FRED. Z. ALEXANDER,

ASSISTANT CHIEF CLERK OF THE HOUSE.
Pursuant to law, the House of Representatives of the State of Washington met in its fourth regular biennial session in the representatives hall in the state capitol at 12 o'clock noon, and was called to order by T. G. Nicklin, chief clerk of the House at the last session of the state legislature.

The proceedings were opened with prayer by Representative John H. Schively, of Whatcom county.

The following communication from the secretary of state was read:

To the House of Representatives, State of Washington:

Gentlemen—I have the honor to transmit herewith a certified list containing the names of all persons elected as members of your honorable body at the last general election, as shown by the election returns of said election, now on file in this office.

Very respectfully, J. H. Price, Secretary of State.

I, J. H. Price, secretary of state of the State of Washington, hereby certify that the annexed list contains the names of all persons elected as members of the House of Representatives, State of Washington, at the last general election, as shown by the election returns of said election, now on file in this office.

In witness whereof, I hereunto set my hand and affix the seal of the State of Washington, the day and date first above written.

[Seal.] J. H. Price, Secretary of State.

Absent or not voting: Messrs. Lyman and Nettleton — 2.

Mr. Morrison was declared elected speaker.

Mr. Morrison, the speaker-elect, addressed the house as follows:

Gentlemen of the House of Representatives of the State of Washington:

I thank you most heartily for the very great honor you have conferred on me by electing me to preside over the deliberations of your honorable body. Believe me, I am not unmindful of the obligations of the office, and will, to the best of my ability, do everything in my power to facilitate and expedite the business of the House, and discharge the duties of the chair impartially; and to this end I kindly ask you, individually and collectively, to assist me. Coming as you do to this legislative hall direct from the people, it is unnecessary for me to remind you of their wishes for the speedy enactment of such legislation as will cure the ills of the present and prove beneficial in the future. I trust that you will see to it that they are not disappointed.

Gentlemen, I sincerely hope your labors here will result in great and lasting good to the entire state. Again returning you my thanks, I am ready to take the oath of office and enter upon the discharge of my duties as speaker of the house.

Chief Justice Dunbar administered the oath of office to speaker-elect, Mr. Morrison.

Mr. Cline, of Whatcom, introduced the following resolution:

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives: That there shall be elected by the House the following employés: One chief clerk; one assistant chief clerk; one journal clerk; one docket clerk; one enrolling clerk, who shall do engrossing; five committee clerks; one sergeant-at-arms; one assistant sergeant-at-arms, who shall be doorkeeper; one watchman, who shall be janitor; one messenger, who shall be postmaster; two pages; the presiding officer to appoint one page. The presiding officer shall appoint a committee of five members, who shall examine the qualifications of the different candidates for journal, docket, enrolling and committee clerks. The aspirants for the different positions to be classified and examined as to their particular qualifications for the position to which they aspire. The examination shall be upon a scale of 100 points, as follows: Those found most excellent for a particular position shall be classed 100, those fairly good shall be classed 90, those fair 80, and those poor 70. The committee to report their finding to the House, whereupon the House shall proceed to elect from among the whole number.

On motion of Mr. Gandy, the resolution was laid on the table.

A committee from the Senate appeared on the floor of the House at 12:40 P.M. and announced that the Senate was organized and ready for the transaction of business.

On motion of Mr. Gandy, a committee of three was appointed to inform the governor and notify the Senate that this House is organized and ready for the transaction of business, this committee to meet a committee of two from the Senate. Mr. Sapp received 78 votes, as follows: Messrs. Albertson, Allen, Baker, Barge, Baum, Biggs, Bull, Burrows, Bush, Callow, Cantwell, Catlin, Cheatham, Cline, Cloes, Collin, Conner, Coon, Curtiss, Eddy, Fenton, Fishburn, Foster, Gandy, Gerry, Gibson, Glen, Goddard, Haffey, Halteman, Ham, Hanford, Hatch, Heath, Irving, Johnston, Kegley, Kittinger, Laing, Lillie, Loggie, Lyman, Merchant, Miles, Miller, Mills, Milroy, Moore, Morgan, Murray, McArdle, McAuley, McDonnell, Nelson, Nettleton, Nims, Phelps, Rader, Reynolds, Rogers, Runner, Schively, Scobey, Scott, Seevers, Smith, Spencer, Taylor (J. C.), Taylor (F. T.), Temple, Terry, Tull, Van Eaton, Williams, Wing, Witt, Woodworth, and Mr. Speaker.

FOR WATCHMAN.

Mr. Lillie nominated Mr. J. H. Peterson, of Jefferson county.

Mr. Coon nominated Mr. Geo. H. Freeburger.

Mr. McArdle nominated Mr. Thos. Nevin, of King.

Mr. Milroy nominated Mr. C. S. Howard.

The roll was called.

Mr. Peterson received 53 votes, as follows: Messrs. Albertson, Barge, Baum, Biggs, Bull, Burrows, Bush, Cantwell, Cloes, Conner, Curtiss, Eddy, Fishburn, Fenton, Foster, Gandy, Goddard,
Mr. Freeburger received 3 votes, as follows: Messrs. Callow, Coon, and McAuley.

Mr. Nevin received 17 votes, as follows: Messrs. Baker, Catlin, Cheetham, Cline, Gibson, Glen, Kegley, McArdle, Phelps, Rader, Rogers, Runner, Scott, Seevers, Smith, Spencer, and Witt.

Absent or not voting: Messrs. Allen, Collin, Gerry, Laing, and Lyman — 5.

Mr. Peterson was declared elected watchman.

Mr. Tull nominated Mr. Joe B. Hagens, of Spokane county.
Mr. Scott nominated Mr. Geo. W. Calvert, of Clallam county.

Mr. Hagens received 53 votes, as follows: Messrs. Albertson, Barge, Biggs, Bull, Burrows, Bush, Callow, Cantwell, Cloes, Conner, Coon, Curtiss, Eddy, Fishburn, Fenton, Foster, Gandy, Goddard, Haffey, Halteman, Hanford, Hatch, Heath, Irving, Johnston, Kegley, Kittinger, Lillie, Loggie, Merchant, Miller, Miles, Milroy, Mills, Morgan, Murray, McDonnell, Nelson, Nettleton, Nims, Reynolds, Schively, Scobey, Taylor (J. C.), Taylor (Fred. T.), Temple, Terry, Tull, Van Eaton, Wing, Williams, Woodworth, and Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Calvert received 20 votes, as follows: Messrs. Baker, Baum, Catlin, Cheetham, Cline, Collin, Gerry, Glen, Laing, McArdle, McAuley, Phelps, Rader, Rogers, Runner, Scott, Seevers, Smith, Spencer, and Witt.

Absent or not voting: Messrs. Allen, Gibson, Ham, Lyman, and Moore — 5.

Mr. Mills nominated Mr. A. J. Bigham, of Clarke county.
Mr. Gibson nominated Mr. J. W. Helman, of Asotin county.

The roll was called, and Mr. Bigham received 54 votes, as follows: Messrs. Albertson, Barge, Baum, Biggs, Bull, Burrows, Bush, Callow, Cloes, Conner, Coon, Eddy, Fishburn, Fenton, Foster, Gandy, Gerry, Haffey, Halteman, Ham, Hanford, Hatch, Heath, Irving, Johnston, Kittinger, Lillie, Loggie, Merchant, Mil-
Mr. Helman received 20 votes, as follows: Messrs. Baker, Catlin, Cheetham, Cline, Collin, Gibson, Glen, Goddard, Kegley, Laing, McArdle, McAuley, Phelps, Rader, Rogers, Runner, Scott, Seevers, Smith, and Spencer.

Absent or not voting: Messrs. Allen, Cantwell, Curtiss, and Lyman—4.

Mr. Bigham was declared elected postmaster.

FOR ASSISTANT POSTMASTER AND MESSENGER.

Mr. Eddy nominated Mr. W. W. Swing, of Jefferson county.

Mr. Swing was elected, receiving 78 votes, as follows: Messrs. Albertson, Allen, Baker, Barge, Baum, Biggs, Bull, Burrows, Bush, Callow, Cantwell, Catlin, Cheetham, Cline, Cloes, Collin, Conner, Coon, Curtiss, Eddy, Fenton, Fishburn, Foster, Gandy, Gerry, Gibson, Glen, Goddard, Haffey, Halteman, Ham, Hanford, Hatch, Heath, Irving, Johnston, Kegley, Kittinger, Laing, Lillie, Loggie, Lyman, Merchant, Miles, Miller, Mills, Milroy, Moore, Morgan, Murray, McArdle, McAuley, McDonnell, Nelson, Nettleton, Nims, Phelps, Rader, Reynolds, Rogers, Runner, Schively, Scobey, Scott, Seevers, Smith, Spencer, Taylor (J. C.), Taylor (F. T.), Temple, Terry, Tull, Van Eaton, Williams, Wing, Witt, Woodworth, and Mr. Speaker.

On motion of Mr. Scobey, the speaker was authorized to select his secretary.

FOR PAGES.

Mr. Miles nominated Master Wilburt McQuarrie, of Thurston county.

Mr. Fred. T. Taylor nominated Master Ray Boedecker, of Pierce county.

Mr. Scobey nominated Master Ralph McDonald, of Thurston county.

Mr. Speaker nominated Master Roy Smith, of Thurston county, as speaker’s page.

On motion of Mr. Cloes, the four were voted for at one time, and the roll was so recorded, as follows: Messrs. Albertson, Allen, Baker, Barge, Baum, Biggs, Bull, Burrows, Bush, Callow, Cantwell, Catlin, Cheetham, Cline, Cloes, Collin, Conner, Coon, Curtiss, Eddy, Fenton, Fishburn, Foster, Gandy, Gerry, Gibson, Glen, Goddard, Haffey, Halteman, Ham, Hanford, Hatch, Heath, Irving, Johnston, Kegley, Kittinger, Laing, Lillie, Loggie, Lyman, Merchant, Miles, Miller, Mills, Milroy, Moore, Morgan, Murray, McArdle, McAuley, McDonnell, Nelson, Nettleton, Nims, Phelps, Rader, Reynolds, Rogers, Runner, Schively, Scobey, Scott, Seavers, Smith, Spencer, Taylor (J. C.), Taylor (F. T.), Temple, Terry, Tull, Van Eaton, Williams, Wing, Witt, Woodworth, and Mr. Speaker.

All the above were sworn in by the Speaker except Mr. Proud.

On motion of Mr. Cline, the House took up the fifth subdivision of rule 12.

Mr. Cline introduced a bill, title unknown to the clerk, which was held, as there was no committee to whom it could be referred.

On motion of Mr. Nelson, the House took a recess at 11:25 A.M., to meet at 1:30 this P.M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The House was called to order at 1:30 P.M.; Speaker Morrison in the chair.

On motion of Mr. Scobey, the speaker appointed a committee of three to inform the Senate that the House was ready to receive that body in joint session.

The speaker appointed Messrs. Scobey, Rogers and Gerry as such committee.

On motion of Mr. Cloes, the House took a recess of five minutes.

The sergeant-at-arms announced that the honorable senators were in waiting to sit with the House in joint session for the reception of the governor and the reading of his message.

Speaker Morrison invited the senators to seats within the bar, and Lieutenant Governor Luce, president of the Senate, to preside over the joint body.

T. G. Nicklin, secretary of the Senate, called the Senate roll. All senators responded to their names.

Reading Clerk Carroll called the House roll. All members were present except Mr. Lyman.

On motion of Mr. Gandy, a committee of five, three from the House and two from the Senate, was appointed to wait on the governor and inform him that the Senate and the House, in joint session, were ready to receive him and hear any communication he might have.

The speaker appointed Messrs. Gandy, Baum and McArdle, on the part of the House, and the president of the Senate appointed Senators Ide and Washburn, on the part of the Senate, as such committee.

Mr. Cline moved that all state officers, ex-state or territorial officers, ex-members and ex-senators of the state or territory be invited to seats within the bar of the House.

The motion prevailed.

The sergeant-at-arms announced that Governor John H. McGraw and the reception committee were waiting the pleasure of the joint session.

The president of the Senate invited the governor to the speaker's desk, the senators, representatives and visitors arising as a mark of respect to his excellency. The governor was introduced by President Luce, and at 2:10 P.M. began the reading of his biennial message, as follows:

MESSAGE OF GOVERNOR MCGRAW.

OLYMPIA, WASH., JANUARY 14, 1895.

Gentlemen of the Senate and House of Representatives:

In discharging the duty prescribed by constitutional mandate I should first speak for an expectation uppermost in the public mind. When the star of Washington rose in the constellation of the union, retrogression seemed impossible to the nation's prosperity. Unchallenged credit, clamorous investors and an enviable reputation abroad; inestimable resources, profitable industries and bounding values at home, constituted abundant cause for faith in our capacity for immediate liquidation. Richly endowed under the enabling act, the cost of establishing and maintaining our institutions was guaranteed. Public opinion supported an immediate assumption of the dignities, equipment and responsibilities of mature statehood. Responsively, the autonomy provided for municipalities and counties imposed burdens in excess of needs.

The severe trials of the two years past, consequent upon the reversal of the federal tariff system, the intense controversy over irreconcilable monetary dogmas, and the task of liquidation thrust upon the country inopportune by foreign security holders, causing suspension of credits, stagnation of industry and shrinkage of physical as well as productive values, have awakened every taxpayer to the imperative necessity of public economy.

In passing, it is gratifying to reflect that throughout a reactionary period, prolific of grave disorder in other sections of the country, the people of Washington endured the inevitable with fortitude, and preserved, on the whole, a loyal, patient, lawabiding citizenship. No whimsical or sentimental interest in the specious protests of forensic law breakers was suffered to militate against the honor, peace and security of the state. The few instances of overt acts and violation of law were quickly condemned on every side and commensurately punished.

READJUSTMENT OF FISCAL POLICY.

The sound common sense and patriotism of the people, which have kept Washington in the column of sane and conservative states, now dictate a readjustment of fiscal policy, founded on conditions of revenue rather than theories of redemption; such a readjustment, in short, as will relieve the taxpayers of present increasing obligations, lessen future charges against the public funds, and place the public credit on the most substantial basis. The problem of revision and retrenchment, arising thus at a time when the household of state is deficient in many requirements essential to better government, and including as it does the administration of affairs in towns, cities and counties, is complex in the extreme. Investigation will disclose on every hand an outgo in excess of income, a graded attenuation of revenue, and a perilous disregard of duty on the part of auditing agents. Extending inquiry from the state into local governments, the experiences of disparity between disbursements and receipts will be comparable to an expansion of circles from a point of radiation. Step by step the state has been relaxing its governing relation to the fiscal conduct of counties without setting up requisite safeguards for honest and economic management. The widening latitude of county legislation, unprovided with adequate supervision and check, is developing expensive abuses of discretionary power. Under the numerous laws devoid of necessary restraining clauses, the interaction of local interests is favored to the prejudice of the common welfare. Insufficiency of penalty for malfeasance, for negligence, and for contempt of responsibility, encourages infirm and faithless officials, in whom the people repose their trusts. Shameless impositions mar the record of costs in criminal jurisprudence. The assessment system is unstable, extravagant and inefficient.

It is essential to prudent legislation at this time to calculate in all candor and courage, and with a full appreciation for the lessons of comparison, whither a policy so generally sustained by the people in the past may lead if strenuously pursued. In 1890 the national census accredited Washington with a population of 349,390, and in 1892 the assessors’ census showed an increase of 46,199, making the total 395,589. The population for 1894 is estimated at 410,000.

The total valuation in 1890 was $217,612,897, and $226,245,182 in 1894. A gain of 60,610 in population was attended by an increase of $8,632,285 in valuation. Meanwhile, the assessment of 1892 had reached $285,846,824. Thus two years witnessed an expansion of state valuation by $68,233,927, while during a similar period immediately subsequent $59,601,642 evaporated from the assessment. The state tax, levied at a three mill rate for 1890, yielded $720,887.75. In 1894 it had shrunk to $648,870 at a 2½ mill rate. The approximate collections for 1890–2 were 80 per cent.; in 1893 they slumped to 65 per cent. Assessment, levy and collections all decline, with a steadily increasing outlay in town, city, county and state.

The disbursements of state, paralleling the foregoing facts, raise the audited outstanding indebtedness of $570,432 in 1890 to $885,906 in 1892, and to $1,307,322.04 in 1894. County and city disbursements and receipts relatively exceed those of state.

TENDENCY TOWARD EXCESSIVE APPROPRIATIONS.

It is not within the range of human foresight to estimate accurately the revenue and disbursements for the fiscal term succeeding a legislative session, because of the variance between the restraining ideas of auditing officers, who are naturally on the side of economy, and the lavish impulses of the legislature, which is influenced by combinations of local interests and inclines to an excess of confidence in the public resources. Another and potent factor in rendering estimates nugatory is the changeableness of values and the uncertainties of tax collections under altering commercial and industrial conditions. When the third Washington legislature convened, confidence in the capacity of the state to redeem its warrant debt speedily was unquestioned. It was estimated that at the beginning of the fiscal term of the present year the treasury would contain a cash balance of $227,355.55. On the contrary, when March 31st comes around, the shortage, exclusive of bond and interest debt, will run over three-quarters of a million.

The receipts at the opening of the fiscal term beginning March 31, 1898, estimated at $855,500, were in reality $567,202.46, a discrepancy of $288,297.54. In the face of estimated necessary expenditures amounting to $1,440,444.45, the legislature appropriated, in addition to $908,140.87 deficiency appropriations, the sum of $3,124,722.31 for the fiscal term now growing to a close. Of this amount, items aggregating $178,640 were vetoed. It will be seen that the appropriations, less the vetoed sums, in this instance exceeded the estimated needs more than half a million dollars.

The present legislature should closely scrutinize all appropriation acts and defend the taxpayers from a repetition of such folly.

It should be borne in mind, in providing for the forthcoming fiscal term, that only one-fourth of the state tax for 1898 had found its way to the treasury March 31st, although the estimate of collection was 75 per cent. In view of all the circumstances, it is extremely doubtful whether the estimated collections of delinquent tax and of the levy for 1894, applicable to the fiscal term beginning next March, will fructify.

The outstanding indebtedness and prospective receipts should suggest the limitations within which appropriations are to be made for the fiscal term of 1895–7. Two methods have been resorted to in order to estimate as precisely as possible the revenues to be relied upon. One was to compute the receipts for 1895–7 on the basis of the percentage of loss from the estimated revenue collections of the closing quarter in the 1891–3 term (auditor's report) and the first half of the 1893–5 term. The other was to compile the actual receipts between October 31, 1892, and October 31, 1894, compare them with the audited estimated receipts (less the proportion of 12½ per cent. for collections coming within the closing quarter of the regular fiscal term and the levy available January 1, 1895, besides), and with this practical footing, measure the revenue, at a levy of 3 mills, for the two years ending October 31, 1896. The latter estimate was $1,470,000, the former $40,000 additional. Therefore, with present valuations prevailing, the state tax levy increased one-half mill and the ratio of collection remaining unchanged, the receipts for the period designated should be $1,500,000.

With the exception of appropriations unexpended October 31, 1896, roughly estimated at $500,000, the final liabilities for the 1895–7 fiscal term would be deficiencies and legislative expenses for the session of 1897. For the purposes of careful estimation as to positive resources the last named expenditures may be excluded as factors, protected as they fairly will be by the levy for 1896 and the collectible delinquencies available in January, 1897. How far below this $1,500,000 limitation of receipts for the next fiscal term the appropriations are to be kept, should be determined by consideration of the outstanding indebtedness.

APPROXIMATE INDEBTEDNESS OCTOBER 31, 1894.

Omission of interest account from the estimates and status of the public debt is a frequent oversight of computation. In departing from the customary methods of analysis and review the purpose will be to impress upon your honorable body the insidious nature of a fiscal policy which is not devised on sound business principles. Approximately, the state was obligated on October 31, 1894, as follows:

SUMMARY OF RESOURCES.

The resources on March 31 will be represented approximately as follows:
Cash of October 31, 1894........................................................................................ $28,639 75
Estimate delinquent taxes 1891-2-3, collectible at indefinite date .................... 457,600 65
Fifty per cent. of levy for 1894 ........................................................................ 325,000 00
Other revenues .................................................................................................. 30,841 50
Total .............................................................................................................. $842,081 90

That is to say, if all the revenue resources are available on March 31, only half of the current indebtedness can be extinguished. Opposed to such presumptive collection is the fact that the total receipts for the fractional quarter ending December 31, 1892, and the quarter ending March 31, 1893, were $402,564.95; while the total receipts for the full quarter ending December 31, 1893, and the quarter ending March 31, 1894, fell to $197,167.62.

Granting that the receipts between October 31, 1894, and March 31, 1895, should equal those of the same period two years ago, which would be a concession to the most sanguine expectations, the legislature still has to face the dilemma of a positive current debt of approximately $1,200,000. With a repetition of the experience of the two quarters ending March 31, 1894, the current liabilities at the outset of the next fiscal term would be nearly $1,500,000. It will be seen, therefore, that the anticipated revenues for two years, collected in advance, could scarcely redeem the current debt of March 31, 1895. Does this state of affairs not demand the most rigorous precaution and imply the severest responsibility in the law making power?

TAXATION FOR INTEREST DEBTS.

Interest charges are a cumulative burden not sufficiently considered. Since statehood the people have, on account of the state alone, redeemed $230,591.52, interest indebtedness, of which $122,016.72 has been a tax against the revenue taken in between October 31, 1892, and October 31, 1894. On the latter date the estimated outstanding interest debt was $60,892.04.

CONVERSION OF IDLE FUNDS.

When redemption as to date is not under contract imperative and obligatory it is senseless to maintain permanent funds for future use while interest charges are accumulating on increasing promissory payments. Strict business maxims should govern the administration of public finances. The practice of storing moneys for remote and indefinite expenditures when interest account could be reduced by their conversion, is not rational. Particularly is this true of the state whose credit is supreme and whose pledge of ultimate liquidation is beyond distrust, secured as it is by positive yet immeasurable resources.

With the audited outstanding indebtedness, $835,183.90, on October 31, 1892, the treasury contained $145,610.99 in cash. October 31, 1894, the treasury balance was $275,890.17, and the audited debt was $1,307,322.04. Looking backward to October 31, 1890, the treasury balance was $335,788.17, and the total debt $575,006.24. Thus in four years, while the floating debt was swollen by $932,315.80, the deposits unavailable for the partial extinction of the interest debt increased by $240,052.

The following comparisons are compiled from audited reports:

It will be observed that an unproductive cash deposit is made by law to increase steadily as receipts shrink, while the public debt is inflating conversely as the revenues contract. Interest accretions could be lessened and restricted to a minimum by turning the idle moneys from all save the bond interest fund into the general fund for the redemption of warrants in rotation.

INVESTMENT OF THE SCHOOL FUND.

Of the $486,000 in bonds offered for sale during the two years past, the board of state land commissioners accepted $364,500; subject to approval by the attorney general, who sanctioned the purchase of $147,500. Since October 31st, an additional purchase of $58,000 in county bonds was made, leaving about $100,000 of uninvested school funds. Opportunities for proper investment of the school fund are inadequate. The state is at an insurmountable disadvantage in the matter of obtaining the most desirable bonds. It cannot cope successfully with the professional bond buyer, who operates in person with the authorities empowered to open and consider bids. On gilt edge issues the state invariably finds its offer a trifle under the price at which sale is made. As a last resort, other markets failing, the state is expected to convert the school fund into securities incapable of enduring the test of legal and financial scrutiny. Relief from this embarrassment lies within easy reach. The school fund should be allowed to revolve through the 8 per cent. warrants drawn against the general fund. Thus unremitting use of the surplus at an interest rate exceeding that of bond investments by more than 2 per cent. would be assured.

No constitutional amendment for this reform seems to be required. Sec. 5 of art. xvi, in its first clause distinctly defines inhibitions against the investment of the school fund "to private persons or corporations," and secondarily leaves the matter open to the discretion and wisdom of the legislature by declaring "it may be invested in national, state, county or municipal bonds." No mandatory interdiction, except as to the two classes of investors specified, is discoverable. Manifestly, so long as the school fund remains permanent and irreducible, and is not loaned to private persons or corporations, the legislature may provide for its lucrative conversion through the general fund of the state. It should be the purpose to employ these moneys constantly with profit, while insuring their immunity from losses by forfeiture or deterioration of security, and no safer medium for steady accumulation from use could be devised than a law authorizing investment in state warrants.

REVISION OF THE REVENUE LAWS.
In remodeling the revenue laws it will become apparent that the deeper cause of the disproportionate subsidence of estimated wealth underlying trade and industrial reverses is traceable to the application of the high-assessment, low-levy principle. Overzealousness in creating and maintaining excessive local valuations has been seconded by the wholly deceptive notion that taxes are rendered less burdensome when the levy is minimized on maximum assessments. The false yet common tendency has been to appraise real property on the basis of cost or price—at what property exacted at speculative sale, or theoretically, should bring if sold —rather than to adjust assessment on the basis of actual worth, in money, as determined by utility and not by caprice. Once the latter plan were adopted, though the levy, fashioned to the revenue needs, became specifically higher, the further and beneficial effects would be a more equitable distribution of taxation, less perturbation of property values, a contraction of the delinquent lists, and greater encouragement to those processes of investment and development that are permanent and not speculative in character.

From the county auditor's reports I have procured for the purpose of informing the legislature as to the trend of extravagance in government, it appears that the annual outlay for the assessment exceeds $106,000.
Assessment of real property is too frequent and therefore too expensive.
The public interest would be conserved by extending the period of this assessment from one to two years.

In the line of curtailing cost, facilitating collections and expanding the revenue, the latitude of indirect taxation should be extended at once, in accordance with the successful experiments of those states having well grounded fiscal policies, and the stoutest resistance should be made to the interference of lobbies inimical to this reform. The tax most easily collected is the least burdensome.

The transfer or inheritance tax system of eastern states should be studied with a view to adoption.

Temporary provision for semi-annual collection of the tax levy on real property would meet with popular approval.
Remittance of the state apportionment of tax collections, as at present provided for, is dilatory. Funds which should be applied promptly on receipt from the taxpayers to the redemption of warrants and the cancellation of interest debt are withheld too often by county treasurers to suit their own convenience. This abuse should be corrected by stringent regulations.

Rigorous provisions to prevent the sequestration of personal property, a large proportion of which eludes taxation, should be adopted.

A large part of the ten per cent. liquor license tax due the state is lost for want of regulations essential to its collection.

The emergency clause should be omitted from the revenue act. It is an open question whether some of the provisions of a revenue law hastily put into operation will not prove retroactive. Certain delinquent revenues barely escaped forfeiture under a clause of the present act, and it would be wise to defer operation of the revised revenue laws, perhaps to the limit of a year, to afford opportunity for the proper study and comprehension of them.

To enforce collections 20 per cent. interest and a 5 per cent. penalty were imposed on delinquents. Existing embarrassments had not been foreseen. Remedial legislation in this particular is demanded. As inability to pay, caused by circumstances over which the citizen has no control, entitles him to statutory relief, remission of penalty and reduction of interest would be simple justice.

THE MANAGEMENT OF STATE LANDS.

The policy of concentrating the management of the state lands in a single commission, instituted by the legislation of 1893, has proved a departure in the line of the best possible achievements. The functions and duties of seven different boards were consolidated to the end that both the executive and administrative labors in connection with the public lands were condensed and concerted, and the business expedited and cheapened. In the matter of outlay, a comparative saving of nearly $13,000 in two years is shown, in official and clerical expenditures alone.

So long as the state is to operate as negotiator in landed property and retain the attitude of creditor to classes of its citizens—a relation wholly repugnant to good government—effectiveness of service, fixedness of responsibility and frugality of management can be assured only by vesting full power to supervise, control and dispose of all state lands in one board of executive officers. The present law, still defective in this respect, and demanding repair in other particulars, should be amended and amplified so as to confer every authority requisite to absolute supervision, complete protection and profitable disposal of the public domain.

The careful perusal of the report of the board is urgently recommended, in order that the substantial benefits resultant from the painstaking and intelligent work already done may be comprehended clearly. The many suggestions contained therein are indorsed, and the several recommendations are fully approved as expedient, remedial and necessary.

GRANTED LANDS.

The securement by the state of the 622,000 acres of land granted under the enabling act for the establishment and maintenance of public institutions had been slow, difficult and altogether unsatisfactory. Four years ago provisions were made for cruisers whose compensation consists of fees, one-half of which are paid after filing selections, and the remainder upon approval of filings by the secretary of the interior. Under a concession prescribed in the sundry civil bill, sixty days' preference right for filing had been allowed the state. Such was the usually prolonged period between application for the survey of a township and its completion, when the sixty days' provision for state selection and filing became operative, that settlers, actual or collusive, excluded the state from the most desirable tracts.

Inasmuch as the interests of the state were general rather than particular, its protests against the fraud, conspiracy and bad faith of which it was made the victim, were unavailing. Confronted by abundant evidence of losses certain to result from overvaluations made by cruisers eager to profit from the fees for selection, and conscious of the antagonistic and far-reaching influence exercised by the timber purchasing syndicates where the rights or privileges of the state were concerned, the board of state land commissioners and the executive department, after consultation, assumed an advanced position toward the federal government in an appeal for special legislation on the subject of granted lands. In affirming the doctrine of the equality of the state and citizen, and in requesting impartiality of treatment within the law, it was demonstrated that for want of proper legislation, in conformity with the endowment provisions of the enabling act, the settler was favored as against the state, by existing settlement laws. Overwhelming proofs and amplified arguments in support of this position were forwarded to the land department, through our representatives in congress. Eventually the general land office adopted the view of the state administration, and, supported by the secretary of the interior, submitted an exhaustive and appropriate amendment for the sundry civil bill, which was adopted by the fifty-third congress without resistance. Now, the state, on application of the governor, may have townships surveyed at will with guaranteed reimbursement of costs from the federal government. This initiative step precludes settlement in the designated township until the state has obtained the preferable lands therein. Practically the state has gained the right, without ultimate expenditure for survey, to create temporarily a reservation of the superior townships remaining unsurveyed, from which it may segregate, in full satisfaction of the grants contained in the enabling act, the best arable and timber sections.

Subjoined is a statement of the acreage filed upon in the local land offices, the acreage approved by the secretary of the interior, and the values as estimated in the cruisers' reports. Obviously it had been the custom to make the apportionments as lands were accepted for filing with a view to sustaining an average of selected acreage for the enumerated grants. The present board of state land commissioners changed the method of apportionment. The selections approved by the secretary of the interior and accepted and apportioned by the former land commission, show a wide differentiation, as between the grants, of average value per acre; while a comparison of the average values of the apportionment by the present board bespeaks the adoption of a policy looking toward a final proximate equalization of the average values of the several grants.

The estimated average value per acre of the total number of acres filed upon is $10.10, while the average value of the selections approved by the secretary of the interior is $9.41. The latter lands were the first selected. The old board accepted 304,718.93 acres of selections valued at $2,938,042, an average value of $9.06. It will be seen that the average acre value has been raised $1.04 by the new board, as the result of vigilance and that opportunity to follow closely the cruising work which was not enjoyed by the old board on account of their other exacting duties as state officers. If the present average value is preserved, and there is every reason to believe it will be increased under the privilege of township reservation now afforded the state, from one-half to three quarters of a million enhancement of revenue from the granted lands is assured. It will be observed, too, that the average values are undergoing such modification as should bring them to a parity. While the maximum difference of average in the selections approved by the secretary is $7.99 an acre, it is reduced to $4.40 in the total selections as they stand accepted by the board.

Of the total of the grants, 140,846.06 acres remain to be selected, and of the 481,153.94 acres taken up, 385,605.06 acres have not been approved by the interior department. Protest has been presented to the secretary to suspend approvals until the subject can be fully considered by your honorable body, and such provision made as will secure to the state every advantage to be derived under the operation of the new amendment to the sundry civil bill. A re-cruising of the suspended selections would seem to be advisable. The work could be done inexpensively, as compared with the present manner of outlay, through the cooperation of the land appraisers appointed under the act of March 15, 1893, with the board of state land commissioners. For thousands of acres comprised in filings more valuable tracts could be substituted, while the large areas selected as agricultural land in the arid belt might be rejected for future inclusion in the grant conferred on the state under the Carey reclamation act.

As the further employment of assistant attorneys general at local land offices is now rendered needless or nugatory, the repeal of the law which brought them into existence is recommended.

RECLAMATION OF THE ARID LANDS.

Sec. 4 of the federal sundry civil act of 1894 prescribes the manner in which 1,000,000 acres of desert land may pass under the ownership and control of those states desiring to avail themselves of the gift. The purpose of the law is to empower the public land states to promote the reclamation, cultivation and settlement of the arid areas within their boundaries and thus augment with all possible dispatch the permanently productive estate of the commonwealth. In striking the ultimate balance of accounts the state will have been at no expense, since the proceeds from the sales of the reclaimed lands are to be applied to the reimbursement of the state for the moneys invested, the residue of the revenues derived from the million acres to create a fund for the reclamation of additional desert lands. The establishment of the irrigation plant, which must precede settlement and sales, devolves upon the state, according to the terms of the act. For the present, however, the only step essential to the eventual acquirement of the grant is the passage of a law providing for a reconnoissance of the water sheds of Eastern Washington, preliminary survey and such other preparatory work as would be comprehended in a study of the irrigable possibilities of the Columbia river desert basin. In considering the urgency of this matter it should be remembered that the arid belt comprises nearly one-fifth of the total area of the state, and that every township therein contains 1,380 acres of school land now valueless.

HARBOR AREAS READY FOR LEASE.

The work of establishing the harbor lines of our cities having been finished, it is time to provide for the leasing of harbor areas. The policy should be to so shape legislation in the premises that the lowest possible wharfage charges will result. High rates of lease for the purposes of public revenue mean high rates of wharfage, to the detriment of commerce. Cheap wharfage will attract in increasing volume to our shores the trans-Pacific trade certain of diversion through the channel offering the least resistance, while it assures domestic consumers immunity from the burden of tax imposed in heavy charges which are in the last analysis added to the costs of transportation.

STATE INSTITUTIONS.

The cost of maintaining the state institutions has increased $128,031.29 during the two years ending October 31, 1894. The total cost of maintenance since statehood is $1,375,369.62, a sum $323,683.87 in excess of the outlay for all construction and improvement during that period. About $35,000 was expended the last two years in per diem and mileage for the several boards and commissions.

This branch of the public service is an open field for corrective and more comprehensive legislation. The laws pertaining to it are diverse, diffuse and unsymmetrical. A many headed system of management, irregular methods of disbursement, extraordinary independence of control, and a growing inclination to regard the institutions as means of concessions to localities rather than auxiliaries of government, are among the consequences. Certain boards draw warrants for quarterly maintenance sums for the use of which in detail they are not accountable to the state auditing authority. These warrants are cashed, often at a premium, and while an interest debt is thus made to pile up against the taxpayers, the funds obtained lie in banks awaiting an indefinite necessity for employment. The manner and amounts of compensation for the directory officers are as varied as could have been devised. Some receive mileage; others are reimbursed for actual expense. Per diem is dissimilar throughout.

