IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, and affixed the Seal of the State of Washington at Olympia, this fourteenth day of January, A.D., 1957.

EARL COE,
Secretary of State.

United States of America,
State of Washington, Department of State.

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come:

I, EARL COE, Secretary of State of the State of Washington and custodian of the Seal of said State do hereby certify that according to the records now on file in my office Z. A. Vane has been appointed to the position of State Representative representing the 29th Legislative District filling the vacancy caused by the resignation of John G. McCutcheon.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed hereto the Seal of the State of Washington. Done at the Capitol, at Olympia this fourteenth day of January, A.D., 1957.

EARL COE,
Secretary of State.

(The Seal of the State of Washington—1889)

The roll was called and all members were present except Mr. McCormack (Mike), who was excused.

The Honorable Hugh J. Rosellini, Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of Washington, administered the oath of office to all members of the House, except Mr. McCormack (Mike).

RESOLUTION

Resolution by Mr. Mardesich:

Be It Resolved, That the rules which governed the House of Representatives during the Thirty-fourth Legislative Session of 1955 be adopted by this House as temporary rules until permanent rules be adopted, and that the Committee on Rules and Order be authorized and directed to formulate the permanent rules of the House for the present session, and that the Committee on Rules and Order act jointly with a like committee from the Senate to formulate joint rules.

On motion of Mr. Mardesich, the resolution was adopted.

Nominations for Speaker of the House were declared to be in order.

The Chief Clerk recognized Mr. Mardesich.
Mr. Mardesich.

"Mr. Chief Clerk, Justice Rosellini, Members of the House of Representatives, ladies and gentlemen:

"I think that we can all say quite safely that we are aware of the many problems which face us as we open this session of the legislature here today. Those of us who have been here before realize how serious the problems have become, how large they have become, and what it means to the State. Those of you who are new will become more and more aware, as the session progresses, how great these problems are. You will find that there is no easy solution to these problems.

"If you have been reading your papers, you are aware that the schools in this state are seeking one hundred million dollars in additional revenue to operate the schools for the next two years. You are also aware that the Department of Institutions has asked for an additional fifty million dollars of revenue for the coming biennium. You will also note that the schools of higher education are asking in excess of twenty million dollars revenue for the coming biennium. It also comes to my attention that there will be a deficiency appropriation necessary to cover unauthorized expenditures of the last biennium, amounting to possibly seventeen million dollars.

"We also know that all departments and all branches of government are seeking additional funds which will total, in all, in the neighborhood of two hundred million dollars additional revenue.

"Those of you who have been here in the past know that it is no easy matter to raise this money, and the new ones will soon learn that. There is extreme pressure from all groups not to raise taxes; and there is extreme pressure from the branches of state government for these additional funds.

"These are not the only problems. There are problems affecting the lives of each and every one of us; laws to be passed; the aged must be taken care of; our dependent children—all facets of state government have problems that must be solved.

"In times such as these, it is common that a leader arises to meet the need that faces the people of the state. The man whose name I am going to mention, I believe is more fully qualified to meet the needs of these times than any one of us here today. He has displayed in his community an interest that indicates a purpose and devotion to public service, and he has indicated that he has no respect for his own time, or his own energy, or his own well being. He comes to us with the experience that is necessary to fill the position. He has been elected to the House of Representatives eight times. He is serving as the president of the Legislative Council. Those of us who have been here in the past have known him as the majority floor leader in 1951 and 1953. We know that he became Speaker in 1955, and we know that in 1957 he will become the only Speaker in twenty-four years to be nominated by his party without opposition.

"Suffice to say that I sincerely hope that you will see it in your heart to vote for the sincerity with which this man will lead us. I now place in nomination for Speaker of the House of Representatives the name of John L. O'Brien."

The Chief Clerk recognized Mrs. Hansen.

Mrs. Hansen:

"Mr. Mardesich, Justice Rosellini, Members of the House of Representatives, ladies and gentlemen:

"It is a fine privilege and a great honor to again, this morning, for the second time in this legislature, rise to second the nomination of my friend and my very distinguished colleague, John O'Brien.

"Mr. Mardesich has pointed out many things about Mr. O'Brien's service. I have known him as a friend of legislators, as an able counselor, as a devoted public servant. He is also more than any of these things. He is a man of high principle and great integrity. May I also say, as a presiding officer he has extreme tact, good judgment, wisdom, and above all a keen sense of humor.

"Then, because these are very grave times, times of grave responsibility resting upon the shoulders of the members of the House of Representatives, times when the people of the state of Washington are waiting for critical answers to many of these problems, we know, because we have served with John O'Brien, that he will lead us in making these answers to the problems of our beloved state. He is a man who has a deep sense of social justice and who has the fullest respect for the dignity of the state.

"I may say that words alone fail to tell you all the things that John O'Brien has done for our state. He has been named a very distinguished gentleman, the Democrat..."
of the Year. He is going to be our distinguished Speaker of the House of Representatives of this session; and, it is a great privilege to second the nomination of my colleague, my friend and fellow member, John O'Brien."

The Chief Clerk recognized Mr. Beierlein.

Mr. Beierlein:

"Mr. Chief Clerk, Honorable Hugh Rosellini, State Supreme Court Justice; and ladies and gentlemen of the House:

"It is indeed a privilege and a great honor to second the nomination of this great name we have placed in nomination here today. John L. O'Brien is well qualified to lead us through this critical session ahead of us.

"The two previous speakers have already indicated the tremendous problems with which this Thirty-fifth Session of the Legislature is confronted. In my eighteen years here as a member of the House, I have seen many problems. They are all grave. But I think this session will face the most critical problems and the most difficult problems to solve. With a man to lead us such as John L. O'Brien, I am confident that we members here will be able to perform our duties here as expeditiously and as judiciously as could be expected.

"John L. O'Brien, in my opinion, is a statesman with all that the word implies. I have watched him, and have been here with him on the floor, as a member of the legislature, and have watched him perform on the rostrum as our leader and Speaker of the 1955 session.

"I commend him greatly, and I am certainly happy to have the opportunity this morning to second his nomination for Speaker."

The Chief Clerk recognized Mr. Sandison.

Mr. Sandison:

"Mr. Chief Clerk, Justice Rosellini, ladies and gentlemen:

"I, too, arise to second the nomination of John L. O'Brien for Speaker of the House of Representatives. In a group of men where there are many leaders, and in a group of men—and, of course, ladies, where there are many hard workers, there is always one who stands out because of his leadership and his hard work. I think our candidate is that man. I think he has probably done more, particularly in the last two years in his work in the Legislative Council, to call the attention of political scientists and, of course, people everywhere, to the fine work and the hard work that the legislature is doing than any other person; and, I also think he has done a good job in pointing out just how important the Washington State Legislature is to the people of Washington. Sometimes they feel that the National Congress is the one who takes care of and sets their destinies. But I do think we could probably paraphrase the words of Lincoln's Gettysburg address: 'What we say here today will not be remembered,' but the actions we take during the 1957 Legislature will certainly be served under and paid for by the people of the state of Washington.

"I think it is incumbent upon us to elect someone who will help us attain stature, someone who has shown fairness and equanimity in the past, so we can go on through to further and greater legislation in the future."

The Chief Clerk recognized Mr. Edwards.

Mr. Edwards:

"Mr. Chairman and my fellow legislators:

"It is once in a lifetime that a person has the opportunity to second the nomination of such a wonderful, outstanding man for Speaker of this House. I have been coming down here now for twenty-four years. I have seen Speakers come and I have seen them go. Ladies and gentlemen, this state of ours has been fortunate in having some outstanding men as Speakers of the House of Representatives.

"Let us go back a few years. In 1933 we had one of the greatest Speakers that this House has ever had, George Yantis. Again in 1945 George Yantis was our Speaker.

"Another man of ability was Charlie Hodde, an expert on taxation; and there were many more men of quality. But the man who is our choice today has proven during the last two years that he has all those qualities of the Speakers before him; and, ladies and gentlemen, it is my sincere belief that the next two years he will surpass all those men we have had before.

"Ladies and gentlemen, it gives me great pleasure at this time to second the nomination of your next Speaker, John L. O'Brien."
The Chief Clerk recognized Mr. Nicholson.

Mr. Nicholson:

"Mr. Chief Clerk, Justice Rosellini, ladies and gentlemen:

"As one of a number of freshmen legislators here today, I would like, also, to second the nomination of Mr. O'Brien. The problems facing this legislature have been described. Certainly the problems facing the young people of the state of Washington are just as compelling as those facing the rest of our legislature. We are facing a rising tide of juvenile delinquency. Today, young people are being asked to serve in all parts of the world, yet only two of our states have the eighteen year vote.

"Now, without going into the issues, I would like to say that I believe John O'Brien represents to us a progressive, fresh outlook. He has the experience to go with it; and it is with pleasure that I enthusiastically second his nomination."

The Chief Clerk recognized Mr. Mast.

Mr. Mast:

"Mr. Chief Clerk, Justice Rosellini, and Members of the House:

"As we have been meeting here today on common grounds with our thoughts and actions melted together in the interest of good government, I have been endeavoring to organize my thoughts and find words that will adequately express the excellent qualifications of Newman Clark for Speaker, and of his party's great admiration of him. However, I have come to the conclusion that a perfunctoriness of words will not fully or adequately express his fine qualifications and the esteem in which we hold him.

"You know, I don't believe a man can live in the same house with another and not know his weaknesses, his inhibitions, and his true character. I have been associated with Zeke, as we affectionately know him, in various civic and social organizations in the great City of Seattle. I have also lived in the same house with Zeke, and I can honestly say that Zeke Clark has never displayed any weaknesses or any major inhibitions.

"On the other hand, he possesses all the fine attributes that make for a noble character and a praiseworthy and exemplary man. He has served continuously and with distinction in the House of Representatives since 1950. He has demonstrated here on this floor that he has an excellent mind, and a cool, analytical mind which is receptive with the speed of super film. He has shown that he has humor and that he is tolerant without sacrificing his fine principles. He has also shown that he is honest, that he is honorable. He has demonstrated that he possesses a true knowledge of the vast differences between good and bad government.

"To me, he has all the fine qualities to hold the highest office in this state, and perhaps the land. It is, therefore, a great honor and a privilege to me to place in nomination for Speaker of the House of Representatives, a great leader, a great statesman, and a great American, The Honorable Newman H. Clark."

The Chief Clerk recognized Mr. Johnston (Elmer E.).

Mr. Johnston (Elmer E.):

"Mr. Chief Clerk, Justice Rosellini, and members of the House, ladies and gentlemen:

"It is a great personal pleasure for me to second the nomination of my distinguished colleague and friend, Zeke Clark, from the forty-third district; and I do so, ladies and gentlemen, because I feel Zeke, as we affectionately call him, has tremendous legislative experience; and, all of you who have worked with him know how thoroughly and aggressively and painstakingly he has handled all matters that come before the committee that he has been connected with; and that includes, as you know, some of the important assignments of this House.

"I think that our friend, Zeke, has brought to this House his tremendous training in law. He is, as you know, a distinguished member of the bar of Washington. He has given us the benefit, at all times, of his legal experience; and, I think he knows very well, forward and backwards, the rules and laws under which this House operates. I know that he would be a very fair and impartial administrator, and that he would be able to make decisions when they should be made.

"Ladies and gentlemen, as was very well said by one of the other speakers, we are, it is true, launching upon a very difficult period of time in this state of Washington. We might say that we are like a caravan traveling along a weary trail. For sixty days we are loaded down heavily with the burdens of the people of the state of Wash-
There are deep valleys to go through, high hills of controversy, hot sands of debate; and I think our candidate, Mr. Clark, will be an excellent administrator and ruler of the House over those periods of time. He would be able to bring us to a very fine and satisfactory finish.

"One other point—Mr. Clark has had a great deal of experience dealing with the other house, or the Senate. He knows how to get legislation through that body that may have passed our department here, and may be lodged over there. I think we should consider, in selecting a leader, a man who would be able to help us get our house bills out of the Senate.

"So I say that it is a great deal of pleasure to me, and I speak for many others, to second the nomination of Newman H. (Zeke) Clark for Speaker."

The Chief Clerk recognized Mr. Ruoff.

Mr. Ruoff:

"Mr. Chairman, Justice Rosellini, ladies and gentlemen of the House:

"May I just say that those of you who have had the grand experience of serving with Zeke in the past certainly know that it would not have been the same without his great character and the influence he has exerted through the long and difficult days of the session. Through it all, and working in the committees with him, you know as well as I, that when we work hard with him, we know how conscientious he is. We know how devoted he is, not only to this body, but to the state of Washington, and that he has dedicated the greater part of his legal career to it; and when this is all over, the new members who are here today will certainly feel as we do, that as we work with him and as we laugh with him, we will also conclude that the feeling we have for Zeke will be one of greatest respect.

"You will disagree with him many times during this session of the legislature, but you will never fail to respect him for what he is and the principles for which he stands.

"If there is such a thing, he is certainly Mr. Republican in the state of Washington. May I coin a phrase in seconding his nomination? I give you the Happy Warrior, Zeke Clark."

There being no further nominations, the Clerk called the roll and Mr. O'Brien was elected Speaker of the House of Representatives by the following vote: Mr. O'Brien, 54; Mr. Clark, 43; absent, 1.

Those voting for Mr. O'Brien were: Representatives Bajema, Beierlein, Bernethy, Bigley, Bozarth, Braun (Eric D.), Brouillet, Brown (Gordon J.), Burns, Campbell, Carmichael, Carty, Clark (Newman H.), Connor, Donohue, Dowd, Durkan, Edwards, Epton, Farrington, Gallagher, Gleason, Goldmark, Hansen (Julia Butler), Hanson (Herb), Hurley, King, Kink, Klein, Litchman, Mardesich, McCormick (W. L.), McFadden, Miller, Mundy, Munro, Munsey, Neva, Nicholson, Olsen, Petrich, Rasmussen, Rosenberg, Sandison, Savage, Sawyer, Stocker, Testu, Tisdale, Twidwell, Vane, Wedekind, Young—54.

Those absent or not voting were: Representative McCormack (Mike)—1.

The Chief Clerk announced that Mr. John L. O'Brien, having received the constitutional majority vote of the House, was declared Speaker of the House of Representatives.

The Chief Clerk appointed Representatives Hurley and Olsen to escort Mr. O'Brien to the rostrum.

Representatives Hurley and Olsen escorted Mr. O'Brien to the rostrum, and the Honorable Hugh J. Rosellini, Justice of the State Supreme Court, administered the oath of office to him.

The Speaker assumed the chair.

The Speaker addressed the House with the following remarks:

"Mr. Chief Clerk, Honorable Justice Rosellini, fellow members of the legislature:

"It is indeed a great honor for me to have this privilege of serving as your Speaker for the Thirty-fifth Legislature. I know that we are going to have some great problems confronting us, but we are here to do the best we can to contribute to the forward progress of the state of Washington. I know there will be differences of opinion, but the differences lie in the approach to these matters. We are here with the same objective, to do what we can to solve these great problems.

"The people of the state of Washington are looking to this legislature to achieve and do things for which they have been waiting for a long time. As far as this office is concerned, I can assure you I will do my utmost to handle the affairs and to preside over this Body as fairly as it is humanly possible to do.

"I want each and every one of you to feel free to call upon me at any time if I can be of any assistance to you. I know in the days ahead there will be many things relative to the operation of this House, and many matters pertaining to bills in which you are particularly interested that will come before us. I will be always willing to assist you in anything you want me to do, because we are here to do the best we can for the people of the state of Washington; and I know we have the talent and experience to do that.

"We are singularly fortunate in having many young members here for the first time who are intensely interested in the problems of our state. They have shown in the days preceding this legislature their intense interest and vital concern. I know that they will do much to assist us in solving many of our complex problems. We are certainly happy to have them here.

"This legislature will be asked to do more things, and the requests are going to be greater than any other session in the history of our state. We should, at all times, be extremely tolerant, I believe, of each other's viewpoints. In doing that, we will be able to say at the end of the session that we did the best we could. We used the judgment that God gave us and we did it to the best of our ability, and when we leave here, the people of the state of Washington can say of this legislature that they are justly proud of their accomplishments.

"I thank you very much for again giving me the honor of being your Speaker."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Savage.

Mr. Savage:

"Mr. Speaker and colleagues of the House:

"It gives me a great deal of pleasure to nominate a very charming lady for Speaker Pro-Tem. The lady I am about to nominate has had a great deal of experience in the House. She came in one door at the same time I came in another when I first came into the House of Representatives. I thought perhaps she was a new secretary because I was sure she wasn't old enough to vote and she couldn't be a member of the House. But evidently she was, because she has been serving here ever since.

"We both served at that time on the Roads and Bridges Committee. Now, I've given it away. You might as well know I'm going to nominate Julia Butler Hansen, because I couldn't talk about her qualifications and accomplishments without your quickly knowing whom I'm talking about. We hadn't been in the first Roads and Bridges Committee but a few minutes before Julia started asking for a bridge. It wasn't many minutes more until she had the bridge cinched in the Highway Committee. She knew then about highways and bridges, and she has demonstrated it ever since. She is qualified to give leadership, great leadership, in our highways; and, at this time, with the Federal highway program and all, we need her leadership again. It is very important.

"She is well known throughout the western states for her knowledge of highway problems. I was in Boise a few years ago in a meeting on the Compact Commission. I came out of the room to have dinner and saw a big sign in the lobby of the biggest hotel in Boise, reading 'Julia Butler Hansen, principal speaker for the Society of Highway Engineers of Idaho.' So I finangled around and got a dinner ticket to the Highway Engineers' dinner to hear my colleague talk at the banquet. I talked to many of those people. They knew her. They had known of her for years. They were highway engineers and they were anxious to hear what she had to say about current problems.
"Now, Speaker Pro-Tem is a very responsible office. For any one of many different reasons, she might have to assume the duties of the Speaker of the House at any time. She has the ability to do that. She has demonstrated in many ways—in education, highways, and so on—her ability to pass legislation. I know that of all the ladies that we have had in our legislature, not only in the state of Washington but in all states west of the Mississippi, she has had the longest term of service as a state representative. I compare her ability sometimes with many of the ladies we have seen serve with. We have had some very capable women serve in our House and Senate. Also, it has been my privilege to serve with eighteen women in Congress, nine on each side of the aisle; and, I can compare Julia’s ability very well with the ladies serving in Congress at that time.

"My friend, Mr. Johnston, raised the question about geography in making his nomination for Speaker a while ago. I think geography could be carried a little further to this nomination. I say if we were comparing our lady with heights of ability and experience, although she is a petite one hundred twenty, if I were looking for a comparison in geography, I would have to look at the mountains. Julia would be, in her ability, one of the highest mountains—perhaps Mt. Rainier.

"Mr. Speaker, it is a great privilege to nominate Julia Butler Hansen as Speaker Pro-Tem."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Rasmussen.

Mr. Rasmussen:

"Mr. Speaker, Justice Rosellini, members, ladies and gentlemen of the House:

"I rise to second the nomination of Julia Butler Hansen. Those of you who, like myself, have served for a number of years with her have recognized her ability. For you newcomers coming into the House today, let me say this: Julia is willing and able to help at any time. She will volunteer her services and you will find that she can be very helpful. We people who have served here, who do not know all the answers, who have trouble with our bills, go and see Julia, and when you mention a problem, she doesn't say, 'I'm busy.' She says, 'Let's figure it out.'

"Her ability is recognized on both sides of this House. It is recognized in the Senate, also; and, here again, where sometimes we have a little trouble, Julia is a person who can straighten out those problems.

"It makes me very happy to rise to second the nomination of Julia Butler Hansen for Speaker Pro-Tem of the House of Representatives."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Miller.

Mr. Miller:

"It has been my extreme pleasure to be the running mate of Julia for four sessions. This will be the fifth session. I can say that she is a great mother, a great citizen, and she is a credit to the state of Washington. She is nationally known. I would just like to say that Julia, in using a phrase from the other side of the aisle, is a 'Happy Warrior,' or you can take the 'Happy' out."

The Speaker recognized Mrs. Testu.

Mrs. Testu:

"Mr. Chairman, Judge Rosellini, members of the House, and visitors:

"It is an honor for me, as well as all women of the state, to have the privilege of rising to second the nomination of Julia Butler Hansen for Speaker Pro-Tem of the House of Representatives. It would be superfluous for me to go into her qualifications. Her renown as a lawmaker has gone far beyond the borders of this state. Those of us who have known her throughout the years think of her as a homemaker, a wife, a mother, an educator, an author, and an engineer; and she excels in any of these fields.

"But her real leadership is in legislation, particularly in the field of highways, and she is recognized nation-wide, as the other speakers have said. It is our good fortune she chose to stay with us rather than to accept other positions that have been offered her.

"Her womanly charm, her dignified mien, her wisdom and experience place her in a position unmatched by anyone, man or woman, within or without our state. So, reflecting her ever-shining star, I second the nomination of my colleague, Julia Butler Hansen, Speaker Pro-Tem of the House of Representatives."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Shropshire.
Mr. Shropshire:

"Mr. Speaker, Judge Rosellini, members of the House:

"It is indeed a pleasure and privilege for me on this side of the aisle to get up and second the nomination of Julia Butler Hansen as Speaker Pro-Tern. It has been my pleasure to work with Julia the past four years on the Interim Highway Committee, and I know her ability and I say it is a pleasure and indeed a privilege to be on this side of the House and to second your nomination, Julia."

Mr. Mardesich moved that the nominations for Speaker Pro-Tern of the House of Representatives be closed.

The Speaker recognized Mr. Shropshire.

Mr. Shropshire:

"Mr. Speaker, I move an amendment to that motion, that a unanimous vote be given Julia Butler Hansen, and that we dispense with the roll."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"I believe I have to rule your amendment out of order. We must call the roll."

The motion of Mr. Mardesich was carried. There being no further nominations, the Clerk called the roll and Mrs. Hansen was elected Speaker Pro-Tern of the House of Representatives by the following vote: Mrs. Hansen, 97; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 1.

