Mr. Pardini: "Mr. Charette is moving far from the motion that is before us, and is into standing committees and interim committees."

Mr. Charette: "Speaking to the point of order, the motion before the body is to relieve a committee of a 68-page bill. I think that I should be allowed to explain, so that all people present will know how to vote, what course this bill is going to take or not going to take. I think that unless they are properly advised on this matter--speaking to the point of order--they really won't know how to vote intelligently."

Mr. Pardini: "With that explanation, I withdraw my objection."

Mr. Charette concluded his remarks in opposition to the motion.

The Speaker called on Mr. O'Brien to preside.

Representatives Newhouse, Flanagan, Smythe, Barden and Julin spoke in favor of the motion by Mr. Cunningham, and Representatives Bagnariol, Moon and Chatalas spoke against it.

Mr. Swayze: "Point of parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker. I am looking for the rule which may answer it, but since we have by concurrent resolution established an adjournment date, I am wondering whether our House Rule requiring immediate consideration after a particular date of the session would be applicable here."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Mr. Swayze, in connection with your inquiry as to notice of reconsideration and whether or not it would have to be done immediately, if you review House Rule No. 70, it states: 'That after the fiftieth day reconsideration can be had only on the date the vote to be reconsidered was taken.' For a member who has served in class I, average final compensation shall be an amount equal to the sum of the products of (i) his time in class I multiplied by his class I income at the time of termination of class I status plus (ii) his time in class II multiplied by his class II income at the time of termination of class II status, such sum to be divided by his total time in class I and class II employment."

QUESTION OF CONSIDERATION

Mr. Gallagher raised the question of consideration on the amendments by Representative Curtis and others.

The question of consideration was decided in the negative.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated that by its action the House voted not to consider the amendments.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Curtis: "Was there in fact a motion in front of us? It had not been allowed to be moved."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "The question was put before the House. The Speaker put the question when the Clerk read the amendment. The House was in possession of the amendment when the Clerk read it."

Mr. Curtis: "I was never allowed to put the motion. As such, was it ever in possession of the body? I could have withdrawn it at any moment until that time."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "It wasn't necessary for you to make the motion to put it in the possession of the body. The body had possession of the amendment when the Speaker asked the Clerk to read it and the Clerk read it. Precedent has been established along this line. The body had possession of the amendment as soon as it was put on the desk and read by the Clerk."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Julin: "Mr. Speaker, in light of the adoption of the motion of consideration, I ask for a ruling as to whether or not the entire measure is before the body."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "In connection with your point on the question of consideration, the question of consideration was just raised on the amendment by Mr. Curtis."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Julin: "In light of that ruling, my question is whether or not the question of consideration was properly before the body, because I believe Reed's Rules say the question of consideration only goes to the main motion."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Precedent has been established time after time in the House of Representatives of the State of Washington on this question of consideration. The first time we have used it rather prevalently was in the 1947 session of the legislature when it was used on a number of occasions on amendments. Also it has very substantial support by the fact that an amendment is a substantial question. This is also borne out by Mason's Rules, along with Reed's, and House precedent established time after time that the question of consideration can be raised on an amendment which is a substantial question."

On motion of Mr. Swayze, the following amendments by Representatives Swayze and Gallagher were adopted:

On page 12, section 13, line 29 after "That" strike all material down to and including "member" on line 30, and insert "(if a member is elected to an office in such city, the member) any member elected or appointed to an elective office on or after April 1, 1971"

On page 13, section 13, line 1 after "chapter." and before "Any" insert:

"The city shall also transfer to this system all of such member's accumulated contributions together with such further amounts as necessary to equal all employee and employer contributions which would have been paid into this system on account of such service with the city and thereupon the member shall be granted credit for all such service."

Mr. Curtis moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 17, section 7, beginning on line 13 after "may" strike the remainder of the sentence and insert "((7 at any time thereafter while still in office; apply for and receive a retirement allowance under RCW 41.40-190 and RCW 41.40-290; if otherwise eligible therefor; while continuing to serve as an elective official but such person shall no longer be a member of the retirement system after his retirement as provided for in this subsection)) continue to serve as an elective official and to receive retirement credit for such service."

Representatives Curtis and Williams spoke in favor of the amendment.

Mr. Curtis spoke again in favor of the amendment, and the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Bagnariol moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Morrison and Bagnariol:

On page 29, line 2 insert a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) It is the intent of the legislature that the Washington public employees' retirement system and the Washington state teachers' retirement system should be merged no later than July 1, 1975, in such manner as shall be established by the legislature.

(a) In order to facilitate such merger, a Retirement System Merger Task Force is created. It shall be the duty and responsibility of this task force to make studies of and recommendations for the merger of these systems. These recommendations are to be submitted to the public pension commission, the legislative budget committee and the legislature, not later than the regular session of the legislature to be held in 1975.

(b) The members of the task force shall consist of the following persons:

1. Two representatives of employee organizations representing members of the public employees' retirement system, such representatives to be appointed by the Governor;

2. Two representatives of employee organizations representing members of the teachers' retirement system, such representatives to be appointed by the Governor;

3. Two board members of the public employees' retirement system, one representing state government management and the other representing local government management, both to be appointed by the chairman of the board;

4. Two members of the teachers' retirement system board, both to be appointed by the chairman of the board;

5. Two members of the Senate appointed by the President of the Senate and to include a representative of each caucus;

6. Two members of the House of Representatives appointed by the Speaker of the House and to include a representative of each caucus.

The public pension commission shall perform the administrative duties of this task force. The members shall receive such travel and per diem allowances as are authorized for state employees, said allowances to be paid by the organization or agency or body the member represents.

(2) The task force shall address itself to:

1. Proposed plans for funding the merged systems on a uniform basis without jeopardizing the present fund level of the public employee retirement system;

2. Equalization of benefits, both retirement and disability;

3. Eligibility requirements and provisions for transfer from prior systems into the proposed merged system;

4. Board membership which will reflect the employee and governmental employer interests involved;

5. Retirement allowance options offered a member at the time of retirement;

6. Contribution rates of both employees and governmental employers;

7. The age of compulsory retirement;

8. Provision of cost of living increases after retirement and recommendations for financing such increases;

9. Other desirable merger provisions as are suggested by the Touche-Ross Report being prepared for the legislative budget committee."

Mr. Bagnariol moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment:

On line 4 of the amendment after "should" strike "be merged" and insert "consider merging"

Representatives Bagnariol and Morrison spoke in favor of the amendment to the amendment.

The amendment to the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Morrison spoke in favor of the amendment as amended, and Mr. Pardini spoke against it.

The Speaker assumed the Chair.

Mr. Bagnariol spoke in favor of the amended amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Bagnariol yielded to question by Mr. Flanagan.

Mr. Flanagan: "Representative Bagnariol, it is hard to know how to vote on these things because of the lack of figures and amounts of dollars required. I was wondering if you could tell me, assuming that we raise the teachers as of now up to the same level as the PERS, and then put all these systems (Teachers, PERS and LEFF) on a forty-year level amortization basis, how many additional dollars would it be necessary to appropriate in this biennium to get the three systems on that basis?"

Mr. Bagnariol: "I can't answer that question, Representative Flanagan. I think that to bring the teachers up to the two percent level that the public employees are at, it is about $8.5 million. I'm not sure what we would have if we brought the LEFF system into conformity with the other two systems. That is one of the reasons for the Touche-Ross study, and one of the reasons for this task force being set up--to find out exactly what we are talking about."

Mr. Flanagan: "We have to apparently pass the bill before we know what those figures are. I have had a lot of different figures on this. I had figures from Mr. Broadhead that on this teachers' retirement system, if you put it on a forty-year level amortization basis as of now, with the new benefits, it would take $129 million."

Mr. Bagnariol: "Representative Flanagan, as I told you, I can't give you the figures because I don't have them. What we are speaking to right now is this amendment by Representative Morrison and myself to set up a task force to study the subject."

Mr. Conner demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The amendment by Representatives Morrison and Bagnariol, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Morrison, the following amendment by Representatives Morrison and Bagnariol was adopted:

On page 29, line 6 after "1974." insert:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. If any provision of this 1973 act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

Renumber the remaining section consecutively.

On motion of Mr. Kopet, the following amendment to the title by Representatives Kopet and Smythe was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title after "system;" and before "amending" insert "adding a new section to chapter 41.32 RCW;"

Substitute House Bill No. 435 was ordered engrossed.

On motion of Mr. Conner, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 435 was placed on final passage.

Mr. Morrison spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

The Speaker called on Mr. Charette to preside.

Mr. Bausch spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Mr. Pardini spoke against it.

The Speaker resumed the Chair.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 435, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 91; nays, 7; not voting, 0.

Voting yea: Representatives Adams, Amen, Anderson, Bagnariol, Barden, Bauer, Bausch, Beck, Bender, Benitz, Berentson, Blair, Bluechel, Brown, Ceccarelli, Charette, Charnley, Chatalas, Clemente, Conner, Cunningham, Curtis, Douthwaite, Ehlers, Eikenberry, Ellis, Eng, Erickson, Fortson, Freeman, Gaines, Gallagher, Garrett, Gaspard, Gilleland, Goltz, Hansen, Hansey, Haussler, Hendricks, Hoggins, Hurley, Jastad, Johnson, Juelling, Kalich, Kelley, Kilbury, King, Knowles, Kraabel, Laughlin, Leckenby, Luders, Lysen, Martinis, Matthews, Maxie, May, McCormick, Moon, Morrison, Nelson, Newhouse, North F., North L., O'Brien, Paris, Parker, Patterson, Perry, Pullen, Rabel, Randall, Savage, Schumaker, Shinpoch, Smith, Smythe, Sommers, Swayze, Thompson, Tilly, Valle, Van Dyk, Warnke, Williams, Wilson, Wojahn, Zimmerman, and Mr. Speaker.

Voting nay: Representatives Flanagan, Hayner, Julin, Kopet, Kuehnle, Pardini, Polk.

Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 435, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

Mr. Thompson moved that the House do now consider the following bills on second reading in the following order: ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2153, ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2226, ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2326, ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2502, and SENATE BILL NO. 2544.

The motion was carried.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2153, by Senators Sandison, Whetzel and Talley (by Joint Committee on Higher Education request):

Implementing the community college district professional negotiations act.

The bill was read the second time.

Mr. Newhouse moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, section 2, line 20 beginning with "It" strike the balance of the section and insert:

"(It is further determined that any agreement involving union security including an all-union agreement or agency agreement must safeguard the rights of nonassociation of employees, based on bona fide religious tenets or teachings of a church or religious body of which such employee is a member. And unless other arrangements are agreed upon between the labor organization and the employee, such employee must pay an amount of money equivalent to regular dues and initiation fees and assessments, if any, to a nonreligious charity or to another charitable organization mutually agreed upon by the employee affected and the representative of the labor organization to which such employee would otherwise pay dues. The employee shall furnish written proof that this has been done. If the employee and representative of the labor organization do not reach agreement on the matter, the board shall designate such organization:))"

Representative Newhouse spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Maxie and King spoke against it.

Mr. Newhouse spoke again in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Julin: "Our Rule 22 reads: 'Bills introduced in the house of representatives intended to amend existing statutes shall have the words which are amendatory to such existing statutes underlined. Any matter to be deleted from the existing statutes shall be indicated by lining out such matter with a broken line and enclosing the lined out material within double parentheses, and no bill shall be printed or acted upon until the provisions of this rule shall have been complied with.' In light of Rule 22, and that language, Mr. Speaker, I ask you to rule on whether or not (in light of the failure to adopt Representative Newhouse's amendment) this bill is properly before us for consideration."

The Speaker: "Representative Julin, the Speaker wishes to apologize to the House because this was brought to our attention in Rules Committee. I was going to bring it to the attention of the House that there had been an error in the printing of the bill. It was mentioned to us in Rules Committee and, also, I think in the regular committee by Representative Maxie. I had it marked down but had forgotten to bring it to the attention of the House. I think technically you are probably right, and this is something I was going to make the House aware of. Our Rules Committee was aware of it, but I don't think it was anything other than an inadvertent printing error."

Mr. Julin: "Mr. Speaker, then am I correct in understanding that this bill should be with underlining on all of the matter on page 2, lines 20 through 33, and that is the form in which this measure is before us, so that it is clear it is additional amendatory language being added by this bill?"

The Speaker: "Yes, Representative Julin. I am glad you brought this to our attention. Representative Newhouse did so the other day, and I marked it down but forgot to bring it to the attention of the House that it was an oversight. If there is no objection, it will so be considered. Hearing no objection, it is so ruled. The Clerk will be ordered to underline this matter."

On motion of Mr. Conner, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2153 was placed on final passage.

Ms. Maxie spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Maxie yielded to question by Mr. King.

Mr. King: "Representative Maxie, for the purpose of establishing legislative intent, is the language in section 6 to be interpreted to mean that, while the community college board of trustees is not compelled to agree or make any concessions, it is nonetheless required by law to negotiate on those matters required by law?"

Ms. Maxie: "The answer to your question, Representative King, is 'yes.' This was reviewed by the attorney general's office, and the legal counsel for the public employees' collective bargaining committee. They agreed that section 6 in no way affects the requirement for the governing boards to negotiate as provided by RCW 28B.52.030."

Mr. Smythe spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2153, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 98; nays, 0; not voting, 0.

Voting yea: Representatives Adams, Amen, Anderson, Bagnariol, Barden, Bauer, Bausch, Beck, Bender, Benitz, Berentson, Blair, Bluechel, Brown, Ceccarelli, Charette, Charnley, Chatalas, Clemente, Conner, Cunningham, Curtis, Douthwaite, Ehlers, Eikenberry, Ellis, Eng, Erickson, Flanagan, Fortson, Freeman, Gaines, Gallagher, Garrett, Gaspard, Gilleland, Goltz, Hansen, Hansey, Haussler, Hayner, Hendricks, Hoggins, Hurley, Jastad, Johnson, Juelling, Julin, Kalich, Kelley, Kilbury, King, Knowles, Kopet, Kraabel, Kuehnle, Laughlin, Leckenby, Luders, Lysen, Martinis, Matthews, Maxie, May, McCormick, Moon, Morrison, Nelson, Newhouse, North F., North L., O'Brien, Pardini, Paris, Parker, Patterson, Perry, Polk, Pullen, Rabel, Randall, Savage, Schumaker, Shipoch, Smith, Smythe, Sommers, Swayze, Thompson, Tilly, Valle, Van Dyk, Warnke, Williams, Wilson, Wojahn, Zimmerman, and Mr. Speaker.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2153, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2226, by Committee on Judiciary (Originally sponsored by Senators Fleming, Francis, Murray, Ridder, Bottiger, Grant, Wanamaker and Henry - by Executive request):

Providing residential landlord-tenant laws.

Committee on Judiciary recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendments, see Journal for twenty-ninth day, Ex. Sess., April 6, 1973.)

The bill was read the second time.

The Clerk read the first amendment by the Committee on Judiciary.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Knowles: "This amendment would only be necessary if a subsequent amendment were to pass striking section 43. I move we defer considering this one until that one is adopted."

The Speaker: "Hearing no objection, the present amendment will be withdrawn at this time."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Charette, Representatives Shinpoch and Bagnariol were excused from further proceedings under the Call of the House.

On motion of Mr. Knowles, the committee amendments to pages 3, 4 and 5 were adopted.

Mr. Knowles moved adoption of the committee amendments to page 6, line 1; and page 6, lines 4 and 5.

Mr. Knowles spoke in favor of the amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Kuehnle: "I just noticed this or I would have asked previously. The language which is being struck, says 'Not more than twenty-four hours, where the landlord fails to provide water or heat as agreed upon in the rental agreement or where the defective condition is imminently hazardous to life.' In striking that language it would appear to me that in a set of circumstances where there was an agreement that set forth that the landlord was not obliged to provide water or heat, that we would have negated the terms of that contract."

Mr. Knowles: "I think that is covered elsewhere in it. There are exclusions here where the landlord is not required to provide heat or light. This is in those instances where the rental agreement does provide that, whereas the amendment is merely to make sure that it is a defective condition which renders this defect rather than some act on the part of the tenant."

Mr. Kuehnle: "What was the purpose then, Representative Knowles, of striking the language that covered the rental agreement?"

Mr. Knowles: "I can't answer your question. Maybe Mr. Julin can."

Mr. Julin: "Representative Kuehnle, the purpose and intent of the amendment is to make clear that the landlord will not have an obligation or a burden in this situation where the cause of the defective condition is as a result of the tenant's failure to take some action such as to pay the utility bill and thereby the water or the electricity gets shut off. Its sole intent and purpose is to make it clear that the defect is not to be burdensome on the landlord when the defect is the result of the tenant's failure."

Mr. Kuehnle: "I assume from what you say, then, that if there were an agreement entered into as a rental agreement whereby the landlord was not being called upon to furnish heat, that this would not have any effect on the agreement."

Mr. Julin: "Correct, Representative Kuehnle. It is precisely that type of situation that we are trying to make sure is clear, that with that kind of an agreement the landlord would not have an obligation if the tenant failed to meet the terms of the rental agreement."

The amendments were adopted.

On motion of Mr. Knowles, the committee amendments to page 6, line 20; page 10, line 11; page 13, line 13; page 14, line 5; and page 15, line 17 and line 21, were adopted.

Mr. Knowles moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 18, line 28 and spoke in favor of its adoption.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Knowles yielded to question by Mr. Kuehnle.

Mr. Kuehnle: "We are striking the language 'if the tenant reasonably appears to have abandoned possession of the dwelling unit,' and substituting language so that it reads 'if the tenant defaults in the payment of rent,' and then we continue on to page 19, down on lines 15, 16 and 17, which says: 'In the event of such abandonment of tenancy and an accompanying default in the payment of rent by the tenant, the landlord may immediately enter and take possession of any property.' It appears to me right offhand that we have now precluded the possibility of a landlord entering and taking possession so long as the rent remains paid. This just started ringing a bell with me because once upon a time I had a tenant who mailed in the rental payments, had abandoned the property, and it was reported to me by the neighbors that the property was abandoned. The plumbing was freezing up, and frozen and broken, and I needed to take possession of that property in order to protect my interests in the property. I wonder now about the deletion of this language which looks to me as if, unless he stops paying his rent, he hasn't abandoned the property."

Mr. Knowles: "In answer to that, if he is current in his rent, he has the right to the possession of that property. Now in the situation you are talking about that you ran into, there is another section of this bill that provides that in an emergency situation you can enter the premises. Actually, as I said before, as long as his rent is paid, I don't think you could say he has abandoned the property and he is entitled to stay there until the end of his rent period. What this amendment attempts to do is to clear up the language here, to make it more certain that there is an abandonment. The way the language read before, 'the tenant reasonably appears to have abandoned possession.' Well how would you know that? If he has not paid his rent, and then there are reasonable indications by word or action of his intention not to resume the tenancy, that gives you the grounds you need to determine he has actually abandoned it. But as long as his rent is paid, he is entitled to possession of that property."

Mr. Kuehnle: "Then I have your assurance that there is other language that covers the circumstances which I recited?"

Mr. Knowles: "Yes."

The amendment to page 18 was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Knowles, the committee amendments to page 20, line 26, and page 22, line 10 were adopted.

Mr. Knowles moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 24, line 26.

Mr. Julin spoke in favor of the amendment, and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Knowles, the committee amendments to page 24, line 27; page 25, beginning on line 1; page 26, beginning on line 31; page 27, line 21; and the first committee amendment (page 1, line 4) were adopted.

On motion of Mr. Julin, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 13, section 23, line 33 after "act" strike "and"

Requiring public employers to allow some employees reasonable time off without loss of compensation to engage in bargaining.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Mr. Warnke spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Warnke yielded to question by Mr. Morrison.

Mr. Morrison: "Representative Warnke, I am a little concerned that we are talking about 'during working hours,' which certainly is going to be the most convenient for the employee representatives. But does not this act cover most local units of government, where in fact the people bargaining might be elected officials that are working and serving on their own time, and are we not now in collective bargaining handing the balance of power to the employee who can sit there and wait?"

Mr. Warnke: "Representative Morrison, what you are talking about, I assume, are either city employees, city council members, county council members or school board directors who are elected to office and therefore are employed somewhere else and would like to meet at night. But this act also applies to employee organization representatives who are on swing shift, whereby they cannot get the time off to meet with the employer when the employer is available to meet with them. Under one of the rulings that has been used in the school district, and some of us have run into it, is the problem of not being able to pay for services rendered. Therefore the school district will say to an employee, we cannot let you off because we can't allow the time and the shift cannot be rearranged. So this would allow them to be able to meet whether it be on swing shift time or the evening time. Those employees, obviously, on the day shift would not be paid to come in and negotiate at night, but those employees who would be available in the evening could come in and negotiate with their employers."

Mr. Morrison spoke against passage of the bill, and Mr. Savage spoke in favor of it.

SPEAKER'S INQUIRY

The Speaker: "Mr. Swayze, you gave notice yesterday that you were going to move for reconsideration of Engrossed Senate Joint Resolution No. 109 today. Do you intend to do so?"

Mr. Swayze: "Mr. Speaker, since there are not sufficient votes to pass this measure in its present form, and without an agreement to consider an implementing statute or to return the measure to second reading for the purpose of amendment, I will not make that motion."

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Kalich, having voted on the prevailing side, moved that the House do now reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Senate Joint Resolution No. 109 failed to pass the House.

The motion was carried.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Swayze: "Mr. Speaker, under House Rule No. 70, Mr. Kalich cannot serve notice of reconsideration today."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker: "Rule 70 states: 'Notice of a motion for reconsideration on the final passage of bills may be made only on the day the vote to be reconsidered was taken.'

"A motion to reconsider can be made only by a member voting on the prevailing side.'

"Having been a member voting on the prevailing side, I think the matter is before us since you gave notice. Otherwise it would preclude anybody from making a proper motion and would kill a bill."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Pardini: "The first part of that rule which you just read says 'on the day the vote was taken.' The vote was not taken today."

The Speaker: "Notice has to be given. After the notice is received, the matter is before the body, and anybody who voted on the prevailing side can give the notice. Otherwise one person could preclude the body wanting to reconsider a measure."

RECONSIDERATION

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the final passage of Engrossed Senate Joint Resolution No. 109.

Mr. Charette demanded an oral roll call, and the demand was sustained.

The Speaker instructed the Clerk to call the roll.

MOTION

Mr. Kraabel moved that the rules be suspended and Engrossed Senate Joint Resolution No. 109 be returned to second reading for the purpose of amendment.

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker: "The Speaker instructed the Clerk to call the roll, and the roll call technically has begun."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Pardini: "Would you please state for the body what they are voting on, Mr. Speaker?"

The Speaker: "The measure before us is Engrossed Senate Joint Resolution No. 109. It is on final passage. The vote 'yea' means you are for the income tax measure. The vote 'nay' means you are against it."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Joint Resolution No. 109, and the resolution failed to pass the House by the following vote: Yeas, 61; nays, 37; not voting, 0.

RESOLUTION

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 73-71, by Representatives Bausch and Hendricks:

WHEREAS, Larry Writer, Captain, United States Air Force, recognized his duty as a citizen by serving his country in the armed forces; and

WHEREAS, Such service resulted in his being captured and held as a prisoner of war for over five years under very primitive conditions, evidenced by a lack of adequate food, medical and dental care; and

WHEREAS, In an attempt to cause Larry much mental and emotional distress, during long periods of his captivity he was permitted little or no contact with his wife, Molly, his daughters, Laurie and Brenda, his mother Mary Lou, or his father, Joe; and

WHEREAS, Larry has now been reunited with his family and has returned to his native city, Lacey, Washington, to meet with many of his friends and relatives; and

WHEREAS, His return was celebrated with homecoming activities embracing civic leaders and friends from the communities of Lacey, Olympia and Tumwater, culminating with a reception at his alma mater, North Thurston High School, on Saturday, April 7th;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the House of Representatives, That Captain Writer be commended for his devotion to family, duty, and country during those long days of internment.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the members of the House, speaking on behalf of all the citizens of our state, extend a most warm welcome to Captain Writer upon his return home.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That it is with sincere gratitude and appreciation that we say to you, as to our other returning prisoners of war, "Thank you for a job well done."

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the members of this body wish Captain Writer and the members of his family happiness and good luck in the days, months, and years which lie ahead.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That suitably engraved copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to Captain and Mrs. Writer and their children, and to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Writer.

SPEAKER'S PRIVILEGE

The Speaker recognized in the south gallery Captain Writer's wife Molly, his mother Mary Lou, and his sister Cathy Dahl, and asked them to stand and be recognized.

The Speaker: "Larry, all of us in the House of Representatives know how hard your mother, your wife and your sister worked on behalf of your return. We are very happy that it was successful and that you are back with us. Larry, on behalf of the House of Representatives, I won't attempt to improve on the resolution which just plain says 'thank you.' We don't know how else to say it other than we are very proud of you, and we are very proud to give you this small token of our esteem."

Captain Larry Writer: "I would like to thank each and every one of you. I feel very, very honored to be presented with this resolution. I will accept it not only for myself, but, as was mentioned earlier, for those men who were not as fortunate as I--for those who will not be able to come back.

"There is one thought I would like to leave with you, and that is: When I came back, somebody asked, 'How does it feel to be back in the land of the free, where there is true freedom, again?' I've tried to think of some way of expressing this to all of you, but you can't really appreciate what freedom is until you have had it taken away from you. But you people out here are the ones who represent the people, and the freedom, and the ideals for which I fought and the reasons I wear the uniform that I wear now so proudly. I would like to thank each and every one of you for being who you are and what you are. Thank you very much for this resolution. It means a great deal to me. Thank you--it's great to be home."

Representatives Bausch and Hendricks escorted Captain Writer from the rostrum.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Thompson, the House reverted to the fourth order of business.

MOTIONS

On motion of Mr. Thompson, the House advanced to the sixth order of business.

Mr. Thompson moved that the House immediately consider ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2346.

The motion was carried.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2346, by Committee on Ways and Means (Originally sponsored by Senators Durkan, Atwood, Donohue and Murray - by Executive request):

Limiting property tax levies.

Committee on Ways and Means - Revenue recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendment see Journal for thirtieth day, Ex. Sess., April 7, 1973.)

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Mr. Randall moved that the committee amendment be not adopted.

Mr. Pardini moved that the committee amendment be adopted.

Mr. Pardini spoke in favor of the committee amendment, and Mr. Randall spoke against its adoption.

Mr. Pardini spoke again in favor of the adoption of the committee amendment, and Mr. Randall spoke again in opposition of it.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Morrison: "Mr. Speaker, could we leave the question of the committee amendment before us, and have the amendment which is being proposed as the large version presented as a substitute amendment, and still not be able to amend it by presenting amendments to the amendment?"

The Speaker: "Would you state that again?"

Mr. Morrison: "If the amendment that is being proposed and spoken to by Representative Randall is left before us and a substitute amendment proposed, could not that substitute amendment then be amended by the body to include the one hundred and six percent provision which he is referring to?"

The Speaker: "No, it is our understanding that if you pass the committee amendment, then the other would be an amendment to the amendment, and we are only allowed to amend an amendment once. I think Representative Randall's point is well taken that you would have to vote down the entire substitute amendment before you could get to the one hundred and six percent."

Representatives Newhouse and Bagnariol spoke against adoption of the committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2346, and Representatives Sommers and Pardini spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Newhouse yielded to question by Mr. Leckenby.

Mr. Leckenby: "Representative Newhouse, as I recall when we were debating House Bill No. 686, you made some statements (or someone on the floor made some statements) as to how much money would be saved by industry through the reduction in property tax. I understand that if we adopt the substitute amendment, that this will be substantially the same as we did amend House Bill No. 686. I wonder if we shouldn't review that."

Mr. Newhouse: "This has no direct relation to House Bill No. 686, Mr. Leckenby, because House Bill No. 686, as amended, put all taxing districts under the ninety percent level which would have reduced taxes considerably more than the ninety percent amendment which Mr. Randall is proposing. But this one which Mr. Randall is proposing would provide about $20 million per year less revenue for cities, counties and road districts, divided this way: A little over $8 million less for cities; almost $8 million less for counties; about $4 million less for road districts. And the converse of that, of course, is that when you get less money for cities, counties and road districts, in total you are saving the taxpayers of the state, I suppose, just a little over $20 million in a year."

Mr. Conner demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Randall yielded to question by Mr. Flanagan.

Mr. Flanagan: "Representative Randall, in order to clarify what we are voting on, is it not true that the committee amendment, simply assumes that all county assessors are assessing at full value, and then simply turns the mills into dollars, with the exception that eight mills go to schools. But it simply turns the mills into dollars, and that is all it does. Isn't that correct?"

Mr. Randall: "Yes, that is correct."

Mr. Flanagan spoke in favor of adoption of the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Bagnariol yielded to question by Mr. Cunningham.

Mr. Cunningham: "Representative Bagnariol, we have two rather lengthy amendments on our desks. The first one is the House committee amendment--the blue one. The other is the 124-page, Randall-Bagnariol amendment. Which of these two amendments will reduce the tax burden to the taxpayers?"

Mr. Bagnariol: "This document by Representatives Randall and Bagnariol will reduce the tax burden to taxpayers."

Mr. Cunningham: "Thank you. One other question: Do either of these bills adversely affect the contribution to school support?"

Mr. Bagnariol: "Not as I read them. We have met with the Superintendent of Public Instruction and people from his office, and they agree with this document."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Perry: "I think it is significant what Mr. Flanagan said, if you listened to him very carefully. He said that the committee amendment as it came out, would, in effect, perpetuate those inequities that we have now. Will you restate what you said?"

Mr. Flanagan: "I said that all the committee amendment does is just keep everything the way it is, and then change the mills into dollars. But the substitute amendment goes through a somewhat complicated procedure whereby you take ninety percent for cities and counties, one hundred percent for junior taxing districts, ninety percent for schools--but then on the school part of it you collect the 7.2 mills (in other words ninety percent of eight mills) at the state level, and then you average that out per pupil and add it to the per pupil amount which is distributed statewide through the school formula. This naturally changes the school distribution. And without seeing any runs, I would assume it would have an adverse effect on those school districts that have high valuations per pupil, above the state average valuation per pupil. For instance, if you had a school district with a $50,000 valuation per pupil, and the average statewide valuation, say, was $14,000, if you take this and average it out and divide it equally in dollars per pupil, then naturally the district with the high valuation per pupil is going to be on the losing end of the proposition. So I think that it is not worth going into this complicated process, and trying to go through all this, for as little change as we are making in the whole thing here."

Representatives Perry and Beck spoke against adoption of the committee amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Randall yielded to question by Mr. Conner.

Mr. Conner: "There has been a lot of discussion about funny money and assumed money. What would this amendment do for the school districts, or to the school districts, relative to this assumed money?"

Mr. Randall: "In answer to that, I think I can answer it in something other than the typical 'Flanagan-ese' language we just heard. This proposed amendment, behind the blue one, which incidentally is of shorter length than the blue one--154 pages against 124 pages--eliminates that assumed money problem that is prevalent throughout the state. The leeway money and the assumed money are a constant problem in school financing. It is not a bit complicated. $10.00 allocation versus $9.00 allocation shouldn't fool anybody. It is not a difficult thing. The reason, we all know, it is so thick is because we have one or two references on each page, making those changes. If that is complicated, I'm a chicken. This effectively, I think most of us know, eliminates that assumed money factor. And in doing so (I'm talking about the state level) you do have to lower other taxing districts or it will be over the one percent mandated by SJR 1. It's got to come down if you are going to fund schools equally, and that is what this does."

Representatives Bluechel and Hoggins spoke against adoption of the committee amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2346, and the committee amendment was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 12; nays, 84; not voting, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Flanagan, Haussler, Jastad, Julin, Kalich, Kilbury, Kopet, Kraabel, Nelson, North P., Pardini, Sommers.

Voting nay: Representatives Adams, Amen, Anderson, Bagnariol, Barden, Bauer, Bausch, Beck, Bender, Benitz, Berentson, Blair, Bluechel, Brown, Ceccarelli, Charette, Charnley, Chatalas, Clemente, Conner, Cunningham, Curtis, Douthwaite, Ehlers, Eikenberry, Ellis, Eng, Erickson, Fortson, Freeman, Gaines, Gallagher, Garrett, Gaspard, Gilleland, Goltz, Hansen, Hansey, Hayner, Hendricks, Hoggins, Johnson, Juelling, Kelley, King, Knowles, Kuehnle, Laughlin, Leckenby, Luders, Lysen, Martinis, Matthews, Maxie, May, McCormick, Morrison, Newhouse, North L., O'Brien, Paris, Parker, Patterson, Perry, Polk, Pullen, Rabel, Randall, Savage, Schumaker, Shinpoch, Smith, Smythe, Swayze, Thompson, Tilly, Valle, Van Dyk, Warnke, Williams, Wilson, Wojahn, Zimmerman, and Mr. Speaker.

Not voting: Representatives Hurley, Moon.

Mr. Randall moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Bagnariol and Randall:

On page 2, line 6 strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 12, chapter 182, Laws of 1945 as amended by section 1, chapter 194, Laws of 1949 and RCW 14.08.290 are each amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2. Section 10, chapter 153, Laws of 1957 and RCW 17.28.100 are each amended to read as follows:

At the same election there shall be submitted to the voters residing within the district, for their approval or rejection, a proposition authorizing the mosquito control district, if formed, to levy at the earliest time permitted by law on all taxable property located within the mosquito control district a general tax, for one year, of (~~one mill~~) twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value in excess of any constitutional or statutory limitation for authorized purposes of the mosquito control district. The proposition shall be expressed on the ballots in substantially the following form:

(1) ((Eighty-five percent of the amount of revenues which would be produced by a levy of fourteen mills on the assessed valuation of taxable property within the school district adjusted to twenty-five percent of true and fair value thereof as determined by the state department of revenue's indicated county ratio: PROVIDED, That the funds otherwise distributable under this section to any school district for any year shall be reduced by the difference

Sec. 35. Section 36.47.040, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 2, chapter 47, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 36.47.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Each county which designates the Washington state association of county officials as the agency through which the duties imposed by RCW 36.47.020 may be executed is authorized to reimburse the association from the county current expense fund for the cost of any such services rendered: PROVIDED, That no reimbursement shall be made to the association for any expenses incurred under RCW 36.47.050 for travel, meals, or lodging of such county officials, or their representatives at such meetings, but such expenses may be paid by such official's respective county as other expenses are paid for county business. Such reimbursement shall be paid only on vouchers submitted to the county auditor and approved by the board of county commissioners of each county in the manner provided for the disbursement of other current expense funds. Each such voucher shall set forth the nature of the services rendered by the association, supported by affidavit that the services were actually performed. The total of such reimbursements for any county in any calendar year shall not exceed a sum equal to the amount which would be raised by a levy of ((one fourth-hundredth of a mill)) one-quarter of a cent per thousand dollars of assessed value against ((the actual value of)) the taxable property in such county.

Sec. 36. Section 36.54.080, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.54.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Written application for the formation of such a district signed by at least twenty-five percent of the registered voters, who reside and own real estate in the proposed district, shall be filed with the board of county commissioners. The board shall immediately transmit the application to the proper registrar of voters for the proposed district who shall check the names, residence, and registration of the signers with the records of his office and shall, as soon as possible, certify to said board the number of qualified signers. If the requisite number of signers is so certified, the board shall thereupon place the proposition, 'Shall a ferry district be established in the following area to operate ferries between the following termini: (describing the proposed district and ferry routes)?' upon the ballot for vote of the people of the proposed district at the next election, general or special. If sixty percent of the voters on such proposition vote in favor of the proposition, the board shall, by resolution, declare the district established. If the requisite number of qualified persons have not signed the application, further signatures may be added and certified until the requisite number have signed and the above procedure shall be thereafter followed.

The area of such district shall be the area within any island or group of islands outside incorporated cities and towns, or such portion or portions thereof as specifically defined in the application.

When established, a ferry district shall be a municipality as defined by the statutes of the state and entitled to all the powers conferred by law and exercised by municipal corporations in this state. A ferry district is hereby empowered to levy not more than ((five mills)) one dollar and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value against the assessed valuation of the property lying within the district.

A ferry district shall have the right of eminent domain according to the laws of the state.

A ferry district is exempt and excepted from the provisions of the public service laws and is not subject to the control, rules and regulations of the Washington utilities and transportation commission; and it shall not be necessary for a ferry district to apply for or obtain a certificate of public convenience and necessity.

A ferry district may operate any vessel over its authorized routes upon any of the waters of the state that

All registered voters within the service area shall be eligible to vote on the proposition. The county auditor, for the purpose of the special election, may combine or divide precincts in order to provide the greatest convenience to voters of the service area.

The county auditor, in submitting the issue to the voters for their approval or rejection, shall submit and express two propositions on the ballot in substantially the following form:

(1) FORMATION OF LOCAL SERVICE AREA

Shall a county service area be established for the area described in a resolution of the board of commissioners of..... county, adopted on the.....day of 19...., to provide financing for neighborhood park facilities, improvements and services?

Constitution and by RCW 84.52.052.

The special voted levy may be either for operating fund or for capital outlay, or for a cumulative reserve fund.

A service area may issue general obligations bonds for capital purposes only, not to exceed an amount, together with any out-standing general obligation indebtedness, equal to three-eighths of one percent of the value of the taxable property within the district, and may provide for the retirement thereof by levies in excess of ((millage)) dollar rate in accordance with the provisions of RCW 84.52.056: PROVIDED, That such districts may issue bonds equal to two and one-half percent of the value of the taxable property within the district, as the term 'value of the taxable property' is defined in RCW 39.36.015, when such bonds are approved by the voters of the district at a special election called for the purpose.

Sec. 40. Section 36.69.140, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 20, chapter 42, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 36.69.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Such special, voted levy may be either for operating funds or for capital outlay, or for a cumulative reserve fund. Sec. 41. Section 36.82.040, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 2, chapter 25, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 36.82.040 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of raising revenue for establishing, laying out, constructing, altering, repairing, improving, and maintaining county roads, bridges, and wharves, necessary for vehicle ferriage and for other proper county purposes, the board shall annually at the time of making the levy for general purposes make a uniform tax levy throughout the county, or any road district thereof, of not to exceed ((ten mills on the dollar)) two dollars and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value of the last assessed valuation of the taxable property in the county, or road district thereof, unless other law of the state requires a lower maximum levy, in which event such lower maximum levy shall control. All funds accruing from such levy shall be credited to and deposited in the county road fund except that revenue diverted under RCW 36.33.22C shall be placed in a separate and identifiable account within the county current expense fund.

Sec. 42. Section 11, chapter 189, Laws of 1967 and

RCW 36.93.110 are each amended to read as follows:

In case of annexation to a city or a town, where the area proposed for annexation is less than ten acres and less than ~~((two))~~ eight hundred thousand dollars in assessed valuation, the chairman of the review board may by written statement declare that review by the board is not necessary for the protection of the interest of the various parties, in which case the board shall not review such annexation.

Sec. 43. Section 6, chapter 91, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 2, chapter 92, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 41.16.060 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be the duty of the legislative authority of each municipality, each year as a part of its annual tax levy, to levy and place in the fund a tax of ~~((one-half of one mill on))~~ twenty-two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value against all the taxable property of such municipality: PROVIDED, That if a report by a qualified actuary on the condition of the fund establishes that the whole or any part of said ~~((millage))~~ dollar rate is not necessary to maintain the actuarial soundness of the fund, the levy of said ~~((one-half of one mill))~~ twenty-two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value may be omitted, or the whole or any part of said ~~((millage))~~ dollar rate may be levied and used for any other municipal purpose.

It shall be the duty of the legislative authority of each municipality, each year as a part of its annual tax levy and in addition to the city levy limit set forth in RCW 84.52.050, as now or hereafter amended, to levy and place in the fund an additional tax of ~~((one-half of one mill on))~~ twenty-two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value against all taxable property of such municipality: PROVIDED, That if a report by a qualified actuary establishes that all or any part of the additional ~~((one-half of one mill))~~ twenty-two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value levy is unnecessary to meet the estimated demands on the fund under this chapter for the ensuing budget year, the levy of said additional ~~((one-half of one mill))~~ twenty-two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value may be omitted, or the whole or any part of such ~~((millage))~~ dollar rate may be levied and used for any other municipal purpose.

Sec. 44. Section 4, chapter 209, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 6, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 41.26.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system is hereby created for fire fighters and law enforcement officers.

(1) All fire fighters and law enforcement officers employed as such on or after March 1, 1970, on a full time fully compensated basis in this state shall be members of the retirement system established by this chapter with respect to all periods of service as such, to the exclusion of any pension system existing under any prior act except as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) Any employee serving as a law enforcement officer or fire fighter on March 1, 1970, who is then making retirement contributions under any prior act shall have his membership transferred to the system established by this chapter as of such date. Upon retirement for service or for disability, or death, of any such employee, his retirement benefits earned under this chapter shall be computed and paid. In addition, his benefits under the prior retirement act to which he was making contributions at the time of this transfer shall be computed as if he had not transferred. For the purpose of such computations, the employee's creditability of service and eligibility for service or disability retirement and survivor and all other benefits shall continue to be as provided in such prior retirement act, as if transfer of membership had not occurred. The excess, if any, of the benefits so computed, giving full value to survivor benefits, over the benefits payable under this chapter shall be paid. If the employee's prior retirement system was the Washington public employees' retirement system, payment of such excess shall be made by that system; if the employee's prior retirement system was the state-wide city employees' retirement system, payment of such excess shall be made by the employer which was the member's employer when his transfer of membership occurred: PROVIDED, That any death in line of duty lump sum benefit payment shall continue to be the obligation of that system as provided in RCW 41.44.210; in the case of all other prior retirement systems, payment of such excess shall be made by the employer which was the member's employer when his transfer of membership occurred.

(3) All funds held by any firemen's or policemen's relief and pension fund shall remain in that fund for the purpose of paying the obligations of the fund. The municipality shall continue to levy the ~~((millage))~~ dollar rate as provided in RCW 41.16.060, and this ~~((millage))~~ dollar rate shall be used for the purpose of paying the benefits provided in chapters 41.16 and 41.18 RCW. The obligations of chapter 41.20 RCW shall continue to be paid from whatever financial sources the city has been using for this purpose.

(4) Any member transferring from the Washington public employees' retirement system or the state-wide city employees' retirement system shall have transferred from the appropriate fund of the prior system of membership, a sum sufficient to pay into the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system fund the amount of the employees' and employers' contributions plus credited interest in the prior system for all service, as defined in this chapter, from the date of the employee's entrance therein until March 1, 1970. Except as provided for in subsection (2), such transfer of funds shall discharge said state retirement systems from any further obligation to pay benefits to such transferring members with respect to such service.

(5) All unfunded liabilities created by this or any other section of this chapter shall be computed by the actuary in his biennial evaluation. Such computation shall provide for amortization of the unfunded liabilities over a period of not more than forty years from March 1, 1970. The amount thus computed as necessary shall be reported to the governor by the board of the retirement system for inclusion in the budget. The legislature shall make the necessary appropriation to fund the unfunded liability from the state general fund beginning with the 1971-1973 biennium.

Sec. 45. Section 2, chapter 13, Laws of 1911 and RCW 45.72.050 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be levied annually at the same time the levy for general county taxes is made, and by the officers levying the said county tax, a tax of not more than ((five mills on the dollar)) one dollar and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value on all taxable property within the territorial limits of every such road district as the same existed at the time of the adoption of such township organization for the payment of and until the full amount of all indebtedness, together with all accrued and accruing interest thereon, existing against any such road district, shall have been paid in full.

Sec. 46. Section 3, chapter 243, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 45.82.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Any township which at the time that this 1969 amendatory act takes effect has outstanding obligations in excess of anticipated receipts from sources other than general tax levies for the next ensuing year may certify the same to the board of county commissioners and the board shall levy taxes on the property within the township at the rates which the township would have been permitted to levy except for this 1969 amendatory act until such obligations have been extinguished, and until such time such ((millage)) dollar rate levy will take precedence over any additional ((millage)) dollar rates of fire protection districts under this 1969 amendatory act.

Sec. 47. Section 46.68.120, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 103, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 46.68.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Funds to be paid to the counties of the state shall be subject to deduction and distribution as follows:

(1) Three-fourths of one percent of such sums shall be deducted monthly as such sums accrue and set aside for the use of the state highway commission and the county road administration board for the supervision of work and expenditures of such counties on the county roads thereof: PROVIDED, That any moneys so retained and not expended shall be credited in the succeeding biennium to the counties in proportion to deductions herein made;

(2) All sums required to be repaid to counties composed entirely of islands shall be deducted;

(3) The balance remaining to the credit of counties after such deductions shall be paid to the several counties monthly, as such funds accrue, upon the basis of the following formula:

(a) Ten percent of such sum shall be divided equally among the several counties.

(b) Thirty percent shall be paid to each county in direct proportion that the sum of the total number of private automobiles and trucks licensed by registered owners residing in unincorporated areas and seven percent of the number of private automobiles and trucks licensed by registered owners residing in incorporated areas within each county bears to the total of such sums for all counties. The number of registered vehicles so used shall be as certified by the director of the department of motor vehicles for the year next preceding the date of calculation of the allocation amounts. The director of the department shall first supply such information not later than the fifteenth day of February, 1956, and on the fifteenth of February each two years thereafter.

(c) Thirty percent shall be paid to each county in direct proportion that the product of the county's trunk highway mileage and its prorated estimated annual cost per trunk mile as provided in subsection (e) is to the sum of such products for all counties. County trunk highways are defined as county roads regularly used by school buses and/or rural free delivery mail carriers of the United States post office department, but not foot carriers. Determination of the number of miles of county roads used in each county by school buses shall be based solely upon information supplied by the superintendent of public instruction who shall on October 1, 1955 and on October 1st of each odd-numbered year thereafter furnish the state highway commission with a map of each county upon which is indicated the county roads used by school buses at the close of the preceding school year, together with a detailed statement showing the total number of miles of county highway over which school buses operated in each county during such year. Determination of the number of miles of county roads used in each county by rural mail carriers on routes serviced by vehicles during the year shall be based solely upon information supplied by the United States postal department as of January 1st of the even-numbered years.

(d) Thirty percent of such sum shall be paid to each of the several counties in the direct proportion that the product of the trunk highway mileage of the county and its 'money need factor' as defined in subsection (f) is to the total of such products for all counties.

(e) Every four years, beginning with the 1958 allocation, the highway commission and the legislative transportation committee shall reexamine or cause to be reexamined all the factors on which the estimated annual costs per trunk mile for the several counties have been based and shall make such adjustments as may be necessary. The following formula shall be used: One twenty-fifth of the estimated total county road replacement cost, plus the total annual maintenance cost, divided by the total miles of county road in such county, and multiplied by the result obtained from dividing the total miles of county road in said county by the total trunk road mileage in said county. For the purpose of allocating funds from the motor vehicle fund, a county road shall be defined as one established as such by resolution or order of establishment of the board of county commissioners. The first allocation of funds shall be based on the following prorated estimated annual costs per trunk mile for the several counties as follows:

PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the prorated estimated annual costs per trunk mile in this subsection shall be adjusted every four years, beginning with the 1958 allocation by the highway commission on the basis of changes in the trunk and total county road mileage based on information supplied by the superintendent of public instruction, the United States postal department and the annual reports of the county road departments.

(f) The 'money need factor' for each of the several counties shall be the difference between the prorated estimated annual costs as listed above and the sum of the following three amounts divided by the county trunk highway mileage:

(1) The equivalent of a ~~((ten mill))~~ two dollar and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value tax levy on the valuation, as equalized by the state department of revenue for state purposes, of all taxable property in the county road districts;

(2) One-fourth the sum of all funds received by the county from the federal forest reserve fund during the two calendar years next preceding the date of the adjustment of the allocation amounts as certified by the state treasurer; and

(3) One-half the sum of motor vehicle license fees and motor vehicle fuel tax refunded to the county during the two calendar years next preceding the date of the adjustment of the allocation amounts as provided in RCW 46.68.080. These shall be as supplied to the highway commission by the state treasurer for that purpose. The department of revenue and the state treasurer shall supply the information herein requested on or before January 1, 1956 and on said date each two years thereafter.

The following formula shall be used for the purpose of obtaining the 'money need factor' of the several counties: The prorated estimated annual cost per trunk mile multiplied by the trunk miles will equal the total need of the individual county. The total need minus the sum of the three resources set forth in subsection (f) shall equal the net need. The net need of the individual county divided by the total net needs for all counties shall equal the 'money need factor' for that county.

