

CHAPTER 134.

[H. B. 357.]

MILITARY CODE.

AN ACT relating to the State Militia, providing for the organization, regulation, maintenance and discipline of the National Guard of Washington, defining certain offenses, prescribing penalties therefor, repealing certain acts and parts of acts and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. This act together with subsequent acts amendatory hereof shall be known as the Military Code of the State of Washington. Military Code.

SEC. 2. Persons Subject to Military Duty.

Every able-bodied male citizen, and every able-bodied male of foreign birth who has declared his intention to become a citizen, resident within this state, who is more than eighteen and less than forty-five years of age, shall be subject to military duty, unless specifically exempted therefrom by the laws of the United States or of this state. Persons subject to military duty.

SEC. 3. Persons Exempt From Military Duty.

The following persons are exempt from military duty in this state: Persons exempt.

1. Civil and military officers of the United States.
2. State and county civil officers.
3. Members of any regularly organized fire or police department, in any city or town.
4. All persons exempt from military duty by the laws of the United States.
5. All idiots, lunatics and persons under sentence for having committed an infamous crime: Provided, That no person who shall have voluntarily enlisted in the National Guard of Washington shall be entitled to exemption under this section during the time of his enlistment.

SEC. 4. Commander-in-Chief May Order Enrollment.

Whenever the Commander-in-Chief shall deem it necessary, in event of, or imminent danger of war, insurrection, rebellion, invasion, tumult, riot, resistance to law or pro- Enrollment.

authorized.

cess or breach of the peace, he may order an enrollment by counties of all persons subject to military duty, designating the county assessor or some other person for each county to act as county enrolling officer. Each county enrolling officer may appoint such assistant or assistants as may be authorized by the Commander-in-Chief. In each county the enrollment shall include every sane able-bodied male inhabitant not under sentence for an infamous crime, who is more than eighteen and less than forty-five years of age. The enrollment shall be made in triplicate and shall state the name, residence, age, occupation and previous or existing military or naval service of each person enrolled. When complete the rolls shall be verified under oath by the enrolling officer, who shall immediately thereupon file one copy with the Adjutant General of the state and another with the county auditor, retaining the third copy for himself.

Form.

SEC. 5. Notice of Enrollment.

Notice.

Persons making an enrollment under this act shall, at the time of making same, serve a notice of such enrollment upon each person enrolled, by delivering such notice to him personally or by leaving it with some person of suitable age and discretion at his place of business or residence, or by mailing such notice to him at his last known place of residence, and shall make a return under oath of such service to accompany the copy of the enrollment filed with the Adjutant General. Such return shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein shown.

SEC. 6. Exemptions.

Exemptions.

Whenever an enrollment shall have been ordered under this act, the commanding officers of existing organizations of militia, and the chiefs of all police and fire departments shall make and deliver to the enrolling officer of the county in which such organization and departments are stationed, verified lists in triplicate of the members of their respective commands and departments, and the enrolling officer shall mark "Exempt" opposite the names of all persons so listed, attaching one copy of each such list to each copy of the enrollment. The enrolling officers shall also mark "Exempt" opposite the names of all federal, state and county officers. All other persons claiming exemption must within fifteen days after service upon them of the notice of enrollment make a written verified claim in duplicate of such exemption and file the same in the office of the county auditor, who shall within five days thereafter forward one copy thereof with remarks and recommendations to the Adjutant General. Upon the expiration of the time within which any claim of exemption may be filed and received by the Adjutant General, the latter shall notify the county auditor of his decision in each case where exemption has been claimed, and the county auditor shall write upon the roll opposite the name of each person whose claim of exemption has been allowed by the Adjutant General, the word "Exempt." All those on the roll not marked "Exempt" shall be subject to military duty.

Claim of exemption.

Adjutant General to pass upon exemption.

SEC. 7. Penalties for Dereliction or False Certificate.

If any officer or person, who becomes charged under this act with any duty relating to an enrollment of persons subject to military duty, refuses or neglects to perform the same within the time and substantially in the manner required by law, or if he shall knowingly make any false certificate, or if, when acting as county or assistant enrolling officer, he shall knowingly or wilfully omit from the roll any person required by this act to be enrolled he shall thereby forfeit not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, to be sued for in the name of the State of Washington by the prosecuting attorney of the county in which such offense shall occur, the amount of the penalty to be determined by the court, and, when recovered, to be paid into the military fund of the state.

Penalty for false certificate.

SEC. 8. Compensation of Enrolling Officer.

Each county enrolling officer shall be allowed the sum of five cents per name enrolled and served with notice of enrollment by him or his assistants, to be audited and paid as other military bills out of any monies in the military fund not otherwise appropriated, and from such allowance he must pay his assistant or assistants.

Compensation of enrolling officer.

SEC. 9. Examination of Assessment Rolls and Poll Lists.

Assessment rolls and poll lists.

All civil officers in each county, city and town shall allow persons authorized under this act to make enrollments, at all proper times, to examine their records and take copies thereof or information therefrom. It shall be the duty of every person, under the penalties provided in section seven of this act, upon application of any person legally authorized to make an enrollment, truthfully to state all of the facts within his knowledge concerning any individual of whom the enroller shall make inquiry. In event of a violation of this section the enroller shall report the facts to the prosecuting attorney, who shall at once proceed to enforce the penalty.

 Term of duty. Commander-in-Chief for that occasion, reverting upon completion of such duty to their regular assignments.

SEC. 15. When Commander-in-Chief May Order Out National Guard.

National Guard ordered out, when. In event of, or imminent danger of war, insurrection, rebellion, invasion, tumult, riot, resistance to law or process or breach of the peace, the Commander-in-Chief is authorized to order the National Guard of Washington or such portion thereof as he may deem necessary into the active service of the state, and to cause them to perform such military duty as the circumstances require.

SEC. 16. When Local Commanders May Order Out National Guard.

Local commander to order out. Occasions. Report action to Commander-in-Chief. In event of insurrection, rebellion, invasion, tumult, riot, resistance to law or process or breach of the peace, occurring in the vicinity of the station of any organization or organizations of the National Guard of Washington, whenever the exigencies of the situation are such as to render it impracticable first to communicate with the Commander-in-Chief, the senior commanding officer of that station, upon request in writing signed by a superior court judge, sheriff or mayor, stating the facts and the nature of the service desired, may order out the organization or organizations at that station, or such portion thereof as he shall deem necessary, and cause them to undertake the performance of such duty as the circumstances shall require, and such commanding officer shall immediately report what he has done and all of the circumstances of the case to the Commander-in-Chief.

