Section 1. Section 2, chapter 385, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 1, chapter 59, Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 63.28.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The following property held or owing by a banking or financial organization or business association is presumed abandoned:

(1) Any demand, savings, or matured time deposit made in this state with a banking organization, together with any interest or dividend which has accrued thereon, excluding any charges that may lawfully be withheld, unless the owner has, within ((twelve)) five years:

(a) Increased or decreased the amount of the deposit, or presented the passbook or other similar evidence of the deposit for the crediting of interest; or

(b) Corresponded in writing with the banking organization concerning the deposit; or

(c) Otherwise indicated an interest in the deposit as evidenced by a memorandum on file with the banking organization.

(2) Any funds paid in this state toward the purchase of shares or other interest in a financial organization or any deposit made therewith in this state, and any interest or dividend which has accrued thereon, excluding any charges that may lawfully be withheld, unless the owner has within ((twelve)) five years:

(a) Increased or decreased the amount of the funds or deposit, or presented an appropriate record for the crediting of interest or dividends; or

(b) Corresponded in writing with the financial organization concerning the funds or deposit; or

(3) Any sum payable on checks certified in this state or on written instruments issued in this state on which a banking or financial organization or business association is directly liable, including, by way of illustration but not of limitation, certificates of deposit, drafts, and traveler’s checks, that, with the exception of traveler’s checks, has been outstanding for more than ((twelve)) five years from the date it was payable, or from the date of its issuance if payable on demand, or, in the case of traveler’s checks, that has been outstanding for more than fifteen years from the date of issuance, unless the owner has within ((twelve)) five years, or within fifteen years in the case of traveler’s checks, corresponded in writing with the banking or financial organization or business association concerning it, or otherwise indicated an interest as evidenced by a memorandum on file with the banking or financial organization.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 385, Laws of 1955 and RCW 63.28.090 are each amended to read as follows:

If a person other than the insured or annuitant is entitled to the funds and no address of such person is known to the corporation or if it is not definite and certain from the records of the corporation what person is entitled to the funds, it is presumed that the last known address of the person entitled to the funds is the same as the last known address of the insured or annuitant according to the records of the corporation.

(2) "Unclaimed funds," as used in this section, means all moneys held and owing by any life insurance corporation unclaimed and unpaid for more than ((seven)) five years after the moneys became due and payable as established from the records of the corporation under any life or endowment insurance policy or annuity contract which has matured or terminated. A life insurance policy not matured by actual proof of the death of the insured is deemed to be matured and the proceeds thereof are deemed to be due and payable if such policy was in force when the insured attained the limiting age under the mortality table on which the reserve is based, unless the person appearing entitled thereto has within the preceding ((seven)) five years, (a) assigned, readjusted, or paid premiums on the policy, or subjected the policy to loan, or (b) corresponded in writing with the life insurance corporation concerning the policy. Moneys otherwise payable according to the records of the corporation are deemed due and payable although the policy or contract has not been surrendered as required.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 385, Laws of 1955 and RCW 63.28.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The following funds held or owing by any utility are presumed abandoned:

(1) Any deposit made by a subscriber with a utility to secure payment for, or any sum paid in advance for, utility services to be furnished in his state, less any lawful deductions, that has remained unclaimed by the person appearing on the records of the utility entitled thereto for more than (seven-years) one year after the termination of the services for which the deposit or advance payment was made.

Approved by the Governor December 1, 1981, with the exception of subsection 3 of Section 4 which is vetoed.
Filed in Office of Secretary of State December 1, 1981.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to subsection 3 of section 4 of Second Substitute House Bill No. 557 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to Medical Care."

Subsection 3 of section 4 would have established a new revolving fund under the control of the Department of Social and Health Services. Since the bill states no purpose for the new fund and since we are currently trying to reduce the number of separate funds, I have vetoed this provision.

With the exception of subsection 3 of section 4, Second Substitute House Bill No. 557 is approved."

WASHINGTON STATE ENERGY FINANCING VOTER APPROVAL ACT OF 1981

AN ACT Relating to energy facilities; adding a new chapter to Title 80 RCW; and providing an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. This chapter may be cited as the Washington state energy financing voter approval act.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The purpose of this chapter is to provide a mechanism for citizen review and approval of proposed financing for major public energy projects. The development of dependable and economic energy sources is of paramount importance to the citizens of the state, who have an interest in insuring that major public energy projects make the best use of limited financial resources. Because the construction of major public energy projects will significantly increase utility rates for all citizens, the people of the state hereby establish a process of voter approval for such projects.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The definitions set forth in this section apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Public agency" means a public utility district, joint operating agency, city, county, or any other state governmental agency, entity, or political subdivision.

(2) "Major public energy project" means a plant or installation capable, or intended to be capable, of generating electricity in an amount greater than two hundred fifty megawatts. Where two or more such plants are located within the same geographic site, each plant shall be considered a major public energy project. An addition to an existing facility is not deemed to be a major energy project unless the addition itself is capable, or intended to be capable, of generating electricity in an amount greater than two hundred fifty megawatts. A project which is under construction on July 1, 1982, shall not be considered a major public energy project unless the official agency budget or estimate for total construction costs for the project as of July 1, 1982, is more than two hundred percent of the first official estimate of total construction costs as specified in the senate energy and utilities committee WPPSS inquiry report, volume one, January 12, 1981, and unless, as of July 1, 1982, the projected remaining cost of construction for that project exceeds two hundred million dollars.

(3) "Cost of construction" means the total cost of planning and building a major public energy project and placing it into operation, including, but not limited to, planning cost, direct construction cost, licensing cost, cost of fuel inventory for the first year's operation, interest, and all other costs incurred prior to the first day of full operation, whether or not incurred prior to the effective date of this act.

(4) "Cost of acquisition" means the total cost of acquiring a major public energy project from another party, including, but not limited to, principal and interest costs.

(5) "Bond" means a revenue bond, a general obligation bond, or any other indebtedness issued by a public agency or its assignee.

(6) "Applicant" means a public agency, or the assignee of a public agency, requesting the secretary of state to conduct an election pursuant to this chapter.

(7) "Cost-effective" means that a project or resource is forecast:
(a) To be reliable and available within the time it is needed; and
(b) To meet or reduce the electric power demand of the intended consumers at an estimated incremental system cost no greater than that of the least-cost similarly reliable and available alternative project or resource, or any combination thereof.

(8) "System cost" means an estimate of all direct costs of a project or resource over its effective life, including, if applicable, the costs of distribution to the consumer, and, among other factors, waste disposal costs, end-of-cycle costs, and fuel costs (including projected increases), and such quantifiable environmental costs and benefits as are directly attributable to the project or resource.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. No public agency or assignee of a public agency may issue or sell bonds to finance the cost of construction or the cost of acquisition of a major public energy project, or any portion thereof, unless it has first obtained authority for the expenditure of the funds to be raised by the sale of such bonds for that project at an election conducted in the manner provided in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The election required under section 4 of this act shall be conducted in the manner provided in this section.

(1) (a) If the applicant is a public utility district, joint operating agency, city, or county, the election shall be among the voters of the public utility district, city, or county, or among the voters of the local governmental entities comprising the membership of the joint operating agency.

(b) If the applicant is any public agency other than those described in subsection (1)(a) of this section, or is an assignee of a joint operating agency and not itself a joint operating agency, the election shall be conducted state-wide in the manner provided in Title 29 RCW for state-wide elections.

(2) The election shall be held at the next state-wide general election occurring more than ninety days after submission of a request by an applicant to the secretary of state unless a special election is requested by the applicant as provided in this section.

(3) If no state-wide election can be held under subsection (2) of this section within one hundred twenty days of the submission to the secretary of state of a request by an applicant for financing authority under this chapter, the applicant may request that a special election be held if such election is necessary to avoid significant delay in construction or acquisition of the energy project. Within ten days of receipt of such a request for a special election, the secretary of state shall designate a date for the election pursuant to RCW 29.13.010 and certify the date to the county auditor of each county in which an election is to be held under this section.

(4) Prior to an election under this section, the applicant shall submit to the secretary of state a cost-effectiveness study, prepared by an independent consultant approved by the state finance committee, pertaining to the major public energy project under consideration. The study shall be available for public review and comment for thirty days. At the end of the thirty-day period, the applicant shall prepare a final draft of the study which includes the public comment, if any.

(5) The secretary of state shall certify the ballot issue for the election to be held under this section to the county auditor of each county in which an election is to be held. The certification shall include the statement of the proposition as provided in section 6 of this act. The costs of the election shall be relieved by the state in the manner provided for state measures under RCW 29.13.047.

(6) Prior to an election under this section, the secretary of state shall provide an opportunity for supporters and opponents of the requested financing authority to present their respective views in a voters' pamphlet which shall be distributed to the voters of the local governmental entities participating in the election. Upon submission of an applicant's request for an election pursuant to this section, the applicant shall provide the secretary of state with the following information regarding each major public energy project for which the applicant seeks financing authority at such election, which information shall be included in the voters' pamphlet:

(a) The name, location, and type of major public energy project, expressed in common terms;
(b) The dollar amount and type of bonds being requested;
(c) If the bond issuance is intended to finance the acquisition of all or a portion of the project, the anticipated total cost of the acquisition of the project;
(d) If the bond issuance is intended to finance the planning or construction of all or a portion of the project, the anticipated total cost of construction of the project;
(e) The projected average rate increase for consumers of the electricity to be generated by the project. The rate increase shall be that which will be necessary to repay the total indebtedness incurred for the project, including estimated interest;
(f) A summary of the final cost-effectiveness study conducted under subsection (4) of this section;
(g) The anticipated functional life of the project;
(h) The anticipated decommissioning costs of the project; and
(i) If a special election is requested by the applicant, the reasons for requesting a special election.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The proposition for each major public energy project listed upon a ballot pursuant to this chapter shall be in the form provided in this section.

(1) If the funds are intended to finance the planning or construction of all or a portion of the project, the proposition shall read substantially as follows:

[ 19 ]
Shall (name of applicant) be authorized to spend (dollar amount of financing authority requested) to construct the (name of the project) (type of project) located at (location), the anticipated total construction cost of which is (anticipated cost of construction)?

(2) If the financing authority is intended to finance the acquisition of all or a portion of the project from another party, the proposition shall read substantially as follows:

"Shall (name of applicant) be authorized to spend (dollar amount of financing authority requested) to acquire the (name of project) (type of project) located at (location), the anticipated total acquisition cost of which is (anticipated cost of acquisition)?"

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A request for financing authority pursuant to this chapter shall be considered approved if it receives the approval of a majority of those voting on the request.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. In planning for future energy expenditures, public agencies shall give priority to projects and resources which are cost-effective. Priority for future bond sales to finance energy expenditures by public agencies shall be given: First, to conservation; second, to renewable resources; third, to generating resources utilizing waste heat or generating resources of high fuel-conversion efficiency; and fourth, to all other resources. This section does not apply to projects which are under construction on the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Sections 1 through 8 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 80 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Section 8 of this act shall take effect immediately. The remainder of this act shall take effect on July 1, 1982. Public agencies intending to submit a request for financing authority under this act are authorized to institute the procedures specified in section 5(4) of this act prior to the effective date of this act.

If the personal representative is required to pay an additional tax under this chapter pursuant to the amended return, the personal representative shall pay the additional tax, together with interest as provided in RCW 83.100.070, at the same time the personal representative files the amended return, subject, however, to any extension election under RCW 83.100.070.

(2) Upon final determination of the federal tax due with respect to any transfer, the personal representative shall, within sixty days after the determination, give written notice of it to the department in such form as may be prescribed by rule. (2) Unless any tax due is sooner paid in full, it shall be a lien upon the gross estate of the decedent for a period of ten years from the date of death, except that such part of the gross estate as is used for the payment of charges against the estate and expenses of its administration, allowed by any court having jurisdiction thereof, shall be divested of the lien. Liens created under this subsection shall be qualified as follows:

(a) The limitation period, as described in this subsection, shall in each case be extended for a period of time equal to the period of pendency of litigation of questions affecting the determination of the amount of tax due, provided a lis pendens has been filed with the auditor of the county in which the property is located;

(b) Any part of the gross estate which is transferred to a bona fide purchaser shall be divested of the lien and the lien shall be transferred to the proceeds arising out of the transfer; and

(c) A mortgage on property pursuant to an order of court for payment of charges against the estate and expenses of administration shall constitute a lien upon the property prior and superior to the tax lien, which tax lien shall attach to the proceeds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 83.100.120. LIABILITY FOR FAILURE TO PAY TAX BEFORE DISTRIBUTION OR DELIVERY. (1) Any personal representative who distributes any property without first paying, securing another's payment of, or furnishing security for payment of the taxes due under this chapter is personally liable for the taxes due to the extent of the value of any property that may come or may have come into the possession of the personal representative. Security for payment of the taxes due under this chapter shall be in an amount equal to or greater than the value of all property that is or has come into the possession of the personal representative, as of the time the security is furnished.

(2) Any person who has the control, custody, or possession of any property and who delivers any of the property to the personal representative or legal representative of the decedent outside Washington without first paying, securing another's payment of, or furnishing security for payment of the taxes due under this chapter is liable for the taxes due under this chapter to the extent of the value of the property delivered. Security for payment of the taxes due under this chapter shall be in an amount equal to or greater than the value of all property delivered to the personal representative or legal representative of the decedent outside Washington by such a person.

(4) For the purposes of this section, any person who has the control, custody, or possession of any property and who delivers any of the property to the personal representative or legal representative of the decedent may rely upon the release certificate or the release of nonliability certificate, furnished by the department to the personal representative, as evidence of compliance with the requirements of this chapter, and make such deliveries and transfers as the personal representative may direct without being liable for any taxes due under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 83.100.130. REFUND FOR OVERPAYMENT. Whenever it is determined that a personal representative has overpaid the tax due under this chapter, the department may refund the amount of the overpayment, together with interest at the then existing statutory rate of interest. The department, through the attorney general, may institute proceedings for the collection of this tax and any interest and penalties on the tax. The superior court for any county which has assumed lawful jurisdiction over the property of the decedent for general probate or administration purposes under the laws of Washington shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine all questions in relation to the tax arising under the provisions of this chapter. If no probate or administration proceedings have been taken out in any court of this state, the superior court for the county in which the decedent was a resident, if the decedent was a domiciliary, or, if the decedent was a nondomiciliary, any court which has sufficient jurisdiction over the property of the decedent, the transfer of which is taxable, to issue probate or administration proceedings thereon, had the same been justified by the legal status of the property or had the same been applied for, shall have jurisdiction. Any such court first acquiring jurisdiction shall retain the same to the exclusion of every other.

(2) Nothing in this chapter denies the right of appellate review as provided by law and the Washington appellate rules.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 83.100.160. (1) The following chapters and their session law bases are each repealed: Chapters 83.01, 83.04, 83.05, 83.08, 83.12, 83.14, 83.16, 83.20, 83.24, 83.28, 83.32, 83.36, 83.40, 83.44, 83.48, 83.52, 83.58, 83.60, and 83.98 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 74.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:
Payment of assistance shall not be made for any month if the payment prior to any adjustments would be less than ten dollars. However, if payment is denied solely by reason of this section, the individual with respect to whom such payment is denied is determined to be a recipient of assistance for purposes of eligibility for other programs of assistance except for a community work experience program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 74.12 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) A family or assistance unit is not eligible for aid for any month if for that month the total income of the family or assistance unit, without application of income disregards, exceeds one hundred fifty percent of the state standard of need for a family of the same composition.

The department shall establish consolidated standards of need each biennium which may vary by geographical areas, program, and family size, for aid to families with dependent children, refugee assistance, supplemental security income, and general assistance to unemployable persons. Standards for aid to families with dependent children, refugee assistance, and general assistance to unemployable persons shall include reasonable allowances for shelter, fuel, food, transportation, clothing, household maintenance and operations, personal maintenance, and necessary incidentals. The standard of need shall take into account the economies of joint living arrangements.

The department is authorized to establish rateable reductions and grant maximums consistent with federal law.

Payment level will be equal to need or a lesser amount if rateable reductions or grant maximums are imposed. In no case shall a recipient of supplemental security income receive a state supplement less than the minimum required by federal law.

[Substitute House Bill No. 760]
NURSING HOMES

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 18.51 RCW a new section to read as follows:
If any part of this chapter is found to conflict with federal requirements which are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state, the conflicting part of this chapter is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of the conflict, and such finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this chapter.

Sec. 2. Section 6, chapter 117, Laws of 1951 as last amended by section 17, chapter 2, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.51.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon receipt of an application for license, the department shall issue a license if the applicant and the nursing home facilities meet the requirements established under this chapter. Prior to the issuance or renewal of the license, the licensee shall pay a license fee ((of one hundred dollars plus two dollars per bed per year)) as established by the department. No fee shall be required of government operated institutions. All licenses issued under the provisions of this chapter shall expire on a date to be set by the department, but no license issued pursuant to this chapter shall exceed ((twelve)) thirty-six months in duration. That when the annual license renewal date of a previously licensed nursing home is set by the department on a date less than twelve months prior to the expiration date of a license in effect at the time of reissuance, the license fee shall be prorated on a monthly basis and a credit be allowed at the first renewal of a license for any period of one month or more covered by the previous license). When a change of ownership occurs, the entity becoming the licensed operating entity of the facility shall pay ((the full licensing)) a fee ((for the facility)) established by the department at the time of application for the license. The previously determined date of license expiration shall not change.

All applications and fees for renewal of the license and for change of ownership licenses shall be submitted to the department not later than thirty days prior to the date of expiration of the license or the date of the proposed change of ownership. Each license shall be issued only to the operating entity and those persons named in the license application. Every inspection may include an inspection of every part of the premises and an examination of all records, methods of administration, the general and special dietary and the stores and methods of supply. Following such inspection or inspections, written notice of any violation of this law or the rules and regulations promulgated hereunder, shall be given the applicant or licensee and the department. The notice shall describe the reasons for the facility's non-compliance. The notice shall inform the facility that it must comply with a plan of correction within a specified time, not to exceed sixty days from the date the plan of correction is approved by the department. The penalties in RCW 18.51.060 may be imposed if, after the specified period, the department determines that the facility has not complied. In life-threatening situations or situations which substantially limit the provider's capacity to render adequate care, the department may require immediate correction or proceed immediately under RCW 18.51.060. The department may prescribe by regulations that any licensee or applicant desiring to make specified types of alterations or additions to its facilities or to construct new facilities shall, before commencing such alteration, addition or new construction, submit its plans and specifications therefor to the department for preliminary inspection and approval or recommendations with respect to compliance with the regulations and standards herein authorized.

Sec. 4. Section 10, chapter 99, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.51.230 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall, in addition to any inspections conducted pursuant to complaints filed pursuant to RCW 18.51.190, conduct at least one general inspection (each year) prior to license renewal of all nursing homes in the state without providing advance notice of such inspection. (At least one) Periodically, such inspection (in any three-year period) shall take place in part between the hours of 7 p.m. and 5 a.m. or on weekends.

Sec. 5. Section 1, chapter 244, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 12, chapter 2, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.51.310 are each amended to read as follows:

2) The department shall review the comprehensive plan of care for such resident at least annually or upon any change in the resident's classification.

3) Based upon the assessment of the resident's needs, the department shall assign such resident to a classification. Developmentally disabled residents shall be classified under a separate system.

4) The nursing home shall submit any request to modify a resident's classification to the department for the department's approval. The approval shall not be given until the department has reviewed the resident.

5) The department shall adopt ((revised licensing standards for nursing homes. The)) licensing standards ((shall be)) suitable for implementing the civil penalty system authorized under this chapter(((, chapter 74.42 RCW,)) and chapter 74.46 RCW.

''(2) The department, the board of health, the school of medicine, the University of Washington, and the schools of nursing within the state shall

Sec. 6. Section 74.09.120, chapter 26, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 11, chapter 2, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.09.120 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall purchase necessary physician and dentist services by contract or "fee for service." The department shall purchase hospital care by contract or by all inclusive day rate, or at a reasonable cost based on a ratio of charges to cost. Any hospital when requested by the department shall supply such information as necessary to justify its rate, charges or costs. All additional services provided by the hospital shall be purchased at rates established by the department after consultation with the hospital. The department shall purchase nursing home care by contract. The department shall establish regulations for reasonable nursing home accounting and reimbursement systems which comply with RCW 74.09.610. The regulations shall provide that no payment shall be made to a nursing home which does not permit inspection by the department of social and health services of every part of its premises and an examination of all records, including financial records, methods of administration, general and special dietary programs, the disbursement of drugs and methods of supply, and any other records the department deems relevant to the establishment of such a system.

All other services and supplies provided under the program shall be secured by contract.

The department may purchase care in institutions for the mentally retarded, also known as intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded. The department shall develop rules for reasonable accounting and reimbursement systems for such care and report such rules to the next regular session of the legislature for review prior to implementation. Institutions for the mentally retarded include licensed nursing homes, public institutions, licensed boarding homes with fifteen beds or less, and hospital facilities certified as intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded under the federal medicaid program to provide health, habilitative, or rehabilitative services and twenty-four hour supervision for mentally retarded individuals or persons with related conditions and includes in the program "active treatment" as federally defined.

Sec. 7. Section 4, chapter 260, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 2, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.09.580 are each amended to read as follows:
The nursing home payment system under this chapter shall provide for individually-based or class-based rates which shall be the maximum reimbursement for each nursing home for the period for which the rates are assigned.

(1)(a) Beginning with the settlements for calendar year 1981, the nursing home shall submit a preliminary settlement report simultaneously with the annual cost report.

(b) Within ninety days after receipt of the reports by the secretary, the department shall submit a proposed settlement report by cost center to the nursing home which fully substantiates disallowed costs, refunds, underpayments, and/or adjustments to the preliminary settlement report.

(c) The proposed settlement shall provide the basis for a schedule to correct overpayments and underpayments.

(2) (a) The department shall calculate a settlement for the 1980 cost reporting period by comparing the rate paid to a contractor with that contractor's reported allowable costs. Refunds due the department based upon overpayments made to nursing home contractors from January 1, 1980, through December 31, 1980, indicated by this settlement shall be due and payable in full within thirty days after written notice is received from the department.

(b) Where deemed appropriate by the department, repayment may be made according to a schedule determined by the department.

(c) Failure on the part of a nursing home contractor to tender payment due in full within thirty days after notice is received from the department shall render the contractor liable for the payment of interest to the department at the rate of one percent per month for any unpaid balance from thirty days after the date of notification until payment in full is received by the department. Liability for interest payments under this subsection (2)(c) shall remain in effect whether a contractor is in default of repayment or is making repayment according to a schedule determined by the department in lieu of payment in full upon notification of payment due.

(d) Unless payment due from a nursing home contractor is received in full within thirty days after notification from the department or unless principal and interest payments are received according to a schedule determined by the department, recoupment from current reimbursement payments due a contractor in default will commence according to a schedule determined by the department.

(e) Nothing in this subsection shall prejudice the rights of contractors or the department regarding audit adjustments and/or revised settlements which may be promulgated by the department from time to time in individual contractor cases.
(3) Operators of nursing homes shall refund all portions of payments received which exceed actual audited costs and all portions of payments received which are attributable to unreasonable or nonallowable costs as determined by federal or state regulations.

Sec. 8. Section 1, chapter 2, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.09.610 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The nursing home auditing and cost reimbursement system of the department of social and health services shall be governed by this section until implementation of chapter 74.46 RCW. The department shall reimburse nursing homes on the basis of the following cost centers: Patient care, food, administration and operations, and property.

(2) (a) For rate setting purposes for fiscal year 1982, the department shall reimburse the patient care cost center at the January 1, 1981, reimbursement rate, as adjusted for inflation.

((a)) (b) For rate setting purposes in fiscal year 1983, this subsection (2)(b) applies.

(i) There shall be established by the department a redistribution pool consisting of overpayments to contractors for 1981 indicated by proposed settlements for 1981, less one million dollars.

(ii) If a contractor's patient care cost center rate for 1981 is greater than or equal to the contractor's desk reviewed 1981 patient care costs, the department shall reimburse the patient care cost center at the desk reviewed 1981 patient care costs plus any patient care funds shifted to other cost centers pursuant to subsection (8) of this section, as adjusted for inflation.

(iii) If the contractor's 1981 patient cost center rate is less than the contractor's desk reviewed 1981 patient care costs, the department shall reimburse the contractor's patient care at the January 1, 1982, reimbursement rate less one and one half percent, as adjusted for inflation, plus an allowance from the redistribution pool. The allowance for a contractor shall not exceed the contractor's patient care costs, as adjusted for inflation, and the total of allowances distributed shall not exceed the redistribution pool under subsection (2)(b)(i) of this section. If the funds contained in the redistribution pool exceed or are equal to the total amount by which contractors were underfunded in the patient care cost center, each contractor's allowance will be equal to the amount by which the contractor was underfunded. If the funds contained in the redistribution pool are less than the total amount by which contractors were underfunded in the patient care cost center, each contractor will receive an allowance which shall be a percentage of the amount by which the contractor was underfunded. The percentage shall be determined by dividing the amount of the pool by the total amount of underfunding.

(c) In addition, the reimbursement shall be enhanced by three million dollars for the first year of the biennium and by ((five)) one million four hundred thousand dollars for the second year of the biennium. These enhancements shall be apportioned among the nursing homes proportionately based on the patient care cost center for each nursing home.

((f-b))) (d) For the purpose of nursing assistant certification, the department shall reimburse at a rate of thirty cents for each medicaid patient day for the first year of the biennium ((and at a rate of thirty-three cents, as adjusted for inflation, for each medicaid patient day for the second year of the biennium)). This is in addition to the January 1, 1981, reimbursement rate.

(e) Effective July 1, 1982, the patient care cost center reimbursement rate shall be adjusted as follows:

(i) As used in (ii) of this subsection, patient care consultation refers to medical director, patient activities, physical therapy, speech therapy, occupational therapy, and other therapy consultation.

(ii) The department shall determine the average expense weighted by patient days for patient care consultation taken from the most recently completed cost reports.

In determining the patient care cost to be used for rate setting pursuant to subsections (2)(b)(ii) and (iii) of this section, the department shall not include any cost in excess of the average cost determined under (ii) of this subsection.

(3) Reimbursement for the food cost center shall be at the January 1, 1981, reimbursement rate, adjusted for inflation.

(4) The administration and operations cost center consists of two components:

(a) (i) For rate setting purposes for fiscal year 1982, the wages for all employees, other than nursing service personnel and administrators and assistant administrators, shall be reimbursed at the January 1, 1981, rate as adjusted for inflation.

(ii) For rate setting purposes for fiscal year 1983:

(A) If the contractor's administration and operations wage component rate for 1981 is greater than or equal to the contractor's desk reviewed 1981 administration and operations wage costs, the department shall reimburse the contractor's administration and operations wage component at the desk reviewed 1981 administration and operations wage component costs as adjusted for inflation.

(B) If the contractor's administration and operations wage component rate for 1981 is less than the contractor's desk reviewed 1981 administration and operations wage costs, the department shall reimburse the contractor's administration and operations wage component at the January 1, 1981, reimbursement rate as adjusted for inflation, except that, after distribution of the redistribution pool to contractors underfunded in the patient care cost center pursuant to subsection (2)(b)(iii) of this section, any funds remaining will be distributed to contractors with rates below cost in proportion to the underfunding in this component. This distribution shall not exceed the total of underfunded cost in this component.

(b) Reimbursement for administration and operations, including all items not specified in subsections (2), (3), (4)(a), (5), and (6) of this section, shall not exceed the eighty-fifth percentile of the costs of all reporting facilities, not including any funds shifted pursuant to subsection (8) of this section, as adjusted for inflation, except that the nursing home facilities may be grouped by factors, other than ownership or legal organizational characteristics, which could reasonably influence cost requirements for administration and operations. Effective July 1, 1982, the administration and operations cost center reimbursement rate shall be adjusted as follows:

(i) As used in (ii) and (iii) of this subsection, administration and operations consultation expense refers to dietary and medical record consultant fees.

(ii) The department shall determine the average expense weighted by patient days for administration and operations consultation expense taken from the most recent completed cost report.

(iii) Reimbursement for administration and operations consultation shall be the lesser of the average expense as determined under (ii) of this subsection or the individual facility's costs for administration and operations consultation expenses taken from the most recent completed cost report, as adjusted for inflation. This adjustment applies only to the July 1, 1982, through July 1, 1983, reimbursement period.

(5) The return on net invested equity for each facility shall be determined by utilizing medicare rules and regulations.

(6) Property cost center reimbursement for both leased and owner-operated facilities shall not exceed the predicted cost plus one standard deviation of the necessary and ordinary costs of depreciation, and interest, of owner-operated facilities utilizing a multiple regression formula developed by the department of social and health services, recognizing factors which may be significant, including location, age, and type of facility. Rental costs of leased facilities other than those operating as intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded, and depreciation and interest costs of owner-operated facilities, for leases or mortgages entered into prior to July 1, 1979, shall be reimbursed to the extent they do not exceed the reimbursement rate payable for the property cost center as of June 30, 1979, or July 1, 1979, whichever is higher, adjusted to meet any discrepancies as determined by the federal government between the reimbursements made and the approved state medicaid plan, and adjusted for any approved capitalized additions or replacements, except that any leased facility which has operated as an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded prior to July 1, 1979, shall be reimbursed to the extent that the property costs exceed the upper limit of the multiple regression formula.
(7) The patient personal needs allowance limitation shall be thirty-three dollars and fifty cents.

(8) For settlement purposes only, for calendar years 1981, 1982, and 1983, a nursing home may shift among cost centers an amount not greater than twenty percent of the reimbursement rate of the cost center into which the shift is being made. Shifts may be made among the cost centers. However, shifts may not be made into the property cost center. The department shall monitor on a random basis the extent and patterns of shifting between cost centers authorized by this section. The department shall report to the legislature on its findings required by this section prior to ((February)) July 15th of each year.

(9) Audits shall be conducted by the department and settlements shall be calculated by cost center only.

(10) The department may adjust reimbursement rates to reflect required increases in staffing levels and capital improvements.

(11) Any reference in this section to a January 1, 1981, reimbursement rate includes any adjustment resulting from a rate appeal and its final resolution, but shall not include any adjustment resulting from litigation on reimbursement rates prior to June 30, 1981, or the procedures by which they were established.