(g) The state highway commission shall adjust the allocations of the several counties on March 1st of every even-numbered year based solely upon the sources of information hereinbefore required: PROVIDED, That the total allocation factor composed of the sum of the four factors defined in subsections (a), (b), (c) and (d) shall be held to a level not more than five percent above or five percent below the total allocation factor in use during the previous two year period.

(h) The highway commission and the legislative transportation committee shall relog or cause to be relogged the total road mileages upon which the prorated estimated annual costs per trunk mile are based and shall recalculate such costs on the basis of such relogging and shall report their findings and recommendations to the legislature at its next regular session.

(i) The highway commission and the legislative transportation committee shall study and report their findings and recommendations to the legislature concerning the following problems as they affect the allocation of 'motor vehicle fund' funds to counties:

(1) Comparative costs per trunk mile based on federal aid contracts versus those herein advocated.

(2) Average costs per trunk mile.

(3) The advisability of using either 'trunk mileage' or 'county road' mileage exclusively as the criterion instead of both as in this plan adopted.

(4) Reassessment of bridge costs based on current information and relogging of bridges.

(5) The items in the list of resources used in determining the 'need factor'.

(6) The development of a uniform accounting system for counties with regard to road and bridge construction and maintenance costs.

(7) A redefinition of rural and urban vehicles which better reflects the use of said vehicles on county roads.

Sec. 48. Section 20, chapter 34, Laws of 1939 as last amended by section 1, chapter 101, Laws of 1963 and RCW 52.08.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Any fire protection district organized under this act shall have authority:

(1) To lease, own, maintain, operate and provide fire engines and all other necessary or proper apparatus, facilities, machinery and equipment for the prevention and extinguishment of fires, and protection of life and property;

(2) To lease, own, maintain and operate real property, improvements and fixtures thereon suitable and convenient for housing, repairing and caring for fire fighting equipment;

(3) To enter into contract with any incorporated city or town whereby such city or town shall furnish fire prevention and fire extinguishment service to the districts and the inhabitants thereof under the provisions of this act upon such terms as the board of directors of the district shall determine. To contract with another county fire protection district, or with any town, city or municipal corporation or governmental agency or private person or persons to consolidate or cooperate for mutual fire fighting protection and prevention purposes. Any city, town, municipal corporation or governmental agency may contract with a county fire protection district established and maintained under the provisions of this act for the purpose of affording such district fire fighting and protection equipment and service or fire prevention facilities, and in so contracting the district, city, town, municipal corporation or other governmental agency shall be deemed for all purposes to act within its governmental capacity. Any county fire protection district established and maintained under the provisions of this act, or any city, town, municipal corporation or other governmental agency is hereby authorized to contract with any person, firm or corporation for the purpose of affording fire fighting, protection or fire prevention facilities to such person, firm or corporation and such contractual relation shall be deemed for all purposes to be within the governmental power of such rural fire protection district, city, town, municipal corporation or other governmental agency;

(4) Fire protection districts situated in different counties may contract to operate jointly in carrying out the objects of their creation. Contracts for joint operation may provide for joint ownership of property and equipment, and may authorize a joint board of fire commissioners of the contracting districts to manage the affairs of the joint operations; to employ and discharge the necessary agents and employees and fix their respective wages and salaries; to provide and designate a suitable place in any county in which any of the contracting districts is situated, as a regular meeting place for the joint board; to incur the necessary expenses and direct the payment therefor from the funds of the contracting districts in such proportion as the joint boards shall determine; and to do all things as may in the judgment of the joint board be required to carry out the joint operations of the contracting districts.

The joint board shall consist of the members of the boards of the contracting districts and a majority of the membership of each district board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of the joint board. The members of the boards of fire commissioners of the contracting districts shall organize as a joint board annually in January after the second Monday thereof, elect a chairman and appoint a secretary for the ensuing year.

Any member of the board of any contracting district may act as secretary of the joint board or the joint board may appoint such other person as the joint board may determine. The joint board shall prepare the annual budget for the joint operation of the contracting districts and shall determine the share of revenues for the joint operation to be raised by each district and the share of the expense of joint operation to be paid by each district in the ensuing year, and the secretary of the joint board shall certify and deliver within the time required by law, to the county auditor of each county involved, the part of the budget to be raised by the district in that county and the tax officials of that county shall levy and collect the tax, and the county treasurer shall pay vouchers drawn by the joint board on the funds of the district in that county upon warrants issued by the county auditor of that county.

Contracts for joint operation of fire districts, as herein authorized shall run from year to year and as of January 1st may be terminated by written notice of the board of fire commissioners of any contracting district to the other contracting district or districts on or before July 1st and the contract for joint operations shall terminate on January 1st following: PROVIDED, That all obligations of the joint operations must be paid or definitely arranged for before contract termination and no notice of termination shall relieve any contracting district of its unpaid obligation incurred under the contract for joint operation;

(5) To encourage uniformity and coordination of fire protection district operation programs, the fire commissioners of two or more fire protection districts, may form an association thereof, for the purpose of securing data and information of value in fighting and in preventing fires; hold and attend meetings thereof; and promote more economical and efficient operation of the associated fire protection districts. The directors of fire protection districts so associated shall adopt articles of association, select a chairman and secretary, and such other officers as they may determine, and may employ and discharge such agents and employees as the officers deem convenient to carry out the purposes of the association. The expenses of the association may be paid from fire protection district expense funds upon vouchers of the respective associated districts: PROVIDED, That the aggregate contributions made to the association by any district in any calendar year shall not exceed ((one-tenth of one mill of the tax valuation of the district)) two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation;

(6) Two or more fire protection districts may contract with each other and such a district may contract with a city or county or the state supervisor of forestry or any association approved by him for the joint leasing, ownership, maintenance and operation of all necessary and proper apparatus, facilities, machinery, and equipment for the elimination of fire hazards and for the protection of life and property within the contracting districts, and of real property, improvements and fixtures thereon suitable and convenient for the housing, repairing, and caring for such apparatus, facilities, machinery, and equipment, and may contribute their agreed proportion of the cost and expense thereof:

Such contracts shall be executed by the commissioners of the contracting districts and, when the contract is between such districts, the terms and conditions thereof shall be carried out by the boards of commissioners acting jointly;

(7) To do all things and perform all acts not otherwise prohibited by law.

(8) May enter into contract to provide group life insurance for the benefit of the personnel of the fire districts, but not to exceed ten thousand dollars coverage per covered employee, and not more than fifty percent of the cost of such insurance shall be borne by the employer fire district.

Sec. 49. Section 3, chapter 70, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 1, chapter 18, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 52.08.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Any territory contiguous to a fire protection district and not within the boundaries of a city or town or other fire protection district may be annexed to such fire protection district, for the purpose of obtaining fire fighting protection or prevention facilities, by petition of fifteen percent of the qualified registered electors residing within the territory proposed to be annexed. Such petition shall be filed with the fire commissioners of the fire protection district and if the said fire commissioners shall concur in the said petition they shall then file such petition with the county auditor who shall within thirty days from the date of filing such petition examine the signatures thereof and certify to the sufficiency or insufficiency thereof. When land against which fire patrol assessments are outstanding is acquired for delinquent taxes and sold at public auction, the state shall have a prior lien on the proceeds of sale over and above the amount necessary to satisfy the county's delinquent tax judgment, and the county treasurer in case the proceeds of sale exceed the amount of the delinquent tax judgment shall forthwith remit to the supervisor of natural resources the amount of the outstanding patrol assessments.

The term 'regular property taxes' and the term 'regular property tax levy' shall mean a property tax levy by or for a taxing district which levy is subject to the aggregate limitation set forth in section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act and RCW 84.52.050, as now or hereafter amended, or which is imposed by or for a port district or a public utility district.

Sec. 89. Section 84.28.090, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 33, chapter 299, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.28.090 are each amended to read as follows:

All lands classified as reforestation lands as provided in this chapter and lying west of the summit of the Cascade range of mountains in the state of Washington shall, after the date of such classification, be assessed for purposes of taxation at ~~((eight))~~ sixteen dollars per acre, which is hereby declared to be the assessed value thereof; and all lands so classified lying east of the summit of the Cascade range of mountains shall be assessed for purposes of taxation at ~~((four))~~ eight dollars per acre, which is hereby declared to be the assessed value thereof. The above values shall apply as the actual basis for taxation of such lands, without regard to any percentages of value which may apply for taxation of other classes of property; and the taxation of such lands on the basis herein provided shall be separate and distinct from and in addition to the cost of protecting such lands from fire as provided under the laws of Washington.

Sec. 90. Section 5, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 148, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In preparing the assessment roll as of January 1, 1971 for taxes payable in 1972, the assessor of each timber county shall list all timber within such county on January 1, 1971 at the 1970 timber value. For each year commencing with 1972, the assessor of each timber county shall prepare a timber roll, which shall be separate and apart from the assessment roll, listing all timber within such county on January 1, 1972 at values determined as follows:

(a) For the five years commencing with 1972, the value shall be the 1970 timber value;

(b) For each succeeding five year period, the first of which commences on January 1, 1977, the value shall be such 1970 timber value increased or decreased in proportion to the percentage change, if any, which has occurred between the last year of the preceding five year period and 1973 in the average stumpage value per unit of measure of all timber harvested in such county. Such percentage change shall be determined by the department of revenue on the basis of information contained in the excise tax returns filed pursuant to RCW 82.04.291.

(2) As used in subsection (1) of this section, '1970 timber value' means the value for timber calculated in the same manner and using the same values and valuation factors actually used by such assessor in determining the value of timber for the January 1, 1970 assessment roll, except that if a revised schedule of such values and valuation factors was applied to some but not all timber in a county for the January 1, 1970 assessment roll, such revised schedule shall be used by the assessor for any timber revalued for the 1971 or 1972 assessment rolls, and except that if the value of timber in any county on January 1, 1970 was not separately determined and shown on such assessment roll, 1970 timber value shall mean the value reconstructed from available records and information in accordance with rules to be prescribed by the department of revenue.

(3) The assessor of each timber county shall add to the assessment roll showing values of property as of January 1 of the years listed below, an 'assessed valuation' of the portion, indicated below opposite each such year, of the value of timber as shown on the timber roll for such year. Such assessed valuation shall be calculated by multiplying such portion of the timber roll by the assessment ratio applied generally by such assessor in computing the assessed valuation of other property in his county. The ((millage)) dollar rates, calculated pursuant to RCW 84.33.060 for each taxing district within which there was timber on January 1 of such year, shall be extended against such 'assessed valuation' of timber within such district as well as against the assessed value of all other property within such district as shown on such assessment roll.

Year	Portion of Timber Roll
1974 and thereafter	None

(4) Timber may be added to the timber roll, at the value specified in subsection (1) of this section, commencing as of January 1 following the designation of the land upon which such timber stands pursuant to subsection (3) of RCW 84.33.120 or 84.33.130, but only if the value of such timber was not separately determined and shown on the assessment roll as of either January 1, 1970 or January 1, 1972;

(5) Timber may be added to the timber roll, at the value specified in subsection (1) of this section, commencing as of January 1st following the sale or transfer of the land upon which such timber stands from an ownership in which such land was exempt from ad valorem taxation to an ownership in which such land is no longer exempt.

(6) The value of timber shall be deleted from the timber roll upon the sale or transfer of the land upon which such timber stands to an ownership in which such land is exempt from ad valorem taxation.

Sec. 91. Section 6, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.060 are each amended to read as follows:

In each year commencing with 1972 and ending with 1980, solely for the purpose of determining, calculating and fixing, pursuant to chapter 84.52 RCW, the ((millage)) dollar rates for all regular and excess levies for the state and each timber county and taxing district lying wholly or partially in such county within which there was timber on January 1 of such year, the assessor of such timber county shall, for each such district, add to the amount of the 'assessed valuation of the property' of all property other than timber the product of:

(a) The portion indicated below for each year of the value of timber therein as shown on the timber roll prepared in accordance with RCW 84.33.050 for such year; and

(b) The assessment ratio applied generally by such assessor in computing the assessed value of other property in his county:

Year	Portion of Timber Roll
1972 through 1977	100%
1978	75%
1979	50%
1980	25%
1981 and thereafter	None

Sec. 92. Section 8, chapter 294, chapter 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 148, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) On or before December 15 of each year commencing with 1972 and ending with 1980, the assessor of each timber county shall deliver to the treasurer of such county and to the department of revenue a schedule setting forth for each taxing district or portion thereof lying within such county:

(a) The value of timber as shown on the timber roll for such year;

(b) The aggregate ((millage)) dollar rate calculated pursuant to RCW 84.33.060 and actually utilized the immediately preceding October in extending property taxes upon the tax rolls for collection in the following year;

(c) A 'timber factor' which is the product of such aggregate ((millage)) dollar rate, the assessment ratio applied generally by such assessor in computing the assessed value of other property in his county and the appropriate portion listed below of the timber roll for such year ((a) above):

Year	Portion of Timber Roll
1973	55%
1974 through 1977	100%
1978	75%
1980	25%

On or before December 31 of each year commencing with 1972 and ending with 1980, the department of revenue shall determine the proportion that each taxing district's timber factor bears to the sum of the timber factors for all taxing districts in the state, and shall deliver a list to the assessor and the treasurer of each timber county and to the state treasurer showing the factor and proportion for each taxing district.

(2) On the tenth day of the second month of each calendar quarter, commencing February 10, 1973 and ending November 10, 1981, the state treasurer shall pay to the treasurer of each timber county for the account of each taxing district such district's proportion (determined in December of the preceding year pursuant to subsection (1) of this section) of the amount in state timber tax fund A collected upon timber harvested in the preceding calendar quarter, but in no event shall any quarterly payment to a taxing district, when added to the payments made to such district the previous quarters of the same year, exceed the timber factor for such district determined in December of the preceding year. The balance in state timber tax fund A, if any, after the distribution to taxing districts on November 10 each year commencing with 1973 and ending with 1981, shall be transferred to the state timber reserve fund.

(3) If the balance in state timber tax fund A immediately prior to such November 10 distribution to taxing districts is not sufficient to permit a payment which, when added to the payments made to any taxing district the previous quarters of the same year, will equal the timber factor for such district determined in December of the preceding year, the necessary additional amount shall be transferred from the state timber reserve fund to state timber tax fund A.

(4) The balance, if any, in the state timber reserve fund after the final transfer, if any, to or from state timber tax fund A in November of 1981, shall be transferred to state timber tax fund B on December 31, 1981, and one-fourth of such balance shall be distributed in each quarter of 1982 in the manner set forth in subsection (6) of this section.

(5) On or before December 31 of each year commencing with 1978, the department of revenue shall deliver to the treasurer of each timber county a schedule setting forth for each taxing district or portion thereof lying within such county:

(a) The average of the aggregate value of all timber harvested within such district in each of the immediately preceding five years as determined from the excise tax returns filed with the department of revenue;

(b) The aggregate ((millage)) dollar rate calculated pursuant to RCW 84.33.060 and chapter 84.52 RCW and actually utilized the immediately preceding October in extending property taxes upon the tax rolls for collection the following year;

(c) A 'harvest factor' which is the product of such five year average and such aggregate ((millage)) dollar rate;

(d) The proportion that each taxing district's harvest factor bears to the sum of the harvest factors for all taxing districts in the state.

(6) On the tenth day of the second month of each calendar quarter commencing February 10, 1979, the state treasurer shall pay to the treasurer of each timber county for the account of each taxing district such district's proportion (determined in December of the preceding year pursuant to subsection (5) of this section) of the amount in state timber tax fund B collected upon timber harvested in the preceding calendar quarter.

Sec. 93. Section 14, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 6, chapter 148, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When land has been designated as forest land pursuant to subsection (3) of RCW 84.33.120 or 84.33.130, a notation of such designation shall be made each year upon the assessment and tax rolls, a copy of the notice of approval together with the legal description or assessor's tax lot numbers for such land shall, at the expense of the applicant, be filed by the assessor in the same manner as deeds are recorded, and such land shall be graded and valued pursuant to RCW 84.33.110 and 84.33.120 until removal of such designation by the assessor upon occurrence of any of the following:

(a) Receipt of notice from the owner to remove such designation;

(b) Passage of sixty days following the sale or transfer of such land to a new owner without receipt of an application pursuant to RCW 84.33.130 from the new owner;

(c) Sale or transfer to an ownership making such land exempt from ad valorem taxation;

(d) Determination by the assessor, after giving the owner written notice and an opportunity to be heard, that such land is no longer primarily devoted to and used for growing and harvesting timber.

Removal of designation upon occurrence of any of subsections (a) through (c) above shall apply only to the land affected, and upon occurrence of subsection (d) shall apply only to the actual area of land no longer primarily devoted to and used for growing and harvesting timber, without regard to other land that may have been included in the same application and approval for designation.

(2) Within thirty days after such removal of designation of forest land, the assessor shall notify the owner in writing, setting forth the reasons for such removal. The owner may appeal such removal to the county board of equalization.

(3) Unless the removal is reversed on appeal a copy of the notice of removal with notation of the action, if any, upon appeal, together with the legal description or assessor's tax lot numbers for the land removed from designation shall, at the expense of the applicant, be filed by the assessor in the same manner as deeds are recorded, and commencing on January 1 of the year following the year in which the assessor mailed such notice, such land shall be assessed on the same basis as real property is assessed generally in that county. Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, a compensating tax shall be imposed which shall be due and payable to the county treasurer on or before April 30 of the following year. On or before May 31 following such assessment date, the assessor shall compute the amount of such compensating tax and mail notice to the owner of the amount thereof and the date on which payment is due. The amount of such compensating tax shall be equal to:

(a) The difference between the amount of tax last levied on such land as forest land and an amount equal to the new assessed valuation of such land multiplied by the ((~~millage~~)) dollar rate of the last levy extended against such land, multiplied by

(b) A number, in no event greater than ten, equal to the number of years for which such land was designated as forest land.

(4) Any compensating tax unpaid on its due date shall thereupon become delinquent and together with applicable interest thereon, shall as of said date become a lien on such land which shall have priority to and shall be fully paid and satisfied before any recognizance, mortgage, judgment, debt, obligation or responsibility to or with which such land may become charged or liable. Such lien may be foreclosed upon expiration of the same period after delinquency and in the same manner provided by law for foreclosure of liens for delinquent real property taxes as provided in RCW 84.64.050. From the date of delinquency until paid, interest shall be charged at the same rate applied by law to delinquent ad valorem property taxes.

(5) The compensating tax specified in subsection (3) of this section shall not be imposed if the removal of designation pursuant to subsection (1) of this section resulted solely from:

(a) Transfer to a government entity in exchange for other forest land located within the state of Washington;

(b) A taking through the exercise of the power of eminent domain, or sale or transfer to an entity having the power of eminent domain in anticipation of the exercise of such power;

(c) Sale or transfer of land within two years after the death of the owner of at least a fifty percent interest in such land.

Sec. 94. Section 4, chapter 243, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.230 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of acquiring conservation futures as well as other rights and interests in real property pursuant to RCW 84.34.210 and 84.34.220, a county may levy an amount not to exceed ((~~one-eighth of one mill on~~)) six and one-quarter cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation against the assessed valuation of all taxable property within the county, which levy shall be in addition to that authorized by RCW 84.52.050 and section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act.

Sec. 95. Section 1, chapter 117, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 84.36.270 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in RCW 84.36.280, whenever the owner of any real property dedicates the perpetual right to use the air space over his property to any county, city or other political subdivision of this state for the construction, operation and maintenance of stadium facilities, or for any parking facilities to be used in connection therewith, pursuant to the provisions of chapter 67.28 RCW, such property shall be exempt from general property taxation to such extent and as to such ((~~millage~~)) dollar rate as shall be determined by the county, city or other political subdivision, and subject to being used by a public body for a public purpose and only so long as the owner allows the use by the public body of the dedicated air rights free of rents or other charges.

Sec. 96. Section 84.40.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 125, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 84.40.030 are each amended to read as follows:

All property shall be ((assessed fifty)) valued at one hundred percent of its true and fair value in money and assessed on the same basis unless specifically provided otherwise by law.

Taxable leasehold estates shall be valued at such price as they would bring at a fair, voluntary sale for cash without any deductions for any indebtedness owed including rentals to be paid. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section or of any other statute, when the value of any taxable leasehold estate created prior to January 1, 1971 is being determined for assessment years prior to the assessment year 1973, there shall be deducted from what would otherwise be the value thereof the present worth of the rentals and other consideration which may be required of the lessee by the lessor for the unexpired term thereof: PROVIDED, That the foregoing provisions of this sentence shall not apply to any extension or renewal, made after December 31, 1970 of the term of any such estate, or to any such estate after the date, if any, provided for in the agreement for rental renegotiation.

The true and fair value of real property for taxation purposes (including property upon which there is a coal or other mine, or stone or other quarry) shall be based upon the following criteria:

(1) (a) Any sales of the property being appraised or similar property with respect to sales made within the past five years ((less a percentage equal to the average; ordinary and usual direct costs of sale of that type of property; including but not limited to costs of title insurance; legal services; recording fees and taxes levied against such sales that are borne by the seller; and an amount equal to the customary fees payable to a licensed real estate broker for handling such a sale; such percentage to be determined by studies conducted by the department of revenue)). The appraisal shall take into consideration political restrictions such as zoning as well as physical and environmental influences. The appraisal shall also take into account, (i) in the use of sales by real estate contract as similar sales, the extent, if any, to which the stated selling price has been increased by reason of the down payment, interest rate, or other financing terms; and (ii) the extent to which the sale of a similar property actually represents the general effective market demand for property of such type, in the geographical area in which such property is located. Sales involving deed releases or similar seller-developer financing arrangements shall not be used as sales of similar property.

(b) In addition to sales as defined in subsection (1) (a), consideration may be given to cost, cost less depreciation, reconstruction cost less depreciation, or capitalization of income that would be derived from prudent use of the property. In the case of property of a complex nature, or being used under terms of a franchise from a public agency, or operating as a public utility, or property not having a record of sale within five years and not having a significant number of sales of similar property in the general area, the provisions of this subsection (1) (b) shall be the dominant factors in valuation. When provisions of this subsection (1) (b) are relied upon for establishing values the property owner shall be advised upon request of the factors used in arriving at such value.

(c) In valuing any tract or parcel of real property, the value of the land, exclusive of structures thereon shall be determined; also the value of structures thereon, but the valuation shall not exceed the value of the total property as it exists. In valuing agricultural land, growing crops shall be excluded.

PROVIDED, That the provisions of this subsection (1) shall be applicable to all values for use in computing property taxes for the assessment year 1972 for taxes payable in 1973 and subsequent years.

Sec. 97. Section 84.40.040, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 36, chapter 149, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 84.40.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The assessor shall begin the preliminary work for each assessment not later than the first day of December of each year in all counties in the state. He shall also complete the duties of listing and placing valuations on all property by May 31st of each year, and in the following manner, to wit:

He shall actually determine as nearly as practicable the true and fair value of each tract or lot of land listed for taxation and of each improvement located thereon and shall enter ((fifty)) one hundred percent of the value of such land and of the total value of such improvements, together with the total of such ((fifty)) one hundred percent valuations, opposite each description of property on his assessment list and tax roll.

He shall make an alphabetical list of the names of all persons in his county liable to assessment of personal property, and require each person to make a correct list and statement of such property according to the standard form prescribed by the department of revenue, which statement and list shall include, if required by the form, the year of acquisition and total original cost of personal property in each category of the prescribed form, and shall be signed and verified under penalty of perjury by the person listing the property. Such list and statement shall be filed on or before the last day of March, but the assessor, upon written request filed on or before such date and for good cause shown therein, shall allow a reasonable extension of time for filing. The assessor shall on or before the 1st day of January of each year mail a notice to all such persons at their last known address that such statement and list is required, such notice to be accompanied by the form on which the statement or list is to be made: PROVIDED, That ((for the years 1968 and 1969 a second notice shall be mailed on or before the 15th day of March: PROVIDED FURTHER, That)) the notice mailed by the assessor to each taxpayer each year shall, if practicable, include the statement and list of personal property of the taxpayer for the preceding year. Upon receipt of such statement and list the assessor shall thereupon determine the true and fair value of the property included in such statement and enter ((fifty)) one hundred percent of the same in the assessment books opposite the name of the party assessed; and in making such entry in his assessment list, he shall give the name and post office address of the party listing the property, and if the party resides in a city the assessor shall give the street and number or other brief description of his residence or place of business. The assessor may, after giving written notice of his action to the person to be assessed, add to the assessment list any taxable property which, in his judgment, should be included in such list.

Sec. 98. Section 84.40.320, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.40.320 are each amended to read as follows:

The assessor shall add up and note the amount of each column in his detail and assessment lists, which he shall have bound in book form in such manner, to be prescribed or approved by the state tax commission, as will provide a convenient and permanent record of assessment. He shall also make, under proper headings, a tabular statement showing the footings of the several columns upon each page, and shall add and set down under the respective headings the total amounts of each column, which he shall attach to the highest numbered assessment book, and on the first Monday of July he shall file the same, properly indexed, with the clerk of the county board of equalization for the purpose of equalization by the said board. Such returns shall be verified by his affidavit, substantially in the following form:

State of Washington,.....County, ss.

I,....., Assessor....., do solemnly swear that the books No. 1 to No., to the last of which this is attached, contain a correct and full list of all the real property (or personal property, as the case may be) subject to taxation in county, so far as I have been able to ascertain the same; and that the assessed value set down in the proper column, opposite the several kinds and descriptions of property, is in each case ((fifty)) one hundred percent of the true and fair value of such property, to the best of my knowledge and belief, and that the footings of the several columns in said books, and the tabular statement returned herewith, are correct, as I verily believe.

....., Assessor.
 Subscribed and sworn to before me this..... day of
, 19.....

(L. S.), Auditor of.....county.
 PROVIDED, That the failure of the assessor to attach his certificate shall in nowise invalidate the assessment. After the same has been duly equalized by the county and state board of equalization, the same shall be delivered to the county assessor, who shall then extend the amount as levied by the state and county boards upon the said detail and assessment lists as by law provided.

Sec. 99. Section 84.48.080, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 9, chapter 288, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.48.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Annually during the month of August, the department of revenue shall examine and compare the returns of the assessment of the property in the several counties of the state, and the assessment of the property of railroad and other companies assessed by the department, and proceed to equalize the same, so that each county in the state shall pay its due and just proportion of the taxes for state purposes for such assessment year, according to the ratio the valuation of the property in each county bears to the total valuation of all property in the state.

First. The department shall classify all property, real and personal, and shall raise and lower the valuation of any class of property in any county to a value that shall be equal, so far as possible, to the true and fair value of such class as of January 1st of the current year for the purpose of ascertaining the just amount of tax due from each county for state purposes. Such classification may be on the basis of types of property, geographical areas, or both.

Second. The department shall keep a full record of its proceedings and the same shall be published annually by the department.

Third. The department shall have authority to adopt rules and regulations to enforce obedience to its orders in all matters in relation to the returns of county assessments, and the equalization of values by the department.

The department shall levy the state taxes authorized by law: PROVIDED, That the amount levied in any one year for general state purposes shall not exceed the lawful ((millage)) dollar rate on the dollar of the assessed value of the property of the entire state, which assessed value shall be ((fifty)) one hundred percent of the true and fair value of such property in money; and shall apportion the amount of tax for state purposes levied by the department, among the several counties, in proportion to the valuation of the taxable property of the county for the year as equalized by the department.

After the completion of the duties hereinabove prescribed, the director of the department shall certify the record of the proceedings of the department under this section, the tax levies made for state purposes and the apportionment thereof among the counties, to the state auditor.

Sec. 100. Section 8, chapter 288, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.48.085 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of equalization shall reconvene on the first Monday of August for the purpose of equalizing valuations of real property within the county. Such equalization shall be accomplished in the following manner:

(1) The department of revenue shall certify to the board the ratio of the assessed valuation of locally assessed property in the county to the true and fair value of such property, based upon assessed values established without regard to equalization accomplished pursuant to this section (hereinafter referred to as the 'tentative county indicated ratio'). The department shall also certify the ratio of the assessed valuation of locally assessed property in those geographical areas in the county which have been revalued ((pursuant to a cyclical revaluation program approved by the department of revenue)) during the year ending May 31st prior to the convening of the board to the true and fair value of such property (hereinafter referred to as the 'revaluation ratio'). If, pursuant to the ((cyclical)) revaluation program, land alone or improvements alone have been revalued for any assessment year, the revaluation ratio shall be for land alone, or improvements alone, as appropriate, or such combination thereof as is appropriate. The board shall review the revaluation ratio so certified, and may accept, reject, or modify the ratio.

(2) If the revaluation ratio, as determined by the board, exceeds one hundred and ((ten)) fifteen percent of the tentative county indicated ratio, the board shall order the assessor, in accordance with the provisions of RCW 84.41.04C, to reduce by a uniform percentage the true and fair values of land, improvements, or both as appropriate, within the geographical areas covered by the revaluation ratio by a uniform percentage such that the revaluation ratio shall equal the tentative county indicated ratio. The board shall also order the assessor to make appropriate similar adjustments to properties valued in the same year. For the purpose of administrative convenience, such reductions may be accomplished, in lieu of actual changes in the assessment rolls, by the assessor certifying to the treasurer the percentage adjustment for the geographical areas involved, on the basis of which the treasurer shall adjust the amount of taxes otherwise payable.

Sec. 101. Section 84.52.010, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 6, chapter 243, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.52.010 are each amended to read as follows:

All taxes shall be levied or voted in specific amounts, and the rate percent of all taxes for state and county purposes, and purposes of taxing districts coextensive with the county, shall be determined, calculated and fixed by the county assessors of the respective counties, within the limitations provided by law, upon the assessed valuation of the property of the county, as shown by the completed tax rolls of the county, and the rate percent of all taxes levied for purposes of taxing districts within any county shall be determined, calculated and fixed by the county assessors of the respective counties, within the limitations provided by law, upon the assessed valuation of the property of the taxing districts respectively: PROVIDED, That when any such county assessor shall find that the aggregate rate of levy on any property will exceed the limitation set forth in section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act and RCW 84.52.050 as now or hereafter amended, he shall recompute and establish a consolidated levy in the following manner:

(1) He shall include for extension on the tax rolls the full rates of levy certified to him for state, county, county road districts, city and school district purposes in amounts not exceeding the limitations established by law: PROVIDED, That in the event of a levy made pursuant to

((section 5 of this 1974 amendatory act)) RCW 84.34.230, the rates of levy for county, county road district, and school district purposes shall be reduced in such uniform percentages as will result in a consolidated levy by such taxing districts which will be no greater on any property than a consolidated levy by such taxing districts would be if the levy had not been made pursuant to ((section 5 of this 1974 amendatory act)) RCW 84.34.230, and

(2) He shall include for extension on the tax rolls the rates percent of the tax levies certified to him by all other taxing districts imposing taxes on such property, other than port districts and public utility districts, reduced by him in such uniform percentages as will bring the consolidated tax levy on such property within the provisions of such limitation.

Sec. 102. Section 84.52.052, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 3, Laws of 1973 and RCW 84.52.052 are each amended to read as follows:

The limitations imposed by RCW 84.52.050 through 84.52.056, and section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act shall not prevent the levy of additional taxes ((not in excess of five mills a year and without anticipation of delinquencies in payment of taxes; in an amount equal to the interest and principal payable in the next succeeding year on general obligation bonds; outstanding on December 6, 1934; issued by or through the agency of the state; or any county; city; town; or school district; or the levy of additional taxes to pay interest on or toward the redemption; at the rates provided by statute; of the principal of county; city; town; or school district warrants outstanding December 6, 1932; but this millage limitation with respect to general obligation bonds shall not apply to)) by any taxing district in which a larger levy is necessary in order to prevent the impairment of the obligation of contracts. A special election may be called and the time therefor fixed by the board of county commissioners or other county legislative authority, board of school directors, or council, board of commissioners, or other governing body of any metropolitan park district, park and recreation district in class AA counties and counties of the second, eighth and ninth class, sewer district, water district, public hospital district, rural county library district, intercounty rural library district, fire protection district, cemetery district, city or town, by giving notice thereof by publication in the manner provided by law for giving notices of general elections, at which special election the proposition authorizing such excess ((levies)) levy shall be submitted in such form as to enable the voters favoring the proposition to vote 'yes' and those opposed thereto to vote 'no'.

Sec. 103. Section 84.52.054, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.52.054 are each amended to read as follows:

The additional tax provided for in subparagraph (a) of the seventeenth amendment to the state Constitution as amended by Amendment 59 and specifically authorized by RCW 84.52.052 shall be set forth in terms of dollars on the ballot of the proposition to be submitted to the voters, together with an estimate of the ((millage)) dollar rate of tax levy that will be required to produce the dollar amount; and the county assessor, in spreading this tax upon the rolls, shall determine the eventual ((millage)) dollar rate required to produce the amount of dollars so voted upon, regardless of the estimate of ((millage)) dollar rate of tax levy carried in said proposition.

Sec. 104. Section 84.52.056, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.52.056 are each amended to read as follows:

Any municipal corporation otherwise authorized by law to issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes may, at an election duly held after giving notice thereof as required by law, authorize the issuance of general obligation bonds for capital purposes only, which shall not include the replacement of equipment, and provide for the payment of the principal and interest of such bonds by annual levies in excess of the tax limitations contained in RCW 84.52.050 to 84.52.056, inclusive and section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act. Such an election shall not be held oftener than twice a calendar year, and the proposition to issue any such bonds and to exceed said tax limitation must receive the affirmative vote of a three-fifths majority of those voting on the proposition and the total number of persons voting at such election must constitute not less than forty percent of the voters in said municipal corporation who voted at the last preceding general state election.

Any taxing district shall have the right by vote of its governing body to refund any general obligation bonds of said district issued for capital purposes only, and to provide for the interest thereon and amortization thereof by annual levies in excess of the tax limitations provided for in RCW 84.51.050 to 84.52.056, inclusive and section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act.

Sec. 105. Section 9, chapter 92, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.52.063 are each amended to read as follows:

A rural library district may impose ((7 notwithstanding the millage limitations provided for in RCW 84.52.050 and 84.54.0207)) a regular property tax levy in an amount equal to that which would be produced by a levy of ((two mills)) fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value multiplied by an assessed valuation equal to ~~((twenty-five))~~ one hundred percent of the true and fair value of the taxable property in the rural library district, as determined by the department of revenue's indicated county ratio; PROVIDED, That when any county assessor shall find that the aggregate rate of levy on any property will exceed the limitation set forth in section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act and RCW 84.52.050, as now or hereafter amended, before recomputing and establishing a consolidated levy in the manner set forth in RCW 84.52.010, the assessor shall first reduce the levy of any rural library district, by such amount as may be necessary, but the levy of any rural library district shall not be reduced to less than fifty cents per thousand dollars against the value of the taxable property, as determined by the county, prior to any further adjustments pursuant to RCW 84.52.010. For purposes of this section 'regular property tax levy' shall mean a levy subject to the ~~((forty mill))~~ limitations provided for in Article VII, section 2 of the state Constitution and/or by statute.

Sec. 106. Section 1, chapter 33, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 25, chapter 299, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.52.065 are each amended to read as follows:

In each ~~((of the years 1967 and 1968 and 1969 and 1970 and 1971 and 1972))~~ year the state shall levy for collection in ~~((1968 and 1969 and 1970 and 1971 and 1972 and 1973 respectively))~~ the following year for the support of common schools of the state a tax of ~~((two mills))~~ three dollars and sixty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value upon the assessed valuation of all taxable property within the state adjusted ~~((to fifty percent of true and fair value of such property in money))~~ to the state equalized value in accordance with the indicated ratio fixed by the state department of revenue. ~~((Such levy shall be in addition to the levy for public assistance purposes as provided in RCW 74.04.456 and 84.52.059, as now or hereafter amended.))~~

Sec. 107. Section 22, chapter 288, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.55.030 are each amended to read as follows:

For the first levy for a taxing district following annexation of additional property, the limitation set forth in RCW 84.55.010 shall be increased by an amount equal to (1) the aggregate assessed valuation of the newly annexed property as shown by the current completed and balanced tax rolls of the county or counties within which such property lies, multiplied by (2) the ~~((millage))~~ dollar rate that would have been used by the annexing unit in the absence of such annexation, plus (3) the additional dollar amount calculated by multiplying the increase in assessed value in the annexing district resulting from new constructions and improvements to property by the regular property tax levy rate of that annexing taxing district for the preceding year.

Sec. 108. Section 23, chapter 288, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.55.040 are each amended to read as follows:

If by reason of the operation of section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act and RCW 84.52.050, as now or hereafter amended the statutory ((millage)) dollar rate limitation applicable to the levy by a taxing district has been increased over the statutory millage limitation applicable to such taxing district's levy in the preceding year, the limitation on the dollar rate amount of a levy provided for in this chapter shall be increased by multiplying the otherwise dollar limitation by a fraction, the numerator of which is the increased ((millage)) dollar limitation and the denominator of which is the ((millage)) dollar limitation for the prior year.

Sec. 109. Section 24, chapter 288, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.55.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to any otherwise applicable statutory ((millage)) dollar rate limitations, regular property taxes may be levied by or for a taxing district in an amount exceeding the limitations provided for in RCW 84.55.010 through 84.55.040 if such levy is authorized by a proposition approved by a majority of the voters of the taxing district voting on the proposition at a general election held within the district or at a special election within the taxing district called by the district for the purpose of submitting such proposition to the voters. Any election held pursuant to this section shall be held not more than twelve months prior to the date on which the proposed levy is to be made. The ballot of the proposition shall state the ((millage)) dollar rate proposed. After a levy authorized pursuant to this section is made, the dollar amount of such levy shall be used for the purpose of computing the limitations for subsequent levies provided for in this chapter.

Sec. 110. Section 84.56.180, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 5, chapter 124, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 84.56.180 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any person, firm or corporation, shall, subsequent to the first day of January of any year, bring or send into any county from outside the state any stock of goods or merchandise to be sold or disposed of in a place of business temporarily occupied for their sale, without the intention of engaging in permanent trade in such place, the owner, consignee or person in charge of the said goods or merchandise shall immediately notify the county assessor, and thereupon the assessor shall at once proceed to value the said stock of goods and merchandise at its true value, and upon ((fifty)) one hundred percent of such valuation the said owner, consignee or person in charge shall pay to the collector of taxes a tax at the rate assessed for state, county and local purposes in the taxing district in the year then current. And it shall not be lawful to sell or dispose of any such goods or merchandise as aforesaid in such taxing district until the assessor shall have been so notified as aforesaid and the tax assessed thereon paid to the collector. Every person, firm or corporation bringing into any county of this state from outside the state any goods or merchandise after the first day of January shall be deemed subject to the provisions of this section.

This section shall not apply to goods or merchandise consigned to a person for sale at such person's permanent place of business within this state, if such person is required to list such goods or merchandise pursuant to RCW 84.40.185.

Sec. 111. Section 4, chapter 184, Laws of 1967 and RCW 85.15.030 are each amended to read as follows:

To operate under this chapter, the board of commissioners of the improvement district shall cause to be prepared and filed with the board of county commissioners a property roll. The roll shall contain: (1) A description of all properties benefited and improvements thereon which receive protection and service from the systems of the district with the name of the owner or the reputed owner thereof and his address as shown on the tax rolls of the assessor or treasurer of the county where in the property is located and (2) the determined value of such land and improvements thereon as last assessed and equalized by the assessor of such county or counties. Such assessed and equalized values shall be deemed prima facie to be just, fair and correct valuations against which annual ((millage)) taxes shall be levied for the operation of the district and the maintenance and expansion of its facilities.

If property outside of the limits of the original district are upon the roll as adopted ultimately, and the original district has outstanding bonds or long-term warrants, the board of county commissioners shall set up separate ((millage)) dollar rate levies for the full retirement thereof.

Sec. 112. Section 7, chapter 184, Laws of 1967 and RCW 85.15.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of county commissioners may at any time reexamine the properties on any roll, and upon receipt of a petition from the board of supervisors of the district or the written request of a property owner shall do so. If it is found that the condition of such property or properties has changed so that such property should be eliminated from any rolls on file, or the valuation against which ((millage)) dollar rate is levied should be lowered, it shall so determine and enter an order adjusting the valuation as to such properties and shall certify and file a copy thereof with the treasurer of the county wherein the property is situated, and the treasurer shall alter and change the existing rolls accordingly. Valuations may be revised periodically to reflect changes in real property valuations by the county assessor.

Sec. 113. Section 8, chapter 184, Laws of 1967 and RCW 85.15.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The roll approved and certified to the county officers by the board of county commissioners as in this chapter provided shall constitute the valuations of land, buildings and improvements furnished protection and services by the systems of the district against which valuation ((millage)) taxes shall be levied and collected annually in the same manner as general taxes for the continuing operations of the district and its systems. The valuations on said roll shall be subject to adjustment from time to time in the manner provided in RCW 85.15.060.

The board of county commissioners shall hold a hearing on such adjustments at the county seat at the time of equalization of real property assessments for the purpose of considering written objections to any revision of valuations filed at least ten days prior to the hearing and shall give published notice only of such hearing as provided in RCW 85.15.040.

Sec. 114. Section 15, chapter 184, Laws of 1967 and RCW 85.15.140 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((millage)) dollar rate levies collected from time to time under this chapter are solely assessments for benefits received continuously by the protected properties, calculated in the manner specified in this chapter as a just and equitable way for all protected property to share the expense of such required protection and services.

Sec. 115. Section 2, chapter 45, Laws of 1951 and RCW 85.18.010 are each amended to read as follows:

When any diking district has been organized and the improvements made afford protection to land and buildings within such district against damage or destruction from overflow waters in that the level of the land and of the foundational structures of buildings thereon is below the water level at flood or high tide stages of the waters, fresh or salt, against which such district improvements furnished protection, the board of diking commissioners of such district may, under the procedure established in this chapter, determine such fact and by resolution so declare; and may provide that the cost of continued functioning of the district shall be paid through levies of ((millage)) dollar rates made and collected according to this chapter against the land and buildings thus protected, based upon the determined base benefits received by such land and buildings.

Sec. 116. Section 4, chapter 45, Laws of 1951 and RCW 85.18.030 are each amended to read as follows:

After the roll is prepared the board shall give notice of a time and place at which the board will hold a public hearing to determine whether the facts and conditions heretofore recited in this chapter as a prerequisite to its application do or do not exist, and if so found to exist by said board at said hearing, then the board shall by resolution so declare. The notice shall also state that at said hearing, or any continuance thereof, the board will sit to consider said roll and to determine the continuous base benefits which each of the properties thereon are receiving and will receive from the continued operation and functioning of such district, which shall in no instance exceed ((fifty)) one hundred percent of the true and fair value of such property in money, will consider all objections made thereto or to any part thereof, and will correct, revise, lower, change, or modify such roll as shall appear just and equitable; that when correct benefits are fixed upon said roll by said board, it will adopt said roll by resolution as establishing, until modified as hereinafter provided, the continuous base benefit to said protected lands and buildings against which will be levied and collected ((millage)) dollar rates to provide funds for the continuous functioning of said district.

Sec. 117. Section 9, chapter 45, Laws of 1951 and RCW 85.18.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Until further modified, amended, or changed by an additional or supplemental roll certified to the county auditor after the foregoing procedure is had, the original roll, as modified or supplemented, if the same is done, shall serve as the base of benefits to the land and buildings protected by the improvement system of said district against which ((millage)) dollar rate is levied and collected from time to time for the continued functioning of said diking district.

Sec. 118. Section 16, chapter 45, Laws of 1951 and RCW 85.18.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((millage)) dollar rate levy returns collected from time to time under this chapter are solely assessments for benefits received continuously by the protected properties, calculated in the manner specified in this chapter as a just and equitable way for all protected property to share the expense of such required protection.

Sec. 119. Section 19, chapter 225, Laws of 1909 and RCW 85.24.250 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever it shall appear to the city council of any incorporated city or town not included or not wholly included within the limits of any diking or drainage district established hereunder, which incorporated city or town may be within a county in which a portion of such district is located that the construction and maintenance of such diking and drainage system will be beneficial to the health of the inhabitants of said incorporated city and to the general welfare of the said city, then the city council of said city is hereby empowered and authorized to appropriate such amount of money out of the general funds of the city as may to the city council seem proper and just to such diking and drainage system, or the city council may for such purpose levy an assessment upon all the property in said city subject to taxation by said city, which shall not exceed ((one-half mill for each dollar)) twelve and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value of property.

Sec. 120. Section 4, chapter 131, Laws of 1961 and RCW 85.32.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The board may: (1) Make initial determination that the district's facilities furnish benefit to improvements upon land as well as land alone within the district in protecting against and furnishing run-off for surface and/or flood waters; (2) Make initial determination that lands and improvements thereon outside of the territorial limits of the district are receiving a service from the facilities of the district, and are benefited thereby in that waters from such lands through ditches, drains, or other artificial methods, other than by natural flow or seepage, are so cast as to have outlet through the district's facilities; (3) Determine that properties so found to be served should pay a just proportion of the operational and maintenance costs of the district; (4) In connection with so finding, cause a roll of property thus served and benefited by the district's facilities to be prepared and filed with it, and give notice of a hearing thereon as provided in this chapter; (5) Hold public hearings to determine the ultimate facts and approve an ultimate roll of properties served and benefited by the facilities of the district and valuations thereof to serve as a basis against which annual ((millage)) dollar rate levy may be assessed for continuous benefits furnished such properties; make revision thereof as the facts warrant from time to time; provide for the levying of such ((millage)) dollar rate levy; and make return of such roll finally adopted by certifying and filing a copy thereof with the auditor, assessor and treasurer of the county wherein the properties involved are located.

Sec. 121. Section 5, chapter 131, Laws of 1961 and RCW 85.32.040 are each amended to read as follows:

In the initial instance, when the board of any district, desires to use the method and procedure provided in this chapter, and in order that uniformity may be had, it may cause a roll of all properties within the district claimed to be benefited by its drainage system, and in addition or as a part thereof, a roll of all properties outside of the territorial limits of said district claimed to be served and benefited by the drainage systems of said district, to be prepared and filed with it. Thereupon, the board shall by resolution declare:

(1) That it has made initial determination that the district's facilities are furnishing and will furnish service and benefit to the properties, including improvements thereon, described in such roll;

(2) That such roll has been filed with it and will remain so filed and open to inspection by any party interested therein at all reasonable times;

(3) That a public hearing will be held by the board at a time and place stated to give consideration to the facts and make ultimate determination of the same and to said roll;

(4) That when said roll is finally adopted, annual ((millage)) dollar rate levies will be made by the district against said properties based upon the valuation thereof as shown on said roll when ultimately adopted to raise money based on benefit and service for the continuous operation and maintenance of said district;

(5) That at the time of hearing, it will hear all objections filed and will review, adopt, modify, or revise said roll consistent with existing facts to the end that property receiving service and benefit from the facilities of the district shall pay justly and equitably therefor in proportion to benefit received and;

(6) That upon said hearing or adjournments thereof, the board will determine the ultimate facts concerning service and benefit received by all properties ultimately contained in said roll and as to such properties it will adopt the roll in final form and proceed as in this chapter provided.

Sec. 122. Section 6, chapter 131, Laws of 1961 and RCW 85.32.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The roll of properties referred to in this chapter shall contain (1) a description of all properties and improvements thereon, with the name of the owner or the reputed owner thereof and his address as shown on the tax rolls of the assessor or treasurer of the county wherein the property is located, and (2) the determined value of such land and improvements thereon as last assessed and equalized by the taxing agencies of such county. Such assessed and equalized values shall be deemed prima facie as a just, fair and correct base of value for consideration by the board in its determination ultimately of the just and correct base of value in each instance against which annual ((millage)) dollar rates shall be levied by the district for the operation of the district and the expansion and maintenance of its facilities.

If property outside of the territorial limits of the district are upon the roll as adopted ultimately, and the district has prior indebtedness existing, the board shall set up separate ((millage)) dollar rate levies for the retirement thereof until it is extinguished, which levies shall be applied solely against the properties within the territorial limits of the district. Adjustments of the roll shall be made before final adoption in such a manner that the money raised through annual ((millage)) dollar rate levies for maintenance, expansion and operational costs of the district in no instance shall exceed the value of the service rendered or to be rendered and the benefit received and to be received by the property involved.

