education.
Powers and duties.

(1) Approve the preparatory entrance requirements for the University of Washington, Washington State University, and the state colleges of education;

(2) Approve courses for the state colleges of education, for the departments of education of the University of Washington, and Washington State University, and for all normal training departments of higher institutions within the state which may be accredited and whose graduates may become entitled to receive teachers' certificates or life diplomas;

(3) Investigate the character of the work required to be performed as a condition of entrance to and graduation from colleges of education, colleges, universities, and other institutions of higher education, and prepare an accredited list of those higher institutions of learning of this and other states whose graduates may be awarded teachers' certificates by the superintendent of public instruction without examination: Provided, That the entrance and graduation requirements of all colleges and universities whose diplomas are accredited must be equal to those of the University of Washington and Washington State University; and the requirements for normal schools shall be equal to the advanced course of the colleges of education of this state;

(4) Supervise the issuance of normal diplomas and teachers' certificates, and determine the types and kinds of certificates necessary for the several departments of the common schools;

(5) Examine and accredit secondary schools: Provided, That no public high school or private academy shall be placed upon the accredited list so long as secret societies are allowed to exist among its students;

(6) Prepare an outline course or courses of study for the kindergarten, elementary school, junior high school; and high school departments of the common schools, and prescribe such rules for the general government of the common schools, as shall secure regularity of attendance, prevent truancy, secure efficiency, and promote the true interest of the common schools;

(7) Prepare a uniform series of questions to be used by the county superintendents in the examination of teachers, and determine rules and regulations for conducting the same, and prepare questions for the examination of applicants for state elementary certificates, and life diplomas;

(8) Prepare answers to all examination questions which are prepared under the supervision of the board;

(9) Prepare uniform questions or provide other bases for use in the examination of the pupils completing the course of study in any division of the common schools;

(10) Arrange such courses and adopt and enforce such regulations as will place the state institutions in harmonious relations with the common schools and with each other, and unify the work of the public school system;

(11) Prepare courses of instruction in physical education, and direct and enforce such instruction throughout the state, with the assistance of the school officials, principals, county superintendents, boards of directors of the public schools, boards of trustees of the state colleges of education, and boards of regents of the University of Washington, and of Washington State University;

(12) Hear and decide appeals as provided by law;

(13) Define the meaning of the word "education" insofar as the state's obligation is concerned, as it appears in article 9, section 1 of the state Constitution.

SEC. 2. Section 1, chapter 203, Laws of 1941 and RCW 28.05.050 are each amended to read as follows:

To promote good citizenship and a greater interest in and better understanding of our national and state institutions and system of government, the state board of education shall prescribe a one-year course of study in the history and government of the United States, and the equivalent of a one-semester course of study in state of Washington history and government. No person shall be graduated from any eighth grade or high school without completing such courses of study.

There shall also be a one quarter or semester course in either Washington state history and government, or Pacific Northwest History and government in the curriculum of all teachers' colleges and teachers' courses in all institutions of education. No person shall be graduated from any of said schools without completing such course of study: Provided, That no person who has not completed said course of study shall be granted the standard general teaching certificate until he has passed an examination