A sweeping reform as to this subject is recommended. The management of the state institutions should be provided for in one general act, all commissions, directors, boards and administrative officers to be placed under the supervision of an examiner, who shall act under the instructions of the governor in scrutinizing contracts, investigating methods and discipline, and in checking up disbursements. The foods and all supplies should be purchased under contract let to the lowest bidder, after publication of notice in leading newspapers of the trade centers of the state. Mileage should be abolished; only actual expenses repaid; per diem made uniform, and the authority to draw quarterly allowances revoked.

NORMAL SCHOOLS.

Our public institutions, though endowed handsomely, are as yet a charge against the revenues resulting from direct taxation, and they must so continue to be until another tide of immigration and the renewed prosperity attending it shall render the granted lands disposable. It was owing to no personal feeling or antipathy of opinion that the veto power was exercised in the cases of the Cheney and Whatcom normal schools. While it is not to be denied that the normal training is essential to the best educational equipment of the state, and an admirable adjunct to the modern public school system of which Americans are so justly proud, I was fully persuaded that the people were sufficiently taxed for the support of facilities to higher education.

THE STATE PENITENTIARY.

Whether the state will recover in full the amount of the defalcation, the discovery of which was attended by the deplorable tragedy at the penitentiary, is not yet determined. In all probability the monetary loss will be inconsiderable. In recalling the melancholy expiation of the warden, whose reputation for probity had been unquestioned, it should be said that his talent as an executive officer and his skill as a disciplinarian wrought in the institution changes for the better, the value of which to the state is not to be estimated lightly.

The law respecting the sale of the products of the jute mill should be reconstructed and its provisions so hedged with penalties that the bartering and manipulations of middlemen will be suppressed.

STATE CAPITOL BUILDING.

The financial stringency following so swiftly on the passage of the capitol building act thwarted the purpose to put it into effect immediately. Funds anticipated were not available, owing to the suspension of land investments and the contraction of values, in the face of which it would have been unwise to attempt the sale of the lands granted under sections 12 and 17 of the enabling act. Further delay was occasioned by internal differences arising unexpectedly in the commission, the settlement of which in accordance with the dictates of duty compelled a reluctant and regrettable exercise of executive authority.

The basic work of the capital is now well under way. On behalf of the enactment of such legislation as will be conducive to the prompt erection of the building, no more eloquent argument could be invoked than the protests of your own pride and dignity against the shabbiness and meanness of your legislative surroundings.

An erroneous idea as to the nature of the liability to be incurred has taken possession of the public mind. The debt to be created will not be a charge against the tax revenue. It will inflict no hardship either present or future. The act providing for the location and erection of the capitol building established a "capitol building fund," against which all warrants must be drawn. It is declared they shall be redeemed out of none other. Proceeds from the sale of granted lands are to form this fund. In a separate act the sale of the lands is provided for. Of the 132,000 acres included in the grants, 29,091 acres have been approved by the secretary of the interior, the total estimated value of which is $360,946, or an average value per acre of $12.40. The total of 89,117.33 accepted from the cruisers are appraised at $1,045,325, an average of $11.73 per acre. It is safe, therefore, to anticipate that the grants will yield an average of at least $10 an acre, or an aggregate fund of $1,320,000. Plans for the construction limit the cost to $1,000,000. Thus a sufficient amount should accrue to satisfy all interest debt necessitated by an immediate employment of the principal required. As the moneys derived from the sale of the granted lands enumerated can be diverted to no other use, under the terms of the enabling act and the law, and as the plans comprehend an expenditure safely within the bounds of the estimated endowment income at present—which is less than prospective valuation—no valid reason exists why the state should not prosecute with diligence and vigor an undertaking in which eighty per cent. of the materials to be utilized will come from our virgin resources.

It is recommended that a law be passed, under section 3, art. VIII of the constitution, providing for the issuance of ten year four per cent. capitol building fund bonds, payment of interest installments and final redemption to depend upon the proceeds of the progressive land sales. It is scarcely to be doubted that the people, if enlightened as to the actual scope and effect of such an act, would withhold their approval at the next general election. As the warrant rate of interest is eight per cent., the saving to be made by the bond issue is obvious.

THE NATIONAL GUARD.

Our military establishment should be renovated. As law is the monarch of democracy, so a well organized militia is the custodian of its citadel. Sedition or insurrection, the tyranny of mobs, conspiracies of violence to personal and property rights, call it to the defense of the commonwealth, and at the supreme moment, when ignorance and the evils of selfish or misguided citizenship assail the guarantees of the constitution, the militia should not be found wanting. I do not wish to be understood as intimating even that the body of the National Guard of Washington is not ardent, spirited, loyal and ever ready for unquestioning service. On more than one occasion its valor, patriotism and efficiency have been fully tested and justly lauded. What I desire to criticise, with a view to recommending a revision of the methods of organization, is the policy of electing superior and commanding officers. When the question of the organization and control of the militia was under debate in the federal constitutional convention, no one contended for the exercise of the elective principle. On the contrary, the right reserved to the states was expressly the "appointment of the officers." It had been the experience of the trying times precedent to the convention that, as Madison put it, "elective officers courted popularity too much to enforce discipline." We have witnessed in our own state and time the pernicious and demor-alizing influence of military elections. Substitution of the appointive for the elective plan of preferment, or promotion, under surveillance of the commander-in-chief, would eradicate the partisanship, favoritism and politics so fatal to discipline and so corruptive of that singleness of feeling which should animate the soldiery of the state. Examination as to aptitude and qualifications for command is now puerile and perfunctory.
It should be specific and rigid.

If the legislature undertakes to provide for a restricted or more thrifty management of the national guard the facts should be kept conspicuously in mind that the members of the military household are at considerable personal sacrifice, and that both their zeal and enthusiasm are measured by losses to themselves in purse and time. They comprise much of the brain and brawn of the best citizenship; and at no point in its expenditures for the maintenance of the military establishment does the state offer adequate compensation for the duties voluntarily assumed or the services rendered by the citizens composing it.

THE WORLD'S FAIR COMMISSION.

Conceived in public enthusiasm and pride, the plan of presenting at the world's fair an exhaustive exhibit of the wealth and attractions of our state was executed with surprising enterprise and skill. The unique Washington building and its contents were the wonder and delight of all visitors; a credit to the zeal and ability of the commission; a testimonial to the progressive spirit and industry of our people, and a proof of the incomparable variety of our resources. With a revival of prosperity, substantial returns in the form of the most desirable immigration will reward this enterprise. The report of the commission minutely details the financial and other features of the management.

ELECTION REFORM.

For the judges, clerks and messengers of a single state election the people are taxed approximately $40,000. When the count is prolonged into the night, one and one-half to two days' wages are paid. Messengers are recompensed very much in accordance with the whims of auditing officers. The most responsible citizens should serve as custodians and accountants at the polls. Compensation should be neither expected nor vouchsafed. Returns from remote precincts should be forwarded to the county auditor by registered mail. All indemnity for individual election services should be expunged from the statutes and assignment to the several duties made, under severe penalty for avoidance or refusal, from lists of tax paying citizens submitted on stated occasions by the county treasurer. Purification of the franchise would be facilitated by this reform.
A repeal of the present compensatory provisions of the election laws should be contained in a measure designed to minimize aggregate precinct votes, with a view to insuring spontaneous and perfect inspection.
The larger the number of voters at a polling place, the wider the cover for illegalities and corrupting influences. By providing for the re-constitution of precincts on the basis of each preceding registration, so as to limit the voting capacity of each precinct to a maximum of 150 or 200 citizens, such would be the natural nearness of public scrutiny, owing to the environment of acquaintance, that few illegal, fraudulent or contaminated votes could be cast. Taxpayers might well afford the little expenditure for temporary hire of the increased number of polling places, in view of the savings for personal labor. Carried into effect, the design briefly outlined would enable cities, whose industrial and trade activities are to be considered, to cast their votes after midday. Brief and gratuitous service on the part of the officers, a clean vote and a quick count, a great saving to the taxpayers and the improved integrity of the suffrage, would attend the enforcement of this plan. The use of registration lists should be provided for at all elections involving even remotely any drain upon taxable resources or public funds.

COSTS FOR THE PROSECUTION OF CRIME.

Reports from twenty-four counties and estimates as to ten, together with state costs, show that the amount expended during the last year for court and coroner jurors and witness fees and mileage will not fall far short of $350,000.

The fee system in criminal jurisprudence demands radical reformation. No mileage should be granted, and all fees should be wiped out. In lieu of existing statutory prescriptions covering this subject, it should be provided that actual expenses for jurors and witnesses in attendance at court or serving at inquests, be paid under the certification of the judge, prosecuting attorney or coroner, as the case may be. In civil jurisprudence, the litigants should be required to pay the fees, as usual.

The first function of society is protection; its chief organic assailant, crime. All members of civilized society are bound together as prosecutors by an unwritten compact. As witnesses or jurors they perform a duty which should be voluntary and without hire, rather than enforced or for pay. No pecuniary sacrifice should be suffered; no personal profit required. Under laws limiting the costs of prosecutions against crime to reimbursement for actual outlay or loss, a healthier atmosphere would pervade criminal practice. The evils of the professional juror and time serving witness would be suppressed. Trials would be shortened, the present cumbersome records abbreviated and the active cooperation of the best classes of citizens secured by the official prosecutors.

SUPERIOR COURT DISTRICTS.

Re-classification of the superior court districts is desirable, to the end that the number of judges may be cut down. Court commissioners, as provided for by the constitution, could make orders in probate in such counties as might be deprived of a resident judge by the formation of new and larger districts.

UNNECESSARY MUNICIPAL COURTS.

The municipal courts are a merely ornamental and extravagant encumbrance to our city governments. The law which brought them into existence should be repealed. Recourse should be had to the former and cheaper plan, the justices to be allowed a salary not to exceed $50 a month.
JUSTICE FOR RICH AND POOR ALIKE.

Poverty should not be suffered to serve any longer in Washington as a badge for exclusion from the administration of justice. It is time a law were enacted granting to impoverished citizens, upon proper showing of indigence, the right to sue ina forma pauperis, ministerial officers to perform all pertinent services without cost or unnecessary delay. Neither appeal bond or printed briefs should be prerequisite to hearing in the supreme court. Congress has passed such a measure and its principles are embodied in the statutes of many states.

IMPOSITION ON A DEBTOR CLASS.

Laws defensive of debtor classes, inspired by a discriminating sense of the equities involved, are an elementary ingredient of wise government. When property sold on foreclosure or execution is redeemed by the debtor or designated agent within the legal annual term of redemption, it is gross and manifest injustice to impose on the debtor the entire judgment debt and interest, while at the same time no means is afforded of recovering from the purchaser or satisfied creditor the income and profits of which the owner or debtor has been deprived during the redemption period.

NEED OF A STRINGENT BANKING LAW.

The legislature should address itself resolutely to the enactment of such a law as will render the word "bank," when inscribed on a public depository, the positive synonym of security.

RAILROAD LEGISLATION.

Our railroad legislation has been tentative and trifling, owing to the prevalence of the idea that the adoption of any measure attacking transportation revenues might cause losses on operation and investment, which would injure the best interests of the state in discouraging the construction of new lines or the extension of existing ones. So long as the question of the regulation of railroad and general transportation charges is approached in a spirit of moderation and with the purpose to do exact justice between the corporate powers and their patrons, it is not to be apprehended that the public will be accused of any narrow visioned hostility or prejudice to the organized capital represented in transportation companies. The genius of Vanderbilt long ago taught us primarily what the Hungarian zone system has fully demonstrated in later years: that minimum charges, enlarging the horizon of freedom in exchange and commercial intercourse, lead to such increase in the volume of traffic as makes the sum of the small profits greater than the net income from the higher rates which serve really to restrict internal commerce and depress the values of communities made poorer by the waste of products they can neither use nor send to market. The legislature should amend and improve the present rate law so as to afford the public the utmost relief consistent with honesty and fair dealing, and make ample provision for its absolute enforcement. Complaint of evasion is now common and apparently justified. I would recommend also that the excessive sleeping car rates in this state be scaled down, and that the absurd rules of the Pullman Palace Car Company receive your attention.

BUREAU OF STATISTICS, AGRICULTURE AND IMMIGRATION.

One of the first in importance among the directory clauses of the constitution creative of auxiliary offices of state government, relates to the establishment of a bureau of statistics, agriculture and immigration. Repeated recommendations have failed to enlist the interest of the legislature in the execution of this mandate. The idea that such a bureau is unnecessary, and therefore would be a useless expense, is erroneous and narrow. Intelligent and salutary legislation is dependent upon that perfect knowledge of conditions which is the fruition of continuous and methodical research. No authority exists anywhere at present for the procurement and proper compilation of facts intended to reveal at a glance the inner workings of county and municipal government; the encroachment of corporate organization on individual rights, the tendencies for good or bad of industry and commerce; the estate and needs of the laboring and agricultural classes, and the inducements to desirable immigration. This bureau should be created without further delay, and, either as agent or attaché thereof, an expert grain inspector should be provided for to protect wheat shipments against the forced deductions of value inflicted on the farming communities by unjust classification at railroad terminals.

PUBLIC PRINTING.

The public printing amendatory act, approved March 9, 1898, was a long step in the direction of economy, in centralizing the responsibility for expenditures. The $60,000 printing appropriation for the fiscal term ending in 1893 was exhausted July 20, 1892. The legislature, after providing for a deficiency of $52,500, appropriated $70,000 for the fiscal term beginning March 31, 1893. Subsequent to that date about $11,000 of outstanding bills, not included in the deficiency estimate, were paid out of the appropriation for the new term, leaving $50,000 as the sum of the appropriation actually available for public printing during the two ensuing years. On January 8, 1895, the total draft on the $70,000 appropriation was $59,493.88, leaving $10,506.17 to defray the cost of publishing the last of the state official reports and the incidental printing needed for the rest of the term. In round numbers, after the printing of the present legislative session has been provided for, the comparison will show an approximate saving of $50,000 in two years under the act quoted, which might be amended further to the public advantage so as to require that costs for printed materials used at state institutions be made a charge against the respective maintenance funds.

REPORTS OF STATE OFFICERS AND COMMISSIONS.

No review, however synoptic, of the numerous published reports of state officers and commissions could be attempted without needlessly testing your patience and profitlessly absorbing your time. It is to be assumed that you will give each and all of these valuable state documents your searching attention. I do not concur, for the present, in many of the urgent requests for enlarged appropriations and new investments in the machinery of government, though realizing the laudably sincere and progressive spirit animating the proposals.

The report of the supreme court merits the especial and fostering consideration of the judiciary committees of both branches. They should take the legislative initiative promptly and in harmony, pursuant to the recommendations submitted.

LEGISLATIVE EXPENSES.

The expenditures for legislative sessions are out of all proportion to actual requirements, and mask innumerable petty leakages from the treasury. The last assembly carried 107 employés, who cost the state $19,801 for salaries alone. The outlay for mileage was $7,339.60; for incidentals $7,010.81, and for printing $13,953.51. The number of clerks and supernumeraries in the two branches could be reduced at least one­ half without incommoding the members or impairing the usefulness of the committees. Large savings in other directions could be enforced through the vigilance of a scrupulous auditing committee. The legislature should repeal every statutory provision for the payment of mileage, no matter what the character or class of officials affected, and thus save to the people the difference between actual expenses incurred and the gratuitous sums now paid for traveling.

CONCLUSION.

It is recommended that, early in the session, you compel the consideration of appropriations essential to the conduct of public business and the maintenance of public institutions, so that the legal expenditures of the forthcoming fiscal term may not be made, as they have been in the past, the riders of an overtopping omnibus bill hurriedly enacted in the closing hours, as the result of heedless compromises between sectional or official claimants for public funds. Fifteen days from the date of final adjournment should be fixed by rule as the period within which further introdru­ tion of bills will not be permitted. Such are the complications and evils proceeding from hasty, ill-advised and ill-considered legislation, that every precaution should be taken at the outset to guard against it.

The abrogation, through legislative failure or neglect, of an elective right involving the representation of state sovereignty in the national congress, discloses a perilous disdain of the principles of government and a dangerous contempt for one of the chief safeguards of the federal union.
The vicarious service as electors you are to perform on behalf of the people, implies a profound obligation you should discharge with dispatch and good will, and in a spirit of loyalty to the constitution of your country.
A speedy disposal of this deputed task will meet the reward of universal approval, and relieve your proceedings of a responsibility that should be incidental rather than paramount.

The tone of public service is the test of the personal virtues out of which should be fabricated the happiness and glories of free institutions.
Adherence to justice, obedience to law, fidelity to the principles of American liberty, rest more securely upon the examples of those who are honored by popular favor than upon the maxims of political science. The wise and conscientious labors of law givers and the fearlessly upright deeds of executive and administrative servants are the context of the noblest primer of democratic government.

In your delegated powers you represent the whole people of Washington. The equation of the potential trust conferred upon you is a solemn duty which it need not be predicted you will fulfill with zeal and courage, according to the light of conscience. Love of justice, devotion to the public welfare, indifference to the insidious pleadings of class interests, resistance to the appeals of sectional sentiment, should enclose the exalted ground upon which your deliberative acts will be performed. Here the rancor of politics should be a merely instructive reminiscence, teaching the reason and merit of the higher aspirations of civil life. Here faction should have no voice; intolerance no advocates; partisanship no countenance. Here the hopes of a common destiny should unite all in singleness of effort and disarm every prejudice, to the end that a volume of laws favorable to all and favoring none shall constitute the achievement of the most important legislative assembly known to the history of the state.

At the close of the delivery of the message at 3:15 p. m., the president of the Senate dissolved the joint session.

HOUSE SESSION.

The House was called to order immediately after the dissolution of the joint session.

On motion of Mr. Gandy, the House adjourned at 3:20 p. m. to meet to-morrow at 10 o'clock A. M.

Ellis Morrison, Speaker.

Edward C. Finch, Chief Clerk.

THIRD DAY.

MORNING SESSION.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Washington, Wednesday, January 16, 1895.
10 o'clock A. M.

The House was called to order at 10 o'clock; speaker in the chair.

The roll was called, and all members responded to their names except Mr. Lyman.
The clerk began the reading of the journal when, on motion of Mr. Eddy, the further reading of the same was dispensed with, and the journal approved as if read.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE.

SENATE CHAMBER,
OLYMPIA, WASH., January 16, 1895.

MR. SPEAKER:
The Senate has passed Senate concurrent resolution No. 1, For the appointment of a joint committee of the Senate and House, relative to the preparation and publication of a legislative manual by the state.

REPORT OF JOINT COMMITTEE ON JOINT RULES AND STANDING COMMITTEES.

OLYMPIA, January 17, 1895.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, your committee on the part of the House, respectfully report the following as the joint rules of the Senate and House of Representatives:
COMMITTEES OF CONFERENCE AND FREE CONFERENCE.

RULE 1. In every case of an amendment of a bill, or joint or concurrent resolution, agreed to in one house, disented from in the other, and not receded from by the one making the same, such house shall appoint a committee to confer with a like committee to be appointed by the other, and the committees so appointed shall meet at a convenient hour, to be agreed upon by their respective chairmen, and shall confer upon the differences between the two houses as indicated by the amendments made in one and rejected in the other, and report as early as convenient the result of their conference to their respective houses. If, after such a report, the two houses shall disagree upon the recommendations of the reporting committees as to their differences between the two houses, a committee for free conference shall be appointed, to whom the whole subject matter embraced in the bill or resolution shall be committed, and the committee of free conference may report by new bill or resolution, or otherwise, and bills or resolutions so reported shall be treated as amendments, unless such bills or resolutions are comprised entirely of original matter, in which case they shall receive the treatment required in the respective houses for original bills, or resolutions, as the case may be.

MESSAGES.

RULE 2. Messages from the Senate to the House of Representatives shall be delivered by the secretary or assistant secretary, and messages from the House of Representatives to the Senate shall be delivered by the chief clerk or assistant clerk, who shall be announced by the doorkeeper, enter within the bar, announce or deliver his message.

BILLS.

RULE 3. Each house shall communicate its final action on any bill, or resolution, or matter in which the other may be interested, in writing, signed by the secretary or clerk of the house from which such notice is sent.

RULE 4. After a bill shall have passed both houses, it shall be duly enrolled by the enrolling clerk of the house in which it originated, and shall be examined by the enrolling committee of such house, who shall carefully compare the enrollment with the engrossed bill, as passed, correcting any errors that may be discovered in the enrolled bill, procure in open session the signature thereto of the necessary officers of the two houses, present the same to the governor, and forthwith report to such house the time when such presentation to the governor was made. The enrolling clerk shall indorse upon the back of each bill the house in which said bill originated.

RULE 5. All joint resolutions to be presented to the governor, excepting such as may be addressed to him, shall take the usual course of bills.

RULE 6. Each house shall transmit to the other papers on which any bill or resolution may be founded.

PRINTING.

RULE 7. The standing committees on printing of the two houses shall be a joint standing committee, who shall examine all matters proposed to be printed by concurrent order, and shall report what part of such matter is needful to print. Each house may order the printing of bills introduced, reports of its own committees, and other matters pertaining to such house only; but no other printing shall be ordered except by a concurrent resolution passed by both houses.

RESOLUTIONS.

RULE 8. Joint resolutions addressed to congress, or either house thereof, or to the president of the United States, or the heads of any of the national departments, or proposing amendments to the state constitution, shall be treated in all respects as bills.

VETOES.

RULE 9. Bills which have passed a previous legislature, and which are transmitted to the legislature next sitting, accompanied by a message or statement of the governor's disapproval, or veto of the same, shall become the subject of a special order; and when the special order for their consideration is reached and called, the said message or statement shall be read, together with the bill or bills so disapproved or vetoed; and the message and bill shall be read by the clerk without interruption, consecutively, one following the other, and not upon separate occasions; and no such bill or message shall be referred to any committee, or otherwise acted upon, save as provided by law and custom; that is to say, that immediately following such reading the only question (except as hereinafter stated) which shall be put by the speaker is, "Shall the bill pass, notwithstanding the objections of the governor?" It shall not be in order, any time, to vote upon such vetoed bill without the same shall have first been read, from the first word of its title to and including the last word of its final section; and no motion shall be entertained after the chair has stated the question save a motion for "the previous question," but the merits of the bill itself may be debated.

RULE 10. That Senate bills in the House, and House bills in the Senate, be the special order on Wednesday of each week during the session.

Your committee on the part of the House further recommends the following as the list of standing committees of the House during the ensuing session:

1. Agriculture.
2. Agricultural College and School of Science.
3. Appropriations.
4. Claims and Auditing.
5. Commerce and Manufactures.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RULES.

OLYMPIA, WASH., January 15, 1895.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, your Committee on Rules, have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass as amended.

Respectfully submitted.

T. V. EDDY, Chairman.

RULES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, REGULAR SESSION, 1895.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

RULE 1. Bills shall be disposed of in the following order: First, calling the roll and reading the journal of the preceding day; second, presentation of petitions, memorials and remonstrances addressed to the legislature; third, propositions and motions; fourth, reports of standing committees; fifth, reports of special committees; sixth, senate business in order; seventh, introduction and first reading of bills; eighth, second reading of bills; ninth, third reading of bills; tenth, orders of the day; eleventh, other business to be considered.

Rule 2. The speaker shall on each day announce to the house the business in order, agreeable to the preceding rule, and no business shall be taken up or considered until the class to which it belongs shall be declared in order, but messages from the governor or senate, or any communication from any state officer, may be read at any time.

Rule 3. The unfinished business at which the house was engaged the preceding adjournment shall not be taken up until reached in regular order, and shall then have precedence under such order from day to day until finally disposed of.

Speaker.

Rule 4. The speaker shall take the chair every day precisely at the hour to which the house shall have adjourned on the preceding day. He shall immediately call the members to order, and on the appearance of a majority of the members shall cause the journal of the preceding day to be read.

Rule 5. The speaker shall preserve order and decorum, may speak to points of order in preference to other members, rising from his seat for that purpose, and shall decide questions of order subject to an appeal to the house.

Rule 6. The speaker shall rise to put a question, but may state it sitting.

Rule 7. The speaker shall have a general direction of the House of Representatives room; he shall have the right to name any member to perform the duties of the chair, but such substitution shall not extend beyond an adjournment. He shall have the right to appoint all committees, subject to additional members to be named on motion.

Rule 8. In case of any disturbance or disorderly conduct in the lobby, the speaker (or chairman of the whole house) shall have the power to order the same to be cleared.

Appeal from the Chair.

Rule 9. The decision of the chair may be appealed from by any two members, on which appeal no member shall speak more than once, unless by leave of the House.

Quorum.

Rule 10. Seven members, with the speaker, or eight members in his absence, having chosen a speaker pro tempore, shall be authorized to call the House and compel the attendance of absent members, making order for their fine and censure, and may adjourn. For the purpose of determining whether a quorum be present, the speaker or chairman shall count all members present, whether voting or not.

Rule 11. The time of meeting of the House shall be at 10 o'clock A.M., unless otherwise ordered by the House.

Questions, Motions and Debates.

Rule 12. Questions shall directly be put in this form, to wit: "As many as are in favor of [as the question may be] say aye;" and, after the affirmative vote is expressed, "As may as are opposed say no." If the speaker doubt, or if division is called for, the House shall divide. Those in the affirmative on the question shall rise in their seats, and the number being announced, those in the negative shall rise.

Rule 13. When any member is about to speak in debate or deliver any matter to the House he shall rise from his seat and respectfully address himself to Mr. Speaker, and shall confine himself to the question under debate and avoid personalities; and no member shall impeach the motive of any other member's vote or argument.

Rule 14. If any member in speaking or otherwise transgress the rules of the House, the speaker shall, or any member may, call to order, in which case the member so called to order shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain; and the House shall, if appealed to, decide the case without debate; if there be no appeal the decision of the chair shall be submitted to. If the decision be in favor of the member called to order he shall be at liberty to proceed; if otherwise, and the case require it, he shall be liable to the censure of the House.

Rule 15. If any member be called to order for words spoken in debate, the person calling him to order shall repeat the words excepted to and they shall be taken down in writing at the clerk's table, and no member shall be held to answer or be subject to the censure of the House for words spoken in debate if any other member has spoken or other busi-
RULE 15. When two or more members rise at once the speaker shall name who is first to speak.

RULE 16. No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the House, except the chairman of the committee or the mover of the question, who may close the debate.

RULE 17. When a motion is made and seconded it shall be stated by the speaker, or, being in writing, it shall be handed to the chair and read aloud before debate.

RULE 18. Every motion shall be reduced to writing if the speaker or a member desire it.

RULE 19. After a motion is stated by the speaker, or bill, memorial, resolution, petition or remonstrance is read by the clerk, it shall be deemed to be in possession, but may be withdrawn at any time by consent of the House before decision or amendment.

RULE 20. When a question is under debate no motion shall be received but the following in the order named:

1. First. To fix the time to which to adjourn.
2. Second. To adjourn.
3. Third. To lay on the table.
4. Fourth. For the previous question.
5. Fifth. To postpone.
6. Sixth. To postpone to a day certain.
7. Seventh. To recommit.
8. Eighth. To amend.

RULE 21. When a reading of a paper is called for, it shall be decided by a vote of the House.

RULE 22. All questions, whether in committee or in the House, shall be propounded in the order in which they are named, except in filling blanks the largest sum and the longest time shall be first put.

RULE 23. The previous question shall be put in this form: "Mr. ...... demands the previous question. As many as are in favor of ordering the previous question will say aye; as many as are opposed will say no." This question is not debatable and cannot be amended. The results of the motion are as follows: If determined in the negative, the consideration goes on as if the motion had never been made; if decided in the affirmative, then the presiding officer at once, and without debate, proceeds to put, first, the amendments pending, and then the main question as amended. If an adjournment is had after the previous question is ordered, the subject comes up the first thing after the reading of the journal the next day, and the previous question still operates making the main question privileged over all other business, whether new or unfinished. It shall only be admitted when demanded by two-thirds of the members present, and until it is decided shall preclude all amendments and further debate on the main question. On a motion for the previous question, and prior to the seconding of the same, a call of the House shall be in order, but after a majority shall have seconded such motion, no call shall be in order prior to the decision of the main question.

RULE 24. When a motion has once been made and carried in the affirmative or negative, it shall be in order for any member of the prevailing side to move for reconsideration thereof, on the same day or next working day thereafter.

RULE 25. Any member may call for a division of the question, which shall be divided if it comprehends propositions in substance so distinct that, one being taken away, a substantive proposition shall remain for the decision of the House. A motion to strike out being lost shall preclude neither amendments nor a motion to strike out and insert.
AMENDMENTS.

Rule 28. No motion or proposition on a subject shall be admitted under color of amendment, if different from that under consideration. No bill or resolution shall at any time be amended by annexing thereto or incorporating any bill or resolution pending before the House.

Rule 29. No amendment shall be received to a bill on its third reading, but it may be referred or re-committed for the purpose of amendment. A bill may be re-committed at any time before its passage.

PETITIONS, MEMORIALS AND RESOLUTIONS.

Rule 30. Petitions, memorials and other papers addressed to the House may be presented by the speaker, or any member, and shall not be debated or decided on the day of their being first read unless the House shall direct otherwise, but they may be referred to the committee having the subject matter thereof under consideration, or may lie on the table, to be taken up in the order in which they are presented.

BILLS, JOINT AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS.

Rule 31. Any member desiring to introduce a bill shall first obtain the floor and state that he desires to introduce a bill, and, if entitled to do so, the bill shall be sent to the clerk's desk to be numbered, and all bills shall be read in the order in which they are numbered by the clerk, but no bill shall be read a first time until every member present entitled to introduce a bill has had an opportunity to do so, unless otherwise ordered by the House.

Rule 32. Every bill shall be read on three several days, unless the House shall deem it expedient to suspend this rule. The first reading shall be by title only, unless a majority of the members demand the reading in full. All bills shall be printed, unless otherwise ordered by the House, and be referred to committee after first reading. Bills shall pass to second reading when reported back by the committee. Bills on second reading are subject to amendment. Bills on third reading shall be read in full by section.

Rule 33. All joint or concurrent resolutions shall be acted upon the same as bills, unless otherwise ordered by a majority of the House.

Rule 34. When a bill shall pass, it shall be certified to by the clerk, together with the vote upon final passage, noting the day of its passage at the foot thereof.

Rule 35. On the final passage of every bill the ayes and noes shall be taken and entered upon the journal.

Rule 36. No engrossed bill, memorial or joint resolution shall be sent to the Senate until one day after its passage, without special instructions by the House.

AYES AND NOES.

Rule 37. Upon the passage of any question the vote shall be taken by ayes and noes and shall be entered upon the journal of the House when demanded by one-sixth of the members present. The speaker shall vote when the ayes and noes are called for, his name being called last, and in case of an equal division the question shall be lost.

VOTING.

Rule 38. No member shall vote on any question in the event of which he is immediately or particularly interested, or in any case when he was not within the bar of the House before the last name was called, unless by unanimous consent; and when any member shall ask leave to vote, the speaker shall propound to him the question "were you within the bar when the last name was called?"

Rule 39. Upon a division and a count of the house on any question, no member without the bar shall be counted.

DUTIES OF MEMBERS.

Rule 40. While the speaker is putting the question no member shall walk across or out of the house; nor when a member is speaking shall any member entertain private discourse or pass between him and the chair.

Rule 41. Every member who shall be in the House when the question was put shall give his vote unless the House for special reasons shall excuse him. All motions to excuse a member shall be made before the House divides or before the call for ayes and noes is commenced; and any member requesting to be excused from voting may make a brief and verbal statement of the reasons for making such request, and the question shall then be taken without further debate.

RULE 42. No member shall absent himself from the service of the House unless he shall have leave or be sick and unable to attend.

RULE 43. No person shall be allowed to smoke in the hall or lobby thereof during the session or recess.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE.

RULE 44. In forming a committee of the whole House, the speaker having the chair shall call upon some member to preside, who shall be addressed as "Mr. Chairman."

RULE 45. Upon a bill committed to a committee of the whole House, the bill shall be read and debated by clauses, leaving the preamble to be last considered. The body of the bill shall not be defaced or interlined, but all amendments (noting the page and line) shall be duly entered by the clerk on a separate paper, as the same shall be agreed to by the committee and so reported to the House. After a report the bill shall again be subject to be debated and amended by clauses, before a question to engross it be taken.

RULE 46. The rules of proceeding in the House shall be observed in a committee of the whole House so far as they may be applicable, but no member shall be recognized a second time until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

RULE 47. The standing committees to be appointed by the speaker shall consist of not less than five nor more than fifteen members each.

RULE 48. No committee shall sit during the sitting of the House without special leave, and all its writs, warrants and subpœnas issued by order of the House shall be under the hand and seal of the speaker, attested by the clerk.

RULE 49. It shall be in order for the Committee on Enrolled and Engrossed Bills to report at any time no motion is before the House. This committee may report without notice to the House by handing the report to the chief clerk.

RULE 50. Standing committees shall report all bills back to the House within ten days from the time of reference, unless further time be granted by the House.

CALL OF THE HOUSE.

RULE 51. Five members may demand a call of the House at any time before the House has divided or the voting has commenced by ayes and noes, and thereupon the doors shall be closed until further proceedings upon the call have been dispensed with, which shall not be done until the absentees have been sent for, if requested by any member; but arrests of members for absence shall not be made unless ordered by a majority of the members present.

STANDING RULES.

RULE 52. No standing rule or order of the House shall be rescinded or changed without one day’s notice being given of the motion therefor, nor shall any rule be suspended except by a vote of at least two-thirds of the members present. Neither the standing rules nor the order of business established by the House shall be postponed, changed or rescinded except by a vote of at least two-thirds of the members present.

RULE 53. The rules of parliamentary practice comprised in Robert’s Rules of Order shall govern in all cases in which they are not inconsistent with the standing rules and orders of the House.

DUTIES OF SUBORDINATE OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES.

RULE 54. The chief clerk of the House shall see that the journal is properly kept, and have general supervision over all the clerks, excepting committee clerks while their services are required by standing committees.

RULE 55. The assistant clerk shall keep a correct record of all the proceedings of the House, and perform such other duties as the chief clerk shall prescribe.

RULE 56. The reading clerk shall read all communications, call the roll, and perform such other duties as the chief clerk shall direct.

RULE 57. The journal clerk shall transcribe the minutes of the House, as approved, into the journal provided for that purpose.