Sec. 123. Section 7, chapter 131, Laws of 1961 and RCW 85.32.060 are each amended to read as follows:

When the board causes a property roll to be filed with it and a hearing to be held thereon as provided in this chapter, it shall give notice of such hearing in the following manner:

The notice shall be published at least three times in consecutive issues in a weekly newspaper, or once a week for three consecutive weeks in a daily newspaper, published in or near said district, and if there is more than one such paper, then in some paper chosen by the board having general circulation in the area involved. The last publication shall be more than fifteen days prior to date of hearing. The board also shall cause a copy of such notice to be mailed in regular course of the federal mail at least thirty days prior to the date of such hearing to the owner or reputed owner of such property at his address, all as shown on the tax rolls or records of the county taxing agencies of the county wherein the property is situated, such notice being deemed adequate and sufficient. The sworn affidavit of the one doing such mailing shall be deemed conclusive of the fact that such notice was mailed.

Such notice shall state the following:

(1) That the board has tentatively determined that the property of the owner or reputed owner named is receiving and will receive service and benefit from the facilities of the district;

(2) That the board has caused a tentative roll of such properties with any improvements thereon which are receiving and will receive such service and benefit to be filed with it; and that such roll shows a base of valuation thereon for said properties against which annual ((millage)) dollar rates will be levied and collected in the same manner as general taxes to pay the fair value of the benefit and service received and to be received by such property through use of the facilities of the district, and to pay the annual cost of operation, development and maintenance of the district and its facilities;

(3) That on a date, time and place stated, the board will give consideration to the facts and the roll, will hear all objections filed, will review said roll and alter, modify, or change the same consistent with facts established and with equity and fair dealing concerning the properties involved to the end that just levies will be made for service and benefits received and to be received against each property for the purposes mentioned; and at the hearing or continuance thereof, it will adopt the roll in final form and certify and file a copy thereof with the assessor and treasurer of the county wherein the property is located; and will cause annual millage to be levied against such established valuations for the purposes stated;

(4) That all persons desiring to object to the proceedings, to the proposed base valuations, or to any other thing or matter in connection with the proceedings, must file written objections with the board stating clearly the basis of such objection before the time of the hearing, or all objections will be deemed waived.

Sec. 124. Section 11, chapter 131, Laws of 1961 and RCW 85.32.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The board may at any time reexamine the properties on any roll, and upon request of an owner shall do so, and if it is found that the condition of such property or properties has changed so that justly such property should be eliminated from any rolls on file, or the base against which ((millage)) dollar rate is levied should be lowered, it shall so determine and make a supplemental roll with reference to such property or properties. When adopted by it, the board shall certify and file a copy thereof with the auditor, assessor and treasurer of the county wherein the property is situated, and such officer shall alter and change the existing rolls accordingly.

Sec. 125. Section 12, chapter 131, Laws of 1961 and RCW 85.32.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The roll certified to the county officers as in this chapter provided, and any modification thereof as provided, shall serve as the base of benefits as to land, buildings and improvements furnished service and benefit by the systems of the district against which valuations ((millage)) dollar rates shall be levied and collected in the same manner as general taxes from time to time for the continuing functioning of the district and its systems. The ((millage)) dollar rate shall be levied in the manner required by law for ((millage)) dollar rate levies by drainage districts.

Sec. 126. Section 13, chapter 131, Laws of 1961 and RCW 85.32.120 are each amended to read as follows:

If any property outside of the territorial limits of the district is placed upon a roll as finally adopted, and at the time such property becomes subject to charge for service and benefit from the district's system, there is an existing outstanding indebtedness owing by the district, the board shall make a separate estimate of the revenue required to be raised to pay or apply upon such indebtedness until it is extinguished, and it shall proceed and certify the same as hereinabove provided, and no ((millage)) dollar rate for raising revenue to extinguish such indebtedness shall be included in the levies made against any properties lying outside of the territorial limits of said district.

When thus levied, the amount of assessment produced thereby shall be added by the general taxing authorities to the general taxes against said lands and collected therewith as a part thereof. If unpaid, any delinquencies in such assessments shall bear interest at the same rate and in the same manner as general taxes and they shall be included in and be made a part of any general tax foreclosure proceedings according to the provisions of law with relation to such foreclosures. As assessment collections are made, the county treasurer shall credit same to the funds of such district.

Sec. 127. Section 22, chapter 131, Laws of 1961 and RCW 85.32.210 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((millage)) dollar rate levy returns collected from time to time under this chapter are solely assessments for benefits received continuously by the benefited properties, calculated in the manner specified in this chapter as a just and equitable way for all benefited property to share the expense of such required service.

Sec. 128. Section 4, chapter 154, Laws of 1967 and RCW 85.36.030 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of proportionately assessing the benefits of any project constructed, maintained, or operated by any diking district or drainage district, benefit assessments proportioned in a direct relationship to the assessed valuation as last equalized for general tax purposes of the lands benefited shall be deemed prima facie to be fair and correct valuations against which annual ((millage)) dollar rates shall be levied.

Sec. 129. Section 1, chapter 66, Laws of 1907 as amended by section 8, chapter 204, Laws of 1941 and RCW 86.12.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The county commissioners of any county may annually levy a tax, beginning with the year 1967, in such amount as, in their judgment they may deem necessary or advisable, but not to exceed ((one mill)) twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value upon all taxable property in such county, for the purpose of creating a fund to be known as 'river improvement fund.' There is hereby created in each such river improvement fund an account to be known as the 'flood control maintenance account.'

Sec. 130. Section 1, chapter 54, Laws of 1913 and RCW 86.13.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Wherever and whenever a river is or shall be the boundary line or part of the boundary line between two counties, or it, or its tributaries or outlet or part thereof, flows through parts of two counties, and the waters thereof have in the past been the cause of damage, by inundation or otherwise, to the roads, bridges or other public property situate in or to other public interests of both such counties, or the flow of such waters shall have alternated between the said counties so at one time or times such waters shall have caused damage to one county and at another time or times to the other county, and it shall be deemed by the boards of county commissioners of both counties to be for the public interests of their respective counties that the flow of such waters be definitely confined to a particular channel, situate in whole or in part in either county, in a manner calculated to prevent such alternation or to prevent or lessen damage in the future, it shall be lawful for the two counties, and their boards of county commissioners are hereby empowered, pursuant to resolution, to enter into a contract in writing in the names of the respective counties for the purpose of settling all disputes in relation to any such situation, and providing ways and means for the control and disposition of such waters. Any such contract may provide:

(1) That it shall be operative in perpetuity, or only for a term of years or other measure of time to be specified therein.

(2) The amount of money to be expended by each county during each year of the life of said contract, or such other method of determining the amount of expenditure or dividing the financial burden as may be agreed upon.

(3) That an annual tax shall be levied, at the same time and in the same manner as other county taxes are levied, each year during the life of the contract, by the county commissioners of each county. The annual tax herein provided for need not be levied at the same rate for each county, but shall be at such rate in each county as will produce annually the amount of money for each county as is required for the fulfillment of the contract on its part: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That in no event shall any such tax levy by either county exceed ((one mill on the dollar)) twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value for any one year.

(4) That the general scheme for the improvement of such river shall be as stated in such contract, but by consent of the contracting parties, pursuant to resolution of each board of county commissioners, such scheme may be modified from time to time during the life of the contract. The contract may but need not provide the details of such scheme, but must designate the general purpose to be accomplished. On motion of Mr. Randall the following amendment to the title amendment was adopted:

On page 123 of the amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2346, on line 2, after "RCW 84.54.020;" and before "amending" insert "amending section 20, chapter 288, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.55.010;"

The title amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2346 as amended by Representatives Bagnariol and Randall was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Conner, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2346 as amended by the House, was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Randall yielded to question by Mr. Douthwaite.

Mr. Douthwaite: "On page 8 of the amendment, it speaks to the fact that one hundred percent of the available revenues shall be available to the superintendent of public instruction, etc. Then there is some new language on page 8 which says notwithstanding this, 'not less than ninety-five percent of the amount, excluding special levies, which any such district realized from state and local funds during the immediately preceding school year.' Would you clarify--does that mean it is possible for the state then to support schools at only ninety-five percent of their present amount?"

Mr. Randall: "This in effect is a flooring wording. This says that any district that may be adversely affected by the equalization statute that we have now put into the allocation--in those few districts where they will be dropping down, the state will guarantee that there will be no less than ninety-five percent of the revenues that they would have otherwise received--in fact building in a flooring to protect them from a severe drop. I could show you some comparative runs to show where you have severe drops--one was Benge, I think, where the per pupil expenditure is just short of $3,000 per student. Under the new formula or new allocation system it would have dropped to about $1,300--a severe drop. I don't think any of us bleed for a district that is getting $3,000 per student, but this will hold them at ninety-five percent--costing the state a little more money in that respect. On the other hand, you should realize there are only six pupils in that district."

Representative Randall spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives Pardini, Haussler, Flanagan and Bluechel spoke against it.

Pension benefits payable under the provisions of this section shall be prorated on a monthly basis and paid at the end of each month.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Any member of the teachers' retirement system who decides to retire after the effective date of this act shall be entitled as a matter of contractual right to receive any new or increased benefits resulting from (a) the enactment of legislation creating a new retirement system or through a merger of the public employees' retirement system and the teachers' retirement system; or, (b) benefit liberalizations of the teachers' retirement system.

This section shall not be effective after June 30, 1974.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This 1973 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Mr. Smythe spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Bagnariol spoke against it.

Mr. Conner demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Kopet spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Smythe spoke again in favor of its adoption.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Smythe yielded to question by Mr. Morrison.

Mr. Morrison: "Representative Smythe, as I read new section 2, you are saying that any member of the teachers' retirement system who decides to retire after the effective date of this act, which could be anytime in the future, would receive under item (b) any benefit liberalizations which were ever made to the teachers' retirement system. Under the decisions made by the court which says once you offer something of this nature, as a contractual right it can never be withdrawn, are we not jeopardizing very seriously the legislature's right to improve this program without including anyone who is currently on the job?"

Mr. Smythe: "Would you state the last half of that again, please?"

Mr. Morrison: "Let me state it just a little differently. As we merge the systems, there is no question that we may want to modify the benefits program. However we may want to modify it for future retirees or persons at a future date. I am questioning now, under decisions we have from the court that when you say any member of the teachers' retirement system who decides to retire after the effective date of this act (we are making a promise) shall receive--always be eligible for any benefit liberalizations of the teachers' retirement system, are we not in fact getting ourselves into very deep and serious trouble with this provision?"

Mr. Smythe: "Well are you considering the closing line on that which says 'This section shall not be effective after June 30, 1974'?"

Mr. Morrison: "All right, thank you. That answers the question in a different manner than I expected. However I would point out that I see no way that we can guarantee a merger of this system, nor will we be in any better position on June 30, 1974, to grant the increases. Thank you for your answer, Representative Smythe."

Mr. Morrison spoke against adoption of the amendment by Representatives Smythe and Kopet.

The resolution was read the second time.

On motion of Mr. King, the committee amendment to page 1, line 13 was not adopted.

Mr. King moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 2, line 2.

Mr. King spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. King yielded to question by Mr. Polk.

Mr. Polk: "Representative King, from the language of this amendment, are you saying that the only item of business which the legislature would have before it would be the consideration of the bills vetoed after the general adjournment?"

Mr. King: "That is correct."

Mr. Polk: "So no other business could come before that body?"

Mr. King: "The only way business could come before the body at that time would be if the Governor should also call a special session to coincide with it. But if the legislature were to convene itself under this constitutional amendment, it could be only to consider vetoes. It says 'in order to reconsider any bills vetoed after the general adjournment'."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. King yielded to question by Mr. Julin.

Mr. Julin: "Could there be one of these special sessions for each bill vetoed?"

Mr. King: "I would think not. In reading the language, it says 'not to exceed five days duration, in order to reconsider any bills vetoed after the general adjournment.' I think you would read that to mean the five-day limit would apply for all the bills that have been vetoed."

The committee amendment to page 2, line 2 was adopted.

On motion of Mr. King, the committee amendment to page 2, line 8 was not adopted.

On motion of Mr. King, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 2, beginning on line 3 strike everything down to and including "he shall" on line 10 and insert "sections or items, he may object to one or more sections or items while approving other portions of the bill. In such case he shall"

MOTION

On motion of Mr. King, the House deferred further consideration of Senate Joint Resolution No. 103, and the resolution was placed at the bottom of today's second reading calendar.

Such resolution shall specify a purpose or purposes for the convening of a special session, and any special session convened by such resolution shall consider only measures germane to the purpose or purposes expressed therein, unless by resolution adopted during such session by a two-thirds vote of the members of each house an additional purpose or purposes be expressed. Providing for the sale of certain property held by the highway department.

Mr. Beck moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 5, adding a new section 7.

Mr. Beck spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Beck yielded to question by Mr. Douthwaite.

Mr. Douthwaite: "I questioned this amendment in the Transportation Committee as to whether or not we were allowing real estate dealers to sell all kinds of highway property; that is, property which had been used by the highway commission. However, I believe at that time I was persuaded that it was only those properties which could not be sold by the usual bidding procedure. Would you clarify this please, Representative Beck?"

Mr. Beck: "Well the whole purpose and intent of the bill is that all these little old pieces of property, when the highway department comes along and acquires right-of-way for a highway--when they finish the highway there is usually some little old piece of property that is there, and in most cases it is useless by itself. It is only good to the adjacent property owner. The present procedure in disposing of this property is to advertise it and sell it at an auction. This bill will permit it. If there is no one that comes and bids for the property at the auction, they may advertise the property for sale. A lot of times in advertising they will get someone to come and bid. They have to wait thirty days before they can accept it, and then if someone comes along and offers a higher price, then they have to sell that property to the highest bidder. What this permits us to do is give the highway department the option--they first have to advertise it at an auction--they first have to declare that it is unusable for the highway department. When they determine it is not necessary, then they advertise it for bids. If they get no bidders through an auction, then they advertise it for sale in the local papers through the regular legal process. If they get two or three bidders who want the property, then it allows them to negotiate for the highest bidder. Now we have put an amendment on there that says if there is any property in excess of $10,000 it cannot be handled this way. They can't sell it at an auction. This last amendment allows us to put it in the hands of a real estate broker. Some of the members of the committee thought that if some good fast realtor there thought he could take this property and sell it he would be able to get more money for it. This is a good bill. It's just a little housekeeping bill to help the highway department dispose of an awful lot of property. We've got some 50,000 pieces of property around the state that we can't get rid of."

Mr. Douthwaite: "I think I gathered the answer to the question is 'yes,' that this can only go to a licensed real estate dealer in the event it will not be sold through the other normal processes."

Mr. Beck: "It can only go after they go through all the other processes."

The committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Conner, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2378 as amended by the House was placed on final passage.

Mr. Beck spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

 AGLO 1973 No. 23

Dear Sir:

This is written in response to your recent letter requesting our opinion regarding the effect, if any, which legislative ratification of the equal rights amendment to the federal constitution will have on House Bill 267 dealing with cosmetologists.

Although your letter makes reference to the still pending proposal to amend the United States Constitution to prohibit governmental sex discrimination, we already have such a provision in our own state constitution. By their approval of HJR No. 61 at the November 7, 1972, general election, the people of this state adopted an amendment to the Washington constitution which became effective on December 7, 1972, and reads as follows:

"Equality of rights and responsibility under the law shall not be denied or abridged on account of sex."

Thus, insofar as any laws passed by our own state legislature are concerned, ratification of the proposed federal equal rights amendment will, for all practical purposes, add nothing that doesn't already exist, as a matter of constitutional law, in this state at the present time.

Having identified this point, we next turn to the provisions of House Bill No. 267. Basically, this is an amendatory bill designed to replace the previous statutory designations of beauty culture and related terms with the single term "cosmetology," and to permit cosmetologists to serve both men and women.

We find nothing in this bill which, if enacted, would be in contravention of either HJR No. 61, supra, or the federal equal rights amendment, if ratified. In fact, unless at least so much of this bill as would permit cosmetologists to serve both men and women is adopted, it could well be argued that the presently existing version of chapter 18.18 RCW, under which beauty culturists may only practice haircutting on female persons, would be unconstitutional under both our state and the proposed federal equal rights amendments.¹

We trust that the foregoing will be of some assistance to you.

Very truly yours,
FOR THE ATTORNEY GENERAL
/s/ PHILIP H. AUSTIN
Deputy Attorney General

(2) No election, other than a run-off election, shall be ordered to be conducted by the department in any school district within which a valid election has been held in the preceding twelve months: PROVIDED, That where a valid professional negotiations agreement is in force and effect, a petition for an election may only be filed not less than sixty nor more than ninety days prior to the expiration of the agreement or, in the event such an agreement provides for automatic renewal or extension, not less than sixty nor more than ninety days prior to the date of such automatic renewal or extension.

(3) The department shall certify to the affected employer and employee organization(s) the results of any election held pursuant to this section and shall immediately certify the employee organization which receives the votes of a majority of the certificated employees voting in the election as the exclusive bargaining representative of such employees.

Representatives Shinpoch and Kopet spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Shinpoch yielded to question by Ms. Maxie.

Ms. Maxie: "Representative Shinpoch, by virtue of the passage of this amendment, would it mean that we no longer need the passage of House Bill No. 241--that is, the provisions are entailed in this proviso?"

Mr. Shinpoch: "That is my understanding. It is also my understanding in the agreement we have with the state board for community colleges. They understand that they are to provide the waivers as requested, and that they have sufficient funds to fund them. In fact they think that $1.4 is considerably more--almost three times as much as they think is required to fund them."

The amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

On page 6, section 8, line 6 after "education" insert ": PROVIDED, That those community college districts conducting community involvement programs during the 1971-73 biennium shall continue to conduct such programs at least at the existing level of program operation"

The committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2740, as amended, was adopted.

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2740 as amended by the House was passed to Committee on Rules for third reading.

declines with the calculation based upon calendar year 1974 excess levies divided by the full-time equivalent enrollment as reported for October, 1973: PROVIDED FURTHER, That only local school districts which had voted excess levies for collection in calendar year 1974 shall be eligible for funds under this section."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Mr. Barden spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Bagnariol: "I challenge the scope and object of this amendment."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "In reply to your point of order, Mr. Bagnariol, on the scope and object of the amendment by Mr. Barden, it appears that your point of order is well taken. The question before us is in connection with the department of social and health services. It appears that the amendment offered by Mr. Barden pertains to funds appropriated to the state superintendent of public instruction. Your point is well taken. The amendment is declared out of order."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Barden: "Mr. Speaker, my point of parliamentary inquiry is that we can't have it both ways. Either we are working the budget today, and it just happens to be a coincidence or an unusual circumstance that it is in parts, in different bills, or it is not. The Chairman of the Ways and Means - Appropriations Committee said a little earlier on the floor that this is all one budget--that we are just working it in several pieces and it has no bearing on it--that it is the whole budget and we have to look at the whole picture. And what I am trying to do is to provide for the transfer of money within the general fund. If we were doing business this year, as we have done all the times past, we would be dealing with one bill. I would ask you to please examine your point of order. We can't let these rules and regulations preclude us from doing the things that we are trying to do here."

Mr. Barden moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2800:

On page 1, section 2, line 21 of the amendment, after "funds" insert ": PROVIDED, That $50,077,020 in state general fund dollars of this appropriation shall be made available to the Superintendent of Public Instruction through interagency transfer for the exclusive purpose of providing special levy relief and shall be distributed on the basis of the following methodology: PROVIDED, That no school district which will receive $35.00 of state support per enrolled pupil or less for 1973-74 will receive a portion of this special levy relief distribution until those districts ranked in order by the number of special levy mills levied for collection in 1974 receive a dollar support per enrolled pupil of $220.00 for the purpose of special levy relief: PROVIDED FURTHER, That those districts receiving a portion of this special levy relief distribution must reduce their levies by the same dollar amount."

Mr. Barden spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Bagnariol spoke against it.

Mr. Barden spoke again in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Shinpoch spoke against it.

The amendment by Mr. Barden to the committee amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Leckenby moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Leckenby and Morrison to the committee amendment:

On page 4, section 2, line 25 after "program.....$" strike "29,994,492" and insert "30,780,713"

Representatives Leckenby and Kopet spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Bagnariol spoke against it.

Mr. Pardini demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Shinpoch spoke against adoption of the amendment, and Mr. Pardini spoke in favor of its adoption.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Shinpoch: "Mr. Speaker, I did not open up the whole budget. I opened up the area of juvenile delinquency only. Mr. Pardini is speaking to the whole budget, and he is speaking to other matters that are going to come over."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Try to hold your remarks to the issue at hand, Mr. Pardini."

Mr. Pardini concluded his remarks in favor of the amendment.

The Speaker resumed the Chair.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment by Representatives Leckenby and Morrison to the committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2800, and the amendment was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 39; nays, 56; not voting, 3.

Yoting yea: Representatives Amen, Benitz, Berentson, Blair, Bluechel, Brown, Charnley, Cunningham, Curtis, Eikenberry, Flanagan, Freeman, Garrett, Gilleland, Hansey, Hayner, Hendricks, Hoggins, Jueling, Kopet, Kraabel, Kuehnle, Leckenby, Matthews, Morrison, Nelson, Newhouse, North L., Pardini, Paris, Polk, Pullen, Rabel, Schumaker, Smythe, Swayze, Tilly, Wilson, Zimmerman.

Voting nay: Representatives Adams, Anderson, Bagnariol, Barden, Bauer, Bausch, Beck, Bender, Ceccarelli, Charette, Chatalas, Clemente, Conner, Douthwaite, Ehlers, Ellis, Eng, Erickson, Fortson, Gaines, Gallagher, Gaspard, Goltz, Hansen, Haussler, Hurley, Jastad, Johnson, Kalich, Kelley, Kilbury, King, Knowles, Laughlin, Luders, Lysen, Martinis, Maxie, May, McCormick, North F., O'Brien, Parker, Perry, Randall, Savage, Shinpoch, Smith, Sommers, Thompson, Valle, Van Dyk, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, and Mr. Speaker.

Not voting: Representatives Julin, Moon, Patterson.

The Clerk read the following amendment by Representative Leckenby to the committee amendment:

On page 10, section 3, line 4 after "of" and before "man-years" strike "26,320" and insert "26,380"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Schumaker: "I have an amendment on the desk to page 2, section 2. Shouldn't this come ahead of that one?"

The Speaker: "Representative Schumaker, just for the convenience of the members, there happened to be three amendments on the same page so we took them in order so it would be a little easier to follow, but we will revert back and take yours."

With the consent of the House, Mr. Leckenby withdrew his amendment.

Mr. Schumaker moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Schumaker, Haussler, Zimmerman and Smythe to the committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2800:

On page 2, section 2, line 9 after the colon insert "PROVIDED, That $1,305,000 shall be expended for the maintenance of the program, staff and delivery of service at the Spruce Canyon Youth Camp:"

Representatives Schumaker and Haussler spoke in favor of the amendment.

The Speaker called on Mr. O'Brien to preside.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Pardini: "Mr. Speaker, I wonder if it would be possible, with the permission of the House, to get electric roll calls on these as they come along to save some time to expedite it--a motion similar to the one that Mr. Bagnariol made the other night?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "The Speaker is a little bit hesitant to recognize the proposal to suspend the rules on all of these. Some of the amendments are not controversial. If you will stand up on those amendments on which you desire an electric roll call, we will try to expedite it."

Mr. Pardini demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

Representatives Zimmerman and Randall spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Shinpoch spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Schumaker yielded to question by Mr. Smythe.

Mr. Smythe: "Representative Schumaker, have you talked to the department of natural resources regarding the closure of this camp recently, and what was their comment regarding the use of the camp?"

Mr. Schumaker: "Yes, I have talked to them, and their main objection to the closure is the additional cost which I mentioned in my first remarks--the additional cost which would have to go into their budget for fire fighting replacement."

Mr. Smythe spoke in favor of the amendment.

Mr. Schumaker closed debate, speaking again in favor of adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Thompson demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment by Representatives Schumaker, Haussler, Zimmerman and Smythe to the committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 280C, and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 54; nays, 39; not voting, 5.

Voting yea: Representatives Amen, Anderson, Bauer, Beck, Benitz, Berentson, Bluechel, Brown, Ceccarelli, Charnley, Clemente, Cunningham, Curtis, Eikenberry, Ellis, Flanagan, Freeman, Gaines, Gallagher, Garrett, Gilleland, Hansen, Hansey, Haussler, Hayner, Hendricks, Hoggins, Hurley, Jueling, Kopet, Kraabel, Kuehnle, Laughlin, Leckenby, Matthews, May, Morrison, Nelson, Newhouse, North F., North L., Pardini, Paris, Patterson, Polk, Pullen, Rabel, Randall, Schumaker, Smythe, Swayze, Tilly, Wilson, Zimmerman.

Voting nay: Representatives Adams, Bagnariol, Barden, Bausch, Bender, Charette, Chatalas, Conner, Douthwaite, Ehlers, Eng, Erickson, Fortson, Gaspard, Goltz, Jastad, Johnson, Kalich, Kilbury, King, Knowles, Luders, Lysen, Martinis, McCormick, O'Brien, Parker, Perry, Savage, Shinpoch, Smith, Sommers, Thompson, Valle, Van Dyk, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, and Mr. Speaker.

Not voting: Representatives Blair, Julin, Kelley, Maxie, Moon.

On motion of Mr. Kopet, the following amendment by Representatives Kopet and Shinpoch to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 2, section 2, line 20 after "session" strike "by July 1, 1973" and insert "by September 15, 1973"

Mr. Lysen moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 3, line 1 after "law" and before ": PROVIDED," insert ": PROVIDED, That all disputes arising between the state and the United States Department of Health, Education, and Welfare involving the state's claim to federal reimbursement of state expenditures as provided by the applicable provisions of Titles I, IV, X, XIV, XVI and XIX of the Social Security Act which would have the effect of reducing or increasing any appropriation or any part thereof shall be negotiated and settled only with the consent of a majority of the members of the House Ways and Means Committee and the Senate Ways and Means Committee"

Mr. Lysen spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Swayze: "Mr. Speaker, I would like to challenge the scope and object of this particular amendment on the same grounds that Mr. Barden's amendment was ruled out of order before. It goes far beyond the appropriations measure which is before us. It gets entirely into the area of federal and state relations and the decision-making process of the federal government."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Mr. Swayze, the Speaker doesn't quite agree with your point of order. The department of social and health services depends to a great degree on federal funds--the matching of various programs. This amendment primarily is in the area of disputes that might arise on the allocation or the reimbursement or the type of funds that might be allocated from the federal government. If there are any disputes in this area, they want them negotiated and settled with the consent of the majority of the members of the House Ways and Means Committee and the Senate Ways and Means Committee. If there is any inconsistency or incompatibility, it is up to the House to determine it. I don't think it is beyond the scope and object. I think it falls within that, although there might be a question of consistency."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Pardini: "To raise a further point of order, Mr. Speaker, my point of order is the question as to whether this body can delegate to the House Ways and Means Committee the settlement of disputes involving funds which would probably also involve appropriations."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Mr. Pardini, Reed's Rule No. 161, dealing with incompatibility or inconsistency of amendments and questions of constitutionality, states that it is not for the presiding officer to decide such questions that are matters of argument. It is up to the body to determine its reaction and its acceptance or rejection of amendments of this nature."

Mr. Lysen concluded his remarks in favor of the amendment.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Hoggins: "It would appear that we are amending the Joint Rules of the House and the Senate. I am wondering if this would require a two-thirds majority to amend these Joint Rules."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Mr. Hoggins, I don't think it has anything to do with the Joint Rules. It just requires the consent of a majority of the members of the House Ways and Means Committee and the Senate Ways and Means Committee. It is just a stipulation in this amendment and I don't think it has anything to do with our Joint Rules."

Mr. Hoggins: "Mr. Speaker, the Joint Rules that were passed relating to our continuing sessions make no provision for these matters in the committees. I would suggest that referral of matters such as this, which will not include pending bills, or matters assigned to them, would be an amendment to our rules that we have already adopted with some pain."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "I stated, Mr. Hoggins, previously that Reed's Rule No. 161 goes into this question of the constitutionality or whether it is in order or incompatible or inconsistent. It further states it is up to the body to determine whether or not they want to adopt or reject such a proposal."

Mr. Moon spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment to the committee amendment, and Mr. Kopet spoke against it.

Representatives Lysen and Moon spoke again in favor of the amendment, and Representative Swayze spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Lysen yielded to question by Mr. Ehlers.

Mr. Ehlers: "Mr. Lysen, I am a little confused what these negotiations are all about. Would you explain it to me and the body?"

Mr. Lysen: "As I understand it, the federal government comes in under the social security act and has the right to audit reimbursable funds expended under the social security act. What has happened is the audits are going on, and in the case of the $32.8 million--they have said they are going to disallow it or most of it or all of it. Then the executive and Mr. Kelly, Region 10 HEW executive, go behind closed doors and argue it out--how much money are we going to get and on what basis. There has been no challenge to this. We have a legal right to these funds and a legal constitutional responsibility over the appropriated funds of this legislature. Mr. Moon is totally right. If no suit is brought and if it is not made a question of legal right--this is a state's rights issue--and if the executive does not choose to challenge it, the legislature is never involved in it. The funds are just slipped away and we are just out. In the case here it looks like about $62 million."

Mr. Thompson demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Swayze demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment by Mr. Lysen to the committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2800, and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 56; nays, 39; not voting, 3.

Voting yea: Representatives Adams, Anderson, Bagnariol, Bauer, Bausch, Beck, Bender, Ceccarelli, Charette, Charnley, Chatalas, Clemente, Conner, Douthwaite, Ehlers, Ellis, Eng, Erickson, Fortson, Gaines, Gallagher, Gaspard, Goltz, Hansen, Haussler, Hurley, Jastad, Johnson, Kalich, Kilbury, King, Knowles, Laughlin, Luders, Martinis, Maxie, May, McCormick, Moon, North P., O'Brien, Pardini, Parker, Perry, Randall, Savage, Shinpoch, Smith, Sommers, Thompson, Valle, Van Dyk, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, and Mr. Speaker.

Voting nay: Representatives Amen, Barden, Berentson, Blair, Bluechel, Brown, Cunningham, Curtis, Eikenberry, Flanagan, Freeman, Garrett, Gilleland, Hansey, Hayner, Hendricks, Hoggins, Juelling, Kopet, Kraabel, Kuehnle, Leckenby, Lysen, Matthews, Morrison, Nelson, Newhouse, North L., Paris, Patterson, Polk, Pullen, Rabel, Schumaker, Smythe, Swayze, Tilly, Wilson, Zimmerman.

Not voting: Representatives Benitz, Julin, Kelley.

"State General Fund Appropriation:

For day care services for former and potential
AFDC recipients.....$4,067,000"

Mr. King spoke in favor of adoption of the amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. King yielded to question by Mrs. North (Lois).

Mrs. North (Lois): "Representative King, the thrust of your amendment is a very worthy one, but I am concerned about the effect of it on the rest of the allocation for the other child care agencies within this community services division. This is the first time that this legislature has expressed a clear policy of contributing part of the cost for administration, maintenance and operation of our voluntary nonprofit child care agencies. We have a long history of paying the complete cost to the profit-making agencies, and this is quite a change for us to make, and I want to be very sure: Will your amendment in any way detract from the funds that we have given in the past to these various child care agencies?"

Mr. King: "It is my understanding that it will not, and it certainly was not the intent of the amendment to in any way affect those other funds. They are in the budget in the blue sheet we discussed. This is the same thing that is in those sheets. It should not result in a subtraction from available funds for other areas at all."

Mrs. North (Lois) spoke in favor of adoption of the amendments.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. King yielded to question by Mr. Pardini.

Mr. Pardini: "Mr. King, it looks to me like the effect of this amendment, while there is no change in dollars, is to earmark specifically within the $106 million previously earmarked for community social service programs--give a specific earmark for $4,067,000 for day care centers. Are there any other programs besides day care centers that may be cut because of the necessity of earmarking these funds for that care, and if so, which ones?"

Mr. King: "It is my understanding that the intent of both the Ways and Means Committee in discussions with the department of social and health services is that they would follow out the intent laid in the blue sheet as explained to us for all programs. The reason I selected this one was that it particularly dealt with replacement of funds at the state level that had been taken away by the federal government, whereas the others, under my understanding, did not."

MOTION

Mr. Curtis moved that the question be divided.

Mr. Curtis spoke in favor of the motion and Mr. Bagnariol spoke against it.

The motion by Mr. Curtis was lost.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be the amendments by Representatives King and Charnley to the committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2800.

The amendments were adopted.

Mr. Curtis moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Curtis and Tilly to the committee amendment:

On page 8, section 2, line 11 after "law" insert
": PROVIDED, FURTHER, That $786,064 in state funds, or so much thereof as shall be necessary, shall be employed exclusively for the purpose of providing for sixty man-years and related costs to continue the delinquency prevention program: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the department may implement at its discretion a sliding scale of charges in accordance with existing statutes and regulations . . ."

Representatives Curtis and Shinpoch spoke in favor of the amendment.

The amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

Mr. Ehlers moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2800:

On page 5, section 2, line 6 beginning with the colon on line 6 strike the remainder of the language down to and including "1973" on line 17

Representatives Ehlers and Smith spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Kopet and Bagnariol spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Shinpoch yielded to question by Mr. Warnke.

Mr. Warnke: "Representative Shinpoch, the proviso for the study, page 5, beginning on line 6 through 17, and the figure $6,431,756, I assume includes the total veterans service program. I would like to know if you know how much the study is of that figure of $6,431,756."

Mr. Shinpoch: "Representative Warnke, I would not expect any of that $6,431,756 to be used in the study. There is a category in the social and health services budget which deals with (let me find the exact name of it) Administration and Supporting Services Program. I would expect that the cost of doing the study would come out of that money."

The amendment by Mr. Ehlers to the committee amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Paris moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Paris, Zimmerman, Bluechel and Brown to the committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2800:

On page 5, section 2, line 5 after "biennium.....$" strike "70,118,192" and insert "70,734,211"

Representatives Paris and Zimmerman spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Thompson demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Shinpoch spoke against adoption of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Shinpoch yielded to question by Mr. Zimmerman.

Mr. Zimmerman: "In regard to this particular point, you do feel that there is funding in there to cover this particular seventy-five that you speak of? I'm assuming you are saying take it out of the budget, find the workers, but no additional money. In other words, our concern is that the money is not there, although the mandate to do this is in there. Now in other words--the dollars are what we are concerned about. You feel there is the actual money in there?"

Mr. Shinpoch: "To answer your question succinctly--yes."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Shinpoch yielded to question by Mr. Paris.

Mr. Paris: "I did not serve on the Appropriations Committee or Ways and Means, and I know, Representative Shinpoch, that you do have a real interest in this area, and I am sure you would not want to see this particular area of the budget not treated adequately. However, the information that I have received from the department is that you have agreed that there is a need for these workers, but that the department has been told that they must cut elsewhere to fund the workers that are needed for this project. That is the information that I have received for it. Perhaps either you or Representative Kopet could answer. Is the department in error?"

Mr. Shinpoch: "Representative Paris, I am very sincere in my understanding. My understanding is that when we put the proviso in for the seventy-five man-years, that we also added some money back in. I am not saying that I can't be wrong, but I am telling you what my understanding is."

Mr. Paris spoke again in favor of the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment by Representatives Paris, Zimmerman, Bluechel and Brown to the committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2800, and the amendment was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 52; not voting, 4.

Voting yea: Representatives Amen, Benitz, Berentson, Blair, Bluechel, Brown, Clemente, Cunningham, Curtis, Ehlers, Eikenberry, Ellis, Flanagan, Freeman, Garrett, Gilleland, Hansey, Hayner, Hendricks, Hoggins, Kalich, Kopet, Kraabel, Kuehnle, Leckenby, Matthews, Morrison, Newhouse, North L., Pardini, Paris, Patterson, Polk, Pullen, Rabel, Schumaker, Smythe, Swayze, Tilly, Warnke, Wilson, Zimmerman.

Voting nay: Representatives Adams, Anderson, Bagnariol, Barden, Bauer, Bausch, Beck, Bender, Ceccarelli, Charette, Charnley, Chatalas, Conner, Douthwaite, Eng, Erickson, Fortson, Gaines, Gallagher, Gaspard, Goltz, Hansen, Haussler, Hurley, Jastad, Johnson, Jueling, Kelley, Kilbury, King, Knowles, Laughlin, Luders, Lysen, Martinis, Maxie, May, McCormick, Moon, North F., O'Brien, Parker, Perry, Savage, Shinpoch, Smith, Sommers, Thompson, Valle, Van Dyk, Williams, Wojahn.

Not voting: Representatives Julin, Nelson, Randall, and Mr. Speaker.

Ms. Sommers moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Sommers and North (Lois) to the committee amendment:

On page 8, after line 22 add:

": PROVIDED, That notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 18.51.090, the department shall make a yearly inspection and investigation of all nursing homes; every inspection shall include an inspection of every part of the premises and an examination of all records including financial records, methods of administration, the general and special dietary, the dispersal of drugs, and the stores and methods of supply. The results of such inspection shall be made available to the House and Senate Ways and Means Committee and to the Legislative Budget Committee."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Swayze: "I challenge the scope and object of this particular amendment. It has to do with yearly inspection of nursing homes, including dietary, dispersal of drugs, stores and methods of supply, etc., which have nothing to do with the particular matter of appropriations."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "It appears to the Speaker, Mr. Swayze, that the amendment is in order--that it also refers to the examination of all records, including financial records, which certainly ties into the matter of the appropriations. 'The results of such inspection shall be made available to the House and Senate Ways and Means Committee and to the Legislative Budget Committee.' Therefore, it appears that this amendment does tie into the appropriations as set forth on page 8, line 22. The amendment is in order."

Ms. Sommers spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Matthews and Chatalas spoke against it.

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Sommers: "I wish to challenge Mr. Chatalas' remarks. I think they are somewhat out of order."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Mr. Chatalas, would you go easy on the ladies."

Mr. Chatalas concluded his remarks in opposition to the amendment.

Representatives Kraabel and Rabel spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representative Curtis spoke against it.

Mr. Williams demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

Representatives Charnley, Valle and North (Lois) spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment to the amendment, and Representative Swayze spoke against it.

Mr. Thompson demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

Ms. Sommers closed debate, speaking again in favor of the amendment to the committee amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment by Representatives Sommers and North (Lois) to the committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2800, and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 48; nays, 44; not voting, 6.

Voting nay: Representatives Amen, Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Ceccarelli, Charette, Chatalas, Conner, Cunningham, Curtis, Erickson, Flanagan, Freeman, Gaines, Garrett, Gilleland, Hansey, Hayner, Hendricks, Hurley, Jastad, Juelling, Kopet, Kuehnle, Laughlin, Leckenby, Matthews, McCormick, Morrison, Newhouse, Pardini, Paris, Parker, Polk, Pullen, Randall, Schumaker, Smythe, Swayze, Thompson, Tilly, Warnke, Wilson, Zimmerman.

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 5, following section 6 insert six new sections as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.57 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any school district, other than school districts of the first class having an enrollment of seventy thousand pupils or more in class AA counties, having an enrollment of one thousand pupils or more for any past three consecutive years shall then be divided into five director districts: PROVIDED, That a number of registered voters residing in the school district equal to five percent of those voters who voted in the last general election shall have presented a petition to the school board requesting that such director districts be formed. The boundaries of such director districts shall be established by the members of the school board and approved by the county committee on school district organization, such boundaries to be established so that each such district shall comprise, as nearly as practicable, an equal portion of the population of the school district. Boundaries of such director districts shall be adjusted by the school board and approved by the county committee after each federal decennial census if population change shows the need thereof to comply with the equal population requirement above. No person shall be eligible for the position of school director in any such director district unless such person resides in the particular director district. Residents in the particular director district desiring to be a candidate for school director shall file their declarations of candidacy for such director district and for the position of director in that district and shall be voted upon in the primary election by the registered voters of that particular director district: PROVIDED, That if not more than one person files a declaration of candidacy for the position of school director in any director district, no primary election shall be held in that district, and such candidate's name alone shall appear on the ballot for the director district position at the general election. The name of the person who receives the greatest number of votes and the name of the person who receives the next greatest number of votes at the primary for each director district position shall appear on the general election ballot under such position and shall be voted upon by all the registered voters in the school district. Except as provided in section 8 of this 1973 amendatory act, every such director so elected in school districts divided into five director districts shall serve for a term of four years.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.57 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Whenever such school district is divided into directors' districts, the incumbent directors thereof shall continue to serve for the terms for which they were elected, and if two or more such directors reside in the same director district, the school board of directors shall determine which one of the directors shall be assigned to that director district and which director(s) shall be assigned to a director district(s) without a resident director. Directors assigned to director districts in which they are not residents shall serve until their current terms expire, at which time successors thereof shall be elected as otherwise provided in section 7 of this 1973 amendatory act, who, upon being so elected and qualified, shall serve four year terms.

Sec. 9. Section 2, chapter 10, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 29.21.180 are each amended to read as follows:

On page 6, beginning on line 9 insert a new section as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The state highway commission is hereby authorized to undertake the following study in cooperation with the interested local jurisdictions and to report its findings and recommendations in connection therewith to the legislative transportation committee or to the standing committees of the legislature on transportation and utilities by August, 1974:

(1) The highway commission shall conduct a study of the most feasible method to allow the general public, through the state, to regain and share a portion of the private economic benefits which are conferred on adjacent property owners by the expenditures of public moneys for the construction and improvement of public transportation facilities including highways, roads, and streets and to expedite the construction of such transportation improvements. The following proposals shall be considered and included in the findings and recommendations:

(a) That the ad valorem taxes levied by the state or by any taxing district be segregated so that the taxes levied against any increase in the true and fair value of real property, which increase is attributable to the construction or planned construction of a public transportation facility, shall be used to reimburse prior public expenditures or to pay any indebtedness incurred for that project.

(b) That subsequent to the first official public announcement that a public transportation facility is to be developed, an excise tax be levied upon all real estate transactions involving properties lying within a specified distance of any point of access to such transportation facility. A fixed percentage of the increased valuation of such a land parcel being transferred within a specified period of time following such announcement shall be paid to the public transportation agency. In the event no real estate transaction has occurred within that specified period of time, other methods of recouping a reasonable part of the unrealized gains shall be developed.

(c) That a local improvement district be formed to assist in the financing of the development of a proposed public transportation facility within a specified distance of the access points of such facility. Varying rates could be applied as the distance from the access points increases.

(d) That a public transportation agency be allowed, within appropriate limitations and safeguards, to acquire rights of way beyond the limits of the proposed transportation facility itself in anticipation of a later resale of such properties to aid in the financing of the transportation facility.

(e) That upon the first public announcement of a proposed public transportation facility, the fair market value of all lands, or parts thereof, within a specified distance of the proposed facility, shall be discounted for any subsequent increases in value attributable to the transportation improvement when the necessary rights of way are acquired.

(2) Based on the findings and recommendations of the results of the study outlined under subsection (1) of this section the department of highways, in cooperation with the interested local jurisdictions, shall study methods by which the design, acquisition of rights of way, and construction of an interchange at state route number 5 and state route number 525 from the Swamp Creek interchange at state route number 5 to 164th Street, southwest, in south Snohomish county can be financed.

(3) There is hereby appropriated from the motor vehicle fund to the Washington state highway commission the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary to conduct the studies outlined under subsections (1) and (2) of this section: PROVIDED, That the study under subsection (2) of this section shall be undertaken only if the interested local jurisdictions agree to pay fifty percent of the cost thereof, up to a maximum amount not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars."

MOTIONS

Mrs. Valle moved that the House do concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 993.

Mrs. Valle spoke in favor of the motion.

Mr. Newhouse moved that the question be divided, and that the third and fourth Senate amendments be considered separately from the first, second, and fifth amendments.

The motion was lost.

Representatives Kuehnle and Newhouse spoke against the motion to concur in the Senate amendments.

Mr. Kuehnle spoke again in opposition to the motion.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Kuehnle: "May I make a point of parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "State your point of parliamentary inquiry."

Mr. Kuehnle: "May I, at this time, move again for the division of the question?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "The division of the question has already been decided."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Swayze: "Rule 60 provides: 'Any member may call for a division of a question, which shall be divided if it embraces subjects so distinct that one being taken away a substantive proposition shall remain for the decision of the house.' I think that is consistent with Reed's Rules, when a member asks for a division of a question, if they are distinct amendments, I don't think it is necessary under our rules to put it to a debate of the House. I think a member has the right to ask for a division."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "I could probably tell you how to do it, but you are still on the wrong rule. Reed's Rules 151 and 152 state rather clearly that a division cannot be demanded as a right by any member. 'It must be made pursuant to a motion stating precisely the division asked for, which motion can be amended.' Your point of order citing Rule 60 doesn't pertain to this question. The motion was made that the House concur with the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 993, and subsequently a motion was made to divide the question, which motion was defeated. I think all these motions have been in order. You are raising a further point that is still not on it."

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Barden, having voted on the prevailing side, moved that the House do now reconsider the vote by which the motion by Mr. Newhouse to divide the question was defeated.

SPEAKER'S INQUIRY

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Did you vote on the prevailing side?"

Mr. Barden: "Yes."

Mr. Barden spoke in favor of the motion to reconsider the motion by Mr. Newhouse.

The motion was carried on a rising vote.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be the motion by Mr. Newhouse that the question be divided, and that the third and fourth Senate amendments be considered separately from the first, second and fifth amendments.

The motion was carried.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be the motion by Mr. Newhouse that the House concur in the first, second and fifth Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 993.

Mr. Kuehnle spoke in favor of the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Charnley: "Mr. Speaker, I would suggest that the last amendment should not be considered until after we have considered the third and fourth amendments. If those are not accepted, then we should not renumber the sections."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Your point appears to be well taken."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Swayze: "The same reasoning applies with the first amendment which is the title amendment, because if we don't concur in the fourth amendment, which sets the effective date, then the concurrence in the title amendment would not be proper."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated that the motion to concur in the first, second and fifth Senate amendments was withdrawn.

MOTION

Mrs. Valle moved that the House do concur in the Senate amendment to page 2, adding a new section 7.

Mrs. Valle spoke in favor of the motion.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Swayze: "What is the motion before the body?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "The motion is to concur with the third Senate amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 993."

Representative Swayze spoke against the motion, and Representatives Moon, Kilbury and Valle spoke in favor of it.

The motion was carried on a rising vote.

MOTION

Mrs. Valle moved that the House do concur in the Senate amendment to page 3, adding a new section 11 to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 993.

Representative Valle spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Kuehnle and Moon spoke against it.

Mr. Newhouse demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Curtis spoke against the motion to concur in the Senate amendment.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mrs. Valle: "Is it possible for me to amend this amendment?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "No, it isn't possible for you to amend it. It is a Senate amendment. That can only be done in free conference."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mrs. Hurley: "If section 11 is not adopted, and the section that was just adopted is adopted, and section 7 relates to section 11, then it is going to have to go to conference in order to clear that up. Is that true?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Well, we will see what happens."

Representatives Blair and Wojahn spoke against the motion to concur.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion by Mrs. Valle that the House concur in the Senate amendment adding a new section 11 to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 993, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 12; nays, 82; not voting, 4.

Voting yea: Representatives Bender, Clemente, Conner, Fortson, Johnson, Kilbury, King, Knowles, Lysen, Maxie, Savage, Valle.

The motion was carried.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2328, by Committee on Transportation and Utilities (Originally sponsored by Senators Walgren, Guess and Henry):

Adopting the highway budget.

Committee on Transportation and Utilities recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendments, see yesterday's Journal, April 11, 1973.)

The bill was read the second time.

On motion of Mr. Perry, the committee amendment to page 2, line 4 was adopted.

Mr. Perry moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 2, beginning on line 30.

Representatives Perry and Kraabel spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Perry spoke again in favor of the amendment, and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Perry, the five committee amendments to page 2, line 33, and the committee amendments to page 3, line 10; page 4, line 10; page 5, lines 3, 4, and 11; and page 5, line 16 were adopted.

Mr. Perry moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 5, line 23.

Mr. Berentson moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

Substitute the following for the committee amendment to page 5, line 23:

On page 5, section 3, line 23 after "purposes:" insert " : PROVIDED FURTHER, That there is hereby appropriated from the motor vehicle fund to the toll bridge authority the sum of ninety thousand dollars for the purchase of the assets of Olympic Ferries, Inc., such assets to include all ramps, docks, piers, loading and unloading facilities and real property or real property interests used therewith and further to include the motor vessel San Diego and further to include the certificate of convenience and necessity for ferry service between Port Townsend and Keystone and further to include any other assets but not to include a warehouse or storage facility located in the vicinity of Port Townsend: PROVIDED, FURTHER, In the event of acquisition of the assets of Olympic Ferries, Inc., including the certificate of convenience and necessity by the Toll Bridge Authority, the Authority shall operate the ferry route but only between the period of April 15 and October 15 of each year"

Representatives Berentson and Amen spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Conner and Charnley spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Berentson yielded to question by Mr. Leckenby.

