By Committee on Rules and Order:

Resolved by the House, the Senate concurring, That the standing Committees on Printing of the House and Senate be instructed to arrange for bids for the printing necessary for this session.

Mr. Dawes introduced as a substitute therefor House concurrent resolution No. 1, calling for bids for printing the necessary supplies for legislative use.

The rules were suspended and House concurrent resolution No. 1 was passed and ordered transmitted immediately to the Senate.

Senate concurrent resolution No. 5, providing for filing two copies of all bills with the State librarian, was adopted under suspension of the rules.

Senate concurrent resolution No. 1, relative to the death of Senator Edward S. Hamilton, under suspension of the rules was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
OLYMPIA, WASH., JANUARY 11, 1905.

We, your Committee on Rules and Order, hereby recommend that the resolution introduced by Mr. Rudio referring to persons on the floor of the House be laid on the table, as the subject matter is covered by a new standing rule.

J. G. MEGLER, Speaker.

We concur in this report: Chas. S. Gleason, Joseph B. Lindsley, W. H. Hare, Geo. T. Reid, Peter McGregor.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

The following bills were introduced, read first time by title, ordered printed, and referred to the committees indicated:

House bill No. 1, by Mr. Benn: An act providing for a State wagon road through the counties of Jefferson, Clallam and Chehalis, creating a State road commission and making an appropriation to construct said road.

Referred to the Committee on Roads and Bridges.
House bill No. 2, by Mr. Vilas: A bill for an act to provide for the apprehension, detention, trial, treatment and control of delinquent children of or under the age of sixteen years, and repealing acts inconsistent with this act, and declaring an emergency.

Referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

House bill No. 3, by Mr. Kellogg: An act regulating common carriers, fixing the maximum railroad passenger rates in the State of Washington, and providing for the due enforcement and observance of the rates so fixed.

Referred to the Committee on Railroads and Transportation.

House bill No. 4, by Mr. Clarke: An act to provide for the establishment and maintenance of a branch of the State soldiers' home for honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines who have served the United States government in any of its wars, members of the State militia disabled while in the line of duty, and who are bona fide citizens of this State, and also the wives of such soldiers, sailors and marines.

Referred to the Committee on Military Affairs and Soldiers Home.

Referred to the Miscellaneous Committee.

House bill No. 6, by Mr. Weber: An act to establish a railroad and transportation commission for the State of Washington, whereby discrimination and extortion in railroad charges may be prevented, and reasonable freight and passenger services and tariffs may be established; to prescribe and authorize the making of rules and regulations to govern the commission and railroads, and afford railroad companies and other parties adequate remedies; to prescribe penalties for the violation of this act, and provide means and rules for its enforcement.

Referred to the Committee on Railroads and Transportation.

House bill No. 7, by Mr. J. B. Lindsley: An act authorizing the assessment of lands held or owned by the State of Washington, within the limits of incorporated cities or towns, for local improvements, and providing for the payment of such assessments.

Referred to the Committee on Revenue and Taxation.

House bill No. 8, by Mr. Ayer: An act to repeal sections 1 and 14, and to amend section 15 of the act entitled "An act providing for the levy, collection, and manner of payment of road, bridge, poll and property taxes, and the manner of expenditure thereof, and providing for the division of counties into road districts, and the appointment of supervisors thereof, and repealing all acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith, approved March 16, 1903, Session Laws 1903, chapter 223, and declaring an emergency."

Referred to the Committee on Roads and Bridges.

House bill No. 9, by Mr. Frostad: An act to establish and maintain a State fish hatchery on the Sauk river or some other suitable streams tributary to Skagit river, Skagit county, Washington.

Referred to the Committee on Fisheries.

House bill No. 10, by Mr. Frostad: An act for prohibiting any State, county or municipal officer, elected or appointed to such office in the State of Washington, from accepting for use any pass to ride over any line of railroad or other transportation line in the State of Washington, and prohibiting any officer, agent or employee of any railroad or other transportation company from issuing the same, and prescribing a penalty for the violation thereof.

Referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

House bill No. 11, by Mr. Frostad: An act making an appropriation for farmers' institutes.

Referred to the Committee on Agriculture.

House bill No. 12, by Mr. Frostad: An act creating a State tax commission, prescribing its duties and making an appropriation therefor.

Referred to the Committee on Revenue and Taxation.

House bill No. 13, by Mr. J. B. Lindsley: An act to establish an institution for the defective and feeble-minded youth of the State of Washington, providing for the erection and equipment of suitable buildings therefor and making an appropriation, and repealing laws and parts of laws in conflict with this act, and declaring an emergency.
Referred to the Committee on State School for Defective Youth and Reform School.

House bill No. 14, by Mr. Vilas: An act to provide for the punishment of parents or persons responsible for, or contributing to, the delinquency of children of the age of sixteen years or under.

Referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

The House took a recess till 1:20 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The House was called to order by the speaker at 1:30 p.m.

Roll call showed all present except Messrs. Bartlett and Weir, who were excused.

The speaker appointed Messrs. Dickson, Reid and Roth as a committee to inform the Senate that the House was ready to enter joint session to receive the Governor.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE.

SENATE CHAMBER,
OLYMPIA, WASH., JANUARY 11, 1905.

MR. SPEAKER:

The Senate has passed Senate concurrent resolution No. 6, relating to joint memorial services for the unveiling of the monument erected to the late Governor John R. Rogers.

Also Senate bill No. 25, entitled: "An act making an appropriation for the ninth Legislature of the State of Washington, and the same are herewith transmitted.

J. W. Lysons, Secretary of the Senate.

The Senate was announced by the sargeant-at-arms, and was invited within the bar of the House.

The joint session was called to order by the speaker, and Senator J. J. Smith, president of the Senate, presided.

The roll of the Senate was called and showed all members present.

The roll of the House was called and showed all present except Messrs. Bartlett and Weir, who were excused.

The president appointed Senators Hammer and Sharp, and Representatives Moldstad, Vilas and Doolittle to notify Governor McBride that the Senate and House of Representatives were in joint session awaiting his pleasure.
MESSAGE OF GOVERNOR McBRIDE.

The following is the final message of Governor McBride:

STATE OF WASHINGTON, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
OLYMPIA, WASH., JANUARY 11, 1905.

Gentlemen of the Senate and of the House of Representatives:

Section 5, Article III, of the state constitution requires the Governor to communicate at every session by message to the Legislature the condition of the affairs of the State, and recommend such measures as he shall deem expedient for their action. While under this section it is clearly the duty of the outgoing Governor to communicate to the Legislature the condition of the affairs of the State, it is generally considered that the recommending of new measures does not fall within his province, except, perhaps, such as may be necessarily connected with or growing out of information that he may have to impart.

The finances of the State are in a healthy condition. For the biennial term ending September 30, 1902, the State indebtedness was reduced $131,222.34, and for the biennial term ending September 30, 1904, $122,610.86, making a total reduction during the four years of $253,833.20.

The reduction of the State indebtedness for the biennial term ending September 30, 1904, in the sum of $122,610.86, is largely due to the fact that, in several instances, it has been found not necessary to expend the entire amounts appropriated at the last session. Of the appropriations made under the head of “For Governor’s Office,” about $27,000.00 will revert to the treasury. Something over $50,000.00 will remain unexpended out of the appropriations made for the maintenance of the State institutions under the management of the State board of control. The Louisiana Purchase Exposition commission of this State, after returning here such exhibits as may be suitable for use at the Lewis and Clark Exposition, will probably have an unexpended balance of between eight and nine thousand dollars. Out of an appropriation of $3,000.00 to be paid upon certificates of the labor commissioner, “For settlement of differences between employers and employes,” only $76.20 has been used. These items I have mentioned as reverting to the treasury will reach a total of between eighty-five and ninety thousand dollars.

In the matter of appropriations I feel I would be falling short of my full duty did I not address a word of caution to the Legislature. The needs of the State are many. Many requests will be made, and there are many worthy objects to which it would be pleasing to lend aid by way of appropriations were it possible to do so. To keep the expenditures within the revenues will require a constant struggle. After the adjournment of the last session I felt constrained to disapprove appropriation bills and items of appropriation bills amounting to more than four hundred thousand dollars. Had not this been done, and had it not been found unnecessary to expend the entire amounts authorized by other appropriation bills, the State debt, instead of having been reduced during the last biennial term, would have been increased several hundred thousand dollars. This statement is made not through any desire to revive old controversies, but for the sole purpose of emphasizing the necessity of caution in these matters. It is not a pleasant task for an executive to be compelled, after adjournment, to disapprove numerous measures of the legislative branch of government, or else, as a penalty for not doing so, to accept the responsibility of seeing the State indebtedness very largely increased. In this, the closing act of my administration, I feel my motives will not be misunderstood in suggesting that this burden should not be placed upon the Executive.

The State soldiers' home, Western Washington hospital for insane, Eastern Washington hospital for insane, State penitentiary, State reform school, and State school for defective youth—Institutions under the management of the State board of control—are entitled to your first consideration in the matter of appropriations. The increase in the number of the inmates renders necessary increased amounts for the maintenance of all of these institutions except the State reform school. Owing to their present rather crowded condition, and to the certainty that the number of their inmates will continue to increase, new buildings are also needed at all these institutions except the reform school. I invite your attention to the detailed report of the State board of control. Their successful and business-like management of these institutions entitles their recommendations to great weight.

The State educational Institutions dependent for support upon appropriations made by the Legislature, namely, the University of Washington, the State agricultural college and school of science, and the normal schools at Ellensburg, Cheney and Bellingham, are all in a flourishing condition. Their several boards of regents and boards of trustees consist of men who take pride in their work. By careful attention to their duties, and through devoting their time to the upbuilding of the institutions with which they are connected, they have rendered valuable services to the State. Not least among their merits is the fact that they have absolutely divorced politics from our educational institutions. These institutions in the past could, no doubt, have used to advantage more money than was at their disposal; and could, no doubt, in the next two years use to advantage more than you will be able to grant them. They should, however, be dealt with as liberally as is consistent with preserving the proper balance between the State's expenditures and revenues. In this connection I wish to call attention to the fact that October 1, 1904, there was on hand in the scientific school fund $27,031.99; in the agricultural college fund $25,859.00; in the charitable, educational, penal and reformatory institutions fund $47,823.76; and in the normal school fund $16,916.04, making a total on hand in these funds of $117,650.79. When the last Legislature convened a test case was pending in the supreme court of this State to determine whether these several funds, like the common school fund, were permanent and irreducible so that only the interest could be expended, or whether the principal could be expended. Before adjournment it was decided that these funds were permanent and irreducible and that only the interest could be expended; but in the hurry of the closing days of the session the matter seems to have been overlooked and no provision was made for their investment. As there is no good reason why this money should remain idle in some bank, provision should be made for the proper investment of these funds to the end that the educational institutions entitled thereto may receive some benefit from the same.

The national guard of the State as now constituted is a very efficient organization. It stands high in the estimation of officers in the regular army. Its present high state of efficiency I attribute very largely to the fact that politics has been entirely barred from the organization. While there is no need of enlarging it beyond the limits now authorized by law, yet within those limits it should be cheerfully supported. for I am satisfied that if its services are ever needed it will give a good account of itself.

The fund for the maintenance of the capitol building became exhausted October 1, 1904, and it became necessary for the capitol commission to make provision for the payment of running expenses for the ensuing months of October, November, and December. At the request of the commission the Capital National bank of Olympia advanced the necessary funds for this purpose, amounting to the sum of $1,804.31, agreeing to look to the Legislature for reimbursement. To reimburse this bank I would recommend the passage of a relief bill for the sum advanced.

December 28, 1904, I received from the supreme court of this State the following communication:

"The Legislature of 1903, in an amendment to the law relating to the admission of attorneys to the bar, enacted, among other things, that the Supreme Court might 'appoint three attorneys at law, members of the bar of said court of not less than five years' standing, as a board of examiners to conduct written examination of applicants for admission to the bar, under the direction of said court, the members of which said board shall hold office for one year from and after their appointment, unless sooner removed by the court;' and also enacted, that the 'members of said board of examiners shall be allowed and paid a per diem not to exceed ten dollars per day during their attendance upon said court in the conduct of said examination, and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for every mile actually traveled going to and returning from attendance upon the court at such examination.' No appropriation, however, was made to meet the expenses that would be created by the appointment of such board. But, notwithstanding the want of such an appropriation, this court, owing to the pressure upon it of constantly increasing business which could not be delegated, felt compelled to relieve itself of the burden of conducting the examination of applicants in person by the appointment of a board of examiners under the act. To that end, on December 16, 1903, the court named as members of such board, Mr. P. M. Troy of Olympia, Mr. James B. Murphy of Seattle, and Mr. J. B. Bridges of Aberdeen, each of whom is a member of the bar of this court, and otherwise qualified to act as a member of such board according to the terms of the law. These gentlemen accepted their appointments, and have served continuously ever since, each having been reappointed at the expiration of his first year's service."
"By the terms of the statute the several members of the board have become entitled to the following sums from the State, namely:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Mileage</th>
<th>Per Diem</th>
<th>Total</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>

Grand total ........................................... $282.00

"As the members of the board have not only given the time necessary to a faithful and conscientious discharge of the duties imposed by virtue of such appointment, but have also borne their own expenses while in the discharge of such duties, the court feels that it would be no more than just that the coming Legislature make provision for the payment to them of the amounts earned as above stated. The court, therefore, begs to call your attention to the matter, and requests that you, in any way that you may deem most fitting, call it to the attention of the Legislature, so that that body may have an opportunity to take such action concerning such payment as in its wisdom it may deem appropriate."

Fully agreeing with the court, I recommend an appropriation sufficient to cover the claims of the "board of examiners."

A subject of very great importance to the State is that of irrigation. June 17, 1902, what is known as the "Reclamation act" was passed by congress, reserving, setting aside and appropriating as a special fund in the treasury, to be known as the "Reclamation fund," the proceeds derived from the sale of public lands, excepting five per cent. thereof, in thirteen states, including Washington, and three territories, said "Reclamation fund to be used in the examination and survey for, and the construction and maintenance of irrigation works for the storage, diversion, and development of waters for the reclamation of arid and semi-arid lands in the said states and territories." It seems to be the intent of the act that the money derived from the sale of public lands in each of said states is to be expended in that state "subject to the existence of feasible irrigation projects therein," provided the laws of the State are such that the spirit and purpose of the act can be complied with. I understand that this State has contributed in the neighborhood of three and one-half million dollars to the "Reclamation fund." It is certainly of the utmost importance to the State that this money should be expended in the State. Whether this can or will be done seems to hinge, first, upon the existence of feasible irrigation projects in the State, from an engineering standpoint, and, second, upon whether, our laws are such that those in charge of the reclamation service would deem it feasible to attempt to carry out such irrigation projects as may be feasible from an engineering standpoint. No one doubts the existence of feasible irrigation projects in the State from an engineering standpoint, and it seems equally clear that our laws are not such as to warrant those in charge of the reclamation service in undertaking to carry out such projects. Therefore, in the final analysis, the question whether the money contributed by this State to the "Reclamation fund" is to be expended in this State depends upon the action of this Legislature. This, in my opinion, is one of the most important subjects which you will be called upon to consider. Some time ago it was suggested to me by officials of the United States reclamation service that under our laws, as they now are, it would not be feasible to undertake any irrigation project in this State. I was also requested by various boards of trade and chambers of commerce, and persons interested in irrigation, to appoint an “irrigation commission” to study the question. There was no law authorizing the appointment of such a commission, and there was nothing it could do that would be binding upon the State, but, after careful consideration, I concluded to appoint an “irrigation commission” for the purpose of investigating the subject of irrigation and recommending such changes in our irrigation laws as might be deemed for the best interests of the State, to the end that I might be able to lay before this Legislature the result of its labors for such action as in your wisdom you may determine. I appointed as members of that commission the following named gentlemen: J. H. Smithson, Austin Mires, Geo. P. Cottrell, John A. Shackelford, Walter N. Granger, Harold Preston, E. A. Bryan, N. G. Blalock, Charles P. Lund, and W. B.
Bridgeman. After diligent study and extended research the commission embodied its conclusions in a report which will be submitted to you and to which I wish to invite your most careful attention. The time devoted to the subject and the acknowledged ability of the members of the commission entitle its conclusions to respectful consideration. The members of this commission do not desire and would not accept any compensation for their services, but, with some reluctance, they have consented to me recommending an appropriation sufficient to cover their actual expenses. These expenses, including fees of stenographers and expense of printing report, amount to $1,080.40. A detailed statement of these expenses will be placed before your appropriation committees, and I recommend an appropriation sufficient to cover the same.

I feel like congratulating the people of the State upon the fact that sentiment is now almost unanimous in favor of the passage of a railway commission bill. Many who have been bitterly opposed to it in the past now seem to be clamoring for the enactment of such a measure. Their sincerity will be put to the test during this session. It is needless for me to say that there are commission bills and commission bills. A commission bill that is a commission bill in name only instead of quieting would serve to increase the agitation that has been carried on in this State upon this question. What is needed is a regulative, appointive railway commission clothed with ample power to remedy existing abuses.
Any other kind of a commission, in my judgment, would prove to be worse than useless. I trust the wisdom of this Legislature may be sufficient to settle this question properly, for, in my judgment, it will never be settled in this State until it is settled right.

In conclusion, permit me to express the hope that your duties may prove to be pleasant and congenial and that your labors may redound to the honor and to the credit of the State.
The president appointed Senators Hunter and Wilson and Representatives Roth, Sheets and Crane to escort Governor-elect Albert E. Mead within the bar of the House.

Chief Justice Wallace Mount administered the oath of office to Governor Mead.

INAUGURAL ADDRESS.

The following is Governor Mead's inaugural address:

Called by my fellow citizens to fill the most honorable position in the councils of the State and entrusted with the stewardship of the highest interests of an intelligent and hospitable people, I accept the invitation, realizing full well in advance its grave duties, its mighty obligations, its never ending responsibilities, its perplexing, unsolved and almost insoluble problems.