Those voting for Mrs. Hansen were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Anderson, Bajema, Beierlein, Bernethy, Bigley, Bozarth, Braun (Eric D.), Brouillet, Brown (Gordon J.), Burns, Campbell, Canfield, Carmichael, Carty, Chytli, Clark (Cecil C.), Clark (Newman H.), Connor, Copeland, Donohue, Dore, Dowd, Durkan, Edwards, Eldridge, Elway, Epton, Evans, Farrington, Folsom, Gallagher, Gleason, Goldmark, Goldsworthy, Griffith, Hansen (Julia Butler), Hanson (Herb), Harris, Hawley, Huntley, Hurley, Johnson (Ray W.), Johnston (Elmer E.), King, Kink, Kirk, Klein, Leland, Lindell, Litchman, Lybecker, Mardesich, Mast, May, Mc Cormick (W. L.), McFadden, Miller, Moriarty, Morphis, Mundy, Munro, Munsey, Nava, Nicholson, Oakes, Olsen, Ovenell, Pence, Petrich, Petrie, Rasmussen, Rickdall, Rosenberg, Ruoff, Sandison, Savage, Sawyer, Shropshire, Siler, Smith, Stocker, Stokes, Strom, Swayne, Testu, Timm, Tisdale, Twidwell, Vane, Wang, Wedeking, Wintler, Winton, Young, Mr. Speaker—97.

Those absent or not voting were: Representative McCormack (Mike)—1.

The Speaker announced that Mrs. Hansen, having received the unanimous vote of the House, was elected Speaker Pro-Tern of the House of Representatives, and appointed Representatives Bernethy and Beierlein to escort Mrs. Hansen to the rostrum.

Representatives Bernethy and Beierlein escorted Mrs. Hansen to the rostrum, and the Honorable Hugh J. Rosellini, Justice of the State Supreme Court, administered the oath of office to her.

The Speaker called for nominations for the office of Chief Clerk.

The Speaker recognized Mr. Rosenberg.

Mr. Rosenberg:

"Mr. Speaker, Justice Rosellini, ladies and gentlemen:

"It has been well reviewed this morning that we will have many problems facing this Thirty-fifth Legislature. It is imperative that we secure for help the best that there is."

"It gives me a great deal of pleasure to place in nomination the name of a man who has ability and qualifications for his job unequaled by any other person. The man has given invaluable and continual service to all members of the legislature, both during the sessions and during the interim between sessions, during his tenure of office. He is a man who has served continuously, with the exception of the 1953 session, since the special session of 1933. I know that he can never be adequately compensated for his service. He is a man who has the intelligence and experience to make his advice sound and well considered. He is a man who is second to none as a parliamentarian.

"Ladies and gentlemen, I need not mention his name. You all know of whom I speak. I place in nomination the name of our great Chief Clerk, Si Holcomb."

The speaker recognized Mr. Bernethy.

Mr. Bernethy:

"Mr. Speaker, Justice Rosellini, ladies and gentlemen of the House:

"It is with pleasure that I rise to second the nomination of Si, as all his good friends call him. We have been friends for many years—ever since I have served here in the legislature—and I certainly know you are not going to make any mistake in electing Mr. Holcomb for Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives. He is fair with everybody, and, especially, he is very helpful to new members of the House regardless of party lines, regardless of which side of the aisle you sit on. He is helpful not only during session, but in the interim between sessions. He has been helpful to all members of the legislature.

"Again, it is with great pleasure I second the nomination of Si Holcomb."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Timm.

Mr. Timm:

"I rise now to second the nomination of Si Holcomb, a man deeply devoted these many years to his service in the House of Representatives; and it is a personal honor for me to second this nomination because some years ago Si was a resident of my legislative district. His father was a distinguished judge, later serving on the State Supreme Court.

"We on this side of the aisle, the Republican Party, respect Mr. Holcomb a great deal for his integrity in the administration of his office and for the friendship he has shown us. We pledge our support in making his work easier in the days ahead."

On motion of Mr. Mardesich, the nominations for Chief Clerk were closed.

The Clerk called the roll and Mr. S. R. Holcomb was unanimously elected Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives by the following vote: Yeas, 97; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 1.

Those voting for Mr. Holcomb were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Anderson, Bajema, Beierlein, Bernethy, Bigley, Bozarth, Braun (Eric D.), Brouillet, Brown (Gordon J.), Burns, Campbell, Canfield, Carmichael, Carty, Chytil, Clark (Cecil C.), Clark (Newman H.), Connor, Copeland, Donohue, Dore, Dowd, Durkan, Edwards, Eldridge, Elway, Epton, Evans, Farrington, Folsom, Gallagher, Gleason, Goldmark, Goldsworthy, Griffith, Hansen (Julia Butler), Hanson (Herb), Harris, Hawley, Huntley, Hurley, Johnson (Ray W.), Johnston (Elmer E.), King, Kink, Kirk, Klein, Leland, Lindell, Litchman, Lybecker, Mardesich, Mast, May, McCormick (W. L.), McFadden, Miller, Moriarty, Morphis, Mundy, Munro, Munsey, Neva, Nicholson, Oakes, Olsen, Ovenell, Pence, Petrich, Petrie, Rasmussen, Rickdall, Rosenberg, Ruoff, Sandison, Savage, Sawyer, Shropshire, Siler, Smith, Stocker, Stokes, Strom, Swayne, Testu, Timm, Tisdale, Twidwell, Vane, Wang, Wedekind, Wintler, Winton, Young, Mr. Speaker—97.

Representatives Hanson and Young escorted Mr. Holcomb to the rostrum and the Honorable Hugh J. Rosellini, Justice of the State Supreme Court, administered the oath of office to him.

The Speaker announced that nominations for Sergeant at Arms were in order.

The Speaker recognized Mr. Mundy.

Mr. Mundy:

"Mr. Speaker, Justice Rosellini, ladies and gentlemen of the House:

"I rise here this afternoon to place before you the name of a gentleman who is known to most of us. This gentleman has served in this House two regular sessions and two special sessions. He is a native of the state of Washington, born and reared in Pierce County. He is a family man, the father of three children, three sons. He is capable, competent, and courteous. You will know him, I'm sure, by his first name, Elmer Hyppa. I know he'll do a good job here. He has the background, and he understands the mechanics of the job.

"It gives me a great deal of pleasure to place in nomination the name of Elmer Hyppa as our Sergeant at Arms."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Brown.

Mr. Brown:

"Mr. Speaker, Justice Rosellini, ladies and gentlemen of the House:

"It gives me a great deal of pleasure to second the nomination of Pierce County's favorite son, Elmer Hyppa. In Pierce County, he gives unselfishly of his service in civic and community organizations. He is past president of the local Kiwanis, a member of the Eagles, and he is affiliated with a great many organizations in Pierce County. I'm sure that Elmer will give us unstintingly of his services in this legislature as he does in his own community."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Eldridge.

Mr. Eldridge:

"Mr. Speaker, Justice Rosellini, ladies and gentlemen:

"'It is indeed a pleasure on behalf of the minority party to second the nomination of Elmer Hyppa. I'm sure that he is well qualified to keep the Third House in line and this House in order."

On motion of Mr. Clark (Newman H.), the nominations for Sergeant at Arms were closed.

The Clerk called the roll and Mr. Elmer Hyppa was unanimously elected Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives by the following vote: Yeas, 97; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 1.

I am exceedingly grateful for the splendid cooperation that has been shown me by Governor Langlie and the elected state officials, and especially from the heads of the departments of our state government and their staffs. I am proud to have been a part of state government and to have seen our great state grow and prosper. As my term of office comes to a close, I wish to extend to you all my kindest personal regards and best wishes, and may God bless you all.

"I now have the privilege and the pleasure of presenting His Excellency, Arthur B. Langlie, Governor of the State of Washington, for his address." (Applause.)

MESSAGE OF GOVERNOR ARTHUR B. LANGLIE TO THE LEGISLATURE

"Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the Legislature:

"You meet in this Thirty-fifth Session of the Legislature to inaugurate a new administration and to consider matters important to the well being of the people of this state. It is customary for the outgoing governor to give his message to the legislature and to make such recommendations as he feels will be in the interest of the long range policies of our institutions and government.

"A rather extensive message covering nearly all the departments of state government has been prepared, but I am not going to read it to you, for which I know you are very happy. Copies are available to you for review, and, rather than read this report, I shall make but a few brief remarks.

"Government is always faced with the responsibility of meeting the common problems of the people which they individually or as groups cannot solve as well for themselves. Since our state has so much to offer with its bountiful resources, it is constantly growing in population and importance. This growth generates a new set of problems each year.

"Basically, our needs fall into certain patterns; the protection of resources, and the concern for human well being and human welfare. It is always difficult to meet as effectively as we would like to all the problems confronting us. I need not tell you that aside from efficiently administering the sprawling machinery of state government, the biggest difficulty is to provide the income that is necessary to finance all the services and benefits that are constantly demanding expansion.

“Our state, more than most others in the United States, has been called on to assume greater and greater responsibility for the cost of essential services. Efforts have been made from time to time to bolster local agencies of government with more revenues locally collected, but to date such efforts have not been too successful. Your most acute problems, therefore, will be, as they have been in the past, largely centered around the need to finance many services that public officials wish to give but which require addi­tional tax revenues to supply.

“If there is one point that I would stress more than any other to this legislature as it comes into session, it would be this—and many of you have heard me talk about this in previous sessions, I know—:

“Do not spend more money than the state can reasonably anticipate from existent revenues and such additional income as you, as legislators, find it necessary to create.
Deficit spending in government is a vicious thing, for it eventually multiplies the prob­lems that you face. There is, of course, some justification for bond financing on capital investment when the facilities thus financed are presently needed and will be in use for years to come. But except in times of grave emergency, deficit spending should not be undertaken.

“The budget which will be presented to you this afternoon by Mr. Brabrook is the largest in this state’s history. When the department requests were received, the esti­mated expenditures of the general fund were $264,000,000 greater than for the present biennium. These requests have been cut to $104,000,000.

“Consistent with my previous practice, I am presenting you with a balanced budget in the general fund. This budget is based on the present tax structure, with reasonable anticipation of income therefrom. This has been done with the knowledge that no provision has been made for many things that department leaders consider worthwhile.
We have reduced the requests by the various departments $160,000,000, but we believe the allowances made are adequate to accommodate in a progressive way the various essential programs of the state, and, at the same time, meet the growing demands on state government by reason of increases in our population and in our development.

“The budget includes $47,000,000 additional for common school support, which will permit a $500 increase in teachers’ wages this year; $20,000,000 additional for public assistance; $15,000,000 for institutions of higher education; and, $20,000,000 more for the state institutions.

“The State of Washington is a growing, progressive state. Its opportunities and prospects are limitless during the decade and generation ahead. Progress and prosperity are not guaranteed to a state, however, any more than to an individual. The opportunity is there, but it must be seized for the State of Washington. Progress and prosperity can be won and retained only if there is farsighted action, unselfish statesmanship, and co­operative effort by all responsible officers and agencies of state government. Only by dedication to and fulfillment of these high concepts of public service can the state realize its vast potential as the northern anchor of a teeming Pacific Coast.

“Now, may I, as I take leave of you, express, not only for myself but for Mrs.
Langlie and my family, our deep feeling of gratitude for the cooperation that you have given us during the many years we have served here. We have a feeling towards all elective officials and the judicial field for the fine assistance and cooperation they have given us, and we want to especially express our thanks to the many fine appointed people and their assistants who, for many years, have given unselfish, honest, devoted service to the people of this state; and, to those of you who continue to serve, may I just give you a personal expression of deep faith in these institutions of government. They really work. They are worthwhile. And constructive criticism, the quarreling, the partisan attitudes are a part of this process of ours; and, it is a great institution. Regardless of what we may think at the moment, a lot of things work out for good that don’t seem that way to some of us in our prejudiced minds.

“In any event, may I wish for all, success in the job you have of serving a wonder­ful state and wonderful people.” (Applause.)

President of the Senate:

“Governor Langlie, on behalf of this joint session, may I sincerely thank you for your message.”

The President of the Senate directed the special committee to escort His Excellency, Governor Arthur B. Langlie, to the governor’s chambers.
The special committee thereupon escorted the governor from the House chamber. (Applause.)

Resolution by Representatives Frank Brouillet, Eva Anderson, and R. C. Brigham Young:

WHEREAS, It has been the custom for many years that the House of Representatives arrange and pay for a group picture of all the members of this House, to be properly mounted and framed, in order that said picture may be hung in the legislative halls; and

WHEREAS, A certain procedure is necessary in order to designate who the photographer shall be;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the Speaker appoint a committee of those House members to investigate and recommend to the House the official photographer for the thirty-fifth session.

On motion of Mr. Brouillet, the resolution was adopted.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The Speaker appointed as members of the committee provided for in the resolution to recommend to the House the official photographer for the thirty-fifth session, Representatives Brouillet, Young, and Anderson.

RESOLUTION

Resolution by Representatives Richard Ruoff and Dwight S. Hawley:

Be It Resolved, By the House of Representatives,

WHEREAS, The Legislature of the state in more recent times has passed legislation which tends to go far beyond the original scope of activity intended for the legislature; and

WHEREAS, This legislation has greatly extended the types of activity which are regulated, controlled, directed, operated and financed by the state; and

WHEREAS, This great mass of legislation and the expansion of governmental activities has caused deficit financing and serious financial problems for the state and has caused an increasingly oppressive tax burden; and
WHEREAS, The Governor-elect and great majority of the people of the state would prefer no increase in taxes and thrift and economy in governmental activity instead of an increased tax burden and governmental extravagance;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That this legislature and the members thereof shall make every possible attempt to attain economy in government by limiting the matters considered by it to those which are basic to the needs of government and shall not extend the scope of governmental activities and the tax burdens that must accompany any extension beyond the proper scope of basic state government.

Mr. Ruoff moved the adoption of the resolution.

MOTION

Mr. Mardesich moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on State Government.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Clark (Newman H.):

"Mr. Speaker, Mr. Mardesich's motion to refer to a committee is out of order since there is no such committee. We do not have any committee assignments yet so there is no such committee."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

"We are operating under temporary rules and under our temporary rules, we have a committee on State Government, although the members of the committee have not as yet been appointed. Your point of order is not well taken."

Mr. Sandison demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Clark (Newman H.) requested that the Clerk re-read the resolution before the motion to refer the resolution is put.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Speaker, I thought the demand for the previous question was carried."

The Speaker:

"It was carried. We were simply complying with the request of the member that the resolution be again read."

Mr. Smith:

"Well, point of order, Mr. Speaker. We voted the previous question. How can you read the resolution?"

The Speaker:

"It is a member's privilege to demand another opportunity to know what he is voting on. I don't believe there is anything out of order there. We are not going to discuss it. We are just going to have it read."

The resolution was re-read by the Clerk.

United States Senator Magnuson:

"Members of the Legislature, Governor-Elect Rosellini, Judges, and honored ladies and gentlemen:

"I first of all want to express my deep appreciation for the kind invitation of the Speaker and the Lieutenant Governor to come here today. I had a little sentimental feeling coming down the aisle because I find that there are only about three of us left who were here when I was a member a long time ago, sitting down in the front row, right down there.

"This is a very auspicious and solemn occasion today. I don't want to take up any of your time. You are here for a very solemn purpose. I merely wanted to bring to you the greetings of the entire Washington delegation, from my colleague Senator Jackson, Congressman Magnuson, and all of the members of the Senate and House of Representatives in Congress. I know that during the next sixty days you will be presented with many problems that exist in state government, and I know a lot of those problems intertwine with what the Federal Congress does about certain things. I'm very hopeful that they will be able to give you more help in your school problems. I'm very hopeful that they will be able to give you more help in the growing need for roads in the state of Washington, and many of the other things I know that you are going to have to consider here during this session.

"I want to pledge that cooperation. I want to thank you for your warm welcome. I want to wish all of the state officials and the Governor-Elect well and I want to tell you how pleasing it is to come back again and say hello to a lot of old friends."

"You will hold this Bible in your left hand, place your right hand upon it, and repeat after me."

Chief Justice Matthew H. Hill administered the oath of office to Albert D. Rosellini, Governor of the State of Washington, and Lieutenant Governor Cherberg presented to him his Certificate of Election.

PROPOSITIONS AND MOTIONS

Resolution by Mr. Vane:

WHEREAS, our famed University of Washington is without the services of a football coach, and not only the school, but many interested citizens, are anxiously awaiting the appointment of a man to that position;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That this House of Representatives call attention to the faithful service of under-coach Johnny Baker who is well qualified for the position and is available. We recommend to athletic director, George Briggs, and the other athletic authorities at the school to seriously consider the popular Johnny Baker with a view to his appointment as head coach at said institution; and

WHEREAS, It is well known that a search is being made far and wide to select a suitable coach, and we feel it is something like searching for a diamond a long ways away, whereas one might be found right at home. We feel that this man, having worked under three other coaches and being such a famous former athlete himself, with his fine record and personality, is an ideal candidate for the position.

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE
Department of State, Office of the Secretary, Olympia, Washington, January 14, 1957.

To the Honorable, The Speaker of the House of Representatives,

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith pursuant to Section 12, Article III of the Constitution of the State of Washington, for the consideration of the House of Representatives, a certified copy of Enrolled House Bill No. 1 as passed by the House and Senate of the Extraordinary Session of the 1955 Legislature, and partially vetoed by the Governor, together with his veto message attached thereto.

Respectfully,
EARL COE,
Secretary of State.
State of Washington, Executive Department,
Olympia, April 4, 1955.

To the Honorable, The House of Representatives, State of Washington.
(Through the Secretary of State.)

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I am filing herewith, to be submitted to the House of Representatives of the State of Washington at the next session of the Legislature, without my approval as to certain items, House Bill No. 1, entitled:

"AN ACT, Making appropriations for the payment of salaries of certain officers and employees of the state and for the operation, maintenance and other expenses of certain state institutions, departments and offices, for the purchase, condemnation and improvement of land, the construction of buildings and improvements for the various state institutions designated and mentioned, and for emergencies, and for refunds, and for transfers, and for deficiencies, and for sundry civil expenses of the state government, and for public assistance, and for purposes specified in certain acts of Congress, and for miscellaneous purposes, for the fiscal biennium beginning July 1, 1955, and ending June 30, 1957, except as otherwise provided, defining terms, limiting allowances and payments, and declaring that this act shall take effect immediately."

I disapprove and veto that portion of Sec. 2, which reads: "(Provided, That no part of the above appropriations shall be used for television transmission purposes.)" for the reason that this restriction would unduly curtail the continuance of established educational and research work at the University.

I disapprove and veto the item "FOR THE SUPPORT OF KINDERGARTENS: Provided, That no portion of this appropriation shall be expended for kindergarten support unless the money to be so expended has been matched by the district from local funds, or excess tax levies raised for that purpose, or from both, $2,200,000.00" for the following reasons; the amount of $2,200,000 is grossly inadequate to pay to school districts the attendance credit to which they are entitled under the provisions of Section 4, Chapter 187, Laws of 1955. It is also insufficient to pay for the estimated cost of kindergartens in the 1955-57 biennium even with the required local matching.

The Legislature in 1953 withdrew state aid to kindergartens; it had the right to restore it now if it felt that this should be done. In that case it should have made adequate appropriations to take care of constructing and operating facilities for the expected enrollment increase. This, however, was not done. The approval of a mere token appropriation for kindergartens may create harmful conditions in the schools by leading to the diversion to kindergartens of statutory local funds (14 mills) which were intended to support the basic grades, to the housing of children in undesirable make-shift facilities and to the crowding of other grades.

The operation of kindergartens has been optional in our state, at the discretion of local school boards since 1897. In the school year 1952-53, 143 school districts ran kindergartens, 408 did not. In that year more than 40,000 pupils were enrolled in kindergartens. Following the partial withdrawal of state support for kindergartens in 1953, many school boards submitted the question of local support to their residents. The majority of the communities voted against kindergartens, and enrollment dropped by almost 20,000. The restoration of state support for kindergartens would be the signal for the districts that discontinued them two years ago, to re-open kindergarten classes. Few of these school boards, regardless of their own wishes, their financial situation or overcrowding in other grades would be able to resist the demand for kindergartens. Kindergarten enrollment would quickly regain its former size of 40,000 and quite likely rise to over 50,000 at a biennial operating cost of more than $10 million.

$2,200,000 "matched with an equal amount of money derived by the district from local funds or excess levies for that purpose" would yield a total amount of $4,400,000 which is less than half the expected cost of kindergartens. Where would the balance come from?

In the current biennium the cost of kindergartens ($5.0 million) is financed from special levies ($4.2 million) and from the state school equalization fund and real estate transaction tax ($0.7 million). The restoration of state support may make it more difficult to obtain voter approval for special kindergarten levies. School boards may then use part of the statutory 14 mills which are now supporting grades 1 to 14. They might thus unduly enlarge class sizes.
In many cases, wealthier communities have been operating kindergartens and poorer areas have not. State aid may mean that some poorer districts would be contributing through state taxes to wealthier communities for services which the poorer districts do not maintain. Numerous communities which in the last two years voted against kindergartens for their own children would be forced to contribute through state taxes to kindergarten support in other communities.

The existing classroom shortage would be seriously aggravated by the addition of another 20,000 to 30,000 children on top of the 45,000 pupil increase expected in the next two years. School districts which discontinued kindergartens in the last two years have been using the vacated classrooms for other grades. To build classrooms for 20,000 to 30,000 kindergarten children would cost between $15 and $20 million. If part of the $30 million state aid to school building construction were used to build facilities for additional kindergarten classes, other grades would have to be crowded.

It seems far better to continue the financing of kindergartens from local support.

I disapprove and veto the item "From the Motor Vehicle Fund. To Highway Bond Retirement Fund $10,715,000.00 (Transfers to be made as provided by chapter 121, Laws of 1951, and chapter 154, Laws of 1953.)" for the reason that House Bill No. 639 previously approved, makes provision for this transfer.

With the exception of the foregoing items, which are vetoed, the remainder of House Bill No. 1 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
ARTHUR B. LANGLIE,
Governor.

MOTION

Mr. Mardesich moved that the Governor's veto message on House Bill No. 1, Extraordinary Session, be referred to the Rules Committee.

The motion was carried.

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

Department of State, Office of the Secretary, Olympia, Washington, January 15, 1957.

Sir:

A majority of the voters at the November 6, 1956, state general election have indicated that it is their belief that the representation in the State Senate and House of Representatives should be reapportioned by their approval of Initiative Measure No. 199. Since there has been no such apportionment since 1930—I have publicly endorsed said Initiative Measure No. 199 for the reason that the populous areas of our state were being denied a fair and equitable representation.

However, since the approval of Initiative Measure No. 199 into law, certain flaws concerning the use of census tracts as the basic units in establishing the new legislative districts have been brought to my attention. As the Chief Election Officer of the State of Washington, I feel it is my duty to alert the members of the 35th Legislature that remedial legislation will be necessary in order that definite and clear boundaries be established in certain of the districts to the end that the voters, candidates, and election officers can participate in future state elections without confusion and chaos.

A summary of the basic flaws is as follows:

1. In a number of the newly created legislative districts, the boundaries cut through private residences, a housing project and an apartment house. In such instances, the voters concerned will not know in which legislative district they reside.

