CORRECTIONAL INSTITUTION FOR JUVENILES.

AN ACT relating to the establishment and construction of a correctional institution for juveniles committed to the department of institutions; designating the site therefor; amending section 1, chapter 183, Laws of 1961 and RCW 72.19.010; amending section 2, chapter 183, Laws of 1961 (uncodified); and adding new sections to chapter 72.19 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. Section 1, chapter 183, Laws of 1961 and RCW 72.19.010 are each amended to read as follows:

RCW 72.19.010 amended.

There is hereby established under the supervision and control of the director of institutions a correctional institution for the confinement and rehabilitation of juveniles committed by the juvenile courts to the department of institutions. Such institution shall be situated upon publicly owned lands within King county, under the supervision of the department of natural resources, which land is located in the vicinity of Echo Lake and more particularly situated in Section 34, Township 24 North, Range 7 East W.M. and that portion of Section 3, Township 23 North, Range 7 East W.M. lying north of U.S. Highway 10, together with necessary access routes thereto, all of which tract is leased by the department of natural resources to the department of institutions for the establishment and construction of the correctional institution authorized and provided for in this act. The director shall cause preliminary plans, specifications and estimates of cost for the construction of such institution to be made and for this purpose may retain architectural and engineering services.

1961 c 183 § 3 amended.

Correctional institution in King county. Call for bids—Contract.

SEC. 2. Section 3, chapter 183, Laws of 1961 (uncodified) is hereby amended to read as follows:

When the land selected by the director, the description of which is more particularly set forth in section 1 of this amendatory act, has been acquired by the department of institutions by virtue of the lease referred to in said section 1, the director shall, upon the completion of plans and specifications for such institution, publish a call for bids, as provided by law, and enter into a contract for the construction of such institution.

New section.

SEC. 3. There is added to chapter 183, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 72.19 RCW a new section to read as follows:

—Superintendent—Qualifications.

The superintendent of the correctional institution established by this chapter shall be appointed by the director. The superintendent shall have such administrative and correctional experience and possess such qualifications as shall be determined by the state personnel board subject to the advice and approval of the director.

New section.

SEC. 4. There is added to chapter 183, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 72.19 RCW a new section to read as follows:

—Associate superintendents—Duties.

The superintendent, subject to the approval of the director, shall appoint such associate superintendents as shall be deemed necessary. In the event the superintendent shall be absent from the institution, or during periods of illness or other situations incapacitating the superintendent from properly performing his duties; one of the associate superintendents of such institution shall act as superintendent during such period of absence, illness or incapacity as may be designated by the director.

New section.

SEC. 5. There is added to chapter 183, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 72.19 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The superintendent shall have the following powers, duties and responsibilities: —Superintendent—
Powers and duties.

(1) Subject to the rules and regulations of the department, the superintendent shall have the supervision and management of the institution, of the grounds and buildings, the subordinate officers and employees, and of the juveniles received at such institution and the custody of such persons until released or transferred as provided by law.

(2) Subject to the rules and regulations of the department and the state personnel board, appoint all subordinate officers and employees.

(3) The superintendent shall be the custodian of the personal property of all juveniles in the institution and shall make rules and regulations governing the accounting and disposition of all moneys received by such juveniles, not inconsistent with the law, and subject to the approval of the director.

SEC. 6. The juvenile correctional institution established by this chapter shall replace the facilities of the Luther Burbank school for boys and the Martha Washington school for girls, both of which are presently being leased from the Seattle public school system by the department of institutions, and upon the expiration of the leases of both properties or other termination thereof, the children located at such schools shall be transferred to the correctional institution established hereunder. In the event the correctional institution has not been completely constructed at the expiration or termination of said leases, the director is authorized to transfer such children to other facilities deemed adequate or otherwise enter into agreements to retain the children in the leased facilities until such completion. —Institution as facility replacement—
Transfer of children to.

SEC. 7. There is added to chapter 183, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 72.19 RCW a new section to read as follows: New section.

Correctional institution in King county. Residential separation only such requirement.

The plans and construction of the juvenile correctional institution established by this chapter shall provide for adequate separation of the residential housing of the male juvenile from the female juvenile. In all other respects, the juvenile correctional programs for both boys and girls may be combined or separated as the director deems most reasonable and effective to accomplish the reformation, training and rehabilitation of the juvenile offender, realizing all possible economies from the lack of necessity for duplication of facilities.

Passed the Senate March 8, 1963.

Passed the House March 14, 1963.

Approved by the Governor March 25, 1963.
