FIRST DAY, JANUARY 12, 1959

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, and affixed the Seal of the State of Washington at Olympia, this twelfth day of January, A.D., 1959.

VICTOR A. MEYERS,
Secretary of State.

(The Seal of the State of Washington—1889)

The roll was called and all members were present.

The Sergeant at Arms was instructed to distribute to the members their election certificates.

The Honorable Robert T. Hunter, Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of Washington administered the oath of office to all members of the House of Representatives.

RESOLUTION

Resolution by Mr. Mardesich:

Be It Resolved, That the rules which governed the House of Representatives during the Thirty-fifth Legislative Session of 1957 be adopted by this House as temporary rules until permanent rules be adopted, and that the Committee on Rules and Order be authorized and directed to formulate the permanent rules of the House for the present session, and that the Committee on Rules and Order act jointly with a like committee from the Senate to formulate joint rules.

On motion of Mr. Mardesich, the resolution was adopted.

Nominations for Speaker of the House were declared to be in order.

The Chief Clerk recognized Mr. Beierlein.

Mr. Beierlein:

"Mr. Chief Clerk, Honorable Justice of the Supreme Court Hunter, my distinguished colleagues, ladies and gentlemen:

"This is indeed a tense moment as we are assembled here today to organize this House. As we stand on the threshold of the thirty-sixth legislative session with the enormous problems facing us, I am sure it is apparent to all that we face great challenges in the next sixty days—challenges that will require the best efforts of every member here.

"We must provide essential services without placing undue hardships upon the taxpayers, and at the end of the session leave here with a balanced budget.

"Therefore, it is of the utmost importance that we choose today the ablest, most competent people to lead us during the session.

"I will place in nomination the name of a man who is eminently qualified to fill this important position as the Speaker of this House, a man who has served as a member of this House for many years. He was chosen twice before as our Speaker.
"He is experienced; his rulings are fair and impartial; but above and beyond all of that, he possesses the rarest of human qualities—that of greatness.

"Now I have the privilege, and I assure you it is indeed an honor, to place in nomination the name of a long-time and loyal friend; John L. O'Brien."

The Chief Clerk recognized Mrs. Hansen.

Mrs. Hansen:

"Mr. Chief Clerk, Justice Hunter, ladies and gentlemen of this House:

"It gives me a great pleasure to rise and second the nomination of the very distinguished gentleman from King County: Ladies and gentlemen of this House, as Mr. Beierlein has told you, this state faces great problems. We face them because of the tremendous increase in our size and the inherent problems of inflation.

"It is indeed a privilege and a pleasure for the Democratic Party of the state of Washington to ask to serve again as Speaker of this House the Honorable John O'Brien. I have personally had the privilege and pleasure of serving with Mr. O'Brien for almost twenty years in this House. His tact, diplomacy, sense of humor, and good judgment you all know. You also know his ability to face the problems of our state and to shoulder the responsibility that belongs to all of us. He has demonstrated over these twenty years not only ability, not only integrity, but his willingness to serve the people of this state. And, so, it is a great privilege and an honor today to nominate again for service to the state of Washington my friend, my distinguished colleague of many years, John O'Brien as Speaker of this House."

The Chief Clerk recognized Mr. Mardesich.

Mr. Mardesich:

"Mr. Chief Clerk, Justice Hunter, ladies and gentlemen:

"It is with solemn honor that I also rise to second the nomination of John O'Brien as Speaker of the House. There is no question but what each and every one of us is aware of the complex problems facing us in the next sixty days. There is also no question but what we have in John O'Brien a man with the sincere sense of responsibility and the ability necessary to lead us through these trying days.

"Let me admonish you in one respect. Good leadership requires good followers, and especially so in a body of this sort. Each and every one of us must take some responsibility.

"I am sure John O'Brien will bring to this office the leadership necessary to conclude a successful session of the legislature."

The Chief Clerk recognized Mr. Edwards.

Mr. Edwards:

"Mr. Chief Clerk, Justice Hunter, ladies and gentlemen:

"I know you are all friends of mine, particularly those who have served with me, and you members know that I don't make any promises or statements except those which I know are facts. I told you two years ago I have seen Speakers of the House come and I have seen them go for the last twenty-six years, but, ladies and gentlemen, it is with extreme pleasure that I am able to second the nomination of the same man for the third time.

"As you know, I am conservative. I have spoken to this gentleman, and he believes the same as I do. Ladies and gentlemen, you need him very badly. He will make the best Speaker this state has ever had for this, his third term.

"It gives me great pleasure to second the nomination of John O'Brien."

The Chief Clerk recognized Mr. Olsen.

Mr. Olsen:

"Mr. Chief Clerk, Justice Hunter, ladies and gentlemen:

"I, too, feel very humble today in making a second to John O'Brien's nomination as Speaker of this great body. The distinguished speakers before me have said everything great and wonderful about John O'Brien. Everything that has been said is true. We are very fortunate in my estimation to have a man of John O'Brien's caliber to lead us in this great and trying session that is before us. We will come through with flying colors, and the people of the state of Washington will be happy with the job we do down here this session."
"Once again let me say I am happy to second the nomination of my close and dear friend, John O'Brien."

The Chief Clerk recognized Mr. Gallagher (Bernard J.).

Mr. Gallagher:

"Mr. Chief Clerk, Justice Hunter, fellow members of the House:

You have been hearing from persons from other parts of the state, mostly western. I have known John O'Brien since the 1941 session when I first served in this legislature. Since that time I have observed the manner in which he has worked. A list of positions he has filled includes that of caucus chairman, chairman of appropriations committee, and chairman of the conference committee between the House and Senate on appropriations.

I have seen him work on responsible jobs under the most difficult situations. It is well we have a man with his ability and his knowledge of state government available for the office of Speaker of the House.

"Mr. Mardesich has said that good leadership requires good followers. It requires not only good followers, but the utmost of cooperation from all of us. We are fortunate to have this man available, and it is my privilege, honor, and pleasure to second the nomination of John O'Brien for the office of Speaker of the House."

The Chief Clerk recognized Mr. Evans.

Mr. Evans:

"Mr. Chief Clerk, Honorable Justice Hunter, distinguished colleagues, ladies and gentlemen:

I wish to place a nomination for Speaker, but before I do, I think it is necessary to briefly review what we face in the next sixty days. The watchword of the session will be 'money.' The watchword of the session two years ago should have been 'money,' but it wasn't. We failed to do the job two years ago. The song we heard then was one of harmony, 'we needed no new taxes.' That tune is now changed until today we hear the discordant song of new tax burdens to provide the services which are needed.

The people are watching these deliberations with a great deal of interest—these new tax burdens now being considered.

We believe that if the Republican Party and the man I am going to nominate are successful the needs of this state can be met through careful management, through the elimination of wastage and unrestricted spending.

We believe this can be done without imposing any burdens. Two years ago we failed to do this. Now it is time to provide new leadership for the people of this state.

"We feel it is an honor to be able to nominate a man for Speaker of the House of Representatives. He is a fearless fighter, a capable legislator, and will provide the leadership we need. I nominate Newman H. (Zeke) Clark."

The Chief Clerk recognized Mr. Goldsworthy.

Mr. Goldsworthy:

"It is with pride I stand here to second the nomination of Newman H. Clark for the position of Speaker of the House. We have heard several of the previous speakers mention the serious problems facing this legislature. There are many of them—too many to go into here today. The most serious is the deficit facing the state of Washington. The majority party has been warned of this repeatedly. Republican leadership will fearlessly meet the grave problems of erasing this deficit.

I desire to second the nomination of a man who represents the attitude of the rest of the party.

"Recently we heard in the public press that a deficit is a fine thing. Not too long after that we heard that we must have a balanced budget. We have heard these two different opinions from the same man. Where is the leadership? What are we to believe?"

"In the minority party on this side of the aisle we have a great leader. It is with great pride that I second the nomination of 'Zeke' Clark as Speaker of the House."

There being no further nominations, the Clerk called the roll and Mr. O'Brien was elected Speaker of the House of Representatives by the following vote: Mr. O'Brien, 66; Mr. Clark, 33; absent or not voting, 0.
Those voting for Mr. O'Brien were: Representatives Ackley, Avey, Backstrom, Beierlein, Bernethy, Bigley, Bozarth, Braun, Brink, Brouillet, Brown, Burns, Campbell, Carmichael, Carty, Clark (Newman H.), Conner, Day (Bill), Day (John T.), Donohue, Dore, Edwards, Epton, Farrington, Gallagher (Bernard J.), Gallagher (Phil H.), Garrett, Gleason, Goldmark, Hansen, Hendershot, Henry, Holmes, Hurley, Jonsson (Jon Marvin), King, Kink, Litchman, Mardesich, Marsh, McCormack (Mike), McCormick (W. L. Bill), McFadden, Meyers, Morgan, Mundy, Neva, Nicholson, O'Connell, Olsen, Papajani, Perry, Rasmussen, Ritner, Rosenberg, Sawyer, Schaefer, Smith, Speer, Stocker, Testu, Twidwell, Uhlman, Vane, Wedekind, Witherbee—66.

Those voting for Mr. Clark (Newman H.) were: Representatives Adams, Ahlquist, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Mrs. Eva), Canfield, Chytil, Clark (Cecil C.), Comfort, Copeland, Eldridge, Evans, Goldsworthy, Gorton, Harris, Hood, Huntley, Johnston (Elmer E.), Leland, Mahaffey, Moos, Moriarty, Morphis, Morrissey, O'Brien, Pence, Pritchard, Rickdall, Ruoff, Shropshire, Siler, Swayze, Wang, Wintler—33.

Mr. John L. O'Brien, having received the majority vote of the House, was elected Speaker of the House of Representatives.

The Chief Clerk appointed Representatives Hansen and Brown to escort Mr. O'Brien to the rostrum, where the Honorable Robert T. Hunter, Justice of the State Supreme Court, administered the oath of office to him.

The Speaker assumed the chair.

The Speaker addressed the House with the following remarks:

"Mr. Chief Clerk, Honorable Justice Hunter, members of the House of Representatives:

"Thank you very much for extending to me the great honor of being your Speaker for the thirty-sixth session of the legislature. This session promises to be a very momentous one in the history of our state. More demands and requests will be made on us than at any other session.