(12) References in this section to adjustments for inflation mean adjustments of 5.0 percent for rates effective July 1, 1981, through December 31, 1981; ((5-2)) 4.25 percent for rates effective January 1, 1982, through June 30, 1982; ((4-35)) 3.25 percent for rates effective July 1, 1982, through December 31, 1982; and ((4-35)) 3.25 percent for rates effective January 1, 1983, through June 30, 1983.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Section 7, chapter 114, Laws of 1979 and RCW 18.52A.070 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Sections 2, 3, 4, 6, and 7 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 12
[Substitute House Bill No. 774]
JAIL STANDARDS
AN ACT Relating to jail standards; amending section 5, chapter 316, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 276, Laws of 1981 and RCW 70.48.050; amending section 6, chapter 96, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 64,
Laws of 1980 and RCW 19.27.060; adding new sections to chapter 70.48 RCW; creating new sections; providing an expiration date; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature finds that:

(1) The United States supreme court has reversed lower court decisions relating to jail and prisons standards, thus permitting state and local authorities more flexibility in planning jail and prison facilities;

(2) Current physical plant standards used by the state jail commission in allocating state funds for local jail construction are inconsistent with supreme court decisions, and will result in increased construction costs, and impose higher staffing costs on local governments;

(3) The major part of the two hundred thirty-six million dollars of bonds presently authorized for jail construction remains to be issued, and it is estimated that the state will exceed its statutory limit for bond issues by 1984;

(4) It is incumbent upon the legislature to eliminate unnecessary bond issues and to reduce costs to the state and local governments.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 70.48 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The jail commission shall immediately review and modify physical plant, operating, and other standards in accordance with current case law. In accordance with such revised standards or variances, local governments may modify jail designs to reduce space and staffing requirements and construction costs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The state jail commission shall advise the legislature of the changes in standards by or before February 1, 1982.

Sec. 4. Section 5, chapter 316, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section I, chapter 276, Laws of 1981 and RCW 70.48.050 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to any other powers and duties contained in this chapter, the commission shall have the powers and duties:

(1) To adopt such rules and regulations, after approval by the legislature, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, as it deems necessary and consistent with the purposes and intent of this chapter on the following subjects:

(a) Mandatory custodial care standards that are essential for the health, welfare, and security of persons confined in jails. In adopting each rule or regulation pertaining to mandatory custodial care standards, the commission shall cite the applicable case law, statutory law or constitutional provision which requires such rule or regulation. The commission shall grant variances from custodial care standards to governing units which operate jails with physical deficiencies which directly affect their ability to comply with these standards, if the governing unit is eligible for and has applied for funds under RCW 70.48.110. The variances remain in effect until state funding to improve or reconstruct the jails of these governing units has been expended for that purpose;

(b) Advisory custodial care standards;

c) The classification and uses of holding, detention, and correctional facilities. Except for the housing of work releasees in accordance with commission rules, a person may not be held in a holding facility longer than seventy-two hours, exclusive of weekends and holidays, without being transferred to a detention or correctional facility unless the court having jurisdiction over the individual authorizes a longer holding, but in no instance shall the holding exceed thirty days;

(d) The content of jail records which shall be maintained by the department of corrections or the chief law enforcement officer of the governing unit. In addition the governing unit, chief law enforcement officer, or department of corrections may require such additional records as they deem proper; and

e) The segregation of persons and classes of persons confined in holding, detention, and correctional facilities;

(2) To investigate, develop, and encourage alternative and innovative methods in all phases of jail operation;

(3) To make comments, reports, and recommendations concerning all phases of jail operation including those not specifically described in this chapter;

(4) To hire necessary staff, acquire office space, supplies, and equipment, and make such other expenditures as may be deemed necessary to carry out its duties;

(5) The secretary shall submit minimum physical plant standards to the commission for review and promulgate proposed standards pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW. After such promulgation, the standards shall be presented for review at a public conference of city, town, and county legislative and executive officials and directors of departments of correction or the chief law enforcement officers of the governing units in four regional meetings, two of which shall be east of the Cascade range. Subsequent to these reviews, and utilizing the data received, the commission shall adopt minimum physical plant standards pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, after approval by the legislature. The commission may preempt any provisions of the state building code under chapter 19.27 RCW and any local ordinances that apply to jails or a particular jail if the provisions relate to the installation or use of sprinklers in the cells and the commission finds that compliance with the provisions would conflict with the secure and humane operation of jails or the particular jail;

(6) To cause all jails to be inspected at least annually by designated jail inspectors and to issue a certificate of compliance to each facility which is found to satisfactorily meet the requirements of this chapter and the rules, regulations, and standards adopted hereunder: PROVIDED, That certificates of partial compliance may be issued where applicable. The inspectors shall have access to all portions of jails, to all prisoners confined therein, and to all records maintained by said jails; and

(7) To establish advisory guidelines and model ordinances to assist governing units in establishing the agreements necessary for the joint operation of jails and for the determination of the rates of allowance for the daily costs of holding a prisoner pursuant to the provisions of RCW 70.48.080(6).

Sec. 5. Section 6, chapter 96, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 64, Laws of 1980 and RCW 19.27.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as permitted or provided otherwise under the provisions of RCW 19.27.040 and subsections (3), (4), ((and)) (5), and (6) of this section, the state building code supersedes all county, city or town building regulations containing less than the minimum performance standards and objectives contained in the state building code.

(2) Except as permitted or provided otherwise under the provisions of RCW 19.27.040 and subsections (3), (4), ((and)) (5), and (6) of this section, the state building code shall be applicable to all buildings and structures including those owned by the state or by any other governmental subdivision.

(3) The governing body of each city, town or county may limit the application of any rule or regulation or portion of the state building code to include or exclude specified classes or types of buildings or structures, according to use, occupancy, or such other distinctions as may make differentiation or separate classification or regulation necessary, proper, or desirable: PROVIDED, That in no event shall fruits or vegetables of the tree or vine stored in buildings or warehouses, constitute combustible stock for the purposes of application of the uniform fire code.

(4) The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any building four or more stories high with an F occupancy as defined by the uniform building code, chapter 6, 1973 edition, and with a fire insurance classification rating of 1, 2, or 3 as defined by a recognized fire rating bureau or organization.

(5) The provisions of the uniform fire code concerning access roadways for fire department apparatus applying to dwellings which are classified as group R, division 3 occupancies or group M occupancies in the 1976 edition of the uniform building code, shall be applied at the discretion of the governing body of each city, town or county.

(6) The provisions of the state building code are preempted by any physical standards adopted by the state jail commission under RCW 70.48.050 when the code provisions relating to the installation or use of sprinklers in the cells conflict with the standards and the secure and humane operation of jails.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Effective June 30, 1984, sections 1 through 3 of this act, the RCW sections under which they are codified, and any amendments thereto, shall expire.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the House November 25, 1981.
Passed the Senate November 24, 1981.

COMMUNITY COLLEGES—FINANCIAL EMERGENCY—REDUCTION IN FORCE

AN ACT Relating to community colleges; creating new sections; adding a new section to chapter 283, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28B.50 RCW; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 283, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28B.50 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The state board for community college education may declare a financial emergency under the following conditions: (1) Reduction of allotments by the governor pursuant to RCW 43.88.110(2), or (2) reduction by the legislature from one biennium to the next or within a biennium of appropriated funds based on constant dollars using the implicit price deflator. When a district board of trustees determines that a reduction in force of tenured or probationary faculty members may be necessary due to financial emergency as declared by the state board, written notice of the reduction in force and separation from employment shall be given the faculty members so affected by the president or district president as the case may be. Said notice shall clearly indicate that separation is not due to the job performance of the employee and hence is without prejudice to such employee and need only state in addition the basis for the reduction in force as one or more of the reasons enumerated in subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

Said tenured or probationary faculty members will have a right to request a formal hearing when being dismissed pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) of this section. The only issue to be determined shall be whether under the applicable policies, rules or collective bargaining agreement the particular faculty member or members advised of severance are the proper ones to be terminated. Said hearing shall be initiated by filing a written request therefor with the president or district president, as the case may be, within ten days after issuance of such notice. At such formal hearing the tenure review committee provided for in RCW 28B.50.863 may observe the formal hearing procedure and after the conclusion of such hearing offer its recommended decision for consideration by the hearing officer. Failure to timely request such a hearing shall cause separation from service of such faculty members so notified on the effective date as stated in the notice, regardless of the duration of any individual employment contract.

Said hearing shall be a formal hearing pursuant to RCW 28B.19.120 conducted by a hearing officer appointed by the board of trustees and shall be concluded by the hearing officer within sixty days after written notice of the reduction in force has been issued. Ten days written notice of the formal hearing will be given to faculty members who have requested such a hearing by the president or district president as the case may be. The hearing officer within ten days after conclusion of such formal hearing shall prepare findings, conclusions of law and a recommended decision which shall be forwarded to the board of trustees for its final action thereon. Any such determination by the hearing officer under this section shall not be subject to further tenure review committee action as otherwise provided in this chapter.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, at the time of a faculty member or members request for formal hearing said faculty member or members may ask for participation in the choosing of the hearing officer in the manner provided in RCW 28A.58.455(4), said employee therein being a faculty member for the purposes hereof and said board of directors therein being the board of trustees for the purposes hereof: PROVIDED, That where there is more than one faculty member affected by the board of trustees' reduction in force such faculty members requesting hearing must act collectively in making such request: PROVIDED FURTHER, That costs incurred for the services and expenses of such hearing officer shall be shared equally by the community college and the faculty member or faculty members requesting hearing.

When more than one faculty member is notified of termination because of a reduction in force as provided in this section, hearings for all such fac-culty members requesting formal hearing shall be consolidated and only one such hearing for the affected faculty members shall be held, and such consolidated hearing shall be concluded within the time frame set forth herein.

Separation from service without prejudice after formal hearing under the provisions of this section shall become effective upon final action by the

It is the intent of the legislature by enactment of this section and in accordance with RCW 28B.52.035, to modify any collective bargaining agreements in effect, or any conflicting board policies or rules, so that any reductions in force which take place after this section becomes effective, whether in progress or to be initiated, will comply solely with the provisions of this section: PROVIDED, That any applicable policies, rules, or provisions contained in a collective bargaining agreement related to lay-off units, seniority and re-employment rights shall not be affected by the provisions of this paragraph.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the right of the board of trustees or its designated appointing authority not to renew a probationary faculty appointment pursuant to RCW 28B.50.857.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Sec. 111. Section 11, chapter 317, Laws of 1981 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

General Fund Appropriation—State $ (815,570) 652,456
General Fund Appropriation—Local $ 185,000

(2) For planning and research:
Motor Vehicle Fund Appropriation—State $ 5,192,909
Motor Vehicle Fund Appropriation—Federal $ 6,320,000
Total Public Transportation and Planning Appropriation $ (22,352,479) 22,189,365

The appropriations contained in this section are provided for the management and support of the public transportation and planning division, urban mass transportation administration programs, for rail programs, for state loans for formation of public transportation districts, for studies which support local public transportation programs, for maintenance of the state transportation plan, for highway planning and research by the department of transportation, and for research and studies approved by the department of transportation and the legislative transportation committee.

Sec. 112. Section 10, chapter 330, Laws of 1981 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby appropriated from the general fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1983, to the legislative budget committee the sum of ((one hundred)) ninety thousand dollars for the purpose of conducting a study of the judicial information system as provided in section 9 of this act.

(2) There is hereby appropriated from the general fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1983, to the office of the administrator for the courts the sum of ((eight million six hundred)) seven million nine hundred fifty-five thousand dollars for the judicial information system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 113. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 114. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the House December 1, 1981.
Passed the Senate November 30, 1981.
Approved by the Governor December 21, 1981, with the exceptions of the provisions vetoed.
Filed in Office of Secretary of State December 21, 1981.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to several provisions ESHB 811 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to Reductions in Appropriations."

The provisions I have vetoed and the reasons therefore are as follows:

1. On page 4, I have vetoed Section 1. This section would interject the legislature, through the Legislative Budget Committee, into the administration of state government. Further, were the section to become law, it would duplicate the purpose of Section 33, Chapter 143, Laws of 1981, and of Executive Order 81-20, which require the Department of General Administration to review and approve expenditures for state remodeling and renovation plans. A further review and approval by the LBC would be wasteful and unnecessary.

2. On page 5, I have vetoed Section 2, which forbids the use of funds for agency deputy director positions not existing in law prior to January 1, 1981. This is a blanket prohibition which excepts only the Department of Corrections and the Department of Social and Health Services. While I appreciate the spirit of economy that is conveyed by this section, these restrictions during a time of state agency reorganization could be counter-productive. Such efforts toward economies are better accomplished on a case-by-case basis by this office.

3. On page 10, Section 15, lines 34 and 35, and on page 11, lines 1 through 5, I have vetoed the proviso that reads: "Provided, that no raise effective February 1, 1983, shall increase any annual salary above $35,000 in which case the recipient shall receive only that portion of the raise which would increase the salary to no more than $35,000: Provided further, that no employee making $35,000 or more per year on February 1, 1983, shall be eligible for the raise effective on that date:"

On page 76, Section 76, I have vetoed subsection (11), which states: "Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no employee whose salary exceeds thirty-five thousand dollars per year may receive further increase from these funds, nor shall any employee whose salary is less than thirty-five thousand dollars exceed that figure as a result of further increase from these funds. Any savings created by such action shall be expended only for nonemployee related items."

While a salary lid for government employees may have appeal, it would soon seriously hamper the state's ability to attract and keep competent managers, supervisors, and other professionals. If the federal experience is any indication, we could expect increasing numbers of government managers to depart for business and consulting work, government lawyers for private firms, and doctors and dentists at our mental and other custodial institutions for private practice. Some of our best professionals in education would also be discouraged from public service. Especially in times of limited resources, the state cannot afford such a drain of talent. This could begin a slide toward mediocrity. In addition, it is unfair to select one group of state employees for discriminatory treatment in the area of pay raises. The same rules should apply to all state employees.

4. On page 17, I have vetoed Section 23. In a time of increased, and usually unavoidable, litigation, the Attorney General must be able to meet agency demands for legal services. This veto action restores the Office of the Attorney General to the appropriation level originally provided by the Legislature for the 1981--
NA
As a consequence of this veto, the appropriation level for the Department of Ecology is maintained at the level established in the 1981 Regular Session. I am, however, directing the Department of Ecology to implement budget and FTE levels consistent with the budget cuts that this section would have imposed.

10. On page 65, Section 71, I have vetoed the words "A maximum of . . . ." on line 5 of subsection (2) that direct that: "A maximum of $1,997,000 shall be expended for the operation of the Clearwater, Olympic, Larch Mountain, Indian Ridge, Cedar Creek, Maple Lane, Naselle, and Mission Creek Honor Camps."

The legislative intent of subsection (2) was to reduce the state General Fund appropriation to the honor camp program by 10 percent. Because of a technical drafting error, the amendment does not include the words "General Fund-State appropriation." This oversight limits the spending authority of the Department of Natural Resources to approximately 50 percent of the current expenditure level, because approximately 50 percent of this program is funded by nonstate general fund sources. At that level the honor camps could not survive. Therefore, a veto of the phrase indicated will permit the level of funding necessary to support the honor camps for the remainder of the biennium.

11. On page 78, Section 80, subsection (3), I have vetoed the phrase on lines 33 and 34 "under section 100 of this act." The appropriate reference should be to Section 82 of the Act, which amends Section 100 of the original appropriations bill, Senate Bill 3636, Chapter 340, Laws of 1981 (uncodified).

With the exceptions of the aforementioned sections, which I have vetoed, ESHB 811 is approved."

- HISTORY OF STATE MEASURES ............................................. 1747
CHAPTER 1
[House Bill No. 847]
OPERATING AGENCIES—REPAYMENT OF MEMBERS—INTEREST RATE

AN ACT Relating to payment by a joint operating agency to its members of interest at market rates; amending section 43.52.391, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 8, chapter 184, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 43.52.391; adding a new section to chapter 43.52 RCW; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 43.52.391, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 8, chapter 184, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 43.52.391 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as otherwise provided in this section, a joint operating agency shall have all powers now or hereafter granted public utility districts under the laws of this state. It shall not acquire nor operate any electric distribution properties nor condemn any properties owned by a public utility which are operated for the generation and transmission of electric power and energy or are being developed for such purposes with due diligence under a valid license or permit, nor purchase or acquire any operating hydroelectric generating plant owned by any city or district on June 11, 1953, or which may be acquired by any city or district by condemnation on or after January 1, 1957, nor levy taxes, issue general obligation bonds, or create subdistricts. It may enter into any contracts, leases or other undertakings deemed necessary or proper and acquire by purchase or condemnation any real or personal property used or useful for its corporate purposes. Actions in eminent domain may be instituted in the superior court of any county in which any of the property sought to be condemned is located and the court in any such action shall have jurisdiction to condemn property wherever located within the state; otherwise such actions shall be governed by the same procedure as now or hereafter provided by law for public utility districts. An operating agency may sell steam or water not required by it for the generation of power and may construct or acquire any facilities it deems necessary for that purpose.

An operating agency may make contracts for any term relating to the purchase, sale, interchange or wheeling of power with the government of the United States or any agency thereof and with any municipal corporation or public utility, within or without the state, and may purchase or deliver power anywhere pursuant to any such contract. An operating agency may acquire any coal-bearing lands for the purpose of assuring a long-term, adequate supply of coal to supply its needs, both actual and prospective, for the generation of power and may make such contracts with respect to the extraction, sale or disposal of coal that it deems proper.
Any member of an operating agency may advance or contribute funds to an agency as may be agreed upon by the agency and the member, and the agency shall repay such advances or contributions from proceeds of revenue bonds, from operating revenues or from any other funds of the agency, together with interest not to exceed ((six percent per annum)) the maximum specified in section 2(1) of this act. The legislative body of any member may authorize and make such advances or contributions to an operating agency to assist in a plan for termination of a project or projects, whether or not such member is a participant in such project or projects. Any member who makes such advances or contributions for terminating a project or projects in which it is not a participant shall not assume any liability for any debts or obligations related to the terminated project or projects on account of such advance or contribution.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 43.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The maximum rate at which an operating agency shall add interest in repaying a member under RCW 43.52.391, as now or hereafter amended, may not exceed the higher of fifteen percent per annum or four percentage points above the equivalent coupon issue yield (as published by the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco) of the average bill rate for twenty-six week treasury bills as determined at the first bill market auction conducted during the preceding calendar month.

(2) The maximum rate specified in subsection (1) of this section is applicable to all advances and contributions made by each member to the agency prior to the effective date of this act and to all renewals of such advances and contributions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the House January 21, 1982.
Passed the Senate January 21, 1982.
Approved by the Governor January 21, 1982.
Filed in Office of Secretary of State January 21, 1982.
CHAPTER 2
[Substitute House Bill No. 787]
REAPPORTIONMENT AND REDISTRICTING—VOTING BOUNDARY COMMISSION ACT

AN ACT Relating to redistricting and reapportionment; providing for a commission; adding new chapters to Title 29 RCW; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. It is the intent of the legislature to reapportion and redistrict the congressional districts of the state of Washington in accordance with the Constitution and laws of the United States and the state of Washington. It is the intent to encompass within each congressional district, as nearly as practicable, an equal number of state inhabitants as enumerated in the 1980 federal decennial census.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. In every case the population of the congressional districts created has been ascertained on the basis of the total number of persons found inhabiting such areas as of April 1, 1980, under the 1980 federal decennial census. The legislature hereby declares that no practical means have been found to more accurately determine the population inhabiting such areas other than through the 1980 federal decennial census data.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) Any area not specifically included within the boundaries of any of the districts as described in this chapter and which is completely surrounded by a particular district, shall be a part of that district. Any such area not completely surrounded by a particular district shall be a part of the district having the smallest number of inhabitants and having territory contiguous to such area.

(2) Any area described in this chapter as specifically embraced in two or more noninclusive districts shall be a part of the adjacent district having the smallest number of inhabitants and shall not be a part of the other district or districts.

(3) Any area specifically mentioned as embraced within a district but separated from such district by one or more other districts, shall be assigned as though it had not been included in any district specifically described.

(4) Where a congressional district boundary intersects an individual dwelling, the residents of that household shall be assigned to the adjacent district having the smallest number of inhabitants.

(5) The 1980 United States federal decennial census shall be used for determining the number of inhabitants under this chapter.
(6) If any court of competent jurisdiction requires transient military personnel that were not included in the United States census bureau data to be included, these persons shall be included in the population of the district or districts from which the persons were excluded.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Some congressional district boundaries are defined in terms of the legislative districts established under chapter 44.07B RCW as it exists on the effective date of this act. Any amendment of a legislative district enacted after the effective date of this act shall not alter congressional district boundaries unless the alteration of the congressional district boundaries is specifically included in the amendment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. For the purposes of this chapter, congressional districts shall be described in terms of:

(1) Legislative districts established under chapter 44.07B RCW as it exists on the effective date of this act except as provided in section 4 of this act;

(2) Official United States census bureau tracts, enumeration districts, block numbering areas, block groups, blocks, or census county divisions established by the United States bureau of the census in the 1980 federal decennial census;

(3) Counties, municipalities, or other political subdivisions or parts of political subdivisions as they existed on April 1, 1980;

(4) Any natural or artificial boundaries or monuments including but not limited to rivers, streams, or lakes as they existed on April 1, 1980;

(5) Legal descriptions used to describe real property including "section", "range", and "township";

(6) Roads, streets, or highways as they existed on April 1, 1980; or

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The legislature recognizes and intends to carry out the legislature’s constitutional duty to provide for redistricting and reapportionment by taking the necessary legislative action to remedy any portion of this act which is found to be invalid. When necessary, the speaker of the house of representatives, the president of the senate, and the secretary of state shall each designate one person and the three persons so designated shall jointly recommend any necessary remedies to the legislature before the next special or regular legislative session.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Sections 1 through 16 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 29 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. The legislature recognizes that it is of paramount importance to the people of this state that their government be responsible and accountable. To this end, regular reapportionment and redistricting of state legislative and congressional districts is required to ensure fair and effective representation for the citizens of this state. The legislature further recognizes that local government districts should be regularly and fairly reapportioned and redistricted. Therefore, a decennial commission system is hereby established to provide for the development of plans, to be adopted into law without amendment, for reapportionment and redistricting, according to specific criteria and standards.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. After each decennial census made by authority of the United States after the effective date of this act, and thereafter in each year ending in one, a commission shall be established to provide for the development of plans, to be adopted into law without amendment, for the redistricting and reapportionment of state legislative and congressional districts as are required by law, and for the review of local redistricting plans. The commission shall be known as the voting boundary commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. State and congressional redistricting plans shall be drawn by the voting boundary commission according to the following apportionment standards:

1. State legislative districts in each house of the legislature shall have population as nearly equal as is practicable, excluding transient military personnel, according to the population reported in the most recent federal decennial census. In no case may a single district have a population which varies by more than five percent from the average population of all districts.

2. Congressional districts shall have a population as nearly equal as is practicable, excluding transient military personnel, according to the population reported in the most recent federal decennial census. In no case may a single district have a population which varies by more than two percent from the average population of all districts.

3. All districts shall be composed of convenient and contiguous territory.

4. All districts shall be drawn, as nearly as practicable, so as to be separated by existing natural or artificial barriers.

5. All districts shall be drawn to coincide with the boundaries of local political subdivisions, if practicable and not inconsistent with other criteria.

6. No district may be drawn for the purpose of diluting the voting strength of any language or racial minority group.

7. No district may be drawn to purposely favor or disfavor any political party.

8. Districts shall be drawn so as to minimize division of natural neighborhoods and communities of interest, whenever practicable.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. Members of the voting boundary commission shall be selected as follows:

(1) By January 1st of each year ending in one, the secretary of state shall give public notice of the establishment of that decade's voting boundary commission to give reasonable and adequate opportunity for interested parties to offer nominations to the selecting authorities.

(2) By February 15, the selecting authorities shall announce their appointment, and certify those appointments to the secretary of state, of the persons selected to serve as voting boundary commission commissioners. If after February 15 an appointment has not been made, the vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the chief judges of the court of appeals divisions from a list of names submitted by the party leadership of the original selecting authority for that position. The leadership shall submit a list of at least three names to the court of appeals judges by March 1 and selection shall be made therefrom within five calendar days. If the selecting authority fails to submit a list of names to the court of appeals chief judges, it is the responsibility of the chief judges to appoint a commissioner of their own choosing by March 10 and certify the appointment to the secretary of state.

(3) The secretary of state shall be the nonvoting chairman of the voting boundary commission.

(4) A vacancy on the commission shall be filled by the original selecting authority, or its successor, within fifteen days of the vacancy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. The selecting authorities shall be as follows:

(1) For commissioner 1, the legislative leadership of the largest party in the Washington state house of representatives.

(2) For commissioner 2, the legislative leadership of the second largest party in the Washington state house of representatives.

(3) For commissioner 3, the legislative leadership of the largest party in the Washington state senate.

(4) For commissioner 4, the legislative leadership of the second largest party in the Washington state senate.

(5) For commissioner 5, the state central committee of the political party to which the governor belongs.

(6) For commissioner 6, the state central committee of the major political party with which the governor is not affiliated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. (1) Each person appointed to the commission shall take an oath in substantially the following form: "I, ............, do solemnly swear (or affirm), that I will faithfully and conscientiously discharge my duties as commissioner, I will uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States and the state of Washington, and I will serve the public interest of the people of this state in establishing fair and equitable redistricting and reapportionment plans according to the standards and guidelines of the United States and Washington state Constitutions and the provisions of the voting boundary commission act."

(2) No person may be appointed to the commission who:
   (a) Is not a registered voter of the state at the time of selection;
   (b) Holds or has held legislative or congressional office within six months prior to selection;
   (c) Is a relative of or is employed by a member of the state house of representatives or the state senate; or
   (d) Is or has within three months prior to selection been a registered lobbyist.

(3) Each commissioner shall comply with the disclosure requirements of the public disclosure act, chapter 42.17 RCW, within thirty days of appointment as commissioner, and thereafter as may be required pursuant to the public disclosure act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. No member of the commission may hold or campaign for a legislative or congressional seat while a member of the commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. (1) The commission shall prepare, by November 31st of each year ending in one, at least one plan dividing the state into legislative and congressional districts. If a plan receives the approval of four commissioners, it shall be designated a four-commissioner plan and shall be submitted to the legislature for statutory enactment without amendment.

(2) If no plan achieves the approval of four commissioners, then any three commissioners may propose a plan to the legislature by December 15th of each year ending in one. All such three-commissioner plans shall be submitted to the legislature for approval without amendment. A roll call vote is required on each such plan submitted. The legislature shall vote on each plan within fifteen legislative days of its submission.

(3) A plan that does not receive a majority vote in each house of the legislature or that has been vetoed by the governor shall be returned to the commission. Within twenty days of the date on which the legislature no longer has any plan before it for consideration, the commission shall submit a single four-commissioner plan to the legislature. If no four commissioners agree, such three-commissioner plans as are available shall be submitted to the legislature. The legislature shall vote on each plan within fifteen legislative days of the plan's submission.

(4) The commission shall adopt state legislative and congressional plans in accordance with the rule-making procedures of chapter 34.04 RCW, the administrative procedure act: PROVIDED. That the judicial review provisions of the administrative procedure act do not apply.

(5) The state legislative and congressional plans shall be drawn according to the apportionment standards of section 20 of this act.

(6) If a plan is not approved by the legislature by June 1 of each year ending in two, the secretary of state may petition the applicable federal court to declare the existing redistricting and reapportionment laws invalid and provide for redistricting and reapportionment by court order.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. (1) The commission shall adopt rules of practice and procedure pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, the administrative procedure act.

(2) Three members of the commission constitute a quorum to do business.

(3) The commission shall, in the preparation and adoption of plans, provide for adequate notice to the public of its actions. The commission shall, prior to adoption of a plan, hold public hearings.

(4) The commission shall preserve all information filed with and developed by the commission. Upon the ultimate conclusion of the business of any decade's commission, its records and files shall be transferred to the custody of the state archives.

(5) The commission is subject to the open public meetings act, chapter 42.30 RCW.

(6) The commission shall prepare and maintain minutes of its proceedings pursuant to RCW 42.32.030.

(7) The commission shall prepare and publish a report on the final state plan, explaining how population and other criteria were used in drawing the plan, and providing a detailed map or maps showing the location of district boundaries. The official copy of the report shall be filed with the secretary of state.

(8) In each certification or remand of a local government plan, the commission shall prepare a report explaining the basis for its action, including the criteria applied.

(9) The commission shall be the agency of state government designated to receive the results of each federal decennial census. In the case of census data generated or forwarded by the federal government during a period in which a decennial commission is not in operation, the office of the secretary of state shall be the agency designated to receive the data.

(10)(a) The decennial commission shall prepare state and congressional plans and review local government plans as expeditiously as possible. The commission shall take all necessary steps to conclude its business and cease operations, including a final report detailing financial expenditures and the disposition of all commission property, papers, and business, by October 31 of each year ending in two. The commission shall thereupon be terminated, until appointment of the next decade's commission: PROVIDED, That the commission may temporarily reconvene from time to time if necessary to hear and decide appeals from a challenged local plan, or if reconvened by the supreme court to comply with a court order for preparation of a new plan or revision of the existing plan.

(b) When the decade's decennial commission has ceased operations, any remaining commission business, if any, shall be transferred for conclusion to the office of the secretary of state. Any legal challenges or litigation pending at the time of the commission's termination shall continue to be prosecuted by the commission's legal staff until appropriate resolution. The office of the secretary of state shall be substituted as the successor agency in the case of any litigation continuing after the commission's termination.

(11) In conjunction with the office of the secretary of state, the commission may undertake projects designed to inform the citizenry of its work and the importance of redistricting in the structure of government of the state.

(12) The commission may accept funds, grants, gifts, and bequests from any lawful source, to be used for lawful commission business pursuant to this chapter.

(13) The commission may perform other tasks as prescribed by law, and undertake any activity consistent therewith that the commission deems necessary for the fair and expeditious completion of its mandate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. (1) It is the responsibility of each local government and each municipal corporation with a governing body comprised of internal director districts not based on statutorily required land ownership or residency criteria to periodically redistrict its governmental unit, based on population information from the most recent federal decennial census.

(2) Within forty-five days after its receipt of federal decennial census information applicable to the specific local area, the commission or the secretary of state shall forward the census information to each local government and municipal corporation charged with redistricting under this chapter.

(3) No later than eight months after its receipt of federal decennial census data, the governing body of the municipal corporation shall prepare a plan for redistricting its internal or director districts.

(4) The plan shall be consistent with the following criteria:

(a) Each internal director district shall be as nearly equal in population to each and every other internal director district comprising the municipal corporation.

(b) Each district shall be as compact as possible.
(c) Each district shall be comprised of geographically contiguous area.

(d) Population data may not be used for purposes of favoring or disfavoring any racial group or political party.

(e) To the extent feasible and if not inconsistent with the basic enabling legislation for the municipal corporation, the district boundaries shall coincide with existing recognized natural boundaries and shall, to the extent possible, preserve existing communities of related and mutual interest.

(5) During the adoption of its plan, the municipal corporation shall ensure that full and reasonable public notice of its actions is provided. The municipal corporation shall hold at least one public hearing on the redistricting plan at least one week before adoption of the plan.

