

CHAPTER 102.

[S. B. 332.]

AUTHORIZING THE SELECTION OF LIEU LANDS.

AN ACT relating to lands granted to the state for common schools and for educational, penal, reformatory, charitable, capitol building and other purposes; providing for the completion of such grants and the relinquishment of certain granted lands; and making an appropriation.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

(See Enabling Act.)

SECTION 1. For the purpose of obtaining from the United States indemnity or lieu lands for such lands granted to the state for common schools, educational, penal, reformatory, charitable, capitol building or other purposes, as have been or may be lost to the state, or the title to or use or possession of which is claimed by the United States or by others claiming by, through or under the United States, by reason of any of the causes entitling the state to select other lands in lieu thereof, the inclusion of the same in any reservation by or under authority of the United States, or any other appropriation or disposition of the same by the United States, whether such lands are now surveyed or unsurveyed, the commissioner of public lands, with the advice and approval of the board of state land commissioners and the attorney general, is authorized and empowered to enter into an agreement or agreements, on behalf of the state, with the proper officer or officers of the United States for the relinquishment of any such lands and the selection in lieu thereof, under the provisions of this act, of lands of the United States of equal area and value.

Land commissioner to make agreement for lieu land.

Examination and appraisal.

SEC. 2. Upon the making of any such agreement, the board of state land commissioners shall be empowered and it shall be their duty to cause such examination and appraisal to be made as will determine the area and value, as nearly as may be, of the lands lost to the state, or the title to, use or possession of which is claimed by the United States by reason of the causes mentioned in section 1 of this act, and proposed to be relinquished to the United States, and shall cause an examination and appraisal to be made of any lands which may be designated by the officers of the United States as subject to selection by the state in lieu of the lands aforesaid, to the end that the state shall obtain lands in lieu thereof of equal area and value.

SEC. 3. Whenever the title to any lands selected under the provisions of this act shall become vested in the State of Washington by the acceptance and approval of the lists of lands so selected, or other proper action of the United States, the governor, on behalf of the State of Washington, shall execute and deliver to the United States a deed of conveyance of the lands of the state relinquished under the provisions of this act, which deed shall convey to and vest in the United States all the right, title and interest of the State of Washington therein.

Transfer of title to United States.

SEC. 4. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act, the sum of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000), or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated from the general fund to be disbursed upon vouchers approved by the commissioner of public lands.

Appropriation
$30,000.00.

Passed the Senate February 26, 1913.

Passed the House March 7, 1913.

Approved by the governor March 18, 1913.

CHAPTER 103.