In obedience to your summons, and mindful of the confidence and trust to me extended, I enter upon the prosecution of the exalted duties of the Chief Executive as prescribed by the Constitution of your State and mine. I do so with the abiding conviction that the united support of the sterling and patriotic citizenship of this State, aided and influenced by the favors of a just, charitable and kind Providence, will point the way and illumine the path of my ambition to have written in our future annals the simple but forceful sentence that the fifth Governor of this commonwealth was a faithful, energetic and courageous servant of the people.

No consideration of political service or personal friendship will permit the appointment of inefficient applicants in the public service, or retain in office a proven incompetent or unfaithful public official. From the highest official to the lowest subordinate, the people are entitled to the very best service obtainable in the State in the management of its affairs and in the conduct of its business.

Our educational institutions and public school system have been invigorated by bountiful contribution from the hand of a generous and far-sighted Government in the form of various land grants. We shall continue in the future to supplement the revenues so received by sufficient amount raised by direct taxation to maintain our public school and higher educational facilities upon the highest plane. The national and State Governments long ago assumed the duty and burden of standing for the education of the children, in order to be assured of an intelligent and patriotic citizenship.

The student in the higher educational institutions should receive wholesome advice and instruction in the duties and obligations of good citizenship, and he should be taught to revere the form of government established by our forefathers. Any attempt upon the part of an instructor or the management of any of our higher educational institutions to arouse in the minds of the student body a feeling of prejudice or hostility towards the form of government which has survived for more than a century and has been the mightiest factor known to history in advancing the cause of civilization, or to influence the boys and girls of this State to believe that our system of government is based upon fallacious principles and should, therefore, ultimately be overthrown, will receive immediate attention from the executive department, and the instructor engaged in the exploitation of such un-American ideas will receive immediate dismissal.

Modern methods of treating and caring for the insane confined in our charitable institutions, and the most approved method of sanitation in the arrangement of our hospitals will be encouraged, to the end that those whose minds are temporarily clouded may again see the sunlight of intelligence and be restored to reason, and to their friends, families and homes.

The people of this State regard the support of the Soldier's Home not as a duty which is burdensome, but as a privilege they are happy to exercise in grateful recognition of the services of their country's defenders.

I recognize the principle that penal institutions are established for the purpose of protecting society and not to punish criminals to satisfy any feeling of anger or revenge that might exist in the heart of the injured party. While the inmates of the penal institutions will receive the punishment contemplated by law, yet they should at all times be given the humane treatment man owes to his brother always and everywhere, during the period of their incarceration.

In the exercise of the pardoning power, I acknowledge and record my confidence in the integrity and justice administered by our courts. This extraordinary power ought not, in my judgment, to be exercised except in extreme cases and then only upon the assumption that the courts have pronounced a righteous judgment but that the best interests of society would be subserved by invoking and applying this constitutional prerogative.

We cannot appropriately observe the solemnities of an occasion such as this without instinctively turning back to the early chapters of our splendid history. We glean from those pages that the historic soil upon which this city now stands has been made sacred by associations and memories akin to those which cluster around the imperishable Plymouth Rock or which arise from the ruins and desolation of the unhappy Jamestown, for here was rocked the cradle of a future State; here, on September 11, 1852, a weekly newspaper published its initial number and at once dedicated its columns to the plan of dividing Oregon Territory; here it was that in the year 1852, a Fourth of July orator in the fervency of his eloquence first gave public utterance to the desire of those early pioneers for a division of Oregon Territory and for the creation of a territorial government of their own.

The children of this commonwealth, who love its history and revere the sacrifices of its pioneers, will some day, without the assistance of an appropriation bill, contribute from their individual treasuries to the building of a monument commemorating the sacrifices of those who broke the stillness of this far Northwest, laid the cornerstone of this commonwealth, ushered into existence a possible new State, and planned the addition of another star to their country's banner.

We may advert at this time to the simple story of the rise and upbuilding of American commonwealths, and contrast the splendid opportunities we now enjoy with the conditions which existed early in the history of the territory. We have advanced since then with amazing rapidity. Our progress, however, could not have been so marked had we not been endowed by the God of Creation with a variety of resources and with an industrious, liberty-loving, God-fearing citizenship drawn from the sturdy loins of the descendants of Puritan and Cavalier, invigorated with the industrious immigrant from the crowded centers of Northern Europe who rapidly assimilated with the character of American citizenship. All concentrating in this far Northwest to force from the rugged face of Nature the golden plenty of peace and comfort, and to pursue the highest mission of mankind, that of transforming a wilderness into homes.

When the humble Nazarene walked upon earth among men, our mighty forests were planted upon the ocean side of a precipitous mountain range from which we have furnished material for the construction of homes and habitations of an empire. In the valleys and plains lying upon east slope, "the wheat locks the sunshine in the bearded sheaf," and the husbandman sends the lifeblood pulsating through the veins of a million of human bodies.

I have no foreboding of the future of this State to express; no discordant note to sound; no gloomy picture to paint of the destiny of this fair land now having just passed the half-century mark of its existence as a Territory and State. This period of our State's infancy may well be rehearsed upon occasions such as this, when friends and fellow citizens gather to witness the coming and the departure of those commissioned by the people to transact the public business.

So long as the English language is spoken, the memory of our early pioneers, led on by that intrepid and indefatigable citizen and soldier, Isaac L. Stevens, will be cherished. Splendid examples of typical American citizenship were they. Citizen and soldier upon one day; builders of commonwealths and law makers upon the next. God bless their memory! And prosper the fortunes of their successors in the noble service of improving and extending the edifice of our State government in order that it may fully protect, benefit and comfort its citizens.
GOVERNOR MEAD'S MESSAGE.

Governor Mead delivered his message to the Legislature of the State of Washington, as follows:

STATE OF WASHINGTON, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
January 11, 1905.

Gentlemen of the Senate and of the House of Representatives:

In presenting a message to you in these new and well equipped legislative apartments, I cannot but contrast in my mind’s eye your surroundings with those of the first Washington legislative assembly, which gathered in that old building, still standing, hardly a stone’s throw from this edifice, close on to fifty-one years ago. The contrast symbolizes and illustrates the progress of Washington in the intervening period. Mentally, if not physically, it is a far cry from the insignificant and simple store room where the pioneer law makers met to this imposing capitol, and yet I trust that in the discharge of our duties we shall not lose sight of the example of sturdy patriotism and sound common sense in legislation set for us by the representatives of that pioneer people. Their problems were different problems; their issues different issues from those with which you have to deal; but now, just as in those formative days, there is a demand and a necessity that the tasks of legislation be approached in a spirit of unswerving devotion to the public weal, and that your efforts be animated solely by a desire to serve the best interests of the entire commonwealth.

Owing to the fact that but two months intervene between the election of a Chief Executive and his inauguration, it is impossible for him to study the needs of the State institutions to any greater extent than a member of this body serving his first term. The injunction of the Constitution to the effect that the Governor “shall communicate at every session to the Legislature the condition of affairs of the State, and recommend such measures as he shall deem expedient for their action,” necessarily places the duty upon the retiring Executive.

The present legislative and executive departments certainly have the opportunity to add a splendid chapter to the history of this commonwealth in contributing to the welfare of its people, by bringing about the enactment of wise and wholesome laws and in the faithful performance of the duties resting upon them. We are here but for a moment, as we measure the lives of States and Republics; we are but temporarily clothed with the insignia of power and authority. I express the hope, born of the confidence the people have in your industry, ability and patriotism, that when this Legislature has finally adjourned, some deed or act will have emanated from this body that will receive the commendation of future generations and substantially contribute to the happiness of our people.

We are gathered here under favorable and auspicious circumstances. Our common country is at peace with the world; our people are enjoying a marvellous prosperity; in the Pacific Northwest we are on the threshold of a great trade with the Orient—a commerce which will increase in magnitude year by year; your convening is practically coinci dent with the entry into the waters of Puget Sound of one of the greatest ocean freight carriers ever constructed by ship builders of this or any other country.

Twice appointed Territorial Governor, serving in that capacity for eight years, called later by his countrymen to honor the Executive chair as the first Governor of the State of Washington when the people were entrusted with full self government, when Elisha P. Ferry was ready to join companionship with the fathers of the Republic he loved so well, he bequeathed us a heritage of faithful performance of duty which his successors in office may well strive to emulate. This Legislature and its successors who may gather here to perform the responsible and exacting duties devolving upon law makers may well recall the wise counsel and practical suggestions made by this distinguished Chief Executive in his message to the Legislature in 1893, when he said:

"No more important duty, nor greater responsibility can devolve upon an American citizen than when he is called upon to exercise those powers and functions which appertain to him as a member of the legislative department of the Government. When the people desire relief from existing wrongs, and demand the adoption of a policy which will promote their welfare and prosperity, their appeal is made to the legislative department, and not to the executive or judicial.

Within the few years past, consequent upon the unprecedented accumulation of wealth on this continent and the economic changes resultant from invention and enterprise, have arisen problems offering unexplored fields to the practical economist, and demanding the most profound, temperate and patriotic consideration of those upon whom rest the duty of enacting laws. Restrictions on the influence and employment of capital, remedial legislation of a character hitherto unknown in our history, affecting private interests, is demanded by many, and alleged to be imperatively necessary under existing conditions. That our State is not free from evils, which can be minimized or cured by speedy and prudent legislation, must be conceded by all who have investigated the subject; but, in my opinion, it is doubtful whether it would be a sound, wise or beneficent policy to institute the extreme radical measures advocated by many.

"The enactment of unjust or oppressive laws, or the failure to enact just the necessary measures of remedy and relief, engenders in the minds of the people feelings of discontent which may cause them to renounce that veneration and respect for law and government upon which depends the perpetuity of our institutions. When this distrust and its consequent contempt become general among the people, history teaches us that the tendency is to revolutionary and destructive methods. A fundamental principle in all legislation should be that the rights of all should be protected and the rights of none destroyed, infringed or abridged, acting in conformity with it, no Legislature can fail to acquit itself with credit and to do justice to all classes in our commonwealth."

A dual obligation rests upon each legislator to loyally serve his local constituents and at the same time protect the general interests of the entire people of the State.

APPROPRIATION BILLS.

The legislative will, in enacting appropriation bills, should not be defeated unless the aggregate amount appropriated exceeds reasonable limits. The State, like an individual, has an income. If appropriations exceed the maximum limit, the Executive veto must necessarily be exercised. Owing to the healthy prosperity existing in this State, a disposition to be extravagant may follow in writing appropriation bills. This tendency should, however, be restrained in consideration of the fact that, if the demands made by you upon the people are excessive, needed expenditures of the local subdivisions of the State will necessarily be defeated, and to that extent, school districts will be prevented from constructing additional school buildings to satisfy increased school population; school boards will be prevented from increasing salaries of teachers; counties and cities will be unable to extend roads and streets to meet the demands of public travel; cities, counties and school districts will be unable to lessen indebtedness incurred for public improvements and buildings. The conclusion, therefore, is almost irresistible that, unless additional property heretofore released from taxation is placed upon the tax roll, the expense of the State government for the coming two years ought not to be materially increased beyond the expenses of the past two years, except the additional amount absolutely necessary for the State to keep pace with the progress and civilization of the age, and with the general material advancement of the interests of the people.

UNITED STATES SENATOR.

The law of the land, expressed by Constitution and Federal statutes, makes it the duty of this body to select one of the two United States Senators representing this commonwealth in the Senate of the United States for the ensuing term.

Many of you are called upon for the first time in your experiences as citizens of the Republic to exercise this grave duty, the most important, possibly, ever committed to your keeping. The citizen of Washington, commissioned by your voice to sit in the Senate chamber in the Congress of the United States, may be called upon before the expiration of his term to face problems of extraordinary importance to the millions constituting this country of ours. I believe that, in the execution of this duty of paramount importance, you will be actuated by the same impulses, the same high and patriotic resolves that have moved other Legislatures, at other times and under other conditions, to select eminent fellow citizens to adorn this dignified and historic chamber, and one who would faithfully and conscientiously protect and defend the interests of country and commonwealth; the same impulse and measurement of men that gave to the nation the services of Henry Clay, Daniel Webster, Stéphen A. Douglas, Thomas H. Benton, William H. Seward and James G. Blaine; the same impulse that prompted the first Legislature of the State of Washington to elect that splendid citizen and patriot, John B. Allen, now contending in that higher Senate than ours that right and justice may prevail in the State he so honored and loved before he paid the debt to Nature and passed from us, will actuate you in your duty of selecting a United States Senator to represent this commonwealth for the ensuing term. When you have performed this duty and during his six years at the capital of the Nation, he should receive from you and the people he represents full measure of support and confidence, giving to his strong right arm the power and influence to battle successfully for the highest and noblest interests of the millions bearing allegiance to the flag of the Republic.

RAILWAY COMMISSION.

I recommend the enactment of a law establishing a railway and transportation commission in this State, to consist of three members, to be appointed by the Executive, to perform the duties and exercise the powers contemplated by the provisions of Section 195, Article 2 of the State Constitution, which is as follows:

"The Legislature shall pass laws establishing reasonable rates of charges for the transportation of passengers and freight, and to correct abuses, and to prevent discrimination and extortion in the rates of freight and passenger tariffs on different railroads and other common carriers in this State, and shall enforce such laws by adequate penalties.

"A railway and transportation commission may be appointed, and its powers and duties fully defined by law."

Salaries, commensurate with the duties to be performed and ability and fidelity required of the commissioners working under such law, should be provided. Otherwise, its operation will not meet even the expectations of its most conservative advocates.

I am advised that a difference of opinion exists among eminent members of the bar in this State concerning the constitutional right of the Legislature, under the section quoted, to empower such a commission with the authority to establish maximum rates for transportation of passengers and freight, and with power to correct abuses and prevent discrimination in freight and passenger tariffs on the different railroads and other common carriers in this State. Those, challenging the right of the Legislature to delegate these powers, claim that a railway and transportation commission could perform only such duties and exercise only such powers as are not specifically reserved for legislative action. Those, interested in the passage of such a measure and the speedy settlement of any objection that may be urged thereto, will be in accord with me in hoping that you will consider this recommendation early in the session.

If a measure be adopted by this Legislature empowering such a commission with the authority to regulate freight and passenger rates and to perform such other duties specified in the constitutional provision quoted, and if such act contains an emergency clause, a test case might be submitted to the Supreme Court and, if diligently prosecuted before that tribunal, a decision might be rendered before your final adjournment that would prescribe how far such a commission could perform its duties without encroaching upon the powers reserved in the Legislature.

The act, which may finally receive a constitutional majority at your hands, must not only conform to the mandate of the Constitution quoted, but should be so framed that its execution will be in accord with the plainest principles of justice between shipper and carrier. On November 8, 1904, the people of this country gave to the present Chief Executive of this nation an expression of their confidence and good will more pronounced than ever before extended to a Chief Magistrate by the voluntary act of a free people. It is a pleasure to quote, and equally pleasurable for you to hear and endorse in this connection, the sentiment expressed in an extract from the message of President Roosevelt to Congress, given in December, 1901, concerning the amendment of the present Interstate Commerce Act. I quote as follows:

"The railway is a public servant. Its rates should be just to and open to all shippers alike. The Government should see to it that within its jurisdiction this is so, and should provide a speedy, inexpensive and effective remedy to that end. At the same time, it must not be forgotten that our railroads are the arteries through which the commercial lifeblood of the nation flows. Nothing could be more foolish than the enactment of legislation which would unnecessarily interfere with the development and operation of these commercial agencies."

CONSERVATIVE LEGISLATION.

I recognize the fact that in the performance of the duties of a legislator, well meaning friends will urge you to introduce for consideration proposed laws, the enactment of which would be unwise, inopportune and in every way injudicious and inexpedient.

I also recognize that the legislator serves his people best who has the courage to oppose a great portion of the measures introduced. We often hear the complaint from many States as well as our own that the statute books are crowded with incomplete, unsatisfactory statutory provisions. Our laws cannot, in the nature of things, be made perfect, adequate or complete, but if they are sufficient, in a substantial way, for the relief of the people and have received judicial interpretation, we would be following the path of wisdom to let well enough alone.

I would most respectfully urge upon you the necessity of having your bills carefully drawn by competent counsel or advisors with the purpose in view of avoiding constitutional objections and thereby saving the State the confusion and expense of acting for a time under a law of doubtful validity.

I desire also to call your attention to the necessity of having your bills correctly enrolled. An examination of the decisions of our Supreme Court will satisfy you that great confusion has resulted, and rights have been jeopardized, on account of the hasty enrollment of bills during the closing days of the session. I would, therefore, impress upon you the necessity of selecting competent and trustworthy clerks for the performance of this duty, and especially urge upon the committee having charge of this work the necessity of care in the comparison of the enrolled bill with the original or engrossed bill, so it will correctly represent the legislative will.

You will be urged in many instances to invoke the provision of the Constitution requiring an emergency clause to be attached so that the bill may become a law at once. I hope you will withstand these requests so that the provision of the Constitution will be fairly complied with, as it is a matter of common knowledge that the interests of the people are best subserved by the delay of the ninety days intervening between the adjournment of the Legislature and the date on which the acts take effect, thus permitting the people to adjust themselves to the new conditions.

I trust you will confine yourselves to the strengthening of the laws we now have, only extending your field of legislative endeavor to those matters which have been generally discussed among the people, or which have heretofore received attention of the Legislature or commissions appointed by the Executive. Under all circumstances, I believe that the conservative tendency of this Legislature will be to see to it that this young child of the Northwest is not handicapped by any unwise or radical legislation that will retard its growth, or that will return to plague us.

SUBMIT BILLS TO SUPREME COURT.

I am heartily in favor of the system followed in some of our sister States whereby the Legislature, by two-thirds vote, may submit any bill under consideration by that body to the judgment of the Supreme Court, and under the law it is made the duty of the Supreme Court to at once determine its validity and so report to the Legislature. I, therefore, earnestly recommend the enactment of such a statute, or amendment of our Constitution to permit such a practice, if constitutional amendment be necessary.

On account of the absence of any such provision by statute or Constitution of our sister State of Oregon, when a revenue law recently enacted by the Legislature of that State was declared unconstitutional, the Executive was compelled to call an extraordinary session of the Legislature in order to raise funds so that the State government and its various subdivisions could continue in existence. An amendment or practice such as I suggest might in the future save this State the expense of a special session of the Legislature.