"We are all striving for one common objective. That is to fulfill our obligation and responsibilities to the people who elected us. Differences, of course, will arise as to the proper approach to the problems which confront this session. Let us at all times be tolerant of each others' viewpoints, and if we have differences, let them be matters of opinions, not personalities. The citizens of our state expect us to do our work to the best of our ability. We have the background and experience to do a good job.

"If, at any time, I can be of any service to any of you, please feel free to call on me.

"May God bless our deliberations. The best of luck to all of you.

"Thank you very much." (Applause.)

The Speaker called for nominations for Speaker Pro Tempore of the House of Representatives.

The Speaker recognized Mrs. Testu.

Mrs. Testu:

"Honorable Speaker, Justice Hunter, fellow members of the House of Representatives:

"It is an honor for me, and for all the women of the state of Washington, that I have the privilege today to nominate for the position of Speaker Pro Tem of the House of Representatives, Julia Butler Hansen.

"My eminently qualified colleague deserves all the tributes that have been given the Speaker, so I will not repeat them; but in addition her record as a highway expert is matched by no one, man or woman, within or without the borders of this state. She is the first woman to be the legislative chairman of the National Conference of Highway Users, and the only woman to have ever addressed their conference in session in Washington, D. C. She has been on the policy-making Western Interstate Committee on Highway Policy Problems since 1949, and has been its chairman since 1951. She is now the Chairman of the Interim Committee on Highways and Bridges and goes about the state conducting hearings and explaining to the people of this state the need and the cost of our new highways. She has been chairman of Roads and Bridges Committee for many sessions and has streamlined our fine program for highways and raised it to its present level. She has received from the student chapter of the American Road Builders' Association of the State College of Washington a certificate of recognition for outstanding leadership for the construction and promotion of public roads.

"She has not confined her activities to highways. She is a member of the Governor's Safety Council. She is a member of the World Fair Commission. She is widely known as an author. She is one of our leading state Democrats, and she received the award of "Woman of the Year" from the State Federation of Women's Democratic Clubs assembled in Yakima last summer.

"But those who know her best think of her as wife, mother, colleague, and friend. So, as my friend and my colleague, I am proud to nominate for Speaker Pro Tern of the House of Representatives, Julia Butler Hansen."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Rasmussen.

Mr. Rasmussen:

"Mr. Speaker, Justice Hunter, members of the House:

"I rise to second the nomination of Julia Butler Hansen of Cowlitz and Wahkiakum counties. I am very glad that Jeanette nominated Julia. She said many things that I would be unable to say, but I do want to say this: We are fortunate in the state of Washington that Mrs. Hansen stays with us and serves in the legislature. Her caliber, the type of work that she can do, her ability, is needed in Congress, and some day we will be unfortunate enough to lose her service here in the legislature when she goes on to greater things. Now everything that Jeanette has said, I can say 'Amen' to, but I also want to say to both the older legislators and the new legislators, at any time that you have problems, all you have to do is ask Julia. She will either get them straightened out or advise you where to get them straightened out.

"It is a pleasure and privilege to second the nomination of Julia for Speaker Pro Tern."

The Speaker recognized Mrs. Henry.

Mrs. Henry:

"Mr. Speaker, Justice Hunter, ladies and gentlemen of the House:

"It is indeed a great pleasure today to face the members of the House to second the nomination of a woman of the stature of Julia Butler Hansen for Speaker Pro Tern. She is a lady under whose excellent guidance we have all had the privilege of following, and I am sure, as 'Slim' said, the new members will find her an excellent help. She has been a neighbor to my district. I had the honor and privilege of serving on her committee two years ago. Ladies and gentlemen, I think our confidence today should rest in Julia Butler Hansen as Speaker Pro Tern. I therefore second the nomination of Julia Butler Hansen for Speaker Pro Tern."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Ruoff.

Mr. Ruoff:

"Mr. Speaker, Justice Hunter, and ladies and gentlemen of the House:

"It is certainly with a great deal of pride that I place in nomination the name of a man in whom I hope the new members will confide during this session. He is certainly one of the most well-informed legislators in the House. He is indeed a Rock of Gibraltar. He has proven his consistency, his integrity, and his great ability. He is also cognizant of the many problems that we have down here and has become extremely well-informed on the problems of the budget, recognizing that we have got to have it balanced. He is bitterly opposed to the deficit. He wants to do something about the chaotic conditions that exist in state government today. He knows that that government which governs least governs best. He knows that our state government is too large; that it has become unwieldy. He knows that we are wallowing in a sea of patronage and wants to do something about it. He knows of the problems of the liquor board, of the problems of the purchasing department and many other problems, and—

The Speaker:

"I don't like to interrupt the nominating speeches, but I think you are going too far afield. In making a nomination speech, you are taking advantage of the process of making nominations. Actually you are out of order. I wish you would confine your remarks to the nomination for the particular office."
Mr. Ruoff:

"Mr. Speaker, it is with a great deal of pride that I place in nomination the name of Lincoln Shropshire as Speaker Pro Tem."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Clark (Cecil C.).

Mr. Clark:

"Mr. Speaker, Justice Hunter, ladies and gentlemen of this House:

"It is certainly a privilege to be able to second the nomination of my very valued colleague, and he comes from Yakima county, and that in itself should be sufficient recommendation. We are very proud of him over there and his long leadership in the Republican Party, as well as his leadership in this House. That is not, perhaps his best qualification for this position. Of more importance, he has a thorough knowledge of the actual mess we are in now, that he has the taxpayers' point of view, who incidentally elected us, and had his leadership been followed in the past session, we would not be in the fix we are now in.

"I am very happy to second the nomination of my good friend, Lincoln."

On motion of Mr. Dore, the nominations for Speaker Pro Tempore of the House of Representatives were closed.

Mr. Bernethy:

"Mr. Speaker, Justice Hunter, ladies and gentlemen of the House:

"Once again it is a pleasure of mine to place in nomination the name of a man who has served us as Chief Clerk for the last twenty-five years. In fact, with the exception of one year, he has served in the regular sessions and all special sessions since 1933.

"I will say to the new members of the House of Representatives that he will be a big help to them. I don't have to say anything about that to the old members. They all know Si and what a good Chief Clerk he has been, and know he will continue to be this session.

"Again, I want to say it is a pleasure and an honor to place in nomination the name of my good friend, Mr. Si Holcomb, as Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives."

The Speaker recognized Mrs. Hurley.

Mrs. Hurley:

"My Speaker, Honorable Justice Hunter, members of the House:

"One of the most important traditions associated with the House of Representatives is our beloved Chief Clerk. Not only is he a tradition because of his many years of service, but also because of his eminent ability. He is honored and respected by the entire membership of all those he has served in the past. On him depends the efficiency and smooth operation of all our deliberations. Actually he is everyone's boss. In fact, he is the only one who can tell the Speaker what to do and get away with it. In his direction of the House activities, he has never been known to make a mistake, a record he has held for more years than he is willing to admit. In my estimation, he is one person who is always right. We can place our confidence in him with complete assurance.

"It is a cherished privilege to have the honor to second the nomination of Si Holcomb as Chief Clerk of the House."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Canfield.

Mr. Canfield:

"Mr. Speaker, Justice Hunter, and distinguished ladies and gentlemen of the House:

"It is a privilege to rise and speak for our membership in seconding the nomination of S. R. 'Si' Holcomb for Chief Clerk. Si has rendered twenty-five years of faithful service in this capacity. Si is friendly; he is courteous; he is able. He is an expert in legislative organization and in legislative procedures.

"We are the ones who make the speeches. This man is dedicated to the greater responsibility that the gems of wisdom and statesmanship uttered or created by this body shall be a record for all posterity to read and to ponder. As far as the efficient management of the multitudinous, intricate details of this session is concerned, we know of no individual so experienced and so able as Si Holcomb, and I include here his competent corps of trained personnel. Knowing that Si Holcomb will record a true and accurate history of this session, we gladly second his nomination to the important office of Chief Clerk of this Thirty-sixth Legislative Session."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Brouillet.

Mr. Brouillet:

"I rise to second the nomination of Sid Snyder as Assistant Chief Clerk. Now that we have acted so wisely in selecting the Chief Clerk, it is only proper to give him a good right hand to carry out the functions with which he is charged. We all know the job that Sid did two years ago, and I don't think we can go wrong by again selecting a man of proven ability. I think we should consider carefully and select Sid Snyder as Assistant Chief Clerk."

He is familiar with the duties. He knows the job, and I am sure that all we older members know his capabilities in keeping order under the direction of the Speaker, clearing the wings, and seeing that things function properly during the time we are deliberating. "Mr. Speaker, Justice Hunter, members of the House:

"I rise to second the nomination of Elmer Hyppa, a former representative from Pierce county, the man with a broken leg and a crutch; and let me submit to you he can use that very handily to keep order. He handled the session very nicely last time and got us out on time. I am sure Elmer Hyppa will help us get out on time this session."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Chytil.

Mr. Chytil:

"Mr. Speaker, Honorable Justice Hunter, ladies and gentlemen of the House:

"It is my privilege to rise on this side of the House to second the nomination of Elmer Hyppa as Sergeant at Arms. He has done an impartial job in the last two years. PROPOSITIONS AND MOTIONS

RESOLUTION

Resolution by Representatives Uhlman, Nicholson, and Moriarty:

WHEREAS, The University of Washington is a recognized leader of the world in all phases of eight-oared crew racing, its oarsmen, coaches, shells, methods, its consistency in winning national, international, and Olympic championships, all attest to its universal pre-eminence in one of the few remaining sports untainted by any touch of professionalism; and

WHEREAS, In furtherance of this highly desirable sport, the University of Washington crew accepted an invitation to compete against the crews of other nations at London and Moscow and was accorded full hospitality by the governments of the host nations; and

WHEREAS, Officials of the civic promotional organization known as Greater Seattle,
Inc. have proposed to the United States Department of State that the University of Washington reciprocate with a like invitation to crews representing the Soviet Union to compete with the University of Washington and other invited American crews as part of the 1959 Seattle Seafair celebration;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the United States government, and particularly the Secretary of State of the United States, consider and give the greatest amount of cooperation possible to the submitted plans and assist in bringing about the realization of this highly desirable international contest; and

Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted to the Honorable Dwight D. Eisenhower, President of the United States, the Honorable

SPEAKER'S PRIVILEGE

The Speaker observed within the bar of the House Mrs. Buda Brown, member of the British Columbia Parliament, and appointed Representatives Kink, Edwards, and Testu to escort her to a seat on the rostrum. (Applause).