2. County roads named as boundaries have either been vacated or changed since the original establishment of certain census tracts.

3. A creek is named as a boundary whose course of flow is subject to change.

4. The boundaries of the census tracts used as boundaries of the new legislative districts cut through county commissioner districts at random. State law (RCW 29.04.050) provides that every voting precinct must lie wholly within one legislative district and wholly within one county commissioner district. State law (RCW 36.30.020) further provides that the boundaries of commissioner districts shall not be changed oftener than once in four years.

Since the King County Board of County Commissioners have recently changed their commissioner districts no change can now be made until after the 1958 state general election. Unless remedial legislation is passed to harmonize the legislative districts with existing commissioner districts, the election officers in King County will be forced to establish a number of irregular and impractical voting precincts.

(5) The United States Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, Geography Division, have indicated that changes in the census tracts will be necessary in order to take the 1960 census. The question arises: If the census tracts need updating to perfect the taking of a Federal census—are the boundaries adequate to use as legislative districts?

(6) Twenty-one census tracts, containing at least 50,000 persons, were located and numbered as rural areas in King County as of 1950. Since 1950, the area covered by these census tracts has been annexed to the city of Seattle and the census tracts involved were renumbered. Whereas Section 56 of Initiative Measure No. 199 provides that the census tracts existing as of January 1, 1956 shall control—the definitions of certain legislative districts contained elsewhere in the measure unfortunately list the former numbers of the annexed census tracts as they existed in 1950.

Whereas as Chief Election Officer, the Secretary of State, has the power to promulgate rules and regulations to clarify election statutes, my office does not have the power to legislate. In my judgment the confusion caused by reference to obsoleted census tracts requires action by the Legislature not only to rectify but to eliminate any legal cloud.

I do not wish to burden the members of the Legislature with further details but respectfully suggest that should remedial legislation be introduced, the services of my office are available should any additional information be desired.

This is the first time that an initiative measure has been approved into law since the adoption of the 26th Amendment to the State Constitution which permits the legislature by a two-thirds vote to amend an initiative at the first session following the state general election concerned. For this reason, this message establishes a precedence and in future years I recommend that a division of state government concerned make a similar report should remedial legislation be necessary in order to effectively carry out the will of the electorate.

Respectfully,

EARL COE, Secretary of State,
Chief Election Officer,
State of Washington.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Timm:
"Point of inquiry, Mr. Speaker. How many bills are printed just as a routine matter for the use of the House members?"

The Speaker:
"Twelve hundred copies of each bill are printed."
Mr. Timm:

"Well, it seems then, Mr. Speaker, that there are enough of us who won't be picking up extra copies that there should be a surplus in many cases. I think before we start any precedent of wholesale printing, we ought to consider there are twelve hundred available copies."

The Speaker:

"Out of the twelve hundred, six hundred are used by the House and Senate. That leaves us six hundred for outside distribution. I think your point is well taken. We should be careful and not run rampant on the wholesale printing of bills."

Mr. Litchman:

"Mr. Speaker, I was not aware of the fact that there were that many copies available. I assumed there were possibly five hundred copies printed for use by the House and Senate and for distribution. With the consent of the House, I would like to withdraw my motion."

With the consent of the House, the motion by Mr. Litchman was withdrawn.

Resolution by Representatives Olsen, Ruoff, and Munro:
WHEREAS, The League of Women Voters of the State of Washington has in recent years done an excellent job of informing and educating voters of the State of Washington concerning the processes of local, state, and national government, and WHEREAS, Through the many study units of the League throughout the state a large number of women voters of the state have thoroughly studied our state tax problems, state government reorganization, metropolitan problems, and other problems of government, and
WHEREAS, In all these activities the League of Women Voters has acted on a nonpartisan basis and with no other motivation than the desire to be informed concerning the problems of government and effective in improving government, Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the House of Representatives that the League of Women Voters of the State of Washington is hereby commended for its excellent work and program for better government in our state.
Mr. Ruoff moved the adoption of the resolution.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER
"Mr. Ruoff, I would like to have you confine your remarks to this resolution. It seems to me you are going a bit astray in talking about Initiative 199. According to the resolution, you are praising the League of Women Voters on their excellent governmental work generally; and I believe that you should keep your remarks germane to the subject of the resolution."

Mr. Ruoff:
"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. I wish to exemplify the League's outstanding work; and in so doing I am merely pointing out an example of what they have accomplished and how the Senate is making an attempt to disrupt and destroy the initiative process."

Mr. Young:
"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:
"Mr. Young rises to a point of order."

Mr. Young:
"I think he is going far afield when he goes into what the Senate is doing on certain matters."

The Speaker:
"I believe that your point is well taken. You are getting involved with Initiative 199, Mr. Ruoff. It appears that your resolution doesn't say anything about Initiative 199; and, at this time, the initiative is not before us. I don't think the House should be involved in debate on the initiative at this time. I would like to have you confine your remarks strictly to the resolution before us."

Debate ensued.
Mr. Smith demanded the previous question and the demand was lost.
Debate ensued.
Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.
Mr. Dore demanded a roll call and the demand was lost.
The Speaker declared the question before the House to be the adoption of the resolution by Representatives Olsen, Munro, and Ruoff.
The motion by Mr. Ruoff was lost on a rising vote and the resolution was not adopted.

That Rule 78 be amended to read as follows:

The chairman of any committee [recommending] which recommends a two-thirds majority report against a bill shall notify the author of said measure in writing of the committee's recommendation not later than twenty-four hours before the convening of the house on the day the report is read.

Mr. Mardesich moved the adoption of the resolution.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Mardesich, the following amendment was adopted:

Amendment to House Rule No. 2, by Representative Mardesich:

On page 2, Rule 40, line 6, after the words "resolution, or" and before the words "the chairman" insert the words and punctuation ", in his stead,"

POINT OF INFORMATION

Miss Wintler:

"Point of information, Mr. Speaker, concerning page 1, Rule 2, after the second semi-colon, the last three lines: 'and a sergeant-at-arms, who shall hold office during all sessions until the convening of the succeeding regular session.'"
"I should like to know whether the holding of office during all sessions applies to the speaker, the chief clerk, and the sergeant-at-arms, because I understand in the past it was traditional for all elective officials of the House to hold those positions during the two years for which all of the members of the House were elected; and somewhere, without the vote of the House, that tradition was changed; and when the special session was called, the members of the House felt privileged to nominate and elect again. I should like very much to have the old tradition maintained. I ask for a point of information as to how the last two lines of that paragraph apply."

The Speaker:

"Well, the intent of this rule is that all the officers will hold office for all sessions until the convening of the succeeding regular session. Mr. Clark is now in the process of rewriting this suggested rule change."

Miss Wintler:

"I should like to have it written so that it would be very clear that that last clause does not apply only to the sergeant-at-arms, as the language would seem to imply."

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. Adams:

"Mr. Speaker, referring again to this Rule 2, I think some of our legal colleagues ought to advise whether or not this Body is a continuing Body, or whether or not each time we are called into session, we take up from there. I would interpret this rule to more or less imply that we are a continuing Body. I don't believe, according to the State Constitution, we are a continuing Body. I think each new session is a new session of its own. Otherwise, all bills in before would carry over. It is a legal question I am not familiar with, but probably the point should be clarified while we are considering Rule 2."

Mr. Savage:

"Mr. Speaker, I think I can answer the gentleman on that. If you will recall, in the latter part of the last regular two-year session, I checked up considerably on that question and then offered an amendment—I believe that was in 1953—so that after that time the rule would provide that we elect our officers for the full two years so we don't have to go through that procedure during each special session. I found nothing in the Constitution or the previous rules in conflict with it; and the House, here, amended the rules to that effect. That is the rule at the present time, so when we elect our officers, they are elected for the full two years regardless of how many special sessions we have."

POINT OF INFORMATION

The Speaker recognized Mr. Hawley.

Mr. Hawley:

"Point of information. Isn't it true that we can change officers at any time if we wish by vote of the Legislature? Answering their question, we would continue; but if we did wish to change, we could. Isn't that true?"

The Speaker:

"I am not in a position to give you an opinion on that question."

Mr. Hawley:

"I mean, if we should have a special session and we should decide to change officers, it could be done."

The Speaker:

"Not according to the amendment to our rules which was made at the last regular session. The intent then was that the officers elected would carry on until the next succeeding regular session. In other words, there wouldn't be any change in the officers if we had two or three special sessions. That is what happened, as a matter of fact, in 1955. We had a special session and the officers carried on without election. All of the officers were elected for the full two years."
The Speaker recognized Mr. Vane.

Mr. Vane:

"Mr. Speaker, I believe we could do that by suspension of the rules on a two-thirds vote, so if the matter came up and it was necessary, or someone tried to do it, it could be done. I don't think we need to worry about that matter at this time. The important thing is to adopt these rules and correct the one rule we are working on at the present time. In answer to the question, I believe it could be done."

On motion of Mr. Clark (Newman H.), the following amendment was adopted:

Amendment to House Rule 2, by Representative Clark (Newman H.):

Strike the entire first paragraph of Rule 2 appearing in the resolution by the Committee on Rules and Order and substitute in lieu thereof the following:

"Rule 2. The house shall elect [its presiding officer] the following officers at the commencement of each regular session: Its presiding officer, who shall be styled speaker of the house; a speaker pro tem, who shall serve in absence or in case of the inability of the speaker, a chief clerk of the house; [an assistant chief clerk to be elected on the last legislative day;] and a sergeant-at-arms. An Assistant chief clerk may be elected on any legislative day. Such officers shall hold office during all sessions until the convening of the succeeding regular session."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INFORMATION

The Speaker recognized Mr. Mast.

Mr. Mast:

"Point of information, Mr. Speaker. On Rule 60, I think we are going in the right direction there, but I would like to know whether 'recommendations signed by a majority' consists of a total of both those for and against the bill?"

The Speaker:

"It requires that the omnibus appropriation bill, the supplemental appropriation bill, and any revenue bill estimated to raise five million dollars or more, would require a majority of the entire Ways and Means Committee to report the bill out. On other matters referred to those subcommittees, a majority of the subcommittees could report a bill out; but on the major items it requires a majority of the entire membership."

Mr. Mast:

"Mr. Speaker, I believe I did not make myself clear. What I was trying to arrive at was whether or not it was the total of those for and against the bill to be considered a majority here, to get a bill out of a certain committee."

The Speaker:

"Our interpretation has been that those for and against would be construed as being a majority of the membership."

POINT OF INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Petrie:

Mr. Petrie:

"Point of inquiry, Mr. Speaker. Considering Rules 35 and 40 together, heretofore it has been the custom, either through courtesy of the speaker or possibly because there was a discrepancy in the two rules, that the mover of a motion was afforded the right to close debate. Do I understand, in reading these two rules now, that in spite of the wording in Rule 35 that the mover of an amendment or motion will no longer have that right either by regulation or by courtesy of the speaker?"

The Speaker:

"He may still close the debate. However, if the previous question is ordered by the House it would cut off his right to close debate."
Mr. Petrie:

"That is the way I read it, and I have this further question: How, then, will the mover of debate know when to ask for the privilege of closing debate?"

The Speaker:

"That will be up to the mover of the question to determine the pulse of the House. In parliamentary skirmishes and debate, you just don't know when the House is going to tire of listening to arguments pro and con. However, the mover does have the opportunity to speak twice before the fiftieth day; and, unless the previous question is ordered, he may close the debate. But that all depends upon the temper of the House."

Mr. Petrie:

"May I inquire, then, in the event the previous question is asked, can the mover of the motion, before the Speaker puts the question to a vote, at that time reserve the right to close debate before it is actually decided?"

The Speaker:

"No, not on a motion for an amendment or resolution, or any matter of that kind. However, on final passage and on a motion to indefinitely postpone, he does have the right to close the debate. This Rule 35 would pertain mainly to questions on second reading, and to resolutions and amendments. There has been some conflict in the past. In the past sixteen years, since 1941, these two rules have been in some conflict and have been ambiguous."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Strom.

Mr. Strom:

"Point of order. Is there an amendment before the House?"

The Speaker:

"No, there isn't. We are now discussing the resolution as amended."

POINT OF INFORMATION

The Speaker recognized Mr. Vane.

Mr. Vane:

"It might be in order for you, Mr. Speaker, to make an explanation of the matter of a majority of committee. For instance, if there are eleven on the committee, to get a majority to move the bill out requires six. Now, if you don't get a majority, what becomes of the bill? Is it in File X? Does it remain with the chairman? What will be the disposition of it? I think the newer members, and perhaps some of the older ones, would relish an explanation of that circumstance. Many times in the past, that has happened. I thought perhaps you, in your position, might like to make an explanation."

The Speaker:

"In that case, the bill would remain in the committee unless the majority of the committee acted on it one way or another."

The motion by Mr. Mardesich was carried and the resolution as amended was adopted.

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

Department of State, Office of the Secretary,

To the Honorable, the Speaker of the House of Representatives,

Sir:
The Washington State Deputy Sheriffs' Association, as sponsors of Initiative Measure No. 23 to the Legislature, pursuant to the 7th Amendment of the State Constitution filed signature petitions containing 65,973 signatures with my office as of December 5, 1956 for canvassing.

The canvassing of said signatures was completed as of January 11, 1957, and the official records reveal the following:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Signatures Submitted</th>
<th>Signatures Rejected</th>
<th>Valid Signatures Accepted</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>65,973</td>
<td>6,846</td>
<td>59,127</td>
</tr>

In view of the fact that said signature petitions were filed prior to the effective date of Senate Joint Resolution No. 4, only 50,000 valid signatures were required in order for my office to certify said Initiative to the Legislature. Since the sponsors have obtained more than the necessary number of signatures to meet this requirement, I am herewith attaching a certified copy of said Initiative No. 23 to the Legislature, together with a true and correct copy of the sponsor's affidavit and Ballot Title as issued by the Attorney General.

Respectfully,

EARL COE,
Secretary of State,
Chief Election Officer,
State of Washington.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

State of Washington, Department of State,

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come

I, EARL COE, Secretary of State of the State of Washington and custodian of the Seal of said state, do hereby certify that the attached is a true and correct copy of Initiative Measure No. 23 to the Legislature together with the affidavit of sponsorship and the Attorney General's official ballot title as now on file in my office.

REPORT OF SPECIAL INTERIM COMMITTEE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Carmichael.

Mr. Carmichael:

"Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House:

"This morning you will find on your desk the report of the Game and Fish Interim Committee. This committee was appointed at the last session of the legislature. Representative John L. Cooney of Spokane was chairman; and Senator E. J. Flannagan of Toppenish; Senator H. N. "Barney" Jackson of Tacoma; Senator Paul N. Luvera of Anacortes; Representative Fred R. Mast of Seattle; and myself, Wally Carmichael from Everett, were members of that committee. The secretary of the committee was Charlie Johnson of Olympia."
The interim committee was active during the interim of the sessions. We held scheduled meetings at Aberdeen, Seattle, Spokane, Sinlahekin, Okanogan, Granite Falls, Vancouver, B.C., and Spokane, again.

The Interim Committee on Game and Fish has studied the conditions throughout the state and we have taken the views of the persons interested and affected by the game program. The meetings were scheduled well in advance, and the members of the legislature in whose districts we appeared were notified, as well as the general public.

The primary concern of the Game Department seemed to be in the immediate areas where we held our meetings. We were able to give a thorough evaluation of public impression on various phases of the Game Department activities, as well as the problems of the Game Department. The committee has decided to consolidate the findings for a better, complete picture of public opinion.

"The other member of the committee who is still here is Representative Fred Mast." The Speaker recognized Mr. Mast.

Mr. Mast:

"I would like to augment the remarks of Wally, which are very fine, by asking that you spend the fifteen or twenty minutes necessary to read this report which is written in more or less narrative form; and if you will read it you will have a very fine understanding of the Game Department, its accomplishments, and some of its problems.

Also, I believe that we would be somewhat remiss in this report if we did not say a word about the organization of the Game Department and its employees. In our trips throughout the state, it was very evident that the Game Department was working together as a unit. There was the finest loyalty among the employees I have ever seen in any organization, whether political or business. That was also true of its efficiency. There wasn't a single establishment we visited that didn't show all kinds of signs that people there knew what they were doing. They were working industriously and efficiently.

In that connection, I would like to point out that the Game Department is one organization in our state government that is truly nonpolitical. It consists of career people, people in the work because they have a devotion for it, a solid feeling for it; and I believe that I am right in saying that the average person has been there approximately ten years.

"The supervisors of the Game Department have all come up from the ranks, including the director. They have all been promoted from below. I believe that's one of the reasons there is this extreme loyalty and hard work in the department."

Another thing that is very interesting, and I think that you should know, fifty per cent of the approximately four hundred employees of the Game Department have college degrees. That's very exceptional for a government institution or department. I believe the fact that they do have these college degrees in fisheries and various other sciences makes them have a very keen devotion to their work.

"I also believe at this time we should say a few words about the director. We all agreed that he possesses an exceptional knowledge of good management and organization. That was evident by the fact the Game Department is nationally recognized as the most outstanding in the United States. It is also true that the director of the Game Department is recognized as being most outstanding in his ability; and it is recognized that he operates one of the most efficient Game Departments in the United States. His services have been sought by national organizations and, also, other game departments. He loves this country. That's the reason he has stayed here. I think that we are very fortunate to have such a man as director of our Game Department; and, also, to have these very loyal employees; and I want to say this much, we, who were on the committee, were very, very proud to go around and see how efficiently the department was operated."

Honorable John L. O'Brien,
Speaker of the House of Representatives,

Dear Sir:

In accordance with the provisions of Senate Joint Resolution No. 19, Thirty-fourth Session, I am submitting herewith the report and recommendations of the Legislative Interim Fisheries Committee on its activities and findings during the 1955-57 interim period.

Representative Chet King, Chairman, Interim Fisheries Committee.

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE THIRTY-FIFTH LEGISLATURE BY THE LEGISLATIVE INTERIM FISHERIES COMMITTEE FOR 1955-57

PROTECTION, REHABILITATION, PERPETUATION

At the close of the 1955 Legislature, as in several previous sessions, an Interim Fisheries Committee was established with a membership consisting of Representatives Chet King, Dwight S. Hawley, Max Wedekind, and Clyde J. Miller, and Senators Francis Pearson, Ted G. Peterson, and the late Harry Wall. Senator Wall's vacancy was filled in 1956 by appointment of Senator Eugene D. Ivy. The committee selected Representative King as chairman and Representative Hawley as secretary.

The purpose of the committee, as expressed in Senate Joint Resolution No. 19, was "to investigate and inspect all matters relating to the production of food fish in all waters of the state and those of bordering states and the Province of British Columbia, Canada, and report back to the Thirty-fifth session its recommendations for the protection, rehabilitation, and management of said food fish . . . . " It was empowered to negotiate with similar committees and departments, commissions, and officers of other official agencies of the federal government, the states of Oregon and Idaho, and the Province of British Columbia, and with representative groups of fishermen, sportsmen, packers, and distributors of fish, "to the end that the fishing industry may be improved and enlarged and sound basic protection given to the industry."

In carrying out these objectives, the 1955-57 Interim Fisheries Committee organized an unusually heavy and broad schedule of investigations, hearings, and field trips, and paid particular attention to fishery matters jointly affecting the states of Oregon and Washington. On several occasions the committee was joined by members of the Legislative Interim Fisheries Committee of Oregon, headed by Representative John Amacher.

Virtually every facet of the fishing industry and problems affecting the marine resources of the state were considered. In May, 1955, the committee met with commercial fishermen at Everett and Bellingham, viewed Hells Gate fishways on the Fraser River, and were conducted on a tour of the Shuswap Lake area in British Columbia by the director of the International Pacific Salmon Fisheries Commission, Loyd A. Royal. The trip occurred during the migration of several billion sockeye salmon fry which were progenies of the record 1954 Adams River run. The itinerary also included Lake Chelan, which has economic potential as a sockeye salmon producing watershed.

In August, 1955, the committee together with members of the Oregon Interim Fisheries Committee toured the Puget Sound pink salmon fishing grounds, cannery... installations at Anacortes, The Deception Pass marine research station, where pollution investigations were underway, and dedicated the new Granite Falls fishway on the South Stillaguamish River.

Other activities during the latter part of the year included an appearance before the Magnuson Foreign Affairs and Interstate Commerce Committee at Seattle in connection with the need for a permanent federal financing plan for hatcheries and fishways constructed under the Lower Columbia River Fishery Development Program. The December meeting of the Pacific Marine Fisheries Commission at Seattle was attended by a three-man subcommittee.

In January, 1956, the committee was represented at Portland hearings on Columbia River commercial fishing regulations, and at three meetings with troll fishermen on proposed regulations shortening the offshore troll salmon season. The following month it reviewed Department of Fisheries activities in a report meeting at Olympia, inspected construction work at the Green River salmon hatchery, and on February 24 held a public meeting at Seattle on sport and commercial fishing matters. A report was given by the Pollution Control Commission on its activities, and progress was cited in tightening pollution controls under the new permit system passed in 1955.

Another major inspection trip was taken in August, 1956. It included an executive session at Olympia; visits to four salmon hatcheries on the Olympic Peninsula and Willapa Harbor; the Elwha River dams, where rehabilitation of the salmon runs is underway; the Rayonier pulp mill and waste disposal system at Hoquiam; the partially completed Weyerhaeuser sulfate pulp mill at Cosmopolis; and tuna and salmon canning installations at Astoria. On the same trip meetings were held with public officials and sport fishing leaders at Port Angeles, and with representatives of the Lower Columbia River Sportsmen's Council at Long Beach. The latter was attended by the Oregon Interim Fisheries Committee. Committee representatives also were present at a meeting of sportsmen at Kelso on pollution and other problems on the Columbia River, and at a meeting of the Interim Game Fish Committee at Granite Falls.

The final and most significant meeting was held January 3-5, 1957, in Seattle. It included two public sessions, one on the subject of pollution, the other on offshore net fishing for salmon and negotiations for a pink salmon treaty with Canada. The Fisheries Department budget and program for the next biennium was reviewed by the committee, as was a special pollution research project on Olympia oysters. Many of the recommendations contained in this report are based on discussions at the January meeting.

COMMENTS

The 1951 Legislative session saw the beginning of a long-range program of fisheries rehabilitation. Its initial phase was to cover 10 years of stream restoration and hatchery expansion work. This was to be accompanied by reorganization of the Fisheries Department and expanded scientific management and research activities. The latter goals have been accomplished, and projected capital outlay work has proceeded ahead of schedule as result of appropriations at the 1953 and 1955 sessions. The State of Washington today has a superior fisheries management and research program which the Interim Fisheries Committee feels must be continued through the remainder of the 10-year period, and in most phases, beyond it.