In event of, or imminent danger of war, insurrection, rebellion, invasion, tumult, riot, resistance to law or process or breach of the peace, if the Commander-in-Chief shall have ordered into active service all of the available forces of the National Guard of Washington and shall consider them insufficient in numbers to properly accomplish the purpose, he may then, in addition, order out the militia reserve or such portion thereof as may be necessary, and cause them to perform such military duty as the circumstances may require. Duty.

SEC. 18. When the Militia Is Called Into the Federal Service. Federal service.

Whenever the President of the United States shall issue his orders to the proper officer or officers of the National Guard of Washington, through the Commander-in-Chief, for the mobilization of any part or all of the National Guard of Washington for federal service, such organizations of the National Guard of Washington as may be sufficient to comply with the orders of the President of the United States shall be mobilized as required by said orders. Orders issued by Pres. of U. S.

Immediately upon the mobilization of said forces, and as soon as they shall be in the service of the United States it shall be the duty of the Governor to organize and muster into the service of the State of Washington the same number of companies, battalions or regiments that have been ordered into the federal service. The organizations so mustered into the service of the State of Washington shall be known as the National Guard Reserve and whenever one regiment or more of the National Guard of Washington shall have been mobilized for the federal service at least one battalion of the National Guard of Washington not in the service of the United States or at least one battalion of the National Guard Reserve shall be designated as a Depot Battalion and shall be used for the purpose of recruiting and training men for service with those organizations theretofore ordered into the federal service. National Guard Reserve to be organized.

This Depot Battalion shall be stationed at such place as the Commander-in-Chief may designate and the officers assigned to duty therewith shall be selected for their fitness to perform the duties required for such an organization. Depot battalions.

serve shall be mustered into the service of the United States, an equal number of companies, battalions or regiments shall forthwith be organized and mustered into the service of the State of Washington to fill the vacancy in the National Guard Reserve created by the muster into the federal service of such organizations. Whenever any portion of the National Guard of this state shall be relieved from duty in the service of the United States, such organizations shall resume their former designations as a part of the National Guard of this state the same as if they had not been ordered into the federal service and the National Guard Reserve organized to take their places shall be mustered out of the service of the state.

SEC. 19. Procedure in Calling Out Militia Reserve.

Military Reserve; how called out. Apportionment. Drafting officers. Drafting. Sheriff shall notify.

Whenever it shall be necessary to call out any portion of the militia reserve for the purpose of the United States, the number required shall be apportioned between all of the counties pro rata according to population, but for the active service of this state, the entire number may be drawn from any one or more of the counties, pro rata or otherwise, as the Commander-in-Chief shall deem most expedient. For each county the sheriff thereof shall be ex-officio drafting officer, and whenever the Commander-in-Chief shall have called upon any sheriff for a certain number of the militia reserve within his county, such sheriff shall immediately proceed to call for and accept as volunteers, or draft by lot, as many of the militia reserve in his county as shall have been required by the Commander-in-Chief. The persons so accepted as volunteers and drafted shall be summoned by the sheriff in the manner prescribed by law for the summoning of witnesses, the time and place of the rendezvous being stated in the summons, and the sheriff shall promptly provide the Adjutant General with a full verified return showing the names of those so summoned and the manner of service in each instance.

SEC. 20. Penalty for Sheriff Failing to Perform Duty as Drafting Officer.

Failure of sheriff to perform duty.

Whenever any sheriff shall refuse or neglect well and timely to perform any duty with which he shall have become charged under this act, he shall thereby forfeit his office, and upon prosecution and conviction of such refusal or neglect he shall be fined not less than five hundred nor more than one thousand dollars. The Commander-in-Chief shall have the power at any time summarily to relieve any sheriff from duty as drafting officer, and designate some other officer or person to act in that capacity. Penalty.

SEC. 21. Penalty for Failure to Report for Duty.

Every member of the National Guard of Washington who shall have been ordered out for either state or federal active service and who shall fail to report for duty to his commanding officer within twenty-four hours after the time designated in orders, and every member of the Militia Reserve who shall have been regularly summoned by a drafting officer and who shall fail to appear and make his presence known to the mustering officer at the place and within twenty-four hours after the time designated in the summons shall be taken to be a deserter and dealt with as prescribed in the Articles of War of the United States, unless he shall produce a sworn certificate from a licensed physician of good standing that he was physically unable to appear at the time and place designated, or unless he shall have furnished a substitute as in this act elsewhere provided. Failure to report for duty.
Penalty.

Any portion of the Militia Reserve which shall have been called out under the provisions of this act shall be immediately mustered into the service of the state, either temporarily until they can be mustered into the service of the United States if called for that purpose, or, if for state service, for such period not exceeding one year as the Commander-in-Chief shall direct, and they shall then either be assigned to organizations of the militia of this state already existing or formed into new organizations conforming as nearly as practicable to the laws and regulations then in force for the regular army of the United States, as the Commander-in-Chief shall direct. Such new organizations, if for state service, may be of any branch or branches of the service required by the nature of the duty to be performed, and, if for federal service, they shall be of the branch or branches specified in the President's call. The necessary officers therefor shall be appointed and commissioned by the Commander-in-Chief, as in the manner provided for officers in the National Guard. While in the service of this state all such organizations shall be armed, equipped, uniformed, paid, governed and disciplined according to the laws and regulations then in force for the National Guard of Washington.

SEC. 25. Suits Against Officers, or Enlisted Men.

Suits against officers or enlisted.

When any suit or proceeding shall be commenced in any court by any person against any military officer of the state for any act done by such officer in his official capacity in the discharge of any duty under this act or against any person acting under the authority or order of any such officer, or by virtue of any warrant issued by him pursuant to law, the defendant may require the person prosecuting or instituting such suit or proceeding to file a cost bond running to the State of Washington of not less than $200, or such greater sum as may be fixed by the court on application therefor for the payment of costs that may be incurred by the defendant therein, and in case the plaintiff shall be non-suited or have the verdict or judgment rendered against him the defendant shall recover costs. The defendant in such action shall be defended by the Attorney General at the expense of the state, but private counsel may be employed by the defendant. No action shall lie against any officer or enlisted man for any acts done by him by virtue of any order which may hereafter be held invalid by any civil court.

