

CHAPTER 11.

[S. B. 22.]

WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY—TUITION AND FEES.

AN Act Relating to education; authorizing the board of regents of Washington State University to establish, charge and collect general tuition and other fees from students of the university; providing for the disposition of such fees; amending section 1, chapter 164, Laws of 1921, as last amended by section 1, chapter 73, Laws of 1949, and RCW 28.80.030; and amending section 2, chapter 164, Laws of 1921, as last amended by section 1, chapter 185, Laws of 1935, and RCW 28.80.040.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. Section 1, chapter 164, Laws of 1921, as last amended by section 1, chapter 73, Laws of 1949, and RCW 28.80.030 are each amended to read as follows:

RCW 28.80.030 amended.

The board of regents of Washington State University shall charge to and collect from each of the students registering therein such general tuition fee and other fees as it shall in its discrimination determine: Provided, That such fees for semesters other than summer session shall be in at least the following amounts:

Washington state university. Tuition and fees.

(1) Resident students

General tuition fee and other fees in an aggregate amount of not less than one hundred five dollars: Provided, That the total of the general tuition fees together with other fees shall not exceed an amount of three hundred dollars in any one year exclusive of the summer session.

(2) Nonresident students

General tuition fee and other fees in an aggregate amount of not less than two hundred twenty-five dollars.

The term "resident students" as used in this section shall mean full-time students who have been domiciled in this state at least one year prior to the date of their registration and the children of federal employees residing within the state and children and spouses of staff members of the university. The term "nonresident students" shall mean all full-time students other than resident students.

The term "general tuition fees" as used in this section shall mean the general tuition fee charged students registered at the university for semesters other than summer session. The term "other fees" shall include all fees for summer sessions, short courses, experimental station work, correspondence or extension courses, and individual instruction and student deposit, disciplinary, laboratory, library, gymnasium, health fees, and such other fees as may be established by such board from time to time. Such term "other fees" shall not include fees, charges, rentals and other income derived from any or all revenue-producing lands, buildings and facilities of the university heretofore or hereafter acquired, constructed or installed, including but not limited to income from rooms, dormitories, dining rooms, hospitals, infirmaries, housing or student activity buildings, vehicular parking facilities, land, or the appurtenances thereon.

amended.

SEC. 2. Section 2, chapter 164, Laws of 1921, as last amended by section 1, chapter 185, Laws of 1935, and RCW 28.80.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Disposition of fees.

Within thirty-five days from the date of collection thereof, all such general tuition fees shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the Washington State University building account until June 30, 1963 and thereafter as follows: To the Washington State University bond retirement fund, one-half of such general tuition fees or such larger portion as may be necessary to prevent a default in the payments required to be made out of such bond retirement fund; the remainder thereof to the Washington State University building account.

The sum so credited to the Washington State University building account shall be expended by the board of regents for buildings, equipment, or maintenance on the campus of Washington State University as may be deemed most advisable and for the best interests of the university, except for any sums transferred as authorized by law. Expenditures so made shall be accounted for in accordance with existing law and shall not be expended until appropriated by the legislature.

The sum so credited to the Washington State University bond retirement fund shall be used to pay and secure the payment of the principal of and interest on tuition fee bonds issued by the university, except for any sums which may be transferred out of such fund as authorized by law.

SEC. 3. Upon and after the effective date of this act the account within the general fund in the state treasury known as the "State College of Washington Building Account" shall be known and referred to as the "Washington State University Building Account." This section shall not be construed as effecting any change in such fund other than the name thereof and as otherwise provided by law.