The Speaker:

"At this time I would like to present to you the Honorable Mrs. Brown, a member of the British Columbia Parliament, whose father, Will D. Jenkins, was a Washington Secretary of State from 1897 to 1901."

Mrs. Brown:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and members of the House of Representatives:

"It is a great pleasure to be here today, and a special pleasure to have a lady escort me to the rostrum. We have just two ladies in the legislature in British Columbia. I am the only lady on the government side, and there is one lady on the opposition side.

"I bring you greetings from the premier and members of our cabinet.

"Our session starts next week and will run for sixty days. We have our sessions annually, and I am still questioning how, with the great amount of business you must have, you can possibly get it done, when we work so hard for sixty days every year. But I am told you hope to do something about that situation.

"The other lady I mentioned who is a member of the British Parliament was born in the United States in the state of Alabama. Her husband was in the legislature and she followed him. My husband was in the legislature and I followed him when he stepped down. I was born in Bellingham and lived in Olympia during the time that my father was Secretary of State.

"I want to say again what a great pleasure and great honor it is to be with you today. Thank you." (Applause.)

The committee then escorted the lady legislator from British Columbia from the House chamber.

Fourth Congressional District of the state of Washington to the United States House of Representatives, being the first woman from the state of Washington to be elected

WHEREAS, Catherine May ably served three terms as a member of the House, contributing to the progress of the state in many ways, and particularly in her dedicated efforts to improve the institutional programs and the programs for retarded children, and

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

Senate Chamber,

MR. SPEAKER:

The Senate has passed: Senate Bill No. 41, also Senate Bill No. 42, also Senate Bill No. 43, and the same are herewith transmitted.

WARD BOWDEN, Secretary.

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

Department of State, Office of the Secretary,

To the Honorable,
The Speaker of the House of Representatives,
The Legislature of the State of Washington,
Olympia, Washington.

SIR:

On the third day of April, 1958, Robert E. Colwell, Chairman, Fishery Resources Committee, The Washington State Sportsmen's Council, for and on behalf of said organization tendered five (5) copies of a proposed measure to be an initiative to the Legislature of the State of Washington, accompanied by his affidavit stating that he is a legal voter and that the name and post office address of the organization proposing this initiative for submission to the 1959 Legislature is:

Washington State Sportsmen's Council
1004 Okanogan Avenue, Wenatchee, Wash.

The copies of the proposed measure were filed and the measure was assigned serial Number 25. A copy was transmitted to the Attorney General for Ballot Title, and on April 14, 1958, the following Ballot Title was received from the Attorney General:

"DAM CONSTRUCTION AND WATER DIVERSION

An Act prohibiting the construction or operation of any dam or other obstruction over 25 feet high on any tributary stream of the Columbia River downstream from McNary Dam within the migration range of anadromous fish, except on the North Fork of the Lewis River and White Salmon River, and prohibiting diversion of water from such stream in such quantities as will reduce the flow below the annual average low flow without concurrent approval of the Directors of Fisheries and Game."
On April 14, 1958, the exact language of the above quoted Ballot Title was transmitted to said Robert E. Colwell by telegram and confirmed by mail as required by law. I further certify that on January 2, 1959 said Robert E. Colwell, on behalf of the Washington State Sportsmen's Council, submitted signature petitions said to contain approximately 112,000 signatures of registered voters for filing and canvass, and requested that a report of the final canvass and count be certified to the 1959 Legislature.

Accompanying the petitions was a financial statement reporting in detail the contributions received and expenditures made by the Washington State Sportsmen's Council relative to their signature campaign. The total amount of contributions reported was three thousand, six hundred fifty-seven dollars and fifty-five cents ($3,657.55) and the total amount of expenditures reported was two thousand, six hundred ninety-nine dollars and eighty cents ($2,699.80) as the cost of printing and circulation of signature petitions. This financial statement was certified under the signature of Robert E. Colwell.

On January 8, 1959, a preliminary count of the signatures of the initiative petition was concluded by the office of the Secretary of State, and the result of which indicated that there were approximately 110,717 names signed to the petition.

The canvass of signatures supporting Initiative Measure No. 25 to the Legislature will be completed as soon as possible. If at the conclusion of our checking we find that at least 90,319 valid signatures of currently registered voters have been submitted, a full report will be given simultaneously to both branches of the Legislature. It is estimated that it will take approximately four weeks time from this date to complete the checking of the signatures.

Respectfully submitted,

VICTOR A. MEYERS,
Secretary of State.

The Speaker:
"State your point."
Mr. Copeland:

FIFTH DAY, JANUARY 16, 1959

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"In answer to your question, I will rule that the question of consideration can be raised on the motion. The motion to suspend the rules to advance the bill to second reading is the main question before us."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Copeland:

"Point of inquiry, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your point."

Mr. Copeland:

"Is it the decision of this chair that the question of consideration can be raised on a simple amendment?"

"I will rule on that question when an amendment is before us."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Ruoff:

"Point of information, Mr. Speaker."

"Is the purpose of the motion by Mr. Mardesich to kill the bill, or to cut off debate? If the 'Ayes' prevail, would that kill the bill?"

The Speaker:

"If the question of consideration prevails, the bill will take its regular course. The business before you is the question of consideration on the motion to advance House Bill No. 80 to second reading. An 'Aye' vote means you wish to have the motion to advance the bill considered. A 'Nay' vote means you refuse consideration of the motion at this time; it will then be referred to the Committee on State Government and take its normal course."

WARD BOWDEN, Secretary.

SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker announced that he was about to sign: Senate Bill No. 41; also Senate Bill No. 42; also
Senate Bill No. 43.

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING OF BILLS

The following were introduced, read first time by title, and acted upon as indicated:

House Bill No. 88, by Representative Rasmussen:
An Act relating to exemption of urban passenger transportation systems from the public utility tax and the business and occupation tax; and adding a new section to chapter 82.04 RCW and two new sections to chapter 82.16 RCW.
Ordered printed and referred to Committee on Ways and Means (Subcommittee on Revenue and Taxation).

House Bill No. 89, by Representatives Rasmussen, Swayze, and Witherbee:
An Act relating to the right of survivorship in joint tenancies and tenancies by the entireties; and amending section 1, chapter 270, Laws of 1953 and RCW 11.04.070.
Ordered printed and referred to Committee on Judiciary.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Rasmussen:
"Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:
"State your question."
Mr. Rasmussen:
"Is it possible to re-refer the bill at this time?"

The Speaker:
"It has been referred to Committee on Judiciary. Do you have in mind referring it to another committee?"

Mr. Rasmussen:
"I do."

MOTION

Mr. Rasmussen moved that House Bill No. 89 be re-referred to the Committee on Constitution, Elections, and Apportionment.

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Rasmussen:
"Mr. Speaker, will this motion to re-refer House Bill No. 89 require only a majority vote?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:
"I am going to rule that Rule 78 requires that the first reading of a bill shall be by title only, and that the bill shall then be referred to a committee. After the bill has been in committee, it can be re-referred to another committee on a majority vote. To re-refer a bill on first reading would require a suspension of rules and a two-thirds affirmative vote of the members present."

Mr. Rasmussen:
"I think your ruling is quite correct; that is why I asked. On the following day under the fourth order of business a motion to re-refer would require a majority vote."

The Speaker:
"That is correct. The question before you is the motion that the rules be suspended, and that House Bill No. 89 be re-referred to Committee on Constitution, Elections, and Apportionment."

The motion was lost.

House Bill No. 90, by Representatives Olsen, Brink, and Clark (Newman H.):

An Act relating to the sale and conveyance or lease to the city of Seattle of certain real property, in Block 35 A. A. Denny's 6th Addition to the city of Seattle and providing for the distribution of proceeds.

WHEREAS, The construction of this refinery demonstrated the faith of The Texas Company in the continued growth and promising future of the State of Washington;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the House of Representatives congratulates The Texas Company on the completion of its new Puget Sound Refinery and wishes it all success in its operations here;

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to the president of The Texas Company and to the superintendent of the Puget Sound Refinery.

Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this resolution shall immediately be transmitted to the National Basketball Association, to the owners and members of the Minneapolis Lakers basketball team, and to Elgin Baylor.

Mr. Sawyer moved that the resolution be adopted. Debate ensued.

The resolution was adopted.

Resolution by Representatives Clark (Newman H.) and Shropshire:

WHEREAS, The State of Washington is presently marketing bonds issued under the authority of the legislature of the State of Washington, and

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the Governor of the State of Washington and the attorney general of the State of Washington, are hereby directed to submit such bond issue only to a law firm whose approval of such bonds shall be acceptable so that and that such opinion and endorsement shall not be submitted to the aforementioned attorney and no further fee shall be paid to such attorney while his recommendation is not beneficial to the State of Washington.

Mr. Moriarty moved that the resolution be adopted.
On motion of Mr. Mardesich, the resolution was laid on the table.
Mr. Moriarty moved that the resolution be taken from the table.

Mr. Moriarty:
"I refer you to page 324 of the 1957 Manual which reads: • • • • when a bill or proposition is laid on the table the matter is only temporarily disposed of under the proper order of business; a motion to take from the table may be made at any time, and such a motion opens debate on the whole question."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:
"I will rule the motion out of order due to the fact there has been no progress made on the matter since the motion to lay on the table."

Mr. Moriarty:
"May I have your authority?"

The Speaker:
"I have just given the ruling."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Moriarty:
"Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker. Will the Speaker please explain to me, then, the meaning of the words which I just read?"

The Speaker:
"In answer, I will say that this summary from which you quoted was prepared by the Chief Clerk and not by the Speaker. A motion to take from the table is on the same basis as a motion to lay on the table. It appears to me to be absolutely logical that if the motion to lay on the table is not debatable, then neither is the motion to take from the table."