(6)(a) An elected official residing in an area affected by the municipal corporation's redistricting plan may request review of the adopted local plan by the voting boundary commission, within forty-five days of the plan's adoption. Any request for review must specify the reason or reasons alleged why the local plan is not consistent with the applicable redistricting criteria. The municipal corporation may be joined as respondent. The voting boundary commission shall thereupon review the challenged plan for compliance with the applicable redistricting criteria set out in section 20 of this act and subsection (4) of this section.

(b) If, within thirty days of submission of a local government plan, the commission finds the plan to be consistent with the requirements of this chapter or the commission fails to find that the plan is not consistent with the requirements of this chapter, the secretary of state shall certify the plan. A certified plan shall take effect ten days after certification.

(c) If the commission determines the plan does not meet the requirements of this chapter, in whole or in part, it shall remand the plan for further or corrective action within a specified reasonable time period.

(d) If the commission finds that any request for review is frivolous or has been filed solely for purposes of harassment or delay, it may impose appropriate sanctions on the party requesting review, including payment of attorneys' fees and costs to the respondent municipal corporation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the legislature may make minor technical amendments to the final state or congressional redistricting plan, upon a vote of a majority of legislators. Minor technical amendments are those changes in legal description, area identification, or other wording which are needed to conform the plan's language to that originally intended, as expressed during commission public hearings, maps, reports, or other public announcements. Minor technical amendments may not alter the fundamental shape or population of any district.
(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the legislature may amend the state or congressional plan, in any manner, by a vote of two-thirds of the membership of each house. Any such amendment must be consistent with the standards of section 20 of this act. No such amendment may take effect less than eight months before a regularly scheduled legislative or congressional general election in the district or districts subject to the amendment.

(3) The legislature shall ensure public notice and an adequate opportunity for public comment prior to its adoption of any amendment of any state or congressional voting boundary plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. (1) The designee of the commission shall be the secretary of state or his delegate. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state to prepare minutes and official notices of the commission, to act as liaison between the commission and other governmental units as required by the commission, and to otherwise assist the commission. The secretary of state shall furnish the commission with such staff and facilities as may be necessary to fulfill its duties. The secretary of state shall submit to the governor and the legislature, by April 15 of each year, a report summarizing the nature and extent of the assistance rendered to the commission.

(2) In addition to staff support rendered by the secretary of state, the commission may retain and employ an independent general counsel to act as the chief legal officer of the commission. The commission counsel shall represent the commission in any court proceedings.

(3) Each commissioner shall be compensated for his or her services and reimbursed for expenses in the manner and amount provided for members of the state house of representatives.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. (1) The supreme court has original jurisdiction of any challenge to the validity of a final plan for state and congressional districts, or to a challenge to a certified local plan. The supreme court shall review and decide a challenge to any plan within ninety days after filing of an appeal.

(2) The supreme court shall review the challenged plan for consistency with constitutional requirements and the standards and criteria set forth in this chapter. The court may, if it finds a state or congressional plan invalid in whole or in part, order the commission to convene and to prepare a new plan within a specified time. In the event of the invalidity of a certified local plan, the court shall not reconvene the commission but shall require the local government to take the necessary corrective action directly.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. This chapter may be known and cited as the voting boundary commission act of 1982.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. Sections 18 through 31 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 29 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. If any provision of this 1982 act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the House January 19, 1982.
Passed the Senate February 10, 1982.
Approved by the Governor February 17, 1982.
Filed in Office of Secretary of State February 17, 1982.

CHAPTER 3
[Substitute House Bill No. 833]
SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 33.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The legislature finds that the statutory law relating to savings and loan associations has not been generally updated or modernized since 1945; and, as a result, many changes to Title 33 RCW should now be made with respect to the powers and duties of the supervisor; to the provisions relating to the organization, management and conversion of savings and loan associations; and to the powers and restrictions placed upon savings and loan associations to make investments. While it is the intent of the legislature to grant permissive investment powers to state-chartered savings and loan associations, it does not intend these associations to abandon the residential financing market in Washington. It, therefore, finds that the powers granted in this act are for the purpose of updating and modernizing the law relating to savings and loan associations, thereby creating a more secure and responsive financial environment in which the residential home buyer will continue to obtain financing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 33.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The supervisor may also furnish in whole or in part examination reports concerning any association in danger of insolvency to the directors or officers of a potential acquiring party when, in the supervisor's opinion, it is necessary to do so in order to protect the interests of members, depositors, or borrowers of the examined association.

In the event of this consent or if upon the record made at the hearing the supervisor finds that any violation or practice specified in the notice of charges has been established, the supervisor may issue and serve upon the association an order to cease and desist from the violation or practice. The order may require the association and its directors, officers, employees, and agents to cease and desist from the violation or practice and

(1) The board of directors of such association shall pass a resolution declaring its intention to convert the association into a savings bank or commercial bank and shall apply to the supervisor of banking for leave to submit to the members of the association the question whether the association shall be converted into a savings bank or a commercial bank. A duplicate of the application to the supervisor of banking shall be filed with the supervisor of savings and loan associations, except that no such filing shall be required in the case of an association organized under the laws of the United States. The application shall include a proposal which sets forth the method by and extent to which membership or stockholder interests, as the case may be, in the association are to be converted into membership or stockholder interests, as the case may be, in the savings bank or commercial bank, and the proposal shall allow for any member or stockholder to withdraw the value of his interest at any time within sixty days of the completion of the conversion. The proposal shall be subject to the approval of the supervisor of banking and shall conform to all applicable regulations of the federal home loan bank board, the federal savings and loan insurance corporation, the federal deposit insurance corporation, or other federal regulatory agency.

(2) Thereupon the supervisor of banking shall make the same investigation and determine the same questions as ((he)) would be required by law to make and determine in case of the submission to ((him)) the supervisor of banking of a certificate of incorporation of a proposed new ((mutual)) savings bank or commercial bank, and ((he)) the supervisor of banking shall also determine after conference with the supervisor of savings and loan associations whether by the proposed conversion the business needs and conveniences of the ((shareholders)) members of ((such)) the association would be served with facility and safety, except that no such conference shall be pertinent to such investigation or determination in the case of an association organized under the laws of the United States. After the supervisor of banking ((shall have satisfied himself by such investigation)) determines whether it is expedient and desirable to permit the proposed conversion, ((he)) the supervisor of banking shall, within sixty days after the filing of ((said)) the application, endorse thereon over ((his)) the official signature of the supervisor of banking the word "granted" or the word "refused", with the date of such endorsement and shall immediately notify the secretary of such association of his decision((; PROVIDED, That)). ((In case of refusal, said board of directors, or a majority thereof;)) If the application is denied by the supervisor of banking, the association, acting by a two-thirds majority of its board of directors, may, within thirty days after receiving the notice of ((such refusal)) the denial, appeal to ((a board of appeal composed of the governor or the governor’s designee, the attorney general and the supervisor of banking, in the same manner and under the same procedure as that prescribed by law for an appeal to such

The vote on (said) the question shall be by ballot. Any (shareholder) member may vote by proxy or may transmit (his) the member's ballot by mail if the bylaws provide a method for so doing. If two-thirds or more in number of the (shareholders) members voting on the question vote affirmatively, then the board of directors shall have power, and it shall be (their) its duty, to proceed to convert such association into a (mutual) savings bank or commercial bank; otherwise, the proposed conversion shall be abandoned and shall not be again submitted to the (shareholders) members within three years from the date of (said) the meeting.

(5) Upon the filing of (said) the certificate in triplicate, the supervisor of banking shall, within thirty days thereafter, if satisfied that all the provisions of this chapter have been complied with, issue in triplicate an authorization certificate stating that the corporation has complied with all the requirements of law, and that it has authority to transact at the place designated in its certificate of incorporation the business of a (mutual) savings bank or commercial bank. One of the supervisor's certificates of authorization shall be attached to each of the certificates of reincorporation, and one set of these shall be filed and retained by the supervisor of banking, one set shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state, and one set shall be transmitted to the bank for its files. Upon the receipt from the corporation of the same fees as are required for filing and recording other incorporation certificates or articles, the secretary of state shall file (said) the certificates and record the same; whereupon the conversion of the association shall be deemed complete, and the signers of said reincorporation certificate and their successors shall thereupon become and be a corporation having the powers and being subject to the duties and obligations prescribed by the laws of this state applicable to (mutual) savings banks, and the time of existence of such corporation shall continue for the period of fifty years from the date of the filing of such certificate, unless sooner terminated pursuant to law. In the event of compliance with such statutes and regulations an appraisal of the (guaranty) stock shall be made by the supervisor, upon written request of the directors of the association, and the appropriate value of the (guaranty) stock may be given consideration in the proceedings to convert by giving credit to such stock from surplus and other reserves.

Sec. 97. Section 12, chapter 122, Laws of 1955 and RCW 33.48.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Any mutual association, either (state) domestic or federal, operating in the state of Washington may convert itself into a (guaranty) domestic stock (savings and loan) association. (Such) The conversion shall be effected by the vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting in person or by proxy at any regular or special meeting of the members called for such purpose. Notice of such meeting, stating the purpose thereof, shall be given to the supervisor and to each member by mailing notice to (his) the member’s last known address at least thirty days prior to the meeting.

At (such) the meeting, the members may adopt a resolution amending its articles of incorporation and bylaws to provide for operation under this chapter as a (guaranty) stock association.

Upon adoption of (such) the resolution, (savings) members shall be given notice of the proposed change and shall be offered, for a period of sixty days following the date of the meeting, the right to subscribe for the proposed (guaranty) stock (at-par), pro rata to their (savings) deposits in such mutual association, and such right shall be transferable. (The amount of such guaranty stock shall be as prescribed in this chapter.) In the event that the total (guaranty) stock required has not, at the end of the sixty day period, been fully subscribed, the unsubscribed portion shall be offered to any former subscribers for such (guaranty) stock.

When the stock has been fully subscribed and paid for, certified copies of the documents relating to the conversion shall be submitted to the supervisor for his approval of the conversion proceedings. Upon notification by the supervisor that (he) the supervisor approves the conversion, the directors shall adopt a resolution declaring the association to be a (guaranty) stock association and thereafter it shall be such.

The supervisor shall adopt such rules under chapter 34.04 RCW, the administrative procedure act, as are necessary to implement this section in a manner which protects the relative interests of members, depositors, borrowers, stockholders, and creditors.

Sec. 98. Section 13, chapter 122, Laws of 1955 and RCW 33.48.120 are each amended to read as follows:

The accumulated surplus and unallocated reserves of an association at the time of conversion to a (guaranty) stock association shall be designated as a permanent loss reserve against which any losses incurred on assets may be charged. In case of liquidation the remaining sum in said permanent loss reserve shall be distributed to the ((savings members)) depositors in proportion to the withdrawable value of their ((savings)) deposit accounts at the time of liquidation. In liquidation, after payment of all liabilities and the withdrawable value of all types and classes of ((savings)) deposit accounts together with the remainder in the permanent loss reserve heretofore mentioned, any excess shall be paid pro rata to the ((guaranty)) stockholders.

Sec. 99. Section 15, chapter 122, Laws of 1955 and RCW 33.48.140 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the intention of the legislature to grant, by this chapter, authority to create ((guaranty)) stock ((savings-and-loan)) associations in this state, by either organization or conversion under its provisions, and in the event of conflict between the provisions of this chapter and other provisions of Title 33 RCW, such other provisions shall be construed in favor of the accomplishment of the purposes of this chapter.

Sec. 101. Section 5, chapter 130, Laws of 1973 and RCW 33.48.180 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the filing of the application for a permit to sell (guaranty) stock, the supervisor shall examine the application and other papers and documents filed therewith and he may make a detailed examination, audit, and investigation of the association and its affairs. If the supervisor finds that the proposed plan for the issue and sale of such stock is fair, just and equitable, the supervisor shall issue to the applicant a permit authorizing it to issue and dispose of its stock in such amounts and for such considerations and upon such terms and conditions as the supervisor may provide in the permit. If the supervisor does not so find he shall deny the application and notify the applicant in writing of his decision.

Sec. 107. Section 15, chapter 130, Laws of 1973 and RCW 33.48.250 are each amended to read as follows:

An association may purchase stock issued by it in an amount not to exceed the amount of earned surplus or undivided profits available for dividends on its stock if either: the stock so purchased is included for federal estate tax purposes in determining the gross estate of a decedent, and the amount paid for such purchase is entitled to be treated under section 303 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (68A Stat. 3; 26 U.S.C. Sec. 1), or other applicable federal statute or the corresponding provision of any future federal revenue law, as a distribution in full payment in exchange for the stock so purchased, or such purchase is with the prior consent of the supervisor. Stock so purchased until sold shall be carried as treasury stock. Upon the purchase of any stock issued by the association, an amount equal to the purchase price shall be set aside from earned surplus or undivided profits available for dividends to a specific reserve account established for this purpose. If, in the opinion of the supervisor, it is necessary for any of the requirements of this chapter to be waived in order to permit an association which is in danger of failing to convert its charter from a mutual association to a stock association or from a stock association to a mutual association so that the association may be acquired by an association or a savings and loan holding company, then the supervisor may waive any such requirement.

Sec. 113. Section 43.19.100, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 2, chapter 185, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 43.19.100 are each amended to read as follows:

CHAPTER 4
[Third Substitute House Bill No. 179]
CHILD ABUSE AND NEGLECT COUNCIL—APPROPRIATION

AN ACT Relating to the prevention of child abuse and neglect; amending section 36.18.010, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 1, chapter 56, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 36.18.010; adding a new chapter to Title 43 RCW; making appropriations; and providing an expiration date.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature recognizes that child abuse and neglect is a threat to the family unit and imposes major expenses on society. The legislature further declares that there is a need to assist private and public agencies in identifying and establishing community based educational and service programs for the prevention of child abuse and neglect. It is the intent of the legislature that an increase in prevention programs will help reduce the breakdown in families and thus reduce the need for state intervention and state expense. It is further the intent of the legislature that prevention of child abuse and child neglect programs are partnerships between communities, citizens, and the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) There is established in the executive office of the governor a council on child abuse and neglect subject to the jurisdiction of the governor. As used in this chapter, "council" means the council on child abuse and neglect.

(2) The council shall be composed of the chairperson and ten other members as follows:

(a) The chairperson and four other members shall be appointed by the governor and shall be selected for their interest and expertise in the prevention of child abuse. A minimum of four designees by the governor shall not be affiliated with governmental agencies. A minimum of two of the designees shall reside east of the Cascade mountain range. Members appointed by the governor shall serve for two-year terms, except that the chairperson and two other members designated by the governor shall initially serve for three years. Vacancies shall be filled for any unexpired term by appointment in the same manner as the original appointments were made.

(b) The secretary of social and health services or the secretary's designee and the superintendent of public instruction or the superintendent's designee shall serve as voting members of the council.

(c) In addition to the members of the council, four members of the legislature shall serve as nonvoting, ex officio members of the council, one from each political caucus of the house of representatives to be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives and one from each political caucus of the senate to be appointed by the president of the senate.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Council members shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now or hereafter amended. Attendance at meetings of the council shall be deemed performance by a member of the duties of a member's employment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The governor may employ an executive director who shall be exempt from the provisions of chapter 41.06 RCW, and such other staff as are necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter. The salary of the executive director shall be fixed by the governor pursuant to RCW 43.03.040.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. To carry out the purposes of this chapter, the council on child abuse and neglect may:

1. Contract with public or private nonprofit organizations, agencies, schools, or with qualified individuals for the establishment of community-based educational and service programs designed to reduce the occurrence of child abuse and neglect. Each contract entered into by the council shall contain a provision for the evaluation of services provided under the contract. Contracts for services to prevent child abuse and child neglect shall be awarded as demonstration projects with continuation based upon goal attainment. Contracts for services to prevent child abuse and child neglect shall be awarded on the basis of probability of success based in part upon sound research data.

2. Facilitate the exchange of information between groups concerned with families and children.

3. Consult with applicable state agencies, commissions, and boards to help determine the probable effectiveness, fiscal soundness, and need for proposed educational and service programs for the prevention of child abuse and neglect.

4. Establish fee schedules to provide for the recipients of services to reimburse the state general fund for the cost of services received.

5. Adopt its own bylaws.

6. Adopt rules under chapter 34.04 RCW as necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Programs contracted for under this chapter are intended to provide primary child abuse and neglect prevention services. Such programs may include, but are not limited to:

1. Community-based educational programs on prenatal care, perinatal bonding, child development, basic child care, care of children with special needs, and coping with family stress; and

2. Community-based programs relating to crisis care, aid to parents, child-abuse counseling, support groups for abusive or potentially abusive parents and their children, and early identification of families where the potential for child abuse and neglect exists.
The council shall develop policies to determine whether programs will be demonstration or will receive continuous funding. Nothing in this chapter requires continued funding by the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. In awarding contracts under section 6 of this act, consideration shall be given to factors such as need, diversity of geographic locations, coordination with or enhancement of existing services, and the extensive use of volunteers in the program. Further consideration shall be given to the extent to which contract proposals are based on prior research that indicates a probability of goal achievement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Twenty-five percent of the funding for programs under this chapter shall be provided by the organization administering the program. Contributions of materials, supplies, or physical facilities may be considered as all or part of the funding provided by the organization.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The council shall report before the regular session of the legislature in 1983 to the governor and to the legislature concerning the council's activities and the effectiveness of those activities in fostering the prevention of child abuse and neglect.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The council may accept contributions, grants, or gifts in cash or otherwise from persons, associations, or corporations. All moneys received by the council or any employee thereof from contributions, grants, or gifts and not through appropriation by the legislature shall be deposited in a depository approved by the state treasurer. Disbursements of such funds shall be on the authorization of the council or a duly authorized representative thereof. In order to maintain an effective expenditure and revenue control, such funds shall be subject in all respects to chapter 43.88 RCW, but no appropriation shall be required to permit expenditure of such funds.

Sec. 12. Section 36.18.010, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 1, chapter 56, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 36.18.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. It is hereby recognized that the savings banks of the state of Washington are affected adversely by the uncertainties and ambiguities in the law relating to guaranty funds. A savings bank not having net earnings or undivided profits or other surplus may pay interest and dividends from its guaranty fund upon prior written approval of the supervisor, which approval shall not be withheld unless the supervisor has determined that such payments would place the savings bank in an unsafe and unsound condition.

CHAPTER 6
[House Bill No. 385]
REGULATORY FAIRNESS ACT

AN ACT Relating to administrative rules; amending section 3, chapter 240, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 15, chapter 186, Laws of 1980 and RCW 34.08.020; amending section 1, chapter 84, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 10, chapter 186, Laws of 1980 and RCW 34.04.045; amending section 7, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 and RCW 34.04.070; amending section 3, chapter 70, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 43.31.925; and creating a new chapter in Title 19 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature finds that small businesses in the state of Washington have in the past been subjected to rules adopted by agencies, departments, and instrumentalities of the state government which have placed a proportionately higher burden on the small business community in Washington state. The legislature also finds that such proportionately higher burdens placed on small businesses have reduced competition, reduced employment, reduced new employment opportunities, reduced innovation, and threatened the very existence of some small businesses. Therefore, it is the intent of the legislature that rules affecting the business community shall not place proportionately higher burdens on small businesses. The legislature therefore enacts this Regulatory Fairness Act to minimize such proportionately higher impacts of rules on small businesses in the future.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the definitions in this section apply through this chapter.

(1) "Small business" has the meaning given in RCW 43.31.920.

(2) "Small business economic impact statement" means a statement meeting the requirements of section 4 of this act prepared by a state agency pursuant to section 3 of this act.

(3) "Industry" means all of the businesses in this state in any one three-digit standard industrial classification as published by the United States department of commerce.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. In the adoption of any rule pursuant to RCW 34.04.025 which will have an economic impact on more than twenty percent of all industries, or more than ten percent of any one industry, the adopting agency:

(1) Shall reduce the economic impact of the rule on small business by doing one or more of the following when it is legal and feasible in meeting the stated objective of the statutes which are the basis of the proposed rule:
   (a) Establish differing compliance or reporting requirements or timetables for small businesses;
   (b) Clarify, consolidate, or simplify the compliance and reporting requirements under the rule for small businesses;
   (c) Establish performance rather than design standards;
   (d) Exempt small businesses from any or all requirements of the rule;

(2) Shall prepare a small business economic impact statement in accordance with section 4 of this act and file such statement with the code reviser along with the notice required under RCW 34.04.025;

(3) May request from the office of small business available statistics which the agency can use in the preparation of the small business economic impact statement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A small business economic impact statement shall analyze the costs of compliance for businesses required to comply with the provisions of a rule adopted pursuant to RCW 34.04.025, including costs of equipment, supplies, labor, and increased administrative costs, and compare to the greatest extent possible the cost of compliance for small business with the cost of compliance for the ten percent of firms which are the largest businesses required to comply with the proposed new or amendatory rules. The small business economic impact statement shall use one or more of the following as a basis for comparing costs:

(1) Cost per employee;
(2) Cost per hour of labor;
(3) Cost per one hundred dollars of sales;
(4) Any combination of (1), (2), or (3).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) Within one year after the effective date of this act, each agency shall publish and deliver to the office of financial management and to all persons who make requests of the agency for a copy of a plan to periodically review all rules then in effect and which have been issued by the agency which have an economic impact on more than twenty percent of all industries or ten percent of the businesses in any one industry. Such plan may be amended by the agency at any time by publishing a revision to the review plan and delivering such revised plan to the office of financial management and to all persons who make requests of the agency for the plan. The purpose of the review is to determine whether such rules should be continued without change or should be amended or rescinded, consistent with the stated objectives of applicable statutes, to minimize the economic impact on small businesses as described by this chapter. The plan shall provide for the review of all such agency rules in effect on the effective date of this act, within ten years of that date.

(2) In reviewing rules to minimize any significant economic impact of the rule on small businesses as described by this chapter, and in a manner consistent with the stated objectives of applicable statutes, the agency shall consider the following factors:

(a) The continued need for the rule;
(b) The nature of complaints or comments received concerning the rule from the public;
(c) The complexity of the rule;
(d) The extent to which the rule overlaps, duplicates, or conflicts with other state or federal rules, and, to the extent feasible, with local governmental rules; and
(e) The degree to which technology, economic conditions, or other factors have changed in the subject area affected by the rule.

(3) Each year each agency shall publish a list of rules which are to be reviewed pursuant to this section during the next twelve months and deliver a copy of the list to the office of financial management and all persons who make requests of the agency for the list. The list shall include a brief description of the legal basis for each rule as described by RCW 34.04.026(1)(a) or 34.04.026(1)(b), and shall invite public comment upon the rule.
Sec. 6. Section 3, chapter 240, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 15, chapter 186, Laws of 1980 and RCW 34.08.020 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created a state publication to be called the Washington State Register, which shall be published on no less than a monthly basis. The register shall contain, but is not limited to, the following materials received by the code reviser's office during the pertinent publication period:

(1) (a) The full text of any proposed new or amendatory rule, as defined in RCW 34.04.010, and the citation of any existing rules the repeal of which is proposed, prior to the public hearing on such proposal. Such material shall be considered, when published, to be the official notification of the intended action, and no state agency or official thereof may take action on any such rule except on emergency rules adopted in accordance with RCW 34.04.030, until twenty days have passed since the distribution date of the register in which the rule and hearing notice have been published or a notice regarding the omission of the rule has been published pursuant to RCW 34.04.050(3) as now or hereafter amended;

(b) The small business economic impact statement, if required by section 3 of this 1982 act, preceding the full text of the proposed new or amendatory rule;

(2) The full text of any new or amendatory rule adopted, and the citation of any existing rule repealed, on a permanent or emergency basis;

(3) Executive orders and emergency declarations of the governor;

(4) Public meeting notices of any and all agencies of state government, including state elected officials whose offices are created by Article III of the state Constitution or RCW 48.02.010;

(5) Rules of the state supreme court which have been adopted but not yet published in an official permanent codification; and

(6) Summaries of attorney general opinions and letter opinions, noting the number, date, subject, and other information, and prepared by the attorney general for inclusion in the register.

Sec. 7. Section 1, chapter 84, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 10, chapter 186, Laws of 1980 and RCW 34.04.045 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For the purpose of legislative review of agency rules filed pursuant to this chapter, any proposed new or amendatory rule ((proposed after June 12, 1986;)) shall be accompanied by a statement prepared by the adopting agency which generally describes the rule's purpose and how the rule is to be implemented. Such statement shall be on the agency's stationery or a form bearing the agency's name and shall contain, but is not limited to, the following:

(a) A title, containing a description of the rule's purpose, the statutory authority for the rule, and any other information which may be of assistance in identifying the rule or its purpose;
(b) A summary of the rule and a statement of the reasons supporting the proposed action;

(c) The agency personnel, with their office location and telephone number, who are responsible for the drafting, implementation, and enforcement of the rule;

(d) The name of the person or organization, whether private, public, or governmental, proposing the rule;

(e) Agency comments or recommendations, if any, regarding statutory language, implementation, enforcement, and fiscal matters pertaining to the rule;

(f) Whether the rule is necessary as the result of federal law or federal or state court action, and if so, a copy of such law or court decision shall be attached to the purpose statement;

(g) A copy of the small business economic impact statement, where applicable.

(2) Upon filing notice of the proposed rule with the code reviser, the adopting agency shall have copies of the statement on file and available for public inspection and shall forward three copies each of the statement to the secretary of the senate and the chief clerk of the house of representatives, who will in turn forward the statement to the majority and minority caucuses and to the appropriate legislative committees.

Sec. 8. Section 7, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 and RCW 34.04.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The validity of any rule may be determined upon petition for a declaratory judgment thereon addressed to the superior court of Thurston county, when it appears that the rule, or its threatened application, interferes with or impairs or immediately threatens to interfere with or impair, the legal rights or privileges of the petitioner. The agency shall be made a party to the proceeding. The declaratory judgment may be rendered whether or not the petitioner has first requested the agency to pass upon the validity of the rule in question.

(2) In a proceeding under subsection (1) of this section the court shall declare the rule invalid only if it finds that it violates constitutional provisions or exceeds the statutory authority of the agency or was adopted without compliance with statutory rule-making procedures.

(3) A petition for a declaratory judgment pursuant to this section may not be solely based on the contents of the small business economic impact statement. However, in the case of a petition for a declaratory judgment as to the validity of any rule which is adopted after the effective date of this 1982 act, and which is based on grounds other than the contents of the small business economic impact statement, the compliance or noncompliance by the agency with the provisions of this chapter and where applicable the small business economic impact statement shall constitute part of the whole record of the agency's action in connection with the petition.
Sec. 9. Section 3, chapter 70, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 43.31-.925 are each amended to read as follows:

The director of financial management shall adopt and periodically update an accounting procedures manual. Any agency maintaining its own accounting and reporting system shall comply with the updated accounting procedures manual and the rules of the director adopted under this chapter. An agency may receive a waiver from complying with this requirement if the waiver is approved by the director. Waivers expire at the end of the fiscal biennium for which they are granted. The director shall forward notice of waivers granted to the legislative fiscal committees. The director of financial management may require such financial, statistical, and other reports as the director deems necessary from all agencies covering any period. This shall

The director of financial management shall review the data for accuracy and consistency. The director shall submit the data to the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee. The director shall advise and confer with agencies including appropriate standing committees of the legislature as may be designated by the speaker of the house and the president of the senate regarding the fiscal impact of such plans and may amend or alter said plans, except that for the following agencies no amendment or alteration of said plans may be made without the approval of the agency concerned: Agencies headed by elective officials;

The authority and responsibility to conduct such an examination shall be vested in the legislative budget committee as prescribed in RCW 44.28.085 as now or hereafter amended.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. under this chapter and, in so doing, may waive any prerequisite to licensure not set forth in this chapter.

The board may by rule establish the passing grade for the examination, and in so doing may grant credit based on experience which shall not exceed five percent of the total possible grade. The department shall keep records of the examination grades which shall be permanently kept with each applicant's file.

Sec. 14. Section 6, chapter 149, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 18, chapter 30, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.22.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person practicing podiatry must renew his or her license each year and pay a renewal fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended.

(Any podiatry license that has been allowed to lapse may be renewed by presentation of a new character certificate as required for examination; together with the payment of the annual license fee) Failure to register and pay the annual renewal fee invalidates the license, but it shall be reinstated upon written application to the director and payment to the state of a penalty of ten dollars, together with all delinquent annual renewal fees: PROVIDED, That a person who fails to renew his or her license for a period of three years is not entitled to renewal under this section but must file an original application as provided in this chapter, and pay the required fee. The board may permit an applicant whose license has lapsed in this manner to be licensed without examination if it determines that the applicant meets all the requirements for licensure in this state and is competent to engage in the practice of podiatry.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 18.22 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) If a podiatrist is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be mentally incompetent or mentally ill, the board shall suspend the podiatrist's license upon the entry of judgment, regardless of the pendency of an appeal.

(2) If it appears to the board that there is reasonable cause to believe that a podiatrist who has not been judicially determined to be mentally incompetent or mentally ill is unable to practice podiatry with reasonable skill and safety to patients due to illness, drunkenness, excessive use of drugs, narcotics, chemicals, or any other type of material or due to any mental or physical condition, a complaint in the name of the board shall be served upon the podiatrist for a hearing on the sole issue of the capacity of the podiatrist to practice. In enforcing this subsection the board may, upon probable cause, direct a podiatrist in writing to submit to a mental or physical examination by two or more physicians designated by the board, at least one of whom shall be approved by the podiatrist if he or she requests. A podiatrist's failure to submit to an examination when directed constitutes grounds for immediate suspension of the podiatrist's license and a default and final order of suspension may be entered without the taking of testimo-y or presentation of evidence, unless the failure was due to circumstances beyond the podiatrist's control. A podiatrist suspended under this subsection shall at reasonable intervals be given an opportunity to demonstrate that he or she can competently resume the practice of podiatry with reasonable skill and safety to patients.

(3) For the purpose of subsection (2) of this section, a podiatrist licensed under this chapter accepts the privilege of practicing podiatry in this state and by practicing or by filing annual registration to practice consents to a mental or physical examination when directed in writing by the board and waives objection to the admissibility of the examining physicians' testimony or examination reports on the ground of privileged communication.

