CHAPTER 106
[Engrossed House Bill No. 471]
CONTINUITY OF GOVERNMENT

AN ACT Providing for the continuity of the government of the state and of the governments of its political subdivisions in the event of an attack upon the United States; adding new sections to chapter 203, Laws of 1963 and to chapter 42.14 RCW; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 203, Laws of 1963 and to chapter 42.14 RCW, a new section to read as follows:

Whenever, in the judgment of the governor, it becomes impracticable, due to an emergency resulting from enemy attack or natural disaster, to convene the legislature in the usual seat of government at Olympia, the governor may call the legislature into emergency session in any location within this or an adjoining state. The first order of business of any legislature so convened shall be the establishment of temporary emergency seats of government for the state. After any emergency relocation, the affairs of state government shall be lawfully conducted at such emergency temporary location or locations for the duration of the emergency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 203, Laws of 1963 and to chapter 42.14 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Whenever, due to a natural disaster, an attack or an attack is imminent, it becomes imprudent, inexpedient or impossible to conduct the affairs of a political subdivision at the regular or usual place or places, the governing body of the political subdivision may meet at any place within or without the territorial limits of the political subdivision on the call of the presiding official or any two members of the governing body. After any emergency relocation, the affairs of political subdivisions shall be lawfully conducted at such emergency temporary location or locations for the duration of the emergency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, and the support and preservation of the state and local governments and their public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.
