. c 31 § 3.]

Construction—1973 1st ex.s. c 31: See RCW 32.20.500.

32.20.480 Loans or investments to provide adequate housing and environmental improvements—Criteria—Restrictions. Loans or investments made under *this 1973 amendatory act may provide a less than market rate of return and entail a higher degree of risk than might otherwise be acceptable to the general market, so long as the board of trustees of the bank determines the loan or investment may be beneficial to the community where made, without the need to show a direct corporate benefit, and so long as any private individual who benefits is not, and is not related to any person who is, an officer, employee, or trustee of the bank. It is hereby recognized that the mutual savings banks of the state of Washington and their depositors are affected adversely by the absence of adequate low-cost housing and environmental developments and improvements within the communities they serve and the state of Washington.

The amount a mutual savings bank may invest under *this 1973 amendatory act during any twelve month period at less than a market rate of return shall not exceed two percent of the total principal amount of all real estate loans made by the bank during the preceding twelve months. [1973 1st ex.s. c 31 § 4.]

*Reviser's note: "This 1973 amendatory act" consists of the enactment of RCW 32.20.450, 32.20.460, 32.20.470, 32.20.480, 32.20.490, and 32.20.500 and the amendments to RCW 32.20.280 and 32.20.330 by 1973 1st ex.s. c 31.

Construction—1973 1st ex.s. c 31: See RCW 32.20.500.

32.20.500 Construction—1973 1st ex.s. c 31. The powers granted by *this 1973 amendatory act are in addition to and not in limitation of the powers conferred upon a mutual savings bank by other provisions of law. [1973 1st ex.s. c 31 § 8.]

*Reviser's note: For "this 1973 amendatory act," see note following RCW 32.20.480.

32.24.010 Liquidation of solvent bank. If the trustees of any solvent mutual savings bank deem it necessary or expedient to close the business of such bank, they may, by affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of the whole number of trustees, at a meeting called for that purpose, of which one month's notice has been given, either personally or by mailing such notice to the post office address of each trustee, declare by resolution their determination to close such business and pay the moneys due depositors and creditors and to surrender the corporate franchise. Subject to the approval and under the direction of the supervisor, such savings bank may adopt any lawful plan for closing up its affairs, as nearly as may be in accordance with the original plan and objects. [1955 c 13 § 32.24.010. Prior: 1915 c 175 § 45; RRS § 3374.]

32.24.020 Procedure to liquidate and dissolve. When the trustees, acting under the provisions of RCW 32.24.010, have paid the sums due respectively to all creditors and depositors, who, after such notice as the supervisor of banking shall prescribe, claim the money due and their deposits, the trustees shall make a transcript or statement from the books in the bank of the names of all depositors and creditors who have not claimed or have not received the balance of the credit due them, and of the sums due them, respectively, and shall file such transcript with the supervisor and pay over and transfer all such unclaimed and unpaid deposits, credits, and moneys to the supervisor. The trustees shall then report their proceedings, duly verified, to the superior court of the county wherein the bank is located, and upon such report and the petition of the trustees, and after notice to the attorney general and the supervisor, and such other notice as the court may deem necessary, the court shall adjudge the franchise surrendered and the existence of the corporation terminated. Certified copies of the judgment shall be filed in the offices of the secretary of state and the supervisor of banking and shall be recorded in the office of the secretary of state. [1981 c 302 § 29; 1955 c 13 § 32.24.020. Prior: 1931 c 132 § 4; 1915 c 175 § 46; RRS § 3375.]

Severability—1981 c 302: See note following RCW 19.76.100.

32.24.030 Transfer of assets and liabilities to another bank. An unconverted mutual savings bank may for the purpose of consolidation, acquisition, pooling of assets, merger, or voluntary liquidation arrange for its assets and liabilities to become assets and liabilities of another mutual savings bank, by the affirmative vote or with the written consent of two-thirds of the whole number of its trustees, but only with the written consent of the supervisor and upon such terms and conditions as he may prescribe.

Upon any such transfer being made, or upon the liquidation of any such mutual savings bank for any cause whatever, or upon its being no longer engaged in the business of a mutual savings bank, the supervisor shall terminate its certificate of authority, which shall not thereafter be revived or renewed. When the certificate of authority of any such corporation has been revoked, it shall forthwith collect and distribute its remaining assets, and when that is done, the supervisor shall certify the fact to the secretary of state, whereupon the corporation shall cease to exist and the secretary of state shall note the fact upon his records.

In case of the consolidation with or voluntary liquidation of a mutual savings bank by another mutual savings bank, as herein provided, any sums advanced by its incorporators, or others, to create or maintain its guaranty fund or its expense fund shall not be liabilities of such mutual savings bank unless the mutual savings bank, so assuming its liabilities shall specifically undertake to pay the same, or a stated portion thereof. [1985 c 56 § 14; 1955 c 13 § 32.24.030. Prior: 1931 c 132 § 5; RRS § 3375a.]

32.24.040 Unsafe practices—Notice to correct. Whenever it appears to the supervisor that any mutual savings bank is conducting its business in an unsafe manner or that it refuses to submit its books, papers, or concerns to lawful inspection, or that any trustee or officer thereof refuses to submit to examination on oath touching its concerns, or that it has failed to carry out any authorized order or direction of the supervisor, such supervisor may give notice to the mutual savings bank so offending or delinquent or whose trustee or officer is thus offending or delinquent to correct such offense or delinquency, and if the mutual savings bank fails to comply with the terms of such notice within thirty days from the date of its issuance, or within such further time as the supervisor may allow, then the supervisor may take possession of such mutual savings bank as in the case of insolvency. [1955 c 13 § 32.24.040. Prior: 1931 c 132 § 6; RRS § 3375b.]

32.24.050 Liquidation of bank in unsound condition or insolvent. Whenever it appears to the supervisor that any offense or delinquency referred to in RCW 32.24.040 renders a mutual savings bank in an unsound or unsafe condition to continue its business, or that it has suspended payment of its obligations, or is insolvent, such supervisor may take possession thereof without notice.

Upon taking possession of any mutual savings bank, the supervisor shall forthwith proceed to liquidate the business, affairs, and assets thereof and such liquidation shall be had in accordance with the provisions of law governing the liquidation of insolvent banks and trust companies. [1955 c 13 § 32.24.050. Prior: 1931 c 132 § 7; RRS § 3375c.]

32.24.060 Possession by supervisor—Bank may contest. Within ten days after the supervisor takes possession thereof, a mutual savings bank may serve notice upon such supervisor to appear before the superior court in the county wherein such corporation is located, at a time to be fixed by said court, which shall not be less than five nor more than fifteen days from the date of the service of such notice, to show cause why such corporation should not be restored to the possession of its assets. Upon the return day of such notice, or such further day as the matter may be continued to, the court shall summarily hear said cause and shall dismiss the same, if it finds that possession was taken by the supervisor in good faith and for cause, but if it finds that no cause existed for the taking possession of such corporation, it shall require the supervisor to restore the bank to the possession of its assets and enjoin him from further interference therewith without cause. [1955 c 13 § 32.24.060. Prior: 1931 c 132 § 8; RRS § 3375d.]

32.24.070 Receiver prohibited except in emergency. No receiver shall be appointed by any court for any mutual savings bank, nor shall any assignment of any such bank for the benefit of creditors be valid, excepting only that a court otherwise having jurisdiction may in case of imminent necessity appoint a temporary receiver to take possession of and preserve the assets of the mutual savings bank. Immediately upon any such appointment, the clerk of the court shall notify the supervisor by telegram and mail of such appointment and the supervisor shall forthwith take possession of the mutual savings bank, as in case of insolvency, and the temporary receiver shall upon demand of the supervisor surrender up to him such possession and all assets which have come into his hands. The supervisor shall in due course pay such receiver out of the assets of the mutual savings bank such amount as the court shall allow. [1955 c 13 § 32.24.070. Prior: 1931 c 132 § 9; RRS § 3375e.]

32.24.080 Transfer of assets when insolvent—Penalty. Every transfer of its property or assets by any mutual savings bank in this state, made (1) after it has become insolvent, (2) within ninety days before the date the supervisor takes possession of such savings bank under RCW 32.24.050 or the federal deposit insurance corporation is appointed as receiver or liquidator of such savings bank under RCW 32.24.090, and (3) with the view to the preference of one creditor over another or to prevent equal distribution of its property and assets among its creditors, shall be void. Every trustee, officer, or employee making any such transfer shall be guilty of a felony. [1985 c 56 § 15; 1955 c 13 § 32.24.080. Prior: 1931 c 132 § 10; RRS § 3379a.]

32.24.090 Federal deposit insurance corporation as receiver or liquidator—Appointment—Powers and duties. The federal deposit insurance corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to be and act without bond as receiver or liquidator of any mutual savings bank the deposits in which are to any extent insured by that corporation and which shall have been closed on account of inability to meet the demands of its depositors. In the event of such closing, the supervisor of banking may appoint the federal deposit insurance corporation as receiver or liquidator of such mutual savings bank. If the corporation accepts such appointment, it shall have and possess all the powers and privileges provided by the laws of this state with respect to a liquidator of a mutual savings bank, its depositors and other creditors, and be subject to all the duties of such liquidator, except insofar as such powers, privileges, or duties are in conflict with the provisions of the federal deposit insurance act, as now or hereafter amended. [1973 1st ex.s. c 54 § 3.]

32.24.100 Payment or acquisition of deposit liabilities by federal deposit insurance corporation—Not hindered by judicial review—Liability. The pendency of any proceedings for judicial review of the supervisor's actions in taking possession and control of a mutual savings bank and its assets for the purpose of liquidation shall not operate to defer, delay, impede, or prevent the payment or acquisition by the federal deposit insurance corporation of the deposit liabilities of the mutual savings bank which are insured by the corporation. During the pendency of any proceedings for judicial review, the supervisor of banking shall make available to the federal deposit insurance corporation such facilities in or of the mutual savings bank and such books, records, and other relevant data of the mutual savings bank as may be necessary or appropriate to enable the corporation to pay out or to acquire the insured deposit liabilities of the mutual savings bank. The federal deposit insurance corporation and its directors, officers, agents, and employees, the supervisor of banking, and his agents and employees shall be free from liability to the mutual savings bank, its directors, stockholders, and creditors for or on account of any action taken in connection herewith. [1973 1st ex.s. c 54 § 4.]

32.32.010 Chapter exclusive—Prohibition on conversion without approval—Waiver of requirements. This chapter shall exclusively govern the conversion of mutual savings banks to capital stock savings banks. No mutual savings bank may convert to the capital stock form of organization without the prior written approval of the supervisor pursuant to this chapter, except that the supervisor may waive requirements of this chapter in appropriate cases. [1981 c 85 § 1.]

32.32.015 Forms. The supervisor may prescribe under this chapter such forms as the supervisor deems appropriate for use by a mutual savings bank seeking to convert to a capital stock savings bank pursuant to this chapter. [1981 c 85 § 2.]

32.32.020 Request of noncompliance—Requirements. (1) If an applicant finds that compliance with any provision of this chapter would be in conflict with applicable federal law, the supervisor shall grant or deny a request of noncompliance with the provision. The request may be incorporated in the application for conversion; otherwise, the applicant shall file the request in accordance with the requirements of the supervisor.

(2) In making any such request, the applicant shall:

(a) Specify the provision or provisions of this chapter with respect to which the applicant desires waiver;

(b) Furnish an opinion of counsel demonstrating that applicable federal law is in conflict with the specified provision or provisions of this chapter; and

(c) Demonstrate that the requested waiver would not result in any effects that would be inequitable or detrimental to the applicant, its account holders, or other financial institutions or would be contrary to the public interest. [1981 c 85 § 3.]

32.32.025 Definitions. As used in this chapter, the following definitions apply, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) Except as provided in RCW 32.32.230, an "affiliate" of, or a person "affiliated" with, a specified person, is a person that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, the person specified.

(2) The term "amount", when used in regard to securities, means the principal amount if relating to evidences of indebtedness, the number of shares if relating to shares, and the number of units if relating to any other kind of security.

(3) An "applicant" is a mutual savings bank which has applied to convert pursuant to this chapter.

32.32.220 Limitation on certain cash dividends within ten years of conversion. Except as provided in RCW 32.32.222, no converted savings bank may, without the prior approval of the supervisor, for a period of ten years after the date of its conversion, declare or pay a cash dividend on its capital stock in an amount in excess of one-half of the greater of:

32.32.225 Prohibitions on offer, sale, or purchase of securities. In the offer, sale, or purchase of securities issued incident to its conversion, no savings bank, or any director, officer, attorney, agent, or employee thereof, may (1) employ any device, scheme, or artifice to defraud, or (2) obtain money or property by means of any untrue statement of a material fact or any omission to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, or (3) engage in any act, transaction, practice, or course of business which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon a purchaser or seller. [1981 c 85 § 44.]

32.32.228 Acquisition of control of a converted savings bank. (1) As used in this section, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Control" means directly or indirectly alone or in concert with others to own, control, or hold the power to vote twenty-five percent or more of the outstanding stock or voting power of the controlled entity;

(b) "Acquiring party" means the person acquiring control of a bank through the purchase of stock;

(c) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, group acting in concert, association, business trust, or other organization.

(2) (a) It is unlawful for any person to acquire control of a converted savings bank until thirty days after filing with the supervisor a completed application. The application shall be under oath or affirmation, and shall contain substantially all of the following information plus any additional information that the supervisor may prescribe as necessary or appropriate in the particular instance for the protection of bank depositors, borrowers, or shareholders and the public interest:

(i) The identity and banking and business experience of each person by whom or on whose behalf acquisition is to be made;

(ii) The financial and managerial resources and future prospects of each person involved in the acquisition;

(iii) The terms and conditions of any proposed acquisition and the manner in which the acquisition is to be made;

(iv) The source and amount of the funds or other consideration used or to be used in making the acquisition, and a description of the transaction and the names of the parties if any part of these funds or other consideration has been or is to be borrowed or otherwise obtained for the purpose of making the acquisition;

(v) Any plan or proposal which any person making the acquisition may have to liquidate the bank, to sell its assets, to merge it with any other bank, or to make any other major change in its business or corporate structure or management;

(vi) The identification of any person employed, retained, or to be compensated by the acquiring party, or by any person on its behalf, who makes solicitations or recommendations to shareholders for the purpose of assisting in the acquisition and a brief description of the terms of the employment, retainer, or arrangement for compensation;

(vii) Copies of all invitations for tenders or advertisements making a tender offer to shareholders for the purchase of their stock to be used in connection with the proposed acquisition; and

(viii) Such additional information as shall be necessary to satisfy the supervisor, in the exercise of the supervisor's discretion, that each such person and associate meets the standards of character, responsibility, and general fitness established for incorporators of a savings bank under RCW 32.08.040.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a bank or bank holding company which has been in operation for at least three consecutive years or a converted mutual savings bank or the holding company of a mutual savings bank need only notify the supervisor and the savings bank to be acquired of an intent to acquire control and the date of the proposed acquisition of control at least thirty days before the date of the acquisition of control.

(c) When a person, other than an individual or corporation, is required to file an application under this section, the supervisor may require that the information required by (a) (i), (ii), (vi), and (viii) of this subsection be given with respect to each person, as defined in subsection (1)(c) of this section, who has an interest in or controls a person filing an application under this subsection.

(d) When a corporation is required to file an application under this section, the supervisor may require that information required by (a) (i), (ii), (vi), and (viii) of this subsection be given for the corporation, each officer and director of the corporation, and each person who is directly or indirectly the beneficial owner of twenty-five percent or more of the outstanding voting securities of the corporation.

(e) If any tender offer, request, or invitation for tenders or other agreements to acquire control is proposed to be made by means of a registration statement under the securities act of 1933 (48 Stat. 74, 15 U.S.C. Sec. 77(a)), as amended, or in circumstances requiring the disclosure of similar information under the securities exchange act of 1934 (48 Stat. 881, 15 U.S.C. Sec. 78(a)), as amended, the registration statement or application may be filed with the supervisor in lieu of the requirements of this section.