Since 1951 the output of hatchery reared salmon has been doubled by the addition of ponds and stations. Rearing capabilities now exceed 35 million fish annually. Based on a one per cent survival rate, this means an addition of 350,000 salmon each year to escapement and the catches of sport and commercial fishermen. The state's salmon hatchery system is fast approaching the state where it indirectly will pay for itself in additive production.

In the same period 13 major fishways have been constructed. In most cases these have figured in the creation of new runs of salmon, again enriching the aggregate value of the state's fishery resources and, like hatcheries, acting as a buffer against actual and threatened losses from sources such as pollution and power dams. As an example, the Deschutes River fishway system at Olympia was started in 1951 and completed in 1954 at a cost of about $300,000. The artificially created run of salmon in the river will have amortized this cost by 1958 or sooner. This same self-paying attribute is true of the other structures which have required general fund investments in the past six years.
The main threat to salmon is the buildup of hydroelectric development. At last 14 new dams are currently under construction or in advanced engineering stage in areas where salmon migrate or spawn. To avert the full impact of these on fish life, engineering and biological research has been intensified by the Fisheries Department and coordinated with that of other agencies concerned with the perpetuation of salmon in the Pacific Northwest. Notable progress has been made in fish passage safeguards but ultimate solution to fish and power problems has not been achieved. This is a particularly impelling reason for a continuation of the present long-range program.

The Interim Committee also has been keenly interested in the pollution abatement field, and new controls adopted by the 1955 Legislature were an outgrowth of the previous committee's activities. The waste disposal permit system administered by the Pollution Control Commission has proved surprisingly effective, and more than one-half of 1,300 industries that have pollution potentials are now operating under permits that contain anti-pollution provisions. All will be covered by the end of 1957.

In 1955 the commercial fisheries production in the state had a wholesale value of $43 million, of which $34.6 million was net addition to state income. The capitalized value of the fishery income was $693 million. The capital investment in the industry, including vessels, gear, plants, equipment, inventory and oyster lands, amounted to $63.7 million. To this must be added the enormous real and intangible value of the food fish and shellfish resource as a recreational asset. The renewal benefits it affords warrants an aggressive, well-financed program to protect, restore, and perpetuate it. The committee recommendations which follow are in keeping with this principle.

RECOMMENDATIONS

The past two years have been highlighted by increasing attention to the international aspects of fisheries management. Many stocks of fish, not limited to the salmon species, are exploited by the three coastal states, Canada, and Alaska. Their future prospect depends upon unified thinking and approach by all management agencies.

Offshore Net Salmon Fishing. In 1955 and 1956 Washington gillnets appeared for the first time in history on the high seas off Cape Flattery. At the same time there was an increase in net fishing activity by the Canadian fleet in the Strait of Juan de Fuca and high seas. The potential effect on the salmon resource of this trend is certain to be detrimental if allowed to continue. Most elements of the state fishing industry are opposed to net fishing on the high seas.

At San Francisco in November, 1956, the Pacific Marine Fisheries Commission, comprising Washington, Oregon, and California, and with representatives present from both the Oregon and Washington Interim Fisheries Committees, expressed opposition to any net salmon fishing off the coasts of the three states, and by resolution asked the U.S. State Department to negotiate with the Canadian government for an agreement to prohibit such operations. This will require prohibiting legislation by all three states. The Interim Committee approved the Pacific Marine Fisheries Commission action, and voted to sponsor necessary legislation at the 1957 session.

Offshore Troll Salmon Fishing. Another resolution passed by the Pacific Marine Fisheries Commission at San Francisco recommended action to obtain the concurrence of Canada on offshore troll salmon fishing seasons. In 1957 the troll chinook season will begin April 15 for the three states and Alaska. Canada has no closed season. The Committee endorses both the principle of uniform high seas fishing regulations, and the proposal of the Pacific Marine Fisheries Commission to achieve them through high level negotiations between the two counties. These would occur simultaneously with the talks on prohibition of offshore net fishing.

Pink Salmon Treaty. A 16-man committee of industry advisors was appointed by the Governor in November, 1955, to determine whether the best interests of the state would be served by including pink salmon under international control. Two members of the Interim Committee were among the advisors. Their conclusions were affirmative. On December 28, 1956, a protocol was signed by the United States and Canada placing pink salmon under the International Pacific Salmon Fisheries Commission, which by treaty has rehabilitated and regulated the Fraser River sockeye salmon runs since 1937. Similar controls are imperative for proper management and protection of the pink salmon runs fished jointly by the two countries. The protocol will require ratification by Congress and the Canadian Parliament. The committee endorses the principle of international control and will sponsor a legislative memorial asking Congress to ratify the protocol prior to the 1957 summer fishing season.

Sport Salmon Fishing Permit. No fees are charged for sport fishing for salmon. A committee survey showed that only two of the country's maritime states, Oregon and California, have salt water fishing licenses. Opposition dominated reaction to a proposal for a license at the $2.50 level, which was the subject of a public hearing in February, 1956. At its last meeting, however, the committee acted in favor of a nominal permit for recreational salmon fishing. Such a fee would both increase revenues for support of the fisheries program and provide a better means of managing and evaluating the fishery. A $1 permit would raise about $200,000 annually.

Salmon Derbies. Oregon now prohibits salmon derbies on the Columbia River and elsewhere offering prizes larger than $25. Without specifying detailed limitations, the committee favored legislative controls over derbies, including a permit and some restrictions on the value of awards.

Area Licenses. Expansion of the commercial salmon fishing fleet has created new regulatory problems. One suggestion has been to limit the number of licenses issued for each type of gear. An attorney general's opinion solicited by the committee raised serious doubts about the constitutionality of gear limitation. Equally difficult is the practical matter of establishing standards for determining who would qualify for the licenses. The committee took no action but did instruct the Department of Fisheries to prepare a bill which would set up nontransferable net gear licenses for the various salmon fishing districts.

Pollution Commission. The Committee favors a commission appointed by the Governor to represent agriculture, health, municipalities, industry, and fisheries, and a director appointed by the commission. Legislation also should provide that the directors of the code departments who now form the commission, and all other state agencies, shall make their records and appropriate personnel available to the commission upon request for the purpose of aid and counsel.

Waste Disposal Permits. The Committee, which had been active in promoting the waste disposal permit system at the 1955 session reaffirmed its support of the permit law and commended the Pollution Control Commission for its work in activating the system.

Oyster Pollution Research. A $125,000 research program on the effects of industrial pollution on oysters is recommended. The objective would be to verify the damage done to Olympia and Pacific oysters by sulphite waste liquors and other pollutants at very low concentrations, and to form a basis for abatement and protective action.

Deception Pass Marine Research Station. The Committee recommended that the fisheries installation at Bowman's Bay, whose operation is restricted by an inadequate fresh water supply, be made available to other agencies when current research on salmon is concluded.

Oyster Leases. An amendment to the present oyster lease provisions of Chapter 79.20, R.C.W., was recommended to make renewal of deep sea leases subject to approval of the Director of Fisheries.

Water Permits. Legislation is recommended to provide for the recapture of inactive water use permits by the state.

Lower Columbia River Program. The Committee voted to again petition Congress for a permanent financing plan for the operation of hatcheries and fishways constructed under the Lower Columbia River Fishery Development Program.

Fisheries Budget. The basic operating budget submitted by the Department of Fisheries for the 1957-59 budget was endorsed, and the committee specifically voted to seek funds for the completion of the Sunset Falls fishway system on the south fork of the Skykomish River.

Rehabilitation. The Committee endorsed the Supplemental Storage project for the Yakima Valley irrigation system, as developed by the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation. This program would add approximately $2 million annually to the state's salmon production. The Committee also voted to support and seek maximum development of potential fish producing areas wherever available in the Columbia River watershed.
Sanctuaries. The Committee endorsed the principle of fish producing sanctuaries wherein industrial development is restricted, and specifically supports the objectives of the Cowlitz River sanctuary law of 1949.

That House Rule No. 19 be amended to read as follows:

Rule 19. It shall be in order for the committee on [enrolled bills and engrossed bills] legislative processes to report at any time, if no motion is before the house. [These committees] This committee may report to the house without notice by handing [their reports] its report to the chief clerk.

If the question in debate contains several points, any member may move to have the same divided; but on motion to strike out and insert, it shall not be in order to move for a division of the question; but the rejection of a motion to strike out and to insert one proposition shall not prevent a motion to strike out and to insert a different proposition.

AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE RULES

Resolution by Committee on Rules and Order:

Be It RESOLVED, by the House of Representatives, that the rules of the House for the Thirty-Fifth Session of the Legislature be amended to read as follows:

That House Rule 19 be amended to read as follows:

Rule 19. It shall be in order for the committee on [enrolled bills and engrossed bills] legislative processes to report at any time, if no motion is before the House. [These committees] This committee may report to the house without notice by handing [their reports] its report to the chief clerk.
That House Rule 20 be amended to read as follows:

Rule 20. The enrolling clerk shall be under the supervision of the committee on [enrolled bills] legislative processes when needed.

That House Rule 21 be amended to read as follows:

Rule 21. The engrossing clerk shall be under the supervision of the committee on [engrossed bills] legislative processes when needed.

That House Rule 31 be amended to read as follows:

Rule 31. If the question in debate contains several points, any member may move to have the same divided; but on motion to strike out and insert, it shall not be in order to move for a division of the question; but the rejection of a motion to strike out and to insert one proposition shall not prevent a motion to strike out and to insert a different proposition.

That House Rule 41 be amended to read as follows:

Rule 41. The previous question is not debatable and cannot be amended. The previous question shall be put in this form: "Mr. .................... demands the previous question. As many as are in favor of ordering the previous question will say 'Aye'; as many as are opposed will say 'No.' "

The results of the motion are as follows: If determined in the negative, the consideration goes on as if the motion had never been made; if decided in the affirmative, the presiding officer, without debate, proceeds to put the question.

If an adjournment is had after the previous question is ordered, [the subject comes up the first thing after the reading of the journal the next day; and the previous question still operates,] the motion or proposition on which the previous question was ordered shall be put to the house immediately following the reading of the journal on the next working day, thus making the main question privileged over all other business, whether new or unfinished.

That House Rule 69 be amended to read as follows:

Rule 69. While the house is under a call, no business shall be transacted except to receive and act on the report of the sergeant-at-arms; and no other motion shall be in order except a motion to proceed with business under the call of the house, a motion to suspend further proceedings under the call of the house, or a motion to excuse absentees, any of which motions shall be determined by [yeas and nays; and] viva voce vote unless a roll call is demanded by one-sixth of the members present. The motion to suspend further proceedings under the call or to excuse absent members shall not be adopted unless a majority of all members [elect] elected to the house vote in favor thereof.

That House Rule 86 be amended to read as follows:

Rule 86. [The bill with the amendments, if there be any attached thereto.] A bill with an amendment or amendments adopted by the house shall be sent to the committee on [engrossed bills] legislative processes, which committee shall see that all amendments are properly engrossed upon the original bill, and that the bill be returned to the chief clerk before the opening of the house on the next succeeding day.

The Sergeant at Arms announced the arrival of United States Senator Henry M. Jackson at the bar of the House, and the Speaker instructed the committee to escort Senator Jackson to a seat on the rostrum. (Applause.)

The Speaker:

"It is my honor and privilege to present to you United States Senator from the State of Washington, The Honorable Henry M. Jackson, who will now address us.

Senator Jackson:

"Mr. Speaker, Members of the Legislature, I appreciate very much your courtesy in inviting me to say a few words to you this morning.

"We are having a little lull in the United States Senate. We are working in committee on the Middle East Doctrine; and I am pleased to have this opportunity to come out to the state and to be here in Olympia. I have great respect for the House of Representatives, having served a number of terms in the national body. I know that when you want to get things done, you can do it.

"Apparently, you have very fine bipartisan cooperation here. It is almost dangerous when you get a vote of ninety-two to nothing. We hope the two party system is not breaking up. That goes for both parties.

"I would like, with your permission, to mention a few items that are of interest to all of us here in the Northwest regardless of our partisan politics. We all realize that the problem of state government has been a real challenge to the people who have to figure out budgets and taxes, primarily because the Federal Government has preempted the lucrative tax fields. We are trying to do something in that direction. I serve on the Committee on Government Operations, which has jurisdiction over legislation affecting all of the governmental agencies. In that connection, we are working on a bipartisan bill which has the support, we believe, at this time, of the Eisenhower administration, to make provision on a small scale for payment in lieu of taxes to the states in situations where the Federal Government has acquired real estate or factories since 1950, and where such acquisition has resulted in a real hardship to the local communities; and I hope that we can enact that bill at this session of the legislature.

"In the other areas where the Federal Government has been providing grants in aid to the states because, as I say, the Federal Government has preempted the field, we have a number of important bills pending. The most important is Federal aid to education.

"Now, let me be completely candid with you. We will pass a bill providing for Federal aid to the states without any strings attached if the Powell amendment is not added to it. If the Powell amendment is added again this year, there will be no
Federal aid to education. It is that simple. The President is opposed to the amendment. The Democratic leadership is opposed to the amendment, because that is not the way to deal with the problem of segregation. The Supreme Court has spoken, and it is up to the Federal Courts, now, to carry out that provision of the Supreme Court's decision.

"There are several proposals for Federal aid to education. One was submitted the day before yesterday by the President of the United States which is, in effect, a national equalization school bill like our own state equalization law. I think, according to the estimates, the President's bill will run about four million dollars a year for about four years to the State of Washington. There are other variations to that proposal that will run it up to eight million dollars.

"The President's bill is based on need, so our state, having very high educational standards, will not fare as well as some of the other states. My belief is that if a bill is passed, it will be a compromise between the two. That is, the poorer states will get a reasonable break, and the richer states will get a little more than they would under the President's proposal. I look for a compromise because the larger states like New York, Pennsylvania, and California, who do not share in proportion with what the South, for example, would get, will not support that kind of legislation unless there is some kind of compromise; and, I do believe there will be a compromise.

"We all know the importance of maintaining high educational standards because it affects the security of this country. It was brought home rather vividly to me this last week in connection with a meeting that I participated in with reference to our North Atlantic Treaty Organization on scientific and technical aid. Four of the world's greatest scientists came from the city of Budapest. They were Edward Teller, Von Karmen, the noted aeronautical engineer—Teller, as you know, is the great scientist who developed the hydrogen bomb when others said it couldn't be done—and a man by the name of Wiegner, a noted physicist. The fourth member of that group, I regret to inform you, the world's greatest living mathematician, Dr. John Von Veumann, is dying of cancer at Walter Reed General Hospital. These men all came from within a few blocks of one another. They are the men who have been responsible for our air-atomic superiority. They have provided the leadership that has made possible that superiority.

"We are living in an age when national security depends on scientific achievement; and unless we exploit to the maximum the potential geniuses we have in this country the balance of military power could shift at any time.

"If there is anything I remember from my three week's trip to the Soviet Union last summer, it is that the Russians are doing everything they can to subsidize to the maximum their best minds in the country, and at the same time to eliminate all illiteracy in the Soviet Union. They have a fantastic educational program, and it is paying off as far as scientific achievement is concerned. I would add that it is also their Achilles heel because you can't train a great population to think logically, and at the same time swallow their system. There are big cracks in the Soviet setup because of this complete contradiction.

"Now, I would like for a moment to turn to the Federal highway program. We are fortunate in this state to have a distinguished Director of Highways. I have had the privilege of working with him, and, of course, we all respect Bill Bugge; and his new national job shouldn't hurt the state of Washington. Maybe we can get the formula changed a little now and bring about a little more equity, because we have the problem of greater distances and greater space in highway construction but we don't have the population to support it, so we haven't fared as well as we should. I particularly want to compliment the State Highway Department for utilizing the Section 109A funds of the Federal Highway Act. As you know, this section makes it possible for the state of Washington to receive grants from the Federal Government to acquire rights-of-way. By utilizing that section, you can acquire title immediately, as I understand it, rather than to be delayed under the provisions of the State Constitution which requires a complete adjudication of the matter before you can acquire title. This should help to speed up the highway program. The state of Washington is the first and only state, as of last week, to utilize Section 109A of the Federal Highway Act.

"We are in the process of working on our new public works budget. The indications are that we will have taken care of virtually all of the harbor projects—we used to call them pork barrel projects, but they are really not as those of us who have served in the legislature or the national body know. They are really important, and we will have taken care of all of the projects from Blaine on the Canadian Border all the way to the Columbia River. I think it will clean up most of the important waterway projects in the state for some time, although we still have a few more to be authorized.

"In connection with our Power Development Program, I hope that we can get a start on the John Day Dam. This is the next large dam on the Columbia River that should be undertaken. The project will cost about $300 million, in round figures, and will provide around 1,100,000 kilowatts of power.

"The Forest Service has a large sum in for recreational development. They expect to spend between now and 1962 about $85 million. We hope that a good part of this will be utilized in the Pacific Northwest where we have a wonderful opportunity to improve our recreational facilities and our national forests. In the long run, the Federal Government and the local state governments should profit by this type of investment. It will bring more tourists who will pay taxes locally to the state of Washington. We have some of our finest summer and winter sports areas in our national forests.

"In this same connection, I should mention at this time the situation at Mount Rainier National Park. We hope, despite opposition from the Parks Service, to obtain funds to get a start, at least, on overnight facilities in Rainier National Park. We have the greatest summer and winter playground area in the entire United States, if not the world; and this, too, can be a wise and prudent investment on the part of the Federal Government. I would like to see an overnight facility in the Alpine areas of Rainier National Park. The opposition is all coming from outside the state of Washington. It is organized and inspired on the grounds that it will interfere with the plans for conservation. I think I am a pretty good conservationist, but I must say that it would only seem reasonable that a National Park should be made available to all of our citizens. Those who like to hike twenty-five or thirty miles a day should have that opportunity, and if some of them just want to sit out on a porch all day overlooking the sight they ought to have that opportunity, too. I think our great scenic areas, our great National Parks, should be managed in such a way that all of our citizens, regardless of their desires, should be able to participate in the program, and I am quite confident that we will be able to do something on that.

"Now, in the course of your session you will be called upon, I believe, to consider legislation for adjustment in acreage limitations in the Columbia Basin area. The Department of Interior has held hearings. Our Committee on Interior held hearings last year. I believe there should be at least some upward adjustment in the present land limitation law. I feel that it will not be possible, however, for Congress to enact legislation before you adjourn. It occurs to me that the wise thing to do would be to make the adjustments in state law contingent upon the action taken by the Congress.

"One of the great problems, economic problems, that we have here in the state of Washington is the tremendous change that is faced by the Boeing Aircraft Company. It is, I think, our largest, single industry without any doubt. I am reasonably familiar with the job they are doing because of my work on the Aeronautical Subcommittee. By the middle of 1958 they will have about sixty thousand employees in the construction of the B-52 here and thirty thousand at Wichita, or a total of ninety thousand. The Bemarc air missile, which will have a longer range than the Viking missile, will be produced in the state of Washington. This will add another four thousand employees. It will certainly tax the human and economic resources of this state, and it is a great challenge we face to maintain some reasonable production level for the years ahead. I would hate to think what would happen if we returned to the production figures of 1948-49, when there were about twelve thousand people employed. We wouldn't want that to happen overnight. But we can say this—the record of the Boeing people, and the record of the University of Washington and Washington State College in providing great aeronautical engineers, gives us great hope, because out of our two institutions, primarily from the state of Washington, due to a grant by the Guggenheim Foundation, we produced engineers—men and women—who designed and built the great bombers that carried us through World War II—the B-17 and the B-29; and the bombers that have helped provide our air-atomic retaliatory striking force since 1952—the B-50 and the B-47, and now the B-52. Most of the people who made possible the designs that resulted in the construction of our air-atomic retaliatory striking force came out of the University of Washington Aeronautical School of Engineers and from Washington State College, and I do believe, with the record that we have built in this state, that we should continue to maintain a high level of production in the years ahead; and we hope it will be in the type of aircraft that will be used in a peaceful world.
“The last thing I would like to mention is our Atomic Energy Program. I was very pleased to learn that Governor Rosellini had advised the legislature in his inaugural address that he was considering setting up an advisory council on atomic energy matters. It may be that the legislature will want to pass some legislation as well, I don’t know; but I do know that we have a tremendous opportunity here in the Northwest to utilize the atom for peaceful purposes, as well as for possible military application. The power field is in its infancy. At the present time, the peaceful atom is not an economical power atom. The best way to express it, I guess, is to say that the automobile is expensive, and the fuel is cheap. Uranium is a very cheap fuel. It costs about twenty dollars for a pound of uranium, compared with ten thousand dollars for a like amount of energy in coal or oil, but the trouble is that the plant is very expensive. We do not have cheap atomic power at this time, and probably will not have, until we are able to bring about the control of the hydrogen bomb, known as thermo-nuclear energy. This involves a lot of serious problems, such as controlling heat at 100 million degrees Fahrenheit, and providing shielding that will contain such enormous amounts of heat. But in this state we have the great talent at the General Electric operation at Hanford of some of the top nuclear physicists and chemists in the country who are indispensable to a well-rounded atomic program. At the Bremerton Navy Yard we are in the process of training the technicians to construct atomic naval vessels of various types and designs, so this state will be in the field in a big way. We have been in it, from the standpoint of military application, since 1943.

“The peaceful atom, in the long run, offers a great opportunity for the people of this state. We have passed, or did pass last Congress, funds to provide grants in aid to our colleges for work on experimental nuclear reactors. The University of Washington has received funds and Washington State College is in the process of receiving such funds.

“You have a lot of technical problems in connection with workmen’s compensation laws that will need to be revised to meet the problems inherent in the atomic age, and I am confident that our state will take advantage of this great opportunity that we have.

“I want to thank you again for this privilege of being with you, and wish all of you the best of luck during this session. I hope it will be possible for you to take care of all your constituents at home, regardless of the amount of money they may need, and at the same time reduce taxes.” (Applause.)

The Speaker:

“Thank you very much, Senator Jackson, for your very fine message. The committee will now come forward and escort Senator Jackson from the rostrum.”

The Speaker instructed the committee to escort Senator Jackson from the rostrum to the Governor’s office.

The committee retired.

SPEAKER’S PRIVILEGE

POINT OF INFORMATION

The Speaker recognized Mr. Clark (Newman H.):

Mr. Clark:

"Would Mrs. Hansen yield to a question?"

Mrs. Hansen:

"Yes."

Mr. Clark:

"Would you state for the record what the department means by the term 'limited quantities'?"