Mr. Leckenby: "If this amendment is adopted, along with the other one, would the purchase take place immediately, or would it take place after the season of this year, in other words after October 15?"

Mr. Berentson: "Well, it was in the judgment of the director of highways that this would allow them to purchase immediately. He seemed to think that with the language of the committee amendment that there was every reason to believe that the Olympic Ferries, Inc., would opt to hold onto the business until after the rush season or into September, and thereby pick up the profits, which is a profitable operation for that period of time, I understand. Again, I would just like to state that I don't think this amendment to the amendment injures the intent in any way, and I preferably would like to think that we should go back and count on the research of our own highway department rather than a chamber of commerce somewhere. I feel very strongly that in the proviso also, where we are naming the dates April 15 to October 15, that is the only time the ferry is operating now, and I'm sure as ferry traffic increases that they would probably expand the service anyway. But involved in this, and in final answer to your question, is the necessity for them of relinquishing their franchise, or what we call a certificate of convenience and necessity. And with that language of 'prior to September 1,' they could choose not to do it until that time. This will give us, in the opinion of the director of highways, that protection and I think a lot better deal for the state of Washington, which is really buying out a very poor business risk right now."

Mr. Leckenby: "Does the language where you state, 'including the certificate of convenience and necessity' mean the toll bridge authority would make the purchase immediately? There is nothing here to say when the purchase would be made. It seems to me that this should be pinned down."

Mr. Berentson: "Well, they are instructed to make the purchase. And as I was advised, this language would allow them to make the purchase immediately rather than running through September of the busy year. If you question the language, that is one thing. I have been informed that this is the language that, in the opinion of the department of highways and their counsel, would accomplish that purpose."

Mr. Leckenby spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Conner yielded to question by Mr. Douthwaite.

Mr. Douthwaite: "I am concerned about the proviso on the end of Representative Berentson's amendment. I think it makes some sense, but I think that the people here should be informed. In my understanding, the frequency of service can be cut back during the winter months as the traffic is reduced. Is that correct?"

Mr. Conner: "Representative Douthwaite, that is correct. The toll bridge authority presently has the authority, relative to the other state route, relative to the amount of travel, whenever there are peak periods, or during the year, we have different times. And it is not the intent of the community nor myself at the present time for year-round travel service. But it is the concern of the community that they be assured that there be service there. Representative Leckenby said the owners might sink the boat. This is one of the concerns we have now--that there is no liability. That boat is incorporated. If you had a tragedy, and that boat sank, there would be nothing to attach. And so anybody who travels across that route is really risking himself."

Mr. Kraabel spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment to the committee amendment, and Mr. Savage spoke in opposition to it.

Mr. Charette demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Berentson closed debate, speaking again in favor of the amendment to the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment by Mr. Berentson to the committee amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 2328, and the amendment to the amendment was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 57; not voting, 3.

Voting yea: Representatives Amen, Barden, Benitz, Berentson, Blair, Bluechel, Brown, Cunningham, Curtis, Flanagan, Freeman, Garrett, Gilleland, Goltz, Hansen, Hansey, Hayner, Hendricks, Hoggins, Kopet, Kraabel, Matthews, Morrison, Nelson, Newhouse, North L., Pardini, Paris, Patterson, Polk, Pullen, Rabel, Schumaker, Smythe, Swayze, Tilly, Wilson, Zimmerman.

Voting nay: Representatives Adams, Anderson, Bagnariol, Bauer, Beck, Bender, Ceccarelli, Charette, Charnley, Chatalas, Clemente, Conner, Douthwaite, Ehlers, Eikenberry, Ellis, Eng, Erickson, Fortson, Gaines, Gallagher, Gaspard, Haussler, Hurley, Jastad, Johnson, Jueling, Kalich, Kelley, Kilbury, King, Knowles, Laughlin, Leckenby, Luders, Lysen, Martinis, Maxie, May, McCormick, Moon, North F., O'Brien, Parker, Perry, Randall, Savage, Shinpoch, Smith, Sommers, Thompson, Valle, Van Dyk, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, and Mr. Speaker.

Representatives Bausch and Hendricks spoke in favor of the amendment.

MEMBER EXCUSED FROM VOTING

Mr. Hendricks: "Mr. Speaker, I do have a conflict of interest, and I wonder if I might be excused from a vote on this particular amendment."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Mr. Hendricks desires to be excused from voting on the amendment by Mr. Bausch on the basis that he has a private interest in the adoption of this amendment and therefore possibly might profit by the action on it. On that basis, the Speaker is excusing Mr. Hendricks from voting on Mr. Bausch's amendment."

Mr. Perry: "Mr. Speaker, I would like to agree with the fact that Mr. Hendricks should be excused but I think you should make it very clear that he hasn't got any sinister interests. He has had a business there for a long time, before they ever thought of any of this. This could be misinterpreted. He has not, that I know of, any commercial interest relative to this, and he has owned a business there for a long time. Mr. Hendricks, as far as you personally benefiting, you would not benefit any more than what everybody else would benefit there. Is that correct?"

Mr. Hendricks: "Yes, I have a business interest there that has been established for years."

Representatives Charnley and Bender spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment.

The amendment by Mr. Bausch was adopted.

Mr. Savage moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Savage and Conner to Substitute Senate Bill No. 2328:

On page 2, section 1, line 33 after "of Fairfield" and before the period insert ": PROVIDED, That the highway commission is authorized and directed to expend $50,000 or so much thereof as may be necessary for design of an underpass at the Kamilche crossing on State Route 101 near Shelton"

Representatives Savage and Bausch spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Perry and Kraabel spoke against it.

The amendment by Representatives Savage and Conner to Substitute Senate Bill No. 2328 was not adopted.

Mrs. Hurley moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, section 1, line 33 after "of Fairfield" and before the period insert ": PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the State Highway Commission shall make no expenditures during 1973-75 biennium on the Spokane North-South Freeway; specifically, those projects listed in the priority program as state project 62128A - SR 90 to Trent Avenue, state project 62128B - Trent Avenue to Francis Avenue, and 62128C - Francis Avenue to existing SR 2. Nor shall the projects listed be reprogrammed for construction until such time as a study of the corridor alternatives can be made, with recommendations thereto, by the Legislative Transportation Committee in cooperation with the State Highway Commission."

Representatives Hurley, Luders and May spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Perry and Amen spoke against it.

Mrs. Hurley spoke again in favor of the amendment.

Mr. Kraabel spoke against adoption of the amendment, and Mr. Barden spoke in favor of its adoption.

Mr. Charette demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The amendment by Mrs. Hurley was lost on a rising vote.

Mr. Kraabel moved adoption of the following amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 2328:

On page 2, section 1, line 33 after "of Fairfield" and before the period insert ": AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That if any moneys herein appropriated are expended for the location, design, or construction of an additional lane or lanes to state route number 522 between N.E. 110th Street and 68th Avenue N.E. then such location, design, or construction shall permit and encourage the exclusive use of such lane or lanes during peak traffic periods by motor vehicles which are a part of an urban mass transit system"

Representatives Kraabel and Perry spoke in favor of the amendment, and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Perry, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 6, beginning on line 9, following the new section as added by the committee amendment, insert new sections as follows:

SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker announced that he was about to sign:

HOUSE BILL NO. 552,
HOUSE BILL NO. 827,
SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 944, HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 40.

MOTIONS

On motion of Mr. Thompson, ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2104 was rereferred to the Committee on Rules.

On motion of Mr. Thompson, the House advanced to the seventh order of business.

Mr. Thompson moved that the Rules Committee be relieved of ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2740 and ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2800, and that the bills be placed on the third reading calendar for immediate consideration.

The motion was carried.

THIRD READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2740, as amended by the House, by Committee on Ways and Means (Originally sponsored by Senators Donohue, Scott and Sandison):

Adopting the budget for the institutions of higher education and the community colleges.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Representatives Bagnariol and Shinpoch spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Shinpoch yielded to question by Mr. Charnley.

Mr. Charnley: "Representative Shinpoch, I am looking at the language on page six, dealing with the two percent increase for community college faculty. I wanted to ask you if it was intended that the language here allow each community college board to have the independence to use these funds for salary increases as they would establish in conjunction with bargaining with their faculties. I would like to know if they have that freedom."

Mr. Shinpoch: "Representative Charnley, we had a considerable amount of discussion on the supplemental budget on whether the $40.00 money that was going through was going into a pool to be used as merit money, or whether that was cost-of-living. This two percent is to be used as a merit pool, to be used as the administration decides to give it out. That is our intent."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Kopet: "I want to respond to Representative Shinpoch. He kind of took me breathless and unawares. It took me a minute to collect myself. It has been a privilege for me to work this time with Representative Shinpoch, and I was in an unusual position. I could have been either responsible or irresponsible. It was quite a choice for me when I first started out, and I was going to be antagonistic, and I was going to fight, and I was going to do all sorts of things to embarrass the other side of the aisle. I think when it came right down to it, working with Bud, and having an opportunity to have my ideas explored, with him helping me and me helping him, I came to the conclusion the only thing I could do was be responsible under his leadership. So I appreciate this opportunity to respond that I think he is a great guy, too. But what is going to happen is I'm going to have to get up here and oppose him. Yesterday when we had the comments and the back and forth and the political play, he finally came over to me and he swore and said 'Listen, if you've got so many pitchers, I'm going to have to get some more catchers over here.' But anyway, what we did, we did for the good of the state. We have philosophical differences, and I'll outline some of those a little while later, but I certainly appreciate Bud's regard for me, and I certainly have a high regard for him. Thank you."

Representatives Patterson and Kopet spoke against passage of the bill, and Representative Shinpoch spoke again in favor of its passage.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2740 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 60; nays, 32; not voting, 6.

Voting yea: Representatives Adams, Amen, Anderson, Bagnariol, Bauer, Bausch, Beck, Bender, Ceccarelli, Charette, Charnley, Chatalas, Clemente, Conner, Douthwaite, Ehlers, Eikenberry, Ellis, Eng, Erickson, Flanagan, Fortson, Gaines, Gaspard, Goltz, Hansen, Haussler, Hendricks, Hurley, Jastad, Johnson, Kalich, Kilbury, Knowles, Lysen, Martinis, Maxie, May, McCormick, North F., O'Brien, Parker, Patterson, Perry, Pullen, Rabel, Randall, Savage, Schumaker, Shinpoch, Smith, Sommers, Thompson, Valle, Van Dyk, Warnke, Williams, Wilson, Wojahn, and Mr. Speaker.

Voting nay: Representatives Benitz, Blair, Bluechel, Brown, Cunningham, Curtis, Freeman, Gallagher, Garrett, Gilleland, Hansey, Hayner, Hoggins, Juelling, Kelley, King, Kopet, Kraabel, Kuehnle, Leckenby, Matthews, Moon, Morrison, Newhouse, North L., Pardini, Paris, Polk, Smythe, Swayze, Tilly, Zimmerman.

Higher Education Budget
(ESSB 2740)

This budget was inadequate. There were unmet needs in community colleges as well as some four-year colleges, for example:

1. Community colleges must be given their place in the sun as the provider of more education for more students than all four-year schools combined. Yet, they are a "stepchild" in the budgetary process. The part-time salary mandate also ties the hands of administrators.

2. Schools like Central Washington have truly developed programs of an improved and innovative nature in the field of teacher education. Even though we have demanded this kind of performance and they have demonstrated the value, this budget refuses to support it financially in the interest of legislators saying, "We have cut government spending, we have saved money for the taxpayer." The money is available, and vital priorities have been violated without regard to long-term effect.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

I did not realize final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2740 was called and was standing away from my desk when the vote was taken. I was conferring with caucus legal counsel regarding proposed amendments to Senate Bill No. 2841 and did not reach my voting lever prior to the Speaker locking the vote machine. I intended to vote "no."

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

I voted "no" on the Appropriations Budget for Social and Health Services because of differences pursuant to priorities.

Among these were:

1. The decision to not fund necessary supervision for the proper placement and monitoring of retarded children discharged from institutions to be located in local communities.

2. The refusal to adequately fund the juvenile delinquency prevention program which will adversely impact a most worthy program.

3. The lack of needed financial base for community mental health programs.

In my judgment these determinations will not only prove to be more costly, economically, but most assuredly in terms of human neglect to which the price tag defies any measure known to man.

Mr. Goltz: "Representative Benitz and members of the House, it definitely would not. Subsection (7) on pages 2 and 3 simply refers to a disadvantaged or needy student 'enrolled . . . in a post-secondary educational institution . . . who demonstrates to the authority financial inability . . .'

"Page 2, section 3(6) defines 'post-secondary educational institution' as 'any business, trade, technical, vocational or other occupational school approved by the commission.' It makes no mention of the length or duration of such courses. Thus, the intent of this act specifically includes vocational, technical, business, and trade schools as post-secondary educational institutions and would cover otherwise eligible students attending courses offered by such schools which may last only a portion or longer than a semester or quarter."

I wish to change my vote from "no" to "aye" on Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 2183. This change is based on receiving corrected information.

WILLIAM S. "BILL" LECKENBY, 34th District.

REENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2101, by Senators Durkan, Connor and Peterson (Ted):

Providing for the regulation and licensing of plumbers.

The bill was read the second time.

Mr. Tilly moved adoption of the following amendment: On page 3, section 5, line 19 after "administer" and before "the" insert "at least twice annually"

Mr. Tilly spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. May spoke against it.

Mr. Moon demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

Mr. May spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. May yielded to question by Mr. Leckenby.

Mr. Leckenby: "Representative May, I read this bill before but I have forgotten--does the bill have the language that would provide for reciprocity with other states as did the last one?"

Mr. May: "Yes sir, it does, on page 5, section 9."

Mr. Leckenby: "So that if a contractor from another state came into the state of Washington, he could bring his supervising journeyman with him, and if we were to go into another state with which we had reciprocity we could do the same thing?"

Mr. May: "That is right."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. May yielded to question by Mr. Kuehnle.

Mr. Kuehnle: "Representative May, we discussed this a moment ago, and I was going to offer an amendment, but it could jeopardize the bill and I don't want to do that, because basically it is a good bill. But there is one small problem that I see, having been for fifteen years involved in the swimming pool contracting business (which I am not in any more, I would hasten to add), but I couldn't help but notice it. Technically speaking, the water which is contained in a swimming pool or wading pool or therapy pool is classed by the health department as potable water. And the question I would like to ask of you, then: Is that water which is contained in a swimming pool, and which is recirculated (I am talking just about the recirculatory plumbing) is it the intention that that type of plumbing is to be included in the definitions here in Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 2101?"

Mr. May: "No, Mr. Kuehnle, the definition of plumbing, as the craft involved in installing, altering, repairing and renovating potable water systems in Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 2101, is not intended to include the recirculatory systems of a swimming pool, wading pool, or therapy pool, even though technically speaking that water which is being recirculated is classed as potable."

Mr. Savage spoke in favor of the bill.

MOTION

Mr. Martinis moved that the Committee on Natural Resources be relieved of HOUSE BILL NO. 901, and that the bill be placed on the second reading calendar to be considered immediately.

Mr. Martinis spoke in favor of the motion.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Martinis yielded to question by Mr. Kraabel.

Mr. Kraabel: "One of the problem areas that I was aware of was that during the summer period in question, the department would not be allowed any discretionary powers at all. Is that one of the areas that you did address?"

Mr. Martinis: "Yes, this is back in the bill. The problem was what would happen if (and I doubt in my mind that there will be surplus stocks at this time, but that is a personal feeling) but if there is--we have taken care of that in this bill. We have put it back in, and the parties have agreed that it is a good proviso."

The motion by Mr. Martinis was carried.

HOUSE BILL NO. 901, by Representative Martinis:

Relating to food fish and shellfish.

The bill was read the second time.

Mr. Martinis moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Martinis, Fortson and Hansey:

Beginning on line 8 insert a new section as follows:
"Sec. 2. Section 75.12.010, chapter 12, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 13, chapter 283, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 75.12.010 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful to fish for, catch, or take any species of salmon for commercial purposes, except as hereinafter provided, within the waters of the Straits of Juan de Fuca, Puget Sound and waters connected therewith within the state of Washington described as lying to the southerly, easterly and southeasterly of a line described as follows:

Commencing at a concrete monument on Angeles Point in Clallam county, state of Washington, near the mouth of the Elwha River on which is inscribed "Angeles Point Monument" in the latitude 48° 9'3" [north, longitude 123° 33'01" west of Greenwich Meridian; thence running east on a line 81°] 30' true from said point across the flashlight and bell buoy off Partridge Point and thence continued to where said line intersects longitude 122° 40' west; thence north on said line to where said line intersects the southerly shore of Sinclair Island at high tide; thence along the southerly shore of said island to the most easterly point thereof; thence north 46° east true to the line of high tide at Carter Point, the most southerly point of Lummi Island; thence northwesterly along the westerly shore line at high tide of said Lummi Island to where said shore line at high tide intersects line of longitude $122^{\circ} 40'$ west; thence north on said line to where said line intersects the mainland at the line of high tide; including within said area the southerly portion of Hale Passage, Bellingham Bay, Padilla Bay, Fidalgo Bay, Guemes Channel, Skagit Bay, Similk Bay, Saratoga Passage, Holmes Harbor, Possession Sound, Admiralty Inlet, Hood Canal, Puget Sound, and all inlets, passages, waters, waterways, and the tributaries thereof: PROVIDED, That, subject to such seasons and regulations as may be established from time to time by the director, ((fishing for salmon for commercial purposes within the above described waters with gill nets; round haul nets; and troll lines with not to exceed six hooks per boat shall be lawful; and subject to such regulations and to such shorter seasons as the director may establish from time to time)) it shall be lawful to fish for ((salmon for)) commercial purposes within the above described waters with any lawful gear for sockeye salmon during the period extending from the tenth day of June to the twenty-fifth day of the following July and for other legal salmon from the ((fifth day)) second Monday of ((October)) September to and including the thirtieth day of the following November, except during the hours beginning 4:00 o'clock p.m. of Friday and ending at 4:00 o'clock ((a.m.)) p.m. of the Sunday following; AND PROVIDED, That it shall be lawful to fish for salmon for commercial purposes with gill net gear subject to such regulations and to such shorter seasons as the director may establish from time to time prior to the second Monday in September within the waters of Hale Passage, Bellingham Bay, Samish Bay, Padilla Bay, Fidalgo Bay, Guemes Channel, Skagit Bay, and Similk Bay, to wit: Those waters northerly and easterly of a line commencing at Stanwood, thence along the south shore of Skagit Bay to Rocky Point on Camano Island; thence northerly to Polnell Point on Whidbey Island.

((AND PROVIDED, That for the privilege of purse seining in said waters during the lawful periods a seiner's permit from the director of fisheries shall be required, which permit shall issue on application and payment of a fee of ten dollars.))

AND PROVIDED, That whenever the director determines that a stock or run of salmon cannot be feasibly and properly harvested in the usual manner, and that such stock or run of salmon may be in danger of being wasted and surplus to natural or artificial spawning requirements, the director ((may)) shall maneuver units of lawful gill net gear until the second Monday in September, and thereafter, both lawful gill net and purse seine gear in any number or equivalents at his discretion, by time and area, to fully utilize such harvestable portions of these salmon runs for the economic well being of the citizens of this state, except that gill net and purse seine gear other than emergency and test gear authorized by the fisheries department shall not be used in Lake Washington.

AND PROVIDED, That subject to such regulations and to such shorter seasons as the director may establish from time to time, it shall be lawful to fish for pink salmon for commercial purposes with any lawful gear in each odd year during the period running from the first day of August to the first day of September, both dates inclusive, in the waters lying inside of the following described line: A line commencing at a red wooden monument located on the most easterly point of Dungeness Spit and thence projected to a similar monument located at Point Partridge on Whidbey Island and a line commencing at a red wooden monument located on Olele Point and thence projected easterly to a similar monument located at Bush Point on Whidbey Island."

Mr. Martinis spoke in favor of the amendment.

The Speaker called on Mr. O'Brien to preside.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Martinis yielded to question by Mr. Hansey.

Mr. Hansey: "Representative Martinis, over the past years in this legislative body, there have been numerous bills that have brought about a great deal of controversy between the various commercial segments of our fishing industry. I know that you have worked hard to develop this compromise bill, and I was wondering if you would state for the record what the commitments were of the various factions of the commercial fishery interest, regarding this bill?"

Mr. Martinis: "Representative Hansey, I believe that all of these factions (and maybe that is not a good word, but there was considerable controversy over this) got together on this, and about an hour and a half ago we had the hard copy of this amendment, and we all met outside in the lobby. We agreed--or the different factions of the commercial industry agreed--shook hands, and declared an end to the gear war, and that they would not be back to this legislature, as far as they were concerned, with another bill that would present a commercial gear war. And I would like to point out that they all shook hands. And then another fine thing happened--Representative Hansey and I shook hands."

Representatives Hansey and Fortson spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Martinis yielded to question by Mr. Ceccarelli.

Mr. Ceccarelli: "Representative Martinis, you know in the past I have fought against any encroachment on Initiative 77 to which this amendment addresses itself. Do we also have an assurance from you that this will be the last of the encroachments on Initiative 77 from the commercial fisheries?"

Mr. Martinis: "I see no more problem there, Representative Ceccarelli. The agreement that was reached was that these parties were through with the gear war. They will not be back. As far as I am concerned, this settles it. I don't want to see any more of it--I am caught in the middle of this. I understand all of the sides of the commercial industry and the sports industry, and believe me that is a tough position to be in. This is the first time that I have been totally involved in a bill of this nature, and I just pray to God that this does iron it out. And as far as the agreement that we have reached, and we came to the moment of truth (before we reached it we were squaring off)--I feel that this is the end of the battle."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mrs. Fortson yielded to question by Mr. Beck.

Mr. Beck: "Eleanor, you have assured us that the wars are over. Are you sure the keepers are taken care of?"

Mrs. Fortson: "No, I am not sure. I was looking out for the gillnetters."

Mr. Charette spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment.

The amendment by Representatives Martinis, Fortson and Hansey was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Martinis, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

Strike the title and insert the following:

"AN ACT Relating to food fish and shellfish; and amending section 75.12.010, chapter 12, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 13, chapter 283, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 75.12.010."

"Sec. 2. Section 18, chapter 286, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 90.58.180 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person aggrieved by the granting or denying of a permit on shorelines of the state, or rescinding a permit pursuant to RCW 90.58.150 may seek review from the shorelines hearings board by filing a request for the same within thirty days of receipt of the final order. Concurrently with the filing of any request for review with the board as provided in this section pertaining to a final order of a local government, the requestor shall file a copy of his request with the department and the attorney general. If it appears to the department or the attorney general that the requestor has valid reasons to seek review, either the department or the attorney general may certify the request within thirty days after its receipt to the shorelines hearings board following which the board shall then, but not otherwise, review the matter covered by the requestor: PROVIDED, That the failure to obtain such certification shall not preclude the requestor from obtaining a review in the superior court under any right to review otherwise available to the requestor. The department and the attorney general may intervene to protect the public interest and insure that the provisions of this chapter are complied with at any time within forty-five days from the date of the filing of said copies by the requestor.

(2) The department or the attorney general may obtain review of any final order granting a permit, or granting or denying an application for a permit issued by a local government by filing a written request with the shorelines appeals board and the appropriate local government within forty-five days from the date the final order was filed as provided in subsection (5) of RCW 90.58.140.

(3) The review proceedings authorized in subsections (1) and (2) of this section are subject to the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW pertaining to procedures in contested cases. ((The provisions of chapter 43.24B RCW and the regulations adopted pursuant thereto by the pollution control hearings board, insofar as they are not inconsistent with chapter 34.04 RCW, relating to the procedures for the conduct of hearings and judicial review thereof, shall be applicable to all requests for review as provided for in subsections (1) and (2) of this section.)) Judicial review of such proceedings of the shorelines hearings board may be had as provided in chapter 34.04 RCW.

(4) Local government may appeal to the shorelines hearings board any rules, regulations, guidelines, designations, or master programs for shorelines of the state adopted or approved by the department within thirty days of the date of the adoption or approval. The board shall make a final decision within sixty days following the hearing held thereon.

(a) In an appeal relating to a master program for shorelines, the board, after full consideration of the positions of the local government and the department, shall determine the validity of the master program. If the board determines that said program:

(i) is clearly erroneous in light of the policy of this chapter; or

(ii) constitutes an implementation of this chapter in violation of constitutional or statutory provisions; or

(iii) is arbitrary and capricious; or

(iv) was developed without fully considering and evaluating all proposed master programs submitted to the department by the local government; or

(v) was not adopted in accordance with required procedures;

the board shall enter a final decision declaring the program invalid, remanding the master program to the department with a statement of the reasons in support of the determination, and directing the department to adopt, after a thorough consultation with the affected local government, a new master program. Unless the board makes one or more of the determinations as hereinbefore provided, the board shall find the master program to be valid and enter a final decision to that effect.

(b) In an appeal relating to a master program for shorelines of state-wide significance the board shall approve the master program adopted by the department unless a local government shall, by clear and convincing evidence and argument, persuade the board that the master program approved by the department is inconsistent with the policy of RCW 90.58.020 and the applicable guidelines.

(c) In an appeal relating to rules, regulations, guidelines, master programs of state-wide significance, and designations, the standard of review provided in RCW 34.04.070 shall apply.

(5) Rules, regulations, designations, master programs, and guidelines shall be subject to review in superior court, if authorized pursuant to RCW 34.04.070: PROVIDED, That no review shall be granted by a superior court on petition from a local government unless the local government shall first have obtained review under subsection (4) of this section and the petition for court review is filed within three months after the date of final decision by the shorelines hearings board.

Representatives Swayze and King spoke in favor of the amendments to the committee amendments.

The amendments by Mr. Swayze to the amendments were adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Swayze yielded to question by Mr. Kuehnle.

Mr. Kuehnle: "I'm sorry, Representative Swayze. This thing has gone by me faster than I could keep up with it--the committee amendments and your floor amendments to the committee amendment. I had intended to stand and oppose one of the committee amendments, or a couple of the committee amendments, and maybe your floor amendment took care of it. In the position that the committee amendment is in now, as amended, does it still provide to the secretary of state the privilege of determining whether an argument that has been offered for the voters' pamphlet is satisfactory to him in terms of the broad language? I realize it says something about being factual, but this is a matter of interpretation. What is the status of it, where it stands now?"

Mr. Swayze: "Well the language with which you are concerned, and it is of some concern to me also, is the language dealing with unsubstantiated claims. It is of some concern to me that a judgment decision has to be made on whether a claim is substantiated or unsubstantiated, and that particular issue was not touched by my amendment to the amendment. You may wish to still defeat the remainder of the committee amendment. My floor amendment only made it clear that somebody putting in a rebuttal argument had to confine his remarks to issues that have already been talked about in the voters' pamphlet, the main argument, and they couldn't bring in new material and new matter. I think maybe Mr. King wants to expand on that a bit."

Mr. King spoke in favor of the committee amendments as amended.

The committee amendments as amended by Mr. Swayze were adopted.

Mr. King moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 7.

Mr. King spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Kuehnle spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. King yielded to question by Mr. Luders.

Mr. Luders: "Representative King, the phraseology 'patently untrue'--is that defined anywhere in law? What does that really mean, do you know?"

Mr. King: "You probably should ask an attorney about that. The testimony we had in talking with attorneys was that it was untrue on the surface--that it was something you wouldn't have a question about. It doesn't say 'untrue in the opinion of.' It says 'patently' and I think I am correct in assuming that means it is on the surface--that, in and of itself, it is false. I think it is a rather narrow use of the term and was done intentionally."

Representatives Luders and Rabel spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment.

The committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. King, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Conner, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2361 as amended by the House was placed on final passage.

Mr. King spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

We voted against final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2854 as amended by the House for two reasons: (1) Although it provided for a salary increase for faculty of our institutions of higher learning, the increase was not nearly enough to retain many of our top educators and research people so badly needed; (2) The salary increase for some elected officials was too great.

OTTO AMEN, 9th District,
E. G. "PAT" PATTERSON, 9th District.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

I voted against Substitute Senate Bill No. 2854 on final passage. It is my opinion that the salaries for legislators as proposed are greatly in excess of what they should be.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Barden: "Earlier today I had a series of amendments to the budget bill about which I felt as strongly as the proponents of the myriad of amendments to this bill. And for the convenience of the House, in order to expedite the business of the House, I asked that all those amendments be considered at one time, so that we could decide whether or not we wanted to take a certain course of action. I would ask that the sponsors of these amendments please consider them all at once, so that we can decide these amendments and the drastic redirection of the bill that they propose, and then we get on with the business of either voting this bill up or down--after the four years of intensive study and action that it has received on the floor of this House. I just offer that as a point of personal privilege, saying that to delay action and kill bills below this on the calendar by considering these amendments one after the other (which all have the same intent) is not really serving the people or the other members of this House who have important legislation hanging below this bill."

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

On final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2897, I voted "yes" because I believed that the citizens of this state are capable of deciding from whom they will borrow and at what rate. Many people who have a bad credit rating only have one place to go for credit--a small loan company. I did, however, vote for all the amendments that would lower the rates, but when they failed to pass I decided to vote for the bill because I believed it was a better law than we have now.

MIKE PARKER, 29th District.

Such tribunal shall fix the time of the hearing, which shall be public, and the procedure for the hearing, and the decision of such tribunal shall be final. Removal of any member of the commission by the tribunal shall disqualify such member for reappointment.

(4) Before entering upon the duties of his office, each of said members of the commission shall enter into a surety bond executed by a surety company authorized to do business in this state, payable to the state of Washington, to be approved by the governor in the penal sum of fifty thousand dollars conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties, and shall take and subscribe to the oath of office prescribed for elective state officers, which oath and bond shall be filed with the secretary of state. POINT OF INQUIRY

All three of these simply bring nursing homes into that same chapter so that they also, just like all other institutions, have to report the same processes that are within the statutes now. I think without belaboring the point that this is exactly what these do. They are very good reporting procedures, I think."

Applications for classification under section 2 subsection (1) or (3) of this 1973 amendatory act shall be made to the county legislative authority. An application made for classification of land under section 2 subsection (1) (b), or (3) of this 1973 amendatory act which is in an area subject to a comprehensive plan shall be acted upon in the same manner in which an amendment to the comprehensive plan is processed. Application made for classification of land which is in an area not subject to a comprehensive plan shall be acted upon after a public hearing and after notice of the hearing shall have been given by one publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the area at least ten days before the hearing: PROVIDED, That applications for classification of land in an incorporated area shall be acted upon by a determining authority composed of three members of the county legislative body and three members of the city legislative body in which the land is located.

In determining whether an application made for classification under section 2, subsection (1) (b), or (3) of this 1973 amendatory act should be approved or disapproved, the granting authority may take cognizance of the benefits to the general welfare of preserving the current use of the property which is the subject of application, and may consider whether or not preservation of current use of the land will (1) conserve or enhance natural or scenic resources, (2) protect streams or water supplies, (3) promote conservation of soils, wetlands, beaches or tidal marshes, (4) enhance the value of abutting or neighboring parks, forests, wildlife preserves, nature reservations, sanctuaries, or other open spaces, (5) enhance recreation opportunities, (6) preserve historic sites, (7) affect any other factors relevant in weighing benefits to the general welfare of preserving the current use of the property against the potential loss in revenue which may result from granting the application: PROVIDED, That the granting authority may approve the application with respect to only part of the land which is the subject of the application: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if any part of the application is denied, the applicant may withdraw the entire application: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the granting authority in approving in part or whole an application for land classified pursuant to section 2 (1) or (3) of this 1973 amendatory act may also require that certain conditions be met, including but not limited to the granting of easements: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the granting or denial of the application for current use classification is a legislative determination and shall be reviewable only for arbitrary and capricious actions.

Sec. 6. Section 5, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The granting authority shall immediately notify the county assessor and the applicant of its approval or disapproval which shall in no event be more than six months from the receipt of said application. No land other than farm and agricultural land shall be considered qualified under this chapter until an application in regard thereto has been approved by the appropriate legislative authority.

(2) When the granting authority finds that land qualifies under this chapter, it shall file notice of the same with the assessor within ten days. The assessor shall, as to any such land, make a notation each year on the assessment list and the tax roll of the assessed value of such land for the use for which it is classified in addition to the assessed value of such land were it not so classified.

(3) Within ten days following receipt of the notice from the granting authority that such land qualifies under this chapter, the assessor shall submit such notice to the county auditor for recording in the place and manner provided for the public recording of state tax liens on real property.

(4) The assessor shall also file notice of both such value with the county treasurer, who shall record such notice in the place and manner provided for recording delinquent taxes.

Sec. 7. Section 6, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.060 are each amended to read as follows:

In determining the true and fair value of open space land (~~(; farm and agriculture land;~~) and timber land, which has been classified as such under the provisions of this chapter, the assessor shall consider only the use to which such property and improvements is currently applied and shall not consider potential uses of such property. The assessor shall compute the assessed value of such property by using the same assessment ratio which he applies generally in computing the assessed value of other property: PROVIDED, That the assessed valuation of open space land with no current use shall not be less than that which would result if it were to be assessed for agricultural uses.

Sec. 8. Section 7, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.070 are each amended to read as follows:

When land has once been classified under this chapter, it shall remain under such classification and shall not be applied to other use for at least ten years from the date of classification and shall continue under such classification until and unless withdrawn from classification after notice of request for withdrawal shall be made by the owner. During any year after ~~((seven))~~ eight years of the initial ten-year classification period have elapsed, notice of request for withdrawal of all or a portion of the land, which shall be irrevocable, may be given by the owner to the county assessor or assessors of the county or counties in which such land is situated. In the event that a portion of a parcel is removed from classification, the remaining portion must meet the same requirements as did the entire parcel when such land was originally granted classification pursuant to this chapter. Within seven days the county assessor shall transmit one copy of such notice to the legislative body which originally approved the application. The county assessor or assessors, as the case may be, shall, when ~~((three))~~ two assessment years have elapsed following the date of receipt of such notice, withdraw such land from such classification (~~(; PROVIDED, That the county treasurer shall impose and collect upon the property for the seven years last past an amount which would be the difference between the property tax paid as 'open space land', 'farm and agricultural land', or 'timber land' and the amount of property tax otherwise due and payable had the land not been so classified; and the owner shall be liable therefor; and the same may be collected; as in the case of any other property taxes levied against the land: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the county treasurer shall impose and collect interest upon the amounts of such additional tax paid at the same statutory rate charged on delinquent property taxes from the dates on which such additional tax could have been paid without penalty each year if the land had been assessed at a value computed without regard to this chapter)~~) and the land shall be subject to the additional tax due under section 13 of this 1973 amendatory act: PROVIDED, That agreement to tax according to use shall not be considered to be a contract and can be abrogated at any time by the ((state)) legislature in which event no additional tax or penalty shall be imposed.

Sec. 9. Section 8, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.080 are each amended to read as follows:

When land which has been ((assessed)) classified under this chapter as open space land, farm and agricultural land, or timber land is applied to some other use, except through compliance with RCW 84.34.070, or except as a result ((of the exercise of the power of eminent domain; or except as a result of a sale to a public body)) solely from any one of the conditions listed in section 13 (5) of this 1973 amendatory act, the owner shall within sixty days notify the county assessor of such change in use and additional real property tax shall be imposed upon such land in an amount equal to the sum of the following:

(1) The total amount((; if any; which would be the difference between the property tax paid as 'open space land', 'farm and agricultural land', or 'timber land', and the property tax otherwise due and payable had the land not been so classified during a maximum of twenty years for timber land; or fourteen years for other land preceding the year in which the assessor extends such additional tax on the tax roll)) of the additional tax due under section 13 of this 1973 amendatory act; plus

(2) A penalty amounting to twenty percent of the amount determined in subsection (1) of this section((; plus)).

((3) Interest upon the amounts of such additional tax and penalty until paid at the same statutory rate charged on delinquent property taxes from the dates on which such additional tax could have been paid without penalty each year if the land had been assessed at a value computed without regard to this chapter.

(4) The provisions of subsections (1), (2) and (3) of this section shall not apply in the event that the change in use results from the sale of land classified under this chapter within two years after the death of the owner of at least fifty percent of such land;))

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and to chapter 84.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The true and fair value of farm and agricultural land shall be determined by consideration of the earning or productive capacity of comparable lands from crops grown most typically in the area averaged over not less than five years, capitalized at indicative rates. The earning or productive capacity of farm and agricultural lands shall be the 'net cash rental', capitalized at a 'rate of interest' charged on long term loans secured by a mortgage on farm or agricultural land plus a component for property taxes.

For the purposes of the above computation:

(1) The term 'net cash rental' shall mean the average rental paid on an annual basis, in cash or its equivalent, for the land being appraised and other farm and agricultural land of similar quality and similarly situated that is available for lease for a period of at least three years to any reliable person without unreasonable restrictions on its use for production of agricultural crops. There shall be allowed as a deduction from the rental received or computed any costs of crop production charged against the landlord if the costs are such as are customarily paid by a landlord. If 'net cash rental' data is not available, the earning or productive capacity of farm and agricultural lands shall be determined by the cash value of typical or usual crops grown on land of similar quality and similarly situated averaged over not less than five years. Standard costs of production shall be allowed as a deduction from the cash value of the crops.

The current 'net cash rental' or 'earning capacity' shall be determined by the assessor with the advice of the advisory committee as provided in section 11 of this 1973 amendatory act, and through a continuing study within his office, assisted by studies of the department of revenue. This net cash rental figure as it applies to any farm and agricultural land may be challenged before the same boards or authorities as would be the case with regard to assessed values on general property.

(2) The term 'rate of interest' shall mean the rate of interest charged by the farm credit administration and other large financial institutions regularly making loans secured by farm and agricultural lands through mortgages or similar legal instruments, averaged over the immediate past five years.

The 'rate of interest' shall be determined annually by the revenue department of the state of Washington with the advice of the state advisory committee as provided in section 11 of this 1973 amendatory act, and such determination shall be published not later than January 1 of each year for use in that assessment year. The determination of the revenue department may be appealed to the state board of tax appeals by any owner of farm or agricultural land or the assessor of any county containing farm and agricultural land.

(3) The 'component for property taxes' shall be a percentage equal to the estimated millage rate times the legal assessment ratio.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and to chapter 84.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The county legislative authority shall appoint a five member committee representing the active farming community within the county to serve in an advisory capacity to the county assessor in implementing assessment guidelines as established by the department of revenue for the assessment of open space, farms and agricultural lands, and timber lands classified pursuant to this 1973 amendatory act.

A state advisory committee consisting of the director of the department of revenue or his designated representative, one member of the senate appointed by the president of the senate, and one member of the house appointed by the speaker of the house, and three members from the agricultural business community appointed by the agriculture commodity council shall serve in an advisory capacity to the state department of revenue as provided in sections 10 and 17 of this 1973 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. There is added to chapter

87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and to chapter 84.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) When land has once been classified under this 1973 amendatory act, a notation of such designation shall be made each year upon the assessment and tax rolls and such land shall be valued pursuant to sections 7 or 10 of this 1973 amendatory act until removal of all or a portion of such designation by the assessor upon occurrence of any of the following:

(a) Receipt of notice from the owner to remove all or a portion of such designation;

(b) Passage of sixty days following the sale or transfer of all or a portion of such land to a new owner without receipt of a notice of compliance from the new owner. Notice of compliance forms shall be prepared by the state department of revenue and supplied by the county assessor. Said notice shall contain a statement that the new owner is aware of the use classification of the land and of the potential tax liability involved when such land ceases to be designated as open space, farm and agricultural or timber land;

(c) Sale or transfer to an ownership making all or a portion of such land exempt from ad valorem taxation;

(d) Determination by the assessor, after giving the owner written notice and an opportunity to be heard, that all or a portion of such land is no longer primarily devoted to and used for the purposes under which it was granted classification.

(2) Within thirty days after such removal of all or a portion of such land from current use classification, the assessor shall notify the owner in writing, setting forth the reasons for such removal. The owner may appeal such removal to the county board of equalization.

(3) Unless the removal is reversed on appeal, the assessor shall revalue the affected land with reference to full market value on the date of removal from classification. Both the assessed valuation before and after the removal of classification shall be listed and taxes shall be allocated according to that part of the year to which each assessed valuation applies. Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, an additional tax shall be imposed which shall be due and payable to the county treasurer on or before April 30 of the following year. The assessor shall compute the amount of such an additional tax and the treasurer shall mail notice to the owner of the amount thereof and the date on which payment is due. The amount of such additional tax shall be equal to:

(a) The difference between the property tax paid as 'open space land', 'farm and agricultural land', or 'timber land' and the amount of property tax otherwise due and payable for the seven years last past had the land not been so classified; plus

(b) Interest upon the amounts of such additional tax paid at the same statutory rate charged on delinquent property taxes from the dates on which such additional tax could have been paid without penalty if the land had been assessed at a value without regard to this chapter.

(4) Any additional tax unpaid on its due date shall thereupon become delinquent and together with applicable interest thereon, shall as of said date become a lien on such land which shall have priority to and shall be fully paid and satisfied before any recognizance, mortgage, judgment, debt, obligation or responsibility to or with which such land may become charged or liable. Such lien may be foreclosed upon expiration of the same period after delinquency and in the same manner provided by law for foreclosure of liens for delinquent real property taxes as provided in RCW 84.64.050 now or as hereafter amended. From the date of delinquency until paid, interest shall be charged at the same rate applied by law to delinquent ad valorem property taxes.

(5) The additional tax specified in subsection (3) of this section shall not be imposed if the removal of designation pursuant to subsection (1) of this section resulted solely from:

(a) Transfer to a government entity in exchange for other land located within the state of Washington;

(b) A taking through the exercise of the power of eminent domain, or sale or transfer to an entity having the power of eminent domain in anticipation of the exercise of such power;

(c) Sale or transfer of land within two years after the death of the owner of at least a fifty percent interest in such land.

(d) A natural disaster such as a flood, windstorm, earthquake, or other such calamity rather than by virtue of the act of the landowner changing the use of such property.

(e) Official action by an agency of the state of Washington or by the county or city within which the land is located which disallows the present use of such land.

(f) Transfer to a church and such land would qualify for property tax exemption pursuant to RCW 84.36.020.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and to chapter 84.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The owner of any land as to which additional tax is imposed as provided in this 1973 amendatory act shall have with respect to valuation of the land and imposition of the additional tax all remedies provided by Title 84 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The assessor may require owners of land classified under this chapter to submit pertinent data regarding the use of the land, productivity of typical crops, and such similar information pertinent to continued classification and appraisal of the land.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and to chapter 84.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Land classified under the provisions of chapter 84.34 RCW prior to the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act which meets the definition of farm and agricultural land under the provisions of this 1973 amendatory act, upon request for such change made by the owner to the county assessor, shall be reclassified by the county assessor under the provisions of this 1973 amendatory act. This change in classification shall be made without additional tax, penalty, or other requirements: PROVIDED, That subsequent to such reclassification, the land shall be fully subject to the provisions of chapter 84.34 RCW, as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Nothing in this 1973 amendatory act shall be construed as in any manner affecting the method for valuation of timber standing on timber land which has been classified under the provisions of this 1973 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and to chapter 84.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department of revenue of the state of Washington shall make such rules and regulations with the advice of the state advisory committee as provided in section 11 of this 1973 amendatory act consistent with the provisions of this 1973 amendatory act as shall be necessary or desirable to permit its effective administration.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. There is added to chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and to chapter 84.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department of revenue and each local assessor is hereby directed to publicize the qualifications and manner of making applications for current use classification. Whenever possible notice of the qualifications, method of making applications, and availability of further information on current use classification shall be included with the second half property tax statements for 1973, and thereafter, shall be included with every notice of change in valuation of unplatted lands.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. There is added to chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and to chapter 84.34 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Land classified under the provisions of chapter 84.34 RCW as timber land which meets the definition of forest land under the provisions of chapter 84.33 RCW, upon request for such change made by the owner to the county assessor, shall be reclassified by the county assessor under the provisions of chapter 84.33 RCW. This change in classification shall be made without additional tax, penalty, or other requirements set forth in chapter 84.34 RCW: PROVIDED, That subsequent to such reclassification, the land shall be fully subject to the provisions of chapter 84.33 RCW, as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. If any provision of this 1973 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. The following acts or parts of acts are each hereby repealed:

(1) Section 4, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.040;

(2) Section 11, chapter 87, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 83.34.110;

MOTION

Mr. Flanagan moved that the House do not concur in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 53 and that the Senate be asked to recede therefrom.

Mr. Kilbury spoke in favor of the motion.

The motion was carried.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2425, by Senators Odegaard, Grant and Henry:

Implementing the law relating to write-in-voting at primaries and general elections.

Committee on Constitution and Elections recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendment see Journal for thirty-first day, Ex. Sess., April 8, 1973.)

The bill was read the second time.

On motion of Mr. King, the committee amendment was adopted.

Mr. Brown moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Kuehne, Brown and McCormick:

On page 2, line 32 of the printed bill add a new section to read as follows:

"Sec. 3. Section 29.07.160, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 20, chapter 202, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 29.07.160 are each amended to read as follows:

The registration files of all precincts shall be closed against original registration or transfers ((between counties)) for thirty days immediately preceding every election and primary to be held in such precincts, respectively ((; but they shall remain open for an additional fifteen days for transfers of registration from one precinct within the county to another precinct in the same county)).

The county auditor shall give notice of the closing of said files for original registration and transfer by one publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county at least five days before such closing."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. King: "I believe the amendment is beyond the scope and object of the bill. The bill deals with write-in-voting. The amendment has to do with the time that county auditors are allowed to process transfers of voters within a county. It is an entirely different subject."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Mr. King raised a point of order on the germaneness of the amendment offered by Representatives Kuehne, Brown and McCormick. It appears the subject matter contained in the proposed amendment is different from the overall purpose of Senate Bill No. 2425, where it provides mainly for the write-in process and the nomination and the counts of such ballots. The amendment goes beyond the original proposition. Therefore, in the opinion of the Speaker, it is not germane or relevant to the main subject matter. Your point of order is well taken, Mr. King, and the amendment is declared out of order."

Mr. King moved that the rules be suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2425 as amended by the House be placed on final passage.

Mr. Pardini demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

Committee on Social and Health Services recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendments see Journal for twenty-ninth day, Ex. Sess., April 6, 1973.)

On motion of Mr. Parker, the committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Mr. Conner, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2491 as amended by the House was placed on final passage.

Mr. Parker spoke in favor of the bill.

MOTION

Mr. Conner moved that the House concur in the Senate amendments to House Bill No. 442.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Blair: "Would Representative Conner yield to question?"

Mr. Conner refused to yield to question.

Mr. Blair spoke against the motion to concur in the Senate amendments.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Blair: "Is it too late, Mr. Speaker, to request that the question be divided on these amendments? If it is not, I would like to move that we divide the first three amendments from the fourth."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Mr. Blair, in connection with your question on whether or not you could make a motion to divide the question: You preceded the motion with your remarks. On that basis, you would be out of order to make a motion at that stage of your discussion."

Mr. Curtis spoke in favor of the motion, and Mr. Conner spoke against it.

Mr. Curtis: "The motion to divide carried. What is the proper procedure? Do I then move to concur in the last amendment and not concur in the first three?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "That would be proper, yes."

MOTION

Mr. Curtis moved that the House do not concur in the first three Senate amendments to House Bill No. 442, and that the Senate be asked to recede therefrom.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Conner yielded to question by Mr. Amen.

Mr. Amen: "Representative Conner, would you explain what this really means then, since you made the positive motion? Would you make it clear to us, please?"

Mr. Conner: "I don't think that I can. The officials of the state firemen and the paid policemen who are down here got the Assistant Attorney General, and we had the Speaker's attorney and our caucus attorney look at these amendments, and they are in agreement. So I am reflecting the views of the law enforcement officers, the volunteer firemen, and the firefighters in this particular regard."

Representatives Conner, Berentson, Perry and Charnley spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment to the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Conner yielded to question by Mr. Hansey.

Mr. Hansey: "Representative Conner, I notice that the amendment that you are proposing is to section 10, on page 5 of the bill. And that particular section says that 'The following portions of highways are designated as part of the scenic and recreational highway system.' Is it the intent of this bill that this highway would be under the scenic highway system which would outlaw billboards in addition to other requirements of that proposal along the entire route?"

