POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Representative Angel: "Thank you. I wanted just to share that it has been a year already since we lost Trooper Tony in my district, by Bremerton. I wanted to share, if I may read, what one of our local newspapers said about him today? I quote, "A big hearted man with a ready smile. Radulescu was known as Trooper Tony in the communities surrounding Bremerton, where he spent his entire 16 year career with the State Patrol. "Tony was the epitome of a State Trooper" said Kitsap County Sherriff Steve Boyer. "He could handle problems with courage and he had those interpersonal skills that made everyone like him. He could write somebody a ticket and they would say thank you." You know it's tough when you lose a trooper and having two grandsons, George and Nate that are troopers, I pray for them every day and still it's been one year already. Let's just pray we don't lose any more of our troopers in such a tragic situation as this. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask for one minute of silence in honor of the loss of our troopers, with Trooper Tony in mind, and we thank them for their service, thank you."

Speaker Pro Tempore Moeller: Will the body please join me in a moment of silence, thank you."

Representative Cody moved the adoption of amendment (13).

On page 2, beginning on line 32, after "(6)" strike all material through "70.47.160" on line 33 and insert "The legislature recognizes that every individual possesses a fundamental right to exercise their religious beliefs and conscience. The legislature further recognizes that in developing public policy, conflicting religious and moral beliefs must be respected. Therefore, while recognizing the right of conscientious objection to participating in specific health services, the state shall also recognize the right of individuals enrolled with plans containing the basic health plan services to receive the full range of services covered under the plan.

(7)(a) No individual health care provider, religiously sponsored health carrier, or health care facility may be required by law or contract in any circumstances to participate in the provision of or payment for a specific service if they object to so doing for reason of conscience or religion. No person may be discriminated against in employment or professional privileges because of such objection.

(b) The provisions of subsections (6) through (9) of this section are not intended to result in an enrollee being denied timely access to any service included in the basic health plan services. Each health carrier shall:

(i) Provide written notice to enrollees, upon enrollment with the plan, listing services that the carrier refuses to cover for reason of conscience or religion;

(ii) Provide written information describing how an enrollee may directly access services in an expeditious manner; and

(iii) Ensure that enrollees refused services under this section have prompt access to the information developed pursuant to (b)(ii) of this subsection.

(c) The insurance commissioner shall establish by rule a mechanism or mechanisms to recognize the right to exercise conscience while ensuring enrollees timely access to services and to assure prompt payment to service providers.

(8)(a) No individual or organization with a religious or moral tenet opposed to a specific service may be required to purchase coverage for that service or services if they object to doing so for reason of conscience or religion.

(b) The provisions of subsections (6) through (9) of this section shall not result in an enrollee being denied coverage of, and timely access to, any service or services excluded from their benefits package as a result of their employer's or another individual's exercise of the conscience clause in (a) of this subsection.

(c) The insurance commissioner shall define by rule the process through which health carriers may offer the basic health plan services to individuals and organizations identified in (a) and (b) of this subsection in accordance with the provisions of subsection (7)(c) of this section.

(9) Nothing in subsections (6) through (8) of this section requires a health carrier, health care facility, or health care provider to provide any health care services without appropriate payment of premium or fee"

Representative Cody spoke in favor of the adoption of the amendment.

Representative Rodne spoke against the adoption of the amendment.

An electronic roll call was requested.