The greatest good, in my judgment, which would result from such a requirement would be the fact that, when the Legislature and the Supreme Court have pronounced upon the enactment and validity of a statute, the people and public officers have definite assurance that the law is stable and binding, and can proceed accordingly.

SUPREME COURT.

In order to dispose of the constantly accumulating causes before the Supreme Court, I urgently recommend the enactment of an act, at the earliest possible time, providing for an increase of the membership of that tribunal from five to seven members, and that such increase be permanent. In my judgment, large property interests are necessarily endangered if not injured by reason of the delay in adjudicating legal matters pending before the Supreme Court. The increase of the bench would facilitate the early disposition of criminal cases, and would warrant such cases receiving a preferred place upon the calendar early in the sessions of the court.

Justice Brewer of the Supreme Court of the United States, recently expressed the sentiment that, "Justice delayed is often justice denied." Delay in the trial of criminal cases and postponement of execution of sentence not only impairs the administration of justice, but destroys the deterring influence which ought to follow the prompt and summary enforcement of the criminal statutes.

CRIMINAL CODE AMENDMENT.

I would, therefore, suggest amendment of the statute to require that judgment in criminal cases be entered immediately after the verdict of guilty is returned; that the time be limited in which the person convicted may apply for a new trial; that if his application for a new trial is overruled, the judgment of the Court be immediately executed, unless notice of appeal is given; that immediately after the trial and conviction of a person charged with infraction of the criminal statute, and the denial of a motion for a new trial, the court stenographer prepare a transcript of the testimony, serve a copy upon the defendant or his attorney, and that when the testimony is authenticated by the trial judge it be filed with the clerk of the Supreme Court.

PREFERENCE TO CRIMINAL CAUSES.

I recommend, also, amendments requiring that the Supreme Court shall give preference to criminal causes in its assignment of cases pending before the court; that, if necessary, civil cases give way for the immediate hearing of criminal cases, when transcript and briefs are on file; that the time be lessened for the filing of briefs, and that no extension be permitted by stipulation or order of the Superior Court, and only granted by order of the Supreme Court.

DIVORCE REFORM.

Our courts are often subjected to criticism, but in many instances unjustly, on account of the large number of decrees granted in divorce cases. The fault, in my judgment, is not with the courts but with the law regulating the divorce system. The courts are bound to respect the law even if its administration results in the dissolution of the marriage contract in multitudinous cases.

Rather than inaugurate a radical change in the divorce system, I would recommend that certain provisions be strengthened and given life and vigor by judicious amendments.

A statute, continued from territorial days, requires the presence of the county attorney to resist default divorce cases. In making a bona fide resistance this official is handicapped and his service to the court minimized as no authority or method is prescribed by which he can compel the attendance of witnesses to testify in behalf of the absent defendant. His service, therefore, at the trial is limited to the sole duty of cross examining the applicant and his witnesses. If it was the intention of the Legislature to require the county attorney to resist undefended divorce cases in the manner that a faithful official would represent the best interests of society, he should have an opportunity of conducting an intelligent defense by summoning witnesses to testify to the facts in the case. To bring this about, the applicant should be required to deposit such an amount as the court may direct for the payment of witness fees.

The law should be further amended so as to permit the court to enter an order requiring the attendance of the plaintiff and the defendant at the trial, if both parties are within the jurisdiction of the court.

The law defining the rule of evidence concerning the admission of testimony of the husband or the wife should be so modified as to permit successful criminal prosecution to follow a trial in a divorce case in the event that, from the testimony submitted, the court or the prosecuting attorney is satisfied that one or the other of the parties has been guilty of a misdemeanor or felony.

The marriage relation is a solemn and sacred contract. As the family is the unit of society and the State, if the institution is destroyed or impaired, to that extent our highest standard of civilization suffers.

Fewer applicants for divorce decrees would appear in our courts if this body enacted a law making it a felony or misdemeanor for a parent to desert his child, or for a husband to voluntarily desert and abandon his wife, unless some reasonable ground exists therefor. The one hundred and fifty or more children committed to the State Reform School are there largely by reason of the domestic difficulties of their parents, who no longer continue the marriage relation or who have been separated by decree of divorce and one or the other remarried.

With these amendments and an additional one, requiring the court to enter a decree nisi at the time of the trial and a complete decree of divorce to follow at the expiration of a period of not less than six months from the date of trial so as to prevent absolutely either party from remarrying with a third person within such period after a decree of divorce is granted, I am of the opinion that fewer decrees of divorce will be granted in our State, and you will have performed an inestimable service in protecting the integrity of the marriage relation, and in reducing the number of children suffering from lack of parental care and attention, and in improving generally the welfare of society.

COURT STENOGRAPHERS.

The general demand in the superior courts of this State for the services of court reporters has in practice made them essential adjuncts of the trial courts. The court reporters should be given an official status, and provision made regulating their fees and salaries. Their compensation, however, should be derived from the counties they serve, collected in part from fees paid by the litigants. Under no circumstances, should this expense be borne by the State.

The rules of evidence should be so modified as to permit the stenographer to testify as a witness from his stenographic report concerning the declarations of witnesses reported by him, subject to the right of the opposing party to rebut such evidence.

JUVENILE COURTS.

One of the grave social problems that presents itself in every large center of population concerns dealing with juvenile offenders against the law. Several of our sister States have adopted the plan of creating juvenile courts, a plan which has been commended highly by students of the subject. I am of the opinion that the creation of such courts in cities of the first class in the State, would be beneficial to the commonwealth, and would tend to elevate our future citizenship.

PROBATE LAWS.

The bar and people generally of the State will welcome a readjustment of our probate laws. The present system lacks harmony and simplicity. I recommend a revision of the entire procedure so that the law governing the administration of estates will reduce the expense of settlement of the estate, and lessen the time for the distribution of the property to the beneficiaries.

Superior Judges, sitting in probate cases, should have jurisdiction to settle and adjudicate all matters connected in any way with the estate.

RECOMMENDED LEGISLATION.

The enactment of a law preventing the acquisition and indefinite holding of large tracts of State timber lands to the exclusion and prejudice of small mill owners and consumers; the passage of an anti-pass bill in compliance with the provisions of our State Constitution; the enactment of legislation for the protection of the interests of our laboring classes along the lines urged by the State Federation of Labor; the repeal of the present road law; the enactment of such laws as may be necessary to secure the completion of irrigation projects in Eastern Washington by the United States Government; and the enactment of a law providing for a commission with power to determine, for the purposes of assessment and taxation, the value of all corporate property, both real and personal, to the end that the burden of the government may be borne without prejudice, fear or inequality, are provisions of the platform adopted by the Republican party of this State, in convention assembled in the City of Tacoma, on May 11, 1904, which nominated for office the persons now constituting the executive department of this State.

The verdict of the people rendered at the November polls indicated in no uncertain way that a majority of the people favor the enactment of these platform utterances into laws. Giving expression, therefore, to the will of the people, I recommend early consideration of each and all of these promises and pledges so that the accumulation and congestion of business upon the respective calendars of each branch of the Legislature will not militate against the passage of those measures which constitute a part of the political faith of the dominant party of this State.

TAX COMMISSION.

Many demands will be made upon you during the session for the enactment of measures which will tend to materially increase the State appropriations for the ensuing two years. Those so interested in increased appropriation will not perhaps manifest the same zeal in promoting legislation by which the exchequer of the State may be replenished and increased appropriations met.

I would, therefore, suggest that, preliminary to the adoption of a final decision upon your part to appropriate money from the treasury for purposes other than the usual and necessary running expenses of the State government, you take up for consideration proposed legislation suggested by that plank of the Republican State platform favoring the creation of a State tax commission.

REVENUE AND TAXATION.

In your deliberations it would be well to bear in mind that equally important with the duty of appropriating public moneys is the task of providing the State revenue, though in the one you are apt to receive far more outside aid and counsel than in the other. I look forward hopefully to that day when it will no longer be necessary to levy direct taxes for the support of the State government, and I believe that, with the equal and just taxation of all property, contemplated by the constitution, that day is not far distant. We already receive a revenue from fees and licenses, which properly should be larger than it is. For instance, I am convinced that the present law is lame in the collection of annual license fees from corporations, and that incorporation fees paid to the office of the secretary of state might legitimately be increased. An intelligent tax commission, the creation of which I recommend to you in another portion of this message, has a broad field of labor in determining what tax shall be borne by those valuable but intangible forms of property, hitherto untaxed, in the class with franchises. In the meantime, I see no impropriety in this Legislature proceeding to levy a tax on the gross earnings of express companies, street car companies and sleeping car companies doing business in this State, to the end that those holdings contribute their proportion to the maintenance of the State government. Following out this plan, we should attain that position now occupied by some of the older States where direct taxes are paid only for the support of municipal and county governments. Such a system would abolish the unseemly scramble among the assessors of the different counties to lessen valuations of real and personal property so that each particular assessor's county may not pay more than its proportionate share of State taxation. At the same time, it would make for that equal and just taxation of all property, which is never burdensome.
DELIQUENT REVENUES.

The neglect, which amounts to refusal, on the part of a number of incorporated cities and towns to pay to the State the portion of municipal liquor license fees exacted by the State law, works a serious depletion of the State's legitimate revenues. I learn from the office of the state treasurer that these delinquencies are estimated at from $60,000 to $100,000, although, under the present system, the only way to obtain the accurate figures is by checking up the books of the separate municipalities, a work which has not been provided for in any State appropriation. I recommend to you such legislation as you may deem proper to bring about the collection of these delinquencies, and to prevent further withholding of State funds by municipalities. This latter result might readily be achieved by requiring that all liquor licenses bear the signature and seal of the state treasurer, which signature and seal would be affixed only after the State had received its percentage of the license fee. Another means of attaining the same end would be to make it a misdemeanor on the part of municipal officers to fail to turn over promptly to the State Treasurer the State's proportion of the fee.

Investigation shows that the State is not deriving the revenue it should from the inheritance tax law, many county and judicial officers failing to inform the state treasurer when estates, on which the tax should be collected, come into court.

I recommend the amendment of the inheritance tax law to compel the proper officers to make reports to the state treasurer.

STATE INSPECTION OF BANKS.

Statutory and constitutional provisions concerning criminal and civil liability of bank officials should be supplemented by legislation so that deposits in the different banks of the State will be safely guarded by the custodians, and paid on demand.

With the purpose in view of protecting bank deposits, a system of State inspection of State, foreign and private banks should be provided to the end that every depositor can rely upon the integrity and honesty of every banking institution subject to regulation by the State, holding itself out as a bank and inviting deposits.

The late Governor John R. Rogers mentioned the subject in his message to the Legislature of 1899, and in part said:

"The State is able to and certainly should throw around such institutions the safeguards now existing with relation to national banks. The business of banking is eminently a public one, depending for its success upon the use of deposits made by the public. The people who do business with the banker, and the general public, thus acquire a right to know the state of affairs prevailing in the institutions upon which business in the several communities is made largely to depend. Honest and prosperous bankers will welcome examinations at frequent intervals, which will give them opportunity to advertise their standing and increase their business, while dishonest and unsuccessful ones should be weeded out, to the great advantage of communities infested by them."
Governor John H. McGraw in his message of 1895, said:

"The Legislature should address itself resolutely to the enactment of such a law as will render the word 'bank' when inscribed on a public depository a positive synonym of security."

IRRIGATION CODE.

I would commend to your earnest and careful consideration the report, which will be presented to you, of the irrigation commission appointed by my predecessor, Governor McBride, to investigate the subject of irrigation and recommend such changes in our system of irrigation as might be deemed for the best interests of the State.

The remarkable progress in recent years in the science of irrigation and the almost miraculous results we have seen in this State following the application of water to hitherto barren and unproductive lands, bring us to a realization that in our vast arid and semi-arid lands of Eastern Washington we have an asset of immense potential value. Under wise and benign enactments by the Congress of the United States the general government now stands ready, under certain conditions, to reclaim for our people and for our prospective population portions of those lands, making them productive and providing homes and means of livelihood for thousands. But, as a condition precedent to applying the benefits of the National reclamation act in this State, the general government requires that our State laws on the subject of water ownership in non-humid regions be not incompatible with the theory of water ownership as set forth in the reclamation law. That theory is succinctly worded in the President's declaration that "in irrigation this right (the right of water) should attach to the land reclaimed and be inseparable therefrom."

To bring about harmony between our State laws and the Federal enactment, is the problem before you, if we are to receive any benefit from the general government. The irrigation commission, with the aid of various distinguished gentlemen learned in irrigation law, has prepared a code which will be submitted to you for your consideration. I urge upon you the necessity of devoting much of your time to the subject for, as the President has stated, in it you are "dealing with a new and momentous question, in the pregnant years while institutions are forming," and what you do will affect not only the present but future generations.

HARBOR IMPROVEMENTS.

Development and improvement of the harbors of the State is a subject which I commend to your attention as one well within the province of the legislative branch of the State government. Experience has demonstrated that those harbors, where the interchange of traffic between land and water conveyances is best facilitated, enjoy the largest measure of prosperity. While we seek Federal appropriations for harbor work, we cannot consistently discourage the State from acting in harmony with the general government in those labors. It is just that the whole State should contribute thereto, since the benefits are to be shared by the inland producers and shippers quite as much as by the seacoast merchants and manufacturers.

I am of the opinion that a board or commission should be authorized, made up of representative citizens, to serve without remuneration except for necessary expenses, to suggest a plan to a succeeding Legislature for legislative action in the interests of harbor improvements.

ROAD LEGISLATION.

No duty of greater importance will engage the attention of this body than the consideration of road legislation. Improved highways constructed for permanent service increase the value of every acre of land near such road. We have demonstrated that the nearer land is to market, church and school, the greater its value and the more profitable is its product.

The platforms of the two great political parties call for the repeal of the present road law. However, I am not convinced that the people of this State desire to return to the old road supervisor system of constructing and improving county highways. All must recognize that we have entered upon an era of scientific road building and have reached a period when the services of practical road makers should be utilized in the construction and improvement of our county highways. We have relegated to the past the system which permitted road supervisors or county commissioners to experiment with the people's money in building a system of roads not in accordance with practical or scientific methods.

TOWNSHIP ORGANIZATION.

An act providing for township organization, approved March 23, 1895, conflicting in its provisions, lacking in the element of simplicity, of doubtful constitutional validity, has been a source of more or less controversy in the different counties of the State, but has not yet been adopted by the voters where it has been submitted to the people. It being the policy of the Legislature to strengthen the present system of administration of affairs by boards of county commissioners, I therefore, recommend that the interests of the State generally would be best subserved by the unconditional repeal of the township organization act.

FISHERIES.

You will be called upon during this session to consider and legislate upon the subject of the fisheries of this commonwealth. The output of the fishing industry in times past has added immeasurably to the productive wealth of this State. The industry involved in catching and preparing salmon as a commercial food product has furnished employment to a large number of our people, and is an industry of which we may well be proud. If any policy of the State will save this industry to the people, or will insure its perpetuation to future generations, or will materially increase the propagation of fish having the greatest commercial value, such action should be speedily taken as its postponement.
will result in the permanent impairment of one of the greatest industries of the State. We can well afford to use every means within legislative power to promote the industry and to increase the supply of salmon inhabiting the waters of Puget Sound and the Columbia River.

The fishing interests of the State, however, are not alone interested in the preservation of this industry, but it is a matter of vital importance to the people of the entire State.

MINES AND MINING.

The mining interests of this State will in time become an important factor as a wealth producing, labor employing industry. The "wildcat mining" industry, however, should be exterminated, as it has retarded legitimate mining investments and detracted from our good name and fame as a mining State.

LUMBER AND SHINGLES.

The lumber and shingle industry is one of the most important interests in the State, giving support, as it does, to a very large percentage of our citizens, and consequently it is entitled to such protection and encouragement as may properly be within the province of legislation. It is a matter of common knowledge that the industry at present has not that prosperity which is considered normal.

I recommend that you consider carefully the proposed legislation that will be presented to you on the subject, to the end that you may enact laws that, while equitable and just, will tend to restore prosperous conditions to the industry.

TUBERCULOSIS.

Our State is entitled to special prominence when compared with any other State in the Union, as a country possessing a health giving climate. Its abundance of fresh water for domestic use, its bracing air, untainted by the poison of malaria, are great factors in lessening the progress of disease. It does not, however, possess the temperature and other conditions needed by those seeking relief from pulmonary troubles that may be found in southern climes. It is estimated by a writer in one of our current magazines that of the 75,000,000 living Americans, 8,000,000 must inevitably die from pulmonary tuberculosis. Necessarily we must share in the terrible levy made annually upon the lives of the people. Can we afford to be dilatory in aligning our State with the progressive States of the Union in declaring war upon this great white plague which is in fact the scourge of the world? I ask you, therefore, to strengthen the powers of our local and State boards of health, arming them with weapons to give battle to this arch enemy of mankind.

Let me fortify this recommendation with an extract from the fifth biennial report of our State board of health, which is as follows:

"Tuberculosis in this State, as in all other States, is the cause of more deaths than any one other disease. It is settled beyond doubt that it is a communicable disease and one which, with reasonable precautions can be avoided, and, in a large measure, prevented. Notwithstanding these facts, little or no precaution towards prevention is taken by the people generally, though boards of health and physicians have for years been endeavoring to educate the public to the dangers and how to avoid them."

LEWIS & CLARK EXPOSITION.

In order that the State of Washington may be properly represented at the Lewis & Clark Exposition to be held in the City of Portland, Oregon, June 1, 1905, this Legislature ought to take up early in its session the question of what amount shall be appropriated for that purpose, how the sum shall be expended, and in what manner this State shall be represented at the exposition. In consideration of the enterprise exhibited by our sister State of Oregon and the City of Portland, its metropolis, and in view of the possible resulting benefit to our own State, I would recommend that this Legislature make a liberal appropriation and do so at once in order that the work contemplated by the appropriation may be entered upon, as but little time remains in which to make adequate preparation for an exhibit.

NATIONAL GUARD.