RULE 58. The docket clerk shall keep a correct list, in a book provided for that purpose, of all bills, memorials and resolutions introduced, and perform such other duties as the chief clerk may require.
Rule 59. The enrolling and engrossing clerks shall be under the supervision of the committee on enrolled and engrossed bills, when their services are needed by that committee.

Rule 60. The sergeant-at-arms shall attend the House during the sittings, announce all messengers, preserve order in the body of the hall, and execute all processes issued by authority of the House and directed to him by the speaker. He shall also cause the assistant doorkeeper and watchman to perform the duties of janitor.

Rule 61. The assistant sergeant-at-arms shall be under the supervision of the sergeant-at-arms, and perform such duties as that officer shall prescribe.

Rule 62. The doorkeeper shall attend the House during the sitting; shall give notice to the House of all messages; keep the representative hall and committee rooms in perfect order; and in all things execute the commands of the speaker of the House and the sergeant-at-arms.

Rule 63. The messenger and postmaster shall carry all messages that the House may require, private as well as public; distribute all mail matter, and in all things execute the commands of the speaker of the House.

Rule 64. The watchman shall be in charge of the representative hall and be responsible for the property therein when the House is not in session, between the hours of six p.m. and eight a.m.

Rule 65. The assistant doorkeeper and the watchman shall sweep the hall, keep the room heated and ventilated, keep closets connected with the hall in good order and condition. The assistant doorkeeper shall also perform the duties of the watchman during his absence, and such other duties as the House may require.

Rule 66. All clerks, except when acting under assignment, shall report to the chief clerk or assistant for duty one hour before the opening of each daily session. All other employees of the House, excepting the watchman, shall report for duty to the sergeant-at-arms daily at 9 a.m.

Rule 67. Any officer of the House or employee of the House, who shall neglect or refuse to perform any duties assigned to him, or when found in a state of intoxication, shall, when reported to the House in writing by a standing committee, be subject to a reprimand, and for a second offense he be removed, by a majority vote of the House.

Mr. Eddy moved to adopt the report.

Amendment to rule 50, by Mr. Heath, of Chehalis county:

Amend rule 50 of report of committee by substituting words "two-thirds" in place of words "three-fourths" in the last clause thereof.

The amendment was adopted.

Motion to amend rule 5, by Mr. Milroy, of Yakima county:

Move to amend by striking out of rule 5 all words after "appeal to the House," and that a new rule be inserted under the sub-head of "appeal from the chair" after rule 8, to be rule 9 and to read as follows: "The decision of the chair may be appealed from by any two members, on which appeal no member shall speak more than once unless by leave of the House;" that the clerk re-number in accordance herewith.

On motion, the amendment was adopted.

Amendment by Mr. Rader, of Pierce county:

Motion to strike out the portion of report referring to printing of bills at request of member introducing same, unless otherwise ordered by the House.

On motion, the amendment was adopted.

The report as amended was adopted.
On motion of Mr. Cline, the old rules are to be in force until the new ones are printed.

Resolution by Mr. Scobey:

Resolved, That the state librarian be requested to furnish to each member of this House a copy of the House and Senate journals of the session of 1893.

On motion, the resolution was adopted.
On motion the house adjourned at 1:10 P.M.

Edward C. Finch, Chief Clerk.

Eighth Day.

Afternoon Session.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Washington, Monday, January 21, 1895.
2 o'clock P. M.

The House was called to order at 2 o'clock P. M.; Speaker Morrison in the chair.

The session was opened with prayer by the Rev. T. J. Lamont, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Olympia.

The roll was called. All the members were present except Messrs. Moore and Heath.

The absent members were excused from attendance at this session.

The chief clerk was also excused at the request of the speaker.

The clerk began the reading of the journal of the fifth day when, on motion of Dr. Cloes, further reading was dispensed with and the journal was approved.

The journal of the sixth day was approved as read.
Mr. Cornelius Lyman, member-elect from Columbia county, was present, and the speaker administered the usual oath of office.

Auditor's Office,

Olympia, January 21, 1895.

_Hon. Don G. Lovell, Sergeant-at-Arms, House of Representatives, Olympia, Washington:_

Dear Sir—This chair is for the use of the speaker of the House of Representatives, Hon. Ellis Morrison, during the legislative session of 1895.

Respectfully,

L. R. Grimes, State Auditor.

Mr. Coon read the communication above, and in an eloquent speech presented the chair to the speaker for his use during the session.

The speaker announced the following changes on the standing committees:

Mr. Miller of Pierce to be chairman of the Committee on Mileage, Salaries and Contingent Expenses, Mr. Lyman to remain a member of the committee.

On the Committee on State Normal Schools, the name of Mr. Biggs was substituted for Mr. Schively.

Mr. Nelson was given Mr. Foster's place on the Committee on Mines and Mining, and Mr. Foster Mr. Nelson's place on the Committee on Commerce and Manufactures.

Message from the Senate.

Senate Chamber,

Olympia, Wash., January 21, 1895.

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has adopted House concurrent resolution No. 12, Resolutions of respect to the memory of the late Hon. J. P. Stewart.

The Senate has adopted by roll call the report and amendment to the joint rules submitted by the joint committee on rules.

And the same are herewith returned to the House.

T. G. Nicklin, Secretary.

Special Order.

The hour of 2 o'clock having arrived, the House took under consideration House bill No. 482, the general appropriation bill, session of 1895, and veto message.

State of Washington, Office of Secretary of State,

Olympia, January 16, 1895.

_Hon. Ellis Morrison, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Olympia, Washington:_

Sir—I have the honor to transmit herewith House bill No. 482, session of 1893, certain items of which were vetoed by the governor, and which was filed in this office within the time prescribed by the constitution. The veto message is attached to the bill.

I am, very respectfully,

J. H. Price, Secretary of State.

STATE OF WASHINGTON, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
OLYMPIA, March 17, 1893.

Hon. J. H. Price, Secretary of State:

SIR—I herewith transmit to you, for filing in your office, House bill No. 482, entitled "An act making appropriations for sundry civil expenses of the state government for the fiscal term beginning April 1, 1893, and ending March 31, 1895, and for other purposes," with my approval, excepting the following items:

Page 1, line 17: For messenger in governor's office at $1,000 per year, $2,000.

Page 1, line 31: For extra clerical assistance in the office of secretary of state, to be paid only upon properly certified vouchers, at $1,000 per year, $2,000.

Page 2, line 29: For extra clerical assistance in office of state auditor, to be paid only upon properly certified vouchers, at $1,000 per year, $2,000.

Page 3, line 13: For extra clerical assistance in the office of state treasurer, to be paid only upon properly certified vouchers, $500.

Page 4, line 14: For subdivision of school lands, $10,000.

Page 4, line 15: For a contingent fund, to be expended by the attorney general under the direction of the state land commission in defending state, school and granted lands in cases before the United States land offices and the superior courts of the state, and establishing the non-mineral character of school lands, $10,000.

Page 6, line 25: For salary of state geologist at $2,400 a year, $4,800.

Page 6, line 28: For contingent and traveling expenses of state geologist and mining bureau at $1,000 per year, $2,000.

Page 6, line 30: For rent of office at $300 per year, $600.

Page 11, line 31: For the maintenance of the Cheney normal school at $12,500 per year, $25,000.

Page 11, line 33: For the erection of buildings for the Cheney normal school, $60,000.

Page 12, line 14: For the location and maintenance of normal school in Whatcom county, $6,000.

Page 12, line 18: For the erection of a building for the state normal school in Whatcom county, $30,000.

Page 13, line 2: For agricultural experiment station building at the agricultural college and school of science, $10,000.

In accordance with art. III, sec. 12 of the constitution of the state, I withhold my approval from the above specified items for these reasons: The assumption of statehood by the Territory of Washington has necessarily involved the adoption of a much more comprehensive and complicated system of government than formerly sufficed. The inevitable consequence has been the expenditure of much more of the public funds for the absolutely imperative needs of the several branches of government. With vast resources, surpassing, in fact, the comprehension of many people of older and more settled states, the people of our new commonwealth, irrespective of politics, have demanded the creation and establishment of state institutions worthy of the undoubtedly great future of the state, and have embodied general provision for many such institutions in the organic law.

Through their representatives in the legislature, an enthusiastic and aspiring people have asked that special provision shall, at this time, be made for the public institutions, as well as for the extraordinary expense incurred in procuring, setting up and keeping in order the new and expensive machinery of statehood. In this condition a serious danger may threaten the future of the state, which the executive should endeavor to avert.

The problem before the government of the state for solution now, and for some years to come, I take it, is to reconcile as far as possible the actual and imperative needs of the people with the actual income of the state, so that neither the present nor the future may be overburdened with a heavy or unconstitutional burden of taxation or indebtedness, and yet without cheese-paring or unwise economy.

The wisest and most conservative judgment, and the best advise to be had upon this subject, consistent with liberal provision for the demands of the people, lead me to the conclusion that the proper and legal course to be pursued is to bring the legislative appropriations as nearly as possible within the income of the state. I only regret that, in order to permit the various state institutions to perform their functions, I am compelled to consent to the creation of so large an estimated deficit; but I think it time to say stop to those whose enthusiastic extravagance would discount so largely the future resources of the state. The laws enacted at the recent session of the legislature provide for an expenditure from the general fund of $2,302,683.19 during the next two years. The estimated income of the state during the same period will be $1,668,000. Out of the items of appropriation which I have approved, it is provided that $304,000 shall be repaid out of the sale of public lands belonging to the state. This will leave, after deducting the items disapproved, an estimated deficit of $152,043.19.

Under article VIII, section 1 of the constitution, it is provided that the state may, to meet casual deficits or failure in revenue or for expenses not provided for, contract debts, but such debts direct and contingent, singly and in the aggregate, shall not at any time exceed $400,000.

To approve of the appropriation bill as it stands would, therefore, to my mind, clearly involve an unconstitutional deficit largely in excess of a just public demand, and would also involve a sale of public lands to an extent which would be contrary to public policy.

After consultation with the heads of the several state departments, whose pressing needs are really in excess of the amounts appropriated, and after full consideration of the most imperative needs of the people, I am therefore, constrained to withhold my approval of the items specified, although all of them may be worthy and proper subjects for legislative appropriation whenever the income of the state and the provisions of the constitution may warrant their approval. Respectfully yours, J. H. McGraw, Governor.

On motion, the rules were suspended, the roll called and the governor's veto of House bill No. 482 sustained.

Those who voted to pass the bill notwithstanding the governor's veto were: Yeas, 0.

Those who voted nay were: Messrs. Albertson, Allen, Baker, Barge, Baum, Biggs, Bull, Burrows, Bush, Callow, Cantwell, Catlin, Cheetham, Cline, Cloes, Collin, Conner, Coon, Curtiss, Eddy, Fishburn, Fenton, Foster, Gandy, Gerry, Gibson, Glen, Goddard, Haffey, Halteman, Ham, Hanford, Hatch, Irving, Johnston, Kegley, Kittinger, Laing, Lillie, Loggie, Lyman, Merchant, Miller, Miles, Milroy, Mills, Morgan, Murray, Mc Ardle, McAuley, McDonnell, Nims, Nelson, Nettleton, Phelps, Rader, Reynolds, Rogers, Runner, Schively, Scokey, Scott, Seevers, Smith, Spencer, Taylor (J. C.), Taylor (F. T.), Temple, Terry, Tull, Van Eaton, Wing, Williams, Witt, Woodworth, and Mr. Speaker — 76.

Absent or not voting: Messrs. Heath and Moore — 2.

The veto was sustained.

According to the resolution previously introduced, the speaker appointed Messrs. Schively, Kittinger and Cloes as a committee on securing committee rooms.
The following communication from the secretary of state was read:

STATE OF WASHINGTON, OFFICE OF SECRETARY OF STATE, OLYMPIA, JANUARY 17, 1895.

To the Honorable Speaker of the House of Representatives:

Sir—I am in receipt of a copy of a resolution of your honorable body requesting that the House be furnished copies of the Session Laws of 1891 and of 1893, together with the Journals of 1893 and Hill's Code.

In reply I beg to say that the remaining copies of the Session Laws are in the possession of Hon. L. R. Grimes, state auditor; the Journals are in the custody of Colonel Gilbert, the state librarian; the Code must be purchased from Messrs. Bancroft-Whitney Company, as the supply was exhausted by the legislative session of 1891.

I am, very respectfully, J. H. PRICE, Secretary of State.

On motion of Mr. Scobey, the communication was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

House resolution by Mr. Schively, of Whatcom:

Resolved, That a committee of seven members be appointed by the speaker to group the standing committees of this House for committee clerks and recommend compensation for the same, said clerks to be afterward selected by the respective chairmen of the several groups and the names submitted to the House for ratification.

On motion of Mr. Conner, the resolution was adopted.

Resolution introduced by Mr. Coon, of Snohomish.

Resolved, That the secretary of state be and he is hereby directed and empowered to immediately procure, for the use of the members of this House, by purchase or otherwise, seventy-eight copies of volumes one and two of Hills Annotated Codes and Statutes of the State of Washington, which volumes when so procured shall be and remain the property of the state, and, upon the final adjournment of this House, shall be turned over by the members thereof, in whose possession they may be, to the chief clerk, who shall cause the same to be delivered to the secretary of state for safe keeping, so that said volumes may be used by subsequent legislatures.

Adopted on motion of Mr. McArdle.

To the Honorable, the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Washington:

We, the undersigned, citizens of Spokane county, believing that the re-monetization of silver is essential to the prosperity of this country, do respectfully petition your honorable body:

1. That you elect to the senate of the United States an honest and aggressive friend of free coinage; a man whose position in regard to free and unlimited coinage of silver by the United States, regardless of any international agreement, at the ratio of sixteen to one, has never been equivocal or a matter of doubt. A man who has the capabilities that will demand and hold for him the respect and recognition of that august assembly, the United States senate.

2. That you memorialize congress to enact a law for the free and unlimited coinage of silver and gold at the present ratio.

The petition was referred to the Committee on Memorials.

Those voting for Levi Ankeny were: Bull, Burrows, Campbell, Eddy, Fishburn, Foss, Frink, Gilbert, Halteman, Helm, Hutchinson, Kittinger, Lillie, Loggie, Lyman, Merchant, Miles, Mills, Morgan, Nettleton, Pusey, Sergeant, Taylor (F. T.), Terry, Van Houten, Washburn, Wilson, Wooding, and Mr. Speaker—29.

Those voting for John R. Rogers were: Allen, Baker, Catlin, Cheetham, Cline, Collin, Crow, Field, Gibson, Glen, Kegley, Laing, McArdle, McAuley, Phelps, Rader, Range, Runner, Scott, Seevers, Smith, Spencer, and Witt—23.

Those voting for H. C. Wallace were: Baum, Biggs, Donahoe, Gerry, Miller (of Walla Walla), McManus, and Shaw—7.

Mr. Rogers voted for Ahira Manring.

No person having received a majority of all the votes cast on joint ballot, the president instructed the clerk to again call the roll.

SECOND JOINT BALLOT.

On the second ballot Hon. John L. Wilson received the votes of 26 senators and representatives.

Twenty-nine senators and representatives voted for Hon. Levi Ankeny.

Sixteen senators and representatives voted for Hon. John B. Allen.

Twenty-three senators and representatives voted for Hon. John R. Rogers.

Seven senators and representatives voted for Hon. Hugh C. Wallace.

One representative voted for Hon. Ahira Manring.

Those voting for John L. Wilson on the second joint ballot were: Bush, Callow, Cantwell, Cloes, Coon, Deckebach, Fenton, Foster, Gandy, Hall, Ham, Heath, Ide, Megler, Miller (of Pierce), Milroy, Moore, Nelson, Nims, Reynolds, Scobey, Taylor (E. W.), Taylor (J. C.), Temple, Tull, and Van Eaton—26.

Those voting for Levi Ankeny were: Bull, Burrows, Campbell, Eddy, Fishburn, Foss, Frink, Gilbert, Hatch, Helm, Hutchinson, Kittinger, Lillie, Loggie, Lyman, Merchant, Miles, Mills, Morgan, Nettleton, Pusey, Sergeant, Taylor (F. T.), Terry, Van Houten, Washburn, Wilson, Wooding, and Mr. Speaker—29.

Those voting for John R. Rogers were: Allen, Baker, Catlin, Cheetham, Cline, Collin, Crow, Field, Gibson, Glen, Kegley, Laing, McArdle, McAuley, Phelps, Rader, Range, Runner, Scott, Seevers, Smith, Spencer, and Witt — 23.

Those voting for Hugh C. Wallace were: Baum, Biggs, Donahoe, Gerry, Miller (of Walla Walla), McManus, and Shaw — 7.

Mr. Rogers voted for Ahira Mauring.

It appeared from the results of the second ballot that no person had a majority of all votes cast.

Senator Sergeant moved that the joint body do now dissolve.

The roll was called, and the joint body dissolved at 12:42 by a vote of 57 ayes to 55 noes.

Those voting against dissolving the joint convention were: Albertson, Baker, Baum, Belknap, Biggs, Catlin, Cheetham, Cline, Collin, Crow, Curtiss, Dorr, Easterday, Eddy, Field, Foster, Frink, Gandy, Gerry, Gibson, Glen, Goddard, Heath, Helm, Kegley, Kellogg, Lesh, Lewis, Loggie, Lyman, Merchant, Miller (of Pierce), Miles, Milroy, Moore, Morgan, McArdle, McDonnell, Nettleton, Rader, Range, Roberts, Rogers, Runner, Schively, Scott, Seevers, Smith, Spencer, Terry, Williams, Wing, Witt, and Wooding — 55.

The House resumed business at 12:45 P. M.

On motion of Dr. Gandy, the House adjourned at 12:50 P. M.

Edward C. Finch, Chief Clerk.
ELEVENTH DAY.

MORNING SESSION.

OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON, Thursday, January 24, 1895.

10 o'clock A. M.

The House was called to order at 10 o'clock A. M.; Speaker Morrison in the chair.

Rev. J. S. McCallum, pastor of the Christian church, Olympia, opened the session with prayer.

At roll call all the members were present except Messrs. McDonnell and Loggie, who were excused on account of illness.

Yesterday's journal was read and approved, after several minor corrections.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE.

SENATE CHAMBER,
OLYMPIA, WASH., January 24, 1895.

MR SPEAKER:

The Senate refuses to pass and returns herewith House concurrent resolution No. 16, for the appointment of a committee of three from the House and two from the Senate to confer with a like committee of the legislature of Oregon relative to uniform laws to regulate the fishing interests of the Columbia river, and respectfully requests the House to act on Senate concurrent resolution No. 6, now in the House, on the same subject.

The Senate has passed House joint resolution No. 3, relative to furnishing legislators with Barton's manual, amended by striking out the clause providing for returning the manuals to the state.

The Senate has passed House joint resolution No. 1, relative to printing rules and committees, and the president has appointed on the part of the Senate as such committee, Senators Brown and Wilson.

And the same are returned herewith.

T. G. NICKLIN, Secretary.

PETITIONS, ETC.

C.), Taylor (F. T.), Temple, Terry, Tull, Van Eaton, Williams, Wing, Witt, Woodworth, and Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Leavitt was declared elected committee clerk.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

MR. SPEAKER:

The Committee on Printing and Supplies, to which was referred House resolution, by McArdle, relating to the compiling and printing of the House journal daily, begs leave to report as follows:

In discussing the matter with State Printer White, it was learned that the cost of this work for the session would be about $1,200, or $20 a day, and the state printer is in doubt whether he can handle the work at all in case it is necessary to get out a House calendar, as is usually done toward the close of the session.

We find that the total cost of publishing the 500 copies of the House journal required under the present law has been about $2,100, which is more than $4 a copy. This makes them too costly for general circulation, and the committee is inclined to believe that it would be well to so amend the law as to provide for the publication of about 200 copies of the journal in the present style, for the use of the members of the legislature and state officers, etc., and in addition to these, have about 2,000 copies printed in cheaper form, with paper covers, which the state printer informs us can be sold for 75 cents or $1. We believe that in such form the journal would have general circulation throughout the state, and the state would thus receive some return for the cost of the more expensive volumes.
STATE OF WASHINGTON.

With the foregoing statements, the committee begs leave to return the resolution with recommendation that it be not adopted.

Respectfully submitted.

We concur:

J. W. MORGAN, Chairman.
A. J. MILLS,
JOSEPH MERCHANT,
WM. MCARDLE,
J. R. ROGERS,
M. S. FISHBURN,
L. E. RADER.

On motion of Mr. Baker, the report was adopted.

Harry West, of Thurston county, James A. Burcham, of Snohomish county, and G. A. Leavitt, of Pierce county, were duly sworn in as committee clerks by the speaker.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MILEAGE, SALARIES AND CONTINGENT EXPENSES.

MR. SPEAKER:

OLYMPIA, Jan. 23, 1895.

On motion, the report of the Committee on Mileage was adopted after several minor corrections which have been embodied in the original report.
Mr. Speaker:

Your committee appointed to look into the matter of committee rooms and report to this House, beg leave to report as follows:

Six rooms can be secured in the Union block, near the Olympia theater, all adjoining, electric lighted, heated and cared for, with an attendant during service of committees. Rooms are large, well lighted and ventilated. Price, $5 per day for the six rooms, lighted, heated and cared for. Two additional rooms may be secured on same floor at prorata price if desired. The committee respectfully recommend the selection at this time of the six rooms mentioned.

Respectfully submitted.

J. H. SCHIVELY, Chairman.

We concur in the above report:

J. O'B. SCOBEY,
J. W. CLOES,
GEO. B. KITTINGER.

Mr. Tull moved to adopt the report as read.

Mr. Cline moved as a substitute that that portion of the report relating to the Judiciary Committee be recommitted and the remainder adopted.

Mr. Cline's motion was adopted.

COMMITTEE REPORT.

OLYMPIA, WASH., JANUARY 25, 1895.

MR. SPEAKER:

The Committee on Printing and Supplies, to which was referred the matter of the delay in the printing of the House bills, begs leave to report as follows:

On investigation, we learned that the first House bills did not reach the state printer till 5:15 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, and at that time the Senate had on file with the state printer sixty-six bills for printing. Under the rules, all the Senate bills on file ahead of the House bills should have been printed first, but we find that the state printer is dividing the work in order to facilitate business in the two houses, so that no blame attaches to that officer in connection with the delay in printing our bills.

It will be remembered that there was a resolution offered in this House at the beginning of the session, providing that no bills should be printed unless reported favorably by the committee, and while this resolution was pending, no bills were sent to the printer.

The committee would recommend that hereafter all bills or other matter to be printed be sent to the state printer as soon as possible.

Respectfully submitted.

J. W. MORGAN, Chairman.

We concur:

J. W. CLOES,
M. S. FISHBURN,
L. E. RADER,
J. R. ROGERS,
A. J. MILLS,
JOE MERCHANT,
WM. MCARDLE,
J. H. SCHIVELY.

On motion, the report was adopted.

Resolution introduced by Mr. Witt:

Resolved, That the honorable speaker of this House instruct the sergeant-at-arms to take an inventory of the Senate files in the House, and if any of such files are missing, that he further instruct the sergeant-at-arms to purchase as many of such files as may be needed.

On motion, the resolution was adopted.

House concurrent resolution No. 17, by Mr. Mills: Relating to horticulture.

Referred to Committee on Horticulture, after first reading.

Absent or not voting: Messrs. Albertson, Baker, Cline, Eddy, Loggie, and Miles—6.

Mr. Burrows was excused from attendance at 11 o'clock for one-half hour.

The report of the majority of the chairmen of the group of committees named below was presented:

Mr. Speaker:

We, the undersigned chairmen of the committees on Education, Dikes, Drains and Drainage, County and County Boundaries, who were grouped together for the purpose of employing a clerk, would respectfully ask that J. W. Redington be appointed clerk of said committees.

J. C. Taylor,
H. S. Conner.

Mr. Taylor moved to adopt.

Mr. Williams moved to substitute the name of Miss Hattie McClannahan.

The House refused to accept the substitute by the following vote:

Mr. J. Watermelon Redington, of Pierce, was elected committee clerk by the following vote:

Absent or not voting: Messrs. Burrows, Cline, Conner, Eddy, Glen, Lillie, Loggie, Murray, Phelps, Rader, and Witt—11.

Mr. Redington was declared elected committee clerk.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE.

State of Washington, Department of State,
Olympia, January 24, 1895.

Hon. Ellis Morrison, Speaker of the House of Representatives:
Sir—Under the terms of an act approved March 10, 1893, the Olympia Water Works Company furnished water at the capitol for the term ending December 31, 1894. At my instruction the water service was continued at the beginning of the present year. It will be necessary for an appropriation to be made by the legislature to meet this expense.
Yours very respectfully,
J. H. Price, Secretary of State.

Referred to Committee on Claims and Auditing.
The Speaker of the House of Representatives:

SIR—The governor directs me to request that, in the event of the daily publication of your proceedings, a copy thereof be transmitted to the governor of the State of Michigan, at Lansing.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully yours,

E. C. Macdonald, Private Secretary.

The communication was read and ordered placed on file.

Introduced by Mr. Reynolds, of Lewis:

WHEREAS, The days of wonders have begun to wane, and it is still impossible for clerks or members to disintegrate themselves and be in numerous places at one and the same time: therefore, be it

Resolved, That in order to expedite and facilitate the business of the standing committees, that every chairman and clerk thereof convene at the reporters' table immediately upon adjournment of this House to-day and arrange the hour and the place of said meetings to the convenience of each and the prosperity of all.

On motion, the resolution was adopted.

Resolved, That the state land commission be required to furnish this body with information as to the amount of state lands and the number of acres selected in each county in the state.

On motion of Mr. Phelps, the resolution was adopted.

COMMUNICATION FROM TACOMA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

The following recommendations are submitted by a special committee of the Tacoma Chamber of Commerce for changes in existing laws by the present legislature, which have been carefully considered by the Tacoma Chamber of Commerce, and the secretary instructed to forward copies of same to the speaker of the House and the president of the Senate:

I.

We regard the subject of retrenchment the most important of all, and we recommend that there be a large cutting down of the salaries of all public officers which are not fixed by the constitution. These salaries might be reduced at least one-third without detriment to the public service. When these salaries were created the purchasing power of a dollar was not more than one-half of what it is now. If they were sufficient salaries then, one-half the amount would be sufficient now. We recognize the fact that, by reason of the constitutional inhibition, no salary of a public officer can be reduced during his term, so that the laws reducing such salaries would have to be framed to take effect as to those coming in office two years hence, but if such laws are not enacted now, such retrenchment will be delayed. (Committee on Compensation and Fees for State and County Officers.)
II.
We recommend the abolishing of all salaried justices of the peace in first class cities except one, and that the office of municipal judge be combined with that of the remaining justice of the peace at the present salary of the municipal judge. (Committee on Municipal Corporations.)

III.
We recommend that the number of superior judges in the state should not be more than one judge to each twenty thousand inhabitants. (Committee on Privileges and Elections.)

IV.
We recommend that no prosecuting attorney be allowed a deputy, except at his own expense. There is no district in this state, in our judgment, in which the business is large enough to justify the services of more than one lawyer. If an emergency arise, then special attorneys might be employed. (Committee on Privileges and Elections.)

V.
We recommend that the pay and mileage of the entire board of commissioners in any county be restricted to one thousand dollars per year. (Committee on Compensation and Fees for State and County Officers.)

VI.
We recommend that witness fees be cut down to one dollar and a half per day, and that no witness shall be allowed in criminal cases more than one fee per day, and that mileage should be one-half of the present rate, and that no peace officer should be allowed any witness fees when he is under salary and only allowed his actual expenses when the state has to pay the same. (Committee on Compensation and Fees for State and County Officers.)

VII.
We recommend that the fee of jurors be cut down to two dollars per day and their mileage be reduced to one-half the present rate. (Committee on Compensation and Fees for State and County Officers.)

VIII.
We recommend that only a certain number of witnesses, say three or four, to the same fact or same set of facts or circumstances should be entitled to fees. There should be some limit to the right to pile up testimony to prove the same facts. (Committee on Judiciary.)

IX.
We recommend that a law be enacted disallowing fees for holding inquests when there is no mystery connected with the death. It is a common practice to hold inquests when the cause of death is well known and where there is a score of witnesses to the cause of death. (Committee on Judiciary.)
X.

We recommend that, for the present, appropriations for annual encampments of the militia should be done away with, purely on the score of economy, although we recognize and take pride in having an efficient militia. (Committee on Military Affairs and Soldiers' Home.)

XI.

We recommend that the law be changed so that the governor shall hereafter appoint all general officers of the militia who are required now by law to be elected by the votes of certain officers of the militia, who are allowed mileage and pay for going to and returning from the place where the election is held. There is no necessity for this public expense. (Committee on Military Affairs and Soldiers' Home.)

XII.

We recommend that all appropriations, except for governmental, industrial and immigration purposes and for institutions already in existence, should cease for the present, and all such institutions should be run on the most economical basis. (Committee on Appropriations.)

XIII.

We recommend that the appropriations for running the different state departments be considerably reduced, and that the force and expense necessary to conduct them be reduced to the minimum. (Committee on Appropriations.)

XIV.

We recommend the enactment of a law by which cities and counties could fund their outstanding indebtedness and by which they would then be prevented from issuing any warrants bearing more than 6 per cent. interest, or that the aggregate amount of warrants issued shall never exceed one-half of the levy of the preceding year. (Committee on Judiciary.)

XV.

We recommend that the state be authorized to borrow money within the constitutional limit to meet current expenses, after the money in the treasury is exhausted, and until the taxes will be paid into the treasury, say eight months at not to exceed 5 per cent. interest, and that the governor and secretary of state be authorized to execute notes for the same, and that no state warrants shall bear to exceed 6 per cent. interest. (Committee on Judiciary.)

XVI.

We recommend that state, county and city warrants, issued after the funding of the indebtedness as heretofore recommended, should be receivable for taxes, that is to say, state warrants for state taxes, county warrants for county taxes, and city warrants for city taxes. (Committee on Judiciary.)

XVII.

We recommend that a general law be passed for the incorporation of cities of the first class. This law should be gotten up with great care.
and should be prepared by three first class lawyers, one from each of the three first class cities of the state. (Committee on Judiciary.)

XVIII.

We recommend the passage of a homestead exemption law, providing for exemption for a homestead in the city to the extent of two lots, and a house to the value of not to exceed five thousand dollars, or in the country a forty acre farm with improvements with a value of not to exceed five thousand dollars. (Committee on Revenue and Taxation.)

XIX.

We recommend that, in selling real estate under execution, the sheriff be required to give at least twenty days' notice in writing, if the premises are occupied, to the party in possession, stating the fact of levy, date, hour and place of sale, otherwise to the defendant's attorney if the record discloses one. (Committee on Judiciary.)

XX.

We recommend that the county clerks in this state be required to give a suitable bond. (Committee on Judiciary.)

XXI.

We recommend the passage of a strict usury law, limiting the rate of interest by contract to 8 per cent. (Committee on Revenue and Taxation.)

XXII.

We recommend that cities be empowered to create a more reliable fund to sustain public libraries. Under the present system they are supported by a percentage of the fines and licenses. (Committee on Municipal Corporations.)

XXIII.

We recommend that the number of names on the list from which jurors are drawn, be increased, and that in the event of a juror being drawn who has served on the regular panel within two preceding years, it shall be a ground for challenge for cause. (Committee on Judiciary.)

XXIV.

We recommend that the legislature create a state bureau of immigration. (Committee on Federal Relations and Immigration.)

I hereby certify that the above is a true copy of the recommendations for changes in existing laws adopted at meetings of the Tacoma chamber of commerce, held January 11 and 15, 1895.

SAMUEL COLLYER, Secretary.

The recommendations were read and referred to the committees named after each paragraph.
MR. SPEAKER:

We, your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred House bill No. 150, entitled "An act relating to county commissioners, and repealing sections — of the Laws of Washington, as compiled and annotated by W. mittee on Claims and Auditing was adopted at Saturday's session, was reconsidered.

Mr. Halteman presented the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on Enrolled and Engrossed Bills be allowed the services of one additional clerk.

On motion of Mr. Cline, that portion relating to the names was stricken out.

Mr. Cline moved to amend the resolution still further by striking out the word "three" and inserting the word "one."

The amendment was adopted by a divisional vote.

Nominations for an assistant to the enrolling clerk:

Mr. Halteman nominated Mr. Van Bokkelen.

On motion of Mr. Albertson, the report of the committee was adopted.

AN ACT providing for the taking of testimony in certain legislative proceedings, and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. Every chairman or presiding member of any committee of either the Senate or House of Representatives, or any joint committee of the Senate and House of Representatives, which, by the terms of its appointment, shall be authorized to send for persons and papers, shall have power, under the direction of such committees, to issue compulsory process for the attendance of any witness within the state whom the committee may wish to examine.

SEC. 2. The chairman or presiding member of any committee of either the Senate, House of Representatives, or any joint committee thereof, shall be authorized to administer oaths to all witnesses coming before such committee for examination; and all witnesses who shall testify in any proceeding provided for in this act shall be under oath or affirmation.

SEC. 3. Every such chairman or presiding member shall also have power, under the direction of the committee, to issue a commission for the examination of any witness who shall be without the jurisdiction of the state, or if within the state, shall be unable to attend, or who shall, for any reasons, be excused by the committee from attendance.

SEC. 4. Whenever such committee shall obtain authority for that purpose from the Senate or House, or legislature, by which it may be appointed, it may issue such commission to be executed during the recess of the legislature.

SEC. 5. Every such commission shall be directed to such magistrate, or other person, as the committee may designate, and interrogatories framed by the committee shall be annexed thereto.

SEC. 6. The person to whom such commission shall be directed, if he resides within the state and accepts the trust, shall, before entering upon the execution of his duties, take the oath of office prescribed in the constitution. Such commissioner shall have the power to issue process to compel the attendance of witnesses whom he shall be required to examine, and shall have power to administer oaths to such witnesses.

SEC. 7. Unless otherwise directed by the committee, it shall in all cases be the duty of the commissioner to examine in private every witness attending before him, and not to make public the particulars of such examination, when so made in private, until the same shall be made public by order of the house or legislature appointing the committee.

SEC. 8. Every witness so attending shall be examined on oath or affirmation, and his testimony shall be reduced to writing by the commissioner, or by some disinterested person in his presence and under the direction of such commissioner, and signed by the witness.

SEC. 9. When a commission shall have been duly executed, the commissioner shall annex thereto the depositions of the witnesses, duly certified by him, and shall, without delay, transmit the same by mail, inclosed and under seal, or deliver the same, to the chairman of the committee by which the commission shall have been issued, or to such person as by the committee directed.

SEC. 10. A person executing any such commission shall be paid, out of the state treasury, the same fees that are allowed by law for the taking of depositions on commissions issued out of the superior courts of this state, and any witness attending before either house of the legislature, or any committee or joint committee thereof, or before any such commissioner, shall be paid two (2) dollars per day for each day in attendance, and five (5) cents a mile for the distance necessarily traveled in attending as such witness.

