CHAPTER 100

[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 531]

COMMON SCHOOL CODE MANUAL--
INTERMEDIATE SUPERINTENDENTS, CONVENTIONS--
DISTRIBUTION TO SCHOOL DISTRICTS OF STATE PROPERTY TAX PROCEEDS

AN ACT Relating to education; amending section 28A.48.110, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.48.110; and amending section 28A.03.030, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 102, chapter 176, Laws of 1969 ex. sess.

and RCW 28A.03.030.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 28A.03.030, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 102, chapter 176, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.03.030 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to any other powers and duties as provided by law, the powers and duties of the superintendent of public instruction shall be:

(1) To have supervision over all matters pertaining to the public schools of the state.

(2) To report biennially to the governor on or before the first day of November preceding the regular session of the legislature, of which report a sufficient number of copies as the superintendent shall deem necessary shall be printed and delivered to the superintendent of public instruction, who shall furnish copies to be deposited with the state library, to each intermediate school district superintendent and to each school district library in such amount as he shall deem sufficient therefor. Said report shall contain a statement of the general condition of the public schools of the state, with full statistical tables by counties showing the number of schools and the attendance, the state and intermediate school district funds apportioned, amounts received from special taxes and from other sources, amounts expended for salaries of teachers, the salaries paid to the intermediate school district superintendents and the amount paid for incidentals and expenses; the amount paid for building and providing schoolhouses with furniture and apparatus, the amount of bonded and other school indebtedness, with the rate of interest paid thereon, such reports of state educational institutions, or such portions of them as he may think advisable, together with such other facts as he may deem of general interest. The superintendent may include as a part of such report any information or estimates obtained for the purposes of RCW 43.88.090. He shall also include in his report a statement of plans for the management and improvement of the schools.

(3) To prepare and have printed such forms, registers, courses of study, rules and regulations for the government of the common schools, questions prepared for the examination of persons as provided for in RCW 28A.04.120 (7), and such other material and books as may be necessary for the discharge of the duties of teachers and officials charged with the administration of the laws relating to the common schools, and to distribute the same to intermediate school district superintendents.

(4) To travel, without neglecting his other official duties as superintendent of public instruction, for the purpose of attending educational meetings or conventions, of visiting schools, of consulting intermediate school district superintendents or other school officials.

(5) ((To cause to be printed with an appendix of appropriate forms and instructions for carrying into execution the laws relating to public schools; and to distribute to each intermediate school district superintendent a sufficient number of copies to supply each school district official; and to cause the same to be printed and distributed as often as any change in the laws shall make it of sufficient importance, in his opinion, to justify the same;)) To prepare and from time to time to revise a manual of the Washington state common school code, which shall be sold at actual cost of publication and distribution, said manual to contain Title 28A RCW and such other matter as the state superintendent or the state board of education shall determine.

(6) To act as ex officio president and the chief executive officer of the state board of education.

(7) To hold, annually, a convention of the intermediate school district superintendents of the state at such time and place as he may deem convenient, for the discussion of questions pertaining to supervision and the administration of the school laws and such other subjects affecting the welfare and interests of the common schools as may be brought before it. Said convention shall continue in session ((not less than two days nor more than three days;)) at the option of the superintendent of public instruction. It shall be the duty of every intermediate school district superintendent in this state to attend said convention during its entire session, and any intermediate school district superintendent who attends the convention shall be reimbursed for traveling and subsistence expenses as provided in RCW 28A.19.090 in attending said convention.

(8) To file all papers, reports and public documents transmitted to him by the school officials of the several counties or districts of the state, each year separately. Copies of all papers filed in his office, and his official acts, may, or upon request, shall be certified by him and attested by his official seal, and when so certified shall be evidence of the papers or acts so certified to.

(9) To require annually, on or before the 15th day of August, of the president, manager, or principal of every educational institution in this state, a report of such facts arranged in such manner as he may prescribe, and he shall furnish forms for such reports; and it is hereby made the duty of every president, manager or principal, to complete and return such forms within such time as the superintendent of public instruction shall direct.

(10) To keep in his office a record of all teachers receiving certificates to teach in the common schools of this state.

(11) To issue certificates as provided by law.

(12) To keep in his office at the capital of the state, all books and papers pertaining to the business of his office, and to keep and preserve in his office a complete record of statistics, as well as a record of the meetings of the state board of education.

(13) With the assistance of the office of the attorney general, to decide all points of law which may be submitted to him in writing by any intermediate school district superintendent, or that may be submitted to him by any other person, upon appeal from the decision of any intermediate school district superintendent; and he shall publish his rulings and decisions from time to time for the information of school officials and teachers; and his decision shall be final unless set aside by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(14) To administer oaths and affirmations in the discharge of his official duties.

(15) To deliver to his successor, at the expiration of his term of office, all records, books, maps, documents and papers of whatever kind belonging to his office or which may have been received by him for the use of his office.

(16) To perform such other duties as may be required by law.

Sec. 2. Section 28A.48.110, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.48.110 are each amended to read as follows:

In each calendar year in which the state shall collect a property tax for the support of common schools, the superintendent of public instruction shall distribute the proceeds of such tax to each school district of the state operating a program approved by the state board of education, in the manner provided in this section.

Except as hereinafter provided, the amount to be distributed to each school district in each year shall be a fraction of the total amount available for distribution, the numerator of which fraction shall be the assessed valuation of all taxable property in such school district adjusted to fifty percent of true and fair value thereof in accordance with the ratio of assessed valuation to actual valuation fixed by the state department of revenue, and the denominator of which fraction shall be the aggregate valuation of taxable property in all school districts entitled to a distribution under this section adjusted as to the property in each such district to fifty percent of true and fair value thereof in accordance with the ratio of assessed valuation to actual valuation fixed by the state department of revenue: PROVIDED, That each nonhigh school district shall receive only three-fifths of the amount otherwise distributable to a school district as provided above and the remaining two-fifths of such amount shall be distributed to the high school district fund of the county in which the nonhigh school district is located.

The superintendent of public instruction shall make the distribution of funds authorized in this section on or before the tenth day of each month by prorating the funds available on such distribution dates to the school districts entitled thereto; PROVIDED, That funds otherwise distributed in the month of June of each odd-numbered year beginning with the month of June 1973 shall not be distributed until the tenth day of July of such year and shall be accounted for by the state as expenditures for the ensuing fiscal biennium.

[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 735]

JUNKYARDS ADJACENT TO HIGHWAYS

AN ACT Relating to junkyards adjacent to highways; and providing penalties.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. For the purpose of promoting the public safety, health, welfare, convenience, and enjoyment of public travel, to protect the public investment in public highways, and to preserve and enhance the scenic beauty of lands bordering public highways, it is hereby declared to be in the public interest to regulate and restrict the establishment, operation, and maintenance of junkyards in areas adjacent to the interstate and federal-aid primary systems within this state. The legislature hereby finds and declares that junkyards which do not conform to the requirements of this act are public nuisances.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. When used in this act, the term:

(1) "Junk" shall mean old or scrap copper, brass, rope, rags, batteries, paper, trash, rubber debris, waste, or junked, dismantled or wrecked automobiles, or parts thereof, iron, steel, and other old or scrap ferrous or nonferrous material.

(2) "Automobile graveyard" shall mean any establishment or place of business which is maintained, used, or operated by storing, keeping, buying, or selling wrecked, scrapped, ruined, or dismantled motor vehicles or motor vehicle parts.

(3) "Junkyard" shall mean an establishment or place of business which is maintained, operated, or used for storing, keeping, buying, or selling junk or for the maintenance or operation of an automobile graveyard and the term shall include garbage dumps and