Mrs. Hansen:

"Well, 'limited quantities' means exactly what it says. In other words, you might need the amount of material that you were going to use for this particular purpose. I don't think the State Highway Commission wants to get into the business of being a contractor or being the source of acquisition of unlimited materials, but they do want to be able to allow the PUD's, the cities, and the counties to acquire the materials that they need for specific purposes at a specific time."

Further debate ensued.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The committee retired.

The Sergeant at Arms of the House announced the arrival of Major General William W. Quinn at the bar of the House, and the Speaker instructed the committee to escort him to a seat on the rostrum beside the Speaker. (Applause.)

The Speaker:

"At this time, it is my honor and privilege to present to you Major General William W. Quinn, the new Commanding General of Fort Lewis, Washington, and the Fourth Infantry Division."

Major General Quinn:

"Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen:

"This is something new for me to be on the floor of the House of this fine state, particularly without having to go through a knock-down, drag-out campaign to get here. I just seemed to walk right in.

"In that connection—walking in—the escort gentlemen apparently have had military experience because they apprehended me in the hall like three MP's, and I had no choice but to come along.

"I am greatly honored to have this opportunity to greet you. I am new in the area, having been here about a week, and today I came to Olympia to call on the Mayor and the Governor. This is an extra-curricular activity that I find myself enjoying at the moment; but while I am here I would like to cordially and sincerely invite you, particularly while you are here during this term, to visit us at Fort Lewis. We have a tremendous installation. It is one that will eventually be a model of all the Army posts in the United States. We are spending approximately $13 million a year in new, permanent construction and in beautification of the Post, so please come out and see us. It is quite possible that besides the tour you may be treated to some Army chow, which is still good.

"I would like to say another reason we would like you to come out is to know us, because one thing we want in the Army, as well as in any military service, is not to be considered a foreign element in the community. We want to become assimilated and integrated. We want to belong to the local clubs and churches and to be a part of the community. There are some 35,000 of us at Fort Lewis. That includes principals and dependents.

"I can't go without telling you something that happened the first night I was here. A few officers were talking and I had just recently come from Colorado, which is a terrific state—the people are wonderfully friendly—and I was doing a lot of bragging about them. Finally one of the officers said, 'You haven't seen anything yet. You'll have to cut out this Colorado stuff because the people in Washington are the friendliest and most wonderful people in the West. The further west you go, the better the people are.' Well, this is about the end of the line, about as far west as you can go.

"I would like to thank you, again, and you, Mr. Speaker, for this honor and this opportunity to say hello to you. Come see us. Thank you." (Applause.)
The Speaker instructed the committee to come forward and escort Major General Quinn from the rostrum to the reception room. The committee retired.

POINT OF INFORMATION

The Speaker recognized Mr. Petrie.

Mr. Petrie:
"Will the gentleman from Clallam, Mason, and Jefferson yield to a question?

The Speaker:
"Will the gentleman yield?"

Mr. Savage:
"Gladly."

Mr. Petrie:
"Mr. Savage, do you have a written opinion from the Attorney General which removes any doubt as to the constitutionality of this provision?"

Mr. Savage:
"I have two old opinions that I have read. I didn’t get a new one. The old opinions, one was 1953 and one was 1955, refer to such general elections as being rather open in interpretation. The only opinion I have on the late one is the verbal opinion."

MOTION

Mr. Petrie moved that House Bill No. 45 be re-referred to the Committee on Education.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Johnston (Elmer E.).

Mr. Johnston:
"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Mr. Savage a question."

The Speaker:
"Will the gentleman yield?"

Mr. Savage:
"Yes."

Mr. Johnston:
"Mr. Savage, do you think there is anything about this amendment that would jeopardize the possibility of bond issues being authorized during the period this law might be decided in the courts, or that we might be caught in the same situation with this act as we were with the Ryder Act?"

Mr. Savage:

"Well, we felt if the committee amendment putting in the word 'school' were adopted, that would be the case. We felt it would be jeopardizing the bond issues and levies. That is why we asked you to turn down the House committee amendment, after we obtained all these opinions, and we then suggested this amendment that is before us now."

Mr. Johnston:

"In other words, Mr. Savage, there is a question that the bond obligations of the school districts would be affected by the passage of this bill and the procedure that might be taken under the bill?"

Debate ensued.

MOTION

Mr. Savage moved that further consideration of House Bill No. 45 on second reading be deferred and that the bill retain its place on tomorrow's second reading calendar.

The Speaker:

"You now have two motions of equal rank. We will have to vote down one motion first. The question before the House is the motion by Mr. Petrie that House Bill No. 45 be re-referred to the Committee on Education."

The motion by Mr. Petrie to re-refer House Bill No. 45 to the Committee on Education was lost.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Savage, the House deferred further consideration of House Bill No. 45 on second reading and the bill was ordered to retain its place on tomorrow's calendar for second reading.

SPEAKER'S PRIVILEGE

The Speaker observed within the bar of the House, the 1956 Washington Dairy Princess, Jean Ostrich, and appointed Representatives Rosenberg and Bozarth to escort her to the rostrum beside the Speaker. (Applause.)

I have a record here of a great number of her achievements. She has traveled some ten thousand miles as a messenger of good will and ambassador for our dairy farmers in the State of Washington. She has made appearances in thirty Washington cities and she went to Chicago recently to represent the State of Washington at the National Dairy Show. It is now my honor and pleasure to present to you Miss Jean Ostrich."

TWENTY-THIRD DAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1957

MOTION

Mr. Clark (Cecil C.) moved that House Bill No. 200 be re-referred to Committee on Ways and Means, Subcommittee on Appropriations. Debate ensued.

MR. SPEAKER:

We, a majority of your Committee on Social Security and Public Assistance, to whom was referred House Bill No. 200, amending Public Assistance Code, have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass with the following amendments:

It shall be the duty of recipients of public assistance to notify the department within thirty days of the receipt or possession of all income or resources not previously declared to the department, and any failure to so report shall be prima facie evidence of fraud.

"Debts due the state pursuant to the provisions of this section, may be recovered by the state by deduction from the subsequent assistance payments to such persons or may be recovered by a civil action instituted by the attorney general: Provided, That if the portion of any public assistance payment to which the recipient is not entitled is less than ten dollars and is erroneously paid to the recipient as a result of departmental error or oversight, such amount shall not be recovered by the state by deduction from subsequent assistance payments to such persons."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Representative Adams.

Mr. Adams:

"Would the gentleman, Mr. Beierlein, yield to a question?"

Mr. Beierlein:

"I will."

Mr. Adams:

"This portion is not necessary in this bill, is it? It can be done without it, isn't that correct?"

Mr. Beierlein:

"Well, Dr. Adams, I'm not so sure whether it can or not. There is legislation before Congress at the present time which has a very good chance of becoming law at this session, so I was assured by the United States Senator. I would rather have this in here to make sure that our state law conforms with the federal act. The section you read, in a general way perhaps, will accomplish it, but I know the department feels that way about it, and I prefer to leave it in if this House sees fit to do so."

Debate ensued.

Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Sandison demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

My motion and vote to strike this part of House Bill No. 200 was made because the effect of this change in the public assistance law can be carried out without change in the present law. This change to which I object would serve no purpose and would be confusing to the recipients of public assistance. I believe in the principle of permitting some earned income by recipients of public assistance.

Alfred O. Adams.

"This is serious business and entertainment is out of place."

The Speaker:

"I agree with you, Mr. Clark. This is serious business."

MOTION

Mr. Mardesich moved that the House grant its consent to Mr. Vane to withdraw his motion.

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Timm.

Mr. Timm:

"Point of order. Are we working on a rule now that would require a two-thirds vote for suspension of the rules?"
The Speaker:

"No, the gentleman wished to withdraw his motion and you objected, so the motion was then made that Mr. Vane's request be granted by the House."

The motion by Mr. Mardesich was carried on a rising vote, and Mr. Vane was given permission to withdraw his motion.

Mr. Mardesich demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Harris demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the motion of Mr. Harris, and the amendment not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 56; absent or not voting, 1.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Bajema, Beierlein, Bernethy, Bigley, Bozarth, Braun (Eric D.), Brouillet, Brown (Gordon J.), Burns, Campbell, Carmichael, Carty, Donohue, Dore, Dowd, Durkan, Edwards, Epton, Farrington, Gallagher, Gleason, Goldmark, Hansen (Julia Butler), Hanson (Herb), Henry, Hurley, King, Kink, Klein, Litchman, Mardesich, Mast, McCormack (Mike), McCormick (W. Mrs. Swayze presented the following amendment:

Strike the whole of section 4 and renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

QUESTION OF CONSIDERATION

Mr. Mardesich raised the question of consideration on the amendment.

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be the question of consideration.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mrs. Swayze:

"Point of information, Mr. Speaker. Does anyone have the privilege of explaining the amendment?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Not when the question of consideration is raised. A vote 'aye' is a vote to consider the amendment."

The House refused to consider the amendment by Mrs. Swayze on a rising vote.

On motion of Mr. Beierlein, the committee amendment to line 28, page 8 of the original bill was adopted.

Mr. Ruoff moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Amend section 3, as amended, after the words "less than" in the sixth from the last line of the amended section strike the word "ten" and insert in lieu thereof the word "fifteen"
QUESTION OF CONSIDERATION

The Clerk proceeded to read the title.
Representative Adams:
"Just a moment. Mr. Speaker, I have another amendment"
Mr. Adams moved the adoption of the following amendment:
Strike the whole of section 4 and renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER
The Speaker recognized Mr. Mardesich:
"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. The Clerk has already started to read the title. An amendment to the bill is no longer in order."
The Speaker recognized Mr. Johnston (Elmer E.):
Mr. Johnston:
"Mr. Speaker, the amendment was before the House as soon as Dr. Adams left his seat. Just because he wasn't on the rostrum shouldn't preclude him from presenting the amendment."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER
The Speaker:
"It has been the procedure in the past sessions to be lenient in a situation where just the last line of the bill is read, as is the case here, and then permit amendments to the whole bill. However, this amendment appears to be simply a rewriting of the amendment presented previously by Mrs. Swayze which the House refused to consider, so I am going to rule that the clerk should continue with the reading of the title; that the reading of the title has started, and it is too late for amendments to the bill."

On motion of Mr. Beierlein, the committee amendments to the title were adopted.
House Bill No. 200 was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules and Order for third reading.

MOTION
On motion of Mr. Sandison, the House deferred further consideration of today's calendar, and the bills were ordered to retain their places on tomorrow's calendar for second and third reading.

POINT OF INFORMATION

The Speaker recognized Mrs. Swayze.

Mrs. Swayze:

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege. I was on my feet for the purpose of making a motion when you recognized Mr. Sandison. May I have the privilege of suspending the rules and returning House Bill No. 200 to second reading for the purpose of amendment?"

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mrs. Hansen (Julia Butler).

Mrs. Hansen:

"Point of order. Could not Mrs. Swayze have spoken against the motion to suspend the rules?"
RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Here is what the Speaker did two years ago on motions to suspend the rules. I permitted one on the side moving to suspend the rules to present his or her arguments, and also permitted one person from the other side to speak in opposition to suspension of the rules. Sometimes a motion is made to suspend the rules and the House doesn’t know for what purpose the motion is made. We thought this ruling would be fair to both sides concerned. That is the way we operated two years ago, and I feel that now we should operate in the same manner. If you move to suspend the rules, it is well for the House to know why the motion is made.

"Mrs. Swayze raised the question of personal privilege, as to why she was not recognized. It is within the prerogative of the Speaker to recognize those who may speak. Under that prerogative, Mrs. Swayze was not recognized. However, I am now recognizing her."

Mrs. Swayze moved that the rules be suspended and Engrossed House Bill No. 200 be returned to second reading for the purpose of amendment. Debate ensued.

L.), McFadden, Miller, Mundy, Munro, Munsey, Neva, Nicholson, Olsen, Petrich, Rasmussen, Rosenberg, Ruoff, Sandison, Savage, Sawyer, Stocker, Testu, Tisdale, Twidwell, Vane, Wedekind, Young, Mr. Speaker—55.

Mr. Stokes demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 200, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 79; nays, 18; absent or not voting, 1.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Ahlquist, Anderson, Bajema, Beierlein, Bernethy, Bigley, Bozarth, Braun (Eric D.), Brouillet, Brown (Gordon J.), Burns, Campbell, Carmichael, Carty, Clark (Cecil C.), Donohue, Dowd, Durkan, Edwards, Elway, Epton, Farrington, Gallagher, Gleason, Hansen (Julia Butler), Hanson (Herb), Hawley, Henry, Huntley, Hurley, Johnson (Ray W.), King, Kink, Kirk, Klein, Leland, Lindell, Litchman, Lybecker, Mardesich, Mast, McCormack (Mike), McCormick (W. L.), McFadden, Miller, Mundy, Munro, Neva, Nicholson, Olsen, Petrich, Rasmussen, Rosenberg, Ruoff, Sandison, Savage, Sawyer, Shropshire, Stocker, Stokes, Strom, Swayze, Testu, Tisdale, Twidwell, Vane, Wang, Wedekind, Wintler, Winton, Young, Mr. Speaker—79.

Engrossed House Bill No. 200, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I wish to explain to the members of this House why I voted for House Bill No. 200. I voted for it because it does nice things for a lot of people and everybody enjoys doing nice things. I voted for House Bill No. 200 because I have utmost faith in the ability and integrity of my friends of the majority party.

I voted for House Bill No. 200 because the majority party, having the duty of providing the legislative program, has given due consideration, I am certain, to the impact of this act which liberalizes the second largest spending item in our budget. In fact, they assured me of this when I wanted to give the appropriations committee a chance to study House Bill No. 200 before its passage.

I voted for House Bill No. 200 because the majority party has most certainly synchronized these added costs into their avowed plan, which is in accord with my party’s thinking, and which their leader, the Governor, has on numerous occasions reaffirmed, once before this very Body; namely, “a balanced budget with no new taxes.”

Therefore, I am going along with them in their wisdom on House Bill No. 200, but I must advise the members of this House that if the majority party, with all its wisdom, makes some miscalculations and expenditures build up to more than present income, I will not go along with them and vote for any new tax.

This is their problem. May Heaven guide them.

CECEL C. CLARK.

SPEAKER'S PRIVILEGE
The Speaker observed within the bar of the House Lawrence Leahy, Grand Worthy President of the Fraternal Order of Eagles of Washington, and appointed Representatives King and Young and the Sergeant-at-Arms to escort him to a seat on the rostrum beside the Speaker. (Applause.)

The Speaker:
"At this time, it is my honor and privilege to present to you Mr. Leahy."

Mr. Leahy:
"Mr. Speaker, Members of the House of the Washington State Legislature:
I want you to know that I sincerely appreciate this opportunity to come and say 'good morning' on behalf of myself, individually, and on behalf of the nearly one million members of the Fraternal Order of Eagles in our national jurisdiction. For the last six months, I have been traveling in excess of one hundred thousand miles over our national jurisdiction and one of the outstanding occasions was in Washington, D. C., in the holding of a regional conference in which about one thousand leaders of Eagles' sections were attending. We had that Sunday afternoon as our main speaker, the senior senator from the State of Washington, the Honorable Warren G. Magnuson. In his talk to these people in the East, he explained in some detail the fine legislative record that the legislature of the State of Washington has made in the field of social security, and he pointed out to them that much of the basic law in the other states of the Union and in the Federal Government came, basically, in the beginning, from the State of Washington.
I am here this morning on behalf of the approximately one million members of the Fraternal Order of Eagles to express individually and collectively, our thanks to you for your foresight, for your efforts; and I respectfully request and urge that you remember the historic background that this fine Body has on behalf of the people of this great state and to keep up the humanitarian program that this state so ably began, and to keep in mind the liberal and progressive qualities that this state has always stood for.

"On behalf of the members of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, I thank you for your very, very fine courtesy of the past. We wish to come back in the future. Thank you very kindly."

The Speaker instructed the committee to come forward and escort Mr.
Leahy from the rostrum.

The committee retired. (Applause.)

Mr. Clark (Newman H.) moved the adoption of the following amendment:

In section 1, page 2, line 8 of the original bill, being page 2, line 18 of the printed bill, after the word "merchandise" and before the period (.) insert the following:

"Provided, That there is exempted herefrom such employees in retail establishments when one hundred or less are employed by any establishment or employer"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Tisdale.

Mr. Tisdale:

"Would the gentleman yield to a question? Mr. Clark, do you know that you are discriminating against the multimillionaires in this state?"

Mr. Clark (Newman H.):

"Obviously."

Debate ensued.

Mr. Brown demanded the previous question and the demand was lost.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Clark (Newman H.):

"Would the gentleman, Mr. Durkan, yield to a question?"

Mr. Durkan:

"Yes."

Mr. Clark:

"Regarding the terms 'extra-hazardous,' and the way it surreptitiously crept into the law in contradiction to the facts, as explained by Mr. Rosenberg, would you define what is extra-hazardous in the employment of retail clerks?"

Mr. Durkan:

"First of all, I don't think there was anything surreptitious, as you say, about this term being there; and, secondly, I think the word 'extra-hazardous' is ill-defined, ill-used, and perhaps we don't even need the word 'extra-hazardous.' We of the Democratic party are in favor of social legislation to protect all people of this state. We feel that they need help. Now, the matter of extra-hazardous was used in bill drafting. Within that, you know as an attorney, there is a matter of degree, with clerks being perhaps way low in degree of hazardous work, while loggers and others are extremely high. The term 'extra-hazardous' was simply a term to get the meaning in and get the thing going."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Clark (Newman H.):

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. The gentleman agreed to submit to question and he has not answered it at all."

The Speaker:

"That isn't a point of order. He can answer it at his own discretion."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Hawley.

Mr. Hawley:

"Mr. Durkan, you are an attorney, I believe?"

Mr. Durkan:

"The last I heard, yes."

Mr. Hawley:

"Is it not true that anyone who might be injured at the present time and who is not covered under this bill has a course of action against his employer?"

Mr. Durkan:

"That's right, Mr. Hawley. However, I would like to point out that the remedy afforded by legislation is more conducive to the employee who, many times, does not have funds to go to legal counsel such as I and pay the attorney's fees. Our rates are high. I admit it."

Debate ensued.

Mr. Johnston (Elmer E.) demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Adams demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment by Mr. Clark (Newman H.) and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 51; nays, 45; absent or not voting, 2.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Anderson, Beierlein, Bozarth, Braun (Eric D.), Canfield, Chyttil, Clark (Cecil C.), Clark (Newman H.), Copeland, Donohue, Dore, Eldridge, Elway, Evans, Folsom, Goldsworthy, Griffith, Harris, Hawley, Huntley, Hurley, Johnson (Ray W.), Johnston (Elmer E.), Kirk, Leland, Lindell, Lybecker, Mardesich, Mast, May, McFadden, Moriarty, Morphis, Mundy, Oakes, Ovenell, Pence, Petrie, Rickdall, Ruoff, Shropshire, Siler, Smith, Stokes, Strom, Timm, Vane, Wang, Winton—51.

Debate ensued.

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment by Mr. Ruoff, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 39; nays, 57; absent or not voting, 2.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Bajema, Beierlein, Bernethy, Bigley, Bozarth, Brouilet, Brown (Gordon J.), Burns, Campbell, Canfield, Carmichael, Carty, Donohue, Dore, Dowd, Durkan, Edwards, Epton, Farrington, Gallagher, Gleason, Goldmark, Griffith, Hansen (Julia Butler), Hanson (Herb), Henry, Hurley, King, Kink, Klein, Litchman, Mardesich, McCormick (Mike), McCormick (W. "Sec. 2. The recovery provided by this chapter shall be limited to the actual damages suffered in an amount not to exceed three hundred dollars. In any action brought under this act the court may award reasonable attorney's fees to the prevailing party.

"Sec. 3. Nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to limit the liability of the child under eighteen years or the parent or parents of such child that may be imposed under statutory or common law."

FRED H. DORE, Chairman,

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Mr. Dore moved the adoption of the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Clark (Newman H.):

"Would the gentleman, Mr. Dore, yield to two questions?"

Mr. Dore:

"I will yield to two questions, but one at a time, please."

Mr. Clark:

In order that we may have for the record the intent of the Legislature in the passage of this act, and I am fully in favor of the bill as amended by the committee, do you know of any statutory or common law as used in the language in section 3 that now exists?"

Mr. Dore:

"Well, yes, we have the law today what you and I know as the Family Car Doctrine which may be effectuated by a boy or girl under eighteen years of age involved in an automobile accident. That, of course, would not preclude recovery under this act."

Mr. Clark:

"Then you have partially answered my second question. Do you, you and the committee and the Legislature, if this bill is passed, refer to decisions in this or other states under the Family Car Doctrine, or other decisions pertinent, as a development of the common law?"

Mr. Dore:

"Excuse me, would you repeat the question?"

Mr. Clark:

"Is it then the intent of the Legislature in the passage of this bill to include in the words used, and as referenced in section 3, 'common law' the cases that have developed under the Family Car Doctrine in this and other states and on other matters of court decision as referenced by that phrase 'common law'?

Mr. Dore:
"Frankly, Mr. Clark, I don't see any problem involved here. The common law and statutory law pertaining to minors remain the same except in this one, very limited violation, acts done wilfully and maliciously. Then they may collect in amounts up to three hundred dollars. Are you asking if case law from our states or other jurisdictions would be evidentiary in any case in this state?"

Mr. Clark:
"Not evidentiary, but usable under the construction that they are not affected by this bill."

Mr. Dore:
"In answer to that, I believe Mr. Clark wants me to say this, this bill will not affect the existing common law or statutory law in the state of Washington. Is that what you want me to say?"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Canfield.

Mr. Canfield:
"Will the gentleman, Mr. Litchman, yield? In this bill, in the first line, the first thing that struck me was that the child had to be declared delinquent. Now, supposing the child were not declared delinquent, but still caused damage? Would this act apply?"

Mr. Litchman:
"Well, my interpretation of the law is that a delinquent, of course, is one who violates the law. We have provisions which define a juvenile delinquent, and under the justice court act it states 'he who shall wilfully or maliciously cause personal injury'.
Therefore, the child would be considered a delinquent."

Mr. Canfield:
"He is not a delinquent until so adjudged by the juvenile court?"

Mr. Litchman:
"That is right."

Mr. Canfield:
"The second question I want to ask you is this, the latter part of the bill refers to discretionary powers of the court, which I think is a fine thing, but I find nothing in there allowing the court the discretion to assess the child. The burden is all on the parent. Is there such a thing as a nondelinquent parent and a delinquent child?
Should not the judge have some discretion? Should he not have the discretion to assess penalty against the child? He may be earning wages and have money and responsibility.
Should he not possibly be assessed some responsibility by the judge under the court's discretion?"