1. English grammar and the ability to speak, read and write the English language with facility and correctness.
 2. Arithmetic, and the ability to apply its rules to the solution of practical problems.
 3. Geography of the United States and of this state.
 4. History of the United States.
 5. Constitution and military laws of the United States and of this state, and the rules and regulations governing the National Guard of Washington and the army of the United States.

6. Drill regulations and manual of guard duty of the United States army and firing regulations for small arms.

7. Personal intelligence, aptitude and probable efficiency as an officer of the National Guard.

8. Physical fitness.

Examinations of commissioned officers for promotion or to ascertain their fitness to hold their commissions shall deal more particularly with the military knowledge and ability of the officer examined, and shall be of a strictness proportionate to the office. If such person shall be adjudged unqualified for such office, the officer next in rank shall be appointed after passing a satisfactory examination. The Commander-in-Chief shall appoint such examining boards and may remove any member thereof. No person shall be eligible for appointment to a commissioned office in the National Guard for the period of one year after he shall have been reported adversely by an examining board. The scope of the examination for any officer to determine his fitness to hold his commission shall be set forth in the general order directing him to appear for such examination.

comes effective, seniority between them shall be determined by length of service in that grade. The rank of retired officers, returned to the active list, shall be determined in the grade held by them by service as officers of the active list performed subsequent to the date this act becomes effective. The rank of any officer who shall receive his first commission in the National Guard of Washington after this act becomes effective, shall be determined in the grade to which appointed by length of service as an officer of the active list, performed subsequent to the date this act becomes effective.

SEC. 34. Examining Boards.

Examining boards.

The Commander-in-Chief may at any time appoint an examining board consisting of four officers, one of whom shall be a medical officer, the latter to make the physical examination only, and may order before said board any commissioned officer of the National Guard of Washington for examination to determine his fitness to hold his commission. Such board shall examine into the character, capacity, general fitness and military and physical qualifications of such commissioned officer. If the findings of such board be unfavorable to such officer, and be approved by the Commander-in-Chief, such officer shall be discharged from the service or retired. With the exception of the medical officer, the officers composing said board, shall if practicable, be senior in rank to the officer examined.

SEC. 35. Terms of Officers, Continuous.

board appointed in accordance with the same. The order authorizing such examination shall be issued and published as an item of news in the locality where such examination is to be held at least thirty days prior to the date set for holding the same. If such applicant shall attain a record of seventy-five per cent or better in such examination, he may be appointed and commissioned captain in the National Guard of Washington, and authorized to enroll a company. If there be more than one such applicant from the same point, those whose applications are received before an examination is ordered may be given permission to appear for the examination, and the one who, in the judgment of the examining board, is the best qualified may be selected and authorized to enroll a company as herein provided. Upon notification from him of the enrollment of not less than fifty-eight able-bodied men, and upon approval of such enrollment by the Adjutant General, the company may be mustered into the National Guard of Washington. An examining board shall be ordered to conduct a competitive examination, thirty days after date of muster in, to select a first lieutenant and a second lieutenant for said company. All regularly enlisted men of such company at the date of such examination shall be eligible for said examination. Such company commander shall not nominate for appointment non-commissioned officers for such company until after said examination shall have taken place, but may designate by company order such men of the organization as acting non-commissioned officers as he may see fit. Upon conclusion of the competitive examination, the candidate who, in the judgment of the board, is best qualified shall be appointed and commissioned first lieutenant of the National Guard of Washington, and assigned to duty with said company. The candidate who, in the judgment of the board, is best qualified for second lieutenant shall be appointed and commissioned to such office in the National Guard of Washington, and assigned to duty with said company. Until the first and second lieutenants of such newly organized company shall have been appointed and commissioned the company shall be attached directly to general headquarters.

No member of the National Guard shall be discharged by his employer by reason of the performance of any military duties upon which he may be ordered. When any member of the National Guard is ordered upon duty which takes him from his employment he may apply upon the termination of such duty to be restored to his position and employment, and if the tour of duty shall have continued for a period not longer than [three] months, any employer or the officer or other manager of any firm or corporation having authority to re-employ such National Guardsman and failing so to do shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $300, or imprisoned in the county jail for a period not exceeding ninety days, or shall suffer both such fine and imprisonment.

Fine.

SEC. 70. National Guard Association.

National Guard Association.

The commissioned officers of the National Guard of Washington may associate themselves together in an organization to promote discipline and efficiency in the National Guard, under such rules and regulations as they may adopt, subject to the military regulations of this state.

SEC. 71. Incorporation.

Incorporation.

The officers, or the officers and enlisted men of any regiment, battalion or company of the National Guard of Washington are hereby authorized to organize themselves into a corporation for social purposes and for the purpose of holding, acquiring and disposing of such property, real and personal, as such military organizations may possess or acquire. Such incorporations shall not engage in business and shall not be required to pay any filing or license fees to the state.

The dissolution or disbandment of any such company or companies as a military organization shall not operate to terminate the existence of the corporation, but the existence of the same shall continue for the period limited in its articles of incorporation for the benefit of such corporation.

SEC. 72. Military Tribunals.

The military tribunals of the State of Washington shall be of two kinds, viz.:

1. Courts-martial (including summary courts and delinquency courts), for the trial of offenders against military law, and

2. Courts of inquiry for examining transactions of, or accusations or imputations against officers or enlisted men of the National Guard of Washington.

Courts-martial shall be composed of commissioned officers only. All officers of the National Guard of Washington, including those on the retired list, shall be eligible for detail for the trial of offenders belonging to the National Guard of Washington; but no officer will be detailed for the trial of an officer superior to himself in rank when it can be avoided. In the military service of the State of Washington, the following named courts-martial are authorized:

1st. The general court-martial,

2nd. The summary court-martial,

3rd. The delinquency court for enlisted men.

SEC. 73. Composition, Constitution and Jurisdiction of Military Tribunals.