(4) Neither the record of proceedings nor the orders entered by the board in any proceeding under subsection (2) of this section may be used against a podiatrist in any other proceeding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. There is added to chapter 18.22 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any of the following acts is unprofessional conduct and grounds for revocation, suspension or denial of license:

(1) The commission of any act involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, or corruption, whether the act is committed in the course of his or her practice as a podiatrist or not, and whether the act constitutes a crime or not. If the act constitutes a crime, conviction in a criminal proceeding is not a condition precedent to disciplinary action. A certified copy of the judgment and sentence of conviction is conclusive evidence of the guilt of the podiatrist of the crime described in the judgment and sentence in any disciplinary proceeding before the board;

(2) Misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact in obtaining a license or reinstatement of a license to practice podiatry;

(3) All advertising of podiatric business which is intended to or has a tendency to deceive the public or impose upon credulous or ignorant persons and is harmful or injurious to public morals or safety;

(4) The impersonation of another licensed podiatrist;

(5) The possession, use, prescription for use, or distribution of controlled substances or legend drugs in any way other than for therapeutic purposes;

(6) The offering, undertaking, or agreeing to cure or treat disease by a secret method, procedure, treatment, or medicine or the treating, operating, or prescribing for any human condition by a method, means, or procedure which the licensee refuses to divulge upon demand of the board;

(7) Unprofessional conduct under chapter 19.68 RCW;

(8) Aiding or abetting an unlicensed person to practice podiatry;

(9) Suspension or revocation of the podiatrist's license to practice podiatriy by competent authority in any state, federal, or foreign jurisdiction;
(10) Incompetency or negligence in the practice of podiatry resulting in serious harm to the patient;

(11) Violation of any board rule fixing a standard of professional conduct;

(12) Wilful disregard of a board subpoena or notice;

(13) Gross or continued wilful overcharging for professional services;

(14) Failure to abide by the terms of corrective actions directed by the board;

(15) Any public claim, representation, or advertisement that the licensee is a "doctor" or its synonyms independent of the title "podiatrist" or its synonyms; or

(16) Violation of any of the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 17. Section 10, chapter 38, Laws of 1917 as last amended by section 17, chapter 77, Laws of 1973 and RCW 18.22.210 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be deemed prima facie evidence of the practice of podiatry or ((as)) of holding ((himself)) oneself out as a practitioner of podiatry within the meaning of this chapter for any person to treat in any manner the human foot by medical, surgical or mechanical means or appliances, or to use the title "podiatrist" or any other words or letters which designate or tend to designate to the public that the person so treating or holding himself or herself out to treat, is a podiatrist: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That nothing herein contained shall prohibit a duly licensed physician or surgeon from treating the human foot by medical, surgical or mechanical means or appliances.

Sec. 18. Section 14, chapter 149, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 18, chapter 77, Laws of 1973 and RCW 18.22.215 are each amended to read as follows:

If any person engages in the practice of podiatry without possessing a valid license so to do, or if ((he)) a person violates the provisions of RCW 18.22.140, the attorney general, any prosecuting attorney, the director, or any citizen of the same county may maintain an action in the name of the state to enjoin such person from engaging in the practice of podiatry. The injunction shall not relieve from criminal prosecution, but the remedy by injunction shall be in addition to the liability of such offender to criminal prosecution and to license suspension or revocation ((of his license)).

Sec. 19. Section 12, chapter 149, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 19, chapter 77, Laws of 1973 and RCW 18.22.230 are each amended to read as follows:

The following practices, acts and operations are excepted from the operation of the provisions of this chapter:
(1) The practice of podiatry in the discharge of official duties by podiatrists in the United States armed forces, public health service, Veterans Bureau or Bureau of Indian Affairs;

(2) Recognized schools of podiatry or colleges of podiatry, and the practice of podiatry by students in such recognized schools or colleges, when acting under the direction and supervision of registered and licensed podiatrists acting as instructors;

(3) The practice of podiatry by licensed podiatrists of other states or countries while appearing as clinicians at meetings of the Washington state podiatry association or component parts thereof, or at meetings sanctioned by them;

The initial deposits required in RCW 79.01.204, not to exceed twenty-five percent of the actual or projected purchase price, but in the case of lump sum sales over five thousand dollars not less than five thousand dollars, shall be made on the day of the sale. The purchaser shall notify the department of natural resources before any timber is cut and before removal or processing of any valuable materials on the sale area, at which time the department of natural resources may require, in the amount determined by the department, advance payment for the removal, processing, and/or cutting of timber or other valuable materials, or bank letters of credit, payment bonds, or assignments of savings accounts acceptable to the department as adequate security. The amount of such advance payments and/or security shall at all times equal or exceed the value of timber cut and other valuable materials processed or removed until paid for. The initial deposit shall be maintained until all contract obligations of the purchaser are satisfied: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That all or a portion of said initial deposit may be applied as the final payment for said materials in the event the department of natural resources determines that adequate security exists for the performance or fulfillment of any remaining obligations of the purchaser under the sale contract.

The interest rate shall be fixed, from time to time, by rule adopted by the board of natural resources and shall not be less than six percent per annum. The applicable rate of interest as fixed at the date of sale and the maximum extension payment shall be set forth in the contract. The method for calculating the unpaid portion of the contract upon which such interest shall be paid by the purchaser shall be set forth in the contract. The department of natural resources shall pay into the state treasury all sums received for such extension and the same shall be credited to the fund to which was credited the original purchase price of the material so sold: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That any sale of timber, fallen timber, stone, gravel, sand, fill material, or building stone of an appraised value of ((five-hundred)) one thousand dollars or less may be sold directly to the applicant for cash at full appraised value without notice or advertising.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 4, chapter 55, Laws of 1933 and RCW 67.16.020 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be the duty of the commission, as soon as it is possible after its organization, to prepare and promulgate a complete set of rules and regulations to govern the race meets in this state. It shall determine and announce the place, time and duration of race meets for which license fees are exacted; and it shall be the duty of each person holding a license under the authority of this chapter, and every owner, trainer, jockey, and attendant at any race course in this state, to comply with all rules and regulations promulgated and all orders issued by the commission. It shall be unlawful for any person to hold any race meet without having first obtained and having in force and effect a license issued by the commission as in this chapter provided; and it shall be unlawful for any owner, trainer or jockey to participate in race meets in this state without first securing an annual license therefor from the state racing commission, the fee for which shall be set by the commission which shall offset the cost of administration and shall not be for a period of more than two years.

Sec. 2. Section 6, chapter 55, Laws of 1933 as amended by section 1, chapter 39, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 67.16.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person making application for license to hold a race meet, under the provisions of this chapter shall file an application with the commission which shall set forth the time, the place, the number of days such meet will continue, and such other information as the commission may require. The commission shall be the sole judge of whether or not the race meet shall be licensed and the number of days the meet shall continue. No person who has been convicted of any crime involving moral turpitude shall be issued a license, nor shall any license be issued to any person who has violated the terms or provisions of this chapter, or any of the rules and regulations of the commission made pursuant thereto, or who has failed to pay to the commission any or all sums required under the provisions of this chapter. The license shall specify the number of days the race meet shall continue and the number of races per day, which shall be not less than six nor more than ten, and for which a fee shall be paid daily in advance of five hundred dollars for each day for those meets which had gross receipts from parimutuel machines in excess of fifty million dollars in the previous year and two hundred dollars for each day for meets which had gross receipts from parimutuel machines at or below fifty million dollars in the previous year; in addition any newly authorized race meets shall pay two hundred dollars per day for the first year; PROVIDED, That if unforeseen obstacles arise, which prevent the holding, or completion of any race meet, the license fee for the meet, or for a portion which cannot be held may be refunded the licensee, if the commission deems the reasons for failure to hold or complete the race meet sufficient. Any unexpired license held by any person who violates any of the provisions of this chapter, or any of the rules or regulations of the commission made pursuant thereto, or who fails to pay to the commission any and all sums required under the provisions of this chapter, shall be subject to cancellation and revocation by the commission. Such cancellation shall be made only after a summary hearing before the commission, of which three days' notice, in writing, shall be given the licensee, specifying the grounds for the proposed cancellation, and at which hearing the licensee shall be given an opportunity to be heard in opposition to the proposed cancellation.

Sec. 3. Section 6, chapter 31, Laws of 1979 and RCW 67.16.105 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For race meets which have gross receipts of all parimutuel machines averaging more than five hundred thousand dollars for each authorized day of racing, the licensee shall pay to the commission daily four and one-half percent of the gross receipts up to the first five hundred thousand daily of all parimutuel machines at each race meet. All receipts in excess of five hundred thousand dollars shall be paid daily at the rate of five percent.

(2) For race meets which have gross receipts of all parimutuel machines ((averaging)) from four hundred thousand one dollars to five hundred thousand dollars ((or-less)) for each authorized day of racing, the licensee shall pay to the commission daily four percent of the gross receipts of all parimutuel machines at each race meet.

(3) For race meets which have gross receipts of all parimutuel machines from three hundred thousand one dollars to four hundred thousand dollars for each authorized day of racing, the licensee shall pay to the commission daily three and one-half percent of the gross receipts of all parimutuel machines at each race meet.

(4) For race meets which have gross receipts of all parimutuel machines from two hundred fifty thousand one dollars to three hundred thousand dollars for each authorized day of racing, the licensee shall pay to the commission daily three percent of the gross receipts of all parimutuel machines at each race meet.

(5) For race meets which have gross receipts of all parimutuel machines from two hundred thousand dollars to two hundred fifty thousand dollars for each authorized day of racing, the licensee shall pay to the commission daily two percent of the gross receipts of all parimutuel machines at each race meet.

(6) For race meets which have gross receipts of all parimutuel machines less than two hundred thousand dollars for each authorized day of racing, the licensee shall pay to the commission daily one percent of the gross receipts of all the parimutuel machines at each race meet.

Sec. 4. Section 2, chapter 94, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 31, Laws of 1979 and RCW 67.16.130 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law or of chapter 67.16 RCW, the commission may license race meets which are nonprofit in nature, of ten days or less, and which have an average daily handle of one hundred twenty thousand dollars or less, at a daily licensing fee of ten dollars and a payment to the commission of one percent of the gross receipts of all parimutuel pools during such race meet, and the sponsoring nonprofit association shall be exempt from any other fees as provided for in chapter
67.16 RCW or by rule or regulation of the commission: PROVIDED, That the commission on or after January 1, 1971 may deny the application for a license to conduct a racing meet by a nonprofit association, if same shall be determined not to be a nonprofit association by the Washington state racing commission.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law or of chapter 67.16 RCW the licensees of race meets which are nonprofit in nature, of ten days or less, and which have an average daily handle of one hundred twenty thousand dollars or less, shall be permitted to retain fourteen percent of the gross receipts of all parimutuel pools during such race meet; except that exotic races at such meets shall be permitted to retain an additional one percent of the gross receipts of all parimutuel pools during such exotic races with the additional retained amount used for Washington bred breeder awards, not to exceed twenty percent of the winner's share of the purse. Any portion of the remainder of the one percent may be used to support the general purse structure of the race meet, except that all such increased revenue to the licensee to be used for purses will be in addition to and will not supplant the customary purse structure between racetracks and participating horsemen. As used in this section, "exotic races" means daily doubles, quinellas, trifectas, and exactas. Exotic races are subject to the approval of the commission.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law or of chapter 67.16 RCW or any rule promulgated by the commission, no license for a race meet which is nonprofit in nature, of ten days or less, and which has an average daily handle of one hundred twenty thousand dollars or less, shall be denied for the reason that the applicant has not installed an electric pari-mutuel tote board.

(4) As a condition to the reduction in fees as provided for in subsection (1) hereof, all fees charged to horse owners, trainers, or jockeys, or any other fee charged for a permit incident to the running of such race meet shall be retained by the commission as reimbursement for its expenses incurred in connection with the particular race meet.

Sec. 5. Section 7, chapter 31, Laws of 1979 and RCW 67.16.180 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Race meets of twenty-five days or less, which run sixty percent quarter horses and/or Appaloosa races, may retain fourteen percent from the gross receipts of any parimutuel machine; except that exotic races at such meets shall be permitted to retain an additional one percent of the gross receipts of all parimutuel pools during such exotic races with the additional retained amount used for Washington bred breeder awards, not to exceed twenty percent of the winner's share of the purse. Any portion of the remainder of the one percent may be used to support the general purse structure of the race meet, except that all such increased revenue to the licensee to be used for purses will be in addition to and will not supplant the customary purse structure between racetracks and participating horsemen. As used in this section, "exotic races" means daily doubles, quinellas, trifectas, and exactas. Exotic races are subject to the approval of the commission.

(2) For race meets of twenty-five days or less, which run sixty percent quarter horses and/or Appaloosa races, the licensee shall pay to the commission daily one percent of the gross receipts of all parimutuel machines at each race meet. Such one percent shall be paid daily.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If any provision of this amendatory act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 33
[Senate Bill No. 4713]
MOTOR VEHICLE FUND—DISTRIBUTION FORMULA ADJUSTMENTS

AN ACT Relating to motor vehicle fund distributions; amending section 46.68.120, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 44, chapter 87, Laws of 1980 and RCW 46.68.120; and adding new sections to chapter 46.68 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 46.68.120, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 44, chapter 87, Laws of 1980 and RCW 46.68.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Funds to be paid to the counties of the state shall be subject to deduction and distribution as follows:

(1) One and one-half percent of such ((sums)) funds shall be deducted monthly as such((sums)) funds accrue and set aside for the use of the department of transportation and the county road administration board for the supervision of work and expenditures of such counties on the county roads thereof, including the supervision and administration of federal-aid programs for which the department of transportation ((commission)) has responsibility: PROVIDED, That any ((money)) funds so retained and not expended shall be credited in the succeeding biennium to the counties in proportion to deductions herein made;
(2) Two-tenths of one percent of such funds shall be deducted monthly as such funds accrue and set aside for the use of the department of transportation to carry out the responsibilities specified in section 3 of this 1982 act: PROVIDED, That any funds so retained and not expended shall be credited in the succeeding biennium to the counties in proportion to deductions herein made;

(3) All sums required to be repaid to counties composed entirely of islands shall be deducted;

(((3))) (4) The balance of such funds remaining to the credit of counties after such deductions shall be paid to the several counties monthly, as such funds accrue, ((upon the basis of the following formula:

(a) Ten percent of such sum shall be divided equally among the several counties.

(b) Thirty percent shall be paid to each county in direct proportion that the sum of the total number of private automobiles and trucks licensed by registered owners residing in unincorporated areas and seven percent of the number of private automobiles and trucks licensed by registered owners residing in incorporated areas within each county bears to the total of such sums for all counties. The number of registered vehicles so used shall be as certified by the director of licensing for the year next preceding the date of calculation of the allocation amounts. The director of licensing shall first supply such information not later than the fifteenth day of February, 1956; and on the fifteenth of February each two years thereafter:

(c) Thirty percent shall be paid to each county in direct proportion that the product of the county's trunk highway mileage and its prorated estimated annual cost per trunk mile as provided in subsection (e) is to the sum of such products for all counties. County trunk highways are defined as county roads regularly used by school buses and/or rural free delivery mail carriers of the United States post office department, but not foot carriers. Determination of the number of miles of county roads used in each county by school buses shall be based solely upon information supplied by the superintendent of public instruction who shall on October 1, 1955, and on October 1st of each odd-numbered year thereafter furnish the transportation commission with a map of each county upon which is indicated the county roads used by school buses at the close of the preceding school year; together with a detailed statement showing the total number of miles of county highway over which school buses operated in each county during such year. Determination of the number of miles of county roads used in each county by rural mail carriers on routes serviced by vehicles during the year shall be based solely upon information supplied by the United States postal department as of January 1st of the even-numbered years:

(d) Thirty percent of such sum shall be paid to each of the several counties in the direct proportion that the product of the trunk highway mileage of the county and its "money need factor" as defined in subsection (f) is to the total of such products for all counties:

(e) Every four years, beginning with the 1958 allocation, the transportation commission and the legislative transportation committee shall reexamine or cause to be reexamined all the factors on which the estimated annual costs per trunk mile for the several counties have been based and shall make such adjustments as may be necessary. The following formula shall be used: One twenty-fifth of the estimated total county road replacement cost, plus the total annual maintenance cost, divided by the total miles of county road in such county, and multiplied by the result obtained from dividing the total miles of county road in said county by the total trunk road mileage in said county. For the purpose of allocating funds from the motor vehicle fund, a county road shall be defined as one established as such by resolution or order of establishment of the county legislative authority:

(f) The "money need factor" for each of the several counties shall be the difference between the prorated estimated annual costs as provided for in subsection (e) of this subsection and the sum of the following three amounts divided by the county trunk highway mileage:

(1) The equivalent of a two dollar and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value tax levy on the valuation, as equalized by the state department of revenue for state purposes, of all taxable property in the county road districts;

(2) One-fourth the sum of all funds received by the county from the federal forest reserve fund during the two calendar years next preceding the date of the adjustment of the allocation amounts as certified by the state treasurer, and

(3) One-half the sum of motor vehicle license fees and motor vehicle fuel tax refunded to the county during the two calendar years next preceding the date of the adjustment of the allocation amounts as provided in RCW 46.68.080. These shall be as supplied to the transportation commission by the state treasurer for that purpose. The department of revenue and the state treasurer shall supply the information herein requested on or before January 1, 1956, and on said date each two years thereafter.

The following formula shall be used for the purpose of obtaining the "money need factor" of the several counties. The prorated estimated annual cost per trunk mile multiplied by the trunk miles will equal the total need of the individual county. The total need minus the sum of the three resources set forth in subsection (f) shall equal the net need. The net need of the individual county divided by the total net needs for all counties shall equal the "money need factor" for that county.

(g) The transportation commission shall adjust the allocations of the several counties on March 1st of every even-numbered year based solely upon the sources of information hereinbefore required. PROVIDED, That the total allocation factor composed of the sum of the four factors defined in subsections (a), (b), (c), and (d) shall be held to a level not more than five percent above or five percent below the total allocation factor in use during the previous two-year period.

(b) The transportation commission and the legislative transportation committee shall reclog or cause to be reclogged the total road mileages upon which the prorated estimated annual costs per trunk mile are based and shall recalculate such costs on the basis of such reclogging and shall report their findings and recommendations to the legislature at its next regular session during an odd-numbered year.

(i) The transportation commission and the legislative transportation committee shall study and report their findings and recommendations to the legislature concerning the following problems as they affect the allocation of "motor-vehicle fund" funds to counties:

(1) Comparative costs per trunk mile based on federal-aid contracts versus those herein advocated;
(2) Average costs per trunk mile;
(3) The advisability of using either "trunk mileage" or "county road" mileage exclusively as the criterion instead of both as in this plan adopted;
(4) Reassessment of bridge costs based on current information and reclogging of bridges;
(5) The items in the list of resources used in determining the "need factor";
(6) The development of a uniform accounting system for counties with regard to road and bridge construction and maintenance costs;
(7) A redefinition of rural and urban vehicles which better reflects the use of said vehicles on county roads) in accordance with sections 2 and 3 of this 1982 act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 46.68 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Funds to be paid to the several counties pursuant to RCW 46.68.120(4) shall be allocated among them upon the basis of a distribution formula consisting of the following four factors:

(1) An equal distribution factor of ten percent of such funds shall be paid to each county;
(2) A population factor of thirty percent of such funds shall be paid to each county in direct proportion that the county's total equivalent population, as computed pursuant to section 3(1) of this 1982 act, is to the total equivalent population of all counties;
(3) A road cost factor of thirty percent of such funds shall be paid to each county in direct proportion that the county's total annual road cost, as computed pursuant to section 3(2) of this 1982 act, is to the total annual road costs of all counties;
(4) A money need factor of thirty percent of such funds shall be paid to each county in direct proportion that the county's money need factor, as computed pursuant to section 3(3) of this 1982 act, is to the total of money need factors of all counties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 46.68 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The equivalent population for each county shall be computed as the sum of the population residing in the county’s unincorporated area plus twenty-five percent of the population residing in the county’s incorporated area. Population figures required for the computations in this subsection shall be certified by the director of the office of financial management on or before July 1st of each odd-numbered year: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That for the purposes of computing the counties’ allocation factors effective March 1, 1982, through December 31, 1983, the director of the office of financial management shall furnish to the secretary of transportation those population figures required for the computation that were effective July 1, 1981.

(2) The total annual road cost for each county shall be computed as the sum of one twenty-fifth of the total estimated county road replacement cost, plus the total estimated annual maintenance cost. Appropriate costs for bridges and ferries shall be included. The secretary of transportation with the advice and assistance of the county road administration board shall be responsible for establishing a uniform system of roadway categories for both maintenance and construction and also for establishing a single state-wide cost per mile rate for each roadway category. The total annual cost for each county will be based on the established state-wide cost per mile and associated mileage for each category. The mileage to be used for these computations shall be as shown in the county road log as maintained by the secretary of transportation as of July 1, 1983, and each two years thereafter. Each county shall be responsible for submitting changes, corrections, and deletions as regards the county road log to the secretary of transportation. Such changes, corrections, and deletions shall be subject to verification and approval by the secretary of transportation prior to inclusion in the county road log: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That for the purpose of computing the counties’ allocation factors effective March 1, 1982, through December 31, 1983, the total annual road costs shall be those shown on page K-3, column 4 of the "1980 Cost Factor Study" published December 9, 1980, by the department of transportation.

(3) The money need factor for each county shall be the county’s total annual road cost less the following four amounts:

(a) One-half the sum of the actual county road tax levied upon the valuation of all taxable property within the county road districts pursuant to RCW 36.82.040 for the two calendar years next preceding the year of computation of the allocation amounts as certified by the department of revenue;
(b) One-half the sum of all funds received by the county road fund from the federal forest reserve fund pursuant to RCW 36.33.110 during the two calendar years next preceding the year of computation of the allocation amounts as certified by the state treasurer;

(c) One-half the sum of timber excise taxes received by the county road fund pursuant to chapter 84.33 RCW in the two calendar years next preceding the year of computation of the allocation amounts as certified by the state treasurer;

(d) One-half the sum of motor vehicle license fees and motor vehicle and special fuel taxes refunded to the county, pursuant to RCW 46.68.080 during the two calendar years next preceding the year of computation of the allocation amounts as certified by the state treasurer.

(4) The state treasurer and the department of revenue shall furnish to the secretary of transportation the information required by subsection (3) of this section on or before July 1st of each odd-numbered year: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That for the purpose of computing the counties’ allocation factors effective March 1, 1982, through December 31, 1983, the information required by subsection (3) of this section shall be for calendar years 1980 and 1981.

(5) The secretary of transportation, with the advice and assistance of the county road administration board, shall compute and provide to the counties the allocation factors of the several counties on or before September 1st of each year based solely upon the sources of information herein before required: PROVIDED, That the allocation factor shall be held to a level not more than five percent above or five percent below the allocation factor in use during the previous calendar year. Upon computation of the actual allocation factors of the several counties, the secretary of transportation shall provide such factors to the state treasurer to be used in the computation of the counties’ fuel tax allocation for the succeeding calendar year. The state treasurer shall adjust the fuel tax allocation of each county on January 1st of every year based solely upon the information provided by the secretary of transportation.

(6) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (5) of this section, the secretary of transportation, with the advice and assistance of the county road administration board, shall adjust, as necessary, the allocation percentages of the several counties so that no county shall in any calendar year receive less than eighty-five percent of the actual funds distributed to that county in calendar year 1981 under this section. The eighty-five percent entitlement of funds authorized by this subsection shall be reduced proportionally in the succeeding year in the event that the total amount of funds distributed to the counties under this section in any year is less than the distribution of such funds in 1981.

CHAPTER 34
[Substitute House Bill No. 1015]
STATE CONVENTION AND TRADE CENTER, SEATTLE—BOND ISSUE—SPECIAL EXCISE TAX—LOCAL CONVENTION AND TRADE FACILITIES—APPROPRIATION

AN ACT Relating to public facilities; adding a new chapter to Title 67 RCW; making an appropriation; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature finds:
(1) The convention and trade show business will provide both direct and indirect civic and economic benefits to the people of the state of Washington.

(2) The location of a state convention and trade center in the city of Seattle will particularly benefit and increase the occupancy of larger hotels and other lodging facilities in the city of Seattle and to a lesser extent in King county.

(3) Imposing a special excise tax on the price of lodging in Seattle, and at a lower rate elsewhere in King county, is an appropriate method of paying for a substantial part of the cost of constructing, maintaining, and operating a state convention and trade center.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The governor is authorized to form a public nonprofit corporation in the same manner as a private nonprofit corporation is formed under chapter 24.03 RCW. The public corporation shall be an instrumentality of the state and have all the powers and be subject to the same restrictions as are permitted or prescribed to private nonprofit corporations, but shall exercise those powers only for carrying out the purposes of this act and those purposes necessarily implied therefrom. The governor shall appoint a board of nine directors for the corporation who shall serve terms of six years, except that two of the original directors shall serve for two years and two of the original directors shall serve for four years. The directors may provide for the payment of their expenses. The corporation may cause a state convention and trade center with an overall size of approximately three hundred thousand square feet to be designed and constructed on a site in the city of Seattle. In acquiring, designing, and constructing the state convention and trade center, the corporation shall consider the recommendations and proposals issued on December 11, 1981, by the joint select committee on the state convention and trade center.

The corporation may acquire real and personal property by lease, purchase, condemnation of privately owned land, or gift, accept grants, request the financing provided for in section 3 of this act, cause the state convention and trade center facilities to be constructed, and do whatever is necessary or appropriate to carry out those purposes. The corporation shall maintain, operate, promote, and manage the state convention and trade center.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. For the purpose of providing funds for the state convention and trade center, the state finance committee is authorized to issue, upon request of the corporation formed under section 2 of this act and in a single offering, general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of ninety-nine million dollars, or so much thereof as may be required, to finance this project and all costs incidental thereto. No bonds authorized in this section may be offered for sale without prior legislative appropriation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The proceeds from the sale of the bonds authorized in section 3 of this act, earnings from the investment of the proceeds, proceeds of the tax imposed under section 9 of this act, and operating revenues of the state convention and trade center shall be deposited in the state convention and trade center account hereby created in the general fund.

Moneys in the account shall be used exclusively for the following purposes in the following order:

1. For reimbursement of the state general fund under section 6 of this act;
2. For payment of expenses incurred in the issuance and sale of the bonds issued under section 3 of this act;
3. For acquisition, design, and construction of the state convention and trade center;
4. For operation and promotion of the center;
5. For reimbursement of any expenditures from the state general fund in support of the state convention and trade center;
6. For early retirement of the bonds issued under section 3 of this act;
7. To establish a sinking fund of up to fifty million dollars for expansion or renovation of the center; and
8. To reduce or eliminate the tax imposed under section 9 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The moneys deposited pursuant to section 4 of this act in the state convention and trade center account of the general fund shall be administered by the corporation formed under section 2 of this act, subject to legislative appropriation.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The state general obligation bond retirement fund shall be used for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds authorized in section 3 of this act.

The state finance committee shall, on or before June 30th of each year, certify to the state treasurer the amount needed in the ensuing twelve months to meet the bond retirement and interest requirements. Not less than thirty days prior to the date on which any interest or principal and interest payment is due, the state treasurer shall withdraw from any general state revenues received in the state treasury and deposit in the state general obligation bond retirement fund an amount equal to the amount certified by the state finance committee to be due on that payment date. On each date on which any interest or principal and interest is due, the state treasurer shall cause an identical amount to be paid out of the state convention and trade center account from the proceeds of the special excise tax imposed under section 9 of this act and operating revenues of the state convention and trade center for deposit in the general fund of the state treasury. Any deficiency in such excise tax transfer shall be made up as soon as such taxes are available for transfer and shall constitute a continuing obligation of the state convention and trade center account until all deficiencies are fully paid.

Bonds issued under section 3 of this act shall state that they are a general obligation of the state of Washington, shall pledge the full faith and credit of the state to the payment of the principal thereof and the interest thereon, and shall contain an unconditional promise to pay the principal and interest as the same shall become due.

The owner and holder of each of the bonds or the trustee for the owner and holder of any of the bonds may by mandamus or other appropriate proceeding require the transfer and payment of funds as directed in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The legislature may increase the rate of tax imposed in section 9 (1) and (2) of this act or may provide additional means for raising moneys for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds authorized in section 3 of this act, and section 6 of this act shall not be deemed to provide an exclusive method for the payment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The bonds authorized in section 3 of this act shall be a legal investment for all state funds or funds under state control and for all funds of any other public body.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Commencing April 1, 1982, there is imposed, and the department of revenue shall collect, in King county a special excise tax on the sale of or charge made for the furnishing of lodging by a hotel, rooming house, tourist court, motel, or trailer camp, and the granting of any similar license to use real property, as distinguished from the renting or leasing of real property, except that no such tax may be levied on any premises having fewer than sixty lodging units. It shall be presumed that the occupancy of real property for a continuous period of one month or more constitutes rental or lease of real property and not a mere license to use or enjoy the same. The legislature on behalf of the state pledges to maintain and continue this tax until the bonds authorized by this chapter are fully redeemed, both principal and interest.

The rate of the tax imposed under this section shall be:

1. From April 1, 1982, through December 31, 1982, inclusive, three percent in the city of Seattle and two percent in King county outside the city of Seattle; and
2. On and after January 1, 1983, five percent in the city of Seattle and two percent in King county outside the city of Seattle.

The proceeds of the special excise tax shall be deposited in the state convention and trade center account. Chapter 82.32 RCW applies to the tax imposed under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) Except as provided in chapters 67.28 and 82.14 RCW and subsection (2) of this section, after January 1, 1983, no city, town, or county in which the tax under section 9 of this act is imposed may impose a license fee or tax on the act or privilege of engaging in business to furnish lodging by a hotel, rooming house, tourist court, motel, trailer camp, or similar facilities in excess of the rate imposed upon other persons engaged in the business of making sales at retail as that term is defined in chapter 82.04 RCW.

2. A city incorporated before January 1, 1982, with a population over sixty thousand located in a county with a population over one million, other than the city of Seattle, may impose a special excise tax under the following conditions:
   (a) The proceeds of the tax must be used solely for the acquisition, design, and construction of convention and trade facilities.
   (b) The legislative body of the city, before imposing the tax, must authorize a complete study and investigation of the desirability and economic feasibility of the proposed convention and trade facilities.
   (c) The rate of the tax shall not exceed three percent.

CHAPTER 35
[Substitute Senate Bill No. 4716]
SECRETARY OF STATE—CORPORATIONS LAWS—FILING SCHEDULES—FEES

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature finds that the secretary of state's office, particularly the corporations division, performs a valuable public service for the business and nonprofit corporate community, and for the state of Washington. The legislature further finds that numerous filing and other requirements of the laws relating to the secretary of state's responsibilities have not been recently updated, thereby causing problems and delays for the corporate community as well as the secretary of state's office.

To provide better service to the corporate community in this state, and to permit the secretary of state to make efficient use of state resources and improve collection of state revenues, statutory changes are necessary. It is the intent of the legislature to provide for the modernization and updating of the corporate laws and other miscellaneous filing statutes and to give the secretary of state the appropriate authority the secretary of state needs to implement the modernization and streamlining effort.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 43.07 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The secretary of state may appoint authenticating officers and delegate to the authenticating officers power to sign for the secretary of state any document which, to have legal effect, requires the secretary of state's signature and which is of a class which the secretary of state has authorized for signature by the authenticating officers in a writing on file in the secretary of state's office. Authenticating officers shall sign in the following manner: " ............ , Authenticating Officer for the Secretary of State ............ "

The secretary of state may also delegate to the authenticating officers power to use the secretary of state's facsimile signature for signing any document which, to have legal effect, requires the secretary of state's signature and is of a class with respect to which the secretary of state has authorized use of his or her facsimile signature by a writing filed in the secretary of state's office. As used in this section, "facsimile signature" includes, but is not limited to, the reproduction of any authorized signature by a copper plate, a rubber stamp, or by a photographic, photostatic, or mechanical device.