(f) Any acquiring party shall also deliver a copy of any notice or application required by this section to the savings bank proposed to be acquired within two days after such notice or application is filed with the supervisor.

(g) Any acquisition of control in violation of this section shall be ineffective and void.

(h) Any person who wilfully or intentionally violates this section or any rule adopted under this section is guilty of a gross misdemeanor pursuant to chapter 9A.20 RCW. Each day's violation shall be considered a separate violation, and any person shall upon conviction be fined not more than one thousand dollars for each day the violation continues.

(3) The supervisor may file an action in the superior court of the county in which the bank is located to restrain the pending acquisition of control of a savings bank if he finds after considering the application and within thirty days after its filing any of the following:

(a) The poor financial condition of any acquiring party might jeopardize the financial stability of the savings bank or might prejudice the interest of depositors, borrowers, or shareholders;

(b) The plan or proposal of the acquiring party to liquidate the savings bank, to sell its assets, to merge it with any person, or to make any other major change in its business or corporate structure or management is not fair and reasonable to its depositors, borrowers, or stockholders or is not in public interest;

(c) The banking and business experience and integrity of any acquiring party who would control the operation of the savings bank indicates that approval would not be in the interest of the savings bank's depositors, borrowers, or shareholders;

(d) The information provided by the application is insufficient for the supervisor to make a determination or there has been insufficient time to verify the information provided and conduct an examination of the qualification of the acquiring party; or

(e) The acquisition would not be in the public interest.

(4) (a) For a period of ten years following the acquisition of control by any person, neither such acquiring party nor any associate shall receive any loan or the use of any of the funds of, nor purchase, lease, or otherwise receive any property from, nor receive any consideration from the sale, lease, or any other conveyance of property to, any savings bank in which the acquiring party has control except as provided in (b) of this subsection.

(b) Upon application by any acquiring party or associate subject to (a) of this subsection, the supervisor may approve a transaction between a converted savings bank and such acquiring party, person, or associate, upon finding that the terms and conditions of the transaction are at least as advantageous to the savings bank as the savings bank would obtain in a comparable transaction with an unaffiliated person.

(5) Except with the consent of the supervisor, no converted savings bank shall, for the purpose of enabling any person to purchase any or all shares of its capital stock, pledge or otherwise transfer any of its assets as security for a loan to such person or to any associate, or pay any dividend to any such person or associate. Nothing in this section shall prohibit a dividend of stock among shareholders in proportion to their shareholdings. In the event any clause of this section is declared to be unconstitutional or otherwise invalid, all remaining dependent and independent clauses of this section shall remain in full force and effect. [1985 c 56 § 25.]

32.32.230 Nonapproval of conversion unless acquisition of control within three years by certain companies prohibited. (1) No conversion may be approved by the supervisor unless the plan of conversion provides that the converted savings bank shall enter into an agreement with the supervisor, in form satisfactory to the supervisor, which shall provide that for a period of three years following the conversion any company significantly engaged in an unrelated business activity, either directly or through an affiliate thereof, shall not be permitted, regardless of the form of the transaction, to acquire control of the converted savings bank. Any acquisition of a converted savings bank shall also comply with RCW 32.32.228.

(2) As used in this section:

(a) The term "affiliate" means any person or company which controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, a specified company.

(b) A person or company shall be deemed to have "control" of:

(i) A savings bank if the person directly or indirectly or acting in concert with one or more other persons, or through one or more subsidiaries, owns, controls, or holds with power to vote, or holds proxies representing, more than twenty-five percent of the voting shares of the savings bank, or controls in any manner the election of a majority of the directors of the bank;

(ii) Any other company if the person directly or indirectly or acting in concert with one or more other persons, or through one or more subsidiaries, owns, controls, or holds with power to vote, or holds proxies representing, more than twenty-five percent of the voting shares or rights of the other company, or controls in any manner the election or appointment of a majority of the directors or trustees of the other company, or is a general partner in or has contributed more than twenty-five percent of the capital of the other company;

(iii) A trust if the person is a trustee thereof; or

(iv) A savings bank or any other company if the supervisor determines, after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing, that the person directly or indirectly exercises a controlling influence over the management or policies of the savings bank or other company.

(c) A company shall be deemed to be "significantly engaged" in an unrelated business activity if its unrelated business activities would represent, on either an actual or a pro forma basis, more than fifteen percent of its consolidated net worth at the close of this preceding fiscal year or of its consolidated net earnings for such fiscal year.

(d) The term "unrelated business activity" means any business activity not authorized for a savings bank or any subsidiary thereof. [1985 c 56 § 26; 1981 c 85 § 45.]

32.32.235 Plan of conversion—Charter restrictions permitted. To the extent permitted by applicable federal or state law, a plan of conversion may provide for a provision in the charter of the converted savings bank containing, in substance, the restriction set forth in RCW 32.32.230. There may also be included a restriction providing that the charter provision may be amended only by a vote of up to seventy-five percent of the votes eligible to be cast at a regular or special meeting of shareholders of the converted savings bank. If the converted savings bank elects to adopt the foregoing optional charter provision, the supervisor shall impose, as a condition to approval of the conversion, a requirement that the converted savings bank fully enforce the charter provision. [1981 c 85 § 46.]

32.32.240 Confidentiality of consideration to convert—Remedial measures for breach. A savings bank which is considering converting pursuant to this chapter and its directors, officers, and employees shall keep this consideration in the strictest confidence and shall only discuss the potential conversion as would be consistent with the need to prepare information for filing an application for conversion. Should this confidence be breached the supervisor may require remedial measures including:

(1) A public statement by the savings bank that its board of directors is currently considering converting pursuant to this chapter;

(2) Providing for an eligibility record date which shall be as of such a date prior to the adoption of the plan by the converting savings bank's board of directors as to assure the equitability of the conversion;

(3) Limitation of the subscription rights of any person violating or aiding the violation of this section to an amount deemed appropriate by the supervisor; and

(4) Any other actions the supervisor may deem appropriate and necessary to assure the fairness and equitability of the conversion. [1981 c 85 § 47.]

32.32.245 Public statement authorized. If it should become essential as a result of rumors prior to the adoption of a plan of conversion by the applicant's board of directors, a public statement limited to that purpose may be made by the applicant. [1981 c 85 § 48.]

32.32.250 Adoption of plan of conversion—Notice to and inspection by account holders—Statement and letter—Press release authorized. Promptly after the adoption of a plan of conversion by not less than two-thirds of its board of directors, the savings bank shall:

(1) Notify its account holders of the action by publishing a statement in a newspaper having general circulation in each community in which an office of the savings bank is located and/or by mailing a letter to each of its account holders; and

(2) Have copies of the adopted plan of conversion available for inspection by its account holders at each office of the savings bank.

The savings bank may also issue a press release with respect to the action. Copies of the proposed statement, letter, and press release are not required to be filed with the supervisor but may be submitted to the supervisor for comment. Copies of the definitive statement, letter, and press release shall be filed with the supervisor as part of the application for conversion. [1981 c 85 § 49.]

32.32.255 Statement, letter, and press release—Content permitted. The statement, letter, and press release of the applicant issued pursuant to RCW 32.32.250, unless otherwise authorized by the supervisor, shall contain only (but need not contain all of) the following:

(1) A statement that the board of directors has adopted a plan to convert the savings bank from a mutual savings bank to a capital stock savings bank;

(2) A statement that the plan of conversion is subject to approval by the supervisor of banking and by the appropriate federal regulatory authority or authorities (naming such an authority or authorities) before the plan can become effective and that account holders of the applicant will have an opportunity to file written comments including objections and materials supporting the objections with the supervisor;

(3) A statement that the plan of conversion is contingent upon obtaining favorable tax rulings from the Internal Revenue Service or an appropriate tax opinion;

(4) A statement that there is no assurance that the approval of the supervisor of banking or the approval of any appropriate federal authority or authorities will be obtained, and also no assurance that the favorable tax rulings or tax opinion will be received;

(5) The proposed record date for determining the eligible account holders entitled to receive nontransferable subscription rights to purchase capital stock of the applicant;

(6) A brief statement describing the circumstances that would require supplemental eligible account holders to receive nontransferable subscription rights to purchase capital stock of the applicant;

(7) A brief description of the plan of conversion;

(8) The par value and approximate number of shares of capital stock to be issued and sold under the plan of conversion;

(9) A brief statement as to the extent to which directors, officers, and employees will participate in the conversion;

(10) A statement that savings account holders will continue to hold accounts in the converted savings bank identical as to dollar amount, rate of return, and general terms and that their accounts will continue to be insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation;

(11) A statement that borrowers' loans will be unaffected by conversion and that the amount, rate, maturity, security, and other conditions will remain contractually fixed as they existed prior to conversion;

(12) A statement that the normal business of the savings bank in accepting savings and making loans will continue without interruption; that the converted savings bank will continue after conversion to conduct its present services to savings account holders and borrowers under current policies to be carried on in existing offices and by the present management and staff;

(13) A statement that the plan of conversion may be substantively amended or terminated by the board of directors with the concurrence of the supervisor of banking; and

(14) A statement that questions of account holders may be answered by telephoning or writing to the savings bank. [1981 c 85 § 50.]

32.32.260 Statement, letter, and press release—Contents prohibited—Inquiries. The statement, letter, and press release of the applicant issued pursuant to RCW 32.32.250 shall not include financial statements or describe the benefits of conversion or the value of the capital stock of the savings bank upon conversion. In replying to inquiries, the savings bank should limit its answers to the matters listed in RCW 32.32.255. [1981 c 85 § 51.]

32.32.265 Notices of filing of application—Requests for subscription offering circular. Upon determination that an application for conversion is properly executed and is not materially incomplete, the supervisor shall advise the applicant, in writing, to publish notices of the filing of the application. Promptly after receipt of the advice, the applicant shall furnish a written notice of the filing to each eligible account holder and also publish a notice of the filing in a newspaper printed in the English language and having general circulation in each community in which an office of the applicant is located, as follows:

NOTICE OF FILING OF AN APPLICATION FOR APPROVAL TO CONVERT TO A STOCK SAVINGS BANK

Notice is hereby given that, pursuant to chapter 32.32 of the Revised Code of Washington has filed an application with the Supervisor of Banking for approval to convert to the stock form of organization. Copies of the application have been delivered to _____ (address) .

(fill in name of applicant)

Written comments, including objections to the plan of conversion and materials supporting the objections, from any account holder of the applicant or aggrieved person, will be considered by the supervisor if filed within twenty business days after the date of this notice. Failure to make written comments in objection may preclude the pursuit of any administrative or judicial remedies. Three copies of the comments should be sent to the aforementioned. The proposed plan of conversion and any comments thereon will be available for inspection by any account holder of the applicant at _____ (address) . A copy of the plan may also be inspected at each office of the applicant.

If a significant number of the applicant's account holders speak a language other than English and a newspaper in that language is published in the area served by the applicant, an appropriate translation of the notice shall also be published in that newspaper. A notice sent by mail may be accompanied by the statement that the converting institution will not mail a subscription offering circular to an eligible account holder or a supplemental eligible account holder unless the eligible account holder or the supplemental eligible account holder, prior to the commencement of the subscription offering, requests the subscription offering circular by returning a postcard. The issuer of stock in the conversion shall pay the postage of this postcard and shall inform the eligible account holder or supplemental eligible holder that the postage is paid. [1985 c 56 § 27; 1981 c 85 § 52.]

32.32.270 Filing of notice and affidavit of publication required. Promptly after publication of the notices prescribed in RCW 32.32.265, the applicant shall file with the supervisor the notice and affidavit of publication from each newspaper publisher in the manner the supervisor shall require. [1981 c 85 § 53.]

32.32.275 Applications available for public inspection—Confidential information. Should the applicant desire to submit any information it deems to be of a confidential nature regarding any item or a part of any exhibit included in any application under this chapter, the information pertaining to the item or exhibit shall be separately bound and labeled "confidential", and a statement shall be submitted therewith briefly setting forth the grounds on which the information should be treated as confidential. Only general reference thereto need be made in that portion of the application which the applicant deems not to be confidential. Applications under this chapter shall be made available for inspection by the public, except for portions which are bound and labeled "confidential" and which the supervisor determines to withhold from public availability under RCW 42.17.250 through 42.17.340. The applicant shall be advised of any decision by the supervisor to make public information designated as "confidential" by the applicant. Even though sections of the application are considered "confidential" as far as public inspection thereof is concerned, to the extent the supervisor deems necessary the supervisor may comment on the confidential submissions in any public statement in connection with the supervisor's decision on the application without prior notice to the applicant. [1981 c 85 § 54.]

32.32.280 Offers and sales of securities—Prohibitions. No offer to sell securities of an applicant pursuant to a plan of conversion may be made prior to approval by the supervisor of the application for conversion. No sale of these securities in the subscription offering may be made except by means of the final offering circular for the subscription offering. No sale of unsubscribed securities may be made except by means of the final offering circular for the public offering or direct community marketing. The offering of shares in the direct community marketing may commence during the subscription offering upon the declaration of effectiveness by the supervisor of the offering circular proposed for the community offering. This section shall not apply to preliminary negotiations or agreements between an applicant and any underwriter or among underwriters who are to be in privity of contract with the applicant. [1981 c 85 § 55.]

32.32.285 Distribution of offering circulars authorized. Any preliminary offering circular for the subscription offering, the public offering, or the direct community marketing which has been filed with the supervisor may be distributed to eligible account holders or supplemental eligible account holders and to others in connection with the offering after the supervisor has advised the applicant in writing that the application is properly executed and is not materially incomplete under RCW 32.32.265. No final offering circular may be distributed until the offering circular has been declared effective by the supervisor. [1981 c 85 § 56.]

32.32.290 Preliminary offering circular for subscription offering—Estimated subscription price range required. With respect to the capital stock of the applicant to be sold under the plan of conversion, any preliminary offering circular for the subscription offering shall set forth the estimated subscription price range. The maximum of the price range should normally be no more than fifteen percent above the average of the minimum and maximum of the price range and the minimum should normally be no more than fifteen percent below this average. The maximum price used in the price range should normally be no more than fifty dollars per share and the minimum no less than five dollars per share. The minimum par value of each share of the capital stock of a converted savings bank shall be one dollar. [1981 c 85 § 57.]

32.32.295 Review of price information by supervisor. The supervisor shall review the price information required under RCW 32.32.290 in determining whether to give approval to an application for conversion. No representations may be made in any manner that the price information has been approved by the supervisor or that the shares of capital stock sold pursuant to the plan of conversion have been approved or disapproved by the supervisor or that the supervisor has passed upon the accuracy or adequacy of any offering circular covering the shares. [1981 c 85 § 58.]

32.32.300 Underwriting commissions. Underwriting commissions shall not exceed an amount or percentage per share acceptable to the supervisor. No underwriting commission may be allowed or paid with respect to shares of capital stock sold in the subscription offering; however, an underwriter may be reimbursed for accountable expenses in connection with the subscription offering where the public offering is so small that reasonable underwriting commissions thereon would not be sufficient to cover total accountable expenses. The term "underwriting commissions" includes underwriting discounts. [1981 c 85 § 59.]

32.32.305 Consideration of pricing information by supervisor—Guidelines. In considering the pricing information required under RCW 32.32.290, the supervisor shall apply the following guidelines:

(1) The materials shall be prepared by persons independent of the applicant, experienced and expert in the area of corporate appraisal, and acceptable to the supervisor;

(2) The materials shall contain data which are sufficient to support the conclusions reached therein;

(3) The materials shall contain a complete and detailed description of the appraisal methodology employed; and

(4) To the extent that the appraisal is based on a capitalization of the pro forma income of the converted savings bank, the materials shall indicate the basis for determination of the income to be derived from the proceeds of the sale of stock and demonstrate the appropriateness of the earnings multiple used, including assumptions made as to future earnings growth. To the extent that the appraisal is based on comparison of the capital stock of the applicant with outstanding capital stock of existing stock savings banks or stock savings and loan associations, the materials shall demonstrate the appropriate comparability of the form and substance of the outstanding capital stock and the appropriate comparability of the existing stock savings banks and stock savings and loan associations in terms of such factors as size, market area, competitive conditions, profit history, and expected future earnings. [1981 c 85 § 60.]