SEC. 11. A person who, being duly summoned to attend as a witness before either house of the legislature, or any committee or joint committee thereof, or commissioner, authorized to summon witnesses, refuses or neglects, without lawful excuse, to attend pursuant to such summons, shall be punished as for contempt as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 12. A person who, being present before either house of the legislature, or any committee or joint committee thereof, or commissioner, authorized to summon witnesses, willfully refuses to be sworn or affirmed, or to answer any material and proper question, or to produce upon reasonable notice any material and proper books, papers or documents in his possession or under his control, shall be punished as for contempt as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 13. Any person being in contempt, as hereinbefore provided, shall be punished by fine in any sum not less than fifty (50) dollars and not exceeding one thousand (1,000) dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail in the county where such examination is being had, for any period of time not extending beyond the legislative session then being held, or by both such fine and imprisonment, as the legislative body which authorized such examination may order. And in case the contempt arises in a joint proceeding of both houses, or before a joint committee thereof, the Senate shall prescribe the penalty.

SEC. 14. If any fine is imposed against any person for contempt, as hereinbefore provided, he shall stand committed to the county jail of the county in which the offense was committed until such fine is paid. The presiding officer of the house fixing the fine shall issue a warrant to the sheriff of the county where the offense was committed, commanding him to imprison such person in the county jail until such fine is paid, or until he has been imprisoned in such jail one (1) day for every three (3) dollars of such fine.

SEC. 15. All processes provided for in this act may be served in the same manner as is prescribed by law for the service of process in the superior court; and it shall be the duty of any officer to whom any process may be delivered or issued, to serve the same as directed: Provided, That in the service of process, a copy thereof shall be delivered to the witness.

SEC. 16. Every such committee shall keep a record of its proceedings under the provisions of this act, which record shall be signed by the chairman or presiding officer of the committee, and the same returned to the legislative body by which the committee was appointed as a part of the report of such committee.

SEC. 17. Whereas, there is no statute now providing for the taking of testimony before legislative committees in this state, and public necessity requires the enactment of such a law, an emergency is hereby declared to exist, and this act shall take effect immediately.

Mr. Conner moved that the House do now adjourn.

The House refused to adjourn.

OLYMPIA, WASH., February 9, 1895.

Mr. Speaker:

We, your Committee on Constitutional Revision, to whom was referred House bill No. 227, entitled "An act providing for submitting to the qualified electors, for ratification, a constitutional amendment to be voted upon at a general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1896," have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House of Representatives with the recommendation that it do not pass, for the reason that there is not sufficient change sought to be effected to warrant the necessary expense that would accrue.

Respectfully submitted.

A. M. Moore, Chairman.

Moses Bull,
L. B. Nims,
Chas. E. Gibson,
Solon T. Williams.

On motion of Mr. Moore, the report of the committee was adopted.

Mr. J. A. Van Bokkelen, of Jefferson county, was sworn in by the speaker as assistant enrolling clerk.
On motion of Mr. Taylor (J. C.), the House adjourned at 5:10 o'clock P. M.

Edward C. Finch, Chief Clerk.

Mr. Schively was given permission to present the report of the Committee on Memorials on House memorial No. 13 out of order.

The report is as follows:

HOUSE MEMORIAL No. 13, by Mr. Schively: A memorial memorializing congress to reject house of representatives bill No. 8504, entitled "A bill to improve the public surveys, and for other purposes."

WHEREAS. A bill has been introduced in the national house of representatives to consolidate the coast, geodetic, geological and public land surveys under one head, thereby centralizing all the surveys in Washington city, and abolishing the present system of surveys of the public land by contract under the supervision of the various surveyors general, and doing said public land surveys by paid employes detailed from Washington city; and

WHEREAS, The passage of said bill would very materially retard the settlement of the public domain, and increase the expense in the execution of the surveys of the public lands; and

WHEREAS, Such an act would work a great injustice to the settlers on unsurveyed lands, taking the management of said surveys from the surveyor general, who resides in the state and knows the wants of the settlers better than could be known by a scientific bureau so far removed from the field of operations as Washington city; and

WHEREAS, The State of Washington is entitled to consideration in this matter in view of the fact that its payments for public lands are equal to those of any other state in the union: therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Washington, the Senate concurring therein, That our senators be instructed, and our representatives in congress be requested, to use all honorable means to defeat the passage of said bill; and be it further

Resolved, That a certified copy be transmitted by the secretary of state to each of our senators and representatives in congress.

Committee on Memorials recommends passage of the above.

Wm. Callow, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY.

OLYMPIA, WASH., February 8, 1895.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred House bill No. 74, entitled "An act to require the county clerk to execute a bond, prescribing the amount and manner of execution, and providing a penalty for failure," have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House of Representatives with the recommendation that it be amended as shown by the typewritten copy hereto attached, and as so amended that the same do pass.

Respectfully submitted. R. B. MILROY, Chairman.

We concur in this report:

T. V. EDDY.

AN ACT relating to the bonds of county clerks, and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. That every county clerk, before he enters on the duties of his office, shall enter into bond payable to the State of Washington, with good and sufficient sureties, as provided by law for other county officers; the amount to be fixed and the bond to be approved by the judge or a majority of the judges presiding over the court of which he is clerk. The bond shall be conditioned that he will faithfully perform the duties of his office, and account for and pay over all moneys which may come into his hands by virtue of his office, and that he, his executors or administrators, will deliver to his successor, safe and undefaced, all books, records, papers, seals, apparatus and furniture belonging to his office, and cause said bond to be filed in the office of the county treasurer of his said county, after it has been recorded in a book kept for that purpose by the county auditor.

SEC. 2. That the bond of said county clerk shall in no case be in a penal sum less than double the amount of money which said judge or judges, or a majority of them, may, by order of said court, entered on the records of said court, fix upon as liable to come into his hands as clerk; and it shall be the duty of the judge or judges of the court of which he is clerk, to require that said bond be sufficient and in a penal sum double the amount of moneys liable to come into the hands of said clerk.

SEC. 3. When the judge or judges of any court, or a majority of them, shall believe that the clerk of said court has not a good and sufficient bond on file, or that said bond is not large enough in amount, as herein required, the said judge or judges shall enter an order requiring him, within such time as may be specified in said order, to execute and present to said judge or judges a good and sufficient bond, as hereinbefore described, in such sum as may be fixed by said order; and, in case of his failure to make and file said bond within ten days from the expiration of the date fixed by said order for the making of the same, it shall be the duty of the judge or judges of said court to declare the office of said county clerk vacant.

SEC. 4. It shall be the duty of the superior court of each county in this state, through its judge or judges, to make an order upon the going into effect of this act, requiring the county clerk of such superior court, in office at said time, to make and file, as above provided, a bond as such county clerk, within such time and in such amount as may be fixed by said order of court; and upon the failure of such county clerk to comply with the requirements of said order within thirty days from the expiration of the period fixed thereby for the filing of said bond, it shall be the duty of said superior court, through its judge or judges, to declare the office of such county clerk vacant.

SEC. 5. Whereas, the existing laws do not provide an adequate method for bonds to be given by county clerks, and the public interests require that such method should be forthwith provided, an emergency is hereby declared, and this act shall take effect from and after its passage and approval by the governor.

On motion of Mr. Williams the report was adopted.

The bill was read the second time.

The motion prevailed, and House joint resolution No. 2 was reconsidered and re-committed to the Committee on Judiciary.

On motion of Mr. Milroy, the sergeant-at-arms was instructed to procure cloth bound rules for various members.

Motion by Mr. Scobey:

February 14, 1895.

I hereby give notice that I shall, on to-morrow, move to amend House rule 32 so that it shall read as follows:

RULE 32. Every bill shall be read on three several days unless the House deem it expedient to suspend this rule. The first reading shall be by title only, unless a majority of the members present demand a reading in full. All bills shall be printed, unless otherwise ordered by the House, and be referred to committee after first reading. Bills shall pass to second reading when reported back by the committee. Each amendment made by a committee to a bill shall be in writing on a separate slip of paper, and shall be securely attached to the original bill (by a paper fastener). The report of the committee shall also contain a statement of all amendments agreed to by the committee. Any committee report on a bill not conforming with this rule shall be returned by the chief clerk of the House to the committee for a compliance with this rule without further order by the House. Upon second reading, bills shall be read section by section, in full, and be subject to amendment. No amendment shall be considered by the House until it shall have been sent to the desk in writing and have been read by the clerk. All amendments adopted on second reading shall be securely attached to the original bill (by a paper fastener). Amendments rejected by the House shall be passed to the journal clerk, and the journal shall show the disposition of such amendments. When no further amendments shall be offered, the speaker shall declare that the bill has passed its second reading. The bill, with the amendments, if there be any attached thereto, shall be sent to the Committee on Engrossed and Enrolled Bills, which committee shall see that all amendments are properly engrossed upon the original bill, and the bill returned to the chief clerk before the opening of the House on the next succeeding day, and the bill shall then come up in its regular order for a third reading. Bills on third reading shall be read in full by sections. The only question on the third reading of a bill shall be upon its passage, and no amendment shall be entertained.
On motion of Mr. Coon, the rule was amended by striking out "by a paper fastener" in the proposed rule.

On motion of Mr. Scobey, the rule as amended was adopted.

Resolution presented by Mr. Bush:

Resolved, That the special committee appointed by this House, consisting of Messrs. Bush, Hanford and Ham, be authorized to meet a like committee from the Oregon legislature at Portland, Oregon, for the purpose of a joint conference on the subject of concurrent legislation on the subject of fisheries.

The resolution was adopted, and the committee were granted a leave of absence.

The speaker appointed the following visiting and investigating committees:

The bill was read the third time in full, as follows:

AN ACT to provide for voting on a constitutional amendment at the general election to be held in November, 1896, relative to the qualifications of electors.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. That at the general election to be held in November, 1896, there shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the State of Washington the following amendment to section 1, article 6 of the constitution of the State of Washington: Section 1. All male persons of the age of twenty-one years or over, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections: They shall be citizens of the United States; they shall have lived in the state one year, and in the county ninety days, and in the city, town, ward or precinct thirty days immediately preceding the election at which they offer to vote; they shall be able to read (and speak the English language): Provided, That Indians not taxed shall never be allowed the election franchise: And further provided, That this amendment shall not affect the right of franchise of any person who is now a qualified elector of this state. The legislature shall enact laws defining the manner of ascertaining the qualifications of voters as to their ability to read (and speak the English language), and providing for punishment of persons voting or registering in violation of the provisions of this section.

SEC. 2. The secretary of state shall cause the foregoing amendment to be published for three months next preceding said election, to be held in November, 1896, in some weekly newspaper in every county within this state wherein a newspaper is published.

SEC. 3. That there shall be printed on all the ballots supplied for said election the words "For proposed amendments to section 1, article 6 of constitution, relative to qualifications of electors; against proposed amendment to section 1, article 6 of constitution, relative to qualifications of electors."

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The House was called to order at 2 o'clock p. m.; the speaker in the chair.

REPORT OF THE JOINT COMMITTEE TO VISIT THE SCHOOL FOR DEFECTIVE YOUTH.

To the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Your joint committee appointed to visit the Washington school for defective youth, located near Vancouver, begs leave to report as follows:

We visited the school on Thursday and Friday, February 14 and 15, and gave to the institution as thorough an examination in all of its branches as the time and circumstances would permit. The first day was spent in the class rooms, work shops and in a general examination of the buildings and grounds connected with the institution. The second day was given by the committee to an examination of the books and accounts and the general business management of the school.

In the class rooms the committee spent a most interesting and instructive day, and one which impressed every member with the importance of the work that is being carried on there for defective humanity in the State of Washington. The school is thorough and comprehensive in its scope and work. What would appear to the average person impos-sibilities in the way of educating the deaf, dumb and blind, are being accomplished there, and the rapid improvement of the children is noted even by the casual observer. The most modern methods of instruction are in vogue, and the instructors appear to be especially qualified for the work they are doing, by their natural love for it no less than on account of the training they have received. This is especially true of Mr. and Mrs. Watson, the former being director and the latter matron of the institution. Mr. and Mrs. Watson have built up the school into a model home, and the children appear to love them quite as sincerely as they do their own parents; in fact, every one of the children questioned by members of the committee stated that it was their desire to remain in the school, where they are being given an education and receive the kindest of treatment from those in charge. They are well clothed and well fed, and their obedience to discipline is reflected by the fact that cases of corporal punishment are rarely known in the institution.

The magnitude and importance of the work that is being carried on in this school cannot be overestimated and every citizen of the state can feel a just pride in it. The state cannot desert these unfortunate children even at this time, when economy and retrenchment are demanding and receiving so much attention from the people. It would be idle and profitless to take from them any of the necessary moneys which ought to be expended in their behalf that other institutions not so close to the bosom of mankind might live. The weakling at our own fireside will not be neglected, nor their measure of needs curtailed, that things of a luxurious nature might prosper. To clothe the naked, to feed the hungry, to shelter the homeless is charitable, but to lead the blind into ways of self support and teach the dumb to carve their own fortunes, is an achievement of which the state ought to be proud. In proportion to their mental defects these unfortunate children cling to the state with an affection worthy of a child to its real mother. The state cannot halt in the matter of generous necessary appropriations.

Once more this committee desires to give to Mr. and Mrs. Watson and to Mrs. Morley, matron of the department for feeble minded, the warmest commendation for the manner in which they are carrying on their work in the educational line in this institution. The department for feeble minded is in a separate building from the deaf and blind school, located over half a mile distant. The work that is being carried on there is quite as marvelous as that in the other school, and the instructors are demonstrating the wisdom of maintaining an institution where this unfortunate class of humanity is not only being cared for, but is also being developed into useful citizenship.

BUSINESS MANAGEMENT.

The committee regrets that the same unstinted praise that is due the educational department of the institution cannot be freely accorded to the business management of the school. However, the committee believes that the fault lies more with the defects in the present law than with any incapacity on the part of the trustees. The present law provides for a board of five trustees, three of whom shall have special qualifications—one to be a lawyer, one to be an educator and one to be a doctor. The committee is unanimously of the opinion that this portion of the law should be entirely changed so as to reduce the number of trustees to three, only one of whom shall be a resident of Vancouver or Clarke county. Under the present law these trustees serve without pay, and the committee believes that this is also a mistake, the records of the institution showing that meetings are seldom held, the trustees visiting the school as individuals and as a board, showing less interest in the business management of the school than they would if they were being dealt with by the state on more of a business basis. The state intends to work a hardship on no man, and trustees of an institution of this kind cannot be expected to devote the necessary time to its business unless they are at least partially recompensed for their services.

We would recommend that the trustees be paid five dollars per day, each, while actually in session as a board, and that the two outside members of the board be paid either mileage or expenses in addition to their per diem. The books and vouchers of the Vancouver school that were examined by the committee show that two members of the board have practically attended to the business management of the institution, and one trustee who was questioned by the committee appeared to know very little about the business management of the school or the needs for the future in the way of appropriations, referring this committee to another member of the board of trustees who had been more active in the management. Too much of the business management is left to the director, who ought to be free to devote his entire time to the educational department of the school, as would be the case with a smaller board that held stated meetings, which meetings would not be necessary more than once in three months, thus making the expense almost nominal to the state.

The committee does not believe it is necessary to have trustees for this institution with special qualifications other than that they should be successful business men. The director of the school can be trusted to look after the educational work, and when the advice of an attorney is necessary the state's attorney general can be called upon. Next to the educational work of the school it is important to have careful financial management, and it is false economy to save a few dollars by cutting off the per diem of trustees selected to direct the financial management of an institution of such magnitude.

The present law for handling the funds of this institution should also be changed. The report of the treasurer of the board of trustees shows that he had on hand on June 30, 1894, over $19,000, and yet he is required to give a bond for only $5,000. This is manifestly absurd, and the committee recommends that the law be so changed as to place the funds of this institution in the same shape as those of the reform school and state penitentiary, payable only on vouchers properly audited by the state auditor. Under the present financial system governing the institution there is an air of extravagance prevalent that would be rectified, we believe, by the changes in the law as herein suggested.
In the report of the board of trustees for the school for defective youth an appropriation of $77,323 is asked for the maintenance of the school during the next two years, and appropriations aggregating $15,310 are asked for various improvements. After carefully going over the itemized list of expenses as estimated for the coming two years, and consulting with Director Watson in regard to the same, this committee is of the opinion that the sum of $65,763 will be sufficient for the maintenance of the institution for the coming two years, and it is hereby recommended that this amount be so appropriated.

For improvements the sum of $5,000 is asked for a hospital, and, after careful consideration, we recommend that this be not allowed at this time.

The sum of $1,735 is asked for additional laundry facilities; we recommend that this be not allowed.

For enlarging the laundry at the school for feeble minded the sum of $150 is asked; we recommend that this be allowed.

For a woodshed building at the school for feeble minded the sum of $125 is asked; we recommend that this be allowed.

For a ceiling in the fourth story of the building for the deaf and blind the sum of $300 is asked, and we recommend that this sum be allowed, with the understanding that it is to be constructed with a view to making an additional dormitory for boys overhead, if possible.

For improving the grounds the sum of $1,500 is asked; we recommend that this be not allowed.

An appropriation is asked for putting in electric lights in the building for feeble minded. This, in the opinion of the committee, is a most important and necessary matter, and we recommend that the sum of $1,000 be appropriated for said purpose.

The sum of $6,500 is asked for extending the water and sewerage supply of the institution, and in view of the fact that the disallowance of the hospital appropriation is recommended, it will be necessary to take all possible precautions in the line of sanitary regulations: therefore, we recommend that the sum of $3,000 be appropriated for additional sewerage accommodations.

The total appropriation recommended herein is $70,338, which is $22,295 less than the amount asked for by the trustees, and we believe it is not safe to make any further reductions than are suggested herein.

The trustees have established a regulation whereby non-resident defective youth are admitted on payment of $200 per year, when the actual per capita cost of caring for all inmates is $309 per year. This committee disapproves of such regulations.

Bills carrying out the suggestions contained in this report are submitted herewith:

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE JOINT COMMITTEE ON STATE REFORM SCHOOL.

OLYMPIA, WASH., February 19, 1895.

To the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Your joint committee appointed to visit the Washington state reform school, located near Chehalis, begs leave to submit the following report:

The committee visited the school on Tuesday, February 12, 1895, remaining there till the afternoon of the next day, and after giving to the school as thorough and impartial an investigation as the time permitted, we are prepared to say that in our opinion it is a model institution of its kind, conducted on lines of economy, efficiency and honesty, and altogether an affair that is deserving of the highest possible praise in every branch of its management. In Superintendent T. P. Westendorf the state has fortunately secured the services of a man whose work shows that he is peculiarly adapted both by training and natural qualities for the successful guidance and control of the young people who are in his charge, and he is at the same time a thorough business man, and carefully scrutinizes all proposed financial obligations of the school, always with an eye to the interests of the state. With the limited facilities at his command he has, as a result of careful management and well directed effort, practically hewn out of the wilderness a beautiful home, where over 150 boys and girls, who have heretofore had little or no home training, are being brought up to noble and honorable manhood and womanhood. The committee found in the Washington reform school, filled as it is with waifs of the street who have filled parents' hearts with sorrow and given the police of the cities almost endless trouble, an apparently happy and contented family of children who are being brought up to realize and appreciate the unfortunate conditions and tendencies of their former life. They appear to perform their labors in the school room, in the field or in the workshop cheerfully and obediently, without any evidence of discontent, and their best traits of character are being developed in every way. The institution is a home and the inmates are taught to so regard it, but at the same time the fact is not allowed to be lost sight of that after all it is not an honorable or creditable place for a boy or girl to be, and every inmate fully realizes the importance of living down former disgrace by creditable conduct at the reform school, it being the aim to inculcate an ambition for higher ideals than they have known in former surroundings.

While the stern hand of discipline on the part of the superintendent of a school of this kind is not lacking here, yet it is everywhere apparent that the children love and respect Superintendent and Mrs. Westendorf as perhaps few of them have loved and respected their own parents. This accounts for something that favorably impressed the committee with the work of the school even before we were inside the grounds, and that was the fact that there is no wall or fence around the institution, and no guards on duty, to prevent escapes of those committed, many of whom were taken there in handcuffs and under strong guard; and this is given additional emphasis when the records show that only three escapes have occurred during the past three years, two of which were made before the school was in good running order.

The careful, conscientious business management of the institution is reflected in the fact that two years ago the trustees turned back into the treasury nearly $16,000 of the appropriation for maintenance previously made, and this year it is expected that, in spite of the fact that the number of inmates considerably exceeds the estimate on which the appropriation of last session was based, there will be a surplus of something over $2,000. In this connection the board of trustees of the institution, consisting of Hon. John Dobson, Hon. Henry Drum and Major W. V. Rinehart, are deserving of the same words of praise that have been accorded to Superintendent and Mrs. Westendorf in the management of the school. Mr. Dobson, the resident trustee, is especially deserving of praise, for he shows more than an ordinary interest in the institution, devoting much time and paternal attention, as well as contributing in a material way from his own personal resources to the success of the school. Trustee Henry Drum is also now serving faithfully without pay or mileage, being prohibited by federal regulations from accepting pay other than his salary from the government as deputy collector of customs at Tacoma.

Two years ago a special appropriation of $5,000 was made for the purchase of an additional seventy-five acres of land that is unoccupied and contiguous to the site of the reform school, but this money will now lapse into the treasury for the reason that the owners of the land refuse to sell it for what the trustees consider a reasonable price. It is unanimously recommended by this committee, that this amount be re-appropriated at this time, but, to make it operative, a bill must be passed giving authority to condemn this land, and thus obtain it for a fair and reasonable price. Senate bill No. 225, by Senator Donahoe, has been prepared to cover the case, and it is hereby indorsed. It is an absolute necessity for the future welfare of the school that this land be had, and it is likely that a more favorable time for purchasing land in that section by condemnation proceedings will never be found than now. With this addition to the present site, the institution can be made much more nearly self sustaining than at present, and economy alone would justify this expenditure.

For the maintenance of the reform school for the next two years, it is recommended that the sum of $65,000 be appropriated.

During the past two years a new building has been constructed at an expense of $15,000. It is a substantial structure, apparently well worth its cost, and is used for the girls' quarters, for the superintendent's office and rooms, the lady employees, and the chapel.

At present the school is well filled, but there are about twenty-five inmates that can be paroled at this time, if suitable homes or places of employment can be found for them. This is a matter that the committee is desirous of giving the widest publicity, for it suggests the difficulty of dealing successfully with the problem presented when the time arrives for turning out the inmates of the school to do for themselves in the outside world.

Ninety per cent. of the inmates of this school come from disordered homes, and among the numerous causes that contribute to the membership of the institution, there are none more prolific of vice, tainting the otherwise pure moral energies of infant life, than the messenger service throughout the state. Privileged by their calling, these children of the heart enter every door of infamy and there, in their innocence, confront vice in its shape appalling. Can the state perpetuate this opportunity, under the appellation of the messenger system, to waylay the widow's child, and to be a fostering parent, maturing a moral curse by recruiting from the bosom of the fireside of honest poverty, infant criminals for the state? If messages must be forwarded into those vice breeding dens, let it be done by older persons who can repel evil influences of those degrading scenes that should ever be veiled from infant eyes. These little boys and girls whom we found are little criminals from circumstances rather than from intention. Here conscious nature at first hesitates and then turns toward virtue with a blush. Occupation makes the children happy. Eager little minds thirsting for knowledge, will quaff the pernicious dregs of vice if the parent or the state refuse to exercise their powers. Here those worse than orphans, culled from the drifting tides of vice, have their tender minds primed and re-directed, their bodies cleansed and healthfully guarded, and hope inspired within their infant, despairing breasts. This school is the first milestone upon the erring, childish way. To redeem at this point in youthful life, when the heart is susceptible of reclamation, or remold them at the bar of justice or at the place of execution, at great expense and degradation for all concerned, is the problem for the state. Nature, through its agents here, providentially, no doubt, is demonstrating to the taxpayer of Washington a pertinent lesson in economy. If the expensive, superabundant glitter of some of our universities was made to minister to the abused and neglected of heartless parentage, the state would be greatly enriched.

The committee suggests that every member of the legislature will find it profitable to carefully read the report of the trustees of the Washington state reform school, for it deals with a problem that will always be of great concern to the state. The report furnishes much food for thought. Among other interesting data contained is a table showing the occupations of the boys committed to the reform school, as shown by the court records; but Superintendent Westendorf informed the committee that the number credited to the farms is entirely misleading, for, as a matter of fact, he declares that it is rare indeed that a boy is sent from the farm to the reform school, the great majority being recruited from the ranks of the messenger boys, newsboys, and bootblacks.

This committee would also indorse the idea of a separate school for orphans, and we desire to put this in the strongest possible form. In the Chehalis school are a number of inmates who have been committed simply because they have neither parents nor homes, and there is at present no other place where they can be cared for by the state. It is shameful that their future lives must be even tainted with the record of having been committed to the reform school, and a different place should be provided for them, for reasons that must be obvious to all who reflect upon the matter.

This committee has no suggestions to offer in regard to the management or work of the reform school at Chehalis, for it is difficult to see where an improvement could be made. The inmates are amply provided with good, substantial food, and are comfortably, if not fashionably, clothed. They make practically all their own clothing, including shoes and caps, which is a great saving to the state.

The buildings and grounds are in splendid sanitary condition, and a better water system could not be desired. Kerosene oil is still being used in the buildings, however, and the committee took the liberty of advising the trustees to arrange for an electric system of lighting without delay, so as to do away with the dangerous kerosene lamps.

Respectfully submitted.

STATE OF WASHINGTON, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
OLYMPIA, February 19, 1895.

To the Honorable the House of Representatives of the State of Washington:

GENTLEMEN—Herewith I return, without my approval, House bill No. 93, entitled "An act to prevent vivisection and to regulate dissection in the schools of the State of Washington, and to provide a penalty therefor."

I cannot conscientiously approve so broad and sweeping a measure as the one before me, for the following reasons:

There can be no subject of more vital importance to mankind than a thorough and accurate knowledge of the human body and the manner in which its various functions are performed. So important is this knowledge that only inaccurate conception, misguided though well meant impulse, or perverted emotion can desire to prevent its extension to all classes of the community, excluding none, least of all the young, from participating in the beneficial effects to be derived from careful and comprehensive study of such subjects as morphology, physiology, and anatomy. It is a false theory of the law, it appears to me, which would declare that only a special class in the community should be permitted to profit by the demonstration of facts which are most forcibly impressed upon the mind by such practice as it is proposed to suppress by this act.

Vivisection, as practiced in the public schools by competent persons, does not imply debasement of the character of the youth nor cruelty to animals. Since the days of Christ's apostle, the physician, who of all men has most intimately studied the body of man and beast, has been taken as typical of goodness and humanity, and it is the young men of the United States, France and Germany, who as youths have had adequate opportunity to study vivisection, who are to-day, and almost daily, making discoveries which are of untold and incalculable value to the human race. It is the result of the vivisection studies of such young men, who began their studies as minors, that has so lately led to the discovery, after experiment, that the blood of animals, rendered immune to diphtheria germs, confers protection on another, and from this has grown the present method of treatment of diphtheria, which makes it possible to save the lives of at least 30,000 children a year in this country alone.

It is the results of vivisection which have given us Pasteur's wonderful treatment of hydrophobia, antidotes to lock jaw, and has enabled diagnosticians to locate with absolute accuracy the various motor functions, and to some extent the other functions of the brain, which, before these marvelous and beneficent discoveries, were as a sealed casket to all men. I am convinced not only that the results of vivisection have been of inestimable service to man and to the lower animals, but that in the language of the largest and most important association of physicians in the world, "the continuance and extension of such investigations is essential to the progress of knowledge, the relief of suffering and the saving of life," and that it is entirely proper that such investigations may be carried on in public schools and elsewhere outside of medical schools. Physiology and anatomy are recognized subjects of study in our public schools. Without actual demonstration by dissection or vivisection, but little knowledge of these subjects can be retained by students. Mere reading and storing in the mind of the text books' statement of facts amounts to almost nothing, as teachers for ages have contended and demonstrated, as compared with work upon the subject by the student or by the instructor.

With the approval of this law, a bacteriological laboratory recently established in this state for the study of certain infectious diseases must close. With the approval of this law, most valuable researches now in progress for the benefit of the farmer, in the study of insect pests, must stop. The term animal, meaning as it does a sentient living being, as distinguished from a vegetable or a mineral, including as it does so low a class as infusoria, would, by the approval of this law, prevent the exhibition to public students of a dissected sponge.

For these reasons, appreciating fully the important and wide operation of the law, I am constrained to veto the act.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

J. H. McGraw, Governor.

The bill failed to pass notwithstanding the governor's veto by the following vote: Ayes 17, noes 48, absent or not voting 13.

MINORITY REPORT.

MR. SPEAKER:

The people of this state have not a dollar in sight, or in prospect, to build a capitol with. Common prudence would dictate that work should stop until such time shall appear when the work may be prosecuted without incurring a heavy indebtedness and the payment of ruinous interest exactions, involving an outlay, it may be, exceeding cost of construction. The bill should pass.

John R. Rogers.

Mr. Heath moved to adopt the report and indefinitely postpone the bill.

Unanimous consent was given to present the report of the special committee on visiting the state normal schools.

The report was read.
On motion of Mr. Gandy, the report was referred to the Committee on Normal Schools, and the chief clerk instructed to have 250 copies printed.

The report is herewith appended:

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON NORMAL SCHOOLS.

To the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives:

Your joint committee on state normal schools, directed to visit the schools at Ellensburgh and Cheney, respectfully submit the following report:

We arrived at Cheney on the morning of February 11. This and the following day were spent in visiting the various classes and departments and observing the work done. The state normal school was established at Cheney by an act of the legislature approved March 22, 1890. Grounds and buildings valued at $30,000 were presented to the state by the city of Cheney, and were accepted by the board of trustees in August, 1890.

The school was opened for the admission of students on the 13th day of October following. On Tuesday, August 27, 1891, the building was totally destroyed by fire. The school was opened in a hotel building, which was fitted up for the purpose, and continued therein until November, 1894. These temporary quarters soon became inadequate for the classes, and as the state had failed to provide a building, a two-story brick building was erected by the Cheney district and rented to the trustees for use of the state normal school. The attendance has so increased that this building is even now much too small to accommodate the students who wish to attend, and as the number is rapidly increasing, new and more commodious quarters must be provided by the state. We believe it to be wisdom and economy on the part of the state to provide a building that will meet the requirements of the school. We believe that such a building cannot be erected and equipped for less than $55,500, and we therefore recommend that not less than that sum be appropriated for that purpose. This will mean an appropriation by the state of $50,000, as the insurance on the normal building, amounting to $5,500, was paid into the state treasury in 1891, and still remains there, and we furthermore recommend that not less than $28,000 be appropriated for the maintenance of the Cheney school for the fiscal term ending March 31, 1897.

We find that the school has been economically managed, and considering many difficulties and disadvantages under which the school has labored, too much credit cannot be given to the management of the school.

Principal W. J. Sutton is a thorough scholar and an earnest worker, and owing to his superior executive ability and good management, assisted by an able faculty, this school now ranks second to no educational institution in the state.

Your committee further reports that on the 13th day of February, 1895, we arrived in the city of Ellensburgh, a city of about 3,000 inhabitants and county seat of Kittitas county, where we visited the state normal school located at this place. This and the following day were spent in visiting the various classes and observing the work done. We found the school in excellent condition, and the departments all at work. The faculty is thoroughly efficient, and Principal P. A. Gatz is a thorough teacher and organizer, and under his management will continue to improve and grow.

We find the several departments necessary to a complete equipment of such a school in actual and efficient running order. We believe this to be one among the best educational institutions in the state, and worthy of liberal support. We therefore recommend that not less than $28,000 be appropriated for the maintenance of the Ellensburgh school for the fiscal term ending March 31, 1897.

The object of the normal school is for the especial preparation of teachers. This line of work cannot be done in ordinary schools, and the efficiency of the public school system depends on the efficiency of the teachers. The spirit and letter of the law creating these institutions is being carried out. They are not merely local institutions, but almost every quarter of the state is represented. The students in both of these schools show a hearty and commendable interest in their work, and the maturity of thought and age assures the state ample return for any expenditures made or to be made for the maintenance and support of these institutions.

A detailed statement of the enrollment, of expenditures, etc., is as follows:

The total cost of the maintenance of the Ellensburgh school for last school year has been $13,568, with a total enrollment of students of 118, making a cost to the state per pupil of $114.95 per year.

The number of teachers employed at this school is nine, and the annual salary paid them is $10,600.

There is a janitor employed, who also attends to the heating of the building, at a salary of $1,000, making a total salary list of $11,600.

The cost of fuel for the year is $500.00.
The cost of water for the year is $250.00.
The cost of light for the year is $180.00.
The cost of text books for the year is $303.00.
The cost of stationery and postage is $85.
Other incidentals are $25.
Per diem and mileage allowed to board of trustees is $300.00.
Traveling expense of principal visiting institute is $325.00.

Making a total of $13,568.

The total cost of maintaining the Cheney school for the last school year is $11,315, with a total enrollment of students of 157, making a cost to the state per student of $73.

The number of teachers regularly employed at this school is seven, but during a portion of the time an additional assistant teacher was employed. The pay roll for teachers was $9,840.

There is a janitor employed who attends to the heating of the building at an annual salary of $800.
The cost per year for fuel is .......... $375 00
The cost per year for water is .......... 180 00
The cost per year for light is .......... 120 00
The cost per year for rent is .......... 720 00
The cost per year for text books, stationery and postage .......... 500 00 Per diem and mileage of trustees .......... 250 00

Making a total of $12,185.
The item of $720 for rent is one that will not be incurred when a suitable building is erected for this school.
Respectfully submitted.

STATE OF WASHINGTON.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE CHARGES AGAINST JUDGE ARTHUR.

MAJORITY REPORT.

MR. SPEAKER:

Olympia, Wash., February 21, 1895.

We, the undersigned members of your committee appointed on the 12th day of February, A. D. 1895, to investigate certain charges preferred against the Hon. Jesse Arthur, judge of the superior court of the State of Washington in and for the counties of Spokane and Stevens, and to report findings thereon, and to make such recommendations to the House of Representatives in relation thereto as might be deemed proper, pursuant to resolution adopted by the House of Representatives on the said 12th day of February, A. D. 1895, would respectfully report as follows, to wit:

First: That your committee did, with all due dispatch, proceed to the city of Spokane, and did there sit from day to day, and did summon and hear the testimony of many witnesses, to wit, about seventy; which said testimony, insofar as the number of witnesses examined is concerned, was about equally divided, one part tending to support the said charges and the other part tending to disprove and refute the same. That many of the said witnesses testifying in support of said charges, and many of the witnesses testifying in refutation of said charges, were among the most reputable, upright and credible citizens of Spokane and Stevens counties.

