[Substitute House Bill No. 1370]

PERSONAL PROPERTY TAX EXEMPTION INCREASED—CONTINGENT EFFECTIVE DATE

AN ACT Relating to property tax exemptions for the head of a family; amending RCW 84.36.110; and providing an effective date.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 84.36.110, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 71, chapter 299, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.36.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The following property shall be exempt from taxation:

(1) All household goods and furnishings in actual use by the owner thereof in equipping and outfitting his or her residence or place of abode and not for sale or commercial use, and all personal effects held by any person for his or her exclusive use and benefit and not for sale or commercial use.

(2) The personal property, other than specified in subdivision (1) hereof, of each head of a family liable to assessment and taxation of which such individual is the actual and bona fide owner to an amount of three (~~hundred~~) thousand dollars of actual values: PROVIDED, That this exemption shall not apply to any private motor vehicle, or mobile home, and: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That if the county assessor is satisfied that all of the personal property of any person is exempt from taxation under the provisions of this statute or any other statute providing exemptions for personal property, no listing of such property shall be required; but if the personal property described in (~~subdivision (2) of~~) this subsection exceeds in value the amount allowed as exempt, then a complete list of said personal property shall be made as provided by law, and the county assessor shall deduct the amount of the exemption authorized by this (~~subdivision~~) subsection from the total amount of the assessment and assess the remainder.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act shall take effect January 1, 1989, for taxes levied for collection in 1990 and thereafter, if the proposed amendment to Article VII, section 1 of the state Constitution authorizing an increased personal exemption for the head of a family (HJR 4222) is validly submitted to and is approved and ratified by the voters at a general election held in November 1988. If the proposed amendment is not so approved and ratified, this act shall be null and void in its entirety.

[House Bill No. 1514]

FLUORIDATION BY WATER DISTRICTS

AN ACT Relating to fluoridation by water districts; amending RCW 57.08.010; and adding a new section to chapter 57.08 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 8, chapter 114, Laws of 1929 as last amended by section 10, chapter 449, Laws of 1987 and RCW 57.08.010 are each amended to read as follows:

A water district may acquire by purchase or condemnation, or both, all property and property rights and all water and water rights, both within and without the district, necessary for its purposes. A water district may lease real or personal property necessary for its purposes for a term of years for which such leased property may reasonably be needed where in the opinion of the board of water commissioners such property may not be needed permanently or substantial savings to the district can be effected thereby. The right of eminent domain shall be exercised in the same manner and by the same procedure as provided for cities of the third class, insofar as consistent with the provisions of this title, except that all assessment rolls to be prepared and filed by eminent domain commissioners or commissioners appointed by the court shall be prepared and filed by the water district, and the duties devolving upon the city treasurer are hereby imposed upon the county treasurer. A water district may construct, condemn and purchase, purchase, add to, maintain and supply waterworks to furnish the district and inhabitants thereof, and any city or town therein and any other persons, both within and without the district, with an ample supply of water for all uses and purposes public and private with full authority to regulate and control the use, content, distribution, and price thereof in such a manner as is not in conflict with general law. A water district contiguous to Canada may contract with a Canadian corporation for the purchase of water and for the construction, purchase, maintenance and supply of waterworks to furnish the district and inhabitants thereof and residents of Canada with an ample supply of water under terms approved by the board of commissioners.
