APPOINTMENT OF INTERIM COMMITTEE ON GAME.

AN Act relating to the Department of Game; providing for the appointment of an interim committee and prescribing its powers and duties; and making an appropriation.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. The successful policies of the state with respect to game management have resulted in seasonal deer and elk concentrations within certain agricultural and horticultural areas of the state giving rise to numerous damage inflictions upon cultivated agricultural and horticultural crops, for which no adequate mode of relief or prevention has been provided. The public has evidenced popular favor of an abundant supply of all species of wild life and will not be subserved by retrenching in the matter of wild life conservation or propagation. It appears to be the consensus of the many diversified and interested groups who have express opinions on the problem that prevention of damage by wild life rather than compensation for damage after it has occurred is the most practical, equitable and economically sound method of solution. The limited data and information available on the aggregate Need for study declared.