Mr. Moriarty:
"Apparently the motion to take from the table is not debatable. What is your authority for this ruling?"

The Speaker:
"I have another reference which breaks down all the rules of procedure in a well-deﬁned way."

Mr. Moriarty:
"When would a motion to take from the table be in order?"

The Speaker:
"I would say it would be in order at this time tomorrow."

Mr. Moriarty:
"May I have your authority?"

The Speaker:
"You may see the references that I have here."

These cans have been placed here through the courtesy of the Washington State Soft Fruit Commission. I hope the fact that we jumped the gun, since there has yet been no legislation, will not be construed as an attempt to bribe. Over the week end, as you enjoy these pears, I hope you will reflect that virtually all of the Bartlett pears consumed in the United States are grown on the west coast and a substantial percentage in Washington. These pears are marketed through the Washington State Soft Fruit Commission. The Bartlett pear industry contributes millions of dollars to our state's economy annually."

On motion of Mr. Dore, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed House Bill No. 67 was placed on final passage.
Yielding to Question

Mr. Goldmark:
"Mr. Speaker, will either of the sponsors of the bill yield to a question?"

The Speaker:
"Will you yield, Mrs. Testu?"

Mrs. Testu:
"Yes, I will yield."

Mr. Goldmark:
"Has the department of institutions been consulted regarding this bill, and what effect would its passage have on the space now available in the state institutions?"

Mrs. Testu:

The Speaker recognized Mr. Shropshire.

SPEAKER'S PRIVILEGE

The Speaker:

"I wish to call the attention of the members to House Rule No. 54 which pertains to decorum. We should pay more attention to the members who have the floor. The rule states clearly: 'nor when a member is speaking shall any member entertain private discourse or pass between the speaking member and the rostrum.'

"I think it is very important when a member has the floor or is discussing a bill that the proper attention be paid."

Mr. Smith proceeded to read to the members from a magazine article.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Moriarty:
"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. I believe we have a rule providing that no papers may be read without the consent of the House."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. O'Connell:
"Will the gentleman from King, Mr. Clark, yield to a question?"
The Speaker:
"Will you yield, Mr. Clark?"
Mr. Clark (Newman H.):
"Yes, I will yield."
Mr. O'Connell:
"Would your amendment permit, or would it, perhaps, close a loophole in advertising for employment?"
Mr. Clark:

"Our state supreme court has not, nor has the supreme court of the state of New York, uniformly followed the decisions of the other states. We have no ability to judge the outcome of the bill if passed as written. We have to form our own laws. We have our own state supreme court, and we can't be guided by what another supreme court has done."

Debate continued.

Mr. Dore:

"Will the gentleman from King, Mr. Clark, yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Clark?"

Mr. Clark (Newman H.):

Mr. Clark:

"We have a separate bill on that subject."

The Speaker:

"Your question is out of order. Please confine your questions to the amendment before us."

Debate continued.

"Will the gentleman from King, Mr. Smith, yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Smith?"

Mr. Smith:

"Yes, I will yield."

Mr. Andersen:

"I am not sure I understand your bill. Is my understanding correct that this law against discrimination is for the benefit of the minorities only? It is my understanding that everyone is protected from discrimination—all races, all creeds—not just minorities."

Mr. Smith:

"This bill is aimed at all persons, regardless of race, creed, or color. The Caucasians would get the greatest protection because their numbers are the greatest. This law would help every person regardless of whether or not he is past the age of forty."
Mr. Andersen:
"If, then, that is the philosophy behind the bill, how can there be any objection to protecting all persons of all ages, rather than just persons within these narrow age boundaries?"

Mr. Smith:
"This is the age group, between forty and sixty-five, wherein the abuses are most prevalent. It would not be necessary to make laws if the need did not exist."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Moriarty:
"Will Mr. Smith yield to a question?"

The Speaker:
"Will you yield, Mr. Smith?"

Mr. Smith:
"Yes, I will yield."

"Mr. Smith, let me ask you this question. If an employer seeking to hire someone would advertise for someone forty-three years of age, would he be guilty of discrimination?"

Mr. Smith:
"That is a good question. I am not a judge, but I would say he would be discriminating against persons forty-one years old and against persons forty-four years old. Yes, I would say he would be guilty of discrimination."

Mr. Moriarty:
"I have another question. The amendment before the House deals with the question of whether or not we will have a specific age in the bill..."

The Speaker:
"You are going too far in these questions. I don't object to your asking questions, but you are going into the merits of the bill, which is subject to debate."

"Mrs. Hansen, will you yield to a question?"

"Yes, I will yield."

Miss Wintler:
"Is there any provision that these streets which are being returned to a city or county by the state highway department shall be repaired first so that junior taxing districts won't be obligated to spend money to put them into usable condition?"

Mrs. Hansen:
"I think the same procedure is used on these city streets as is used when county roads are returned. Prior to the time of transfer, the city, county, and state enter into an agreement as to what repairs are necessary before the certification is made.

"Sometimes you have an expensive bridge that would need reconstruction. Probably the state has already built a new bridge on an alternate route through the city. It would be grossly unfair to ask the state to double its responsibility unless the people are willing to have their taxes greatly increased. They enter into an agreement as to the type of repairs to be made."

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

State of Washington, Executive Department,
Olympia, February 2, 1959.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the State of Washington.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I am submitting for your consideration a proposed Budget and Accounting Act, enactment of which will permit achievement of the following major objectives:

1. The Governor would be required to submit a balanced budget to the Legislature under which a revenue program would be offered by the Governor to meet all appropriation expenditures which had been proposed.
2. The Legislature would be required to adopt a balanced budget.
3. Provision would be made for orderly liquidation of the deficit.
4. The budget document would be a comprehensive statement of all receipts and all expenditures—whether these transactions reflect appropriated or nonappropriated funds. By this means, the Legislature would be able to review appropriation requirements in relation to total financial resources.
5. A long-range, comprehensive capital improvement program for all state projects would be established—to extend over a period of three biennia. This program would permit orderly consideration of all capital projects in terms of the revenues available to finance these projects.
6. Definite authority would be assigned to the Governor, through his Budget Director, to ensure that the budget—as enacted by the Legislature and signed into law by the Governor—is effectively carried out.
7. Program-expenditure plans, based on appropriations granted, would be offered by agencies to the governor. The Governor could alter these expenditure plans at any time during the biennium, ensuring control over the rate of expenditures. The Governor would not be empowered to alter the expenditure plans in the case of agencies headed by elective officials or for the five institutions of higher education. But no agency would be permitted to spend more than was appropriated.
8. Agencies would be required to submit all salary and classification plans to the Budget Director; he would be empowered, with the approval of the Governor, to bring these plans into conformity with the fiscal and personnel policies of the State. However, this authority would not extend in the case of salary and classification plans developed in agencies headed by elective officials nor for those which had been developed in the five institutions of higher education.
9. Responsibility would be clearly fixed for all concerned in the State's fiscal processes: With the heads of agencies for conducting their programs under the terms and conditions contained in the budget—as reflected in current, detailed financial and work reports submitted to the Budget Director; with the Budget Director, as the Governor's agent in fiscal affairs, to see to it that all proposed expenditures accord with the budget, and that agency accounting records and reports fully and correctly provide information needed to enable the Governor to take appropriate action at any time to reduce expenditures, where possible, with the Treasurer to serve as the State's chief disbursing officer and as custodian of state funds; and with the Auditor for securing an independent, timely post audit of all financial transactions.
10. The act would permit best use of a staff of trained analysts who would devote their full time and energies to the important job of serving, under the Budget Director, as the Governor's agents in seeing to it that the budget plan involving both expenditures and revenues is effectively carried out and that an efficient level of public service is sustained for all agencies.
In addition, the act would:

Amend or repeal a series of vague or contradictory statutes which have had the effect of obscuring vital questions in the State's pattern of fiscal control;

Permit elimination of outmoded and inefficient accounting and reporting practices, and would substitute therefor a comprehensive accounting and reporting system to support the new program budget;

Permit more efficient utilization of the punch card and computer equipment now maintained by a number of agencies. As one example, the Department of Public Assistance under proper machine accounting methods, as contemplated under the act, would be able to save $275,000 during this coming biennium and would, additionally, furnish a higher level of public service;

Provide a flexible legal base for keeping the State's budget and accounting needs ever adaptable to changing conditions. Regulations would be issued pursuant to the act which would serve as the comprehensive, regulatory framework within which all elements of the budget and accounting system would operate.

As you review the proposed legislation, you will note other elements which support the foregoing objectives; all are consistent with the purposes you envisioned when you gave me authority during your 1957 legislative session, to develop and install a modern budget and accounting system. Your action at the last session had bipartisan sponsorship and during this biennium our work has been carried out with the help of a bipartisan committee. I hope that this act will receive the bipartisan support it deserves for its enactment. The budget document, which you received during the first week of this session, is a major step toward our goal of budget and accounting reform. It is of vital importance that I be authorized, under the proposed act, to continue my efforts to develop an effective system of fiscal control. I am confident that, after study, you will conclude that this legislation is needed to furnish a clear legal basis for continued progress.

I am fully aware that this legislation at this time necessarily encompasses only a major first-step toward effective fiscal control. As you become familiar with the benefits to be derived from this system, I think that in future years you will expand its scope to cover all executive agencies, so that the authority of the Chief Executive will be commensurate with the responsibility assigned to him by the Constitution.

Respectfully submitted,

ALBERT D. ROSELLINI,
Governor.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

I am voting against Engrossed House Bill No. 73 for the following reasons:

I have always championed the bills to do away with discrimination and intolerance because of race, color, or creed. In fact, I worked for the first F. E. P. C. bill in the 1945 Session.

Now, as the expression goes, we are looking at the other side of the coin. This bill is a discrimination bill—it says to employers, "you now have the right to fire an employee who has reached age 65." I sincerely believe no person should be removed from a job or refused a job if he or she is physically and mentally capable of performing the duties of the job. No person should be denied the right to work because of race, color, creed, union membership, or age.

