CHAPTER 229.

[S. B. 151.]

RADIO STATIONS.

AN ACT relating to the broadcast of defamatory matter over the facilities of radio or television broadcasting stations.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. Where the owner, licensee, or operator of a radio or television broadcasting station, or the agents or employees thereof, has required a person speaking over said station to submit a written copy of his script prior to such broadcast and has cut such speaker off the air as soon as reasonably possible in the event such speaker deviates from such written script, said owner, licensee, or operator, or the agents or employees thereof, shall not be liable for any damages, for any defamatory statement published or uttered by such person in or as a part of such radio or television broadcast unless such defamatory statements are contained in said written script. Station not liable for deviations from written script.

SEC. 2. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as limiting the liability of any speaker or his sponsor or sponsors for defamatory statements made by such speaker in or as a part of any such broadcast. Liability of speaker or sponsor not limited.

SEC. 3. This act shall not be applicable to or affect any cause of action existing at the time this act becomes effective. Act not retroactive.