Second: That your committee completed the taking of testimony in said matter at the city of Olympia, in said state, on the 20th day of February, A. D. 1895. That thereupon your committee did fully and carefully deliberate upon, weigh and consider all of the evidence adduced, both in support of said charges and in refutation thereof; whereupon we, the undersigned members of your said committee, do conclude and find, and do hereby report, that the evidence taken upon said investigation is insufficient to sustain said charges, except that the evidence taken before your committee did establish the fact that said Judge Jesse Arthur was negligent in permitting the grand jury to remain in session in the county of Stevens for a period of time between the 25th day of April and the 7th day of May succeeding, without work or business for said grand jury, and at a considerable and unnecessary expense to said county; whereas said jury might have been discharged and such expense saved and avoided without detriment to the public service. And except that the evidence taken before your committee did establish that in a certain case, to wit, the case of the State of Washington against Chase, tried before the said Jesse Arthur as judge, he, the said judge, did authorize and permit certain instructions in manuscript, known as the supplemental instructions in that case, to be taken to the jury room, contrary to law, and to the knowledge of said judge of the law, as shown by the evidence.

Wherefore we, the undersigned members of your said committee, do recommend, in view of the extenuating circumstances connected with the two charges hereinbefore stated as established, as shown by evidence adduced before your said committee, that the House of Representatives do take no further action or proceedings relative to said charges, and that your said committee be discharged and relieved of further consideration of the matter.

All of which is respectfully submitted.
T. V. EDDY, Chairman.
L. E. RADER,
L. B. NIMS.

MINORITY REPORT.

Mr. Speaker:
As members of the committee appointed to investigate the charges preferred against the Hon. Jesse Arthur, judge of the superior court of Spokane and Stevens counties, we are unable to concur in the report made by the majority of your committee, and we beg leave to submit the following minority report:

Your committee listened during four days and nights to the testimony of seventy-five witnesses, covering the charges made and other matters connected with the judicial conduct of said Jesse Arthur. The evidence before the committee was conflicting, but the preponderance of that evidence established beyond any reasonable doubt that there is a strong probability of the truth of each and every allegation contained in the charges aforesaid.

From a careful consideration of all the testimony produced before the committee we are fully convinced that said Jesse Arthur is a grossly improper person to discharge the duties of superior judge, and we therefore recommend the passage of a joint resolution under section 9 of article 4 of the constitution of this state, removing said Jesse Arthur from the office of judge of the superior court of Spokane and Stevens counties.

SOLON T. WILLIAMS,
A. WOODWORTH,

OLYMPIA, WASH., February 21, 1895. Members of Committee.

Mr. Eddy moved that the majority report of the committee of investigation in regard to the impeachment of Mr. Jesse Arthur, superior judge of Spokane and Stevens counties, be adopted.

The motion was seconded by Mr. Rader.

Mr. Williams moved as an amendment that the report of the minority of the committee be adopted.

The motion was seconded by Mr. Nelson.

Messrs. Williams, Moore, Barge and Gandy spoke in favor of the minority report.

Messrs. Eddy, Nims, Rader, Schively and Cline favored the majority report.

The House refused to adopt the minority report on roll call by the following vote: Ayes 25, noes 45, absent or not voting 7.

Ayes: Messrs. Albertson, Barge, Bull, Bush, Foster, Gandy, Gerry, Goddard, Halteman, Hanford, Heath, Johnston, Kittinger,

Merchant, Miles, Moore, Morgan, McDonnell, Nelson, Phelps, Temple, Tull, Williams, Wing, and Woodworth—25.

Absent or not voting: Messrs. Baum, Cantwell, Cloes, Collin, Coon, Haffey, Loggie, and Van Eaton—8.

The majority report was adopted on roll call by the following vote: Ayes 47, noes 21, absent or not voting 10.

Ayes: Messrs. Allen, Baker, Biggs, Burrows, Callow, Catlin, Cheetham, Cline, Cloes, Conner, Coon, Curtiss, Eddy, Fenton, Fishburn, Gibson, Glen, Ham, Hatch, Irving, Kegley, Laing, Lillie, Lyman, Miller, Mills, Milroy, Murray, McArdle, McAuley, Nettleton, Nims, Rader, Reynolds, Rogers, Runner, Schively, Scobey, Scott, Seevers, Smith, Spenoer, Taylor (J. C.), Taylor (F. T.), Terry, Witt, and Mr. Speaker—47.

Absent or not voting: Messrs. Baum, Cantwell, Collin, Gandy, Gerry, Haffey, Halteman, Loggie, Merchant, and Van Eaton—10.

The speaker announced the following as the committee to examine the grounds, buildings and work now in progress at the state university: Messrs. Schively, Barge, Cheetham, Foster, and Conner.

On motion of Mr. Conner, the House adjourned at 12:10 o’clock P. M. to meet at 10 o’clock A. M. Saturday.

Edward C. Finch, Chief Clerk.
The House was called to order at 10 o'clock A. M.; Speaker Morrison in the chair.

The roll was called; all the members were present except Messrs. Bull, Cheetham, Collin, Curtiss, Eddy, Gibson, Goddard, Halteman, Hanford, Lillie, Loggie, Moore, McAuley, McDonnell, Nettleton, Reynolds, Schively, and Spencer.

On motion of Mr. Gandy, the journal of the thirty-ninth day was approved without the complete reading.

PETITIONS.

Petitions were introduced, read and referred as follows:

Resolution from the Tacoma chamber of commerce: Relative to discontinuing work on the capitol building, and signed by Samuel Collyer, secretary.

FORTY-THIRD DAY.

House of Representatives, Olympia, Washington, Monday, February 25, 1895. 2 o'clock P. M.

The House of Representatives was called to order at 2 o'clock P. M.; Speaker Morrison in the chair.

The session was opened with prayer by the Rev. T. J. Lamont. At roll call all the members responded to their names except

Mr. Coon was excused from further attendance at this afternoon's session.

On motion of Mr. Ham, the journal of Saturday was approved without the complete reading.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE.

SENATE CHAMBER,
OLYMPIA, WASH., February 25, 1895.

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed Senate concurrent resolution No. 16 (substitute for House concurrent resolution No. 7), Urging congress to perform work on the ship railway at The Dalles by contract.

And has indefinitely postponed House concurrent resolution No. 7, on same subject.

The Senate has indefinitely postponed House concurrent resolution No. 8, Urging congress to establish postal savings banks, and the same has been substituted by the Committee on Memorials introducing Senate memorial No. 2, on same subject.

And the same are herewith.

T. G. NICKLIN, Secretary.

Communication from Wm. H. Whittlesey, secretary of Seattle chamber of commerce, to the speaker of the House, transmitting resolutions of that body in favor of legislation authorizing cities of the first class to alter, change, revise, add to and repeal their respective charters.

Received and filed.

By Mr. Ham: Petition signed by 59 legal voters of Cowlitz county praying for the defeat of House bill No. 122.

Referred to Committee on Insurance.

On motion of Mr. Cline, the following rule was adopted:

RULE 68—VETOES.

The veto message of the governor accompanying any bill passed by the House of Representatives, other than as provided in Joint Rule No. 9, shall be immediately read, together with the bill vetoed. It shall then be in order to proceed to the reconsideration of the bill, or to postpone its consideration to a day certain.

A veto message and a bill, or the message alone, may be referred and the bill may be laid on the table.

The main question in the consideration of a vetoed bill is, "Shall the bill pass, notwithstanding the veto of the governor?" If two-thirds of the members present vote aye, the bill shall be sent to the Senate, together with the message of the governor, for its action.
The merits of the bill may be debated before the vote is taken, but the vote on a vetoed bill cannot be reconsidered.

OLYMPIA, Wash., February 5, 1895.

On motion of Mr. Scott, the report was adopted and the bill ordered paid.

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE TO VISIT THE STATE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives:

The committee to visit and report on the state agricultural college, school of science and experiment station, begs leave to report as follows:

Looking over the grounds and buildings as carefully as our limited time permitted, we found the following buildings erected prior to the present board of regents taking charge to consist principally of: One boys' dormitory, brick building, four stories and basement, 56 x 104; one college hall, frame building, three stories; one old brick building, one story, 36 x 60; one old frame building used for shop and power house; farm house, barn and chicken house, with appropriations made two years ago.
The present board have had constructed: One administration building, four stories, 89 x 156, built of stone and brick. As the opinion of the committee, this is a practically planned and well arranged building, and appears to be a well and substantially built structure. The appropriation for this building was $50,000, of which $200 remains unexpended.

The mechanic's hall, portion of which is one and a portion two-story brick building, 78 x 98, is a good, strong and substantially constructed building, well suited for the use intended. Appropriation for same was $10,000, of which nearly $200 is on hand. It was pleasing to find that the buildings were not only erected within the limit, but that some surplus remained of the amount appropriated for same.

A sewerage system had been built, saving about $750 per annum.

A conservatory constructed with all late modern devices and appliances, 16 x 106, met our approval.

A root house and silo has been added to the barn. Of the stock on the farm some good blooded stock was found, as follows: Three Holstein, two Jerseys, two Durham cows, two Durham calves, three Berkshire hogs, two heavy draught horses, two medium, two light and two ponies.

As far as the committee could judge, everything in connection with the farm was in good order.

We would call to your attention that a piggery is badly needed; also, that a dairy plant, constructed on a modern plan, is an absolute necessity, and should by all means be supplied. We further recommend the purchase of a limited amount of good stock of different breeds, as well as some pure bred hogs.

The president of the college, Professor E. A. Bryan, impressed the committee as being a man of high worth and character, a man well qualified for the position. Besides being a gentleman of high scholarly attainments, he possesses that practical executive ability so essential and necessary in building up an educational institution of this character.

The different departments were well managed by competent instructors. One feature decidedly impressed the committee, and that was the winter school for farmers. The direct material benefits the farmers of the state are deriving from this farmers' institute are of great value. The institute had been in session some four weeks previous to our visit. Some 240 farmers had reported. The large attendance and close attention given to the lectures is very much appreciated by the faculty, and good results will undoubtedly follow.

It was our pleasure to listen to Professor Spillman, of agriculture; Balmer, of horticulture; Piper, of botany, and Fulmer, of chemistry.

Mrs. Van Doren presides with great credit and motherly care over the young women's department. A dormitory is very much needed, and, in fact, is an absolute necessity.

The committee desires particularly to call attention to the extensive experiments already carried on by Prof. Fulmer in the sugar beet culture, demonstrating beyond a reasonable doubt that beet sugar can be manufactured in this state profitably, thereby keeping millions of dollars at home that now go out of the state. The raising of beets is said to offer to our farmers better paying employment than the raising of wheat or many other products.

The committee has carefully gone over the requirements of the college, and after pruning the same to conform with the times, recommend that appropriations as set forth in the bill presented be allowed.

We recommend the regents for the good judgment displayed and the work accomplished under such adverse circumstances as existed at the time they took the management of the institution.

We recommend that the regents be empowered to purchase twenty acres of land near Puyallup, at a price not exceeding —, on condition that forty acres adjoining be donated to the state, and an experiment station should be established and maintained on said land for Western Washington. The committee also recommends the purchase of a certain ten acre tract lying in front of the college grounds, at a figure not to exceed —, and further, that the regents secure, free of expense to the state, a certain four acre tract adjoining the college grounds.

Respectfully submitted.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

State of Washington, Executive Department, Olympia, February 26, 1895.

The Speaker, House of Representatives:

Sir—The governor directs me to inform you that he has this day approved and signed the following:
House bill No. 120, entitled "An act to provide for the publishing of the second biennial report of the state board of horticulture, and declaring an emergency."

House bill No. 212, entitled "An act granting to school districts the right to purchase school house sites of school lands belonging to the State of Washington, of not less than one acre and not more than five acres, and granting to school districts the preference right to purchase such sites, and declaring an emergency."

House bill No. 30, entitled "An act to govern the method of allowance to witnesses and jurors of fees for their attendance and mileage."

Very respectfully, E. C. MACDONALD, Private Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ENROLLED AND ENGROSSED BILLS.

Mr. Speaker:

Your Committee on Enrolled and Engrossed Bills respectfully reports that the enrolled copy of House concurrent resolution No. 10, Relief for insolvents, and petitioning congress to pass a national bankrupt law, has been carefully compared with the original copy thereof and found correctly enrolled.

Respectfully submitted. JOHN R. ROGERS, Acting Chairman.

In open session of the House the speaker signed the above. On motion of Mr. Moore, the House went into committee of the whole to resume the consideration of House bill No. 127.

The speaker called Mr. Scobey to the chair at 2:10 o’clock p. m.

The committee arose at 4:45 p. m.

The speaker assumed the chair.

The chairman of the committee of the whole House submitted the following report in connection with the regular committee report:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RAILROADS.

OLYMPIA, WASH., February 21, 1895.

Mr. Speaker;

We, your Committee on Railroads, to whom was referred House bill No. 127, entitled "An act fixing and regulating maximum passenger and freight rates in the State of Washington, prohibiting discrimination by railway common carriers against persons, firms, companies, corporations and localities in the manner of such rates, and of facilities for shipment, and providing for the due enforcement and observance of the rates so fixed and for the regulations and prohibitions before referred to, and providing a method for determining the reasonableness of such rates and regulations," have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House of Representatives with the recommendation that it do pass as amended as follows, to wit:

Section 1: Amended as follows, viz., after the word "mile," in fourth line of printed bill, add the following: "Provided, however, That passengers under twelve years of age shall not be charged in excess of two cents per mile, the same to be allowed seventy-five pounds of baggage; and that infants of five years or under be permitted to ride free."

Section 2: Amended by substituting the following new section, viz.:

Sec. 2. No common carrier operating a line of railroad in this state shall charge for hauling agricultural products in carload lots from one point within this state to another point within this state at rates exceeding the following, to wit: Seventy cents per ton for distances not exceeding twenty miles; and for each mile of distance in excess of twenty and up to a total distance of thirty-five miles, two cents per ton; and for each mile of distance in excess of thirty-five and up to a total distance of fifty miles, one and one-third cents per ton; and for each mile in excess of fifty and up to a total distance of seventy-five miles, one cent per ton; and for each mile of distance in excess of seventy-five and up to a total distance of one hundred and fifty miles, seven-tenths of one cent per ton; and for each mile in excess of one hundred and fifty, one-half of one cent per ton, making the rates allowed hereby not more than seventy cents per ton for distances not more than twenty miles; for thirty-five miles, one dollar per ton; for fifty miles, one dollar and twenty cents per ton; for seventy-five miles, one dollar and forty-five cents per ton; for one hundred miles, one dollar and sixty-five cents per ton; for one hundred and fifty miles, two dollars per ton; for two hundred miles, two dollars and twenty-five cents per ton; for three hundred miles, two dollars and seventy-five cents per ton; for five hundred miles, three dollars and seventy-five cents per ton, with proportionate differences for intermediate distances: Provided, however, That no charge for hauling the freight in carload lots in this section mentioned shall exceed three dollars and seventy-five cents per ton from any point within this state to any other point within this state. Agricultural products shall be held to include grain of all kinds, flour, feed, mill stuffs, flax seed, hay compressed in bales, and potatoes. Hereafter the charge for hauling hogs and other live stock on any railroad in carload lots, from one point within this state to another point within this state, shall not exceed seventy-five per cent. of the tariff for hauling such live stock maintained by such railroad on the 31st day of December, 1894. This provision shall apply to a continuous haul over connecting railroads under a joint tariff arrangement where such connecting railroads maintained a joint tariff on live stock on the 31st day of December, 1894.

Section 13: Amended as follows, viz.: Erase the words "a reasonable," in ninth and tenth lines, and insert the word "an." In tenth line, after the word "fee," insert the words "not to exceed twenty-five dollars," and erase all of lines eleven and twelve, in the printed bill, of said section.
Add a new section to said bill, to be numbered section 21, and which is as follows, viz.: Sec. 21. Nothing in this act contained shall be construed as affecting or having reference to lines of railway not more than twenty-five miles in length, except as to joint traffic over such roads and other roads with which they may connect, and as to such traffic, and none other, the rates herein provided shall apply on such roads.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE HOUSE.

Olympia, Wash., February 26, 1895.

Mr. Speaker:

We, your committee of the whole House, to whom was referred House bill No. 172, entitled "An act fixing and regulating maximum railroad passenger and freight rates in the State of Washington, prohibiting discriminations by railway common carriers against persons, firms, companies, corporations and localities in the manner of such rates and facilities for shipment, and providing for due enforcement and observance of the rates so fixed and of the regulation and prohibition before referred to, and providing a method for determining the reasonableness of such rates and regulations, and declaring an emergency," have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House of Representatives with the recommendation that it be amended as follows:

Amend title by adding the words "and declaring an emergency."

Section 1: After the word "mile" add "Provided, however, That passengers under twelve years of age shall not be charged in excess of two cents per mile, the same to be allowed seventy-five pounds of baggage; and that infants of five years or under be permitted to ride free."

Amend section 2 by substituting the following: Section 2. No common carrier operating a line of railroad in this state shall charge for hauling agricultural products in carload lots from one point within this state to another point within this state at rates exceeding the following, to wit: Seventy cents per ton for distances not exceeding twenty miles; and for each mile of distance in excess of twenty and up to a total distance of thirty-five miles, two cents per ton; and for each mile of distance in excess of thirty-five and up to a total distance of fifty miles, one and one-third cents per ton; and for each mile in excess of fifty and up to a total distance of seventy-five miles, one cent per ton; and for each mile of distance in excess of seventy-five and up to a total distance of one hundred miles, eight-tenths of one cent per ton; and for each mile of distance in excess of one hundred and up to a total distance of one hundred and fifty miles, seven-tenths of one cent per ton; and for each mile in excess of one hundred and fifty, one-half of one cent per ton, making the rates allowed hereby not more than seventy cents per ton for distances not more than twenty miles; for thirty-five miles, one dollar per ton; for fifty miles, one dollar and twenty cents per ton; for seventy-five miles, one dollar and forty-five cents per ton; for one hundred miles, one dollar and sixty-five cents per ton; for one hundred and fifty miles, two dollars per ton; for two hundred miles, two dollars and twenty-five cents per ton; for two hundred and fifty miles, two dollars and fifty cents per ton; for three hundred miles, two dollars and seventy-five cents per ton; for three hundred and fifty miles, three dollars per ton; for four hundred miles, three dollars and twenty-five cents per ton; for four hundred and fifty miles, three dollars and fifty cents per ton; for five hundred miles, three dollars and seventy-five cents per ton, with proportionate differences for intermediate distances: Provided, however, That no charge for hauling the freight in carload lots in this section mentioned shall exceed three dollars and seventy-five cents per ton from any point within this state to any other point within this state. Agricultural products shall be held to include grain of all kinds, flour, feed, mill stuffs, flax seed, corn, hay compressed in bales, beets and potatoes. Hereafter the charge for hauling hogs and other live stock, lumber, shingles, coal, logs, hops, wool, fruit and melons on any railroad in carload lots, from one point within this state to another point within this state, shall not exceed seventy-five per cent. of the tariff for hauling such live stock, lumber, shingles, coal, logs, hops, wool, fruit and melons maintained by such railroad on the 31st day of December, 1894. This provision shall apply to a continuous haul over connecting railroads under a joint tariff arrangement where such connecting railroads maintained a joint tariff on live stock on the 31st day of December, 1894.

Section 4: In line 5, after the word “own,” insert “when said connecting, intersecting or bisecting lines shall be of the same gauge.”

Section 10: In lines 9 and 10, strike out “denounced” and insert in lieu thereof “denominated.”

Section 16: In line 5, strike out “Spokane county” and insert “in any county in the.” In line 23, between the words “which” and “constituted,” strike out “has” and insert “have” in lieu thereof. In line 27, strike out the final “s” in “remains.” In line 28, strike out the word “it” where it first occurs and insert “they” in lieu thereof. In line 69, strike out “The several judges of the superior court of Spokane county” and insert in lieu thereof “The judge or judges of such superior court.” In line 75, strike out “of Spokane county” and insert “of the county wherein such action is brought.” In line 70, insert after the word “cause” the words “and it shall be his or their duty to invite a number of superior judges from other counties in this state to sit with him or them: Provided, That the total number sitting shall in all cases be seven," and strike out all of lines between the word "cause" in line 70 and the word "and" in line 71.

Add new section after section 20, as follows:

SEC. 21. Nothing in this act contained shall be construed as affecting or having reference to lines of railway not more than twenty-three miles in length, except as to joint traffic over such roads and other roads with which they may connect, and as to such traffic, and none other, the rates herein provided shall apply on such roads.

Change the number of section 21 to section 22.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE AND SCHOOL OF SCIENCE.

OLYMPIA, WASH., FEBRUARY 25, 1895.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, your Committee on Agricultural College and School of Science, to whom was referred House bills Nos. 54, 105 and 273, have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House of Representatives with the recommendation that this substitute for House bills Nos. 54, 105 and 273, and also for Senate bills Nos. 5, 24 and 25, do pass.

Respectfully submitted.

We concur in this report:

O. B. Nelson, Chairman.
W. S. Johnston,
T. P. McAuley,
F. R. Baker,
C. E. Gibson,
Thos. Irving,
Frank Hanford,
A. M. Moore,
B. F. Barge,
J. L. Murray.
On motion of Mr. Nelson, the report was adopted, and House bills Nos. 54, 105 and 273 indefinitely postponed.

On motion of Mr. Mills, House bill No. 573, substitute for House bills Nos. 54, 105 and 273, was made a special order for Friday, March 1, head of calendar.

The special committee to visit the soldiers' home, at Orting, submitted the following report:

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives:

We, your joint committee, who was appointed to visit the soldiers' home of the State of Washington, located at Orting, beg leave to submit the following report:

That we left Olympia Saturday, February 16th, at 1 o'clock on the regular train, accompanied by about fifty, composed mostly of members of both houses of the legislature and others interested in the home, arriving at Orting at about 3:30 P.M. We proceeded by carriages to the home, where a careful inspection was made of the grounds and buildings; that we inspected carefully the management of said home, conversed with the inmates, and gained all the knowledge in our power of its demands and requirements, and beg leave to report that we found the same well conducted under the supervision of Mr. S. F. Street and his estimable wife.

We believe that Mr. Street, as superintendent, and Mrs. Street, as matron, to be well qualified for the positions, and we believe that the home under their management to be in every respect a home to the inmates.

The board of trustees, by their management during the past two years, show conclusively that their conduct of the financial affairs of the institution has been above reproach, in fact, their management has been such that we, your committee, can see no way whereby we could recommend any management improvement, and we commend them as careful business men and well qualified for the positions which they are filling.

We recommend for the coming two years an appropriation of $36,500 for maintenance, based upon the following statement:

There are at present 125 inmates, which cost $226 each per annum, making a total of $28,250, for two years $56,500, deduct balance received from the United States, $25,000, will leave a net balance for the state to pay of $31,500 for the two years, adding thereto an increase of ten inmates for two years, making $5,000 more, making a total of $36,500 for maintenance.

We recommend the building of an additional hospital, which will accommodate 40 more people, at a cost of $4,500. This hospital seems necessary from the fact that owing to increased age of the inmates a much larger percentage of the inmates will be hospital patients from this time on and the present hospital will only accommodate about fifteen.

We recommend an expenditure of $3,500 for an electric light plant. This seems very necessary, as at present these old and tottering men are carrying coal oil lamps around with them through the building; they are liable to fall down in ascending and descending the stairs, or even on a level floor; the lamps are liable to explode in the room, and in either case the state would be largely losers, from the fact that the building would be consumed by fire originating therefrom, and necessarily great loss of life would also follow, as the men are old and it would be impossible to remove them from the building being consumed by fire. And as a matter of economy, and after the plant has once been put in, it will be much cheaper for the state than to light with coal oil.

We recommend a $1,000 expenditure for sewerage to the river. The sewer was carried to the outside fence of the farm, but requires an extension of about 2,800 feet to take it to the river, as the man who owns the farm, through whose land the sewerage now flows, objects to it remaining in that condition, but is willing to grant the right-of-way across his land for such sewer to the river.

We recommend a further appropriation of $5,000 for contingent expenses to be used in clearing some more land, fencing, building additional woodsheds, outbuildings, etc. It seems necessary at this time to keep additional cows, as most of the men in the home are getting old and from year to year they consume more milk, consequently it is necessary to increase the number of cows on the place. To do so, it is necessary to clear more land. We recommend therefore that 40 acres be cleared of the trees and rubbish, but not of the stumps, and the same seeded to grass and the whole farm fenced, thus giving a large run to the cows.

This appropriation also having been cut down nearly $20,000 from the original amount asked for, we believe by the careful and prudent management of the home that has characterized it in the past, that it will be sufficient to run them for the coming two years; and we believe that every member of the legislature, should he go and examine the home, would coincide with us that the amount asked for is as little as could be expected to carry out the great work of the institution.

Most respectfully submitted.

FORTY-SIXTH DAY.

MORNING SESSION.

OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON, Thursday, February 28, 1895.

10 o’clock A. M.

The House was called to order at 10 o’clock A. M.; Speaker Morrison in the chair.

Rev. J. S. McCallum opened the session with prayer.

The roll was called; all the members were present except Messrs. Barge, Cheetham, Cloes, Conner, Eddy, Foster, Gibson, Goddard, Hanford, Loggie, Nettleton, Runner, and Schively.

On motion of Mr. Nelson, the journal of yesterday was approved without the complete reading.

By Mr. Nettleton: Petition of citizens of Seattle against the abolition of the municipal court.

Referred to Committee on Municipal Corporations.

By Mr. Miller: Petition containing 568 names protesting against the annulling or repealing of the act of 1893, by which exemption from taxation was granted to the churches for a plat 120 x 200 feet when used exclusively for purposes of worship.

Referred to Committee on Revenue and Taxation.

By Mr. Rader: Petition for the passage of House bill No. 194, Taxing church property.

Referred to Committee on Revenue and Taxation.

Introduced by Mr. Rogers:

WHEREAS, It is a matter of common report and observation that printed matter coming from the hands of the state printer costs the state very much more than the same class of matter printed elsewhere costs private individuals; and

WHEREAS, It is plain to all that investigations conducted in the usual and imperfect manner by special committees are productive of nothing but dissatisfaction: therefore,

Be it resolved by this House, That the state printing office is a proper subject of investigation and that the same should be thoroughly investigated by the committee to be appointed under House joint resolution No. 12.

Mr. Rogers moved to adopt.
The motion was seconded by Mr. Halteman.
The motion prevailed.

RESOLUTION BY MR. LILLIE.

Resolved, That a sitting committee of nine members of this House, be appointed by the speaker to select from among the large number of bills now before this legislature those bills that are most necessary to be acted upon, and cause the same to be placed on the calendar in the order of their importance.

On motion of Mr. Baker, the resolution was amended by striking out nine and inserting thirteen.

On motion of Mr. Lillie, the resolution was adopted as amended.

Introduced by Mr. Reynolds according to notice given at yesterday's session.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

WHEREAS, Much important legislation is now pending before this House, and the time to transact such business is drawing to a close: therefore,

Be it resolved, That beginning on Monday, March 4, 1895, this House will regularly convene at 10 o'clock in the morning, taking a recess at 1 P.M., and again convening at 2 P.M., remaining in session until 5 P.M., and again convening at 8 P.M. for an evening session.

On motion of Mr. Reynolds, the rule was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Gandy, committee reports were ordered to be received and not read in full.

The clerk was also instructed to prepare a bulletin of the bill numbers and recommendations and post the same.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred House bill No. 177, entitled "An act to provide for the publication and sale of the Washington supreme court reports," have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House of Representatives with the recommendation that it be amended as follows, and as so amended that the same do pass.

Amend House bill No. 177 as follows: Add to the title thereof the following: "and to provide for the sale of the stereotyped plates of volumes 1 to 9, inclusive, of Washington supreme court reports."

In section 1, line 3, after the word "typography" strike out the words "and the paper." Add to said section the words, "The paper used shall be the regular book paper of not lighter weight than 60 pounds."

In section 2, line 2, amend the word "reported" to read "reporter." In section 2, line 8, amend the last word in said line to read "copyrighted." In line 10 of said section strike out the word "four" and insert in lieu thereof the word "three" and strike out the figures "400" and insert in lieu thereof the figures "300." In line 11 of said section strike out the words "one thousand" and insert in lieu thereof the words "seven hundred and fifty."

figures "400" to read "300." In line 5 of said section strike out the words "one thousand" and insert in lieu thereof the words "seven hundred and fifty" and amend the word "four" in said line to read "three." In line 6 of said section strike out the figures "400" and insert in lieu thereof the figures "300."

In section 4, line 2, amend the word "four" to read "three" and the figures "400" to read "300."

Strike out all of section 5 and insert in lieu thereof the following:

SEC. 5. The secretary of state is hereby authorized to sell to the said Bancroft-Whitney Company, of Seattle, Washington, the stereotyped plates of volumes 1 to 9, inclusive, of Washington supreme court reports upon the following conditions:

First. Whenever the number of copies of any of said volumes on hand in the secretary's office shall reach the minimum number of one hundred (100) then the secretary shall sell the plates of such volume or volumes at the actual cost of the same to the State of Washington, as shown by the item on the original bill from the state printer.

Second. That said Bancroft-Whitney Company will enter into a contract with the secretary of state to reprint such volume or volumes at once, and to keep on hand and for sale, for not less than ten years, a su-fi\cient number of copies to supply all demands from the state and public at the uniform price of two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) per volume.

Amendment proposed by Mr. Heath, as follows:

MR. SPEAKER:
I move to amend by striking out all after section 1, and inserting the following:

SEC. 2. The state printing board, consisting of the governor, secretary of state, and treasurer, is hereby authorized and directed to contract with some responsible person, company or corporation for the publication of the Washington supreme court reports for a period of ten years from and after the approval of such contract, and shall require of the contractor or contractors a good and sufficient bond for the faithful performance of all the conditions of such contract.

SEC. 3. The said printing board shall advertise for at least thirty days in three daily newspapers of general circulation for proposals for the printing and publishing of said supreme court reports, and shall let the contract to the lowest and best bidder at such letting: Provided, That the price per volume shall in no event exceed the sum of two dollars and fifty cents: And provided further, That the successful bidder or bidders shall, as a part of their contract, agree that the price per volume of said reports shall not exceed two dollars and fifty cents per volume, whether sold to the state or to any citizen of the state: Provided, That preference shall always be given to citizens of this state.

SEC. 4. Upon the publication of each volume of the reports, the state printing board shall purchase, for the use of the state not less than 250 nor more than 400 copies thereof at the contract price per volume, and the auditor of the state is hereby authorized to draw his warrant upon the treasurer of the state for the sum or sums necessary to pay the same, in favor of the proper party.

SEC. 5. That the sum of twenty-five hundred dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purpose of paying for such reports as are purchased for the use of the state.

The ayes and noes being demanded, the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Ayes 80, noes 26, absent or not voting 22.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred House bill No. 112, entitled "An act to amend sections 1, 10, 11 and 15 of 'An act to provide for the manner of commencing civil actions in superior courts, and to bring the same to trial,' approved March 15, 1893, and declaring an emergency to exist," have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House of Representatives with the recommendation that it be amended as shown by the annexed sheet, and as so amended that the same do pass.

Amend House bill No. 112 as follows: Substitute for section 1 the following:

"SECTION 1. That section 1 of an act entitled 'An act to provide for the manner of commencing civil actions in the superior courts, and to bring the same to trial,' approved March 15, 1893, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows: 'Section 1. Civil actions in the several superior courts of this state shall be commenced by the service of a summons, as hereinafter provided, or by filing a complaint with the county clerk as clerk of the court: Provided, That unless service has been had on the defendant prior to the filing of the complaint the plaintiff shall cause one or more of the defendants to be served personally, or commence service by publication within ninety days from the date of filing the complaint.'"

Substitute for section 2 the following:

"SEC. 2. That section 10 of an act entitled 'An act to provide for the manner of commencing civil actions in the superior courts, and to bring the same to trial,' approved March 15, 1893, be and the same hereby is amended to read as follows: 'Sec. 10. The publication shall be made in a newspaper printed and published in the county where the action is brought (and if there be no newspaper in the county, then in a newspaper printed and published in an adjoining county, and if there is no such newspaper in an adjoining county, then in a newspaper printed and published at the capital of the state) once a week for six consecutive weeks: Provided, That publication of summons shall not be had until after the filing of the complaint; and the service of the summons shall be deemed complete at the expiration of the time prescribed for publication as aforesaid. The summons must be subscribed by the plaintiff or his attorney or attorneys. The summons shall contain the date of the first publication, and shall require the defendant or defendants upon whom service by publication is desired, to appear and answer the complaint within sixty days from the date of the first publication of such summons; and said summons for publication shall also contain a brief statement of the object of the action. Said summons for publication shall be substantially as follows:

"In the superior court of the State of Washington, for the county of __, plaintiff, vs. ____, defendant. No. ___.

"The State of Washington to the said (naming the defendant or defendants to be served by publication):

"You are hereby summoned to appear within sixty days after the date of the first publication of this summons, to wit, within sixty days after the —— day of ——, 1——, and defend the above entitled action in the above entitled court, and answer the complaint of the plaintiff—, and serve a copy of your answer upon the undersigned attorneys for plaintiff—, at his (or their) office below stated; and in case of your failure so to do, judgment will be rendered against you according to the demand of the complaint, which has been filed with the clerk of said court. (Insert here a brief statement of the object of the action.)

______, plaintiff's attorney,
P. O. address: ______, ______ county, Washington.'"

House bill No. 133, entitled "An act relating to the indebtedness of school districts, providing means and methods for paying and funding the same, and means for validating the same or any part thereof incurred in excess of the one and one-half per centum of the taxable property of the school district without the assent of three-fifths of the voters of the school district voting at an election held for that purpose, and declaring that an emergency exists for the taking effect of this act on its passage and approval by the governor."

Very respectfully, PAUL HOLBROOK, Assistant Secretary.

The following was received, read, and ordered entered on the journal of the House:

ASSEMBLY CONCURRENT RESOLUTION, RELATIVE TO THE INTERESTS OF THE SILVER PRODUCING STATES AND TERRITORIES.

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That irrespective of party affiliation, we hereby send cordial greetings to the legislatures of the states of Oregon and Washington, and ask their co-operation in all measures calculated to secure the free and unlimited coinage of silver and gold upon equal terms, and the advancement of the mining interests of the states and territories generally, and especially in the election of no man to the United States senate who is not the honest and earnest friend of the free coinage of gold and silver on equal terms.

Resolved, That a certified copy of these resolutions be immediately forwarded by the secretary of state, under the great seal of the State of Nevada, to the presiding officers of the senate and assembly of each of the states before named, with the request that the same be read in open session to their respective houses.