32.32.310 Submission of information by applicant. In addition to the information required in RCW 32.32.305, the applicant shall submit information demonstrating to the satisfaction of the supervisor the independence and expertise of any person preparing materials under RCW 32.32.305. However, a person will not be considered as lacking independence for the reason that the person will participate in effecting a sale of capital stock under the plan of conversion or will receive a fee from the applicant for services rendered in connection with the appraisal. [1981 c 85 § 61.]

32.32.315 Subscription offering—Distribution of order forms for the purchase of shares. Promptly after the supervisor has declared the offering circular for the subscription offering effective, the applicant shall distribute order forms for the purchase of shares of capital stock in the subscription offering to all eligible account holders, supplemental eligible account holders (if applicable), and other persons who may subscribe for the shares under the plan of conversion. [1981 c 85 § 62.]

32.32.320 Order forms—Final offering circular and detailed instructions. Each order form distributed pursuant to RCW 32.32.315 shall be accompanied or preceded by the final offering circular for the subscription offering and a set of detailed instructions explaining how to properly complete the order forms. [1981 c 85 § 63.]

32.32.325 Subscription price. The maximum subscription price stated on each order form distributed pursuant to RCW 32.32.315 shall be the amount to be paid when the order form is returned. The maximum subscription price and the actual subscription price shall be within the subscription price range stated in the supervisor's approval and the offering circular. If either the maximum subscription price or the actual subscription price is not within this subscription price range, the applicant shall obtain an amendment to the supervisor's approval. If appropriate, the supervisor shall condition the giving of amended approval by requiring a resolicitation of order forms. If the actual public offering price is less than the maximum subscription price stated on the order form, the actual subscription price shall be correspondingly reduced and the difference shall be refunded to those who have paid the maximum subscription price. [1981 c 85 § 64.]

32.32.330 Order form—Contents. Each order form distributed pursuant to RCW 32.32.315 shall be prepared so as to indicate to the person receiving it, in as simple, clear, and intelligible a manner as possible, the actions which are required or available to the person with respect to the form and the capital stock offered for purchase thereby. Specifically, each order form shall:

(1) Indicate the maximum number of shares that may be purchased pursuant to the subscription offering;

(2) Indicate the period of time within which the subscription rights must be exercised, which period of time shall not be less than twenty days following the date of the mailing of the order form;

(3) State the maximum subscription price per share of capital stock;

(4) Indicate any requirements as to the minimum number of shares of capital stock which may be purchased;

(5) Provide a specifically designated blank space or spaces for indicating the number of shares of capital stock which the eligible account holder or other person wishes to purchase;

(6) Indicate that payment may be made by cash if delivered in person or by check or by withdrawal from an account holder's savings account. If payment is to be made by withdrawal, a box to check should be provided;

(7) Provide specifically designated blank spaces for dating and signing the order form;

(8) Contain an acknowledgment by the account holder or other person signing the order form that the person has received the final offering circular for the subscription offering prior to signing; and

(9) Indicate the consequences of failing to properly complete and return the order form, including a statement that the subscription rights are nontransferable and will become void at the end of the subscription period. The order form may, and the set of instructions shall, indicate the place or places to which the order forms are to be returned and when the applicant will consider order forms received, such as by date and time of actual receipt in the applicant's offices or by date and time of postmark. [1981 c 85 § 65.]

32.32.335 Order form—Additional provision authorized—Payment by withdrawal. The order form distributed pursuant to RCW 32.32.315 may provide that it may not be modified without the applicant's consent after its receipt by the applicant. If payment is to be made by withdrawal from a savings account the applicant may, but need not, cause the withdrawal to be made upon receipt of the order form. If the withdrawal is made at any time prior to the closing date of the public offering, the applicant shall pay interest to the account holder on the account withdrawn as if the amount had remained in the account from which it was withdrawn until the closing date. [1981 c 85 § 66.]

32.32.340 Time period for completion of sale of all shares of capital stock. The sale of all shares of capital stock of the converting savings bank to be made under the plan of conversion, including any sale in a public offering or direct community marketing, shall be completed as promptly as possible and within forty-five calendar days after the last day of the subscription period, unless extended by the supervisor. [1981 c 85 § 67.]

32.32.345 Copies of application for approval to be filed. An applicant that desires to convert in accordance with this chapter shall file copies of an application for approval in the form and number prescribed by the supervisor. [1981 c 85 § 68.]

32.32.350 Nonacceptance and return of applications. Any application for approval that is improperly executed, or that does not contain copies of a plan of conversion, amendments to the charter of the applicant in the form of new articles of incorporation, and preliminary offering circulars for the subscription offering and for the public offering or direct community marketing shall not be accepted for filing and shall be returned to the applicant. Any application for approval containing a materially incomplete plan of conversion or offering circular may be returned by the supervisor to the applicant. [1981 c 85 § 69.]

32.32.355 Continuity of corporate existence. Upon the filing of the articles of incorporation of a converted savings bank with the secretary of state in accordance with RCW 32.32.485, the corporate existence of the mutual savings bank converting to a stock savings bank pursuant to this chapter shall not terminate but the converted savings bank shall be deemed to be a continuation of the entity of the mutual savings bank so converted having the same rights and obligations as it had prior to the conversion. [1981 c 85 § 70.]

32.32.360 Form of application. The form of the application shall comply with the requirements of the supervisor. [1981 c 85 § 71.]

32.32.365 Representations upon filing of application. Except as provided in RCW 32.32.370, the filing of any application or amendment thereto under this chapter shall constitute a representation of the applicant by its duly authorized representative, the applicant's principal executive officer, the applicant's principal financial officer, and the applicant's principal accounting officer, and each member of the applicant's board of directors (whether or not the director has signed the application or any amendment thereto) severally that (1) he or she has read the application or amendment, (2) in the opinion of each such person he or she has made such examination and investigation as is necessary to enable him or her to express an informed opinion that the application or amendment complies to the best of his or her knowledge and belief with the applicable requirements of this chapter, and (3) each such person holds this informed opinion. [1981 c 85 § 72.]

32.32.370 Representations upon filing of application—Exception. The representations specified in RCW 32.32.365 shall not be deemed to have been made by any director of the applicant who did not sign the application or any amendment thereto, if, and only to the extent that, the director files with the supervisor within ten business days after the filing of the application or amendment a statement describing those portions of the filing as to which he or she does not so represent. [1981 c 85 § 73.]

32.32.375 Application to furnish information. Every application shall furnish information in accordance with this chapter and with the requirements and forms prescribed by the supervisor. [1981 c 85 § 74.]

32.32.380 Application—Additional information required. In addition to the information expressly required to be included in any application under this chapter, there shall be added such further material information, if any, as may be necessary to make the required statements, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading. [1981 c 85 § 75.]

32.32.385 Omission of certain information permitted—Conditions. Information required need be given only insofar as it is known or reasonably available to the applicant. If any required information is unknown and not reasonably available to the applicant, either because the obtaining thereof would involve unreasonable effort or expense or because it rests peculiarly within the knowledge of another person not affiliated with the applicant, the information may be omitted, subject to the following conditions:

(1) The applicant shall give such information on the subject as it possesses or can acquire without unreasonable effort or expense, together with the sources thereof.

(2) The applicant shall include a statement either showing that unreasonable effort or expense would be involved or indicating the absence of any affiliation with the person within whose knowledge the information rests and stating the result of a request made to the person for the information. [1981 c 85 § 76.]

32.32.390 Offering circular—Certain manner of presentation of required information prohibited. The information required in an offering circular shall not be set forth in such fashion as to obscure any of the required information or any information necessary to keep the required information from being incomplete or misleading. [1981 c 85 § 77.]

32.32.395 Form and contents of filings. The form and contents of any filing made under this chapter need conform only to the applicable requirements and forms prescribed by the supervisor then in effect, and contain the information, including financial statements, required at the time the filing is made, notwithstanding subsequent changes, except as otherwise provided in any such amendment or in RCW 32.32.400. [1981 c 85 § 78.]

32.32.400 Conformance required to order prohibiting the use of any filing. Whenever the supervisor prohibits by order or otherwise the use of any filing under this chapter, the form and contents of any filing used thereafter shall conform to the requirements of the order. [1981 c 85 § 79.]

32.32.405 Application—Certain named persons—Filing of written consent required. (1) If any accountant, attorney, investment banker, appraiser, or other persons whose professions give authority to a statement made in any application under this chapter is named as having prepared, reviewed, passed upon, or certified any part thereof, or any report or valuation for use in connection therewith, the written consent of the person shall be filed with the application. If any portion of a report of an expert is quoted or summarized as such in any filing under this chapter, the written consent of the expert shall expressly state that the expert consents to this quotation or summarization.

(2) All written consents filed pursuant to this section shall be dated and signed manually. A list of the consents shall be filed with the application. Where the consent of the expert is contained in the expert's report, a reference shall be made in the list to the report containing the consent. [1981 c 85 § 80.]

32.32.410 Offering circular—Certain named persons—Filing of written consent required. If any person who has not signed an application is named in the offering circular as about to become a director, the written consent of this person shall be filed with the supervisor in the form the supervisor prescribes. [1981 c 85 § 81.]

32.32.420 Availability for conferences in advance of filing of application—Refusal of prefiling review. (1) The staff of the supervisor shall be available for conferences with prospective applicants or their representatives in advance of filing an application to convert. These conferences may be held for the purpose of discussing generally the problems confronting an applicant in effecting conversion or to resolve specific problems of an unusual nature.

(2) Prefiling review of an application may be refused by the staff of the supervisor if the review would delay the examination and processing of material which has already been filed or would favor certain applicants at the expense of others. In any conference under this section, the staff of the supervisor shall not undertake to prepare material for filing but shall limit itself to indicating the kind of information required, leaving the actual drafting to the applicant and its representatives. [1981 c 85 § 83.]

32.32.425 Appeal from refusal to approve application. From the supervisor's refusal to approve an application for conversion, the applicant may, within thirty days from the date of the mailing by the supervisor of notice of refusal to approve, appeal to a board of appeal composed of the governor or the governor's designee, the attorney general, and the supervisor of banking by filing in the office of the supervisor a notice that it appeals to this board from the supervisor's refusal. The procedure upon the appeal shall be such as the board may prescribe, and its determination shall be certified, filed, and recorded in the same manner as the supervisor's, and shall be final. [1981 c 85 § 84.]

(2) The term "person" means an individual, a group acting in concert, a corporation, a partnership, an association, a joint stock company, a trust, and any unincorporated organization or similar company.

(3) Without limitation on the generality of its meaning, the term "security" includes nontransferable subscription rights issued to a plan of conversion. [1981 c 85 § 86.]

32.32.440 Certain agreement to transfer and transfers of ownership in rights or securities prohibited. Prior to completion of a conversion, no person may transfer or enter into any agreement or understanding to transfer the legal or beneficial ownership of conversion subscription rights, or the underlying securities, to the account of another. [1981 c 85 § 87.]

32.32.445 Certain offers and announcements on securities prohibited. Prior to completion of a conversion, no person may make any offer, or announcement of an offer or intent to make an offer, for any security of a converting savings bank issued or to be issued in connection with the conversion. [1981 c 85 § 88.]

32.32.450 Certain offers and acquisitions prohibited. No person for a period of three years following the date of the conversion may directly or indirectly offer to acquire or acquire the beneficial ownership of more than ten percent of any class of an equity security of any savings bank converted in accordance with this chapter without the prior written approval of the supervisor of banking. [1981 c 85 § 89.]

32.32.455 Nonapplicability of RCW 32.32.440 and 32.32.445. RCW 32.32.440 and 32.32.445 shall not apply to a transfer, agreement or understanding to transfer, offer, or announcement of an offer or intent to make an offer which (1) pertains only to securities to be purchased pursuant to RCW 32.32.060, 32.32.150, or 32.32.175; and (2) has prior written approval of the supervisor. [1981 c 85 § 90.]

32.32.460 Nonapplicability of RCW 32.32.445 and 32.32.450. RCW 32.32.445 and 32.32.450 shall not apply to any offer with a view toward public resale made exclusively to the savings bank or underwriters or selling group acting on its behalf. [1981 c 85 § 91.]

32.32.465 Nonapplicability of RCW 32.32.450. Unless made applicable by the supervisor by prior advice in writing, the prohibition contained in RCW 32.32.450 shall not apply to any offer or announcement of an offer which if consummated would result in acquisition by a person, together with all other acquisitions by the person of the same class of securities during the preceding twelve-month period, of not more than one percent of the same class of securities. [1981 c 85 § 92.]

32.32.470 Approval of certain applications prohibited. The supervisor shall not approve an application involving an offer for, an announcement thereof, or an acquisition of any security of a converted savings bank submitted under RCW 32.32.450 if the supervisor finds that the offer frustrates the purposes of this chapter, is manipulative or deceptive, subverts the fairness of the conversion, is likely to result in injury to the savings bank, is not consistent with savings banking under Title 32 RCW, or is otherwise violative of law or regulation. [1981 c 85 § 93.]

32.32.475 Penalty for violations. For wilful violation or assistance of such a violation of any provision of RCW 32.32.440 through 32.32.470, any person who (1) has any connection with the management of a converting or converted savings bank, including any director, officer, employee, attorney, or agent, or (2) controls more than ten percent of the outstanding shares of any class of equity security or voting rights thereto of a converting or converted savings bank shall be subject to a civil penalty of not more than five hundred dollars (which penalty shall be cumulative to any other remedies) for each day that the violation continues, which penalty the supervisor may recover by suit or otherwise for the supervisor's own use. The supervisor in his discretion may, at any time before collection of the penalty (whether before or after the bringing of any action or other legal proceedings, the obtaining of any judgment or other recovery, or the issuance or levy of any execution or other legal process thereof), compromise or remit in whole or in part the penalty. [1981 c 85 § 94.]

32.32.480 Name of converted savings bank. The name of a mutual savings bank converted to a stock savings bank under this chapter shall contain the words "savings bank." [1981 c 85 § 95.]

32.32.485 Amendments to charter required in application—Articles of incorporation—Filing of certificate required—Contents—Issuance and filing of authorization certificate. (1) An application for conversion under this chapter shall include amendments to the charter of the converting savings bank. The charter of the converted savings bank, as amended, shall be known after the conversion as the articles of incorporation of the converted savings bank. The articles of incorporation may limit or permit the preemptive rights of a shareholder to acquire unissued shares of the converted savings bank and may thereafter by amendment limit, deny, or grant to shareholders of any class of stock the preemptive right to acquire additional shares of the converted savings bank whether then or thereafter authorized. The articles of incorporation shall contain such other provisions not inconsistent with this chapter as the board of directors of the converting savings bank shall determine and as shall be approved by the supervisor.

(2) When all of the stock of a converting savings bank has been subscribed for in accordance with the plan and any amendments thereto, the board of trustees shall thereupon issue the stock and shall cause to be filed with the supervisor of banking, in quadruplicate, a certificate subscribed and acknowledged by the persons who are to be directors of the converted savings bank, stating:

(a) That all of the stock of the converted mutual savings bank has been issued;

(b) That the attached articles of incorporation have been executed by all of the persons who are to be directors of the converted mutual savings bank;

(c) The place where the bank is to be located and its business transacted, naming the city or town and county, which city or town shall be the same as that where the principal place of business of the mutual savings bank has theretofore been located;

(d) The name, occupation, residence, and post office address of each signer of the certificate;

(e) The amount of the assets of the mutual savings bank, the amount of its liabilities, and the amount of its guaranty fund and nondivided profits as of the first day of the current calendar month; and

(f) A declaration that each signer will accept the responsibilities and faithfully discharge the duties of a director of the converted savings bank and is free from all the disqualifications specified in the laws applicable to converted mutual savings banks.

