MANDATORY ARBITRATION PROGRAM—DISPUTE RESOLUTION CENTER—JOINT FAMILY COURT SERVICES—MEDIATION

AN ACT Relating to superior courts; amending RCW 2.08.067; adding a new section to chapter 7.75 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 26.12 RCW; and adding a new section to chapter 26.09 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 5, chapter 357, Laws of 1985 and RCW 2.08.067 are each amended to read as follows:

All judicial positions created by the legislature after ~~((the effective date of this act))~~ July 28, 1985, including the additional judicial positions created by ~~((sections 1 through 3, chapter 357, Laws of 1985))~~ RCW 2.08.061, 2.08.062, and 2.08.064, shall be authorized only for counties that have implemented a mandatory arbitration program for civil claims to the maximum extent permitted by law. This section does not apply to counties of the third class or smaller, or to two- and three-county judicial districts with a population of less than seventy thousand. Implementing a mandatory arbitration program to the maximum extent permitted by law does not require a county to authorize arbitration for maintenance or child support issues as provided in RCW 7.06.020(2) if:

(1) The county uses a show cause or motion by affidavit calendar, or other procedure by which maintenance or support issues are decided on a summary basis; or

(2) Upon the request of the chief administrative judge of a judicial district, the office of the administrator for the courts determines that a mandatory arbitration program would be more costly and time consuming to the county than the procedure then in use in the county for determining support or maintenance issues.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 7.75 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Members of the board of directors of a dispute resolution center are immune from suit in any civil action based upon any proceedings or other official acts performed in good faith as members of the board.
