[H. B. 191.]

STATE PARKS.

AN ACT relating to parks and parkways and amending sections 10942 and 10943 of Remington's Compiled Statutes, and declaring that this act shall take effect immediately.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. That Section 10942 of Remington's Compiled Statutes be amended to read as follows: Section 10942. The state parks committee shall have power:

(1) To have the care, charge, control and supervision of all parks and parkways heretofore or hereafter acquired or set aside by the state for park or parkway purposes.

(2) To plant trees along public highways in the non-forested or other area of the state, and to care for the same.

(3) To adopt, promulgate, issue and enforce rules and regulations pertaining to the use, care and administration of state parks and parkways. Every such rule and regulation shall become effective ten days after its adoption. The committee shall cause a copy of the rules and regulations to be kept posted in a conspicuous place in every state park to which the same are applicable, but failure to post or keep any rule or regulation posted shall be no defense to any prosecution for the violation thereof.

(4) To permit the use of state parks and parkways by campers and the public generally under such rules and regulations as shall be prescribed as aforesaid.

(4½) To clear, drain, grade, seed and otherwise improve and or beautify any parks and parkways, and to erect structures, buildings, fireplaces, comfort stations and build and maintain paths, trails and roadways through and on parks and parkways.

(5) To grant concessions in state parks and parkways, upon such rentals, fees or percentage of income or profits and for such terms, in no event longer than five years, and upon such conditions as shall be approved by the committee. No concession shall be granted which will prevent the public from having free access to the scenic attractions of any park or parkway, but the committee may in its discretion itself impose fees upon campers upon state parks and parkways. All fees received by the committee shall be deposited in the state park and parkway fund.

(6) To employ such assistance as it may deem necessary.

(7) To select and to purchase, lease or in any manner acquire for and in the name of the State of Washington such tracts of land, including shore and tide lands, for parks or parkway purposes as it shall deem proper, subject to the following provisions: (a) No tract, except tracts acquired by donation or bequest, and tracts which abut upon a public highway, actually constructed or located or projected shall be acquired unless the acquisition thereof be specifically authorized by the legislature. (b) If the committee cannot acquire any tract which it is authorized to acquire, at a price it deems reasonable, then the committee is hereby vested with power to obtain title thereto, or any part thereof, by condemnation. Such condemnation shall be conducted by the attorney general and the proceedings therefor, in so far as practicable, shall be any which now is or may hereafter be authorized for the condemnation of rights of way for state highways.

(8) To cooperate or join with the United States, any county or counties, city or cities of this state, or in any matter pertaining to the acquisition for park or parkway purposes of any area within this state not within the city limits of any city, and in the care, control or supervision of any park or parkway now or hereafter acquired which shall be so situated, and, when deemed advisable by the committee, to enter any contract in writing with any such public organization or organizations, its or their officer or officers or board or boards, to that end. All parks or parkways, to the acquisition or improvement of which the state shall have contributed or in whose care, control or supervision the state shall participate pursuant to the provisions of this section, shall in so far as practicable be governed by the provisions of this act, including the penal provisions thereof.

(9) To investigate and report to the governor on or before the first day of January next preceding the regular session of the legislature regarding any proposed park or parkway, and in such report to make recommendations respecting other regions in the State of Washington desirable for state park or parkway purposes, either on account of their historical interest, their natural beauty or otherwise.

SEC. 2. That Section 10943 of Remington's Compiled Statutes be amended to read as follows:

Section 10943. The state parks committee shall also have the power to receive in trust any money donated or bequeathed to it, and to carry out the terms, if any, of such donation or bequest, or, in the absence of such terms, to expend the same as it may deem advisable for park or parkway purposes. Money so received shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the State Parks and Parkway Fund.

BUDGET FOR CITIES.

AN ACT providing for a budget system for making and controlling estimates, tax levies and expenditures in cities of the first class having a population of less than three hundred thousand, and in cities and towns of the second and third classes, and providing penalties for the violation thereof.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. On or before the second Monday in July of each year the auditor of each city of the first class having a population of less than three hundred thousand and of each city and town of the second and third classes shall notify in writing every official, elective or appointive, of such city or town, in charge of an office, department, division, service or institution to file with such auditor on or before the second Monday in August thereafter detailed and itemized estimates, both of the probable revenue, if any, from sources other than taxation, and of all expenditures required by such office, department, division, service or institution for the ensuing fiscal year. The city council in cities having commission form of government and the mayor in all others shall submit to the auditor detailed estimates of all expenditures proposed to be financed from the proceeds of bonds or
