Special Circumstances

Selecting this option will require further review and manual processing. This will delay acceptance of your application. The financial aid office may reject your special circumstances request which will require you to resubmit your WASFA with your parental information.	I will be unable to provide parent information on this application due to special circumstances.
--	---

- The following are examples of some special circumstances where you may submit your application without providing parental information:
 - Your parents are incarcerated; or
 - You have left home due to an abusive family environment; or
 - You do not know where your parents are and are unable to contact them (and you have not been adopted).
- Not all situations are considered a special circumstance. The following are situations that would not be considered a special circumstance:
 - You do not live with your parents;
 - Your parents don't provide you with financial support;
 - Your parents refuse to contribute to your college expenses;
 - Your parents don't claim you as a dependent on their income tax return;
 - Your parents do not want to provide their information on your application.