(3) Upon the filing of the certificate in quadruplicate, the supervisor of banking shall, within thirty days thereafter, if satisfied that the corporation has complied with all the provisions of this chapter, issue in quadruplicate an authorization certificate stating that the corporation has complied with all the requirements of law, and that it has authority to transact at the place designated in its articles of incorporation the business of a converted mutual savings bank. One of the supervisor's quadruplicate certificates of authorization shall be attached to each of the quadruplicate articles of incorporation, and one set of these shall be filed and retained by the supervisor of banking, one set shall be filed in the office of the county auditor of the county in which the bank is located, one set shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state, and one set shall be transmitted to the bank for its files. Upon the receipt from the corporation of the same fees as are required for filing and recording other incorporation certificates or articles the county auditor and secretary of state shall record the same; whereupon the conversion of the mutual savings bank shall be deemed complete, and the signers of the articles of incorporation and their successors shall be a corporation having the powers and being subject to the duties and obligations prescribed by the laws of this state applicable to converted mutual savings banks, and the time of existence of the corporation shall be perpetual, unless terminated pursuant to law. [1981 c 85 § 96.]

32.32.490 Amendments to articles of incorporation. Amendments to the articles of incorporation of the converted savings bank shall be made only with the approvals of the supervisor, of two-thirds of the directors of the savings bank, and of the holders of a majority of each class of the outstanding shares of capital stock or such greater percentage of these shares as may be specified in the articles of the converted savings bank. [1985 c 56 § 28; 1981 c 85 § 97.]

32.32.495 Directors—Election—Meetings—Quorum—Oath—Vacancies. (1) Every converted savings bank shall be managed by not less than five directors, except that a bank having a capital of fifty thousand dollars or less may have only three directors. Directors shall be elected by the stockholders and hold office for one year and until their successors are elected and have qualified. In the first instance the directors shall be those named in the articles of incorporation and afterwards, those elected at the annual meeting of the stockholders to be held at least once each year on a day to be specified by the converted savings bank's bylaws but not later than May 15th of each year. If for any cause an election is not held at that time, it may be held at an adjourned meeting or at a subsequent meeting called for that purpose in the manner prescribed by the corporation's bylaws. Each director shall be a resident of a state of the United States. The directors shall meet at least nine times each year and whenever required by the supervisor. A majority of the board of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. At all stockholders' meetings, each share shall be entitled to one vote, unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise. Any stockholder may vote in person or by written proxy.

(2) If the board of directors consists of nine or more members, in lieu of electing the entire number of directors annually, the converted savings bank's articles of incorporation or bylaws may provide that the directors be divided into either two or three classes, each class to be as nearly equal in number as possible, the term of office of directors of the first class to expire at the first annual meeting of shareholders after their election, that of the second class to expire at the second annual meeting after their election, and that of the third class, if any, to expire at the third annual meeting after their election. At each annual meeting after such classification, the number of directors equal to the number of the class whose term expires at the time of such meeting shall be elected to hold office until the second succeeding annual meeting, if there are two classes, or until the third succeeding annual meeting, if there are three classes. A classification of directors shall not be effective prior to the first annual meeting of shareholders.

(3) Immediately upon election, each director shall take, subscribe, swear to, and file with the supervisor an oath that he will, so far as the duty devolves upon him, diligently and honestly administer the affairs of the corporation and will not knowingly violate or willingly permit to be violated any provision of law applicable to the corporation.

(4) A vacancy occurring in the board of directors may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of the director's predecessor in office. A directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of directors may be filled by the board of directors for a term of office continuing only until the next election of directors by the shareholders. [1985 c 56 § 29; 1983 c 44 § 3; 1981 c 85 § 98.]

32.32.497 Conversions incident to acquisition by savings bank holding company or merger or consolidation with savings bank holding company subsidiary—Application of RCW 32.32.110 and 32.32.115. (1) In a conversion of an unconverted mutual savings bank that is in the process of acquisition by a savings bank holding company or in the process of merger or consolidation with a subsidiary of a savings bank holding company, the restrictions imposed by RCW 32.32.110 on resale of stock apply to shares of the holding company purchased on original issue by any director or officer of the converting savings bank that is in the process of acquisition, merger, or consolidation, and the restrictions imposed by this chapter apply to the ownership of capital stock in the holding company with the same force and effect as they would apply to the ownership of capital stock of the unconverted mutual savings bank if shares of this savings bank were offered to depositors or the public pursuant to this chapter.

(2) The tender of shares by directors and officers of a converted savings bank in exchange for shares of another converted savings bank, or for shares of a holding company, do not constitute a sale for purposes of RCW 32.32.110. However, the restrictions of RCW 32.32.110 and 32.32.115 apply to the resale of the shares they receive in such an exchange with the same force and effect as to the shares of the converted savings bank they purchased on original issue for a period of three years following the date of such purchase on original issue. [1985 c 56 § 30.]

32.32.500 Merger, consolidation, conversion, etc.—Approval. A mutual savings bank or bank converted under this chapter may merge with, consolidate with, convert into, acquire the assets of, or sell its assets to any other financial institution chartered under Titles 30, 32, or 33 RCW or under the National Bank Act, as amended, or the National Housing Act, as amended, or to a holding company thereof, subject to (1) the approval of the supervisor of banking if the surviving institution is one chartered under Title 30 or 32 RCW, or (2) approval of the supervisor of savings and loans if the surviving institution is one chartered under Title 33 RCW, or (3) if the surviving institution is to be a national bank, the comptroller of currency under 12 U.S.C. Sec. 35, 12 U.S.C. Sec. 215, 12 U.S.C. Sec. 215a, and 12 U.S.C. Sec. 1828c, or (4) if the surviving institution is to be a federal savings and loan association, the Federal Home Loan Bank Board under 12 U.S.C. Sec. 1464 (d)(11), or (5) if the surviving institution is to be a bank holding company, the Federal Reserve Board under 12 U.S.C. Sec. 1842 (a) and (d).

In the case of a liquidation, acquisition, merger, consolidation, or conversion of a converted savings bank, chapter 32.34 RCW shall apply. [1985 c 56 § 31; 1981 c 85 § 99.]

32.32.505 Intent—References. (1) It is the intention of the legislature to grant, by this chapter, authority to permit conversions by mutual savings banks to capital stock form, and the rights, powers, restrictions, limitations, and requirements of Title 32 RCW shall apply to a converted mutual savings bank except that, in the event of conflict between the provisions of this chapter and other provisions of Title 32 RCW, the other provisions shall be construed in favor of the accomplishment of the purposes of this chapter.

(2) References in the Revised Code of Washington as of the most recent effective date of any amendment, to mutual savings banks shall refer also to stock savings banks converted from mutual form under this chapter. References in the Revised Code of Washington to the board of trustees of a mutual savings bank shall refer also to the board of directors of a stock savings bank converted from mutual form under this chapter. The provisions of Title 30 RCW shall not apply to a converted mutual savings bank except insofar as the provisions would apply to a mutual savings bank. [1985 c 56 § 32; 1981 c 85 § 100.]

32.32.510 Interest on deposits—Determination. A savings bank converted under this chapter may pay interest on deposits at such rates as its board of directors shall from time to time determine. [1981 c 85 § 101.]

32.32.515 Guaranty fund. The guaranty fund of a mutual savings bank converted under this chapter shall become surplus of the converted savings bank, but shall not be available after conversion for purposes other than those purposes for which a guaranty fund may be used by a mutual savings bank under Title 32 RCW. No contribution need be made to the guaranty fund by the converted savings bank after conversion. [1981 c 85 § 102.]

32.32.520 "Funds" defined. The "funds" of a converted savings bank, as the term is used in Title 32 RCW, shall mean deposits, sums credited to the liquidation account, capital stock, the principal balance of any outstanding capital notes, capital debentures, undivided profits and income derived from the foregoing. [1981 c 85 § 103.]

32.32.525 Prohibition on certain securities and purchases—Exception. After July 26, 1981, no converted savings bank may make any loan or discount on the security of its own capital stock, nor be the purchaser or holder of any such shares, unless the security or purchase is necessary to prevent loss upon a debt previously contracted in good faith, in which case the stocks so purchased or acquired shall be sold at public or private sale, or otherwise disposed of, within six months from the time of its purchase or acquisition. The prohibitions of this section do not apply to a purchase of shares approved by the supervisor pursuant to RCW 32.32.210. [1983 c 44 § 4; 1981 c 85 § 104.]

32.32.900 Severability—1981 c 85. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1981 c 85 § 107.]

32.34.010 Conversion of domestic savings bank to federal mutual or stock savings bank—Rights, powers, etc., of federal savings bank. (1) A domestic savings bank formed under this title may convert itself into a federal mutual or stock savings bank. The conversion shall be effected:

(a) In the case of a mutual savings bank, by the vote of two-thirds of the trustees at a regular or special meeting of the trustees called for such purpose;

If the conversion is authorized by the trustees or stockholders at the meeting, the trustees or stockholders are authorized and shall effect such action, and the officers of the savings bank shall execute all proper conveyances, documents, and other papers necessary or proper thereunto. If conversion is authorized, a copy of the minutes of the meeting shall be filed forthwith with the supervisor.

(3) Upon consummation of the conversion, the successor federal savings bank shall succeed to all right, title, and interest of the mutual or stock bank in and to its assets and to its liabilities to the creditors of the savings bank. Upon the conversion, after the execution and delivery of all instruments of transfer, conveyance, and assignment, the domestic savings bank shall be deemed dissolved.

(4) Every federal savings bank, the home office of which is located in this state, and the savings accounts therein, have all the rights, powers, and privileges and are entitled to the same immunities and exemptions as pertain to savings banks organized under the laws of this state. [1983 c 45 § 1.]

32.34.020 Conversion of federal savings bank to domestic savings bank. (1) A federal savings bank, the home office of which is located in this state, may convert itself into a domestic savings bank under this title upon approval by the supervisor of banking. For any such conversion, the federal savings bank shall proceed as provided in this chapter for the conversion of a domestic savings bank into a federal savings bank. The conversion shall be effected by the vote of a majority of the members or stockholders present, in person or by proxy, at a regular or special meeting of the members or stockholders called for such purpose.

(2) Upon consummation of the conversion, the successor domestic savings bank shall succeed to all right, title, and interest of the federal savings bank in and to its assets, and to its liabilities to the creditors of such federal savings bank. [1983 c 45 § 2.]

32.34.030 Savings banks converted to stock form—Voluntary liquidation, transfer of assets, merger, consolidation, etc.—Approval of directors and shareholders. (1) The voluntary liquidation of a mutual savings bank converted to the stock form requires the affirmative vote or written consent of two-thirds of the directors of the converted savings bank, requires the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the outstanding stock of the savings bank, shall proceed as prescribed in chapter 32.24 RCW, and shall be complete upon the payment of any surplus remaining, after satisfaction of all debts and liabilities of the savings bank, to shareholders in accordance with their legal rights to such surplus.

(2) A savings bank which has converted to the stock form may sell all its assets and transfer all its liabilities upon the affirmative vote or with the written consent of two-thirds of its directors, and upon the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding voting shares in each class entitled to vote.

(3) Any merger or consolidation involving a mutual savings bank converted to stock form requires approval by two-thirds of the directors and by the holders of a majority of the outstanding voting shares in each class except that a merger or consolidation approved by two-thirds of the outstanding voting shares in each class requires approval by only a majority of the directors of the converted savings bank, and except as provided in subsection (4) of this section.

(4) A savings bank that has converted to the stock form may engage in a consolidation and pooling of assets upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds of its directors, if (a) the total assets of the converted savings bank, immediately prior to the day of the consolidation and pooling of assets, exceed two-thirds of the assets of the institution that would result from the consolidation and pooling of assets, (b) the converted savings bank will survive the consolidation and pooling of assets, without its shareholders surrendering their shares of stock in the converted savings bank, and (c) the other institution being merged or consolidated is a savings bank or savings and loan association.

(5) Any converted savings bank may provide in its articles of incorporation for a higher percentage of affirmative shareholder votes to approve any liquidation, sale of assets, merger, or consolidation. [1985 c 56 § 33.]

32.34.040 Savings bank holding companies—Savings bank subsidiaries. (1) No savings bank having capital stock may establish a holding company to own all its stock without the approval of the supervisor. Upon tender of their shares of the converted savings bank, the shareholders of the savings bank shall receive all the shares of the holding company which are outstanding at the time of this tender.

(2) Any company owning more than twenty-five percent of the outstanding voting stock of a savings bank doing business under this Title 32 RCW shall, in addition to the restrictions of RCW 32.32.228, be subject to regulation as a savings bank holding company. Any savings bank holding company which is not subject to regulation by the federal reserve board or the federal home loan bank board, and all holding company subsidiaries engaging in businesses which are not subject to regulation or licensing by the federal home loan bank board, the supervisor of savings and loan associations, the commissioner of insurance, or the administrator authorized to regulate loan companies doing business under Title 31 RCW, will be subject to such regulation of accounting practices and of the qualifications of directors and officers, and such inspection and visitation by the supervisor of banking as the supervisor shall deem appropriate, subject to the limitations imposed on regulation, inspection, and visitation of a savings bank under this title. In addition, any savings bank holding company and all holding company subsidiaries will be subject to visitation by the supervisor of banking as such shall deem appropriate, subject to the limitations imposed on visitation of a savings bank under this Title 32 RCW and under the supremacy clause of the Constitution of the United States. The savings bank subsidiary of this holding corporation may engage in subsequent mergers, consolidations, acquisitions, and conversions, only to the extent authorized by RCW 32.32.500, and only upon complying with the applicable requirements in RCW 32.34.030 and this chapter.

(3) In the event a savings bank forms a subsidiary to carry out any of the powers of savings banks under this title, any institution with which this subsidiary merges shall continue to be subject to regulation, inspection, and visitation by the supervisor of savings and loans if the subsidiary is authorized to do business by Title 33 RCW. [1985 c 56 § 34.]

32.34.050 Business trusts for the benefit of depositors. A savings bank not having capital stock may establish a business trust for the benefit of its depositors, with the approval of the supervisor and subject to such rules and regulations as the supervisor may adopt. The supervisor may permit this business trust to become a mutual holding company owning all shares of an interim stock savings bank, the sole purpose of which shall be to merge into the mutual savings bank that formed the business trust. The depositors in an unconverted savings bank which has merged with the subsidiary of such a mutual holding company, in the event of a later conversion of this mutual holding company to the stock form, shall retain all their rights to their deposits in the savings bank, and shall also receive, without payment, nontransferrable rights to subscribe for the stock of the holding company, and rights to a liquidation account maintained by the holding company in proportion to their deposits in the savings bank, to the same extent that they would receive these rights in a stock conversion of the savings bank as prescribed in chapter 32.32 RCW. [1985 c 56 § 35.]

32.34.060 Voluntary liquidation, acquisition, merger, and consolidation—Right of dissenting shareholder to receive value of shares—Determination. (1) Any holder of shares of a savings bank shall be entitled to receive the value of these shares, as specified in subsection (2) of this section, if (a) the savings bank is voluntarily liquidating, being acquired, merging, or consolidating, (b) the shareholder voted, in person or by proxy, against the liquidation, acquisition, merger, or consolidation, at a meeting of shareholders called for the purpose of voting on such transaction, and (c) the shareholder delivers a written demand for payment, with the stock certificates, to the savings bank within thirty days after such meeting of shareholders. The value of shares shall be paid in cash, within ten days after receipt of the written demand and stock certificates, except that if three appraisers are appointed as specified in subsection (2) of this section, the payment shall be due forty-five days after receipt of such demand and stock certificates.

