

CHAPTER XCIII.

[H. B. No. 93.]

IN RE PROCEEDINGS SUPPLEMENTAL TO EXECUTION.

AN ACT amending sections I and XXIV of chapter 133 of the laws of 1893 entitled "[An] act relating to proceedings supplemental to execution."

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington :

Amendment.

SECTION 1. Section one, chapter 133 of the laws of 1893 is hereby amended to read as follows: "Section 1. At any time within six years after entry of a judgment for the sum of twenty-five ($25) dollars or over, and after the return of an execution against property wholly or partially unsatisfied upon proof thereof, by affidavit or other competent written evidence satisfactory to the judge or after the issuing of an execution against property and upon proof by the affidavit of a party or otherwise to the satisfaction of the court or a judge thereof judgment debtor has property which he unjustly refuses to apply towards the satisfaction of the judgment, such court or judge may, by an order, require the judgment debtor to appear at a specified time and place before the judge granting the order, or a referee appointed by him, to answer concerning the same; and the judge to whom application is made under this act may, if it is made to appear to him by the affidavit of the judgment creditor, his agent or attorney that there is danger of the debtor absconding, order the sheriff to arrest the debtor and bring him before the judge granting the order. Upon being brought before the judge he may be ordered to enter into a bond, with sufficient sureties, that he will attend from time to time before the judge or referee, as shall be directed, during the pendency of the proceedings and until the final termination thereof.

SEC. 2. Section twenty-four of chapter 133 of the laws of 1893 is hereby amended to read as follows: "Sec. 24. Special proceedings under this act may be instituted and prosecuted before the superior court of the county in which the judgment was entered or any judge thereof, or before the superior court of any county to the sheriff of which an execution has been issued or in which a transcript of said judgment has been filed in the office of the clerk of said court or before any judge thereof.

Passed the House February 7, 1899.

Passed the Senate March 9, 1899.

Approved March 13, 1899.

CHAPTER XCIV.

[H. B. No. 227.]

EXTENDING RIGHT OF EMINENT DOMAIN TO ELECTRIC RAILWAY COMPANIES.

AN ACT extending the right of eminent domain to electric power and electric railroad companies, and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington :

SECTION 1. The right of eminent domain is hereby extended to all corporations incorporated or that may hereafter be incorporated under the laws of this state or any state or territory of the United States and doing business in this state for the purpose of transmitting electric power by wire, cable or by any other means; or for operating railways or railroads by electric power: Provided, however, That said right of eminent domain shall not be exercised with respect to any residence or business structure or structures, public road or street.

SEC. 2. Every such corporation shall have the right to enter upon any land between the termini of the proposed lines for the purpose of examining, locating and surveying such lines, doing no unnecessary damage thereby.