Mr. Conner: "Well, the areas in question, as I understand it, and we had the assistant attorney general, Mr. Huey, work on this in the Code Reviser's office, and he says this bill is technically correct, and with the exception of one or two small areas that were not under the scenic, that it is as the present system is now."

Mr. Hansey: "Then that would put the entire length of the new designated highway 20 under the scenic and recreational highway system as it is presently worded. Is that your understanding?"

Mr. Conner: "As I understood Mr. Huey and Mr. Garlington, there were no changes in that area."

(2) That it is necessary to adopt a method of state level school support that provides equal education to all students regardless of where they may reside and that the courts of this nation and state will so require by forbidding continuation of property tax support of basic education;

(3) That the unpredictable future of comprehensive tax reform necessitates the adoption of interim measures provided in this 1973 amendatory act to comply with such present mandates of the taxpayers and the Constitution;

(4) That it is the purpose of this 1973 amendatory act to provide:

(a) An alternative tax program to provide for special levy property tax relief and for state level funding of basic education by the reallocation of certain state revenues through a program to be known as "financial equalization";

(b) An approximately balanced plan of property tax replacement which minimizes any shift between groups of taxpayers and substantially retains the existing balance of tax burden;

(5) That to avoid disruption and dislocation of existing school programs by the removal of traditional special levy authorization, it is necessary to authorize a limited special levy by school districts not to exceed in amount ten percent of the total budget of such district;

(6) That the financial plight of certain retired residents on limited incomes makes it necessary and desirable to exempt the sales to such persons of prescription drugs and medicines and food products from the state sales tax;

(7) That any school district having approved a special levy for collection in 1974, shall be authorized to collect only the amount by which the amount of total special levy as approved by the voters exceeds the total dollar increase reallocated to such district by the state pursuant to the provisions of this 1973 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The legislature further finds and declares that for the purposes of providing additional state level school support for basic education pursuant to the provisions of this 1973 amendatory act, that:

(1) 'Financial equalization' shall mean the process of providing a specified amount of resources based upon staffing and nonsalary cost standards to each district, depending upon the number of students in noncategorical basic education programs and recognizing that staff characteristics and the size and location of schools may necessitate the application of alternative standards of financial support: PROVIDED, That the actual reallocation shall be distributed as specifically provided for in the distribution formula for support of basic education pursuant to the provisions of chapter ... (HB...), Laws of 1973.

(2) 'Basic education' shall mean those courses of study or learning experiences as determined by the legislature, the state board of education, and local school districts to be essential to comply with the constitutional mandate to provide for the education of all children residing within the state without distinction or preference.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 82.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

From and after the first day of January following the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act, there is levied and shall be collected from every person for the act or privilege of engaging in business activities, as a part of the tax imposed by this chapter, an additional tax in the amount of fourteen percent of the tax payable under this chapter. To facilitate collection of this additional tax, the department of revenue is authorized to adjust the basic rates of persons to which this section applies in such manner as to reflect the exact amount of the additional tax hereby imposed. The additional revenues collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the state general fund in an account to be known as the school financial equalization account.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 82.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

From and after the first day of January following the effective date of this 1973 amendatory act, there is levied and shall be collected from every person for the act or privilege of engaging within this state in one or more of the businesses named in RCW 82.16.020, as a part of the tax imposed by this chapter, an additional tax in the amount of fourteen percent of the tax payable under this chapter. NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 84.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Whenever after January 1, 1974, a 'special' levy subject to the limitations imposed by RCW 84.52.050 through 84.52.056 is imposed by a school district for maintenance and operations purposes, the amount of any such levy payable in any tax year shall not exceed ten percent of the operating budget of such district for the last budget year completed prior to such tax year, such operating budget to be determined for purposes of this section by excluding therefrom the revenues derived from any tax levy.

(2) 'Special' means that unique and different addition to a school program that falls outside the meaning of 'basic education', as determined pursuant to section 3(2) of this 1973 amendatory act.

(3) Any school district having approved a special levy for collection in 1974, shall be authorized to collect only the amount by which the amount of total special levy as approved by the voters exceeds the total dollar increase reallocated to such district by the state pursuant to the provisions of this 1973 amendatory act.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Thompson: "Mr. Speaker, I challenge the scope and object of this amendment."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Your point is well taken, Mr. Thompson. We have a comprehensive measure here pertaining to tax reform. It goes far beyond the original scope and object of this bill pertaining to a problem with hospitals. The amendment is declared out of order."

Mr. Smythe: "Mr. Speaker, I don't know on what basis you ruled, although I respect your judgment. This deals with the sales tax and sales tax exemptions. I don't know how it could fit better. This is not an income tax or tax reform. It deals with no reform of taxes. It deals with increases and exemptions of sales taxes. You didn't read the bill, and I'm sure we don't want the Reader to read all of it."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "What page is your tax rate on the sales tax?"

Mr. Smythe: "What page is the rate? You mean if it is too high, you won't rule for me? It goes up 1.7 to 6.7."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "That is what I thought. I think maybe your intention is good, Mr. Smythe. Certainly you have an increase in the sales tax along with some exemptions and it maybe doesn't fall within the realm of tax reform as we know it, but it certainly is a tax revision type of measure with a tax increase, and it goes beyond the original purpose entirely of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2841 which is a simple little bill trying to define retail sales relative to hospital laundry services. It widens the scope and object considerably from the original intention. Reed's Rule No. 160 states that any amendment of this nature which is not germane or relevant to the main proposition would not be in order."

Mr. Smythe: "Thank you for the research and consideration."

Mr. Van Dyk moved that the rules be suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2841 as amended by the House be placed on final passage.

Mr. Juelling demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

Representatives Thompson and Rabel spoke in favor of the motion by Mr. Van Dyk and Representative Smythe spoke against it.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Hoggins: "Mr. Speaker, the title of the bill contains the references for the B & O tax. The language of the bill relates to retail sales tax. If we put this language into the B & O section of the chapter, will this also make other exemptions in the B & O section apply--not within the intent of the legislature or the intent of the sponsors or friends of the bill? I think we have a technical problem with the bill, where we have a title dealing with RCW 82.04.050, which is the B & O section of the Revised Code of Washington. But the language talks about the retail sales, which is in a different chapter. So the friends of the bill, I think, have got a problem."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Without going into it in further detail, it appears the purpose of the act is to put this type of sale under the B & O classification, and not under the retail sales. This is the whole issue, to have the sales classified not as retail sales as such, but this type of transaction would come under the business and occupation tax classification. That is the purpose of the act."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Moon requested that Representative Thompson yield to question.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "We are on a suspension of the rules, and we have already permitted a discussion on the pros and cons of the argument."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to advance Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2841 as amended by the House, to third reading and final passage, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 57; nays, 38; not voting, 3.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

April 14, 1973

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has granted the request of the House for a conference on ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2306, and the President has appointed as members of the conference committee thereon: Senators Fleming, Murray and Talley.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2289, by Senators Durkan, Bailey and Newschwander:

Gives option to principals and assistant principals of joining together for separate employer-employee negotiations.

Committee on Education recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendment see Journal for thirty-fourth day, Ex. Sess., April 11, 1973.)

The bill was read the second time.

Mr. Bauer moved adoption of the committee amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Clemente: "Mr. Speaker, I would like to raise the question of scope and object of the committee amendment."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Will you explain your position, Mr. Clemente?"

Mr. Clemente: "I was on the Education Committee, and this bill has been with us for quite some time. If you look in your digest, the title is 'principals-employee organizations-members.' This pertains to a small, very select group of school employees. Then the committee amendment expands that to this definition: 'Certified employee means any employee of a school district holding a valid teachers' certificate,' which I think is an expansion far beyond the original intent of the bill."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Mr. Clemente, in connection with your point of order, it appears that this act pertains to certificated employees, which covers all classes of employees. Therefore, the House committee amendment goes into further parts of the bargaining and professional negotiations and the whole gamut of things. So it would appear that the amendment is in order. Your point of order is not well taken."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Bauer: "Mr. Speaker, I did not have an opportunity to speak on the committee amendment."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "We have an amendment to your committee amendment. We want to take care of that first."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Randall: "The amendment in front of us is to move this to Labor and Industries. He is discussing the entire body of the bill--the entire body of the amendment which we will address ourselves to as we move through it. I would feel that the comments should be related to the amendment in front of us, and that is whether or not we move this to Labor and Industries."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Mr. Bauer, will you hold your remarks as nearly as you can to the proposed amendment?"

Mr. Bauer concluded his remarks.

Mr. Hoggins spoke against adoption of the amendment to the amendment.

The amendment by Mr. Randall to the committee amendment was not adopted.

Mr. Randall moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 2, section 3, line 12 after "faith," strike "and to execute" and insert "with the objective of reaching"

Mr. Smythe demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Bauer spoke against adoption of the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Polk spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Ehlers: "Mr. Speaker, I don't believe Mr. Polk is speaking to the motion."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Your point of order is well taken. Mr. Polk, will you adhere your remarks to the amendment at hand?"

Mr. Polk: "Mr. Speaker, thank you. I was just about to confine myself."

Representatives Van Dyk, King and Warnke spoke in opposition to the amendment to the amendment, and Mr. Randall spoke again in favor of its adoption.

Mr. Ellis demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment by Mr. Randall to the committee amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2289, and the amendment to the amendment was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 31; nays, 61; not voting, 6.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 14, 1973

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 903 with the following amendments:

On page 3, following section 1, add an additional section as follows:

"Sec. 2. Section 29.64.030, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.64.030 are each amended to read as follows:

At the time and place fixed for making a recount of paper ballots, the canvassing board or their duly authorized representatives, in the presence of all witnesses who may be in attendance, shall open the sealed containers containing the ballots to be recounted, and shall recount them. Ballots shall be handled only by the members of the canvassing board, their duly authorized representatives or by the clerk or other employees of the board. Witnesses shall be permitted to see the ballots but they shall not be permitted to touch them, and the canvassing board shall not permit the counting or tabulation of votes shown on the ballots for any nomination, or for election to any office or position, or upon any question or proposition, other than the votes shown on such ballots for the nomination, election, or question or proposition concerning which a recount of ballots was applied for.

At the time and place fixed for making a recheck of the votes cast on voting machines the canvassing board or their duly authorized representatives in the presence of all witnesses who may be in attendance, shall open the voting machines to be rechecked, and shall recheck them. Witnesses shall be permitted to watch the recheck of the voting machines, and the canvassing board shall not permit the rechecking of votes for any nomination, or for election to any office or position, or upon any question or proposition, other than the votes shown on such voting machines for the nomination, election, or question or proposition concerning which a recount of voting machines was applied for.

At the time and place fixed for making a verification of the votes cast by punchcard ballots, the canvassing board or their duly authorized representatives in the presence of all witnesses who may be in attendance, shall select at random a number of precincts equal to five percent of the total number of such precincts or fifty of such precincts, whichever number is the smaller. The punchcard ballots cast at such precincts shall be manually counted by persons equally representing each major political party appointed by and under the direction of the county auditor or officer charged with the conduct of such election. If the total results of such manual count combined with the count of the applicable absentee, questioned, and challenged ballots involved can be reconciled within one-half of one percent of the official election returns for such precincts, and such difference would not change the outcome of the election, no further recount shall be made and the election returns as reported for the remaining punchcard voting precincts shall be deemed to have been verified. However, if the results of such manual recount cannot be so reconciled with the official returns, the county canvassing board shall direct that either:

(1) All the remaining punchcard ballots be manually counted or;

(2) A new computer program be prepared at county expense and subject to certification as provided by chapter 29.34 RCW and that all punchcard ballots voted at the election concerned be recounted by computer by use of such new program and the results of such count shall be deemed the final and official election returns.

At any time before the ballots from all of the precincts listed in the application for the recount have been recounted, the applicant may file with the board a written request to stop the recount and not recount the ballots from the precincts so listed and which have not been recounted prior to the time of such request: PROVIDED, That this provision shall not apply to a recount when a recount is being made of any regular or special district election whereat the precincts were consolidated and as a result thereof the application for a recount embraced all ballots cast at such election.

If, upon such request, the board finds that the results of the votes in the precincts recounted, if substituted for the results of the votes in such precincts as shown in the abstract of the votes in such precincts, would not cause the applicant, if a person for whom votes were cast for nomination or election, to be declared nominated or elected or if an election upon a question or proposition would not cause a result contrary to the result thereof as declared prior to such recount, it shall grant such request and shall not recount the ballots of the precincts listed in the application for recount which have not been recounted prior to such time. If the board finds otherwise, it may deny such request and shall continue to recount ballots until the ballots from all of the precincts listed in the application for recount have been recounted: PROVIDED, That if such request is denied it may be renewed from time to time. Upon any such renewal the board shall consider and act upon the request in the same manner as provided in this section in connection with an original request."

In line 1 of the title after "elections;" and before

"amending" strike "and"

In line 2 of the title after "29.34.160" and before the period insert "; and amending section 29.64.030, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.64.030" and the same is herewith transmitted.

Bill Gleason, Assistant Secretary.

Creating an organized crime intelligence unit.

The House resumed consideration of the bill on third reading.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Williams yielded to question by Mr. Charnley.

Mr. Charnley: "Representative Williams, you mentioned yesterday when we were discussing this, I think, about a proposed study in this area. I wonder if you could tell me: First, is there a study being planned, and what will it cover?"

Mr. Williams: "Thank you, Representative Charnley. If Substitute Senate Bill No. 2717 does pass--well, I should say, the language for the resolution which has been prepared for the House and the Senate and filed with the Chief Clerk and the Secretary of the Senate, states that the House State Government Committee, and, correspondingly, the Senate Judiciary Committee will in the interim study that particular bill with some of the thoughts in mind that there may be necessary changes, or further looking at the bill itself, during the interim."

Mr. Charnley: "If I could just ask you one further thing, Representative Williams: You said 'if the bill passes.' If the bill does not pass, there will not be this study conducted?"

Mr. Williams: "The language of the resolution states 'having passed.' However, that wouldn't preclude committees from working on that."

Mr. Charnley spoke against passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Williams yielded to question by Mr. Barden.

Mr. Barden: "Representative Williams, is it not true that if this bill fails to pass the federal funds will not be available to conduct the study?"

Mr. Williams: "The information that I have received from the State Patrol is that that would be correct."

Representatives Barden, Eikenberry, Charette and Kopet spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2717, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 85; nays, 8; not voting, 5.

THIRD READING

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2045, by Senators Scott and Marsh:

Providing for the determination of comparative negligence.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be the reconsideration of final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2045. (The bill passed the House on April 12, and the motion to reconsider was carried on April 13.)

MOTION

Mr. Eikenberry moved that the rules be suspended and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2045 be returned to second reading for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. Eikenberry spoke in favor of the motion.

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "I don't think the motion is that broad that it will enable you to go into the merits of the bill. I think you have to hold your remarks to the reasons why you are suspending the rules to move it back for the purpose of amendments."

Mr. Eikenberry: "Mr. Speaker, if I may, the purpose of going back to second reading is to amend the bill, and I would like to explain the amendment that will be offered in order that the body may then vote with knowledge as to why we are going back."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "I suppose you can state something briefly, but the primary purpose of suspending the rules is to put the bill back on second reading for the purpose of amendments, so it doesn't give you complete latitude to discuss the bill in all of its particulars. Go ahead."

Mr. Eikenberry concluded his remarks in favor of the motion.

Mr. Thompson demanded a Call of the House, and the demand was sustained.

CALL OF THE HOUSE

The Sergeant at Arms was instructed to lock the doors.

The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representatives Blair, Randall and Smythe.

On motion of Mr. Thompson, the absent members were excused and the House proceeded with business under the Call of the House.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be the motion by Mr. Eikenberry that the rules be suspended and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2045 be returned to second reading for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. Kelley spoke against the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Eikenberry: "Mr. Speaker, when I attempted to debate the merits of the bill and the merits of the proposed amendment, I was cut short. I am just wondering how long my opponent is going to be able to debate the point."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Mr. Eikenberry, I believe your point is well taken. House Rule No. 48 states as follows: 'A motion for suspension of the rules shall not be debatable, except, however, the mover of the motion may briefly explain the purpose of his motion, and one opponent to the motion may briefly explain his position'."

Mr. Kelley concluded his remarks in opposition to the motion.

Mr. Conner demanded an electric roll call, and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion by Mr. Eikenberry to suspend the rules and return Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2045 to second reading for the purpose of amendment, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 49; nays, 46; not voting, 3.

Voting yea: Representatives Amen, Bagnariol, Barden, Benitz, Berentson, Bluechel, Brown, Ceccarelli, Charette, Conner, Cunningham, Curtis, Eikenberry, Flanagan, Freeman, Garrett, Gilleland, Hansey, Hayner, Hendricks, Hoggins, Jueling, Julin, Kalich, Kopet, Kraabel, Kuehnle, Leckenby, Luders, Martinis, Matthews, Morrison, Nelson, Newhouse, North L., Pardini, Paris, Parker, Patterson, Polk, Pullen, Rabel, Schumaker, Sommers, Swayze, Tilly, Warnke, Wilson, Zimmerman.

Not voting: Representatives Blair, Randall, Smythe.

MOTION

Mr. Eikenberry moved that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2045 be rereferred to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. Eikenberry spoke in favor of the motion, and Mr. Smith spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Pardini: "Would Mr. Smith yield to question, Mr. Speaker?"

Mr. Smith refused to yield to question.

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "I wanted to refer the House members, or those who are involved with the debate, to Reed's Rule 120. We have let the debate go a little farther afield than actually the rules provide. You are not supposed to go into the merits of the main question on this motion to commit."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Eikenberry yielded to question by Mr. Pardini.

Mr. Pardini: "Mr. Eikenberry, Mr. Smith said that the case you gave in your argument was very unlikely, but something like that could happen. I am not an attorney. Mr. Smith used the word 'unlikely.' I am not concerned about unlikely. I am concerned if it is 'possible' that it could happen in a jury trial."

Mr. Eikenberry: "It is not only possible, it has happened. I would elaborate on that by pointing out that this is possible in only two states that have this Mississippi full-blown approach. The rest of the states using comparative negligence have the more limited Wisconsin approach."

Mr. Kelley spoke against the motion by Mr. Eikenberry, and Mr. Eikenberry spoke again in favor of it.

Mr. Smythe appeared at the bar of the House.

The motion by Mr. Eikenberry to rerefer Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2045 to the Committee on Rules was lost on a rising vote.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2045.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2045, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 68; nays, 29; not voting, 1.

Voting nay: Representatives Amen, Bagnariol, Barden, Benitz, Bluechel, Brown, Ceccarelli, Charette, Cunningham, Curtis, Eikenberry, Flanagan, Freeman, Garrett, Amending the Constitution to provide for annual sessions.

Mr. Brown moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Brown and King:

Strike all of the House committee amendment, and on page 1, line 3 of the Resolution after "THAT," insert "At the next general election to be held in this state there shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the state for their approval and ratification, or rejection, the following amendment to Article II, section 12 of the Constitution of the State of Washington, to read as follows:

Article II, section 12. ((The first legislature shall meet on the first Wednesday after the first Monday in November; A.D.; 1889; The second legislature shall meet on the first Wednesday after the first Monday in January; A.D.; 1894; and sessions of the legislature shall be held biennially thereafter; unless specially convened by the governor; but the times of meeting of subsequent sessions may be changed by the legislature. After the first legislature the sessions shall not be more than sixty days-)) (1) Regular Sessions. A regular session of the legislature shall be convened each year on such day and at such time as the legislature shall determine by statute. During each odd-numbered year, the regular session shall not be more than ninety consecutive days. During each even-numbered year, the regular session shall not be more than sixty consecutive days.

(2) Interim Regular Sessions. The Legislature may provide for interim regular sessions to be convened between regular sessions at such time and on such days as the legislature shall determine. The total number of days of the interim regular session shall not exceed nine days during any period of three consecutive months.

(3) Special Legislative Sessions. Special legislative sessions may be convened for a period of not more than thirty consecutive days by proclamation of the governor pursuant to Article III, section 7 of this Constitution or may be convened for a period of not more than thirty consecutive days by resolution of the legislature upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds of all the members elected or appointed to each house of the legislature, which vote may be taken and resolution executed either while the legislature is in session or during any interim between sessions in accordance with such procedures as the legislature may provide by law or resolution. Such resolution shall specify a purpose or purposes for the convening of a special session, and any special session convened by such resolution shall consider only measures germane to the purpose or purposes expressed therein, unless by resolution adopted during such session by a two-thirds vote of the members of each house an additional purpose or purposes be expressed. The specification of purpose by the governor pursuant to Article III, section 7 of this Constitution shall be considered by the legislature but shall not be mandatory.

The first regular session of the legislature to be held pursuant to this amendment shall commence on the second Monday of January in the year following the approval by the voters of this amendment.

(4) Committees of the Legislature. Standing or special committees of the legislature shall meet and conduct official business pursuant to such rules as the legislature may adopt.

Mr. Conner demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

Representatives Brown and North (Frances) spoke against the amendment to the amendment.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. King yielded to question by Mr. Julin.

Mr. Julin: "Representative King, the section we are dealing with says that 'The Legislature may provide for interim regular sessions.' How does it provide for interim regular sessions? How are they convened? You have a specific procedure in the balance of the resolution to provide for a call by a two-thirds of the majority of both Houses, but in this section there is no provision whatsoever for this term interim regular session and how it will be called."

Mr. King: "I'm not positive. I presume they can be called in the same way we set up the interim committees--that is, by concurrent resolution of both Houses of the Legislature. Could I ask if that is Representative Brown's interpretation of this also?"

Mr. Brown: "There hasn't been a specific procedure set up, that is true, Mr. Julin. It seems to me that what we are talking about here is a schedule which would be set up by resolution just as we have done in the past in scheduling future activities. However, I think what this is intended to do is leave up to this body the details of working that out and determining precisely how to do it."

Representatives Barden and Julin spoke in favor of the amendment by Mr. Pullen to the amendment by Representatives Brown and King to Engrossed Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 105, and Representatives Kilbury and King spoke against it.

Mr. Barden demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

On motion of Mr. Conner, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Substitute Senate Bill No. 2739 was placed on final passage.

Mr. Goltz spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

Mr. Rabel: "Section 2 of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2739 states that 'Student activity fees, student building use fees, special student fees or other similar fees...pledged for the payment of bonds heretofore or hereafter issued...shall be included within and deemed to be services and activities fees.' Is this language intended to include the student association fee which was authorized when we passed House Bill No. 820?"

Mr. Kraabel: "No, Representative Rabel, it is not. House Bill No. 820 amended RCW 28B.15.610 which states that the provisions of chapter 15 of Title 28B do not apply to or affect any student fee or charge which the students voluntarily maintain upon themselves for student purposes. SENATE AMENDMENT TO HOUSE RESOLUTION

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 37 with the following amendment:

On page 3, line 8 strike "property" and insert "capital property as defined by the legislature" and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTIONS

Mr. Charette moved that the House do not concur in the Senate amendment to Engrossed House Joint Resolution No. 37, and that the Senate be asked to recede therefrom.

Mr. Swayze moved that the House do concur in the Senate amendment to Engrossed House Joint Resolution No. 37.

Mr. Swayze spoke in favor of the motion.

Mr. Thompson demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Swayze yielded to question by Mr. Moon.

Mr. Moon: "Representative Swayze, has either the term 'property' or the term 'capital property' been defined in Senate Bill No. 2247, the implementing bill that passed this House and has passed the Senate?"

Mr. Swayze: "I cannot answer that for sure. The only term that I can recall being defined (and that is because we amended the definition) was the term 'capital asset' which is frequently used throughout that statute. But capital asset is a type of property, Representative

Moon, and if they can define that type of property, they can define any other type of property under either the House or the Senate language, in my opinion."

Mr. Moon: "I would agree. I have read the statute fairly thoroughly, and capital asset has been defined. But neither the term 'property' nor the term 'capital property' has been defined, and I think it is important that either of these be defined before we pass on anything as important as this."

Mr. Swayze: "Yes, I think we should take care of that in September."

Mr. Charette discussed the Senate amendment.

Representatives Julin, Charnley and Smith spoke in favor of the motion to concur in the Senate amendment, and Representatives Moon, Kuehnle and Barden spoke against it.

Mr. Conner demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion by Mr. Swayze to concur in the Senate amendment to Engrossed House Joint Resolution No. 37, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 72; nays, 26; not voting, 0.

Voting yea: Representatives Adams, Amen, Anderson, Bauer, Beck, Bender, Blair, Bluechel, Brown, Ceccarelli, Charette, Charnley, Chatalas, Clemente, Conner, Curtis, Douthwaite, Ehlers, Eikenberry, Ellis, Eng, Erickson, Flanagan, Fortson, Gaines, Gallagher, Goltz, Haussler, Hoggins, Jastad, Johnson, Julin, Kalich, Kelley, Kilbury, King, Knowles, Kraabel, Laughlin, Leckenby, Luders, Lysen, Martinis, Matthews, Maxie, May, Morrison, Nelson, North F., North L., O'Brien, Paris, Parker, Patterson, Perry, Rabel, Randall, Savage, Shipoch, Smith, Smythe, Sommers, Swayze, Thompson, Tilly, Valle, Van Dyk, Warnke, Williams, Wilson, Wojahn, Zimmerman.

FINAL PASSAGE OF HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION AS AMENDED BY SENATE

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be the final passage of Engrossed House Joint Resolution No. 37 as amended by the Senate.

Mr. Conner demanded an oral roll call and the demand was sustained.

The Speaker assumed the Chair.

Mr. Moon spoke against passage of the resolution.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker: "Mr. Moon, I wish to draw the attention of the House to the fact that the point you made would be valid concerning the effective dates in the implementing statute, but this was an error that was made in engrossing. It was brought to our attention, and we did correct it. The effective dates should both be the same--January 1, 1975."

Mr. Moon: "The copy I have of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2247 has two different implementing dates."

The Speaker: "When the error was brought to our attention we did correct it, Representative Moon. It was an error in drafting, and we went back to the original drafter, Lee Collins, to check it."

Mr. Moon: "I certainly hope we don't find any more errors."

The Speaker: "We wish to apologize to the House, since we didn't catch it until the bill had been printed."

Mr. Moon continued his remarks in opposition to the resolution.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Douthwaite: "Representative Moon is speaking to the implementing bill. We are about ready to vote on the Joint Resolution. I wish we could get to it."

The Speaker: "I think the point of order is well taken. Representative Moon, we are discussing the constitutional amendment, although your points are well taken when we get to the implementing bill."

Mr. Swayze discussed the implementing statute.

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker: "Representative Swayze, I think your remarks are totally out of order, because I just ruled down Mr. Moon."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Joint Resolution No. 37 as amended by the Senate, and the resolution passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 72; nays, 26; not voting, 0.

Mr. Charette: "May I ask a further question? At that salary, do these county commissioners feel they will be able to get the services of a prosecuting attorney?"

LUDLOW KRAMER, Secretary of State of the State of Washington and custodian of its seal, hereby certify that according to the records on file in my office attached is a true and correct copy of ENROLLED SENATE BILL NO. 2459 as passed by the Legislature of the State of Washington in the 1973 Regular Session, and approved into law by the Governor with the exception of Section 11 which he vetoed.

I further certify that this Act is now identified as Chapter 134, Laws of 1973 and, because of the emergency clause contained in Section 12, became effective upon approval of the Governor as of March 20, 1973.

In witness whereof I have signed and have affixed the seal of the State of Washington to this certificate at Olympia, the State Capitol, March 21, 1973.
(SEAL) Kenneth N. Gilbert, Deputy Secretary.

March 20, 1973

TO THE HONORABLE,
THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON
(Through the Secretary of State)
GENTLEMEN:

I am returning herewith without my approval as to one section SENATE BILL NO. 2459 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to domestic relations."

This bill creates rights and processes relating to the custody of children, which recognizes that neither parent may be absolutely barred from custody of a child. The necessity for this legislation arises from the decisional law of the U.S. Supreme Court, which has held that the fact of nonmarriage between parents is not sufficient grounds to deny a father all chance of having custody of his children.

As a direct consequence of the decision of the Supreme Court, fathers must now be given adequate notice of proceedings, within the meaning of the due process clause of the Constitution, when their illegitimate children are put up for adoption. Failure to give such notice can mean that adoptive parents may lose their child at some point in the future if the parent who was not notified attacks the adoption in court. The processes and procedures provided for in this act are designed to render as secure as possible any adoption which is finalized in a legal manner.

Section ten of the act further provides that a parent who successfully attacks an adoption to obtain custody of the adoptive child must pay the adoptive parents all direct and indirect costs of child support which the adoptive parents had previously incurred. Section eleven provides that, before a natural parent may file suit to obtain custody of his child from adoptive parents, he must file a bond in the amount of $100 a month for every month the adoptive parents had custody of the child, such bond to be security for any damages which might be adjudged under section ten. Section eleven clearly discriminates against those persons who have insufficient resources to obtain the bond, preventing those persons from even getting into a court to test the merits of their claim. The random impact of such a provision, denying only those who have limited resources full access to the courts, deters the basic function of the judicial system, to decide the issues of a law suit on its merits. Accordingly, I have determined to veto section eleven for the reasons set forth above.

With the exception of section eleven, I have approved Senate Bill No. 2459.

Respectfully submitted,
DANIEL J. EVANS,
Governor.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Curtis: "Mr. Speaker, will you explain the implication of the vote on this please?"

The Speaker: "A vote 'aye' means that you are overriding the Governor's veto. A vote 'no' means you are sustaining his veto, and it takes a two-thirds majority vote."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2459, notwithstanding the Governor's partial veto, and the bill was passed by the following vote: Yeas, 79; nays, 19; not voting, 0.

April 14, 1973

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 498 with the following amendment:

On page 8, following section 2, add a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. SECRETARY OF STATE SPECIAL APPROPRIATION. General Fund Appropriation to the secretary of state to transmit, by mail with postage fully prepaid, one copy of substitute senate bill 2247 as amended, to each individual place of residence in the state six weeks prior to the next general election and to make such additional distribution as deemed necessary: PROVIDED, That engrossed House joint resolution 37, or a similar constitutional amendment, is to be voted on by the people.....$110,000"

Renumber the remaining section and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

Mr. Bagnariol moved that the House concur in the Senate amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 498.

Mr. Bagnariol spoke in favor of the motion, and Representatives Swayze and Charnley spoke against it.

Mr. Bagnariol spoke again in favor of the motion.

Representatives Kopet and Julin spoke against the motion to concur in the Senate amendment, and Representative Moon spoke in favor of it.

Mr. Pardini demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

Representatives Charette and Fortson spoke in favor of the motion by Mr. Bagnariol, and Representatives Amen, Curtis and Smythe spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Charette yielded to question by Mr. Morrison.

Mr. Morrison: "Representative Charette, as I recall the discussion when we were talking about the implementing bill here on the floor, there were some possibilities that that bill might be modified during our September session. Do you recall that indication, and is that true?"

Mr. Charette: "I do recall, and it is true."

Mr. Morrison: "Then Representative Charette, could you tell me what the date of that September session is, as now set up in the legislation which both Houses have passed?"

Mr. Charette: "I don't know--some time in September, Mr. Morrison. I'm sorry I haven't read that, but the early part of September, I guess."

Mr. Morrison: "I thought the closing date was September 23. Am I wrong? We've had so many dates."

Mr. Charette: "It may be, but it seems to me that poses no problem with the computer mailing list and dissemination of information by the secretary of state, even if it went out four or five days ahead of time."

Mr. Morrison: "The question was, as I read the bill now, it specifies 'six weeks.' As we have counted back from the November election, we find that we will still be in session here six weeks prior to the November election, and we were concerned. We would support this measure going into conference, believing that a digest of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2247 being sent to the public is sufficient--in fact, preferable, to this particular--the large heavy copy of the bill which all of us have had to struggle with. And also we may want to make modifications in September, and I think the language as it is now is prohibitive in both areas."

Mr. Charette: "I don't really think that would pose any problem. There are two parts--the amendments that we might make in September seem to me would be insignificant because they would concern themselves with rather technical descriptions of property. The second point is that I don't think that we should delegate the authority for making that digest to someone, unless we really know what is going to be in the digest."

Mr. Morrison spoke against the motion by Mr. Bagnariol to concur in the Senate amendment, and Mr. Chatalas spoke in favor of it.

Mr. Bagnariol closed debate, speaking again in favor of the motion.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion by Mr. Bagnariol to concur in the Senate amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 498, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 55; nays, 41; not voting, 2.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Thompson, the House advanced to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2600, by Committee on State Government (Originally sponsored by Senators Rasmussen and Walgren - by Liquor Control Board request):

Enacting the liquor board omnibus act.

The bill was read the second time.

Mr. Rabel moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Perry and Rabel:

On page 6, section 9, beginning on line 18 strike all of subsection (c) and insert

"((c) A person who has been convicted of a felony within five years prior to filing his application;))"

Renumber the remaining subsections consecutively

Representatives Rabel and Perry spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representatives Newhouse and Wojahn spoke against it.

Mr. Pardini demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Rabel yielded to question by Mr. Parker.

Mr. Parker: "Representative Rabel, as I understand the original bill that we passed in the committee, much of the testimony was that a large part of the problem that many convicted felons have is getting a job. So let's assume for a second that a convicted felon came out and maybe got set up in business in a store. Does he have to get a license then to sell packaged beverages, like beer, etc., in that store? And if so, would this preclude him from doing that?"

Mr. Rabel: "Representative Parker, it is my understanding that the section as it exists would automatically prohibit the granting of any license. And the ex-felon, as a grocery store operator selling beer and wine for consumption elsewhere, would not be permitted to do so, since he would not be able to be considered for a license because of this provision."

Mr. Parker spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment by Representatives Perry and Rabel, and Mr. Newhouse spoke again in opposition to it.

Mr. Douthwaite spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Eikenberry spoke against it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment by Representatives Perry and Rabel to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2600, and the amendment was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 53; not voting, 7.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2741, by Committee on Transportation and Utilities (Originally sponsored by Senators Guess, Washington and Henry):

Relating to the regulation of vehicle dealers.

The bill was read the second time.

On motion of Mr. Conner, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Substitute Senate Bill No. 2741 was placed on final passage.

Mr. Beck spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Beck yielded to question by Mr. Kuehnle.

Mr. Kuehnle: "Representative Beck, I don't really think that your description of the bill covered everything that seems to be included in this bill. It is the first time I have seen it, and I was just sitting here thumbing through it, and I find a section in here on page 30 that troubles me. On page 30, line 6 of the bill, it says that it is illegal for a manufacturer of motor vehicles: 'To provide under the terms of any warranty that a purchaser of any new or unused vehicle that has been sold, distributed for sale, or transferred into this state for resale by the vehicle manufacturer that any warranty claim on any item included as an integral part of the vehicle may only be made against the manufacturer of that item'."

Mr. Beck: "That is to take care of a mobile home that has been sold on the secondhand market. Now what section 18 does--it deletes motor from the phrase 'motor vehicle' where it is used in any of our statutes. It makes other nonsubstantive language changes, and it makes it unlawful for a manufacturer to provide under the terms of the warranty that the purchaser may only make warranty claims on any item included as an integral part of the vehicle against the manufacturer at that time."

Mr. Kuehnle: "Well, does that mean, Representative Beck, that if I buy one of these vehicles and it has a warranty and I have some problems with it, that the only one I can go to for adjustment of that warranty is the manufacturer and that I have no recourse against the dealer?"

Mr. Beck: "It exempts the manufacturer--it makes the dealer responsible then. The dealer is not required to have the bond like the manufacturer is. Manufacturers cannot be responsible for a secondhand vehicle."

Mr. Kuehnle: "Well I submit, Representative Beck, that the language in that subsection (f) would indicate that the only recourse you have is against the manufacturer and that you therefore do not have any recourse against the dealer."

Mr. Beck: "Well, Jim, you can read it as good as I can. I have explained to you what I thought it meant. If that isn't correct, and you don't like it, vote against it."

Mr. Kuehnle spoke against passage of the bill, and Mr. Laughlin spoke in favor of it.

Mr. Barden spoke in favor of the portion of the bill discussed by Representative Kuehnle.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Beck yielded to question by Mr. Randall.

Mr. Randall: "A little earlier in the session, I had communication from a dealer in my district concerned about the chances that the dealer's plates were going to skyrocket in cost to the dealer. On page 11, I see a reference to this, where it says: 'The fee for vehicle dealer license plates and manufacturer license plates shall be the amount required by law for vehicle license plates exclusive of excise tax and gross weight.' Will you tell me if this in fact is going to limit the dealer's current ability to receive license plates at the fee he now receives them at, or limit the total that he can get?"

Mr. Beck: "Bob, this bill provides three different classes of dealer plates for the purposes of providing special dealer plates, matched to the legitimate business requirements for the three classes of districts which are created. In addition to providing for these three districts (three dealer plates) all the other license fees have been increased to the basic license fees paid by all vehicles--$9.40. It makes three different classes of dealers there."

Mr. Randall: "I think you answered me then. If I am right, the current cost for a dealer's license plate so he can sell his merchandise on his lot, and allow it to hit the street and allow the person to try it out is $5.00. This apparently is going to double the cost of that, and in addition to that, I think it limits it to how many he can have without going over that fee. Before I can vote for this bill, I've got to know what is in it. I am not on that committee, but I am terribly suspicious that what we are doing here is doubling the license cost for the dealer's plates. And I'd like an answer to it."

Mr. Beck: "Bob, in section 7, it spells out exactly what it is: 'The fees for original licenses issued for a calendar year or any portion thereof pursuant to this chapter shall be : (a) Vehicle dealers, principal place of business for each and every license classification: Fifty dollars;' (That's for an original licensed dealer there, for his principal place of business.) Then it goes down to vehicle manufacturer, who has a $50.00 fee, the subagency has a $10.00 fee, and the salesman has a $10.00 fee. It is spelled out right there on page 10, section 7."

MOTION

Mr. Kuehnle moved that the House defer further consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2741 and that it be placed at the bottom of today's third reading calendar.

Mr. Beck stated he had no objection to the motion.

Mr. Ehlers spoke against the motion to defer consideration of the bill, and Representatives Randall and Charette spoke in favor of the motion.

The motion by Mr. Kuehnle was carried.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2099, by Committee on Ways and Means (Originally sponsored by Senators Bottiger, Murray and Grant):

Authorizing a fire protection district service charge.

The bill was read the second time.

On motion of Mr. Conner, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2099 was placed on final passage.

Ms. Sommers spoke in favor of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Bagnariol yielded to question by Mr. Ceccarelli.

Mr. Ceccarelli: "Representative Bagnariol, does the proviso in Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2099, beginning on line 17 and ending on line 24, exempt all public and nonpublic schools including K-12 and institutions of higher learning?"

Mr. Bagnariol: "Yes, it does, Representative Ceccarelli. The reason for the question is to make sure it is in the Journal. There is some potential problem with the words 'including schools,' so we just wanted to make sure that we cleared up, in the Journal, that that is the intent of the legislation."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Sommers yielded to question by Mr. Zimmerman.

Mr. Zimmerman: "In this new feature of this bill--do you consider this is perhaps a complete change of the idea of general purpose government as to special service government, in terms of this kind of a service charge? I mean, do you think that we should make a service charge for police departments, for those who live closest to the police department or that the library people who live closest should have a special service charge?"

Ms. Sommers: "I think that the drafters or the sponsors of this bill were strictly concerned about fire protection districts and their funding problems, and that was their only intent here. That is my understanding, but I would have to check with them for further clarification."

Mr. Zimmerman: "Is there a possibility of the fact that the person who lives closest to the fire department who never would be using it at all would thereby be paying considerably more than the man who is out at the end of the line and who might have a fire every three years? Is there some possibility that you run into some rather peculiar circumstances as far as the funding that you are talking about in terms of the service charge just because of your being close to the fire hall?"

Ms. Sommers: "There is a hearing procedure for review of the rates and an appeals board. So hopefully, that would take care of that kind of a problem."

Mr. Zimmerman spoke against the bill.

Representatives Ehlers, Haussler and Kuehnle spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Representative Pardini spoke against it.

Mr. Anderson demanded the previous question, and the demand was not sustained.

Mr. Moon spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Kuehnle yielded to question by Mrs. North (Lois).

Mrs. North (Lois): "Mr. Kuehnle, as I read this bill, this would enable fire districts to double the amount of income that they now can tap. They are limited to one mill, and this says very carefully that the additional amount shall go up to one more additional mill. You have raised a very interesting philosophical point. You just stated that you thought the special levies were an unfair method of financing fire districts. If you carry that through, you are really saying that the property tax is an unfair method of financing fire districts. Now most of us on the Local Government Committee had always assumed that property tax was a logical way to fund police protection--fire protection, because it enhances the value of the property. And yet you are pointing to something quite different, and I must admit that I am intrigued because you are really pointing up that the basis of taxing people should be in proportion to the service they are going to receive. The closer he is to the fire district and the fire equipment, the more service he is getting and the guy way out in the boondoggles who isn't going to get much help very quickly, should really be paying less. And I guess I really want you to comment on this because you have shaken me up. I always thought the property tax was a fair and justified system for financing fire districts."

Mr. Kuehnle: "Well, I think everything you said is true. The land taxation or property taxation most certainly is more equitable in the case of fire protection or police protection, for example, than it is in other areas. And we can certainly equate a relationship between property taxation and value received in the case of such things as fire protection. We can equate this much more readily than we can, for example, in the case of libraries. So, therefore, a basic level of fire protection on property taxes is essentially fair, although this new concept is even more fair. And I think what we are saying is that if the basic millage that the fire districts have available to them is not enough to do the job, then it is more fair to go this route than it is to go to a special levy. It is more fair to tax those who are benefited more by upgrading the quality of the fire department than it is just to carte blanche charge everybody in that fire protection district the same amount of money in terms of millage regardless of the extent to which they have benefited by the dollar expenditures for upgrading the department."

Mrs. North (Lois): "I appreciate your comments. I want to ask you one further question. For a special levy, is it not true that the election requirements are much more strict to meet and to validate than in this bill where it is a simple majority vote of the voters to then go into this new field of taxation?"

Mr. Kuehnle: "I think the answer to that is 'yes.' There is a possibility of an abuse here, although frankly, on the basis of my experience, the fire commissioners who are elected by the people and who are very close to the people, and are very accountable to the people, are doing a very good and very responsive job. These are unpaid positions, and I frankly, in most instances, think they are doing a commendable job. The provisions that are built into this bill for an annual review of this procedure, complaint procedures, provisions to handle complaints, to provide equity, I think guarantee a degree of protection although I cannot argue with the point that you are trying to make that the degree of protection is not available here to quite the extent that it is under the 60-40 requirements of a special levy. But it doesn't worry me."

Representatives North (Lois) and Flanagan spoke against passage of the bill, and Representative Anderson spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Haussler yielded to question by Mr. Douthwaite.

Mr. Douthwaite: "I know we want to support the fire districts, but basically I want to ask you about the need here to change the structure of the elections which we presently have. I understand that presently if more money is necessary for fire protection, we simply can run a special levy election, which as Representative North has said requires a sixty percent plurality. Why is it necessary for us to change--to go to this type of a system? Why can't we simply continue to operate under the old system?"

Mr. Haussler: "Well, Mr. Douthwaite, you are asking for them to do something every year, and this way we could do it at one time. And as long as the people are willing to vote for it, they would have it. There are other things that enter into this. Vacant land. Naturally people won't have to pay on this. I can't see anything wrong with just a majority in areas of farm land. This is mostly what this is. So I really think that the way this is written, there is nothing wrong with it."

Representatives Douthwaite and Brown spoke against passage of the bill.

Mr. Newhouse demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2614 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

Mr. Thompson moved that the Rules Committee be relieved of the following bills and that they be placed on the second reading calendar in the following order: ENGROSSED SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 108; ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2146; SENATE BILL NO. 2353; SENATE BILL NO. 2570; ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2085; SENATE BILL NO. 2890.

The motion was carried.

On motion of Mr. Thompson, the House advanced to the seventh order of business.

MOTION

Mr. Thompson moved that the Rules Committee be relieved of the following bills and that they be placed on the third reading calendar in the following order: ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2425 as amended by the House; ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2598 as amended by the House; and ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2841 as amended by the House.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Pardini: "Is it possible that Representative Thompson could give us short titles on these bills if he has them handy?"

Mr. Thompson: "Senate Bill No. 2425 is the write-in voting bill. Senate Bill No. 2598 is the department of natural resources land development bill. And Senate Bill No. 2841 deals with hospital laundries."

Mr. Charette: "I might add that this is the list of bills that the leadership on both sides have agreed on to be considered."

The motion was carried on a rising vote.

THIRD READING

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2425 as amended by the House, by Senators Odegaard, Grant and Henry:

Implementing the law relating to write-in-voting at primaries and general elections.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Mr. Laughlin spoke in favor of the bill.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Swayze: "My point of order, Mr. Speaker, is that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2425 is not properly before this body. Rule 81 provides: 'That a majority of members elected to the House may require a committee to report a bill back to the House during the order of business at which it may be considered.' The vote on the motion was 47 'aye' and 37 'nay.' The bill is not properly before this body."

Mr. Charette demanded a Call of the House, and the demand was sustained.

CALL OF THE HOUSE

The Sergeant at Arms was instructed to lock the doors.

The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representative Paris.

On motion of Mr. Conner, the absent member was excused, and the House proceeded with business under the Call of the House.

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "The question before the House at the time the Call of the House was ordered was the point of order raised by Mr. Swayze in connection with Senate Bill No. 2425 being rereferred from the Rules Committee without a majority of the members elected to the House supporting such a motion. Mr. Swayze's point is well taken. House Rule 81 states: 'That a majority of members elected to the House may require a committee to report a bill back to the House during the order of business at which it may be considered.' It would appear that we had a majority vote of 47 that ordered that the Rules Committee be relieved of Senate Bill No. 2425. Therefore, Senate Bill No. 2425 is not properly before us at this time. The point of order is well taken."

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2741, by Committee on Transportation and Utilities (Originally sponsored by Senators Guess, Washington and Henry):

Relating to the regulation of vehicle dealers.

The House resumed consideration of the bill.

Representatives Beck and Kuehnle spoke in favor of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2741, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 89; nays, 8; not voting, 1.

Voting nay: Representatives Amen, Barden, Bausch, Gallagher, Kuehnle, Schumaker, Tilly, Warnke.

Not voting: Representative Paris.

Substitute Senate Bill No. 2741, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

Mr. Thompson moved that the Rules Committee be relieved of the following bills and that they be placed on the third reading calendar in the following order: ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2425 as amended by the House; ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2598 as amended by the House; ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2841 as amended by the House; and SENATE BILL NO. 2036.

Mr. Charette demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion by Mr. Thompson, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 61; nays, 36; not voting, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Adams, Anderson, Bagnariol, Bauer, Bausch, Beck, Bender, Ceccarelli, Charette, Charnley, Chatalas, Clemente, Conner, Douthwaite, Ehlers, Ellis, Eng, Erickson, Fortson, Gaines, Gallagher, Gaspard, Gilleland, Goltz, Hansen, Haussler, Hendricks, Hurley, Jastad, Johnson, Kalich, Kelley, Kilbury, King, Knowles, Kraabel, Laughlin, Luders, Lysen, Martinis, Maxie, May, McCormick, Moon, North F., O'Brien, Parker, Perry, Rabel, Randall, Savage, Shinpoch, Smith, Sommers, Thompson, Valle, Van Dyk, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, and Mr. Speaker.

Voting nay: Representatives Amen, Barden, Benitz, Berentson, Blair, Bluechel, Brown, Cunningham, Curtis, Eikenberry, Flanagan, Freeman, Garrett, Hansey, Hayner, Hoggins, Juelling, Julin, Kopet, Kuehnle, Leckenby, Matthews, Morrison, Nelson, Newhouse, North L., Pardini, Patterson, Polk, Pullen, Schumaker, Smythe, Swayze, Tilly, Wilson, Zimmerman.

Not voting: Representative Paris.

THIRD READING

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2425 as amended by the House, by Senators Odegaard, Grant and Henry:

Implementing the law relating to write-in-voting at primaries and general elections.

The bill was read the third time.

Mr. Laughlin spoke in favor of the bill, and Mr. Zimmerman spoke against it.

Mr. Laughlin spoke again in favor of the bill, and Mr. Brown spoke against it.

Mr. Kalich spoke in favor of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Laughlin yielded to question by Mr. Douthwaite.

Mr. Douthwaite: "I take it the intent here is that if one ran in a primary and lost, then he could not write himself in to run again in the general, if he had lost in the primary."

