RESOLUTIONS

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 2005-4630, By Representative Schual-Berke

WHEREAS, Hadassah, the Women's Zionist Organization of America, was founded in 1912 by Henrietta Szold and has since blossomed into the largest Zionist organization, the largest Jewish organization, and the largest women's membership organization in the United States; and

WHEREAS, Hadassah now has more than 300,000 members in 1,200 chapters across the United States; and

WHEREAS, For more than ninety years Hadassah has carried out a proud tradition of mitzvot, or good deeds, that have improved health, relieved suffering, educated minds, and inspired hearts in every state of the Union and in Israel; and

WHEREAS, Hadassah has served as an international leader in humanitarian relief, from its earliest life-saving efforts in Palestine to the current Hadassah Tsunami Relief Fund, which is saving lives today; and

WHEREAS, Hadassah hospitals, community health centers, and outpatient clinics, maintained through the generosity and leadership of Hadassah, provide state-of-the-art health care to nearly one million patients each year regardless of race, religion, creed, or national origin and serve as a model of peaceful coexistence in the Middle East, often treating the most critically wounded in that region's ongoing conflicts; and

WHEREAS, Hadassah programs throughout the United States are engaged in vital health education programs on breast cancer and osteoporosis, voter registration efforts, humanitarian relief efforts to distressed communities, Jewish education, and advocacy to promote mutual understanding and partnerships between the people of the United States and Israel; and

WHEREAS, The first Seattle chapter of Hadassah was founded in 1913 by Mrs. Gisell Herzog, and the Pacific Northwest Region of Hadassah now has over 3,000 members enriching our region; and

WHEREAS, The Pacific Northwest Chapter of Hadassah is taking part in a nationwide effort of more than 300,000 Hadassah women to visit their legislators on March 2, 2005, to discuss issues of concern;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the State of Washington congratulate Hadassah for more than 90 years of service and honor the spirit, the history, and the ongoing contributions of Hadassah to the people of Washington and the world; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted to the Hadassah national offices in New York and Washington, D.C. and the Seattle Chapter of Hadassah in Seattle as an expression of our esteem.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 4630 was adopted.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 2005-4633, By Representatives Ahern, Hudgins, Rodne, Nixon, Serben, Talcott and Kristiansen

WHEREAS, In a great day for democracy, millions of Iraqis risked death on Sunday, January 30, 2005, to vote for a 275-member Transitional National Assembly in a free, democratic election, and although there were more than 100 attacks on polling stations by terrorists, the Iraqis voted; and

WHEREAS, In their first free elections in more than 50 years, millions of Iraqis turned out to vote with great enthusiasm and determination, and election day brought hope and happiness to the streets of Baghdad and cities and towns throughout the nation of Iraq; and

WHEREAS, The Iraqis continue to face many difficult challenges, and the United States is committed to supporting the Iraqis in their pursuit of democracy; and

WHEREAS, Several Iraqi leaders have publicly stated they want their political process to be inclusive of Iraq's complex mosaic of faiths and peoples and the United States supports this process of inclusiveness; and

WHEREAS, On election day, the people of Iraq spoke to the world through their elections of their desire for democracy and freedom; and

WHEREAS, Hundreds of thousands of people from around the world helped make this day possible, including our American military forces and the forces of our coalition nations, national and international relief agencies, and tens of thousands of citizens from nations around the world who came to help build a free and independent nation of Iraq;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the state of Washington commend the Iraqi people and those from around the world who helped the recent election take place, and are working to build a vibrant democracy in the Middle East.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 4633 was adopted.