The secretary of state shall effect the appointment and delegation by placing on file in the secretary of state's office in a single document the names of all persons appointed as authenticating officers and each officer's signature, a list of the classes of documents each authenticating officer is authorized to sign for the secretary of state, a copy of the secretary of state's facsimile signature, and a list of the classes of documents which each authenticating officer may sign for the secretary of state by affixing the secretary of state's facsimile signature. The secretary of state may revoke the appointment or delegation or powers by placing on file in the secretary of state's office a new single document which expressly revokes the authenticating officers and the powers delegated to them. The secretary of state shall record and index documents filed by him or her under this section, and the documents shall be open for public inspection.

The authorized signature of an authenticating officer or an authorized facsimile signature of the secretary of state shall have the same legal effect and validity as the genuine manual signature of the secretary of state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The code reviser shall include a cross-reference section to RCW 43.07.120 in chapters 18.100, 23.86, 23.90, 23A-

An applicant may request a specific effective date no more than thirty days later than the receipt date which might otherwise be applied as the effective date.

"Executed by an officer of the corporation," or words of similar import, means that any document signed by such person shall be and is signed by that person under penalties of perjury and in an official and authorized capacity on behalf of the corporation or person making the document submission with the secretary of state.

Sec. 73. Section 2, chapter 53, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 24.03-.017 are each amended to read as follows:

Any corporation organized under any act of the state of Washington for any one or more of the purposes for which a corporation may be organized under this chapter and for no purpose other than those permitted by this chapter, and to which this chapter does not otherwise apply, may elect to have this chapter and the provisions thereof apply to such corporation. Such corporation may so elect by having a resolution to do so adopted by the governing body of such corporation and by delivering to the secretary of state a statement of election in accordance with this section. Such statement of election shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by ((its-president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary and verified by one of the officers signing the same)) an officer of the corporation, and shall set forth:

(1) The name of the corporation;
(2) The act which created the corporation or pursuant to which it was organized;
(3) That the governing body of the corporation has elected to have this chapter and the provisions thereof apply to said corporation.

Duplicate originals of such statement of election shall be delivered to the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that the statement of election conforms to law, the secretary of state shall, when fees in the same amount as required by this chapter for filing articles of incorporation have been paid, endorse on each of such duplicates the word "filed" and the effective date of the filing thereof, shall file one of such duplicate originals, and shall issue a certificate of elective coverage to which the other duplicate original shall be affixed.

The certificate of elective coverage together with the duplicate original affixed thereto by the secretary of state shall be returned to the corporation or its representative. Upon the filing of the certificate of elective coverage, the provisions of this chapter shall apply to said corporation which thereafter shall be subject to and shall have the benefits of this chapter and the provisions thereof as they exist on the date of filing such statement of election and as they may be amended from time to time thereafter, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the power to amend its charter or articles of incorporation, whether or not created by special act of the legislature, delete provisions therefrom and add provisions thereto in any manner and to any extent it may choose to do from time to time so long as its amended articles shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 74. Section 5, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.020 are each amended to read as follows:

One or more persons may incorporate a corporation by signing and delivering articles of incorporation in duplicate to the secretary of state.

5. The address of its initial registered office, including street and number, and the name of its initial registered agent at such address.
(6) The number of directors constituting the initial board of directors, and the names and addresses of the persons who are to serve as the initial directors.

It shall not be necessary to set forth in the articles of incorporation any of the corporate powers enumerated in this chapter.

Unless the articles of incorporation provide that a change in the number of directors shall be made only by amendment to the articles of incorporation, a change in the number of directors made by amendment to the bylaws shall be controlling. In all other cases, whenever a provision of the articles of incorporation is inconsistent with a bylaw, the provision of the articles of incorporation shall be controlling.

(8) The name of any persons or corporations to whom net assets are to be distributed in the event the corporation is dissolved.

Sec. 76. Section 10, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.045 are each amended to read as follows:

This subsection shall not apply if the applicant files with the secretary of state either of the following: (a) The written consent of the other corporation or holder of a reserved name to use the same or deceptively similar name and one or more words are added or deleted to make the name distinguishable from the other name as determined by the secretary of state, or (b) a certified copy of a final decree of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the prior right of the applicant to the use of the name in this state.

(3) Shall be transliterated into letters of the English alphabet, if it is not in English.

(4) Any foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state and intending to change its name.

(5) Any person intending to organize a foreign corporation and intending to have such corporation make application for a certificate of authority to transact business in this state.

The reservation shall be made by filing with the secretary of state an application to reserve a specified corporate name, executed by or on behalf of the applicant. If the secretary of state finds that the name is available for corporate use, the secretary of state shall reserve the same for the exclusive use of the applicant for a period of one hundred and eighty days. Such reservation shall be limited to one filing and one renewal for a like period.

The right to the exclusive use of a specified corporate name so reserved may be transferred to any other person or corporation by filing in the office of the secretary of state, a notice of such transfer, executed by the applicant for whom the name was reserved, and specifying the name and address of the transferee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 78. There is added to chapter 24.03 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any corporation, organized and existing under the laws of any state or territory of the United States may register its corporate name under this title, provided its corporate name is not the same as, or deceptively similar to, the name of any domestic corporation existing under the laws of this state, or the name of any foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state, or any corporate name reserved or registered under this title.

Such registration shall be made by:

(1) Filing with the secretary of state: (a) An application for registration executed by the corporation by an officer thereof, setting forth the name of the corporation, the state or territory under the laws of which it is incorporated, the date of its incorporation, a statement that it is carrying on or doing business, and a brief statement of the business in which it is engaged, and (b) a certificate setting forth that such corporation is in good standing under the laws of the state or territory wherein it is organized, executed by the secretary of state of such state or territory or by such other official as may have custody of the records pertaining to corporations, and

(2) Paying to the secretary of state a registration fee in the amount of one dollar for each month, or fraction thereof, between the date of filing the application and December thirty-first of the calendar year in which the application is filed.

A renewal application may be filed between the first day of October and the thirty-first day of December in each year, and shall extend the registration for the following calendar year.

Sec. 80. Section 11, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 1, chapter 163, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 24.03.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Each corporation shall have and continuously maintain in this state:

(1) A registered office which may be, but need not be, the same as its principal office. The registered office shall be at a specific geographic location in this state, and be identified by number, if any, and street, or building address or rural route, or, if a commonly known street or rural route address does not exist, by legal description. A registered office may not be identified by post office box number or other nongeographic address. For purposes of communicating by mail, the secretary of state may permit the use of a post office address in conjunction with the registered office address if the corporation also maintains on file the specific geographic address of the registered office where personal service of process may be made.

(2) A registered agent, which agent may be either an individual resident in this state whose business office is identical with such registered office, or a domestic corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, or a foreign corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, authorized to transact business or conduct affairs in this state, having an office identical with such registered office. The registered agent and registered office shall be designated by duly adopted resolution of the board of directors; and a ((verified)) statement of such designation, executed by ((the president or a vice president)) an officer of the corporation, together with a copy of the board of directors' designating resolution ((certified as true by the secretary of the corporation)), shall be filed with the secretary of state. A registered agent shall not be appointed without having given prior written consent to the appointment. The written consent shall be filed with the secretary of state in such form as the secretary may prescribe. The written consent shall be filed with or as a part of the document first appointing a registered agent. In the event any individual or corporation has been appointed agent without consent, that person or corporation may file a notarized statement attesting to that fact, and the name shall forthwith be removed from the records of the secretary of state.

No Washington corporation or foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state may be permitted to maintain any action in any court in this state until the corporation complies with the requirements of this section.

Sec. 81. Section 12, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.055 are each amended to read as follows:

4. That the address of its registered office and the address of the office of its registered agent, as changed, will be identical.
5. That such change was authorized by resolution duly adopted by its board of directors.

Such statement shall be executed by the corporation by an officer of the corporation, and delivered to the secretary of state, together with a written consent of the registered agent to his or its appointment, if applicable. If the secretary of state finds that such statement conforms to the provisions of this chapter, the secretary of state shall file such statement, and upon such filing, the change of address of the registered office, or the appointment of a new registered agent, or both, as the case may be, shall become effective.

Any registered agent of a corporation may resign as such agent upon filing a written notice thereof, executed in duplicate, with the secretary of state, who shall forthwith mail a copy thereof to the corporation in care of an officer, who is not the resigning registered agent, at the address of such officer as shown by the most recent annual report of the corporation. The appointment of such agent shall terminate upon the expiration of thirty days after receipt of such notice by the secretary of state.

demand may be served. In the event any such process, notice or demand is served on the secretary of state, ((the)) the secretary of state shall immediately cause one of the copies thereof to be forwarded by ((registered)) certified mail, addressed to the corporation at its registered office. Any service so had on the secretary of state shall be returnable in not less than thirty days.

The secretary of state shall keep a record of all processes, notices and demands served upon ((him)) the secretary of state under this section, and shall record therein the time of such service and ((his)) the secretary of state's action with reference thereto.

Nothing herein contained shall limit or affect the right to serve any process, notice or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a corporation in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law.

Sec. 83. Section 30, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.145 are each amended to read as follows:

((When)) A corporation((-)) shall be dissolved by the secretary of state upon the conditions prescribed in this section when the corporation:

(1) Has failed to file or complete its annual report within the time required by ((this 1969 amending act)) law; or

(2) Has failed for ((ninety)) thirty days to appoint or maintain a registered agent in this state; or

(3) Has failed for ((ninety)) thirty days, after change of its registered agent or registered office, to file in the office of the secretary of state a statement of such change((; the secretary of state shall notify the corporation by first class mail that it shall cease to exist if it does not perform the required act within thirty days. If the corporation fails to perform within thirty days following receipt of the letter, it shall automatically cease to exist)).

A corporation shall not be dissolved under this section unless the secretary of state has given the corporation not less than forty-five days' notice of its delinquency or omission, by first class mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the registered office, or, if there is no registered office, to the last known address of any officer or director as shown by the records of the secretary of state, and unless the corporation has failed to correct the omission or delinquency before expiration of the forty-five day period.

When a corporation has given cause for dissolution under this section, and has failed to correct the delinquency or omission as provided in this section, the secretary of the state shall dissolve the corporation by issuing a certificate of involuntary dissolution containing a statement that the corporation has been dissolved and the date and reason for which it was dissolved.
The original certificate of involuntary dissolution shall be filed in the records of the secretary of state, and a copy of the certificate shall forthwith be mailed to the corporation at its registered office or, if there is no registered office, to the last known address of the corporation or any officer, director, or incorporator of the corporation, as shown by the records of the secretary of state. Upon the filing of the certificate of involuntary dissolution, the existence of the corporation shall cease, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, and its name shall be available to and may be adopted by another corporation after the dissolution.

Any notice provided by the secretary of state under this section shall be designed to clearly identify and warn the recipient of the contents thereof. A delinquency notice shall provide a succinct and readable description of the delinquency or omission, the date on which dissolution will occur, and the action necessary to cure the delinquency or omission prior to dissolution.

A corporation which has ((ceased to exist)) been dissolved by operation of this section may be reinstated within a period of three years following its dissolution ((by operation of law)) if it shall file or complete its annual report or if it shall appoint or maintain a registered agent, or if it shall file with the secretary of state a required statement of change of registered agent or registered office and in addition, if it shall pay a reinstatement fee of ((five)) twenty-five dollars plus any other fees that may be due and owing the secretary of state. If, during the period of dissolution, another person or corporation has reserved or adopted a corporate name which is identical to or deceptively similar to the dissolved corporation’s name, the dissolved corporation seeking reinstatement shall be required to adopt another name consistent with the requirements of this chapter and to amend its articles of incorporation accordingly. When a corporation has ((ceased to exist)) been dissolved by operation of this section, remedies available to or against it shall survive in the manner provided in RCW 24.03.300 and the directors of the corporation shall hold the title to the property of the corporation as trustees for the benefit of its creditors and members.

Sec. 98. Section 64, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.315 are each amended to read as follows:

No certificate of authority shall be issued to a foreign corporation unless the corporate name of such corporation complies with the provisions of RCW 24.03.045. However, a foreign corporation applying for a certificate of authority may file with the secretary of state a resolution of its board of directors adopting a fictitious name for use in transacting business in this state, if the fictitious name complies with RCW 24.03.045.

Sec. 99. Section 67, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 4, chapter 163, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 24.03.330 are each amended to read as follows:

If the secretary of state finds that such application conforms to law, (the) the secretary of state shall, when all fees have been paid as in this chapter prescribed:

(1) Endorse on each of such documents the word "Filed," and the effective date of the filing thereof.

(2) File one of such duplicate originals of the application and the copy of the articles of incorporation and amendments thereto.

(3) Issue a certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this state to which the other duplicate original application shall be affixed.

The certificate of authority, together with the duplicate original of the application affixed thereto by the secretary of state, shall be returned to the corporation or its representative.

Sec. 100. Section 68, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.335 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the filing of the application for certificate of authority by the secretary of state, the corporation shall be authorized to conduct affairs in this state for those purposes set forth in its application, subject, however, to the right of this state to suspend or to revoke such authority as provided in this chapter.

The registered office shall be at a specific geographic location in this state, and be identified by number, if any, and street, or building address or rural route, or, if a commonly known street or rural route address does not exist, by legal description. A registered office may not be identified by post office box number or other nongeographic address. For purposes of communicating by mail, the secretary of state may permit the use of a post office address in conjunction with the registered office address if the corporation also maintains on file the specific geographic address of the registered office where personal service of process may be made.

(2) A registered agent, which agent may be either an individual resident in this state whose business office is identical with such registered office, or a domestic corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, or a foreign corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, authorized to transact business or conduct affairs in this state, having an office identical with such registered office. A registered agent shall not be appointed without having given prior written consent to the appointment. The written consent shall be filed with the secretary of state in such form as the secretary may prescribe. The written consent shall be filed with or as a part of the document first appointing a registered agent. In the event any individual or corporation has been appointed agent without consent, that person or corporation may file a notarized statement attesting to that fact, and the name shall forthwith be removed from the records of the secretary of state.

No foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state may be permitted to maintain any action in any court in this state until the corporation complies with the requirements of this section.

Sec. 102. Section 70, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.345 are each amended to read as follows:

A foreign corporation authorized to conduct affairs in this state may change its registered office or change its registered agent, or both, upon filing in the office of the secretary of state in a form approved by the secretary of state a statement setting forth:

Such statement shall be executed by the corporation by (its president or a vice president, and verified by him) an officer of the corporation, and delivered to the secretary of state, together with a written consent of the registered agent to his or its appointment, if applicable. If the secretary of state finds that such statement conforms to the provisions of this chapter, the secretary of state shall file such statement (in his office), and upon such filing the change of address of the registered office, or the appointment of a new registered agent, or both, as the case may be, shall become effective.

Any registered agent in this state appointed by a foreign corporation may resign as such agent upon filing a written notice thereof, executed in duplicate, with the secretary of state who shall forthwith mail a copy thereof to the foreign corporation at its principal office in the state or country.
under the laws of which it is incorporated as shown by its most recent annual report. The appointment of such agent shall terminate upon the expiration of thirty days after receipt of such notice by the secretary of state.

Service on the secretary of state of any such process, notice, or demand shall be made by delivering to and leaving with ((him)) the secretary of state, or with any duly authorized clerk ((having charge)) of the corporation department of ((his)) the secretary of state's office, duplicate copies of such process, notice or demand. Any service so had on the secretary of state shall be returnable in not less than thirty days.

The secretary of state shall keep a record of all processes, notices and demands served upon ((him)) the secretary of state under this section, and shall record therein the time of such service and his action with reference thereto.

Nothing herein contained shall limit or affect the right to serve any process, notice or demand, required or permitted by law to be served upon a corporation in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law.

(6) A post office address to which the secretary of state may mail a copy of any process against the corporation that may be served on ((him)) the secretary of state.

The application for withdrawal shall be made on forms prescribed and furnished by the secretary of state and shall be executed by the corporation by ((its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing the application)) an officer of the corporation, or, if the corporation is in the hands of a receiver or trustee, shall be executed on behalf of the corporation by such receiver or trustee ((and verified by him)).

(3) Corporations dissolved under subsection (2) of this section may be reinstated at any time within three years of the dissolution action by the secretary of state. The corporation shall be reinstated by filing a request for

The registered office shall be at a specific geographic location in this state, and be identified by number, if any, and street, or building address or rural route, or, if a commonly known street or rural route address does not exist, by legal description. A registered office may not be identified by post office box number or other nongeographic address. The secretary of state shall keep a record of all processes, notices and demands served upon ((him)) the secretary of state under this section, and shall record therein the time of such service and his action with reference thereto.

Failure of the corporation to file its annual report within the time required shall not derogate from the rights of its creditors, or prevent the corporation from being sued and from defending lawsuits, nor shall it release the corporation from any of the duties or liabilities of a corporation under law.

((When a corporation has failed to file its annual report within the time required, the secretary of state shall notify the corporation by first class mail that it shall cease to exist if it does not perform the required act within thirty days after the mailing of notice. If the corporation fails to perform within thirty days, it shall automatically cease to exist:))

A corporation shall be dissolved by the secretary of state upon the conditions prescribed in this section when the corporation:

A corporation shall not be dissolved under this section unless the secretary of state has given the corporation not less than forty-five days' notice of its delinquency or omission, by first class mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the registered office, or, if there is no registered office, to the last known address of any officer or director as shown by the records of the secretary of state, and unless the corporation has failed to correct the omission or delinquency before expiration of the forty-five day period.

When a corporation has given cause for dissolution under this section, and has failed to correct the delinquency or omission as provided in this section, the secretary of the state shall dissolve the corporation by issuing a certificate of involuntary dissolution containing a statement that the corporation has been dissolved and the date and reason for which it was dissolved. The original certificate of involuntary dissolution shall be filed in the records of the secretary of state, and a copy of the certificate shall forthwith be mailed to the corporation at its registered office or, if there is no registered office, to the last known address of the corporation or any officer, director, or incorporator of the corporation, as shown by the records of the secretary of state. Upon the filing of the certificate of involuntary dissolution, the existence of the corporation shall cease, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, and its name shall be available to and may be adopted by another corporation after the dissolution.

A corporation which has been dissolved by operation of this section may be reinstated within a period of three years following its dissolution if it shall file or complete its annual report, appoint and maintain a registered agent, or file a required statement of change of registered agent or registered office and in addition pay a reinstatement fee of twenty-five dollars plus any other fees that may be due or owing the secretary of state. If during the period of dissolution another person or corporation has reserved or adopted a corporate name which is identical or deceptively similar to the dissolved corporation's name, the dissolved corporation seeking reinstatement shall be required to adopt another name consistent with the requirements of this chapter and to amend its articles accordingly. When a corporation has been dissolved by operation of this section, remedies available to or against it shall survive in the manner provided by RCW 24.06.335 and thereafter the directors of the corporation shall hold title to the property of the corporation as trustees for the benefit of its creditors and shareholders.

AN ACT Relating to the establishment of a small business 'innovators' opportunity program; adding a new chapter to Title 43 RCW; making an appropriation; and providing an expiration date.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature recognizes the numerous benefits to the state's economic base from the establishment of small businesses by innovators and inventors and the numerous benefits provided by inventors and innovators through industrial diversification, broadening of the economic base, and providing financial benefits to our citizens and new products to the nation's consumers.

It is estimated that ninety-five percent of all inventions and innovations are never authoritatively considered primarily because inventors are unfamiliar with the business environment or financial structure necessary for implementing their proposals.

The legislature therefore recognizes a need to encourage and assist innovators and inventors.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Department" means the department of commerce and economic development.

(2) "Director" means the director of commerce and economic development.

(3) "Program" means the small business innovators' opportunity program.

(4) "Inventor" or "innovator" means one who thinks of, imagines, or creates something new which may result in a device, contrivance, or process for the first time, through the use of the imagination or ingenious thinking and experimentation.

The composition and organizational structure of the program shall be determined by the department in a manner which will foster the continuation of the program without state funding at the end of the pilot project established by this chapter. The department shall provide staff support for the program for the duration of the pilot project. The program shall:

1. Receive proposals from inventors and innovators;
2. Review proposals for accuracy and evaluate their prospects for marketability;

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The pilot project for the Washington small business innovators' opportunity program shall terminate on June 30, 1984, and this chapter shall expire on such date and thereafter shall be void and of no further force and effect.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is appropriated to the department of commerce and economic development from the general fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1983, the sum of forty-five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the provisions of this act.

This survey shall be made by the agency responsible for the facility if it has technically qualified personnel available. The director of general administration shall provide technically qualified personnel to the responsible agency if necessary.

(c) A technical assistance study, which is an intensive engineering analysis of energy conservation measures for the facility, net energy savings, and a cost-effectiveness determination. This element is required only for those facilities designated in the technical assistance study schedule adopted under RCW 43.19.680(3).

(h) Caulking and weatherstripping;

(i) Replacement or modification of lighting fixtures which increase the energy efficiency of the lighting system;

(j) Energy recovery systems; and

(k) Such other measures as the director finds will save a substantial amount of energy.

(3) "Energy conservation maintenance and operating procedure" means modification or modifications in the maintenance and operations of a facility, and any installations within the facility, which are designed to reduce energy consumption in the facility and which require no significant expenditure of funds.

(4) "Facility" means a building, a group of buildings served by a central energy distribution system, or components of a central energy distribution system.

(5) "Implementation plan" means the annual tasks and budget required to complete all acquisitions and installations necessary to satisfy the recommendations of the energy audit.

The director of general administration, in cooperation with the director of the state energy office, shall conduct, by contract or other arrangement, an energy audit for each state-owned facility. All energy audits shall be coordinated with and complement other governmental energy audit programs. The energy audit for each state-owned facility located on the capitol campus shall be completed no later than July 1, 1981, and the results and findings of each energy audit shall be compiled and transmitted to the governor and the legislature no later than October 1, 1981. ((The energy audit for every other state-owned building shall be completed no later than July 1, 1983, and the results and findings of the audits shall be compiled and transmitted to the governor and the legislature no later than October 1, 1983)) For every other state-owned facility, the energy consumption surveys shall be completed no later than October 1, 1982, and the walk-through surveys shall be completed no later than July 1, 1983.

Sec. 3. Section 5, chapter 172, Laws of 1980 and RCW 43.19.680 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) Upon completion of each ((energy-audit)) walk-through survey required by RCW 43.19.675, the director of general administration or the agency responsible for the facility if other than the department of general administration shall ((order the implementation of)) implement energy conservation maintenance and operation procedures that may be identified for any state-owned ((building by the energy audit for the building)) facility. These procedures shall be implemented as soon as possible but not later than twelve months after the walk-through survey.

(2) By December 31, 1981, for the capitol campus ((and December 31, 1983, for all other state-owned buildings,)) the director of general administration, in cooperation with the director of the state energy office, shall prepare and transmit to the governor and the legislature an implementation plan ((for energy conservation measures identified for any state-owned building by the energy audit for the building. The implementation plan shall specify the annual tasks and budget required to complete all acquisitions and installations necessary to satisfy the recommendations of the energy audit within five years of April 4, 1980. The director shall also include in the implementation plan an estimate of the savings in energy costs over the life of each building)).

(3) By December 31, 1983, for all other state-owned facilities, the director of general administration in cooperation with the director of the state energy office shall prepare and transmit to the governor and the legislature the results of the energy consumption and walk-through surveys and a schedule for the conduct of technical assistance studies. This submission shall contain the energy conservation measures planned for installation during the ensuing biennium. Priority considerations for scheduling technical assistance studies shall include but not be limited to a facility's energy efficiency, responsible agency participation, comparative cost and type of fuels, possibility of outside funding, logistical considerations such as possible need to vacate the facility for installation of energy conservation measures, coordination with other planned facility modifications, and the total cost of a facility modification, including other work which would have to be done as a result of installing energy conservation measures. Energy conservation measure acquisitions and installations shall be scheduled to be twenty-five percent complete by June 30, 1985, or at the end of the capital budget biennium which includes that date, whichever is later, fifty-five percent complete by June 30, 1989, or at the end of the capital budget biennium which includes that date, whichever is later, eighty-five percent complete by June 30, 1993, or at the end of the capital budget biennium which includes that date, whichever is later, and fully complete by June 30, 1995, or at the end of the capital budget biennium which includes that date, whichever is later.

For each biennium until all measures are installed, the director of general administration shall report to the governor and legislature installation progress, measures planned for installation during the ensuing biennium, and changes, if any, to the technical assistance study schedule. This report shall be submitted by December 31, 1984, or at the end of the following year whichever immediately precedes the capital budget adoption, and every two years thereafter until all measures are installed.

(2) Obligate the lessor to implement identified energy conservation maintenance and operating procedures upon completion of the (energy audit) walk-through survey; and

(3) Obligate the lessor to (acquire and install during the term of the lease any energy conservation measure identified in the audit) undertake technical assistance studies and subsequent acquisition and installation of energy conservation measures if the director of general administration, in accordance with rules adopted by the department, determines that these studies and measures will both conserve energy and can be accomplished with a state funding contribution limited to the savings which would result in utility expenses during the term of the lease.

These lease covenants, conditions, and terms shall be incorporated into all specified new, renewed, and renegotiated leases executed on or after January 1, 1983. This section applies to all leases under which state occupancy is at least half of the facility space and includes an area greater than three thousand square feet.

CHAPTER 63
[House Bill No. 454]
VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION—INDUSTRIAL INSURANCE—APPROPRIATIONS

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The purpose of rehabilitation in workers' compensation is to return the injured worker to suitable gainful employment as soon as possible. The policy of the state is to provide early notification and referral of qualified injured workers to vocational rehabilitation services, development of comprehensive rehabilitation plans, and independent review and evaluation of service delivery. This policy shall be implemented with the express intent of assisting the qualified injured worker while avoiding expensive litigation and unnecessary time lost from work.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. For purposes of this chapter, a "qualified injured worker" means an employee who because of the effects of work-related injury or disease, whether or not combined with the effects of a prior industrial injury or disability:

(1) Is permanently precluded or likely to be precluded from engaging in the usual occupation or position in which the worker was engaged at the time of injury; and
(2) Can reasonably be expected to benefit from rehabilitation services which would significantly reduce or eliminate the decrease in the worker's employability.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is created an office of rehabilitation review within the industrial insurance division of the department of labor and industries. The office shall:

(1) Establish specific definitions, eligibility criteria, and timetables and procedures for the provision of vocational rehabilitation services;

(2) Mediate disputes;

(3) Review and approve or disapprove vocational rehabilitation plans; and

(4) Establish procedures for registration of rehabilitation counselors employed by the state, public, or private agencies and establish criteria and procedures for removal of registered rehabilitation counselors from the list for failure to comply with this chapter or the rules and regulations established by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The department of labor and industries shall have the authority to make, amend, and rescind in the manner prescribed by chapter 34.04 RCW such rules as may be necessary to carry out this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The vocational rehabilitation plan may include modification of the worker's occupation at the time of injury, provisions for alternative work with the same employer, modification of the worker's previous employment with a new employer, direct job placement assistance, on-the-job training, or short-term retraining subject to limitation by RCW 51.32.095. The plan shall define the responsibilities of the worker, employer, and other parties in implementing the plan.

(2) The following order of priorities is preferred in determining suitable gainful employment and developing vocational rehabilitation plans:

(a) Return to the previous job with the same employer;

(b) Modification of the previous job with the same employer including transitional return to work;

(c) A new job with the same employer in keeping with any limitations or restrictions;

(d) Modification of the previous job with a new employer;

(e) A new job with a new employer or self-employment based upon transferable skills;

(f) A new job with a new employer or self-employment involving on-the-job training;

(g) Short-term retraining and job placement.

Prior to any modification of the order of these priorities, the plan shall first be submitted in writing to the office of rehabilitation review for authorization. In the cases involving return to the previous job with the same employer, modification of the previous job with the same employer, or a new job with the same employer, self-insurers shall submit a written, summary report to the office of vocational rehabilitation review but shall not be required to submit a complete, documented vocational rehabilitation plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) If a determination of ineligibility is unacceptable to a worker or employer, or if a vocational rehabilitation plan is unacceptable to a worker or employer, the worker or employer may petition the supervisor of industrial insurance to review the decision. The supervisor, or the supervisor's designee, shall render a final decision within thirty days of receipt of the petition for review.

(2) The worker or employer may appeal a final decision of the supervisor, or the supervisor's designee, to the board of industrial insurance appeals for an expedited appeal which shall be heard as provided in this section. Board review of such decisions shall be limited to matters of law. A final decision rendered within thirty days of the closing of the hearing proceeding, and the procedures relating to recommended decisions and orders, and petitions for review of same, as contained in RCW 51.52.104 and 51.52.106, shall not be applicable to appeals filed under this section. Further appeals taken from the final decision of the board shall be governed by the provisions relating to judicial review of administrative decisions contained in RCW 34.04.130 and 34.04.140 as now existing or hereafter amended. The department shall have the same right of review of the board's decision as does any other aggrieved party.

(3) For purposes of this section, "expedited appeal" means an appeal filed with the board within fifteen working days after receipt of notice of the decision from the office of rehabilitation review. An expedited appeal shall be heard within thirty calendar days following receipt of (a) the notice of appeal from an aggrieved party, or (b) a legible copy of the records of the office of rehabilitation review, whichever is later. The hearing held under this section shall be recorded and shall be confined to review of the records of the office of rehabilitation review. However, in cases of alleged irregularities in procedure not revealed by the records, testimony concerning such irregularities may be received by the board. The board shall in addition have authority, upon request by the worker or the employer, to hear oral argument and receive written information concerning the matter in dispute.

(4) The board of industrial insurance appeals shall have the authority to make, amend, and rescind in a manner prescribed by chapter 34.04 RCW such rules as may be necessary to carry out this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. On or before January 1st of each year, the office of financial management shall submit to the legislature a rehabilitation performance audit of the activities of the office of rehabilitation review, the industrial insurance division, self-insurers, and private rehabilitation agencies. The performance audit shall include a statistical summary of all rehabilitation cases, a cost-benefit analysis of vocational rehabilitation plans, return-to-work data, and a comparison of public and private vocational rehabilitation services. The office of financial management may contract with a private firm to conduct the performance audit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Qualified injured workers shall participate in the approved vocational rehabilitation plan. For each week that a qualified injured worker does not participate without a showing of good cause, benefits shall be reduced by one-half on the order of the supervisor. Implementation of the plan shall begin as soon as the qualified injured worker is capable of participation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A qualified injured worker shall be entitled to continuation of temporary total disability benefits as defined in RCW 51.32.090:

(1) During rehabilitation; and
(2) During the pendency of any petition for review to the supervisor or appeal to the board of industrial insurance appeals.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this chapter, nothing in this chapter may be construed to annul or modify any lawful employment agreement entered into before the effective date of this act between an employer and an organization of workers. If a conflict exists between an employment agreement and any resolution, rule, policy, or regulation adopted under this chapter, the terms of the employment agreement shall prevail only if the employment agreement was entered into before the effective date of this act.