Except as in this act otherwise provided, and as far as applicable, the composition, constitution and jurisdiction of courts-martial, the form and manner in which the proceedings of military courts and the proceedings in revision thereon shall be conducted and recorded, and the forms of oaths and affirmations used in the administration of military law by such courts, shall be governed by the law and procedure of courts-martial in the United States Army.

General courts-martial may consist of any number of officers from five (5) to nine (9) inclusive, but they shall not consist of less than nine, when that number can be conveniently assembled. The decision of the appointing authority as to the number that can be conveniently assembled shall be conclusive. When from any cause, a general court-martial is reduced below the minimum of five, the remaining members will direct the Judge Advocate to report the fact to the convening authority and await further orders. In such case, if the trial has not been entered upon, new members may be added; but if any testimony has been taken, the court should preferably be dissolved and a new court ordered.

Jurisdiction.

The jurisdiction of courts-martial as herein provided is limited to the purpose of the maintenance of military discipline, and as to persons, such courts have jurisdiction subject to the limitations hereinafter imposed at all times and in all places over officers and enlisted men of the National Guard of Washington for all military offenses committed by them, whether within or beyond the territorial limits of the State of Washington, and as to offenses, the jurisdiction embraces the offenses specifically defined in this act.

No officer shall be tried for a military offense committed by him in violation of any provision of this act or rule or regulation promulgated by authority thereof, except by a general court-martial.

No enlisted man shall be tried by a summary or delinquency court for an offense the punishment for which as prescribed herein may be discharge from the service.

A court of inquiry shall consist of one or more officers, not exceeding three, and a recorder to reduce the proceedings and evidence to writing.

SEC. 74. Rules and Articles Governing the National Guard of Washington.

The word officer as used in this act shall be understood to designate commissioned officers. The words enlisted men as used in this act shall be understood to include non-commissioned officers, musicians, artificers, privates and other enlisted men, and the convictions mentioned herein shall be understood to be convictions by courts-martial.

Rules and articles governing the National Guard of Washington.

The National Guard of Washington shall be governed by the following rules and articles:

Art. 1. These rules and articles shall be read to every enlisted man at the time of, or within six days after his enlistment, and he shall thereupon take an oath or affirmation in the following form: To be read to enlisted men.

“I, A. B., do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the United States of America, Oath. and the State of Washington; that I will serve the state honestly and faithfully against all its enemies whomsoever; and that I will obey the orders of the President of the United States and the Governor of the State of Washington, and the orders of the officers appointed over me, according to the rules and articles governing the National Guard of Washington.”

This oath may be taken before any commissioned officer of the National Guard of Washington.

Art. 2. Every officer who knowingly enlists or musters into the military service any minor over the age of eighteen years without the written consent of his parents or guardians, or any minor under the age of eighteen years, or any insane or intoxicated persons, or any deserter from the military or naval service of the United States or of the State of Washington, or any person who has been convicted of any infamous offense, shall upon conviction, be dismissed from the service, or suffer such other punishment Enlistment of minors without consent. as a court-martial may direct. Punishment.

Art. 3. Any officer who knowingly musters as an enlisted man a person who is not an enlisted man shall be deemed guilty of knowingly making a false muster, and punished accordingly. Rules and regulations.

Art. 4. Any officer who takes money, or other thing, by way of gratification, on mustering any regiment, troop, battery or company, or on signing muster rolls, shall be dismissed from the service. “Tips.”

pany, or garrison under his command; or of the arms, ammunition, clothing or other stores thereunto belonging, shall, on conviction thereof before a court-martial, be dismissed.

property.

Art. 6. Every officer commanding a troop, battery, or company, is charged with the arms, accoutrements, ammunition, clothing, or other military stores belonging to his command, and is accountable in case of their being lost, spoiled, or damaged otherwise than by unavoidable accident, or on actual service.

False certificate.

Art. 7. Every officer who signs a false certificate, relating to the absence or pay of an officer or enlisted man shall be dismissed from the service.

False muster.

Art. 8. Any officer who knowingly makes a false muster of man or horse, or who signs, or directs, or allows the signing of any muster roll, knowing the same to contain a false muster, shall, upon proof thereof by two witnesses, before a court-martial, be dismissed from the service, and shall thereby be disabled to hold any office or employment in the service of the State of Washington.

Art. 9. Any officer, who, wilfully or through neglect, suffers to be lost, spoiled, or damaged, any military stores belonging to the United States or the State of Washington, shall make good the loss or damage, and be dismissed from the service.

Ammunition.

Art. 10. Any enlisted man who sells, or wilfully or through neglect wastes the ammunition delivered out to him shall be punished as a court-martial may direct.

Equipment.

Art. 11. Any enlisted man who sells, or through neglect loses or spoils his horse, arms, clothing, or accoutrements, shall be punished as a court-martial may adjudge, subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by the Commander-in-Chief.

Disrespect.

Art. 12. Any officer or enlisted man who behaves himself with disrespect toward his commanding officer shall be punished as a court-martial may direct.

Art. 13. Any officer or enlisted man who, on any pretense whatsoever, strikes his superior officer, or draws or lifts up any weapon, or offers any violence against him, being in the execution of his office, or disobeys any lawful command of his superior officer, shall suffer such punishment as a court-martial may direct. Assault.

Art. 14. Any officer or enlisted man who begins, excites, causes, or joins in any mutiny or sedition, in any troop, battery, company, party, post, detachment, or guard, shall suffer such punishment as a court-martial may direct. Mutiny.

Art. 15. Any officer or enlisted man who, being present at any mutiny or sedition, does not use his utmost endeavor to suppress the same, or having knowledge of any intended mutiny or sedition does not, without delay, give information thereof to his commanding officer, shall suffer such punishment as a court-martial may direct. Accessory to mutiny.

Art. 16. All officers, of what condition soever, have power to part and quell all quarrels, frays, and disorders, whether among persons belonging to his own or another corps, regiment, troop, battery, or company, and to order officers into arrest, and non-commissioned officers and enlisted men into confinement, who take part in the same, until their proper superior officer is acquainted therewith. And whosoever, being so ordered, refuses to obey such officer or non-commissioned officer, or draws a weapon upon him, shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. Disorderly conduct.

Art. 17. Any officer who thinks himself wronged by the commanding officer of his regiment, separate battalion, or separate company, and, upon due application to such commander, is refused redress, may complain to the Commander-in-Chief. The Commander-in-Chief shall examine into said complaint and take proper measures for redressing the wrong complained of. Officer may appeal.

