CHAPTER 235

[Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3815]

JAILS—FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

AN ACT Relating to jails; amending section 20, chapter 232, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 70.48.240; adding new sections to chapter 70.48 RCW; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Persons sentenced to felony terms or a combination of terms of more than three hundred sixty-five days of incarceration shall be committed to state institutions under the authority of the department of corrections. Persons serving sentences of three hundred sixty-five consecutive days or less may be sentenced to a jail as defined in RCW 70.48.010. All persons convicted of felonies or misdemeanors and sentenced to jail shall be the financial responsibility of the city or county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Persons convicted of a felony as defined by chapter 9A.20 RCW and committed to the care and custody of the department of corrections shall be the financial responsibility of the department of corrections not later than the eighth day, excluding weekends and holidays, following sentencing for the felony and notification that the prisoner is available for movement to a state correctional institution. However, if good cause is shown, a superior court judge may order the prisoner detained in the jail beyond the eight-day period for an additional period not to exceed ten days. If a superior court orders a convicted felon to be detained beyond the eighth day following sentencing, the county or city shall retain financial responsibility for that ten-day period or portion thereof ordered by the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A person detained in jail solely by reason of a parole hold is the financial responsibility of the city or the county detaining the person until the sixteenth day, at which time the person shall become the financial responsibility of the department of corrections. Persons who are detained in a jail on a parole hold and for whom the prosecutor has filed a felony charge remain the responsibility of the city or county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Inmates, as defined by RCW 72.09.020, who reside in a work release facility and who are detained in a city or county jail are the financial responsibility of the department of corrections.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The office of financial management shall establish a uniform equitable rate for reimbursing cities and counties for the care of sentenced felons who are the financial responsibility of the department of corrections and are detained or incarcerated in a city or county jail.

Until June 30, 1985, the rate for the care of sentenced felons who are the financial responsibility of the department of corrections shall be ten dollars per day. Cost of extraordinary emergency medical care incurred by prisoners who are the financial responsibility of the department of corrections under this chapter shall be reimbursed. The department of corrections shall be advised as far in advance as practicable by competent medical authority of the nature and course of treatment required to ensure the most efficient use of state resources to address the medical needs of the offender. In the event emergency medical care is needed, the department of corrections shall be advised as soon as practicable after the offender is treated.

Prior to June 30, 1985, the office of financial management shall meet with the corrections standards board to establish criteria to determine equitable rates regarding variable costs for sentenced felons who are the financial responsibility of the department of corrections after June 30, 1985. The ollice of financial management shall re-establish these rates each even-numbered year beginning in 1986.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The department of corrections is responsible for developing a reporting form for the local jails. The form shall require sufficient information to identify the person, type of state responsibility, method of notification for availability for movement, and the number of days for which the state is financially responsible. The information shall be provided by the city or county requesting payment for prisoners who are the financial responsibility of the department of corrections.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Nothing in sections 1 through 6 of this act precludes the establishment of mutually agreeable contracts between the department of corrections and counties for incarceration services of prisoners not covered by sections 1 through 6 of this act.

Sec. 8. Section 20, chapter 232, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 70.48.240 are each amended to read as follows:

A person imprisoned in a ~~((detention or correctional facility who has not obtained a bail bond shall be transferred to a state institution designated by the secretary pending the appeal of))~~ jail and sentenced to a state institution for a felony conviction ~~((after the thirtieth day and))~~ shall be transferred to a state institution before the forty-first day from the date ~~((on which the judgment was entered. Upon a showing of good cause, a superior court judge may order the prisoner detained in the county jail for an additional period not to exceed ten days, except that this provision))~~ of sentencing.

This section does not apply to persons sentenced for a felony who are held in the facility as a condition of probation or who are specifically sentenced to confinement in the facility.

Payment for persons sentenced to state institutions and remaining in a jail from the eighth through the fortieth days following sentencing shall be in accordance with the procedure prescribed under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Sections 1 through 7 of this act are each added to chapter 70.48 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Section 5 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately. The remainder of this act shall take effect July 1, 1984.

Passed the Senate March 4, 1984.

Passed the House February 25, 1984.

Approved by the Governor March 27, 1984.