Mr. Laughlin: "I feel I would have to yield to someone who knows the laws better than I do. I wouldn't want to answer it because I really don't know."

Mr. Douthwaite spoke against passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2425 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 54; nays, 43; not voting, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Adams, Anderson, Bagnariol, Bauer, Bausch, Beck, Bender, Ceccarelli, Charette, Chatalas, Clemente, Conner, Ehlers, Ellis, Eng, Erickson, Fortson, Gaines, Gallagher, Gaspard, Goltz, Hansen, Haussler, Hurley, Jastad, Johnson, Kalich, Kelley, Kilbury, King, Knowles, Laughlin, Leckenby, Luders, Lysen, Martinis, Maxie, McCormick, Moon, North F., O'Brien, Parker, Perry, Pullen, Savage, Shinpoch, Smith, Thompson, Valle, Van Dyk, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, and Mr. Speaker.

Voting nay: Representatives Amen, Barden, Benitz, Berentson, Blair, Bluechel, Brown, Charnley, Cunningham, Curtis, Douthwaite, Eikenberry, Flanagan, Freeman, Garrett, Gilleland, Hansey, Hayner, Hendricks, Hoggins, Jueling, Julin, Kopet, Kraabel, Kuehnle, Matthews, May, Morrison, Nelson, Newhouse, North L., Pardini, Patterson, Polk, Rabel, Randall, Schumaker, Smythe, Sommers, Swayze, Tilly, Wilson, Zimmerman.

ROLL CALL

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 15, 1973

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 933 with the following amendments:

On line 2 of the title strike "and" and on line 4 after "18.71.030" and before the period insert "; and adding a new section to chapter 18.71 RCW"

On page 2, immediately following section 1, add a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 18.71 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A right to practice medicine and surgery by a Canadian physician in this state pursuant to section 1 of this 1973 amendatory act shall be revocable by order of the director of the department of motor vehicles upon a finding by the director of an act of unprofessional conduct as defined in RCW 18.72.030. Such physicians shall have the same rights of notice, hearing and judicial review as provided licensed physicians generally pursuant to chapter 18.72 RCW."

On page 2, add the following paragraph to the Day/Clarke amendment adding a new section 2:

"Notwithstanding any other provision of law and subject to the provisions relating to revocation under chapter 18.88 RCW and chapter 18.25 RCW respectively, chiropractors and nurses licensed to practice in Canada or any province or territory thereof shall have a right to practice in any part of this state which shares a common border with Canada and which is surrounded on three sides by water."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Bill Gleason, Assistant Secretary.

MOTIONS

On motion of Mr. Adams, the House concurred in the Senate title amendment and the amendment adding a new section 2 to Engrossed House Bill No. 933.

Mr. Adams moved that the House do not concur in the third Senate amendment to Engrossed House Bill No. 933 and that the Senate be asked to recede therefrom.

The motion was carried.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Eikenberry: "Maybe I missed it. I didn't hear the vote on the second motion, and I am interested as to whether we have adopted that amendment."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "The motion carried. Dr. Adams moved that the House do not concur in the third Senate amendment to the bill and ask the Senate to recede therefrom. The motion carried."

THIRD READING

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2841 as amended by the House, by Senator Fleming:

Providing a sales tax exemption for hospital laundry services.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Mr. Randall spoke in favor of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Randall yielded to question by Mr. Smythe.

Mr. Smythe: "Mr. Randall, if this subsidy bill passes, how much is the subsidy going to amount to as you see it?"

Mr. Randall: "First of all, I take exception to the question because it is not a subsidy bill. They are not being taxed now at that rate, so it is not a subsidy. It will continue at the current rate, that's all."

Mr. Smythe: "All right, how much are we talking about the state not receiving in sales tax?"

Mr. Randall: "To increase the tax rate on this particular entity--to increase it to create a new tax impact--I think it was in the nature of (I don't see it here, but I'll say it off the top of my head) around $110,000 or $115,000."

Mr. Smythe: "Does that relate only to hospitals that you are concerned with at the moment in King County, that you are aware of? Because you don't know how many others would qualify at the moment--right?"

Mr. Randall: "That is right, all nonprofit hospitals which have developed a nonprofit entity to do this work."

Mr. Smythe: "Can I ask you another question, please? In Clark County we have two nonprofit hospitals. One is St. Joseph's and the other is Vancouver. They presently contract with private enterprise to do their laundry services. Do they qualify under this bill?"

Mr. Randall: "No."

Mr. Smythe spoke against passage of the bill, and Mr. Moon spoke in favor of it.

Mr. Randall spoke again in favor of the bill.

Mr. Douthwaite demanded the previous question, and the demand was not sustained.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Moon yielded to question by Mr. Julin.

Mr. Julin: "Representative Moon, I think you will recall the number '144' that we considered in a prior session, dealing with exemption from taxation. Can you tell me the philosophical difference between this measure and that one which you so vigorously opposed?"

Mr. Moon: "I don't recall what '144' was. If you might refresh my memory, maybe I could."

Mr. Julin: "It had something to do with computer services for the Boeing Company."

Mr. Moon: "Yes, Representative Julin, I can tell you the difference. I earlier remarked that this is a tax exemption to a nonprofit organization performing a public service. The exemption that was granted in '144' was an exemption to a profit-making organization that was doing business for a profit, and not as a public service. That is the difference. Now I might further add, that I think this type of extension that Representative Smythe mentioned--the hospitals and other nonprofit associations or entities that are performing a public service in his area, that are contracting their laundry services out--I think this is an area that this legislature should give serious consideration to reviewing the possibility of exempting that particular service as well."

Representatives Rabel and Matthews spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Representative Smythe spoke again in opposition to it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2841 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 66; nays, 31; not voting, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Adams, Anderson, Bagnariol, Bauer, Bausch, Beck, Bender, Blair, Bluechel, Ceccarelli, Charette, Charnley, Chatalas, Clemente, Conner, Douthwaite, Ehlers, Ellis, Eng, Erickson, Fortson, Gaines, Gallagher, Goltz, Hansen, Haussler, Hayner, Hoggins, Hurley, Jastad, Johnson, Kalich, Kilbury, King, Knowles, Kopet, Kraabel, Laughlin, Luders, Lysen, Martinis, Matthews, Maxie, McCormick, Moon, Morrison, Newhouse, North F., North L., O'Brien, Parker, Perry, Rabel, Randall, Savage, Shinpoch, Smith, Sommers, Thompson, Valle, Van Dyk, Warnke, Williams, Wilson, Wojahn, and Mr. Speaker.

Voting nay: Representatives Amen, Barden, Benitz, Berentson, Brown, Cunningham, Curtis, Eikenberry, Flanagan, Freeman, Garrett, Gaspard, Gilleland, Hansey, Hendricks, Jueling, Julin, Kelley, Kuehnle, Leckenby, May, Nelson, Pardini, Patterson, Polk, Pullen, Schumaker, Smythe, Swayze, Tilly, Zimmerman.

Not voting: Representative Paris.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2841 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Charette, all bills passed by the House to this point in the proceedings were ordered transmitted immediately to the Senate.

THIRD READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2036, by Senators Odegaard, Talley and Gardner:

Creating a division of corrections within the department of social and health services.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Representatives Parker and Kilbury spoke in favor of the bill and Representatives Zimmerman, Leckenby, Freeman and Smythe spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Matthews yielded to question by Mr. Smythe.

Mr. Smythe: "Mr. Matthews, several of us on the committee have been talking about an alternative to this because we do believe that Senators Odegaard and Talley have a valid concern. Would you mind telling us what we have come up with as a possible alternative solution?"

Mr. Matthews: "Yes, we do have a similar concern. I think that administratively this is a decision that should be made within the department. Therefore we have come up with a resolution for the Social and Health Services Committee to study this in the interim..."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Charette: "My point of order, Mr. Speaker, is that it is truly not a question, and it is just costing the state money to put this in the Journal."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "I think we have been abusing this question and answer period. We are not in the court room. I have noticed it all evening. We are firing back questions and answers to try to put things in the Journal. I think if you have any questions of this nature (I am not particularly singling you out on this), but we are abusing this practice and this isn't its function.

It is quite prevalent now. If you have the floor, you have the right to make your point, and if you have a question, maybe you could talk to the person privately."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Julin: "Mr. Speaker, my recollection is that early in the session I asked the question whether or not all questions and answers would become part of the Journal of this House. My recollection is that the answer was 'no.' Therefore, I believe, in light of that, Mr. Charette's remarks are not in order."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "The Speaker made a statement along that line. Then later he said we would continue the practice as has been done in the past, but he felt we should not abuse it. That is why Mr. Charette raises the question. We don't want you to abuse this privilege, because it is so costly and we have our Journal filled up with a lot of questions and answers."

Mr. Matthews: "Mr. Speaker, may I then simply respond after being recognized by the Speaker?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "I think I will give you the floor. Mr. Smythe, are you finished?"

Mr. Smythe: "All right, I'll give the floor to Mr. Matthews. I could respond to the statement by Mr. Charette that this is not our intention here that this go into the Journal. So, with that, you can keep it out."

Mr. Matthews spoke against the bill.

Mr. Kalich demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2036, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 53; nays, 44; not voting, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Adams, Anderson, Bagnariol, Bauer, Bausch, Beck, Bender, Ceccarelli, Charette, Chatalas, Clemente, Conner, Douthwaite, Ehlers, Ellis, Eng, Erickson, Fortson, Gaines, Garrett, Gaspard, Goltz, Hansen, Haussler, Hayner, Hendricks, Jastad, Johnson, Kalich, Kelley, Kilbury, King, Knowles, Laughlin, Luders, Lysen, Martinis, Maxie, May, McCormick, Moon, North F., O'Brien, Parker, Perry, Randall, Savage, Smith, Sommers, Thompson, Valle, Wojahn, and Mr. Speaker.

Voting nay: Representatives Amen, Barden, Benitz, Berentson, Blair, Bluechel, Brown, Charnley, Cunningham, Curtis, Eikenberry, Flanagan, Freeman, Gallagher, Gilleland, Hansey, Hoggins, Hurley, Juelling, Julin, Kopet, Kraabel, Kuehnle, Leckenby, Matthews, Morrison, Nelson, Newhouse, North L., Pardini, Patterson, Polk, Pullen, Rabel, Schumaker, Shinpoch, Smythe, Swayze, Tilly, Van Dyk, Warnke, Williams, Wilson, Zimmerman.

Not voting: Representative Paris.

Senate Bill No. 2036, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Mr. Thompson, the House reverted to the sixth order of business.

Mr. Thompson moved that the House immediately consider the second reading calendar beginning with ENGROSSED SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 108, to be followed by ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2146; SENATE BILL NO. 2353; and SENATE BILL NO. 2570.

The motion was carried.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Amen: "Rule 26 says: 'No bills shall be considered on second reading unless a calendar of bills for second reading and copies of any amendment made by a committee have been distributed to each member no later than 8:00 p.m. on the second day preceding such consideration unless otherwise provided by the Rules Committee.'"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "In connection with your point of order, Mr. Amen, Rule 43 relating to the daily calendar provides: 'A bill in the Rules Committee may be placed on the calendar by the affirmative vote of a constitutional majority of all members of the house.' It appears this would be the prevailing rule, and this is what happened."

Mr. Amen: "Then this is in direct conflict with Rule 26."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "It all depends on how you look at it."

Mr. Amen: "I look at it as a direct conflict."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Well, I don't."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Eikenberry: "The Chair has ruled that a majority vote is all that is necessary to place a bill on the calendar, but I fail to see how that then brings us into compliance with Rule 26, which says the calendar must be out here a day ahead of time."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Well, of course, the decisions that are made in connection with the bills and actions of the House have to be determined on the basis of orderly procedure. It appears that the motion was made to relieve the Rules Committee of these respective bills, and it was done according to our rules. I don't see any way that this is particularly in conflict with any other rules."

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on HOUSE BILL NO. 590, and has passed the bill as amended by the Conference Committee, and said bill, together with the Conference Committee report, is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

April 14, 1973

Mr. Speaker:

Mr. President:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred HOUSE BILL NO. 590, providing for representation of breeders of quarterhorses on the racing commission, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that the Senate amendment to page 2, adding new sections 2 through 7, which was not concurred in by the House, be adopted, and the bill do pass as originally amended by the Senate.

Signed by Senators Keefe, Lewis (Harry) and Peterson (Lowell); Representatives Johnson and Chatalas.

MOTION

Mrs. Johnson moved that the House adopt the report of the Conference Committee on House Bill No. 590.

Representatives Johnson and Chatalas spoke in favor of the motion, and Representative Newhouse spoke against it.

Mrs. Johnson spoke again in favor of the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Newhouse: "I would like to raise the question of the scope and object of the amendment to House Bill No. 590."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Mr. Newhouse, will you kindly explain why you are raising the question of scope and object?"

Mr. Newhouse: "Mr. Speaker, the basic bill was a rather simple bill which established the membership as far as the members of the horse racing commission and their qualifications--a very simple bill. A rather broad title it is true--An act relating to horse racing. The amendments go very extensively into the management of funds and far beyond the scope and object of the original bill."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "In connection with your question of whether or not these amendments are beyond the scope and object of the original bill, it appears there is nothing new that has been added. These Senate amendments were before us before. You didn't raise the question at that time. So the Conference Committee didn't add anything to the report. They just are now moving that these amendments be adopted. So your point of order is not well taken, Mr. Newhouse."

Mr. Newhouse: "You are ruling then that it is not timely? You did not rule as the scope and object then?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "It isn't for me to decide now whether these amendments made by the Senate are within the original scope of the bill because when the amendments came back from the Senate you didn't raise the question. Therefore your point of order is not timely made, and the question just wouldn't be before us at this time."

Mr. Newhouse: "My one comment is that I think you have made the proper ruling. I just want to point out that the President of the Senate did it to me once last time and I just wanted to get that ruling."

The motion by Mrs. Johnson that the report of the Conference Committee on House Bill No. 590 be adopted was carried.

FINAL PASSAGE OF HOUSE BILL AS RECOMMENDED BY CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be final passage of House Bill No. 590 as recommended by the Conference Committee.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 590 as recommended by the Conference Committee, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 60; nays, 37; not voting, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Adams, Anderson, Bagnariol, Bauer, Bausch, Beck, Bender, Ceccarelli, Charette, Charnley, Chatalas, Clemente, Conner, Douthwaite, Ehlers, Ellis, Eng, Erickson, Fortson, Gaines, Gallagher, Gaspard, Goltz, Hansen, Haussler, Hurley, Jastad, Johnson, Kalich, Kelley, Kilbury, King, Knowles, Kopet, Laughlin, Luders, Lysen, Martinis, Maxie, May, McCormick, Moon, North F., O'Brien, Pardini, Parker, Perry, Rabel, Randall, Savage, Shinpoch, Smith, Sommers, Thompson, Valle, Van Dyk, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, and Mr. Speaker.

Voting nay: Representatives Amen, Barden, Benitz,

Berentson, Blair, Bluechel, Brown, Cunningham, Curtis, Eikenberry, Flanagan, Freeman, Garrett, Gilleland, Hansey, Hayner, Hendricks, Hoggins, Juelling, Julin, Kraabel, Kuehnle, Leckenby, Matthews, Morrison, Nelson, Newhouse, North L., Patterson, Polk, Pullen, Schumaker, Smythe, Swayze, Tilly, Wilson, Zimmerman.

Not voting: Representative Paris.

House Bill No. 590 as recommended by the Conference Committee, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

April 14, 1973

Mr. Speaker:

Mr. President:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 53, making certain amendments to the open space lands taxation laws, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that the bill do pass as amended by the Committee Amendment by the Committee on Ways and Means with the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 4, line 22 strike "board of equalization" and insert "legislative authority" and we respectfully request the powers of Free Conference.

Signed by Senators Odegaard, Matson and Donohue; Representatives Van Dyk and Flanagan.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Flanagan, the report of the Conference Committee on Substitute House Bill No. 53 was adopted and the committee was granted the powers of Free Conference.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 108, by Senators Marsh, Canfield and Sandison (by Joint Committee on Higher Education request):

Continuing study by joint committee on higher education respecting reciprocity as to nonresident student fees within institutions of higher education.

The resolution was read the second time.

On motion of Mr. Thompson, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 108 was placed on final passage.

Representatives Maxie and Bauer spoke in favor of the resolution.

Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 108 was adopted.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2146, by Senators Gardner, Sellar, Walgren and Twigg (by Municipal Committee request):

Permitting the chief of the Washington state patrol to employ special deputies.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Amen: "In quoting Rule 26 as I quoted earlier, and rereading it, it says: 'No bills shall be considered on second reading...' You quoted Rule 43 which says: 'A bill in the Rules Committee may be placed on the calendar...' It was placed on the calendar, and you now want to consider it. Rule 26 says 'shall not be considered'."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "The point you are raising, Mr. Amen, in Rule 26 is that no bill shall be considered on second reading unless a calendar of bills for second reading and copies of any amendment made by a committee have been distributed to each member no later than 8:00 p.m. on the second day preceding such consideration unless otherwise provided by the Rules Committee. Now Rule 43 states: 'A bill in the Rules Committee may be placed on the calendar by the affirmative vote of a constitutional majority of all members of the House.' So what's your problem?"

Mr. Amen: "Mr. Speaker, there is not much of a problem here. The rule you are quoting says may be 'placed' on the calendar. Rule 26 says it cannot be 'considered.' Those are two different things."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Unless otherwise ordered by the Rules Committee."

Mr. Amen: "Has this been ordered by the Rules Committee? Has there been a Rules Committee meeting to order this out?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "I think, Mr. Amen, that you raise a point which probably should be considered by the next meeting of the Rules Committee. It appears that the rules are in conflict. I am holding that Rule 43(a) is controlling in this instance."

Mr. Amen: "Mr. Speaker, these are the rules that we are operating under now."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "We are operating under Rule 43(a) too."

Mr. Amen: "This is right, but placing on the calendar and considering are two entirely different things."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "It so happens we have two rules against your one rule. We have Rule 43(a) and Rule 81. You only have one."

Mr. Amen: "Mr. Speaker, would you give a definition of 'considered' and 'placed,' please? The difference between them?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Mr. Amen, the rules that we cited--Rule 43(a) and Rule 81 state that 'a constitutional majority of all members of the house' is controlling in these instances. I am adhering to that fact."

Mr. Amen: "Mr. Speaker, Rule 81 says 'PROVIDED, That a majority of members elected to the house may require a committee to report a bill back to the house...' The majority has not required the Rules Committee to report this back."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Your questions are all moot."

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2146 was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Charette, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2119 was advanced to second reading to be considered immediately.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2119, by Senators Sandison, Lewis (Harry), Stortini, Marsh, Gardner, Canfield, Keefe, Donohue and Talley (by Executive and Joint Committee on Higher Education request):

Authorizing retirement plans, including old age annuities, for faculty members and other employees of community colleges.

The bill was read the second time.

On motion of Mr. Charette, the following amendment by Representatives Charette and Shinpoch was adopted:

On page 5, line 12 insert:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. It is the intent of this 1973 amendatory act that the retirement income resulting from the contributions described herein from the state of Washington and the employee shall be projected actuarially so that it shall not exceed sixty percent of the average of the highest two consecutive years salary. Periodic review of the retirement systems established pursuant to this act will be undertaken at such time and in such manner as determined by the committees on ways and means of the Senate and of the House of Representatives and the public pension commission, and joint contribution rates will be adjusted if necessary to accomplish this intent."

Renumber the following sections consecutively

On motion of Mr. Charette, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2119 as amended by the House, was advanced to third reading.

Representatives Maxie, Kopet and Shinpoch spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Maxie yielded to question by Mr. Amen.

Mr. Amen: "Representative Maxie, I am for equality in these pension plans, but do you have any figures on how much this will cost the state? I would like to know approximately."

Ms. Maxie: "Right, the figure is $1.6 million. The appropriation figure is in the bill."

Mr. Amen: "Would this be for just this next biennium? Is that what it is for, or to pick up some back pensions? How much would it cost, say in the next ten years? Do you have any figures on that?"

Ms. Maxie: "The Senate added new sections 10 and 11, which makes the provisions of the act effective July 1, 1974, and funds the program for the second year of the biennium."

Mr. Amen: "Is this for the biennium that you quoted $1.6 million?"

Ms. Maxie: "Yes, if you need a detailed explanation of the fiscal impact, I would defer my remarks to Representative Shinpoch because he handled it in Ways and Means - Appropriations."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Shinpoch yielded to question by Mr. Amen.

Mr. Amer: "I was trying to determine this $1.6 million that Representative Maxie quoted. Is this for the next biennium, or is this to pick up some back pensions?"

Mr. Shinpoch: "The $1.6 million is for the last year of the biennium, and if you were funding the full biennium it would be $3.2 million, but it does not become effective until July 1, 1974."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Shinpoch yielded to question by Mr. Flanagan.

Mr. Flanagan: "Representative Shinpoch, the way I understand this bill just from the short time I have looked at it here, is that it puts these employees on the same level of benefits as under the public employees retirement system, which is sixty percent of the two highest years. And from what Representative Morrison said here a few days ago, I understand that system is fully funded, on the basis of the present--in other words, it has a 40-year plan that makes it fully funded with a six percent contribution from the employee and seven percent from the employer. Does this have that same condition in regard to funding as the public employee system?"

Mr. Shinpoch: "Representative Flanagan, I'm not sure that I can answer your question totally. On the pass-out sheet you received that is on your desk, you probably noted that both the employee and the employer contribution for those people under age 35 is five percent; between 35 and 50 it is seven and one-half percent, and over age 50, it is ten percent. My understanding is that this fully funds the system--that that is what it is based upon."

Mr. Morrison spoke in favor of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2119 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 97; nays, 0; not voting, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Adams, Amen, Anderson, Bagnariol, Barden, Bauer, Bausch, Beck, Bender, Benitz, Berentson, Blair, Bluechel, Brown, Ceccarelli, Charette, Charney, Chatalas, Clemente, Conner, Cunningham, Curtis, Douthwaite, Ehlers, Eikenberry, Ellis, Eng, Erickson, Flanagan, Fortson, Freeman, Gaines, Gallagher, Garrett, Gaspard, Gilleland, Goltz, Hansen, Hansey, Haussler, Hayner, Hendricks, Hoggins, Hurley, Jastad, Johnson, Juelling, Julin, Kalich, Kelley, Kilbury, King, Knowles, Kopet, Kraabel, Kuehle, Laughlin, Leckenby, Luders, Lysen, Martinis, Matthews, Maxie, May, McCormick, Moon, Morrison, Nelson, Newhouse, North F., North L., O'Brien, Pardini, Parker, Patterson, Perry, Polk, Pullen, Rabel, Randall, Savage, Schumaker, Shinpoch, Smith, Smythe, Sommers, Swayze, Thompson, Tilly, Valle, Van Dyk, Warnke, Williams, Wilson, Wojahn, Zimmerman, and Mr. Speaker.

Not voting: Representative Paris.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2119 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Adams, the House concurred in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 445.

FINAL PASSAGE OF HOUSE BILL AS AMENDED BY SENATE

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 445 as amended by the Senate.

Mr. Adams spoke in favor of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Adams yielded to question by Mr. Curtis.

Mr. Curtis: "Dr. Adams, you are correct. This is a most meritorious piece of legislation concerning the hiring of the handicapped. My concern is that the legislative intent be properly established. There are, inherent in this bill, some things which may very well present problems to employers as they attempt to attract and hire these handicapped people. For instance, the possibility that in doing so, a related claim regarding workmen's compensation, etc., might lead to higher premiums and this sort of thing. That is not my understanding of legislative intent. The intent is to make it easier to do a better job, etc. in hiring these people. I am wondering (excuse me for taking so long to ask the question) if: (1) That is your understanding of the intent, and (2) if you feel as I do (I hope you do) that we really need to look very, very carefully and further into this and possibly some type of legislative study--I don't know which committee would concern itself, but this area does require some further study."

Mr. Adams: "Yes, I think that is true, Representative Curtis. I think though, if you read the amendment that it does take care of the insurance situation pertaining to accident, health and life insurance. I think it is pretty well taken care of, but I would agree with you that we should study this further."

MOTION

Mr. Thompson moved that ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2866 be placed at the top of the second reading calendar and considered immediately.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Moon: "Mr. Speaker, earlier in the session we had a bill that had gone through the Revenue Committee and had a fiscal impact that was high enough to require that Rule 81 be put into effect. This bill, Senate Bill No. 2866, falls within that same classification, and I would cite Rule 81 that says: 'That all bills, memorials, and resolutions, referred to the subcommittees on (a) Appropriations or (b) Revenue and Taxation of the Ways and Means Committee may be acted upon by the subcommittee concerned and those signed by a majority of the membership of such subcommittee shall be reported back to the House with recommendation of such subcommittee reported thereon, except that the Omnibus Appropriation Bill, Supplemental Appropriation Bill, and any bill containing an appropriation with a financial impact over a four year period in excess of ten million dollars and any bill estimated to raise or lower a revenue source by five million dollars or more over a four year period shall be acted upon and reported by the whole Ways and Means Committee'."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "In connection with your point of order, Representative Moon, it appears to be well taken. The Speaker understands that the Ways and Means Subcommittee on Revenue considered Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2866. On the basis of Rule 81, it appears that the entire Ways and Means Committee should have acted upon it on the basis of the revenue impact. Your point of order is well taken."

Mr. Bagnariol explained the procedure in committee in the consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2866.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Thompson: "Mr. Speaker, what is the status of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2866?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Well, I would say it is probably in dead center right now unless you make a motion."

Mr. Thompson: "Mr. Speaker, is this bill before the Ways and Means Committee?"

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "It would appear that it is necessary for you to make a motion to rerefer Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2866 to the Committee on Ways and Means."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Thompson, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2866 was rereferred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2570, by Senators Ridder, Bailey, Woodall and Van Hollebeke:

Revising operation of the Washington state patrol retirement system.

The bill was read the second time.

On motion of Mr. Brown, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 6, section 3, lines 7 and 8 after "to" strike "10 U.S.C. sections 3911 or 3914" and insert: "Title 10 United States Code"

On motion of Mr. Conner, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Senate Bill No. 2570 as amended by the House, was placed on final passage.

Mr. Morrison spoke in favor of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Shinpoch yielded to question by Mr. Douthwaite.

Mr. Douthwaite: "I don't mean to take you by surprise, Representative Shinpoch, but I note the provisions in this one on page 6 that says in no event shall the maximum exceed 'seventy-five percent of the member's average final salary.' I thought the criterion we were using in these matters was sixty percent. I would ask you to comment on that."

Mr. Shinpoch: "I would defer the question to Representative Bagnariol."

Mr. Bagnariol: "Well, you are right--this does carry a seventy-five percent maximum benefit rate. The state patrolmen are at two percent per year. To reach the seventy-five percent, they would have to stay thirty-seven and one-half years in the system. Because they can retire after twenty-five years of service, the potential of reaching seventy-five percent is relatively small. Probably ninety-nine percent of these people will retire after thirty years of service and sixty percent. Prior to the enactment of this piece of legislation, there was no limit. They could have stayed as long as fifty years and collected one hundred percent."

Representatives Douthwaite and Bagnariol spoke in favor of the bill and Representative Pardini spoke against it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 2570 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 93; nays, 4; not voting, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Adams, Anderson, Bagnariol, Barden, Bauer, Bausch, Beck, Bender, Benitz, Berentson, Blair, Bluechel, Brown, Ceccarelli, Charette, Charnley, Chatalas, Clemente, Conner, Cunningham, Curtis, Douthwaite, Ehlers, Eikenberry, Ellis, Eng, Erickson, Flanagan, Fortson, Freeman, Gaines, Gallagher, Garrett, Gaspard, Gilleland, Goltz, Hansen, Hansey, Haussler, Hayner, Hendricks, Hoggins, Hurley, Jastad, Johnson, Juelling, Julin, Kalich, Kelley, Kilbury, King, Knowles, Kopet, Kraabel, Kuehnle, Laughlin, Leckenby, Luders, Lysen, Martinis, Matthews, Maxie, May, McCormick, Moon, Morrison, Nelson, Newhouse, North F., North L., O'Brien, Parker, Patterson, Perry, Polk, Pullen, Randall, Savage, Schumaker, Smith, Smythe, Sommers, Swayze, Thompson, Tilly, Valle, Van Dyk, Warnke, Williams, Wilson, Wojahn, Zimmerman, and Mr. Speaker.

Voting nay: Representatives Amen, Pardini, Rabel, Shinpoch.

Not voting: Representative Paris.

Senate Bill No. 2570 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The tax imposed by section 3 of this chapter shall be due and payable as specified in RCW 82.16.070 by any person storing oil at any oil terminal within the state. The department of revenue is authorized to establish procedures for collection of such tax, and to assure that the tax is calculated only on the basis of the first delivery of oil within the state.

(b) Moneys are available from a recovery made by the department from the person liable for the discharge of oil.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Sections 3 through 8 of this 1973 amendatory act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 82 RCW."

Mr. Douthwaite spoke in favor of the amendment.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Mr. Douthwaite, this comprehensive amendment by you and Mr. Charnley has not been distributed to the members. I think we will have to hold further consideration of your amendment until the members have a copy."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Brown: "Mr. Speaker, I would like to request a ruling on the scope and object of this amendment. I suggest it is beyond the original intent of the bill."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Douthwaite: "Quoting Reed's Rule No. 112, regarding the point of order: 'Both these objections to present action must be presented before consideration has been entered upon. After debate has begun or other action has been taken it is too late.' I had already begun debate, and therefore this point of order is out of order."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "In connection with your point of order, Mr. Douthwaite, Reed's Rule No. 112 states as follows: 'TIME FOR MAKING THESE OBJECTIONS.

Both these objections to present action must be presented before consideration has been entered upon. After debate has begun or other action has been taken it is too late.' I will rule that consideration had not been started. Your amendment was offered. We found that the amendment had not been distributed to the members. Therefore we stopped consideration practically immediately. And so your point of order on the timely objection is not well taken."

Mr. Douthwaite: "If I may question that for a moment, sir. I thought I was debating the merits of my amendment. It says here 'after debate has begun or other action has been taken it is too late.' What was I doing if I wasn't debating?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "It would appear that Mr. Brown's question on the scope and object of your amendment would be well taken. You have referred here--your amendment is in connection with a tax on oil. It would appear that it is not in relationship to the main proposition which is before us which is a tax on wine and other parts of the original bill--Senate Bill No. 2866. On that basis, it goes beyond the original proposition entirely. It is a different subject matter. On that basis, I am going to rule the amendment out of order."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Randall, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

Mr. Conner moved that the rules be suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2866 as amended by the House, be placed on final passage.

Mr. Moon demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to advance Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2866 as amended by the House, to third reading and final passage and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 74; nays, 23; not voting, 1.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) stated the question before the House to be Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2866 as amended by the House on final passage.

Mr. Moon spoke against passage of the bill.

The Speaker assumed the Chair.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Douthwaite: "I would like to have somebody speak to the fiscal impact of this bill and whether or not we are going to wind up with a balanced budget after we continue to boost retirement programs and then continue to take cuts out of the general fund this way. Therefore, I would like to ask either Mr. Shinpoch or Mr. Bagnariol to tell us, if you would please, Mr. Shinpoch, where we will be after we lose $5.4 million here, assuming it is going to pass, and the fact that we put through, I think, earlier this evening--what was it--$1.6 million in the higher education retirement program, and I don't know how much the impact of the state patrol retirement program we ran through was, but it looks to me like we are going to wind up, if we continue this, in the red. Mr. Shinpoch, would you comment on that, please?"

Mr. Shinpoch: "I am getting rather reluctant to get up to respond to your questions. I passed a sheet out to you, to all of you in here tonight, that showed us where we stood, on balance, with those things that we had--the budgets that we had passed in relationship to the governor's budget as of 8:00 p.m. this evening. And that shows that we were, I think, six million, nine thousand, four hundred and four dollars under the governor's budget at that time. I don't know for sure what fiscal note you are looking at on this one. One of them shows $5 million and another shows something else. But if you consider that is correct, and you take into consideration the higher education pension bill that we just passed, then with both of these things the answer would be 'yes, we are probably in the red.' I, frankly, don't know whether the fiscal note is any good or not."

Representatives Ceccarelli and Curtis spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

SPEAKER'S PRIVILEGE

The Speaker: "Representative Curtis, if I may interrupt you, I would like to announce the appointment of legislative interim committees at this time."

APPOINTMENT OF INTERIM COMMITTEES

The Speaker announced the following interim committee appointments:

Judicial Council: Representatives Kelley, Knowles and Hayner.

The House resumed consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2866 as amended by the House.

Mr. Curtis concluded his remarks in favor of passage of the bill.

The Speaker called on Mr. O'Brien to preside.

Representatives Ehlers, Charnley, Zimmerman, Goltz, Savage and Kraabel spoke against passage of the bill, and Mr. Chatalas spoke in favor of its passage.

Mr. Ceccarelli demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2866 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 65; nays, 32; not voting, 1.

Voting yeas: Representatives Adams, Bagnariol, Barden, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Berentson, Blair, Bluechel, Brown, Ceccarelli, Charette, Chatalas, Clemente, Conner, Cunningham, Curtis, Eikenberry, Ellis, Fortson, Freeman, Gaines, Garrett, Gaspard, Gilleland, Hansey, Haussler, Hendricks, Jastad, Johnson, Juelling, Julin, Kalich, Kilbury, Knowles, Kopet, Kuehnle, Laughlin, Leckenby, Luders, Martinis, Matthews, McCormick, Morrison, Nelson,

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2866 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

The reason I voted against Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2866 as amended by the House, is because it would cut the revenue for cities and counties.

ERIC O. ANDERSON, 19th District.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Conner, all bills passed by the House since the last motion to transmit were ordered transmitted immediately to the Senate.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 14, 1973

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 174 with the following amendments:

In line 1 of the title after "government;" and before "and" insert "amending section 1, chapter 10, Laws of 1959 ex. sess. as last amended by section 4, chapter 112, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 44.04.120; and adding new sections."

After section 3 of the substitute bill, add additional sections as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. In view of the decreased purchasing power of the dollar and the concomitant increase in the cost of living during the past several years, the members of the legislature declare that the twenty-five dollar per diem allowance provided during the past several interims between sessions in lieu of subsistence and lodging is inadequate to cover necessary expenses incurred while serving on official legislative business during the interim. The legislature further finds and declares that forty dollars per day is a fair and adequate allowance to cover such reimbursement.

Sec. 5. Section 1, chapter 10, Laws of 1959 ex. sess. as last amended by section 4, chapter 112, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 44.04.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Each member of the senate or house of representatives when serving on official legislative business during the interim between legislative sessions, or while serving on the legislative council, the legislative budget committee, or any other permanent or interim committee, commission, or council of the legislature shall be entitled to receive, in lieu of per diem or any other payment, for each day or major portion thereof in which he is actually engaged in legislative business or business of the committee, commission, or council, notwithstanding any laws to the contrary, ((twenty-five)) forty dollars per day, plus mileage allowance at the rate of ten cents per mile when authorized by the house, committee, commission, or council of which he is a member and on the business of which he is engaged." and the same is herewith transmitted.

Bill Gleason, Assistant Secretary.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Williams, the House concurred in the Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 174.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

During the rush of business during the last evening of the session, I voted in error in favor of Substitute House Bill No. 174 as amended by the Senate.

The board shall immediately transmit the application to the proper registrar of voters for the proposed district who shall check the names, residence and registration of the signers with the records of his office and shall, as soon as possible, certify to said board the number of qualified signers. If the requisite number of signers is so certified, the board shall thereupon place the proposition: 'Shall a county airport district be established in the following area: (describing the proposed district)?,' upon the ballot for vote of the people of the proposed district at the next election, general or special. If a majority of the voters on such proposition shall vote in favor of the proposition, the board, shall, by resolution, declare the district established. If the requisite number of qualified persons have not signed the application, further signatures may be added and certified until the requisite number have signed and the above procedure shall be thereafter followed.

The area of such district may be the area of the county including incorporated cities and towns, or such portion or portions thereof as the board may determine to be the most feasible for establishing an airport. When established, an airport district shall be a municipality as defined in this chapter and entitled to all the powers conferred by this chapter and exercised by municipal corporations in this state. The airport district is hereby empowered to levy not more than ((three mills against the assessed valuation)) seventy-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value of the property lying within the said airport district: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, Such levy shall not be made unless first approved at any election called for the purpose of voting on such levy.

Sec. 2. Section 10, chapter 153, Laws of 1957 and RCW 17.28.100 are each amended to read as follows:

At the same election there shall be submitted to the voters residing within the district, for their approval or rejection, a proposition authorizing the mosquito control district, if formed, to levy at the earliest time permitted by law on all taxable property located within the mosquito control district a general tax, for one year, of ((one mill)) twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value in excess of any constitutional or statutory limitation for authorized purposes of the mosquito control district. The proposition shall be expressed on the ballots in substantially the following form:

YES.....

NO.....

Such proposition to be effective must be approved by a majority of at least three-fifths of the persons voting on the proposition to levy such tax ((and the number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty percent of the total number of votes cast in the area of the proposed mosquito control district at the last preceding county or state general election)) in the manner set forth in Article VII, section 2(a) of the Constitution of this state, as amended by Amendment 59 and as thereafter amended.

Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent holding the foregoing special election at the same time as that fixed for a general election.

Such sharing shall be for those costs incurred during 1972 and 1973 only. For the years 1972 and 1973 during which, such state financial aid is received, the county treasurer shall compute the proportionate amount of the county-assumed portion of the costs of revaluation in direct proportion to the ratio of basic property tax as authorized by RCW 84.52.050 and section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act levied on behalf of each local taxing district each year, and he shall, on December 31 of those years, bill each local taxing district the amount so computed. The treasurer shall collect said bill by deducting said amount from the next year's tax receipts and place the deducted sums in a special fund to be used solely for the expenses and costs of the administration of the revaluation program: PROVIDED, That the sum deducted from the basic ((millage)) dollar rate for common schools shall be excluded and not considered as revenue in the computation of the school equalization formula pursuant to RCW 28A.41.130. A copy of the assessor's portion of the preliminary county budget shall be sent to each local taxing district affected by the provisions of this section at the time such budget is prepared.

This section shall expire on December 31, 1974.

Each county which designates the Washington state association of county officials as the agency through which the duties imposed by RCW 36.47.020 may be executed is authorized to reimburse the association from the county current expense fund for the cost of any such services rendered: PROVIDED, That no reimbursement shall be made to the association for any expenses incurred under RCW 36.47.050 for travel, meals, or lodging of such county officials, or their representatives at such meetings, but such expenses may be paid by such official's respective county as other expenses are paid for county business. Such reimbursement shall be paid only on vouchers submitted to the county auditor and approved by the board of county commissioners of each county in the manner provided for the disbursement of other current expense funds. Each such voucher shall set forth the nature of the services rendered by the association, supported by affidavit that the services were actually performed. The total of such reimbursements for any county in any calendar year shall not exceed a sum equal to the amount which would be raised by a levy of ((one fourth-hundredth of a mill)) one-quarter of a cent per thousand dollars of assessed value against ((the actual value of)) the taxable property in such county.

Sec. 36. Section 36.54.080, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.54.080 are each amended to read as follows:

commissioners. The board shall immediately transmit the application to the proper registrar of voters for the proposed district who shall check the names, residence, and registration of the signers with the records of his office and shall, as soon as possible, certify to said board the number of qualified signers. If the requisite number of signers is so certified, the board shall thereupon place the proposition, 'Shall a ferry district be established in the following area to operate ferries between the following termini: (describing the proposed district and ferry routes)?' upon the ballot for vote of the people of the proposed district at the next election, general or special. If sixty percent of the voters on such proposition vote in favor of the proposition, the board shall, by resolution, declare the district established. If the requisite number of qualified persons have not signed the application, further signatures may be added and certified until the requisite number have signed and the above procedure shall be thereafter followed.

A ferry district is hereby empowered to levy not more than ((five mills)) one dollar and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value against the assessed valuation of the property lying within the district.

A ferry district shall have the right of eminent domain according to the laws of the state.

A ferry district is exempt and excepted from the provisions of the public service laws and is not subject to the control, rules and regulations of the Washington utilities and transportation commission; and it shall not be necessary for a ferry district to apply for or obtain a certificate of public convenience and necessity.

All registered voters within the service area shall be eligible to vote on the proposition. The county auditor, for the purpose of the special election, may combine or divide precincts in order to provide the greatest convenience to voters of the service area.

The county auditor, in submitting the issue to the voters for their approval or rejection, shall submit and express two propositions on the ballot in substantially the following form:

(1) FORMATION OF LOCAL SERVICE AREA

Shall a county service area be established for the area described in a resolution of the board of commissioners of..... county, adopted on the.....day of 19...., to provide financing for neighborhood park facilities, improvements and services?

The special voted levy may be either for operating fund or for capital outlay, or for a cumulative reserve fund.

A service area may issue general obligations bonds for capital purposes only, not to exceed an amount, together with any out-standing general obligation indebtedness, equal to three-eighths of one percent of the value of the taxable property within the district, and may provide for the retirement thereof by levies in excess of ((millage)) dollar rate in accordance with the provisions of RCW 84.52.056: PROVIDED, That such districts may issue bonds equal to two and one-half percent of the value of the taxable property within the district, as the term 'value of the taxable property' is defined in RCW 39.36.015, when such bonds are approved by the voters of the district at a special election called for the purpose.

Sec. 40. Section 36.69.140, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 20, chapter 42, Laws of 1970 ex.

sess. and RCW 36.69.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Sec. 41. Section 36.82.040, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 2, chapter 25, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 36.82.040 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of raising revenue for establishing, laying out, constructing, altering, repairing, improving, and maintaining county roads, bridges, and wharves necessary for vehicle ferriage and for other proper county purposes, the board shall annually at the time of making the levy for general purposes make a uniform tax levy throughout the county, or any road district thereof, of not to exceed ((ten mills on the dollar)) two dollars and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value of the last assessed valuation of the taxable property in the county, or road district thereof, unless other law of the state requires a lower maximum levy, in which event such lower maximum levy shall control. All funds accruing from such levy shall be credited to and deposited in the county road fund except that revenue diverted under RCW 36.33.220 shall be placed in a separate and identifiable account within the county current expense fund.

Sec. 42. Section 11, chapter 189, Laws of 1967 and RCW 36.93.110 are each amended to read as follows:

In case of annexation to a city or a town, where the area proposed for annexation is less than ten acres and less than ((two)) eight hundred thousand dollars in assessed valuation, the chairman of the review board may by written statement declare that review by the board is not necessary for the protection of the interest of the various parties, in which case the board shall not review such annexation.

Sec. 43. Section 6, chapter 91, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 2, chapter 92, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 41.16.060 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be the duty of the legislative authority of each municipality, each year as a part of its annual tax levy, to levy and place in the fund a tax of ((one-half of one mill on)) twenty-two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value against all the taxable property of such municipality: PROVIDED, That if a report by a qualified actuary on the condition of the fund establishes that the whole or any part of said ((millage)) dollar rate is not necessary to maintain the actuarial soundness of the fund, the levy of said ((one-half of one mill)) twenty-two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value may be omitted, or the whole or any part of said ((millage)) dollar rate may be levied and used for any other municipal purpose.

It shall be the duty of the legislative authority of each municipality, each year as a part of its annual tax levy and in addition to the city levy limit set forth in RCW 84.52.050, as now or hereafter amended, to levy and place in the fund an additional tax of ((one-half of one mill on)) twenty-two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value against all taxable property of such municipality: PROVIDED, That if a report by a qualified actuary establishes that all or any part of the additional ((one-half of one mill)) twenty-two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value levy is unnecessary to meet the estimated demands on the fund under this chapter for the ensuing budget year, the levy of said additional ((one-half of one mill)) twenty-two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value may be omitted, or the whole or any part of such ((millage)) dollar rate may be levied and used for any other municipal purpose.

Sec. 44. Section 4, chapter 209, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 6, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 41.26.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system is hereby created for fire fighters and law enforcement officers.

(1) All fire fighters and law enforcement officers employed as such on or after March 1, 1970, on a full time fully compensated basis in this state shall be members of the retirement system established by this chapter with respect to all periods of service as such, to the exclusion of any pension system existing under any prior act except as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) Any employee serving as a law enforcement officer or fire fighter on March 1, 1970, who is then making retirement contributions under any prior act shall have his membership transferred to the system established by this chapter as of such date. Upon retirement for service or for disability, or death, of any such employee, his retirement benefits earned under this chapter shall be computed and paid. In addition, his benefits under the prior retirement act to which he was making contributions at the time of this transfer shall be computed as if he had not transferred. For the purpose of such computations, the employee's creditability of service and eligibility for service or disability retirement and survivor and all other benefits shall continue to be as provided in such prior retirement act, as if transfer of membership had not occurred. The excess, if any, of the benefits so computed, giving full value to survivor benefits, over the benefits payable under this chapter shall be paid. If the employee's prior retirement system was the Washington public employees' retirement system, payment of such excess shall be made by that system; if the employee's prior retirement system was the state-wide city employees' retirement system, payment of such excess shall be made by the employer which was the member's employer when his transfer of membership occurred: PROVIDED, That any death in line of duty lump sum benefit payment shall continue to be the obligation of that system as provided in RCW 41.44.210; in the case of all other prior retirement systems, payment of such excess shall be made by the employer which was the member's employer when his transfer of membership occurred.

(3) All funds held by any firemen's or policemen's relief and pension fund shall remain in that fund for the purpose of paying the obligations of the fund. The municipality shall continue to levy the ((millage)) dollar rate as provided in RCW 41.16.060, and this ((millage)) dollar rate shall be used for the purpose of paying the benefits provided in chapters 41.16 and 41.18 RCW. The obligations of chapter 41.20 RCW shall continue to be paid from whatever financial sources the city has been using for this purpose.

(4) Any member transferring from the Washington public employees' retirement system or the state-wide city employees' retirement system shall have transferred from the appropriate fund of the prior system of membership, a sum sufficient to pay into the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system fund the amount of the employees' and employers' contributions plus credited interest in the prior system for all service, as defined in this chapter, from the date of the employee's entrance therein until March 1, 1970. Except as provided for in subsection (2), such transfer of funds shall discharge said state retirement systems from any further obligation to pay benefits to such transferring members with respect to such service.

(5) All unfunded liabilities created by this or any other section of this chapter shall be computed by the actuary in his biennial evaluation. Such computation shall provide for amortization of the unfunded liabilities over a period of not more than forty years from March 1, 1970. The amount thus computed as necessary shall be reported to the governor by the board of the retirement system for inclusion in the budget. The legislature shall make the necessary appropriation to fund the unfunded liability from the state general fund beginning with the 1971-1973 biennium.

Sec. 45. Section 2, chapter 13, Laws of 1911 and RCW 45.72.050 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be levied annually at the same time the levy for general county taxes is made, and by the officers levying the said county tax, a tax of not more than ((five mills on the dollar)) one dollar and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value on all taxable property within the territorial limits of every such road district as the same existed at the time of the adoption of such township organization for the payment of and until the full amount of all indebtedness, together with all accrued and accruing interest thereon, existing against any such road district, shall have been paid in full.

Sec. 46. Section 3, chapter 243, Laws of 1969 ex.

sess. and RCW 45.82.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Any township which at the time that this 1969 amendatory act takes effect has outstanding obligations in excess of anticipated receipts from sources other than general tax levies for the next ensuing year may certify the same to the board of county commissioners and the board shall levy taxes on the property within the township at the rates which the township would have been permitted to levy except for this 1969 amendatory act until such obligations have been extinguished, and until such time such ((millage)) dollar rate levy will take precedence over any additional ((millage)) dollar rates of fire protection districts under this 1969 amendatory act.

Sec. 47. Section 46.68.120, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 103, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 46.68.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Funds to be paid to the counties of the state shall be subject to deduction and distribution as follows:

(1) Three-fourths of one percent of such sums shall be deducted monthly as such sums accrue and set aside for the use of the state highway commission and the county road administration board for the supervision of work and expenditures of such counties on the county roads thereof: PROVIDED, That any moneys so retained and not expended shall be credited in the succeeding biennium to the counties in proportion to deductions herein made;

(2) All sums required to be repaid to counties composed entirely of islands shall be deducted;

(3) The balance remaining to the credit of counties after such deductions shall be paid to the several counties monthly, as such funds accrue, upon the basis of the following formula:

(a) Ten percent of such sum shall be divided equally among the several counties.