R. Sadler, L. Allen,
President of the Senate. Speaker of the Assembly.
A. J. Maestretti, T. L. Hoppin,
Secretary of the Senate. Chief Clerk of the Assembly.

Approved February 25, 1895.

[Great seal of the State of Nevada.]

Attest: Eugene Howell, Secretary of State,
By Jonathan Doane, Deputy.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY.

OLYMPIA, WASH., February 15, 1895.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred House bill No. 414, entitled "An act to abolish the offices of regents of the university of Washington; of regents of the agricultural college, experiment station and school of science; of normal school trustees of the Washington state normal school at Ellensburg; of trustees of the normal school of the State of Washington at Cheney; of trustees of the Washington school for defective youth; of trustees of the Western Washington hospital for the insane; of trustees of the Eastern Washington hospital for the insane; of trustees of the Washington soldiers' home; of trustees of the Washington state reformatory school; and of directors of the state penitentiary; to create a board of management of state institutions, defining their powers, prescribing their compensation, appropriating money therefor, and declaring an emergency," have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it be amended as follows:

In line 2, section 2, strike out the words "the lieutenant governor, who shall be ex-officio president of the board."

At the beginning of line 3, section 2, strike out the words "and two," and insert in lieu thereof the word "three."

Amend line 4, section 2, by striking out the word "two," where it first appears, and also by inserting after the word "members" the words "of said board."

In line 1, section 3, strike out the word "appointed." Beginning in line 3, section 3, strike out the words "the lieutenant governor shall receive, in addition to the salary now paid him, the sum of five hundred dollars per annum, payable quarterly, in the same manner as the salary of the appointed members."

Section 22, line 5, after the word "shall" insert "not."

Section 23, line 4, strike out "seventy-two" and insert "forty-eight."

Section 24, line 11, after the word "state" and before the word "inspection" insert the word "grain."

Section 27, line 4, after word "consideration" insert "and the said additional members of said commission," and strike out the word "who" in same line.

Section 18, line 2, after "of" insert "or without," and after "inspection" strike out to the words "provided however" and substitute "and if without inspection he shall be exempt from paying any fee."

Section 28, line 7, strike out the words "buying and shipping" and insert the word "raising" after the word "grain."
Section 30, line 1, insert after the word "grain" the words "in sacks."
Line 1, after "car" insert the words "for one grade only, and the charge for inspecting grain in bulk shall not be more than fifty cents per car." Section 36, line 2, after the words "per annum" insert "payable in the same manner and out of the same funds that other state officers are paid."
Section 38, line 1, strike out "two thousand four hundred" and insert instead "eighteen hundred." In line 2, strike out "five" and insert "two."
Section 38, line 1, after the word "salaries" insert "not otherwise."
Section 42, strike out all of line 9 to word "all."
Section 48, line 2, insert the word "in" between the words "farmers" and "wagons."
Section 48, strike out words "all acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed."
Respectfully submitted. J. O'B. SCOBEY, Chairman.

On motion of Mr. Gandy, the report was adopted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FORESTRY AND HORTICULTURE.

OLYMPIA, WASH., FEBRUARY 28, 1895.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, your Committee on Forestry and Horticulture, to whom was referred Senate bill No. 49, entitled "An act relating to the state board of horticulture, amending sections 6, 7, 8 and 10 of the act approved February 16, 1891, entitled 'An act to create a state board of horticulture, and appropriate money therefor, and declaring an emergency,'" have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House of Representatives with the recommendation that it do pass as amended. The amendments recommended by the committee are as follows:

First: After the word "district," line 7, section 2, add: "And for the purpose of carrying out these provisions, each of said inspectors, in his own district, shall have power to appoint in each county of said district a deputy inspector, with full powers to act in the place of said inspector for said district. Such appointments of deputies may be made and revoked at the pleasure of the said inspector, and for such length of time only as he shall deem actually necessary. The deputy inspector shall receive for his services the sum of $2.50 per day for each day actually and necessarily employed.

Second: The following sections were added after section 4:

Sec. 5. No person, firm or corporation shall engage or continue in the business of selling within the state, or importing fruit trees, plants or nursery stock into this state, without first having or obtaining a license to do business in this state as in this act provided.

Sec. 6. Any person, firm or corporation may obtain a license to engage in the business of selling fruit trees, plants or nursery stock in this state, or may obtain such license to engage in the importation of fruit, fruit trees, plants or nursery stock into this state by filing with the secretary of the state board of horticulture a bond with sureties, to be approved by the said board of horticulture, in the sum of $3,000, conditioned that the principals will faithfully obey the provisions of this act and the laws of the State of Washington, and that the said principals will pay the cost of inspection and destruction of all infested nursery stock or other material or goods imported into or sold within this state by the said principal, or his or their agents. Licenses granted under this act shall be for two years or less, at the discretion of the commissioner.

Sec. 7. It shall be the duty of every person, firm or corporation... licensed to do business under this act to notify the secretary of the state board of horticulture of his intention to ship an invoice of fruit trees, plants or nursery stock from one point to another in this state, or from any point without this state into this state. The said notice shall contain the name and address of both the consignor and consignee, and the invoice of the goods to be shipped, the freight or express office at which the goods are to be delivered, and the name or title of the transportation company from whom the consignee is to receive such goods. Such notice shall be mailed at least twenty-four hours before the day of such shipment.

Sec. 8. Any person, firm or corporation who shall sell within this state, or import into this state, any fruit, fruit trees, plants or nursery stock in violation of the provisions of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, on conviction thereof, be fined for each offense in any sum not less than $25 nor more than $100.

Sec. 9. Any person who shall offer for sale, or solicit persons to purchase from him, any fruit trees, plants or nursery stock belonging to any firm not licensed under the provisions of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and fined in any sum not exceeding $100. All fines imposed for violation of the provisions of this act shall be paid to the treasurer of the county wherein the violation was committed and be placed to the credit of the school fund of such county.

Sec. 10. Inasmuch as there is great danger to the fruit and horticultural interests of the state from the importation of fruit pests and from other causes for which the law does not fully provide: therefore, an emergency exists, and this act shall take effect immediately.

Respectfully submitted. A. J. MILLS, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE THE AFFAIRS OF THE ELLENSBURGH NORMAL SCHOOL.

OLYMPIA, WASH., March 5, 1895.

To the Legislature of the State of Washington:

The joint committee appointed to investigate the affairs of the Ellensburg normal school, in accordance with the joint resolution submitted herewith and marked exhibit "A," respectfully begs leave to report as follows:

We repaired to the city of Ellensburg, as instructed by the Legislature, on Friday, February 22, 1895. And on Saturday morning, February 23, we met in the normal school building, where we immediately summoned the complaining parties, and began an investigation as set forth in the sworn statement of Mr John Shoudy, which charges were then in the hands of your committee. We summoned and examined twenty-five witnesses, among them the trustees of the institution and many of the citizens of Ellensburg, and after a careful examination of all the evidence then taken, your committee finds as follows:

First: We find none of the charges, as set forth in the charges and specifications, substantiated; except that we found that the trustees had, as the erection of the building progressed, made some departure from the plans and specifications upon which the contract for the construction of the building was let, viz.: That the foundation of the building was made of rubble stone and cement, instead of brick and cement as called for in the plans and specifications. We are convinced, however, that said foundation walls are in every respect good and sufficient, both in material and workmanship, and that in making said change no wrong to the state was done nor intended to be done.

We also find that a few thousand brick were placed in some of the interior walls of the building, which were not of the quality called for in the contract, but that by reason of these brick being used no injury was done, nor intended to be done, the state.

We find that in the construction of said building minor changes were made in the plan of the building differing from the original plans and specifications, but we believe that said changes were made in the best interests of the state. We find that the board of trustees consists of three representative men of the city of Ellensburgh. We also believe that the charges preferred against them are to some extent the outgrowth of feelings of venom and revenge, because of the refusal of the board to allow certain claims for compensation alleged to be due the architect and superintendent of the building, said claims being based upon a percentage of the contract price of the building.

We find that the board did right in rejecting the claims, both of Mr. Nash, the superintendent, and Mr. Price, the architect, for the reason that said percentage was figured upon each article of expenditure, such as piano, washing windows, floors, and for window shades, chemicals, furniture and every article going into said building, instead of upon the original contract price for the construction of the building. A percentage was also demanded by them upon the money paid out for freight on the various shipments of material.

We find that the bond taken by the old board of trustees, which let the contract (of which only one member is still on the board), was not such a bond as would protect materialmen and laborers in their claims against the contractor, and that by the changing of the site upon which the building was erected, said bond was practically nulled, for the reason that it was never renewed so as to describe the new site. As a consequence, many materialmen, and some laborers, were unable to get their pay from the contractor. All of these men feel that the board failed in not making an effort to protect their interests. We do not think the board could have done more than it did do in this particular.

We find that the allowance made the board of trustees by the emergency board was expended in the purchase of furniture and for necessary work upon the grounds and building, and that in the purchase of the furniture and the material, and in the contracts for labor, the board worked on a cash basis, and that the emergency certificates issued in payment thereof could only be sold at a discount of 10 per cent., and that the board, for this reason, raised the vouchers so that claims would net the respective claimants cash to the actual face of their claims.

We find that the old board did guarantee to several merchants of Ellensburgh, who were furnishing supplies to the brick maker, that their claims against him would be paid to the extent of the value of three hundred thousand brick, which the contract for the erection of the building compelled the contractor to take at the price of $7.50 per thousand, and that all of such obligations were met and paid by the old board out of the contract price. We find that just after the contracts and agreements above set forth were entered into, two members of the board tendered their resignations, and that two other gentlemen were appointed to fill the vacancies, and that it was the new board which completed the contract, made and entered into by the old board, for the construction of the building; but that the new board did not guarantee any further payment to merchants, or to any other person furnishing materials or labor to the contractor, and that no claim was made against the present board prior to the final settlement with the contractors; but that at the time of the final settlement nearly all of these claims against said contractor were in litigation, and that the contractor was a garnishee defendant in all of these suits, and that said board could not act otherwise than it did.

Your committee most respectfully represent that we believe that the present board of trustees of the Ellensburg normal school are honorable gentlemen, and that in the discharge of their official duties in constructing said building they were actuated only by a desire to construct a building that should be a credit to the state. We believe that they have done so. Further, that they have not, in any way, wrongfully received any pecuniary benefit to themselves by reason of their connection with the construction of said building.

Respectfully submitted.

S. R. NETTLETON, Chairman.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR—PARDONS AND REMISSIONS OF FINES.

OLYMPIA, WASH., March 5, 1895.

The Honorable the House of Representatives of the State of Washington:

GENTLEMEN—In accordance with section 11, article 8 of the constitution, I beg to submit herewith a list of pardons and remissions of fines made by me and not heretofore reported.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

J. H. McGRAW, Governor.

Lucius S. Gonzales, having been found guilty of the crime of sodomy, was sentenced by the judge of the superior court of Pierce county to imprisonment in the state penitentiary for the term of five years. Pardon granted January 24, 1893, for the following reasons: It appears from the affidavits of Gonzales and others, and the statement of the judge and prosecuting attorney in the case, who strongly urged the intervention of executive clemency, that conviction was had solely upon the testimony of a boy confined in jail awaiting trial on a confessed charge of larceny, and whose testimony, from evidence since presented, was rather of an unreliable character, and not entitled to the credit rendered it at that time, which was in fact the only evidence of the overt act. At the time of the trial Gonzales was a stranger in Pierce county, and it appeared that he was a man of vicious habits and abandoned to crime. Subsequently, however, from proofs submitted to the judge and prosecuting attorney, they are convinced that prior to the trial, he possessed a good character and was entitled to respect and credit. His conduct during incarceration has been uniformly good, as appears from the certificate of the warden of the penitentiary filed in this office.

Joseph Kasper, having been found guilty of the crime of larceny, was sentenced by the judge of the superior court of Thurston county to imprisonment in the state penitentiary for the term of two years. Pardon granted February 8, 1893. The application for pardon filed in the executive department was endorsed by the trial judge, prosecuting attorney, prosecuting witness and other reputable citizens, upon the following grounds: Inter alia, that the wife of said Kasper was at that time inceinte and about to be confined; that she was in delicate condition of health and depressed financial circumstances, and wholly dependent upon her husband for support; that said Kasper had always contributed in as liberal a degree as his circumstances would permit to the support of his wife, and had always borne a good reputation for honesty and integrity among his fellow men. Full and complete restitution had been made by said Kasper to the complaining witness in the case, and the friends of Kasper, in his behalf, had discharged and paid in full all the costs incurred in his trial and conviction.

James K. McLiskey, having been convicted of the crime of assault with intent to commit murder, was, on the 29th day of April, 1889, sentenced by the judge of the district court of the second judicial district of the Territory of Washington, to imprisonment in the penitentiary for the period of seven years, and to pay the costs of the action. Pardon granted May 6, 1893, upon the following grounds: The said McLiskey had served, including allowance for good behavior, more than five years of the period for which he was sentenced, during all of which time his conduct was uniformly good, as appears from the certificate of the warden of the penitentiary on file in this department. The application for pardon was numerously signed by reputable citizens of the county wherein the crime was committed, and also by the prosecuting attorney who conducted the case, the trial judge and seven of the jurors, they believing that McLiskey had been sufficiently punished by the imprisonment already undergone, and that in their opinion the ends of justice had been subserved. The granting of the pardon (when McLiskey had served five years, including deductions for good behavior) was also recommended by my predecessor, Governor Elisha P. Ferry, before whom the case was originally considered.

A. E. Cone was sentenced by the judge of the superior court of the State of Washington in and for the county of Whatcom, to imprisonment in the state penitentiary for the term of five years, for the crime of forgery. Pardon granted June 1, 1893. The petition for pardon was signed by a number of leading and reliable citizens of Whatcom county, including the judge and prosecuting attorney in the case. The trial judge certifies that he is "of the opinion that said Cone was to some extent a victim of circumstances and did some rash acts, and perhaps that his acts were more matters of circumstances and rashness than a real intent to do wrong or an unlawful act. It became somewhat apparent in the course of the trial that said Cone was not the principal in the transaction, and he did not receive the benefit of the money from the checks cashed, which it was alleged he forged, but that one Doyle, who left the country, received the money that was derived from said checks, that was alleged to have been forged." The warden of the penitentiary certifies that the conduct of said Cone during his incarceration has been very good, and that he performed in a satisfactory manner all the duties assigned to him, and never broke the rules of the prison.

Ashley C. Baker was sentenced by the judge of the superior court of the State of Washington in and for the county of Pierce, to imprisonment in the state penitentiary at hard labor for the period of one year, for the crime of assault with intent to commit rape.
Pardon granted June 16, 1893. The petition is signed by the presiding judge and prosecuting attorney who conducted the case, and seven of the jurors, recommending executive clemency, upon the following grounds: That upon investigation since his sentence as above set forth, there is reasonable ground to believe that said Baker is not guilty, and in the opinion of the petitioners the ends of justice would be obtained by the liberation of said Baker. The warden of the penitentiary certifies that the conduct of Baker during his confinement was excellent, and that he never transgressed the rules of the institution, and conducted himself in a gentlemanly manner.

Joseph Mestes was, on the 21st day of June, 1889, sentenced by the judge of the district court of King county to imprisonment in the penitentiary for the term of fourteen years, for the crime of highway robbery. Pardon granted June 15, 1893. The judge who presided at the trial, several of the county officers of King county, and many leading citizens of said county, join in a recommendation for executive clemency, upon the following grounds: That since his incarceration disease had wrecked and shattered his health so completely that total disability would surely result were he not liberated. The prison physicians certified as follows: "That all superficial and many deep lymphatic glands are undergoing suppuration; corner of left eye ulcerated; vision practically destroyed unless ulceration ceases; is growing worse, and the constant strain will soon make it impossible for him to labor, and ultimately destroy life." The warden of the penitentiary certifies to his good conduct during incarceration, and to the fact that he held a "trusty" position for some time.

Sylvester Smith, having been found guilty of the crime of an assault with a deadly weapon, with intent to inflict a bodily injury, was, on the 2d day of December, 1892, sentenced by the judge of the superior court of the State of Washington, in and for the county of Clarke, to imprisonment in the state penitentiary at hard labor, for the period of one year and three months. Pardon granted June 22, 1893. It appears from the papers on file that the father of this defendant, James Smith, and one Gil Holbrook became engaged in an altercation on election day, November 9, 1892, at the polling place in Battle Ground precinct. James Smith commenced stabbing Holbrook with a large pocket knife which he had been holding in his hand. Sylvester Smith, the son, aged about 16, was standing some thirty feet away when the fracas began, and seemingly had nothing to do with the quarrel, but rushed in and struck said Holbrook, the force of the blow knocking Holbrook over. The evidence was conflicting as to whether Sylvester Smith had a knife in his hand or not, and as to whether or not he used it on Holbrook. Holbrook was stabbed in two places, but the father testified that he himself inflicted both wounds. Father and son were indicted by the grand jury on the charge of assault with intent to kill. The son demanded and received a separate trial. The father pleaded guilty and was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. The prosecuting attorney, in recommending the issuance of a pardon, says: "I consider the penalty imposed in the case of The State v. Sylvester Smith unnecessarily severe. There were some very strong mitigating circumstances in his favor, and owing to the fact that he is only seventeen years of age, I am of opinion that public justice will be best served by an abridgement of the sentence. I therefore recommend the granting of the foregoing petition." His conduct during incarceration was uniformly good, and the petition was signed by a large number of prominent citizens of Clarke county.

Patrick Foley, having been found guilty of the crime of assault with intent to commit murder, was, on the 2d day of February, 1891, sentenced by the judge of the superior court of King county, State of Washington, to imprisonment in the penitentiary for the term of five years. Pardon granted July 6, 1893. The recommendation for pardon is signed by the prosecuting attorney, the county officials and several hundred citizens of King county, for the following reasons: About the time of this alleged assault with intent to commit murder, the inhabitants of Seattle were greatly exercised in consequence of the continual robberies that were then being perpetrated in that city, which, no doubt, had an effect on the jury in the case; the petitioners believe that said Foley was convicted on insufficient evidence, and that his conviction was the result of the prejudice of the public and of the jury, that said Foley was in poor health, which became aggravated by confinement, as appears from certificates of several reputable physicians. His conduct during incarceration was uniformly good.

John Morris, having been found guilty of the crime of assault with intent to commit rape, was, on the 23d day of March, 1891, sentenced by the judge of the superior court of the State of Washington, in and for the county of Pierce, to imprisonment in the state penitentiary.
penitentiary for the term of six years. A petition containing a large number of signatures, praying for a pardon, was filed in the executive office on June 27, 1894. The petition was based upon the ground of precarious physical condition of said Morris, he being in the last stages of consumption, and doomed to an early death if longer confined, as appears by the certificate of the penitentiary physicians on file. Pardon recommended by the trial judge and prosecuting attorney for the foregoing reasons. Pardon granted, but on the day that papers were filed with the governor, and before the pardon could reach him, Morris died.

John Kehoe was, on the 30th day of April, 1889, convicted of the crime of assault to commit murder, and sentenced to eleven years in the penitentiary by the judge of the district court of the second judicial district, holding terms at Kalama. Pardon granted July 8, 1893. Kehoe, an honorably discharged soldier in the late war, prior to his arrest on this charge, had been a quiet, peaceable, well behaved citizen, and at the time of the application for pardon, was broken down in health. The petition for pardon was signed by the prosecuting attorney, the county officials and many prominent citizens of Cowlitz county. His conduct during incarceration has been excellent.

Roy Campbell was, on the 27th day of July, 1892, sentenced to five years imprisonment in the state penitentiary by the judge of the superior court of the State of Washington in and for the county of Whitman, having plead guilty to the crime of burglary. Pardon granted July 13, 1893. The application for pardon was numerously signed by the leading citizens of Whitman county, including the trial judge and prosecuting attorney in the case, who, in their recommendation, state: "We make this recommendation for the reason that we believe that it is in the interests of justice and humanity that said Campbell be pardoned. In the first place, upon arraignment said Campbell insisted upon pleading guilty, insisted upon being sentenced forthwith, and refused to have counsel appointed by the court. Circumstances surrounding the commission of the crime, which came to light after the plea and sentence, led us to believe, and we now believe, that the defendant entered the building mentioned in the information with no other purpose than to obtain a bottle of liquor, which he did obtain, and retired, and also, that at the time of entering the building mentioned, he was under the influence of liquor to such an extent that his mind was very much clouded. No facts of importance having been adduced at the preliminary examination, and the defendant having been at the time of arraignment and sentence recovering from the effects of drunkenness, we could form very little idea of the merits of the case. We also believe that the defendant, having been sentenced on the 27th day of July, 1892, has already suffered a sufficient penalty for the crime, if any, committed." Governor Ferry, before whom the case was originally filed, after having carefully considered the same, recommended that a pardon be granted when Campbell had served one year. His conduct during incarceration was uniformly good, as appears from the certificate of the warden of the penitentiary filed in this office.

Burdette B. Early, having plead guilty to the crime of larceny, was, on the 12th day of January, 1893, sentenced by the judge of the superior court of the State of Washington in and for the county of King, to imprisonment in the state penitentiary for the term of one year. Pardon granted October 16, 1893. The application for pardon was recommended by the trial judge, the prosecuting attorney, several officers of the Seattle transfer company from whom Early is alleged to have committed the larceny, and numerous citizens of King county. It appears that Early was cashier of the Seattle transfer company, and as such official hundreds and sometimes thousands of dollars passed through his hands daily. The petitioner admits that his accounts were wrong, but strenuously maintains that the errors could not have occurred in any other way than through unintentional mistakes made during the rush of business. His conduct during incarceration was good.

Thomas Ryan was convicted of the crime of grand larceny at Tacoma, Pierce county, in July, 1889, and was sentenced to ten years imprisonment in the state penitentiary. Pardon granted November 14, 1893. Application for pardon was signed by a large number of citizens of said county, and also by the trial judge and prosecuting attorney. His conduct during incarceration was good.

H. D. Hopkins was, on the 24th day of June, 1891, sentenced by the judge of the superior court in and for the county of Pierce to four years imprisonment in the state penitentiary, having been found guilty of the crime of perjury. On the following day the trial judge made and caused to be entered in the court records an order, of which the following is a copy: "After a more thorough and complete consideration of the case of the above defendant, sentenced yesterday to four years, I feel that it will not be improper to exercise leniency, and it is therefore ordered that one year of the sentence heretofore made is remitted, and it is therefore ordered that said Hopkins be confined in the penitentiary of Washington at hard labor for three years instead of four. In all other respects the judgment entered on the sentence imposed is to be in full force." Pardon granted November 28, 1893, at which time, including deductions for good behavior, Hopkins had served three years. The trial judge recommended the issuance of the pardon.

Patrick Corrigan, having been found guilty of the crime of assault and battery, was, on the 23d day of September, 1893, sentenced by the judge of the superior court of the State of Washington in and for the county of Pierce, to imprisonment in the county jail of said county for a term of ten months. Pardon granted December 14, 1893. The petition for pardon was signed by the county officials, the trial judge and the prosecuting attorney. The prosecuting attorney in his recommendation says: "I believe that he has been sufficiently punished, and his further incarceration would only be a burden upon the county, without any further good to be accomplished." It appears that Corrigan was a sailor, his home being in Australia. Affidavits made by persons who allege that they themselves committed the assault and battery for which Corrigan was sentenced, show that Corrigan was in no way implicated in the assault.

James McCoy, having been found guilty of the crime of larceny, was, on the 1st day of March, 1892, sentenced by the judge of the superior court of the State of Washington in and for the county of Pierce, to imprisonment in the state penitentiary for the term of—years. From the papers on file in the case it appears that McCoy and two other persons were traveling together in a wagon in the county of Pierce on the 24th day of December, 1891, McCoy driving the wagon, which stopped near a school house, and the two persons with McCoy got out of the wagon, entered the school house and took therefrom a water pail, a clock and a dictionary, and carried the same away. McCoy claimed to be innocent and that he was only driving the wagon. The prosecuting attorney in his statement says: "The reason of the long sentence and of the distinction in the terms of imprisonment of the parties was that immediately previous to the time of the commission of this crime a great many petit larcenies and burglaries had been committed along the public road from Olympia to this school house, and it was believed that these parties were guilty of the other offenses, but from the appearance of James McCoy and what inquiry I made, I did not believe him to be a hardened criminal and recommended executive clemency in his case." The chief justice of the supreme court of Washington, after a painstaking investigation of all the circumstances connected with the conviction of McCoy, was convinced beyond any doubt that McCoy was innocent of any participation in the crime for which he was convicted, and earnestly recommended the issuance of a pardon.

Charles Myron Pierce, having plead guilty to the charge of assault and battery, was sentenced on the 28th day of December, 1893, by the judge of the superior court of the State of Washington in and for the county of Klickitat, to imprisonment in the county jail of said county for the term of five months, and that he be fined the sum of $100 and costs. Pardon granted March 9, 1894. It appears from the statement of the trial judge that "said Charles Myron Pierce and another boy named Charles Miller, on November 5, 1893, got into an altercation and finally began fighting, the Miller boy striking the first blow. During the melee said Pierce drew an ordinary pocket knife and severely cut and stabbed Miller in several places. The Miller boy finally overpowered Pierce and he put up the knife. Pierce is fifteen years of age and the Miller boy is fifteen years of age." Pardon was recommended by the county commissioners and other officials of said county, together with a large number of prominent citizens. Pardon granted and fine remitted March 9, 1894.

Edward Hogan, together with one Dick Lacey and one Frank Morgan, having been found guilty of the crime of robbery, were, on the 5th day of March, 1891, sentenced by the judge of the superior court of Pierce county to imprisonment at hard labor in the state penitentiary for the term of nine years. Pardon granted March 15, 1894. It appears that at about this time Tacoma was swarming with disreputable characters, which may account for the heavy sentence imposed. It is quite clearly shown by affidavit that Hogan, then but a boy, had not been in the city of Tacoma but a few days prior to his arrest, and had previously borne a good reputation. The prosecuting attorney, after an examination into the case since Hogan's incarceration, recommended the commutation of his sentence to three years, believing "that his sentence was made upon a mistake as to who he really was. I am now satisfied that he is not a professional criminal, and is more unfortunate than criminal." Pardon was also recommended by the trial judge and numerous citizens. Conduct during incarceration was good.

J. M. Bennington was, on the 14th day of December, 1891, sentenced, by the judge of the superior court of the State of Washington in and for the county of Pierce, to imprisonment in the state penitentiary for the term of three years for the crime of forgery. Pardon granted April 3, 1894. The application for pardon is signed by the trial judge and prosecuting attorney, and also a large number of the citizens of Pierce county. The board of directors and officials of the state penitentiary certify to his good conduct during incarceration, and to the fact that he has discharged important and onerous duties for the state with ability and satisfaction. For a long time he was in charge of the warehouse connected with the factory, from which grain bags were delivered; during the season of 1893 he delivered over 1,225,000 grain bags and properly accounted for every one. The directors and prison officials, in view of his services and good conduct, strongly recommend a pardon.

Fred J. Munson, having been found guilty of the crime of burglary, was, on the 11th day of April, 1893, sentenced, by the judge of the superior court of the State of Washington in and for the county of Thurston, to imprisonment in the state penitentiary for the term of one year and three months. Pardon granted April 19, 1894. The application for pardon is signed by the prosecuting witness and several hundred citizens of Thurston and King counties, and several of the jurors. Said Munson was a young man of the age of 18 years, and the petitioners allege that his character and habits had theretofore been good, and he had not prior to that time been guilty of any other offense.

Thomas Ambler, having been found guilty of the crime of assault with intent to commit murder, was, on the 18th day of September, 1891, sentenced by the judge of the superior court of the State of Washington in and for the county of Kittitas, to imprisonment in the state penitentiary for the term of five years. Pardon granted May 3, 1894. The trial judge in recommending the issuance of a pardon says: "Ambler was convicted in the superior court of Kittitas county on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder. The assault was made in the night-time and in a most cowardly and brutal manner. The only point in the case was as to the identity of the defendant and the assailant. I was greatly impressed with the idea of his innocence from his statement on trial and at the time of sentence, but the verdict of guilty was sustained by the evidence and was allowed to stand. This man is a negro of previous good character; and it is the opinion of some of the best citizens of the community where he resided that either through malice, self-interest or mistake, the crime was wrongfully fastened upon Ambler by the witnesses. The circumstances surrounding the assault all showed that this might be true." The pardon was also recommended by the prosecuting attorney and a large number of citizens of Kittitas county. During his incarceration his conduct was good, and he faithfully performed all of the duties assigned to him.

Isador Joseph, having been found guilty of the crime of forgery, was, on the 17th day of June, 1893, sentenced by the judge of the superior court of the State of Washington in and for the county of Lewis, to imprisonment in the state penitentiary for the term of three years. Pardon granted May 16, 1894. The prosecuting attorney in recommending a pardon says: "I regard the sentence as being too severe under the circumstances. He was a man who had previously borne a good reputation and standing in the community in which he lived and had never manifested any criminal inclination prior to this offense. I think that he has already paid more than the just penalty for the crime committed, and I cheerfully recommend that he be pardoned at once." Pardon also recommended by the trial judge. His conduct during imprisonment was good.

Isaac Arquet and one E. L. Payne were tried, convicted and sentenced on March 1, 1892, by the judge of the superior court of Pierce county, to a term of seven years in the penitentiary upon an information charging them with the crime of grand larceny. Payne took an appeal to the supreme court and the judgment of the superior court was reversed, upon the ground that the evidence as disclosed by the record is palpably insufficient to warrant the verdict. Arquet was convicted upon precisely the same evidence as Payne, but failed to take an appeal. The trial judge and prosecuting attorney recommended a pardon, which was granted October 27, 1894.
Frank Jones was, on March 15, 1894, convicted in the superior court of Clallam county of assault and battery and fined $50 and costs—$192. Pardon granted November 14, 1894. Pardon recommended by the prosecutor and a large number of citizens, including the county commissioners and other officials of Clallam county. It appears from a statement made by the trial judge that "the evidence at the trial was exceedingly conflicting and gave rise to serious doubts as to whether the assault was commenced by the defendant Jones or by the prosecuting witness, and also as to whether Jones at any time assaulted complaining witness, or only acted in self defense. The jury having finally determined the facts against Jones the court, following the usual rule in cases of direct conflict of evidence on the facts, sustained the verdict and refused a new trial."

The communication was received, and ordered spread on the journal without the complete reading.

On motion of Mr. Moore, House bill No. 579, substitute for House bill No. 274, was made a special order for 8 o'clock Thursday night, March 7.

There being no objections, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Mr. Williams was given permission to introduce the report of the special committee to visit the state university, which was read at length.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE TO VISIT STATE UNIVERSITY.

OLYMPIA, WASH., March 4, 1895.
To the Honorable President of the Senate, and Speaker of the House:

We, your committee appointed to visit the University of Washington, and to ascertain the condition and needs of that institution, beg leave to report as follows:

We left the capitol on Wednesday, February 27th, arriving in Seattle at 7:45 P. M. On the following morning at 9 A. M. we visited the university at the old site, in company with the board of regents. Here we found the chapel of the university literally packed and overflowing with students. An hour was pleasantly spent by the committee in listening to music by the students, and statements from various speakers as to the hopes and plans for the future of the university.

The laboratories, library and recitation rooms of the old building were then inspected, and there was not a member of this committee who failed to evince surprise at the crowded condition of the rooms and the scant supply of appliances for anything like adequate work in so important an institution. Seemingly, there is not a single square foot of space in the whole building unutilized. The library was found to consist largely of miscellaneous books, acquired mostly by donations, and it was placed in a room extemporized by partitioning off a former hallway. Many additional books are needed in each branch of the library.

After this inspection of the old building the committee investigated the astronomical observatory, which was found in excellent condition and easy to remove and adapt to the needs in this line in the new university.
Three companies of the university cadets, in command of Lieutenant John L. Hayden, of the United States army, gave a most interesting drill and dress parade. The carriage and general appearance of the young men fully attested the value of this department of instruction and drill.

After this we inspected the old grounds, consisting of a beautiful plat of ten acres in the center of Seattle, and also the other old buildings on the grounds. In the young naturalist's hall, which belongs to the National Historical Society of Seattle, we found a great quantity of valuable materials stored. These consist of botanical, mineralogical, ethnological, and other such specimens in large numbers, obtained by the university from the world's fair. These articles are now in storage, for lack of exhibition or laboratory room, but will be removed and utilized in the new building as soon as the latter is completed.

After thus thoroughly inspecting the old grounds and buildings, we proceeded to the new site and new buildings now in course of construction. The new site is certainly one of the most ideal university sites of the world. The ground is ample for all future needs, and is situated between lakes Union and Washington, with shore frontage on both lakes. The surface of the ground, while affording ample level spaces for building sites and for campus purposes, is also broken, in places, by natural contours, affording excellent opportunities for future development under the care of a landscape gardener. The entire ground is covered with groves of the beautiful trees indigenous to Western Washington.

In the way of buildings on these new grounds, we found the main building about three-quarters finished, and nothing but feelings of pride and pleasure could result from a visit to this building by any citizen of the state. The principal impressions created by the first visit to the building are those of durability, beauty and utility. The foundation of the building is of rock imbedded in cement mortar. The lower part of the building and all the trimmings of the first story are of white sandstone from the Pittsburgh (Pierce county) quarries. The upper portion is of cream colored pressed brick of an excellent quality from Spokane county. The trimmings of the upper stories are to be terra cotta, now being made in King county. In fact, we found that all the materials used are being obtained within the state, so far as possible. The roof is to be of the best quality of Pennsylvania slate. An inspection of the interior showed the rooms to have been excellently planned for their several purposes. Your committee became thoroughly satisfied from this careful inspection that the materials and workmanship on the structure are first class in every respect, and that the state is getting "value received" for every dollar expended thereon. The main portion of this new building is 244 feet long by 70 feet wide. Extending to the rear from the center is a wing 54 feet wide by 91 feet long, which wing contains the assembly hall. The building is being constructed by Cameron & Ashenfelter, of Spokane. The architect is Chas. W. Saunders, and the superintendent for the state is James A. Johnson, Seattle.

The only other building on the new grounds is a gymnasium and drill hall building, which is a solid frame structure 165 feet long by 117 feet wide. This building is complete and has been accepted by the board of regents. It has cost a little less than $7,000, and it is certainly about perfect for the purposes intended. The contractors on this building were Flynn & Rockmark, of Seattle.