Sec. 11. Section 10, chapter 14, Laws of 1980 and RCW 51.32.095 are each amended to read as follows:

One of the primary purposes of this title is the restoration of the injured worker to gainful employment. To this end, the department shall utilize the services of individuals and organizations, public or private, whose experience, training, and interests in vocational rehabilitation and retraining qualify them to lend expert assistance to the supervisor of industrial insurance in such programs of vocational rehabilitation or retraining and job placement as may be reasonable to qualify the worker for employment consistent with his or her physical and mental status. Where, after evaluation and recommendation by such individuals or organizations and prior to final evaluation of the worker's permanent disability and in the sole opinion of the supervisor or supervisor's designee, whether or not medical treatment has been concluded, vocational rehabilitation or retraining with job placement is both necessary and likely to restore the injured worker to a form of gainful employment, including self-employment, the supervisor or supervisor's designee may, in his or her sole discretion, pay or, if the employer is a self-insurer, direct the self-insurer to pay the cost of books, tuition, fees, supplies, equipment, transportation, child or dependent care, and other necessary expenses for any such worker in an amount not to exceed ((one)) three thousand ((five hundred)) dollars in any ((calendar-year)) fifty-two week period, and continue the temporary total disability compensation under RCW 51.32.090 while the worker is actively and successfully undergoing a formal program of vocational rehabilitation or retraining with job placement. Such expenses may include training fees for on-the-job training and the cost of furnishing tools and other equipment necessary for self-employment or reemployment; PROVIDED, That such compensation or payment of ((such vocational rehabilitation or)) retraining with job placement expenses may not be authorized for a period of more than fifty-two weeks: PROVIDED FURTHER, That such period may, in the sole discretion of the supervisor after his or her review, be extended for an additional fifty-two weeks or portion thereof by written order of the supervisor.

In cases where the worker is required to reside away from his or her customary residence, the reasonable cost of board and lodging shall also be paid. Said costs shall be chargeable to the employer's cost experience or shall be paid by the self-insurer as the case may be.

Sec. 12. Section 51.36.020, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 57, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.36.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the injury to any worker is so serious as to require his or her being taken from the place of injury to a place of treatment, his or her employer shall, at the expense of the medical aid fund, or self-insurer, as the case may be, furnish transportation to the nearest place of proper treatment.

(2) Every worker whose injury results in the loss of one or more limbs or eyes shall be provided with proper artificial substitutes and every worker, who suffers an injury to an eye producing an error of refraction, shall be once provided proper and properly equipped lenses to correct such error of refraction and his or her disability rating shall be based upon the loss of sight before correction.

(3) Every worker((;)) whose accident results in damage to or destruction of an artificial limb, eye, or tooth, shall have same repaired or replaced.

(4) Every worker whose hearing aid or eyeglasses or lenses are damaged, destroyed, or lost as a result of an industrial accident shall have the same restored or replaced. The department or self-insurer shall be liable only for the cost of restoring damaged hearing aids or eyeglasses to their condition at the time of the accident.

(5) All mechanical appliances necessary in the treatment of an injured worker, such as braces, belts, casts, and crutches, shall be provided and all mechanical appliances required as permanent equipment after treatment has been completed shall continue to be provided or replaced without regard to the date of injury or date treatment was completed, notwithstanding any other provision of law.

(6) A worker, whose injury is of such short duration as to bring him or her within the time limit provisions of RCW 51.32.090, shall nevertheless receive during the omitted period medical, surgical, and hospital care and service and transportation under the provisions of this chapter.

(7) Whenever in the sole discretion of the supervisor it is reasonable and necessary to provide residence modifications necessary to meet the needs and requirements of the worker who has sustained catastrophic injury, the department or self-insurer may be ordered to pay an amount not to exceed the state's average annual wage for one year as determined under RCW 50.04.355, as now existing or hereafter amended, toward the cost of such modifications or construction. Such payment shall only be made for the construction or modification of a residence in which the injured worker resides. Only one residence of any worker may be modified or constructed under this subsection, although the supervisor may order more than one payment for any one home, up to the maximum amount permitted by this section.

(8) Whenever in the sole discretion of the supervisor it is reasonable and necessary to modify a motor vehicle owned by a worker who has become an amputee or becomes paralyzed because of an industrial injury, the supervisor may order up to fifty percent of the state's average annual wage for one year, as determined under RCW 50.04.355, as now existing or hereafter amended, to be paid by the department or self-insurer toward the costs thereof.

(9) The benefits provided by subsections (7) and (8) of this section are available to any otherwise eligible worker regardless of the date of industrial injury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 51.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Modification of the injured worker's previous job is recognized as a desirable method of returning the injured worker to suitable gainful employment. In order to assist employers in meeting the costs of job modification, and to encourage employers to modify jobs to accommodate retaining or hiring workers with disabilities resulting from work-related injury, the supervisor in his or her discretion may pay job modification costs in an amount not to exceed five thousand dollars per worker per job modification.
This payment is intended to be a cooperative participation with the employer and funds shall be taken from the appropriate account within the second injury fund.

The employer shall, at least thirty days before the effective date of the withdrawal, post reasonable notice of such withdrawal where the affected worker or workers work and shall otherwise notify personally the affected workers. 2. (a) Where death results from the injury, a surviving spouse of a deceased worker eligible for benefits under this title shall receive monthly for life or until remarriage ((the following sums: (a))) payments according to the following schedule:
(i) If there are no children of the deceased worker, sixty percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than one hundred eighty-five dollars;

(ii) If there is one child of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, sixty-two percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than two hundred twenty-two dollars;

(b) Where the surviving spouse does not have legal custody of any child or children of the deceased worker or where after the death of the worker legal custody of such child or children passes from such surviving spouse to another, any payment on account of such child or children shall be made to the person or persons having legal custody of such child or children. The amount of such payments shall be five percent of the monthly benefits payable as a result of the worker's death for each such child but such payments shall not exceed twenty-five percent. Such payments on account of such child or children shall be subtracted from the amount to which such surviving spouse would have been entitled had such surviving spouse had legal custody of all of the children and the surviving spouse shall receive the remainder after such payments on account of such child or children have been subtracted. Such payments on account of a child or children not in the legal custody of such surviving spouse shall be apportioned equally among such children.

(c) Payments to the surviving spouse of the deceased worker shall cease at the end of the month in which remarriage occurs: PROVIDED, That the monthly payment made to the child or children of the deceased worker shall from the month following such remarriage be a sum equal to five percent of the wages of the deceased worker for one child and a sum equal to five percent for each additional child up to a maximum of five such children. Payments to such child or children shall be apportioned equally among such children. Such sum shall be in place of any payments theretofore made for the benefit of or on account of any such child or children.
(d) In no event shall the monthly payments provided in subsection (2) of this section exceed seventy-five percent of the average monthly wage in the state as computed under RCW 51.08.018.

(e) In addition to the monthly payments ((above)) provided for in (2)(a) through (2)(c) of this section, a surviving spouse or child or children of such worker if there is no surviving spouse, or dependent parent or parents, if there is no surviving spouse or child or children of any such deceased worker shall be forthwith paid the sum of ((eight)) one thousand six hundred dollars, any such children, or parents to share and share alike in said sum.

(f) Upon remarriage of a surviving spouse the monthly payments for the child or children shall continue as provided in this section, but the monthly payments to such surviving spouse shall cease at the end of the month during which remarriage occurs. However, after September 8, 1975, an otherwise eligible surviving spouse of a worker who died at any time prior to or after September 8, 1975, shall have an option of:

(i) ((He or she shall receive)) Receiving, once and for all, a lump sum of seventy-five hundred dollars or fifty percent of the then remaining annuity value of his or her pension, whichever is the lesser: PROVIDED, That if the injury occurred prior to July 1, 1971, the remarriage benefit lump sum available shall be as provided in the remarriage benefit schedules then in effect; or

(ii) If a surviving spouse does not choose the option specified in ((subsection-(2)(i)) (2)(f)(i) of this section)) to accept the lump sum payment, the remarriage of the surviving spouse of a worker shall not bar him or her from ((exercising the option granted in subsection-(2)(i))) claiming the lump sum payment authorized in (2)(f)(i) of this section during the life of the remarriage ((and)), or shall not prevent subsequent monthly payments to him or to her if the remarriage has been terminated by death or has been dissolved or annulled by valid court decree provided he or she has not previously accepted the lump sum payment ((provided in this section: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That)).

(g) If the surviving spouse during the remarriage should die without having previously received the lump sum payment provided ((herein)) in (2)(f)(i) of this section, his or her estate shall be entitled to receive the sum of seventy-five hundred dollars or fifty percent of the then remaining annuity value of his or her pension whichever is the lesser((: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if it should be necessary to increase the reserves in the reserve fund or to create a new pension reserve fund as a result of this 1976 amendatory act the amount of such increase in pension reserve in any such case shall be transferred to the reserve fund from the supplemental pension fund)).

(h) The effective date of ((an award)) resumption of payments under (2)(f)(ii) of this section to a surviving spouse based upon termination of a remarriage by death, annulment, or dissolution shall be the date of the death(;;) or the date the judicial decree of annulment or dissolution becomes final and when application for the payments has been received.

(i) If it should be necessary to increase the reserves in the reserve fund or to create a new pension reserve fund as a result of the amendments in chapter 45, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess., the amount of such increase in pension reserve in any such case shall be transferred to the reserve fund from the supplemental pension fund.

(3) If there is a child or children and no surviving spouse of the deceased worker or the surviving spouse is not eligible for benefits under this title, a sum equal to thirty-five percent of the wages of the deceased worker shall be paid monthly for one child and a sum equivalent to fifteen percent of such wage shall be paid monthly for each additional child, the total of such sum to be divided among such children, share and share alike: PROVIDED, That benefits under this subsection or subsection (4) shall not exceed sixty-five percent of the wages of the deceased worker at the time of his or her death or seventy-five percent of the average monthly wage in the state as defined in RCW 51.08.018, whichever is the lesser of the two sums.

(5) If the worker leaves no surviving spouse or child, but leaves a dependent or dependents, a monthly payment shall be made to each dependent equal to fifty percent of the average monthly support actually received by such dependent from the worker during the twelve months next preceding the occurrence of the injury, but the total payment to all dependents in any case shall not exceed sixty-five percent of the wages of the deceased worker at the time of the death or seventy-five percent of the average monthly wage in the state as defined in RCW 51.08.018, whichever is the lesser of the two sums. If any dependent is under the age of eighteen years at the time of the occurrence of the injury, the payment to such dependent shall cease when such dependent reaches the age of eighteen years except such payments shall continue until the dependent reaches age twenty-three while permanently enrolled at a full time course in an accredited school. The payment to any dependent shall cease if and when, under the same circumstances, the necessity creating the dependency would have ceased if the injury had not happened.

(6) If the injured worker dies during the period of permanent total disability, whatever the cause of death, leaving a surviving spouse, or child, or children, the surviving spouse or child or children shall receive benefits as if death resulted from the injury as provided in subsections (2) through (4) of this section. Upon remarriage or death of such surviving spouse the payments to such child or children shall be made as provided in subsection (2) of this section when the surviving spouse of a deceased worker remarries.
Sec. 19. Section 3, chapter 286, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 231, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 51-32.220 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For persons under the age of sixty-five receiving compensation for temporary or permanent total disability pursuant to the provisions of chapter 51.32 RCW, such compensation shall be reduced by an amount equal to the benefits payable under the federal old-age, survivors and disability insurance act as now or hereafter amended not to exceed the amount of the reduction established pursuant to 42 USC 424a. However, such reduction shall not apply when the combined compensation provided pursuant to chapter 51.32 RCW and the federal old-age, survivors and disability insurance act is less than the total benefits to which the federal reduction would apply, pursuant to 42 USC 424a. Where any person described in this section refuses to authorize the release of information concerning the amount of benefits payable under said federal act the department's estimate of said amount shall be deemed to be correct unless and until the actual amount is established and no adjustment shall be made for any period of time covered by any such refusal.

(2) Any reduction under subsection (1) of this section shall be effective the month following the month in which the department or self-insurer is notified by the federal social security administration that the person is receiving disability benefits under the federal old-age, survivors and disability insurance act: PROVIDED, That in the event of an overpayment of benefits the department or self-insurer may not recover more than the overpayments for the six months immediately preceding the date the department or self-insurer notifies the worker that an overpayment has occurred: PROVIDED FURTHER, That upon determining that there has been an overpayment, the department or self-insurer shall immediately notify the person who received the overpayment that he or she shall be required to make repayment pursuant to this section and RCW 51.32.230.

(3) Recovery of any overpayment must be taken from future temporary or permanent total disability benefits or permanent partial disability benefits provided by this title. In the case of temporary or permanent total disability benefits, the recovery shall not exceed twenty-five percent of the monthly amount due from the department or self-insurer or one-sixth of the total overpayment, whichever is the lesser.

(4) No reduction may be made unless the worker receives notice of the reduction prior to the month in which the reduction is made.

(5) In no event shall the reduction reduce total benefits to less than the greater amount the worker may be entitled to under this title or the federal old-age, survivors and disability insurance act.

(6) The director, pursuant to rules adopted in accordance with the procedures provided in the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, may exercise his discretion to waive, in whole or in part, the amount of any overpayment where the recovery would be against equity and good conscience.

(7) The amendment in subsection (1) of this section by this 1982 act raising the age limit during which the reduction shall be made from age sixty-two to age sixty-five shall apply with respect to workers whose effective entitlement to total disability compensation begins after the effective date of this 1982 act.

Sec. 20. Sections 51.48.010, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 69, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.48.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Every employer shall be liable for the penalties described in this title and ((shall)) may also be liable if an injury or occupational disease has been sustained by a worker prior to the time he or she has secured the payment of such compensation to a penalty in a sum ((equal to)) not less than fifty percent nor more than one hundred percent of the cost for such injury or occupational disease((;)). Any employer who has failed to secure payment of compensation for his or her workers covered under this title may also be liable to a maximum penalty in a sum of two hundred dollars or in a sum double the amount of premiums incurred prior to securing payment of compensation under this title, whichever is greater, for the benefit of the medical aid fund.

Sec. 21. Section 51.48.030, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 64, chapter 289, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 51.48.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Every employer who fails to keep the records required by this title or fails to make the reports provided in this title shall be subject to a penalty of not to exceed ((one hundred dollars)) two hundred percent of the quarterly premium for each such offense.

Sec. 22. Section 51.52.120, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 81, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.52.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It shall be unlawful for an attorney engaged in the representation of any worker or beneficiary to charge for services in the department any fee in excess of a reasonable fee, of not more than thirty percent of the increase in the award secured by the attorney's services. Such reasonable fee shall be fixed by the director for services performed by an attorney for such worker or beneficiary, prior to the notice of appeal to the board if written application therefor is made by the attorney, worker, or beneficiary.

(2) If, on appeal to the board, the order, decision, or award of the department is reversed or modified and additional relief is granted to a worker or beneficiary, or in cases where a party other than the worker or beneficiary is the appealing party and the worker's or beneficiary's right to relief is sustained by the board, the board shall fix a reasonable fee for the services of his or her attorney in proceedings before the board if written application therefor is made by the attorney, worker, or beneficiary. In fixing the amount of such attorney's fee, the board shall take into consideration the fee allowed, if any, by the director, for services before the department, and the board may review the fee fixed by said director. Any attorney's fee set by the department or the board may be reviewed by the superior court upon application of such attorney, worker, or beneficiary. The department or self-insured employer, as the case may be, shall be served a copy of the application and shall be entitled to appear and take part in the proceedings. Where the board, pursuant to this section, fixes the attorney's fee, it shall be unlawful for an attorney to charge or receive any fee for services before the board in excess of that fee fixed by the board. Any person who violates any provision of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 23. Section 51.52.130, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 82, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.52.130 are each amended to read as follows:

If, on appeal to the court from the decision and order of the board, said decision and order is reversed or modified and additional relief is granted to a worker or beneficiary, or in cases where a party other than the worker or beneficiary is the appealing party and the worker's or beneficiary's right to relief is sustained by the court, a reasonable fee for the services of the worker's or beneficiary's attorney shall be fixed by the court. In fixing the fee the court shall take into consideration the fee or fees, if any, fixed by the director and the board for such attorney's services before the department and the board. If the court finds that the fee fixed by the director or by the board is inadequate for services performed before the department or board, or if the director or the board has fixed no fee for such services, then the court shall fix a fee for the attorney's services before the department, or the board, as the case may be, in addition to the fee fixed for the services in the court. If the decision and order of the board is reversed or modified and if the accident fund is affected by the litigation then the attorney's fee fixed by the court for services before the court only, and the fees of medical and other witnesses and the costs shall be payable out of the administrative fund of the department. In the case of self-insured employers, if the decision and order of the board is reversed or modified resulting in additional benefits by the litigation that would be paid from the accident fund if the employer were not self-insured, then the attorney fees fixed by the court for services before the court, only, and the fees of medical and other witnesses and the costs shall be payable directly by the self-insured employer.

(4) The board, in concurrence with the supervisor, may also suspend or diminish the ((assessment)) transfer in any given period after reaching a normal operating sufficiency as provided in the bylaws.

Sec. 7. Section 11, chapter 80, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 31-12A.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In the event a member of the association is placed in liquidation, either voluntary or involuntary, the supervisor or his representative shall determine as soon as is reasonably possible the probable ((net)) assessment, if any, resulting therefrom to its shareholders. If ((a-net)) an assessment seems to be indicated, the supervisor or his representative shall promptly inform the association in writing of the probable amount of such assessment. In determining the probable (net) assessment (of) for the liquidating member, charges, if any, for services of the supervisor or his representative, or his staff, as well as accrued but unpaid interest or dividends on share accounts, shall not be deemed liabilities of the liquidating credit union; and, with the consent of the association, all illiquid holdings (furniture, fixtures and other personal property) of the liquidating member, at the fair recoverable value thereof, as determined by the supervisor or his representative, may be excluded as assets. In determining the (net) assessment as to a particular share account, the supervisor or his representative shall first deduct the amount of any accrued and currently payable obligation of the shareholder to the liquidating credit union.

(2) Within thirty days after receipt by the association of the foregoing information, the board shall notify the remaining members of the association of the aggregate amount required to make good the probable net loss to share accounts, subject to the following conditions:

(a) The amount of loss to be made good to any shareholder shall not be less than provided by the national credit union administration share insurance program, with authority vested in the association to increase the coverage.

(b) To the amount of the assessment as otherwise determined pursuant to this section, the board may add such amount as it may deem to be reasonably necessary to cover its clerical, mailing and other expense connected with the assessment and distribution of the proceeds thereof to shareholders of the liquidating credit union, not to exceed actual costs of such mailing and clerical services.

(c) The (gross) amount of the assessment shall be prorated among the assessed members against their share guaranty contingency reserve: PROVIDED, That members shall not be liable for any amount of assessment exceeding their share guaranty contingency reserve or for any assessments exceeding those permitted in RCW (31.12A.040 and) 31.12A.050 as now or hereafter amended.

(d) That a plan for an orderly and expeditious liquidation be presented to the board of directors for their consideration and approval. In cases where a central or other eligible credit union is authorized to act as liquidator or liquidating agent, the association would provide an indemnity against loss to such authorized credit union.

(3) In case of liquidation the board shall cause written notice to each member stating whether only if a potential assessment is indicated and the probable amount of such contingency as it relates to a percentage of their total share guaranty contingency reserve. The actual assessment, if any, shall be paid by members upon completion of liquidation or sooner, as determined by the board of directors. In all cases the total reserve structure of a liquidating credit union, including its share guaranty contingency reserve, shall be utilized in concluding the liquidation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) To apply for registration an applicant shall file with the director:

(a) An application for registration on such a form as may be prescribed by the director. The director may, by rule or order, prescribe the contents of the application to include information (including financial statements) reasonably necessary for the director to determine if the requirements of this chapter have been met, whether any of the events specified in section 9(7) of this act have occurred, and what conditions, if any, should be imposed under sections 5 or 6 of this act in connection with the registration;

(b) Written disclosures, in any format the director is satisfied accurately and clearly communicates the required information, which includes:
(i) The name and address of the camping club operator and any material affiliate;

(ii) A brief description of the camping club operator’s experience in the camping club business;

(vi) A brief statement or summary of what required material land use permits have not been obtained for each camping club property or facility represented to purchasers as planned;

(vii) A summary or copy of the articles, by-laws, rules, restrictions, or covenants regulating the purchaser’s use of each property, the facilities located on each property, and any recreation services provided, including a statement of whether and how the articles, by-laws, rules, restrictions, or covenants may be changed;

(d) A statement of the total number of camping club contracts then in effect, both within and without this state; and a statement of the total number of camping club contracts intended to be sold, both within and without this state, together with a commitment that the total number will not be exceeded unless disclosed by post-effective amendment to the registration as provided in section 13 of this act; and

(e) Any other material information the director may, by rule or order, require for the protection of the purchasers.

(2) The following transactions are exempt from registration:

(a) An offer, sale, or transfer by any one person of not more than one camping club contract for any given camping club in any twelve-month period, but any agent for the person is not exempt from registration as a camping club salesperson under this chapter if he receives a commission or similar payment for the sale or transfer;

(b) An offer or sale by a government or governmental agency; and

(c) A bona fide pledge of a camping club contract.

(3) The director may, by rule or order, exempt any person from any or all requirements of this chapter if the director finds the requirements unnecessary for the protection of purchasers and the offering of camping club contracts is essentially noncommercial.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Unless an order denying effectiveness under section 9 of this act is in effect, or unless declared effective by order of the director prior thereto, the application for registration shall automatically become effective upon the expiration of the fifteenth full business day following filing with the director, but an applicant may consent to the delay of effectiveness until such time as the director may by order declare registration effective.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. If the director finds that the applicant or registrant does not have adequate financial and other resources so that there is a reasonable likelihood that it will not be able to provide or continue to provide the anticipated properties, facilities, or recreation services represented to purchasers, the director shall require impounding the funds from camping club contract sales until sufficient funds have been impounded to alleviate the inadequacy. The director may, if he finds it reasonable and necessary to the business operations of the applicant or registrant and not inconsistent with the protection of purchasers or owners of camping club contracts, provide for release to the applicant or registrant of all or a portion of the impounded funds. The director may take appropriate measures to assure that the impounded funds will be applied as contemplated by the director. If the funds are not released from impound within a reasonable time, the funds remaining in impound shall be returned to the purchasers upon the order of the director.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If the purchaser will own or acquire title to specified real property or improvements to be acquired by the camping club, the director may by order require to the extent necessary to protect the interests of the purchasers or owners of camping club contracts, that an appropriate portion of the proceeds paid under camping club contracts be set aside in a separate reserve fund to be applied toward the purchase price of the real property or improvements.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The camping club operator shall file with the director at least five business days prior to the first use thereof in the state of Washington (1) the proposed text of all advertisements and sales promotion literature, (2) its proposed form of camping club contract, and (3) the text of any supplements to the written disclosures required to be furnished prospective purchasers under section 8 of this act: PROVIDED, That if the text in lieu of definitive copies of any materials are filed, definitive copies shall be filed with the director within five business days following the date of first use of the materials.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Except in a transaction exempt under section 3(2) or (3) of this act, any person who sells a camping club contract in this state shall provide the prospective purchaser with the written disclosures required under section 3(1)(b) of this act in a form that is materially accurate and complete before the prospective purchaser signs a camping club contract or gives any item of value for the purchase of a camping club contract.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The effectiveness of an application or registration may by order be denied, suspended, or revoked or a fine of not more than one thousand dollars imposed by the director, if the director finds that the order is for the protection of purchasers or owners of camping club contracts and that:

(1) The camping club operator's advertising or sales techniques or trade practices have been or are deceptive, false, or misleading;

(2) The camping club operator has failed to file copies of its advertisements or promotion literature or its camping club contract form under section 7 of this act;

(3) The camping club operator has failed to comply with any provision of this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter that materially affect or would affect the rights of purchasers, prospective purchasers, or owners of camping club contracts or the administration of this chapter;

(4) The camping club operator is not financially responsible or has insufficient capital, as the director may find under section 5 of this act, to warrant its offering or selling camping club contracts;

(5) The camping club operator's offering of camping club contracts has worked or would work a fraud upon purchasers or owners of camping club contracts;
(6) The camping club operator's application or any amendment thereto is incomplete in any material respect;

(7) The camping club operator or any officer, director, or other affiliate of the camping club operator has been within the last five years convicted of any misdemeanor or felony involving theft, fraud, or dishonesty, has been enjoined from or had any civil penalty assessed for or found to have engaged in any violation of any act designed to protect consumers, or has been engaged in dishonest practices in any industry involving sales to consumers;

(8) The camping club operator has represented or is representing to purchasers in connection with the offer or sale of a camping club contract that any camping club property, facility, camp site, or other development is planned without reasonable grounds to believe that the camping club property, facility, camp site, or other development will be completed within a reasonable time; or

(9) The camping club operator has withdrawn, or has the right to withdraw, from use all or any substantial camping or recreation portion of any camping club property devoted to camping or recreational activities, unless (a) adequate provision has been made to provide within a reasonable time thereafter a substitute property in the same general area that is at least as desirable for the purpose of camping and outdoor recreation, (b) the property is withdrawn because, despite good faith efforts by the camping club operator, a nonaffiliate of the camping club has exercised a right of withdrawal from use by the camping club (such as withdrawal following expiration of a lease of the property to the camping club) and the terms of the withdrawal right have been disclosed in writing to all purchasers at or prior to the time of any sales of camping club contracts after the camping club has represented to purchasers that the property is or will be available for camping or recreation purposes, (c) the specific date upon which the withdrawal becomes effective has been disclosed in writing to all purchasers at or prior to the time of any sales of camping club contracts after the camping club has represented to purchasers that the property is or will be available for camping or recreation purposes, (d) the rights of the purchaser or owner of the camping club contract under the express terms of the camping club contract have expired, or have been specifically limited, upon the lapse of a stated or determinable period of time, or (e) the director by order has found that the withdrawal is not otherwise inconsistent with the protection of purchasers or owners of camping club contracts.

No order may be entered under this section without appropriate prior notice to the applicant or registrant of opportunity for a hearing and written findings of fact and conclusions of law, except that the director may by order summarily deny an application for registration under any of the above subsections and may summarily suspend or revoke a registration under subsections (1), (3), (5), or (6) of this section. No fine may be imposed by summary order or by reason of violation of subsection (4) or (7) of this section. If no hearing is requested within fifteen days of receipt of notice of opportunity for a hearing, and none is ordered by the director, the director may enter the order. Upon entry of a summary order, the applicant or registrant shall have an opportunity within ten days entry of the summary order to appear before the director and show cause why the summary order should not remain in effect. If good cause is shown, the director shall vacate the summary order. If good cause is not shown, the summary order shall remain in effect and the director shall give notice of opportunity for hearing and within fifteen days of the receipt of a written request the matter shall be set down for hearing within a time that is reasonable under the circumstances. Any fine imposed under this section shall be deposited in the general fund of the state treasurer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Any camping club contract may be cancelled at the option of the purchaser, if the purchaser sends notice of the cancellation by certified mail (return receipt requested) to the camping club operator and if the notice is posted not later than midnight of the third business day following the day on which the contract is signed. In addition to this cancellation right, any purchaser who signs a camping club contract without inspecting a camping club property or facility with camping sites or proposed camping sites may by written notice by certified mail (return receipt requested) cancel the camping club contract by posting the notice not later than midnight of the sixth business day following the day on which the contract is signed if the purchaser makes such an inspection before sending the notice. In computing the number of business days, the day on which the contract was signed shall not be included as a "business day," nor shall Saturday, Sunday, or legal holidays be included. The camping club operator shall promptly refund any money or other consideration paid by the purchaser upon receipt of timely notice of cancellation by the purchaser.

Every camping club contract shall include the following statement in at least ten point type immediately prior to the space for the purchaser's signature:

"Purchaser's right to cancel: You may cancel this contract without any cancellation fee or other penalty by sending notice of cancellation by certified mail, return receipt requested, to ............ (insert name of camping club operator). The notice must be postmarked by midnight of the third business day following the day on which the contract is signed. In computing the three business days, the day on which the contract is signed shall not be included as a "business day," nor shall Saturday, Sunday, or legal holidays be included."

If the purchaser has not inspected a camping club property or facility at which camping club sites are located or planned, the notice must contain the following additional language:
"If you sign this contract without having first inspected a property at which camping sites are located or planned, you may also cancel this contract by giving this notice within six business days following the day on which you signed if you inspect such a property prior to sending the notice."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Any camping club contract entered into in violation of section 2 or 8 of this act may be voided and the purchaser's entire consideration recovered at the option of the purchaser, but no suit under this section may be brought after two years from the date the contract is signed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Each application for registration or renewal shall be accompanied by a fee of three hundred twenty-five dollars.

Each application for amendment of the registration of a camping club's contracts shall be accompanied by a fee of one hundred dollars.

If registration of a camping club is conditioned upon establishing an impound under section 5 of this act, effectiveness of the camping club registration shall be conditioned upon the payment of an additional fee of one hundred dollars. If registration of a camping club is conditioned upon establishing a reserve under section 6 of this act, effectiveness of the camping club registration shall be conditioned upon the payment of an additional fee of one hundred dollars.

Each application for registration or renewal of an existing registration of a camping club salesperson shall be accompanied by a fee of thirty dollars.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A registration of camping club contracts shall be effective for a period of one year and may, upon application, be renewed for successive periods of one year each. A camping club contract registration may be amended at any time to increase the number of camping club contracts registered, or for any other reason, by the filing of an amended application therefor, which amended application shall become effective in the manner provided by section 4 of this act. The written disclosures required to be furnished prospective purchasers under section 8 of this act shall be supplemented in writing as necessary to keep the required information reasonably current, and the written supplements shall be filed with the director as provided in section 7 of this act. The foregoing notwithstanding, however, the camping club operator shall file an amendment to the application for registration disclosing any event which will have a material effect on the conduct of the operation of the camping club. The amendment shall be filed within thirty days following the event. The amendment shall be treated as an original application for registration, except that until the director has acted upon the amendment or until the amendment becomes effective under section 4 of this act by lapse of time, the applicant's registration shall continue to be deemed effective for the purposes of section 2 of this act.
Any permit to sell camping club memberships issued prior to the effective date of this act shall be deemed a camping club registration subject to the renewal provisions of this chapter upon the anniversary date of the issuance of the original permit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Unless the transaction is exempt under section 3(2) or (3) of this act, it is unlawful for any person to act as a camping club salesperson in this state without first registering under this chapter as a salesperson.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) A salesperson may apply for registration by filing with the director an application which includes the following information:

(a) A statement whether or not the applicant within the past five years has been convicted of any misdemeanor or felony involving theft, fraud, or dishonesty or whether or not the applicant has been enjoined from, had any civil penalty assessed for, or been found to have engaged in any violation of any act designed to protect consumers; and

(b) A statement describing the applicant's employment history for the past five years and whether or not any termination of employment during the last five years was occasioned by any theft, fraud, or act of dishonesty.