(2) The value of such shares shall be the price published for shares listed on a national securities exchange, and shall be the bid price published for shares traded over the counter, at the close of business on the business day before the shareholders' meeting at which the shareholder dissented, except that if such shares are not so listed or traded, or if the value so determined differs by twenty percent or more from the average of such prices for the shares during the thirty days prior to this business day, or if a violation of RCW 32.32.225 has affected such determination, then the value of the shares shall be determined, within forty days after delivery of the stock certificates, by three appraisers appointed as provided in RCW 30.49.090. [1985 c 56 § 36.]

32.40.010 Examinations—Investigation and assessment of performance record in meeting community credit needs. (1) In conducting an examination of a savings bank chartered under Title 32 RCW, the supervisor of banking, deputy supervisor, or examiner shall investigate and assess the record of performance of the savings bank in meeting the credit needs of the savings bank's entire community, including low and moderate-income neighborhoods. The supervisor shall accept, in lieu of an investigation or part of an investigation required by this section, any report or document that the savings bank is required to prepare or file with one or more federal agencies by the act of Congress entitled the "Community Reinvestment Act of 1977" and the regulations promulgated in accordance with that act, to the extent such reports or documents assist the supervisor in making an assessment based upon the factors outlined in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) In making an investigation required under subsection (1) of this section, the supervisor shall consider, independent of any federal determination, the following factors in assessing the savings bank's record of performance:

(a) Activities conducted by the institution to ascertain credit needs of its community, including the extent of the institution's efforts to communicate with members of its community regarding the credit services being provided by the institution;

(b) The extent of the institution's marketing and special credit related programs to make members of the community aware of the credit services offered by the institution;

(c) The extent of participation by the institution's board of directors or board of trustees in formulating the institution's policies and reviewing its performance with respect to the purposes of the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977;

(d) Any practices intended to discourage applications for types of credit set forth in the institution's community reinvestment act statement(s);

(e) The geographic distribution of the institution's credit extensions, credit applications, and credit denials;

(f) Evidence of prohibited discriminatory or other illegal credit practices;

(g) The institution's record of opening and closing of offices and providing services at offices;

(h) The institution's participation, including investments, in local community development projects;

(i) The institution's origination of residential mortgage loans, housing rehabilitation loans, home improvement loans and small business or small farm loans within its community, or the purchase of such loans originated in its community;

(j) The institution's participation in governmentally insured, guaranteed, or subsidized loan programs for housing, small businesses, or small farms;

(k) The institution's ability to meet various community credit needs based on its financial condition, size, legal impediments, local economic condition, and other factors;

(l) Other factors that, in the judgment of the supervisor, reasonably bear upon the extent to which an institution is helping to meet the credit needs of its entire community.

(3) The supervisor shall include as part of the examination report, a summary of the results of the assessment required under subsection (1) of this section and shall assign annually to each savings bank a numerical community reinvestment rating based on a one through five scoring system. Such numerical scores shall represent performance assessments as follows:

- |                               |   |
|-------------------------------|---|
| (a) Excellent performance:    | 1 |

| (c) Satisfactory performance: | 3 |
| (d) Inadequate performance:   | 4 |
| (e) Poor performance:         | 5 |

Legislative intent—1985 c 329: See note following RCW 30.60.010.

assets, a merger, an acquisition or a conversion not required for solvency reasons; or for authority to engage in a business activity, the supervisor shall consider, among other factors, the record of performance of the applicant in helping to meet the credit needs of the applicant's entire community, including low and moderate-income neighborhoods. Assessment of an applicant's record of performance may be the basis for denying an application. [1985 c 329 § 9.]

33.04.002 Legislative declaration, intent—Purpose. The legislature finds that the statutory law relating to savings and loan associations has not been generally updated or modernized since 1945; and, as a result, many changes to Title 33 RCW should now be made with respect to the powers and duties of the supervisor; to the provisions relating to the organization, management and conversion of savings and loan associations; and to the powers and restrictions placed upon savings and loan associations to make investments. While it is the intent of the legislature to grant permissive investment powers to state-chartered savings and loan associations, it does not intend these associations to abandon the residential financing market in Washington. It, therefore, finds that the powers granted in this act are for the purpose of updating and modernizing the law relating to savings and loan associations, thereby creating a more secure and responsive financial environment in which the residential home buyer will continue to obtain financing. [1982 c 3 § 1.]

A board resolution of deferment shall not affect the payments of withdrawals from federal tax and loan accounts.

The board shall, however, have the right in its discretion, where need is shown, to pay not exceeding one hundred dollars to any account holder in one month.

If, upon examination, the supervisor finds that further postponement of withdrawals is unwarranted, the supervisor may order the association to resume full payment of withdrawals and cancel all written withdrawal requests. Such order shall be in writing.

The association's failure, during a period of postponement, to pay withdrawal requests shall not authorize the supervisor to take charge of or liquidate the association. First, to the payment of operating expenses, indebtedness, taxes, insurance, and to the necessary charges for the protection of the association and its investments;

The board of directors of any association, with the prior written approval of the supervisor, by resolution may authorize the payment of emergency withdrawals not exceeding one hundred dollars per month to any member;

Third, to the payment of dividends on the savings of its members;

Fourth, three-fourths of all remaining receipts of the association, except interest payments, shall be applied to the payment of withdrawals, until all withdrawal requests have been paid.

An association may allow a depositor to effect withdrawals or transfers from the depositor's account upon negotiable or transferable order or authorization to the association. To the extent of the subjection of accounts to such withdrawal instructions or orders, such accounts may be specifically classified under RCW 33.20.180 and ineligible to receive interest or eligible only for limited interest. (2) The poor financial condition of any acquiring party might jeopardize the financial stability of the association being acquired or might prejudice the interests of the depositors, borrowers, or stockholders of the association or is not in the public interest;

(4) The competence, experience and integrity of any acquiring party who would control the operation of the association indicates that approval would not be in the interest of the association's depositors, borrowers, or stockholders nor in the public interest. [1982 c 3 § 55; 1973 c 130 § 3.]

33.40.040 Procedure on taking possession. Upon the supervisor taking possession of any domestic association, the supervisor shall proceed to liquidate the association unless, in the supervisor's discretion, the supervisor shall determine to call a meeting of the members to consider either a proportionate charge-off against the deposit accounts to permit the association thereafter to continue in business, or whether the association should proceed to voluntary liquidation under the management of its board of directors. In such event, if the supervisor approves the decision of a majority in amount of the members present and voting, the supervisor shall order such action to be taken.

During any period of voluntary liquidation, the supervisor may take possession of the association and its assets and complete the liquidation whenever, in the supervisor's discretion, this seems advisable. [1982 c 3 § 67; 1945 c 235 § 105; Rem. Supp. 1945 § 3717–224. Prior: 1935 c 171 § 4; 1933 c 183 §§ 70, 72, 78; 1919 c 169 § 13; 1913 c 110 § 20.]

33.40.050 Involuntary liquidation—Procedure—Federal insurance corporation as liquidator. Whenever the supervisor determines to liquidate the affairs of a domestic association, the supervisor shall cause the attorney general to present to the superior court of the county in which the association has its principal place of business a written petition setting forth the date of the taking of possession, the reasons therefor, and other material facts concerning the affairs of the association and, if the court determines that the association should be liquidated, it shall appoint the supervisor, or other responsible person as recommended by the supervisor, as the liquidator of the association and fix and require a bond to be given by the liquidator conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties as such liquidator, but if the association has the insurance protection provided by Title IV of the National Housing Act, as now or hereafter amended, the court upon the request of the supervisor may tender to the federal savings and loan insurance corporation the appointment as liquidator.

Upon the filing with and approval by the court of the bond, the supervisor or other person appointed shall enter upon the duties as liquidator of the affairs of the association, and, under the direction of the court, shall administer and liquidate the assets thereof and apply the same to the payment of the expenses of liquidation and the debts of the association, and distribute the remainder to the deposit accounts proportionately.

In any liquidation proceeding in which the insurance corporation is the liquidator, it may proceed to liquidate without being subject to the control of the court and without bond. The supervisor, at any time after one year from delivery, may destroy any of such files, records, documents, books of account, or other papers which appear to the supervisor to be obsolete or unnecessary for future reference. During ten years thereafter, the supervisor shall deliver such checks, or the supervisor's own checks in lieu thereof, or portions of such funds to the payee, or the payee's legal representative, upon receipt of satisfactory evidence of the payee's right thereto. After the ten years, the supervisor shall cancel all such checks remaining in the supervisor's possession and issue a check payable to the state treasurer for the amount thereof together with any other liquidating funds, and deliver them to the state treasurer. 33.44.020 Conversion to a savings bank or commercial bank—Procedure. Any association organized under the laws of this state, or under the laws of the United States, may, if it has obtained the approval, required by law or regulation, of any federal agencies, including the federal home loan bank board and the federal savings and loan insurance corporation, be converted into a savings bank or commercial bank in the following manner:

(1) The board of directors of such association shall pass a resolution declaring its intention to convert the association into a savings bank or commercial bank and shall apply to the supervisor of banking for leave to submit to the members of the association the question whether the association shall be converted into a savings bank or a commercial bank. A duplicate of the application to the supervisor of banking shall be filed with the supervisor of savings and loan associations, except that no such filing shall be required in the case of an association organized under the laws of the United States. The application shall include a proposal which sets forth the method by and extent to which membership or stockholder interests, as the case may be, in the association are to be converted into membership or stockholder interests, as the case may be, in the savings bank or commercial bank, and the proposal shall allow for any member or stockholder to withdraw the value of his interest at any time within sixty days of the completion of the conversion. The proposal shall be subject to the approval of the supervisor of banking and shall conform to all applicable regulations of the federal home loan bank board, the federal savings and loan insurance corporation, the federal deposit insurance corporation, or other federal regulatory agency.

(2) Thereupon the supervisor of banking shall make the same investigation and determine the same questions as would be required by law to make and determine in case of the submission to the supervisor of banking of a certificate of incorporation of a proposed new savings bank or commercial bank, and the supervisor of banking shall also determine after conference with the supervisor of savings and loan associations whether by the proposed conversion the business needs and conveniences of the members of the association would be served with facility and safety, except that no such conference shall be pertinent to such investigation or determination in the case of an association organized under the laws of the United States. After the supervisor of banking determines whether it is expedient and desirable to permit the proposed conversion, the supervisor of banking shall, within sixty days after the filing of the application, endorse thereon over the official signature of the supervisor of banking the word "granted" or the word "refused", with the date of such endorsement and shall immediately notify the secretary of such association of his decision. If an application to convert to a mutual savings bank is granted, the supervisor of banking shall require the applicants to enter into such an agreement or undertaking with the supervisor of banking as trustee for the depositors with the mutual savings bank to make such contributions in cash to the expense fund of the mutual savings bank as in the supervisor's judgment will be necessary then and from time to time thereafter to pay the operating expenses of the mutual savings bank if its earnings should not be sufficient to pay the same in addition to the payment of such dividends as may be declared and credited to depositors from its earnings.

If the application is denied by the supervisor of banking, the association, acting by a two-thirds majority of its board of directors, may, within thirty days after receiving the notice of the denial, appeal to the superior court in the manner prescribed in RCW 34.04.130.

(3) If the application is granted by the supervisor of banking or by the court, as the case may be, the board of directors of the association shall, within sixty days thereafter, submit the question of the proposed conversion to the members of the association at a special meeting called for that purpose. Notice of the meeting shall state the time, place and purpose of the meeting, and that the only question to be voted upon will be, "shall the (naming the association) be converted into a savings bank or commercial bank under the laws of the state of Washington?" The vote on the question shall be by ballot. Any member may vote by proxy or may transmit the member's ballot by mail if the bylaws provide a method for so doing. If two-thirds or more in number of the members voting on the question vote affirmatively, then the board of directors shall have power, and it shall be its duty, to proceed to convert such association into a savings bank or commercial bank; otherwise, the proposed conversion shall be abandoned and shall not be again submitted to the members within three years from the date of the meeting.

(4) If authority for the proposed conversion has been approved by the members as required by this section, the directors shall, within thirty days thereafter, subscribe and acknowledge and file with the supervisor of banking in triplicate a certificate of reincorporation, stating:

(a) The name by which the converted corporation is to be known.

(b) The place where the bank is to be located and its business transacted, naming the city or town and county, which city or town shall be the same as that where the principal place of business of the corporation has theretofore been located.

(c) The name, occupation, residence and post office address of each signer of the certificate.

(d) The amount of the assets of the corporation, the amount of its liabilities and the amount of its contingent, reserve, expense, and guaranty fund, as applicable, as of the first day of the then calendar month.

(e) A declaration that each signer will accept the responsibilities and faithfully discharge the duties of a trustee or director of the bank, and is free from all the disqualifications specified in the laws applicable to savings banks or commercial banks.

(f) Such other items as the supervisor of banking may require.

(5) Upon the filing of the certificate in triplicate, the supervisor of banking shall, within thirty days thereafter, if satisfied that all the provisions of this chapter have been complied with, issue in triplicate an authorization certificate stating that the corporation has complied with all the requirements of law, and that it has authority to transact at the place designated in its certificate of incorporation the business of a savings bank or commercial bank. One of the supervisor's certificates of authorization shall be attached to each of the certificates of reincorporation, and one set of these shall be filed and retained by the supervisor of banking, one set shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state, and one set shall be transmitted to the bank for its files. Upon the receipt from the corporation of the same fees as are required for filing and recording other incorporation certificates or articles, the secretary of state shall file the certificates and record the same; whereupon the conversion of the association shall be deemed complete, and the signers of said reincorporation certificate and their successors shall thereupon become and be a corporation having the powers and being subject to the duties and obligations prescribed by the laws of this state applicable to savings banks or commercial banks, as the case may be. The time of existence of the corporation shall be perpetual unless provided otherwise in the articles of incorporation of the association or unless sooner terminated pursuant to law. 33.44.080 Depositor's interest upon conversion. Upon the conversion of any association into a savings bank or commercial bank, every person who was a depositor of the association at the time of the conversion shall become and be deemed to be a depositor of the bank in a sum equal to the value of the deposit of the depositor as of the day on which the conversion was consummated. [1982 c 3 § 76; 1927 c 177 § 2; 1917 c 154 § 2; RRS § 3755.]

Severability—1982 c 3: See note following RCW 33.04.002.

33.44.090 Transfer of securities upon conversion. All mortgages, notes and other securities of any association that has been converted into a savings bank or commercial bank, shall on request of the bank, be delivered to it by the supervisor of savings and loan associations or under the supervisor's direction by any depositary having possession thereof. Every such bank shall, as soon as practicable and within such time and by such methods as the supervisor of banking may direct, cause its organization, its securities and investments, the character of its business and its methods of transacting the same to conform to the laws applicable to savings banks or commercial banks, as applicable. [1982 c 3 § 77; 1927 c 177 § 3; 1917 c 154 § 3; RRS § 3756.]

Severability—1982 c 3: See note following RCW 33.04.002.

33.44.125 Waiver of chapter requirements. If, in the opinion of the supervisor of savings and loans and the supervisor of banking, it is necessary for any of the requirements of this chapter to be waived in order to permit an association which is in danger of failing to convert its charter to that of a commercial bank or a savings bank so that the association may be acquired by a commercial bank or a savings bank or a bank holding company, then the supervisor of savings and loans and the supervisor of banking may waive any such requirement. [1982 c 3 § 78.]

Severability—1982 c 3: See note following RCW 33.04.002.

33.44.130 Rules implementing chapter—Standard. The supervisor of savings and loan associations and the supervisor of banking shall adopt such rules under the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, as are necessary to implement this chapter in a manner which protects the relative interests of members, depositors, borrowers, stockholders, and creditors. [1982 c 3 § 79.]

34.04.010 Definitions. The definitions set forth in this section shall apply throughout this chapter, unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Agency" means any state board, commission, department, or officer, authorized by law to make rules or to adjudicate contested cases, except those in the legislative or judicial branches.