(b) Thirty percent shall be paid to each county in direct proportion that the sum of the total number of private automobiles and trucks licensed by registered owners residing in unincorporated areas and seven percent of the number of private automobiles and trucks licensed by registered owners residing in incorporated areas within each county bears to the total of such sums for all counties. The number of registered vehicles so used shall be as certified by the director of the department of motor vehicles for the year next preceding the date of calculation of the allocation amounts. The director of the department shall first supply such information not later than the fifteenth day of February, 1956, and on the fifteenth of February each two years thereafter.

(c) Thirty percent shall be paid to each county in direct proportion that the product of the county's trunk highway mileage and its prorated estimated annual cost per trunk mile as provided in subsection (e) is to the sum of such products for all counties. County trunk highways are defined as county roads regularly used by school buses and/or rural free delivery mail carriers of the United States post office department, but not foot carriers. Determination of the number of miles of county roads used in each county by school buses shall be based solely upon information supplied by the superintendent of public instruction who shall on October 1, 1955 and on October 1st of each odd-numbered year thereafter furnish the state highway commission with a map of each county upon which is indicated the county roads used by school buses at the close of the preceding school year, together with a detailed statement showing the total number of miles of county highway over which school buses operated in each county during such year. Determination of the number of miles of county roads used in each county by rural mail carriers on routes serviced by vehicles during the year shall be based solely upon information supplied by the United States postal department as of January 1st of the even-numbered years.

(d) Thirty percent of such sum shall be paid to each of the several counties in the direct proportion that the product of the trunk highway mileage of the county and its 'money need factor' as defined in subsection (f) is to the total of such products for all counties.

(e) Every four years, beginning with the 1958 allocation, the highway commission and the legislative transportation committee shall reexamine or cause to be reexamined all the factors on which the estimated annual costs per trunk mile for the several counties have been based and shall make such adjustments as may be necessary. The following formula shall be used: One twenty-fifth of the estimated total county road replacement cost, plus the total annual maintenance cost, divided by the total miles of county road in such county, and multiplied by the result obtained from dividing the total miles of county road in said county by the total trunk road mileage in said county. For the purpose of allocating funds from the motor vehicle fund, a county road shall be defined as one established as such by resolution or order of establishment of the board of county commissioners. The first allocation of funds shall be based on the following prorated estimated annual costs per trunk mile for the several counties as follows:

PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the prorated estimated annual costs per trunk mile in this subsection shall be adjusted every four years, beginning with the 1958 allocation by the highway commission on the basis of changes in the trunk and total county road mileage based on information supplied by the superintendent of public instruction, the United States postal department and the annual reports of the county road departments.

(f) The 'money need factor' for each of the several counties shall be the difference between the prorated estimated annual costs as listed above and the sum of the following three amounts divided by the county trunk highway mileage:

(1) The equivalent of a ~~(ten mill)~~ two dollar and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value tax levy on the valuation, as equalized by the state department of revenue for state purposes, of all taxable property in the county road districts;

(2) One-fourth the sum of all funds received by the county from the federal forest reserve fund during the two calendar years next preceding the date of the adjustment of the allocation amounts as certified by the state treasurer; and

(3) One-half the sum of motor vehicle license fees and motor vehicle fuel tax refunded to the county during the two calendar years next preceding the date of the adjustment of the allocation amounts as provided in RCW 46.68.080. These shall be as supplied to the highway commission by the state treasurer for that purpose. The department of revenue and the state treasurer shall supply the information herein requested on or before January 1, 1956 and on said date each two years thereafter.

The following formula shall be used for the purpose of obtaining the 'money need factor' of the several counties: The prorated estimated annual cost per trunk mile multiplied by the trunk miles will equal the total need of the individual county. The total need minus the sum of the three resources set forth in subsection (f) shall equal the net need. The net need of the individual county divided by the total net needs for all counties shall equal the 'money need factor' for that county.

(g) The state highway commission shall adjust the allocations of the several counties on March 1st of every even-numbered year based solely upon the sources of information hereinbefore required: PROVIDED, That the total allocation factor composed of the sum of the four factors defined in subsections (a), (b), (c) and (d) shall be held to a level not more than five percent above or five percent below the total allocation factor in use during the previous two year period.

(h) The highway commission and the legislative transportation committee shall relog or cause to be relogged the total road mileages upon which the prorated estimated annual costs per trunk mile are based and shall recalculate such costs on the basis of such relogging and shall report their findings and recommendations to the legislature at its next regular session.

(i) The highway commission and the legislative transportation committee shall study and report their findings and recommendations to the legislature concerning the following problems as they affect the allocation of 'motor vehicle fund' funds to counties:

(1) Comparative costs per trunk mile based on federal aid contracts versus those herein advocated.

(2) Average costs per trunk mile.

(3) The advisability of using either 'trunk mileage' or 'county road' mileage exclusively as the criterion instead of both as in this plan adopted.

(4) Reassessment of bridge costs based on current information and relogging of bridges.

(5) The items in the list of resources used in determining the 'need factor'.

(6) The development of a uniform accounting system for counties with regard to road and bridge construction and maintenance costs.

(7) A redefinition of rural and urban vehicles which better reflects the use of said vehicles on county roads.

Sec. 48. Section 20, chapter 34, Laws of 1939 as last amended by section 1, chapter 101, Laws of 1963 and RCW 52.08.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Any fire protection district organized under this act shall have authority:

(1) To lease, own, maintain, operate and provide fire engines and all other necessary or proper apparatus, facilities, machinery and equipment for the prevention and extinguishment of fires, and protection of life and property;

(2) To lease, own, maintain and operate real property, improvements and fixtures thereon suitable and convenient for housing, repairing and caring for fire fighting equipment;

(3) To enter into contract with any incorporated city or town whereby such city or town shall furnish fire prevention and fire extinguishment service to the districts and the inhabitants thereof under the provisions of this act upon such terms as the board of directors of the district shall determine. To contract with another county fire protection district, or with any town, city or municipal corporation or governmental agency or private person or persons to consolidate or cooperate for mutual fire fighting protection and prevention purposes. Any city, town, municipal corporation or governmental agency may contract with a county fire protection district established and maintained under the provisions of this act for the purpose of affording such district fire fighting and protection equipment and service or fire prevention facilities, and in so contracting the district, city, town, municipal corporation or other governmental agency shall be deemed for all purposes to act within its governmental capacity. Any county fire protection district established and maintained under the provisions of this act, or any city, town, municipal corporation or other governmental agency is hereby authorized to contract with any person, firm or corporation for the purpose of affording fire fighting, protection or fire prevention facilities to such person, firm or corporation and such contractual relation shall be deemed for all purposes to be within the governmental power of such rural fire protection district, city, town, municipal corporation or other governmental agency;

(4) Fire protection districts situated in different counties may contract to operate jointly in carrying out the objects of their creation. Contracts for joint operation may provide for joint ownership of property and equipment, and may authorize a joint board of fire commissioners of the contracting districts to manage the affairs of the joint operations; to employ and discharge the necessary agents and employees and fix their respective wages and salaries; to provide and designate a suitable place in any county in which any of the contracting districts is situated, as a regular meeting place for the joint board; to incur the necessary expenses and direct the payment therefor from the funds of the contracting districts in such proportion as the joint boards shall determine; and to do all things as may in the judgment of the joint board be required to carry out the joint operations of the contracting districts.

The joint board shall consist of the members of the boards of the contracting districts and a majority of the membership of each district board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of the joint board. The members of the boards of fire commissioners of the contracting districts shall organize as a joint board annually in January after the second Monday thereof, elect a chairman and appoint a secretary for the ensuing year. Any member of the board of any contracting district may act as secretary of the joint board or the joint board may appoint such other person as the joint board may determine. The joint board shall prepare the annual budget for the joint operation of the contracting districts and shall determine the share of revenues for the joint operation to be raised by each district and the share of the expense of joint operation to be paid by each district in the ensuing year, and the secretary of the joint board shall certify and deliver within the time required by law, to the county auditor of each county involved, the part of the budget to be raised by the district in that county and the tax officials of that county shall levy and collect the tax, and the county treasurer shall pay vouchers drawn by the joint board on the funds of the district in that county upon warrants issued by the county auditor of that county.

Contracts for joint operation of fire districts, as herein authorized shall run from year to year and as of January 1st may be terminated by written notice of the board of fire commissioners of any contracting district to the other contracting district or districts on or before July 1st and the contract for joint operations shall terminate on January 1st following: PROVIDED, That all obligations of the joint operations must be paid or definitely arranged for before contract termination and no notice of termination shall relieve any contracting district of its unpaid obligation incurred under the contract for joint operation;

(5) To encourage uniformity and coordination of fire protection district operation programs, the fire commissioners of two or more fire protection districts, may form an association thereof, for the purpose of securing data and information of value in fighting and in preventing fires; hold and attend meetings thereof; and promote more economical and efficient operation of the associated fire protection districts. The directors of fire protection districts so associated shall adopt articles of association, select a chairman and secretary, and such other officers as they may determine, and may employ and discharge such agents and employees as the officers deem convenient to carry out the purposes of the association. The expenses of the association may be paid from fire protection district expense funds upon vouchers of the respective associated districts: PROVIDED, That the aggregate contributions made to the association by any district in any calendar year shall not exceed ((one-tenth of one mill of the tax valuation of the district)) two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation;

(6) Two or more fire protection districts may contract with each other and such a district may contract with a city or county or the state supervisor of forestry or any association approved by him for the joint leasing, ownership, maintenance and operation of all necessary and proper apparatus, facilities, machinery, and equipment for the elimination of fire hazards and for the protection of life and property within the contracting districts, and of real property, improvements and fixtures thereon suitable and convenient for the housing, repairing, and caring for such apparatus, facilities, machinery, and equipment, and may contribute their agreed proportion of the cost and expense thereof:

Such contracts shall be executed by the commissioners of the contracting districts and, when the contract is between such districts, the terms and conditions thereof shall be carried out by the boards of commissioners acting jointly;

The findings of the legislative budget committee shall be considered when establishing the forest patrol assessment for the ensuing biennium).

For the purpose of this act, the supervisor may divide the forest lands of the state, or any part thereof, into districts, for patrol and assessment purposes, may classify lands according to the character of timber prevailing, and the fire hazard existing, and place unprotected lands under the administration of the proper district. Any amounts paid or contracted to be paid by the supervisor of natural resources for this purpose from any funds at his disposal shall be a lien upon the property patrolled and protected, and unless reimbursed by the owner within ten days after October 1st of the year in which they were incurred, on which date the supervisor of natural resources shall be prepared to make statement thereof upon request to any forest owner whose own protection has not been previously approved by him as adequate, shall be reported by the supervisor of natural resources to the assessor of the county in which the property is situated who shall extend the amounts upon the tax rolls covering the property, or the county assessor may upon authorization from the supervisor of natural resources levy the forest patrol assessment against the amounts of unimproved land as shown in each ownership on the county assessor's records and the assessor may then segregate on his records to provide that the improved land and improvements thereon carry the ((millage)) dollar rate levy designed to support the rural fire protection districts as provided for in chapter 52.04 RCW.

The amounts assessed shall be collected at the time, in the same manner, by the same procedure, and with the same penalties attached that the next general state and county taxes on the same property are collected, except that errors in assessments may be corrected at any time by the supervisor of natural resources certifying them to the treasurer of the county in which the land involved is situated. Upon the collection of such assessments the county treasurer shall transmit them to the supervisor of natural resources to be applied against expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this section.

The supervisor of natural resources shall include in the assessment a sum not to exceed one-half of one cent per acre, to cover the necessary and reasonable cost of office and clerical work incurred in the enforcement of these provisions. He may also expend any sums collected from owners of forest lands or received from any other source for necessary office and clerical expense in connection with the enforcement of RCW 76.04.370.

When land against which fire patrol assessments are outstanding is acquired for delinquent taxes and sold at public auction, the state shall have a prior lien on the proceeds of sale over and above the amount necessary to satisfy the county's delinquent tax judgment, and the county treasurer in case the proceeds of sale exceed the amount of the delinquent tax judgment shall forthwith remit to the supervisor of natural resources the amount of the outstanding patrol assessments.

The supervisor of natural resources shall furnish a good and sufficient surety company bond running to the state, in a sum as great as the probable amount of money annually coming into his hands under the provisions of this chapter, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties and for a faithful accounting for all sums received and expended thereunder, which bond shall be approved by the attorney general.

Sec. 88. Section 13, chapter 288, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.04.140 are each amended to read as follows:

The term 'regular property taxes' and the term 'regular property tax levy' shall mean a property tax levy by or for a taxing district which levy is subject to the aggregate limitation set forth in section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act and RCW 84.52.050, as now or hereafter amended, or which is imposed by or for a port district or a public utility district.

Sec. 89. Section 84.28.090, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 33, chapter 299, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.28.090 are each amended to read as follows:

All lands classified as reforestation lands as provided in this chapter and lying west of the summit of the Cascade range of mountains in the state of Washington shall, after the date of such classification, be assessed for purposes of taxation at ~~((eight))~~ sixteen dollars per acre, which is hereby declared to be the assessed value thereof; and all lands so classified lying east of the summit of the Cascade range of mountains shall be assessed for purposes of taxation at ~~((four))~~ eight dollars per acre, which is hereby declared to be the assessed value thereof. The above values shall apply as the actual basis for taxation of such lands, without regard to any percentages of value which may apply for taxation of other classes of property; and the taxation of such lands on the basis herein provided shall be separate and distinct from and in addition to the cost of protecting such lands from fire as provided under the laws of Washington.

Sec. 90. Section 5, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 148, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In preparing the assessment roll as of January 1, 1971 for taxes payable in 1972, the assessor of each timber county shall list all timber within such county on January 1, 1971 at the 1970 timber value. For each year commencing with 1972, the assessor of each timber county shall prepare a timber roll, which shall be separate and apart from the assessment roll, listing all timber within such county on January 1, 1972 at values determined as follows:

(a) For the five years commencing with 1972, the value shall be the 1970 timber value;

(b) For each succeeding five year period, the first of which commences on January 1, 1977, the value shall be such 1970 timber value increased or decreased in proportion to the percentage change, if any, which has occurred between the last year of the preceding five year period and 1973 in the average stumpage value per unit of measure of all timber harvested in such county. Such percentage change shall be determined by the department of revenue on the basis of information contained in the excise tax returns filed pursuant to RCW 82.04.291.

(2) As used in subsection (1) of this section, '1970 timber value' means the value for timber calculated in the same manner and using the same values and valuation factors actually used by such assessor in determining the value of timber for the January 1, 1970 assessment roll, except that if a revised schedule of such values and valuation factors was applied to some but not all timber in a county for the January 1, 1970 assessment roll, such revised schedule shall be used by the assessor for any timber revalued for the 1971 or 1972 assessment rolls, and except that if the value of timber in any county on January 1, 1970 was not separately determined and shown on such assessment roll, 1970 timber value shall mean the value reconstructed from available records and information in accordance with rules to be prescribed by the department of revenue.

(3) The assessor of each timber county shall add to the assessment roll showing values of property as of January 1 of the years listed below, an 'assessed valuation' of the portion, indicated below opposite each such year, of the value of timber as shown on the timber roll for such year. Such assessed valuation shall be calculated by multiplying such portion of the timber roll by the assessment ratio applied generally by such assessor in computing the assessed valuation of other property in his county. The ((millage)) dollar rates, calculated pursuant to RCW 84.33.060 for each taxing district within which there was timber on January 1 of such year, shall be extended against such 'assessed valuation' of timber within such district as well as against the assessed value of all other property within such district as shown on such assessment roll.

Year	Portion of Timber Roll
1973	45%
1974 and thereafter	None

(4) Timber may be added to the timber roll, at the value specified in subsection (1) of this section, commencing as of January 1 following the designation of the land upon which such timber stands pursuant to subsection (3) of RCW 84.33.120 or 84.33.130, but only if the value of such timber was not separately determined and shown on the assessment roll as of either January 1, 1970 or January 1, 1972;

(5) Timber may be added to the timber roll, at the value specified in subsection (1) of this section, commencing as of January 1st following the sale or transfer of the land upon which such timber stands from an ownership in which such land was exempt from ad valorem taxation to an ownership in which such land is no longer exempt.

(6) The value of timber shall be deleted from the timber roll upon the sale or transfer of the land upon which such timber stands to an ownership in which such land is exempt from ad valorem taxation.

Sec. 91. Section 6, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.060 are each amended to read as follows:

In each year commencing with 1972 and ending with 1980, solely for the purpose of determining, calculating and fixing, pursuant to chapter 84.52 RCW, the ((millage)) dollar rates for all regular and excess levies for the state and each timber county and taxing district lying wholly or partially in such county within which there was timber on January 1 of such year, the assessor of such timber county shall, for each such district, add to the amount of the 'assessed valuation of the property' of all property other than timber the product of:

(a) The portion indicated below for each year of the value of timber therein as shown on the timber roll prepared in accordance with RCW 84.33.050 for such year; and

(b) The assessment ratio applied generally by such assessor in computing the assessed value of other property in his county:

Year	Portion of Timber Roll
1972 through 1977	100%
1978	75%
1979	50%
1980	25%
1981 and thereafter	None

Sec. 92. Section 8, chapter 294, chapter 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 148, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) On or before December 15 of each year commencing with 1972 and ending with 1980, the assessor of each timber county shall deliver to the treasurer of such county and to the department of revenue a schedule setting forth for each taxing district or portion thereof lying within such county:

(a) The value of timber as shown on the timber roll for such year;

(b) The aggregate ((millage)) dollar rate calculated pursuant to RCW 84.33.060 and actually utilized the immediately preceding October in extending property taxes upon the tax rolls for collection in the following year;

(c) A 'timber factor' which is the product of such aggregate ((millage)) dollar rate, the assessment ratio applied generally by such assessor in computing the assessed value of other property in his county and the appropriate portion listed below of the timber roll for such year ((a) above):

Year	Portion of Timber Roll
1972	25%
1973	55%
1974 through 1977	100%
1978	75%

On or before December 31 of each year commencing with 1972 and ending with 1980, the department of revenue shall determine the proportion that each taxing district's timber factor bears to the sum of the timber factors for all taxing districts in the state, and shall deliver a list to the assessor and the treasurer of each timber county and to the state treasurer showing the factor and proportion for each taxing district.

(2) On the tenth day of the second month of each calendar quarter, commencing February 10, 1973 and ending November 10, 1981, the state treasurer shall pay to the treasurer of each timber county for the account of each taxing district such district's proportion (determined in December of the preceding year pursuant to subsection (1) of this section) of the amount in state timber tax fund A collected upon timber harvested in the preceding calendar quarter, but in no event shall any quarterly payment to a taxing district, when added to the payments made to such district the previous quarters of the same year, exceed the timber factor for such district determined in December of the preceding year. The balance in state timber tax fund A, if any, after the distribution to taxing districts on November 10 each year commencing with 1973 and ending with

1981, shall be transferred to the state timber reserve fund.

(3) If the balance in state timber tax fund A immediately prior to such November 10 distribution to taxing districts is not sufficient to permit a payment which, when added to the payments made to any taxing district the previous quarters of the same year, will equal the timber factor for such district determined in December of the preceding year, the necessary additional amount shall be transferred from the state timber reserve fund to state timber tax fund A.

(4) The balance, if any, in the state timber reserve fund after the final transfer, if any, to or from state timber tax fund A in November of 1981, shall be transferred to state timber tax fund B on December 31, 1981, and one-fourth of such balance shall be distributed in each quarter of 1982 in the manner set forth in subsection (6) of this section.

(5) On or before December 31 of each year commencing with 1978, the department of revenue shall deliver to the treasurer of each timber county a schedule setting forth for each taxing district or portion thereof lying within such county:

(a) The average of the aggregate value of all timber harvested within such district in each of the immediately preceding five years as determined from the excise tax returns filed with the department of revenue;

(b) The aggregate ~~{(millage)}~~ dollar rate calculated pursuant to RCW 84.33.060 and chapter 84.52 RCW and actually utilized the immediately preceding October in extending property taxes upon the tax rolls for collection the following year;

(c) A 'harvest factor' which is the product of such five year average and such aggregate ~~{(millage)}~~ dollar rate;

(d) The proportion that each taxing district's harvest factor bears to the sum of the harvest factors for all taxing districts in the state.

(6) On the tenth day of the second month of each calendar quarter commencing February 10, 1979, the state treasurer shall pay to the treasurer of each timber county for the account of each taxing district such district's proportion (determined in December of the preceding year pursuant to subsection (5) of this section) of the amount in state timber tax fund B collected upon timber harvested in the preceding calendar quarter.

Sec. 93. Section 14, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 6, chapter 148, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When land has been designated as forest land pursuant to subsection (3) of RCW 84.33.120 or 84.33.130, a notation of such designation shall be made each year upon the assessment and tax rolls, a copy of the notice of approval together with the legal description or assessor's tax lot numbers for such land shall, at the expense of the applicant, be filed by the assessor in the same manner as deeds are recorded, and such land shall be graded and valued pursuant to RCW 84.33.110 and 84.33.120 until removal of such designation by the assessor upon occurrence of any of the following:

(a) Receipt of notice from the owner to remove such designation;

(b) Passage of sixty days following the sale or transfer of such land to a new owner without receipt of an application pursuant to RCW 84.33.130 from the new owner;

(c) Sale or transfer to an ownership making such land exempt from ad valorem taxation;

(d) Determination by the assessor, after giving the owner written notice and an opportunity to be heard, that such land is no longer primarily devoted to and used for growing and harvesting timber.

Removal of designation upon occurrence of any of subsections (a) through (c) above shall apply only to the land affected, and upon occurrence of subsection (d) shall apply only to the actual area of land no longer primarily devoted to and used for growing and harvesting timber, without regard to other land that may have been included in the same application and approval for designation.

(2) Within thirty days after such removal of designation of forest land, the assessor shall notify the owner in writing, setting forth the reasons for such removal. The owner may appeal such removal to the county board of equalization.

(3) Unless the removal is reversed on appeal a copy of the notice of removal with notation of the action, if any, upon appeal, together with the legal description or assessor's tax lot numbers for the land removed from designation shall, at the expense of the applicant, be filed by the assessor in the same manner as deeds are recorded, and commencing on January 1 of the year following the year in which the assessor mailed such notice, such land shall be assessed on the same basis as real property is assessed generally in that county. Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, a compensating tax shall be imposed which shall be due and payable to the county treasurer on or before April 30 of the following year. On or before May 31 following such assessment date, the assessor shall compute the amount of such compensating tax and mail notice to the owner of the amount thereof and the date on which payment is due. The amount of such compensating tax shall be equal to:

(a) The difference between the amount of tax last levied on such land as forest land and an amount equal to the new assessed valuation of such land multiplied by the (~~millage~~) dollar rate of the last levy extended against such land, multiplied by

(b) A number, in no event greater than ten, equal to the number of years for which such land was designated as forest land.

(4) Any compensating tax unpaid on its due date shall thereupon become delinquent and together with applicable interest thereon, shall as of said date become a lien on such land which shall have priority to and shall be fully paid and satisfied before any recognizance, mortgage, judgment, debt, obligation or responsibility to or with which such land may become charged or liable. Such lien may be foreclosed upon expiration of the same period after delinquency and in the same manner provided by law for foreclosure of liens for delinquent real property taxes as provided in RCW 84.64.050. From the date of delinquency until paid, interest shall be charged at the same rate applied by law to delinquent ad valorem property taxes.

(5) The compensating tax specified in subsection (3) of this section shall not be imposed if the removal of designation pursuant to subsection (1) of this section resulted solely from:

(a) Transfer to a government entity in exchange for other forest land located within the state of Washington;

(b) A taking through the exercise of the power of eminent domain, or sale or transfer to an entity having the power of eminent domain in anticipation of the exercise of such power;

(c) Sale or transfer of land within two years after the death of the owner of at least a fifty percent interest in such land.

Sec. 94. Section 4, chapter 243, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.230 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of acquiring conservation futures as well as other rights and interests in real property pursuant to RCW 84.34.210 and 84.34.220, a county may levy an amount not to exceed ~~((one-eighth of one mill on))~~ six and one-quarter cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation against the assessed valuation of all taxable property within the county, which levy shall be in addition to that authorized by RCW 84.52.050 and section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act.

Sec. 95. Section 1, chapter 117, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 84.36.270 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in RCW 84.36.280, whenever the owner of any real property dedicates the perpetual right to use the air space over his property to any county, city or other political subdivision of this state for the construction, operation and maintenance of stadium facilities, or for any parking facilities to be used in connection therewith, pursuant to the provisions of chapter 67.28 RCW, such property shall be exempt from general property taxation to such extent and as to such ~~((millage))~~ dollar rate as shall be determined by the county, city or other political subdivision, and subject to being used by a public body for a public purpose and only so long as the owner allows the use by the public body of the dedicated air rights free of rents or other charges.

Sec. 96. Section 84.40.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 125, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 84.40.030 are each amended to read as follows:

All property shall be ~~((assessed fifty))~~ valued at one hundred percent of its true and fair value in money and assessed on the same basis unless specifically provided otherwise by law.

Taxable leasehold estates shall be valued at such price as they would bring at a fair, voluntary sale for cash without any deductions for any indebtedness owed including rentals to be paid. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section or of any other statute, when the value of any taxable leasehold estate created prior to January 1, 1971 is being determined for assessment years prior to the assessment year 1973, there shall be deducted from what would otherwise be the value thereof the present worth of the rentals and other consideration which may be required of the lessee by the lessor for the unexpired term thereof: PROVIDED, That the foregoing provisions of this sentence shall not apply to any extension or renewal, made after December 31, 1970 of the term of any such estate, or to any such estate after the date, if any, provided for in the agreement for rental renegotiation.

The true and fair value of real property for taxation purposes (including property upon which there is a coal or other mine, or stone or other quarry) shall be based upon the following criteria:

(1) (a) Any sales of the property being appraised or similar property with respect to sales made within the past five years ((less a percentage equal to the average, ordinary and usual direct costs of sale of that type of property, including but not limited to costs of title insurance, legal services, recording fees and taxes levied against such sales that are borne by the seller, and an amount equal to the customary fees payable to a licensed real estate broker for handling such a sale; such percentage to be determined by studies conducted by the department of revenue)). The appraisal shall take into consideration political restrictions such as zoning as well as physical and environmental influences. The appraisal shall also take into account, (i) in the use of sales by real estate contract as similar sales, the extent, if any, to which the stated selling price has been increased by reason of the down payment, interest rate, or other financing terms; and (ii) the extent to which the sale of a similar property actually represents the general effective market demand for property of such type, in the geographical area in which such property is located. Sales involving deed releases or similar seller-developer financing arrangements shall not be used as sales of similar property.

(b) In addition to sales as defined in subsection (1) (a), consideration may be given to cost, cost less depreciation, reconstruction cost less depreciation, or capitalization of income that would be derived from prudent use of the property. In the case of property of a complex nature, or being used under terms of a franchise from a public agency, or operating as a public utility, or property not having a record of sale within five years and not having a significant number of sales of similar property in the general area, the provisions of this subsection (1) (b) shall be the dominant factors in valuation. When provisions of this subsection (1) (b) are relied upon for establishing values the property owner shall be advised upon request of the factors used in arriving at such value.

(c) In valuing any tract or parcel of real property, the value of the land, exclusive of structures thereon shall be determined; also the value of structures thereon, but the valuation shall not exceed the value of the total property as it exists. In valuing agricultural land, growing crops shall be excluded.

PROVIDED, That the provisions of this subsection (1) shall be applicable to all values for use in computing property taxes for the assessment year 1972 for taxes payable in 1973 and subsequent years.

Sec. 97. Section 84.40.040, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 36, chapter 149, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 84.40.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The assessor shall begin the preliminary work for each assessment not later than the first day of December of each year in all counties in the state. He shall also complete the duties of listing and placing valuations on all property by May 31st of each year, and in the following manner, to wit:

He shall actually determine as nearly as practicable the true and fair value of each tract or lot of land listed for taxation and of each improvement located thereon and shall enter ((fifty)) one hundred percent of the value of such land and of the total value of such improvements, together with the total of such ((fifty)) one hundred percent valuations, opposite each description of property on his assessment list and tax roll.

He shall make an alphabetical list of the names of all persons in his county liable to assessment of personal property, and require each person to make a correct list and statement of such property according to the standard form prescribed by the department of revenue, which statement and list shall include, if required by the form, the year of acquisition and total original cost of personal property in each category of the prescribed form, and shall be signed and verified under penalty of perjury by the person listing the property. Such list and statement shall be filed on or before the last day of March, but the assessor, upon written request filed on or before such date and for good cause shown therein, shall allow a reasonable extension of time for filing. The assessor shall on or before the 1st day of January of each year mail a notice to all such persons at their last known address that such statement and list is required, such notice to be accompanied by the form on which the statement or list is to be made: PROVIDED, That ((for the years 1968 and 1969 a second notice shall be mailed on or before the 45th day of March: PROVIDED FURTHER, That)) the notice mailed by the assessor to each taxpayer each year shall, if practicable, include the statement and list of personal property of the taxpayer for the preceding year. Upon receipt of such statement and list the assessor shall thereupon determine the true and fair value of the property included in such statement and enter ((fifty)) one hundred percent of the same in the assessment books opposite the name of the party assessed; and in making such entry in his assessment list, he shall give the name and post office address of the party listing the property, and if the party resides in a city the assessor shall give the street and number or other brief description of his residence or place of business. The assessor may, after giving written notice of his action to the person to be assessed, add to the assessment list any taxable property which, in his judgment, should be included in such list.

Sec. 98. Section 84.40.320, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.40.320 are each amended to read as follows:

The assessor shall add up and note the amount of each column in his detail and assessment lists, which he shall have bound in book form in such manner, to be prescribed or approved by the state tax commission, as will provide a convenient and permanent record of assessment. He shall also make, under proper headings, a tabular statement showing the footings of the several columns upon each page, and shall add and set down under the respective headings the total amounts of each column, which he shall attach to the highest numbered assessment book, and on the first Monday of July he shall file the same, properly indexed, with the clerk of the county board of equalization for the purpose of equalization by the said board. Such returns shall be verified by his affidavit, substantially in the following form:

State of Washington,.....County, ss.
 I,....., Assessor....., do solemnly swear that the books No. 1 to No., to the last of which this is attached, contain a correct and full list of all the real property (or personal property, as the case may be) subject to taxation in county, so far as I have been able to ascertain the same; and that the assessed value set down in the proper column, opposite the several kinds and descriptions of property, is in each case ((fifty)) one hundred percent of the true and fair value of such property, to the best of my knowledge and belief, and that the footings of the several columns in said books, and the tabular statement returned herewith, are correct, as I verily believe.

....., Assessor.
 Subscribed and sworn to before me this..... day of, 19.....

(L. S.), Auditor of..... county. PROVIDED, That the failure of the assessor to attach his certificate shall in nowise invalidate the assessment. After the same has been duly equalized by the county and state board of equalization, the same shall be delivered to the county assessor, who shall then extend the amount as levied by the state and county boards upon the said detail and assessment lists as by law provided.

Sec. 99. Section 84.48.080, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 9, chapter 288, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.48.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Annually during the month of August, the department of revenue shall examine and compare the returns of the assessment of the property in the several counties of the state, and the assessment of the property of railroad and other companies assessed by the department, and proceed to equalize the same, so that each county in the state shall pay its due and just proportion of the taxes for state purposes for such assessment year, according to the ratio the valuation of the property in each county bears to the total valuation of all property in the state.

First. The department shall classify all property, real and personal, and shall raise and lower the valuation of any class of property in any county to a value that shall be equal, so far as possible, to the true and fair value of such class as of January 1st of the current year for the purpose of ascertaining the just amount of tax due from each county for state purposes. Such classification may be on the basis of types of property, geographical areas, or both.

Second. The department shall keep a full record of its proceedings and the same shall be published annually by the department.

Third. The department shall have authority to adopt rules and regulations to enforce obedience to its orders in all matters in relation to the returns of county assessments, and the equalization of values by the department.

The department shall levy the state taxes authorized by law: PROVIDED, That the amount levied in any one year for general state purposes shall not exceed the lawful (~~millage~~) dollar rate on the dollar of the assessed value of the property of the entire state, which assessed value shall be (~~fifty~~) one hundred percent of the true and fair value of such property in money; and shall apportion the amount of tax for state purposes levied by the department, among the several counties, in proportion to the valuation of the taxable property of the county for the year as equalized by the department.

After the completion of the duties hereinabove prescribed, the director of the department shall certify the record of the proceedings of the department under this section, the tax levies made for state purposes and the apportionment thereof among the counties, to the state auditor.

Sec. 100. Section 8, chapter 288, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.48.085 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of equalization shall reconvene on the first Monday of August for the purpose of equalizing valuations of real property within the county. Such equalization shall be accomplished in the following manner:

(1) The department of revenue shall certify to the board the ratio of the assessed valuation of locally assessed property in the county to the true and fair value of such property, based upon assessed values established without regard to equalization accomplished pursuant to this section (hereinafter referred to as the 'tentative county indicated ratio'). The department shall also certify the ratio of the assessed valuation of locally assessed property in those geographical areas in the county which have been revalued (~~pursuant to a cyclical revaluation program approved by the department of revenue~~) during the year ending May 31st prior to the convening of the board to the true and fair value of such property (hereinafter referred to as the 'revaluation ratio'). If, pursuant to the (~~eyetical~~) revaluation program, land alone or improvements alone have been revalued for any assessment year, the revaluation ratio shall be for land alone, or improvements alone, as appropriate, or such combination thereof as is appropriate. The board shall review the revaluation ratio so certified, and may accept, reject, or modify the ratio.

(2) If the revaluation ratio, as determined by the board, exceeds one hundred and (~~ten~~) fifteen percent of the tentative county indicated ratio, the board shall order the assessor, in accordance with the provisions of RCW

84.41.040, to reduce by a uniform percentage the true and fair values of land, improvements, or both as appropriate, within the geographical areas covered by the revaluation ratio by a uniform percentage such that the revaluation ratio shall equal the tentative county indicated ratio. The board shall also order the assessor to make appropriate similar adjustments to properties valued in the same year. For the purpose of administrative convenience, such reductions may be accomplished, in lieu of actual changes in the assessment rolls, by the assessor certifying to the treasurer the percentage adjustment for the geographical areas involved, on the basis of which the treasurer shall adjust the amount of taxes otherwise payable.

Sec. 101. Section 84.52.010, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 6, chapter 243, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.52.010 are each amended to read as follows:

All taxes shall be levied or voted in specific amounts, and the rate percent of all taxes for state and county purposes, and purposes of taxing districts coextensive with the county, shall be determined, calculated and fixed by the county assessors of the respective counties, within the limitations provided by law, upon the assessed valuation of the property of the county, as shown by the completed tax rolls of the county, and the rate percent of all taxes levied for purposes of taxing districts within any county shall be determined, calculated and fixed by the county assessors of the respective counties, within the limitations provided by law, upon the assessed valuation of the property of the taxing districts respectively: PROVIDED, That when any such county assessor shall find that the aggregate rate of levy on any property will exceed the limitation set forth in section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act and RCW 84.52.050 as now or hereafter amended, he shall recompute and establish a consolidated levy in the following manner:

(1) He shall include for extension on the tax rolls the full rates of levy certified to him for state, county, county road districts, city and school district purposes in amounts not exceeding the limitations established by law: PROVIDED, That in the event of a levy made pursuant to ((section 5 of this 1971 amendatory act)) RCW 84.34.230, the rates of levy for county, county road district, and school district purposes shall be reduced in such uniform percentages as will result in a consolidated levy by such taxing districts which will be no greater on any property than a consolidated levy by such taxing districts would be if the levy had not been made pursuant to ((section 5 of this 1971 amendatory act)) RCW 84.34.230, and

(2) He shall include for extension on the tax rolls the rates percent of the tax levies certified to him by all other taxing districts imposing taxes on such property, other than port districts and public utility districts, reduced by him in such uniform percentages as will bring the consolidated tax levy on such property within the provisions of such limitation.

Sec. 102. Section 84.52.052, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 3, Laws of 1973 and RCW 84.52.052 are each amended to read as follows:

The limitations imposed by RCW 84.52.050 through 84.52.056, and section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act shall not prevent the levy of additional taxes ((7 not in excess of five mills a year and without anticipation of delinquencies in payment of taxes, in an amount equal to the interest and principal payable in the next succeeding year on general obligation bonds, outstanding on December 6, 1934; issued by or through the agency of the state; or any county; city; town; or school district; or the levy of additional taxes to pay interest on or toward the reduction; at the rates provided by statute; of the principal of county; city; town; or school district warrants outstanding December 6, 1932; but this millage limitation with respect to general obligation bonds shall not apply to)) by any taxing district in which a larger levy is necessary in order to prevent the impairment of the obligation of contracts. Any county, school district, metropolitan park district, park and recreation district in class AA counties and counties of the second, eighth and ninth class, sewer district, water district, public hospital district, rural county library district, intercounty rural library district, fire protection district, cemetery district, city or town may levy taxes at a rate in excess of the rate specified in RCW 84.52.050 through 84.52.056 and section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act, or RCW 84.55.010 through 84.55.050, when authorized so to do by the electors of such county, school district, metropolitan park district, park and recreation district in class AA counties and counties of the second, eighth and ninth class, sewer district, water district, public hospital district, rural county library district, intercounty rural library district, fire protection district, cemetery district, city or town in the manner set forth in Article VII, section 2(a) of the Constitution of this state, as amended by Amendment 59 and as thereafter amended, at a special election to be held in the year in which the levy is made.

A special election may be called and the time therefor fixed by the board of county commissioners or other county legislative authority, board of school directors, or council, board of commissioners, or other governing body of any metropolitan park district, park and recreation district in class AA counties and counties of the second, eighth and ninth class, sewer district, water district, public hospital district, rural county library district, intercounty rural library district, fire protection district, cemetery district, city or town, by giving notice thereof by publication in the manner provided by law for giving notices of general elections, at which special election the proposition authorizing such excess ((levies)) levy shall be submitted in such form as to enable the voters favoring the proposition to vote 'yes' and those opposed thereto to vote 'no'.

Sec. 103. Section 84.52.054, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.52.054 are each amended to read as follows:

The additional tax provided for in subparagraph (a) of the seventeenth amendment to the state Constitution as amended by Amendment 59 and specifically authorized by RCW 84.52.052 shall be set forth in terms of dollars on the ballot of the proposition to be submitted to the voters, together with an estimate of the ((millage)) dollar rate of tax levy that will be required to produce the dollar amount; and the county assessor, in spreading this tax upon the rolls, shall determine the eventual ((millage)) dollar rate required to produce the amount of dollars so voted upon, regardless of the estimate of ((millage)) dollar rate of tax levy carried in said proposition.

Sec. 104. Section 84.52.056, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.52.056 are each amended to read as follows:

Any municipal corporation otherwise authorized by law to issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes may, at an election duly held after giving notice thereof as required by law, authorize the issuance of general obligation bonds for capital purposes only, which shall not include the replacement of equipment, and provide for the payment of the principal and interest of such bonds by annual levies in excess of the tax limitations contained in RCW 84.52.050 to 84.52.056, inclusive and section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act. Such an election shall not be held oftener than twice a calendar year, and the proposition to issue any such bonds and to exceed said tax limitation must receive the affirmative vote of a three-fifths majority of those voting on the proposition and the total number of persons voting at such election must constitute not less than forty percent of the voters in said municipal corporation who voted at the last preceding general state election.

Any taxing district shall have the right by vote of its governing body to refund any general obligation bonds of said district issued for capital purposes only, and to provide for the interest thereon and amortization thereof by annual levies in excess of the tax limitations provided for in RCW 84.51.050 to 84.52.056, inclusive and section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act.

Sec. 105. Section 9, chapter 92, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.52.063 are each amended to read as follows:

A rural library district may impose ((notwithstanding the millage limitations provided for in RCW 84.52.050 and 84.54.020)) a regular property tax levy in an amount equal to that which would be produced by a levy of ((two mills)) fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value multiplied by an assessed valuation equal to ((twenty-five)) one hundred percent of the true and fair value of the taxable property in the rural library district, as determined by the department of revenue's indicated county ratio: PROVIDED, That when any county assessor shall find that the aggregate rate of levy on any property will exceed the limitation set forth in section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act and RCW 84.52.050, as now or hereafter amended, before recomputing and establishing a consolidated levy in the manner set forth in RCW 84.52.010, the assessor shall first reduce the levy of any rural library district, by such amount as may be necessary, but the levy of any rural library district shall not be reduced to less than fifty cents per thousand dollars against the value of the taxable property, as determined by the county, prior to any further adjustments pursuant to RCW 84.52.010. For purposes of this section 'regular property tax levy' shall mean a levy subject to the ((forty mill)) limitations provided for in Article VII, section 2 of the state

Constitution and/or by statute.

Sec. 106. Section 1, chapter 33, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 25, chapter 299, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.52.065 are each amended to read as follows:

In each ((of the years 1967 and 1968 and 1969 and 1970 and 1971 and 1972)) year the state shall levy for collection in ((1968 and 1969 and 1970 and 1971 and 1972 and 1973 respectively)) the following year for the support of common schools of the state a tax of ((two mills)) three dollars and sixty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value upon the assessed valuation of all taxable property within the state adjusted ((to fifty percent of true and fair value of such property in money)) to the state equalized value in accordance with the indicated ratio fixed by the state department of revenue. ((Such levy shall be in addition to the levy for public assistance purposes as provided in RCW 74.04.150 and 84.52.050; as now or hereafter amended.))

Sec. 107. Section 22, chapter 288, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.55.030 are each amended to read as follows:

For the first levy for a taxing district following annexation of additional property, the limitation set forth in RCW 84.55.010 shall be increased by an amount equal to (1) the aggregate assessed valuation of the newly annexed property as shown by the current completed and balanced tax rolls of the county or counties within which such property lies, multiplied by (2) the ((millage)) dollar rate that would have been used by the annexing unit in the absence of such annexation, plus (3) the additional dollar amount calculated by multiplying the increase in assessed value in the annexing district resulting from new constructions and improvements to property by the regular property tax levy rate of that annexing taxing district for the preceding year.

Sec. 108. Section 23, chapter 288, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.55.040 are each amended to read as follows:

If by reason of the operation of section 134 of this 1973 amendatory act and RCW 84.52.050, as now or hereafter amended the statutory ((millage)) dollar rate limitation applicable to the levy by a taxing district has been increased over the statutory millage limitation applicable to such taxing district's levy in the preceding year, the limitation on the dollar rate amount of a levy provided for in this chapter shall be increased by multiplying the otherwise dollar limitation by a fraction, the numerator of which is the increased ((millage)) dollar limitation and the denominator of which is the ((millage)) dollar limitation for the prior year.

Sec. 109. Section 24, chapter 288, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.55.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to any otherwise applicable statutory ((millage)) dollar rate limitations, regular property taxes may be levied by or for a taxing district in an amount exceeding the limitations provided for in RCW 84.55.010 through 84.55.040 if such levy is authorized by a proposition approved by a majority of the voters of the taxing district voting on the proposition at a general election held within the district or at a special election within the taxing district called by the district for the purpose of submitting such proposition to the voters. Any election held pursuant to this section shall be held not more than twelve months prior to the date on which the proposed levy is to be made. The ballot of the proposition shall state the ((millage)) dollar rate proposed. After a levy authorized pursuant to this section is made, the dollar amount of such levy shall be used for the purpose of computing the limitations for subsequent levies provided for in this chapter.

Sec. 110. Section 84.56.180, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 5, chapter 124, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 84.56.180 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any person, firm or corporation, shall, subsequent to the first day of January of any year, bring or send into any county from outside the state any stock of goods or merchandise to be sold or disposed of in a place of business temporarily occupied for their sale, without the intention of engaging in permanent trade in such place, the owner, consignee or person in charge of the said goods or merchandise shall immediately notify the county assessor, and thereupon the assessor shall at once proceed to value the said stock of goods and merchandise at its true value, and upon ((fifty)) one hundred percent of such valuation the said owner, consignee or person in charge shall pay to the collector of taxes a tax at the rate assessed for state, county and local purposes in the taxing district in the year then current. And it shall not be lawful to sell or dispose of any such goods or merchandise as aforesaid in such taxing district until the assessor shall have been so notified as aforesaid and the tax assessed thereon paid to the collector. Every person, firm or corporation bringing into any county of this state from outside the state any goods or merchandise after the first day of January shall be deemed subject to the provisions of this section.

Sec. 111. Section 4, chapter 184, Laws of 1967 and RCW 85.15.030 are each amended to read as follows:

To operate under this chapter, the board of commissioners of the improvement district shall cause to be prepared and filed with the board of county commissioners a property roll. The roll shall contain: (1) A description of all properties benefited and improvements thereon which receive protection and service from the systems of the district with the name of the owner or the reputed owner thereof and his address as shown on the tax rolls of the assessor or treasurer of the county where in the property is located and (2) the determined value of such land and improvements thereon as last assessed and equalized by the assessor of such county or counties. Such assessed and equalized values shall be deemed prima facie to be just, fair and correct valuations against which annual ((millage)) taxes shall be levied for the operation of the district and the maintenance and expansion of its facilities.

If property outside of the limits of the original district are upon the roll as adopted ultimately, and the original district has outstanding bonds or long-term warrants, the board of county commissioners shall set up separate ((millage)) dollar rate levies for the full retirement thereof.

Sec. 112. Section 7, chapter 184, Laws of 1967 and RCW 85.15.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of county commissioners may at any time reexamine the properties on any roll, and upon receipt of a petition from the board of supervisors of the district or the written request of a property owner shall do so. If it is found that the condition of such property or properties has changed so that such property should be eliminated from any rolls on file, or the valuation against which ((millage)) dollar rate is levied should be lowered, it shall so determine and enter an order adjusting the valuation as to such properties and shall certify and file a copy thereof with the treasurer of the county wherein the property is situated, and the treasurer shall alter and change the existing rolls accordingly. Valuations may be revised periodically to reflect changes in real property valuations by the county assessor.

Sec. 113. Section 8, chapter 184, Laws of 1967 and RCW 85.15.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The roll approved and certified to the county officers by the board of county commissioners as in this chapter provided shall constitute the valuations of land, buildings and improvements furnished protection and services by the systems of the district against which valuation ((millage)) taxes shall be levied and collected annually in the same manner as general taxes for the continuing operations of the district and its systems. The valuations on said roll shall be subject to adjustment from time to time in the manner provided in RCW 85.15.060.

The board of county commissioners shall hold a hearing on such adjustments at the county seat at the time of equalization of real property assessments for the purpose of considering written objections to any revision of valuations filed at least ten days prior to the hearing and shall give published notice only of such hearing as provided in RCW 85.15.040.

Sec. 114. Section 15, chapter 184, Laws of 1967 and RCW 85.15.140 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((millage)) dollar rate levies collected from time to time under this chapter are solely assessments for benefits received continuously by the protected properties, calculated in the manner specified in this chapter as a just and equitable way for all protected property to share the expense of such required protection and services.

Sec. 115. Section 2, chapter 45, Laws of 1951 and RCW 85.18.010 are each amended to read as follows:

When any diking district has been organized and the improvements made afford protection to land and buildings within such district against damage or destruction from overflow waters in that the level of the land and of the foundational structures of buildings thereon is below the water level at flood or high tide stages of the waters, fresh or salt, against which such district improvements furnished protection, the board of diking commissioners of such district may, under the procedure established in this chapter, determine such fact and by resolution so declare; and may provide that the cost of continued functioning of the district shall be paid through levies of ((millage)) dollar rates made and collected according to this chapter against the land and buildings thus protected, based upon the determined base benefits received by such land and buildings.

Sec. 116. Section 4, chapter 45, Laws of 1951 and RCW 85.18.030 are each amended to read as follows:

After the roll is prepared the board shall give notice of a time and place at which the board will hold a public hearing to determine whether the facts and conditions heretofore recited in this chapter as a prerequisite to its application do or do not exist, and if so found to exist by said board at said hearing, then the board shall by resolution so declare. The notice shall also state that at said hearing, or any continuance thereof, the board will sit to consider said roll and to determine the continuous base benefits which each of the properties thereon are receiving and will receive from the continued operation and functioning of such district, which shall in no instance exceed ((fifty)) one hundred percent of the true and fair value of such property in money, will consider all objections made thereto or to any part thereof, and will correct, revise, lower, change, or modify such roll as shall appear just and equitable; that when correct benefits are fixed upon said roll by said board, it will adopt said roll by resolution as establishing, until modified as hereinafter provided, the continuous base benefit to said protected lands and buildings against which will be levied and collected ((millage)) dollar rates to provide funds for the continuous functioning of said district.