Official and unofficial statements by high officers of the United States army, reports of the joint maneuvers which occurred last summer at American Lake, and the testimony of well informed citizens have made it clear to me that in the National Guard of Washington, as at present constituted, we have an intelligent, effective and patriotic body of citizen soldiery of remarkable military efficiency. I believe that condition is due, in no small degree, to the fact that the military laws of the State are wise and just, and their administration in the hands of officers whose superior rank has been attained solely through efficiency rather than through political favor. I advocate the continuance of the system which has brought such gratifying results. The theory of the militia laws in this State differs from that in some States in this that the National Guard of Washington is organized not only as an arm for the State’s defense, but primarily to fit the rank and file for immediate service as Federal volunteers at the call of the President, and this theory is one to which I am glad to give my endorsement. To maintain our National Guard at its present high standard I urge upon you the necessity of appropriating public funds with a liberality commensurate with the State revenues.

STATE INSTITUTIONS.

I trust that many of you have already visited many of the State institutions, and that you will during this session, under the command of the branch of the Legislature of which you are a member, fairly inspect and investigate the management of the various educational, penal and charitable institutions. I know that if you do you will feel a pride in the spirit which prompted your predecessors when they enacted the law providing for the establishment of our educational and charitable institutions, as well as the Soldier’s Home at Orting.
I urge upon you the necessity of making a liberal appropriation for the maintenance of this institution, believing that you will provide a generous amount to supplement the aid received from the general government for the maintenance of this Home.

I also urge your favorable consideration of the recommendations made by those having the active management of the institution in hand, so that the remaining years of the lives of the survivors of the Union army and navy, who have accepted privilege of the institution, may be filled with peace, quiet and comfort.

THE LEGISLATIVE LOBBY.

Unfortunately for the cause of good government, legislative sessions are generally attended by a class of political cormorants, who endeavor to usurp the powers of accredited members. By the exercise of skillful legerdemain and a finesse known to the experienced lobbyist, they frequently succeed in defeating the enactment of wise and beneficial laws. They at times challenge the ability and power of the people's representatives to act as a self governing parliamentary body, and too often wield greater power than the body itself.

You are the sole custodians of your prerogatives, solely responsible to the people for the record you make. These enemies of civic righteousness and good government, bearing no commission from the people, no letters of marque to engage in political privateering, acting under no oath of office, worshipping only the god Mammon, cherishing no high ideals, will haunt the corridors of this capitol building from now until adjournment. They dare not fight in the open for they realize that, like the fatal basalisk, "whose breath was poison and whose look was death," their active, open espousal of any cause would damn it.

Allow me to quote the denunciation of this class of legislative lobbyists by Governor Cummings in his message to the Iowa Legislature of 1902:

"The professional lobbyist has, I regret to say, become one of the features of legislative assemblies. Do not misunderstand me to suggest that the halls of legislation should be inaccessible to either the individual or the corporation. The lobbyist, however, who is for anything or against anything for hire, whose mission is to promote one measure or defeat another, who haunts the chambers of legislation and tainted its atmosphere with his corrupt designs, who sends for members for interviews in the cloakroom, who carries a tally sheet and watches the roll call, who shadows the members at their homes and hotels, injecting at all hours and all places his poison into the public service, is a criminal whose approach is an insult, and to whom the doors of the Capitol should never swing inward."

In conclusion, I trust that your deliberations will be characterized by that spirit of fairness and justice that is an attribute of statesmanship, and that the business of the State in your hands will be transacted with harmony and expedition.

On motion of Senator Hammer the joint session was dissolved at 3:30.
Senate bill No. 25, providing for an appropriation of $80,000 for legislative expenses, was read the first time.

On motion of Mr. Benn, the rules were suspended, the bill was read the second time by title. The rules were further suspended and the bill was read the third time and placed on final passage and passed by the following vote: Ayes 86, nays 0, absent or not voting 8.

RESOLUTIONS.

The following Senate concurrent resolution was received and adopted:

Senate concurrent resolution No. 9, by Mr. Clapp:

WHEREAS, An invitation was extended to and accepted by the Governor and State officers and the Legislature of the State of Washington to visit and inspect, on the 14th day of January, instant, the city of Seattle with its immense and varied maritime and commercial interests, and more especially the new steamship "Minnesota" and the nearly completed battleship "Nebraska," now lying in the harbor of that city, the State officers and the members of the Legislature having been on that occasion the guests of the mayor and other officials of Seattle, its chamber of commerce and its citizens' committee, and of J. D. Farrell, the president of the Northern Steamship company and the personal representative at Seattle of James J. Hill, the president of the Great Northern Railway company; and

WHEREAS, On that occasion the visiting guests were welcomed with the most cordial and lavish hospitality, both officially and personally, and were munificently entertained on board the steamship "Minnesota" and afforded a full inspection of the marvelous finish and perfection of that great ship, and afterwards were afforded a like thorough examination of the battleship "Nebraska," one of the most powerful fighting ships ever built, and there were also extended to the State officers and Legislature the manifold courtesies of the great city of Seattle; and

WHEREAS, The members of the Legislature of this State, as a result of said most enjoyable visit, are more than ever impressed with the marvelous progressiveness of the city of Seattle and its assured position as one of the greatest capitals of Pacific industrial enterprise, and especially with the facts that the constructive genius of Moran Brothers Company, by the successful completion of its undertaking to build for the government of the United States a battleship of the largest and most advanced type, has added new lustre and prestige to that city's long list of creditable achievements, and that James J. Hill, by his inauguration, in connection with the Great Northern Railway system, of a new line of transoceanic traffic between the city of Seattle and oriental countries, equipped with steamships of such unprecedented capacity and completeness as the "Minnesota" and its coming sister ship the "Dakota," has added another to the long list of his acts, characterized by wonderful foresight and approved by unbroken success, whereby he is justly entitled to rank as the greatest among the upbuilders of the industrial development of the Pacific Northwest; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, the House concurring, That we, the members of the Senate and the House of Representatives of the State of Washington, do hereby express our deep appreciation of the genial good fellowship and splendid hospitality afforded to us on the occasion above mentioned; and, be it further

Resolved, That a vote of thanks therefor, on the part of the Legislature of the State of Washington, in behalf of the members thereof, as well as the Governor and other State officers, be and it is hereby tendered to the officials of the city of Seattle, its chamber of commerce and its citizens' committee, to the Northern Steamship company and to Moran Brothers Company, and that this resolution be spread on the journals of the Senate and the House of Representatives; and, be it further

Resolved, That enrolled copies of this resolution be transmitted to the mayor of the city of Seattle, to the president of the chamber of commerce of said city, to the president of Moran Brothers Company, and to the president of the Northern Steamship company.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE.

SENATE CHAMBER.
OLYMPIA, WASH., January 17, 1905.

Mr. President:

We, your Committees on Rules and Joint Rules, respectfully report the following joint rules for the Senate and House, for the session of 1905, and recommend their adoption. Respectfully,

CHARLES E. COON, Chairman Senate Committee.
J. G. MEGLEH, Chairman House Committee.

We concur in this report: Chas. G. Gleason, Charles I. Roth, W. H. Hare, Geo. H. Baker, Geo. T. Reid, C. F. Clapp, Joseph B. Lindeley, J. J. Smith, Peter McGregor, Lincoln Davis.

JOINT RULES OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE
REGULAR SESSION OF 1905.

COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE AND FREE CONFERENCE.

Rule 1. In every case of an amendment of a bill, or joint or concurrent resolution, agreed to in one house, dissent from the other, and not receded from by the one making the same, such house shall appoint a committee to confer with a like committee to be appointed by the other, and the committee so appointed shall meet at a convenient hour, to be agreed upon by their respective chairmen, and shall confer upon the differences between the two houses as indicated by the amend­ment made in one and rejected in the other, and report as early as convenient the result of their conference to their respective houses. If after such a report the two houses shall disagree upon the recommendations of the reporting committees as to their differences between the two houses, a committee of free conference shall be appointed to whom the whole subject matter embraced in the bill or resolution shall be committed, and the committee of free conference may report by new bill or resolution, or otherwise, and bills or resolutions so reported shall be treated as amendments, unless such bills or resolutions are comprised entirely of original matter, in which case they shall receive the treat­ment required in the respective houses for original bills or resolutions, as the case may be.

MESSAGES.

Rule 2. Messages from the Senate to the House of Representatives shall be delivered by the secretary or assistant secretary, and messages from the House of Representatives to the Senate shall be delivered by the chief clerk or assistant clerk who shall be announced by the door­keeper, enter within the bar, announce or deliver his message.

BILLS.

Rule 3. Each house shall communicate its final action on any bill, or resolution, or matter in which the other may be entrusted, in writing, signed by the secretary or clerk of the house from which such notice is sent.

Rule 4. After a bill shall have passed both houses, it shall be duly enrolled by the enrolling clerk of the house in which it originated, and shall be examined by the enrolling committee of such house, who shall carefully compare the enrollment with the engrossed bill, as passed, correcting any errors that may be discovered in the enrolled bill, procure in open session the signature thereto of the necessary officers of the two houses, present the same to the Governor, and forthwith report to such house the time when such presentation to the Governor was made. The enrolling clerk shall indorse upon the back of each bill the house in which said bill originated.

Rule 5. All joint resolutions to be presented to the Governor, excepting such as may be addressed to him, shall take the usual course of bills.

Rule 6. Each house shall transmit to the other papers on which any bill or resolution may be founded.

PRINTING.

Rule 7. The standing committees on printing of the two houses shall be a joint standing committee, who shall examine all matters proposed to be printed by concurrent order, and shall report what part of such matter is needful to print. Each house may order the printing of bills introduced, reports of its own committees, and other matters pertaining to such house only; but no other printing shall be ordered except by a concurrent resolution passed by both houses. It shall be the duty of the secretary of the Senate and the clerk of the House to compare the bills introduced in each house and such bills as are introduced in both houses and are of the same wording shall only be printed in one house.

RESOLUTIONS.

Rule 8. Joint resolutions or memorials addressed to Congress, or either house thereof, or to the President of the United States, or the head of any of the national departments, or proposing amendments to the State constitution, shall be treated in all respects as bills.

VETOES.

Rule 9. Bills which have passed a previous Legislature, and which are transmitted to the Legislature next sitting, accompanied by a message or statement of the Governor's disapproval, or veto of the same, shall become the subject of a special order; and when the special order for their consideration is reached and called, the said message or statement shall be read, together with the bill or bills so disapproved or vetoed; and the message and bill shall be read by the clerk without interruption, consecutively, one following the other, and not upon separate occasions; and no such bill or message shall be referred to any committee, or otherwise acted upon, save as provided by law and custom; that is to say, that immediately following such reading the only question (except as hereinafter stated) which shall be put by the speaker is, "Shall the bill pass, notwithstanding the objections of the Governor?" It shall not be in order, any time, to vote upon such vetoed bill without the same shall have first been read, from the first word of its title to and including the last word of its final section; and no motion shall be entertained after the chair has stated the question save a motion for the "previous question," but the merits of the bill itself may be debated.

Rule 10. That the Senate bills in the House, and House bills in the Senate, be the special order on Wednesday of each week during the session.

Rule 11. All amendatory acts shall refer to the title of the act amended in full and date of approval. Committees shall amend or substitute all titles to conform to this rule.

The report of the Committees on Rules was accepted and the joint rules were adopted.

On motion the special order for this afternoon, viz: Memorial services in honor of the late Hon. G. B. Gunderson was taken up at this hour.

The clerk of the House read House concurrent resolution No. 3, as follows:

Whereas, The late Hon. G. B. Gunderson for the past three legislative sessions served with great honor and distinction as Mason county's representative; and

Whereas, He always took a fearless stand for honorable and right measures; and

Whereas, He, as such representative, performed great and lasting service to the State and especially to its public schools; therefore, be it

Resolved by the House, the Senate concurring, That in the death of Hon. G. B. Gunderson the people of the State of Washington have lost a loyal citizen and a faithful legislator; and be it further

Resolved, That in honor of his memory we direct that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the House and Senate and an enrolled copy transmitted to the family of the deceased.

An eulogy in memory of Hon. G. B. Gunderson was pronounced by Mr. Gleason.

House concurrent resolution No. 3, on motion of Mr. Vogtlin, was adopted by a standing vote.

The House took a recess until 11:55 a.m.

The speaker called the House to order at 11:55 a.m.

JOINT SESSION.

The joint session was called to order at 12:00 o'clock noon by President Coon.

The secretary of the Senate called the roll of the Senate, all members being present except Senators Graves and Sharp, who were excused.

The clerk of the House called the roll of the House, all members being present except Messrs. Twichell and Weatherford, who were excused.

The journal of the joint session of yesterday was read and approved.

It appearing that no person had received a majority of the votes cast and that there had been no election of United States Senator at the joint session of yesterday, the president instructed the secretary to call the roll for the eighth joint ballot.

EIGHTH JOINT BALLOT.

Addison G. Foster received forty-three votes.
Samuel H. Piles received thirty-one votes.
Charles Sweeny received twenty-eight votes.
John L. Wilson received seventeen votes.
Wesley L. Jones received seven votes.
Will G. Graves received six votes.

Those voting for Addison G. Foster were: Messrs. Bartlett, Bassett, Bishop, Blackmore, Bradley, Bronson, Byerly, Christian, Clapp, Crandall, Lincoln Davis, Eidemiller, Fenton, Fulton, Griffin, Hamilton, Hammer, Hughes, Lee A. Johnson, Lambert, LeCrone, Levin, McCoy, McNicol, Melcher, Miller, Minard, Moldstad, Olsen, Pogue, Poyns, Geo. T. Reid, Roberts, Rudene, Sheets, Shultz, E. E. Smith, Stewart, Summer, Van Slyke, Welsh, Wilson, and Mr. Speaker—43.

Those voting for Wesley L. Jones were: Messrs. Bolinger, Boone, Dickson, Hare, Kenoyer, Stilson, and Williams—7.

Those absent or not voting were: Senator Graves and Mr. Weatherford—2.

Senator Sharp was paired with Mr. Twichell.

No person having received a majority of the votes, the president declared there had been no election and instructed the secretary to call the roll for the ninth joint ballot.

NINTH JOINT BALLOT.

Addison G. Foster received forty-five votes.
Samuel H. Piles received thirty-one votes.
Charles Sweeny received twenty-eight votes.
John L. Wilson received seventeen votes.
Wesley L. Jones received seven votes.
Will G. Graves received four votes.

Those voting for Addison G. Foster were: Messrs. Bartlett, Bassett, Bishop, Blackmore, Bradley, Bronson, Byerly, Christian, Clapp, Crandall, Lincoln Davis, Earles, Eidemiller, Fenton, Fulton, Griffin, Hamilton, Hamilton, Hammer, Harper, Hughes, Lee A. Johnson,

Those voting for Wesley L. Jones were: Messrs. Bolinger, Boone, Dickson, Hare, Kenoyer, Williams, Stilson—7.

Those voting for Will G. Graves were: Messrs. Ayer, Maloney, Moore, and Rashier—4.

Those absent or not voting were: Senator Graves and Mr. Weatherford—2.

Senator Sharp was paired with Mr. Twichell.

At 12:25 p. m., on motion of Mr. Dickson, the joint session dissolved.

The House took a recess till 2 o'clock, p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The House was called to order by the speaker at 2 p. m.

Roll call showed all members present except Messrs. Ericksen, Twichell and Weatherford, who were excused.
SPECIAL ORDER.

The hour having arrived, the House took up for consideration the bills vetoed by Governor McBride.

STATE OF WASHINGTON, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
OLYMPIA, WASH., MARCH 21, 1903.

House bill No. 192 seeks to appropriate ten thousand dollars for the establishment and maintenance of a branch of the "State soldier's home." This bill is disapproved for the following reasons:

1st. We have a State university at Seattle, an agricultural college and school of science at Pullman, and State normal schools at Whatcom, Ellensburg and Cheney; insane asylums at Steilacoom and Medical Lake; a penitentiary at Walla Walla; a soldiers' home at Orting; a reform school at Chehalis; and a school for defective youth at Vancouver. The cost of maintaining these institutions, owing to their being scattered throughout the State, is much greater than it would be had they been grouped at two or three central points. This policy of "scattering" should not be given further encouragement.

2d. The revenues of the State are not such as to justify this expenditure.

HENRY McBRIDE, Governor.

House bill No. 192, session of 1903, appropriating $10,000 for the maintenance of a branch state soldiers' home, was considered and failed to pass over the Governor's veto by the following vote: Yeas 11, nays 77, absent or not voting 6.

Those voting yea were: Messrs. Benn, Falconer, Hare, Irving, J. B. Lindsley, Miller, Morgan, Roberts, Stevenson, Strobridge, and Ulsh—11.

Those absent or not voting were: Messrs. Ericksen, Hoch, Keyes, McGregor, Twichell, and Weatherford—6.
STATE OF WASHINGTON, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
OLYMPIA, WASH., March 20, 1903.

I cannot approve House bill No. 353. Its purpose is to compel counties to bear the expense of sending defective youth to and from the "Washington school for defective youth," and to pay for the clothing of such children while at such school. Under the law, as it now is, this burden falls upon counties only when it is made to appear to the satisfaction of county commissioners that the parents of such children are unable to bear such expense. Where parents are able to do this, the burden should not be shifted to others. For this reason House bill No. 353 is disapproved.

HENRY McBRIDE, Governor.

House bill No. 353, session of 1903, to compel counties to bear expense of transportation of defective youth to and from Washington school for defective youth and to furnish clothing for such children.

The bill failed to pass over the Governor's veto by the following vote: Ayes 3, nays 87; absent or not voting 4.

STATE OF WASHINGTON, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
OLYMPIA, WASH., March 21, 1903.

House bill No. 313 appropriates two hundred dollars for suitably framing the photographic groups of the several legislative bodies, modestly including that of the eighth Legislature. This desire of the Legislature to perpetuate its fame, by having its "photographic group" framed and hung, at the public expense, in the capitol, is highly commendable. But, unfortunately, the appropriation flood gates were lifted so high, and so many other things permitted to run through, that this measure must fail. Solely upon the ground that our financial condition will not permit this just recognition of services rendered, I am reluctantly compelled to disapprove House bill No. 313.

HENRY McBRIDE, Governor.

House bill No. 313, session of 1903, appropriating $200 for framing photographic groups of the several Legislative bodies.

The bill was read and failed to pass over the Governor's veto by the following vote: Yeas 50, nays 35, absent or not voting 3.

Those voting nay were: Messrs. Bishop, Blackmore, Blaker, Bowers, Brown, Byerly, Crandall, Crane, Falconer, Fancher, Frostad, Fulton, Griffin, Hamilton, Harper, Lee A. OLYMPIA, WASH., March 20, 1903.