We inspected the new grounds thoroughly, and then appointed a sub-committee, consisting of Senator Harper and Representatives Foster and Cheetham, to attend a session of the board of regents and examine into their accounts and ascertain the actual needs of the institution. This sub-committee held two sessions with the board of regents, one in the afternoon and another in the evening. From their investigations, and from their own observations, we are prepared to report that we believe that the affairs of the University of Washington have been administered in a most careful and conscientious manner during the past two years by the present board of regents, and we are also prepared to make the following earnest recommendations:

First: In order that the general fund of the state may be repaid the appropriation of $150,000 made two years ago, and also that this session of the legislature may find its way clear to render sufficient aid to the university for the next two years, we recommend that Senate bill No. 302 be passed. This provides for bonding the properties of the university, consisting of the valuable tract of ten acres in Seattle and over 3,000 acres in Western Washington, remaining from the old grant of 1854, for the sum of $225,000, which will pay back the $150,000 appropriated two years ago, $50,000 asked for this session for needed improvements, and $25,000 of the sum needed for maintenance for the next two years.

Second: With that bill enacted we also earnestly recommend that the allowance in the general appropriation bill for maintenance be placed at $85,000 for the next two years, which sum will provide the necessary equipments of the various laboratories and the library, which are urgently needed, as well as furnishing a few additional professors, which we find an absolute necessity, the students having increased from 145 to 500 in number during the past two years, while no additions have been made to the teaching force.

Third: Under the same condition of providing for bonding the lands, we recommend that House bill No. 393 be enacted. This provides, under the bonding plan, for $50,000 to erect the necessary power and water plant to furnish the new buildings, to build a residence for the president and a cottage for the janitor, improving the grounds and making other necessary improvements.

Fourth: We would respectfully call attention to House bill No. 492, prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors within two miles of the new university, and we would recommend that this bill be speedily enacted into a law.

Fifth: In case some adequate action looking to a revised system of governing the state institutions should not be taken we would recommend that House bill No. 560, cutting the board of regents down from eight to three members, be enacted to save as much as possible in the expense of managing this institution, though we believe that the same object would be accomplished and possibly greater safety result from this measure if the board of regents were made to consist of five members, who shall serve without pay after the completion of the university.

Sixth: We find that owing to unavoidable delays and owing to the fact that 10 per cent. of the contract price has been retained from the builders, a portion of the original appropriation of $150,000 will lapse into the treasury on March 31st, under the provision of the state constitution. As the contracts have all been entered into, and as provision is being made to repay this entire sum to the state, we recommend that Senate bill No. 196 be passed. This simply revives the unexpended balance of the old appropriation.

In making these recommendations we do so after a most careful consideration of all the factors of the case. The board of regents originally contemplated many useful additions to the departments of work, but after learning of the conditions confronting this legislature during the present stringent financial period, they have reluctantly withdrawn these desires, and over $40,000 has been cut off the sum requested for maintenance for the next two years. We, therefore, trust that for the best interests of the University of Washington the above recommendations and requests will be acted upon and granted.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., February 28, 1895.

Mr. Speaker:
We, your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred House bill No. 187, entitled “An act to amend section 55 of volume 2 of Hill's Annotated Statutes and Codes of Washington, relating to the qualifications of jurors,” have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House of Representatives with the recommendation that it be amended by striking from line 9 the words “and a taxpayer,” and as so amended, that it do pass.

Respectfully submitted.

We concur in this report:

R. B. Milroy, Chairman.
L. H. Coon,
J. O'B. Scobery,
Chas. E. Cline,
Solon T. Williams,
A. M. Moore.
On motion of Mr. Conner, the report was adopted. The bill was read the second time.

On motion of Mr. Williams, the rules were suspended; the bill was considered engrossed, read the third time and placed on final passage.

The bill passed the House by the following vote: Ayes 45, noes 0, absent or not voting 33.

The title was amended by striking out "a bill for."

There being no objections, the title of the bill, as amended, was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON COMPENSATION AND FEES FOR STATE AND COUNTY OFFICERS.

OLYMPIA, WASH., February 21, 1895.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, your Committee on Compensation and Fees for State and County Officers, to whom was referred House bill No. 441, entitled "An act to provide for the election of a county recorder in certain counties, prescribing the duties and fixing the compensation thereof," have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House of Representatives, with the recommendation that it be indefinitely postponed.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DIKES, DRAINS AND DRAINAGE.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
Olympia, Wash., February 20, 1895.

Mr. Speaker:

We, your Committee on Dikes, Drains and Drainage, to whom was referred House bill No. 401, entitled "A bill for an act to provide for the establishment and creation of diking districts and the construction and maintenance of a system of dikes, and to provide the means of payment thereof, and declaring an emergency," have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House of Representatives with the recommendation that, as amended herewith, it do pass.

First amendment: Strike out all of sections 1 and 2 and substitute the following:

SECTION 1. Any portion of a county requiring diking, which contains five or more inhabitants and freeholders therein, may be organized into a diking district, and when so organized, such district and the board of commissioners hereinafter provided for, shall have and possess the power herein conferred, or that may hereafter be conferred by law upon such districts and board of commissioners, and said district shall be known and designated as diking district No. ... (here insert number), of the county of ... (here insert the name of the county), of the State of Washington, and shall have the right to sue and be sued by and in the name of its board of commissioners hereinafter provided for, and shall have perpetual succession, and shall adopt and use a seal. The commissioners hereinafter provided for, and their successors in office, shall, from the time of the organization of such diking district, have the power, and it shall be their duty, to manage and conduct the business and affairs of the district, make and execute all necessary contracts, employ and appoint such agents, officers and employees as may be required, and prescribe their duties, and perform such other acts as hereinafter provided, or that may hereafter be provided by law.

Sec. 2. For the purpose of the formation of such diking districts a petition shall be presented to the board of county commissioners of the county in which said proposed diking district is located, which petition shall set forth the object for the creation of said district, shall designate the boundaries thereof, and set forth therein the number of acres of land to be benefited by the proposed diking system, and shall also contain the names of all the freeholders residing within said proposed district (so far as known), and shall contain a brief description of the proposed system of diking, the route over which the same is to be constructed, together with the proposed spurs or branches, if any there may be, and the termini thereof, and set forth the further fact that the establishment of said district and the proposed system of diking will be conducive to the public health, convenience and welfare, and increase the public revenue, and that the establishment of said district and said system of diking will be of special benefit to the property included therein. Said petition shall be signed by such a number as own at least a majority of the acreage in the proposed district, and shall pray that the same be organized under the provisions of this act. Said petitioners shall, at the time of the filing of said petition, file a bond with said commissioners, running to the State of Washington, in the penal sum of five hundred dollars, with two or more sureties, to be approved by the board of county commissioners, conditioned that they will pay all costs in case said district for any reason shall not be established.

Section 4 is amended as follows:

First, by striking out the word "incorporated," beginning at the end of line 6, and inserting in lieu thereof the word "organized."

By striking out the words "municipal corporation," in line 7, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "diking district."

By striking out the word "incorporated," beginning at the end of line 9, and inserting in lieu thereof the word "organized."

By striking out the words "corporate and," at the end of line 10, and the word "municipal," in line 11, and inserting in lieu thereof the word "district."

By striking out the words "for incorporation or against incorporation," in lines 21 and 22, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "diking district, yes, or diking district, no."

Section 5 is amended as follows:

By striking out the words "the incorporation of such diking district," in lines 8 and 9, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "diking district, yes."

By striking out the words "incorporated as a municipal corporation," in line 10, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "organized as a diking district."

By striking out the word "corporation," in line 15, and inserting in lieu thereof the word "organization."

Section 7 is amended as follows:

By striking out the words "all corporations incorporated," in line 1, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "all diking districts organized."

By adding at the end of said section the words: "Provided further, That the said board of commissioners shall have power to acquire by purchase all the real property necessary to make the improvements herein provided for."

Section 8 is amended as follows:

By adding to the end of said section the words: "Provided, That in counties where there may be more than one superior judge, the judge eldest in age shall make such appointment."

Section 9 is amended as follows:

By inserting in line 7, after the word "landowners," the words "whose lands are."

By inserting in line 15, after the word "sustained," the words "by any person or corporation interested therein."
Strike out all of section 11 and substitute the following:

SEC. 11. A summons stating briefly the objects of the petition and containing a description of the land, real estate, premises or property sought to be appropriated, and those which it is claimed will be benefited by such improvement, and stating the court wherein said petition is filed, the date of the filing thereof, and when the defendants are required to appear (which shall be ten days, exclusive of the day of service, if served within the county in which the petition is pending, and if in any other county, then twenty days after such service, and if served by publication, then within thirty days from the date of the first publication), shall be served on each and every person named therein as owner, encumbrancer, tenant, or otherwise interested therein. Said summons must be subscribed by the commissioners, or their attorney, running in the name of the State of Washington, and directed to the defendants; and service thereof shall be made by delivering a copy of such summons to each of the persons or parties so named therein, if a resident of the state, or in case of the absence of such person or party from his or her usual place of abode, by leaving a copy of such notice at his or her usual place of abode; or in case of a foreign corporation, at its principal place of business in this state with some person of more than sixteen years of age; in case of domestic corporations, said service shall be made upon the president, secretary, or other director or trustee of such corporation; in case of minors, on their guardians, or in case no guardian shall have been appointed, then on the person who has the care and custody of such minor; in case of idiots, lunatics or insane persons, on their guardian, or in case no guardian shall have been appointed, then on the person in whose care or charge they are found. In case the land, real estate, premises, or other property sought to be appropriated, or which it is claimed will be benefited by such improvement, is state, tide, school or county land, the summons shall be served on the auditor of the county in which the land, real estate, premises, or other property sought to be appropriated, or which it is claimed will be benefited, is situated. In all cases where the owner or person claiming an interest in such real or other property is a non-resident of this state, or where the residence of such owner or person is unknown, and an affidavit of one or more of the commissioners of said district shall be filed that such owner or person is a non-resident of this state, or that after diligent inquiry his residence is unknown or cannot be ascertained by such deponent, service may be made by publication thereof in a newspaper published in the county where such lands are situated once a week for three successive weeks; and in case no newspaper is published in such county, then such publication may be had in a newspaper published in the county nearest to the county in which lies the land sought to be appropriated or which it is claimed will be benefited, by said improvement. Such publication shall be deemed service upon each non-resident person or persons whose residence is unknown. Such summons may be served by any competent person over twenty-one years of age. Due proof of service of such summons, by affidavit of the person serving the same, or by the printer's affidavit of publication, shall be filed with the clerk of such court before the court shall proceed to hear the matter. Want of service of such notice shall render the subsequent proceedings void as to the person not served; but all persons or parties having been served with summons, as herein provided, either by publication or otherwise, shall be bound by the subsequent proceedings. In all cases not otherwise provided for service of notice, order, and other papers in the proceedings authorized by this chapter, may be made by the superior court, or the judge thereof, may direct: Provided, That personal service upon any party outside of the state shall be of like effect as service by publication.

their duties, and perform such other acts as hereinafter provided, or that may hereafter be provided by law.

Section 2 is amended so as to read as follows:

SEC. 2. For the purpose of the formation of such drainage districts a petition shall be presented to the board of county commissioners of the county in which said proposed drainage district is located, which petition shall set forth the object for the creation of said district, shall designate the boundaries thereof, and set forth therein the number of acres of land to be benefited by the proposed drainage system, and shall also contain the names of all the freeholders residing within said proposed district (so far as known), and shall contain a brief description of the proposed system of drainage, designating a point which shall be a good and sufficient outlet for the drainage of said district, the route over which the same is to be constructed, together with the proposed spurs or branches, if any there may be, and the termini thereof, and set forth the further fact that the establishment of said district and the proposed system of drainage will be conducive to the public health, convenience and welfare, and increase the public revenue, and that the establishment of said district and said system of drainage will be of special benefit to the property included therein. Said petition shall be signed by such a number as own at least a majority of the acreage in the proposed district, and shall pray that the same be organized under the provisions of this act. Said petitioners shall, at the time of the filing of said petition, file a bond with said commissioners, running to the State of Washington, in the penal sum of five hundred dollars, with two or more sureties to be approved by the board of county commissioners, conditioned that they will pay all costs in case said district for any reason shall not be established.

Various amendments were proposed to the report of the committee, to wit:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PRIVILEGES AND ELECTIONS.

House of Representatives,
Olympia, Wash., March 1, 1895.

Mr. Speaker:

We, your Committee on Privileges and Elections, to whom was referred House bill No. 356, entitled "An act amending sections 356 and 361 of chapter 2, title 8; also, sections 367, 379, 384, 385, 390, 391, of chapter 3, title 8, volume 1 of Hill's Codes and Statutes of Washington, etc., in relation to elections," have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House of Representatives with the recommendation that it do pass as amended.
Amendment: After the word "ballot," in line 24, section 4, insert the following:

Upon each ballot a perforated line, one-half inch from the left hand edge of such ballot, shall extend from the top of such ballot toward the bottom of the same for two inches, thence to the left hand edge of the ballot, and upon the space thus formed there shall be no printing except the number of such ballot, which shall be upon the back of such space, in such position that it shall appear upon the outside when the ballot is folded. The county auditor shall cause official ballots to be numbered from one upwards, consecutively, beginning with number one for each separate voting precinct. Official ballots for use within a given county commissioner's district shall not contain the names of the nominees for county commissioners for any other district. Official ballots for a given precinct shall not contain the names of nominees for justices of the peace and constables of any other precinct, except in cases of municipalities, where a number of precincts vote for the same nominees for justices of the peace and constables, and in the latter event, the ballot shall contain only the names to be voted for by the electors of such precincts.

In section 6, line 2, strike out all after the figures 384 down to and including the word "Washington," in line 7, and insert the following:

At any election it shall be the duty of the inspector or one of the judges of election to deliver ballots to the qualified electors. Any elector desiring to vote shall give his name to the inspector or one of the judges, who shall then, in an audible tone of voice, announce the same, whereupon a challenge may be interposed in the manner provided by law. If no challenge be interposed, or if the challenge be overruled, the inspector or one of the judges shall give him a ballot, at the same time calling to the clerks of election the number of such ballot. In precincts where there is a registration of voters it shall be the duty of such clerks to write the number of the ballot against the name of such elector as the same appears upon the certified copy of poll books of registration in their possession. In precincts where there are no registration of voters it shall be the duty of the clerks to transcribe the name of the elector in the poll books, and against such name the number of the ballot delivered to the elector.

In line 17, section 7, strike out all after the word "vote," and all of line 18, and insert:

Before leaving the booth or compartment the elector shall fold his ballot in such a manner that the number of the ballot shall appear on the outside thereof, without displaying the marks on the face thereof, and he shall keep it folded until he has voted. Having folded the ballot, the elector shall deliver it folded to the inspector, who shall, in an audible tone of voice, repeat the name of the elector and the number of the ballot. The election clerks having the certified copies of the poll books of registration or poll books in charge shall, if they find the number marked opposite the elector's name on the register or poll books to correspond with the number of the ballot handed to the inspector, mark opposite the name of such elector the word "voted," and one of the clerks shall call back, in an audible tone, the name of the elector and the number of his ballot. The inspector shall separate the slip containing the number of the ballot from the ballots and shall deposit the ballot in the ballot box. The numbers removed from ballots shall be immediately destroyed.

In section 9, line 2, strike out all after the word "votes," down to and including the word "and," in line 4.

In section 11, line 4, strike out all after the word "designated," down to and including the word "box," in line 8.

Add after the word "given," in line 28, section 4, the following, viz.:

"Provided, That the parties shall be named upon the ballot in the order of their numerical strength, as shown at the last general election."

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE.

SENATE CHAMBER,
OLYMPIA, WASH., March 11, 1895.

MR. SPEAKER:

The Senate has passed Senate bill No. 227, by Senator Van Houten: An act establishing in the city of New York a fiscal agency of the State of Washington, and of counties, townships, school districts, cities and towns therein, and prescribing the duties of such fiscal agency, and the duties of the public officers in relation thereto, and declaring an emergency.

Also, Senate bill No. 299, by Senator Dorr: An act exempting the proceeds of life insurance from liability for debt.

And the same are herewith transmitted. T. G. Nicklin, Secretary.

On motion of Mr. Nims, the vote whereby House bill No. 505, by Mr. Moore, an act relating to weighers for lumber and shingles, failed to pass, was reconsidered.

Mr. Bull, as chairman of the special committee appointed to investigate the alleged charges of misconduct in office, of Judge Langhorne, submitted two reports, designated as report No. 1, and report No. 2. The reports were read in full, and are as follows, to wit:

REPORT NO. 1.—LANGHORNE INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE.

To the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the State of Washington:

Your committee duly appointed to investigate the charges against Hon. W. W. Langhorne, superior judge of the counties of Lewis, Pacific and Wahkiakum, said charges being in our possession, likewise specifications duly verified by Edward F. Hunter, would respectfully report as follows:

Your committee having leave of absence from this House proceeded to the city of South Bend, in Pacific county, examined twenty-six witnesses, and thereafter at the city of Chehalis, in Lewis county, examined sixty-nine witnesses, and thereafter at the city of Olympia, Thurston county, examined eighteen witnesses, and herewith report our conclusions:

Your committee finds that some of the specifications charged constitute in its opinion, within the purview of section 2 of article 5 of the constitution of this state, "high crimes and misdemeanors" and are substantiated by admissible and competent testimony, and others so charged are not so substantiated, and we further find that some of the matters charged in said specifications, in the opinion of this committee, plainly constitute "malfeasance in office" within the said section and article of the constitution of the State of Washington, and are so maintained and substantiated by relevant and competent testimony.

I.

As to the matters averred in specification No. 1 of the first charge, wherein Judge Langehorne is accused of sustaining the demurrer and dismissing the amended complaint, without having read the same, or having heard the same read or its contents stated, and without hearing argument thereon, your committee finds that such accusation is sustained by the evidence.

II.

As to the matters averred in specification No. 4 of the first charge, in reference to appointment of receiver and attorneys for the Tower Lumber Co., we, your committee, find the evidence to be conflicting, with the preponderance in favor of the matters alleged.

III.

We find as to the allegations set forth in specification No. 6 of the first charge, wherein said Judge Langhorne is accused of intentionally and without cause, for the purpose of breaking up the business of certain lawyers, therein mentioned, and of publicly threatening in the communities wherein they reside, for the purpose of so breaking up the business of said lawyers, of arbitrarily and publicly stating that it was his intention to disbar said attorneys from practicing their profession in his court, that said charges are sustained by the evidence.

IV.

Your committee finds that the charge made in specification No. 2 of the second charge, wherein said Langhorne is accused of threatening to kill Edward F. Hunter at the St. Helen's hotel in the city of Chehalis, Washington, and with such intention proceeded thence armed with a deadly weapon, to be substantiated by the testimony produced upon our investigation.

V.

As to the matters averred in specification No. 3 of the second charge, wherein said Langhorne is charged with exhibiting a revolver pistol and stating that he was going to fill Edward F. Hunter with lead, we find that the matters therein alleged are true.

VI.

That your committee finds that the charges of intoxication while on as well as off the bench, of the said W. W. Langhorne, judge, as set out in specification No. 5 of the second charge, are true and have been established before your committee by the great weight of testimony.
VII.
As to the matters averred in specification No. 7 of the second charge, in reference to the interference with the administration of the business of the court of Lewis county and selection of deputies to be appointed, we find said charges to be established by the preponderance of the evidence.

VIII.
As to the matters charged in specification No. 7 of the fifth charge, wherein it is alleged that said Langhorne promised the appointment of a receivership in a valuable estate now in litigation in the county of Lewis, in consideration of such appointment, the appointee to render his assistance to said Langhorne in a certain proposed impeachment case, then pending, and compensation thereof to suit proposed appointee and his attorney, we find the above charge to be true.

IX.
As to the matters charged in specification No. 2 of the last charge, "that on account of the refusal of complainant to form a copartnership with his son, Maurice A. Langhorne, that the said W. W. Langhorne, as judge and as an individual, has persecuted said complainant both in and out of court," we, your committee, find that the evidence, while conflicting as to the above charge, is substantiated and proven to be true by testimony of witnesses in specification No. 3 of said last charge.

X.
As to the matters charged in specification No. 3 of the last charge, "that on account of the refusal of certain attorneys in Lewis and Pacific counties to form copartnership with the said son of the said Langhorne, that such refusals have been followed up by judicial and private persecutions from and by said W. W. Langhorne toward the above mentioned attorneys," we, your committee, find to be true.

XI.
Your committee finds as to specification No. 4 of the last charge, wherein said Langhorne is accused of examining and cross-examining witnesses in cases tried by him as presiding judge, and before a jury, and of generally usurping the province of the attorneys in such cases and denying to them the privileges as such attorneys, and of depriving them of the right of intelligently performing the duties and obligations which exist between attorneys and clients, and that said judge imposes many fines for contempt upon members of the bar during the trial of cases before juries in which he is the presiding judge and afterwards in private remitting such fines, would respectfully report that from the great bulk of the testimony adduced before them at the hearings they find that all the said allegations are proven by convincing and satisfactory testimony.

From the foregoing, we, the undersigned members of the aforesaid committee, do hereby recommend that the said Hon. W. W. Langhorne, judge of the aforesaid court, be impeached for the misdemeanors and malfeasance in said office, as such judge, as is shown by the foregoing report of this your committee.

Respectfully submitted.

W. A. Halteman,
A. J. Goddard,
Members of Committee.

REPORT No. 2.—LANGHORNE INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE.

To the Speaker of the House of Representatives, State of Washington:

Your committee, duly appointed to investigate the charges against the Hon. W. W. Langhorne, superior judge of the counties of Lewis, Pacific and Wahkiakum, said charges being in our possession, likewise specifications duly verified by Edward F. Hunter, would respectfully report as follows:

Your committee, having leave of absence from this House, proceeded to the city of South Bend, in Pacific county, examined twenty-six (26) witnesses, and thereafter at the city of Chehalis, in Lewis county, examined sixty-nine (69) witnesses, and thereafter at the city of Olympia, Thurston county, examined eighteen (18) witnesses, and herewith report our conclusions.

Some of the matters charged in said specifications do not, in our opinion, constitute “high crimes and misdemeanors” within the meaning and intent of section 2, article 5, of the constitution of the State of Washington.

Many of the matters charged at most indicate a lack rather than an abuse of sound judicial discretion.

Among the matters charged are many that relate to private and social life and conduct, rather than to any official acts as a superior judge of the State of Washington.

The force and effect of the testimony of many of the witnesses, relating to the official acts of the accused, is very much lessened by the fact that the said witnesses, during the month of December, 1894, at the solicitation of the friends of W. W. Langhorne, signed a written statement wholly endorsing and approving the official acts of said accused, and now testify against the accused and contrary to said statement, excusing the signing of such statement by saying they had cases then pending in the several superior courts over which Judge Langhorne presided, and feared to prejudice the interests of their clients by refusing to sign said statement, and further, that a refusal would injure their practice in the above mentioned courts.

Some of the facts recited appear to sustain the charge of irregularities approaching malfeasance in office by a preponderance of evidence, but not “beyond a reasonable doubt” or to a “moral certainty.” But the testimony of two or more reputable witnesses was to the effect that the accused was rather an advocate for one or the other of the parties than an impartial judge. That he discussed cases while the same were on trial, in public places and on the street. That in at least two instances he sought to effect a partnership between his son, Maurice Langhorne, an attorney practicing in his court, and other reputable attorneys, and urged as an inducement, that he, being the judge, could make the partnership mutually beneficial.

The testimony of the 113 witnesses examined by your committee, together with charges and specifications, consists very largely of opinions, conclusions and rumors, rather than of specific acts or omissions, and to a certain extent, is confusing rather than convincing.

We, your committee, would recommend that no further proceedings be taken by this body in relation to said matter, and that its further consideration be indefinitely postponed.

Respectfully submitted.

Concurred in by:

MOSES BULL, Chairman.

J. C. TAYLOR.

CHARGES AGAINST JUDGE LANGHORNE.

[Received by the House of Representatives February 19, 1895; read and referred to a special committee of five. Returned with the reports of said committee.]

OLYMPIA, WASH., February 18, 1895.

To the Honorable Speaker and the House of Representatives of the State of Washington, in Legislative Assembly:

GENTLEMEN— I have the honor to represent to this assembly that for three weeks last past I have had prepared a verified petition addressed to the House of Representatives of said state, praying that consideration be taken under the constitutional provisions of the state for the removal or impeachment of superior judges of the state, for the removal of Hon. W. W. Langhorne, superior judge in the counties of Lewis, Pacific and Wahkiakum.

I have sought the presentation of said petition through and by the various members of your body from said counties, and they and each of them, for reasons unknown to me, refuse to present the same. I have also sought the aid of other members, and in each instance the reply has been that such matter should be introduced by a member from the county where said judge resides.

I desire to say in this public manner, without disrespect to any one, that such refusal amounts, in my humble opinion, to a denial of the right reserved in the constitution by this, the only tribunal provided for such investigation.

The charges preferred against Judge Langhorne are substantially as follows:

First: That since the 9th day of January, 1893, and down to the present time, said judge has been, and still is, guilty of many delinquencies in office and in the conduct of cases pending in the courts over which he presides.

Second: That said judge has, in the counties named and in the county of Thurston, committed grave offenses against the laws of said state.

Third: That in the county of Pacific he has been guilty of offenses against morality, good conduct and the laws of said state.

Fourth: That said judge has violated the provisions of section 39, artiicle 2 of the constitution of said state, for the purpose of making profit to himself.

Fifth: That he has been and is abusive, oppressive and tyrannical towards the members of the bar practicing before him; that he has advised with litigants in his courts in regard to cases then pending, and in regard to their attorneys; that he has interfered with the due administration of the business of such courts.

Said charges are supplemented by thirty or more specifications, all of which can be maintained and established by many witnesses, residents of said counties, both members of the bar, officers of the courts and reputable citizens.

Said specifications embrace repeated threats to kill, intoxication, threats to disbar attorneys, trafficking in his official business by promising positions, appeals and solicitations to litigants to discharge their attorneys already selected, and not to employ certain attorneys, naming them, in anticipated cases, and naming attorneys whom he desired to be employed, and making a false charge knowingly in a sworn answer of felony against the writer hereof.

I have the honor further to state that for over forty-seven years I have been, and still am, a member of the bar of various states, and in some of the federal courts, and that my reputation as such is unimpeached.

Further, I state that in case an investigation is had and the evidence which will be tendered and offered under the rules in such cases fails to establish the truth of the charges as made by me against the judge, in my own judgment I should, by the proper tribunal, be disbarred; and with equal positiveness I claim that if said charges are by sufficient evidence sustained, said judge should be removed from the high office over which he presides. I am your obedient servant,

EDWARD F. HUNTER.

Mr. Goddard moved to adopt report No. 1.

The motion was seconded by Mr. Williams.

Mr. J. C. Taylor moved as a substitute that report No. 2 be adopted.

Mr. Scobey moved that the further consideration be indefinitely postponed.

The roll was called.

The House indefinitely postponed the subject by the following vote: Ayes 33, noes 39, absent or not voting 13.

Noes: Messrs. Albertson, Barge, Bush, Callow, Collin, Coon, Foster, Gandy, Gibson, Glen, Ham, Hanford, Hatch, Heath, Johnston, Kegley, Kittenger, Miles, Miller, Milroy, Morgan, McDonnell, Nelson, Nettleton, Rogers, Runner, Tull, Van Eaton, Williams, Wing, Woodworth, and Mr. Speaker—32.

Absent or not voting: Messrs. Biggs, Bull, Cline, Goddard, Halteman, Lillie, Loggie, Murray, Schively, Seevers, Spencer, Taylor (J.C.), and Temple—13.

On motion of Mr. Williams, the House took under consideration House bill No. 582, An act to amend section 1 of article 5 of the constitution of the State of Washington.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTIONAL REVISION.

OLYMPIA, WASH., March 8, 1895.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, your Committee on Constitutional Revision, to whom was referred House bill No. 582, entitled “An act to amend section 1 of article 5 of the constitution of the State of Washington,” have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House of Representatives with the recommendation that it do pass.

Respectfully submitted.

A. M. MOORE, Chairman.

We concur in this report:

SOLON T. WILLIAMS,
MOSES BULL,
C. B. REYNOLDS,
L. B. NIMS,

On motion of Mr. Tull, the report was adopted.

Amendment proposed by Mr. Williams: Amend by adding to line 12, "pending impeachment charges against a judge of the superior court he shall not sit in the trial of any cause or proceeding."

On motion, the amendment was adopted.

Amendment proposed by Mr. Williams: Add to line 10, "upon charges sworn to by a citizen of the State of Washington."

On motion, the amendment was adopted.

The bill was read the second time.

On motion of Mr. Williams, the rules were suspended; the bill was considered engrossed, read the third time and placed on final passage.

The bill passed by the following vote: Ayes 62, noes 3, absent or not voting 13.

Ayes: Messrs. Albertson, Allen, Baker, Barge, Baum, Burrows, Bush, Callow, Cantwell, Catlin, Cheetham, Collin, Conner, Coon, Curtiss, Eddy, Fenton, Fishburn, Foster, Gandy, Gerry, Glen, Goddard, Haffey, Halteman, Ham, Hanford, Hatch, Heath, Irving,

There being no objections, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

On motion of Mr. Nims, House bill No. 505, by Mr. Moore, Relating to lumber and shingle weighers, was returned to second reading.

Amendments submitted by Mr. Nims: That the title of the bill be changed so as to read: "Providing for the appointment by the governor of state lumber and shingle weighers." Amend section 3 by adding, after the word "bond," in line 10, the words "the oath and bond shall be filed with the secretary of state." Amend section 4, line 2, by inserting after the word "shingles," "shipped from that portion of Washington west of the Cascade mountains." And add to section 4: "And that it shall be the duty of each of said railroads doing business east of the Cascade mountains to maintain scales on the east side of said mountains and within the limits of this state for the purpose of weighing lumber and shingles manufactured on the east side of said mountains." That section 7 be stricken out and the following be inserted in its place: "If any lumber or shingles shall be shipped beyond the limits of this state by any railroad company before being weighed by said weigher or his deputy, said railroad shall be compelled to accept the weight named in the affidavit (if there be any affidavit) attached to the bill of lading, and in all cases where there is no such affidavit attached said cars of shingles or lumber shall be weighed by said weigher in every instance. Any failure to comply with the above requirements shall be adjudged a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall, for each offense, be fined in any sum not less than five hundred dollars nor more than two thousand dollars." That section 11 shall be added to the bill, to read as follows: "Whereas, there is at the present time no law on this subject, an emergency is declared to exist, and this act shall take effect from and after its passage and approval by the governor.” Strike out, in section 9, line 3, all after the words “by him.”

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ROADS AND BRIDGES.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, your Committee on Roads and Bridges, to whom was referred House bill No. 621, entitled “An act providing for levying and collecting taxes in road districts for road purposes and limiting the use of the same, providing that persons owning property in this state outside of incorporated towns and cities shall be entitled to pay in labor road taxes levied thereon, and amending sections 2, 5, 7 and 9 and repealing sections 11 and 18 of an act relating to the construction, repair and improvement of public roads, providing revenue for such purpose, defining the powers and duties of certain officers in relation thereto and fixing their compensation, and to repeal an act entitled ‘An act to provide for keeping highways in repair and for the levy and collection of road poll and road property taxes, and declaring an emergency,’ approved March 7, 1890, and declaring an emergency,” have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House of Representatives with the recommendation that it do pass.

Respectfully submitted.

We concur in this report:

On motion, the report was adopted.

W. H. HAM, Chairman.
EDWIN C. MILLER,
W. E. RUNNER,
CLEVELAND SMITH,
M. F. HATCH,
S. W. FENTON,
A. M. MOORE,
J. W. McDONNELL,
F. I. PHELPS,
T. C. VAN EATON.
Substitute for section 1, introduced by Mr. Hatch:

Section 1. That at the time and place of holding the annual election of road supervisor, the electors of any road district in this state may levy, by vote, for road and bridge purposes, a tax of not less than one mill on the dollar, and not more than ten mills on the dollar, upon all taxable property in said road district. When voting for road tax, as provided in this act, each elector shall write upon his ballot the words "For tax," and shall write thereafter the amount of tax which, in his judgment, should be raised, which amount shall not be more than ten mills on the dollar, or less than one mill on the dollar on the assessed valuation for the previous year of all property within his road district. In canvassing said ballots all amounts so voted shall be added together and the sum so obtained shall be divided by the number of ballots so voted. The quotient so obtained shall be the amount voted at such election, and shall be the amount to be certified to the board of county commissioners, as provided in this act. The judges of such election shall certify the amount of tax so voted to the board of county commissioners of the county in which said road district is situated, in the manner provided for making road district election returns. When road district election returns have been canvassed by the board of county commissioners they shall certify the road district tax, as therein appearing, to the county auditor.

On motion of Mr. Hatch, the substitute was adopted.

Amendment proposed by Mr. J. C. Taylor: Section 2, line 3, strike out "four" and insert "one."

On motion, the amendment was adopted.

Substitute for section 15, introduced by Mr. Hatch:

Sec. 15: Section 7 shall be amended and the same is hereby amended to read as follows: Sec. 7. Between the first day of March and the first day of December the road supervisor shall demand from each and every person in his road district, liable for road poll tax for the year, the amount due from each person as such road poll tax. If any person liable for the road poll tax herein required to be assessed and collected refuses to pay the same when demanded by the road supervisor, and such person is in the employ of any person, firm, corporation or company in such district, the road supervisor shall ascertain from said person, firm, corporation or company whether or not such person refusing to pay such poll tax has earned and there yet remains unpaid a sum of money sufficient to pay said road poll tax, and if he finds that a sufficient sum is due to pay such road poll tax and the necessary costs of suit, he shall forthwith file with the nearest justice of the peace a statement setting forth the facts as above, and thereupon the justice shall immediately issue a summons to such person refusing to pay said road poll tax, directing him to appear before such justice, as provided by law, and show cause why judgment should not be entered against him for such sum. The constable serving the summons upon the person refusing to pay said road poll tax shall, at the same time, serve the person, firm, corporation or company in whose employ such person may be, with a summons to appear before such justice at the same time as the party summoned as defendant, to answer touching their liability as a garnishee defendant. The justice, upon the trial, unless a good defense is shown, shall enter judgment against such person refusing to pay such road poll tax, for the amount thereof and for the costs of such suit, and shall also enter judgment against the garnishee defendant for the amount of such judgment and costs, and if such amount is found to be due to such person from such garnishee defendant and no exemption shall be allowed such person in such action as provided by law in civil actions for debt.

On motion of Mr. Callow, the substitute section was adopted.