Mr. Litchman:
"I do not know whether I follow your question exactly, Representative Canfield. In regard to your question, however, under the present law, you know, if a child has any properties or assets, of course he would be civilly liable for the acts done and, of course, the suit would be commenced in justice court or superior court depending on the limits or the amount of recovery requested."

Mr. Canfield:
"Mr. Litchman, I just wanted to raise the question if this act does not lay the entire responsibility upon the parent with no discretionary power to the judge to levy the fine or penalty against the child?"
Mr. Litchman:

"Well, I do not see how it would affect the judge in his decision at all. He could always suggest to the other party to bring the action in superior court outside of the juvenile court jurisdiction against the child where the child does have assets."

Mr. Canfield:

"Well, if they do not have that discretion, I simply want to bring out that sometimes the bad seed does not spring from the parent; they might come from our parents, if I might be pardoned that reference."

Debate ensued.

Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The committee amendment was adopted.

House Bill No. 48 was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules and Order for third reading.

"Yes."

Mr. Clark:
"In view of your comments favorable to the bill, is it not entirely consistent in voting for this bill that we likewise support House Bill No. 39 pertaining to widows of judges who die in office?"

Mr. Rasmussen:
"Yes, Mr. Clark, if that bill were to be written in such a manner that they would participate for two years in the salary or retirement. In that case I would say 'yes,' but in that case the woman has been married to a judge for ten years; she has already participated in his salary and she is able to participate for the next thirty years to the extent of one half of his retirement. I think that that's stretching it a little far."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Sandison, the House adjourned until twelve o'clock noon, Monday, February 11, 1957.

JOHN L. O'BRIEN, Speaker.

S. R. HOLCOMB, Chief Clerk.
TWENTY-NINTH DAY

NOON SESSION

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,

The Speaker called the House to order at twelve o'clock noon.
The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representative Johnston (Elmer E.) who was excused previously.
The flag of our country was escorted to the rostrum by a Sergeant at Arms color guard.
Prayer was offered by the Reverend Richard C. Wenger, Pastor of the Church of the Brethren of Olympia.
The reading clerk proceeded to read the journal of the proceedings of the previous day. On motion of Mr. Young, further reading was dispensed with and the journal was ordered to stand approved.

SPEAKER'S PRIVILEGE

The Speaker observed within the bar of the House Mr. David Hardy, Assistant Publisher of Life Magazine, and Miss Chan, and instructed the Sergeant at Arms to escort them to seats on the rostrum beside the Speaker.

The Speaker:
"Mr. Hardy is here in connection with the picture that is to be shown tonight, "Our Living Future." It is presented to us through the courtesy of Life Magazine and apparently we are the first legislature to be shown this picture. Mr. Hardy has done extensive travel throughout the United States, and I thought it would be of interest to you if Mr. Hardy would say a few words about the picture."

Mr. Hardy:
"Mr. Speaker, Members of the House:
"It is a great honor and pleasure for us, both the staff of Action and Life, and the American Council to Improve Our Neighborhoods for what I think is a historic occasion brought about by your enthusiasm and interest in this program. The show called Our Living Future will last about an hour and ten minutes. It will be the first time, so far as I know, movies have ever been shown in any state assembly building as an entertainment and as an educational medium. The program deals with the cities of America. A considerable part of it was filmed here in the State of Washington. In the filming, such towns as Winlock, Snoqualmie, and others were visited. We went to Seattle and the Jackson Street area. The movie talks about problems of bad housing, of improving living conditions in old cities, and then about city finances, the question of suburban growth and development, and the legislation which is so badly needed in many states to tie the cities and the legislators together. I hope very much you will be here for this show. We are also inviting the Senate for the joint session. The show may sound like a serious subject. We do show four movies and about two hundred still pictures, many of which were collected throughout the State of Washington. The program is, in fact, quite entertaining.

"One final point I would like to make because of the name of your Speaker. If any of you in the audience think I sound like an Englishman, this is a most deadly insult because I was actually born in Ireland." (Applause.)

The Speaker instructed the Sergeant at Arms to escort Mr. Hardy and Miss Chan from the bar of the House.

POINT OF INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Petrie.

Mr. Petrie:
"Would either the committee chairman or one of the sponsors yield to a question?"

Mr. Savage:
"Yes, I will yield."

Mr. Petrie:
"Mr. Savage, I am in sympathy with the intent here but I am just wondering whether, in the event publication were made on a Saturday morning, and also on the following Monday morning, would that be in compliance with the intent of this particular measure?"

Mr. Savage:
"Well, that would not be complying with the intent of it. Now, I think the gentleman may have a possible point but it is really the intent of the committee to make these a week apart, like a weekly would be. Our wording does not require that, but that was our intention and it might be that they could put it in the last of one week and the first of the next, but we did not think it would be done that way."
Mr. Petrie:

"If I may ask you, then, it is the intent of the committee that these two publications be a week apart, is that correct?"

Mr. Savage:

"Yes."

The motion was carried and the committee amendment to section 1, line 12 of the original bill was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Petrie.

Mr. Petrie:

"I just don't understand this amendment, frankly. The last two and a half lines are in quotes and then it has brackets around the words 'for at the rate of not less than twelve dollars and fifty cents for one-half day of four hours, and'. Is that last in the bill now and you are going to strike it, or is that something you want to put in the bill?"

The Speaker:

"He has raised a question about the brackets on the last part of your amendment, Mr. Tisdale."
Mr. Tisdale:

"Well, it is inserted in lieu of the thirty dollars for the salary, the way it was written, and we inserted twenty-five dollars. The twelve-fifty has to do with these expenses for a half a day. Is that satisfactory?"

Mr. Petrie:

"May I suggest to accomplish what you wish, you should either strike the section which would restore the language of the act or just strike the quotation and brackets from the amendment."

THIRTIETH DAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1957

House Bill No. 68, by Representatives Sandison, Siler, and Bernethy (by Legislative Council request):
Consolidating state lands and timber under Land Commissioner, valuation by board.

MOTION
On motion of Mr. Bernethy, Substitute House Bill No. 68 was substituted for House Bill No. 68, and the substitute bill was read the second time by sections.

POINT OF INFORMATION
The Speaker recognized Mr. Petrie.
Mr. Petrie:
"This is a rather lengthy substitute bill, and, frankly, I didn't know that there was a substitute bill proposed. I did not have an opportunity to examine it. I do not want to hold up the passage of the bill, but I would like to ask the chairman of the committee where the main difference is between the substitute bill and the original bill. The original bill was a Legislative Council request. I assume the substitute bill is somewhat modified."

The Speaker:
"I believe that question at this stage of the proceedings would be out of order."

MOTION
Mr. Petrie:
"Mr. Speaker, I move, then, that Substitute House Bill No. 68 be placed at the end of today's second reading calendar."

The Speaker:
"If it is for the purpose of making amendments it would be too late, because we have read the title and I was just going to ask if there were any amendments to the title. That type of motion would serve no useful purpose."

Mr. Petrie:
"Well, Mr. Speaker, in that event I wish to change the motion and move that Substitute House Bill No. 68 be re-referred to the Committee on Forestry, State Lands and Parks."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER
The Speaker recognized Mr. Johnston (Elmer E.).
Mr. Johnston:
"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:
"State your point of order."

Mr. Johnston:
"Isn't the House now in possession of the Substitute Bill?"

The Speaker:
"Yes, it is."

Mr. Johnston:
"Then, would it not be proper for the House to retain it on its calendar for tomorrow, and that way the bill would not have to go back to committee?"

The Speaker:
"Mr. Petrie has already made a motion to re-refer."
Mr. Johnston:
“I am raising a point of order.”

The Speaker:
“The motion you are thinking about would be of the same rank as Mr. Petrie’s motion.”

Mr. Johnston:
“Well, could I amend Mr. Petrie’s motion to say that it be retained on the calendar for tomorrow?”

The Speaker:
“That motion would be out of order. We would have to act on Mr. Petrie’s motion first.”

Mr. Petrie:
“Mr. Speaker, with the consent of the House, I wish to withdraw my motion.”

The Speaker:
“With the consent of the House, Mr. Petrie wishes to withdraw his motion. Consent is given. The motion is withdrawn.”

MOTION
Mr. Johnston (Elmer E.) moved that further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 68 be deferred, and that the bill retain its place on tomorrow’s second reading calendar.
Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY
The Speaker recognized Mr. Gallagher (Bernard J.):
Mr. Gallagher:
“I rise to a point of parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker. It would require a suspension of the rules to amend this bill even if it were put on the second reading calendar tomorrow, would it not?”

The Speaker:
“Your point is well taken. That is right. We had finished reading the title, so we had passed the stage where the bill could be amended on second reading without a motion to suspend the rules.”

Debate ensued.
The motion to defer consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 68 was lost. Substitute House Bill No. 68 was passed to Committee on Rules and Order for third reading.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY
The Speaker recognized Mr. Hawley.
Mr. Hawley:
“Would Mr. Clark yield to a question?”
Mr. Clark (Newman H.):
"Yes."

Mr. Hawley:
"Mr. Clark, has the County Commissioners' Association notified you that they are opposed to this bill?"

Mr. Clark:
"Not this session, but they indicated, after I proposed and supported the amendment last session, that they were."

The Speaker recognized Mr. King.

Mr. King:
"I would like to ask my cochairman, Mr. Rasmussen, to yield to a question. Do the other county officials approve of this amendment?"

Mr. Rasmussen:
"Yes, Mr. King, the other elective county officials have been trying for years to get into the County Commissioners' Association. They have met with a closed door, but they are heartily in accord and think they can work with the Association."

POINT OF INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Savage.

Mr. Savage:

"I would like to ask a question of some of the members of the Industrial Insurance Committee. I am sure they are much more familiar with the bill and what it does than some of us on the floor who have not had the opportunity to study it as they have.
I am concerned about the amendment and the new matter here. At the present time when a workman is injured by a third party, if he elects to file a case against the third party, and it should happen that he received less money or a lesser payment from the third party, at the present time he can go back to the department and they will pay the balance up to the amount the department would have paid him in the first place had he not elected to proceed against the third party. It appears to me this affects that provision considerably. I would like one of the members of the Industrial Insurance Committee to point out whether this is the case, because I wouldn't like to see that provision destroyed."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Durkan.

Mr. Durkan:

"In reply to Mr. Savage's question, the amendment doesn't have anything to do with that. Under this law, it still exists. If you will look at page 8, the top line, the department still makes up the deficiency."

Debate ensued.

Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Johnston:
"Could I ask Mr. Brown a question? I notice, Mr. Brown, that the import of this bill is that the $1,000 priority claim will be asserted against all other types of creditors, is that not right? Under the old law, the laborer was limited, I believe, to $100, and then he had to participate pro rata with the other creditors, whereas this bill will give him up to $1,000 preference?"

The Speaker appointed Representatives King and Moriarty to escort Mr. Jackson to a seat on the rostrum beside the Speaker. (Applause.)

The Speaker:

"At this time, it is my honor to present to you Mr. Jackson."

Mr. Jackson:

"Mr. Speaker, Members of the House:
I want to congratulate all of you on the opportunity to serve the state in the ca­pacity to which you have been elected. I believe that the experience in this legislature which I had has been of great practical benefit to me through all the years since 1907, which was the first session I came here.
"I had the privilege of seeing the inauguration of the Governor in this room only a few weeks ago. I think in few countries of this world would we have such a change of authority and of administration with such a feeling of good will, and with such a desire to see those who take over succeed and administer the affairs of state in the manner in which they will, without doubt, administer them; and, so, I feel that it is an honor and a privilege to live in a country where such things can occur.
"I have a pleasant duty this morning, and this is to present a gift to your Speaker. To you, Mr. Speaker, I have the privilege of presenting this gavel, sir, which I hope you will consider a symbol of the authority of your office. I believe that you have served this Body in this session and in the session before with honor and distinction, and I hope this little memento will serve, in the years to come, to remind you of that service and of the fairness and the excellence of your performance here as Speaker."

The Speaker:

"Thank you, Mr. Jackson, for your extremely kind words. I will immediately use this gavel."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Clark (Cecil C.):

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of personal privilege. I would like to tell you that the cans of peaches that you found on your desks are from the peach growers of the state of Washington. The peach growers produce over $15 million worth of peaches annually. We are about the eighth or tenth peach state in the United States so our peaches are not our largest crop, but they are a fairly good farm produce. It is merely coincidental that these peaches came about the same day that a peach bill came up for second reading. These were provided by the Washington State Fruit Commission of which my seat mate, Representative Canfield, is a member, and we hope that you, from this sample, will conclude that California clingstomes are no good."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Olsen:

"Mr. Speaker, point of personal privilege. I would like to remind the members of the House that today there are about fifteen of the top chefs of the country downstairs preparing your lunch for you. It is for your wives and your husbands also. I hope you will all go down. You will have a fine lunch through the courtesy of the Washington Class H Licensees.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

The undersigned voted against the passage of House Bill No. 267 for the reason that we felt the increase in the benefits as provided in this bill is 30.9 percent above those now in use, and that an increase of this magnitude will result in sufficient increase in the industrial insurance premiums to be paid by industries as to become a factor in discouraging the location of new industries in this state; and also will discourage the expansion of those companies now located in this state. The Legislative Council investigated this problem and recommended an increase of approximately 15 percent.

"WHEREAS, The Congress of the United States has failed to act on these proposals to assist organized labor,

"Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That your memorialists respectfully petition the Congress of the United States to enact said amendments proposed by President Eisenhower to the end that the goals of organized labor may be obtained in this state and throughout the United States; and

"WHEREAS, The Congress of the United States has failed to act on these proposals to assist organized labor,

"Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this memorial be transmitted immediately to the Honorable Dwight D. Eisenhower, President of the United States, the President of the United States Senate, Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each senator and representative from the state of Washington."

Mr. McCormack (Mike) raised the question of consideration on the amendment by Mr. Petrie.
POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Petrie:

"Will the Speaker kindly clarify the meaning of this vote?" Does it mean that under no circumstances could we even debate the matter?"

The Speaker:

"That is right. Raising the question of consideration cuts off all debate, and if the House refuses consideration, then the amendment is dead."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Petrie:

"Mr. Speaker, then I rise to a point of order as to the applicability of this particular motion at this particular time. I realize, of course, that the Speaker has ruled previously in this session that an amendment is a main question, and based that ruling on the Speaker's previous ruling in 1953 wherein he quoted portions of the Speaker's rulings of 1947; but, I would earnestly submit that I have examined the 1947 journal of this House and I find nowhere in that journal where the point has been specifically applied in this particular kind of case; and, because of the fact that the point of order which I am now raising has never actually been raised, I would ask the Speaker to rule at this time whether the amendment is not a main question before the House."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"The Speaker will rule that the amendment is a main question. When it is presented, it is open for debate, and for all intents and purposes it is a main question before the House."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Johnston (Elmer E.).

Mr. Johnston:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. If the Speaker has ruled I would of course be out of order, but I want to make the comment that Mr. Petrie's point of order is supported by our Reed's Rules. If the Speaker will examine that question in Reed's Rules he will find an amendment is not a main question. I would urge the Speaker to examine Reed's Rules No. 114 which discusses the motion to lay on the table and also deals with the main question. In Rule 129 and also in the back of Reed's Rules on the page following page 194, it gives a summary of the procedure to be taken. It specifically states that consideration may not be moved against an amendment; so it seems to me Mr. Petrie is on sound ground when he raises the point of order on this motion."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Rasmussen.

Mr. Rasmussen:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. Speaking on the point that has been raised by Mr. Johnston, having been a member of the 1947 Legislature of this state, and having proposed some fifteen or twenty amendments myself and having had the question of consideration raised then by Mr. Johnston and Perry Woodall, the Republican floor leaders, I can plainly recall the Speaker's ruling sustaining the question of consideration in all cases in the 1947 session, as you, Mr. Johnston, are well aware."

Mr. Johnston (Elmer E.):

"Mr. Speaker, when I searched the journal which covers that point I was surprised to find that although the question of consideration was raised, as a matter of fact, by the Republican leadership, there was no instance where this point of order was raised; and I understand the Speaker at that time reserved the right to rule on it if somebody raised the point; but no one raised that point of order."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Well, of course, I disagree. I am not going to belabor this point too much as I don't want to take the time of the House. The Speaker made a ruling in the 1955 session relative to this point. It appears to me that I referred to the 1947 journal and cited the ruling by the Speaker at that time relative to the very ruling I am making now about an amendment being before the House for action, I believe precedent has been established in prior sessions relative to this question of consideration."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Petrie.

Mr. Petrie:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. I appreciate the Speaker has ruled, and of course we in the minority will comply with whatever ruling the Speaker makes. I do wish to take this opportunity, however, to point out to the Speaker and the members of the Body that the table following page 194 in the back of Reed's very clearly states that the motion of consideration is not applicable to a motion to amend. It is on the first line of the table following page 194 and it states that the question of consideration is not applicable to a motion to amend; and, therefore, it is not a main question."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Mardesich.

Mr. Mardesich:

"I think Mr. Petrie is trying to draw a conclusion here by referring to the point of laying on the table. I would like to point out that the point of laying the bill on the table is different from one of question of consideration for this reason, if you lay a bill on the table, then the amendment and bill must both be taken along with the motion. When you lay an amendment on the table and it is separated from the bill, then the amendment stays on the table and is subject to further action before the Body. While the amendment is on the table, the bill may take its course through the House and the amendment is still before you; so you can have a bill in committee and the amendment out here on the table, or you may have a bill on third reading and the amendment still on the table if you separate them. Logically, therefore, you cannot separate them. This is true whether the ruling is made on the amendment or the bill. If you make the ruling to lay the bill on the table and the amendment is still not carried along with the bill, then you would have the situation where the bill is on the table and the House could still take action on the amendment, so you do have to join. In the question of consideration there is not that distinction. You now determine whether or not you must consider it at all. Once you have determined that question, the bill is still before you for action. The two have not been separated so they are not in two different parts of the Body."

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Rosenberg.

Mr. Rosenberg:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. The Speaker has already ruled on this. I think there is nothing before the House."

The Speaker:

"That is right. The Speaker has ruled."

MOTION

Mr. Petrie moved that the House recess until one forty-five o'clock p. m.

Mr. Savage moved to amend the motion by Mr. Petrie that the House recess until two o'clock p. m. today.

The Speaker:

"The motion to recess until one forty-five has been amended to two p. m. The motion is not debatable."

The motion to recess was lost on a rising vote.

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Petrie.

Mr. Petrie:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. Would the Speaker very clearly point out the significance of the vote on this particular question?"
The Speaker:

"The question before the House is whether the House desires to consider the amendment by Mr. Petrie. A vote 'aye' is a vote in favor of consideration; a vote 'no' will be a vote against consideration of the amendment to House Joint Memorial No. 3."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Stokes.

Mr. Stokes:

"I rise to move that the question of consideration be laid on the table."

The Speaker:

"That motion is out of order."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Ruoff.

Mr. Ruoff:

"Mr. Speaker, I move that House Joint Memorial No. 3 be held over and retain its place on tomorrow's calendar for second reading."

The Speaker:

"That motion is also out of order."

Mr. Petrie:

"I demand an electric roll call."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Harris:

"Mr. Speaker, point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point of order."

Mr. Harris:

"The question of consideration, as I understand it, was raised by Mr. McCormack before the proposer of the amendment had moved its adoption; hence, I believe that the question of consideration is not in order. There was no motion made. There was no motion before the House."

The Speaker:

"It appears to me that the amendment was before the House when the Speaker asked the clerk to read it; so the amendment was before you and Mr. McCormack raised the question of consideration on it. The question before us now is the question of consideration raised by Mr. McCormack. Do seventeen members demand an electric roll call?"

The demand for an electric roll call was sustained.

The Speaker:

"The question before the House is the question of consideration raised on the amendment to House Joint Memorial No. 3 by Mr. Petrie. A vote 'aye' is a vote in favor of consideration and a vote 'no' means you are opposed to consideration of this amendment. The Speaker will start the electric roll call."

The roll call was taken and the House refused to consider the amendment by Mr. Petrie to House Joint Memorial No. 3 by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 54; absent or not voting, 4.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Bajema, Beierlein, Bernethy,

The Speaker:

Mr. Petrie:

"Point of parliamentary inquiry. Is it the ruling of the Speaker that a demand for a roll call will have to be made with the recognition of the Speaker?"
The Speaker:

"That is right. It will have to be made with recognition from the Speaker. The demand for an electric roll call has been sustained. The Speaker will start the electric roll call on the motion for reconsideration of the vote by which Mr. Hawley's amendment to House Joint Memorial No. 3 failed to be adopted by the House."

Hence all motions to amend a paragraph should be put before a motion to strike out has been put.' We had an amendment here before to strike out the paragraph to which you are now offering an amendment."

THIRTY-SECOND DAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1957

Mrs. Hurley:
"Yes, Mr. Canfield."

Mr. Canfield:
"The only hospitals we had in mind were the charitable hospitals maintained or supported as state institutions."

Mrs. Hurley:
"Well, Mr. Canfield, this says 'in any charitable hospital' and I believe that would cover those in Spokane that I was thinking of."

Mr. Canfield:
"Mrs. Hurley, we were inclined to agree with the idea of limiting this, but if you will read on through the balance of that section, it only refers to those hospitals supported by the state. I hope that will make a difference in your thinking on the amendment. We certainly have no wish to restrict the use of any material in any private hospital in which I know you are very much interested."

The Speaker:

POINT OF INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Petrie.

Mr. Petrie:
"Would Mr. Vane yield to a question?"

The Speaker:
"Mr. Vane, will you yield to a question?"

Mr. Vane:
"Yes, I will."
Mr. Petrie:
"Mr. Vane, I see you are changing the complexion of the bill from ownership of a number of shares, to ownership in a certain amount of dollars, is that right?"

Mr. Vane:
"That may be."

Mr. Petrie:
"Mr. Vane, it just occurs to me that perhaps instead of bank stocks rising, it might be possible that bank stocks might decrease in value, and in the event that the director who owned that amount of stock in a certain amount of dollars at one point would find his position vacated, and, as a matter of fact, if the bank were in danger of becoming insolvent, all of a sudden you would have a bank without a board of directors, is that correct?"

Mr. Vane:
"There is that possibility, I suppose; but I might say that the Supervisor of Banking and a number of the officers of the Washington State Bankers' Association were present at the time this bill was considered by the committee, and they all concurred in that amendment. I assumed it was a good amendment. If it does what you say, it might not be so good; but it has been approved by the Banking Department and the Washington State Association. If you can disprove their theory, that is a matter of credit to you."