Art. 18. Any enlisted man who thinks himself wronged by any officer may complain to the commanding officer of his regiment, separate battalion, or separate company, who shall examine into such complaint and take proper measures for redressing the wrong complained of. Either party may appeal from such action to a general court-martial; but if, upon such second hearing, the appeal appears to be Private may appeal.

Absence
without leave.

Art. 19. Any enlisted man who absents himself from his troop, battery, company, or detachment, without leave from his commanding officer shall be punished as a court-martial may direct.

Failure to rendezvous.

Art. 20. Any officer or enlisted man who fails, except when prevented by sickness or other necessity, to repair, at the fixed time, to the place of parade, exercise or other rendezvous appointed by his commanding officer, or goes from the same, without leave from his commanding officer, before he is dismissed or relieved, shall be punished as a court-martial may direct.

Substitution.

Art. 21. No enlisted man belonging to any regiment, troop, battery, or company shall hire another to do his duty for him, or be excused from duty, except in cases of sickness, disability, or leave of absence. Every enlisted man found guilty of hiring his duty, and the person so hired to do another's duty, shall be punished as a court-martial may direct.

Conniving at substitution.

Art. 22. Every non-commissioned officer who connives at such hiring of duty shall be reduced. Every officer who knows and allows such practices shall be punished as a court-martial may direct.

Drunkenness.

Art. 23. Any officer who is found drunk on his guard, party, or other duty, shall be dismissed from the service. Any enlisted man who so offends shall suffer such punishment as a court-martial may direct.

Sentinel
sleeping.

Art. 24. Any sentinel who is found sleeping upon his post, or who leaves it before he is regularly relieved, shall suffer such punishment as a court-martial may direct.

Art. 25. Any officer or enlisted man who quits his guard, platoon, or division, without leave from his superior officer, except in a case of urgent necessity, shall be punished as a court-martial may direct.

False alarms.

Art. 26. Any officer, who by any means whatsoever, occasions false alarms in camp, garrison or quarters, shall suffer such punishment as a court-martial may direct.

Art. 27. Any officer or enlisted man who misbehaves himself before the enemy, runs away, or shamefully abandons any fort, post, or guard which he is commanded to defend, or speaks words inducing others to do the like, or casts away his arms or ammunition, or quits his post or colors to plunder or pillage, shall suffer such punishment as a court-martial may direct. Misbehavior.

Art. 28. Every enlisted man who deserts the service of the State of Washington, shall be liable to serve for such period as shall, with the time he may have served previous to his desertion, amount to the full term of his enlistment; and such enlisted man shall be tried by a court-martial and punished, although the term of his enlistment may have elapsed previous to his being apprehended and tried. Desertion.

Art. 29. Any officer who, having tendered his resignation, quits his post, or proper duties, without leave and with intent to remain permanently absent therefrom, prior to due notice of acceptance of the same, shall be deemed and punished as a deserter. Absence
permission.

Art. 30. Any officer or enlisted man who advises or persuades any other officer or enlisted man to desert the service of the State of Washington, shall suffer such punishment as a court-martial may direct. Advising desertion.

Art. 31. All officers and enlisted men are to behave themselves orderly in quarters and on the march; and whoever commits any waste or spoil, either in walks or trees, parks, warrens, fish ponds, houses, gardens, grain field, enclosures, or meadows, or maliciously destroys any property whatsoever belonging to inhabitants of the United States or of the State of Washington, shall, besides such penalties as he may be liable to by law, be punished as a court-martial may direct. Malicious mischief.

Art. 32. (1) Any person in the military service of the State of Washington, who makes or causes to be made any claim against the United States or the State of Washington, or any officer thereof, knowing such claim to be false or fraudulent; or False claim.

(2) Who presents or causes to be presented to any person in the civil or military service thereof, for approval

Same. or payment, any claim against the United States or the State of Washington, or any officer thereof, knowing such claim to be false or fraudulent; or

Same. (3) Who enters into any agreement or conspiracy to defraud the United States or the State of Washington, by obtaining, or aiding others to obtain, the allowance or payment of any false or fraudulent claim; or

Aid to others in false claim. (4) Who, for the purpose of obtaining or aiding others to obtain, the approval, allowance, or payment of any claim against the United States or the State of Washington, or against any officer thereof, makes or uses, or procures or advises the making or use of, any writing or other paper, knowing the same to contain any false or fraudulent statement; or

Same. (5) Who, for the purpose of obtaining, or aiding others to obtain, the approval, allowance, or payment of any claim against the United States or the State of Washington, or any officer thereof, makes, or procures or advises the making of, any oath to any fact or to any writing or other paper, knowing such oath to be false; or

Forgery. (6) Who, for the purpose of obtaining, or aiding others to obtain, the approval, allowance, or payment of any claim against the United States or the State of Washington, or any officer thereof, forges or counterfeits, or procures or advises the forging or counterfeiting of, any signature upon any writing or other paper, or uses, or procures or advises the use of, any such signature, knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited; or

"Short changing." (7) Who, having charge, possession, custody, or control of any money or other property of the United States or of the State of Washington, furnished or intended for the military service thereof, knowingly delivers, or causes to be delivered, to any person having authority to receive the same, any amount thereof less than that for which he receives a certificate or receipt; or

Defrauding. (8) Who, being authorized to make or deliver any paper certifying the receipt of any property of the United States or the State of Washington, furnished or intended for the military service thereof, makes or delivers to any person such writing, without having full knowledge of the truth of the statements therein contained, and with intent to defraud the United States or the State of Washington; or

(9) Who steals, embezzles, knowingly and wilfully misappropriates, applies to his own use or benefit, or wrongfully or knowingly sells or disposes of any ordnance, arms, ammunition, equipments, clothing, subsistence stores, money, or other property of the United States or of the State of Washington, furnished or intended for the military service thereof; or Larceny.

(10) Who knowingly purchases, or receives in pledge for any obligation or indebtedness, from any enlisted man, officer, or other person who is a part of or employed in said forces or service, any ordnance, arms, equipments, ammunition, clothing, subsistence stores, or other property of the United States or of the State of Washington, such enlisted man, officer, or other person not having lawful right to sell or pledge the same, shall, on conviction thereof, be punished by fine or imprisonment, or by such other punishment as a court-martial may adjudge or by any or all of said penalties. Receiving stolen goods.