(2) "Rule" means any agency order, directive, or regulation of general applicability (a) the violation of which subjects a person to a penalty or administrative sanction; (b) which establishes, alters, or revokes any procedure, practice, or requirement relating to agency hearings; (c) which establishes, alters, or revokes any qualification or requirement relating to the enjoyment of benefits or privileges conferred by law; (d) which establishes, alters, or revokes any qualifications or standards for the issuance, suspension, or revocation of licenses to pursue any commercial activity, trade, or profession; or (e) which establishes, alters, or revokes any mandatory standards for any product or material which must be met before distribution or sale. The term includes the amendment or repeal of a prior rule, but does not include (i) statements concerning only the internal management of an agency and not affecting private rights or procedures available to the public, (ii) declaratory rulings issued pursuant to RCW 34.04.080, as now or hereafter amended, or (iii) traffic restrictions for motor vehicles, bicyclists, and pedestrians established by the secretary of transportation or his designee where notice of such restrictions is given by official traffic control devices.

(3) "Contested case" means a proceeding before an agency in which an opportunity for a hearing before such agency is required by law or constitutional right prior or subsequent to the determination by the agency of the legal rights, duties, or privileges of specific parties. Contested cases shall also include all cases of licensing and rate making in which an application for a license or rate change is denied except as limited by RCW 66.08.150, or a license is revoked, suspended, or modified, or in which the granting of an application is contested by a person having standing to contest under the law or agency rules.

(4) "License" includes the whole or part of any agency permit, certificate, approval, registration, charter, or any form of permission required by law, including agency rule, to engage in any activity, but does not include a license required solely for revenue purposes.

(5) "Licensing" includes the agency process respecting the or modification of a license.

(6) "Rules review committee" or "committee" means the joint administrative rules review committee created pursuant to RCW 34.04.210 for the purpose of selectively reviewing existing and proposed rules of state agencies. [1982 c 10 § 5. Prior: 1981 c 324 § 2; 1981 c 183 § 1; 1967 c 237 § 1; 1959 c 234 § 1.]

No person may be required to comply with agency procedure not adopted as a rule as herein required.

(3) To the extent not prohibited by federal law or regulation, nor prohibited for reasons of confidentiality by state law, each agency shall keep on file for public inspection all final orders, decisions, and opinions in contested cases and any digest or index to those orders, decisions, or opinions prepared by the agency for its own use. Effective dates—Severability—1981 c 67: See notes following RCW 34.12.010.

34.04.022 Uniform procedural rules—Application—Conduct of contested cases. On or before July 1, 1967, the code reviser shall add to Title 1 of the Washington Administrative Code a new chapter to be known as chapter 1-08 WAC—Uniform Procedural Rules, which shall become effective July 1, 1967, and shall govern the administrative practice and procedure in and before all agencies which have not adopted comprehensive rules of practice and procedure prior to that date. Except for the numbering thereof, such rules shall be identical with the rules contained in WAC 308-08-010 through 308-08-590 as the same existed on January 3, 1966: Provided, That in publishing chapter 1-08 WAC the reviser may revise such terms as are used in chapter 308-08 WAC to describe "agency", "department", "board", "commission", and like terms, so as to enable the use of such rules by multiple agencies.

The chief administrative law judge shall promulgate uniform procedural rules governing the conduct of contested cases. The rules may consist of, may be based upon, or may completely replace the rules codified in chapter 1-08 WAC as of June 30, 1981. From time to time thereafter the chief administrative law judge may modify the uniform procedural rules.

The chief administrative law judge may adopt rules with variations from the uniform rules for an agency if the chief administrative law judge determines there are sufficient demonstrable needs for variations. Variations shall, to the greatest practicable extent, embody the uniform rules of practice and procedure. [1981 c 67 § 14; 1967 c 237 § 12.]

Effective dates—Severability—1981 c 67: See notes following RCW 34.12.010.

34.04.025 Notices of intention to adopt rules—Opportunity to submit data—Proceedings on rule barred until twenty days after register distribution—

Noncompliance, effect. (1) Prior to the adoption, amendment, or repeal of any rule, each agency shall:

(a) File notice thereof with the code reviser in accordance with RCW 34.08.020(1) for publication in the state register, and with the rules review committee, and mail such notice to all persons who have made timely request of the agency for advance notice of its rule-making proceedings. Such notice shall also include (i) reference to the authority under which the rule is proposed, (ii) a statement of either the terms or substance of the proposed rule or a description of the subjects and issues involved, and (iii) the time when, the place where, and the manner in which interested persons may present their views thereon;

(b) Afford all interested persons reasonable opportunity to submit data, views, or arguments, orally or in writing. In case of substantive rules, opportunity for oral hearing must be granted if requested by twenty-five persons, by a governmental subdivision or agency, by the rules review committee, or by an association having not less than twenty-five members.

(2) The agency shall make every effort to insure that the information on the proposed rule circulated pursuant to subsection (1)(a) of this section accurately reflects the rule to be presented and discussed at any oral hearing on such rule. Where substantial changes in the draft of the proposed rule are made after publication of notice in the register which would render it difficult for interested persons to properly comment on the rule without further notice, new notice of the agency's intended action as provided in subsection (1)(a) of this section shall be required.

(3) The agency shall consider fully all written and oral submissions respecting the proposed rule including those addressing the question of whether the proposed rule is within the intent of the legislature as expressed by the statute which the rule implements, and may amend the proposed rule at the oral hearing or adopt the proposed rule, if there are no substantial changes, without refileing the notice required by this section. Upon adoption of a rule, the agency, if requested to do so by an interested person either prior to adoption or within thirty days thereafter, shall issue a concise statement of the principal reasons for and against its adoption, incorporating therein its reasons for overruling the considerations urged against its adoption.

(4) No proceeding may be held on any rule until twenty days have passed from the distribution date of the register in which notice thereof was contained. The code reviser shall make provisions for informing an agency giving notice under subsection (1) of this section of the distribution date of the register in which such notice will be published.

(5) No rule hereafter adopted is valid unless adopted in substantial compliance with this section, unless it is an emergency rule designated as such and is adopted in substantial compliance with RCW 34.04.030, as now or hereafter amended. In any proceeding a rule cannot be contested on the ground of noncompliance with the procedural requirements of RCW 34.08.020(1), of this section, or of RCW 34.04.030, as now or hereafter amended, after two years have elapsed from the effective date of the rule. [1982 c 221 § 1; 1981 c 324 § 3; 1977 ex.s. c 240 § 7; 1971 ex.s. c 250 § 17; 1967 c 237 § 3.]

Small business economic impact statement—Purpose—Contents: RCW 19.85.040.

34.04.026 Specific reference to rule-making authority to be included—Alternatives—Format—Request for more specific reference. (1) In addition to the provisions of RCW 34.04.025(1)(a)(i), every agency shall incorporate the most specific, but in no case omit all, of the following language alternatives when adopting or amending rules:

(a) The most specific reference shall be to a section of law which the rule is implementing, and shall be quoted as follows: "This rule is promulgated pursuant to RCW ----- and is intended to administratively implement that statute."

(b) The next specific reference, and one which shall be used only if paragraph (a) of this subsection is not applicable, shall be to that portion of an act which directs an agency to adopt rules and regulations as necessary to implement the act, and shall be quoted as follows: "This rule is promulgated pursuant to RCW ----- which directs that the (agency) has authority to implement the provisions of (name of act or RCW citation)."

(c) The least specific reference, and one which shall be used only if paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection are not applicable, is one which indicates that the rule is promulgated under the agency's broad rule-making authority—either in the agency enabling legislation or chapter 34.04 RCW, and shall be quoted as follows: "This rule is promulgated under the general rule-making authority of the (agency) as authorized in RCW -----."

(2) The code reviser is directed to develop a format for placing such specific language in each rule, and agencies shall then comply with the code reviser's direction, and shall include the same in the final rule.

(3) During the promulgation hearings process the public may question whether such rule should have a more specific reference, and the agency shall, pursuant to RCW 34.04.025(1)(b), give consideration to such requests. [1977 c 19 § 2.]

Agency plan to review all rules affecting industry and businesses therein—Scope—Factors applicable upon rule review—Annual list of rules to be reviewed: RCW 19.85.050.

34.04.027 Failure to give twenty days notice of intended action—Effect. When twenty days notice of intended action to adopt, amend or repeal a rule has not been filed with the code reviser, as required in RCW 34.04.025, the code reviser shall not publish such rule and such rule shall not be effective for any purpose. [1967 c 237 § 4.]

34.04.030 Emergency rules and amendments. If the agency finds that immediate adoption or amendment of a rule is necessary for the preservation of the public health, safety, or general welfare, and that observance of the requirements of notice and opportunity to present views on the proposed action would be contrary to the public interest, the agency may dispense with such requirements and adopt the rule or amendment as an emergency rule or amendment. The agency's finding and a concise statement of the reasons for its finding shall be incorporated in the emergency rule or amendment as filed with the office of the code reviser under RCW 34.04.040 and with the rules review committee. An emergency rule or amendment may not remain in effect for longer than ninety days after filing. This section does not relieve any agency from compliance with any law requiring that its permanent rules be approved by designated persons or bodies before they become effective. [1981 c 324 § 4; 1977 ex.s. c 240 § 8; 1959 c 234 § 3.]

34.04.040 Rules filed with code reviser—Register—Effective dates. (1) Each agency shall file forthwith in the office of the code reviser a certified copy of all rules now in effect and hereafter adopted, except the rules contained in tariffs filed with or published by the Washington utilities and transportation commission. The code reviser shall keep a permanent register of such rules open to public inspection.

(2) Emergency rules adopted under RCW 34.04.030 shall become effective upon filing. All other rules hereafter adopted shall become effective upon the expiration of thirty days after the date of filing, unless a later date is required by statute or specified in the rule. [1987 c 505 § 17; 1980 c 87 § 11; 1959 c 234 § 4.]

34.04.045 Statement of proposed rule's purpose and how implemented—Contents—Distribution by agency. (1) For the purpose of legislative review of agency rules filed pursuant to this chapter, any proposed new or amendatory rule shall be accompanied by a statement prepared by the adopting agency which generally describes the rule's purpose and how the rule is to be implemented. Such statement shall be on the agency's stationery or a form bearing the agency's name and shall contain, but is not limited to, the following:

(a) A title, containing a description of the rule's purpose and any other information which may be of assistance in identifying the rule or its purpose;

(b) Citations of the statutory authority for adopting the rule and the specific statute the rule is intended to implement;

(c) A summary of the rule and a statement of the reasons supporting the proposed action;

(d) The agency personnel, with their office location and telephone number, who are responsible for the drafting, implementation, and enforcement of the rule;

(e) The name of the person or organization, whether private, public, or governmental, proposing the rule;

(f) Agency comments or recommendations, if any, regarding statutory language, implementation, enforcement, and fiscal matters pertaining to the rule;

(g) Whether the rule is necessary as the result of federal law or federal or state court action, and if so, a copy of such law or court decision shall be attached to the purpose statement;

(h) A copy of the small business economic impact statement, where applicable.

(2) Upon filing notice of the proposed rule with the code reviser, the adopting agency shall have copies of the statement on file and available for public inspection and shall forward three copies of the notice and the statement to the rules review committee. [1982 c 221 § 2; 1982 c 6 § 7; 1980 c 186 § 10; 1977 ex.s. c 84 § 1.]

Severability—1980 c 186: "If any provision of this 1980 act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected." [1980 c 186 § 29.]

Small business economic impact statement—Purpose—Contents: RCW 19.85.040.

34.04.048 Withdrawal of proposed rules. (1) A proposed rule may be withdrawn by the proposing agency at any time before adoption. A withdrawn rule may not be adopted unless it is again proposed in accordance with RCW 34.04.025 as now or hereafter amended.

(2) Rules not adopted within one year after publication of the text as last proposed in the register shall be regarded as withdrawn. An agency may not thereafter adopt the text of the rules without filing the text in accordance with RCW 34.04.025 as now or hereafter amended. The code reviser shall give notice of the withdrawal in the register. [1980 c 186 § 11.]

Severability—1980 c 186: See note following RCW 34.04.045.

34.04.050 Code reviser to compile and edit rules, publish register—Removal of unconstitutional rules—Distribution of registers and codes—County law library trustees to maintain set—Judicial notice of rules. (1) The code reviser shall, as soon as practicable after March 23, 1960, compile and index all rules adopted by each agency and remaining in effect. Compilations shall be supplemented or revised as often as necessary and at least once every two years.

(2) The code reviser shall publish a register in which he shall set forth the text of all rules filed during the appropriate register publication period.

(3) The code reviser may, in his discretion, omit from the register or the compilation, rules, the publication of which would be unduly cumbersome, expensive, or otherwise inexpedient, if such rules are made available in printed or processed form on application to the adopting agency, and if such register or compilation contains a notice stating the general subject matter of the rules so omitted and stating how copies thereof may be obtained.

(4) The code reviser may edit and revise rules for publication, codification, and compilation, without changing the meaning of any such rule, in accordance with the provisions of RCW 34.04.052.

(5) When a rule, in whole or in part, is declared invalid and unconstitutional by a court of final appeal, the adopting agency shall give notice to that effect in the register. With the consent of the attorney general, the code reviser may remove obsolete rules or parts of rules from the Washington Administrative Code when:

(a) The rules are declared unconstitutional by a court of final appeal; or

(b) The adopting agency ceases to exist and the rules are not transferred by statute to a successor agency.

(6) Registers and compilations shall be made available, in written form to (a) state elected officials whose offices are created by Article II or III of the state Constitution or by RCW 48.02.010, upon request, (b) to the secretary of the senate and the chief clerk of the house for committee use, as required, but not to exceed the number of standing committees in each body, (c) to county boards of law library trustees and to the Olympia representatives of the Associated Press and the United Press International without request, free of charge, and (d) to other persons at a price fixed by the code reviser.

(7) The board of law library trustees of each county shall keep and maintain a complete and current set of registers and compilations for use and inspection as provided in RCW 27.24.060.

(8) Judicial notice shall be taken of rules filed and published as provided in RCW 34.04.040 and this section. [1982 1st ex.s. c 32 § 7; 1980 c 186 § 12; 1977 ex.s. c 240 § 9; 1959 c 234 § 5.]

Severability—1980 c 186: See note following RCW 34.04.045.

Effective date—Severability—1977 ex.s. c 240: See RCW 34.08.905 and 34.08.910.

34.04.052 Scope of editing and revision of rules. Subject to such general policies as may be promulgated by the statute law committee and to the general supervision of the committee, the code reviser shall edit and revise agency rules for consolidation into the Washington Administrative Code, to the extent deemed necessary and desirable by the reviser and without changing the meaning of any such rule, in the following respects only:

(1) Make capitalization uniform with that followed generally in the Washington Administrative Code;

(2) Make chapter or section division and subdivision designations uniform with that followed in the Washington Administrative Code;

(3) Rearrange any misplaced material, incorporate any omitted material as well as correct manifest errors in spelling, manifest clerical or typographical errors, or errors by way of additions or omissions;

(4) Correct manifest errors in references, by chapter or section number, to other laws or rules;

(5) Correct manifest errors or omissions in numbering or renumbering sections of the Washington Administrative Code;

(6) Strike provisions manifestly obsolete. [1980 c 186 § 13.]

Severability—1980 c 186: See note following RCW 34.04.045.

34.04.055 Regulations on filing and form of rules and notices. The code reviser may prescribe regulations for carrying out the provisions of this chapter relating to the filing and publication of rules and notices of intention to adopt rules, including the form and style to be employed by the various agencies in the drafting of such rules and notices. [1967 c 237 § 13.]

34.04.057 Style, format, and numbering of rules—Agency compliance. After the rules of an agency have been published by the reviser:

(1) All agency orders amending or rescinding such rules, or creating new rules, shall be formulated in accordance with the style, format, and numbering system of the Washington Administrative Code, and

(2) Any subsequent printing or reprinting of such rules shall be printed in the style and format (including the numbering system) of such code. [1967 c 237 § 14.]