POINT OF INQUIRY
The Speaker recognized Mr. Rasmussen.

Mr. Rasmussen:
"Mr. Vane, will you yield to one more question?"

Mr. Vane:
"Yes."

Mr. Rasmussen:
"Mr. Vane, if this bank stock is getting so expensive that even the directors can't afford to buy one share, is it a good investment for the state of Washington?"

Mr. Vane:
"It may not be, but then, I don't know that that is pertinent to the problem here."

POINT OF INQUIRY
The Speaker recognized Mr. Clark (Newman H.).

Mr. Clark:
"Would the chairman yield to another question? In the event of failure of the bank, and the stock became worthless, then this is a double assessment, is it not, against any director, so that he would then have to put in this minimum amount that the amendment provides for?"

Mr. Vane:
"It could be interpreted that way, that is true."

Debate ensued.
The motion was carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

RESOLUTION

Resolution by Representatives Clark (Newman H.), Ruoff, and Timm:

Whereas, Water is the greatest natural resource of our State of Washington; and

Whereas, The State of California has long been ambitious to siphon off a substantial portion of our water for its use; and

Whereas, Our water resources are essential to all parts of the economy of our state including agriculture, power, fisheries, industry, and recreation; and

Whereas, Contrary to the best interests of our state, the Governor has expressed willingness to have water of this state diverted to California in exchange for labor to be imported from California; and

Whereas, This does not constitute an exchange but merely the Governor's attempting to give away both a natural resource and giving away jobs needed for the laboring people of our state;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the House of Representatives of the State of Washington in legislative session assembled, that any and all attempts to divert water, our greatest natural resource, to the State of California, will be firmly and strongly resisted by this body; and

Be It Further Resolved, That we do disapprove of the Governor's very damaging remarks favoring diversion of water of our state to California and we urge most emphatically that he immediately retract such remarks and make clear that the resources of the State of Washington are not to be so lightly discarded; and

Be It Further Resolved, That this body recognizes that the State of Washington presently has an excellent, skilled labor force and does not need any organized importation of labor from California.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Sandison, the resolution was laid on the table.

order presented, the one that was presented and failed. Now the only way we can have assurance that it will be put in the marketing order is to put it in the basic law, is that not correct?"

Mr. Copeland:

"I shouldn’t think that that would be necessary, as this interim has passed and the commodity group themselves have become more familiar with the problem. I think it is an industry problem rather than a legislative problem."
Mr. Timm:

“Will you yield to another question? Will you guarantee that you will use all of your considerable influence with the commodity group to insure that this is in there?”

“I will guarantee you that I will use all of my influence to see that the marketing order is written in such a way that it outlines the actions of the commission.”

"In answer to your question, Mr. Burns, if you were sent to Walla Walla Penitentiary, and it was felt that you were mentally ill and should be referred to Eastern State or Northern State or Western State, you would be transferred without a hearing, yes."

Mr. Burns:
"Not committed, though, is that right?"

Mr. Litchman:
"Well, if you are already committed to a state institution, you are transferred without a hearing. In regard to original commitment, you are entitled to a hearing; but I might mention that section 2 of Engrossed House Bill No. 289 provides for a hearing by the courts, so all the safeguards are there. I feel the parent or relative is as adequately protected under this law as it is under the present one."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Timm.

Mr. Timm:

"Will the gentleman, Mr. Rasmussen, yield to a question?"

Mr. Rasmussen:

"Yes."

Mr. Timm:

"Mr. Rasmussen, I am at a loss to understand why we do not use the wording in the present Constitution so that there would be no confusion at all in the minds of the public, in order that we could present this to them purely on the basis of whether they wish to grant the school district the right to vote for two and six years. Now, I don't know what the implications are of adding this in this particular place, but it is different than the present Constitution, and I wonder if you could tell me why you did not use the present language?"

Mr. Rasmussen:

"Well, Mr. Timm, in the first place, after consulting with various school people who were interested in this and consulting with you, we came up with the proposal to make it the same as House Bill No. 45 which was accepted by practically all the members of this House. Our main objective in this is to get the measure passed and before the people. With regard to the technicalities of the English language, I would have to refer you to someone who is far more technical than I am on that matter. I think the words are the same. Does that answer your question?"

Debate ensued.

Mr. Clark (Newman H.), moved the adoption of the following amendment to the amendment:

In the last line of the amendment, strike the words "in such district"

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

State of Washington, Executive Department,
Olympia, February 19, 1957.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the State of Washington.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

Two important matters, closely related, make it advisable that I call to your attention the need for action in our situation regarding state employees, both as to salary and security of position.

On January 7, a week before the legislature convened, the State Personnel Board issued an order granting substantial pay increases to the employees working in the eight state agencies under their jurisdiction. The order was conditioned upon the departments affected having the money available. No provision was made nor suggestion offered for meeting the increase during the balance of the biennium, but it was made retroactive to January 1. Further than this, the budget submitted to the Legislature by Governor Langlie contains no provision for payment of these increases in the coming biennium.

Information was available that a study was in process and I had expected a recommendation but was not advised that there was even a possibility that a raise would be ordered immediately. On the face of it the order was hasty and looked very much like an effort to embarrass the incoming administration.

A close check during my first few days in office indicated a serious question as to who had the final authority in the matter of establishing salaries in departments under the personnel board. There is still a question whether the laws and executive orders creating the personnel board and placing departments under its control give it authority to fix wages as well as exercise other control over employees of the state. Until this matter is resolved we cannot have proper coordination of effort in our many departments nor proper protection for persons working for the state.

Together with the problem created by a hasty decision in this matter, the whole problem of reaching our avowed objective of a balanced budget without a major tax increase is at stake. The problem of adequate pay is not confined to the agencies under the personnel board. A proper determination of where pay must be increased and where unnecessary employment and services can be discontinued is the key to keeping our appropriations within our anticipated income. My study and advice indicate that this objective cannot be attained if we do not proceed with a most realistic attitude.

Realizing that I risk having my motives misunderstood and possibly misrepresented, I have decided that the following steps are necessary, some of which are the responsibility of the Governor and some of which require the support and cooperation of the legislature.
At the present time there are several separate personnel systems in our state and some state agencies are not covered by any system or are covered only to a limited degree. The result is some confusion in personnel policies and difficulty in coordination among the various agencies. As a consequence, there is an unnecessarily high rate of turnover and there are inequities as among state employees covered by the various systems. All of this is costly in terms of both dollars and operating effectiveness. The time has come to have an all-inclusive civil service system for all state agencies, with protection for employees in every agency.

I have been advised by my own legal advisors and by the Attorney General of the State of Washington that the various statutes purporting to establish the existing state personnel board and the existing merit systems are of questionable validity and legality. I have been further advised that the state personnel board presently is unable to operate a uniform state merit system because of separate statutes establishing merit systems for different departments.

Therefore I shall move at once to disestablish all merit systems created by executive order. The time has come to have an all-inclusive merit system for all state agencies with protection for employees in every agency if all are to have this advantage. I am having introduced by executive request a measure almost identical with that I supported as a state Senator two years ago. I am asking the legislature to enact this into law at this session of the legislature. This measure will clearly define responsibility and allow the proper policy supervision which is necessary to avoid the government's inclination to become overstaffed and provide honest public servants with protection against political attrition. To the people presently working for the state, I make a pledge that this transition from confusion to order will not be used as a device to replace veteran employees with political friends. At the same time I ask all to realize that efficiency in government cannot be attained without some adjustment in employment. In this respect I ask only that judgment be reserved and this administration be given the chance to prove its sincerity and ability.

In those departments in which the Governor directly or through his appointees has control, the matter of salary increases other than regular increments already established and those occasioned by a change in classification will be held up until money is available for uniform action in all such departments. I am asking the State Personnel Board to review the wage order of January 7 and suspend its operation during such review. It is my request that they confer with those departments not under their control and reach an agreement on a uniform policy as quickly as possible. It is my recommendation that special attention be given to making an immediate adjustment in the lower salary ranges to employees receiving less than median wages in their salary ranges. These employees are entitled to immediate consideration.

Salary increases beyond this of a general nature will have to await final action of the legislature on appropriations and will depend beyond that on a general increase of efficiency within the departments enabling them to operate with less personnel than requested in their budgets. It is my honest desire that every state employee have a direct interest in efficient, effective work.

My advice to the legislature is that provision be made for wage adjustments with the problem of providing Federal Social Security coverage for state employees in mind. Some modification of the ideal situation will have to be made if we are to keep our objective of no new taxes. Sincerely yours,

ALBERT D. ROSELLINI, Governor.

POINT OF INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Siler.

Mr. Siler:

"Would Mr. Dore yield to a question?"

Mr. Dore:

"Yes."

Mr. Siler:

"Mr. Dore, you mentioned the matter of policy making, and I agree with you that this is a policy-making board. Do you feel that the Governor shall be hamstrung, shall we say, in forming policy, with two members out of three being his own appointments?"

Mr. Dore:

"The question is whether I feel the Governor would be hamstrung with the appointment of two out of three members. No, not to any great degree, but I think he could certainly facilitate his policies with three members. I think he should have a free hand here. Again, I say, I am in sympathy with you when we are abolishing someone's job, but after all, there is nothing new about that. When incoming officials come in, they have a right to bring with them the people who will administer their policies and programs. I don't believe the present members would really want to stay. I think they would probably be willing to step out and let the new administration take over with its new ideas, its freshness. I think it might be a handicap to have someone who is more or less an absorption or reflection of the things that have occurred in the past. Let us hope in this administration there will be no more of the riots or disturbances in the public institutions that we have had throughout the past two years. I said I don't know whether or not the criticism is justified. Perhaps the people decided that last November.
I don't think, myself, that the present members would care to stay on. I put this bill in some time ago and none of them ever contacted me, and I assume they are in keeping with the program. After all, such a bill was passed last time. I can't see why it should make any difference now."

Pertaining to trust receipts.
On motion of Mr. Sandison, the rules were suspended and Engrossed House Bill No. 336 was placed on final passage. Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Goldmark.

Mr. Goldmark:
"Will Mr. Petrie yield to a question?"

Mr. Petrie:
"I yield."

Mr. Goldmark:
"Mr. Petrie, is this a uniform act at the present time, a trust receipt act?"

Mr. Petrie:
"Frankly, I don't know whether it is or not. You understand, a uniform act is an act which has been passed upon and approved by the Commissioners on Uniform Acts throughout the country. I don't know whether or not this particular act is a uniform act in that sense. There are other states that have such measures, however."

Mr. Goldmark:
"Well, Mr. Petrie, I think it is a uniform act, but I am not positive. Now, my second question is, have any other states adopted amendments similar to this which are really extending the functions of a trust proceeding?"

Mr. Petrie:
"I regret that I am not sufficiently well versed on the number of other states that have such provisions, but I can assure you that the only purpose of this act is to provide that the dealer who has this merchandise on the floor may actually obtain the necessary financing. I might say it has been approved by the Washington State Bankers' Association."

Mr. Goldmark:
"Would Mr. Petrie yield to one more question? I am not entirely certain on the operation of the bill, but as I understand it a dealer could have his cars on the floor and he could make a financial arrangement, borrow money on them, by means of a trust receipt, and that trust receipt need not be filed for a period of thirty days, and then would only be filed with the Secretary of State. Now, at the same time, it would appear possible that the dealer could enter into another financial arrangement, borrow money from somebody else on a chattel mortgage, and the person who was searching to see if he wanted to lend money and take a chattel mortgage would look at the courthouse records and there would be no chattel mortgage recorded or filed. He wouldn't be able to enforce the money he had advanced as against the man who had the trust receipt and still hadn't filed it—and then would only file it in Olympia. Is that correct?"

Mr. Petrie:
"In essence, that is correct. The only difference being that that actually is being done, and this is a vehicle which is designed to ensure the granting of title to prospective purchasers of this type of personal property. As a matter of fact the average purchaser doesn't know, when he goes onto the floor of the dealer, what kind of financing is involved. I think there are adequate protections in this particular bill."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Klein.

Mr. Klein:
"Will Mr. Harris yield to a question?"

Mr. Harris:
"I will yield."
Mr. Klein:

"Mr. Harris, would it be possible for a dealer who has already floored some boats or automobiles and who has not taken a chattel mortgage, or at least not one that has gone past ten days as required by conditional sales contracts or chattel mortgages, to thereafter have to obtain a good security interest through this trustee, between ten and thirty days?"

Mr. Harris:

"There may be some hazard, as between the financial institution and the dealer. I doubt very much, however, that there will be any hazard extended to the buyer from that dealer."

Mr. Klein:

"Well, isn't it a hazard to any other person who may be concerned with the question of credit of the particular dealer and who may want to extend some new credit to the man? On the faith of our conditional sales contracts and chattel mortgages that we traditionally look for to determine a man's true position, we have nothing on the record. As I understand your answer to my question, he may make an advance on day twenty-five, and on day thirty this thing shows up in the Secretary of State's office. The man advancing credit would be injured, it would seem to me. Does that not follow?"

Mr. Harris:

"Representative Klein, from a technical view, you may be right; but from an operating view I think you are in error for this reason, if a dealer succeeds in getting trust receipt financing, and at any time a buyer of a car found that he couldn't get a clear title, that financial institution would immediately feel that the dealer had abused upon the trust receipt, and he would probably refuse all future financing. Hence, there is a tremendous burden on the dealer to keep his skirts clean."

Mr. Klein:

"Suppose a man is in a poor position and the banks have more or less refused to extend further credit to him. He then turns to some private source. Maybe Joe Bloe has money he would like to loan at six or seven percent. Joe is used to the law of the state which entitles him to rely upon liens being recorded at the county courthouse. On day twenty-five, he advances ten thousand dollars to keep this dealer afloat, and it seems to me he has been injured by this type of thing. I think you have admitted that that is the situation, isn't that so?"

Mr. Harris:

"I don't know that I have admitted it is as serious as that, Mr. Klein."

Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 336, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 56; nays, 33; absent or not voting, 10.

It is just coincidental. We are proud today and every day of the apples grown in north central Washington."

   We, a majority of your Judiciary Committee, to whom was referred House Bill No. 24, relating to gifts to minors, have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass with the following amendment:

Amend section 2, page 4 of the original bill, being page 4 of the printed bill, by adding a new subsection to be known as subsection (4) to read as follows:

"(4) It shall be unlawful for any custodian or custodians hereunder to hold custodial property for any one minor in an aggregate value in excess of twelve thousand dollars, such value to be computed on the basis of the actual value of each unit of property on the date such gift became effective."

Fred H. Dore, Chairman,

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Mr. Dore, the committee amendment was adopted.

Mr. Goldmark moved the adoption of the following amendment:

In section 4, beginning on page 4, line 34 of the printed bill, after the words "and proper" strike the remainder of subsection (2) and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"in his capacity as a fiduciary and having regard to all the circumstances of the minor."

Debate ensued.

The motion was lost and the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Dowd moved the adoption of the following amendment:

In section 4, subsection (6), page 5, line 20 of the original bill, being page 5, line 24 of the printed bill, after the words "the terms" and before the words "deems advisable" strike the word "he" and insert in lieu thereof the words "a prudent man"

Debate ensued.

"and duties of a guardian"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Harris.

Mr. Harris:

"Would Mr. Dore yield to a question?"

Mr. Dore:

"I yield."

Mr. Harris:

"Mr. Dore, I haven't read the act carefully. I would like to ask this question. Can the broker, himself, also be made the custodian?"

Mr. Dore:

"Yes."
MOTION

Mr. Rasmussen moved that House Bill No. 24 be re-referred to the Committee on Ways and Means, Subcommittee on Revenue and Taxation. Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. McCormack (Mike).

Mr. McCormack:
"Would Mr. Hanson yield to a question?"

Mr. Hanson (Herb):
"I will."

Mr. McCormack:
"Mr. Hanson, would you be willing to investigate this bill as a possible revenue bill?"

Mr. Hanson:
"I certainly would."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Dore.

Mr. Dore:
"May I ask Mr. Hanson a question?"

Mr. Hanson:
"Yes."

Mr. Dore:
"Mr. Hanson, would you explain how you are going to determine if this bill might result in tax loss to the state of Washington?"

Mr. Hanson:
"Yes, I would like to check with the State Tax Commission."

Mr. Dore:
"What would you check?"

Mr. Hanson:
"I would check the provisions of the bill."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. McCormack (Mike).

Mr. McCormack:
"Would Mr. Clark yield to a question?"

Mr. Clark (Newman H.):
"I yield."

Mr. McCormack:
"I am confused. This man you mentioned with thirteen grandchildren, suppose he wanted to give each of them twelve thousand dollars, that would be $156,000, all tax free money."

Mr. Clark:
"He can do that now if his wife joins with him. Six thousand dollars can be given to each child on the thirty-first day of December, and two days later he could give another six thousand, making a total of twelve thousand to each grandchild, without paying taxes under the existing laws and without making a declaration of donor or donee."

Mr. McCormack:
"Suppose he didn't give the money away and he died. Would the money be taxed?"
Mr. Clark:

"The money would surely be taxed if he didn’t give it away. He could give it away now, as far as that is concerned, if he wants to take the trouble to put it in guardianship and draw a trust instrument, and place the money in trust for the child. He can irrevocably transfer it by setting up thirteen separate trusts, hiring a bank to administer as trustee, and paying them an annual fee, and pay no tax."

Debate ensued.

The motion to re-refer House Bill No. 24 to the Ways and Means Committee, Subcommittee on Revenue and Taxation, was lost on a rising vote.

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be the adoption of the amendment by Mr. Brouillet.

The motion was lost and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Mr. Dore, the House deferred further consideration of House Bill No. 24 and the bill was ordered to retain its place on tomorrow’s second reading calendar.

Increasing salaries of judges.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Mr. Vane moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Amend the committee amendment to section 1, page 1, line 4 of the printed bill, after the word "[fifteen]" and before the words "thousand dollars" strike the word "twenty" and insert in lieu thereof the word "eighteen"

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Dore.

Mr. Dore:

"Point of parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker. Yesterday we adopted the committee amendment providing $20,000 for Supreme Court Justices. Now, this amendment today is merely an amendment of the amendment. I wonder if it is now in order. I refer to Rule 154 of Reed’s Parliamentary Rules, where it says, ‘by putting the question first on the largest sum and then on the others, the assembly stops where a majority of the voices agree.’ Yesterday, we voted $20,000. This is in the nature of a vote to reconsider, to make the sum smaller."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

"The Speaker will rule, on the question Mr. Dore has raised, that this bill is before us again on second reading, that it has been re-referred to the Committee on Ways and Means where it was considered, and it has come out again for the second time on second reading. It appears that it is again open for amendment."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Clark (Newman H.).

Mr. Clark:

"Will the gentleman, Mr. Vane, yield to a question?"

Mr. Vane:

"I yield."

Mr. Clark:

"Will you advise this body how much this will cost the taxpayers of this state during the next two years?"
Mr. Vane:

"I haven't multiplied that out, Mr. Clark, but I imagine it will be a considerable amount of money."

Mr. Clark:

"Well, there are no raises involved during this biennium, so there will be no touch on the people of this state."

Debate ensued.

Mr. Johnston (Elmer E.) demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The motion was lost and the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Vane moved the adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

Amend the committee amendment to section 2, page 1, line 12, after the word "[twelve]" and before the word "dollars" strike the words "fifteen thousand" and insert in lieu thereof the words "fourteen thousand four hundred"

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Mardesich.

Mr. Mardesich:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker, I question whether or not the amendments go beyond the act as originally proposed."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

"Mr. Mardesich questions whether or not the amendments by Mr. Ruoff are germane on the basis that they pertain to another subject matter. They also appear to pertain to another bill which is pending before the House, House Bill No. 377, which relates to public employment and provides for collective bargaining in arbitration of labor disputes with the state of Washington and all its political subdivisions. It appears to the Speaker that the intent here is to incorporate within this bill a matter and a subject that is in another bill, House Bill No. 377. Therefore, I am going to rule that the amendments by Mr. Ruoff are not germane. They are out of order."

Mr. Ruoff:
"Point of order, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:
"The Speaker has ruled on the point of order."

Mr. Ruoff:
"I merely wish to make a point on the ruling of the chair. Mr. Speaker, the bill that the chair referred to is not restricted to municipal employees. It includes all state employees and employees of its political subdivisions. The one we have before us is restricted to municipal employees. Therefore, it would be my interpretation that it is perfectly in order. I just do not understand the Speaker's ruling."

The Speaker:
"The Speaker has ruled your whole series of amendments out of order."

Mr. Clark (Newman H.) moved the adoption of the following amendment:

In section 2, page 2, line 10 of the printed bill, after the period (.) following the word "award" insert the following sentence: "The arbitration procedures provided in sections 3 through 7 of this act shall apply in a municipality only after it has, by ordinance or resolution which has been approved by a majority of the voters of the municipality voting at a referendum election on the question of the adoption of the ordinance or resolution, accepted and assumed the arbitration power authorized by this act."

Debate ensued.
The motion was lost and the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Rasmussen moved the adoption of the following amendment:

In section 4, subsection (a), page 2, lines 26 and 27 of the original bill, being page 3, line 6 of the printed bill, after the words "bargaining committee" and before the words "so to appoint" insert the words "of whom arbitration was requested"

Debate ensued.
The motion was carried and the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Clark (Newman H.) moved the adoption of the following amendment:

In section 4, page 3, lines 27 and 29 of the printed bill, after the comma (,) following the word "allowances" in each of said lines, insert the word and punctuation "pensions."

Mr. Johnston (Elmer E.) moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 4, beginning on line 24 of the printed bill, strike the whole of section 6 and renumber sections 7 and 8 to read sections 6 and 7, respectively.

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY
The Speaker recognized Mr. Clark (Newman H.).

Mr. Clark:
"Prior to the submission of this amendment by Mr. Johnston which strikes all of section 6, I submitted an amendment which would add to section 6. In the event his motion is defeated, will that defeat my amendment which was on the desk previous to his, as I wish to add to the same section?"

The Speaker:
"If the House did move to strike section six, then you would have to withdraw your amendment. Your amendment then would be out of order."

Mr. Clark:
"Yes, but it would be in order if that does not prevail?"

The Speaker:
"Section 138 of Reed's states, 'In like manner if a motion to strike a paragraph be lost, the paragraph cannot be amended. Hence all motions to amend a paragraph should be put before the motion to strike out is put.' Your amendment will be out of order, Mr. Clark."

Mr. Clark:
"Then, with the consent of the House, I would like to have my amendment precede the amendment suggested by Mr. Johnston."

With the consent of the House, Mr. Johnston withdrew his amendment.