(2) The director may by order deny, suspend, or revoke a salesperson's application for registration or the salesperson's registration if the director finds that the order is necessary for the protection of purchasers or owners of camping club contracts and the applicant or registrant within the past five years (a) has been convicted of any misdemeanor or felony involving theft, fraud, or dishonesty or has been enjoined from, had any civil penalty assessed for, or been found to have engaged in any violation of any act designed to protect consumers, (b) has violated any provision of this chapter, or (c) has engaged in unethical or dishonest practices in any industry involving sales to consumers.

No order may be entered under this section without appropriate prior notice to the applicant or registrant of opportunity for a hearing and written findings of fact and conclusions of law, except that the director may by order summarily deny an application for registration under this subsection. If no hearing is requested within fifteen days of receipt of notice of opportunity for a hearing, and none is ordered by the director, the director may enter the order. Upon entry of a summary order, the applicant shall have an opportunity within ten days of entry of the summary order to appear before the director and show cause why the summary order should not remain in effect. If good cause is shown, the director shall vacate the summary order. If good cause is not shown, the summary order shall remain in effect and the director shall give notice of opportunity for hearing and within fifteen days of the receipt of a written request the matter shall be set down for hearing within a time that is reasonable under the circumstances.
The director may by rule require such further information or conditions for registration as a camping club salesperson as the director deems necessary to protect the interests of purchasers.

Registration as a camping club salesperson shall be effective for a period of one year unless the director specifies otherwise. Registration as a camping club salesperson shall be renewed annually by the filing of a form prescribed by the director for that purpose. Unless an order denying effectiveness under subsection (2) of this section is in effect, or unless declared effective by order of the director prior thereto, the application for registration or renewal shall automatically become effective upon the expiration of the fifteenth full business day following filing with the director, but an applicant or registrant may consent to the delay of effectiveness until such time as the director may by order declare registration or renewal effective.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The director may make such public or private investigations or may make such requests for information, within or without this state, as he deems necessary to determine whether any registration should be granted, denied, or revoked or whether any person has violated or is about to violate any of the provisions of this chapter or any rule or order under this chapter, or to aid in the enforcement of this chapter or in prescribing of rules and forms under this chapter and may publish information concerning any violation of this chapter or any rule or order under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. For the purpose of any investigation or proceeding under this chapter, the director or any officer designated by him may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements, or other documents or records which the director deems relevant or material to the inquiry.

In the case of any person who disobeys any subpoena lawfully issued by the director, or on the refusal of any witness to testify to any matters regarding which he may be lawfully interrogated, the superior court of any county or the judge thereof, on application by the director, and after satisfactory evidence of willful disobedience, may compel obedience by proceedings for contempt as in the case of disobedience of the requirements of a subpoena issued from such a court on a refusal to testify therein.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. (1) Whenever it appears to the director that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of this chapter, any withdrawal of a camping club property in violation of section 9(9) of this act, or any rule or order under this chapter, the director may in his discretion issue an order directing the person to cease and desist from continuing the act or practice: PROVIDED, That reasonable notice of and opportunity for a hearing shall be given: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the director may issue a temporary order pending the hearing which shall be effective upon delivery to the person affected and which shall remain in effect until ten days after the hearing is held and which shall become final if the person to whom notice is addressed does not request a hearing within fifteen days after receipt of notice.

(2) Whether or not the director has issued a cease and desist order, the attorney general, in the name of the state or the director, or the proper prosecuting attorney, may bring an action in any court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin any such acts or practices and to enforce compliance with this chapter or any rule or order under this chapter. Upon a proper showing, a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or writ of mandamus shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets. The state or director shall not be required to post a bond.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this chapter is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. It is a gross misdemeanor for any person in connection with the offer or sale of any camping club contracts wilfully:

(1) To make any untrue or misleading statement of a material fact, or to omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading;

(2) To employ any device, scheme, or artifice to defraud;

(3) To engage in any act, practice, or course of business which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon any person;

(4) To file, or cause to be filed, with the director any document which contains any untrue or misleading information.

No indictment or information may be returned under this chapter more than five years after the alleged violation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. The director may refer such evidence as may be available concerning violations of this chapter or of any rule or order under this chapter to the attorney general or the proper prosecuting attorney who may in his discretion, with or without such a reference, institute the appropriate civil or criminal proceedings under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. For the purposes of application of the Consumer Protection Act, chapter 19.86 RCW, any material violation of the provisions of this chapter shall be construed to constitute an unfair or deceptive act or practice or unfair method of competition in the conduct of trade or commerce.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. Camping club contracts registered under this chapter are exempt from the provisions of chapters 21.20 and 58.19 RCW and any act in this state regulating the offer and sale of time shares. A camping club shall not be considered a subdivision under RCW 58.17.020(1). Nothing in this chapter prevents counties or cities from enacting ordinances or resolutions setting platting or subdivision requirements solely for camping clubs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. Except as specifically provided in section 22 of this act, the provisions of this chapter are cumulative and nonexclusive and do not affect any other remedy available at law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. Neither the fact that an application for registration nor the written disclosures required by this chapter have been filed, nor the fact that a camping club contract offering has been effectively registered or exempted, constitutes a finding by the director that the offering or any document filed under this chapter is true, complete, and not misleading, nor does the fact mean that the director has determined in any way the merits or qualifications of or recommended or given approval to any person, camping club operator, or camping club contract transaction. It is a gross misdemeanor to make or cause to be made to any prospective purchaser any representation inconsistent with this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. The director may make, amend, and repeal rules, forms, and orders when necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. Chapter 34.04 RCW shall apply to any administrative procedures carried out by the director under this chapter unless otherwise provided in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. This chapter shall be administered by the director of licensing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

*Sec. 4. was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

Passed the Senate February 16, 1982.
Passed the House March 6, 1982.
Approved by the Governor March 27, 1982, with the exception of Section 4, which is vetoed.
Filed in Office of Secretary of State March 27, 1982.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

*I am returning herewith without my approval as to Section 4 Substitute Senate Bill No. 4566 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to agriculture and marketing."

Section 4 exempts agricultural commodity commissions from paying for audits performed by the State Auditor. Exempting commodity commissions from the requirement to reimburse the State Auditor for services received is inequitable and an unwarranted exception to the established policy of agencies paying for services received. It is particularly inappropriate in that this bill provides for a reduction in the frequency of required audits by the State Auditor from annual audits to at least one audit every five years.

By exempting agricultural commodity commissions from the definition of a "state department" Section 4 could also exempt these commissions from the jurisdiction of the State Auditor for purposes of departmental audits.

I have therefore vetoed Section 4. The remainder of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4566 is approved.*

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 1, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 and RCW 81.53.261 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the ((director of highways)) secretary of transportation or the governing body of any city, town, or county, or any railroad company whose road is crossed by any highway, shall deem that the public safety requires signals or other warning devices, other than sawbuck signs, at any crossing of a railroad at common grade by any state, city, town, or county highway, road, street, alley, avenue, boulevard, parkway, or other public place actually open and in use or to be opened and used for travel by the public, he or it shall file with the utilities and transportation commission a petition in writing, alleging that the public safety requires the installation of specified signals or other warning devices at such crossing or specified changes in the method and manner of existing crossing warning devices. Upon receiving such petition, the commission shall promptly set the matter for hearing, giving at least twenty days notice to the railroad company or companies and the county or municipality affected thereby, or the ((director of highways)) secretary of transportation in the case of a state highway, of the time and place of such hearing. At the time and place fixed in the notice, all persons and parties interested shall be entitled to be heard and introduce evidence, which shall be reduced to writing and filed by the commission. If the commission shall determine from the evidence that public safety does not require the installation of the signal, other warning device or change in the existing warning device specified in the petition, it shall make determinations to that effect and enter an order denying said petition in toto. If the commission shall determine from the evidence that public safety requires the installation of such signals or other warning devices at such crossing or such change in the existing warning devices at said crossing, it shall make determinations to that effect and enter an order directing the installation of such signals or other warning devices or directing that such changes shall be made in existing warning devices. The commission shall also at said hearing apportion the entire cost of installation and maintenance of such signals or other warning devices, other than sawbuck signs, as provided in RCW 81.53.271: PROVIDED, That upon agreement by all parties to waive hearing, the commission shall forthwith enter its order.

No railroad shall be required to install any such signal or other warning device until the public body involved has either paid or executed its promise to pay to the railroad its portion of the estimated cost thereof.

Nothing in this section shall be deemed to foreclose the right of the interested parties to enter into an agreement, franchise, or permit arrangement providing for the installation of signals or other warning devices at any such crossing or for the apportionment of the cost of installation and maintenance thereof, or compliance with an existing agreement, franchise, or permit arrangement providing for the same.

The hearing and determinations authorized by this section may be instituted by the commission on its own motion, and the proceedings, hearing, and consequences thereof shall be the same as for the hearing and determination of any petition authorized by this section.

No part of the record, or a copy thereof, of the hearing and determination provided for in this section and no finding, conclusion, or order made pursuant thereto shall be used as evidence in any trial, civil or criminal, arising out of an accident at or in the vicinity of any crossing prior to installation of signals or other warning devices pursuant to an order of the commission as a result of any such investigation.

Any order entered by the utilities and transportation commission under this section shall be subject to review, supersedeas and appeal as provided in RCW 81.04.170 through 81.04.190, respectively.

Nothing in this section shall be deemed to relieve any railroad from liability on account of failure to provide adequate protective devices at any such crossing.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 as last amended by section 1, chapter 189, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 81.53.271 are each amended to read as follows:

The petition shall set forth by description the location of the crossing or crossings, the type of signal or other warning device to be installed, the necessity from the standpoint of public safety for such installation, the approximate cost of installation and related work, and the approximate annual cost of maintenance. If the commission directs the installation of a grade crossing protective device, ((the cost of which is eligible for federal-aid matching funds of at least sixty percent of the installation costs and such federal funds are used)) and a federal-aid funding program is available to participate in the costs of such installation, both installation and maintenance costs of the device shall be apportioned in accordance with the provisions of RCW 81.53.295. Otherwise if installation is directed by the commission, it shall apportion the cost of installation and maintenance as provided in this section:
Installation: (1) Sixty percent to the grade crossing protective fund, created by RCW 81.53.281;
(2) Thirty percent to the city, town, county, or state; and
(3) Ten percent to the railroad:
PROVIDED, That, if the proposed installation is located at a new crossing requested by a city, town, county, or state, forty percent of the cost shall be apportioned to the city, town, county, or state, and none to the railroad. If the proposed installation is located at a new crossing requested by a railroad, then the entire cost shall be apportioned to the railroad. In the event the city, town, county, or state should concurrently petition the commission and secure an order authorizing the closure of an existing crossing or crossings in proximity to the crossing for which installation of signals or other warning devices shall have been directed, the apportionment to the petitioning city, town, county, or state shall be reduced by ten percent of the total cost for each crossing ordered closed and the apportionment from the grade crossing protective fund increased accordingly. This exception shall not be construed to permit a charge to the grade crossing protective fund in an amount greater than the total cost otherwise apportionable to the city, town, county, or state. No reduction shall be applied where one crossing is closed and another opened in lieu thereof, nor to crossings of a private nature.

Maintenance: (1) Twenty-five percent to the grade crossing protective fund, created by RCW 81.53.281; and
(2) Seventy-five percent to the railroad:
PROVIDED, That if the proposed installation is located at a new crossing requested by a railroad, then the entire cost shall be apportioned to the railroad.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 as last amended by section 2, chapter 189, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 81.53.281 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created in the state treasury a "grade crossing protective fund," to which shall be transferred all moneys appropriated for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of RCW 81.53.261, 81.53.271, 81.53.281 ((and)) 81.53.291, and 81.53.295. ((The amount of any transfer from the motor-vehicle fund to the grade crossing protective fund and the amount of any appropriation (exclusive of any reapportionment of funds appropriated in the prior biennium) from the grade crossing protective fund for the installation of grade crossing protective devices in any biennium shall be reduced by an amount equal to sixty percent of the cost of the installation of any such device (installed and apportioned at the direction of the commission pursuant to RCW 81.53.271), and an amount equal to such reduction shall forthwith be transferred back to the motor-vehicle fund, whichever the cost of installation is paid in part from federal-aid matching funds and the total cost of installation is apportioned in accordance with the provisions of RCW [452]
PROVIDED, That not more than twenty-five percent of the transfer from the motor vehicle fund and the appropriation from the grade crossing protective fund for installation purposes in any biennium shall be reduced as provided in this section as a result of the installation of grade crossing protective devices on any highway, road or street on the federal aid system. PROVIDED FURTHER, That whenever the unobligated balance in the grade crossing protective fund available for the installation of grade crossing protective devices is reduced to one hundred thousand dollars in any biennium, the above provisions for reducing the appropriation from said fund and the transfers back to the motor vehicle fund shall be suspended and the one hundred thousand dollars remaining in the grade crossing protective fund shall remain available for expenditure as authorized by appropriation.

At the time the commission makes each allocation of cost to said grade crossing protective fund, it shall certify that such cost shall be payable out of said fund. When federal-aid highway funds are not involved, the railroad shall, upon completion of the installation of any such signal or other protective device and related work, present its claim for reimbursement for the cost of installation and related work from said fund of the amount allocated thereto by the commission. The annual cost of maintenance shall be presented and paid in a like manner. When federal-aid highway funds are involved, the department of transportation shall, upon entry of an order by the commission requiring the installation or upgrading of a grade crossing protective device, submit to the commission an estimate for the cost of the proposed installation and related work. Upon receipt of the estimate the commission shall pay to the department of transportation the percentage of the estimate specified in RCW 81.53.295, as now or hereafter amended, to be used as the grade crossing protective fund portion of the cost of the installation and related work. The commission is hereby authorized to recover administrative costs from said fund in an amount not to exceed three percent of the direct appropriation provided for any biennium, and in the event administrative costs exceed three percent of the appropriation, the excess shall be chargeable to regulatory fees paid by railroads pursuant to RCW 81.24.010.

Within ninety days of the end of each fiscal year, the commission shall report to the legislative transportation committee, and the senate and house committees on transportation, the status of the grade crossing protective fund, including revenue sources, fund balances, and expenditures.

Sec. 4. Section 3, chapter 189, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 81.53.295 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever federal-aid highway funds are available and are used to pay a portion of the cost of installing a grade crossing protective device and related work, at a railroad crossing of any state highway, city or town street, or county road at the then prevailing federal-aid matching rate, the grade crossing protective fund shall pay ten percent of the remaining cost of such installation and related work. The state or local authority having jurisdiction of such highway, street, or road shall pay the balance of the remaining cost of such installation and related work. The railroad whose road is crossed by the highway, street, or road shall thereafter pay the entire cost of maintaining the device. PROVIDED, That if such device is installed at the direction of the commission pursuant to RCW 81.53.271 and results in a reduction in the amount of the appropriation to the grade crossing protective fund pursuant to RCW 81.53.281, then the cost of maintaining the device shall be apportioned by the commission:

(1) Twenty-five percent to the grade crossing protective fund, created by RCW 81.53.281, and
(2) Seventy-five percent to the railroad).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The provisions of this act shall not apply to those petitions acted upon by the commission prior to the effective date of this 1982 amendatory act.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 7, chapter 53, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 6, chapter 106, Laws of 1979 and RCW 30.42.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The capital allocated as required in RCW 30.42.060(3) shall be maintained within this state at all times in cash or in supervisor approved interest bearing bond., notes, debentures, or other obligations: (1) Of the United States or of any agency or instrumentality thereof, or guaranteed by the United States; or (2) of this state, or of a city, county, town, or other municipal corporation, or instrumentality of this state or guaranteed by this state, or such other assets as the supervisor may approve. Such capital shall be deposited with a bank qualified to do business in and having its principal place of business within this state, or in a national bank qualified to engage in banking in this state. Such bank shall issue a written receipt addressed and delivered to the supervisor reciting that such deposit is being held for the sole benefit of the United States domiciled creditors of such alien bank's Washington office and that the same is subject to his order without offset for the payment of such creditors. For the purposes of this section, the term "creditor" shall not include any other offices, branches, subsidiaries, or affiliates of such alien bank. Subject to the approval of the supervisor, reasonable arrangements may be made for substitution of securities. So long as it shall continue business in this state in conformance with this chapter and shall remain solvent, such alien bank shall be permitted to collect all interest and/or income from the assets constituting such allocated capital.

Should any securities so depreciate in market value and/or quality as to reduce the deposit below the amount required, additional money or securities shall be deposited promptly in amounts sufficient to meet such requirements. The supervisor may make an investigation of the market value and of the quality of any security deposited at the time such security is presented for deposit or at any time thereafter. The supervisor may make such charge as may be reasonable and proper for such investigation.

Sec. 2. Section 12, chapter 53, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 285, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 30.42.120 are each amended to read as follows:

A branch shall not commence to transact in this state the business of accepting deposits or transact such business thereafter unless it has met the following requirements:

(1) It has obtained federal deposit insurance corporation insurance covering its eligible deposit liabilities within this state, or in lieu thereof, made arrangements satisfactory to the supervisor for maintenance within this state of additional capital equal to not less than ((ten)) five percent of its deposit liabilities, computed on the basis of the average daily net deposit balances covering semimonthly periods as prescribed pursuant to RCW 30.04.090. Such additional capital shall be deposited in the manner provided in RCW 30.42.070.

(2) It holds in this state currency, bonds, notes, debentures, drafts, bills of exchange, or other evidences of indebtedness or other obligations payable in the United States or in United States((t)) funds or, with the approval of the supervisor, in funds freely convertible into United States((t)) funds or such other assets as are approved by the supervisor, in an amount not less than one hundred ((eight)) percent of the aggregate amount of liabilities of such alien bank payable at or through its office in this state. When calculating the value of the assets so held, credit shall be given for the amounts deposited pursuant to RCW 30.42.060(3) and 30.42.120(1), but there shall be excluded all amounts due from the head office and any other branch, agency, or other office or wholly-owned subsidiary of the bank, except those amounts due from such offices or subsidiaries located within the United States and payable in United States dollars.

(3) If deposits are not insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation, then that fact shall be disclosed to all depositors pursuant to rules and regulations of the supervisor.

(4) If the branch conducts an international banking facility, the deposits of which are exempt from reserve requirements of the federal reserve banking system, the liabilities of that facility shall be excluded from the deposit and other liabilities of the branch for the purposes of subsection (1) of this section.

Sec. 3. Section 14, chapter 53, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 30.42.140 are each amended to read as follows:

((1)) Within ninety days after the end of each fiscal year, an accountant, approved by the supervisor, shall examine the books of account of the office of an alien bank and report to the supervisor his opinion of the financial condition of the office as of the last business day of the immediately previous fiscal year. In making such examination, the accountant shall follow the rules and regulations promulgated by the supervisor governing such examination:

(2)) The supervisor, deputy supervisor, or a bank examiner, without previous notice, shall visit the office of an alien bank doing business in this state pursuant to this chapter at least once in each year, and more often if necessary, for the purpose of making a full investigation into the condition of such office, and for that purpose they are hereby empowered to administer oaths and to examine under oath any director or member of its governing body, officer, employee, or agent of such alien bank or office. The supervisor shall make such other full or partial examination as he deems necessary. The supervisor shall collect from each alien bank for each examination of the conditions of its office in this state, the estimated actual cost of such examination.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 30.42 RCW a new section to read as follows:

An approved branch of an alien bank shall have the same power to make loans and guarantee obligations as a state bank chartered pursuant to Title 30 RCW: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the base for computing the applicable loan limitation shall be the entire capital and surplus of the alien bank. The supervisor may adopt rules and regulations limiting the amount of loans to full-time employees of the branch.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 30.42 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) In addition to the taking of deposits and making of loans as provided in this chapter, a branch of an alien bank shall have the power only to carry out these other activities:
(a) Borrow funds from banks and other financial institutions;
(b) Make investments to the same extent as a state bank chartered pursuant to Title 30 RCW;
(c) Buy and sell foreign exchange;
(d) Receive checks, bills, drafts, acceptances, notes, bonds, coupons, and other securities for collection abroad and collect such instruments in the United States for customers abroad;
(e) Hold securities in safekeeping for, or buy and sell securities upon the order and for the risk of, customers abroad;
(f) Act as paying agent for securities issued by foreign governments or other organizations organized under foreign law and not qualified under the laws of the United States, or of any state or the District of Columbia, to do business in the United States;
(g) In order to prevent loss on debts previously contracted a branch may acquire shares in a corporation: PROVIDED, That the shares are disposed of as soon as practical but in no event later than two years from the date of acquisition;
(h) Issue letters of credit and create acceptances;
(i) Act as paying agent or trustee in connection with revenue bonds issued pursuant to chapter 39.84 RCW, in which the user is: (i) A corporation organized under the laws of a country other than the United States, or a subsidiary or affiliate owned or controlled by such a corporation; or (ii) a corporation, partnership, or other business organization, the majority of the beneficial ownership of which is owned by persons who are citizens of a country other than the United States and who are not residents of the United States, and any subsidiary or affiliate owned or controlled by such an organization; or in which the bank purchases twenty-five percent or more of the bond issue. For the purposes of chapter 39.84 RCW, such an alien bank shall be deemed to possess trust powers.

(2) In addition to the powers and activities expressly authorized by this section, a branch shall have the power to carry on such additional activities which are necessarily incidental to the activities expressly authorized by this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 30.42 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Any branch of an alien bank that received approval of its branch application pursuant to RCW 30.42.090 on or before July 27, 1978, and any approved branch of an alien bank that has designated Washington as its home state pursuant to section 5 of the International Banking Act of 1978, shall have the same power to solicit and accept deposits as a state bank chartered pursuant to Title 30 RCW, except that acceptance of initial deposits of less than one hundred thousand dollars shall be limited to deposits of the following:
(a) Any business entity, including any corporation, partnership, association, or trust, that engages in commercial activity for profit: PROVIDED, That there shall be excluded from this category any such business entity that is organized under the laws of any state or the United States, is majority-owned by United States citizens or residents, and has total assets, including assets of majority owned subsidiaries, of less than one million five hundred thousand dollars as of the date of the initial deposit;

(b) Any governmental unit, including the United States government, any state government, any foreign government and any political subdivision or agency of the foregoing;

(c) Any international organization which is composed of two or more nations;

(d) Any draft, check, or similar instrument for the transmission of funds issued by the branch;

(e) Any depositor who is not a citizen of the United States and who is not a resident of the United States at the time of the initial deposit;

(f) Any depositor who established a deposit account on or before the effective date of this act, and who has continuously maintained the deposit account since that date: PROVIDED, That this subparagraph (f) of this subsection shall be effective only until July 1, 1985;

(g) Any other person: PROVIDED, That the amount of deposits under this subparagraph (g) of this subsection may not exceed four percent of the average of the branch's deposits for the last thirty days of the most recent calendar quarter, excluding deposits in the branch of other offices, branches, agencies, or wholly owned subsidiaries of the alien bank.

(2) As used in subsection (1) of this section, "initial deposit" means the first deposit transaction between a depositor and the branch. Different deposit accounts that are held by a depositor in the same right and capacity may be added together for purposes of determining the dollar amount of that depositor's initial deposit.

(3) Approved branches of alien banks, other than those described in subsection (1) of this section, may solicit and accept deposits only from foreign governments and their agencies and instrumentalities, persons, or entities conducting business principally at their offices or establishments abroad, and such other deposits that:

(a) Are to be transmitted abroad;

(b) Consist of collateral or funds to be used for payment of obligations to the branch;

(c) Consist of the proceeds of collections abroad that are to be used to pay for exported or imported goods or for other costs of exporting or importing or that are to be periodically transferred to the depositor's account at another financial institution;

(d) Consist of the proceeds of extensions of credit by the branch; or
(e) Represent compensation to the branch for extensions of credit or services to the customer.

(4) A branch may accept deposits, subject to the limitations set forth in subsections (1) and (3) of this section, only upon the same terms and conditions (including nature and extent of such deposits, withdrawal, and the payment of interest thereon) that banks organized under the laws of this state which are members of the Federal Reserve System may accept such deposits. Any branch that is not subject to reserve requirements under regulations of the Federal Reserve Board shall maintain deposit reserves in this state, pursuant to rules adopted by the supervisor, to the same extent they must be maintained by banks organized under the laws of this state which are members of the Federal Reserve System.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 82.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

This chapter shall not apply to the gross receipts of an international banking facility.

As used in this section, an "international banking facility" means a facility represented by a set of asset and liability accounts segregated on the books and records of a commercial bank, the principal office of which is located in this state, and which is incorporated and doing business under the laws of the United States or of this state, a United States branch or agency of a foreign bank, an Edge corporation organized under Section 25(a) of the Federal Reserve Act, 12 United States Code 611–631, or an Agreement corporation having an agreement or undertaking with the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System under Section 25 of the Federal Reserve Act, 12 United States Code 601–604(a), that includes only international banking facility time deposits (as defined in subsection (a)(2) of Section 204.8 of Regulation D (12 CFR Part 204), as promulgated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System), and international banking facility extensions of credit (as defined in subsection (a)(3) of Section 204.8 of Regulation D).

[Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4200]
PUBLIC WORKS—STATE AGENCY SMALL WORKS ROSTERS—CONSTRUCTION, REPAIR OF STATE FACILITIES—CONTRACT AMOUNT RETENTION IN LIEU OF BOND

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 1, chapter 183, Laws of 1923 as amended by section 1, chapter 177, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 39.04.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The term state shall include the state of Washington and all departments, supervisors, commissioners and agencies thereof.

The term municipality shall include every city, county, town, district or other public agency thereof which is authorized by law to require the execution of public work, except drainage districts, diking districts, diking and drainage improvement districts, drainage improvement districts, diking improvement districts, consolidated diking and drainage improvement districts, consolidated drainage improvement districts, consolidated diking improvement districts, irrigation districts or any such other districts as shall from time to time be authorized by law for the reclamation or development of waste or undeveloped lands.

The term public work shall include all work, construction, alteration, repair, or improvement other than ordinary maintenance, executed at the cost of the state or of any municipality, or which is by law a lien or charge on any property therein, but nothing herein shall apply to the construction, alteration, repair, or improvement of any municipal street railway system. All public works, including maintenance when performed by contract shall comply with the provisions of RCW 39.12.020.

The term contract shall mean a contract in writing for the execution of public work for a fixed or determinable amount duly awarded after advertisement and competitive bid. However, a contract which is awarded from a small works roster under the authority of section 2 of this 1982 act need not be advertised.

Cost of superintendence, engineering, clerical and accounting service shall include all expenditures specially incurred for such service, and shall include a proportionate charge for the time of all salaried officers, engineers, clerks, accountants and employees of the state or municipality while engaged in such work or in keeping or preparing the estimates, accounts and records thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 39.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, "agency" means the department of general administration, the department of fisheries, the department of game, and the state parks and recreation commission.

(2) In addition to any other power or authority that an agency may have, each agency, alone or in concert, may establish a small works roster consisting of all qualified contractors who have requested to be included on the roster.

(3) The small works roster may make distinctions between contractors based on the geographic areas served and the nature of the work the contractor is qualified to perform. At least once every year, the agency shall advertise in a newspaper of general circulation the existence of the small works roster and shall add to the roster those contractors who request to be included on the roster.

(4) Construction, repair, or alteration projects estimated to cost less than twenty-five thousand dollars are exempt from the requirement that the contracts be awarded after advertisement and competitive bid as defined by RCW 39.04.010. In lieu of advertisement and competitive bid, the agency shall solicit at least five quotations, confirmed in writing, from contractors chosen by random number generated by computer from the contractors on the small works roster for the category of job type involved and shall award the work to the party with the lowest quotation or reject all quotations. If the agency is unable to solicit quotations from five qualified contractors on the small works roster for a particular project, then the project shall be advertised and competitively bid. The agency shall solicit quotations randomly from contractors on the small works roster in a manner which will equitably distribute the opportunity for these contracts among contractors on the roster: PROVIDED, That whenever possible, the agency shall invite at least one proposal from a minority contractor who shall otherwise qualify to perform such work. Immediately after an award is made, the bid quotations obtained shall be recorded, open to public inspection, and available by telephone request.

(5) The breaking down of any public work or improvement into units or accomplishing any public work or improvement by phases for the purpose of avoiding the minimum dollar amount for bidding is contrary to public policy and is prohibited.

(6) The director of general administration shall adopt by rule a procedure to prequalify contractors for inclusion on the small works roster. Each agency shall follow the procedure adopted by the director of general administration. No agency shall be required to make available for public inspection or copying under chapter 42.17 RCW financial information required to be provided by the prequalification procedure.

(7) An agency may adopt by rule procedures to implement this section which shall not be inconsistent with the procedures adopted by the director of the department of general administration pursuant to subsection (6) of this section.

Sec. 3. Section 43.19.450, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 63, chapter 136, Laws of 1981 and RCW 43.19.450 are each amended to read as follows:

The director of general administration shall appoint and deputize an assistant director to be known as the supervisor of engineering and architecture who shall have charge and supervision of the division of engineering and architecture. With the approval of the director ((he)), the supervisor may appoint and employ such assistants and personnel as may be necessary to carry out the work of the division.

No person shall be eligible for appointment as supervisor of engineering and architecture unless he is((;)) licensed to practice the profession of engineering or the profession of architecture in the state of Washington and for the last five years prior to his appointment has been((;)) licensed to practice the profession of engineering or the profession of architecture ((in-the-state of-Washington)).

As used in this section, "state facilities" includes all state buildings, related structures, and appurtenances constructed for any elected state officials, institutions, departments, boards, commissions, colleges, community colleges, except the state universities, The Evergreen State College and regional universities. "State facilities" does not include facilities owned by or used for operational purposes and constructed for the department of transportation, department of fisheries, department of game, department of natural resources, or state parks and recreation commission.

