Members of the Select Committee on Pension Policy,

Item #6 on the November meeting agenda is a follow up to the 2014 substitute teacher survey. In recent months, staff received data related to schools from two sources:

- The Department of Retirement Systems (DRS)
- The Washington Association of School Administrators (WASA)

The data relates to funding allocations for school districts and substitute teachers. It does not directly address the SCPP's underlying inquiry of how retire-rehire rules may be impacting substitute teachers. SCPP staff did not collect, analyze, or audit this data. Please direct any questions about the data or methodology to the entity that collected it.

Their data is attached to this email, and will be added to the Correspondence page on the SCPP website. I'm sending these to you by email for two reasons:

1. To make sure you have time to review the data before the meeting, if you choose.
2. We do not anticipate printing this data for the committee materials due to the length of each spreadsheet.

Please contact me if you have any questions.

Thank you,

Aaron Gutierrez, MPA, JD

Subject: Fwd: Substitute Costs

Gentlemen,

Statements were made yesterday during the Executive portion of the SCPP meeting regarding substitute pay. Attached is an extensive survey done on that very issue regarding district pay for substitutes, the number of days substitutes were needed, and the difference between the state allocation versus actual expense.

I would be pleased to answer any questions you may have over the data.

My best. Fred Yancey

Hi Fred,

I've attached the results from the survey we did last November which was gathering 2013-14 data. There were 101 district responses and those districts paid over $41 million more than the state allocation for substitutes. That amount didn't include the cost of subs for PD release time. The allocation data came from OSPI.

My guess is that Sen. Schoesler is comparing the daily allocation to the daily amount paid. That misses the fact that districts have mandatory benefit costs in addition to the amount paid to substitutes. The bigger issue is that the total number of allocated days is much less than is needed. Since I assumed the information would be criticized by legislators if it included subs for PD, I had districts separate that out in their responses.

Good luck and let me know if you have any questions.

Bill
