POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Representative Reykdal: "I own property on Lake Nahwatzel in Mason County which potentially could be affected by the provisions of the bill. Do I have a private interest in the proposed legislation which requires my recusal from voting?"

SPEAKER'S RULING

Mr. Speaker: "Thank you Representative Reykdal for bringing this question to the body. House Rule 19(D), which is based on article 2, section 30 of our state constitution, states that 'no member shall vote on any question which affects that member privately and particularly.'

The question as to whether recusal is required turns on whether a legislator is affected privately and particularly, or as a member of a class. Engrossed Senate Bill 6031, as amended by the House, authorizes the creation of lake and beach management districts for the purpose of financing the acquisition of real property. The bill is drafted to apply only to Mason County. The Speaker notes that the bill merely creates a process that could lead to the acquisition of property. Whether or not that occurs depends on action by the affected landowners, not this legislation. Moreover, the bill applies equally to other lakes where you do not own property.

Representative Reykdal, given that the question of whether you will be affected is merely theoretical, and given the size of the class of persons potentially affected, the Speaker finds that the interest you have is neither private nor particular, and does not warrant your recusal under House Rules or the State Constitution."

The Speaker (Representative Moeller presiding) stated the question before the House to be the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6031, as amended by the House.