CHAPTER 109
[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4947]
INDUSTRIAL INSURANCE—APPEALS PROCEDURES
1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 51.52.106; amending section 1, chapter 30, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 11, chapter 171, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 51.32-.040; and adding a new section to chapter 51.32 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 15, chapter 80, Laws of 1973 and RCW 49.17.150 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person aggrieved by an order of the board of industrial insurance appeals issued under (subsection (3) of) RCW 49.17.140(3) may obtain a review of such order in the superior court for the county in which the violation is alleged to have occurred, by filing in such court within thirty days following the communication of the board's order or denial of any petition or petitions for review, a written notice of appeal praying that the order be modified or set aside. (A copy of such notice of appeal shall be forthwith transmitted by the clerk of the court to the board of industrial insurance appeals and to all parties to the proceedings before the board, and thereupon the board shall file in the court the complete record of the proceedings.) Such appeal shall be perfected by filing with the clerk of the court and by serving a copy thereof by mail, or personally, on the director and on the board. The board shall thereupon transmit a copy of the notice of appeal to all parties who participated in proceedings before the board, and shall file in the court the complete record of the proceedings. Upon such filing the court shall have jurisdiction of the proceeding and of the question determined therein, and shall have power to grant such temporary relief or restraining order as it deems just and proper, and to make and enter upon the pleadings and the record of proceedings a decree affirming, modifying, or setting aside in all or in part, the decision of the board of industrial insurance appeals and enforcing the same to the extent that such order is affirmed or modified. The commencement of appellate proceedings under this subsection shall not, unless ordered by the court, operate as a stay of the order of the board of industrial insurance appeals. No objection that has not been urged before the board shall be considered by the court, unless the failure or neglect to urge such objection shall be excused because of extraordinary circumstances. The findings of the board or hearing examiner where the board has denied a petition or petitions for review with respect to questions of fact, if supported by substantial evidence on the record considered as a whole, shall be conclusive. If any party shall apply to the court for leave to adduce additional evidence and shall show to the satisfaction of the court that such additional evidence is material and that there were reasonable grounds for the failure to adduce such evidence in the hearing before the board, the court may order such additional evidence to be taken before the board and to be made a part of the record. The board may modify its findings as to the facts, or make new findings, by reason of additional evidence so taken and filed, and it shall file such modified or new findings, which findings with respect to questions of fact are supported by substantial evidence on the record considered as a whole, shall be conclusive, and its recommendations, if any, for the modification or setting aside of its original order. Upon the filing of the record with it, the jurisdiction of the court shall be exclusive and the judgment and decree shall be final, except as the same shall be subject to review by the supreme court. Appeals filed under this subsection shall be heard expeditiously.

(2) The director may also obtain review or enforcement of any final order of the board by filing a petition for such relief in the superior court for the county in which the alleged violation occurred. The provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall govern such proceeding to the extent applicable. If a notice of appeal, as provided in subsection (1) of this section, is not filed within thirty days after service of the board’s order, the board’s findings of fact, decision, and order or the examiner’s findings of fact, decision, and order when a petition or petitions for review have been denied shall be conclusive in connection with any petition for enforcement which is filed by the director after the expiration of such thirty day period. In any such case, as well as in the case of an unappealed citation or a notification of the assessment of a penalty by the director, which has become a final order under subsection (1) or (2) of RCW 49.17.140 upon application of the director, the clerk of the court, unless otherwise ordered by the court, shall forthwith enter a decree enforcing the citation and notice of assessment of penalty and shall transmit a copy of such decree to the director and the employer named in the director’s petition. In any contempt proceeding brought to enforce a decree of the superior court entered pursuant to this subsection or subsection (1) of this section the superior court may assess the penalties provided in RCW 49.17.180, in addition to invoking any other available remedies.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 14, Laws of 1980 and RCW 51.04.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall appoint a workers’ compensation advisory committee composed of ((nine)) ten members: Three representing subject workers, three representing subject employers, one representing self-insurers, one representing workers of self-insurers, and ((one)) two ex officio members, without a vote, ((representing the department, who)) one of whom shall be the chairman of the board of industrial appeals and the other the representative of the department. The member representing the department shall be chairman. This committee shall conduct a continuing study of any aspects of workers’ compensation as the committee shall determine require their consideration. The committee shall report its findings to the department or the board of industrial insurance appeals for such action as deemed appropriate. The members of the committee shall be appointed for a term of three years commencing on July 1, 1971 and the terms of the members representing the workers and employers shall be staggered so that the director shall designate one member from each such group initially appointed whose term shall expire on June 30, 1972 and one member from each such group whose term shall expire on June 30, 1973. The members shall serve without compensation, but shall be entitled to travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended. The committee may hire such experts, if any, as it shall require to discharge its duties, and may utilize such personnel and facilities of the department and board of industrial insurance appeals as it shall need without charge. All expenses of this committee shall be paid by the department.

Sec. 3. Section 33, chapter 43, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 51.48-.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Any employer who is served with a notice of assessment may within thirty days from the date of service upon the employer of the notice of assessment appeal such notice of assessment by serving the director by registered mail with a petition for review and file the same with the clerk of the superior court of the county wherein the work covered by the provisions of the industrial insurance act was performed. This shall be the exclusive means for appeal from notices of assessment. Such petition shall set forth the reasons why the tax should be reduced or abated. Within ten days after the filing of the petition for review the employer shall file with the clerk a good and sufficient surety bond in the sum of one hundred dollars, conditioned to diligently prosecute the appeal and pay all the department's costs that may be awarded if the appeal of the employer is not sustained.

The trial in the superior court on appeal shall be de novo and without the necessity of any pleading other than the petition for review, and the burden of proof shall rest upon the employer to prove that the tax assessed upon the employer in the notice of assessment is incorrect, either in whole or in part, and to establish the correct amount of the tax, if any. In such proceeding the employer shall be deemed the plaintiff and the department of labor and industries the defendant; and both parties shall be entitled to subpoena the attendance of witnesses as in other civil actions and to produce evidence that is relevant, competent and material to determine the correct amount of the tax. Either party shall be allowed to appeal to the court of appeals or the supreme court in the same manner as other civil actions are appealed to those courts. No court action or proceeding shall be maintained by any employer to dispute the amount of notice of assessment except as herein provided.

Sec. 4. Section 51.52.050, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 75, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.52.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the department has made any order, decision, or award, it shall promptly serve the worker, beneficiary, employer, or other person affected thereby, with a copy thereof by mail, which shall be addressed to such person at his or her last known address as shown by the records of the department. The copy, in case the same is a final order, decision, or award, shall bear on the same side of the same page on which is found the amount of the award, a statement, set in black faced type of at least ten point body or size, that such final order, decision, or award (must be appealed to the board, Olympia, within sixty days, or the same shall become final) shall become final within sixty days from the date the order is communicated to the parties unless a written request for reconsideration is filed with the department of labor and industries, Olympia, or an appeal is filed with the board of industrial insurance appeals, Olympia.

Whenever the department has taken any action or made any decision relating to any phase of the administration of this title the worker, beneficiary, employer, or other person aggrieved thereby may request reconsideration of the department, or may appeal to the board (and said). In an appeal before the board, the appellant shall have the burden of proceeding with the evidence to establish a prima facie case for the relief sought in such appeal. Any such person aggrieved by the decision and order of the board may thereafter appeal to the superior court, as prescribed in this chapter.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to permit an appeal to the board from a notice of assessment issued pursuant to RCW 51.48.120.

Sec. 5. Section 6, chapter 148, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 22, chapter 289, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 51.52.104 are each amended to read as follows:

After all evidence has been presented at hearings conducted by ((a hearing-examiner)) an industrial appeals judge, who shall be an active member of the Washington state bar association, the ((hearing-examiner)) industrial appeals judge shall enter a proposed or recommended decision and order which shall be in writing and shall contain findings and conclusions as to each contested issue of fact and law, as well as the order based thereon. The ((hearing-examiner)) industrial appeals judge shall file the original of the proposed decision and order, signed by him, with the board, and copies thereof shall be mailed by the board to each party to the appeal and to his attorney of record. Within twenty days, or such further period as the board may allow on written application of a party, filed within said twenty days from the date of communication of the proposed decision and order to the parties or their attorneys of record, any party may file with the board a written petition for review of the same. For purposes of determining whether a petition for review has been timely filed, the date such petition for review is received at the board's offices in Olympia shall be the date upon which filing is perfected. Such petition for review shall set forth in detail the grounds therefor and the party or parties filing the same shall be deemed to have waived all objections or irregularities not specifically set forth therein.
In the event no petition for review is filed as provided herein by any party, the proposed decision and order of the industrial appeals judge shall be adopted by the board and become the decision and order of the board, and no appeal may be taken therefrom to the courts. If an order adopting the proposed decision and order is not formally signed by the board on the day following the expiration of the time period for filing a petition for review of the proposed decision and order, said proposed decision and order shall be deemed adopted by the board and become the decision and order of the board, and no appeal may be taken therefrom to the courts.

Sec. 6. Section 1, chapter 40, Laws of 1973 as amended by section 80, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.52.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Within thirty days after a decision of the board to deny the petition or petitions for review upon such appeal has been communicated to such worker, beneficiary, employer or other person, or within thirty days after the final decision and order of the board upon such appeal has been communicated to such worker, beneficiary, employer or other person, or within thirty days after the appeal is denied as herein provided, such worker, beneficiary, employer or other person aggrieved by the decision and order of the board may appeal to the superior court. If such worker, beneficiary, employer, or other person fails to file with the superior court its appeal as provided in this section within said thirty days, the decision of the board to deny the petition or petitions for review or the final decision and order of the board shall become final.

In cases involving injured workers, an appeal to the superior court shall be to the superior court of the county of residence of the worker or beneficiary, as shown by the department's records, or to the superior court of the county wherein the injury occurred or where neither the county of residence nor the county wherein the injury occurred are in the state of Washington then the appeal may be directed to the superior court for Thurston county. In all other cases the appeal shall be to the superior court of Thurston county. Such appeal shall be perfected by filing with the clerk of the court a notice of appeal and by serving a copy thereof by mail, or personally, on the director and on the board. If the case is one involving a self-insurer, a copy of the notice of appeal shall also be served by mail, or personally, on such self-insurer. The department shall, in all cases not involving a self-insurer, within twenty days after the receipt of such notice of appeal, serve and file its notice of appearance and such appeal shall thereupon be deemed at issue. If the case is one involving a self-insurer, such self-insurer shall, within twenty days after receipt of such notice of appeal, serve and file its notice of appearance and such appeal shall thereupon be deemed to be at issue. In such cases the department may appear and take part in any proceedings. The board shall serve upon the appealing party, the director, the self-insurer if the case involves a self-insurer, and any other party appearing at the board's proceeding, and file with the clerk of the court before trial, a certified copy of the board's official record which shall include the notice of appeal and other pleadings, testimony and exhibits, and the board's decision and order, which shall become the record in such case. No bond shall be required on appeals to the superior court or on appeals to the supreme court or the court of appeals, except that an appeal by the employer from a decision and order of the board under RCW 51.48.070, shall be ineffectual unless, within five days following the service of notice thereof, a bond, with surety satisfactory to the court, shall be filed, conditioned to perform the judgment of the court. Except in the case last named an appeal shall not be a stay: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That whenever the board has made any decision and order reversing an order of the supervisor of industrial insurance on questions of law or mandatory administrative actions of the director, the department shall have the right of appeal to the superior court.

Sec. 7. Section 51.52.095, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 78, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.52.095 are each amended to read as follows:

The board, upon request of the worker, beneficiary, or employer, or upon its own motion, may direct all parties interested in an appeal, together with their attorneys, if any, to appear before it, a member of the board, or an authorized industrial appeals judge, for a conference for the purpose of determining the feasibility of settlement, the simplification of issues of law and fact, the necessity of amendments to the notice of appeal or other pleadings, the possibility of obtaining admissions of fact and of documents which will avoid unnecessary proof, the limitation of the number of expert witnesses, and such other matters as may aid in the disposition of the appeal. Such conference may be held prior to the hearing, or it may be held during the hearing, at the discretion of the board member or industrial appeals judge conducting the same, in which case the hearing will be recessed for such conference. Following the conference, the board member or industrial appeals judge conducting the same, shall state on the record the results of such conference, and the parties present or their representatives shall state their concurrence on the record. Such agreement as stated on the record shall control the subsequent course of the proceedings, unless modified at a subsequent hearing to prevent manifest injustice. If agreement concerning final disposition of the appeal is reached by the parties present at the conference, or by the employer and worker or beneficiary, the board may enter a final decision and order in accordance therewith, providing the board finds such agreement is in conformity with the law and the facts.
Sec. 8. Section 51.52.100, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 79, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.52.100 are each amended to read as follows:

Hearings shall be held in the county of the residence of the worker or beneficiary, or in the county where the injury occurred, at a place designated by the board. Such hearing shall be de novo and summary, but no witness' testimony shall be received unless he or she shall first have been sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth in the matter being heard, or unless his or her testimony shall have been taken by deposition according to the statutes and rules relating to superior courts of this state. The department shall be entitled to appear in all proceedings before the board and introduce testimony in support of its order. The board shall cause all oral testimony to be stenographically reported and thereafter transcribed, and when transcribed, the same, with all depositions, shall be filed in, and remain a part of, the record on the appeal. Such hearings on appeal to the board may be conducted by one or more of its members, or a duly authorized industrial appeals judge, and depositions may be taken by a person duly commissioned for the purpose by the board.

Members of the board, its duly authorized industrial appeals judges, and all persons duly commissioned by it for the purpose of taking depositions, shall have power to administer oaths; to preserve and enforce order during such hearings; to issue subpoenas for, and to compel the attendance and testimony of, witnesses, or the production of books, papers, documents, and other evidence, or the taking of depositions before any designated individual competent to administer oaths, and it shall be their duty so to do to examine witnesses; and to do all things conformable to law which may be necessary to enable them, or any of them, effectively to discharge the duties of his or her office.

If any person in proceedings before the board disobeys or resists any lawful order or process, or misbehaves during a hearing or so near the place thereof as to obstruct the same, or neglects to produce, after having been ordered so to do, any pertinent book, paper or document, or refuses to appear after having been subpoenaed, or upon appearing refuses to take oath as a witness, or after having the oath refuses to be examined according to law, the board or any member or duly authorized industrial appeals judge may certify the facts to the superior court having jurisdiction in the place in which said board or member or industrial appeals judge is sitting; the court shall thereupon, in a summary manner, hear the evidence as to the acts complained of, and, if the evidence so warrants, punish such person in the same manner and to the same extent as for a contempt committed before the court, or commit such person upon the same conditions as if the doing of the forbidden act had occurred with reference to the proceedings, or in the presence, of the court.
Sec. 9. Section 51.52.106, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 4, chapter 58, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 51.52.106 are each amended to read as follows:

After the filing of a petition or petitions for review as provided for in RCW 51.52.104, the proposed decision and order of the (hearing examiner) industrial appeals judge, petition or petitions for review and, in its discretion, the record or any part thereof, may be considered by the board and on agreement of at least two of the regular members thereof, the board may, within twenty days after the receipt of such petition or petitions, decline to review the proposed decision and order and thereupon deny the petition or petitions. In such event all parties shall forthwith be notified in writing of said denial: PROVIDED, That if a petition for review is not denied within said twenty days it shall be deemed to have been granted. If the petition for review is granted, the proposed decision and order, the petition or petitions for review and the record or any part thereof deemed necessary shall be considered by a panel of at least two of the members of the board, on which not more than one industry and one labor member serve. The chairman may be a member of any panel. The decision and order of any such panel shall be the decision and order of the board. Every final decision and order rendered by the board shall be in writing and shall contain findings and conclusions as to each contested issue of fact and law, as well as the board's order based thereon. NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) The state fire marshal may designate certain classes of occupancy within a geographic area or may designate geographic areas as having an abnormally high incidence of arson. (2) A fire insurance policy may not be issued to insure any property within a class of occupancy within a geographic area or within a geographic area designated by the state fire marshal as having an abnormally high incidence of arson until the applicant has submitted an anti-arson application and the insurer or the insurer's representative has inspected the property. The application shall be prescribed by the state fire marshal and shall contain but not be limited to the following:

(5) An anti–arson application shall contain a notice stating: "Designation of a class of occupancy within a geographic area or geographic areas as having an abnormally high incidence of arson shall not be a valid reason for cancellation, refusal to issue or renew, modification, or increasing the premium for any fire insurance policy."

(2) The notice required by this section shall be actually delivered or mailed to the insured by certified mail, return receipt requested, and in addition by first class mail. A copy of the notice shall, at the time of delivery or mailing to the insured, or the insured's representative in charge of the policy, be mailed to the insurance commissioner.

(3) The insurer shall also comply with the requirements of RCW 48.18.290(1)(b), (2) and (3), and shall provide not less than twenty days notice of cancellation to each mortgagee, pledgee, or other person shown by the policy to have an interest in any loss which may occur thereunder except as provided in subsection (1) of this section.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 15, chapter 117, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 13, chapter 198, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 10.77.150 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Persons examined pursuant to RCW 10.77.140, as now or hereafter amended, may make application to the secretary for conditional release. The secretary shall, after considering the reports of experts or professional persons conducting the examination pursuant to RCW 10.77.140, forward to the court of the county which ordered his commitment the person's application for conditional release as well as his recommendations concerning the application and any proposed terms and conditions upon which he reasonably believes the person can be conditionally released. Conditional release may also contemplate partial release for work, training, or educational purposes.

(2) The court of the county which ordered his commitment, upon receipt of an application for conditional release with the secretary's recommendation for conditional release, shall within thirty days schedule a hearing. The court may schedule a hearing on applications recommended for disapproval by the secretary. The prosecuting attorney shall represent the state at such hearings and shall have the right to have the patient examined by an expert or professional person of his choice. If the committed person is indigent, and he so requests, the court shall appoint a qualified expert or professional person to examine him on his behalf. The issue to be determined at such a hearing is whether or not the person may be released conditionally without substantial danger to other persons, or substantial likelihood of committing felonious acts jeopardizing public safety or security. The court, after the hearing, shall rule on the secretary's recommendations, and if it disapproves of conditional release, may do so only on the basis of substantial evidence. The court may modify the suggested terms and conditions on which the person is to be conditionally released. Pursuant to the determination of the court after hearing, the committed person shall thereupon be released on such conditions as the court determines to be necessary, or shall be remitted to the custody of the secretary.

(3) If the court determines that receiving regular or periodic medication or other medical treatment shall be a condition of the committed person's release, then the court shall require him to report to a physician or other person for the medication or treatment. In addition to submitting any report required by RCW 10.77.160, the physician or other person shall immediately upon the released person's failure to appear for the medication or treatment report the failure to the court and to the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the released person was committed.
(4) Any person, whose application for conditional release has been denied, may reapply after a period of six months from the date of denial.

Sec. 2. Section 19, chapter 117, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 15, chapter 198, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 10.77.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person submitting reports pursuant to RCW 10.77.160, the secretary, or the prosecuting attorney may petition the court to, or the court on its own motion may schedule an immediate hearing for the purpose of modifying the terms of conditional release if the petitioner or the court believes the released person is failing to adhere to the terms and conditions of his conditional release or is in need of additional care and treatment.

(2) If the prosecuting attorney, the secretary, or the court, after examining the report filed with them pursuant to RCW 10.77.160, or based on other information received by them, reasonably believes that a conditionally released person is failing to adhere to the terms and conditions of his conditional release((, and because of that failure he has become a substantial danger to other persons, or presents a substantial likelihood of committing felonious acts jeopardizing public safety or security;)) the court or secretary may order that the conditionally released person be apprehended and taken into custody until such time as a hearing can be scheduled to determine the facts and whether or not the person’s conditional release should be revoked or modified. The court shall be notified before the close of the next judicial day of the apprehension. Both the prosecuting attorney and the conditionally released person shall have the right to request an immediate mental examination of the conditionally released person. If the conditionally released person is indigent, the court or secretary shall, upon request, assist him in obtaining a qualified expert or professional person to conduct the examination.

(3) The court, upon receiving notification of the apprehension, shall promptly schedule a hearing. The issue to be determined is whether the conditionally released person did or did not adhere to the terms and conditions of his release((, and is a substantial danger to other persons, or presents a substantial likelihood of committing felonious acts jeopardizing public safety or security)). Pursuant to the determination of the court upon such hearing, the conditionally released person shall either continue to be conditionally released on the same or modified conditions or his conditional release shall be revoked and he shall be committed subject to release only in accordance with provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 3. Section 22, chapter 117, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 17, chapter 198, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 10.77.220 are each amended to read as follows:

to read as follows:

A library established or maintained under this chapter (except a regional or a rural county library district library, an intercounty ru-abolished only in pursuance of a vote of the electors of the governmental unit in which the library is located, taken in the manner prescribed in RCW 27.12.030 for a vote upon the establishment of a library. If a library of a city or town be abolished, the books and other printed or written matter belonging to it shall go to the library of the county whereof the municipality is a part, if there be a county library, but if not, then to the state library. If a library of a county or region be abolished, the books and other printed matter belonging to it shall go to the state library. All other library property shall be disposed of as the legislative body of the governmental unit shall direct.

After a rural county library district, an island library district, or an intercounty rural library district has been in operation for three or more years, it may be dissolved pursuant to a majority vote of all of the qualified electors residing outside of incorporated cities and towns voting upon a proposition for its dissolution, at a general election, which proposition may be placed upon the ballot at any such election whenever a petition by ten percent or more qualified voters residing outside of incorporated cities or towns within a rural county library district, an island library district, or an intercounty rural library district requesting such dissolution shall be filed with the board of trustees of such district not less than ninety days prior to the holding of any such election. An island library district may also be dissolved pursuant to section 7 of this 1982 act.

If a rural county library district is dissolved, the books and other printed matter belonging to it shall go to the state library. All other library property shall be disposed of as the legislative body of the governmental unit shall direct. When an intercounty rural library district is dissolved, the books, funds and other property thereof shall be divided among the participating counties in the most equitable manner possible as determined by the state librarian, who shall give consideration to such items as the original source of property, the amount of funds raised from each county by the district, and the ability of the counties to make further use of such property or equipment for library purposes. Printed material which the state librarian finds will not be used by any of the participating counties for further library purposes shall be turned over to the state library.

When an island library district is dissolved pursuant to this section, the books and other printed matter belonging to it shall go to the state library. All other library property shall be disposed of as the legislative body of the governmental unit shall direct. When an island library district is dissolved due to the establishment of a county library district, pursuant to section 7 of this 1982 act, all property, assets, and liabilities of the preexisting island library district within the area included in the county rural library district shall pass to and be assumed by the county rural library district: PROVIDED, That where within any county rural library district heretofore or hereafter organized under the provisions of this chapter a preexisting island library district has incurred a bonded indebtedness which was outstanding at the time of the formation of the county rural library district, the preexisting island library district shall retain its corporate existence insofar as is necessary for the purpose until the bonded indebtedness outstanding against it on and after the effective date of the formation has been paid in full: PROVIDED FURTHER, That a special election may be called by the board of trustees of the county rural library district, to be held at the next general or special election held in the respective counties, for the purpose of affording the voters residing within the area outside of the preexisting island library district an opportunity to assume the obligation of the bonded indebtedness of the preexisting island library district or the question may be submitted to the voters as a separate proposition at the election on the proposal for the formation of the county rural library district.

Sec. 13. Section 1, chapter 353, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 26, Laws of 1981 and RCW 27.12.360 are each amended to read as follows:

Any city or town with a population of one hundred thousand or less at the time of annexation may become a part of any rural county library district, island library district, or intercounty rural library district lying contiguous thereto by annexation in the following manner: The inclusion of such a city or town may be initiated by the adoption of an ordinance by the legislative authority thereof stating its intent to join the library district and finding that the public interest will be served thereby. Before adoption, the ordinance shall be submitted to the library board of the city or town for its review and recommendations. If no library board exists in the city or town, the state librarian shall be notified of the proposed ordinance. If the board of trustees of the ((rural)) library district ((or intercounty rural library district)) concurs in the annexation, notification thereof shall be transmitted to the legislative authority or authorities of the counties in which the city or town is situated.

Sec. 14. Section 2, chapter 353, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 27.12.370 are each amended to read as follows:

The county legislative authority or authorities shall by resolution call a special election to be held in such city or town at the next date provided in RCW 29.13.010 but not less than forty-five days from the date of the declaration of such finding, and shall cause notice of such election to be given as provided for in RCW 29.27.080.

The election on the annexation of the city or town into the library district shall be conducted by the auditor of the county or counties in which the city or town is located in accordance with the general election laws of the state and the results thereof shall be canvassed by the canvassing board of the county or counties. No person shall be entitled to vote at such election unless he or she is registered to vote in said city or town for at least thirty days preceding the date of the election. The ballot proposition shall be in substantially the following form:

"Shall the city or town of ............... be annexed to and be a part of ............... library district?

YES ................................................. ☐
NO .................................................. ☐"
If a majority of the persons voting on the proposition shall vote in favor thereof, the city or town shall thereupon be annexed and shall be a part of such (intercounty rural library district or rural) library district.

Sec. 15. Section 3, chapter 353, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 27-12.380 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislative body of such a city or town which has annexed to such a library district, may, by resolution, present to the voters of such city or town a proposition to withdraw from said (rural county) library district (or intercounty rural library district) at any general election held at least three years following the annexation to the library district.

Sec. 16. Section 4, chapter 353, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 27-12.390 are each amended to read as follows:

The annual tax levy authorized by RCW 27.12.050 (and) 27.12.150, and section 4 of this 1982 act shall be imposed throughout the library district, including any city or town annexed thereto. Any city or town annexed to a rural library district, island library district, or intercounty rural library district shall be entitled to levy up to three dollars and sixty cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation less any regular levy made by such library district in the incorporated area, notwithstanding any other provision of law: PROVIDED, That the limitations upon regular property taxes imposed by chapter 84.55 RCW shall apply.

Sec. 17. Section 1, chapter 93, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 27.18-.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Sec. 18. Section 4, chapter 93, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 27.18-.040 are each amended to read as follows:

No regional library, county library, rural county library district library, island library district library, intercounty rural library district library, or city library of this state shall be a party to a library agreement which provides for the construction or maintenance of a library pursuant to Article III, subdivision (c-7) of the compact, nor levy a tax or issue bonds to contribute to the construction or maintenance of such a library, except after compliance with any laws applicable to regional libraries, county libraries, rural county library district libraries, island library district libraries, intercounty rural library district libraries, or city libraries relating to or governing the levying of taxes or the issuance of bonds.
Sec. 19. Section 84.52.052, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 20, chapter 210, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.52.052 are each amended to read as follows:

The limitations imposed by RCW 84.52.050 through 84.52.056, and RCW 84.52.043 shall not prevent the levy of additional taxes by any taxing district except school districts in which a larger levy is necessary in order to prevent the impairment of the obligation of contracts. Any county, metropolitan park district, park and recreation service area, park and recreation district, sewer district, water district, public hospital district, road district, rural county library district, island library district, intercounty rural library district, fire protection district, cemetery district, city, or town may levy taxes at a rate in excess of the rate specified in RCW 84.52.050 through 84.52.056 and RCW 84.52.043, or RCW 84.55.010 through 84.55.050, when authorized so to do by the electors of such county, metropolitan park district, park and recreation service area, park and recreation district, sewer district, water district, public hospital district, road district, rural county library district, island library district, intercounty rural library district, fire protection district, cemetery district, city, or town in the manner set forth in Article VII, section 2(a) of the Constitution of this state, as amended by Amendment 64 and as thereafter amended, at a special or general election to be held in the year in which the levy is made.

A special election may be called and the time therefor fixed by the county legislative authority, or council, board of commissioners, or other governing body of any metropolitan park district, park and recreation service area, park and recreation district, sewer district, water district, public hospital district, road district, rural county library district, island library district, intercounty rural library district, fire protection district, cemetery district, city or town, by giving notice thereof by publication in the manner provided by law for giving notices of general elections, at which special election the proposition authorizing such excess levy shall be submitted in such form as to enable the voters favoring the proposition to vote "yes" and those opposed thereto to vote "no".

Of the moneys received by the state from the federal government in accordance with Title 16, section 500, United States Code, fifty percent shall be spent by the counties on public schools or public roads, or for any other purposes as now or hereafter authorized by federal law, in the counties in the United States forest reserve from which such moneys were received. Where the reserve is situated in more than one county, the state treasurer shall determine the proportional area of the counties therein. The state treasurer is authorized and required to obtain the necessary information to enable him to make that determination.

The state treasurer shall distribute to the counties, according to the determined proportional area, the money to be spent by the counties. The county legislative authority shall expend said money for the benefit of the public roads or public schools of the county, or for any other purposes as now or hereafter authorized by federal law.

In apportioning these funds, the superintendent of public instruction shall utilize the October apportionment count.

(3) If the amount received by any public school district pursuant to subsection (2) of this section is less than the basic education allocation to which the district would otherwise be entitled, the superintendent of public instruction shall apportion to the district, in the manner provided by RCW 28A.48.010, as now existing or hereafter amended, an amount which shall be the difference between the amount received pursuant to subsection (2) of this section and the basic education allocation to which the district would otherwise be entitled.

If the court does not release the child to his or her parent, guardian, or legal custodian, the court shall order continued shelter care or order placement with another suitable person, and the court shall set forth its reasons for the order.

(7) An order releasing the child on any conditions specified in this section may at any time be amended, with notice and hearing thereon, so as to return the child to shelter care for failure of the parties to conform to the conditions originally imposed.

Results of official blood or milk ring tests shall be conspicuously displayed in the milk house.
All milk and milk products consumed raw shall be from herds or additions thereto which have been found free from brucellosis, as shown by blood serum tests or other approved tests for agglutinins against brucella organisms made in a laboratory approved by the director. All such herds shall be retested at least every twelve months and all reactors removed from the herd. If a herd is found to have one or more animals positive to the brucellosis test, all milk from that herd is to be pasteurized until the three consecutive brucellosis tests obtained at thirty-day intervals between each test are found to be negative. A certificate identifying each animal by number and signed by the laboratory making the test shall be evidence of the above test.

Cows which show an extensive or entire induration of one or more quarters of the udder upon physical examination, whether secreting abnormal milk or not, shall be permanently excluded from the milking herd. Cows giving bloody, or stringy, or otherwise abnormal milk, but with only slight induration of the udder shall be excluded from the herd until reexamination shows that the milk has become normal.

Any person so removed, suspended, or demoted may within ten days from the time of his removal, suspension, or demotion, file with the commission a written demand for an investigation, whereupon the commission shall conduct such investigation. Upon receipt of the written demand for an investigation, the commission shall within ten days set a date for a public hearing which will be held within thirty days from the date of receipt. The investigation shall be confined to the determination of the question of whether the removal, suspension, or demotion was made in good faith for cause. After such investigation the commission shall render a written decision within ten days and may affirm the removal, or if it finds that removal, suspension, or demotion was not made in good faith for cause, shall order the immediate reinstatement or reemployment of such person in the office, place, position, or employment from which he was removed, suspended, or demoted, which reinstatement shall, if the commission so provides, be retroactive, and entitle such person to pay or compensation from the time of the removal, suspension, or demotion. Such appeal shall be taken by serving the commission, within thirty days after the entry of its order, a written notice of appeal, stating the grounds thereof, and demanding that a certified transcript of the record and of all papers on file in the office of the commission affecting or relating to its order, be filed by the commission with the court. The commission shall, within ten days after the filing of the notice, make, certify, and file such transcript with the court. The court shall thereupon proceed to hear and determine the appeal in a summary manner. Such hearing shall be confined to the determination of whether the order of removal, suspension, or demotion made by the commission, was or was not made in good faith for cause, and no appeal shall be taken except upon such