Sec. 117. Section 9, chapter 45, Laws of 1951 and RCW 85.18.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Until further modified, amended, or changed by an additional or supplemental roll certified to the county auditor after the foregoing procedure is had, the original roll, as modified or supplemented, if the same is done, shall serve as the base of benefits to the land and buildings protected by the improvement system of said district against which ((millage)) dollar rate is levied and collected from time to time for the continued functioning of said diking district.

Sec. 118. Section 16, chapter 45, Laws of 1951 and RCW 85.18.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((millage)) dollar rate levy returns collected from time to time under this chapter are solely assessments for benefits received continuously by the protected properties, calculated in the manner specified in this chapter as a just and equitable way for all protected property to share the expense of such required protection.

Sec. 119. Section 19, chapter 225, Laws of 1909 and RCW 85.24.250 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever it shall appear to the city council of any incorporated city or town not included or not wholly included within the limits of any diking or drainage district established hereunder, which incorporated city or town may be within a county in which a portion of such district is located that the construction and maintenance of such diking and drainage system will be beneficial to the health of the inhabitants of said incorporated city and to the general welfare of the said city, then the city council of said city is hereby empowered and authorized to appropriate such amount of money out of the general funds of the city as may to the city council seem proper and just to such diking and drainage system, or the city council may for such purpose levy an assessment upon all the property in said city subject to taxation by said city, which shall not exceed ~~((one-half mill for each dollar))~~ twelve and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value of property.

Sec. 120. Section 4, chapter 131, Laws of 1961 and RCW 85.32.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The board may: (1) Make initial determination that the district's facilities furnish benefit to improvements upon land as well as land alone within the district in protecting against and furnishing run-off for surface and/or flood waters; (2) Make initial determination that lands and improvements thereon outside of the territorial limits of the district are receiving a service from the facilities of the district, and are benefited thereby in that waters from such lands through ditches, drains, or other artificial methods, other than by natural flow or seepage, are so cast as to have outlet through the district's facilities; (3) Determine that properties so found to be served should pay a just proportion of the operational and maintenance costs of the district; (4) In connection with so finding, cause a roll of property thus served and benefited by the district's facilities to be prepared and filed with it, and give notice of a hearing thereon as provided in this chapter; (5) Hold public hearings to determine the ultimate facts and approve an ultimate roll of properties served and benefited by the facilities of the district and valuations thereof to serve as a basis against which annual ~~((millage))~~ dollar rate levy may be assessed for continuous benefits furnished such properties; make revision thereof as the facts warrant from time to time; provide for the levying of such ~~((millage))~~ dollar rate levy; and make return of such roll finally adopted by certifying and filing a copy thereof with the auditor, assessor and treasurer of the county wherein the properties involved are located.

Sec. 121. Section 5, chapter 131, Laws of 1961 and RCW 85.32.040 are each amended to read as follows:

In the initial instance, when the board of any district, desires to use the method and procedure provided in this chapter, and in order that uniformity may be had, it may cause a roll of all properties within the district claimed to be benefited by its drainage system, and in addition or as a part thereof, a roll of all properties outside of the territorial limits of said district claimed to be served and benefited by the drainage systems of said district, to be prepared and filed with it. Thereupon, the board shall by resolution declare:

(1) That it has made initial determination that the district's facilities are furnishing and will furnish service and benefit to the properties, including improvements thereon, described in such roll;

(2) That such roll has been filed with it and will remain so filed and open to inspection by any party interested therein at all reasonable times;

(3) That a public hearing will be held by the board at a time and place stated to give consideration to the facts and make ultimate determination of the same and to said roll;

(4) That when said roll is finally adopted, annual ((millage)) dollar rate levies will be made by the district against said properties based upon the valuation thereof as shown on said roll when ultimately adopted to raise money based on benefit and service for the continuous operation and maintenance of said district;

(5) That at the time of hearing, it will hear all objections filed and will review, adopt, modify, or revise said roll consistent with existing facts to the end that property receiving service and benefit from the facilities of the district shall pay justly and equitably therefor in proportion to benefit received and;

(6) That upon said hearing or adjournments thereof, the board will determine the ultimate facts concerning service and benefit received by all properties ultimately contained in said roll and as to such properties it will adopt the roll in final form and proceed as in this chapter provided.

Sec. 122. Section 6, chapter 131, Laws of 1961 and RCW 85.32.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The roll of properties referred to in this chapter shall contain (1) a description of all properties and improvements thereon, with the name of the owner or the reputed owner thereof and his address as shown on the tax rolls of the assessor or treasurer of the county wherein the property is located, and (2) the determined value of such land and improvements thereon as last assessed and equalized by the taxing agencies of such county. Such assessed and equalized values shall be deemed prima facie as a just, fair and correct base of value for consideration by the board in its determination ultimately of the just and correct base of value in each instance against which annual ((millage)) dollar rates shall be levied by the district for the operation of the district and the expansion and maintenance of its facilities.

If property outside of the territorial limits of the district are upon the roll as adopted ultimately, and the district has prior indebtedness existing, the board shall set up separate ((millage)) dollar rate levies for the retirement thereof until it is extinguished, which levies shall be applied solely against the properties within the territorial limits of the district. Adjustments of the roll shall be made before final adoption in such a manner that the money raised through annual ((millage)) dollar rate levies for maintenance, expansion and operational costs of the district in no instance shall exceed the value of the service rendered or to be rendered and the benefit received and to be received by the property involved.

Sec. 123. Section 7, chapter 131, Laws of 1961 and RCW 85.32.060 are each amended to read as follows:

When the board causes a property roll to be filed with it and a hearing to be held thereon as provided in this chapter, it shall give notice of such hearing in the following manner:

The notice shall be published at least three times in consecutive issues in a weekly newspaper, or once a week for three consecutive weeks in a daily newspaper, published in or near said district, and if there is more than one such paper, then in some paper chosen by the board having general circulation in the area involved. The last publication shall be more than fifteen days prior to date of hearing. The board also shall cause a copy of such notice to be mailed in regular course of the federal mail at least thirty days prior to the date of such hearing to the owner or reputed owner of such property at his address, all as shown on the tax rolls or records of the county taxing agencies of the county wherein the property is situated, such notice being deemed adequate and sufficient. The sworn affidavit of the one doing such mailing shall be deemed conclusive of the fact that such notice was mailed.

Such notice shall state the following:

(1) That the board has tentatively determined that the property of the owner or reputed owner named is receiving and will receive service and benefit from the facilities of the district;

(2) That the board has caused a tentative roll of such properties with any improvements thereon which are receiving and will receive such service and benefit to be filed with it; and that such roll shows a base of valuation thereon for said properties against which annual ((millage)) dollar rates will be levied and collected in the same manner as general taxes to pay the fair value of the benefit and service received and to be received by such property through use of the facilities of the district, and to pay the annual cost of operation, development and maintenance of the district and its facilities;

(3) That on a date, time and place stated, the board will give consideration to the facts and the roll, will hear all objections filed, will review said roll and alter, modify, or change the same consistent with facts established and with equity and fair dealing concerning the properties involved to the end that just levies will be made for service and benefits received and to be received against each property for the purposes mentioned; and at the hearing or continuance thereof, it will adopt the roll in final form and certify and file a copy thereof with the assessor and treasurer of the county wherein the property is located; and will cause annual millage to be levied against such established valuations for the purposes stated;

(4) That all persons desiring to object to the proceedings, to the proposed base valuations, or to any other thing or matter in connection with the proceedings, must file written objections with the board stating clearly the basis of such objection before the time of the hearing, or all objections will be deemed waived.

Sec. 124. Section 11, chapter 131, Laws of 1961 and RCW 85.32.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The board may at any time reexamine the properties on any roll, and upon request of an owner shall do so, and if it is found that the condition of such property or properties has changed so that justly such property should be eliminated from any rolls on file, or the base against which ((millage)) dollar rate is levied should be lowered, it shall so determine and make a supplemental roll with reference to such property or properties. When adopted by it, the board shall certify and file a copy thereof with the auditor, assessor and treasurer of the county wherein the property is situated, and such officer shall alter and change the existing rolls accordingly.

Sec. 125. Section 12, chapter 131, Laws of 1961 and RCW 85.32.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The roll certified to the county officers as in this chapter provided, and any modification thereof as provided, shall serve as the base of benefits as to land, buildings and improvements furnished service and benefit by the systems of the district against which valuations ((millage)) dollar rates shall be levied and collected in the same manner as general taxes from time to time for the continuing functioning of the district and its systems. The ((millage)) dollar rate shall be levied in the manner required by law for ((millage)) dollar rate levies by drainage districts.

Sec. 126. Section 13, chapter 131, Laws of 1961 and RCW 85.32.120 are each amended to read as follows:

If any property outside of the territorial limits of the district is placed upon a roll as finally adopted, and at the time such property becomes subject to charge for service and benefit from the district's system, there is an existing outstanding indebtedness owing by the district, the board shall make a separate estimate of the revenue required to be raised to pay or apply upon such indebtedness until it is extinguished, and it shall proceed and certify the same as hereinabove provided, and no ((millage)) dollar rate for raising revenue to extinguish such indebtedness shall be included in the levies made against any properties lying outside of the territorial limits of said district.

When thus levied, the amount of assessment produced thereby shall be added by the general taxing authorities to the general taxes against said lands and collected therewith as a part thereof. If unpaid, any delinquencies in such assessments shall bear interest at the same rate and in the same manner as general taxes and they shall be included in and be made a part of any general tax foreclosure proceedings according to the provisions of law with relation to such foreclosures. As assessment collections are made, the county treasurer shall credit same to the funds of such district.

Sec. 127. Section 22, chapter 131, Laws of 1961 and RCW 85.32.210 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((millage)) dollar rate levy returns collected from time to time under this chapter are solely assessments for benefits received continuously by the benefited properties, calculated in the manner specified in this chapter as a just and equitable way for all benefited property to share the expense of such required service.

Sec. 128. Section 4, chapter 154, Laws of 1967 and RCW 85.36.030 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of proportionately assessing the benefits of any project constructed, maintained, or operated by any diking district or drainage district, benefit assessments proportioned in a direct relationship to the assessed valuation as last equalized for general tax purposes of the lands benefited shall be deemed prima facie to be fair and correct valuations against which annual (~~millage~~) dollar rates shall be levied.

Sec. 129. Section 1, chapter 66, Laws of 1907 as amended by section 8, chapter 204, Laws of 1941 and RCW 86.12.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The county commissioners of any county may annually levy a tax, beginning with the year 1907, in such amount as, in their judgment they may deem necessary or advisable, but not to exceed (~~one mill~~) twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value upon all taxable property in such county, for the purpose of creating a fund to be known as 'river improvement fund.' There is hereby created in each such river improvement fund an account to be known as the 'flood control maintenance account.'

Sec. 130. Section 1, chapter 54, Laws of 1913 and RCW 86.13.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Wherever and whenever a river is or shall be the boundary line or part of the boundary line between two counties, or it, or its tributaries or outlet or part thereof, flows through parts of two counties, and the waters thereof have in the past been the cause of damage, by inundation or otherwise, to the roads, bridges or other public property situate in or to other public interests of both such counties, or the flow of such waters shall have alternated between the said counties so at one time or times such waters shall have caused damage to one county and at another time or times to the other county, and it shall be deemed by the boards of county commissioners of both counties to be for the public interests of their respective counties that the flow of such waters be definitely confined to a particular channel, situate in whole or in part in either county, in a manner calculated to prevent such alternation or to prevent or lessen damage in the future, it shall be lawful for the two counties, and their boards of county commissioners are hereby empowered, pursuant to resolution, to enter into a contract in writing in the names of the respective counties for the purpose of settling all disputes in relation to any such situation, and providing ways and means for the control and disposition of such waters. Any such contract may provide:

(1) That it shall be operative in perpetuity, or only for a term of years or other measure of time to be specified therein.

(2) The amount of money to be expended by each county during each year of the life of said contract, or such other method of determining the amount of expenditure or dividing the financial burden as may be agreed upon.

(3) That an annual tax shall be levied, at the same time and in the same manner as other county taxes are levied, each year during the life of the contract, by the county commissioners of each county. The annual tax herein provided for need not be levied at the same rate for each county, but shall be at such rate in each county as will produce annually the amount of money for each county as is required for the fulfillment of the contract on its part:

PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That in no event shall any such tax levy by either county exceed ((one mill on the dollar)) twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value for any one year.

(4) That the general scheme for the improvement of such river shall be as stated in such contract, but by consent of the contracting parties, pursuant to resolution of each board of county commissioners, such scheme may be modified from time to time during the life of the contract. The contract may but need not provide the details of such scheme, but must designate the general purpose to be accomplished. Any municipal corporation otherwise authorized by law to issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes may, at an election duly held after giving notice thereof as required by law, authorize the issuance of general obligation bonds for capital purposes only, which shall not include the replacement of equipment, and provide for the payment of the principal and interest of such bonds by annual levies in excess of the tax limitations contained in RCW 84.52.050 to 84.52.056, inclusive and section 135 of this 1973 amendatory act. Such an election shall not be held oftener than twice a calendar year, and the proposition to issue any such bonds and to exceed said tax limitation must receive the affirmative vote of a three-fifths majority of those voting on the proposition and the total number of persons voting at such election must constitute not less than forty percent of the voters in said municipal corporation who voted at the last preceding general state election.

Any taxing district shall have the right by vote of its governing body to refund any general obligation bonds of said district issued for capital purposes only, and to provide for the interest thereon and amortization thereof by annual levies in excess of the tax limitations provided for in RCW 84.51.050 to 84.52.056, inclusive and section 135 of this 1973 amendatory act.

Sec. 149. Section 8, chapter 92, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.52.061 are each amended to read as follows:

Any taxing district, as defined in RCW 84.04.120, authorized by provisions of law other than RCW 84.52.052 to levy taxes in excess of the ((~~forty mill~~)) limitation provided for in Article VII, (section 2 of the state Constitution, as amended ((~~by Amendment 47~~))), or in excess of a statutory millage limitation specifically applicable to such district, is hereby authorized to levy taxes in any year in excess of the applicable general limitation contained in RCW 84.52.050, as now or hereafter amended, or in excess of one-half of such specific statutory millage limitation, under the same conditions applicable to a levy by such district in excess of the (~~forty mill~~) limitation or in excess of such specific statutory millage limitation.

Sec. 150. Section 9, chapter 92, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 84.52.063 are each amended to read as follows:

A rural library district may impose (~~notwithstanding the millage limitations provided for in RCW 84.52.050 and 84.54.020~~) a regular property tax levy in an amount equal to that which would be produced by a levy of (~~two~~) one mill (~~s~~) multiplied by an assessed valuation equal to (~~twenty-five~~) fifty percent of the true and fair value of the taxable property in the rural library district, as determined by the department of revenue's indicated county ratio: PROVIDED, That when any county assessor shall find that the aggregate rate of levy on any property will exceed the limitation set forth in RCW 84.52.050, as now or hereafter amended, before recomputing and establishing a consolidated levy in the manner set forth in RCW 84.52.010, the assessor shall first reduce the levy of any rural library district, by such amount as may be necessary, but the levy of any rural library district shall not be reduced to less than one mill against the value of the taxable property, as determined by the county, prior to any further adjustments pursuant to RCW 84.52.010. For purposes of this section 'regular property tax levy' shall mean a levy subject to the (~~forty mill~~) one percentum limitation provided for in Article VII, section 2 of the state Constitution.

Sec. 151. Section 23, chapter 288, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 84.55.040 are each amended to read as follows:

If by reason of the operation of RCW 84.52.050 and section 135 of this 1973 amendatory act, as now or hereafter amended the statutory millage limitation applicable to the levy by a taxing district has been increased over the statutory millage limitation applicable to such taxing district's levy in the preceding year, the limitation on the dollar amount of a levy provided for in this chapter shall be increased by multiplying the otherwise dollar limitation by a fraction, the numerator of which is the increased millage limitation and the denominator of which is the millage limitation for the prior year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 157. If any provision of this 1973 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

House Bill No. 186 was ordered engrossed.

On motion of Mr. Thompson, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and Engrossed House Bill No. 186 was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Randall yielded to question by Mr. Bluechel.

Mr. Bluechel: "Mr. Randall, will you clarify for legislative intent the details of the 106 percent limit and whether it is in effect for the next taxable year?"

Mr. Randall: "The 106 percent expenditure limit that was referred to was the bill that passed this House in 1971, establishing as 1973 the date where a local government district could not impose more expenditures nor collect more taxes than 106 percent of the previous year. That was the law that passed, and we had suspended that limitation for two years. This bill takes that out now, and implements the 106 percent limit. We did not change the original intent, in effect. Our previous amendment did take off the cap. This now strikes that amended language and maintains the language we set in motion in 1971."

Representatives Kuehnle and Charette spoke in favor of the motion.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Kuehnle yielded to question by Mr. Zimmerman.

Mr. Zimmerman: "Mr. Kuehnle, in terms of Representative Charette's remarks, this bill is different in this sense: In the bill that we sent over, there was the local option to say 'yes, we want to have gambling.' Under this new bill, the local entities must say 'no, we do not want to have gambling.' So it is different in that sense from the bill we sent over. Is that correct?"

Mr. Kuehnle: "Yes, that is correct, Representative Zimmerman. This was the suggestion offered by the Attorney General."

Mr. Zimmerman: "That was the suggestion by the Attorney General, and that is the difference in what we did vote out of this House in terms of the local option. In other words, it is not under what we would say local option if you have to say 'no' to the statewide law, I would assume."

Mr. Williams spoke against the motion by Mr. Charette to concur in the Senate amendments.

The motion by Mr. Charette that the House concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 711 was carried.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mrs. Valle: "Mr. Speaker, I have a question. You know--several people have been asking me. I've been slow in voting at times, and you say 'Mrs. Valle.' And I request a serious answer. It is my understanding that when we are on Call of the House that we must vote. And how long do we have to make up our mind on a particular vote? Is it at the discretion of the Speaker? What do the rules really say about this? And I ask because several people have been asking me."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "Well, Representative Valle, you would have a reasonable length of time to make up your mind. The Speaker would be tolerant and understanding, with a fair amount of patience. However you should try to exercise good judgment. The only problem is that if someone is hesitant, and delaying the legislative process, of course we don't like that part of it, but if you have a real problem..."

Mrs. Valle: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. It is not my intent to delay the process, and you understand that. I ask this for informational purposes only. I have inserted in the record the reason for my delay on the last vote."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Charette, the House reverted to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

The Senate has concurred in the House amendment to SENATE BILL NO. 2570, and has passed the bill as amended by the House.

Bill Gleason, Assistant Secretary.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Charette, the House dispensed with further business under the Call of the House.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Charette: "Mr. Speaker, I have a small gift here that I want to give to the Governor. If I may come forward, I would like to give it to him."

The Speaker: "Permission granted."

Representative Charette presented Governor Evans with a plaque.

Governor Evans: "Thank you very much, Representative Charette. He presented something to me which I said on January 10th--'that I would rather cross the political aisle than cross the people.' That is only the second most important thing here. The most important was what Mr. Charette said when he stepped forward. He said he wanted to come up 'and give it to me,' which he has been doing all session long.

"I appreciate that very much. While I am here, and while you are waiting, I would like to take just a minute or two and say 'thank you' to all members of this House and all members of the Senate. (I think most of them are over here now.) I think this has been an exceptionally hard-working session--one in which many, many very important pieces of legislation were considered and handled. I have about two hundred of them on my desk right now that I haven't had a chance to look at yet. I will look at them carefully and considerately. But I do appreciate the real cooperation we have had--the sense of trying to accomplish what we are all down here to accomplish. I think we can all leave with a sense of a job that was reasonably well-done, at least. Not all will be equally happy, but I for one, will look forward to the September session because there are still some executive request bills I haven't had passed. If you do come back and do that job, I will be most appreciative. It has been a good session, Mr. Speaker. I have enjoyed very much working with you and working with the members of the House, and we do look forward to seeing you in September."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Juelsing: "Point of personal privilege, Mr. Speaker. I wonder if you would momentarily hand the gavel to Representative O'Brien so that I can adequately defend the Governor from what he might do."

The Speaker: "Momentarily."

The Speaker called on Mr. O'Brien to preside.

Mr. Juelsing presented Governor Evans with a hard hat.

Mr. Juelsing: "This hard hat goes back to that night in 1961."

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): "On occasion Mr. Juelsing has acted like you did, Governor Evans, that one evening in 1961. He still hasn't forgotten it. Mr. Juelsing has had that hat for some sort of protection, but I never really got that close."

Governor Evans: "I think he has filled my previous seat very well, and I hope he has given it to you as well as I tried to when I was sitting there. (I needed this a number of years ago, Helmie.)"

"Our Heavenly Father, as this mini-session of the legislature begins, we look to You for Divine guidance and assistance. Man at his best, Lord, is weak. We confess that today. We thank You, however, for the wonderful thing a human being can be. In fact, You said that we are Your children, if we truly accept Christ as our Savior. We thank You for such a holy relationship. Now, because of Your love for us, fill our minds with vital thought, our bodies with energy, and put vitality into our natures. Help these elected representatives of our state to live with power and vigor today. May this session be a tremendous experience for them all. In such a brief time, assist them in all they need to do. May they truly accomplish things that will benefit and lift. May there be a definite sign of Your hand in the affairs they undertake. May our motto be on this day, and through this session--'With God.' 'With God all things are possible.'

We say 'thank You' right now for all You will do, through us. In the Name of Jesus we pray. Amen."

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

September 8, 1973

TO THE HONORABLE,
THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON,
OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON.
MR. SPEAKER:

I, A. Ludlow Kramer, Secretary of State of the state of Washington and custodian of the Seal of said State, do hereby certify that: I have carefully compared the annexed copy of a proclamation by the Governor calling an extraordinary session of the Legislature to convene on the 8th day of September, 1973, with the original copy of said proclamation now on file in this office, and find the same to be a full, true and correct copy of said original, and the whole thereof, together with all official endorsements thereon.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have set my hand and affixed hereto the seal of the state of Washington. Done at the Capitol at Olympia on this the date of September 8, 1973.

(SEAL OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON)

A. LUDLOW KRAMER
Secretary of State.

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR

Office of the Governor

At the time of its adjournment sine die on April 15, 1973, the First Extraordinary Session of the Forty-third Legislature of the State of Washington had pending before it legislation of substantial importance to the citizens of our state. Much of the legislative work needed by the people of this state had not been completed. It is the apparent sentiment of a large number of members of the legislature that the unfinished work can be completed in another extraordinary session over a period of nine consecutive days during the month of September, 1973.

In the event such extraordinary session were called, the subjects of critical concern toward which the Legislature should direct its attention are:

1. Tax Reform. Action is needed to perfect the implementation of tax reform in the event HJR 37 is approved by the voters in November, 1973. A number of corrections and revisions must be made prior to January 1, 1974, in order to clarify portions of the implementing statute and to avoid possible instances of double taxation. Examples of specific changes required include delaying the effective date of special levies voted in 1973 until the final vote on HJR 37 is computed and the adding of definitions and rules of interpretation for administering the statute.

2. School Distribution Formula. It is vital that the school fund apportionment formula be modified to insure that the change in the state funding method which would result in the event of the passage of HJR 37 does not result in unforeseen hardship to any school district.

3. Four Percent County-City Allocation. Mechanics of implementation must be enacted to facilitate the transfer of the 4% allocation to counties and cities under the tax reform implementation statute in the event of passage of HJR 37.

4. Property Tax Increase Limit. A one-year deferral of the 106% property tax lid is required because of inequities which will result from the fact that there are areas in the state where revaluation has not been completed. The 106% limitation was originally enacted and was intended to go into effect only after all properties had been subject to revaluation.

5. Supplemental Security Income. Federal funding for various programs now in existence and administered by the state for aid to the elderly, blind and disabled stand to be completely lost unless changes are enacted before January, 1974, to conform to recent changes in federal legislation relating to such programs.

6. Economic Impact Act. A measure now pending before the legislature designed to alleviate the adverse social and economic effects to individuals and communities resulting from closure of state institutional facilities and programs is desperately needed to help the hundreds of persons affected by the closure of Northern State Hospital. If action on this measure is not taken in September, benefits provided thereunder will be lost for those individuals.

7. Energy Crisis. Anticipated energy shortages in the area of electrical power in addition to gasoline may severely impact the state during the coming winter without the enactment of legislation aimed at easing the shortages through the curtailment of electrical consumption and provision for generating additional capacity in the area.

8. Civil Commitment Law. Implementation of the recently enacted Civil Commitment Law must be delayed because of significant changes which were enacted so that administrative authorities are able to set up all proper procedures to protect fully the rights of all persons affected thereunder.

9. Budget Adjustments. Several adjustments in the state budget must be made before January, 1974, in order to take advantage of federal funds recently made available which could substantially aid a number of programs on the state level.

In addition, other matters of major significance which should be attended to by the Legislature insofar as time constraints of the extraordinary session will permit include: (1) Funding for public transportation to help in alleviating the problems created by our energy crisis; (2) Creation of a statewide planning and administrative structure in the area of transportation to preserve and further technical competence already acquired in this area, and to integrate the various social, economic and environmental considerations; (3) Funding for the Department of Ecology to continue its oil spill monitoring program in Puget Sound; (4) Statewide land use planning and management; and (5) Creation of a Department of Community Development committed to the coordination and furtherance of state and local community development and planning activities.

As a result of the foregoing matters which have not been attended to, an emergency exists constituting an extraordinary occasion within the meaning of Article III, Section 7, of the Constitution of the State of Washington.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Daniel J. Evans, Governor of the State of Washington, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution, do hereby convene the Legislature of the State of Washington in Extraordinary Session in the Capitol at Olympia on the eighth day of September, A.D. 1973, at the hour of nine o'clock a.m., and

I DO HEREBY SPECIFY, in accordance with the requirements of the Constitution that the purposes for which the Legislature is convened are:

To appropriate sufficient funds and raise sufficient revenues to carry on the necessary functions and services of state government; and

To consider the enactment of the several other measures specified above for the benefit of the people of the State of Washington.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the State of Washington to be affixed at Olympia, this 21st day of August, A.D. Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-three.

(SEAL OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON)

Governor.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

September 8, 1973

TO THE HONORABLE
THE SENATE AND THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

The convening of the 2nd Extraordinary Session of the 43rd Legislature presents a unique challenge. Those of us in the legislative and executive branches of government have an opportunity to demonstrate to the people of this state that we can conduct public affairs with efficiency and dispatch while at the same time the needs of the people are being met. We can show that representative government can and does work. In a time when the popular regard for the governmental process seems to be at a low ebb, this challenge is one which must be met.

While the state of the state is good, there is much to be done during this session. I believe there is general agreement among legislators and between the legislative and the executive as to the key issues which confront us, both budgetary and substantive. These matters are now before you and need not again be presented by me. The entire executive branch of government, the staff of the Office of the Governor and I, personally, are looking forward to working with you during the nine days of this extraordinary session. I am confident that on September 16 we will be able to say to the people of Washington that we wisely and properly conducted their business here in Olympia.

Sincerely,
DANIEL J. EVANS
Governor.

COMMITTEE FROM THE SENATE

Senators Grant, Fleming and Murray appeared at the bar of the House and reported that the Senate was organized and ready for business.

The committee retired.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The special committee, consisting of Representatives O'Brien, Thompson and Swayze, appointed under the provisions of House Concurrent Resolution No. 55 to notify the Governor, jointly with a committee from the Senate, that the legislature is organized and ready for business, appeared before the bar of the House and reported that the Governor had been notified.

BE IT RESOLVED, That the permanent house rules of the forty-third Legislature shall be adopted by this House as permanent rules of the House of Representatives, Second Extraordinary Session, forty-third Legislature, with the

Rule 19. Petitions, memorials or other papers addressed to the house may be presented by the speaker or any member, and shall not be debated or decided on the day of their being first read unless the house shall direct otherwise. Rule 55. 4. PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That during the second extraordinary session of the forty-third legislature the House Rules Committee may, by a majority vote, set a time limit for consideration of specific bills on second and third reading; after that time limit a majority of the members of the House may demand the previous question.

An affirmative or negative vote on the final passage of bills may be reconsidered only on the next working day after such vote has been taken: PROVIDED, That during the second extraordinary session of the forty-third legislature reconsideration can be had only on the day the vote to be reconsidered was taken.

Mr. Charette moved adoption of the resolution.

Mr. Swayze moved adoption of the following amendment to the resolution:

On page 2, line 30 delete the amendment to Rule 24

Representatives Swayze and Newhouse spoke in favor of the amendment, and Representative Charette spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Charette yielded to question by Mr. Morrison.

Mr. Morrison: "Representative Charette, important to this discussion of this particular rule change is the question: Have we in fact now introduced all the measures which were alive and before this body at the conclusion of the last legislative session?"

Mr. Charette: "Representative Morrison, I can't give you an absolute 'yes' to that question, and the reason that I can't is that I am sure both you and I would agree that we should not adopt any rule that would tell any member or this whole body that they can't introduce legislation while we are in session. Now I think that almost all, and probably all of the matters that are going to be considered, have been introduced. But because in this respect you are asking me to speak for 97 other people, I can't give you a positive answer."

Mr. Morrison: "I don't think you quite understood the question, Representative Charette. Were all the measures that were before us and not passed throughout the legislative process reintroduced now due to the passage of House Concurrent Resolution No. 56 of which you are prime sponsor?"

Mr. Charette: "Yes."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Morrison: "Mr. Speaker, I would ask you to refer to the Constitution of the State of Washington, please, Article II, section 36. It relates precisely to the rule that is in front of us. The section talks about when bills must be introduced. It points out that this is in fact a deliberative body, and any bill not introduced ten days before the final adjournment of the legislature must be advanced and moved along only by a two-thirds vote of the body."

The Speaker: "I think, Representative Morrison, if you continue reading the remainder of the constitutional amendment, section 36, it says '...unless the same be at a special session.' I am under the impression that we are in a special session."

Mr. Pardini spoke in favor of the amendment by Mr. Swayze to House Resolution No. 147, and Mr. O'Brien spoke against it.

Mr. Curtis demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

Mr. Pullen spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the amendment by Mr. Swayze to House Resolution No. 147, and the amendment was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 54; not voting, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Amen, Barden, Benitz, Berentson, Blair, Bluechel, Brown, Charnley, Curtis, Eikenberry, Flanagan, Freeman, Garrett, Gilleland, Hansey, Hayner, Hendricks, Hoggins, Jueling, Julin, Kraabel, Kuehnle, Leckenby, Matthews, Moon, Morrison, Nelson, Newhouse, North L., Pardini, Paris, Patterson, Polk, Pullen, Rabel, Schumaker, Smythe, Swayze, Tilly, Williams, Wilson, Zimmerman.

Voting nay: Representatives Adams, Anderson, Bagnariol, Bauer, Bausch, Beck, Bender, Ceccarelli, Charette, Chatalas, Clemente, Conner, Douthwaite, Ehlers, Ellis, Eng, Erickson, Fortson, Gaines, Gallagher, Gaspard, Goltz, Hansen, Haussler, Hurley, Jastad, Johnson, Kalich, Kelley, Kilbury, King, Knowles, Laughlin, Luders, Lysen, Martinis, Maxie, May, McCormick, North F., O'Brien, Parker, Perry, Randall, Savage, Shipoch, Smith, Sommers, Thompson, Valle, Van Dyk, Warnke, Wojahn, and Mr. Speaker.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Barden: "Mr. Speaker, the Clerk just read in some bills that were transmitted apparently this morning from the Senate to the House, which I notice are on the calendar, and I wonder--they were apparently not in the custody of the Rules Committee at the time they were voted onto the calendar. Is that proper parliamentary procedure?"

The Speaker: "You are perfectly correct, Representative Barden. The calendar, although set forth as an official calendar, is only an advisory calendar. Therefore we will have to take action to make this a calendar of the day. This was purely for informational purposes to the members of what is being considered to be presented to them this morning. It was just a procedural matter that we had worked out."

MOTION

Mr. Charette moved that the Rules Committee be relieved of the bills listed on the advisory calendar (SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 221, ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 302, HOUSE BILL NO. 458, SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 519, ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 785, HOUSE BILL NO. 1006, HOUSE BILL NO. 1011, ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1026 and ENGROSSED HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 6) and that they be placed on today's third reading calendar.

MOTION

Mr. Newhouse moved to delete SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 519, ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 785 and ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1026 from the motion by Mr. Charette.

Representatives Newhouse and Swayze spoke in favor of the motion, and Mr. Conner spoke against it.

Mr. Chatalas demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

REQUEST FOR DIVISION OF QUESTION

Mr. Swayze requested that the question be divided.

MOTION

Mrs. Hurley moved that the question be divided, and that each House bill be considered separately.

The motion by Mrs. Hurley was lost on a rising vote.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Swayze: "Rule 60 of the permanent rules of the House, which have now been adopted with the amendments in Resolution No. 147 remained unchanged and provides:

'Any member may call for a division of a question, which shall be divided if it embraces subjects so distinct that one being taken away a substantive proposition shall remain for the decision of the House.'

"My call for that division of the question which I think fits that rule perfectly was pending and was not ruled on at the time the motion to divide was made. There was business pending before this House. That motion was out of order. My call, I think, under Rule 60 has to be honored by the Chair and the question divided since there are three distinct, substantive propositions involved in the motion."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker: "Mr. Swayze, in regard to the point of order you raised, the Speaker rules that the point of order should have been raised prior to the placing of the motion and the action of the House thereon. Therefore the Speaker will rule that the action of the House will stand."

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the motion by Mr. Newhouse.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion by Mr. Newhouse to delete Substitute House Bill No. 519, Engrossed House Bill No. 785 and Engrossed House Bill No. 1026 from the motion by Mr. Charette, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 35; nays, 62; not voting, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Amen, Benitz, Berentson, Bluechel, Cunningham, Curtis, Eikenberry, Flanagan, Freeman, Garrett, Gilleland, Hansey, Hayner, Hendricks, Hoggins, Jueling, Julin, Kraabel, Kuehnle, Leckenby, Matthews, Morrison, Nelson, Newhouse, North L., Pardini, Patterson, Polk, Pullen, Schumaker, Smythe, Swayze, Tilly, Wilson, Zimmerman.

Voting nay: Representatives Adams, Anderson, Bagnariol, Barden, Bauer, Bausch, Beck, Bender, Blair, Brown, Ceccarelli, Charette, Charnley, Chatalas, Clemente, Conner, Douthwaite, Ehlers, Ellis, Eng, Erickson, Fortson, Gaines, Gallagher, Gaspard, Goltz, Hansen, Haussler, Hurley, Jastad, Johnson, Kalich, Kelley, Kilbury, King, Knowles, Laughlin, Luders, Lysen, Martinis, Maxie, May, McCormick, Moon, North F., O'Brien, Paris, Parker, Perry, Rabel, Randall, Savage, Shipoch, Smith, Sommers, Thompson, Valle, Van Dyk, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, and Mr. Speaker.

Not voting: Representative Kopet.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

On the motion by Representative Newhouse to not relieve the Rules Committee and place on the calendar several controversial bills, I voted for the motion for these reasons:

(1) The three measures are highly controversial, therefore divisive and force rigid partisanship;

(2) They have not had any consideration in committees since the last session;

(3) They do not fall in the category of top priority, emergency legislation essential for the state--some not possibly able to take effect until late 1974;

(4) Their being listed merely delays action on more vital legislation, such as energy crisis, tax revisions, budget revisions, forest practices, and other subjects listed as priorities by majority leadership in both Houses and the Governor.

HAROLD S. (HAL) ZIMMERMAN,
17th District.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the motion by Mr. Charette that the Rules Committee be relieved of the bills listed on the advisory calendar and that they be placed on today's third reading calendar.

REQUEST FOR DIVISION OF QUESTION

Mr. Julin demanded a division of the question.

SPEAKER'S INQUIRY

The Speaker: "Division of what question?"

Mr. Julin: "The question before the House, Mr. Speaker, is the motion to relieve the Rules Committee of a number of bills. They embrace very many different subjects, and I am asking that the motion be now divided so we can vote separately."

The Speaker declared the House to be at ease.
The Speaker called the House to order.

With the consent of the House, Mr. Julin withdrew the demand for a division of the question.

Mr. Eikenberry spoke against the motion by Mr. Charette.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Charette: "Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that Representative Eikenberry isn't speaking to the motion. He is making a speech about something else, I assume, although I can't understand him."

The Speaker: "Representative Eikenberry, if you could confine your remarks to the motion before us. Will you proceed?"

Mr. Eikenberry concluded his remarks in opposition to the motion by Mr. Charette.

The motion by Mr. Charette was carried.

Mr. Barden spoke in favor of the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Parker: "Mr. Speaker, Mr. Barden seems to be evading the question. That was the purpose of putting the bill on the calendar. If he would like to rerefer it, he should restrict his remarks to returning it to the committee."

The Speaker: "Representative Parker, I think it is well within the context on remarks on a motion to rerefer to tell the body why you think the bill should be rereferred for purposes of amendment. Otherwise the body would be voting rather in the dark."

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Although earlier this year I voted for this bill, I have changed my mind for the following reasons:

At a time when inflation needs controlling, when the federal government is already dealing with the subject, when Washington State should not put itself in a less competitive position with other states, we should try to "hold the line" on all additional economic factors that press inflation up. Retired people, whose income is fixed, will be adversely affected by anything that will push up costs and prices without a consequent increase in real productivity. Young people need jobs and must get experience. Raising the minimum wage will mean fewer jobs for young people needing job experience. The issue is more political than essential in this priority session.

The part of the refund representing amounts paid to the state shall be paid from the county general fund and the state auditor shall, upon the next succeeding settlement with the county, certify this amount refunded to the county: PROVIDED, That when a mass refund of state levies is directed by court order, the state auditor and department of revenue shall authorize adjustment procedures whereby counties may deduct from property tax remittances to the state the amount required to cover the state's portion of the refunds.

Sec. 2. Section 84.69.070, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 114, Laws of 1963 and

RCW 84.69.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Refunds ordered with respect to taxing districts shall be paid by checks drawn by the county treasurer upon such available funds, if any, as the taxing districts may have on deposit in the county treasury, or in the event such funds are insufficient, then out of funds subsequently accruing to such taxing district and on deposit in the county treasury. When such refunds are made as a result of taxes paid under levies or statutes adjudicated to be illegal or unconstitutional all administrative costs incurred by the county treasurer in making such refunds shall be a charge against the funds of such districts and/or the state on a pro rata basis until the county current expense fund is fully reimbursed for the administrative expenses incurred in making such refund: PROVIDED, That whenever orders for refunds of ad valorem taxes promulgated by boards of county commissioners and unpaid checks shall expire and become void as provided in RCW 84.69.110, then any moneys remaining in a refund account established by the county treasurer for any taxing district may be transferred by the county treasurer from such refund account to the county current expense fund to reimburse the county for the administrative expense incurred in making refunds as prescribed herein. Any excess then remaining in the taxing district refund account may then be transferred by the county treasurer to the current expense fund of the taxing district for which the tax was originally levied and collected.

September 8, 1973

HOUSE BILL NO. 191, Prime sponsor: Representative Randall, relating to revenue and taxation, reported by Committee on Ways and Means.

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature hereby recognizes that voter approval of House Joint Resolution No. 37 (authorizing a state income tax) at a general election held in November, 1973, will also result in decreased revenues received by cities, towns, counties, and other taxing districts from locally levied taxes. The legislature further finds it necessary and desirable to reimburse and compensate these units of local government to minimize any loss or disruption in the revenue flow and the governmental services provided therewith. Therefore, the legislature does hereby establish a formula by which to distribute, on the basis of population and population concentrations, a portion of state income tax revenues to units of local government to offset revenue losses resulting from the state imposed exemptions on food and prescription drugs from the sales tax and business inventories from the personal property tax.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Revenues derived by the state imposed net income tax which are to be used exclusively for distribution to municipal corporations other than school districts as directed by section 59, chapter 141, Laws of 1973 first extraordinary session shall be placed in the local government sales, use, and inventory tax replacement fund which is hereby created in the state general fund. The state treasurer shall distribute moneys from such fund in the manner set forth in sections 3 through 7 of this 1973 act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) For replacement of inventory tax revenue, there shall be allocated and distributed $2,600,000 for the 1973-75 fiscal biennium, and in each subsequent biennium such amount as may be directed by the legislature. Thirty-six percent of the total for each biennium shall be distributed to cities and towns, fifty-two percent to counties, and twelve percent to public utility districts, port districts, and the taxing districts authorized by law to receive a portion of the regular property tax levy, except school districts, cities, towns, and counties.

(2) The total revenue distributable to all cities and towns pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be distributed in each fiscal biennium in accordance with the following factors:

(a) Fifty percent to all cities and towns;

(b) Fifty percent to cities of 20,000 or more population.

Each city or town shall share in the amount distributed under each factor in the proportion which its population bears to the total population of all cities and/or towns receiving funds under that factor: PROVIDED, That no city or town shall receive in any year less than ninety-five percent of the amount received the previous year from remaining taxes on business inventories and state allocated replacement revenues.

(3) The total revenues distributable to all counties each biennium pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be distributed in each fiscal biennium in accordance with the following factors:

(a) Fifty percent to all counties;

(b) Fifty percent to counties with unincorporated population in excess of 20,000.

Each county shall share in the amount distributed under each factor in the proportion which its population bears to the total population of all counties receiving funds under such factors: PROVIDED, That no county shall receive in any year less than ninety-five percent of the amount received the previous year from remaining taxes on business inventories and state allocated replacement revenues.

(4) From the total revenues distributable pursuant to subsection (1) of this section to public utility districts, port districts, the taxing districts authorized by law to receive a portion of the regular property tax levy, except school districts, cities, towns, and counties, each such eligible district shall receive an amount equal to the total amount multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the amount of revenue reduction incurred by such district from the business inventory tax phase-out, and the denominator of which is such aggregate revenue reduction incurred by all districts eligible to receive funds under this subsection. No such district shall receive an amount under this subsection in 1979 or any year thereafter in excess of the amount received by such district in 1978.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. To compensate cities, towns, counties, and metropolitan municipal corporations authorized to impose a retail sales and use tax pursuant to chapter 82.14 RCW for revenue reductions incurred due to the exemption of food products and prescription drugs from the sales and use tax, the state treasurer shall distribute:

(1) To cities, towns, and counties bimonthly and together with local sales and use tax distributions as provided by RCW 82.14.060, beginning in April of 1974 and continuing through June of 1975 the sum of thirteen million dollars, and in each biennium thereafter such amount as the legislature shall direct. Each city, town, or county shall receive an amount equal to the total bimonthly amount being distributed multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the population of the city or town or the unincorporated population of the county, as the case may be, and the denominator of which is the total population of this state;

(2) To metropolitan municipal corporations the sum of two million six hundred thousand dollars in nine equal payments of two hundred eighty-eight thousand dollars beginning in April of 1974. Each metropolitan municipal corporation shall receive an amount equal to the total amount of each such installment multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the population of such metropolitan municipal corporation, and the denominator of which is the population of all metropolitan municipal corporations eligible to receive funds pursuant to this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The population data needed by the state treasurer to calculate the population distribution factors shall be determined and provided by the state office of program planning and fiscal management.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The state department of revenue with the assistance of the interested county assessors and treasurers shall determine the revenue reductions incurred by each local government taxing district eligible to receive funds pursuant to this 1973 act and shall provide such data to the state treasurer at such time and in such manner as the state treasurer may prescribe.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Prior to each regular session of the legislature the state department of revenue shall determine the revenue losses incurred by the various units of local government from the exemption of food and prescription drugs from the sales and use tax and the phaseout of the personal property tax on business inventories and report its conclusions to that session of the legislature. Such report shall indicate the aggregate loss to each type of local governmental unit and shall include the projected appropriation and the distribution formula recommended to fairly distribute replacement revenues in accordance with the provisions of this 1973 act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 1 through 7 of this 1973 act are each added to chapter 141, Laws of 1973 ex. sess. and to Title 82A RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The provisions of this 1973 act shall take effect on January 1, 1974 if the proposed amendment to Article 7 of the state Constitution authorizing the legislature to impose a tax upon net income and to authorize property tax relief is validly submitted and is approved and ratified by the voters at a general election held in November, 1973. If such proposed amendment is not so submitted and approved and ratified, this 1973 act shall be null and void in its entirety."

Except as provided in RCW 84.55.020 through 84.55.050, the levy in 1973 and years subsequent thereto for a taxing district other than the state or a school district in any year shall be set so that the regular property taxes payable in the following year shall not exceed one hundred six percent of the amount of regular property taxes lawfully levied for such district in the highest of the three most recent years in which such taxes were levied for such district plus an additional dollar amount calculated by multiplying the increase in assessed value in that district resulting from new construction and improvements to property by the regular property tax levy rate of that district for the preceding year: PROVIDED, That if such taxing district is a county, or is located within a county or counties, in which the property is being revalued in accordance with a cyclical revaluation program commencing in or after 1969 pursuant to the requirements of RCW 84.41.030 and the revaluation of the property within such taxing district has not been fully completed prior to certification of the tax rolls for levies made in 1972, then the provisions of this section shall not be applicable for levies made in 1973 by those taxing districts in which all the property has not been valued or revalued: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if a taxing district has not levied in the three most recent years and elects to restore a regular property tax levy subject to applicable statutory limitations then such first restored levy shall be set so that the regular property tax payable shall not exceed the amount which could have been lawfully levied in ((1973)) the year in which the limitation imposed pursuant to this section becomes applicable, plus an additional dollar amount calculated by multiplying the increase in assessed value in the district since ((1973)) the year in which the limitation imposed pursuant to this section becomes applicable resulting from new construction and improvements to property by the property tax rate which is proposed to be restored, or the maximum amount which could be lawfully levied in the year such a restored levy is proposed; AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the levy by a county is reduced from what it would otherwise be if this section did not exist, the levy limitations set forth in RCW 70.12.010,

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Sommers yielded to question by Mr. Julin.

Mr. Julin: "Representative Sommers, the dividing line here for allocation in this formula is 20,000 or more population. I have two questions: (1) What was the basis for making that decision, which obviously must have been an arbitrary one? You had to pick a number someplace. (2) Secondly, and of more concern to me is: Who determines, and what is the base for determining the population? And is it the population of 20,000 or less on the effective date of this act, or at any future time when the municipality increases its population to 20,000 or more?"

Ms. Sommers: "The basis for calculation (I will answer your second question first)--the basis for calculation is outlined in section 5 and section 6, I think. There are administrative procedures for the calculation of population. There is no date stipulated there. The reason for the cut-off of 20,000, or the reasons, were two actually--two different types of reasons: One, the cities and counties, unincorporated population, exceeding these figures generally correlate pretty accurately with those counties and cities where industry is located, and where the inventory tax is paid. You will note that this applies to the inventory tax portion only. And so in that instance we were recognizing some kind of relative replacement factor. The other reason is that we attempted to recognize the increasing need for services given urban density, as implied in the prior grant fund to local government and as implied in the general revenue sharing fund by the federal government. If you look at the population of cities and towns, I don't have them right here at my fingertips, but it seems to be, according to the latest population figures, a pretty good breaking point. And the last figures we had, there were no cities or counties that were just at the 19,000 level, or to my recollection, none at the 18,000 level either, and therefore it seems to be an appropriate breaking point."

Mr. Julin: "Again for the purpose of making clear the intent of the legislature, I would ask Representative Sommers to yield to another question: Is it clearly the intent of this measure that as a municipality, or a county's population, reaches 20,000 or more, that it will then become eligible for the additional 50 percent allocation under this measure?"

Mrs. Sommers: "That is my understanding, yes."

Mr. Pardini spoke again in favor of adoption of the amendments to the amendment, and Representatives Randall and Bluechel spoke against adoption of the amendments to the amendment.

The amendments to the amendment were lost.

Mr. Pardini moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment to House Bill No. 191: On page 2 of the printed committee amendment, section 3, line 18 after "than" and before "percent" strike "ninety-five" and insert "one hundred"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Sommers yielded to question by Mr. Douthwaite.

Mr. Douthwaite: "The question I have, Representative Sommers, deals with the point made by Representative Swayze. On lines 18, 19 and 20, it says 'if such taxing district is a county, or is located within a county or counties,' etc. This does not mean that we are talking about simply counties, does it? We are talking about taxing districts. If they are a county, you are right, Mr. Swayze, but they are not necessarily counties as I understand it. Would you clarify this please?"

Ms. Sommers: "It is my understanding that the language would include all kinds of taxing districts, whether they be counties, cities, fire districts, etc. We have frankly gone round and round with the lawyers on this language and we thought that it was clear in this version. I would like to have the language clear and satisfactory to everyone."
