

CHAPTER XV.

[S. B. No. 207.]

RELATING TO NUISANCES.

AN ACT relating to nuisances, amending section 118 of the Penal Code contained in Hill's Annotated Statutes and Codes of Washington.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. That section 118 of the Penal Code contained in Hill's Annotated Statutes and Codes of Washington, be amended to read as follows: Section 118. Every person who shall erect, contrive, cause, continue, maintain, suffer or permit any public nuisance to the injury of any part of the citizens of this state shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars. After any person shall have been convicted of erecting, contriving, causing, continuing, maintaining, suffering or permitting any public nuisance, the court may make it a part of the judgment that such nuisance be removed by the proper officer.

SEC. 2. The present act relating to nuisances is defective, and an emergency exists for the immediate enforcement of this act: therefore, an emergency is hereby declared to exist, and this act shall take effect immediately.

Passed the senate February 20, 1895.

Passed the house February 27, 1895.

Approved March 2, 1895.