House bill No. 305 is hereby disapproved for the reason that it would increase, at the expense of the public, the cost of caring for those convicted of petty offenses. No one would derive any benefit from it except those boarding at a profit our criminals.

HENRY McBRIDE, Governor.

STATE OF WASHINGTON, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, OLYMPIA, WASH., MARCH 21, 1903.

House bill No. 380 makes provision for the payment of a bounty for sugar manufactured in this State. It has been claimed this is not an appropriation bill—that no payments could be made under its provisions for the next fiscal period, and that has been urged as a reason for its approval notwithstanding our financial condition. But this is a mistaken view. The bill is clearly an appropriation bill, carrying an appropriation of one hundred thousand dollars for the next two years. In this, the attorney general, to whom the bill has been submitted, agrees with me. While in sympathy with the purpose of the bill, I feel it would not be wise for the State at this time to incur an unnecessary additional indebtedness. For this reason House bill No. 380 is disapproved.

HENRY McBRIDE, Governor.

House bill No. 380, session of 1903, making provision for the payment of a bounty for sugar manufactured in this State. The bill was read and failed to pass over the Governor’s veto, by the following vote: Yeas 4, nays 87, absent or not voting 3.

House substitute bill No. 30, appropriates out of the general fund one hundred and ten thousand dollars—ten thousand dollars for the salary of a highway commissioner, to be appointed by the Governor, and the expenses incidental to that office, and one hundred thousand for roads in various parts of the State. No doubt some of these roads are badly needed. Could I do so, it would afford me great pleasure to approve the items for such roads. But the situation is this: The appropriations made by the eighth Legislature, out of the general fund, amount to something over two million eight hundred thousand dollars, while the estimated revenues for that fund during the next fiscal period, under the most liberal estimate, will not be more than two million two hundred thousand dollars. The appropriations made exceed the estimated revenues by at least six hundred thousand dollars. It would not be good business policy to permit the State to incur an additional indebtedness of that amount in the next two years; nor could there be any justification for such a course. Reasonable provision must be made for our State charitable, educational, penal and reformatory institutions. The running expenses of the several State departments and the expense of legislative sessions must be met. Money in the building of State roads, and in other directions, could be used to the advantage of the public, did our revenues permit. But, if the State is not to be burdened with a constantly increasing indebtedness, our expenses must be limited to our actual necessities, until such time as the Legislature, in its wisdom, sees fit to subject to taxation property now escaping taxation altogether, or assessed at only a small fractional part of its value. When the people of the State insist upon this being done, our revenues will be ample for all legitimate purposes. Solely upon the ground that our financial condition will not justify it, I am compelled to disapprove House substitute bill No. 30.

Henry McBride, Governor.
House bill No. 30, session of 1903, appropriating $110,000 for State highways.

State of Washington, Executive Department, Olympia, Wash., March 23, 1903.

House substitute bill No. 145, is entitled “An act providing for an election on the liquor question on petition of a majority of the legal voters; limiting the power of granting licenses in accordance with said election; prescribing penalty for violations, and removal of officers failing to comply with said provisions.”

Section 1 of this bill provides that, whenever a majority of the legal voters of any county shall petition the county commissioners for the privilege to determine by ballot whether the sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage be permitted in said county, said county commissioners shall order an election for the registration of public sentiment in the matter. This section also provides that said election shall be held not less than twenty nor more than thirty days from the filing of the petition; and that such election shall be advertised and otherwise arranged for and directed in like manner as provided by law for the general county election.

Section 8 declares that any officer, who fails to make provisions for the elections provided for in the bill, “shall be guilty of malfeasance in office, and upon the same being proved by due form, shall thereupon forfeit his office and be subject to such other penalties as the law may provide."

It is to be noted that the petition must be signed by a majority of the legal voters of the county. This is jurisdictional. An election held without this prerequisite would be invalid. Anyone adversely affected could, in a proper proceeding, have it so declared. What is meant by "legal voters"? and how are the county commissioners to determine whether a majority of such voters have signed the petition? Does the term "legal voters," as used in the bill, mean the same thing as "qualified voters"? If so, the county commissioners would have to order the taking of a census of the qualified voters in the county to determine whether the petition had been signed by the requisite number. There is no provision in the bill for the payment of the expenses necessarily connected with such a proceeding. If by "legal voters" is meant those voting at the last general election, the difficulties in the way of the commissioners determining whether the petition had been signed by a majority of such voters would be fully as great as in determining whether it had been signed by a majority of the "qualified voters" in the county. A list of the names of those voting at the last election would have to be obtained and the petition examined to discover whether it contained a majority of such names.

It may be said these difficulties could be overcome. Perhaps so; but what time have the commissioners for that purpose? By the terms of the bill they are required to order an election to be held not less than twenty nor more than thirty days from the filing of the petition with them. The bill also provides that "the said election shall be advertised and otherwise arranged for and directed in like manner as provided by law for the general county election." Under section 1335 of Ballinger's Code, it is the duty of the county auditor to give at least thirty days notice of any general election by posting or causing to be posted up, at each place of holding election in the county, a written or printed notice thereof. If, as this bill provides, the commissioners should order an election to be held not more than thirty days—the longest time it gives—from the filing of the petition, the auditor could not possibly comply with said section 1335 by giving "at least thirty days' notice by posting or causing to be posted up, at each place of holding election in the county, a written or printed notice thereof." Some time would necessarily be consumed in preparing and posting the notices in each precinct in the county. With the law, as it now is, requiring at least thirty days' notice of such an election, and this bill requiring the election to be held not more than thirty days from the filing of the petition, the county commissioners would not have a single moment for examining the petition and determining whether it is signed by a majority of the legal voters of the county. If they take time to determine this, they cannot comply with the provisions of the bill. If they call an election and the petition is not signed by a majority of the legal voters, the election is invalid, for the bill does not provide for any finding on the part of the commissioners that the petition is signed by a majority of the legal voters, or even, if such finding should be made, that it could be treated as conclusive, or even \textit{prima facie} proof of the verity of the finding. The bill does not give the commissioners time to determine, nor point out to them the method of determining, whether the petition has been signed by a majority of the legal voters of the county; nor does it give to any finding they may make upon that question, any force or effect. An election under this bill would involve heavy expense. If upon the presentation of a petition, the commissioners should order an election held, at the public expense, would anything be concluded? In any civil or criminal proceeding growing out of the bill, could not the question whether a majority of the legal voters of a county had signed the petition be inquired into? If so, an actual count of the legal voters of the county would then have to be had.

Again, the bill declares that "Any officer who shall fail to make provisions for the elections herein provided for, \textit{...} shall be guilty of malfeasance in office," and shall upon conviction forfeit his office. It declares officials "guilty of malfeasance in office" for not doing what it is impossible to do in the time given.

For this bill to serve the purpose intended, provisions would have to be read into it which it does not contain. Believing that, in its present state, it would be inoperative, and seeing no good reason why our statute books should be encumbered with it, House substitute bill No. 145 is disapproved.

House substitute bill No. 89 is entitled "An act creating a state tax commission, prescribing its duties and making an appropriation therefor."

It is claimed some of the provisions of this bill are copied from the Wisconsin statute; that the Wisconsin statute, from which parts of this bill were taken, has worked well, and, therefore, that this bill, if it should become a law, would accomplish good results in this State. For this argument to have force, it should appear that the bill contains the essential provisions of the Wisconsin statute. This bill does not contain the essential features of the Wisconsin statutes; and, if it should become a law, it would not supplement our other statutory provisions as the tax commission law of Wisconsin supplements the other statutory provisions of that State.

In Wisconsin the railroads pay a certain per cent. upon gross earnings; the same is true of telephone companies and of the owners of palace, sleeping and drawing-room cars. Telegraph companies pay on mileage, the amount of the payment per mile depending upon the number of wires used. The state board of assessment assess and levy the tax upon sleeping car companies, and also upon express companies. The state board of assessment also assess and levy the tax upon freight line companies and upon equipment companies. The state board of assessment consists of the commissioner of taxation, the first assistant commissioner of taxation and the second assistant commissioner of taxation, all appointed by the Governor. The complaint in this State is that railway, telegraph, telephone, express and sleeping car companies are either paying taxes upon but a small fractional part of the value of their property, or else are escaping taxation altogether. In Wisconsin the taxes to be paid by such companies are fixed by statute, or the tax commission is given the power to assess and levy taxes against the same. In this State the taxes of none of these are fixed by statutory provision, nor is the tax commission sought to be established by this bill given any power to assess or levy taxes upon or against the property of any such companies. Therefore, whatever argument may be drawn from the system in force in Wisconsin is against, rather than in favor of, the bill under consideration.

This bill would constitute the state board of equalization a tax commission, but it does not give that board any enlarged power for the purpose of seeing that the property of railways, or other corporations, now assessed too low, or escaping taxation, is assessed at its real value. In my message to the Legislature, under the head of "State board of equalization," I said:

"The state board of equalization, consisting of the secretary of state, the commissioner of public lands, and the state auditor, is powerless to afford relief in the matter of the proper assessment of railroad property. This board simply apportions among the several counties the amount of tax to be raised in the State for State purposes. It does not determine the rate of taxation, but the total sum to be paid by each county to the State for State purposes. Section 1717, 1 Bal., is as follows:

"'When the state board complete their equalization, the auditor of state shall transmit to each county auditor a transcript of the proceedings of the board, within ten days after said board adjourns, specifying the amount to be levied and collected on said assessment books for State purposes for each year, and the county auditor shall compute the required percentum on the valuation thereof as it stands after the same has been equalized by the county board of equalization, and shall extend such taxes in the proper columns of such books."

"'The valuation placed upon railroad property by county assessors, as equalized by the boards of county commissioners, is the basis upon which the tax levy is made for both State and county purposes. If railroads should be assessed in any particular county at, say, $5,280 per mile, the state board could not change that valuation even for State purposes. If it should be of the opinion that the road was worth, say, $30,000, instead of $5,280 per mile, it could take that fact in consid­eration only for the purpose of determining the total sum to be paid to the State by that particular county—the levy would have to be made by the county auditor upon the basis of $5,280 per mile. Should the state board, believing the property to be worth $30,000 per mile, instead of $5,280, by reason of that fact demand a larger sum from the county, the increased burden would not fall upon the railroad property, where of right it should fall, but, in the main, upon other property in the county assessed at a fair valuation. To do this would be inflicting a penalty upon the taxpayer whose property is properly assessed for the action of county officials in assessing the railroad property too low.

"Considering the powerful influence exerted by the railroads, and the peculiar methods resorted to by some of their agents, it would be expecting almost too much to look for any marked improvement under the law as it now stands. The state board should be a board of equalization in fact instead of in name only, as at present. Upon it should be conferred the power to change valuations as equalized by county boards; and such changes as it directs in this respect should be made upon the books of the several counties. In other words, the valuation of property as equalized by the state board, instead of the valuation as equalized by county boards, should be the basis upon which taxes are levied for both State and county purposes. The state board, then, instead of simply determining the sum total to be paid by each county for State purposes, as now, would determine the rate of taxation for State purposes. It should also have the power to place upon the assessment rolls any property omitted by county assessors. With these changes, the responsibility for property escaping taxation, or being assessed at but a small fraction of its real value, would rest upon the state board, instead of being divided, as now, among the assessors and the commissioners of the several counties."

Not the slightest attention was paid to the recommendations contained in the foregoing. A simple amendment of the law would have conferred upon the state board, without the expenditure of a single cent, the power to have the property of railway, telegraph, telephone, express and sleeping car companies assessed at a fair valuation. But this bill would authorize the said board to expend fifteen thousand dollars as a "smelling committee," without power to do anything—without even the poor privilege of recommending to county assessors or county boards of equalization the figure at which such property should be assessed. True, the bill, in a general way, attempts to give the state board of equalization, as a tax commission, general supervision of the system of taxation, but for fear that something may have crept in that would prove really effective, this remarkable provision was incorporated:

"ALL REPORTS OR OTHER INFORMATION GIVEN UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF THIS ACT, SHALL BE TREATED AS CONFIDENTIAL AND SHALL NOT BE OPEN TO PUBLIC INSPECTION OR IN ANY WAY COMMUNICATED BY THE TAX COMMISSION TO ANY PERSON, UNLESS SUCH PUBLICATION SHALL BE NECESSARY IN SOME CIVIL OR CRIMINAL PROCEEDING FOR THE PURPOSE OF ENFORCING THIS ACT."

In other words, the sum of fifteen thousand dollars is appropriated to enable the state board to satisfy its curiosity, if it has any. The result of its investigations must be carefully concealed from the public that pays the bill. This superabundance of caution on the part of the forces, outside of the Legislature, that consented to the passage of this bill, was wholly unnecessary. Without this provision the bill would have been toothless, and could not have forced them to bear their fair share of the public burden.

Could I see how this bill would be of the slightest benefit—how it would add to our revenues—or how it would subject the property of tax dodgers, corporate or otherwise, to a fair assessment, it would be cheerfully approved. The forces consenting to the passage of this bill defeated every measure that would have afforded any relief, and offered this as a soothing syrup to the public. The purpose of its passage was not to cure existing evils, but to postpone the inevitable day when a Legislature will be elected that will prove true to the people, and to party pledges—that will not be subservient to private interests—that will see to it that every one, corporation and individual alike, who enjoys the protection of our laws, shall bear a fair share of the public burden in the matter of taxation. The expenditure of fifteen thousand dollars under the provisions of this bill would be but little short of a criminal waste of public funds. House substitute bill No. 89 is disapproved.

House substitute bill No. 89, session of 1903, creating a tax commission, was read and failed to pass over the Governor's veto, by the following vote: Yeas 2, nays 69, absent or not voting 23.

Those voting yea were: Messrs. Hare and Roth—2.

Those absent or not voting were: Messrs. Bassett, Booth, Clarke, Coate, Crane, D. J. Davis, Dawes, Dyke, Eidemiller, Ericksen, Gleason, Hamilton, Houston, Levin, Reid, Reiter, Roberts, Theurer, Twichell, Ulsh, Van Slyke, Weatherford, and Weir—23.

STATE OF WASHINGTON, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, OLYMPIA, WASH., MARCH 20, 1903.

I cannot approve House bill No. 372. Its general object seems to be to facilitate, the taking or damaging of private property for corporate uses against the will of the owner thereof. It might well have been entitled "An act making easy the taking or damaging of private property for corporate uses against the will of the owner."
No one questions the existence of the right of eminent domain in the State, nor the propriety of the State delegating that right to private corporations engaged in the performance of public or quasi-public functions. But it seems to me that wise legislation lies along the line of guarding the interests of the private owner where property is to be taken or damaged against his will at a compensation to be fixed by others than himself. If, in these days of numberless corporations formed for purposes so varied, additional safeguards cannot be thrown around the private owner, at least such as now exist should not be removed.

If I correctly understand the provisions of this bill, it would permit a railroad or other like corporation to condemn a right-of-way through a whole county, or through or under a populous city, in one proceeding in which all the owners of property in the county, or of lots in the city, along the right-of-way, would be joined as respondents, the whole case to be tried before a single jury. In empanneling such a jury all the hundred, or thousand, respondents, as the case might be, would necessarily have to act as a unit, all of them possessing in common the right of only three peremptory challenges. In an action by the railroad company against any one of these respondents for the collection of a disputed debt he would have the right to excuse from the jury peremptorily any three jurors who might be objectionable to him, while in a proceeding, under this bill, to take or damage his home, his farm or his place of business—in which proceeding the railroad company might at its pleasure join a hundred others as respondents—he could not excuse peremptorily from the jury even his worst enemy, unless the other hundred respondents should be pleased to join with him in the challenge.

The bill is also objectionable from another standpoint. Under the jury act of 1901, in counties from the first to the seventh class, both inclusive, all juries are required to be drawn by chance, in open court and in the presence of the jury commissioners, from the names in the jury box of the county as previously placed there by said jury commissioners. Under this bill, if no jury be in attendance upon the court at the time fixed for calling a jury to assess the damages of property owners, the sheriff is authorized to select the jurors for the jury upon an open venire, thus placing in the hands of one official the power to make his own choice of jurymen for the panel. The jury act of 1901 was enacted with a view of correcting certain abuses which had grown around past methods of choosing jurors in the larger cities and towns. The reports reaching me are favorable to the act, and it seems clear that its provisions are a great improvement upon methods formerly in vogue. No attempt should be encouraged, whether in the interest of railway corporations or otherwise, to break down the barriers erected by the jury act of 1901 for the protection of the purity of the jury system.

For these reasons House bill No. 372 is disapproved.

HENRY McBRIDE, Governor.
House bill No. 372, session of 1903, relating to procedure in the appropriation of private property by corporations, was read and failed to pass over the Governor's veto, by the following vote:

Those absent or not voting were: Messrs. Booth, Dawes, Dyke, Eidemiller, Ericksen, Frostad, Hamilton, Houston, McCoy, McGregor, Moldstad, Rudene, Theurer, Todd, Twichell, Ulsh, Van Slyke, Vilas, Weatherford, and Weir—20.

State of Washington, Executive Department, Olympia, Wash., March 21, 1903.

House bill No. 122 makes provision for the payment of bounties for the killing of coyotes and wolves, and appropriates fifty thousand dollars for that purpose. For the reason that the appropriations for the next two years far exceeds estimated revenues, this bill is disapproved.

Henry McBride, Governor.

House bill No. 122, session of 1903, for the payment of bounties for the killing of coyotes and wolves.

STATE OF WASHINGTON, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
OLYMPIA, WASH., March 21, 1903.

