chapter, may in person or by agent pay the taxes, interest and costs due thereon to the county treasurer of the county in which the same are situated, at any time before the day of the sale; and for the amount so paid he shall have a lien on the property liable for taxes, interest and costs for which judgment is prayed; and the person or authority who shall collect or receive the same shall give a receipt for such payment, or issue to such person a certificate showing such payment.

RCW 84.64.070
amended.

SEC. 2. Section 84.64.070, chapter 15, Laws of 1961, and RCW 84.64.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Redemption
before deed—Minors and insane

Real property upon which certificates of delinquency have been issued under the provisions of this chapter, may be redeemed at any time before the day of the sale, by payment, in legal money of the United States, to the county treasurer of the proper county, for the benefit of the owner of the certificate of delinquency against said property, of the amount for which the certificate of delinquency was sold, together with interest at the statutory rate per annum charged on delinquent general real and personal property taxes from date of issuance of said certificate of delinquency until paid. The person redeeming such property shall also pay the amount of all taxes, interest and costs accruing after the issuance of such certificate of delinquency, and paid by the holder of said certificate of delinquency or his assignee, together with interest at the statutory rate per annum charged on delinquent general real and personal property taxes on such payment from the day the same was made. No fee shall be charged for any redemption. Tenants in common or joint tenants shall be allowed to redeem their individual interest in real property for which certificates of delinquency have been issued under the provisions of this chapter, in the manner and under the terms specified in this section for the redemption of real property other than that of insane persons and minor heirs. Any redemption made shall inure to the benefit of the person having the legal or equitable title to the property redeemed, subject, however, to the right of the person making the same to be reimbursed by the person benefited. If the real property of any minor, or any insane person, be sold for nonpayment of taxes, the same may be redeemed at any time within three years after the issuance of the tax deed upon the terms specified in this section, on the payment of interest at the statutory rate per annum charged on delinquent general real and personal property taxes on the amount for which the same was sold, from and after the date of sale, and in addition the redemptioner shall pay the reasonable value of all improvements made in good faith on the property, less the value of the use thereof, which redemption may be made by themselves or by any person in their behalf.

Passed the House February 28, 1963.

Passed the Senate March 11, 1963.

Approved by the Governor March 25, 1963.
