

a wireless telegraph station or stations for the handling of official and commercial messages, and for communicating with wireless land and shore stations, under such regulations as the corporate authorities of such city may prescribe and in accordance with the statutes and regulations of the Federal Government.

Passed the House February 26, 1923.

Passed the Senate March 6, 1923.

Approved by the Governor March 14, 1923.

CHAPTER 93.

[H. B. 200.]

LIVESTOCK.

An Act relating to livestock running at large, providing for the modification and vacation of livestock districts and amending Remington's Compiled Statutes by adding thereto a new section to be known as section 3070-1.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. That Remington's Compiled Statutes be amended by adding thereto a new section to be known as section 3070-1 to read as follows:

Section 3070-1. Whenever the board of county commissioners of any county have prohibited the running at large of livestock within any territory in the county, as provided in the preceding sections, it shall have the power to change or modify the boundaries of or to exclude therefrom lands embraced within such territory or to vacate and set aside the order designating such territory, upon the filing of a petition therefor, the publication of notice of hearing such petition and a hearing had thereon in the manner provided in section 3069, and if the board of county commissioners shall determine to change the Running at large prohibited.

See Rem. Comp. Stat. § 3069; Pierce's Code § 1949.

boundaries of, or exclude lands from or to vacate the order designating such territory as prayed for in the petition, it shall make an order to that effect which shall be entered upon the records and published in a newspaper having general circulation in such county for four successive weeks, or be posted in three public places in such territory.

Passed the House February 26, 1923.

Passed the Senate March 6, 1923.

Approved by the Governor March 14, 1923.

CHAPTER 94.

[H. B. 132.]

COUNTY ROAD WARRANTS.

An Act relating to and validating county warrants drawn on the General Road and Bridge Fund and Road District Fund.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. All warrants outstanding, heretofore issued by any county of the sixth class in this state for road work in such county during the year 1920, and not exceeding fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000.00), against either the General Road and Bridge Fund of the county, or against the District Road Fund of the county, which warrants are invalid because of lack of authority of the board of county commissioners to create the indebtedness, are hereby validated, and the county treasurer of such county is hereby authorized and directed to pay such warrants from any money available in the funds upon which said warrants are drawn.

Sixth class
counties.

Warrants, validated.

Passed the House February 26, 1923.

Passed the Senate March 6, 1923.

Approved by the Governor March 14, 1923.