In their wisdom the proponents of the bill are trying to stop employers from dismissing employees between ages 40 to 65. My interpretation of the bill is that an employer can, under its provisions, make a rule that no one will be hired over 65.

I voted against Engrossed House Bill No. 73 because I believe it discriminates against workers over 65 years of age.

AUNLEY F. MAHAFFEY.

It is my considered judgment that House Bill No. 73 is unconstitutional. Therefore, I voted against it.

ELMER C. HUNTLEY.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

"Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from King, Mr. Clark, yield to a question?"

The Speaker:
"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Clark?"

Mr. Clark (Newman H.):
"Yes, I will yield."

Mr. Beierlein:
"Mr. Clark, not being a member of the bar, and not having had the privilege of attending the judiciary committee hearing on this bill, I don't quite know why this bill is needed. Will you explain to me why it is so important?"

Mr. Clark:
"Mr. Rasmussen has correctly stated that we could take depositions for those living over twenty miles away. But depositions are a cold record to read to a jury, and often the case does not develop as anticipated. It requires a great deal of expense if we have to travel even from Seattle to Tacoma to take depositions. It might cost two hundred dollars or more. Under this bill, the witness could come in, and even if we paid him a hundred dollars a day it would be less expensive. It is a convenience and a benefit, as Mr. Gorton and Mr. Brink have explained.

"There is another factor. Often a witness can't get away without a subpoena. He may be perfectly willing to come in, but his employer knows he cannot be subpoenaed if he is across the twenty-mile mark and refuses to let him go. I have spent much time and money in junkets traveling to take depositions. It is often difficult to get witnesses to come in, even when they are willing and even when we pay them. This is just a bill to implement justice."

Further debate ensued.

Mr. Olsen demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE
Regarding House Joint Memorial No. 5, we, the undersigned, wish to state as follows:
We oppose, and have consistently opposed, so-called "Right to Work" legislation for the State of Washington. We therefore opposed Initiative No. 198 in 1956 and Initiative No. 202 in 1958. We do not, however, wish to deny the right of the peoples of the various states freely to decide for themselves whether or not they wish to have such laws in their respective states, as permitted by section 14-B of the Taft-Hartley Act. We therefore respectfully voted "nay" on House Joint Memorial No. 5.

JAMES A. ANDERSEN
MRS. EVA ANDERSON
SLADE GORTON
ALFRED E. LELAND
JOEL M. PRITCHARD

We believe in the principle of states' rights. Each state should have the right to establish its own policies in accordance with its own needs and problems. Some states have right to work laws, and we should not like to interfere with their desire just as we would not like to have any other state determine what our own state shall or shall not do.

TWENTY-FIFTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
OLYMPIA, WASH., Thursday, February 5, 1959.

The Speaker called the House to order at 11:00 a.m.

The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representatives Mardesich and McCormick (W. L. Bill), both of whom were excused.

The flag was escorted to the rostrum by a Sergeant at Arms color guard.

Prayer was offered by the Reverend Father Leonard Rafalowski of St. Michael’s Catholic Church of Olympia.

The reading clerk proceeded to read the journal of the proceedings of the previous day. On motion of Mr. Sawyer, further reading was dispensed with and the journal was ordered to stand approved.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Kink, House Bill No. 52 was re-referred from Committee on Aviation and Transportation to Committee on Harbors and Waterways.

SPEAKER’S PRIVILEGE

The Speaker observed within the bar of the House former State Representative Frank C. Jackson of King county, and appointed Representatives Clark (Newman H.) and Ruoff to escort him to a seat on the rostrum beside the Speaker.

The Speaker called upon Mrs. Hansen to preside.

Mrs. Hansen:

"It is a pleasure to present former Representative Frank Jackson of the 47th legislative district. I believe Mr. Jackson has a presentation to make this morning to our Speaker."

Mr. Jackson:

"Thank you, Madam Chairman. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it is a great privilege and pleasure for me to appear here this morning. I have a very pleasant and happy task to perform.

"Some twenty-five or thirty years ago I began to make gavels as a hobby. I had to give it up because we traded off our place and I had no place to work, but I have a good friend who has come in many times and helped me out. Today I have a very fine specimen of the art of gavel making.

"I don't know of anything that gives me greater pleasure than to present this gavel to one who has earned the great distinction which this person has. In all the fifty-four years I have been coming to Olympia, I have never known of any instance, except the present one, where a Speaker has held three consecutive terms. I want to congratulate you on the fact that you have a Speaker who expedites your work and sees that your time is not wasted, and who is also fair. It is not easy to both hasten the work along and still be fair.

"And as to your Speaker pro tem, I have never known another woman who has been so able in the field of highways and bridges. She is outstanding in this work and she is known throughout the entire nation.

"It is a great pleasure to present to her this gavel, which is a symbol of democracy."
In Biblical days we had the stone of David, and on that stone many kings have been crowned. And in the House of Commons we have the sack on which the Speaker sits. But in our own democracy the symbol is a gavel, and your Speaker pro tem—this able legislator who has served twenty years—knows how to use it.

"Mrs. Hansen, it is a great pleasure to me to present to you this gavel." (Applause.)

Mrs. Hansen:

"Thank you, Mr. Jackson. It is difficult to find words to express my appreciation to you, but I have never had a nicer gift in all my years of service. Thank you." (Applause.)

If I buy a new house and ask the city of Seattle to look at it, would I be required to have a label affixed before I can secure electricity?"

Mr. Perry:
"This label would already have been affixed to the home. That is not the problem."

Mr. Moriarty:
"Will you yield to a further question on another subject?"

Mr. Perry:
"Yes."

Mr. Moriarty:
"If I happen to be a fairly good journeyman electrician and help my neighbor do some wiring, would it be necessary for me to apply for a label?"

"Under the present law that is illegal. You can't do that today. The department has already had quite a few persons in court on this very matter."

Mr. Perry:
"That is the intent of the act."

Mr. Gallagher:
"Just what is a service entrance?"
Mr. Perry:
"It is the point at which the power company connects up with the house. It determines the size of the load of the house."

Mr. Gallagher:
"It is chiefly what you are doing to the outside of the house then?"

Mr. Perry:
"That is correct."

RESOLUTION

Resolution by Representatives Olsen, Dore, and Brink:

WHEREAS, The United States Army currently proposes to move the Fort Lewis personnel center to San Francisco, California, despite previous assurances given by the Army after the closure of the Seattle Army Terminal that the movement of military troops and cargo through Seattle would not be affected; and

WHEREAS, If carried out, this latest move would wipe out the Military Sea Transport Service (north Pacific), would adversely affect the United States Army terminal agency, would jeopardize the jobs of some fifteen hundred employees of other federal agencies in the Seattle area, and would deal another crippling blow to the Seattle Port; and

WHEREAS, The Army's excuses of economy are specious as demonstrated by the fact that with the superior pier facilities at Piers 90 and 91 in Seattle, a ship can load troops, cargo, and provisions at one location while in San Francisco, ships must move to three locations to accomplish this at an additional cost of $6,000.00 to $8,000.00 for each ship, and by the fact that the per ton costs of handling cargo are $5.30 in Seattle and $8.00 in San Francisco, and by the fact that Seattle is two days closer to the Orient and our new state of Alaska than San Francisco, and every day that a ship is at sea costs from $6,600 to $6,800 for its operation; and

WHEREAS, We ought, by now, to have learned from the lesson of Pearl Harbor that the concentration of military facilities in the name of economy can be a costly, if not fatal error; and
WHEREAS, If the San Francisco harbor were put out of commission by an enemy, there would be no other harbors able to handle large cargo vessels within hundreds of miles of that city, while near Seattle there are Tacoma, Portland, Vancouver, Washington, and Vancouver, B. C. with adequate port facilities for the large vessels; and

WHEREAS, This continued economic bleeding of the Port of Seattle may well destroy its ability to respond to the burden which would be placed upon it in a defense emergency; and

WHEREAS, The forty-eight older states owe it to their newest sister state of Alaska to make men and material for its defense in case of attack available as rapidly as possible by maintaining the strength of the port which is closest to Alaska;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That we, the House of Representatives of the State of Washington, most respectfully implore the President of the United States, and the United States Senate and the United States House of Representatives, and the Secretary of Defense to put a stop to this costly, dangerous and unwise concentration of the military shipping from the California ports and to order and direct that a fair share of such military sea traffic pass through the Port of Seattle to insure Seattle's status as a major port to guarantee its immediate availability in case of an emergency and to protect the economy of this vital northwest sector of the nation; and

Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States, the Secretary of Defense of the United States, and to each Senator and Representative in Congress from the State of Washington.

Mr. Olsen moved that the resolution be adopted.

Debate ensued.

The resolution was adopted.

REPORTS OF SPECIAL COMMITTEES

The Speaker recognized Mr. King.

Mr. King:
"Mr. Speaker, I would like to report for the special delegation sent to Alaska last weekend.

"I suppose many of you are wondering, after reading the papers, if we were lost up in Alaska. We weren’t lost. There was no place to go. I want to state that the meeting was a good one. We missed it, but it was a good one. Actually, there was a misunderstanding regarding the time. We were sitting at dinner with the acting Governor of Alaska, the Speaker of the House, and several senators and representatives of the Alaska legislature. We were all seated at the same table. They said there was no hurry about getting to the other meeting, that it wasn’t until nine, and that we would all go over together. When we arrived the meeting was over.

"However, the meetings the next day were right on schedule. One dealt with cities and counties, one with commerce and transportation, and one with fisheries. All the meetings dealt with mutual problems of the two states.

"We all felt that progress was made in all of these fields. They are definitely going to do something. They are interested in receiving copies of each bill that is introduced here in our legislature; they want to study them.

"They are also very much interested in highways. I don't know where they are going to put them, but they are interested in learning all they can.

"We had very friendly meetings on Saturday, part of our group meeting on commerce and part on fisheries. No definite answers were arrived at regarding a fee schedule. We are giving consideration to the two-to-one ratio.

"When we left we were escorted to the airport by a delegation. We all felt that our trip had been worthwhile. We hope some of us can go up there again and meet with them on our mutual problems."

