

CHAPTER 98.

[H. B. No. 170.]

PROHIBITING THE SALE OF INTOXICATING LIQUORS
WITHIN PRESCRIBED LIMITS OF STATE EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS.

AN ACT prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors within prescribed limits of any normal school, agricultural college, reform school or State school for defective youth, and prescribing penalties for its violation.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. That it shall be unlawful to sell or in any way dispose of any vinous, spiritous, malt or other intoxicating liquors, with or without a license, within two thousand (2,000) feet of any normal school, agricultural college, reform school, or State school for defective youth, now established or which may hereafter be legally established within the State of Washington: Provided, That nothing in this act shall be construed to affect in any way the provisions of "An act prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors on or near the grounds of the University of Washington," approved March 19, 1895.

SEC. 2. Any person or persons violating the provisions of this act shall be deemed to be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction shall be punished by a fine of not less than two hundred (200) dollars, nor more than one thousand (1,000) dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Passed the House March 4, 1903.

Passed the Senate March 12, 1903.

Approved by the Governor March 14, 1903.