HON. S. H. NICHOLS, Secretary of State:

Sir: I herewith transmit to you, for filing in your office, House omnibus appropriation bill No. 454, entitled “An act making appropriations for the maintenance of and construction of buildings and other improvements at, and other sundry expenses for the various state institutions and offices, and for the sundry civil expenses of the State government for the fiscal term beginning April 1, 1903, and ending March 31, 1905,” with my approval, except the following items:

Page 3, under the head of, For Fire Marshal's Office—
For per diem expenses for deputy fire marshals... $ 3,000.00
For buying records, stationery, postage and incidentals for office of state fire marshal 250.00
For traveling expenses of state fire marshal 250.00

Page 6, under head of, For Scientific Experimental Station—
Salary of superintendent at $2,000 per year... $4,000.00
Salary of assistant at $720 per year 1,440.00
General expenses at $1,000 per year 2,000.00
Laboratory, museum building, supplies, etc 7,100.00

Page 6, under head of, For Experiment Station at Puyallup—
Salaries and labor... $ 8,000.00

Page 8, under head of, For Superior Court—
Payment of salaries and expenses of superior judges pro tem... $ 1,200.00

Page 8, under head of, For Geological Survey—
Maintenance, at $5,000 per year... $10,000.00

Page 8—
For White Shield Home, Tacoma, $50 per month... $ 1,200.00

Page 9—
For state historical society... $ 5,000.00
For relief of Franklin county ...................................... $ 5,334.72
For relief of Spokane county ...................................... 5,337.06
For relief of Kittitas county ..................................... 3,765.98
For relief of Thurston county .................................... 1,541.69
For relief of Yakima county ....................................... 4,890.28

For Lake Crescent trout hatchery .................................. $ 3,000.00

The above specified items are disapproved for the reason that the condition of the State's finances is not such as to justify their approval.
No doubt many of these items, perhaps all of them, are meritorious, but with the appropriations from the general fund exceeding the estimated revenues at least six hundred thousand dollars, I feel it incumbent upon me not to approve any item not strictly necessary. The controlling reason for not approving the items for the relief of the counties of Franklin, Spokane, Kittitas, Thurston and Yakima, is this:
These claims, if legal, and binding upon the State, can be established in our courts. If not just claims, there is no good reason for their allowance. Without the slightest disrespect to the Legislature, it must be admitted that a court is the proper tribunal for determining such questions.

Respectfully yours,
HENRY McBRIDE, Governor.

Portions of House bill No. 454, session of 1903, containing items disapproved in the general appropriation bill, were read. On request of Mr. J. B. Lindsley, a separate vote was taken on the following items:

For relief of Franklin county ...................................... $5,334.72
For relief of Spokane county ...................................... 5,337.06
For relief of Kittitas county ..................................... 3,765.98
For relief of Thurston county .................................... 1,541.69
For relief of Yakima county ....................................... 4,890.28

The above items were passed notwithstanding the Governor's veto, by the following vote: Yeas 82, nays 0, absent or not voting 12.

Those voting yea were: Messrs. Allen, Ayer, Bartlett, Bassett, Benn, Bishop, Blackmore, Blaker, Bolinger, Bowers, Bradley, Byerly, Coate, Crandall, Crane, D. J. Davis, Geo. L.
Davis, Dawes, Dickson, Dobson, Doolittle, Dyke, Falconer,

SECOND READING OF BILLS.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
OLYMPIA, WASH., JANUARY 24, 1905.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, your Committee on Revenue and Taxation to whom was referred House bill No. 7, entitled "An act authorizing the assessment of lands, held or owned by the State of Washington, within the limits of incorpor­rated cities or towns, for local improvements," etc., have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it be amended as follows: By striking out all of section three (3) after the word "interest" in line 16 of the original bill (being line 12 of the printed bill) and adding in lieu thereof the following: "by making an appropriation therefor," and when so amended it do pass.

GEO. T. REID, Chairman.

The bill was read the second time by sections, the amendments recommended by the committee were adopted, and House bill No. 7 passed to third reading and was ordered engrossed.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
OLYMPIA, WASH., JANUARY 23, 1905.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, your Committee on Judiciary to whom was referred House bill No. 88, entitled "An act amending section 3034 of Pierce's Code, being section 6754 of Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington, relating to appeals to superior courts," have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it be amended as follows, and that when so amended it do pass:

Amend by striking out sections 3, 4, 5 and 6 of the bill, and substitute in lieu thereof the following sections numbered 3, 4, 5 and 6 respectively:

SECTION 3. The clerk of every city, town or village in the State of Washington, having an organized public fire department, paid, volunteer or partly each, shall on or before the 1st day of May, in each year, make and file with the auditor of this State a certificate stating the existence of such department, and how classified as to paid or volunteer or partly each; the date of its organization; the number, kind and condition of the engines, hook and ladder trucks and hose wagons or carts in actual use; the number of feet of serviceable fire hose; the source and system of water supply; the number and kind of organized fire companies with the active membership of each, whether or no the fire department maintains a duly accredited and incorporated relief association, together with such other facts as the auditor of this State may require.

SEC. 4. The blanks required by law to be furnished by the state auditor to fire insurance companies shall contain the names of the cities, towns and villages entitled to benefits under this act, and every fire insurance company doing business in this State shall include in its annual statement the amount of all premiums on policies issued by said company upon property within the corporate limits of each such city, town or village during the year ending on the preceding 1st day of May.

SEC. 5. Upon all premiums on policies issued by said company upon property within the corporate limits of each such city, town or village, shall be paid annually a tax of one per cent., said tax to be paid in the same manner and at the same time as other taxes upon the premiums of fire insurance companies are paid.

SEC. 6. The said state auditor, on the first day of September thereafter, shall issue and deliver to the treasurer of each city, town and village entitled to benefits under this act, his warrant upon the state treasurer for an amount equal to one per cent. of the premiums on fire insurance policies issued upon property in said city, town of village, which warrants shall be numbered consecutively and shall each specify the date of its issuance and to whom payable, and said warrants shall be paid by the state treasurer to said municipal treasurer.
on presentation thereof, and when so received by said city, town or village treasurer, these amounts shall be paid over to the treasurer of the authorized and incorporated fire department relief association and his receipt taken therefor. Should the majority of the firemen in said city, town or village not be members of such fire department relief association these amounts shall be held by said municipal treasurer as a firemen's relief fund, subject to the order, duly signed by its president and secretary, of the regular fire department organization of delegates from the various active fire companies, or of the fire company if

OLYMPIA, WASH., February 6, 1905.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred Senate bill
No. 19, entitled "An act to amend an act providing for and regulating the selection of jurors in the superior courts of the State," have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it be amended as follows, and that as so amended, it do pass:

Amend title by inserting after the word "section" in line 1, the words and figure "3 and section."

Amend by inserting immediately following the enacting clause a new section, as follows:

"Section 1. That section 3 of an act entitled 'An act providing for and regulating the selection of jurors in the superior courts of the State; and providing for the appointment of jury commissioners, prescribing their duties; qualifications and compensation, and providing for their removal from office; declaring certain violations of this act to be contempt of court and providing for the punishment thereof as such; and repealing all laws and parts of laws in conflict therewith,' approved March 16, 1901, being section 5945 of Pierce's Washington Code, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows: Section 3. In open court within twenty days in counties of the first class, and within ten days in counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth, and fifteenth classes, the commissioners shall select the names of all the qualified jurors in the county as far as the commissioners may be able to ascertain the same from the latest tax rolls and poll books of the county and deposit the same written on separate slips of paper of uniform size, shape and color in a box to be furnished by the clerk of the court for that purpose. In selecting and depositing such names the said commissioners shall in all things observe their oath and they shall not select the names of any person who is to them known to be interested in any cause pending in the court by which such commissioners were appointed. When such names have been selected and deposited in such box the jury commissioners shall deliver the box, locked, and the key thereof, to the clerk of the court by which the commissioners were appointed; and such clerk shall at all times keep such locked box and said key separately in some safe and convenient place in his office. A list of the names so chosen shall be spread at large upon the journal of the court and all names subsequently drawn from the box shall at the time of the drawing be compared and checked in open court with the list as so recorded."

Make section 1 read section 2.

CHAS. S. GLEASON, Chairman.

SECOND READING OF BILLS.

House bill No. 125, providing for elections upon a petition of 15 per cent. of the legal voters.
The following amendments by Mr. Gleason were adopted:

Amend House bill No. 125 by striking out all of section 1 and substituting therefor the following:

Section 1. Whenever, on or before the 15th day of April in any year, a petition therefor signed by twenty-five per cent of the qualified electors of any voting precinct shall be filed with the county auditor of the county in which such voting precinct is located, if such voting precinct be without the corporate limits of any incorporated city or town, or with the city or town clerk of any incorporated city or town if such voting precinct be within the limits of such city or town, the board of county commissioners of such county or the council of such city or town, as the case may be, shall order an election to be held within such voting precinct on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in the month of June following the filing of such petition, to determine by ballot whether or not any license for the sale of intoxicating liquors shall be granted in such voting precinct, and such order shall be entered upon the official records of such board of commissioners or council, as the case may be.

Provided, That after such an election has been held, no other election on such question shall be held in such precinct during the next ensuing year.

The county commissioners shall determine as to the sufficiency of the petition filed by the number of votes cast in said county for the office of county auditor at the last preceding general election, and the council of such city or town shall determine as to the sufficiency of said petition by the number of votes cast in said city or town for the office of mayor at the last preceding general municipal election.”

Amend section 2 by striking out all of said section and substituting therefor the following:

“Section 2. The county auditor in case such election be ordered in a precinct without the corporate limits of any incorporated city or town, and the municipal clerk in case such election is ordered in any precinct within the corporate limits of any incorporated city or town, shall furnish the ballots to be used at such elections, as provided in the general election law, which ballots shall be printed and contain the following words:

Shall licenses for the sale of intoxicating liquors in ............... precinct be granted? Yes ......................................................

Shall licenses for the sale of intoxicating liquors in ............... precinct be granted? No ......................................................

(giving the official name or number of such precinct), and the electors in order to vote must mark a cross in the square opposite one of the answers.”

Amend section 3 as follows:

Strike out the word “must” and insert in lieu thereof the word “shall” wherever it occurs in line 2, section 3, of the printed bill, being in lines 2 and 3, section 3, of the original bill.

Amend section 4 by striking out all of said section and substituting therefor the following:

“Section 4. Notice of the election shall be published once each week for four consecutive weeks prior to the date of holding such election, in the official newspaper of such county, city or town, as the case may be, if there be an official newspaper, and if not, then in such newspaper as the board of county commissioners or the city or town council, as the case may be, shall designate.

Strike out all of section 5 and insert in lieu thereof:
"Section 5. When such an election is held in any voting precinct and the majority of the votes cast are against the granting the licenses for sale of intoxicating liquors as provided in this act, no license shall be granted for the sale of intoxicating liquors within such voting precinct until at a subsequent election therein for that purpose, a majority of the votes shall be cast in favor of granting of licenses for the sale of intoxicating liquors within said precinct, and any licenses granted or attempted to be granted in violation of the provisions of this act shall be void."

Strike out sections 6 and 7 and make section 8 read section 6. Strike out all of section 8 (now section 6) after the word "properties," in line 3 of the original bill, being line 3 of the printed bill. Strike out all of section 9 and make section 10 read section 7. Strike out all of section 11 and section 12.

Amend the title by striking out and substituting therefor the following:

"An act providing for holding elections in any voting precinct to determine whether or not licenses for the sale of intoxicating liquors shall be granted; providing for the ordering of such elections upon the petition of twenty-five per cent of the qualified electors of any voting precinct and for the time and manner of holding the same; providing for the publication of notices of such elections and limiting the time within which the same question may again be submitted to vote in the same precinct, and limiting the power of granting licenses in accordance with the result of said elections."

On motion of Mr. Gleason House bill No. 125 was ordered engrossed as amended and ordered re-printed.

The speaker in open session signed Senate bill No. 124, House bills Nos. 106, 57, 16, 90, 214, 131 and 150.

SECOND READING OF BILLS.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
OLYMPIA, WASH., February 16, 1905.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, your Committee on Appropriations, to whom was referred House bill No. 132, entitled "An act for the relief of Henry Sommers," have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass as amended by the Committee on Claims and Auditing.

Geo. McCoy, Chairman.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, your Committee on Claims and Auditing, to whom was referred House bill No. 132, entitled "An act for the relief of Henry Sommers," have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it be amended, and when so amended it do pass.

Amend section 1, line 1, by striking out the words "two hundred and eight" and inserting the words "one hundred and sixty-five" in lieu thereof.

Amend section 2 by changing the period at the end of the section to a comma, and adding the following: "In full settlement of all claims against the State of Washington."

FRED. EIDEMILLER, Chairman.

The bill was read by sections, the amendments recommended by the committee were adopted, and House bill No. 132 was passed to third reading, and ordered engrossed.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred House bill No. 290, entitled "An act relating to the liability of a bank to a depositor in case of forgery," have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it be amended as follows, and that as so amended it do pass:

In line 2, strike out the word "three" and substitute therefor the word "six." In same line strike out the word "return" and substitute therefor the word "delivery."

In line 3 of section 1 of the original bill, being lines 2 and 3 of the printed bill, strike out the words "the voucher for such payment" and substitute therefor the words "such forged or raised check."

CHAS. S. GLEASON, Chairman.

The amendment by the committee changing the word "three" to "six," in line 2, was lost.

The bill was read by sections, the second amendment recommended by the committee was adopted, and House bill No. 290 was passed to third reading and ordered engrossed.
House substitute bill No. 64, an act giving to county commissioners the power to grant certain public utility franchises on county roads.

Mr. Kellogg offered the following amendment to be added to section 1:

"Provided further, That no franchise shall be granted for a period of longer than fifty years."

The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Fulton offered the following amendment to follow the above:

"Provided further, No exclusive franchise or privilege shall be granted."

The amendment was adopted.

The clerk was ordered to change the emergency clause to the regular form.

The bill was read the second time by sections and passed to third reading and ordered engrossed.

House of Representatives, Olympia, Wash., February 15, 1905.

Mr. Speaker:

We, your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred House bill No. 312, entitled "An act to amend 'An act relating to the adoption of legal heirs,'" have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it be amended as follows, and that as so amended it do pass:

In lines 7 and 8 of section 1 of the original bill, being lines 6 and 7 of section 1 of printed bill, strike out the words "not theirs by birth, or not the child of one of said married petitioners."

Chas. S. Gleason, Chairman.

The bill was read by sections, the amendments recommended by the committee were adopted, and House bill No. 312 was passed to third reading and ordered engrossed.

House bill No. 261, an act to define and punish the crime of arson.

The bill was read the second time by sections and passed to third reading.
STATE OF WASHINGTON 439

SPECIAL ORDER.

House substitute bill No. 6, to establish a railroad and transportation commission.

Mr. Houston moved to suspend the rules, and return House substitute bill No. 6 to second reading for amendment.

Roll call was demanded by Mr. Houston and others.

The motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas 28, nays 56, absent or not voting 10.

Those absent or not voting were: Messrs. Booth, Brown, Crandall, Lyons, Morrill, Poyns, Roth, Strobridge, Theurer, Weir—10.

Mr. Scott and others demanded a call of the House. The roll call showed all members present except Messrs. Booth, Brown, Crandall, Lyons, Morgan, Morrill, Poyns, Roth, Strobridge, Theurer and Weir.

Messrs. Brown, Roth, Strobridge and Theurer were excused.

On motion of Mr. Dickson the further call of the House was dispensed with.

The speaker decided that House substitute bill No. 6, being a special order, was properly before the House on third reading.

On motion of Mr. Kellogg, the rules were suspended, the second reading was considered the third, and House substitute bill No. 6 was placed on final passage and passed the House by the following vote: Yeas 73, nays 11, absent or not voting 10.

Mr. Sheets moved to reconsider the vote by which House substitute bill No. 6 was passed.

Mr. Hare moved to lay the motion on the table. The motion was carried.

The clerk was instructed to immediately transmit to the Senate House substitute bill No. 6.

The House took a recess till 2 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The speaker called the House to order at 2 p. m.

Roll call showed all members present except Messrs. Booth, Brown, Doolittle, Lyons, Morgan, Morrill, Poyns, Roth, Strobridge, Theurer and Weir.

Messrs. Booth, Doolittle and Poyns were excused.

Mr. Houston made the point of order that under Reed's Rules, under which the House is working, House substitute bill No. 6 was laid on the table, when the motion to reconsider the final vote on said bill was laid on the table.

The speaker held that the point was not well taken, and that a motion to lay on the table prior to the final vote carried the bill with it, but that a motion to lay on the table the motion to reconsider the final vote does not carry the bill with it.

Senate concurrent resolution No. 17, by Senator Baker:

WHEREAS, During the present session of the Legislature the hand of death has darkened the Senate chamber and removed from among us Hon. J. P. Sharp, who was at the time of his death a member of the Senate of the State of Washington, and

SECOND READING OF BILLS.

House bill No. 35, providing a method for the assessment and collection of an excise tax from express companies.

The bill was read the second time by sections and passed to third reading.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
OLYMPIA, WASH., February 20, 1905.

Mr. Speaker:

We, your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred House bill No. 336, entitled "An act relating to foreclosure of assessments for local improvements in cities of the third and fourth classes," have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it be amended as follows, and that as so amended, it do pass:

Strike out section 3.

Chas. S. Gleason, Chairman.

The bill was read by sections, the amendments recommended by the committee were adopted, and House bill No. 336 was passed to third reading.

On motion of Mr. Benn the rules were suspended, the second reading was considered the third and House bill No. 336 was placed on final passage and passed the House by the following vote: Yeas 69, nays 0, absent or not voting 25.

Those absent or not voting were: Messrs. Allen, Bishop, Booth, Bradley, Brown, Byerly, Crandall, Dickson, Doolittle, Fancher, Griffin, Hare, Levin, Maloney, McGregor, Morgan, Olsen, Poyns, Reiter, Rudio, Scott, Shultz, Stevenson, Strobridge, Weatherford—25.

There being no objections, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

The speaker in open session signed Senate bill No. 21.

Mr. Speaker:

We, your Committee on Fisheries, to whom was referred House bill No. 337, entitled "An act amending sections 6, 7, and 7 1/2 (same being sections 5278, 5279 and 5280 of Pierce's Washington Code), repealing section 5 (being section 5277 of Pierce's Washington Code), also amending an act to amend section 8 (being section 5281 of Pierce's Washington Code), and declaring an emergency," have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass as amended.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE.

SENATE CHAMBER,
OLYMPIA, WASH., February 28, 1905.

MR. SPEAKER:

The Senate has passed Senate substitute bill No. 249, a substitute for Senate bill No. 19, entitled "An act providing for and regulating the selection of jurors in the superior courts of the State," etc.