SPEAKER'S PRIVILEGE

The Speaker requested the Clerk to read the following telegram:

Juneau, Alaska,
February 8, 1959.

Speaker of House
Washington Legislature, Olympia, Wash.

Newspaper accounts stating your delegation not present at arranged meeting by reason of being at cocktail party called to our attention. The news statement erroneous as the failure to attend was by reason of misunderstanding of time of meeting. Public reception given for members of Alaska legislature and members your delegation by American Legion. The meeting was understood to be for 9:00 p.m. Our members appeared at 7:30 p.m. at House chamber and left at 8:30 p.m. Your delegation appeared at 9:00 p.m. which they thought was the set time. Whole matter arose through time misunderstanding.

William E. Beltz, President of Senate
Warren A. Taylor, Speaker of House

The Speaker recognized Mr. Wedekind.

Mr. Wedekind was granted permission to read the following report:

February 7, 1959.

MEMO TO: SENATE STANDING COMMITTEES OF: Commerce and Labor Federal Relations

HOUSE STANDING COMMITTEES OF: Commerce and Labor Federal Relations

RE: ALASKA TRANSPORTATION PROBLEMS

The Washington State Legislature and the Director of the Public Service Commission of the State of Washington, realizing the problems facing Alaska in her new venture into Statehood where, as vital to the State of Washington as the State of Alaska, and with the passage of the Alaska Statehood Bill, changing the status from a territory to a state, automatically classifies transportation to and from Alaska as Interstate Commerce. This will require some major revisions of both federal and state law covering the regulation of transportation—water, air, rail and highways—by both the Federal Congress and the Alaska Legislature.

Senator Magnuson, as the chairman of the Senate Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee, had expressed the three major areas in which legislation will have to be considered are:

1. Amendments to the Interstate Commerce Act to provide for the issuance of permits, granting of authority, and the rate regulation of motor carriers engaged in transporting to and from and within Alaska in Interstate Commerce.
2. Consideration by Congress as to whether or not the Alaska Railroad, a government agency, should be subject to regulation and rate control.
3. Under what agency and under what conditions should the maritime commerce between the North Pacific coast ports and Alaska ports, now under the jurisdiction of the Maritime Commission, be continued?

Many discussions have been held with Senator Magnuson. His committee has held extensive hearings in Alaska on many of these problems, and will shortly hold further hearings.

The newly elected senior senator of Alaska, Bob Bartlett, is also well aware of this problem, and expressed his concern that the Alaska Legislature should probably await the federal enactments before it attempts major transportation legislation on an intrastate level. Senator Bartlett will leave Washington on Sunday next to spend the week in Juneau on many problems, including this one, and at the request of Senator Magnuson, Mr. Jess Rosenberg, general counsel of the Western Highways Institute of San Francisco and Frederick J. Lordan as counsel of the Western Conference of Teamsters, will meet Senator Bartlett in Alaska, principally to discuss some phases of this problem with the proper officials of the administration and Legislature in Juneau.

The Director of the Department of Public Service, whose jurisdiction covers all public service rates, etc. has asked us to convey an offer to submit all of his procedures for your committees study, realizing you will need some type of rate making body, whether it be the type we have been so successful with in the State of Washington or otherwise, and will only be too happy if called upon to assist and/or help work out any mechanics our sister state desires. He further realizes, in addition to the transition from Federal to State jurisdiction on matters pertaining to Interstate commerce, the second and most assuredly as important, duties of a rate making body covering intra-state control of the afore-mentioned water, air, rail and highway, it also must deal with the utilities as well, and he is further prepared to forward to you processes, etc. in the adjudication of these matters.

Trusting our visit and meetings may contribute some help in your newly assumed obligations and transitions, we offer our aid whenever you wish and decide to call on our interim committees covering like and kind problems.

Respectfully submitted:
On Behalf of the Washington State Legislature,
REPRESENTATIVE MAX WEDEKIND,
Transportation Adviser.

The Speaker recognized Mr. Mahaffey.

Mr. Mahaffey:
"I would like to concur in what the chairman of our fisheries committee has said here today. I would also like to commend him for the way in which he handled the meetings with our sister state, Alaska. I feel that Representative King did an admirable job in presenting our problems to them and in attempting to work out a solution. He told them we were there as a good will gesture. We have had seventy years of experience, and we are willing to offer to them what we have found along the way. I would like to commend the way in which the chairman of our fisheries committee handled things. I am sure a great deal of good will come from those meetings."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

"Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Snohomish and Island counties, Mr. Stocker, yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

Mr. Stocker:
"Yes."

Mr. Speer:
"If a person goes down to St. Vincent's salvage to purchase some rags, and they have not been treated as provided in this act, is St. Vincent's guilty of violating the law?"

Mr. Stocker:
"The people who are collecting these rags indicated that they did not sell any dirty rags. This formula we are proposing is the one accepted by the United States government and the state purchasing department. But it is all right if they wash by any other method approved by the department of public health. We have removed the objection raised by the Goodwill Industries. The California act provides that they not wash in the same machine. We have changed that. We are merely trying to set up minimum requirements of sanitation which have been demanded by the department of public health, so that we are not importing contaminated rags from Japan and other places."

“Yes.”

Mr. Moriarty:
“At the present time isn’t it the prerogative of the parole board to determine whether or not a man sentenced to life imprisonment shall be paroled?”

Mr. Burns:
“Yes.”

Mr. Moriarty:
“Isn’t the further effect of your amendment to take this prerogative from the parole board and give it to a jury?”

Mr. Burns:
“The jury could find that a prisoner may be released after thirteen and a half years, or they could find he must serve twenty years.”

Debate continued:

“Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Shropshire yield to a question?”

The Speaker:
“Will you yield, Mr. Shropshire?”

Mr. Shropshire:

Mr. Sawyer:
“Mr. Shropshire, I did not quite understand your position. Is it your contention that even with Mr. Burn’s amendment, the general statute would permit a man serving a life sentence to be released after thirteen and a half years?”
Mr. Shropshire:

"It is my contention that RCW 9.95.115 would control, and a person serving a mandatory life sentence has the right to parole after thirteen and a half years. Therefore the amendment would have no effect."

Debate continued.

The previous question was demanded and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Moriarty demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment by Mr. Burns, and the amendment was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 51; absent or not voting, 8.

In the case of an indigent defendant, the cost of his appeal, including a reasonable attorney fee for the defendant's counsel shall be paid by the county wherein the judgment was rendered."

Debate ensued.

Mr. Jonsson (Jon Marvin):

"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Litchman yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield?"

Mr. Litchman:

"Yes."

Mr. Jonsson:

"It has been mentioned on the floor that when you have an appeal to the supreme court, only errors of law are considered. If no errors of law were committed in the trial, would the defendant have an appeal, or would the supreme court review the entire transcript?"
Mr. Litchman:

"I will have to take exception to the statement that was made. The purpose of the amendment is to provide for a mandatory appeal, whether or not the defendant wants it or can afford it. The facts in the transcript as well as the law would be reviewed.

"Also, in answer to your question, I might say it would be very difficult for the supreme court of nine men sitting on the bench to hold that an innocent man is guilty of a crime."

This is in accordance with House Rule 43."

Mr. Litchman:
"I will ask Mr. Stocker to yield to that question."
Mr. Stocker:

"The objection we are trying to remove by the amendment is the case of a person who is incarcerated for life in the institution at Walla Walla. In the first place, I know of no one placed in Monroe for murder. I do know of a person fourteen years old at Walla Walla for murder. You would not have a person facing life with nothing to lose at any institution except Walla Walla."

Mr. Smith:

"Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Snohomish and Island counties yield to another question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Stocker?"

Mr. Stocker:

MEMORIAL TRIBUTE
Representative Swayze

Our Memorial Service today is held on the 150th anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln. We are indebted to Justice Hill for stirring our hearts and challenging our minds as he paid tribute to this great American.

We also note another event in the history of our state. Our music was furnished by the choir of Whitman College. Whitman College, the oldest chartered educational institution in the state of Washington, was established in 1859 when the legislature of the territory of Washington granted the charter. All during 1959, Whitman's one-hundredth year, centennial observances will be held.

But particularly today, we pause to pay tribute to twenty-six former legislators. As Abraham Lincoln served his country, they served the state of Washington with distinction and honor. These men have departed from this life during the past two years, and their names appear upon our memorial roster. On this roll are the names of three men who sat with us in this room just two years ago, Earl Griffith, Clyde Miller, and John Strom.

We welcome the relatives and friends who have come to share with us this sacred hour of memory. The many hours of toil these men gave to the cause of good government have contributed to the firm foundation of our state, and their relatives and friends will never forget the qualities of leadership they manifested.

In tribute to the memories of these distinguished former members of the Senate and House who have passed from among us, we present our memorials, and I ask my fellow colleagues to bring the flower of Love and Memory. As I call their names, I will state the year they started their service in the legislature.

IN MEMORIA

In tribute to the memories of these distinguished former members of the Senate and House who have passed from among us, we, the memorialists of the Thirty-sixth Session, convey the respects of the Washington State Legislature, and present our memorials to be preserved in the Book of Memory, in the custody of the Secretary of State:

Mr. Harris moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Add a new section following section 1 to read as follows:

"Sec. 2. At the first meeting of the enlarged commission, the commission shall begin consideration of the advisability of postponing the proposed world fair. After a complete study of the plans and the prospects for a financially successful exposition, and after taking into consideration the present financial and economic condition of the state of Washington, the commission shall either delay further action on the fair or proceed as it deems advisable and sound under the circumstances and it shall make a full report to the 1961 legislature on its decision and action."

Debate ensued.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mrs. Swayze.

Mrs. Swayze:

"I rise to a point of personal privilege, Mr. Speaker. On behalf of the Memorials Committee, for your complete cooperation in presenting the memorial services yesterday, we are having the pages distribute brand new Lincoln pennies to each of you. It may not be worth much at this time, but if you keep it fifty years it will be worth something. We thought this was a good time to distribute 'cents' to the members of the legislature. Thank you."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Nicholson:

"Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from King, Mr. Olsen, yield to some questions?"

Mr. Olsen:

"Yes."

