PET ANIMALS--

CONTROL TO PROTECT PUBLIC HEALTH

AN ACT Relating to state government; providing for the control of pet animals transmitting disease communicable to human beings, by the department of social and health services; creating new sections; and prescribing penalties.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The incidence of disease communicated to human beings by contact with pet animals has shown an increase in the past few years. The danger to human beings from such pets infected with disease communicable to humans has demonstrated the necessity for legislation to authorize the secretary of the department of social and health services and the state board of health to take such action as is necessary to control the sale, importation, movement, transfer, or possession of such animals where it becomes necessary in order to protect the public health and welfare.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The following words or phrases as used in this chapter shall have the following meanings unless the context
