CHAPTER 262.

[H. B. 227.]

ANNUITIES FOR PERSONNEL OF STATE EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS.

AN ACT relating to old age annuities for teachers and employees of state educational institutions, and amending section 1, chapter 223, Laws of 1937 (section 4543-11, Remington's Revised Statutes, Supplement).

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Amendments.

SECTION 1. Section 1, chapter 223, Laws of 1937 (section 4543-11, Remington's Revised Statutes, Supplement), is amended to read as follows:

Boards to assist in purchase.

Section 1. The Board of Regents of the University of Washington, the Board of Regents of the State College of Washington, and the Boards of Trustees of the State Colleges of Education are authorized and empowered to assist the faculties and such other employees of their respective institutions as the Boards of Regents and Boards of Trustees may designate, to purchase old age annuities under such rules and regulations as the Regents and Trustees of said institutions may prescribe: Provided, That in no case the Regents or Trustees shall in any one (1) year pay more than one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the annual premium of any individual, nor an amount in excess of five per cent (5%) of the individual's salary, nor render any assistance in the purchase of an annuity for a teacher or any other designated employee who has not taught at, or been in the service of the contributing institution two or more years: Provided, further, That when county agricultural agents, home demonstration agents, 4-H club agents, and assistant county agricultural agents are paid jointly by the State College of Washington and the several counties, the State College of Washington may match the amounts paid personally by the various agents but not to exceed five per cent (5%) of the combined salary paid from funds of the State College of Washington and the several counties: Provided, further, That all funds received for and derived from the purchase of said annuities shall be placed in a special fund.

Amount of payment
