

CHAPTER 129.

[H. B. 585.]

PUBLIC LANDS: EMERGENCY CONSERVATION WORK.

AN ACT prescribing the duty of the commissioner of public lands with regard to the reimbursement of the United States government for emergency conservation work in cases where the state realizes a profit from such work.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. From the effective date of this act it is hereby made the duty of the state commissioner of public lands to determine to the best of his ability if the State of Washington has realized a direct profit in the sale of any state lands or products therefrom as the result of any work which may have been done upon said lands or products under any project carried on pursuant to an act of congress entitled "An Act for the relief of unemployment through the performance of useful public work, and for other purposes," approved March 31, 1933.

Duties of state commissioner of public lands.

Profit in sale.

Act of congress.

SEC. 2. If the commissioner determine that the state has realized a profit as the result of such work he shall fix and determine the amount thereof and his determination shall be final and conclusive. He shall then determine what portion of such amount is necessary to reimburse the United States government for moneys expended by it under such act for work so done on lands or products so sold which amount is to be computed at the rate of one dollar ($1) per man per day for the time spent in such work on the lands or products so sold: Provided, That said sum shall neither exceed one-half of the profits so realized nor the value of the land sold at the rate of three dollars ($3) per acre. This determination of the commissioner shall be final and conclusive.

Determine amount of profit.

Portion necessary to reimburse U. S. government.

Report to legislature.

Nature of report.

Appropriation.

SEC. 3. It shall then be the duty of the commissioner to report to the legislature at its next general session the sums, if any, which he shall have computed under section 2 of this act. In this report he shall state the nature and character of the lands or products sold with a reference to constitutional or statutory limitations upon the proceeds therefrom so that the legislature may, if not prohibited by the constitution, make a proper appropriation under the laws of the State of Washington for the reimbursement of the United States government in the amount or amounts determined by the commissioner as necessary for said reimbursement under section 2 of this act.

Passed the House March 10, 1935.

Passed the Senate March 13, 1935.

Approved by the Governor March 20, 1935.
