1. Should the Task Force make recommendations about library and information technology infrastructure?

2. Should the state fund library and information technology programs?

3. Should the Basic Education Act be amended to expand the definition to include information and technology literacy?