CHAPTER 63.

[H. B. 200.]

BOUNTIES ON PREDATORY ANIMALS.

AN ACT providing for and regulating the payment of certain bounties for the killing of certain predatory animals, and defining the duties of the director of game in connection therewith; providing for certain additional license fees, amending section 2, chapter 59, Laws of 1935, and section 4, chapter 59, Laws of 1935.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. That section 2, chapter 59, Laws of 1935, be amended to read as follows:

Section 2. Whenever any such person to whom such permit is issued shall trap, kill or take any cougar, lynx, bobcat, or coyote, in accordance with such permit and within the area fixed by such permit, and shall furnish proof thereof to the said director, he shall be paid a bounty of fifty dollars ($50) for each cougar, and five dollars ($5) for each lynx or bobcat, and two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) for each adult coyote and one dollar ($1) for each coyote pup from any monies which may be appropriated by the legislature for the payment of the same. All monies appropriated for such pur-

Section 4. It shall be unlawful for any person to hunt or kill any deer, elk, mountain goat, mountain sheep, or moose, without first having procured from the director of game a metal tag to be known as a "big game seal" which metal tag shall be procured in addition to any other license to hunt game animals required by law. Such metal tag shall be in the possession of all persons while engaged in hunting deer, elk, mountain goat, mountain sheep, or moose. Such metal tag shall be prepared by and under the supervision of the director of game, and shall bear the name "department of game of the State of Washington" and the year for which it is issued, and any other distinguishing mark deemed necessary by the director of game, and shall be void after the year stamped thereon. Such metal tag shall be attached to the carcass of any deer, elk, mountain goat, mountain sheep, or moose killed by any licensee. The fee for issuing and procuring such metal tag shall be fifty cents (50¢) and shall be paid in addition to all other license fees provided by law.