Also House bill No. 219, entitled "An act amending sections 2, 5, 7, 11 and 12 of an act entitled 'An act defining forcible entry, forcible detainer and unlawful detainer of real property, and providing remedies therefor,'" etc., with the following amendments:

In line 1; title of the printed bill, strike the figure "2" and substitute the figure "3" therefor. In the same line strike the figure "7."

Strike out section 1 of the printed bill and substitute the following:

"Section 1. That section 3 of an act entitled 'An act defining forcible entry, forcible detainer and unlawful detainer of real property, and providing remedies therefor by summary proceedings,' approved March 7, 1891, be amended to read as follows: Section 3. A tenant of real property for a term less than life is guilty of unlawful detainer, either: (1) When he holds over or continues in possession, in person or by sub-tenant, of the property or any part thereof after the expiration of the term for which it is let to him. In all cases where real property is leased for a specified term or period by express or implied contract, whether written or by parol, the tenancy shall be terminated without notice at the expiration of such specified term or period; or: (2) When he having leased real property for an indefinite time, with monthly or other periodic rent reserved, continues in possession thereof, in person or by sub-tenant, after the end of any such month or period, in cases where the landlord, more than twenty days prior to the end of such month or period, shall have served notice (in the manner in this act provided) requiring him to quit the premises at the expiration of such month or period. (3) When he continues in possession in person or by sub-tenant after a default in the payment of any rent, and after a notice in writing requiring in the alternative the payment of the rent or the surrender of the detained premises, served (in manner hereafter in this act provided) in behalf of the person entitled to the rent upon the person owing the same, shall have remained uncomplied with for the period of three days after service thereof. Such notice may be served at any time after the rent becomes due; or: (4) When he continues in possession in person or by sub-tenant after a neglect or failure to keep or perform any other condition or covenant of the lease or agreement under which the property is held, including any covenant not to assign or sub-let, than one for the payment of rent, and after notice in writing requiring in the alternative the performance of such condition or covenant or the surrender of the property, served (in the manner provided in this act) upon him, and if there be a sub-tenant in actual possession of the premises, also upon such sub-tenant, shall remain uncomplied with for ten days after service thereof. Within ten days after the service of such notice the tenant, or any sub-tenant in actual occupation of the premises, or any mortgagee of the term, or other person interested in its continuance, may perform such condition or covenant and thereby save the lease from such forfeiture; or: (5) When he commits or permits waste upon the demised premises, or when he sets up or carries on therein or thereon any unlawful business, or when he erects, suffers, permits or maintains on or about said premises any nuisance, and remains in possession after service (in manner in this act provided) of three days' notice to quit upon him. (6) Any person who shall, without the permission of the owner and without having any color of title thereto, enter upon the land of another, and who shall fail or refuse to remove therefrom after three days' notice, in writing, to be served in the manner provided in this act."

Strike out section 2 of the printed bill and substitute the following:

Section 2. That section 5 of said act be amended to read as follows:

Section 5. Any notice provided for in this act shall be served either:
(1) By delivering a copy personally to the person entitled thereto; or:
(2) If he be absent from the premises unlawfully held, by leaving there a copy, with some person of suitable age and discretion, and sending a copy through the mail addressed to the person entitled thereto at his place of residence; or:
(3) If the person to be notified be a tenant, or an unlawful holder of premises, and his place of residence is not known, or if a person of suitable age and discretion there cannot be found then by affixing a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the premises unlawfully held, and also delivering a copy to a person there residing, if such a person can be found, and also sending a copy through the mail addressed to the tenant, or unlawful occupant, at the place where the premises unlawfully held are situated. Service upon a sub-tenant may be made in the same manner: Provided, That in cases where the tenant, or unlawful occupant, shall be conducting a hotel, inn, lodging house, boarding house, or shall be renting rooms while still retaining control of the premises as a whole, that the guests, lodgers, boarders or persons renting such rooms shall not be considered as sub-tenants within the meaning of this act, but all such persons may be served by affixing a copy of the notice to be served on two conspicuous places upon the premises unlawfully held; and such persons shall not be necessary parties defendant in an action to recover possession of said premises. Service of any notice provided for in this act may be had upon a corporation by delivering a copy thereof to any officer, agent, or person having charge of the business of such corporation, at the premises unlawfully held, and in case no such officer, agent or person can be found upon such premises, then service may be had by affixing a copy of such notice in a conspicuous place upon said premises and by sending a copy through the mail addressed to such corporation at the place where said premises are situated. Proof of any service under this section may be made by the affidavit of the person making the same in like manner and with like effect as the proof of service of summons in civil actions."

And the above bills are herewith transmitted.

The Senate has concurred in House amendments to Senate bill No. 3, entitled "An act making a felony of the sale of milk in which formaldehyde is an ingredient."

SPECIAL ORDER.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
OLYMPIA, WASH., February 20, 1905.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, your Committee on Privileges and Elections, to whom was referred House bill No. 306, entitled "An act relating to elections, providing for the nomination of candidates for public office by direct vote, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof," have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass when amended as follows:

In section 1, line 1 of printed bill, line 2 of original bill, insert immediately after the word "nominated," the words "by political parties."

Add at the end of section 1 the words "United States Senators, Congressmen, or State officers."

In line 1 of section 2, strike out the words "state, district, and," and substitute therefor the words "members of the State legislature, judges of the Superior Court." In the same line, insert between the words "county" and "officers," the words "and precinct." In the same line, after the word "officers," strike out the words "and United States Senators."

Section 6, strike out the first sentence, being down to and including the word "district."

Section 8, line 6, being line 11 of the original bill, strike out, beginning with the word "candidates," down to the words "state legislators."

Insert after the words "state legislators" the words "judges of the superior court." Insert after the word "county" the word "precinct."

Section 12. Strike out section 12, and substitute therefor the following:

"The inspectors and judges of election shall be appointed and designated in the manner provided by said general election law, at least ten days prior to the primary election day, and they shall perform similar duties and have similar powers with reference to said primary election as like officers have with reference to the general election: Provided, That one of the judges may act and perform the duties of clerk of election: And provided further, That the members of each political party in any precinct entitled to participate in the primary election, may in open meeting held at least fifteen days before such primary election select a member of that party who is a duly qualified elector to act as judge of the primary election and certify the name of the judge so selected to the board of county commissioners or the city council, whose duty it is to appoint the election officers, and such person shall be appointed and designated as a judge or inspector for that precinct, and no fees shall be allowed or paid from the public funds for the services of any serving as a judge, inspector or clerk at a primary election, but nothing herein shall prevent the voluntary contribution of members of any political party to remunerate the services of primary election officers."

Section 21. Amend by adding thereto the following:

"The persons whose names are so placed in said certificate of nomination shall be and constitute the nominees of the several political parties in which they are candidates, and such names shall be printed upon the official ballot prepared for the ensuing election, in like manner as if such persons had been duly nominated by a party convention of delegates, with a certificate thereof filed as required by said general election law. No names of candidates of any political party which is required to make nominations under this act for officers to be voted for wholly within such county shall be placed upon the official election ballot unless such candidates have been chosen in accordance with this act; except in cases of a vacancy occasioned by the death, removal or resignation of any candidate so chosen or arising otherwise, and in such event, the campaign or party committee of the same political party, or if there be no such committee, then a convention of such party may fill such vacancy, the name of such new candidate to be certified under oath to the county auditor by the chairman and secretary of such commitee or convention."

Sec. 23. Amend by striking out all after the word "voter" in line 9.
Strike out all of section 26.

On page 7 of the printed bill, strike out that part of the form for ballot containing the list of offices and candidates, and substitute therefor the following form (being the right hand column of the form proposed on page 4 of House bill No. 265):

MESSAGE FROM STATE TREASURER.

STATE OF WASHINGTON, OFFICE OF STATE TREASURER,
OLYMPIA, WASH., March 7, 1905.

To the House of Representatives, Legislature of Washington:

Gentlemen: In compliance with your request for certain information regarding the state funds, I have the honor to report as follows:

First. The moneys in the hands of the state treasurer at the end of each quarter year during the last two years, were as follows:
March 31, 1903 ........................................... $1,364,195.84
June 30, 1903 ............................................. 1,497,179.83
September 30, 1903 ...................................... 969,613.29
December 31, 1903 ....................................... 745,428.01
March 31, 1904 ............................................. 1,080,438.84
June 30, 1904 ............................................. 1,152,607.09
September 30, 1904 ...................................... 1,014,057.06
December 31, 1904 ....................................... 764,819.40
March 7, 1905 ............................................. *703,376.87

Second There is nothing in my office to indicate where the funds have been deposited at any time in the past. At the present time the *This is the amount of cash in the hands of the state treasurer at the present time business of my office is done through the Capital National Bank of Olympia, which, under my direction, has placed deposits of state funds in institutions in Seattle, Tacoma, Bellingham, Spokane, Everett, and other places. The institutions receiving these deposits of state funds, through the Capital National Bank, pay no interest on same, either to the State, the Capital National Bank, or any person whatsoever. The amount now on deposit, as indicated, is $693,351.82.

In regard to this method of transacting the business of my office, I desire to state, that my very first consideration must be the absolute safety of the funds on hand. I have considered it infinitely safer to deposit the funds in the manner above indicated, than make the deposits in institutions, outside of Olympia, direct from the treasurer's office. The distribution of the funds over the State is made under my direction, and the Capital National Bank is responsible to the treasurer for their safety.

I desire to state further, that I am under no obligation, whatsoever, to favor any particular institution in this State in the matter of the deposit of the public funds.

Third. The only interest-bearing warrants now outstanding are the capitol building warrants, which amount, in the aggregate, to $515,841.60. These warrants do not constitute a debt against the State, but against the capitol lands, and are payable, after such lands shall have been sold.

Fourth. I do not know of any interest that has been paid to the State, by any institution, upon state funds deposited therein.

Fifth. Since assuming the duties of state treasurer, on January 11th, my time has been so thoroughly occupied with the routine work of my office, that I have not considered, at all, whether any portion of the state funds can be, by me, deposited in absolutely sound and responsible banking institutions, that would be willing to pay interest for the use of the same. I do not even know what the practice of the banks is, respecting the payment of interest, if any, on average daily balances, or on time deposits.

Yours very respectfully,
GEO. G. MILLS, State Treasurer.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE.

SENATE CHAMBER,
OLYMPIA, WASH., MARCH 7, 1905.

MR. SPEAKER:

The Senate has indefinitely postponed House bill No. 290, entitled "An act relating to the liability of a bank to a depositor in case of forgery."

Also House bill No. 258, providing for the formation of banking corporations and for the appointment of bank commissioner.

SECOND READING OF BILLS.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
OLYMPIA, WASH., MARCH 8, 1905.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred Senate bill No. 4, entitled "An act authorizing the incorporation of fire department relief associations," etc., have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it be amended as follows, and placed on the calendar:

Amend the title by striking out the word "appropriate," in line 4 of the printed bill, being line 5 of the engrossed bill, and substitute in lieu thereof the word "provide."

Strike the word "now" in the fourth line of the title in the printed bill, being the sixth line of the engrossed bill.

Strike the words "into the state treasury" in the fifth line, being the seventh line of the engrossed bill, and the words and figures "under section 5651 of Pierce's Code" in the fifth line of the title in the printed bill, being the eighth line of the engrossed bill.

By inserting after the word "reports" and before the word "as," in the sixth line of the title in the printed bill, being the seventh line of the engrossed bill, the words: "and to pay one per cent of their net receipts."

Strike the word "appropriation" in the seventh line of the title to the printed bill, being the eighth line of the engrossed bill, and insert in lieu thereof the word "fund."

Strike out section 4 and substitute in lieu thereof the following:

"Section 4. The insurance commissioner shall embody in his annual statement blank for fire insurance companies, corporations and associations a blank form, with the names of the cities and towns thereon entitled to benefits under this act, and require them to report, at the time of making their annual statement, the amount of premiums received by them and of the losses paid by them respectively during the year ending December 31st preceding, in each of the several cities and towns named in such blank. Every fire insurance company, corporation or association shall, as a condition precedent to doing business in this State, in addition to the amounts now required by law to be paid, pay to the city or town treasurer of each city or town having an incorporated fire department relief association as aforesaid, as ex-officio treasurer of such association, on or before the first day of March in each year after the year 1905, one per cent of the amount received in each city or town, less the amount paid to policy holders therein during the year ending December 31st preceding. Any insurance company, corporation or association, falling or refusing to render the statement or to pay any of the sums herein required to be paid, for a period of thirty days after the time specified, shall be liable to a fine of twenty-five dollars for each additional day of such delinquency; and the sums so to be paid, including the fines provided for herein, may be collected by distraint or recovered in an action to be instituted for that purpose. The several fire department relief associations may bring and maintain actions in the names of their respective boards of trustees against such delinquent fire insurance companies, corporations or associations, in any court of competent jurisdiction, for the recovery of the sums payable to them respectively under the provisions of this act. The commencement of any such action shall be certified to the insurance commissioner by the clerk of the court in which the same is pending, and the insurance commissioner shall thereupon revoke and annul the annual certificate of authority of such delinquent insurance company, corporation or association, until full payment of such sums and fines, should any be imposed, shall be made, and until he shall have been satisfied of the payment thereof.

Strike out all of section 5, and substitute in lieu thereof the following:

"Section 5. There is hereby set apart and awarded to the several fire department relief associations that shall be organized as provided in this act, as a relief and pension fund, and for no other purpose, the total amount that shall be paid into the treasuries of such associations respectively, pursuant to the provisions of this act; and no part thereof shall be expended for fees, salaries or compensation to any officer of any such association."

Strike out all of section 6, and substitute in lieu thereof the following:

"Section 6. Every fire department relief association organized under the provisions of this act shall, on or before the first day of December of each year after the year in which it shall be organized, file with the insurance commissioner of this State a verified report in writing setting forth: 1. The name and place of such association. 2. The number of members in good standing belonging thereto. 3. The amounts received and paid out since its last report, and the source or sources from which received and the purposes for which expended, and the amount of funds remaining on hand. 4. A statement as to whether the fire department in such city or town is a paid or volunteer department, and a general summary of the amount and value of the apparatus and equipment belonging thereto. The secretary of state shall, not less than ten nor more than thirty days before the time for filing such report, mail to each of such associations a written or printed notice calling for such report; and every association failing or refusing to file such report within ten days after the time herein prescribed shall be omitted by the insurance commissioner from the list of associations entitled to benefits for that year under this act, and the claim of such delinquent association to payment for such year shall be forfeited."

SECOND READING OF BILLS.

Senate bill No. 229, an act to prevent fraud upon travelers.

Mr. Maloney moved that Senate bill No. 229 be indefinitely postponed.

Mr. Roth moved the previous question.

The previous question was ordered and the motion to indefinitely postpone was lost.

Mr. Maloney offered the following amendment to Senate bill No. 229:

Amend section 7 by striking out all of said section and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Section 7. It shall be the duty of all railroad companies in this State, or receiver or trustee of any such railroad company to provide for the redemption from the holder thereof of any part or coupon, or the whole of any ticket or tickets, or evidences of transportation, which they or any of their agents, or the agent of any connecting railway line, may have sold for use on the railroad from the owner, receiver or trustee of which redemption is requested. Such redemption shall be upon the following terms, to-wit: If neither the ticket nor any part thereof has been used by the holder he shall receive the full amount paid therefor; and where the ticket has been used in part the holder thereof shall be entitled to receive the remainder of the price paid for the whole ticket after deducting therefrom the pro rata share per miles used of the amount paid. That is to say: that the full amount paid shall be reckoned upon the basis of the mileage for which the same was issued, and the unused portion thereof repaid by said railway company to the holder at such rate per mile. All tickets sought to be redeemed shall be presented for redemption to the railway company from which they have been purchased, or the receiver, trustee or any agent of said company authorized to sell tickets by said railway company, or in case of tickets over one or more lines to any agent of any connecting line upon which such ticket is valid, within a time not exceeding sixty days after the right to use such ticket has expired, by the limitation of time which may be stipulated therein, and shall upon presentation for redemption be redeemed without delay by any such railway company, or receiver thereof, or agent thereof."

And further amend said act by inserting a new section after section 7 and before section 8 reading as follows:

"Section 7½. All railway tickets issued, authorized, sold, or used within the State of Washington are hereby declared to be negotiable, subject only to the term and conditions of this act. Any person purchasing, owning or holding any railway ticket within the State of Washington may transfer the same by an endorsement in writing upon the same, and such transfer shall constitute ownership of said ticket in and to the person holding the same for the purpose of using the unexpired portion thereof; and for the purpose of redemption as in this act set forth; and such transfer may be made by the duly authorized attorney in fact of any such person purchasing, owning or holding any railway ticket."

That said act be further amended by substituting for section 8 of said act the following:

"Section 8. Any railway company, owner, receiver, trustee or operator thereof, or any agent thereof authorized to sell tickets who shall fail, neglect or refuse to redeem or accept any ticket as herein provided for, or any part or coupon thereof, shall be deemed guilty of an offense against the laws of the State of Washington, and upon conviction thereof be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars; or he may be imprisoned for a term of not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment."

That said act shall be further amended by adding thereto section 9.

"Section 9. If any railway company, the owner thereof, operator thereof, receiver or trustee thereof, or any authorized agent thereof, shall refuse to redeem any ticket or to allow the use of the same as in this act provided, then the person to whom the use thereof is refused, or from whom redemption thereof is refused, may maintain a civil action against the railway company or the owner, operator, receiver or trustee thereof for the amount and value of said ticket, and may recover in said action such damages as to the holder of said ticket have occur-
Amend the title of the act by adding thereto: "and damages to be recovered for such violation."

RULES OF THE HOUSE.

REGULAR SESSION, 1905.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

RULE 1. Business shall be disposed of in the following order:

First. Calling the roll and reading the journal of the preceding day.
Second. Presentation of petitions, memorials and remonstrances addressed to the Legislature.
Third. Propositions, motions and resolutions.
Fourth. Reports of standing committees.
Fifth. Reports of special committees.
Sixth. Messages from the Senate.
Seventh. Introduction and first reading of bills.
Eighth. Second reading of bills.
Ninth. Third reading of bills.
Tenth. Orders of the day.
Eleventh. Other business to be considered.
Twelfth. Announcement of committee meetings.