34.04.058 Format and style of rules amending existing sections, adding new sections—Effect of failure to comply. (1) Rules promulgated by an agency pursuant to RCW 34.04.025 or 34.04.030, as now or hereafter amended, which amend existing sections of the administrative code shall have the words which are amendatory to such existing sections underlined. Any matter to be deleted from an existing section shall be indicated by setting such matter forth in full, enclosed by double parentheses, and such deleted matter shall be lined out with hyphens. In the case of a new section, such shall be designated "NEW SECTION" in upper case type and such designation shall be underlined, but the complete text of the section shall not be underlined. No rule may be forwarded by any agency to the code reviser, nor may the code reviser accept for filing any rule unless the format of such rule is in compliance with the provisions of this section.

(2) Once the rule has been formally adopted by the agency the code reviser need not, except with regard to the register published pursuant to RCW 34.04.050(2), include the items enumerated in subsection (1) of this section in the official code.

(3) Any addition to or deletion from an existing code section not filed by the agency in the style prescribed by subsection (1) of this section shall in all respects be ineffectual, and shall not be shown in subsequent publications or codifications of that section unless the ineffectual portion of the rule is clearly distinguished and an explanatory note is appended thereto by the code reviser in accordance with RCW 34.04.050, as now or hereafter amended, and RCW 34.04.052. [1980 c 186 § 14; 1977 c 19 § 1.]

Severability—1980 c 186: See note following RCW 34.04.045.

34.04.060 Petition for adoption, amendment, repeal of rule—Agency action. Any interested person may petition an agency requesting the promulgation, amendment, or repeal of any rule. Each agency shall prescribe by rule the form for such petitions and the procedure for their submission, consideration, and disposition. Within thirty days after submission of a petition, or at the next meeting of the agency if it does not meet within thirty days, the agency shall formally consider the petition and shall within thirty days thereafter either deny the petition in writing (stating its reasons for the denial) or initiate rule-making proceedings in accordance with RCW 34.04.025. [1967 c 237 § 5; 1959 c 234 § 6.]

34.04.070 Declaratory judgment on validity of rule—Small business economic impact statement action as part of record. (1) The validity of any rule may be determined upon petition for a declaratory judgment thereon addressed to the superior court of Thurston county, when it appears that the rule, or its threatened application, interferes with or impairs or immediately threatens to interfere with or impair, the legal rights or privileges of the petitioner. The agency shall be made a party to the proceeding. The declaratory judgment may be rendered whether or not the petitioner has first requested the agency to pass upon the validity of the rule in question.

(2) In a proceeding under subsection (1) of this section the court shall declare the rule invalid only if it finds that it violates constitutional provisions or exceeds the statutory authority of the agency or was adopted without compliance with statutory rule-making procedures.

(3) A petition for a declaratory judgment pursuant to this section may not be solely based on the contents of the small business economic impact statement. However, in the case of a petition for a declaratory judgment as to the validity of any rule which is adopted after June 10, 1982, and which is based on grounds other than the contents of the small business economic impact statement, the compliance or noncompliance by the agency with the provisions of this chapter and where applicable the small business economic impact statement shall constitute part of the whole record of the agency's action in connection with the petition. [1982 c 6 § 8; 1959 c 234 § 7.]

Severability—1982 c 6: See RCW 19.85.900.

Small business economic impact statement—Purpose—Contents: RCW 19.85.040.

34.04.080 Declaratory ruling by agency—Petition—Court review. On petition of any interested person, an agency may issue a declaratory ruling with respect to the applicability to any person, property, or state of facts of any rule or statute enforceable by it. A declaratory ruling, if issued after argument and stated to be binding, is binding between the agency and the petitioner on the state of facts alleged, unless it is altered or set aside by a court. Such a ruling is subject to review in the superior court of Thurston county in the manner hereinafter provided for the review of decisions in contested cases. Each agency shall prescribe by rule the form for such petitions and the procedure for their submission, consideration, and disposition. [1959 c 234 § 8.]

34.04.090 Contested cases—Notice—Hearing—Summary orders—Informal disposition—Record—Findings of fact—Agency's powers. (1) In any contested case all parties shall be afforded an opportunity for hearing after not less than twenty days' notice; but no hearing shall be required until the hearing is demanded unless other statutory provisions or agency rules provide otherwise. The notice shall include:

(a) A statement of the time, place and nature of the proceeding;

(b) A statement of the legal authority and jurisdiction under which the hearing is to be held;

(c) A reference to the particular sections of the statutes and rules involved;

(d) A short and plain statement of the matters asserted. If the agency or other party is unable to state the matters in detail at the time the notice is served, the initial notice may be limited to a statement of the issues involved. Thereafter upon request a more definite and detailed statement shall be furnished.

(2) Opportunity shall be afforded all parties to respond and present evidence and argument on all issues involved.

(3) An agency may provide by rule for entry of summary orders in part or in whole after notice and hearing to all parties. The motion shall be granted if the pleadings, dispositions and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to the order as a matter of law.

(4) Unless precluded by law, informal disposition may also be made of any contested case by stipulation, agreed settlement, consent order, or default.

(5) The record in a contested case shall include:

(a) All pleadings, motions, intermediate rulings;

(b) Evidence received or considered;

(c) A statement of matters officially noticed;

(d) Questions and offers of proof, objections, and ruling thereon;

(e) Proposed findings and exceptions;

(f) Any decision, opinion, or report by the officer presiding at the hearing.

(6) Oral proceedings shall be transcribed for the purposes of agency decision pursuant to RCW 34.04.110, as now or hereafter amended, rehearing, or court review. A copy of the record or any part thereof shall be transcribed and furnished to any party to the hearing upon request therefor and payment of the reasonable costs thereof.

(7) Findings of fact shall be based exclusively on the evidence and on matters officially noticed.

(8) Each agency shall adopt appropriate rules of procedure for notice and hearing in contested cases.

(9) Agencies, or their authorized agents, may:

(a) Administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, and receive evidence, and no person shall be compelled to divulge information which he could not be compelled to divulge in a court of law,

- (b) Issue subpoenas as provided in RCW 34.04.105,
- (c) Rule upon offers of proof and receive relevant evidence,
- (d) Take or cause depositions to be taken pursuant to rules promulgated by the agency, and no person shall be compelled to divulge information which he could not be compelled to divulge by deposition in connection with a court proceeding,
- (e) Regulate the course of the hearing,
- (f) Hold conferences for the settlement or simplification of the issues by consent of the parties,
- (g) Dispose of procedural requests or similar matters,
- (h) Issue summary orders,
- (i) Make decisions or proposals for decisions pursuant to RCW 34.04.110,
- (j) Take any other action authorized by agency rule consistent with this chapter. [1980 c 31 § 1; 1967 c 237 § 9; 1959 c 234 § 9.]

34.04.100 Contested cases—Rules of evidence—Cross-examination. In contested cases:

(1) Agencies, or their authorized agents, may admit and give probative effect to evidence which possesses probative value commonly accepted by reasonably prudent men in the conduct of their affairs. They shall give effect to the rules of privilege recognized by law. They may exclude incompetent, irrelevant, immaterial, and unduly repetitious evidence.

(2) All evidence, including but not limited to records and documents in the possession of the agency of which it desires to avail itself, shall be offered and made a part of the record in the case, and no other factual information or evidence shall be considered in the determination of the case. Documentary evidence may be received in the form of copies or excerpts, or by incorporation by reference.

(3) Every party shall have the right of cross-examination of witnesses who testify, and shall have the right to submit rebuttal evidence.

(4) Agencies, or their authorized agents, may take notice of judicially cognizable facts and in addition may take notice of general, technical, or scientific facts within their specialized knowledge. Parties shall be notified either before or during hearing, or by reference in preliminary reports or otherwise, of the material so noticed, and they shall be afforded an opportunity to contest the facts so noticed. Agencies, or their authorized agents, may utilize their experience, technical competence, and specialized knowledge in the evaluation of the evidence presented to them. [1959 c 234 § 10.]

34.04.105 Agency hearings and contested cases—Hearings, oaths, subpoenas, evidence, witnesses—Contempt.

(1) In order to determine the necessity or desirability of adopting, amending, repealing, or otherwise revising a rule or proposed rule, agencies may hold public hearings, subpoena witnesses, administer oaths, take the testimony of any person under oath, and in connection therewith, require the production for examination of any books or papers relating to the subject matter of contemplated regulation. Each agency may make rules as to the issuance of subpoenas by the agency or its authorized agents. This subsection shall not preclude the exercise of subpoena powers for investigative purposes granted agencies by other statutory provisions.

(2) In any contested case after service of notice as required in RCW 34.04.090(1), as now or hereafter amended, agencies, their authorized agents, and hearing examiners hearing the case:

(a) Shall issue a subpoena upon the request of any party and, to the extent required by agency rule, upon a statement showing general relevance and reasonable scope of the evidence sought: Provided, however, That such subpoena may be issued with like effect by the attorney of record of the party to the contested case in whose behalf the witness is required to appear, and the form of such subpoena in each case may be the same as when issued by the agency except that it shall only be subscribed by the signature of such attorney;

(b) May issue a subpoena upon their own motion.

(3) The subpoena powers created by this section shall be state-wide in effect.

(4) Witnesses in an agency hearing or contested case shall be paid the same fees and allowances, in the same manner and under the same conditions, as provided for witnesses in the courts of this state by chapter 2.40 RCW and by RCW 5.56.010, as now or hereafter amended: Provided, That the agency shall have the power to fix the allowance for meals and lodging in like manner as is provided in RCW 5.56.010, as now or hereafter amended, as to courts. Such fees and allowances, and the cost of producing records required to be produced by agency subpoena, shall be paid by the agency or, in a contested case, by the party requesting the issuance of the subpoena.

(5) If an individual fails to obey a subpoena, or obeys a subpoena but refuses to testify when requested concerning any matter under examination or investigation at the hearing, the agency or attorney issuing the subpoena may petition the superior court of the county where the hearing is being conducted for enforcement of the subpoena. The petition shall be accompanied by a copy of the subpoena and proof of service, and shall set forth in what specific manner the subpoena has not been complied with, and shall ask an order of the court to compel the witness to appear and testify before the agency. The court upon such petition shall enter an order directing the witness to appear before the court at a time and place to be fixed in such order and then and there to show cause why he has not responded to the subpoena or has refused to testify. A copy of the order shall be served upon the witness. If it appears to the court that the subpoena was properly issued and that the particular questions which the witness refuses to answer are reasonable and relevant, and in the case of a rule-making hearing that the requested appearance and testimony are necessary to secure information the expected nature of which would reasonably tend to cause the agency to exercise its rule-making authority, the court shall enter an order that the witness appear at the time and place fixed in the order and testify or produce the required papers, and on failing to obey said order the witness shall be dealt with as for contempt of court. [1967 c 237 § 10.]

34.04.110 Contested cases—Procedure when deciding officials have not heard or read evidence. Whenever in a contested case a majority of the officials of the agency who are to render the final decision have not heard or read the evidence, the decision, if adverse to a party to the proceeding other than the agency itself, shall not be made until a proposal for decision, including findings of fact and conclusions of law has been served upon the parties, and an opportunity has been afforded each party adversely affected to file exceptions and present written argument to a majority of the officials who are to render the decision, who shall personally consider the whole record or such portions thereof as may be cited by the parties. Oral arguments may be heard in the discretion of the agency. [1959 c 234 § 11.]

34.04.115 Consultation by agency officer as to issues. Except upon notice and opportunity for all parties to be present or to the extent required for the disposition of ex parte matters as authorized by law, no hearing examiner or agency or member of an agency presiding in a contested case or preparing a decision, or proposal for decision shall consult with any person or party on any issue of fact or law in the proceeding, except that in analyzing and appraising the record for decision any agency member or hearing examiner may (1) consult with members of the agency making the decision, (2) have the aid and advice of one or more personal assistants, (3) have the assistance of other employees of the agency who have not participated in the proceeding in any manner, who are not engaged for the agency in any investigative functions in the same or any current factually related case and who are not engaged for the agency in any prosecutory functions. [1967 c 237 § 11.]

34.04.120 Contested cases—Adverse decisions and orders—Findings and conclusions. Every decision and order adverse to a party to the proceeding, rendered by an agency in a contested case, shall be in writing or stated in the record and shall be accompanied by findings of fact and conclusions of law. The findings of fact shall consist of a concise statement of each fact found upon each contested issue of fact. Parties to the proceeding shall be notified of the decision and order in person or by mail. A copy of the decision and order and accompanying findings and conclusions shall be delivered or mailed to each party and to his attorney of record, if any. [1975 c 12 § 1; 1959 c 234 § 12.]

34.04.130 Contested cases—Judicial review. (1) Any person aggrieved by a final decision in a contested case, whether such decision is affirmative or negative in form, is entitled to judicial review thereof only under the provisions of *this 1967 amendatory act, and such person may not use any other procedure to obtain judicial review of a final decision, even though another procedure is provided elsewhere by a special statute or a statute of general application. Where the agency's rules provide a procedure for rehearing or reconsideration, and that procedure has been invoked, the agency decision shall not be final until the agency shall have acted thereon.

(2) Proceedings for review under this chapter shall be instituted by filing a petition in the superior court, at the petitioner's option, for (a) Thurston county, (b) the county of the petitioner's residence or principal place of business, or (c) in any county where the property owned by the petitioner and affected by the contested decision is located. The petition shall be served and filed within thirty days after the service of the final decision of the agency. Copies of the petition shall be served upon the agency and all parties of record. If a timely petition is filed any party of record not filing or joining in the first petition who wants relief from the decision must join in the petition or serve and file a cross-petition within twenty days after service of the first petition or thirty days after service of the final decision of the agency, whichever period of time is longer. The court, in its discretion, may permit other interested persons to intervene.

(3) The filing of the petition shall not stay enforcement of the agency decision. Where other statutes provide for stay or supersedeas of an agency decision, it may be stayed by the agency or the reviewing court only as provided therein; otherwise the agency may do so, or the reviewing court may order a stay upon such terms as it deems proper.

(4) Within thirty days after service of the petition, or within such further time as the court may allow, the agency shall transmit to the reviewing court the original or a certified copy of the entire record of the proceeding under review; but, by stipulation of all parties to the review proceeding, the record may be shortened. Any party unreasonably refusing to stipulate to limit the record may be taxed by the court for the additional costs. The court may require or permit subsequent corrections or additions to the record when deemed desirable.

(5) The review shall be conducted by the court without a jury and shall be confined to the record, except that in cases of alleged irregularities in procedure before the agency, not shown in the record, testimony thereon may be taken in the court. The court shall, upon request, hear oral argument and receive written briefs.

(6) The court may affirm the decision of the agency or remand the case for further proceedings; or it may reverse the decision if the substantial rights of the petitioners may have been prejudiced because the administrative findings, inferences, conclusions, or decisions are:

- (a) in violation of constitutional provisions; or
- (b) in excess of the statutory authority or jurisdiction of the agency; or
- (c) made upon unlawful procedure; or
- (d) affected by other error of law; or
- (e) clearly erroneous in view of the entire record as submitted and the public policy contained in the act of the legislature authorizing the decision or order; or
- (f) arbitrary or capricious. [1977 ex.s. c 52 § 1; 1967 c 237 § 6; 1959 c 234 § 13.]

34.04.133 Contested cases—Direct review by court of appeals. The final decision of an administrative agency in a contested case under chapter 34.04 RCW may be directly reviewed by the court of appeals upon certification by the superior court pursuant to this section. An application for such direct review must be filed with the superior court within thirty days of the filing of the petition for review in superior court. The superior court may certify a case for direct review only if the judicial review is limited to the record of the agency proceeding and the court finds that:

(1) Fundamental and urgent issues affecting the future administrative process or the public interest are involved which require a prompt determination;

(2) Delay in obtaining a final and prompt determination of such issues would be detrimental to any party or the public interest;

(3) An appeal to the court of appeals would be likely regardless of the determination in superior court; and

(4) The appellate court's determination in the proceeding would have significant precedential value. [1980 c 76 § 1.]