And if any person, being guilty of any of the offenses aforesaid, while in the military service of the State of Washington, receives his discharge, or is dismissed from the service, he shall continue to be liable to be arrested and held for trial and sentence by a court-martial, in the same manner and to the same extent as if he had not received such discharge nor been dismissed.

Art. 33. Any officer who is convicted of conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman shall be dismissed from the service. Unbecoming conduct.

Art. 34. All crimes not capital and all disorders and neglects, which officers and enlisted men may be guilty of, to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, though not mentioned in the foregoing articles are to be taken cognizance of by a general, summary or delinquency court-martial, as provided herein, according to the nature General conduct.

and degree of the offense, and punished at the discretion of such court.

Officer
arrested to have copy of charge.

Art. 35. When an officer is put in arrest for the purpose of trial, the officer by whose order he is arrested shall see that a copy of the charge on which he is to be tried is served upon him within ten days after his arrest, and that he is brought to trial within twenty days thereafter, unless the necessities of the service prevent such trial; and then he shall be brought to trial within thirty days after the expiration of said twenty days. If a copy of the charges be not served, or the arrested officer be not brought to trial, as herein required, the arrest shall cease. But officers released from arrest, under the provision of this article, may be tried, whenever the exigencies of the service shall permit, within twelve months after such release from arrest.

Judge
Advocate.

Art. 36. The Commander-in-Chief shall be competent to appoint a Judge Advocate for a general court-martial.

Court-martial.

Art. 37. When the requisite number of officers to form a general court-martial is not present at any station or detachment the Commander-in-Chief, shall in cases which require the cognizance of such court, thereupon order a court to be assembled at the nearest place where such trial can be conveniently held, and shall order the party accused, with necessary witnesses, to be transported to the place where the said court shall be assembled.

Superior officers to try.

Art. 38. Officers shall be tried only by general courts-martial; and no officer shall, when it can be avoided, be tried by officers inferior to him in rank.

Art. 39. The Judge Advocate shall administer to each member of a general court-martial, before they proceed upon any trial, the following oath:

Oath of judges.

“You, A. B., do swear that you will well and truly try and determine, according to evidence, the matter now before you, between the State of Washington and the prisoner to be tried, and that you will duly administer justice without partiality, favor, or affection, according to the provisions of the rules and articles for the government of the National Guard of Washington, and if any doubt should arise, not explained by said articles, then according to your conscience, the best of your understanding, and the custom of war in like cases; and you do further swear that you will not divulge the sentence of the court until it shall be published by the proper authority, except to the Judge Advocate; neither will you disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of the court-martial, unless required to give evidence thereof, as a witness, by a court of justice, in due course of law. So help you God."

Art. 40. When the oath has been administered to the members of a general court-martial, the president of the court shall administer to the Judge Advocate, or person officiating as such, an oath in the following form:

"You, A. B., do swear that you will not disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of the court-martial unless required to give evidence thereof, as a witness, by a court of justice, in due course of law; nor divulge the sentence of the court to any but the proper authority, until it shall be duly disclosed by the same. So help you God."

Oath of Judge
Advocate.

Art. 41. A court-martial may punish, at discretion, any person who uses any menacing words, signs, or gestures, in its presence, or who disturbs its proceedings by any riot or disorder.

Contempt.

Art. 42. All members of a court-martial are to behave with decency and calmness.

Art. 43. Members of a general court-martial may be challenged by a prisoner, but only for cause stated to the court. The court shall determine the relevancy and validity thereof, and shall not receive a challenge to more than one member at a time.

prisoner.

Art. 44. When a prisoner, arraigned before a general court-martial, from obstinacy and deliberate design, stands mute or answers foreign to the purpose, the court may proceed to trial and judgment as if the prisoner had pleaded not guilty.

Pleading.

Prosecutor. Art. 45. The Judge Advocate shall prosecute in the name of the State of Washington, but when the prisoner has made his plea, he shall so far consider himself counsel for the prisoner as to object to any leading question to any witness, and to any question to the prisoner the answer which might tend to incriminate himself.

Depositions. Art. 46. The depositions of witnesses residing beyond the limits of the State of Washington, if taken on reasonable notice to the opposite party and duly authenticated, may be read in evidence before such court.

Oath of witness. Art. 47. All persons who give evidence before a court-martial shall be examined on oath, or affirmation, in the following form: "You swear (or affirm) that the evidence you shall give, in the case now in hearing, shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. So help you God."

Continuances. Art. 48. A court-martial shall, for reasonable cause, grant a continuance to either party, for such time, and as often as may appear to be just."

Votes of court. Art. 49. Members of a court-martial, in giving their votes, shall begin with the youngest in commission.

Dismissals. Art. 50. No officer shall be dismissed, or discharged from the service except by order of the Commander-in-Chief, or by sentence of a general court-martial.

Suspension. Art. 51. When a court-martial suspends an officer from command it may also suspend his pay and emoluments for the same time, according to the nature of his offense.

Jeopardy. Art. 52. No person shall be tried a second time for the same offense.

Limitation of actions. Art. 53. No person shall be liable to be tried and punished by a general court-martial for any offense which appears to have been committed more than two years before the issuing of the order for such trial, unless by reason of having absented himself, or of some other manifest impediment, he shall not have been amenable to justice within that period.

Execution of sentence. Art. 54. No sentence of a general court-martial shall be carried into execution until the same shall have been approved by the Commander-in-Chief.

Art. 55. In time of peace no sentence of a court-martial, directing the dismissal of an officer, shall be carried into execution, until it shall have been confirmed by the Commander-in-Chief.

Dismissal in time of peace.

Art. 56. Every Judge Advocate, or person acting as such, at any general court-martial, shall, with as much expedition as the opportunity of time and distance of place may admit, forward the original proceedings and sentence of such court to the Adjutant General of the National Guard of Washington.

Proceedings of court-martial.

Art. 57. Every party tried by a general court-martial shall, upon demand thereof made by himself or by any person in his behalf, be entitled to a copy of the proceedings and sentence of such court.

Copy of proceedings furnished accused.