RULE 2. The Committee on Rules and Orders shall have charge of the daily calendar of the House, and direct the clerk the order in which the business of the House shall be transacted.

RULE 3. The speaker shall on each day announce to the House the business in order, agreeably to the preceding rule, and no business shall be taken up or considered until the class to which it belongs shall be declared in order, but messages from the Governor or Senate, or any communication from any state officer may be read at any time.

RULE 4. The unfinished business at which the house was engaged preceding adjournment shall not be taken up until reached in regular order, and shall then have precedence under such order from day to day until finally disposed of.

SPEAKER.

RULE 5. The speaker shall take the chair every day precisely at the hour to which the House shall have adjourned on the preceding day. He shall immediately call the members to order, and on the appearance of a majority of the members, shall cause the journal of the preceding day to be read.

RULE 6. The speaker shall preserve order and decorum, may speak to points or order in preference to other members, rising from his chair for that purpose, and shall decide questions of order subject to an appeal to the House.

RULE 7. The speaker shall rise to put a question, but may state it sitting.

RULE 8. The speaker shall have a general direction of the House of Representatives' room; he shall have the right to name any member to perform the duties of the chair, but such substitution shall not extend beyond an adjournment. He shall have the right to appoint all committees, subject to additional members to be named on motion.
RULE 9. In case of and disturbance or disorderly conduct in the lobby, the speaker (or chairman of the whole House) shall have the power to order the same to be cleared.

APPEAL FROM THE CHAIR.

RULE 10. The decision of the chair may be appealed from by any two members, on which appeal no member shall speak more than once, unless by leave of the House.

QUORUM.

RULE 11. Seven members with the speaker, or eight members in his absence, having chosen a speaker pro tempore, shall be authorized to call the House, and compel the attendance of absent members, making order for their fine and censure, and may adjourn. For the purpose of determining whether a quorum be present, the speaker, or chairman, shall count all members present, whether voting or not.

RULE 12. The time of meeting of the House shall be at 10 o'clock a.m., and the time of meeting after the noon recess shall be 2 o'clock p.m., unless otherwise ordered by the House.

RULE 13. Questions shall be put in this form, to-wit: “As many as are in favor of (as the question may be) say ‘aye’;” and after the affirmative vote is expressed, “As many as are opposed say ‘no.’” If the speaker is in doubt, or if division is called for, the House shall divide. Those in the affirmative on the question shall rise in their seats, and the number being announced, those in the negative shall rise.

RULE 14. When any member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the House, he shall rise from his seat and respectfully address himself to Mr. Speaker, and shall confine himself to the question under debate, and avoid personalities; and no member shall impeach the motive of any member’s vote or argument.

RULE 15. If any member in speaking, or otherwise, transgress the rules of the House, the speaker shall, or any member may, call him to order, in which case the member so called to order shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain; and the House shall, if appealed to, decide the case without debate; if there be no appeal, the decision of the chair shall be submitted to. If the decision be in favor of the member called to order, he shall be at liberty to proceed: if otherwise, and the case require it, he shall be liable to the censure of the House.

RULE 16. If any member be called to order for words spoken in debate, the person calling him to order shall repeat the words excepted to and they shall be taken down in writing at the clerk’s table and no member shall be held to answer, or be subject to the censure of the House for words spoken in debate if any other member has spoken, or other business has intervened after the words are spoken, and before exception to them shall have been taken.

RULE 17. When two or more members rise at once, the speaker shall name who is first to speak.

RULE 18. No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the House, except the chairman of the committee, or the mover of the question, who may close the debate: Provided, That no member shall speak longer than fifteen minutes without unanimous consent.

RULE 19. When a motion is made and seconded it shall be stated by the speaker, or, being in writing, it shall be handed to the chair and read aloud before debate.

RULE 20. Every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the speaker or a member desire it.
RULE 21. After a motion is stated by the speaker, or bill, memorial, resolution, petition or remonstrance is read by the clerk, it shall be deemed to be in possession of the House, but may be withdrawn at any time by consent of the House, before decision or amendment.

RULE 22. When a question is under debate, no motions shall be received but the following, in the rank named:

First Rank—Question of consideration.
Second Rank—To lay on the table.
Third Rank—To postpone to a day certain.
   To commit or recommit.
   To postpone indefinitely.
   For the previous question.
Fourth Rank—To amend.

RULE 23. When a reading of a paper is called for it shall be decided by a vote of the House.

RULE 24. All questions, whether in committee or in the House, shall be propounded in the order in which they are named, except that in filing blanks the largest sum and the longest time shall be first put.

INDEFINITE POSTPONEMENT.

RULE 25. No motion to postpone indefinitely, having been decided in the negative, shall again be allowed on the same day, and at the same stage of the bill or proposition. When a question is postponed indefinitely, the same shall not be acted upon again during the session.

RULE 26. When a motion has once been made and carried in the affirmative or negative, it shall be in order for any member of the prevailing side to move for reconsideration thereof, on the same day or the next working day thereafter.

PREVIOUS QUESTION AND RECONSIDERATION.

RULE 27. The previous question shall be put in this form: “Mr. demands the previous question. As many as are in favor of ordering the previous question will say ‘aye’;” as many as are opposed will say ‘no.’” This question is not debatable and can not be amended. The results of the motion are as follows: If determined in the negative, the consideration goes on as if the motion had never been made; if decided in the affirmative, then the presiding officer at once and without debate, proceeds to put, first, the amendments pending and then the main question as amended. If an adjournment is had after the previous question is ordered the subject comes up the first thing after the reading of the Journal the next day, and the previous question still operates, making the main question privileged over all other business, whether new or unfinished. It shall only be admitted when demanded by two-thirds of the members present, and until it is decided shall preclude all amendments and further debate on the main question. On motion for the previous question, and prior to the seconding of the same, a call of the House shall be in order, but after a majority shall have seconded such motion, no call shall be in order prior to the decision of the main question.

DIVISION OF QUESTIONS.

RULE 28. A division cannot be demanded as a right by any member. It must be made pursuant to a motion stating precisely the division asked for, which motion can be amended. The presiding officer can decide, subject to an appeal to the House, that the division proposed cannot be made. Otherwise it is submitted to the House and decided by it.
AMENDMENTS.

RULE 29. No motion or proposition on a subject shall be admitted under color of amendment, if different from that under consideration. No bill or resolution shall at any time be amended by annexing thereto or incorporating any bill or resolution pending before the House.

RULE 30. No amendment shall be received to a bill on its third reading, but it may be referred or recommitted for the purpose of amendment. A bill may be recommitted at any time before its passage.

PETITIONS, MEMORIALS AND RESOLUTIONS.

RULE 31. Petitions, memorials and other papers addressed to the House may be presented by the speaker or any member, and shall not be debated or decided on the day of their being first read unless the House shall direct otherwise, but they may be referred to the committee having the subject-matter thereof under consideration, or may lie on the table, to be taken up in the order in which they are presented.

BILLS, JOINT AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS.

RULE 32. Any member desiring to introduce a bill shall first obtain the floor and state that he desires to introduce a bill, and if entitled to do so, the bill shall be sent to the clerk's desk to be numbered, and all bills shall be read in the order in which they are numbered by the clerk, but no bill shall be read a first time until every member present entitled to introduce a bill has had an opportunity to do so unless otherwise ordered by the House.

RULE 33. All bills introduced in this House, which are intended to amend existing statutes, shall have the words which are amendatory to such existing statute underlined or underscored; and such matter as can not be conveniently underscored shall be marked "new matter" by printed words in the margin, so that in the printed bills which are presented for the perusal of the members, such new or amendatory matter shall be easily discerned.

RULE 34. Every bill shall be read on three several days unless the House shall deem it expedient to suspend this rule. The first reading shall be by title only, unless a majority of the members present demand a reading in full. All bills shall be printed unless otherwise ordered by the House, and be referred to committee after first reading. Bills shall pass to second reading when reported back by the committee, unless there shall be a unanimous report against a bill, in which case the vote shall be immediately called for upon the indefinite postponement of the bill.

34a. Each amendment made by a committee to a bill shall be in writing on a separate slip of paper, and shall be securely attached to the original bill by a paper fastener. The report of the committee shall also contain a statement of all amendments agreed to by the committee. Any committee report on a bill not conforming with this rule shall be returned by the chief clerk of the House to the committee for a compliance with this rule without further order by the House. Upon second reading, bills shall be read section by section in full, and be subject to amendment. No amendment shall be considered by the House until it shall have been sent to the desk in writing and have been read by the clerk. All amendments adopted on second reading shall be securely attached to the original bill by a paper fastener.

34b. Amendments rejected by the House shall be passed to the journal clerk, and the journal shall show the disposition of such amendments. When no further amendments shall be offered, the speaker shall declare that the bill has passed its second reading. The bill, with the amendments, if there be any attached thereto, shall be sent to the committee on engrossed bills, which committee shall see that all amendments are properly engrossed upon the original bill, and the bill returned to the chief clerk before the opening of the House on the next succeeding day, and the bill shall then come up in the regular order for a third reading. Bills on third reading shall be read in full by sections. The only question on the third reading of a bill shall be upon its passage, and no amendment shall be entertained. No bill introduced "by request" shall be printed until after the committee to which said bill has been referred has acted and reported upon the same.

RULE 35. A bill may be advanced on the calendar by a vote of three-fifths of all members present voting in the affirmative; and the question shall be, "Shall the bill be advanced on the calendar."

RULE 36. All joint or concurrent resolutions shall be acted upon the same as bills, unless otherwise ordered by a majority of the House.

RULE 37. When a bill shall pass, it shall be certified to by the clerk, together with the vote upon final passage, noting the day of its passage at the foot thereof.

RULE 38. On the final passage of every bill the ayes and noes shall be taken and entered upon the journal.

RULE 39. No engrossed bill, memorial or joint resolution shall be sent to the Senate until one day after its passage without special instructions by the House. That in the event of committees having a number of bills on the same subject, of which none can be agreed upon by the committee, and it is their wish to present a different bill upon the same subject, such bill must be reported to the House and accepted before any of the other bills can be recommended for indefinite postponement.

AYES AND NOES.

RULE 40. Upon the passage of any question the vote shall be taken by ayes and noes, and shall be entered upon the journal of the House, when demanded by one-sixth of the members present. The speaker shall vote when the ayes and noes are called for, his name being called last, and in case of an equal division the question shall be lost.

VOTING.

RULE 41. No member shall vote on any question in the event of which he is immediately or particularly interested, or in any case when he was not within the bar of the House, before the last name was called, unless by unanimous consent; and when any member shall ask leave to vote, the speaker shall propound to him the question, "Were you within the bar when the last name was called?"

RULE 42. Upon a division and count of the House on any question, no member without the bar shall be counted.

DUTIES OF MEMBERS.

RULE 43. While the speaker is putting the question no member shall walk across or out of the House; nor when a member is speaking shall any member entertain private discussion or pass between him and the chair.

RULE 44. Every member who shall be in the House when the question was put shall give his vote unless the House for special reasons shall excuse him. All motions to excuse a member shall be made before the House divides or before the call of ayes and noes is commenced; and any member requesting to be excused from voting may make a brief and verbal statement of the reasons for making such request, and the question shall then be taken without further debate.

RULE 45. No member shall absent himself from the service of the House unless he shall have leave or be sick and unable to attend.

RULE 46. No person shall be allowed to smoke in the hall or lobby thereof during the sessions or recess.
COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE HOUSE.

RULE 47. In forming a committee of the whole House the speaker having the chair shall call upon some member to preside, who shall be addressed as "Mr. Chairman."

RULE 48. Upon a bill committed to a committee of the whole House, the bill shall be read and debated by clauses, leaving the preamble to be last considered. The body of the bill shall not be defaced or interlined, but all amendments (noting the page and line) shall be duly entered by the clerk on a separate paper, as the same shall be agreed to by the committee and so reported to the House. After a report, the bill shall again be subject to be debated and amended by clauses before a question to engross it be taken.

RULE 49. The rules of proceedings in the House shall be observed in a committee of the whole House so far as they may be applicable, but no member shall be recognized a second time until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

VETOES.

RULE 50. The veto message of the Governor accompanying any bill passed by the House of Representatives other than as provided in joint rule No. 9, shall be immediately read, together with the bill vetoed. It shall then be in order to proceed to the reconsideration of the bill, or to postpone its consideration to a day certain. A veto message and a bill, or the message alone, may be referred, and the bill may be laid on the table. The main question in the consideration of a vetoed bill is, "Shall the bill pass notwithstanding the veto of the Governor?" If two-thirds of the members present vote aye, the bill shall be sent to the Senate, together with the message of the Governor, for its action. The merits of the bill may be debated before the vote is taken, but the vote on a vetoed bill cannot be reconsidered.

RULE 51. The standing committees to be appointed by the speaker shall consist of not less than five nor more than seventeen members, as follows:

1. Agriculture.
2. Agricultural College and School of Science.
3. Appropriations.
4. Banks and Banking.
5. Claims and Auditing.
6. Commerce and Manufacture.
7. Congressional Apportionment.
8. Constitutional Revision.
9. Compensation and Fees for State and County Officers.
10. Corporations other than Municipal and Railroads.
11. Counties and County Boundaries.
13. Dikes, Drains and Drainage.
14. Education.
15. Engrossed Bills.
17. Federal Relations and Immigration.
18. Fisheries.
19. Game and Game Fish.
20. Horticulture and Forestry.
22. Hospitals for the Insane.
24. Internal Improvements and Indian Affairs.
25. Insurance.
26. Irrigation and Arid Lands.
27. Judiciary.
29. Medicine, Surgery, Dentistry and Hygiene.
30. Memorials, Resolutions and Petitions.
31. Mileage and Contingent Expenses.
32. Military Affairs and Soldiers' Home.
33. Mines and Mining.
34. Miscellaneous Matters.
35. Municipal Corporations of the First Class.
36. Municipal Corporations other than First Class.
37. Printing and Supplies.
38. Privileges and Elections.
40. Revenue and Taxation.
41. Railroads.
42. Roads and Bridges.
43. Rules and Orders.
45. State Library.
46. State Normal Schools.
47. State, School and Granted Lands.
48. State Penitentiary.
49. State School for Defective Youth and Reform School.
50. State University.
51. Tide Lands.
52. Water, and Water Rights other than Irrigation.

RULE 52. No committee shall sit during the sitting of the House without special leave; and all its writs, warrants and subpoenas issued by order of the House shall be under the hand and seal of the speaker, attested by the clerk.

RULE 53. It shall be in order for the Committees on Enrolled Bills and Engrossed Bills to report at any time, if no motion is before the House. These committees may report without notice to the House by handing reports to chief clerk.

RULE 54. Standing committees shall report all bills back to the House within ten days from the time of reference, unless further time be granted by the House.

CALL OF THE HOUSE.

RULE 55. Ten members may demand a call of the House at any time before the House has divided or the voting has commenced by ayes and noes, and thereupon the doors shall be closed until further proceedings upon the call having been dispensed with, which shall not be done until the absentees have been sent for, if requested by any member; but arrests of members for absence shall not be made unless ordered by a majority of the members present.

RULE 56. The use of the chamber of the House of Representatives shall not be granted for any purpose without unanimous consent, except for caucuses of the members of the Legislature.

RULE 57. The following classes of persons shall be entitled to admission to the floor of the House during the session thereof, viz.:
1. The Governor and Lieutenant governor.
2. The members of the Senate.
3. The state officers.
4. Persons in the exercise of official duty directly connected with the business of the House.
5. Reporters of the press as provided in the next rule.
6. The following persons, upon the presentation of a card of admission to be issued by the speaker.

Deputy state officers.

No other person shall be admitted to the floor during the session, except upon a card of admission to be issued by the speaker.
RULE 58. The speaker shall designate the persons who shall act as reporters for the public press. Such reporters so appointed shall be entitled to such seats as the speaker shall designate, and shall have the right to pass to and fro from such seats in entering or leaving the chamber of the House of Representatives.

RULE 59. The gallery over the speaker's desk is reserved for the use of the ladies and families of the Governor, lieutenant governor, state officers and members of the Legislature.

STANDING RULES.

RULE 60. No standing rule or order of the House shall be rescinded or changed without one day's notice being given of the motion therefor, nor shall any rule be suspended except by a vote of at least two-thirds of the members present. Neither the standing rules nor the order of business established by the House shall be postponed, changed or rescinded except by a vote of at least two-thirds of the members present.

RULE 61. The rules of parliamentary practice comprised in Reed's parliamentary rules shall govern in all cases in which they are not inconsistent with the standing rules and orders of the House.

DUTIES OF SUBORDINATE OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES.

RULE 62. The chief clerk of the House shall see that the journal is properly kept, and have general supervision over all the clerks, excepting committee clerks while their services are required by standing committees.

RULE 63. The assistant chief clerk, reading clerk, calendar clerk, docket clerk, journal clerk and desk clerk shall perform the duties of their respective positions under the direction of the chief clerk, and shall also perform such other duties as he may direct.

RULE 64. The enrolling clerk shall be under the supervision of the committee on enrolled bills when needed.

RULE 65. The engrossing clerks shall be under the supervision of the committee on engrossed bills when needed.

RULE 66. The sergeant-at-arms shall attend the House during the sittings, announce all messages, preserve order, execute all processes issued by authority of the House and directed to him by the speaker. He shall see that the hall of the House and adjoining rooms are kept clean, well heated and ventilated and that the furniture is kept in good order and repair. He shall purchase supplies as may be ordered by the House. He shall also have general supervision of the work of the assistant sergeant-at-arms, the doorkkeepers, postmasters, bill clerks, watchmen, messengers, pages and janitors, and shall see that they properly perform the duties of their respective positions and such other duties as he shall assign them.

RULE 67. All clerks, excepting when acting under assignment, shall report to the chief clerk or assistant for duty one hour before the opening of each daily session. All other employes of the House, excepting the watchmen, shall report for duty to the sergeant-at-arms daily at 9 a.m.

RULE 68. Any officer or employe of the House who from neglect or refusal to perform any duty assigned him, or shall be found in a state of intoxication, shall, when reported to the House in writing by the chief clerk, sergeant-at-arms, or the chairman of any standing committee, be subject to a reprimand, and for a second offense be removed by a majority vote of the House.
