

CHAPTER 51.

[S. H. B. 332.]

WASHINGTON NATIONAL GUARD.

AN ACT relating to the State Militia, providing for organization, regulation, maintenance and discipline of the National Guard of Washington, and amending section 62 of chapter 134 of the Laws of 1909, the same being section 8508 of Remington's Revised Statutes, and declaring that this act shall take effect immediately.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Amends
§ 8508, Rem.
Rev. Stat.
(§ 3765-54
P. C.)

SECTION 1. That section 62 of chapter 134 of the Laws of 1909, the same being section 8508 of Remington's Revised Statutes, be amended to read as follows:

Authority of commanding officer.

Section 62. The commanding officer at any drill, parade, encampment or other duty may cause those under his command to perform any military duty he shall require, and may place in arrest for the time of such drill, parade, encampment or other duty any officer or enlisted man who shall disobey the orders of his superior officer, or in any way interrupt the exercises, and any other person or persons who shall trespass on the camp grounds, parade grounds, rifle range or armory, or in any way or manner interrupt or molest the orderly discharge of duty of those on duty, or who shall disturb or prevent the passage of troops going to or returning from any regularly ordered tour of duty; and he shall prohibit and prevent the sale or use of all spirituous liquors, wines, ale or beer, or holding of huckster or auction sales, and all gambling within the limits of such parade or encampment, and remove disorderly persons found within the limits of such parade or encampment. During the period of any encampment, or field training exercise the commanding officer of such encampment or field training exercise may abate, as common nuisances, any disorderly places and prohibit the sale of intoxicating or spirituous liquors or beverages, within one mile of such encampment or field training exercise. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section, or any order issued in pursuance thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and may be delivered at or before the termination of such duty to any peace officer, and shall be brought before the nearest court of competent jurisdiction for trial, and upon conviction shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars, or imprisoned not more than thirty days, or shall suffer both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 2. This act is necessary for the immediate support of the state government and its existing public institutions and shall take effect immediately.

Effective immediately.

Passed the House February 19, 1937.

Passed the Senate March 3, 1937.

Approved by the Governor March 10, 1937.