34.04.135 Contested cases—Refusal of review by court of appeals. The court of appeals may refuse to accept review of a case certified pursuant to RCW 34.04.133. The refusal to accept such review is not subject to further appellate review, notwithstanding anything in Rule 13.3 of the Rules of Appellate Procedure to the contrary. [1980 c 76 § 2.]

34.04.140 Appeal to supreme court or court of appeals. An aggrieved party may secure a review of any final judgment of the superior court under this chapter by appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals. Such appeal shall be taken in the manner provided by law for appeals from the superior court in other civil cases. [1971 c 81 § 87; 1959 c 234 § 14.]

34.04.150 Exclusions from chapter or parts of chapter. Except as provided under RCW 34.04.290, this chapter shall not apply to the state militia, or the board of prison terms and paroles, or any institution of higher education as defined in RCW 28B.19.020. The provisions of RCW 34.04.090 through 34.04.130 shall not apply to the board of industrial insurance appeals or the board of tax appeals unless an election is made pursuant to RCW 82.03.140 or 82.03.190. The provisions of RCW 34.04.090 through 34.04.130 and the provisions of RCW 34.04.170 shall not apply to the denial, suspension, or revocation of a driver's license by the department of licensing. To the extent they are inconsistent with RCW 80.50.140, the provisions of RCW 34.04.130, 34.04.133, and 34.04.140 shall not apply to review of decisions made under RCW 80.50.100. To the extent they are inconsistent with any provisions of chapter 43.43 RCW, the provisions of this chapter shall not apply to such provisions. All other agencies, whether or not formerly specifically excluded from the provisions of all or any part of the administrative procedure act, shall be subject to the entire act. [1984 c 141 § 8; 1982 c 221 § 6; 1981 c 64 § 2; 1979 c 158 § 90; 1971 ex.s. c 57 § 17; 1971 c 21 § 1; 1967 ex.s. c 71 § 1; 1967 c 237 § 7; 1963 c 237 § 1; 1959 c 234 § 15.]

34.04.170 Provisions applicable to licenses and licensing. (1) When a licensee has made timely and sufficient application for the renewal of a license or a new license with reference to any activity of a continuing nature, an existing full, temporary, or provisional license does not expire until the application has been finally determined by the agency, and, in case the application is denied or the terms of the new license limited, until the last day for seeking review of the agency order or a later date fixed by order of the reviewing court.

(2) If the agency finds that public health, safety, or welfare imperatively requires emergency action, and incorporates a finding to that effect in its order, summary suspension of a license may be ordered pending proceedings for revocation or other action. These proceedings shall be promptly instituted and determined. [1980 c 33 § 1; 1967 c 237 § 8.]

34.04.210 Joint administrative rules review committee—Members—Appointment—Terms—Vacancies. (1) There is hereby created a joint administrative rules review committee which shall be a bipartisan committee consisting of four senators and four representatives from the state legislature. The senate members of the committee shall be appointed by the president of the senate, and the house members of the committee shall be appointed by the speaker of the house. Not more than two members from each house may be from the same political party. All appointments to the committee are subject to approval by the caucuses to which the appointed members belong.

(2) The initial members of the committee shall be appointed as soon as possible after July 26, 1981, and shall serve until the next regular session of the legislature convenes in an odd-numbered year. Thereafter members shall be appointed as soon as possible after the legislature convenes in regular session in an odd-numbered year, and their terms shall extend until their successors are appointed and qualified at the next regular session of the legislature in an odd-numbered year or until such members no longer serve in the legislature, whichever occurs first. Members may be reappointed to a committee.

(3) The president of the senate shall appoint the chairperson in even-numbered years and the vice chairperson in odd-numbered years from among committee membership. The speaker of the house shall appoint the chairperson in odd-numbered years and the vice chairperson in even-numbered years from among committee membership. Such appointments shall be made in January of each year as soon as possible after a legislative session convenes.

(4) A vacancy on the committee shall be filled by appointment of a legislator from the same political party as the original appointment. The appropriate appointing authority shall make the appointment within thirty days of the vacancy occurring. [1983 c 53 § 1; 1981 c 324 § 5.]

Legislative affirmation—Severability—1981 c 324: See notes following RCW 34.04.010.

34.04.220 Review of proposed rules—Notice. Whenever a majority of the members of the rules review committee determines that a proposed rule is not within the intent of the legislature as expressed in the statute which the rule implements, the committee shall give the affected agency written notice of its decision. The notice shall be given at least seven days prior to any hearing scheduled for consideration of or adoption of the proposed rule pursuant to RCW 34.04.025(1)(a)(iii). The notice shall include a statement of the review committee's findings and the reasons therefor. When the agency holds a hearing on the proposed rule, the agency shall consider the review committee's decision. [1987 c 451 § 1; 1981 c 324 § 6.]

Legislative affirmation—Severability—1981 c 324: See notes following RCW 34.04.010.

34.04.230 Review of existing rules—Policy statements, guidelines, issuances—Notice—Hearing. (1) All rules required to be filed pursuant to RCW 34.04.040, and emergency rules adopted pursuant to RCW 34.04.030, are subject to selective review by the legislature.

(2) The rules review committee may review an agency's use of policy statements, guidelines, and issuances that are of general applicability, or their equivalents to determine whether or not an agency has failed to adopt a rule as defined in RCW 34.04.010(2).

(3) If the rules review committee finds by a majority vote of its members: (a) That an existing rule is not within the intent of the legislature as expressed by the statute which the rule implements, (b) that the rule has not been adopted in accordance with all applicable provisions of law, or (c) that an agency is using a policy statement, guideline, or issuance in place of a rule, the agency affected shall be notified of such finding and the reasons therefor. Within thirty days of the receipt of the rules review committee's notice, the agency shall file notice of a hearing on the rules review committee's finding with the code reviser and mail notice to all persons who have made timely request of the agency for advance notice of its rule-making proceedings as provided in RCW 34.04.025, as now or hereafter amended. The agency's notice shall include the rules review committee's findings and reasons therefor, and shall be published in the Washington state register in accordance with the provisions of chapter 34.08 RCW.

(4) The agency shall consider fully all written and oral submissions regarding (a) whether the rule in question is within the intent of the legislature as expressed by the statute which the rule implements, (b) whether the rule was adopted in accordance with all applicable provisions of law, or (c) whether the agency is using a policy statement, guideline, or issuance in place of a rule. [1987 c 451 § 2; 1981 c 324 § 7.]

34.04.240 Committee objections to agency action or failure to adopt rule—Statement in register and WAC—Suspension of rule. (1) Within seven days of an agency hearing held after notification of the agency by the rules review committee pursuant to RCW 34.04.220 or 34.04.230, the affected agency shall notify the committee of its action on a proposed or existing rule to which the committee objected or on a committee finding of the agency's failure to adopt rules. If the rules review committee determines, by a majority vote of its members, that the agency has failed to provide for the required hearings or notice of its action to the committee, the committee may file notice of its objections, together with a concise statement of the reasons therefor, with the code reviser within thirty days of such determination.

(2) If the rules review committee finds, by a majority vote of its members: (a) That the proposed or existing rule in question has not been modified, amended, withdrawn, or repealed by the agency so as to conform with the intent of the legislature, or (b) that the agency is using a policy statement, guideline, or issuance in place of a rule, the rules review committee may, within thirty days from notification by the agency of its action, file with the code reviser notice of its objections together with a concise statement of the reasons therefor. Such notice and statement shall also be provided to the agency by the rules review committee.

(3) If the rules review committee makes an adverse finding under subsection (2) of this section, the committee may, by a two-thirds vote of its members, recommend suspension of an existing rule. Within seven days of such vote the committee shall transmit to the governor, the code reviser, and the agency written notice of its objection and recommended suspension and the concise reasons therefor. Within thirty days of receipt of the notice, the governor shall transmit to the committee, the code reviser, and the agency written approval or disapproval of the recommended suspension. If the suspension is approved by the governor, it is effective from the date of that approval and continues until ninety days after the expiration of the next regular legislative session.

(4) The code reviser shall publish transmittals from the rules review committee or the governor issued pursuant to subsection (1), (2), or (3) of this section in the Washington state register and shall publish in the next supplement and compilation of the Washington Administrative Code a reference to the committee's objection or recommended suspension and the governor's action on it and to the issue of the Washington state register in which the full text thereof appears.

(5) The reference shall be removed from a rule published in the Washington Administrative Code if a subsequent adjudicatory proceeding determines that the rule is within the intent of the legislature or was adopted in accordance with all applicable laws, whichever was the objection of the rules review committee. [1987 c 451 § 3; 1981 c 324 § 8.]

Legislative affirmation—Severability—1981 c 324: See notes following RCW 34.04.010.

34.04.250 Recommendations by committee to legislature. The rules review committee may recommend to the legislature that the original enabling legislation serving as authority for the promulgation of any rule reviewed by the committee be amended or repealed in such manner as the committee deems advisable. [1987 c 451 § 4; 1981 c 324 § 9.]

Legislative affirmation—Severability—1981 c 324: See notes following RCW 34.04.010.

34.04.260 Review and objection procedures—No presumption established. It is the express policy of the legislature that establishment of procedures for review of administrative rules by the legislature and the notice of objection required by RCW 34.04.230(2) and 34.04.240(2) in no way serves to establish a presumption as to the legality or constitutionality of a rule in any subsequent judicial proceedings interpreting such rules. [1981 c 324 § 10.]

Legislative affirmation—Severability—1981 c 324: See notes following RCW 34.04.010.

34.04.270 Agency review of own rules for conformity with federal law. Each agency head shall be responsible for conducting a review of the agency's rules contained in the Washington Administrative Code in order to identify each rule which the agency head believes was designed, in whole or in part, to conform to a federal law which, on or after January 1, 1981, has been eliminated or changed in a manner which reduces or deletes the requirements or standards with which the rule was designed to conform. For purposes of this section, "federal law" includes federal statutes and federal rules and regulations. [1982 c 221 § 3.]

34.04.280 Reports by agency to office of financial management—Compilation. (1) By November 1, 1982, and each year thereafter, each agency shall provide the office of financial management with a document containing: (a) A list citing the rules identified pursuant to RCW 34.04.270 and the actions, if any, taken by the agency head to change or eliminate the rules; and (b) a list of those rules which cannot be changed or eliminated without conflicting with the statutes authorizing, or dealing with, the rules and a list of such statutes.

(2) The office of financial management shall compile the documents submitted under subsection (1) of this section. [1987 c 505 § 18; 1982 c 221 § 4.]

34.04.290 Application of RCW 34.04.270 and 34.04.280. RCW 34.04.270 and 34.04.280 apply to each "agency" as defined in RCW 34.04.010. It also applies to each agency exempted, in whole or in part, under RCW 34.04.150. [1982 c 221 § 5.]

34.04.900 Severability—1959 c 234. If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this chapter are declared to be severable. [1959 c 234 § 16.]

34.04.901 Severability—1967 c 237. If any provision of this 1967 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of *this 1967 amendatory act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1967 c 237 § 25; 1959 c 234 § 17.]

34.04.920 Effective dates—1959 c 234. Sections 2, 3, 4, and 5 of this act shall take effect upon the elapse of one year from the date of its enactment. The other sections of this act shall take effect upon the elapse of six months from the date of its enactment. [1959 c 234 § 18.]

34.04.921 Effective date—1967 c 237. *This act shall take effect on July 1, 1967. [1967 c 237 § 29.]

34.04.930 Operation of chapter if in conflict with federal law. If any part of this chapter shall be found to be in conflict with federal requirements which are a condition precedent to the allocation of federal funds to the state, such conflicting part of this chapter is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of such conflict and with respect to the agencies directly affected, and such findings or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this chapter in its application to the agencies concerned. [1959 c 234 § 19.]

34.04.931 Operation of 1967 amendatory act if in conflict with federal law. If any part of *this 1967 amendatory act shall be found to be in conflict with federal requirements which are a condition precedent to the allocation of federal funds to the state, such conflicting part of *this 1967 amendatory act is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of such conflict and with respect to the agencies directly affected, and such findings or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this 1967

34.04.940 Savings—Authority of agencies to comply with chapter—Effect of subsequent legislation. Nothing in the Administrative Procedure Act shall be held to diminish the constitutional rights of any person or to limit or repeal additional requirements imposed by statute or otherwise recognized by law. Except as otherwise required by law, all requirements or privileges relating to evidence or procedure shall apply equally to agencies and persons. Every agency is granted all authority necessary to comply with the requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act through the issuance of rules or otherwise. No subsequent legislation shall be held to supersede or modify the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act or its applicability to any agency except to the extent that such legislation shall do so expressly. [1967 c 237 § 24.]

Regulatory fairness act: Chapter 19.85 RCW.

34.08.010 Legislative finding. The legislature finds that a need exists to adequately inform the public on the conduct of the people's business by state government, and that providing adequate notice of the affairs of government enables the public to actively participate in the conduct of state government. The legislature further finds that the promulgation of rules by state agencies has a direct effect on the ability of the people to conduct their personal affairs and knowledgeably deal with state government. It is therefore the intent and purpose of RCW 1.08.110 and 42.30.075 and of this chapter to require the publication of a state register by which the public will be adequately informed of the activities of government and where they may actively participate in the conduct of state government and influence the decision making process of the people's business. [1977 ex.s. c 240 § 1.]

34.08.020 Washington State Register—Created—Publication period—Contents. There is hereby created a state publication to be called the Washington State Register, which shall be published on no less than a monthly basis. (1) (a) The full text of any proposed new or amendatory rule, as defined in RCW 34.04.010, and the citation of any existing rules the repeal of which is proposed, prior to the public hearing on such proposal. Such material shall be considered, when published, to be the official notification of the intended action, and no state agency or official thereof may take action on any such rule except on emergency rules adopted in accordance with RCW 34.04.030, until twenty days have passed since the distribution date of the register in which the rule and hearing notice have been published or a notice regarding the omission of the rule has been published pursuant to RCW 34.04.050(3) as now or hereafter amended;

(b) The small business economic impact statement, if required by RCW 19.85.030, preceding the full text of the proposed new or amendatory rule;

(2) The full text of any new or amendatory rule adopted, and the citation of any existing rule repealed, on a permanent or emergency basis;

(3) Executive orders and emergency declarations of the governor;

(4) Public meeting notices of any and all agencies of state government, including state elected officials whose offices are created by Article III of the state Constitution or RCW 48.02.010;

(5) Rules of the state supreme court which have been adopted but not yet published in an official permanent codification;

(6) Summaries of attorney general opinions and letter opinions, noting the number, date, subject, and other information, and prepared by the attorney general for inclusion in the register;

(7) Juvenile disposition standards and security guidelines proposed and adopted under RCW 13.40.030;

In addition, the highest rate of interest permissible for the current month and the maximum retail installment contract service charge for the current year shall be published in each issue of the register. The publication of the maximum allowable interest rate established pursuant to RCW 19.52.025 shall be accompanied by the following advisement: NOTICE: FEDERAL LAW PERMITS FEDERALLY INSURED FINANCIAL

INSTITUTIONS IN THE STATE TO CHARGE THE HIGHEST RATE OF INTEREST THAT MAY BE CHARGED BY ANY FINANCIAL INSTITUTION IN THE STATE. THE MAXIMUM ALLOWABLE RATE OF INTEREST SET FORTH ABOVE MAY NOT APPLY TO A PARTICULAR TRANSACTION. [1987 c 186 § 8; 1986 c 60 § 3; 1983 c 2 § 8. Prior: 1982 c 6 § 6; 1981 c 299 § 18; 1980 c 186 § 15; 1977 ex.s. c 240 § 3.]
