SEC. 3. The Secretary of State shall cause to be printed for temporary use one thousand copies of each act filed in his office within ten days after the filing thereof, and in the order of its chapter number. The style and size of type, line and number of lines to the page shall be the same as shall be used in the permanent volume of the Session Laws of such session.

Temporary publication.

SEC. 4. The Secretary of State shall furnish one copy of each act as published to each member of the Legislature at which such law was enacted, to each state officer, and to each state institution; five copies to each of the state educational institutions; and to each county auditor for the use of his county; twenty-five copies to the State Law Library, and such further distribution as may be necessary.

Distribution of copies.

SEC. 5. When all of the acts of any session have been published in temporary form the Secretary of State shall employ some person who shall be an attorney-at-law to make the proper headings, side annotations and index of such acts or laws and shall, after such work has been completed, have published and bound in good law sheep at least twenty-five hundred copies of such acts, with such headings, annotations and indexes and such other matter as may be deemed essential, including a title page showing the session at which such acts were passed, the date of convening and adjourning of such session, and any other matter deemed proper. When published as above provided the Secretary of State shall deliver the same to the person authorized by law to have the custody and distribution of the same, who shall distribute the same as provided by law, the surplus copies to be sold at ten per cent above the cost thereof; and in determining such cost no account shall be made of the material and press work of the advance sheets or temporary publication of the Session Laws.