Mr. Nicholson:

"Mr. Olsen, I am from a county outside the proposed site of the fair. I want to ask you some questions in the hope that it will clarify some points for others outside the area. The amendment would authorize and direct a study of the feasibility of postponing the fair. Is it your opinion that that power is already within the scope of powers assigned to the commission?"

Mr. Olsen:

"I am sure that it is."

Mr. Nicholson:

"In your bill you are expanding the commission, and I understand there is now a board of trustees of one hundred members. Would this be increased, and would areas outside of King county have more representation?"

Mr. Olsen:

"I am sure it would. No doubt that board will be doubled before the final days of the fair. We want as many people working on this fair as we can get. It takes the efforts of many people working for a project of this magnitude to make it successful."
Mr. Nicholson:
"The sponsor of the amendment made reference to seven and a half million dollars. I assume that money would be available for other projects if the amendment is carried, or is it earmarked for that particular purpose? Will you clarify the status of that money?"

Mr. Olsen:
"That is right. King county has already spent $4,615,005. The state has spent $1,118,495 or a total of $5,734,000 has already been spent."

Mr. Nicholson:
"My impression from the sponsor's remarks is that a fair in 1961 would bring in revenue to the state through the sales tax. Are we talking about any new taxes to pay for the bond issue?"

Mr. Olsen:
"No."

Mr. Nicholson:
"There has been reference made to an agreement entered into with other nations. There has been reference to congressional authority for our fair. We seem to be in a dilemma. Either we breach good faith with Congress, or with the other nations signatory to the pact."

Mr. Olsen:
"The United States has not been a signatory to that compact. We are not now, nor have we ever been."

Further debate ensued.

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mrs. Hansen:
"Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from King, Mr. Olsen, yield to a question?"

The Speaker:
Will you yield, Mr. Olsen?"

Mr. Olsen:
"Yes."

Mrs. Hansen:
"Would adoption of this amendment nullify condemnation proceedings now going on?"

Mr. Olsen:
"The land is already purchased and paid for."

Mrs. Hansen:
"Then you would be throwing away this money if the amendment were adopted and they should bring in a negative decision.""

Mr. Olsen:
"Yes. Furthermore, there would be no federal participation if the fair is postponed."

Debate continued.

Mrs. Hansen demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Harris:
"Mr. Speaker, does not the maker of the motion have the right to close debate?"
The Speaker:
"The previous question has already been demanded."

Mr. Moriarty demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment to House Bill No. 424 by Mr. Harris, and the amendment was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 14; nays, 76; absent or not voting, 9.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Ackley, Adams, Andersen (James A.), Anderson (Mrs. Eva), Avey, Backstrom, Bernethy, Bigley, Bozarth, Braun, Brink, Brouillet, Brown, Burns, Campbell, Canfield, Carmichael, Carty, Chytil, Clark (Newman H.), Conner, Day (John T.), Donohue, Dore, Edwards, Eldridge, Evans, Farrington, Gallagher (Phil H.), Garrett, Gleason, Goldmark, Gorton, Hansen, Hendershot, Henry, Holmes, Jonsson (Jon Marvin), Kink, Leland, Litchman, Mahaffey, Mardesich, Marsh, McCormick (W. L. Bill), McFadden, Meyers, Morgan, Moriarty, Mundy, Nicholson, O'Connell, Olsen, Papajani, Pence, Perry, Pritchard, Rickdall, Ritner, Ruoff, Sawyer, Schaefer, Shropshire, Siler, Smith, Speer, Stocker, Testu, Twidwell, Uhlman, Wang, Wedekind, Wintler, Witherbee, Mr. Speaker—76.

Yielding to question

Miss Wintler:
"Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Snohomish and Island counties yield to a question?"
THIRTY-FOURTH DAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1959

The Speaker:
"Will you yield, Mr. Mardesich?"

Mr. Mardesich:
"Yes."

Miss Wintler:
"Yesterday, Mr. Mardesich, you amended out of this bill the appropriation to take care of the obligations of this state to the public school system, which obligation arises from the fact that the 1957 legislature appropriated an open-end sum, dependent upon the increased population of our schools. It will be necessary, following this amendment, to put through a special appropriation bill. Would you be willing, by virtue of your position as chairman of Ways and Means, to further the passage of a bill to take care of the situation our public schools will be in by June 30?"

Mr. Mardesich:
"Miss Wintler, I will be willing to put my name on such a bill, and I would be willing to further its passage when proof is given that it is needed."

Debate continued.

Mr. Witherbee:
"Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Leland yield to another question?"

The Speaker:
"Will you yield, Mr. Leland?"

Mr. Leland:
"Yes."

Mr. Witherbee:
"In section 1, lines 6 and 7, it says 'including but not limited to things such as ski lifts, ski tows, and chair lifts.' What does that mean?"

Mr. Leland:
"The purpose of that language is this: After considerable research we all felt—bill drafting, the Attorney General, and Mr. Vanderzicht—that this should be left in so that if an emergency arises in the state relative to regulation of other park equipment, such as ferris wheels, etc., the state would have something to fall back on. There is no intent, however, to use this act on any equipment other than ski equipment."

"In other words, if the motion carries the bill is dead."

The Speaker:
"That is right."

MOTION

Mr. Dore moved that Engrossed House Bill No. 68 be immediately transmitted to the Senate.

The motion was carried on a rising vote.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

In explanation of my vote on Engrossed House Bill No. 68, I wish to place in the record that when the vote was called for on this bill I was, as Republican caucus chairman, engaged in conference with another legislator at his desk relative to a caucus matter. On a rush return to my desk to vote I was of the opinion the House was voting on a bill other than this bill (No. 68). I am opposed to cities engaging in off-street parking and my vote on said bill should have been recorded as "no."

The people of the state should be paying for it and not the small packers. We now have fourteen plants who get inspection free; but those plants not big enough to qualify for U. "We desire to put a written statement in the journal explaining our vote on Engrossed House Bill No. 84."

The Speaker:

"You may do so. Please keep your remarks as nonpartisan as possible."

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

The undersigned Republican members of the House of Representatives desire to explain their vote against House Bill No. 84.

At the present time the employment benefits in this state rank only thirteenth among the states; but the present tax on industry per employee is one of the highest in the country—ranking third. This difference is because of the present loop holes and abuses in the system.

We have desperately tried in committee and on the floor today to correct some of these abuses. If these corrections had been adopted the maximum compensation could have been increased to an adequate figure of $44 per week without increasing the tax on industry. Instead, the Democrats, under strong pressure from the Governor, have resisted all these efforts to establish some safeguards and have left labor with an inadequate increase and have imposed on industry an even higher tax burden.

PROPOSITIONS AND MOTIONS

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

Under the provisions of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 1, the Speaker appointed as the House members of the committee therein provided, Representatives Farrington, Hurley, Ritner, and Johnston (Elmer E.).

RESOLUTION

Resolution by Committee on Memorials:

WHEREAS, February 22nd marks the commemoration of the two hundred and twenty-seventh anniversary of the birth of George Washington, our first President and the great leader for whom our state is named, and

WHEREAS, It is appropriate that this House do solemnly recognize this day, now, therefore,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives, That it does solemnly recognize and pay tribute to George Washington, our revered patriot and leader, and

Be It Further Resolved, That a few portions of his famous Farewell Address be quoted at this time as follows:

"The unity of government which constitutes you one people is also now dear to you. It is justly so, for it is a main pillar in the edifice of your real independence, the support of your tranquility at home, your peace abroad, of your safety, of your prosperity, of that very liberty which you so highly prize.

All obstructions to the execution of the laws, all combinations and associations, under whatever plausible character, with the real design to direct, control, counteract, or awe the regular deliberation and action of the constituted authorities, are destructive of this fundamental principle, and of fatal tendency. They serve to organize faction, to give it an artificial and extraordinary force, to put in the place of the delegated will of the nation, the will of a party, often a small, but artful and enterprising minority of the community.

It is substantially true that virtue or morality is a necessary spring of popular government. The rule, indeed extends with more or less force to every species of free government. Who, that is a sincere friend to it, can look with indifference upon attempts to shake the foundation of the fabric?

Promote, then, as an object of primary importance, institutions, for the general diffusion of knowledge. In proportion as the structure of a government gives force to public opinion, it is essential that public opinion should be enlightened."

On motion of Mrs. Swayze, the resolution was adopted.

We hereby pledge that we will welcome as neighbors on an individual basis all persons without regard to race, creed, or national origin.'

"Has it been fairly well determined that this committee amendment would raise a constitutional question?"

Mr. Carmichael:
"Yes. Mr. Ken Gilbert, Director of Elections in the Secretary of State's office, said that to the best of his knowledge it would be unconstitutional for the reason that city officials would be elected for a certain length of time. The Speaker:
"Will you yield to a question, Mrs. Epton?"
Mrs. Epton:
"Yes."
Mr. Canfield:
"The Senate amendment refers to personal accounts in excess of $300, whereas in the body of the act it refers to the funds of all patients. Does this $300 refer to one patient or to all patients?"

PROPOSITIONS AND MOTIONS

MOTION

Mr. Litchman moved that House Bill No. 613 be taken from Committee on Social Security and Public Assistance, placed on the second reading calendar, and read in full.

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

"The Speaker will rule that that motion will require a suspension of rules with a two-thirds majority vote. House Rule 60 states, "That a majority of the members elected to the House may require a committee to report a bill back to the House at any time," and Rule 9 provides that, "The committee on rules and order shall have charge of the daily calendar of the House."

Mr. Litchman:
"I will amend the motion to read that the Social Security Committee be relieved of further consideration of House Bills Nos. 613 and 554."

The Speaker:
"Let us consider one bill at a time. Which bill do you wish to consider?"

Mr. Litchman:
"I move that the Committee on Social Security and Public Assistance be relieved of further consideration of House Bill No. 613."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Burns:
"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Litchman is not speaking on the motion."

The Speaker:
"Your point is well taken. Will you confine your remarks to the subject matter of the motion which is why you want the committee relieved of the bill?"

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

Mr. Mardesich moved that the motion by Mr. Litchman to relieve the Committee on Social Security and Public Assistance of further consideration of House Bill No. 613 be laid on the table.

The motion by Mr. Mardesich was carried on a rising vote.