Mr. Clark (Newman H.) moved the adoption of the following amendment:

In section 6, page 5, line 2 of the printed bill, strike the period (.) following the word "expenditure" and insert in lieu thereof the following: "Provided, That if the governing body shall determine that because of the tax resources and financial condition of the municipality, it is not reasonably possible to make the expenditure of funds required by an arbitration award, the governing body shall refer the matter to the next regular session of the legislature and the award shall not take effect until the conclusion of such legislative session."

Debate ensued.
The motion was lost and the amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Johnston (Elmer E.) moved the adoption of the following amendment:

On page 4, beginning on line 24 of the printed bill, strike the whole of section 6 and renumber sections 7 and 8 to read sections 6 and 7, respectively.

Mr. Clark (Newman H.) moved the adoption of the following amendment:

In section 8, page 5, line 12 of the printed bill, after the word "referendum" strike the period (.) and add the following: "and shall not apply to cities or counties having a population of over 500,000 persons."

Debate ensued.
The motion was lost and the amendment was not adopted.
House Bill No. 369 was ordered engrossed and passed to Committee on Rules and Order for third reading.

The Speaker called on Mr. Rasmussen to preside.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mr. McCormack (Mike).
Mr. McCormack:
"Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of personal privilege. We have had distributed on each member's desk this morning a mimeographed sheet giving a suggested schedule of salaries for county elected officials. This has been prepared by a subcommittee of the Cities and Counties Committee in trying to reach a compromise on five bills which deal with this subject. It is the best that we on the subcommittee could prepare for a substitute bill, and because we have needed the information, and knew we didn't have time for a hearing, we have prepared this sheet and are asking the members to consider it. I hope each one of you will take time to make any comments you have and return the sheet to Eric Braun or me sometime today; and we will take the information and compile it into one substitute bill. I hope you will give this matter some serious thought."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY
The Speaker recognized Mr. Litchman.
Mr. Litchman:
"Mr. Speaker, I wonder if Mr. Rosenberg would yield to a question."

Mr. Rosenberg:
"I will."

Mr. Litchman:
"Mr. Rosenberg, you said the bill would receive fair treatment if it were transferred to your committee. Granted, it would receive fair treatment. The question is, do you think it is conceivable that this bill could pass out of your committee?"

Mr. Rosenberg:
"Anything is possible."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Young.
Mr. Young:
"Would Mr. Rosenberg yield to another question? Mr. Rosenberg, if it isn't good to have Washington-produced sugar in our institutions, why is it good to have Washington-produced butter?"

Mr. Rosenberg:
"Well, this bill doesn't refer, nor does the law refer, to Washington-produced butter. It merely states that the people in these institutions shall get the highest quality of 'smear,' as Mr. Rasmussen says."

Debate ensued.
The Speaker declared the question before the House to be the motion by Mr. Rosenberg to re-refer House Bill No. 636 from the Committee on State

House Bill No. 165; also House Bill No. 169.
MOTIONS

On motion of Mr. Dore, the House reverted to the fourth order of business for the purpose of receiving a motion.

On motion of Mr. Dore, House Bills No. 578, 579, and 588 were ordered taken from the Committee on Cities and Counties and re-referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The Speaker recognized Mrs. Hurley.

Mrs. Hurley:

"Mr. Speaker, I move that House Joint Resolution No. 19 that was introduced this morning by Mr. Gallagher and me be taken from the Committee on Highways and placed on second reading and read in full."

The Speaker:

"It has been moved and seconded that House Joint Resolution No. 19 be taken from the Committee on Highways and put before the House. Are there any remarks?"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Mardesich.

Mr. Mardesich:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose Mrs. Hurley's motion, and at the same time I would like to ask Mrs. Hansen a question. Mrs. Hansen, I wonder if you could give Mrs. Hurley, the sponsors of the resolution, and me any assurance that there will be hearings on these matters?"

Mrs. Hansen (Julia Butler):

"Yes, you certainly may have that assurance. The only difficulty we have had in having hearings is, as you know, the time we have spent out here. The less time you talk out here, the more time we will have for committee hearings on all of these bills. We take them up in the order they come in and set our calendar up for hearings as the bills are introduced. We are trying to hold hearings on all of these bills. That is why we have been holding hearings both mornings and afternoons. The Committee on Highways has met twice a day every day this week, and I do assure you you will have an opportunity to be heard on every bill that is presented to that committee."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Clark (Newman H.).

Mr. Clark:

"Parliamentary inquiry. May I ask which of the two motions by Mrs. Hurley we are considering?"

The Speaker:

"In answer to your point of parliamentary inquiry, Mrs. Hurley's motion now would bring the bill out before us and only that, and we would be on the fourth order of business. Then we would have to suspend the rules to advance to the ninth order of business for the purpose of reading it."

Mr. Clark:

"May I request of the House, through the Speaker, if no one has any objection, that the resolution be read so that we will know what this discussion is about. The rest of us haven't seen it and don't know what they are talking about."

The Speaker:

"Well, of course, the resolution isn't before you now. It is in committee theoretically, and you would have to do that by suspension of the rules."
POINT OF INQUIRY
The Speaker recognized Mr. Dore.
Mr. Dore:
"I wonder if I could ask Mrs. Hurley a question or two? Mrs. Hurley, what is this resolution about, of which you are trying to discharge the Committee on Highways?"

Mrs. Hurley:
"Thank you, Mr. Dore. This resolution is concerned with a proposed freeway through not only the third, but also the fifth legislative district in the city of Spokane. I would like to explain what the freeway does. It cuts a full residential block, thirty-three blocks long, out of the most concentrated educational area in the State of Washington. The third district has more schools—"

POINT OF ORDER
The Speaker recognized Mrs. Hansen.
Mrs. Hansen (Julia Butler):
"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. Is the freeway before us?"

Mrs. Hurley:
"I was just trying to answer a question, Mr. Speaker."
The Speaker:
"There is, of course, a question of how far a question should be asked and how far it should be answered. It appears that you should hold your remarks to the motion to relieve the committee of House Joint Resolution No. 19. I know that you have some latitude, but I would keep it within the boundary of the motion."

Mrs. Hurley:
"Mr. Speaker, I was just trying to explain the necessity of having the resolution read, because they couldn't know what it is about. It does concern removing families and parts of schools and parts of commercial districts out of the third legislative district."
The Speaker:
"I think you are going into the merits of your resolution, Mrs. Hurley."

Mrs. Hurley:
"May I just explain that this is in no way intended to embarrass the Committee on Highways or Mr. Bugge. It is just something to remember."

POINT OF INQUIRY
The Speaker recognized Mr. Clark (Newman H.):
Mr. Clark:
"Would the lady yield to another question? Mrs. Hurley, does your resolution seek to move the highway from that location, with the destruction of those properties, to another location?"

Mrs. Hurley:
"I don't believe I would be able to do that by resolution. It does indicate other routes that are not as costly to the state of Washington. I am sure that would appeal to you, Mr. Clark."

POINT OF INQUIRY
The Speaker recognized Mr. Gallagher (Bernard J.):
Mr. Gallagher:
"Will Mrs. Hurley yield to another question? Can you tell the House approximately how many schools are involved in this?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER
The Speaker:
"I think you are going entirely beyond the bounds of this motion."
Mr. Rosenberg demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.
The motion was lost.

MOTIONS

Mr. King moved that House Bill No. 615 and House Bill No. 619 be taken from the Committee on Social Security and re-referred to the Committee on Industrial Insurance.
Debate ensued.
The motion was lost.
On motion of Mr. Petrie, the House advanced to the ninth order of business.

Establishing and limiting annual legislative sessions.
The resolution was read the second time in full.
Mr. Savage moved the adoption of the following amendment:
In line 10 following the period (.) after the words “the legislature” and before the words “the sessions” in line 11, strike the words “During the odd numbered years” and capitalize the word “the” before the word “sessions” in line 11, and strike all of lines 12, 13, and 14.
Debate ensued.
Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.
The motion was lost and the amendment was not adopted.
Mrs. Hansen (Julia Butler) moved the adoption of the following amendment:
In line 13 of the printed resolution, after the words “thirty days” strike the remainder of the sentence down through line 14, and insert in lieu thereof the following:
“, unless, upon approval by a majority vote of two-thirds of the elected members of the senate and two-thirds of the elected members of the house of representatives, that legislative session is extended for a period of not to exceed an additional thirty days. Subjects to be considered during the thirty day session of the even numbered years shall be confined to matters pertaining to revenue and appropriations: Provided, That if a two-thirds majority of the elected members of the senate and a two-thirds majority of the elected members of the house of representatives so direct, such limitation of subject matter may be terminated, allowing the legislature to consider general legislation during the period following the said thirty day session.”
POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Shropshire.

Mr. Shropshire:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. If I recall correctly, in Mr. Savage's amendment, he moved to strike lines 11, 12, 13, and 14; therefore, the present amendment would be out of order."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mrs. Hansen.

Mrs. Hansen:

"Point of parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker. Did Mr. Savage's amendment carry?"

The Speaker:

"No, it did not carry."

Mr. Shropshire:

"If I recall, this comes under Reed's 138."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"In answer to your point of order, Mr. Shropshire, where you cite section 138 of Reed's, if you will read, in the middle of the paragraph, 'It may, however, be proposed that these words, with others, or a part of these words with others, be stricken out, provided the words newly proposed to be stricken out constitute substantially a new proposition different from the one already decided.' It appears to the Speaker that this new proposed amendment is substantially different from the one that was acted on by the House previously and, therefore, constitutes a new proposition. I will rule the amendment in order."

Debate ensued.

Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Dowd demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment by Mrs. Hansen and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 50; absent or not voting, 5.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Bajema, Beierlein, Bernethy, Bigley, Bozarth, Braun (Eric D.), Brouillet, Brown (Gordon J.), Burns, Campbell, Clark (Newman H.), Dowd, Durkan, Epton, Farrington, Gleason, Goldmark, Griffith, Hansen (Julia Butler), Hanson (Herb), Henry, King, Kink, Klein, Litchman, McCormack (Mike), McCormick (W. "Sessions of the legislature shall be held commencing on the first Monday in April."
during the odd-numbered years biennially hereafter, unless specially convened by the governor, but the times of meeting of subsequent sessions may be changed by the legislature. The sessions shall not be more than sixty days.” and strike the remainder of House Joint Resolution No. 1.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY
The Speaker recognized Mr. Mardesich.

Mr. Mardesich:
“Point of parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker. Is this the type of striking, since he strikes all of the underlined matter, which would constitute the precluding of any further amendments to this section under 138 of Reed’s?”

The Speaker:
“In answer to that inquiry, that is correct.”

Mr. Mardesich:
“It would preclude any other amendments being offered. Then, would it be in order for any other amendments that are on the desk to be presented before this amendment is considered, also in accordance with the last sentence of 138 of Reed’s?”

Mr. Clark (Newman H.):
“I would not resist that, Mr. Speaker, if he would prefer to put in other amendments, and I will withhold mine until they are considered.”

With the consent of the House, the amendment by Mr. Clark was withdrawn:

Mr. Mardesich moved the adoption of the following amendment:
After line 14 of the printed resolution and before the paragraph beginning with the words “And Be It Further Resolved” add a new paragraph to read as follows:

MEMORIAL TRIBUTE

Representative Joe Chytil

Our memorial service today is held on the anniversary of George Washington’s birthday. The people of the United States and those of many other lands call George Washington the "Father of His Country." Washington truly earned the title. He looked after his country the way a good father would look after his son. In the history of the world, no man has done more to help any country than Washington did to help the United States.

Today we pause to pay tribute to sixty-four former legislators. As George Washington served his country, they served the State of Washington with distinction and honor.

Former legislators, sixty-three men and one woman, have departed from this life during the past two years, and appear upon our memorial roster. They were lawmakers who once served in the best interest of the State of Washington, the one state in the Union bearing the name of our first president. On today’s roll of memory is John S. Baker, who served in the first legislature as a Senator in 1889. Today we also honor the memory of Clarence D. Martin, legislator and Governor. Eleven others named today served here in Olympia prior to 1920. Twenty more of this number served between 1920 and 1935. Others, like William A. Fisher, Mel T. Neal, Ole Olson, John N. Todd and Harry Wall, sat with us in this room just two years ago.

We welcome the relatives and friends who have come to share with us this sacred hour of memory. The many hours of toil these men gave to the cause of good government have contributed to the firm foundation of our state, and their relatives and friends will never forget the qualities of leadership they manifested.

In tribute to the memories of these distinguished former members of the Senate and House who have passed from among us, we present our memorials, and I ask my fellow colleagues to bring the flower of Love and Memory.
IN MEMORIAM

In tribute to the memories of these distinguished former members of the Senate and House who have passed from among us, we, the memorialists of the Thirty-fifth Session, convey the respects of the Washington State Legislature, and present our memorials to be preserved in the Book of Memory, in the custody of the Secretary of State:

The Speaker recognized Mr. Savage.

"Would Mr. Durkan yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will Mr. Durkan yield?"

Mr. Durkan:

"Yes."

Mr. Savage:

"Mr. Durkan, I notice that there is no penalty in this clause. I wonder how effective it will be without a penalty?"

"Well, Mr. Savage, the only penalty would be if he failed to pay; the wages would accrue one day for every day he failed to pay. That would appear to be quite a penalty."

"Would Mr. Durkan yield to another question?"

Mr. Durkan:
"Yes."

Mr. Canfield:
"Mr. Durkan, was it your thought that the bill as now amended would include the operations on farms?"

“Sec. 5. (1) There is hereby appropriated from the motor vehicle fund to the Washington toll bridge authority the sum of three hundred thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this act, which sum shall be considered as a loan from the motor vehicle fund to be repaid to said fund on the sale of bonds issued in connection with the Lake Washington-Mercer Island Crossing Project or a northern bridge ratably as moneys have been expended for either project.

“(2) As to funds previously appropriated from the motor vehicle fund and expended for survey and design of an additional Lake Washington bridge and its approaches, such moneys shall be repaid out of the sale of bonds issued in connection with the Lake Washington-Mercer Island Crossing Project or a northern bridge, ratably as they have been devoted to survey, design, or other steps preparatory to financing and construction of a bridge adjacent to or within two miles of the existing bridge on the one hand, or any bridge more than two miles north of the existing bridge on the other.

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. I think that this amendment is House Bill No. 145, and I bring to your attention Rule 36 of the House Rules, and Rule 19 in the Joint Rules."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"The point of order is well taken, Mrs. Hansen. According to our Rule 36, 'No bill or resolution shall at any time be amended by annexing thereto or incorporating therein any other bill or resolution pending before the House.'"

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Clark (Newman H.).

Mr. Clark:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. The Speaker evidently did not note that this amendment is a substitute amendment to the amendment by Mrs. Hansen to Substitute House Bill No. 205, which incorporates a part of 205, and does not incorporate, as Mrs. Hansen says, all of House Bill No. 145. There is deviation from House Bill No. 145 and there is inclusion, as a part of the substitute amendment to her amendment, of a part of Substitute House Bill No. 205. The rules do not prevail that you have cited and that have been cited to you. This is an amendment and not another bill."

The Speaker:

"The Speaker will stand by his ruling. You are incorporating practically the whole of House Bill No. 145. We have it before us. The amendment by Mr. Clark is out of order.

"The question before the House is the adoption of the amendment by Mrs. Hansen to Substitute House Bill No. 205."

"Mr. Munro, as one who by reason of the position you hold as Chairman, and one who will possibly establish some 'Munro Doctrines' here, would you answer this question which has disturbed me considerably, what will this cost, and what bill do you propose that will enable the cities to pay the costs?"

Mr. Munro:

"Mr. Clark, we have not yet put in any bills that are going to finance state government for the next biennium. We intend to put those bills in, and I think we will put in some bills for the relief of the cities, as well. The fact that we haven't one in now doesn't necessarily mean we are not going to have one, because we have traditionally in this House and in the Senate put these bills in at the very last of the session. I assure you there will be bills in to relieve the cities."

MOTION

The Speaker resumed the chair.
CALL OF THE HOUSE

The Sergeant at Arms was instructed to lock the doors.

Mr. Mardesich moved that the absent members be excused and that the House proceed with business under the call of the House.

The motion was carried.

Mr. Clark (Newman H.) moved that the motion by Mr. Petrie be laid on the table.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Sandison.

Mr. Sandison:

"Parliamentary inquiry. What is the effect of tabling the motion?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"The effect is that it would not only table the motion to indefinitely postpone, but would also table the resolution."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Mardesich.

Mr. Mardesich:

"The original motion to indefinitely postpone requires a suspension of the rules and a two-thirds majority. Would the motion to table the original motion require the same vote as the original motion, since the motion to table requires a two-thirds vote?"

The Speaker:

"No, the motion to table does not require a two-thirds majority, nor does the original motion to indefinitely postpone require a suspension of the rules, inasmuch as Rule 38 provides, "The motion to postpone indefinitely may be made at any stage of the bill except when on first reading.""

POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker recognized Mr. Savage.

Mr. Savage:

"I haven't looked up the particular rule, but there is a general rule that you can't kill a bill without opening debate. This combination of motions would be contrary to that. Here you would be killing a bill on the move to indefinitely postpone without opening the merits of the bill to debate, and I believe it would be out of order to have a motion to indefinitely postpone, to kill a bill, without opening the merits of the bill for debate."

The Speaker:

"I don't think your point of order is well taken. There is a question before the House—the motion by Mr. Clark to lay the motion by Mr. Petrie on the table."
Mr. Clark (Newman H.) demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the motion by Mr. Clark (Newman H.) to table the motion by Mr. Petrie, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 53; absent or not voting, 2.

The Speaker instructed the Sergeant at Arms to escort Senator Johnson and Assemblyman Belotti to seats on the rostrum beside the Speaker. (Applause.)

The Speaker:

"We have the pleasure of having with us State Senator Johnson and Member of the Assembly Frank P. Belotti from the State of California. The Assemblyman said it is customary for the Senators to do the speaking. That custom prevails, apparently, down your way, too, Senator. It holds true here to a degree.

"At this time I would like to present to you, from the State of California, State Senator Johnson."
Senator Johnson:

"Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen, I can assure your Honorable Body that you are much more courteous here than the Assembly in Sacramento. They certainly will not permit a Senator to get up on the floor there, as I have been privileged to do here, and express himself to the Assembly. They make us sit in the rear.

"It is a distinct pleasure to be here in the State of Washington and in the City of Olympia, and to observe the workings of your two houses. Your work is very similar to ours. We go in session next Monday for a continuation of one hundred days, which will make a total of one hundred twenty days we are in session. We have at the present time over seven thousand bills to consider when we return to our work, and many may cause us trouble, many may never reach the floor. However, they are there to be looked at.

"I read with considerable interest that you are voting yourself a pay increase. We get five hundred dollars a month and eighteen dollars a day for maintenance. That was raised this session from fourteen dollars. On our interim committee work, we get twenty-five dollars a day and fifteen cents a mile. I am just passing that along because I read in the paper in Seattle last night that was being considered and I hope you get it. You are entitled to it.

"I know you are busy. The hour is getting late. I am going to say thank you for the privilege of being here."

The Speaker called the House to order.

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"According to section 160 of Reed's, amendments must be germane. They must be germane or relevant to the subject matter of the original proposition. It is somewhat difficult, and so the rule of this section states, for the presiding officer to lay down a precise decision, but it seems it is left up to the good sense of the presiding officer. For me to rule that this amendment is germane at this time just doesn't appear right. Your amendment would then read, 'The list of candidates of the party whose candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction received the highest number of votes from the electors of this state in the preceding Superintendent of Public Instruction's election.' Your amendment would insert a candidate who is nonpartisan. I will rule your amendment out of order, Mr. Stokes."

POINT OF INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Miller.

Mr. Miller:
"Would Mr. Dore yield to a question? I am not a lawyer, Mr. Dore, and I have listened to many, many explanations of this bill. I would like to ask you this question, up to twelve thousand dollars, do you have to make a report to the court?"

Mr. Dore:
"Well, today, whether it is ten dollars or fifteen, if you wanted to sell that security it would, in effect, require a court order for the minor to be able to give effective title to the security. If it is not a security, there is no limitation and, as Mr. Goldmark said, it could be handled as a trust agreement or guardianship."
FORTY-SIXTH DAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1957

Mr. Miller:

"Now, may I ask another question? If we passed this bill, up to twelve thousand dollars you may make a report to the court, but you are not required to make a report?"

Mr. Dore:

"No, it is not necessary to make a report to the court under the provisions of this bill."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

Mr. Savage moved that Engrossed House Bill No. 24 be re-referred to the Committee on Ways and Means, Subcommittee on Revenue and Taxation.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Gallagher (Bernard J.).

Mr. Gallagher:

"Mr. Speaker, will we be justified in assuming that this will be considered a revenue measure, and possibly in line for consideration after other House bills can not be considered?"

The Speaker:

"I will pass on that when the time comes, Mr. Gallagher. It isn't before us now."

Mr. Rosenberg demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mrs. Epton.

Mrs. Epton:

"Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Mr. Petrich a question. Mr. Petrich, in the first place, a man may still perform the work in his own house without an inspection, is that right?"

Mr. Petrich:

"The exemption applies to the private home owner, but he is still required to obtain a label, as set out in the act, which must be approved by the inspector before it is closed up. He can install it himself, but he must apply for a label."

Mrs. Epton:

"If I may pursue this further, later on it says the work may be sealed in without inspection if an inspector is not available within a rather limited time. It also states that the contractor must have a surety bond of two thousand dollars, which would seem to be rather high in respect to the smaller contractors and ridiculously low in the case of the one who did a job of considerable size."

Mr. Petrich:

"With respect to the permitting of sealing up on the electrical work, in extreme cases that is true; but the certification must be made by a licensed individual. The bond under the existing bill is one thousand dollars. This bill, because we felt the public is entitled to more protection, raised it to two thousand."

Debate ensued.

Mr. Nicholson demanded the previous question and the demand was not sustained.

Debate ensued.

MOTION

Mr. Ruoff moved that further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 215 be deferred, and that the bill retain its place on tomorrow's calendar for third reading.

The motion was lost.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

The Speaker recognized Mr. Wang.

Mr. Wang:

"Would Mr. Litchman yield to a question?"

Mr. Litchman:

"I would be happy to yield to a question."

Mr. Wang:

"Mr. Litchman, is it not true that under the present law you have examination and inspection of all electrical work done in suburbs?"

Mr. Litchman:

"Mr. Wang, in answer to your question, the state law requires one hundred per cent inspection. We now have only ten per cent according to the Department of Labor and Industries. The Department of Labor and Industries is in favor of this type of legislation. I have letters here from them."

Debate ensued.