Art. 58. A court of inquiry to examine into the nature of any transaction of, or accusation or imputation against, any officer or enlisted man may be ordered by the Commander-in-Chief.

Court of inquiry.

Art. 59. The recorder of a court of inquiry shall administer to the members the following oath:

“You shall well and truly examine and inquire, according to the evidence, into the matter now before you, without partiality, favor, affection, prejudice, or hope of reward. So help you God.”

Oath of members.

After which the president of the court shall administer to the recorder the following oath:

“You, A. B., do swear that you will, according to your best abilities, accurately and impartially record the proceedings of the court and the evidence to be given in the case in hearing. So help you God.”

Oath of recorder.

Art. 60. A court of inquiry, and the recorder thereof, shall have the same power to summon and examine witnesses as is given to general courts-martial and the Judge Advocates thereof. Such witnesses shall take the same oath which is taken by witnesses before general courts-martial, and the party accused shall be permitted to examine and cross-examine them, so as fully to investigate the circumstances in question.

Powers of court.

Opinion. Art. 61. A court of inquiry shall not give an opinion on the merits of the case inquired of unless specially ordered to do so.

Authentic-ation of proceedings. Art. 62. The proceedings of a court of inquiry must be authenticated by the signatures of the recorder and the president thereof and delivered to the Adjutant General.

Inquiry proceedings
as evidence. Art. 63. The proceedings of a court of inquiry may be admitted as evidence by a court-martial, in cases not extending to the dismissal of an officer:

Provided, That the circumstances are such that oral testimony can not be obtained.

Oldest
officer
commands. Art. 64. If, upon marches, guards, or in quarters, different organizations of the National Guard of Washington, happen to join or do duty together, the officer highest in rank of the line by commission, there on duty or in quarters, shall command the whole, and give orders for what is needful in the service, unless otherwise specially directed by the Commander-in-Chief, according to the nature of the case.

Death of enlisted man. Art. 65. In case of death of any enlisted man, the commanding officer of his troop, battery, or company shall immediately secure all his effects then in camp or quarters, and shall, in the presence of two other officers, make an inventory thereof, which he shall transmit to the office of the Adjutant General.

These articles to be read. Art. 66. The foregoing articles shall be read and published, once in every six months, to every regiment, troop, or company in the service of the State of Washington, and shall be duly observed and obeyed by all officers and enlisted men in said service.

Limit of punishment. Art. 67. Whenever, by any of the Rules and Articles provided by this act for the government of the National Guard of Washington, the punishment on conviction of any military offense is left to the discretion of the court-martial, the punishment therefor shall not, in time of peace, be in excess of a limit which the Commander-in-Chief may prescribe.

Art. 68. Dismissal of an officer from the service as the result of a conviction by a court-martial shall incapacitate him from holding any military commission in the National Guard of Washington, and he shall thereby be disqualified to hold any office or employment in the service of the State of Washington.

Dismissal
disqualifies from civil office.

Art. 69. Upon conviction by a general court-martial for any of the offenses in this act prescribed, an enlisted man shall become ineligible for one year thereafter to take an examination for commission in the National Guard of Washington.

Art. 70. Dishonorable discharge of an enlisted man shall operate to disfranchise him, disqualify him from holding any position in the National Guard and from holding any public office in this state.

Discharge
disfranchises.

SEC. 75. Summary Courts.

The summary courts established by this act shall have jurisdiction over offenses committed by enlisted men when on active duty. The commanding officer of each garrison, fort, or other place, regiment or corps, detached battalion, or company, or other detachment, in the National Guard of Washington shall have power to appoint for such place or command, or in his discretion for each battalion thereof, a summary court to consist of one officer to be designated by him, before whom enlisted men may be tried for offenses committed while on active duty; such enlisted men must be brought to trial within twenty-four hours of the time of the arrest, or as soon thereafter as practicable; but such summary court may be appointed and the officer designated by superior authority when by him deemed desirable; and the officer holding the summary court shall have power to administer oaths and to hear and determine such cases, and when satisfied of the guilt of the accused adjudge the punishment to be inflicted, which said punishment shall not be in excess of a limit that the Commander-in-Chief may prescribe, and in the case of a non-commissioned officer, reduction to the ranks in addition thereto; there shall be a summary court record kept at the headquarters of the proper command, in which shall be entered a record of all cases heard and determined and the action had thereon; and no sentence adjudged by said summary court shall be executed until it shall have been approved by the officer appointing the court, or by the officer commanding for the time being: Provided, That when but one commissioned officer is present with a command he shall hear and finally determine such cases.

The commanding officers authorized to approve the sentences of summary courts and superior authority shall have power to remit or mitigate the same.

SEC. 76. Delinquency Courts.

Delinquency
courts.

Delinquency courts established by this act shall have jurisdiction over offenses, not otherwise provided for herein, committed by enlisted men of the National Guard.

A delinquency court shall consist of one commissioned officer. The commanding officer of each regiment or separate battalion or separate company shall appoint such delinquency courts as may be necessary: Provided, That when different branches of the service are located at one station, the Commander-in-Chief may appoint a delinquency court for that station, which court shall have exclusive jurisdiction over delinquency court cases for the organizations at such station. Any officer appointed as such delinquency court may be relieved from such duty at the pleasure of the appointing authority. Proceedings pending before the court shall not abate or be suspended by reason of such relief and an officer appointed as such court, shall have full power and authority to do and perform all acts necessary to complete any proceedings pending before the court and to carry into effect any judgment, mandate, order or process made or issued by such court. The court shall be held at such times and in such places as the court may direct. The court may appoint and at any time remove a clerk thereof. Clerks so appointed shall receive such compensation as may be fixed by the Commander-in-Chief in orders. The court shall keep a docket showing the cases tried and all proceedings therein, but the evidence taken need not be recorded.

SEC. 77. Marshal of Delinquency Court.

The delinquency court officer may in his discretion appoint by warrant under his official signature, and at any time remove, one or more marshals, each of whom shall before entering upon his duties, execute a bond to the state in the penal sum of $500.00 with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the officer appointing him, for the faithful performance of his duties and the prompt payment of all monies collected by him. Each marshal shall perform the usual duties of such office, and shall execute any process, mandate, or order issued by such court, and perform all acts and duties by this act imposed on or authorized to be performed by any sheriff, marshal or constable. A bond given as herein provided may be prosecuted for breach of the conditions thereof, in the name of the State of Washington, and all monies recovered shall be paid to the military fund of the state.