W. L. Bill McCormick, Chairman.

Passed to Committee on Rules and Order for second reading.
Mr. Speaker:

Mark Litchman, Jr., Chairman.

MOTION

Mr. Litchman moved that House Bill No. 178 be indefinitely postponed. Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Litchman:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your point."

Mr. Litchman:

"I believe Mr. Rasmussen is going far beyond the purposes of the bill. He is attacking by innuendo the purposes and motives of every lawyer, not only in this House but in the state of Washington."

The Speaker:

"Will you confine your remarks to the motion before us, Mr. Rasmussen?"

Debate continued.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Witherbee:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your point."

Mr. Witherbee:

"Under House Rule 78, the sponsors of a bill are supposed to get twenty-four hours' notice of a committee report against a bill. I received my notice this morning."
The Speaker:
"Your point is well taken. The rule states you shall be notified twenty-four hours before the convening of the House on the day the report is read."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Litchman.

Mr. Litchman:
"I would like to say, in all deference to Mr. Witherbee's remarks, that when this bill was first introduced and referred to my committee, I spoke to the sponsors two or three weeks ago and promised that it would come out of Judiciary Committee. They are well aware of it. As far as written notice is concerned, perhaps we are at fault. It is just a technical error."

The Speaker:
"The rule clearly specifies 'written notice.'"

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Brink:
"Point of order, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:
"State your point."

Mr. Brink:
"The rule requires written notice only where there is a recommendation against a bill. Is the recommendation of the committee to indefinitely postpone a bill a report against the bill?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:
"It appears that Rule 78 covers indefinite postponement, which includes a two-thirds majority against a bill. The sponsors of the bill should have been given twenty-four hours' notice."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Moriarty:
"Point of order, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:
"State your point."

Mr. Moriarty:
"The rule says the chairman shall notify 'the author' of the bill. My question is that it does not say authors, just singular, 'author.'"

The Speaker:
"'Author' in this case will be given the broad terminology and include all the sponsors."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Litchman:
"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. I would like to state that the purpose of Rule 78 is to give the authors of a bill advance notice of the committee action, and these gentlemen have been given notice that it would come out of our committee, as I promised them it would. I have kept my promise. It seems to me the authors of this measure are retracting their promises."

The Speaker:
"The Speaker will recognize the motion. It requires suspension of the rules."
Mr. Litchman:

"I will withdraw all motions regarding the joint tenancy bill."

With the consent of the House, the motion was withdrawn.

"Why should a juror in the superior court have more money than a juror in the justice court?"

Mr. Brink:
"I am not an advocate of the Senate amendment. I moved concurrence only as a matter of practicality. The problems of both jurors are the same. The status of the jurors of justice courts may be different if House Bill No. 36 passes."

Debate ensued.
Division was asked for.

REQUEST FOR INFORMATION

Mr. Beierlein:
"Mr. Speaker, may we have the amendment re-read?"

The Speaker (Mr. Rasmussen presiding):

The motion was carried.

POINT OF ORDER

Mrs. Hansen:

An Act relating to railroad grade crossings; amending section 3, chapter 310, Laws of 1955 and RCW 81.52.100; amending section 1, chapter 30, Laws of 1913, section 1, chapter 161, Laws of 1941 and RCW 81.52.080; adding new sections to chapter 30, Laws of 1913 and to chapter 81.52 RCW; repealing section 8, chapter 310, Laws of 1955 and RCW 47.36.055.
Referred to Committee on Aviation and Transportation.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Copeland:
"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. There are two House bills on the desk to be read."

The Speaker resumed the Chair.

The Speaker:
"What is your point of order, Mr. Copeland?"

Mr. Copeland:
"My point is that the House bills should have been read before the Senate bill. There are two bills pertaining to revenue and taxation on the table."
The Speaker:
"No sponsors are indicated on the bills we have here."

Mr. Copeland:
"On the inside cover are listed the sponsors of the bill."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:
"It appears to the Speaker that this is in conflict with our existing rules which call for only three members to sponsor a bill; you have more than three members listed."

Mr. Copeland:
"If you will refer to rule 25 of the joint rules, a committee bill may originate in either house, provided the entire committee unanimously favors the introduction of such bill."

The Speaker:
"The joint rules you are referring to pertain to bills assigned to a committee. Where there are a number of bills on the same subject, it is the prerogative of the committee to prepare a committee bill. Your committee on legislative processes has not been assigned this subject matter and, if we were to relax our rules and permit other committees to initiate bills which do not pertain to their committees, I don't know how far the procedure might go."

Mr. Copeland:
"There is no reference made in the rule in regard to the material in the bill."

The Speaker:
"It is implied that this rule refers to the subject matter of the bills which have been assigned to a committee; it has been the established policy on the procedure in preparing committee bills. This procedure would be absolutely contrary to our established precedents."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Moriarty.

Mr. Moriarty:
"The Committee on Rules and Order introduced a bill authorizing the purchase of the electric roll call system."

The Speaker:
"That subject matter was pertinent to the administration of the House. The Rules and Order Committee is the governing body of the House. That is well within their jurisdiction, but for the enrolling and engrossing committee to properly introduce a revenue and taxation bill as a committee bill is not within the jurisdiction of that committee."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Moriarty:
"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. House Rule No. 75 provides that revenue and taxation bills may be introduced after the fortieth day."

The Speaker:
"I have no objection to their being introduced under the proper procedure."

Mr. Moriarty:
"Do I understand that a duly authorized and established committee has not the right to introduce a committee bill?"

The Speaker:
"You are misinterpreting my ruling."
Mr. Moriarty:
"My point is, why cannot a committee introduce a bill, when one, two, or three members of the House can introduce a revenue and taxation measure? That would be the effect of your ruling."

The Speaker:
"There is a definite distinction. I think we have belabored this point far enough."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Clark (Newman H.):
"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. We permitted additional signatures on a highway bill that was introduced last week."

The Speaker:
"It would require a suspension of rules and a two-thirds majority vote to permit more than three signatures on a bill."

MOTION

Mr. Moriarty moved that all but the first three names be crossed off the revenue bills now under discussion, and the bills be introduced.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Copeland:
"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. You have yet to make a positive ruling on your decision in this matter. Where is the ruling which you gave us which says the subject matter must be in possession of a committee? Our intentions were entirely honorable in offering this committee bill at this time. I think it is entirely within the province of our committee to do this."

The Speaker:
"I am referring to House Rules Nos. 84, 73, and 75, which in my opinion interpret the procedure of this House in the introduction of committee bills and their limitations."

"The Clerk will proceed with the second reading of bills."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Moriarty:
"Point of order, Mr. Speaker, there is a motion pending."

The Speaker:
"I would suggest that you get together with Mr. Copeland and decide which three names you wish to have on the bills."

With the consent of the House, Mr. Moriarty withdrew his motion.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized Mr. Conner.

Mr. Conner:
"I rise to a point of personal privilege. I would like to inform the members that the crab louie today was furnished by the county commissioners of Clallam county and the ice cream for the House cafeteria was furnished by the Clallam county dairymen."

The Speaker;

"At this time it is my pleasure to present to you Senator Cook."

Senator Cook:

"Mr. Speaker, Honorable Members of the House of Representatives of the state of Washington. We were privileged to have some of your members visit the Oregon legislature in Salem last month, and we are here to return the visit on behalf of our respective bodies. We certainly appreciate the courtesies which have been shown us while we have been here, and we believe we will take something of value back with us to our own state legislature."

The Speaker:

"Thank you, Senator Cook. I now present to you Representative Barton."

Representative Barton:

"It gives me a great deal of pleasure to be here today and bring you greetings from the legislature of the state of Oregon. I am sure we will profit from our visit here today and learn something of value for the people of our state. I am intrigued with this electric voting machine. I want to sit back and watch it work."

The Speaker:

"Thank you. I understand you have a balanced budget in Oregon. Apparently you have no major problems in your state."

YIELDING TO QUESTION

Mr. Moriarty:
"Mr Speaker, will the lady from Spokane yield to a question?"

The Speaker:
"Will you yield, Mrs. Hurley?"

Mrs. Hurley:
"Inasmuch as I am not an architect, only if it is a very simple one."

Mr. Moriarty:
"Mrs. Hurley, the only thing that makes me go along with this bill is the reciprocity feature. Can you tell me if Mr. Ackley's amendment will affect this reciprocity feature?"

Mrs. Hurley:
"Perhaps one of the engineers can tell you."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Evans.

Mr. Evans:
"I will say that Mr. Ackley's amendment has some merit. If he will agree to withdraw this amendment, I believe we can work out one that would be agreeable to all. I might say regarding the exam, that a certain amount of it is based upon theoretical study, but much of it is based upon actual experience and learning beyond the school studies. The amendment does have merit.

"In order to be the equivalent of the engineers' act, so that the basic examination could be taken at the time they graduate and the remainder of the examination as it applies to practical experience could be taken later, the examination might be split up."

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

Department of State, Office of the Secretary, Olympia, Washington, February 26, 1959.

To the Honorable, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, The Legislature of the State of Washington, Olympia, Washington.

Sir:

The Washington State Sportsmen's Council, as sponsors of Initiative Measure No. 25 to the Legislature, pursuant to the 7th Amendment of the State Constitution filed signature petitions containing 110,758 signatures with my office as of January 2, 1959 for canvassing.

The canvassing of said signatures was completed as of February 13, 1959 and the official records reveal the following:

110,758 Signatures submitted
20,059 Signatures rejected
90,699 Valid signatures accepted
The 30th Amendment of our State Constitution provides that the total number of valid signatures necessary to validate an initiative measure must be a number of signatures equal to at least 8% of the total vote cast on the position of governor at the last preceding gubernatorial election. By applying this formula, it is determined that the necessary number of valid signatures is 90,319. Since my office has determined that 90,699 valid signatures have been submitted, I am herewith certifying said Initiative Measure No. 25 to the Legislature for consideration.

I am attaching herewith a certified copy of said Initiative Measure No. 25 to the Legislature as on file in my office, together with a true and correct copy of the sponsor's affidavit and a true and correct copy of the ballot title of said measure as issued by the Attorney General.
