Passed the Senate April 13, 1973.

Passed the House April 13, 1973.

Approved by the Governor April 25, 1973, with the exception of Section 6 which is vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 26, 1973.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to one item, Senate Bill No. 2918 entitled:

Veto
Message

"AN ACT Relating to food fish and shellfish."

This bill establishes a system of regulation of herring fishing in order to preserve this resource within the waters of the state. A major aspect of this act is the requirement that those who commercially fish for herring have a license issued by the department of fisheries. Further, section six establishes a board of review consisting of three members to hear cases of dispute with regard to licenses. Of the three members on the board, one would be appointed by the Governor, one by the President of the Senate and one by the Speaker of the House. This method of appointment exceeds the traditional limits of the doctrine of separation of powers between executive and legislative branches of government. Should the legislature have specific guidelines or requirements to be followed by a board of review they properly belong in the statute establishing such board, not in a provision giving appointing authority to members of the Legislature.

Accordingly, I have determined to veto that item consisting of section six of Senate Bill No. 2918. With that exception, I have approved the remainder of Senate Bill No. 2918."