Substitute for section 17, introduced by Mr. Hatch:

Sec. 17. That section 10 be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows: Sec. 10. The county auditor shall, on or before the first Monday in April in each year, deliver to each road supervisor road poll tax receipts in blank, and shall charge the road supervisor with four dollars for each road poll tax receipt so delivered to him. All such blank receipts shall be provided with stubs properly printed for the easy keeping of the record issuance of same. Such blank road poll tax receipts shall be of two kinds or forms, one of which shall be used or given when road poll tax shall have been paid in money. When road poll tax shall have been paid in labor, another kind or form of road poll tax receipt shall be used or given. Each kind of road poll tax receipt shall be printed upon paper of a different color from that upon which the other kind of road poll tax receipt may be printed. Each road poll tax receipt shall state plainly in the printed matter upon its face and upon its stub whether the road poll tax for which it was given was paid in money or labor. Such road poll tax receipts shall be numbered, and shall be signed with the official signature of the county auditor, and shall bear his official seal. The county auditor shall give the road supervisor credit for each of said road poll tax receipts returned to him in blank at the time of his final settlement, as herein provided.

Mr. Milroy, as chairman of the special committee appointed to investigate the affairs of the board of state land commissioners, submitted the following report:

REPORT ON THE BOARD OF STATE LAND COMMISSIONERS.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the Legislature of the State of Washington:

We, your committee appointed by concurrent resolution to investigate and report upon the affairs and workings of the board of state land commissioners, as well as all other matters which said resolution empowered us to act upon, beg leave to report as follows:

We have as thoroughly and fully as time and opportunity would allow made an investigation of the matters for which we were appointed as such committee, and have found:

1. That the local boards of tide land appraisers, which are now in existence in some eighteen counties containing tide lands, have been a source of unusual, and, in our judgment, unnecessary expense, and that as a result of having a separate board for the appraisement of tide lands in each county containing the same, we have found a great diversity of systems employed in the service, and disparity in values at which the land has been appraised. These boards have been, under the law, each a separate, independent organization, over which neither the state board nor the commissioner of public lands has had any control or jurisdiction. They have employed clerks and surveyors for their own particular work, and we are of the unanimous opinion that the expense of this work has been much greater to the state than had it all been performed under some one authorized head; and we are of the unanimous opinion that these boards should forthwith be abolished, saving and excepting only from the immediate operation of the law abolishing the same, the boards in King, Pierce and Chehalis counties, an exception being made in these cases for the reason that their work is now nearly at a stage of completion, and to abolish them before they shall have fully completed their duties would perhaps be to undo a great deal that has been done and entail unnecessary expense for resurveys, platting, etc., and we therefore recommend, in these cases, that they should be allowed to complete their work in their respective counties, provided the same shall be done on or before July 1, 1895.

2. The result of our investigation leads us to believe that the seven state land cruisers now provided for by law should be forthwith abolished. Under the present systems these cruisers are paid by the acre for their selections of land. This we believe to be an unwise system. We have further found, from an investigation of the accounts of these cruisers, that they have cost the state, from March 14, 1893, to March 6, 1895, inclusive, the sum of $22,201.90. This we believe to be far in excess of the value of the services actually performed, and we recommend that in lieu of these seven cruisers that the law shall provide for the appointment by the governor of two cruisers of lands who should be paid a salary sufficient to employ good, competent, trustworthy men, and we would suggest as such compensation the sum of $1,200 a year each and their actual expenses necessarily incurred in the discharge of their duties. This, we believe, will effect a substantial saving in expense and result in more efficient service than under the present system. These cruisers should also be subject to removal by the governor.

3. We are of the further opinion that it would be in the line of economy and the results would be better to do away with the appraisers of school lands, which are now provided for by law. The work of these appraisers could be done, in many instances, by the cruisers last above recommended, and in some instances by the members of the land commission, although in special cases it might be necessary to have appraisers appointed, and with that necessity in view we would recommend that the board should have the discretionary power of appointing an appraiser for any particular work, should occasion require.

4. We have also arrived at the conclusion that the assistant attorneys general in the various land districts should be abolished, and that the work now performed by them should devolve upon one attorney, who should be employed by or under the control of the state board, and have general supervision and charge of the legal business connected therewith; and in this connection we would recommend that the governor should be empowered to appoint such an attorney as the legal adviser of the state board upon its recommendation. We are led to this conclusion from the fact that we find that there are many important legal questions arising and much work in this line to be done which requires the advice and skill of a competent attorney.

5. So far as the tribunal or board which should have charge and control of the valuable landed interests of the state, we believe that the state's interests can be best subserved by the creation of a state land board, to be composed of the commissioner of public lands, who should be a member and the chairman thereof, and two other members to be appointed by the governor, and that these three commissioners should constitute such board and be charged with the many responsibilities pertaining to the selection, care, management, sale and leasing of the various state lands.

We believe that there is no more important work confronting the citizens of this state than the proper and conservative handling of its public lands. There are still some 140,000 acres of lands to be selected under the various land grants of the federal government to this state. There are innumerable contests between the state and private parties to be tried in the land offices and courts. There are still large quantities of tide lands to be appraised, and nearly all of this class of lands are yet to be sold, but a small fraction thereof having been disposed of. The harbor areas have in no instances as yet been leased, and this work should be so done as to derive the greatest revenue and subserve the public good. In pursuance of the constitutional provisions governing these harbor areas there are many intricate and complicated questions arising between applicants for the purchase of tide lands which must be adjusted between the parties and the state, and in all of these important matters the tribunal charged with the varied duties serving the state and sitting as judges, serving the state in the selection, care, sale and lease of its lands, sitting as judges over the various contests and proceedings which in their nature are judicial; such a board as we suggest should be composed of men of both good business ability and judgment and of judicial discretion.

We are thoroughly of the opinion that so extensive and important is the work in connection with the landed interests of the state that the state's interests can be best subserved by such a board as we have suggested. These interests, we believe, are far too important to be handled by any one man, and, in the very nature of things, if such a policy were adopted much of the more important work would, as a necessity, have to be done by subordinates and clerks, who would not have the responsibility of their principal. Furthermore, the constitution itself requires that certain boards must exist. Under former laws these boards were created by making other state officers ex officio members thereof, but the result was to impose upon such officers extra duties which they ought not to be charged with, and, from the very nature of their official positions, they could not devote the necessary time and attention to perform without neglecting the duties of their offices, and we emphatically believe that the importance of the state's interest in the matter of its public lands are sufficient to require the undivided energies and ability, the entire time of at least three competent men. We have carefully examined the offices of the present state land commission and the commissioner of public lands, together with their respective records, books, maps and documents, and have found the same in an excellent, systematic and carefully kept condition. No one, without an examination into the details of these offices, can form an adequate opinion of the amount of work that is required to be done in connection with the various landed interests of the state. We find no cause for criticism in either of these departments, or of the work which has there been done, and while we believe there are a number of reforms that could be inaugurated over those which now control the affairs and management of these offices, yet we believe that the present laws have been observed as closely as possible, and that the law itself, and not the officers, is responsible for the defects in the system which exists.

There is some duplication work in the two offices and is solely caused on account of the present law. Experience has taught the heads of these respective departments, as well as most others who have had experience in that direction, that the present laws are in many respects crude and imperfect. This is especially true of the tide land act of 1890, out of which has grown many varied and complicated questions which have required decisions of the supreme court to settle. One instance that might be referred to as an illustration: It has never been known until very recently that the tide lands lying below the line of ordinary low tide and inner harbor lines, and the waterways which are really submerged lands, were subject to sale under the tide land acts, and the result has been that this class of lands has been withheld from sale by the commissioner of public lands until a recent decision of our supreme court setting this question at rest. This decision, as well as many others, plainly illustrates the serious difficulty in construing the tide land act referred to.

Without referring to other specific imperfections in the acts, we do desire to say that in our opinion the chief causes of complaints that have risen, have been due to the imperfections in these various acts of the legislature. We believe that the duties have been discharged by these various offices in a conscientious, efficient and careful manner. The expenses to the state were greatly reduced by merging the numerous former boards into one and the recommendations that your committee have made in this report, that we believe the cost of this great and important work would be reduced to the lowest standard, consistent with a careful, conservative management of the state's interests, we submit the following statements as to the expenses and cost of the board of state land commissoners and the office of the commissioner of public lands, and also the amount of moneys received from the sale of granted and tide lands,

We find that the various public lands have been sold almost entirely upon the installment plan provided in the various land acts, by which one-tenth is paid down and contracts or notes given for deferred payments, so that the actual cash received amounts to but little over one-tenth of the total value of the lands sold. Under the school land act extensions of time have been made in very many cases upon proper application therefor. Under the tide land act there appears to be no method of enforcing payments or forfeiting the contracts. This should be remedied, and we would further suggest as an important matter to be corrected in the tide land act, that there is now no method of

*NOTE.—Of the $2,623.45 charged above as salary of engineer, $1,128.29 is properly chargeable to the state board of land commissioners, for the reason said engineer was employed by said board August 7, 1893, and was engaged wholly in the work of said board until May 1, 1894.
enforcing contested cases which are pending in the superior courts to be heard; many appeals that were taken from the old board of equalization and appealed to the superior courts are still pending in such courts owing to the indisposition of the parties interested to prosecute the same, and we recommend that a provision should be made requiring all such cases to be prosecuted within a reasonable length of time, and in case of refusal or neglect so to do the various applicants for the purchase of such tide lands should be held to have forfeited their rights thereto.

We desire also to report that prior to the creation of the present board of state land commissioners, under the law which then existed school lands were leased by the various county commissioners and usually at very nominal sums. We have ascertained that the present board have actually increased these same rentals to the amount of some $15,000, which is clearly an item of gain and saving to the state over the old system.

We might say generally that we have found, and believe the facts to be, that it is against good business policy and the state's interests to entrust the handling of the lands to any extent to the county commissioners or such boards who may only have a local interest therein. We find that in many cases the various county commissioners have leased school lands, collected rents therefrom, and turned the same into their own county treasuries, and have never made any accounting therefor to the state. To just what extent this has been done there is no means of ascertaining except by an investigation of the minutes, proceedings and business of the county commissioners of each county in the state. Many of them not only refused to make any accounting of such transactions, but also refused to give any information concerning the same. This matter should be thoroughly investigated and the different counties compelled to make settlement with the state.

Another very important matter to the state is the matter of depredations and trespassing upon school lands. Inasmuch as there was no appropriation made to prosecute such offenders and trespassers, the board have been helpless to protect the lands from trespass, and this matter should certainly be provided for, as it is of the utmost importance, especially in cases of timber lands, that the state should be protected from depredations. The board has also been handicapped in the matter of contesting claims for selected lands where contests have risen between the state and individuals over the same, for the reason that no money was appropriated to pay for this work. This is an item that in our opinion should not be overlooked, as it would enable the state to save many valuable pieces of land if it had the power to carry on the contests in the land offices.

Another exceedingly important matter that should be provided for is that of appropriating sufficient moneys to be used by the board in making surveys of new townships. Under the recent act of congress the state may, by advancing the money therefor, survey any new township for the purpose of making selections of lands therein upon the condition that the government will refund the money advanced for such surveys. The only possible loss to the state in such transactions would be the interest on the money advanced, and this would be insignificant as compared with the benefits to be derived under this provision, as without such a provision experience has shown that all the best lands in the townships which are surveyed by the federal government are preempted or settled in advance by settlers, and we recommend an appropriation of $25,000 for this purpose.

Respectfully submitted.

VETO MESSAGE OF THE GOVERNOR ON HOUSE BILL No. 458.

State of Washington, Executive Department, Olympia, March 11, 1895.

The Honorable the House of Representatives of the State of Washington:

Gentlemen—I herewith return without my approval House bill No. 458, entitled “An act for the relief of the heirs of Martha A. Dealy (deceased) and Mary Younkin, widow of Moses Younkin, conformatory to an act of congress approved February 10, 1894.”

This act presents the question whether the legislature has any authority to make a disposition of the lands granted to the state for educational purposes other than in the manner prescribed by the enabling act, even though the United States consents to such disposition. The limitations of the enabling act may be waived, and in this case have been waived, by the United States, but the legislature cannot provide for the disposition of any of the state's granted lands except in conformity to the provisions of the constitution, even though the United States may waive the provisions of the enabling act.

Article 16, section 1 of the constitution provides, among other things, “all the public lands granted to the state are held in trust for all the people, and none of such lands, nor any estate or interest therein, shall ever be disposed of unless the full market value of the estate or interest disposed of, to be ascertained in such manner as may be provided by law, be paid or safely secured to the state.”

Section 2 of the same article provides that “none of the lands granted to the state for educational purposes shall be sold otherwise than at public auction, to the highest bidder.”

In view of these imperative provisions of the constitution, it is not within the power of the legislature to part with the title to any of the lands granted to the state for educational purposes until the full value thereof has been paid into the treasury. However much I may wish that the parties mentioned in this act should receive the relief contemplated by it, I am constrained, by the constitutional provisions referred to, to withhold my approval.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

J. H. McGRAW, Governor.

The roll was called; the House refused to pass the bill over the governor's veto by the following vote: Ayes 13, noes 51, absent or not voting 14.

Ayes: Messrs. Baker, Cantwell, Cline, Glen, Kegley, Laing, Mc-Auley, Rader, Rogers, Schively, Scott, Seevers, and Smith — 13.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ENROLLED AND ENGROSSED
BILLS.

MR. SPEAKER:

Your Committee on Enrolled and Engrossed Bills respectfully reports that the enrolled copy of House bill No. 99, entitled "An act to amend, sections 2645 and 2646 of chapter 207 of the Code of Washington of 1881, relative to the inspection and measurement of logs, and the formation of lumber districts," has been carefully compared with the original copy thereof, and found correctly enrolled.

Respectfully submitted. W. A. HALTEMAN, Chairman.

In open session of the House, the speaker signed the above.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON WATER, WATER RIGHTS AND IRRIGATION.

OLYMPIA, WASH., MARCH 7, 1895.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, your Committee on Water, Water Rights and Irrigation, to whom Strike out all of sections 27 and 28.

Add section 28: The time for assessing being at hand, and for the purpose of taking advantage of this act, an emergency is hereby declared to exist.

Respectfully submitted.

We concur in this report:

M. W. MILES, Chairman.

B. F. BARGE,

JOHN CATLIN,

F. A. WING,

R. B. MILROY,

ROBT. GERRY.

Amendment proposed by Mr. Milroy:

SEC. 6. That section 17 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows: Section 17. Said bonds and interest thereon shall be paid by revenue derived from an annual assessment upon the real property of the district, and all the real property in the district shall be and remain liable to be assessed for such payments as hereinafter provided. And in addition to this provision and the other provisions herein made for the payment of said bonds and interest thereon as the same may become due, said bonds shall be a lien upon all the water rights and other property acquired by any irrigation district formed under the provisions of this act, and upon any canal or canals, ditches or ditches, flumes, feeders, storage reservoirs, machinery and other works and improvements acquired, owned or constructed by said irrigation district, and if default shall be made in the payment of the principal of said bonds or the interest thereon, according to the terms thereof, the holder of said bonds or any part thereof shall have the right to enter upon and take possession of all of the water rights, canals, ditches, flumes, feeders, storage reservoirs, machinery, property and improvements of said irrigation district, and to hold and control the same and enjoy the rents, issues and profits thereof until the lien hereby created can be enforced in a civil action in the same manner and under the same proceedings as govern in the foreclosure of a mortgage on real estate. This act shall apply to all bonds heretofore issued, payment for which has not yet been received by the district issuing said bonds, or which may hereafter be issued by districts already formed.

That section 6 of the printed bill be re-numbered section 7, and that the sections following be re-numbered accordingly.

On motion of Mr. Milroy, the amendment was adopted.

The bill was read the second time.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY.

OLYMPIA, WASH., March 5, 1895.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred House bill No. 184, entitled "An act relating to the rents and profits of real estate sold under judgment during the time allowed for redemption, and declaring an emergency," have had the same under consideration, and we —28 respectfully report the same back to the House of Representatives with the recommendation that it be amended as shown by the annexed sheet, and as so amended, that the same do pass.

Insert after section 1, the following section to be numbered section 2, to wit:

"Sec. 2. Any judgment debtor desirous to redeem, shall at the time he gives notice of his intention to redeem as now provided by law, also serve a demand upon the purchaser or previous redemptioner as the case may be, for a statement of the amount he has received while in possession of any realty as provided in this act, and of the value of the use and occupation of any such realty during the time it has been in the possession of such purchaser or previous redemptioner, or of the amount of rent received by any such purchaser or previous redemptioner, from any tenant holding over under an unexpired lease, as provided in this act; and in case such purchaser or previous redemptioner shall not deliver to the person making such demand two days before the day fixed to redeem, a complete and itemized statement of the matters and things so demanded, or in case the person desirous to redeem shall not be satisfied with the correctness of the amount stated as provided in this section, he may tender to the sheriff on the day fixed for the redemption, such an amount as he may deem due, and shall thereupon, within five days thereafter, unless the same shall be received as sufficient by the purchaser or previous redemptioner, file a suit in the superior court of the proper county for an accounting and settlement and to be allowed to redeem. Upon the hearing the issues shall be made up in such suit and the case shall be tried as in other causes of equitable cognizance. In the decree the court shall establish the amount to be paid under the provisions of this act and of the law to redeem, and shall provide for payment of the same within a short period, to be fixed in the decree, and that upon such payment such realty shall be redeemed from said sale. If the amount so fixed shall exceed the sum tendered by the proposed redemptioner, a judgment for costs shall be given against him. If it shall equal or be less than such sum, then judgment for costs shall be given against the other party."

Amend the words "Sec. 2" of the printed bill to read "Sec. 3."

Respectfully submitted.

STATE HOSPITALS FOR THE INSANE.

Mr. Tull, as chairman of the special committee to visit the hospitals for the insane, was given permission to present the following report:

Olympia, Wash., March 5, 1895.

To the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Your joint committee appointed to visit the state hospitals for the insane, located at Medical lake and Steilacoom, begs leave to submit the following report:

The committee visited the Eastern Washington asylum February 14th, spending the entire day and evening, making as thorough and impartial an examination of the management and condition of the institution as the limited time would permit; and we are prepared to affirm that, in our opinion, it is not only a model institution of its kind, seemingly conducted on lines of economy, efficiency and honesty by one entitled to the highest terms of praise both for its management and prosperous condition. In Superintendent Semple the state has been very fortunate in its selection. His capabilities, attained by training and natural fitness for such a position, make him preeminently well qualified for his duties as business manager and superintendent. We feel that he is entitled to the hearty support that our state ever extends to those in charge of her institutions who are worthy of such consideration at her hands. We, your committee, found the corps of physicians, attendants and employees efficient capable, honest and courteous, working harmoniously as a whole for the best interests of the many unfortunate and sadly afflicted inmates, and in every particular do we heartily applaud the considerate care bestowed upon them. The condition of the many different wards and departments was most excellent, the discipline of the corps of attendants perfect, and especially do we approve of the uniforming system in vogue at the Medical Lake institution of uniforming them, believing that it adds not only to their appearance but to the efficiency.

The new building, just ready for occupancy, we found to be a model of modern architecture, embodying all the later ideas of sanitation, convenience and safety. We find that in construction it seems to be thorough and complete, practically fireproof, and, taken as a whole, reflecting credit not only on the board of trustees, Messrs. Percival, Dwyer and McDouall, who had it in charge, but to Messrs. Cameron and Aschanfelt, the contractors. We have recommended many necessary additional repairs, seemingly much needed, involving a separate appropriation of a few thousand dollars, and trust they will be provided for by this legislature.

We found that the most careful economy is exercised in the maintenance of the institution, to the greatest degree of caution used in the purchasing of such needed supplies as are found necessary from time to time, and do especially commend the business-like methods used in the management of the farm in connection with the institution.

WESTERN WASHINGTON HOSPITAL FOR INSANE.

We, your joint committee of the Senate and House of Representatives, visited the Western Washington hospital for the insane Saturday, February 23, and remained until the Monday following; accompanied by the board of trustees, Messrs. Stewart, Chambers and Whitehouse and the superintendent, we made a thorough inspection of the hospital in all its departments. We also talked with many of the patients privately, for doing which we were offered every facility by the superintendent. We found everything in a satisfactory condition, the hospital was exceedingly clean, the patients well clothed and a general air of comfort prevailed. We found a large kitchen well equipped with modern facilities for working and serving food. We saw the patients at their meals and found they were served with a good and wholesome bill of fare.

We inquired of the patients in regard to their treatment and found most of them spoke well of the officers and attendants. They stated that the superintendent uniformly treated them kindly and removed causes of complaint when appealed to. We are satisfied the hospital is well, honestly and economically managed by the board of trustees and the superintendent, the latter having been in charge of the hospital for nearly fifteen years. During the past two years, two new wings of brick, one for men and the other for women, have been erected, adding a capacity for one hundred and eighty patients. These two wings cost $65,000 and were built within the appropriation.

A sewer leading from the hospital buildings to the salt water, was also built for the money appropriated for that purpose and cost $5,200. This sewer affords ample drainage.

The laundry and kitchen have been enlarged, a cold storage plant erected and a new bakery built, all within the amount of the appropriation of $10,000. These several improvements we find to have been substantially and economically built, and well adapted to the requirements of the hospital.

The whole capacity of the hospital is now six hundred patients, of which there are at present four hundred and seventy. On account of scarcity of good land for farming purposes, it is the opinion of your committee that the capacity of this hospital should not be increased.

We inquired into the death of the late steward and accountant, Mr. J. A. Shadle, as requested by your honorable body. We found that the matter had been placed in the hands of the prosecuting attorney of Pierce county, Hon. W. H. Snell, and that he had visited the hospital and taken the testimony of many witnesses; that he kept the case open and under advisement from March to June, 1893, and that he filed his report with the board of trustees, as follows, viz.:

TACOMA, WASH., June 30, 1894.

TO THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE WESTERN WASHINGTON HOSPITAL FOR THE INSANE:

GENTLEMEN—In reply to your communication concerning my conclusion with reference to the death of Joseph A. Shadle, late steward of the institution of which you are trustees, I will say that I have given the subject the most thorough and careful investigation, and sufficient evidence has not been brought to my attention to even justify me in filing any complaint or information against any one or to warrant me in arriving at the conclusion that Mr. Shadle died from any other than natural causes.

(Signed) Very respectfully yours,

W. H. SNELL, Prosecuting Attorney.

All the testimony is on file with the trustees and the governor, and has received our careful consideration. In conclusion, we believe that matter has been fully investigated, and that there are no grounds for casting suspicion on any one. Instead of a crime being committed, we believe Mr. Shadle died a natural death.

Your committee inquired into the necessity of the improvements asked for by the two institutions, and have embodied such as we recommend, and the amounts therefor, in House bill No. 580, presented by Mr. Wing, of King county, and trust that the same will meet with that generous approval which the State of Washington has always given her public institutions.

On motion of Mr. Heath, the House adjourned at 6 o'clock p. m.
The House was called to order at 7:30 o'clock P. M.; Speaker Morrison in the chair.

Mr. Hanford, chairman of the House members of the special committee to visit the state penitentiary, submitted the following report:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON STATE PENITENTIARY.

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Washington:

GENTLEMEN—Your committee, appointed to visit and investigate the state penitentiary at Walla Walla, in connection with all matters pertaining to said institution, respectfully report:

We visited the state penitentiary at Walla Walla, inspected all buildings, grounds, stockades, jute mill, prisons, cells and all departments of the penitentiary.

We find that during the last two years since the session of 1893, the following new buildings have been erected, viz.: One hospital, warden's residence, a double extension to the engine house and electrical building, one cell wing (No. 4), an extension to stockade, making the enclosure double its former size, a large well and steel water tank, with many other improvements.

The new hospital consists of a brick building three stories high and well arranged for the purpose; the wards for the sick are large, commodious, well lighted and beds clean. Everything connected with the hospital is cleanly and in order. In the hospital there are at present six patients, nearly all of whom are suffering from diseases contracted before coming to prison. This building is a valuable addition to the penitentiary. The design is by a prisoner, and the work, all by convicts, is well done. The warden's residence, also the design of the same prisoner, is large, commodious, and the elevation adds much to the appearance of the grounds. The building is of brick, painted, and two stories high, with porticoes, tower, etc. The first story consists of reception hall, stairway, double parlors, dining room, kitchen, warden's office and private office. The second story consists of halls extending the entire length of the main building and ell, with parlor and chambers. All rooms are large and the arrangement good. The entire building is carpeted and furnished throughout, and the building is heated by steam. It is the opinion of your committee that this building by contract would cost between $12,000 and $15,000, but as all the brick were furnished by the penitentiary, having been made by the convicts, and all labor employed in the construction being convict labor, the actual outlay of money by the state was probably about one-third this, amounting to, say, $4,500.

The additions to the electrical and steam plant building extend from... each end and are carried out on the same plan, being one story high with basement. On the ground floor of these extensions are the carpenter shop, paint shop, tin shop, laundry, commissary department and tailor shop. The basement is used for the storage of vegetables and all the various goods and merchandise used about the prison.

The new cell wing is of the same general design as those previously built, and your committee believe it to be well constructed.

The extension of the stockades was built entirely from brick made by the prisoners on the ground, the labor all done by convicts, and it certainly compares favorably with the first portion, built by contract.

The large well which has been added for an increased supply of water, in connection with a tank which is twenty feet in diameter and sixty feet high, affords a water supply apparently good for all time.

A thorough inspection of the jute mill, its machinery, operatives and management, with the power plant, was made by your committee; and while your committee are of the opinion that the construction of the building might be improved upon, yet the arrangement of the machinery is good under the crowded conditions, and the management of the operatives by the superintendent, is excellent. Watching this busy hive of industry, with its scores of flying shuttles and its thousands of whizzing spindles, its varied and perfect machinery and busy workmen, your committee forgot for the time that this was a prison, and that the workmen were convicts. Your committee believe that this prison factory not only adds to the profits of the farmer of the state, but the discipline of the convicts is made more perfect, and the dark hours of despair to many of its inmates, are lessened. The products are of an excellent quality and much superior to those bought in the market, of outside manufacture. We pronounce this part of the penitentiary a success. The power plant shows care and attention, and all parts of the machinery are repaired at the mill by convicts.

The electric light plant is, with the exception of a new dynamo, of old style, and must soon be replaced by new and less expensive machinery of improved pattern.

Your committee visited the slaughter house where a butcher, one of the inmates, slaughters all the beef and hogs used. We believe this method of buying cattle and hogs and butchering them on the premises to be better and more economical than buying dressed beef as heretofore done by previous administrations, besides affording the prisoners a better article of food.

The cells for prisoners and the surroundings of the kitchen and culinary department give evidence of cleanliness and careful consideration for the health of the prisoners. The fact of but six prisoners being on the sick list, and none of them suffering from a malarious type of disease, is a positive evidence of the good sanitary condition of the prison.

There are three hundred and ninety-six prisoners, four of whom are women, confined in the institution, which shows a slight falling off from the last year. About two hundred and seventy work in the jute mill, seventy-five are in the kitchen, workshops, hospital help, office trustees, etc., and the balance, outside of the sick and women, are employed at present in grading the grounds. The brick yard is not in operation at present.

Regarding the services of the late warden, J. H. Coblentz, deceased, we, your committee, commend the energy and ability displayed by him in the management of the prison and convicts, and in the erection of the many new buildings and extensive improvements which have been made with but small comparative cost to the state; but your committee cannot too strongly condemn the methods employed and the assumption of an authority, by the late warden, which is given only to the directors. It was by thus assuming almost the entire management, unrestrained, that he was enabled to practice the frauds by which in the short space of three months the state was defrauded out of many thousands of dollars.

From the testimony of the witnesses examined (which will be found attached to this report) and the books and papers left in the clerk's office and vaults, your committee find that the late warden, by the employment of convict labor as bookkeeper and private secretary, whom he forced by threats to do his bidding in making erasures and changes in the books, and the destruction of applications and receipts, attempted systematically to cover up his defalcations. In this he succeeded but partially, as sufficient books and documents remain in the hands of the clerk to determine the actual amount of his defalcation. These are the foundations of the expert's report, and if Mr. Young's figures are carried out accurately your committee pronounces his work correct. The short time allowed did not permit the committee to go over the expert's figures. This report shows defalcation to the amount of $12,809.58.

Your committee recommend that suit be at once brought to collect the amount of the defalcation from the bondsmen of the late warden, by the state, if upon demand they do not pay the same.

Your committee do not find that any member of the board of directors, or any other official of the penitentiary, was implicated in the defalcation of Warden Coblentz. The evidence shows that since the shortage was discovered, and as soon as it became known, the matter was immediately reported to the governor. We are of the opinion, however, and the testimony attached will show, that the directors were derelict in their duty in not keeping a close check upon the warden and demanding at each monthly meeting a report showing the sales, stock on hand and such other matters as their rules required, which would have enabled them to discover the shortage. The evidence shows that the warden was continually overstepping his authority in the manner of purchases, improvements, and in the employment and discharge of subordinates, the directors making but slight, if any, remonstrance.

Your committee did not carry on the investigation as thoroughly as they would like, but sufficient evidence was brought out to show the above facts and conclusions. Your committee finds that the superintendent of the jute mill, Mr. Matthewson (see his testimony attached), knew that something was going wrong, but feared to make it known; that his report, which was a copy of the one to the directors, showed a short-
The state of Washington had the directors, upon the receipt of those reports, given even a casual examination to them, they would have discovered these discrepancies and defalcations.

Your committee would, however, call attention to the fact that it is apparent, from the abundant evidence produced before it, that the present board of directors is not, and has not been, a harmonious body, and it is the opinion of your committee that, had greater harmony prevailed, and had the board paid more attention to the suggestions of the minority of the board, and not allowed the late warden to practically, if not actually, control the board, the interest of the state would have been much better subserved.

Touching the former administrations, your committee has to report that, in the limited time at its command, it was not able to make as full an investigation of their acts as it found would have been desirable. It was demonstrated, however, to the satisfaction of this committee, that some, at least, of the former boards have not at all times guarded the interests of the state as persons holding such high official positions and having such important responsibilities placed upon them should have done; nor have they required from their subordinates, to whom was entrusted the supervision of important work, such as construction of new cell wings and other important improvements connected with the buildings and machinery, even ordinary care and diligence in the performance of their duty.

We find that large sums were paid out for extras by order of the directors upon bills certified as correct by the architect which were not itemized, and of which neither the architect nor the former director, whom your committee examined, were able to give any adequate or satisfactory explanation.

Your committee finds, further, that contracts were let by former boards upon bids which were in some cases many thousands of dollars higher than other bids in possession of the board. A notable instance of this was the contract for the power plant, the contract for which was let at a figure some six thousand dollars higher than other bids which were before the board, and which your committee believes, from the evidence before it, would have given the state, if accepted, a plant superior to the one purchased.

Your committee also finds that during the past year the salaries paid the subordinate officers in the employ of the penitentiary have been much higher than either the services required or the responsibilities conferred would justify. A slight reduction has recently been made in some of these salaries, but the opinion of your committee is that they are still too high and a further reduction should be insisted upon.

Your committee finds that in the matter of the purchase of supplies the interests of the state, in our opinion, would undoubtedly be better subserved by making fewer purchases in open market and adhering more rigidly to the requirements of the law requiring the purchase of supplies by contract, and, in the opinion of your committee, it would be more economical to advertise for bids for the various articles required for the use of the penitentiary every three or six months, instead of once a year, as, in the opinion of your committee, lower prices would be quoted if merchants were not required to bind themselves for so long a period and be debarred from taking advantage of favorable changes in markets.

Your committee recommend the passage of such amendments to the law governing the state penitentiary as will require the clerk and warden to each give a bond in a sum greater than is now required. (See bill amending section .......) And we also recommend that the clerk keep the books of the institution by the double entry system. It is the opinion of your committee that convicts should not be employed in positions of such responsibility and trust as has been the custom under Mr. Coblentz's wardenship. Those positions should be held by persons other than prisoners, for the reasons which clearly appear in the testimony given before your committee.

We would further recommend that the prisoners be not punished by reason of their connection with the Coblentz defalcations, as they were acting under orders which they dare not disobey.

Your committee commend, with pleasure, the order and discipline which pervades throughout the institution. The food furnished the prisoners is ample and well cooked, and their appearance showed them well kept. Their clothing is ample and in good condition, and two large bath rooms afford opportunities for the prisoners to keep their bodies clean.
Your committee is of the opinion that greater credits given to the convicts for good behavior, especially to those who are serving their first sentence, would be beneficial, and would recommend the same.

Your committee recommend that before further additions are made to the state penitentiary at Walla Walla, the legislature take into consideration the advisability of erecting a new penitentiary in the Puget Sound district for the following reasons: (1) The greater cost of the transportation of prisoners; (2) the greater cost of fuel, freight, etc.; (3) the increased cost of building material used in constructing the penitentiary building, and (4) the increased cost of maintenance.

For further information regarding the investigation made by your committee, we refer your honorable bodies to the 296 pages of type written testimony accompanying this report.

In conclusion, your committee would report that its investigation was facilitated in every way by both the past and present directors, and by every one connected with the penitentiary. And your committee desires to say many courtesies and attentions were received from the efficient acting warden, Mr. J. H. Cameron, and his deputies, from Mr. Collins, clerk of the penitentiary, and also from the directors and citizens generally of Walla Walla.

Dated, Olympia, March 13, 1895.

Respectfully submitted.

On motion, the resolution was adopted.

Resolution presented by Mr. Scobey:

Resolved, That in consideration of work performed in the enrolling, engrossing and journal departments since that time, that Captain G. W. Hambright be allowed pay as assistant enrolling clerk from and including March 6th to the close of the session, and that the proper officials be instructed to draw a certificate for the amount.

On motion, the resolution was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Baker, the journal of to-day was approved without the complete reading.

Speaker Morrison briefly addressed the members of the House as follows:

Gentlemen of the House of Representatives of the State of Washington:

The Fourth Session of the Legislature is at an end. Its records are completed and are now matters of history. Each individual member has contributed his share towards making that history. Gentlemen, I congratulate you on the completion of your labors. You have honestly and conscientiously enacted into laws all matters of reform demanded by the people, and can return to your homes with the satisfaction of knowing that you have performed your duty.

Before announcing the adjournment of the House without day, I desire to make my personal acknowledgment to the honorable members of the kindness, assistance and forbearance which you have willingly extended to me as your presiding officer. My success is attributable more to your action than to my own. Rarely does a presiding officer retire from the chair with the honor of never having had an appeal taken from his rulings. Gentlemen, accept my thanks and best wishes for your future health, happiness and prosperity.

I desire to thank the officers and clerks for the faithful and efficient manner in which they have discharged their duties. More particularly would I express my appreciation of the services rendered the House by our chief, assistant chief, reading, assistant, engrossing, journal, and docket clerks.

To the representatives of the press, I tender my sincere thanks for the fair and generous treatment they have accorded me at all times.

The speaker appointed Messrs. Baker, Hanford and Woodworth to wait on the Senate and inform them the House had finished its business.
The committee reported that the duty was performed.

On motion of Mr. Baker, the House adjourned sine die at 12 o'clock midnight.

EDWARD C. FINCH, Chief Clerk.