Marshal of delinquency court.

SEC. 78. Oath.

Before entering upon his duties, the delinquency court officer shall take an oath of office to the effect that he will well and truly try and determine, according to the evidence, all matters between the State of Washington and any person or persons who shall come before the court to which he is appointed. The oath need be administered but once. It may be taken before any officer authorized by law to take acknowledgments of deeds, or before any commissioned officer of the National Guard of Washington. The oath shall be filed with the officer appointing such court.

Oath of delinquency court officer.

SEC. 89. Contempt of Court.

Any person who shall be guilty of disorderly, contemptuous or insolent behavior in, or who shall use any insulting, or contemptuous, or indecorous language or expression to or before any military court, or any member of such court, in open court, tending to interrupt its proceedings, or to impair the respect due to its authority, or who shall commit any breach of the peace, or make any noise or other disturbance, directly tending to interrupt its proceedings, may be committed by warrant under the hand of the president of the court, to the jail of the city or county in which said court shall sit, there to remain without bail in close confinement, for a definite time not exceeding three days.

Contempt of court.

SEC. 90. Fees and Mileage.

Fees and mileage.

Fees and mileage allowed for the service of process and for civilian witnesses shall be the same as in civil actions. All expenditures necessary to carry the provision of this act into effect are hereby authorized to be incurred, and paid out of the appropriation for the maintenance of the National Guard.

SEC. 91. Military Rifle Ranges.

Military rifle ranges.

Under the direction of the Commander-in-Chief the Adjutant General shall, at the expense and in the name of the state, buy or lease, establish, equip, maintain and control such rifle ranges, and issue such ammunition, transportation and supplies as may be necessary to provide each organization of the National Guard of Washington with adequate means and opportunity for thorough instruction in rifle practice.

SEC. 92. Prizes for Marksmanship.

Prizes for marksmanship.

The Adjutant General is authorized to expend from the appropriation for the maintenance of the National Guard the sum of $500.00 per annum for prizes for marksmanship in military rifle and revolver firing under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Commander-in-Chief.

SEC. 93. Articles of War and Regulations of United States Army.

Articles of war and regulations of
U. S. army.

Whenever any portion of the militia of the state shall be on duty under or pursuant to orders of the Commander-in-Chief, or whenever any part of the militia shall be ordered to assemble for duty in time of war, insurrection, invasion or imminent danger thereof, breach of the peace, tumult, riot, public danger or resistance to process, the Articles of War and Regulations for the government of the Army of the United States, so far as applicable and not in conflict with any rule or regulation herein prescribed, and with such modifications as the Commander-in-Chief may prescribe, shall be considered in force and regarded as a part of this act until such forces shall be duly relieved from such duty. No punishment under this section, extending to the taking of life, shall in any case be inflicted except in time of actual war, invasion or insurrection declared to exist by proclamation of the President of the United States or by the Governor of this state, and then only after the approval of such sentence by the Commander-in-Chief.

SEC. 94. Rules and Regulations of National Guard.

The Commander-in-Chief shall promulgate in general orders such rules and regulations and amendments thereto not inconsistent with this act as he may deem necessary. Such rules and regulations, when so promulgated, shall have the same force and effect as though herein enacted. The rules and regulations governing the National Guard of Washington, and in force at the time this act goes into effect, and not in conflict herewith, shall remain in full force and effect until annulled or modified by the Commander-in-Chief.

Rules and regulations of National Guard; how promulgated.

SEC. 95. Exemption from Jury Duty and Poll Tax.

Every commissioned officer and every enlisted man of the National Guard of this state shall be exempt from all jury duty and from the payment of poll tax during the term of his service in the National Guard. Every person employing an enlisted man of the National Guard of Washington having not less than six months' continuous service therein, and having so continuously employed him for a period of not less than six months prior to the time of claiming such exemption shall be exempt from jury duty: Provided, That if such National Guardsman is employed by a firm or corporation, one member only of such firm or officer of such corporation shall be exempt from jury duty for each National Guardsman so employed: And provided further, That this exemption shall extend only to members of firms and to officers of corporations actively engaged in conducting the business of such corporation, and shall not extend to directors and stockholders in such corporation merely as such.

Exemptions from jury duty and poll tax.

SEC. 97. Regulations Governing Armories, Rifle Ranges, Etc.

Regulation of armories and rifle ranges.

The Commander-in-Chief shall promulgate in general orders such regulations for the use of armories, rifle ranges, and other real property owned or leased by the state for military purposes as may be proper: Provided, That no armory shall be used for any other than a strictly military purpose without the recommendation of the officer in charge thereof: And provided further, That all civilian rifle clubs affiliated with the National Rifle Association of America shall be permitted the use of the rifle ranges in the armories owned by the state at least one night each week under such regulations as the Commander-in-Chief may direct: And provided further, That one room shall be set aside for the exclusive use of all veteran organizations subject to the direction of the officer in charge thereof: And provided further, That all revenue derived from rentals of these armories shall be turned in to the State Treasurer under such regulations as the Commander-in-Chief may direct and credited to the military fund.

SEC. 98. Lease of Property by the National Guard.

Lease of property by National Guard.

All armories and rifle ranges and all property, real or personal, used by the National Guard and not owned by the State of Washington or the United States, shall be leased or rented to the state upon such terms and conditions as shall be approved by the Commander-in-Chief.

SEC. 99. Annual Board of Survey.

Annual Board of Survey.

On or before the 1st day of December of each year and as often as may be necessary, the Commander-in-Chief shall order and convene a general board of survey, which board shall pass on all shortages of military property and on all property unfit for military purposes and perform such further duties as shall properly come before such board.

SEC. 100. Wrongful Taking of Government Property from Armory.

Wrongful taking of property
from armory.

Any enlisted man taking any government property from an armory without the written consent of his company commander shall be considered as appropriating government property to his own use and may be tried in any court of competent jurisdiction and on conviction thereof shall suffer a fine in any sum, not exceeding $100.00, together with the cost of such government property, or imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding sixty (60) days, or shall suffer both such fine and imprisonment.
